“Now he that ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness” (2 Cor.9:10).

“For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ” (Eph.4:12-13).

“But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil” (Heb.5:14).

“But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever” (2 Pt.3:18).

3. Young men, the mature believers, must remember three things.

a. Mature believers must remember that they are strong. They must know their strength and be assured and have confidence in the strength they have gained. But mature believers must remember where their strength comes from and how they became spiritually strong: all through Jesus Christ. Note: believers must never trust the power of the flesh, of mental determination. The flesh and the mind fail. Neither can be consistently strong in controlling the flesh. Both mind and body will eventually weaken and fail in spiritual warfare.

“I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing” (Jn.15:5).

“But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth” (Acts 1:8).

“Now to him that is of power to stablish you according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began, but now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith: to God only wise, be glory through Jesus Christ for ever” (Ro.16:25-27).

“Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God” (2 Cor.3:5).

“And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ’s sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong” (2 Cor.12:9-10).

“That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man” (Eph.3:16).

“Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness” (Col.1:11).

b. Mature believers must remember that the Word of God abides in them. This is the key to spiritual growth and to pleasing and securing the approval of God. No matter what a person may think or say, there is no spiritual growth apart from God’s Word. No person pleases or secures God’s approval without studying and living in God’s Word. Mature believers must never forget this, and they must continue to give their lives to studying and living in the Word of God.

“These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so” (Acts 17:11).

“And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified” (Acts 20:32).

“Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord” (Col.3:16).

“Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth” (2 Tim.2:15).

“All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness” (2 Tim.3:16).

“As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby: if so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious” (1 Pt.2:2-3).

- c. Mature believers must remember that they have overcome the wicked one (see note, pt.3—1 Jn.2:12-13 for discussion).

DIVISION III

THE PROOF THAT ONE REALLY KNOWS GOD: SEVEN TESTS, 2:3-29

D. Test 4: Loving Not the World, 2:15-17

(2:15-17) Introduction: How do we know if we really know God? (See note—1 Jn.2:3-6 for introductory discussion.) This is the fourth test that proves whether or not we know God: Do we love the world? If a person loves the world, he does not know God. No matter what a person may feel or think, the Scripture is clear, and it is forceful in its statement: the person who loves the world does not know God.

1. The test: do we love the world (v.15)?
2. The professing man (v.15-16).
3. The obedient man: is immortal (v.17).

1 (2:15) World—Worldliness: the test is clearly stated—do we love the world? A believer can tell whether or not he knows God by taking this test. He can examine his life and see if he loves the world. What is meant by the world? Does this mean that we are not to appreciate the beauty, splendor, and resources of the earth and heavens? No! For we live of the earth, and God has given us the earth and the heavens in which to live, appreciate, and enjoy. What, then, does Scripture mean by the world and love not the world?

- ⇒ The world means the earth and the heavens that are passing away. The world is corruptible and deteriorating and will eventually be destroyed. Therefore, believers must not become attached to the world; they must be attached to God and to heaven. Believers are not to love the world so much that they desire to stay here more than they desire to be with God in heaven.
- ⇒ The world is a system of man-made governments and societies, some good and some bad, but none perfect. Therefore, believers must respect and be loyal to the good, but reject and stand against the bad. Believers must love none of them, not to the point that they are more attached to the systems of man’s organizations than they are to God and heaven.
- ⇒ The world means a system of sin and lust and evil and pride and rebellion against God. The world is full of sinful people, people who are evil and full of lust and pride; it is full of people who are in rebellion against God. Therefore, believers must not love this sinful system of the world.

A person is not to love this world, the possessions and pleasures of this world; he is to love God. Of course, he is to appreciate and enjoy the beauty and the good things of both the earth and the heavens. But he is not to become more attached to this world than he is to God and heaven. The believer’s eyes are to be focused upon God, and he is to be attached to God, loving God before all else.

“And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God” (Ro.12:2).

“And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away” (1 Cor.7:31).

“But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world” (Gal.6:14).

“No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier” (2 Tim.2:4).

“By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh’s daughter; choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season” (Heb.11:24-25).

“Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him” (1 Jn.2:15).

“If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you” (Jn.15:19).

“And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them” (Eph.5:11).

“Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us” (2 Th.3:6).

2 (2:15-16) Lust—Flesh—Eyes—Pride: there is the professing man. Note that a particular man is being talked about here, the man who loves the world. And note in verse 17 that another man is being talked about, the man who does the will of God. The first man is the professing man, the man who makes a false profession; the second man is the obedient man, the man who does exactly what God says. Four things are pointed out about the professing man.

1. The professing man loves the world. He loves and is attached more to this world than he is to God. The people to whom John is writing are church members. They have professed Christ, yet John is having to charge them not to love the world. Some in the church had returned or were apparently about to return to the world. Scripture pronounces the terrible truth: “the love of the father is not in [them].” Any person who loves the world does not love the Father.

Thought 1. Three things happen to believers that cause them to return to the world and to love the world.

- 1) Some begin to enjoy nature and the beauty of the earth so much that they no longer worship regularly. They forsake the worship of God and the study of His Word in order to be out in nature (cp. fishing, golfing, hiking, camping, and other forms of recreation out in nature).
 - 2) Some become so involved in man’s government and social organizations that they become more attached and faithful to them than they do to God and His church and its mission of salvation.
 - 3) Some become so hungry for the world and its things that they begin to return to its pleasures and possessions.
2. The professing man follows after the world. There are three sins of worldliness.
- a. There is the lust of the flesh. The flesh has to do with feeling, touching, tasting, smelling, hearing, and seeing. It is the seat of desires and urges. Note that desires and urges are not wrong. A man has to have desires and urges in order to live a healthy and normal life. But the desires of the flesh have to be controlled. If they are not controlled, then the flesh begins to desire and lust more and more. There are two times when the desires and urges of the flesh are wrong:
 - ⇒ when the flesh desires something that is directly forbidden by God. (For example, sex is not wrong within marriage, but adultery and fornication [pre-marital sex] are wrong. One helping of food is not wrong, but several helpings is gluttony.)
 - ⇒ when the flesh desires and desires and consumes and consumes, then it becomes indulgence and license. For example, we must desire food in order to maintain life. But if the flesh desires and desires food in order to consume and indulge, then food is wrong. Too much cake is wrong. The desire has become lust, consumption, indulgence, and license.

What are the sins of the flesh? They are far more than what people usually think, far more than just the immoral sins of society. The works of the flesh are these (see outline and notes—Gal.5:19-21):

- ⇒ Adultery: sexual unfaithfulness to husband or wife. It is also looking on a woman or a man to lust after her or him. Looking at and lusting after the opposite sex whether in person, magazines, books, on beaches or anywhere else is adultery. Imagining and lusting within the heart is the very same as committing the act.
- ⇒ Fornication: a broad word including all forms of immoral and sexual acts. It is pre-marital sex and adultery; it is abnormal sex, all kinds of sexual vice.
- ⇒ Uncleanness: moral impurity; doing things that dirty, pollute, and soil life.
- ⇒ Lasciviousness: filthiness, indecency, shamelessness. A chief characteristic of the behavior is open and shameless indecency. It means unrestrained evil thoughts and behavior.
- ⇒ Idolatry: the worship of idols, whether mental or made by man’s hands; the worship of some idea of what God is like, of an image of God within a person’s mind; the giving of one’s primary devotion (time and energy) to something other than God. (See note, Idolatry—1 Cor.6:9 for detailed discussion.)
- ⇒ Witchcraft: sorcery; the use of drugs or of evil spirits to gain control over the lives of others or over one’s own life. In the present context it would include all forms of seeking the control of one’s fate including astrology, palm reading, seances, fortune telling, crystals, and other forms of witchcraft.
- ⇒ Hatred (echthrai): enmity, hostility, animosity. It is the hatred that lingers and is held for a long time; a hatred that is deep within.
- ⇒ Variance (ereis): strife, discord, contention, fighting, struggling, quarreling, dissension, wrangling. It means that a man strives against another person in order to get something: position, promotion, property, honor, recognition. He deceives, doing whatever has to be done to get what he is after.
- ⇒ Emulations (zeloi): wanting and desiring to have what someone else has. It may be material things, recognition, honor, or position.
- ⇒ Wrath (thumoi): indignation; a violent, explosive temper; anger; quick and explosive reactions that arise from stirred and boiling emotions. But it is anger which fades away just as quickly as it arose. It is not anger that lasts.
- ⇒ Strife (eritheiai): conflict, struggle, fight, contention, faction, dissension; a party spirit, a cliquish spirit.
- ⇒ Seditious (dichostasiai): division, rebellion, standing against others, splitting off from others.
- ⇒ Heresies (aireseis): rejecting the fundamental beliefs of God, Christ, the Scriptures, and the church; believing and holding to some teaching other than the truth.
- ⇒ Envyings (phthonoi): this word goes beyond jealousy. It is the spirit...
 - that wants not only the things that another person has, but begrudges the fact that the person has them.
 - that wants a person to lose the things he has, and wants him to suffer through the loss of them.

- ⇒ Murders (phonoï): to kill, to take the life of another person. Murder is sin against the sixth commandment.
 - ⇒ Drunkeness (methai): taking drink or drugs to affect one's senses for lust or pleasure; becoming tipsy or intoxicated; partaking of drugs; seeking to loosen moral restraint for bodily pleasure.
 - ⇒ Revellings (komoi): carousing; uncontrolled license, indulgence, and pleasure; taking part in wild parties or in drinking parties; lying around indulging in feeding the lusts of the flesh.
- b. There is the lust of the eyes. The eyes have to do with seeing and wanting to have what one sees. Again, there is nothing wrong with desiring what we see. Seeing and desiring is normal. It becomes wrong when two things happen:
- ⇒ When we see and desire what is directly forbidden by God.
 - ⇒ When we see and desire in order to consume it upon our lusts and to indulge.

What are the sins of the eyes? Scripture says the following.

- ⇒ There is the lust of the eyes for sex.

“But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart” (Mt.5:28).

“For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: and likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient [natural, normal]” (Ro.1:26-28).

“Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children” (2 Pt.2:14).

“I made a covenant with mine eyes; why then should I think upon a maid?” (Job 31:1).

- ⇒ There is the lust of the eyes after all kinds of evil.

“But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!” (Mt.6:23).

- ⇒ There is the lust of the eyes after the things of other people.

“He sitteth in the lurking places of the villages: in the secret places doth he murder the innocent: his eyes are privily [secretly] set against the poor” (Ps.10:8).

“And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth” (Lk.12:15).

- ⇒ There is the lust of the eyes after all the pleasures and possessions of the world.

“And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labor: and this was my portion of all my labor” (Eccl.2:10).

- ⇒ There is the lust of the eyes after wine, drugs, and alcoholic drinks.

“Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes? They that tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek mixed wine. Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright” (Pr.23:29-31).

- ⇒ There is the lust of the eyes after other gods.

“Ye shall make you no idols nor graven image, neither rear you up a standing image [to look upon], neither shall ye set up any image of stone in your land, to bow down unto it: for I am the LORD your God” (Lev.26:1).

- c. There is the pride of life. This is at least two things. First, the pride of life means self-centeredness, a person who is focused upon himself and wants people to notice him. It is a person whose mind and thoughts are primarily upon himself, a person who...
- seeks attention through dress or looks
 - seeks attention through rank or wealth
 - seeks honor
 - seeks recognition
 - seeks fame
 - seeks power
 - seeks position

- seeks luxury
- seeks wealth for recognition and power
- seeks to outshine others
- seeks importance

Second, the pride of life means self-sufficiency, a person who is focused upon himself and feels completely capable of handling life himself. It is a person who feels that self-image, public image, ego and personal strength are the basis of life; a person who feels little if any need for God. He feels he can plow through life himself and conquer whatever problems and circumstances confront him. He feels that this world is an end within itself, that there is probably nothing beyond this life; therefore, he is to get all the comfort, pleasure, luxury, honor, and glory that he can while here. The pride of life means self-sufficiency, a person who...

- is arrogant
- is conceited
- is boastful
- feels better than others because of rank or wealth
- feels superior to others in looks and ability

What are the sins of the pride of life? Scripture says the following:

⇒ There is the pride of self-sufficiency.

“Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked” (Rev.3:17).

“Boast not thyself of tomorrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth” (Pr.27:1).

⇒ There is the pride of wealth.

“Surely every man walketh in a vain show: surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them” (Ps.39:6).

“They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches; none of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him” (Ps.49:6-7).

“By thy great wisdom and by thy traffic hast thou increased thy riches, and thine heart is lifted up because of thy riches” (Ezk.28:5).

⇒ There is the pride of position.

“Not a novice [new believer], lest being lifted up with a pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil” (1 Tim.3:6).

“I wrote unto the church: but Diotrephes [a church leader], who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not” (3 Jn.9).

“For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil” (Gen.3:5).

“Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus [representative of Satan], and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Thou sealest up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty. Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God” (Ezk.28:11-13).

⇒ There is the pride of power.

“And I will break the pride of your power; and I will make your heaven as iron, and your earth as brass” (Lev.26:19).

⇒ There is the pride of intelligence and knowledge.

“And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know” (1 Cor.8:2).

⇒ There is the pride of being better and superior.

“And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness” (Ro.2:19).

“Whoso boasteth himself of a false gift is like clouds and wind without rain” (Pr.25:14).

⇒ There is the pride of conceit.

“Be of the same mind one toward another, Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits” (Ro.12:16).

“Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? There is more hope of a fool than of him” (Pr.26:12).

⇒ There is the pride of self-glory.

“For he flattereth himself in his own eyes, until his iniquity be found to be hateful” (Ps.36:2).

⇒ There is the pride of self-righteousness.

“The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican” (Lk.18:11).

“For they being ignorant of God’s righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God” (Ro.10:3).

“I am clean without transgression, I am innocent; neither is there iniquity in me” (Job 33:9).

3. The professing man is not of God; he is of the world. To be of God means to be spiritually born of God. It means to be born again; to be made into a new creature; to be recreated into a new man; to have the divine seed and nature of God implanted into one’s heart and life. But note: the professing man is of the world, not of God.

⇒ He has been born of the flesh, not of God (Jn.3:3, 5).

⇒ He is still the old creature of the earth, not the new creature of God (2 Cor.5:17).

⇒ He is still the old man of the earth, not the new man of God (Eph.4:24; Col.3:10).

⇒ He has only the corruptible and dying nature of man, not the incorruptible and eternal nature of God (1 Pt.1:23; 2 Pt.1:4).

3 (2:17) Obedience: there is the obedient man. The man who does the will of God abides forever. He knows something: the world shall pass away. It is important to know this, for it means that the lusts of the world will pass away as well.

⇒ The world and its lusts pass away when he dies. Every man leaves behind the world and all he has secured. He loses all of the world he has accumulated and enjoyed. He will not be able to take a single pleasure or possession with him when he leaves the world. Imagine! He cannot take a single thing. The world will have passed away from him; time will be no more—not for him, not for his pleasures or possessions.

⇒ The world and its lusts will pass away at the end of the world. The world is to be destroyed by fire and a new heavens and earth will be created by God where only righteousness will dwell.

“But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation [behavior] and godliness, looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat? Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness” (2 Pt.3:10-13).

This is the reason the wise man turns away from the world and turns to God. He wants God and the life God offers, the life that is both abundant and eternal. Therefore, he seeks after the will of God, to do what God commands so that he may live with God forever.

“For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother” (Mt.12:50).

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life” (Jn.5:24).

“Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him” (Jn.14:23).

“Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city” (Rev.22:14).

DIVISION III

THE PROOF THAT ONE REALLY KNOWS GOD: SEVEN TESTS, 2:3-29

E. Test 5: Guarding Against Antichrists or False Teachers, 2:18-23

(2:18-23) Introduction: How do we know if we really know God? (See note—1 Jn.2:3-6 for introductory discussion.) This is the fifth test that proves whether or not we know God: Are we guarding against antichrists? Note that the word is plural, antichrists, not singular, antichrist. Scripture is speaking of false teachers. Are we guarding ourselves against false teachers? Or are we swallowing the false doctrine of false teachers? This is a test of our salvation, a test that will clearly show us whether or not we know God. We must guard against antichrists, against all false teachers.

1. The warning against antichrists (v.18).
2. The origin of antichrists (v.19).
3. The protection against antichrists (v.20-21).
4. The false teaching of antichrists (v.22-23).

1 (2:18) Antichrist—Teachers, False—Last Time: there is the warning against antichrists. Note the tenderness with which John wants to issue this warning: he calls the believers “little children.” He is the aged minister, and the people are ever so dear to him. His heart beats ever so tenderly for their welfare. They are facing a critical period in their lives, the threat of false teaching, a teaching that can stir questions, doubts, unbelief, and denial of Jesus Christ. To him they are his dear children who must be warned against false teachers. The warning is for all believers. Note three facts.

1. Believers must know that it is the last time, that the midnight hour is about to strike for the end of the world. Note the term “the last time” (eschate hora). It really means the last hour, the midnight hour when the world is to end (see note, Last Days—2 Pt.3:3 for discussion).

2. Believers must know that it is time for the antichrist. We must be alert to the fact that the antichrist can appear upon the scene of world history anytime. Note this: the Bible definitely teaches that there will be a personal antichrist, a man to arise in the end time who will oppose and stand against Christ more fiercely than anyone else has ever done. Antichrist does not mean the spirit of evil that sweeps the world; it does not mean the spirit of false doctrine that is always presenting a problem for the church and believers. The spirit of evil and of false doctrine do, of course, stand against Christ, and they do great harm. But this is not what is meant by the antichrist. The Bible is clear about this: the antichrist refers to a person, a man who is to arise upon the scene as a world leader—a world leader who is going to exalt the state and world government above all worship of God. Believers must know that the antichrist will come. Unless they know the teaching of the Bible, they will not be prepared. Believers must prepare and know that he is coming soon. They must sound forth the warning. (See DEEPER STUDY # 1, Antichrist—Mt.24:15; note—2 Th.2:3; 2:4-9; outline and notes—2 Th.2:10-12; Master Subject Index, Antichrist for discussion.)

“And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders” (2 Th.2:8-9).

3. How do we know that it is the last time, that the world is about to end and Jesus Christ is about to return? Because there are many antichrists now, many who oppose and stand against Christ. The antichrist has his forerunners just as Jesus Christ had His prophets as forerunners. Many false prophets and teachers are on the world scene today. There are many persons—leaders, teachers, and even preachers—who are denying that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. How does this show us that it is the last time? Because this is exactly what Jesus Christ said. He said in the last days many would arise who would oppose and deny Him, and the emphasis is upon many. The world will be overflowing with false teachers, false preachers, and false leaders—all false prophets who proclaim a false message of hope to the world, a message that offers nothing beyond this life and the grave, nothing but judgment and hell. Note the forcefulness of John's declaration: "We know that it is the last time." We know because there are so many who are denying Jesus Christ.

- ⇒ They are denying His deity: that He is the Son of God who came out of (ek) heaven, out from the spiritual world and dimension into this world; who came through the womb of a virgin as the God-Man to save the world.
- ⇒ They are denying that He is the sinless Son of God who lived a perfect and righteous life and thereby secured the ideal and perfect righteousness for man.
- ⇒ They are denying His death and resurrection: that He died as the perfect sacrifice for man's sins and that He rose from the dead to conquer death for man.
- ⇒ They are denying His Lordship: that He is truly the Son of God who ascended into heaven and is now seated at the right hand of God as the Lord and God of the universe.
- ⇒ They are denying His return to earth: that He is coming again to execute judgment upon every person who has ever lived upon the earth.

But there is even more to show us that we are in the last days. Not only is the world full of false teachers, it is full of false messiahs. People all over the earth are proclaiming that they or some other person is the Messiah, the Savior of man. They are declaring that they have the answer to man's utopia, to man's hopes and dreams. The great tragedy is that millions of people are following these antichrists and false teachers of false hopes.

"Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye" (Mt.7:5).

"Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock" (Mt.7:24).

"For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall show signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect" (Mk.13:22).

"Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron" (1 Tim.4:1-2).

2 (2:19) Teachers, False—Antichrists: there is the origin of antichrists. Where do antichrists come from? Shockingly, they come from within the church. False teachers are teachers within the church; they hold positions of leadership within the church. Note exactly what John says: "They went out from us, but they were not of us." They were within the church, but they were not true believers. They did not honestly believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, the Savior of the world. They professed Christ, were baptized, and joined the church. They even became teachers and ministers in the church, but they were not true believers.

Thought 1. How many ministers and teachers within the church do not truly believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, the Savior of the world? Only God knows. But all who claim to be ministers of Christ and of His church stand warned: Scripture calls them antichrists. If they were honest, they would admit that they do not belong in the church.

"Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity" (Mt.7:15-23).

"For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works" (2 Cor.11:13-15).

"Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm" (1 Tim.1:7).

"Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron" (1 Tim.4:1-2).

"If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness; he is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself" (1 Tim.6:3-5).

"For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables" (2 Tim.4:3-4).

“But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily [secretly] shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction” (2 Pt.2:1).

“For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely” (Jer.6:13).

“For both prophet and priest are profane; yea, in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD” (Jer.23:11).

“My people hath been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their restingplace” (Jer.50:6).

“But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman’s hand” (Ezk.33:6).

3 (2:20-21) Teachers, False: there is the protection against antichrists. God gives the believer two protections.

1. God gives an unction to the believer. The word “unction” (chrisma) means anointing. Note who it is that anoints us: the Holy One, that is, God Himself. What is the anointing, the unction that He gives? The Holy Spirit. This is exactly what Scripture declares:

“Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God; who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest [guarantee] of the Spirit in our hearts” (2 Cor.1:21-22).

Why does God give us the Holy Spirit? One of the major reasons is to teach us all things. This was the glorious promise of Jesus Christ.

“But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you” (Jn.14:26; cp. Jn.14:16-20; 16:7-11).

What is meant by all things? Does it mean that the Holy Spirit teaches us all the skilled professions of the world such as science, history, and medicine? No, not in the technical sense. But note: the Holy Spirit does teach the believer to relate all professions to the truth. The believer knows that no profession stands as a god before men, as though it were the answer to man’s basic problems. The Holy Spirit will also strengthen and help a sincere believer learn whatever field or profession he wishes to enter. But this is not the primary teaching that concerns the Holy Spirit. The primary concern of the Holy Spirit is the truth about Jesus Christ and about man and his world as they relate to Christ and to eternity. It means all things that have to do with God and Christ and man’s spiritual hunger; it means all things that have to do with man and his world, their purpose and fate; it means all things that have to do with Christianity and life, the purpose, meaning, and significance of life. This means a most wonderful thing: it means that any believer who has a question about some person’s teaching can ask the Holy Spirit to teach him the truth. There is no excuse for any believer ever being misled by false teaching. God has given him the Holy Spirit to protect him.

2. God gives the truth to the believer. He gives us the truth in two ways.

a. God gives us the truth in Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ is the truth. He declared this emphatically:

“Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me” (Jn.14:6).

Jesus Christ is the very embodiment of truth. He is the picture of truth. God not only talks to man about Himself in the Word of God, God shows man what He is like in the person of Jesus Christ. Man can look at Jesus Christ and see a perfect picture of the truth of God. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, shows us exactly what God is like.

“I and my Father are one” (Jn.10:30).

“If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not. But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know, and believe, that the Father is in me, and I in him” (Jn.10:37-38).

“Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works” (Jn.14:10).

“And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are” (Jn.17:11).

“And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one” (Jn.17:22).

As Jesus Christ says in Jn.14:6, “I am the way [to God], the truth [of God], and the life [of God].” The truth is found in Jesus Christ. True believers know this. Therefore, there is never an excuse for believers to be led astray by false teachers or antichrists.

- b. God gives us the truth in the Word of God, the Holy Scriptures or Holy Bible. Jesus Christ Himself and Scripture declare:

“If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free” (Jn.8:31-32).

“Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth” (Jn.17:17).

“Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth” (2 Tim.2:15).

“All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness” (2 Tim.3:16).

“We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts: knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation. For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost” (2 Pt.1:19-21).

The genuine believer knows the truth; he knows the Lord Jesus Christ is the Lord and Savior of men, the very Son of God Himself; and he has the Word of God itself. In addition to this, he has the Holy Spirit to teach him the truth and to help him remember the words of Christ. Therefore, there is no excuse for the believer ever being misled by antichrists or false teachers.

Note the words “no lie is of the truth.” No matter how attractive or appealing, no matter how much charisma a person may have, no matter how much we may like a person—if he teaches a doctrine that differs from the Word of God, it is a lie. It is not of the truth; it is a deception.

Thought 1. This lays an enormous obligation upon us, an obligation to study the Word of God and to depend upon the Holy Spirit to teach us. He will not teach a lethargic or lazy person. We must be diligent in studying the Word of God, in praying and seeking the leadership of the Spirit of God.

DEEPER STUDY # 1

(2:20) Anointed—Unction: this is the Holy Spirit. In the Old Testament only prophets, priests, and kings were anointed. They were anointed by pouring oil upon their heads. The oil symbolized the Spirit of God coming upon them for service. Such anointing was the privilege of only a few chosen people. But Jesus Christ changed this. He was anointed at His baptism—not with the symbol of the Spirit, that is, the oil, but rather with the Holy Spirit Himself (Lk.4:18; Acts 4:27; 10:38). What John is saying is this: the same anointing is no longer just the possession of only a chosen few. It is the possession of every believer (cp. Acts 8:17; 2 Cor.1:21-22; Col.1:28). The Holy Spirit is the believer’s protective force against false teaching and seducing spirits, against antichrists.

- 4 (2:22-23) Teachers, False—Unbelief—Apostasy: there is the false teaching of antichrists or false teachers. The false teaching is stated as clearly as human language can state it:

“Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ: He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son” (v.22).

The false teacher who is a forerunner of the antichrist is the person who denies that Jesus is the Messiah. He denies the very Son of God whom God had promised to send as the Savior of the world. Two terrible things are said about this person: first, he is a liar; and second, he denies the Father if he denies the Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. Why is this so? How is it that a person denies God if he denies Christ? The answer is twofold.

First, if a person denies that God sent His Son into the world, then his image of God differs entirely from the God who is the Father of Jesus Christ. God sent His Son into the world. Therefore, if we picture a god in our minds that did not send His Son, then our image of God differs entirely from the true and living God. The true and living God is love, perfect love. Therefore, He has loved man perfectly. God has done the greatest thing that can be done for man: He has sent His only Son into the world to save man by dying for man’s sins. No greater love could ever be demonstrated for man. Therefore, if a man says that God did not send His Son into the world—that Jesus Christ is not the Son of God—then that man is thinking of some god other than the Father of the Lord Jesus Christ.

⇒ By denying Jesus Christ, the man denies the Father.

⇒ By denying the Son, the man does not have the Father. He is separated from the Father, standing against and opposed to both God and His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. The man is doomed, for he has denied that God loves the world enough to send His Son to save the world.

Second, any person who denies Jesus Christ is denying the New Testament. Why? Because the New Testament says time and time again that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, the one Person who reveals God the Father to the world.

“All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him” (Mt.11:27).

“Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me. And he that seeth me seeth him that sent me” (Jn.12:44-45).

“Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me” (Jn.14:6).

“Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Show us the Father? Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works” (Jn.14:9-11).

The point is clear: any person who denies Jesus Christ is denying God as well, the only living and true God. Any person who denies that Jesus Christ is the Son of God is a false teacher, a forerunner of the antichrist.

“But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven” (Mt.10:33).

“Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels” (Mk.8:38).

“That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him” (Jn.5:23).

“I am come in my Father’s name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive” (Jn.5:43).

“But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily [secretly] shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction” (2 Pt.2:1).

“Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son” (1 Jn.2:22).

“For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist. Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward. Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son. If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: for he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds” (2 Jn.7-11).

DIVISION III

THE PROOF THAT ONE REALLY KNOWS GOD: SEVEN TESTS, 2:3-29

F. Test 6: Letting the Gospel Abide in You, 2:24-27

(2:24-27) Introduction: How do we know if we really know God? (See note—1 Jn.2:3-6 for introductory discussion.) This is the sixth test that proves whether or not we know God: Does the gospel abide in us? How we live shows quicker than anything else whether or not we know God. If we have grasped the truth of God’s Word, of His gospel, and are living it out in our lives, then we definitely know God. But the converse is also tragically true: if the gospel, God’s Word, is not within us, if we are not living out the gospel, then we do not know God. Regardless of what we may feel or profess—regardless of what others may think—we do not know God. The gospel lives within the life of every genuine believer and the believer lives out the gospel.

1. The test: does the gospel abide in you (v.24)?
2. The promise: eternal life (v.25).
3. The warning: some seduce us away from Christ (v.26).
4. The provision of God to protect us: the Holy Spirit (v.27).

1 (2:24) Gospel—Word of God—Truth: the test is clearly stated—does the gospel abide in you? Note that the word gospel is not used in this passage. But note the exact words of the verse:

“Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father” (v.24).

What we heard from the beginning is the gospel. Glance back to verses 22-23 where the denial of Jesus Christ is discussed. False teachers were denying that Jesus Christ is the Son of God; they were denying the gospel. Therefore, “that which you have heard from the beginning” is the message of the gospel...

- the gospel of Jesus Christ.
- the gospel of the truth, of the Word of God itself (v.21).
- the gospel of the apostolic message (cp. 1 Cor.15:1-4).
- the gospel of salvation (cp. Tit.2:11-14; 3:4-7).

Now note the evidence of salvation, of knowing God: if the gospel continues in you, “you also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.” The word “remain” (meneto) means to abide, dwell, remain. It means not to be carried away by false teaching or worldly pleasures and possessions. How do we know if we know God?

Does the gospel continue to live in our lives? Are we continuing to live in the Son and in the Father? Is the gospel being lived out in our lives? Are we confessing Jesus Christ to be the Son of God? Do we really believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God? Are we letting Jesus Christ live His life out in us? This is the final proof that we know God.

“As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love” (Jn.15:9).

“I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me” (Gal.2:20).

“As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him” (Col.2:6).

“Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ” (1 Pt.1:13).

“He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked” (1 Jn.2:6).

“Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth [continues to sin] hath not seen him, neither known him” (1 Jn.3:6).

“Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son” (2 Jn.9).

“Behold, I come quickly; hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown” (Rev.3:11).

“Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me” (Rev.3:20).

2 (2:25) Eternal Life: there is the promise of eternal life. This is the great promise of God to man. God has made many promises, but this is the one promise that supercedes all others. Eternal life is the supreme promise of God. But note the thrust of the verse: the gospel must remain in us if we are to receive eternal life (v.27). What is eternal life? It is life, real life. It is the very life of God Himself. It is the very energy, force, being, essence, principle, and power of life. It has to do with both quality and with what life really is, with duration. To live forever in the present world, with the world like it is, is not necessarily a good thing. The world and man’s body need changing. That changed life is found only in eternal life. The only being who can be said to be eternal is God. Therefore, life—supreme life—is found only in God. To possess eternal life is to know God. Once a person knows God and Jesus Christ whom He has sent, that person has eternal life—he shall live forever. But more essential, the person has the supreme quality of life, the very life of God Himself. (See notes—DEEPER STUDY # 2—Jn.1:4; DEEPER STUDY # 1—10:10.)

Thought 1. Once a person believes in Jesus Christ, he has eternal life. That is, he immediately receives eternal life. It is not that he is going to receive eternal life; he has already received it. He begins to live eternally from that very moment onward. The day that he makes his decision for Christ is the first day of his eternal life. And every day of his life thereafter is another day in eternity for him. This is significant: it means that we should be very careful about how we live every day. For every day is another day lived in eternity. We shall never die. When God is ready to move us from this physical world into the spiritual world (heaven), He simply transfers us—all quicker than the blink of the eye.

“And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life” (Jn.3:14-15).

“He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him” (Jn.3:36).

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life” (Jn.5:24).

“And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day” (Jn.6:40).

“Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die” (Jn.11:25-26).

“He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal” (Jn.12:25).

“That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord” (Ro.5:21).

“For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting” (Gal.6:8).

“But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel” (2 Tim.1:10).

“We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death” (1 Jn.3:14).

“And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life” (1 Jn.5:11-12).

3 (2:26) Teachers, False—Seduction: there is the warning—some do attempt to seduce us. Why is John writing his letter to the believers? One of the major reasons is given here: there were false teachers who were trying to seduce them. The word “seduce” (planonton) means to deceive; to lead astray. A false teacher is one who attempts to lead us away from Jesus Christ, from the glorious truth that He is the Son of God who came to earth to die for our sins. The false teacher deceives people; that is, he teaches that man can become acceptable to God by some other way than Jesus Christ. He teaches that there are other ways to God, other approaches, other religions, other truths. He seduces and leads people astray; he deceives people into following some other teaching. Note this: the tense is continuous action in the Greek. That is, false teachers are continually teaching false doctrine. They are always teaching a false doctrine and always trying to seduce people.

Thought 1. Believers must be on constant guard against false teaching. So much is at stake: the very promise of God. We will abandon the faith if we listen to the deception and go astray. We must continue to follow Christ; we must let the gospel abide and take up a permanent residence in our lives.

Thought 2. Note this: if God has really sent His Son into the world to save man, there is not a chance in eternity that He will allow a person to approach Him by any other way. His very purpose for sending His Son was to save man. If there was another way God would never have allowed His Son to leave the glory of heaven and be so humiliated as to come to such a corruptible world as ours.

4 (2:27) Holy Spirit: there is the provision of God to protect us—the Holy Spirit Himself.

1. The Holy Spirit is the anointing. It is He who abides in us (see note, pt.1—1 Jn.2:20-21 for discussion).
2. The Holy Spirit is the One who teaches us the truth (see note, pt.2—1 Jn.2:20-21 for discussion).
3. The Holy Spirit seals us and guarantees and assures us that we do abide in Christ.

“The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together” (Ro.8:16-17).

“Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest [guarantee] of the Spirit in our hearts” (2 Cor.1:22).

“In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, which is the earnest [guarantee] of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory” (Eph.1:13-14).

“And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption” (Eph.4:30).

THE PROOF THAT ONE REALLY KNOWS GOD: SEVEN TESTS, 2:3-29

G. Test 7: Abiding in Christ, 2:28-29

(2:28-29) Introduction: How do we know if we really know God? (See note—1 Jn.2:3-6 for introductory discussion.) This is the seventh and final test that proves whether or not we know God: Do we abide in Christ? Remember: Christ is the only Person who ever came “out of” (ek) heaven, out of the spiritual world and dimension. He is the Son of God who came to earth to reveal who God is and to show us what life is all about. Jesus Christ is of the very nature of God. He is righteous just like God is righteous. He always did what was right; He was righteous in every detail of life just like God is righteous. Therefore, when we abide in Christ, we abide in the very nature of God. We live like God lives, and we live life like it should be lived. We live righteous lives; we try to do all things right just like God. Consequently, the person who abides and lives in Christ is the person who knows God, but the person who does not abide in Christ does not know God. The test of salvation, of whether or not we know God, is this: Do we abide in Christ?

1. The test: do we abide in Christ (v.28)?
2. The purpose for abiding: that we may have confidence and not be ashamed at Christ's return (v.28).
3. The proof of abiding: living a righteous life (v.29).

1 (2:28) Abiding: there is the test—do we abide in Christ? The word abide means to dwell, continue, stay, sojourn, rest in or upon. It is being set and fixed and remaining there; continuing on and on in a fixed state, condition, or being. It is being at home and being permanent and settled. Therefore, to abide in Christ means...

- to continue and stay in Christ
- to sojourn and rest in and upon Christ
- to be set and fixed in Christ and to remain in Him
- to continue on and on in Christ, in being fixed in Him
- to be at home in Christ; to find our permanent home in Him and to be settled in Him

The basic idea of abiding in Christ is that of dwelling. It is just like dwelling in a house. We are to dwell in Christ, in the kind of life He showed us how to live. He lived a righteous life, a life that was always right toward God and man. Therefore, we are to make our home in Christ, to dwell and move about in the righteous life of Christ. We are to be right with God and man just like He was.

Now, when a person abides in Christ, what kind of life does he live? Very practically, what kinds of things does he do? How does he behave toward God and man? Scripture says the following:

- ⇒ Abiding in Christ means that a person confesses that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. He believes the love that God has shown him in Christ, and he loves God because of what God has done for him.

“Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God. And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him” (1 Jn.4:15-16).

- ⇒ Abiding in Christ means that a person walks and fellowships with Christ. He lives and moves and has his being in Christ. He communes and lives in a consciousness of the Lord's presence, and from the Lord's presence he learns of God, and he draws the strength and authority to live victoriously day by day.

“He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked” (1 Jn.2:6).

“But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him” (1 Jn.2:27; cp. Ps.16:11; Pr.3:5-6).

- ⇒ Abiding in Christ means that a person walks in open confession before God. He walks hour by hour all day long opening up his life to God; he constantly confesses that he is short of God's glory and any known sin that he slips into. He does not walk in sin, and he does not allow any sin to go unconfessed.

“If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we [continually] confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness" (1 Jn.1:6-10).

⇒ Abiding in Christ means that a person continues in the Word of Christ and knows the truth.

"Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free" (Jn.8:31-32).

⇒ Abiding in Christ means that a person lets the Word of God abide in his life.

"I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one" (1 Jn.2:14).

"Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father" (1 Jn.2:24).

⇒ Abiding in Christ means that a person experiences the indwelling presence and witness of the Spirit.

"No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us. Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit" (1 Jn.4:12-13).

⇒ Abiding in Christ means that a person has power to live like he should.

"If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you" (Jn.15:7).

⇒ Abiding in Christ means that a person dwells in love and in unity and fellowship with all other believers.

"That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one: I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me" (Jn.17:21-23).

"And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him" (1 Jn.4:16; cp. 1 Jn.4:20).

⇒ Abiding in Christ means that a person bears fruit and lives a very fruitful life.

"I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing" (Jn.15:5).

"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law" (Gal.5:22-23).

⇒ Abiding in Christ means that a person loves others, that he lives and walks in love toward others.

"No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us. Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit" (1 Jn.4:12-13).

⇒ Abiding in Christ means that a person continues in the church; he has not gone out from the church.

"They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us" (1 Jn.2:19).

"Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him" (1 Jn.3:6).

⇒ Abiding in Christ means that a person possesses confidence, an unashamedness in life that prepares him for eternity.

"And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming" (1 Jn.2:28).

⇒ Abiding in Christ means that a person actively surrenders himself to obey God's commandments.

"And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us" (1 Jn.3:24).

⇒ Abiding in Christ means that a person loves his brother.

“He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him” (1 Jn.2:10; cp. 1 Jn.3:14-15).

⇒ Abiding in Christ means that a person does the will of God.

“And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever” (1 Jn.2:17).

⇒ Abiding in Christ means that a person experiences the continuous presence and anointing of the Holy Spirit.

“But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him” (1 Jn.2:27).

“And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us” (1 Jn.3:24).

2 (2:28) Abiding—Jesus Christ, Return—Judgment—Unashamed: there is the purpose for abiding—that we may have confidence and not be ashamed when Christ returns. Note two significant points.

1. Jesus Christ is coming again. Scripture emphatically declares that He is going to return to earth again. He is coming to consummate human history and to judge the earth—every man and woman who has ever lived. This is the constant declaration of Scripture.

“For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works” (Mt.16:27).

“When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats” (Mt.25:31-32).

“For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son....Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation” (Jn.5:22, 28-29).

“Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every [faithful] man have praise of God” (1 Cor.4:5).

“For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad” (2 Cor.5:10).

“I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick [living] and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom” (2 Tim.4:1).

“And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man’s work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear” (1 Pt.1:17).

“And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him” (Jude 14-15).

“And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works” (Rev.20:12).

“And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be” (Rev.22:12).

2. The task of believers, yea of all people, is to be prepared for the return of Christ. How can we prepare ourselves? By doing just what is discussed above: abiding in Christ. If we abide in Christ, we will have confidence and not be ashamed before Him at His coming.

⇒ The word “confidence” (parresian) means boldness, assurance. It has the idea of unshakeable boldness and assurance. If we abide in Christ now, today, and every day hereafter, we can have unshakeable confidence and assurance and even boldness when Jesus Christ returns to earth.

⇒ The word “ashamed” (aischunthomen) means to shrink back; to sense guilt and disgrace; to feel embarrassment. If we do not abide in Christ, we shall be ashamed when Jesus Christ returns to earth.

Note a fact that is so often ignored by believers, a fact that is seldom if ever thought about. There shall be shame, disgrace, and embarrassment when Christ returns. Some believers will shrink back from Christ. The picture of nothing but joy and rejoicing when Christ returns is not a true picture. There is going to be judgment: the judgment of every man’s works no matter what the works are, and there shall be the judgement of sinners no matter who they are, all unbelievers.

There will be joy and rejoicing for some believers, for those who have been abiding in Christ. But there will be shame, guilt, disgrace, and embarrassment—a shrinking back, for those who have been walking unfaithfully.

“And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick [living] and dead” (Acts 10:42).

“Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead” (Acts 17:31).

“In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel” (Ro.2:16).

“But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ” (Ro.14:10).

“Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; every man’s work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man’s work of what sort it is. If any man’s work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If any man’s work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire” (1 Cor.3:12-15).

“For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad” (2 Cor.5:10).

“I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick [living] and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom” (2 Tim.4:1).

3 (2:29) Righteousness—Jesus Christ, Sinless—New Birth: there is the proof of abiding—living a righteous life. If a person abides in Jesus Christ, he lives a righteous life This is the supreme and final proof that a person knows God. We can always tell if a person knows God by the fruit and treasure of his life: Is he living a righteous life, a life just like Jesus Christ lived? This is exactly what Jesus Christ said.

“Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit” (Mt.7:16-18).

“A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things” (Mt.12:35).

There is one reason why a person who knows Christ lives a righteous life. Note how significant this reason is: the person knows that Jesus Christ is righteous. The person knows that Jesus Christ is the sinless Son of God. Jesus Christ was sinless before He ever came to earth; He was the perfect and righteous Son of God throughout all of eternity. In addition to this, He was sinless when He lived on earth. He walked as a Man upon earth and He lived a perfect and righteous life as a Man. Therefore, He secured the perfect and ideal righteousness for man. This is the very reason Jesus Christ was able to bear the sins of man and die for them. As the Perfect and Ideal Man, God was able to accept His death as the perfect sacrifice for sin.

The point is this: everything that Jesus Christ did hinges upon His righteousness, upon the fact that He is the righteous and sinless Son of God. Therefore, the person who truly believes in Jesus Christ lives in the righteousness of Christ. He abides, dwells, lives, and moves in the righteousness of Jesus Christ. He trusts and casts himself upon the righteousness of Christ, and he continues day by day to trust and cast himself upon His precious Lord and His righteousness.

This is the way we can tell whether or not a person is born of God, whether or not God has given a new birth to a person. If a person honors God’s Son by trusting and casting himself upon the righteousness of His Son, God takes that person and honors him. God gives him a new life, a spiritual birth. God makes a new creature out of him, a spiritual man. The true believer becomes a new creature, the new man of God. Now note the verse:

“If you know that he [Christ] is righteous, you know that everyone that doeth righteousness is born of him [God]” (1 Jn.2:29).

Thought 1. The person who lives a righteous life is the person who knows God. God is righteous; His very nature is righteousness. Therefore, a person who lives a righteous life is the person who has the nature of God. He is the person who allows God’s nature to be lived out and through his life. If a person does not have the nature of God, then he does not live out the life of God. He does not live a righteous life. We can tell whether or not a person knows God by the life he lives.

“Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother’s womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God” (Jn.3:3-5).

“Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new” (2 Cor.5:17).

“And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness” (Eph.4:24).

“And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him” (Col.3:10).

“Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever” (1 Pt.1:23).

“Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him” (1 Jn.5:1).

DIVISION IV

THE PROOF THAT ONE REALLY LOVES GOD: SIX TESTS, 3:1-4:21

A. Test 1: Experiencing God's Incredible Love, 3:1-3

(3:1-3) Introduction: the love of God—there is no greater subject in all the world. Why? Because if God loves us, it means that He is not far off in outer space someplace. It means that God is not distant, unreachable, and unconcerned with the world. It means that God is not mean and vengeful, that He does not cause all the bad things that happen to us, things such as accidents, diseases, and death. It means that God is not hovering over us looking for every mistake we make so that He can punish us.

On the contrary, since God is love, it means that He is bound to show us His love and act for us. It means...

- that God cares and looks after us.
- that God will help us through all the trials and temptations of life.
- that God will save us from the sin, evil, corruption, and death of this world.
- that God will provide a way for us to be delivered from the coming judgment of His holy wrath against sin.

But note: if God loves us and has demonstrated His love to us, then He must expect us to respond. He must expect us to love Him. Love expects to be loved in return. In fact, if someone loves us and we do not receive his love, then his love never touches us. We never experience his love. To know love, we must receive love and share it. God loves us, but we have to receive His love in order to experience it. We have to enter a loving relationship with God in order to know the love of God. If we do not love God, then we can never know or experience God's love for us. His love will never touch us. It is absolutely essential that we love God if we wish to experience the love of God.

But note this: few people truly love God. Therefore, they have to walk through life without knowing God's love and care.

- ⇒ They have to face all the terrible trials and temptations of life alone. They have no help except what help man can give. They have rejected the love and help of God.
- ⇒ They have to face suffering and sorrow and the death of loved ones all alone. They do not have the supernatural power of God to help. They have rejected His love.
- ⇒ They have to confront death without really knowing if God is on the other side waiting to judge them.
- ⇒ They have no hope beyond this life, feeling that this life may be all, but not quite sure, wondering if perhaps there might be something after death.

We could go on and on listing the things that a person has to face if he does not love God. And note: he has to face them all alone. But thanks be to God, He loves the world. He loves all of us. Therefore, any of us who want to know God's love and care can do so. All we have to do is respond to His love—open up our lives and receive His love and love Him in return.

This is the discussion of this section of John's letter: the love of God and our love for Him. How can we really tell if we love God? How can we make sure that God is pleased with us, with what love we show Him? There are six tests that measure our love for God, six tests that will show if and how much we love God (1 Jn.3:1-4:21). The first test is the discussion of the present passage: Have we experienced God's incredible love?

1. The privilege of God's love: we are called children of God (v.1).
2. The great hope and mystery of God's love: eternal transformation (v.2).
3. The incentive of God's love: purity (v.3).

1 (3:1) Believers, Children of God—Adoption—God, Love of: there is the great privilege of God's love, the great privilege of being called the children of God. Think how astounding this is, to be called a child of the Supreme Majesty of the universe, of the Supreme Intelligence and Power that created all things. There is no greater privilege than to be called a child of God. Two significant points are made.

1. It is the love of God that has bestowed the privilege of adoption upon us. No man is a child of God because of any merit or work of his own. Man has rebelled against God.

Man has chosen to go his own way in life and to do his own thing. He has wanted little if anything to do with God. He has not wanted the restraints of God upon his life; he has preferred to make his own way through life. Therefore, man has rebelled against God:

|-----------------|-------------------|
| ⇒ ignored God | ⇒ disbelieved God |
| ⇒ neglected God | ⇒ rejected God |
| ⇒ cursed God | ⇒ denied God |
| ⇒ disobeyed God | |

It is this that makes the love of God so amazing. It was while we were rebelling and opposing God—while we were sinners and enemies of God—while we were standing against God—while we were in wrath and at enmity with God—while we wanted little if anything to do with God—that God bestowed His love upon us.

“For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly” (Ro.5:6).

“But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us” (Ro.5:8).

“Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life” (Ro.5:9-10).

Note that God’s love is the giving of His Son to the world. God bestowed His love upon us by giving His Son to die for our sins. We know that God loves us because He gave His Son to die for us. It is the death of Jesus Christ that makes it possible for us to become children of God. How?

- ⇒ When Jesus Christ took our sins upon Himself, our sins were removed from us.
- ⇒ When Jesus Christ died and paid the penalty for our sins, the penalty was removed from us.

Therefore, God is able to receive us as righteous men and women, as being free of sin. When Jesus Christ died for our sins, He removed all sin from us; He freed us of sin. Therefore, God is able to accept us into His family, the family of God. God is able to adopt us as children of God.

“But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name” (Jn.1:12).

“For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father” (Ro.8:15).

“Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty” (2 Cor.6:17-18).

“But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law, to redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons, and because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father” (Gal.4:4-6).

2. The world does not know nor understand believers. This explains why believers are ridiculed, mocked, ignored, opposed, abused, rejected, and persecuted by the world. The persecution may come at work, at school, in the neighborhood, or anywhere else; the world just does not understand why believers act and live the way they do. The world does not understand...

- why believers separate themselves from the pleasures and things of the world.
- why believers deny themselves and live sacrificially so that they can carry the message of Christ to the world and meet the needs of the desperate.
- why believers go to church so much and talk so much about Christ.

Note why the world does not understand believers: because the world did not know Jesus Christ. Think about it: God’s very own Son came into the world, but the world did not know Him. They wanted nothing to do with Him; they rejected Him. Now if the world rejected Jesus Christ, God’s very own Son, they are bound to reject God’s adopted children. The world is just unwilling to recognize and acknowledge that God is righteous and pure and just. They want nothing to do with a lifestyle that demands all that a person is and has. They are just unwilling to give sacrificially to carry the gospel around the world and to meet the needs of the world. They do not understand the nature of believers—that they are the children of God; that they can live no other life than that of following God. Why? Because believers know God in all of His love and the majesty of His being. This the world cannot understand.

“But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues” (Mt.10:17).

“Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name’s sake” (Mt.24:9).

“Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also” (Jn.15:20).

“For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake” (Ph.1:29).

“That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto” (1 Th.3:3).

“Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution” (2 Tim.3:12).

“For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds” (Heb.12:3).

“Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you: but rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ’s sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy. If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified” (1 Pt.4:12-14).

“Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf” (1 Pt.4:16).

2 (3:2) Jesus, Return: there is the great hope and mystery of God’s love, the eternal transformation that believers shall undergo. Note the great declaration: “Beloved, now are we the sons [children] of God.” It is not that we shall be God’s children; we are already God’s children. If we have trusted and given our lives to Jesus Christ, we are now the children of God. Now note the declaration again: “Beloved, now are we the sons of God.” We know what we are now, but “it does not yet appear what we shall be...when he [Christ] shall appear.” The contrast is emphatic: we know what we are now, the children of God, but we do not know what we shall be like when Christ returns. Oliver Greene has an excellent statement on this point:

“What we shall be hereafter is not fully revealed, but we know that we are sons of God NOW and that we are predestined to be conformed to the image of His dear Son (Ro.8:29). ‘We shall be like HIM.’ What is involved in this tremendous declaration we do not fully know now, and even if God had seen fit to explain it to us, we would not be able to understand it with our poor, limited, finite minds! Why do I say that? The Scriptures tell us that after His resurrection Jesus ascended to the Father and then returned to earth again—perhaps in a matter of seconds. He entered a room where all doors were closed and the windows were locked, and appeared in the midst of His disciples (John 20:19-28). He invited them, ‘Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have...and they gave Him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb. And he took it, and did eat before them’ (Luke 24:36-43).

“We cannot understand a body, a personality, like that, we cannot comprehend such tremendous truth with these finite minds. Therefore God did not explain in detail what it will mean to be like Jesus. We will just wait and let Him show us in that glorious resurrection morning” (Oliver Greene. The Epistles of John. Greenville, SC: The Gospel Hour, 1966, p.112f).

Note the words: “When he shall appear we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.” God is light; therefore, when we first see God face to face, His light will be transmitted to us and we shall become light even as He is light. The Pulpit Commentary has an excellent explanation of this fact:

“‘We shall be like him, because we shall see him.’ God is light (ch.1:5), and light is seen. In this life we cannot see the light of the Divine nature ‘as it is,’ but only as it is reflected: and the reflected light cannot transmit to us the nature of the Divine original, though it prepares us to receive it. Hereafter the sight, ‘face to face’ (1 Cor.13:12), of the Light itself will illuminate us through and through, and we shall become like it” (A. Plummer. “The Pulpit Commentary,” Vol.22, p.71).

The believer is to be made just like Christ, conformed to His very image. This means that believers shall be like Christ in person and in character. Believers shall possess a perfect body and being (1 Cor.15:51-57).

Believers are chosen to “be holy and without blame before Him”—eternally (Eph.1:4; 4:24).

He hath “predestinated us to the adoption”—forever (Eph.1:5).

“As we have borne the image of the earthly, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly” (1 Cor.15:49; cp. Ph.3:21; 1 Jn.3:2).

This is a precious thought. It is more than just a general idea that believers are to be like Christ. It is a definite idea—the idea that what Christ is, believers shall be. The Scripture says in Ro.8:29, He is “a Son” (uios); so believers are sons (uioi). The Scripture also says in Ph.2:6, He was “in the form of God” (enmorphē theou); so believers shall be in the form of God (summorphoi). The believer is to have a form (morphē) just like the image (eixon) of Christ—resemble Him in perfection as much as His very image is stamped with perfection. The whole precious idea is that Jesus Christ took the believer and purified and exalted him; therefore, the believer is to partake of the purity and holiness of Christ (see notes—Ro.8:29).

This much is known about the body that we shall receive: it will be a body just like the body that Jesus Christ has. This is made abundantly clear by the glorious promises of Scripture:

⇒ “Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself” (Ph.3:21; cp. Mt.13:43; Ro.8:17; Col.3:4; Rev.22:5).

⇒ We shall be “conformed to the image of His Son” (Ro.8:29. Cp.1 Cor.15:49; 2 Cor.3:18.)

⇒ “We shall be like Him; for we shall see Him as He is” (1 Jn.3:2).

The body of the believer is to undergo a radical change just as the Lord’s body was radically changed. Several changes are promised the believer.

1. The body will not be corruptible but incorruptible.

“It [the earthly body] is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption” (1 Cor.15:42).

Our earthly body is corruptible; our resurrected body will be incorruptible. Corruptible means that our bodies age, deteriorate, die, decay, and decompose. But our heavenly bodies will differ radically. They shall be incorruptible: never age, never deteriorate, never die, never decay, and never decompose. They will be transformed and never perish. They will be completely free from defilement and depravity, from death and decay.

2. The body will not be a body of dishonor but a resurrected body of glory.

“It [the earthly body] is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory” (1 Cor.15:43).

Our earthly body is buried in dishonor; our resurrected body will be raised in glory. Our body is dishonorable, and nothing shows the body’s dishonor any more than its death and burial. Every human body is ultimately shamed and disgraced, degraded and deprived of all it has. Every human body is doomed to become nothing more than a handful of dirt. Think about it. Nothing could be any more dishonorable than to take the wonderful mechanism and beauty of a man’s body and see it become nothing more than dirt. Yet that is exactly what happens.

But not the resurrected body. The human body will be transformed into a body of glory. Glory means to possess and to be full of perfect light; to dwell in the perfect light, brilliance, splendor, brightness, luster, magnificence, dignity, majesty and grace of God Himself.

3. The body will not be a body of weakness but a body of power.

“It [the earthly body] is sown in weakness; it is raised in power” (1 Cor.15:43).

Our earthly body is buried in weakness; our resurrected body is raised in power. While on earth our body is ever so weak: subject to sickness, disease, and a host of other infirmities and limitations; and eventually it becomes so weak that it dies. In death the human body is utterly powerless: helpless, devoid of any strength and capability whatsoever. In death the human body is so powerless it is unable to lift a single finger. It can do nothing, absolutely nothing.

The resurrected body, however, is raised in power. It shall have a mind and body filled with strength, might, health, authority, and control. It will be a perfect body, never subject to disease, accident, or suffering. It will be a body so powerful that it will be able to control its acts and the circumstances around it—all for good.

3 (3:3) Purity—Holiness: there is the great motive of God’s love—purity. God wants a people just like Himself, a people who are pure and holy and righteous just like Himself. God wants us living with Him in fellowship and communion; He wants us worshipping and serving Him forever and ever. This is the reason God has saved us in Jesus Christ and given us the great hope of being eternally transformed: all so that we can live with Him in glory. If we keep our eyes upon the great glory that lies ahead, it stirs us to live pure lives. God has done so much for us—He has loved us with such an incredible love—that we are stirred to live as Christ lived. We are aroused to please God, aroused to live a godly life. God is going to purify us, make us perfect in every sense of the word. In appreciation we must purify ourselves now, while on this earth. We must seek to be pure even as Christ Jesus is pure.

This is the test, the proof that we love God: Do we understand the incredible love of God? Are we stirred to live pure lives because of His incredible love for us?

“Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God” (Mt.5:8).

“Why tarriest thou? arise...and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord” (Acts 22:16).

“Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God” (2 Cor.7:1).

“Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned” (1 Tim.1:5).

“If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master’s use, and prepared unto every good work” (2 Tim.2:21).

“How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?” (Heb.9:14).

“Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord” (Heb.12:14).

“Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded” (Jas.4:8).

“Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy” (1 Pt.1:16).

“Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation [behavior] and godliness” (2 Pt.3:11).

“Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless” (2 Pt.3:14).

“And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure” (1 Jn.3:3).

“Wash you, make you clean, put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil” (Is.1:16).

“Wash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved. How long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee?” (Jer.4:14).

DIVISION IV

THE PROOF THAT ONE REALLY LOVES GOD: SIX TESTS, 3:1-4:21

B. Test 2: Turning Away from Sin and Its Enslavement, 3:4-9

(3:4-9) Introduction: Do we really love God? There are six tests that show us. This is the second test: Have we turned away from sin? Have we been born of God?

- ⇒ If we live in sin, if we are enslaved by the habits of sin, this is a clear sign we do not love God. But if we have turned away from sin, if the habits of sin have been broken by Christ and permanently conquered in our lives, this is a clear sign that we love God.
- ⇒ If we have been born of God, if we have partaken of the divine nature of God, then we love God. If we have not been born of God, if we have not partaken of the divine nature of God, then we do not love God.

When we love someone, we want to know and please him. We want his approval and acceptance; therefore, we do all we can to please him. So it is with God. If we love Him, we want to know Him and please Him. We want His approval and acceptance; therefore, we do all we can to please Him. God is righteous; He is pure and holy. There is no sin in Him at all. Therefore, the person who loves God lives a righteous life, a pure and holy life. He does not live in sin; he does not practice sin. He lives in righteousness and he practices righteousness. He does all he can to please Him whom he loves—the Lord God Himself.

This is the second test, the test that shows whether or not we love God. Have we turned away from sin? Have the habits of sin been broken and conquered in our lives? Have we been truly born again by the Spirit of God?

1. The need for deliverance: man is sinful (v.4).
2. The provision for deliverance: Christ took away our sins (v.5).
3. The proof of deliverance (v.6-7).
4. The great conquest of Christ in deliverance (v.8).
5. The result of deliverance: being freed from living in sin (v.9).

1 (3:4) Sin—Transgression: there is the need for deliverance. Man is sinful and he transgresses the law. Few people like to be called a sinner. Some people even react to the statement that men are sinners. There is a reason for this. To most people sin is thought to be the gross sins of society, the crimes that make the headlines of our newspapers and telecasts. The sins committed by most people are not thought to be that serious. Most people think that what little wrong they do could never be interpreted as sin. Therefore, to them they only commit...

- a mistake
- a shortcoming
- a failure
- a psychological quirk
- a flaw of nature
- a bad decision
- an irrational act
- a social flaw

This is not what sin is, not to God and not to the Bible. Sin is the transgression of the law. It is violating the law of God.

- ⇒ Sin is choosing to go one's own way in life, doing one's own thing instead of doing what God says.
- ⇒ Sin is living like one wants instead of living like God says.
- ⇒ Sin is disobeying God, not doing what God says to do and doing what God says not to do.
- ⇒ Sin is disbelieving God instead of believing what God says.
- ⇒ Sin is ignoring God and neglecting God instead of following and worshipping Him as He says.
- ⇒ Sin is rebelling against God instead of doing what God says.
- ⇒ Sin is rejecting God and denying God instead of confessing God and becoming a follower of God.

And note: God is perfect. Therefore, only perfection is acceptable to God. This is shocking; nevertheless it is true. If God lets anything less than perfection into heaven, then heaven would no longer be perfect. Therefore, God can never accept anything other than perfection. This is what sin is: imperfection—coming short of God’s glory and of God’s perfect nature. Consequently, man not only does things that come short of God’s perfection; man himself is short of God’s nature.

- ⇒ Man is a sinner. He himself is short of God’s glory, short of perfection. Therefore, whatever he does is short of God; man’s acts are imperfect. At the very root of things, this is what sin is: it is imperfection; it is being and coming short of God’s glory and nature. It is not only that we do things that are short of perfection, but we ourselves are short of God’s glory, short by nature, short of what we should be.
- ⇒ Man is not only a sinner, he is sinful. The reason he is sinful is because he has transgressed God’s law. If he had never transgressed the law of God, then he would have dwelt in the perfect nature of God. He would have always obeyed God; therefore, he would have lived in the glory of God and never come short of God’s will and nature. It was transgression, going against God’s law and nature, that caused the fall of man. Therefore, sin is transgression, disobeying God’s law, coming short of what God says.

“As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one: there is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God. They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one. Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips: whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness: their feet are swift to shed blood: destruction and misery are in their ways: and the way of peace have they not known: there is no fear of God before their eyes. Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God” (Ro.3:10-19).

“For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God” (Ro.3:23).

“But the scripture hath concluded all under sin” (Gal.3:22).

“If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us” (1 Jn.1:8).

“For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith” (1 Jn.5:4).

“All unrighteousness is sin” (1 Jn.5:17).

“And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually” (Gen.6:5).

“Every one of them is gone back: they are altogether become filthy; there is none that doeth good, no, not one” (Ps.53:3).

“Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin?” (Pr.20:9).

“All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all” (Is.53:6).

“But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away” (Is.64:6).

DEEPER STUDY # 1

(3:4) Sin: there are a number of Hebrew words and a number of Greek words for sin in the Bible. A literal translation of the major words will show the meaning of sin.

1. Sin is unbelief, the failure to believe God (Mt.13:58; 17:20; Ro.3:3; 4:20; 11:20, 23; 1 Tim.1:13; Heb.3:12, 19).
2. Sin is missing the mark, coming short of the glory of God (see note—Ro.3:23).
3. Sin is error, making a mistake; a wandering off of the right path (Ro.1:27; Jas.5:20; 2 Pt.2:18; 3:17; Jude 11).
4. Sin is ungodliness and unrighteousness (Ro.1:18; 11:26; 2 Tim.2:16; Tit.2:12; Jude 15, 18).
5. Sin is transgression, a stepping outside the law (Ro.3:23; 4:15; 5:13, 20; Heb.2:2; 9:15).
6. Sin is trespassing, intruding where one should not go (see note—Eph.2:1).
7. Sin is disobedience, a refusal to listen and hear and do (Eph.2:2; 5:6; Col.3:6).
8. Sin is lawlessness, rebellion, a rejection of God’s will and law (1 Jn.3:4).
9. Sin is iniquity, an inward contempt that leads to the continual practice of sin (Mt.7:23; Ro.6:19; 2 Th.2:3. Cp. Ro.1:21-23.)

All men have sinned (Ro.3:23). Sin first entered the world through Adam (Ro.5:12). Because of sin, all men are spiritually dead, forever, and are destined to die physically (Ro.6:23; cp. Gen.2:17; 3:19; Ezk.18:4, 20). But there is a deliverance from sin and from its penalty—the sacrificial death of Jesus Christ (Acts 4:12; Heb.9:26). (See DEEPER STUDY # 1—2 Pt.1:4.)

2 (3:5) Sin, Deliverance—Jesus Christ, Death: there is the provision for deliverance. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, came to earth to take away our sins. How is this possible? How is it possible for Christ to actually remove our sins and take them away so that God can accept us? By living a sinless life. Note the words of the verse: “in Him is no sin.” When Jesus Christ came to earth as a Man, He lived a sinless life. He was perfectly righteous, the very embodiment of righteousness. He secured the perfect and ideal righteousness; He was the Perfect and Ideal Man. Therefore as the Ideal Man, whatever Jesus Christ did could stand for and cover man. What does this mean? Simply this: when Jesus Christ died, His death was the perfect sacrifice for sins. He was the Perfect Man so He was able to die as the perfect sacrifice. God was able to accept His death as the perfect sacrifice for sins.

What happens is this. When we really believe in Jesus Christ, God counts the sacrifice of Jesus Christ for us. God no longer sees our sins, for Jesus Christ took them and died for them. They are thereby removed from us, and we are counted free of sin. They are gone forever because Jesus Christ took them upon Himself and died for them. Consequently, being free of sin, we become acceptable to God.

Thought 1. This is the great love of God for man, the giving of His Son to die for the sins of man. If a person truly loves God, then that person bows in humble adoration before God's Son. The person loves God because God sacrificed His own Son in order to save man. This is the test of our love for God: Have we turned from sin to God's Son?

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved” (Jn.3:16-17).

“For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him” (2 Cor.5:21).

“This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief” (1 Tim.1:15).

“So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation” (Heb.9:28).

“Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation [behavior] received by tradition from your fathers; but the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot” (1 Pt.1:18-19).

“Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed” (1 Pt.2:24).

“And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin” (1 Jn.3:5).

3 (3:6-7) Sin, Deliverance—Righteousness—Believer, Duty: there is the proof of deliverance. A person abides in Christ if he has turned from sin. When we accept Jesus Christ as our Savior from sin, we begin to abide in Him. Remember what abiding means: to dwell, continue, stay, sojourn, and rest in Christ. It means to live and move and have our being in Christ. We just begin to live and dwell in Christ, all that He is and all that He taught. Note three points.

1. If we abide in Christ, we do not continue to sin. If we have really accepted Jesus Christ as our Savior, we love Him because He died for us. Christ paid such an enormous price to take away our sins that we want to please Him. We dare not do anything to hurt Him or cause Him pain; therefore, we do all we can to please Him. The major thing we do is to turn away from sin and begin abiding in Christ. Our desire is not to walk in sin, but to turn away from sin and to break the habits of sin—all for Him, all because our hearts and lives now belong to Him who has loved us and given Himself for us.

Thought 1. This is the proof of whether or not we love God: Have we accepted Jesus Christ as our Savior from sin? Are we abiding, living, moving, and having our being in Him, in all that He is and in all that He taught? Have we turned away from sin, from practicing and living in sin?

2. If we sin, then we have not seen Christ, neither known Him. This does not mean that we have to be perfect to be saved from sin. The Greek means this: if we continue in sin, if we go on sinning and sinning, then we do not really know Christ. A true believer is still short of God's glory; he still sins. He is still human flesh; therefore, he cannot keep from sinning—not all of the time, not perfectly. But sin is not the dominant focus of his life. He does not keep his mind on the comforts and pleasures and possessions of this life. His focus is Jesus Christ and His mission of righteousness and salvation. He gives of himself, all he is and has, to reach people for Christ and to minister to the desperate needs of the world. He works and labors and then keeps on working and laboring for righteousness and love upon the earth. But note: the person whose focus is still on the world and its pleasures and possessions—the person who continues to sin—that person has not seen Jesus Christ, neither known Him. Once a person sees Jesus Christ, once a person really knows Christ, that person focuses upon and gives his life to Christ. He turns away from sin and turns and follows Jesus Christ. He abides in Christ. He lives and moves and has his being in Christ, in all that Christ taught.

3. We can be deceived about the matter of sin and righteousness. Many think that they are saved and acceptable to God because they have...

- professed Christ
- been baptized
- joined the church
- attended church
- fellowshipped with Christians
- read the Bible
- prayed

They think that if they do these things they can live like they want. They think that they can go ahead and enjoy a few of the world's pleasures and continue to seek after more and more of the world's comforts and possessions. And they think that God will still accept them. But note this verse:

“Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous” (v.7).

The only person who is acceptable to God is the person who lives righteously, who follows after the righteousness of Jesus Christ. The demand of Jesus Christ is clear.

“And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me” (Lk.9:23).

Thought 1. Any person who follows Jesus Christ has to deny himself; he has to die to self. He has to give all he is and has to live righteously. And righteous living does not just mean living pure and clean lives. It means treating other people righteously. It means reaching out and helping all people, giving all we are and have to help them. It means not being unjust by hoarding and keeping more than we need. It means giving and living sacrificially to help those who are dying because they lack the bare necessities of life. It means sacrificing all in order to carry forth the glorious message of salvation from sin, death, and the judgment to come.

“Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous” (1 Jn.3:7).

“For I say unto you, that except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven” (Mt.5:20).

“For they being ignorant of God’s righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God” (Ro.10:3).

“So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory” (1 Cor.15:54).

“Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God” (Ph.1:11).

“But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness” (1 Tim.6:11).

“Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world” (Tit.2:12).

“Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation [behavior] and godliness” (2 Pt.3:11).

“Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him” (1 Jn.3:6).

“Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God, He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son” (2 Jn.9).

4 (3:8) Satan—Jesus Christ, Work of: there is the great conquest of Christ in deliverance. Note two significant points.

1. The person who sins is of the devil. This is a shocking statement to some people, but Jesus Christ put it even more clearly:

“Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it” (Jn.8:44).

What does this mean? Note the words from the beginning. This means that Satan was the first person to ever sin. He began sin. He was the first person who ever rebelled against God and disobeyed God. Therefore, every person who sins is akin to Satan. He is following after Satan, in the footsteps of Satan. Morally and spiritually he is the offspring, the child of Satan.

One thing is sure: sin is not of God. God is not the Father of sin and evil and corruption and death. The devil is the father of such things. Therefore when we sin, we are not following after the Father of love and righteousness, we are following after the father of sin and death. Our behavior is not of God; it is of the devil. It is by sin that we become...

- followers of the devil
- children of the devil
- servants of the devil

It is by sin that we have separated ourselves from God. It is sin that causes us to die and that is going to bring judgment upon us. It is sin that causes the righteousness and justice of God to fall upon us. It is sin that is going to separate the sinner from God for eternity. This is the reason God hates sin so much. God created man to live with Him, and sin has cut man off from God and doomed man to be cut off forever. But this is the glorious gospel: God is perfect love; He is the sovereign Majesty, the perfect Intelligence and Power of the universe. Therefore, God knows what to do about sin and He has the power to do it. God knows how to save man, and He is able to save man. God knows how to destroy the works of Satan and He is able to do it. This is the discussion of the second point.

2. This was the very purpose for the Son of God coming to earth, that He might destroy the works of the devil. The works of Satan are destroyed by the death of Jesus Christ. His power, rule, and reign over lives is now destroyed—all by the death of Jesus Christ.

a. Satan’s power to charge men with sin is now “cast out.” Men now have the power to escape the penalty of sin. Christ took the sins of men upon Himself and paid the penalty for their sin. He died for the sins of the world.

“Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed” (1 Pt.2:24).

“Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God’s elect? It is God that justifieth” (Ro.8:33).

b. Satan’s power to cause death is now “cast out.” Men no longer have to die. Christ died for man, became man’s substitute in death.

“Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; and deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage” (Heb.2:14-15).

- c. Satan’s power to cause men to be separated from God is now cast out. Men no longer have to go to hell. Christ was separated from God for man (see note—Mt.27:46-49). Man can now live forever with God.

“For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit” (1 Pt.3:18).

“But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you” (Ro.8:11).

- d. Satan’s power to enslave men with the habits of sin and shame is now “cast out.” By His death, Christ made it possible for man to be freed from sin. The believer, cleansed by the blood of Christ, becomes a holy temple unto God, a temple fit for the presence and power of God’s Spirit. Man can now conquer the enslaving habits of sin by the power of God’s Spirit.

“What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s” (1 Cor.6:19-20).

“Greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world” (1 Jn.4:4).

(See notes—Jn.12:31-33; DEEPER STUDY # 2—12:31; DEEPER STUDY # 1—16:11; notes—Col.2:15; Heb.2:14-16 for more discussion.)

5 (3:9) New Birth—Sin, Deliverance: there is the result of deliverance. The believer is free from living in and practicing sin. Note: the verb to sin is in the present tense. To sin means to continue in sin; to constantly sin; to practice sin; to habitually sin; to live in sin. This needs to be clearly understood. Scripture is not saying that a person reaches sinless perfection while on earth. No person can achieve the perfection of God and His glory. Such is utter nonsense according to Scripture. By his very nature, man is short of God’s glory and perfection (see first note of this outline—1 Jn.3:4 for more discussion). What then is the meaning of the words, “he does not commit sin” and “he cannot sin”?

A.T. Robertson, the great Greek scholar, says this: “he cannot go on sinning.” Robertson adds, “Paul has precisely the same idea in Rom.6:1...‘shall we continue in sin’ “ (Word Pictures In The New Testament, Vol.6, p.223). The Amplified New Testament has the correct idea based upon the Greek:

“No one born (begotten) of God [deliberately and knowingly] habitually practises sin, for God’s nature abides in him - His principle...remains permanently within him - and he cannot practise sinning because he is born (begotten) of God.” (1 Jn.3:9)

Once the divine seed or nature of God has been implanted within the believer, the believer cannot go on living in sin. He cannot continue and continue to sin; he cannot practice sin habitually. The divine nature of God will pester and provoke the believer and convict him to the point that he cannot stand it. If he continues on and on in sin, it is clear evidence that he has never been born of God. The genuine believer loves God because of what God has done for him in Christ. God has loved man in the most supreme way possible, by giving up His Son to die for man. Therefore the believer loves God, loves Him with all his heart, and he wants to please God. It is also this that keeps the genuine believer away from sin. Remember what Joseph said when Potipher’s wife tempted him:

“There is none greater in this house than I; neither hath he kept back any thing from me but thee, because thou art his wife: how then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?” (Gen.39:9).

Note what it is that frees the believer from sin: being born of God, possessing God’s seed within him. What is the Seed of God?

⇒ It is the seed of the new birth.

“Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother’s womb, and be born?” (Jn.3:3-5).

⇒ It is the seed of the new creation.

“Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new” (2 Cor.5:17).

⇒ It is the seed of the new man.

“And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness” (Eph.4:24).

“And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him” (Col.3:10).

⇒ It is the divine nature.

“Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust” (2 Pt.1:4).

⇒ It is the incorruptible seed of God’s Word.

“Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever” (1 Pt.1:23).

Another way to say the same thing is this: the seed of God within the believer is the Holy Spirit, the very Spirit of God Himself. It is He who helps the believer to conquer sin and to keep from sinning. It is the Spirit of God who stirs the believer to love and focus upon Christ and His mission instead of upon the world and its pleasures and possessions. It is the Spirit of God who stirs the believer not to sin.

William Barclay, in his incisive way of expressing truth, says that John’s discussion of sin can be stated in four stages. (Note: we are putting the points in outline form for clarity.)

- a. “The ideal is that in the new age sin is gone for ever.
- b. “Christians must try to make that true, and, with the help of Christ, they must struggle to avoid individual acts of sin, occasional lapses into that which is wrong, temporary departures from goodness.
- c. “In point of fact all men do have these lapses, and, when they have them, they must humbly confess them to God, who will always forgive the penitent and the contrite heart.
- d. “But, in spite of that, no Christian can possibly be a deliberate and a consistent sinner; no Christian can make sin the policy of his life; no Christian can live a life in which sin is dominant and decisive in all his actions. He may have lapses, but he cannot live in sin as the very atmosphere of his life.”

Barclay continues:

“John is not setting before us here a terrifying perfectionism, in which he is demanding a life which is totally and absolutely without sin; but he is demanding a life which is ever on the watch against sin, a life which ever fights the battle of goodness, a life which has never surrendered to sin, a life in which sin is not the permanent state, but only the temporary aberration, a life in which sin is not the normal accepted way, but the abnormal moment of defeat. John is not saying that the man who abides in God cannot sin; but he is saying that the man who abides in God cannot continue to be a consistent and deliberate sinner” (The Letters of John and Jude, p.96f).

“My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: and he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world” (1 Jn.2:1-2).

“If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us” (1 Jn.1:6-10).

“For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith” (1 Jn.5:4).

“Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God” (2 Cor.7:1).

“Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord” (Heb.12:14).

“Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy” (1 Pt.1:16).

“Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness” (2 Pt.3:11).

DIVISION IV

THE PROOF THAT ONE REALLY LOVES GOD: SIX TESTS, 3:1-4:21

C. Test 3: Being Marked by Love, 3:10-17

(3:10-17) Introduction: Do we really love God? This is the third test that shows us. Are we marked by love? Is love the chief characteristic of our lives? Do we love one another? Love shows us whether or not we love God. God is love; therefore, if we love God, we are bound to love one another. In fact, since God is love, it is absolutely impossible to love God and not to love one another. The greatest proof of all that we love God is the mark of love. If we have the mark of love upon our lives, if people can clearly see that we love one another, then we love God. But if we have and hold feelings against anyone else, this is clear proof that we do not love God. The great mark of loving God is the mark of loving one another.

1. Love reveals one's true nature: shows that one is either a child of God or of the devil (v.10).
2. Love is the message heard from the very beginning (v.11).
3. Love does not persecute the righteous (v.12-13).
4. Love is the proof that one has passed from death to life (v.14).
5. Love does not hate (v.15).
6. Love is the proof that one understands the love of Christ (v.16).
7. Love has compassion and gives to meet the needs of people (v.17).

1 (3:10) Love—Devil—Children of God: love reveals one's true nature; love shows that one is either a child of God or of the devil. Note who it is that is not of God.

- ⇒ The person who does not live righteously is not of God. The person who does not live a pure and holy life is not of God.
- ⇒ The person who does not love his brother is not of God. The person who mistreats, abuses, ignores, neglects or takes advantage of his brother is not of God.

This is easily seen: God is holy, righteous, and pure and God is love. Therefore any person who does not live a holy, righteous, and pure life and who does not love could not be of God. His life stands opposed to all that God stands for. The things that he does are not of God; they are not of the nature of God. Now, of whose nature are they? Whose nature is unholy, unrighteous, impure; and whose nature is unloving? Not God's nature, but the devil's nature. This is not a pleasant thought, but Scripture declares emphatically that we are either a child of God or of the devil. What determines whose child we are? Our lives reveal exactly whose child we are.

- ⇒ The person who lives a righteous life and who loves his brother takes his nature from God.
- ⇒ The person who lives an unrighteous life and who mistreats his brother takes his nature from the devil.

We can look at our nature and tell whose child we are. If we live righteous, pure, and holy lives and love one another, we have the nature of God. If we live unrighteous, impure, and unholy lives and mistreat one another, we have the nature of the devil. It is that clear: there is no middle ground. God's nature is not that of unrighteousness and hate. God is righteous and loving; therefore, the person who lives a righteous life and who loves his brother is of God.

Now, note a significant fact: John defines righteousness as love. This is what he is really saying in this verse: the person who does not do righteousness is the person who does not love his brother. Righteousness is love, and unrighteousness is failing to love. This is seen by scanning this passage:

- ⇒ Note verse 12: Cain did not love his brother so he murdered him and did an unrighteous deed.
- ⇒ Note verse 14: the proof that we have passed from death to life is our love, our righteous behavior toward our brother.

1 JOHN 3:10-17

- ⇒ Note verse 15: love is not unrighteous acts, hate, or murder.
- ⇒ Note verse 16: love is the righteous act of God in giving His Son to die for us.
- ⇒ Note verse 16 again: love is laying down our lives for our brother.
- ⇒ Note verse 17: love is compassion and giving to meet the needs of our brother.

The point is this: love is action—righteous deeds in action. And righteousness is love—loving deeds in action. This is exactly what John declared earlier.

“He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him” (1 Jn.2:10).

This is also what Paul declared in that memorable passage of Romans, a passage that we should live in and preach and teach as long as we live upon earth.

“Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law. For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law” (Ro.13:8-10).

How do we know if we really love God? We can look at love and tell. Do we love our brothers? Or, do we hold things within us toward others? Do we think evil thoughts about them? Talk about them? Criticize, murmur, grumble, gossip, or backbite them? Do we do evil against them? This is the nature of the devil—to tear down and destroy—not the nature of God. Therefore, if we do these kinds of things, we are revealing that we are not the children of God, but children of the devil. Love reveals whose child we are.

“Blessed are the peacemakers [an act of love]: for they shall be called the children of God” (Mt.5:9).

“Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself” (Mt.22:37-39).

“A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another” (Jn.13:34-35).

“Let love be without dissimulation [hypocrisy]. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good” (Ro.12:9).

2 (3:11) Love: love is the message heard from the beginning (see note—1 Jn.2:7-8 for discussion. The very same point is discussed.)

3 (3:12-13) Love—Persecution: love does not persecute the righteous. The extreme case of persecution is used to illustrate the point—that of murder. Cain committed the very first murder on earth: he killed his own brother Abel (Gen.4:1-15). Why? Because Abel was a believer. Abel believed God, that he was to worship God exactly like God said, by the blood of a sacrificial animal. Cain did not accept such a belief. He felt that if he brought the fruit of his own hands to God, then God would accept him because of his hard work and because he worshipped and gave offerings to God. God accepted Abel’s worship and offering. It was evident in his life, by the way God blessed him and took care of him. But God rejected Cain’s offering. Cain did not have a real sense of God’s care or blessing upon his life. Therefore, he became jealous and envious of Abel and he killed Abel. The point is twofold.

1. First, love does not persecute the righteous. Cain did not love his brother; therefore, he was of that wicked one, the devil, and he persecuted his brother. A person who truly loves his brother will not persecute him; he will not...

Just think—love means that we will not even dislike another person. We love them, care for them, and reach out to them. We want their fellowship in Christ, longing for them to experience all the richness of life and for them to know all the fulness of Christ and His love. This is the way we know that we love God, if we do not persecute our brother like Cain did.

“This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you” (Jn.15:12).

“Let love be without dissimulation [hypocrisy]. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good” (Ro.12:9).

“Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law. For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law” (Ro.13:8-10).

“And sent Timotheus, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith” (1 Th.3:2).

“Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently” (1 Pt.1:22).

2. Second, if we love Christ, then the world will persecute us. (See note, pt.2—1 Jn.3:1 for discussion. Also see notes—1 Pt.4:16; Mt.5:10-12 for more discussion.)

“Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name’s sake” (Mt.24:9).

“Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man’s sake. Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets” (Lk.6:22-23).

“If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you” (Jn.15:19).

“I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world” (Jn.17:14).

“Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not” (1 Jn.3:1).

“Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you” (1 Jn.3:13).

4 (3:14) Love—Salvation—Life—Death, Spiritual: love is the proof that one has passed from death to life. Note two things.

1. The death here is spiritual death and eternal death. Spiritual death speaks of a person who is dead while he still lives (1 Tim.5:6). He is a natural man living in this present world, but he is said to be dead to the Lord Jesus Christ and to God and to spiritual matters.

a. A person who wastes his life in riotous living is spiritually dead.

“It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found” (Lk.15:32).

b. A person who has not partaken of Christ is spiritually dead.

“Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you” (Jn.6:53).

c. A person who does not have the spirit of Christ is said to be spiritually dead.

“But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his” (Ro.8:9).

d. A person who lives in sin is said to be spiritually dead.

“And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins” (Eph.2:1).

“And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses” (Col.2:13).

e. A person who is alienated from God is said to be spiritually dead.

“Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart: who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness” (Eph.4:18-19).

f. A person who sleeps in sin is spiritually dead.

“Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light” (Eph.5:14).

g. A person who lives in sinful pleasure is dead while he lives.

“But she that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth” (1 Tim.5:6).

h. A person who does not have the Son of God is dead.

“He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life” (1 Jn.5:12).

- i. A person who does great religious works but does the wrong works is dead.

“And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead” (Rev.3:1).

2. Love is the proof that we have passed from death over into life. Love is not the cause of our passing over into life; it is the proof that we have passed from death to life. Jesus Christ is the One who saves us from death and gives us life. But once He has done this, we love our brothers. And we can know whether or not we have passed from death to life by our love. If we love our brothers—all of them—then we have been saved from death and we have eternal life. If we do not love our brothers, we have not been saved from death and we do not have life. Note what the verse says: we “abide in death.” We dwell, live, move, and have our being in death; we have made death our home. We are in the process of dying and we shall die and never receive the life of God, the life that is eternal and that overflows with all the fulness and richness of life. The person who does not love his brother “has not made the passage over”; he is living in an “atmosphere of death” (A. Plummer. “The Pulpit Commentary,” Vol.22, p.74).

5 (3:15) Love—Hate—Murder: love does not hate. This should be clearly understood, but it is not. Many people feel that they are acceptable to God and that God will never reject them, yet they have all kinds of negative feelings against others. They have feelings of...

- dislike
- anger
- bitterness
- envy
- jealousy
- disfavor
- sourness
- resentment
- irritability

But note what this verse says: the person who hates his brother is a murderer. Hate is equal to murder; hate is the very same thing as murder. This is exactly what Jesus Christ said:

“Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment: but I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca [bitterness], shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool [contempt], shall be in danger of hell fire” (Mt.5:21-22).

Anger, bitterness, and contempt are just as serious in God’s eyes as murder. Why? Because the person who hates has the very same feelings and spirit that the murderer does—a spirit of anger, bitterness, and contempt. The murderer reacts differently, more violently, but the heart of both the hater and murderer is the same. And God looks and judges by the heart. Some persons can camouflage what is in their heart, but not from God. God knows the heart. The Pulpit Commentary has an excellent statement on this point:

“Love is the only security against hate. And as every one who does not love is potentially a hater, so every hater is potentially a murderer. A murderer is a hater who expresses his hatred in the most emphatic way. A hater who does not murder abstains for various reasons from this extreme way of expressing his hate. But the temper of the two men is the same” (A. Plummer. “The Pulpit Commentary,” Vol.22, p.74).

Note that no murderer has eternal life. The implication is that neither does any person who hates his brother. A person who does not love his brother, who has negative feelings swirling within his heart, who has allowed his heart to become hardened against his brother—that person does not have eternal life dwelling within him. He has death, separation, alienation, division. He has cut off fellowship with a brother; he has put to death the relationship that exists between him and his brother. Therefore, he will be cut off from God; his relationship with God is put to death.

“He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now” (1 Jn.2:9).

“Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him” (1 Jn.3:15).

“If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen? And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also” (1 Jn.4:20-21).

“Hatred stirreth up strifes: but love covereth all sins” (Pr.10:12).

6 (3:16) Love—Jesus Christ, Love of: love proves that one understands the love of Christ. Jesus Christ laid down His life for us. And remember when He did it: He died for us...

- when we were without strength, totally unable to help ourselves or to save ourselves (Ro.5:6).
- when we were ungodly (Ro.5:6).
- when we were sinners (Ro.5:8).
- when we were enemies of God, rebelling, cursing, neglecting, ignoring, denying and rejecting God (Ro.5:10).

Despite all this, Jesus Christ died for us. He took our sins and the guilt for them upon Himself, and He paid the judgment for them. Jesus Christ died for us. Why? Because He loves us; He loves us enough to die for us even when we oppose and do things against Him and stand against Him.

The point is this: if we love God, then we follow His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. We love people just like He did; we love them even when they oppose and do things against us and stand against us. In fact, love is the proof that we really understand the love of Christ. If we love those who do things against us, then we know the love of Christ. But if we do not love those who oppose us, we do not know the love of Christ. We can prove whether or not we know the love of Christ by our love for others, even for those who do us evil.

“Christ died for those who hated Him; and the Christian must confront...the world with a love that is ready even to die for the haters” (A. Plummer. “The Pulpit Commentary,” Vol.22, p.74).

“As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love” (Jn.15:9).

“Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends” (Jn.15:13).

“Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father” (Gal.1:4).

“And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling savour” (Eph.5:2).

“Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed” (1 Pt.2:24).

“For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit” (1 Pt.3:18).

“Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren” (1 Jn.3:16).

7 (3:17) Love—Ministering: love has compassion and gives to meet the needs of people. This verse is a question, but the answer is clearly seen. Note the words “world’s goods.” The meaning is necessities of life, livelihood, the means to sustain life. If we have the bare necessities of life and see a person in need, how can we close our heart against him? How can we shut off feelings for him? How can we keep from helping him and from sharing what we have? If a person does this—if we do this—how can the love of God dwell within us? The answer is clear: the love of God does not exist within a person who does not help those whom he sees in need. No matter what we profess, think, or argue, if we are not actively helping and giving—sacrificially giving—to meet the needs of the desperate and needy of our communities and of the world, we do not love God. God loved us: He gave all that He was and had to save us. Therefore, we must love others: we must give all that we are and have to save them. If we do not, how can we say that the love of God dwells in us? For this is exactly what Christ did.

“Sell that ye have, and give alms; provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth” (Lk.12:33).

“I have showed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive” (Acts 20:35).

“Distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality” (Ro.12:13).

“As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith” (Gal.6:10).

“Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; that they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate [give]; laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life” (1 Tim.6:17-19).

“But to do good and to communicate [give] forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased” (Heb.13:16).

DIVISION IV

THE PROOF THAT ONE REALLY LOVES GOD:
SIX TESTS, 3:1-4:21

D. Test 4: Having a Clean Heart, 3:18-24

(3:18-24) Introduction: Do we really love God? There are six tests that show us. This is the fourth test: Do we have a clean heart? If our hearts are really clean, then we love God; but if our hearts condemn us, then we do not love God. How then can we have a clean heart?

1. A clean heart is wrought by loving in deed and not in word only (v.18-19).
2. A clean heart is wrought by God's knowledge (v.20-21).
3. A clean heart is wrought by keeping the commandments (v.22).
4. A clean heart is wrought by keeping the supreme commandment of God (v.23).
5. A clean heart is wrought by the Spirit dwelling within (v.24).

1 (3:18-19) Heart—Love: a clean heart is wrought by loving in deed and not in word only. Most people have some feelings for a person when they see him, suffering or in need. And most people will talk about and express concern for the needy and suffering. But note this: if the needy and suffering person has done evil against us, then the feelings of many people change. They no longer feel compassion and are no longer ready to reach out and comfort or help. The attitude becomes...

- "He deserves it."
- "He is being paid back."
- "God is judging him for his evil."
- "He made his bed, let him lie in it."
- "He's reaping what he sowed."
- "If he wasn't so lazy, he would find work."
- "He could better himself if he tried."

While this attitude is sweeping through their minds, they still profess to love God and to be caring for people. But note: this is exactly what Scripture is talking about. The love that we are to have is not only the love for friends, but it is the love for one's enemies, the love that loves those who oppose us and do things against us. This is what this exhortation is talking about.

"Little children, let us not love [merely] in theory or in speech but in deed and in truth - in practice and in sincerity" (The Amplified New Testament, v.18).

To love only those who love us is to love only in theory and in speech. It is not loving like God loved; it is not practicing the love of God, the love for those who do evil.

Now note the result: if we love as God loves—if we love those who do evil—then we know we are of the truth. God is truth; He does exactly what should be done. And He loves everyone, even those who do evil. Therefore, if we are to be of the truth, we must also love those who do evil. We must love all those who oppose us and do evil against us and stand against us. When we do, the most wonderful things happen: we bring assurance to our hearts. And note: our hearts are assured before Him. This means that we are accepted by Him. He accepts us to live forever in His presence. Why? Because we are loving all men even as He loves all men—loving even those who are evil. A clean heart—a heart that is full of assurance, a heart that knows that it is pleasing and acceptable to God—is a heart that loves even as God loves. A clean heart is wrought not by loving in word, but by loving in deed.

Thought 1. Oliver Greene gives a good illustration that speaks to all of our hearts:

"There are occasions when a minister visits widows where there are children in need, and after a pastoral call the minister bows in prayer and asks God to supply the need of that family, when at that time there are hundreds - perhaps thousands - of dollars of God's money in the bank to the credit of the big church with the tall steeple! The parishioners in that church sing, 'O, how I love Jesus!' but they love Him in word only - not in deed and in truth. The Bible admonition is, 'Be ye doers of the Word,' and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves' (James 1:22)" (The Epistles of John, p.141).

2 (3:20-21) Heart—Condemnation: a clean heart is wrought by God knowing all things. Note the words, "If our heart condemn us." Everyone's heart condemns him sometime. Everyone of us knows what it is to sense wrong and condemnation. God has made our hearts sensitive so they will sense wrongdoing. Why? So that we will correct our behavior and not destroy ourselves. God is greater than our hearts and He knows all things. This means two things.

1. First, God knows everything about us. He knows when we are good and when we are bad. He knows everything that we do and more. God even knows our thoughts. He knows when we have done wrong and when we rightly or wrongly feel condemned. He knows every little thing that we feel or think. He even knows what we would have done under different circumstances. There is nothing, absolutely nothing, that is hid from God. No cover of darkness, no closed doors, no place off the side of the road, no place in the woods—no secret is unknown to God. Take all the evil we have ever done and all the condemnation we feel and sense—God knows every ounce of heaviness and guilt and condemnation we feel.

"When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long" (Ps.32:3).

"For mine iniquities are gone over mine head: as a heavy burden they are too heavy for me" (Ps.38:4).

"For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me" (Ps.51:3).

"Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?" (Acts 2:37).

"And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee" (Acts 24:25).

"If I sin, then thou markest me, and thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity" (Job 10:14).

"For now thou numberest my steps: dost thou not watch over my sin?" (Job 14:16).

"For though thou wash thee with nitre, and take thee much soap, yet thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the Lord God" (Jer.2:22).

"For mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes" (Jer.16:17).

"And the Spirit of the Lord fell upon me, and said unto me, Speak; Thus saith the Lord; Thus have ye said, O house of Israel: for I know the things that come into your mind, every one of them" (Ezk.11:5).

"And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are before my face" (Hos.7:2).

"For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right" (Amos 5:12).

"[Jesus Christ] needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man" (Jn.2:25).

2. Second, God knows how to assure our hearts and how to give us confidence toward Him. God knows how to deliver us from the sense of guilt and condemnation. God knows how to remove all condemnation from our hearts. Think about it: all condemnation and all guilt removed forever from our hearts. God knows how to remove it all.

How can God remove all the guilt and condemnation that weighs upon our hearts and lives? By love. By loving us so much that He would give His Son to die for us. When we see God's love for us, when we receive His Son as our Savior, we discover the most wonderful thing.

⇒ Jesus Christ removes the sense of guilt and condemnation; He actually forgives and cleanses us from sin.

⇒ Something else happens as well: we discover that we love everyone just as He loves everyone. Our attitude toward others is actually changed: we love everyone, and we want them to know the love of God just as we have come to know His love.

Our hearts just flow in full assurance and confidence knowing that all things are well with God. There is no more condemnation or guilt. We know that we are forgiven and cleansed through Jesus Christ. We know that we are acceptable to God and our hearts revel in the confidence and assurance of Him.

"He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God" (Jn.3:18).

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life" (Jn.5:24).

"There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit" (Ro.8:1).

"Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us" (Ro.8:34).

"If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness" (1 Jn.1:9).

"And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us" (1 Jn.3:24).

3 (3:22) Heart—Commandments: a clean heart is wrought by keeping the commandments of God and doing the things that please God. If a child disobeys his father, he displeases his father. The only way he can please his father is by obeying him. The same is true with God. If we are going to please God, we must obey God.

Note another fact as well. A father cannot reward his child if the child disobeys. The father just cannot grant the child's request, not if he wants to teach him good behavior. Neither can God. The only way we can receive the things we ask is to obey God. He cannot reward our unfaithfulness and disobedience.

This is a great verse of Scripture, for it tells us exactly how to receive the answer to our prayers. In fact, it tells us that we can receive whatever we ask, if we will do this one thing: obey God. Just keep His commandments. Keeping God's commandments does two wonderful things for us:

- ⇒ It gives us everything we ask in prayer.
- ⇒ It gives us a clean heart, the most wonderful gift we could ever receive.

"In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you" (Jn.14:2).

"Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him" (Jn.14:23).

"If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you" (Jn.15:7).

"If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love....Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you" (Jn.15:10, 14).

"But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed" (Jas.1:25).

"Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not. Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts" (Jas.4:2-3).

"Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city" (Rev.22:14).

"O that there were such a heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my commandments always, that it might be well with them, and with their children for ever!" (Dt.5:29).

4 (3:23) Commandments—Believer—Love, Brotherly: a clean heart is wrought by keeping God's supreme commandment. Note that God's supreme commandment has two parts to it. If a person wants a clean heart, he must do these two things above all else.

1. First, he must believe on the name of God's Son Jesus Christ. How can a person believe on the name of someone? We can believe a statement or some writing that a person makes. But what does it mean to believe on the name of someone? A person's name stands for what he is, for the kind of person he is and for the kind of things he does. Therefore, to believe on the name of Jesus Christ means to believe in all that He stands for and in all that He is. Jesus Christ is the Son of God, the promised Savior and Messiah of the world.

⇒ He is the Son of God who has come to earth to reveal God (see outlines and notes—1 Jn.1:1-5).

⇒ He is the great advocate and sacrifice for man and his sins (see notes—1 Jn.2:1-2).

Believing on the name of the Lord Jesus Christ is the only way a person can ever have a clean heart before God. This is a basic and fundamental fact; it is the foundation of life. No person ever becomes acceptable to God until he believes on the name of God's Son. Obeying this commandment is the very first thing that a person has to do to please God.

2. Second, he must love all others (see outline and notes, Love—1 Jn.2:7-8; 3:10-17 for discussion).

5 (3:24) Holy Spirit: a clean heart is wrought by the Holy Spirit dwelling within us. The person who believes in Jesus Christ and loves others dwells in God and God in Him. How do we know that God dwells in us? By the Holy Spirit. This is made abundantly clear: "we know that he abides in us by the Spirit which he has given us."

⇒ Note that we dwell in God. This means that we take up residence in God, live and walk in Him, live and move and have our being in Him. It means that we make our home in Him.

⇒ Note that God dwells in us. This means that He takes up residence in us; lives and moves and has His being within us. It means that God makes a home in our hearts.

Again, how do we know this? By His Spirit which He has given us. The Holy Spirit of God seals and guarantees us, gives us absolute assurance. He lives within us, which means that He talks to us, shares with us, leads and guides us, disciplines us, convicts and convinces us. All that is involved in living, the Spirit of God does within us. He is our constant and permanent companion. He never leaves us nor forsakes us. He is always infusing us with the assurance and confidence of God and with His presence and power.

"But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you" (Jn.14:26).

"The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together" (Ro.8:16-17).

"Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest [guarantee] of the Spirit in our hearts" (2 Cor.1:22).

"But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law, to redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father" (Gal.4:4-6).

"In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, which is the earnest [guarantee] of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory" (Eph.1:13-14).

"And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption" (Eph.4:30).

"And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us" (1 Jn.3:24).

DIVISION IV

THE PROOF THAT ONE REALLY LOVES GOD:
SIX TESTS, 3:1-4:21

E. Test 5: Testing the Spirits of False Teachers, 4:1-6

(4:1-6) Introduction: this is a critical passage of Scripture. It deals with true and false teachers, in particular with the spirit of truth or error that fills their hearts. This is the fifth test of our love for God. How do we know that we really love God? We can tell by the spirits of the teachers we are following. If we are following the spirit of a true teacher, then it is clear indication that we love God. If we are following the spirit of a false teacher, then it is clear indication that we do not love God. We must test the spirits of teaching throughout the world.

1. Test the spirits of teachers (v.1).
2. Test the confession of teachers (v.2-3).
3. Test yourselves (v.4).
4. Test the followers of teachers (v.5-6).

1 (4:1) Teaching, False—Evil Spirits: first, test the spirits of teachers; test them to make sure they are of God. This is a strong charge given to believers. Note the word beloved. This was John’s tender address to the believers of the church. He is definitely addressing believers, and this tells us a significant fact: believers can be misled by the spirits of false teachers. What kinds of spirits dwell within a false teacher?

⇒ A false teacher may have a spirit of light, especially in industrialized societies. The spirit presents a way of life that seems to be the truth, the very way to live. He presents a way of life that seems to be intelligent and full of knowledge and enlightenment. His way seems to be the way to go, the way that leads to...

- the good life
- progress
- development
- assurance
- satisfaction
- fulfillment
- education
- good feelings
- pleasure
- possessions
- recognition

⇒ A false teacher may have a spirit of righteousness. He may preach and teach righteousness, a righteousness that stresses...

- morality
- goodness
- justice
- education
- development
- ministry
- giving
- serving
- helping

⇒ A false teacher may stress the life and teachings of Jesus Christ—all the good qualities of life—all the traits that should characterize people. They may tell people to copy the life of Jesus and to focus their hearts upon the good qualities of life, and if they do, God will accept them.

False teachers make one fatal mistake. This is discussed in the next note. The point in this verse is that we must test the spirits of false teachers, test them to make absolutely sure they are of God. Note one other fact: there are “many false prophets.” Scripture is not talking about a few, but many. If there were many in the days of John, think how many more there are today. Think how many more religions there are; how many cults have sprung up around Christianity; how many denominations and ministries have sprung up since John wrote these words. Just think of all the churches and pulpits and podiums that are being filled by the teachers of the world. In addition, think how many preachers and teachers claim to be true followers of Christ. There are many, thousands and thousands, of false teachers in the world today. Who are they? This is the discussion of this passage. This is what every person must test in order to keep from being misled.

“For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple” (Ro.16:18).

“For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works” (2 Cor.11:13-15).

“I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed” (Gal.1:6-9).

“But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived” (2 Tim.3:13).

2 (4:2-3) Teachers—Teachers, False: second, test the confession of teachers. What is it that makes a teacher true or false? Jesus Christ. What a man believes about Jesus Christ makes the teacher true or false. What a man confesses about Jesus Christ exposes his spirit, a spirit of truth or a spirit of error. And note what it is about Jesus Christ that exposes a teacher: the incarnation. That is, did Jesus Christ come in the flesh or not?

1. The true Spirit, the Spirit of God Himself, confesses that Jesus Christ did come in the flesh, that the incarnation is true. If a teacher has the Spirit of God dwelling in him, then he confesses the incarnation, the wonderful truth that God did become Man and did come to earth to save man. The Spirit of God cannot confess anything other than the truth; therefore, every teacher who has the Spirit of God will confess the same truth. He cannot confess anything else because the Spirit of God Himself dwells within him. If he confesses anything else, then the spirit within him is not the Spirit of God. Now note the confession in detail, exactly what it is that a true teacher confesses: “Jesus Christ is come in the flesh.”

- a. The true teacher confesses Jesus. The name Jesus means Savior. It is believing that Jesus Christ did come from God to save man, to be the Savior of the world.
- b. The true teacher confesses Christ. The name Christ means Messiah, the Anointed One of God. It is believing that Jesus Christ is the promised Messiah of Scripture; that He is the fulfillment of all the prophecies of Scripture; that He is the Anointed Savior sent from God to earth.
- c. The true teacher confesses that Jesus Christ is the Son of God; that God did send His Son out of (ek) heaven, out of the spiritual world and dimension into this world; that God sent His Son in human flesh to save man in fulfillment of Scripture. It means that Jesus Christ fulfilled the Scripture predicting the coming death, resurrection, and exaltation of the Messiah. Simply stated, it means that Jesus Christ is the Son of God who came to earth to save man.

Thought 1. This is the confession of the true teacher and of every true believer. We must always remember that a true teacher is indwelt by the Spirit of God Himself. Therefore, the true teacher will always confess the incarnation, the wonderful truth that “Jesus Christ is come in the flesh.”

“Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel” (Is.7:14).

“For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace” (Is.9:6).

“And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS” (Lk.1:31).

“And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth” (Jn.1:14).

“For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh” (Ro.8:3).

“But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men” (Ph.2:7).

“And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory” (1 Tim.3:16).

“Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; and deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage” (Heb.2:14-15).

“Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God” (1 Jn.4:2).

“Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven” (Mt.10:32).

“Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God” (Lk.12:8).

“And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father” (Ph.2:11).

“Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also” (1 Jn.2:23).

“Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God” (1 Jn.4:15).

2. The false spirit denies that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. He denies the incarnation. He does not believe that God took on human flesh and became a man.

- a. The false teacher does not believe that Jesus Christ is the Savior of the world. He may accept Jesus Christ as a great teacher and a great religious leader, perhaps the greatest, but he does not believe that Jesus Christ is the Savior. He believes there are other ways to God, that other people who believe in God will be as acceptable to God as a follower of Jesus Christ.
- b. The false teacher does not believe that Jesus is the Christ, the promised Messiah and Anointed One from God. He does not believe the Scriptures are the inspired Word of God. He accepts them only as the writings of great religious people of the past; therefore, there are no prophetic promises of a Messiah, no promise of a coming Savior. To the false teacher, Jesus Christ is only a great religious teacher, only one way to reach God. He is not the Anointed One sent from God to save all men. He is not the only way to God.
- c. The false teacher does not believe Jesus Christ has come from God. He does not believe Jesus Christ is the Son of God, that Jesus Christ came out of heaven, out from the spiritual world and dimension. He does not believe that God sent His Son into the world in human flesh as a man. Again, the false teacher believes that Jesus Christ is only a man just like all other men—a great man, perhaps the greatest, perhaps the man who got closer to God than any other man. Nevertheless, to the false teacher Jesus Christ was only a man who taught us how to worship and serve God. The false teacher would say...
 - that Jesus Christ was not sinless. He lived close to God, but no man can achieve sinlessness.
 - that Jesus Christ died, but not as a substitute for man’s sins. He died as a great martyr showing us how we should face death and how we should be willing to die for the great cause of righteousness.
 - that the resurrection of Jesus Christ did not take place. It is only a picture of the spiritual truth that man can live in God’s presence.

Now, note the fatal mistake of the false teachers: to deny that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is to deny that man can ever be saved beyond this world. Why? Because man can never know for sure that God exists nor how to reach God if He does exist. No person has ever seen God or heaven, and they never will, not by physical and material technology. The physical world cannot penetrate or cross over into the spiritual world, no matter what some persons may claim. If man is ever to know God and the spiritual world, then God has to come to earth and reveal the truth to us. There is no other way. Therefore, to deny that God sent His Son into the world is to deny that we can ever be saved.

There is another fact that needs to be noted as well, that of perfection. God is perfect and man is imperfect. Therefore, God could never let man penetrate or cross over into perfection. Why? Because man’s imperfection would affect the perfect world of God. Heaven would no longer be heaven; it would no longer be perfect if God allowed imperfect beings to enter it. No matter what some people may claim about penetrating heaven, they have not. Imperfection just cannot cross over into perfection. The fatal mistake of false teachers is just that, fatal—fatal and eternally dooming. The consequences of denying the incarnation of Jesus Christ are terrible. If Jesus Christ has not come in the flesh, then it means...

- that God has not loved us enough to reveal Himself to us (1 Jn.1:2).
- that God has not loved us enough to send us the Word of life (1 Jn.1:1).
- that God has not loved us enough to show us eternal life (1 Jn.1:2).
- that there is no eternal life (1 Jn.1:2).
- that there is no fellowship with God, not for sure (1 Jn.1:3).
- that the message of hope and of Scripture are not true, not for sure (1 Jn.1:3).
- that there is no joy beyond this life, not for sure, no fulness of joy (1 Jn.1:4).
- that Jesus Christ is not our Advocate (1 Jn.2:2).
- that there is no forgiveness of sin (1 Jn.1:9; 2:2).
- that there is no perfect sacrifice for sin (1 Jn.2:2).

On and on the list could go, but the point is clearly seen. The false teacher destroys the hope of salvation and of eternity with God. We are left without hope and without God in this world unless God has loved us, loved us so much that He sent His Son Jesus Christ into the world. Jesus Christ is the crux of the message of the gospel. Note that the spirit of the false teacher is the spirit of antichrist (see outline and notes—1 Jn.2:18-23). If a teacher confesses that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, he is a true teacher. If not, he is a false teacher who promotes the very spirit of antichrist. “Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits” (v.1).

“But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven” (Mt.10:33).

“Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels” (Mk.8:38).

“But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily [secretly] shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction....The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished” (2 Pt.2:1, 9).

“Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son” (1 Jn.2:22).

“I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed” (Gal.1:6-9).

“Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven” (Mt.5:19).

“But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men” (Mt.15:9).

“Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm” (1 Tim.1:7).

“Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron” (1 Tim.4:1-2).

“If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness” (1 Tim.6:3).

“For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables” (2 Tim.4:3-4).

“For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision [legalists]: whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre’s [personal gain] sake” (Tit.1:10-11).

“But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily [secretly] shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction” (2 Pt.2:1).

3 (4:4) Believers: third, test yourselves. How? There are two ways.

1. Ask yourself if you are of God; that is, have you been born of God? (See note—1 Jn.2:29 for discussion.)
2. Ask yourself if you are overcoming the spirits of false teachers? The Spirit of God is in you, and He is far greater than the evil spirits of false teachers. He enables you to conquer false teachers. Therefore, if you are following a teacher who denies the incarnation, that the Son of God has come in the flesh, then you are not of God. You are not born of God. But if you have rejected the teachings of men who deny the incarnation of Jesus Christ, then you are born of God.

Thought 1. Many false teachers are persuasive. They are very personable, attractive, and appealing—full of charisma. Their ideas and teachings sound reasonable and appealing. But if a person has been truly born of God, he has the Holy Spirit to help him see the error of the teaching. And note the words “you have overcome them.” The Spirit of God does not fail. Therefore, if a person is following some strange teaching about Jesus Christ, he is most likely not born of God. Those who are truly born of God confess that Jesus Christ is the Son of God who has come in the flesh. They confess...

- the incarnation
- the righteousness and sinlessness of Jesus Christ
- the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ
- the ascension and exaltation of Jesus Christ

“Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you” (Jn.14:17).

“But the comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you” (Jn.14:26).

“Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will show you things to come” (Jn.16:13).

“But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his” (Ro.8:9).

“For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God” (Ro.8:14).

“Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God. Which things also we speak, not in the words which man’s wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual” (1 Cor.2:12-13).

“Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?” (1 Cor.3:16).

“But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him” (1 Jn.2:27).

“And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us” (1 Jn.3:24).

“Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit” (1 Jn.4:13).

4 (4:5-6) Teachers—Teachers, False: fourth, test the followers of teachers. We can look at the people who follow teachers and tell whether a teacher is false or not.

1. False teachers are followed by people who are worldly. Note the three things said:
 - a. False teachers are of the world. They have only a natural birth; they have never been born of God, never been spiritually born. The Spirit of God, the divine nature of God, is not dwelling within their hearts.
 - b. False teachers speak from the viewpoint of the world. What does this mean? It means they teach a worldly or human approach to God:
 - ⇒ that man reaches God by being good and doing good.
 - ⇒ that man becomes acceptable to God by living a religious life and by doing religious things such as being confirmed, baptized, going to church, confessing, and keeping the rituals and ceremonies.
 - ⇒ that man secures God’s approval by combining his spirit with God’s Spirit through communion and through righteous deeds.
- Note: such approaches to God center and focus upon man and what he does. They are centered in the world, not in God and what God has done to save man. Man saves himself, not God through His Son Jesus Christ.
- c. The world hears false teachers. The message of false teachers appeals to man. For if the Son of God has not come to earth, then there is no absolute and infallible rule to govern man. Therefore, we are somewhat free to find our own way to God the best we can. If we stumble here and there, it will not matter that much. God will understand, for He has left us to find our own way. This teaching, of course, tends...
 - to excuse sin
 - to exalt man as his own savior
 - to stress ego and self-image over the power of God and His Spirit
 - to give man the right to gain personal authority and power over others
 - to give man the right to focus upon success, position, money, pleasures, and possessions
 - to stress man and his inner power [will] over God’s power
 - to exalt man and his importance over God
 - to focus upon the discipline and control of the flesh over the power of God’s Spirit

“And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous” (Lk.18:9).

“Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me. Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word” (Jn.8:42-43).

“Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me? He that is of God heareth God’s words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God” (Jn.8:46-47).

“For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools” (Ro.1:20-22; cp. v.18-32).

“For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God. For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe” (1 Cor.1:18-21; cp. 1 Cor.3:19-21).

“And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know” (1 Cor.8:2).

“Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall” (1 Cor.10:12).

“For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself” (Gal.6:3).

“Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil” (Pr.3:7).

“Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man who can find?” (Pr.20:6).

“He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered” (Pr.28:26).

“Woe unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight!” (Is.5:21).

“Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children: but these two things shall come to thee in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection for the multitude of thy sorceries and for the great abundance of thine enchantments. For thou hast trusted in thy wickedness: thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath perverted thee; and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me” (Is.47:8-10).

“Ye have plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men” (Hos.10:13).

“The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground? though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the LORD” (Obad.3-4).

2. True teachers are followed by people who know God. They know and confess that Jesus Christ, the Son of God, has come in the flesh. Therefore, they follow the teacher who proclaims...

- the incarnation of God, that is, the virgin birth, that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh.
- the righteousness of Jesus Christ, that He did live a sinless life when He was upon earth and thereby secured righteousness for man.
- the death of Jesus Christ, that He died for man’s sins, that He was the perfect sacrifice for sin, wholly and perfectly acceptable to God.
- the resurrection of Jesus Christ, that He arose and conquered death for all men and made it possible for man to live a new life, a new life that conquers all the forces of evil and that infuses into man the seed of eternal life.

Note what the verse says: those who know God are the followers of the true teacher, but those who are not of God do not hear the true teacher. This is the way we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

Thought 1. We can tell a true teacher by the people who follow him. Our task is to look at the followers of any teacher. What kind of life do they live—a worldly or righteous life? (See outlines and notes—1 Jn.2:15-17; 1 Jn.2:29; 3:4-9 for more discussion.)

“And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection” (Lk.8:14).

“Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me. If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself” (Jn.7:16-17).

“Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed” (Jn.8:31).

“Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you” (Jn.14:17).

“But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me” (Jn.15:26).

“Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will show you things to come” (Jn.16:13).

“Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God: that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God” (1 Cor.2:12).

“We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error” (1 Jn.4:6).

DIVISION IV

THE PROOF THAT ONE REALLY LOVES GOD: SIX TESTS, 3:1-4:21

F. Test 6: Loving One Another, 4:7-21

(4:7-21) Introduction: Do we really love God? This is the sixth test, the one sure way to measure whether or not we love God: Do we love one another? Do we really love our neighbors, all of our fellow men? No matter who they are, do we love them? If we love our fellow man, this proves that we love God. Loving one another proves seven things.

1. Loving one another proves that we are born of God and know God (v.7-8).
2. Loving one another proves that we see God's love (v.9-11).
3. Loving one another proves that God's Spirit is within us (v.12-13).
4. Loving one another proves that our testimony and confession are true (v.14-16).
5. Loving one another proves that God is going to deliver from judgment (v.17).
6. Loving one another proves that God delivers us from fear (v.18).
7. Loving one another proves that we love God (v.19-21).

1 (4:7-8) Love—New Birth: loving one another proves that we are born of God and that we know God. Note two things.

1. God is love; His very nature is love (v.7). Therefore, if a person loves God, he becomes a loving person; he takes on the very nature of God. If a person really loves God, then he does what God does: he loves everyone. Note exactly what the verse says. When we love one another, people see two things:

- ⇒ People see that we are born of God. They see that we have the nature of God, that God has put His divine nature into us. How do they see God's nature in us? By our love. They see us doing the very same thing that God does—loving people. They see us loving everyone: the rich and poor, healthy and suffering, deserving and undeserving, acceptable and unacceptable, good and bad. They see us loving everyone, no matter who they are.
- ⇒ People see that we know God. They see that we have been talking to God and learning about God; that we are doing what God says, carrying out His instructions. They see that we know God, fellowship and commune with Him; that we are living godly lives, and that we are actually taking on the very nature of God.

How do they see all this? By our love. They see that we are loving and caring just as God is loving and caring.

2. But note a significant fact: the person who does not love others reveals something as well: he does not know God (v.8). Who is this person? Who is it that does not know God? The person who...

- | | | |
|--------------------|-------------------|--------------|
| • lives selfishly | • steals | • gossips |
| • hoards and banks | • neglects others | • curses |
| • discriminates | • abuses | • gets angry |
| • is prejudiced | • criticizes | • hates |
| • elevates himself | • backbites | • murders |

This person does not know God. God is love and this person is not loving. He is not living like God lives; he is not demonstrating love for other people, not showing concern and care and not helping and ministering to people's needs. He is not blessing other people; he is causing hurt and pain and destroying them. And this is not God's nature; God is love. God blesses people; He does not hurt and destroy them.

“And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself” (Mt.22:39).

“By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another” (Jn.13:35).

“This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you” (Jn.15:12).

“Let love be without dissimulation [hypocrisy]. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good” (Ro.12:9).

“And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you” (1 Th.3:12).

“Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently” (1 Pt.1:22).

2 (4:9-11) God, Love of—Jesus Christ, Death—Propitiation: loving one another proves that we see God's love.

1. Note God's love (v.9). In fact this is the very way that we know that God is love. If someone asks, “How do we know that God is love? The world is full of so much evil and bad, how can we be sure God loves us?” Note the Scripture: this is the way God revealed that He loves us. “God sent His only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through Him.” The world is full of evil and bad. Men commit all kinds of evil, and in addition to this they...

- | | |
|------------------|---------------------|
| • curse God | • reject God |
| • ignore God | • rebel against God |
| • neglect God | • deny God |
| • disobey God | • oppose God |
| • disbelieve God | |

But this is the glorious love of God. God still loves man and still wants to help and to take care of man. Man has the most serious problem imaginable: not only is he engulfed with all the evil of the world, but he dies and ceases to be on this earth. He lives at most for just a few short years and then he is gone forever from the earth. But as stated, God is love and He has proven His love. He has sent His only Son into the world so that man might live through Him.

2. Note how we know the love of God: by salvation. We know that God loves us because God saves man. How can we live through Christ? How does God give us life through Christ? By sending Christ to be the propitiation for our sins (v.10. See note, pt.2—1 Jn.2:1-2; DEEPER STUDY # 1—1 Jn.2:2 for discussion.)

3. The conclusion is compelling: “Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought to love one another” (v.11). If God loved us when we opposed and did things against Him, when we disobeyed and ignored Him, then there is no person we should not love. If God went to such great lengths to give His very own Son to die for us, then we should go to the same length to love one another. We are to love those who...

- | | |
| • oppose us | • curse us |
| • do things against us | • reject us |
| • ignore us | • persecute us |
| • distrust us | • kill us |

No matter who the person is, God loves him and has shown in the most supreme way possible that He loves him. Therefore, we are to love that person and demonstrate our love for him. We are to sacrifice ourselves and try to bring life to him. This we do by loving him, by showing him there is a better way, the way of love.

3 (4:12-13) Love—Holy Spirit—Indwelling Presence: loving one another proves that God's Spirit is within us.

1. God is not known by sight (v.12). No person has ever seen God face to face. No person has ever penetrated the spiritual world and crossed over into heaven and seen God. No matter what some claim, Scripture is clear—no person has ever seen God. Even Jesus Christ Himself declared the same fact:

“No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him” (Jn.1:18).

2. How then can we know God (v.12)? God is known only by love, only by His Spirit who dwells within believers. When a person believes in the love of God, that God loves us so much that He gave His Son to die for our sins, it pleases God supremely. God is perfectly pleased, for God loves His Son with a perfect love. Therefore, when a person honors God's Son by believing in Christ, God takes that person and puts His Spirit into the person. God actually implants His divine nature, the Holy Spirit, into the life of the believer. He does this so that His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, will have many followers, followers who will honor Christ by living and loving just as He lived and loved.

Simply stated, we know God by love. If we love God, then we accept what God has done for us in Christ. When we accept Christ, God puts His Spirit in us. It is that simple. We simply know God by loving Him, loving Him for all that He has done for us in Christ. And when we love Him and love His Son, God just floods our being with His precious Holy Spirit.

Now note what happens when God begins to dwell within us (v.12). We love one another and God's love becomes perfected, that is, complete and fulfilled in us. We just grow and grow in love. We mature more and more, ever completing and perfecting the love of God upon earth.

3. Note one other thing: How do we know that we dwell in God and He in us (v.13)? By the Holy Spirit whom He has given to us. If we have the Holy Spirit dwelling within us, He bears witness with our spirit. It is impossible for God to be living within the body and life of a person and the person not know it. It is the Spirit of God who tells us that we have been saved and are in God and God in us.

Thought 1. If a person does not have the witness of God's Spirit within him, he needs to evaluate his conversion. The likelihood is that he has never been saved. Even if he is temporarily in a backslidden state, the Holy Spirit is convicting and bugging him to repent and turn back to God.

"Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: of sin, because they believe not on me; of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more; of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged" (Jn.16:7-11).

"But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you" (Ro.8:11).

"The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God" (Ro.8:16).

"And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father" (Gal.4:6).

"And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us" (1 Jn.3:24).

"Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit" (1 Jn.4:13).

"This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth" (1 Jn.5:6).

4 (4:14-16) Testimony—Confession—Love: loving one another proves that our testimony and confession are true. This is the great testimony of John. But note how it is the testimony of every genuine believer as well.

1. There is John's declaration: that he and the early believers had seen and do testify that the Father sent His Son to be the Savior of the world (v.14. See outline and notes—1 Jn.1:1-5 for discussion.)

2. There is the great promise to the whole human race: "Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwells in him and he in God" (v.15. See note—1 Jn.4:2-3 for discussion. Apply what is said about teachers to every person. Also see note, Jesus Christ, Diety—1 Jn.1:1 for more discussion.)

3. There is the great testimony and confession of John himself and the early believers: "we have known and believed the love that God has to us" (v.16). What is it that they knew and believed? Three things, and all three are critical. Note them closely.

- a. "God is love." God has sent His Son to be the Savior of the world. This is the way we know that God is love.
- b. Believers must love. They must dwell in love; that is, they must live in love, love one another with all their hearts.
- c. Loving one another is the way we can tell that we are saved. If we dwell in love, then we dwell in God and God in us. The way we know that we dwell in God and God in us is by our love. If we love one another, then we are demonstrating the nature of God. If we are not loving one another, then we are demonstrating that we do not have the nature of God. Loving one another shows whether or not God is in us.
 - ⇒ God is love; therefore, if we have the nature of God, we are loving people—all people—just as God loves them.
 - ⇒ God is love, therefore, if we are not loving people, we do not have the nature of God. We are not saved no matter what we claim. The proof that we are saved, that we have the nature of God, is loving others.

"Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent" (Jn.6:28-29).

"That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation" (Ro.10:9-10).

"And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father" (Ph.2:11).

"Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also" (1 Jn.2:23).

“My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth. And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him” (1 Jn.3:18-19).

“We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error. Beloved, let us love one other: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love” (1 Jn.4:6-8).

“Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God” (1 Jn.4:15).

5 (4:17) Assurance—Judgment—Boldness—Love: loving one another proves that God is going to deliver us from judgment. Judgment is coming—a day of universal judgment when all persons will be brought before the great Judge Himself, the Lord Jesus Christ. This is the clear declaration of Scripture:

“But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment” (Mt.12:36).

“For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works” (Mt.16:27).

“When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats” (Mt.25:31-32).

“But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ” (Ro.14:10).

“For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad” (2 Cor.5:10).

“Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ. But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons” (Col.3:24-25).

“And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment” (Heb.9:27).

“And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man’s work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear” (1 Pt.1:17).

“The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished” (2 Pt.2:9).

“But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men” (2 Pt.3:7).

“And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him” (Jude 14-15).

“And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works” (Rev.20:12).

But note the most wonderful thing: we can be delivered from judgment. We can face the great day of judgment boldly without dread and fear. How? By living a life of love, by loving one another perfectly. In fact, the fruit of love is having boldness in the day of judgment. If we love perfectly—if we allow our love to be complete and fulfilled—if we allow love to live itself out through us—then we will have boldness in the day of judgment. God will give us assurance that we shall not be judged, but on the contrary, we shall be rewarded.

How, then, is it possible to perfect our love while on earth? By living in the world just as Jesus lived. Even as He was in the world, so we are to be in the world. That is, Jesus Christ loved when He was in the world; He walked in love. Therefore, we are to love one another while in the world. We are to bear witness and proclaim the love of God and love one another just as Christ did. This is to be the consuming passion of our lives. The more we love, the more we grow and become perfected in love; and the more we grow and become perfected in love, the more assurance and boldness we have about the future judgment. The more we love, the more assurance God gives us that we shall not be judged in that day.

Thought 1. Most people, even believers, are wrong in their ideas about the return of Christ. He is Judge as well as Savior. And believers are to be judged at the judgment seat of Christ. Some will be weeping even as others will be joyful. It all depends upon how we have lived, what we have done in our bodies and in our works for Him.

“For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad” (2 Cor.5:10).

The only way to be assured of deliverance from judgment, of having boldness to stand with uplifted face, is to live a life of love—to love everyone more and more while on earth.

“In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him” (Eph.3:12).

“Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need” (Heb.4:16).

“For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day” (2 Tim.1:12).

“Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;) and let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching” (Heb.10:22-25).

“And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments. He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him” (1 Jn.2:3-5).

“My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth. And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him. For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God. And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight” (1 Jn.3:18-22).

“Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit” (1 Jn.4:13).

“Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world” (1 Jn.4:17).

“And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God” (1 Jn.5:11-13).

6 (4:18) Fear—Fearlessness—Love: loving one another proves that God delivers us from fear. This is an excellent verse on fear and how to conquer fear. Note the four things said.

1. There is no fear in love. If we really love someone, there is no need to fear him. In fact, we will not fear him. If we love the person, sacrificially give him our very best, then we have done all we can. Our lives and what we have done are in God’s hands. We will rest assured that we can do no more. A peace, an assurance, will sweep over our soul. Note this, for it is the promise of God: when we really love someone, really give sacrificially all that we can, God will give us a peace and an assurance of soul that erases all fear. Our souls will know no fear, only peace and assurance of God’s care. This is the promise of God even if some people react against us and persecute us and martyr us. God will give us such a deep sense of His presence—so deep that we will be flooded with peace and assurance. This is what Peter calls “the spirit of glory and of God” that rests upon the believer when he is reproached.

“If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified” (1 Pt.4:14).

2. Perfect love casts out fear. This is critical to note, for only a love that is growing and growing will be blessed by God. A believer cannot love one person and hold feelings against another person. This is not love. True love is impartial. A person who really loves loves everyone. There is no such thing as a heart filled with love and hate. The two are incompatible. Therefore, the only believer who knows the peace and assurance of God is the believer who is being perfected in love, the believer who is growing and growing in love, fulfilling and completing his love.

3. Fear has torment; that is, it thinks about and expects punishment or suffering or loss. A person feels that something is going to happen to him. Such feelings, of course, cause all kinds of disturbance and problems for people, all to varying degrees. People fear all kinds of things:

- | | |
|-----------------------|---------------------------|
| ⇒ suffering | ⇒ economic slump |
| ⇒ divorce | ⇒ the future |
| ⇒ loss of health | ⇒ God and His judgment |
| ⇒ loss of a loved one | ⇒ loss of a job |
| ⇒ loss of wealth | ⇒ heights, darkness ,etc. |

Fear causes anxiety, dread, alarm, fright, panic, and terror. It causes all kinds of unpleasant emotions, phobias, neurosis, and even the more serious psychotic disorders. The torment of fear is one of the worst problems faced by man.

4. Fear means that a person is not perfected in love.

- ⇒ The person is not fully grasping (perfected) the love and care of God for him (see note—1 Jn.4:9-11 for more discussion).
- ⇒ The person is not loving other people like he should; he is not growing more and more in love. His eyes are upon himself, not upon God and others like they should be.

In summary, fear can be cast out only by the perfect love of God. The more we know of God’s love and care and the more we love other people, the more fear is conquered in our lives. The reason is clearly seen in the promises of God. God loves us so much that He will take care of us through all the trials and temptations of life, no matter what they are.

- ⇒ There is no need to fear people, the evil that they can do to us; God will strengthen and deliver us even through death.

“At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge. Notwithstanding the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever” (2 Tim.4:16-18).

“Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me” (Ps.23:4).

“The LORD is on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me?” (Ps.118:6).

“So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me” (Heb.13:6).

⇒ There is no need to fear judgment. God delivers us from judgment.

“Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?” (Ro.8:34-35).

⇒ There is no need to fear the dark or the enemies of the dark. God will take care of us.

“But thou, O LORD, art a shield for me; my glory, and the lifter up of mine head. I cried unto the LORD with my voice, and he heard me out of his holy hill. Selah. I laid me down and slept; I awaked; for the LORD sustained me” (Ps.3:3-5).

“Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day” (Ps.91:5).

“When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid: yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet” (Pr.3:24).

⇒ There is no need to fear not having food to eat or clothing.

“Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you” (Mt.6:31-33).

7 (4:19-21) Love: loving one another proves that we love God. How do we know that we love God? There are three ways.

1. We know that we love God because we know God’s love for us (v.19). He loves us and we have seen His love; therefore, we love Him. (See note—1 Jn.4:9-11 for more discussion.)

2. We know that we love God because we do not hate our brother. If we love God, it is impossible to hold feelings against our brother. Why? Because God is love. If we have the nature of God in us, then we love our brothers. Note how strong this verse states the fact.

“If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?” (v.20).

We cannot see God, but we can see our brothers. It is far easier to love someone in this world whom we can see than it is to love someone whom we cannot see. Therefore, if we say that we love God and hate those whom we see, we are lying.

3. We know that we love God because we keep His commandment. What is His commandment? If we love God, we are to love our brothers also.

“A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another” (Jn.13:34-35).

“He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep” (Jn.21:16).

“We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death. Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him” (1 Jn.3:14-15).

“Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. But whoso hath this world’s good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?” (1 Jn.3:16-17).

“And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment” (1 Jn.3:23).

DIVISION V

THE PROOF THAT ONE REALLY BELIEVES IN GOD: FOUR TESTS, 5:1-21

A. Test 1: Being Born Again, 5:1-5

(5:1-5) Introduction: practically every person claims that he believes in God. Few people claim to be atheistic or agnostic. Most people claim to believe in God and claim to have some idea in their minds about what God is like. But note this: people's beliefs and ideas differ. Quickly think across the world at the different beliefs and ideas of God, the beliefs and ideas of the Muslims, the Buddhists, the Jews, the Hindus, the Christians and so on. In reality, there are just about as many ideas about God as there are people upon earth, for every person has his own mind, and within his mind his own idea of God. This fact brings about a critical question: Who is right? Whose belief and idea of God is correct? One thing is sure: if God really exists, then it is of utmost importance that we be correct in what we believe and think about Him. For someday we shall all stand before Him and give an account to Him.

How can we tell if we believe in God, if our beliefs and concepts of God are accurate? How can we tell if we really believe in the only living and true God? This is the discussion of this last chapter of First John. There are four tests that will show us. The first test is basic: Have we been born of God? If we have been born of God, then we definitely believe in God. God would not have given His divine nature to a person who does not believe in Him. Therefore, if we have the divine nature of God, if we have been truly born again, then we believe in God, in the living and true God. But how can we tell if we have been born of God? There are three proofs.

1. Proof 1: believing Jesus is the Christ (v.1).
2. Proof 2: obeying and keeping God's commandments (v.2-3).
3. Proof 3: conquering the world (v.4-5).

DEEPER STUDY # 1

(5:1-5) New Birth—Born Again—New Creation—Regeneration: being born of God means a spiritual birth, a rebirth of one's spirit, a new life, a renewed soul, a regenerated spirit. It is the regeneration and renewal of one's spirit and behavior (2 Cor.5:17). It is the endowment of a new life, of a godly nature (2 Pt.1:4). The new birth is so radical a change in a person's life that it can be described only as being born again. Something so wonderful happens to the soul that it is just like a new birth. It is a spiritual birth, a birth beyond the grasp of man's hands and efforts. It is so radical, so life-changing, and so wonderful that it can be wrought only by the love and power of God Himself.

The New Testament teaching on the new birth is rich and full.

1. The new birth is a necessity. A person will never see (Jn.3:3) nor ever enter (Jn.3:5) the Kingdom of God unless he is born again (Jn.3:7).
2. The new birth is a spiritual birth, the birth of a new power and spirit in life. It is not reformation of the old nature (Ro.6:6). It is the actual creation of a new birth within—spiritually (Jn.3:5-6; cp. Jn.1:12-13; 2 Cor.5:17; Eph.2:10; 4:24). (See notes—Eph.1:3; 4:17; DEEPER STUDY # 3—4:24.) A person is spiritually born again:
 - a. By water, even the Spirit (see DEEPER STUDY # 2—Jn.3:5).
 - b. By the will of God (Jas.1:18).
 - c. By incorruptible seed, even by the Word of God (1 Pt.1:23).
 - d. By God from above (1 Pt.1:3). The word again (ana) in the phrase "born again" also means above. (Cp. Jn.1:12-13.)
 - e. By Christ, who gives both the power and right to be born again (Jn.1:12-13).
3. The new birth is a definite experience, a real experience. A person experiences the new birth:
 - a. By believing that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God (1 Jn.5:1; cp. Jn.3:14-15).
 - b. By the gospel as it is shared by believers (1 Cor.4:15; Phile.10).
 - c. By the Word of God (1 Pt.1:23), or by the Word of Truth (Jas.1:18).

4. The new birth is a changed life, a totally new life. A person proves that he is born again:
- a. By doing righteous acts (1 Jn.2:29; cp. Eph.2:10; 4:24).
 - b. By not practicing sin (1 Jn.3:9; 5:18).
 - c. By loving other believers (1 Jn.4:7).
 - d. By overcoming the world (1 Jn.5:4).
 - e. By keeping himself (1 Jn.5:18).
 - f. By possessing the divine seed or nature (1 Jn.3:9; 1 Pt.1:23; 2 Pt.1:14; cp. Col.1:27).

1 (5:1) New Birth—Belief: the first proof of the new birth is this: believing that Jesus is the Christ. The word Christ means Messiah or Anointed One. Jesus Christ is the Son of God anointed to be the Savior of the world. He was anointed by God for a very special mission, the mission of coming to earth to save man and to give man eternal life (see notes—1 Jn.2:1-2; DEEPER STUDY # 1—2:2; notes—3:23; 4:2-3; 4:9-11 for more discussion). The person who believes that Jesus is the Anointed One of God, that He was sent into the world to save man, that person is given a new birth by God.
 ⇒ He is “born of God.”

“Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him” (1 Jn.5:1).

⇒ He is “born again.”

“Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother’s womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God” (Jn.3:3-5).

⇒ He is made into “a new creature.”

“Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new” (2 Cor.5:17).

⇒ He is made into “a new man.”

“And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness” (Eph.4:24).

“And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him” (Col.3:10).

Note two significant facts.

1. A person who is “born of God” loves God. He cannot help loving God, for God does this most wonderful thing for him. God recreates him into a new creature who will live forever in God’s presence. When we really think about what God has done for us in Christ, that God sacrificed His Son to save us, our hearts just flood with love for God.

Thought 1. We should often get alone and meditate on the great love of God. The very thought that God sacrificed His Son to bear our sins is enough to break us in humble adoration. But we must take time to get alone and study the Scriptures that cover God’s love and sacrifice. We must take time to meditate upon the great truth in order to see and understand it in all its depth and meaning.

“As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love” (Jn.15:9).

“For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God” (Jn.16:27).

“For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead” (2 Cor.5:14).

“I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me” (Gal.2:20).

“Grace [God’s salvation] be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity” (Eph.6:24).

“Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory” (1 Pt.1:8).

“Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life” (Jude 21).

“And thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might” (Dt.6:5).

2. A person who loves God will love other believers as well. Note why: because God has given other believers a spiritual birth as well. They are our brothers and sisters in Christ. They too have been born of God and made into new creatures. We are all of the family of God; God is our Father who has given birth to us all. Therefore, we are brothers and sisters of one another. We share...

- the same God
- the same Father
- the same rebirth
- the same divine nature
- the same adoption

The point is that we love one another. If we have truly been “born of God” and love God, then we love the whole family of God. We love all those who have been born of God; we love all our brothers and sisters in Christ.

Thought 1. True believers love one another. There are no believers who do not love their brothers and sisters in Christ. How can we say this? Because a true believer has the nature of God, and God is love. If a person has the nature of God (been born of God), then he loves: he loves the family of God. Differences do not matter, differences of...

Nothing keeps us from loving one another if we have truly been born of God. The person who is born of God loves God, and he loves all those who love God. He loves his brothers and sisters in the Lord.

“A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another” (Jn.13:34-35).

“This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you” (Jn.15:12).

“And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you” (1 Th.3:12).

“Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently” (1 Pt.1:22).

“Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren” (1 Jn.3:16).

2 (5:2-3) Commandments—Love: the second proof of the new birth is obedience. The person who is born of God keeps God’s commandments.

- ⇒ Do we really believe God? Yes, if we keep His commandments. No, if we do not keep His commandments. The person who really believes God, who really casts himself upon God and relies upon God, does what God says. He depends upon God’s Word; he believes that God’s Word works. Therefore, he obeys God.
- ⇒ Do we really love God (v.2)? Yes, if we keep His commandments. No, if we do not keep His commandments. If we really love God, really care for Him, then we want to please Him. We want to do what He says. Therefore, the person who really loves God is the person who keeps His commandments.

Now note what these two verses say:

1. Our obedience and love for God prove that we love the children of God. God commands us to love our brothers and sisters in Christ; therefore, if we obey God, we must love them. If we love God, then we obey Him and love one another.

Thought 1. A person has no choice; this is not an optional commandment. If a person is going to love God...

- he must obey God.
- he must obey by loving the other children of God—all of them no matter who they are.

2. Our obedience to God proves our love for God (v.3). In fact, this is the love of God, that we keep His commandment. Keeping God’s commandment proves...

- that we love God
- that we are loving God
- that we possess love for God
- that we lift up our hearts in love to God

There is no other way to show God that we love Him except by doing what He says. Note: some people feel that God’s commandments are grievous, a real burden. They feel that the commandments of Scripture restrict them too much, and keep a person from the pleasures and possessions of the world. They feel that to be a Christian disallows a person from having fun and enjoying life. To them the demands of God are just too large a price to pay, that demanding all one is and has is too much to ask of a person. But the exact opposite is true: Scripture declares that God’s commandments are not grievous. They are not too large a burden for men to carry. How could this be, for there is no question: God demands the total allegiance of all one is and has.

⇒ Jesus Christ gives rest to the soul. All the restlessness, disturbance, distress, pain, and suffering that man experiences in this world is replaced by peace when a person turns his life over to God and begins to love and obey God.

“Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light” (Mt.11:28-30).

1 JOHN 5:1-5

⇒ Jesus Christ never allows a trial or temptation to come upon a person beyond what the person can bear. Christ always provides the strength or the way to escape.

“There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it” (1 Cor.10:13).

“Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ’s gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord” (2 Cor.2:12).

“Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us” (Eph.3:20).

“For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind” (2 Tim.1:7).

⇒ Jesus Christ gives a person the greatest hope in all the world; He gives us the greatest promises of reward. Therefore, when a person keeps his eyes upon the hope, the commandments of God become light and easy to bear.

“In my Father’s house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also” (Jn.14:2-3).

“Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ” (Tit.2:12-13).

“That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life” (Tit.3:7).

⇒ God gives all true believers His Spirit, and the Spirit gives all the assurance, confidence, and security, and all the love, joy, and peace that one could ever need or want. The believer is filled with life and all the real and meaningful things of life. Therefore, the believer never thinks of God’s commandments as being grievous. They are a joy to him, for they bring abundant life to him.

“But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law” (Gal.5:22-23).

“Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God” (1 Cor.2:12).

“If ye love me, keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you” (Jn.14:15-18).

“But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you. Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid” (Jn.14:26-27).

⇒ God gives the true believer fellowship with Himself and with Christ, then He floods the heart of the believer with joy.

“These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full” (Jn.15:11).

“And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full” (1 Jn.1:4).

3 (5:4-5) Faith—New Birth—Victory—World: the third proof of the new birth is this—we are overcoming the world.

These two verses are two of the great verses of Scripture, verses that should be memorized and lived by every believer. Note that the same point is being made in every statement; the very same thing is being said three times. What emphasis! The point is to be understood and followed.

⇒ The person who is born of God overcomes the world.

⇒ The victory that overcomes the world is our faith.

⇒ The person who overcomes the world is the person who believes that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

Who is it that is born of God? It is the person who believes that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. The world is overcome by faith. Victory is gained over the world by faith in Jesus Christ, by believing that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

Now note: the one thing that man needs is victory over the world. Why? Because the world is full of...

1 JOHN 5:1-5

Then there is the most fatal blow of all: corruption and death. Without exception we are all corrupt and we all die. The one thing that man needs above all else is victory over the world with all its corruption and death. How then can he triumph and conquer the world? How can he overcome the world? By believing that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. When a person believes that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, God gives him a new heart. He is “born of God”—spiritually born of God. It is his faith that overcomes the world. What does this mean?

⇒ It means that God gives the believer victory over all the trials and temptations of life.

“These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world” (Jn.16:33).

“There hath no temptation [trial] taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it” (1 Cor.10:13).

“And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever” (2 Tim.4:18).

“The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished” (2 Pt.2:9).

⇒ It means that God gives the believer victory over all the forces and difficulties of life.

“Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?...Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord” (Ro.8:35, 37-39).

“Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place” (2 Cor.2:14).

“The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise him” (Ps.28:7).

“Fear thou not; For I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness” (Is.41:10).

“I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine. When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee” (Is.43:1-2).

⇒ It means that God gives the believer victory over sin.

“Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. For he that is dead is freed from sin. Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him” (Ro.6:6-8).

“Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof. Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God. For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace” (Ro.6:11-14).

“But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life” (Ro.6:22).

“Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed” (1 Pt.2:24).

⇒ It means that God gives the believer victory over death.

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life” (Jn.5:24).

“Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; and deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage” (Heb.2:14-15).

⇒ It means that God gives the believer victory over judgment.

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God" (Jn.3:16-18).

"But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life" (Ro.5:8-10).

⇒ It means that God gives the believer victory over fear and despair and fills him with love, joy, and peace.

"Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid" (Jn.14:27).

"These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world" (Jn.16:33).

"For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life. And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement" (Ro.5:10-11).

"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law" (Gal.5:22-23).

"Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world. But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while [here on earth], make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you" (1 Pt.5:8-10).

⇒ It means that God gives the believer victory over Satan and all other spiritual forces.

"Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand" (Eph.6:11-13).

"And having spoiled principalities and power, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it" (Col.2:15).

THE PROOF THAT ONE REALLY BELIEVES IN GOD: FOUR TESTS, 5:1-21

B. Test 2: Believing the Witness About Christ: That He is the Son of God (Part I), 5:6-8

(5:6-8) Introduction: Do we really believe in God? There are four tests that will show us. The second test is striking: Do we believe the witness about Christ? There are several witnesses to Christ, strong witnesses.

The question arises: Is Jesus the Christ, the true Messiah, the promised Messiah of the Old Testament prophecies? Is Jesus Christ really the Savior of men, the One sent by God to earth to save men and to give them life? Is Jesus Christ really, beyond any question, the Son of God? There are very strong witnesses that emphatically declare, "Yes!" If a person believes these witnesses, then he believes in God. If he does not accept the witnesses to Jesus Christ, then he does not believe in God, not in the true and living God. Whatever god the person believes in, that god is a god of his own imagination. Why do we say this? Because God, the true and living God, loves man—loves him so much that He has sent His Son into the world to save man. And in addition to this glorious demonstration of love, God has given witness after witness that His Son has come into the world. All men are, therefore, without excuse if they reject the witnesses to Jesus Christ. The task of man is to receive the testimony of the witnesses, to believe the testimony about His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ.

1. There is the mission of Jesus Christ (v.6).
2. There is the witness of the Holy Spirit (v.6).
3. There are the witnesses of heaven (v.7).
4. There are the witnesses of earth (v.8).

1 (5:6) Jesus Christ, Mission: there is the mission of Jesus Christ. Note how John declares the mission of Christ:

“This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood” (v.6).

This may seem like a strange way to state the mission of Christ, to say that Jesus “came by water [His baptism] and blood [His death].” But remember what has just been said in verse 5: a person must “believe that Jesus is the Son of God.” Here in verse 6 John is declaring that beyond any question Jesus Christ is the Son of God. He was declared to be the Son of God...

- by His baptism, by the water.
- by His death, by the blood.

Both the water (His baptism) and the blood (His death) declare Him to be the Son of God. Both are extremely important.

1. The baptism of Jesus Christ is a great witness to Jesus Christ. It launched His mission upon earth. Two things happened at the baptism that were most unusual.

- a. The Spirit of God came upon Christ in the form of a dove. Remember that John the Baptist was to be the forerunner of the Messiah. In order to point to the Messiah, John had to know who the Messiah was and to know beyond any question. Therefore, God told John that He would give him a sign, the sign of a dove. God would cause the Spirit of God to come upon His Son in the form of a dove. By this sign John would know the Messiah.

“And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him. And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost. And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God” (Jn.1:32-34).

Note how emphatic John is. He states the glorious truth as forcefully as he can: “I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.” The water, the baptism of Jesus Christ, declares emphatically that Jesus is the Son of God.

- b. The voice of God proclaimed Jesus Christ to be the Son of God.
⇒ Matthew testifies that God’s voice called Jesus Christ His Son.

“And lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased” (Mt.3:17).

⇒ Mark testifies that God’s voice called Jesus Christ His Son.

“And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased” (Mk.1:11).

⇒ Luke testifies that God’s voice called Jesus Christ His Son.

“And the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased” (Lk.3:22).

2. The blood of Jesus Christ, His death and cross, declares Him to be the Son of God. It is by His death and cross that our sins are forgiven. He bore our sins upon the cross, took our judgment and suffered the punishment for us. This is what He was doing upon the cross. And this is the glorious gospel. Since Jesus Christ took our sins and died for them, sin is removed from us. Christ has taken them off of us. We are free of sin; therefore, we become acceptable to God. Through the death of Jesus Christ, we are able to stand righteous and perfect before God. We are able to stand before God being free of sin, free because Jesus Christ took our sins and bore the judgment for them.

Now note: only the Son of God could do this; only the Son of God could die for man’s sins. Why? Because God is perfect; He can accept only perfection. He can accept only the Ideal and Perfect Man. This is the reason God’s Son had to come to earth and live as a Man. He had to come and live a sinless life; He had to secure the perfect and ideal righteousness; He had to become the Ideal and Perfect Man. By becoming such, He could then offer Himself as the perfect Sacrifice for man’s sins. God would accept His sacrifice because it was the sacrifice of the Perfect and Ideal Man. It was the ideal that could cover and stand for every man.

This is the point: the blood of Jesus Christ, His cross and death, declare Him to be the Son of God who takes away the sins of the world. This is exactly what witness after witness declares.

“For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins” (Mt.26:28).

“Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood” (Acts 20:28).

“Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him” (Ro.5:9).

“How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?” (Heb.9:14).

“Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot” (1 Pt.1:18-19).

“But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin” (1 Jn.1:7).

“And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the firstbegotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood” (Rev.1:5).

“These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb” (Rev.7:14).

“Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God” (Ro.3:24-25).

“For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly” (Ro.5:6).

“For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures” (1 Cor.15:3).

“And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again” (2 Cor.5:15).

“Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree” (Gal.3:13).

“In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace” (Eph.1:7).

“In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins” (Col.1:14).

“Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works” (Tit.2:14).

“Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh: How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?” (Heb.9:12-14).

“And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation” (Rev.5:9).

2 (5:6) Holy Spirit: there is the witness of the Holy Spirit that declares Jesus Christ to be the Son of God. This is what the gospel is—what has happened upon the world scene of human history:

- ⇒ God Himself has sent His Son into the world to save man from sin and death and condemnation.
- ⇒ Jesus, the carpenter from Nazareth, is actually the Son of God. He lived a sinless life—was the Perfect and Ideal Man who could die as the perfect sacrifice for the sins of men. And this He did when He died on the cross. He freed us from sin; therefore, we are now acceptable to God.
- ⇒ But note: we have to do something. We have to believe in God’s Son. Unless we honor Him by believing in Him, God does not accept us. We still carry our sins and their guilt and condemnation ourselves. This means we stand condemned by God and shall never be allowed to live with Him.

This is the glorious gospel. But how can God get men to listen? How can He stir men to believe in Christ? There is only one way. He must put His Spirit upon earth to work within the hearts of men. This is the point of what is now said:

“It is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth” (v.6).

Note: the Spirit of God is truth. He bears witness because He is truth. He can do nothing else but declare the truth. Jesus Christ is the Son of God sent into the world to save men; therefore, the Spirit of God must declare the truth. This is exactly what Jesus Christ promised.

“Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you” (Jn.14:17).

“But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me” (Jn.15:26).

“I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will show you things to come. He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall show it unto you. All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall show it unto you” (Jn.16:12-15).

“We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error” (1 Jn.4:6).

How does the Spirit bear witness in the world? Scripture says several ways.

- ⇒ The Holy Spirit bears witness by convicting the world of sin, righteousness, and judgment.

“Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: of sin, because they believe not on me; of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more; of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged” (Jn.16:7-11).

- ⇒ The Holy Spirit testifies by quickening—giving life to—men when they are willing to believe in Christ.

“It is the spirit that quickeneth [makes alive]; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life” (Jn.6:63).

“Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life” (2 Cor.3:6).

- ⇒ The Holy Spirit bears witness by giving the believer assurance and guaranteeing his salvation.

“Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts” (2 Cor.1:22).

“In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, which is the earnest [guarantee] of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory” (Eph.1:13-14).

“And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption” (Eph.4:30).

“And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us” (1 Jn.3:24).

- ⇒ The Holy Spirit testifies by bearing witness with the heart of believers, assuring them that they are children of God.

“The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God” (Ro.8:16).

“And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father” (Gal.4:6).

“And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us” (1 Jn.3:24).

“Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit” (1 Jn.4:13).

“This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth” (1 Jn.5:6).

⇒ The Holy Spirit bears witness by teaching the believer about Christ.

“But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you” (Jn.14:26).

“Which things also we speak, not in the words which man’s wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual” (1 Cor.2:13).

⇒ The Holy Spirit bears witness by living within the believer and making his body a holy temple for God.

“Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?” (1 Cor.3:16).

“What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s” (1 Cor.6:19-20).

“That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us” (2 Tim.1:14).

⇒ The Holy Spirit bears witness by showing believers things to come.

“Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will show you things to come” (Jn.16:13).

⇒ The Holy Spirit bears witness by giving believers the power to witness.

“And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until he be endued with power from on high” (Lk.24:49).

“But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth” (Acts 1:8).

“For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but [the spirit] of power, and of love, and of a sound mind. Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God” (2 Tim.1:7-8).

⇒ The Holy Spirit testifies by proclaiming the things of God through believers.

“Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God. Which things also we speak, not in the words which man’s wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual” (1 Cor.2:12-13).

“For the Holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say” (Lk.12:12).

“But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him” (1 Jn.2:27).

⇒ The Holy Spirit bears witness by leading and guiding the believer.

“Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will show you things to come” (Jn.16:13).

“For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God” (Ro.8:14).

“For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will be our guide even unto death” (Ps.48:14).

“Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory” (Ps.73:24).

1 JOHN 5:6-8

⇒ The Holy Spirit bears witness by choosing believers for special ministry and gifting them for that ministry.

“Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you” (Jn.15:16).

“As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them” (Acts 13:2).

“Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord. And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all. But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal. For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; to another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; to another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues: but all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will” (1 Cor.12:4-11).

“But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you” (Ro.8:11).

3 (5:7) Witnessing—The Word—God: there are the witnesses of heaven. There are three Persons in heaven who bear witness that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

1. There is the Father. How does the Father bear witness that Jesus Christ is the Son of God? There are primarily two ways.

- a. The Father is behind everything: the whole plan of redemption is His plan and work. It is His Son who came to earth to make salvation possible. It is also His Spirit who is working upon earth convicting and trying to get men to repent and to trust the Son of God for salvation. The Father is bearing witness to His Son through everything that is happening in the hearts and lives of believers and in the life of the church.
- b. The Father bore dynamic witness to Christ when Christ was upon the earth.
 - ⇒ He proclaimed Christ to be His Son at the baptism of Christ.

“And lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased” (Mt.3:17).

⇒ He proclaimed Christ to be His Son by giving Him the Holy Spirit without measure so that Christ could speak the Word of God.

“For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him” (Jn.3:34).

⇒ He proclaimed Christ to be His Son by enabling Him to do the very works of God.

“If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not. But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know, and believe, that the Father is in me, and I in him” (Jn.10:37-38).

⇒ He proclaimed Christ to be His Son by causing the very glory of God to shine through His person at the transfiguration.

“While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him” (Mt.17:5).

⇒ He proclaimed Christ to be His Son by raising Him from the dead.

“I go to my Father, and ye see me no more [being raised from the dead]” (Jn.16:10).

“And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead” (Ro.1:4).

2. There is the witness of the Word, the Lord Jesus Christ Himself. The Word, of course, refers to Jesus Christ. John declares this in both his Gospel and Epistle.

“In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God” (Jn.1:1).

“That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life” (1 Jn.1:1).

1 JOHN 5:6-8

How does Christ as the Word bear witness? What does it mean to say that the Word bears witness in heaven? Remember what a word is: the expression of an idea, a thought, an image in the mind of a person. God had an idea, a thought, an image; that is, He had a message, a word that He wanted to say to the world. But He wanted to say it in person. Therefore, He sent His Son into the world to speak the Word of God. As the Son of God, Jesus Christ had the very nature of God. By nature He was perfect even as God the Father is perfect. He was God the Son sent to earth by God the Father. This means that everything Jesus Christ did was perfect. He was the very embodiment of God Himself. He was the very revelation of God. Jesus Christ was everything that God wanted to say to man; He was the very Word of God.

This glorious fact means the most wonderful thing: it means that the Word of God has come to earth in the person of Jesus Christ. Everything that Jesus Christ said and did is the very thought and idea of God. Jesus Christ is the very Word that God wanted to say to man. Jesus Christ, the Word of God, bears witness to Himself. We can look at His words and deeds and see that He is the Son of God. We can look at the picture of God—the image, the idea, the expression of God—that Jesus Christ painted, and we can tell that He is the Son of God. All that He said, did, and was is the perfect picture of God. It is the perfect description, the perfect Word of God. The Word, Jesus Christ Himself, bears witness that He is the Son of God.

3. There is the Holy Spirit (see note 2, Holy Spirit—1 Jn.5:6 for discussion).

(Note: most scholars and most translations, almost without exception, agree that verse 7 was added by some copyist long after John wrote this epistle. Checking almost any translation of the Scripture will show that most Bibles omit the verse. The verse does not seem to be in any of the authentic Greek manuscripts. William Barclay gives an excellent discussion for the position that omits the verse. Matthew Henry gives an excellent discussion for the position that maintains the verse. Referring to these two commentators will give the two varying positions.)

4 (5:8) Witnessing: there are the witnesses upon earth that declare Jesus Christ to be the Son of God. Note that all three of these witnesses agree; they have only one message that they declare—Jesus Christ is the Son of God. Therefore, man must believe that “Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God” (1 Jn.5:5). This is the only way that we can overcome and conquer the sin and death and condemnation of this world. Belief in Jesus Christ as the Son of God is the only way man can dwell forever with God.

1. There is the witness of the Spirit (see note 2, Holy Spirit—1 Jn.5:6 for discussion).

2. There is the witness of the water or baptism of Jesus Christ (see note 1, Jesus Christ, Mission, pt.1—1 Jn.5:6 for discussion).

3. There is the witness of the blood or cross and death of Jesus Christ (see note above, pt.2—1 Jn.5:6 for discussion).

DIVISION V

THE PROOF THAT ONE REALLY BELIEVES IN GOD: FOUR TESTS, 5:1-21

C. Test 3: Believing the Witness About Christ: That He is the Son of God (Part II), 5:9-15

(5:9-15) Introduction: Do we really believe in God? We can tell by testing ourselves, by asking this one question: Do we believe the witnesses about Christ? This passage covers two dynamic witnesses.

1. There is the witness of God Himself (v.9-12).
2. There is the witness of John (v.13-15).

1 (5:9-12) Witnesses—Eternal Life: there is the witness of God. Note four significant points.

1. God's witness is greater, far greater than the testimony of men (v.9). We believe the testimony of men, we accept what they say as true.
 - ⇒ Spouses believe the word of one another.
 - ⇒ Children believe the word of parents and teachers.
 - ⇒ Businessmen believe the word of employers.
 - ⇒ Juries believe the testimony of witnesses.

We all accept reports of the news media and the word of friends every day. This being so, how much greater is the witness of God. Men interpret facts; they sometimes exaggerate and twist the facts. We are never completely free of personal opinion and interests. And some men even lie and deceive when sharing with us. But not God. God never exaggerates or twists the facts; He never lies or deceives. What God says is always true; it is the plain and simple truth. Therefore, God's record about His Son should be believed. Every human being should believe God's record of His Son. What is that witness? Note what the verse says: "This is the witness of God which He has testified of His Son." The witness is that Jesus Christ is His Son. Jesus Christ is the Son of God whom God sent into the world to save man. It is this that we should believe.

2. God's witness lives within the heart of the believer (v.10). When a person believes on the Son of God, God implants the witness of God within him. What is that witness? It is the Spirit of God Himself. The Holy Spirit seals and guarantees the believer, gives him assurance that Jesus Christ has saved him from sin, death, and condemnation and has made him acceptable to God.

"But as many as received him, to them gave he power [the Holy Spirit] to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God" (Jn.1:12-13).

"And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace. For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ" (Jn.1:16-18).

"The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together" (Ro.8:16-17).

"Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God; who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest [guarantee] of the Spirit in our hearts" (2 Cor.1:21-22).

"But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law, to redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father" (Gal.4:4-6).

“In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, which is the earnest [guarantee] of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory” (Eph.1:13-14).

“And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption” (Eph.4:30).

“And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us” (1 Jn.3:24).

“Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit” (1 Jn.4:13).

“This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth” (1 Jn.5:6).

3. God’s witness is rejected by unbelievers (v.10^b). This is strong language, but the person who does not believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God makes God a liar. How could this be? Note the verse: because he does not believe the record that God gave of His Son. God has given witness after witness that Jesus Christ is His Son:

- ⇒ the witness of the life of Christ, His works and words.
- ⇒ the witness of the baptism of Christ.
- ⇒ the witness of the blood, the cross and death, of Jesus Christ.
- ⇒ the witness of the resurrection.
- ⇒ the witness of the Scriptures.
- ⇒ the witness of the Holy Spirit that convicts the human heart.
- ⇒ the witness of believers who have experienced the power of Christ in their lives.

If a person does not believe the witness of God—all the great witnesses that God has given—if a person does not believe that God has sent His Son into the world to save man—then that person is in effect saying that the record is a lie. But note: God did send His Son, and God has borne witness to the truth. Therefore, to disbelieve the record is to say that God is lying; it is to call God a liar, for God did send Christ.

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God” (Jn.3:16-18).

“He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him” (Jn.3:36).

“I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins” (Jn.8:24).

“And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: of sin, because they believe not on me” (Jn.16:8-9).

4. God’s witness is clearly stated. Note how clearly and simply it is stated:

“And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life” (v.11-12).

- a. God has given us eternal life in His Son. The one thing man wants is to live forever. He does not want to die. But note: to live forever in a corruptible world such as ours would not necessarily be a good thing. This is a world of evil and corruption and death. Therefore, what we have now is not real life. It is not what life was meant to be. The life that God gives, eternal life, is the life that man was meant to live (see note, Life—1 Jn.5:11 for a discussion on what life is and how it comes through Jesus Christ).
- b. The person who has the Son has life, but the person who does not have the Son does not have life. Why is this so? Because Jesus Christ is the righteous One. He is the Son of God who came to earth and lived a sinless life as Man. He is the One who secured the perfect and ideal righteousness for man. Therefore, Jesus Christ is the only Person who has the right to stand before God. Why? Because God is perfect, and only a perfect person can stand in God’s presence. This is the reason man must approach God through Jesus Christ: He and He alone is perfect and righteous. He and He alone has the right to stand in the court of God as the Advocate or attorney to represent man. There is no other righteousness, no other goodness that is acceptable to God; only the perfect and ideal righteousness of Christ has been approved to stand as the advocate in the court of heaven.

This means a most wonderful thing. God will never turn down a person who has Jesus Christ as his advocate. The person who has Jesus Christ to approach God for him will never be turned down, for Jesus Christ has the right to stand as the advocate before God in the court of heaven. (See note—1 Jn.2:1-2; DEEPER STUDY # 1—2:2 for more discussion.)

DEEPER STUDY # 1

(5:11) Life—Eternal Life: life is one of the great words of the Scriptures. The word “life” (zoe) and the verb “to live” or “to have life” (zen) have a depth of meaning. (See DEEPER STUDY # 2—Jn.1:4; DEEPER STUDY # 1—17:2-3.)

1. Life is the energy, the force, the power of being.

“Jesus saith unto him, I am...the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me” (Jn.14:6).
 “And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent” (Jn.17:3).

2. Life is the opposite of perishing. It is deliverance from condemnation and death. It is the stopping or cessation of deterioration, decay, and corruption.

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life” (Jn.3:16).

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life....And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation” (Jn.5:24, 29).

“And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand” (Jn.10:28).

3. Life is eternal (aionios). It is forever. It is the very life of God Himself (Jn.17:3). However, eternal life does not refer just to duration. Living forever would be a curse for some persons. The idea of eternal life is also quality, a certain kind of life, a life that consistently knows love, joy, peace, power, and responsibility.

“I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly” (Jn.10:10).

4. Life is satisfaction.

“And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst” (Jn.6:35).

5. Life is security and enjoyment.

“I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly” (Jn.10:10).

6. Life is found only in God. God is the source and author of life, and it is God who has appointed Jesus Christ to bring life to man. Jesus Christ gives the very life of God Himself to believers.

“For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself” (Jn.5:26).

“Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed....And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day” (Jn.6:27, 40).

“And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand” (Jn.10:28).

“I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me” (Jn.17:23).

7. Life has now been revealed. It has been unveiled and is clearly seen in Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ shows man what life is.

“In him was life; and the life was the light of men. And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not” (Jn.1:4-5).

“For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself” (Jn.5:26).

“(For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and show unto you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us)” (1 Jn.1:2).

Note: God gives us life through His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. Life only comes to a man by believing in Jesus Christ. A man outside Jesus Christ only exists. He merely has an animalistic existence. Real life is found only in God. This is to be expected and it is logically true, for God is the Creator of life. As the Creator of life, He alone knows what life really is and what it is supposed to be (Jn.3:36; 5:24; 6:47). This is the reason He sent His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ into the world: to show man what life is. When a person looks at Jesus Christ he sees exactly what life is, exactly what it involves (cp. Gal.5:22-23):

- ⇒ love ⇒ longsuffering ⇒ faith
- ⇒ joy ⇒ gentleness ⇒ meekness
- ⇒ peace ⇒ goodness ⇒ temperance or control and power

2 (5:13-15) Witnessing—Assurance—John the Apostle: there is the witness of John himself. John bears testimony to two glorious things.

1. He declares that a believer can be assured of eternal life. And note the force of his declaration: we can know, that is, be perfectly assured by experience, that we have eternal life. We can experience eternal life and all that life was ever meant to be, and we can experience it now upon earth as well as in the future throughout all of eternity. We can know by experience that we have eternal life, know beyond a shadow of doubt, know absolutely and perfectly. How? John says there are three ways.

- a. We receive eternal life by heeding the Scripture. John emphatically declares that he has written his Epistle so that we can have eternal life and know that we have it.
- b. We receive eternal life by believing on the name of Jesus Christ. Only the person who believes on the name of the Son has eternal life.
- c. We receive eternal life by continuing to believe on the name of Jesus Christ. Note: John is writing to believers, and he says that he has written so that believers “may believe on the name of Jesus Christ.” Do believers not already believe in Christ? Yes, but John is saying that we must continue to believe; we must endure in our belief, keep on believing and believing until the Lord takes us home. There is no such thing as a person believing and then ceasing to believe and then receiving eternal life. If a person forsakes Christ, it is clear evidence that he never received eternal life in the first place. If a person really knows the Son of God and has received eternal life, it is almost impossible for him to turn away from Christ for too long. Experiencing Christ and life is too wonderful. If a person happens to turn back for too long, to the point that he will not return to Christ, then God will go ahead and take him on home (see DEEPER STUDY # 1—1 Jn.5:16 for more discussion).

The point is this: we must believe on the name of God’s Son and keep on believing. We must persevere and endure in our belief.

“And ye shall be hated of all men for my name’s sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved” (Mt.10:22).

“Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me. If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself” (Jn.7:16-17).

“Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free” (Jn.8:31-32).

“For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake” (1 Th.1:5).

“For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day” (2 Tim.1:12).

“Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God” (Heb.3:12).

“Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief” (Heb.4:11).

“Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised)” (Heb.10:22-23).

“And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments” (1 Jn.2:3).

2. John declares that a believer can be assured of answered prayer.

“And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us: and if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him” (1 Jn.5:14-15).

This is a great passage on prayer. The very basis of prayer is covered. Note exactly what is said.

- a. We can have confidence that God hears our prayers if we are in Him, that is, in Christ (v.14). We can approach God in Christ and in Christ alone. Christ alone is the righteous One, the only perfect Person; therefore He alone has the right to stand before God. Any person who wishes to approach God must come in the name of Jesus Christ. (See note—1 Jn.2:1-2 for more discussion.) A person must believe on the name of the Son of God and approach God in His name. The name of Jesus Christ is the only acceptable name to God, the only name that can receive anything from God.
- b. We can have confidence that God hears our prayer if we ask according to His will (v.14). God has revealed His will in His Word. His will for us includes all the great things of life.
 - ⇒ It is the will of God for us to experience the fruit of the spirit.

“But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law” (Gal.5:22-23).

⇒ It is the will of God for us to have the provisions and necessities of life.

“Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof” (Mt.6:31-34).

⇒ It is the will of God for us to be protected and delivered through all the trials and temptations of life.

“There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it” (1 Cor.10:13).

“So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me” (Heb.13:6).

“Fear thou not; For I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness” (Is.41:10).

⇒ It is the will of God for us to be delivered from sin, death, condemnation, and the fear of death.

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life” (Jn.5:24).

“Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; and deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage” (Heb.2:14-15).

⇒ It is the will of God for us to be delivered through severe persecution and trouble, to be delivered into the very presence of God.

“When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth. But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, and said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God” (Acts 7:54-56).

“And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever” (2 Tim.4:18).

We could go on and on listing the glorious promises that God makes to us, promises that should fill our prayers as we face the various events and difficulties of life. The point is this: we can boldly know that God will hear us when we pray according to His will.

- c. We can have confidence that God hears our prayers if we know that He hears (v.15). We have to know that He hears if we wish to receive what we ask. It is foolish to waste time asking God unless we believe that He will hear us. We must have confidence in God, believe that He loves us and will do what He promises for us. This is the declaration of Scripture time and again.

“Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them” (Mk.11:24).

“If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you” (Jn.15:7).

“But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him” (Heb.11:6).

“And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight” (1 Jn.3:22).

“And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us” (1 Jn.5:14).

THE PROOF THAT ONE REALLY BELIEVES IN GOD: FOUR TESTS, 5:1-21

D. Test 4: Living Free of Sin, 5:16-21

(5:16-21) Introduction: Do we really believe in God? There are four tests that will clearly show us. This is the fourth and final test: Are we living free of sin or not? If we live in sin, it is clear proof we do not believe in God. But if we live in righteousness, live a life that is free of sin, then this is clear proof that we do believe in God. The person who wants to be acceptable to God must live a life of righteousness. He must live for God. No person should ever think that he can live a life of sin and be acceptable to God. The test of whether or not we believe God is the test of sin: Are we living in sin or not? This passage discusses the great subject of how to live free of sin.

1. By praying for a sinning brother (v.16).
2. By keeping oneself from sin (v.17-18).
3. By knowing that one is born of God and that the world is under the power of Satan (v.19).
4. By receiving the spiritual understanding that is given by Christ (v.21).
5. By keeping oneself from idols (v.21).

1 (5:16) Sin—Prayer—Judgment: How do we live free of sin? First, by praying for sinning brothers. If we are praying for believers who are living in sin, then we are concerned about sin, about living righteous lives. Scripture is clear: we are to pray for sinning brothers. But note: there is one time when we are not to pray for a sinning brother. When? When he has committed a “sin unto death” (see DEEPER STUDY # 1, Sin—1 Jn.5:16 for discussion).

DEEPER STUDY # 1

(5:16) Sin—Believer’s Judgment: this is a difficult passage. It is one of those passages where there are almost as many different interpretations as there are words in the passage. The one thing that is clear is this: this passage is a severe warning. It is a warning so severe that one must walk ever so righteously; one must trust the Lord Jesus Christ to grant the power to overcome sin.

There are several passages of Scripture that issue a severe warning and speak of the sinful behavior of believers...

- sinful behavior that causes loss of all reward by fire—a loss so great one is stripped as much as a burned-out building. It is the loss of all except the bare salvation of oneself (1 Cor.3:11-15, esp.v.15).
- sinful behavior that destroys the flesh so that the Spirit may be saved (1 Cor.5:5).
- sinful behavior that can cause a person to become a castaway (1 Cor.9:27).
- sinful behavior that causes death for a believer (1 Cor.11:29-30, esp. v.30; 1 Jn.5:16).
- sinful behavior that merits no escape (Heb.2:1-3; 12:25f).
- sinful behavior that prohibits a person from ever repenting again (Heb.6:4f).
- sinful behavior that causes a person to miss God’s rest (Heb.4:1f).
- sinful behavior that prohibits any future sacrifice for sins and merits terrible punishment (Heb.10:26f).
- sinful behavior that entangles a person in the pollutions of the world after he has come to the knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ (2 Pt.2:20).
- sinful behavior that leads to death (1 Jn.5:16).

There are basically two positions on the “sin unto death” that need to be looked at and studied.

1. The first position sees the sin unto death as being spiritual and eternal death. Some who hold this position believe that it can be committed only by a person who makes a false profession; others think that it can be committed by genuine believers. Note these facts.

- a. First, note the word brother. The word brother means either true believers or professing believers who commit the sin unto death. The person who commits the sin unto death is a church member.
- b. Second, note that the words life and death must correspond. If it is spiritual and eternal life that God gives to a person, then the sin unto death has to be referring to spiritual and eternal death. (The Greek scholar Marvin Vincent points this out. Word Studies In The New Testament, Vol.1, p.371.) Note what the verse is saying:

“[God] shall give him life for them that sin not unto death” (v.16).

What kind of life is John talking about? Physical or spiritual life? The context points strongly to spiritual and eternal life. This has been the whole discussion of this passage: for example...

“He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life” (v.12).

Again, if the life that God gives is spiritual and eternal life, then the sin unto death must correspond; it must mean the opposite, that is, spiritual and eternal death. Note what the full verse says:

“If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him [spiritual] life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death [spiritual death]: I do not say that he shall pray for it” (v.16).

- c. Third, does this mean that a believer can commit sin to the point that he is doomed to spiritual and eternal death? If so, what do we do with passages of Scripture where God assures Christ that He will never lose a single brother who genuinely believes in Him? Passages and promises such as these...
- God will allow no genuine believer to be plucked out of His hand.

“And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man [no one, Greek (includes Satan)] pluck them out of my hand. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father’s hand” (Jn.10:28-29).

- God has predestinated believers to the image of Christ so that Christ will have many brothers.

“For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren” (Ro.8:29).

- God will perform the work of salvation and growth until the day of Jesus Christ.

“Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ” (Ph.1:6).

- God keeps the believer by His power.

“Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time” (1 Pt.1:5).

“I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day” (2 Tim.1:12).

“Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever” (Jude 24-25).

To repeat the question above, does the sin unto death mean that a believer can commit sin to the point that he is doomed to spiritual and eternal death?

- ⇒ Once a person is born again by the Spirit of God, can he be unborn?
- ⇒ Once a person receives the divine nature of God, once the divine nature has been incorporated into the fiber of his being, can the divine nature be taken away and unincorporated? (Cp. 2 Pt.1:4.)
- ⇒ Once a person has been given the incorruptible seed and nature, can he again become corruptible? (Cp. 1 Pt.1:23; 1 Pt.1:3-4.)
- ⇒ Once a person has been created into a new creature in Christ, can he become the old creature again? (Cp. 2 Cor.5:17.)
- ⇒ Once a person is transformed from the old man into the new man, can he be re-transformed and changed back into the old man? (Cp. Eph.4:22-24.)
- ⇒ Once the Spirit of God enters a person’s life and turns the person’s body into a holy temple, does the Spirit ever leave a person? (Cp. Jn.14:16-17; 1 Cor.3:16-17; 6:19-20.)
- ⇒ Once our Lord Jesus Christ Himself has entered the life of a person, does God ever lose the life to such a point that His Son has to leave the life? (Cp. Jn.14:16-18; 14:20; 17:23; Gal.2:20; Col.1:27; Rev.3:20.)

Now note: all this would have to be possible and would have to happen if the sin unto death refers to a genuine believer. Does the sin unto death refer...

- to a genuine believer or to a professing believer?
- to a person who looks like a brother but is a false believer?

John himself refers to some professing believers who had committed the terrible sin of denying Christ. He calls them antichrists (plural), persons who had been in the church and who had professed Christ, but who had turned away from Christ and stood opposed to Him.

Note that these persons had been in the church, but they had forsaken Christ and had left the church. Picture the scene: there would still be friends and perhaps family members in the church who loved them and cared for them and who wanted them to be led back to Christ and His church. Therefore, they would be praying for them to return. But note: their sin is so great that John does not encourage people to pray for them. He does not forbid it, but he does not encourage it. He simply says: "I do not say that he [the true believer, the loved one] shall pray for it [the sin unto death]."

Note what John says about these whom he calls antichrists:

"Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time. They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us" (1 Jn.2:18-19).

- d. Now what is the sin unto death? Marvin Vincent (the Greek scholar) says that it is "the tendency...to cut the bond of fellowship with Christ...[it is] whatever breaks the fellowship with the soul and Christ, and, by consequence, with the individual and the body of believers...for there is no life apart from Christ." He says that the sin arises from the character of a person who is "alien from God." That is, the person never knew God, not really. His profession was false to begin with (Word Studies In The New Testament, Vol.1, p.371). Kenneth Wuest, who is also a Greek scholar, says,

"The sin unto death' refers in the context in which John is writing, to the denial of the Incarnation...it would be committed by those whom John designates as antichrists, who did not belong to the true Christian body of believers, but were unsaved" (In These Last Days. "Word Studies in the Greek New Testament," Vol.4. Grand Rapids, MI: Eerdmans, 1946, p.181).

Kenneth Wuest also quotes the Greek scholar Henry Alford of the Alford Greek Testament as saying:

"There are those who have gone out from us, not being of us (2:19), who are called antichrists, who not only 'have not' Christ, but are Christ's enemies, denying the Father and the Son (2:22), whom we are not even to receive into our houses nor to greet (II John 10, 11). These seem to be the persons pointed out here, and this is the sin, namely, the denial that Jesus is the Christ, the incarnate Son of God. This alone of all sins bears upon it the stamp of severance from Him who is the Life itself. As the confession of Christ, with the mouth and in the heart, is salvation unto life (Rom.10:9), so denial of Christ with the mouth and in the heart, is sin unto death" (In These Last Days. "Word Studies in the Greek New Testament," Vol.4, p.181).

A.T. Robertson, another Greek scholar, says:

"John conceives of a sin that is deadly enough to be called 'unto death'...There is a distinction in Heb.10:26 between sinning wilfully after full knowledge and sins of ignorance (Heb.5:2). Jesus spoke of the unpardonable sin (Mk.3:29; Mt.12:32; Lk.12:10), which was attributing to the devil the manifest work of the Holy Spirit. It is possible that John has this idea in mind when he applies it to those who reject Jesus Christ as God's Son and set themselves up as antichrists" (Word Pictures In The New Testament, Vol.6, p.243f).

William Barclay says that the Greek for "sin unto death" (harmatia pros thanaton) means "the sin which is going towards death, the sin whose end is death, the sin which, if continued in, must finish in death" (The Letters of John and Jude, p.142). He says that the sin is...

- persistent sin
- obstinate sin
- deliberate sin
- cold-blooded sin
- wide open sin
- purposeful sin

He says that the sin unto death is committed by a man...

- who persists in sin
- who rejoices in sin
- who never thinks of temptation as a sin
- who has no regret for sinning
- who glories in his sin
- who boasts in his sin
- who is proud of his sin
- who is proud that he knows how to get away with his sin
- who delights in sin

In his usual descriptive way, William Barclay describes the person who commits the sin unto death:

“Now in life it is a fact of experience that there are two kinds of sinners....So long as a man in his heart of hearts hates sin and hates himself for sinning, so long as he knows that he is sinning, he is never beyond repentance, and, therefore, never beyond forgiveness; but once a man begins to revel in sin, and to make sin the deliberate policy of his life, and loses all sense of the terror and the awfulness of sin, and also the feeling of self-disgust, he is on the way to death, for he is on the way to a state where the idea of repentance will not, and cannot enter his head.

“The sin unto death is the state of the man who has listened to sin so often, and refused to listen to God so often, that he has come to a state when he loves his sin, and when he regards sin as the most profitable thing in the world” (The Letters of John and Jude, p.142).

The conclusion of this interpretation would be one of two conclusions:

First, there are some who conclude that the sin unto death refers to a professing believer, a person who makes a profession only, a false profession. Therefore, he was never really converted...

- never born again
- never indwelt by the Holy Spirit
- never filled with the divine nature
- never indwelt by Christ
- never made into a new man
- never created into a new creature
- never filled with the incorruptible nature

Because of this, the person is easily led back into the world and into sin. He leaves the fellowship of believers and of the church and returns to the possessions and pleasures of the world. He stands opposed to Christ, not really believing that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

Second, there are others who conclude that the sin unto death refers to genuine believers. The person who commits the sin unto death was genuinely converted, but he now becomes unconverted.

- ⇒ He loses his new birth; he is no longer born again.
- ⇒ He loses his divine nature; it is taken from him.
- ⇒ He loses the Holy Spirit; the Holy Spirit leaves the body of the believer and turns the body back into a temple for sin and death.
- ⇒ He loses the new man; his new man is re-transformed back into the old man.
- ⇒ He loses the creation of the new creature; he is recreated back into the old creature.
- ⇒ He loses the indwelling presence of Christ; God loses the sinner to the point that Christ has to leave him.

Now note: as stated in the beginning, if the life that God gives is spiritual and eternal life, then the sin unto death has to be spiritual and eternal death. Therefore, the person who commits the sin is either a genuine believer or only a professing believer, a person making a false profession. John does call the person a brother. Therefore, we can say that this means he is definitely a genuine believer. Or, we can say that every professing believer in the church looks like a brother to us, but many are not. They are making a false profession, and very practically, we cannot always tell who is a genuine brother and who is a false brother. We can say that John knew this as well as we do; therefore, he is calling every church member a brother, but making it clear that some are making a false profession. They are committing sin that leads to death. Whatever position we take, we must make sure that we are taking it because we are convinced that it is the teaching of God's Word. We must never hold a position because of such things as denomination, church, friends, teachers, or education. We must study the Word and let the Word interpret and speak for itself. And where there are difficult passages, we must come to the best conclusion we can under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. There is no question that the warnings of Scripture given to believers are some of the most difficult passages to interpret in all of Scripture. Perhaps God has deliberately made them this way to warn us how terrible sin is, that we must watch and guard against sin—that sin points to a false profession—that sin can and does lead to severe consequences—that we must be careful to make our profession sure and steadfast—that we can not deliberately and wilfully sin and be obstinate and hardened in sin, not without suffering the most severe consequences.

2. The second position sees the sin unto death as referring to physical death. Briefly stated, these commentators say that the person is a genuine believer who falls into sin so deeply that he has to be severely disciplined by God and taken on home to be with Him. They look at the passage dealing with the sinful behavior of believers and say that a believer can continue in sin and can practice sin, and that there is no question about this. The believer still has freedom of choice.

And despite the tug and the pull of the Holy Spirit within, every honest believer knows what it is to succumb and give in to sin. Most believers even know what it is to practice sin for awhile without repentance. It is only the longsuffering of God that convicts and that leads to repentance.

This position would say this: perhaps it is possible for a believer to continue in sin so long that he reaches a point of no return (see note—Acts 5:5-6). He is so rooted and imbedded in sin that God knows he will never repent. Now if such is possible, only God could know it. Only God can know the heart of a man to such a point that He knows the future of the man. If a man reaches that point of no repentance, his testimony and service on earth is forever ruined and forever useless. In fact, he has brought disrepute and dishonor to the name of Christ. He has harmed the Lord's cause, and so long as he is on earth, he will continue to add to the sin of the world and to heap abuse upon the name of Christ. His very purpose for living upon the earth as a Christian is lost and gone forever. The desire to return to the Lord and to live for Him, and to witness to His saving grace will never be aroused in his heart again. God knows this. But despite all this, God still loves him. And God has determined, for Christ's sake, that His purpose will be fulfilled in every single believer (Ro.8:29). Not a single believer shall be plucked out of His hand (Jn.10:28). Thus, God takes the believer on to be with Him. God goes ahead and unites the believer with Christ, His dear Son (cp. 1 Cor.11:29-30).

There are several examples in Scripture that seem to be warning and speaking to men about the same sinful behavior. There is the example...

- of Moses' death (Dt.32:48-52).
- of Israel and the golden calf (Gen.32:1-35).
- of the man who gathered sticks on the Sabbath right after the Sabbath was instituted (Num.15:32-36).
- of Nadab and Abihu (Lev.10:1-2).
- of Korah (Num.16:31-34).
- of Achan (Josh.7:16-26).
- of Uzziah (2 Sam.6:1-7).
- of Ananias and Sapphira (Acts 5:1-11).
- of the man who had slipped into a shameful immoral sin (1 Cor.5:1-5).
- of some who had slipped into sin and were mocking God by partaking of the Lord's Supper without repenting (1 Cor.11:27-30).

Oliver Greene says:

"What is 'the sin unto death'? The best place to find the answer is in Paul's letter to the church at Corinth. If you will study the eleventh chapter of 1 Corinthians in its entirety, you will find that some of the believers were grievously misbehaving at the Lord's table, making gluttons of themselves and drinking until they became intoxicated.... 'FOR THIS CAUSE many are weak and sickly among you, AND MANY SLEEP (are dead).'"

"Paul also warned the Corinthian Christians that if they would judge themselves, repent of their misbehaving in the house of God and straighten up, God would not be forced to judge them; but if they did not judge themselves, God would have no alternative but to judge and chasten them, that they should 'not be condemned with the world' (1 Cor.11:32)."

"The 'sin unto death' therefore is continually rebelling against light. When a believer knows what he should do, when he is convicted that he should do it, and yet he refuses to obey the Holy Spirit and the Word of God, he is in danger of committing the sin unto death."

"We have another instance of this in 1 Corinthians 5:1-5, when immorality was found in the church. A young man had taken his father's wife and was guilty of fornication. There are those who will not agree that this young man was saved and had committed the sin unto death, but Paul clearly told the other believers in the church what action they should take in the matter:"

"In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of Lord Jesus Christ, to deliver such an one unto satan, for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the lord Jesus' (1 Cor.5:4, 5)."

"Beloved, it is clear that the sin unto death has nothing to do with the salvation of the soul; it has to do with the destruction of the body. Such a person will 'suffer loss, but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire' (1 Cor.3:12-15). All reward is lost, and such a one will stand before God empty handed. What that will mean, I confess I do not know; but according to the passage from 1 Corinthians, the person who loses his reward will 'suffer loss' - not loss of soul and spirit, but loss of eternal reward" (The Epistles of John, p.211)."

Oliver Greene gives an excellent illustration in the life of Abraham:

"But 'there is a sin unto death,' and when a believer has committed that sin there is no point in praying for him. In the life of Abraham we find an illustration of a time when it was useless to pray. In Genesis 18:20-30 God revealed to Abraham that He was going to destroy Sodom and Gomorrah. Abraham knew that his nephew Lot and his family were living in Sodom, so he drew near to God and asked, 'Wilt thou also destroy the righteous with the wicked? Peradventure there be fifty righteous within the city: wilt thou also destroy and not spare the place for the fifty righteous that are therein?' The Lord replied, 'If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes.' But there could not be fifty righteous men found in all of Sodom - and Abraham continued to pray until the number was reduced to ten - just ten righteous people in the great city of Sodom. And the Lord said, I will not destroy it for ten's sake.' But God knew that ten righteous ones could not be found in the city, and verse 33 tells us that 'THE LORD WENT HIS WAY, as soon as He had left communing with Abraham.'"

"With God there is a stopping place, a limit; and Abraham had reached that limit in his intercession for Sodom. God ceased communing with him and left him. What God actually said in departing was, 'Abraham, there is no need to pray any longer. There is no need for you to make further request. Pray no more for Sodom, for that city must be destroyed!' When a city or an individual has committed such sin, there is no reason for any Christian to pray for that city or that individual."

"There are times when we should no longer pray for certain people, there are times when we should no longer witness to certain people. Concerning things spiritual Jesus said, 'Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you' (Matt.7:6)" (The Epistles of John, p.210f)."

Thought 1. Whatever our position, we must always remember this: the answer to sin is repentance and confession. As long as a person is still alive, he can repent and confess his sin and God will forgive him and restore him into the fellowship of His dear Son. As long as we are living, there is still hope; there is assurance of forgiveness and cleansing if we will only repent and confess.

“I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish” (Lk.13:3).

“Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord” (Acts 3:19).

“Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee” (Acts 8:22).

“In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace” (Eph.1:7).

“If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness” (1 Jn.1:9).

“Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon” (Is.55:7).

2 (5:17-18) Unrighteousness—Sin: How do we live free of sin? By keeping ourselves free from sin and unrighteousness. Two things are essential in order to live free of sin.

1. We must know that all unrighteousness is sin. Too many people think too lightly of some sins. They rank sins, feeling that some sins are not so bad and are more acceptable to God. They feel that...

- some sins are small; others are big.
- some sins are white; others are black.
- some sins are more permissible; others are less permissible.
- some sins are more acceptable; others are less acceptable.

But note what Scripture says: “all unrighteousness is sin.” There is not a single act of unrighteousness that is not sin. There is only one sin that is ranked as a sin unto death. As seen above, that sin is either apostasy, denying that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, or else obstinate and persistent sin that just refuses to repent. This is the ultimate sin, the unpardonable sin. But God does not list this sin to say that we can commit all the other sins and get away with them. He tells us about the sin unto death in order to warn us that we can sin too much. We can turn away from Christ too often, so often that we become engulfed and encrusted with sin—so hardened that we cannot break away. We doom ourselves if we continue to sin. All unrighteousness is sin; no matter how small and white or how permissible and acceptable we may think the act of unrighteousness is, it is sin to God. And if we persist in it, we are moving toward becoming so engulfed and encrusted in it that we border on the sin unto death.

The point is this: the way we live free of sin is to know that all unrighteousness is sin. There is not an act of unrighteousness that is not sin. No matter what we think, no matter how we may rank sin, there is no rank of sin with God. Sin is sin; unrighteousness is unrighteousness. We must repent and forsake all sin—know that all unrighteous acts are sin—if we are to live free of sin.

“For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness” (Ro.1:18).

“Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God” (Ro.6:13).

“And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin” (Ro.14:23).

“Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin” (Jas.4:17).

“And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they feast with you” (2 Pt.2:13).

“Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law” (1 Jn.3:4).

2. We must be born of God and put ourselves under the keeping power of God’s Son, the Lord Jesus Christ (v.18). This is a difficult verse. Looking at several translations will help us to see what it is saying.

⇒ The New American Standard says:

“We know that no one who is born of God sins; but He [the Son of God] who was born of God keeps him and the evil one does not touch him.”

⇒ Williams says:

“We know that no one who is born of God makes a practice of sinning, but the Son who was born of God continues to keep him, and the evil one cannot touch him.”

⇒ The Amplified New Testament says:

“We know [absolutely] that anyone born of God does not [deliberately and knowingly] practise committing sin, but the One Who was begotten of God carefully watches over and protects him - Christ’s divine presence within him preserves him against the evil - and the wicked one does not lay hold (get a grip) on him or touch [him].”

Every person has sinned and is guilty of sin. We have all ignored God, neglected God, disbelieved God, disobeyed God, rebelled against God, and rejected God. Therefore, we are unacceptable to God. We are alienated and separated from God. We cannot live in God's presence. God is perfect, and no imperfect person can live in His presence.

But this is the glorious gospel. God sent His Son into the world to save man. Jesus Christ took our sins upon Himself and bore the guilt and judgment for them. Our sins are taken off of us, removed from us. Jesus Christ took them off. Therefore, we are free of sin. When we really believe in Jesus Christ, God counts the death of Christ for us. He counts our sins as having been paid by Christ. He counts us as being free of sin; He counts us as righteous. Therefore, we are acceptable to Him. But remember: it is all through Christ.

Now note this: when this happens, when we truly believe in Christ and we become free of sin, God does a most wonderful thing for us.

⇒ He recreates our spirit, causes us to be born again.

“Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God....Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God” (Jn.3:3, 5).

“Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever” (1 Pt.1:23).

⇒ He makes us into a new creature.

“Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new” (2 Cor.5:17).

⇒ He recreates us into a new man.

“And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness” (Eph.4:24).

“And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him” (Col.3:10).

In the words of this verse, we are born of God (v.18). This is the way we keep ourselves from sin: being born of God. By being born of God, all of our past sins are removed from us. We are not guilty of a single sin because of Jesus Christ. Because Jesus Christ took our sins upon Himself, we are freed of sin. We stand acceptable to God.

But note: What about the sins we commit now and the sins we have committed since we first believed in Christ? How can we live free of them? Again, by the keeping power of God's Son. If we genuinely confess our sins, if we are sincere, if we struggle and struggle against sin, if we keep coming to Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of sins, then the blood of Jesus Christ continues to cleanse us from sin. Jesus Christ is eternal; He is the Ideal and Perfect Man, the Ideal Man who made the perfect sacrifice for sins. Therefore, His perfect sacrifice stands for and covers sin forever and ever.

The point is the most striking and wonderful news in all the world: we can be free of sin through Jesus Christ. All we have to do is cast ourselves upon Him continually. When we do this, He cleanses us from sin continually (1 Jn.1:9).

The word “keep” (tereo) means to keep a watchful eye over. Jesus Christ keeps His eye upon those who truly trust Him. He knows who they are, for they are...

- always coming to Him
- always walking with Him
- always fellowshiping and communing with Him
- always praying, praising, and confessing their shortcomings and sins

Note that the wicked one does not touch the genuine believer. This does not mean that the believer never sins. The word “touch” (hapto) means to lay hold of, grasp, and grip. The idea is that Satan cannot touch the believer to harm him. The genuine believer is under the keeping power of Jesus Christ; his sins are covered under the blood of Jesus Christ.

“Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost” (Acts 2:38).

“Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins” (Acts 13:38).

“In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace” (Eph.1:7).

“And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission” (Heb.9:22).

“But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin” (1 Jn.1:7).

“If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness” (1 Jn.1:9).

“Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood” (Rev.1:5).

3 (5:19) World—Satan: How do we live free of sin? By knowing that we are born of God and that the whole world is under the power of the evil one. What does this mean? How is the world under the power of Satan?

⇒ It means that Satan has brought corruption and deterioration to the world. The world is passing away. The world is corruptible and deteriorating and will eventually be destroyed. Therefore, do not become attached to the world; be attached to God and to heaven. Do not love the world so much that you desire to stay here more than you desire to be with God and in heaven.

- ⇒ It means that Satan has affected the governments and societies of the world. He has corrupted the hearts and minds, laws and rules of man. No government and no set of laws are perfect in governing the nations and societies of the earth. Therefore, believers must respect and be loyal to the good, but reject and stand against the bad. Believers must not love any organization more than they love God, not to the point that they are more attached to the systems of man's organizations than they are to God and heaven.
- ⇒ It means that Satan has injected and infected the world with sin and with lust, evil, pride, and rebellion against God. The world is full of sinful people, people who are evil and full of lust and pride; it is full of people who are in rebellion against God. Do not love this sinful system of the world.

The world is not as God created it, neither the earth and heavens nor the people in them. They have all been corrupted in their very nature: they are aging, deteriorating, and passing away. And man himself has rebelled against God, become disobedient and unbelieving. He curses and rejects God with ever so many breaths, and he lives a selfish life, doing what he wants and seeking the pleasures and passions of the world. The end result is death and doom, utter destruction for both himself and his world.

The point is this: How does the believer live free of sin? How does he conquer and live victoriously over sin? By knowing that the world is in opposition to God, that it lies under the power of the wicked one. When the believer knows this, then he knows that he must not touch the world. He must separate himself from the worldliness of the world and live for God, for he is born of God.

“If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you” (Jn.15:19).

“And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this un-toward generation” (Acts 2:40).

“I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God” (Ro.12:1-2).

“Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty” (2 Cor.6:17-18).

“And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them” (Eph.5:11).

“Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us” (2 Th.3:6).

“Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world” (1 Jn.2:15-16).

4 (5:20) Knowledge—Assurance: How do we live free of sin? By receiving the spiritual understanding that is given by Christ. Note: the understanding being spoken about is the spiritual understanding that is given by Christ and by Christ alone. Understanding other areas of life will not deliver us from sin. Deliverance from sin is not found in understanding...

- emotion
- behavior
- psychology
- medicine
- sociology
- education
- philosophy
- religion

All of these are important and have their place in society, but there is only one understanding that can deliver us from sin: the spiritual understanding that Jesus Christ gives. The human mind has to be enlightened to understand who Christ is. Our minds have to be quickened to receive Christ as our Savior from sin, quickened by Christ Himself.

Jesus Christ gives us spiritual understanding so that we can know three things.

1. Jesus Christ gives us the knowledge of God, to know that God is true: that God does exist; that God is behind all things; that God is the Maker and Creator of all things—both heaven and earth and all that is therein.
2. Jesus Christ gives us the knowledge that we are in God and in His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ; that we have been born of God; that God has placed us in Him and in His Son; that we live, move, and have our being in God and in Christ; that we are secure forever and ever in God and His dear Son because we are in the very divine nature of God Himself.
3. Jesus Christ gives us the knowledge that we know the true God who lives eternally: that we are in Him; that we have eternal life; that we will never die, but will live with God forever and ever.

“Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me. If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself” (Jn.7:16-17).

“Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free” (Jn.8:31-32).

“And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent” (Jn.17:3).

“But let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the LORD which exercise lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the LORD” (Jer.9:24).

“Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth” (Hos.6:3).

5 (5:21) Idolatry: How do we live free of sin? By keeping ourselves from idols. This exhortation closes the Epistle of First John. Note the tenderness with which John speaks: he calls the believers “little children.” He is the aged and faithful minister who has served God for decade after decade. He has served God by reaching people for Christ and by building up the believers of the Lord’s church. He loves every believer, loves them ever so dearly. He counts them as his little children in the faith.

Note another fact as well: this exhortation is directed to believers. It is believers who must guard and keep themselves from idols. What does John mean?

An idol is anything that takes first place in a person’s life, anything that a person puts before God. An idol is anything that consumes man’s focus and concentration, that consumes his energy and efforts more than God. A person can make an idol out of anything in this world; a person can take anything and worship it before God; he can allow it to consume his mind and thoughts and life:

⇒ lands	⇒ boats	⇒ food
⇒ job	⇒ sports	⇒ power
⇒ position	⇒ money	⇒ possessions
⇒ wives	⇒ comfort	⇒ pleasures
⇒ children	⇒ television	⇒ recreation

“‘Little children, keep yourselves from idols.’ Set God before your face; look full into His wonderful face. Follow after Him with all the diligence you can arouse, for your life, all the fulness of life—all the meaning, purpose, and significance of life—all the love and joy and peace of life—all the assurance and confidence and security of life—it is all found in the worship of God, in the worship of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. ‘Little children, keep yourselves from idols.’ “ (v.21).

“And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man’s life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth” (Lk.12:15).

“Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, and changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things” (Ro.1:22-23).

“But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness [idolatry], let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints” (Eph.5:3).

“Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry” (Col.3:5).

“Keep thyself pure” (1 Tim.5:22).

“Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world” (Jas.1:27).

“Little children, keep yourselves from idols” (1 Jn.5:21).

“Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life” (Jude 21).

“Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth” (Ex.20:4).

“Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them” (Dt.11:16).

“I am the LORD: that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images” (Is.42:8).

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF

JOHN

THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL OF JOHN

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: John, the Apostle (see I John, Introductory Notes).

DATE: Probably A.D. 85-95 (see I John, Introductory Notes).

TO WHOM WRITTEN: “To the elect lady (2 Jn.1:1).

Is the “elect lady” an individual who was very dear to John, or is she a church who is symbolically referred to as the “elect lady”? Opinions vary. Either conclusion does not affect the message. However, when all the facts are considered, the evidence points heavily toward the elect lady being a very precious lady who loved the Lord with all her heart. Remember: there were no church buildings in that day. The church met in the homes of faithful believers who had homes large enough to handle the crowd. There is a good possibility that the church met in this dear lady’s home. Wuest says that the Greek word “lady” (kuria) means Martha (In These Last Days, Vol.4, p.199). She apparently lived near Ephesus.

PURPOSE: John’s purpose for writing the letter was twofold.

1. To exhort the lady to love all believers no matter what they did. Apparently, she had taken a stand for Christ against false teachers, and some in the church were criticizing, backbiting, and turning against her. She needed to love them despite their rotten and ungodly behavior. (See note and Deeper Study # 1, Love—2 Jn.5.)
2. To exhort the lady to continue to stand against false teachers and not to let them into her home. The church was probably meeting in her home; therefore, the importance of refusing hospitality to false teachers could not be overstressed. (What a lesson for today!) (see outline and notes—2 Jn.7-13).

SPECIAL FEATURES:

1. II John is “A General Epistle.” That is, it is not written to a specific church. It is a highly personal letter written from the heart of a tender pastor who deeply loves this dear lady in the Lord.
2. II John is “An Epistle Governing Traveling Ministers such as Prophets, Teachers, Evangelists, and Missionaries.” After the apostles died off, a clash arose over the ministers of local churches and the traveling ministers. There were some false ministers who had begun to fill the pulpits of the local churches and others who had begun to travel about taking advantage of the Christians who were kind enough to provide them food and lodging during their ministry and stay (II John 10). Because of this abuse, some within the churches arose and began to oppose all traveling ministers (Diotrephes of III John is an example of this). John writes the elect lady to warn her of false teachers. But on the other hand, he writes Gaius to encourage him to receive the true prophets (III John). III John shows that the conflict had become so heated that Diotrephes was even trying to have church members expelled if they accepted the traveling minister (cp. III John).
3. II John is “An Epistle Combating False Teachers and Their Doctrinal Errors.” (See I John, Purpose, Introduction for a discussion of the error.)

OUTLINE OF SECOND JOHN

THE PREACHER'S OUTLINE & SERMON BIBLE™ is unique. It differs from all other Study Bibles & Sermon Resource Materials in that every Passage and Subject is outlined right beside the Scripture. When you choose any Subject below and turn to the reference, you have not only the Scripture, but you discover the Scripture and Subject already outlined for you—verse by verse.

For a quick example, choose one of the subjects below and turn over to the Scripture, and you will find this marvelous help for faster, easier, and more accurate use.

In addition, every point of the Scripture and Subject is fully developed in a Commentary with supporting Scripture at the bottom of the page. Again, this arrangement makes sermon preparation much easier and faster.

Note something else: The Subjects of SECOND JOHN have titles that are both Biblical and practical. The practical titles sometimes have more appeal to people. This benefit is clearly seen for use on billboards, bulletins, church newsletters, etc.

A suggestion: For the quickest overview of SECOND JOHN, first read all the major titles (I, II, III, etc.), then come back and read the subtitles.

GREETING: THE ELECT OR CHOSEN LADY, v.1-4

(v.1-4) Introduction: this is a soft and tender exhortation to a Christian mother and her children. It is a beautiful exhortation, yet it is a strong challenge. The elect lady is taken by some to refer to a church and by others to refer to a particular lady in the local church (see To Whom Written—Introduction 2 John). After looking at all the arguments for both positions, it seems far more natural to take the address as referring to a dear lady who loved the Lord with all her heart. There is a possibility that she had written John about the problem of false teaching that had infiltrated the church. Remember: there were no church buildings in that day and time; therefore, believers met in the homes of committed members. There is a good possibility that the church met in the home of this dear lady (cp. v.10). Whatever the case, John was writing her as a dear friend and warning her against the false teaching. This first section deals solely with the lady and her children. She is the elect or chosen lady.

1. She was elect, chosen by God (v.1).
2. She was loved in the truth (v.1-2).
3. She lived in truth and love (v.3).
4. She had children who walked in the truth (v.4).

1 (v.1) Election: she was elect. Elect means to be chosen by God. It means to be one of God's holy and beloved followers. This is exactly what Paul said about believers: he said they were the "elect of God, holy and beloved." This dear mother was chosen by God to be one of His elect, one of His holy and beloved followers.

1. She was elected to be holy. The word "holy" (hagios) means separated or set apart. God had called this dear mother out of the world and away from the old life that it offered, the old life of sin and death. She was elected to be holy, to have nothing to do with the worldly pleasures and possessions of the world. She was to be separated and set apart unto God Himself and the new life He offers, the new life of righteousness and eternity.

2. She was elected to be one of the beloved followers of God. God had called her to turn away from the old life...
 - that had been disobedient to God.
 - that had ignored and neglected God.
 - that had disbelieved God.
 - that had rebelled against and rejected God.
 - that had cursed God.

God had chosen her to be His elect, one of His dear followers. She was elected to be holy and beloved before Him; to receive His love in Christ Jesus and to allow Him to shower His love upon her and her children. She was elected to follow God with all her heart and life; elected to live a holy life, a life as one of God's beloved children.

"I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God" (Ro.12:1-2).

"Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty" (2 Cor.6:17-18).

"And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them" (Eph.5:11).

"Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering" (Col.3:12).

"Paul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth which is after godliness" (Tit.1:1).

"[Believers] elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied" (1 Pt.1:2).

"Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world" (1 Jn.2:15-16).

2 (v.1-2) Truth—Love: she was loved in the truth. Note two significant points.

1. This tells us how we should love one another. We are to love just as John and all the early believers loved—“in the truth.” What does this mean?

⇒ It means that we are to love one another in Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ said that He is the truth.

“Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me” (Jn.14:6).

Jesus Christ is the truth, the very ideal of humanity, the Ideal and Perfect Man. All that a person should be, all that God wants a person to be—it is all wrapped up in Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ embraces the ideal and perfect truth; He is the very embodiment of truth; He is the very life that a man should live.

⇒ But note: Jesus Christ also said that the Word of God is truth.

“Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth” (Jn.17:17).

All that a person should be is also written out for man in the Word of God. God’s Word spells out the perfect and ideal man, just what God wants a person to be. The Word of God itself is the truth.

How are we to love one another? In the truth. We are to love one another in the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Word of God. This is significant, for it means that we are to love one another as Jesus Christ loved and as the Word of God instructs us. Note: this is a love that is entirely different from the love that is displayed in the world. The world’s love focuses upon...

- infatuation and passion
- feelings and sentimentality
- personal pleasure and gratification
- loving those who love us

But the love of Jesus Christ and of the Word of God is a different love. It is the love that gives sacrificially, that helps people even if they are unlovely and unattractive. It is the love that reaches out to people even when they do not deserve it. The love of Christ loves everyone no matter who they are or what they have done. The love that we are to have is the love of Christ, the love that knows this fact: Christ loved us and gave Himself for us even when we did not deserve it. It is the love that tells us this: we must do as He did, love a person regardless of who he is.

Thought 1. This means a most wonderful thing. It means that no matter who we are, no matter what we have done, no matter how terrible we have been, we are loved by Christ. But, in addition to Christ, it means that there are others, a multitude of people, who love us. All of God’s elect, all of His holy and beloved followers, love us. No matter how unloved we may feel, how lonely and empty, there is a multitude of people who love us just as Christ loves us.

⇒ The lonely and empty just need to get up and go to church and be around God’s holy and beloved people. And God’s dear people need to get out into the community more and more to reach the lonely and empty.

2. This tells us why we are to love one another. We are to love for the truth’s sake, that is, for the sake of the Lord Jesus Christ and of the Word of God. John and the early believers loved this dear lady “for the truth’s sake.” That is, they loved her for the sake of Christ, because they loved Him and they wanted to please Him. Jesus Christ had come to earth to show us that God loves us and to show us that we should love one another. Therefore, nothing pleases Christ any more than our loving one another. If we wish to please Him, we must love one another; we must love just like the Word of God says to love.

Note: the truth dwells in us and shall be with us forever. This is the indwelling presence of the Lord Jesus Christ, of His Holy Spirit within us. If we know Christ, really know Him, then He lives within our hearts. The truth dwells within us and shall be with us forever. Jesus Christ is within us to help us to love as He loved.

Thought 1. This means a great thing to the lonely and empty, to all those who feel unloved. They can know this: genuine believers will love them. Genuine believers will embrace and care for them and do all they can to ease their hurt and pain. The lonely and empty just need to get up and go find a church of true believers.

“A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another” (Jn.13:34-35).

“As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love” (Jn.15:9).

“This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you” (Jn.15:12).

“Let love be without dissimulation [hypocrisy]. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good” (Ro.12:9).

“And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling savour” (Eph.5:2).

“And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you” (1 Th.3:12).

“Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently” (1 Pt.1:22).

“Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren” (1 Jn.3:16).

3 (v.3) Grace—Mercy—Peace: she lived in truth and love with other believers. This is a declaration of fact not a prayer. John says that the grace, mercy, and peace of God and of Christ are with believers. There is no question about it: a true believer knows the grace, mercy, and peace of God and of Christ. The idea is this: believers know the fulness of God and of Christ in truth and love. God and Christ flood their hearts and lives with all the fulness of life—with grace, mercy, and peace.

1. Grace means the undeserved and unmerited favor and blessings of God; the depth and richness of the heart and mind of God; the kindness and love that dwells within the very nature of God. God’s grace covers all of life. (See DEEPER STUDY # 1, Grace—2 John v.3 for more discussion.)

2. Mercy means feelings of pity, compassion, affection, and kindness. It is a desire to succor; to tenderly draw unto oneself and to care for. Two things are essential in order to have mercy: seeing a need and being able to meet that need. God sees our need and feels for us (Eph.2:1-3). Therefore, He acts; He has mercy upon us...

- God withholds His judgment.
- God provides a way for us to be saved.

Mercy arises from a heart of love: God has mercy upon us because He loves us. His mercy has been demonstrated in two great ways:

- ⇒ God has withheld His judgment from us—withheld it even when we deserve it.
- ⇒ God has provided a way for us to be saved through the Lord Jesus Christ.

When Jesus Christ died, He died for our sins. He took our sins upon Himself and bore the judgment of sin for us. Therefore, if we trust Christ as our Savior, God does not count sin against us. Instead, He counts the righteousness of Christ for us. We become acceptable to God through the righteousness of Christ. The great mercy of God is this:

- ⇒ He allowed Christ, His very own Son, to die for us. He actually allowed His own Son to bear the punishment of our sins for us.
- ⇒ He loves us so much that He will forgive our sins if we will only trust Christ.

The point is this: the true believer is a person upon whom God and Christ have poured out their mercy. It is not that believers are going to experience the mercy of God, they have already received the mercy of God.

“But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved)” (Eph.2:4-5).

“But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared, not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost” (Tit.3:4-5).

3. Peace means to be bound, joined, and weaved together. It means to be assured, confident, and secure in the love and care of God. It means to have a sense, a consciousness, a knowledge that God will...

- | | |
|--------------|---|
| • provide | • deliver |
| • guide | • encourage |
| • strengthen | • save |
| • sustain | • give life, real life both now and forever |

A person can experience true peace only as he comes to know Jesus Christ. Only Christ can bring peace to the human heart, the kind of peace that brings deliverance and assurance to the human soul.

“Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled; neither let it be afraid” (Jn.14:27).

“These things I have spoken unto you that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world” (Jn.16:33).

“Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ” (Ro.5:1).

“For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace” (Ro.8:6).

“But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law” (Gal.5:22-23).

“I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for thou, Lord only makest me dwell in safety” (Ps.4:8).

Note one other significant point: Jesus Christ is said to be the Son of the Father. This is a clear declaration that Jesus Christ is God, that He possesses the very nature of God the Father. Note also that grace, mercy, and peace come from Jesus Christ as well as from the Father. The Son is said to be equal with the Father.

DEEPER STUDY # 1

(v.3) Grace: (charis): the favor and blessings of God; the undeserved and unmerited favor and blessings of God; the depth and richness of the heart and mind of God; the kindness and love that dwells within the very nature of God. God’s grace covers all of life.

1. Grace means the kindness and love that God freely gives to those who have acted against Him. It is the favor of God showered upon men who do not deserve His favor, men who are...

- “without strength” (Ro.5:6).
- “ungodly” (Ro.5:6).
- “sinners” (Ro.5:8).
- “enemies” (Ro.5:10).

No other word so expresses the depth and richness of the heart and mind of God. This is the distinctive difference between God’s grace and man’s grace. Whereas man sometimes does favors for his friends and thereby can be said to be gracious, God has done a thing unheard of among men. God has favored man with an unbelievable gift: God has given His very own Son to die for His enemies (Ro.5:8-10). (See notes—Jn.21:15-17; Eph.2:8-10.)

a. God’s grace is not earned. It is something completely undeserved and unmerited.

“For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast” (Eph.2:8-9).

“But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared, not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost” (Tit.3:4-5).

b. God’s grace is the free gift of God. God extends His grace out toward man.

“Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus” (Ro.3:24).

“But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved)” (Eph.2:4-5).

“For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works” (Tit.2:11-14).

c. God’s grace is the only way man can be saved.

“If through the offence of one [Adam] many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many” (Ro.5:15).

“I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ” (1 Cor.1:4).

“For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich” (2 Cor.8:9).

“[Salvation] which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour; that being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life” (Tit.3:6-7).

2. Grace means all the favors and gifts of God. It means all the good and perfect gifts of God, all the good and beneficial things He gives us and does for us, whether physical, material, or spiritual (Jas.1:17).

“In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace” (Eph.1:7).

“That in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus” (Eph.2:7).

“But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus” (Ph.4:19).

4 (v.4) Truth—Commandment: she had children who walked in truth. Remember John is some distance away from this dear friend of his, so far away that he is writing instead of visiting her. Note that some of her children had been in the city where John was, and John had seen them and noted that they were walking in Christ. In fact, John says they were a dynamic testimony of the truth. They were walking in Christ, walking just as we have been commanded to walk, walking just as the Word of God says we are to walk. Why were the children in the city where John was?

⇒ Were they there on business? Travelling salesmen? Businessmen or women? Visiting relatives or friends? Vacationing? Sight-seeing? Away at some university?

We are not told. All we know is that John saw them someplace in the city and apparently was able to observe their lives long enough to note that they walked faithfully in Christ.

2 JOHN 1-4

Thought 1. Note several strong lessons for us.

- 1) What a dynamic witness the mother had been to her children! She had reared them to know the Lord and to live in His Word.
- 2) No matter where we are, at work or at play, we are to live for Christ. No matter where we travel, we should do as this dear mother's children did: walk in Christ and maintain a dynamic testimony for Christ.

“And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me” (Lk.9:23).

“And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God” (Ro.12:2).

“Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new” (2 Cor.5:17).

“As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him” (Col.2:6).

“Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier” (2 Tim.2:3-4).

“He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked” (1 Jn.2:6).

“Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world” (1 Jn.2:15-16).

I. THE COMMANDMENT OF LOVE, v.5-6
1 Love is not a new commandment^{PS1}	5 And now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another.
2 Love is a behavior—a way of life—a walk	6 And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

DIVISION I

THE COMMANDMENT OF LOVE, v.5-6

(v.5-6) Introduction: note the word “beseech” (eroto). It means to urge, beg, and entreat. It has the idea of urgency and necessity. What John is now saying is urgent; it is an absolute necessity. What is it? Love—we must love one another. Love is not an option for believers: believers must love one another. Two things are said.

1. Love is not a new commandment (v.5).
2. Love is a behavior—a way of life—a walk (v.6).

1 (v.5) Love: love is not a new commandment. It is the old commandment, the very same commandment that we had from the beginning. Note how John immediately brings up the subject of love. This tells us something: the dear friend of John was having problems with some people. Some people were mistreating her Lord and her. We know from the next passage that there were some false teachers who wanted to teach in her church or else they wanted to use her house for some purpose:

- ⇒ to visit her and talk to her about their beliefs
- ⇒ to room and board in her house
- ⇒ to use her house for a church or study group or church social function

Apparently she had refused to grant the request, and as a result, she was being criticized. Whatever the case was, she had actually refused to open her home to some false teachers or else John was instructing her not to welcome them (cp. v.7-11). In either case, the dear lady was under attack by some in the church. She was being...

- criticized
- hurt
- murmured against
- mistreated
- talked about
- abused

Now note John’s exhortation to her: love them. “We must love one another. No matter what they say about you; no matter how they mistreat you; no matter how they hurt you—love them.”

The point is this: love is the very first commandment that man ever received from God, and it is the very first commandment that we ever received from Christ. It is even the first commandment that we receive when we become a believer. Love is the first commandment of the church itself.

- ⇒ God had said from the beginning that we are to love our neighbor.

“Love thy neighbor as thyself: I am the LORD” (Lev.19:18).

- ⇒ Jesus Christ proclaimed that love would be the distinctive mark of His followers, the very mark that would show the world that a person was a true follower of His.

“By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another” (Jn.13:35).

Now note another fact about this dear lady of God: she was being exhorted to love those who were mistreating her. She was not being told...

- to love her friend but not her enemy.
- to love the good but not the bad.
- to love the righteous but not the sinner.
- to love the acceptable but not the unacceptable.
- to love the friendly but not the abusive.
- to love the kind but not the criticizer.

This is a totally new concept of love. Man has always felt that he was to love his friends. He has always felt free to take others, especially those who had mistreated him, and...

- mistreat them
- criticize them
- strike back at them
- be unkind to them
- ignore them
- hate them
- neglect them
- hurt them

But John says, “no!” He instructs this dear friend to love those who mistreated her. How? How can we possibly love those who mistreat us? There is only one way: we must love as God loves. We must possess the love of God within our hearts and lives. (See DEEPER STUDY # 1, Love—2 Jn.5 for more discussion.)

DEEPER STUDY # 1

(v.5) Love: the Greek word used for “love” is agape. The meaning of agape love is more clearly seen by contrasting it with the various kinds of love. There are essentially four kinds of love. Whereas the English language has only the word love to describe all the affectionate experiences of men, the Greek language had a different word to describe each kind of love.

1. There is passionate love or eros love. This is the physical love between sexes; the patriotic love of a person for his nation; the ambition of a person for power, wealth, or fame. Briefly stated, eros love is the base love of a man that arises from his own inner passion. Sometimes eros love is focused upon good and other times it is focused upon bad. It should be noted that eros love is never used in the New Testament.

2. There is affectionate love or storge love. This is the kind of love that exists between parent and child and between loyal citizens and a trustworthy ruler. Storge love is also not used in the New Testament.

3. There is an endearing love, the love that cherishes. This is phileo love, the love of a husband and wife for each other, of a brother for a brother, of a friend for the dearest of friends. It is the love that cherishes, that holds someone or something ever so dear to one’s heart.

4. There is selfless and sacrificial love or agape love. Agape love is the love of the mind, of the reason, of the will. It is the love that goes so far...

- that it loves a person even if he does not deserve to be loved.
- that it actually loves the person who is utterly unworthy of being loved.

Note four significant points about agape love.

- a. Selfless or agape love is the love of God, the very love possessed by God Himself. It is the love demonstrated in the cross of Christ.
- ⇒ It is the love of God for the ungodly.

“For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly” (Ro.5:6).

⇒ It is the love of God for unworthy sinners.

“But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us” (Ro.5:8).

⇒ It is the love of God for undeserving enemies.

“For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life” (Ro.5:10).

- b. Selfless or agape love is a gift of God. It can be experienced only if a person knows God personally—only if a person has received the love of God into his heart and life. Agape love has to be shed abroad (poured out, flooded, spread about) by the Spirit of God within the heart of a person.

“And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us” (Ro.5:5).

- c. Selfless or agape love is the greatest thing in all of life according to the Lord Jesus Christ.

“And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord: and thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment. And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these” (Mk.12:29-31).

- d. Selfless or agape love is the greatest possession and gift in human life according to the Scripture (1 Cor.13:1-13).

“And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity” (1 Cor.13:13).

2 (v.6) Love—Obedience—Believer, Life and Walk: love is a behavior, a way of life, a walk; it is obeying God’s commandments. Note the phrase: “This is love.” Love is obedience, that is, the only way we can show that we love God is by doing what pleases Him. When we love someone, we want to do things that please him or her. We want their acceptance and approval; we want them to love us in return. Therefore, we are careful to do things that will please them and win their favor and love. The same is true with us and God. If we love God, we do those things that please Him. We keep His commandments. What is His commandment? “This is the commandment”—the great commandment—the commandment that you have heard from the beginning: “that you should walk in [love].” How does a believer walk in love? He walks upon earth just like Jesus Christ walked: he loves everyone. He does the great acts of love, and the great acts of love are clearly spelled out by Scripture in 1 Cor.13:4-7. This great passage gives the very behavior that is to characterize the believer, the very way the believer is to live among others. This is what loving others means.

1. Love suffers long (makrothumei): is patient with people. The word always refers to being patient with people, not with circumstances (William Barclay. The Letters to the Corinthians. “The Daily Study Bible.” Philadelphia, PA: The Westminster Press, 1954, p.133).

Love suffers a long, long time...

- no matter the evil and injury done by a person.
- no matter the neglect or ignoring by a loved one.

Love suffers a long, long time without resentment, anger, or seeking revenge. Love controls itself in order to win the person and to help him to live, work, and serve as he should.

“But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith” (Gal.5:22).

“Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine” (2 Tim.4:2).

2. Love is kind (chresteuetai): courteous, good, helpful, useful, giving, showing and showering favors. Love does not resent evil; it does not revel in the hurt and neglect. Love reaches out in kindness: in helpfulness, in giving, and in showering favors upon the person who neglects or hurts oneself.

“Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another” (Ro.12:10).

“And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ’s sake hath forgiven you” (Eph.4:32).

3. Love does not envy (zeloi): is not jealous; does not have feelings against others because of what they have, such as gifts, position, friends, recognition, possessions, popularity, abilities. Love does not begrudge or attack or downplay the abilities and success of others. Love shares and joys and rejoices in the experience and good of others.

“Let us not be desirous of vainglory, provoking one another, envying one another” (Gal.5:26).

“Fret not thyself because of evil doers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity” (Ps.37:1).

“Envy thou not the oppressor, and choose none of his ways” (Pr.3:31).

“A sound heart is the life of the flesh: but envy the rottenness of the bones” (Pr.14:30).

“Let not thine heart envy sinners; but be thou in the fear of the Lord all the day long” (Pr.23:17).

4. Love does not vaunt itself (peopereuetai): is not boastful; does not brag nor seek recognition, honor, or applause from others. On the contrary, love seeks to give: to recognize, to honor, to applaud the other person.

“For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith” (Ro.12:3).

“Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another” (Ro.12:10).

“Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves” (Ph.2:3).

5. Love is not puffed up (phusioutai): prideful, arrogant, conceited; does not think nor act as though oneself is better or above others. Love is modest and humble and recognizes and honors others.

“Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven” (Mt.18:4).

“But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee” (Lk.14:10).

“But ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve” (Lk.22:26).

“Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble” (1 Pt.5:5).

6. Love does not behave itself unseemly (aschemonei): unbecomingly, rudely, indecently, unmannerly, disgracefully. Love does nothing to shame oneself. Love is orderly and controlled; and it behaves and treats all persons with respect, honoring and respecting who they are.

“That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ” (Ph.1:10).

“For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you” (2 Th.3:7).

7. Love seeks not her own: is not selfish; does not insist upon its own rights (Williams). Love is not focused upon who one is nor upon what one has done. Love seeks to serve, not have others serving oneself. Love is acknowledging others, not insisting that others acknowledge oneself; it is giving to others, not insisting that others give to oneself.

“Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others” (Ph.2:4).

8. Love is not easily provoked (paroxunetai): not easily angered; not ready to take offence; not quick tempered; not “touchy” (Phillips, as quoted by Leon Morris. The First Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians. “The Tyndale Bible Commentaries,” ed. by RVG Tasker. Grand Rapids, MI: Eerdmans, 1958, p.184). It is not easily aroused to anger; does not become “exasperated” (Barclay). Love controls the emotions, and never becomes angry without a cause (Ro.12:18).

“But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth” (Col.3:8).

“Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath” (Jas.1:19).

“Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: fret not thyself in any wise to do evil” (Ps.37:8).

“He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city” (Pr.16:32).

“The discretion of a man deferreth his anger; and it is his glory to pass over a transgression” (Pr.19:11).

“Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools” (Eccl.7:9).

9. Love does not think evil (logizetai to kakon): does not consider the wrong suffered; is not resentful; does not hold the evil done to oneself. Love suffers the evil done to it and forgets it.

“But I say unto you, That ye resist not evil; but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also” (Mt.5:39).

“Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men” (Ro.12:17).

“See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men” (1 Th.5:15).

“Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing; but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing” (1 Pt.3:9).

10. Love does not rejoice in iniquity (adikia): unrighteousness, evil, wrong-doing. Love does not take pleasure in the unrighteousness and sin of others; it does not feed upon sin and wrong, nor does it pass along the stories of sin and wrong. Man’s nature is too often fed the tragedy of evil, whether personal sin or natural disaster (cp. the daily news reports and most subjects of conversation between so many people).

“And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother’s eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?” (Mt.7:3).

“We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves” (Ro.15:1).

“Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted” (Gal.6:1).

“And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins” (1 Pt.4:8).

11. Love rejoices in the truth: rejoices when the truth is known and when it prevails; rejoices when others are recognized and promoted for who they are and for what they have contributed. Love rejoices when the truth is rooted and grounded in a person and among the people of the world. Note that love never covers nor hides the truth; love is courageous in that it faces the truth.

“Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another” (Eph.4:25).

“Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness” (Eph.6:14).

“These are the things that ye shall do; Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates” (Zech.8:16).

“The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did turn many away from iniquity” (Mal.2:6).

12. Love bears all things: the word bears (stegai) means both to cover all things and to bear up under all things. Love does both: it stands up under the weight and onslaught of all things and it covers up the faults of others. It has no pleasure in exposing the wrong and weaknesses of others. Love bears up under any neglect, abuse, ridicule—anything that is thrown against it.

“With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love; endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace” (Eph.4:2-3).

“And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him” (Eph.6:9).

“Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye” (Col.3:13).

13. Love believes all things: is “completely trusting” (Barclay); “always eager to believe the best” (Moffatt, as quoted by Leon Morris); is “ever ready to believe the best” (Amplified New Testament). Love sees and understands the circumstances and accepts and forgives and believes the very best about a person.

“And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him” (Lk.17:4).

“And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ’s sake hath forgiven you” (Eph.4:32).

“Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye” (Col.3:13).

14. Love hopes all things: it “never ceases to hope” (Barclay); it expects the good to eventually triumph and to gain the victory; it refuses to accept failure; it always hopes for the best and for the ultimate triumph of the good—no matter how fallen or how tragic the fall or how difficult gaining the victory may seem.

“For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope?” (Ro.8:24).

“For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope” (Ro.15:4).

“Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work” (2 Th.2:16-17).

“And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure” (1 Jn.3:3).

15. Love endureth all things: the word endures (huopmenei) is a military word meaning to stand against the attack of an enemy. Love actively fights and endures all attacks. Love is strong, full of fortitude and fight, and it struggles against any and every assault to buckle in to being unloving. Love conquers and triumphs—always—because it endures all things. No matter what attacks love, named or unnamed, it endures the attack and continues to love.

“And ye shall be hated of all men for my name’s sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved” (Mt.10:22).

“Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord” (1 Cor.15:58).

“And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not” (Gal.6:9).

“Blessed is the man that endureth temptation [trial]: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him” (Jas.1:12).

“Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy” (Jas.5:11).

“Behold, I come quickly; hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown” (Rev.3:11).

Thought 1. The point is well made: the dear friend of John was to walk in love no matter how others treated her. She was to love even as God’s Son had loved when He was upon earth. So are we.

DIVISION II

THE WARNING AGAINST DECEIVERS AND FALSE TEACHERS, v.7-13

(v.7-13) Introduction: one of the greatest problems faced by believers is false teaching. False teaching abounds everywhere. No matter which direction we turn, there are deceivers and imposters who go by the name of Christian, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ; yet they are anything but followers of Him. But their teaching is so insidious, and it contains enough of the truth that millions are ensnared by their seduction. This is the importance of this passage: it is a warning against deceivers or false teachers.

1. Guard against deceivers (v.7).
2. Watch yourself: do not lose the things already wrought in you—receive a full reward (v.8).
3. Do not go too far: stay in the doctrine of Christ—prove your salvation (v.9).
4. Do not receive a deceiver; do not compromise: guard your testimony (v.10-11).
5. Conclusion: much exhortation is needed (v.12-13).

1 (v.7) Teachers, False—Deceivers—Antichrist: first, guard against deceivers. A deceiver is an imposter, a person who claims to be a follower of Christ, but he is not—not really. He does not live like Christ taught us to live, and he does not believe the truth about Christ. He lives and teaches something entirely different than what Christ lived and taught. Note three significant facts.

1. There are many deceivers in the world. There were many in the days of John and the elect lady, and there have been many ever since. Deceivers are in every area of society—in our factories and plants, schools and universities, clubs and recreational halls, offices and businesses, and even in our churches and religious societies.

Some are businessmen; others are employees. Some are teachers; others are students. Some are ministers; others are laymen. Deceivers are everywhere, imposters who claim to be Christian, but they do not live for Christ nor do they believe what Christ taught. By their lives and by their beliefs and teachings, they deceive people. Through everyday conversation and sharing and from the teaching positions of the world, they ensnare people into the net of their false beliefs.

2. Note who a deceiver is: he is a person who denies that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. That is, he denies that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

- ⇒ He denies the deity of Jesus Christ: that He is the Son of God who came out of (ek) heaven, out from the spiritual world and dimension into this world; who came through the womb of a virgin as the God-Man to save the world.
- ⇒ He denies that Jesus Christ is the sinless Son of God who lived a perfect and righteous life and thereby secured the ideal and perfect righteousness for man.
- ⇒ He denies the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ: that He died as the sacrifice for man's sins and that He arose from the dead to conquer death for man.
- ⇒ He denies the Lordship of Jesus Christ: that He is truly the Son of God seated at the right hand of God as the Lord and God of the universe.
- ⇒ He denies the return of Jesus Christ to earth: that He is coming again to execute judgment upon the earth.

Any person can be a deceiver. No matter who we are, if we do not believe that God's Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, has come in the flesh, then we deceive people and mislead them. We ensnare them into false belief and doom them to be separated from God forever. How? By teaching them that they can be good enough on their own to become acceptable to God; that they can do enough good and be religious enough to make God accept them. But this is false teaching, for God is perfect and He can accept only perfection. No person is perfect; therefore, all persons are doomed if they present only their own goodness to God. Their goodness is not perfection. We have all committed some sins, and we are all short of God's glory. We all stand guilty before God. Therefore, there has to be a perfect sacrifice for our sins. This is the glorious news about Jesus Christ, the Son of God. He came to earth to live a sinless life and to become the Perfect and Ideal Man. This He did so that He could be the perfect and ideal sacrifice for our sins. Jesus Christ has taken our sins upon Himself and borne the punishment for them. Therefore, sin is taken care of. Sin can be removed from us, and God can accept us in Christ as sinless and perfect.

This is the point: this is the reason that God had to send His Son into the world. If we deny Jesus Christ, if we do not trust Jesus Christ as the perfect sacrifice for our sins, then we are doomed—doomed because we still bear our sins. And God cannot allow a single sinner to contaminate and dirty the perfection of heaven. Sin has to be removed before God can ever accept us and allow us to live in His presence.

Therefore, any person who denies that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is a deceiver. He is denying what God has done. And most tragic of all: he leads other people astray.

Note one other fact about this verse of Scripture. The words “Jesus Christ is come in the flesh” is in the present tense. That is, the deceiver denies that God or the Son of God could ever come to earth.

⇒ He denies that God’s Son came the first time; denies that Jesus the carpenter was the Son of God.

⇒ He denies that the Son of God is ever coming; denies a second coming or any other coming of the Son of God to earth.

The deceiver just does not believe that God could or would ever come to earth. He does not believe that God could become a man, or else that He ever would become a man. And if God could come to earth, the deceiver sees no need for such an act—for to him man is capable of becoming good enough to secure God’s approval and acceptance on his own.

3. Note that the deceiver is called an antichrist; that is, he is a forerunner of the antichrist (see note—1 Jn.2:18 for discussion).

Thought 1. The warning has been sounded. We must guard against deceivers and false teachers.

“Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity” (Mt.7:15-23).

“For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works” (2 Cor.11:13-15).

“Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm” (1 Tim.1:7).

“Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron” (1 Tim.4:1-2).

“If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness; he is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself” (1 Tim.6:3-5).

“For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables” (2 Tim.4:3-4).

“But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction” (2 Pt.2:1).

“For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely” (Jer.6:13).

“For both prophet and priest are profane; yea, in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD” (Jer.23:11).

“My people hath been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their restingplace” (Jer.50:6).

“But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman’s hand” (Ezk.33:6).

2 (v.8) Watch—Believers, Duty: second, watch yourself so that you will receive a full reward. Remember: John is writing to a dear mother and her children. False teaching was so rampant that the family unit itself needed to be on guard. The family needed to consider what teachers they were listening to and sitting under. Note why: lest they lose the reward for the good works they had already wrought. Believers are to be rewarded for their good works, for their labor for Christ. But there is danger that they can lose their reward. What is that danger? Heeding false teaching. If we heed false teaching, we will lose our reward.

Thought 1. No matter how much charisma a teacher may have, no matter how much we may like him, no matter how persuasive he may be—we must not listen to him, not if he is denying that God’s Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, has come to earth as a Man. If we are led astray, we will lose our reward.

“Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy: for thou renderest to every man according to his work” (Ps.62:12).

“I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings” (Jer.17:10).

“For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works” (Mt.16:27).

“For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad” (2 Cor.5:10).

“And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man’s work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear” (1 Pt.1:17).

“And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works” (Rev.20:12).

“And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be” (Rev.22:12).

3 (v.9) Salvation—Teaching, False: third, abide in the doctrine of Christ. The person who does not abide in the teachings of Christ does not have or possess God. The Greek words are pas ho proagon. They mean to transgress against God by going too far, by trying to move out ahead of Christ. There are many teachers, ministers and laymen alike, who would like to be progressive and creative, to come up with a novel idea, to make some advancement in thought. They want people to recognize and approve them; therefore, they try to impress people. In so doing, they go beyond Christ and what He taught. They twist or branch off from the teachings of Christ. John warns against this: if a person does not stay in the teachings of Christ, then he does not have God. He is not saved; he is not truly born of God. The only person who is born of God is the person who stays in the teachings of Christ. This does not mean that believers are not to be creative and thoughtful. It means that we must not move out beyond Christ and what He taught.

Thought 1. Note: it is the teachings of Christ that we are to follow, not teachings about Christ. As A.T. Robertson says in his Word Pictures In The New Testament (Vol.6, p.254), our standard is to be Christ. We must be progressive and seek after progress, but it should be toward Christ, not away from Him. What are the teachings of Christ? The following verses give us the doctrine of Christ.

“And the word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth” (Jn.1:14).

“And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life” (Jn.3:14-15).

“That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him” (Jn.5:23).

“And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst” (Jn.6:35).

“But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him. And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father. From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him. Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away? Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life” (Jn.6:64-68).

“Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me. If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself” (Jn.7:16-17).

“I and my Father are one” (Jn.10:30).

“He that hateth me hateth my Father also” (Jn.15:23).

“And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent” (Jn.17:3).

“And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book: but these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name” (Jn.20:30-31).

4 (v.10-11) Hospitality: fourth, do not receive a deceiver or false teacher nor wish him well. Remember: most churches of that day and time met in the homes of prominent members (cp. Ro.16:5; Col.4:15). It is likely that the church was meeting in the home of this dear lady and her children. If not, then she had apparently refused to provide room and board or to welcome some false teachers into her home. The charge is strong and its meaning is perfectly clear. False teachers are not to be allowed in the church nor in our homes. There is no greater danger to a church or a home than the threat of false teachers. False teachers doom the souls of people, shut them off from Christ. And any person who is shut off from Christ is not acceptable to God. Therefore, the church and the members of our families must be protected at all costs from false teachers. Note: we are not to encourage the false teacher at all; not to welcome him nor to bid him “God speed.” If we encourage him, God counts us as a participant in his evil deeds. This means, of course, that we do not support deceivers and false teachers...

- by allowing them to be around our children or young people.
- by allowing them to be around believers where they can share their ideas.
- by allowing them to teach in our churches.
- by attending their meetings.
- by supporting them financially.
- by showing any encouragement whatsoever to them.

Any person who denies Jesus Christ is the most dangerous person alive, for he can doom our children and loved ones and even doom us. Jesus Christ is God’s Son, and God loves His Son with a divine jealousy and vengeance over how men treat Him. No matter what we may feel or think, God is both loving and just, and His justice must be executed the same as His love has been demonstrated. The point is this: God’s justice stands more against those who teach that Jesus Christ is not His Son than against anyone else.

“Give not that which is holy unto the dogs [false teachers], neither cast ye your pearls [the truth of the gospel] before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you” (Mt.7:6).

“Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity” (Mt.7:15-23).

“Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty” (2 Cor.6:17-18).

“I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed” (Gal.1:6-9).

5 (v.12-13) Conclusion: much exhortation is needed by believers. John had much that needed to be said to this dear lady and her children. But it would be better to say it to them face to face. Therefore, John planned a trip to visit her and the other believers in the area.

Thought 1. Note how important the gospel is even for believers—so important that John would plan a special trip to share the glorious teachings of Jesus Christ. And remember: John was already an elderly man.

Note that the elect lady had a sister. The final words are greetings from the children of the sister. This is significant: it shows how the gospel had spread throughout the whole family. First one sister was reached for Christ, then the other sister, and then the children of both families. When we surrender our lives to Jesus Christ, our duty is to do all we can to reach our families for Christ, all our brothers and sisters and their families.

“For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard” (Acts 4:20).

“We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak” (2 Cor.4:13).

“Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God” (2 Tim.1:8).

“And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also” (2 Tim.2:2).

“These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee” (Tit.2:15).

“But sanctify the lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear” (1 Pt.3:15).

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF

JOHN

THE THIRD EPISTLE GENERAL OF JOHN

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: John, the Apostle (see I John, Introductory Notes).

DATE: Probably A.D. 85-95 (see I John, Introductory Notes).

TO WHOM WRITTEN: “The well-beloved Gaius” (3 Jn.1). (See outline and notes—3 Jn.1-8 for a discussion of Gaius.)

PURPOSE: To warn against rejecting true ministers and spiritual leadership. (See Introduction, Special Features, pt.2—II John for more discussion.)

SPECIAL FEATURES:

1. III John is “A General Epistle.” That is, it is not written to a specific church. It is written from a pastor whose leadership and authority have been unduly rejected (3 Jn.9). He now appeals to another leader to hear and receive his instructions.

2. III John is “An Epistle Governing Traveling Ministers such as Prophets, Teachers, Evangelists, and Missionaries.” After the apostles died off, a clash arose over the ministers of local churches and the traveling ministers. There were some false ministers who had begun to fill the pulpits of the local churches and others who had begun to travel about taking advantage of the Christians who were kind enough to provide them food and lodging during their ministry and stay (II John 10). Because of this abuse, some within the churches arose and began to oppose all traveling ministers (Diotrephes of III John is an example of this). In II John, John writes the elect lady to warn her of false teachers. But on the other hand, he writes Gaius to encourage him to receive the true prophets (III John). III John shows that the conflict had become so heated that Diotrephes was even trying to have church members expelled if they accepted the traveling minister.

OUTLINE OF THIRD JOHN

THE PREACHER'S OUTLINE & SERMON BIBLE™ is unique. It differs from all other Study Bibles & Sermon Resource Materials in that every Passage and Subject is outlined right beside the Scripture. When you choose any Subject below and turn to the reference, you have not only the Scripture, but you discover the Scripture and Subject already outlined for you—verse by verse.

For a quick example, choose one of the subjects below and turn over to the Scripture, and you will find this marvellous help for faster, easier, and more accurate use.

In addition, every point of the Scripture and Subject is fully developed in a Commentary with supporting Scripture at the bottom of the page. Again, this arrangement makes sermon preparation much easier and faster.

Note something else: The Subjects of THIRD JOHN have titles that are both Biblical and practical. The practical titles sometimes have more appeal to people. This benefit is clearly seen for use on billboards, bulletins, church newsletters, etc.

A suggestion: For the quickest overview of THIRD JOHN, first read all the major titles (I, II, III, etc.), then come back and read the subtitles.

DIVISION I

THE SPIRITUAL AND BELOVED LEADER: GAIUS, A MAN WHO HELPED MUCH, v.1-8

(v.1-8) Introduction: leadership within the church is critical. Church leaders are chosen to lead people to Jesus Christ. Therefore how leaders live and behave is of critical importance: their lives affect the lives of the whole church. Their behavior often determines the growth of believers and whether or not the church has a dynamic ministry for Christ. This is what the letter of Third John is all about, leadership within the church. Three leaders are seen, two were godly men and one was a troublemaker. The first leader was Gaius. He is a picture of the spiritual and beloved leader, a man who took the lead within the church by reaching out and helping all those who needed help.

1. He was well-beloved (v.1).
2. He prospered spiritually—despite ill health (v.2).
3. He walked in the truth (v.3-4).
4. He helped Christian believers and strangers (v.5-8).

1 (v.1) Gaius—Beloved: he was well-beloved. Note that John calls Gaius beloved four times (v.1, 2, 5, 11). Gaius was dear to the heart of John. He was deeply loved. Why? Apparently they were close friends, but their friendship was not the main reason for their bond. The main reason for their close bond was Christ. Gaius had trusted Jesus Christ as his Savior and was faithful to the call God had given him. He was a leader in the church and he did his job well. He lived for Christ and performed his functions for the sake of Christ and the church (see note 2, Truth—2 Jn.1-2 for more discussion). John loved Gaius because he was both a dear friend and a great servant of Christ.

“A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another” (Jn.13:34-35).

“As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love” (Jn.15:9).

“This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you” (Jn.15:12).

“Let love be without dissimulation [hypocrisy]. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good” (Ro.12:9).

“And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling savour” (Eph.5:2).

“And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you” (1 Th.3:12).

“Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently” (1 Pt.1:22).

“Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren” (1 Jn.3:16).

2 (v.2) Gaius—Prosperity—Health: he prospered spiritually despite ill health. Gaius was apparently a man who suffered some illness or disease or was at least subject to being sick a lot. His health crosses John's mind, and John wants him to know that he is thinking and praying for his health just as he is praying for his soul to prosper. Note two things.

1. Gaius' soul did prosper. John actually says that it prospered. The idea is that he was growing spiritually, growing stronger and stronger in Christ and in the fruit of the Spirit. He experienced the fulness of God day by day...

- love
- joy
- peace
- longsuffering
- gentleness
- goodness
- faith
- meekness
- self-control

Gaius, the church leader, prospered in that he experienced both abundant and eternal life. He knew God's care and guidance every day of his life.

2. John prayed for Gaius to prosper and to be in good health. In this case, John was wanting Gaius to be prosperous and fulfilled and satisfied in all of life...

- in his home
- in his work
- in his relationships
- in his leadership
- in his church
- in whatever he undertook

Thought 1. We should be praying for one another—for all believers—to be prosperous and fulfilled and satisfied in all that we undertake. We should be praying for success and joy in all of life. But remember: success does not mean money as much as it means joy, fulfillment, and satisfaction. Nothing can ever take the place of peace of heart and mind. And peace comes only through Jesus Christ.

“For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come” (1 Tim.4:8).

“But godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. And having food and raiment let us be therewith content” (1 Tim.6:6-8).

“This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men” (Tit.3:8).

“Let your conversation [behavior] be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee” (Heb.13:5).

“And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper” (Ps.1:3).

“Keep therefore the words of this covenant, and do them, that ye may prosper in all that ye do” (Dt.29:9).

3 (v.3-4) Truth—Gaius: he walked in the truth. Note two significant facts.

1. Gaius, the church leader, had a strong testimony among the believers of the church. Some of the believers had visited the city where John was and shared the testimony of Gaius with John. What they shared was this: Gaius walked in the truth. This means that he walked in the truth of Jesus Christ and in the truth of God's Word.

⇒ Jesus Christ said that He is the truth.

“Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me” (Jn.14:6).

Jesus Christ is the truth, the very ideal of humanity, the Ideal and Perfect Man. Jesus Christ is everything that a person should be, all that God wants a person to be. Therefore, Gaius walked in Jesus Christ. He patterned his life after the truth, after Jesus Christ Himself.

⇒ Jesus Christ also said that the Word of God is truth.

“Sanctify them through thy truth, thy word is truth” (Jn.17:17).

All that a person should be is also written out in the Word of God. God's Word spells out the ideal and perfect person, just what God wants a person to be. Therefore, Gaius obeyed the Word of God. He walked in the truth of God's Word and lived as God's Word says to live.

2. Gaius brought joy to the hearts of believers. Not only were the believers joying in the testimony of Gaius, but John himself joyed in Gaius as well. But note again: he was not joying in Gaius' friendship, although he was bound to be thankful for a friend as close as Gaius. John was joyful over the Christian life Gaius was living, over the fact that Gaius walked in the truth.

Note another significant fact: Gaius was apparently standing firm in the truth despite severe opposition from another church leader and a clique that the divisive leader had drawn around him (v.9-11).

Thought 1. What a man Gaius must have been! It is difficult enough to stand against the normal temptations and trials of life, but when fellow believers begin to attack us, it makes standing up for the truth even more difficult. The tendency is to back off and just keep silent and let things run their course. But note Gaius. He stood up for the truth of Christ and of God's Word. He stood against those within the church who were not following the truth and were damaging and destroying the church by their divisiveness.

“And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me” (Lk.9:23).

“And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God” (Ro.12:2).

“Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new” (2 Cor.5:17).

“As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him” (Col.2:6).

“Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier” (2 Tim.2:3-4).

“He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked” (1 Jn.2:6).

“Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world” (1 Jn.2:15-16).

4 (v.5-8) Gaius—Ministering—Hospitality—Benevolence: he helped Christian believers and strangers. This tells us why John was writing to Gaius and the church. There were some in the church who did not like the idea of travelling ministers visiting and holding meetings in their church. They were opposed to any kind of minister or ministry that was not settled within the church itself. They did not, therefore, want the travelling evangelists, missionaries, prophets, and teachers preaching and teaching in their church. They saw no use for their ministry. They felt...

- that believers could learn all they needed to know from their own ministers and from others in the settled ministry.
- that they did not need help in reaching out to the lost.
- that they could carry out the mission of Christ without the help of travelling ministers.

This will be seen when the opposition is discussed in the next passage and outline. For now, note three significant points.

1. Gaius was doing all he could to help the travelling ministers. He was opening his home and supporting them—so much so that he had a strong testimony in the ministry of hospitality. Note that he even opened his home to strangers in order to reach and grow them in Christ.

2. Gaius is to continue to receive and support the travelling ministers (v.6^b). Note: it is said that this is exactly what God Himself would do. Gaius is told this is the godly way, the godly thing to do. That is, it is exactly what God would do; therefore, it is what the church leader is to do. There are two strong reasons why.

- a. Travelling ministers should be received and supported as they go forth for Christ. They have dedicated their lives to serve Christ by reaching the lost and growing believers, and the church needs their ministry. In addition, they have made the commitment by faith, without receiving a regular income.
- b. Travelling ministers should be received and supported because we need to be fellow-workers in the truth. There is no question: they are workers in the truth. Travelling evangelists, missionaries, prophets, and teachers alike are carrying the gospel of truth across the world. The only question is: Are we in the local church going to be fellow workers with them? John says that it is the very thing that God Himself would do. Therefore, we in the local church must labor with all those who walk in the truth of Jesus Christ and the Word of God. We must labor with all those chosen by God to carry forth the Word of truth, the Word of His dear Son, the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thought 1. Gaius is a dynamic example for the leaders of the local church. All Christian leaders are to...

- open their homes to strangers: college students who are away from home, single parents with children, the homeless, the needy, the hungry, foreigners, and all others.
- open their homes in supporting the travelling evangelists and teachers who are faithfully serving our Lord Jesus.
- open their homes to the various ministries of the church such as Bible Study groups, youth meetings and fellowships.

“Distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality” (Ro.12:13).

“A bishop [leader] then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach” (1 Tim.3:2).

“Let not a widow be taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man” (1 Tim.5:9).

“But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate” (Tit.1:8).

“Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares” (Heb.13:2).

“Use hospitality one to another without grudging” (1 Pt.4:9).

“Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints’ feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work” (1 Tim.5:10).

DIVISION II

THE DIVISIVE CHURCH LEADER AND THE GODLY MINISTER, v.9-14

(v.9-14) Introduction: a divisive leader is one of the most serious problems that ever confronts a church. When a church has within its ranks a divisive leader, the very life and ministry of the church are threatened. A divisive leader always carries a church through one of its most traumatic experiences. He usually gathers others around him into a clique of opposition, and when he goes this far, he becomes much more of a threat to the life of the church. This is the very reason that Third John was written. There was a divisive leader in the church who was causing serious problems. In writing, John covers the traits of the divisive leader and he tells us how to handle him.

1. The divisive church leader (v.9-11).
2. The godly leader who stands in the truth (v.12).
3. Conclusion: the problem in the church was so severe that a personal visit was needed by the minister John (v.13-14).

I (v.9-11) Divisive Church Leaders—Diotrephes—Discipline: there is the divisive church leader, a man called Diotrephes. Who was he? All we know is what is said here, for this is the only time he is mentioned in Scripture. But a great deal is given here. We can tell that he was a prominent leader in the church. Note: he had enough authority to reject John's letter, and remember John was not only an apostle, but one of the three closest apostles to Christ (v.9). He also had enough authority to stop travelling ministers from holding meetings in the church, ministers such as evangelists, teachers, and prophets (v.10). He even had the authority to force people out of the church (v.10).

All this points to his being a minister or one of the highest lay officials in the church such as a deacon. What an enormous opportunity and privilege he had! Holding such a high call in the church, he could have been a dynamic example of what a believer should be—an example of love, care, ministry, outreach, evangelism, and of purity of life. But the legacy he has left behind is a far cry from being a testimony. His legacy is division; he was a divisive leader. Imagine! After his death, the major thing remembered about him is that he was the person who caused division in the church. Six things are said about him.

1. Diotrephes, the divisive leader, loved recognition. He loved to be preeminent, to be first in the church (v.9).
 - ⇒ He wanted people recognizing him as the most important leader in the church.
 - ⇒ He wanted people coming to him for advice and counsel.
 - ⇒ He wanted people seeking his opinion first before they went to others.
 - ⇒ He wanted all new ideas and ministries and programs to be brought to him first.
 - ⇒ He wanted to sit in on all major discussions and meetings.
 - ⇒ He wanted to have the major say-so in all decisions.
 - ⇒ He wanted the right to approve or disapprove who did what in the church.

On and on the list could go. This church leader wanted to be first, to have the recognition and preeminence in the church.

Thought 1. A.T. Robertson shares a personal experience that is most interesting and that should speak to all of our hearts about how insidious the desire to be first can be:

“He [Diotrephes] may have been an elder (bishop) or deacon, but clearly desired to rule the whole church. Some forty years ago I wrote an article on Diotrephes for a denominational paper. The editor told me that twenty-five deacons stopped the paper to show their resentment against being personally attacked in the paper” (Word Pictures In The New Testament, Vol.6, p.263).

“And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted” (Mt.23:12).

“And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest” (Lk.22:24).

“How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only?” (Jn.5:44).

“Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits” (Ro.12:16).

“Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others” (Ph.2:3-4).

“Neither as being lords over God’s heritage, but being ensamples to the flock” (1 Pt.5:3).

“Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall” (Pr.16:18).

“A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity” (Pr.17:17).

“It is not good to eat much honey: so for men to search their own glory is not glory” (Pr.25:27).

“He that is of a proud heart stirreth up strife: but he that putteth his trust in the LORD shall be made fat” (Pr.28:25).

“Woe unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight!” (Is.5:21).

“For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High” (Is.14:13-14).

“Though thou exalt thy self as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the LORD” (Obad.4).

Thought 2. Oliver Greene makes a very practical comment that needs to be heeded by all church leaders who desire to be preeminent in the church.

“Greek authorities tell us that the phrase here translated ‘who loveth to have the preeminence’ is only one word in the Greek, and it is not found anywhere else in the New Testament. The meaning is simply ‘one who loves to be first,’ one who will rule or ruin. But there ARE no rulers or lords in God’s Church. Pastors, deacons, church leaders are not to be ‘lords over God’s heritage’ (1 Pet.5:3)” (The Epistles of John, p.254).

2. Diotrophes, the divisive leader, rejected ministerial leadership. Note: John had written some previous letter to the church. Again remember that this is John the apostle, one of the men who had walked with Jesus Himself. But this did not matter to this divisive leader. He rejected John’s authority as a minister of God. In fact, he totally rejected the minister’s authority. He would not even allow John’s letter to be read before the church. This is the very reason John has addressed this letter to Gaius. Diotrophes had destroyed John’s former letter to the church; therefore, this time John sends the letter to Gaius, who is another leader in the church.

Thought 1. When a person wants his own way in the church, authority matters little. In fact, this is usually the way we can tell whether or not a person is wanting to be recognized: if he is rejecting the appointed authority in the church.

“Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others” (Ph.2:3-4).

3. Diotrophes criticized, talked about, and censored the minister. And note: he used malicious words; he was bitter and divisive against the minister John. He went about overflowing with talk and rattling on about the matter, talking against and letting the members know that he opposed the minister.

“But I say unto you, that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment” (Mt.12:36).

“Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice” (Eph.4:31).

“And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell” (Jas.3:6).

“Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge” (Jas.4:11).

“Wherefore laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings” (1 Pt.2:1).

“For I have heard the slander of many: fear was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life” (Ps.31:13).

“Whoso privily [secretly] slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: him that hath an high look and a proud heart will not I suffer” (Ps.101:5).

“He that hideth hatred with lying lips, and he that uttereth a slander, is a fool” (Pr.10:18).

“Whoso boasteth himself of a false gift is like clouds and wind without rain” (Pr.25:14).

4. Diotrephes opposed those who stood behind the minister. The issue within the church was whether or not to support travelling ministers such as evangelists, prophets, missionaries, and teachers. Some in the church led by Diotrephes felt that the only legitimate ministers were ministers of local churches. They felt that ministers such as travelling evangelists, prophets, missionaries, and outside teachers were not needed, that the church did not need their help to mature the believers nor to reach out to the lost.

But note: the minister John knew better. He knew that the Lord Jesus Christ had called and appointed specific officers for His church. He knew that believers needed the help of many ministers with very special gifts, ministers who could help the believers grow and carry out their own ministry. John knew that evangelists and missionaries could help the church reach out to reap the lost and stir believers to be more outreach minded. John knew that teachers and prophets could help believers of the local church grow, help them by giving them a different personality, voice, and perspective of God's Word and Christian growth.

As stated, the divisive leader, Diotrephes, opposed John the minister. He was so strong in his opposition that he was publicly opposing those who stood behind the minister. He was even driving some of them out and away from the church.

5. Diotrephes had to be disciplined. He was destroying the church. He had opposed the minister John so much that some believers had already left the church. He was disturbing every facet of church life:

- ⇒ affecting the testimony of the church before the world.
- ⇒ affecting the fellowship among believers.
- ⇒ affecting the spirit and enthusiasm of the believers, causing gloom and a disheartened spirit to set in.
- ⇒ affecting young and immature believers.
- ⇒ affecting the church's outreach into the community.
- ⇒ affecting the ministries and programs of the church. Few felt like participating.
- ⇒ affecting the reaching of the lost. Outsiders looked upon the church as being hypocritical.
- ⇒ affecting the offerings of the church.

This and so much more is what always happens when a divisive leader stirs up trouble within a church. This is the reason why a divisive leader must always be disciplined. Note: John says that he will deal with Diotrephes when he visits the church (v.9). The idea is that he, as the minister of God, is going to lead the church to discipline him. Jesus Christ instructs us how to handle discipline in the church, and no doubt, this is what John meant (see outline and notes—Mt.18:15-20 for discussion on church discipline).

“Moreover if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man and a publican” (Mt.18:15-17).

“Then said he unto the disciples, It is impossible but that offences will come: but woe unto him, through whom they come! It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones. Take heed to yourselves: If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him” (Lk.17:1-3).

“Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear” (1 Tim.5:20).

“Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine” (2 Tim.4:2).

“This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith” (Tit.1:13).

“A man that is an heretic after the first and second admonition reject” (Tit.3:10).

6. Diotrephes was not to be followed. This is a strong warning issued by the minister John: do not follow that which is evil, but follow that which is good. A divisive leader is not to be followed. He may be a leader—he may be the first leader in the church, but he is not to be followed if he is divisive and bucking against the authority of the minister and other leaders of the church. No matter who he is, no matter what his position, his leadership is to be rejected if he begins to sow seeds of divisiveness. His evil is not to be followed. Note why. The reason is shocking: a divisive person does evil, and the person who does evil is not born of God. No matter what the divisive person claims, no matter how great a leader he is in the church, no matter how long he has been in the church—the divisive person is not born of God. How could he be? For God is good, and only the person who does good is born of God.

“Let love be without dissimulation [hypocrisy]. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good” (Ro.12:9).

“Abstain from all appearance of evil” (1 Th.5:22).

“Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord: looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled” (Heb.12:14-15).

“But to do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased” (Heb.13:16).

“Let him eschew [shun, run away from] evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it” (1 Pt.3:11).

“All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death” (1 Jn.5:17).

“Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it” (Ps.34:14).

2 (v.12) Minister—Demetrius: there is the godly leader who stands in the truth. Who is Demetrius? What is said here in this verse is all we know.

⇒ He could be a leader in the church who stood toe to toe with Diotrephes. If so, then John is telling Gaius to lead the church in supporting him.

⇒ Most likely he is the minister and messenger John is sending to the church to deliver this third letter of John, a minister who is to help straighten out the division in the church.

Whatever the case, Demetrius stands as a dynamic example of a godly leader, of just what a leader in the church should be. Note three strong facts about him.

1. Demetrius had a strong testimony among all believers. Few leaders have a dynamic testimony among all, but this church leader did. He was held in the highest esteem by God’s people. They respected him every so highly.

2. Demetrius had a strong testimony for walking in the truth (see note, Truth—3 Jn.3-4 for discussion).

3. Demetrius was highly esteemed by other leaders. Note: John says we also bear record to the testimony of Demetrius, and then he strongly affirms the fact: he declares that his own testimony is trustworthy. What he is saying about the character of Demetrius is true. Demetrius is a godly servant of the Lord no matter what any divisive leader says. This emphasis points rather strongly toward Demetrius being one of the travelling evangelists or teachers serving with John. There is a possibility that he was one of those who had been opposed by Diotrephes and not allowed to teach in the church.

Whatever the case, Demetrius is a dynamic example of what church leaders should be. Note that he is not a cowardly man. He is willing to personally deliver the letter of Third John to Gaius and the church and to deal with the problems of the division.

Thought 1. This is to be the testimony of all church leaders. A life that is rooted and grounded in Christ is the very purpose for which God calls church leaders.

“A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favor rather than silver and gold” (Pr.22:1).

“Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business” (Acts 6:3).

“Which was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium” (Acts 16:2).

“First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world” (Ro.1:8).

“For your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil” (Ro.16:19).

“And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches” (2 Cor.8:18).

“Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, and we also bear record; and ye know that our record is true” (3 Jn.12).

3 (v.13-14) Conclusion: the problem in the church was severe, so severe that John planned to visit the church and to visit it soon. He would write no more. He had much to say to Gaius and the believers, but he needed to say it face to face, not in a letter. Note the minister’s closing remarks:

⇒ He wishes peace upon them; this was the very thing Gaius and the church needed.

⇒ He sends greetings from mutual friends: this was saying to Gaius and the believers that they were not being rejected by other churches and believers. They were not being frowned upon because they were unable to handle the division and to discipline the divisive leader.

⇒ He asks Gaius to greet his friends by name for him.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF

JUDE

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JUDE

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: Jude, the brother of James and the half-brother of Jesus Christ Himself (cp. Mt.13:55; Mk.6:3). This is the traditional view, and there is nothing of substance to argue against it. Jude was slow in being accepted into the canon as Scripture. It was not fully accepted until about A.D. 350. This was probably due to Jude's quoting some apocryphal books (cp. Jude 9, 14-15). The apocryphal books were written between the Old Testament and the New Testament and have never been counted as Scripture by most believers. Eventually Jude proved itself as Scripture and was fully accepted by the church. As stated, it is mentioned by the middle of the third century (A.D. 350).

DATE: Uncertain. Somewhere between A.D. 67-90.

There is no clear indication when the epistle was written. However, there are some factors that point toward a date somewhere between the middle 70's and 80's.

1. Jude refers to a body of beliefs that had been formulated by the church (Jude 3). The church most likely would not formulate a creed of beliefs until after the apostles had begun to die off. As far as is known, all of the apostles had gone on to be with the Lord by the late 60's except for John.

2. Jude challenges the believers to remember the words of the apostles—as though most of the apostles had already passed on and there was a need to look way back over the early years of church history (Jude 17-19).

3. Jude and Peter deal with the same subject of false teachers, and they make many of the same points. Because of this it looks as though II Peter made use of Jude or Jude made use of II Peter. Peter probably had access to Jude, incorporating the short book primarily into the second chapter. It is unlikely that Jude would have had access to II Peter and made use of only the second chapter.

TO WHOM WRITTEN: “To them that are sanctified...preserved...and called” (Jude 1).

Jude wrote to a specific people in a particular situation. This is seen in his calling them “beloved” and speaking so directly to them as though he knows them in a most personal way (Jude 3-5, 17-18, 20). But their identity is nowhere given.

PURPOSE: “To exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith” (Jude 3-4).

Jude states explicitly that he set out to write about “our common salvation.” But all of a sudden, he changed his epistle to combat false teachers and their apostasy. The false teaching was the same false teaching that John, Paul, and Peter had to combat, that of Gnosticism. (See Introduction, Purpose—I John and Colossians for a discussion of the false teaching. Also see Col.1:15 for more discussion.)

SPECIAL FEATURES:

1. Jude is “The Last General Epistle.” That is, it is not written to a particular church so far as we know
2. Jude is “An Epistle of Triads.” That is, the author writes in sets of three. For example, he uses three historic examples of judgments (Jude 5-7), and three great rebels of the Old Testament (Jude 11). Verse one alone has two sets of triads, verse two one set. There are many others easily spotted as one reads the book.
3. Jude is “An Epistle Written to Combat False Teachers and Their Apostasy.” (See Purpose, Introduction—I John for discussion.)
4. Jude is “The Epistle that Covers the Terrible Characteristics and Judgments of False Teachers” (Jude 3-16).
5. Jude is “The Epistle that Tells Believers How to Combat False Teaching” (Jude 17-23).
6. Jude is “An Epistle that Stresses Mercy and Rescue.” Believers are to do all they can to save those polluted and contaminated by false teaching (Jude 22-23).
7. Jude is “The Epistle with the Reassuring Doxology.” No more reassuring words could be chosen to close a letter than the words of Jude 24-25. Of all the closing words of the epistles, these are probably the best known.

OUTLINE OF JUDE

THE PREACHER'S OUTLINE & SERMON BIBLE™ is unique. It differs from all other Study Bibles & Sermon Resource Materials in that every Passage and Subject is outlined right beside the Scripture. When you choose any Subject below and turn to the reference, you have not only the Scripture, but you discover the Scripture and Subject already outlined for you—verse by verse.

For a quick example, choose one of the subjects below and turn over to the Scripture, and you will find this marvelous help for faster, easier, and more accurate use.

In addition, every point of the Scripture and Subject is fully developed in a Commentary with supporting Scripture at the bottom of the page. Again, this arrangement makes sermon preparation much easier and faster.

Note something else: The Subjects of JUDE have titles that are both Biblical and practical. The practical titles sometimes have more appeal to people. This benefit is clearly seen for use on billboards, bulletins, church newsletters, etc.

A suggestion: For the quickest overview of JUDE, first read all the major titles (I, II, III, etc.), then come back and read the subtitles.

THE DESCRIPTION OF TRUE BELIEVERS, v.1-2

(v.1-2) Introduction: How can we tell whether or not a person is a true minister of God? How can we tell whether or not a person is a true believer? This is the discussion of this passage. Remember: Jude was the brother of our Lord. At first, he did not believe in Jesus Christ. But some time after the resurrection of Christ, he gave his heart to the Lord and surrendered his life to preach the gospel. Here we see him sitting down and writing to the believers of the first century. And in writing, he wastes no time: right from the start he describes himself as a true minister of Jesus Christ and his readers as true believers of Christ. Consequently, in his opening remark we have a picture by which we can measure ourselves, the picture of a true minister and of a true believer.

1. There is the picture of the true minister (v.1).
2. There is the picture of the true believer (v.1-2).

1 (v.1) Minister—Servant—Humility: there is the picture of the true minister. Who is he? Jude says two simple things about himself.

1. He says that he is “the servant of Jesus Christ.” This is amazing, for as stated above, Jude was the brother of Jesus, the carpenter from Nazareth (Mt.13:55; Mk.6:3; cp. Jn.7:1-5, esp. v.5). At first he did not believe that Jesus was the Christ, the Anointed One of God, the Son of God who was to come to earth as the Savior of the world. But note what Jude says here: he says that he is “the servant of Jesus Christ.” He now believes that his brother Jesus is the Messiah, the Anointed One of God. He believes that his brother Jesus is the Son of God who came into the world to save man. He believes that his brother Jesus can save him from sin, death, and judgment; he believes that his brother Jesus can make him acceptable to God. What an enormous turnaround! What a testimony for our Lord Jesus Christ!

Note what else Jude says: he says he is the servant of Jesus Christ (see note, Servant—2 Pt.1:1 for discussion).

“If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour” (Jn.12:26; cp. Ro.12:1; 1 Cor.15:58).

“[Laboring] not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart; with good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men” (Eph.6:6-7).

“And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men; knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ” (Col.3:23-24).

“Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear” (Heb.12:28).

“And ye shall serve the Lord your God” (Ex.23:25).

“What doth the Lord thy God require of thee, but to fear the Lord thy God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul” (Dt.10:12).

“Serve the Lord with fear, and rejoice with trembling” (Ps.2:11).

2. Jude says that he is the brother of James. Who is James? What James would be so famous and well known that all the believers of the first century would know him by his first name? There was only one such James, the James who was the Lord’s brother, the James who was the pastor of the great Jerusalem church, the mother church of Christianity.

Note this fact: Jude identifies himself by referring to James. Believers all over the world knew James, but few knew Jude. Therefore, he must identify himself so that his audience will receive his exhortation. He is simply Jude “the servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James.” Note the humility of this man! The only claim he has is that he is a slave to Jesus Christ and the brother of a famous man. He could have easily been jealous of his famous brother, resentful of the fact that he had to live under the shadow of his brother, resentful that he had to use his brother’s name to get a hearing from believers. But Jude was not jealous or resentful. He was a true minister of God: he walked humbly among the believers of the world, humbly before God, ever so thankful that God had called him to serve His Son the Lord Jesus Christ, thankful for whatever call God gave him.

Thought 1. The true minister of God has two very basic traits.

- 1) The trait of being the servant and slave of Jesus Christ. And remember: Christ means Messiah, the Anointed One of God, the Son of God whom God sent into the world to save men. This is the most basic belief of a true follower of Jesus Christ. Therefore, every true minister of the gospel makes this belief the basis of his life and ministry. He is a true minister because he is the servant and slave of Jesus Christ.
- 2) The trait of humility. The true minister walks humbly among believers and before God. No matter how low God's call is to him, he is thankful for the very fact that God called him. He is, after all, the servant and slave who is available to do the bidding of his Master.

Thought 2. The fact that Jude was a brother of our Lord is glorious evidence that Jesus Christ is exactly who He claimed to be. It is touching when we realize that Jude had lived as the half-brother to Jesus for years. Day in and day out, hour by hour, month by month, and year by year Jude had played, eaten, worked, slept, and gone to school with Jesus. He had roamed the surrounding hills with Jesus as a boy and seen Him play with other children and relate to the neighbors and adults of their neighborhood. Jude had seen how his brother received and responded to adult instruction, teaching, and supervision. He had also probably seen Jesus take over the head of the household when their father, Joseph, had died.

“So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God” (Mk.16:19).

“Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God” (Lk.22:69).

“He that cometh from above is above all: he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: he that cometh from heaven is above all” (Jn.3:31).

“Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ” (Acts 2:36).

“Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins” (Acts 5:31).

“That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved” (Ro.10:9).

“For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living” (Ro.14:9).

“But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him” (1 Cor.8:6).

“And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power, which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places” (Eph.1:19-20).

“Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father” (Ph.2:6-11).

“Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing” (Rev.5:12).

2 (v.1-2) Believers—Sanctified—Preserved—Called: there is the picture of a true believer. Who were these believers?

If Jude was writing to a particular church or group of churches, he does not name the church or churches. This points toward him writing to all the believers of the first century. Apparently the fact that Jude and James were brothers of the Lord Jesus Christ carried a lot of weight with the believers of their day. When they spoke, it made the believers stand up and take notice, for they had lived with Jesus day by day before His ministry and had experienced dramatic conversions from unbelief to staunch belief. This fact probably points to Jude writing to a wider audience. What he was writing was to be circulated among all the churches among all believers. In these opening words, Jude pictures just who a believer is. We can actually measure ourselves against his description and tell whether or not we are a believer.

1. Believers are the “sanctified” (hagios). The sanctified person is a person who has turned away from sin and set his life apart to follow God. He is a person who is set apart unto God, a person separated from the world and its possessions and pleasures, a person who is dedicated to following God, a person who has given all he is and has to God. (See DEEPER STUDY # 1, Sanctification—1 Pt.1:15-16 for more discussion.)

Note: the Greek text here is uncertain. Some have the word beloved instead of sanctified. That is, believers are beloved in God the Father. God holds them ever so close to His heart. They have accepted His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ; honored Him by believing in Him. Therefore, God loves the believer with a very special love, the love that accepts the believer and gives him the right to live in God's presence forever and ever.

2. Believers are “preserved in Jesus Christ.” The word “preserved” (teteremenois) means to be kept; to be guarded and watched after. God keeps the believer, guards and watches over him. The believer is a person...

- who is watched over by God.
- who is guided and directed by God day by day.
- who is strengthened by God to walk through all the trials and temptations of life.
- who is protected from all the enemies of life, even death.

- who is to be escorted into heaven quicker than the blink of an eye when the time comes for him to leave this world.
- who is given life, both abundant and eternal.
- who is given assurance of God's presence and love through all of life.

The true believer is a person who is preserved and kept by God. He is a person who is looked after and cared for by God. But note: it is in Jesus Christ that God keeps a person. The believer is a person who has placed his life into Jesus Christ; he is a person who is trusting Jesus Christ to save him. It is the true believer in Jesus Christ whom God preserves.

3. Believers are the "called" (kleteois). This means several things.

- a. It means that believers are the persons who have responded to the call of the gospel. God calls man to accept the gospel. He tugs and pulls at the heart strings, convicts and convinces man to accept Jesus Christ as His Son, but man has to respond to the call of God. God cannot make the decision for man. The believer is a person who has genuinely accepted the call of God. God summoned him, called him, and the believer responded. He became a believer, a person who truly believed in Jesus Christ.

"So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many be called, but few chosen" (Mt.20:16; cp. Mt.22:14).

"Among whom [all believers] are ye also the called of Jesus Christ: to all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ" (Ro.1:6-7).

"Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours" (1 Cor.1:2).

"But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness; but unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God" (1 Cor.1:23-24).

"[God] who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began" (2 Tim.1:9).

- b. It means that a believer has been called to be a saint, that is, to live a life of holiness. The word "saint" (hagios) means holy one or holiness. The believer is called to be holy and pure and righteous just as God is.

"To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints [holy ones]: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ" (Ro.1:7).

"Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours" (1 Cor.1:2).

"But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation" (1 Pt.1:15).

- c. It means that the believer is called to have a heavenly hope. He is called to an eternal hope, the hope of living forever with God. He is called to be perfected and conformed to the image of the Lord Jesus Christ forever.

"There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling [the hope of eternal life]" (Eph.4:4).

"Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus" (Heb.3:1).

"I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus" (Ph.3:14).

- d. It means that the believer is appointed to a very special task and duty while on earth. He is called to serve Jesus Christ.

"Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God" (Ro.1:1).

"Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother" (1 Cor.1:1).

"Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called. Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather. For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is Christ's servant. Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men. Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God" (1 Cor.7:20-24).

4. The believer is a person who has received the mercy and peace and love of God.

- a. He has received the mercy of God (see note, Mercy—2 Jn.3 for discussion).
 b. He has received the peace of God (see note, Peace—2 Jn.3 for discussion).
 c. He has received the love of God (see DEEPER STUDY # 1, Love—2 Jn.5 for discussion).

DIVISION II

THE WARNINGS AGAINST APOSTASY: THE CHARACTERISTICS AND JUDGMENT OF FALSE TEACHERS, v.3-16

(v.3-16) Introduction: there is a terrible danger facing believers, a horrifying danger that always lies right over the horizon. What is it? The danger of false teaching. If a believer swallows false teaching, he dooms himself. Any person who denies that God sent His Son into the world to save man—who denies that Jesus Christ is the Son of God and the Savior of the world—will never be accepted by God. He is doomed to spend eternity cut off from God. Why? Because he has not believed in the name of God's Son. Time and time again, God warns believers of apostasy. This is the very reason for the books of Jude and Second Peter being written. Strong warnings against false teachers are also issued by Paul in Galatians, Colossians, Thessalonians, Timothy, and Titus. There are severe warnings all throughout Hebrews. And Christ Himself gave strong warnings time and again throughout all the gospels. (See Teachers, False—Master Subject Index.)

No matter who the person is—no matter how well liked and influential and attractive his teachings may be—if he denies Jesus Christ and God's Word, he is a false teacher.

Here is the thrust of the letter of Jude, the very purpose for which Jude writes. Here is one of the most horrifying pictures in all the Bible, a picture of the characteristics and judgment of false teachers. (Note: this passage may need to be divided into several sections. It is combined into one outline because it all applies to the same subject. A suggested division would be Jude 3-7, 8-11, 12-16.)

1. False teachers are to be opposed by believers (v.3).
2. They creep into the church secretly (v.4).
3. They are destined to judgment (v.4).
4. They are ungodly (v.4).
5. They are licentious (v.4). SEXUALLY IMMORAL
6. They deny the Lord God (v.4).
7. They are sure to be judged (v.5-7).
8. They are filthy dreamers (v.8).
9. They reject authority (v.8).
10. They scoff at spiritual beings (v.8-10).
11. They go after the way of Cain, of unbelief (v.11).
12. They go after the way of Balaam, of going astray (v.11).
13. They go after the way of Korah, of rebellion (v.11).
14. They are spots and blemishes upon the fellowship of the church (v.12).
15. They are filled with emptiness and instability (v.12).
16. They teach things that are shameful (v.13).
17. They wander about as a falling star that quickly passes into eternal darkness (v.13).
18. They are doomed to be judged by the Lord Jesus Christ Himself (v.14-15).
19. They are murmurers and complainers (v.16).
20. They walk after their own lusts (v.16).
21. They use showy words but they are empty (v.16).
22. They flatter people for personal gain (v.16).

1 (v.3) Believers: believers are to contend for the faith against false teachers. Note that Jude had planned to write the believers, but he had never planned to write this particular letter. He had planned to write about the great subject of salvation. But he was not able to. The believers were being attacked, but not by persecutors. They were being attacked by false teachers and their false beliefs. Jude is forced to snatch up his pen to expose the heretical teachers. He was forced to warn believers of the horrible danger of apostasy. He wanted to write a pastoral letter, to encourage them to grow in Christ, but now he must warn them and exhort them: they must go to war, to spiritual war. They must earnestly contend and fight for the faith. They must be diligent and strive unceasingly in the fight against false teaching. They must not buckle under any whatsoever in standing up for the faith that has been delivered to the saints. The faith must not be twisted, added to, or taken away from. It must be kept pure and free from all error. Note why: certain men had unknowingly crept into the church and were teaching false doctrine. The characteristics and judgment of false teachers show how horrible false teaching is to God. He considers false teachers to be the worst of all men upon earth, and He issues the most severe warning to them, warnings that far exceed the warnings to other men (cp. Mt.5:19; 18:6; 23:13-16; Gal.1:6-9; 2 Pt.2:20-22).

2 (v.4) Teachers, False: false teachers creep into the church unknowingly. They are not God-called teachers. They choose to teach in the church as a profession or as a way to serve people and to teach the morals and virtues of this world. The idea is that they entered the church unnoticed. They did not believe in Jesus Christ, that He is the Son of God who came to earth to save man. Therefore, they did not belong in the church. But they joined it for the benefit and opportunities it brought them. They accepted the teachings of Christ, believed that He was a great religious leader, but they denied His deity.

“Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron” (1 Tim.4:1-2).

“They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate” (Tit.1:16).

“For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple” (Ro.16:18).

“For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works” (2 Cor.11:13-15).

3 (v.4) Teachers, False—Judgment: false teachers are destined to judgment. They reject Jesus Christ; therefore, judgment is waiting for them. God has ordained from the beginning of time that all unbelievers shall be judged. And both Jesus Christ and Scripture teach that the judgment for false teachers is to be far more severe than for other persons.

“Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven” (Mt.5:19).

“But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea” (Mt.18:6).

“I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed” (Gal.1:6-9).

“For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning. For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them. But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire” (2 Pt.2:20-22).

- 4 (v.4) Teachers, False—Ungodly: false teachers are ungodly. They do not live like God; they are different from God. They have a different lifestyle than what God would have if He was walking upon earth. God is perfect, moral, pure, just, and loving. But false teachers are not moral, pure, just, or loving. They are deceptive, leading people away from the love and purity of God, the love and purity revealed in His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. They do not teach the truth of God’s love and purity demonstrated in Christ. They profane God and the truth of His love and godliness.

“For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness” (Ro.1:18).

“And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?” (1 Pt.4:18).

“For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment; and spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly” (2 Pt.2:4-5).

“But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men” (2 Pt.3:7).

“For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ” (Jude 4).

- 5 (v.4) Grace—Lasciviousness: they turn the grace of God into licentiousness (aselgeian). (See note, False Teachers— 2 Pt.2:19 for how false teachers turn the grace of God into the enslavement of sin. Also see note, pt.1—1 Pt.4:3 for meaning of licentiousness.)

- 6 (v.4) Denial: false teachers deny the only Lord God, that is, our Lord Jesus Christ. (See note, False Teachers— 1 Jn.4:2-3 for discussion.)

- 7 (v.5-7) Judgment: false teachers are to be judged and condemned. Jude speaks directly to the false teachers and to all who follow after them: “Remember the judgment of God. You once knew that God judged unbelief. I am reminding you that He does.” Jude recalls three examples.

1. There was the example of Israel right after they were delivered from Egyptian slavery. God judged and punished all the unbelievers of Israel. What happened to most of the believers of Israel is tragic. There were over six-hundred thousand men alone who broke away from the enslavements of Egypt and began the journey to the promised land. This means that including the women and children there were well over two million who stepped out to follow God to the promised land (cp. Ex.12:37; Num.1:46). But the critical question is this:

⇒ How many remained faithful to God through the wilderness journey? How many actually turned away from the fleshly desires aroused by the delicious foods, drinks, and bodily stimulations of Egypt and the world? How many actually disciplined their bodies, subjected their desires, and kept their eyes and hearts upon the promised land? How many were faithful and steadfast, unmoveable and always abounding in the work of the Lord until they reached the promised land? Remember over two million began the journey: How many entered the promised land? Only two! Caleb and Joshua. Caleb and Joshua alone remained faithful to God. Only two did not sin and displease God. Everyone else, over two to three million, perished in the wilderness. They were overthrown (katastronnumi), that is, scattered as corpses all over the wilderness. Why? Because they did not please God.

~ “The LORD hath been sore displeased with your fathers. Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Turn ye unto me, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts” (Zech.1:2-3).

“And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease” (Zech.1:15).

Jude says that what happened to Israel is going to happen to the false teachers and to all who follow their teachings. The doom that fell upon the unbelievers of Israel will fall upon anyone who forsakes Christ. What were the sins of Israel that brought judgment upon them?

- a. There was the sin of lust. We must not lust after evil things as they lusted. They lusted and craved for the delicious foods of Egypt (Num.11:4f). As a result of the lust, a plague broke out among the people and killed many of them. In fact, so many died that the place became known as “the grave of greediness or of lust” (Num.11:34).

The lust of those believers is a strong warning to us: we must “not lust after evil things (1 Cor. 10:6), the pleasures and possessions of the world.

“And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful” (Mk.4:19).

“Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others” (Eph.2:3).

“That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour; not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God” (1 Th.4:4-5).

“Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart” (2 Tim.2:22).

“Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death” (Jas.1:15).

“Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not” (Jas.4:2).

“Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul” (1 Pt.2:11).

“Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world” (1 Jn.2:15-16).

- b. There was the sin of idolatry. When Moses was on Mount Sinai receiving the law, the people became restless waiting for the Word of God. Therefore, they decided to go ahead and create their own form of worship (cp. Ex.32:1f). It should be noted that the people were actually dedicating their worship to God Himself.

“And when Aaron saw it [the golden calf], he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation, and said, Tomorrow is a feast to the LORD” (Ex.32:5).

The point to see is this: the image of the golden calf was only to help them picture and imagine God. They felt the need for some image to help them in their worship of Jehovah. Note the reference to eating, drinking, and playing (immoral play). Such behavior often accompanies idolatry, the worship of a self-made god created by a person’s own mind.

- c. There was the sin of fornication or immorality. This was a gross sin of some of the believers of Israel. Over twenty thousand of them committed immorality with their neighbors and as a result they were judged and condemned to destruction, banned from the promised land (cp. Num.25:1-9). (See notes—1 Cor.5:9-10; 6:9 for discussion.)

“And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet” (Ro.1:27).

“Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate [homosexuals], nor abusers of themselves with mankind” (1 Cor.6:9).

“Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness....they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God” (Gal.5:19, 21).

“Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness” (Eph.4:19).

“But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints” (Eph.5:3).

“For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication” (1 Th.4:3).

“For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ....Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire” (Jude 4, 7).

- d. There was the sin of tempting God (cp. Heb. 3:9f). The word “tempt” (peirazo) means to try the Lord’s patience; to see how far a person can go; to test the patience of Christ. The believers of Israel...
- often felt that God and His leader Moses *demand*ed and expected too much.
 - often longed for the things of the flesh which they had formerly known in Egypt (the world).
- They became discontent with the things God provided, and longed to return to Egypt (the world). Therefore, many of them perished in the wilderness and were not allowed to enter the promised land.

Thought 1. Believers often feel that God expects too much and that they are missing out on something in the world. They often feel that God will forgive them...

- even if they do look.
- even if they do taste.
- even if they do touch.
- even if they do slip a little.
- even if they do hold back a little.

“Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain” (Jas.4:13).

“Ye shall not tempt the LORD your God, as ye tempted him in Massah” (Dt.6:16).

- e. There was the sin of murmuring and complaining and grumbling. Some of the believers in Israel were always complaining and murmuring against God and Moses (cp. Num.14:2, 36; 16:11, 41). The result was judgment and punishment by the destroyer, that is, an angel sent by God to execute judgment. They perished in the wilderness and never saw the promised land. (Cp. Ex.14:11; 15:24; 16:2; 17:3; Num.11:1; 14:27; 20:3; 21:5.)

Thought 1. How many believers grumble and gripe? How many become dissatisfied...

- with the direction God gives through His leaders?
- with the food God gives through His leaders?
- with the way God guides through His leaders?
- with the words God gives to His leaders?

How many voice their complaints to others? The warning is clear to the believers of God’s church.

“Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer” (1 Cor.10:10).

“Do all things without murmurings and disputings” (Ph.2:14).

“These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men’s persons in admiration because of advantage” (Jude 16).

“And the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drink?” (Ex.15:24).

“I remembered God, and was troubled: I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed” (Ps.77:3).

“The foolishness of man perverteth his way: and his heart fretteth against the Lord” (Pr.19:3).

“Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins?” (Lam.3:39).

2. There was the example of the rebellious angels (see note—2 Pt.2:3-9 for discussion).
3. There was Sodom and Gomorrah (see note, pt.3—2 Pt.2:3-9 for discussion).

8 (v.8) Teachers, False—Dreams—Thoughts, Evil: false teachers are filthy dreamers who defile their body. This means two things.

1. It means that false teachers engage in the pleasures of the world: the lust of the eyes and the lust of the flesh. They do not struggle to keep their thoughts clean and pure. They dream and covet after the positions, possessions, and things of the world. They look at the opposite sex, perhaps pornographic books, films, and bodies not dressed as much as they should be. The result is thoughts and dreams of success, grandeur, personal recognition and honor, and sexual misbehavior. False teachers defile the flesh through such dreams.

2. It means that the false teachers sometimes claim to have visions and dreams from the Lord that are not from Him. They use their visions and dreams to secure the following and loyalty of people.

“And Jesus knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?” (Mt.9:4).

“For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies” (Mt.15:19).

“Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened” (Ro.1:21).

“And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually” (Gen.6:5).

“The LORD knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity” (Ps.94:11).

“A heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief” (Pr.6:18).

“For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee” (Pr.23:7).

“Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, The LORD seeth us not; the LORD hath forsaken the earth” (Ezk.8:12).

9 (v.8) Teachers, False—Authority, Rejection of: false teachers reject authority (see note, False Teachers—2 Pt.2:10 for discussion).

10 (v.8-10) Teachers, False—Spiritual World: false teachers scoff at the idea of angels and of spiritual beings, in particular of Satan and other fallen angels. This is definitely the meaning of this trait: the illustration shows this (v.9-10). False teachers speak against, doubt, and question spiritual beings such as angels and the cherubim and seraphim. They ridicule the ideas of Christ and angels and other spiritual beings living in a spiritual world. They question whether there are beings in a spiritual world who are living and functioning just as we are in this world.

- ⇒ The idea of another dimension of being, of a spiritual world that is as real and alive as the physical world is questioned.
- ⇒ The idea of levels of authority, of principalities and powers and rulers in a spiritual world is mocked.
- ⇒ The idea of Christ being exalted to the right hand of God and of believers someday ruling and serving and ministering for Christ in a new heavens and earth is doubted and often ridiculed.

But note two things.

1. False teachers do that which even the highest angel would not dare do. Even Michael himself, one of the highest if not the highest angel in heaven, would not rebuke the devil. This is a strong warning to the false teachers. The angels themselves do not dare rail and mock the principalities and powers of the spiritual world.

“For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places” (Eph.6:12).

“For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him” (Col.1:16).

“And [Christ] having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it [the cross]” (Col.2:15).

2. False teachers make a terrible, foolish mistake. They are like brute beasts who have no understanding. They are speaking of things they do not understand. No person knows what the spiritual world is like, for no person has ever been there. There is only one Person who has ever been there, and that is the Person who came to earth from the other world, the Lord Jesus Christ. He alone knows what the other world is like. This is the very reason He came to earth: to bring the Word of God and the promise of heaven to us. We either believe Him or not. It is that simple. But note this: the Word of God is the prophecy and record concerning the Lord Jesus Christ. If a person does not believe Christ, then he has no right to claim to be a follower and minister of Christ. He should not abuse the Word of God through hypocrisy. When he does, he is as a brute beast, speaking about things he knows nothing about. And note what the Scripture says about him:

⇒ He is as a beast made to be taken and destroyed (v.10).

⇒ He shall utterly perish in his own corruption. That is, in trying to pollute the Word of God and Christ, he destroys lives; therefore, he shall be utterly destroyed. His own corruption shall destroy him.

“But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!” (Mt.6:23).

“And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil” (Jn.3:19).

“For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved” (Ro.10:13).

“In whom the god [Satan] of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them” (2 Cor.4:4).

“Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart” (Eph.4:18).

“If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth” (1 Jn.1:6).

“For my people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge” (Jer.4:22).

11 (v.11) Teachers, False—Cain: false teachers go after the way of Cain, the way of unbelief and lack of godly love. Cain committed the very first murder on earth: he killed his own brother Abel (Gen.4:1-15). Why? Because Abel was a believer. Abel believed God, that he was to worship God exactly like God said, by the blood of a sacrificial animal. Cain did not accept such a belief. He felt that if he brought the fruit of his own hands to God, then God would accept him because of his hard work and because he worshipped and gave offerings to God. God accepted Abel’s worship and offering. It was evident in his life by the way God blessed him and took care of him. But God rejected Cain’s offering. Cain did not have a real sense of God’s care or blessing upon his life. Therefore, he became jealous and envious of Abel, and he killed Abel. Three things are being said about false teachers.

1. False teachers do not believe God—that a person has to worship God exactly like God says, by the blood of Jesus Christ. They do not accept Jesus Christ as the perfect sacrifice for man’s sins. They believe like Cain did, that they can become acceptable to God by the works of their own hands, by being good and doing good.

2. False teachers do not love like God says to love. God says that we must love one another in the love of Christ. What is the love of Christ? It is the love that loves so much that it will sacrifice one’s life for the other person, even if the other person is an enemy. (See note, Love—1 Jn.3:1 for more discussion.)

3. False teachers shall be destroyed. Note the word “woe.” It means grief or denunciation (Kenneth Wuest. In These Last Days, Vol.4, p.248). All false teachers shall be doomed to an eternity of grief and denunciation or judgment.

12 (v.11) Teachers, False—Balaam: false teachers walk in the way of Balaam, the way that forsakes the life of God and leads to destruction (see note, False Teachers—2 Pt.2:15 for discussion).

13 (v.11) Teachers, False—Korah: false teachers walk after the way of Korah, the way of rebellion and rejection of authority (cp. Num.16:1-35). Korah was the man who rebelled against the leadership of Moses and Aaron. Korah wanted a higher position of leadership among the people; therefore, he rebelled against Moses and Aaron. He wanted to serve where he had no right to serve. As a result he was judged and doomed.

The point is this: false teachers follow the way of rebellion and rejection of authority. They rebel against and reject the authority of God and of the ministers God has appointed and placed in His church. And most of all they rebel and reject the supreme authority of Christ, the Lord Himself. They reject His deity, that He has purchased the church through His sacrificial death. They rebel against the very authority of God Himself. They choose to go their own way and do their own thing. They use the church and believers for their own ends.

“For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them” (Acts 28:27).

“Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart” (Eph.4:18).

“Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron” (1 Tim.4:1-2).

“But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin” (Heb.3:13).

“He, that being often reprov'd hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy” (Pr.29:1).

“Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye” (Acts 7:51).

“But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities” (2 Pt.2:10).

“For thus saith the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel; In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength: and ye would not” (Is.30:15).

“As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, we will not hearken unto thee” (Jer.44:16).

“But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear” (Zech.7:11).

14 (v.12) Teachers, False—Pleasure Seeking: false teachers are spots and blemishes upon the fellowship of the church. The Greek word for “spots” (spilas) can mean submerged rocks or hidden reefs that can wreck a ship. False teachers are reefs within the church which can wreck the fellowship of the church. Translators differ as to which meaning Jude intended. Perhaps he meant both, for both are certainly true.

The love feasts referred to were called love feasts by the early church. They were fellowship meals that the church celebrated after the services on the Lord’s Day. Each family brought what food they could. This, of course, meant that the wealthy brought plenty and the poor brought little or nothing. Remember that many of the believers were slaves in that day, so some of them would not be able to bring any food whatsoever. Some churches had the most joyful fellowship around the love feasts. It provided a time when the believers could share the warmth of their hearts and grow in fellowship together. It was a time when the Holy Spirit could draw the hearts of believers together in love and joy and care and sharing. It was a time that the Holy Spirit could use to bind believers together in feelings for one another and in warmth and tenderness.

The point is this: fellowship among believers is a most wonderful time, a unique opportunity to grow and share together. But when false teachers are present, the scene is entirely different.

⇒ False teachers are spots or blemishes upon the fellowship of believers. They dirty and soil the name of Christ and the testimony of the church. They profess to be believers and are even teachers of God’s Word, but they are not pure. Their false teaching disturbs genuine believers and causes division within the fellowship of the church. Those who are not rooted in Christ and in God’s Word follow and support the false teacher; those who are rooted in Christ and in God’s Word reject the false teacher. False teachers always spot and dirty the fellowship of the church because they cause division among the people and destroy the Spirit of Christ among them.

⇒ False teachers are reefs or submerged rocks that wreck the fellowship of the church. Their teaching is often injected into the church quietly and insidiously, completely unknown to the general membership. Therefore, the fellowship is subject to being shipwrecked upon the reefs of false teaching.

Note that the false teachers feed themselves—that is, they fellowship with believers—without fear. There is no fear of God nor thought about the damage they are doing to the fellowship of the church. Their interest is to boost themselves forward; to be recognized as an excellent teacher or preacher, a person of unusual gifts, a teacher with new insights, a teacher who is progressive, who is a notch above others.

Thought 1. The fellowship of believers is spiritual. It is not a social fellowship based upon emotional feelings for one another. It is fellowship wrought by the Spirit of God. Feelings are involved; but beyond that there is godly love, joy, peace, and purpose, meaning, and significance—all centered around Jesus Christ. When false teaching is present, all this is disrupted. Therefore, false teaching must never be allowed in the true church. But when the mature believers become aware of it, in Christ they are forced to reject it and to make it known.

“For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them” (Mt.18:20).

“Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity” (Mt.23:28).

“In the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven [false teaching] of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy” (Lk.12:1).

“And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?” (Lk.24:32).

“Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips” (Ro.3:13).

“God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord” (1 Cor.1:9).

“Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron” (1 Tim.4:2).

“They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate” (Tit.1:16).

“That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ” (1 Jn.1:3).

“Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me” (Rev.3:20).

15 (v.12) Teacher, False—Emptiness—Instability: false teachers are filled with emptiness and instability. Two illustrations are given.

⇒ They are like clouds that offer rain to the farmer, but when the clouds arrive, they are driven away by the rushing winds of the storm.

⇒ They are like fruit trees that seem to be flourishing and that promise fruit, but when harvest comes there is no fruit.

This is a picture of false teachers offering hope to people, but their hope is empty and unstable—just as empty and unstable as the world’s fleeting clouds of hope and unbearing promise of fruit. The false teachers cannot water the seed of God’s Word in people’s hearts, nor can their teaching bear fruit within people. The opinions of false teachers cannot help people in facing the trials and temptations of life, nor can they prepare people to face eternity that lies just over the horizon. In dealing with eternity—with God, Christ, and the Holy Scripture—the false teacher is nothing more than a cloud without water and a tree without fruit. He may sound like he offers hope, security, and fulness of life; but his message is unstable and empty and will leave a person hopeless when he meets God face to face.

“This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity [emptiness] of their mind” (Eph.4:17).

“In the morning thou shalt say, Would God it were even! and at even thou shalt say, Would God it were morning! for the fear of thine heart wherewith thou shalt fear, and for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see” (Dt.28:67).

“Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labor that I had labored to do: and, behold, all was vanity [emptiness] and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun” (Eccl.2:11).

“For all his days are sorrows, and his travail grief; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity” (Eccl.2:23).

“Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labor for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness” (Is.55:2).

“But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt” (Is.57:20).

“Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven” (Mt.7:15-21).

16 (v.13) Teachers, False—Shame: false teachers teach things that are shameful and ugly and repulsive and that do not belong within the church. The picture is that of sea waves that rage and foam under the fierce winds of a storm. After the storm quietens down, there is all kinds of debris strung along the shoreline, debris such as driftwood, seaweed, scum, and all kinds of litter. The sight is ghastly and ugly and repulsive. The sight is shameful. Thus it is with false teachers. They foam out their teaching that leaves a ghastly scene upon the church. What they teach is shameful; it brings shame upon the name of Christ and shame upon the name of the church. Their teaching is a disgrace, ugly, and repulsive. It is nothing more than useless debris that does not belong in the church of the Lord Jesus Christ.

“And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?” (Lk.6:46).

“Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?” (Ro.2:21).

“Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God? For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written” (Ro.2:23-24).

“They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate” (Tit.1:16).

“Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be” (Jas.3:10).

“And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of” (2 Pt.2:2).

“Also I said, It is not good that ye do: ought ye not to walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies?” (Neh.5:9).

“The wise shall inherit glory: but shame shall be the promotion of fools” (Pr.3:35).

“When pride cometh, then cometh shame: but with the lowly is wisdom” (Pr.11:2).

“And I will bring an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten” (Jer.23:40).

17 (v.13) Teachers, False—Wanderers—Lost: false teachers wander about as a falling star that passes into eternal darkness. This is the picture of a shooting star that shoots its light across the sky ever so quickly, but then it is gone forever into the darkness. The light promised by false teachers does not last nor can it last, for it is only of the earth; and all things of the earth disappear through age, change, deterioration, decay, and death—disappear into the eternal abyss of darkness ever so quickly.

False teachers wander about grasping for light after light, truth after truth, idea after idea, help after help. But nothing meets the desperate need of man for life—for love, joy, peace, fulfillment, completeness and satisfaction. The reason is ever so clear: life in all of its fulness is found only in Christ, the One who revealed the life of God to us.

“I have gone astray like a lost sheep: seek thy servant; for I do not forget thy commandments” (Ps.119:176).

“The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the dead” (Pr.21:16).

“As a bird that wandereth from her nest, so is a man that wandereth from his place” (Pr.27:8).

“They have wandered as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood, so that men could not touch their garments” (Lam.4:14).

“For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls” (1 Pt.2:25).

“Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness” (2 Pt.2:15).

“Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever” (Jude 13).

18 (v.14-15) Teachers, False—Judgment: false teachers are doomed. They are to be judged by the Lord Jesus Christ Himself. The Lord Jesus Christ is returning to earth to judge false teachers. He is coming with ten thousands of His holy ones. The words “ten thousands” means thousands multiplied by thousands, multitudes and myriads—an unlimited number of holy beings. He is coming to judge the world, but note: the present passage is talking specifically about the judgment of false teachers, the judgment of all those who have taught something other than the fact that Jesus Christ is the Son of God sent into the world to save men. False teachers will be judged for two things.

1. They will be judged for all their ungodly deeds. All the deeds that did not center around Jesus Christ as God’s Son shall bring judgment upon the false teachers.

“Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy: for thou renderest to every man according to his work” (Ps.62:12).

“I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings” (Jer.17:10).

“For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works” (Mt.16:27).

“For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad” (2 Cor.5:10).

“And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man’s work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear” (1 Pt.1:17).

“And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works” (Rev.20:12).

“And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be” (Rev.22:12).

“The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished” (2 Pt.2:9).

“But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men” (2 Pt.3:7).

2. They will be judged for all the untrue, harsh, and defiant words spoken against Christ.

“O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh” (Mt.12:34).

“Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips” (Ro.3:13).

“And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell” (Jas.3:6).

“For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; their inward part is very wickedness; their throat is an open sepulchre; they flatter with their tongue” (Ps.5:9).

“His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and fraud: under his tongue is mischief and vanity” (Ps.10:7).

“The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit: he hath left off to be wise, and to do good” (Ps.36:3).

Note: Jude says that Enoch prophesied these things and then he gives the prophecy of Enoch. Jude is referring to the apocryphal book of Enoch.

William Barclay has an excellent statement on this that is worthy of our note:

“Are we then to regard Enoch as sacred Scripture, since Jude uses it exactly as he would have used one of the prophets? Or, are we to take the view of which Jerome speaks? Are we to say that Jude cannot be Scripture, because Jude makes the mistake of using as Scripture a book which is, in fact, not Scripture?”

“We need waste not time at all upon this debate. The fact is that Jude, a pious Jew, knew and loved the Book of Enoch and had grown up in a circle and a sphere where the Book of Enoch was regarded with respect, and even reverence; and he takes his quotation from it perfectly naturally, knowing that his readers would recognize it, and that they would respect it. Jude is simply doing what all the New Testament writers do, and which every writer must do in every age, he is speaking to men in language which they recognized and understood” (The Letters of John and Jude, p.231).

- 19 (v.16) Teachers, False—Murmuring—Complaining: false teachers are murmurers and complainers. They do not have the peace of God in their hearts; therefore, they are not content with their lot in life. They are often dissatisfied with their...

There is just a general dissatisfaction with life; therefore, they often murmur and grumble. They do not have Christ to guide and help them through life, for they have rejected Him as the Son of God. Consequently they have to plough through life all alone without the hand of God to look after them.

“The foolishness of man perverteth his way: and his heart fretteth against the Lord” (Pr.19:3).

“Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins?” (Lam.3:39).

“Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves” (Jn.6:43).

“Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer” (1 Cor.10:10).

“Do all things without murmurings and disputings” (Ph.2:14).

“Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content” (Ph.4:11).

“But godliness with contentment is great gain” (1 Tim.6:6).

“Let your conversation [behavior] be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee” (Heb.13:5).

“Better is little with the fear of the LORD, than great treasure and trouble therewith” (Pr.15:16).

“Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labor that I had labored to do: and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun” (Eccl.2:11).

“He feedeth on ashes: a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?” (Is.44:20).

- 20 (v.16) Teachers, False—Lust: false teachers walk after their own lusts or desires. They live after the flesh, in the lusts of the flesh. They ignore the spirit and follow the passions of the flesh. They indulge and gratify the flesh. They teach their false doctrine for personal gain. They desire...

- to live like they want.

- to do away with godly restraints and demands.
- to gain recognition and honor and a following.
- to gain a livelihood and security.

As stated, the flesh desires these things and there is nothing wrong with them: a person needs recognition to feel that he is meaningful and significant. He also needs freedom and a livelihood. But when a person seeks more and more of these, when he takes the desires of the flesh and begins to lust and lust after the desires, they become harmful and sinful.

- ⇒ One helping of food is good; two helpings are damaging to the body.
- ⇒ Some recognition is good; too much leads to pride and arrogance or indulgent selfishness.
- ⇒ Being free to secure the necessities of life is right, but trying to seek them without law leads to sinful transgression and lawlessness. As an example, we have all seen scenes of a community without law, all the looting and evil that runs rampant.

The point is this: false teachers walk after the flesh, not after the spirit. They are teaching in order to satisfy the flesh, to please people and to gain recognition, security, or livelihood. They teach a false doctrine in order to do away with the Lordship of Christ, for the Lordship of Christ demands the sacrifice of all one is and has. They want to live like they want, to do their own thing; therefore, they try to do away with the demands of God as much as they can. Again, false teachers walk after the flesh, not the spirit.

“For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things” (Ph.3:18-19).

“Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul” (1 Pt.2:11).

“That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God” (1 Pt.4:2).

“Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts” (2 Pt.3:3).

“How that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts” (Jude 18).

21 (v.16) Teachers, False—Preaching: false teachers speak showy words, great swelling words, but they are empty (see note, False Teachers—2 Pt.2:18 for discussion).

22 (v.16) Teachers, False—Flattery: false teachers flatter people to gain some advantage. False teachers are serving under the umbrella of Christianity...

- to gain a livelihood
- to serve mankind
- to stress morality
- to gain an image
- to have a respectable profession

But they reject Jesus Christ as the Son of God. They know nothing about God’s call to the ministry. Therefore, they are left on their own. They have to depend upon other people for acceptance and security, for they know little about the provision and security of God. Consequently, they have to depend upon people. Therefore, they butter up to people, flatter them, and try to win their support and favor. And note: there is all the difference in the world between loving people and flattering them in order to assure one’s place and security. As the occasion arises, false teachers flatter, hoping to get what they want. Note how this leads to partiality and favoritism within the church.

“Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment; thou shalt not respect the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty: but in righteousness shalt thou judge thy neighbour” (Lev.19:15).

“He will surely reprove you, if ye do secretly accept persons” (Job 13:10).

“Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have been partial in the law” (Mal.2:9).

“I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality” (1 Tim.5:21).

“Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?” (Jas.2:4).

“Let me not, I pray you, accept any man’s person; neither let me give flattering titles unto man” (Job 32:21).

“The Lord shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh proud things” (Ps.12:3).

“He that goeth about as a talebearer revealeth secrets: therefore meddle not with him that flattereth with his lips” (Pr.20:19).

“He that saith unto the wicked, Thou art righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him” (Pr.24:24).

“He that rebuketh a man, afterwards shall find more favour than he that flattereth with the tongue” (Pr.28:23).

“A man that flattereth his neighbor spreadeth a net for his feet” (Pr.29:5).

“My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons. For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment; and ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool: Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?” (Jas.2:1-4).

DIVISION III

THE EXHORTATION TO BELIEVERS, v.17-25

(v.17-25) Introduction: Jude has just covered the terrible danger that is facing believers, the horrifying danger of false teachers. And they are within the church. This makes the danger even more terrible, for it means that there are people within the church who do not believe...

- that Jesus Christ is the Son of God who came to earth to save man.
- that Jesus Christ is the sinless Son of God.

There are false teachers within the church, people who claim to be followers of Christ, but they are not. They are people who teach...

- that Jesus Christ was a great teacher and leader but not the Son of God who died for our sins.
- that we can become acceptable to God by being good and doing good.

The list could go on and on, but Jude has just covered the traits of false teachers. The present concern is this: What can we do about the false teaching in our midst? This is the exhortation of this passage, and note: it is the final passage of the short letter of Jude. Here is Jude's strong exhortation to believers, exhortations that tell believers what to do in the face of false teaching.

1. Remember—there shall be mockers (v.17-19).
2. Build up yourselves (v.20-21).
3. Be compassionate and reclaim people (v.22-23).
4. Walk in the keeping power of God (v.24-25).

1 (v.17-19) Mockers—Teachers, False: first, remember there shall be mockers in the last time. We are living in the days of the last time now. Since Jesus Christ came to earth, history is in its last stage. Right now, the time between Christ's first coming and His second coming, is called the age of grace—the age when God's mercy and grace are flowing out to the world through His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. The thing to remember is that this period of history is called...

- "these last times" (1 Pt.1:20).
- "the last days" (2 Pt.3:3; 2 Tim.3:1).
- "these last days" (Heb.1:2).
- "the last time" (1 Jn.2:18; Jude 18).

Note what Jude says about these mockers or false teachers. Five significant things are said. These are the things that we are to remember about them.

1. The apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ predicted that mockers would come (v.17).

"For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works" (2 Cor.11:13-15).

"I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed" (Gal.1:6-9).

“(For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things)” (Ph.3:18-19).

“This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away” (2 Tim.3:1-5).

“But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived” (2 Tim.3:13).

“They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate” (Tit.1:16).

“But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily [secretly] shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction” (2 Pt.2:1).

“For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist” (2 Jn.7).

2. False teachers walk after their own ungodly lusts (v.18. See note—Jude 16 for discussion.)
3. False teachers cause division among God’s people within the church (v.19). There are three ways that they cause division.

- a. Their false teaching presents a divided Christianity to the world. God will always have His true teachers who proclaim the truth of His Son and of His Word. When false teachers deny the deity of Jesus Christ and the Word of God, they show a divided church to the world. They show that within the church there are those who say that the church is primarily a social service for man; it is not primarily not a sanctuary where man worships and praises God for His great salvation in His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. (See note—2 Jn.7 for more discussion.)
- b. False teachers divide the church; they cause hurt and pain in the hearts of true believers because their Lord and His church are being shamed. In addition, false teachers cause cleavage between mature believers and the followers of the false teacher. True believers cannot go along with false teaching. In fact, Christ and the apostles declared emphatically that true believers must oppose false teaching and do all they can to rid the church of false teachers. Therefore, false teachers always cause division between those who follow their teaching and mature believers who are grounded in the truth of Christ and of God’s Word.

“But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven” (Mt.10:33).

“Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels” (Mk.8:38).

“That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him” (Jn.5:23).

“I am come in my Father’s name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive” (Jn.5:43).

“But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily [secretly] shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction” (2 Pt.2:1).

“Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son” (1 Jn.2:22).

“For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist. Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward. Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son. If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: for he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds” (2 Jn.7-11).

- c. False teachers divide people by showing partiality and favoritism. A false teacher’s service, ministry, position, acceptance, approval, livelihood—everything about him—is dependent upon how well he gets along with the people to whom he ministers. Therefore, he must pay close attention to and flatter those who are influential and try not to offend them. This partiality and favoritism usually causes feelings of neglect and division among some. (See note, Teachers, False—Preaching—Jude 16.)

“My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons. For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment; and ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool: are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?” (Jas.2:1-4).

4. False teachers are worldly minded; they are sensual and carnal (v.19). They are worldly minded in two senses.
- a. False teachers believe that man is to work his way into God's acceptance. They teach that man is to be good and do good; to keep certain rituals and ordinances, rules and regulations of the church. If man does this, then he is acceptable to God. But note: this teaching is centered in man and this world, in what man can do to become acceptable to God. It honors man instead of God and His love. Therefore, the false teacher reaches out to man by participating in the pleasures of man. He sees nothing wrong with seeking the pleasures and possessions of the world.
 - ⇒ He sees nothing wrong with joining in with people in their worldly behavior, worldly socials, and worldly talk.
 - ⇒ He sees nothing wrong with seeking the things of this world: possessions, recognition, honor, position, influence, money, wealth, houses, and lands.
 - b. The false teacher believes that man is saved and becomes acceptable to God by keeping the rituals and rules of the church (such as baptism, circumcision, confirmation, the Lord's Supper), and by attending services when possible. False teachers believe that a person is acceptable to God if he has done these things no matter what kind of life he lives. False teachers think that the important thing is what a man does with his spirit—that a man take his spirit and believe in Jesus Christ and be baptized. If he does this, then God understands if he slips into sin here and there. The man is eternally secure because he believes and has been baptized. The kind of life the man lives can be worldly just so he has done these two things.

Note how sensual and carnal, how worldly this kind of teaching is. It says little about repentance and holy and separate living.

"If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you" (Jn.15:19).

"And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation" (Acts 2:40).

"I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God" (Ro.12:1-2).

"Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty" (2 Cor.6:17-18).

"And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them" (Eph.5:11).

"Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us" (2 Th.3:6).

"Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world" (1 Jn.2:15-16).

5. False teachers do not have the Spirit of God. No matter what they think or say, the spirit they have is not the Spirit of God. The true Spirit of God confesses that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, that the incarnation is true. If a teacher has the Spirit of God dwelling in him, then he confesses the incarnation, the wonderful truth that God did become Man and did come to earth to save man. The Spirit of God cannot confess anything other than the truth; therefore, every teacher who has the Spirit of God will confess the same truth. He cannot confess anything else because the Spirit of God Himself dwells within him. If he confesses anything else, then the spirit within him is not the Spirit of God. (See notes—1 Jn.4:1; 4:2-3 for more discussion.)

"Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you" (Jn.14:17).

"But the comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you" (Jn.14:26).

"Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will show you things to come" (Jn.16:13).

"But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his" (Ro.8:9).

"For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God" (Ro.8:14).

"Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God. Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual" (1 Cor.2:12-13).

"Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?" (1 Cor.3:16).

“But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him” (1 Jn.2:27).

“And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us” (1 Jn.3:24).

“Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit” (1 Jn.4:13).

2 (v.20-21) Believer, Duty—Prayer: second, build up yourselves. There are four ways that a believer builds himself up.

1. The believer builds upon the foundation of holy faith. What does this mean? By faith is meant our beliefs, the body of truth that we have learned from Scripture. It is the Holy Scripture that tells us about God and His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, and about man and his world. This is significant, for it means that our beliefs are not our own opinions nor the opinions of any other man. Our beliefs come directly from Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit of God as they inspired prophets to write the Holy Scripture (see outlines and notes—2 Tim.3:16; 2 Pt.1:19-21 for more discussion). This is probably what Jude meant by holy. Remember holy means separate, set apart, different. Our holy faith is far different from all other faiths. It is a faith that is not based upon opinion, speculation, and imaginations of men. It is faith that has been separated and set apart from man’s ideas about God and life. It is a faith that is separated and set apart by God Himself, that has come from God. It is the “most holy faith” of God, His Son, and His Spirit—the holy faith that is to be held by all the people of the earth.

The point is this: believers are to build up their lives upon their holy faith. They are to study, meditate, learn, memorize, and live out the Scripture. They are to build upon what they have learned and then continue to build more and more. The only way believers can do this is to study and study the holy faith, the living Word of God.

“Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock: and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock. And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand: and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it” (Mt.7:24-27).

“These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so” (Acts 17:11).

“And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified” (Acts 30:32).

“For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ” (1 Cor.3:11).

“Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth” (2 Tim.2:15).

“Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity” (2 Tim.2:19).

“All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness” (2 Tim.3:16).

“As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby: if so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious” (1 Pt.2:2-3).

“How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth!” (Ps.119:103).

“Thy words were found, and I did eat them and thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart; for I am called by thy name, O LORD God of hosts” (Jer.15:16).

2. The believer builds by praying in the Spirit. This is the Holy Spirit. To pray in the Spirit means...

- that we pray under His guidance and influence, under His energy and power.
- that we seek and ask His help as we approach the throne of grace.
- that we focus our minds and concentrate upon the Holy Spirit helping us to pray, and depend upon Him to help us.
- that we ask and depend upon the Holy Spirit to cleanse our requests and make sure that what we ask is according to the will of God.
- that we walk in the Spirit day by day and offer unbroken prayer to God all day long.
- that we set time aside every day and wrestle in prayer before God for the needs of loved ones and for the needs of God’s people and for the world—all in the Spirit.

“Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God” (Ro.8:26-27).

“Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ’s sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me” (Ro.15:30).

“Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the saints, cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers” (Eph.1:15-16).

“Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints” (Eph.6:18).

“Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving” (Col.4:2).

“Pray without ceasing” (1 Th.5:17).

“Seek the LORD and his strength, seek his face continually” (1 Chron.16:11).

3. The believer builds himself up by keeping himself in the love of God (see note—1 Jn.3:10; 3:14; DEEPER STUDY # 1—5:16 for discussion).

4. The believer builds himself up by looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ, by looking for that glorious day of His return. Jesus Christ has made it possible for God to have mercy upon us now: God has forgiven our sins. But the day of redemption, the glorious day when God’s mercy will be fully known, will not take place until the return of Christ. It is at His return that we will be transformed into His image of perfection and glory. Therefore, the way to build ourselves up is to keep our eyes upon the mercy of Jesus Christ and the glorious day of His return. (See note—1 Jn.2:28 for more discussion.)

“For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works” (Mt.16:27).

“When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats” (Mt.25:31-32).

“For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son....Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation” (Jn.5:22, 28-29).

“Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every [faithful] man have praise of God” (1 Cor.4:5).

“For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad” (2 Cor.5:10).

“I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick [living] and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom” (2 Tim.4:1).

“And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man’s work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear” (1 Pt.1:17).

“And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him” (Jude 14-15).

“And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works” (Rev.20:12).

“And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be” (Rev.22:12).

3 (v.22-23) Witnessing: third, be compassionate and reclaim people. Verse 22 is a difficult verse to translate from the Greek. This is clearly seen by anyone who looks at several English translations. The outline follows the New American Standard: “And have mercy on some, who are doubting.” Note three points.

1. Believers are to be compassionate and reclaim those who are doubting. A false teacher causes people to doubt the faith, especially those who are attracted to his charisma, appearance, beliefs, and to his preaching and teaching style. In addition to these, there are many young and immature and carnal believers who are easily led to doubt the truth. It is the duty of mature believers to reach out to those who begin to doubt, and note how: in compassion. We are not to reach out in...

- censorship
- criticism
- severity
- superiority
- judgment
- harshness
- haughtiness
- spiritual pride

True, we are not the ones who began to doubt; we stood fast. But our spirit must be compassionate and loving; we must seek to restore them to the Lord Jesus Christ.

2. Believers are to be compassionate and reclaim those who are lost in the false teaching. Note how: by striking fear in them. We must warn them of God’s judgment and of the danger of eternal doom if they reject and turn against and deny God’s Son (see notes—1 Jn.4:2-3; 2:18; 2:22-23 for discussion).

3. Believers must guard themselves when reaching out to help others. The language used is descriptive: believers must hate “even the garment spotted [polluted] by the flesh.” They hate everything about false teaching that defiles people, hate it so much that they would never be deceived by its appealing ways. Believers must guard against becoming polluted themselves when they get along side those...

- who are living after the flesh.
- who are backslidden.
- who are deceived.
- who are teaching error.

Believers must hate the world and its false teaching and worldly lifestyle, hate them so much that they even hate the garments that are polluted by the flesh. Believers must guard and protect themselves from all defilement of the world and its false teaching.

4 (v.24-25) Power, of God—Security: fourth, walk in the keeping power of God. This is the conclusion of Jude’s short letter. Note that this is a benediction upon believers. It is one of the most well known benedictions by Christians all over the world. Note the great message on the source of the believer’s security. What is the source of the believer’s security? Who is it that keeps the believer secure while he walks upon the earth? It is God—God’s keeping power.

1. God is able to keep us from falling. In verse 21 we are told that we are to keep ourselves in the love of God. Here we are told that God keeps us. What is the difference? “We must watch that we stay close to the Lord, but only He can guard us so that we do not stumble” (Michael Green. The Second Epistle of Peter and The Epistle of Jude. “The Tyndale New Testament Commentaries,” p.190). God alone has the power to keep us from falling in a world that has so much corruption and false teaching. But for God to keep us, we must draw near Him and stay in touch with Him. How? By daily Bible study and prayer, and by walking righteously. By learning to walk moment by moment in open and unbroken prayer, communion, and fellowship with Him.

2. God is able to make us blameless when we come face to face with Him. The word “blameless” (amomos) means to be spotless and pure, without any defilement whatsoever. God is able to accept us in Jesus Christ, the spotless Lamb of God. If we will continue to approach God in Christ—in the name of Christ and His death—then God will accept us and count our faith as righteousness. He will accept us in the righteousness of His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. God is able to do this, and He will do it if we will draw near Him in Christ.

3. God is able to infuse us with triumphant joy in the glorious day that we meet Him face to face. There will be so much to excite and cause our hearts to joy and rejoice:

- ⇒ the glory of God’s presence and of heaven
- ⇒ the glory of Christ and of seeing Him face to face
- ⇒ the transformation of our bodies into perfection
- ⇒ the joy of being reunited with our deceased loved ones
- ⇒ the unbelievable exaltation of being made kings and priests to rule and reign with Christ
- ⇒ the unbelievable exaltation of being assigned the duty of serving God and Christ forever and ever.

All of this and so much more will stir our hearts to joy and rejoice in Christ for ever and ever. (See note, Rewards—1 Pt.1:4 for a complete list of the rewards to be given to the believer.)

4. God is the only wise God and He is our Savior. The idea is that He is the only living and true God—the only God who could ever plan and create the world and man, the only God who could bring about the salvation of man after man had made such a mess of things. God is not only wise, He is the Savior. He alone has the wisdom and power to save man from this corruptible world of sin and evil, disease and accident, death and judgment.

5. God alone is the God who dwells in glory and majesty, dominion and power.
- ⇒ He alone is the Supreme Glory and Majesty of the universe.
 - ⇒ He alone is the Supreme Dominion and Power of the universe.

Therefore, the only thing left for believers to do is to shout the praises of Him who alone can save them:

“Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen” (v.24-25).

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST

TO JOHN THE APOSTLE

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST

TO JOHN THE APOSTLE

INTRODUCTION

AUTHOR: John, the Apostle.

1. The author identifies himself as John four different times (Rev.1:1, 4, 9; 22:8).
2. The author uses several words that only John the apostle used in the Gospel of John and in the Epistles. He calls Jesus Christ the “Logos” which means the Word (see Rev.19:13; cp. Jn.1:1; 1 Jn.1:1). “The Word” is used nine times in the Gospel of John and four times in John’s Epistles. He also calls Jesus Christ “the Lamb of God” (see Rev.5:6; 6:1; 7:9; 12:11; 13:8; 14:1; 15:3; 17:14; 19:9; 21:22. Cp. Jn.1:36.) He uses the word “true” (alethinou) ten times in Revelation. John is the only person to use the word “tabernacle” (skenoō). He uses it four times in Revelation and once in the Gospel (Rev.21:3; cp. Jn.1:14). He is also the only one to refer to the spear thrust in Christ’s side (Rev.1:7; cp. Jn.19:34).
3. The early church said that John the apostle was the author. Justin Martyr said so (A.D. 150). One of the early disciples of John was a man named Polycarp. When Polycarp began his own ministry, he had a pupil or disciple named Irenaeus (died A.D. 190). Irenaeus said that Polycarp taught that John the apostle was the author. There are many others who verify the same conclusion (Canon Leon Morris. The Revelation. “The Tyndale New Testament Commentaries,” ed. by RVG Tasker. Grand Rapids, MI: Eerdmans, 1969, p.26f). In addition to all this proof, John lived and ministered throughout Asia, the very place to which the Revelation was written.

DATE: Uncertain. Probably A.D. 95-96.

Some hold to an early date during Nero’s reign (around A.D. 68); others to a later date during Domitian’s reign (around A.D. 95-96). The early date is unlikely. The later date fits the circumstances much better. There are two major reasons for this.

1. John had been exiled to a rocky island in the Mediterranean, the Isle of Patmos. As far as is known, he was not exiled by the emperor Nero. Nero’s persecution was more personal and local. Nero had been accused of burning Rome during a state of madness. To divert attention away from himself, he accused the Christians in Rome, and he launched an attack against them. Thousands were martyred by the most inhuman methods imaginable. The point to note is that Nero did not exile believers, he killed them. But the emperor Domitian did exile them. Domitian’s persecution was a legal policy of the state and much more widespread. He made a deliberate attempt to banish Christian believers from the empire. Thus, it is much more likely that John was exiled during Domitian’s reign.

2. The state of the churches pictured in Revelation differs from the church pictured by Paul in the 60’s and 70’s. Revelation pictures the churches as having been in existence for decades. Ephesus had lost its first love (Rev.2:4). Sardis was dead (Rev.3:1). There is a stark difference between the churches of Paul’s day and the churches in the day of the Revelation. This definitely points toward the later date.

TO WHOM WRITTEN: “To the seven churches which are in Asia” (Rev.1:4; cp. 2:1-3:22). The seven churches were:

- | | | | |
|------------|----------|------------|----------------|
| ⇒ Ephesus | ⇒ Smyrna | ⇒ Thyatira | ⇒ Philadelphia |
| ⇒ Pergamos | ⇒ Sardis | ⇒ Laodicea | |

PURPOSE: John had three purposes for writing Revelation.

1. The immediate purpose: to allow Jesus Christ to proclaim, “Behold, I come quickly.” (Rev.2:16; 3:11; 22:7, 12, 20). The seven churches of Asia and their world needed a word of encouragement, of counsel, and of warning.

2. The historical purpose: to allow Jesus Christ to proclaim to His followers and to the world of every generation, “Behold, I come quickly” (Rev.2:16; 3:11; 22:7, 12, 20). God knows that every generation needs a word of encouragement, of counsel, and of warning.

3. The godly purpose: to give to the church and to the world “The Revelation of Jesus Christ” (Rev.1:1). This revelation is both the unveiling of the person of Jesus Christ as the central figure of history and the unveiling of the message of His heart. He is both the content and the unveiler of the revelation. What is the revelation of Jesus Christ? The revelation concerns “things which must shortly come to pass” (Rev.1:1). It concerns the Lamb, the Lord Jesus Christ Himself, who alone is worthy to open and oversee...

- the book of destiny.
- the book of the future of the world.
- the book of God’s redemptive purpose.

(See outline and notes—Rev.4:1f.)

The words the godly purpose are chosen to describe this last point for two reasons.

- a. The picture painted by Revelation is that God takes an active part in the Revelation. God has some things to say about the future—some things to unveil, to uncover, to show to the church and to the world. It is His own godly purpose to unveil these events. By unveiling them, He is sending forth a word of encouragement to the world. But He is also sending forth a word of counsel and of warning. Man must heed the message of the great book of Revelation as well as be encouraged by it.
- b. The true title of Revelation is “The Revelation of Jesus Christ,” not “The Revelation of John” (Rev.1:1). God’s own purpose is to focus attention upon the Lamb, the Lord Jesus Christ Himself, and His ultimate triumph over the world and its ungodliness and evil. God’s purpose is to show the great redemption that He is preparing for all those who truly believe and follow His Son. God’s purpose is to show man that he can be saved from the terrible things that are coming upon the earth. God wants man to know that he can be saved while there is still time for him to repent. It is God's purpose to lead people to repentance and salvation; to lead them to the glorious inheritance of the great redemption that is to be given to all true followers of the Lord Jesus Christ.

SPECIAL FEATURES:

1. Revelation is "An Apocalyptic Book." It is the only book of Scripture that is often classified as Apocalyptic. Apocalyptic literature was literature written in the ancient world by a people under great stress. However, they were usually a people who had great hope for deliverance. The apocalyptic writings are marked by symbolism, dreams, visions, and cosmic powers that are ultimately defeated by God in a cataclysmic judgment. The authors never reveal their own names; rather they usually assign their writings to a great character in Biblical history. Several examples are The Book of Enoch; The Ascension of Isaiah; and The Assumption of Moses. The Revelation differs from this literature in at least two respects:

a. First, John gives his name.

b. Second, Revelation is "The Revelation of Jesus Christ Himself." It is revealed under the inspiration of Christ Himself. Therefore, the great book of Revelation is Scripture; it is the very Word of God Himself.

2. Revelation is "A Book of Prophecy." It is almost completely devoted to prophecy. It has by far more prophecy than any other book of the New Testament. It is about "things which must shortly come to pass" (Rev.1:1)—about things that had not happened when they were given to John by the risen Lord.

3. Revelation is "A Book of Old Testament Interpretation." It is said that there are at least four hundred allusions to Old Testament Scriptures.

4. Revelation is "A Book of Consummation" or "A Book of Final Things." It deals primarily with the "Book of Destiny." The Book of Destiny is a book that is kept by God Himself, a book that pictures the events surrounding the climax of human history. It is a book of God's redemptive purpose (see outline and notes—Rev.4:1f).

5. Revelation is "The Book Written to the Obedient Reader." It gives a special promise to the obedient reader, to the person who heeds the message of Revelation (Rev.1:3; 22:18).

6. Revelation is "The Revelation of Jesus Christ." (See Purpose, point 3—Introduction.)

7. Revelation is "God's Last Word to a World About to End." (See point 4 above. See note 2—2 Pt.3:3; also see note—1 Jn.2:18.)

8. Revelation is "The Book of Four Major Interpretations."

a. The Preterist or Historical Interpretation. The author is said to be writing about the events of his own day, the events of the first century. He describes only the events taking place in his own lifetime. Revelation is but a moral outcry against the way Rome was treating the Christian church of the first century. It has nothing to do whatsoever with prophecy. It is first century history and nothing else.

The strength of this approach is that it forces a person to study the history and life of the early church. Most honest interpreters see the need to study the background of any writing in order to understand its message. Therefore, they make some use of this approach. Such study helps a person to learn from history. It reinforces a person's own life and enables him to better stand against the abuses of his own environment. However, the approach has several gross weaknesses.

⇒ It denies the prophetic message of Revelation when the book specifically claims to be prophecy (Rev.1:1; 4:1; 22:18).

⇒ It neglects the immediate message for believers of succeeding generations by limiting the message to first century believers.

⇒ It actually does violence to believers of succeeding generations. It limits the spiritual blessing they can receive by heeding the prophetic message of the book (Rev.1:1-3; 22:17-19).

b. The Idealist or Spiritualist Interpretation. The author is said to be expressing only spiritual truths and principles. Revelation is said to be only a symbolic picture of the great cosmic struggle between good and evil. There is no historical background or prophetic message to the book at all.

The strength of this view is that Revelation does teach great spiritual truths and principles. Of this there is little if any question. The church can learn from the message of Revelation. It can better understand its spiritual struggle in an antagonistic world. It can learn to love more, trust more, endure more, and hope more.

However, the spiritual interpretation has two gross weaknesses:

⇒ It grossly misrepresents history and prophecy and it allows a person to neglect history and to read into the symbolic language any spiritual conclusion he wishes. There is no historical or prophetic event to guide a person's understanding of Revelation. A person is left to draw his own spiritual conclusion. He can only hope he is correct.

⇒ Again, as in the Preterist view, there is a denial of what Revelation specifically claims: to be a book of prophecy.

c. The Continual Historical Interpretation. The author is said to be outlining the major events of history from the first century to the end of the world. Revelation is a calendar of world events as they relate to the church.

The strength of this view is that it does show a sequence of events in the book. It forces the honest student to study the sequence and the chronological order of the events.

The weakness of this view has shown up rather glaringly over the years.

⇒ There are almost as many different interpretations of the symbols in Revelation as there are interpreters. If the symbols of Revelation are picturing world history, then the writer gave no help whatsoever. There just is no clear calendar of world history in Revelation.

⇒ There is another glaring weakness. There is no calendar of world history anywhere in the Scriptures. If Revelation is a symbolic calendar of world history, then there is no Scripture to govern the interpretations of the prophecies in Revelation. A person is left to his own interpretation. There is no Scripture to interpret Scripture. But if the prophecies of Revelation deal primarily with the end of world history—the events surrounding the great tribulation, the antichrist, the millennium, and the new heavens and earth—these are taught by other Scriptures. Scripture can be tested by other Scripture.

- d. The Futurist Interpretation. The author is said to be predicting events that will happen as the end of the world approaches. However, the messages to the seven churches of chapters 1-3 are said to be an exception. Practically every interpreter says there is an historical background to these churches. The messages are written directly to the seven churches of Asia. But there are some who go farther and interpret each church to represent a church age—a particular period of church history leading right up to the end time.

The strength of the Futurist view is that it takes the Revelation to be a book of prophecy when it claims to be a prophecy. And there is no question that the book claims to be a picture of the future.

“The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John” (Rev.1:1).

“After this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter” (Rev.4:1).

“For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book” (Rev.22:18).

There are several weaknesses often charged to the futurist view.

- ⇒ First, it is said to rob the early believers of any meaning and immediate help the author meant for them to receive. The futuristic view is said to miss any meaning and immediate help believers are to receive from its historical message. But note this: this charge misses the whole point of hope. It is hope in the future, hope in future happenings that stirs and drives man to press on and endure throughout life. Eliminate man’s hope in the future and you destroy man. Therefore, this charge against the futurist interpretation of Revelation is wrong. The charge ignores and overlooks the very nature of man.

The future events revealed by the great book of Revelation give man the greatest of hopes, the very hope of eternal redemption, of being with the Lord Jesus Christ forever and ever. No greater hope and no greater message could be proclaimed than the future events proclaimed by Revelation. God is going to judge and eliminate all the evil and ungodly of this world and save every person who truly follows His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ.

- ⇒ Second, there is also the charge that great stress is often put upon arousing fleshly curiosity, upon knowing about the events of the future—that little emphasis is given to the spiritual truths for today—and that people often ignore the emphasis that Revelation places upon repentance and spiritual preparation for the judgment to come.

This charge is valid. There is much truth to this charge. There is within all of us a fleshly tendency to play God, to be recognized as knowing the future and being able to tell others what is going to happen and how to prepare for it. In addition to this, we have all seen and heard of people who focus upon future events to the neglect of the rest of Scripture. What we must do is this: study and proclaim the whole counsel of God. We must not neglect the Revelation nor any of the future events proclaimed by Scripture. But neither are we to neglect any of the other teachings of Scripture. We are to proclaim the whole counsel of God.

- ⇒ Third, a glaring weakness is the attempt by many to read too much into the symbolic language of Revelation. Some have developed a hard and fast scheme and come up with a hard and fast calendar of events that are to happen in the end time. This has brought about a tragic charge that some make their calendar of events a test of fellowship. And the charge is tragically true. Too many have done this. Too many display an air or attitude of superiority, of knowing more, of dogmatism—all of which rejects and alienates others—even sound Biblical believers. This of course should not be, and true believers know it. We know that fellowship is to be based only upon the essentials of the deity of Christ and of salvation, not upon the events of the end time. What we must do is love one another no matter how we may differ in our interpretation of the end time. If we do not, then we are not heeding the great message of Revelation. If we lose our love for Christ and for one another, then we doom ourselves even as the believers of Ephesus doomed themselves by losing their first love. We are not to base our fellowship upon how we interpret the events of Revelation.

This is not the reason God gave us Revelation. He gave us Revelation so that we would know what is going to happen at the end of the world and so that we can place our hope where it belongs: in the Lord Jesus Christ and in His ultimate triumph over all the evil and ungodliness of this earth.

9. Revelation is “The Book That Must Be Biblically Interpreted.” What we as authors write is important and should be studied by believers, but only after the Word of God has been studied. We are the secondary sources for understanding God’s Word; the Word of God itself is the primary source. There is far too much dependence upon secondary sources, and too little study of the primary source, the Bible itself. This is probably the greatest cause for the denial of the faith and of the Word of God than any other single thing. It is very difficult to deny that the Bible is the Word of God if a person truly studies and lives in the Bible. The Bible speaks for itself and it speaks powerfully. A person who denies the Bible as the Word of God has usually not lived in the study of the Bible. He has not honestly and openly studied the primary source.

The point is this: Revelation is a book that must be read and studied and allowed to speak for itself. It is a book that must be Biblically interpreted. Revelation is so full of symbols that a person must look elsewhere in Scripture to find out what the symbols mean in order to know what their meaning in Revelation is. Therefore, a person must be willing to take the time to search the Scripture if he wishes to study Revelation. And study it we must, for Revelation is part of God's Holy Word. In addition, its message is very, very special to God. It is so special that God promises a special blessing to the person who studies and heeds its great message (Rev.1:3; 22:18-19).

Remember: the purpose of The Preacher's Outline & Sermon Bible™ is to present only what the Scripture says, not to give personal opinions. The beat of our hearts is to be true to the Word of God and to let the Word speak for itself. This we do to the best of our ability. We leave the declarations of denominational and theological positions up to the individual minister of God and to those who feel called to make such declarations. Our call with The Preacher's Outline & Sermon Bible™ is only to outline the Scripture and to develop the points of the outline to the best of our ability. Our prayer is that this approach will help the minister to get into the Word of God more and more and to help him in his expounding of the Word to God's dear people.

Now, having said this, our purpose and hope...

- is to outline Revelation, letting Revelation speak for itself.
- is to develop the outline points, again letting Revelation speak for itself to the best of our ability.
- is to do exactly what Revelation says: not to add to nor take away from the message of Revelation. We must always remember the great danger that we who believe the Bible face: that of adding to the Word of God. Those who disbelieve the Word of God tend to deny certain parts and teachings of the Bible. But we who believe the Word of God face the danger of adding to the Word and going beyond what God has actually said. This is the reason Scripture warns us to guard against adding to as well as taking away from the message of Revelation. To the best of our ability, The Preacher's Outline & Sermon Bible™ is making an attempt to do neither. Rather, our purpose, hope, and prayer is to let Revelation speak for itself. We are attempting to let the message do what we have attempted to do with the rest of Scripture: let it speak loudly and clearly the Word of God to us all. May God use these outlines to humble us and to lead us to commit our lives more fully to Christ Jesus our Lord and to His mission of reaching people for eternal salvation.

The Revelation must be allowed to speak for itself. Where it is not understood because symbolic language is used, the symbol must be searched out and explained by other Scriptures. There are at least two reasons for this.

- ⇒ First, God gives a special promise and warning to the reader of the Revelation (Rev.1:3; 22:18-19). God intended the believer to read and understand the book. It was written to be understood. It does not take a scholar to understand it. It takes a believer who seriously studies with an open and honest heart and who will let the Scripture speak for itself, not relying solely upon what other people might say. It takes a person who will depend upon the Scripture and the Holy Spirit to understand what God is saying.
- ⇒ Second, there are so many different interpretations that if one reads other books before reading Revelation, he can become confused before he ever gets around to reading Revelation. The book should be read and studied with an open heart. It should be allowed to speak its message without any bias—as much as is honestly possible. Serious Bible students, laymen and scholars alike—yea, all of us—must get away from reading and studying books about the Bible first and get back to reading and studying the Scriptures first.

OUTLINE OF REVELATION

THE PREACHER'S OUTLINE & SERMON BIBLE™ is unique. It differs from all other Study Bibles & Sermon Resource Materials in that every Passage and Subject is outlined right beside the Scripture. When you choose any Subject below and turn to the reference, you have not only the Scripture, but you discover the Scripture and Subject already outlined for you—verse by verse.

For a quick example, choose one of the subjects below and turn over to the Scripture, and you will find this marvelous help for faster, easier, and more accurate use.

In addition, every point of the Scripture and Subject is fully developed in a Commentary with supporting Scripture at the bottom of the page. Again, this arrangement makes sermon preparation much easier and faster.

Note something else: The Subjects of Revelation have titles that are both Biblical and practical. The practical titles sometimes have more appeal to people. This benefit is clearly seen for use on billboards, bulletins, church newsletters, etc.

A suggestion: For the quickest overview of REVELATION, first read all the major titles (I, II, III, etc.), then come back and read the subtitles.

OUTLINE OF REVELATION

I. THE GREAT REVELATION TO GOD'S SERVANTS, 1:1-8

- A. The Great Revelation, 1:1-3
- B. The Great Announcement to the Churches, 1:4-8

VISION ONE, 1:9-3:22

II. THE MESSAGES OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST TO THE SEVEN CHURCHES, 1:9-3:22

- A. The Son of Man, the Glorified Christ, 1:9-20
- B. The Message to Ephesus: The Orthodox Church, But a Church Without Love, 2:1-7
- C. The Message to Smyrna: The Persecuted Church, 2:8-11
- D. The Message to Pergamos: The Corrupted Church That is Married to the World, 2:12-17
- E. The Message to Thyatira: The Compromising or Permissive Church, 2:18-29
- F. The Message to Sardis: The Church With Reputation, but Dying, 3:1-6
- G. The Message to Philadelphia: The Church That is Faithful and Alive, 3:7-13
- H. The Message to Laodicea: The Church That is Affluent, but Lukewarm and Half-Committed, 3:14-22

VISION TWO, 4:1-16:21

III. THE PICTURE OF THINGS HEREAFTER, 4:1-5:14

In this vision two great things are seen. First, the throne of God is seen, then second, God Himself is seen holding a Book, a Book which contains the destiny of the world in the end times. However, the Book is sealed, for no one is found worthy to open and execute the events of the Book. Just when John despairs, One steps forward who is worthy, the Lamb of God, the Lord Jesus Christ, who was slain before the foundation of the earth.

- A. The Throne of God: The Focal Point of History, 4:1-11
- B. The Book of Destiny is Sealed: The Future of the World, 5:1-4
- C. The Book of Destiny is Opened: The Lamb Alone is Worthy to Open the Book, 5:5-14

IV. THE SEVEN SEAL JUDGMENTS: EVENTS PRECEDING THE GREAT TRIBULATION, 6:1-7:17

Christ breaks the first six seals of the Book or Scroll, not opening it yet; He just breaks the seals which bind the scroll together. As He breaks each seal, He reveals some event that is to take place immediately prior to the great tribulation. However, in spite of these terrible events, there is to be a remnant of believers saved, a remnant that stands fast for Christ.

- A. The Lamb Breaks the First Four Seals of the Book of Destiny: The Appearance of the Antichrist and His Power, 6:1-8

- B. The Lamb Breaks the Fifth Seal: The Slain Martyrs, 6:9-11
- C. The Lamb Breaks the Sixth Seal: The Great Day of God's Wrath Begins—The Universe Will Be Shattered, 6:12-17
- D. The Fate of Believers in the Great Tribulation (Part I): A Remnant of 144,000 From Israel Will Be Saved, 7:1-8
- E. The Fate of Believers in the Great Tribulation (Part II): A Numberless Multitude of Martyrs Will Be Saved, 7:9-17

V. THE SEVEN TRUMPET JUDGMENTS: EVENTS DURING THE GREAT TRIBULATION, 8:1-11:19

In breaking the seventh seal, an awesome revelation is made. Seven terrible judgments, called the trumpet judgments, are to be unleashed upon the earth. These are the actual events of the great tribulation. However, there is the prophetic message of salvation—a remnant is to be saved. The blast of the seventh trumpet brings forth an overall picture of things to come. Three of these things are of such importance they are said to be wonders or signs and they are covered in great detail.

- A. The Breaking of the Seventh Seal: Awesome Preparation for Judgment, 8:1-5
- B. The Blast of the First Four Trumpets: Natural Catastrophes, 8:6-12
- C. The Blast of the Fifth Trumpet: A Demonic-like Locust Plague, 8:13-9:11
- D. The Blast of the Sixth Trumpet: Demonic-like Military Horsemen, 9:12-21
- E. The Great Announcement of the Final Triumph Over Evil (Part I): The Little Book, 10:1-11
- F. The Final Triumph Over Evil (Part II): The Great Destruction of Israel and Jerusalem, 11:1-2
- G. The Final Triumph Over Evil (Part III): The Two Witnesses—How Israel Turns to God, 11:3-13
- H. The Final Triumph Over Evil (Part IV): An Overall Picture of Things to Come, 11:14-19

VI. THE SEVENTH TRUMPET IN DETAIL (PART I): TWO SPIRITUAL WONDERS STRUGGLING BEHIND THE GREAT TRIBULATION, 12:1-17

The seventh trumpet, part 1, shows that there are great spiritual and cosmic beings struggling behind the earthly scenes of history.

- A. The Central Characters in the Great Tribulation, 12:1-5
- B. The Great Spiritual Struggle Behind the Great Tribulation, 12:6-17

VII. THE SEVENTH TRUMPET IN DETAIL (PART II): THE WAR OF THE DRAGON UPON THE EARTH, 13:1-18

The seventh trumpet, part 2, reveals just how the dragon, that old serpent the devil, carries out his attack upon God's people through human politics and religion.

- A. The Attack Through the First Beast: A Political Ruler, 13:1-10
- B. The Attack Through the Second Beast: A False Prophet, 13:11-18

VIII. THE SEVENTH TRUMPET IN DETAIL (PART III): THE VICTORY OF THE LAMB IS ASSURED, 14:1-20

The seventh trumpet, part 3, gives much needed assurance that all things are in God's hands. The false Christ, the beast, and godless civilization will be destroyed, and the true Christ and His followers will be saved eternally.

- A. Assurance 1: The Redeemed Will Be with Jesus, 14:1-5
- B. Assurance 2: The Gospel Will be Preached to the Whole World, 14:6-7
- C. Assurance 3: Babylon, the Godless State and Religion, Will Fall, 14:8
- D. Assurance 4: Justice Will Be Executed, 14:9-12
- E. Assurance 5: The Dead Will Be at Rest and Rewarded, 14:13
- F. Assurance 6: The Glorious Harvest of the Godly Will Take Place, 14:14-16
- G. Assurance 7: The Terrible Harvest of the Ungodly Will Take Place, 14:17-20

IX. THE SEVENTH TRUMPET IN DETAIL (PART IV): THE THIRD GREAT WONDER, THE SEVEN BOWL JUDGMENTS, 15:1-16:21

The seventh trumpet blasts forth its judgments, and the judgments come fast and furious. Why? Because they are the very last judgments. God has decided to end human history. He has decided to stop all the ungodliness and evil of this world. He can no longer take the rebellion, denial, cursing, immorality, stealing, drunkenness, sorcery, and murder of man. Therefore, Jesus Christ will destroy all the ungodly and evil of this world and do it quickly.

- A. The Heavenly Preparation for Judgment, 15:1-8
- B. The Pouring Out of the Bowl Judgments, 16:1-21

VISION THREE, 17:1-20:15

X. THE JUDGMENT OF BOTH RELIGIOUS BABYLON AND POLITICAL BABYLON, 17:1-18:24

Jesus Christ is coming back to this earth, and He is going to establish the righteousness of God forever and ever. But before He can come and establish righteousness in the earth, a few things have to be done.

- ⇒ All the godless and evil armies of this world have to be destroyed. This we have just seen in the former chapter (Revelation Chapter 16).
- ⇒ All the false religion in this world has to be destroyed. This is the discussion of the present chapter (Revelation, Chapter 17).
- ⇒ All the godless governments and politics and social systems of this world have to be destroyed. This will be the discussion of the next chapter (Revelation Chapter 18).

When these three things are done, then the ungodly and evil of this earth will be removed and Jesus Christ can come to earth and set up His kingdom of righteousness. As stated, the armies were destroyed in the former chapter. Now God shows us how both false religion and the godless governments and politics of this world will be destroyed.

- B. The Power Behind Religious Babylon, Behind False Religion: The Beast or Antichrist, 17:7-18
- C. The Collapse of Political Babylon, 18:1-24

XI. THE GREAT MARRIAGE SUPPER OF THE LAMB, OF THE LORD JESUS CHRIST, 19:1-10

This is the great Marriage Supper of the Lamb, of the Lord Jesus Christ. This will be the great supper where all of heaven will be present to celebrate the union of Jesus Christ and the believers who have followed Him down through the centuries. Everyone in heaven will be there: God, Christ, believers, and the heavenly host. It will be the most celebrated and joyful event ever experienced up to that point in history. Why? Because it will be the great Marriage Supper of the Lord Jesus Christ Himself, the celebration of the very thing for which He died. It will be the first time that all the redeemed of all ages will come together at one time to honor the Lamb who was slain to redeem the universe. Because of what He has done for man, He is deserving of all the honor and praise possible. To give Him such glorious honor, God has planned the greatest celebration and banquet imaginable, the celebration of what He calls the great Marriage Supper of the Lamb (v.9).

XII. THE FINAL TRIUMPH: THE MILLENNIUM USHERED IN, 19:11-20:15

This is the final triumph of Jesus Christ upon earth. Six events will take place that will bring about a new heavens and earth and that will usher in eternity. These events will bring about the very thing for which God has launched human history: the perfect fellowship and communion between God and man throughout all eternity. These six events will bring about the glorious day when believers will worship and serve God—when they will labor and work for Him throughout the whole universe and do it in perfection forever and ever.

XIV. THE GREAT MESSAGE OF REVELATION: ELEVEN STIRRING FACTS, 22:6-21

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST

TO JOHN THE APOSTLE

CHAPTER 1

I. THE GREAT REVELATION TO GOD'S SERVANTS, 1:1-8

A. The Great Revelation, 1:1-3

- 1 The Revelation was given by Christ Himself
- 2 The Revelation concerns things that must shortly

The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to show unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:

2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

3 Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

take place

- 3 The Revelation was given to John

a. It was given by an angel

b. It was accurately reported by John

- 4 The Revelation blesses the man who reads, hears, & obeys the message

DIVISION I

THE GREAT REVELATION TO GOD'S SERVANTS, 1:1-8

A. The Great Revelation, 1:1-3

(1:1-3) Introduction: this is the great revelation of Jesus Christ. The word "revelation" (apokalupsis) means to uncover and unveil. It means to pull back a covering or a veil that is hiding something. It means to make known something; to reveal something that a person could not find out for himself. It is a revelation of truth that man could never discover for himself. This is what the book of Revelation is: it is the great revelation of Jesus Christ to His servants or followers. This means a most wonderful fact: it means that there are some things that God wants us to know, some things that we could never know if we were left on our own. It means that God cares about us, that He loves us enough to reveal some things to us. And note: God cares so much for us that He has revealed a whole book of events to us. What are these events? They are events or truths that lie out in the future, that concern the end of the world. Four significant things are said about the Revelation of Jesus Christ.

1. The Revelation was given by Christ Himself (v.1).
2. The Revelation concerns things that must shortly take place (v.1).
3. The Revelation was given to John (v.1-2).
4. The Revelation blesses the man who reads, hears, and obeys the message (v.3).

1 (1:1) Revelation, The: the Revelation was given by Jesus Christ Himself. Jesus Christ is the Author of the Revelation. But note: it was given to Jesus Christ by God the Father. When Jesus Christ was upon the earth, He said the following about His return and the end of the world:

"But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father" (Mk.13:32).

However, when Jesus Christ ascended into heaven, God the Father revealed these things to Christ. This is significant, for it means that the things we are about to learn did not come from man, but from God Himself. The Revelation concerns things that God Himself wants us to know; therefore, He gave them to His Son and His Son has now revealed some of the things to us.

Thought 1. This is a stark contrast from the prophets, soothsayers, astrologers, and religionists of the world. Think of the thousands and thousands of self-proclaimed prophets and religionists upon earth. Each claims to know about God and to have some revelation from Him. But here in the Bible, in the very Word of God itself, is a whole book that has come from the Son of God, a whole book that He Himself has authored. The book concerns some very special things that God wants us to know. What are the things? This is the subject of the next point.

"I have many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him" (Jn.8:26).

"For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak" (Jn.12:49).

"Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you" (Jn.15:15).

"For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me" (Jn.17:8).

2 (1:1) End Time—Revelation, The: the Revelation concerns things that must shortly take place. Note four significant facts.

1. The Revelation concerns future events, events that are yet to happen in the end time. The events had not yet happened when Jesus Christ gave the revelation.

2. The early believers had looked for these events to take place very soon. The idea is shortly, swiftly, speedily—in their lifetime. This means that the early believers were expecting the Lord to return in their lifetime. They were doing exactly what Christ had told them to do: to look and watch for His return.

“Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come” (Mt.24:42).

“Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh” (Mt.24:44).

“Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh” (Mt.25:13).

3. God’s clock measures time differently than man’s clock. This is clear, for it has been thousands of years since Jesus Christ gave this revelation to man. Yet He has not returned to earth and the end of the world has not yet happened. Does this mean that John was wrong in saying that the events were to shortly happen? No!

⇒ God clearly reveals that we are living in the last days, and that the events are to happen in the last days (see note, Last Days—2 Pt.3:3 for more discussion).

⇒ God also clearly reveals that a thousand years is as one day with Him (see note—2 Pt.3:8 for more discussion).

The point is this: the return of Christ and the end of the world are God’s affairs, not man’s. Therefore, the time frame of the events are bound to be based upon God’s time, not man’s. The events are in God’s hands. In fact, based upon God’s measurement of time it has been only about two days since Jesus Christ revealed the events of the Revelation.

Thought 1. Every generation of believers must look for the return of Christ. This is exactly what He commands. He teaches that He can return any time; therefore, we are to obey Him. We are to expect His return, watch and be ready for it. But we must also realize that He may not come today. Therefore, we must plan and establish long term ministries upon the earth so that the lost can continue to be reached for Christ. The proper attitude is this: we must be expecting Christ to return today, but we must plan as though He will not come for a hundred years.

4. Jesus Christ gave the Revelation to His servants. Who are His servants? Believers who truly follow and serve Christ. This is significant to note, for there are many who profess to believe and follow Christ and do not. The Revelation is not written to them. The Revelation is a closed book to those who do not genuinely follow Christ. It is a closed book to the world. Jesus Christ gave the Revelation to His servants and His servants alone.

Thought 1. The Revelation is not a book for the world, nor for those who profess Christ but fail to serve Him. It is a book that is written only for genuine believers. The idea is that the world cannot understand the Revelation and will only mock it. Perhaps this is the reason there is often so much mockery of the things of God by the world. We who truly know Christ have too often proclaimed things to the world that were for our exhortation alone. The events revealed by Christ in this great book are for the true servants of God, not for the world. (See outlines and notes—2 Pt.3:3-7; 3:8-10; 3:11-14 for more discussion.)

“But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you” (Jn.14:26).

“But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned” (1 Cor.2:14).

“But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil” (Heb.5:14).

“But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him” (1 Jn.2:27).

“The secret things belong unto the LORD our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law” (Dt.29:29).

3 (1:1-2) Revelation, The—Angel: the Revelation was given to John. John the apostle was the man chosen by Jesus Christ to receive the Revelation. But note this: John had to be available. Jesus Christ always chooses a man to carry the messages of God to men. But before He can choose a man, the man has to be available. The man has to love the Lord; he has to be surrendered to Christ. John was such a man; therefore, Jesus Christ was able to choose him to receive the Word of God and to share it with the servants of God. Note two significant facts.

1. It was the angel of Christ who gave the message to John. The word angel means messenger. This particular angel is said to be “His angel,” that is, the personal angel of Christ. The picture is that of some angel who serves Christ as His very special messenger, some angel who is appointed as the very special servant of Christ.

2. John says that he has accurately borne witness to what he saw. What did he see?

- a. John saw the Word of God. The things of Revelation are the Word of God. God is not far off in outer space unconcerned with man. God cares for man, cares so much that He has sent His Word to us through this book of the great Revelation. We know that God cares for us because He has spoken to us: He has spoken the great message of Revelation to us.
- b. John saw the testimony of Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ showed John exactly what God had given Him to reveal to His followers. What John has shared in the revelation is the very testimony of Jesus Christ, the Son of God Himself.
- c. John saw all things that are reported in the Revelation, all the events.

Thought 1. It is a matter of belief. We either believe John or not. John is either telling the truth or he is lying. Which do we believe? Is Jesus Christ returning to earth? Are the events of the end time going to happen as recorded in Revelation or not? Should we be watching for Christ and these events or not? If the Revelation is truly the Word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ, then we must watch and be ready, for every event will certainly take place and nothing will stop them. We shall witness every single event either from heaven or from upon the earth.

4 (1:3) Revelation, The—Word of God: the revelation blesses the person who reads, hears, and obeys the message. In the early church there were, of course, no printing presses to run off copy after copy of John's letter. There was only the original copy written by him and perhaps a few other copies that had been copied by hand to be passed among the people. Therefore, the reading spoken of in this verse refers to the letter being read before the whole church or before special groups within the church. But note a critical point: reading is not enough. Believers must...

- read
- hear the words of this prophecy
- keep those things which are written

It is never enough to just read and hear the Word of God. We must always do what God says, keep His commandments. This is especially true when it comes to Revelation. Why? Note the last statement made in verse 3: because "the time is at hand." The events are near, very near. Jesus Christ is returning to earth very soon. The events of the end time are about to happen. They are at hand, right over the horizon. Therefore, we must read, hear, and heed the things written in Revelation. We must be looking and preparing for the coming of Christ and for the events that point toward the end of the world. The believer who does what Revelation says shall be blessed ever so richly by God.

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death" (Jn.8:51).

"Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him" (Jn.14:23).

"Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ" (Tit.2:12-13).

"But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, looking for and hastening unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat? Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness" (2 Pt.3:10-13).

Thought 1. No genuine believer has the right to ignore or neglect Revelation. Every thing said in this opening statement declares the importance of the Revelation. Revelation is not only to be read and heard, it is to be heeded. This means that the message can be understood by true believers.

Thought 2. There are seven blesseds or beatitudes in Revelation.

⇒ The blessing or beatitude of obedience.

"Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand" (Rev.1:3).

⇒ The blessing or beatitude of eternal life.

"And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them" (Rev.14:13).

⇒ The blessing or beatitude of watchfulness and purity, of watching for the Lord's return and living a pure life.

"Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame" (Rev.16:15).

⇒ The blessing or beatitude of heaven, of being called to the marriage supper of the Lamb.

REVELATION 1:1-3

“And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God” (Rev.19:9).

⇒ The blessing or beatitude of the resurrection, of being raised from the dead, of conquering death and living eternally with Christ.

“Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years” (Rev.20:6).

⇒ The blessing or beatitude of obedience, of heeding the sayings of Revelation.

“Behold, I come quickly: blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book” (Rev.22:7).

⇒ The blessing or beatitude of obedience, of keeping all of God’s commandments.

“Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city” (Rev.22:14).

Note the critical importance of obedience. Three of the seven blessings have to do with obeying God, with keeping His commandments—just doing what He says. Obedience cannot be overstressed. We must do what God says to do in the book of Revelation.

Thought 3. Note that the book of Revelation begins with a promised blessing (Rev.1:3) and closes with a promised blessing (Rev.22:7).

DIVISION I

THE GREAT REVELATION TO GOD'S SERVANTS, 1;1-8

B. The Great Announcement to the Churches, 1:4-8

(1:4-8) Introduction: this is the great announcement to the churches. Note: there were seven churches in Asia to which this great announcement was being made. The churches will be named and discussed in a later passage. When they are, it will be seen that they are representative of all churches of the Lord Jesus Christ throughout the world. For now, the great announcement is the subject to be discussed. What is the great announcement proclaimed to the churches of the world? It is fourfold.

1. Announcement 1: grace and peace are yours (v.4-5).
2. Announcement 2: Jesus Christ is the great Savior, the great Redeemer (v.5-6).
3. Announcement 3: behold, Christ comes (v.7).
4. Announcement 4: Christ is the Almighty God (v.8).

1 (1:4-5) Grace—Peace: announcement one—grace and peace are yours. The church must know that it can experience grace and peace.

- ⇒ Grace means the favor and blessings of God. It means that God takes an active role in our lives; that He looks after and takes care of us; that He provides all the good and beneficial things of life for us whether physical, material, or spiritual. We do not deserve the grace of God, but God loves us. Therefore, He showers us with His grace, His favor, and His blessings.
- ⇒ Peace means that we can have peace with God and with men; that we no longer have to feel that God is far way from us, nor that God is hovering over us, watching every little move that we make. God is not evil; He is not seeking every chance to condemn and punish us. God seeks only one thing with us and that is peace.

Peace also means that men no longer have to be divided, separated, and discriminated against; nor do they have to be fighting, warring, stealing, and killing each other. Man can now have peace—peace with God and peace with each other.

This is the first great declaration to the church. The great gifts of grace and peace are now available to man. But note where. It is not found among men. Neither God's grace (favor) nor the great gift of peace can be found upon earth. Grace and peace come only from heaven, only from God and His Spirit and His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ.

1. Grace and peace come only from the eternal and unchangeable God. Note how God is described: "God who is and who was and who is to come."

- ⇒ God is.
- ⇒ God was.
- ⇒ God is to come.

That is, God is eternal and He is unchangeable. He is the infinite God, the only living and true God. He is today as He was, and He shall be the same in the ages to come. This means the most wonderful thing: God has infinite power and knowledge. He knows that we need His grace, His care and provision, and His peace. And He has the power to give us grace and peace. All we have to do is go to Him—to Him who is the source of grace and peace.

"But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) and hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: that in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus" (Eph.2:4-7).

“And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus” (Ph.4:7).

“For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee” (Tit.2:11-15).

“Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour; that being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life” (Tit.3:5-7).

2. Grace and peace come from the Holy Spirit of God. Note that the Holy Spirit is called the “seven Spirits.” The number seven in the Bible simply means completeness, fulness, and perfection. Thus, the seven spirits means the Holy Spirit in all His fulness. The Holy Spirit is before the throne of God in all of His perfection and fulness. Therefore, the believer is to find grace and peace in the fulness of the Holy Spirit. It is the Spirit of God who lives within the believer in order to fill the believer with the grace and peace of God.

Thought 1. Our duty is to learn to walk in the Spirit; to allow Him to fill us with God’s grace and peace.

“But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you” (Ro.8:11).

“But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law” (Gal.5:22-23).

3. Grace and peace come from Jesus Christ. It is Christ who brought the grace and peace of God to earth. This is clearly seen in the next note.

“Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid” (Jn.14:27).

“These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer I have overcome the world” (Jn.16:33).

“Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus” (Ro.3:24).

“In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace” (Eph.1:7).

“For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us” (Eph.2:14).

“To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ” (Col.1:2).

2 (1:5-6) Jesus Christ—Redemption: announcement two—Jesus Christ is the great Savior, the great Redeemer. Five great things are declared about Jesus Christ in these two verses.

1. Jesus Christ is the faithful witness. He is the one Person we can depend upon. We can trust what Jesus Christ tells us. Jesus Christ came from God, out of heaven itself, to reveal the truth to us—the truth about God and man and man’s world. What Jesus Christ has revealed can be trusted. He is the faithful witness.

“Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness” (Jn.3:11).

“Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go” (Jn.8:14).

“Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice” (Jn.18:37).

2. Jesus Christ is the first to arise from the dead. That is, He is the first to arise who never again had to die. The words “first begotten” or “firstborn” mean to be the first in rank; to be supreme and preeminent in the resurrection. Of all the people who have arisen from the dead, Jesus Christ is Supreme. It is He who is the Son of God; therefore, it is His resurrection that is the supreme and preeminent resurrection. All other people arise because He arose. All believers shall arise to live with God eternally because He arose and conquered death for us. Because He arose, we too shall arise if we believe that He died and arose for us.

3. Jesus Christ is the prince of the kings of the earth. Jesus Christ has been raised from the dead and exalted to the right hand of God’s throne. He and He alone has been given the seat of Sovereign rule over the earth. The world may seem chaotic and the problems too enormous to be handled. But Jesus Christ is in control, and He is able to handle it all. However, man may legitimately ask: Why does God not go ahead and come and straighten out the chaotic mess and evil of the world? God tells us as plainly as human language can say it:

“[God] is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance” (2 Pt.3:9; cp. v.3-10).

Jesus Christ is delaying His return so that more people can be saved and live eternally with God. But some day, and from the weight of the evidence the day will be soon, Jesus Christ is returning to take over the rule of the world. He and He alone is going to rule and bring the reign of righteousness to earth. He alone is the prince of the kings of the earth.

“The earth is the LORD’S, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein” (Ps.24:1).

“Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in” (Ps.24:7).

“Now unto the King eternal, Immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever” (1 Tim.1:17).

“Which in his times he shall show, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords” (1 Tim.6:15).

“And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever” (Rev.11:15).

“These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful” (Rev.17:14).

“And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS” (Rev.19:16).

4. Jesus Christ has redeemed us. He “loves us and has washed us from our sins in His own blood” (v.5). The word love is in the present tense in the Greek. This means that Jesus Christ always loves us. He loves us today just as He has loved us in the past. The word “washed” (lusanti) means to be loosed, set free, and released from sin. How did the blood of Jesus Christ set us free from sin?

⇒ Jesus Christ took our sins and died for them. He had lived a sinless and perfect life as a Man upon earth. Therefore, He was able to present Himself as the Ideal and Perfect Man before God. He was able to die as the ideal and perfect sacrifice. He was able to take our sins—the guilt and the judgment of our sins—upon Himself and bear the punishment for them. He was the Ideal and Perfect Man; therefore, God is able to accept His death as the ideal and perfect sacrifice for sin.

The point is this: Jesus Christ died for our sins. He actually took our sins off of us, removed them, and died for them. Therefore, we are free and loosed from sin. Sin has been removed from us. We stand before God free of sin and acceptable to Him. But remember how: by the shed blood of Jesus Christ upon the cross. It is the shed blood of Christ upon the cross—His dying for our sins—that frees us from sin.

“Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father” (Gal.1:4).

“In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace” (Eph.1:7).

“In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins” (Col.1:14).

“Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation [behavior] received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot” (1 Pt.1:18-19).

“And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation” (Rev.5:9).

5. Jesus Christ has exalted us. He has actually made us kings and priests.

⇒ By kings is meant a kingdom, a rule, some authority and responsibility that involves overseership, management, supervision, and governing. Believers shall rule and reign with Christ. We shall oversee and administer the affairs of the universe for Christ throughout eternity.

“And he saith unto them, Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father” (Mt.20:23).

“The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together” (Ro.8:16-17).

“Do ye not know that the saints shall judge [oversee, have authority over] the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?” (1 Cor.6:2).

“And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: that in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus” (Eph.2:6-7).

“If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us” (2 Tim.2:12).

“And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father” (Rev.2:26-27).

“And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years” (Rev.20:4).

⇒ By priests means that we have open access into God's presence any time. Believers no longer need human priests or mediators. Believers are themselves made priests before God—all by Jesus Christ. Believers are now to offer their own prayers, praises, worship, thanksgiving, and offerings to God.

“I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service” (Ro.12:1).

“By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name” (Heb.13:15).

“Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ” (1 Pt.2:5).

3 (1:7) Jesus Christ, Return: announcement three—behold, Christ comes. This is the theme of Revelation, the coming again of Jesus Christ and the justice and judgment which He is to execute upon the earth. Jesus Christ is coming again, and when He comes, this verse says two things will happen.

1. Every eye shall see Him. The glory of God is so bright and so full of light that it actually shines brighter than the sun (cp. Rev.21:23). When Jesus Christ returns, there will be a display of His glory that will surround the earth, and the reflection of the Lord's glory will be seen by every eye. Remember also there will be an innumerable host of angels and believers who are accompanying Christ back to earth. The idea is this: there will be so many that they will surround the earth. Whatever the case, Christ in all of His glory and majesty is going to return to earth, and when He returns, every eye shall see Him.

2. Every person who has rejected Jesus Christ and crucified Him shall wail and mourn because of Him. This refers to all the enemies of Christ, not only to those who crucified Christ. Every person who has rebelled against Jesus Christ shall see Jesus Christ and they shall cry out in anguish because they have...

- cursed Him
- rejected Him
- ignored Him
- neglected Him
- rebelled against Him
- opposed Him

Men do not believe Jesus Christ: they reject His claim to be the Son of God, that He came from God out of (ek) heaven to save the world. Most persons accept that Jesus Christ was a great man and one of the greatest religious teachers of all time, but they reject His deity. They believe that man can be good enough to become acceptable to God on their own. Therefore, they reject the fact that Jesus Christ had to die for the sins of the world.

The result is going to be catastrophic: when men see Jesus Christ return to earth, they will then know that He is exactly who He claimed to be: the Messiah, the Anointed One of God, the Savior of the world. They will know that God does love the world, love it so much that He actually sent His Son to die for the sins of man. But note: when Christ returns, the idea is not that of salvation. It is that of wailing, of mourning and crying out, because of the judgment that Jesus Christ is bringing with Him. Jesus Christ, the Lord God of the universe, will be returning in glory to execute justice upon all who have rejected Him and worked evil upon the earth.

“And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory” (Mt.24:30).

“When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats” (Mt.25:31-32).

“Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels” (Mk.8:38).

“And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ” (2 Th.1:7-8).

“And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him” (Jude 14-15).

“Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen” (Rev.1:7).

“And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever. And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God, saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned. And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldst give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldst destroy them which destroy the earth” (Rev.11:15-18).

“And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war. His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself. And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God. And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean. And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS” (Rev.19:11-16, cp. v.17-21).

“He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus” (Rev.22:20).

4 (1:8) Jesus Christ, Person; Deity: announcement four—Jesus Christ is the Almighty God. Three great descriptions are given of Christ in this verse.

1. Jesus Christ is the Alpha and Omega. Alpha is the first letter of the Greek alphabet and Omega the last letter. That is, Jesus Christ is the beginning and the ending of all there is. He began all things and He shall end all things. All things find their purpose, meaning, and significance in Him. Man, the world, history—no matter how chaotic and disjointed life may seem—all things are under the control of Jesus Christ.

Thought 1. The exhortation is clear: we must put our trust in Jesus Christ and cast our lives upon Him. When we do, we receive the great gift of God spoken about in verse four. We receive the grace of God’s care and provision and the great gift of peace, and we become safe and secure for eternity.

“And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father’s hand” (Jn.10:28-29).

“Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you, Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid” (Jn.14:27).

“These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world” (Jn.16:33).

“But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) and hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus; that in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus” (Eph.2:4-7).

2. Jesus Christ is the Lord who is, who was, and who is to come. That is, He is eternal and unchangeable. Today He is the same Person He has always been, and He shall always be the same Person.

Thought 1. This is a great message for man. Jesus Christ loves us all; He loves us as much as He loved those who lived when He first came to earth. His love is unchangeable. But remember: so are His justice and judgment. If we trust Him, we shall know His love; if we reject Him, we shall know His wrath.

“For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works” (Mt.16:27).

“And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands: they shall perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment; and as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail” (Heb.1:10-12).

“Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever” (Heb.13:8).

“Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning” (Jas.1:17).

“Thy name, O LORD, endureth for ever; and thy memorial, O LORD, throughout all generations” (Ps.135:13).

“Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations” (Ps.145:13).

3. Jesus Christ is the Almighty (pantokrator). The word means the All-Controller, the All-Ruler. He is the One who controls all things and rules over all things in the whole universe. This means that Jesus Christ possesses all power: He is omnipotent, able to do anything. He controls everything: the universe and every being within the universe. He controls the atoms, protons, neutrons, and electrons of space and matter. He even controls every circumstance, event, and happening throughout the universe.

REVELATION 1:4-8

Thought 1. Jesus Christ is the Almighty. This means a most wonderful thing: no matter what a person goes through, if he belongs to Jesus Christ, all things will be worked out for his good. Jesus Christ will control the circumstances and twist them to the good of the believer. Nothing can snatch the believer out from under the control of Jesus Christ.

“And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose” (Ro.8:28).

“For I am persuaded, that neither death nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord” (Ro.8:38-39).

“Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature: for by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: and he is before all things, and by him all things consist” (Col.1:15-17).

“God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds; who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high” (Heb.1:1-3).

VISION ONE, 1:9-3:22

DIVISION II

THE MESSAGES OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST TO THE SEVEN CHURCHES, 1:9-3:22

A. The Son of Man, the Glorified Christ, 1:9-20

(1:9-20) Introduction: this is the first vision that Christ gives John. It is a vision of Christ Himself, of Christ in His glory and exaltation. It is in this vision that the glorified Christ proclaims His message to the seven churches. But before He speaks to the churches, Christ gives John a glimpse of Himself. Christ wants believers down through the centuries to know who it is that has given these messages to the churches. Christ wants all believers to know that the message to the churches is coming from the Supreme Majesty of the universe, from One who must be heeded, from One who possesses all power and knowledge, from One who can provide and protect, assure and secure, judge and destroy. This is the vision of the Author of Revelation, of the One who has given us this awesome message of Revelation. This is the vision of the Son of Man, the glorified Christ Himself.

1. The setting—Patmos (v.9-10).
2. His great, trumpeting voice (v.10-11).
3. His presence in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks or the churches (v.12-13).
4. His awesome and frightening appearance (v.13-16).
5. His reassuring presence and care (v.17-18).
6. His clear instructions (v.19).
7. His interpretation of the vision (v.20).

1 (1:9-10) John the Apostle—Patmos: the setting for the vision was the island of Patmos (see DEEPER STUDY # 1, Patmos—Rev.1:9). John says three things.

1. He calls himself a brother and a companion to the believers of the churches. By brother he means that he is a believer even as they are believers. They are brothers in the family of God, brothers to the Lord Jesus Christ and to one another, all having been adopted into the family of God. By companion John means that he has lived among the believers. He has walked day by day in their midst as a companion with them. But note: John had a particular experience in mind. He had been a companion with them in their...

- day to day tribulations: trials, afflictions, persecutions, sufferings, pressure.
- day to day seeking after the kingdom: looking for the kingdom of God, longing and seeking after it.
- day to day patience: enduring and persevering against all trials and temptations; standing fast in looking for and seeking after the kingdom of God.

“But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved” (Mt.24:13).

“We must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God” (Acts 14:22).

“If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us” (2 Tim.2:12).

2. John says that he was on the island of Patmos when Christ gave him the visions of Revelation. Note: he says that he was there for the cause of Christ; that is, he had been banished or exiled to the island for preaching the Word of God and the testimony of Christ (see DEEPER STUDY # 1, Patmos—Rev.1:9).

3. John says that he was in the spirit on the Lord’s day. The Lord’s day undoubtedly means Sunday, the first day of the week, the day that Christ was raised from the dead. In the spirit means that Christ put John in a trance, that He gave John a deep spiritual experience that lifted his mind and spirit above this world and put him in the very presence of Christ Himself.

Thought 1. Note how God met John’s need. John was alone, stranded on an island that was as barren and isolated as could be. Imagine being alone—banished from society, loved ones, and friends. But John knew Christ and Christ met his need.

“Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world” (Mt.28:20).

“Let your conversation [behavior] be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee” (Heb.13:5).

“Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you” (1 Pt.5:7).

“Fear thou not; For I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness” (Is.41:10).

DEEPER STUDY # 1

(1:9) Patmos: this was the island to which John the Apostle was banished.

- ⇒ It sat out at sea only about forty miles from the great city of Ephesus.
- ⇒ It sat in the midst of a group of islands called the Sporades.
- ⇒ It was only about ten miles long and six miles wide.
- ⇒ It was an isolated, barren, rocky island with hills rising to about one thousand feet.

There is little question about John being banished to the island for preaching the gospel of Christ. William Barclay gives abundant evidence for this.

“It was the unanimous tradition of the early Church that John was banished to the island of Patmos in the reign of Domitian.

“Tertullian says: ‘The apostle John was banished to the island’ (On the Prescription of Heretics, 36).

- ⇒ “Origen says: ‘The Roman Emperor, as tradition tells us, condemned John to the island of Patmos for witnessing to the word of truth’ (Homilies on Matthew).
- ⇒ “Clement of Alexandria tells us: ‘On the death of the tyrant John returned to Ephesus from the island of Patmos’ (The Rich Man’s Salvation, 42).
- ⇒ “Jerome says that John was banished in the fourteenth year after Nero and liberated on the death of Domitian (Concerning Illustrious Men, 9).

“This would mean that John was banished to Patmos about A.D. 94 and that he was liberated about A.D. 96.” (What Barclay says is outlined for clarity. The Revelation of John, Vol.1. “The Daily Study Bible.” Philadelphia, PA: The Westminster Press, 1959, p.51.)

Thought 1. In the darkest hours of human need God is always there. God will meet us if we will only cast ourselves upon Him and call for Him. This was true with John when he was exiled, and it was true with others in their dark exile. The Pulpit Commentary makes the following point.

- ⇒ It was in exile that Jacob saw God at Bethel (Gen.35:6f).
- ⇒ It was in exile that Moses saw God at the burning bush (Ex.3:1f).
- ⇒ It was in exile that Elijah heard the still small voice (1 Kings 19:3f).
- ⇒ It was in exile that Ezekiel saw the glory of the Lord by the river Chedar (Ezk.1:3f).
- ⇒ It was in exile that Daniel saw the Ancient of days (Dan.7:9f).

DEEPER STUDY # 2

(1:10) In the Spirit: John is said to be in the spirit four times (Rev.1:9-10; 4:1-2; 17:1-3; 21:9-10). These mark off the four major visions of Revelation. Note that the first vision is given by Christ coming down to John. But for the last three visions John is commanded to “come up here”; he is given the perspective of heaven upon the events which shall be hereafter.

2 (1:10-11) Jesus Christ, Exaltation—Glory: there was the great, trumpeting voice of the Lord. The vision begins. John hears a great voice behind him, a voice that sounded like the call of a trumpet. The idea of the trumpet is that of authority, of an overpowering and commanding voice.

- ⇒ The Lord proclaims that He is the Alpha and Omega (see note, pt.1—Rev.1:8 for meaning).
- ⇒ The Lord instructs John to write what he sees in a book and to send it to the seven churches of Asia.

Thought 1. Note that Christ was not giving John a message for himself, but for the church. He was to use what Christ was giving him for the edification of believers, to build them up in the faith. This is the great purpose for Revelation, the reason why it must be taught in the church: to edify and build us up in the faith.

3 (1:12-13) Jesus Christ—Church: there was Christ standing in the midst of seven golden candlesticks, that is, in the midst of the churches. The candlesticks represent the churches (v.20). Why this symbol? Jesus Christ is the Light of the world, and it is the task of the church to hold Him forth before the world. The church is to proclaim the light of Christ to the world, and it is to do so with the brilliance and speed of light. Note that Christ stands in the midst of the candlesticks. The churches receive their light from Christ. Unless He stands in the midst of the church, the church has no light. The church must see to it that Christ is in its midst, and the church must proclaim the light of Christ to the world.

Thought 1. For Christ to be in the midst of the church means that the message of Christ is the very focus of the church. The message of Christ is, of course, the Word of God, the Holy Scriptures. He is the very theme of the Scriptures and it was the Scriptures that He Himself proclaimed. The church must make absolutely sure that the Holy Scriptures are read, studied, taught, and preached among its people and to the community at large.

“The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined” (Is.9:2).

“In him was life; and the life was the light of men” (Jn.1:4).

“Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life” (Jn.8:12).

“Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth” (Jn.12:35).

“For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ” (2 Cor.4:6).

“Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light” (Eph.5:14).

“And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof” (Rev.21:23).

“Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid” (Mt.5:14).

“For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldst be for salvation unto the ends of the earth” (Acts 13:47).

“For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light” (Eph.5:8).

“That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world” (Ph.2:15).

4 (1:13-16) Jesus Christ, Exaltation—Glory: there was the awesome and frightening appearance of Christ. Note who it is standing in the midst of the golden candlesticks or churches. It is the Son of Man, Christ Himself. This means a most wonderful thing: the message of Revelation is from the Lord Himself. It is not the message of a man, not a message that we have to question and wonder about and search out to see if there is truth in it. Revelation is the message of Jesus Christ, of the exalted Lord Himself. It is a message that can be trusted, a message that is true from beginning to end. It is a message that we must heed, for it is the message of the Lord Himself.

Now, note the vision. John’s vision of Christ was so awesome that it defied description. There was no human language to describe Him. All John could do was take some of the precious and awesome things of earth and say the glorified Lord is like that.

1. Jesus Christ was clothed with a robe down to His feet (v.13). This was the robe of prophets (Zech.3:4), of priests (Ex.28:4; 39:29; Lev.16:4), and of kings and princes (1 Sam.24:5, 12). The robe symbolizes the prophetic, priestly, and kingly ministry of Christ.

- ⇒ As prophet, Jesus Christ proclaims the Word of God to us
- ⇒ As priest, Jesus Christ gives us access into the presence of God and makes us acceptable to God.

REVELATION 1:9-20

⇒ As king, Jesus Christ rules and reigns over all the affairs of the universe, and He protects and provides and works all things out for good to those who love and follow Him.

2. The chest of Jesus Christ had a gold sash strapped across it (v.13). This particular sash was something like the chestpiece or breastplate of the high priest on which the names of his people were engraved (cp. Ex.28:4; 39:29). The sash or chestpiece covered the heart. This symbolized that Christ holds His people and His church ever so close to His heart. They are all engraved upon the chestpiece of His heart and held ever so dear by Him. (See notes--Ex.28:15-30; 39:8-21 for more discussion.)

“For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord” (Ro.8:38-39).

3. The head and hair of Jesus Christ were as white as white wool and snow (v.14). This is the picture of Christ as the Ancient of Days, as being the eternal Lord of the universe. It is possible that this is also a picture of His sinlessness and purity of mind. The spiritual warfare is fought in the mind, and Christ never sinned; He never even had one evil or negative thought that came short of God’s glory. He was the sinless Son of God Himself.

“I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire” (Dan.7:9).

“To wit [O’ to know], that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation....For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him” (2 Cor.5:19, 21).

“And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory” (1 Tim.3:16).

4. Jesus Christ had eyes that were as a flame of fire (v.14). This symbolizes a piercing, penetrating power. He sees everywhere, even in the dark places and behind closed doors. His eyes search the innermost recesses of the heart. He knows all; He is omniscient and He is able to conquer all those who reject Him and do evil. No one will be able to hide from Him nor can anyone hide anything from Him.

“His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in color to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude” (Dan.10:6).

“Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do” (Heb.4:13).

“I the LORD search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings” (Jer.17:10).

“Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD, Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD” (Jer.23:24).

5. Jesus Christ had feet like fine brass or bronze. This symbolizes strength and perseverance. His feet are the feet that preached the gospel, the glad tidings of peace. But they are also the feet that shall tread down His enemies. His feet are also able to rush to the rescue of His people.

“How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth!” (Is.52:7).

“His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in color to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude” (Dan.10:6).

“And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!” (Ro.10:15).

“For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need” (Heb.4:15-16).

6. Jesus Christ had a voice that was like the sound of many waters rushing together (v.15). His voice symbolizes authority.

⇒ It sends forth the glorious message of salvation, hope, joy, confidence, and comfort.

“He that hath the bride is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom’s voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled” (Jn.3:29).

“And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice” (Jn.10:4).

“Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice” (Jn.18:37).

“For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words” (1 Th.4:16-18).

⇒ It thunders forth majestic rebuke, conviction, and judgment.

“The voice of the LORD is powerful; the voice of the LORD is full of majesty” (Ps.29:4).

“Therefore prophesy thou against them all these words, and say unto them, The LORD shall roar from on high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation; he shall mightily roar upon his habitation; he shall give a shout, as they that tread the grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth” (Jer.25:30).

“Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation” (Jn.5:28-29).

“And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven: and he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?” (Acts 9:3-4).

“Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me” (Rev.3:20).

7. Jesus Christ held seven stars in His right hand (v.16; cp. v.20). The seven stars symbolize the messengers, the ministers of the churches. His hand securely holds the messengers with skill and strength and comfort.

“And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever” (Dan.12:3).

“Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you” (Jn.15:16).

“But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel” (Acts 9:15).

“But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee” (Acts 26:16).

“Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world” (Mt.28:19-20).

“Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee” (Heb.13:5).

“And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry” (1 Tim.1:12).

“For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day” (2 Tim.1:12).

“And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever” (2 Tim.4:18).88

8. Jesus Christ had a sharp two-edged sword coming out of His mouth (v.16). This symbolizes the Word of God and its penetrating power (cp. 2 Th.2:8).

“For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart” (Heb.4:12).

“All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness” (2 Tim.3:16).

9. Jesus Christ had a countenance that was like the sun shining in its full strength. This symbolizes the dazzling brilliance of His presence in all of His majesty and honor and glory as God.

“For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works” (Mt.16:27).

“And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light” (Mt.17:2).

“And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was” (Jn.17:5).

“And Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest, and desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem. And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven: and he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks” (Acts 9:1-5).

“For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ” (2 Cor.4:6).

“Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing” (Rev.5:12).

5 (1:17-18) Jesus Christ—Assurance: there was the reassuring presence and care of the Lord. John was terrified. He fell at the feet of the Lord as though he were dead. But note the calm assurance of Christ. Christ reached out with His right hand and softly and tenderly touched John, assuring Him that He was not there to consume him. Christ said four things to John.

1. “Fear not—do not be afraid” (v.17). He was declaring that He had not appeared to John in judgment but in love and care. He was appearing to commission John and to use him in the great mission of building up the churches and of reaching the lost for God.

“But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear ye not therefore ye are of more value than many sparrows” (Mt.10:30-31).

“And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last” (Rev.1:17).

“Fear thou not; For I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness” (Is.41:10).

“Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine. When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee” (Is.43:1-2).

2. “I am the first and the last” (v.17). That is, He is the beginning and the end. He is the One who can be with a person forever—when the person is born and when he dies and during all the days in between. He can be with a person throughout all of eternity. John need not fear the awesome, terrifying presence of Christ, for He is the eternal Lord of the universe as well as the Savior of man.

“Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am” (Jn.8:58).

“And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was....Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world” (Jn.17:5, 24).

“I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last” (Rev.22:13).

3. “I am He that lives, and was dead; and behold, I am alive forevermore” (v.18). The exalted and glorified Lord need not be feared, for He is the same Person who came to earth and died and arose for our salvation. He is exalted and dwells in the most awesome and frightening glory, but He dwells there to save us, not to condemn us. He lives forevermore to make us acceptable to God and to carry us through the evil and death of this world.

“In him was life; and the life was the light of men” (Jn.1:4).

“I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly” (Jn.10:10).

“Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live” (Jn.11:25).

“Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me” (Jn.14:6).

“And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead” (Ro.1:4).

“That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved” (Ro.10:9).

“Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively [living] hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you” (1 Pt.1:3-4).

4. “I have the keys of hell and of death” (v.18). Jesus Christ is the Savior of the world. He has conquered death, and He can deliver us from judgment and hell. He has the keys to unlock both death and hell and to deliver us from the bondage of both.

“But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel” (2 Tim.1:10).

“Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; and deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage” (Heb.2:14-15).

“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away” (Rev.21:4).

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life” (Jn.5:24).

“Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also” (Jn.14:19).

“He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it” (Is.25:8).

6 (1:19) Revelation, The: there were the clear instructions of Jesus Christ. Christ repeats His commission to John. He tells John to write three things. Note: these things provide an outline for the book of Revelation. John was to write...

- the things that he had seen: that is, the vision of the glorified Christ (chapters 1-2).
- the things which are: that is, the state and condition of the churches (chapters 2-3).
- the things which shall be hereafter: that is, the consummation of human history, the coming again of the Lord Jesus Christ and the end of the world (chapters 4-22).

7 (1:20) Church, The: there was Christ interpreting the vision for John. The interpretation is clearly stated.

⇒ The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches. The word “angels” (angelos) means messenger as well as heavenly angels. There are several different ideas as to whom the word refers here. The weight of evidence points toward the meaning being the ministers of the churches.

⇒ The seven candlesticks are symbols of the seven churches. Remember what the symbol means: the church holds forth the light of the world, the glorious light of the Lord Jesus Christ.

“Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid” (Mt.5:14).

“For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth” (Acts 13:47).

“For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light” (Eph.5:8).

“That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world” (Ph.2:15).

“Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness” (1 Th.5:5).

CHAPTER 2
	B. The Message to Ephesus: The Orthodox Church, But A Church Without Love, 2:1-7	sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted. 4 Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love. 5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent. 6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. 7 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.	4 The complaint: They had left their first love 5 The counsel: Remember—repent—do 6 The warning a. Your church, the candlestick will be removed b. Your doctrinal purity is not enough 7 The promise: To the overcomers a. The tree of life b. Paradise

DIVISION II

THE MESSAGES OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST TO THE SEVEN CHURCHES, 1:9-3:22

B. The Message to Ephesus: The Orthodox Church, But a Church Without Love, 2:1-7

(2:1-7) Introduction: this passage begins the great message of Christ to the seven churches of Asia. But note a significant point: verse one says that Jesus Christ is addressing the church at Ephesus, but He is in the midst of all the churches. This means a most wonderful thing: the Revelation is for all the Lord's servants and followers. He gave the Revelation so that all believers could know the things that are to take place in the end time. But note: if Jesus Christ was making the Revelation to all of His servants, why is the letter addressed to only seven churches in Asia? Why was it not addressed to all the churches down through the centuries? The following chart clearly shows what we are asking:

- Revelation was addressed to these churches in Asia
- ⇒ Ephesus
 - ⇒ Smyrna
 - ⇒ Pergamos
 - ⇒ Thyatira
 - ⇒ Sardis
 - ⇒ Philadelphia
 - ⇒ Laodicea

- Revelation was not addressed to these churches in Asia
- ⇒ Troas (Acts 20:5; 2 Cor.2:12)
 - ⇒ Miletus (Acts 20:17)
 - ⇒ Colosse (Col.1:2)
 - ⇒ Hierapolis (Col.4:13)

Church history even tells us that there were other churches in Asia beyond these eleven. John certainly knew of them all. Why then address the Revelation to only seven of the churches? There has to be a reason, for Jesus Christ was giving the Revelation so that all of His servants would know about the events of the end time (v.1). What is the reason? Note that John does not say. He does not even give a hint. But two things tell us.

- ⇒ Thinking about the matter leads to one clear conclusion. The seven churches must be representative of other churches. The characteristics that are found in these churches must be the same kind of characteristics that are found in other churches. Each of these churches must represent a certain type or kind of church. In speaking to the seven churches, Jesus Christ expects every church to identify itself and to heed the exhortation given to each. He wants all followers to heed the truths of Revelation; therefore, He has selected seven churches that are representative of all churches.
- ⇒ The characteristics of the churches clearly show that the churches are representative of other churches. The conditions that existed in each of the seven churches differed, and as we study the different types of churches in society and throughout history, we clearly see that there are seven types of churches. Therefore, in addressing the seven churches, Jesus Christ was addressing all the churches of the earth. Each church, no matter its condition, can discover what kind of church it is by honestly taking inventory of its major traits and checking those traits against these seven churches. This is clearly seen as we study the messages to the churches.

The point is this: the messages to the seven churches were given for personal application. Jesus Christ expects us—all churches and all believers—to apply the messages to our own situation. Jesus Christ expects us to search our hearts and to heed the messages given to these churches. The first message is to Ephesus, an orthodox church, a church that was faithful to Christ and to the Word of God, but it was a church without love.

1. The recipients (v.1).
2. The speaker—Jesus (v.1).
3. The commendation (v.2-3).
4. The complaint: they had left their first love (v.4).
5. The counsel: remember—repent—do (v.5).
6. The warning (v.5-6).
7. The promise: to overcomers (v.7).

1 (2:1) Church—Minister: there are the recipients of this letter. The letter is addressed to the minister of the church as well as to the church. This is striking, for it means that the Lord holds the minister responsible for the church and its welfare. Christ expects the minister to study and heed the message himself and to lead the believers to heed the message.

DEEPER STUDY # 1

(2:1) Ephesus: at its height Ephesus was the most important city along the coast of Asia Minor. Two hundred and thirty cities dotted the coast line of Asia Minor. Many had ideal harbors, but Ephesus was the queen among these coast communities. The city had been founded to command one of the main highways of Asia Minor. Its attraction was not only its natural harbor, but the rich, fertile land that covered the inland area.

Ephesus was, of course, a great commercial city. Its natural harbor and strategic location on one of the main roads of the world made it such. However, in the middle of the first century, the harbor had silted up so badly that trade had declined dramatically from the days of Ephesian glory. There had been attempts to drag the silt out, but the efforts were half-hearted and finally abandoned. The people's hearts were just not in the effort. Part of the reason for this attitude was the successful and profitable trade Ephesus enjoyed from its religious cult. The great temple of Diana, or Artemis, was there. Diana was the goddess who had a grotesque head and many breasts and focused upon the sensual pleasure of the flesh. The worshipping pilgrims found their satisfaction in prostitution with a host of priestesses who plied the cult of the goddess. A great trade of silversmiths had developed over the years, and tourist commercialism boomed year-round. This accounts for the guild of silversmiths finding the crowds an easy mark for arousing opposition against Paul (Acts 19:24). As the years went by, the great harbor silted up more and more, and the Ephesians depended more and more upon the trade that came from their religion and superstition. The natural harbor of Smyrna, which lay close by, became a more suitable port and began to take away more and more of the commercial traffic of Ephesus. As a result Ephesus became a dying city, living on its past reputation as a religious and philosophical center. The great city of Ephesus had a disease, the disease of sensual unrighteousness, and the disease did its work: it corrupted the people. The people, sensual and self-centered, lost their will and willingness to ply a commendable trade. Thus, the disease of Ephesus proved mortal. The "lampstand" of Ephesus crumbled, and the light of Ephesus died out (see Rev.2:1-7, esp. 5).

The church in Ephesus had a small beginning. When Paul visited Ephesus, he found only twelve believers in the city. They had been won to the Lord by the immature but impressive preacher Apollos. As a result they had been misinformed on the presence of the Holy Spirit; they seemed to lack a consciousness of the Spirit in the life of the believer and the awareness that He had already been sent into the world (Acts 19:1-7). After Paul's instruction to these twelve, he began to teach in the synagogue. He taught for three months. But the Jews were hardened and refused to believe. They murmured against the message. Therefore, Paul moved the church into the school of a philosopher, Tyrannus. There he preached Christ for two whole years. During this time it is said that the church was instrumental in sounding forth the Word throughout all Asia: "So all they which dwelt in Asia heard the Word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks (Acts 19:10).

The Lord worked special miracles by Paul in Ephesus and the church witnessed some amazing things. From all evidence, the spectacular was necessary in order to get through to the people. As always, God did everything He could to reach a people. These experiences show the great love and movement of God toward man (see Acts 19:11-20). In viewing these accounts, we must keep the background of the city in mind. Ephesus was a hot bed of Oriental magic and superstition. The people were an emotional and sensual lot, easily moved to feelings. They were a devoted people, an expressive people, a loving people, and equally a lovable people (Rev.2:1-7, esp. 4).

As Paul preached and God worked miracles, many believed and the church grew mightily. The believers gave great evidence of changed lives by living for Christ right in the middle of an immoral and pagan society. On one occasion, the church demonstrated its new found faith by building a great bonfire and setting aflame all of its pagan and magical literature.

2 (2:1) Jesus Christ—Church: there is the speaker, Jesus Christ Himself. Note two significant facts.

1. Jesus Christ is the One who holds the ministers of the churches in His hands. This means that the minister...
 - is chosen and picked out of the world by the hand of Christ.
 - is nourished and nurtured by the hand of Christ.
 - is placed where he is by the hand of Christ.
 - is cared for, secured, and protected by the hand of Christ.
 - is given a very special closeness to Christ by being held in His hand.
 - is expected to be an instrument in the hand of Christ.
 - is responsible to the hand of Christ.
 - is to be held accountable by the hand of Christ.

2. Jesus Christ is the One who walks in the midst of the churches or the golden candlesticks. This means...
- that Christ is present in the very midst of the church.
 - that Christ sees and knows all about the church.
 - that Christ is present to teach and grow the church.
 - that Christ is present to provide and protect the church.
 - that Christ is present to guide and direct the church.
 - that Christ is present as the Light of the world to give light to the church.

Note also that Christ is in the midst of all the churches. He has no favorites; He shows no partiality whatsoever. There are no denominations and no barriers with Christ. If a body of believers truly follows Christ, He is in their midst, right there with them.

3 (2:2-3) Church—Believers: there is the commendation. The church is commended for five significant things.

1. The church worked and labored for Christ. The Greek means to labor to the point of weariness, sweat, and exhaustion; to work and labor to the limit of one's ability. The church was a working church, a laboring church, a church committed to serve Christ and to serve Him to the fullest.

Thought 1. There is no room for laziness or lethargy in the church of Christ. Christ expects every believer to labor for Him, to labor to the point of exhaustion. Note that Christ keeps an account of our work and labor. The idea is that He keeps a daily account: He knows every ounce of energy that we expend. He knows when we become tired and exhausted and can go no more. He also knows when we should be working and do not.

“For I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in: naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me” (Mt.25:35-36).

“Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven” (Mt.5:16).

“That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate [give]” (1 Tim.6:18).

“But to do good and to communicate [give] forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased” (Heb.13:16).

2. The church patiently endured. The word means to persevere and to be steadfast in serving Christ and in standing against all the temptations and trials of life. The church was steadfast in studying and proclaiming the gospel and in ministering to the needs of the needy.

“Therefore, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord” (1 Cor.15:58).

“In your patience possess ye your souls” (Lk.21:19).

“For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise” (Heb.10:36).

“My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing” (Jas.1:2-4).

“Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him” (Jas.1:12).

“Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain” (Jas.5:7).

3. The church could not bear those who were evil. This refers to sin and evil, men who were corrupt and polluted and who lived for the world instead of living for God. The church could not tolerate the sin and shame, dirt and pollution, filth and destruction of evil.

“Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God” (Mt.5:8).

“Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty” (2 Cor.6:17-18).

“Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God” (2 Cor.7:1).

“And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them” (Eph.5:11).

“Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us” (2 Th.3:6).

“That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works” (2 Tim.3:17).

“Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord” (Heb.12:14).

REVELATION 2:1-7

“Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation [behavior] and godliness” (2 Pt.3:11).

“I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me” (Ps.101:3).

“Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way” (Ps.119:104).

“For my mouth shall speak truth; and wickedness is an abomination to my lips” (Pr.8:7).

“The fear of the LORD is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate” (Pr.8:13).

4. The church tested all the preachers and teachers of the church and rejected the false. If a teacher confessed that Jesus Christ, the Son of God, had come in the flesh, he was accepted and allowed to teach. If he denied that Jesus Christ had come in the flesh, he was not allowed to teach. The church could not tolerate false teachers and stood against all false teaching. They were loyal to Christ. They did just what Scripture exhorts: they tested the spirits of the teachers.

“Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: and every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world” (1 Jn.4:1-3; cp. 1 Jn.2:22-23; Mt.7:15-20).

5. The church bore up under all for the sake of Christ’s name. This is a descriptive verse, a description that touches the heart of tender believers: the church...

- bore up
- patiently endured
- labored
- did not faint

Why? For Christ’s name sake. They did it all and bore so much for Christ’s sake.

⇒ They worked and toiled to the point of exhaustion.

⇒ They patiently endured.

⇒ They did not bear or put up with evil.

⇒ They tested and rejected false teachers.

This is a meaningful picture of a true church, a church that has surrendered itself to the Lord Jesus Christ. It is the picture of a church that is loyal and devoted to Christ, that is orthodox through and through. It is the picture of just what a church should be. But there is one thing lacking, one devastating and destructive thing that looms ever so large in the life of the church. This is the discussion of the next note.

“And ye shall be hated of all men for my name’s sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved” (Mt.10:22).

“He that findeth his life shall lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it” (Mt.10:39).

“And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name’s sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life” (Mt.19:29).

“For I will show him how great things he must suffer for my name’s sake” (Acts 9:16).

“We are fools for Christ’s sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised” (1 Cor.4:10).

“Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not...For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day” (2 Cor.4:1, 16).

“For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus’ sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh” (2 Cor.4:11).

“Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ’s sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong” (2 Cor.12:10).

“But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses” (1 Tim.6:11-12).

“In all things showing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine showing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity” (Tit.2:7).

“And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name’s sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted” (Rev.2:3).

4 (2:4) Church—Love—Backsliding: there is the complaint. The church had lost its first love. This probably means two things.

1. The church and its believers had lost their feelings for Christ. The Greek says, “your love the first [love].” Believers had left their first love. Christ was no longer first in their lives. They were putting themselves and their own affairs first, and they were putting the church first—the programs, services, ministries, and fellowship of the church. They had become more attached to the church than they were to Christ.

⇒ They had lost their feelings of warmth and tenderness for Christ.

- ⇒ They had lost their sensitivity to Christ, their fervor, spark, and unction.
- ⇒ They were not fellowshiping and communing nor praying and sharing with Christ—not like they did when they were first converted.
- ⇒ They were not walking in a consciousness and awareness of Christ’s presence, joying and rejoicing in Him throughout the day.

Simply stated, they were not having personal fellowship with Christ, walking and sharing with Him like they once did. They were not as attached to Christ as they had been. They were more attached to other things and other involvements of life. They loved their church and they had the right beliefs, and they were even ready to fight for the truth of Christ. But they did not love Christ, not in a personal and intimate way, not to the degree that they walked and shared with Him, fellowshiped and communed with Him all throughout the day, not in the sense that they took blocks of time and got alone with Him and prayed and shared with Him.

Thought 1. Picture a young man who falls in love with a young lady. He wants to spend time with her and share with her. He wants to become attached to her and make her first in his life. This should always be our desire with Christ.

“And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold” (Mt.24:12).

“Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him” (Jn.14:23).

“For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God” (Jn.16:27).

“Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity” (Eph.6:24).

“Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory” (1 Pt.1:8).

“Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love” (Rev.2:4).

“Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come into him, and will sup with him, and he with me” (Rev.3:20).

“Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; I remember thee, the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals, when thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown” (Jer.2:2).

2. The church had lost its love for people. The church saw a rupture take place in its fellowship and in its love for one another. When the church was first founded, a deep love existed among the members (cp. Acts 20:17-38). The church had a loving heart and a helping hand—a readiness to labor together even through persecution. But something happened. What? There is no explanation. So all the negative things that rupture a fellowship or erase love are applicable: criticism, grumbling, jealousy, a selfish mind.

“A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another” (Jn.13:34-35).

“This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you” (Jn.15:12).

“Let love be without dissimulation [hypocrisy]. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good” (Ro.12:9).

“Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment” (1 Cor.1:10).

“For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?” (1 Cor.3:3).

“Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently” (1 Pt.1:22).

5 (2:5) Repentance—Remember: there is the counsel. The Lord counsels the church to return to him. When a church or a believer goes astray, the Lord issues the very same call that He issues here: return. Three steps are involved in returning.

1. First, remember from where you have fallen. Think back over your former love for the Lord. Remember His presence:

- ⇒ the feelings of warmth and tenderness
- ⇒ the fervor, spark, and unction
- ⇒ the fellowship and communion with Him
- ⇒ the prayer and sharing
- ⇒ the consciousness and awareness of His presence
- ⇒ the joy and rejoicing of His presence that filled your heart

Again, remember the Lord’s presence, the love that existed between you and Him.

2. Second, repent: turn away from whatever has pulled you away from Christ and turn back to Christ. Something has drawn you away from Christ. You are attached to something more than you are to Christ. Something is consuming your thoughts and energies and keeping your mind from focusing upon Christ and fellowshiping and communing with Him. You are not flickering your mind to Him in prayer as you walk throughout the day. You are not sharing and communing with Him like you did. Something has replaced Him in your thoughts and attention. And you are more attached to that thing than you are to Christ. Repent—turn away from that attachment and turn back to Christ.

REVELATION 2:1-7

“Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand” (Mt.3:2).

“Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted” (Mt.5:4).

“I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish” (Lk.13:3).

“Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost” (Acts 2:38).

“Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord” (Acts 3:19).

“Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee” (Acts 8:22).

“And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent” (Acts 17:30).

“If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land” (2 Chron.7:14).

“Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon” (Is.55:7).

3. Third, do the first works that you did.

⇒ Begin now to flicker your mind to Christ and to take just a moment to pray. Do this all day long every so often. Acknowledge Him in all your ways, and He will direct your paths (Pr.3:6).

⇒ Take set times to get alone with Christ and study His Word and pray (2 Tim.2:15; 3:16; Eph.6:18).

⇒ Begin to walk just as Christ would walk if He were walking by your side—step by step and hour by hour. Do this from the moment you awaken in the morning to the moment you go to sleep at night.

6 (2:5-6) Warning: there is the warning. Christ warns the church that loses its love for Him. The warning is twofold.

1. There is the warning that Christ will remove the church (the candlestick) from its place. What does this mean? It means that Christ will remove the church...

- from being a true church.
- from being a true representative of Christ upon earth.
- from being a church of God’s true kingdom.
- from being in touch and in union with God.
- from being a true light and witness to the world.
- from being a church of the gospel of God.
- from His presence, from the light of His presence.

This is a terrible judgment. Just how terrible can be seen by looking at the opposite of the above. If a church has been removed by Christ then it means that the church...

- is not a true church; it is a false church.
- is not a part of God’s kingdom; it is a part of the world’s kingdom.
- is not in touch and union with Christ; it is only in touch and union with the world.
- is not a true light and witness to the world; it is a false light and witness to the world.
- is not in the presence of Christ and His light; it is in the darkness of this world.
- is not a church of the gospel; it is a church with a false gospel.

Thought 1. How many churches have been removed by Christ? How many churches...

- are lifeless?
- are dull?
- are mechanical?
- are nothing more than form?
- lack the presence of Christ in the services?
- lack the light and witness of Christ and His power?

2. There is warning that doctrinal purity is not enough. This warning is going to be shattering to some when Christ returns. Why? Because many are doctrinally sound, but they have lost their first love for Christ. Note how doctrinally sound the Ephesian believers were.

They had stood ever so strongly against the Nicolaitans. Just who the Nicolaitans were is not known. It is thought that they stressed two things:

- ⇒ that Christ had done away with the law of the Old Testament and had instituted the law of Christian liberty.
- ⇒ that the soul and spirit of man was far more important than his body.

The results of this doctrine are clearly seen. If there is no law to govern us, then we can do what we like just so we profess to believe in Christ. And if the spirit is what really matters, then I can do what I like with my body just so I take care of my spirit.

- ⇒ Think how many people feel that they can live like they want just so they attend and support the church. If they attend church, they feel they can live like they want during the week.

⇒ Think how many people believe they are eternally secure because they believe in Christ, have been baptized, and belong to a church. Yet, they live like they want during the week. They continue to seek the pleasures and possessions of the world, banking and hoarding and neglecting the spread of the gospel and a world of desperate needs. There is no evidence whatsoever of repentance and of a changed and holy life—no evidence of self-denial, of the sacrifice of all one is and has.

The point is this: the Ephesian church had preached and taught against the error of the Nicolaitans. They had refused to allow the error to enter the church. They were doctrinally sound; they stood staunchly for the truth of Christ and the Word of God. But they lacked the main thing: love for Christ. They had lost their love for Christ.

Thought 1. Note two things.

- 1) Christ did not do away with the law; He fulfilled it. He filled it up. That is, Jesus Christ embraces the law and so much more. He is now our ideal and standard. We no longer follow the law; we follow Christ. But remember: Christ embraces the law and much more. Therefore in following Christ, we end up keeping the law and walking in far more purity and holiness than what the law demands. (See DEEPER STUDY # 2—Mt.5:17; DEEPER STUDY # 2—Ro.8:3.)

“Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill” (Mt.5:17).

“For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh” (Ro.8:3).

- 2) The soul and spirit are important, but so is the body. We are to take care of our whole person: spirit, soul, and body. We are to keep both body and spirit pure and holy.

“I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God” (Ro.12:1-2).

“Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are” (1 Cor.3:16-17).

“What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s” (1 Cor.6:19-20).

7 (2:7) Promise—Overcomers—Victory: there is the promise to the overcomers. The word overcomer has the idea of conflict and struggle. The overcomer is a person who overcomes and conquers and gains the victory. He is the victor and conqueror. What is it that he is to overcome? Everything that pulls his heart and love away from Christ and attaches it to the world. Whatever possessions, whatever pleasures, whatever it is that has dampened the believer’s first love for Christ—it is that thing that the believer must overcome.

Note that the promise is made to individual believers; therefore, all believers are to hear the messages to the churches. A church as a whole may go astray, but it is the believer who must personally overcome. How? Let him who has an ear hear what the Spirit says, and let him heed and do what the Spirit says. If he does then he will be an overcomer.

Here are the glorious promises to the overcomer.

1. The overcomer shall be allowed to eat of the tree of life. This is the tree of God, the tree that gives life, both the fullness of life and eternal life.

The tree of life is first seen in the Garden of Eden. Adam lost his right to eat of it because of his sin and disobedience to God. Thus, he was banished from the garden and cut off from eating of the tree (Gen.2:9, 16-17; 3:22-24). Now, the tree of life is given to the faithful and victorious follower of Christ, but it is not guaranteed. Only some have a right to it (Rev.22:14), and the tree may be taken away (Rev.22:19).

“And out of the ground made the LORD God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil” (Gen.2:9).

“And the LORD God said, Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil: and now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever” (Gen.3:22).

“She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her: and happy is every one that retaineth her” (Pr.3:18).

“The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise” (Pr.11:30).

“Now when I had returned, behold, at the bank of the river were many trees on the one side and on the other....And by the river upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for meat, whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth new fruit according to his months, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary: and the fruit thereof shall be for meat [food], and the leaf thereof for medicine” (Ezk.47:7, 12).

“He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God” (Rev.2:7).

REVELATION 2:1-7

“In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations” (Rev.22:2).

“I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world” (Jn.6:51).

“Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness” (Is.55:2).

2. The overcomer shall become a citizen of the paradise of God. Paradise is heaven, the very dwelling place of God, the place...

- of eternal bliss and ecstasy
- of eternal perfection and life
- of eternal fulfillment and completeness
- of eternal love and joy
- of eternal peace and control
- of eternal work and pleasure
- of eternal duty and honor
- of eternal service and satisfaction

On and on the list could go. All that life is and was ever meant to be—that is what will be in the paradise of heaven. This is the glorious promise to the overcomer. (See DEEPER STUDY # 3, Paradise— Lk.16:23; DEEPER STUDY # 2—2 Cor.12:4 for more discussion.)

“And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise” (Lk.23:43).

“How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter” (2 Cor.12:4).

“He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God” (Rev.2:7).

Thought 1. The promises to the overcomer throughout this passage are meaningful. They are a dynamic challenge, a challenge to conquer whatever it is that keeps us from living for Christ.

DIVISION II

THE MESSAGES OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST TO THE SEVEN CHURCHES, 1:9-3-22

C. The Message to Smyrna: The Persecuted Church, 2:8-11

(2:8-11) Introduction: the church is sometimes called upon to suffer terrible persecution. This has always been true down through history, and it was certainly true in Smyrna. The church was under heavy attack from both the community and city officials. And there was even more horrible persecution lying over the horizon (v.10). But note: the church was faithful to Christ and His mission. The church was standing fast for the truth against all attacks. It was a church in which nothing was wrong, that is, nothing of any major significance. Therefore, it was one of the few churches that Christ did not have to warn. Smyrna is the picture of just what a church should be: a dynamic witness for Jesus Christ through all circumstances no matter the trial or temptation. It is the picture of a church that loves the Lord enough to stand up for Him even when the community attacks its witness.

1. The recipients (v.8).
2. The speaker—Jesus (v.8).
3. The commendation (v.9).
4. The counsel (v.10).
5. The promise: to overcomers (v.10-11).

1 (2:8) Church—Minister: there are the recipients of the letter. The letter is addressed to the minister of the church. Remember: the Greek word for angel (angelos) means both angel and messenger, that is, it can mean an earthly messenger. In the case of the church the meaning is the messenger or minister of the church. This is significant, for it means that the minister is held responsible for the church. In Smyrna’s case—in the case of the persecuted church—the minister is to take the lead in standing fast against persecution.

- ⇒ He is to stand forth for Christ and lead his people to stand for Christ.
- ⇒ He is not to buckle under and deny Christ; he is to lead his people not to buckle under and deny Christ.

No matter how severe the persecution may be, the minister of the church is to lead his people to hold the banner of Christ high. Even if it means martyrdom, the minister and his people are to do what Christ says to do in this letter.

DEEPER STUDY # 1

(2:8) Smyrna: there are three historical facts that seem to have a bearing upon the message to the church.

1. Smyrna means bitter. It received its name from myrrh, one of its chief commercial products. Myrrh was a gum-like resin taken from a shrub and was very bitter. It was used in making perfume (Ps.45:8), oil (Ex.30:23), for embalming (Jn.19:39), for purification of women (Est.2:12), and for relieving and dulling pain (Mk.15:23). It should be noted that this church was experiencing what its name said: bitter sorrow, affliction, and persecution (Rev.2:9-10).

2. Smyrna was a proud city—proud of its culture, its beauty, its commercial wealth, its social life. Its citizens called it the first city in Asia. There was a municipal vanity among the people. Everyone tried to climb the social ladder a step further than his neighbor. Everyone wanted the first place, the highest seat, the most recognition. To these, Christ proclaims loudly and clearly, “I am the first and last” (v.8); “I am the one who has the crown of life” (v.10).

3. Smyrna was persecuting the church severely. The city had a large number of Jews who were influential in city politics. Jews were, of course, steeped in the Old Testament and the prophecies of the Messiah. Many of the early converts to Christ were Jews. Here in Smyrna, the reaction of the Jews was severe. They reacted severely and did all they could to influence the city officials to stamp out the church. The Christian believer knew God personally and intimately; therefore, he could not worship or participate in the festivals to the god and goddesses of his day. He was marked. In some cases jobs were lost, and in all cases, social life within the city was severed. Mockery, abuse, scorn, and persecution were applied. When Jesus says He is the first and the last, it is a promise that He is with the believer through it all—from the very first to the very last (v.11). He knows what the believer is going through, for He has suffered not only the threat of death, but death itself (v.8).

2 (2:8) Jesus Christ—Church: there is the speaker, Jesus Christ Himself. Christ has a very special message for the church that is suffering trouble and persecution, and His message is wrapped up in two titles.

1. Christ says that He is the first and the last. He is the One supreme authority and ruler over life. Persecutors—government officials and some citizens who persecute and cause trouble for other people—may think that they hold authority over life, but they do not. They may claim to be the first and the last, to have the final word and authority, but they are deceived. There is only one first and last, only one supreme authority, and that is the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God Himself.

- a. This means that all persecutors, all those who afflict and cause trouble for others, had better take heed. They shall be judged if they usurp and take the authority over human life into their own hands. There is only one authority over life, and that is the Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, all people are to look to Him. Any person who persecutes and causes trouble for other people shall face His judgment.

“And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment” (Heb.9:27).

- b. This means that believers always have the presence of Christ with them through all the troubles and persecutions of life. Jesus Christ is the first and the last; He is always there. He is there with the believer...
- when the trouble first begins
 - when the trouble is going on
 - when the trouble ends

Jesus Christ is the first and the last; He spans time, all the minutes and hours of time. His presence covers all the problems, circumstances, and troubles of human life. Jesus Christ is always in charge of what happens to us. He controls the circumstances and trouble no matter what happens. Therefore, He will work all things out for our good.

“Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am” (Jn.8:58).

“Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world” (Jn.17:24).

“And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose” (Ro.8:28).

“Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?...Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord” (Ro.8:35, 37-39).

2. Christ says that He is the One who was dead and is alive again. The word “was” (genomenos) really means became. Christ became dead. His death was only a passing phase, an episode He had to go through. He experienced death, but death was only a passing thing for Him. He triumphed over it. Alive is aorist tense in the Greek, a once-for-all act. Once it is done, it is done—completed, finished. Jesus came to life again. He arose. Therefore, the message to the church at Smyrna is that no matter what they experience, it is a passing episode. Even if they experience death, it has been conquered. Christ has personally been there and triumphed over both pain and death. Therefore, the believer shall live forever even if he is martyred.

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life” (Jn.3:16).

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life” (Jn.5:24).

“And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day” (Jn.6:40).

“There hath no temptation [trial] taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it” (1 Cor.10:13).

“And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever” (2 Tim.4:18).

“Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; and deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage” (Heb.2:14-15).

“Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you” (1 Pt.1:3-4).

“The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished” (2 Pt.2:9).

3 (2:9) Church—Believers: there is the commendation. The church is commended for four things.

1. The church bore up under terrible tribulation (thlipsin). The word means affliction, the pressure of crushing affliction. This word indicates that the trials and persecution were most severe. But the believers were holding up under the attacks and refusing to deny Christ. They were faithful to Christ despite all the ridicule, mockery, abuse, cursing, loss of property, possible imprisonment and martyrdom.

“But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues; and ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles” (Mt.10:17-18).

“Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name’s sake” (Mt.24:9).

“But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name’s sake” (Lk.21:12).

“Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also. But all these things will they do unto you for my name’s sake, because they know not him that sent me” (Jn.15:20-21).

“They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service” (Jn.16:2).

“For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake” (Ph.1:29).

“Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution” (2 Tim.3:12).

“For consider him that endured such contradiction [hostility] of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds” (Heb.12:3).

“Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you: but rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ’s sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy” (1 Pt.4:12-13).

2. The church bore up under poverty. The idea is that of having nothing and of being destitute and beggarly. Apparently many were being forced out of their jobs and having their property confiscated as lawbreakers. What happened was this: Rome had instituted a law that said the state had to be the first loyalty of a citizen. To show that loyalty, the citizen had to proclaim his loyalty once a year. This he did by going before local government officials and making the statement, “Caesar is Lord.” Of course, a true believer and follower of Christ could not do this, for there is only one Lord, the Lord Jesus Christ. This was the reason the church was being attacked so severely and suffering so much. (See DEEPER STUDY # 1, pt.3—Rev.2:12 for more discussion.)

“And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head” (Mt.8:20).

“As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things” (2 Cor.6:10).

“For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich” (2 Cor.8:9).

3. The church was spiritually wealthy. They were outwardly poor, but inwardly they were rich toward the Lord and His mission. They were faithful to the Lord...

- loving Him and one another and even those who opposed them (agape love).
- ministering to all in need.
- studying and teaching the Scriptures.
- living righteous and holy lives.

And because of their faithfulness, they were filled with all the fulness of God’s presence. God poured out upon them the riches of His grace and the fruit of His Spirit. As they walked day by day, they were filled with...

- | | | |
|---------|-----------------|----------------|
| • love | • longsuffering | • faith |
| • joy | • gentleness | • meekness |
| • peace | • goodness | • self-control |

God flooded them and carried them through all their trials. He strengthened and settled them, empowered and assured them with His presence, the very presence of God Himself.

“But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal” (Mt.6:20).

“Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me” (Mt.19:21).

“Sell that ye have, and give alms; provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth” (Lk.12:33).

“The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, and what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power” (Eph.1:18-19).

“But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) and hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: that in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus” (Eph.2:4-7).

“Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ” (Ph.3:8).

“But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus” (Ph.4:19).

“And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus” (1 Tim.1:14).

“Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life” (1 Tim.6:19).

“By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh’s daughter; choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward” (Heb.11:24-26).

“Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?” (Jas.2:5).

4. The church bore up under all kinds of slander. The slander came especially from the Jews of the city. There was a large community of Jews in Smyrna. We know from historians that they were very prosperous and made large gifts to the arts and to the culture development of the city. As a result they were influential with the city officials and local Roman government. As stated, it was the Jews who were stirring up so much trouble against the church. Note how they went about it: they slandered the believers. They used their tongues to...

- ridicule
- mock
- lie
- spread rumors
- accuse
- backbite
- criticize
- murmur
- talk about
- tear down
- discriminate
- divide

But note what Christ says about the slandering Jews. They may profess to be Jews, but they are not. They are the synagogue of Satan. What does this mean? The Jews were God’s appointed people during the Old Testament period of history, before Christ came into the world. They were the people whom God had raised up to be His witnesses upon earth. But many of them had failed to believe and follow God. In fact, they had even killed God’s Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. The Jews in Smyrna professed to be Jews, to be followers of God, but they were not. They were persecuting the real followers of God, those who believed and worshipped the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God Himself. Therefore they were not worshippers of God—not of the true and living God. On the contrary, they were worshippers of Satan.

Thought 1. This is a strong message to every church. We are either an assembly of God, of the true and living God, or of Satan. It all depends upon whether or not we worship and serve the Lord Jesus Christ. We are a true church if we proclaim and stand up for Christ in the midst of an evil and corrupt world, a world that slanders those who live righteous and godly lives.

“Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven. But whosoever therefore shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven” (Mt.10:32-33).

“Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels” (Mk.8:38).

“If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us” (2 Tim.2:12).

“But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily [quietly] shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction” (2 Pt.2:1).

“Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also” (1 Jn.2:22-23).

“Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: and every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world” (1 Jn.4:1-3).

“Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God” (1 Jn.4:15).

4 (2:10) Faithful—Church: there is the counsel. Note: Christ tells the church that more persecution is coming. The devil is going to arouse the unbelievers of the world to attack them for ten days. The idea of ten is that of brevity, for just a short time. Note a significant fact: God was allowing the persecution, and the reason is given—that the believers might be tried. What does this mean? God was allowing them to be tried...

- so that they would draw closer and closer to Him and learn more from Him.
- so that their faith could be strengthened more and more and by such they could be stronger witnesses to the world. When some unbelievers saw the believers suffer for the hope of salvation, the Holy Spirit would be able to use their suffering to speak to them. (See note and DEEPER STUDY # 1—1 Pt.4:12 for more discussion.)

The counsel of Christ is a clear message to the church when it is being persecuted: do not fear but be faithful. Not to fear may seem difficult when one is in the midst of being persecuted. But we must remember who Jesus Christ is:

- ⇒ The first and last: He is in charge of all events and our lives are in His hands. He is with us from the first act of persecution to the last act of persecution (see note 2, Jesus Christ—Church—Rev.2:8 for more discussion).
- ⇒ The One who was dead and is now alive: He is living and exalted as the Supreme Lord of the universe. He is able to take care of us and make us dynamic witnesses for Him even in the midst of terrible persecution. He will comfort and strengthen us to be faithful. He will help us to stand fast against all the trials and temptations of life.

“But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows” (Mt.10:30-31).

“Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not” (2 Cor.4:1).

“And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God. For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake” (Ph.1:28-29).

“Be strong and of a good courage, fear not, nor be afraid of them: for the LORD thy God, he it is that doth go with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee” (Dt.31:6).

5 (2:10-11) Promise—Overcomer: there is the promise to the overcomers. (See note—Rev.2:7 for more discussion.) The promise is twofold.

1. The overcomer shall receive a crown of life. This simply means the reward of eternal life, of life that goes on forever and ever. Persecutors may take our life on earth, but quicker than the eye can blink, God transfers us to heaven. Men can kill the body, but they cannot kill the soul. They cannot extinguish our lives. If we are faithful to Christ, God takes us home to heaven to live with Him eternally. He crowns us with eternal life. (See note—Jas.1:12 for more discussion.)

“And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life” (Jn.3:14-15).

“He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him” (Jn.3:36).

“Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed” (Jn.6:27).

“And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand” (Jn.10:28).

“He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal” (Jn.12:25).

“And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent” (Jn.17:3).

“And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life” (1 Jn.2:25).

2. The overcomer shall be delivered from the second death. What is the second death? Scripture clearly tells us.

“And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death” (Rev.20:14).

“But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death” (Rev.21:8).

The second death is the lake of fire, the judgment of eternal hell and torment from the presence of God forever and ever. The believer who overcomes in persecution shall escape the second death, the lake of fire and torment. The believer may have to pass through physical death, but he will never go through the second death. He shall be transported immediately into the presence of God to live forever and ever.

Note the exhortation: he who has an ear, let him hear what the Holy Spirit says to the churches. It is the duty of every believer and every church to hear this message. We must all stand fast against the persecution of the world: ridicule, mockery, abuse, being bypassed and overlooked, neglected and ignored, being imprisoned and killed. We must be faithful. The promises are too great to lose: we shall receive the crown of life and never suffer the second death.

Thought 1. Note the certainty of this point: there is to be a second death. There is no question, no equivocation about the matter. It is stated simply and in a straightforward manner. There is to be a second death, a death from which all men should escape. How? By being faithful to the Lord Jesus Christ through all the trials and temptations of this life. We must be faithful to God’s Son even if it means standing firm in the midst of persecution.

“And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name” (Act 5:41).

“And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely: who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks. And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them” (Acts 16:23-25).

“The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together” (Ro.8:16-17).

“For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory” (2 Cor.4:17).

“Therefore I endure all things for the elect’s sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory” (2 Tim.2:10).

“For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance” (Heb.10:34).

“Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward” (Heb.11:26).

DIVISION II

THE MESSAGES OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST TO THE SEVEN CHURCHES, 1:9-33:22

D. The Message to Pergamos: The Corrupted Church That is Married to the World, 2:12-17

(2:12-17) Introduction: worldliness corrupts a church. Four things cause a church to become worldly.

- ⇒ The church and its members begin to participate in worldly functions.
- ⇒ The church and its members allow worldly activities to take place in the church and in the homes of its members.
- ⇒ The church begins to baptize and accept people as members who have not truly repented and turned from the world to Christ.
- ⇒ The church and its members allow false teaching and preaching.

Nothing corrupts a church any quicker than worldliness. Pergamos was a corrupted church, a worldly church. Pergamos is the picture of the corrupted church that is married to the world.

1. The recipients (v.12).
2. The speaker—Jesus (v.12).
3. The commendation (v.13).
4. The complaint: false doctrine and worldliness (v.14-15).
5. The counsel: repent (v.16).
6. The warning: God will come, oppose, and fight against (v.16).
7. The promise: to the overcomers (v.17).

1 (2:12) Minister—Church: there is the recipient of this letter. The letter is addressed to the minister of the church. If a church becomes worldly, the minister is responsible. Christ has called the minister to lead believers to a life of self-denial and holiness, to deny the possessions and pleasures of this world and live a pure and godly life. He has called the minister to lead believers to focus upon heaven and to live sacrificially. He has called the minister to teach believers to give all they are and have to reach the lost and to meet the desperate needs of the needy. Therefore, if the minister is not leading his people to live spiritual lives—if he is allowing them to follow after the pleasures and possessions of the world—if he is allowing the church to become corrupted with worldliness—the minister is responsible. This is the reason this letter is sent to the minister. It is the task of the minister to proclaim the truth of sanctification and separation to a worldly church.

DEEPER STUDY # 1

(2:12) Pergamos: the city had three overriding claims to fame that seem to have had a bearing upon the message to the church.

1. Pergamos was a beautifully situated city with an air of royalty about it. It sat on top of a huge mountain, arising ever so steeply and majestically out of a beautiful valley. The city's citizens could see the Mediterranean Sea some fifteen miles away. To the approaching traveller the city struck him with a sense of stately awe and royal authority. The church had a ready picture of "Satan's seat," (v.13) of what it was to suffer persecution at the hands of a royal city under the power of the prince of this world.

2. Pergamos was one of the cultural and religious centers of the world. It had been a capital city for some 400 years. Its library was second only to Alexandria, Egypt. But the city's most prominent feature was its acropolis, rising about a thousand feet in the midst of the city. Temple after temple had been built upon it. For example, there was a temple to Asclepius, a serpent-like god of healing. It was famous for its college of medical priests. But the most famous pagan altar was built to Zeus. It was an overpowering sight, built on a huge ledge that jutted out and towered above the city. It was the largest, most ornate, and most famous altar in the world. It was forty feet high and ninety feet square. The church knew what it was to live in a pagan society, as though Satan's seat itself was there (v.13). They knew what it was to be persecuted (v.13). But they also knew what it was to place their faith in Him with the two-edged sword (v.12). They knew Him who could provide the true spiritual manna (v.17) and assure them a new name in the future (v.17).

3. Pergamos was the imperial and administrative center of Asia. As such, it was the first city in Asia to openly support imperial worship, that is, the worship of the state and its leader. What happened was this: Rome's conquest of the world had brought about peace by which food and trade and prosperity could more easily be secured. Life became much easier and more comfortable for many. As a result, a Roman spirit arose in many quarters. Roman government capitalized on this unifying spirit and began to center it in the Emperor Caesar himself. Gradually the government erected temples, altars, and images in Caesar's honor and he became a god. Finally, a law was issued requiring every citizen throughout the empire to go to the temple once a year and bow and say, "Caesar is Lord." To prove that a man had performed this loyal act to Rome, a written certificate was required to be in his possession. The church again knew what Christ meant when He claimed to be the One with the "two-edged sword" (v.12). They took great confidence in the fact that He knew "where they dwelt" (v.13). They knew what it was to live where "Satan's seat is" (v.13), and what it was to suffer martyrdom because they refused to deny Christ (v.13).

2 (2:12) Jesus Christ—Church: there is the speaker, the Lord Jesus Christ Himself. A church that is corrupted by worldliness is committing a very serious crime against Christ. It is such a critical matter that Christ Himself delivers this message to the church. And note how Christ describes Himself: He is the One who has the sharp two-edged sword in His mouth. This means at least two things.

1. The sword of His mouth means His Word, the Word of God. The one thing needed in a worldly church is the Word of God.

⇒ The Word of God is sharp: it will cut through the most worldly and hardened heart. It will convict and convince the worldly of their sins and cut a sharp gash, separating the sinner from his sin.

⇒ The Word of God is a two-edged sword: it proclaims the law of God and the utter necessity of living a righteous life or else facing judgment and destruction. On the other side it proclaims the love and grace of God to those who separate from the world and follow the Lord Jesus Christ. As Matthew Henry says: "There is an edge to make a wound, and an edge to open a festered wound in order to its healing" (Matthew Henry's Commentary, Vol.6. Old Tappan, NJ: Fleming H. Revell, p.1127.)

"And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God" (Eph.6:17).

"And then shall that Wicked [antichrist] be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming" (2 Th.2:8).

"For the word of God is quick and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart" (Heb.4:12).

"And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp two-edged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength" (Rev.1:16).

2. The sword of His mouth means the power and judgment of His Word. As shall be seen in the next note, the believers in Pergamos were being persecuted and some were even being martyred for their faith. Some government officials were misusing the power of the sword or execution. They were slaying innocent people, in particular believers who refused to deny Christ. Jesus Christ is proclaiming that the power of His sword—the power of His Word—is far greater. He holds the power of life and death over all men. He can speak the Word and snatch the life away from any person. Therefore, all men must heed this message. Those who do evil are hereby warned.

"Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth" (Rev.2:16).

Note another point as well: this is a great promise to believers. If the Word of Christ is all powerful, then Christ can look after and take care of us no matter what confronts us. His power, the sword of His Word, is able to strengthen, deliver, and save us. And if it is our time to leave this world, His Word is able to transfer us right into God's presence to live perfected forever and ever.

"Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us" (2 Cor.1:10).

"And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever" (2 Tim.4:18).

"Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; and deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage" (Heb.2:14-15).

"And he said, The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer" (2 Sam.22:2).

3 (2:13) Church—Believers: there is the commendation. The church is commended for three things.

1. The church was loyal to Christ's name despite the environment. The church had been established in a cesspool of worldliness, a city of people who were consumed with the pleasures, possessions, and comforts of the world. Note: Christ refers to the city as the seat of Satan. However, the believers were refusing to deny Christ. Once a year they could have easily made their public confession that Caesar is Lord, but they refused. They knew better; they knew that Christ and Christ alone was Lord. They could have gone quietly about their affairs and never mentioned Christ except when they met for worship. But this they refused to do. They wanted their loved ones, neighbors, and friends to know the salvation and hope of eternal life that was now available in Christ. Therefore, they bore testimony to Christ. They refused to deny Him. They refused to bow the knee and make a false profession to a false god, even if that god was Caesar, the state religion. They held fast to the only name that could really save them, the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

“Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven” (Mt.10:32-33).

“Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels” (Mk.8:38).

“Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God” (Lk.12:8).

“That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation” (Ro.10:9-10).

“And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father” (Ph.2:11).

“If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us” (2 Tim.2:12).

“Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also” (1 Jn.2:22-23).

“Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God” (1 Jn.4:15).

2. The church was pure in doctrine. They had not denied the faith of Christ. They believed Christ and the Word of God, studied and taught it. They had neither denied Christ nor His Word. The Word of God was being preached and taught every week from the pulpit and classes of the church.

“But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention. For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile: but as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth out hearts. For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness; God is witness: nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ” (1 Th.2:2-6).

“If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained” (1 Tim.4:6).

“I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom; preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine” (2 Tim.4:1-2).

“Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers” (Tit.1:9).

“But speak thou the things which become sound doctrine” (Tit.2:1).

3. The church was standing fast in persecution. At least one believer had been martyred, Antipas. Nothing is known about this dear believer other than what is recorded here. Tradition says that he was placed inside a brazen bull and slowly roasted to death (A.T. Robertson. Word Pictures In The New Testament, Vol.6. Nashville, TN: Broadman Press, 1933, p.305).

Note: the word “martyr” (martyr) is the regular Greek word for witness. A.T. Robertson says that Antipas was a witness just as Jesus said we should be (Acts 1:8). Christ gave this dear man His own title: “my faithful one” (cp. Rev.1:5; 3:14). He was faithful unto death.

Thought 1. This is a sharp rebuke to us today. Just think: the word witness and martyr mean the same thing. The early believers knew exactly what it meant to become a follower of Christ: it meant the commitment of all they were and had. It meant the possibility of death. As William Barclay says:

“In the early Church to be a martyr and to be a witness were one and the same thing. Witness meant so often martyrdom. An early Christian knew quite well what he was doing; as soon as he became a Christian he had made himself liable to death. Here is a rebuke to us. There are so many who are pre*pared to demonstrate their Christianity in Christian circles, but who are equally prepared to play down their Christianity in circles where Christianity is met with ridicule, with contempt, with indifference or with opposition. The Christian must remember that the word martus means equally martyr and witness, and that Christian witness can be, and often must be, a costly thing" (The Revelation of John, Vol.1, p.113f).*

"But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues; and ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles" (Mt.10:17-18).

"Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake" (Mt.24:9).

"But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake" (Lk.21:12).

"Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also. But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me" (Jn.15:20-21).

"They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service" (Jn.16:2).

"For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake" (Ph.1:29).

"Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution" (2 Tim.3:12).

"For consider him that endured such contradiction [hostility] of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds" (Heb.12:3).

"Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you: but rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy" (1 Pt.4:12-13).

4 (2:14-15) Teaching, False—Balaam-ism—Nicolaitans: there is the complaint. The church was guilty of false doctrine and of gross worldliness. Note two charges against the worldly church.

1. The worldly church is guilty of the doctrine of Balaam. What does this mean? It means that corruption and worldliness are within the church itself; it means a mixture of religion and worldliness. Balac, the Moabite king reigning adjacent to Palestine, feared Israel. To protect his kingdom, he sought the services of Balaam, a prophet, to curse Israel. When the king first approached Balaam, Balaam refused. But he accepted the second offer. Three times Balaam cursed Israel, but with no results. He then conceived an insidious plan. He would corrupt them. He suggested Moabite girls seduce Israel's men to intermarry and lead them to worship their idolatrous gods (Num.22-25; cp. 31:16). The scheme worked. And Israel, though rooted in God, became unequally yoked together with worldliness and was thereby corrupted.

Apparently what had happened in the Pergamos church was this: the church...

- had baptized some persons who had never repented and forsaken the ways of the world.
- had allowed some of the worldly to teach in the church.
- had allowed a mixed membership of believers and unbelievers: some were living separated lives of holiness and sacrificial commitment for the cause of Christ, and others were living worldly lives seeking the pleasures and possessions of this world.

The result was tragic: there were those within the church committing fornication, that is, all kinds of sexual sins; and there were those participating in the drunken parties of the world, even to the point of participating in the feasts of idolatrous worshippers. (See outline and notes—1 Cor.10:14-11:1 for more discussion.)

"And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation" (Acts 2:40).

"But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat" (1 Cor.5:11).

"Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?" (2 Cor.6:14).

"Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty" (2 Cor.6:17-18).

"And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them" (Eph.5:11).

"Now we comand you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us" (2 Th.3:6).

"Take heed to thyself, lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land whither thou goest, lest it be for a snare in the midst of thee" (Ex.34:12).

"Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful" (Ps.1:1).

2. The worldly church is guilty of making the false profession of the Nicolaitans (see note, pt.2—Rev.2:5-6 for discussion and verses).

5 (2:16) Repentance: the counsel is to repent. The church and its believers needed to repent and to change their ways. What does this mean? The church and the true believers...

- needed to deal with those who were worldly and lead them to repentance.
- needed to change its practice of accepting people into the church just because they professed Christ. There needed to be evidence of repentance.
- needed to discipline those who refused to repent and chose to continue on in their worldly living.
- needed to stop conveying a sense of false hope and false security to unbelievers by baptizing them when they made profession without true repentance.
- needed to stop allowing the worldly to seduce, deceive, and mislead other believers in the church.

“Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand” (Mt.3:2).

“I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish” (Lk.13:3).

“Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost” (Acts 2:38).

“Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord” (Acts 3:19).

“Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee” (Acts 8:22).

“And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent” (Acts 17:30).

“If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land” (2 Chron.7:14).

“Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon” (Is.55:7).

6 (2:16) Warning: there is the warning. Christ warns the church that becomes worldly. He will come quickly and make war against the worldly. Note this: the Lord is not going to punish the faithful believers who are spiritual minded. He is going to punish only those who refuse to repent of their worldliness. The anger of Christ is always against the impure. Christ will never punish the spiritual members of a church; He will only punish the worldly members. Note how: with the sword of His mouth, that is, with the power of His Word. His Word is strong enough to judge all the worldly, no matter who they are or how many there may be.

Thought 1. Note this: the church as a whole is responsible for allowing worldly people to be baptized. The command of Christ is to repent and believe the gospel. True belief always involves repentance—a turning away from the world to Christ—total denial of self—the total commitment of all one is and has to Christ and His cause of world missions.

“How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him” (Heb.2:3).

“Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching” (Heb.10:25).

“Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness” (2 Pt.3:17).

7 (2:17) Overcomers—Promise: there is the great promise to the overcomers. The promise is twofold.

1. The overcomer is given the right to eat the manna or bread of heaven. This is a reference to the manna that was used to feed the children of Israel during their wilderness wanderings. God actually caused the manna or bread to be rained down from heaven upon them (Ex.16:4). The point to note is that the manna was given by God to feed them and to keep them alive during their wandering upon this earth. Now, what does the hidden manna mean? What is the bread of heaven? It means Christ Himself. The overcomer is given the right to feed upon Christ. This is exactly what Christ Himself said.

“Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world” (Jn.6:32-33).

“And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst” (Jn.6:35).

“I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world” (Jn.6:51).

“This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever” (Jn.6:58).

The bread or manna of God is not physical and material bread: it is spiritual. God actually promises to provide for the physical necessities of His followers (Mt.6:24-33). But physical and material bread is not what Christ was talking about in this passage. Physical and material bread lasts only for a short while. Once consumed, it is gone. Its satisfaction passes and man's gnawing hunger arises again. But the bread God gives is spiritual bread, that is, spiritual food for the soul (see note—Eph.1:3). It is the bread that man really needs more than anything else on earth. It is the only bread that can permanently feed and meet the need of man's...

- gnawing hunger
- restlessness
- emptiness
- vacuum
- loneliness
- lack of purpose, meaning, and significance

“This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die. I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world” (Jn.6:50-51).

“Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you. Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day” (Jn.6:53-54).

“As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me. This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever” (Jn.6:57-58).

The heavenly Bread, Christ Himself, gives life to man. The very purpose of bread is to give life. Bread gives life by...

- nourishing and sustaining
- satisfying
- energizing
- creating desire (the need) for more (See note—Lk.4:3-4. Cp. Neh.9:15.)
- being eaten on a regular basis

Note that Jesus Christ Himself gives life to the overcomer by doing the very same thing. Jesus Christ...

- nourishes and sustains
- satisfies
- energizes
- creates desire (the need) for more (See note—Lk.4:3-4. Cp. Neh.9:15.)
- feeds us on a regular basis

The point is clearly seen: the person who overcomes worldliness—who stops feeding upon the world—that person will be given the food of heaven itself. He will be allowed to eat the eternal bread of heaven. He will never die.

Note that manna is hidden. This simply means that Christ is hidden to the worldly people of the earth. The worldly do not see nor feed upon the bread of heaven. Christ is hidden from the worldly.

2. The overcomer is given a white stone with a new name written on it. There are an endless number of guesses about what this stone is. Only one thing is clear in this reference to it, and it is best to stick to the Scripture. The white stone is the means of being admitted into heaven, into God's presence. The overcomer is allowed into God's presence because of the white stone. Note that a new name is written upon the stone. This must mean either the name of Jesus Christ or of the believer himself.

- ⇒ If the name is that of Christ, then the meaning is this: the name of Jesus Christ is the only name accepted for entrance into heaven. A person must have the white stone with Christ's name written on it in order to be admitted into God's presence.
- ⇒ If the name is that of the believer, then the believer is given the white stone as his ticket into heaven. The stone must have his name on it in order to be admitted.

Note: the church member who has an ear must hear this message to the worldly church. He can never overcome the attacks of worldliness unless he heeds this message. Hearing and heeding is his only hope of ever conquering the seductive worldliness of this earth.

“Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me” (Jn.14:6).

DIVISION II

THE MESSAGES OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST TO THE SEVEN CHURCHES, 1:9-3:22

E. The Message to Thyatira: The Compromising or Permissive Church, 2:18-29

(2:18-29) Introduction: compromise will destroy a church. We live in a world of compromise where people seek their own interests at any cost. People sell their souls for the possessions, power, and pleasures of this world. People young and old alike will compromise and go along; they will do almost anything...

- to get attention
- to be popular and acceptable
- to secure their jobs
- to get promotions
- to get good grades
- to get more money
- to get bigger houses
- to live in a better neighborhood
- to get more power

On and on the list could go, but the point is clearly seen. People compromise what they know is right in order to get what they want. This was what the members of the church at Thyatira were doing. The church at Thyatira is a picture of the compromising church, a church full of believers who were compromising with the world in order to fulfill their personal desires.

1. The recipients (v.18).
2. The speaker—Jesus (v.18).
3. The commendation for works (v.19).
4. The complaint: allowing a Jezebel to teach (v.20-21).
5. The warning to the compromising and corrupt (v.22-23).
6. The counsel: to the faithful (v.24-25).
7. The promise: to overcomers (v.26-29).

1 (2:18) Church—Minister: there is the recipient. The minister is responsible for the church; therefore, the Lord addresses this letter to him. The minister is to proclaim the truth to the church that is compromising with the world. If some of the members have begun to compromise with the world, it is the minister's duty to declare the Word of Christ to them, to proclaim exactly what Christ says in this message. And note how serious the problem of compromise is to Christ.

Thyatira was the smallest of the seven churches, but this message is longer than any of the others. Christ has more to say to a compromising church than to any other.

DEEPER STUDY # 1

(2:18) Thyatira: there are two historical facts that seem to have a bearing upon the Lord's message to the church.

1. Thyatira was a frontier town—the least important city of the seven mentioned in Revelation. It lay on the road that stretched through a long valley between Pergamos and Sardis. It had no defensible surroundings. Its citizens could only hope to fight a delaying action for Pergamos. The church knew what it was to hope in One who could see all circumstances and who could trample all enemies under His foot (v. 18, 26-27). The church knew what it was to hold fast (v.26-27).

2. Thyatira was renown for its trade guilds or unions. These guilds had two prime functions: business and social. The city's two major industries were dye and wool. These products plus the major road that ran through the city brought merchants from all over the world. The very life of the community was centered in the trade guilds or unions. Their functions often involved a meal that was usually held within the temple precincts. The social included a sacrifice to the gods and frequently ended up being a drunken immoral affair.

Note that the church knew the attraction of Jezebel's seductive teaching. This probably refers to a woman within the church who was teaching an idea that seemed to be very practical and reasonable. What was it? That believers could support the social functions of their trade guilds or unions, even if the social function was worldly. Believers had to participate in the community's social and business functions in order to secure themselves and their jobs and in order to prosper. Lowering Christian holiness and morality was necessary in order to guarantee social acceptance and the survival of one's job or business (v.20). It was felt that God would understand. But the church knew Him "who has eyes like a flame of fire" and sees all (v.18-19). It knew Him who was to trample all enemies under His feet (v.18) and who was to search the hearts of all and reward them according to their works (v.23). Note Thyatira is the city from which Lydia, the seller of purple, came (Acts 16:14, 40).

2 (2:18) Jesus Christ—Church: there is the speaker, the Lord Jesus Christ Himself. Note how Christ describes Himself to the compromising church.

1. Christ declares that He is the Son of God. He is the One to whom a person owes his life. A person is not to give his life over to the world nor to anyone else. He is to give his life to the Son of God, to Jesus Christ Himself. A person is...

- to believe Christ
- to follow Christ
- to obey Christ
- to become attached to Christ
- to love Christ

No person, especially a believer, is to compromise with the world. There is to be no attachment and no love for the world. A person owes his life, all he is and has, to the Son of God.

"And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me" (Lk.9:23).

"If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple" (Lk.14:26-27).

"For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live" (Ro.8:13).

"And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts" (Gal.5:24).

"Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world" (1 Jn.2:15-16).

2. Christ declares that His eyes are like a flame of fire. Christ sees all. He sees when a person is compromising, compromising in the dark, behind closed doors, in parked cars, in the offices and houses of the world. He sees all compromise that lies, steals, cheats, commits immorality, becomes intoxicated, takes drugs. He sees all seductive teaching and misleading of people within the church. He sees and hears and rewards all according to their works (v.23). And note: He also sees and aids the faithful to stand fast when they are tempted (v.25).

"If I sin, then thou markest me, and thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity" (Job 10:14).

"For now thou numberest my steps: dost thou not watch over my sin?" (Job 14:16).

"For though thou wash thee with nitre, and take thee much soap, yet thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the Lord God" (Jer.2:22).

"For mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes" (Jer.16:17).

"And the Spirit of the Lord fell upon me, and said unto me, Speak; Thus saith the Lord; Thus have ye said, O house of Israel: for I know the things that come into your mind, every one of them" (Ezk.11:5).

"And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are before my face" (Hos.7:2).

“For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right” (Amos 5:12).

“For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known” (Lk.12:2).

“Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God” (1 Cor.4:5).

3. Christ declares that His feet are like brass. Christ is able to step down hard upon all seductive teaching and compromise. He rules and He judges. His feet shall crush all those who compromise with the world. In addition, His feet shall crush all false teachers of compromise. The reason is clear: He is the only true spokesman and messenger of God. All others are false. Therefore, they must be judged and cursed. Note that Jezebel was claiming to be a prophetess, a spokesman, a messenger of God.

“The wise man’s eyes are in his head; but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also that one event happeneth to them all” (Eccl.2:14).

“In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel” (Ro.2:16).

“And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him” (Jude 14-15).

“And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God” (Rev.19:15).

“Before the LORD for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth” (Ps.96:13).

3 (2:19) Church—Believers: there is the commendation. Thyatira was a very active church, involved in all kinds of works for the Lord. And note: Christ says that He knows all about their works for Him:

“I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first” (v.19).

1. There were works of love and service. These would include ministries that especially showed love. That is, ministries that concentrated upon showing care and interest, concern and provision. Such ministries would include...

- evangelism: reaching out to the lost
- the youth: growing and developing them
- the adults
- the senior adults
- the college students
- the needy
- the orphans
- the hungry
- the homeless
- the shut-ins
- the foreigners
- the prisoners
- the poor
- the single parent and child

2. There were works of faith and patient endurance. These would include ministries that demanded strong faith and endurance in order to carry them out. It would include...

- lacking the money or personnel or space or some other resource, but believing God and sticking to it until the ministry was operating.
- facing opposition, but believing God and going ahead and persevering in the ministry.
- facing a difficult ministry such as visiting unbelievers or prisoners or derelicts or whatever, but trusting God and going ahead anyway.
- being required to sacrifice time or money or possessions, but doing it because one believes God.
- being tired and weary and not wanting to participate in a particular ministry, but trusting God and going ahead and persevering in it.
- feeling inadequate and incapable, but accepting the challenge, believing God, and enduring in the ministry.

3. There was even a significant growth in the ministries of the church. The church grew and expanded. It reached out more and more. It was apparently as active as it could be, ministering to the community in every way that a church should, and it continued to grow.

Thought 1. Think of the kind of church being described: dynamic, vibrant, alive—meeting all the social needs of the community—having all the ministries that ranged all the way from a clothes and food closet over to reaching out to the lost in a regular visitation program. The church was full of activity and energy and crowded with people. Yet, the church was a far cry from what it should have been. It was a compromising and corrupted church.

It was allowing a teacher to teach who compromised with the world, and it was allowing the worldly to be baptized and accepted into the church without repenting and separating from the pleasures, possessions, and immoralities of the world. The church appeared to be the most alive and dynamic church in the area, but it was not—not to the Lord. To the Lord the church was corrupt because of its compromise with the world. This is the discussion of the next note.

4 (2:20-21) Church—Backsliding—Teaching, False: there is the complaint. The complaint immediately arouses our interest, for the name Jezebel is used. The church is charged with allowing a Jezebel to teach in the church. This means two things.

1. The church was tolerating a false prophetess to teach within the church. Note that she called herself a prophetess. She claimed that God had called and gifted her to teach and proclaim the truth. Therefore, the church appointed her as a teacher and gave her the right to teach within the church.

2. The church was tolerating false teaching, seduction, fornication, and idolatry. This is exactly what is said in the verse.

- a. First, Jezebel, the false teacher, was actually teaching in the church. Contrary to Christ and the Word of God, the church was allowing her to spread her false teaching.
- b. Second, Jezebel, the false teacher, was being allowed to seduce the Lord's servants. She was arguing, presenting reasonable arguments, deceiving, misleading, and beguiling the servants and followers of the Lord. And the church was allowing it.
- c. Third, Jezebel, the false teacher, was seducing the believers to commit fornication, that is, all manner of immoral acts. How could such teaching be allowed within the church? By a very insidious teaching, and note: the teaching has continued on down through the centuries, so much so that it now infiltrates many churches. She was teaching...
 - that believers could not separate themselves from the world, not entirely, not without becoming exclusive and snobbish.
 - that believers needed to be sensible in dealing with the world and its functions: they needed to be participating in some of the world's functions in order to be friendly, keep their jobs, secure promotions, help their businesses, keep from being considered fanatical, and win the lost.
 - that believers could reach the world more easily by associating and fellowshiping with the world.
 - that if a person really worshipped God, he would be acceptable to God even if he did not know about Jesus Christ; that Jesus Christ is not the only way to God; that He is not the only Savior.
 - that believers should attend the social functions of neighbors and fellow workers and not be exclusive and separatists.

Remember: Thyatira was renown for its trade guilds or unions. They were the center of much of the city's social and business life. Therefore, if believers did not attend these, there was a possibility that it might affect their employment and relationships with their neighbors. The argument of the false teacher, Jezebel, had a strong appeal. It would take a strong minded minister and teacher to proclaim a life of separation in such a situation.

What happened, of course, was that many of the socials became drunken and immoral parties. Believers who were present were attracted to the opposite sex and caught up in the immoral affairs just like everyone else. Believers were having immoral affairs, committing fornication.

Naturally the believers did not want to be misfits, so they would be sociable and drink and dance and participate in the activities of their neighbors. The end result was bound to happen: believers were caught up in the drunken immorality of the world. They had normal human desires just like all human beings; therefore, they were attracted to the opposite sex and some became involved in immoral affairs, committing adultery. Remember why: all because of the false teaching of Jezebel that believers must not separate themselves from the world, that they must be sensible and reasonable and not cut themselves out of the necessary business functions, socials, and pleasures of the world.

- d. Fourth, Jezebel, the false teacher, was seducing believers to commit idolatry. Some of the functions of the trade guilds and unions were usually held in the temple precincts of false gods. Sometimes the socials involved a simple thank-offering to the god, much like our offering of thanks at meals. The very first piece of meat was laid upon the altar to the god. Then the rest of the meat was served to the guests. Some of the believers were participating in these functions, actually participating in the functions that gave thanks to false gods. (See outline and notes—1 Cor.10:14-11:1; Ro.14:1-23 for more discussion.)

Thought 1. Remember what idolatry is. An idol is anything that a person puts first in his life, anything that consumes a person's mind, heart, soul, and body. An idol is that to which a person gives himself. Therefore, an idol can be...

- | | | |
|---------------|------------|-------------|
| • a job | • pleasure | • self |
| • money | • sports | • sex |
| • position | • business | • knowledge |
| • possessions | • family | • power |

Some church members were apparently putting their jobs and social acceptance before God. They were attending the social functions to be socially acceptable and to secure their jobs and to prosper in the world. But the inevitable happened: they were influenced by the world and caught up in the compromise of the world. All because of some Jezebel, some false teacher in the church.

Note that Jesus Christ had given this false teacher, this Jezebel, a period to repent. This means that she knew down deep within her heart that she was teaching contrary to God's Word. But she refused to change; she refused to repent.

“If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you” (Jn.15:19).

“And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation” (Acts 2:40).

“Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal? Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege? Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking of law dishonourest thou God? For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written” (Ro.2:21-24).

“And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God” (Ro.12:2).

“Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences” (2 Cor.5:11).

“Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?” (2 Cor.6:14).

“Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty” (2 Cor.6:17-18).

“And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them” (Eph.5:11).

“Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us” (2 Th.3:6).

“No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier” (2 Tim.2:4).

“By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh’s daughter; choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season” (Heb.11:24-25).

“Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world” (1 Jn.2:15-16).

5 (2:22-23) Warning—Church: there is the warning to those who compromise and are corrupted. Note five significant points.

1. There is a warning to Jezebel. She is to be cast upon a bed of sickness. This probably means some venereal disease or some disease such as cirrhosis of the liver due to excess drinking. Her judgment was to match her sin, to be a direct result of her sin. She was to reap what she sowed.

“For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again” (Mt.7:2).

“But after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God; who will render to every man according to his deeds” (Ro.2:5-6).

“Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting” (Gal.6:7-8).

2. There is the warning to those who gave in to her seduction and life-style, to those who refused to turn to Christ and to separate themselves from the world. They were to suffer great tribulation. The idea is some severe affliction, deep suffering, pressing distress.

3. There is the warning to the children of Jezebel. Who are they? Real children or those who swallowed her false teaching and worldly life-style? In either case, they were to be killed. What does this mean?

⇒ It could mean the chastising hand of God such as fell upon some of the Corinthian believers (see outlines and notes—1 Cor.11:27-30; DEEPER STUDY # 1—1 Jn.5:16 for more discussion).

“For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep [have died]” (1 Cor.11:30).

⇒ It could mean the second death, the judgment of eternal death when we stand face to face with Christ in the final judgment day. (See note, pt.2—Rev.2:10-11.)

4. There was still time for all of these to repent (v.22). Imagine! Christ still loved and reached out to Jezebel, this false teacher, and her followers, despite all the corruption they had caused in this great church. Christ still gave them a chance to repent. Christ said that the judgment would only happen if they failed to repent of their deeds.

Thought 1. This means a most wonderful thing: we can still repent so long as we are living on earth. No matter what we have done nor how terrible it is, Christ calls us to repentance. And if we repent, He saves us and delivers us from the judgment to come.

“Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord” (Acts 3:19).

“Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee” (Acts 8:22).

“And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent” (Acts 17:30).

“If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land” (2 Chron.7:14).

“Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon” (Is.55:7).

“But if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die” (Ezk.18:21).

5. Note why Christ is going to judge those who compromise with the world and corrupt the church.

“All the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works” (v.23).

- ⇒ Christ is going to judge those who compromise so that all the churches may know and acknowledge that He is the Christ, the Sovereign head of the universe. He is the One who searches the minds, thoughts, and hearts of people.
- ⇒ Christ is going to judge those who compromise so that every person will be treated fairly and justly; so that justice will be executed within the church and the world—perfectly executed.

“Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy: for thou renderest to every man according to his work” (Ps.62:12).

“I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings” (Jer.17:10).

“For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works” (Mt.16:27).

“For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad” (2 Cor.5:10).

“And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man’s work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear” (1 Pt.1:17).

“And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works” (Rev.20:12).

“And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be” (Rev.22:12).

6 (2:24-25) Faithfulness—Stedfastness: there is the counsel to hold fast. Note the reference to the “depths of Satan.” Compromise with the world—refusing to separate from the world and to live a pure and holy life—is living in the depths of sin. It is being planted and imbedded, immersed and enmeshed in the depths of Satan, in the very depth of Satan’s life-style.

But note the glorious promise to the faithful believer who has separated himself from the world and its pleasures and possessions: Christ will put no other burden upon him. What does this mean? It means two things.

1. No other burden can refer to the prohibition laid upon the Gentile Christians by the Jerusalem Council. They were forbidden to eat meat offered to idols (v.20; cp. Acts 15:19-29, esp. 20, 28-29).

2. No other burden can mean that Christ does not expect the believer to completely separate himself from the world, not in the sense that he has to live as a hermit. We are to live in the world but not of it. There are obvious pleasures and sins of the world and of the flesh that we must not touch. But there is much upon earth that we are to use and enjoy as we walk from day to day. Christ does not put the burden of extreme restrictions upon us; He only demands that we separate and have nothing to do with things that harm and destroy our bodies, minds, and souls.

Now, note the counsel: we are to hold fast until Christ comes. We are to hold fast...

- to the commitment that we have already made to Christ.
- to the spiritual growth that we have already achieved.
- to the ministries that we have already launched.

We are not to give in to the seductions of the world no matter how appealing and attractive.

“This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh” (Gal.5:16).

“I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called” (Eph.4:1).

“See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise” (Eph.5:15).

“Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing” (Ph.3:16).

“Prove all things; hold fast that which is good” (1 Th.5:21).

“But Christ as a son over his own house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end” (Heb.3:6).

“Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession” (Heb.4:14).

“Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised)” (Heb.10:23).

“He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked” (1 Jn.2:6).

“Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee” (Rev.3:3).

7 (2:26-29) Overcomers—Promises: there are the promises to the overcomers. Two wonderful promises are made to the believer who overcomes and does not compromise with the world—who overcomes the seduction, fornication, immorality, drunken and loose parties, idolatry, and false teaching of the world—who keeps on living and working for Christ.

1. The overcomer is given power over the nations (cp. Ps.2:8-9). This is clearly the promise of ruling and reigning with Christ throughout eternity. The day is coming when Jesus Christ will return to earth and conquer all the forces of evil. Every knee shall bow and confess that He is the Lord God of the universe. The overcomers shall participate in that day, the glorious day of redemption with Jesus Christ. They shall be given positions of rule and service throughout the universe. They shall serve the Lord Jesus Christ in the new heavens and earth. (See note, Rewards—Rev.14:13; 21:24-27 for discussion).

“And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities” (Lk.19:17).

“Do ye not know that the saints shall judge [oversee, rule] the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?” (1 Cor.6:2).

“To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne” (Rev.3:21).

“Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name” (Ps.91:14).

“And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness, as the stars for ever and ever” (Dan.12:3).

“The Lord God is my strength, and he will make my feet like hinds’ feet, and he will make me to walk upon mine high places” (Hab.3:19).

“Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations. and I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me” (Lk.22:28-29).

“If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us” (2 Tim.2:12).

“And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, and hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever” (Rev.1:5-6).

“And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years” (Rev.20:4).

2. The overcomer is given the morning star. This is Jesus Christ Himself. Rev.22:16 calls Jesus, “the bright and morning star.” The hearer and overcomer is to receive Jesus Himself forever and ever, never to be away from Him again.

Note: the person who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to this church. Let him separate from the world. Let him never compromise and become corrupted with the sins of the world. Let him never allow a Jezebel—a compromising or corrupt person—to teach in the church.

DIVISION II

THE MESSAGES OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST TO THE SEVEN CHURCHES, 1:9-3:22

F. The Message to Sardis: The Church With Reputation, But Dying, 3:1-6

(3:1-6) Introduction: Have you ever seen a church that was dead and dying, completely lifeless? A church that was satisfied with itself, with keeping things the way they had always been? A church resting on its laurels and past history, that just reveled in what used to be? This was the church at Sardis. Sardis pictures the church that has an excellent reputation and is highly respected by the community, but it is dead and lifeless.

1. The recipients (v.1).
2. The speaker—Jesus (v.1).
3. The complaint: works (v.1).
4. The counsel: watch and strengthen the works that remain (v.2).
5. The warning (v.3).
6. The promise (v.4-6).

1 (3:1) Minister—Church: there are the recipients of the letter. The Lord Jesus Christ addresses the letter to the minister of the church, but He wants it proclaimed to the church as a whole. There is little hope for a dead church ever becoming alive unless the minister is set afire. There can be little awakening, little stirring, little quickening, little life within a church unless the minister is committed—totally committed—to Christ and His cause of eternal salvation. Revival is not likely unless the minister is first revived. Therefore, Christ speaks first of all to the minister.

Thought 1. This is a strong point that ministers must heed. We must get into the Word and on our faces before God, evaluating our hearts to make sure we are spiritually alive and revived. As ministers of Christ, we must be living in a constant state of awakening and revival—a constant state that lasts on and on until the Lord comes.

DEEPER STUDY # 1

(3:1) Sardis: there are two historical facts that seem to have a bearing on the letter.

1. Sardis was a city with two sections. The first development sat on a ridge that jutted out from the side of a mountain. It was fifteen hundred feet straight up and it was impregnable, perfectly safe from any enemy. However, when the city outgrew this ridge, a second development was begun at the base of the mountain in the valley. Legend has it that gold was discovered just lying around in the river that flowed through the city. The city's history was one of wealth and security from all enemies. However, by the time John wrote Revelation, the city's flourishing wealth had passed and much of its glory had faded. The population had become flabby and soft, lethargic and complacent, living on the city's past reputation. The church knew what the Lord meant by having a name that they lived, but they were dead (v.1). They knew what it was to have received the best of everything, but now they needed to repent (v.3).

2. Sardis had been conquered only twice. Both times had been due to a false sense of security behind their impregnable fortress. They failed to post adequate watches to overlook the walls of the steep fortress. While under attack by Cyrus of Persia, a guard of Sardis was seen to drop his helmet over the steep wall and climb down the crevices to recover it. The city was taken that very night by a small band of soldiers climbing up the same crevices. Under one of the subsequent rulers to Alexander the Great, the incident was remembered, and again the city was taken in the same manner. The church knew from history what the Lord meant by "watch and strengthen...hold fast...I will come on thee as a thief..." (v.2-3).

2 (3:1) Jesus Christ—Minister—Church: there is the speaker, the Lord Jesus Christ Himself. A lifeless and dying church needs to look at Jesus Christ, at two things in particular.

1. Jesus Christ has the seven Spirits of God. This is a reference to the Holy Spirit of God.
 - a. The number seven means the sevenfold ministry of the Holy Spirit. Jesus Christ Himself spelled this out in the upper room where He revealed who the Holy Spirit was to be:
 - ⇒ He is the Comforter, the other Helper (Jn.14:16).
 - ⇒ He is the Spirit of truth (Jn.14:17).
 - ⇒ He is the personal presence of Christ (Jn.14:18-20).
 - ⇒ He is the very special manifestation of Christ within the believer (Jn.14:21-22).
 - ⇒ He is the abiding presence of the Trinity (Jn.14:23-24).
 - ⇒ He is the teacher (Jn.14:25-26).
 - ⇒ He is the peace of Christ (Jn.14:27).

Some commentators point out that this is a reference to the sevenfold ministry of the Holy Spirit found in Isaiah.

“And the spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD” (Is.11:2).

- ⇒ The Spirit of the Lord
- ⇒ The Spirit of wisdom
- ⇒ The Spirit of understanding
- ⇒ The Spirit of counsel
- ⇒ The Spirit of might
- ⇒ The Spirit of knowledge
- ⇒ The Spirit of fear

- b. The number seven also means completeness, fulness, or perfection in the Bible. Therefore, the seven Spirits means the Holy Spirit in all His fulness.

The point is this: what a lifeless and dying church needs is the Spirit of God.

⇒ A lifeless and dying church needs to seek Christ for the Spirit of God.

“If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him? (Lk.11:13).

“And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it. If ye love me, keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever” (Jn.14:13-16).

⇒ A lifeless and dying church needs to seek the quickening of the Spirit.

“But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you” (Ro.8:11).

⇒ A lifeless and dying church needs to seek the convicting power of the Spirit.

“Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you” (Jn.16:7).

⇒ A lifeless and dying church needs to seek the fruit of the Spirit.

“But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law” (Gal.5:22-23).

⇒ A lifeless and dying church needs to seek the guidance of the Spirit.

“Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will show you things to come” (Jn.16:13).

“For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God” (Ro.8:14).

⇒ A lifeless and dying church needs to seek revival, the Pentecostal fire of the Spirit.

“I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire” (Mt.3:11).

“And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance” (Acts 2:3-4).

⇒ A lifeless and dying church needs to seek the witnessing power of the Spirit.

“But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth” (Acts 1:8).

2. Jesus Christ has the seven stars in His hands; that is, He holds the ministers of the church in His hands. The minister is the one who is responsible for bringing about the awakening. He is held in the hand of Christ; he belongs totally to Christ. This means that he...

- has been chosen by the hand of Christ to do exactly what Christ wants.
- has been placed into the dead church by the hand of Christ.
- has been placed there for a reason: to be aroused himself and to arouse the church.

(See note 2—Rev. 2:1 for more discussion.)

“Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you” (Jn.15:16).

“He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep” (Jn.21:17).

“But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel” (Acts 9:15).

“Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood” (Acts 20:28).

“But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee” (Acts 26:16).

“These things command and teach” (1 Tim.4:11).

“In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth” (2 Tim.2:25).

“Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind” (1 Pt.5:2).

“Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up” (Hos.6:1).

“Come now therefore, and I will send thee [Moses] unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt” (Ex.3:10).

“And he said unto him, If now I [Gideon] have found grace in thy sight, then show me a sign that thou talkest with me” (Judg.6:17).

“Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I [Isaiah], Here am I; send me” (Is.6:8).

“Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me” (Ezk.3:17).

“But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman’s hand” (Ezk.33:6).

3 (3:1) Church—Formalism—Ritualism—Complacency: there is the complaint. Note: there is no commendation, none whatsoever, given to this church. This means that its sin is one of the most serious problems that a church can have. What was the problem? It was a dying church, a lifeless church. But note: the church had works—all sorts of programs, ministries, and activities. It had so much bustling activity that it had a great reputation among other churches. Other churches looked upon the church as being progressive, alive, well attended, well liked, prosperous, busy, and full of good fellowship. It had ministries for every age group and for every area of need throughout the community. It had the works, the right beliefs and doctrine, and it had all the ministries and activities. But note: it was dying and lifeless. However, verse two says that it was not yet totally dead; a few living things still remained, but they too were quickly dying. How could a church be so active and well attended and have so many ministries and yet be dying? What does this mean? It means to die spiritually; it means...

- to have a form of worship but to deny the power thereof (2 Tim.3:5).
- to focus upon ritual, ceremony, and worship instead of Jesus Christ.
- to focus upon activities instead of Jesus Christ.
- to become formal in worship instead of alive in Christ.
- to conduct activities in order to keep the organization going instead of learning about Christ and sharing about Christ.
- to hold services and activities for social fellowship instead of for spiritual growth and edification.
- to lose one’s zeal for witnessing and sharing Christ and for seeing others grow.

- to become complacent and lethargic in the study of God's Word and in prayer and spiritual growth.
- to sit in worship and Bible classes as a matter of form instead of hungering and thirsting after righteousness.
- to preach and teach as a matter of form.
- to use the ministry as a means of livelihood instead of preaching and teaching to win and grow people in Christ.

Such an active church can seldom be convinced that it is dead and lifeless because of its bustling activity. But Jesus Christ says it is dead. It is void of spiritual life and energy, void of the Spirit of God. Its works are only activities, only man-made activities and social services. The works do not have the Spirit of God and His power in them.

"Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven" (Mt.7:21).

"This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips but their heart is far from me" (Mt.15:8).

"He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me" (Mk.7:6).

"Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you" (Jn.6:53).

"And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed" (Ro.13:11).

"For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Ro.14:17).

"Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years, I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain" (Gal.4:10-11).

"Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light" (Eph.5:14).

"Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober" (1 Th.5:6).

"But she that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth" (1 Tim.5:6).

"Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away" (2 Tim.3:5).

"They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate" (Tit.1:16).

"And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead" (Rev.3:1).

"For thou desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt offering. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise" (Ps.51:16-17).

"And they remembered that God was their rock, and the high God their redeemer. Nevertheless they did flatter him with their mouth, and they lied unto him with their tongues" (Ps.78:35-36).

"Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honor me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men" (Is.29:13).

"And they come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness. And, lo, thou art unto them as a very lovely song of one that hath a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument: for they hear thy words, but they do them not" (Ezk.33:31-32).

4 (3:2) Watch: there is the counsel. It is strong: watch and strengthen the works that still have some life in them. Remember: the church had the services, meetings, and ministries that were needed. The church was doing the very things that it was supposed to be doing. What was wrong was the spirit of the people. Their spirits were not focusing upon Jesus Christ and His cause. They were...

- sitting in the services half asleep and allowing their thoughts to wander about instead of hungering for the Word of God.
- holding and attending the activities for the sake of fellowship and because it was the thing to do.

On and on the list could go. The point to see is that the people were not alive, not spiritually, not to the Lord Jesus Christ. They were attending and participating because it was the thing to do and because it gave them a sense of religious security. Note the twofold counsel.

1. Watch: "Rouse yourself and keep awake" (The Amplified New Testament). They need to awaken, to arouse themselves, to stir their minds and thoughts, to become alert and alive to the Lord Jesus Christ and to the Word of God. They needed to rethink why they and the church were on earth, what their calling was, why they were meeting together as a church, why they were claiming the name of Christ and doing works and carrying on ministries in the name of Christ. Note: the word watch is imperative. It is a command of Christ to the dying church. Note that the word watch is also in the present tense. The believer is to become a watcher, to become a follower of Jesus Christ. The believer is to always watch and make sure he is alive spiritually.

“Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come. But know this, that if the good man of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up” (Mt.24:42-43).

“Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak” (Mt.26:41).

“And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch” (Mk.13:37).

“Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears” (Acts 20:31).

“And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed” (Ro.13:11).

“Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong” (1 Cor.16:13).

“Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving” (Col.4:2).

“Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober” (1 Th.5:6).

“Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour” (1 Pt.5:8).

“Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame” (Rev.16:15).

2. Strengthen the things that remain. As stated, not all the services and activities were wrong and unneeded in the church. The church had been led by Christ to start the ministries in earlier days when the church was alive. But note: even these ministries were now dying. The believers desperately needed to arouse themselves and take hold of these ministries and put new life into them. Jesus Christ counsels: “Give immediate attention to these things. Watch, arouse yourselves. Strengthen these ministries now.”

Shockingly, Christ says that He has not found any of their works perfect, that is, complete, fulfilled, or finished. Not a single ministry had been completed or carried out like it should be—not in the eyes of Christ.

“And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand: and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it” (Mt.7:26-27).

“And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold” (Mt.24:12).

“And that servant, which knew his lord’s will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes” (Lk.12:47).

“How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him” (Heb.2:3).

“What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?” (Jas.2:14).

“Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded” (Jas.4:8).

“Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin” (Jas.4:17).

“Cursed be he that doeth the work of the LORD deceitfully” (Jer.48:10).

5 (3:3) Warning: there is the warning. The believers of a dead, lifeless church are warned to do four things.

1. They must remember how they received and heard the gospel; that is, they must remember how it gripped their lives with a dynamic spirit of...

- devotion
- readiness and love
- alertness and energy
- hunger and thirst
- life and vitality
- service
- witnessing
- ministry

2. They must arouse and awaken and hold fast to the original spirit that gripped their lives.

3. They must repent. They had done wrong and sinned against Christ by losing their fervor and becoming lethargic. They desperately needed to confess their wrong and repent; they needed to turn away from their error and turn back to Christ. They needed to have prayer meetings, seeking Christ to stir their hearts and to set them aflame for Him.

4. They must know that the judgment of Christ will fall upon them if they refuse to repent, and it will fall unexpectedly. If the church and its believers refuse to watch—refuse to arouse themselves—then Christ will come upon them as a thief. And note: they will not know what hour He is coming to judge them. The idea is that Christ will come and strip them of all their valuables just like a thief. They will be left bare, without anything worthwhile. The church and its believers will be worthless, of no value or worth to Christ and His kingdom. No matter what the church and its members may think, they will be found vain, empty, and useless. They will have done no good whatsoever for the kingdom of God. Their profession will have been meaningless.

“And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it” (Mt.7:27).

“For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world. and lose his own soul?” (Mk.8:36).

“If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it? Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him” (Lk.14:26-29).

“Every man’s work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man’s work of what sort it is. If any man’s work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If any man’s work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire” (1 Cor.3:13-15).

6 (3:4-6) Overcomers—Promises: there is the promise to the overcomers. Note: there is a promise to those who do not defile themselves as well as to the overcomers.

1. There are those who had not defiled themselves. This means there were a few faithful believers in the church. They had not defiled, dirtied, or spotted their lives with the worldliness of the day. They had kept themselves “unspotted from the world” (Jas.1:27). They were not activity centered nor program centered, but Christ centered. They did not use the church...

- as a religious salve for their conscience
- as a social activity
- as a place for fellowship alone
- as a place for social and business contacts
- as a place to build their public image
- as a place to provide activities for the family

The faithful believers kept themselves pure. They focused upon Jesus Christ and His purpose: they were still growing spiritually and reaching out to share Christ with a needful world.

Note the promise: the faithful and pure believer “walks with Christ in white.” This means...

- that the faithful believer walks day by day in the presence of Christ and has the presence of Christ looking after and taking care of him—keeping him pure (white).
- that the faithful believer walks day by day and moment by moment in open confession before Christ, that he keeps himself clean by constantly confessing all sin and having Christ forgive his sins. Christ keeps him clean (white).
- that the faithful believer walks in victory and purity with Christ forever and ever.

Note that the faithful and pure believer receives this promise because he is worthy. Christ is ever so pleased that the believer focuses upon Him, his Lord; therefore, Christ loves him with a very special love and counts the believer worthy.

2. There are the overcomers. Three promises are made to the believer who keeps his spirit alive, the believer who focuses upon Jesus Christ and His spiritual purposes for the church.

- a. The overcomer will be clothed in white. This is the garment of righteousness and purity, of perfection that shall be given to the believer when he enters heaven. The believer is given this garment of righteousness and purity...
 - because he trusted the righteousness of Christ.
 - because he followed Christ by living a righteous life.

“And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment” (Mt.22:11).

“But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet” (Lk.15:22).

“Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference” (Ro.3:22).

“For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him” (2 Cor.5:21).

“He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels” (Rev.3:5).

“I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see” (Rev.3:18).

“And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold” (Rev.4:4).

“After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands” (Rev.7:9).

“And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints” (Rev.19:8).

“And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness” (Gen.15:6).

REVELATION 3:1-6

“I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: my judgment was as a robe and a diadem” (Job 29:14).

“I will also clothe her priests with salvation: and her saints shall shout aloud for joy” (Ps.132:16).

“I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels” (Is.61:10).

“And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment” (Zech.3:4).

- b. The overcomer will not be blotted out of the book of life. This is a book that God keeps. The picture of Scripture is this: every person’s name is written in the book of life when the person is born again. But at death the names of unbelievers are erased from the book and they are judged to eternal death. The names of true believers are never touched. They receive eternal life.

“Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven” (Lk.10:20).

“And I entreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellowlabourers, whose names are in the book of life” (Ph.4:3).

“And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire” (Rev.20:15).

“And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb’s book of life” (Rev.21:27).

“And the Lord said unto Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book” (Ex.32:33).

“Let them be blotted out of the book of the living, and not be written with the righteous” (Ps.69:28).

“There shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book” (Dan.12:1).

- c. The overcomer will be acknowledged by Christ before God. Christ will confess that He knows the believer who overcame by keeping his spirit alive and focused upon the Lord.

“Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven” (Mt.10:32-33).

“Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God” (Lk.12:8).

“That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved” (Ro.10:9).

“And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father” (Ph.2:11).

“Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also” (1 Jn.2:22-23).

“Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God” (1 Jn.4:15).

DIVISION II

THE MESSAGES OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST TO THE SEVEN CHURCHES, 1:9-3:22

G. The Message to Philadelphia: The Church That is Faithful and Alive, 3:7-13

(3:7-13) Introduction: Have you ever seen a church that is alive and faithful to Christ? A church that focuses upon Jesus Christ? A church that makes Jesus Christ the center of its ministries and activities? A church that focuses upon reaching and growing people for Christ? A church that focuses upon teaching people to love Christ and to love one another more and more? This was the church at Philadelphia. The very word Philadelphia means brotherly love or one who loves his brother. The believers at Philadelphia loved Christ; therefore, they gave their hearts and lives to Christ. They lived like Christ said to live and they carried out the mission of Christ upon earth. The church at Philadelphia was alive and faithful. It represents all the churches down through the ages that are alive and faithful. It shows us exactly what Christ wants a church to be. Note: there is no complaint or warning against this church. Jesus Christ has only praise and exhortation for the church that is alive and faithful.

1. The recipients (v.7).
2. The speaker—Jesus (v.7).
3. The commendation (v.8).
4. The two great hopes (v.9-10).
5. The counsel: Christ comes quickly; therefore, hold fast (v.11).
6. The promise: to the overcomers (v.12-13).

1 (3:7) Minister—Church: there are the recipients of the letter. The letter is addressed to the minister of the church, but the Lord expects the minister to share it with the church. The church was alive and faithful to Christ, and it was up to the minister to keep the church focused upon the mission of Christ. The minister was the God-appointed leader to keep the church alive and faithful. The church would most likely remain alive and faithful if the minister would...

- live in the Word of God.
- live on his face in prayer.
- preach and teach the Word of God.
- exhort the believers to live for Christ, to study the Word, pray, witness, and minister faithfully.
- lead the church to set up the ministries that would reach the lost, build up the believers, minister to the needy, and reach out to the world by supporting world-wide missions.

If the minister slacked up or failed in any of these, the church would lose some of its focus upon Jesus Christ. It would no longer be as alive or faithful as it should be. But if the minister remained diligent, alive, and faithful himself, the likelihood is that the church would stay alive and faithful to Christ. This is the reason Christ addresses the letter to the minister.

DEEPER STUDY # 1

(3:7) Philadelphia: there are five historical facts that seem to have a bearing upon the message to the church.

1. Philadelphia was founded as a border town to spread Greek culture to surrounding areas. In fact, it was situated right on the borders of Lydia, Mysia, and Phrygia. The church knew exactly what it meant to be missionary minded, to have an open door for the spread of the gospel (Rev.3:8; cp. Acts 14:27; 1 Cor.16:9; 2 Cor.2:12; Col.4:3).

2. The name Philadelphia means brotherly love. The very name of the church gave the believers a constant reminder: they must love one another if they were going to fulfill their missionary calling.

3. Philadelphia knew what it was to live in the midst of insecure surroundings and under constant stress and strain. The city sat over a large earthquake fault. In A.D. 17 a terrifying earthquake hit a huge area. It completely destroyed Sardis and ten other cities. Philadelphia was spared total destruction. But for years the city was hit by unending tremors—each adding its own panic and crumbling walls to the devastation. The experience of having to constantly run in and out for safety terrorized the population. The experience was never forgotten by succeeding generations. The church knew what it was to be given the hope of becoming a “pillar in the temple of God” and the promise to the overcomer that “he shall go no more out” (v.12).

4. Philadelphia, after its destruction by the earthquake, was given aid by the emperor Tiberius for rebuilding. In appreciation the city changed its name to Neocaesarea, the New City of Caesar. The church knew what it was to be given a new name (v.12).

5. Philadelphia had a Jewish synagogue within its city limits. The Jews claimed to be the only followers of the true God (v.9). They claimed the keys of David, the right to open and to shut the door to God and His kingdom (v.7). The church knew what it was to trust and know Him who alone “is true [and]...hath the key of David [and]...openeth and...shutteth” (v.7).

2 (3:7) Jesus Christ—Church: there is the speaker, the Lord Jesus Christ Himself. What Jesus Christ says about Himself speaks to the heart of the church that is alive and faithful.

1. Jesus Christ is holy. The word holy is a description of God Himself. Jesus Christ is claiming to have the very same nature as God the Father, to be perfectly holy even as God is perfectly holy. Remember that holiness means to be set apart and different from all other beings, completely and totally set apart. Christ is supremely holy. He reaches the summit of being different from all other beings. This means something significant for the church that is alive and faithful. It means they are worshipping and following God Himself by following Christ. By giving their hearts and lives to Christ, they are giving themselves to the sovereign Majesty and supreme Force of the universe, to the most holy God Himself. The church is, therefore, under His care and love. Christ Jesus, the Most Holy God, will look after and take care of the church if the church will just continue to be alive and faithful.

“Exalt the LORD our God, and worship at his holy hill; for the LORD our God is holy” (Ps.99:9).

“And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory” (Is.6:3).

“Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me” (Jn.8:46).

“For of a truth against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed” (Acts 4:27).

“By stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jesus” (Acts 4:30).

“For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him” (2 Cor.5:21).

“For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin” (Heb.4:15).

“For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens” (Heb.7:26).

“Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest” (Rev.15:4).

2. Jesus Christ is the One who is true. The word true (alethinos) means the true as opposed to the false, the genuine as opposed to the counterfeit, the real as opposed to the unreal. Jesus Christ is the true, genuine, and real God. He is the only living and true God. There is none other. All the other gods worshipped by men are false, counterfeit, and unreal. This, too, means a wonderful thing. God is not far off in outer space someplace, too far off to be known or reached. He is not the shadowy figure that most men imagine Him to be. God is not distant from us. He has not left us in the dark to grope and grasp and to stumble about trying to find Him. God does not hate us; He has not left us in the dark about Himself. God loves us. He has revealed Himself to us. He sent the Lord Jesus Christ to bring the truth to us. Therefore, in worshipping the Lord Jesus Christ we are worshipping the only true and living God. What the faithful church must do is continue to follow Christ, continue to make Him the focus of all that it does. When the church makes Him the center of all its ministries, activities, and meetings, then the church is following the truth—following Him who is true.

“That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world” (Jn.1:9).

“And the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth” (Jn.1:14).

“Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven” (Jn.6:32).

“Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me” (Jn.14:6).

“I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman” (Jn.15:1).

“Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice” (Jn.18:37).

“Again, a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth” (1 Jn.2:8).

3. Jesus Christ alone is the key of David, the key that “opens, and no man shuts; and shuts, and no man opens.” What is the key of David? There is an event in the Old Testament that tells us. King Hezekiah had a faithful servant who was named Eliakim. This servant was the personal secretary to king Hezekiah; he was put in complete charge of the king’s affairs. No one could gain entrance into the king’s presence without coming through Eliakim. This servant alone determined who entered the king’s court. God spoke to Isaiah the prophet one day and said the following words:

“And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his [Eliakim’s] shoulder; so he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open” (Is.22:22).

The key of David is the symbol of authority. Jesus Christ alone opens and shuts the door into God’s court and presence. He alone determines who lives in heaven with God the Father. He alone grants entrance into the presence of God. The door into heaven is opened and closed by Him and Him alone. No other person or being has that authority. Jesus Christ alone holds the key to open and shut the door to life eternal. Therefore, the church that focuses upon Jesus Christ can be assured: it shall live forever. When the time comes, Jesus Christ shall open the door of heaven. The church that takes all its ministries, activities, and meetings and makes Jesus Christ the center of them all—that church shall live forever.

“And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man” (Jn.5:27).

“For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus” (1 Tim.2:5).

“Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them” (Heb.7:25).

“But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises” (Heb.8:6).

“And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance” (Heb.9:15).

“For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us” (Heb.9:24).

“And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel” (Heb.12:24).

“My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous” (1 Jn.2:1).

3 (3:8) Church—Believer: there is the commendation. This is the picture of what a church should be, the picture of a church that is alive and faithful. The Lord Jesus Christ commends this church for three things.

1. The church used the open door of evangelism and missions to reach people for Christ. The church was strategically located.

⇒ It was a border town that touched the borders of three other towns: Lydia, Mysia, and Phrygia. Imagine the evangelistic and mission opportunities by being surrounded with three other towns.

⇒ It lay on the imperial road of Rome, one of the major roads that passed from the coast and stretched right on to the east into Asia minor. Just think of the multitudes of people who passed through and visited, stayed and conducted business in the city: the businessmen, sales persons, military people, vacationers, tourists, and visiting relatives.

The point is striking: the city was so strategically located that the whole world could have been penetrated with the gospel by spreading out from the church. And note: Christ commends the church for their evangelistic and missionary work. They were reaching out. And Christ knew of their works. He had set an open door before them and they had stepped in and taken advantage of the opportunity. Because they had faithfully reached out to the lost, Christ says that He is not going to let anyone close the door. He is personally going to see that the door to evangelism and missions stays open.

Note one other significant fact: the church had only a little strength. This probably means that they were a small church, small in number and small in resources. This too is striking: imagine being just a small church, yet reaching out to the lost, witnessing and bearing testimony to the salvation and hope of eternal life. Imagine making such an evangelistic and mission thrust that Christ is impressed, impressed so much...

- that He commends the church for it.
- that He guarantees that the open door to evangelism and missions will always remain open. He will not allow anyone to close it.

Thought 1. This is the first mission of the church. The church that is alive and faithful is a church that does just what Jesus Christ did: He reached out to the lost.

⇒ This is exactly what He said about His own mission.

“For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost” (Lk.19:10).

⇒ This is exactly what He said about the mission of His followers and church.

“Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you” (Jn.20:21).

Thought 2. How many of our churches are strategically located? Many. In fact, most are strategically located. Some sit right in the heart of cities where teeming thousands of people live. Others sit on the main roads of cities, and others on the main roads of country and farm areas. Why then are so many of our churches not reaching out in the thrust of evangelism and missions? Why are so few of the lost being won to Christ? The church that is alive and faithful is a church that uses the open door of evangelism and missions. The believers are a people who witness and do all they can to reach the lost for Christ:

⇒ they go house to house.

⇒ they witness to fellow laborers, neighbors, friends, and family.

⇒ they are always looking for opportunities to witness and share Christ.

“Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world” (Mt.28:19-20).

“And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature” (Mk.16:15).

“For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost” (Lk.19:10).

“Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you” (Jn.15:16).

“Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you” (Jn.20:21).

“But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth” (Acts 1:8).

“For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard” (Acts 4:20).

“And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles” (Acts 14:27).

“For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries” (1 Cor.16:9).

“Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ’s gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord” (2 Cor.2:12).

“Withal praying also for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds” (Col.4:3).

“But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear” (1 Pt.3:15).

“I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name” (Rev.3:8).

“I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the Lord, and the praises of the Lord, according to all that the Lord hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses” (Is.63:7).

“Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name. But his word was in mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay” (Jer.20:9).

“Then they that feared the Lord spake often one to another: and the Lord hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his name” (Mal.3:16).

2. The church kept Christ’s Word; that is, they were faithful to the Word of God. They obeyed the Lord Jesus Christ, kept His commandments. Very practically, this means...

- that they studied the Word of God.
- that they lived the Word of God.
- that they proclaimed the Word of God to believers and unbelievers alike.

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death” (Jn.8:51).

“If ye love me, keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever” (Jn.14:15-16).

“Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him” (Jn.14:23)

“If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father’s commandments, and abide in his love....Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you” (Jn.15:10, 14).

“These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so” (Acts 17:11).

“And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified” (Acts 20:32).

“Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth” (2 Tim.2:15).

“All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness” (2 Tim.3:16).

“As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby: if so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious” (1 Pt.2:2-3).

“And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments” (1 Jn.2:3).

3. The church confessed Christ; they did not deny the name of Christ. This means more than just witnessing for Christ. It, of course, does mean witnessing for Christ, but it means much more.

a. First, to confess Christ means that the church confesses Christ in all that it does. It means that Jesus Christ is made the focus and center...

- of all the lives of the believers.
- of all the services, meetings, ministries, programs, and activities of the church.

To confess Christ means that one lives, moves, and has his being in Christ. It means that the church does not focus upon ritual, ceremony, programs, and activities; but the church focuses upon Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ is confessed; He is made the focus, the center, the main purpose and attraction of every program and activity.

b. Second, to confess Christ also means that a person stands fast against opposition and persecution. Some in the world will always persecute true believers. They will...

- | | | | |
|---------------|------------|------------|---------------------|
| • ridicule | • ignore | • abuse | • kill |
| • mock | • bypass | • backbite | • tempt |
| • poke fun at | • curse | • attack | • take advantage of |
| • reject | • imprison | | |

The crowds of the world will do all they can to lead the true believer to give in and join them. But the believer is never to cave in; he is not to deny Christ. Note what Christ says: the church or the believer that is alive and faithful does not deny the name of Christ. The faithful church confesses Christ.

“Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven” (Mt.10:32-33).

“Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God” (Lk.12:8).

“That is thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation” (Ro.10:9-10).

“Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also” (1 Jn.2:22-23).

“Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God” (1 Jn.4:15).

Thought 1. Note how strong a church is that does these three things. The church that is alive and faithful is a church...

- that is evangelistic and mission minded.
- that keeps the Word of Christ.
- that confesses Christ in all that it does, in all of its services, meetings, programs, and activities.

4 (3:9-10) Church—Hope: there is the great hope given to the church that is alive and faithful. Note how descriptive this verse is:

“Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee” (v.9).

The synagogue of Satan refers to the Jews who say that they follow the true God, but they do not: they reject Jesus Christ. And Jesus Christ is the Son of God, the very One who came into the world to reveal God. Therefore, to reject Jesus Christ is to reject the revelation of God, to reject God Himself. Remember who a true Jew is in the eyes of God:

⇒ a true Jew is any person who believes in Jesus Christ.

“And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also” (Ro.4:11).

⇒ a true Jew is not a person who claims outward racial descent. A true Jew is a person who is a Jew inwardly, who believes in the Lord Jesus Christ.

“For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: but he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God” (Ro.2:28-29).

⇒ a true Jew is a person who walks in the steps of the faith of Abraham, who walks in a faith that is placed in the Lord Jesus Christ.

“And [Abraham is] the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised” (Ro.4:12).

⇒ a true Jew is not a person of an earthly race, but a true Jew is a person who has the same faith that Abraham had.

“Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel: neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called. That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed. For this is the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sara shall have a son” (Ro.9:6-9).

⇒ the true Israel is the church.

“And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God [the church, believers]” (Gal.6:16).

The point is striking: to God a Jew is not some earthly race. A Jew is a person who truly believes God, believes all the promises of God including the promise of the Messiah. A true Jew is a person who believes in the Lord Jesus Christ. Remember: God Himself gave birth to the Jewish race. He raised up the Jews to be His followers and witnesses to the human race. Therefore, to God the true Jew is a person from any earthly nation who follows and bears witness to Him.

The point is this: there were Jews in Philadelphia who were persecuting the believers. They were claiming to be Jews, the chosen people, the followers of God, but they were not. They rejected the Son of God, the very One who came to reveal God. Therefore, they were lying. They were an assembly of Satan, not of the only living and true God.

Now, with this as background, note the great hope given to the church that is alive and faithful. The hope is twofold.

1. Believers shall be vindicated before all their persecutors. The persecutors of the church shall either be saved or judged. Note that the Jews are going to come and worship at the feet of the church.

a. Believers shall be vindicated because some of their persecutors will be saved (v.9). Note the verse: the Jews are going to come and worship with believers. This points toward the salvation of Israel in the end time. Note this closely, for it is the picture painted by Scripture.

⇒ In the Old Testament Israel is seen as the true follower of God and the other peoples of the world are seen coming to Israel and worshipping the God of Israel.

“Thus saith the LORD, The labor of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia and of the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come over unto thee, and they shall be thine: they shall come after thee; in chains they shall come over, and they shall fall down unto thee, they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, Surely God is in thee; and there is none else, there is no God” (Is.45:14).

“And kings shall be thy nursing fathers, and their queens thy nursing mothers: they shall bow down to thee with their face toward the earth, and lick up the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD : for they shall not be ashamed that wait for me” (Is.49:23).

“The sons also of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee; and all they that despised thee shall bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee, The city of the LORD, The zion of the Holy One of Israel” (Is.60:14).

“And I will sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, saith the Lord GOD, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes” (Ezk.36:23).

“And the heathen shall know that I the LORD do sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore” (Ezk.37:28).

⇒ In the New Testament the picture is reversed, and the Jews are seen coming to the church and worshipping with the church. This means that the Jews worship the Lord Jesus Christ. (See outlines and notes—Ro.9:1-11:36, esp. 11:25-36 for more discussion and for the verses dealing with this subject.)

“I will call them [the Gentiles] my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved. And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God” (Ro.9:25-26).

Thought 1. The scene will be glorious: Israel (the Jews) worshipping the Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ, right along with Gentile believers. This is the promise of the Lord to the church of Philadelphia.

Note this: the promise applies to all churches that are alive and faithful. Some of the persecutors will believe and accept the Lord Jesus Christ as their Savior. They will be won to Christ and worship right along with the believers whom they originally persecuted. This is a great promise made to the church that is faithful and alive. The task of the church is to continue to be faithful to Christ, bearing testimony and witness to Him.

“All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the LORD: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee. For the kingdom is the LORD’S: and he is the governor among the nations” (Ps.22:27-28).

- b. Believers shall also be vindicated before all the persecutors who reject Jesus Christ. Scripture clearly states that every knee shall bow before the feet of the Lord and confess Him to be Lord.

“For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God” (Ro.14:11).

“Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father” (Ph.2:9-11).

“Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest” (Rev.15:4).

“Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else. I have sworn by myself, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, That unto me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear” (Is.45:22-23).

2. Believers shall experience a great deliverance. They shall be delivered from the hour of trial that is coming upon the earth. This refers to the great tribulation that is coming upon the earth in the end time, a period of trial that will far exceed any trial the world has ever known. Christ Himself said:

“For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be” (Mt.24:21).

The great tribulation will involve two terrible forces falling upon the earth:

⇒ There will be the persecution by the antichrist.

“And it was given unto him [the antichrist] to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations. And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world” (Rev.13:7-8).

⇒ There will be the awful judgment of God against all unbelievers who reject His Son Jesus Christ.

“And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him” (Jude 14-15).

“And after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia; Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God: for true and righteous are his judgments for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand. And again they said, Alleluia. And her smoke rose up for ever and ever” (Rev.19:1-3).

Note that no believer need ever fear any trial, not even the trial of martyrdom. Jesus Christ says that He will deliver the believer from all trials.

⇒ Even when hated and martyred, the believer will be delivered. Physical death will have no effect upon the believer. The believer will be delivered into the very presence of God quicker than the eye can blink. The believer will never taste the torment of death. Christ was very specific about this:

“And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death. And ye shall be hated of all men for my name’s sake. But there shall not an hair of your head perish. In your patience possess ye your souls” (Lk.21:16-19).

Note also that God promises to protect those believers who have to go through the tribulation. They will not suffer the judgments that God casts upon the earth. They will be protected somewhat like Israel was during the plagues that fell upon Egypt. The judgments of God will fall only upon the unbelievers. This is clearly stated:

“And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads” (Rev.9:4).

The point is striking: the hope of the believer is glorious. Jesus Christ will always deliver the believer and the church that is alive and faithful.

“Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you” (Lk.10:19).

“And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you” (Ro.16:20).

“There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it” (1 Cor.10:13).

“For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day” (2 Tim.1:12).

“Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing” (2 Tim.4:8).

“For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted” (Heb.2:18).

“Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time” (1 Pt.1:5).

“Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy” (Jude 24).

“Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth” (Rev.3:10).

5 (3:11) Hold Fast—Jesus Christ, Return: there is the counsel. Jesus Christ declares time and again that He is returning to earth. Note the word quickly. Jesus Christ is coming soon. Scripture declares this time and again.

“Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand” (Ph.4:5).

“For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry” (Heb.10:37).

“Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh” (Jas.5:8).

“Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown” (Rev.3:11).

“Behold, I come quickly: blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book” (Rev.22:7).

The point is this: since Christ is coming and coming soon, the faithful church must do something. It must hold fast...

- to its evangelistic and missionary zeal.
- to the Word of Christ.
- to confessing and living for Christ and never denying Him.

Note why: because the church and its believers could lose their crown. This is the clear warning of Scripture. Believers must hold fast. They can lose their crown if they deny Christ and commit apostasy.

“But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved” (Mt.24:13).

“Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh” (Mt.25:13).

“Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them” (Lk.12:37).

“And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not” (Gal.6:9).

“Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness. Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober” (1 Th.5:5-6).

“Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ” (1 Pt.1:13).

“Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life” (Rev.2:10).

“Behold, I come quickly; hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown” (Rev.3:11).

“And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus” (Rev.16:5).

“The righteous also shall hold on his way, and he that hath clean hands shall be stronger and stronger” (Job 17:9).

6 (3:12-13) Overcomers—Promises: there are the promises to the overcomer. The churches and believers who remain alive and faithful to Christ have five wonderful promises. They shall receive five glorious things.

1. They will be made a pillar in the temple of God. This means that they will become a permanent part of God’s house, of the eternal worship and service of heaven. And they will be a vital part, a pillar. The pillar is a symbol of...

- strength
- support
- durability
- permanence
- immortality
- a monument

“Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?” (1 Cor.3:16).

“What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?” (1 Cor.6:19).

“And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people” (2 Cor.6:16).

“And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; in whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord: in whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit” (Eph.2:20-22).

“Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ” (1 Pt.2:5).

2. They will receive security; they will never again have to go in or out of the city in order to be safe. They will be free from this sinful and corruptible world, free to live in heaven with God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. And they shall be perfected forever and ever.

“I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day” (2 Tim.1:12).

“Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing” (2 Tim.4:8).

“Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time” (1 Pt.1:5).

“Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust” (2 Pt.1:4).

“And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life” (1 Jn.2:25).

“Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever” (Jude 24-25).

3. They will receive God’s name. This is a symbol of possession and of belonging. The believer will belong to God in an absolute and perfect sense. Others can lay claim to our lives while upon this earth. They can lay claim upon our time and energy, and some can even enslave us. But not in heaven. The name of God will be written upon us, and we will be marked forever as belonging to God. We will belong to Him totally and absolutely. Neither man nor Satan will ever again be able to touch or mark us.

“Even unto them will I give in mine house and within my walls a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off” (Is.56:5).

“And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name” (Is.62:2).

“And ye [the rebellious people] shall leave your name for a curse unto my chosen: for the Lord GOD shall slay thee, and call his servants by another name” (Is.65:15).

“And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch” (Acts 11:26).

“Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name” (Rev.3:12).

4. They will receive the name of the city of God, the new Jerusalem. They will become the citizens of the new Jerusalem, of the capital of the new heavens and earth.

“But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all” (Gal.4:26).

“For our conversation [citizenship] is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ” (Ph.3:20).

“But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels” (Heb.12:22).

“But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat? Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness” (2 Pt.3:10-13).

“And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful” (Rev.21:1-5).

5. They will receive the Lord’s new name. What will this new name be? No one knows but God Himself, and He has not yet revealed it.

“His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself” (Rev.19:12).

This much we know: when Christ comes in all His majesty and glory and conquers all, we shall be marked as His servants and share in His glorious triumph. He will gain the victory for us, the victory over all enemies including the most terrible enemy of all—death and hell.

“And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you” (Ro.16:20).

“To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne” (Rev.3:21).

“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away” (Rev.21:4).

DIVISION II

THE MESSAGES OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST TO THE SEVEN CHURCHES, 1:9-3:22

H. The Message to Laodicea: The Church That is Affluent, but Lukewarm and Half-Committed, 3:14-22

(3:14-22) Introduction: this is the last church addressed by Christ, and it is the worst church. Christ does not commend Laodicea at all. This is the one church about which He has nothing good to say. Imagine a church that may as well not exist—a church that has no good within its body whatsoever—a church that does no good at all. What was it that made the church so bad? So useless and worthless? Lukewarmness, which means that the church was indifferent, complacent, lethargic, self-satisfied, half-hearted, and neutral. The church and its believers were only half-way committed to Christ, only half-hearted in their worship and service for Him. Imagine! To Christ there is no good whatsoever in a lukewarm, half-committed believer, and most church members are lukewarm! There are few who are really hot, that is, really committed. Hence, this is a critical message that must be heeded by all churches and believers. We must study what Christ says to this church and heed His warning and counsel.

1. The recipients (v.14).
2. The speaker—Jesus (v.14).
3. The complaint: the church is neither cold nor hot, but lukewarm (v.15).
4. The warning: will be spued out (v.16-17).
5. The counsel (v.18-20).
6. The promise: to the overcomers (v.21-22).

1 (3:14) Minister—Church: there are the recipients. Christ sends this message to the minister, for he is the one who is ultimately responsible for the state of the church. Christ expects the minister to be the first to heed the warning against lukewarmness and half-hearted commitment. Then Christ expects the minister to take the message of the Lord to the church and declare His warning to its believers. The point to see is this: the minister is held accountable by Christ for the indifference and complacency of the believers. He expects the minister to arouse himself and repent, and to arouse the believers and lead them to repentance and whole-hearted commitment.

DEEPER STUDY # 1

(3:14) Laodicea: there is only one historical fact that seems to have a bearing upon this letter. Laodicea was the chief city of Phrygia—an extremely wealthy and prosperous city. It lay astride three of the most important highways of its day. It was a city of enormous wealth. The city had three particular claims to fame. It was...

- a financial and banking center
- a clothing manufacturing center
- the location of a famous medical school renown for the eye salve which it produced.

Perhaps the condition of the church in v.17—“poor, blind, and naked”—has reference to these three industries.

Paul prayed for the Laodicean church (Col.2:1-2) and wrote a letter to them (Col.2:1; 4:12-16). Archippus is said to have been the first Bishop (pastor) of the church (The Apostolic Constitutions, 8:46. Information from "The Pulpit Commentary," Vol.22, p.114). This seems to have some significance for what Christ says to the church, for Laodicea is a church that Christ does not commend. He has nothing good to say about the church. In writing Colossians, Paul exhorts Archippus, Laodicea's pastor: "Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfill it" (Col.4:17). The corruption and degeneration could have begun under his ministry.

2 (3:14) Jesus Christ: there is the speaker, the Lord Jesus Christ Himself. Note how Christ describes Himself to the lukewarm and half-committed church and believer.

1. Jesus Christ is the "Amen." This is a title that Christ says belongs to Him. The term Amen is used to close prayer or to declare the truthfulness of some statement. It is a term that declares and guarantees the truth. Therefore, Jesus Christ is the Amen, the declaration, the guarantee of the truth. What He says is totally true and trustworthy. This means two things to a lukewarm church.

- ⇒ The lukewarm church can trust the promises of Christ. He will meet the needs of any church that will repent and turn from its lukewarmness and wholly commit its life to Christ.
- ⇒ The lukewarm church had better heed the warning of Christ. He is the Amen; His words of judgment will be carried out. The lukewarm church and believer will face the terrible judgment of Christ, face it just like He has pronounced it in His Word. His Word is true, completely guaranteed. What He has said will be. His pronouncement of judgment will come to pass—unquestionably. The church that ignores or neglects His Word does so at its own peril and loss.

"And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (And we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth" (Jn.1:14).

"Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me" (Jn.14:6).

"Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice" (Jn.18:37).

2. Jesus Christ is the "faithful and true witness." Jesus Christ is faithful to God the Father and He bears a true witness to God the Father.

- ⇒ Jesus Christ is perfectly honest. He has not told a single lie or untruth.
- ⇒ Jesus Christ is also completely honest. He holds nothing back about the truth. He does not keep us wondering or questioning in seeking after and in knowing God. He has not kept a single thing from us that God wanted us to know about Himself.

But note: Jesus Christ is the faithful and true witness; He is just what the church is not. The church is lukewarm. It only tells part of the truth, only bears part of the witness. It is only half-faithful to Christ and God. What the lukewarm church needs is to get a renewed sight of Christ. They need to refocus their attention upon Jesus Christ: the only way they will ever see God is to hear the witness of Jesus Christ, the witness of Him who is faithful and true. If the church is looking at other witnesses—depending upon the rituals of baptism, church membership, ordinances, services, ceremonies, fellowship, and worship attendance to make them acceptable to God—then the church is missing the faithful and true witness of God. It is missing Christ, and to miss Christ is to doom oneself.

"Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness" (Jn.3:11).

"And what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth; and no man receiveth his testimony" (Jn.3:32).

"Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I come, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go" (Jn.8:14).

"I give thee charge in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession" (1 Tim.6:13).

"And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth" (Rev.1:5).

3. Jesus Christ is the "beginning of the creation of God." Jesus Christ is the great Creator of the universe, the Maker and Sustainer of the universe and all that is therein. Therefore, He is the source of all—all good things, all real wealth and satisfaction, all purpose, meaning, and significance in life, all love, joy, and peace that a person experiences. Therefore, the church must not depend upon its prosperity: its rituals, ability, energy, wealth, and resources. Its only hope for life is to trust Him who is the beginning of creation, Him who alone can give the church life both abundant and eternal life. Therefore, no matter how prosperous the church, it is not the creator nor the sustainer. Christ alone creates and sustains. The church's wealth and prosperity are meaningless and useless apart from being absolutely centered in Jesus Christ.

"All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made" (Jn.1:3).

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live” (Jn.5:25).

“I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly” (Jn.10:10).

“But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him” (1 Cor.8:6).

“For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him” (Col.1:16).

“And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power” (Col.2:10).

“God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds” (Heb.1:1-2).

3 (3:15) Church—Lukewarm—Complacency—Indifference: there is the complaint. The complaint is shocking, for it unquestionably describes most church members. What is the complaint? Lukewarmness. Note exactly what Christ says: the church and its members were “neither cold nor hot.” This means...

- they were only lukewarm, only half-committed, only half-hearted.
- they were complacent, lethargic, self-satisfied.
- they were indifferent and neutral.

As stated, note how this so clearly describes so many church members. This is serious, even critical, for the judgment that Christ pronounces upon the lukewarm church and believer is terrible. This will be seen in the next note. For now, we need to think about how lukewarmness affects the church and its members.

⇒ A lukewarm church is only half-committed to Christ. In addition to stressing Christ, it stresses ritual, ceremony, and programs as a way to become acceptable and to please God.

“And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me” (Lk.9:23).

“I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God” (Ro.12:1-2).

⇒ A lukewarm church is only half-committed to proclaiming that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

“Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also” (1 Jn.2:22-23).

“Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: and every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world” (1 Jn.4:1-3).

⇒ A lukewarm church is only half-committed to teaching the Word of God.

“All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness” (2 Tim.3:16).

“Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables” (2 Tim.4:2-4).

⇒ A lukewarm church is only half-committed to evangelism and missions.

“Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost” (Mt.28:19-20).

“And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature” (Mk.16:15).

“But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth” (Acts 1:8).

⇒ A lukewarm church is only half-committed to stressing holy and pure living for Christ.

“Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty” (2 Cor.6:17-18).

“Follow peace with all men, and holiness without which no man shall see the Lord” (Heb.12:14).

“Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy” (1 Pt.1:16).

“Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently” (1 Pt.1:22).

⇒ A lukewarm church is only half-committed to self-denial and sacrificial living, to stressing that its people must deny themselves and sacrificially die to self. They seldom stress that total sacrifice is demanded, that a person must give all he is and has to reach the lost and meet the desperate needs of the world.

“Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me” (Mt.19:21).

“Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee” (Mk.10:28).

“And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me,. And he left all, rose up, and followed him” (Lk.5:27-28).

“And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me” (Lk.9:23).

“So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple” (Lk.14:33).

“And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God’s sake, who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting” (Lk.18:29-30).

⇒ A lukewarm church is only half-committed to the church.

“Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching” (Heb.10:25).

⇒ A lukewarm church is only half-committed to attending and staying awake and learning in the services of the church.

“Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me” (Jn.5:39).

“These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so” (Acts 17:11).

“For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope” (Ro.15:4).

“Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine” (1 Tim.4:13).

“Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching” (Heb.10:25).

⇒ A lukewarm church is only half-committed to supporting the church.

“Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come” (1 Cor.16:2).

“Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver” (2 Cor.9:7).

⇒ A lukewarm church is only half-committed to witnessing.

“Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God” (2 Tim.1:8).

“And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also” (2 Tim.2:2).

“But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear” (1 Pt.3:15).

⇒ A lukewarm church is only half-committed to Bible study and prayer.

“Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth” (2 Tim.2:15).

“As newborn babes desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby: if so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious” (1 Pt.2:2-3).

⇒ A lukewarm church is only half-committed to daily devotions.

“For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope” (Ro.15:4).

“And it shall be with him, and he shall read therein all the days of his life: that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to do them” (Dt.17:19).

The list could go on and on, but the terrible reality of lukewarmness is clearly seen. It is frightening, for lukewarmness is seen in so many churches and members.

Note what Jesus Christ says: it is better for one to be cold than lukewarm. This is utterly shocking: Christ Himself says that it is better for a person to have no commitment whatsoever to Christ than for him to be lukewarm. Why? How could this be? Because a lukewarm person does not know that he needs clothing or heat. A cold person knows he needs clothing and heat. A person must be sensitive to his need before his need can be met.

“The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican” (Lk.18:11).

“Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth” (Jn.9:41).

Most people who profess Christ attend church only enough to salve their consciences, only enough to make them feel acceptable to God. Most people feel that God would never reject them, not in the final analysis. Most believe that God will eventually accept them into whatever kind of heaven exists in the next world. But Christ completely contradicts this. He says that all these—all the lukewarm and half-committed church members in the world—would be far better off if they made no profession at all. Being self-satisfied, feeling comfortable and respectable in one’s religion, is the worst state imaginable for a person. He is the hardest person of all to arouse and set aflame for Christ. Yet, tragically this is the state of so many, the state of half-hearted commitment to Jesus Christ, the state of comfort, complacency, lethargy, indifference, and self-sufficiency.

4 (3:16-17) Warning—Judgment: there is the warning. Jesus Christ warns the lukewarm and half-committed person: “I will spue you out of my mouth.” This is graphic language, but it is used for a purpose. The person who claims to be a follower of Jesus Christ is claiming to be a part of His body, claiming to be nourishment for His body, a part of the growth of His body. But when the person is lukewarm, he is none of this. He is like lukewarm food, unappetizing and unwanted. Christ does not want the nourishment that such food provides. It is not fit to help in the nourishment and growth of His body. Therefore, He rejects all who are lukewarm and half-committed. There are two reasons why He rejects them.

1. The lukewarm make a false profession (v.17^a). Note the verse: the church felt that it was rich and prosperous and had need of nothing. As stated above, the city was extremely wealthy, and practically everyone but the slaves shared in the wealth. We can tell by the very charge of Christ against the church that the believers were financially wealthy. What happened to the church is what so often happens among believers. They equated wealth and prosperity with spirituality. They felt that they had been especially blessed by God because they had been blessed with material possessions and wealth. They became...

- self-sufficient
- independent
- self-centered
- prideful
- conceited
- boastful

They carried their wealth over into their spiritual life; they confused prosperity and material blessings with spirituality and spiritual blessings. They were able to have a full staff of ministers and to have all the ministries. They were able to launch any program, to promote any activity, and to do anything the minister or church felt should be done.

- ⇒ They focused upon their capability instead of Christ.
- ⇒ They depended upon their ability instead of Christ.
- ⇒ They relied upon their resources instead of Christ.

Worship, Bible study, prayer, missions, witnessing, and activities—all were done as a matter of form and as a part of the normal activity of the church. There was no hunger or thirst after God, no sense of a deep-seated need, no desire for God’s Word, no burden for the lost, no sense of needing to grow spiritually. Simply speaking, the church was self-sufficient and comfortable. It had the money and the members to operate and work the ministries of the church; and many of the members, being industrious business and management people, had the energy and ability. Therefore, the members operated and carried on the activities of the church, but it was all done in the energy of the flesh and of self. It was not done in the power of God’s Spirit.

“Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits” (Ro.12:16).

“Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall” (1 Cor.10:12).

“For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise” (2 Cor.10:12).

“For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself” (Gal.6:3).

“Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil” (Pr.3:7).

“Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man who can find?” (Pr.20:6).

“Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? There is more hope of a fool than of him” (Pr.26:12).

“There is a generation that are pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness” (Pr.30:12)

“Woe unto them that are wise in their own eyes and prudent in their own sight!” (Is.5:21).

“The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?” (Obad.3-4).

2. The lukewarm are rejected because of their true condition: they are wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked. What does this mean? All of these refer to the spiritual life of the church and its believers.

- a. The church was spiritually “wretched” (hotalaiporos). The word actually says the wretched one in the Greek. The church had its full staff and all the programs—so much so that it felt it needed nothing. But the church was really the wretched one. The word means to be afflicted spiritually; to be spiritually contemptible; to be spiritually inferior. In God’s eyes they were spiritually lacking, very much so—so much so that they were afflicted, contemptible, and inferior.

“For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God” (Ro.3:23).

“And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness” (1 Jn.5:19).

“Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin?” (Pr.20:9).

“All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all” (Is.53:6).

- b. The church was spiritually “miserable” (eleeinos). The word means pitied, despicable. The believers felt self-sufficient and were carrying on all the works of the church, but they were doing it in their own strength. They were missing out on the greatest thing in all the world: the presence of Christ and the power of Christ. They were missing out on experiencing the power of Christ working in their lives and in the church. They were to be pitied. In God’s eyes they were despicable, for they were ignoring and neglecting His Son.

“If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth” (1 Jn.1:6).

“If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us” (1 Jn.1:8).

“If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us” (1 Jn.1:10).

“But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away” (Is.64:6).

- c. The church was spiritually “poor” (ptochos). They felt rich and in need of nothing, but in truth they were as spiritually poor as a church and person can be.

“And when he [the prodigal son] had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want” (Lk.15:14).

“That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world” (Eph.2:12).

“Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself” (1 Tim.6:5).

“Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked” (Rev.3:17).

“Therefore I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish: for they know not the way of the LORD, nor the judgment of their God” (Jer.5:4).

- d. The church was spiritually “blind” (tophlos). They could see only what was in the world: money and human ability and effort. They did not look beyond to the spiritual need of the human soul nor to the possibility of spiritual and supernatural power working within the church and the lives of people.

“But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!” (Mt.6:23).

“In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them” (2 Cor.4:4).

“Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart” (Eph.4:18).

- e. The church was spiritually “naked” (gumnos). They failed to see their need for the righteousness of Jesus Christ, for the clothing of Christ’s righteousness. They believed they could be good enough and do enough to become acceptable to God on their own. They felt their religious works and gifts to the church would secure God’s approval. They did little thinking about their need for the righteousness of Christ and about the death of Jesus Christ for their sins.

“And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment: and he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment [of Christ’s righteousness]? And he was speechless. Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth” (Mt.22:11-13).

“If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked [without the righteousness of Christ]” (2 Cor.5:3).

“Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame” (Rev.16:15).

Thought 1. Note that many lukewarm and half-committed persons never witness for Christ. They say that they do not witness for Christ...

- because they want to be kind and not offend people.
- because they are too meek and shy.
- because there is a place for professing Christ (the church) and a place for the affairs of this world.

But note: a lukewarm commitment to Christ is nauseating to Him. He will reject all of the lukewarm and half-committed.

5 (3:18-20) Repentance: there is the counsel. Christ advises the church to do three things.

1. Christ counsels them to buy spiritual gold, spiritual clothing, and spiritual eye salve. What do each of these mean? Note what each says.

- a. The church needed to buy spiritual gold that is purified in the fire. Remember the city of Laodicea was a banking center and a manufacturing center, extremely wealthy. Christ is teaching the church this: their wealth is not true wealth. What they need is spiritual gold, spiritual wealth. Why? So they can be truly rich. Gold represents spiritual riches—all the richness and inheritance offered by Christ—all the spiritual things that make life rich and overflowing: love, joy, peace, goodness, faith, assurance, confidence, security, hope. It is possessing all the abundance of life. Note that material possessions and wealth cannot give these things. Earthly riches cannot buy love, joy, peace, or happiness. Riches cannot keep a person healthy nor keep him alive nor erase emptiness and loneliness. This should tell man something, but so many are so blinded by worldly wealth and possessions that they ignore it: man’s great need is for spiritual gold. Above all else, we need the riches of the Spirit. Spiritual gold is the only thing that can satisfy our souls. Note where spiritual treasures are found: in Christ. If we are to be spiritually wealthy, we have to come to Christ and secure the wealth He has.

“But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal” (Mt.6:20).

“Either make the tree good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit” (Mt.12:33).

“Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me” (Mt.19:21).

“But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law” (Gal.5:22-23).

“Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ” (Ph.3:8).

“Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life” (1 Tim.6:19).

“[Moses] esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward” (Heb.11:26).

- b. The church needed to buy white clothing. Remember the city was a clothing center, a large textile and manufacturing center. Christ is telling them this: no matter how much clothing they manufacture, they lack the real clothing. What the church needs is spiritual clothing. Why? So the shame of their spiritual nakedness will not be exposed. This refers to the righteousness of Christ, the pure righteousness of Christ that makes a person acceptable to God. A person must be clothed in the righteousness of God; he must put on the righteousness of Christ. God does not accept a person because he...

- is religious
- has been baptized
- belongs to the church
- attends worship
- does religious works
- professes Christ
- does good
- gives generously

There is only one way that a person can be acceptable to God: by being clothed in the righteousness of Jesus Christ. Christ and Christ alone is sinless. He alone is the Perfect and Ideal Man. He and He alone has made the perfect sacrifice for sins. Therefore, Jesus Christ alone is acceptable to God. If a person is to ever be acceptable to God, he has to be clothed in the righteousness of Jesus Christ. As the Perfect and Ideal Man, the righteousness of Jesus Christ can stand for and cover all men. Therefore, when a person really believes and trusts in the righteousness of Jesus Christ, God counts that person's belief as righteousness. God counts that person as being in Christ, as being in the righteousness of Christ.

Note: if a person is not in Christ, if he has not been clothed in the righteousness of Christ, then he shall appear naked in the great day of judgment. He shall be ashamed before God and rejected by God.

This is the great counsel, the great advice of the Lord Jesus Christ, His great message to the lukewarm and half-committed church and believers: "Buy of me the white clothing of my righteousness. Putting on my clothing, my righteousness, is the only way you can ever be acceptable to God."

"Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new" (2 Cor.5:17).

"For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him" (2 Cor.5:21).

"And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness" (Eph.4:24).

"For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ [clothed in Christ] in God" (Col.3:3).

"And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him" (Col.3:10).

- c. The church needed to buy eye salve. Remember the city was well known for its medical school that concentrated on treating the eyes with a famous eye salve. Christ is telling them that no matter how much they treat their eyes, they are still blind and in the dark. Why? Because they do not spiritually see the Light of the world, the Lord Jesus Christ Himself. They see only themselves...

- their prosperous life and blessings
- their good behavior
- their good works
- their abilities
- their wisdom
- their religious gifts
- their prosperous church

They saw little if any of Christ Himself. They did not see their need for Him, nor did they see what His presence and power could do for them and their church. They were blinded to their own need and to Christ and the great difference He could make in life. The eye salve means the God-given ability to see spiritual truth. They needed to depend upon Christ to give them the ability to see the light of the world.

"In him was life; and the life was the light of men" (Jn.1:4).

"Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life" (Jn.8:12).

"Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth" (Jn.12:35).

"But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man" (1 Cor.2:14-15).

"For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ" (2 Cor.4:6).

"Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light" (Eph.5:14).

"That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world" (Ph.2:15).

2. Christ counsels them to be zealous and to repent. Note what Christ says: He loves them. They are lukewarm and indifferent to Him, only half-committed to Him, but He still loves them. The word used for love (philo) means a dear love, a tender, fatherly love. This is the reason He rebukes and chastens the lukewarm and half-committed person. It is not out of anger that Christ tells people they are doing wrong, sinning, coming short, and are doomed. He tells them out of love. They must know they are doing wrong in order to correct their behavior. They must know that judgment lies ahead so that they will do whatever is needed to save themselves. The Lord's rebuke and chastening hand is for one purpose only: Christ loves them and wants them to see their wrong, correct their behavior, and change their lives. He wants people to possess the fulness of life and the hope of eternal life.

Note: the matter is so critical that Christ exhorts them to be zealous in repenting. The word zealous means to boil and burn with zeal, sincerity, and earnestness in repenting. It means to burn a path to repent; to get to the matter of repenting immediately. Being lukewarm and half-committed to Christ is so serious a matter that a person must repent immediately. A person cannot afford one minute more before repenting. He is bordering on being spued out of the mouth of Christ (v.16).

3. Christ counsels them to open the door of their heart and to let Him in. This is one of the most beautiful and meaningful pictures of Christ in all of Scripture. At least five scenes are being pictured.

a. There is the standing Christ. He stands at the door. This symbolizes His readiness to enter the life of a person. He is the One who takes the initiative to save man.

⇒ He is the One who has walked over and come to man. Man has not come to Him.

⇒ He is the One who has approached man. Man has not approached Him.

Jesus Christ stands before the heart of man as the Savior of the world, as loving man so much that He has come into the world to save man. He is the One who has travelled such a great distance from the majesty of heaven down to man's heart.

"The LORD is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit" (Ps.34:18).

"The LORD is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth" (Ps.145:18).

"And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven" (Jn.3:13).

"For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world....For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me" (Jn.6:33, 38).

"This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die. I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world" (Jn.6:50-51).

"Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me" (Jn.8:42).

b. There is the knocking Christ. He stands at the door and knocks. This symbolizes the seeking Christ. Christ has not only come to earth and walked over to man's heart, He knocks upon the heart of man; He actively seeks to enter man's heart. He knocks and knocks at the door of man's heart and He refuses to give up. He keeps on knocking and knocking for man to open up and let Him in. Christ knocks so much that a person has to either open up or deaden his ears to the knock.

"How think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?" (Mt.18:12).

"What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?" (Lk.15:4).

"Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it?" (Lk.15:8).

"For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost" (Lk.19:10).

"The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me" (Jn.1:43).

"Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee" (Jn.5:14).

"Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God?" (Jn.9:35).

c. There is the pleading Christ. He pleads for entrance. This symbolizes the compassion of Christ. He not only knocks, He pleads and begs for man to open His heart. He is merciful and full of compassion. He knows what life should be, for He created life. Therefore, He knows that life must be lived in wholehearted commitment to righteousness or else it is wasted and doomed. He longs for man to have real life, abundant and eternal life. Therefore, He knocks and keeps on knocking at the door of a man's heart, and while He is knocking, He pleads and begs for the man to hear Him.

Thought 1. How often people hear the voice of Christ yet they refuse to let Him in! They hear His voice when they hear the Word of God preached and taught or witnessed to by a dynamic minister or some believer or from some tract or Bible literature. But they hardened their ears and pay no attention to the pleading of the Lord's voice.

"Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest" (Mt.11:28).

"And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come. Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage" (Mt.22:3-4).

"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!" (Mt.23:37).

"And sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready" (Lk.14:17).

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life" (Jn.5:24).

"But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people" (Ro.10:21).

"But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils" (1 Cor.10:20).

"And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely" (Rev.22:17).

"Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; through they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool" (Is.1:18).

"Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price" (Is.55:1).

- d. There is the penetrating Christ. This is the most glorious promise imaginable! Imagine the Spirit of Jesus Christ living within the heart and life and body of a person. When a person hears His voice and opens his heart, Christ enters; He penetrates the life of the person. This symbolizes the life changing presence and power of the living Christ. When He enters and penetrates a person's life, He causes the most radical changes imaginable.

⇒ He causes the person to be born again.

"Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God" (Jn.3:3-5).

⇒ He makes a new creature out of the person.

"Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new" (2 Cor.5:17).

⇒ He makes a new man out of the person.

"And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness" (Eph.4:24).

"And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him" (Col.3:10).

⇒ He changes the person's corruptible nature into an incorruptible nature.

"Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever" (1 Pt.1:23).

⇒ He gives the person a new divine nature, the very nature of God Himself.

"Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust" (2 Pt.1:4).

- e. There is the companion Christ. This symbolizes fellowship. When Jesus Christ enters and penetrates a person's heart, He lives forever within the life of the person. He is always present with the person...

- ⇒ looking after and caring for him.
- ⇒ talking and sharing with him.
- ⇒ leading and guiding him.
- ⇒ strengthening and empowering him.
- ⇒ providing for and meeting his needs.
- ⇒ maneuvering and working all things out for good for him.
- ⇒ furnishing and filling him with love, joy, and peace.

When Jesus Christ enters a life there is no good thing whatsoever that is kept from the person. He has the richest fellowship possible, fellowship and communion with the Son of God Himself. And the person has it forever and ever.

“And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?” (Lk.24:32).

“I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me” (Jn.17:23).

“God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord” (1 Cor.1:9).

“Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?” (1 Cor.3:16).

“What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s” (1 Cor.6:19-20).

“I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me” (Gal.2:20).

“But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law” (Gal.5:22-23).

“That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; and to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God” (Eph.3:17-19).

“To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory” (Col.1:27).

6 (3:21-22) Overcomers—Promise: there is the promise to the overcomers. The promise is glorious! The overcomer shall sit upon the throne of Christ and of God. The person who overcomes the lukewarmness and half-hearted commitment to Christ, who repents and turns his life over to Christ, shall sit upon the throne of Christ and of God. What does this mean?

- That we shall rule and reign with Christ forever and ever.
- That we shall be assigned certain duties in the new heavens and earth, given the responsibility to oversee and manage the universe for Christ (Mt.25:21, 23; Lk.19:17, 19).
- That we shall rule and oversee the work and duties of angels (1 Cor.6:2-3).

It means that we shall rule as kings with Christ throughout the whole universe and for all of eternity (see note, Rewards—Rev.14:13 for a complete list of the rewards of believers. Also see note—Rev.21:24-27.)

VISION TWO, 4:1-16:21

DIVISION III

THE PICTURE OF THINGS HEREAFTER, 4:1-5:14

A. The Throne of God: The Focal Point of History, 4:1-11

(4:1-11) Introduction—Vision—Revelation, Outlined—End of the World: this begins a new vision, the second great vision given to John the Apostle. The Lord’s personal message to the individual churches is now over. He has told them who He is, pointed out their failures, and warned and counselled them to correct their failures. He has also given them the great promises of heaven if they will only overcome.

Now it is time for the churches to see the future events that are coming upon the earth. It is time for the churches to know that Jesus Christ is coming back to earth. He is going to end the world and establish the kingdom of God forever and ever in a new heavens and earth. Remember the brief outline of the Revelation given by John:

“Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter” (Rev.1:19).

- ⇒ “The things which thou hast seen” (the vision of the glorified Christ).
- ⇒ “The things which are” (the churches upon earth, their state and condition and the Lord’s personal message to them).
- ⇒ “The things which shall be hereafter” (the future events that are to happen at the end of the world and throughout eternity).

The present passage, this vision of John, begins the future events. “The things which shall be hereafter” are now revealed. And note how much God reveals to us, nineteen great chapters—an enormous amount of detail about coming events (chapters 4-22).

In this vision two great things are seen: first, the throne of God is seen. Second, God Himself is seen holding a book which contains the destiny of the world in the end times. However the book is sealed, and no one is found worthy to open and reveal the contents of the book. This discourages John, for the possibility of seeing the destiny of the world had excited him. But just as John despairs, One steps forward who is worthy to open the book. That Person is the Lamb of God, the Lamb slain before the foundation of the earth, Jesus Christ Himself.

Now to the present passage: the throne of God. John is transported into heaven and the very first thing that he sees is the throne of God. He sees God Himself seated upon His great throne.

1. John is given the vision (v.1-2).
2. The One on the throne (v.2-3).
3. The twenty-four elders (v.4).
4. The awesomeness of the throne (v.5-6).
5. The four living creatures who surround the throne of God (v.6-9).
6. The function of the elders (v.10-11).

1 (4:1-2) Heaven—Door, Spiritual—Vision: John is given the vision. Five quick things happened to John .

1. He saw a door opened in heaven. What he was about to see was coming from heaven, from God Himself. The future events were not of his own imagination. They were to be of God, of the very Word of God itself.

Thought 1. This means we can trust the events written down in Revelation. They will happen as recorded. It is the Word of God.

Thought 2. There are three doors mentioned in Revelation.

1) There is the open door for evangelism and missions, the door which God opens to the churches for bearing witness to the glorious gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. It is the opportunity that God opens for them to carry the gospel to their neighbors, communities, cities, states, and countries and world—even to the uttermost part of the earth.

“I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name” (Rev.3:8).

“But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth” (Acts 1:8).

2) There is the door of the human heart. When believers carry the message of the gospel to their neighbors, it is then up to the individual person to open the door of his heart and receive the gospel. The decision is the neighbor’s. Every person has a door that has to be opened before Christ will enter—the door of his heart.

“Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me” (Rev.3:20).

3) There is the door of revelation. Once a person has opened the door of his heart to Christ, Christ reveals the glorious things of Himself, of God, of heaven, and of this world. In addition, Christ reveals some of the events that are to take place as history unfolds itself—some of the events that surround the return of the Lord Jesus Christ and the end time.

“I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven” (Rev.4:1).

“Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God. Which things also we speak, not in the words which man’s wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual. But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned” (1 Cor.2:12-14).

2. John heard a commanding voice, the very same voice he had heard in the first vision (Rev.1:10).

3. John was called to come up here into heaven. Note why! The reason is clearly stated: to see future events, things that must take place. The word must is a most important word. The events of world history are not by chance. They do not simply happen. They are of God, of His will—things that must happen. God works them out. They are according to His divine will. God is sovereign. He rules over the world. History is in His hands and under His ultimate control.

4. John was immediately in the spirit: he was having a deep, intense spiritual experience with God; he was in an ecstatic state with his mind and spirit taken up and above this earth into heaven.

5. John saw the most astounding sight imaginable: God and the throne of God. John emphatically declares that He saw God sitting on the throne of God.

Thought 1. The picture being dramatized is this: the throne in heaven, God's throne, is the throne above all thrones. It is the supreme seat of honor and majesty, of sovereignty and power. God is the supreme Majesty of the universe, the One who controls and holds all the events of history in His hands. He is the Supreme Authority over all the world and the coming events of the end time. No person can cause the events to take place but Him. The Lord Jesus Christ is returning to earth and the events of the end time are going to happen. But they are going to happen because of Him and because of Him alone. And note: the throne is "set in heaven." That is, the events are set forever. God rules and reigns forever. There will never be an end to His rule. (This is great security to the believer. God has promised to deliver and keep the believer from the hour of trial, the great tribulation [cp. Rev.3:10]).

2 (4:2-3) God, Described: there is the sight of God sitting upon the great throne of God. Note an astounding thing. The appearance of the One on the throne is so glorious and majestic that He is indescribable. No human shape or form can describe Him. God is described in terms of light, the dazzling light of the most precious gems and jewels of that day. He is seen in all of His brilliance and dazzling splendor (Ps.104:2; 1 Tim.6:16; 1 Jn.1:4; cp. Jn.12:35-36).

The jewels chosen to describe God proclaim a marvelous message to the hearer. They were considered the most brilliant and the most valued, precious, and desired gems on earth. Thus God is seen and described as the most brilliant and valued, precious, and desired Being—a Being of indescribable glory and splendor.

- ⇒ The countenance of God shone like a jasper stone. The stone referred to was different from the jasper stone of today. The idea is that the stone was some sort of translucent crystal through which light was shining. It was shining so brightly that it was apparently like the concentrated light of a laser. This represents the penetrating perfection and purity of God.
- ⇒ The sardine stone was a fiery red stone and it represents the justice of God.
- ⇒ The rainbow that surrounded the throne looked like emerald green. This represents the mercy of God and the new covenant of grace given to man by God. (Cp. the promise of mercy made to Noah. Cp. Gen.9:11-17.)

Thought 1. Note this: the throne of God covers the whole scope of salvation.

- ⇒ There is God in all of His perfection and purity. And there is man who comes short of God's perfection and purity, short of God's glory.

"For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God" (Ro.3:23).

- ⇒ There is God's justice and judgment. Man, being short of God's perfection and purity, cannot live with God. God can allow only perfection into His presence. If He allowed sin and unrighteousness to live in His presence, they would contaminate heaven; heaven would no longer be heaven. Therefore, God must execute judgment upon sin and unrighteousness.
- ⇒ There is God's mercy and grace. God loves man; therefore, He sent His Son to bear the sins of man. His Son actually took the sins of man upon Himself and bore the guilt of judgment against them. Therefore, man can now be free of sin. He can become acceptable to God if he will accept the sacrifice of Christ for his sins. God has had mercy upon man.

All of this is seen in the throne of God, the whole scope of human history, of the glorious salvation God has planned for man. The throne of God and God Himself declares that He is perfect and pure and just and yet full of mercy and grace. Note how all this is exactly what man needs: he needs perfection, and he needs justice to be executed upon the evil and unrighteousness of this earth. He needs to receive mercy and grace so that he can live forever in perfection.

This is the light of God, the very light that man needs. It is the penetrating light that is gloriously reflected from the throne and presence of God. God is light and in Him is no darkness at all.

"Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment: who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain" (Ps.104:2).

"Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power everlasting" (1 Tim.6:16).

"This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all" (1 Jn.1:5).

"Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth. While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them" (Jn.12:35-36).

3 (4:4) Elders of Revelation: there is the sight of twenty-four elders sitting around the throne of God. Note what is said about the elders.

1. They are seated upon thrones that surround God's throne. This shows that they...
 - are near God, being honored with His presence.
 - are resting in God, being fulfilled, complete, and satisfied.
 - are enthroned with God, that is, they are given a permanent place in His presence forever and ever.
2. They are clothed in white. This means that they are clothed in the purity and holiness of God and of Christ. There is no imperfection in them at all (see note, pt. 1^b—Rev.3:18-20 for more discussion).

3. They have crowns of gold on their heads. This means that they hold positions of authority; that they are given some duty and responsibility to oversee for God; that they serve God by overseeing some rule and domain; and that others serve under them. Simply stated, they rule and reign for God, serving Him by managing some vast rule and domain of the universe.

DEEPER STUDY # 1

(4:4) Elders of Revelation: Who are the elders of revelation? Note three points.

1. Opinions vary and they differ drastically. When all the views are considered, the strongest arguments boil down to three major thoughts.

a. They are thought to be the twelve patriarchs and the twelve apostles combined—the heads of the believers, of the church of both the Old and New Testament. That is, they are thought to be the heads and representatives of all the believers of both the Old and New Testament. The reasons for holding this position are as follows:

- ⇒ The patriarchs' names are on the twelve gates of the New Jerusalem and the apostles' names are on the foundations (Rev.21:12, 14).
- ⇒ A strong argument for this position is their song which proclaims that the Lamb "has redeemed us to God." They call themselves redeemed ones (Rev.5:9, Textus, Receptus, the Greek text used for the KJV. However, this is disputed. See note—Rev.5:9.)
- ⇒ They are numbered and crowned, whereas spirits and angels are never specifically numbered or crowned in Scripture.
- ⇒ Everything about the elders is said to be a promise to believers: the thrones, the white clothing, and the crowns.

b. They are thought to be angelic beings, a council of angelic beings surrounding God (1 Ki.22:19; Ps.89:7; Is.24:23). The reasons for holding this position are as follows:

- ⇒ The angels are said to be organized in special ranks or orders. The various ranks are bound to have leaders or elders responsible for overseeing each of the ranks (Ro.8:38; Eph.3:10; Col.1:16). Angels are clothed in white (Mt.28:3; Mk.16:5; Jn.20:12; Acts 1:10).
- ⇒ Thrones are ascribed to angelic beings, and it is assumed that if thrones are, then angels must be wearing crowns, at least some higher ranking angels must be. However, crowns are never said to be worn by angels (Ro.8:38; Eph.3:10; Col.1:16). The angels are related more to the four living creatures and their function—the function of surrounding the throne of God and of worshipping and serving Him—than are the redeemed saints. The picture of the elders is always associated with the four living creatures (Rev.5:8; 8:3; 7:9-11, 13-14; 11:16-18; 14:1-3; 19:1-4).
- ⇒ A council of angelic beings are said to surround the throne of God in the Old Testament (Ps.89:7; Is.24:23; 1 Ki.22:19).
- ⇒ Angels are more likely to offer up the prayers of believers to God than some elder believers from among the saints of God (Rev.5:8).
- ⇒ An angel is more likely to reveal future events to John during his vision than is an elder believer. This happens later on in the vision of John (Rev.7:13-14).
- ⇒ Twenty-four angels are more likely to serve as the counterpart to the elders of Israel (Ex.24:11).
- ⇒ Twenty-four angels are more likely to serve as the counterpart of twenty-four orders of priests than are believers. The earthly pattern of heavenly things is more likely to be a pattern of angels than of believers (1 Chron.24).
- ⇒ The visions of the beings surrounding the throne of God is this: there is the great innumerable multitude of believers, then the angels, then the elders, and then the four living creatures. The point is that the elders are listed with angelic beings in contrast to the redeemed (cp. Rev.7:9-11; 19:1-4).

c. In the Old Testament there were thousands of priests. Of course, they all could not come together at the same time to serve in the temple. Thus King David, divided the priests into twenty-four groups, each group to serve two weeks at a time (1 Chron.24). One thing needs to be noted. When the twenty-four priests met in the temple precincts to serve their two week ministry, the whole priestly house was represented. Therefore, the elders in heaven are said to be the symbolic representatives of all the redeemed of the Lord.

- ⇒ The crowns and white robes are promised to the faithful (Rev.2:10; 3:4).
- ⇒ The thrones of authority and responsibility are promised to the disciples (Mt.19:27-30).

2. All the Scriptures that mention the elders are these.

a. The elders sit on thrones surrounding the throne of God.

“And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold” (Rev.4:4).

“And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth” (Rev.14:3).

“And the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen; Alleluia” (Rev.19:4).

b. The elders cast their crowns before the throne of God.

“The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne” (Rev.4:10).

c. The elders worship God.

“And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever, the four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying, Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created” (Rev.4:9-11).

“And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints. And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us [Greek, men] to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; and hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth. And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands” (Rev.5:8-11).

“And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever” (Rev.5:14).

“And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God” (Rev.7:11).

“And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God” (Rev.11:16).

“And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth” (Rev.14:3).

“And the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen; Alleluia” (Rev.19:4).

d. One elder encourages John when he weeps.

“And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof” (Rev.5:5).

e. One elder brings the progress of saints to God.

“And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth” (Rev.5:6).

f. One elder explains part of the vision to John.

“And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof” (Rev.5:5).

“And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they? And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb” (Rev.7:13-14).

3. Note two significant points.

- a. The elders are mentioned right along with God, Christ, the living creatures, angels, and with the redeemed believers who are already in heaven. They are set apart or distinct and different from each of these. Therefore, if the elders are angels as some believe, they are the leaders or elders of the angels. If they are believers, then they must be leaders or elders from among believers.
- b. John nowhere says who the elders are. He only speaks of them as part of the vast array of heavenly beings who worship and serve our God and His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ.

(Remember: the purpose of The Preacher's Outline and Sermon Bible is to present only what the Scripture says, not to give personal opinions. The beat of our heart is to be true to the Word of God and to let the Word speak for itself. This we do to the best of our ability. We leave the declarations of denominational and theological positions up to the individual minister of God and to those who feel called to make such declarations. Our call with The Preacher's Outline and Sermon Bible is only to outline the Scripture and to develop the points of the outline to the best of our ability. Our prayer is that this approach will help you to get into the Word of God more and more and help you to expound the Word more and more to God's dear people.)

4 (4:5-6) God, Throne of—Throne: there is the awesomeness of the throne. Three things are now added to the throne of God to show how awesome the presence of God is.

1. There is God's voice which is so commanding that it sounds like a combination of many voices and of lightnings and thunderings (v.5). This shows us just how majestic and awesome the voice of God is. His voice flashes and thunders the great pronouncements of God. The very will of God is sounded forth from the throne of God with the speed of lightning and with the awesomeness of thunder. And His will is done. The events of history take place as He has ordered. This particular sight of God's majestic pronouncements is a scene of the coming judgment. The dreadful storm is about to break loose on the earth beneath.

2. The seven torches of burning fire are a symbol of the Holy Spirit in all of His fulness and completeness (v.5. See notes—Rev.1:4; 3:1 for more discussion.)

3. There is a sea of glass stretching out before the throne (v.6^a). The sea "looks like a transparent glassy sea, as if of crystal" (The Amplified New Testament).

⇒ The elders of Israel saw a similar sight.

"And they saw the God of Israel: and there was under his feet as it were a paved work of a sapphire stone, and as it were the body of heaven in his clearness" (Ex.24:10).

⇒ Ezekiel himself saw a similar sight.

"And the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the color of the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above....and above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it" (Ezk.1:22, 26).

⇒ God had instructed the temple to have a brazen sea stretched out before it, and remember: the tabernacle and temple were shadows of real things in heaven.

"And he made a molten sea, ten cubits from the one brim to the other: it was round all about, and his height was five cubits: and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about" (1 Ki.7:23).

The sea of glass symbolizes at least three things.

a. The glassy sea shows us the value and preciousness of God's presence. In the old days it was almost impossible to make pure glass. Pure glass that was as clear as crystal was considered to be as valuable and precious as gold.

"The gold and the crystal cannot equal it: and the exchange of it shall not be for jewels of fine gold" (Job 28:17).

b. The glassy sea shows us how clearly God is able to see everything that is out before His throne. It stands for His omniscience and penetrating vision into all things. Nothing is hid from Him who is upon the throne of heaven.

c. The glassy sea shows us the spectacular purity of God, as clear and pure as perfect glass and crystal. The glassy sea shows us how far away God is from the impurities of a contaminated world. He is as far away as a sea made of pure glass and pure crystal.

5 (4:6-9) Creature of Revelation, The Four: there are the four living creatures who surround the throne of God. Note three things about them.

1. First is their position. They are the closest beings to God. They are the angelic beings who are posted in the middle of each side of the throne. They are the guardians of God's throne and of His holy presence (cp. Rev.4:6; 5:6; 14:3).

2. Note their description.

⇒ They are always found near the throne of God (Rev.4:6; 5:6; 14:3).

⇒ They have six wings and are full of eyes (Rev.4:6, 8).

⇒ Their function has to do with the holiness and wrath of God (Rev.6:1, 7; 15:7).

⇒ They declare the holiness of God day and night and never cease to declare His holiness (Rev.4:8).

Who are these living beings who are privileged to be in God's presence day and night, and to declare His majestic holiness? These beings who never have to leave God's presence, not even for a moment? Who would be so honored as to have this glorious privilege?

Undoubtedly, they are beings who were created for this very purpose. They seem to be the same beings as the cherubim seen in Ezekiel's vision (Ezk.10:4) and the seraphim seen in Isaiah's vision (Is.6:1-3). Note that John chooses certain animals on earth to describe certain characteristics that he notices.

⇒ One being was like a lion: this symbolizes supremacy

⇒ One being was like an ox (calf): this symbolizes strength.

⇒ One being was like a man: this symbolizes intelligence.

⇒ One being was like an eagle: this symbolizes swiftness.

3. Note their function: to glorify and honor God day and night. The living creatures show us two things about God. First, they show us the supremacy, strength, intelligence, and swiftness of God. They stand for all that God is.

Second, they show us that all of nature owes its worship to God, both animals and man. They picture all the beings of nature standing before God and praising Him. All the world, both animal and man, are represented in the four living beings as they worship God day and night, crying out to Him, “Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come” (v.8).

⇒ All the world is to praise God for His holiness.

“Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy” (1 Pt.1:16).

“Exalt the LORD our God, and worship at his holy hill; for the LORD our God is holy” (Ps.99:9).

“And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory” (Is.6:3).

“Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest” (Rev.15:4).

“For I am the LORD that bringeth you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: ye shall therefore be holy, for I am holy” (Lev.11:45).

⇒ All the world is to praise God for His sovereignty and omnipotence.

“I know that thou canst do every thing, and that no thought can be withholden from thee” (Job 42:2).

“But our God is in the heavens: he hath done whatsoever he hath pleased” (Ps.115:3).

“Yea, before the day was I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall let [hinder] it?” (Is.43:13).

“But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible” (Mt.19:26).

“Now to him that is of power to stablish you according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began” (Ro.16:25).

⇒ All the world is to praise God for His eternal existence.

“For I lift up my hand to heaven, and say, I live for ever” (Dt.32:40).

“The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms” (Dt.33:27).

“Thy name, O Lord, endureth for ever; and thy memorial, O Lord, throughout all generations” (Ps.135:13).

“But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day” (2 Pt.3:8).

“I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty” (Rev.1:8).

Thought 1. What an indictment against man! How little we praise and worship God—truly praise and worship Him. Imagine! There are four beings who have been created to worship God day and night, never to cease from worshipping Him. Four beings who cry out day and night the glorious praise: “Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come” (v.8).

6 (4:10-11) Elders of Revelation, Twenty-Four: there is the function of the twenty-four elders. Their function is four-fold.

1. They show subjection and subservience. They fall down before the throne of God. They yield all they are and have to Him.

Thought 1. What a lesson for us! How we must learn how great God is—that He dwells in such glory and majesty, dominion, and power that we owe Him our lives and our all.

“I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God” (Ro.12:1-2).

“What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s” (1 Cor.6:19-20).

“And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work” (2 Cor.9:8).

“What shall I render unto the LORD for all his benefits toward me?” (Ps.116:12).

2. They worship God as the eternal God.

Thought 1. He alone is our hope for living forever. If we fail to worship Him and to worship Him in truth, then we shall miss eternal life.

“O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the Lord our maker” (Ps.95:6).

“O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth” (Ps.96:9).

“Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve” (Mt.4:10).

“God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth” (Jn.4:24).

“Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters” (Rev.14:7).

“Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellow servant, and of thy brethren, the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God” (Rev.22:9).

3. They show the supreme worthiness of the Lord. They cast their crowns before the Lord. The Lord has given the right to rule with him by overseeing certain domains throughout the universe. But in true humility and thankfulness, the elders cast their crowns down before Him. Why? To show that He alone is worthy and they are acknowledging the truth forever and ever.

“I will call on the Lord, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies” (2 Sam.22:4).

“Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created” (Rev.4:11).

“Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing” (Rev.5:12).

4. They vocally declare His worthiness, and they praise Him as the Lord God of the universe and of creation. The Greek actually reads “Thou art worthy, our Lord and our God” (ho kurios kai ho Theos hemon). This means that God is supreme; He is the first Being of the universe. He is the glorious Creator of all things. He is the One who created all things for His pleasure.

“In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth” (Gen.1:1).

“Thou, even thou, art Lord alone; thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou pre-servest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee” (Neh.9:6).

“He stretcheth out the north over the empty place, and hangeth the earth upon nothing” (Job 26:7).

“Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands” (Ps.102:25).

“And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein” (Acts 14:15).

“Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear” (Heb.11:3).

DIVISION III

THE PICTURE OF THINGS HEREAFTER, 4:1-5:14

B. The Book of Destiny is Sealed: The Future of the World, 5:1-4

(5:1-4) Introduction: there should be no break between chapters four and five. The same scene of God's throne is being covered. God is seen sitting upon His throne and holding a sealed book in His right hand. Note again, the book is sealed. It has never been opened. The importance of the sealed book cannot be over-emphasized. The book is the key to understanding the rest of Revelation. The book or scroll is the official document of the last days of human history, the climactic events of the universe. The world's future is about to be unfolded before one's very eyes (cp. Rev.1:1) (Note: a person might want to combine this outline and the next if he has time in his teaching session.)

1. The book itself (v.1).
2. The search for one worthy to open the Book of Destiny (v.2-4).

1 (5:1) Destiny, Book of: there is the book itself.

1. John sees God holding the book in the palm of His right hand. The picture is this: God is extending the book outward, poised to hand it to someone if a person can be found worthy enough to open it. The fact that God Himself is holding the book in His right hand shows us several things:

⇒ God is the supreme Authority over the end of the world. He governs all the events of history both upon the earth and throughout the universe. God holds the future in His hands, the destiny of the world.

“Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever” (1 Tim.1:17).

“And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth” (Rev.19:6).

“The LORD shall reign for ever and ever” (Ex.15:18).

⇒ God is ready to carry out and execute the events. He is ready for the end time to begin, ready for the end of the world to be launched. It is simply a matter of finding someone worthy to carry out and oversee the events for God.

2. The book is written on both the front and back of the pages. The book was actually a roll or a scroll. Remember: there were no printing presses or books as we know them back then. They wrote on small sheets of paper (papyrus) about ten inches by eight inches, close to the size of our eleven by eight and one half inch sheets. If a large amount of writing was to be done, they joined or taped sheets together. When the writing was completed, they rolled the sheets up and tied some thread or ribbon around the roll. This is what is meant by the book being sealed. They seldom wrote on the back side, for whatever was written on the back side would be exposed when the last sheet was rolled up and tied.

Again, note that the book or scroll held by God was written on both the front and back. This shows us...

- that the events of the end time are many and that it will take some time, a great deal of time, for all of them to take place.
- that God is going to reveal a great deal about the end time to man. When? As soon as He can find someone worthy enough to open the book.

3. The book is sealed with seven seals. This shows us three things.

- a. The seven seals show us that the book is the last will and testament of God. In the Roman world a man's will had to be witnessed by seven persons, and each attached his own personal seal to one of the threads of the document. The will could be opened only when the recipient came to claim the will. This book in God's right hand may mean that it is His last will for the earth; the book contains what He wills for those who have rejected and cursed Him and what He wills for those who have accepted and worshipped Him. The book is His last will and testament for the consummation of the world.
- b. The seven seals show us that the book is large; it has a great deal of material in it. It has so much that seven seals are required to bind and hold it together. Again, this means...

- that there are a lot of events that are included in the end time; that many events are to take place.
 - that God is going to reveal much to man as soon as someone is found worthy enough to open this book.
- c. The seven seals also show us the secrecy of the book. God has sealed the book with seven seals in order to keep the events of the end time from being known. They are not to be known by man until God Himself is ready to reveal them. Man can never figure out the events, not by his own intellect.

“O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!” (Ro.11:33).

2 (5:2-4) Destiny, Book of: there is the search for one worthy to open the book. Note four significant facts.

1. John saw a strong angel—an angel so strong that he could shout throughout the universe and be heard by all in both heaven and earth. He shouted out the most penetrating question of human history: “Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?” This shows us how supreme and majestic God really is. He is so far above all creatures—even the creatures in heaven as well as those on earth—that a search has to be conducted to find someone who is worthy to approach Him and carry out His will.

2. The search fails. There just is no being any place that is worthy to approach God and to execute His will throughout the universe.

- a. No person in heaven was found worthy to open the book. Imagine! The glorious angels, the seraphim and cherubim, the four living creatures privileged to surround the throne of God, the twenty four elders, all the redeemed—no being in heaven was worthy enough to approach God and open the book.
- b. No person on earth was found worthy to open the book: no statesman, no educator, no scientist, no minister, no prophet, no astrologer, no magician.
- c. No person under the earth: no person from among the dead—as great as some have been in past history—no person from the past was found worthy to open the book.

“But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory: which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory” (1 Cor.2:7-8).

“But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned” (1 Cor.2:14).

“In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them” (2 Cor.4:4).

“Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart” (Eph.4:18).

3. The search fails, and John breaks down and cries bitterly. Why? There were two reasons. Because John saw something that he had never seen before:

⇒ John saw the greatness of God, the supreme majesty and glory of God, how far superior God is to all living creatures.

There was not a single person or being any place that could be found worthy to approach God and open the book and carry out the events of human history. All creatures were too short of God’s glory—all creatures, both of heaven and earth—were so far short of God’s glory and majesty that they just could not approach God, not apart from His glorious mercy and grace. As stated, John saw as never before the greatness of God, the glory and majesty, the dominion and power of God, how high and how far superior God is to all creatures. God broke John in humility and with a sense of his own unworthiness. John wept bitterly at his own unworthiness before God who is so high and lifted up.

“I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire” (Mt.3:11).

“The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed” (Mt.8:8).

“And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me” (Mt.10:38).

“Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham” (Lk.3:8).

“And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants....And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son” (Lk.15:19, 21).

“And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all” (Lk.21:3).

But John wept for another reason as well: he was not going to be able to see the future of the world, the events of the end time. The promise had been made to him that he would see these things which “must be hereafter,” but now he was not going to see them. And why? Because there was no person worthy to approach God and open the book. He and all the other beings of heaven and earth were too far short of God to understand and execute the will of God for the end time.

“Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man” (Lk.21:36).

“Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter” (Jn.13:7).

“I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now” (Jn.16:12).

“For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known” (1 Cor.13:12).

4. The reason no person is worthy to open this book is because of its contents. The book is the destiny of the world—what is to happen in the end time at the end of the world. Chapters 6-21 show this clearly. It is the book of redemption (cp. Lk.21:28; Ro.8:22-23; Eph.1:13-14). God’s people are to be redeemed and the evil and corrupt people are to be overthrown and judged. Human history and all matter throughout the universe—all that is corrupt, deteriorating, decaying, and dying—is to be overthrown and consumed. And a new earth and a new heaven are to be created. All the redeemed are to inherit and inhabit the new earth and heavens. This is both the fate and the redemption of the world. This is history written before it happens. Therefore, the person who opens this book must be a person who can grasp exactly what the book is saying, and then he must be able to carry out God’s will and execute the events. The person must have the very mind and power of God. Who can execute and rule over the events of the end time? There is only one such Person: the Son of God Himself, the Lord Jesus Christ. Christ and Christ alone is worthy to open the book. This is the book of redemption, the book of historical optimism. The same book is referred to in Daniel 12:8-9 and Ezekiel 2:9-10. The message of this book is now prophesied as the seals are broken and the events of the last days are seen. Note the size and thickness of this particular scroll. It takes seven seals to bind it. All that is in the rest of Revelation is contained therein.

Note also, the book is in God’s hand. History is in God’s hand. He is in charge. He has a plan, a purpose for the universe. Who is worthy to carry out this plan, this purpose? Who can rule and reign over these events? The idea is that Christ and Christ alone is worthy.

Thought 1. Note that the same book is referred to by Ezekiel and Daniel.

“And when I looked, behold, a hand was sent unto me; and, lo, a roll of a book was therein; and he spread it before me; and it was written within and without: and there was written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe” (Ezk.2:9-10).

“And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things? And he said, Go thy way, Daniel: for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end” (Dan.12:8-9).

Thought 2. Note three significant lessons for us.

- 1) The book is in God’s hand. He is in charge of human history, and He has a definite plan and purpose for the universe. The fear of the bomb, an unstable economy, the environment, the drugs, the criminal society, and the other massive problems of the world seem to have no answer. But God does: He is going to bring history to a climax and establish righteousness throughout all the earth. The believer is to be the most optimistic person on earth.

“In my Father’s house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also” (Jn.14:2-3).

“Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ” (Tit.2:12-13).

“Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is” (1 Jn.3:2).

- 2) We should all bow in utter humility and dependency upon God, for He is higher above us than even the outer reaches of space. His glory is set above the heavens. We are nothing before Him; consequently, we should live in the reverence and fear and worship of Him, praising Him day and night while we have breath.

“O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the Lord our maker” (Ps.95:6).

“O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth” (Ps.96:9).

“Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve” (Mt.4:10).

“God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth” (Jn.4:24).

“Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters” (Rev.14:7).

“Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellow servant, and of thy brethren, the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God” (Rev.22:9).

REVELATION 5:1-4

- 3) We should pay close attention to the book of Revelation, study and live in its message. It is the revelation of God's will for the end time, the events that are yet to take place throughout the universe.

"[The mystery of God] which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit" (Eph.3:5).

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth" (2 Tim.2:15).

"All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness" (2 Tim.3:16).

"As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby: if so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious" (1 Pt.2:2-3).

"These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so" (Acts 17:11).

"And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified" (Acts 20:32).

THE PICTURE OF THINGS HEREAFTER, 4:1-5:14

C. The Book of Destiny is Opened: The Lamb Alone is Worthy to Open the Book, 5:5-14

(5:5-14) Introduction: this is a most dramatic moment. Remember, John is having a vision, and his mind or spirit has been transported above earth into heaven. Therefore, everything he is experiencing is bound to be dramatic. But this moment must be the most dramatic of all: he is about to get his very first glimpse of Jesus Christ Himself. He is about to see the exalted Lord.

The background is this: God is holding the book of destiny in His right hand. A search has been conducted throughout the whole universe for someone worthy enough to open the book. But no one is worthy; there is no one good enough to open it. John is heartbroken and is weeping bitterly, for God is ready to reveal the secrets of the end time to man. But no person can be found to open the book and to oversee the climactic events of the end time. The situation looks hopeless. But then all of a sudden one of the heavenly elders steps forth and announces that someone has been found to open the book of destiny. There is one Person who is worthy. This is the great subject of this passage: the book of destiny is opened—the Lamb alone is worthy.

1. The glorious announcement: God has intervened and sent One worthy to open the book (v.5).
2. The supreme moment: the first sight of Christ in heaven (v.6-7).
3. The majestic worship by the four living creatures and the elders (v.8-10).
4. The majestic worship by the angels (v.11-12).
5. The majestic worship by the whole universe (v.13-14).

1 (5:5) Jesus Christ, Names and Titles—Lion of Judah—Root of David: there is the glorious announcement—God has intervened. He Himself has sent One worthy to open the book of destiny. Who is He?

1. He is the "Lion of Judah." This is a title of the Messiah. The symbol of the lion shows that He is the strongest and most powerful member of the tribe of Israel. Judah was the strongest tribe of Israel, the strongest by far. Therefore way back in history, God had prophesied through Jacob that his own son Judah would be a "lion's whelp" (young cub). If Judah himself was only a young cub, then the Messiah Himself must be like the King of beasts, the lion. Very simply, the prophecy predicted that the coming Messiah would possess the strength and power of a lion, the king of beasts. Who then is worthy to open the book? Jesus Christ, the lion of Judah, the all powerful Messiah and King. He and He alone is worthy enough to take the book and carry out the events of the end time.

“Judah is a lion’s whelp: from the prey, my son, thou art gone up: he stooped down, he couched as a lion, and as an old lion; who shall rouse him up? The scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh [Messiah] come” (Gen.49:9-10).

2. He is the “Root of David.” The Messiah was to be of the household of David, of the root and seed of Jesse, of his family tree, of his blood, of his stem. Who then is worthy to open the book? The prophesied Son of David, the Messiah and King of the world. He and He alone is worthy to take the book and carry out the events of the end time.

“And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots” (Is.11:1).

3. He is the One who has prevailed and conquered and won the victory; therefore, He is able to open the book of destiny. Over what has He prevailed? What is it that He has conquered?

“He hath prevailed to open the book” (v.5).

⇒ He has conquered sin.

“In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace” (Eph.1:7).

“Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high” (Heb.1:3).

“Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed” (1 Pt.2:24).

“For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit” (1 Pt.3:18).

⇒ He has conquered death.

“For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death” (1 Cor.15:25-26).

“But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel” (2 Tim.1:10).

“Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; and deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage” (Heb.2:14-15).

⇒ He has conquered this evil world.

“These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world” (Jn.16:33).

“Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father” (Gal.1:4).

⇒ He has conquered Satan and all other evil forces.

“Or else how can one enter into a strong man’s house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house” (Mt.12:29).

“And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven” (Lk.10:18).

“Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out” (Jn.12:31).

“Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me” (Jn.14:30).

“Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged” (Jn.16:11).

“For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, until I make thy foes thy footstool” (Acts 2:34-35).

“And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it” (Col.2:15; cp. Heb.2:14-15).

⇒ He has conquered all rule and authority and power.

“Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power” (1 Cor.15:24).

⇒ He has conquered hell.

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life” (Jn.5:24).

“Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord” (Ro.8:34-39).

“I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death” (Rev.1:18).

2 (5:6-7) Jesus Christ, Person—Lamb of God: there is the supreme moment, the first sight of Jesus Christ in heaven. John had seen Christ in his first vision, but Christ was standing in the midst of the churches. But now the supreme moment arrives—the moment when John catches his first sight of the glorified Son of God in heaven. The sight was bound to be the most spectacular sight ever seen in human history, for God was letting a man see His Son at the throne of God. He was showing why His Son is worthy to rule and reign over the universe. When John caught his first glimpse of Christ, he immediately noticed five things.

1. Jesus Christ is the center of the heavenly scene.

⇒ He was right before the throne of God, joining God at the very throne of God itself.

⇒ Then the four living beings surround Him.

⇒ Then come the circle of elders.

Jesus Christ is the very center and focus of attention: every eye and thought is upon Him. He is the centerpiece of God’s throne room, the central figure on the stage of universal history, the history of both heaven and earth.

2. Jesus Christ is the sacrificial Lamb of God who has been slain. The picture of Jesus Christ as the Lamb of God is seen throughout Scripture.

Scripture declares that Jesus Christ is the Lamb of God who died for our sins.

⇒ The Lamb of God was symbolized in the Passover. The lamb was sacrificed so that the judgment of God could pass over the people.

“Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them every man a lamb, according to the house of their fathers, a lamb for a house” (Ex.12:3).

⇒ Isaiah had said that the Messiah was to bear our sins by being brought as a lamb to the slaughter.

“All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before his shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth” (Is.53:6-7).

⇒ John the Baptist declared Jesus to be the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world.

“The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world” (Jn.1:29).

“And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God!” (Jn.1:36).

⇒ Peter had said that persons are redeemed by the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without spot and without blemish.

“Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation [behavior] received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot” (1 Pt.1:18-19).

Note this: A.T. Robertson, the Greek scholar, points out that the word for lamb throughout the New Testament is ho amnos. But throughout Revelation John uses another word arnion, and he uses the word twenty-nine times for the crucified Christ. The difference is this: the word chosen by John stresses the slaughter, suffering, pain, agony, and humiliation of Christ. And all the suffering is still seen in heaven. As Robertson says: “The Lamb is now alive, but...with the marks of the sacrifice” (Word Pictures In The New Testament, Vol.6, p.334).

The point is this: Jesus Christ is the perfect sacrifice for our sins. He lived a sinless life when He was upon earth; He was the Ideal and Perfect Man. Therefore, whatever Jesus Christ did as the Perfect and Ideal Man, it could stand for and cover us. When He died for our sins, He died as the ideal and perfect sacrifice. His sacrifice for our sins was perfectly acceptable to God. Therefore, His sacrifice for sin stands for and covers us.

What happens is this: when we believe in Jesus Christ, God takes our faith and counts it as the sacrifice of Christ. God counts the sacrifice of Christ for us. This means that we are free from sin. We stand sinless before God, acceptable to Him—all because Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God, removed our sins from us. We are cleansed from sin by the sacrifice of Christ. We are made perfectly righteous by the sacrifice of Christ. Jesus Christ is the Lamb of God who has taken away our sin and clothed us in the white robes of righteousness before God.

This is the reason Jesus Christ stands in the center stage of heaven. But even in heaven He stands as the One who has loved and given Himself for us; He stands as the Lamb who was slain as the perfect sacrifice for our sins.

“Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh: how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?” (Heb.9:12-14).

“And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins: but this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God; from henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool” (Heb.10:11-13).

“Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed” (1 Pt.2:24).

“For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit” (1 Pt.3:18).

3. Jesus Christ is the omnipotent power of the universe. Remember that the number seven in the Bible means completeness, fulness, and perfection. Jesus Christ is seen with seven horns which symbolizes complete and perfect strength and power. He stands in heaven as the supreme power and force of the universe.

“And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth” (Mt.28:18).

“No man taketh it [my life] from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again, This commandment have I received of my Father” (Jn.10:18).

“As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him” (Jn.17:2).

“And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead” (Ro.1:4).

“For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: and he is before all things, and by him all things consist” (Col.1:16-17).

“God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the Fathers by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds; who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high” (Heb.1:1-3).

4. Jesus Christ is the supreme intelligence of the universe. The seven eyes symbolize complete and perfect knowledge, intelligence, and wisdom. He is omniscient; He knows all and sees all. Absolutely nothing escapes His sight and knowledge. Note: this is a symbol of the seven spirits of God which is the Holy Spirit (see notes—Rev.1:4; 3:1 for discussion). In the person of the Holy Spirit, Jesus Christ is everywhere, seeing and knowing all.

“And needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man” (Jn.2:25).

“And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, show whether of these two thou hast chosen” (Acts 1:24).

“[Christ] in whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge” (Col.2:3).

“And the spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD” (Is.11:2).

“For mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes” (Jer.16:17).

5. Jesus Christ is sovereign. He alone walks over and takes the Book of Destiny out of the hand of God. He and He alone is worthy to execute and carry out the events of the end time. This is simply a graphic way of saying what is said in the very first verse of Revelation.

“The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to show unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John” (Rev.1:1).

3 (5:8-10) Worship of Christ: there is the majestic worship by the four living creatures and the elders. As soon as Jesus Christ takes the book out of the hand of God, all of heaven and earth break loose in a song of praise. And note there are three waves of praise sung to Christ.

- ⇒ There is the praise of the four living creatures and of the elders who surround the throne of God.
- ⇒ Then there is the wave of praise from the numberless host of angels, ten thousands times ten thousands, and thousands of thousands of them. The idea is that the number is so large that man and his computers could not count the number.
- ⇒ Then there is the majestic worship of all creatures in both heaven and earth, and under the earth in the graves, and in the seas. All of creation—every being ever created—breaks loose in a chorus of praise to the Lord and to the Lamb of God who sits upon the throne (Jesus Christ).

The present note covers the praise of the four living creatures and the elders who immediately surround the Lord Jesus Christ and the throne of God. Note three things about their worship.

1. They fall down before Christ, the Lamb of God, and play harps. Remember: the harp was the usual instrument used to sing the Psalms of praise to our Lord (cp. Ps.33:2; 98:5; 147:7).
2. They offer up golden bowls of incense to the Lord which is the symbol of the prayers of believers (saints).

Thought 1. Just think of this: the very beings closest to God offer up our prayers to Christ for us. The heavenly host is concerned over our welfare even as the Lord is. They long for us to be helped through the trials and temptations of life even more than we long to be delivered through them. What a precious truth.

3. They sing a new song focused upon the worthiness of Christ. Remember: God had just held out the book of destiny and the shattering call had just pierced the air for someone worthy to step forth and to take the book. Someone was needed to open the book and carry out the events upon earth. But no one was found worthy. Not even those who surround the very throne of God, the four living creatures and elders, were worthy. Only one Person could step forward: the Lamb of God Himself, the Lord Jesus Christ. This is the scene here: when the living creatures and elders see the Lamb of God step forward and take the book from God, they fall down in worship and adoration and sing a song to Him, a song that has never been sung before.

“Thou art worthy to take the book and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us [man] to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; and hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth” (Rev.5:9-10).

Note that they praise Christ for three things.

- a. They praise Him because He was slain for man and has redeemed man (v.9). The correct Greek translation of this verse is man and not “us” as the King James version has it. It should read that Christ “has redeemed man [or them] to God.” They praise Christ because He died for the sins of man and has set man free from sin and death and the punishment to come. (See note 2, pt.2—Rev.5:6-7. Also see note—Rev.1:5-6 for more discussion.)

“Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him” (Ro.5:9).

“Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree” (Gal.3:13).

“In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace” (Eph.1:7).

“In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins” (Col.1:14).

“Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works” (Tit.2:14).

“Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us” (Heb.9:12).

“Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation [citizenship] received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot” (1 Pt.1:18-19).

- b. They praise Him because of His universal salvation (v.9). No person is beyond His reach. He saves people from every tribe and language and race and nation. There is no prejudice or discrimination with Christ, no favorites and no partiality. He loves every person: male and female, poor and rich, black and white, yellow and red, ignorant and wise. Christ saves all who will come from every corner of the earth. Those who surround Christ and the throne of God shout their praise to Christ for His universal salvation.

“And all flesh shall see the salvation of God” (Lk.3:6).

“For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved” (Ro.10:13).

“Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth” (1 Tim.2:4).

“For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world” (Tit.2:11-12).

“The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance” (2 Pt.3:9).

“Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me” (Rev.3:20).

- c. They praise Christ because He has given believers the great gift of royalty (v.10). He makes them kings and priests and note: they shall rule on the earth serving the Lord Jesus Christ forever and ever as kings and priests. (See note—Rev.14:13; 21:24-27 for complete list of rewards.)

“His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord” (Mt.25:23).

“Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations. And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me” (Lk.22:28-29).

“The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together” (Ro.8:16-17).

“And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, and hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever” (Rev.1:5-6).

“And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years” (Rev.20:4).

“And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever” (Dan.12:3).

4 (5:11-12) Worship—Angels: there is the majestic worship by the angels. Note three facts about the angels.

1. They are the center circle of the praise chorus.
2. Their number is astounding: an innumerable number is what Scripture is declaring.
3. Their song includes seven points.
 - a. They praise Christ for His power. He is omnipotent: He possesses all power. He is able to open God’s book of destiny and to carry out and execute God’s will throughout the universe. He is able to carry out the events of history and the events of the end time. He is the sovereign Ruler of the universe.

“And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth” (Mt.28:18).

“As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him” (Jn.17:2).

“And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead” (Ro.1:4).

“But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God” (1 Cor.1:24).

“Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us” (Eph.3:20).

- b. They praise Christ for His riches. He possesses the wealth to meet any need throughout the universe, any need that we or any other creature may have.

“Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?” (Ro.2:4).

“For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich” (2 Cor.8:9).

“In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace” (Eph.1:7).

“That in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus” (Eph.2:7).

“Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ” (Eph.3:8).

“But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus” (Ph.4:19).

- c. They praise Christ for His wisdom. He is omniscient, seeing and knowing all. He knows all about God and heaven, and all about us and our world with all its temptations and trials. He can, therefore, carry out the will of God laid out in the book of destiny, and He can help and succor us through all the trials and temptations of life.

“But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption” (1 Cor.1:30).

“For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need” (Heb.4:15-16).

“The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise him” (Ps.28:7).

“But I am poor and needy; yet the Lord thinketh upon me: thou art my help and my deliverer; make no tarrying, O my God” (Ps.40:17).

“Fear thou not; For I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness” (Is.41:10).

- d. They praise Him for His strength. No one nor any thing can stand against Him, not even for a moment unless He allows it. He has infinite strength, the very strength of God Himself. All He has to do is speak the Word and His will is done. Therefore, He can carry out the events in the book of destiny, and he can meet our every need.

“But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible” (Mt.19:26).

“For with God nothing shall be impossible” (Lk.1:37).

“There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it” (1 Cor.10:13).

“Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us” (Eph.3:20).

“And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever” (2 Tim.4:18).

“Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever” (Jude 24-25).

“I know that thou canst do every thing, and that no thought can be withholden from thee” (Job 42:2).

“But our God is in the heavens: he hath done whatsoever he hath pleased” (Ps.115:3).

“Fear thou not; For I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness” (Is.41:10).

“Yea, before the day was I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall let [hinder] it?” (Is.43:13).

- e. They praise Him for His honor. He is the Son of God possessing the very nature of God, the eternal and sovereign Majesty, the Creator and Sustainer of the universe. He is the One appointed to open the book of destiny and to execute its events throughout the universe. Therefore, He is the One who is to be honored by all.

“Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father” (Ph.2:9-11).

“Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready” (Rev.19:7).

“O magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his name together” (Ps.34:3).

“Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders” (Ps.107:32).

- f. They praise Him for His glory. As stated, He is the supreme Glory and Majesty of the universe, so glorious that His glory shines brighter than the sun to give light in the spiritual world or dimension. His own glory is the light of heaven. In Him is no flaw or defect whatsoever. Therefore, He and He alone is worthy to open the book of destiny and to carry out the will of God throughout the universe. He and He alone is due all the glory of the universe.

“Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven” (Mt.5:16).

“Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples” (Jn.15:8).

“That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ” (Ro.15:6).

“What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s” (1 Cor.6:19-20).

“Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name; worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness” (Ps.29:2).

“Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens; let thy glory be above all the earth” (Ps.57:5).

- g. They praise Him for His blessing. He deserves all the blessing that heaven and earth can give, for He has blessed all. He has given life and all the good things of life to all creatures. All blessings have come from Him. Therefore, all the blessings that heaven and earth can give are due Him.

“Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet [fit] to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light” (Col.1:12).

“And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful” (Col.3:15).

“In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you” (1 Th.5:18).

“When thou hast eaten and art full, then thou shalt bless the LORD thy God for the good land which he hath given thee” (Dt.8:10).

“Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name” (Ps.100:4).

“O LORD, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; for thou hast done wonderful things; thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth” (Is.25:1).

5 (5:13-14) Worship: there is the majestic worship by the whole universe. After each group of created beings has sung their chorus of praise, then all of creation—every being and creature who has ever lived in both heaven and earth—shall break forth in one chorus of praise to both God and Christ. What shall they praise God and Christ for?

- ⇒ for their blessings
- ⇒ for their honor
- ⇒ for their glory
- ⇒ for their power

Then the four living creatures shall shout “Amen.” And the elders shall fall down and worship the Lord Jesus Christ who lives forever and ever.

Never has there been a chorus of worship as will be seen in the glorious day of redemption when all creation shall praise Him who is our Lord and Savior, even the Son of God Himself. And remember why:

- ⇒ because He is worthy to step forward and take the book of destiny out of the hand of God.
- ⇒ because He is worthy to rule and reign over all history, both now and in the last days and throughout all of eternity, world without end.

“That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ” (Ro.15:6).

“For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s” (1 Cor.6:20).

“That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ” (2 Th.1:12).

“Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters” (Rev.14:7).

DIVISION IV

THE SEVEN SEAL JUDGMENTS: EVENTS PRECEDING THE GREAT TRIBULATION, 6:1-7:17

A. The Lamb Breaks the First Four Seals of the Book of Destiny: The Appearance of the Antichrist & His Power, 6:1-8

(6:1-7:17) DIVISION OVERVIEW: End Time: the dramatic moment has arrived. God’s book—the book of destiny, the great book of history, the book that spells out what is to happen in the end time—is now to be opened. But note: the Lamb does not open the scroll at this point. He merely breaks the seals. And the events of the seals are not the end of history itself. They are the events which immediately precede the end. The seals of a book have to be broken before the book itself is opened. The seals are preliminary to opening the book. This is exactly what Christ Himself said. Remember the apostles had asked Christ two questions: When would the temple be destroyed, and what would be the sign of His coming and of the end of the world (cp. Mt.24:3)?

⇒ Christ answered by giving nine signs, and He called this period of history “the beginning of sorrows” (Mt.24:5-14, esp. v.8). After He had given the nine signs, He said “then shall the end come” (Mt.24:14).

Note that it was after the nine signs, after the “beginning of sorrows” that Christ said the end would come. By the end He meant what He Himself called the great tribulation that is coming upon the earth in the end time. (The following chart will perhaps help us see what our Lord predicted and what is now beginning to happen in the book of Revelation.)

THE END TIME

The Words of Christ		The Book of Revelation
• The beginning of sorrows: preliminary sorrows, trouble and evil in society and nature, yet world evangelism continues (Mt.24:5-14).	...corresponds to	...The Seven Seals (Rev.6:1-17)
• “The Great Tribulation”: unparalleled trials (Mt.24:15-28).	...corresponds to	...The Seven Trumpets, the bowls, and the beast (Rev.8:1-18:24).
• “The Son of Man coming”	...corresponds to	...The Final Triumph of Christ (Rev.19:1-22:21).

REVELATION 6:1-8

Note the clear and astounding similarity between what our Lord said and the book of Revelation. The very similarity shows the mind of God revealing these things. This should make every person, believer and unbeliever alike, stand in stark amazement and bow before Him who alone can save us and give us life eternal.

- ⇒ There is a similarity between “the beginning of sorrows” (Mt.24:5-14) and the seals of Revelation (Rev.6:1-17). The end of the world will not come all at once. The future will be filled with wars, natural disasters, persecutions, and the claims of false deliverers (messiahs). And at the very end there will be an increase and intensification of the signs. But this is not all. There is to be a terrible sign: the appearance of the rider on the white horse (see note—Rev.6:2), “the abomination of desolation” (AV), “the desolating sacrilege” (RSV), “the man of lawlessness” (2 Th.2:3), the “little horn” (Dan.7), the antichrist. This person will afflict the people of God beyond imagination. (See note—Rev.11:7.)
- ⇒ There seems to be a similarity between “the great tribulation” spoken of by Christ and the seven trumpets, the seven bowl judgments, and the beast covered by Revelation.
- ⇒ Others point to a great similarity between “the beast” (antichrist) pictured time and again in Revelation and “the abomination of desolation” spoken of by Christ (see DEEPER STUDY # 1,2—Mt.24:1-31; note—Rev.11:7).

This distinction is extremely important in understanding the book of Revelation. Why? Because our Lord Himself said the same thing. In essence He has told us how to outline and look at Revelation. Therefore we are most wise to follow the outline of the end times that He has given us. In the final analysis it is better to be simple minded and to follow what He has said than to be wise and strike out on our own and end up adding something to His Word that displeases Him (cp. Rev.22:18-19). We reverence and fear Him. We want to be acceptable to our wonderful Lord, and during these latter years, more than anything else in all the world, we want to show our love for Him by obeying Him and following His Word to the utmost. For this reason, we shall approach the Revelation as our Lord predicted the end time. (See outline and notes—Mt.24:1-51; 25:1-46 for more discussion.)

(6:1-8) Introduction: the dramatic moment has now come. The seals that bind God’s book are now to be broken. One by one they shall be broken. Amazingly, as the seals are broken, the most astounding thing happens. What is written under the seals of the book leaps off its pages and acts out the events of the future for John and the heavenly host. They actually see what appears to be a picture or a movie of the end time. This is important to note, for John and the heavenly host are not reading the book. They are witnessing the events of the end time.

The first four seal judgments seem to be a description of the antichrist gaining control over the nations of the earth. He will do it by waging war (the red horse), by gaining control over the economy (the black horse), and by having his opponents put to death (the pale horse). In the next outline and passage, when we look at the fifth seal, we will see that it reveals what will happen to the souls of Christian martyrs who are slain by the antichrist. The sixth seal will show God’s wrath being stirred and being prepared to move in judgment against the antichrist. The seventh seal is the seal that brings forth the “great tribulation,” the terrible period of God’s judgment.

In the Scripture before us the Lamb of God, the Lord Jesus Christ Himself, breaks the first four seals. When He does, one of the four living creatures who surrounds the throne of God thunders forth the command: “come forth.” And when He thunders His command, the terrible scene of some end time event thunders across the scene of world history.

1. The first seal: a white horse and rider (v.1-2).
2. The second seal: a red horse and rider (v.3-4).
3. The third seal: a black horse and rider (v.5-6).
4. The fourth seal: a pale horse and rider (v.7-8).

1 (6:1-2) Antichrist—Four Horsemen: the first seal is the thundering appearance of a white horse and its rider. Who is this rider? His identity is widely disputed, but the conclusion of most commentators is that he is one of two persons.

1. He symbolizes the victorious Christ Himself or either the victorious proclamation of the gospel. It is argued that the color white is always associated with Christ throughout Revelation. In addition, the rider is said to be crowned. Therefore, this rider must be Christ Himself.

Others argue, however, that Christ cannot be commanded by heavenly creatures; therefore, it cannot be Christ Himself. Hence, the horseman must be the conquest of the Word of God as prophesied by Christ (Mk.13:10).

2. The second major view is that the rider is conquest in general, the antichrist in particular.

- ⇒ He is the deceiver; therefore, he appears in white (Mt.24:5; 2 Th.2:11).
- ⇒ The crown he wears is different from the crown worn by Christ in Rev.19. It is the crown of the conqueror (stephenos) not the royal crown of a king (diadema).
- ⇒ The bow symbolizes conquest. In the Old Testament it is always the symbol of military power (Ps.46:9; Jer.51:51; Hos.1:5).
- ⇒ It is further argued that to be consistent one must relate this horseman to the other three. The four present a picture of the four horsemen of the Apocalypse that are to descend upon the earth in the latter days with terrifying destruction.

In one’s interpretation, it is extremely important to note this: when the rider appears upon the scene, he already possesses a bow. But the crown is given to him. After it is given, then he goes forth to conquer. This points strongly to a counterfeit Christ. Note three facts:

- ⇒ First, this rider has a bow. Christ possesses no bow; a weapon of war is not a part of His being.
- ⇒ Second, this rider is given a crown. Christ is not given a crown. One has to say that Christ has been crowned throughout all of eternity or else at His ascension.
- ⇒ Third, this rider sets out to conquer. There is no specific point of time at which Christ set forth to conquer the hearts of men. He has always been about the mission of salvation. Conquering men’s hearts will continue to be His mission until the day of judgment appears. Thus, there is no point from which He has to move to conquer; He is conquering souls even as He has always been conquering souls. But this is not true with this rider. This horseman who sets out to conquer is one who already possesses a bow and is given a crown at some point in time. From that point, he goes forth to conquer. (Cp. The Little Horn of Dan.7; The Man of Sin and the Beast and the Ruler of the Restored Roman Empire of Rev.13; the Abomination of Desolation of Mt.24:15.)

The strongest arguments seem to point toward the white rider being the antichrist. How is the antichrist going to conquer the world? Scripture tells us that it is going to be through deception. Because of the sins and evil of people, because people have chosen to go the way of sin and evil, the antichrist is going to be able to deceive them.

“And then shall that Wicked be revealed...even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, and with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved” (2 Th.2:8-10).

People do not receive the love of the truth about the Lord Jesus Christ; people could care less about God’s salvation; therefore, God is going to judge the world. The beginning of His judgment is going to be His allowing the antichrist to come upon the world scene. God is going to allow men to be deceived because they have rejected the love of the truth. They have rejected and cursed Him and His glorious salvation revealed in His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, God is going to send a strong deception upon the earth, the very deception for which men long, a strong world ruler who seemingly can solve the world’s problems and bring utopia to earth. And men are going to give their kingdoms to him; that is, they are going to sign treaties and agreements that will allow him to rule over their nations and lives.

“And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie” (2 Th.2:11).

“For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled” (Rev.17:17:).

Thought 1. What could cause men to turn the government of the world over to one man? Christ Himself told us. (Note that all of this is given by Christ in Matthew 24:1f.)

⇒ A world that is full of false messiahs claiming that they have the answers to life will prepare the way for the antichrist. But their claims are false; therefore, they leave the human heart empty and hopeless. When the heart is empty and hopeless, it will turn to a person (the antichrist) who promises utopia, that is, heaven upon earth.

“For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many” (Mt.24:5).

⇒ A world that is full of violence, wars, and rumors of war will prepare the way for the antichrist. Millions of lives, homes, families, and all else will be destroyed. A devastated people will turn to any leader who can bring peace and restoration.

“And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom” (Mt.24:6-7).

⇒ A world that is rocked with natural disaster after natural disaster will prepare the way for the antichrist. Disaster after disaster will cause people to quake in fear. Fear will drive people to a world leader who can promise and provide economic and medical help and aid.

“And there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places” (Mt.24:7b).

⇒ A world that is torn apart religiously will prepare the way for the antichrist. Severe religious persecution and terrible apostasy and betrayal will sweep the earth. There will be division within the ranks of religion and families and between neighbors sweeping the earth in the end time. This will cause people to turn for help in bringing peace between religions.

“Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name’s sake. And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another” (Mt.24:9-10).

⇒ A world that is full of false religion and false preachers will prepare the way for the antichrist. False religion will leave the heart hungry for something real; therefore, they will be ripe for the promises of the antichrist.

REVELATION 6:1-8

⇒ A world that falls further and further away from God, that experiences increasing sin (sin that just grows and grows) and a love that grows cold will prepare the way for the antichrist. People will be begging for help in dealing with lawlessness, drunkenness, drugs, occults, crime, and on and on. They will look toward anyone who can bring true care, affection, and love back into society.

“And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold” (Mt.24:12).

2 (6:3-4) Antichrist—Four Horsemen: the second seal is the thundering appearance of a red horse and its rider. Who is this rider? He is the rider who has power to take peace from the earth so that men will kill each other. He is the rider who is given a great sword. He is the rider...

- of strife
- of violence
- of assault
- of division
- of abuse
- of anger
- of hate
- of uprising
- of murder
- of insurrection
- of war
- of bloodshed

He is the rider who divides race against race, class against class, neighbor against neighbor, employee against employer, husband against wife, religion against religion, and nation against nation. He is the rider who takes peace from the earth and causes every kind of division he can. He is the rider who destroys every human relationship that he can.

Now who is the rider upon the horse? John does not say, but note these facts:

⇒ The last days will bring terrible days of evil and trucebreaking.

“This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good” (2 Tim.3:1-3).

⇒ The last days will bring terrible days of wars and rumors of wars.

“And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom” (Mt.24:6-7).

⇒ The devil himself is called “the great red dragon.”

“And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads” (Rev.12:3).

⇒ The devil is a murderer and a great liar and deceiver and has been from the beginning.

“Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar and the father of it” (Jn.8:44).

⇒ The antichrist who will be the supreme representative of the devil upon earth will become a mass murderer and use the sword against both God’s people and those who oppose him. This is one way that he brings the world into subjection under his government.

“And it was given unto him [the antichrist] to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations. And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world” (Rev.13:7-8; cp. Rev.17:15-18).

“For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape” (1 Th.5:3).

Now, who is the rider upon the red horse? We can say that he either represents the lack of peace the antichrist and his government bring to the world or else he is the antichrist himself. To say one is to say the other. When the antichrist and his government appear upon the world scene of human history, he will bring peace and safety for a while. But then there will be a break in his peaceful behavior: he and his government will explosively destroy the peace of the world. This will take place right before the great tribulation takes place. It is the increased world violence that Christ predicted for the end time, right before the great tribulation.

“And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom” (Mt.24:6-7).

3 (6:5-6) Antichrist—Four Horsemen: the third seal is the thundering appearance of a black horse and its rider. This rider also seems to be the antichrist and his power to control the economy and distribution of food. Food will be rationed in the end time. Remember there will be more wars and conflicts and violence raging all over the world during the end time than ever before. The result of war is often famine, and the end time will be no different. The only difference is that the famine will be far more severe and involve far more people. The end times will see an intensification of all the terrible sufferings known to man.

Note two points.

1. This rider (the antichrist) has a set of scales to measure out the wheat. Wheat or barley was the basic food for people in John's day. Note that it took...

- a "penny" (denarius) to buy a measure of wheat, that is, about a quart.
- a penny to buy three measures of barley.

A penny was about a day's wage. Imagine working and earning only enough money to buy what food was needed for that day! What would a person do about feeding his family and providing the other necessities of life such as housing, heat, clothing, and transportation? This will be the situation in the end time, right before the great tribulation is to take place.

2. The rider controls food distribution. This is probably one way that he gains and holds control over the world, at least for a season. The idea is that food will be strictly controlled. But note: there will be plenty of oil and wine. How could oil and wine which come from trees and vines be available when wheat and barley are scarce and shrivelled up with a draught? From stockpiles and from the fact that trees and vines have roots more deeply in the ground than crops. They can usually survive and produce more through a draught than crops. Also, trees will produce for years without being cared for. War will keep men from growing crops, but trees will keep on producing without much attention. Oil and wine were luxury items in the ancient world. As is true in most famines, the wealthy will have food, the poor will not.

The end time will be marked by famine after famine all over the world. It will take all a man can do just to survive.

"And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places" (Mt.24:6-7).

"They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger: for these pine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field" (Lam.4:9).

"Our skin was black like an oven, because of the terrible famine" (Lam.5:10).

4 (6:7-8) Antichrist—Four Horsemen: the fourth seal is the thundering appearance of a pale horse and its rider. The Amplified New Testamet translates the word pale as "ashy pale horse [black and blue as if made so by bruising]." Remember: this is not yet the end of time. This horseman, just as the other three, is to appear before the end time. But what happens under his attack causes such devastation that it boggles and weakens the mind. Note: this rider also seems to represent the terrible devastation caused by the antichrist and his government or the antichrist himself. Two significant facts are given about him.

1. The rider (antichrist) has a name, that of death; and sitting right behind him is hell or hades, the realm of the dead. His very name announces that some terrible devastation is about to be set loose upon the earth.

2. The rider (antichrist) is given power to cause unbelievable pain and suffering: he is personally responsible for killing one fourth of the people on earth. Unbelievable! How can one rider possibly kill one fourth of the people? A number that would equal over one billion today? There are four ways.

⇒ The sword can help to kill that many people. That is, war and genocide, by deliberately setting a policy to destroy certain races or groups of people.

Thought 1. All it would take is someone like Hitler to launch a larger war, perhaps an atomic war upon earth. Or someone like Hitler to launch a world-wide holocaust or a Stalin to create a world-wide Siberia where millions upon millions of people were killed (see note—Mt.24:6-7 for more discussion).

⇒ Hunger and starvation can help to kill that many people. That is, the rider can starve people and cause famine due to war and the rationing of food.

Thought 1. Reports tell us that while we slept last night there were about 40,000 children alone who starved to death. Imagine! In the twentieth century 40,000 children starve to death every day! Yet think of all the money we have in our pockets, and of the money so many are banking. Tens of thousands starving to death and we have the money and the resources to keep it from happening. But out of selfishness and greed, we hoard. If so much death from starvation occurs when we could stop it but don't, how many would be dying from starvation due to the kind of world war we would see in the modern world? How much of the earth would be scorched and unfit for farming? How savage and lawless would people become if they were starving and saw someone with a little food? (See note—Mt.24:7 for more discussion.)

⇒ Pestilence can help to kill that many people: that is, germ warfare and the diseases that result from the unsanitary conditions of refugee and concentration camps and from war and genocide. (See note, pt.2—Mt.24:7 for more discussion.)

REVELATION 6:1-8

Thought 1. Think of the outcome of disease that will occur when the next war breaks out: the unsanitary conditions and the outbreak of both old and new diseases such as we witnessed with the venereal diseases, flu epidemics, small pox, polio, measles, aids, and diphtheria. And there will be little if any medical supplies.

⇒ Wild beasts will help to kill that many people. That is, due to war and the transplanting of people, billions of people, especially children, will be homeless. This rider is responsible for exposing people to the beasts of the forests and jungles who will be just as hungry and insane from the lack of food as people will be.

“And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places” (Mt.24:6-7).

Thought 1. The picture of the four horsemen of the Apocalypse is not a pretty picture; nevertheless, any thinking and honest person knows that it is a real possibility with the weapons of war that exist today. The truth is: Holy Scripture says that it is going to happen. It will happen right before the events of the end time are to be launched by God. But as terrible as the four horsemen events are, they are not the worst judgments that are to take place upon earth. The worst will still lie ahead when the end time itself is launched. These judgments are just the seal judgments. The end time judgments are called the trumpet judgments and the bowl judgments. May God help us to turn to the Lord Jesus Christ for salvation before the end comes.

DIVISION IV

THE SEVEN SEAL JUDGMENTS: EVENTS PRECEDING THE GREAT TRIBULATION, 6:1-7:17

B. The Lamb Breaks the Fifth Seal: The Slain Martyrs, 6:9-11

(6:9-11) Introduction: the dramatic moment has arrived. God's book—the book of destiny, the great book of history, the book that spells out the future of the world—is now being opened. There is only one Person worthy enough to open it—the Son of God, the Lord Jesus Christ Himself. The book is so important and secretive, it contains such important subjects, that God has had seven seals tied around it for all of eternity. No one has ever seen the contents of the book; no one has ever seen the events that are to happen at the end of the world. But now, in the most dramatic of moments, Jesus Christ has stepped forward to the throne of God and taken the book out of God's extended hand. Standing around the throne with pounding hearts burning with anticipation were all the heavenly host and John the apostle to whom God was giving this vision. Then the most astounding thing happened. When Jesus Christ began to break the seals in order to open the book—when He broke the first seal, out from under the seal leaped a horseman. What was written in the book was actually leaping off its pages and being acted out before John and the heavenly host. It was like a dramatic book of pictures or of a movie of the future, of the events that are to happen in the end time.

But note a significant fact: Christ has not yet opened the book or scroll; He is merely breaking the seals. What John and heaven are witnessing are the events that are to happen right before the end time, the period of history that Jesus Christ called "the beginning of sorrows." Again, the events of the seals are preliminary to the end time. They are coming upon the earth before the end time. They have to be broken—their breaking open has to take place before the book and its events can be seen. Four seals were broken in the previous passage. When they were, the four horsemen of the Apocalypse leaped forth and executed their wrath upon the world. Now it is time for the dramatic breaking of the fifth seal, time for another astounding event to leap across the scene of world history.

1. They are under the altar (v.9).
2. They are slain for God's Word and testimony (v.9).
3. They are crying for justice (v.10).
4. They are given white robes (v.11).
5. They are assured of justice (v.11).

1 (6:9) Fifth Seal—Martyrs—Altar, Heavenly: the Lamb of God, the Lord Jesus Christ, breaks the fifth seal. When He does, the souls of all the martyrs of the world are seen under the altar of God. This could be a picture of all the martyrs who have died for the Lord Jesus Christ down through the ages. It tells us where their souls are. But note: this particular reference is probably to the martyrs of the end time. The fact that they cry out for justice against those who killed them and that judgment falls in the sixth seal points to the reference being to the end time martyrs. But what John and the heavenly host see is probably the souls of all martyrs, for the souls of all are no doubt living together before God. This is a most precious thought: the martyrs of God are very special to God, and because of their strong testimony and sacrifice for Him, they hold a very special place before Him.

The slain martyrs are under the altar. Remember what Scripture teaches about the tabernacle: the furnishings of the tabernacle were only patterns of the worship center in heaven (cp. Ex.25:8-9, 40; Num.8:4; Heb.8:5; 9:23). This means that there is a perfected altar of sacrifice in the throne room of heaven. What is the altar of sacrifice or what is called in the Bible the brazen altar? (See note and DEEPER STUDY # 1—Heb.9:11-14; cp. Ex.39:39.) It was the altar where the animals were sacrificed. The blood was poured out at the foot of the altar, symbolizing that the animal was being sacrificed for the person offering it.

This is the picture here: the lives of the martyrs, their blood, has been sacrificed and poured out for God. The martyrs have offered their lives up for God, paid the supreme price and literally sacrificed all they were for God. They offered up their lives upon the altar of sacrifice for God. Therefore, in heaven the martyrs have a very special place before God: they stand at the foot of the altar. They are a group of believers who are given a very special place near to God for all of eternity.

Thought 1. There is a strong lesson in this for all believers of all ages. God has a very special place for those who are faithful until death, a place that is close and dear to His heart and throne. This should stir us to be faithful every minute of every day. What a precious and heartwarming thought! To be close to God, close to His throne and presence, serving Him throughout all of eternity and then laying down one's life for Him.

“For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it” (Mt.16:25).

“And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me” (Lk.9:23).

“I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God” (Ro.12:1-2).

“What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's” (1 Cor.6:19-20).

“Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all” (Ph.2:17).

2 (6:9) Martyrs—Witnessing—Word of God: the slain martyrs are slain for God's Word and for the testimony they had borne for Christ. There are two things here.

1. They were slain for the Word of God. In the last days of human history some people will still love Christ and still believe the Holy Scriptures. They will love the Word of God...

- | | |
|--------------|-----------------|
| • believe it | • witness to it |
| • live by it | • teach it |
| • read it | • preach it |
| • study it | • pray over it |

Because of this, the world will react against the Word of God and kill believers. Why?

⇒ The world will react because God's Word demands that a person give his first loyalty to Jesus Christ. In the end time under the antichrist, the peoples of the world will be required to give their first loyalty to the state. The government will demand loyalty to the state first, then the people can have freedom of religion and worship whatever god they wish. The state will develop the idea of what could be called a state religion, something close to what exists in some states today. Believers, of course, can only give their first loyalty to Christ; therefore, they will be killed, for they cannot deny the Word of God.

“And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them, saying, Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us. Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men” (Acts 5:27-29).

⇒ The world will react because God's Word demands that a person live a pure and righteous life. In the end time people will be as they have always been: unwilling to give up the reins to their lives. They will continue to rebel against God, to do what they want, their own thing, instead of living like God says to live. But in the end time rebellion against God will be intensified. People will...

- | | |
|-------------------|-----------------------|
| • reject God more | • neglect God more |
| • curse God more | • disobey God more |
| • deny God more | • disbelieve God more |
| • ignore God more | |

The point is this: the world in the end time will reject God's Word. The world and its government will demand that believers give their first allegiance to the state and that they keep quiet about the righteousness proclaimed in Scripture. The government will be like so many governments that deny a personal God and have a law against worshipping a personal God. The state will be atheistic and exalt itself as god.

“These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so” (Acts 17:11).

“For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe” (1 Th.2:13).

“All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness” (2 Tim.3:16).

“Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls. But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: for he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed” (Jas.1:21-25).

2. They were slain for the testimony they had borne concerning Jesus Christ. The martyrs will believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, the Savior of the world. They will believe that God loved the world so much that He sent His Son to save the world. But the world rejects Jesus Christ, His deity, that He is the Son of God. The world is willing to accept that Jesus Christ was a great religious and moral teacher but no more than that. In the end time the world's rejection of Christ as the Son of God will be intensified so much that they will kill all those who proclaim Christ to be the Son of God, the Savior of the world.

The believers of the end time will be martyred because they refuse to deny Christ. They will not deny their Savior and Lord, the Son of God Himself. (Cp. Rev.1:9; 12:11, 17; 19:10; 20:4 for other references where martyrs died for their testimony for Christ.)

“Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also” (1 Jn.2:22-23).

“Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: and every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world” (1 Jn.4:2-3).

“He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son. And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God” (1 Jn.5:10-13).

Thought 1. The altar is mentioned throughout Revelation (Rev.8:3, 5; 9:1, 13; 11:1; 14:18; 16:7. In 8:3, 5 the altar would be the altar of incense.)

3 (6:10) Martyrs—Justice: the slain martyrs cry out for justice. Note two facts.

1. They address God as the Sovereign Lord, holy and true.

a. The Word used here for “Lord” (despotes) means Master or Sovereign. God is the supreme Master and Sovereign of the universe. Therefore, all prayer is to be directed to Him, for all lives belong to Him, the lives of the martyrs and the lives of their persecutors.

b. God is holy, completely set apart from all other beings in the universe. He deserves to look upon nothing but righteousness and purity and holiness. The martyrs want all sin and evil erased so that God will not be disobeyed any more by unholy living. Therefore, they address Him as the Sovereign and holy Lord.

c. God is true to His Word and promises. Therefore, He is the One who is to execute justice and bring all things to a climax in the end time. He is the One who has to stop all the evil and terrible things done by men. If justice is to be executed upon earth, He is the One who has to do it. Therefore, martyrs address God as the Sovereign Lord, holy and true.

2. The martyrs cry out for justice and for vengeance against their persecutors. This is shocking, that believers in heaven would seek vengeance against men upon earth instead of loving them and longing for them to be saved. Is this an accurate picture? No, it is not. This is not what the martyrs are doing. Their cry is a cry for vindication of the Word of God and of Christ, not a cry for vengeance. Note exactly what they are saying: they are crying out for God to avenge their blood. Why was their blood spilt? Why were they killed? Because the persecutors rebelled against the Word of God and against Jesus Christ as the Son of God. This is that for which the martyrs are crying, for vindication, not for vengeance. They are crying out for God...

- to stop the injustice against His Word and against His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ.
- to stop the injustice against His own glory and justice.
- to stop the injustice of sin and evil against Himself.
- to stop the injustice of unrighteousness and to bring righteousness to the universe.

They were, in essence, praying for God's kingdom to come upon earth. Their Lord had taught them to pray both “your kingdom come” as well as “forgive those who do evil against you.”

Remember this as well: no one suffers the hell and wrath of sin any more than a martyr. A martyr has endured the greatest wrath and hell that sin can cast against a person: it is the fire and wrath of sin that kills him. Therefore, the martyr above all others knows how terrible sin insults and rages against God. When a martyr reaches heaven and sees the Lord and the Father and all the glory and majesty of heaven, and then begins to share with the Lord, the martyr is bound to cry out:

“How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?” (Rev.6:10).

“O God, how long shall the adversary reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever?” (Ps.74:10).

“How long, LORD? wilt thou be angry for ever? shall thy jealousy burn like fire? Pour out thy wrath upon the heathen that have not known thee, and upon the kingdoms that have not called upon thy name” (Ps.79:5-6).

“LORD, how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph? How long shall they utter and speak hard things? and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves” (Ps.94:3-4).

4 (6:11) Martyrs—White Robes: the slain martyrs are given white robes. The white robes stand for purity and righteousness. Believers are made pure and righteous in the righteousness of Jesus Christ. These martyrs are wearing the robes that all believers upon the earth will wear, the white robes of the righteousness of Jesus Christ. (See note, pt.1—Rev.3:18-20 for more discussion.)

5 (6:11) Martyrs—Justice: the slain martyrs are assured of justice.

1. Note a glorious thing: the martyrs are said to be at rest in heaven.
⇒ They are resting in the peace of Christ, free from all struggle.

“There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God” (Heb.4:9).

“And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled” (Rev.6:11).

⇒ They are resting from all their exhausting labor upon earth.

“And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them” (Rev.14:13).

⇒ They are resting from the wicked of the earth.

“There the wicked cease from troubling; and there the weary be at rest” (Job 3:17).

⇒ They are resting from all the trials and temptations of life; they are to be freed from all tears and sorrow and crying and pain and death.

“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away” (Rev.21:4).

⇒ They are resting in the perfection of a new life, even in the righteousness of Jesus Christ.

“Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new” (2 Cor.5:17).

“For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him” (2 Cor.5:21).

“And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness” (Eph.4:24).

“And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful” (Rev.21:5).

“He shall enter into peace: they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness” (Is.57:2).

2. Note what the Lord tells the martyrs: it will still be a little while before the end of the world comes. The question is not whether or not the end will ever come. It is coming. It is just that it is not yet time. There is still to be more witness borne to the world. The name of Jesus Christ has not been proclaimed enough to the world, not yet. And some believers are still to be martyred for the name of Christ. The number of martyrs are not yet fulfilled. The place for martyrs in heaven is not yet filled. More believers must be sold out to Christ and on fire proclaiming His salvation; more believers must die for His testimony before the end comes.

Thought 1. What a dynamic challenge for us! To be on fire for God and to be proclaiming Jesus Christ! We must not fear; we must be willing to witness for Him even if it means that we must die for Him and His cause of eternal salvation.

“Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God” (2 Tim.1:8).

“And account that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you” (2 Pt.3:15).

“But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth” (Acts 1:8).

“For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard” (Acts 4:20).

DIVISION IV

THE SEVEN SEAL JUDGMENTS: EVENTS PRECEDING THE GREAT TRIBULATION, 6:1-7:17

C. The Lamb Breaks the Sixth Seal: The Great Day of God's Wrath Begins—The Universe Will Be Shattered, 6:12-17

(6:12-17) Introduction: the sixth seal is now broken and the great day of God's wrath begins. The universe is shattered; both heaven and earth feel the judgment of natural catastrophes. But remember: this is still not the end of the world; it is still not the final judgment. The seals of the Book of Destiny have to be broken before the book can be read. Therefore, the seal judgments are events that are to happen right before the end begins. Here is the beginning of God's wrath against the violence, hatred, and rebellion of a corrupt and evil world.

1. The effects of God's wrath upon the universe (v.12-14)
2. The effects of God's wrath upon people (v.15-16).
3. The reason for the catastrophes and the panic of men (v.16-17).

1 (6:12-14) Judgment—Universe—World: there are the effects of God's judgment upon the universe.

1. There will be a great earthquake. Note the word great. This will be no ordinary earthquake. The idea is that it will be beyond anything ever known to man. Imagine the destruction of property, the loss of life, the fear gripping the hearts of people, and the further damage caused by the aftershocks of the earthquake.

⇒ Jesus Christ Himself predicted there would be more earthquakes in the latter days than ever before.

“For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places” (Mt.24:7).

⇒ Revelation mentions three great earthquakes.

“And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood” (Rev.6:12).

“And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant [rest] were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven” (Rev.11:13).

“And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done. And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great. And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath” (Rev.16:17-19).

⇒ The Old Testament predicted earthquakes in the end time.

“For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel” (Ezk.38:19).

“I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly” (Jer.4:24).

“Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, as by the flood of Egypt” (Amos 8:8).

“The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble; the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining” (Joel 2:10).

“For thus saith the LORD of hosts; Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land” (Hag.2:6).

2. The sun and moon will be eclipsed and blackened and stars or meteorites will shower the earth. Very practically there are times when such astronomical happenings occur now.

⇒ The heavenly bodies are sometimes darkened by such catastrophes as volcanic eruptions, wind storms, and smoke from fires. Of course whatever darkens the sun hides the light of the moon and stars from earth.

⇒ Stars or meteorites of varying sizes fall from outer space to earth quite often.

Is this what is meant by these passages or is there to be unbelievable disorder inflicted upon some of the stars above, disorder causing massive explosions and fireworks and hurling meteorites throughout space—a volcanic eruption in the heavens that affects all the universe? There is no way to know. All we know is that there is going to be a severe intensification of astronomical happenings, and they will begin right before the end time comes.

Scripture declares emphatically that these events will occur during the end times. (Note: the stars fall to earth only two times: here when the sixth seal is broken [Rev.6:13], and after the tribulation when Christ returns to earth [Mt.24:29-31]).

⇒ Astronomical happenings will occur right before the end time.

“And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind” (Rev.6:13).

⇒ Astronomical happenings occur during the tribulation.

“And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise” (Rev.8:12).

“And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit” (Rev.9:2).

“And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain” (Rev.16:10).

⇒ Astronomical happenings will occur right after the tribulation when the day of the Lord comes.

“Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken” (Mt.24:29).

“Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it. For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine. And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible” (Is.13:9-11).

“And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall punish the host of the high ones that are on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth. And they shall be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days shall they be visited. Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed, when the LORD of hosts shall reign in mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and before his ancients gloriously” (Is.24:21-23).

“And when I shall put thee out, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light. All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord GOD” (Ezk.32:7-8).

“And I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come” (Joel 2:30-31).

“The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining. The LORD also shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel” (Joel.3:15-16).

3. The heavens will disappear and the mountains and the hills will be moved out of their place. What does this mean? Note that men are so frightened that they cry for the mountains and rocks to fall upon them. This is a prophetic way to describe the devastation of the astronomical happenings and the great earthquake and meteorites falling to earth.

“And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree” (Is.34:4).

“Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands. They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed” (Ps.102:25-26).

“I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly” (Jer.4:24).

“The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at his presence, ye, the world, and all that dwell therein” (Nah.1:5).

2 (6:15-16) Judgment—Universe—World: there are the effects of God’s judgment upon people. Note two significant things.

1. Great fear will grip all unbelievers upon earth. Note the list of those who fear:

- ⇒ The kings and rulers of the earth will fear.
- ⇒ The great and powerful of the earth will fear.
- ⇒ The rich and wealthy of the earth will fear.
- ⇒ The military chiefs of the earth will fear.
- ⇒ The mighty and the strong of the earth will fear.
- ⇒ The slave and insignificant of the earth will fear.
- ⇒ The free and independent of the earth will fear.

Every unbeliever upon earth will be stricken with terror, a maddening terror. They will be so frightened that panic will sweep the earth. No one is going to escape the judgment of God, and they all know it. And there is no partiality with God; God has no favorites. The world of unbelievers will quake in terror and fright before the unusual events happening in outer space and upon earth. There will be a sense, an awareness, a consciousness that the judgment of God is looming right over the horizon. The very atmosphere of the earth will be heavy with the feeling that the end is at hand.

“Howl ye; for the day of the LORD is at hand; it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty....and they shall be afraid: pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman that travaileth: they shall be amazed one at another; their faces shall be as flames” (Is.13:6, 8).

“The great day of the LORD is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly” (Zeph.1:14).

“Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand” (Joel 2:1).

2. All unbelievers will cry for death. The terror and fright will be so maddening that the world will panic. People will be madly rushing about to hide in the secret dens and rocks of the earth, begging to die and to be annihilated in order to keep from having to face God’s eternal judgment.

“Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us” (Lk.23:30).

“And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth” (Is.2:19).

“And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and who can abide it” (Joel 2:11).

“The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us” (Hos.10:8).

3 (6:16-17) Day of the Lord—Judgment: there is the reason for the catastrophes throughout the universe and for the panic of men—the great day of God’s wrath is at hand. What is the great day of God’s wrath? These two verses tell us.

- ⇒ It is the day when all unbelievers must stand before the face of God who sits upon the throne of the universe.
- ⇒ It is the day when all unbelievers must face the wrath of the Lamb; the day when they must face the Son of God Himself, the Lord Jesus Christ whom they have rejected, denied, cursed, disobeyed, disbelieved, ignored, and neglected.
- ⇒ It is the great day of His wrath, the very day that His wrath is to fall, the very day that every unbeliever must face Him.
- ⇒ It is the day when no unbeliever shall stand, the day when all unbelievers shall crumble and be subjected to the humiliation of eternal guilt, condemnation, and punishment.

John Walvoord puts it in simple and striking words:

“The Day of the Lord is a period of time in which God will deal with wicked men directly and dramatically in fearful judgment. Today a man may be a blasphemer of God, an atheist, can denounce God and teach bad doctrine. Seemingly God does nothing about it. But the day designated in Scripture as ‘the day of the Lord’ is coming when God will punish human sin, and He will deal in wrath and in judgment with a Christ-rejecting world. One thing we are sure of, that God in His own way will bring every soul into judgment” (The Thessalonian Epistles. Grand Rapids, MI: Zondervan, 1967, p.76).

REVELATION 6:12-17

But remember: this is a picture of what will be happening right before the Day of the Lord comes. It has not yet come. The end time has not yet happened. This event—the catastrophe in the heavens and on earth and the fright and panic that strikes people with maddening terror—all this is right before the end times begin. This is just the breaking of the seals of God’s book on the destiny of the world. The events within the pages of the book—the worst judgments—are yet to come.

Thought 1. The message to all people everywhere is twofold:

- 1) All unbelievers will stand face to face with God on the great day of His wrath, and the day is right over the horizon.
 - ⇒ The wrath of God is coming upon the rich and the powerful who thought they were self-sufficient.
 - ⇒ The wrath of God is coming upon the religious who thought they could be good enough and do enough good to be acceptable to God.
 - ⇒ The wrath of God is coming upon the poor who thought they were too insignificant or else thought their oppression would cause God to look upon them with mercy.
 - ⇒ The wrath of God is coming upon the intelligent who thought they were too knowledgeable to believe in Christ.
 - ⇒ The wrath of God is coming upon the scientist and technician because they thought they had progressed so far they could disprove God.
- 2) We must trust Jesus Christ and escape the great day of God’s wrath.

“He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day” (Jn.12:48).

“But after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God” (Ro.2:5).

“For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?” (Rev.6:17).

“The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day. For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up; and he shall be brought low” (Is.2:11-12).

“Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it. For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine. And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity: and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible” (Is.13:9-11).

“The great day of the LORD is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly. That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, a day of the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers” (Zeph.1:14-16).

“For, behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch” (Mal.4:1).

THE SEVEN SEAL JUDGMENTS: EVENTS PRECEDING THE GREAT TRIBULATION, 6:1-7:17

D. The Fate of Believers in the Great Tribulation (Part I): A Remnant of 144,000 From Israel Will Be Saved, 7:1-8

(7:1-8) Introduction: Jesus Christ is holding the great book of God in His hands, the Book of Destiny, the book that tells what is to happen at the end of the world. The book is so important and so secretive that God has it bound with seven seals until it is time for it to be opened. Remember: the events have not yet happened upon earth. They are things that are to happen in the end time. But God has given us a glimpse into the things. Why? To warn us to turn to His Son. Christ alone can save us from the judgment to come. Therefore, we must follow Him ever so diligently while we walk upon earth. This glimpse into the great book of God, into the destiny of the world, is given to us in this great book of Revelation. We have just seen Jesus Christ break open six of the seals that bind the book. To our horror, when He broke them open, the four horsemen of the Apocalypse were seen storming across the face of the earth with their terror and devastation. We have seen how the four horsemen represent the wars and killing, famine and pestilence, hunger and starvation, death and hell that the antichrist will unleash upon the earth. We have seen how evil will mass together every force of demonic power it can in order to make a final assault upon the earth. And we have seen that the destructive devastation will kill one fourth of the world's population. Shocking! One fourth of the population will be killed by the catastrophic devastation of evil unleashed upon the earth. But to our horror, this is not all. God's great book declares this is just the beginning of sorrows and woes. But this terrible devastation, as horrible as it is, is nothing compared to what is yet to come. When all the judgments have fallen, the earth and the world shall be utterly destroyed. How it is to happen will be seen when the seventh seal is broken open. When the seventh seal is broken, the seven seal judgments are over; the period of history that will be known as the beginning of sorrows and woes will be finished. But the great tribulation itself will be launched by the seventh seal.

- the great tribulation that will witness the shattering blast of seven trumpets of judgment.
- the great tribulation that will witness the wrath of seven bowls of judgment poured out upon the earth.

Now, for a critical question: Will anyone be saved through such terrible days? Can anyone survive such terrible happenings? As Scripture itself has just asked:

“The great day of [God’s] wrath is come...who shall be able to stand?” (Rev.6:17).

Can anyone stand? Will anyone turn to the Lord and be delivered through this terrible time? Yes! There is to be a remnant of Israel saved: 144,000 Jews shall be saved.

1. The winds of judgment are in the hands of God and His angels, not in the hands of evil (v.1-2).
2. God will give the most wonderful command: to delay the judgments until God's people can be sealed (v.2-3).
3. God will give the wonderful counsel to seal 144,000 Jews from all the tribes of Israel (v.4-8).

1 (7:1-2) End Time—Israel—Jews—Salvation: the winds of judgment are in the hands of God and His angels, not in the hands of evil. This is a most wonderful truth, and it is exactly what is being declared here. Four angels stand at the four corners of the earth holding the four winds of judgment so that they cannot blow upon the earth. “The four corners of the earth are the four main points of the compass: north, south, east, and west” (Lehman Strauss. The Book of the Revelation. Neptune, NJ: Loizeaux Brothers, 1964, p.170). The picture is that God is in control of the whole earth, of every direction upon earth. And He is merciful. He has not unleashed His avenging angels of wrath upon earth, not yet. In mercy He has chosen to wait a little while longer.

Thought 1. This is a most comforting thought: to know that judgment is in the hands of God; to know that it is God Himself who is to execute judgment. It is comforting because of what Jesus Christ has done for us. Just think! Every person has the privilege of escaping judgment. No person has to stand before the face of God at the throne of judgment. Every person can be saved and delivered from condemnation by receiving the Lord Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior.

But note: the winds of judgment are to be unleashed upon the earth. Every person will face these awful times unless he has surrendered his life to Christ. And then most tragic of all, he will have to face the eternal judgment and condemnation from the presence of God forever.

“When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats” (Mt.25:31-32).

“But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men” (2 Pt.3:7).

“And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire” (Rev.20:12-15).

2 (7:2-3) Seal—Israel, Salvation of: God will give the most wonderful command. The command will be to delay the judgments of the great tribulation until all the servants of God can be sealed. The seal means the mark of possession, authority, power, protection, and preservation.

⇒ In ancient times a king’s ring was his seal. He would stamp the mark of his ring upon all official documents showing their possession, authority, and power. This is certainly part of the meaning here. The 144,000 will be sealed—protected and preserved—by God (cp. Gen.41:42; Esther 3:10; 8:2; Dan.6:17; Mt.27:66).

“And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads” (Rev.9:4).

“And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father’s name written in their foreheads” (Rev.14:1).

“And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads” (Rev.22:4).

“Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads” (Rev.7:3).

“And the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof” (Ezk.9:4).

⇒ In the New Testament the believer is sealed with the Spirit of God; that is, the Holy Spirit seals and guarantees that the believer belongs to God. The presence of the Holy Spirit living within the heart and life of the believer is his seal and his guarantee that he will escape the judgment of God and live eternally with God.

“Which is the earnest [guarantee] of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory” (Eph.1:14).

“Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts” (2 Cor.1:22).

“Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit” (2 Cor.5:5).

In contrast to the seal of God upon His servants, the lawless and rebellious followers of the beast (the antichrist) will bear his mark or seal (Rev.16:2). God will seal His servants to identify them and to assure their protection from the wrath and destruction coming upon the earth. Remember: God does not condemn His followers. His followers escape the judgment of God. The judgment and destruction from God’s hands fall only on “those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads.” This is clearly stated in Revelation.

⇒ The demonic forces that are to be unleashed upon earth will not touch God's people.

“And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads” (Rev.9:4).

⇒ The bowl judgment of sores will not touch God's people. Judgment is poured out only upon those who have the mark of the beast.

“And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image” (Rev.16:2).

This should not seem strange to us, that God will judge the unbelievers who follow the antichrist and not judge believers. As stated, God does not condemn His people; He condemns and judges unbelievers. And the judgments of the great tribulation are to be upon an evil and apostate world. A good example is Moses and the plagues of Israel. Remember the event: the ten plagues, as terrible and devastating as they were, fell upon all the Egyptians; but they did not afflict the believers among Israel. The true believers were sealed from the plagues.

However, it should be remembered that believers will be persecuted and slaughtered by the antichrist during the last three and a half years of his reign, that is, during the great tribulation (cp. Rev.7:14). The believers of the end time will not suffer the judgments of God upon the apostate world, but they will suffer the persecution of the antichrist.

“The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance” (2 Pt.3:9).

“And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him” (Jude 14-15).

“Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy: for thou renderest to every man according to his work” (Ps.62:12).

“I the LORD search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings” (Jer.17:10).

Thought 1. God gives the most wonderful promises to genuine believers. No believer will ever be judged and condemned to death and hell. There is nothing, absolutely nothing, that can separate a genuine believer from the love of God.

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life” (Jn.3:16).

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life” (Jn.5:24).

“But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life” (Ro.5:8-10).

“Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord” (Ro.8:35-39).

“Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not” (1 Jn.3:1).

3 (7:4-8) Israel—Salvation: God will give the wonderful counsel to seal 144,000 Jewish believers. And note: there will be 12,000 from each of the twelve tribes. This is exactly what this passage says. This is clear indication that Israel will be saved in the end time. This is exactly what Christ revealed to Paul. (See outline and notes—Romans chapters 9-11 where the problem of Israel is dealt with. Especially see outline and notes, Restoration of Israel and Its Surety—Ro.11:25-36.)

This passage should be taken at its face value, that is, that 144,000 Jews will be converted during the tribulation. There are several strong reasons for this.

1. This passage says that 144,000 Jews will be converted. This is the very subject of chapter seven: to show who is to be saved during the tribulation. The answer is that both Jews and Gentiles will be saved, some 144,000 Jews and an innumerable number of Gentiles (v.9-17 of the next outline). This is described in the simplest and plainest of terms.

REVELATION 7:1-8

2. The 144,000 are apparently a special body of Jewish believers who are dedicated to serve the Lord Jesus Christ totally and wholly during the tribulation of the last days. Note three things that Revelation says about them. (See notes—Rev.14:4-5 for more discussion.)

- a. They are virgins, that is, they have never married. The days of the end time will be filled with horror after horror. The worst holocaust the world has ever witnessed will be launched by the antichrist and millions will be killed. A special commitment will be needed to stand up for Christ. Apparently, these 144,000 form a special body of believers who vow and commit their lives to the end to never deny Christ. They apparently take a special vow to be the encouragers and ministers to the believers and to the others who will be so severely attacked and persecuted by the antichrist. (The vow and commitment the 144,000 will take will be somewhat like the vow the Pharisees took when they first formed to stand against Antiochus Epiphanes. See DEEPER STUDY # 3, Pharisees—Acts 23:8.)

“I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress, I say, that it is good for a man so to be [single]. Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife” (1 Cor.7:26-27).

“These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb. And in the mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God” (Rev.14:4-5).

- b. They are called the servants of our God. They are a body of believers who give themselves to serve God while ungodliness and evil are raging in the end time. They will be ministering, witnessing, and encouraging the believers and the Jews who are having to flee into the wilderness and hiding places of the world to escape the holocaust. The 144,000 will have a great part to play in the turning of Israel to Christ, their true Messiah, in the end time.

“Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads” (Rev.7:3).

- c. They are said to be redeemed from among men (Jewish men), the firstfruits offered to God and Christ. This simply means that they will be the first Jews to be saved in the tribulation.

“These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb withersoever he goeth [leads]. These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb” (Rev.14:4).

3. This is undoubtedly part of the restoration of Israel. Christ clearly revealed that Israel was to be saved in the end time. (See outline and notes—Romans chapters 9-11; especially chapter eleven.)

“God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot [know] ye not what the scripture saith of Elias [Elijah]? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel” (Ro.11:2).

“For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?” (Ro.11:15).

“And they [Israel] also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again. For if thou [Gentile believers] wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?” (Ro.11:23-24).

“For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in. And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob” (Ro.11:25-26).

DIVISION IV

THE SEVEN SEAL JUDGMENTS: EVENTS PRECEDING THE GREAT TRIBULATION, 6:1-7:17

E. The Fate of Believers in the Great Tribulation (Part II): A Numberless Multitude of Martyrs Will Be Saved, 7:9-17

(7:9-17) Introduction: Who shall be saved during the awful tribulation coming upon earth? The terrible tribulation is coming in the end time, right before the end of the world. The time will be so terrible that one fourth of the earth's population will be destroyed by war, famine, pestilence, hunger, and starvation. It will be a time so terrible that the Bible calls it the period of Death and Hell. But remember this is just the beginning. There is to be a time of so much horror and fright that it can only be called the great tribulation. When it comes there will be no end to the destruction and loss of life.

The important question is this: Is there any hope? Is there any way that people can be saved during this period of great tribulation? Yes! There will be a numberless multitude of believers saved.

1. Their origin: everywhere (v.9).
2. Their glorious position (v.9-10).
3. Their glorious companions (v.11-12).
4. Their identity: An elder asks John for the multitudes' identity (v.13-14).
5. Their function: To serve God continuously (v.15).
6. Their blessings: bliss (v.15-17).

1 (7:9) Salvation—Saved, The: there is the origin of the numberless multitude. Who are they? They are people from everywhere (cp. Rev.5:9).

- ⇒ From all nations: all, not just some; not even most, but from all nations.
- ⇒ From all tribes: there will not be a tribe from anyplace on earth left out. All tribes will have some people within them who will be saved in the great tribulation.
- ⇒ From all people: there will not be a people who will not have some saved from their number.
- ⇒ From all tongues: there will not be a language from which there will not be some saved.

During the great tribulation there will be people who will turn to Christ by the millions. As terrible as the sorrows and woes will be, the destruction and devastation will apparently stir people by the teeming millions to turn to Christ. This is glorious news: it means that the greatest revival in the history of the world will take place during the tribulation coming upon earth. Just imagine: "a great multitude which no man could number"—teeming millions standing before the throne of God in heaven. And as we shall see in a few moments, they come out of the terrible tribulation upon earth. There will be people saved during those awful days.

Thought 1. This means a most glorious thing: God never shuts the door against anyone who wills to give his heart and life to His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ.

“And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven” (Mt.8:11).

“For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved” (Ro.10:13).

“Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth” (1 Tim.2:4).

“And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation” (Rev.5:9).

“After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands” (Rev.7:9).

“These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb. And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God” (Rev.14:4-5).

“And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready” (Rev.19:6-7).

2 (7:9-10) Saved, The—Throne, God’s: there is the glorious position of the numberless multitude. Note the four facts given about them.

1. They stand before the throne of God and before the Lamb, the Lord Jesus Christ. They have the most glorious of privileges:

- ⇒ to be near God and Christ
- ⇒ to be face to face with God and Christ
- ⇒ to be honored with the very presence of God and Christ
- ⇒ to know God and Christ in all Their fulness and being

2. They are clothed with white robes. This means they have been made pure and free from all the blemishes of sin and from all the corruption of the world—all by the righteousness of Jesus Christ. It means they have been perfected and stand before God perfected. The white robe of righteousness is...

- a sign of righteousness through Christ
- a sign of being made free from the defilement and smut of sin through Christ
- a sign of the victory over sin, death, and judgment through Christ
- a sign of being perfected forever through Christ
- a sign of being a heavenly creature, of having the glorious privilege of living forever in the presence of God through Christ.

3. They hold palm branches in their hands. The palms are symbols of celebration, triumph, victory, deliverance, and joy. The redeemed before God celebrate their triumph over the terrible tribulation and the sin, evil, death, and corruption of the world.

- ⇒ They celebrate their victory in Christ.
- ⇒ They celebrate their deliverance in Christ.
- ⇒ They celebrate their joy in Christ.

4. They shout praises for their salvation. Note what it is that they shout:

“Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb” (v.10).

They praise God for salvation. They praise God...

- because God has saved and delivered them through the great trials upon earth.
- because God has given them the power to believe and to endure to the end.
- because God has accepted them.
- because God has given them the glorious privilege of His presence.
- because God has completed their salvation, perfected them forever and ever with His glory.

Thought 1. William Barclay has a statement about this point that is a dynamic challenge to us. His words should stir us to endure any trial or temptation, no matter how severe:

“God is the great saviour, the great rescuer, the great deliverer of His people, And the deliverance which God gives is the greatest deliverance of all, for it is not the deliverance of escape; it is the deliverance of conquest. It is not the deliverance which saves a man from trouble it is the deliverance which brings a man triumphantly through trouble. It does not make life easy, but it certainly makes life great. It is not part of the Christian hope to look for a life in which a man is saved from all trouble and distress; the Christian hope is that a man in Christ can endure any kind of trouble and distress, and remain erect all through them, and come out to glory on the other side” (The Revelation of John, Vol.2. “The Daily Study Bible.” Philadelphia, PA: The Westminster Press, 1959, p.32).

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life” (Jn.3:16).

“For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord” (Ro.6:23).

“He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things” (Ro.8:32).

“Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift” (2 Cor.9:15).

“For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God” (Eph.2:8).

“For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world” (Tit.2:11-12).

“By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name” (Heb.13:15).

“But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light” (1 Pt.2:9).

3 (7:11-12) Angels—Elders—Four Living Creatures: there are the companions of the numberless multitude. This is a picture of all those who stand before the throne of God with the numberless multitude. It is the picture of wave after wave of different beings standing in circles before the throne of God.

⇒ The outer circle is the angels. Note that they surround or encircle the throne.

⇒ Next come the twenty four elders.

⇒ Then there are the four living creatures who stand at the four corners of the throne.

⇒ Finally, as we have seen, there is the numberless multitude of believers who stand face to face with the throne of God and the Lamb.

The numberless multitude has just sung their praises to God for His great salvation. When they do, the rest of the heavenly beings fall down before the throne on their faces and worship God.

1. They praise God for His blessing. Every good and perfect gift comes from God. These heavenly beings acknowledge this fact and bless God’s name for it.

2. They praise God for His glory. God is glorious, the most glorious Person in all the universe. He is so glorious that His glory outshines the sun. It is the light of His glory that will provide the light of heaven. God is to be praised for the perfection of His glory. But note: God shares His glory with His creatures. Every creature in heaven is given and perfected in glory. God is to be praised for the gift of His glory as well as for His own glory.

3. They praise God for His wisdom. God is the Supreme and Majestic Intelligence of the universe. He is omniscient, possessing all intelligence and perfect intelligence. It is God who planned creation and all the worlds and creatures of all dimensions whoever they are. It is God who planned salvation and redemption through His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. It is God who has the knowledge to work all things out for good. He is to be praised for His wisdom.

4. They offer thanksgiving to God. They thank Him for creation, life, salvation, redemption, and for everything else. Again, they know that every good and perfect gift came from Him.

5. They praise God for His honor. God is the Supreme and Majestic Being of the universe. There is none like Him. In addition, God is faithful and true. He never fails to keep His Word and promises nor to do what is best. He is the perfection of honor and truth and trustworthiness. Therefore, God’s honor is praised.

6. They praise God for His power. God is the Supreme and Majestic Force of the universe. He is the Force that created the universe and that sustains and holds it together and that is moving it toward its destined end. In addition, God is the Supreme Force that works out the salvation and redemption of man and that works out all things for good to those who love Him. He is the Supreme Power who oversees our lives and delivers us from evil, death, and corruption. Therefore, God is praised for His power.

7. They praise God for His might and strength. God is strong; He never tires or becomes weary. There is no weakness in Him whatever. God is so strong that He is always able to help any of His creatures. Anyone can approach God anytime for strength and receive His help. God never fails; He possesses perfect strength and shall possess it forever and ever. Therefore, God’s strength is praised.

Thought 1. The praise of heavenly beings is an example for us. Scripture is clear: we are always to be thanking and praising God.

“By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name” (Heb.13:15).

“But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light” (1 Pt.2:9).

“For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s” (1 Cor.6:20).

“Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet [qualified, fit] to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light” (Col.1:12).

“And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful” (Col.3:15).

“In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you” (1 Th.5:18).

“Sing praises to the LORD, which dwelleth in Zion: declare among the people his doings” (Ps.9:11).

“Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee” (Ps.67:3).

4 (7:13-14) Tribulation, Great—Believers—White Robes—Martyrs: there is the identity of the numberless multitude.

Note that the numberless multitude has not yet been identified. Now they are. John is stunned by the sight and praise of the heavenly scene. He just stands there in stark amazement and stone silence, unable to think. To stir him, one of the elders walks over and asks John who the numberless multitude is. Of course, John does not know, but the elder does. He was only arousing John out of his stunned state of mind. John does all he can do; he simply replies, “Sir, you know who they are.” It is then that the elder tells John what he is witnessing. Remember: this scene has not yet happened. God is giving John a vision of things that are to happen in the future. The day is coming when a numberless multitude, apparently millions, will stand before God having just entered heaven. Who are they? Two things are said about them.

1. They are believers out of the great tribulation. Shocking! But a great multitude, which no man could number—millions of believers—will die from the holocaust in the great tribulation.

Note: this is exactly what Scripture says. There will be millions of believers in the great tribulation, a mass of believers that no man can number. The devastation and destruction taking place will cause millions from all over the world to turn to Christ.

Now observe closely: they are in heaven, not on earth. This means that the antichrist has killed them. He has launched an all out attack against Christ, attempting to wipe the believer from off the face of the earth. This is clearly described by Scripture.

⇒ Daniel predicted this terrible time of trouble.

“And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book” (Dan.12:1).

⇒ Jesus Christ foretold that the great tribulation was coming upon the earth.

“For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect’s sake those days shall be shortened” (Mt.24:21-22).

⇒ Paul described the attacks of the antichrist against Christ and all religions.

“Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God” (2 Th.2:3-4).

⇒ John says that the antichrist will actually make war against the saints (believers) of God.

“And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations” (Rev.13:7).

⇒ John says that the purpose of the antichrist is to set up the worship of the state as the first loyalty of the citizens of the world. (This will be the means the government will use to hold the people together under one government.)

“And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed” (Rev.13:15).

The point is this: in the great tribulation the government of the antichrist will launch an all out attack against Christ and His followers. (The attack will also be against all people who have a strong religious faith, including Jews, Moslems, Hindus, and others.) A believer will have to deny Christ or else be put to death. Millions—all those who are true believers—will refuse. They will refuse for the same reason any true believer would refuse: because they love the Lord with all their heart, and because they have the glorious hope of living with Christ forever and ever, worshipping and serving Him in perfection throughout all of eternity.

2. They are those who have washed their robes white. How? In the blood of the Lamb. The clothing of all heavenly beings is colored white. White stands for purity and perfection. It means that the person has no spot of sin, evil, or corruption in him. He is clean and pure from all defilement and sin and imperfection. Therefore, white stands for perfection, for sinless perfection, for perfect righteousness.

But note a critical fact: no person upon earth is sinless, righteous, perfect, pure, or incorruptible. Every person sins, and every person is corruptible. We all die and end up in the grave. How then did these martyrs—the believers of the numberless multitude—get white robes? This verse tells us:

“[They] have washed their robes; and made them white in the blood of the Lamb” (v.14. See note, pt.2, Lamb of God—Rev.5:6-7 for discussion and verses.)

- 5 (7:15) Believers, Redeemed—Heaven: there is the function of the numberless multitude. They serve God continually, day and night. The temple here means the very presence of God, the most holy place in all the universe, heaven itself. It means to have direct access into the presence of God anytime, anyplace. The picture is this:
- ⇒ Believers will be perfected so that they never tire or become weary or need sleep. They will be able to serve and work continuously day and night.
 - ⇒ Believers will serve God: they will be ruling and reigning throughout the universe, overseeing the new heavens and earth for Christ.

“And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel” (Mt.19:28).

“His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord” (Mt.25:23).

“And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season? Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make ruler over all that he hath” (Lk.12:42-44).

“And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities....And he said likewise to him [another servant], Be thou also over five cities” (Lk.19:17, 19).

“And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together” (Ro.8:17).

“If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us” (2 Tim.2:12).

“Do ye not know that the saints shall judge [oversee, govern, rule] the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters? Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?” (1 Cor.6:2-3).

“And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood” (Rev.1:5).

“And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth” (Rev.5:10).

- 6 (7:15-17) Believers—Rewards—Heaven: there are the blessings and bliss of the numberless multitude.

1. They will have the living presence of God with them forever.
 - ⇒ The presence of God will actually be manifested to the believer unceasingly. God will be dwelling, living, moving, and having His being in the believer in an unbroken communion and fellowship.
2. They will have all their physical needs met. Hunger and thirst stand for all the physical necessities of life that they lacked when upon earth. Many of these dear believers will suffer terribly. They will be placed in extermination camps by the antichrist and his government. They will be starved to death. Some will be forced to flee their homes and belongings. They will starve to death while trying to scratch food out of the forests. The picture of how a war-torn, persecuted people suffering starvation and thirst is well known to the modern world. Such scenes are often seen on television. But in heaven the believers will have all their needs met.
3. They will be protected. This is the symbol of the sun and heat. The prison and labor camps of a persecuted and war-torn people is the picture here. The picture would also include the homeless who have to wander about exposed to the elements of nature. Scorching heat and frigid cold will take the lives of many. But in heaven, they will be protected from all enemies, even from the sun and heat.
4. They will have all their spiritual needs met. The Greek for feed is shepherd. The Lamb of God Himself shall shepherd the believers. He will feed them and meet all their needs. This refers to spiritual needs, the needs of the soul for life, love, joy, peace, security, completeness, fulness, assurance, and confidence. Christ will feed the soul of the believer. (cp. Ps.23:1f.).
5. They will have the leadership and direction of the Lord to guide them. There will never be another mistake or misstep taken. The Lamb of God Himself will give direction and guidance. He will assign the responsibilities and tell believers exactly what to oversee for Him, and they will joyfully do it. Serving Christ, being directed and guided by Him, will be like drinking from the fountain of living water.
6. They will have all sorrow wiped away from their eyes. Note by whom: God Himself shall wipe all tears from their eyes. In heaven believers shall never again suffer, not even a single pain or hurt. They shall be perfected forever.

“Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled” (Mt.5:6).

“But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life” (Jn.4:14).

“And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst” (Jn.6:35).

“Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father’s house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also” (Jn.14:1-3).

“For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory” (2 Cor.4:17).

“Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing” (2 Tim.4:8).

“Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you” (1 Pt.1:3-4).

“Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you: but rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ’s sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy” (1 Pt.4:12-13).

“Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you (1 Pt.5:7).

“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away” (Rev.21:4).

“They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun smite them: for he that hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall he guide them” (Is.49:10).

DIVISION V

THE SEVEN TRUMPET JUDGMENTS: EVENTS DURING THE GREAT TRIBULATION, 8:1-11:19

A. The Breaking of the Seventh Seal: Awesome Preparation for Judgment, 8:1-5

(8:1-5) Introduction: remember what we have just seen. God has just handed Jesus Christ the great book of destiny, the book that tells about the end of the world. The book was so full and so secretive that it was bound with seven seals. When Christ began to break the seals, the most unusual thing happened. A picture, a movie-like scene, began to be played out before John and the heavenly host. What they saw was the horror and the terrible things that are to happen at the end of the world.

- ⇒ The first four seals showed the four horsemen of the apocalypse storming over the face of the earth. These four horsemen represented the havoc that shall be wrought upon the earth by the antichrist. They show his gaining control of the world through war, famine, and economic controls. The events are characteristic of most ages, but they are to be intensified in the tribulation at the end of the world.
- ⇒ The fifth seal (Rev.6:9) showed the martyrs who were slaughtered by the antichrist while he gained control of much of the earth and its economy (Rev.6:6).
- ⇒ The sixth seal showed the rumblings of God's judgment being prepared and simply says, "the great day of His wrath is come," the very threshold of the great tribulation (Rev.6:12f).

Now we come to the seventh seal. But before we discuss it, remember that the seals of a scroll are not part of the scroll. They are merely ribbons or some cord or tape that is wrapped around the scroll or book to hold it together. They have to be broken to open the book. The point is this: the seal judgments are events that happen before the end time itself, before the events of the book itself are ever seen. The seal judgments are the events that happen before the great tribulation itself takes place. This is exactly what Christ said:

- ⇒ Christ called the preliminary events "the beginning of sorrows or woes" (Mt.24:8. See outline and notes—Mt.24:1-14.)
- ⇒ Christ called the most terrible events of the last days the "great tribulation" (Mt.24:21. See outline and notes—Mt.24:15-28.)

Now, it is time for the seventh seal to be broken. When it is broken, there is seen the awesome preparation for judgment.

1. Picture 1: a shattering silence (v.1).
2. Picture 2: the instruments of judgment (v.2-4).
3. Picture 3: the signs of the coming judgment begin upon earth (v.5).

I (8:1) Seal Judgments: when the seventh seal is broken, there is the picture of a shattering silence. This was the silence of awe and of reverence before God, fearing what may be coming forth. The heavenly host had seen so much that they were stricken numb with silence. When the seventh seal is broken, nothing happens. There is stillness, complete and absolute stillness. Christ stands there in stone silence. He does not move or speak. Neither does anyone else. They dare not, for the Lord says nothing, and the seal has produced no event. As stated, the silence is a silence of awe and reverence before God, fearing what might be coming forth. It was a silence of suspense and trembling anticipation, expecting some terrible judgment to burst across the scene of human history. Note that the silence lasts about one half hour.

"Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure" (Is.46:10).

"Therefore the prudent shall keep silence in that time: for it is an evil time" (Amos 5:13).

“But the Lord is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep silence before him” (Hab.2:20).

“Be silent, O all flesh, before the Lord: for he is raised up out of his holy habitation” (Zech.2:13).

2 (8:2-4) Trumpet Judgments: there is the picture of the instruments of justice and judgment. Note two instruments of judgment.

1. There are seven angels who suddenly lurch out from the Book of Destiny and immediately take their place before God. God hands them seven trumpets. Again note this: the seven angels come forth when the seventh seal is broken. Picture the scene:

- ⇒ Picture the heavenly host surrounding the throne of God.
- ⇒ Picture all the spectacular scenes, horror, and suffering that have been witnessed.
- ⇒ Picture the breaking of the seventh seal and the stone silence for thirty minutes—stone silence.
- ⇒ Then bursting into view are seven mighty angels taking their place before the throne of God. Picture them standing there tall, broad, and erect. The power they possess is clearly seen in their very persons.

The heavenly host knows something: when God hands these mighty messengers seven trumpets, the judgments about to take place will be coming directly from God Himself. Trumpets always symbolize God intervention into human history. God is about to move against the godless and evil society of earth. This is critical to note, for God does not condemn and punish His followers. The judgments of God are to fall only upon the unbelievers of the world, only upon those who have followed the antichrist, only those who have the mark of the beast.

“And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads” (Rev.9:4).

“And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image” (Rev.16:2).

“So that a man shall say, Verily there is a reward for the righteous: verily he is a God that judgeth in the earth” (Ps.58:11).

Thought 1. George Ladd makes a statement that we must always remember about the judgment of God:

“The wrath of God is not merely judicial; it also embodies a merciful purpose. It is designed to drive men to their knees by harsh experiences while the time for decision remains, before it is too late. This is hinted at in several passages.

“After the sixth trumpet, we read, ‘The rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands nor give up worshipping demons and idols’ (9:20) ... When men are confronted by the...wrath of God in judgment, they should be humbled in repentance and turn from their wickedness to worship the God of heaven.

“The same note resounds in connection with the bowls of wrath. After the fifth bowl, we read that men ‘cursed the God of heaven for their pain and sores and did not repent of their deeds’ (16:10). If it were possible to drive men to repentance, the plagues of the trumpets and bowls would do so” (The Revelation of John. Grand Rapids, MI: Eerdmans, 1972, p.124).

Thought 2. William Barclay gives three purposes for the blowing of a trumpet that are worthy of our note:

“It can sound the alarm. It can waken from sleep or warn of danger. And God is always sounding His warnings in the ears of men.

“It can be the fanfare which announces the arrival of royalty. It is a fitting symbol to express the invasion of time by the King of eternity.

“It can be the summons to battle. And God is always summoning His people to take sides in the strife of truth with falsehood, and to become soldiers of the King of kings” (The Revelation of John, Vol.2, p.52).

2. The second instrument of judgment is the prayers of all the saints or believers. Note that these are the prayers of all the saints. Some were in heaven and some were still on earth. All had suffered and some were still suffering the savage persecution of the antichrist and his government. Remember how savage the persecution will be: literally millions, numberless multitudes will be killed (Rev.7:9-17). Believers will be crying out to God day and night for deliverance, for justice, for vindication—for the hand of such cruelty to be dealt with either by conversion or removal, and to be dealt with speedily.

The point is this: the day is coming when God is going to answer the prayers of His dear people. He is going to cast His judgment against the antichrist and his government and all those who have followed him. All who have opposed God are going to suffer judgment, the most horrible judgment imaginable, all who have stood against God...

- by ridiculing and mocking His people
- by cursing and abusing His people
- by attacking and striking His people
- by arresting and imprisoning His people
- by condemning and killing His people

All who have rebelled against Jesus Christ—rejected, denied, cursed, ignored, neglected, disobeyed, and disbelieved Him—all shall be judged. The judgment of God is about to fall upon the earth. They who have been so cruel and inhumane shall now suffer the most horrible punishment imaginable. And the punishment shall come from Him who is just and righteous as well as love. God is going to hear and answer the prayers of His dear people, His followers who suffered so much at the hands of a godless society that chose to follow the savagery of the antichrist.

“And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you” (Lk.11:9).

“If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you” (Jn.15:7).

“And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight” (1 Jn.3:22).

“He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him” (Ps.91:15).

“And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear” (Is.65:24).

“Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and show thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not” (Jer.33:3).

“And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them: I will say, It is my people: and they shall say, The LORD is my God” (Zech.13:9).

3 (8:5) Judgment: there are the signs of the coming judgment beginning upon earth. Note the verse.

“And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake” (v.5).

The angel takes fire from the altar, and note where he puts it: he mixes it in with the prayers of the suffering saints. Their prayers for vindication and justice and the fire of God’s holy wrath are mixed together. Why? To be cast upon the earth. The day is coming when God will be ready to judge the godless society of the earth; He will be ready to avenge His name and the faith of His dear people who have been treated so savagely. The justice of God will strike out in wrath against the ungodly and evil of the earth.

Note this: the angel casts both the fire and prayers of the saints upon the earth. When he does, all the voices upon earth begin to wonder and question, for there is...

- an enormous increase of violent thunderstorms with their thunderings and lightnings.
- an enormous increase of earthquakes.

The ungodly millions upon earth know that something is about to happen, something terrible. And it is: the judgment of God is about to fall upon the ungodly of the world. The great tribulation is now being launched.

“But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you” (Mt.11:22).

“And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city” (Mk.6:11).

“And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him” (Jude 14-15).

“Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen” (Rev.1:7).

“The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether” (Ps.19:9).

“Before the LORD: for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth” (Ps.96:13).

Thought 1. Scripture plainly declares that God is going execute judgment upon this corruptible world and the ungodly.

“And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints” (Jude 14).

“Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man who he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead” (Acts 17:31).

“For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness” (Ro.1:18).

“Before the LORD: for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth” (Ps.96:13).

THE SEVEN TRUMPET JUDGMENTS: EVENTS DURING THE GREAT TRIBULATION, 8:1-11:19

B. The Blast of the First Four Trumpets: Natural Catastrophes, 8:6-12

(8:6-12) Introduction: the great trumpet judgments will be blown upon the earth. Remember: this will be the judgment of God upon a world that will slaughter the innocent and curse God; a world of ungodly and evil people who will reject, deny, and rebel against Jesus Christ. This is the judgment of God against a world that will launch the worst holocaust in the history of the world; that will slaughter millions of believers who refuse to deny Jesus Christ and to accept the mark of the antichrist. God’s judgment will be trumpeted across the face of the earth. Judgment will fall upon the mean, the ungodly, and the evil of the world.

Note: the seven angels will prepare to sound forth the trumpet blast of their judgments. This passage deals with the first four trumpet judgments. The judgments will focus upon natural catastrophes, both upon the earth and upon the heavenly bodies. The purpose of these natural disasters will be to bring people to repentance.

1. The first trumpet: a fierce storm (v.6-7).
2. The second trumpet: a massive volcanic explosion (v.8-9).
3. The third trumpet: a meteoric mass (v.10-11).
4. The fourth trumpet: an astronomical eclipse (v.12).

1 (8:6-7) Trumpet Judgments—Judgment: there will be the blast of the first trumpet judgment, that of a fierce storm. Remember the terrifying disturbances that will be taking place in outer space and upon earth in the latter days. The universe and the laws of nature will be swaying: enormous and violent disturbances will be taking place all throughout the universe. We saw this under the seal judgments.

“And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood; and the stars of heaven [meteorites] fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind. And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places” (Rev.6:12-14).

These cosmic disturbances will cause utter chaos in the earth’s weather. A violent storm will brew someplace on the earth, a storm more violent than any storm ever seen before. The storm will rain hail that looks like fire mingled with blood. The reddish color will no doubt be a mixture of sand blown up into the clouds by some of the most fierce winds ever seen by man. Note the force of the winds. The storm will be so strong that its winds will carry it across one third of the earth—strong enough to destroy and devastate one third of the vegetation (grass and trees). Think of the enormous destruction and utter devastation:

- ⇒ the destroyed crops and food supply for both man and animal
- ⇒ the interrupted agricultural rotation through lack of seed and ability to plant again
- ⇒ the shortage of food
- ⇒ the dry, desert lands that will result from the destruction of trees

One third of the vegetation of the earth will be destroyed in this judgment. Why? Because the end of the world will be at hand. God will begin to judge the ungodly and the evil of this earth. It will be time for people to know that God is truly God, and that He is to be obeyed or else people will be judged and punished. This judgment will be a warning: people must repent or even worse judgments will come.

⇒ This judgment will be similar to the plagues upon Egypt by Moses.

“And Moses stretched forth his rod toward heaven: and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground; and the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt. So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as there was none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation” (Ex.9:23-24).

⇒ This judgment will be similar to the storm upon the enemies of Joshua and Israel.

“And it came to pass, as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going down to Bethhoron, that the LORD cast down great stones from heaven upon them unto Azekah, and they died: they were more which died with hailstones than they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword” (Josh.10:11).

⇒ Other Biblical references to hail storms are as follows.

“The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave his voice; hail stones and coals of fire” (Ps.18:13).

“Behold, the Lord hath a mighty and strong one, which as a tempest of hail and a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing, shall cast down to the earth with the hand” (Is.28:2).

“Say unto them which daub it with untempered mortar, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and ye, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it” (Ezk.13:11).

“The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up” (Rev.8:7).

2 (8:8-9) Trumpet Judgments: there will be the blast of the second trumpet judgment. This will probably be some un-paralld volcanic explosion either from underneath the sea or else close to the sea. The explosion will apparently be as forceful as an atomic explosion, forceful enough to explode a mass of rock as large as a mountain into some ocean. Note these facts:

- ⇒ The explosion will be so forceful that the mass of rock flying upward is so large that it looks like a great mountain.
- ⇒ The explosive mass will still be ablaze when it hits the earth.
- ⇒ The explosive mass will be cast into one of the seas.
- ⇒ One third of that particular sea will turn blood red.
- ⇒ One third of the sea life of that sea will be destroyed.
- ⇒ One third of the ships in that particular ocean will be destroyed.

Again, picture the shortage of sea life for food, the devastation to the fishing industry and businesses, the interruption of shipping commerce and trade, the financial loss because of the destroyed ships and their cargo. Commerce and food supply will be crippled world-wide by the blast of the first and second trumpets.

⇒ The destruction of fish will be similar to the plague upon Egypt.

“And Moses and Aaron did so, as the LORD commanded; and he lifted up the rod, and smote the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood. And the fish that was in the river died; and the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river; and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt” (Ex.7:20-21).

“Hear the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel: for the LORD hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land. By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and blood toucheth blood. Therefore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away” (Hos.4:1-3).

“For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up; and he shall be brought low....and upon all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all pleasant pictures” (Is.2:12, 16).

⇒ The judgment of God was predicted centuries ago.

“I will utterly consume all things from off the land, saith the LORD. I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and the stumbling blocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the LORD” (Zeph.1:2-3).

“He turned their waters into blood, and slew their fish” (Ps.105:29).

3 (8:10-11) Trumpet Judgments: there will be the blast of the third trumpet judgment, that of a meteoric mass. This will apparently be some huge meteor that explodes before it hits the earth. It will scatter over one third of the world. The balls and particles that fall into the rivers and springs of water will drastically affect the water systems in that part of the world. It will actually poison the water, and before men become aware of it, many will die from drinking the water. Because of the bitter taste of the water, the star is called wormwood. Wormwood is a plant that is very bitter. Think of the effect of this meteoric mass upon the earth:

- ⇒ the shortage of water
- ⇒ the thirst among people
- ⇒ the panic because of thirst
- ⇒ the mobilization of emergency aid needed to get water to one third of the earth
- ⇒ the sheer terror, fright, and agony burning at the minds of people because of these three judgments

But remember upon whom the judgments will be falling: upon the ungodly and the evil of the earth, upon the antichrist and his government and followers, upon those who have literally slain millions of God’s people upon the earth, upon those who have abused, mocked, cursed, beaten, imprisoned and killed the followers of God’s Son, the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thought 1. Note how the bitterness of wormwood is used in Scripture.

1) Wormwood became a symbol of idolatry because of its bitterness. Idolatry is a bitter taste for God to swallow; therefore, He will give the idolater the bitterness or wormwood of judgment.

“And the LORD saith, Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein; but have walked after the imagination of their own heart, and after Baalim, which their fathers taught them: therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink” (Jer.9:13-15).

2) Wormwood is used to symbolize the bitterness that an immoral person brings into one’s life.

“For the lips of a strange woman drop as a honeycomb, and her mouth is smoother than oil: but her end is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword. Her feet go down to death; her steps take hold on hell” (Pr.5:3-5).

3) Wormwood is used to symbolize the way people dismiss and treat God with disdain.

“Lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turneth away this day from the LORD our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations; lest there should be among you a root that beareth gall and wormwood” (Dt.29:18).

“And the LORD saith, Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein; but have walked after the imagination of their own heart and after Baalim, which their fathers taught them: therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink” (Jer.9:13-15).

“Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets; Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is profaneness gone forth into all the land” (Jer.23:15).

“Seek the LORD, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Bethel. Ye who turn judgment to wormwood, and leave off righteousness in the earth” (Amos 5:6-7).

4 (8:12) Trumpet Judgments: there will be the blast of the fourth trumpet judgment, that of some astronomical eclipse. Some kind of unusual eclipse is going to happen in the heavens.

“The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining” (Joel 2:10).

“And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord GOD, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day” (Amos 8:9).

Just what Scripture is saying here is difficult to understand. It seems that one of three things is meant.

- ⇒ That one third of the sun, moon, and stars will be eclipsed.
- ⇒ That there will be an eclipse that will blacken out one third of the day; that is, there will be one third less light.
- ⇒ That there will be no light whatsoever for a third of the night; that is, the moon will be eclipsed for one third of each night.

Whatever is meant, the event will be a judgment, a plague of God’s. He will be behind the event, striking fear in the ungodly and evil of this world. God will have two purposes: to lead men to repent and, if they refuse, to judge them for all the evil and ungodly acts against His name and His people.

REVELATION 8:6-12

The picture is this: God has had enough. It is time to stop all the evil and murderous behavior of people. He is ready to end the world and send Christ back to earth to establish righteousness upon earth forever. But He still wants to reach as many as He can. In mass, the world has rejected Him and His people; and they have set a course of genocide, attempting to wipe all believers off the face of the earth. The antichrist and his followers have launched a holocaust that has slaughtered millions. Therefore, God is now moving in judgment by throwing the forces of nature out of course. He is getting ready to destroy the earth and begin anew; but in the meantime, He offers the opportunity of repentance to any who will turn from their sin to His beloved Son, the Lord Jesus Christ.

⇒ This judgment will be similar to the plague of darkness cast upon Egypt by Moses.

“And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even darkness which may be felt. And Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven; and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days: they saw not one another, neither rose any from his place for three days: but all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings” (Ex.10:21-23).

⇒ One such astronomical event has already happened in the seal judgments.

“And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood; and the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind. And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places” (Rev.6:12-14).

⇒ Other Scriptures predict such astronomical events for the latter days.

“The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining” (Joel 2:10).

“And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord GOD, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day” (Amos 8:9).

⇒ Jesus Christ predicted such astronomical events for the latter days.

“And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; men’s hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh” (Lk.21:25-28).

DIVISION V

THE SEVEN TRUMPET JUDGMENTS: EVENTS DURING THE GREAT TRIBULATION, 8:1-11:19

C. The Blast of the Fifth Trumpet: A Demonic-like Locust Plague Upon the Ungodly & Evil, 8:13-9:11

(8:13-9:11) Introduction: the worst holocaust the world has ever seen will be taking place. Millions of believers will be slaughtered by the godless society and government of the antichrist. The godless government will insist that the people’s first loyalty belongs to the state. The antichrist will set up the state as a god and demand total allegiance. He will do what so many governments do today and have always done: demand that people focus upon the government and recognize it as the great provider and protector of society. He and his government will declare the age-old philosophy of the supreme state, that the government alone can meet the needs of people and bring utopia to them. Those who refuse to give the government their first loyalty will be hunted down, imprisoned and executed. Take just a moment and think about all the governments over the earth that hold to the supremacy of the state and deny God and disallow freedom of worship. When the antichrist comes to power, he will exalt the government and its leader world-wide.

But this is only a fraction of what will be happening in the end time. The great tribulation will have just begun, and every person on earth who puts God first will be slaughtered. As stated, millions of believers will have already died in the worst holocaust in world history. It is because of this and all the other terrible sins and evils of a godless society that God decides to judge and end the world.

What we have seen thus far is this: the great tribulation has now begun. The great Book of God has now been opened, the Book of Destiny, the book that reveals what is to happen in the end time. God’s judgment upon the ungodly and the evil of this world has begun to fall. Four trumpet judgments have blasted the earth with natural disaster after natural disaster. The destruction and devastation upon earth has been unparalleled.

⇒ One third of the vegetation has been destroyed.

REVELATION 8:13-9:11

- ⇒ One third of some sea has been polluted and a third of the sea life has died.
- ⇒ One third of the water systems of the world have been polluted by a meteoric mass from heaven falling upon earth.
- ⇒ One third of day and night has been affected because of astronomical happenings throughout space.

Now, we come to the blast of the fifth trumpet judgment: a demonic-like locust plague upon the ungodly and evil of the earth.

1. The blast of judgment is now to be far more severe (v.13).
2. The unnamed star or person (Ch.9:1).
3. The bottomless pit or abyss is opened (v.2).
4. The locusts from the abyss are sent to inflict unbearable punishment (v.3-6).
5. The locusts have a horrifying appearance and power (v.7-10).
6. The king of the locusts is identified (v.11).

1 (8:13) Judgment: the trumpet blast of the fifth judgment will be far more severe than the other judgments. The other four trumpet judgments were directed against the earth itself and involved natural catastrophes. Now the judgments will be directed against the ungodly and evil of this earth. It will not affect those who refuse to give their allegiance to the anti-christ, who refuse the mark of the beast (Rev.9:4). Remember: God will seal His followers; he will protect believers so that His judgments do not fall upon them. His judgments will be for the ungodly and the evil, not for those who have trusted His Son. Of course, as in every generation, believers will be martyred at the hands of ungodly men. But believers will not suffer the judgments of God. They will be protected even as Israel was protected during the Egyptian plagues under Moses. (See note—Rev.7:2-3.)

Note that an eagle flies through the midst of heaven. (The Greek is “eagle” not angel as the Authorized Version has.) The idea is that it soars in the height of the sky, right at the zenith of the noonday sun. Why? So that all can see him and hear his voice cry out a threefold woe upon the ungodly of the earth. This, of course, is symbolic language stressing the strength, swiftness, and certainty of the judgments. An eagle is strong and swift, and when it swoops down upon its prey, judgment is certain. The eagle is a symbol of vengeance (cp. Dt.28:49; Hos.8:1; Hab.1:8). (A.T. Robertson. Word Pictures In The New Testament, Vol.6, p.360.)

Thought 1. None of the ungodly and evil of the world will escape the judgment of God. God is just and righteous as well as love, perfect in justice and righteousness. Therefore, perfect justice is to be executed upon the ungodly and evil. They are to reap exactly what they have sown. God Himself will execute justice and righteousness in the trumpet judgments. This is the fifth trumpet blasting its judgment upon the ungodly of the earth. This is the beginning of the great tribulation that is coming upon the earth. This is what the great Book of God, the Book of Destiny, reveals. But remember: as just stated, God is loving as well as just. Therefore, any person who repents and turns to God’s Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, can still be saved, no matter how ungodly he has lived.

2 (9:1) Satan—Angels, Fallen—Abyss—Bottomless Pit: there will be the unnamed star or person. A star is said to fall from heaven. What is this star? Note that the pronoun him is used to refer to this star. It is a person. The word star is used in its symbolic way to refer to a person of fame or of high position. Who is this person? Note these facts.

- ⇒ He is said to be a star “fallen” (peptokota) from heaven to earth. This is past tense; it means that he was already fallen when God gave him the key to the bottomless pit.
- ⇒ Christ said that He saw Satan fall from heaven.

“And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven” (Lk.10:18).

- ⇒ Scripture gives a glimpse into the fall of Satan. He was apparently the highest arch-angel created by God. But he did what every person has done, began to look at himself and choose to go his own way. Therefore, God had to do what he has to do with everyone of us when we reject and rebel against Him: God had to cast Satan out of heaven, out of His holy presence.

“How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations! For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds: I will be like the most High. Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit” (Is.14:12-15).

- ⇒ He is given the keys to the bottomless pit, that is, the abyss, the place where Scripture says the demons and devils are kept. (This is discussed in the next note.)

The point is this: in comparing Scripture with Scripture, this fallen star or angel seems to be Satan himself. If he is not Satan, then he is probably some high ranking fallen angel in the spirit world. Presently Jesus Christ has the keys to the bottomless pit, but He gives them to Satan and allows Satan to afflict the earth with his hordes of demons. Why? So that the world of evil men can reap what they have sown. However, note that God restrains and limits his evil destruction even as He does in our day and time (cp. Mt.8:29; Lk.8:31; Rev.1:18; 3:7; cp. Rev.20:11-15).

3 (9:2) Abyss—Bottomless Pit: there will be the bottomless pit. It will be opened by the fallen angel of Satan. What is the bottomless pit? It is the place where evil spirits and demons are kept until the end of the world. (See DEEPER STUDY # 1, Hell—1 Pt.3:19-20 for all the prisons or compartments of hell.) Their final doom will be Gehenna or the lake of fire, the place where all those who have rebelled against God are to be condemned (Rev.20:10, 14-15). Note what happens when this fallen angel opens the bottomless pit: smoke arises out of the pit, smoke that is just like the smoke of a great furnace. The smoke in the atmosphere became so heavy and thick that the sun was darkened. This symbolizes what will happen to the ungodly and evil:

- ⇒ The darkness of the underworld will attack them.
- ⇒ They will have the breath of life suffocated out of them by trouble after trouble.
- ⇒ They will experience horror after horror arising out of the bottomless pit.

“And they [evil spirits] besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep” (Lk.8:31).

“And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit. And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit. And there came out of the smoke locusts [demons] upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power....And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon” (Rev.9:1-3, 11).

“And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast [antichrist] that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them” (Rev.11:7).

“The beast [antichrist] that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is” (Rev.17:8).

“And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand. And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years” (Rev.20:1-2).

4 (9:3-6) Evil Spirits—Judgment: there will be the locust-like demons from the abyss. They will be sent to inflict unbearable punishment upon the ungodly. Why are these demons called locusts? Because locusts are a symbol of God’s anger against the ungodly and evil of the world (Ex.10:13; Joel 1:4). Note five facts about the judgment of these locust-like demons.

1. The locust-like demons will be given scorpion-like power (v.3). The scorpion strikes its victim with its tail; its sting is in its tail. It has a poisonous fluid that it injects into the wound of its victim. The sting is not fatal, but it causes terrible suffering.

What is being said is this: in the great tribulation demons with scorpion-like power will be set loose from the bottomless pit.

Remember: the world and the laws of nature are being so radically affected that one natural disaster after another will be occurring all over the world. There will be a shortage of food, water, and the basic essentials of life. Animals will be scurrying about even as men are, frantically searching for food. There is, of course, even the possibility of some bizarre animal mutation resulting from all the natural changes and scientific experimentation in the latter days. The point is this: we know better than to laugh at such prospects today because of what science is doing with the genes and basic elements of life. Indescribable monstrosities are very possible today.

But note: this is a judgment from God. It is not something man brings on himself. God may allow the evil spirits to use something man has developed, but God’s judgment will be behind it all. Evil spirits, the demons from the bottomless pit, will be loosed and given scorpion-like power to afflict the ungodly and evil of this world. Note: they do not kill people; they only afflict and torment people. The demons will torment everyone in their paths just like the locusts of the field.

2. The locust-like demons will be restrained from damaging nature (v.4). This shows that they will not be real earthly locusts, for locusts feed upon vegetation.

3. The locust-like demons are to afflict only people who do not have the seal of God (v.4). God will seal His people during the great tribulation. His people will be protected from suffering the judgments cast upon the ungodly and evil of this world. Many believers will be afflicted and die at the hands of the antichrist, but not a single believer will be touched by the judgment of God. God’s wrath falls only upon unbelievers. This has always been true and it always will be (see notes—Rev.7:2-3; 8:13 for more discussion).

4. The locust-like demons will not kill people, only torment them (v.5). This is critical to note. This fact alone seems to point to the demonic force being some locust-like animal that actually sweeps the earth, an animal that stings people with some poison venom that torments but does not kill its victims. This may seem cruel, but we must always keep in mind what is happening: the ungodly and evil of the last days will launch a holocaust upon the world far beyond anything anyone could have ever imagined. They will literally torment and slaughter millions. Therefore, as God has always said, a man reaps what he sows. Consequently, the ungodly and evil of the end times will be punished with an equal judgment, a torment equal to the torment they have inflicted. (See DEEPER STUDY # 1, Judicial Judgment of God—Jn.12:39-41; note—Ro.1:24.)

Note that the torment is to last five months. The idea is a continuous attack: the locust-like demons are to continuously attack the ungodly for five long months. But even during this awful judgment God shows mercy and is going to give man a chance to repent (cp. v.20-21). As always, most will refuse, but God will still offer His mercy because He loves and longs for man to be saved and to know the glories of heaven and eternal life.

5. The result of the torment upon people will be so agonizing and the pain so excruciating that people will beg for death (v.6). But they will not die. Remember: most people lack the courage to commit suicide. They wish to die, but they do not have the courage to go ahead and take their own lives. The scene of the last days is that people will be so afflicted with torment that they will wish to die, but they cannot. The affliction is not strong enough to kill them, and they are unable to gather up enough courage to kill themselves. Death is out of their reach. They must suffer the torment of God's judgment.

⇒ Jeremiah predicted that men would suffer so much that they would crave death.

“And death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue [rest] of them that remain of this evil family, which remain in all the places whither I have driven them, saith the LORD of hosts” (Jer.8:3).

⇒ Other Scriptures talk about the despair and hopelessness of men in affliction.

“Which long for death, but it cometh not; and dig for it more than for hid treasures” (Job 3:21).

“Then thou scarest me with dreams, and terrifiest me through visions: so that my soul chooseth strangling, and death rather than my life” (Job 7:14-15).

“My soul is weary of my life; I will leave my complaint upon myself; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul” (Job 10:1).

“Thou broughtest us into the net; thou laidst affliction upon our loins” (Ps.66:11).

“For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled” (Ps.90:7).

“For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping, because of thine indignation and thy wrath: for thou hast lifted me up, and cast me down” (Ps.102:9-10).

“The sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness hath surprised the hypocrites. Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings?” (Is.33:14).

5 (9:7-10) Evil Spirits—Judgment: there will be the appearance and power of the locust-like demons. Eight descriptions are given. The point being made is the terrifying appearance and power of the demonic forces of the end time. Man must beware and prepare. He must prepare by receiving Jesus Christ as his Savior so that he may escape the demonic hoard that is to come in the last days.

1. The demonic locusts are like horses prepared for battle: posed and ready to attack. This could also mean that they will be larger than the average size locusts (cp. Joel 2:4).

2. The demonic locusts will have heads that look like they are crowned with gold: this symbolizes that they will have authority to afflict men. They will be as conquerors and be successful in their attacks.

3. The demonic locusts will appear to have the faces of men: this symbolizes the determination and intelligence of men. They will be set like flint in their attacks and have the intelligence to attack and inflict damage with their scorpion like poison.

4. The demonic locusts will have hair like hair of women: beauty to seduce and ensnare, to help them to seem innocent and harmless at first. This may mean long antennae to help them in their attack and escape.

5. The demonic locusts will have teeth as a lion: ferocious, fierce, devouring, and cruel (cp. Joel 1:6).

6. The demonic locusts will have breastplates as of iron: indestructible, protected, and defended. People will be helpless in killing them.

7. The demonic locusts will have wings that sound like many chariots rushing into battle: frightening and overwhelming. There will be a sense of hopelessness in defending against them (cp. Joel 2:4-5).

8. The demonic locusts will have stinging tails like scorpions: demonic torture.

Thought 1. When the end of the world approaches, there will be far more demonic forces at work than ever before. The intensification staggers the human mind. But God loves us and wants us to escape the fangs of the devil and the demonic hordes. Therefore, He warns us about what is coming. We must escape the coming judgments which are to be blasted against the ungodly and evil of the last days. God has made a way for us to escape. What is that way? The Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God Himself. We must receive Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior, casting ourselves totally upon Him.

“How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him” (Heb.2:3).

“For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape” (1 Th.5:3).

“Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered” (Pr.11:21).

“Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them” (Jer.11:11).

“Woe unto you that desire the day of the LORD! to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is darkness, and not light. As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him” (Amos 5:18-19).

6 (9:11) Evil Spirits—Satan—Angels, Fallen: there will be the king of the demonic locusts. Four things are said about him.

1. He is an angel: a creature of enormous beauty and strength.

2. He is the angel of the bottomless pit: a fallen angel. He was once an angel of heaven, a servant of God; but now he is an angel of the underworld, of sin and evil and of all ungodliness and unrighteousness.

3. He is the king, the ruler and governor, over the bottomless pit. Note: there are various levels of authority and power and rule in the spiritual world just as there are in this world. This fallen angel rules over the power of darkness. It is under his command and authority.

4. He has both a Greek and an Hebrew name. His Hebrew name is Abaddon which means destruction, and his Greek name is Apollyon which means destroyer. What better name could there be to describe this ruler of the demonic locusts? No creature and no force leaves behind any more destruction than that of the ferocious locust. Who is this fallen angel? Again, it has to be either Satan himself or one of his commanding angels.

Thought 1. Note a critical fact: the enemy of man is the spiritual force that lies behind this world, a force that the Bible calls Satan. We only deceive ourselves if we do not cast ourselves upon the power and salvation of Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ delivers us from the grip of this evil force and person who leads us into evil and dooms us to death. Jesus Christ, the very Son of God Himself, has defeated Satan in order to deliver us from the grip of Satan and his power of sin and death.

“When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side” (Mt.13:19).

“Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it” (Jn.8:44).

“Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world [Satan] be cast out” (Jn.12:31).

“Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me” (Jn.14:30).

“But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: in whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them” (2 Cor.4:3-4).

“Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air [Satan] the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience” (Eph.2:2).

“For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places” (Eph.6:12).

“And having spoiled [spiritual] principalities and powers [of the devil], he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it” (Col.2:15).

“Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; and deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage” (Heb.2:14-15).

“Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour” (1 Pt.5:8).

“He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil” (1 Jn.3:8).

DIVISION V

THE SEVEN TRUMPET JUDGMENTS: EVENTS DURING THE GREAT TRIBULATION, 8:1-11:19

D. The Blast of the Sixth Trumpet: Demonic-like Military Horsemen, 9:12-21

(9:12-21) Introduction: the trumpet blast of judgment is going to fall upon the earth, upon the ungodly and evil of this world. We have seen this in the first four trumpet blasts that fell upon nature. Horrifying and catastrophic events destroyed one third of the vegetation, water supply, sea life, and the shipping and fishing commerce of the world. Scientists warn us all the time about the possibility of such horrors unless the environment is protected. Such a horrible time is coming. But note: in the first four trumpet judgments, man himself will not be afflicted, not on a massive scale. That is, man's body will not be attacked; his body will not suffer any massive ill effects from the catastrophes. But after the natural disasters the ungodly and evil of the world will be judged. The last three trumpet judgments will be directed against them personally, and millions will be afflicted and destroyed. They are going to reap what they have sown. They have sown terrible ungodliness; therefore, they are to reap the punishment of their evil. And the punishment is to be so severe, it can only be called a prolonged period of woe. The last three trumpet judgments are the woe judgments, the judgments directed against the ungodly and evil of this world. The first woe judgment was seen in the former passage, the blast of a demonic-like plague of locusts. The demonic locusts could only torture men, not kill them. But now the sixth trumpet blasts forth its judgment, and another horde of demons come forth. This time, however, there is a difference. These are military demons, and they shall take their toll upon human life. An astronomical number of the ungodly and evil of the world will die under the judgment of God's righteous hand in this woe judgment. This is the judgment of the demonic military horsemen.

1. More woes lie ahead (v.12).
2. The four fallen angels are set loose (v.13-15).
3. The military horsemen and demonic horses appear (v.16-19).
4. The judgment has a purpose: to lead people to repentance (v.20-21).

1 (9:12) Judgment—Woe: more woes lie ahead. There is to be catastrophic destruction and devastation in the great tribulation that is coming upon the earth. It will be such a terrible time that it can only be described as a period of woe, that is, of extreme grief, distress, suffering, affliction, and calamity. The woe judgments of God are the trumpet judgments that zero in on afflicting the bodies of the ungodly. One woe has already been covered, the demonic-like locusts. Two more woe judgments are yet to fall upon the evil people of the world.

2 (9:13-15) Angels, Fallen—Judgment: there are the four fallen angels set loose. Three facts are given about their being loosed.

1. They are set loose by a command coming from the golden altar. This is the altar of incense where the prayers of God's people are kept (cp. Rev. 6:9-10; 8:3-4). This symbolizes a significant fact: God launches this judgment especially to vindicate the millions who will be slaughtered in the holocaust of the antichrist. God is going to be perfectly just. He is going to execute perfect justice against the antichrist and his followers who have slaughtered millions. They too shall be slain by the judgment of God. The very prayers of the golden altar cry out for the name of God to be vindicated against those who laughed, mocked, rejected, denied, disbelieved, disobeyed, and cursed God. God is going to hear these prayers.

2. The four released angels are bound at the great river Euphrates. Note the definite article used: the. The four fallen angels are four specific angels. As will be seen in a few moments, they will be four angels of high military rank.

Why would the angels come from the Euphrates? Scripture does not say, but two reasons seem likely.

⇒ The head or spring of the Euphrates river flowed out of the garden of Eden. It was there, of course, where Satan first tempted and overthrew man. The first sin that resulted in the fallen human race took place at the head of the Euphrates river. It was also there that the first murder took place and it was in the region of the Euphrates that the first organized rebellion against God took place. (All this is pointed out by the excellent Bible expositor, Lehman Strauss. The Book of the Revelation, p.194).

⇒ The Euphrates was the western boundary of the promised land that God promised to Abraham.

Therefore, beyond the Euphrates can be looked upon as the outer reaches of the earth, as the place where the spiritual enemies of man are kept. As William Barclay says:

"The angels, therefore, come from the distant lands, from the strange and alien and hostile places, from these very parts of the world from which the Assyrians and the Babylonians had in time past descended with destruction upon Israel. So, then, the angels come from the quarter from which disaster had in ancient times come upon God's people Israel....The four angels are Angels of Punishment; they come from the part of the world from which death and disaster and slavery had so often come" (The Revelation of John, Vol.2, p.64).

3. The four fallen angels were loosed and they prepared to execute a judgment upon the earth: the judgment of slaying one third of the ungodly and evil population of the world. Remember why: because the billions upon earth will follow and give their total allegiance and support to the antichrist and the policies of his government. One of the major policies will be the holocaust launched against the believers of the world. Literally millions will be slaughtered. Simply stated, God will not be able to take the diabolical evil of ungodly people any more. He will allow His justice to finally be executed and demonstrated: the diabolical, the ungodly and evil, shall reap the slaughter they have inflicted upon others.

4. Note one other fact: God has already set the time for this judgment. There is an exact year, month, day, and even hour that this judgment is to fall upon the ungodly and evil. The hour is already fixed.

3 (9:16-19) Judgment—Angels, Fallen: there are the military horsemen and their demonic horses. Five things are said about this demonic horde.

1. There will be an army of two hundred million. Imagine an army of two hundred million demonic spirits let loose upon the earth. This will be the army that the four fallen angels will command, an army such as the world has never seen before.

2. The riders will have breastplates. The breastplates are "fiery red and sapphire blue and sulphur (brimstone) yellow" (The Amplified New Testament). The breastplate symbolizes that they will be indestructible, protected and defended as they go to war against the ungodly of the world. Man will not be able to stop them.

3. The horses will be horrible and add terror upon terror on the ungodly.

⇒ They will have heads like lions: ferocious, fierce, devouring, cruel, and consuming.

⇒ They will have mouths that spit out fire: a hellish and fiery nature; a vengeful, angry, and wrathful nature (cp. Rev.14:10; 19:20; 21:8).

⇒ They will kill one third of the ungodly and evil upon earth. How? By the plague of fire, smoke, and brimstone. (Note: the weapons used by this demonic army are not given. But observe how fire, smoke, and brimstone sounds like an atomic explosion. We must, however, keep in mind that this slaughter is being masterminded by evil spirits and demonic forces—all being executed under God's will as a judgment upon the ungodly and evil of the world.)

⇒ Their power is in their mouths, heads, and tails. The head symbolizes intelligence; the mouth symbolizes deceptive speech and a hunger to consume and to destroy; and the serpent-like tails symbolize poisonous strikes and deadly wounds.

Thought 1. The picture of the great tribulation is a picture of horror heaped upon horror. It is a frightful and fearful scene. But note: with what we know about the possibility of atomic destruction, environmental devastation, and the possibility of some monstrous gene mutation—the judgments of God's book can no longer be doubted. Not if God is really God, and not if He is truly just, and not if some diabolical leader arises (as they have in the past) who launches a holocaust against God's people. God is bound to execute justice if some demon of a person slaughters millions and millions of His people, and if the whole world gives its support. It is this that will cause the antichrist to differ from all former world leaders who have killed millions. They had only limited support. But in the last days, the antichrist will have the support of most of the ungodly and evil people of the earth.

4 (9:20-21) Judgment: there is the purpose for the judgment—repentance. Two significant points are now made.

1. The ungodly and evil survivors of the earth still do not repent and turn to God. Two thirds of the population will survive, not because they deserve to survive but because God is merciful. God is always merciful even in the midst of judgment. He will give the ungodly of the earth another chance to repent, speaking to them through the judgments, but they will not repent.

Thought 1. Lehman Strauss makes an excellent point about this fact:

“God has never delighted in the death of the wicked. In the midst of His visitations of severest judgments, He delights to be gracious to the guilty. But alas, the death of one billion people in the earth, with the accompanying grief and the confusion which must follow such a disaster, finds the residue of people not willing to repent. Such is the human heart, deceitful above all things and desperately wicked. After two world wars, and one hundred lesser wars in the past fifty years, the world is more wicked than ever. Instead of repentance, sin increases” (The Book of the Revelation, p.196).

2. There will be several gross sins for which the ungodly need to repent. And remember: there will be an enormous increase and intensification of the evils in the end time.

a. There will be an increase in the worship of evil spirits and the worship of idols. Actually, the devils are said to be behind the worship of idols. Just think about how much worship of evil spirits and idols is going on today. How much is going on in the cities of the world at any given moment? Scripture actually declares that the worship of all gods except the Son of God, the Lord Jesus Christ, is the worship of an evil spirit or idol. In fact, Scripture even declares that covetousness is idolatry. Why? Because a person has set his heart on something other than God Himself, and man owes his first allegiance to God.

Note that no idol can see, hear, or walk; and how true this is. They cannot answer a single prayer, give a single ounce of strength, lift a single finger to help, save a single hair, extend life a single minute, carry a person one single inch toward heaven. They cannot arouse one single moment of acceptance out of God nor give one moment of eternal life to a person. An idol is lifeless. It can do nothing for man. But note: the evil spirits behind the idols can damage and destroy a person’s soul forever. It will be this that will cause so much idolatry and worship of evil spirits in the last days. The antichrist will demand the worship of the state. There will apparently be laws passed demanding that a person give his first loyalty to the state, much as we see in some nations today and have seen in past history. The worship of the state, of course, aids a government in keeping control of its people. This is the worst kind of idolatry, for a person has to submit to the state or else he is usually imprisoned and executed. In the government of the antichrist, people will be executed for not giving their first loyalty to the state.

God hates idolatry and demands in no uncertain terms that man turn away from his idolatry and from the worship of evil spirits.

“But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils” (1 Cor.10:20).

“Little children, keep yourselves from idols” (1 Jn.5:21).

“And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk” (Rev.9:20).

“Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth” (Ex.20:4).

“Ye shall make you no idols nor graven image, neither rear you up a standing image, neither shall ye set up any image of stone in your land, to bow down unto it: for I am the LORD your God” (Lev.26:1).

“The graven images of their gods shall ye burn with fire: thou shalt not desire the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it unto thee, lest thou be snared therein: for it is an abomination to the LORD thy God” (Dt.7:25).

“Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them” (Dt.11:16).

“I am the LORD: that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images” (Is.42:8).

“And they shall no more offer their sacrifices unto devils, after whom they have gone a whoring. This shall be a statute for ever unto them throughout their generation” (Lev.17:7).

“They provoked him to jealousy with strange gods, with abominations provoked they him to anger. They sacrificed unto devils, not to God; to gods whom they knew not, to new gods that came newly up, whom your fathers feared not” (Dt.32:16-17).

“And they served their idols: which were a snare unto them. Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils, and shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood. Thus were they defiled with their own works, and went a whoring with their own inventions [imagination]” (Ps.106:36-39).

b. There will be an increase in the sin of murder. Remember all the martyrs John saw in heaven, the numberless multitude of believers slaughtered by the antichrist and his government and followers. The martyrs were so many that “no man could number [them]” (Rev.7:9). Believers will be slaughtered all over the world—from all nations and tribes and languages and people. Just think of the holocaust that will take place—not even a single tribe of the earth, not where a believer exists, escapes the attempt of the antichrist and the world to stamp out the followers of the Lord Jesus Christ. The antichrist will have his followers all over the world and they will support his murderous moves against the believers of the Lord Jesus Christ.

“And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another” (Mt.24:10).

⇒ Note: this is undoubtedly the difference between the holocaust of the past and the holocaust of the antichrist. In the past the diabolical leaders like Hitler and Stalin had only a number of people who supported their murderous genocide; the antichrist will have world-wide support. The fact that it is world-wide and that it is launched against all the followers of God’s Son will trigger God’s decision to go ahead and move in His final judgment.

The point is this: murder will be one of the great sins of the antichrist and his followers. It is a sin for which the ungodly and evil must repent or face the terrible judgments of the end time and of eternity.

“Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be danger of the judgment: but I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire” (Mt.5:21-22).

“He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said, Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness” (Mt.19:18).

“But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men’s matters” (1 Pt.4:15).

“Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him” (1 Jn.3:15).

“Thou shalt not kill” (Ex.20:13).

- c. There will be an increase in the sin of sorcery (pharmakon). Note that the Greek word is close to the spelling of the English word pharmacy, that is, a place that handles drugs. Sorcery includes all kinds of witchcraft, the use of drugs or of evil spirits to gain control over the lives of others or over one’s own life. In the present context it would include all forms of sorcery including astrology, palm reading, seances, fortune telling, crystals, and other forms of witchcraft.

“So Saul died for his transgression which he committed against the LORD, even against the word of the LORD, which he kept not, and also for asking counsel of one that had a familiar spirit, to inquire of it” (1 Chron.10:13).

“And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? for the living to the dead? To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them” (Is.8:19-20).

“And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thine hand; and thou shalt have no more soothsayers” (Mic.5:12).

“Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies” (Gal.5:20).

- d. There will be an increase in immorality (porneias): a broad word including all forms of immoral and sexual acts. It is pre-marital sex and adultery; it is abnormal sex, all kinds of sexual vice.

“Flee fornication. Every sin that man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body” (1 Cor.6:18).

“But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints” (Eph.5:3).

“Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry” (Col.3:5).

- e. There will be an increase in thefts (klemmaton): to cheat and steal; to take wrongfully from another person, either legally or illegally.

“Thou shalt not steal” (Ex.20:15).

“Ye shall not steal, neither deal falsely, neither lie one to another” (Lev.19:11).

“Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth” (Eph.4:28).

“Not purloining [stealing], but showing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things” (Tit.2:10).

THE SEVEN TRUMPET JUDGMENTS: EVENTS DURING THE GREAT TRIBULATION, 8:1-11:19

E. The Great Announcement of the Final Triumph Over Evil (Part I): The Little Book, 10:1-11

(10:1-11) Introduction: six trumpet judgments have been blasted across the face of the earth. The earth has been hit with...

- industry and shipping commerce.
- a meteoric mass that contaminated one third of the water supply.
- an astronomical eclipse that temporarily wiped out one third of the daylight.
- a demonic-like locust attack that caused unbearable torture upon the ungodly of the earth.
- a second demonic-like military attack that killed one third of the ungodly and evil of the earth.

It is now time for the seventh trumpet judgment to blast forth. But before it does, so much horror and destruction has hit the earth that the human heart cries out, "Is there no hope? Is the earth doomed? Is it to be a dead planet? Is it to be nothing more than a ball of molten lava floating through space like so many other dead planets and stars? Is all life to be destroyed? Is this the pessimistic and hopeless future of the earth?" No! A thousand no's! All the destruction and devastation will take place upon earth, but there is to be a final triumph over evil and destruction. This is the great announcement of this passage. God's eternal plan for salvation and for a new heavens and earth will be consummated.

⇒ All the prophets of doomsday are wrong. God is going to save all who will give their lives to Him, and He is going to make a new heavens and earth that will be perfect and last forever and ever.

⇒ All the prophets of humanism (man is his own god) are wrong. The earth is going to suffer convulsive and catastrophic horrors. The earth and its time are running down, and man himself cannot stop the process.

But this is the glorious message of these next four passages (chapters ten and eleven). God is going to conquer evil. This is the great announcement of the final triumph over evil.

1. The mighty messenger of the great announcement (v.1-4).
2. The declaration and oath of the great announcement (v.5-7).
3. The bitter and sweet taste of the great announcement (v.8-11).

1 (10:1-4) Angel—Salvation—Jesus Christ: first, there is the mighty angel or messenger of the great announcement. This angel was apparently the mightiest of God’s messengers. Remember: the word angel means messenger. Note how mighty he is.

- ⇒ The messenger came down from heaven. He came from the very presence and throne of God Himself, from the most exalted place. This tells us that he is the very highest of beings. The great announcement he was about to make was the announcement straight from the throne of God itself.
- ⇒ The messenger was clothed with a cloud: this symbolizes a majestic, glorious, and heavenly appearance. Just as the heavens are clothed with the majesty and glory of clouds, so this angel was clothed. He was clothed in the cloud of the majesty and glory of heaven. The great announcement he was about to make was coming from the majesty and glory of heaven.
- ⇒ The messenger had a rainbow upon his head: this symbolizes the glory and mercy of God. This is seen in that a rainbow is part of the glory of the throne of God (Ezk.1:28), and it was the sign of God’s mercy shown to Noah (Gen.9:12-13). Therefore, the glory of God and the mercy of God are seen in this angel. The great announcement he was about to make was to be a message of glory and mercy.
- ⇒ The messenger had a face that shone as the sun. This symbolizes the light, lustre, brightness, brilliance, and splendor of the messenger. The great announcement of the messenger was to be the message of enormous light, lustre, and splendor.
- ⇒ The messenger had feet like pillars of fire. This symbolizes the holiness, purity, righteousness, and strength of the messenger. The great announcement of the messenger was to be the strong pillar of God’s holiness, purity, and righteousness to earth.
- ⇒ The messenger held a little book open. What is the book? Verse eleven says that it is the message that must be proclaimed to the world. What is that message? The Word of God, the Holy Scriptures, both the love and grace and the judgment and woe of God. The great announcement of the messenger was to be the message of God’s Word, in particular the message of Revelation.
- ⇒ The messenger set his feet upon the sea and the earth. This symbolizes the gigantic size, strength, and power of the messenger. He was claiming both sea and land, the whole world for God. The great announcement of the messenger was a message that was to involve the whole universe.
- ⇒ The messenger had a voice that roared like a lion. This symbolizes the voice of God, the very voice of the lion of Judah, Christ Himself (Rev.5:5; Joel 3:16; Hos.11:10). The great announcement was to be the very message of God Himself.
- ⇒ The messenger called forth seven thundering voices. The number seven symbolizes completeness, fulfillment and finality. Thunder symbolizes the power and strength of God’s voice. The great announcement of the messenger will be the message of completeness and fulfillment and of finality. And the seven thunders of God’s voice have the power to complete and fulfill and finalize all things.
- ⇒ But note: a voice from heaven stops John from revealing the message of the seven thunders. The voice tells John to seal up whatever it was that the seven thunders said.

The point is this: a great announcement is to be made to the earth, an announcement so great that the mightiest of messengers is sent from heaven to deliver it. The very might of this messenger shows that the great announcement must be heard by all. The awesome importance of the great announcement is clearly seen by glancing at what the mighty messenger shows us. He shows us that the great announcement...

- comes straight from the throne of God itself.
- comes straight from the majesty and glory of heaven.
- is a message of glory and mercy.
- is a message of enormous light, lustre, and splendor.
- is to be the strong pillar of God’s holiness, purity, and righteousness upon earth.
- is to be the message of God’s Word.
- is to be a message that involves the whole universe.
- is to be the message of God Himself.
- is to be the completion, fulfillment, and finalization of all things.

Thought 1. Who is this mighty angel or messenger? Some commentators say that it is Christ Himself. Others say that it is one of the mightiest of angels in heaven. The description given can easily fit Christ or one of the mighty angels, and the meaning of the passage is not changed by holding to either position. However, note this: the messenger calls the two witnesses of chapter eleven, “my two witnesses” (Rev.11:3). This points toward the angel being Christ Himself.

2 (10:5-7) Salvation—Majesty of God—Redemption: second, there is the declaration and oath of the great announcement. Note how spectacular this moment is, yet how meaningful. The mighty angel, so huge in size and majestic in being that he straddles the whole earth with one foot upon the sea and one foot upon the earth, lifts up his hand toward heaven and wraps the great announcement in the most solemn of oaths. He swears by God Himself:

- ⇒ “By Him who lives forever and ever.”
- ⇒ “Who created heaven and the things therein.”
- ⇒ “Who created the earth and the things therein.”
- ⇒ “Who created the sea and the things therein.”

Once the solemn oath has been taken, then the great announcement is made. What is it? That time shall be no more. The delay of the end will be no more. The consummation of all things is at hand. When? When all the catastrophes have happened—all the horror that Revelation covers up to this point—when they have all happened—then the voice and trumpet of the seventh angel will blast forth and the very last events of human history will take place. God is going to confront the ungodly and the evil of the world for the last time, and He is going to destroy them and establish righteousness in the earth forever and ever.

Note what the angel declares: this climax of human history is the mystery of God, the very same mystery and message that has been declared by the prophets. The ungodly and evil of the world should have accepted the message of the prophets, but they chose to go their own way. They committed all kinds of evil and violent deeds upon earth. Therefore, after the first six trumpet judgments take place upon earth, God is going to launch the last events of human history:

- ⇒ The antichrist, the great world leader who brought peace and so much hope to the world while the world was suffering so much catastrophe, is going to turn against the world.
- ⇒ The Lord God, the Lord Jesus Christ Himself, is going to launch His last judgment upon the earth and destroy both the antichrist and his followers—all the ungodly and evil upon earth.
- ⇒ The Lord Jesus Christ is going to establish His kingdom and righteousness upon earth and reign for one thousand years.
- ⇒ The Lord Jesus Christ is going to create a new heavens and earth that will last forever and ever.

The seventh trumpet is going to bring forth the last events of human history. Time will soon be no more, not like man has known it, not after the events of the seventh trumpet. When the events of the seventh trumpet have taken place, then the mystery of God will be finalized. The glorious salvation and redemption of the whole universe will then take place. This is the great announcement. There is hope for the world. We can be optimistic and look forward to the most glorious salvation imaginable. God is going to save all who will let Him; and in addition, He is going to create a new heavens and a new earth that will last forever and ever.

“For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God. For the creature [creation] was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope. Because the creature [creation] itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now” (Ro.8:18-22).

“These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. For they that say such things declare plainly that they seek a country. And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned. But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city” (Heb.11:13-16).

“But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation [behavior] and godliness, looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat? Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness” (2 Pt.3:10-13).

“And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful” (Rev.21:1-5).

“For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind” (Is.65:17).

“For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain” (Is.66:22).

3 (10:8-11) Book of Revelation, Little: third, there is the bitter and sweet taste of the great announcement. Note three significant points.

1. John is commanded by the voice of heaven to go over and take the little book from the mighty angel.

Thought 1. There are two lessons for us in this.

- 1) The Word of God is never just handed to us; it is never forced upon us. If we are to receive its message, we have to go over to the book shelf, table, or drawer and take it and study it.
- 2) God commands us to go over and take the Word of God and study its messages.

“These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so” (Acts 17:11).

“And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified” (Acts 20:32).

“Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth” (2 Tim.2:15).

“All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness” (2 Tim.3:16).

“As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby: if so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious” (1 Pt.2:2-3).

2. John is commanded to take and eat and consume the little book. This he does, and when he does, the message of the book is both sweet and bitter. What does this mean? It means that the Word of God contains...

- both sin and forgiveness
- both death and life
- both judgment and salvation
- both damnation and deliverance
- both heaviness and joy
- both hell and heaven
- both bondage and freedom
- both destruction and a new world
- both corruption and perfection

When John saw the truth of the world, its evil and corruption and the coming judgment upon it, he tasted the bitterness of God’s Word. When he saw the righteousness and perfection and the salvation that is coming to the world, he tasted the sweetness of God’s Word.

⇒ Ezekiel had a similar experience.

“And when I looked, behold, a hand was sent unto me; and, lo, a roll of a book was therein; and he spread it before me; and it was written within and without: and there was written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe. Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, eat that thou findest; eat this roll, and go speak unto the house of Israel. So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that roll. And he said unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I eat it; and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness. And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them” (Ezk.2:9-3:4).

⇒ The people of Isaiah’s days did not want to hear the truth of their evil.

“Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a book that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever: that this is a rebellious people, lying children, children that will not hear the law of the LORD: which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophecy not unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophecy deceits: get you out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us” (Is.30:8-11).

⇒ Pleasant words are sweet, but if they are false their end leads to death.

“Pleasant words are as a honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones. There is a way that seemeth right unto a man; but the end thereof are the ways of death” (Pr.16:24-25).

3. John is recommissioned: he is to proclaim the Word of God to the whole world. He is to proclaim the bitter as well as the sweet, the judgments that are coming as well as the salvation that is coming. The final days of human history are coming, are about to begin—the days of the seventh trumpet. The days are to include some judgments beyond anything ever experienced before: these judgments and the glorious promise of a new world are both to be proclaimed by John. He is to hold nothing back. He is to proclaim the full message of God’s book, His Holy Word.

Thought 1. Every minister and teacher of God’s Word is called to proclaim both the sweet and bitter of God’s Word, both the grace and judgment of God. And the minister and teacher is to be faithful to his call: he is to proclaim the judgment of God as well as the grace of God. He must hold nothing back. The truth must be proclaimed, for the eternal fate of people is at stake.

“Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life” (Acts 5:20).

“These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee” (Tit.2:15).

“But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak” (Jer.1:7).

“Thou therefore gird up thy loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee: be not dismayed at their faces, lest I confound thee before them” (Jer.1:17).

“And thou shalt speak my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear: for they are most rebellious” (Ezk.2:7).

“Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me” (Ezk.3:17).

CHAPTER 11
F. The Final Triumph Over Evil (Part II): The Great Destruction of Israel & Jerusalem, 11:1-2
1 The great destruction of Israel: Her temple, worship, & people	And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.
2 The great destruction of Jerusalem & the Jews for three & one half years	2 But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months.

DIVISION V

THE SEVEN TRUMPET JUDGMENTS: EVENTS DURING THE GREAT TRIBULATION, 8:1-11:19

F. The Final Triumph Over Evil (Part II): The Great Destruction of Israel and Jerusalem, 11:1-2

(11:1-2) Introduction: this is one of the most important and one of the most exciting chapters in Revelation. There are at least five reasons why this is true (note: it is part of the message of the little book that John is to declare):

- ⇒ It points to the rebuilding and destruction of the temple in Jerusalem.
- ⇒ It shows the destruction of Jerusalem by the Gentiles.
- ⇒ It ties in with the prophecies of our Lord and of Scripture about the end time and the antichrist.
- ⇒ It covers the great salvation of Israel and the coming kingdom of God. It gives a glimpse as to how Israel will be saved and how God will conquer the evil, corruptions, and kingdoms of this world and set up His own kingdom
- ⇒ It is a summary, an overview of the rest of the book. It foreshadows and pictures the things that are yet to come in the book of Revelation.

The great Greek scholar A.T. Robertson says that no matter how a person interprets this passage, there are three clear points: “the chastisement of Jerusalem or Israel (verses 1 and 2), the mission of the two witnesses (verses 3-12), the rescue of the remnant (verse 13)” (Word Pictures In The New Testament, Vol.6, p.376). The remnant, of course, refers to Jews who truly believe that Jesus Christ is the Messiah.

The subject of this whole chapter, Chapter eleven, could be The Great Salvation of Israel and the Coming Kingdom of God. The first part, this particular Scripture and outline, is The Great Destruction of Israel. (Cp. Ezk.40:3, 6; Zech.2:1; Amos 7:7-9.)

1. The great destruction of Israel: her temple, worship, and people (v.1).
2. The great destruction of Jerusalem and the Jews for three and one half years (v.2).

1 (11:1) Israel—Temple—Gentiles: there is the great judgment of Israel, of her temple, worship [altar], people, and city. John is instructed to take a rod and measure the temple, its altar and the people who worship there. The words rod and measure are used in the Bible in two ways.

- ⇒ The rod can be used to measure a building for construction or for restoration, or it can be used to measure a place for preservation or protection (cp. Zech.2:1-5).

This is a possible meaning here. God could be saying that He wants the true worshippers of Israel preserved and protected while the antichrist and Gentile nations trod Jerusalem underfoot (v.2). He could be saying that He wants a remnant of Jewish believers saved, protected, and preserved during the great tribulation (cp. Romans chapters 9-11).

- ⇒ The word rod can mean to measure a place for destruction and punishment or correction and chastening (2 Sam.7:14; 8:2; 2 Kings 21:13; Ps.2:9; Is.34:11; Lam.2:8).

This too is a possible meaning here. God could be saying that He wants the temple and the Jewish people measured for judgment and correction; that in the last days they must be judged along with everyone else because of their unbelief, denial, rejection, and blasphemy against God’s Son, the Lord Jesus Christ.

Which of the two meanings is meant here? Before an answer is given, several facts need to be considered.

1. Scripture says that the antichrist is to actually walk into the temple and demand that the world give their first loyalty to him and the state.

- ⇒ Jesus Christ Himself said that the antichrist would actually stand in the holy place of the Jews (their temple) and make this proclamation. (Remember Jerusalem is looked upon by several major world religions as being one of the religious centers of the world [religions such as Judaism, Islam, and Christianity]). No better place could be chosen to launch the worship of the state, especially when an attempt will be made to wipe out all Christian believers.)

“When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation [the antichrist], spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand)” (Mt.24:15. See notes, Antichrist—Mt.24:15 for more discussion. Cp. Dan.9:24-27; 11:31; 2:11.)

⇒ Second Thessalonians says that the antichrist will sit in the temple of God declaring that he is god, that is, that he and the state can meet the needs of man and bring utopia to the world.

“Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as god sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God” (2 Th.2:3-4).

These Scriptures clearly say that the antichrist is going to appear in the temple, even in the very holy place of the temple. This means that the Jews must rebuild the temple in Jerusalem before this event can ever happen. The temple was destroyed in 70 A.D.

2. There are five temples mentioned in Scripture that need to be noted at this point.

- ⇒ Solomon’s temple (1 Ki.7:1f): destroyed by Nebuchadnezzar in 587 B.C.
- ⇒ Zerubbabel’s temple (Ezra 3:12): he rebuilt the temple after the Babylonian captivity, but it was desecrated and dedicated to the god of Jupiter by Antiochus Epiphanes in 168-170 B.C.
- ⇒ Herod’s temple (Jn.2:20): this was the temple that existed in the days of our Lord and was so well known to Him. It was destroyed by Titus in 70 A.D.
- ⇒ There are two future temples yet to be built.
- ⇒ The temple of the tribulation, the one to be rebuilt during the first three and one half years of the antichrist (2 Th.2:4; Rev.11:2).
- ⇒ The temple of the millenium, the temple of our Lord (Acts 15:16; Ezk. chapters 40-43).

3. Now, note what John is told to do. He is instructed to take the rod and measure the temple, the altar, and the worshippers. If we say that God means for him to mark the Jews in order to preserve and save them, then this means one of two things.

- ⇒ That the temple and its worshippers will be saved and preserved and not destroyed by the antichrist. In light of the above passages and the attacks of the antichrist against all that is called God, this is difficult to see (cp. 2 Th.2:4).
- ⇒ That this is a symbolic passage; that there will not necessarily be a true temple rebuilt; that what God means is to mark the true Jewish worshippers for protection and for preservation. There is a serious problem with this position. It is very difficult to say that the temple, the altar, and the people are not real things, but rather symbols. This is especially true when Jerusalem is so strongly pointed to as a real place, the place “where...our Lord was crucified” (v.8).

For these reasons and others that would just take too long to go into at this point, it seems best to see God telling John to measure the temple for judgment and correction. The Jews are just as guilty as the Gentiles in rejecting God’s Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. They are just as guilty as most others in rebelling against the Lord...

| • disbelieving Him | • disobeying Him |
| • cursing Him | • ignoring Him |
| • neglecting Him | • blaspheming Him |

Therefore, God has to judge them just as He has to judge all the ungodly and evil of this world. God has no favorites and shows no partiality. All the ungodly and evil are to be judged in the last days including the ungodly and evil of the Jews. Therefore, the Jews with their temple and their city will be trodden underfoot by the antichrist just as so many others will be.

Thought 1. Any person who does not approach God through the Lord Jesus Christ is worshipping a false god. There is only one true and living God and that is the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. A worshipper may be a Jew or a Gentile—it does not matter—he must worship God through the Lord Jesus Christ or else his worship is false. This is the reason God marks the Jewish temple and worship for destruction. He is judging and condemning false worship. Once the temple is destroyed in the end time—very, very soon—the self-righteous spirit of the Jews will be broken and they will turn to the Lord Jesus Christ and many thousands will be saved. But until they do, the unbelieving Jews are marked for judgment just as all other unbelievers are.

“Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven” (Mt.7:21).

“This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men” (Mt.15:8-9).

“He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me” (Mk.7:6).

“For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus” (1 Tim.2:5).

“They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate” (Tit.1:16).

“But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises” (Heb.8:6).

“For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us” (Heb.9:24).

“And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance” (Heb.9:15).

“And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel” (Heb.12:24).

“My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous” (1 Jn.2:1).

2 (11:2) Israel—Temple—Gentile Court—Jerusalem—Gentiles: there is the trampling underfoot or destruction of Jerusalem and the Jews for three and one half years. Note several points.

1. The court of the Gentiles and the city of Jerusalem are not measured or made for judgment. The court of the Gentiles was the outside courtyard of the temple. The temple was divided into four courts, all surrounding a center building or shrine called the Most Holy Place or Holy of Holies. The courts moving out away from the Holy Place were...

- the court of the priests (where the altar of the burnt offering stood).
- the court of Israel or of Jewish men.
- the court of the women.

These were the inner courts, the temple proper, the worship center for Jews only. No Gentile was ever allowed within these court barriers. Surrounding these courts for Jewish worshippers was a huge outer court, the court of the Gentiles. This was the only court the proselytes and interested persons were allowed to enter.

Why would the Gentile court and the city of Jerusalem not be measured for judgment? Because they will already be under the antichrist and his government. The government of Israel and the other governments of the world will have already submitted to the rule of the antichrist. There will already be a one world government. But this will not be the case with true Jewish worshippers, nor with true Christian believers, nor some other strong worshippers of other religions. The antichrist will have a problem securing the loyalty of people all around the world who have strong faith. Strong Jewish worshippers will do what they have always done: refuse to buckle under to any Gentile ruler. This passage, verses one and two, is a prophecy: the temple will be destroyed and Jewish worshippers will be persecuted. The antichrist is going to attack them with a vengeance never before seen in the history of the world. Of course, as has already been seen, he is also going to attack Christian believers (Rev.7:9f) and all other persons of strong faith (2 Th.2:4. Cp. Rev.13:1-18; Mt.24:15; Dan.11:40-45; 12:7.)

2. Forty two months (three and one half years) is the set time that the antichrist and his terrible persecutions will be unleashed upon the world.

- ⇒ This will be the time that the holy city will be oppressed: forty-two months (Rev.11:2).
- ⇒ This will be the time that the two witnesses will bear testimony to Israel and to the world: a thousand two hundred and sixty days (Rev.11:3).
- ⇒ This will be the time that the woman in the wilderness will be preserved: a thousand two hundred and sixty-days (Rev.12:6, 14).
- ⇒ This will be the time that the beast will be allowed to blaspheme God: forty two months (Rev.13:5).

3. Scripture teaches that the antichrist will rule for a seven year period. Both Christ and Daniel say this. Christ says that the abomination of desolation (the antichrist) will launch the worst tribulation the world has ever known (Mt. 24:15, 21). In His own words, the signs that occur up until the abomination of desolation are called “the beginning of sorrows” (Mt. 24:8); and the trials after the abomination of desolation takes place are called “great tribulation,” tribulations so great that they are unparalleled in history (Mt.24:21). Daniel also gives a division of time just as Christ does.

“And he [the prince] shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause...the overspreading of abominations” (Dan.9:27).

“In the midst of the week” (Daniel’s seventieth week) definitely points to a period of time (one week) that is divided into two parts. Now note these factors.

- a. Daniel was dealing with the “seventieth week,” the end of his seventy week prophecy. Two facts tell us that Daniel was also dealing with the end time just as Christ was: (1) the fact that Christ was dealing with the end of Jerusalem and the end of the world and, (2) the fact that Christ said He was elaborating on Daniel’s prophecy.
- b. Daniel said that what begins the second half of his seventieth week is “the abomination of desolation” or the prince who causes “abominable idols” (H.C. Leupold. Exposition of Daniel. Grand Rapids, MI: Baker, 1969, p.434).

The words of Christ should be carefully noted: "When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet..." (Mt.24:15). Christ was about to elaborate and explain in more detail what Daniel prophesied. Thus Christ explained that the first half of Daniel's week would consist of signs which were "the beginning of sorrows" (Mt.24:8; cp. Mt.24:5-14), and the last half of Daniel's week would consist of unparalleled trials of "great tribulation." The second half of the week would be launched by "the abomination of desolation standing in the holy place" (Mt. 24:15, 21).

Another matter that needs to be looked at is the time frame of the end time (the seventieth week) as predicted by Christ and Daniel.

Scripture refers to the length in these words (see notes—Rev.11:2; 12:6).

"Time, times, and half a time" (Dan.7:25; 12:7).

"1260 days" (Rev.12:6).

"42 months" (Rev.11:2; 13:5-6).

Based upon the days and months given in the Book of Revelation, if Daniel's time equals one year, then his words, "Time [1 year], times [2 years], and half a time [1/2 year]" are equal to 3 1/2 years. Daniel stated that the abomination of desolation shall be executed "in the midst of the week," that is, after three and one half years. It is assumed that Christ's words "the beginning of sorrows" (that is, the first half of the week) are also three and one half years. Thus in combining the two periods of time (3 1/2 years each), the length of the last days or end time is said to be a literal seven years. Based upon the words of Revelation the prophecy of Christ can be charted as follows.

THE END OF THE WORLD

Seeing the Sign of the Abomination of Desolation
In the Middle of the Time or Years
(Mt.24:15)

3 1/2 years
Signs which are
"The beginning of sorrows" (Mt.24:8)

3 1/2 years
Unparalleled trials of
"the great tribulation"
(Mt.24:21)

Seeing the Son of Man Coming
(Mt.24:29-30)

"His angels...gather together His elect"
(Mt.24:31)

4. In summary, all this points to a period of three and one half years of great satanic power in the world. Particular emphasis is laid upon the final days of the antichrist, a period known as the great tribulation. It is in the last three and one half years of his rule that the antichrist will launch the worst tribulation the world has ever known. In the present passage he will trample underfoot the Jewish people and create a holocaust such as the world has never seen. (See outline and DEEPER STUDY # 1—Mt.24:15 for more discussion.)

Thought 1. God judges sin and unbelief. He always judges the ungodly and evil, even if they are religious and declare that they are righteous. This is what God is doing in the end time: judging the idolaters, sorcerers, murderers, immoral, and thieves of the world. This is the reason God is going to judge Israel in the end time. They are as guilty as all other people of the world. But note: there is a limit to the judgment. It will last only three and one half years. God will stop the judgment and have mercy upon all those who will turn to Him for mercy.

"O LORD, I have heard thy speech, and was afraid: O LORD, revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy" (Hab.3:2).

Thought 2. It will be seen in the next passage that God uses the suffering of the Jewish people to ripen them for the gospel and the glorification of His name. This persecution is but the first step to prepare them for the coming salvation.

Thought 3. Note the words "the Gentiles" (v.2). This refers to what is called the "times of the Gentiles." In order to have a complete picture, note these facts.

- 1) The "times of the Gentiles" was launched with the Babylonians under Nebuchadnezzar (2 Chron.36:1-31).
- 2) The "times of the Gentiles" will end at the climax of human history when Jesus Christ returns in great glory and power and destroys the antichrist and his government and followers (Rev.19:11-21; Lk.21:24).

DIVISION V

THE SEVEN TRUMPET JUDGMENTS: EVENTS DURING THE GREAT TRIBULATION, 8:1-11:19

G. The Final Triumph Over Evil (Part III): The Two Witnesses—How Israel Turns to God, 11:3-13

(11:3-13) Introduction: what we have just seen in Revelation is horrifying. The terrible prophecy about the antichrist is going to take place.

- ⇒ The prophecy by our Lord: “the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, [shall] stand in the holy place” (Mt.24:15).
- ⇒ The prophecy predicted by Paul: “[The antichrist] who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God” (2 Th.2:4).

The antichrist will turn against all who call upon God and who refuse to bow down before the state and give the state their first allegiance. The antichrist will destroy Jerusalem and the temple, and will launch the worst holocaust the world has ever seen. As has been seen in previous passages, the holocaust will be launched against all true believers and followers of the Lord Jesus Christ. It will also be launched against the followers of other religions who have strong faith including the Jews, Moslems, Hindus, and others. Millions upon millions, a numberless number, will be slaughtered (Rev.7:9-17). But it will also be launched against the Jews and Israel as a nation. The antichrist will utterly destroy Jerusalem and its temple. He will hotly pursue the Jews and attempt to trample the Jewish people underfoot (Rev.11:1-2).

But note: this present passage shows us a most wonderful thing. God will not forsake the Jew. Despite the Jews' unbelief and rebellion against God's Son as the Messiah—despite their denial of the Lord Jesus Christ—God still loves the Jew. He loves them...

- for Abraham's sake
- for Jacob's sake
- for David's sake
- for Paul's sake
- for Peter's sake

God still loves Israel. He still loves the Jew—for the sake of the nation’s fathers and for the sake of all true believers who founded the nation for God and followed the Lord Jesus Christ (Ro.11:28; cp. Ro.11:16). Because of God’s great love and because of the godly people of Israel, God is going to turn Israel. God is going to save Israel. This present passage shows how part of the turning is going to take place. God is going to send Israel two great witnesses. This is part of the message that John saw in the little book handed to him (Rev.10:10-11). This is the glorious message of Israel’s salvation: the message that two great witnesses will be sent to bear testimony to Israel and to the world. These two great messengers will proclaim the salvation that is in God’s Son, the Lord Jesus Christ.

1. They are God’s witnesses (v.3-4).
2. They will have great power (v.5-6).
3. They are persecuted and martyred by the beast (v.7-10).
4. They are resurrected by God’s breath (v.11-12).
5. They are vindicated (v.13).

1 (11:3-4) Witnesses—Ministers—Call: the two witnesses are God’s witnesses.

1. They will be sent forth by God. God says, “I will give power unto my two witnesses.” It is God who calls, gifts, commissions, and empowers them.
2. They will be sent forth for a set time, only for three and one half years. This means that they are raised up only for the great tribulation period of history (see note, pt.2—Rev.11:2 for discussion).
3. They will be sent forth as true prophets who condemn sin and proclaim the salvation that is in Christ Jesus the Lord. This is shown by the dress mentioned, that of sackcloth. This was the dress worn by the prophets of old. The point of the dress is to show that their message will be straightforward and pull no punches. It will be a message against the sins of the Jews and of the world, a condemning message. But note: they will also be proclaiming the Lord Jesus Christ as the Savior of the world. This is shown by the statement made about them: they are assassinated in the city where “their Lord was crucified.” (The Greek actually says “their Lord.”) They are going to be proclaiming that the only hope and salvation of this world is found in God’s Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. They will, of course, be condemning the unbelief and denial of Christ as the Messiah, the unbelief and denial that has characterized the Jews down through the centuries.
4. They will have their needs met by God (v.4). Note that they will be like two olive trees and two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth. This is a reference to two great Old Testament witnesses for God, Joshua and Zerubabel (cp. Zech. chapters 4-5). The point is that the God of the whole earth will meet their needs:
 - ⇒ God will make them as strong and fruitful as two olive trees.
 - ⇒ God will make their witness to shine forth as the light of two candlesticks.

Thought 1. These same four things can be said about every true minister sent forth by God. This should never be forgotten.

- 1) It is God who sends forth the minister: God calls, gifts, commissions, and empowers the minister to bear witness for Him, and when God does, the minister must bear a strong witness.
- 2) It is God who sends forth the minister to certain ministries and for set periods of time.
- 3) It is God who sends forth the minister as a prophet to preach against the sin and corruption of this world and to proclaim the salvation that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
- 4) It is God who supplies the minister, who gives him fruit and gives him a strong witness, a witness that shines as the light of the candlestick.

“Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you” (Jn.15:16).

“But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel” (Acts 9:15).

“But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee” (Acts 26:16).

“To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation. Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ’s stead, be ye reconciled to God” (2 Cor.5:19-20).

“Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me” (Is.6:8).

“In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel, saith the LORD, and will make thee as a signet: for I have chosen thee, saith the LORD of hosts” (Hag.2:23).

2 (11:5-6) Ministers—Power: the two witnesses possess great power. Their power will be the same as that of Elijah and Moses.

- ⇒ They will have the power of the fire of Elijah. Note where the fire comes from: their mouths. This probably means the fire and power of their words and preaching. They will have so much influence and power from God that the antichrist and leaders will hesitate killing them. Their preaching will apparently stir conviction and cause many to turn to God.
- ⇒ They will have the power to perform miracles within nature: to cause it to rain and not to rain as Elijah did (cp. 2 Ki.1:9f; 17:1f); to smite the earth with plagues such as Moses did (cp. Ex.7:14f).

The point is this: their power is given them by God. And in the end time, supernatural power will be needed to protect their lives. Remember all the catastrophes that are taking place upon earth and the horror of the holocaust that has been launched by the antichrist. These two witnesses will need enough power and influence to keep the leaders of the world from assassinating them until God's purpose is completed. This is the reason for their unusual, miraculous power.

Thought 1. When God calls a minister, God empowers him. God will give him whatever power he needs to complete his task. What the minister must do is learn to call upon God for more and more power and trust God for it and then act upon it.

“But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth” (Acts 1:8).

“And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all” (Acts 4:33).

“And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and power” (1 Cor.2:4).

“That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man” (Eph.3:16).

“Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us” (Eph.3:20).

“For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake” (1 Th.1:5).

“For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind” (2 Tim.1:7).

Thought 2. Who are the two witnesses? There are many different ideas.

⇒ Some say the passage is an allegory symbolizing the law and the prophets; others say the law and the gospel; others say the 144,000 converted Jews (Rev.7:1f); others say the church; and others continue on and on with more ideas.

⇒ Some say that the two witnesses are actual persons, and some even identify them saying that they will be Enoch and Elijah or Elijah and Moses sent back to earth.

It is difficult to see how the two witnesses could be anything other than two men. There are just too many specific statements made about them that point toward human personality, statements that could never be applied to the church or to other things without really twisting this passage.

⇒ George Ladd says:

“The description of the two witnesses and the character of their ministry is given in such detail that it seems more likely that John conceived of these two witnesses as two actual historical...personages who will be sent to Israel to bring about her conversion” (The Revelation of John, p.154).

⇒ William Barclay says:

“But the picture of the two witnesses is so clear and so definite that it does not seem to be only an allegory; it seems to refer to definite persons” (The Revelation of John, Vol.2, p.86).

⇒ Lehman Strauss says:

“The two witnesses are not the law and the gospel, or the Old Testament and the New Testament. They speak. They have mouths. They are heard, handled, and hated. They are individuals, for after their martyrdom John sees their ‘dead bodies’ ([Rev.]11:9). By no stretch of the imagination can we regard these witnesses as other than real persons” (The Book of the Revelation, p.211).

Who are they? If they are two persons, then who are they? Scripture does not say. But note that traits of their ministry are just like those of Elijah and Moses. This, of course, does not mean that these two great prophets have to come back from the dead. It only means that the same kind of spirit that existed in these two great men will dwell in the two witnesses. The two great witnesses of the end time will have the spirit of Elijah and Moses. Remember: this is exactly what Jesus Christ said about Elijah, the Messiah's forerunner. But Jesus said that John the Baptist was His forerunner, that Scripture was speaking about the spirit of Elijah returning, that the forerunner would have the very same kind of spirit that Elijah had (cp. Mt.11:13-14). It is much more natural and Biblical to say the same thing here: that the two witnesses in the end time will be two men with the same kind of spirit that Moses and Elijah had.

3 (11:7-10) Antichrist—Beast of Revelation: the two witnesses are persecuted and martyred by the beast, that is, the antichrist. (See outlines and notes, Antichrist—Rev.11:7; 13:1-10; note and DEEPER STUDY # 1—Mt.24:15; note—2 Th.2:4-9 for discussion.) Note that this is the first mention of the beast or antichrist by name in the book of Revelation. And note what the very first information is: his origin, the fact that he will come from the devil himself, from the bottomless pit of hell. (See note, Bottomless Pit—Rev.9:2.) The idea is that he will be a murdering tyrant just like the devil (cp.

Jn.7:44), and his desire will be to assassinate the two witnesses. But he will not touch them until they have finished their testimony. God will protect them. However, the antichrist will war against them; that is, he will plot and do all he can to discredit their witness. Then as soon as their testimony is finished, after three and one half years (v.3), the antichrist will be successful; he will assassinate them.

What then happens shows how effective their message will have been. Many throughout the world, especially the leaders, will hate them. Their deaths will become an international affair. The leaders will leave their bodies lying in the streets of Jerusalem for three days. Note how Scripture graphically describes the event:

“And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves. And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth” (v.9-10).

The idea is that the whole world will witness the scene. This, of course, points toward international reporting of the event by some kind of media or television. Note that gifts will be exchanged among people because they are so pleased to see these two witnesses assassinated. This could be pointing to a political plot by the antichrist and a professional assassin. The gifts would be the payoff of the assassins. It is difficult to see what the gifts would be if they are not political payoffs from the antichrist to the leaders of some government for having assassinated the two witnesses.

The point of the verses is the political intrigue of the antichrist and other government leaders (v.7-10). They kill these two great servants of God, and they have so much political power that they can kill two preachers with world wide influence and leave their bodies in the streets for three days (v.8-9). Just picture a few of the greatest religious leaders in the world today. Then imagine some world leader murdering them and having so much power that he could leave their bodies lying in the streets for three days. This gives some idea of the enormous power the antichrist will have.

Note one other significant fact: Jerusalem is called Sodom and Egypt. This is describing the spiritual condition of Jerusalem in the end time.

- ⇒ Jerusalem will be as Sodom: a city of worldliness, immorality, and shameful sin; a city who would not receive the messengers of God (cp. Gen.19:4f).
- ⇒ Jerusalem will be as Egypt: a nation that enslaved and killed God’s people (Ex.1:7f).

4 (11:7) Beast, The—Antichrist: Who is the antichrist? Scripture never really uses the term antichrist to refer to the great “man of sin” who is to appear in the end time. It does refer to false teachers as antichrists (1 Jn.2:22). However, down through the centuries, believers have always referred to the coming “man of sin” as the antichrist. Why? Because he is to stand so opposed to Christ and fiercely persecute believers. He will be the very embodiment of evil against Christ and against the followers of Christ. He will be the one man who will be so against Christ that he can actually be called the antichrist.

Now who is the antichrist? Scripture tells us, and what Scripture reveals is fascinating yet horrifying. When we look back over human history and think about some of the evil men who have terrorized and massacred millions, it is utterly frightening. Think of the Neros, Hitlers, and Stalins of human history. And then think what would have happened if they had been dictators of the whole world. The death of millions would have soared to tens and tens of millions. Such is the picture of horror and havoc to be wrought by the world leader, the antichrist. His horror will be so frightening that one of his names is simply the beast. Note what Scripture calls him.

- ⇒ He is the abomination of desolation prophesied by Christ:

“When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation [the antichrist], spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand)” (Mt.24:15).

- ⇒ He is the man of sin prophesied by Paul:

“Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition [the antichrist]; who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God” (2 Th.2:3-4).

- ⇒ He is the little horn prophesied by Daniel

“And he [the little horn, the antichrist] shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time” (Dan.7:25).

- ⇒ He is the very embodiment of Satan himself, the man of lawlessness who comes out of the bottomless pit of hell itself.

“And four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another” (Dan.7:3).

“After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns. I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things" (Dan.7:7-8).

"The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is" (Rev.17:8).

⇒ He is the world ruler who will make war against God's people and slaughter them.

"And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows. I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them" (Dan.7:20-21).

"And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time" (Dan.7:25).

"After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands....And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they? And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb" (Rev.7:9, 13-14).

⇒ He is the world ruler who will conquer the world.

"Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and beat it in pieces" (Dan.7:23).

"And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast. These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast" (Rev.17:12-13).

Thought 1. William Barclay describes him well:

"Just as the Christ is the Holy One and the Anointed King of God, so Antichrist is the Unholy One and King of all evil. Just as the Christ, the Messiah, is the incarnation of God and goodness, so Antichrist is the incarnation of the Devil and of evil. Just as the Christ is the champion of God, so Antichrist is the champion of every force in the universe which is opposed to God" (The Revelation of John, Vol.2, p.70).

5 (11:11-12) Witnesses of Revelation, Two: the two witnesses are resurrected and caught up to heaven. This will be one of many spectacular events of the last days. The breath of God will be breathed into the dead bodies of these two slain witnesses. They will stand to their feet, and when they do, fear will strike the hearts of all those who see them. How many will see them? Will the whole world witness their resurrection as they had witnessed their dead bodies lying in the streets? Will the cameras of the media be zeroing in on them when they arise? We are not told, but the idea being conveyed seems to be that the whole world will not see them arise, but many Jews seem to be affected by what happens (v.13). Whatever the case, imagine the amazement when the two witnesses begin to ascend up into heaven. The sight is bound to make an enormous impact upon those who witness it.

Thought 1. Note how this parallels the resurrection and ascension of our Lord and symbolizes what is to happen to believers when Jesus Christ comes. Every believer has the glorious hope of being raised and meeting the Lord in the air.

"That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him" (Jn.5:23).

"And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day" (Jn.6:40).

"Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live" (Jn.11:25).

"In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also" (Jn.14:2-3).

"For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words" (1 Th.4:16-18).

6 (11:13) Witnesses—Israel, Salvation: the two witnesses receive a great vindication. There will be a great earthquake that will kill seven thousand persons. Then the most wonderful thing will happen: the rest of the Jews in Jerusalem become fearful and give glory to the God of heaven. This points strongly to the conversion of the Jews, certainly to a great number of them repenting and giving true glory to God. Note exactly what happened: “the rest were [greatly frightened], and gave glory to the God of heaven.” George Ladd points out that when this phrase is used in Revelation and other Scriptures, it suggests true repentance (The Revelation of John, p.159f).

“Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters” (Rev.14:7).

“Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest” (Rev.15:4).

“And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory” (Rev.16:9).

“Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready” (Rev.19:7).

“And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it” (Rev.21:24).

“Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation” (1 Pt.2:12).

“And Joshua said unto Achan, My son, give, I pray thee, glory to the LORD God of Israel, and make confession unto him; and tell me now what thou hast done; hide it not from me” (Josh.7:19).

“Let them give glory unto the LORD, and declare his praise in the islands” (Is.42:12).

“Give glory to the LORD your God, before he cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and, while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness” (Jer.13:16).

This is either the salvation of Israel or one of the great movements toward salvation that the Jews will experience in the end time. This is the fulfillment or part of the fulfillment prophesied by Paul: that “all Israel shall be saved.”

⇒ George Ladd has an excellent comment on this:

“Because of these mighty acts of God in the end time, the Jewish people will repent of their sins and give glory to the true God. Previously they have not glorified God; they had crucified his Messiah and rejected his prophets. But now they repent of their disobedience and glorify God” (The Revelation of John, p.159f).

⇒ William Barclay says:

“The great interest of this passage lies in the fact that the unbelievers were won by the sacrificial death of the witnesses and by God’s vindication of them” (The Revelation of John, Vol.2, p.88).

⇒ Robertson quotes H.B. Swete as saying:

“A general movement toward Christianity, induced by fear or despair—a prediction fulfilled more than once in...history” (Word Pictures In The New Testament, Vol.6, p.384).

Thought 1. The great need today is for men to fear God, to fear His judgment so much that they will turn from sin, repent, and give glory to Him.

“And his mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation” (Lk.1:50).

“But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him” (Acts 10:35).

“That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ” (Ro.15:6).

“For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s” (1 Cor.6:20).

“By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name” (Heb.13:15).

“And now, Israel, what doth the LORD thy God require of thee, but to fear the LORD thy God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve the LORD thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul” (Dt.10:12).

“Ye that fear the LORD, praise him; all ye the seed of Jacob, glorify him; and fear him, all ye the seed of Israel” (Ps.22:23).

“What man is he that feareth the LORD? him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose” (Ps.25:12).

“Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men!” (Ps.31:19).

DIVISION V

THE SEVEN TRUMPET JUDGMENTS: EVENTS DURING THE GREAT TRIBULATION, 8:1-11:19

H. 19 The Final Triumph Over Evil (Part IV): An Overall Picture of Things to Come, 11:14-19

(11:14-19) Introduction: the end time will be a period of horror and tragedy. The world and its people will go through great tribulation, tribulation such as the world has never before seen. Scene after scene of catastrophe and horror have already been seen. Imagine what John was going through. He was having to look upon these scenes and be an eyewitness of these horrors. This is the reason here and there throughout Revelation we have seen Christ give John a scene of hope and of the glory that is to come. This is what the present passage is all about. John once again needs to be lifted up and encouraged. Therefore, God gives him a broad overview of what is yet to come; John sees in sketch form the glory with the horror. This is the overall picture of things to come.

1. The third woe comes quickly; that is, the seventh trumpet is the third woe (v.14-15).
2. Scene 1: this world becomes God's kingdom (v.15).
3. Scene 2: the Lord God Almighty is acclaimed (v.16-17).
4. Scene 3: the nations make a final rebellion and are destroyed (v.18).
5. Scene 4: God's temple is to be opened (v.19).

- 1 (11:14-15) Woe—Trumpet Judgments: the third woe will come quickly. By woe is meant a period of extreme grief, distress, suffering, affliction, and calamity. Remember: there are to be only three woes.
- ⇒ The first woe will be the demonic locust-like creatures that sweep the earth and torment people (Rev.8:13-9:11).
 - ⇒ The second woe will be demonic military horse-like creatures that sweep the earth, and kill one third of the ungodly and evil population (Rev.9:12-21).
 - ⇒ The third woe is the seventh trumpet, the judgments that result from the blast of the seventh trumpet.

But note when the seventh trumpet blasts there is no judgment and there is no woe that comes forth. Why? Because there are some things that need to be seen before the judgments actually take place. The judgments and woe of the seventh trumpet are actually the seven bowl judgments; that is, the seventh trumpet will blast forth seven more judgments, and these will be far worse than any of the judgments cast upon the earth. In fact, the bowl judgments will bring the climax of human history and the end of time as we know it.

But first, as stated, there are some things that we need to see and understand. And the first thing is most interesting: it is an overview of the events that are yet to take place in the Revelation. The present passage leaps ahead and shows us in a broad summary what is to happen over the next ten chapters of this great book. God prepared John's heart for the terrible events that were yet to be revealed to him, prepared him by showing that God would triumph over evil and establish His kingdom forever. God gave John and gives us five scenes of what is yet to come.

- 2 (11:15) Kingdom of God—World: scene one—the kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ. The Greek tense is past tense, the kingdoms have become the Lord's kingdom. The scene jumps over all of history and shows our God and His Christ ruling over the whole world. All the kingdoms of this world are done away with, and all the people upon earth live and work as citizens of God's kingdom. Presently, in our day and time, human governments involve...
- Authority and rule and reign: some earthly authorities and rulers are good and some are bad.
 - Laws: earthly laws favor some people and treat others unjustly.
 - Work: some have jobs and others do not have jobs.

- Economies: some earthly economies are healthy and others are bad.
- Protection: some earthly governments protect their citizens, others abuse and enslave them.
- Provision: some earthly governments provide for their citizens and help their citizens provide for themselves and others do not.
- Services: some earthly governments provide good services for their people such as roads, sewage, water, jobs, and health care or else they provide poor service.

The point is this: earthly governments are imperfect and weak and are unable to bring utopia to man. Earthly governments are flooded with the poor, hungry, homeless, sick, selfish, rich, proud, and all the other evils and imperfections that enslave the citizens of this world. Earthly governments focus upon this earth and all the pleasures and possessions of this earth and upon war and conflict. This will be especially true in the end time under the antichrist. The world will be engulfed in sin and evil, selfishness and greed, war and conflict. But this is not the end: this is the glorious message of this point. The kingdoms of this world are going to become the kingdom of our God and His Christ. God is going to reign over the world, bringing heaven to this universe. When? During the millennium. The millennium simply means the period of time, a period of one thousand years, that Jesus Christ is to return to this earth and rule over the nations and people of the earth.

Thought 1. Just think! Utopia is coming to earth. Peace and prosperity are coming. There will no longer be hunger, thirst, homelessness, disease, war, murder, nor any of the other evils upon earth. But note: utopia will only come when Jesus Christ returns to rule the earth. Man fails and fails miserably in his attempts to clean up the world and to establish peace. But God loves man and loves him dearly. Therefore, He is going to help man. God is going to send His dear Son back to earth to establish peace and prosperity for all. God is going to do for man what man has so miserably failed to do. This is the glorious promise of this passage.

“And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night” (Rev.12:10).

“And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth” (Rev.19:6).

“And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS” (Rev.19:16).

“And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him with a thousand years” (Rev.20:4-6).

“He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: and he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end” (Lk.1:32-33).

“And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever” (Dan.2:44).

“How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation” (Dan.4:3).

“And at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the most High, and I praised and honored him that liveth for ever, whose dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation” (Dan.4:34).

“I make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel: for he is the living God, and steadfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end” (Dan.6:26).

“I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed” (Dan.7:13-14).

3 (11:16-17) God, Praise: scene two—the Lord God Almighty is acclaimed. As soon as the angel gave a glimpse into the future that showed the victory of God, the twenty four elders fell on their faces before God. They worshipped and praised Him for three things.

1. They praised God as the Lord God Almighty.

⇒ Lord: He deserved to be the Lord and Master, the Ruler over all lives.

⇒ God: He was the Creator and Maker of all, and He was the only one who deserved to be worshipped.

⇒ Almighty: He was omnipotent, that is, all powerful. He can do anything, and He will always be able to execute His will.

2. They praised Him as the Lord God who “is, and was, and is to come.” That is, He is eternal. He is the One existing now, who was always existing, and is to always exist. The Lord God possesses life forever and ever. Therefore, He is able to give life to whom He wills.

3. They praised Him for taking His great power back from the world and beginning to reign in His rightful place. God has allowed Satan to have access to the world and to man. And, most unfortunately, man has chosen to follow Satan instead of God. But not all people. Some people have done exactly what God was after: freely chosen to believe and follow Him—freely chosen to love God supremely. The result has been a world inhabited by a mass of people who deny and ignore God, with only a few people who choose to focus upon God. And the inevitable has happened: the selfishness and greed and lust that grips people who focus only upon self has consumed the world. The world is wrecked with so much sin and evil that problems have become so mammoth that they are now beyond solving.

But note: God is going to solve them. This is the declaration of the praise of the twenty four elders. They have just witnessed the scene of the future, the scene where God has just taken back His power over the world from Satan. They have witnessed the rule of God’s love and righteousness upon earth.

“And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: and he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end” (Lk.1:31-33).

“Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever” (1 Tim.1:17).

“And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints” (Rev.15:3).

“And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth” (Rev.19:6).

“The LORD shall reign for ever and ever” (Ex.15:18).

“And said, O LORD God of our fathers, art not thou God in heaven? and rulest not thou over all the kingdoms of the heathen? and in thine hand is there not power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee?” (2 Chron.20:6).

“Who is this King of Glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory” (Ps.24:10).

4 (11:18) Satan, Final Rebellion: scene 3—the nations of the world will make a final rebellion against God and will be destroyed and face the eternal judgment of God. Note five points.

1. There will be the final rebellion of the nations against the Lord Jesus Christ at the end of the millennium (the thousand year rule of Christ upon earth). The devil and his followers are going to try to defeat Christ and His followers in a last ditch battle upon earth. Remember: Christ will be ruling upon earth for one thousand years, and that is a long, long time. Over the period of the thousand years, people will do what people so often do now: become dull and lethargic to Christ and His power and to His call and will. Therefore when Satan is loosed to tempt and lead them, many will attempt to overthrow Christ and His followers.

The result will be quick and catastrophic for the ungodly nations and people of this earth.

“And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison, and shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city [Jerusalem]: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them. And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever” (Rev.20:7-10).

2. The wrath of God will fall.

“He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him” (Jn.3:36).

“For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness” (Ro.1:18).

“But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath” (Ro.2:8).

“Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience” (Eph.5:6).

“Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him” (Ps.2:12).

3. The dead will be judged.

“When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats” (Mt.25:31-32).

“And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment” (Heb.9:27).

“The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptation, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished” (2 Pt.2:9).

“But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men” (2 Pt.3:7).

“Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world” (1 Jn.4:17).

“Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him” (Jude 14-15).

4. The godly will be rewarded, that is, the believers, the prophets, and those who fear God’s name.

“Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you” (Mt.5:11-12).

“And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward” (Mt.10:42).

“His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord” (Mt.25:23).

“But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil” (Lk.6:35).

“Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free” (Eph.6:8).

“Blessed are all they that put their trust in him” (Ps.2:12).

5. The destroyers of human life will have their own lives destroyed.

“And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power” (2 Th.1:7-9).

“These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever” (2 Pt.2:17).

“Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him” (Jude 14-15).

“And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire” (Rev.20:11-15).

Thought 1. This is a strong warning to us all, a warning that must be heeded and heeded now or else we shall be eternally doomed.

- 1) A person must not join those who rebel against God. If he rebels against God, then he must face God as a rebel who stands opposed to God and who fights against the kingdom of God.
- 2) The wrath of God is going to fall against all who rebel against God.
- 3) The dead will face God. All the dead, every single person who has lived or ever will live—all shall stand face to face with God.
- 4) The godly will be rewarded. All who fear God’s name will be greatly rewarded.
- 5) The ungodly and evil will be destroyed. All who destroy human life—their own lives or the lives of others—shall be destroyed.

5 (11:19) Temple of God: scene four—God’s temple will be opened. This is the picture of eternity. God will dwell with His own in His temple—in all the universe. His promises will then be known to be true, and His majesty will be experienced. (See outlines and notes—Rev.21:1-22:5. See DEEPER STUDY # 3, pt.3-4—Mt.19:23-24.)

1. There is a heavenly temple after which the earthly temple and tabernacle were patterned. Scripture clearly says this.

“And the cheurbim shall stretch forth their wings on high, covering the mercy seat with their wings, and their faces shall look one to another; toward the mercy seat shall the faces of the cherubim be” (Ex.25:20).

“It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these” (Heb.9:23).

This is a wonderful thing, for it means that our earthly worship is patterned after the heavenly worship. However, we must never forget that the eternal, the new heavens and earth, will have no temple in them. Lehman Strauss states this well.

“When the New Jerusalem comes down from Heaven, it is called ‘the holy city’ (Revelation 21:2), and John states expressly, ‘I saw no temple there’ (21:22). When the scenes in chapter 21 are fulfilled there will be no need for a temple as a place of worship. If all were holy on earth now, there would be no need for a place of worship. Jesus said, ‘God is Spirit: and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth’ (John 4:24). True worship is a matter of the heart” (The Book of the Revelation, p.225).

2. There is another interpretation of this passage that needs to be noted. William Barclay states it well:

“The Temple is opened; but there is more than that. The Ark of the Covenant is seen. Now the Ark of the Covenant was in the Holy of Holies, the inside of which no ordinary person had ever seen, and into which even the High Priest went only on the Day of Atonement. This vision involves the opening up of the Temple and even the opening up of the Holy of Holies. This can have only one meaning; it must mean that now the glory of God is going to be fully displayed. That which was secret is going to be revealed; that which no man has seen is going to be opened to the sight of men. The full glory of God is going to burst upon men.

“Why the special reference to the Ark of the Covenant? This is to remind people of God’s special covenant with His own people. Originally that covenant had been with the people Israel; but the new covenant is the covenant in Jesus Christ with all of every nation who love and who believe in Jesus. This means that in the full display of God’s glory, in the destruction of God’s enemies, God will remember His covenant and God will be true to His own. Whatever the terror and whatever the destruction to come, God will not break the covenant that He made with His people and will not be false to His promises.

“So this picture is a picture of the coming of the full glory of God, which is a terrifying threat to the enemies of God, but an uplifting promise to the people of God’s covenant” (The Revelation of John, Vol.2, p.89f).

THE SEVENTH TRUMPET IN DETAIL (PART D): TWO SPIRITUAL WONDERS STRUGGLING BEHIND THE GREAT TRIBULATION, 12:1-17

A. The Central Characters in the Great Tribulation, 12:1-5

(12:1-5) Introduction: this is one of the most revealing and fascinating chapters in all the Bible. It rolls back the curtain between earth and heaven and shows what lies behind all the sin and evil and all the conflict and struggle of this world. It reveals a great spiritual struggle occurring behind the scenes of this world. And in the last days that spiritual struggle will be more intense than ever. The conflict will be so intense that the struggle waged upon earth is called by our Lord the great tribulation. By great He meant the most intense and terrible tribulation the world has ever seen. But why does the world suffer tribulation? Why does there have to be tribulation upon earth? And why will there be such intense and terrible tribulation in the end time? This passage tells us: it shows us the great spiritual warfare that is waged behind the scenes of this world, the great spiritual warfare that is being fought for the souls of men. There are three principle characters who have been involved in the spiritual warfare. These characters are the subject of this first passage.

1. The first character: a woman with child (v.1-2).
2. The second character: a great red dragon—Satan (v.3-4).
3. The main character: a man child—Jesus (v.5).

1 (12:1-2) Israel: there is the first character in the great tribulation—a woman with child. Note how the woman bursts upon the scene. She is said to be a great “wonder” (semeion) or a great sign in heaven. Note also that she is in heaven. This means that she is the heavenly representative of some earthly people. Who is the woman on earth, what people does she represent?

1. This woman is not identified, but it is clear who she is.
 - a. She is clothed with the sun, and the moon is under her feet, and she has upon her head a crown of stars. This refers back to the Old Testament to a dream that Joseph had:

“And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream more; and, behold, the sun and the moon and the eleven stars made obeisance to me. And he told it to his father, and to his brethren: and his father rebuked him, and said unto him, What is this dream that thou hast dreamed? Shall I and thy mother and thy brethren indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth? And his brethren envied him; but his father observed the saying” (Gen.37:9-11).

Note that Jacob understood exactly what Joseph meant: the sun represented the father Jacob, the moon the mother, and the twelve stars the brothers. The dream was a picture of Israel; Joseph was dreaming that Israel would be saved from destruction through him.

- b. She is pregnant and the child is pictured as being born (v.2, 5). Note what is said about the child.

“And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and the child was caught up unto God, and to his throne” (v.5).

This clearly refers to Jesus Christ. He and He alone was born to rule all nations (cp. Ps.2:9), and He alone was exalted to the throne of God. As stated, this is a clear reference to Jesus Christ.

2. Now who is this woman? There are three main positions about who she is.
- Some say she is Mary, the mother of Jesus. But there are just too many supernatural things said about this woman for her to be an earthly or human being.
 - Some say she is the church. But this is difficult to see, for the church did not give birth to Christ. On the contrary, Christ gave birth to the church.
 - Some say she is the ideal Zion, the ideal Jerusalem, the ideal Israel, the chosen people, the community of God from which Christ came. These say the mother represents all the true people of God, those before Jesus came and those after He came. Paul actually speaks of the Jerusalem which is above, who is the mother of the people of God on earth (Gal.4:26). This position is a possible identification of the woman. But again, this position does not fill all the things said about the woman, not as well as Israel itself does.
 - Some say that the woman represents Israel, the very people who gave birth to Jesus Christ. This seems to be the clearest identification of the woman. As we progress through the passage, we will see that everything said about this woman fits Israel just like a glove.
 - ⇒ Paul himself said that Jesus Christ came out of Israel (Ro.9:5).
 - ⇒ Isaiah prophesied that Israel would travail in pain and bring forth a man-child (Is.66:7-8).

2 (12:3-4) Satan—Dragon: there is the second character in the great tribulation—the great red dragon, that is, the devil. Note that the dragon is also said to be a wonder or a sign in heaven. Three significant things need to be discussed about this sign.

1. There is the description and authority of the dragon or devil. The description is entirely different from what most people think. When people think of the devil, they picture a fiery red serpent-like creature with two horns and a long pointed tail who holds a pitchfork in his hand. But this is a total misconception, a far cry from the truth. When Scripture speaks of Satan as a dragon, it is referring to the evil work he does, not to his looks or appearance. Scripture says that Satan is the highest and most glorious being ever created by God, that his being is so magnificent that he shines like the sun and actually possesses glory just like God. Note what this verse says about his description, and remember: this is not picturing what he looks like. It is describing his authority and power.

- ⇒ Satan has seven heads: seven is the number of completeness and fullness. Satan is complete in intelligence; he has full knowledge. He is not omniscient, of course, but his knowledge is complete and full.
- ⇒ Satan has seven crowns: this symbolizes authority, rule, and dominion—a crowned ruler who has a kingdom that he rules over. Scripture clearly says that Satan is a crowned ruler and that his authority is well beyond anything that man ever thinks.
- ⇒ Satan has ten horns: this symbolizes great power, but power that pierces, rips, and tears—all in the most ferocious and vicious way. It symbolizes that he uses his head and authority in an evil way.
- ⇒ Satan is the god of this world who blinds men's minds.

“In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them”
(2 Cor.4:4).

- ⇒ Satan is the prince of this world.

“Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out:
(Jn.12:31).

“Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me” (Jn.14:30).

“Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged” (Jn.16:11).

- ⇒ Satan is the prince of the power of the air.

“Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience” (Eph.2:2).

- ⇒ Satan is the king of a kingdom.

“And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?” (Mt.12:26).

“Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; and saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me” (Mt.4:8-9).

- ⇒ Satan has his grip upon the whole world.

“And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness”
(1 Jn.5:19).

2. There is the origin of the dragon or devil. This statement is telling where Satan came from. This is clearly seen in the Greek tenses of the statement. Note the two statements in the Greek:

- ⇒ His tail “draws” (surei, present tense) a third part of heaven. That is, Satan pulls and drags a third of the stars (angels) of heaven.

⇒ He “did cast” (ebalen) them down or threw them down. This is past tense; that is, it tells us what Satan did long ago.

The point is this: today, in the present moment, Satan has authority over one third of the stars or angels of heaven. How? Because in the past he cast them down with himself. Now note two points.

- a. Where were Satan and the angels cast down from? Heaven. They were the stars of heaven, but they were cast down from heaven. Eons ago, sometime before man ever began, God created an angel, the highest and most glorious being ever created.
 - ⇒ His name is Lucifer which means star of the morning.
 - ⇒ He was the anointed cherub who covered the very throne of God itself. He was the angel put in charge of the glory of God’s very own throne.
- b. But something happened: he did what so many people do. He began to look at himself, and he began to want to live like he wanted instead of like God wanted. He wanted to do his own thing instead of doing like God said. Therefore, he rebelled against God, and in his rebellion he led one third of the angelic beings with him. Consequently, God had no choice but to cast him down from his exalted position in heaven. From what we can glean from Scripture this is what happened to Lucifer, how he became the devil, the arch-enemy of God (see DEEPER STUDY # 1—Rev.12:9; DEEPER STUDY # 1—2 Cor.4:4; note—1 Pt.5:8 for more discussion).

“How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations! For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High. Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit” (Is.14:12-15).

“Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus [type of Satan], and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Thou sealest up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty. Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created. Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. Thou was perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee. By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God: and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire. Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee. Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the iniquity of thy traffic; therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee, and I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee. All they that know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee: thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt thou be any more” (Ezk.28:11-19).

“And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads. And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth” (Rev.12:3-4).

3. There is the aim of the dragon or devil. Satan’s aim is to devour the woman, to destroy Israel. This has always been Satan’s aim. Why? Because he is out to get back at God for judging him. He is out to hurt God, to cut the heart of God. And the best way he can do this is to turn the hearts of people away from God and lead them to sin and to follow the way of evil.

Now, go way back in history again, to the time when God promised to send the Savior to the world. When God first promised to send Christ to save the world, Satan knew it. He was listening. He was the serpent who had tempted Adam and Eve and led them to sin and hurt God. But God loved Adam and Eve and wanted to save them from sin and death; therefore, God promised to send the seed, the Savior of the world, who would crush the head and power of Satan.

“And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; and it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel” (Gen.3:15).

As stated, Satan heard the promise. Consequently, he was bound to do all he could to delay the coming of the Seed, the Savior. He, of course, knew what we know: no person can stop God’s plan and will. But Satan wanted to get as many people as he could to sin and to turn away from God so that God’s heart would be cut and hurt. He wanted to delay his own defeat and the crushing of his head as long as he could. This is what is meant by this verse:

“The dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born” (v.4).

Satan has tried from the very beginning to destroy the seed of the woman. He has been waging war against the Seed of God, the Savior of the world, ever since God promised to save the world. The great Baptist preacher W.A. Criswell points this out by tracing some of the attempts of the devil throughout the Bible (Expository Sermon On Revelation, Vol.4. Grand Rapids, MI: Zondervan, 1969, p.86-87). For clarity, the attempts are put in chart form.

The Seed or Line Through Whom the Promised Seed Was to Come	The Strategies of Satan to Destroy the Seed or Devour the Child and God's Great Deliverance
⇒ There was the line of Abel, Adam's Son.	⇒ Satan led Cain to kill Abel, but God gave Adam another son, Seth (Gen.4:1f).
⇒ There was the early line of the godly seed.	⇒ Satan led the godly line to mix with the ungodly and led them into such vile wickedness that God had to destroy the earth. But God raised up Noah (Gen.6:5f).
⇒ There was the line of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.	⇒ Satan led Esau to threaten to kill his brother, Jacob. But God protected Jacob (Gen.27:41f).
⇒ There was the line of the children of Israel.	⇒ Satan led Pharaoh to attempt to kill all the male babies of Israel. But God saved Moses (Ex.1:8f).
⇒ There was the line of David.	⇒ Satan led son after son of David into sin and to murder and disqualify themselves. But God always kept at least one son of David alive (2 Sam.13f).
⇒ There was the line of the sons of David.	⇒ Satan led Jehoram, one of Jehoshaphat's sons, to kill all his brothers. But God caused sons to be born to Jehoram to carry on the line (2 Chron.21:1f).
⇒ There was the line of Jehoshaphat's sons.	⇒ Satan led an enemy to come in and kill all the sons but one—Ahaziah (2 Ki.8:25f).
⇒ There was the line of Ahaziah.	⇒ Satan led Jehu to kill Ahaziah, and the queen's mother, Athaliah, took over the throne and killed all the sons. But God led the wife of the high priest to save one small baby, Joash. At this point the line of the promised seed rested in the saving of this little baby's life (2 Ki.9:11f).
⇒ There was the line of the chosen people.	⇒ Satan led King Ahasuerus to exterminate all of God's people. But God gave him a most restless and frightening night of sleep. The king, therefore, spared the chosen line (Esther).
⇒ There was the line of the Promised Seed, Jesus Himself, at His birth.	⇒ Satan led King Herod to slay all the babies in Bethlehem in an attempt to kill the promised child. But God warned Joseph and told Joseph to flee with the child (Mt.2:1f).
⇒ There was the line of the Promised Seed, Jesus Himself, at his temptation.	⇒ Satan tempted Jesus to cast Himself down from the pinnacle of the temple, to secure the loyalty and worship of the people by the spectacular instead of the cross. But Jesus chose God's way, the way of the cross, instead of Satan's way (Mt.4:1f).
⇒ There was the line of the Promised Seed, Jesus Himself, at his hometown, Nazareth.	⇒ Satan led the citizens of Nazareth to try to cast Jesus off the cliff of a hill, but Jesus escaped (Lk.4:29).
⇒ There was the line of the Promised Seed, Jesus Himself, in facing the religionists.	⇒ Satan led the religionists to hate Jesus and to plot his death time and again (Jn.7:1f). But Jesus escaped time and again.
⇒ There was the line of the Promised Seed, Jesus Himself, on the cross.	⇒ Satan led the world to put Jesus on the cross and to kill Him. But God raised Jesus from the dead (Jn.19:1f).

This is how Satan has attempted to hurt God, by doing all he could to devour the woman, the line of Israel. He did all he could to keep the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, from being born. Now that Christ has come, Satan does all he can to turn people away from judgment to come. Even when people do repent and turn to follow Christ, Satan does all he can to turn the followers of the Lord away from Him.

This is the battle, the combat, the struggle that is going on behind the scenes in the spiritual world. And the war will wage on and on until the world ends. The point of the present passage in Revelation is to show how the struggle will intensify in the great tribulation. During the great tribulation Satan will use all the resources that he has to destroy the "seed of the woman," the followers of the Lord Jesus Christ. He will do all he can to cut and hurt the heart of God. God is not willing that a single soul perish; therefore, when Satan is successful in turning and destroying one person, the heart of God is cut and hurt as deeply as a cut can pierce.

Thought 1. Note: although the present passage is dealing primarily with the great tribulation, the same spiritual struggle is waged in every generation of history. Satan is out to turn every person he can away from God. He wants people to follow him instead of God. He wants the obedience of people instead of people giving their obedience and loyalty to God.

3 (12:5) Jesus Christ: there is the third character in the great tribulation, Jesus Christ Himself. Note two points.

1. Jesus Christ was born or sent into the world to rule the world. He was sent by God to bring godliness and righteousness to earth, to use a rod of iron or of judgment in order to get rid of sin and ungodliness in the world.

- a. This He did, of course, by the cross. Upon the cross Jesus Christ made it possible for men to be forgiven their sins and to stand before God, to stand before God free of sin. He did this by bearing the sins of men upon Himself when He died on the cross. He took the sins and the punishment of sins upon Himself. Therefore, man can now be free of sin and acceptable to God. Jesus Christ judged sin, condemned it upon the cross. Therefore, we can say that the rod of iron was used first of all upon Satan when Jesus Christ died upon the cross. Jesus Christ judged and destroyed the power of Satan.

“Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out” (Jn.12:31).

“Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil” (Heb.2:14).

“And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it [the cross]” (Col.2:15).

“For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil” (1 Jn.3:8).

- b. Jesus Christ will also use the rod of iron against the nations of the world—against all the ungodly and evil of the world—in the end time. Jesus Christ shall rule all nations and bring righteousness and godliness to this earth by exerting all the authority and discipline of God needed. He shall bring the kingdom of God to earth.

“Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter’s vessel” (Ps.2:9).

“And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father” (Rev.2:27).

“And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God” (Rev.19:15).

2. Jesus Christ ascended and was exalted to the throne of God. This is proof that He shall rule and reign and bring righteousness to the earth.

“Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God” (Lk.22:69).

“And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead” (Ro.1:4).

“Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places” (Eph.1:20).

“Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father” (Ph.2:9-11).

“Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him” (1 Pt.3:22).

“For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this” (Is.9:6-7).

TWO SPIRITUAL WONDERS STRUGGLING
BEHIND THE GREAT TRIBULATION, 12:1-17

B. The Great Spiritual Struggle Behind the Great Tribulation, 12:6-17

(12:6-17) Introduction: the curtain has been rolled back between earth and heaven, and we have seen a great spiritual conflict going on behind all the ungodliness and evil of this world. We have seen that the dragon, the devil, is out to hurt and cut the heart of God. He does this by turning people away from Christ and leading them to destroy their lives by following evil. The Revelation has shown us this: the rampage of the devil against God will intensify in the end time, especially during the great tribulation. This is the great discussion of this passage: the spiritual struggle behind the great tribulation—the dragon's (Satan's) attacks against the woman (Israel).

1. The woman flees for her life (v.6).
2. The great war over Israel and God's people is fought in heaven (v.7-9).
3. The great victory and salvation are won (v.10-11).
4. The warning to earth is given (v.12).
5. The dragon launches an attack upon the woman (v.13-17).

1 (12:6) Israel—Tribulation, Great: the woman flees for her life. This is the picture of the terrible holocaust of the end time. We know this because of the thousand two hundred and sixty days (three and one half years) mentioned. This is the period always referred to as the great tribulation (see note, pt.2-4—Rev.11:2 for more discussion). The woman, Israel, is going to be severely persecuted by the antichrist in the end time. The Jews are going to have to flee for their lives, flee to the wilderness of the mountains, hills, and forests—to every hiding place they can find. However we must always keep in mind that the holocaust is going to be launched against the Gentile believers of the end time as well. There will literally be millions—a numberless number—of Gentile believers slaughtered right along with the Jews (cp. Rev.7:9). All believers and Israel, the Old Testament people of God, will be fleeing to every corner of wilderness in the world, seeking any place they can to hide.

Note the wonderful promise: God has a place for His people to hide. God is going to save a remnant of believers. He is going to use this persecution to turn even more Jews to His Son, who is the true Messiah, even the Lord Jesus Christ.

“God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel” (Ro.11:2).

“For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?” (Ro.11:15).

“And they [Israel] also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graff them in again. For if thou [Gentile believers] wert cut out of the olive tree [Israel] which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?” (Ro.11:23-24).

“For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in. And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob” (Ro.11:25-26).

“For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day” (2 Tim.1:12).

“Be merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me: for my soul trusteth in thee: yea, in the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge, until these calamities be overpast” (Ps.57:1).

“Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep” (Ps.121:4).

“For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall” (Is.25:4).

“I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine. When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee” (Is.43:1-2).

2 (12:7-9) Satan—Tribulation, Great—End Time: the great war over Israel and God’s people is to be fought in heaven. The great struggle for the believer’s soul occurs in the spiritual realm, the spiritual world or dimension of being. This is the picture of these three verses. The great struggle for the souls of Israel and the believers in the end time will be occurring in the spiritual world. Remember: Israel and the believers are having to flee for their lives from the worst holocaust the world has ever seen. It has been launched by the antichrist, the one man who embodies the very evil of the devil himself. These verses show us what lies behind this terrible holocaust, what is causing the terrible attack against Israel and the believers.

1. The forces of the spiritual struggle are Michael and his angels and Satan and his fallen angels. Note several things.

a. Scripture teaches that God has assigned angels to look after and to minister to believers.

“Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?” (Heb.1:14. See DEEPER STUDY # 1—Heb.1:4-14 for more discussion.)

b. Scripture teaches there are ranks and orders of angels, that there are various levels of authority among angels. They rule as principalities and powers over the spiritual world. This is true among both good and evil angels.

“For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord” (Ro.8:38-39).

“[Christ is] far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come” (Eph.1:21).

“To the intent [purpose] that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God” (Eph.3:10).

“For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places” (Eph.6:12).

“For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him” (Col.1:16).

“And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power” (Col.2:10).

“And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it” (Col.2:15).

c. Michael is one of the archangels who serves God. In Scripture he is presented as being above all the other angels. He seems to be the prime administrator of God (Dan.10:21; 12:1, 7-12; 1 Th.4:16; Jude 9) He is also pictured as the guardian angel of God's people. He struggles against the fallen angels who seek control over the nations and people of the earth (Dan.10:13, 21; 12:1; cp. Dan. chapters 10-12).

2. A spiritual war will be fought in the end time between the spiritual forces of good and evil. Satan and his angels will attempt to do what they have always tried to do: stamp out Israel and the followers of Christ. But there will be one difference: verse twelve tells us what it is. Satan "knows that he has but a short time." God will be ready to end human history. Therefore, Satan will attack both Israel and the believers as never before. He will literally try to wipe out every Jew and believer that he can. Why? Because every one who is killed will never be able to accept Christ nor bear testimony and lead anyone else to Christ. God will hurt and be cut that much more because more people will be lost and never become true worshippers of God.

But note what the glorious outcome of the battle will be. Satan and his fallen angels will be defeated and cast out of heaven once for all. After this event—when this battle takes place in the great tribulation—Satan will never again have access into heaven. He will never again accuse a believer before God.

Remember: Satan is said to presently have access to heavenly places and to God (Lk.10:18; Eph.6:12; Job 1:6f). But this will be the final battle between evil and good. This is the picture being painted by Revelation. After this battle, Satan will be defeated forever.

"Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days" (Dan.10:14).

"And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book" (Dan.12:1).

Thought 1. In all the graphic description of the above we must remember what will be happening upon earth. Israel and believers will be suffering the worst horror of evil ever launched upon earth: the holocaust of the anti-christ. He will be doing all he can to eliminate every Jew and believer from the face of the earth. Why? All because of the dragon, that old serpent, called the devil and Satan. (See DEEPER STUDY # 1, Satan—Rev.12:9 for more discussion.)

DEEPER STUDY # 1

(12:9) Satan: Satan is called "the great dragon...that old serpent." His name is Lucifer. He was probably one of the highest angels ever created by God, but he fell because of selfishness and pride (Is.14:12; cp. 1 Tim.3:6. See note—Rev.12:3-4; DEEPER STUDY # 1—2 Cor.4:4; notes—2 Cor.11:13-15; 1 Pt.5:8.) He is "an angel of light" with such deceptive and seductive power that even some ministers follow him, ministers who are "transformed as the ministers of righteousness" (2 Cor.11:14-15). Throughout Scripture Satan is described as follows:

1. He is "the god of this world" who blinds men's minds (2 Cor.4:4).
2. He is "the prince of this world" (Jn.12:31; 14:20; 16:11) and "the prince of the power of the air" (Eph.2:2; 6:12).
3. He is satan, which means the adversary (1 Chron.21:1; Job 1:6; 2:1-6; Zech.3:1; Mt.4:10; Mk.1:13; Lk.4:8; Jn.13:27; Acts 5:3; 26:18; Ro.16:20).
4. He is the devil, which means the slanderer (Mt.4:1, 5, 8, 11; Lk.4:2-6, 13; 1 Pt.5:8; Rev.20:2).
5. He is the deceiver of the whole world (2 Cor.11:3; Rev.12:9).
6. He is the tempter (Mt.4:3; 1 Th.3:5).
7. He is the evil one (Mt.6:13; 13:19, 38).
8. He is the father of lies (Jn.8:44).
9. He is the accuser of the brethren (Rev.12:10).
10. He is a murderer (Jn.8:44).
11. He is called Beelzebub (Mt.12:24; Mk.3:22; Lk.11:15).
12. He is called Belial (2 Cor.6:15).
13. He is called Abaddon (Rev.9:11).
14. He is called the angel of the bottomless pit (Rev.9:11).
15. He is called Apollyon (Rev.9:11).
16. He is called the enemy (Mt.13:39).
17. He is called the gates of hell (Mt.16:18).
18. He is called the great red dragon (Rev.12:3).
19. He is called a lying spirit (1 Ki.22:22).
20. He is called that old serpent (Rev.12:9; 20:2; cp. Gen.3:4, 14; 2 Cor.11:3).
21. He is called the power of darkness (Col.1:13).
22. He called the prince of devils (Mt.12:24).
23. He is called the ruler of the darkness of this world (Eph.6:12).
24. He is called the spirit that works in the children of disobedience (Eph.2:2).
25. He is called the unclean spirit (Mt.12:43).
26. He is called the wicked one (Mt.13:19, 38).

(See notes—Lk.22:3; DEEPER STUDY # 1—2 Cor.4:4; note—Col.2:15; note and DEEPER STUDY # 1—Jas.4:7; notes—1 Pt.5:8; Rev.12:3-4 for more discussion.)

Satan's purpose in making war against God is twofold.

1. Satan's purpose is power and worship, to receive as much of the power and worship of the universe as possible (Is.14:12-17; Ezk.28:11-17). He goes about this in three ways.
 - ⇒ He opposes and distrubs God's work in the world (Is.14:12-17; Ezk.28:11-17; Job 1:6; 2:1-6; Mt.4:10; Mk.1:13; Lk.4:8; Rev.12:7-9).
 - ⇒ He discourages believers through various strategies (see notes—Lk.22:31; Eph.6:10-12).
 - ⇒ He arouses God's justice against people by leading people to sin and to deny and rebel against God. And when they do, God's justice has to act and judge people to the fate of their choice: that of living with Satan eternally (see note—Mt.12:25-26; Jn.13:31-32).
2. Satan's purpose is to hurt and cut the heart of God. Why? Because God has judged and condemned him for rebelling against God. Therefore, Satan does all he can to get back at God. The best way he can do this is to turn the hearts of people away from God and lead them to sin and to follow the way of evil. (See notes, pt.3—Rev.12:3-4; pt.2—Rev.12:7-9; pt.2—Rev.12:10-11 for more discussion.)

However, Christ has broken Satan's power by two acts (see notes—Jn.12:31-32; 16:11; 8:44; Col.2:15).

1. By never giving in to the devil's temptation (Mt.4:1-11) and by never sinning (2 Cor.5:21). Christ overcame sin. He was righteous; He was perfect.
2. By destroying the devil's power of death. Christ was not held by physical or spiritual death (Heb.2:14-15). He arose and ascended to God's right hand.
It is for this reason that the Bible says "greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world" (1 Jn.4:4); and again, "If God be for us, who can be against us?" (Ro.8:31).

3 (12:10-11) Salvation—Victory—Heavenly Praise: the victory and salvation are won by Christ. Note three facts.

1. A loud voice in heaven will shout out that the victory and salvation are now won—once for all. Who will this voice be? God's people. We know this because the voice refers to "our brothers." Note what the voice will declare:
 - ⇒ The great salvation of our God: God will be ready to launch the glorious day of salvation, the day of redemption, to bring every person who has ever trusted him into eternity. God will be ready to save the whole world, making a new heavens and earth. The final triumph of salvation will be ready to take place.
 - ⇒ The great strength of God will have just been demonstrated. Satan will have been defeated and cast out of heaven.
 - ⇒ The great kingdom of our God will now be ready to be established forever and ever.
 - ⇒ The power of God's Christ and Messiah will be proven. Every true believer will now live with God forever, worshipping and serving Him—all because of the power of God's Messiah.

"For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power" (1 Cor.4:20).

"Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned" (Rev.11:17).

"And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth" (Rev.19:6).

2. The result of God's salvation will be glorious: Satan will be barred from heaven. He will no longer be able to accuse believers before God. Scripture teaches that Satan takes the sins of believers and throws them up into God's face. He points out every failure of a believer. Why? As stated before, to hurt and cut God. God gave His Son to die for the sins of men. Therefore, every time a believer sins, the devil reminds God...
 - that the death of His Son was wasted and useless; it was not worth the price if believers are going to trample the blood of Christ underfoot.
 - that the believers' love for Christ and God is hypocritical and shameful.
 - that the believer could care less about God and Christ: he does not care enough to obey God. If he did, the believer would not sin.
 - that the believer is not worth all the pain and hurt; that God should go ahead and wipe out the human race.

On and on we could go, but the point is the accusation of Satan against believers. But note: Satan will be thrown out of heaven. He will never again be able to appear before God and cut God by the sins and failures of believers.

"And he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him" (Zech.3:1).

"Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them" (Job 1:6).

3. The weapons used to gain the victory over Satan will be threefold. Remember these are the very weapons that Michael and the angels will use in the battle with Satan (v.7-9). Michael and the angels will protect Israel and the believers in the end time, and a remnant of Israel and of Gentiles will be saved. How?
 - a. By the blood of the Lamb, of the Lord Jesus Christ (see note, pt.2—Rev.5:6-7).
 - b. By the word of their testimony, that is, by proclaiming the Word of God and by continuing to confess the Lord Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior.

"For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard" (Acts 4:20).

“Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God” (2 Tim.1:8).

“But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear” (1 Pt.3:15).

- c. By being loyal to Christ even to death. Note: many will die, millions in fact. But they shall live eternally. They shall never taste death. Quicker than the blink of an eye God shall transfer them to heaven into His very presence. But remember why: because they were loyal; they stood fast in Christ and refused to deny Him.

“For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it” (Mt.16:25).

“And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me” (Lk.9:23).

“If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple” (Lk.14:26-27).

“And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God’s sake, who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting” (Lk.18:29-30).

“Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord” (1 Cor.15:58).

“And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever” (2 Tim.4:18).

Thought 1. The only way we can ever conquer Satan is to use these same three weapons.

- 1) We must be covered by the blood of the Lamb and we must claim the blood of the Lamb.
- 2) We must have a strong testimony for Christ, strongly proclaim the Word of God and continue to confess the Lord Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior.
- 3) We must be loyal to Christ even to death (Mt.10:22).

4 (12:12) Warning—Satan: the warning to earth is given. Satan will be cast down to earth, and he will have one more chance to wreck and destroy all he can. Remember two things:

- ⇒ First, the rise of the antichrist is a judgment of God upon earth and its people. Why? Because of people’s ungodliness, evil, idolatry, murder, sorcery, immorality, and thievery. In the end time evil will grow worse and worse. Therefore God will let man run wild with their evil, have their own way; and in the end, men will turn to a world leader who promises utopia upon earth, the antichrist himself.
- ⇒ Second, Satan has been cast out of heaven. In the great tribulation Satan is a defeated foe, but he will not be destroyed—not yet. God is going to judge the world through him.

This is what is being pictured in this verse. When Satan is cast out of heaven, he knows he has but a brief time. Therefore, he stirs up the antichrist to create the worst devastation ever seen upon earth.

5 (12:13-17) Satan—Israel—Believers:the dragon, the devil, will launch a terrible attack against the woman. Four points are given.

1. Satan will severely persecute the woman, Israel, and all believers who refuse to deny Christ. There will be a holocaust unparalleled in human history. Through the antichrist, Satan will launch an attempt to literally wipe the Jews and believers from off the face of the earth. The world will witness not a local or national holocaust but a world-wide slaughter. All over the world...

- the knock on the door by the secret police will be heard by frightened Jews and believers hovered in the corners of their homes.
- the arrests and jailing will be efficient and quick and will include children as well as adults.
- the boxcars will roll once again as they have so often in history, packing Jews and believers together like herded cattle.
- the execution camps will be restored and the executions will be quick and efficient.

2. The woman (Israel) and believers will be delivered by the wings of an eagle. This is simply a picture of the delivering arms of God. This does not mean, of course, that no Jew and no believer will be killed. The exact opposite is true: the antichrist will slaughter millions, more by far than any other holocaust ever launched in history (cp. Rev.7:4, 9). God will give His dear people the wings of an eagle to deliver some on home to heaven and others to safety upon earth. Note that the persecution will continue for three and one half years (cp. v.6).

“Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I bare you on eagles’ wings, and brought you unto myself” (Ex.19:4).

“As an eagle stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young, spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings: so the LORD alone did lead him, and there was no strange god with him” (Dt.32:11-12).

3. The serpent, the devil, will attempt to flood Israel and believers with tribulation after tribulation. The idea is an onrushing flood of trouble and persecution, attempt after attempt, horror after horror.

“The sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of ungodly men made me afraid” (Ps.18:4).

“For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him” (Ps.32:6).

“Then the waters had overwhelmed us, the stream had gone over our soul” (Ps.124:4).

“I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine. When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee” (Is.43:1-2).

4. There will be great help coming from the earth. God is going to use the earth to swallow up the flooding waters or attacks, of the devil and his antichrist. This probably means one or both of the following:

⇒ The devastations, natural catastrophes, of God’s judgments upon the earth will distract and require the attention of the antichrist. The catastrophes, natural suffering of the earth, will save a remnant of Israel and believers. Remember the enormous destruction upon earth that has already happened due to the seal and trumpet judgments (see outline and notes—Rev.6:3-8; 6:12-17; 8:6-9:11; 8:6-12; 8:13-9:11; 9:12-21). There will also be nations who do not go along with the policies of the antichrist and they will give refuge to the Jews and believers who escape to their shores.

⇒ The dragon will launch an attack upon the rest of the woman’s seed. This probably refers to the devil and his antichrist launching a more aggressive attack against the Jews and believers who did not flee to other parts of the earth for safety (nations or barren and destroyed parts). Again, remember that vast areas of the earth will be barren due to the natural catastrophes or judgments of God. This could be what is meant by the wilderness areas to which so many flee. In this day, when travel is so easy and with spy satellites and airplanes and helicopters, the wilderness has to mean either huge areas of vast wastelands or else nations that will be sympathetic to the persecuted believers. But not all will flee. Therefore, the antichrist will turn against those who remain behind with more animosity than ever.

Thought 1. The attacks of Satan have always been devastating, devastating in that his attacks destroy human lives. We must, therefore, stand fast in Christ and proclaim the victory of Christ over the devil. People can be saved through Jesus Christ alone. Therefore, the glorious message of salvation in Christ must be proclaimed to every man, woman, and child on earth. Jesus Christ is their only hope of deliverance from the destruction of Satan.

“But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ” (2 Cor.11:3).

“Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles [strategies] of the devil” (Eph.6:10-11).

“Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; and deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage” (Heb.2:14-15).

“Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you” (Jas.4:7).

“Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world” (1 Pt.5:8-9).

DIVISION VII

THE SEVENTH TRUMPET IN DETAIL (PART II): THE WAR OF THE DRAGON UPON THE EARTH, 13:1-18

A. The Attack Through the First Beast: A Political Ruler, 13:1-10

(13:1-10) Introduction: this chapter is the key to the whole book of Revelation. It covers the antichrist, the terrible world ruler who is going to arise in the end time and embody the depth and terror of evil. If a person understands this chapter, then he will understand the great book of Revelation. To understand the antichrist is to understand...

- how and why the end time will be swept with so much evil and horror.
- how and why the judgments of God will fall upon the ungodly and evil of the end time, fall with terrible severity.
- how and why God will end the world when He does.
- how and why such glorious promises are given to Israel and the believers who follow Him in the end time.
- how and why so many of the Old Testament prophecies are fulfilled in the end time.

This is the chapter that discusses the two terrible rulers that are to arise in the end time, the antichrist and his cohort, the world-wide religious leader who will help the antichrist gain and maintain control over the world. Their rule will be so savage and cruel that the Scripture calls them beasts. They will launch the most terrorizing holocaust ever witnessed by the world. Literally millions of people—a numberless number—will be slaughtered, not only in one or several nations but all over the world. The murder and evil will be so terrible that God just will not take the evil of man any longer. The antichrist will not only bring the world to the brink of disaster, he will cross the brink and cause the utter destruction of the world as we know it. Under the antichrist, the world will be utterly decimated and destroyed.

Remember what has just happened (chapter 12). Revelation has just given us a glimpse into the spiritual world, shown us what lies behind the sin and evil of this earth. It has shown us this: there is a great spiritual evil fighting to lead man away from God, struggling to get people to live ungodly and evil lives. But in the end time this spiritual evil—the dragon, that old serpent, the devil and Satan—is going to be cast down to earth. When he is, he knows that he has only a short time left before God dooms him for eternity. Therefore, he is going to unleash a wrath and fury beyond anything the world has ever known. In the last days the devil is going to launch a campaign of evil and terror unparalleled in human history—such horror that it staggers the imagination. How is Satan going to do this? Through a world leader—a leader who will gain control of the world just as any other leader gains control of a nation. Who is that leader? The antichrist. Satan is going to raise up a man who will be the very embodiment of evil—everything that Satan wants a man to be. This is the warning about the terrible antichrist. This is the passage that tells us about the political leader of the end time, the leader who will rule over the whole world, the antichrist.

1. His origin: the sea (v.1).
2. His great political power (v.1-2).
3. His dramatic rise to power (v.2-3).
4. His means of securing world government (v.4-8).
5. His adversaries: the genuinely saved (v.8-10).

1 (13:1) Antichrist: there is the origin of the beast or antichrist. He arises up “out of the sea.” This is explained in Rev.17:15 where the waters are said to be “peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues.” The antichrist arises from among the people. Remember the terrible things that will be taking place upon earth...

- the increase in world violence, conflict, terrorist activities, wars and rumors of wars.
- the increase in natural catastrophes such as famines, earthquakes, and diseases. (See notes—Rev.6:3-8; 6:12-17; 8:6-12; 8:13-9:11; 9:12-21.)

The people and nations will be clamoring for a leader who can offer them hope and help. The antichrist will see their restlessness and political turbulence and give the people the hope they crave.

“Woe to the multitude of many people, which make a noise like the noise of the seas; and to the rushing of nations, that make a rushing like the rushing of mighty waters! The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but God shall rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and shall be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like a rolling thing before the whirlwind. And behold at eveningtide trouble; and before the morning he is not. This is the portion of them that spoil us [God and His people], and the lot of them that rob us” (Is.17:12-14).

“But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt. There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked” (Is.57:20-21).

2 (13:1-2) Antichrist: there is the great political power of the beast or antichrist. Everything said about the antichrist is symbolic of the enormous political power that he will gain.

1. The antichrist will have seven heads. This means at least two things.
 - a. The antichrist will have enormous ability, a most unusual genius. The number seven in the Bible means complete and full. The antichrist will be full of ability. He will be a supernatural genius, possessing complete knowledge and wisdom. He will be able to think, plan, act, respond, and react to situations quicker and more efficiently than any man has ever been able to do. Think how far a person could go in political circles and in gaining power if he had what we might term perfect ability—if he was full of knowledge, understanding, and wisdom. He would be head and shoulders above all others, able to maneuver and manipulate power and people as no man has ever been able to do. Think of the greatest leader who has ever lived and compare the antichrist to him: the antichrist will have seven times the ability of that leader; the antichrist will have full and complete ability.
 - b. The seven heads and ten horns also refer to the ten nations he will rule over. In the beginning there will be ten nations, but he will take over or be given the power and rule of three which leaves seven. The heads of these seven will most likely surrender their governments to his rule. Therefore, the beast or antichrist has the power of seven heads, seven heads of state. (See DEEPER STUDY # 1—Rev.13:2 for chart and full explanation of this point.)
2. The antichrist will have ten horns. This is the same number of horns that the dragon (devil) had. This again points to the antichrist being the representative or embodiment of the devil upon earth. The horns mean power, and the fact that there are ten horns means a confederated power of ten nations. He will be the political head over ten nations. Horns, of course, pierce, rip, and tear in the most fierce and vicious way. The picture is that of a confederation of ten nations that will be frightening and strike terror in the hearts of the world.
3. The antichrist wears ten crowns upon his ten horns. Crowns, of course, mean authority and power: he will be the leader and ruler of these ten nations. He will hold the reigns of power and authority over the confederation of ten nations, nations that are pictured as so frightening that they are called the horns of beasts, horns that are able to rip and tear open the heart and bodies of other nations and people.
4. The antichrist will have ten blasphemous names on his seven heads. This means that his blasphemy against God and believers and against the people of the world will be complete. He will be the very fulfillment and embodiment of blasphemy.
 - ⇒ He will be the abomination of desolation who will stand in the very holy place of the temple in Jerusalem and blaspheme the name of God. He will demand that people give their first loyalty to the state.

“When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand)” (Mt.24:15).

- ⇒ He will be the man of sin who opposes all religions, all that is called God and that is worshipped.

“Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God” (2 Th.2:4).

⇒ He will speak great and boastful and terrible words against the most high.

“And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time” (Dan.7:25).

⇒ He will demand that all worship him and his state.

“And they worshipped the dragon [Satan] which gave power unto the beast [antichrist]: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?” (Rev.13:4).

5. The antichrist will combine and embody three of the world’s most powerful empires, that is, empires that had conquered and controlled most of the known world of their day. This is what is meant by his being like three animals: the leopard, bear, and lion. The picture being painted is that he will embody all the desire and lust for power, all the characteristics and traits of these three empires. Imagine! Take all the lust for power that existed within three of the greatest empires to rule the known world and combine that lust for power in one leader and government. The intensity of so much lust for power will be such a driving force that it will reek havoc and horror all over the world. No nation will be spared from the fright and terror of such a drive and lust for power. Who are the three empires that will be wrapped up in the beast? Note that the antichrist is said...

- to look like a leopard
- to have feet like a bear
- to have a mouth like a lion

What world empires do these animals represent? And what are the traits that will characterize the antichrist? (See DEEPER STUDY # 1—Rev.13:2 for chart and discussion.)

DEEPER STUDY # 1

(13:2) Antichrist—Daniel, Visions of—End Time—Rome, Revived Roman Empire: the antichrist will possess the characteristics and traits of three world empires and he shall arise from a fourth and possess those characteristics as well. What four empires—world empires—will be wrapped up in him? The visions of Daniel will tell us. The following chart shows us how the visions in Daniel match John’s vision in Revelation. They are both talking about the end time and the power the antichrist and his government will have in the end time. Note how Daniel definitely says that the first government empire is the empire of Babylon. It is only natural, therefore, to understand the following empires as the next four world-wide empires to appear in history. This will become clear as the visions are studied in the following chart. Note four significant points.

1) THERE ARE THE VISIONS OR DREAMS IN DANIEL THAT MATCH THE VISION OF JOHN IN REVELATION

There Was Nebuchadnezzar’s Dream of the Great Image

There was Daniel’s Dream of the Four Beasts

There was John’s Vision of the Combined World Empire of the Antichrist

Note the four metals of the Great Image:

Note the four great beasts:

Note the four great beasts:

- ⇒ gold
- ⇒ silver
- ⇒ bronze
- ⇒ iron

- ⇒ lion
- ⇒ bear
- ⇒ leopard
- ⇒ a beast—dreadful, terrible, and strong

- ⇒ leopard
- ⇒ bear
- ⇒ lion
- ⇒ the beast of the antichrist who combines all the others

“Thou, O king, sawest, and behold a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the form thereof was terrible. This image’s head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass, His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay” (Dan.2:31-33).

“In the first year of Belshaz-zar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters. Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea. And four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another” (Dan.7:1-3).

“And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy. And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority” (Rev.13:1-2).

2) THERE IS THE INTERPRETATION OF THE IMAGE AND THE FOUR BEASTS IN DANIEL THAT MATCH THE COMBINED WORLD EMPIRES OF THE ANTICHRIST

The Interpretation of the Image

The head of gold is the first world empire: Babylon under Nebuchadnezzar.

“This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king. Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory. And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given unto thine hand, and hath made three ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold” (Dan.2:36-38).

The silver is the second world empire: Medo-Persia (cp. Dan.8:20).

“And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee” (Dan.2:38^a).

The bronze is the third world empire: Greece (cp. Dan.8:21).

“Another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth” (Dan.2:39^b).

The iron is the fourth world empire: Rome (cp. Dan.9:26).

“And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things [all the other kingdoms]: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise [all the other kingdoms]” (Dan.2:40).

The Interpretation of the Four Beasts

The lion is the first world empire: Babylon.

“The first was like a lion, and had eagle’s wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man’s heart was given to it” (Dan.7:4).

The bear is the second world empire: Medo-Persia.

“And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh” (Dan.7:5; cp. Dan.8:20).

The leopard is the third world empire: Greece (cp. Dan.8:21-22; 10:20; 11:2-4).

“After this I beheld, and lo another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it” (Dan.7:6).

The dreadful, terrible, and strong beast is the fourth world empire: Rome (cp. Dan.7:23-24; 9:26).

“After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it, and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns” (Dan.7:7).

The Interpretation of the Combined World Empires of the Antichrist

The antichrist will combine the traits of the lion: Babylon.

“And the beast [had a] mouth as the mouth of a lion” (Rev.13:1-2).

The antichrist will combine the traits of the bear: Medo-Persia.

“And the beast [had] feet as the feet of a bear” (Rev.13:1-2).

The antichrist will combine the traits of the leopard: Greece.

“And the beast was like unto a leopard” (Rev.13:1-2).

The antichrist will be as the iron and the terrible beast with the ten horns, that is, Rome. He will combine all the traits of Rome.

“And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy” (Rev.13:1).

3) THERE IS THE INTERPRETATION OF THE TEN TOES OF THE IMAGE AND OF THE TEN HORNS OF THE FOURTH BEAST THAT MATCH THE COMBINED WORLD EMPIRE OF THE ANTICHRIST

The Interpretation of the Ten Toes of the Image

The ten toes are part iron and part clay. They cannot mix; the Roman empire falls apart. But it is part iron, so certain parts of it can survive and revive.

“And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters’ clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay. And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken. And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay” (Dan.2:41-43).

The idea is that certain elements and traits of the Roman empire will survive. Then later on in history the traits will revive with the seed of man. But these elements and traits will not mix to bring the perfect world or government.

The Interpretation of the Ten Horns of the Dreadful, Terrible, and Strong Beast

The ten horns give rise to a little horn that conquers and rules three of the ten horns. The little horn is a man who arises to power by conquering these three nations.

“I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things” (Dan.7:8).

The idea is that a leader will arise from a “little horn,” a small nation, and conquer three nations. Then the other seven nations will willingly submit to him and join him in his blasphemy of God and mankind.

The Interpretation of the Dreadful, Terrible, and Strong Beast of Revelation

The antichrist will have seven heads and ten horns and ten crowns, and seven heads that will be full of blasphemy.

“And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy” (Rev.13:1).

The idea is that the antichrist will be the head of seven heads or governments, that he will have ten horns, the power of ten governments. He will have conquered three governments himself (Dan.7:8). All seven heads of state and the ten governments under him will blaspheme the name of God.

4) THERE ARE THE TRAITS OF THE METALS, OF THE IMAGE, AND OF THE FOUR BEASTS THAT MATCH THE COMBINED TRAITS OF THE ANTICHRIST

The Traits of the Metals of the Image or of Its Empires

Gold:

⇒ is valuable and desired

...which means that...

⇒ has a high lustre that attracts & appeals to man

...which means that...

⇒ is extremely inactive, that is, it is unaffected by nature: air, heat, and moisture

...which means that...

⇒ hold’s heat and electricity; it is a volatile energy when pressed

...which means that...

The Antichrist Will Combine All the Traits of the Four Empires

⇒ the antichrist will be desired by the world.

⇒ the antichrist will be attractive and appealing to the world.

⇒ the antichrist will be unfeeling and unaffected by the sufferings of the environment and of people.

⇒ the antichrist will be volatile, wrathful, vengeful.

Silver:
⇒ is malleable and easily beaten into all shapes and forms	...which means that...	⇒ The antichrist will have great ability to compromise and give and take
⇒ is easily tarnished	...which means that...	⇒ The antichrist will be easily corrupted.
⇒ is the most superior of all metals in conducting heat and electricity	...which means that...	⇒ The antichrist will be a strong commentator, able to pass on his ideas and wrath to others.
Bronze:
⇒ harder than most common alloys (except steel)	...which means that...	⇒ He will be hard and indifferent to others.
⇒ strongly resistant (often used in bearings, fittings, etc.)	...which means that...	⇒ He will resist and stand against opponents, strongly so.
Iron:
⇒ is easily magnetized	...which means that...	⇒ He will have a magnetic appeal; people and nations will willingly follow him.
⇒ is easily combined with other metals	...which means that...	⇒ He will be able to combine others into a confederation of states, one world government.

The Traits of the Four Beasts

The lion.	The antichrist will have a mouth like a lion:
	⇒ A ferocious roar that will sweep worldwide and will shout blasphemies that will strike fear in both nations and people
	⇒ Sharp teeth that will drive deep into the flesh of the world, tearing, chewing, and eating up the nations and peoples of the world
The bear.	The antichrist will have feet like a bear:
	⇒ Big and tough feet that will cover a large area and pursue its prey of people and nations without giving up
	⇒ Strong claws that grip the prey of nations and people without letting them go and possessing the power to rip them apart
The leopard.	The antichrist will have a body like a leopard:
	⇒ Sleek and beautiful and attractive, a nature that appeals to the nations and people of the world.
	⇒ Full of spots that symbolize an evil, sneaky, ferocious, and wild nature
The dreadful and terrible and strong beast.	The antichrist will combine all the traits of the old Roman empire.

3 (13:2-3) Antichrist: there is the dramatic rise to power by the antichrist. There will be two reasons for this dramatic rise.

1. The dragon, that is, supernatural spiritual forces, will be at work. That great spiritual force, Satan himself, is going to propel the antichrist into power. The antichrist is going to be willing to give himself completely over to this world, completely over to secular and humanistic society. He will give himself over to seeking the power, fame, wealth, possessions, and pleasures of this world. He is going to give himself completely to doing all the evil imaginable. But note: there will be a vast difference between his evil and the evil of other men. When we do evil, we do it on a personal and small scale, or if we are a world leader on a larger national basis. The worst examples of secularism, worldliness, and evil ever witnessed have been mad leaders such as Hitler and Stalin. But the worldliness and evil of the antichrist will be intensified; it will be far worse. His evil will blow across the face of many more nations and people. His evil will cover the world. Just imagine a Hitler or a Stalin with the power to launch their evil all over the world. How will one man ever get that much power? We will see the details in a later note. But behind the scenes, behind what people can see with the naked eye, there lies Satan. Satan is going to embody the man. The man, the antichrist, is going to make an alliance with the devil. He is going to give himself totally over to do the works of Satan. He is going to be so committed to evil that Scripture says that he will actually come out of the “bottomless pit,” which means that he will either come from Satan himself or else be filled with an evil spirit straight out of the bottomless pit. Remember: this was pointed out earlier (Rev.11:7). Note that Satan is going to do these things for the antichrist.

- a. Satan will give the antichrist his power
 - ⇒ the power of inner strength and energy and spirit
 - ⇒ the power of personality
 - ⇒ the power of ability, persuasion, and influence
 - ⇒ the power of force and might
 - b. Satan will give the antichrist his seat, that is, his throne, his government. Satan will give the antichrist just what he offered Christ: the governments of the world (cp. Mt.4:8-10).
 - c. Satan will give the antichrist his authority; that is, he will give him complete authority, dictatorial rule and command and influence. He will give the antichrist the greatest power and rule ever known in the world.
2. The antichrist will be healed from a mortal wound. It is important to see what is being said here. The mortal wound to the antichrist is mentioned three times in this chapter and also elsewhere in Revelation.

“And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast” (Rev.13:3).

“...[the second beast] causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed” (Rev.13:12).

“...[the second beast says to] them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live” (Rev.13:14).

“The beast that thou sawest was, and is not [assassinated]; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is [raised]” (Rev.17:8).

“And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth [ruler], and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition” (Rev.17:11).

There are three possible interpretations of this.

- a. The death of the beast refers to the political death of the Roman empire. Remember the Roman empire was the beast who had feet of iron and clay mixed. But the iron empire could not last because it had clay mixed in with it. Therefore, it was doomed to crumble and be divided. However, the iron continues on; that is, some of the traits and elements continue on in the world. Therefore in the end time, the old Roman empire will be revived and the spirit of Rome will dominate the world once again.
- b. The antichrist will actually be the return of some evil ruler who has lived in past history. The devil will raise him up and send him back to earth (cp. Rev.17:11).
- c. The mortal wound is an assassination attempt or some accident that happens to the antichrist, probably at the beginning of his rule. The false prophet (the second beast) performs a miracle and heals the antichrist. Remember: the false prophet will have the power to perform some outstanding miracles. It will be these miracles that will help him to gain credibility and the support of the masses of the world. This possibility sounds reasonable in light of what is said about the false prophet.

“And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live” (Rev.13:14).

Now, which of these interpretations is correct? It is difficult to see how either one could be true without the other. A government has to have a leader, and a leader has to have a government. Daniel’s prophecy definitely says that the antichrist is going to arise from the crumbled Roman empire and combine the traits of it and the other worldwide governments of ancient history. This is clearly pointed out in the visions of the image and the beast, and it is clearly pointed out in this vision of John when it is compared with Daniel. Again, a quick study of the chart shows this (see DEEPER STUDY # 1—Rev.13:2). And as stated, the healing of the antichrist from a mortal wound seems to be what Scripture is saying (Rev.13:14).

The antichrist is to rule over the final government of the earth. Man’s dream of a one world government will become a reality. But the government will have a leader, one man who will be emperor, king, or president, whatever the world will call him. Note that Scripture also points this out.

⇒ The antichrist will be cast into the lake of fire. Nations and empires are not cast into the lake of fire, people are.

“And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone” (Rev.19:20).

⇒ The antichrist is said to be a man.

“Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition” (2 Th.2:3).

⇒ The antichrist will stand in the temple of God in Jerusalem and proclaim himself as God. A nation cannot do this; only a man can do this.

“When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand)” (Mt.24:15).

“Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God” (2 Th.2:4).

⇒ The antichrist will come as a false leader even as other antichrists have come as false leaders.

“Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time” (1 Jn.2:18).

We could go on and on with the Scriptures showing how they pile evidence upon evidence that the antichrist will be a man and not only a revival of great empires of the past. As stated earlier, the great empires will be revived and embodied or combined into one political government. But that government will be headed up and led by one leader or one head of state, the head of state whom the Bible calls the antichrist.

4 (13:4-8) Antichrist—World—End Time: there is the means of securing world government. There are nine methods listed in this passage that the antichrist will use.

1. The antichrist will secure power because of the worldly and ungodly living of people (v.4). Note the statement about the people who live in the end time: “they worshipped the dragon,” that is, the devil. To worship the devil means to walk in the way of sin and evil and ungodliness, not just what modern man calls devil worship and witchcraft. In the last days people will become more and more sinful, worldly, evil, and ungodly. They will become more and more secular and humanistic.

“[They] repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk: neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts” (Rev.9:20-21).

“This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away” (2 Tim.3:1-5).

“But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived” (2 Tim.3:13).

2. The antichrist will secure power by personal ability and appeal (v. 4^b). They worship the beast and say “who is like unto the beast?” By worship is meant loyalty and allegiance. The antichrist will...

- be full of knowledge
- be an unusual genius
- be intelligent
- have unbelievable insight
- be magnetic
- have supreme charisma
- be a wonder to behold in ability and appeal

Remember: the world will be undergoing catastrophic disaster after disaster such as earthquakes and famine. In addition, there will be an enormous increase and intensification of wars and rumors of wars, military brush fires, uprisings, and terrorists attacks. On top of this will be the increasing sin and evil, drugs and immoralities raging across the world. The last days are anything but a pleasant picture. But the truth has to be faced, and we can see the trend by the way the societies of the world are deteriorating. Even the world leaders recognize their inability to stop the onrushing mad trend of lawlessness. Therefore, sometime in the future, when a certain leader comes upon the scene, and he has the answer to some of the problems, the people of the world will be ready to listen. They will exclaim: “Who is like unto this man.” They will readily give their allegiance and loyalty to him. There will be a movement among the citizenry of the world toward him even as the citizens of Europe moved toward a more democratic government in the 1990's. The citizens will demand that their government leaders listen and follow this man who seems to have the answers.

⇒ All the world will wonder and be amazed and admire the beast.

“And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast” (Rev.13:3).

⇒ He will be full of ability and understanding.

“And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads” (Rev.13:1). (The number seven means complete ability and wisdom.)

“And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences [understanding mysteries, able to solve problems], shall stand up” (Dan.8:23).

3. The antichrist will secure power by military and economic strength (v.4). At first when he enters upon the world scene, he and his government will conquer three nations and he will completely absorb those three nations into his. Then seven others will subject to his rule and government peacefully. He will then be powerful, a mighty government with which the rest of the world has to contend. He will be so powerful that the Scriptures describe him as a beast with seven heads (governments) and ten horns (nations) over which he rules. The governments over which he rules will be some of the nations of the Middle East and of Europe and their great reservoirs of wealth. The nations under his control will be so wealthy and militarily strong that people will ask: “Who is able to make war with him?” Who is able to stop him militarily?

“I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things” (Dan.7:8).

The antichrist will apparently have under his authority the strongest military machine the world has ever known. And people will know it. Therefore, nation after nation will give their allegiance and loyalty to him. They will peacefully surrender to him. Keep in mind other prophecies that tell us that he will be able to bring peace and safety to the earth for a while. Few, if any, will be able to make war or to rebel under the control of his government.

⇒ Other nations will fear him.

“Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?” (Rev.13:4).

⇒ He will control enormous amounts of money and wealth.

“But in his estate shall he honor the God of forces [the state, imperial worship]: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honor with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things....But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps” (Dan.11:38, 43).

⇒ He can set up rulers and leaders as he likes.

“And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast. These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast. These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful. And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues. And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire. For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled” (Rev.17:12-17).

“Thus shall he do in the most strongholds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for gain” (Dan.11:39).

4. The antichrist will secure power through speech, oratory, persuasion, and blasphemy (v.5). He will have a mouth that can speak great things. He will offer hope to a world that is facing catastrophe after catastrophe and that is crumbling under unsolved problems of drug addiction, alcoholism, famine, disease, homelessness, terrorist actions, and war. He will be able to bring peace and come up with some solutions to some of the problems. He will appear to be the savior of mankind. Remember: he will be strong enough militarily to bring peace to the smaller nations of the world that are so often suffering uprisings and terrorists actions. And he will be extremely wealthy, ruling so many nations with wealth that he can help solve some of the economic problems of the world mentioned above.

“But in his estate shall he honor the God of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honor with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things” (Dan.11:38).

“But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps” (Dan.11:43).

5. The antichrist will secure power for three and one half years (v.5). He will be able to offer the world peace and prosperity for three and one half years. But note: his power is not his own. It is a given power, a power given to him by Satan.

“And power was given unto him to continue forty and two months” (Rev.13:5^b).

6. The antichrist will secure power through atheism and humanism (v.6). He will reject and deny God, and openly blaspheme God. And he will do it in the famous Jewish temple (to be rebuilt) in the most famous religious city of the world, Jerusalem. The thing to note is his atheistic and humanistic belief. He will live and proclaim what man wants to hear in a scientific and technological world, a world that wants all the pleasure and possessions it can experience. He will push the philosophy of man and the state, that man and the state are the ultimate in life—that man can solve his own problems. And many in the world will applaud what he is able to achieve in peace and in the economy of the world. They will gladly follow him in his idolatrous worship of the state and blasphemy of God. (See pts.2,3—Rev.18:2-7 for more discussion.)

“And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time” (Dan.7:25).

“And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvelous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done” (Dan.11:36).

“And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven” (Rev.13:6).

7. The antichrist will secure power through religious persecution (v.7. See notes—Rev.7:13-14; 11:1; 11:2; 11:3-13 for discussion.)

“Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God” (2 Th.2:4).

“After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands....And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they? And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation [martyred by the antichrist], and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb” (Rev.7:9, 13-14).

“And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them” (Rev.14:13).

“And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God. And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints. Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest” (Rev.15:2-4).

“I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them” (Dan.7:21).

“And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate” (Dan.9:27).

“Also I in the first year of Darius the Mede, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him. And now will I show thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grecia” (Dan.11:1-2).

“But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail” (Dan.11:7).

“And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and swore by him that liveth for ever that it shall be for a time, times, and a half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished” (Dan.12:7).

“And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations” (Rev.13:7).

“And he hath power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed” (Rev.13:15).

8. The antichrist will secure power through conquering many nations (v.7). He shall be able to extend his power over every tribe and people and language and nation. Note the word every. How will he gain world authority? Some by war and military might, but most nations will most likely follow willingly and peacefully—offer their allegiance and loyalty—to a government...

- that can definitely protect them and assure peace.
- that can help them with great economic aid.

Thought 1. America’s ability to do this is one example. Many nations willingly follow and are loyal to this great nation for these very reasons. However, in the end time, the picture is that the antichrist will offer to do even more. Keep in mind that he will control many of the nations of the Middle East and of Europe—nations that are so rich, both in oil and other products and resources. Remember also: oil is an absolute essential to all the economies of the world. Nations and people will do anything for oil and its wealth. This is certainly one way the antichrist could demand and gain control over the nations and peoples of the earth. This is especially true if he was to appear benevolent and to offer peace and aid to a world devastated by natural disasters, social ills, and human suffering.

“I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn [the antichrist], before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things” (Dan.7:8).

“He shall enter also in the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon. He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape” (Dan.11:41-42; cp. Ezk. chapters 38-39).

“Power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations” (Rev.13:7).

9. The antichrist will secure power through imperial worship (v.8^a). All the ungodly and evil people upon earth shall worship him. This points toward worship of the state in the end time. Just think of the vast numbers of people with so many different languages and cultures involved in a world government. Some unifying principle, some common spirit, will be needed to hold the people together. This principle, this spirit, will be wrapped up in the government and leader of the government (the antichrist). Remember: he and his government will bring peace and economic help to the world, and will have solutions to some of the problems raging within society. The antichrist and his government will be represented, honored, and worshipped far more than any emperor of Rome or any Hitler, Mussolini, or any other leader in past history. It will be a small step from the honor of the people over to being idolized by the people. In order to keep and hold the world together, the antichrist and his government will institute the same thing the old Roman empire did: the worship of the state. Every citizen will be required to honor and give his first loyalty and allegiance to the state. The people may possibly be allowed to worship their own gods as well, but the state will demand the first loyalty. Keep in mind that the state (the antichrist) will be the central thing to the people of the world, the very thing that brought them peace and prosperity. The antichrist, of course, sits at the top of the state and all attention focuses upon him as the god of might and provision.

Remember: the worship of the state will probably be launched in the middle of the tribulation period. At that time, the antichrist will enter Jerusalem and march into the temple and declare that he and his state are to be the first objects of worship (gods). Whatever the case and whatever happens, Scripture definitely says that the antichrist will be worshipped, that is, given the first loyalty by the people of the earth. (See note—Rev.13:13-17 for more discussion.)

“When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand)” (Mt.24:15).

“Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God” (2 Th.2:4).

“Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?” (Rev.13:4).

“And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world” (Rev.13:8).

“And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed....And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live” (Rev.13:12, 14).

“And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, the same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: and the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name” (Rev.14:9-11).

“And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image” (Rev.16:2).

“And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvelous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done” (Dan.11:36).

5 (13:8-10) Antichrist: there are the adversaries of the antichrist, the true believers. True believers will not worship the antichrist. Every believer can be loyal and can support his government fully, one hundred per cent. But no true believer can give his first loyalty to anyone other than to God. Therefore, true believers will not worship the antichrist nor his state. Note four statements made about the believers, the adversaries to the antichrist.

1. They are secure in the Lamb’s book of life (see notes, pt.2^p—Rev.3:4-6; 5:6-7.)

2. They are the hearers of this message, the people who heed the warning of the judgment to come and who repent and turn to the Lord Jesus Christ.

3. They are the ones who know that God truly judges the evil and ungodly. The true believer knows...

- that if he leads others into captivity (whether of sin or prison), he himself shall be led into captivity.
- that if he murders, he shall be judged by God and put to death eternally.

The true believer knows that God judges and that His judgment is just—that we reap exactly what we sow. Therefore, the true believer repents of sin and turns to follow God. True believers are the ones who will be the adversaries to the antichrist.

4. The true believer is steadfast and loyal to the faith. The true believer will be easily known in the end time. He will be the person standing fast for Christ. There will be doves denying Christ, but there will also be millions turning to him, an innumerable number (Rev.7:9). The Spirit of God will be as active as He has ever been. He will infuse believers with the strength to stand fast for Christ. As a result millions will be martyred in the worst holocaust in human history. The scene will be both tragic and glorious at the same time. For many will be giving one of the strongest testimonies ever given for Christ: they will be suffering persecution, but standing fast in their faith for Christ.

“And ye shall be hated of all men for my name’s sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved” (Mt.10:22).

“Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord” (1 Cor.15:58).

“Blessed is the man that endureth temptation [trial]: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him” (Jas.1:12).

“Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ” (1 Pt.1:13).

“For this is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully” (1 Pt.2:19).

“Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: whom resist steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world” (1 Pt.5:8-9).

“Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness” (2 Pt.3:17).

“Behold, I come quickly; hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown” (Rev.3:11).

DIVISION VII

THE SEVENTH TRUMPET IN DETAIL (PART II):
THE WAR OF THE DRAGON UPON THE EARTH, 13:1-18

B. The Attack Through the Second Beast: A False Prophet, 13:11-18

(13:11-18) Introduction: zeal, devotion, allegiance, loyalty, dedication—there is a desire within man to commit his life to something. Every person, no matter who he is, must have something that interests and motivates him, something that stirs him to arise in the morning and function and move and act throughout the day—something about which he can speak with excitement and commitment. It may be a job, family, school, sport, girlfriend, car, house, land, money, or power. Man has to have something to drive and motivate him, something to which he can devote himself and give his loyalty.

The great problem facing a world government—the government that will embrace every nation and people on earth, the government of the antichrist—is this: How do you get everyone on earth to be loyal to the government? Think of all the tribes, languages, peoples, and nations upon earth.

- ⇒ What can bring them all together?
- ⇒ What can be used to bind their loyalty and allegiance to the state?
- ⇒ What unifying principle, what unifying spirit can be found to focus the support of the people for the government?

This will be the problem facing the antichrist and his government in the end time. But remember the chaotic mess of the world in the last days: there will be natural disaster after natural disaster. Earthquakes, violent storms, and famine will be sweeping the earth in record numbers unparalleled in human history. There will be diseases and pestilences unheard of. In addition, nation after nation will be wrecked with war and rumors of war and violent overthrowing of governments and terrorist actions. Then there is the sinful and evil behavior of man. There will be an enormous increase in drugs, assaults, murders, rapes, immorality, divorce, stealing, witchcraft, and on and on. The world will be in a chaotic upheaval. There will be a social crisis all over the world. People will be frantic for some answers, for some leader to appear on the scene who can help and bring some order.

There will be such a man—the beast, the antichrist. This was the discussion of the former passage. But note this passage: the antichrist is going to have help. There is a second beast, a beast who is going to help the antichrist find the unifying principle to hold the loyalty of the people. This second beast will understand the spirit of man, that man must have something to which he can be devoted, something to which he can be attached. The second beast will give the antichrist that something, that devotion—the very thing that will hold the people of the world together. This second beast will become the worldwide spokesman and propoganda chief for the antichrist. He will become the right hand man of the antichrist. This is the second beast that will attack the earth and its people in the last days, the false prophet.

1. His origin and description (v.11).
2. His objective: to secure the loyalty and allegiance of the world for the antichrist and his state (v.12).
3. His means of securing loyalty and devotion (v.13-17).
4. His number, 666 (v.18).

1 (13:11) Prophet of Revelation, False—Beast of Revelation, Second: there is the origin and description of the second beast.

1. He comes out of the earth. This means that he comes out from among the common people of the earth. He will be from among the masses, yet he will hold a high office and be the second most powerful man in the government of the last days. This will, of course, give him a strong identity with the masses of the earth. It will help him wield influence and secure their support for the programs of the antichrist and his government.

2. He appears to be a lamb, for he only has two horns like a little lamb. No person is ever afraid of a little lamb. There is nothing about this beast that seems wild or evil. The little lamb symbolizes at least three things.

- a. This beast will appear innocent, harmless, mild, meek, attractive, and lovable. Most people will be attracted to him; no one will fear him. There will be absolutely nothing about his appearance to frighten anyone. People will be pulled to him and want to touch and embrace him just as onlookers feel pulled toward a little lamb.
- b. This beast will appear to be a follower of the Lord Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God. He will appear to be one of God's little lambs or sheep. That is, he will be a religious leader. Just like a lamb, he will appear to be religiously clean, free from evil and violence and wrong and ungodliness. He will appear to represent the Lord Jesus Christ and peace and love and joy. People will think that he can do no wrong, or at least not any serious wrong.
- c. This beast will speak as a dragon. His voice is going to betray him. What he has to say will reveal that he is not a prophet of God, but a false prophet.
 - ⇒ He will not be teaching God's Word, but the word of the antichrist and state.
 - ⇒ He will not be speaking the truth; he will be speaking a lie.
 - ⇒ He will not be the spokesman for God, but the spokesman for the government of the antichrist.
 - ⇒ He will not be speaking for people to support God, but for people to support the civil power.
 - ⇒ He will not be promoting the Lord Jesus Christ; he will be promoting the policies of the antichrist.

The second beast will become the spokesman, the great motivator of the masses for the antichrist. He will be the person who will come up with the unifying principle, the motivational spirit that will hold the loyalty of the people to the antichrist and his state.

Note this: we know that he will be a religious leader, for after this passage he is called the false prophet whenever he is mentioned (Rev.16:13; 19:20; 20:10). Keep this in mind: he will hold the second highest position of authority in the world. The antichrist will promote him to be second in command, to be the chief executive officer of the government. But note his origin and background: he comes from religion, from Christianity itself. He is a prophet, a priest, a minister who professes to be a follower and teacher of the Lord Jesus Christ.

“For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly [appetites]; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple” (Ro.16:18).

“For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the minister of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works” (2 Cor.11:13-15).

“This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves...having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof...[and] evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived” (2 Tim.3:1-2, 5, 13).

“For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist” (2 Jn.7).

2 (13:12) Prophet of Revelation, False—Beast of Revelation, Second: there is the objective of the second beast or false prophet. His objective is to secure the devotion, loyalty, and allegiance of the world to the antichrist and his government. Note two most significant points.

1. This second beast will exercise all the power of the antichrist. The antichrist will give the false prophet the right to speak and act for him. When he speaks and acts, he will do it with the full authority and power of the throne. He will be the chief executive officer of the antichrist, the second in command, the chief of staff, the full representative of the antichrist.

2. But remember: this beast is a prophet, a prominent religious leader. He comes from the root of Christianity and from the church. He is either a minister or a priest. He will represent the Lamb of God, the Lord Jesus Christ. But the antichrist notices him and entices him to use his religious position and influence for the state. This means a significant thing. It means that the false prophet...

- will hold some high position in religion.
- will be very influential and probably already known by many in the world.
- will be very charismatic, able to effectively speak and communicate with people face to face, in meetings and in mass, over television and radio or whatever visual and sound media will exist in that day. This would be the only conceivable way he could mobilize support from around the world.

Now, what is the objective of the false prophet? To secure the devotion, loyalty, and allegiance to the antichrist and his state. As stated in the introduction, the end time government will have to come up with some way to hold the support of the people of the world, people with so many diverse backgrounds and cultures, needs and wants. This will be the objective of this beast, of the false prophet. He will become a part of the civil government, of the state itself...

- He will use his high office in religion to rally people to support the antichrist and the state.
- He will focus worship, that is, the devotion and loyalty of people upon the antichrist and his state.
- He will do what he can to lead people to be loyal and devoted to the state and its leader, the antichrist.

This may seem repetitive, but it is essential to see the objective of the false prophet. In the end time, the government and its leader, the antichrist, will have to solve the problem about how to hold the support of so many diverse people throughout the world. A worldwide religion—one great spirit focused upon the government and its leader—will be the answer. Everyone in the world will be expected to give his first loyalty and allegiance to the state and the antichrist. Everyone's second loyalty and allegiance may perhaps be given to any religion of their choice, but their first loyalty will have to be to the state and its leader, the state and leader that has brought peace to the world and provided so much for the people of the world.

3 (13:13-17) Prophet of Revelation, False—Beast of Revelation, Second: there is the means of securing the loyalty and devotion of the people of the earth. The false prophet will use four things to secure the people's loyalty.

1. The false prophet will deceive people with great miraculous signs, especially with fire (v.13). The false prophet will face a problem: How can he possibly convince the masses of the world that God will understand their act of showing loyalty and allegiance to the state? That God would approve an occasional act of worship and expression of devotion to the state and its leader? There will be only one way: the false prophet must prove that he is truly of God, that he has the approval of God in preparing the new worship. How can he prove his credentials, prove that he and his proposal for a new worship are of God? By signs, miraculous signs. Remember: the two great witnesses of God—the witnesses who will be in Jerusalem preaching the gospel—will be able to work miracles and to call fire down from heaven. The idea is that this miracle will cause people to fear them long enough to keep the government from killing them, at least for three and one half years (Rev.11:3-13). This miracle will be duplicated by the false prophet. The devil will empower the false prophet to duplicate the miracle. People will then think that the false prophet is a true prophet, as much a prophet of God as the two witnesses in Jerusalem. Just what the miracle involves is never said, but the idea is that it will be awe-inspiring and assure the people of the earth that the false prophet is definitely a prophet of God and is speaking for God. Therefore, whatever he suggests must be acceptable to God. Think how believable he will be if the mortal wound to the antichrist (some assassination attempt) is actually healed by the false prophet (Rev.13:3). To the masses of the world both the antichrist and the false prophet will look like the next thing to God Himself. The masses will be ready to follow the declaration of the false prophet, ready to worship or occasionally to show their support and loyalty to the antichrist and the state.

The point is this: the false prophet will prove that he and his declarations are ex cathedra, of God, by performing miracles. This is one way he will deceive and gather the support of the world's masses.

2. The false prophet will use universal religion to secure the loyalty of the people (v.14-15). This is what the Scripture has been building up to, the worship of the antichrist and his state. We must remember that the worship of the state and its leader is not a far-fetched idea. In every generation there are dictators and leaders of government who insist upon the first loyalty and allegiance of the nation's citizens. Religion is subjected to the state and expected to support the state totally or else it and its followers are persecuted and often killed. Of course, each of these is on a small scale compared to the whole world; nevertheless, they provide a small scale example of what the end time world government will do under the antichrist.

An even better example is the old Roman empire. Rome instituted the worship of the state and emperor as the unifying principle to hold the people of the vast empire together. William Barclay has an excellent discussion of this that shows how easily the situation can arise. This is especially true in light of the fact that it has already been done on somewhat of a worldwide scale. The leaders of the end time government will certainly not be ignorant of history. They will know exactly what Rome did, and the history lesson will not fall on deaf ears. In fact, Scripture teaches that the government of the end time will be a revival of the old Roman government; that is, the end time government will have many of the traits and characteristics of the old Roman empire.

But more important than any of these factors, there will be one thing above all others that will stir a universal worship of the antichrist and his state. What is it? The peace and economic recovery the antichrist will bring to the earth. The political unrest and economic crises and chaotic mess of the world in the end time will be ready-made for a leader with some answers. As stated in the introduction to this passage (what is said in the introduction to this outline is being repeated here because of its importance to this note):

“Remember the chaotic mess of the world in the last days. There will be natural disaster after natural disaster: earthquakes, violent storms, and famine will be sweeping the earth in record numbers, unparalleled in human history. There will be diseases and pestilences unheard of. In addition, nation after nation will be wrecked with war and rumors of war and violent overthrowing of governments and terrorist actions. Then there is the sinful and evil behavior of man. There will be an enormous increase in drugs, assaults, murders, rapes, immorality, divorce, stealing witchcraft, and on and on. The world will be in a chaotic upheaval. There will be a social crisis all over the world. People will be frantic for some answers, for some leader to appear on the scene who can help and bring some order.”

The antichrist will be that man. Remember how he arose from a small nation, from the East. He conquers three nations and then seven willingly come under his rule. He will at long last bring peace to that area of the world and possess enormous wealth and one of the largest military machines the world has ever seen. Somehow, some way, he will be able to propose some solutions to some of the problems of the world and to offer peace; and he will be made the supreme chief of some organization that has enormous influence. From that post he will be able to maneuver and make power plays to secure more and more power. And all the time his idea and program for world peace and economic prosperity will be succeeding. He will be so successful that people will begin to say: “Who is like the beast? Who is able to match him or to oppose him?” (cp. Rev.13:3). The point is this: the antichrist will bring peace and prosperity to the earth, and the people will be thankful and hold him in the highest of honor and esteem. They will be willing to follow his policies and programs.

Now, note something: note how all this focuses upon the antichrist and his government, upon who he is and what he can do for the people and the world. This alone borders on adulation and worship. It is close to what he and the state will want: the constant and permanent loyalty of the people to the state. The government and antichrist will have to seal the loyalty of the people; they will have to come up with some way to assure the people's continued support.

This is where the second beast comes in; this is where the idea of the universal religion enters. All the antichrist and the state need is for the people to show every so often that they do support and give their first loyalty to the state. Rome had the people make only one act of worship a year, and when they bowed in worship to the state before some local authority, the people were given a certificate to show that they so honored the state. Now with this as background to show us how it can easily happen in the end time, note two points.

- a. The universal worship will center around an image to the beast. The false prophet will suggest that the people of the world make an image of the beast. Note two Scriptures, the first from Christ Himself:

“When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation [the antichrist], spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand)” (Mt.24:15).

“Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God” (2 Th.2:3-4).

The temple of God is the temple of the Jews at Jerusalem. It is prophesied that it will be rebuilt in the end time. The false prophet will convince the people...

- that the world has been blessed with the peace and economic recovery wrought by the antichrist.
- that the antichrist is the one who is bringing the utopian kingdom to earth, the utopian society where there is going to be perfect peace; and he is the one who is solving the problems of society and providing plenty of food and housing and jobs for everyone.
- that every one needs to show their support and loyalty to the utopian state that the antichrist has wrought.
- that the only way to keep the movement going and continuing is for everyone to honor the state and give their first loyalty and allegiance to the state.
- that the best way to show one’s loyalty is to have an image of the state (symbolized in its leader, the antichrist) in the great religious center of the world, and then on a local basis to have everyone express their loyalty (worship) to the state before some state authority. Of course, the person would receive some certificate showing that he had expressed his first loyalty to the antichrist and his government.

The false prophet will have to convince the world and its masses that a state religion—symbolized in the leader of the state—is the best way to keep the utopian state continuing. And he will be successful, for this passage says that the prophecy of Christ given above will come about. The false prophet will set up the image to the beast of the antichrist and his government, and he will set it up in the temple of God.

“And he hath power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed” (Rev.13:15).

“And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, the same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: and the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name” (Rev.14:9-11).

“And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God” (Rev.15:2).

“And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image” (Rev.16:2).

“And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone” (Rev.19:20).

“And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years” (Rev.20:4).

- b. But note a second thing as well: the universal worship will center around some supernatural power that will enable the beast to speak (v.15). Just as there are all kinds of shrines and places where miracles are supposed to have happened today, there will be a spectacular miracle in the end time. Satan will cause a miracle to happen; some people, worshipping in the shrine built to the antichrist, will hear the image speak or else it will speak periodically. Remember: the end times will be a day of mass deception and counterfeit religion for the ungodly and evil of this world. God is going to allow the world to be deceived and deluded as part of the judgment for their ungodliness and evil.

“And with all deceiveableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie” (2 Th.2:10-11).

3. The false prophet will use religious persecution to secure loyalty to the antichrist and the state (v.15^b). Very simply, anyone who does not worship the state and the beast or antichrist will be slaughtered. Of course, no believer can confess loyalty to a person or government above God. The true believer can be loyal to his government, one hundred percent loyal, but he cannot put anything above God, not even the state. Therefore, the worst holocaust ever known to man will take place in the end time. True believers and all other people who have strong religious faith—including Jews, Moslems, Hindus, and others—will be slaughtered in the holocaust of the antichrist. (See outline and notes—Rev.7:9-17; 11:1; 11:2; 11:3-13.)

“After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands [having been slain]....And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they? And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb” (Rev.7:9, 13-14).

“And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations” (Rev.13:7).

“And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them” (Rev.14:13).

“And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God. And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints” (Rev.15:2-3).

“And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years” (Rev.20:4).

4. The false prophet will use economic controls to secure loyalty to the antichrist and the state (v.16-17). The Scripture is self-explanatory. There will be some mark placed upon the head or forearm of people to show that they are loyal to the state. Food and supplies and other purchases—the whole economy—will be based upon this mark. A person must have the mark to buy anything. If he does not, then he is a traitor to the state and antichrist. The person will have no choice: he either gives his first loyalty to the state or else be killed or starved to death or be forced to flee to the wildernesses of the world for safety and survival. Many believers, of course, will do the latter, and God will keep a remnant alive as a testimony to his name. (See note—Rev.12:6; 12:13-17 for more discussion.)

“And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, the same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: and the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name” (Rev.14:9-11).

“And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image” (Rev.16:2).

“And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years” (Rev.20:4).

4 (13:18) Antichrist: there is the number of the beast or antichrist. It is the infamous number that is more well known in literature than any other number: 666. What does it mean? No one knows. Scripture does not say what it means. All we know is what Scripture says: “it is the number of a man.” In Scripture the perfect number is seven. Therefore, since man’s number is six, that means that man is incomplete and short of God’s glory, short of God’s perfection. The number of the beast is the same, and the spiritual man is to count it such. The beast is not God—far from it. He, too, is mere man, short of the triune God. His days are numbered; he will do what all other human leaders have done—die and pass on to face the eternal judgment of God.

Thought 1. This is critical: we must never forget that all men—no matter how great they may be nor how much they may do for us—will die. And they will all face the judgment of God. This will be true of the most powerful of all leaders, the antichrist of the end time. How critical it is for every man to be prepared to stand up for Christ when the end comes.

DIVISION VIII

THE SEVENTH TRUMPET IN DETAIL (PART III): THE VICTORY OF THE LAMB IS ASSURED, 14:1-20

A. Assurance 1: The Redeemed Will Be with Jesus, 14:1-5

(14:1-5) Introduction: the last days of world history are going to be terrible days, days of horror. The dragon of the underworld, that old serpent who is called the devil and Satan, is going to unleash the fury of his wrath upon earth. He is going to send forth his own spirit and enter into one man and use that man to offer the utopian state to the world. He is going to empower that man, the antichrist, to bring peace and prosperity to the earth, and Satan is going to build up all the hope that man has ever had for a utopian world. Man is going to place all his hope in this one world ruler, and the antichrist is going to fulfill man's hope and longing.

- ⇒ He is going to give the world peace, worldwide peace.
- ⇒ He is going to move the world toward economic prosperity, toward jobs and a livelihood for everyone.
- ⇒ He is going to propose programs for the hungry, homeless, and diseased, and for the other problems of the world—propose programs that will work to some degree.
- ⇒ He is going to have some solutions for the problems of drugs, alcoholism, and the other devastating ills of society.
- ⇒ He is going to have a program to help the people tragically affected by the natural catastrophes that will be devastating the earth during the end time.

But then the terrifying horror will happen: he will turn against millions upon earth, against all those who have strong religious faith: the Jews, Christians, Moslems, Hindus, and all the others. He and his state will launch the worst holocaust the world has ever witnessed. He will slaughter any who do not give their first loyalty and allegiance to the state and its leader, the antichrist himself.

This is what the great book of Revelation has just shown us, the terrifying picture of the antichrist and his chief executive officer, the false prophet. These two beasts will bring such horror to the people of the end time that the evil explodes the human mind.

Note this: John the apostle, the one to whom Jesus Christ was giving this vision, needed relief from such horrors; and so do we, the readers. The human mind and heart can take only so many pictures of tragedy before it needs an infusion of hope. This is what chapter fourteen of the Revelation is: it is a picture of victory. The victory of the Lamb of God, of the Lord Jesus Christ, is assured. In rapid fire, John is given seven visions, visions that show the glorious triumph that lies ahead for those who follow the Lord Jesus Christ and endure to the end. The first vision of triumph concerns the redeemed. The redeemed are seen as victorious. They are seen with Jesus their Lord. Remember: John is seeing these things as though they already existed. He is looking at the future triumph.

1. They will be with Jesus (v.1).
2. They will be sealed with God's name (v.1).
3. They will hear the very voice of God (v.2).
4. They will be uniquely privileged before all other beings (v.3).
5. They will be clearly identified (v.4-5).

1 (14:1) Heaven: the redeemed will be seen with Jesus. The Lamb is Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior, the One whom all true believers love and adore and long to be with. He is the Lamb who was slain for our sins, the Lamb who took all our sins upon Himself and died for them, the Lamb who sacrificed Himself for us so that we might be acceptable to God (see note—Rev.5:6-7 for more discussion).

Note where He stands: on Mount Sion. Mount Sion was another name for Jerusalem. It has always been used to refer to heaven itself, to the heavenly Jerusalem. Here Mount Sion means the heavenly city of God, heaven itself. These dear believers are seen with the Lord Jesus Christ in heaven. They are right next to their Lord and Savior, the Lamb of God who was slain for them, slain so that they might have the right to live in heaven. How they love Him, and how wonderfully they are privileged to be right next to Him.

Now note who is with Him: the one hundred and forty four thousand Jews who had taken a vow to stand up for Christ, the Christian Jews who had not denied Him during the holocaust of the antichrist. Their commitment will be rewarded: they will be with the Lamb, the Lord Jesus Christ.

“Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear” (Mt.13:43).

“If so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together” (Ro.8:17).

“Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself” (Ph.3:21).

“When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory” (Col.3:4).

“And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever” (Rev.22:5).

“And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise” (Lk.23:43).

“If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour” (Jn.12:26).

“In my Father’s house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also” (Jn.14:2-3).

“Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world” (Jn.17:24).

“For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing” (2 Tim.4:6-8).

2 (14:1) Sealed: the redeemed will be sealed with God’s name, with the name of the Lamb’s Father. This tells us why they will be in heaven: they will be identified with Christ and God. They will refuse to take the seal of the antichrist (see note—Rev.13:13-17). They will make a vow to serve God and to take His seal. Therefore, they will have nothing to do with the seal of the antichrist (see note, Seal—Rev.7:2-3 for discussion and verses).

Thought 1. There are many antichrists in the world now, many false teachers, who deny that the Lord Jesus Christ is the Son of God (cp. 1 Jn.2:18-23; 4:2-3). We must guard against these antichrists, these false teachers. We must believe in the Lamb of God, in the Lord Jesus Christ, the very Son of God who came to take away the sins of the world. We must become identified with both the Lamb and His Father. We must be sealed with God’s name, with the name of the Lamb’s Father. Note this: the Lamb has a Father, the true and living God, the only true and living God there is.

3 (14:2) Voice, of God: the redeemed will hear the voice of God. Imagine having the glorious privilege to hear the voice of God! It will be the most wonderful privilege imaginable, and it will be the privilege of the 144,000 Jewish servants who will be faithful to Christ and to the dear believers in the tribulation.

1. The voice of God is like the sound of many waters: forceful and mighty, as powerful as the sound of many Niagara Falls or of many rushing and mountainous waves of the sea. Yet the many waters can also be the quieting, comforting, and peaceful rippling of many creeks. When we hear the voice of God we know that it is Him speaking, for it will be both powerful and comforting at the same time.

2. The voice of God is like the sound of thunder: deep, rumbling, arousing, stirring, and distinctive. When He speaks, we will be aroused and stirred from what we are doing. His voice will demand full attention.

Thought 1. What a lesson for us today. How we should be listening to the voice of God in His Word. His Word is just as powerful as His voice will be when we get to heaven. The problem is this: we are not listening to His Word, not nearly as much as we should be.

3. The voice of God is like the sound of many harps: restful, calming, soothing, relaxing, and fulfilling. Soft music does this for us, and God’s voice is just like soft music: it can calm our hearts in the most troublesome of times. And oh how the voice of God will need to be heard in the tribulation!

The point is this: the 144,000 will be rewarded with the voice of God. They will have the glorious privilege of hearing the voice of God.

4 (14:3) Heavenly Song: the redeemed will be uniquely privileged. They will have a song of victory to sing before all the heavenly host. But note: the words of the song are not here or anywhere else given. We will not know the words until the glorious day of redemption comes. However, what a glorious privilege! To have a special song to sing and present to all the beings of heaven. The Jews who receive the Lord Jesus Christ and vow to be the servants of God during the great tribulation will be given a special song of victory. They shall triumph over the antichrist and his holocaust and over evil and death. They shall live forevermore in the presence of our God and Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ. When they arrive in heaven victorious and triumphant, they will have something to sing about: the glorious victory given them in Jesus Christ our Lord.

“I will praise thee, O LORD, with my whole heart; I will show forth all thy marvellous works” (Ps.9:1).

“Praise the LORD with harp: sing unto him with the psaltery and an instrument of ten strings” (Ps.33:2).

“Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee” (Ps.67:3).

“O come, let us sing unto the LORD: let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation” (Ps.95:1).

“By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name” (Heb.13:15).

“But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light” (1 Pt.2:9).

5 (14:4-5) Jews, Redeemed: the redeemed will be clearly identified. Who are the 144,000 Jews? They were seen earlier in Revelation (see outline and notes—Rev.7:1-8). Note what is said about them here.

1. They will be virgins: they will never marry. The days of the end time will be filled with horror after horror: the worst holocaust the world has ever witnessed will be launched by the antichrist and millions will be killed. A special commitment will be needed to stand up for Christ. Apparently, these 144,000 form a body of believers who vow and commit their lives to never deny Christ. They apparently take a special vow to be the ministers to the people who will be so severely attacked and persecuted by the antichrist.

“We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves” (Ro.15:1).

“Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee” (Mk.10:28).

“And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me. And he left all, rose up, and followed him” (Lk.5:27-28).

“So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple” (Lk.14:33).

“And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God’s sake, who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting” (Lk.18:29-30).

“Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ” (Ph.3:8).

2. They will be followers of the Lamb: wholly committed to Jesus Christ and separated from the sin and evil of this world, that is, from the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and from the pride of life. They will be servants and ministers of God who will follow the leadership of the Lord’s Spirit: they will go throughout the wildernesses and hiding places of this earth to minister to the millions trying to escape the holocaust of the antichrist. They will follow the Lamb, the Lord Jesus Christ, no matter where He leads and no matter how difficult the call and ministry may be. They will sell out completely to the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thought 1. What a dynamic lesson on commitment! How desperately we need to be just as committed as these dear servants of the Lord will be!

“And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me” (Lk.9:23).

“If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple” (Lk.14:26-27).

“My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me” (Jn.10:27).

“If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour” (Jn.12:26).

“For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live” (Ro.8:13).

“And they that are Christ’s have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts” (Gal.5:24).

“As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him” (Col.2:6).

“For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps” (1 Pt.2:21).

“He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked” (1 Jn.2:6).

3. They will be the redeemed from among men, the first fruits to God and the Lamb. This simply means that they will be the first Jews to be saved in the tribulation.

4. They will be truthful, never lying or telling a falsehood. Apparently this will be part of the vow the group of believers will take. It will be easy in the days of the antichrist to simply lie and say that one will give his first loyalty to the antichrist and his state and then to continue on worshipping God in the secret of one's home. But this is a lie, and the 144,000 will take a vow to never lie.

Thought 1. This is a day of untruthfulness, lying, and deception. Practically everyone lies and deceives:

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| ⇒ husbands and wives and children | ⇒ rulers and leaders |
| ⇒ employers and employees | ⇒ the educated and the uneducated |
| ⇒ students and teachers | ⇒ ministers and laymen |
| ⇒ neighbors and friends | ⇒ politicians and citizens |

The call of the day is for truthfulness—a commitment to the truth. We desperately need real men and real women who will make a vow to be truthful and never to lie or deceive.

“Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it” (Jn.8:44).

“Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth” (1 Pt.2:22).

“Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son” (1 Jn.2:22).

“Blessed is the man unto whom the LORD imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile” (Ps.32:2).

“And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth” (Is.53:9).

“The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth: for they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid” (Zeph.3:13).

5. They will be blameless: unspotted, undefiled, unpolluted, and without blemish before God. They will commit and set their lives completely apart unto God.

Thought 1. Just imagine being blameless before God—living such a life that one would be totally unspotted, undefiled, unpolluted, and without blemish. What a challenge! How desperately real men and real women are needed today—men and women so strong that they will commit themselves to being blameless before God and the world.

“Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God” (Ro.6:13).

“I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God” (Ro.12:1-2).

“What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's” (1 Cor.6:19-20).

“Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty” (2 Cor.6:17-18).

“According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love” (Eph.1:4).

“Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot” (1 Pt.1:18-19).

B. Assurance 2: The Gospel Will Be Preached to the Whole World, 14:6-7

1 The messenger: An angel will have the everlasting gospel to give to the whole earth

6 And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,

2 The points of the message
 a. Fear God: Judgment is come
 b. Worship God: He is the Creator

7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

THE SEVENTH TRUMPET IN DETAIL (PART III):
 THE VICTORY OF THE LAMB IS ASSURED, 14:1-20

B. Assurance 2: The Gospel Will be Preached to the Whole World, 14:6-7

(14:6-7) Introduction: the Lord Jesus Christ is going to be victorious over the world. He is going to triumph over evil and bring righteousness and godliness to earth. The kingdom of God will reign upon earth. How do we know this for sure? Because the Scripture reveals it to us. This is the purpose of this great chapter: to show us that the victory of the Lord Jesus Christ over this world and its ungodliness is assured. In rapid fire Christ gives John seven visions revealing the triumph of Christ. In the first vision the redeemed were seen with Jesus (Rev. 14:15). Now, in the next six visions John hears six of the most glorious announcements. The announcements proclaim six events that stagger the human mind, but the events will take place. John, the true witness of God, has already seen the events and their outcome. Christ Himself revealed the events to John. They have already been announced by heaven; they are set and fixed to happen. These glorious events will take place. We can know and be assured that Jesus Christ is going to triumph. The victory of the Lamb is assured. This is the second great assurance given to believers: the gospel will be preached to the whole world.

1. The messenger: an angel will have the everlasting gospel to give to the whole earth (v.6).
2. The points of the message (v.7).

1 (14:6) Gospel—End Time—World Evangelism: the messenger who will have the gospel will be an angel. Does this mean that he will have the gospel to preach himself or that he will have the gospel to give to believers to preach? Or is this just a picture that the gospel will be preached throughout the whole world in the end time? Christ Himself, when He was on earth, predicted the evangelization of the whole world (Mt.24:14). There are those who think that evil will be so rampant in the end time and that believers will be on the run so much from the holocaust of the antichrist that they will not be able to preach and spread the Word. They think that God will have to change His method of getting the gospel out to the world, change it by going back to using angels just like He did in the Old Testament period of history (cp. Lk.2:10f; Heb.2:2). There are others who think that this is a vision symbolizing the preaching of the gospel to the world. Whatever the case, remember this: God's people and the Jews are going to be scattered all over the earth, hiding and scratching for food wherever they can. They will have to be fleeing in order get away from the holocaust of the antichrist. But God's people, His true servants, always share the gospel wherever they are to whomever they feel they can trust. Remember also that the earth will help to hide and feed the Jews and the followers of Christ just as they have in every holocaust. Not every unbeliever is hard-hearted even in the end time (Rev.12:16). The Jewish servants, the 144,000 who have committed themselves to minister to God's people, will certainly be witnessing. They will no doubt be moving out into the wilderness areas and hiding places of the world themselves. That will be where God's people, the Jews, will be. And that is the only place the 144,000 Jewish servants will probably be safe. Also remember that civilization and the population are going to be shrunk much smaller than what they are now. There will be vast devastation upon the earth and whole areas of the earth will become uninhabitable, totally unsuitable for human life (see outline and notes—Rev.6:7-8; 6:12-17; 8:6-12; 9:12-21). In addition to all this, think of the witnessing that will be going on among the numberless multitude of Gentiles that will be converted throughout the tribulation of the end time. God's people, His true followers, are never silent. They always talk about and share Christ among one another and to those who befriend and help them. And one thing is sure: when so many earthly horrors and supernatural catastrophes and events are taking place in the end time, no believer will keep silent, not when he is with other believers and people who are kind enough to help hide him from the holocaust.

The point is this: there will be witnessing in the last days. The glorious gospel will be proclaimed by God's people. And if they for some unknown reason hush, God will proclaim the gospel of His Son through angels. As Jesus Himself said to the religionists of His day: if the people keep silent, then the very stones themselves will cry out (Lk.19:40).

Thought 1. The gospel must be proclaimed to the whole earth. Not a single place must be missed. It must be proclaimed to every nation, tribe, language, and people.

“Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world” (Mt.28:19-20).

“And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature” (Mk.16:15).

“But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth” (Acts 1:8).

“[Christ] whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus” (Col.1:28).

“For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard” (Acts 4:20).

“Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God” (2 Tim.1:8).

“But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear” (1 Pt.3:15).

“Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name. But his word was in mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay” (Jer.20:9).

2 (14:7) Evangelism—Witnessing—End Time—Gospel: there are the points of the message. They are twofold. Note this: they are the very subjects that would be flooding the minds and conversations of people in the midst of the holocaust and the catastrophic judgments that will be destroying so much of the earth: fear God, for judgment is come. Worship God the Creator—repent, turn from the worship of sin and of the antichrist and worship God. This is not a different gospel. To fear God and at the same to give Him glory clearly implies repentance, true repentance. There is no glory ever acceptable to God other than the glory of a truly repentant heart. (See note—Rev.11:13 for more discussion.)

1. There will be the message to fear God.

Thought 1. Few people fear God. This is what God calls the day of grace, the day when He reaches out for people in love. But the day of His judgment is coming. This is the very message of Revelation. Therefore, we must fear God even in this day of grace and love. God tolerates our rebellion and denial of Him only for now, only to give us a chance to be saved and to escape the coming judgment. But this chance is going to soon pass. We must, therefore, repent and fear God and do what the next point says, “Worship Him.”

“And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell” (Mt.10:28).

“And his mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation” (Lk.1:50).

“Well; because of unbelief they [Israel] were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but fear” (Ro.11:20).

“And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man’s work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear” (1 Pt.1:17).

“And now, Israel, what doth the LORD thy God require of thee, but to fear the LORD thy God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve the LORD thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul” (Dt.10:12).

“Now therefore fear the LORD, and serve him in sincerity and in truth: and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt; and serve ye the LORD” (Josh.24:14).

“Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men!” (Ps.31:19).

“Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man” (Eccl.12:13).

2. There will be the message to worship God.

“Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve” (Mt.4:10).

“Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father” (Jn.4:21).

“Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters” (Rev.14:7).

“Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come before him: worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness” (1 Chron.16:29).

“Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name; worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness” (Ps.29:2).

“O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the LORD our maker” (Ps.95:6).

“O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth” (Ps.96:9).

DIVISION VIII

THE SEVENTH TRUMPET IN DETAIL (PART III)
 THE VICTORY OF THE LAMB IS ASSURED, 14:1-20

C. Assurance 3: Babylon, the Godless State and Religion, Will Fall, 14:8

(14:8) Introduction: Jesus Christ is going to triumph over the godless society and corrupt religion of this world. No matter the government and religion, if the government and religion are godless and corrupt, they are going to be judged and doomed. The wrath of God is going to fall upon them, and they will be crushed as the dust of the earth. This is the third great assurance given to the godly people of this earth: Babylon will fall.

1. The fall announced (v.8).
2. The reason why Babylon will be destroyed: it will be the capital of an apostate civilization (v.8).

1 (14:8 Babylon—Civilization—World Government, Corrupt: the fall is announced—Babylon is fallen. In the Old Testament Babylon was the great enemy of Israel (cp. Is.21:9; Jer.50:2; 51:8). Because of this, the very name of Babylon came to stand for...

- a corrupt political system that stood against God.
- a corrupt economic system that stood against God.
- a corrupt religion that stood against God.

Babylon symbolized the political, economic, and religious center of a godless society. It was a society—nation or government or religion—that defied God. Here in the Revelation Babylon stands for the city of the antichrist, the capital of the world: it stands for the political and economic system which he establishes. But it also stands for the religious capital or system of the second beast, the apostate and universal state and religion which he sets up before the whole world. (See outlines and notes—Rev. chapters 17 and 18. This is seen in these two chapters.) Both the corrupt political and religious systems of the end time will be destroyed once for all in the end time.

“And, behold, here cometh a chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, Babylon is fallen, is fallen; and all the graven images of her gods he hath broken unto the ground” (Is.21:9).

“Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces” (Jer.50:2).

“A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction. How is the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations! I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, and thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast striven against the LORD. The LORD hath opened his armoury, and hath brought forth the weapons of his indignation: for this is the work of the lord GOD of hosts” (Jer.50:22-25).

“Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: howl for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed” (Jer.51:8).

“And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird” (Rev.18:2).

2 (14:8) Babylon—Judgment—Wrath: there is the reason why Babylon will be destroyed. Why will the political and religious system of the world be destroyed in the end time? Is not a one-world government and religion a good thing? Will not the dream of men for a one-world government and religion bring the kingdom of utopia to earth? This verse says that Babylon will be destroyed for one reason: she will make all nations drink of the wine of her fornication. The picture is twofold.

1. Babylon, the end time government, will be like a prostitute who entices men into bed with her by giving them wine and getting them so intoxicated that they can no longer resist her seduction.

The end time government will be just like the prostitute: Babylon will seduce and entice the governments of the world to join her in her corruption. What will the corruption be? (See note—Rev.9:20-21 for discussion.)

- a. There will be the corruption of idolatry. The state will push the secular and humanistic society, the fact that man and his government are the answer to the utopian society and world. Therefore, the antichrist and his government will set up the state as the first loyalty of a person.

REVELATION 14:8

“For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools....Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever” (Ro.1:20-22, 25).

“And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk” (Rev.9:20).

“But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils” (1 Cor.10:20).

“Little children, keep yourselves from idols” (1 Jn.5:21).

“Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth” (Ex.20:4).

“Ye shall make you no idols nor graven image, neither rear you up a standing image, neither shall ye set up any image of stone in your land, to bow down unto it: for I am the LORD your God” (Lev.26:1).

“The graven images of their gods shall ye burn with fire: thou shalt not desire the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it unto thee, lest thou be snared therein: for it is an abomination to the LORD thy God” (Dt.7:25).

“Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them” (Dt.11:16).

“I am the LORD: that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images” (Is.42:8).

“And they shall no more offer their sacrifices unto devils, after whom they have gone a whoring. This shall be a statute for ever unto them throughout their generation” (Lev.17:7).

“They provoked him to jealousy with strange gods, with abominations provoked they him to anger. They sacrificed unto devils, not to God; to gods whom they knew not, to new gods that came newly up, whom your fathers feared not” (Dt.32:16-17).

“And they served their idols: which were a snare unto them. Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils, and shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood. Thus were they defiled with their own works, and went a whoring with their own inventions [imaginations]” (Ps.106:36-39).

- b. There will be the corruption of murder. A spirit of senseless murder and lawlessness will be sweeping the earth; in addition, there will be the slaughtering of millions who will refuse to place the state before God.

“Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts” (Rev.9:21).

“Thou shalt not kill” (Ex.20:13).

“Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment: but I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire” (Mt.5:21-22).

“He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said, Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness” (Mt.19:18).

“But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men’s matters” (1 Pt.4:15).

“Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him” (1 Jn.3:15).

- c. There will be the corruption by sorcery: the interest and the governing of life by the horoscope, astrology, witchcraft, and demons in this world.

“Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts” (Rev.9:21).

“So Saul died for his transgression which he committed against the LORD, even against the word of the LORD, which he kept not, and also for asking counsel of one that had a familiar spirit, to inquire of it” (1 Chron.10:13).

“And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? for the living to the dead? To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them” (Is.8:19-20).

“And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thine hand; and thou shalt have no more soothsayers” (Mic.5:12).

“Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies” (Gal.5:20).

- d. There will be the corruption by fornication: the immorality of the end times will run wild, even more so than today.

“Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts” (Rev.9:21).

“Flee fornication. Every sin that man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body” (1 Cor.6:18).

“But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints” (Eph.5:3).

“Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and dovetousness, which is idolatry” (Col.3:5).

- e. There will be the corruption of thievery: stealing in both high and low places, in the shops and in the workplaces, from neighbors, and from employers will be running wild.

“Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts” (Rev.9:21).

“Thou shalt not steal” (Ex.20:15).

“Ye shall not steal, neither deal falsely, neither lie one to another” (Lev.19:11).

“Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth” (Eph.4:28).

“Not purloining [stealing], but showing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things” (Tit.2:10).

The last days will be corrupt and evil and murderous days, and it will be because of the godless and secular society and government of the antichrist. This is the reason the one-world government will be destroyed. Man’s heart is evil and secular and will remain evil until he allows the Son of God, the Lord Jesus Christ, to create his heart anew and make him a new creature.

2. Note a second picture: there is the picture of wrath. Babylon, the godless society of the antichrist, will seduce the world to drink the wine of her wrath. This means that she thinks her wine leads to pleasure, to the utopian state, to the glorious one-world government and religion that men have always dreamed about. But the government and religion of the end time will be discussed: they will lead to wrath, the wrath of God. The justice and fury of God is going to fall upon the whoredom of Babylon, the godless society of the antichrist. All the ungodly and evil people and nations of the world who follow him will suffer the wrath and fury of God.

“When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats” (Mt.25:31-32).

“He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him” (Jn.3:36).

“For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness” (Ro.1:18).

“But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath” (Ro.2:8).

“Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience” (Eph.5:6).

“But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men” (2 Pt.3:7).

“And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him” (Jude 14-15).

“His eyes shall see his destruction, and he shall drink of the wrath of the Almighty” (Job 21:20).

“For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup, and the wine is red; it is full of mixture; and he poureth out of the same: but the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them” (Ps.75:8).

“Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which hast drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury; thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out” (Is.51:17).

“Then took I the cup at the LORD’S hand, and made all the nations to drink, unto whom the LORD had sent me” (Jer.25:17).

THE SEVENTH TRUMPET IN DETAIL (PART III): THE VICTORY OF THE LAMB IS ASSURED, 14:1-20

D. Assurance 4: Justice Will Be Executed, 14:9-12

(14:9-12) Introduction: this is a terrifying passage, one of the most horrible pictures in all the Word of God. It is the picture of the anger and wrath of God against the ungodly and evil of this world. Those who do not repent and turn to God in the end time will have the wrath of God fall upon them. Those who are not moved by the sufferings and testimonies of God's people—the millions who will be dying as martyrs for Christ—who are not moved to repent, will suffer the wrath of God. This is the third great assurance: justice will triumph. True justice will be executed upon earth. All the ungodliness and evil and all the injustices of this earth committed against God and man shall be corrected. True justice will be executed against all the ungodly and evil of this earth.

1. The person to be judged: any person who follows the beast and receives the beast's mark (v.9).
2. The judgment (v.10-11).
3. The person who escapes judgment (v.12).

1 (14:9) Judgment—Mark of the Beast: there are the persons to be judged. The judgment of God is going to fall upon all those who follow the beast and receive the mark of the beast (see notes, pt.4—Rev.13:13-17; 13:18 for discussion). This mark will show that a person gives his first loyalty and allegiance to the state and secular society and its leader, the antichrist. The person who declares his allegiance, who worships and puts the state and secular society before God—that is the person who will receive the mark of the beast. He is the person who will be saying to God...

- that God is second.
- that the state and its leader are more important than God.
- that the state and its leader can do more for man than God.
- that society needs to focus upon the state and its leader, not God.
- that the state and earthly leaders are the hope of man, not God.

Note how this belief runs through society today. In fact it is a common belief that runs through every generation. There are always multitudes who believe that man can control his own destiny, that what is important is good government, good education, good medicine, good social services, and on and on. All of these are necessary and we should diligently labor to have the best of everything. But these are not the end of life. They can only make life comfortable and perhaps extend life for a little more time. They cannot help us beyond this life. Only God can. Government and good services are not the savior of man, God is. Man is not a god, capable of bringing the perfect society to earth; God alone is God. This does not mean that we should not work to have the best society we can. It means that while we work for the good of society, we honor and worship and trust God. This is where so many fail today and have failed in the past and will fail in the end time. The people of the end time will be making the same gross mistake so many in our generation are making; they will worship man and government, look to man and government instead of to God. The difference is this: in order to hold the masses of people together in the end time, the government will officially insist that the first loyalty of its citizens be to the state. Religion will be subjected to the state. The end result will be the massive slaughter and holocaust of all who refuse. This is the reason the wrath of God will fall upon the people of the end time.

2 (14:10-11) Judgment—God, Wrath of—Hell: there is the judgment. Four things are said about the judgment of God.

1. The ungodly and evil will drink the wrath and anger of God.

“The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation” (v.10).

When thinking of the judgment of God, we must never forget a significant fact: God must keep heaven perfect. When He creates the new heavens and earth, He has to exclude and shut out all those...

- who have cursed, denied, disbelieved, and rejected Him.

- who are hostile and who are enemies of Him and His righteousness.
- who do not want His control and restraint upon their lives.
- who reject the righteousness of God's Son and do not let it cover them; who refuse to believe that Christ is the sinless Son of God who died for their sins.

God has no choice but to keep all these out of heaven. Remember something else as well: God has given man every chance; He has done everything that can be done to reach out and save man. He has sent man prophet after prophet and given man His Word. And most of all, He has given the world His own Son to save man. But man continues to reject and deny and even curse His Son. When the world does this to God's Son, the only Son He has, what kind of attitude can we expect God to have in the day of judgment? Soft and tender? Or angry and wrathful? We must never forget that God is not only love (perfect love) but He is also just (perfect justice). Just as His love has to be perfectly demonstrated toward man (by giving His own Son to die for man), so His justice has to be perfectly demonstrated. There has to come a day when God shows His perfect love to all those who trusted Him by making a new and perfect heavens and earth. But when that day comes, He has to be just and exclude all the ungodly and evil. If He were not just, then the new heavens and earth would be corrupted by the ungodly and evil. God is perfect love; therefore, He is going to give the believer a new world in which dwells perfect righteousness and love and joy and peace. But to do this, the ungodly and evil of the earth must be judged and separated and shut out. God will execute perfect justice: wrath and anger will fall upon the ungodly and evil of this world.

- ⇒ The ungodly will drink the cup of God's wrath: that is, the wrath of God will be drunk and will permeate their whole being, move throughout their whole body. It will be thorough and all inclusive. Not a part of the ungodly's being, not a moment of the ungodly's time will be free from the wrath of God.
- ⇒ The ungodly will drink the cup of God's wrath without any mixture. Nothing else will be mixed with His wrath, no love, no feelings of sympathy, no regret, no compassion. The full wrath of God will fall upon the ungodly.
- ⇒ The ungodly will suffer a double portion of God's judgment: the cup of His wrath and the cup of His anger. Note the verse carefully: both the wrath and anger of God will be served in the awful day of judgment.

"He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him" (Jn.3:36).

"For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness" (Ro.1:18).

"But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath" (Ro.2:8).

"Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience" (Eph.5:6).

"And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication" (Rev.14:8).

"For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup, and the wine is red; it is full of mixtue; and he poureth out of the same: but the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them" (Ps.75:8).

"For thus saith the LORD; Behold, they whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunken; and art thou he that shall altogether go unpunished? thou shalt not go unpunished, but thou shalt surely drink of it" (Jer.49:12).

2. The ungodly and evil will be tormented with fire and brimstone. This is a probably a picture of Sodom and Gomorrah.

"He shall be tormented with fire and brimstone" (Rev.14:10).

"The sun was risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zoar. Then the LORD rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven" (Gen.19:23-24).

This is undoubtedly the most terrorizing judgment that has ever fallen upon the earth up to this time. Men sometimes scoff at the idea of a coming judgment, and they doubt that two cities were ever destroyed as Scripture says that Sodom and Gomorrah were. But several hundred years after the event, the Lord Himself confirmed the fact, and He declared that the same fire and brimstone were going to fall upon the ungodly and evil in the day of judgment.

"Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city" (Mt.10:15).

"But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee" (Mt.11:24).

"But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city" (Lk.10:12).

"But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all" (Lk.17:29).

Fire and brimstone is the picture of the hot flaming molten lava that flows from the mouth of a volcano that has erupted. It is a terrible thought to think that a person would choose to spend eternity suffering as though he was caught in the bed of fire and brimstone.

Thought 1. This is a horrible picture, and it is not a pleasant thought, but we must always remember two things:

REVELATION 14:9-12

- 1) These are not the words of a preacher. They are the words and warnings of Scripture. Scripture is honest and true; therefore, if there is truly a place that is like suffering in fire and brimstone, then Scripture will tell us. This must never be overlooked: Scripture does tell us. Therefore, part of the judgment of hell will be just like suffering in fire and brimstone.
- 2) Today, right now, is the day of God's love and grace. Therefore, we must cast ourselves upon God's love. We must heed the warning of fire and brimstone and repent and turn to God.

“And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone” (Rev.19:20).

“And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever” (Rev.20:10).

“But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death” (Rev.21:8).

“Then the LORD rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven” (Gen.19:24).

“And I will plead against him with pestilence and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, and overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone” (Ezk.38:22).

3. The ungodly and evil will be tormented in the presence of the holy angels and Christ.

“And he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb” (v.10).

Christ will give the order to cast unbelievers into hell and the holy angels will carry out the orders. Christ will be there and every eye of all unbelievers will see Him. Why? So that He will be vindicated as the Son of God. The vast, vast majority of the human race denies, curses, and rejects Jesus Christ as the Son of God. They insist that He was either mistaken or a liar and deceiver or insane by claiming to be the Son of God. But in the great day of judgment, that horrible day, all the terrible things the ungodly and evil have done against Him—they shall all know that He is exactly who He claimed to be:

- ⇒ the Son of the living God, the true Messiah who had come to save them all—everyone of them.
- ⇒ the Son of God who now stands as the Judge of the world to rid the universe of all the ungodly and evil.
- ⇒ the exalted Lord who is bringing godliness and righteousness to the universe.

“And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory” (Mt.24:30).

“When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats” (Mt.25:31-32).

“And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ” (2 Th.1:7-8).

“And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints” (Jude 14).

“Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.” (Rev.1:7).

4. The ungodly and evil will be tormented forever and ever.

“And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever” (v.11).

The picture is that of duration, of how long a person will have to stay in hell. Note the picture: it is that of punishment, torment, agony, and misery; that of wrenching and twisting in pain and suffering—that of never being relieved, of never having peace or rest, not even for a single night or day. There is no peace in hell; there is no rest in hell. There is only torment and horror, unbroken punishment and suffering. The agony and misery, the pain and suffering of the fire and brimstone never ends. The smoke of their torment ascends up forever and ever. The torment of the ungodly and evil will never end.

Thought 1. We must all face this one fact: if Jesus Christ is truly the Son of God and if Scripture is truly the Scripture of God, then we are doomed to eternal punishment if we reject Jesus Christ. This is the teaching both of Jesus Christ and of Scripture. A great day of separation is coming, a day when all those who believe in Jesus Christ will be separated from those who have denied, disbelieved, and cursed God and Christ. The unbeliever is not going to live in the same world that the believer will live in. The person who truly believes in Christ is going to live in a world with God. The person who rejects God is going to live in a world apart from God, a world that Christ and Scripture call hell. And hell is a world of everlasting punishment.

“Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels....And these shall go away into everlasting punishment” (Mt.25:41, 46).

“And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire: where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched” (Mk.9:47-48).

“Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire” (Mt.3:12).

“The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; and shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth” (Mt.13:41-42).

“Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire” (Mt.18:8).

“The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb” (Rev.14:10)

“And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever” (Rev.20:10).

“And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire” (Rev.20:15).

“But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death” (Rev.21:8).

“The sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness hath surprised the hypocrites. Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings?” (Is.33:14).

“And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcasses of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh” (Is.66:24).

3 (14:12) Judgment, Escape From—Believers: there is the person who escapes the judgment of God. Three things are said about the person who escapes the judgment of God.

1. He is a saint who endures. The word saint means to be set apart and separated unto God. It means that a person has separated himself from the world and set his life apart unto God. It means that he dedicates and commits his life, all he is and has, to God. But note: the true saint is a person who endures. Once he has made a commitment to God, if he is sincere, he endures. He continues to live a life...

- that is separated from the world.
- that is set apart and committed to God.

In the last days, during the great tribulation, believers will face terrible times. They will have to deny Christ and accept the mark of the beast or else face death. If they endure for Christ—if they are sincere in believing that heaven is real and that Christ loves them—then they will escape the judgment of God. But only those who endure, who truly set their lives apart unto God, only those will escape the coming judgment.

“And ye shall be hated of all men for my name’s sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved” (Mt.10:22).

“As the Father hath love me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love” (Jn.15:9).

“I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God” (Ro.12:1-2).

“Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord” (1 Cor.15:58).

“Therefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty” (2 Cor.6:17-18).

“For ye have need of patience [endurance], that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise” (Heb.10:36).

“Blessed is the man that endureth temptation [trials]: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him” (Jas.1:12).

“Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ” (1 Pt.1:13).

“Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world” (1 Pt.5:8-9).

“Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness” (2 Pt.3:17).

“Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world” (1 Jn.2:15-16).

2. He keeps the commandments of God. He believes God and he loves God; therefore, he obeys God. The proof that he loves God is seen in his obedience.

⇒ He loves God enough to want to please God.

⇒ He loves God enough to want God’s approval.

⇒ He loves God enough to want God to accept him.

The person pleases God by doing what God says. He receives God’s approval and acceptance by obeying God. Therefore, he dedicates his life to keep God’s commandments. He refuses to accept the mark of the beast; he rejects the beast and follows God. Therefore, he will escape the coming judgment.

“Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven” (Mt.7:21).

“Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock: and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock. And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand: and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it” (Mt.7:24-27).

“Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him” (Jn.14:23).

“If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father’s commandments, and abide in his love....Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you” (Jn.15:10, 14).

“Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men” (Acts 5:29).

“Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city” (Rev.22:14).

3. He keeps his faith in Jesus. He believes in Jesus Christ, that Jesus Christ is the Son of God who died for his sins. The believer has, therefore, dedicated his life to follow Jesus Christ. He has cast himself upon and put his faith in Jesus Christ. He has cast his life and destiny into the hands of Christ, not into the hands of the antichrist and his government. Therefore, he will escape the coming judgment of God.

“That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life” (Jn.3:15).

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life” (Jn.5:24).

“Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live” (Jn.11:25).

“But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name” (Jn.20:31).

“For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?” (1 Jn.5:4-5).

“That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation” (Ro.10:9-10).

E. Assurance 5: The Dead Will Be at Rest & Rewarded, 14:13

- 1 Their identity: The dead who are in the Lord
- 2 Their reward
 - a. Rest from earthly labors
 - b. Heavenly work to do for Christ

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

DIVISION VIII

THE SEVENTH TRUMPET IN DETAIL (PART III):
THE VICTORY OF THE LAMB IS ASSURED, 14:1-20

E. Assurance 5: The Dead Will Be at Rest & Rewarded, 14:13

(14:13) Introduction: everyone of us will die. The day is coming when we will no longer exist here on earth. We will be gone forever. Believers know this: this is the very reason they are willing to separate themselves from the world and to live for Christ. It is the reason they are willing to give all they are and have to Christ and His mission. It is the reason believers do not live in sin, but struggle and fight to conquer the sins and temptations of this life. This is the reason they refuse to deny Christ; the reason they suffer the persecutions of this world, the ridicule, abuse, mockery, strange looks, sneers, isolation, cursing, and sometimes imprisonment and death. Believers know they have a date with death just as all other persons do. Therefore, they give their lives to Jesus Christ. Why? Because Jesus Christ is the Savior and Lord of the world. Jesus Christ and Jesus Christ alone has died for our sins, and He alone can free us from sin. He alone can free us from sin and make us acceptable to God. Jesus Christ alone can give us the right to live forever. Therefore, believers commit their lives to follow Christ. Consequently, they have the most glorious hope; God gives them the greatest promise imaginable. God declares that they shall live forever. This is the fifth great assurance: the dead shall be at rest and be rewarded by the Lord Jesus Christ.

- 1. Their identity: the dead who are in the Lord (v.13).
- 2. Their reward (v.13).

1 (14:13) Death—In Christ—Heaven—Eternal Life: there are the dead who die in the Lord. What does it mean to die in the Lord? It means that a person lived in the Lord when he was on earth. It means that when he was living, he believed in the Lord Jesus Christ and followed after the Lord with all his heart and life. Therefore when he faced death, he was in the Lord: he died being in the Lord.

Note this: when a person truly believes in Christ, God places and positions him in Christ, in all that Christ is. Christ lived and died and arose, so to be in Christ means that a person lives, dies, and arises in Christ. The person who believes in Jesus Christ is identified with Christ: that is, he is counted and considered to be “in Christ,” reckoned and credited as being “in Christ.”

Spelled out in a little more detail, when a person believes in Christ, God places and positions the believer “in” Christ. The believer’s faith actually causes God to identify the believer with Christ, to count the believer...

- as having lived in Christ when Christ lived upon earth. Therefore, the believer is counted sinless and righteous because Christ was sinless and righteous.
- as having died in Christ. Therefore, the believer never has to die (Jn.3:16). The penalty and condemnation of his sins are already paid for in the death of Christ.
- as having been raised in Christ. Therefore, the believer has received the new life of Christ. Just as Christ had a new life after His resurrection, even so the believer receives the new life of Christ when he believes in Christ. (See outline and notes—Ro.6:2-5. Also see notes and DEEPER STUDY # 2—Ro.4:22; 5:1; 6:14-15.)

To be in Christ means that a believer walks and lives in Christ day by day. It means that he does not “walk after the flesh, but after the Spirit” (Ro.8:1, 4). It means that denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, he should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world (Tit.2:12). It means that he bears the fruit of the Spirit (Gal.5:22-23). It means that he abides in Christ, that he becomes as connected and attached to Christ...

- as members of the body are connected and attached to each other (1 Cor.12:12-27).
- as the branch is connected and attached to the vine (Jn.15:4-7).

From this it is clearly seen that a person who is in the Lord lives day by day for the Lord. Therefore, when the day comes that he is to die, he does what he did the day before: he lives for the Lord right on through death. He lives for the Lord while dying. The day of death is but another day for living in the Lord. He is in the Lord whether living or dying. Therefore, when he dies the most wonderful thing happens to the believer: he never tastes nor experiences death. When the moment comes that he is to pass from this world into the next world, quicker than the eye can blink God transfers him into heaven, into the very presence of the throne of God.

Note one other significant fact: the person who dies in the Lord is declared blessed: “Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord.” This is the declaration of Scripture.

“For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord’s” (Ro.14:8).

“To be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord” (2 Cor.5:8).

“For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain” (Ph.1:21).

“He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God” (Rev.2:7).

“Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them” (Rev.7:15).

“Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city” (Rev.22:14).

“Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me” (Ps.23:4).

“Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints” (Ps.116:15).

“The wicked is driven away in his wickedness: but the righteous hath hope in his death” (Pr.14:32).

“For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words” (1 Th.4:16-18).

2 (14:13) Death—Rewards—Believers—Heaven—Eternal Life: there are the rewards of those who die in the Lord. Two great rewards are mentioned.

1. There is the reward of rest from earthly labor. The picture is that of work, labor, and toil; of strenuous work and exhausting labor and fatiguing toil. It is being under pressure, being under so much pressure it is like being in a boiler; of being tense, of being gripped in a vice of tension. The picture is that of laboring so much that one is utterly exhausted and worn out.

⇒ This is the way the believer is to labor in witnessing and ministering for Christ.

⇒ This is the way the believer is to stand up against all the temptations and trials of this life.

⇒ This is the way the believers of the end time are to stand up for Christ and refuse to follow the beast and to ⇒ accept his mark.

When a person is this faithful for Christ, when he is truly in the Lord, truly living for the Lord, then he dies in the Lord. And the Lord takes him home to heaven and gives him rest from his labor and toil and exhaustion. But note what the word “rest” (anapaesontai) means. It means to be refreshed, revitalized, restirred, recharged, and rejuvenated. It means to be free of all temptations and trials, to be comforted and relaxed while being refreshed and recharged. When we get to heaven, we will be free from all the temptations and trials and labors of this earth. We will also be perfected in body, free from ever getting tired, from aching muscles and headaches and heavy eyes; free from ever becoming exhausted and weary again. We will be perfected: we will live in a perfect society of godliness and righteousness forever and ever. In that glorious day we will rest from all our labors and struggles in this corruptible world.

“There the wicked cease from troubling; and there the weary be at rest” (Job 3:17).

“And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels” (2 Th.1:7).

“There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God” (Heb.4:9).

“And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them” (Rev.14:13).

“Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear” (Mt.13:43).

“For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory” (2 Cor.4:17).

“For our conversation [citizenship] is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself” (Ph.3:20-21).

“When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory” (Col.3:4).

“Therefore I endure all things for the elect’s sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory” (2 Tim.2:10).

2. There is the reward of heavenly work to do. Heaven is not going to be inactivity like so many people think:

⇒ It will not be floating around on a fluffy cloud playing a harp. This would be no way to spend eternity.

⇒ It will not be standing around singing the praises of God all the time. No doubt there will be an unbroken ⇒ consciousness of God’s presence and an unbroken fellowship and communion with Him. But standing

⇒ around and doing nothing but singing and praising the Lord and doing that on and on and on forever and ⇒ ever would be no way to spend eternity. Our Lord is worthy of more than just words and music.

Heaven is going to be full of both worship and service, and we stress that it will be service because of the tendency to ignore the fact. Remember two significant things:

a. Heaven is another dimension of being, another world, the spiritual world which is the real and permanent world. It is the physical world and dimension that is corruptible, that ages, decays, deteriorates, and passes away. The real and permanent world, the spiritual world and dimension, is incorruptible. Therefore, God is going to destroy the heavens and the earth and make a new heavens and earth. He is going to transform the universe into the spiritual dimension of being, into the permanent and incorruptible dimension. This earth and the heavens—all the universe—will be transformed into the spiritual world, into the permanent, incorruptible, and eternal world, into the spiritual dimension of being, the world that lasts forever and ever (cp. 2 Pt.3:10-13). Therefore, when we work and serve Christ in the new heavens and earth, we will never tire nor become exhausted. We will be able to work and serve Christ forever without ever feeling pressure, tension, head-achish, or sleepy.

- b. Genuine believers are to be made kings and priests in heaven. We are going to rule and reign with Christ, rule and reign under the leadership, direction, and supervision of Christ. Jesus Christ and Scripture make this perfectly clear. Believers shall be rewarded with work to do and be made responsible for position and rule. (See note, pt.2^b—Rev.19:7-8 for more discussion.)

Rewards Dealing with our Nature or State of Being

- ⇒ Being adopted as a son of God (Gal.4:4-7; 1 Jn.3:1).
- ⇒ Being made blameless and harmless (Ph.2:15).
- ⇒ Being given eternal life (Jn.3:16; 1 Tim.6:19).
- ⇒ Being given an enduring substance (Heb.10:34).
- ⇒ Being given a glorious body (Ph.3:11, 21; 1 Cor.15:42-44).
- ⇒ Being given eternal glory and honor and peace (Ro.2:10).
- ⇒ Being given eternal rest and peace (Heb.4:9; Rev.14:13).
- ⇒ Being given the blessings of the Lord (Pr.10:22).
- ⇒ Being given the knowledge of Christ Jesus (Ph.3:8).
- ⇒ Being given durable riches and righteousness (Pr.8:18).
- ⇒ Being made priests (Rev.20:6).
- ⇒ Being given a crown of incorruption (1 Cor.9:25).
- ⇒ Being given a crown of righteousness (2 Tim.4:8).
- ⇒ Being given a crown of life (Jas.1:12).
- ⇒ Being given a crown of glory (1 Pt.5:4).

Rewards Dealing with Work or Position or Rule

- ⇒ Being made exalted beings (Rev.7:9-12).
- ⇒ Being made ruler over many things (Mt.25:23).
- ⇒ Being given the Kingdom of God (Jas.2:5; Mt.25:34).
- ⇒ Being given a position or rule and authority (Lk.12:42-44; Lk.22:28-29; 1 Cor.6:2-3).
- ⇒ Being given eternal responsibility and joy (Mt.25:21, 23).
- ⇒ Being given rule and authority over cities (Lk.19:17, 19).
- ⇒ Being given thrones and the privilege of reigning forever (Rev.20:4; 22:5).
- ⇒ Being given the privilege of surrounding the throne of God (Rev.7:9-13; 20:4).
- ⇒ Being made priests (Rev.20:6).
- ⇒ Being made kings (Rev.1:5; 5:10).

Rewards Dealing with our Inheritance or Wealth

- ⇒ Being made an heir of God (Ro.8:16-17; Tit.3:7).
- ⇒ Being given an incorruptible inheritance (1 Pt.1:3-4).
- ⇒ Being given the blessings of the Lord (Pr.10:22).
- ⇒ Being given durable riches and righteousness (Pr.8:18).
- ⇒ Being given unsearchable riches (Eph.3:8).
- ⇒ Being given treasures in heaven (Mt.19:21; Lk.12:33).

DIVISION VIII

THE SEVENTH TRUMPET IN DETAIL (PART III):
THE VICTORY OF THE LAMB IS ASSURED, 14:1-20

F. Assurance 6: The Glorious Harvest of the Godly Will Take Place, 14:14-16

(14:14-16) Introduction: Jesus Christ is going to be victorious over all the ungodly and evil of this world. This is the great announcement of the two angels in this passage. Jesus Christ is going to triumph. In the last days of human history, He is coming back, and He is going to harvest the earth. He is going to reap those who believe in Him and take them on to heaven with Him. But He is going to judge the ungodly and evil of this earth. Christ and His followers will be vindicated: the world will see and know that Christ is truly the Son of God who came to earth to save man. The world is going to know...

- that He was well worth forsaking the world and its pleasures and possessions for.
- that He was well worth following and standing up for.
- that He was well worth even dying for.
- that He was well worth denying oneself for.
- that He was well worth sacrificing everything for.
- that He was well worth suffering persecution for.

When Jesus Christ returns in judgment, the world will know that He is exactly who He claimed to be: the Son of God, the Lord and Majesty of the universe. But it will be too late. He is returning in judgment. He came the first time in mercy and grace to save people. But now, the next time, He returns in glory and majesty to judge the earth. This is the scene of this passage. This is the sixth great assurance to believers: the day of harvest is coming. The Lord God is going to reap the earth. The believers are going to be taken home to heaven to live with God and Christ forever. And all the ungodly and evil are to be judged and shut out from God's presence. There is to be a perfect world in which nothing reigns but godliness and righteousness. God is going to create a new heavens and earth, and believers are to have the glorious privilege of living there with God forever and ever. This is the scene of this passage: the great day of earth's harvest, the glorious harvest of God's dear people, the harvest of the earth will take place.

1. The harvester: the Son of Man (v.14).
2. The harvest of the earth (v.15-16).

1 (14:14) Jesus—Jesus Christ, Return: there is the harvester of the earth, the Son of Man Himself. The Son of Man is Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ is not only what an ordinary man is, a son of man; Jesus Christ is what every man ought to be, the Son of Man Himself. When He came to earth, He suffered through all the temptations and trials of life just as all men do. But there was one vast difference: Jesus Christ never sinned. He was sinless. Therefore, He is the Ideal Man, the Representative Man, the Perfect Man, the embodiment of everything a man ought to be. Jesus Christ is the perfect picture of a man. Everything that God wants a man to be is seen perfectly in Jesus Christ.

The title also stresses the Ideal Servant of man. When Jesus Christ came to earth, He loved and cared for the poor, the broken-hearted, the captive, the blind, the bruised, the outcast, the bereaved. Jesus Christ is the perfect and ideal example of concern and caring. He secured and set an example of how every person ought to serve others.

But note: people do not believe this. They do not believe that God sent His Son into the world to save them. People reject Jesus Christ as the sinless Son of God, as the perfect Son of Man, as the ideal of what all sons of men should be. Some are willing to accept Him as a great teacher and religious leader, but they rebel against, deny, and even curse Him as the Son of Man. This is the reason Jesus Christ is going to return to earth as the Son of Man: to vindicate exactly who

REVELATION 14:14-16

He is. The world is going to know that the Man Jesus, the carpenter from Nazareth, is the very One whom God sent to set the pattern for all men, the pattern of how we should live and minister to others. God sent His Son Jesus to be the Son of Man for all men. And when He returns, all men will know it, for He shall return as the Son of Man.

Now, note how He will return.

1. Jesus Christ shall return in a white cloud: white symbolizes the purity of heaven. He will be coming...
 - from the world of purity and godliness.
 - in the purity and godliness of heaven.
 - to bring purity and godliness to the whole universe.
2. Jesus Christ shall return wearing a gold crown. Gold symbolizes value and preciousness, and the crown symbolizes royalty, rule, dominion, and sovereignty. Jesus Christ is coming to take His rightful place in the world, to conquer all the ungodliness and evil of the world and to bring the rule and reign of God to the universe. Nothing could be any more precious nor of any more value than the rule of God upon earth. Life in God's new heavens and earth will be the most precious and valuable experience imaginable.
3. Jesus Christ shall return with a sharp sickle in His hand. The sickle is a sharp tool with a long knife-like edge used to harvest the grain of the fields. This is a picture of judgment. In the end time when Jesus Christ returns, He will be returning with the sickle in His hand. He will be returning to judge the world.

“Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels” (Mk.8:38).

“For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself; and hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man” (Jn.5:26-27).

“And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God” (Acts 7:56).

“Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead” (Acts 17:31).

“And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ” (2 Th.1:7-8).

“And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him” (Jude 14-15).

“Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen” (Rev.1:7).

2 (14:15-16) Judgment—Jesus Christ, Return: there is the harvest of the earth, the separation of believers from the ungodly and evil of the earth. The scene is spectacular and awesome: there is Jesus Christ hovering over the earth with a sickle in His hand, and in a moment's time every eye sees Him. The sight is wonderful and glorious to believers, for it means that the great day of their redemption has come. But it means fear and horror to unbelievers, for it means that the great day of God's wrath has come to fall upon them. Note two significant things.

1. First, note that the harvest of the earth will be ripe. Another angel comes out of the temple of God, that is, out of heaven itself. This means that he comes from the very presence of God and is bringing the very message of God. What he has to say is from God Himself. What is the message? The harvest of the earth is ripe. The time for God's Son, the Son of Man, to reap has come. Therefore, the shout of the angel is, “Thrust in your sickle and reap!”

Note that the reference is to Christ Himself. It is time for Him to reap His harvest, those who belong to Him. It is time for Him to separate His own followers from the ungodly and evil and to take His followers to be with Him. Keep in mind that this is speaking of the end time, right before the world is to end. The believers, the followers of Christ upon earth during those days, will have suffered enough at the hands of the antichrist and a godless world. The heart of Christ—as much as He longs for all persons to be saved, as much as He may wish to continue to be patient so that one more person might be saved—can take no more. He cannot bear the ungodliness and evil against His people and against Himself any longer. It is time, time for the great day of His harvest, time to reap the fruit He has borne, time to take His dear servants home to heaven, His dear servants who have borne so much trial and so many temptations.

2. Second, note that the harvest takes place (v.16). Jesus Christ “thrusts in the sickle on the earth; and the earth is reaped.” The believers are harvested; they are taken out of the world and away from its ungodliness and evil. They are harvested to be with Christ forever and ever. They are delivered and freed from all the toil and sufferings of this earth. Never again will a believer...

- suffer due to the mistreatment of an ungodly person.
- suffer due to hunger or cold or heat.
- suffer due to disease or accident.
- suffer due to toil and exhaustion.
- suffer due to temptation and trial.
- suffer due to sin and ungodliness and evil and death.

Never again will the believer suffer a single tear. The believers of the end time, those dear people who trust and stand for Christ against the antichrist and his godless society—all believers are going to be harvested and taken home to heaven to be with Christ forever and ever. Christ is going to join us together: us and all of our dear loved ones who have gone before and all of the tribulation saints. Jesus Christ is going to take us all and form one great massive society with which He is going to populate the new heavens and earth. We—all believers of all time—are to be the citizens of the new heavens and earth. We are to be the servants of God and Christ, the servants who oversee the operation of the universe for God.

REVELATION 14:14-16

Now note: this is the picture of the believers of the end time being harvested. This is the picture of their being taken up from off the earth and taken into the shelter of heaven, taken out of the stormy and violent weather of a godless world. This is the picture of the wheat being separated from the tares, the picture of the Son of Man reaping His harvest, His fruit, His people. This is exactly what Christ and Scripture say.

“Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn” (Mt.13:30).

“So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just” (Mt.13:49).

“And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats” (Mt.25:32).

“Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable” (Lk.3:17).

“And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence” (Lk.16:26).

“Evil pursueth sinners: but to the righteous good shall be repaid” (Pr.13:21).

DIVISION VIII

THE SEVENTH TRUMPET IN DETAIL (PART III): THE VICTORY OF THE LAMB IS ASSURED, 14:1-20

G. Assurance 7: The Terrible Harvest of the Ungodly Will Take Place, 14:17-20

(14:17-20) Introduction: the great day of earth's harvest is coming, the harvest of the ungodly and evil of this world. Jesus Christ is going to judge all the ungodly and evil of this world. Not a single person will escape. And He is going to judge them in wrath, not in love. The day is coming when the world will be ripe for judgment, a day when ungodliness and evil will be cut totally loose and run rampant upon earth. Horrors of lawlessness and evil and murder will run so wild that Christ cannot take it anymore. The people of the world will be engulfed in idolatry, murder, sorcery, immorality, and stealing. They will be materialistic and worldly, atheistic and God-rejecting; there will be no hope whatsoever that they will ever change and turn to God. There is coming a time when the situation upon earth is utterly hopeless and helpless. When that day comes, then comes the great tribulation of the earth. And in the end of that great tribulation, in the very last day of world history, Jesus Christ shall reap the earth. The last passage looked at the reaping of the godly. This passage looks at the reaping of the ungodly and evil of this world. This is the great day of earth's harvest; the terrible harvest of the ungodly and evil of this world will take place.

1. The harvester: a great angel (v.17).
2. The terror of the harvest of the ungodly (v.18-19).
3. The terror of Armageddon, the place where the wrath of God falls (v.20).

1 (14:17) Judgment—Ungodly—End Time: there is the harvester, a great angel.

- ⇒ He comes out of the temple of God. This means he is from heaven, from God, from the very presence of God and on a special mission for God.
- ⇒ He holds a sharp sickle in his hand, the threshing tool of the farmer or vineyard keeper.

2 (14:18-19) Judgment—Ungodly—Unbelievers: there is the terror of the harvest of the ungodly.

1. There will be the terror of the angelic cry. This is a second angel, but he does not come from God's presence. He comes from the altar of incense, that is, from the altar where the prayers of God's people are kept, and where the martyred saints of Christ are stationed in heaven. Remember: there have been millions of believers martyred down through the centuries, and there will be millions more martyred in the end time. Through all of their suffering they were praying for the same thing for which we pray: for God's kingdom to come to earth, for righteousness and justice and love to rule upon earth. When this angel appears, he symbolizes that these prayers of God's people are about to be answered. The Lord Jesus Christ is now ready to rid the world of all the ungodly and evil. Note two things.

- a. The angel has the power of fire. This means that the fire of God's judgment is to be cast upon the earth and all unbelievers are to be consumed.
- b. The angel cries out for judgment to begin. Note how the ungodly and evil of the earth are said to be clusters of grapes hanging on the vine of the earth. There are two vines in the earth: the vine of Jesus Christ and the vine of the world.
 - ⇒ Jesus Christ said that He is the vine and His followers are the branches.

"I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing" (Jn.15:5).

- ⇒ This passage also says that the earth has a vine, a vine of worldliness and ungodliness and evil, a vine that will reach its full growth in the end time in the antichrist and his followers.

"Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe" (v.18).

Thought 1. A person chooses upon which vine he will hang. He chooses which cluster of grapes he wishes to be a part: the followers of Jesus Christ or the followers of the world and of the antichrist, the followers of righteousness or the followers of the ungodly and evil.

“But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come” (Mk.4:29).

“Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision” (Joel 3:14).

“Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation” (2 Cor.6:2).

2. There will be the time of God’s wrath. This is a frightening picture of terror and horror, of the terrible judgment to come.

“And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great winepress of the wrath of God” (v.19).

The angel lifts the sickle high into the air and with the swift stroke of God’s omnipotent power, he thrusts the sickle of eternal judgment into the earth. The vine of the earth is cut, all the ungodly and evil of the earth are...

- cut down and gathered together.
- cast into the winepress of God’s wrath.

What is the winepress of God’s wrath? The winepress was a trough usually made out of either stone or brick that was placed over a large vat. The grapes off the vine were placed into the trough. People would trample the grapes and the juice would flow through holes in the bottom of the trough into the vat underneath.

This is a graphic picture of the wrath of God. God’s wrath will be like the trampling of grapes underfoot. The picture is that of no mercy, no compromise, and no grace. The picture is twofold.

- a. The trampling of the grapes was deliberate. It was purposeful. It was to get the juice out of the grapes not to save the grapes. There was no love, no compassion, no feelings for the grapes. The grapes were to be trampled underfoot. This will be the wrath of God. God’s wrath will be deliberate and purposeful. It will be to execute perfect justice upon the ungodly and evil of this world. There will be no love, no compassion, no mercy, no feelings extended out in the terrible day of the harvest of the earth. All persons, every single one of us, will stand before God who is perfectly just, who in His perfection of justice must execute justice upon all persons. All the ungodly and evil of this world will be cast into the winepress of God’s wrath and trampled underfoot without any compassion or mercy.
- b. The trampling of the grapes was thorough. The clusters of grapes were trampled and trampled until every single grape was crushed. So shall the wrath of God be. God’s wrath will be thorough. Not a single person shall escape the wrath of God. All the ungodly and evil of this world shall be placed in the winepress of God’s holy wrath. God’s wrath will execute perfect justice. God will be totally unlike man: He will show no partiality, no favoritism, and no discrimination. God will see that all persons receive exactly what they deserve, exactly what their works were upon earth. God will see that every unjust and ungodly and evil act against God and others is repaid—measured out exactly on the basis of what each person did. God’s wrath will be perfect retribution. No ungodly person will be judged for anything that he did not do. But he will be judged for what he did do. The ungodly and evil are guilty: they never trusted Jesus Christ to bear the guilt of their ungodliness and evil for them. Therefore, they must bear the guilt themselves; they must suffer the wrath of God. And the wrath of God is going to trample underfoot all the ungodly and evil of this world.

“And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great winepress of the wrath of God” (Rev.14:19).

“And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God” (Rev.19:15).

“He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him” (Jn.3:36).

“For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness” (Ro.1:18).

“But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath” (Ro.2:8).

“Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience” (Eph.5:6).

“But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men” (2 Pt.3:7).

“And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him” (Jude 14-15).

“Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him” (Ps.2:12).

“I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment” (Is.63:3).

3 (14:20) Armageddon—Judgment: there is the terror of Armageddon, the place where the wrath of God is to fall. Note two significant points.

1. The winepress of God’s judgment is trampled down “outside the city.” “The city” always refers to Jerusalem. This is a reference to what the Bible and believers call...

- the great battle of Armageddon
- the great day of the Lord
- the final battle of human history
- the judgment of God upon the ungodly and evil of this world
- the end of Satan’s rule upon earth

This is a picture of the armed forces of the world gathering outside Jerusalem under the leadership of the antichrist. They are there in all their earthly glory and might, or so they think. While there, the midnight hour of judgment strikes. The time for God’s eternal judgment and wrath to fall comes, and the quickest defeat in human history occurs against the greatest army ever amassed by man. The antichrist and the armies of his military might are destroyed by the very Word of the Lord’s mouth and by the glory of His appearance. Second Thessalonians graphically describes the scene (see note—2 Th.2:8).

2. Note what the horrifying scene will look like: blood will flow out of the winepress of God’s wrath and the blood will be as deep as two feet in some places. The distance that the blood will flow is said to be about 184 miles—about the length of Palestine. The picture being painted is that of a thorough judgment. The army of the ungodly in all their glory and might will be immediately and thoroughly destroyed by the winepress of God’s wrath. (See notes—Rev.16:12-16; 19:17-21 for more discussion.)

⇒ Isaiah graphically pictures the scene.

“Who is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparel, traveling in the greatness of his strength: I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save. Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the winefat? I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the people there was none with me: and I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment. For the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come. And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me. And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth” (Is.63:1-6).

⇒ Joel graphically pictures the scene.

“Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up: beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruninghooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong. Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O LORD. Let the heathen be wakened, and come up the valley of Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about. Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe: come, get you down: for the press is full, the vats overflow; for their wickedness is great. Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision. The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining. The LORD also shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel. So shall ye know that I am the LORD your God dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall no strangers [ungodly heathen] pass through her any more” (Joel 3:9-17).

⇒ The Revelation graphically pictures the scene.

“And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God. And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean. And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS. And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God; that ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great. And I saw the beast [antichrist], and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army. And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshiped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone. And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh” (Rev.19:13-21).

⇒ Second Thessalonians graphically describes the scene.

“And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth [His Word], and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming [His glory]: even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, and with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: that they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness” (2 Th.2:8-12).

DIVISION IX

THE SEVENTH TRUMPET IN DETAIL (PART IV): THE THIRD GREAT WONDER, THE SEVEN BOWL JUDGMENTS, 15:1-16:21

A. The Heavenly Preparation for Judgment, 15:1-8

(15:1-8) Introduction: Revelation reveals that there is to be a terrible time coming upon the earth in the end time, a time so terrible that Christ Himself described it as the great tribulation (Mt. 15:21). Revelation uses some descriptive language to describe this period of time. It calls the judgments of the period trumpet judgments, picturing the blast of trumpets. There have been seven trumpet judgments altogether. But when the seventh trumpet blasted an amazing thing happened. There was no blast of judgment, not immediately. Instead an over-all picture of the end time was blown forth:

- ⇒ There was a picture of Israel being chosen as the nation through which God would send His Son into the world, the picture of Jesus Christ coming to the earth as the Savior of the world (Rev. 12:1-5).
- ⇒ There was the picture of the dragon, that old serpent, who is called the devil and Satan, working to get men to be ungodly and evil—all because he wants to cut and hurt the heart of God (Rev. 12:6-17).
- ⇒ There was the picture of the antichrist and of his right hand man coming upon the earth, the picture of how they will gain and consolidate power over the whole earth and launch the worst holocaust the world has ever seen (Rev. 13:1-18).
- ⇒ There was the glorious picture of the very end of the world when Jesus Christ triumphs over all the ungodly and evil of this world, the picture of Jesus Christ harvesting the earth, of His taking believers to heaven with Him and judging unbelievers (Rev. 14:1-20).

Now, the seventh trumpet blasts forth its judgments. And the judgments come fast and furious. Why? Because they are the very last judgments. God has decided to end human history. He has decided to stop all the ungodliness and evil of the earth. He can no longer take the rebellion, denial, cursing, immorality, stealing, drunkenness, sorcery, and murder of man. Therefore, Jesus Christ will destroy all the ungodly and evil of this world and do it quickly. Remember: the whole tribulation period will last seven years. It will be divided into two periods: the first period will be three and one half years and is called the beginning of sorrows. The last period will also be three and one half years and is called the great tribulation.

- ⇒ When the tribulation begins, during the first three and one half years, there will be seven seal judgments that will take place upon earth (Rev. 6:1-7:17).
- ⇒ When the great tribulation itself begins, the final three and one half years, there will be seven trumpet judgments that will take place upon earth (Rev. 8:1-14:20).

⇒ Then, at the very end of the tribulation period, there will be seven more judgments, the seven bowl judgments. The bowl judgments will end human history as we know it.

This passage is the heavenly preparation for judgment. This is the preparation that will be made for the launch of the judgments that will end all the ungodliness and evil of man upon earth.

1. The sign of judgment in heaven (v.1).
2. The reason for the judgment: believers will be martyred by the beast or antichrist (v.2-4).
3. The judgment of God will be sent forth (v.5-8).

1 (15:1) Heaven—Wrath, God’s: there is the sign of God’s judgment in heaven. The scene in heaven strikes reverence in the human heart. Note: the scene in heaven is said to be a sign:

- ⇒ a sign that is great and awesome
- ⇒ a sign of seven mighty angels or messengers prepared to go forth for God
- ⇒ a sign of seven plagues that are said to be the last plagues
- ⇒ a sign of God’s wrath

This awesome sign in heaven is intended to stir people to bow before God who is just. God is love, but God is also just. And His justice is ready to be executed upon earth. His wrath against all the ungodly and evil upon this earth is ready to fall. God is ready to clean up the earth and to bring the reign of godliness and righteousness, love and joy, peace and glory. Therefore, man must prepare: repent and get ready before it is too late.

“Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand” (Mt.3:2).

“I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish” (Lk.13:3).

“Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee” (Acts 8:22).

“Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon” (Is.55:7).

2 (15:2-4) End Time—Believers: there is the reason for the judgment. Believers will be slaughtered by the beast or antichrist. This explains why the wrath of God is going to fall upon the earth in the last days. The beast, the antichrist, will launch the worst holocaust the world has ever seen. Literally millions of believers will be slaughtered during his rule upon earth. These verses show these dear believers in heaven. Note four things about them.

1. The martyred believers will be on the sea of glass that stretches out before the throne of God itself (cp. Rev.4:6). Note that the glass is mingled with fire. This symbolizes...

- the fire of persecution these dear believers went through.
 - the fire of judgment that is about to fall upon the ungodly and evil of the earth.
2. The martyred believers will be victorious over the antichrist. They...
- will not worship his image (Rev.13:15).
 - will not receive his mark (Rev.13:16-17).
 - will not receive the number of his name, the number of 666 (Rev.13:18).

True believers in the end time will not follow the antichrist. They will refuse to worship the state and its leader. Therefore, the leader and his government will prosecute and kill the believers as revolutionaries against the government. Remember, the holocaust will not cover just a local nation or even several nations as all genocides have in the past. The holocaust of the end time will be world-wide. There will be millions more than ever before slaughtered in the most cruel and savage ways imaginable. They will be slaughtered because they are falsely accused of being enemies of the state. The result will be that God can take it no more. He is going to step in and stop the foolishness and evil of men. He is going to stop the evil rule of man upon this earth.

3. The martyred believers will possess harps. The harps are symbols of being soothed and given rest and of praising and worshipping God. God will soothe the hurt and pain of the martyred believers and give them rest, and they will praise and worship Him.

4. The martyred believers will sing two great songs of victory: the song of the Lamb and the song of Moses that was sung by the children of Israel when they crossed the Red Sea (Ex.15:1-19). Note what they sing.

- a. They sing to the Almighty God, praising His works.

“And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty” (v.3^a).

- b. They sing to the King of saints or nations, to the justice and truth of His ways. (The more accurate Greek texts read nations or ages here.)

“Just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints [nations]” (v.3^b).

- c. They sing to the Lord, to the fear and glory of His name.

“Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name?” (v.4^a).

- d. They sing to the holy and just God, for all nations shall come and worship Him because He is going to judge the earth.

“For thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest” (v.4^b). (Note that the millennial reign of Christ is being referred to in this statement of praise.)

Thought 1. The persons who stand up for Jesus Christ against the temptations and trials of this life are the persons who will be in heaven. But to be in heaven we must stand up for Christ. We must never accept the marks of this world or be identified among the number of unbelievers. We must be diligent and bear only the marks of Christ.

“And ye shall be hated of all men for my name’s sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved” (Mt.10:22).

“Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord” (1 Cor.15:58).

“Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him” (Jas.1:12).

“Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness” (2 Pt.3:17).

“For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?” (1 Jn.5:4-5).

“He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God” (Rev.2:7).

“And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations” (Rev.2:26).

“He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels” (Rev.3:5).

“Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name” (Rev.3:12).

“To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne” (Rev.3:21).

“He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son” (Rev.21:7).

3 (15:5-8) Judgment—Wrath, of God: there will be the judgment of God sent forth. Note four things.

1. The door to the “temple of the tabernacle” is opened up (v.5). The “temple of the tabernacle” refers to the inner sanctuary of the tabernacle in the Old Testament, that is, to the Holy of Holies or the Most Holy Place. The picture is this: the judgment of God will come from the Most Holy Place, from the very presence and heart of God Himself. His presence and heart will have been violated and polluted enough by sin and evil. Therefore, His presence and heart will be vindicated. God Himself will send forth His final judgment upon the antichrist and his ungodly followers.

2. The seven angels come out from the Most Holy Place, out from God’s own presence, and they are awesome creatures (v.6). The scene is terrifying, for...

- they hold the seven plagues in their hands.
- they are dressed in pure and white linen, the symbol of the holiness of heaven. God’s holiness, His righteousness, and His justice are now to be exercised and brought to this world, to rule and reign throughout the whole earth.
- they have gold belts, the symbol of royalty and authority and power. God has the right and power as the Sovereign King of the universe to execute justice.

3. The seven angels are given seven gold bowls that are fitted with the wrath of God (v.7). The idea of bowls is that there is no lid or covering on the bowls. They will be poured out upon the earth quickly and efficiently. And every effort to stop the judgment and wrath of God will only result in their being splashed or spilt upon the antagonist. That is, nothing will be able to stop the bowl judgments of God. God will be ready to stop the ungodly and evil of this world. And note: He has the right to judge the world. He is the One who lives forever and ever. He and He alone is God. Therefore, His wrath is going to fall upon all who have refused to drink the cup of His salvation.

⇒ There is the cup of salvation.

“I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the LORD” (Ps.116:13).

⇒ There is the cup of wrath and judgment.

“For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup, and the wine is red; it is full of mixture; and he poureth out of the same: but the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them” (Ps.75:8).

REVELATION 15:1-8

4. The door to the temple of God, to heaven and salvation, will be closed. No one will be able to enter heaven any longer, not until the seven judgments are completed. This is a terrifying thought. When the final judgments begin to fall in the last days, the grace of God will be withdrawn and prayer for mercy will do no good. The door to heaven and salvation will be closed. The judgment of God will be falling upon the antichrist and his ungodly and evil followers. Note how descriptive the scene is pictured: the glory and power of God which shines brighter than the sun itself becomes so furious and hot that smoke begins to arise from their energy. The glory and power of God are energized and flexed to consume the evil of this earth. And no man will be able to enter the temple of God's presence and stop it. It will be too late.

“He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him” (Jn.3:36).

“For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness” (Ro.1:18).

“But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath” (Ro.2:8).

“Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience” (Eph.5:6).

“Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him” (Ps.2:12).

“Thou hast covered with anger, and persecuted us: thou hast slain, thou hast not pitied. Thou hast covered thyself with a cloud, that our prayer should not pass through” (Lam.3:43-44).

DIVISION IX

THE SEVENTH TRUMPET IN DETAIL (PART IV): THE THIRD GREAT WONDER, THE SEVEN BOWL JUDGMENTS, 15:1-16:21

B. The Pouring Out of the Bowl Judgments, 16:1-21

(16:1-21) Introduction: judgment is coming to this earth, terrifying judgment, judgment of such horror that it staggers human imagination. When? At the end of the world, right at the close of the period of history that the Bible calls the great tribulation. There are three terrifying judgments during the last days of human history.

- ⇒ There will be the seven seal judgments. These will be preliminary judgments, judgments that take place before the great tribulation. They occur during a period of time that Christ called the beginning of woes.
- ⇒ There will be the seven trumpet judgments that take place during the days of the great tribulation period.
- ⇒ There will be the bowl judgments of this passage. As stated, the bowl judgments take place right at the very end of the world, at the very end of the great tribulation.

There is to be one terrifying difference between the horrors of the bowl judgments and the other judgments. The seal judgments and the trumpet judgments will be limited judgments, but not the bowl judgments. The bowl judgments are total. Complete and final devastation will fall upon the ungodly and evil of this world under the bowl judgments. The bowl judgments will stop and end man's ungodly and evil ways upon earth.

1. A great voice crying, Go pour out the wrath of God upon the earth (v.1).
2. The 1st Bowl: upon the earth (v.2).
3. The 2nd Bowl: upon the sea (v.3).
4. The 3rd Bowl: upon fresh waters (v.4-7).
5. The 4th Bowl: upon the sun (v.8-9).
6. The 5th Bowl: upon the beast's seat, throne, or kingdom (v.10-11).
7. The 6th Bowl: upon the Euphrates River (v.12-16).
8. The 7th Bowl: in the air (v.17-21).

1 (16:1) Voice of God: there is a great voice shouting out, "Go, pour out the wrath of God upon the earth." This voice must be the voice of God. God alone could give the order to end world history. Note that it is the wrath of God being poured upon the earth. This immediately tells us several things:

- ⇒ That God is just and righteous. Therefore, we can have confidence that God will right all the wrongs and injustices upon earth.
- ⇒ That God loves and cares for the earth. He will not allow ungodliness and evil to continue on and on without being stopped.

2 (16:2) Judgment—Bowl: there is the first bowl judgment. It is poured out upon the earth. What is the judgment? Some kind of ulcerous sore. People will be afflicted with some kind of festering, cancerous sore. The idea is...

- that the sores will be harmful and malignant, open and foul; painful and putrifying, ugly and repulsive, humiliating and embarrassing.
- that the sores will cause agony and torture, giving no rest during the day or night.
- that the sores will be incurable and that there will be no relief from the pain.

But note a significant fact: the judgment is poured out only upon the antichrist and his followers, only upon the people who receive the mark of the beast and worship him and his government.

Thought 1. Note that the ulcerous sores are something like the judgment of boils that fell upon the Egyptians (Ex.9:8-11; cp. Dt.28:35).

3 (16:3) Judgment—Bowl: there is the second bowl judgment. It is poured out upon the sea. This probably points to the Mediterranean sea and not to all the oceans of the world. If it meant all the oceans, little human life of any kind could survive. This is especially true in the next judgment. We must always remember that the center of the antichrist's power will be in the Middle East or in some nation of Europe that was part of the old Roman Empire. Therefore, the concentration of judgments will probably be there. The sea will become infected with some kind of blood red contamination and all sea life within it will be killed. Imagine the sight of all sea life washing ashore along the coastlines of the sea, the smell and sight of death everywhere.

- ⇒ Imagine all the fishing industries and commercial outlets bankrupted and the effect upon the economy. It is all in the process of being destroyed because of the terrible evil of the ungodly of the world.

(Note: many commentators feel this does refer to all the seas of the world, and that the next judgment refers to all the fresh waters of the earth.)

Thought 1. There is an example of this in the red tide that sometimes strikes the coastlines of the world. When the red tide strikes, it pollutes the water, sometimes for mile after mile. The pollution is sometimes so bad that millions of fish and other sea life are destroyed. Fishing and harvesting of sea life for food are affected for months and sometimes years when the red tide strikes a body of water

The point is this: the red tide shows us that the sea can be contaminated. In the end time God is going to contaminate the sea, the whole sea. It is going to be destroyed.

4 (16:4-7) Judgment—Bowl: there is the third bowl judgment. It is poured out upon the fresh waters where the antichrist and his followers are concentrated. Again, this must be the meaning. Everyone on earth would die from this if there were no fresh water to drink, die within just a few days. This is the very same judgment that fell upon the sea. But just think for a moment: the effects of fresh water pollution will be much more devastating upon the antichrist and his followers. There will be little water available throughout the Middle East and Europe where his power is concentrated...

- little water for drinking
- no water for washing and bathing

Just think of the water and food that will have to be transported and airlifted into the Middle East and Europe from other parts of the world. As we shall see in a moment, the armed forces will no doubt be supplied first.

Now note something: these judgments are predictions about what is going to happen in the end time. Therefore, there are always people who hear about the judgments and question them because they do not fit in with their idea of God. To them God is too loving and kind to ever do such a thing as pour His wrath out upon earth. But note: Jesus Christ knew that there would be objections to these judgments. Therefore, right here in the midst of the third judgment, Jesus Christ reminds John and all others why God is going to pour out His wrath upon the earth and destroy it. What is the reason? Why would God destroy the earth and punish people? For two reasons.

1. First, because of the mass murder that will be launched in the end time (v.16). The antichrist and his followers will launch the most terrible holocaust ever witnessed by the world. Every believer and every Jew and every person who remains loyal to his religion—all who refuse to worship the state and its leader in the end time—they will all be slaughtered. There will be millions heaped upon millions of people slaughtered by the most cruel and inhuman methods imaginable.

2. Second, because God is true and righteous; He is just (v.7). Therefore, in the end time God will be confronted with such horrifying evil that He can no longer take the ungodly and evil of people. God will reach a point when His love for the godly people of the earth and for righteousness cannot take the murderous ways and rejection of people any more. When the holocaust is launched world-wide, He is going to punish the evil doers and end the world.

⇒ They imprisoned and tortured millions; therefore, God is going to punish them with an equal punishment, that of cancerous sores.

⇒ They murdered and shed the blood of millions. Therefore, God is going to punish the evil by allowing a bloody red substance to pollute the sea and the fresh water of the earth.

Note that an angel declares the true and righteous judgment of God. The angel declares that God is perfectly just, that He executes exactly what the ungodly and evil deserve.

“I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me” (Jn.5:30).

“But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things” (Ro.2:2).

“According to thy name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of righteousness” (Ps.48:10).

“The LORD executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed” (Ps.103:6).

“Righteous art thou O LORD, and upright are thy judgments” (Ps.119:137).

“The LORD is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works” (Ps.145:17).

“Tell ye, and bring them near; yea, let them take counsel together: who hath declared this from ancient time? who hath told it from that time? have not I the LORD? and there is no God else beside me; a just God and a Saviour; there is none beside me” (Is.45:21).

Thought 1. The rivers of Egypt were polluted by God with some kind of blood red pollution (Ex.7:17-25).

5 (16:8-9) Judgment—Bowl: there is the fourth bowl judgment. It is poured out upon the sun. Severe heat and radiation from the sun are going to scorch the ungodly and evil of this earth. There will be a heat wave unlike anything the earth has ever known. The sun will burn and scorch people with a blazing, fierce heat. They will be in misery and tormented and will fret and groan and be miserable. The idea is that the weather will be so hot that it will be like burning in a hot oven.

Note: the ungodly will still not repent. They will do what unbelievers have usually done when things go bad: curse and blaspheme the name of God. It may be the hitting of one’s fingers with a hammer or an accident in a car—no matter what it is, the response of the unbeliever is usually to curse and blaspheme. And in the end time it will be no different. The ungodly and evil will not repent any more than they do today. They will only curse the name of God.

“Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye” (Acts 7:51).

“So I spake unto you; and ye would not hear, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD, and went presumptuously up into the hill” (Dt.1:43).

“Yet he sent prophets to them, to bring them again unto the LORD; and they testified against them: but they would not give ear” (2 Chron.24:19).

“And they have turned unto me the back, and not the face: though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction” (Jer.32:33).

“As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, we will not hearken unto thee” (Jer.44:16).

“But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear” (Zech.7:11).

6 (16:10-11) Judgment—Bowl: there is the fifth bowl judgment. It is poured out upon the seat or throne of the antichrist. The whole kingdom of the antichrist and his followers will be full of darkness. This is not referring to spiritual darkness, but to some phenomena that blots out the light and heat of the day. Note: this is a drastic change from the scorching light and heat of the fourth judgment. Some darkness, some thick, heavy pitch black darkness will fall upon the whole kingdom of the antichrist, upon him and all who follow him. Note: this judgment seems to exclude the nations who are not actively included in the antichrist’s kingdom. Remember: there will be many nations cooperating with the antichrist but who are not actively included in his kingdom, not in the plotting of his murderous evil. They are, of course, guilty by association, guilty because they have formed an alliance with the antichrist. But they are apparently spared some of the judgments because they are not quite as guilty. However, their armies will be destroyed and their governments and cities utterly destroyed at Armageddon—all because they are ungodly and evil in so many other ways. (However, please note: again, this judgment—in fact, all the bowl judgments—could be world-wide. All the world to some degree will be cooperating with the antichrist. He will be sitting at the head of some world organization like the United Nations or the European Common Market. Therefore, the seat and kingdom of the antichrist could refer to the whole world.)

⇒ Joel predicted this heavy, black darkness.

“Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand; a day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations” (Joel 2:1-2).

⇒ Christ predicted that the sun and all other light would be darkened, stricken with pitch black darkness.

“Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken” (Mt.24:29).

The suffering will be excruciating and gnawing. The suffering of the sores, thirst, filth, and smell of water pollution, scorching heat, and now pitch black darkness will cause the antichrist and his followers to curse and blaspheme more and more. Note that the torment will be so painful and unbearable that they will be gnawing their tongue (v.10). But they will still not repent of their ungodly and evil deeds. They will only become more and more stubborn and hardened in their wickedness and rebellion against God.

Thought 1. Thick, heavy, pitch black darkness was also one of the judgments to fall upon Egypt (Ex.10:21-23).

7 (16:12-16) Judgment—Bowl: there is the sixth bowl judgment. It is poured out upon the Euphrates River (cp. Rev.9:13-21). Note verse sixteen quickly: the purpose of this sixth judgment is to prepare the nations and armies of the world for the great battle of Armageddon.

“And he gathered them [the nations] together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon” (v.16).

It is a judgment of deception, not of affliction. Armageddon is the last great war of the earth which will be instigated by the antichrist and his government. Note six facts in this sixth bowl judgment.

1. The judgment dries up the great Euphrates River. The Euphrates is the longest and by far the most important river of western Asia. It is 1780 miles long and ranges from 300 to 1200 yards wide. Its depth ranges from about 10 to 30 feet. From the Persian Gulf inland it can be navigated by small vessels for about 1200 miles. How could a river of such enormous size ever be dried up? Today, of course, man can build huge lakes, rivers, and canals such as the Panama Canal. Man can also divert huge lakes and rivers. Remember this: in the end time natural disasters will be increasingly striking the earth. Whole areas of the world will be devastated by the forces of nature going wild. Just how the great Euphrates River will be dried up—by man or by some devastation of nature—is not known. But Scripture clearly says that the waters of the river will be dried up. (Cp. Rev.6:1-8; 6:12-17; 8:6-12; 8:13-9:11; 9:12-21; 13:11-18.)

2. The reason for the drying up of the Euphrates is to allow a great armed confederation of nations to form and march against Israel and to exterminate the Jews. (See notes—Rev.14:20; 19:17-21 for more discussion.) Note: this confederation is called the kings of the east. Remember two things:

- a. No matter how sophisticated weapons get, it takes a soldier to set foot on a land to conquer it.
- b. A foot soldier is needed to conquer a nation when the conquerors want to preserve the land. Atomic weapons would only destroy the land and make it unusable for decades. In the end time the nations or kings of the east will want to preserve Palestine for its land and enormous wealth. Therefore, they will march against it with foot soldiers and weapons that will preserve the land itself. God will apparently help the advancement of the troops by seeing that the great Euphrates River is dried up when the march begins. The point is this: when the antichrist and the confederation of nations under his power begin to march against Israel, the other nations of the world apparently become edgy and nervous. The reason may be...
 - the fear of a military move to conquer the world by beginning in Palestine.
 - the resources of the Middle East and the threat to those resources (such as oil).
 - the insanity of exterminating a whole people and nation like the Jews.

“And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared” (Rev.16:12; cp. Ezk. chapters 38-39).

“And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever” (Dan.2:44; cp. Dan.7:19-27).

“And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more” (Is.2:4).

“But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked” (Is.11:4).

“Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up: beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruninghooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong. Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O LORD. Let the heathen be wakened, and come up the valley of Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about. Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe: come, get you down: for the press is full, the vats overflow; for their wickedness is great. Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision. The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining. The LORD also shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel” (Joel 3:9-16).

“Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy” (Zeph.3:8).

“And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak peace unto the heathen: and his dominion shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth” (Zech.9:10).

“And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem” (Zech.12:9; cp. Zech.12:1-9).

3. There is the source or spirit behind the confederation of nations. Note: this verse says that all the nations of the earth are going to be involved in the great battle of Armageddon.

- ⇒ The kings of the east: all the nations east of Palestine, apparently involving the Arabs, China, and all the other eastern nations. These will probably be headed up by the antichrist.
- ⇒ The kings of the north: all the nations north of Palestine including Russia.
- ⇒ The kings of the south: all nations south of Palestine including the nations of Africa.
- ⇒ The kings of the west: all the nations west of Palestine including a western alliance and involving some of the European nations and probably including America and other nations of the Americas and Canada.

Armies will gather from every nation with each taking sides to protect its own interest. As stated, the point of conflict may be oil in the Middle East or the utter insanity of the antichrist to exterminate a whole people like the Jews, or it may be some other interest that we know nothing about yet. The point to see is this: in the last days all the nations of the world will converge upon the Middle East and be stationed within the borders of Palestine at Meggido. Each of the nations will join forces with two or more sides. They will be there to protect their own national interests in the Middle East and Palestine.

Note what is behind the whole scene: evil spirits. Evil spirits are giving power to the mouth of the antichrist and his false prophet. This means the power to influence and deceive the leaders of other nations. The evil spirits will give the two leaders supernatural power to inspire their confederation to march and conquer Palestine. All the other nations will march to protect their interest in the region (perhaps oil). The description of the evil spirits as frogs symbolizes the ability to leap and spread the deception from the dragon (the devil) to the antichrist and to his false prophet or executive officer and then to each of the nations. The picture is that of the demons working miracles. What kind of miracles? Scripture does not say, but the idea is that of...

- deceptive dreams of glory
- glorious triumphs and visions of grandeur
- setting passions aflame and of striking fear within the heart, and arousing bitterness and hate among nations.

The result of the evil spirits is the gathering together of all the armies of the world to the place in Palestine called Armageddon or the valley and mountain of Meggido. This is the great valley that runs through the middle of Palestine from the Mediterranean Sea to the Jordan River. It is about 200 miles long and ten miles wide.

“And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him” (Rev.12:9).

“And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty” (Rev.16:13-14).

4. There is the day of Armageddon. The day when all this will happen is called by Scripture “the great day of God, the Almighty.” This is the day the armies of the world will be destroyed, all the ungodly and evil of this world. It is the day when Jesus Christ will return to rule and reign over the earth. When all the armies are gathered together for battle then Jesus Christ will consummate this age of grace. Time and history as we know it will be no more. Godliness and righteousness will be brought to earth by the Lord Jesus Christ Himself.

5. There is the great warning of Christ to the people of the earth: watch and be prepared. Only those who have kept themselves unspotted from the worldliness of this earth and from following the antichrist will escape the terrible judgment coming. A person must be clothed in the white garment of the Lord's righteousness. The person must trust and diligently seek the righteousness of Jesus Christ or else he will be found naked and stripped of the white garment of the Lord's righteousness.

Note: Jesus Christ says He is returning to earth as a thief, totally unexpected. Just when He is coming back for the believers of the tribulation period is not known—not by anyone. Therefore, all must watch and be prepared.

6. The place of the great battle is called Armageddon or the great valley of Meggido in Palestine. (See outline and notes—Rev.19:17-21 for more discussion.)

“Watch therefore: for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh” (Mt.25:13).

“Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them” (Lk.12:37).

“Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness. Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober” (1 Th.5:5-6).

“Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown” (Rev.3:11).

“Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame” (Rev.16:15).

8 (16:17-21) Judgment—Bowl: there is the seventh bowl judgment. It is poured out into the air or atmosphere. The very air that man breathes is affected; it is poisoned. The very breath of life is taken from him. Note three points.

1. God's thundering voice announces, “It is done.” The judgment upon all the ungodly and evil armies of this world is seen consummated: all the armies of the ungodly and evil nations are wiped out by the judgment of God.

2. Nature breaks loose in the most terrifying devastation and horror imaginable. The most awesome and spectacular display of the power and glory of God is launched. There will be violent storms and a world-wide catastrophic earthquake. Imagine an earthquake that will violently affect the whole world. The Amplified New Testament states it well:

“And there followed lightning flashes, loud rumblings, peals of thunder, and a tremendous earthquake; nothing like it has ever occurred since men dwelt on the earth, so severe and far reaching was that earthquake” (v.18).

a. The great city of Jerusalem will be shaken by the earthquake and divided into three parts, that is, utterly destroyed. Babylon, the capital of the antichrist, will collapse and be broken up into three parts (v.19). That is, it will be utterly destroyed.

b. There will be whole cities throughout the nations of the world that will collapse into utter ruin (v.19). There will be devastation, destruction, horror, injury, death, and mass confusion.

c. The great world capital, Babylon, will be remembered by God, and He will especially pour upon her the cup and fierceness of His wrath (v.19).

d. Much of the earth will literally break up: some islands and mountains will disappear (v.20).

e. The storms will rain great hail storms out of heaven weighing up to one hundred pounds (v.21).

3. There is the reaction of the ungodly and evil survivors around the world. They still blame and blaspheme God, and still do not repent. We would expect repentance, but the ungodly and evil of the last days will be as hard and stubborn as the ungodly and evil are today.

“And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast [the antichrist] rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy” (Rev.13:1).

“And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds” (Rev.16:11).

VISION THREE, 17:1-21:8

DIVISION X

THE JUDGMENT OF BOTH RELIGIOUS BABYLON AND POLITICAL BABYLON, 17:1-18:24

A. The Description of Religious Babylon, of False Religion, 17:1-6

- (17:1-18:24) DIVISION OVERVIEW: Babylon: Jesus Christ is coming back to this earth. He is coming to bring righteousness to this earth. But before He can come and establish righteousness in the earth a few things have to be done.
- ⇒ All the godless and evil armies of this earth have to be destroyed. This we have just seen in the former chapter (Revelation Chapter 16).
 - ⇒ All the false religion in this world has to be destroyed. This is the discussion of the present chapter (Revelation Chapter 17).
 - ⇒ All the godless politics and governments and social systems of this world have to be destroyed. This will be the discussion of the next chapter (Revelation Chapter 18).

When these three things are done, then the ungodly and evil of this earth will be removed and Jesus Christ can come to earth and set up His kingdom of righteousness. As stated, the armies were destroyed in the former chapter. Now, God shows us how both false religion and the godless governments and politics of this world will be destroyed.

Note one thing: false religion and godless government have always been upon the earth, and they will be until the end time. In the end time the antichrist and the false prophet will institute a one-world religion, the worship of the state and its leader, the antichrist himself. All the evil that has ever been embodied in false religion will show its ugly head in the end time. False religion and godless government will be at their height, but they will also be at their lowest and most evil. It is this false religion and godless government of the end time, the worship of the state and the antichrist, that is the discussion of the present passage. But we must keep this in mind: all false religion and godless governments are embodied in the government and false religion of the end time. All godless government and false religion will be judged and wiped from off the face of the earth by the judgment of God. This is the great subject of this passage: the judgment of godless government and false religion, of what the Scripture calls political and religious Babylon.

(17:1-6) Introduction: false religion has done more to doom people than any other single thing. How? By its deception. False religion promises life, salvation, peace, security, and hope in some kind of life hereafter. But if it is false, it is a lie, total deception. This will be the great tragedy of false Babylon, of false religion in the end time. It will doom people by the millions, doom them for eternity. This is the reason this particular chapter is given in Revelation: to warn us about false religion and to warn us of religious Babylon, the false religion that is going to sweep the earth in the end time.

1. An angel approaches John (v.1).
2. Religious Babylon is a great harlot (v.1).
3. Religious Babylon sits upon many waters, that is, peoples (v.1).

4. Religious Babylon will be supported by the nations of the world (v.2).
5. Religious Babylon will receive its power from the beast or antichrist (v.3).
6. Religious Babylon will have a rich appearance but will be corrupt (v.4).
7. Religious Babylon will have a striking name (v.5).
8. Religious Babylon will be prejudiced and have fierce power (v.6).

1 (17:1) Religion, False—Babylon: an angel approaches John. Remember John is having a vision of the last days of human history. He has just been shown the great devastation of the last war, Armageddon, and of the catastrophic destruction of the great cities of the earth. He is standing there in utter shock and stone silence just as anyone else would be. But then all of a sudden one of the seven angels goes over to John. This is one of the seven angels who had poured the wrath of God upon the earth. The angel tells John to “come here, and I will show you the future judgment of false religion in the earth.” John walks over and sees one of the most amazing sights a person could ever witness: the description and judgment of false religion in the world.

2 (17:1) Religion, False—Babylon: religious Babylon (false religion) is a great harlot. In the Bible harlotry stands for false gods, false worship, false religion, and false devotion. It stands for idolatry. It stands for worshipping something other than God Himself, other than the only true and living God. This is the picture of religious Babylon. It is a false religion, the worship of an idol. A person commits spiritual harlotry or prostitution...

- when he imagines what God is like and follows his own thoughts about God rather than what Scripture reveals God to be.
- when he follows an earthly religion and its rituals, ceremonies, and teaching instead of following Jesus Christ as revealed in the Scripture.
- when he molds and makes an image and worships it.

Spiritual harlotry means to follow a false religion and worship, the worship of a false god. This is the picture of religious Babylon. The religion of the end time will be a false religion, the worship of an idol and not of God Himself.

“Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, and changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things” (Ro.1:22-23).

“Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils” (1 Tim.4:1).

“Having a form of godliness [ceremony, ritual, rules, worship], but denying the power thereof: from such turn away” (2 Tim.3:5).

“Little children, keep yourselves from idols” (1 Jn.5:21).

“Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them” (Dt.11:16).

“I am the LORD: that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images” (Is.42:8).

“Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, ye that are escaped of the nations: they have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven image, and pray unto a god that cannot save” (Is.45:20).

3 (17:1) Deception—Religion, False: religious Babylon (false religion) sits upon many waters, that is, people and nations. What this means is explained in verse fifteen:

“And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues” (v.15).

The picture is that religious Babylon will fill the earth: many races and multitudes and nations and languages will be caught up in the worship of the false religion.

Thought 1. As just stated, millions will be caught up in the false religion of the end time. But think about today: think about how many millions are following a false religion and worshipping idols around the world. But even closer to home: think how many profess Christ and yet do not believe or teach Christ and the Word of God.

4 (17:2) Religion, False: religious Babylon (false religion) will be supported by the kings, that is, by the nations and governments of the world. The governments of the world will encourage the worship of religious Babylon. This is, of course, referring to the worship of the state or government and secular society of the antichrist. (see note—Rev.13:13-17 for discussion. This is an important note to see how religious Babylon gains and maintains power in the end time and becomes the world-wide religion.) Religious Babylon will seduce the world with the wine of her false teaching. She will entice the peoples of the earth to worship the antichrist and his government and secular society.

Remember: the argument for worshipping the state and secular society will be strong. The antichrist and his government will bring peace and economic recovery to the earth. He will also provide massive aid to help the nations and peoples of the earth during the natural disasters that are increasingly striking the earth (see outlines and notes—Rev.6:1-8; 6:12-17; 8:6-12; 8:13-9:11; 9:12-21; 13:11-18 for more discussion). Whole areas of the earth will be devastated by the forces of nature going wild. The world and its people will be begging for help from some leader who has some answers. And the antichrist will be the one person and government that will have the answers, at least for a while. Therefore, the world will turn to him and his state for help and leadership. Many of the leaders and governments of the world will support his idea of a state religion in order to keep the masses of the world loyal to the state. The leaders of many nations will be convinced that the way to keep people supporting the government is this: lead the people to worship the government and to look to the government to meet the needs of society. The leaders will make the government or state the focus of attention, the center around which all life revolves. The government or state will become the god and man will become its servant. (Cp. communism or any other socialist or dictatorial state that is totally focused upon the government.)

The point is this: in the end time there will be a worldwide religion, a religion of the state. There will be a religious Babylon, a false religion that will try to seduce all the peoples of the earth into its control. The false religion will have the support of the kings and leaders of the world.

Thought 1. How many people prefer to belong to a religion or church that allows worldliness, that does not teach and preach separation?

“I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God” (Ro.12:1-2).

“Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty” (2 Cor.6:17-18).

“Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world” (1 Jn.2:15-16).

Thought 2. Many governments support major religions because of the good the religions do. Religion helps the state in promoting law and order, loyalty to the state, peace, morality, and discipline.

5 (17:3) Religious Babylon—Religion, False: religious Babylon or the false religion of the state will receive its power from the beast, that is, from the antichrist. The false religion in the end time will be supported by the antichrist and his government (see note—Rev.13:12 for discussion). Note three facts.

1. Religious Babylon sits upon a scarlet colored beast. Sitting means that the false religion is supported and dependent upon the state.

2. The scarlet colored beast is the antichrist. It is he who is full of names that blaspheme God. This means that all the heads or governments under his authority blaspheme and rebel against God. The false religion will actually represent blasphemous governments. It will not be a religion at all; it will be the worship of the state itself.

3. The beast with seven heads and ten horns is the antichrist. The seven heads are the seven nations that will voluntarily surrender to the control of the antichrist. He will have conquered three nations. The three conquered nations and the seven nations who voluntarily subject to his control give the antichrist the power of ten horns or nations. That is, the ten horns refer to ten powerful nations that will be under his control (see notes—Rev.13:1-2). He will have the power of the ten nations to support him in enforcing the state religion (see note—Rev.13:1).

The false religion will be dependent upon the power of the antichrist and the governments under his control. It will be the power of these governments that will hold the false religion up before the world. The nations under the control of the antichrist will be the primary nations preaching the false religion of Babylon, that is, the worship of the state.

Thought 1. There are many who try to mix religion with the world. They base their religion and morals upon their desires, upon what they want to do out in the world. Their religion is determined by their desires for the world. The world and its possessions and pleasures are put first, and then whatever religion is needed to salve their consciences is accepted.

“What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit which are God’s” (1 Cor.6:19-20).

“And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares” (Lk.21:34).

“Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth” (Col.3:2).

“Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world” (Tit.2:12).

“Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God” (Jas.4:4).

6 (17:4) Religion, False: the wealth and corruption of religious Babylon (false religion) in the end time will be tragic.

1. The false religion of the end time will be extremely wealthy. This is what is meant by the purple and scarlet clothing and the gold and precious stones and pearls.

Thought 1. Imagine a religion that is wealthy in the possessions of this world while so many in the world are in such desperate need! There are 40,000 children who die from hunger every day, and that is only the children who die from starvation. This 40,000 does not include the adults. And remember: in the end time the needs will be far greater among the millions suffering from the devastation of the catastrophes that will be hitting the earth and from the holocaust launched by the antichrist. Yet, the religion of the day will be wealthy and will even be hoarding its wealth. What a lesson to all believers and churches!

“Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me” (Mt.19:21).

“And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me” (Lk.9:23).

“So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple” (Lk.14:33).

“And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God’s sake, who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting” (Lk.18:29-30).

2. The false religion of the end time will be corrupt. It will offer a cup to help the people of the world, but the cup is full of abominations and filth. That is, what the false religion offers is idolatry, a polluted and corrupt worship.

Thought 1. All false religions feed people nothing but abominations and filth. The teachings and doctrines of false religion are disgusting and repulsive. Imagine being fed filth and abominations. This is what Scripture says we eat if we feast upon false religion.

“They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate” (Tit.1:16).

“But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily [quietly and secretly] shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of” (2 Pt.2:1-2).

“Little children, keep yourselves from idols” (1 Jn.5:21).

“Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them” (Dt.11:16).

7 (17:5) Religion, False—Babylon, Religious: the name of religious Babylon or false religion in the end time is striking.

“And upon her [the false religion] forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH” (v.5).

1. The name of religious Babylon, false religion, is a mystery. That is, the fact that false religion is false is not known to all people. Many do not know that they are worshipping a false religion. The fact has to be revealed to them.

Thought 1. How true this is! Think how many millions are worshipping a false god or a false Christ, a Christ that differs entirely from the Christ revealed by the Word of God.

2. Religious Babylon will be the mother of many false religions and abominations upon the earth. She gives rise to many false teachings and deceptions, to many corruptions in the worship of God. This tells us who religious Babylon is. It goes back to the building of the tower of Babel in the Old Testament. Under a leader named Nimrod, man decided to build the ideal state or utopia. Man turned away from God and set out to make himself secure by building a tower straight up to heaven. That is, he sought security, provision, and help from other men rather than from God. He joined hands with other people in trying to build the perfect and ideal world by their own efforts and without God. They omitted God altogether; they left God totally out of the picture. Note: the tower of Babel is the founding of the city of Babylon, the very first time the word Babylon is mentioned in the Bible. Thereafter, Babylon came to mean...

- either godless religion (cp. Is.1:21; Jer.2:20; 3:1; Ezk.16:15; Hos.2:5; 3:3; 4:15).
- or godless government and society (Is.23:17; Nah.3:4).

The point is this: religious Babylon stands for all false religion. It stands for all the religions that seek after heaven or utopia or the perfect life...

- by man’s own works and self effort.
- by man’s own goodness and self righteousness.
- by man’s own rituals and ceremonies.
- by man’s own ideas of God and worship of God.
- by man’s own religion and benevolent services.
- by man’s own government and state.
- by man’s own community and society.

In essence religious Babylon is the mother of all false religion. But there will be one major difference with the end time religion: man’s dream for a one-world government and a one-world religion will become a reality. All the evil and wrong that exist in false religion will be combined into one religion in the end time, and it will sweep and consume the world. Religious Babylon will spread her abominations and filth over all the world under one worldwide state religion. The religion will probably be eclectic, that is, assimilate enough of the major religions of the world to satisfy the great mass of people (cp. Rev.13:13f; 17:5, 15). The apostate religion will become symbolized in the very city of which its center is established—Babylon.

Thought 1. The only way to achieve utopia or heaven is through Jesus Christ, not by our own efforts. We should labor and labor diligently to build the best world and society we can, but with God, not without God.

“But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you” (Mt.6:33).

“For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved” (Ro.10:13).

“For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them” (Eph.2:8-10).

“Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you” (1 Pt.5:7).

“By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted: but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked” (Pr.11:11).

“Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people” (Pr.14:34).

8 (17:6) Religion, False—Babylon, Religious: the religious power and bigotry of religious Babylon (false religion) in the end time will be fierce. The false religion will be the leader in launching the holocaust for the antichrist. Literally millions upon millions—a numberless multitude—will be persecuted and killed because they refuse to worship the state and its leader, the antichrist. Note: many of the martyrs will be the followers of Jesus Christ. (See notes—Rev.6:9-11; 7:9-17; 13:13-17 for discussion.)

“But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues; and ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles” (Mt.10:17-18).

“Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name’s sake. And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another” (Mt.24:9-10).

“But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name’s sake” (Lk.21:12).

“Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also. But all these things will they do unto you for my name’s sake, because they know not him that sent me” (Jn.15:20-21).

“They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service. And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me” (Jn.16:2-3).

“Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution” (2 Tim.3:12).

“Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life” (Rev.2:10).

THE JUDGMENT OF BOTH RELIGIOUS BABYLON AND POLITICAL BABYLON, 17:1-18:24

B. The Power Behind Religious Babylon, Behind False Religion: The Beast or Antichrist, 17:7-18

(17:7-18) Introduction: in the end time Jesus Christ will be coming back to earth again. He will be coming back to establish righteousness in the earth. He will bring about the perfect and ideal society and government and the pure worship and service of God. But before He does this, He has to destroy all the ungodly and evil of this world. Righteousness cannot exist with ungodliness and evil. This also means that all false religion has to be destroyed as well. This is the subject of this passage, the destruction of religious Babylon, of false religion in the world. Remember: there will be a world-wide religion in the end time, the worship of the state and its leader, the antichrist. Everyone will be required by law to give his first loyalty to the state or else face death. This world-wide religion, this worship of the government and its leader, is what is meant by religious Babylon. The first part of the discussion is covered in the former passage (Rev.17:1-6). Because of the length of the discussion it has been divided into two parts. The present passage is the judgment of religious Babylon, of false religion (Part 2).

1. The mystery and details are given (v.7).
2. The source of the power of religious Babylon: the beast or antichrist (v.7-14).
3. The destruction of religious Babylon or false religion (v.15-18).

1 (17:7) Religion, False: religious Babylon, that is false religion, is a mystery. How a body of people can claim to believe and follow God and yet honor and put leaders, governments, states, doctrines, and rituals above God is a mystery. It is hypocrisy; it is counterfeit and false religion. How a body of people can claim to believe and follow God and yet slaughter millions of people because the people do not believe as they do is a mystery. It is hypocrisy, counterfeit, and false religion.

Yet this is just what John witnessed. He saw a picture of what false religion will be like in the last days of world history. And the picture was horrifying. The religion of the last days will join hands with the government of the antichrist and the false religion will sweep the world. John saw that most of the world will be seduced by the appeal of false religion, and most will worship the government as the great provider and protector of society. He also witnessed that religious Babylon or the false religion will slaughter millions upon millions of people because they refuse to put the state and secular society before their own religion. He saw that among these millions will be a great multitude of genuine believers. Seeing all this has left John in a state of bewilderment and amazement, wondering how such could ever take place. While he stood there somewhat shocked, the angel stepped forward and told John that he would now reveal the mystery and details of religious Babylon.

2 (17:7-14) Antichrist—Religion: there is the source of the power of religious Babylon, of false religion. In the end time the source of power for false religion will be the beast or the antichrist. (Note: practically all of the facts given in these verses have been covered in former notes. Where this is true, there is no need to repeat the discussion. Therefore, just a brief explanation will be given and then the note where the major discussion can be found.)

1. There is the greatness of the beast that supports false religion, the greatness of the antichrist (v.7^b-8).
 - a. There is the great earthly power of the antichrist: seven heads and ten horns. The antichrist will have seven heads or seven governments who will willingly subject themselves to his rule. But he will also have the power of ten horns or governments that support him. How? When he himself first comes to power, he will probably march against three governments and conquer them and absorb them into his own rule or nation. Either this or else three governments will form some alliance or confederation with him as their head. These three plus the seven who willingly submit to his rule will give him the power of ten governments. (See DEEPER STUDY # 1, chart, point 3—Rev.13:2 for more discussion.) Imagine the great earthly power the antichrist will have by ruling over all these nations and empires. The false religion of the end time will have a great power behind it.
 - b. There is the great supernatural power of the antichrist: he will be out of the bottomless pit, the very incarnation of evil itself or else be indwelt by some powerful evil spirit from the bottomless pit. (See notes—Rev.9:2; 11:7-10; pt.1—Rev.13:2-3 for more discussion.)
 - c. There is the end or doom of the antichrist: perdition (apoleian). The word means to be destroyed; to lose one's well-being; to be wasted and ruined and given a worthless existence. It does not mean that a person will cease to exist. It means a person will be destroyed and devastated and condemned to a worthless existence. He will suffer waste and loss and ruin forever and ever.

Thought 1. No matter how great a person may be, if he does not know Jesus Christ he will face perdition. The antichrist will be a great man in the eyes of the world. He will rule the whole world, but he will be doomed: all because he never gave his life and heart to Jesus Christ. No matter who the person is, if he stands as an enemy of the cross, he shall be destroyed. It does not matter who he is, either within or without the church, he shall suffer perdition, that is, utter destruction. Who is an enemy of the cross? The person...

- who rejects the cross of Christ as the only way to God.
- who does not accept the death of Christ as payment for his sins.
- who does not believe that Christ died for him, that is, as the punishment for his transgressions.
- who does not believe that the penalty for his imperfection was borne by Christ on the cross.
- who does not approach God claiming that he is coming by the death of Christ—that is, that he wants God to accept him in the death of Christ.
- who claims that there are other ways to approach God—ways other than the cross of Christ.
- who considers the cross of Christ to be foolishness.
- who opposes and curses Christ and His cross.
- who persecutes and attempts to stamp out Christ and His cross.
- who denies and questions that Christ died for his sins.

“And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal” (Mt.25:46; cp. v.25-45).

“But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation” (Mk.3:29).

“...he [Christ] will thoroughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable” (Lk.3:17).

“But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath, tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile” (Ro.2:8-9).

“And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power” (2 Th.1:7-9).

“Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace? For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people” (Heb.10:29-30).

“The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished” (2 Pt.2:9).

“And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire” (Rev.20:15).

“But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death” (Rev.21:8).

- d. The impact of the antichrist: he will amaze the world (see note, pt.2—Rev.13:4-8).
2. There is the power of the beast that supports religious Babylon or false religion (v.9-14). The power is phenomenal. Note four facts.
 - a. The beast or antichrist can be understood only by believers who are spiritually minded (v.9^a).
 - b. The great earthly power of the antichrist: he sits on seven mountains and embodies seven great kingdoms (v.9^b-10). (See DEEPER STUDY # 1, pt.2—Rev.13:2; DEEPER STUDY # 1—17:9-10 for discussion.)
 - c. The great supernatural power of the antichrist (v.10). He will be the full embodiment of evil. The beast or antichrist passes through three stages. He had an existence in the past, but he ceases to exist for a time. Then he is to ascend from the bottomless pit, that is, he is to either be filled with an evil spirit or else be an incarnation of satanic evil beyond anything ever seen before. He is the beast... the eighth [ruler who]...is one of the seven original rulers (v.11). He is to experience two stages of existence, and the second stage will be a full incarnation of evil. He will embody and include all the terrorizing traits of the ancient empires. (See note, pt.2—Rev.13:2-3; cp. Rev.13:14-17 for more discussion.)
 - d. There is the great rule of the antichrist (v.12-13). His ten horns are ten kingdoms. These ten kingdoms will be under the power of the antichrist and form a great alliance with him (v.13). (See notes—Rev.17:7-14; 13:1; also see DEEPER STUDY # 1, chart, pt.3—Rev.13:2.)
3. There is the terrible purpose of the antichrist and his alliance: to war against the Lamb, the Lord Jesus Christ (v.14). (See notes—Rev.7:13-14; 13:2-3; pts.6, 7, 9—Rev.13:4-7; 11:1; 16:12-16 for discussion.)

DEEPER STUDY # 1

(17:9-10) Antichrist—End Time: the seven mountains or seven heads are said by many to refer to Rome. That is, in the end time religious Babylon or false religion will sit in Rome. This is because Rome was known in ancient times as the city on seven hills. But note: this is not what John says. He clearly says that the seven heads represent seven kings or governments (v.10). By seven mountains he means that false religion sits upon seven kingdoms or empires that have complete and full rule and power. Note that the seven mountains and seven heads mean seven kings of kingdoms and empires. Note that this is what Scripture says.

“The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth. And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space” (v.9-10).

Who are these kings or kingdoms or empires? There are numerous ideas, but Scripture does not identify these kings. The best way to discover who they are is to look back through the Old Testament and note the kings or empires that opposed God’s people. When this is done, the following empires seem to be the most logical answer.

- ⇒ Five of the kings or empires are fallen. That is, they no longer exist. These seem to be Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Medo-Perisa, and Greece.
- ⇒ One of the kingdoms still remains. That is, it still exists and continues to exist down through the centuries. This would be Rome and the traits of Rome that have continued to exist down through the centuries: traits that exist in the ruling bodies and legislatures of governments, in the representative governments and laws of nations, and in the religion of Papal Rome.
- ⇒ One king or kingdom is not yet come. This would refer to a revival of the Roman empire or of many of the nations that were in the old Roman empire. The antichrist would embrace the traits of all the empires and rule over them all. He would be the eighth ruler mentioned in verse eleven.

3 (17:15-18) Religion, False—Babylon, Religious: there is the destruction of religious Babylon. The antichrist and his political alliance turn against the religious movement of Babylon. Remember: religion will be used by the antichrist to gain and hold the loyalty of the masses all over the world. A state religion will be established: every citizen will be forced to give his first loyalty to the state. It will be the state that will give people so much; therefore, the state will expect first loyalty. But note: the antichrist and the government will turn against religion and utterly destroy religion. Note three significant facts.

1. Religious Babylon (false religion) will gain enormous power in the end time (v.15). Religion will sit upon, that is, be supported by, multitudes and nations and languages. The idea is that practically everyone will be worshipping the image of the beast or state in the end time.

2. Religious Babylon (false religion) is utterly destroyed by the antichrist and his alliance (v.16). Why? The answer is given in the above point—power and money.

- ⇒ Just imagine all the money that it costs to keep a world-wide religion going: all the control and personnel needed and offices and other resources to oversee and make sure the citizens do show loyalty to the state.
- ⇒ Just imagine all the wealth that a world-wide religion would possess through contributions and through the property it would hold.
- ⇒ Remember the devastation that is taking place all across the world during the great tribulation, the enormous cost and great sums of money needed to meet the needs of cities and nations.

Once the antichrist and his state have the loyalty of the people committed to the state, they will no longer need the religion. The state will have the loyalty of the people. What it will not have is the money and wealth of the religion. Therefore, it will destroy the religion for its wealth and power. Note exactly what is said.

- ⇒ The state will hate religious Babylon: religion will have served its purpose. The state now wants complete end full control of the people and the wealth.
- ⇒ The state will make religious Babylon desolate: religion will be robbed of all its monies, wealth, property, and holdings.
- ⇒ The state will strip religious Babylon, make her naked: expose her corruptions to public view, showing why the religion must be destroyed.
- ⇒ The state will eat her flesh: consume her and take everything that is worth while and beneficial for the state. Whatever will benefit the state, the loyalty of the people and the wealth, will be consumed by the state.
- ⇒ The state will burn religion with fire. There will be nothing left but ashes.

3. Religious Babylon will be destroyed because of God. In the final analysis God is the One who will cause false religion to be destroyed. God will plant the idea to destroy religious Babylon within the mind of the antichrist. God will then arouse the ten other governments to support him. And false religion, religious Babylon, will be wiped off the face of the earth once for all.

Note how clearly religious Babylon is identified (v.18). The woman—religious Babylon, the state religion—is the great city that reigns over the leaders of the world. Religion, the false religion, will be the power that gains and holds the loyalty of the people to the state. But once its purpose is achieved—once the people are loyal to the state—there is no more need for the religion. The state will then covet the full power and wealth of religious Babylon and will go after it.

CHAPTER 18
	C. The Collapse of Political Babylon, 18:1-24
1 There is the great angelic announcement	And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.	Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.
2 The reasons why Babylon will be destroyed	2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.	11 And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:
a. Because of spiritual corruption	3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.	12 The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,
b. Because the city will corrupt nations, government leaders, & merchants	4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.	13 And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men.
c. Because the city will corrupt people & lead them to sin	5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.	14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.
d. Because the city will take the lead in persecuting God's people	6 Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double.	15 The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,
e. Because of self-glory, pride, selfish extravagance, & indulgence	7 How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.	16 And saying, Alas, alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!
3 The quickness of Babylon's destruction	8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.	17 For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off,
4 The impact of Babylon's fall	9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,	18 And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city!
a. The mourning by the government leaders of the world	10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city	19 And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich all that had in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.

DIVISION X

THE JUDGMENT OF BOTH RELIGIOUS BABYLON AND POLITICAL BABYLON, 17:1-18:24

C. The Collapse of Political Babylon, 18:1-24

(18:1-24) Introduction: this is the destruction of Babylon, the great capital of the antichrist. (See notes—Rev.14:8 for more discussion.) In the end time Babylon will be what any great capital city is: a great political, commercial, social, and cultural center. In fact, there are two basic ideas as to what Babylon represents in this passage.

- ⇒ First, some commentators believe that Babylon represents an actual city upon earth. The city is said to be either Rome or else the city of Babylon that will be rebuilt close to where it existed in ancient history. Babylon itself sat somewhere on the Euphrates River at the head of the Persian Gulf. The great preacher W.A. Criswell says that these commentators believe that the whole eastern area will become enormously wealthy with its rich oil reserves. They believe that the nations throughout the whole region will become nations of great commercial influence and power. The area has by far the largest population concentration in the world, a population that demands goods and a booming economy. In addition, the East sits right in the midst of what could become the greatest commercial market in the world: the whole of Europe sits to the north and west, and Africa with its masses sits due west. Then to the east is the vast markets of China, Japan, Australia, Indonesia, the islands of the Pacific and then there is the huge market of the great American continent.
- ⇒ Second, there are commentators who believe that Babylon represents all the political, commercial, social, and cultural systems of the world. They believe that it symbolizes the godless and secular societies of this world. Again as W.A. Criswell says, Babylon could represent any great city of the world such as Washington, New York, Tokyo, London, Moscow, or Paris. These commentators believe that this chapter is picturing the great destruction of all the godless societies of the end time with their political, commercial and cultural systems. They believe that Babylon is just a symbol of the destruction of the godless government and society all across the world. (Expository Sermons On Revelation, Vol.5, p.18f).

Both of these positions make sense, and both can definitely come true. The eastern nations of the world can undoubtedly become some of the wealthiest nations of the world with their vast population and resources (cp. the vast oil reserves and the possibility of the minerals yet to be discovered). Indeed, some nations already have enormous wealth. World-wide political and commercial power can come when some leader arises who can pull some of the nations into a confederation of cooperating states, some leader like the antichrist or some forerunner before he enters world history.

With this as background, this Scripture declares emphatically that Babylon is going to be destroyed. The great capital city of the world in the end time is going to be destroyed by the Lord Jesus Christ. Remember chapter sixteen where the seventh bowl judgment was poured out and all the great cities of the world were crumbled to ashes. This is where Babylon will be destroyed.

“And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great. And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath” (Rev.16:18-19).

Note that God Himself will destroy Babylon. It will be God Himself who will pour out the cup of His wrath upon Babylon, that godless city and society who will bring the great tribulation to the world. This is the picture of the collapse of political Babylon. (See note—Rev.14:8 for more discussion.)

1. There is the great angelic announcement (v.1).
2. The reasons why Babylon will be destroyed (v.2-7).
3. The quickness of Babylon's destruction (v.8).
4. The impact of Babylon's fall (v.9-20).

5. The actual destruction of Babylon (v.21-23).
6. The reason for Babylon's destruction repeated (v.23-24).

1 (18:1) Babylon—Government: there is the great angelic announcement from heaven. A great angel comes down from heaven. He is coming from God Himself, and he is coming with great authority and power. Note his glory: he is so glorious that the light of his glory blazes across the whole earth. This symbolizes that his message and mission are meant for the whole earth. The glory of what he is about to announce is for the ears of the whole world.

2 (18:2-7) Babylon—Society—Government: there are the reasons why Babylon, the capital of the antichrist, will be destroyed. Remember Babylon can also represent godless society. Five reasons are given why God will destroy the city.

1. Babylon will be destroyed because of spiritual corruption (v.2. See note, pt.2—Rev.18:23-24.) Babylon, the great city of the end time, will not look to God. Therefore, it will become...

- the place for devils and their worship.
- the place for every foul spirit.

Note how graphically the picture is painted: it will become the cage for every unclean and hateful bird. The morals and sins of Babylon will run so loose that the city will become a center for every foul and unclean spirit and filth of the underworld.

- ⇒ Immorality, fornication, adultery, homosexuality, abnormal sex—all forms of immoral behavior will run wild.
- ⇒ Lying, stealing, and cheating will run rampant.
- ⇒ Lusting after more and more of the possessions and pleasures of the world will increase greatly.
- ⇒ Sorcery, devil worship, witchcraft, palm readers, fortune tellers, and astrology will be revived and run loose.
- ⇒ Secularism, materialism, and humanism will dominate the philosophies and behavior of people.

There will be few who will believe and follow Christ and the Word of God. Babylon and society will be spiritually corrupt.

Thought 1. Scripture says that there are several spirits that corrupt man.

⇒ The spirit of bondage.

“For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father” (Ro.8:15).

⇒ The spirit of the world.

“Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God” (1 Cor.2:12).

⇒ The spirit of man.

“For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God” (1 Cor.2:11).

⇒ The spirit that works in the children of disobedience.

“Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience” (Eph.2:2).

⇒ The spirit of false teaching and preaching.

“Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world” (1 Jn.4:1).

⇒ The spirit of error.

“We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error” (1 Jn.4:6).

2. Babylon, the great capital city, will be destroyed because the city corrupted nations, kings, and merchants (v.3). The word “fornication” tells us what this means: fornication means spiritual fornication, the rejection of God and the turning to other gods. The world of the end time will be days of secularism, humanism, and materialism. Man will worship himself and his secular society. He will focus his life around...

- technology
- science
- education
- pleasures
- recreation
- comforts

Babylon, the capital of the world, will take the lead in the secular society. It will have economic wealth that will literally intoxicate the world. The businessmen and merchants of the world will grow rich because of its wealth. Its wealth will be so vast that it will be able to control nations and leaders and businessmen all over the world.

The point is this: the capital city will use its influence for evil, for secularism and power. The city will manipulate the nations and leaders of the world to follow its own evil purposes. Those evil purposes will be a secular society, a worship of the state and its leader as the answer to the utopian society, that is, to meeting the needs of the people. The city will lead the nations to exterminate the Jews, Christian believers, and the faithful of all other religions who refuse to give their first loyalty to the state. Babylon will be able to seduce the nations and leaders to follow in this evil plot because of its wealth. (See pt.6—Rev.13:4-8 for more discussion.)

“For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written”
(Ro.2:24).

Thought 1. Even today, if all the nations of the Middle East could be united under one rule, the confederation of power could make enormous demands and manipulate the money of the nations of the world. How? Through its oil. Add to this confederation some of the nations of Europe, of the Old Roman Empire that will be revived, and imagine the wealth and power. It would be mind-boggling—just stagger the imagination.

3. Babylon will be destroyed because the city will corrupt people through secularism (v.4-5). One of the easiest things in the world is to become influenced by secularism. A secular society offers comfort, health, education, possessions, pleasures, time, recreation, culture, and art. It offers all that a person could ever want physically and mentally. But it denies and rejects God. Therefore, the citizens of a secular society are led to focus life upon this world and nothing more. The result is utterly tragic: the citizens go out into eternity lost and doomed. They enter into whatever lies beyond this world unprepared. And Scripture declares that God and eternity lie beyond this world, either an eternity of hell and punishment apart from God or an eternity of life and reward with God. Therefore Babylon, the great city of secular society, will stand guilty of misleading people into sin, into the false belief of secularism and humanism. Note: these sins are said to have reached up to heaven and that God remembers its iniquities (v.5).

“This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy” (2 Tim.3:1-2).

“For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears” (2 Tim.4:3).

“And God looked upon the earth, and behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth” (Gen.6:12).

“Help, LORD; for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men” (Ps.12:1).

“The good man is perished out of the earth: and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net” (Mic.7:2).

4. Babylon will be destroyed because the city will take the lead in persecuting God’s people (v.6). Note the words “she rewarded you.” The antichrist and his government of Babylon will launch the worst holocaust the world has ever seen against believers, the Jews, and the religious faithful of the earth. Literally millions will be persecuted and killed in the most inhuman and terrorizing ways imaginable. The wrath of God will fall upon the government and capital that launched this merciless slaughter of human life. And note: the wrath will be double wrath. God will avenge the death of His dear followers, those who truly trust His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ.

5. Babylon will be destroyed because of self-glory, pride, selfish extravagance, and indulgence (v.7). Every good and every perfect gift comes from God. Therefore, the leaders and citizens of Babylon should praise and thank God for the wealth and comforts of their land and nation. And they should use their wealth to help meet the needs of a world that reels under the weight of so many desperate needs. This is exactly what God expects of every leader and people upon earth. Wealth of land and resources are not given for indulgent and extravagant living, nor for self-glorifying and boasting. The natural resources and wealth of the earth have been given by God to take care of the needs of man—all men—not for just a few. God will not, above all else, tolerate selfishness, hoarding, indulgence, extravagance, and then glorying in oneself because one has been able to hoard and bank more than someone else. This is the reason Babylon, the godless capital of the last days, will be destroyed. The city will lead the world to glory in the secular society of the state—the technology, science, humanism, and ability of the state to amass and provide wealth to the world. The city will lead the world to boast in the science and technology and efforts of man and his government—to ignore, reject, and deny God. Therefore, the judgment of God will fall and destroy Babylon.

“And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted” (Mt.23:12).

“Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked” (Rev.3:17).

“Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall” (Pr.16:18).

“A high look, and a proud heart, and the plowing of the wicked, is sin” (Pr.21:4).

“For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High” (Is.14:13-14).

“Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the LORD” (Obad.4).

3 (18:8) Judgment—Babylon: there is the quickness of Babylon's destruction. It will happen in one day. Actually verse ten says that the city will be destroyed in one hour, which is referring to immediate and instantaneous destruction. In one hour's time the plagues of death, mourning, and famine will sweep through the streets of the city, and then it will happen: the city will be utterly destroyed by fire. How? This verse tells us: by the strength of the Lord God who judges us.

Thought 1. Note two possibilities.

- ⇒ The words plague and death and mourning may be referring to an immediate plague of some sort hitting the city all at once, some plague that would have the same effects as poisonous gas.
- ⇒ The one hour destruction by fire may be referring to an immediate destruction like what fell upon Sodom and Gomorrah or to something that is as forceful and explosive as an atomic bomb.

"But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you" (Mt.11:22).

"And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory" (Mt.24:30).

"And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil" (Jn.3:19).

"And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ" (2 Th.1:7-8).

"And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment" (Heb.9:27).

"The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished" (2 Pt.2:9).

"But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men" (2 Pt.3:7).

"Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him" (Rev.1:7).

"Declare his glory among the heathen, his wonders among all people" (Ps.96:3).

"I said in mine heart, God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work" (Eccl.3:17).

4 (18:9-20) Judgment—Babylon: there is the impact of Babylon's fall. The great influence upon the world can be seen by the reaction of the world to the city's destruction.

1. There will be great mourning by the political leaders and governments of the world who are allied with the anti-christ (v.9). There will be some nations whose power depend entirely upon the antichrist and his capital, and there will be other nations whose trade with the city will be less, but their economies will still be greatly affected. Remember: the whole world will be undergoing disaster after disaster at this time, and many of the great cities of the world will be destroyed and reduced to ashes (cp. Rev.16:17-21).

- ⇒ This means that the mourning for Babylon is symbolic of the mourning that will be going on world-wide.
- ⇒ This also means that the mourning is self-centered. The leaders of the nations know that Babylon could have been an enormous help in rebuilding. They, of course, will not be aware that Christ is returning to rule upon earth.

"He that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house; but he that hateth gifts shall live" (Pr.15:27).

"He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this is also vanity" (Eccl.5:10).

"As the partridge sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so he that getteth riches, and not by right, shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be a fool" (Jer.17:11).

"For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows" (1 Tim.6:10).

"Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days" (Jas.5:3).

2. There will be mourning by the businessmen and commercial people of the world (v.11-17^a). There will be businesses all over the world that are devastated by the collapse of Babylon and its wealth, and many more businesses and economies will be drastically affected. There are at least thirty kinds of merchandise listed here in Scripture, merchandise that shows how much of a commercial center the city will become. It will be one of the commercial crossroads of the world, one of the trading and financial centers. Note how this is brought out so clearly by Scripture. The Amplified New Testament describes it well:

"And the rulers and leaders of the earth, who joined her in her immorality [idolatry] and luxuriated with her, will weep and beat their breasts and lament over her when they see the smoke of her conflagration. They will stand a long way off, in terror of her torment, and they will cry, Woe and alas! the great city! the mighty city, Babylon! In one single hour how your doom (judgment) has overtaken you! And earth's businessmen weep and grieve over her, because no one buys their freight (cargo) any more. Their merchandise is of gold, silver, precious stones and pearls; of fine linen, purple, silk and scarlet [stuffs]; all kinds of scented wood, all sorts of articles of ivory, all varieties of objects of costly woods, bronze, iron and marble; of cinnamon, spices, incense, ointment and perfume, and frankincense; of wine and olive oil, fine flour and wheat; of cattle and sheep, horses and conveyances; and of slaves, [that is] the bodies, and souls of men! The ripe fruits and delicacies for which your soul longed have gone from you, and all your luxuries and dainties, your elegance and splendor are lost to you, never again to be recovered or experienced! The dealers who handled these articles, who grew wealthy through their business with her, will stand a long way off, in terror of her doom and torment, weeping and grieving aloud, and saying, Alas, alas for the great city that was robbed in fine linen, in purple and scarlet, bedecked and glittering with gold, with precious stones, and with pearls! Because in one [single] hour all the vast wealth has been destroyed - wiped out" (v.9-17^a).

Note what it is that the business and commercial people of the world mourn: the loss of so much wealth (v.17^a). Note also the reference to slavery. Babylon, the capital of the world, will be enslaving people all over the world. Keep in mind the holocaust that will be launched against the true followers of Christ, the Jews, and other staunch religionists. The picture will be the same as has been true in every holocaust down through history: the souls of men will mean no more than another piece of merchandise or commodity—all to be used for the benefit of the state and the comfort of the supporters of the state.

"The increase of his house shall depart, and his goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath" (Job 20:28).

"For he seeth that wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their wealth to others" (Ps.49:10).

"Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle toward heaven" (Pr.23:5).

"For riches are not for ever: and doth the crown endure to every generation?" (Pr.27:24).

"Yea, I hated all my labour which I had taken under the sun: because I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me" (Eccl.2:18).

"As the partridge sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so he that leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be a fool" (Jer.17:11).

"For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out" (1 Tim.6:7).

3. There will be mourning by the shippers or shipmasters of the world. As in every major city, most of the merchandise in Babylon will either be shipped in or shipped out in some sort of trade. The city will be a great crossroads for trade, so great that the shipping industry will suffer a devastating blow by the city's destruction. Think of the transport and shipping companies that will be bankrupt by the collapse of such a major commercial center as Babylon. Yet, think about all the cities that will be reduced to ashes when the catastrophic judgment of the end time falls. Remember this was seen in the last bowl judgment. When God's wrath falls upon the godless societies and cities of this world, and cities crumble by the hundreds and thousands, it will take time for the survivors to learn about the worldwide devastation. It will take as much time as it would take if an atomic war broke out and devastated the great cities of the world. The only difference between the destruction of an atomic war and the destruction of the end time is that God Himself is going to launch the destruction in the end time. In fact, He says that He is going to destroy the godless cities by sending a great earthquake (Rev.16:18f).

The point is this: the destruction and the catastrophic effects of the destruction are going to be worldwide. The survivors will have little left of the world they have always known.

"Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal" (Mt.6:19).

"Surely every man walketh in a vain show; surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them" (Ps.39:6).

"And when thy herds and thy flocks multiply, and thy silver and thy gold is multiplied, and all that thou hast is multiplied; then thine heart be lifted up, and thou forget the Lord thy God" (Dt.8:13-14).

"Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery: if riches increase set not your heart upon them" (Ps.62:10).

"A faithful man shall abound with blessings: but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be innocent" (Pr.28:20).

"Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven" (Mt.19:23).

"But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition" (1 Tim.6:9).

4. There will be rejoicing by the heavenly host (v.20). The collapse of godless Babylon means...

- that the ungodliness and evil of this world are being conquered.
- that righteousness is soon to be established among all people.

- that Jesus Christ is to soon come and set up His kingdom upon earth.
- that there will be no more rejection and rebellion allowed by God.
- that God will be worshipped and served by all people upon earth.
- that all of God's people who suffered abuse and persecution will be vindicated.

“Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord” (Ro.12:19).

“And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire taming vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power” (2 Th.1:7-9).

“For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people” (Heb.10:30).

“To me belongeth vengeance, and recompense; their foot shall slide in due time: for the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that shall come upon them make haste” (Dt.32:35).

“O LORD God, to whom vengeance belongeth; O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, show thyself” (Ps.94:1).

“And I will execute great vengeance upon them with furious rebukes; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall lay my vengeance upon them” (Ezk.25:17).

“And I will execute vengeance in anger and fury upon the heathen, such as they have not heard” (Mic.5:15).

“God is jealous, and the LORD revengeth; the LORD revengeth, and is furious; the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies” (Nah.1:2).

5 (18:21-23) Babylon—Judgment: there is the actual destruction of Babylon. Note two points.

1. The destruction will be violent. This is the picture of the mighty angel taking a huge boulder and casting it into the sea. Picture the might and strength of the angel...

- the thrust and velocity of his throw.
- the violent impact of the boulder as it hits the water.
- the violent and immediate disappearance of the boulder.
- the violent waves that begin to rush out from the boulder in every direction.

The violence of the whole scene is clearly pictured. (The catastrophe pictured is similar to that which would happen in an atomic explosion. Cp. Mal.4:1 in the verses below.)

2. The destruction will be total. The boulder dissappeared immediately. Babylon, the godless government and city, will be found no more. The destruction will be swift and violent, and the city will be utterly devastated and reduced to ashes.

“And the sound of harpists and mistrels and flute players and trumpeters shall never again be heard in you, and no skilled artisan of any craft shall ever again be found in you, and the sound of the millstone shall never again be heard in you. And never again shall the light of a lamp shine in you, and the voice of bridegroom and bride shall never be heard in you again” (v.22-23^a, The Amplified New Testament).

“And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire” (Lk.3:9).

“And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power” (2 Th.1:7-9).

“And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all” (Rev.18:21).

“For the indignation of the LORD is upon all nations, and his fury upon all their armies: he hath utterly destroyed them, he hath delivered them to the slaughter” (Is.34:2).

“Behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and a hissing, and perpetual desolations” (Jer.25:9).

“For, behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch” (Mal.4:1).

6 (18:23-24) Babylon—Judgment—Sins: there are the reasons for Babylon’s destruction repeated. These will be just listed here to give an overview. Note: these are the same sins for which God will judge any nation, government, society, or people.

1. There is pride and arrogance.

“Thy merchants were the great [prominent, prideful] men of the earth” (Rev.18:23).

“How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow” (Rev.18:7).

“And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees’ excellency, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah” (Is.13:19).

“That thou shalt take up this proverb against the king of Babylon, and say, How hath the oppressor ceased! the golden city ceased!” (Is.14:4).

2. There is sorcery and spiritual corruption.

“By thy sorceries were all nations deceived” (Rev.18:23).

“And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird” (Rev.18:2).

3. There is deception.

“By thy sorceries were all nations deceived” (Rev.18:23).

“For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies” (Rev.18:3).

4. There is the persecution of believers.

“And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth” (Rev.18:24).

“Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double” (Rev.18:6).

5. There is the misuse of wealth: selfishly living in luxury, indulgence, and extravagance.

“Thy merchants were the great men of the earth” (Rev.18:23; cp. Rev.18:7, 9, 11-17, 19).

“The merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies” (Rev.18:3^b).

6. There is the corruption of people.

“By thy sorceries were all nations [people] deceived” (Rev.18:23^c).

“And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues” (Rev.18:4).

DIVISION XI

THE GREAT MARRIAGE SUPPER OF THE LAMB, OF THE LORD JESUS CHRIST, 19:1-10

(19:1-10) Introduction: this is the great Marriage Supper of the Lamb, of the Lord Jesus Christ Himself. This is the great supper where all of heaven will be present to celebrate the union of Jesus Christ and the believers who have followed Him down through the centuries. Everyone in heaven will be there: God, Christ, believers, and the heavenly host. It is to be the most celebrated and joyful event ever experienced up to that point in history. Why? Because it is the great Marriage Supper of the Lord Jesus Christ Himself, God's very own Son. God has planned a celebration for His Son above and beyond anything we could ever imagine or describe. It is to be the first time that all the redeemed of all ages have ever come together at one time to honor the Lamb who was slain to redeem the universe. Because of what He has done for man, He is deserving of all the honor and praise possible from all heavenly creatures. To give Him such glorious honor, God has planned the greatest celebration and banquet imaginable, the celebration that He calls the great Marriage Supper of the Lamb (v.9).

1. The Marriage Supper will be a supper of glorious praise (v.1-6).
2. The Marriage Supper will focus upon the Lamb (v.7).
3. The Marriage Supper will have a pure and prepared Bride (v.7-8).
4. The Marriage Supper will be a blessed and glorious event (v.9-10).

1 (19:1-6) Marriage Supper of the Lamb—Hallelujah—Worship—Praise: the Marriage Supper is a supper of glorious praise. Everyone in heaven will be praising God and Christ at the great supper. Note that the praise centers around four hallelujah's in these verses (v.1, 3, 4, 6). Hallelujah simply means praise God. It is taken from two Hebrew words: halal which means praise and jah which is the name of God.

1. The supper will be the hallelujah of salvation. This is probably the heavenly host that will be singing forth this hallelujah (cp. Rev.5:11; Heb.12:22).
 - a. Salvation belongs to God: He is the One who has wrought salvation for believers and for the earth. The angels have been watching the plan of God for generations as it has unfolded for man's salvation. They were amazed time and again at God's unbelievable mercy and grace to man. They have witnessed the whole scene of temptation and trial, sin and evil—all of the struggle and conflict upon earth and within the soul of man. Standing there at the great Marriage Supper of the Lamb, the angels will see the most spectacular sight they have ever witnessed: the completion of God's salvation. Therefore, they will praise God as the God of salvation at the great Marriage Supper of the Lamb.

“Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift” (2 Cor.9:15).

“But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light” (1 Pt.2:9).

“But the salvation of the righteous is of the LORD: he is their strength in the time of trouble” (Ps.37:39).

“Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the Lord JEHOVAH is my strength and my song; he also is become my salvation” (Is.12:2).

“And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation” (Is.25:9).

- b. Glory belongs to God: He alone possesses glory. All the glory, light, and splendor of heaven and earth flows out from His own Being. The very glory which will be given to believers in the glorious day of salvation will come from God. Therefore, the angels will praise God for His glory at the great Marriage Supper of the Lamb.

“That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ” (Ro.15:6).

“What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s” (1 Cor.6:19-20).

“Ye that fear the LORD, praise him; all ye the seed of Jacob, glorify him; and fear him, all ye the seed of Israel” (Ps.22:23).

“Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory” (Ps.24:10).

“Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name; worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness” (Ps.29:2).

- c. Honor belongs to God: He is the Source and Creator of all that is. Therefore, He will be honored as the Source and Creator at the great Marriage Supper of the Lamb.

“Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready” (Rev.19:7).

“I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded” (Is.45:12).

“O magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his name together” (Ps.34:3).

- d. Power belongs to God: He is the Supreme power in the universe. It is His power that has saved man and the world. Therefore, his power will be praised at the great Marriage Supper of the Lamb.

“Both riches and honor come of thee, and thou reignest over all; and in thine hand is power and might; and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all” (1 Chron.29:12).

“And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing” (Ps.107:22).

“But our God is in the heavens: he hath done whatsoever he hath pleased” (Ps.115:3).

“And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever” (Rev.7:11-12).

2. The supper will be filled with the hallelujah of victory (v.2-3). The Lord Jesus Christ will triumph over all the ungodly and evil of the earth.

⇒ He will destroy the godless politics of the world and the social, commercial, cultural, and religious systems of the world.

⇒ He will avenge the persecution and abuse of His dear followers upon earth. He will judge and destroy every evil, abusive, and murdering person on earth, treating them in perfect justice, giving them a punishment equal to the suffering they inflicted upon earth.

⇒ He will return to earth and establish righteousness upon earth.

Therefore at the great Marriage Supper of the Lamb, the angels will break out in praise to God for the great victory He has wrought upon earth. His judgments are true and righteous. His judgments are exactly matched to a person’s evil. They are perfect, altogether true and righteous. Therefore, the angels will praise God for His glorious victory at the great Marriage Supper of the Lamb.

“Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name; that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father” (Ph.2:9-11).

“Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light” (Col.1:12).

“Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned” (Rev.11:17).

“And my tongue shall speak of thy righteousness and of thy praise all the day long” (Ps.35:28).

3. The supper will be filled with the hallelujah of worship (v.4). Note that the twenty four elders and four living creatures will offer this worship. They will burst forth in praise to God Himself, saying nothing but “Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah...” God is so wonderful that He Himself just deserves praise, not for any particular thing, but just because He is so wonderful. At the great Marriage Supper of the Lamb, those who are closest to the throne of God will burst forth in praising God just for Himself.

“Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens; let thy glory be above all the earth” (Ps.57:5).

“Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders” (Ps.107:32).

4. The supper will be filled with the hallelujah of God’s omnipotent reign (v.5-6). A voice will cry out from the throne of God to all the servants of God and to all who fear and reverence Him—cry out for all the heavenly host to praise the Lord our God for His omnipotent reign. The Lord our God, the Lord Jesus Christ, is going to reign in sovereign power upon the earth and He is going to reign forever and ever over the new heavens and earth. And note: He is going to reign in omnipotent power, supreme over all. The prayer of God’s people, “Thy kingdom come,” is about to become a living reality upon earth forever and ever. At the great Marriage Supper of the Lamb all of heaven will be stirred to praise the Lord God for His omnipotent reign.

“For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet” (1 Cor.15:25).

“Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father” (Ph.2:9-11).

“Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned” (Rev.11:17).

“And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night” (Rev.12:10).

“And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth” (Rev.19:6).

“Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion....Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession” (Ps.2:6, 8).

“The LORD reigneth; let the earth rejoice; let the multitude of isles be glad thereof” (Ps.97:1).

“Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth” (Jer.23:5).

“And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed” (Dan.7:14).

“And said, O LORD God of our fathers, art not thou God in heaven? and rulest not thou over all the kingdoms of the heathen? and in thine hand is there not power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee?” (2 Chron.20:6).

2 (19:7) Marriage Supper of the Lamb: the Marriage Supper will focus upon the Lamb Himself, the Lord Jesus Christ. Note that all attention at the supper is to be focused upon the Lamb. In most weddings and wedding suppers upon earth, the attention is centered upon the bride. But this will not be true at the great Marriage Supper of the Lamb. The Lamb of God, the Lord Jesus Christ Himself, will be the great focus. The reasons are clearly stated:

- ⇒ It will be the Lamb who will be the cause of our gladness and rejoicing.
- ⇒ It will be the Lamb who deserves to be honored. We would not even be there if it were not for Him.
- ⇒ It is the Lamb for whom the supper is named; it is His supper, the great Marriage Supper of the Lamb.
- ⇒ It is the Lamb who stirred the bride to make herself ready.

Thought 1. If Jesus Christ is to be the focus of attention in that day, how much more should He be today? Jesus Christ is deserving of our attention, all of our attention, all of our lives, all of our service, worship, and praise.

“And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me” (Lk.9:23).

“If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple” (Lk.14:26-27).

“I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God” (Ro.12:1-2).

“What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s” (1 Cor.6:19-20).

“Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ” (Ph.3:8).

3 (19:7-8) Marriage Supper of the Lamb—Righteousness: the Marriage Supper will have a pure and prepared bride. Note two significant points.

1. The bride, the church, the followers of the Lord Jesus Christ, prepares herself. How? This includes everything that a believer does to become acceptable to God.

- a. A believer prepares himself by receiving the Lamb of God as his Savior. A person will not be acceptable at the Marriage Supper of the Lamb unless he accepts the sacrifice of the Lamb as the sacrifice for his own sins. He has to come to the Lamb in order to enter the supper of the Lamb. If he does not come to the Lamb then he will never enter the supper. If he does not live with the Lamb while on earth, then when the Lamb appears at the supper, the person will not be there. He will be excluded and shut out.
- b. A believer prepares himself by following the Lamb. The Lamb, the Lord Jesus Christ, sacrificed Himself to the ultimate degree. He gave up His life totally and died for man. Therefore, man is to sacrifice himself to the ultimate degree. Man is to die to self and live entirely for the Lamb of God. The believer is...
 - to work and labor to the point of exhaustion as the Lamb worked and labored.
 - to live righteously and godly just as the Lamb lived.

When the believer denies himself totally and takes up his cross daily and follows Jesus Christ, then he prepares himself for the great Marriage Supper of the Lamb. The believer has given all his heart and life to Jesus Christ. Therefore, he will be prepared to share in the great Marriage Supper of the Lamb.

2. A believer prepares himself by righteous deeds or acts (v.8). The word “righteousness” (dikaiomata) here means righteous deeds or acts. This would mean two things.

- a. The believer acts righteously, does the right thing when he receives Jesus Christ as his Savior. It is then that God accepts the belief of the person as righteousness. God actually takes a person’s faith in His Son and counts his faith as righteousness. Why? Because the person believes that the sacrifice of the Lamb, the death of the Lord Jesus Christ, was for the sins of the world. The person believes that Jesus Christ died for his sins, as his sacrifice, as his substitute. He believes that the penalty and judgment of his sins have been paid for by Christ. Therefore, he is free of sin and made acceptable to God. God takes his faith and counts his faith as righteousness. God counts him righteous in the righteousness of Jesus Christ. This is what is called imputed righteousness, righteousness that is given or put to one’s account before God. It is a righteousness that is counted and credited to the believer. Therefore, when the believer is ready to attend the great Marriage Supper of the Lamb, he will be given the clean and white clothing necessary to enter the supper. Note: the fine clothing is actually said to be the righteousness or righteous deeds of the saints.

Now, this is the first righteous deed that a person is to do. If he does this righteous deed, then he will be accepted into the great Marriage Supper of the Lamb.

- b. The believer is also to do other righteous deeds. He is to serve the Lamb of God to the fullest degree possible. Every believer is aware that not all believers do this; not all believers serve God with all their heart, soul, and body. In fact, some believers do little for Christ. Therefore, note verse eight carefully: the bride of Christ—all believers—will be in heaven. They will be accepted and made perfect in the righteousness of Christ. They have robes that are white and pure. But note: when they get ready to attend the great Marriage Supper of the Lamb, God will give believers another garment that is made of fine linen that will be clean and white. What is the other garment? It is...
 - the garment of righteous deeds and acts.
 - the garment of reward.
 - the garment that shows position and responsibility.
 - the garment that rewards one for faithfulness.

Remember: Christ and Scripture declare emphatically that there will be positions in the new heavens and earth, degrees of labor and service, of responsibility and duty assigned to all of us. The unfaithful and half-faithful will not be assigned as high a position as the faithful; they will not be as greatly rewarded. We shall all be perfected and glorified in heaven, but we will not all rule and reign in equal positions. The whole universe, both heaven and earth, are to be remade, perfected, and made alive. The Lord Jesus Christ is going to have His followers looking after the universe for Him. What and how much we will be assigned to oversee and reign over depends on our faithfulness now. These robes for the great Marriage Supper will be the robes of righteous deeds and works—the robes that will show the position of our authority throughout eternity. They will, no doubt, determine where we will be sitting at the great Marriage Supper. (See note, Reward—Rev.14:13 for more discussion and a list of rewards.)

“He that endureth to the end shall be saved” (Mt.10:22).

“But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ” (Ro.14:10).

“For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; every man’s work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man’s work of what sort it is. If any man’s work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire" (1 Cor.3:11-15).

"Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord" (1 Cor.15:58).

"For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad" (2 Cor.5:10).

"Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness" (2 Pt.3:17).

"As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent" (Rev.3:19).

"Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest" (Jn.4:35).

4 (19:9-10) Marriage Supper of the Lamb: the Marriage Supper will be a blessed and glorious event, the most glorious event ever held in history. Note two things.

1. The Marriage Supper will be the most blessed celebration in all of history. The idea is greatly blessed. Note: there are those who say the guests refer to a separate group other than the bride, that is, the church. But this is unlikely. This is the supper of the Lamb, not of the Lamb and the Bride. The Lamb is the One who has called all guests to the great supper. In fact believers, the bride, comprise some of the major guests at the supper.

The supper will be a blessed event for one reason: all of the heavenly host will be there, all believers and all angelic beings, and both God and Christ. It will be a blessed event, a glorious and spectacular celebration, because everyone is there—all believers are gathered together in the great banquet hall of God—all are gathered together for the very first time in history.

Thought 1. It stirs the heart to think there will be periodic suppers throughout eternity when Christ will gather us all together for celebration. Imagine all of us being called together from our various duties and kingdoms from all parts of the universe, called together for a great supper celebration. What a glorious thought! May God stir our hearts to serve our Lord ever so diligently, day and night. Being with our Lord and God in heaven and in eternity, in the new heavens and earth—it will all be worth it when we see Jesus.

"Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage" (Mt.22:4).

"Then said he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many" (Lk.14:16).

"But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him" (1 Cor.2:9).

"And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God" (Rev.19:9).

"He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son" (Rev.21:7).

2. The Marriage Supper will be blessed because it is for the purpose of worshipping God and Him alone. This is clearly illustrated for us by what happened to John. Remember: John was still a human man, not a redeemed man. The Lord was giving him a vision of the end time and its events. John is so caught up in the majestic splendor and celebration of the supper that he falls down at the feet of the great angel to worship him. But the angel tells John not to worship him nor anyone else, but to worship God alone. There are two reasons given for this.

⇒ First, all creatures, even the majestic angels of heaven, are only servants of God. They may be majestic beings, but they are not God.

⇒ Second, Jesus Christ Himself is the One who bears testimony of the truth. Christ and Christ alone possesses and shares the truth. The only truth that the angels and servants have is the truth borne by Christ. Therefore, He and He alone is worthy of worship. No angel or any other creature possesses the truth. Therefore, worship God and God alone.

"Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve" (Mt.4:10).

"God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth" (Jn.4:24).

"Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters" (Rev.14:7).

"Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God" (Rev.22:9).

"Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come before him: worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness" (1 Chron.16:29).

"O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the LORD our maker" (Ps.95:6).

"O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth" (Ps.96:9).

THE FINAL TRIUMPH: THE MILLENNIUM USHERED IN, 19:11-20:15

A. The Coming of Christ as Conqueror, 19:11-16

(19:11-16) Introduction: this passage launches the close of human history. This is Armageddon, the final and climactic war upon earth. This is the battle that destroys all the ungodly and evil upon this earth, the battle that ushers in the righteousness of God upon earth. Shockingly, Jesus Christ Himself will fight this battle. This is the scene of the present passage, a picture of Jesus Christ that is seldom imagined. It is the picture of Jesus Christ coming to earth as the Conqueror. Note: there is no action in these six verses; they only give us a picture of what Christ will look like when He returns to earth as the Warrior and Conqueror of heaven.

1. The conquering Christ (v.11).
2. The consuming Prince (v.12).
3. The slaughtering Word of God: clothed in blood (v.13).
4. The heavenly, warring Leader: heavenly armies follow (v.14).
5. The fierce Conqueror (v.15).
6. The King of kings and Lord of lords: a revealed name (v.16).

1 (19:11) Jesus Christ, Names—Titles: Jesus Christ will be the conquering Christ (v.11). This is what the picture of the white horse symbolizes. In ancient times, when a Roman general entered a city as the conqueror, he rode a white stallion to celebrate his triumph. The day will come when Jesus Christ returns to this earth as the conqueror. And when He does, man can depend upon two things.

1. Jesus Christ will be the faithful and true Conqueror.
 - ⇒ Faithful means that He can be trusted and relied upon to judge every enemy when He comes. He said that He would conquer and judge and condemn all the ungodly and evil of this world, and His Word can be trusted and relied upon.
 - ⇒ True means true as opposed to false. The conquest and judgment of Jesus Christ will be true. Jesus Christ will mete out exactly what a person deserves, no more and no less. No ungodly and evil person need ever fear that Jesus Christ will be unjust or unfair with him. Every ungodly and evil person can count on Jesus Christ being true. Jesus Christ will judge a person perfectly, in perfect justice. A person will reap exactly what he has sown. He will be judged and condemned for exactly what he has done.
2. Jesus Christ will judge and make war upon the earth in righteousness. His righteousness will be the criteria, the law by which all shall be judged. Any person who does not measure up to the righteousness of Jesus Christ will be conquered, judged, and condemned exactly where he comes up short.

“For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works” (Mt.16:27).

“And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works” (Rev.20:12).

“And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be” (Rev.22:12).

“Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy: for thou renderest to every man according to his work” (Ps.62:12).

“I the LORD search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings” (Jer.17:10).

2 (19:12) Jesus Christ, Person: Jesus Christ will be the consuming Prince (v.12).

1. His eyes will be like fire. This symbolizes a piercing, penetrating power. He sees everywhere, even in the dark places and behind closed doors. His eyes search the innermost recesses of the heart. He knows all; He is omniscient and He is able to conquer all those who reject Him and do evil.

“His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in color to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude” (Dan.10:6).

“Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do” (Heb.4:13).

“I the LORD search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings” (Jer.17:10).

“Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD, Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD” (Jer.23:24).

2. He will be wearing many crowns (diadema), that is, the royal crowns of rule and authority over many kingdoms. He is coming to conquer all the kingdoms of the earth.

3. He will have a name written somewhere on His clothing, but He alone knows what the name will be. It is futile to guess what it will be. We will see it in that day.

“Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father” (Ph.2:9-11).

“His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself” (Rev.19:12).

3 (19:13) Jesus Christ, Person: Jesus Christ will be the slaughtering Word of God (v.13). Note that His robe will be sprinkled in blood. This symbolizes the blood of His enemies, not His own redemptive blood. Jesus Christ is going to conquer and defeat all the ungodly and evil of this earth. Now note a most significant fact: how He is going to do it. By the Word of God. He possesses the power of God’s Word. In fact, this is His very name, the Word of God. Therefore, all He has to do is speak the Word and the very power and energy and force of His Word will slaughter the ungodly and evil of the world.

“I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment” (Is.63:3).

“But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked” (Is.11:4).

“For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart” (Heb.4:12).

4 (19:14) Jesus Christ, Person: Jesus Christ will be the heavenly, warring Leader (v.14). Note that the armies of heaven follow Him. Who are they? Note: they will be clothed in “fine linen, white and clean.” This is the very same clothing worn by the believers at the Marriage Supper of the Lamb (cp. Rev.19:8). Therefore, the armies will include the believers who have followed Christ the Messiah down through the centuries, both the believers of the Old and New Testament. The armies will include all the redeemed. In addition, the armies will include the multitude of angels that Jesus Christ said He was going to bring with Him when He returned to earth (Mt.25:31).

“When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory” (Mt.25:31).

“And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power” (2 Th.1:7-9).

“And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him” (Jude 14-15).

5 (19:15) Jesus Christ, Person: Jesus Christ will be the fierce Conqueror. This is seen in three things.

1. First, He will have a weapon; a sharp sword will proceed out of His mouth. This symbolizes that His weapon will be the power of His Word. The Word of God is the sword of God.

“And take...the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God” (Eph.6:17).

“For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart” (Heb.4:12).

“But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked” (Is.11:4).

2. Second, He will smite and rule the nations of the earth with a rod of iron. He will conquer and subject them all and take His rightful place as the Sovereign Lord over the earth and all its peoples.

“Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter’s vessel” (Ps.2:9).

“But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked” (Is.11:4).

3. Third, He will execute the fierceness and wrath of God the Almighty (see note, pt.2—Rev.14:18-19; also see note—Rev.14:10-11 for discussion and verses).

6 (19:16) Jesus Christ, Person: Jesus Christ will be the King of kings and Lord of lords. He is the sovereign King and Sovereign Lord of the universe. No one exists except by His will and no one shall be allowed to be a citizen of His kingdom unless they have His approval. When He comes as conqueror, He is going to banish all those who have not acknowledged and subjected themselves to His sovereignty, who have not worshipped and served Him as the greatest of all Kings and Lords.

“Which in his times he shall show, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords” (1 Tim.6:15).

“And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the firstbegotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood” (Rev.1:5).

“These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful” (Rev.17:14).

“And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS” (Rev.19:16).

DIVISION XII

THE FINAL TRIUMPH: THE MILLENNIUM USHERED IN, 19:11-20:15

B. The Great Battle of Armageddon, 19:17-21

(19:17-21) Introduction: this is the great battle of Armageddon, the final battle of human history. This is where human history ends, where the Lord Jesus Christ intervenes and stops the madness and evil of humanity. This is where Jesus Christ returns to earth and destroys the ungodly and evil of this world. This is what the Bible and believers call...

- the great day of Jehovah
- the great day of God
- the day
- the day of the Lord
- the final battle of human history
- the judgment of God upon the godless governments of this world
- the end of the devil's rule upon earth
- the supper of the great God
- the great battle of Armageddon

The battle of Armageddon is the intervention of Jesus Christ into world history. It is His returning to earth and destroying all the forces of evil upon earth—once for all. (See outline and notes—Rev. 14:20; 16:12-16 for more discussion.)

1. The terrifying call to the supper of the great God (v.17-18).
2. The mobilizing of the world's forces (v.19).
3. The simple and quick, capture of the hostile forces (v.20).
4. The grim judgment of the hostile forces: a lake of fire (v.20).
5. The weapon of victory (v.21).

1 (19:17-18) Armageddon: there will be the terrifying call to the supper of the great God. This supper differs entirely from the Marriage Supper of the Lamb which will be for believers. This supper, the Supper of the Great God will be for unbelievers and it will be the most terrifying moment in human history.

Note the terrifying preparation for this supper. A mighty angel cries with a loud voice to all the birds of the air. He cries for them to gather together for the Supper of the Great God. Why are the birds of the air called together? Because God is going to destroy the godless nations and armies of this world. God is going to slay all the armies of all the nations of the world. God is ending once for all the slaughter of human life upon this earth. Therefore, the angel is calling together all the birds of the air to feast upon the ungodly of this world when they have been slain. Note who it is to be slain and who is to become a feast for the vultures of the air:

- the flesh of captains
- the flesh of mighty men, that is, the powerful
- the flesh of horses
- the flesh of the riders on the horses
- the flesh of all men, both the slaves and the free, both the small and the great

The idea is that all the armies of the world will be destroyed. Every single army will be destroyed by Jesus Christ when He returns in glory.

“Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured” (Ezk.39:4).

“And, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD; Speak unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood. Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bullocks, all of them fatlings of Bashan. And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. Thus ye shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord GOD” (Ezk.39:17-20).

2 (19:19) Armageddon: there will be the mobilizing of the world’s armies. Note exactly what is said:

“And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse [Jesus Christ returning to earth], and against his army” (v.19).

- ⇒ The antichrist is there.
- ⇒ The kings or leaders of the earth are there (probably negotiating and trying to prevent the battle against each other).
- ⇒ The armies of the nations are there.

How is it humanly possible for so many great armies to gather in one place? And if a war is going to be fought in Palestine, why bother with foot soldiers when the world has so many sophisticated weapons such as missiles and atomic war-heads? The reason is simple: armies use foot soldiers when they want to preserve the land and its resources. In the end time this is exactly what will happen. The antichrist will lead his eastern alliance against Palestine to totally exterminate the Jews and to take the whole Middle East with its rich resources for himself. He will march against those who claim to be followers of the Lord Jesus Christ. Remember, the Jews will have been saved at this time. They will have accepted Jesus Christ as their Messiah (see notes—Rev.7:4-8; 11:3-13). This is what is meant by the statement that the antichrist and his armies gather together to fight against Christ. Jesus Christ and His people are one; therefore, to fight against the followers of Jesus Christ is to fight against Christ. The antichrist cannot use atomic weapons, for the weapons would not only destroy the land and its resources but probably cause a retaliatory strike from some of the other nations of the world.

Now, how did all the armies of the world get to Palestine? There are two ways.

1. They got there the same way they would today. If some major army began to march and to claim all the oil of the Middle East for itself, we all know exactly what would happen. The nations of the world would go to protect their interest. The situation in the end time will be caused by some similar circumstance. Standing where we do today, we cannot see into the future to see what will happen in the Middle East to cause all the nations to gather together. All we know is this: they will all be gathered together in Palestine in the end time.

The point is this: when the antichrist and the confederation of nations under his power begin to march against Israel, the other nations of the world apparently become edgy and nervous. The reason may be...

- the fear of a military move to conquer the world beginning in Palestine.
- the resources of the Middle East and the threat to those resources (such as oil).
- the insanity of exterminating a whole people and nation like the Jews.

“And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared” (Rev.16:12; cp. Ezk.chapters 38-39).

“And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever” (Dan.2:44; cp. Dan.7:19-27).

“And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more” (Is.2:4).

“But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked” (Is.11:4).

“Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up: beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruninghooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong. Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O LORD. Let the heathen be wakened, and come up the valley of Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about. Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe: come, get you down: for the press is full, the vats overflow; for their wickedness is great. Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision. The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining. The LORD also shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel” (Joel 3:9-16).

“Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy” (Zeph.3:8).

“And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak peace unto the heathen: and his dominion shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth” (Zech.9:10).

“And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem” (Zech.12:9; cp. Zech.12:1-9).

2. The armies of the world will gather in Palestine because there is an evil spirit behind the confederation of nations (cp. Rev.16:13-14). This has been discussed in detail earlier, but is being restated here because of its importance in dealing with the battle of Armageddon. (See note—Rev.16:12-16.)

Note: this verse says that all the nations and alliances of the earth are going to be involved in the great battle of Armageddon.

- ⇒ The kings of the east: all the nations east of Palestine, apparently involving the Arabs, China, and all the other eastern nations. These will probably be headed up by the antichrist.
- ⇒ The kings of the north: all the nations north of Palestine including Russia.
- ⇒ The kings of the south: all nations south of Palestine including the nations of Africa.
- ⇒ The kings of the west: all the nations west of Palestine including a western alliance and involving some of the European nations and probably including America and other powerful nations of the Americas and Canada.

Enemies will gather from every nation with each taking sides to protect its own interest. As stated, the point of conflict may be oil in the Middle East, or the utter insanity of the antichrist setting out to exterminate a whole people like the Jews, or it may be some other interest that we know nothing about yet. The point to see is this: in the last days all the nations of the world will converge upon the Middle East and be stationed within the borders of Palestine at Meggido. Each of the nations will join forces with two or more sides. They will be there to protect their own national interests in the Middle East and Palestine. (Compare the war of Desert Storm, the United Nations’ actions against Iraq when Iraq attacked Kuwait in 1990.)

Note what is behind the whole scene: evil spirits. Evil spirits are giving power to the mouth of the antichrist and his false prophet. This means the power to influence and deceive the leaders of other nations. The evil spirits will give the two leaders supernatural power to inspire their confederation to march and conquer Palestine. All the other nations will march to protect their interest in the region (perhaps oil). The description of the evil spirits as frogs symbolizes the ability to leap and spread the deception from the dragon (the devil) to the antichrist and to his false prophet or executive officer and then to each of the nations. The picture is that of the demons working miracles. What kind of miracles? Scripture does not say, but the idea is that of...

- deceptive dreams of glory
- glorious triumphs
- visions of grandeur
- setting passions aflame
- striking fear within the heart and arousing bitterness and hate among nations.

The result of the evil spirits is this: there will be a gathering together of all the armies of the world to the place in Palestine called Armageddon or the valley and mountain of Meggido. This is the great valley that runs through the middle of Palestine from the Mediterranean Sea to the Jordan River. It is about 200 miles long and ten miles wide.

“And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him” (Rev.12:9).

“And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty” (Rev.16:13-14).

3 (19:20) Armageddon: there will be the simple and quick capture of the antichrist and the false prophet. Second Thessalonians tells us exactly what will happen to the antichrist.

“And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming” (2 Th.2:8).

1. The Lord Jesus shall slay the antichrist with the spirit of His mouth (Greek “breath”). What is the spirit of Jesus’ mouth? It is the spirit of truth, holiness, and unlimited power. When Jesus speaks, what He says is of God and unstoppable. When He rents the sky to slay the antichrist, there will be no battle, for all the forces of heaven and earth combined would be as non-existent against the Lord God of the universe. Christ will just speak the Word for the antichrist to be slain and the antichrist will be slain. It will be like the blowing of a little breath and the dust particle is removed never to return.

Leon Morris says that the emphasis is the ease with which the Lord will destroy the “ ‘lawless one’, terrible though he will be” (The Epistles of Paul to the Thessalonians. “The Tyndale New Testament Commentaries,” ed. by RVG Tasker. Grand Rapids, MI: Eerdmans, 1956, p.131).

The Pulpit Commentary says, “The words are to be taken literally as a description of the power and irresistible might of Christ at His coming—that the mere breath of His mouth is sufficient to consume the wicked” (Second Thessalonians).

“The Pulpit Commentary,” Vol.21, ed. by HDM Spence and Joseph S. Exell. Grand Rapids, MI: Eerdmans, 1950, p.25f).

“But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked” (Is.11:4).

2. The Lord of glory will destroy the antichrist with the brightness of His coming. The word “brightness” (epiphaneia) is a very special word. It is a word chosen by the New Testament to refer only to the coming (parousia) of the Lord. It is used only five times in all the New Testament, and in every instance it refers to the Lord’s coming into the world. It refers once to His first coming (2 Tim.1:10) and four times to His second coming (1 Tim.6:14; 2 Tim.4:1, 8; Tit.2:13). The whole idea of brightness is splendor, radiance, glory, and light. Someone has pointed out that when Jesus Christ returns to earth, there will be such a spectacular display of glory and splendor that the explosion of every star in the universe could not match the sight of the Lord (source unknown). When Christ first appears, there will apparently be the energizing of a laser beam of glory zeroed in on the antichrist, and he shall be immediately destroyed by the radiance of the Lord’s glory and light—quicker than we could blink an eye. Simply by showing Himself, the Lord will destroy the antichrist. Imagine the enormous power of the Lord’s glory, a glory so powerful that it will explode the whole universe and remake it into a new heavens and earth. Note: the word “destroy” does not mean to annihilate, but to make inoperative; to make powerless; to end; to put a stop to the evil work of the antichrist.

4 (19:20) Lake of Fire: there is the horrifying judgment of the antichrist and the false prophet. They will both be immediately cast into the lake of fire. The lake of fire is called either Gehenna or the Lake of Fire. This is the place where all those who have rebelled against God are to be cast at the end of the world—all unbelieving men, fallen angels, demons, and the devil. At the final judgment of unbelievers, the lake of fire is the final hell to which all the wicked shall be judged and condemned, and the judgment of Gehenna is said to be eternal.

“The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; and shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth” (Mt.13:41-42).

“Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire” (Mt.18:8).

“And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever” (Rev.20:10).

“Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels: for I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink....And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal” (Mt.25:41, 46).

“And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire” (Rev.20:11-15).

“But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death” (Rev.21:8).

5 (19:21) Armageddon: there is the weapon of the Lord that He uses to slay the armies. What will the weapon be? A sword, the sword of His mouth. Jesus Christ has no physical, material, carnal, or fleshy weapons made of this earth. He does not need them. The only weapon He ever needs is the sword of His Word. All He ever has to do is speak the Word and whatever He says is done—immediately, instantaneously, completely, thoroughly, and finally. One blast of the power of His Word is so forceful that it consumes all that stands before Him. Therefore, in the horrifying battle of Armageddon there will not even be a battle fought. The Lord will simply speak the Word of death, and every soul of the godless nations and armies present will drop dead. A horrifying sight, but nevertheless it is the declaration of Scripture. And it will all be so tragic—tragic because everyone present could have given their heart and life to Jesus Christ and been saved. Instead they chose to reject, deny, and curse Christ and God, and slaughter literally millions in the worst holocaust the world will have ever seen. Therefore, the Lord Jesus Christ will have no choice. He will have to stop the slaughter and insane evil of the godless of this world. And He will stop it at Armageddon.

“For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart” (Heb.4:12).

“And take...the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God” (Eph.6:17).

“But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked” (Is.11:4).

THE FINAL TRIUMPH: THE MILLENNIUM USHERED IN, 19:11-20:15

C. The Great Removal and Binding of Satan, 20:1-3

(20:1-3) Introduction: Jesus Christ is coming back to earth again in all the glory and majesty of God. He is coming to eliminate all the ungodly and evil from off the earth. He is coming to establish the rule and reign of God upon earth. The earth will be filled with the righteousness of God and know nothing but the righteousness of God. The day is coming when there will be...

- no more sin, evil or unrighteousness upon earth.
- no more rejection, denial or cursing of God or His Son Jesus Christ.
- no more savagery, murder or war.
- no more sickness, disease or ill health.
- no more pain, suffering or death.

The kingdom of God is coming to earth. The earth is going to be like the Garden of Eden once again, except it will be better—better because Jesus Christ, the Son of God Himself, is going to be ruling and governing the affairs of the world.

This is what is known as the Millennium, which simply means one thousand years, the one thousand year rule of Jesus Christ upon the earth. No man, nation, technology or science can ever bring about the perfect earth. Man cannot create perfection. He cannot develop the perfect state and government, the perfect society and culture, or the perfect life and future. Only God can do that. And this is the most wonderful thing: Scripture declares that this is exactly what God is going to do. Scripture proclaims that the Lord Jesus Christ is coming back to earth in power and glory, coming to bring about the perfect state and government, society and culture, life and future. He is coming back in power and glory to bring the kingdom of God to earth, the rule and reign of love, joy, peace, and righteousness. When? Right after the final war of history; right after all the ungodly and evil nations and armies of the world have been eliminated from the earth. This will be done at the great battle of Armageddon. This was the discussion of the previous passage. Now, right after Armageddon, one more thing needs to be done: the spiritual power that lies behind all the ungodliness and evil of this earth, Satan himself, has to be bound. Man can never be free from evil and lawlessness—he can never have a perfect world—until the temptation to do evil is removed from the earth. So long as there is temptation, man will be lawless and do evil. Therefore, Jesus Christ has to remove the possibility of temptation from the earth. The only way this can be done is to remove Satan. This is the glorious news of this passage: the great removal and binding of Satan. Note how God answers all the questions we need to know about the removal of evil and Satan from the earth.

1. Who is going to remove Satan (v.1-2^a)?
2. Who is Satan (v.2)?
3. How long will Satan be removed (v.2)?
4. Where is Satan to be placed (v.3)?
5. Why is Satan to be bound and removed (v.3)?
6. Will Satan ever be released again (v.3)?

(Remember: the purpose of The Preacher's Outline & Sermon Bible is to outline the Bible and to simply develop the points of the Scriptural outline. Our purpose is not to present theological and denominational positions. For this reason we do not get into all the controversy over pre-, mid-, post-, and non- tribulation and millennial positions. As stated, God has called us to outline and develop only what the Scripture says. To the best of our ability we do this. Our daily and consistent prayer for every reader is that The Preacher's Outline & Sermon Bible will help you to understand God's Word better. This is our sole purpose for existing.)

1 (20:1-2) Satan: Who is going to remove Satan from the earth? The angel of God's power. Note that the angel comes directly out of heaven, from God's presence. Remember "angel" (aggelou) means messenger. Some messenger from heaven is going to remove Satan from this earth. Some scholars believe this messenger is Jesus Christ. Note that He has "the keys of hell and death" (Rev.1:18). They believe that Christ would never give those keys to anyone else. Whatever the case, the messenger holds two things in his hands:

- ⇒ The key to the bottomless pit: this means that he has the power to cast Satan into the abyss, away from the earth.
- ⇒ A great chain: this means that he has the power to bind Satan and to keep him from tempting and leading people into sin and ungodliness.

Thought 1. Think what this means. There is a power great enough to remove Satan and all the evil and sin from this earth. That power is in heaven, the very power of God Himself.

“And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you” (Ro.16:20).

2 (20:2) Satan—Names - Titles: Who is Satan? His names tell us.

1. He is the dragon: the spiritual power that stirs up the fiery, cruel, and brutal passions of people and governments, that causes people and governments to behave like beasts and to ravage and destroy people and property.

“And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him” (Rev.12:9).

“And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years” (Rev.20:2).

2. He is that old serpent: the spiritual power that deceives, seduces and beguiles people; that leads people into sin and evil; that leads people to disobey, ignore, and neglect God.

“But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ” (2 Cor.11:3).

“For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works” (2 Cor.11:13-15).

“And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die....And the LORD God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life” (Gen.3:4, 14).

3. He is the devil: the spiritual power that slanders, lies, and murders by leading people to lie and murder.

“Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it” (Jn.8:44).

“Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour” (1 Pt.5:8).

4. He is Satan: the spiritual power that accuses, opposes, and stands as an enemy to God and His followers. Satan leads his followers, the ungodly and evil of this world, to accuse, oppose, and stand against God and believers, even to the point of persecuting and killing them. He is also the main accuser of believers. He is pictured as constantly pointing out the sins and failures of believers to God. He does this in order to cut the heart of God and to arouse God's justice against man.

“Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve” (Mt.4:10).

“And after the sop Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly” (Jn.13:27).

“To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me” (Acts 26:18).

“And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you” (Ro.16:20).

This is Satan, the spiritual being who lies behind all the ungodliness and evil in the world. This is Satan, the one who has to be bound and removed from the earth before Jesus Christ can bring the perfect government and society to earth. (See notes, Satan—Rev.12:3-4; DEEPER STUDY # 1—12:9 for more discussion.)

3 (20:2) Satan: How long will Satan be removed? The time is clearly stated: for one thousand years. This means a most wonderful thing: there is a period of history coming when there will be no more ungodliness and evil running wild upon earth. This is the period of history that is known as the Millennium, the period when the Lord Jesus Christ will come to rule and reign upon this earth as Sovereign Lord. Scripture says the time will be one thousand years. Think how glorious this will be:

- ⇒ No more war or killing will exist.
- ⇒ No more assaults or abuse or crimes will go unpunished.
- ⇒ No more hunger or homelessness or unemployment will exist.
- ⇒ No more laziness or lethargy or unconcern will be allowed.
- ⇒ No more drug-pushing or enslavement to drunkenness will be tolerated.

All the wrongs and ills, evil and lawlessness of this earth will be removed. The perfect government and society, utopia and life will be brought to this earth. Righteousness—all things made righteous—will be established upon the earth for one thousand years.

4 (20:3) Satan—Bottomless Pit: Where is Satan to be placed for the thousand years? In the bottomless pit (see note—Rev.9:2 for discussion).

“And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall punish the host of the high ones that are on high [Satan and the fallen angels and demons], and the kings of the earth upon the earth. And they shall be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days shall they be visited” (Is.24:21-22).

5 (20:3) Satan—Utopia: Why is Satan to be bound and removed? The reason is clearly stated: so that he cannot deceive people and nations any more. Right now, sin looks good, tastes good, and feels good. Think about the things that look good, feel good, and taste good:

⇒ food	⇒ money	⇒ possessions
⇒ sex	⇒ pleasure	⇒ stimulation of the flesh
⇒ honor	⇒ power	⇒ popularity
⇒ recognition	⇒ clothes	⇒ position
⇒ vehicles	⇒ houses	⇒ comfort

None of these are wrong. They are necessary to life. But the passion and lusting after these things are wrong. Scripture says that Satan and his evil spirits are the ones who arouse these passions to lust within us. Satan is the evil force and power that arouses us...

- to lust after more and more food.
- to lust after another person.
- to lust after power over others.
- to lust after more and more pleasure and possessions.
- to lust after more and more position and money.

Think what society will be like when Jesus Christ comes to bring utopia, the Kingdom of God, to earth. Think about the love, joy, and peace; the self-control, discipline, and personal strength; the cooperation, unity, and oneness; the individuality, assurance, and security; the purpose, meaning, and significance people will have. When Satan is removed there will be no more deception of people or nations. There will only be a society in which there will be no need and no lack. This is the reason Jesus Christ is going to remove Satan: He, the Son of God, wants man to have the privilege of living in the perfect society on this earth and to do so while the earth is in its present created form.

1. Satan will be bound and removed from earth.

“And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from haven” (Lk.10:18).

“And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years, and cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season” (Rev.20:2-3).

2. There is going to be a change in the earth.

“Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now. And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body” (Ro.8:21-23).

“The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose. It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing: the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon, they shall see the glory of the LORD, and the excellency of our God” (Is.35:1-2).

3. There is going to be a change in the animal kingdom.

“The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them. And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice’ den. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea” (Is.11:6-9).

4. There is going to be a change in the aging, sicknesses, and diseases of the body.

“Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then shall the lame man leap as a hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing: for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert: (Is.35:5-6).

5. There will be plenty upon earth.

“And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed. And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed” (Joel 2:26-27).

“And it shall come to pass in that day, that the mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Judah shall flow with waters, and a fountain shall come forth of the house of the LORD, and shall water the valley of Shittim” (Joel 3:18).

6. There will be peace on earth.

“In that day shall there be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians shall serve with the Assyrians. In that day shall Israel be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, even a blessing in the midst of the land: whom the LORD of hosts shall bless, saying, Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel mine inheritance” (Is.19:23-25).

7. There will be a change in government.

“And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever” (Rev.11:15).

“And it shall be in that day, that living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be. And the LORD shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and his name one” (Zech.14:8-9).

8. There will be righteousness and morality and godliness on earth.

“And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the LORD’S house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it. And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more” (Is.2:2-4).

- 6 (20:3) Satan: Will Satan ever be released again? Scripture says yes, for a little season (see notes—Rev.20:7-10 for discussion).

DIVISION XII

THE FINAL TRIUMPH: THE MILLENNIUM USHERED IN, 19:11-20:15

D. The First Resurrection and Millennial Reign of Christ, 20:4-6

(20:4-6) Introduction: this is one of the most exciting passages of Scripture in all the Word of God for the believer. It is the great millennial reign of the Lord Jesus Christ here on earth. The word millennium simply means one thousand years. When we speak of the Millennium, we mean the one thousand year rule of Jesus Christ on earth. Remember what has just happened in Revelation, the two great events that have just been revealed to us.

First, Jesus Christ is going to return to earth as conqueror, and He is going to destroy the antichrist and all the war machines and armies of the world at Armageddon. There will not be a shot fired at Armageddon. When Jesus Christ appears in the heavens, He will give one blast of His glory and the most powerful laser beam the world has ever known will destroy the armies and nations of the world.

Second, Christ will take Satan and bind and remove him from the earth for one thousand years. For one thousand years Satan will not be able to tempt or deceive people on earth. This does not mean that people cannot sin or do wrong, for man will still have his human nature that comes short of God by its very nature. Man will still have choices to make: to follow Christ or not to follow Christ. But with Satan bound and removed, there will be far less evil and ungodliness in the world. And government and society itself will be under the control of Christ Himself. This means...

- that no more war or killing will exist.
- that no more assaults or abuse or crimes will go unpunished.
- that no more hunger or homelessness or unemployment will exist.
- that no more laziness or lethargy or unconcern will be allowed.
- that no pushing of drugs or enslavement to drunkenness will be tolerated.

Now for the present passage: this is the first resurrection and great millennial reign of Jesus Christ upon earth.

1. The resurrection and rule of believers (v.4).
2. The resurrection of believers only (v.5).
3. The great privilege of believers (v.6).

DEEPER STUDY # 1

(20:4-6) Millennial Reign of Jesus Christ—Millennium: because of the length and large number of verses contained in this footnote, it is being placed last in this outline. This is to keep from losing one's continuity of thought with the passage here in Revelation. (See DEEPER STUDY # 2, Millennium—Rev.20:4-6 for discussion.)

1 (20:4) Resurrection, The—Rewards: there is the resurrection and rule of believers. Note three facts.

1. John sees thrones and people sitting upon them with authority to judge and rule. He also sees the millions of believers who were martyred during the tribulation, those who were killed for their witness for Christ and their stand for the Word of God, and those who refused to worship and receive the mark of the antichrist.

Who are the people sitting upon the thrones? John tells us.

- ⇒ They are those who live again or come to life again and who reign with Christ (v.4).
- ⇒ They are those who take part in the first resurrection.

This tells us exactly who the people are: they are believers who have died, the dead believers of all time. Those who rule and reign with Christ in the Millennium will be the believers whose bodies have come back to life again, all the believers who will take part in the first resurrection.

2. Note that John sets the martyrs of the tribulation off as a special group of believers. Why? Probably because they paid the ultimate price for Christ: they died for Him. Their blood especially cries out for vindication and reward. They, among us all, should be rewarded and given the right to rule with Christ.

3. The millennial reign of Jesus Christ is when the believer's glorious rule and reign with Christ begins. Note what John says he saw:

“I saw thrones, and they [believers] sat upon them, and judgment [authority to rule] was given to them” (v.4).

The Millennium is when Jesus Christ sets up the organization and arrangement of rule and reign throughout the whole universe. The millennial reign is when Christ gives believers their duties and responsibilities, their assignments and service for eternity. (The assignments and service will most likely be enlarged at the end of the Millennium when He creates the new heavens and earth.) The Millennium is where Christ removes the fallen spiritual beings from power. This is where Satan and his heavenly host are bound and removed from power.

⇒ Remember the spiritual forces that fight against God and man, the high places that Scripture says they hold.

“For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places” (Eph.6:12).

“For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him” (Col.1:16).

⇒ As stated, this is where Christ dethrones Satan and his heavenly host.

“And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand. And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years, and cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season” (Rev.20:1-3).

“And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall punish the host of the high ones that are on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth” (Is.24:21).

This is where Christ reclaims the positions of the principalities and the high places of rule throughout the universe and exalts believers to those positions. (See note—Rev. 14:13 for more discussion.)

“Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters? Know ye not that we shall judge [oversee, rule] angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?” (1 Cor.6:2-3).

“And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: that in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus” (Eph.2:6-7).

“If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us” (2 Tim.2:12).

2 (20:5) Resurrection, The: there is the resurrection of believers only. Scripture could not state it any clearer. The millennial reign of Christ will see only the resurrection of believers. The first resurrection is for believers only. Note verse six: it is for those who are blessed and holy and upon whom the second death (eternal death) has no power. The first resurrection will be only of those who are going to live forever. The rest of the dead, the unbelievers, will not “live again” until after the thousand years are finished. Note exactly what John says he saw:

“And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection” (v.4-5).

⇒ He saw people sitting upon thrones with the authority to judge or rule (v.4).

⇒ He saw the martyrs of the tribulation (v.4).

⇒ He saw these living again; that is, they were resurrected in the first resurrection (v.4).

⇒ He saw that the rest of the dead, the unbelievers, would not live again until the thousand years were finished (cp. Rev.20:13).

Note that this is exactly what Scripture says: there are to be one thousand years between the first resurrection of believers and the rest of the dead (the unbelievers, cp. Rev.20:12-15; 21:8).

3 (20:6) Millennium: there is the great privilege of the resurrected believers in the Millennium. Again note: this verse is still referring only to the resurrected believers, not to the people who will be upon earth. The resurrected believers will have six glorious privileges in the Millennium.

1. They will be extremely blessed. “Blessed” (makarios) means joy and satisfaction, being complete and fulfilled, secure and peaceful within one’s being; having meaning, significance, and purpose.

Thought 1. To be blessed is what men seek. The problem is that they seek it in the things of this earth: position, money, possessions, fame, power, and worldly pleasures. The only true blessedness is found in Jesus Christ. He alone can raise up a person in the first resurrection. He alone can give a person the right to rule and reign with Him in His millennial reign.

“Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also” (Mt.6:19-21).

“Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty” (2 Cor.6:17-18).

“Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world” (1 Jn.2:15-16)

“And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them” (Rev.14:13).

“Behold, O come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame” (Rev.16:15).

“And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God” (Rev.19:9).

2. The resurrected believers will be holy. That is, they will be perfected into the holiness of Christ Himself. They will be perfectly separated from the world and set apart unto God. They will bear the very same nature of Christ Himself, a holy nature, a nature that is perfectly pure.

“For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren” (Ro.8:29).

“For our conversation [citizenship] is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself” (Ph.3:20-21).

“Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is” (1 Jn.3:2).

3. The resurrected believers will never be touched by the second death. What is the second death? It means a second kind of death. The first death is when we leave this world and pass on into the next world. The second death refers to eternal death, to being separated from God forever. It means to be put into a different place other than where God is. It means to live someplace other than in heaven with God. Scripture clearly tells us what the second death is:

“And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death” (v.14).

The second death is being separated from God and being cast into the lake of fire. The point is this: resurrected believers will never have to suffer the second death. Despite our depravity and failure and sins upon earth—despite our rebellion and rejection of God for so many years before we surrendered our lives to Jesus Christ—despite what we might deserve—if we have truly surrendered our lives to Jesus Christ, we will never suffer the second death. This will be one of the glorious privileges of the resurrected believer.

“The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death” (1 Cor.15:26).

“So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory” (1 Cor.15:54).

“But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel” (2 Tim.1:10).

“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away” (Rev.21:4).

“He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it” (Is.25:8).

4. The resurrected believer will serve as a priest of God and of Christ. This means that believers will have the same right that they have upon earth now, the right to enter the presence of God and Christ as needed. There will be no need for a mediator to stand between God and the believer. As stated, it will be just as it is upon earth now, except that we will be standing face to face with God and Christ, whereas now we approach them through prayer and thought.

“Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ” (1 Pt.2:5).

“And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever” (Rev.1:6).

“Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years” (Rev.20:6).

5. The resurrected believer will rule and reign with Christ. (See notes—Rev.14:13 for discussion.)

6. The resurrected believer will serve under the rule of Christ. (See note—Rev. 14:13 for discussion.)

DEEPER STUDY # 2

(20:4-6) Jesus Christ, Millennial Reign—Millennium: this is the only Scripture that tells us how long the millennial reign of Jesus Christ will be (Rev.20:2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7). Millennium simply means one thousand years or a period of one thousand years. It refers to the coming again of Jesus Christ to earth, some time in the future when He will be returning to reign over the nations and peoples of the earth.

⇒ Here is a quick Scripture reference to show what is meant.

“I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed” (Dan.7:13-14).

⇒ Peter definitely said that the Millennium was coming and that it referred to some future time.

“Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord; and he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you: whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began” (Acts 3:19-21).

Although this is the only mention of one thousand years, the coming of Jesus Christ to rule this earth is mentioned many, many times in Scripture. Many more verses will be given below, but this gives a quick glimpse as to what is meant by the Millennium. The Millennium simply means the rule of Jesus Christ over this earth, over all the nations and peoples of this earth for one thousand years. Why is a Millennium necessary? Why does Jesus Christ not just end everything when He comes back to earth? Why is He coming back and ruling over this earth for one thousand years? There are at least four reasons.

1. The earth must be ruled over by Christ in its present form. Why? Because the earth belongs to Christ; it belongs to Him by right. Jesus Christ created the world and man. But man gave the world to Satan. Man obeyed Satan instead of God. When he did, he brought evil to earth. Therefore, Jesus Christ has to reclaim the earth and bring righteousness to the earth, and He has to do it while the earth is in its present form. To destroy the earth would be giving up this earth and dooming it to destruction; it would mean that God failed with the present earth. Of course, God cannot fail. Therefore, the Lord Jesus Christ must reclaim this earth and rule over it before He moves the world and believers into the perfect world.

2. Why is the Millennium necessary? Because God has to fulfill all the promises to man that are in His Word. But why would God make such promises that could not be fulfilled in sinful man? God knew that man would fail and that the promises would not be able to be fulfilled. So why make the promises? Because God loves man, and He wants to bless man. God would rather create man and have a few who will believe in Him and bless them than not to create man and have no one to bless.

The point is this: in order to bless the few believers upon earth, in order to fulfill God’s promises, Jesus Christ has to come back to this earth while it is in its present form. God made some wonderful and great promises all through the Scripture that have not yet been fulfilled, and they cannot be fulfilled without Christ Himself ruling and reigning and bringing them about. Therefore, He is coming back to complete the promises, coming back while the earth is still in its present form.

3. Why is the Millennium necessary? Because God is love, and He wants to see more and more people saved despite the terrible evil of past history and the horrible evil of the end time under the antichrist. God is still merciful. Therefore, in the Millennium God is going to give man the very presence of His Son in His majestic glory ruling and reigning from Jerusalem. God is going to give man his utopia upon earth: peace and prosperity—give man every opportunity in the world to receive Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. The Millennium is necessary because of the love of God for man, a love that longs for more and more people to be saved.

Now, what will the Millennium be like? A good way to gain some understanding of the Millennium is to ask questions and then to answer the questions by giving Scriptural support. Any minister or lay believer can do the same study that we are doing. It is needed because of so many erroneous ideas going around about the Millennium. We give just a brief study so that the reader will have some idea of what the Millennium will be. Note four questions and points about the Millennium:

1. What are some verses that tell us that Christ is coming back in glory to rule and reign over the earth?
⇒ He shall rule over and govern the nations.

“And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more” (Is.2:4).

“Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this” (Is.9:7).

“Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people” (Is.55:4).

“O let the nations be glad and sing for joy: for thou shalt judge the people righteously, and govern the nations upon earth” (Ps.67:4).

“For the kingdom is the LORD’S: and he is the governor among the nations” (Ps.22:28).

⇒ He shall rule and judge the ends of the earth.

“The adversaries of the LORD shall be broken to pieces; out of heaven shall he thunder upon them: the LORD shall judge the ends of the earth; and exalt the horn of his anointed” (1 Sam.2:10).

“He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth” (Ps.72:8).

“And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak peace unto the heathen: and his dominion shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth” (Zech.9:10).

⇒ He is coming to rule the earth.

“Before the LORD: for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth” (Ps.96:13).

“Before the LORD; for he cometh to judge the earth: with righteousness shall he judge the world, and the people with equity” (Ps.98:9).

⇒ He shall be made higher than the kings of the earth.

“His name shall endure for ever: his name shall be continued as long as the sun: and men shall be blessed in him: all nations shall call him blessed” (Ps.72:17). nd the people with equity” (Ps.98:9).

⇒ All nations shall come and see His glory and every knee shall bow.

“I have sworn by myself, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, That unto me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear” (Is.45:23).

“For I know their works and their thoughts: it shall come, that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and see my glory” (Is.66:18).

⇒ He shall be exalted over all rule and authority in this world and in the world to come.

“Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come” (Eph.1:21).

⇒ God shall subject the world to come to Christ.

“For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak. But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him? Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands: thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him” (Heb.2:5-8).

⇒ The kingdoms of the world become the kingdom of God.

“And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever” (Rev.11:15).

⇒ Christ the Stone shall fill and rule the whole earth.

“Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth” (Dan.2:35).

⇒ Christ alone has the right to the crown.

“I will overturn, overturn, overturn, it: and it shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him” (Ezk.21:27).

⇒ Kings shall bring gifts to Him and serve Him.

“The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents: the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts. Yea, all kings shall fall down before him: all nations shall serve him” (Ps.72:10-11).

⇒ His enemies shall be made His footstool.

“But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?” (Heb.1:13).

“From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool” (Heb.10:13).

“Till I make thine enemies thy footstool” (Lk.20:43).

“The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?” (Mt.22:44).

⇒ The people will obey Him.

“The scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be” (Gen.49:10).

⇒ The people shall gather and obey and serve Him.

“The scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be” (Gen.49:10).

“And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed” (Dan.7:14).

⇒ The people will glorify and fear Him.

“Therefore shall the strong people glorify thee, the city of the terrible nations shall fear thee” (Is.25:3).

⇒ He shall be given the throne of David.

“He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David” (Lk.1:32).

⇒ He shall rule in Zion (Jerusalem) upon His throne.

“Yet have I set my King upon my holy hill of Zion” (Ps.2:6).

“Even he shall build the temple of the LORD; and he shall sit and rule upon his throne; and he shall be a priest upon his throne: and the counsel of peace shall be between them both” (Zech.6:13).

⇒ Jerusalem will be the place of the Lord’s throne.

“At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD; and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem: neither shall they walk any more after the imagination of their evil heart” (Jer.3:17).

“Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the city shall be built to the LORD from the tower of Hananeel unto the gate of the corner. And the measuring line shall yet go forth over against it upon the hill Gareb, and shall compass about to Goath” (Jer.31:38-39).

“It was round about eighteen thousand measures: and the name of the city from that day shall be, the LORD is there” (Ezk.48:35).

“So shall ye know that I am the LORD your God dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall no strangers [unbelievers] pass through her any more” (Joel 3:17).

“Thus saith the LORD; I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called a city of truth; and the mountain of the LORD of hosts the holy mountain” (Zech.8:3).

⇒ The kingdom of Israel shall be the Lord’s.

“And saviors shall come up on mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau; and the kingdom shall be the LORD’s” (Obad.21).

⇒ The millennial kingdom will be centered in Jerusalem and the Shekinah glory will dwell there.

“And the LORD will create upon every dwelling place of mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for upon all the glory shall be a defence. And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the daytime from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from rain” (Is.4:5-6).

“At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD; and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem: neither shall they walk any more after the imagination of their evil heart” (Jer.3:17).

“Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the city shall be built to the LORD from the tower of Hananeel unto the gate of the corner. And the measuring line shall yet go forth over against it upon the hill Gareb, and shall compass about to Goath” (Jer.31:38-39).

“It was round about eighteen thousand measures: and the name of the city from that day shall be, The LORD is there” (Ezk.48:35).

“So shall ye know that I am the LORD your God dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall no strangers [unbelievers] pass through her any more” (Joel 3:17).

“The LORD hath taken away thy judgments, he hath cast out thine enemy: the king of Israel, even the LORD, is in the midst of thee: thou shalt not see evil any more....The LORD thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing” (Zeph.3:15, 17).

“Thus saith the LORD; I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called a city of truth; and the mountain of the LORD of hosts the holy mountain” (Zech.8:3).

⇒ He will bring peace and security to the world.

“And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more” (Is.2:4).

“Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this” (Is.9:7).

“And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof” (Zech.8:5).

“In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall ye call every man his neighbor under the vine and under the fig tree” (Zech.3:10).

“And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more” (Mic.4:3).

⇒ Christ will begin to reign right after the victory at Armageddon.

“And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth” (Rev.19:6; cp. Rev.19:11-21).

⇒ He, the seed of Abraham, shall be given the land of Canaan forever.

“And the LORD appeared unto Abram, and said, Unto thy seed [Christ] will I give this land: and there builded he an altar unto the LORD, who appeared unto him” (Gen.12:7 cp. Gal.3:16).

“For all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed [Christ] for ever” (Gen.13:15).

“And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed [Christ] after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God” (Gen.17:8).

“The LORD God of heaven, which took me from my father’s house, and from the land of my kindred, and which spake unto me, and that sware unto me, saying, Unto thy seed will I give this land; he shall send his angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife unto my son from thence” (Gen.24:7).

“Sojourn in this land, and I will be with thee, and will bless thee; for unto thee, and unto thy seed [Christ], I will give all these countries, and I will perform the oath which I sware unto Abraham thy father; and I will make thy seed to multiply as the stars of heaven, and will give unto thy seed all these countries; and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed” (Gen.26:3-4).

“And give thee the blessing of Abraham, to thee, and to thy seed with thee; that thou mayest inherit the land wherein thou art a stranger, which God gave unto Abraham....And, behold, the LORD stood above it, and said, I am the LORD God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed [Christ]” (Gen.28:4, 13; cp. Gal.3:16).

“And the land which I gave Abraham and Isaac, to thee I will give it, and to thy seed after thee will I give the land” (Gen.35:12).

“And said unto me, Behold, I will make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, and I will make of thee a multitude of people; and will give this land to thy seed after thee for an everlasting possession” (Gen.48:4).

⇒ The whole earth was given to Israel’s seed [Christ] forever.

“Thou shalt keep therefore his statutes, and his commandments, which I command thee this day, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days upon the earth, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, for ever” (Dt.4:40).

“For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world [the whole world], was not to Abraham, or to his seed [Christ], through the law, but through the righteousness of faith” (Ro.4:13).

The borders of Israel will be enlarged (Ezk.47:13-21; 48:1-7, 10-14, 20-29).

The city of Jerusalem will be laid out by very exact measurements (Ezk.48:15-19, 30-35).

2. Who is going to be in the Millennium? (See notes above—Rev.20:4; pt. 1—Rev.20:7-10 for discussion.)

3. What will life be like in the Millennium?

a. Life in the Millennium will be blessed.

⇒ There will be a covenant or treaty of world-wide peace and security. Imagine one thousand years of peace and security.

“And I will give peace in the land, and ye shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid: and I will rid evil beasts out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land” (Lev.26:6).

“In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS” (Jer.23:6).

“And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie down safely” (Hos.2:18).

“And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it” (Mic.4:3-4).

“For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the LORD that hath mercy on thee” (Is.54:10).

“Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise” (Is.60:18).

⇒ There will be no evil done by one nation against another nation.

“The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth: for they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid” (Zeph.3:13).

“The LORD hath taken away thy judgments, he hath cast out thine enemy: the king of Israel, even the LORD, is in the midst of thee: thou shalt not see evil any more” (Zeph.3:15).

⇒ There will be no sickness.

“And ye shall serve the LORD your God, and he shall bless thy bread, and thy water; and I will take sickness away from the midst of thee. There shall nothing cast their young, nor be barren, in thy land: the number of thy days I will fulfill” (Ex.23:25-26).

“Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. then shall the lame man leap as a hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing: for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert” (Is.35:5-6).

⇒ There will be a fruitful human population: no more barrenness or miscarriages.

“There shall nothing cast their young, nor be barren, in thy land: the number of thy days I will fulfill” (Ex.23:26).

“For I will have respect unto you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and establish my covenant with you” (Lev.26:9).

“Thou shalt be blessed above all people: there shall not be male or female barren among you, or among your cattle” (Dt.7:14).

“Blessed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy ground, and the fruit of thy cattle, the increase of thy kine [oxen, livestock], and the flocks of thy sheep....And the LORD shall make thee plenteous in goods, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy ground, in the land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers to give thee” (Dt.28:4, 11).

“Thou hast multiplied the nation, and...increased the joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil” (Is.9:3).

⇒ There will be bread and water and the necessities of life for everyone on earth.

“Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt. And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them, and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them” (Amos 9:13-14).

“And ye shall serve the LORD your God, and he shall bless thy bread, and thy water; and I will take sickness away from the midst of thee” (Ex.23:25).

“Blessed shall be thy basket and thy store. Blessed shalt thou be when thou comest out....The LORD shall command the blessing upon thee in thy storehouses, and in all that thou settest thine hand unto; and he shall bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee....The LORD shall open unto thee his good treasure, the heaven to give the rain unto thy land in his season, and to bless all the work of thine hand: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow” (Dt.28:5-6, 8, 12).

“And the LORD thy God will make thee plenteous in every work of thine hand, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy land, for good: for the LORD will again rejoice over thee for good, as he rejoiced over thy fathers” (Dt.30:9).

“He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass: as showers that water the earth. In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth....There shall be an handful of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains; the fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon: and they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth” (Ps.72:6-7, 16).

“In that day shall the branch of the LORD be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely for them that are escaped of Israel” (Is.4:2).

“And I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season; there shall be showers of blessing. And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that served themselves of them....And I will raise up for them a plume of renown, and they shall be no more consumed with hunger in the land, neither bear the shame of the heathen any more” (Ezk.34:26-27, 29).

“And it shall come to pass in that day, I will hear, saith the LORD, I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth; and the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall hear Jezreel” (Hos.2:21-22).

“And it shall come to pass in that day, that the mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Judah shall flow with waters, and a fountain shall come forth of the house of the LORD, and shall water the valley of Shittim” (Joel 3:18).

“Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt” (Amos 9:13).

⇒ There will be food and rest for all and no fear of enemies or criminals.

“I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel” (Ezk.34:14).

“They shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid” (Zeph.3:13).

“In that day it shall be said to Jerusalem, Fear thou not: and to Zion, Let not thine hands be slack” (Zeph.3:16).

“And it shall come to pass in the day that the LORD shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve” (Is.14:3).

“In righteousness shalt thou be established: thou shalt be far from oppression; for thou shalt not fear: and from terror: for it shall not come near thee” (Is.54:14).

⇒ There will be long and full life spans.

“There shall nothing cast their young, nor be barren, in thy land: the number of thy days I will fulfill” (Ex.23:26).

“He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it” (Is.25:8).

“There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die a hundred years old; but the sinner being a hundred years old shall be accursed” (Is.65:20).

“Thus saith the LORD of hosts; There shall yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand for very age” (Zech.8:4).

⇒ It will be a day of no tears, but of joy and praise.

“He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it” (Is.25:8).

“And the ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away” (Is.35:10).

“Therefore the redeemed of the LORD shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning shall flee away” (Is.51:11).

“Sing, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel; be glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem” (Zeph.3:14).

“Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy” (Jude 24).

“And in that day shall ye say, Praise the LORD, call upon his name, declare his doings among the people, make mention that his name is exalted” (Is.12:4).

⇒ Shame and guilt will be removed.

“In that day shalt thou not be ashamed for all thy doings, wherein thou hast transgressed against me: for then I will take away out of the midst of thee them that rejoice in thy pride, and thou shalt no more be haughty because of my holy mountain” (Zeph.3:11).

“And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed. And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed” (Joel 2:26-27).

⇒ There will be recognition and honor and a healthy ego and emotions.

“Behold, at that time I will undo all that afflict thee: and I will save her that halteth, and gather her that was driven out; and I will get them praise and fame in every land where they have been put to shame. At that time will I bring you again, even in the time that I gather you: for I will make you a name and a praise among all people of the earth, when I turn back your captivity before your eyes, saith the LORD” (Zeph.3:19-20).

⇒ Everyone will be a neighbor to everyone else.

“In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall ye call every man his neighbor under the vine and under the fig tree” (Zech.3:10).

⇒ There will no longer be any slavery.

“For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will break his [the oppressor’s] yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him. But they shall serve the LORD their God, and [the descendent, the Lord Jesus Christ of] David their king, whom I will raise up unto them” (Jer.30:8-9).

⇒ People will be able to trust the Lord’s strong arm.

“My righteousness is near; my salvation is gone forth, and mine arms shall judge the people; the isles shall wait upon me, and on mine arm shall they trust” (Is.51:5).

⇒ It will be a day of mercy.

“And in mercy shall the throne be established: and he shall sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David, judging, and seeking judgment, and hasting righteousness” (Is.16:5).

⇒ All things will be restored.

“Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began” (Acts 3:21).

⇒ Destroyed cities will be rebuilt. (Remember: most of the major cities of the world will have been destroyed.)

“And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations” (Is.61:4).

“And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them” (Is.65:21).

“Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt. And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them” (Amos 9:13-14).

⇒ All animals will live in peace. There will be no savagery.

“The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock; and dust shall be the serpent’s meat. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith the LORD” (Is.65:25).

⇒ Israel will be established as a nation forever.

“Thus saith the LORD, which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; THE LORD of hosts is his name: if those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever. Thus saith the LORD; If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, saith the LORD” (Jer.31:35-37).

⇒ The Gentiles receive the inheritance and blessings of Israel.

“And it shall come to pass, that ye shall divide it by lot for an inheritance unto you, and to the strangers that sojourn among you, which shall beget children among you: and they shall be unto you as born in the country among the children of Israel; they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel. And it shall come to pass, that in what tribe the stranger sojourneth, there shall ye give him his inheritance, saith the Lord GOD” (Ezk.47:22-23).

“The princes of the people [from all nations] are gathered together, even the people of the God of Abraham: for the shield of the earth belong unto God: he is greatly exalted” (Ps.47:9).

⇒ The feast of Tabernacles will be celebrated on a yearly basis.

“And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles” (Zech.14:16; cp. Ex.23:16. See note—Jn.7:37 for discussion.)

b. Life in the Millennium will be governed by righteousness.

⇒ Christ is going to judge the earth with righteousness and truth.

“The God of Israel said, the Rock of Israel spake to me, He that ruleth over men must be just, ruling in the fear of God. And he shall be as the light of the morning, when the sun riseth, even a morning without clouds; as the tender grass springing out of the earth by clear shining after rain” (2 Sam.23:3-4).

“O let the nations be glad and sing for joy: for thou shalt judge the people righteously, and govern the nations upon earth” (Ps.67:4).

“Before the LORD: for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth” (Ps.96:13).

“Before the LORD; for he cometh to judge the earth: with righteousness shall he judge the world, and the people with equity” (Ps.98:9).

“And in mercy shall the throne be established: and he shall sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David, judging, and seeking judgment, and hasting righteousness” (Is.16:5).

“Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth” (Jer.23:5).

“In those days, and at that time, will I cause the Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David; and he shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land” (Jer.33:15).

⇒ Christ is going to appoint a kingdom to the apostles.

“And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me” (Lk.22:29).

⇒ Christ will prevent evil from being done by one nation to another nation.

“The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth: for they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid” (Zeph.3:13).

“The LORD hath taken away thy judgments, he hath cast out thine enemy: the king of Israel, even the LORD, is in the midst of thee: thou shalt not see evil [from any nation] any more” (Zeph.3:15).

⇒ God’s commandments will be kept by the nations. There will be national obedience.

“But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? and I said, Thou shalt call me, My father; and shalt not turn away from me” (Jer.3:19).

⇒ The citizens of Jerusalem will be called holy.

“And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zion, and he that remaineth in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even every one that is written among the living in Jerusalem: when the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning” (Is.4:3-4).

⇒ Believers will call God “my Father.”

“But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? and I said, Thou shalt call me, My father; and shalt not turn away from me” (Jer.3:19).

c. Life in the Millennium will be a life of true worship.

⇒ All nations and kings and people of the earth will worship Christ.

“All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the LORD: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee” (Ps.22:27).

“All the earth shall worship thee, and shall sing unto thee; they shall sing to thy name” (Ps.66:4).

“And he shall live, and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba: prayer also shall be made for him continually; and daily shall he be praised” (Ps.72:15).

“All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord; and shall glorify thy name” (Ps.86:9).

“So the heathen shall fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth thy glory....To declare the name of the LORD in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem; when the people are gathered together, and the kingdoms, to serve the LORD” (Ps.102:15, 21-22).

“All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O LORD, when they hear the words of thy mouth. Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the LORD: for great is the glory of the LORD” (Ps.138:4-5).

“And thou shalt swear, The LORD liveth, in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; and the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory” (Jer.4:2).

“Thus saith the LORD of hosts; In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you: for we have heard that God is with you” (Zech.8:23).

⇒ All nations will seek instruction from Christ. Gentiles will become the multiplied seed of David and members of the priesthood of God’s true people, the true Israel.

“But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it. And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem” (Mic.4:1-2).

“And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the LORD’S house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it. And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem” (Is.2:2-3).

“Neither shall the priests the Levites [the tribe of the priesthood] want a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to kindle meat offerings, and to do sacrifice continually....As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites [the priests] that minister unto me” (Jer.33:18, 22).

“And I will also take of them [Gentiles] for priests and for Levites [the priesthood], saith the LORD” (Is.66:21).

⇒ There will be a covenant of peace between God and Israel, even the forgiveness of sin.

“And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob: for this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins” (Ro.11:26-27).

“I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed them with judgment” (Ezk.34:16).

“For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the LORD that hath mercy on thee” (Is.54:10).

⇒ All of God’s people will be purified.

“And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi [the priests], and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness. Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in former years” (Mal.3:3-4).

⇒ The nations will bless Christ and glory in Him.

“And thou shalt swear, The LORD liveth, in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; and the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory” (Jer.4:2).

“All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the LORD: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee” (Ps.22:27).

4. What are some verses that show that resurrected believers will rule and reign during the Millennium?

⇒ The kingdom and dominion of the world shall be given to believers.

“And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him” (Dan.7:27).

⇒ The apostles will rule and reign over the twelve tribes of Israel.

“And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel” (Mt.19:28).

“And he saith unto them, Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father” (Mt.20:23).

“I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire....And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him” (Dan.7:9, 27).

⇒ God’s people will be heirs of the world, of the whole world or universe.

“And to make thee high above all nations which he hath made, in praise, and in name, and in honor; and that thou mayest be a holy people unto the LORD thy God, as he hath spoken” (Dt.26:19).

“For the promise, that he should be heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith” (Ro.4:13).

⇒ God’s people will rule as princes.

“Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment” (Is.32:1).

⇒ All believers will rule and reign with Christ.

“And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father” (Rev.2:26-27).

“To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne” (Rev.3:21).

“And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth” (Rev.5:10).

“And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years....Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years” (Rev.20:4, 6).

“If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us” (2 Tim.2:12).

⇒ The Lord will set up shepherds (leaders) over His people.

“And I will set up shepherds over them which shall feed them: and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the LORD” (Jer.23:4).

⇒ God’s people will judge or rule over angels. (This may not take place until the new heavens and earth are created.)

“Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?” (1 Cor.6:3).

⇒ God’s people will be put in charge of all of Christ’s possessions.

“Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. Of a truth I say unto you, that ye will make him ruler over all that he hath” (Lk.12:43-44).

⇒ Believers will rule over unbelieving Jews.

“Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee” (Rev.3:9).

Remember: the believers will be in their resurrected bodies and people on earth in their earthly bodies. There will apparently be mingling among the two. What we must keep in mind is this: heaven and eternity are not like what most people think—a spirit floating around on a cloud playing a harp or else a spirit that appears as a ghost or gas-like substance. We will have bodies in heaven and eternity. In fact, we will have our present bodies with one difference: they will be perfected. This is the very purpose for the resurrection: to raise up the very elements of our bodies and perfect them to live eternally in the perfect environment of heaven and earth. Therefore, during the Millennium it will be just like it was when Christ fellowshiped with the disciples after His resurrection. He was in His resurrected body and the disciples were in their earthly bodies. During the Millennium, it will be a common thing for the resurrected Lord and resurrected believers to fellowship with people in their earthly bodies. All will have bodies, some earthly bodies and others heavenly, that is, perfected bodies. Remember: the Millennium will be a new age for the earth. Life upon earth will be entirely different from what it is now. As has been seen in the study above, when Jesus Christ returns to earth, His presence and power will change everything.

DIVISION XII

THE FINAL TRIUMPH: THE MILLENNIUM USHERED IN, 19:11-20:15

E. The Return of Satan and His Eternal Fate, 20:7-10

(20:7-10) Introduction: this is a shocking Scripture. It tells us this: at the end of the Millennium Satan is going to be set loose from hell and allowed to deceive people again. Why? There are at least two reasons.

1. Satan will be loosed for the same reason that he is allowed to tempt us now: to show man what is in his heart, to show man that he must turn to Christ or else face destruction. People during the Millennium will be no different from any other generation of people: they will have a free will and they will still need to turn to Christ for salvation. Therefore, they have to be shown their need. The fact that they turn to Satan so readily will show people their need for Christ in the most stirring way possible. But note: as with all other generations, most people will reject Christ and choose to go their own way in life. Most people will choose to follow Satan.

2. God will release Satan in order to vindicate the justice of God, that is, in order to show that people deserve to be judged and condemned. When people turn to Satan so readily and oppose Christ so easily, they will be without excuse, unable to say one word against the righteous judgment of God. God's final and eternal judgment will be totally vindicated. Therefore, Satan will be released so that people will see the utter corruption of their hearts and stand speechless before the righteous judgment of God.

This passage is the discussion of the return of Satan and his eternal fate.

1. Satan is loosed (v.7).
2. Satan immediately deceives the nations: God and Magog (v.8).
3. The final armies of the world will be destroyed and Satan condemned forever (v.9-10).

1 (20:7) Satan: Satan is loosed at the end of the Millennium and he immediately deceives the nations. Who are these nations? Were not all the nations destroyed at Armageddon? Scripture says no, there will still be people upon earth after Armageddon, people who will go through the Millennium.

1. There will be survivors of Armageddon who will become witnesses to the glory of Christ when they return home to their own nations.

“For, behold, the LORD will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire. For by fire and by his sword will the LORD plead with all flesh: and the slain of the LORD shall be many....And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those that escape of them unto the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal, and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles” (Is.66:15-16, 19).

“And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles. And it shall be, that whoso will not come up of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, even upon them shall be no rain. And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, that have no rain; there shall be the plague, wherewith the lord will smite the heathen that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles” (Zech.14:16-19).

2. There will even be some survivors of the bowl judgments which fall upon the earth—some survivors of the catastrophic earthquake that hits all over the world and destroys the ungodly cities of the world (cp. Rev.16:1-21, esp. v.17-21). Remember this earthquake takes place at the same time as Armageddon, when Christ returns to earth. But note: there will be some survivors (v.21).

“And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great. And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great” (Rev.16:18-21).

3. There will be people who turn to the Lord during the Millennium; that is, people will be saved.

“Glorious things are spoken of thee, O city of God. Selah. I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon to them that know me: behold Philistia, and Tyre, with Ethiopia; this man was born there. And of Zion it shall be said, This and that man was born in her: and the highest himself shall establish her. The LORD shall count, when he writeth up the people, that this man was born there” (Ps.87:3-6).

“Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand” (Is.53:10).

“As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of David [believers in Christ] my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me” (Jer.33:22; cp. Is.53:10).

“And it shall come to pass, that ye shall divide it by lot for an inheritance unto you, and to the strangers that sojourn among you, which shall beget children among you: and they shall be unto you as born in the country among the children of Israel; they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel. And it shall come to pass, that in what tribe the stranger sojourneth, there shall ye give him his inheritance, saith the Lord GOD: (Ezk.47:22-23).

4. There will be the nations that are in existence when Christ returns to earth. This shows there will be some survivors within most, if not all, of the nations. There will be few in comparison to the population before the trumpet and bowl judgments and before Armageddon, nevertheless some will survive. It will be the people of these nations and the future generations born during the Millennium that Christ will rule with a rod of iron. It will be these over whom He will execute justice.

“Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion. I will declare the decree: the LORD hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee. Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession. Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter’s vessel” (Ps.2:6-9).

“The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem. And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the LORD’S house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it. And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more” (Is.2:1-4).

“And [God] shall make him [Christ] of quick understanding in the fear of the LORD: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears: but with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked. And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins” (Is.11:3-5).

“There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die a hundred years old; but the sinner being a hundred years old shall be accursed” (Is.65:20).

“They that sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens behind one tree in the midst, eating swine’s flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, shall be consumed together, saith the LORD. For I know their works and their thoughts: it shall come, that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and see my glory” (Is.66:17-18).

“And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more” (Mic.4:3).

“And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles. And it shall be, that whoso will not come up of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, even upon them shall be no rain. And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, that have no rain; there shall be the plague, wherewith the lord will smite the heathen that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles” (Zech.14:16-19).

“And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever” (Rev.11:15).

“And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus” (Rev.16:5).

“And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison, and shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them. And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever” (Rev.20:7-10).

“Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power. For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death. For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him. And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all” (1 Cor.15:24-28).

2 (20:8) Satan: when Satan is set loose at the end of the Millennium, he will immediately deceive the nations. Scripture tells us that everyone on earth during the Millennium will not be saved. There will be many whose hearts will not belong to Christ. And remember, Christ will actually be living in Jerusalem where His palace and rule will be centered. Yet the hearts of many will be hard toward Him. How could this possibly happen when Christ will rule for one thousand years, when He will personally guide the rebuilding of the world’s cities and bring peace and prosperity to earth? The answer is the same as what is experienced today and has been experienced from the beginning of time. Never forget that God’s own Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, came to earth thousands of years ago, yet people not only rejected Him, many denied that He was even God’s Son. And today, despite all the clear and unmistakable evidence, most reject and deny Him. Remember this also: the Millennium will be one thousand years long. Think about it: one thousand years. That is a long, long time. People around the earth, as we all tend to do, will begin to fall into a routine. Year after year will pass; then decade after decade and century after century will pass. Some people will not even meet Christ face to face. They will not go up to Jerusalem for the great Feast of Tabernacles (Zech.14:16-19). As a result, what will happen will be just what has happened since Christ came the first time: people will begin to think of Christ in terms of a mere man. To many people He will be a mere ruler. And note how many will follow the deception of Satan: they will be numbered as the sand of the sea. Note also that they are called by the name of Gog and Magog. These are the names that symbolize the nations that come from the north to fight against God’s people. Gog was the king of Magog (cp. Ezk. chapters 38 and 39).

3 (20:9-10) Satan: the final armies of the world will be destroyed and Satan condemned forever. The nations will march against Jerusalem and the throne of Christ to take over the world for themselves (v.9). But there will be no battle. The nations will misinterpret who Christ is, the Sovereign Majesty of the universe. They will let the fact that He has come to earth throw them into thinking He is only a mere man as they are. God will intervene and cause fire to fall out of heaven and consume the armies. The devil will then be taken and cast into the lake of fire with the antichrist and the false prophet (v.10). And note: they will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

“Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels” (Mt.25:41).

“If God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment” (2 Pt.2:4).

“And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day” (Jude 6).

“And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone” (Rev.19:20).

“And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever” (Rev.20:10).

THE FINAL TRIUMPH: THE MILLENNIUM USHERED IN, 19:11-20:15

F. The Final Resurrection and Judgment of Unbelievers: The Great White Throne Judgment, 20:11-15

(20:11-15) Introduction: the final judgment is coming, that great day when all unbelievers shall stand before God and give an account to God. The final judgment is called the "Great White Throne Judgment." Many deny a final judgment. They smile and scoff at the idea that there is to be future punishment for sins. They laugh at the preaching and teaching of hell. This Scripture stands diametrically opposed to these people. This Scripture declares emphatically: there is to be a final judgment for unbelievers; every unbeliever, small and great, shall stand before God and give an account to God. The declaration is emphatic: all unbelievers shall be judged and punished for their rejection of Jesus Christ and for their works upon earth. Unbelievers shall be judged at the "Great White Throne Judgment of God."

1. The place of judgment: the great white throne (v.11).
2. The time of judgment: when heaven and earth flee away (v.11).
3. The persons to be judged (v.12).
4. The basis of judgment (v.12).
5. The resurrection to judgment (v.13).
6. The terrorizing punishment of the judgment: the lake of fire which is the second death (v.14-15).

1 (20:11) Judgment: there is the place of judgment, the great white throne of God. Unbelievers shall stand before the very throne of God, face to face with God and Christ. Standing there they will see exactly what John saw. They will then know that their unbelief and rejection of Jesus Christ was mad and insane behavior. They will know they should have never rejected and cursed God and Christ. They should not have lived for the pleasures and possessions of this world. But it will be too late. Standing there, they will not be standing before the cross of Christ, They will be standing before the great white throne, before the throne of God's judgment. Note how the throne is described.

1. The throne of God is a great throne. It is far, far greater than any judicial bench of any supreme court. It is greater because God Himself, the Sovereign Majesty of the universe, sits upon it. When He speaks and issues a decision...
 - the decision is final.
 - the decision is for eternity, not just for a life term.
 - the decision can never be appealed, not even once.

But the throne is also great for another reason: its decisions concern a great salvation. Everyone who stands before the great white throne of God has rejected the great salvation of God's Son. He has rejected the great salvation offered by the Son of God Himself. The salvation offered by the Lord Jesus Christ is not just another salvation, not just another way to God, not just one of many ways to God. The salvation offered by Jesus Christ is the only salvation of God's Son Himself. This is what makes the rejection of Jesus Christ so serious. Jesus Christ is God's Son, God's very own Son. As good as the morality and teachings of some religions may be, there is only one Son of God. God has only one Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, the only person who is ever acceptable God is the person who approaches Him through His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. As stated, the salvation offered by Jesus Christ is the only salvation there is; it is the only way to God. Why? Because it is the salvation of the Son of God Himself. Therefore, it is the great salvation, the only salvation that has existed or ever will exist. Consequently, when it comes time to judge those who reject the great salvation of God's Son, they will be judged from a great throne.

"How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him" (Heb.2:3).

"See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him [the Lord Jesus Christ] that speaketh from heaven" (Heb.12:25).

2. The throne of God is a white throne. White stands for purity, holiness, and righteousness. We must never forget: no person is perfect. No person is perfectly pure or righteous. We all have some impurity and some unrighteousness. But not God; God is perfect. He is perfect in purity and righteousness. Therefore, no imperfect person can ever live with God. If any of us are to live with God, our imperfection must be removed so that we can stand perfect before God.

How can this be done? Only by Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ alone is perfect and sinless. Therefore, the person must believe that Jesus Christ died for his sins, that Jesus Christ actually took his sins off him and died for them. If a person believes this, God counts it so. God actually counts the death of Jesus Christ for the believer. Therefore, the believer stands before God perfect and sinless—not because he really is sinless, but because Jesus Christ bore his sins for him and paid the judgment for them. The only person who can ever live with God is a person who has let Jesus Christ bear his sin. If a person wishes to live with God, he must trust the death of Jesus Christ, trust that Jesus Christ died for him.

The point is this: no unbeliever has done this. Everyone who stands before the great white throne of God will be bearing his own sins. Not a single unbeliever will have trusted the purity and righteousness of Jesus Christ. Therefore, the purity of God's throne will blaze forth in righteousness and condemn the unbeliever, condemn him because he is neither pure nor righteous. The purity and righteousness of Jesus Christ to cover his sins were available, but he rejected Jesus Christ. Therefore, the unbeliever stands in his unrighteousness before God's holy righteousness. Consequently his unrighteousness must be condemned by God's righteousness, and it will be. This is what the great white throne judgment is: the judgment of all unbelievers.

“Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice before the LORD: for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth” (Ps.96:12-13).

“And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory” (Mt.24:30).

“Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words, in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels” (Mk.8:38).

“And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ” (2 Th.1:7-8).

“Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen” (Rev.1:7).

2 (20:11) Judgment: there is the time of the judgment. When will the great white throne judgment take place? When the earth and the heaven flee away. This is a poetic way to describe the destruction of the present heavens and earth that is coming. Remember: God has promised to make a new heavens and earth. To do so, He must first destroy the present heavens and earth. When is this universal destruction going to take place? When the great white throne judgment is going on. Picture the scene! There stand all the unbelievers who have ever lived. Billions and billions of unbelievers stand upon the great sea of glass before the throne of God. Then all of a sudden there is a massive explosion of atoms never dreamed possible. A chain reaction sets off all the atoms throughout the whole universe. A universal atomic explosion destroys the whole universe. Both the heavens and the earth are destroyed by God, destroyed by fire.

Imagine the shock to the unbelievers standing before God in the spiritual world. The idea is that they will witness the fiery destruction of their world, the world upon which they had lived their lives. Note the words “there was no place found for them [the unbelievers].” They had lived for the world and their world will be gone. They do not belong in heaven; therefore, there is no place for them. All they had lived for will be gone: money, houses, lands, position, power, fame, popularity, drugs, sex, alcohol, pleasure, possessions, and comfort—it will all be gone. There will no longer be a world for the unbeliever, and they do not belong in heaven. There will be no place for them.

“Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away” (Mt.24:35).

“But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men” (2 Pt.3:7).

“But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation [behavior] and godliness, looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat? Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness” (2 Pt.3:10-13).

“And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them” (Rev.20:11).

“And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea” (Rev.21:1).

“Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands. They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end” (Ps.102:25-27).

“And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine and as a falling fig from the fig tree” (Is.34:4).

“Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished” (Is.51:6).

“For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind” (Is.65:17).

3 (20:12) Judgment: there are the persons to be judged. Both the small and the great will be judged.

1. Ordinary men and women will be judged:
 - ⇒ Those who are the average and common people of the earth; the blue collar worker, the employees and workers of the earth. They shall be judged.
 - ⇒ Those who are the slaves and servants of the world. They too shall be judged.
 - ⇒ Those who commit the sins that society considers somewhat small and sometimes understandable: sins of selfishness, hoarding, banking, complaining, laziness, slothfulness, indifference, arguing, gossiping, backbiting, criticizing, immorality, stealing, and lying. They shall be judged.
2. Great men and women will be judged:
 - ⇒ Those who are in positions of authority: managers, foremen, supervisors, officers of corporations, owners of businesses, rulers, and kings. They shall all be judged.
 - ⇒ Those who misuse their authority, abuse, and take advantage of others, who ignore and neglect others, and in some cases destroy and kill others. They shall be judged.
 - ⇒ Those who sin with a daring and a flair, who love their sin and revel in it. They shall be judged.

Every unbeliever on the face of the earth will stand before God and be judged. No matter how small or how great, the unbeliever shall stand before the great white throne judgment of God and be sentenced.

- ⇒ The small and the great shall stand there.
- ⇒ The low and the high shall stand there.
- ⇒ The poor and the rich shall stand there.
- ⇒ The unrighteous and the self-righteous shall stand there.
- ⇒ The nonreligious and the religious shall stand there.
- ⇒ The unknown and the known shall stand there.

No unbeliever will be exempt; no unbeliever will be overlooked or missed. All unbelievers, each in his own time, will be called forward by name and face Him who sits upon the throne. Every unbeliever will have his day in the great tribunal of God.

“In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel” (Ro.2:16).

“We shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ” (Ro.14:10).

“But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment” (Mt.12:36).

“Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants” (Mt.18:23).

“So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God” (Ro.14:12).

“For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries: wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you: who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick [living] and the dead” (1 Pt.4:3-5).

4 (20:12) Judgment—Book of Life: there is the basis of judgment. Note exactly what is said.

“The books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works” (v.12^b).

There are two kinds of books kept in heaven. Both will be present at the great white throne judgment.

1. There is the book of life. This is the book where every human being who has ever lived has his name written. It is the book that includes the names of everyone who has ever lived or ever will live upon earth. God longs for everyone to live with Him forever; therefore, every person’s name is recorded in the book of life. However, when a person fails to receive Jesus Christ as his Savior, his name is erased from the book, and he loses the right to live as a citizen of heaven with God. Scripture after Scripture tells us this.

“Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin; and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written. And the LORD said unto Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book” (Ex.32:32-33).

“Let them be blotted out of the book of the living, and not be written with the righteous” (Ps.69:28).

“And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book” (Dan.12:1).

“Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven” (Lk.10:20).

“And I entreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellowlabourers, whose names are in the book of life” (Ph.4:3).

“He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels” (Rev.3:5).

“And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world” (Rev.13:8).

“The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is” (Rev.17:8).

“And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works” (Rev.20:12).

“And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire” (Rev.20:15).

“And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb’s book of life” (Rev.21:27).

“And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book” (Rev.22:19).

2. There are the books of records. These books are the records of all the works of unbelievers. When a person’s name is found erased from the book of life, then the books of records are opened, and he is judged out of them. Note two things.

a. These books are not opened to see whether or not a person is doomed to hell. The book of life tells that. The book of records shows the degree of punishment a person is to receive. A man such as Hitler will be punished and judged much more severely than a petty thief. Both are doomed for hell, but both will not suffer the same amount of punishment.

“But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you. And thou Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day” (Mt.11:22-23).

“And that servant, which knew his lord’s will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more” (Lk.12:47-48).

b. The books of records means that the judgment will be exact and fair. An unbeliever will be treated justly. There is a record of his works, of exactly what he has done and not done. There is a record of secret sins, of the sins committed in the dark and behind closed doors, of ill feelings within the heart, of evil thoughts of the mind. There is a record of all the works of the unbeliever. Therefore, he can be treated with fairness and perfect justice. He will be judged and punished for exactly what he has done, no more and no less.

“Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy: for thou renderest to every man according to his work” (Ps.62:12).

“I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings” (Jer.17:10).

“For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works” (Mt.16:27).

“But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more” (Lk.12:48).

“And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man’s work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear” (1 Pt.1:17).

“And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works” (Rev.20:12).

“And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be” (Rev.22:12).

Thought 1. Many a person says, “I’m doing the best that I can.” He will be judged on that basis. He will be judged for all the good things that he did as well as for all the bad things that he did. But note: he is still doomed for hell. Why? If he did mostly good in his life, why is he still doomed for hell? Because he is not perfect—never has been perfect and never will be perfect—not within himself. His only hope for perfection is to trust Jesus Christ, to trust that Jesus Christ has taken his sins and borne them for him. But the unbeliever does not accept Jesus Christ. Therefore, no matter how mild a sinner he may be, he is still a sinner and imperfect. Consequently, he has to bear his own sins and have them read out loud by God. Standing before God, if the unbeliever had only trusted Jesus Christ to bear his sins for him, he would have been free of sin. There would have been no sin recorded against him. For Jesus Christ would have borne them all; Jesus Christ would have freed the unbeliever of sin and presented him perfect before God. This is the reason good works and doing the best we can is not enough. No matter how much good we do, we can never achieve perfection. And to live in heaven with God we must be perfect, for heaven and God are perfect. And God is not about to allow heaven and His presence to become contaminated with sin. Heaven would no longer be heaven if sin were allowed within it.

5 (20:13) Judgment: there is the resurrection to judgment. The first resurrection will have already taken place one thousand years before. It was the resurrection for believers (cp. Rev.20:5-6). This resurrection, the calling forth of the dead, is the second and final resurrection, the resurrection of all unbelievers. God knows where all the atoms and particles of a person are. The atoms and particles of a person's body may be scattered all over the world, but God knows where every minute element is. And He is going to call forth every human body—every element and particle—of every unbeliever who has ever lived.

Note where the dead unbelievers will come from:

1. They will come from the sea: from the depths of the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, the Mediterranean and Persian seas, the Black and Dead seas. From all the seas of the world the bodies of the dead unbelievers will come—the bodies of those sunken in the wars of human history, in the merchant ships, and in the ships of pirates. Even the bodies of those murdered and dumped in the seas will come forth. There will not be a body ever lost at sea or in any other body of water that will not come forth. All the bodies of unbelievers that have been scattered over the seas of the earth will be brought back together and raised up—all in the flash of an eye—and every body from the seas of the world will stand before the great white throne judgment of God.

2. They will come from death itself and from the graves of the earth (the word translated “hell” in the Authorized Version is “grave” in the Greek). All the bodies of dead unbelievers who are in the earth or scattered over the earth shall be resurrected. God knows where every atom and particle of dust is, every element that makes up every unbeliever's body. Therefore, when He calls forth for all unbelievers to stand before Him in judgment, all the bodies of dead unbelievers that lie over the dry land of the earth—they shall all come forth. They shall come out of the great pyramids of Egypt, the jungles of Africa, the rain forests of Brazil, the desert sands of Arabia, the burial grounds of Indians, the battlefields of wars, the alleys and secret places of murder, and the graves of America. Every place upon earth where a human body has fallen or been placed, that body is going to arise. God is going to call forth the atoms or whatever the basic element of human life is; He is going to call those elements together, and the body of the unsaved person is going to stand before the great white throne judgment of God. Note that this is exactly what Scripture says:

“And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell [the grave] delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works” (v.13).

Note the reemphasis: all unbelievers will be judged according to their works. Every unbeliever can expect to be treated fairly and justly. He shall be judged in perfect justice. He will receive punishment for exactly what he did and failed to do—no more and no less.

Thought 1. God has done all He can. He has provided the way of salvation for every person. All a person has to do is to follow that way, to believe in the Lord Jesus Christ and follow Him. And remember: Jesus Christ is God's own Son. The way of salvation cost God the life of His Son. God had to pay the supreme price for salvation; He had to put all the sins of the world upon His own Son and let Him bear all the judgment and punishment for those sins. But He did it; He did it because He loves man. He can do no more. The decision is man's. Man either chooses to believe and follow Jesus Christ or else to face God alone. Following Christ means that Christ bore our sins and punishment. This frees us from sin, frees us because He took them off us and bore them Himself. Therefore, we stand before God free of sin, perfect and acceptable to God. But if we refuse to believe and follow Christ, then it means that we bear our own sin. We choose to stand before God with our own sin. This is what the great white throne judgment is all about. It is the judgment of all those who choose to stand before God as sinners, as bearing their own sins. Therefore, they shall bear them. They shall be judged for their works, for exactly what they chose to do. They shall be treated with perfect justice and equity. They shall...

- bear a punishment that is equal to their works.
- bear a punishment that perfectly matches their behavior.
- bear a punishment that measures out exactly to what they did.

There will be no unfair treatment, discrimination, partiality, or favoritism shown at the great white throne judgment. Everyone will be treated exactly as he himself chose to be treated.

“When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats” (Mt.25:31-32).

“Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead” (Acts 17:31).

“I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom” (2 Tim.4:1).

“And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment” (Heb.9:27).

“The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished” (2 Pt.2:9).

“But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men” (2 Pt.3:7).

“And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him” (Jude 14-15).

“Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice before the LORD: for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth” (Ps.96:12-13).

6 (20:14-15) Judgment: there is the terrorizing punishment of the judgment. If there is any one thing that believers should do, it is to note these two verses. As the great preacher E.V. Hill has said in a sermon: the first reason he accepted Jesus Christ was because he did not want to go to hell. He did not want to be tormented and punished by being separated from God, not forever and ever. Note the verses:

“And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire” (v.14-15).

1. Death and hades (the grave) will be cast into the lake of fire. Hades is the place where all unbelievers go after their death. Hades is a temporary place where unbelievers go to await the final judgment. After the great white throne judgment is completed, then all those who are dead and in hades will be cast into the lake of fire. The lake of fire is the final and eternal place of torment where all unbelievers shall be cast.

Note: there are many who say the idea of fire is symbolic, that the lake of fire is not real fire. But we must never forget this: if it is not real fire, then it is something far, far worse. For physical and material substances are nothing compared to spiritual and eternal substances. The substance of physical and material fire is nothing compared to spiritual and eternal fire. The human mind cannot conceive how glorious heaven will be nor how terrible the lake of fire will be. Therefore, to say that the lake of fire is a symbol does not ease the punishment of hell. Scripture paints the punishment of suffering apart from God as being so horrifying and terrorizing that a person who goes to hell would probably choose fire over the reality of the lake of fire. Remember the rich man and Lazarus: the concern of the rich man in hell was not that he was in a flame of fire, but the torment and suffering he was bearing. He was so concerned over the suffering that he longed for his brothers to escape the suffering when they died (cp. Lk.16:24, 27-31).

“But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth” (Mt.8:12).

“The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; and shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth” (Mt.13:41-42).

“So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just, and shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth” (Mt.13:49-50).

“Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth” (Mt.22:13).

“The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of, and shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth” (Mt.24:50-51).

“And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth” (Mt.25:30).

2. The lake of fire is the second death. That is, it is eternal death. In the Scripture death means separation from God. Death does not mean annihilation, ceasing to exist, nor extinction. This life is not all there is. When a person dies upon this earth, he still exists. How? He exists in the next world, in the spiritual world and dimension—the permanent and eternal world, the world that does not age, deteriorate, die, or pass away. The physical world does pass away, but not the spiritual world or dimension. The spiritual world, the next world, is eternal and lasts forever and ever. Therefore, when a person dies upon this earth, that is just the first death. The person is merely separated from this life and world. He merely passes over into the next world, and he exists there forever and ever. But note what happens to the person who dies separated from God. If he does not follow God, if he chooses to be separated from God in this life, then when he passes on into the next world, he is still separated from God. His condition and state never change. He chose to be separated from God; therefore, he shall be separated from God forever and ever.

The point is this: when the unbeliever stands before the great white throne judgment of God, he shall die the second death. He shall be judged to be separated from God. God will know that the man never lived nor followed Him, that the man chose to be separated from Him. Therefore, the man shall die the second death. He shall be separated from God eternally.

The second death simply means to be separated from God eternally. But note how terrible the second death is: the place of the second death is the lake of fire.

3. The basis of judgment is the book of life. If a person's name is not found written in the book of life, then he will be cast into the lake of fire. A person must possess the perfect life of Jesus Christ if he is to live forever in heaven with God. If a person does not possess life, the perfect life and righteousness of Jesus Christ, if his name is not written in the book of life, then he is doomed to death. He is doomed to the second death, to the lake of fire.

“But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire....And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell” (Mt.5:22, 29).

“And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell” (Mt.10:28).

“The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; and shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth” (Mt.13:41-42).

“Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire. And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire” (Mt.18:8-9 cp. Mk.9:43-48).

“Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves” (Mt.23:15).

“And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth” (Mt.13:42).

“Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels” (Mt.25:41).

“And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal” (Mt.25:46).

“But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation” (Mk.3:29).

“Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable” (Lk.3:17).

“But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him” (Lk.12:5).

“And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham’s bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; and in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame” (Lk.16:22-24).

Thought 1. Note what a few other Scriptures have to say about hell.

“Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power” (2 Th.1:9).

“And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell” (Jas.3:6).

“The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished” (2 Pt.2:9).

“The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: and the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name” (Rev.14:10-11).

“And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever....And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire” (Rev.20:10, 15).

“But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death” (Rev.21:8).

“Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup” (Ps.11:6).

“The sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness hath surprised the hypocrites. Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings?” (Is.33:14).

“And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcasses of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh” (Is.66:24).

“For, behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch” (Mal.4:1).

VISION FOUR, 21: 1-22:21

DIVISION XIII

THE ETERNITY OF GOD: THE NEW HEAVENS AND EARTH AND THE NEW JERUSALEM, 21:1-22:5

A. The New Heavens and The New Earth, 21:1-8

(21:1-8) Introduction: What will eternity be like? What will it be like to live with God forever and ever? This chapter of Revelation tells us. All the bad and negative things of this world are going to be conquered and destroyed. All the pollution and impurities, all the ungodliness and evil, all the suffering and pain, all the corruption and death—it is all going to be erased, eliminated, and done away with. The day is coming when there will be no more...

- impure government
- corrupt religion
- bad leaders
- painful suffering
- sin and temptation

This is the glorious message of Revelation. God is going to take Satan and all the ungodly and evil of this world and destroy them. God is going to make a new heavens and a new earth. God is going to make all things new. And when He does, there will be...

- no more tears
- no more sorrow
- no more crying
- no more pain
- no more death

This is the great subject of this passage of Scripture: the new heavens and the new earth.

1. The new creation, the new heaven and the new earth (v.1.).
2. The new city of God (v.2).
3. The immediate fellowship with God (v.3).
4. The perfection of all things (v.4-6).
5. The citizens (v.6-8).

1 (21:1) Heaven and Earth, New: there will be the new creation, the new heaven and the new earth. The heaven (heavenly bodies in outer space) and earth that we know are going to pass away.

1. All the heavens above—the sun, moon, stars, and planets—are going to be destroyed and remade. God is going to make a new heaven. Think what this will mean. There will be...

- no more violent thunder storms, typhoons, hurricanes, or destructive rains and weather.
- no more stars or solar systems that are burned out.

All of the heavens above will be remade, created anew and made alive. Think how glorious and beautiful the heavens look now when we look up on a starry night. But imagine what they will be like when God recreates them in all the glory and magnificence of a perfect universe. All things within the universe will be alive and reflect the glory and splendor of God Himself. The universe will be perfect, a place where nothing burns out or wears down or wastes away or dies. Think about the light and brilliance and splendor and glory of all the heavenly bodies when God recreates the heavens. Think about what it will mean to have a universe full of living planets and stars and solar systems. We cannot imagine the glory and beauty. It is beyond our finite minds. But note the significant point: the Scripture declares emphatically that the heaven is to be remade and recreated into a new heaven (see note, pt.2—2 Pt.3:10).

2. The earth is going to pass away. There is going to be a new earth. The present earth is defective; it is cursed. The earth suffers under all kinds of natural disasters such as earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, destructive storms, floods, scorching heat, deserts, famines, diseases, and death. But the day is coming when God is going to remake the earth. God is going to create a new earth. Think what this will mean.

- ⇒ No more disasters or destruction.
- ⇒ No more thorns or thistles or unfertile and unproductive soil.
- ⇒ No more hunger or thirst.
- ⇒ No more disease, decay, erosion, or death.

The new earth will flourish and be fruitful, bearing all the good that can be imagined. Think how beautiful, green, lush, productive, and fruitful it will be. Think how peaceful, serene, and comfortable it will be. Think of the security and provision, the abundance and overflowing of every good and perfect gift—the fulness of life that will be possible upon the earth. The earth will be new, perfected by God in every conceivable way.

Note the statement, “there was no more sea.” This can mean one of two things. The sea will be eliminated, done away with, and the new earth will have no sea. Or it can mean the same thing that is meant with the heavens and the earth. The heavens and the earth and the sea are to pass away and be made anew and recreated. The sea that causes devastation and destruction will be destroyed right along with the earth and the heavens; but when they are recreated, the sea, being part of the earth, will be part of the new earth, part of the new creation.

A perfected earth is beyond our comprehension. But it is exactly what Scripture declares is going to happen. God is going to create a new earth as well as a new heaven.

“For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled” (Mt.5:18).

“Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away” (Mt.24:35).

“But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation [behavior] and godliness, looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat? Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness” (2 Pt.3:10-13).

“And I saw a new heaven and new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea” (Rev.21:1).

“Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands. They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end” (Ps.102:25-27).

“And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, as a falling fig from the fig tree” (Is.34:4).

“Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished” (Is.51:6).

“For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind” (Is.65:17).

“For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain” (Is.66:22).

2 (21:2) Jerusalem, New: there will be the new city of God, the holy city, the New Jerusalem. The idea is that the New Jerusalem will be the capital city in the new heaven and earth. It will be the place where the very presence of God is symbolized. God’s presence, of course, will be manifested everywhere in the new heavens and earth, manifested in all of God’s glory and majesty. But the holy city will give believers a place with which to identify as they serve God throughout the universe. The next verse shows this. The heavenly city is the tabernacle, the very presence of God that comes down to dwell with man. The New Jerusalem is discussed in detail in the next passage (Rev.21:9f). The point in this verse is to show that God has prepared His own capital city to sit upon the earth. It will apparently be from the New Jerusalem that Jesus Christ will rule the universe and require His servants (believers) to occasionally visit and report on their work (see note—Rev.21:24-27). The Lord’s throne will sit in the New Jerusalem and from there He shall rule and reign throughout all eternity. Note that the city comes down out of heaven. It is not constructed here on earth; God has it built in heaven and then moves it to earth. Note also that it is said to be as beautifully prepared as a bride is for her husband. This points both to the beauty of the city and to our longing desire to have God's presence right here on earth with us.

Remember that Jesus Christ told His apostles that He was going away to prepare a place for them. There is the possibility that He was referring to His preparing the New Jerusalem (Jn. 14:2-3).

3 (21:3) Heaven and Earth, New—Fellowship With God: there will be immediate fellowship with God. The very tabernacle of God will be set up right here on earth. The tabernacle is a picture of the tabernacle of the Old Testament, the worship center of Israel, the place where the very presence and glory of God dwelt in a special way. The picture is this: when the New Jerusalem, the capital city of eternity, is moved to earth, then the very presence and glory of God will dwell and live right here upon earth. When the New Jerusalem is established upon earth, God's glory and presence will be forever upon earth. God's presence will never again be dulled or removed from the presence of people.

The one thing for which man longs is the presence of God, the glory and fullness of God in all the abundance of life. Man may not know it, but the longing of his heart is for God. Man tries to fill his longing with all sorts of worldly pleasures and possessions, but nothing satisfies—nothing but God, His presence and glory. Until man allows God to fill his heart, he goes through all kinds of negative experiences:

- ⇒ lack of purpose, meaning, and significance
- ⇒ emptiness, questioning, and wondering about life
- ⇒ routineness, dullness, and feeling drained
- ⇒ insecurity and fear and failure

But when man gives his life to God, he begins to fellowship with God and to experience all the fullness of life. The point is this: in the new heaven and earth the presence and glory of God will dwell with man all the time. Man will never be without the presence and glory of God. He will always experience the fellowship of God's presence and glory. Note how strong the fellowship will be:

“And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God” (v.3).

Four things are said:

- ⇒ The tabernacle of God, the very presence and glory of God, will be with men.
- ⇒ God will dwell with them.
- ⇒ They shall be His people.
- ⇒ God Himself shall be with them and be their God.

Think how wonderful it will be: we will never be without the presence and glory of God. We will have the immediate presence of God and be able to talk and share with God face to face: to fellowship and commune with Him; to laugh and rejoice with Him; to praise and worship Him; to serve and work for Him—all face to face. God says He is going to live and dwell with us; He is going to take over the management of our lives face to face, guiding and directing us day by day, face to face throughout all of eternity. We shall serve and work for God face to face, be under His immediate presence and fellowship. This is what eternity will be like, what the new heaven and earth will be like. The presence and glory of God will be living and dwelling with us right here on earth.

4 (21:4-6) Heaven and Earth, New: there will be the perfection of all things. Note two things.

1. Life will be perfected. This means that the body of man will be perfected; so will the environment and earth. Life will be totally different from what it is now. The very life and utopia for which man has longed will be a living reality. All the sufferings and evil of life and all the bad and negative experiences of life will be gone. Scripture explains the change in the most beautiful and striking way: it declares that “God shall wipe away all tears from their [believer's] eyes.” Imagine a world so perfected that there would never again be a tear shed. Look at what Scripture says:

“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away” (v.4).

- ⇒ There will be no more death: no more aging, murder, killing or war. No more miscarriages or dying children, no more dying mothers or dying fathers, and no more parents who have passed on. No more funerals or cemeteries or burial grounds. Every one will have a spiritual body, a body that will be perfected, made incorruptible and immortal, perfect in strength and honor. There will be no death in the new heaven and earth. God will wipe away the tears of death.
- ⇒ There will be no more sorrow: no more brokenness, disappointment, regret, guilt, failure, weakness, inferiority, inadequacy, or incapability. No more homelessness, starvation, hunger, or thirst. There will be nothing to make us sorrowful. We will be capable and able, successful and fruitful, confident and secure. There will never be a regret or failure to make us sorrowful. We will be perfected. We will be able to live and serve to the fullest degree without any shortcoming whatsoever. God will wipe away all the tears of sorrow in the new heaven and earth.
- ⇒ There will be no more crying: no more disappointment, arguing, fussing, cursing, divisiveness, drugs, evil, immorality, separation, bitterness, burdens, or heartache—no more bad things that cut the heart and cause the heart and eyes to cry. Every life will be perfected. Everyone will be perfected and live together in love, joy, and peace—never causing hurt to another person. God will wipe away the tears of crying.

⇒ There will be no more pain: no more diseases, accidents, distress, pressure, abuse, beatings, fights, afflictions, or agony. No more emotional or physical pain. No more of anything that causes pain of any kind. God will wipe away the tears of pain.

But note why. It is because God recreates the universe. It is because “the former things are passed away.” God cannot state it any clearer: the earth as it is now is going to pass away. Note again how clear and exact Scripture describes what God is going to do:

“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away” (v.4).

How do we know for sure that God is going to recreate the universe? How do we know that God is going to perfect life for us? The next point tells us.

Thought 1. Just think! Life will be perfected. The day is coming when God is going to perfect human life. He is going to make a new heaven and earth, a perfect heaven and earth; and He is going to perfect all believers. Everything—all of heaven and earth and all that is therein—shall be perfected. There is no greater hope than this glorious promise of God, the promise that He is going to perfect the universe.

“For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes” (Rev.7:17).

“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away” (Rev.21:4).

“For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory” (2 Cor.4:17).

“The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death” (1 Cor.15:26).

“So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory” (1 Cor.15:54).

“Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you: but rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ’s sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy” (1 Pt.4:12-13).

“He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it” (Is.25:8).

“And the ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come to Zion [God’s city] with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away” (Is.35:10).

“Therefore the redeemed of the LORD shall return, and come with singing unto Zion [God’s city]; and everlasting joy shall be upon their head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning shall flee away” (Is.51:11).

“Thy sun shall no more go down; neither shall the moon withdraw itself: for the LORD shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended” (Is.60:20).

“And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying” (Is.65:19).

2. God assures us that He is going to perfect all things. He gives us three assurances.
 - a. God Himself assures us. Note that God Himself spoke from the throne of heaven and declared emphatically that He was going to make all things new:

“And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new” (v.5).

- b. God’s Word assures it. God gave a double declaration. He declared that His Words are true and faithful. By true, He means true as opposed to false. He is not lying. He is God; therefore, what He says will happen. By faithful, He means that He will do exactly what He says. We can all count on it. And note: God instructed John to write down all that He said. God wanted us to know about His promise of a new heaven and earth, of a perfected body and life, and He wanted us to be assured of His promise.
- c. God’s sovereignty assures it. How? By the power and sovereignty of God. God declares, “I am the Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end.” Alpha is the first letter of the Greek alphabet and means the beginning, and Omega is the last letter and means the end. God is declaring that He is the beginning and the ending, the Creator of all things. All things have their beginning in Him. And He is the end of all things, the consummation and goal and the end and objective of all things. All things find their meaning and being in Him. And He spans all things just as the beginning and end span all things. Therefore, He can do as He wills.

The point is this: God has willed a new heavens and earth. Therefore, He has already spoken it into being. He has already declared, “It is done.” The clock is set and the event fixed. The minutes of time are ticking away, and the hour will come when the set time arrives.

“Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it” (1 Th.5:24).

“He abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself” (2 Tim.2:13).

“For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled” (Mt.5:18).

“Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away” (Lk.21:33).

“God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord” (1 Cor.1:9).

“Blessed be the LORD, that hath given rest unto his people Israel, according to all that he promised: there hath not failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised by the hand of Moses his servant” (1 Ki.8:56).

“The works of his hands are verity and judgment; all his commandments are pure” (Ps.111:7).

“Which made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: which keepeth truth for ever” (Ps.146:6).

5 (21:6-8) Heaven and Earth, New—Believers: there will be the citizens of the new heavens and earth. Note that God Himself is still speaking. What He is saying is important, so important that He must make the declaration Himself. It is too important to have an angelic messenger declare the message. (God tells us who the citizens of His new heavens and earth will be. But note something else as well: He tells us who will not be.) He warns us that not everyone will live in the new heavens and earth, not everyone will be acceptable to Him. But He shows us how to make sure that we are acceptable, that we do receive the right to become citizens of the new heavens and earth. How?

1. The citizens of the new heavens and earth will be those who thirst for life. God says that He will give the water of life to all those who thirst after it. That is, the person who thirsts after life will be the person who will receive the water of life. God is going to give life to the person who thirsts after it; He is going to give the fountain of the water of life and give it freely.

To thirst after life means that one thirsts...

- to know the life that God wants man to live.
- to know the life that God gives.
- to know the fulness of life that is in God Himself.
- to know the hope of life that God has planned for man.
- to know the perfection of life that God longs for man to live.

Simply stated, to thirst after life means to thirst after the life that God gives, to thirst after God Himself. It means...

- to know God; to fellowship, commune, and share with God.
- to know the salvation, forgiveness, and cleansing of God.
- to know the hope, assurance, and security of God.
- to live for God, to obey and follow God.

The person who thirsts after God will be a citizen of the new heavens and earth.

2. The citizen of the new heavens and earth will be the overcomer. The overcomer is the person who overcomes this world and remains faithful and loyal to Christ. It means the person who remains pure and follows the Lord Jesus Christ. The overcomer is the person who conquers all the temptations and trials of life. Two great promises are made to the overcomer:

- ⇒ He will inherit all things, all that the new heavens and earth offer.
- ⇒ He will be a son of God.

“But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name” (Jn.1:12).

“For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together” (Ro.8:14-17).

“Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ” (Gal.4:7).

“That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world” (Ph.2:15).

“That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ” (1 Jn.1:3).

3. The fate of the people who will be rejected is clearly spelled out. What a tragic list it is.

- ⇒ The fearful or cowardly: those who do not confess Christ because they fear what others might say; those who are afraid to give up the world and deny self; those who fear taking a stand for Christ; those who fear to fellowship or become identified with Christian people.

“Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven” (Mt.10:32-33).

“That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved” (Ro.10:9).

REVELATION 21:1-8

“If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us” (2 Tim.2:12).

“The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the LORD shall be safe” (Pr.29:25).

⇒ The unbelieving: those who do not believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, the Savior of the world; those who reject Jesus Christ and His death upon the cross for their sins; those who profess Christ, but live hypocritical lives, who show by their sinful behavior that they do not really believe Him.

“He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God” (Jn.3:18).

“I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins” (Jn.8:24).

“He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day” (Jn.12:48).

“In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them” (2 Cor.4:4).

“Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also” (1 Jn.2:22-23).

⇒ The abominable or polluted: those who are worldly and who live worldly lives; those who reach out to touch and taste the impurities and lusts of the world; those who are stained and contaminated and polluted with worldliness; those who refuse to separate from the pleasures and possessions of this world and refuse to turn to God.

“And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares” (Lk.21:34).

“And be not conformed to this world but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God” (Ro.12:2).

“Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty” (2 Cor.6:17-18).

“Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ” (Tit.2:12-13).

“Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God” (Jas.4:4).

“Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world” (1 Jn.2:15-16).

⇒ The murderers: those who kill and take away the lives of others.

“Thou shalt not kill” (Ex.20:13).

“Jesus said, Thou shalt do no murder” (Mt.19:18).

“For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law” (Ro.13:9-10).

“But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men’s matters” (1 Pt.4:15).

“Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him” (1 Jn.3:15).

⇒ The whoremongers or immoral: those who are sexually impure; those who commit fornication or have sex before marriage; those who commit adultery and homosexuality and all other sexual acts that God forbids; those who look and lust, read and lust, think and lust.

“Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery: but I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart” (Mt.5:27-28).

“And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet” (Ro.1:27).

“But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof” (Ro.13:14).

“Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness [sensual, immoral behavior], to work all uncleanness with greediness” (Eph.4:19).

“Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul” (1 Pt.2:11).

“That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God. For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries” (1 Pt.4:2-3).

⇒ The sorcerers: those who engage in astrology, witchcraft, devil worship, spiritism, seances, palm reading, fortune telling, and all other forms of false beliefs that claim to reveal and control one’s fate, life, and destiny.

“So Saul died for his transgression which he committed against the LORD, even against the word of the LORD which he kept not, and also for asking counsel of one that had a familiar spirit, to inquire of it” (1 Chron.10:13).

“And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? for the living to the dead? To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them” (Is.8:19-20).

“And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thine hand; and thou shalt have no more soothsayers” (Mic.5:12).

“Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies” (Gal.5:19-20).

⇒ The idolaters: those who worship idols, whether idols made with one’s hands or just conceived in one’s mind; those who have an image of what God is like and worship and follow that image instead of following the God revealed by the Scriptures; those who put the things of this earth before God; those who give their primary attention and devotion to someone or something other than God.

“Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry” (1 Cor.10:14).

“Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry...they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God” (Gal.5:19-21).

“For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God” (Eph.5:5).

“Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: for which things’ sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience” (Col.3:5-6).

“But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death” (Rev.21:8).

“For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie” (Rev.22:15).

⇒ The liars: those who tell falsehoods and do not tell the truth; those who deceive and mislead others; those who are gossipers and talebearers and who pass rumors along.

“But the king shall rejoice in God; every one that sweareth by him shall glory: but the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped” (Ps.63:11).

“A false witness shall not be unpunished; and he that speaketh lies shall not escape” (Pr.19:5).

“[The Lord] frustrateth the tokens of the liars, and maketh diviners mad; that turneth wise men backward, and maketh their knowledge foolish” (Is.44:25).

“But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death” (Rev.21:8).

Any person who does not repent and turn away from these things—any person who does not turn to God for forgiveness of these things—any person who does not forsake these things—that person will not enter into the new heavens and earth. He will not be a citizen of the new heavens and earth. Where does he go? Scripture is clear:

“[They] shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death” (v.8).

THE ETERNITY OF GOD: THE NEW HEAVENS AND EARTH AND THE NEW JERUSALEM, 21:1-22:5

B. The New Jerusalem, The City of God (Part I): Its Description, 21:9-23

(21:9-23) Introduction: the new heavens and earth will have a capital city, a specific place where the presence of God will be centered and where the Lord Jesus Christ will live and rule the universe. Scripture gives us the city's name: it is the New Jerusalem. Actually Scripture gives several names by which the capital city will be known:

- ⇒ The New Jerusalem (Rev.21:2; 3:12).
- ⇒ The Heavenly Jerusalem (Heb.12:22).
- ⇒ The Holy City (Rev.21:2; 21:19).
- ⇒ Holy Jerusalem (Rev.21:10).
- ⇒ The City of My God (Rev.3:12).
- ⇒ The Great City (Rev.21:10).

What will the city be like? It is indescribable. How could anyone possibly describe the city of God and of Christ? Think of the stars in the sky, the billions and billions of galaxies scattered throughout the universe. Picture them for just a moment: the vastness, the enormity, the endlessness of the universe. Remember that God is the Creator and Force of the universe, the Sustainer of all things. He is the Intelligence and Power that made all things and keeps all things operating. How could human language describe God? How could human language describe the city where God's presence is centered and where Jesus Christ dwells? This is the problem that John had in trying to describe the New Jerusalem. The city and the presence of God within the city are so glorious that they are just indescribable. There are no earthly things beautiful enough nor valuable enough to be a part of God's city. Therefore, John did all he could: he used the most beautiful and precious things upon earth to describe the city. This passage tells us about the city of God. It tells us what God showed John, what God wants us to know about the New Jerusalem, the city of God, the city where Christ will live and where the presence of God will be centered in the new heavens and earth. Note how it stirs our hearts when we study this passage knowing that we shall be a part of so glorious a future. God has given us the wonderful privilege of being a citizen of God's great city, the wonderful city of Jesus Christ. This is the description of the New Jerusalem, the city of God. (See note New Jerusalem—Rev.21:2 for more discussion.)

1. The last vision given to John (v.9-10).
2. The glory of the city (v.11).
3. The city's walls: perfect security (v.12).
4. The city's twelve gates (v.12-13).
5. The city's twelve foundations: the names of the apostles are inscribed in them (v.14).
6. The city's shape and size (v.15-17).
7. The city's materials: are precious and priceless (v.18-21).
8. The city's worship: is focused upon God Himself and the Lamb (v.22).
9. The city's light: is provided by God's glory and the Lamb (v.23).

1 (21:9-10) Visions of Revelation: this is the last vision that God gives John, and it is the most glorious of visions. God shows John the New Jerusalem, the great city of God that will be the capital city of the new heavens and earth in the recreated universe. Note who it is that God sends to take John to the city: one of the seven angels who had cast one of the bowl judgments upon the earth. There is symbolism in this: God has a message of warning for the earth—judgment is coming. But God also has a message of hope and glory for the earth: the New Jerusalem, the city of God's very own presence, is also coming to earth; and every person can live with God in the glory of that city. Citizenship is available to all if they will believe in the Son of God, the Lord Jesus Christ, and seek to live in the city with God and His Son.

The angel carries John away in the spirit to a high mountain and shows him the glorious city of God. Eight descriptions are given.

2 (21:11) New Jerusalem: there is the glory of the city (v.11). The glory is the very glory of God Himself. "[The city] was clothed in God's glory—in all its splendor and radiance. The lustre of it resembled a rare and most precious jewel, like jasper, shining clear as crystal" (The Amplified New Testament).

The glory of God gives light to the whole city. God's glory is full of so much light and shines so brightly there is no need for the sun nor for any other heavenly body to give the city light. Just imagine the power and radiance of God's glory—so bright that it is more forceful than the laser beams of light flowing from the sun! It is the glory of God that gives light to the city.

⇒ The glory of God shines all throughout the city, the city actually shines and has a sparkling sheen to it.

⇒ The city shines like the green of a jasper, but it is as clear as crystal.

⇒ The glory of God glitters off the city as though the buildings are crystal clear—everything glitters in the most beautiful green of the jasper.

Thought 1. If you have ever walked in a mountain forest when everything is covered with ice from an ice storm, you have walked in the midst of a crystal ice palace. Everything sparkles and glitters—the green needles of the pines, the bare branches of the trees, the small branches and trunks of the sapplings, the bushes close to the ground, the leaves lying on the ground. As the glory of the sun strikes the mountain forest, the ice crystals that cover everything in the forest sparkle and glitter just like a crystal ice palace. This is one of the most beautiful sights on earth, a crystal ice forest. Imagine how beautiful the green jasper glistening off the ice crystals would be. This is a very faint idea of the sparkle and glitter of the glory of God throughout the crystal clear city of God.

"And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them and they were sore afraid" (Lk.2:9).

"But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God" (Acts 7:55).

"But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord" (2 Cor.3:18).

"The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament showeth his handywork" (Ps.19:1).

3 (21:12) New Jerusalem: there are the city's walls (v.12). The walls are great and very high. The idea is that of protection, of perfect security. When believers reach the Heavenly Jerusalem, they will be behind the walls of perfection. They will be secure from all the evil and enemies of the physical world.

"And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee, Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are" (Jn.17:11).

"I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day" (2 Tim.1:12).

"And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever" (2 Tim.4:18).

"Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time" (1 Pt.1:5).

“Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever” (Jude 24-25).

4 (21:12-13) New Jerusalem: there are the city’s twelve gates (v. 12^b-13). Three things are said about the gates.

1. The gates have the names of the twelve tribes of Israel upon them. This symbolizes that the only way to come to God is through the Messiah of the twelve tribes, the Messiah of the Jews, the Lord Jesus Christ. Scripture says, “Salvation is of the Jews” (Jn.4:22). God sent His salvation, His own Son, into the world through the Jews. Therefore, the entrance into the Heavenly Jerusalem is only through the Messiah of the Jewish nation. No person can enter the heavenly city unless he comes through the gates of salvation provided by God.

“Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews” (Jn.4:22).

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life” (Jn.3:16).

“And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst” (Jn.6:35).

“Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away? Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life” (Jn.6:67-68).

“Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life no man cometh unto the Father, but by me” (Jn.14:6).

“Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved” (Acts 4:12).

“For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus” (1 Tim.2:5).

“But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises” (Heb.8:6).

“And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance” (Heb.9:15).

“For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us” (Heb.9:24).

“And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel” (Heb.12:24).

“My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous” (1 Jn.2:1).

2. The gates are guarded by twelve angels: this symbolizes that the entrance to the city is protected. No person is allowed to enter the city unless they are approved by God. A person can enter only if he comes through the salvation that God gave through Israel, through His own Son, the Lord Jesus Christ.

3. There are three gates on each of the four walls of the city, twelve gates altogether. Every direction on earth has three gates:

- ⇒ The east has three gates.
- ⇒ The north has three gates.
- ⇒ The south has three gates.
- ⇒ The west has three gates.

This symbolizes that everyone on earth is invited to enter the city. There is a wall that faces everyone in the east, and everyone in the north, and everyone in the south, and everyone in the west. And there are three gates facing everyone. Everyone on earth can enter the city. There is no discrimination or prejudice, no partiality or favoritism shown by God. All can come and live as citizens of the city. The only requirement is that they come through the Messiah, the Savior of the world, the Lord Jesus Christ.

“But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him” (Acts 10:35).

“For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek” (Ro.1:16).

“For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him” (Ro.10:12).

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus” (Gal.3:28).

5 (21:14) New Jerusalem: there are the city’s twelve foundations (v.14). They have the names of the twelve apostles inscribed upon them. Note: the twelve apostles are clearly identified as the apostles “of the Lamb.” This means that the foundation of the city is the testimony of the twelve apostles, the testimony that declares Jesus Christ to be the Lamb of God. It is the sacrificial death of Jesus Christ as the lamb of God that makes the city available to people.

- ⇒ Unless Jesus Christ had died for man—unless He had taken the sins of man upon Himself and sacrificed His life for those sins—no person would ever be free of sin and made acceptable to God. No person could ever enter the city, for every person would still be bearing his own sins.

⇒ Unless a person believes in the Lamb of God, believes that Jesus Christ did sacrifice His life for his sins, that person is not acceptable to God. He will never be allowed to enter the city.

The very foundation of the city is the testimony of the Lamb declared by the apostles. Therefore, a person must build his life upon that testimony.

“Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God; and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone” (Eph.2:19-20).

“Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life” (1 Tim.6:19).

“Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal. The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity” (2 Tim.2:19).

6 (21:15-17) New Jerusalem: there is the city’s shape and size (v.15-17). Three facts are given.

1. The city is square (v.16). There is one side each facing to the east, north, south, and west. Again, the city faces in every direction. Citizenship within the city is available to every nation, city, tribe, language, and person upon earth—available if a person will approach the city through the salvation God Himself has provided for the earth.

2. The city is enormous and, as we would expect of the heavenly city, its size is beyond anything we would ever dream (v.16). It is 1500 miles long and wide and high. It towers 1500 miles high! This is a total of 2,250,000 square miles or 3,375,000,000 cubic miles (almost four billion cubic miles)! Picture a huge space station that man might build in a century or two and orbit around the earth. If Jesus Christ delays His coming long enough, the idea that man might be forced to build a large city in outer space to handle the population has already crossed the mind of man. The God who created a moon to orbit around the earth and planets to orbit around the sun has created a city that is far more beautiful than any city man will ever build. It will someday descend from heaven to earth and be the capital city of the universe. God is going to reclaim the earth from all the evil that has engulfed it, and He is going to do the most marvelous thing: make the earth the center of the universe, the place where His very presence will be centered. The earth will be the throne of the Lord Jesus Christ. And the capital city of His rule and reign will be the New Jerusalem. What a glorious picture of the great salvation and sovereign majesty of God!

3. The thickness of the wall and gates is 144 cubits or 216 feet thick (v.17).

Thought 1. The size of the city is large enough to take care of all who will enter it. There is room for all who will come to God through His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ.

“Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is none else” (Is.45:22).

“Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price” (Is.55:1).

“Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage” (Mt.22:9).

“In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink” (Jn.7:37).

“For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him” (Ro.10:12).

“Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth” (1 Tim.2:4).

“And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely” (Rev.22:17).

7 (21:18-21) New Jerusalem: there are the city’s materials (v.18-21). We must keep in mind that in some cases the gems or precious stones that are mentioned in this passage differed from the valuable stones that we know today. The stones seem to be as follows. (Note the spectacular beauty and variety of color in the city.)

1. The walls are made of jasper: a crystal-like rock that is green in color. The crystal green walls sparkle with the most beautiful color as the reflection of God’s glory strikes them.

2. The city is made of pure gold, a gold that is as clear as glass. There is no gold on earth as clear as glass. Imagine a city many times larger than New York or Tokyo or any other major city being made out of pure gold, a gold so pure that it would be crystal clear. Imagine the dazzling gold color of the New Jerusalem as the glory of God strikes it.

3. The twelve foundations are decorated with every kind of precious stone (v.19-20. This information is gathered from William Barclay. The Revelation of John, Vol.2, p.273f.)

⇒ The first foundation is jasper: a green rock-like crystal.

⇒ The second foundation is sapphire: a sky blue spotted with gold (cp. Ex.24:10).

⇒ The third foundation is chalcedony: a green stone like the green on a peacock’s tail.

⇒ The fourth foundation is emerald: a green, the greenest of all greens.

⇒ The fifth foundation is sardonyx: a stone that has different shades of color, basically white with layers of red and brown breaking the white background.

⇒ The sixth foundation is sardius: a blood-red stone.

- ⇒ The seventh foundation is chrysolite: a shining stone with a gold radiance.
- ⇒ The eighth foundation is beryl: a sea blue or sea green stone.
- ⇒ The ninth foundation is topaz: a greenish-gold stone that was transparent (cp. Job 28:19).
- ⇒ The tenth foundation is chrysoprasus: an apple green stone.
- ⇒ The eleventh foundation is jacinth: a violet, bluish-purple stone.
- ⇒ The twelfth foundation is amethyst: also a violet, bluish-purple stone, but more brilliant than the jacinth.

4. The twelve gates are twelve huge pearls. What magnificent beauty!
5. The streets are made of pure gold, but again the gold is transparent, as transparent as glass.

Thought 1. This is a staggering picture of beauty and variety. Imagine the fiery brilliance and splendor as the glory of God reflects off the glistening stones. The beauty is bound to be the most dazzling and staggering sight in all the universe. Do the stones and color symbolize anything? There is bound to be at least this meaning behind such magnificent beauty: the heavenly city is worth any price to enter. It is priceless. No matter what a man has to sacrifice, he is a fool if he does not give up everything he has to enter the heavenly city of God.

“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field” (Mt.13:44).

“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls: who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it” (Mt.13:45-46).

“But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal” (Mt.6:20).

“Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me” (Mt.19:21).

“Sell that ye have, and give alms; provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not” (Lk.12:33).

“Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ” (Ph.3:8).

“Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life” (1 Tim.6:19).

“I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see” (Rev.3:18).

- 8 (21:22) New Jerusalem: there is the city’s worship (v.22). There is no temple in the heavenly city, for both God and Christ are there. Their presence will be so manifested...
- that the very atmosphere will be heavy with their spirit.
 - that every person will be filled with God’s Spirit, perfectly filled.
 - that every person will be perfectly conscious of God’s continued presence.

No believer will be without the full and perfect knowledge of God’s Spirit and presence. Therefore, there will be an unbroken worship, communication, and sharing with God and Christ. No matter what service or work the believer will be performing, and no matter where the believer is serving throughout the universe, he will be in unbroken fellowship and communion with God. Therefore, there is no need for a temple and its ceremonies and rituals to pull the human mind into the worship of God.

“God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth” (Jn.4:24).

“Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ” (2 Cor.10:5).

“Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things” (Ph.4:8).

“And after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia; Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God” (Rev.19:1; cp. Rev.19:1-7).

“But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night” (Ps.1:2).

“Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee” (Is.26:3).

- 9 (21:23) New Jerusalem: there is the city’s light, the glory of God and of the Lamb, the Lord Jesus Christ (v.23; see note—Rev.21:11).

1 The citizens of the city a. They are from earthly nations b. They walk in the light of God's city c. They are kings d. They have constant, unbroken access to God e. THE ETERNITY OF GOD: THE NEW HEAVENS AND EARTH AND THE NEW JERUSALEM, 21:1-22:5

C. The New Jerusalem, The City of God (Part II): Its Citizens and Provisions, 21:24-22:5

(21:24-22:5) Introduction: the new heavens and earth will have a capital city, a city where the throne of God and of Christ sit. The city is being prepared in heaven and it is beyond description. Its name is the New Jerusalem or the Heavenly Jerusalem. This was shown us in the previous passage. Now, Scripture shows us the citizens and the provisions of the great city of God.

1. The citizens of the city (v.24-27).
2. The provisions of the city (Ch.22, v.1-5).

1 (21:24-27) New Jerusalem—Believers—Heaven: there are the citizens of the Heavenly Jerusalem. Six things are said about the citizens.

1. The citizens are from earthly nations (v.24). They are the saved from all the nations of the earth. This again shows us that the gospel is universal; anyone from any nation can be saved. God does not discriminate between people nor show partiality to any person.
2. The citizens walk in the light of the city. This would mean...
 - that they walk in the light of the glory of God.
 - that they walk in the light of the knowledge of God, the full and perfect knowledge of God.
 - that they walk in the light of perfection, perfection of purity and righteousness and perfection of wisdom, knowing exactly what to do and how to do it.
3. The citizens are kings who bring their glory and honor into the city (v.24). This says two things.
 - a. Believers will rule and reign with Christ. They will reign as kings for Him, probably serving Him and overseeing the universe for Him. Remember: the heavens will be created anew as well as the earth. The billions of heavenly bodies will apparently be made alive and fruitful. Whatever the case, Scripture clearly teaches that believers will rule and reign with Christ and serve Him in responsible positions as kings. (See notes—Rev.14:13; 20:4-6 for more discussion.)

“And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel” (Mt.19:28).

“His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord” (Mt.25:23).

“And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season? Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath” (Lk.12:42-44).

“And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities....And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities” (Lk.19:17, 19).

“And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together” (Ro.8:17).

“If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us” (2 Tim.2:12).

“Do ye not know that the saints shall judge [oversee, govern, rule] the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters? Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?” (1 Cor.6:2-3).

“And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood” (Rev.1:5).

“And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth” (Rev.5:10).

- b. Believers will bring their glory and honor into the heavenly city and give all their glory and honor to the Lord who bestowed it upon them. Believers owe everything they are to God and Christ; therefore they are going to acknowledge and praise God and Christ for giving them so great a salvation. Note that believers will bring their glory and honor into the city.

⇒ This speaks as though believers will be serving as kings of nations outside the city.

⇒ This speaks as though there will be special occasions when believers will gather in the heavenly city, gather to bring the glory and honor of their nations to God and Christ. Read it carefully (the Greek says eis auten), for this seems to be the picture being painted. One thing is sure: no matter what we may describe or picture, it is going to be far beyond anything we could ever describe or ask or even think. God’s Word emphatically declares this:

“But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him” (1 Cor.2:9).

“Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us” (Eph.3:20).

“O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out! For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor? Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again? For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever” (Ro.11:33-36).

4. The citizens will have constant, unbroken access to God (v.25). The gates are never closed and there is no night in the spiritual world. There is always perfect access into the presence of God, and there is no need for sleep or rest. We will have perfect bodies with perfect strength. In addition, the Holy Spirit of God will fill us to the fullest. The Holy Spirit will give us a perfect knowledge and consciousness of God’s presence. He will focus our hearts and minds upon God in a constant, unbroken worship. He will give us an unbroken fellowship and communion and worship of God.

Thought 1. In the new heavens and earth, no matter what work and service we may be doing for Christ, our minds and hearts will be conscious of God’s presence. Every thought of our mind will be a righteous and pure thought, a thought that is either upon God Himself or upon something that has to do with our daily lives (like our service and work or fellowship with other believers), a thought that will please God.

“For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: (for the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ” (2 Cor.10:3-5).

“Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things” (Ph.4:8).

“Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee because he trusteth in thee” (Is.26:3).

5. Believers will bring the glory and honor of their nations into (eis auten) the city. This is a continuation of what was said earlier (pt.3). This shows that believers are the kings being spoken about, that believers will be coming from various rules or nations to bring the glory of their nations to God. Again the picture seems to be periodic celebrations of great worship. There will certainly be times when all believers come together from all corners of heaven (the spiritual world or universe) in a great celebration of worship. We would think that the Marriage Supper of the Lamb will not be the only time we will all be brought together to worship our dear Lord.

Note again: Scripture says that as kings we enter “into” the city. It is as though we are coming from the far reaches of the spiritual world to bring the honor of our nations to God and Christ. But we must also repeat: whatever the case—wherever we are coming from—our minds could never imagine the glory and majesty of what will really happen. (See pt.3 above for verses and more discussion.)

6. Believers will be guaranteed a perfect life and service. Believers never have to worry about heaven being imperfect or defiled. God is not going to let an imperfect person into heaven, no matter who he is. He is not going to let heaven become contaminated with a single sin. Heaven will always be heaven—perfect, absolutely perfect. No person who has ever sinned will ever enter the city, not until the person accepts the cleansing of Jesus Christ. Unless he accepts the cleansing of Jesus Christ, he is guilty of sin. He still bears his own sin and the pollution of it. Therefore, if God let the polluted person into the heavenly city, the person would contaminate heaven. Heaven could no longer be perfect, clean, or pure. Therefore, God will always keep out any person...

- who defiles (is unwashed from his sin).
- who does what is shameful (detestable, immoral things).
- who lies or deceives.

The only person accepted into the heavenly city are those whose names are written in the Lamb's book of life. The person who accepts the sacrifice of the Lamb, the Lord Jesus Christ, for his sins—that person will have his name written in the Lamb's book of life. He will be a citizen of the great Heavenly Jerusalem.

“Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God” (Gal.5:19-21).

“For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven” (Mt.5:20).

“Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein” (Mk.10:15).

“Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God?” (1 Cor.6:9).

“Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God neither doth corruption inherit incorruption” (1 Cor.15:50).

“And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life” (Rev.21:27).

2 (22:1-5) New Jerusalem—Heaven: there are the provisions of the Heavenly Jerusalem. The provisions are seven.

1. There is a pure river in the city, a river that has the very water of life (v.1). Is there a real river in the heavenly Jerusalem or is this to be taken symbolically? Probably both. Certainly the New Jerusalem, being 1500 miles cubic, will have the beauty and refreshment of a running river and of many other bodies of water. We too often spiritualize when we think of heaven, imagining that we will be in some kind of dreamy, unreal world instead of a real world. We must always remember the teaching of Scripture: God is going to recreate this earth and the heavens of this universe. This is what He explicitly teaches in the Scripture (cp. 2 Pt.3:10-12; Rev.21:1; etc.).

A recreated world would certainly have the same features that this world has with one exception: it will be perfected. The Heavenly Jerusalem is said to have a particular river flowing through it, and the river has the water of life in it. What does this mean? The verse tells us. Note where the source of the river is: “the throne of God and of the Lamb.”

The water of life flows from God and Christ: they are the source of all life that lives in the city. There will be no life there, no person there, other than those who have drunk of the life that God and Christ give. Therefore, the river symbolizes the life that flows out from God and Christ. It will be a constant reminder to us that Jesus Christ is the living water who gives us life...

- who quenches our thirst for life.
- who satisfies our thirst for life.
- who fulfills our thirst for life.
- who completes our thirst for life.

“Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water” (Jn.4:10).

“But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life” (Jn.4:14).

“In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink. He that believeth on me, as the Scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water” (Jn.7:37-38).

“And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations” (Rev.22:1-2).

“And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely” (Rev.22:17).

2. There is a tree of life in the city (v.2). Remember: the tree of life was also planted in the Garden of Eden (Gen.2:9). As long as man remained sinless, he was allowed to eat of the tree; but as soon as he sinned, he was not allowed to eat its fruit. The fruit was the nourishment of life; it infused eternal life into Adam's body. Or else, it symbolized the perfect and life-giving environment God had given Adam. Whatever the case, the tree of life is now in the heavenly Jerusalem. Note that two things are said about it.

a. The tree of life bears twelve crops of fruit—one crop each month. The tree bears fruit year round. This symbolizes continuous fruit or continuous life. There is no time that the tree does not bear fruit. It always bears fruit; it provides eternal fruit. Therefore, the person who eats of the tree of life is nourished by its fruit eternally. He lives forever.

There is also another symbol here: bearing the fruit of God's Spirit. The person who eats of the tree of life will bear the fruit of the Spirit eternally.

b. The leaves of the tree of life are for the healing of the nations. That is, they provide a perfect life. The leaves prevent sickness and disease. They give the person who eats them a perfect body. This symbolizes the perfection that Jesus Christ gives, the perfect healing and deliverance from all suffering that He gives, the perfect body He will provide in that glorious day.

"In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations" (Rev.22:2).

"He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God" (Rev.2:7).

"And out of the ground made the LORD God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil" (Gen.2:9).

"And the LORD God said, Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil: and now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever" (Gen.3:22).

"And by the river upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for meat [food], whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth new fruit according to his months, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary: and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine" (Ezk.47:12).

3. There is no more curse in the city (v.3). The earth is cursed. How? Cursed to aging, corruption, deterioration, decay, death, suffering, evil, disturbance, division, disasters, and on and on. It is cursed because man has chosen to make his own life in this world and to reject God's life. God's life is, as stated above, eternal; His life alone is eternal. Therefore, when man chose to make his own life, he chose to die. Consequently, man brought death and all its evil into the world. Man cursed the earth by his rejection of God and God's life.

But note: the Heavenly Jerusalem has no curse. This means that it is free of evil and death. It is perfect and will last eternally. There is no curse of evil or death in the city. Its citizens are free of the curse; they are perfected forever and ever.

"And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life" (Gen.3:17).

"For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them" (Gal.3:10).

"And men shall dwell in it [the city of God], and there shall be no more utter destruction; but Jerusalem shall be safely inhabited" (Zech.14:11).

4. There is the throne of God and of the Lamb in the city (v.3^b-4). This means two things.

a. The Lord's servants will serve God and Christ, operating out of the city. That is, the Heavenly Jerusalem will be the capital city of the universe, the headquarters of the Lord's government and rule and reign. The idea is that we will receive our instructions and do our reporting from the very throne of God and Christ. We will have access to the very throne of heaven itself. (See note, pt.3—Rev.21:24-27 for verses.)

b. The Lord's servants will see His face (v.4). We will see Him face to face, actually stand face to face with our wonderful Lord and God: talk with, share with, serve, discuss, worship, praise, and offer thanks; and we will have the right to see Him face to face throughout all of eternity. O the preciousness of the hope! The glory and majesty of the hope! The stirrings and excitement of the hope! Our wonderful Lord has given us a hope that explodes all imagination! We will have the glorious privilege of living face to face with our wonderful Lord!

"Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God" (Mt.5:8).

"And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent" (Jn.17:3).

“Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is” (1 Jn.3:2).

“As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness” (Ps.17:15).

5. There is the name of God written in the forehead of believers (v.4). This means possession and security. We shall be wholly possessed by God. We will be His servants and be enabled to serve Him totally and wholly. We shall belong to Him and be under His care and love, direction and guidance, security and safety—eternally.

“Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts” (2 Cor.1:22).

“In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, which is the earnest [guarantee] of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory” (Eph.1:13-14).

“And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father’s name written in their foreheads” (Rev.14:1).

“And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads” (Rev.22:4).

6. There is eternal light in the city (v.5) (see note, pt.2—Rev.21:24-27; also see notes—Rev.21:11; 21:23 for discussion).

7. There is eternal rule—work and service—for God and Christ (v.5b) (see notes, pts.3, 5—Rev.21:24-47 for discussion).

THE GREAT MESSAGE OF REVELATION: ELEVEN STIRRING FACTS, 22:6-21

(22:6-21) Introduction: this passage closes the great book of Revelation. It is also the final words of the Word of God, for the great Book of Revelation is the last book of the Bible. Jesus Christ has sounded forth the great message of Revelation. He has revealed the end of time, what is going to happen during the last years of human history. The things He has shown have been astounding. They have caused us to stand in stark amazement at the glory and majesty of God, at His supreme intelligence and power. We have seen God's ability and power to take all the ungodliness and evil of this world and work them all out for good. Think back over what we have seen:

- ⇒ We saw God holding the great book of destiny in His hand and Jesus Christ walking over and taking it and opening it up to reveal the future of the world.
- ⇒ We saw that the world is going to experience an increase in natural catastrophes—all so destructive that whole areas of the world will be devastated.
- ⇒ We saw that a great charismatic leader is to arise upon the world scene who will become so evil that he can only be described as a beast. He will be the antichrist, a man who will have the answers to peace and to some of the world's terrible problems. We saw that the world will turn to him because of his answers and that he will actually bring peace and solve some of the massive problems of society.
- ⇒ We saw that once the antichrist has consolidated his power over a number of nations, he will institute a world-wide loyalty to the state—what might be called a state religion. Every citizen will be required to give his loyalty to the state as the great provider and protector of its citizens. We have seen that the antichrist will turn from the good that he will do and launch the worst evil the world has ever known. He will instigate the worst holocaust ever feared by man, a holocaust that will slaughter literally millions and millions of people—people of all religions who refuse to give their first loyalty and allegiance to the state.

- ⇒ We saw that the government, society, and religion of the world will become so evil under the antichrist that God will make the decision to go ahead and judge the ungodly and evil of the world and end world history.
- ⇒ We saw the judgment of God that will fall upon the earth, the great seal judgments that will bring famine and disease and that will kill one fourth of the earth's population.
- ⇒ We saw the great trumpet judgments that will bring violent storms, volcanic eruptions, a meteoric mass, astronomical happenings in space—all so devastating that one third of the earth's vegetation, seas, and water supply will be destroyed. We also saw that there will be plague of locust-like creatures that will torment all the ungodly and evil of the earth. We also saw that there will be a plague of demonic military horsemen which will kill one third of the population of the earth.
- ⇒ We saw the end come in the seven bowl judgments that will fall upon the earth. The bowl judgments are the final judgments that end world history. We saw an ulcerous sore that will hit the human race. We also saw the total pollution of the sea and fresh water supply of the earth and the death of all sea life. We saw that the rays of the sun will hit the earth with a scorching heat, then a pitch black darkness will strike the earth. And then we saw that the most massive military buildup and the largest army ever witnessed by the earth will be launched by the antichrist.
- ⇒ We saw that the antichrist and his massive army will be destroyed in one moment's time at the last battle of human history, Armageddon.
- ⇒ We saw that the Lord Jesus Christ will usher in the Millennium, a period of one thousand years when He will rule and reign upon the earth.
- ⇒ We saw that the Lord Jesus Christ will destroy Satan and the present heaven and earth and judge the dead at the great white throne judgment of God.
- ⇒ And finally we saw that the Lord Jesus Christ will create a new heaven and earth. And we saw the New Jerusalem, the capital of the new heavens and earth and the eternal rule and reign of believers with Jesus Christ.

This is what we have seen. These are the highlights of what God has revealed to us in the great Book of Revelation. Now the point is this: what God has revealed is important to Him. God wants man to know what lies ahead so that he can prepare himself. He has warned man of the terrible things that are coming upon the earth. But He has also given hope to man. There is a better world coming, the most glorious of worlds, a perfect heaven and earth: a world in which there will be no sorrow or tears, suffering or death; a world of righteousness and joy and life. God wants man to know the message of Revelation. Therefore, as the Lord closes this great book, everything He says has to do with the overall message of the book. The message of Revelation is so important that the Lord takes the time and space to talk about the message of Revelation itself. This is what the Lord has to say about the great Book of Revelation, about the message of Revelation. Note that eleven stirring facts are given by the Lord Himself and by John.

1. The message is faithful & true (v.6).
2. The message will bring a blessing to the person who keeps the prophecy of this book (v.7).
3. The message stirs worship (v.8-9).
4. The message is to be read and studied by all (v.10-11).
5. The message focuses upon the Lord's return and judgment to come (v.12-13).
6. The message tells us who will be accepted by the Lord (v.14).
7. The message tells us who will be rejected by the Lord (v.15).
8. The message is proclaimed by the Lord Jesus Christ Himself (v.16).
9. The message offers the greatest invitation ever extended to man (v.17).
10. The message must not be tampered with (v.18-19).
11. The message closes with the greatest of all assurances (v.20-21).

1 (22:6) Revelation, The—Word of God: the message of Revelation is faithful and true.

- ⇒ The message is faithful: it can be trusted. It is trustworthy and reliable.
- ⇒ The message is true: it is not a lie, not false, not a message created by the imagination of men. How do we know this? How do we know that the message of Revelation is trustworthy and true?

Note what the verse says:

“And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to show unto his servants the things which must shortly be done” (v.6).

The message of Revelation is from the same Lord God that inspired the prophets of old. The Lord God gave the prophets their message, and He is the One who has given the great message of Revelation. It is a matter of belief. We either believe or do not believe that the Scripture is the Word of God. We either believe or do not believe the prophets and writers of Scripture. The Lord Jesus Christ has done just what this verse declares: shown us “the things which must shortly come to pass.” We either believe or do not believe that He has done it. But whatever our decision is, we had better listen to what He has to say in the remaining points of this passage. Failure to do so could doom us for eternity.

“Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away” (Mk.13:31).
 “It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life” (Jn.6:63).

“Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life” (Jn.6:68).

“The officers answered, Never man spake like this man” (Jn.7:46).

“He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day” (Jn.12:48).

“He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father’s which sent me” (Jn.14:24).

2 (22:7) Revelation, The—Word of God: the message of Revelation will bring a blessing to the person who studies and obeys the prophecies of the book. The person who really studies Revelation will be blessed in a very special way.

- ⇒ He will be drawn closer to the Lord, be given a deeper awareness and sense of the Lord’s presence.
- ⇒ He will know what is coming upon the earth in the end time and be better prepared to cope until the Lord comes.
- ⇒ He will understand more about the ungodly and evil of this world and more about how God is going to conquer all the evil and bring righteousness to the earth.
- ⇒ He will understand heaven more and be more strongly stirred to long for heaven.
- ⇒ He will be drawn by the Spirit of God into more and more fellowship with the Lord in preparation for that glorious day of redemption.

On and on the list could go, for the Lord’s blessings are endless to the person who truly studies His Word. But note: there is a strong reason for studying and obeying the prophecies of Revelation. The Lord says, “Behold, I come quickly.” The events are about to roll in upon the earth. The idea is that the events are going to happen ever so quickly, one rolling in upon the other. Therefore, we must be prepared, and we must quickly witness to a world lost in crime, drugs, suffering, and death. We must study and study Revelation. We must prepare ourselves and do what we can to prepare others, for the Lord and the final days of human history are upon us.

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death” (Jn.8:51).

“If ye love me, keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever” (Jn.14:15-16).

“Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him” (Jn.14:23).

“I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word” (Jn.17:6).

“And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments” (1 Jn.2:3).

“I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name” (Rev.3:8).

3 (22:8-9) Revelation, The—Worship: the message of Revelation stirs worship. When John heard the prophecies of the Revelation, he was so astounded that he was gripped with a spirit of fear and worship. He actually fell down at the feet of the angel who was delivering the message for the Lord. This was the second time that John had done this (Rev.19:10). Again, the angel rebuked John. He told John to get up, for angels are only servants of God just as men are. He told John to worship God and God alone.

The point is this: the message of Revelation should astound us and stir us to worship. But we must make sure that we worship the true and living God and Him alone.

Thought 1. The great tragedy is this: so many are worshipping false gods, their own idea of what God is like. They are religious and have been baptized; they attend church and sometimes serve in the church. But they...

- reject Jesus Christ as the Son of God who died for their sins.
- refuse to live a godly and righteous life for Jesus Christ.
- reject the Scriptures as the Word of God.
- reject the Revelation as the prophecy of the Lord, the prophecy that reveals what is to happen in the end time.

“Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve” (Mt.4:10).

“God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth” (Jn.4:24).

“Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters” (Rev.14:7).

“Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come before him: worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness” (1 Chron.16:29).

“O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the LORD our maker” (Ps.95:6).

“O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth” (Ps.96:9).

4 (22:10-11) Revelation, The—Bible Study: the message of Revelation is to be read and studied. The instructions of the Lord are clear: the book of Revelation is never to be sealed, that is, closed. It is to be read, studied, preached, and taught—always. Two reasons are given.

1. Because the time for the events to fall upon the earth are at hand. We can never be prepared nor can we prepare others unless we understand what is coming and get ready for their coming.

2. Because the time is coming when it will be too late to prepare (v.11). The more a person hardens his heart, the harder he becomes and the less likely he will be to change. If we do not repent, turn away from this world of sin and turn to God—if we do not get into the Word of God and the prophecies of Revelation—then our hearts will become harder and harder, more and more stubborn. Then when the events of the end time hit the earth, we will be unprepared and our hearts will be so stubborn and hard we will be lost eternally.

- We will be unjust, so we will remain unjust.
- We will be filthy, so we will remain filthy.

But if we turn to God and begin to study Revelation and do what Revelation says, we will be righteous and remain righteous. We will be holy and remain holy.

“But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation” (Mk.3:29).

“For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?” (Mk.8:36).

“For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears” (Heb.12:17).

“For he flattereth himself in his own eyes, until his iniquity be found to be hateful” (Ps.36:2).

“For there shall be no reward to the evil man; the candle of the wicked shall be put out” (Pr.24:20).

5 (22:12-13) Revelation, The—Jesus Christ, Return—Judgment: the message of Revelation focuses upon the Lord’s return and judgment to come. Again, the Lord declares: “Behold, I come quickly.” His return is speedily coming. It is imminent, right at hand. The thrust is for us to prepare. And note why: when He comes back, it means judgment. He is coming back to judge man. The judgment will be based upon two things.

1. It will be based upon the works of man, based upon what we have done. (See notes—Rev.20:12; 14:14-16; 14:17-20 for discussion.)

2. It will be based upon the person of Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ is the Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end of all things. This means that He is both the Creator and Finisher of the universe. He spans all of time and all of the universe. He began all things and He finishes all things. Therefore, He will finish earth and the heavens above, judge them all. He will judge all who have acted against Him—judge all who have lived ungodly lives, lived contrary to His godliness.

“Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy: for thou renderest to every man according to his work” (Ps.62:12).

“I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings” (Jer.17:10).

“For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works” (Mt.16:27).

“For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad” (2 Cor.5:10).

“And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man’s work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear” (1 Pt.1:17).

“And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works” (Rev.20:12).

“And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be” (Rev.22:12).

6 (22:14) Revelation, The—Saved, The: the message of Revelation tells us who will be accepted by the Lord. There is a textual problem here in the King James Version of the Bible. The best Greek manuscripts say this: “Blessed are they who wash their robes,” not “blessed are they that do his commandments.” The only way a person can ever eat of the tree of life is to wash his robes in the blood of Christ. No person is ever saved by keeping commandments. Believers, of course, do keep the commandments of God; they keep His commandments because they love Christ and want to follow Him. They do not keep the commandments in order to be saved. They believe that Jesus Christ forgives their sins through His death on the cross in order to be saved. Then it is that they begin to serve Him and to keep His commandments.

The point is this: the person who is accepted by God is the person who has washed his robes in the blood of the Lamb. That is the person...

- who has the right to the tree of life (see note, pt.2—Rev.22:1-5 for discussion).
- who enters into the New Jerusalem, the heavenly city of God (see outline and notes—Rev.21:9-23; 21:24-22:5 for discussion).

“All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth” (Is.53:6-7).

“The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world” (Jn.1:29).

“Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh: how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?” (Heb.9:12-13-14).

“And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins: but this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God; from henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool” (Heb.10:11-13).

“Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation [behavior] received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot” (1 Pt.1:18-19).

“Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed” (1 Pt.2:24).

“For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit” (1 Pt.3:18).

7 (22:15) Revelation, The—Lost, The: the message of Revelation tells us who will be rejected by the Lord. There are some people who will not be allowed to enter the heavenly city of God. Who are they?

- ⇒ The dogs of society. In ancient days the wild dog was a symbol of roaming about, of being mean and savage, dirty and immoral. Therefore, those who roam about living mean and savage lives, or dirty and immoral lives will never be allowed to enter God’s heavenly city.
- ⇒ The sorcerers, the immoral, the murderers, the idolaters, and the liars have already been discussed (see note, pt.3—Rev.21:6-8 for discussion).

“For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven” (Mt.5:20).

“Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein” (Mk.10:15).

“Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God?” (1 Cor.6:9).

“Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption” (1 Cor.15:50).

“And there shall in now wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb’s book of life” (Rev.21:27).

8 (22:16) Revelation, The: the message of Revelation is proclaimed by Jesus Christ Himself. This is a forceful statement, and it is emphatically stated so that there can be no mistake about the fact: “I Jesus...testify unto you these things in the churches.” He is the Author of the message of Revelation. But note: He sent His own personal angel to bring the message to earth. How do we know that Jesus Christ actually did this? How do we know that Jesus Christ actually sent the message of Revelation to earth? Because of who He is.

- ⇒ He is the “root and offspring of David.” This means that He is the root of David, the root of life, the One who gives life to man. Therefore, He is the One who gave life to David. But He is also the offspring of David. He is the promised Messiah who was to come from the seed and line of David. He is the promised Savior and King who was to come and save man and rule over the world—all from the throne of David.
- ⇒ He is the “bright and morning Star.” This means two things. The first star to arise is the brightest star, the brightest of all. Jesus Christ is, therefore, the brightest of all beings in all the universe. He is the very Son of God Himself. Second, this is a prophecy of the Messiah: “There shall come out of Jacob a star” (Num.24:17). Jesus Christ is declaring that He is the promised Messiah, the Star among all the stars of man.

This is the reason we know that Jesus Christ is the Author of the Revelation. He is the Son of God, the promised Messiah who gives life and who has the right to judge life. He is the One who knows the future and can warn man and tell man how to prepare for the devastating events of the end time. Being the true Messiah, He is bound to declare the truth to us; He is bound to declare the message of Revelation to us.

“Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you” (Jn.15:15).

“But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God” (1 Cor.2:9-10).

“Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself: that in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him” (Eph.1:9-10).

“He revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him” (Dan.2:22).

“Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets” (Amos 3:7).

9 (22:17) Revelation, The—Invitation—Come—Water of Life: the message of Revelation offers the greatest invitation ever extended to man:

“And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely” (v.17).

The bride is the church, the host of true believers scattered all over the earth. Both the church and the Spirit of God cry out, “Come.” And note: once we hear the invitation and come, we must begin to cry out for others to come.

- ⇒ The thirsty need to come: those who are parched, scorched, empty, craving, burning, laboring, and sweating—all those who need the refreshment, satisfaction, and renewal of the water of life: “Come, come to Jesus Christ, who is the water of life.”

“Whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely” (v.17^c. See note, pt.1—Rev.22:1-5 for more discussion.)

“Come now, and let us reason together, saith the Lord: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool” (Is.1:18).

“Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price” (Is.55:1).

“Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest” (Mt.11:28).

“Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage” (Mt.22:4).

“And sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready” (Lk.14:17).

“And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely” (Rev.22:17).

10 (22:18-19) Revelation, The: the message of Revelation must not be tampered with. The warning is solemn and emphatic.

- ⇒ A person must not add to the words of this book.
- ⇒ A person must not take away from the words of this book.

What happens if a person tampers with the Word of God? If he adds to the words, he is going to suffer the plagues covered in the book. If he takes away from the words, God is going...

- to take away his share in the tree of life.
- to take his share out of the holy city, the Heavenly Jerusalem.
- to take his share out of all the glorious promises of this book of Revelation.
