2 from the nations of whom the LORD had said to the children of Israel, [a]"You shall not intermarry with them, nor they with you. Surely they will turn away your hearts after their gods." Solomon clung to these in love.
3 And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines; and his wives turned away his heart.
4 For it was so, when Solomon was old, [a]that his wives turned his heart after other gods; and his [b]heart was not [1]loyal to the LORD his God, [c]as was the heart of his father David.
5 For Solomon went after [a]Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, and after [b]Milcom[1] the abomination of the [c]Ammonites.
6 Solomon did evil in the sight of the LORD, and did not fully follow the LORD, as did his father David.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Kin. 11:6

With All Your Heart

We are to follow God wholeheartedly. This does not mean we will never sin, but when we do, we will repent and long to serve God again with everything we have. When we do not fully follow the Lord, our lives are inclined to sin and fall away from His plan.

7 [a]Then Solomon built a [1]high place for [b]Chemosh the abomination of Moab, on [c]the hill that is east of Jerusalem, and for Molech the abomination of the people of Ammon.
8 And he did likewise for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and sacrificed to their gods.
9 So the LORD became angry with Solomon, because his heart had turned from the LORD God of Israel, [a]who had appeared to him twice,
10 and [a]had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods; but he did not keep what the LORD had commanded.
11 Therefore the LORD said to Solomon, "Because you have done this, and have not kept My covenant and My statutes, which I have commanded you, [a]I will surely tear the kingdom away from you and give it to your [b]servant.
12 "Nevertheless I will not do it in your days, for the sake of your father David; I will tear it out of the hand of your son.
13 [a]"However I will not tear away the whole kingdom; I will give [b]one tribe to your son [c]for the sake of My servant David, and for the sake of Jerusalem [d]which I have chosen."

Adversaries of Solomon

14 Now the LORD [a]raised up an adversary against Solomon, Hadad the Edomite; he was a descendant of the king in Edom.
15 [a]For it happened, when David was in Edom, and Joab the commander of the army had gone up to bury the slain, [b]after he had killed every male in Edom
16 (because for six months Joab remained there with all Israel, until he had cut down every male in Edom),
17 that Hadad fled to go to Egypt, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him. Hadad was still a little child.
18 Then they arose from Midian and came to Paran; and they took men with them from Paran and came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house, apportioned food for him, and gave him land.
19 And Hadad found great favor in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him as wife the sister of his own wife, that is, the sister of Queen Tahpenes.
20 Then the sister of Tahpenes bore him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house. And Genubath was in Pharaoh's household among the sons of Pharaoh.
21 [a]So when Hadad heard in Egypt that David [1]rested with his fathers, and that Joab the commander of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, [2]"Let me depart, that I may go to my own country."
22 Then Pharaoh said to him, "But what have you lacked with me, that suddenly you seek to go to your own country?" So he answered, "Nothing, but do let me go anyway."

11:3 The Lord had warned the Israelite people not to marry foreigners because "they will turn your sons away from following Me to serve other gods" (Deut. 7:4). Solomon also broke Moses' command for a king. Deuteronomy 17:17 states, "Neither shall he multiply wives for himself, lest his heart turn away."

11:5 Ashtoreth, or Asherah, became one of the most common goddesses the Israelites worshipped in spite of the biblical commandment to have no other gods apart from the Lord. Asherah was considered the consort to the supreme Canaanite god El and was recognized as the mother of the gods. The word "Asherah" is used several ways in the Old Testament. The word can refer to the actual goddess (1 Kin. 15:13; 18:19; 2 Kin. 21:7) or to a cult object (a carved wooden pole) that represented the goddess (1 Kin. 14:15; 16:33; 2 Kin. 21:3).

11:11 The phrase "tear the kingdom away" is the same phrase Samuel used to tell Saul that God was taking the kingdom from him (1 Sam. 15:28). Likewise, Solomon had not followed after God and now the kingdom was being torn from his family.

23 And God raised up another adversary against him, Rezon the son of Eliadah, who had fled from his lord, [a]Hadadezer king of Zobah.
24 So he gathered men to him and became captain over a band of raiders, [a]when David killed those of Zobah. And they went to Damascus and dwelt there, and reigned in Damascus.
25 He was an adversary of Israel all the days of Solomon (besides the trouble that Hadad caused); and he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria.

Jeroboam's Rebellion

26 Then Solomon's servant, [a]Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephraimite from Zereda, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow, [b]also [c]rebelled against the king.
27 And this is what caused him to rebel against the king: [a]Solomon had built the Millo and [1]repaired the damages to the City of David his father.
28 The man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valor; and Solomon, seeing that the young man was [a]industrious, made him the officer over all the labor force of the house of Joseph.
29 Now it happened at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet [a]Ahijah the Shilonite met him on the way; and he had clothed himself with a new garment, and the two were alone in the field.
30 Then Ahijah took hold of the new garment that was on him, and [a]tore it into twelve pieces.
31 And he said to Jeroboam, "Take for yourself ten pieces, for [a]thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'Behold, I will tear the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon and will give ten tribes to you
32 '(but he shall have one tribe for the sake of My servant David, and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel),
33 [a]'because [1]they have forsaken Me, and worshiped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the people of Ammon, and have not walked in My ways to do what is right in My eyes and keep My statutes and My judgments, as did his father David.
34 'However I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand, because I have made him ruler all the days of his life for the sake of My servant David, whom I chose because he kept My commandments and My statutes.
35 'But [a]I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand and give it to you—ten tribes.
36 'And to his son I will give one tribe, that [a]My servant David may always have a lamp before Me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen for Myself, to put My name there.
37 'So I will take you, and you shall reign over all your heart desires, and you shall be king over Israel.
38 'Then it shall be, if you heed all that I command you, walk in My ways, and do what is right in My sight, to keep My statutes and My commandments, as My servant David did, then [a]I will be with you and [b]build for you an enduring house, as I built for David, and will give Israel to you.
39 'And I will afflict the descendants of David because of this, but not forever.' "
40 Solomon therefore sought to kill Jeroboam. But Jeroboam arose and fled to Egypt, to [a]Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

Death of Solomon

41 Now [a]the rest of the acts of Solomon, all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon?
42 [a]And the period that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years.
43 [a]Then Solomon [1]rested with his fathers, and was buried in the City of David his father. And Rehoboam his son reigned in his [b]place.

The Revolt Against Rehoboam

12 And [a]Rehoboam went to [b]Shechem, for all Israel had gone to Shechem to make him king.
2 So it happened, when [a]Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard it (he was still in [b]Egypt, for he had fled from the presence of King Solomon and had been dwelling in Egypt),
3 that they sent and called him. Then Jeroboam and the whole assembly of Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying,
4 "Your father made our [a]yoke [1]heavy; now therefore, lighten the burdensome service of your father, and his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you."
5 So he said to them, "Depart for three

2 [a]1 Kin. 11:26 [b]1 Kin. 11:40

11:31 Kings in the Northern Kingdom (Israel) were selected by prophetic designation and popular assent as opposed to the Southern Kingdom (Judah) where kings ruled by dynastic succession from the house of David.

11:41 The "book of the acts of Solomon" was a record of the king's accomplishments during his rule. While the Bible references this book it does not quote it and no copies remain.

days, then come back to me." And the people departed.
6 Then King Rehoboam consulted the elders who stood before his father Solomon while he still lived, and he said, "How do you advise me to answer these people?"
7 And they spoke to him, saying, [a]"If you will be a servant to these people today, and serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever."
8 But he rejected the advice which the elders had given him, and consulted the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him.
9 And he said to them, "What advice do you give? How should we answer this people who have spoken to me, saying, 'Lighten the yoke which your father put on us'?"
10 Then the young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, "Thus you should speak to this people who have spoken to you, saying, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter on us'—thus you shall say to them: 'My little finger shall be thicker than my father's waist!
11 'And now, whereas my father put a heavy yoke on you, I will add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with [1]scourges!' "
12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had directed, saying, "Come back to me the third day."
13 Then the king answered the people [1]roughly, and rejected the advice which the elders had given him;
14 and he spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with [1]scourges!"
15 So the king did not listen to the people; for [a]the turn of events was from the LORD, that He might fulfill His word, which the LORD had [b]spoken by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.
16 Now when all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king, saying:

[a]"What share have we in David?
We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse.
To your tents, O Israel!
Now, see to your own house, O David!"

So Israel departed to their tents.
17 But Rehoboam reigned over [a]the children of Israel who dwelt in the cities of Judah.
18 Then King Rehoboam [a]sent Adoram, who was in charge of the revenue; but all Israel stoned him with stones, and he died. Therefore King Rehoboam mounted his chariot in haste to flee to Jerusalem.
19 So [a]Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.
20 Now it came to pass when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had come back, they sent for him and called him to the congregation, and made him king over all [a]Israel. There was none who followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah [b]only.
21 And when [a]Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah with the tribe of [b]Benjamin, one hundred and eighty thousand chosen men who were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, that he might restore the kingdom to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.
22 But [a]the word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,
23 "Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, to all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people, saying,
24 'Thus says the LORD: "You shall not go up nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel. Let every man return to his house, [a]for this thing is from Me." ' " Therefore they obeyed the word of the LORD, and turned back, according to the word of the LORD.

Jeroboam's Gold Calves

25 Then Jeroboam [a]built[1] Shechem in the mountains of Ephraim, and dwelt there. Also he went out from there and built [b]Penuel.
26 And Jeroboam said in his heart, "Now the kingdom may return to the house of David:
27 "If these people [a]go up to offer sacrifices in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then the heart of this people will turn back to their lord, Rehoboam king of Judah, and they will kill me and go back to Rehoboam king of Judah."
28 Therefore the king asked advice,

12:16 The "share in David" was a reference to the tribe of Judah. The people believed they had equal claims in the country as each tribe descended from a son of Jacob. Judah was only one of twelve tribes, with each one having its own inheritance.

12:23 Verse twenty indicated that no other tribes supported Judah. However, the tribe of Benjamin was strategically located in a "buffer zone" between Jerusalem and the northern kingdom and was therefore forced to join with Judah.

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Kin. 12:27

Taking Matters into Our Own Hands

It is a foolish venture to take control of a situation in order to force an outcome when God has already stated His intentions. If God has revealed His plan to bring something about, He does not need our help to engineer the results. He simply desires our trust and obedience.

[a]made two calves of gold, and said to the people, "It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. [b]Here are your gods, O Israel, which brought you up from the land of Egypt!"
29 And he set up one in [a]Bethel, and the other he put in [b]Dan.
30 Now this thing became [a]a sin, for the people went to worship before the one as far as Dan.
31 He made [1]shrines on the high places, [a]and made priests from every class of people, who were not of the sons of Levi.
32 Jeroboam [1]ordained a feast on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, like [a]the feast that was in Judah, and offered sacrifices on the altar. So he did at Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he had made. [b]And at Bethel he installed the priests of the high places which he had made.
33 So he made offerings on the altar which he had made at Bethel on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, in the month which he had [a]devised in his own heart. And he [1]ordained a feast for the children of Israel, and offered sacrifices on the altar and [b]burned incense.

The Message of the Man of God

13 And behold, [a]a man of God went from Judah to Bethel [1]by the word of the LORD, [b]and Jeroboam stood by the altar to burn incense.
2 Then he cried out against the altar [1]by the word of the LORD, and said, "O altar, altar! Thus says the LORD: 'Behold, a child, [a]Josiah by name, shall be born to the house of David; and on you he shall sacrifice the priests of the high places who burn incense on you, and men's bones shall be [b]burned on you.' "
3 And he gave [a]a sign the same day, saying, "This is the sign which the LORD has spoken: Surely the altar shall split apart, and the ashes on it shall be poured out."
4 So it came to pass when King Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God, who cried out against the altar in Bethel, that he stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, "Arrest him!" Then his hand, which he stretched out toward him, withered, so that he could not pull it back to himself.
5 The altar also was split apart, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD.
6 Then the king answered and said to the man of God, "Please [a]entreat the favor of the LORD your God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored to me." So the man of God entreated the LORD, and the king's hand was restored to him, and became as before.
7 Then the king said to the man of God, "Come home with me and refresh yourself, and [a]I will give you a reward."
8 But the man of God said to the king, [a]"If you were to give me half your house, I would not go in with you; nor would I eat bread nor drink water in this place.
9 "For so it was commanded me by the word of the LORD, saying, [a]'You shall not eat bread, nor drink water, nor return by the same way you came.' "
10 So he went another way and did not return by the way he came to Bethel.

Death of the Man of God

11 Now an [a]old prophet dwelt in Bethel, and his [1]sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Bethel; they also told their father the words which he had spoken to the king.
12 And their father said to them, "Which way did he go?" For his sons [1]had seen which way the man of God went who came from Judah.
13 Then he said to his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me." So they saddled the donkey for him; and he rode on it,
14 and went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak. Then he said to him, "Are you the man of God who came from Judah?" And he said, "I am."
15 Then he said to him, "Come home with me and eat bread."
16 And he said, [a]"I cannot return with you nor go in with you; neither can I eat

12:29 Jeroboam selected two significant border cities, Dan (northern border) and Bethel (southern border), that had ancient cultic traditions associated with Israel's past. Because of the religious history of these cities they quickly became national shrines (Judg. 18; Gen. 12:8; 28:10–22; 35:1–16).

13:7 For a prophet to sit and eat with the king would have been viewed as God's endorsement of the king and his actions. In light of the pagan worship centers Jeroboam had established, God's prophet from Judah could not be seen supporting the king.

bread nor drink water with you in this place.
17 "For [1]I have been told [a]by the word of the LORD, 'You shall not eat bread nor drink water there, nor return by going the way you came.' "

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Kin. 13:17

Hold Fast to the Word of the Lord

At times, seemingly well-meaning people can distract you from God's assignment for you. It is crucial that you do exactly what God tells you until your task is finished. Don't let others sidetrack you with an "easier" or "better" way. God's way is always best.

18 He said to him, "I too am a prophet as you are, and an angel spoke to me by the word of the LORD, saying, 'Bring him back with you to your house, that he may eat bread and drink water.' " (He was lying to him.)
19 So he went back with him, and ate bread in his house, and drank water.
20 Now it happened, as they sat at the table, that the word of the LORD came to the prophet who had brought him back;
21 and he cried out to the man of God who came from Judah, saying, "Thus says the LORD: 'Because you have disobeyed the word of the LORD, and have not kept the commandment which the LORD your God commanded you,
22 'but you came back, ate bread, and drank water in the [a]place of which the LORD said to you, "Eat no bread and drink no water," your corpse shall not come to the tomb of your fathers.' "
23 So it was, after he had eaten bread and after he had drunk, that he saddled the donkey for him, the prophet whom he had brought back.
24 When he was gone, [a]a lion met him on the road and killed him. And his corpse was thrown on the road, and the donkey stood by it. The lion also stood by the corpse.
25 And there, men passed by and saw the corpse thrown on the road, and the lion standing by the corpse. Then they went and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt.
26 Now when the prophet who had brought him back from the way heard it, he said, "It is the man of God who was disobedient to the word of the LORD. Therefore the LORD has delivered him to the lion, which has torn him and killed him, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke to him."
27 And he spoke to his sons, saying, "Saddle the donkey for me." So they saddled it.
28 Then he went and found his corpse thrown on the road, and the donkey and the lion standing by the corpse. The lion had not eaten the corpse nor torn the donkey.
29 And the prophet took up the corpse of the man of God, laid it on the donkey, and brought it back. So the old prophet came to the city to mourn, and to bury him.
30 Then he laid the corpse in his own tomb; and they mourned over him, saying, [a]"Alas, my brother!"
31 So it was, after he had buried him, that he spoke to his sons, saying, "When I am dead, then bury me in the tomb where the man of God is buried; [a]lay my bones beside his bones.
32 [a]"For the [1]saying which he cried out by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel, and against all the [2]shrines on the high places which are in the cities of [b]Samaria, will surely come to pass."
33 [a]After this event Jeroboam did not turn from his evil way, but again he made priests from every class of people for the high places; whoever wished, he consecrated him, and he became one of the priests of the high places.
34 [a]And this thing was the sin of the house of Jeroboam, so as [b]to exterminate and destroy it from the face of the earth.

Judgment on the House of Jeroboam

14 At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam became sick.
2 And Jeroboam said to his wife, "Please arise, and disguise yourself, that they may not recognize you as the wife of Jeroboam, and go to Shiloh. Indeed, Ahijah the prophet is there, who told me that [a]I would be king over this people.
3 [a]"Also take [1]with you ten loaves, some cakes, and a jar of honey, and go to him; he will tell you what will become of the child."
4 And Jeroboam's wife did so; she arose [a]and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. But Ahijah could not see, for his eyes were [1]glazed by reason of his age.
5 Now the LORD had said to Ahijah, "Here is the wife of Jeroboam, coming to

4 [a]1 Kin. 11:29 [1]Lit. set

13:34 God had instructed that priests were to be drawn from Levi's tribe (Num. 3; 18:6). Therefore, for Jeroboam to allow priests from "every class of people" was a violation of God's command.

ask you something about her son, for he is sick. Thus and thus you shall say to her; for it will be, when she comes in, that she will pretend to be another woman."
6 And so it was, when Ahijah heard the sound of her footsteps as she came through the door, he said, "Come in, wife of Jeroboam. Why do you pretend to be another person? For I have been sent to you with bad news.
7 "Go, tell Jeroboam, 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel: [a]"Because I exalted you from among the people, and made you ruler over My people Israel,
8 "and [a]tore the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it to you; and yet you have not been as My servant David, [b]who kept My commandments and who followed Me with all his heart, to do only what was right in My eyes;

Pleasing God

Often we make decisions based on our own best judgment. However, our desire should be to seek out and do that which pleases God. Our goal should be to walk so closely with God that we know what is acceptable to Him.

9 "but you have done more evil than all who were before you, [a]for you have gone and made for yourself other gods and molded images to provoke Me to anger, and [b]have cast Me behind your back—
10 "therefore behold! [a]I will bring disaster on the house of Jeroboam, and [b]will cut off from Jeroboam every male in Israel, [c]bond and free; I will take away the remnant of the house of Jeroboam, as one takes away refuse until it is all gone.
11 "The dogs shall eat [a]whoever belongs to Jeroboam and dies in the city, and the birds of the air shall eat whoever dies in the field; for the LORD has spoken!" '
12 "Arise therefore, go to your own house. [a]When your feet enter the city, the child shall die.
13 "And all Israel shall mourn for him and bury him, for he is the only one of Jeroboam who shall [1]come to the grave, because in him [a]there is found something good toward the LORD God of Israel in the house of Jeroboam.
14 [a]"Moreover the LORD will raise up for Himself a king over Israel who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam; [1]this is the day. What? Even now!
15 "For the LORD will strike Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water. He will [a]uproot Israel from this [b]good land which He gave to their fathers, and will scatter them [c]beyond [1]the River, [d]because they have made their [2]wooden images, provoking the LORD to anger.
16 "And He will give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, [a]who sinned and who made Israel sin."
17 Then Jeroboam's wife arose and departed, and came to [a]Tirzah. [b]When she came to the threshold of the house, the child died.
18 And they buried him; and all Israel mourned for him, [a]according to the word of the LORD which He spoke through His servant Ahijah the prophet.

Death of Jeroboam

19 Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he [a]made war and how he reigned, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.
20 The period that Jeroboam reigned was twenty-two years. So he rested with his fathers. Then [a]Nadab his son reigned in his place.

Rehoboam Reigns in Judah

21 And Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. [a]Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king. He reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city [b]which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put His name there. [c]His mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonitess.
22 [a]Now Judah did evil in the sight of the LORD, and they [b]provoked Him to jealousy with their sins which they committed, more than all that their fathers had done.
23 For they also built for themselves [a]high[1] places, [b]sacred pillars, and [c]wooden images on every high hill and [d]under every green tree.
24 [a]And there were also [1]perverted persons in the land. They did according to all the [b]abominations of the nations which the LORD had cast out before the children of [c]Israel.

14:16 Jeroboam was a leader, so his personal sin impacted the entire nation, influencing many others to sin. The phrase "who made Israel sin" is a reference to Jeroboam's influence that caused the Israelite people to depart from God and to seek after other gods.

14:19 The accomplishments of the kings of Israel and Judah were recorded in two annals called the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel and the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah. Both of these books are continually cited in First and Second Kings. However, there are no extant copies of these books.

WORD*Study* HIGH PLACE

1 Kin. 14:23 A high place (Hebrew bamah) was an open air shrine typically erected on an elevated location (Num. 22:41; 1 Sam. 9:13) and used for sacrifices and festivals (1 Sam. 9:12; 10:5). This phrase could also refer to an altar or place of worship located on low ground within towns such as Jerusalem, Hazor and Dan. Many of the high places may have originally been Canaanite shrines taken over and used by the Israelites. Following the construction of the temple, these open air shrines posed a threat to the pure worship of God.

25 [a]It happened in the fifth year of King Rehoboam that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem.
26 [a]And he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house; he took away everything. He also took away all the gold shields [b]which Solomon had made.
27 Then King Rehoboam made bronze shields in their place, and [1]committed them to the hands of the captains of the [2]guard, who guarded the doorway of the king's house.
28 And whenever the king entered the house of the LORD, the guards carried them, then brought them back into the guardroom.
29 [a]Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
30 And there was [a]war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days.
31 [a]So Rehoboam [1]rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. [b]His mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonitess. Then [c]Abijam[2] his son reigned in his place.

Abijam Reigns in Judah

2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem. [a]His mother's name was [b]Maachah the granddaughter of [c]Abishalom.
3 And he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him; [a]his heart was not [1]loyal to the LORD his God, as was the heart of his father David.
4 Nevertheless [a]for David's sake the LORD his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, by setting up his son after him and by establishing Jerusalem;

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Kin. 15:3

A Loyal Heart

If our hearts are not fully devoted to God, we can become double-minded people unstable in our ways (James 1:8). We limit how God will use our lives or bless us.

5 because David [a]did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, and had not turned aside from anything that He commanded him all the days of his life, [b]except in the matter of Uriah the Hittite.
6 [a]And there was war between [1]Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.
7 [a]Now the rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam.
8 [a]So Abijam [1]rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. Then Asa his son reigned in his place.

Asa Reigns in Judah

9 In the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Asa became king over Judah.
10 And he reigned forty-one years in Jerusalem. His grandmother's name was Maachah the granddaughter of Abishalom.
11 [a]Asa did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, as did his father David.
12 [a]And he banished the [1]perverted persons from the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made.
13 Also he removed [a]Maachah his grandmother from being queen mother, because she had made an obscene image of [1]Asherah. And Asa cut down her obscene image and [b]burned it by the Brook Kidron.
14 [a]But the [1]high places were not removed. Nevertheless Asa's [b]heart was loyal to the LORD all his days.
15 He also brought into the house of the LORD the things which his father [a]had dedicated, and the things which he himself had dedicated: silver and gold and utensils.
16 Now there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.
17 And [a]Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and built [b]Ramah, [c]that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.
18 Then Asa took all the silver and gold that was left in the treasuries of the house of the LORD and the treasuries of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants. And King Asa sent them to [a]Ben-Hadad the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, who dwelt in [b]Damascus, saying, 19 "Let there be a treaty between you and me, as there was between my father and your father. See, I have sent you a present of silver and gold. Come and break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, so that he will withdraw from me."

20 So Ben-Hadad heeded King Asa, and [a]sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel. He attacked [b]Ijon, [c]Dan, [d]Abel Beth Maachah, and all Chinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali.
21 Now it happened, when Baasha heard it, that he stopped building Ramah, and remained in [a]Tirzah.
22 [a]Then King Asa made a proclamation throughout all Judah; none was exempted. And they took away the stones and timber of Ramah, which Baasha had used for building; and with them King Asa built [b]Geba of Benjamin, and [c]Mizpah.
23 The rest of all the acts of Asa, all his might, all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? But [a]in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet.
24 So Asa [1]rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David his father. [a]Then [b]Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place.

Nadab Reigns in Israel

25 Now [a]Nadab the son of Jeroboam became king over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel two years.
26 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in [a]his sin by which he had made Israel sin.
27 [a]Then Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him. And Baasha killed him at [b]Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines, while Nadab and all Israel laid siege to Gibbethon.
28 Baasha killed him in the third year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his place.
29 And it was so, when he became king, that he killed all the house of Jeroboam. He did not leave to Jeroboam anyone that breathed, until he had destroyed him, according to [a]the word of the LORD which He had spoken by His servant Ahijah the Shilonite,
30 [a]because of the sins of Jeroboam, which he had sinned and by which he had made Israel sin, because of his provocation with which he had provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger.
31 Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
32 [a]And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

Baasha Reigns in Israel

33 In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah became king over all Israel in Tirzah, and reigned twenty-four years.
34 He did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in [a]the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin by which he had made Israel sin.

16 Then the word of the LORD came to [a]Jehu the son of [b]Hanani, against [c]Baasha, saying:
2 [a]"Inasmuch as I lifted you out of the dust and made you ruler over My people Israel, and [b]you have walked in the way of Jeroboam, and have made My people Israel sin, to provoke Me to anger with their sins,
3 "surely I will [a]take[1] away the posterity of Baasha and the posterity of his house, and I will make your house like [b]the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

6 So Baasha [1]rested with his fathers and was buried in [a]Tirzah. Then Elah his son reigned in his place.
7 And also the word of the LORD came by the prophet [a]Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha and his house, because of all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD in provoking Him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and because [b]he killed them.

Elah Reigns in Israel

8 In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah the son of Baasha became king over Israel, and reigned two years in Tirzah.
9 [a]Now his servant Zimri, commander of half his chariots, conspired against him as he was in Tirzah drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, [b]steward[1] of his house in Tirzah.
10 And Zimri went in and struck him and killed him in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his place.
11 Then it came to pass, when he began to reign, as soon as he was seated on his throne, that he killed all the household of Baasha; he [a]did not leave him one male, neither of his relatives nor of his friends.
12 Thus Zimri destroyed all the household of Baasha, [a]according to the word of the LORD, which He spoke against Baasha by Jehu the prophet,
13 for all the sins of Baasha and the sins of Elah his son, by which they had sinned and by which they had made Israel sin, in provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger [a]with their [1]idols.

Zimri Reigns in Israel

15 In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri had reigned in Tirzah seven days. And the people were encamped [a]against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines.
16 Now the people who were encamped heard it said, "Zimri has conspired and also has killed the king." So all Israel made Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp.
17 Then Omri and all Israel with him went up from Gibbethon, and they besieged Tirzah.
18 And it happened, when Zimri saw that the city was [1]taken, that he went into the citadel of the king's house and burned the king's house [2]down upon himself with fire, and died,
19 because of the sins which he had committed in doing evil in the sight of the LORD, [a]in walking in the [b]way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he had committed to make Israel sin.
20 Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and the treason he committed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

Omri Reigns in Israel

21 Then the people of Israel were divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king, and half followed Omri.
22 But the people who followed Omri prevailed over the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath. So Tibni died and Omri reigned.
23 In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri became king over Israel, and reigned twelve years. Six years he reigned in [a]Tirzah.

OMRI

1 Kin. 16:16

There is only brief mention of Omri in Kings (1 Kin. 16:21–28). However, Omri established a dynasty with far-reaching influence among the countries of the ancient world. The dynasty Omri initiated included his son Ahab (1 Kin. 16:29—22:40), and his grandsons Ahaziah (1 Kin. 22:51) and Jehoram (2 Kin. 3:1). It wielded such influence that long after its overthrow by Jehu (2 Kin. 9–10), the Assyrian King Shalmaneser III continued to refer to Israel as "the house of Omri." The Omride Dynasty marks a period in Israelite history of unparalleled economic success, massive building projects, and widespread international influence and recognition. However, the Bible simply notes that Omri "did evil in the sight of the Lord." While Assyrian and Moabite inscriptions and archaeological remains reveal a successful and powerful king, the Bible assesses the man according to his walk with God. Likewise, God will evaluate our lives based on how we honored Him, not on our worldly success (Matt. 16:26).

16:24 Samaria served as the capital city for the kingdom of Israel. The city was situated at a junction between major trade routes traversing the country from north to south and from east to west. Thus, Samaria served as the kingdom's business and administrative hub.

then he built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, [a]Samaria,[1] after the name of Shemer, owner of the hill.
25 [a]Omri did evil in the eyes of the LORD, and did worse than all who were before him.
26 For he [a]walked in all the ways of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin by which he had made Israel sin, provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their [b]idols.[1]
27 Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and the might that he showed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
28 So Omri rested with his fathers and was buried in Samaria. Then Ahab his son reigned in his place.

Ahab Reigns in Israel

29 In the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, Ahab the son of Omri became king over Israel; and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years.
30 Now Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD, more than all who were before him.
31 And it came to pass, as though it had been a trivial thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, [a]that he took as wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal, king of the [b]Sidonians; [c]and he went and served Baal and worshiped him.
32 Then he set up an altar for Baal in [a]the temple of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.
33 [a]And Ahab made a [1]wooden image. Ahab [b]did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him.
34 In his days Hiel of Bethel built Jericho. He laid its foundation [1]with Abiram his firstborn, and with his youngest son Segub he set up its gates, [a]according to the word of the LORD, which He had spoken through Joshua the son of Nun.

A Trivial Thing

If we are not diligent to follow God's commands, our sin will eventually become so commonplace that we no longer see it as offensive to God.

Elijah Proclaims a Drought

17 And Elijah the Tishbite, of the [a]inhabitants of Gilead, said to Ahab, [b]"As the LORD God of Israel lives, [c]before whom I stand, [d]there shall not be dew nor rain [e]these years, except at my word."
2 Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying,
3 "Get away from here and turn eastward, and hide by the Brook Cherith, which flows into the Jordan.
4 "And it will be that you shall drink from the brook, and I have commanded the [a]ravens to feed you there."
5 So he went and did according to the word of the LORD, for he went and stayed by the Brook Cherith, which flows into the Jordan.
6 The ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning, and bread and meat in the evening; and he drank from the brook.
7 And it happened after a while that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land.

Elijah and the Widow

8 Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

CHARACTER*Study* ELIJAH 1 Kin. 17:1

Elijah served as God's spokesman during a dark time in Israel's religious life, during the reigns of Ahab and Ahaziah in the ninth century B.C. Under the leadership of the Omrides, the nation embraced Baalism as the prominent religion. They did not completely abandon the true God, but they relegated His worship to a lesser role in the kingdom. In so doing, they blatantly ignored God's standards and the laws He had established for His people. God used Elijah to deliver a clear ultimatum to the people of Israel: "How long will you falter between two opinions? If the Lord is God follow Him" (1 Kin. 18:21). Through a series of confrontations, Elijah warned Israel to return to the sole worship of the Lord (17:1; 18:20–40; 21:17–29; 2 Kin. 1:1–17). Elijah's stern message drew strong opposition from those loyal to Baalism. Elijah's response set a noteworthy example of walking firmly in faith. His unwavering trust in God at Mount Carmel is both a challenge and an encouragement to Christians as we too encounter opposition and derision for our faith. And, like Elijah, we may sometimes find our faith shaken and flee in the face of opposition, only to discover that God is still with us. He is still in control and the battle has not been lost (1 Kin. 19:1–18).

9 "Arise, go to [a]Zarephath, which belongs to [b]Sidon, and dwell there. See, I have commanded a widow there to provide for you."
10 So he arose and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, indeed a widow was there gathering sticks. And he called to her and said, "Please bring me a little water in a cup, that I may drink."
11 And as she was going to get it, he called to her and said, "Please bring me a morsel of bread in your hand."
12 So she said, "As the LORD your God lives, I do not have bread, only a handful of flour in a bin, and a little oil in a [1]jar; and see, I am gathering a couple of sticks that I may go in and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it, and [a]die."
13 And Elijah said to her, "Do not fear; go and do as you have said, but make me a small cake from it first, and bring it to me; and afterward make some for yourself and your son.
14 "For thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'The bin of flour shall not be used up, nor shall the jar of oil run dry, until the day the LORD sends rain on the earth.' "
15 So she went away and did according to the word of Elijah; and she and he and her household ate for many days.
16 The bin of flour was not used up, nor did the jar of oil run dry, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke by Elijah.

Elijah Revives the Widow's Son

17 Now it happened after these things that the son of the woman who owned the house became sick. And his sickness was so [1]serious that [2]there was no breath left in him.
18 So she said to Elijah, [a]"What have I to do with you, O man of God? Have you come to me to bring my sin to remembrance, and to kill my son?"
19 And he said to her, "Give me your son." So he took him out of her arms and carried him to the upper room where he was staying, and laid him on his own bed.
20 Then he cried out to the LORD and said, "O LORD my God, have You also brought tragedy on the widow with whom I lodge, by killing her son?"
21 [a]And he stretched himself out on the child three times, and cried out to the LORD and said, "O LORD my God, I pray, let this child's soul come back to him."
22 Then the LORD heard the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came back to him, and he [a]revived.

24 Then the woman said to Elijah, "Now by this [a]I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is the truth."

Actions Over Words

As we serve God, people will pay more attention to our actions than to our words. They may listen to what we say but most often it is what we do that convinces them we are God's servants (James 2:15, 16).

Elijah's Message to Ahab

CHAPTER 18

18 And it came to pass after [a]many days that the word of the LORD came to Elijah, in the third year, saying, "Go, present yourself to Ahab, and [b]I will send rain on the earth."
2 So Elijah went to present himself to Ahab; and there was a severe famine in Samaria.
3 And Ahab had called Obadiah, who was [1]in charge of his house. (Now Obadiah feared the LORD greatly.
4 For so it was, while Jezebel [1]massacred the prophets of the LORD, that Obadiah had taken one hundred prophets and hidden them, fifty to a cave, and had fed them with bread and water.)
5 And Ahab had said to Obadiah, "Go into the land to all the springs of water and to all the brooks; perhaps we may find grass to keep the horses and mules alive, so that we will not have to kill any livestock."
6 So they divided the land between them to explore it; Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.
7 Now as Obadiah was on his way, suddenly Elijah met him; and he [a]recognized him, and fell on his face, and said, "Is that you, my lord Elijah?"
8 And he answered him, "It is I. Go, tell your master, 'Elijah is here.' "
9 So he said, "How have I sinned, that you are delivering your servant into the hand of Ahab, to kill me?
10 "As the LORD your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my master has not sent someone to hunt for you; and when they said, 'He is not here,' he took an oath from the kingdom or nation that they could not find you.

11 "And now you say, 'Go, tell your master, "Elijah is here" '!
12 "And it shall come to pass, as soon as I am gone from you, that [a]the Spirit of the LORD will carry you to a place I do not know; so when I go and tell Ahab, and he cannot find you, he will kill me. But I your servant have feared the LORD from my youth.

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Kin. 18:12

From My Youth

A lifetime of following God prepares you for times of crisis and uncertainty. Though you may not always understand your situation, experience tells you God is trustworthy even unto death. You can find comfort in the security of a proven relationship with your God.

13 "Was it not reported to my lord what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of the LORD, how I hid one hundred men of the LORD's prophets, fifty to a cave, and fed them with bread and water?
14 "And now you say, 'Go, tell your master, "Elijah is here." ' He will kill me!"
15 Then Elijah said, "As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will surely present myself to him today."
16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him; and Ahab went to meet Elijah.
17 Then it happened, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said to him, [a]"Is that you, O [b]troubler of Israel?"
18 And he answered, "I have not troubled Israel, but you and your father's house have, [a]in that you have forsaken the commandments of the LORD and have followed the Baals.
19 "Now therefore, send and gather all Israel to me on [a]Mount Carmel, the four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal, [b]and the four hundred prophets of [1]Asherah, who [2]eat at Jezebel's table."

Elijah's Mount Carmel Victory

20 So Ahab sent for all the children of Israel, and [a]gathered the prophets together on Mount Carmel.
21 And Elijah came to all the people, and said, [a]"How long will you falter between two opinions? If the LORD is God, follow Him; but if Baal, [b]follow him." But the people answered him not a word.
22 Then Elijah said to the people, [a]"I alone am left a prophet of the LORD; [b]but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men.

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Kin. 18:21

Between Two Opinions

The world gives its counsel and the Bible states its truth. We must choose between these two. If we truly believe Jesus is Lord, our lives will verify our faith. We cannot live for the world and for God.

23 "Therefore let them give us two bulls; and let them choose one bull for themselves, cut it in pieces, and lay it on the wood, but put no fire under it; and I will prepare the other bull, and lay it on the wood, but put no fire under it.
24 "Then you call on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the LORD; and the God who [a]answers by fire, He is God." So all the people answered and said, [1]"It is well spoken."
25 Now Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, "Choose one bull for yourselves and prepare it first, for you are many; and call on the name of your god, but put no fire under it."
26 So they took the bull which was given them, and they prepared it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even till noon, saying, "O Baal, [1]hear us!" But there was [a]no voice; no one answered. Then they [2]leaped about the altar which they had made.
27 And so it was, at noon, that Elijah mocked them and said, "Cry [1]aloud, for he is a god; either he is meditating, or he is busy, or he is on a journey, or perhaps he is sleeping and must be awakened."
28 So they cried aloud, and [a]cut themselves, as was their custom, with [1]knives and lances, until the blood gushed out on them.
29 And when midday was past, [a]they prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice. But there was [b]no voice; no one answered, no one paid attention.
30 Then Elijah said to all the people, "Come near to me." So all the people came near to him. [a]And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down.
31 And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD had come, saying, [a]"Israel shall be your name."
32 Then with the stones he built an altar [a]in the name of the LORD; and he made a trench around the altar large enough to hold two seahs of seed.
33 And he [a]put the wood in order, cut the bull in pieces, and laid it on the wood, and said, "Fill four waterpots with water, and [b]pour it on the burnt sacrifice and on the wood."

34 Then he said, "Do it a second time," and they did it a second time; and he said, "Do it a third time," and they did it a third time.
35 So the water ran all around the altar; and he also filled [a]the trench with water.
36 And it came to pass, at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near and said, "LORD [a]God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, [b]let it be known this day that You are God in Israel and I am Your servant, and that [c]I have done all these things at Your word.
37 "Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that You are the LORD God, and that You have turned their hearts back to You again."
38 Then [a]the fire of the LORD fell and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood and the stones and the dust, and it licked up the water that was in the trench.
39 Now when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces; and they said, [a]"The LORD, He is God! The LORD, He is God!"
40 And Elijah said to them, [a]"Seize the prophets of Baal! Do not let one of them escape!" So they seized them; and Elijah brought them down to the Brook [b]Kishon and [c]executed them there.

The Drought Ends

41 Then Elijah said to Ahab, "Go up, eat and drink; for there is the sound of abundance of rain."
42 So Ahab went up to eat and drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; [a]then he bowed down on the ground, and put his face between his knees,
43 and said to his servant, "Go up now, look toward the sea." So he went up and looked, and said, "There is nothing." And seven times he said, "Go again."
44 Then it came to pass the seventh time, that he said, "There is a cloud, as small as a man's hand, rising out of the sea!" So he said, "Go up, say to Ahab, [1]'Prepare your chariot, and go down before the rain stops you.' "
45 Now it happened in the meantime that the sky became black with clouds and wind, and there was a heavy rain. So Ahab rode away and went to Jezreel.
46 Then the [a]hand of the LORD came upon Elijah; and he [b]girded[1] up his loins and ran ahead of Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

Elijah Escapes from Jezebel

19 And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, also how he had [a]executed all the prophets with the sword.
2 Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, [a]"So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I do not make your life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time."

CHARACTER*Study*

JEZEBEL

1 Kin. 19:2

Omri's international agreement with the Phoenician King Ethbaal was sealed by the marriage of Ahab and Jezebel. Marital alliances between royal families was not new among the Israelites: Solomon married Pharaoh's daughter as well as women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians, and Hittites (1 Kin. 11:1). No marriage has been condemned like Jezebel and Ahab's union.

Modern perceptions of Jezebel present the image of a painted woman, a manipulator of men who lived a horribly immoral lifestyle. However, Scripture condemns Jezebel for her involvement in public religious and political matters, not for private immorality. Her intrusive role in the political affairs of the country was what distinguished her from Solomon's foreign wives.

Biblical history blames Jezebel for the religious deficiencies of her royal spouse (1 Kin. 21:25), sons (2 Kin. 9:22), and her extended family. She represented the opposition to the sole worship of the Lord, fostered the worship of foreign gods, persecuted the Lord's prophets, and openly disregarded the rights of native Israelites. Therefore, her fate was prophesied by Elijah: "And concerning Jezebel the LORD also spoke, saying 'The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel'" (1 Kin. 21:23). The Phoenician princess wielded considerable power over the northern kingdom. Kings records her influence in a number of ways: She encouraged the worship of Canaanite fertility deities and sustained 450 prophets of Baal and 400 prophets of Asherah at her royal table (1 Kin. 18:19); she maintained the authority to persecute the rival prophets of the Lord, sending them into hiding (1 Kin. 18:4); her personal threats carried enough weight to cause the great prophet Elijah concern (1 Kin. 19:13); and she was powerful enough to have the innocent Naboth murdered with impunity (1 Kin. 21). The marriage between Ahab and Jezebel provided a strategic alliance for Israel; however, in the eyes of the biblical writers, the marriage was too costly to the social and religious life of Israel.

3 And when he saw that, he arose and ran for his life, and went to Beersheba, which belongs to Judah, and left his servant there.
4 But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a [1]broom tree. And he [a]prayed that he might die, and said, "It is enough! Now, LORD, take my life, for I am no better than my fathers!"
5 Then as he lay and slept under a broom tree, suddenly an [1]angel touched him, and said to him, "Arise and eat."
6 Then he looked, and there by his head was a cake baked on [1]coals, and a jar of water. So he ate and drank, and lay down again.
7 And the [1]angel of the LORD came back the second time, and touched him, and said, "Arise and eat, because the journey is too great for you."
8 So he arose, and ate and drank; and he went in the strength of that food forty days and [a]forty nights as far as [b]Horeb, the mountain of God.
9 And there he went into a cave, and spent the night in that place; and behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and He said to him, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"
10 So he said, [a]"I have been very [b]zealous for the LORD God of hosts; for the children of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, torn down Your altars, and [c]killed Your prophets with the sword. [d]I alone am left; and they seek to take my life."

God's Revelation to Elijah

11 Then He said, "Go out, and stand [a]on the mountain before the LORD." And behold, the LORD [b]passed by, and [c]a great and strong wind tore into the mountains and broke the rocks in pieces before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake;
12 and after the earthquake a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire; and after the fire [1]a still small voice.

Still Small Voice

Often, we expect God to visit us in spectacular ways or at large events. However, we must also learn to recognize God when He speaks in a still small voice. God's word is no less powerful when revealed in a whisper.

13 So it was, when Elijah heard it, that [a]he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood in the entrance of the cave. [b]Suddenly a voice came to him, and said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"
14 [a]And he said, "I have been very zealous for the LORD God of hosts; because the children of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, torn down Your altars, and killed Your prophets with the sword. I alone am left; and they seek to take my life."
15 Then the LORD said to him: "Go, return on your way to the Wilderness of Damascus; [a]and when you arrive, anoint Hazael as king over Syria.
16 "Also you shall anoint [a]Jehu the son of Nimshi as king over Israel. And [b]Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel Meholah you shall anoint as prophet in your place.
17 [a]"It shall be that whoever escapes the sword of Hazael, Jehu will [b]kill; and whoever escapes the sword of Jehu, [c]Elisha will kill.
18 [a]"Yet I have reserved seven thousand in Israel, all whose knees have not bowed to Baal, [b]and every mouth that has not kissed him."

Elisha Follows Elijah

19 So he departed from there, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he was with the twelfth. Then Elijah passed by him and threw his [a]mantle on him.
20 And he left the oxen and ran after Elijah, and said, [a]"Please let me kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you." And he said to him, "Go back again, for what have I done to you?"
21 So Elisha turned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen and slaughtered them and [a]boiled their flesh, using the oxen's equipment, and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he arose and followed Elijah, and became his servant.

Ahab Defeats the Syrians

20 Now [a]Ben-Hadad the king of Syria gathered all his forces together; thirty-two kings were with him, with horses and chariots. And he went up and besieged [b]Samaria, and made war against it.
2 Then he sent messengers into the city to Ahab king of Israel, and said to him, "Thus says Ben-Hadad:
3 'Your silver and your gold are mine; your loveliest wives and children are mine.' "

19:18 There is a stark difference between Elijah's perspective, found in verse ten, and God's reality revealed in this verse.

4 And the king of Israel answered and said, "My lord, O king, just as you say, I and all that I have are yours."
5 Then the messengers came back and said, "Thus speaks Ben-Hadad, saying, 'Indeed I have sent to you, saying, "You shall deliver to me your silver and your gold, your wives and your children";
6 'but I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, and they shall search your house and the houses of your servants. And it shall be, that whatever is [1]pleasant in your eyes, they will put in their hands and take it.' "
7 So the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, "Notice, please, and see how this man seeks trouble, for he sent to me for my wives, my children, my silver, and my gold; and I did not deny him."
8 And all the elders and all the people said to him, "Do not listen or consent."
9 Therefore he said to the messengers of Ben-Hadad, "Tell my lord the king, 'All that you sent for to your servant the first time I will do, but this thing I cannot do.' " And the messengers departed and brought back word to him.
10 Then Ben-Hadad sent to him and said, [a]"The gods do so to me, and more also, if enough dust is left of Samaria for a handful for each of the people [1]who follow me."
11 So the king of Israel answered and said, "Tell him, 'Let not the one who puts on his armor [a]boast like the one who takes it off.' "
12 And it happened when Ben-Hadad heard this message, as he and the kings were [a]drinking at the [1]command post, that he said to his servants, "Get ready." And they got ready to attack the city.
13 Suddenly a prophet approached Ahab king of Israel, saying, "Thus says the LORD: 'Have you seen all this great multitude? Behold, [a]I will deliver it into your hand today, and you shall know that I am the LORD.' "
14 So Ahab said, "By whom?" And he said, "Thus says the LORD: 'By the young leaders of the provinces.' " Then he said, "Who will set the battle in order?" And he answered, "You."
15 Then he mustered the young leaders of the provinces, and there were two hundred and thirty-two; and after them he mustered all the people, all the children of Israel—seven thousand.
16 So they went out at noon. Meanwhile Ben-Hadad and the thirty-two kings helping him were [a]getting drunk at the command post.
17 The young leaders of the provinces went out first. And Ben-Hadad sent out a patrol, and they told him, saying, "Men are coming out of Samaria!"
18 So he said, "If they have come out for peace, take them alive; and if they have come out for war, take them alive."
19 Then these young leaders of the provinces went out of the city with the army which followed them.
20 And each one killed his man; so the Syrians fled, and Israel pursued them; and Ben-Hadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse with the cavalry.
21 Then the king of Israel went out and attacked the horses and chariots, and killed the Syrians with a great slaughter.
22 And the prophet came to the king of Israel and said to him, "Go, strengthen yourself; take note, and see what you should do, [a]for [1]in the spring of the year the king of Syria will come up against you."

The Syrians Again Defeated

23 Then the servants of the king of Syria said to him, "Their gods are gods of the hills. Therefore they were stronger than we; but if we fight against them in the plain, surely we will be stronger than they.
24 "So do this thing: Dismiss the kings, each from his position, and put captains in their [1]places;
25 "and you shall muster an army like the army [1]that you have lost, horse for horse and chariot for chariot. Then we will fight against them in the plain; surely we will be stronger than they." And he listened to their voice and did so.
26 So it was, in the spring of the year, that Ben-Hadad mustered the Syrians and went up to [a]Aphek to fight against Israel.
27 And the children of Israel were mustered and given provisions, and they went against them. Now the children of Israel encamped before them like two little flocks of goats, while the Syrians filled the [a]countryside.
28 Then a [a]man of God came and spoke to the king of Israel, and said, "Thus says the LORD: 'Because the Syrians have said, "The LORD is God of the hills, but He is not God of the valleys," therefore [b]I will deliver all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am the LORD.' 20:6 The Aramean reply to "search your palaces and houses" meant they wanted the entire city handed over rather than merely some plunder.

20:11 This is a proverb meaning that preparing for war was one thing, but winning was another. These kinds of proverbs were often exchanged in the diplomatic discussions between nations before they engaged in battle.

God of All

God is not limited by geography, social class, people groups, or our beliefs. When people choose not to acknowledge God's unhindered rule, He may bring calamity upon them to show His authority and power.

29 And they encamped opposite each other for seven days. So it was that on the seventh day the battle was joined; and the children of Israel killed one hundred thousand foot soldiers of the Syrians in one day.
30 But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; then a wall fell on twenty-seven thousand of the men who were left. And Ben-Hadad fled and went into the city, into an inner chamber.

Ahab's Treaty with Ben-Hadad

31 Then his servants said to him, "Look now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings. Please, let us [a]put sackcloth around our waists and ropes around our heads, and go out to the king of Israel; perhaps he will spare your life."
32 So they wore sackcloth around their waists and put ropes around their heads, and came to the king of Israel and said, "Your servant Ben-Hadad says, 'Please let me live.' " And he said, "Is he still alive? He is my brother."
33 Now the men were watching closely to see whether any sign of mercy would come from him; and they quickly grasped at this word and said, "Your brother Ben-Hadad." So he said, "Go, bring him." Then Ben-Hadad came out to him; and he had him come up into the chariot.
34 So Ben-Hadad said to him, [a]"The cities which my father took from your father I will restore; and you may set up marketplaces for yourself in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria." Then Ahab said, "I will send you away with this treaty." So he made a treaty with him and sent him away.

Ahab Condemned

35 Now a certain man of [a]the sons of the prophets said to his neighbor [b]by the word of the LORD, "Strike me, please." And the man refused to strike him.
36 Then he said to him, "Because you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, surely, as soon as you depart from me, a lion shall kill you." And as soon as he left him, [a]a lion found him and killed him.
37 And he found another man, and said, "Strike me, please." So the man struck him, inflicting a wound.
38 Then the prophet departed and waited for the king by the road, and disguised himself with a bandage over his eyes.
39 Now [a]as the king passed by, he cried out to the king and said, "Your servant went out into the midst of the battle; and there, a man came over and brought a man to me, and said, 'Guard this man; if by any means he is missing, [b]your life shall be for his life, or else you shall [1]pay a talent of silver.'
40 "While your servant was busy here and there, he was gone." Then the king of Israel said to him, "So shall your judgment be; you yourself have decided it."
41 And he hastened to take the bandage away from his eyes; and the king of Israel recognized him as one of the prophets.
42 Then he said to him, "Thus says the LORD: [a]'Because you have let slip out of your hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore your life shall go for his life, and your people for his people.' "
43 So the king of Israel [a]went to his house sullen and displeased, and came to Samaria.

Naboth Is Murdered for His Vineyard

21 And it came to pass after these things that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard which was in [a]Jezreel, next to the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.
2 So Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, "Give me your [a]vineyard, that I may have it for a vegetable garden, because it is near, next to my house; and for it I will give you a vineyard better than it. Or, if it seems good to you, I will give you its worth in money."
3 But Naboth said to Ahab, "The LORD forbid [a]that I should give the inheritance of my fathers to you!"
4 So Ahab went into his house sullen and displeased because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him; for he had said, "I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers." And he lay down on his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no food.
5 But [a]Jezebel his wife came to him, and said to him, "Why is your spirit so sullen that you eat no food?"
6 He said to her, "Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite, and said to him, 'Give me your vineyard for money; or

7 Then Jezebel his wife said to him, "You now exercise authority over Israel! Arise, eat food, and let your heart be cheerful; I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite."
8 And she wrote letters in Ahab's name, sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters to the elders and the nobles who were dwelling in the city with Naboth.
9 She wrote in the letters, saying,

Proclaim a fast, and seat Naboth
[1]with high honor among the people;
10 and seat two men, scoundrels, before him to bear witness against him, saying, "You have [a]blasphemed

11 So the men of his city, the elders and nobles who were inhabitants of his city, did as Jezebel had sent to them, as it was written in the letters which she had sent to them.
12 [a]They proclaimed a fast, and seated Naboth with high honor among the people.
13 And two men, scoundrels, came in and sat before him; and the scoundrels [a]witnessed against him, against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, "Naboth has blasphemed God and the king!" [b]Then they took him outside the city and stoned him with stones, so that he died.
14 Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, "Naboth has been stoned and is dead."

15 And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, "Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money; for Naboth is not alive, but dead."
16 So it was, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab got up and went down to take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.

The LORD Condemns Ahab

20 So Ahab said to Elijah, [a]"Have you found me, O my enemy?" And he answered, "I have found you, because [b]you have sold yourself to do evil in the sight of the LORD:

AHAB

1 Kin. 21:2

The Book of 1 Kings appears to devote a large amount of space to the life of Ahab (chapters 16–22). However, the major focus is actually on the prophets Elijah and Elisha during Ahab's rule. Much of what we know about Ahab comes from extrabiblical sources and archaeological remains. He was the son of Omri, the military commander who became king of Israel (1 Kin. 16:16). He continued his father's successful international policies and massive building projects. Under Ahab, Israel remained a wealthy and mighty nation. Artifacts from sites such as Hazor, Megiddo, Jezreel, Dan, and Samaria indicate Ahab was the most aggressive builder in Israel's history until Herod the Great. Ancient inscriptions from Assyria, northern Israel, and Moab reveal that Ahab commanded a powerful military force that rivaled Damascus, occupied Moab, and successfully fought in a coalition against Assyria. Ahab was an able ruler and a brave leader. Even after an arrow struck him during battle he had his men prop him up in his chariot so he could encourage his troops (22:35). However, the Bible presents Ahab as a man of wavering loyalty to God and one who had strained relationships with God's prophets. Ahab worshipped God, gave his sons names that honored Him, sought the counsel of the prophet Elijah, and supported the destruction of the prophets of Baal and Asherah (18:20). On the other hand, he allowed his wife Jezebel to persecute God's prophets (18:13), he raised the worship of Baal to prominence (16:32), and he allowed corruption and murder against the people of Israel (21:1f). Ahab had the opportunity to follow after God and listen to the prophets. But his divided heart placed him in opposition to God, which resulted in his death and the demise of his household.

In View of the Lord

which you have provoked Me to anger, and made Israel sin.'
23 "And [a]concerning Jezebel the LORD also spoke, saying, 'The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the [1]wall of Jezreel.'
24 "The dogs shall eat [a]whoever belongs to Ahab and dies in the city, and the birds of the air shall eat whoever dies in the field."
25 But [a]there was no one like Ahab who sold himself to do wickedness in the sight of the LORD, [b]because Jezebel his wife [1]stirred him up.
26 And he behaved very abominably in following idols, according to all [a]that the Amorites had done, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.
27 So it was, when Ahab heard those words, that he tore his clothes and [a]put sackcloth on his body, and fasted and lay in sackcloth, and went about mourning.
28 And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,
29 "See how Ahab has humbled himself before Me? Because he [a]has humbled himself before Me, I will not bring the calamity in his days. [b]In the days of his son I will bring the calamity on his house."

Micaiah Warns Ahab

22 Now three years passed without war between Syria and Israel.
2 Then it came to pass, in the third year, that [a]Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went down to visit the king of Israel.
3 And the king of Israel said to his servants, "Do you know that [a]Ramoth in Gilead is ours, but we hesitate to take it out of the hand of the king of Syria?"
4 So he said to Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to fight at Ramoth Gilead?" Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, [a]"I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."
5 Also Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, [a]"Please inquire for the word of the LORD today."

7 And [a]Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not still a prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire of [1]Him?"
8 So the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom we may inquire of the LORD; but I hate him, because he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil." And Jehoshaphat said, "Let not the king say such things!"

Avoiding the Truth

It is sometimes tempting to avoid God's guidance because we know He would not condone our decisions or plans. However, choosing our own course without praying or studying God's word will ultimately lead to a state of sorrow and confusion.

9 Then the king of Israel called an officer and said, "Bring Micaiah the son of Imlah quickly!"
10 The king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, having put on their robes, sat each on his throne, at a threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them.
11 Now Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made [a]horns of iron for himself; and he said, "Thus says the LORD: 'With these you shall [b]gore the Syrians until they are destroyed.' "
12 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth Gilead and prosper, for the LORD will deliver it into the king's hand."
13 Then the messenger who had gone to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, "Now listen, the words of the prophets with one accord encourage the king. Please, let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak encouragement."
14 And Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, [a]whatever the LORD says to me, that I will speak."
15 Then he came to the king; and the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall 22:5 It was common practice to consult a prophet before entering battle. Seeking the prophet's counsel served to legitimize the campaign and to encourage the troops. It was usually assumed the prophets would speak positively concerning the king's desires. This made them little more than "yes men" to the king.

we refrain?" And he answered him, "Go and prosper, for the LORD will deliver it into the hand of the king!"
16 So the king said to him, "How many times shall I make you swear that you tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?"
17 Then he said, "I saw all Israel [a]scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. And the LORD said, 'These have no master. Let each return to his house in peace.' "
18 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?"
19 Then Micaiah said, "Therefore hear the word of the LORD: [a]I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, [b]and all the host of heaven standing by, on His right hand and on His left.
20 "And the LORD said, 'Who will persuade Ahab to go up, that he may fall at Ramoth Gilead?' So one spoke in this manner, and another spoke in that manner.
21 "Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD, and said, 'I will persuade him.'
22 "The LORD said to him, 'In what way?' So he said, 'I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' And the LORD said, [a]'You shall persuade him, and also prevail. Go out and do so.'
23 [a]"Therefore look! The LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these prophets of yours, and the LORD has declared disaster against you."
24 Now Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near and [a]struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, [b]"Which way did the spirit from the LORD go from me to speak to you?"
25 And Micaiah said, "Indeed, you shall see on that day when you go into an [a]inner chamber to hide!"
26 So the king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah, and return him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king's son;
27 "and say, 'Thus says the king: "Put this fellow in [a]prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and water of affliction, until I come in peace." ' "
28 But Micaiah said, "If you ever return in peace, [a]the LORD has not spoken by me." And he said, "Take heed, all you people!"

Ahab Dies in Battle

29 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead.
30 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into battle; but you put on your robes." So the king of Israel [a]disguised himself and went into battle.
31 Now the [a]king of Syria had commanded the thirty-two [b]captains of his chariots, saying, "Fight with no one small or great, but only with the king of Israel."
32 So it was, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, "Surely it is the king of Israel!" Therefore they turned aside to fight against him, and Jehoshaphat [a]cried out.
33 And it happened, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.
34 Now a certain man drew a bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of his armor. So he said to the driver of his chariot, "Turn around and take me out of the battle, for I am wounded."
35 The battle increased that day; and the king was propped up in his chariot, facing the Syrians, and died at evening. The blood ran out from the wound onto the floor of the chariot.
36 Then, as the sun was going down, a shout went throughout the army, saying, "Every man to his city, and every man to his own country!"
37 So the king died, and was brought to Samaria. And they buried the king in Samaria.
38 Then someone washed the chariot at a pool in Samaria, and the dogs licked up his blood while [1]the harlots bathed, according [a]to the word of the LORD which He had spoken.
39 Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, [a]the ivory house which he built and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
40 So Ahab [1]rested with his fathers. Then [a]Ahaziah his son reigned in his place.

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE KINGS

INTRODUCTION

Originally, First and Second Kings were together in one book. Translators of the Septuagint (the Greek translation of the Jewish Scriptures), divided them as a matter of convenience. Together, First and Second Kings provide a "royal history" of Israel. They record principal events and characteristics of the reigns of Israel's and Judah's kings, from the death of David to the release of Jehoiachin, the exiled Judahite king, from a Babylonian prison. The time span covered is approximately four hundred years. Currently, two distinct theories of authorship prevail. The first claims that a single author/compiler, an eyewitness to Jerusalem's fall, assembled the books during the sixth century B.C. The second is that Kings was composed by an author or authors who were also responsible for writing Joshua, Judges, and First and Second Samuel. These books are known as the Deuteronomistic History because of the obvious influence of the Book of Deuteronomy on them.

SIGNIFICANCE

Kings was written to the exiled Jews during the Babylonian period. While the primary audience was the Jewish population in Palestine, there were also Jewish communities in Egypt and Babylonia who would have had access to the work. The Jewish people were living in a tumultuous time. The Kingdom of Judah was in a state of devastation. The temple had been destroyed and David's royal line no longer controlled the nation. A general feeling of discontent and disorientation pervaded (Ezek. 18:25). Some complained they were being treated unfairly because of their ancestors' sins (Ps. 79; Lam. 5:7; Ezek. 18:2). Others understood God's judgment on Judah to be just, but they despaired under the weight of their guilt (Ezek. 33:10). The established institutions that once brought stability and hope, such as priest, king, prophet, and the holy city had been decimated. It is to this audience that Kings was directed. In this turbulent setting, the book addressed the following theological questions: What did defeat and exile mean for those who had believed themselves to be the Lord's chosen people? What was the relationship between the individual and the nation in matters of sin and punishment? What impact did Babylonian rule have on God's promise concerning the Davidic dynasty and the city of Jerusalem? The book of Kings was presented to a Jewish community facing a crisis of faith; these people had to respond or lose their identity.

STRUCTURE

Second Kings continues to present the history of the kingdoms of Israel and Judah. The material alternates between the two kingdoms, describing a number of years in one kingdom and then retracing the time period and providing the history of the other kingdom. Chapter 1 continues the account of Ahaziah's rule, depicting God's judgment upon the king through the prophet Elijah. Chapters 2–25 can be divided into three sections: Chapters 2–13 describe Elisha's ministry as a prophet, miracle worker, and king maker; chapters 14–17 cover the demise of Israel, culminating in the Assyrian destruction of the northern kingdom; chapters 18–25 present the disintegration of Judah and the beginning of the Babylonian exile.

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH 2 KINGS

This book extends the themes introduced in 1 Kings: God working through history, God's patience and grace, and God expressing His righteousness and justice towards His people. A stark contrast is presented between those who honoured God and those who did not.

The lives of Kings Hezekiah and Josiah portray how God blesses those who seek him. However, the accounts of kings Manasseh and Jehu demonstrate the serious consequences of disobedience. The sad history of both nations is a reminder that even after numerous encounters with God's grace, people still tend to wander from Him. Judah's failure to learn from Israel's mistakes is a caveat to all Christians. Throughout the book, God continues to warn His people to repent in order to avoid His judgment. He wants us to experience His forgiveness and restoration, not His wrath.

CHAPTER 1

MOAB [a]rebelled against Israel [b]after the death of Ahab.
2 Now [a]Ahaziah fell through the lattice of his upper room in Samaria, and was injured; so he sent messengers and said to them, "Go, inquire of [b]Baal-Zebub,[1] the god of [c]Ekron, whether I shall recover from this injury."
3 But the [1]angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, "Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say to them, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going to inquire of Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron?'

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Kin. 1:3

Is There No God?

The place we turn instinctively in a crisis reveals who, or what, our god really is. Our propensity should be to automatically seek God. He may bring others alongside to help us, but our hope lies in Him first and foremost.

4 "Now therefore, thus says the LORD: 'You shall not come down from the bed to which you have gone up, but you shall surely die.' " So Elijah departed.
5 And when the messengers returned to [1]him, he said to them, "Why have you come back?"
6 So they said to him, "A man came up to meet us, and said to us, 'Go, return to the king who sent you, and say to him, "Thus says the LORD: 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are sending to inquire of Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you shall not come down from the bed to which you have gone up, but you shall surely die.' " ' "
7 Then he said to them, "What kind of man was it who came up to meet you and told you these words?"
8 So they answered him, [a]"A hairy man wearing a leather belt around his waist." And he said, [b]"It is Elijah the Tishbite."
9 Then the king sent to him a captain of fifty with his fifty men. So he went up to him; and there he was, sitting on the top of a hill. And he spoke to him: "Man of God, the king has said, 'Come down!' "
10 So Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, "If I am a man of God, then [a]let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men." And fire came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty.
11 Then he sent to him another captain of fifty with his fifty men. And he answered and said to him: "Man of God, thus has the king said, 'Come down quickly!' "
12 So Elijah answered and said to them, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men." And the fire of God came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty.
13 Again, he sent a third captain of fifty with his fifty men. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and [1]fell on his knees before Elijah, and pleaded with him, and said to him: "Man of God, please let my life and the life of these fifty servants of yours [a]be precious in your sight.
14 "Look, fire has come down from heaven and burned up the first two captains of fifties with their fifties. But let my life now be precious in your sight."
15 And the [1]angel of the LORD said to Elijah, "Go down with him; do not be afraid of him." So he arose and went down with him to the king.
16 Then he said to him, "Thus says the LORD: 'Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron, is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of His word? Therefore you shall not come down from the bed to

1:10 Fire from heaven was a form of God's judgment (Gen. 19:24). Ironically, Baal was purportedly the god of the storm, yet it was the Lord who sent fire from the sky.

17 So Ahaziah died according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. Because he had no son, [a]Jehoram[1] became king in his place, in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah.
18 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

Elijah Ascends to Heaven

2 And it came to pass, when the LORD was about to [a]take up Elijah into heaven by a whirlwind, that Elijah went with [b]Elisha from Gilgal.
2 Then Elijah said to Elisha, [a]"Stay here, please, for the LORD has sent me on to Bethel." But Elisha said, "As the LORD lives, and [b]as your soul lives, I will not leave you!" So they went down to Bethel.
3 Now [a]the sons of the prophets who were at Bethel came out to Elisha, and said to him, "Do you know that the LORD will take away your master [1]from over you today?" And he said, "Yes, I know; keep silent!"
4 Then Elijah said to him, "Elisha, stay here, please, for the LORD has sent me on to Jericho." But he said, "As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you!" So they came to Jericho.
5 Now the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho came to Elisha and said to him, "Do you know that the LORD will take away your master from over you today?" So he answered, "Yes, I know; keep silent!"
6 Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here, please, for the LORD has sent me on to the Jordan." But he said, "As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you!" So the two of them went on.
7 And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went and stood facing them at a distance, while the two of them stood by the Jordan.
8 Now Elijah took his mantle, rolled it up, and struck the water; and [a]it was divided this way and that, so that the two of them crossed over on dry [b]ground.
9 And so it was, when they had crossed over, that Elijah said to Elisha, "Ask! What may I do for you, before I am taken away from you?" Elisha said, "Please let a double portion of your spirit be upon me."

Unfamiliar Territory

Following God is not always easy. Sometimes it takes us away from home and its comforts. But though we leave behind the security of familiar things, God is there and He asks us, "What may I do for you?"

10 So he said, "You have asked a hard thing. Nevertheless, if you see me when I am taken from you, it shall be so for you; but if not, it shall not be so."
11 Then it happened, as they continued on and talked, that suddenly [a]a chariot of fire appeared with horses of fire, and separated the two of them; and Elijah [b]went up by a whirlwind into heaven.

ELISHA

2 Kin. 2:1

Elisha, whose name means "My God is Salvation," served as God's prophet for over fifty years during the ninth century B.C. Elisha was the son of Shaphat of Abel-mehola (1 Kin. 19:19). He apparently came from a wealthy family, as they farmed with twelve yoke of oxen. Elisha was in the midst of his work when the prophet Elijah passed by and called him into prophetic service. Elisha's tenacity in following Elijah gave him the opportunity to ask his mentor for a double portion of Elijah's spirit (2 Kin. 2:2, 4, 6, 9). In assuming Elijah's mantle, Elisha became a great prophet who anointed kings (8:7–15; 9:1–13), outmaneuvered armies (6:8—7:20), raised the dead (4:8–37) and healed leprosy (5:1–27). Elisha headed schools of prophets and was a guest of both kings and peasants. He lived during the reigns of some of northern Israel's most notorious kings: Ahab, Ahaziah, Jehoram, Jehu, Jehoahaz and Jehoash. God honored His faithful prophet, defending his name (2:23, 24), and even using his corpse to bring life to the dead (13:21). Elisha demonstrated the enormous influence one person could exert upon nations when endued by God's Spirit and choosing to walk humbly before Him.

2:2 Elisha is told three times to stay where he is, and three times he swears his allegiance to follow Elijah (vv. 2, 4, 6). This threefold profession of dedication parallels Peter's response to Jesus. In both cases a greater assignment follows the declaration of loyalty (John 21:15–19).

2:9 In asking for a "double portion" of Elijah's spirit, Elisha was not asking to be more powerful than his mentor, but rather he desired to be recognized as the rightful heir to his prophetic ministry (Deut. 21:17).

12 And Elisha saw it, and he cried out, [a]"My father, my father, the chariot of Israel and its horsemen!" So he saw him no more. And he took hold of his own clothes and tore them into two pieces.
13 He also took up the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and went back and stood by the bank of the Jordan.
14 Then he took the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and struck the water, and said, "Where is the LORD God of Elijah?" And when he also had struck the water, [a]it was divided this way and that; and Elisha crossed over.
15 Now when the sons of the prophets who were [a]from[1] Jericho saw him, they said, "The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha." And they came to meet him, and bowed to the ground before him.
16 Then they said to him, "Look now, there are fifty strong men with your servants. Please let them go and search for your master, [a]lest perhaps the Spirit of the LORD has taken him up and cast him upon some mountain or into some valley." And he said, "You shall not send anyone."
17 But when they urged him till he was [a]ashamed, he said, "Send them!" Therefore they sent fifty men, and they searched for three days but did not find him.
18 And when they came back to him, for he had stayed in Jericho, he said to them, "Did I not say to you, 'Do not go'?"

Elisha Performs Miracles

19 Then the men of the city said to Elisha, "Please notice, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord sees; but the water is bad, and the ground barren."
20 And he said, "Bring me a new bowl, and put salt in it." So they brought it to him.
21 Then he went out to the source of the water, and [a]cast in the salt there, and said, "Thus says the LORD: 'I have [1]healed this water; from it there shall be no more death or barrenness.' "
22 So the water remains [a]healed to this day, according to the word of Elisha which he spoke.
23 Then he went up from there to Bethel; and as he was going up the road, some youths came from the city and mocked him, and said to him, "Go up, you baldhead! Go up, you baldhead!"
24 So he turned around and looked at them, and [a]pronounced a curse on them in the name of the LORD. And two female bears came out of the woods and mauled forty-two of the youths.
25 Then he went from there to [a]Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

Moab Rebels Against Israel

3 Now [a]Jehoram the son of Ahab became king over Israel at Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years.
2 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, but not like his father and mother; for he put away the sacred pillar of Baal [a]that his father had made.
3 Nevertheless he persisted in [a]the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin; he did not depart from them.
4 Now Mesha king of Moab was a sheepbreeder, and he [a]regularly paid the king of Israel one hundred thousand [b]lambs and the wool of one hundred thousand rams.
5 But it happened, when [a]Ahab died, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.
6 So King Jehoram went out of Samaria at that time and mustered all Israel.
7 Then he went and sent to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, saying, "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me to fight against Moab?" And he said, "I will go up; [a]I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."
8 Then he said, "Which way shall we go up?" And he answered, "By way of the Wilderness of Edom."
9 So the king of Israel went with the king of Judah and the king of Edom, and they marched on that roundabout route seven days; and there was no water for the army, nor for the animals that followed them.
10 And the king of Israel said, "Alas! For the LORD has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab."
11 But [a]Jehoshaphat said, "Is there no prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire of the LORD by him?" So one of the servants of the king of Israel answered and said, "Elisha the son of Shaphat is here, who [b]poured[1] water on the hands of Elijah."
12 And Jehoshaphat said, "The word of the LORD is with him." So the king of Is-

A Godly Reputation

Do people turn to you for help in times of crisis? Perhaps they see in you God's presence and they know you will share godly wisdom. If you are one to whom God entrusts hurting hearts, then you are richly blessed.

13 Then Elisha said to the king of Israel, [a]"What have I to do with you? [b]Go to [c]the prophets of your father and the [d]prophets of your mother." But the king of Israel said to him, "No, for the LORD has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab."
14 And Elisha said, [a]"As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, surely were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, I would not look at you, nor see you.
15 "But now bring me [a]a musician." Then it happened, when the musician [b]played, that [c]the hand of the LORD came upon him.
16 And he said, "Thus says the LORD: [a]'Make this valley full of [1]ditches.'
17 "For thus says the LORD: 'You shall not see wind, nor shall you see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, so that you, your cattle, and your animals may drink.'
18 "And this is a simple matter in the sight of the LORD; He will also deliver the Moabites into your hand.
19 "Also you shall attack every fortified city and every choice city, and shall cut down every good tree, and stop up every spring of water, and ruin every good piece of land with stones."
20 Now it happened in the morning, when [a]the grain offering was offered, that suddenly water came by way of Edom, and the land was filled with water.
21 And when all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, all who were able to bear arms and older were [1]gathered; and they stood at the border.
22 Then they rose up early in the morning, and the sun was shining on the water; and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood.
23 And they said, "This is blood; the kings have surely struck swords and have killed one another; now therefore, Moab, to the spoil!"
24 So when they came to the camp of Israel, Israel rose up and attacked the Moabites, so that they fled before them; and they entered their land, killing the Moabites.
25 Then they destroyed the cities, and each man threw a stone on every good piece of land and filled it; and they stopped up all the springs of water and cut down all the good trees. But they left the stones of [a]Kir Haraseth intact. However the slingers surrounded and attacked it.
26 And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too fierce for him, he took with him seven hundred men who drew swords, to break through to the king of Edom, but they could not.
27 Then [a]he took his eldest son who would have reigned in his place, and offered him as a burnt offering upon the wall; and there was great [1]indignation against Israel. [b]So they departed from him and returned to their own land.

Elisha and the Widow's Oil

CHAPTER 4

4 A certain woman of the wives of [a]the sons of the prophets cried out to Elisha, saying, "Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that your servant feared the LORD. And the creditor is coming [b]to take my two sons to be his slaves."
2 So Elisha said to her, "What shall I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?" And she said, "Your maidservant has nothing in the house but a jar of oil."
3 Then he said, "Go, borrow vessels from everywhere, from all your neighbors—empty vessels; [a]do not gather just a few.
4 "And when you have come in, you shall shut the door behind you and your sons; then pour it into all those vessels, and set aside the full ones."
5 So she went from him and shut the door behind her and her sons, who brought the vessels to her; and she poured it out.
6 Now it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said to her son, "Bring me another vessel." And he said to her, "There is not another vessel." So the oil ceased.
7 Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, "Go, sell the oil and pay your debt; and you and your sons live on the rest."

Elisha Raises the Shunammite's Son

8 Now it happened one day that Elisha went to [a]Shunem, where there was a [1]notable woman, and she [2]persuaded him to eat some food. So it was, as often as he passed by, he would turn in there to eat some food.
9 And she said to her husband, "Look now, I know that this is a holy man of God, who passes by us regularly.
10 "Please, let us make [1]a small upper room on the wall; and let us put a bed for him there, and a table and a chair and a lampstand; so it will be, whenever he comes to us, he can turn in there."
11 And it happened one day that he came there, and he turned in to the upper room and lay down there.
12 Then he said to [a]Gehazi his servant, "Call this Shunammite woman." When he had called her, she stood before him.
13 And he said to him, "Say now to her, 'Look, you have been concerned for us with all this care. What can I do for you? Do you want me to speak on your behalf to the king or to the commander of the army?' " She answered, "I dwell among my own people."
14 So he said, "What then is to be done for her?" And Gehazi answered, "Actually, she has no son, and her husband is old."
15 So he said, "Call her." When he had called her, she stood in the doorway.
16 Then he said, [1]"About this time next year you shall embrace a son." And she said, "No, my lord. Man of God, [a]do not lie to your maidservant!"

Desires of the Heart

Sometimes it is hard to accept God's blessing. For whatever reason, we feel certain God will not give us our heart's desires. Perhaps we feel undeserving, or the gift seems impossible, but we must remember who God is and how much He loves us.

17 But the woman conceived, and bore a son when the appointed time had come, of which Elisha had told her.
18 And the child grew. Now it happened one day that he went out to his father, to the reapers.
19 And he said to his father, "My head, my head!" So he said to a servant, "Carry him to his mother."
20 When he had taken him and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then died.
21 And she went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, shut the door upon him, and went out.
22 Then she called to her husband, and said, "Please send me one of the young men and one of the donkeys, that I may run to the man of God and come back."
23 So he said, "Why are you going to him today? It is neither the [a]New Moon nor the Sabbath." And she said, [1]"It is well."
24 Then she saddled a donkey, and said to her servant, "Drive, and go forward; do not slacken the pace for me unless I tell you."
25 And so she departed, and went to the man of God [a]at Mount Carmel.

So it was, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to his servant Gehazi, "Look, the Shunammite woman!
26 "Please run now to meet her, and say to her, 'Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with the child?' " And she answered, "It is well."
27 Now when she came to the man of God at the hill, she caught him by the feet, but Gehazi came near to push her away. But the man of God said, "Let her alone; for her soul is in deep distress, and the LORD has hidden it from me, and has not told me."
28 So she said, "Did I ask a son of my lord? [a]Did I not say, 'Do not deceive me'?"
29 Then he said to Gehazi, [a]"Get[1] yourself ready, and take my staff in your hand, and be on your way. If you meet anyone, [b]do not greet him; and if anyone greets you, do not answer him; but [c]lay my staff on the face of the child."
30 And the mother of the child said, [a]"As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not [b]leave you." So he arose and followed her.
31 Now Gehazi went on ahead of them, and laid the staff on the face of the child; but there was neither voice nor hearing. Therefore he went back to meet him, and told him, saying, "The child has [a]not awakened."
32 When Elisha came into the house, there was the child, lying dead on his bed.
33 He [a]went in therefore, shut the door behind the two of them, [b]and prayed to the LORD.
34 And he went up and lay on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth, his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands; and [a]he stretched himself out on the

35 He returned and walked back and forth in the house, and again went up [a]and stretched himself out on him; then [b]the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes.
36 And he called Gehazi and said, "Call this Shunammite woman." So he called her. And when she came in to him, he said, "Pick up your son."
37 So she went in, fell at his feet, and bowed to the ground; then she [a]picked up her son and went out.

Elisha Purifies the Pot of Stew

38 And Elisha returned to [a]Gilgal, and there was a [b]famine in the land. Now the sons of the prophets were [c]sitting before him; and he said to his servant, "Put on the large pot, and boil stew for the sons of the prophets."
39 So one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered from it a lapful of wild gourds, and came and sliced them into the pot of stew, though they did not know what they were.
40 Then they served it to the men to eat. Now it happened, as they were eating the stew, that they cried out and said, "Man of God, there is [a]death in the pot!" And they could not eat it.
41 So he said, "Then bring some flour." And [a]he put it into the pot, and said, "Serve it to the people, that they may eat." And there was nothing harmful in the pot.

Elisha Feeds One Hundred Men

42 Then a man came from [a]Baal Shalisha, [b]and brought the man of God bread of the firstfruits, twenty loaves of barley bread, and newly ripened grain in his knapsack. And he said, "Give it to the people, that they may eat."
43 But his servant said, [a]"What? Shall I set this before one hundred men?" He said again, "Give it to the people, that they may eat; for thus says the LORD: [b]'They shall eat and have some left over.' "
44 So he set it before them; and they ate [a]and had some left over, according to the word of the LORD.

Naaman's Leprosy Healed

5 Now [a]Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Syria, was [b]a great and honorable man in the eyes of his master, because by him the LORD had given victory to Syria. He was also a mighty man of valor, but a leper.
2 And the Syrians had gone out [a]on[1] raids, and had brought back captive a young girl from the land of Israel. She [2]waited on Naaman's wife.
3 Then she said to her mistress, "If only my master were with the prophet who is in Samaria! For he would heal him of his leprosy."
4 And Naaman went in and told his master, saying, "Thus and thus said the girl who is from the land of Israel."
5 Then the king of Syria said, "Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel." So he departed and [a]took with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold, and ten changes of clothing.
6 Then he brought the letter to the king of Israel, which said,

> Now be advised, when this letter comes to you, that I have sent Naaman my servant to you, that you may heal him of his leprosy.

7 And it happened, when the king of Israel read the letter, that he tore his clothes and said, "Am I [a]God, to kill and make alive, that this man sends a man to me to heal him of his leprosy? Therefore please consider, and see how he seeks a quarrel with me."
8 So it was, when Elisha the man of God

NAAMAN

2 Kin. 5:1

Naaman was commander of the Syrian (Aram-Damascus) military during the time his country was in continual conflict with Israel (1 Kin. 20; 22). He was a brave soldier, a "man's man." He was extremely successful, and as a result he held the favor of his king. It was humiliating to be stricken with leprosy, a degrading disease. But God had a purpose, even in Naaman's illness. Through the prophet Elisha and through a servant girl, this proud warrior learned to trust humbly in the one true God.

heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, "Why have you torn your clothes? Please let him come to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel."
9 Then Naaman went with his horses and chariot, and he stood at the door of Elisha's house.
10 And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go and [a]wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored to you, and you shall be clean."
11 But Naaman became furious, and went away and said, "Indeed, I said to myself, 'He will surely come out to me, and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, and wave his hand over the place, and heal the leprosy.'
12 "Are not the [1]Abanah and the Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them and be clean?" So he turned and went away in a rage.
13 And his [a]servants came near and spoke to him, and said, "My father, if the prophet had told you to do something great, would you not have done it? How much more then, when he says to you, 'Wash, and be clean'?"

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Kin. 5:13

Pride

Pride robs us. Only when we humble ourselves are we in a position to receive and appreciate God's blessings.

14 So he went down and dipped seven times in the Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God; and his [a]flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and [b]he was clean.
15 And he returned to the man of God, he and all his aides, and came and stood before him; and he said, "Indeed, now I know that there is [a]no God in all the earth, except in Israel; now therefore, please take [b]a gift from your servant."
16 But he said, [a]"As the LORD lives, before whom I stand, [b]I will receive nothing." And he urged him to take it, but he refused.
17 So Naaman said, "Then, if not, please let your servant be given two mule-loads of earth; for your servant will no longer offer either burnt offering or sacrifice to other gods, but to the LORD.
18 "Yet in this thing may the LORD pardon your servant: when my master goes into the temple of Rimmon to worship there, and [a]he leans on my hand, and I bow down in the temple of Rimmon—when I bow down in the temple of Rimmon, may the LORD please pardon your servant in this thing."
19 Then he said to him, "Go in peace." So he departed from him a short distance.

Gehazi's Greed

20 But [a]Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, "Look, my master has spared Naaman this Syrian, while not receiving from his hands what he brought; but as the LORD lives, I will run after him and take something from him."
21 So Gehazi pursued Naaman. When Naaman saw him running after him, he got down from the chariot to meet him, and said, "Is all well?"
22 And he said, "All is [a]well. My master has sent me, saying, 'Indeed, just now two young men of the sons of the prophets have come to me from the mountains of Ephraim. Please give them a talent of silver and two changes of garments.' "
23 So Naaman said, "Please, take two talents." And he urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and handed them to two of his servants; and they carried them on ahead of him.
24 When he came to [1]the citadel, he took them from their hand, and stored them away in the house; then he let the men go, and they departed.
25 Now he went in and stood before his master. Elisha said to him, "Where did you go, Gehazi?" And he said, "Your servant did not go anywhere."
26 Then he said to him, "Did not my heart go with you when the man turned back from his chariot to meet you? Is it [a]time to receive money and to receive clothing, olive groves and vineyards, sheep and oxen, male and female servants?
27 "Therefore the leprosy of Naaman [a]shall cling to you and your descendants forever." And he went out from his presence [b]leprous, as white as snow.

The Floating Ax Head

6 And [a]the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, "See now, the place where we dwell with you is too small for us.

5:18 Rimmon, meaning "Pomegranate," probably referred to Ramman, meaning "Thunderer" who was the Syrian version of Baal.

5:20 Gehazi means "Avaricious," a name he lived up to during his encounter with Naaman.

5:23 A talent of silver would have been worth three thousand shekels, roughly seventy pounds.

2 "Please, let us go to the Jordan, and let every man take a beam from there, and let us make there a place where we may dwell." So he answered, "Go."
3 Then one said, [a]"Please consent to go with your servants." And he answered, "I will go."
4 So he went with them. And when they came to the Jordan, they cut down trees.
5 But as one was cutting down a tree, the iron ax head fell into the water; and he cried out and said, "Alas, master! For it was [a]borrowed."
6 So the man of God said, "Where did it fall?" And he showed him the place. So [a]he cut off a stick, and threw it in there; and he made the iron float.
7 Therefore he said, "Pick it up for yourself." So he reached out his hand and took it.

The Blinded Syrians Captured

8 Now the [a]king of Syria was making war against Israel; and he consulted with his servants, saying, "My camp will be in such and such a place."
9 And the man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, "Beware that you do not pass this place, for the Syrians are coming down there."
10 Then the king of Israel sent someone to the place of which the man of God had told him. Thus he warned him, and he was watchful there, not just once or twice.
11 Therefore the heart of the king of Syria was greatly troubled by this thing; and he called his servants and said to them, "Will you not show me which of us is for the king of Israel?"
12 And one of his servants said, "None, my lord, O king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom."
13 So he said, "Go and see where he is, that I may send and get him." And it was told him, saying, "Surely he is in [a]Dothan."
14 Therefore he sent horses and chariots and a great army there, and they came by night and surrounded the city.
15 And when the servant of the man of God arose early and went out, there was an army, surrounding the city with horses and chariots. And his servant said to him, "Alas, my master! What shall we do?"
16 So he answered, [a]"Do not fear, for [b]those who are with us are more than those who are with them."

Confidence in the Lord

God's presence in our lives is not a doctrine to believe but a reality to be lived out. Every decision we make takes place in the context of almighty God's tangible presence in our midst.

17 And Elisha prayed, and said, "LORD, I pray, open his eyes that he may see." Then the LORD [a]opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw. And behold, the mountain was full of [b]horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.
18 So when the Syrians came down to him, Elisha prayed to the LORD, and said, "Strike this people, I pray, with blindness." And [a]He struck them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.
19 Now Elisha said to them, "This is not the way, nor is this the city. Follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom you seek." But he led them to Samaria.
20 So it was, when they had come to Samaria, that Elisha said, "LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see." And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and there they were, inside Samaria!
21 Now when the king of Israel saw them, he said to Elisha, "My [a]father, shall I kill them? Shall I kill them?"
22 But he answered, "You shall not kill them. Would you kill those whom you have taken captive with your sword and your bow? [a]Set food and water before them, that they may eat and drink and go to their master."
23 Then he prepared a great feast for them; and after they ate and drank, he sent them away and they went to their master. So [a]the bands of Syrian raiders came no more into the land of Israel.

Syria Besieges Samaria in Famine

24 And it happened after this that [a]Ben-Hadad king of Syria gathered all his army, and went up and besieged Samaria.
25 And there was a great [a]famine in Samaria; and indeed they besieged it until a donkey's head was sold for eighty shekels of silver, and one-fourth of a [1]kab of dove droppings for five shekels of silver.
26 Then, as the king of Israel was pass-

6:5 First Samuel 13:19–21 indicates there was no blacksmith in all Israel and that the Philistines regulated the country's iron works. The Israelites were forced to go to the Philistines and pay high prices to have their iron tools sharpened. A poor prophet would not have had the means to replace a tool of such high value.
6:13 Dothan was in the central highlands of Israel (Gen. 37:17).

ing by on the wall, a woman cried out to him, saying, "Help, my lord, O king!"
27 And he said, "If the LORD does not help you, where can I find help for you? From the threshing floor or from the winepress?"
28 Then the king said to her, "What is troubling you?" And she answered, "This woman said to me, 'Give your son, that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.'
29 "So [a]we boiled my son, and ate him. And I said to her on the next day, 'Give your son, that we may eat him'; but she has hidden her son."
30 Now it happened, when the king heard the words of the woman, that he [a]tore his clothes; and as he passed by on the wall, the people looked, and there underneath he had sackcloth on his body.
31 Then he said, [a]"God do so to me and more also, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat remains on him today!"
32 But Elisha was sitting in his house, and [a]the elders were sitting with him. And the king sent a man ahead of him, but before the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, [b]"Do you see how this son of [c]a murderer has sent someone to take away my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door, and hold him fast at the door. Is not the sound of his master's feet behind him?"
33 And while he was still talking with them, there was the messenger, coming down to him; and then the king said, "Surely this calamity is from the LORD; [a]why should I wait for the LORD any longer?"

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Kin. 6:33

Wait on the Lord

Sometimes a situation looks hopeless, and we may assume God must not care about us. We have no idea how close God's answer may be. Don't give up! Today may be the day God does a miracle in your life!

7 Then Elisha said, "Hear the word of the LORD. Thus says the LORD: [a]'Tomorrow about this time a [1]seah of fine flour shall be sold for a shekel, and two seahs of barley for a shekel, at the gate of Samaria.' "
2 [a]So an officer on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God and said, "Look, [b]if the LORD would make windows in heaven, could this thing be?" And he said, "In fact, you shall see it with your eyes, but you shall not eat of it."

The Syrians Flee

3 Now there were four leprous men [a]at the entrance of the gate; and they said to one another, "Why are we sitting here until we die?
4 "If we say, 'We will enter the city,' the famine is in the city, and we shall die there. And if we sit here, we die also. Now therefore, come, let us surrender to the [a]army of the Syrians. If they keep us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall only die."
5 And they rose at twilight to go to the camp of the Syrians; and when they had come to the outskirts of the Syrian camp, to their surprise no one was there.
6 For the Lord had caused the army of the Syrians [a]to hear the noise of chariots and the noise of horses—the noise of a great army; so they said to one another, "Look, the king of Israel has hired against us [b]the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the Egyptians to attack us!"
7 Therefore they [a]arose and fled at twilight, and left the camp intact—their tents, their horses, and their donkeys—and they fled for their lives.
8 And when these lepers came to the outskirts of the camp, they went into one tent and ate and drank, and carried from it silver and gold and clothing, and went and hid them; then they came back and entered another tent, and carried some from there also, and went and hid it.
9 Then they said to one another, "We are not doing right. This day is a day of good news, and we remain silent. If we wait until morning light, some [1]punishment will come upon us. Now therefore, come, let us go and tell the king's household."

6:30 Tearing clothes and wearing sackcloth were methods of mourning in Old Testament times (2 Sam. 1:2; 3:31; 21:10). In doing this, the king was identifying with the peoples' plight during the siege of the city. Sackcloth also symbolized penitence which the people believed was necessary to bring God's favor and deliverance from their troubles.

7:1 A seah was one third of an ephah or roughly one bushel.

10 So they went and called to the gatekeepers of the city, and told them, saying, "We went to the Syrian camp, and surprisingly no one was there, not a human sound—only horses and donkeys tied, and the tents intact."
11 And the gatekeepers called out, and they told it to the king's household inside.
12 So the king arose in the night and said to his servants, "Let me now tell you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we are [a]hungry; therefore they have gone out of the camp to [1]hide themselves in the field, saying, 'When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and get into the city.' "
13 And one of his servants answered and said, "Please, let several men take five of the remaining horses which are left in the city. Look, they may either become like all the multitude of Israel that are left in it; or indeed, I say, they may become like all the multitude of Israel left from those who are consumed; so let us send them and see."
14 Therefore they took two chariots with horses; and the king sent them in the direction of the Syrian army, saying, "Go and see."
15 And they went after them to the Jordan; and indeed all the road was full of garments and weapons which the Syrians had thrown away in their haste. So the messengers returned and told the king.
16 Then the people went out and plundered the tents of the Syrians. So a seah of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two seahs of barley for a shekel, [a]according to the word of the LORD.
17 Now the king had appointed the officer on whose hand he leaned to have charge of the gate. But the people trampled him in the gate, and he died, just [a]as the man of God had said, who spoke when the king came down to him.
18 So it happened just as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, [a]"Two seahs of barley for a shekel, and a seah of fine flour for a shekel, shall be sold tomorrow about this time in the gate of Samaria."
19 Then that officer had answered the man of God, and said, "Now look, if the LORD would make windows in heaven, could such a thing be?" And he had said, "In fact, you shall see it with your eyes, but you shall not eat of it."

The King Restores the Shunammite's Land

CHAPTER 8

8 Then Elisha spoke to the woman [a]whose son he had restored to life, saying, "Arise and go, you and your household, and stay wherever you can; for the LORD [b]has called for a [c]famine, and furthermore, it will come upon the land for seven years."
2 So the woman arose and did according to the saying of the man of God, and she went with her household and dwelt in the land of the Philistines seven years.

ENCOUNTER Note — 2 Kin. 8:2

Obedience that Preserves Others

It is not unusual for God to guide an entire family by His word to one person. When God gives you guidance, remember that your faithfulness and obedience may determine the protection and wellbeing of those in your care.

3 It came to pass, at the end of seven years, that the woman returned from the land of the Philistines; and she went to make an appeal to the king for her house and for her land.

WORD Study — APPEAL

2 Kin. 8:3 "Appeal" translates the Hebrew tsa`aq, which meant to cry out in distress or need. The term was frequently associated with the abused or the poor. When the oppressed "cry out" to the Lord against their abusers He hears and acts on their behalf (Ex. 22:23, 27; Ps. 5:2, 3; 55:16, 17; 57:2).

4 Then the king talked with [a]Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, saying, "Tell me, please, all the great things Elisha has done."
5 Now it happened, as he was telling the king how he had restored the dead to life, that there was the woman whose son he had [a]restored to life, appealing to the king for her house and for her land. And Gehazi said, "My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son whom Elisha restored to life."

8:1 God often used famine as a means of judgment. Famine was the Israelites' curse for breaking the covenant (Lev. 26:26–29; Deut. 28:56, 57; Jer. 15:2; Amos 4:6). The Hebrew people were frequently punished for following Canaanite gods, fertility gods thought to be responsible for agricultural success. When the Lord brought a drought, He was reminding the Israelites that He alone controlled the weather.

6 And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed a certain officer for her, saying, "Restore all that was hers, and all the proceeds of the field from the day that she left the land until now."

Death of Ben-Hadad

7 Then Elisha went to Damascus, and [a]Ben-Hadad king of Syria was sick; and it was told him, saying, "The man of God has come here."
8 And the king said to [a]Hazael, [b]"Take a present in your hand, and go to meet the man of God, and [c]inquire of the LORD by him, saying, 'Shall I recover from this disease?' "
9 So [a]Hazael went to meet him and took a present with him, of every good thing of Damascus, forty camel-loads; and he came and stood before him, and said, "Your son Ben-Hadad king of Syria has sent me to you, saying, 'Shall I recover from this disease?' "
10 And Elisha said to him, "Go, say to him, 'You shall certainly recover.' However the LORD has shown me that [a]he will really die."
11 Then he [1]set his countenance in a stare until he was ashamed; and the man of God [a]wept.
12 And Hazael said, "Why is my lord weeping?" He answered, "Because I know [a]the evil that you will do to the children of Israel: Their strongholds you will set on fire, and their young men you will kill with the sword; and you [b]will dash their children, and rip open their women with child."
13 So Hazael said, "But what [a]is your servant—a dog, that he should do this gross thing?" And Elisha answered, [b]"The LORD has shown me that you will become king over Syria."
14 Then he departed from Elisha, and came to his master, who said to him, "What did Elisha say to you?" And he answered, "He told me you would surely recover."
15 But it happened on the next day that he took a thick cloth and dipped it in water, and spread it over his face so that he died; and Hazael reigned in his place.

Jehoram Reigns in Judah

16 Now [a]in the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab, king of Israel, Jehoshaphat having been king of Judah, [b]Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat began to reign as [1]king of Judah.
17 He was [a]thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.
18 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab had done, for [a]the daughter of Ahab was his wife; and he did evil in the sight of the LORD.
19 Yet the LORD would not destroy Judah, for the sake of His servant David, [a]as He promised him to give a lamp to him and his sons forever.
20 In his days [a]Edom revolted against Judah's authority, [b]and made a king over themselves.
21 So [1]Joram went to Zair, and all his chariots with him. Then he rose by night and attacked the Edomites who had surrounded him and the captains of the chariots; and the troops fled to their tents.
22 Thus Edom has been in revolt against Judah's authority to this day. [a]And Libnah revolted at that time.
23 Now the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
24 So Joram [1]rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. Then [a]Ahaziah[2] his son reigned in his place.

Ahaziah Reigns in Judah

25 In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab, king of Israel, Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, began to reign.
26 Ahaziah was [a]twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah the granddaughter of Omri, king of Israel.
27 [a]And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of the LORD, like the house of Ahab, for he was the son-in-law of the house of Ahab.
28 Now he went [a]with Joram the son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Syria at [b]Ramoth Gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram.
29 Then [a]King Joram went back to 8:19 A "lamp" (nîr) was a symbol of life and hope, a reminder of God's covenant with David (1 Kin. 11:36). The lamp represented continuing life (Job 18:5–6; Prov. 20:20); continuous succession (2 Sam. 14:7); and the assurance of divine guidance (2 Sam. 22:29; Ps. 119:105).

8:20 Edom was located southeast of the Dead Sea. The word "Edom" is derived from a Semitic root meaning "Red" and was probably a descriptive term for the reddish color of the sandstone in the region. Edom was in conflict with Judah and Israel over control of the sea trade from the Gulf of Aqaba. Some of the clashes with Edom include: Saul's conquest of Edom (1 Sam. 14:47); David's battles (2 Sam. 8:14; 1 Kin. 11:15–16; Ps 60, 1 Chr. 18:12); Edom's revolt from Judah's control (8:20); and Amaziah's attack and capture of the capital of Edom (14:7).

8:28 Ramoth Gilead's name means "Heights of Gilead." It lay twenty-five miles east of the Jordan River.

Jezreel to recover from the wounds which the Syrians had inflicted on him at [1]Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. [b]And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

Jehu Anointed King of Israel

9 And Elisha the prophet called one of [a]the sons of the prophets, and said to him, [b]"Get[1] yourself ready, take this flask of oil in your hand, [c]and go to Ramoth Gilead.
2 "Now when you arrive at that place, look there for Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, and go in and make him rise up from among [a]his associates, and take him to an inner room.
3 "Then [a]take the flask of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, 'Thus says the LORD: "I have anointed you king over Israel." ' Then open the door and flee, and do not delay."
4 So the young man, the servant of the prophet, went to Ramoth Gilead.
5 And when he arrived, there were the captains of the army sitting; and he said, "I have a message for you, Commander." Jehu said, "For which one of us?" And he said, "For you, Commander."
6 Then he arose and went into the house. And he poured the oil on his head, and said to him, [a]"Thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'I have anointed you king over the people of the LORD, over Israel.
7 'You shall strike down the house of Ahab your master, that I may [a]avenge the blood of My servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, [b]at the hand of Jezebel.
8 'For the whole house of Ahab shall perish; and [a]I will cut off from Ahab all [b]the males in Israel, both [c]bond and free.
9 'So I will make the house of Ahab like the house of [a]Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of [b]Baasha the son of Ahijah.
10 [a]'The dogs shall eat Jezebel on the plot of ground at Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her.' " And he opened the door and fled.
11 Then Jehu came out to the servants of his master, and one said to him, "Is all well? Why did [a]this madman come to you?" And he said to them, "You know the man and his babble."
12 And they said, "A lie! Tell us now." So he said, "Thus and thus he spoke to me, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: "I have anointed you king over Israel." ' "
13 Then each man hastened [a]to take his garment and put it [1]under him on the top of the steps; and they blew trumpets, saying, "Jehu is king!"

Joram of Israel Killed

14 So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, conspired against [a]Joram. (Now Joram had been defending Ramoth Gilead, he and all Israel, against Hazael king of Syria.
15 But [a]King [1]Joram had returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds which the Syrians had inflicted on him when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) And Jehu said, "If you are so minded, let no one leave or escape from the city to go and tell it in Jezreel."
16 So Jehu rode in a chariot and went to Jezreel, for Joram was laid up there; [a]and Ahaziah king of Judah had come down to see Joram.
17 Now a watchman stood on the tower in Jezreel, and he saw the company of Jehu as he came, and said, "I see a company of men." And Joram said, "Get a horseman and send him to meet them, and let him say, [1]'Is it peace?' "
18 So the horseman went to meet him, and said, "Thus says the king: 'Is it peace?' " And Jehu said, "What have you to do with peace? [1]Turn around and follow me." So the watchman reported, saying, "The messenger went to them, but is not coming back."
19 Then he sent out a second horseman who came to them, and said, "Thus says the king: 'Is it peace?' " And Jehu answered, "What have you to do with peace? Turn around and follow me."
20 So the watchman reported, saying, "He went up to them and is not coming back; and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi, for he drives furiously!"
21 Then Joram said, [1]"Make ready." And his chariot was made ready. Then [a]Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot; and they went out to meet Jehu, and [2]met him [b]on the property of Naboth the Jezreelite.
22 Now it happened, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, "Is it peace, Jehu?" So he answered, "What peace, as long as the harlotries of your mother Jezebel and her witchcraft are so many?"
23 Then Joram turned around and fled, and said to Ahaziah, "Treachery, Ahaziah!"

Ahaziah of Judah Killed

27 But when Ahaziah king of Judah saw this, he fled by the road to [1]Beth Haggan. So Jehu pursued him, and said, [2]"Shoot him also in the chariot." And they shot him at the Ascent of Gur, which is by Ibleam. Then he fled to [a]Megiddo, and died there.
28 And his servants carried him in the chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his tomb with his fathers in the City of David.
29 In the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab, Ahaziah had become king over Judah.

Jezebel's Violent Death

30 Now when Jehu had come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; [a]and she put paint on her eyes and adorned her head, and looked through a window.
31 Then, as Jehu entered at the gate, she said, [a]"Is it peace, Zimri, murderer of your master?"
32 And he looked up at the window, and said, "Who is on my side? Who?" So two or three eunuchs looked out at him.
33 Then he said, "Throw her down." So they threw her down, and some of her blood spattered on the wall and on the horses; and he trampled her underfoot.

35 So they went to bury her, but they found no more of her than the skull and the feet and the palms of her hands.
36 Therefore they came back and told him. And he said, "This is the word of the LORD, which He spoke by His servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, [a]'On the plot of ground at Jezreel dogs shall eat the flesh of Jezebel;
37 'and the corpse of Jezebel shall be [a]as refuse on the surface of the field, in the plot at Jezreel, so that they shall not say, "Here lies Jezebel." ' "

Ahab's Seventy Sons Killed

10 Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote and sent letters to Samaria, to the rulers of [1]Jezreel, to the elders, and to [2]those who reared Ahab's sons, saying:

2 Now as soon as this letter comes to you, since your master's sons are with you, and you have chariots and horses, a fortified city also, and weapons,
3 choose the [1]best qualified of your master's sons, set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house.

4 But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, "Look, [a]two kings could not [1]stand up to him; how then can we stand?"
5 And he who was in charge of the house, and he who was in charge of the city, the elders also, and those who reared the sons, sent to Jehu, saying, "We are your servants, we will do all you tell us; but we will not make anyone king. Do what is good in your sight."
6 Then he wrote a second letter to them, saying:

> If you are for me and will obey my voice, take the heads of the men, your master's sons, and come to me at Jezreel by this time tomorrow.

Now the king's sons, seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, who were rearing them.
7 So it was, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons and [a]slaughtered seventy persons, put their heads in baskets and sent them to him at Jezreel.
8 Then a messenger came and told him, saying, "They have brought the heads of 9:31 Jezebel's reference to Zimri was an insult to Jehu. Zimri had been commander of half of Israel's chariots when he killed King Elah and seized the throne (1 Kin. 16:10). But only a week later, Omri conquered the city and Zimri committed suicide (1 Kin. 16:17, 18). Jezebel was calling Jehu a murderer and threatening disaster should he carry out the coup.

the king's sons." And he said, "Lay them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until morning."
9 So it was, in the morning, that he went out and stood, and said to all the people, "You are righteous. Indeed [a]I conspired against my master and killed him; but who killed all these?
10 "Know now that nothing shall [a]fall to the earth of the word of the LORD which the LORD spoke concerning the house of Ahab; for the LORD has done what He spoke [b]by His servant Elijah."

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Kin. 10:10

No Idle Words

Over and over the Bible assures us that God keeps His word. Whether it is a promise of blessing or judgment, every word from God is reliable. We are wise to remember this truth.

11 So Jehu killed all who remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men and his close acquaintances and his priests, until he left him none remaining.

Ahaziah's Forty-two Brothers Killed

12 And he arose and departed and went to Samaria. On the way, at [1]Beth Eked of the Shepherds,
13 [a]Jehu met with the brothers of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, "Who are you?" So they answered, "We are the brothers of Ahaziah; we have come down to greet the sons of the king and the sons of the queen mother."
14 And he said, "Take them alive!" So they took them alive, and [a]killed them at the well of [1]Beth Eked, forty-two men; and he left none of them.

The Rest of Ahab's Family Killed

15 Now when he departed from there, he [1]met [a]Jehonadab the son of [b]Rechab, coming to meet him; and he greeted him and said to him, "Is your heart right, as my heart is toward your heart?" And Jehonadab answered, "It is." Jehu said, "If it is, [c]give me your hand." So he gave him his hand, and he took him up to him into the chariot.
16 Then he said, "Come with me, and see my [a]zeal for the LORD." So they had him ride in his chariot.
17 And when he came to Samaria, [a]he killed all who remained to Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed them, according to the word of the LORD [b]which He spoke to Elijah.

Worshipers of Baal Killed

18 Then Jehu gathered all the people together, and said to them, [a]"Ahab served Baal a little, Jehu will serve him much.
19 "Now therefore, call to me all the [a]prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests. Let no one be missing, for I have a great sacrifice for Baal. Whoever is missing shall not live." But Jehu acted deceptively, with the intent of destroying the worshipers of Baal.
20 And Jehu said, [1]"Proclaim a solemn assembly for Baal." So they proclaimed it.
21 Then Jehu sent throughout all Israel; and all the worshipers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left who did not come. So they came into the [1]temple of Baal, and the [a]temple of Baal was full from one end to the other.
22 And he said to the one in charge of the wardrobe, "Bring out vestments for all the worshipers of Baal." So he brought out vestments for them.
23 Then Jehu and Jehonadab the son of Rechab went into the temple of Baal, and said to the worshipers of Baal, "Search and see that no servants of the LORD are here with you, but only the worshipers of Baal."
24 So they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had appointed for himself eighty men on the

CHARACTER*Study* JEHONADAB 2 Kin. 10:15

Jehonadab, the son of Rechab, was the founder of the order known as the "Rechabites" (Jer. 35). This was an ascetic group that advocated a nomadic and simple life devoted to the Lord. They did not till the land or plant vineyards or drink wine. They preferred to live in tents rather than in houses. They opposed city life and the evils of urban culture because of its contacts with Canaanites and Baal worship. The Rechab clan was associated with the Kenites (1 Chr. 2:55), and represented a strongly conservative element in Israel's society.

10:8 Jehu had the heads placed at the city gate for maximum impact on the people. Anyone entering or leaving the city would have passed by the grisly sight, causing the news to spread quickly throughout the land.

10:14 This slaughter was the root of the prophet Hosea's condemnation of Jehu. It went beyond the prophesied judgment declared by Elijah (1 Kin. 21:20–24; Hos. 1:4, 5).

outside, and had said, "If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escapes, whoever lets him escape, it shall be [a]his life for the life of the other."
25 Now it happened, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, "Go in and kill them; let no one come out!" And they killed them with the edge of the sword; then the guards and the officers threw them out, and went into the [1]inner room of the temple of Baal.
26 And they brought the [a]sacred pillars out of the temple of Baal and burned them.
27 Then they broke down the sacred pillar of Baal, and tore down the [1]temple of Baal and [a]made it a refuse dump to this day.
28 Thus Jehu destroyed Baal from Israel.
29 However Jehu did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin, that is, from [a]the golden calves that were at Bethel and Dan.
30 And the LORD [a]said to Jehu, "Because you have done well in doing what is right in My sight, and have done to the house of Ahab all that was in My heart, [b]your sons shall sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation."
31 But Jehu [1]took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart; for he did not depart from [a]the sins of Jeroboam, who had made Israel sin.

36 And the period that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

Athaliah Reigns in Judah

11 When [a]Athaliah [b]the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was [c]dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal heirs.
2 But [1]Jehosheba, the daughter of King Joram, sister of [a]Ahaziah, took [2]Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were being murdered; and they hid him and his nurse in the bedroom, from Athaliah, so that he was not killed.
3 So he was hidden with her in the house of the LORD for six years, while Athaliah reigned over the land.

Joash Crowned King of Judah

4 In [a]the seventh year Jehoiada sent and brought the captains of hundreds—of the bodyguards and the [1]escorts—and brought them into the house of the LORD to him. And he made a covenant with them and took an oath from them in the house of the LORD, and showed them the king's son.

CHARACTER*Study*

ATHALIAH

2 Kin. 11:1

In the process of the political alliances pursued by Omri and Ahab, Athaliah, whose name means "The Yahweh Is Righteous," was given in marriage to the Judean crown prince, Jehoram. In the same manner that Jezebel helped foster close relations between Israel and Phoenicia, Athaliah contributed to the alliance between Israel and Judah. Her parentage is widely debated because 2 Kin. 8:26 and 2 Chr. 22:2 call her the daughter of Omri while 2 Kin. 8:18 and 2 Chr. 21:6 call her the daughter of Ahab. She may have been the daughter of Omri, born shortly before his death, and raised in Ahab's court under the influence of Jezebel. Athaliah is blamed for the religious apostasy of Jehoram and Ahaziah as well as for the promotion of Baal worship in Jerusalem (2 Kin. 8:18, 26, 27; 2 Chr. 24:7). Athaliah cruelly ordered all remaining heirs to the throne, her own relatives, to be murdered. Then she ruled for six years, being the only woman to reign (2 Kin. 11:1). Had it not been for Jehosheba hiding Joash, Athaliah would have successfully ended the continuous rule of David's bloodline in Judah. The people's disdain for Athaliah is evident in their celebration when she was killed and Joash was crowned (11:20).

10:32 Hazael had acquired the Syrian throne by murdering his master, Ben-Hadad (2 Kin. 8:14, 15), and now he was taking lands from the usurper, Jehu.

11:1 Queen mothers were important in First and Second Kings, with only two going unmentioned (2 Kin. 8:17; 16:20).

11:2 Joash was the only one from David's bloodline to escape slaughter at the hands of Athaliah. God promised David his descendents would continue through to the Messiah, and this prophecy was upheld when Joash was hidden away and his life spared (2 Sam. 7:12–16).

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Kin. 11:14

Blinded from the Truth

When others oppose us we instinctively see them as the enemy and ourselves as the victim. But perhaps we are blinded to our own sin. Maybe the fault lies more deeply in us than in our accusers.

5 Then he commanded them, saying, "This is what you shall do: One-third of you who [1]come on duty [a]on the Sabbath shall be keeping watch over the king's house,
6 "one-third shall be at the gate of Sur, and one-third at the gate behind the escorts. You shall keep the watch of the house, lest it be broken down.
7 "The two [1]contingents of you who go off duty on the Sabbath shall keep the watch of the house of the LORD for the king.
8 "But you shall surround the king on all sides, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever comes within range, let him be put to death. You are to be with the king as he goes out and as he comes in."
9 [a]So the captains of the hundreds did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. Each of them took his men who were to be on duty on the Sabbath, with those who were going off duty on the Sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest.
10 And the priest gave the captains of hundreds the spears and shields which had belonged to King David, [a]that were in the temple of the LORD.
11 Then the escorts stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, all around the king, from the right [1]side of the temple to the left side of the temple, by the altar and the house.
12 And he brought out the king's son, put the crown on him, and gave him the [a]Testimony;[1] they made him king and anointed him, and they clapped their hands and said, [b]"Long live the king!"

Death of Athaliah

13 [a]Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the escorts and the people, she came to the people in the temple of the LORD.
14 When she looked, there was the king standing by [a]a pillar according to custom; and the leaders and the trumpeters were by the king. All the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets. So Athaliah tore her clothes and cried out, "Treason! Treason!"
15 And Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of the hundreds, the officers of the army, and said to them, "Take her outside [1]under guard, and slay with the sword whoever follows her." For the priest had said, "Do not let her be killed in the house of the LORD."
16 So they seized her; and she went by way of the horses' entrance into the king's house, and there she was killed.
17 [a]Then Jehoiada [b]made a covenant between the LORD, the king, and the people, that they should be the LORD's people, and also [c]between the king and the people.
18 And all the people of the land went to the [a]temple of Baal, and tore it down. They thoroughly [b]broke in pieces its altars and [1]images, and [c]killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And [d]the priest appointed [2]officers over the house of the LORD.
19 Then he took the captains of hundreds, the bodyguards, the escorts, and all the people of the land; and they brought the king down from the house of the LORD, and went by way of the gate of the escorts to the king's house. Then he sat on the throne of the kings.
20 So all the people of the land rejoiced; and the city was quiet, for they had slain Athaliah with the sword in the king's house.
21 Jehoash was [a]seven years old when he became king.

Jehoash Repairs the Temple

12 In the seventh year of Jehu, [a]Jehoash[1] became king, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.
2 Jehoash did what was right in the sight of the LORD all the days in which [a]Jehoiada the priest instructed him.

CHAPTER 12

1 [a]2 Chr. 24:1 [1]Joash, 2 Kin. 11:2ff.
2 [a]2 Kin. 11:4

12:2 While Jehoiada was instructing him, Joash remained faithful to the Lord. However, once Jehoiada died, Joash turned away from the Lord, embraced idolatry, and degenerated into extreme wickedness (2 Chr. 24:17–22).

3 But [a]the [1]high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.
4 And Jehoash said to the priests, [a]"All the money of the dedicated gifts that are brought into the house of the LORD—each man's [b]census[1] money, each man's [c]assessment money—and all the money that [2]a man [d]purposes in his heart to bring into the house of the LORD,
5 "let the priests take it themselves, each from his constituency; and let them repair the [1]damages of the temple, wherever any dilapidation is found."
6 Now it was so, by the twenty-third year of King Jehoash, [a]that the priests had not repaired the damages of the temple.
7 [a]So King Jehoash called Jehoiada the priest and the other priests, and said to them, "Why have you not repaired the damages of the temple? Now therefore, do not take more money from your constituency, but deliver it for repairing the damages of the temple."
8 And the priests agreed that they would neither receive more money from the people, nor repair the damages of the temple.
9 Then Jehoiada the priest took [a]a chest, bored a hole in its lid, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes into the house of the LORD; and the priests who [1]kept the door put [b]there all the money brought into the house of the LORD.
10 So it was, whenever they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's [a]scribe[1] and the high priest came up and [2]put it in bags, and counted the money that was found in the house of the LORD.
11 Then they gave the money, which had been apportioned, into the hands of those who did the work, who had the oversight of the house of the LORD; and they [1]paid it out to the carpenters and builders who worked on the house of the LORD,
12 and to masons and stonecutters, and for buying timber and hewn stone, to [a]repair the damage of the house of the LORD, and for all that was paid out to repair the temple.
13 However [a]there were not made for the house of the LORD basins of silver, trimmers, sprinkling-bowls, trumpets, any articles of gold or articles of silver, from the money brought into the house of the LORD.
14 But they gave that to the workmen, and they repaired the house of the LORD with it.
15 Moreover [a]they did not require an account from the men into whose hand they delivered the money to be paid to workmen, for they dealt faithfully.
16 [a]The money from the trespass offerings and the money from the sin offerings was not brought into the house of the LORD. [b]It belonged to the priests.

Hazael Threatens Jerusalem

17 [a]Hazael king of Syria went up and fought against Gath, and took it; then [b]Hazael set his face to [1]go up to Jerusalem.
18 And Jehoash king of Judah [a]took all the sacred things that his fathers, Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own sacred things, and all the gold found in the treasuries of the house of the LORD and in the king's house, and sent them to Hazael king of Syria. Then he went away from Jerusalem.

Death of Joash

19 Now the rest of the acts of [1]Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
20 And [a]his servants arose and formed a conspiracy, and killed Joash in the house of [1]the Millo, which goes down to Silla.
21 For [1]Jozachar the son of Shimeath and Jehozabad the son of [2]Shomer, his servants, struck him. So he died, and they buried him with his fathers in the City of David. Then [a]Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

Jehoahaz Reigns in Israel

13 In the twenty-third year of [a]Joash[1] the son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, [b]Jehoahaz the son of Jehu became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned seventeen years.
2 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the [a]sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin. He did not [1]depart from them.
3 Then [a]the anger of the LORD was aroused against Israel, and He delivered them into the hand of [b]Hazael king of 12:5 The temple would have needed much repair following the neglect and robbery by Athaliah and her sons (2 Chr. 24:7). Furthermore, the king was responsible for collecting the necessary funds to maintain the temple.

12:15 The money was given to the foremen to distribute to the workers. There was no further accounting of the money because of the faithfulness of these foremen. In this instance, it appears that the construction foremen acted with more integrity than the priests did with the money allotted to rebuild the temple.

13:1 The reign of Jehoahaz reign fulfilled God's promise to Jehu that he and his descendants would rule for four generations (10:30).

Syria, and into the hand of [c]Ben-Hadad the son of Hazael, all their days.
4 So Jehoahaz [a]pleaded with the LORD, and the LORD listened to him; for [b]He saw the oppression of Israel, because the king of Syria oppressed them.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Kin. 13:4

God Listens

The Lord hears our pleas in times of distress and often delivers us. However, He expects us to turn from the sin that caused our affliction in the first place. If we refuse to change our ways, we should not be surprised when God lets us fall back into calamity.

5 [a]Then the LORD gave Israel a deliverer, so that they escaped from under the hand of the Syrians; and the children of Israel dwelt in their tents as before.
6 Nevertheless they did not depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who had made Israel sin, but walked in them; [a]and the [1]wooden image also remained in Samaria.
7 For He left of the army of Jehoahaz only fifty horsemen, ten chariots, and ten thousand foot soldiers; for the king of Syria had destroyed them [a]and made them [b]like the dust at threshing.
8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
9 So Jehoahaz [1]rested with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. Then [2]Joash his son reigned in his place.

Jehoash Reigns in Israel

10 In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, [1]Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned sixteen years.
11 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD. He did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin, but walked in them.
12 [a]Now the rest of the acts of Joash, [b]all that he did, and [c]his might with which he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
13 So Joash [a]rested[1] with his fathers. Then Jeroboam sat on his throne. And Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

Death of Elisha

14 Elisha had become sick with the illness of which he would die. Then Joash the king of Israel came down to him, and wept over his face, and said, "O my father, my father, [a]the chariots of Israel and their horsemen!"
15 And Elisha said to him, "Take a bow and some arrows." So he took himself a bow and some arrows.
16 Then he said to the king of Israel, "Put your hand on the bow." So he put his hand on it, and Elisha put his hands on the king's hands.
17 And he said, "Open the east window"; and he opened it. Then Elisha said, "Shoot"; and he shot. And he said, "The arrow of the LORD's deliverance and the arrow of deliverance from Syria; for you must strike the Syrians at [a]Aphek till you have destroyed them."
18 Then he said, "Take the arrows"; so he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, "Strike the ground"; so he struck three times, and stopped.
19 And the man of God was angry with him, and said, "You should have struck five or six times; then you would have struck Syria till you had destroyed it! [a]But now you will strike Syria only three times."
20 Then Elisha [1]died, and they buried him. And the [a]raiding bands from Moab invaded the land in the spring of the year.
21 So it was, as they were burying a man, that suddenly they spied a band of raiders; and they put the man in the tomb of Elisha; and when the man was let down and touched the bones of Elisha, he revived and stood on his feet.

Israel Recaptures Cities from Syria

22 And [a]Hazael king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz.
23 But the LORD was [a]gracious to them, had compassion on them, and [b]regarded them, [c]because of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not yet destroy them or cast them from His presence.
24 Now Hazael king of Syria died. Then Ben-Hadad his son reigned in his place.
25 And [1]Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz recaptured from the hand of Ben-

13:14 Elisha had used the term "my father" towards Elijah at his parting, indicating Elisha's respect for his venerable mentor. The king used the same term towards Elisha, revealing that the prophet was highly regarded in the king's court and that his ministry was authoritative in Israel's eyes.

13:19 It is not clear why the king only shot three arrows or why this was unacceptable to the prophet. Perhaps the king thought the gesture of an arrow was foolish and did it half-heartedly. Or perhaps his effort revealed a lack of faith or expectation of God's deliverance.

WORD Study

GRACIOUS AND COMPASSIONATE

2 Kin. 13:23 The use of the word pair "gracious and compassionate" is employed often in the Psalms where the character of the Lord is considered. The term "gracious" (chanan) means "showing favor" or "having mercy" and refers to God's free gift that is neither earned nor deserved. The word "compassionate" (rehem) means "loving deeply" or "having tender affection" and describes the way God relates to His people.

Hadad, the son of Hazael, the cities which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war. [a]Three times Joash defeated him and recaptured the cities of Israel.

Amaziah Reigns in Judah

14 In [a]the second year of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel, [b]Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, became king.
2 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.
3 And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, yet not like his father David; he did everything [a]as his father Joash had done.
4 [a]However the [1]high places were not taken away, and the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.
5 Now it happened, as soon as the kingdom was established in his hand, that he executed his servants [a]who had murdered his father the king.
6 But the children of the murderers he did not execute, according to what is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, in which the LORD commanded, saying, [a]"Fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor shall children be put to death for their fathers; but a person shall be put to death for his own sin."
7 [a]He killed ten thousand Edomites in [b]the Valley of Salt, and took [1]Sela by war, [c]and called its name Joktheel to this day.
8 [a]Then Amaziah sent messengers to [1]Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us face one another in battle."

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Kin. 14:8

Overstepping God's Victory

When God gives us success, we need to be grateful and not take credit or become proud in the accomplishment. If we place our confidence in ourselves, God will allow us to see what our own power is capable of achieving apart from Him.

9 And Jehoash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, [a]"The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the [b]cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son as wife'; and a wild beast that was in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thistle.
10 "You have indeed defeated Edom, and [a]your heart has [1]lifted you up. Glory in that, and stay at home; for why should you meddle with trouble so that you fall—you and Judah with you?"
11 But Amaziah would not heed. Therefore Jehoash king of Israel went out; so he and Amaziah king of Judah faced one another at [a]Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah.
12 And Judah was defeated by Israel, and every man fled to his tent.
13 Then Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash, the son of Ahaziah, at Beth Shemesh; and he went to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from [a]the Gate of Ephraim to [b]the Corner Gate—[1]four hundred cubits.
14 And he took all [a]the gold and silver, all the articles that were found in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.
15 [a]Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did—his might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah—are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
16 So Jehoash [1]rested with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. Then Jeroboam his son reigned in his place.
17 [a]Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel.
18 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah,

14:3 While Amaziah is noted for doing right in the Lord's eyes, the standard for integrity before God remained King David. This did not mean David was sinless, but God was pleased with David's heart and his desire to follow and obey Him.

14:9 Jehoash's response to Amaziah's challenge reflected the existing political situation. Judah was a small, rural, and politically insignificant state. Israel, however, was located on the main thoroughfares of international trade and commerce. In comparison to Judah, Israel had larger cities, greater fortifications, a more powerful military, a greater population, and a much stronger economy. Jehoash's reference to Judah as a thistle and Israel as a cedar was an accurate depiction of Amaziah's challenge.

19 And [a]they formed a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to [b]Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish and killed him there.
20 Then they brought him on horses, and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the City of David.
21 And all the people of Judah took [a]Azariah,[1] who was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah.
22 He built [a]Elath[1] and restored it to Judah, after [2]the king rested with his fathers.

Jeroboam II Reigns in Israel

23 In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel, became king in Samaria, and reigned forty-one years.
24 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from all the [a]sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin.
25 He [a]restored the [1]territory of Israel [b]from the entrance of Hamath to [c]the[2] Sea of the Arabah, according to the word of the LORD God of Israel, which He had spoken through His servant [d]Jonah the son of Amittai, the prophet who was from [e]Gath Hepher.
26 For the LORD [a]saw that the affliction of Israel was very bitter; and whether bond or free, [b]there was no helper for Israel.

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Kin. 14:26

When There Is No Other Helper

When you face events or enemies and you feel alone, remember that God sees your pain. He has compassion on you and wants to sustain you.

27 [a]And the LORD did not say that He would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven; but He saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash.
28 Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did—his might, how he made war, and how he recaptured for Israel, from [a]Damascus and Hamath, [b]what had belonged to Judah—are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
29 So Jeroboam [1]rested with his fathers, the kings of Israel. Then [a]Zechariah his son reigned in his place.

Azariah Reigns in Judah

15 In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, [a]Azariah the son of Amaziah, king of Judah, [b]became king.
2 He was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecholiah of Jerusalem.
3 And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done,
4 [a]except that the [1]high places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.
5 Then the LORD [a]struck the king, so that he was a leper until the day of his [b]death; so he [c]dwelt in an isolated house. And Jotham the king's son was over the royal house, judging the people of the land.
6 Now the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
7 So Azariah [1]rested with his fathers, and [a]they buried him with his fathers in the City of David. Then Jotham his son reigned in his place.

Zechariah Reigns in Israel

8 In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, [a]Zechariah the son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel in Samaria six months.

14:19 Lachish was one of the most important cities in Judah during this period. The city served as a royal fortress protecting the southern Judean hill country from the southern Philistine plain. The city was located between Jerusalem and Gaza along the main route from the coastal plain to the Hebron hills.

14:22 Elath was located on the gulf of Aqaba. It was important for Judah to control this area because it gave Azariah access to the sea trade from Arabia and Africa. This trade was a source of great wealth for the southern kingdom.

14:25 Historically, the entrance of Hamath was the ideal northern boundary (Num. 13:21) and served as the border during the time of David and Solomon (1 Kin. 8:65).

15:1 Azariah is elsewhere referred to as Uzziah (2 Kin. 15:13, 30–34; 2 Chr. 26:1—27:2; Is. 1:1; 6:1; 7:1; Zech. 14:5). Both names may be slight variants of the same name or one may be a personal name while the other is a throne name.

15:5 The Lord inflicted Azariah with leprosy as punishment for unlawfully assuming the priestly function of burning incense on the temple altar (Lev. 13:46; 2 Chr. 26:16–21). Because of his leprosy, the king was not allowed to partake in any public royal functions and was forced to live in isolation.

And So It Was

When God makes a promise it will come about. At times, circumstances may give us doubts, but the Scriptures repeatedly testify that no government, person, or event can thwart God's will.

Shallum Reigns in Israel

13 Shallum the son of Jabesh became king in the thirty-ninth year of [1]Uzziah king of Judah; and he reigned a full month in Samaria.
14 For Menahem the son of Gadi went up from [a]Tirzah, came to Samaria, and struck Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria and killed him; and he reigned in his place.
15 Now the rest of the acts of Shallum, and the conspiracy which he [1]led, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.
16 Then from Tirzah, Menahem attacked [a]Tiphsah, all who were there, and its territory. Because they did not surrender, therefore he attacked it. All [b]the women there who were with child he ripped open.

Menahem Reigns in Israel

17 In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem the son of Gadi became king over Israel, and reigned ten years in Samaria.
18 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin.
19 [a]Pul[1] king of Assyria came against the land; and Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver, that his [2]hand might be with him to [b]strengthen the kingdom under his control.
20 And Menahem [a]exacted[1] the money from Israel, from all the very wealthy, from each man fifty shekels of silver, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and did not stay there in the land.
21 Now the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
22 So Menahem [1]rested with his fathers. Then Pekahiah his son reigned in his place.

Pekahiah Reigns in Israel

23 In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah the son of Menahem became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned two years.
24 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin.
25 Then Pekah the son of Remaliah, an officer of his, conspired against him and [1]killed him in Samaria, in the [a]citadel of the king's house, along with Argob and Arieh; and with him were fifty men of Gilead. He killed him and reigned in his place.
26 Now the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

Pekah Reigns in Israel

27 In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah, [a]Pekah the son of Remaliah became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned twenty years.
28 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin.
29 In the days of Pekah king of Israel, [1]Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria [a]came and took [b]Ijon, Abel Beth Maachah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali; and he [c]carried them captive to Assyria.
30 Then Hoshea the son of Elah led a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and struck and killed him; so he [a]reigned in his place in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah.

15:19 "Pul" refers to Tiglath-Pileser III (745–727 B.C.). He expanded Assyria's borders to the west and south of the Euphrates River, and subjugated Israel at the request of King Ahaz of Judah during the Syro-Ephraimite War (735 B.C.; 2 Kin. 16:7–9). However, he was not interested in the smaller states of Israel and Judah, but focused on gaining access to the Mediterranean Sea and establishing trading opportunities with Egypt.

15:25 A citadel was an elevated, fortified structure inside city walls. It typically contained the palatial quarters of the royal family and served as a fortress within the city.

15:29 When a country took part in anti-Assyrian activities, Assyria would conquer the land and deport the upper class, leadership, and skilled laborers. This was to ensure the conquered nation would not have the leaders to incite the people to rebel again.

31 Now the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

Jotham Reigns in Judah

32 In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, [a]Jotham the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, began to reign.
33 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was [1]Jerusha the daughter of Zadok.
34 And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD; he did [a]according to all that his father Uzziah had done.
35 [a]However the [1]high places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places. [b]He built the Upper Gate of the house of the LORD.
36 Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
37 In those days the LORD began to send [a]Rezin king of Syria and [b]Pekah the son of Remaliah against Judah.

Ahaz Reigns in Judah

16 In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, Ahaz the son of Jotham, king of Judah, began to reign.
2 Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and he did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD his God, as his father David had done.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Kin. 16:2

In View of the Lord

It is a sobering truth that all our deeds are committed in God's sight. In the midst of busy days, quick decisions, and unplanned reactions, the Lord watches and knows whether our lives honor Him.

3 But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel; indeed [a]he made his son pass through the fire, according to the [b]abominations of the nations whom the LORD had cast out from before the children of Israel.
4 And he sacrificed and burned incense on the [a]high places, [b]on the hills, and under every green tree.
5 [a]Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem to make war; and they besieged Ahaz but could not overcome him.
6 At that time Rezin king of Syria [a]captured [1]Elath for Syria, and drove the men of Judah from Elath. Then the [2]Edomites went to Elath, and dwell there to this day.
7 So Ahaz sent messengers to [a]Tiglath-Pileser[1] king of Assyria, saying, "I am your servant and your son. Come up and save me from the hand of the king of Syria and from the hand of the king of Israel, who rise up against me."
8 And Ahaz [a]took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasuries of the king's house, and sent it as a present to the king of Assyria.
9 So the king of Assyria heeded him;

16:3 Passing a child through fire refers to child sacrifice. The Israelites observed this ritual in their past (Judg. 11:34) and continued these abhorrent sacrifices during the Divided Monarchy in Israel (2 Kin. 17:17) and Judah (21:6; 23:10). This rite was most often associated with the cult of Molech, but was also practiced among the Phoenician people. A sacrifice of this kind was not carried out often, but was conducted in extreme emergencies (3:27).

16:7 Isaiah had warned Ahaz not to join Israel and Syria in an alliance against Assyria but to place his trust in the Lord (Is. 7). Ahaz did not join the coalition. However, he did not trust God but sought help from Assyria.

for the king of Assyria went up against [a]Damascus and [b]took it, carried its people captive to [c]Kir, and killed Rezin.
10 Now King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria, and saw an altar that was at Damascus; and King Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the design of the altar and its pattern, according to all its workmanship.
11 Then [a]Urijah the priest built an altar according to all that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus. So Urijah the priest made it before King Ahaz came back from Damascus.
12 And when the king came back from Damascus, the king saw the altar; and [a]the king approached the altar and made offerings on it.
13 So he burned his burnt offering and his grain offering; and he poured his drink offering and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings on the altar.
14 He also brought [a]the bronze altar which was before the LORD, from the front of the [1]temple—from between the new altar and the house of the LORD—and put it on the north side of the new altar.
15 Then King Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, "On the great new altar burn [a]the morning burnt offering, the evening grain offering, the king's burnt sacrifice, and his grain offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, their grain offering, and their drink offerings; and sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offering and all the blood of the sacrifice. And the bronze altar shall be for me to inquire by."
16 Thus did Urijah the priest, according to all that King Ahaz commanded.
17 [a]And King Ahaz cut off [b]the panels of the carts, and removed the lavers from them; and he took down [c]the Sea from the bronze oxen that were under it, and put it on a pavement of stones.
18 Also he removed the Sabbath pavilion which they had built in the temple, and he removed the king's outer entrance from the house of the LORD, on account of the king of Assyria.
19 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
20 So Ahaz rested with his fathers, and [a]was buried with his fathers in the City of David. Then Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

Hoshea Reigns in Israel

17 In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, [a]Hoshea the son of Elah became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned nine years.
2 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, but not as the kings of Israel who were before him.
3 [a]Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against him; and Hoshea [b]became his vassal, and paid him tribute money.
4 And the king of Assyria uncovered a conspiracy by Hoshea; for he had sent messengers to So, king of Egypt, and brought no tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year. Therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison.

Israel Carried Captive to Assyria

5 Now [a]the king of Assyria went throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria and besieged it for three years.
6 [a]In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria took Samaria and [b]carried Israel away to Assyria, [c]and placed them in Halah and by the Habor, the River of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.
7 For [a]so it was that the children of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and they had [b]feared other gods,
8 and [a]had walked in the statutes of the nations whom the LORD had cast out from before the children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they had made.

2 Kin. 17:5 Assyrian Campaign Against Israel (725–722 B.C.)

9 Also the children of Israel secretly did against the LORD their God things that were not right, and they built for themselves [1]high places in all their cities,
[a]from watchtower to fortified city.
10 [a]They set up for themselves sacred pillars and [b]wooden images[1] [c]on every high hill and under every green tree.
11 There they burned incense on all the high places, like the nations whom the LORD had carried away before them; and they did wicked things to provoke
the LORD to anger,
12 for they served idols, [a]of which the LORD had said to them, [b]"You shall not do this thing."
13 Yet the LORD testified against Israel and against Judah, by all of His [a]prophets, [b]every seer, saying, [c]"Turn from your evil ways, and keep My commandments and My statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by My servants the prophets."
14 Nevertheless they would not hear,
but [a]stiffened their necks, like the necks of their fathers, who [b]did not believe in the LORD their God.
15 And they [a]rejected His statutes [b]and His covenant that He had made with their fathers, and His testimonies which He had testified against them; they followed [c]idols, [d]became idolaters, and went after the nations who were all around them, concerning whom the LORD had charged them that they should [e]not do like them.
16 So they left all the commandments of the LORD their God, [a]made for themselves a molded image and two calves, [b]made a wooden image and worshiped all the [c]host of heaven, [d]and served Baal.
17 [a]And they caused their sons and daughters to pass through the fire, [b]practiced witchcraft and soothsaying, and [c]sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.
18 Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them from His sight; there was none left [a]but the tribe of Judah alone.
19 Also [a]Judah did not keep the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.
20 And the LORD rejected all the descendants of Israel, afflicted them, and [a]delivered them into the hand of plunderers, until He had cast them from His [b]sight.
21 For [a]He tore Israel from the house of David, and [b]they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king. Then Jeroboam drove Israel from following the LORD, and made them commit a great sin.
22 For the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did;
they did not depart from them,
23 until the LORD removed Israel out of His sight, [a]as He had said by all His servants the prophets. [b]So Israel was carried away from their own land to Assyria, as it is to this day.

Assyria Resettles Samaria

24 [a]Then the king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, [b]Ava, Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel; and they took possession of Samaria and dwelt in its cities.
25 And it was so, at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they did not fear the LORD; therefore the LORD sent lions among them, which killed some of
them.
26 So they spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, "The nations whom you have removed and placed in the cities of Samaria do not know the rituals of the God of the land; therefore He has sent lions among them, and indeed, they are killing them because they do not know the rituals of the God of the land."
27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, "Send there one of the priests whom you brought from there;
let him go and dwell there, and let him teach them the rituals of the God of the land."
28 Then one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in Bethel, and taught them how they should fear the LORD.
29 However every nation continued to make gods of its own, and put them [a]in the shrines on the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in the cities where they dwelt.
30 The men of [a]Babylon made Succoth
Benoth, the men of Cuth made Nergal,
the men of Hamath made Ashima,
31 [a]and the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak; and the Sepharvites [b]burned their children in fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sephar-vaim.

17:24 Assyria replaced the Israelite deportees with foreigners. These people intermarried with the remaining Israelites. Later, when Assyria sent more strangers into this region, the inhabitants would assume the name "Samaritan" (Ezra 4:10). These people were despised by the Jews of New Testament times because they were a mixed race descending from the lower classes of Israel and foreigners.

32 So they feared the LORD, [a]and from every class they appointed for themselves priests of the [1]high places, who sacrificed for them in the shrines of the high places.
33 [a]They feared the LORD, yet served their own gods—according to the rituals of the nations from among whom they were carried away.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Kin. 17:33

Holding on to the Past

It is not possible to follow after God and still cling to our old ways and beliefs. Our heart and mind must be wholly devoted to God. He expects—and deserves—nothing less than our undivided loyalty.

34 To this day they continue practicing the former rituals; they do not fear the LORD, nor do they follow their statutes or their ordinances, or the law and commandment which the LORD had commanded the children of Jacob, [a]whom He named Israel,
35 with whom the LORD had made a covenant and charged them, saying: [a]"You shall not fear other gods, nor [b]bow down to them nor serve them nor sacrifice to them;
36 "but the LORD, who [a]brought you up from the land of Egypt with great power and [b]an outstretched arm, [c]Him you shall fear, Him you shall worship, and to Him you shall offer sacrifice.
37 "And the statutes, the ordinances, the law, and the commandment which He wrote for you, [a]you shall be careful to observe forever; you shall not fear other gods.
38 "And the covenant that I have made with you, [a]you shall not forget, nor shall you fear other gods.
39 "But the LORD your God you shall fear; and He will deliver you from the hand of all your enemies."
40 However they did not obey, but they followed their former rituals.
41 [a]So these nations feared the LORD, yet served their carved images; also their children and their children's children have continued doing as their fathers did, even to this day.

Hezekiah Reigns in Judah

18 Now it came to pass in the third year of [a]Hoshea the son of Elah, king of Israel, that [b]Hezekiah the son of Ahaz, king of Judah, began to reign.
2 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was [a]Abi[1] the daughter of Zechariah.
3 And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father David had done.
4 [a]He removed the [1]high places and broke the sacred pillars, cut down the [2]wooden image and broke in pieces the [b]bronze serpent that Moses had made; for until those days the children of Israel burned incense to it, and called it [3]Nehushtan.
5 He [a]trusted in the LORD God of Israel, [b]so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor who were before him.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Kin. 18:5

None Like Him

Does your life radiate your love for God? Will the following generation remember you as a person of faith and trust?

6 For he [a]held fast to the LORD; he did not depart from following Him, but kept His commandments, which the LORD had commanded Moses.
7 The LORD [a]was with him; he [b]prospered wherever he went. And he [c]rebelled against the king of Assyria and did not serve him.
8 [a]He [1]subdued the Philistines, as far as Gaza and its territory, [b]from watchtower to fortified city.
9 Now [a]it came to pass in the fourth year of King Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea the son of Elah, king of Israel, that Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria and besieged it.
10 And at the end of three years they took it. In the sixth year of Hezekiah, that is, [a]the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken.
11 [a]Then the king of Assyria carried Israel away captive to Assyria, and put them [b]in Halah and by the Habor, the River of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes, 12 because they [a]did not obey the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed His covenant and all that Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded; and they would neither hear nor do them.
13 And [a]in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and took them.

15 So Hezekiah [a]gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king's house.
16 At that time Hezekiah stripped the gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave [1]it to the king of Assyria.

Sennacherib Boasts Against the LORD

17 Then the king of Assyria sent the [1]Tartan, the [2]Rabsaris, and the [3]Rab-shakeh from Lachish, with a great army against Jerusalem, to King Hezekiah. And they went up and came to Jerusalem. When they had come up, they went and stood by the [a]aqueduct from the upper pool, [b]which was on the highway to the Fuller's Field.
18 And when they had called to the king, [a]Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, Shebna the [1]scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came out to them.
19 Then the Rabshakeh said to them, "Say now to Hezekiah, 'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: [a]"What confidence is this in which you trust?
20 "You speak of having plans and power for war; but they are [1]mere words. And in whom do you trust, that you rebel against me?
21 [a]"Now look! You are trusting in the staff of this broken reed, Egypt, on which if a man leans, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him.
22 "But if you say to me, 'We trust in the LORD our God,' is it not He [a]whose [1]high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and said to Judah and Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem'?" '
23 "Now therefore, I urge you, give a pledge to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses—if you are able on your part to put riders on them!
24 "How then will you repel one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust in Egypt for chariots and horsemen?
25 "Have I now come up without the LORD against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me, 'Go up against this land, and destroy it.' "
26 [a]Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, Shebna, and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in [b]Aramaic, for we understand it; and do not speak to us in [1]Hebrew in the hearing of the people who are on the wall."
27 But the Rabshakeh said to them, "Has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words, and not to the men who sit on the wall, who will eat and drink their own waste with you?"
28 Then the Rabshakeh stood and called out with a loud voice in [1]Hebrew, and spoke, saying, "Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria!
29 "Thus says the king: [a]'Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he shall not be able to deliver you from his hand;
30 'nor let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, "The LORD will surely deliver us; this city shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria." '
31 "Do not listen to Hezekiah; for thus says the king of Assyria: 'Make peace with me [1]by a present and come out to me; and every one of you eat from his own [a]vine and every one from his own fig tree, and every one of you drink the waters of his own cistern;

2 Kin. 18:17 Assyrian Campaign Against Judah (701 B.C.)

18:14 An Assyrian relief (the Lachish Frieze) discovered in the palace of Sennacherib depicts the Assyrian siege of Lachish described in this biblical account.

32 'until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, [a]a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive groves and honey, that you may live and not die. But do not listen to Hezekiah, lest he persuade you, saying, "The LORD will deliver us."

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Kin. 18:32

Smooth Talk

A lofty position of rank does not guarantee a leader's wisdom. Be wary of authority figures who try to sway you from God's ways. Their well-reasoned arguments and passionate speeches are foolishness to God, who knows the outcome of your situation.

33 [a]'Has any of the gods of the nations at all delivered its land from the hand of the king of Assyria?
34 'Where are the gods of [a]Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim and Hena and [b]Ivah? Indeed, have they delivered Samaria from my hand?
35 'Who among all the gods of the lands have delivered their countries from my hand, [a]that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem from my hand?' "
36 But the people held their peace and answered him not a word; for the king's commandment was, "Do not answer him."
37 Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah [a]with their clothes torn, and told him the words of the Rabshakeh.

Isaiah Assures Deliverance

19 And [a]so it was, when King Hezekiah heard it, that he tore his clothes, covered himself with [b]sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.
2 Then he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz.
3 And they said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah: 'This day is a day of trouble, and rebuke, and blasphemy; for the children have come to birth, but there is no strength to [1]bring them forth.
4 [a]'It may be that the LORD your God will hear all the words of the Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to [b]reproach the living God, and will [c]rebuke the words which the LORD your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.' "
5 So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah.
6 [a]And Isaiah said to them, "Thus you shall say to your master, 'Thus says the LORD: "Do not be [b]afraid of the words which you have heard, with which the [c]servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me.
7 "Surely I will send [a]a spirit upon him, and he shall hear a rumor and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land." ' "

Sennacherib's Threat and Hezekiah's Prayer

8 Then the Rabshakeh returned and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah, for he heard that he had departed [a]from Lachish.
9 And [a]the king heard concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, "Look, he has come out to make war with you." So he again sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,
10 "Thus you shall speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying: 'Do not let your God [a]in whom you trust deceive you, saying, "Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria."
11 'Look! You have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by utterly destroying them; and shall you be delivered?
12 [a]'Have the gods of the nations delivered those whom my fathers have destroyed, Gozan and Haran and Rezeph, and the people of [b]Eden who were in Telassar?
13 [a]'Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?' "
14 [a]And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it; and Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.
15 Then Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said: "O LORD God of Israel, the One [a]who dwells between the cherubim, [b]You are God, You alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth.
16 [a]"Incline Your ear, O LORD, and hear; [b]open Your eyes, O LORD, and see; and

Prayers for Deliverance and Glory for God

When we cry out to God and He rescues us, we are not the only ones to benefit. The world sees God's goodness to us and learns that trust in God brings deliverance.

The Word of the LORD Concerning Sennacherib

20 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: [a]'Because you have prayed to Me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, [b]I have heard.'
21 "This is the word which the LORD has spoken concerning him:

'The virgin, [a]the daughter of Zion,
Has despised you, laughed you to scorn;
The daughter of Jerusalem
[b]Has shaken her head behind your back!

22 'Whom have you reproached and blasphemed?
Against whom have you raised your voice,
And lifted up your eyes on high?
Against [a]the Holy One of Israel.
23 [a]By your messengers you have reproached the Lord,
And said: [b]"By the multitude of my chariots
I have come up to the height of the mountains,
To the limits of Lebanon;
I will cut down its tall cedars
And its choice cypress trees;
I will enter the extremity of its borders,
To its fruitful forest.
24 I have dug and drunk strange water,
And with the soles of my feet I have [a]dried up
All the brooks of defense."

25 'Did you not hear long ago
How [a]I made it,
From ancient times that I formed it?
Now I have brought it to pass,
That [b]you should be
For crushing fortified cities into heaps of ruins.
26 Therefore their inhabitants had little power;
They were dismayed and confounded;
They were as the grass of the field
And the green herb,
As [a]the grass on the housetops
And grain blighted before it is grown.

27 'But [a]I know your dwelling place,
Your going out and your coming in,
And your rage against Me.
28 Because your rage against Me and your tumult
Have come up to My ears,
Therefore [a]I will put My hook in your nose
And My bridle in your lips,
And I will turn you back
[b]By the way which you came.

29 'This shall be a [a]sign to you:

You shall eat this year such as grows [1]of itself,
And in the second year what springs from the same;
Also in the third year sow and reap,
Plant vineyards and eat the fruit of them.
30 [a]And the remnant who have escaped of the house of Judah
Shall again take root downward,
And bear fruit upward.
31 For out of Jerusalem shall go a remnant,
And those who escape from Mount Zion.
[a]The zeal of the LORD [1]of hosts will do this.'

32 "Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria:

'He shall [a]not come into this city,
Nor shoot an arrow there,
Nor come before it with shield,
Nor build a siege mound against it.
33 By the way that he came,
By the same shall he return;
And he shall not come into this city,'
Says the LORD.
34 'For [a]I will [b]defend this city, to save it

For My own sake and [c]for My servant David's sake.' "

Sennacherib's Defeat and Death

35 And [a]it came to pass on a certain night that the [1]angel of the LORD went out, and killed in the camp of the Assyrians one hundred and eighty-five thousand; and when people arose early in the morning, there were the corpses—all dead.
36 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed and went away, returned home, and remained at [a]Nineveh.
37 Now it came to pass, as he was worshiping in the temple of Nisroch his god, that his sons [a]Adrammelech and Sharezer [b]struck him down with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Then [c]Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

Hezekiah's Life Extended

20 In [a]those days Hezekiah was sick and near death. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, went to him and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: 'Set your house in order, for you shall die, and not live.' "
2 Then he turned his face toward the wall, and prayed to the LORD, saying,
3 [a]"Remember now, O LORD, I pray, how I have walked before You in truth and with a loyal heart, and have done what was good in Your sight." And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Kin. 20:3

A Reason for Confidence

Those who have walked faithfully with God can call on Him confidently in times of trouble. God honors those who honor Him. Faithful obedience, prayer and devotion to Him will not go unnoticed and God may even choose to bless your descendants because of your godly life.

4 And it happened, before Isaiah had gone out into the middle court, that the word of the LORD came to him, saying,
5 "Return and tell Hezekiah [a]the leader of My people, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father: [b]"I have heard your prayer, I have seen [c]your tears; surely I will heal you. On the third day you shall go up to the house of the LORD.
6 "And I will add to your days fifteen years. I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria; and [a]I will defend this city for My own sake, and for the sake of My servant David." ' "
7 Then [a]Isaiah said, "Take a lump of figs." So they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered.
8 And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, [a]"What is the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up to the house of the LORD the third day?"
9 Then Isaiah said, [a]"This is the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing which He has spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten degrees or go backward ten degrees?"
10 And Hezekiah answered, "It is an easy thing for the shadow to go down ten [1]degrees; no, but let the shadow go backward ten degrees."
11 So Isaiah the prophet cried out to the LORD, and [a]He brought the shadow ten [1]degrees backward, by which it had gone down on the sundial of Ahaz.

The Babylonian Envoys

12 [a]At that time [1]Berodach-Baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he heard that Hezekiah had been sick.
13 And [a]Hezekiah was attentive to them, and showed them all the house of his treasures—the silver and gold, the spices and precious ointment, and [1]all [2]his armory—all that was found among his treasures. There was nothing in his house or in all his dominion that Hezekiah did not show them.
14 Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah, and said to him, "What did these men say, and from where did they come to you?" So Hezekiah said, "They came from a far country, from Babylon."
15 And he said, "What have they seen in your house?" So Hezekiah answered, [a]"They have seen all that is in my house; there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them."
16 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD:

19:37 Nisroch may have been the Assyrian god Nusku or a corrupted form of the name of the god Marduk.

20:6 In the fifteen additional years God graciously granted Hezekiah, he revealed his nation's treasures to the Babylonians and fathered Manasseh. Sadly, these two acts would bring dire consequences to Judah (2 Kin. 20:12; 21:1).

20:12 Berodach-Baladan, or Merodach-Baladan, was a Chaldean king who ruled Babylon and waged war against the Assyrians. He may have sent ambassadors to Hezekiah to entice him into an alliance against Assyria.

18 'And [a]they shall take away some of your sons who will [1]descend from you, whom you will beget; [b]and they shall be [c]eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.' "
19 So Hezekiah said to Isaiah, [a]"The word of the LORD which you have spoken is good!" For he said, "Will there not be peace and truth at least in my days?"

Death of Hezekiah

20 [a]Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah—all his might, and how he [b]made a [c]pool and a [1]tunnel and [d]brought water into the city—are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
21 So [a]Hezekiah [1]rested with his fathers. Then Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

Manasseh Reigns in Judah

21 Manasseh [a]was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hephzibah.
2 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, [a]according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.
3 For he rebuilt the [1]high places [a]which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; he raised up altars for Baal, and made a [2]wooden image, [b]as Ahab king of Israel had done; and he [c]worshiped all [3]the host of heaven and served them.
4 [a]He also built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, [b]"In Jerusalem I will put My name."
5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the [a]two courts of the house of the LORD.
6 [a]Also he made his son pass through the fire, practiced [b]soothsaying, used witchcraft, and consulted spiritists and mediums. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.
7 He even set a carved image of [1]Asherah that he had made, in the [2]house of which the LORD had said to David and to Solomon his son, [a]"In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever;
8 [a]"and I will not make the feet of Israel wander anymore from the land which I gave their fathers—only if they are careful to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that My servant Moses commanded them."
9 But they paid no attention, and Manasseh [a]seduced them to do more evil than the nations whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And the LORD spoke [a]by His servants the prophets, saying,
11 [a]"Because Manasseh king of Judah has done these abominations ([b]he has acted more wickedly than all the [c]Amorites who were before him, and [d]has also made Judah sin with his idols),

Impact on Others

Those who believe their choices only affect themselves are greatly deceived. No person's life is neutral; we all have a positive or negative influence on those around us. The deciding factor is the quality of our relationship with God.

CHARACTER*Study* — MANASSEH — 2 Kin. 21:1

Son of the righteous King Hezekiah, Manasseh, whose name means, "God Has Caused Me to Forget," is notorious as Judah's most wicked king. His reign of fifty-five years was the longest of any Judean or Israelite king. He practiced witchcraft and the detestable practice of child sacrifice. He set up images of Asherah in the temple and enticed his people to sin (21:6–9). The impact of Manasseh's sin on Judah was so considerable that forty to fifty years after his death, people continued to follow his evil influence (Jer. 15:4). God's ultimate judgment on Judah was blamed on Manasseh (2 Kin. 21:10–16). However, when God brought judgment on him and had him exiled to Babylon, Manasseh humbled himself before God, repented, and was restored (2 Chr. 33:13). He took steps to undo the damage his sin had caused on Judah by taking away the foreign idols and altar from the temple and repaired God's altar. Yet, the people did not turn back to God as Manasseh had done, and their judgment became final.

20:20 The tunnel ran between the spring of Gihon and the Pool of Siloam and would prove beneficial in times of siege.

calamity upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whoever hears of it, both [a]his ears will tingle.
13 'And I will stretch over Jerusalem [a]the measuring line of Samaria and the plummet of the house of Ahab; [b]I will wipe Jerusalem as one wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down.
14 'So I will forsake the [a]remnant of My inheritance and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become victims of plunder to all their enemies,
15 'because they have done evil in My sight, and have provoked Me to anger since the day their fathers came out of Egypt, even to this day.' "
16 [a]Moreover Manasseh shed very much innocent blood, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another, besides his sin by which he made Judah sin, in doing evil in the sight of the LORD.
17 Now [a]the rest of the acts of [b]Manasseh—all that he did, and the sin that he committed—are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
18 So [a]Manasseh [1]rested with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza. Then his son Amon reigned in his place.

Amon's Reign and Death

19 [a]Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.
20 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, [a]as his father Manasseh had done.
21 So he walked in all the ways that his father had walked; and he served the idols that his father had served, and worshiped them.
22 He [a]forsook the LORD God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of the LORD.

24 But the people of the land [a]executed all those who had conspired against King Amon. Then the people of the land made his son Josiah king in his place.
25 Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
26 And he was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza. Then Josiah his son reigned in his place.

Josiah Reigns in Judah

22 Josiah [a]was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedidah the daughter of Adaiah of [b]Bozkath.
2 And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in all the ways of his father David; he [a]did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

Hilkiah Finds the Book of the Law

3 [a]Now it came to pass, in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, that the king sent Shaphan the scribe, the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, to the house of the LORD, saying:
4 "Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may count the money which has been [a]brought into the house of the LORD, which [b]the doorkeepers have gathered from the people.
5 "And let them [a]deliver it into the hand of those doing the work, who are the overseers in the house of the LORD; let them give it to those who are in the house of the LORD doing the work, to repair the damages of the house—
6 "to carpenters and builders and masons—and to buy timber and hewn stone to repair the house.
7 "However [a]there need be no accounting made with them of the money deliv-

CHARACTER Study — JOSIAH — 2 Kin. 22:1

Josiah, whose name means "The Lord Heals," or "The Lord Supports," became king of Judah at the age of eight following the assassination of his father Amon. He ruled for thirty-one years (21:24). So sensitive was Josiah to God's word that when he heard it for the first time he tore his clothes and cried out to God in repentance for his nation (22:11–13). His reign was marked by religious reform and spiritual renewal. As he began to "seek the God of David" he removed the idolatrous altars from Judah (2 Chr. 34:3). The climax of the reform came with the celebration of the Passover (2 Kin. 23:21–23; 2 Chr. 35:1–19). Yet, despite the devout king's efforts, the sin of his people was beyond his ability to reform. God promised He would bring Josiah to his heavenly reward before he had to witness the impending judgment on his people (22:19–20). As Pharaoh Neco of Egypt moved his army northward through Judah, Josiah fought against him and was killed (23:28–30).

ered into their hand, because they deal faithfully."
8 Then Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, [a]"I have found the Book of the Law in the house of the LORD." And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.
9 So Shaphan the scribe went to the king, bringing the king word, saying, "Your servants have [1]gathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of those who do the work, who oversee the house of the LORD."
10 Then Shaphan the scribe showed the king, saying, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read it before the king.
11 Now it happened, when the king heard the words of the Book of the Law, that he tore his clothes.

The Impact of God's Word

God's word demands a response from those who hear it. The scriptures call us to repent and align our lives with God's standards. As you read His word, do not simply look for information of ancient times, but expect a personal encounter with God that will call for life adjustments to His ways and purposes.

12 Then the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, [a]Ahikam the son of Shaphan, [1]Achbor the son of Michaiah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king, saying,
13 "Go, inquire of the LORD for me, for the people and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that has been found; for great is [a]the wrath of the LORD that is aroused against us, because our fathers have not obeyed the words of this book, to do according to all that is written concerning us."
14 So Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of [a]Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe. (She dwelt in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter.) And they spoke with her.
15 Then she said to them, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel, 'Tell the man who sent you to Me,
16 "Thus says the LORD: 'Behold, [a]I will bring calamity on this place and on its inhabitants—all the words of the book which the king of Judah has read—
17 [a]'because they have forsaken Me and burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands. Therefore My wrath shall be aroused against this place and shall not be quenched.' " '
18 "But as for [a]the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, in this manner you shall speak to him, 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel: "Concerning the words which you have heard—
19 "because your [a]heart was tender, and you [b]humbled yourself before the LORD when you heard what I spoke against this place and against its inhabitants, that they would become [c]a desolation and [d]a curse, and you tore your clothes and wept before Me, I also have heard you," says the LORD.
20 "Surely, therefore, I will [1]gather you to your fathers, and you [a]shall [2]be gathered to your grave in peace; and your eyes shall not see all the calamity which I will bring on this place." ' " So they brought back word to the king.

Josiah Restores True Worship

23 Now [a]the king sent them to gather all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem to him.
2 The king went up to the house of the LORD with all the men of Judah, and with him all the inhabitants of Jerusalem—the priests and the prophets and all the people, both small and great. And he [a]read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant [b]which had been found in the house of the LORD.
3 Then the king [a]stood by a pillar and made a [b]covenant before the LORD, to follow the LORD and to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His statutes, with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people took a stand for the covenant.
4 And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, the [a]priests of the second order, and the doorkeepers, to bring [b]out of the temple of the LORD all the articles that were made for Baal, for [1]Asherah, and for all [2]the host of heaven; and he burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried their ashes to Bethel.
5 Then he removed the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense on the high places in the cities of Judah and in the places all around Jerusalem, and those who burned incense to Baal, to the sun, to the moon, to the [1]constellations, and to [a]all the host of heaven.

A Clean House

When God speaks to you, don't be surprised if you have a renewed vigor to remove any sinful thing from your life. As you become aware of your impure attitudes or practices, quickly remove them, and your relationship to God will be enriched.

6 And he brought out the [a]wooden[1] image from the house of the LORD, to the Brook Kidron outside Jerusalem, burned it at the Brook Kidron and ground it to [b]ashes, and threw its ashes on [c]the graves of the common people.
7 Then he tore down the ritual [1]booths [a]of the [2]perverted persons that were in the house of the LORD, [b]where the [c]women wove hangings for the wooden image.
8 And he brought all the priests from the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from [a]Geba to Beersheba; also he broke down the high places at the gates which were at the entrance of the Gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were to the left of the city gate.
9 [a]Nevertheless the priests of the high places did not come up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, [b]but they ate unleavened bread among their brethren.
10 And he defiled [a]Topheth, which is in [b]the Valley of the [1]Son of Hinnom, [c]that no man might make his son or his daughter [d]pass through the fire to Molech.
11 Then he removed the horses that the kings of Judah had [1]dedicated to the sun, at the entrance to the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nathan-Melech, the officer who was in the court; and he burned the chariots of the sun with fire.
12 The altars that were [a]on the roof, the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which [b]Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, the king broke down and pulverized there, and threw their dust into the Brook Kidron.
13 Then the king defiled the [1]high places that were east of Jerusalem, which were on the [2]south of [3]the Mount of Corruption, which [a]Solomon king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Sidonians, for Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, and for Milcom the abomination of the people of Ammon.
14 And he [a]broke in pieces the sacred pillars and cut down the wooden images, and filled their places with the bones of men.
15 Moreover the altar that was at Bethel, and the [1]high place [a]which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he broke down; and he burned the high place and crushed it to powder, and burned the wooden image.
16 As Josiah turned, he saw the tombs that were there on the mountain. And he sent and took the bones out of the tombs and burned them on the altar, and defiled it according to the [a]word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these words.
17 Then he said, "What gravestone is this that I see?" So the men of the city told him, "It is [a]the tomb of the man of God who came from Judah and proclaimed these things which you have done against the altar of Bethel."
18 And he said, "Let him alone; let no one move his bones." So they let his bones alone, with the bones of [a]the prophet who came from Samaria.
19 Now Josiah also took away all the [1]shrines of the [2]high places that were [a]in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke [3]the LORD to anger; and he did to them according to all the deeds he had done in Bethel.
20 [a]He [b]executed all the priests of the [1]high places who were there, on the altars, and [c]burned men's bones on them; and he returned to Jerusalem.
21 Then the king commanded all the people, saying, [a]"Keep the Passover to the LORD your God, [b]as it is written in this Book of the Covenant."
22 [a]Such a Passover surely had never been held since the days of the judges who judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel and the kings of Judah.
23 But in the eighteenth year of King Josiah this Passover was held before the LORD in Jerusalem.
24 Moreover Josiah put away those who consulted mediums and spiritists, the household gods and idols, all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, that he might perform the words of [a]the law which were written in the book [b]that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the LORD.

25 [a]Now before him there was no king like him, who turned to the LORD with all his heart, with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the Law of Moses; nor after him did any arise like him.

Impending Judgment on Judah

26 Nevertheless the LORD did not turn from the fierceness of His great wrath, with which His anger was aroused against Judah, [a]because of all the provocations with which Manasseh had provoked Him.
27 And the LORD said, "I will also remove Judah from My sight, as [a]I have removed Israel, and will cast off this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and the house of which I said, [b]'My name shall be there.' "

Josiah Dies in Battle

28 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
29 [a]In his days Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt went [1]to the aid of the king of Assyria, to the River Euphrates; and King Josiah went against him. And Pharaoh Necho killed him at [b]Megiddo when he [c]confronted him.
30 [a]Then his servants moved his body in a chariot from Megiddo, brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own tomb. And [b]the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, anointed him, and made him king in his father's place.

32 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.
33 Now Pharaoh Necho put him in prison [a]at Riblah in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and he imposed on the land a tribute of one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

Jehoiakim Reigns in Judah

35 So Jehoiakim gave [a]the silver and gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give money according to the command of Pharaoh; he exacted the silver and gold from the people of the land, from every one according to his assessment, to give it to Pharaoh Necho.
36 [a]Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zebudah the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah.

Judah Overrun by Enemies

24 In [a]his days Nebuchadnezzar king of [b]Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his vassal for three years. Then he turned and rebelled against him.
2 [a]And the LORD sent against him raiding [1]bands of Chaldeans, bands of Syrians, bands of Moabites, and bands of the people of Ammon; He sent them against Judah to destroy it, [b]according to the word of the LORD which He had spoken by His servants the prophets.
3 Surely at the commandment of the LORD this came upon Judah, to remove them from His sight [a]because of the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he had done,
4 [a]and also because of the innocent blood that he had shed; for he had filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, which the LORD would not pardon.
5 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
6 [a]So Jehoiakim rested with his fathers. Then Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place.

23:29 There is some confusion regarding Josiah's battle with Egypt's Pharaoh Neco. The Assyrian empire was crumbling under the attacks of the Babylonian and Median kingdoms. Neco, in an attempt to preserve his control of Palestine and help maintain a balance of power in Mesopotamia, moved to assist Assyria. According to 2 Chr. 35:21, Neco had no intention of battling Judah and attempted to convince Josiah to avoid the conflict. The scripture does not indicate why Josiah chose to fight, but he may have been trying to protect the expanded kingdom he had acquired during Assyria's demise.

24:1 Nebuchadnezzar succeeded his father Nabopolassar as the second king of the Chaldean dynasty of Babylon. After defeating the Assyrian and Egyptian armies at Carchemish, he campaigned in Syria and Palestine, turning nations such as Judah into vassal states. In 597 B.C., Nebuchadnezzar besieged Jerusalem and placed Zedekiah on the throne. In 587 B.C. he laid siege to Jerusalem a second time, destroying the temple and initiating the Babylonian captivity that would last until 538 B.C. Nebuchadnezzar died in 562 B.C. and was succeeded by his son Amel-Marduk (Evil-Merodach, Jer. 52:31).

Point of No Return

We are reckless if we count on God's repeated forgiveness as we continually reject His instruction. God is patient and longsuffering, but there comes a point when He refuses to pardon our habitual sin and He will not offer another opportunity to repent. Instead He brings judgment according to what we deserve. The Lord's warnings are meant to preserve our relationship with Him and to prevent His judgment. How foolish we are to ignore Him!

Babylon had taken all that belonged to the king of Egypt from the Brook of Egypt to the River Euphrates.

The Reign and Captivity of Jehoiachin

8 [a]Jehoiachin[1] was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. His mother's name was Nehushta the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.
9 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father had done.
10 [a]At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and the city [1]was besieged.
11 And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came against the city, as his servants were besieging it.
12 [a]Then Jehoiachin king of Judah, his mother, his servants, his princes, and his officers went out to the king of Babylon; and the king of Babylon, [b]in the eighth year of his reign, took him prisoner.

The Captivity of Jerusalem

13 [a]And he carried out from there all the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house, and he [b]cut in pieces all the articles of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the LORD, [c]as the LORD had said.
14 Also [a]he carried into captivity all Jerusalem: all the captains and all the mighty men of valor, [b]ten thousand captives, and [c]all the craftsmen and smiths. None remained except [d]the poorest people of the land.
15 And [a]he carried Jehoiachin captive to Babylon. The king's mother, the king's wives, his officers, and the mighty of the land he carried into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.
16 [a]All the valiant men, seven thousand, and craftsmen and smiths, one thousand, all who were strong and fit for war, these the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon.

Zedekiah Reigns in Judah

17 Then [a]the king of Babylon made Mattaniah, [b]Jehoiachin's[1] uncle, king in his place, and [c]changed his name to Zedekiah.
18 [a]Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was [b]Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.
19 [a]He also did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.
20 For because of the anger of the LORD this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, that He finally cast them out from His presence. [a]Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

The Fall and Captivity of Judah

1 [a]Jer. 6:6; 34:2

24:14 As countries expanded their influence they needed to replace men lost in battle to maintain their military might. Thus, Judean warriors were conscripted to serve in the Babylonian army. Tradesmen and craftsmen were taken to Babylon to work on Nebuchadnezzar's building projects.

and all his army came against Jerusalem and encamped against it; and they built a siege wall against it all around.
2 So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.
3 By the ninth day of the [a]fourth month the famine had become so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.
4 Then [a]the city wall was broken through, and all the men of war fled at night by way of the gate between two walls, which was by the king's garden, even though the Chaldeans were still encamped all around against the city. And [b]the king[1] went by way of the [2]plain.
5 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and they overtook him in the plains of Jericho. All his army was scattered from him.
6 So they took the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon [a]at Riblah, and they pronounced judgment on him.
7 Then they killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, [a]put[1] out the eyes of Zedekiah, bound him with bronze fetters, and took him to Babylon.
8 And in the fifth month, [a]on the seventh day of the month (which was [b]the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), [c]Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.
9 [a]He burned the house of the LORD [b]and the king's house; all the houses of Jerusalem, that is, all the houses of the great, [c]he burned with fire.
10 And all the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the guard [a]broke down the walls of Jerusalem all around.
11 Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive [a]the rest of the people who remained in the city and the defectors who had deserted to the king of Babylon, with the rest of the multitude.
12 But the captain of the guard [a]left some of the poor of the land as vinedressers and farmers.
13 [a]The bronze [b]pillars that were in the house of the LORD, and [c]the carts and [d]the bronze Sea that were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke in pieces, and [e]carried their bronze to Babylon.
14 They also took away [a]the pots, the shovels, the trimmers, the spoons, and all the bronze utensils with which the priests ministered.
15 The firepans and the basins, the things of solid gold and solid silver, the captain of the guard took away.
16 The two pillars, one Sea, and the carts, which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD, [a]the bronze of all these articles was beyond measure.
17 [a]The height of one pillar was [1]eighteen cubits, and the capital on it was of bronze. The height of the capital was three cubits, and the network and pomegranates all around the capital were all of bronze. The second pillar was the same, with a network.
18 [a]And the captain of the guard took [b]Seraiah the chief priest, [c]Zephaniah the second priest, and the three doorkeepers.
19 He also took out of the city an officer who had charge of the men of war, [a]five men of [1]the king's close associates who were found in the city, the chief recruiting officer of the army, who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the city.
20 So Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, took these and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.
21 Then the king of Babylon struck them and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. [a]Thus Judah was carried away captive from its own land.

CHARACTER*Study* GEDALIAH 2 Kin. 25:22

Gedaliah came from a prominent family in Jerusalem. His grandfather was a scribe during Josiah's rule (2 Kin. 22:3) and was also a member of the team sent to inquire of the prophetess Huldah (22:11). In addition he was responsible for stopping a mob from harming the prophet Jeremiah (Jer. 26:24). While serving as a Babylonian steward in Mizpah, Gedaliah earned Jeremiah's support (Jer. 39:14; 40:1–6) and he was respected among the Jewish people (Jer. 40:7–16). He wisely advised the people to settle down and accept Babylonian rule.

25:9 To prevent further revolts and to punish the instigators, the significant structures and homes of the leaders were burned to the ground. Religion played an important role in the national character and served as a rallying point for rebellion. Therefore the temple was destroyed to break the people's will and to convince the people of Judah that the Babylonian gods were greater than the God of Israel. However, the Babylonians did not understand that their victory over Jerusalem was not of their own doing, but an act of God's judgment on His people (2 Kin. 23:26, 27; 24:3, 4).

Gedaliah Made Governor of Judah

22 Then he made Gedaliah the son of [a]Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, governor over [b]the people who remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left.

23 Now when all the [a]captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah—Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, Johanan the son of Careah, Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and [1]Jaazaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men.

24 And Gedaliah took an oath before them and their men, and said to them, "Do not be afraid of the servants of the Chaldeans. Dwell in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you."

25 But [a]it happened in the seventh month that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal family, came with ten men and struck and killed Gedaliah, the Jews, as well as the Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah.

26 And all the people, small and great, and the captains of the armies, arose [a]and went to Egypt; for they were afraid of the Chaldeans.

Accepting the Lord's Judgment

Do not fight against God's judgment. Accept what God brings into your life. Do not be afraid, but return to God and accept His will. Times of correction are most often only for a season and are meant to draw you back to a pure walk with Him.

Jehoiachin Released from Prison

27 [a]Now it came to pass in the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, that [1]Evil-Merodach king of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign, [b]released Jehoiachin king of Judah from prison.

28 He spoke kindly to him, and gave him a more prominent seat than those of the kings who were with him in Babylon.

29 So Jehoiachin changed from his prison garments, and he [a]ate [1]bread regularly before the king all the days of his life.

30 And as for his [1]provisions, there was a [2]regular ration given him by the king, a portion for each day, all the days of his life.

THE FIRST BOOK OF THE

CHRONICLES

INTRODUCTION

Originally, 1 and 2 Chronicles were together as one book. Translators of the Septuagint (the Greek translation of the Jewish Scriptures), divided them as a matter of convenience. Together, 1 and 2 Chronicles provide a religious history of the Davidic dynasty of Judah. The Hebrew title of these books was "The Words [events] of the Days." Because Chronicles relied upon the books of Samuel and Kings and presented a history from David to the fall of Jerusalem, the Septuagint titled the work "Of Things Omitted" which referred to the materials included that had been left out of Samuel and Kings. However, it was not until Jerome translated the work into Latin in the fourth century A.D. that it became known as Chronicles. Chronicles differs from Kings in that the Chronicler did not attempt to write a royal history of the kings of Israel, but rather focused on the religious life of Judah with an eye upon matters such as the temple, prayer, worship, and the Levites.

SIGNIFICANCE

Chronicles was written to the Jewish community in and around Jerusalem during the Second Temple period. These people were under Persian rule, described in Ezra 9:8, 9 and Nehemiah 9:37 as a time of slavery and great distress. The people were pressured by hostile neighbors (Ezra 3:12), poverty (Neh 5:2–5), faithless religious behavior (Is 57:3–13; 65: 3–7; 66:17), and they were in jeopardy of losing their identity through intermarriage (Ezra 9:1, 2; 10:18–44). The Chronicler sought to provide hope and a sense of identity to the people returning from exile. Through the use of genealogies the people were reminded that they were the chosen people of God. Regardless of the fact that they no longer had a Davidic king, Chronicles reminded the people that the throne and kingdom belonged to God and He would continue to rule His people.

Chronicles presents a message of unity among the people of God and attempts to rally the people through the worship of the Lord in the newly constructed temple. The second temple did not match the splendor of the first, but it was the dwelling place of God, and those administering the religious duties in Jerusalem were following God's original commands. The worship in the Jerusalem temple was also used as a call to reunite all of Israel, including those who remained in the northern kingdom following the Assyrian destruction.

STRUCTURE

First Chronicles can be divided into two distinct sections. The first part (1:1—9:44) provided a genealogical profile of God's people from Adam to the postexilic community. This section served to remind the people of their identity as God's people and also stressed the understanding that the descendants of all twelve tribes of Jacob, not just the people remaining in Judah, were God's chosen people. The second section (10:1—29:30) presents an account of the history and religious life of the Israelites from the time of Saul through the rule of David.

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH 1 CHRONICLES

As you read Chronicles, do not become overwhelmed by the genealogies and histories of the various kings. In the same way that the people of Judah needed to find their identity following disobedience and judgment, Christians today must be reminded that we are God's people and that God desires to restore His people when we face judgment. You will also be confronted and encouraged to worship God with a pure and holy heart. Some excellent prayers of thanksgiving and praise are recorded in this book. While we do not worship God in the temple, praise and thanksgiving remain an important part of the Christian's life as we serve God with a joyful disposition and a generous heart. Chronicles provides valuable truths for Christian leaders. They are to model sincere obedience and faithful worship towards God. There is a strong challenge to leaders to walk worthy of God's calling for the sake of God's people. The manner in which leaders honor God will have a direct impact on the spiritual life of the rest of the people and will ultimately, therefore, influence God's blessing or His judgment.

1:1 The Chronicler used the lengthy genealogies of chapters 1–9 to establish Israel's place in the world and to remind the Israelites of their role among the nations. The Jews may have thought they were insignificant in the midst of the great Persian empire, but the genealogies reminded them they were God's chosen people. The genealogies can be divided into three sections: from Adam to Israel (or Jacob, 1:1—2:2); the twelve tribes of Israel (2:3—9:1); and the postexilic community (9:1–24).

1:4 The names Shem, Ham, and Japheth appear to be three succeeding generations. However, this list has been taken from Genesis chapter five and represents one generation of brothers.

The Family of Seir

38 [a]The sons of Seir were Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan.

5 The sons of [a]Perez were Hezron and Hamul.

2:1 The sons of Israel (Jacob) are listed according to their mothers: first the sons of Jacob's principal wives, Leah and Rachel, followed by the sons of the concubines, Bilhah and Zilpah.

2:3 While chapters two to nine present the entire genealogy of Israel, the tribe of Judah is placed in a prominent position, with the house of David given the greatest significance. This structure parallels the theological understanding expressed by David later in 1 Chronicles 28:4.

2:7 Achar, meaning "trouble," is a reference to Achan in Joshua 7:24–26. He was remembered for bringing trouble upon Israel when he violated God's command and concealed contraband from Jericho. Because of Achan's sin, God did not fight on Israel's behalf against the city of Ai and the Israelites suffered defeat.

The Family of Hezron

18 Caleb the son of Hezron had children by Azubah, his wife, and by Jerioth. Now these were her sons: Jesher, Shobab, and Ardon.
19 When Azubah died, Caleb [1]took [a]Ephrath[2] as his wife, who bore him Hur.
20 And Hur begot Uri, and Uri begot [a]Bezalel.
21 Now afterward Hezron went in to the daughter of [a]Machir the father of Gilead, whom he married when he was sixty years old; and she bore him Segub.
22 Segub begot [a]Jair,[1] who had twenty-three cities in the land of Gilead.
23 [a](Geshur and Syria took from them the towns of Jair, with Kenath and its towns—sixty towns.) All these belonged to the sons of Machir the father of Gilead.
24 After Hezron died in Caleb Ephrathah, Hezron's wife Abijah bore him [a]Ashhur the father of Tekoa.

The Family of Jerahmeel

25 The sons of Jerahmeel, the firstborn of Hezron, were Ram, the firstborn, and Bunah, Oren, Ozem, and Ahijah.
26 Jerahmeel had another wife, whose name was Atarah; she was the mother of Onam.
27 The sons of Ram, the firstborn of Jerahmeel, were Maaz, Jamin, and Eker.
28 The sons of Onam were Shammai and Jada. The sons of Shammai were Nadab and Abishur.
29 And the name of the wife of Abishur was Abihail, and she bore him Ahban and Molid.
30 The sons of Nadab were Seled and Appaim; Seled died without children.
31 The son of Appaim was Ishi, the son of Ishi was Sheshan, and [a]Sheshan's son was Ahlai.
32 The sons of Jada, the brother of Shammai, were Jether and Jonathan; Jether died without children.
33 The sons of Jonathan were Peleth and Zaza. These were the sons of Jerahmeel.
34 Now Sheshan had no sons, only daughters. And Sheshan had an Egyptian servant whose name was Jarha.
35 Sheshan gave his daughter to Jarha his servant as wife, and she bore him Attai.
36 Attai begot Nathan, and Nathan begot [a]Zabad;
37 Zabad begot Ephlal, and Ephlal begot [a]Obed;
38 Obed begot Jehu, and Jehu begot Azariah;
39 Azariah begot Helez, and Helez begot Eleasah;
40 Eleasah begot Sismai, and Sismai begot Shallum;
41 Shallum begot Jekamiah, and Jekamiah begot Elishama.

The Family of Caleb

42 The descendants of Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel were Mesha, his firstborn, who was the father of Ziph, and the sons of Mareshah the father of Hebron.
43 The sons of Hebron were Korah, Tappuah, Rekem, and Shema.
44 Shema begot Raham the father of Jorkoam, and Rekem begot Shammai.
45 And the son of Shammai was Maon, and Maon was the father of Beth Zur.
46 Ephah, Caleb's concubine, bore Haran, Moza, and Gazez; and Haran begot Gazez.
47 And the sons of Jahdai were Regem, Jotham, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah, and Shaaph.
48 Maachah, Caleb's concubine, bore Sheber and Tirhanah.
49 She also bore Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheva the father of Machbenah and the father of Gibea. And the daughter of Caleb was [a]Achsah.[1]
50 These were the descendants of Caleb:
The sons of [a]Hur, the firstborn of [1]Ephrathah, were Shobal the father of [b]Kirjath Jearim, 51 Salma the father of Bethlehem, and Hareph the father of Beth Gader.
52 And Shobal the father of Kirjath Jearim had descendants: [1]Haroeh, and half of the [2]families of Manuhoth.
53 The families of Kirjath Jearim were the Ithrites, the Puthites, the Shumathites, and the Mishraites. From these came the Zorathites and the Eshtaolites.
54 The sons of Salma were Bethlehem, the Netophathites, [1]Atroth Beth Joab, half of the Manahethites, and the Zorites.
55 And the families of the scribes who dwelt at Jabez were the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, and the Suchathites. These were the [a]Kenites who came from Hammath, the father of the house of [b]Rechab.

The Family of David

3 Now these were the sons of David who were born to him in Hebron: The firstborn was [a]Amnon, by [b]Ahinoam the [c]Jezreelitess; the second, [1]Daniel, by [d]Abigail the Carmelitess;
2 the third, [a]Absalom the son of

ABSALOM

2 Chr. 3:2

Absalom was from royal lineage on both sides of his family and was a potential heir to David's throne (2 Sam. 3:3). He was forced into exile after killing his brother Amnon for the rape of his sister Tamar (2 Sam. 13:1–29). Absalom was allowed back in to Israel following a three year stay with his grandfather Talmai in Geshur (2 Sam. 13:37–39). Upon his return, he began plotting to seize his father's throne (2 Sam. 15:7–12). He successfully took control of Jerusalem, violated his father's concubines in a show of power, and forced David to flee to Mahanaim beyond the Jordan River (2 Sam. 17:24). Absalom's endeavor to take the kingdom was eventually aborted by David and his army in the woods of Ephraim. There the usurper was killed by Joab, the captain of David's army (2 Sam. 18:14). When David heard the news of his son's death, he cried out, "O my son Absalom—my son, my son Absalom—if only I had died in your place" (2 Sam. 18:33). Absalom was a talented and popular man. However, he was also impatient, prideful, and ambitious. David understood that while his son's activities were despicable, God had foretold conflict and turmoil in his family due to David's own sin (2 Sam. 12:9, 10).

3:9 The mention of only one daughter of David does not indicate he only had one, but that she played an important role in the Davidic history (2 Sam. 13:1–39).

3:10 The Davidic dynastic line is well established in the Books of 1 and 2 Kings up to the point of the exile. Queen Athaliah is omitted from the list as she was a usurper and was replaced by Joash who continued David's succession (2 Kin. 11:1–6).

Temeni, and Haahashtari. These were the sons of Naarah.
7 The sons of Helah were Zereth, Zohar, and Ethnan;
8 and Koz begot Anub, Zobebah, and the families of Aharhel the son of Harum.
9 Now Jabez was [a]more honorable than his brothers, and his mother called his name [1]Jabez, saying, "Because I bore him in pain."

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Chr. 4:9

A New Start

A bad past does not determine the outcome of your life. God sees you for who you are. He will set you free from any former disgrace if you call on Him in honest prayer.

10 And Jabez called on the God of Israel saying, "Oh, that You would bless me indeed, and enlarge my [1]territory, that Your hand would be with me, and that You would keep me from evil, that I may not cause pain!" So God granted him what he requested.
11 Chelub the brother of [a]Shuhah begot Mehir, who was the father of Eshton.
12 And Eshton begot Beth-Rapha, Paseah, and Tehinnah the father of [1]Ir-Nahash. These were the men of Rechah.
13 The sons of Kenaz were [a]Othniel and Seraiah. The sons of Othniel were [1]Hathath, 14 and Meonothai who begot Ophrah. Seraiah begot Joab the father of [a]Ge Harashim,[1] for they were craftsmen.
15 The sons of [a]Caleb the son of Jephunneh were Iru, Elah, and Naam. The son of Elah was [1]Kenaz.
16 The sons of Jehallelel were Ziph, Ziphah, Tiria, and Asarel.
17 The sons of Ezrah were Jether, Mered, Epher, and Jalon. And [1]Mered's wife bore Miriam, Shammai, and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa.

19 The sons of Hodiah's wife, the sister of Naham, were the fathers of Keilah the Garmite and of Eshtemoa the [a]Maachathite.
20 And the sons of Shimon were Amnon, Rinnah, Ben-Hanan, and Tilon. And the sons of Ishi were Zoheth and Ben-Zoheth.
21 The sons of [a]Shelah [b]the son of Judah were Er the father of Lecah, Laadah the father of Mareshah, and the families of the house of the linen workers of the house of Ashbea;
22 also Jokim, the men of Chozeba, and Joash; Saraph, who ruled in Moab, and Jashubi-Lehem. Now the [1]records are ancient.
23 These were the potters and those who dwell at [1]Netaim and [2]Gederah; there they dwelt with the king for his work.

25 Shallum his son, Mibsam his son, and Mishma his son.
26 And the sons of Mishma were Hamuel his son, Zacchur his son, and Shimei his son.
27 Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters; but his brothers did not have many children, [a]nor did any of their families multiply as much as the children of Judah.
28 They dwelt at Beersheba, Moladah, Hazar Shual,
29 [1]Bilhah, Ezem, [2]Tolad,
30 Bethuel, Hormah, Ziklag,
31 Beth Marcaboth, [1]Hazar Susim, Beth Biri, and at Shaaraim. These were their cities until the reign of David.

HISTORICAL*Encounter* JOHN HYDE 1 Chr. 4:10

John Hyde was a dedicated missionary to India. Yet his early years of ministry were not marked with significant success. Then, in 1898, he was stricken for seven months with typhoid fever. As he was recovering from this debilitating illness he endured two severe abscesses in his back that produced a nervous disorder. During these frustrating months of inactivity, Hyde studied scripture and prayed. God particularly impressed upon him 1 Chronicles 4:10. Hyde came to understand that God must first increase Hyde's faith before He would enlarge his ministry. Hyde spent those invalid months releasing his life to God. Upon his recovery, he began spending entire nights in prayer. His missionary efforts flourished as God give him an average of five converts every day. Hyde became a towering prayer warrior and evangelist for India, but God first prepared his life through suffering.

Rimmon, Tochen, and Ashan—five cities—
33 and all the villages that were around these cities as far as [1]Baal. These were their dwelling places, and they maintained their genealogy:
34 Meshobab, Jamlech, and Joshah the son of Amaziah;
35 Joel, and Jehu the son of Joshibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel;
36 Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, and Benaiah;
37 Ziza the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah—
38 these mentioned by name were leaders in their families, and their father's house increased greatly.
39 So they went to the entrance of Gedor, as far as the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks.
40 And they found rich, good pasture, and the land was broad, quiet, and peaceful; for some Hamites formerly lived there.
41 These recorded by name came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah; and they [a]attacked[1] their tents and the Meunites who were found there, and [b]utterly destroyed them, as it is to this day. So they dwelt in their place, because there was pasture for their flocks there.
42 Now some of them, five hundred men of the sons of Simeon, went to Mount Seir, having as their captains Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi.
43 And they [1]defeated [a]the rest of the Amalekites who had escaped. They have dwelt there to this day.

The Family of Reuben

5 Now the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel—[a]he was indeed the firstborn, but because he [b]defiled his father's bed, [c]his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph, the son of Israel, so that the genealogy is not listed according to the birthright;
2 yet [a]Judah prevailed over his brothers, and from him came a [b]ruler, although [1]the birthright was Joseph's—
3 the sons of [a]Reuben the firstborn of Israel were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.
4 The sons of Joel were Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son,
5 Micah his son, Reaiah his son, Baal his son,
6 and Beerah his son, whom [1]Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria [a]carried into captivity. He was leader of the Reubenites.
7 And his brethren by their families, [a]when the genealogy of their generations was registered: the chief, Jeiel, and Zechariah,
8 and Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who dwelt in [a]Aroer, as far as Nebo and Baal Meon.
9 Eastward they settled as far as the [1]entrance of the wilderness this side of the River Euphrates, because their cattle had [2]multiplied [a]in the land of Gilead.
10 Now in the days of Saul they made war [a]with the Hagrites, who fell by their hand; and they dwelt in their tents throughout the entire area east of Gilead.

The Family of Gad

11 And the [a]children of Gad dwelt next to them in the land of [b]Bashan as far as [c]Salcah:
12 Joel was the chief, Shapham the next, then Jaanai and Shaphat in Bashan, 13 and their brethren of their father's house: Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jachan, Zia, and Eber—seven in all.
14 These were the children of Abihail the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz;
15 Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, was chief of their father's house.
16 And the Gadites dwelt in Gilead, in Bashan and in its villages, and in all the [1]common-lands of [a]Sharon within their borders.
17 All these were registered by genealogies in the days of [a]Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of [b]Jeroboam king of Israel.

4:40 Both the Philistines and the Canaanites were designated as sons of Ham (Gen. 10:6, 14).

4:41 The need for more territory is consistent with King Hezekiah's time. This was a period of economic growth and expansion. As Judah prospered, the people needed more land to accommodate the new growth. Hezekiah is noted in 2 Kings 18:8 to have "subdued the Philistines, as far as Gaza and its territory, from watchtower to fortified city," and this raid may have been a continuation of his earlier actions.

4:43 The Amalekites were a nomadic people located mainly in the Sinai Peninsula and the Negev (the southern part of present day Israel). Throughout the Old Testament period, the Amalekites were bitter enemies of the Israelites (Judg. 6:3, 33; 7:12–22; 1 Sam. 14:48; 15:1–9; 27:8–10; 30:1–31). Because of their hostility, Moses declared that God would continually wage war against them (Ex. 17:16).

5:1 By the time the Chronicler recorded his genealogy, the tribes east of the Jordan—Reuben, Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh—had lost most of their tribal identity. Because of their remote location, they did not remain in close contact with the other tribes. Eventually, the tribe of Reuben was absorbed by Gad.

5:10 The Hagrites are included with the Ishmaelites and Moabites as enemies of Israel in Psalm 83:6. However, further identification of this people is unavailable.

18 The sons of Reuben, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh had forty-four thousand seven hundred and sixty valiant men, men able to bear shield and sword, to shoot with the bow, and skillful in war, who went to war.
19 They made war with the Hagrites, [a]Jetur, Naphish, and Nodab.
20 And [a]they were helped against them, and the Hagrites were delivered into their hand, and all who were with them, for they [b]cried out to God in the battle. He [1]heeded their prayer, because they [c]put their trust in Him.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Chr. 5:20

God Responds

God is prepared to act on your behalf if you trust Him. When you reach out to God in pure faith, expect Him to hear you and to respond.

21 Then they took away their livestock—fifty thousand of their camels, two hundred and fifty thousand of their sheep, and two thousand of their donkeys—also one hundred thousand of their men;
22 for many fell dead, because the war [a]was God's. And they dwelt in their place until [b]the captivity.

The Family of Manasseh (East)

23 So the children of the half-tribe of Manasseh dwelt in the land. Their numbers increased from Bashan to Baal Hermon, that is, to [a]Senir, or Mount Hermon.
24 These were the heads of their fathers' houses: Epher, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, and Jahdiel. They were mighty men of valor, famous men, and heads of their fathers' houses.
25 And they were unfaithful to the God of their fathers, and [a]played the harlot after the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God had destroyed before them.
26 So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of [a]Pul king of Assyria, that is, [b]Tiglath-Pileser[1] king of Assyria. He carried the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh into captivity. He took them to [c]Halah, Habor, Hara, and the river of Gozan to this day.

God's Sovereignty

People do not control history. God directs people's destinies. Powerful and prominent leaders may boast of their accomplishments, but it is God who uses them as He chooses to carry out His purposes. Kingdoms and leaders rule within parameters set by God.

16 The sons of Levi were [a]Gershon,[1] Kohath, and Merari.
17 These are the names of the sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimei.
18 The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.
19 The sons of Merari were Mahli and

5:25 There is a stark contrast between the destruction and exile in this verse and the victory recorded in verse 20. The difference between these events and the reason for the demise of the Transjordan tribes is that they did not cry out to the Lord and honor Him as they had done approximately three hundred years earlier.

6:2 The Kohathites formed the first of the three division of the Levites (Ex. 6:16; 18; Num. 3:17). They were responsible for the vessels of the tabernacle (Num 3:29, 31).

6:14 Jehozadak, the last priest on the list, was taken into exile to Babylon. He was the father of Joshua, the priest who returned from Babylon with Zerubbabel to rebuild the temple.

21 [1]Joah his son, [2]Iddo his son, Zerah his son, and [3]Jeatherai his son.
22 The sons of Kohath were [1]Amminadab his son, [a]Korah his son, Assir his son,
23 Elkanah his son, Ebiasaph his son, Assir his son,
24 Tahath his son, Uriel his son, Uzziah his son, and Shaul his son.
25 The sons of Elkanah were [a]Amasai and Ahimoth.
26 As for Elkanah, the sons of Elkanah were [1]Zophai his son, [2]Nahath his son, 27 [1]Eliab his son, Jeroham his son, and Elkanah his son.
28 The sons of Samuel were [1]Joel the firstborn, and Abijah [2]the second.
29 The sons of Merari were Mahli, Libni his son, Shimei his son, Uzzah his son, 30 Shimea his son, Haggiah his son, and Asaiah his son.

Musicians in the House of the LORD

31 Now these are [a]the men whom David appointed over the service of song in the house of the LORD, after the [b]ark came to rest.
32 They were ministering with music before the dwelling place of the tabernacle of meeting, until Solomon had built the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, and they served in their office according to their order.
33 And these are the ones who [1]ministered with their sons: Of the sons of the [a]Kohathites were Heman the singer, the son of Joel, the son of Samuel,
34 the son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of [1]Eliel, the son of [2]Toah,
35 the son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai,
36 the son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah,
37 the son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of [a]Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, 38 the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel.
39 And his brother [a]Asaph, who stood at his right hand, was Asaph the son of Berachiah, the son of Shimea,
40 the son of Michael, the son of Baaseiah, the son of Malchijah,
41 the son of [a]Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah,
42 the son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei,
43 the son of Jahath, the son of Gershon, the son of Levi.
44 Their brethren, the sons of Merari, on the left hand, were [1]Ethan the son of [2]Kishi, the son of Abdi, the son of Malluch,
45 the son of Hashabiah, the son of Amaziah, the son of Hilkiah,
46 the son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shamer,
47 the son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi.
48 And their brethren, the Levites, were appointed to every [a]kind of service of the tabernacle of the house of God.

The Family of Aaron

49 [a]But Aaron and his sons offered sacrifices [b]on the altar of burnt offering and [c]on the altar of incense, for all the work of the Most Holy Place, and to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.
50 Now these are the [a]sons of Aaron: Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son,
51 Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son,
52 Meraioth his son, Amariah his son, Ahitub his son,
53 Zadok his son, and Ahimaaz his son.

Dwelling Places of the Levites

54 [a]Now these are their dwelling places throughout their settlements in their territory, for they were given by lot to the sons of Aaron, of the family of the Kohathites:
55 [a]They gave them Hebron in the land of Judah, with its surrounding [1]common-lands.
56 [a]But the fields of the city and its villages they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh.
57 And [a]to the sons of Aaron they gave one of the cities of refuge, Hebron; also Libnah with its common-lands, Jattir, Eshtemoa with its common-lands,
58 [1]Hilen with its common-lands, Debir with its common-lands,
59 [1]Ashan with its common-lands, and Beth Shemesh with its common-lands.

6:28 Although Samuel was described as an Ephraimite due to the location of his home, he was in fact a Levite (1 Sam. 1:1).

6:31 It is not surprising that David should take interest in the music used for worship and personally appoint those who would oversee its practice. David's association with music is well attested (2 Sam. 6:5; 23:1; Amos 6:5).

6:57 Six Levitical cities called "cities of refuge" were designated to provide safety for those guilty of manslaughter. The three cities of refuge on the west side of the Jordan were Kedesh in Galilee, Shechem in the mountains of Ephraim, and Hebron in the mountains of Judah. The three cities east of the Jordan were Bezer on the plain of Moab, Ramoth Gilead in Gilead, and Golan in Bashan (Num. 35:6, 7; Josh. 20:7, 8). The regulations for these cities are clearly outlined (Num. 35; Deut. 19:1–13; Josh. 20).

60 And from the tribe of Benjamin: Geba with its common-lands, [1]Alemeth with its common-lands, and Anathoth with its common-lands. All their cities among their families were thirteen.
61 [a]To the rest of the family of the tribe of the Kohathites they gave [b]by lot ten cities from half the tribe of Manasseh.
62 And to the sons of Gershon, throughout their families, they gave thirteen cities from the tribe of Issachar, from the tribe of Asher, from the tribe of Naphtali, and from the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.
63 To the sons of Merari, throughout their families, they gave [a]twelve cities from the tribe of Reuben, from the tribe of Gad, and from the tribe of Zebulun.
64 So the children of Israel gave these cities with their [1]common-lands to the Levites.
65 And they gave by lot from the tribe of the children of Judah, from the tribe of the children of Simeon, and from the tribe of the children of Benjamin these cities which are called by their names.
66 Now [a]some of the families of the sons of Kohath were given cities as their territory from the tribe of Ephraim.
67 [a]And they gave them one of the cities of refuge, Shechem with its common-lands, in the mountains of Ephraim, also Gezer with its common-lands,
68 [a]Jokmeam with its common-lands, Beth Horon with its common-lands,
69 Aijalon with its common-lands, and Gath Rimmon with its common-lands.
70 And from the half-tribe of Manasseh: Aner with its common-lands and Bileam with its common-lands, for the rest of the family of the sons of Kohath.
71 From the family of the half-tribe of Manasseh the sons of Gershon were given Golan in Bashan with its common-lands and [1]Ashtaroth with its common-lands.
72 And from the tribe of Issachar: [1]Kedesh with its common-lands, Daberath with its common-lands, 73 Ramoth with its common-lands, and Anem with its common-lands.
74 And from the tribe of Asher: Mashal with its common-lands, Abdon with its common-lands,
75 Hukok with its common-lands, and Rehob with its common-lands.
76 And from the tribe of Naphtali: Kedesh in Galilee with its common-lands, Hammon with its common-lands, and Kirjathaim with its common-lands.

77 From the tribe of Zebulun the rest of the children of Merari were given [1]Rimmon with its common-lands and Tabor with its common-lands.
78 And on the other side of the Jordan, across from Jericho, on the east side of the Jordan, they were given from the tribe of Reuben: Bezer in the wilderness with its common-lands, Jahzah with its common-lands,
79 Kedemoth with its common-lands, and Mephaath with its common-lands.
80 And from the tribe of Gad: Ramoth in Gilead with its common-lands, Mahanaim with its common-lands, 81 Heshbon with its common-lands, and Jazer with its common-lands.

The Family of Issachar

7 The sons of Issachar were [a]Tola, [1]Puah, [2]Jashub, and Shimron—four in all.
2 The sons of Tola were Uzzi, Rephaiah, Jeriel, Jahmai, Jibsam, and Shemuel, heads of their father's house. The sons of Tola were mighty men of valor in their generations; [a]their number in the days of David was twenty-two thousand six hundred.
3 The son of Uzzi was Izrahiah, and the sons of Izrahiah were Michael, Obadiah, Joel, and Ishiah. All five of them were chief men.
4 And with them, by their generations, according to their fathers' houses, were thirty-six thousand troops ready for war; for they had many wives and sons.
5 Now their brethren among all the families of Issachar were mighty men of valor, listed by their genealogies, eighty-seven thousand in all.

The Family of Benjamin

6 The sons of [a]Benjamin were Bela, Becher, and Jediael—three in all.
7 The sons of Bela were Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Jerimoth, and Iri—five in all. They were heads of their fathers' houses, and they were listed by their genealogies, twenty-two thousand and thirty-four mighty men of valor.
8 The sons of Becher were Zemirah, Joash, Eliezer, Elioenai, Omri, Jerimoth, Abijah, Anathoth, and Alemeth. All these are the sons of Becher.
9 And they were recorded by genealogy according to their generations, heads of their fathers' houses, twenty thousand two hundred mighty men of valor.
10 The son of Jediael was Bilhan, and the sons of Bilhan were Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Chenaanah, Zethan, Tharshish, and Ahishahar.

7:2 David conducted a census during his reign (2 Sam. 24; 1 Chr. 21). Therefore, the Chronicler used this information as a reference point for his genealogy.

11 All these sons of Jediael were heads of their fathers' houses; there were seventeen thousand two hundred mighty men of valor fit to go out for war and battle.
12 [1]Shuppim and [2]Huppim were the sons of [3]Ir, and Hushim was the son of [4]Aher.

The Family of Naphtali

13 The [a]sons of Naphtali were [1]Jahziel, Guni, Jezer, and [2]Shallum, the sons of Bilhah.

The Family of Manasseh (West)

14 The [a]descendants of Manasseh: his Syrian concubine bore him [b]Machir the father of Gilead, the father of Asriel.
15 Machir took as his wife the sister of [1]Huppim and [2]Shuppim, whose name was Maachah. The name of Gilead's [3]grandson was [a]Zelophehad, but Zelophehad begot only daughters.
16 (Maachah the wife of Machir bore a son, and she called his name Peresh. The name of his brother was Sheresh, and his sons were Ulam and Rakem.
17 The son of Ulam was [a]Bedan.) These were the descendants of Gilead the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh.

20 [a]The sons of Ephraim were Shuthelah, Bered his son, Tahath his son, Eladah his son, Tahath his son,
21 Zabad his son, Shuthelah his son, and Ezer and Elead. The men of Gath who were born in that land killed them because they came down to take away their cattle.
22 Then Ephraim their father mourned many days, and his brethren came to comfort him.
23 And when he went in to his wife, she conceived and bore a son; and he called his name [1]Beriah, because tragedy had come upon his house.
24 Now his daughter was Sheerah, who built Lower and Upper [a]Beth Horon and Uzzen Sheerah;
25 and Rephah was his son, as well as Resheph, and Telah his son, Tahan his son,
26 Laadan his son, Ammihud his son, [a]Elishama his son,
27 [1]Nun his son, and [a]Joshua his son.
28 Now their [a]possessions and dwelling places were Bethel and its towns: to the east [1]Naaran, to the west Gezer and its towns, and Shechem and its towns, as far as [2]Ayyah and its towns;
29 and by the borders of the children of [a]Manasseh were Beth Shean and its towns, Taanach and its towns, [b]Megiddo and its towns, Dor and its towns. In these dwelt the children of Joseph, the son of Israel.

38 The sons of Jether were Jephunneh, Pispah, and Ara.
39 The sons of Ulla were Arah, Haniel, and Rizia.
40 All these were the children of Asher, heads of their fathers' houses, choice men, mighty men of valor, chief leaders. And they were recorded by genealogies among the army fit for battle; their number was twenty-six thousand.

The Family Tree of King Saul of Benjamin

8 Now Benjamin begot [a]Bela his firstborn, Ashbel the second, [1]Aharah the third,
2 Nohah the fourth, and Rapha the fifth.
3 The sons of Bela were [1]Addar, Gera, Abihud,
4 Abishua, Naaman, Ahoah,

7:29 The Chronicler uses the name "Israel" instead of "Jacob" because he was writing a genealogy to encourage and preserve the heritage of the people of Israel. The name "Israel" focuses on the development of the nation rather than on the individual.

7:40 Asher was a peripheral tribe descended from Zilpah, the handmaid of Leah (Gen. 46:17). This tribe provided a significant number of soldiers for Israel's army. However, the number of men included here reveals a reduction from the numbers in earlier days: 41,500 (Num. 1:40, 41; 2:27, 28) and 53,400 (Num. 26:47).

8:6 Geba, present-day Jiba, is located approximately six miles north of Jerusalem. Ehud may be the Benjamite judge noted for killing Eglon, the king of Moab (Judg. 3:15–30).

the heads of the fathers' houses of the inhabitants of [a]Geba, and who forced them to move to [b]Manahath:
7 Naaman, Ahijah, and Gera who forced them to move. He begot Uzza and Ahihud.
8 Also Shaharaim had children in the country of Moab, after he had sent away Hushim and Baara his wives.
9 By Hodesh his wife he begot Jobab, Zibia, Mesha, Malcam, 10 Jeuz, Sachiah, and Mirmah. These were his sons, heads of their fathers' houses.
11 And by Hushim he begot Abitub and Elpaal.
12 The sons of Elpaal were Eber, Misham, and Shemed, who built Ono and Lod with its towns;
13 and Beriah and [a]Shema, who were heads of their fathers' houses of the inhabitants of Aijalon, who drove out the inhabitants of Gath.
14 Ahio, Shashak, Jeremoth,
15 Zebadiah, Arad, Eder,
16 Michael, Ispah, and Joha were the sons of Beriah.
17 Zebadiah, Meshullam, Hizki, Heber,
18 Ishmerai, Jizliah, and Jobab were the sons of Elpaal.
19 Jakim, Zichri, Zabdi,
20 Elienai, Zillethai, Eliel,
21 Adaiah, Beraiah, and Shimrath were the sons of [1]Shimei.
22 Ishpan, Eber, Eliel,
23 Abdon, Zichri, Hanan,
24 Hananiah, Elam, Antothijah,
25 Iphdeiah, and Penuel were the sons of Shashak.
26 Shamsherai, Shehariah, Athaliah,
27 Jaareshiah, Elijah, and Zichri were the sons of Jeroham.
28 These were heads of the fathers' houses by their generations, chief men. These dwelt in Jerusalem.
29 Now [1]the father of Gibeon, whose [a]wife's name was Maacah, dwelt at Gibeon.
30 And his firstborn son was Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Nadab, 31 Gedor, Ahio, [1]Zecher,
32 and Mikloth, who begot [1]Shimeah. They also dwelt [2]alongside their [3]relatives in Jerusalem, with their brethren.
33 [a]Ner[1] begot Kish, Kish begot Saul, and Saul begot Jonathan, Malchishua, [2]Abinadab, and [3]Esh-Baal.
34 The son of Jonathan was [1]Merib-Baal, and Merib-Baal begot [a]Micah.
35 The sons of Micah were Pithon, Melech, [1]Tarea, and Ahaz.
36 And Ahaz begot [1]Jehoaddah; Jehoaddah begot Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begot Moza.
37 Moza begot Binea, [1]Raphah his son, Eleasah his son, and Azel his son.
38 Azel had six sons whose names were these: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. All these were the sons of Azel.
39 And the sons of Eshek his brother were Ulam his firstborn, Jeush the second, and Eliphelet the third.
40 The sons of Ulam were mighty men of valor—archers. They had many sons and grandsons, one hundred and fifty in all. These were all sons of Benjamin.

9 So [a]all Israel was [1]recorded by genealogies, and indeed, they were inscribed in the book of the kings of Israel. But Judah was carried away captive to Babylon because of their unfaithfulness.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Chr. 9:1

Unfaithful

Faithfulness has its rewards just as unfaithfulness brings inevitable consequences. God is patient but also entirely just to those who refuse to keep their commitments to Him.

2 [a]And the first inhabitants who dwelt in their possessions in their cities were Israelites, priests, Levites, and [b]the Nethinim.

Dwellers in Jerusalem

3 Now in [a]Jerusalem the children of Judah dwelt, and some of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of Ephraim and Manasseh:
4 Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the descendants of Perez, the son of Judah.
5 Of the Shilonites: Asaiah the firstborn and his sons.
6 Of the sons of Zerah: Jeuel, and their brethren—six hundred and ninety.
7 Of the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son

2 [a]Neh. 7:73 [b]Ezra 2:43; 8:20
3 [a]Neh. 11:1, 2

8:9 King Mesha was able to establish Moab's independence from Israel during the eighth century B.C. This reference may refer to an earlier time when Israelites lived in Moab, such as in the days of Ruth (Ruth 1:1) or David (1 Sam. 22:3, 4).

8:29 The remainder of the chapter discusses the Benjamites of Gibeon (el-Jib), a town located six miles northwest of Jerusalem. This city was assigned to the Benjamites (Josh. 18:25). These people assisted in the rebuilding of the walls of Jerusalem after the exile (Neh. 3:7). Gibeon was resettled in Nehemiah's day (Neh. 7:25).

8:33 Esh-Baal means "man of baal" and Ishbosheth means "man of shame" (2 Sam. 2:8).

8:34 "Merib-Baal" means "contender with Baal."

9:2 Nethinim means "the ones given" and may refer to captives who were assigned to help the Levites (Ezra 2:43; 7:7, 24; 8:20).

8 Ibneiah the son of Jeroham; Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri; Meshullam the son of Shephatiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah;
9 and their brethren, according to their generations—nine hundred and fifty-six. All these men were heads of a father's house in their fathers' houses.

The Priests at Jerusalem

10 [a]Of the priests: Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, and Jachin;
11 [1]Azariah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the [a]officer over the house of God;
12 Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchijah; Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer;
13 and their brethren, heads of their fathers' houses—one thousand seven hundred and sixty. They were [1]very able men for the work of the service of the house of God.

The Levites at Jerusalem

14 Of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari;
15 Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Micah, the son of [a]Zichri, the son of Asaph;
16 [a]Obadiah the son of [b]Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun; and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites.

The Levite Gatekeepers

17 And the gatekeepers were Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman, and their brethren. Shallum was the chief.
18 Until then they had been gatekeepers for the camps of the children of Levi at the King's Gate on the east.
19 Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brethren, from his father's house, the Korahites, were in charge of the work of the service, [1]gatekeepers of the tabernacle. Their fathers had been keepers of the entrance to the camp of the LORD.
20 And [a]Phinehas the son of Eleazar had been the officer over them in time past; the LORD was with him.
21 [a]Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was [1]keeper of the door of the tabernacle of meeting.
22 All those chosen as gatekeepers were two hundred and twelve. [a]They were recorded by their genealogy, in their villages. David and Samuel [b]the seer had appointed them to their trusted office.
23 So they and their children were in charge of the gates of the house of the LORD, the house of the tabernacle, by assignment.
24 The gatekeepers were assigned to the four directions: the east, west, north, and south.
25 And their brethren in their villages had to come with them from time to time [a]for seven days.
26 For in this trusted office were four chief gatekeepers; they were Levites. And they had charge over the chambers and treasuries of the house of God.
27 And they lodged all around the house of God because [1]they had the [a]responsibility, and they were in charge of opening it every morning.

Other Levite Responsibilities

28 Now some of them were in charge of the serving vessels, for they brought them in and took them out by count.
29 Some of them were appointed over the furnishings and over all the implements of the sanctuary, and over the [a]fine flour and the wine and the oil and the incense and the spices.
30 And some of the sons of the priests made [a]the ointment of the spices.
31 Mattithiah of the Levites, the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, had the trusted office [a]over the things that were baked in the pans.
32 And some of their brethren of the sons of the Kohathites [a]were in charge of preparing the showbread for every Sabbath.
33 These are [a]the singers, heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites, who lodged in the chambers, and were free from other duties; for they were employed in that work day and night.
34 These heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites were heads throughout their generations. They dwelt at Jerusalem.

The Family of King Saul

35 Jeiel the father of Gibeon, whose wife's name was [a]Maacah, dwelt at Gibeon.
36 His firstborn son was Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, 37 Gedor, Ahio, [1]Zechariah, and Mikloth.

38 And Mikloth begot [1]Shimeam. They also dwelt alongside their relatives in Jerusalem, with their brethren.
39 [a]Ner begot Kish, Kish begot Saul, and Saul begot Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab, and Esh-Baal.
40 The son of Jonathan was Merib-Baal, and Merib-Baal begot Micah.
41 The sons of Micah were Pithon, Melech, [1]Tahrea, [a]and[2] Ahaz.
42 And Ahaz begot [1]Jarah; Jarah begot Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begot Moza;
43 Moza begot Binea, [1]Rephaiah his son, Eleasah his son, and Azel his son.
44 And Azel had six sons whose names were these: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan; these were the sons of Azel.

Tragic End of Saul and His Sons

10 Now [a]the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell slain on Mount Gilboa.
2 Then the Philistines followed hard after Saul and his sons. And the Philistines killed Jonathan, [1]Abinadab, and Malchishua, Saul's sons.
3 The battle became fierce against Saul. The archers hit him, and he was wounded by the archers.
4 Then Saul said to his armorbearer, "Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised men come and abuse me." But his armorbearer would not, for he was greatly afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword and fell on it.
5 And when his armorbearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword and died.
6 So Saul and his three sons died, and all his house died together.
7 And when all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities and fled; then the Philistines came and dwelt in them.
8 So it happened the next day, when the Philistines came to [1]strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.
9 And they stripped him and took his head and his armor, and sent word throughout the land of the Philistines to proclaim the news in the temple of their idols and among the people.
10 [a]Then they put his armor in the [1]temple of their gods, and fastened his head in the temple of Dagon.
11 And when all Jabesh Gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul,
12 all the [a]valiant men arose and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons; and they brought them to [b]Jabesh, and buried their bones under the tamarisk tree at Jabesh, and fasted seven days.
13 So Saul died for his unfaithfulness which he had [1]committed against the LORD, [a]because he did not keep the word of the LORD, and also because [b]he consulted a medium for guidance.
14 But he did not inquire of the LORD; therefore He killed him, and [a]turned the kingdom over to David the son of Jesse.

ENCOUNTER Note — 1 Chr. 10:14

Inquiring of the Lord

Failure to seek guidance from the Lord inevitably leads to catastrophe. God will not force His counsel upon us, even though it is for our own good. We must desire His will and obey it when He reveals it to us.

David Made King over All Israel

11 Then [a]all Israel came together to David at Hebron, saying, "Indeed we are your bone and your flesh.
2 "Also, in time past, even when Saul was king, you were the one who led Israel out and brought them in; and the LORD your [a]God said to you, 'You shall [b]shepherd My people Israel, and be ruler over My people Israel.' "
3 Therefore all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD. And [a]they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD [1]by [b]Samuel.

The City of David

4 And David and all Israel [a]went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus, [b]where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land.

10:1 Mount Gilboa was 1,700 feet tall and was located in the southeastern part of the Plain of Jezreel.

10:4 Saul would have expected humiliation and torture had he been captured. The horror of taking his own life seemed a better alternative than capture by the hated Philistines.

10:6 Israel's defeat at Gilboa effectively ended the dynastic rule of Saul's family, although he still had one surviving son, Ishbosheth (2 Sam. 4:5, 7).

11:4 There is no indication that the city was called by any other name than Jerusalem, though it may be referred to here as Jebus because its inhabitants were called Jebusites. When the Scriptures use the term Jebus, the reference is to the city before David's occupation as opposed to when Israel controlled it.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Chr. 11:3

It Will Happen

Sometimes God's promises take years to come to fruition. The intervening time can be a period of struggle, but never doubt a promise from God. If He said it will happen, it will happen.

5 But the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, "You shall not come in here!" Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion (that is, the City of David).
6 Now David said, "Whoever attacks the Jebusites first shall be [1]chief and captain." And Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, and became chief.
7 Then David dwelt in the stronghold; therefore they called it [1]the City of David.
8 And he built the city around it, from [1]the Millo to the surrounding area. Joab [2]repaired the rest of the city.
9 So David [a]went on and became great, and the LORD of hosts was with [b]him.

The Mighty Men of David

10 Now [a]these were the heads of the mighty men whom David had, who strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, with all Israel, to make him king, according to [b]the word of the LORD concerning Israel.
11 And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had: [a]Jashobeam the son of a Hachmonite, [b]chief of [1]the captains; he had lifted up his spear against three hundred, killed by him at one time.
12 After him was Eleazar the son of [a]Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty men.
13 He was with David at [1]Pasdammim. Now there the Philistines were gathered for battle, and there was a piece of ground full of barley. So the people fled from the Philistines.
14 But they [1]stationed themselves in the middle of that field, defended it, and killed the Philistines. So the LORD brought about a great victory.
15 Now three of the thirty chief men [a]went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the army of the Philistines encamped [b]in the Valley of [1]Rephaim.
16 David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem.
17 And David said with longing, "Oh, that someone would give me a drink of water from the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!"
18 So the three broke through the camp of the Philistines, drew water from the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, and took it and brought it to David. Nevertheless David would not drink it, but poured it out to the LORD.
19 And he said, "Far be it from me, O my God, that I should do this! Shall I drink the blood of these men who have put their lives in jeopardy? For at the risk of their lives they brought it." Therefore he would not drink it. These things were done by the three mighty men.
20 [a]Abishai the brother of Joab was chief of another [1]three. He had lifted up his spear against three hundred men, killed them, and won a name among these three.
21 [a]Of the three he was more honored than the other two men. Therefore he became their captain. However he did not attain to the first three.
22 Benaiah was the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man from Kabzeel, who [1]had done many deeds. [a]He had killed two lion-like heroes of Moab. He also

CHARACTER*Study* JOAB 1 Chr. 11:6

Joab was one of three sons of Zeruiah (2 Sam. 2:13). He became general over David's military through his heroic feat in taking the city of Jerusalem for David (1 Chr. 11:6). By climbing up into the city through the water shaft, he was able to overcome the defenses and capture the city (2 Sam. 5:8). Joab was a successful military commander, defeating the Edomites (2 Sam. 8:13, 14; 1 Kin. 11:15) and the Ammonites (2 Sam. 10:6–14, 1 Chr. 19:6–15, 20:1–3). However, his devotion to David brought a stain to his character through his participation in David's scheme against Uriah the Hittite (2 Sam. 11:6–25). He was also guilty of killing Absalom against the king's wishes (2 Sam. 18:1–14). Joab had remained faithful to David during the rebellion of Absalom, but he was eventually replaced as the commander of the army by his cousin Amasa (2 Sam. 19:13; 20:1–13). When Adonijah, another son of David, rebelled against the king and refused to accept Solomon as David's replacement, Joab aligned himself against David and Solomon. After Adonijah was defeated, Joab was put to death by Benaiah under orders from Solomon and according to David's wishes. He was buried in his own house in the wilderness (1 Kin. 2:34).

had gone down and killed a lion in the midst of a pit on a snowy day.
23 And he killed an Egyptian, a man of great height, [1]five cubits tall. In the Egyptian's hand there was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, wrested the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear.
24 These things Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did, and won a name among three mighty men.
25 Indeed he was more honored than the thirty, but he did not attain to the first three. And David appointed him over his guard.
26 Also the mighty warriors were [a]Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem,

The Growth of David's Army

12 Now [a]these were the men who came to David at [b]Ziklag while he was still a fugitive from Saul the son of Kish; and they were among the mighty men, helpers in the war,
2 armed with bows, using both the right hand and [a]the left in hurling stones and shooting arrows with the bow. They were of Benjamin, Saul's brethren.
3 The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of [1]Shemaah the Gibeathite; Jeziel and Pelet the sons of Azmaveth; Berachah, and Jehu the Anathothite;

CHARACTER Study — DAVID'S MIGHTY MEN — 1 Chr. 11:10

The mighty men were heroic warriors who served under David before and after he became king of Israel. These men had distinguished themselves in single combat and were, in turn, leaders of other warriors. Two lists in scripture name the mighty men and describe their deeds: 2 Samuel 23:8–39 and 1 Chronicles 11:10–47. They did not serve as a royal bodyguard, nor were they counted among the militia of Israel. Rather, they functioned as a trusted body of retainers who carried out special assignments for the king. During war they served with the militia and were used to strengthen Israel's army. David relied on these men to secure the peace of the kingdom and to protect his throne.

11:41 Uriah the Hittite's inclusion among David's mighty men heightens the infamy of David's sin against him. Uriah was David's trusted friend and loyal defender.

12:2 Juxtaposing Saul's desire to kill David in verse one with the description of Saul's kinsmen loyally defending David creates a sense of irony. Saul is David's enemy while Saul's family is sympathetic to David.

were [a]as swift as gazelles on the mountains:
9 Ezer the first, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,
10 Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,
11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,
12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,
13 Jeremiah the tenth, and Machbanai the eleventh.
14 These were from the sons of Gad, captains of the army; the least was over a hundred, and the greatest was over a [a]thousand.
15 These are the ones who crossed the Jordan in the first month, when it had overflowed all its [a]banks; and they put to flight all those in the valleys, to the east and to the west.
16 Then some of the sons of Benjamin and Judah came to David at the stronghold.
17 And David went out [1]to meet them, and answered and said to them, "If you have come peaceably to me to help me, my heart will be united with you; but if to betray me to my enemies, since there is no [2]wrong in my hands, may the God of our fathers look and bring judgment."
18 Then the Spirit [1]came upon [a]Amasai, chief of the captains, and he said:

"We are yours, O David;
We are on your side, O son of Jesse!
Peace, peace to you,
And peace to your helpers!
For your God helps you."

So David received them, and made them captains of the troop.
19 And some from Manasseh defected to David [a]when he was going with the Philistines to battle against Saul; but they did not help them, for the lords of the Philistines sent him away by agreement, saying, [b]"He may defect to his master Saul and endanger our heads."
20 When he went to Ziklag, those of Manasseh who defected to him were Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai, captains of the thousands who were from Manasseh.
21 And they helped David against [a]the bands of raiders, for they were all mighty men of valor, and they were captains in the army.
22 For at that time they came to David day by day to help him, until it was a great army, [a]like the army of God.

David's Army at Hebron

23 Now these were the numbers of the [1]divisions that were equipped for war, and [a]came to David at [b]Hebron to [c]turn over the kingdom of Saul to him, [d]according to the word of the LORD:
24 of the sons of Judah bearing shield and spear, six thousand eight hundred [1]armed for war;
25 of the sons of Simeon, mighty men of valor fit for war, seven thousand one hundred;
26 of the sons of Levi four thousand six hundred;
27 Jehoiada, the leader of the Aaronites, and with him three thousand seven hundred;
28 [a]Zadok, a young man, a valiant warrior, and from his father's house twenty-two captains;
29 of the sons of Benjamin, relatives of Saul, three thousand (until then [a]the greatest part of them had remained loyal to the house of Saul);
30 of the sons of Ephraim twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty men of valor, [1]famous men throughout their father's house;
31 of the half-tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, who were designated by name to come and make David king;
32 of the sons of Issachar [a]who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do, their chiefs were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their command;
33 of Zebulun there were fifty thousand who went out to battle, expert in war with all weapons of war, [a]stouthearted men who could keep ranks;
34 of Naphtali one thousand captains, and with them thirty-seven thousand with shield and spear;
35 of the Danites who could keep battle formation, twenty-eight thousand six hundred;
36 of Asher, those who could go out to war, able to keep battle formation, forty thousand;
37 of the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, from the other side of the Jordan, one hundred and twenty thousand armed for battle with every kind of weapon of war.
38 All these men of war, who could keep ranks, came to Hebron with a loyal heart, to make David king over all Israel; and all the rest of Israel were of [a]one mind to make David king.

12:18 In the struggle between David and Saul, it was becoming apparent that God had removed His favor from Saul and had placed it on David. These military men could see the hand of God upon David, and they chose to link their lives and their service to him.

12:32 The reference to "understanding the times" would most likely refer to the tribe's ability to discern God's will and the current political situation in Israel rather than the practice of astrology.

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Chr. 12:38

Of One Mind

As God brings about His purposes, He draws His people together so they are of one heart and one mind. As you serve God alongside other Christians in your church, family, and workplace, look to see how God brings unity among you to fulfill His plans.

39 And they were there with David three days, eating and drinking, for their brethren had prepared for them.
40 Moreover those who were near to them, from as far away as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, were bringing food on donkeys and camels, on mules and oxen—provisions of flour and cakes of figs and cakes of raisins, wine and oil and oxen and sheep abundantly, for there was joy in Israel.

The Ark Brought from Kirjath Jearim

13 Then David consulted with the [a]captains of thousands and hundreds, and with every leader.
2 And David said to all the assembly of Israel, "If it seems good to you, and if it is of the LORD our God, let us send out to our brethren everywhere who are [a]left in all the land of Israel, and with them to the priests and Levites who are in their cities and their common-lands, that they may gather together to us;
3 "and let us bring the ark of our God back to us, [a]for we have not inquired at it since the days of Saul."
4 Then all the assembly said that they would do so, for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.
5 So [a]David gathered all Israel together, from [b]Shihor in Egypt to as far as the entrance of Hamath, to bring the ark of God [c]from Kirjath Jearim.
6 And David and all Israel went up to [a]Baalah,[1] to Kirjath Jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God the LORD, [b]who dwells between the cherubim, where His name is proclaimed.
7 So they [1]carried the ark of God [a]on a new cart [b]from the house of Abinadab, and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart.
8 Then [a]David and all Israel played music before God with all their might, with [1]singing, on harps, on stringed instruments, on tambourines, on cymbals, and with trumpets.
9 And when they came to [1]Chidon's threshing floor, Uzza put out his hand to hold the ark, for the oxen [2]stumbled.
10 Then the anger of the LORD was aroused against Uzza, and He struck him [a]because he put his hand to the ark; and he [b]died there before God.
11 And David became angry because of the LORD's outbreak against Uzza; therefore that place is called [1]Perez Uzza to this day.
12 David was afraid of God that day, saying, "How can I bring the ark of God to me?"

Heavenly Fear

Although we enjoy a personal, intimate relationship with the Lord, we must never lose sight of God's awesome holiness or ignore the reverence He expects from His people.

13 So David would not move the ark with him into the City of David, but took it aside into the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.
14 [a]The ark of God remained with the family of Obed-Edom in his house three months. And the LORD blessed [b]the house of Obed-Edom and all that he had.

David Established at Jerusalem

CHAPTER 14
1 [a]2 Sam. 5:11

13:1 Chronicles recounts that kings who sought advice from the people also sought God's wisdom. Kings such as Solomon (2 Chr. 1:2), Jehoshaphat (2 Chr. 20:21), and Hezekiah (2 Chr. 30:2; 32:3) are commended for this, while Rehoboam (2 Chr. 10:6–14) and Amaziah (2 Chr. 25:16–17) failed to consult with God and the people, which resulted in their failure as rulers.

13:3 This remark of not inquiring at the ark during the days of Saul is certainly tied to 10:14, which reports that God killed Saul for not inquiring of Him during his rule.

13:5 Kirjath Jearim was a city located on the border of Judah and the west border of Benjamin. It was listed as one of the cities in the Judean hill country (Josh. 15:9). Kirjath Jearim is noted in the narrative of the wanderings of the ark, when the Philistines returned the ark to Israel (1 Sam. 6:19—7:2). Since the ark was sent to Kirjath Jearim, this city likely served as a religious center for the region.

13:9 "Chidon's threshing floor" is also referred to as "Nachon's threshing floor" (2 Sam. 6:6).

13:13 A "Gittite" was a citizen of the Philistine city of Gath.

14:1 Hiram's friendly overtures were a clear indication of God's favor upon David's rule. Hiram gave David recognition, respect, and gifts which represented God's blessings on the kingdom. Moreover, the Phoenician craftsmen, the most skillful builders of their time, would construct a palace and eventually a temple such as the Israelites themselves could never build.

tablished him as king over Israel, for his kingdom was [a]highly exalted for the sake of His people Israel.
3 Then David took more wives in Jerusalem, and David begot more sons and daughters.
4 And [a]these are the names of his children whom he had in Jerusalem: [1]Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,
5 Ibhar, [1]Elishua, [2]Elpelet,
6 Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia,
7 Elishama, [1]Beeliada, and Eliphelet.

The Philistines Defeated

8 Now when the Philistines heard that [a]David had been anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to search for David. And David heard of it and went out against them.
9 Then the Philistines went and made a raid [a]on the Valley of [1]Rephaim.
10 And David [a]inquired of God, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You deliver them into my hand?" The LORD said to him, "Go up, for I will deliver them into your hand."
11 So they went up to Baal Perazim, and David defeated them there. Then David said, "God has broken through my enemies by my hand like a breakthrough of water." Therefore they called the name of that place [1]Baal Perazim.
12 And when they left their gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burned with fire.
13 [a]Then the Philistines once again made a raid on the valley.
14 Therefore David inquired again of God, and God said to him, "You shall not go up after them; circle around them, [a]and come upon them in front of the mulberry trees.
15 "And it shall be, when you hear a sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, then you shall go out to battle, for God has gone out before you to strike the camp of the Philistines."
16 So David did as God commanded him, and they drove back the army of the Philistines from [1]Gibeon as far as Gezer.
17 Then [a]the fame of David went out into all lands, and the LORD [b]brought the fear of him upon all nations.

The Ark Brought to Jerusalem

15 David built houses for himself in the City of David; and he prepared a place for the ark of God, [a]and pitched a tent for it.

God Goes Before You

If you want to walk confidently as you face the enemies of this world, make sure you have sought God's wisdom and are in turn, following His direction. When you have done this, you can walk peacefully knowing your Lord goes ahead of you to secure the victory.

2 Then David said, "No one may carry the [a]ark of God but the Levites, for [b]the LORD has chosen them to carry the ark of God and to minister before Him forever."
3 And David [a]gathered all Israel together at Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD to its place, which he had prepared for it.
4 Then David assembled the children of Aaron and the Levites:
5 of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and one hundred and twenty of his [1]brethren;
6 of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, and two hundred and twenty of his brethren;
7 of the sons of Gershom, Joel the chief, and one hundred and thirty of his brethren;
8 of the sons of [a]Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, and two hundred of his brethren;
9 of the sons of [a]Hebron, Eliel the chief, and eighty of his brethren;
10 of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, and one hundred and twelve of his brethren.
11 And David called for [a]Zadok and [b]Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites: for Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab.
12 He said to them, "You are the heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites; [1]sanctify yourselves, you and your brethren, that you may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel to the place I have prepared for it.
13 "For [a]because you did not do it the first time, [b]the LORD our God broke out against us, because we did not consult Him [1]about the proper order."
14 So the priests and the Levites [1]sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.
15 And the children of the Levites bore

14:9 The Valley of Rephaim was the scene of many battles between Israel and the Philistines (1 Chr. 11:15, 16; 2 Sam. 5:17–22; 23:13–17).

14:16 Gibeon was six miles northwest of Jerusalem. Gezer was sixteen miles west of Gibeon.

15:2 When David moved the ark on this occasion, he was careful to follow the instructions the Lord gave during the time of Moses. David recognized that Uzza's death (1 Chr. 13:10) was due to the neglect of God's instructions regarding the Levites' responsibility for carrying the ark (Deut. 10:8).

The Second Time

It is important to understand the reasons for your failures so you can avoid repeating them. If God gives you a second chance to serve Him, do not grow discouraged by the past; recognize the new opportunity to join with Him, and serve Him with joy.

the ark of God on their shoulders, by its poles, as [a]Moses had commanded according to the word of the LORD.
16 Then David spoke to the leaders of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the singers accompanied by instruments of music, stringed instruments, harps, and cymbals, by raising the voice with resounding joy.
17 So the Levites appointed [a]Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, [b]Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of their brethren, the sons of Merari, [c]Ethan the son of Kushaiah;
18 and with them their brethren of the second rank: Zechariah, [1]Ben, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Elipheleh, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, the gatekeepers;
19 the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were to sound the cymbals of bronze;
20 Zechariah, [1]Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with strings according to [a]Alamoth;
21 Mattithiah, Elipheleh, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, Jeiel, and Azaziah, to direct with harps on the [a]Sheminith;
22 Chenaniah, leader of the Levites, was instructor in charge of the music, because he was skillful;

25 So [a]David, the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the house of Obed-Edom with joy.

Joy

There is deep satisfaction in serving the Lord when you know you have sought His will and followed His commands. Carefully adhering to God's instructions brings freedom in the Christian's life and leads to great joy.

26 And so it was, when God helped the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they offered seven bulls and seven rams.
27 David was clothed with a robe of fine [a]linen, as were all the Levites who bore the ark, the singers, and Chenaniah the music master with the singers. David also wore a linen ephod.
28 [a]Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting and with the sound of the horn, with trumpets and with cymbals, making music with stringed instruments and harps.
29 And it happened, [a]as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the City of David, that Michal, Saul's daughter, looked through a window and saw King David whirling and playing music; and she despised him in her heart.

CHARACTER Study

ZADOK

1 Chr. 15:11

Zadok is noted in 2 Samuel 15:24–29, along with Abiathar, as one of two priestly custodians of the ark of the covenant. During the dispute between Adonijah and Solomon for David's throne, the two priests each chose to support a different party. Zadok remained faithful to David and Solomon, while Abiathar gave his support to Adonijah. After Adonijah's defeat, Solomon had Abiathar banished from Jerusalem (1 Kin. 2:26) leaving Zadok as the high priest in the city. From the time of Solomon to the exile in 586 B.C., Zadok's family held an exclusive hold on the Jerusalemite priesthood. During the exile, Ezekiel prophesied that the priesthood should be restricted to Zadokites (40:46; 43:19; 44:15; 48:11). However, this practice was not fulfilled, as priestly ordination was extended to the descendants of Aaron.

15:17 Heman was Samuel's grandson (1 Chr. 6:33).

15:24 Obed-Edom had custody of the ark before David brought it to Jerusalem (1 Chr. 13:13, 14).

15:29 The reference to Michal is much shorter than the account in 2 Samuel 6:16, 20–23. Not only did she hate David for taking the kingdom from her father but, like Saul, she took no interest in worshipping God. While there was great joy in the city for God's presence and His favor associated with the ark, she remained bitter and isolated.

The Ark Placed in the Tabernacle

16 So [a]they brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tabernacle that David had erected for it. Then they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God.
2 And when David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, [a]he blessed the people in the name of the LORD.
3 Then he distributed to everyone of Israel, both man and woman, to everyone a loaf of bread, a piece of meat, and a cake of raisins.
4 And he appointed some of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, to [a]commemorate, to thank, and to praise the LORD God of Israel:
5 Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, then [a]Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, and Obed-Edom: Jeiel with stringed instruments and harps, but Asaph made music with cymbals;
6 Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests regularly blew the trumpets before the ark of the covenant of God.

David's Song of Thanksgiving

Thankfulness

Take time to reflect on the numerous ways God has guided you and blessed your life. As you recall God's goodness to you through the years, your heart will overflow with thanksgiving, worship, and the desire for others to know your God.

8 [a]Oh, give thanks to the LORD!
Call upon His name;
Make known His deeds among the peoples!
9 Sing to Him, sing psalms to Him;
Talk of all His wondrous works!
10 Glory in His holy name;
Let the hearts of those rejoice who seek the LORD!
11 Seek the LORD and His strength;
Seek His face evermore!
12 Remember His marvelous works which He has done,
His wonders, and the judgments of His mouth,
13 O seed of Israel His servant,
You children of Jacob, His chosen ones!

14 He is the LORD our God;
His [a]judgments are in all the earth.
15 Remember His covenant forever,
The word which He commanded, for a thousand generations,
16 The [a]covenant which He made with Abraham,
And His oath to Isaac,
17 And [a]confirmed it to [b]Jacob for a statute,
To Israel for an everlasting covenant,
18 Saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan
As the allotment of your inheritance,"
19 When you were [a]few in number,
Indeed very few, and strangers in it.
20 When they went from one nation to another,
And from one kingdom to another people,
21 He permitted no man to do them wrong;
Yes, He [a]rebuked kings for their sakes,
22 Saying, [a]"Do not touch My anointed ones,
And do My prophets no harm."

23 [a]Sing to the LORD, all the earth;
Proclaim the good news of His salvation from day to day.
24 Declare His glory among the nations,
His wonders among all peoples.
25 For the LORD is great and greatly to be praised;
He is also to be feared above all gods.
26 For all the gods [a]of the peoples are [1]idols,
But the LORD made the heavens.
27 Honor and majesty are before Him;
Strength and gladness are in His place.

16:2 Blessing the people was typically carried out by the priests, but on occasion other leaders did so (Moses is the most notable example, Ex. 39:43). Apart from David, Solomon was the only other king to bless the people in this manner (1 Kin. 8:14, 55; 2 Chr. 6:3).

16:7 David's ability as a psalm writer is well known. Each of the three parts to this psalm correlate with other psalms: 1 Chr. 16:8–22 (Ps. 105:1–15); 1 Chr. 16:23–33 (Ps. 96:1–13); 1 Chr. 16:34–36 (Ps. 106:1, 47, 48).

16:23 David's call to "proclaim the good news of His salvation" and to "declare His glory" and "His wonders among all peoples" applies to Christians today. David's people had good reason to praise God, since He had defended them from their enemies and provided fertile land. How much more should we Christians long to honor our Lord. He has saved us from so much more than physical enemies. He has delivered us from death itself and brought us into His glorious kingdom.

28 Give to the LORD, O families of the peoples,
Give to the LORD glory and strength.
29 Give to the LORD the glory due His name;
Bring an offering, and come before Him.
Oh, worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness!
30 Tremble before Him, all the earth.
The world also is firmly established,
It shall not be moved.
31 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;
And let them say among the nations, "The LORD reigns."
32 Let the sea roar, and all its fullness;
Let the field rejoice, and all that is in it.
33 Then the [a]trees of the woods shall rejoice before the LORD,
For He is [b]coming to judge the earth.
34 [a]Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!
For His mercy endures forever.
35 [a]And say, "Save us, O God of our salvation;
Gather us together, and deliver us from the Gentiles,
To give thanks to Your holy name,
To triumph in Your praise."
36 [a]Blessed be the LORD God of Israel
From everlasting to everlasting!

And all [b]the people said, "Amen!" and praised the LORD.

Regular Worship Maintained

37 So he left [a]Asaph and his brothers there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD to minister before the ark regularly, as every day's work [b]required;
38 and [a]Obed-Edom with his sixty-eight brethren, including Obed-Edom the son of Jeduthun, and Hosah, to be gatekeepers;
39 and Zadok the priest and his brethren the priests, [a]before the tabernacle of the LORD [b]at the [1]high place that was at Gibeon,
40 to offer burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of burnt offering regularly [a]morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the Law of the LORD which He commanded Israel;
41 and with them Heman and Jeduthun and the rest who were chosen, who were designated by name, to give thanks to the LORD, [a]because His mercy endures forever;
42 and with them Heman and Jeduthun, to sound aloud with trumpets and cymbals and the musical instruments of God. Now the sons of Jeduthun were gatekeepers.
43 [a]Then all the people departed, every man to his house; and David returned to bless his house.

God's Covenant with David

17 Now [a]it came to pass, when David was dwelling in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, "See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under tent curtains."
2 Then Nathan said to David, "Do all that is in your heart, for God is with you."
3 But it happened that night that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,
4 "Go and tell My servant David, 'Thus says the LORD: "You shall [a]not build Me a house to dwell in.
5 "For I have not dwelt in a house since the time that I brought up Israel, even to this day, but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another.
6 "Wherever I have moved about with all Israel, have I ever spoken a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people, saying, 'Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?' " '
7 "Now therefore, thus shall you say to My servant David, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: "I took you [a]from the sheepfold, from following the sheep, to be [1]ruler over My people Israel.
8 "And I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you, and have [1]made you a name like the name of the great men who are on the earth.

16:38 There are two men named Obed-Edom in this verse. One kept the ark until it was brought to Jerusalem, and he was a chief doorkeeper (1 Chr. 13:14). The other was a gatekeeper as well and was the son of Jeduthun (6:33, 39, 44; 15:24).

16:39 Until Solomon's temple was completed, the Israelites worshipped at two tabernacles. One was built during Moses' time at Gibeon. The other was built by David on Mount Zion. The priest Zadok officiated at Gibeon and Abiathar oversaw worship at Jerusalem (15:11).

17:1 This passage closely follows the material in 2 Samuel 7 with some exceptions. The Samuel account mentions David's desire to build a temple after "the LORD had given him rest from all his enemies all around." This additional note in Samuel, which is omitted in Chronicles, suggests David did not immediately decide to build a temple once the ark was brought to Jerusalem.

17:5 Throughout Israel's history, from the exodus to the period of the Judges, no temple was necessary to worship God. The Lord dwelt wherever His people were (Ex. 33:15–16).

17:8 God had given David tremendous military and political success. David had become respected and well known to the nations around Israel, and now David and Israel were reaping the rewards.

9 "Moreover I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will [a]plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own and move no more; nor shall the sons of wickedness oppress them anymore, as previously,
10 "since the time that I commanded judges to be over My people Israel. Also I will subdue all your enemies. Furthermore I tell you that the LORD will build you a [1]house.
11 "And it shall be, when your days are [a]fulfilled, when you must [1]go to be with your fathers, that I will set up your [b]seed after you, who will be of your sons; and I will establish his kingdom.
12 [a]"He shall build Me a house, and I will establish his throne forever.
13 [a]"I will be his Father, and he shall be My son; and I will not take My mercy away from him, [b]as I took it from him who was before you.
14 "And [a]I will establish him in My house and in My kingdom forever; and his throne shall be established forever." ' "
15 According to all these words and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.
16 [a]Then King David went in and sat before the LORD; and he said: "Who am I, O LORD God? And what is my house, that You have brought me this far?
17 "And yet this was a small thing in Your sight, O God; and You have also spoken of Your servant's house for a great while to come, and have regarded me according to the rank of a man of high degree, O LORD God.
18 "What more can David say to You for the honor of Your servant? For You know Your servant.

Let It Be Established

A promise from God is cause for great joy. Pray with confidence and thanksgiving even as God carries forth His plan, for you know He will complete what He has begun.

24 "So let it be established, that Your name may be magnified forever, saying, 'The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, is Israel's God.' And let the house of Your servant David be established before You.

HISTORICAL*Encounter* JOHN NEWTON 1 Chr. 17:16

John Newton was born in London on July 24, 1725. His father was the captain of a merchant ship. John lost his mother just before his seventh birthday, and her untimely death led to years of bitterness for him. Angry with God, he flung himself into debauchery and self-destruction. His sins cost him greatly as he ended up forced into cruel slavery. He escaped and eventually became captain of a slave trading ship. Then God got Newton's attention through a terrifying storm at sea. He was converted and left the sea to become a faithful curate at Olney, Buckinghamshire. The attendance there soon outgrew the facility. Newton also wrote hymns. His most famous was entitled, "Faith's Review and Expectation." He based it on 1 Chronicles 17:16. He identified with David and the amazing way God had preserved his life by His grace. One verse declared: "Through many dangers, toils and snares, I have already come; 'tis grace has brought me safe thus far, and grace will lead me home." We know this hymn today as Amazing Grace.

17:10 God's command for David not to build the temple was not a rejection of the structure itself; it simply meant David was not the one to accomplish the task. God spoke of two houses that must be built: a house of David and a house for God. At this time, God placed a higher priority on His promise of a dynasty than on a physical temple (1 Chr. 17:11, 12, 14). The fact that David's son would build God's temple was a sign of God establishing David's house (17:12).

17:13 God's promise that David's heirs would be God's adopted sons was originally given to Israel (Ex. 4:22), but was now concentrated in the Davidic line. This covenant was ultimately fulfilled through Jesus Christ. With the resurrection and ascension of Christ, the early church understood this Old Testament promise as it related to Jesus as the Son of God (Acts 2:30; 13:22, 23, 33, 34; Rom. 1:3, 4; Heb. 1:5, 8, 9; 5:5).

house. Therefore Your servant has found it in his heart to pray before You.
26 "And now, LORD, [1]You are God, and have promised this goodness to Your servant.
27 "Now You have been pleased to bless the house of Your servant, that it may continue before You forever; for You have blessed it, O LORD, and it shall be blessed forever."

David's Further Conquests

18 After this [a]it came to pass that David [1]attacked the Philistines, subdued them, and took Gath and its towns from the hand of the Philistines.
2 Then he [1]defeated [a]Moab, and the Moabites became David's [b]servants, and brought tribute.
3 And [a]David [1]defeated [2]Hadadezer king of Zobah as far as Hamath, as he went to establish his power by the River Euphrates.
4 David took from him one thousand chariots, [1]seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand foot soldiers. Also David [2]hamstrung all the chariot horses, except that he spared enough of them for one hundred chariots.
5 When the [a]Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David killed twenty-two thousand of the Syrians.
6 Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought tribute. So the LORD preserved David wherever he went.
7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.
8 Also from [1]Tibhath and from [2]Chun, cities of [3]Hadadezer, David brought a large amount of [a]bronze, with which [b]Solomon made the bronze [4]Sea, the pillars, and the articles of bronze.
9 Now when [1]Tou king of Hamath heard that David had [2]defeated all the army of Hadadezer king of Zobah,
10 he sent [1]Hadoram his son to King David, to greet him and bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and [2]defeated him (for Hadadezer had been at war with Tou); and Hadoram brought with him all kinds of [a]articles of gold, silver, and bronze.
11 King David also dedicated these to the LORD, along with the silver and gold that he had brought from all these nations—from Edom, from Moab, from the [a]people of Ammon, from the [b]Philistines, and from [c]Amalek.

CHAPTER 19

1 [a]2 Sam. 10: 1–19

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Chr. 18:11

Dedicated to God

We can be quick to cry out to God, but slow to make the connection after He gives us the victory. As we celebrate our success, the honor belongs to the Lord.

12 Moreover [a]Abishai the son of Zeruiah killed [b]eighteen thousand [1]Edomites in the Valley of Salt.
13 [a]He also put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became David's servants. And the LORD preserved David wherever he went.

David's Administration

14 So David reigned over all Israel, and administered judgment and justice to all his people.
15 Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder;
16 Zadok the son of Ahitub and [1]Abimelech the son of Abiathar were the priests; [2]Shavsha was the scribe;
17 [a]Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were [1]chief ministers at the king's side.

The Ammonites and Syrians Defeated

19 It[a] happened after this that Nahash the king of the people of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his place.
2 Then David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me." So David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. And David's servants came to Hanun in the 18:1 Chapters eighteen to twenty outline God's creation, through David, of a powerful Israelite state. These chapters reveal the fulfillment of God's promises that are recorded in chapter seventeen. David's enemies were subdued (1 Chr. 17:10), his name was respected internationally (17:8), and his opponents were defeated (17:9). The peace and prosperity enjoyed in David's time set the stage for Solomon to build the temple.

18:2 David had previous connections with Moab. His great-grandmother Ruth was a Moabitess (Ruth 4:13–17). In the past David had sent his family to Moab for their protection (1 Sam. 22:3, 4).

18:3 Zobah was just north of Damascus. Hamath lay one hundred miles north of Damascus. David might have marched that far north to claim the promise God made to Abraham to give him the land as far north as the Euphrates River (Gen. 15:18).

18:17 Cherethites and Pelethites may have been mercenary soldiers under the command of Benaiah, one of David's mighty men.

19:2 The kindness of Nahash was probably tied to his and David's common hostility towards Saul (1 Sam. 11; 14:47) and may have taken the form of an alliance between the two states following Saul's demise.

land of the people of Ammon to comfort him.
3 And the princes of the people of Ammon said to Hanun, [1]"Do you think that David really honors your father because he has sent comforters to you? Did his servants not come to you to search and to overthrow and to spy out the land?"
4 Therefore Hanun took David's servants, shaved them, and cut off their garments [1]in the middle, at their [a]buttocks, and sent them away.
5 Then some went and told David about the men; and he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, "Wait at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return."
6 When the people of Ammon saw that they had made themselves repulsive to David, Hanun and the people of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire for themselves chariots and horsemen from [1]Mesopotamia, from Syrian Maacah, [a]and from [2]Zobah.
7 So they hired for themselves thirty-two thousand chariots, with the king of Maacah and his people, who came and encamped before Medeba. Also the people of Ammon gathered together from their cities, and came to battle.
8 Now when David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the army of the mighty men.
9 Then the people of Ammon came out and put themselves in battle array before the gate of the city, and the kings who had come were by themselves in the field.
10 When Joab saw that the battle line was against him before and behind, he chose some of Israel's best and put them in battle array against the Syrians.
11 And the rest of the people he put under the command of Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in battle array against the people of Ammon.
12 Then he said, "If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the people of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will help you.
13 "Be of good courage, and let us be strong for our people and for the cities of our God. And may the LORD do what is good in His sight."
14 So Joab and the people who were with him drew near for the battle against the Syrians, and they fled before him.
15 When the people of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fleeing, they also fled before Abishai his brother, and entered the city. So Joab went to Jerusalem.
16 Now when the Syrians saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they sent messengers and brought the Syrians who were beyond [1]the River, and [2]Shophach the commander of Hadadezer's army went before them.
17 When it was told David, he gathered all Israel, crossed over the Jordan and came upon them, and set up in battle array against them. So when David had set up in battle array against the Syrians, they fought with him.
18 Then the Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed [1]seven thousand charioteers and forty thousand [2]foot soldiers of the Syrians, and killed Shophach the commander of the army.
19 And when the servants of Hadadezer saw that they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and became his servants. So the Syrians were not willing to help the people of Ammon anymore.

Rabbah Is Conquered

20 It[a] happened [1]in the spring of the year, at the time kings go out to battle, that Joab led out the armed forces and ravaged the country of the people of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But [b]David stayed at Jerusalem. And [c]Joab defeated Rabbah and overthrew it.
2 Then David [a]took their king's crown from his head, and found it to weigh a

Faithful and Courageous

In the Scriptures, the charge to be courageous is almost always followed by a promise of divine help. When you have been faithful to the Lord and you are seeking to obey and honor Him, you can face any danger without fear because God is faithful to intervene on your behalf.

19:6 Mesopotamia refers to the land between the Euphrates River and the Tigris River. In biblical and classical writings the term referred to the northwest portion of the region. Syrian Maachah was a small nation located between Damascus and the Sea of Galilee.

19:7 Medeba was twenty miles south of Rabbah, the capital of Ammon.

20:1 The Chronicler records that David did not go to war as was expected of him, but omits the fact that his adulterous liaison with Bathsheba occurred at this time (2 Sam. 11–12). The Book of 2 Samuel describes the moral failure of David; 1 Chronicles presents the grace of God in that He continued to use His wavering servant to bless Israel.

20:2 The crown weighed one talent or roughly seventy-five pounds.

talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it. And it was set on David's head. Also he brought out the [1]spoil of the city in great abundance.
3 And he brought out the people who were in it, and [1]put them to work with saws, with iron picks, and with axes. So David did to all the cities of the people of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

Philistine Giants Destroyed

4 Now it happened afterward [a]that war broke out at [1]Gezer with the Philistines, at which time [b]Sibbechai the Hushathite killed [2]Sippai, who was one of the sons of [3]the giant. And they were subdued.
5 Again there was war with the Philistines, and Elhanan the son of [1]Jair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's [a]beam.
6 Yet again [a]there was war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, with twenty-four fingers and toes, six on each hand and six on each foot; and he also was born to [1]the giant.
7 So when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of [1]Shimea, David's brother, killed him.
8 These were born to the giant in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

The Census of Israel and Judah

21 Now [a]Satan stood up against Israel, and moved David to [1]number Israel.
2 So David said to Joab and to the leaders of the people, "Go, number Israel from Beersheba to Dan, [a]and bring the number of them to me that I may know it."
3 And Joab answered, "May the LORD make His people a hundred times more than they are. But, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? Why then does my lord require this thing? Why should he be a cause of guilt in Israel?"
4 Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Therefore Joab departed and went throughout all Israel and came to Jerusalem.
5 Then Joab gave the sum of the number of the people to David. All Israel had one million one hundred thousand men who drew the sword, and Judah had four hundred and seventy thousand men who drew the sword.
6 [a]But he did not count Levi and Benjamin among them, for the king's [1]word was abominable to Joab.
7 And [1]God was displeased with this thing; therefore He struck Israel.
8 So David said to God, [a]"I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing; [b]but now, I pray, take away the iniquity of Your servant, for I have done very foolishly."
9 Then the LORD spoke to Gad, David's [a]seer, saying,
10 "Go and tell David, [a]saying, 'Thus says the LORD: "I offer you three things; choose one of them for yourself, that I may do it to you." ' "
11 So Gad came to David and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: 'Choose for yourself,
12 [a]'either [1]three years of famine, or three months to be defeated by your foes with the sword of your enemies overtaking you, or else for three days the sword of the LORD—the plague in the land, with the [2]angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the territory of Israel.' Now consider what answer I should take back to Him who sent me."
13 And David said to Gad, "I am in great distress. Please let me fall into the hand of the LORD, for His [a]mercies are very great; but do not let me fall into the hand of man."
14 So the LORD sent a [a]plague upon Israel, and seventy thousand men of Israel fell.
15 And God sent [1]an [a]angel to Jerusalem to destroy it. As [2]he was destroying, the LORD looked and [b]relented of the disaster, and said to the angel who was destroying, "It is enough; now restrain [3]your hand." And the angel of the LORD

20:4 Sibbechai the Hushathite, belonged to David's elite corps of warriors (1 Chr. 11:29).

20:7 Shimea was David's older brother, the third son of Jesse (1 Chr. 2:13). Whereas he and all the other Israelite soldiers had been terrified by Goliath, once David fearlessly killed the giant in God's strength, others around David began to have confidence in facing giants too (1 Sam. 17:11).

21:1 The figure of Satan is mentioned directly in three other Old Testament passages (Job 1:6–12; 2:1–6; Zech. 3:1, 2). The word generally has an article and means "the Accuser." However, in this instance there is no article, indicating it was used as a proper name.

21:7 Chronicles does not give a reason for God's displeasure with the census. In Old Testament times, a census would be conducted for military purposes (Num. 1:3, 45; 2:2), for sanctuary taxes (Ex. 30:11–16), for organizing the Levites (Num. 3:14–39), and for various other reasons. God may have been displeased because it appears to be a matter of pride. David seems to have forgotten that the people were not his but God's.

21:9 Gad is described as a prophet in 1 Samuel 22:5. He is noted for composing a book to which the chronicler referred (1 Chr. 29:29). The common word for prophet in Hebrew was "nabi." Two other words used to describe a prophet are hozeh and ro'eh meaning "someone who sees" and can be literally rendered "seer."

21:10 This is the only place in scripture that says God offered someone a choice of punishments.

stood by the [c]threshing floor of [4]Ornan the Jebusite.
16 Then David lifted his eyes and [a]saw the angel of the LORD standing between earth and heaven, having in his hand a drawn sword stretched out over Jerusalem. So David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces.
17 And David said to God, "Was it not I who commanded the people to be numbered? I am the one who has sinned and done evil indeed; but these [a]sheep, what have they done? Let Your hand, I pray, O LORD my God, be against me and my father's house, but not against Your people that they should be plagued."
18 Therefore, the [a]angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David that David should go and erect an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.
19 So David went up at the word of Gad, which he had spoken in the name of the LORD.
20 Now Ornan turned and saw the angel; and his four sons who were with him hid themselves, but Ornan continued threshing wheat.
21 So David came to Ornan, and Ornan looked and saw David. And he went out from the threshing floor, and bowed before David with his face to the ground.
22 Then David said to Ornan, [1]"Grant me the place of this threshing floor, that I may build an altar on it to the LORD. You shall grant it to me at the full price, that the plague may be withdrawn from the people."
23 But Ornan said to David, "Take it to yourself, and let my lord the king do what is good in his eyes. Look, I also give you the oxen for burnt offerings, the threshing implements for wood, and the wheat for the grain offering; I give it all."
24 Then King David said to Ornan, "No, but I will surely buy it for the full price, for I will not take what is yours for the LORD, nor offer burnt offerings with that which costs me nothing."
25 So [a]David gave Ornan six hundred shekels of gold by weight for the place.
26 And David built there an altar to the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called on the LORD; and [a]He answered him from heaven by fire on the altar of burnt offering.

A Costly Offering

An offering is an act of gratefulness, honoring God. If it costs you nothing, it is not really an offering.

27 So the LORD commanded the angel, and he returned his sword to its sheath.
28 At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he sacrificed there.
29 [a]For the tabernacle of the LORD and the altar of the burnt offering, which Moses had made in the wilderness, were at that time at the high place in [b]Gibeon.
30 But David could not go before it to inquire of God, for he was afraid of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

David Prepares to Build the Temple

22 Then David said, [a]"This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of burnt offering for Israel."
2 So David commanded to gather the [a]aliens who were in the land of Israel; and he appointed masons to [b]cut hewn stones to build the house of God.
3 And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails of the doors of the gates and for the joints, and bronze in abundance [a]beyond measure,
4 and cedar trees in abundance; for the [a]Sidonians and those from Tyre brought much cedar wood to David.
5 Now David said, [a]"Solomon my son is young and inexperienced, and the house to be built for the LORD must be exceedingly magnificent, famous and glorious throughout all countries. I will now make preparation for it." So David made abundant preparations before his death.
6 Then he called for his son Solomon, and [1]charged him to build a house for the LORD God of Israel.
7 And David said to Solomon: "My son, as for me, [a]it was in my mind to build a house [b]to the name of the LORD my God;
8 "but the word of the LORD came to me, saying, [a]'You have shed much blood and have made great wars; you shall not build a house for My name, because you

21:18 A threshing floor was typically located on a flat surface away from the city, on an elevated location to take advantage of the wind for sifting the grain.

21:22 This location for the altar David was to build would become the future site of the temple built by Solomon. It was appropriate that the temple should be built here, where David's sin had brought the city to the brink of destruction, and where God chose to withdraw the punishment for that sin. This was a place of forgiveness.

22:2 The aliens were non-Israelite inhabitants of the land. Solomon built his labor force from the descendants of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. The Israelites had not eradicated them from the Promised Land during the conquest, and Solomon was subjugating them for his building projects (1 Kin. 9:20, 21).

9 [a]'Behold, a son shall be born to you, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him [b]rest from all his enemies all around. His name shall be [1]Solomon, for I will give peace and quietness to Israel in his days.
10 [a]'He shall build a house for My name, and [b]he shall be My son, and I will be his Father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.'
11 "Now, my son, may [a]the LORD be with you; and may you prosper, and build the house of the LORD your God, as He has said to you.

Blessing

There is no greater gift we can give someone than our blessing. Truly wishing God's best for others and verbally assuring them of our desire refreshes the soul and gives courage and strength to those we bless.

12 "Only may the LORD [a]give you wisdom and understanding, and give you charge concerning Israel, that you may keep the law of the LORD your God.
13 [a]"Then you will prosper, if you take care to fulfill the statutes and judgments with which the LORD [1]charged Moses concerning Israel. [b]Be strong and of good courage; do not fear nor be dismayed.
14 "Indeed I have taken much trouble to prepare for the house of the LORD one hundred thousand talents of gold and one million talents of silver, and bronze and iron [a]beyond measure, for it is so abundant. I have prepared timber and stone also, and you may add to them.
15 "Moreover there are workmen with you in abundance: woodsmen and stonecutters, and all types of skillful men for every kind of work.
16 "Of gold and silver and bronze and iron there is no limit. Arise and begin working, and [a]the LORD be with you."
17 David also commanded all the [a]leaders of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying,
18 "Is not the LORD your God with you? [a]And has He not given you rest on every side? For He has given the inhabitants of the land into my hand, and the land is subdued before the LORD and before His people.
19 "Now set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God. Therefore arise and build the sanctuary of the LORD God, to [a]bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD and the holy articles of God into the house that is to be built [b]for the name of the LORD."

The Divisions of the Levites

23 So when David was old and full of days, he made his son [a]Solomon king over Israel.
2 And he gathered together all the leaders of Israel, with the priests and the Levites.
3 Now the Levites were numbered from the age of [a]thirty years and above; and the number of individual males was thirty-eight thousand.
4 Of these, twenty-four thousand were to [a]look after the work of the house of the LORD, six thousand were [b]officers and judges,
5 four thousand were gatekeepers, and four thousand [a]praised the LORD with musical instruments, [b]"which I made," said David, "for giving praise."
6 Also [a]David separated them into [1]divisions among the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.
7 Of the [a]Gershonites: [1]Laadan and Shimei.
8 The sons of Laadan: the first Jehiel, then Zetham and Joel—three in all.
9 The sons of Shimei: Shelomith, Haziel, and Haran—three in all. These were the heads of the fathers' houses of Laadan.
10 And the sons of Shimei: Jahath, [1]Zina, Jeush, and Beriah. These were the four sons of Shimei.
11 Jahath was the first and Zizah the second. But Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons; therefore they were assigned as one father's house.
12 [a]The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel—four in all.
13 The sons of [a]Amram: Aaron and Moses; and [b]Aaron was set apart, he and his sons forever, that he should [1]sanctify the most holy things, [c]to burn incense before the LORD, [d]to minister to 22:16 David understood that just as money, workers, and materials had been secured for building the temple, Solomon also needed to be equipped with an attitude of obedience to God.

23:3 The age at which Levites could begin serving in the temple varied from twenty to twenty-five to thirty (Num. 4:3; 8:24; Ezra 3:8; 1 Chr. 23:24, 27; 2 Chr. 31:17).

23:4 The organization of the Levites was based on the three traditional families of Levi in the order followed by Exodus 6:17, 18; Numbers 3:17–39; and 1 Chronicles 6.

Him, and [e]to give the blessing in His name forever.
14 Now [a]the sons of Moses the man of God were reckoned to the tribe of Levi.
15 [a]The sons of Moses were [1]Gershon and Eliezer.
16 Of the sons of Gershon, [a]Shebuel[1] was the first.
17 Of the descendants of Eliezer, [a]Rehabiah was the first. And Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very many.
18 Of the sons of Izhar, [a]Shelomith was the first.
19 [a]Of the sons of Hebron, Jeriah was the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.
20 Of the sons of Uzziel, Michah was the first and Jesshiah the second.
21 [a]The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli were Eleazar and [b]Kish.
22 And Eleazar died, and [a]had no sons, but only daughters; and their [1]brethren, the sons of Kish, [b]took them as wives.
23 [a]The sons of Mushi were Mahli, Eder, and Jeremoth—three in all.
24 These were the sons of [a]Levi by their fathers' houses—the heads of the fathers' houses as they were counted individually by the number of their names, who did the work for the service of the house of the LORD, from the age of [b]twenty years and above.
25 For David said, "The LORD God of Israel [a]has given rest to His people, that they may dwell in Jerusalem forever";
26 and also to the Levites, "They shall no longer [a]carry the tabernacle, or any of the articles for its service."
27 For by the [a]last words of David the Levites were numbered from twenty years old and above;
28 because their duty was to help the sons of Aaron in the service of the house of the LORD, in the courts and in the chambers, in the purifying of all holy things and the work of the service of the house of God,
29 both with [a]the showbread and [b]the fine flour for the grain offering, with [c]the unleavened cakes and [d]what is baked in the pan, with what is mixed and with all kinds of [e]measures and sizes;
30 to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD, and likewise at evening;
31 and at every presentation of a burnt offering to the LORD [a]on the Sabbaths and on the New Moons and on the [b]set[1] feasts, by number according to the ordinance governing them, regularly before the LORD;
32 and that they should [a]attend to the [b]needs of the tabernacle of meeting, the needs of the holy place, and the [c]needs of the sons of Aaron their brethren in the work of the house of the LORD.

The Divisions of the Priests

24 Now these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron. [a]The sons of Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.
2 And [a]Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children; therefore Eleazar and Ithamar ministered as priests.
3 Then David with Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and [a]Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, divided them according to the schedule of their service.
4 There were more leaders found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar, and thus they were divided. Among the sons of Eleazar were sixteen heads of their fathers' houses, and eight heads of their fathers' houses among the sons of Ithamar.
5 Thus they were divided by lot, one group as another, for there were officials of the sanctuary and officials of the house of God, from the sons of Eleazar and from the sons of Ithamar.
6 And the scribe, Shemaiah the son of Nethanel, one of the Levites, wrote them down before the king, the leaders, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the priests and Levites, one father's house taken for Eleazar and one for Ithamar.
7 Now the first lot fell to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,
8 the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim,
9 the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin,
10 the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to [a]Abijah,

All Day Long

God is involved in every part of your day. From the time you awake until your day is done, be aware of God's presence—His protection, His provision, and His guidance. Never forget to praise Him for His ongoing care.

23:31 New Moons meant the first day of every month.
24:5 Although there were twice as many sons of Eleazar than sons of Ithamar, the casting of lots treated both groups equally in terms of allotting assignments at the temple.

11 the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah,
12 the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim,
13 the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab,
14 the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer,
15 the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to [1]Happizzez,
16 the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to [1]Jehezekel,
17 the twenty-first to Jachin, the twenty-second to Gamul,
18 the twenty-third to Delaiah, the twenty-fourth to Maaziah.
19 This was the schedule of their service [a]for coming into the house of the LORD according to their ordinance by the hand of Aaron their father, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

Orderly Worship

God is specific in His plans and in His actions. Likewise we should honor Him in a deliberate and orderly way. Spontaneous praise is one expression of our love for God, but our Lord also merits our careful, intentional worship. Such worship demonstrates our reverence for Him.

Other Levites

20 And the rest of the sons of Levi: of the sons of Amram, [1]Shubael; of the sons of Shubael, Jehdeiah.
21 Concerning [a]Rehabiah, of the sons of Rehabiah, the first was Isshiah.
22 Of the Izharites, [1]Shelomoth; of the sons of Shelomoth, Jahath.
23 Of the sons [1]of [a]Hebron, Jeriah was the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.
24 Of the sons of Uzziel, Michah; of the sons of Michah, Shamir.
25 The brother of Michah, Isshiah; of the sons of Isshiah, Zechariah.
26 [a]The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi; the son of Jaaziah, Beno.
27 The sons of Merari by Jaaziah were Beno, Shoham, Zaccur, and Ibri.
28 Of Mahli: Eleazar, [a]who had no sons.
29 Of Kish: the son of Kish, Jerahmeel.
30 Also [a]the sons of Mushi were Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites according to their fathers' houses.
31 These also cast lots just as their brothers the sons of Aaron did, in the presence of King David, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the priests and Levites. The chief fathers did just as their younger brethren.

The Musicians

25 Moreover David and the captains of the army separated for the service some of the sons of [a]Asaph, of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should prophesy with harps, stringed instruments, and cymbals. And the number of the skilled men performing their service was:
2 Of the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and [1]Asharelah; the sons of Asaph were [2]under the direction of Asaph, who prophesied according to the order of the king.
3 Of [a]Jeduthun, the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, [1]Zeri, Jeshaiah, [2]Shimei, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, [3]six, under the direction of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied with a harp to give thanks and to praise the LORD.
4 Of Heman, the sons of Heman:

HISTORICAL*Encounter*

JOHANN SEBASTIAN BACH

1 Chr. 25:1

Johann Sebastian Bach, born in 1685, was orphaned at age ten and was sent to live with his older brother. His brother was an organist, and Johann soon demonstrated amazing musical talent himself. He eventually became choirmaster at St. Thomas's Church and School in Leipzig, Germany. Bach was a theologian as well as a musician. Most of his known compositions, one thousand in all, were written for worship. He penned many of Christendom's greatest musical works. In his well-worn Bible he wrote in the margin beside 1 Chronicles 25: "This chapter is the true foundation of all God-pleasing music."

25:1 The Levitical musicians' responsibility in directing worship was highly significant as they encouraged the people to worship God with conviction, harmony, and vitality. Despite his numerous duties as king, David took special interest in overseeing his peoples' worship of God.

25:3 What the musicians specifically prophesied is unclear. Musicians would take God's message from scripture and sing it in the form of praise (1 Sam. 10:5, 6; 2 Kin. 3:15).

Bukkiah, Mattaniah, [1]Uzziel, [2]Shebuel, [3]Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, Romamti-Ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth.
5 All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer in the words of God, to [1]exalt his [a]horn. For God gave Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.
6 All these were under the direction of their father for the music in the house of the LORD, with cymbals, stringed instruments, and [a]harps, for the service of the house of God. Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman were [b]under the authority of the king.
7 So the [a]number of them, with their brethren who were instructed in the songs of the LORD, all who were skillful, was two hundred and eighty-eight.

Diligent Worship

Worshiping our Lord is not something to be done haphazardly. We are praising the Creator and Sustainer of life. Our worship must be wholehearted, expressed in the most excellent way possible.

The Gatekeepers

26 Concerning the divisions of the gatekeepers: of the Korahites, [1]Meshelemiah the son of [a]Kore, of the sons of [2]Asaph.
2 And the sons of Meshelemiah were [a]Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth,
3 Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Eliehoenai the seventh.
4 Moreover the sons of [a]Obed-Edom were Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Sacar the fourth, Nethanel the fifth,
5 Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth; for God blessed him.
6 Also to Shemaiah his son were sons born who governed their fathers' houses, because they were men of great ability.
7 The sons of Shemaiah were Othni, Rephael, Obed, and Elzabad, whose brothers Elihu and Semachiah were able men.
8 All these were of the sons of Obed-Edom, they and their sons and their brethren, [a]able men with strength for the work: sixty-two of Obed-Edom.
9 And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, eighteen able men.
10 Also [a]Hosah, of the children of Merari, had sons: Shimri the first (for though he was not the firstborn, his father made him the first),
11 Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth; all the sons and brethren of Hosah were thirteen.
12 Among these were the divisions of the gatekeepers, among the chief men, having duties just like their brethren, to serve in the house of the LORD.
13 And they [a]cast lots for each gate, the 14 The lot for the East Gate fell to [1]Shelemiah. Then they cast lots for his son Zechariah, a wise counselor, and his lot came out for the North Gate;

15 to Obed-Edom the South Gate, and to his sons the [1]storehouse.
16 To Shuppim and Hosah the lot came out for the West Gate, with the Shallecheth Gate on the [a]ascending highway—watchman opposite watchman.
17 On the east were six Levites, on the north four each day, on the south four each day, and for the [1]storehouse two by two.
18 As for the [1]Parbar on the west, there were four on the highway and two at the Parbar.
19 These were the divisions of the gatekeepers among the sons of Korah and among the sons of Merari.

The Treasuries and Other Duties

20 Of the Levites, Ahijah was [a]over the treasuries of the house of God and over the treasuries of the [b]dedicated[1] things.
21 The sons of [1]Laadan, the descendants of the Gershonites of Laadan, heads of their fathers' houses, of Laadan the Gershonite: [2]Jehieli.
22 The sons of Jehieli, Zetham and Joel his brother, were over the treasuries of the house of the LORD.
23 Of the [a]Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites:
24 [a]Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was overseer of the treasuries.
25 And his brethren by Eliezer were Rehabiah his son, Jeshaiah his son, Joram his son, Zichri his son, and [a]Shelomith his son.
26 This Shelomith and his brethren were over all the treasuries of the dedicated things [a]which King David and the heads of fathers' houses, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the army, had dedicated.
27 Some of the [1]spoils won in battles they dedicated to maintain the house of the LORD.
28 And all that Samuel [a]the seer, Saul the son of Kish, Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah had dedicated, every dedicated thing, was under the hand of Shelomith and his brethren.
29 Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons [a]performed duties as [b]officials and judges over Israel outside Jerusalem.
30 Of the Hebronites, [a]Hashabiah and his brethren, one thousand seven hundred able men, had the oversight of Israel on the west side of the Jordan for all the business of the LORD, and in the service of the king.
31 Among the Hebronites, [a]Jerijah was head of the Hebronites according to his genealogy of the fathers. In the fortieth year of the reign of David they were sought, and there were found among them capable men [b]at Jazer of Gilead.
32 And his brethren were two thousand seven hundred able men, heads of fathers' houses, whom King David made officials over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, for every matter pertaining to God and the [a]affairs of the king.

The Military Divisions

27 And the children of Israel, according to their number, the heads of fathers' houses, the captains of thousands and hundreds and their officers, served the king in every matter of the military divisions. These divisions came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year, each division having twenty-four thousand.
2 Over the first division for the first month was [a]Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel, and in his division were twenty-four thousand;
3 he was of the children of Perez, and the chief of all the captains of the army for the first month.
4 Over the division of the second month was [1]Dodai an Ahohite, and of his division Mikloth also was the leader; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

CHAPTER 27

2 [a]1 Chr. 11:11
4 [1]Heb. Dodai, usually spelled Dodo, 2 Sam. 23:9
5 [a]1 Chr. 18:17

26:14 The East Gate was the most important gate because it led directly into the temple's main entrance.

26:27 Although David could not build the temple because he was a man of bloodshed, many Israelite warriors had dedicated their plunder to the support of the temple.

26:29 These men's responsibilities included secular and religious duties such as conscription, labor, and taxes, in addition to the practices of religion.

26:31 This work was done in David's final year as king (1 Chr. 29:27). Throughout his reign, David was organizing his people for worship.

27:1 Not surprisingly, David developed a highly organized army. The army was divided into twelve divisions, each consisting of 24,000 soldiers. Each band served one month per year and was led by one of David's mighty men.

27:2 Jashobeam was also one of the three elite soldiers among David's mighty men (1 Chr. 11:11).

27:4 Dodai's son Eleazer, was the second of David's mighty men (1 Chr. 11:11).

27:5 Benaiah was from the tribe of Levi and was one of David's mighty men (1 Chr. 11:22–24; 1 Kin. 4:4). He would later replace Joab as head of the army under Solomon.

6 This was the Benaiah who was [a]mighty among the thirty, and was over the thirty; in his division was Ammizabad his son.
7 The fourth captain for the fourth month was [a]Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him; in his division were twenty-four thousand.
8 The fifth captain for the fifth month was [1]Shamhuth the Izrahite; in his division were twenty-four thousand.
9 The sixth captain for the sixth month was [a]Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite; in his division were twenty-four thousand.
10 The seventh captain for the seventh month was [a]Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim; in his division were twenty-four thousand.
11 The eighth captain for the eighth month was [a]Sibbechai the Hushathite, of the Zarhites; in his division were twenty-four thousand.
12 The ninth captain for the ninth month was [a]Abiezer the Anathothite, of the Benjamites; in his division were twenty-four thousand.
13 The tenth captain for the tenth month was [a]Maharai the Netophathite, of the Zarhites; in his division were twenty-four thousand.
14 The eleventh captain for the eleventh month was [a]Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephraim; in his division were twenty-four thousand.
15 The twelfth captain for the twelfth month was [1]Heldai the Netophathite, of Othniel; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

Leaders of Tribes

16 Furthermore, over the tribes of Israel: the officer over the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri; over the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maachah;
17 over the Levites, [a]Hashabiah the son of Kemuel; over the Aaronites, Zadok;
18 over Judah, [a]Elihu, one of David's brothers; over Issachar, Omri the son of Michael;
19 over Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah; over Naphtali, Jerimoth the son of Azriel;
20 over the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah; over the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiah;
21 over the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah; over Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner;
22 over Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. These were the leaders of the tribes of Israel.
23 But David did not take the number of those twenty years old and under, because [a]the LORD had said He would multiply Israel like the [b]stars of the heavens.
24 Joab the son of Zeruiah began a census, but he did not finish, for [a]wrath came upon Israel because of this census; nor was the number recorded in the account of the chronicles of King David.

Other State Officials

25 And Azmaveth the son of Adiel was over the king's treasuries; and Jehonathan the son of Uzziah was over the storehouses in the field, in the cities, in the villages, and in the fortresses.
26 Ezri the son of Chelub was over those who did the work of the field for tilling the ground.
27 And Shimei the Ramathite was over the vineyards, and Zabdi the Shiphmite was over the produce of the vineyards for the supply of wine.
28 Baal-Hanan the Gederite was over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the lowlands, and Joash was over the store of oil.
29 And Shitrai the Sharonite was over the herds that fed in Sharon, and Shaphat the son of Adlai was over the herds that were in the valleys.
30 Obil the Ishmaelite was over the camels, Jehdeiah the Meronothite was over the donkeys,
31 and Jaziz the [a]Hagrite was over the flocks. All these were the officials over King David's property.
32 Also Jehonathan, David's uncle, was a counselor, a wise man, and a [1]scribe; and Jehiel the [2]son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons.
33 [a]Ahithophel was the king's counselor, and [b]Hushai the Archite was the king's companion.
34 After Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, then [a]Abiathar. And the general of the king's army was [b]Joab.

27:9 A Tekoite was a person from Tekoa, located six miles southeast of Bethlehem.

27:11 Sibbechai was a member of David's mighty men (1 Chr. 11:29; see 2 Sam. 21:18).

27:13 Maharai was a member of David's mighty men (1 Chr. 11:30).

27:14 Benaiah was a member of David's mighty men. He came from Pirathon, located five miles south of Samaria.

27:15 Heldai was a member of David's thirty and traced his lineage back to Israel's first judge, Othniel (Judg. 3:7–11).

27:18 Elihu may have been David's brother Eliab (1 Sam. 16:6).

27:25 Most of the kingdom's expenses were paid by the king personally. Therefore, David would have acquired large amounts of land and resources to pay for state expenses.

Solomon Instructed to Build the Temple

28 Now David assembled at Jerusalem all [a]the leaders of Israel: the officers of the tribes and [b]the captains of the divisions who served the king, the captains over thousands and captains over hundreds, and [c]the stewards over all the substance and [1]possessions of the king and of his sons, with the officials, the valiant men, and all [d]the mighty men of valor.
2 Then King David rose to his feet and said, "Hear me, my brethren and my people: [a]I had it in my heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for [b]the footstool of our God, and had made preparations to build it.
3 "But God said to me, [a]'You shall not build a house for My name, because you have been a man of war and have shed [b]blood.'
4 "However the LORD God of Israel [a]chose me above all the house of my father to be king over Israel forever, for He has chosen [b]Judah to be the ruler. And of the house of Judah, [c]the house of my father, and [d]among the sons of my father, He was pleased with me to make me king over all Israel.
5 [a]"And of all my sons (for the LORD has given me many sons) [b]He has chosen my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.
6 "Now He said to me, 'It is [a]your son Solomon who shall build My house and My courts; for I have chosen him to be My son, and I will be his Father.
7 'Moreover I will establish his kingdom forever, [a]if he is steadfast to observe My commandments and My judgments, as it is this day.'
8 "Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God, be careful to seek out all the commandments of the LORD your God, that you may possess this good land, and leave it as an inheritance for your children after you forever.
9 "As for you, my son Solomon, [a]know the God of your father, and serve Him [b]with a loyal heart and with a willing mind; for [c]the LORD searches all hearts and understands all the intent of the thoughts. [d]If you seek Him, He will be found by you; but if you forsake Him, He will [e]cast you off forever.
10 "Consider now, [a]for the LORD has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary; be strong, and do it."
11 Then David gave his son Solomon [a]the plans for the vestibule, its houses, its treasuries, its upper chambers, its inner chambers, and the place of the mercy seat;
12 and the [a]plans for all that he had by the Spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, of all the chambers all around, [b]of the treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries for the dedicated things;
13 also for the division of the priests and the [a]Levites, for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the articles of service in the house of the LORD.
14 He gave gold by weight for things of gold, for all articles used in every kind of service; also silver for all articles of silver by weight, for all articles used in every kind of service;
15 the weight for the [a]lampstands of gold, and their lamps of gold, by weight for each lampstand and its lamps; for the lampstands of silver by weight, for the lampstand and its lamps, according to the use of each lampstand.
16 And by weight he gave gold for the tables of the showbread, for each [a]table, and silver for the tables of silver;
17 also pure gold for the forks, the basins, the pitchers of pure gold, and the golden bowls—he gave gold by weight for every bowl; and for the silver bowls, silver by weight for every bowl;
18 and refined gold by weight for the [a]altar of incense, and for the construction of the chariot, that is, the gold [b]cherubim that spread their wings and overshadowed the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Chr. 28:9

Found by the Lord

God knows your heart. What an encouragement to every Christian! Seek Him with a willing heart and He will come to you. As you face life's challenges, walk with integrity before God so you can confidently seek His wisdom, guidance, and provision.

28:8 David charged the people to trust in God rather than in him. He was passing away, but it was God who chose the house of David, God who chose Solomon to build the temple, God who gave the commands leading to life and peace, and God who would remain when David was gone. The people did not need to worry when David died, because their king was not their hope; God was.

19 "All this," said David, [a]"the LORD made me understand in writing, by His hand upon me, all the [1]works of these plans."
20 And David said to his son Solomon, [a]"Be strong and of good courage, and do it; do not fear nor be dismayed, for the LORD God—my God—will be with you. [b]He will not leave you nor forsake you, until you have finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD.
21 "Here are [a]the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of the house of God; and [b]every willing craftsman will be with you for all manner of workmanship, for every kind of service; also the leaders and all the people will be completely at your command."

Offerings for Building the Temple

29 Furthermore King David said to all the assembly: "My son Solomon, whom alone God has [a]chosen, is [b]young and inexperienced; and the work is great, because the [1]temple is not for man but for the LORD God.
2 "Now for the house of my God I have prepared with all my might: gold for things to be made of gold, silver for things of silver, bronze for things of bronze, iron for things of iron, wood for things of wood, [a]onyx stones, stones to be set, glistening stones of various colors, all kinds of precious stones, and marble slabs in abundance.
3 "Moreover, because I have set my affection on the house of my God, I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house, my own special treasure of gold and silver:
4 "three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of [a]Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses;
5 "the gold for things of gold and the silver for things of silver, and for all kinds of work to be done by the hands of craftsmen. Who then is [a]willing to [1]consecrate himself this day to the LORD?"
6 Then [a]the leaders of the fathers' houses, leaders of the tribes of Israel, the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with [b]the officers over the king's work, [c]offered willingly.
7 They gave for the work of the house of God five thousand talents and ten thousand darics of gold, ten thousand talents of silver, eighteen thousand talents of bronze, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.
8 And whoever had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the house of the LORD, into the hand of [a]Jehiel[1] the Gershonite.
9 Then the people rejoiced, for they had offered willingly, because with a loyal heart they had [a]offered willingly to the LORD; and King David also rejoiced greatly.

WORD*Study* CONSECRATE

1 Chr. 29:5 The words translated "consecrate" mean literally "fill the hand," but the actual sense is "dedicate oneself for a task." When this word is used with "to God" it always means "to consecrate oneself to God's service." This phrase typically applied to the priesthood (Ex. 28:41; 29:9, 29, 33; Lev. 8:33; 16:32; Judg. 17:5, 12; 1 Kin. 13:33). Chronicles is the only book that applies this term to the whole people of God and not simply the priests. The implication is that the people themselves were a "kingdom of priests" (Ex. 19:6).

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Chr. 29:9

Joyful Offering

There is no joy in giving grudgingly. But when you offer your services and your resources to God willingly, you will experience deep satisfaction. What a privilege to give unselfishly to the One who gives so much to you.

David's Praise to God

10 Therefore David blessed the LORD before all the assembly; and David said:

"Blessed are You, LORD God of Israel,
our Father, forever and ever.
11 [a]Yours, O LORD, is the greatness,
The power and the glory,
The victory and the majesty;
For all that is in heaven and in earth is Yours;
Yours is the kingdom, O LORD,
And You are exalted as head over all.

28:19 The way God gave David details for the temple was similar to the way He instructed Moses regarding building the tabernacle (Ex. 25:40). Both the tabernacle and the temple were built with human hands, but designed by God.

28:20 David could deliver these encouraging words to Solomon because he had experienced the Lord's presence throughout his entire life. David often sinned against God and blatantly broke His laws. However, the Lord was faithful to walk with David just as He had promised. Solomon could have this same confidence since the Lord had promised to walk with David's son (1 Chr. 17).

29:7 A daric was a Persian coin.

12 [a]Both riches and honor come from You,
And You reign over all.
In Your hand is power and might;
In Your hand it is to make great
And to give strength to all.

13 "Now therefore, our God,
We thank You
And praise Your glorious name.
14 But who am I, and who are my people,
That we should be able to offer so willingly as this?
For all things come from You,
And [1]of Your own we have given You.
15 For [a]we are [1]aliens and [2]pilgrims before You,
As were all our fathers;
[b]Our days on earth are as a shadow,
And without hope.

16 "O LORD our God, all this abundance that we have prepared to build You a house for Your holy name is from Your hand, and is all Your own.
17 "I know also, my God, that You [a]test the heart and [b]have pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things; and now with joy I have seen Your people, who are present here to offer willingly to You.
18 "O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our fathers, keep this forever in the intent of the thoughts of the heart of Your people, and fix their heart toward You.
19 "And [a]give my son Solomon a loyal heart to keep Your commandments and Your testimonies and Your statutes, to do all these things, and to build the [1]temple for which [b]I have made provision."
20 Then David said to all the assembly, "Now bless the LORD your God." So all the assembly blessed the LORD God of their fathers, and bowed their heads and prostrated themselves before the LORD and the king.

Solomon Anointed King

21 And they made sacrifices to the LORD and offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the next day: a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and [a]sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.
22 So they ate and drank before the LORD with great gladness on that day. And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and [a]anointed him before the LORD to be the leader, and Zadok to be priest.
23 Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him.
24 All the leaders and the mighty men, and also all the sons of King David, [a]submitted[1] themselves to King Solomon.
25 So the LORD exalted Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and [a]bestowed on him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

The Close of David's Reign

26 Thus David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel.
27 [a]And the period that he reigned over Israel was forty years; [b]seven years he reigned in Hebron, and thirty-three years he reigned in Jerusalem.
28 So he [a]died in a good old age, [b]full of days and riches and honor; and Solomon his son reigned in his place.
29 Now the acts of King David, first and last, indeed they are written in the [1]book of Samuel the seer, in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer,
30 with all his reign and his might, [a]and the events that happened to him, to Israel, and to all the kingdoms of the lands.

29:14 David was keenly aware that his ability to give gifts to God was a result of God's goodness to him. All of David's possessions had been given to him by God.

29:22 This reference to being "made king a second time" most likely refers to the fact that the rapidly developing circumstances of Solomon's first anointing (1 Kin. 1:32–40) came as a result of Adonijah's rebellion. This first ceremony was hurried and semiprivate, and lacked all the pageantry of a national occasion. Therefore, Solomon was anointed a second time, with the splendor befitting a king.

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE

CHRONICLES

INTRODUCTION

Originally, 1 and 2 Chronicles were together in one book. Translators of the Septuagint (the Greek translation of the Jewish scriptures), divided them as a matter of convenience. Together, 1 and 2 Chronicles provide a religious history of the Davidic dynasty of Judah. The Hebrew title of these books was "The Words [events] of the Days." Because Chronicles relied upon the books of Samuel and Kings and presented a history from David to the fall of Jerusalem, the Septuagint titled the work "Of Things Omitted" which referred to the materials included that had been left out of Samuel and Kings. However, it was not until Jerome translated the work into Latin in the fourth century A.D. that it became known as Chronicles. Chronicles differs from Kings in that the Chronicler did not attempt to write a royal history of the kings of Israel, but rather focused on the religious life of Judah with an eye upon matters such as the temple, prayer, worship, and the Levites.

SIGNIFICANCE

Chronicles was written to the Jewish community in and around Jerusalem during the Second Temple period. These people were under Persian rule, described in Ezra 9:8, 9 and Nehemiah 9:37 as a time of slavery and great distress. The people were pressured by hostile neighbors (Ezra 3:12), poverty (Neh. 5:2–5), faithless religious behavior (Is. 57:3–13; 65: 3–7; 66:17), and they were in jeopardy of losing their identity through intermarriage (Ezra 9:1, 2; 10:18–44). The Chronicler sought to provide hope and a sense of identity to the people returning from exile. Through the use of genealogies the people were reminded that they were the chosen people of God. Regardless of the fact that they no longer had a Davidic king, Chronicles reminded the people that the throne and kingdom belonged to God and He would continue to rule His people.

Chronicles presents a message of unity among the people of God and attempts to rally the people through worship in the newly constructed temple. The second temple did not match the splendor of the first, but it was the dwelling place of God, and those ministering in Jerusalem were following God's original commands. The worship in the Jerusalem temple was also used as a call to reunite all of Israel, including those who remained in the northern kingdom following the Assyrian destruction.

STRUCTURE

Second Chronicles can be divided into three main sections. The first section (1:1—9:31), a continuation of the united monarchy presented in 1 Chronicles, covers the life of Solomon. Chapter one records the greatness of Solomon while chapters two through nine describe the building and dedication of the temple. The second section (10:1—28:27) recounts the way in which Judah related to the Lord from the rule of Rehoboam to the reign of Ahaz. The last section (29:1—36:23) begins with Hezekiah's cleansing and rededication of the temple and ends with the Babylonian exile of the Judean people.

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH SECOND CHRONICLES

This book continues the fundamental themes of praise, worship, and thanksgiving from First Chronicles. There is a strong emphasis upon God's people serving God wholeheartedly. The kings who found approval in God's eyes, such as Asa, Hezekiah, and Josiah, are all described as serving God with a perfect or whole heart.

The understanding that faithfulness to God will bring blessings and disobedience will ensure God's judgment affords a challenge to modern readers. The examples of good and bad kings give evidence that a person's integrity before God will determine the manner in which God deals with His people. Throughout Second Chronicles there is a continual message of hope for God's people. Even in the face of God's judgment, there is always a word of hope and restoration (2 Chr. 7:14). This hope of restoration can be a source of joy for Christians today who find themselves in difficult times due to their own disobedience to God.

Solomon Requests Wisdom

CHAPTER 1

NOW [a]Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and [b]the LORD his God was with him and [c]exalted him exceedingly.
2 And Solomon spoke to all Israel, to [a]the captains of thousands and of hundreds, to the judges, and to every leader in all Israel, the heads of the fathers' houses.
3 Then Solomon, and all the assembly with him, went to [1]the high place that was at [a]Gibeon; for the tabernacle of meeting with God was there, which Moses the servant of the LORD had [b]made in the wilderness.
4 [a]But David had brought up the ark of God from Kirjath Jearim to the place David had prepared for it, for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.
5 Now [a]the bronze altar that [b]Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, [1]he put before the tabernacle of the LORD; Solomon and the assembly sought Him there.
6 And Solomon went up there to the bronze altar before the LORD, which was at the tabernacle of meeting, and [a]offered a thousand burnt offerings on it.
7 [a]On that night God appeared to Solomon, and said to him, "Ask! What shall I give you?"

CHARACTER*Study* — SOLOMON — 2 Chr. 1:1

Solomon's name can be interpreted "his peace," "(God) is peace," or "intact." He was David's tenth son and the second son of Bathsheba (2 Sam. 12:24). Although Solomon was not David's eldest son, he was crowned the third king of Israel with the help of his mother, the prophet Nathan, and David (1 Kin. 1–2). His rule was marked by a period of peace and prosperity for Israel. Solomon is most noted for his wisdom, his building projects, and for his great wealth, acquired through international trade and diplomacy.

For Israel, Solomon's greatest achievement was the building of the temple (1 Kin. 6; 2 Chr. 3). This feat realized God's promise to David (1 Chr. 17) and represented the Lord's continued presence among the people. Along with the construction of the temple, Solomon embarked on a major building program throughout the kingdom. He provided security for the nation by fortifying a number of cities. He had large storage cities created to stockpile Israel's resources. He also developed the temple complex consisting of the palace, the house of the forest of Lebanon, the hall or porch of pillars, the hall for the throne, and a house for the daughter of Pharaoh (1 Kin. 7).

Solomon was famous for his wisdom, which the Bible identifies as a gift from God (1 Chr. 1:7–12; see 1 Kin. 3:5–12). This God-given wisdom enabled the king to administer the nation and to develop extensive trade throughout the Ancient Near East. He was also noted for speaking 3,000 proverbs and 1005 songs (1 Kin. 4:32). Even with this gift of wisdom, Solomon did not continue to follow God. Eventually his disobedience set the stage for the division of the kingdom of Israel. He obtained hundreds of foreign wives through his international relationships, and they contributed to his downfall. Solomon built temples to the foreign gods. His wives turned his heart and his loyalties away from God (11:4, 5), and he eventually built altars in Jerusalem for Chemosh (the god of Moab) and for Molech (the god of the Ammonites). This blatant sin brought God's judgment upon his kingdom (11:9).

Solomon's life reveals a man who sought after God, which resulted in a period of fame and prosperity for him and for the kingdom. However, he was not able to withstand the temptations that accompanied his success. His life reflects a sad commentary and provides a warning to the modern reader: great wisdom and knowledge are not enough unless one is faithful to the Lord. In contrast to his father David, who maintained a heart loyal to God, Solomon did not finish well. He was unable to leave his own son a unified and prosperous kingdom, but rather left a nation in turmoil, on the brink of civil war.

1:1 The account of Solomon is a continuation of David's story. Solomon's reign and his success came as a result of God's promise to David (1 Chr. 17). The covenant underlies the entire record of Solomon, as Chronicles focuses on God's promises being fulfilled rather than on Solomon's accomplishments as king.

1:3 At the outset of Solomon's reign there were two religious centers in Israel. One was at Gibeon, where the tabernacle built by Moses stood. David, however, had taken the Ark of the Covenant to Jerusalem to the site of the eventual temple.

8 And Solomon said to God: "You have shown great [a]mercy to David my father, and have made me [b]king in his place.

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Chr. 1:8

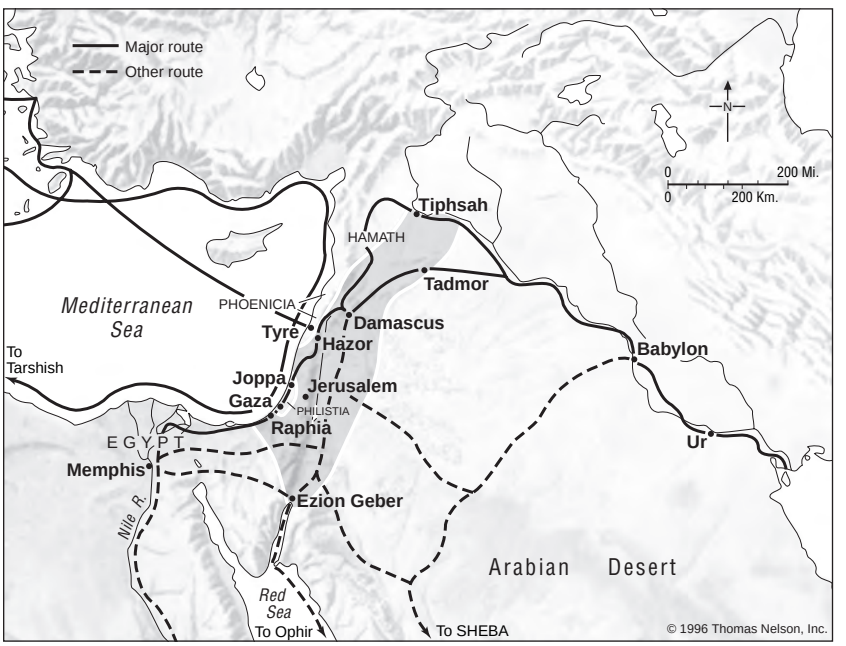
Great Mercy

God's mercy to one generation should be evident to the next. Be intentional in sharing with your children the specific ways God blesses you, for they too benefit from God's mercy. Your children need to be aware of God's continuing gift of grace so they can know how to walk with Him in the same manner.

9 "Now, O LORD God, let Your promise to David my father be established, [a]for You have made me king over a people like the [b]dust of the earth in multitude.
10 [a]"Now give me wisdom and knowledge, that I may [b]go out and come in before this people; for who can judge this great people of Yours?"
11 [a]Then God said to Solomon: "Because this was in your heart, and you have not asked riches or wealth or honor or the life of your enemies, nor have you asked long life—but have asked wisdom and knowledge for yourself, that you may judge My people over whom I have made you king—
12 "wisdom and knowledge are granted to you; and I will give you riches and wealth and honor, such as [a]none of the kings have had who were before you, nor shall any after you have the like."



Solomon's Military and Economic Power

13 So Solomon came to Jerusalem from [1]the high place that was at Gibeon, from before the tabernacle of meeting, and reigned over Israel.
14 [a]And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen; he had one thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.
15 [a]Also the king made silver and gold as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedars as abundant as the sycamores which are in the lowland.

1:10 "Go out and come in" signified the daily activities of Solomon's life. He knew He needed wisdom to live his life before His people in a manner that glorified God. Solomon correctly understood that the greatest single need of any leader is God's wisdom.

1:14 Chariot cities were fortified cities located at militarily strategic sites throughout the kingdom. These cities were constructed with large courtyards, storehouses, and stables within the walls. They were located along the major trade roads throughout Israel. Typically, Israel's enemies attacked the country from the north and the northwest. Two chariot cities protecting Israel's trade routes in these regions were Hazor and Megiddo.

2 Chr. 1:13–17 The Spread of Solomon's Fame

16 [a]And Solomon had horses imported from Egypt and Keveh; the king's merchants bought them in Keveh at the current price.
17 They also acquired and imported from Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for one hundred and fifty; thus, [1]through their agents, they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Syria.

Solomon Prepares to Build the Temple

2 Then Solomon [a]determined to build a temple for the name of the LORD, and a royal house for himself.
2 [a]Solomon selected seventy thousand men to bear burdens, eighty thousand to quarry stone in the mountains, and three thousand six hundred to oversee them.
3 Then Solomon sent to [1]Hiram king of Tyre, saying:

> [a]As you have dealt with David my father, and sent him cedars to build himself a house to dwell in, so deal with me.

4 Behold, [a]I am building a temple for the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to Him, [b]to burn before Him [1]sweet incense, for [c]the continual showbread, for [d]the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the [e]Sabbaths, on the New Moons, and on the [2]set feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance forever to Israel.
5 And the temple which I build will be great, for [a]our God is greater than all gods.
6 [a]But who is able to build Him a temple, since heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain Him? Who am I then, that I should build Him a temple, except to burn sacrifice before Him?
7 Therefore send me at once a man skillful to work in gold and silver, in bronze and iron, in purple and crimson and blue, who has skill to engrave with the skillful men who are with me in Judah and Jerusalem, [a]whom David my father provided.
8 [a]Also send me cedar and cypress and algum logs from Lebanon, for I know that your servants have skill to cut timber in Lebanon; and indeed my servants will be with your servants,
9 to prepare timber for me in abundance, for the [1]temple which I am about to build shall be great and wonderful.
10 [a]And indeed I will give to your servants, the woodsmen who cut timber, twenty thousand kors of ground wheat, twenty thousand kors of barley, twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.

11 Then Hiram king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon:

> [a]Because the LORD loves His people, He has made you king over them.

12 [1]Hiram also said:

> [a]Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, [b]who made heaven and earth, for He has given King David a wise son, endowed with prudence and understanding, who will build a temple for the LORD and a royal house for himself!

13 And now I have sent a skillful man, endowed with understanding, [1]Huram my [2]master craftsman
14 [a](the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre), skilled to work in gold and silver, bronze and iron, stone and wood, purple and blue, fine linen and crimson, and to make any engraving and to accomplish any plan which may be given to him, with your skillful men and

Honoring God

Why should we make a great effort to offer God the best of our skills, resources, and talents? It is not to impress Him and gain His favor. It is because He is God and He deserves nothing less.

1:16 Keveh may have been the same city on the northeast Mediterranean coast later known as Cilicia.

2:4 Solomon made sure Hiram understood that the request for craftsmen and material was not for a structure to bring prestige to the king of Israel, but to worship and glorify the God of Israel.

2:6 The temple was not built as a house for God to exist in, since nothing could contain Him; it was constructed so people would have an appropriate place to offer Him sacrifices and worship.

2:8 "Algum logs" may be an exotic tree found in Ophir, which was probably in southern Arabia in what is now Yemen.

2:10 At the beginning of Solomon's reign, Israel was an agricultural society and did not have the craftsmen required to build the temple. Therefore, Solomon traded grains, wine, and oils for skilled labor from Tyre. The ground wheat would have been about 125,000 bushels. Twenty thousand baths is roughly 115,000 gallons.

2:12 The cooperation between Solomon's and Hiram's workers and the recognition of God's gift of wisdom to Solomon reveals that Israel had been given the rest described in 1 Chronicles 22:9, 10.

with the skillful men of my lord David your father.
15 Now therefore, the wheat, the barley, the oil, and the wine which [a]my lord has spoken of, let him send to his servants.
16 [a]And we will cut wood from Lebanon, as much as you need; we will bring it to you in rafts by sea to [1]Joppa, and you will carry it up to Jerusalem.

17 [a]Then Solomon numbered all the aliens who were in the land of Israel, after the census in which [b]David his father had numbered them; and there were found to be one hundred and fifty-three thousand six hundred.
18 And he made [a]seventy thousand of them bearers of burdens, eighty thousand stonecutters in the mountain, and three thousand six hundred overseers to make the people work.

Solomon Builds the Temple

3 Now [a]Solomon began to build the house of the LORD at [b]Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where [1]the LORD had appeared to his father David, at the place that David had prepared on the threshing floor of [c]Ornan[2] the Jebusite.
2 And he began to build on the second day of the second month in the fourth year of his reign.
3 This is the foundation [a]which Solomon laid for building the house of God: The length was sixty cubits (by cubits according to the former measure) and the width twenty cubits.
4 And the [a]vestibule that was in front of [1]the sanctuary was twenty cubits long across the width of the house, and the height was [2]one hundred and twenty. He overlaid the inside with pure gold.
5 [a]The larger [1]room he [b]paneled with cypress which he overlaid with fine gold, and he carved palm trees and chainwork on it.
6 And he decorated the house with precious stones for beauty, and the gold was gold from Parvaim.
7 He also overlaid the house—the beams and doorposts, its walls and doors—with gold; and he carved cherubim on the walls.
8 And he made the [a]Most Holy Place. Its length was according to the width of the house, twenty cubits, and its width twenty cubits. He overlaid it with six hundred talents of fine gold.

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Chr. 3:8

God's Awesome Presence

Throughout history people built enormous, elaborate cathedrals and temples to symbolize God's majesty. Yet no human creation begins to compare with the actual presence of God. God's children enter that presence every time they pray.

9 The weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold; and he overlaid the upper [a]area with gold.
10 [a]In the Most Holy Place he made two cherubim, fashioned by carving, and overlaid them with gold.
11 The wings of the cherubim were twenty cubits in overall length: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, touching the wall of the room, and the other wing was five cubits, touching the wing of the other cherub;
12 one wing of the other cherub was five cubits, touching the wall of the room, and the other wing also was five cubits, touching the wing of the other cherub.
13 The wings of these cherubim spanned twenty cubits overall. They stood on their feet, and they faced inward.

2:16 Joppa was a small seaport on the coast located between Mount Carmel and Gaza, approximately thirty-five miles west of Jerusalem. The city was a way station for journeying people traveling northward toward Egypt and for northern people traveling south. During Solomon's day, the town served as an outlet to the Mediterranean Sea for Israel. There was a steep forty mile incline from Joppa to Jerusalem.

3:1 King David purchased the land upon which the temple was built, on Mount Moriah, from Ornan when God showed mercy and halted His judgment on His people (1 Chr. 21:18, 26). This may be the site upon which Abraham was told to sacrifice his son Isaac (Gen. 22:2) as he was told to go to the land of Moriah to one of the mountains.

3:2 This was in April.

3:3 Two standards for the cubit were used in Israel, a short cubit (17.4 inches) and a long cubit (20.4 inches). Which "standard of cubit" the Chronicler considers to be the old standard is not clear from the text. Depending on the standard used to build the temple, its measurements would have been 90 by 30 feet or 105 by 35 feet.

3:8 Several grades of gold are mentioned in the description of the temple (2 Chr. 3:4, 6, 8; see 1 Kin. 6:20, 21). While the understanding of ancient metallurgy is inadequate to explain the qualities of the different types of gold, it is clear that the gradations of holiness in progressing to the ark and Most Holy Place was matched by the value and quality of gold that was used. Six hundred talents would be about 23 tons (21 metric tons) of gold. This is a vast quantity of gold, but only a small portion of the gold David is said to have stored for the building (1 Chr. 22:14).

3:9 Fifty shekels is about 22 ounces. Because gold is a soft metal, it would not have been suitable for nails. It was probably used as gold leaf to cover the iron nail heads that held the gold sheets in place on the walls.

3:11 The cherubim's wings stretched completely across the Most Holy Place.

14 And he made the [a]veil of blue, purple, crimson, and fine linen, and wove cherubim into it.
15 Also he made in front of the [1]temple [a]two pillars [2]thirty-five cubits [3]high, and the capital that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.
16 He made wreaths of chainwork, as in the inner sanctuary, and put them on top of the pillars; and he made [a]one hundred pomegranates, and put them on the wreaths of chainwork.
17 Then he [a]set up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand and the other on the left; he called the name of the one on the right hand [1]Jachin, and the name of the one on the left [2]Boaz.

Furnishings of the Temple

4 Moreover he made [a]a bronze altar: twenty cubits was its length, twenty cubits its width, and ten cubits its height.
2 [a]Then he made the [1]Sea of cast bronze, ten cubits from one brim to the other; it was completely round. Its height was five cubits, and a line of thirty cubits measured its circumference.
3 [a]And under it was the likeness of oxen encircling it all around, ten to a cubit, all the way around the Sea. The oxen were cast in two rows, when it was cast.
4 It stood on twelve [a]oxen: three looking toward the north, three looking toward the west, three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east; the Sea was set upon them, and all their back parts pointed inward.
5 It was a handbreadth thick; and its brim was shaped like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It contained [1]three thousand baths.
6 He also made [a]ten lavers, and put five on the right side and five on the left, to wash in them; such things as they offered for the burnt offering they would wash in them, but the [1]Sea was for the [b]priests to wash in.

7 [a]And he made ten lampstands of gold [b]according to their design, and set them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left.
8 [a]He also made ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left. And he made one hundred [b]bowls of gold.
9 Furthermore [a]he made the court of the priests, and the [b]great court and doors for the court; and he overlaid these doors with bronze.
10 [a]He set the Sea on the right side, toward the southeast.
11 Then [a]Huram made the pots and the shovels and the bowls. So Huram finished doing the work that he was to do for King Solomon for the house of God:
12 the two pillars and [a]the bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the two pillars; the two networks covering the two bowl-shaped capitals which were on top of the pillars;
13 [a]four hundred pomegranates for the two networks (two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on the pillars);
14 he also made [a]carts and the lavers on the carts;
15 one Sea and twelve oxen under it;
16 also the pots, the shovels, the forks—and all their articles [a]Huram his [1]master craftsman made of burnished bronze for King Solomon for the house of the LORD.
17 In the plain of Jordan the king had them cast in clay molds, between Succoth and [1]Zeredah.
18 [a]And Solomon had all these articles made in such great abundance that the weight of the bronze was not determined.
19 Thus [a]Solomon had all the furnishings made for the house of God: the altar of gold and the tables on which was [b]the showbread;
20 the lampstands with their lamps of pure gold, to burn [a]in the prescribed manner in front of the inner sanctuary,

3:14 The veil separated the Most Holy Place from the sanctuary and prevented anyone from seeing the ark or the cherubim. The veil had cherubim embroidered into it and was made of blue, purple, crimson, and fine linen, just as the veil in the tabernacle had been.

3:17 Jachin means "He Establishes" and Boaz means "In Him Is Strength."

4:2 The Sea of cast bronze was a large water tank placed just inside the southeast corner of the temple. Its nearest equivalent in the tabernacle was the basin (or laver) which stood between the bronze altar and the tent entrance (Ex. 30:18–21). The Sea was used by the priest for washing (Ex. 30:19, 20; 1 Chr. 4:6) in order to cleanse for worship.

4:5 The Sea was filled with 27,000 gallons of water, which would have weighed approximately 110 tons.

4:7 The lamp stands and the tables (for the showbread) represented God's continuing presence with His people. Even in times of darkness and poverty, God continued to be their source of light and food (Deut. 8:3; Ps. 36:8, 9; John 6:35; 8:12).

4:8 The tabernacle only had one table (Ex. 25:23). The temple had ten.

4:11 The shovels were used to remove the ashes and coals from the altar hearth and to place them into pots for removal from the temple. The bowls were containers for the blood of sacrificed animals (Ex. 27:3; 38:3; Num. 4:14).

4:12 Capitals were the top pieces of the pillars. Because of the time and skill needed for the construction of the capitals, the more ornate a capital the greater the prestige of a building. An opulent capital expressed the honor, wealth, and power of the one to whom the building was dedicated.

4:19 The altar of gold stood just before the veil and the Most Holy Place. Incense was burned upon it.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Chr. 4:20

Holy Light

God ensures that those earnestly seeking His presence can find it. Just as candles always burned in the temple before the Holy of Holies, so God is always prepared to receive those who come to Him.

21 with [a]the flowers and the lamps and the wick-trimmers of gold, of purest gold;
22 the trimmers, the bowls, the ladles, and the censers of pure gold. As for the entry of the [1]sanctuary, its inner doors to the Most Holy Place, and the doors of the main hall of the temple, were gold.

5 So [a]all the work that Solomon had done for the house of the LORD was finished; and Solomon brought in the things which his father David had dedicated: the silver and the gold and all the furnishings. And he put them in the treasuries of the house of God.

The Ark Brought into the Temple

2 [a]Now Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the chief fathers of the children of Israel, in Jerusalem, that they might bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD up [b]from the City of David, which is Zion.
3 [a]Therefore all the men of Israel assembled with the king [b]at the feast, which was in the seventh month.
4 So all the elders of Israel came, and the [a]Levites took up the ark.
5 Then they brought up the ark, the tabernacle of meeting, and all the holy furnishings that were in the tabernacle. The priests and the Levites brought them up.
6 Also King Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel who were assembled with him before the ark, were sacrificing sheep and oxen that could not be counted or numbered for multitude.
7 Then the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, into the [a]inner sanctuary of the [1]temple, to the Most Holy Place, under the wings of the cherubim.
8 For the cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim overshadowed the ark and its poles.
9 The poles extended so that the ends of the [a]poles of the ark could be seen from the holy place, in front of the inner sanctuary; but they could not be seen from outside. And [1]they are there to this day.
10 Nothing was in the ark except the two tablets which Moses [a]put there at Horeb, [1]when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they had come out of Egypt.
11 And it came to pass when the priests came out of the Most Holy Place (for all the priests who were present had [1]sanctified themselves, without keeping to their [a]divisions),
12 [a]and the Levites who were the singers, all those of Asaph and Heman and Jeduthun, with their sons and their brethren, stood at the east end of the altar, clothed in white linen, having cymbals, stringed instruments and harps, [b]and with them one hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets—
13 indeed it came to pass, when the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD, and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised the LORD, saying:

JOHANN SEBASTIAN BACH

2 Chr. 5:13

Johann Sebastian Bach was one of the greatest Christian musicians of all time. He wrote over one thousand compositions, the vast majority of which were composed for the church. He wrote such masterpieces as Mass in B Minor, The Passion of St. John, and The Passion of St. Matthew. In reading 2 Chronicles 5:13, he noted in the margin of his Bible, "At a reverent performance of music, God is always at hand with His gracious presence."

5:3 This "feast" would have been the Feast of Tabernacles which commemorated the Israelites' wandering in the wilderness when they and the ark of the covenant had no home.

5:5 The "tabernacle of meeting" was the Mosaic tabernacle. Once the temple was completed, Solomon brought the tabernacle and all its furnishings to the temple.

5:12 Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun were the heads of the divisions of Levitical musicians (1 Chr. 6:33, 39, 44; 15:17; 16:37, 42; 25:1).

5:13 Praising God and thanking Him were often tied together in Old Testament times (1 Chr. 16:4; 23:30; 29:13; Is. 38:18; Dan 2:23).

14 so that the priests could not [1]continue ministering because of the cloud; [a]for the glory of the LORD filled the house of God.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Chr. 5:14

The Glory of the Lord

When God makes His presence known it will often interrupt or cancel out our own plans of service for Him. As we serve the Lord, we must be ready and willing to adjust our course of action to glorify Him as He desires.

6 Then [a]Solomon spoke:

"The LORD said He would dwell in the [b]dark cloud.
2 I have surely built You an exalted
house,
And [a]a place for You to dwell in
forever."

Solomon's Speech upon Completion of the Work

3 Then the king turned around and [a]blessed the whole assembly of Israel, while all the assembly of Israel was standing.
4 And he said: "Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who has fulfilled with His hands what He spoke with His mouth to my father David, [a]saying,
5 'Since the day that I brought My people out of the land of Egypt, I have chosen no city from any tribe of Israel in which to build a house, that My name might be there, nor did I choose any man to be a ruler over My people Israel.
6 [a]'Yet I have chosen Jerusalem, that My name may be there, and I [b]have chosen David to be over My people Israel.'
7 "Now [a]it was in the heart of my father David to build a [1]temple for the name of the LORD God of Israel.
8 "But the LORD said to my father David, 'Whereas it was in your heart to build a temple for My name, you did well in that it was in your heart.

Solomon's Prayer of Dedication

12 [a]Then [1]Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread out his hands

14 and he said: "LORD God of Israel, [a]there is no God in heaven or on earth like You, who keep Your [b]covenant and mercy with Your servants who walk before You with all their hearts.

17 "And now, O LORD God of Israel, let Your word come true, which You have spoken to Your servant David.

HISTORICAL*Encounter* EVAN ROBERTS 2 Chr. 6:1

Evan Roberts was a devout young man and a coal miner in Wales. He prayed regularly for God to bring revival to his land. He would take his Bible everywhere he went. One day his Bible was accidentally scorched on the page of 2 Chronicles chapter six, where King Solomon prayed concerning reviving his people. Later, a great awakening would occur in Wales, in large part through the ministry of Roberts, and his scorched Bible would become famous around the world.

6:1 The cloud had previously appeared at Sinai where God revealed His presence (Ex. 20:21; Deut. 4:11; 5:22). The Chronicler's note of the cloud makes a connection between past revelation and the temple.

21 "And may You hear the supplications of Your servant and of Your people Israel, when they pray toward this place. Hear from heaven Your dwelling place, and when You hear, [a]forgive.
22 "If anyone sins against his neighbor, and is forced to take an [a]oath, and comes and takes an oath before Your altar in this temple,
23 "then hear from heaven, and act, and judge Your servants, bringing retribution on the wicked by bringing his way on his own head, and justifying the righteous by giving him according to his [a]righteousness.
24 "Or if Your people Israel are defeated before an [a]enemy because they have sinned against You, and return and confess Your name, and pray and make supplication before You in this temple,
25 "then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them back to the land which You gave to them and their fathers.

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Chr. 6:24, 25

Making Connections

God speaks to us through our circumstances. When God allows us to experience failure or continual defeat, He may be sending us a strong message. It is foolish to endure continual hardships and yet not seek the Lord for an explanation.

26 "When the [a]heavens are shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against You, when they pray toward this place and confess Your name, and turn from their sin because You afflict them,
27 "then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of Your servants, Your people Israel, that You may teach them the good way in which they should walk; and send rain on Your land which You have given to Your people as an inheritance.
28 "When there [a]is famine in the land, pestilence or blight or mildew, locusts or grasshoppers; when their enemies besiege them in the land of their cities; whatever plague or whatever [b]sickness there is;
29 "whatever prayer, whatever supplication is made by anyone, or by all Your people Israel, when each one knows his own burden and his own grief, and spreads out his hands to this temple:
30 "then hear from heaven Your dwelling place, and forgive, and give to everyone according to all his ways, whose heart You know (for You alone [a]know the [b]hearts of the sons of men),
31 "that they may fear You, to walk in Your ways as long as they live in the land which You gave to our fathers.
32 "Moreover, concerning a foreigner, [a]who is not of Your people Israel, but has come from a far country for the sake of Your great name and Your mighty hand and Your outstretched arm, when they come and pray in this temple;
33 "then hear from heaven Your dwelling place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to You, that all peoples of the earth may know Your name and fear You, as do Your people Israel, and that they may know that [1]this temple which I have built is called by Your name.
34 "When Your people go out to battle against their enemies, wherever You send them, and when they pray to You toward this city which You have chosen and the temple which I have built for Your name, 35 "then hear from heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.
36 "When they sin against You (for there is [a]no one who does not sin), and You become angry with them and deliver them to the enemy, and they take them [b]captive to a land far or near;

6:22 An unproven accusation was to be settled by the taking of an oath before the Lord (Ex. 22:11; Num. 5:19). When no person could decide on the guilt or innocence of a person, Solomon asked God to be the righteous Judge.

6:26 Drought and famine were regular occurrences in Israel. As an agrarian society, the nation was dependant upon the seasonal rains (in particular, the early rains to soften the soil for plowing in autumn and the latter rains to nourish the crops before harvest). The rainfall, or lack of it, was a sign of God's blessings or God's anger towards the people (Lev. 26:3, 4; Deut. 11:13, 14; 28:23; Prov. 16:15; Jer. 3:3; 5:24). If God brought drought to the land, the people were to repent of their sin so He would send rain (2 Chr. 7:13, 14).

6:30 God deals uniquely and justly with each person. This prayer was made for the entire nation, but Solomon recognized that God knows each person's heart and He would treat every person based on that individual's integrity before Him (Ezek. 18:1–4).

40 "Now, my God, I pray, let Your eyes be [a]open and let Your ears be attentive to the prayer made in this place.

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Chr. 6:40

Open and Attentive

God is always attentive to the cry of His children in distress. His response depends on the condition of our hearts. God is not obligated to rescue us from the consequences of our sin. But He is pleased to respond to a humble prayer of repentance and supplication.

41 "Now[a] therefore,
Arise, O LORD God, to Your [b]resting place,
You and the ark of Your strength.
Let Your priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation,
And let Your saints [c]rejoice in goodness.

42 "O LORD God, do not turn away the face of Your Anointed;
[a]Remember the mercies of Your servant David."

Solomon Dedicates the Temple

7 When [a]Solomon had finished praying, [b]fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and [c]the glory of the LORD filled the [1]temple.
2 [a]And the priests could not enter the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD's house.
3 When all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD on the temple, they bowed their faces to the ground on the pavement, and worshiped and praised the LORD, saying:

[a]"For He is good,
[b]For His mercy endures forever."

4 [a]Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.
5 King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand bulls and one hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.
6 [a]And the priests attended to their services; the Levites also with instruments of the music of the LORD, which King David had made to praise the LORD, saying, "For His mercy endures forever," whenever David offered praise by their [1]ministry. [b]The priests sounded trumpets opposite them, while all Israel stood.
7 Furthermore [a]Solomon consecrated the middle of the court that was in front of the house of the LORD; for there he offered burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the fat.
8 [a]At that time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great assembly [b]from the entrance of Hamath to [c]the[1] Brook of Egypt.
9 And on the eighth day they held a [a]sacred assembly, for they observed the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.
10 [a]On the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their tents, joyful and glad of heart for the good that the LORD had done for David, for Solomon, and for His people Israel.
11 Thus [a]Solomon finished the house of the LORD and the king's house; and Solomon successfully accomplished all that came into his heart to make in the house of the LORD and in his own house.

God's Second Appearance to Solomon

12 Then the LORD [a]appeared to Solomon by night, and said to him: "I have heard your prayer, [b]and have chosen this [c]place for Myself as a house of sacrifice.

7:1 Chapter 7 provides the central message for 2 Chronicles and is one of the most important chapters in the Old Testament. This chapter provides hope for anyone in distress who calls upon the name of the Lord.

7:8 Hamath represented the farthest northern point, and the Brook of Egypt represented the southernmost extent of Solomon's kingdom.

7:9 A solemn assembly or sacred assembly was a time for the people to gather for extended reflection, confession, and repentance.

7:12 The theme of answered prayer is pivotal to this chapter, but it is also a key to the teachings of Jesus. Christians are assured that God hears and answers prayers offered in Jesus' name (John 14:13, 14).

13 [a]"When I shut up heaven and there is no rain, or command the locusts to devour the land, or send pestilence among name will [b]humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, [c]then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land.

ENCOUNTER Note — 2 Chr. 7:14

Restoration

God wants to restore His people to Himself. He provides reconciliation to us if we will humble ourselves through repentance and seek Him earnestly. There is no need to despair in our sin. God has taken the initiative by asking us to turn from our wicked ways and seek Him so we may experience His healing forgiveness.

15 "Now [a]My eyes will be open and My ears attentive to prayer made in this place.
16 "For now [a]I have chosen and [1]sanctified this house, that My name may be there forever; and [2]My eyes and [3]My heart will be there perpetually.
17 [a]"As for you, if you walk before Me as your father David walked, and do according to all that I have commanded you, and if you keep My statutes and My judgments,
18 "then I will establish the throne of your kingdom, as I covenanted with David your father, saying, [a]'You shall not fail to have a man as ruler in Israel.'
19 [a]"But if you turn away and forsake
My statutes and My commandments which I have set before you, and go and serve other gods, and worship them, 20 [a]"then I will uproot them from My land which I have given them; and this house which I have [1]sanctified for My name I will cast out of My sight, and will make it a proverb and a [b]byword among all peoples.
21 "And as for [a]this [1]house, which [2]is exalted, everyone who passes by it will be [b]astonished and say, [c]'Why has the LORD done thus to this land and this house?'
22 "Then they will answer, 'Because they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and embraced other gods, and worshiped them and served them; therefore He has brought all this calamity on
them.' "

WORD Study — EMBRACE

2 Chr. 7:22 The Hebrew word chazaq, meaning "to embrace," can mean to strengthen, prevail, harden, become strong, grow firm, or be resolute. In this verse, it carries the meaning "to hold on strong to." Clinging to false gods would bring about God's judgment.

Solomon's Additional Achievements

CHAPTER 8

8 It [a]came to pass at the end of [b]twenty years, when Solomon had built the house of the LORD and his own house, 2 that the cities which [1]Hiram had given to Solomon, Solomon built them;
and he settled the children of Israel
there.
3 And Solomon went to Hamath Zobah and seized it.
4 [a]He also built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the storage cities which he built in [b]Hamath.
5 He built Upper Beth Horon and [a]Lower Beth Horon, fortified cities with walls, gates, and bars,
6 also Baalath and all the storage cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot cities and the cities of the cavalry, and all that Solomon [a]desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.
7 [a]All the people who were left of the Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, who were not of Israel—8 that is, their descendants who were left in the land after them, whom the children of Israel did not destroy—from these Solomon raised forced labor, as it is to this day.
9 But Solomon did not make the children of Israel [1]servants for his work.
Some were men of war, captains of his officers, captains of his chariots, and his cavalry.
10 And others were chiefs of the officials of King Solomon: [a]two hundred and fifty, who ruled over the people.
11 Now Solomon [a]brought the daughter of Pharaoh up from the City of David to the house he had built for her, for he 8:4 Hamath and Tadmor were two cities that controlled the trade moving from Israel to Mesopotamia in the north. Hamath was located on the main coastal highway called the Way of the Sea or the Via Maris, and Tadmor controlled the shortcut through the Arabian desert to Mari. Dominance of these cities was essential to Solomon's commercial activities.

said, "My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places to which the ark of the LORD has come are holy."
12 Then Solomon offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of the LORD which he had built before the vestibule,
13 according to the [a]daily rate, offering according to the commandment of Moses, for the Sabbaths, the New Moons, and the [b]three appointed yearly [c]feasts—the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks, and the Feast of Tabernacles.
14 And, according to the [1]order of David his father, he appointed the [a]divisions of the priests for their service, [b]the Levites for their duties (to praise and serve before the priests) as the duty of each day required, and the [c]gatekeepers by their divisions at each gate; for so David the man of God had commanded.
15 They did not depart from the command of the king to the priests and Levites concerning any matter or concerning the [a]treasuries.
16 Now all the work of Solomon was well-ordered [1]from the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD until it was finished. So the house of the LORD was completed.

Finished Work

Great satisfaction comes from completing our work for the Lord. When God gives us an assignment and we fulfill it faithfully and diligently, we bring glory to God. How blessed is the life that is characterized by completed divine assignments.

The Queen of Sheba's Praise of Solomon

9 Now [a]when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to Jerusalem to test Solomon with hard questions, having a very great retinue, camels that bore spices, gold in abundance, and precious stones; and when she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about all that was in her heart.
2 So Solomon answered all her questions; there was nothing so difficult for Solomon that he could not explain it to her.
3 And when the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built,
4 the food on his table, the seating of his servants, the service of his waiters and their apparel, his [a]cupbearers and their apparel, and his entryway by which he went up to the house of the LORD, there was no more spirit in her.

WORD*Study* SPIRIT (BREATH)

2 Chr. 9:4 "No more spirit in her" or "she was left breathless" is a phrase also used in 1 Kings 10:5 and Joshua 2:11; 56:1. On each occasion this phrase describes a non-Israelite who was amazed at what God had done. The queen was speechless at the wisdom God had granted Solomon. After her initial surprise, she immediately gave praise to God for what He had done in Israel (2 Chr. 9:8).

Acknowledging God's Blessings

God's blessings often bring amazement to a watching world. People attempt to accumulate learning and wealth through their own strength, but when God grants His blessings, the world cannot help but notice. When God displays His power, it is up to you to help others recognize what has happened so they can acknowledge God as the source.

CHAPTER 9

4 [a]Neh. 1:11

5 Then she said to the king: "It was a true report which I heard in my own

8:13 The basic daily requirement for sacrifice was the burnt offerings together with incense (Num. 28:1–8).

8:17 Ezion Geber and Elath were located on the northern end of the east branch of the Red Sea.

8:18 The location of Ophir is a matter of debate. Suggested locations include India, the coast of Africa, and west or south Arabia (1 Chr. 29:4). The voyage took three years from Ezion-Geber (1 Kin. 10:22).

9:1 The queen of Sheba was probably from ancient Saba (present-day Yemen). While the fame of Solomon's wisdom was widespread, her visit was likely also related to her country's commercial interest in the trade of frankincense and myrrh. For her nation to trade these commodities in the Mediterranean region, she would have to negotiate with Solomon who held a monopoly on the overland trade routes (Ezek. 27:22, 23). In addition, Solomon's shipping ventures with Hiram may have been impacting Sheba's profits.

land about your words and your wisdom.
6 "However I did not believe their words until I came and saw with my own eyes; and indeed the half of the greatness of your wisdom was not told me. You exceed the fame of which I heard.
7 "Happy are your men and happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you and hear your wisdom!
8 "Blessed be the LORD your God, who delighted in you, setting you on His throne to be king for the LORD your God! Because your God has [a]loved Israel, to establish them forever, therefore He made you king over them, to do justice and righteousness."
9 And she gave the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold, spices in great abundance, and precious stones; there never were any spices such as those the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.
10 Also, the servants of Hiram and the servants of Solomon, [a]who brought gold from Ophir, brought [1]algum wood and precious stones.
11 And the king made walkways of the [1]algum wood for the house of the LORD and for the king's house, also harps and stringed instruments for singers; and there were none such as these seen before in the land of Judah.
12 Now King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all she desired, whatever she asked, much more than she had brought to the king. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

Solomon's Great Wealth

13 [a]The weight of gold that came to Solomon yearly was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold,
14 besides what the traveling merchants and traders brought. And all the kings of Arabia and governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.
15 And King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold; six hundred shekels of hammered gold went into each shield.
16 He also made three hundred shields of hammered gold; [1]three hundred shekels of gold went into each shield. The king put them in the [a]House of the Forest of Lebanon.
17 Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold.
18 The throne had six steps, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne; there were [1]armrests on either side of the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the armrests.
19 Twelve lions stood there, one on each side of the six steps; nothing like this had been made for any other kingdom.
20 All King Solomon's drinking vessels were gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold. Not one was silver, for this was accounted as nothing in the days of Solomon.
21 For the king's ships went to [a]Tarshish with the servants of [1]Hiram. Once every three years the [2]merchant ships came, bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and [3]monkeys.
22 So King Solomon surpassed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.
23 And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.
24 Each man brought his present: articles of silver and gold, garments, [a]armor, spices, horses, and mules, at a set rate year by year.
25 Solomon [a]had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem.
26 [a]So he reigned over all the kings [b]from [1]the River to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Egypt.
27 [a]The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedar trees [b]as abundant as the sycamores which are in the lowland.
28 [a]And they brought horses to Solomon from Egypt and from all lands.

Death of Solomon

29 [a]Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, are they not written in the book of Nathan the prophet, in the prophecy of [b]Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of [c]Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat?
30 [a]Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years.

9:13 The weight of gold Solomon received annually in taxes was twenty-five tons.

9:15 These shields did not remain in Israel's hands for long. Shortly after Solomon's rule ended, the pharaoh Shishak attacked Jerusalem and carried the shields to Egypt (2 Chr. 12:9).

9:22 The wealth described in this chapter reveals that, like David, Solomon's desire was to establish proper religious priorities. The resulting prosperity in his life and the kingdom provides a stark contrast to the troubles Saul's rule brought on the people due to his spiritual carelessness in religious matters.

9:24 These would have been the kings of vassal states who were obligated to pay tribute to Solomon annually.

9:29 The prophet Nathan had been David's counselor as well as Solomon's (1 Kin. 1:8, 11). Ahijah the Shilonite would choose Jeroboam to be the first king of northern Israel (1 Kin. 11:26–40). He would later condemn Jeroboam (1 Kin. 14:1–16).

31 Then Solomon [1]rested with his fathers, and was buried in the City of David his father. And Rehoboam his son reigned in his place.

The Revolt Against Rehoboam

10 And [a]Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had gone to Shechem to make him king.
2 So it happened, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard it (he was in Egypt, [a]where he had fled from the presence of King Solomon), that Jeroboam returned from Egypt.
3 Then they sent for him and called him. And Jeroboam and all Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying,
4 "Your father made our yoke heavy; now therefore, lighten the burdensome service of your father and his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you."
5 So he said to them, "Come back to me after three days." And the people departed.
6 Then King Rehoboam consulted the elders who stood before his father Solomon while he still lived, saying, "How do you advise me to answer these people?"
7 And they spoke to him, saying, "If you are kind to these people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be your servants forever."
8 [a]But he rejected the advice which the elders had given him, and consulted the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him.
9 And he said to them, "What advice do you give? How should we answer this people who have spoken to me, saying,

WORD*Study* GOOD WORDS

2 Chr. 10:7 "Good words" carried more significance than simply speaking kindly to the representative of the northern tribes. This phrase implied a treaty, pact, or concord, and in other occurrences in the Old Testament had the sense of making an agreement (1 Sam. 20:23; Is. 8:10; Zech. 1:13). In the context of this verse, the elders were suggesting Rehoboam make an agreement to formally change his father's harsh policies.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Chr. 10:8

Wisdom Rejected

It is a sad situation when good advice is rejected. God will often use those around you to share His wisdom with you. But you must recognize that God is speaking to you. If you are proud, overly sensitive, or closed minded, you will miss God's word and suffer the consequences.

CHARACTER*Study* JEROBOAM I 2 Chr. 10:2

Jeroboam I was the first king of the northern kingdom of Israel. Jeroboam is first mentioned in the Bible as an official in Solomon's administration. He oversaw the labor force that was needed from the house of Joseph to maintain the state's aggressive building policies (1 Kin. 11:28). As Jeroboam traveled to Jerusalem, he was confronted by the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite who prophesied that Jeroboam would one day be the king over ten of the tribes of Israel whom God was going to take from Solomon (1 Kin. 11:31). Jeroboam was forced to flee to Egypt once Solomon became aware of this prophecy (1 Kin. 11:40). At Solomon's death, the ten northern tribes were at the point of rebelling against the crown due to their harsh treatment under Solomon (1 Kin. 12:4). When Rehoboam refused to ease their plight, they broke from Jerusalem's rule and enthroned Jeroboam as king of the northern kingdom of Israel (1 Kin. 12:16–20). As Jeroboam took the throne, he was concerned because the religious center for his people was still the Jerusalem temple, located in the rival state of Judah. Therefore, he established two new worship centers in Dan and Bethel. He created two golden calves to be worshiped in these centers in addition to establishing a new priesthood drawn from outside the house of Levi (1 Kin. 12:25–33). Jeroboam's development of these alternate worship centers was the sin that marked his life and plagued the northern kingdom. All the subsequent kings who refused to stop the worship at Dan and Bethel would be charged with "the sin of Jeroboam."

9:31 Rehoboam was Solomon's son by his wife Naamah of Ammon (2 Chr. 12:13). He was forty-one when he became king.

10:4 The northern tribes' accusations against Solomon were significant. The terms "harsh labor" and "heavy yoke" were the same claims that had been set against Pharaoh during Israel's bondage in Egypt (Ex. 5:9; 6:6, 7, 9; Lev. 26:13).

'Lighten the yoke which your father put on us'?"
10 Then the young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, "Thus you should speak to the people who have spoken to you, saying, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter on us'—thus you shall say to them: 'My little finger shall be thicker than my father's waist!
11 'And now, whereas my father put a heavy yoke on you, I will add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with [1]scourges!' "
12 So [a]Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king had directed, saying, "Come back to me the third day."
13 Then the king answered them roughly. King Rehoboam rejected the advice of the elders,
14 and he spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, [1]"My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with [2]scourges!"
15 So the king did not listen to the people; [a]for the turn of events was from God, that the LORD might fulfill His [b]word, which He had spoken by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.
16 Now when all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king, saying:

"What share have we in David?
We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse.
Every man to your tents, O Israel!
Now see to your own house,
O David!"

So all Israel departed to their tents.
17 But Rehoboam reigned over the children of Israel who dwelt in the cities of Judah.
18 Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was in charge of revenue; but the children of Israel stoned him with stones, and he died. Therefore King Rehoboam mounted his chariot in haste to flee to Jerusalem.

19 [a]So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.
11 Now [a]when Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he assembled from the house of Judah and Benjamin one hundred and eighty thousand chosen men who were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might restore the kingdom to Rehoboam.
2 But the word of the LORD came [a]to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,
3 "Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,
4 'Thus says the LORD: "You shall not go up or fight against your brethren! Let every man return to his house, for this thing is from Me." ' " Therefore they obeyed the words of the LORD, and turned back from attacking Jeroboam.

Rehoboam Fortifies the Cities

5 So Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defense in Judah.
6 And he built Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa,
7 Beth Zur, Sochoh, Adullam,
8 Gath, Mareshah, Ziph,
9 Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah,
10 Zorah, Aijalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and Benjamin, fortified cities.
11 And he fortified the strongholds, and put captains in them, and stores of food, oil, and wine.
12 Also in every city he put shields and spears, and made them very strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

Priests and Levites Move to Judah

13 And from all their territories the priests and the Levites who were in all Israel took their stand with him.
14 For the Levites left [a]their commonlands and their possessions and came to Judah and Jerusalem, for [b]Jeroboam and his sons had rejected them from serving as priests to the LORD.
15 [a]Then he appointed for himself priests for the [1]high places, for [b]the demons, and [c]the calf idols which he had made.
16 [a]And [1]after the Levites left, those from all the tribes of Israel, such as set

10:15 The books of Kings and Chronicles reveal that Solomon, Rehoboam, and Jeroboam shared the blame for the kingdom's division. The heavy yoke Solomon laid upon the northern tribes (2 Chr. 10:4, 9–11, 14), Jeroboam's rebellion (2 Chr. 10:19; 13:6, 7; see 1 Kin. 11:26–40) and Rehoboam's refusal to take council from the elders (2 Chr. 10:6–8, 13) all contributed to the fracture of the nation. God ultimately allowed the division as a cumulative result of the sin of these men.

10:19 Even at its zenith, Israel could not match the power of nations such as Assyria or Egypt. The Israelites always depended upon God for protection. Dividing their nation in two crippled both nations making them perennially vulnerable to the surrounding nations.

11:2 Shemaiah was also a writing prophet (2 Chr. 12:15).

11:3 This time God did not let Rehoboam have his own way (2 Chr. 11:1). Rehoboam had contributed to the split of the kingdom, but God desired peace even in the midst of a divided state. God reminded Rehoboam, through Shemaiah, that He, the Lord, was sovereign over Israel (11:4).

11:16 The kingdom of God consists of those whose hearts are set to follow the Lord and seek His will for their lives (1 Chr. 13:3; 28:9; 2 Chr. 7:14; 15:4, 15). Unfortunately Rehoboam was not to be counted among these people (12:14).

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Chr. 11:14

Faithfulness at a Cost

A call to serve God does not change when circumstances become difficult or when our service costs us financially. When our loyalty to God requires personal sacrifice, we must remember that God's continual witness in scripture states that He rewards those who remain faithful to Him.

their heart to seek the LORD God of Israel, [b]came to Jerusalem to sacrifice to the LORD God of their fathers.
17 So they [a]strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong for three years, because they walked in the way of David and Solomon for three years.

The Family of Rehoboam

18 Then Rehoboam took for himself as wife Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David, and of Abihail the daughter of [a]Eliah the son of Jesse.
19 And she bore him children: Jeush, Shamariah, and Zaham.
20 After her he took [a]Maachah the [1]granddaughter of [b]Absalom; and she bore him [c]Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith.
21 Now Rehoboam loved Maachah the granddaughter of Absalom more than all his [a]wives and his concubines; for he took eighteen wives and sixty concubines, and begot twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.
22 And Rehoboam [a]appointed [b]Abijah the son of Maachah as chief, to be leader among his brothers; for he intended to make him king.
23 He dealt wisely, and [1]dispersed some of his sons throughout all the territories of Judah and Benjamin, to every [a]fortified city; and he gave them provisions in abundance. He also sought many wives for them.

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Chr. 12:1

Departing During Peaceful Times

When we face persecution or difficulties, we can be tempted to abandon our faith. However, there is also a danger in times of peace and prosperity, of turning away from God to serve ourselves. We must guard our hearts at all times and walk faithfully before God, recognizing that our prosperity is a gift from Him.

2 [a]And it happened in the fifth year of King Rehoboam that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had transgressed against the LORD,
3 with twelve hundred chariots, sixty thousand horsemen, and people without number who came with him out of Egypt—[a]the Lubim and the Sukkiim and the Ethiopians.
4 And he took the fortified cities of Judah and came to Jerusalem.
5 Then [a]Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the leaders of Judah, who were gathered together in Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, "Thus says the LORD: 'You have forsaken Me, and therefore I also have left you in the hand of Shishak.' "
6 So the leaders of Israel and the king [a]humbled themselves; and they said, [b]"The LORD is righteous."
7 Now when the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, [a]the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, "They have humbled themselves; therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some deliverance. My wrath shall not be poured out on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.
8 "Nevertheless [a]they will be his servants, that they may distinguish [b]My service from the service of the kingdoms of the nations."

11:18 Mahalath may have been David's great-granddaughter.

11:20 Maachah's son Abijah would eventually succeed Rehoboam (2 Chr. 12:16).

12:1 There was a natural progression in Rehoboam's situation. First, Rehoboam forsook the Lord's law. This abandonment led to transgressions against God. Neglecting God's word loosened the restraint that kept Rehoboam's people from sinning against Him.

12:2 Shishak (also known as Sheshonk I) was the founder of the Twenty-second Dynasty in Egypt. According to inscriptions on the temple walls of Amon in Karnak, Shishak captured over 150 towns in Palestine during this campaign against Judah.

12:3 The Lubim were the Libyans. The Sukkiim were desert tribes, perhaps from western Libya.

12:7 "Some deliverance" can be translated as "in a little while" and resembles the words in Ezra 9:8, 9.

12:8 Their defeat by Shishak reminded the people of Judah that service to God and obedience to His commandments are preferable to serving a foreign king. Their experience revealed how foolish it was to exchange allegiance to God for the domination of another ruler.

9 [a]So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house; he took everything. He also carried away the gold shields which Solomon had [b]made.
10 Then King Rehoboam made bronze shields in their place, and committed them [a]to the hands of the captains of the guard, who guarded the doorway of the king's house.
11 And whenever the king entered the house of the LORD, the guard would go and bring them out; then they would take them back into the guardroom.
12 When he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, so as not to destroy him completely; and things also went well in Judah.

The End of Rehoboam's Reign

13 Thus King Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem and reigned. Now [a]Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king; and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, [b]the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put His name there. His mother's name was Naamah, an [c]Ammonitess.
14 And he did evil, because he did not prepare his heart to seek the LORD.
15 The acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the book of Shemaiah the prophet, [a]and of Iddo the seer concerning genealogies? [b]And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days.
16 So Rehoboam [1]rested with his fathers, and was buried in the City of David. Then [a]Abijah[2] his son reigned in his place.

Abijah Reigns in Judah

13 In [a]the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, Abijah became king over [b]Judah.
2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was [1]Michaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.
3 Abijah set the battle in order with an army of valiant warriors, four hundred thousand choice men. Jeroboam also drew up in battle formation against him with eight hundred thousand choice men, mighty men of valor.

8 "And now you think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD, which is in the hand of the sons of David; and you are a great multitude, and with you are the gold calves which Jeroboam [a]made for you as gods.
9 [a]"Have you not cast out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and made for yourselves priests, like the peoples of other lands, [b]so that whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams may be a priest of [c]things that are not gods?
10 "But as for us, the LORD is our [a]God, and we have not forsaken Him; and the priests who minister to the LORD are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites attend to their duties.
11 [a]"And they burn to the LORD every morning and every evening burnt sacrifices and sweet incense; they also set the [b]showbread in order on the pure gold table, and the lampstand of gold with its lamps [c]to burn every evening; for we keep the command of the LORD our God, but you have forsaken Him.
12 "Now look, God Himself is with us as our [a]head, [b]and His priests with sounding trumpets to sound the alarm against you. O children of Israel, do not fight against the LORD God of your fathers, for you shall not prosper!"
13 But Jeroboam caused an ambush to go around behind them; so they were in front of Judah, and the ambush was behind them.
14 And when Judah looked around, to their surprise the battle line was at both front and rear; and they [a]cried out to the 12:14 The final analysis of Rehoboam claimed he did not "set his heart" towards God. His refusal to take the wise council of the elders (10:6), his desire to attack Israel (11:1), and his forsaking of God's law (12:1) were all signs of his stubborn determination to rule without God.

13:4 Mount Zemaraim was a few miles southwest of Bethel (Josh. 18:22).

13:8 The book of First Kings describes Abijah as walking in the sins of his father and not being loyal to God as David was (1 Kin. 15:2, 3). The Chronicler was aware of Abijah's spiritual shortcomings. Therefore, the importance of the chapter is found in the phrase "the kingdom of the Lord." The focus was on how God fulfilled his purposes through Abijah in order to continue the house of David, not on the acts of the king.

Fighting Against the Lord

LORD, and the priests sounded the trumpets.
15 Then the men of Judah gave a shout; and as the men of Judah shouted, it happened that God [a]struck Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.
16 And the children of Israel fled before Judah, and God delivered them into their hand.
17 Then Abijah and his people struck them with a great slaughter; so five hundred thousand choice men of Israel fell slain.
18 Thus the children of Israel were subdued at that time; and the children of Judah prevailed, [a]because they relied on the LORD God of their fathers.
19 And Abijah pursued Jeroboam and took cities from him: Bethel with its villages, Jeshanah with its villages, and [a]Ephrain[1] with its villages.
20 So Jeroboam did not recover strength again in the days of Abijah; and the LORD [a]struck him, and [b]he died.
21 But Abijah grew mighty, married fourteen wives, and begot twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.
22 Now the rest of the acts of Abijah, his ways, and his sayings are written in [a]the [1]annals of the prophet Iddo.

14 So Abijah rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. Then [a]Asa his son reigned in his place. In his days the land was quiet for ten years.

Asa Reigns in Judah

2 Asa did what was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God,
3 for he removed the altars of the foreign gods and [a]the [1]high places, and [b]broke down the sacred pillars [c]and cut down the wooden images.
4 He commanded Judah to [a]seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to observe the law and the commandment.
5 He also removed the [1]high places and the incense altars from all the cities of Judah, and the kingdom was quiet under him.
6 And he built fortified cities in Judah, for the land had rest; he had no war in those years, because the LORD had given him [a]rest.
7 Therefore he said to Judah, "Let us build these cities and make walls around them, and towers, gates, and bars, while the land is yet before us, because we have sought the LORD our God; we have sought Him, and He has given us rest on every side." So they built and prospered.

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Chr. 14:7

God's Peace

No matter where you live, you need God's peace. And you will find it when you seek Him and trust His counsel.

8 And Asa had an army of three hundred thousand from Judah who carried [1]shields and spears, and from Benjamin two hundred and eighty thousand men who carried shields and drew [a]bows; all these were mighty men of [b]valor.
9 [a]Then Zerah the Ethiopian came out against them with an army of a million men and three hundred chariots, and he came to [b]Mareshah.
10 So Asa went out against him, and they set the troops in battle array in the Valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.
11 And Asa [a]cried out to the LORD his God, and said, "LORD, it is [b]nothing for You to help, whether with many or with those who have no power; help us, O LORD our God, for we rest on You, and [c]in Your name we go against this multitude. O LORD, You are our God; do not let man prevail against You!"
12 So the LORD [a]struck the Ethiopians before Asa and Judah, and the Ethiopians fled.
13 And Asa and the people who were with him pursued them to [a]Gerar. So the Ethiopians were overthrown, and they could not recover, for they were broken before the LORD and His army. And they carried away very much [1]spoil.

13:19 Despite Abijah's successes in southern Israel, conflict continued between the two nations (2 Chr. 15:8; 16:6; 17:2). The defeat of Bethel is an interesting comment on the golden calves' inability to defend their own sanctuary.

14:6 God promised to provide peace and rest to every king of Judah who remained faithful to Him (1 Chr. 17). Chapters fourteen through sixteen make nine references to Asa and the people seeking after the Lord. These references provide the reason for the period of calm during Asa's rule (13:5).

14:9 Maresha was an important fortified city of Judah about twenty-five miles southwest of Jerusalem.

14:13 Gerar was between Egypt and Judah and may have belonged to Egypt at this time.

14 Then they defeated all the cities around Gerar, for [a]the fear of the LORD came upon them; and they plundered all the cities, for there was exceedingly much [1]spoil in them.
15 They also [1]attacked the livestock enclosures, and carried off sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jerusalem.

The Reforms of Asa

15 Now [a]the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded.
2 And he went out [1]to meet Asa, and said to him: "Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin. [a]The LORD is with you while you are with Him. [b]If you seek Him, He will be found by you; but [c]if you forsake Him, He will forsake you.
3 [a]"For a long time Israel has been without the true God, without a [b]teaching priest, and without [c]law;
4 "but [a]when in their trouble they turned to the LORD God of Israel, and sought Him, He was found by them.
5 "And in those times there was no peace to the one who went out, nor to the one who came in, but great turmoil was on all the inhabitants of the lands.
6 [a]"So nation was [1]destroyed by nation, and city by city, for God troubled them with every adversity.
7 "But you, be strong and do not let your hands be weak, for your work shall be rewarded!"
8 And when Asa heard these words and the prophecy of [1]Oded the prophet, he took courage, and removed the abominable idols from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from the cities [a]which he had taken in the mountains of Ephraim; and he restored the altar of the LORD that was before the vestibule of the LORD.
9 Then he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and [a]those who dwelt with them from Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon, for they came over to him in great numbers from Israel when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.
10 So they gathered together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.

CHAPTER 16

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Chr. 15:8

Take Courage

If you are facing a controversial decision or course of action, look to God for a word of encouragement. If you are seeking to honor Him, He will give you the strength to be successful.

11 [a]And they offered to the LORD [1]at that time seven hundred bulls and seven thousand sheep from the [2]spoil they had brought.
12 Then they [a]entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul;
13 [a]and whoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel [b]was to be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman.
14 Then they took an oath before the LORD with a loud voice, with shouting and trumpets and rams' horns.
15 And all Judah rejoiced at the oath, for they had sworn with all their heart and [a]sought Him with all their soul; and He was found by them, and the LORD gave them [b]rest all around.
16 Also he removed [a]Maachah, the [1]mother of Asa the king, from being queen mother, because she had made an obscene image of [2]Asherah; and Asa cut down her obscene image, then crushed and burned it by the Brook Kidron.
17 But [a]the [1]high places were not removed from Israel. Nevertheless the heart of Asa was loyal all his days.
18 He also brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated and that he himself had dedicated: silver and gold and utensils.
19 And there was no war until the thirty-fifth year of the reign of Asa.

Asa's Treaty with Syria

16 In the thirty-sixth year of the reign of Asa, [a]Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah and built Ramah, [b]that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

14:14 When God fought on behalf of His people, the opposing nations would become aware of His presence and succumb with great fear (Ex. 23:27; Deut. 7:20, 23; Judg. 7:20–22).

15:1 The phrase the "Spirit of God came upon" was frequently linked to prophetic inspiration (1 Sam. 10:10; Is. 42:1; 61; Ezek. 11:5). The Chronicler uses this phrase several times (1 Chr. 12:18; 28:12; 2 Chr. 20:14; 24:20).

15:2 Azariah speaks a fundamental truth that is repeated throughout the Bible: Anyone who seeks after the Lord will find Him (Deut. 4:29; 1 Chr. 28:9; Jer. 29:13–14; Matt. 7:7–12; Acts 15:17; 17:27).

15:10 This may have been the Feast of Pentecost.

15:14 Taking an oath was a critical part of making a covenant (Ex. 24:7; Deut. 27:11–26; 29:12).

15:16 This was a courageous step for Asa, especially since he took the throne as a minor and Maacah probably exerted considerable control during the early years of his rule.

16:1 Ramah is identified with Er-Ram located five miles north of Jerusalem. The city was situated on the major north-south route bypassing Jerusalem and could easily have been used to block people from traveling to Judah's capital for economic and religious purposes.

2 Then Asa brought silver and gold from the treasuries of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-Hadad king of Syria, who dwelt in Damascus, saying,
3 "Let there be a treaty between you and me, as there was between my father and your father. See, I have sent you silver and gold; come, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, so that he will withdraw from me."
4 So Ben-Hadad heeded King Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel. They attacked Ijon, Dan, Abel Maim, and all the storage cities of Naphtali.
5 Now it happened, when Baasha heard it, that he stopped building Ramah and ceased his work.
6 Then King Asa took all Judah, and they carried away the stones and timber of Ramah, which Baasha had used for building; and with them he built Geba and Mizpah.

Hanani's Message to Asa

7 And at that time [a]Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said to him:
[b]"Because you have relied on the king of Syria, and have not relied on the LORD your God, therefore the army of the king of Syria has escaped from your hand.
8 "Were [a]the Ethiopians and [b]the Lu-bim not a huge army with very many chariots and horsemen? Yet, because you relied on the LORD, He delivered them into your [c]hand.
9 [a]"For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show Himself strong on behalf of those whose heart is loyal to Him. In this [b]you have done foolishly; therefore from now on [c]you shall have wars."

10 Then Asa was angry with the seer, and [a]put him in prison, for he was enraged at him because of this. And Asa oppressed some of the people at that time.

Illness and Death of Asa

11 [a]Note that the acts of Asa, first and last, are indeed written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.
12 And in the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa became diseased in his feet, and his malady was severe; yet in his disease he [a]did not seek the LORD, but the physicians.
13 [a]So Asa [1]rested with his fathers; he died in the forty-first year of his reign.
14 They buried him in his own tomb, which he had [1]made for himself in the City of David; and they laid him in the bed which was filled [a]with spices and various ingredients prepared in a mixture of ointments. They made [b]a very great burning for him.

Jehoshaphat Reigns in Judah

17 Then [a]Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place, and strengthened himself against Israel.
2 And he placed troops in all the fortified cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of [a]Judah and in the cities of Ephraim [b]which Asa his father had taken.
3 Now the LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the former ways of his father David; he did not seek the Baals,
4 but sought [1]the God of his father, and walked in His commandments and not according to [a]the acts of Israel.
5 Therefore the LORD established the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah [a]gave presents to Jehoshaphat, [b]and he had riches and honor in abundance.
6 And his heart took delight in the ways of the LORD; moreover [a]he removed the [1]high places and wooden images from Judah.
7 Also in the third year of his reign he sent his leaders, Ben-Hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel, and Michaiah, [a]to teach in the cities of Judah.
8 And with them he sent Levites: Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemi-

16:4 Ijon was in the territory of Naphtali, ten miles north of Dan and thirty-five miles north of the Sea of Galilee. Abel Maim was three miles west of Dan.

16:7 From a military perspective, Asa's reliance upon Damascus was successful. However, Asa had not turned to God but to men in a time of crisis. Asa assumed he had saved his kingdom when in fact he had lost it.

16:8 In the face of immediate danger, Asa forgot God's earlier deliverance from the mighty Egyptian army (14:9–15) and instead sought the help of Damascus.

16:9 The Lord continues to watch over people who choose to honor Him so He can protect and uphold their lives (Ps. 33:18; 34:15; Prov. 15:3; 1 Pet. 3:12).

17:7 Jehoshaphat was acting like the ideal king, as described in Deuteronomy 17:18–20, especially concerning the law and justice. The teaching duties of the Levites and other officers are detailed throughout the Old Testament (Deut. 33:10; Lev. 10:11; Mal. 2:7). The people tended to depart from God's ways and seek foreign gods. Therefore, it was necessary for Jehoshaphat to take the teachings out to the people of Judah in an effort to make the worship of the Lord central in their lives.

ramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tobadonijah—the Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, the priests.
9 [a]So they taught in Judah, and had the Book of the Law of the LORD with them; they went throughout all the cities of Judah and taught the people.
10 And [a]the fear of the LORD fell on all the kingdoms of the lands that were around Judah, so that they did not make war against Jehoshaphat.
11 Also some of the Philistines [a]brought Jehoshaphat presents and silver as tribute; and the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand seven hundred rams and seven thousand seven hundred male goats.
12 So Jehoshaphat became increasingly powerful, and he built fortresses and storage cities in Judah.
13 He had much property in the cities of Judah; and the men of war, mighty men of valor, were in Jerusalem.
14 These are their numbers, according to their fathers' houses. Of Judah, the captains of thousands: Adnah the captain, and with him three hundred thousand mighty men of valor;
15 and next to him was Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred and eighty thousand;
16 and next to him was Amasiah the son of Zichri, [a]who willingly offered himself to the LORD, and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valor.
17 Of Benjamin: Eliada a mighty man of valor, and with him two hundred thousand men armed with bow and shield;
18 and next to him was Jehozabad, and with him one hundred and eighty thousand prepared for war.
19 These served the king, besides [a]those the king put in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

WORD Study PERSUADE

2 Chr. 18:2 "Persuaded," from the Hebrew word sooth, carries the meaning of "incite, allure, instigate, entice." In the Old Testament there is a negative connotation to this word, insinuating a prompting to wrongdoing or an inciting to evil (1 Chr. 21:1; 2 Chr. 32:11, 15).

3 So Ahab king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, "Will you go with me against Ramoth Gilead?" And he answered him, "I am as you are, and my people as your people; we will be with you in the war."
4 Also Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, [a]"Please inquire for the word of the LORD today."
5 Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?" So they said, "Go up, for God will deliver it into the king's hand."
6 But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not still a prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire of [a]Him?"[1]

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Chr. 18:6

Inquiring from God

Worldly advice is readily accessible and freely offered. Likewise, the counsel of fellow believers is easily attained. But God's wisdom is what you need. Do not assume someone claiming to speak for God is actually doing so. Make every effort to hear what God is truly saying before you act.

7 So the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD; but I hate him, because he never prophesies good concerning me, but always evil. He is Micaiah the son of Imla." And Jehoshaphat said, "Let not the king say such things!"
8 Then the king of Israel called one of

[1]Or him

18:1 Jehoshaphat established a formal alliance with the northern kingdom through the marriage of his son Jehoram to Athaliah, a princess of Israel. This marriage would eventually turn out to be disastrous, resulting in the persecution of the house of David in Judah (2 Chr. 22:10–12).

his officers and said, "Bring Micaiah the son of Imla quickly!"
9 The king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah, clothed in their robes, sat each on his throne; and they sat at a threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them.
10 Now Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made [a]horns of iron for himself; and he said, "Thus says the LORD: 'With these you shall gore the Syrians until they are destroyed.' "
11 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth Gilead and prosper, for the LORD will deliver it into the king's hand."
12 Then the messenger who had gone to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, "Now listen, the words of the prophets with one accord encourage the king. Therefore please let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak encouragement."
13 And Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, [a]whatever my God says, that I will speak."
14 Then he came to the king; and the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?" And he said, "Go and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand!"
15 So the king said to him, "How many times shall I make you swear that you tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?"
16 Then he said, "I saw all Israel [a]scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no [b]shepherd. And the LORD said, 'These have no master. Let each return to his house in peace.' "
17 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?"
18 Then Micaiah said, "Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on His [a]throne, and all the host of heaven standing on His right hand and His left.
19 "And the LORD said, 'Who will persuade Ahab king of Israel to go up, that he may fall at Ramoth Gilead?' So one spoke in this manner, and another spoke in that manner.
20 "Then a [a]spirit came forward and stood before the LORD, and said, 'I will persuade him.' The LORD said to him, 'In what way?'
21 "So he said, 'I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' And the LORD said, 'You shall persuade him and also prevail; go out and do so.'
22 "Therefore look! [a]The LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these prophets of yours, and the LORD has declared disaster against you."
23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near and [a]struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, "Which way did the spirit from the LORD go from me to speak to you?"
24 And Micaiah said, "Indeed you shall see on that day when you go into an inner chamber to hide!"
25 Then the king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah, and return him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king's son;
26 "and say, 'Thus says the king: [a]"Put this fellow in prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and water of affliction, until I return in peace." ' "
27 But Micaiah said, "If you ever return in peace, the LORD has not spoken by [a]me." And he said, "Take heed, all you people!"

Ahab Dies in Battle

28 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead.
29 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will [a]disguise myself and go into battle; but you put on your robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into battle.
30 Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots who were with him, saying, "Fight with no one small or great, but only with the king of Israel."
31 So it was, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, "It is the king of Israel!" Therefore they surrounded him to attack; but Jehoshaphat [a]cried out, and the LORD helped him, and God diverted them from him.
32 For so it was, when the captains of 18:9 The description of the kings in their regalia sitting in the public threshing floor indicated they were seemingly more interested in a public display before heading into war than in hearing from God. This royal pride is further exemplified by Ahab's refusal to adhere to the words of the Lord through the prophet Micaiah (vv. 25, 26).

18:10 Horns represented strength. Horns of iron would therefore have symbolized enormous power.

18:21 God does not lie. However, He may not intervene when deceivers target people whose hearts are not seeking the Lord.

18:30 During this period in history, Israel was the dominant nation in Palestine, while Judah was a relatively insignificant state. The Syrian king understood that if his army could kill Ahab he would be able to defeat the entire coalition.

the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.
33 Now a certain man drew a bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the [1]joints of his armor. So he said to the driver of his chariot, "Turn around and take me out of the battle, for I am wounded."
34 The battle increased that day, and the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot facing the Syrians until evening; and about the time of sunset he died.

19 Then Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned safely to his house in Jerusalem.
2 And Jehu the son of Hanani [a]the seer went out to meet him, and said to King Jehoshaphat, "Should you help the wicked and [b]love those who hate the LORD? Therefore the [c]wrath of the LORD is upon you.
3 "Nevertheless [a]good things are found in you, in that you have removed the [1]wooden images from the land, and have [b]prepared your heart to seek God."

The Reforms of Jehoshaphat

4 So Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem; and he went out again among the people from Beersheba to the mountains of Ephraim, and brought them back to the LORD God of their [a]fathers.
5 Then he set [a]judges in the land throughout all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city,
6 and said to the judges, "Take heed to what you are doing, for [a]you do not judge for man but for the LORD, [b]who is with you [1]in the judgment.
7 "Now therefore, let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take care and do it, for [a]there is no iniquity with the LORD our God, no [b]partiality, nor taking of bribes."
8 Moreover in Jerusalem, for the judgment of the LORD and for controversies, Jehoshaphat [a]appointed some of the Levites and priests, and some of the chief fathers of Israel, [1]when they returned to Jerusalem.
9 And he commanded them, saying, "Thus you shall act [a]in the fear of the LORD, faithfully and with a loyal heart:
10 [a]"Whatever case comes to you from your brethren who dwell in their cities, whether of bloodshed or offenses against law or commandment, against statutes or ordinances, you shall warn them, lest they trespass against the LORD and [b]wrath come upon [c]you and your brethren. Do this, and you will not be guilty.
11 "And take notice: [a]Amariah the chief priest is over you [b]in all matters of the LORD; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, for all the king's matters; also the Levites will be officials before you. Behave courageously, and the LORD will be [c]with the good."

Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir Defeated

20 It happened after this that the people of [a]Moab with the people of [b]Ammon, and others with them besides the [c]Ammonites,[1] came to battle against Jehoshaphat.
2 Then some came and told Jehoshaphat, saying, "A great multitude is coming against you from beyond the sea, from [1]Syria; and they are [a]in Hazazon Tamar" (which is [b]En Gedi).
3 And Jehoshaphat feared, and set [1]himself to [a]seek the LORD, and [b]proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.
4 So Judah gathered together to ask [a]help from the LORD; and from all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.
5 Then Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court,
6 and said: "O LORD God of our fathers, are You not [a]God in heaven, and [b]do You not rule over all the kingdoms of the nations, and [c]in Your hand is there not

ENCOUNTER Note — 2 Chr. 19:6

Representing the Lord

Our Lord is a God of righteousness, justice, and fairness. Christians are expected to reflect these characteristics as His ambassadors in this world. As you form opinions and judgments about people around you, remember that your life is meant to reflect God's heart.

19:2 Jehu was the son of the prophet Hanani, who had rebuked Asa for his involvement in a foreign alliance (2 Chr. 16:7–10). Jehu would have been very old at this time, since he was active during Baasha's reign (1 Kin. 16:1).

19:7 The Bible speaks often against taking bribes. In a system where bribes were common, only the rich benefited because they alone could afford to influence the officials, putting the poor at a disadvantage (Ex. 23:6–8; Deut. 1:17; 16:18–20; 1 Sam. 8:3; Ps. 15:5; Prov. 17:23; Is. 1:21–23; 5:22, 23; Mic. 3:11; 7:3).

20:2 En Gedi is on the western shore of the Dead Sea, approximately thirty-five miles east of Jerusalem.

20:3 Jehoshaphat's first response was fear. However, he revealed that he knew how to deal with his fear when he sought the Lord (literally, "gave his face to seek the Lord").

power and might, so that no one is able to withstand You?
7 "Are You not [a]our God, who [b]drove out the inhabitants of this land before Your people Israel, and gave it to the descendants of Abraham [c]Your friend forever?
8 "And they dwell in it, and have built You a sanctuary in it for Your name, saying,
9 [a]'If disaster comes upon us—sword, judgment, pestilence, or famine—we will stand before this temple and in Your presence (for Your [b]name is in this temple), and cry out to You in our affliction, and You will hear and save.'
10 "And now, here are the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir—whom You [a]would not let Israel invade when they came out of the land of Egypt, but [b]they turned from them and did not destroy them—
11 "here they are, rewarding us [a]by coming to throw us out of Your possession which You have given us to inherit.
12 "O our God, will You not [a]judge them? For we have no power against this great multitude that is coming against us; nor do we know what to do, but [b]our eyes are upon You."

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Chr. 20:12

Eyes on the Lord

Life's troubles often overpower us, bringing us face to face with our own helplessness. That is the time to keep our eyes on God and wait for His wisdom and deliverance. We can be assured that no crisis is beyond His control.

13 Now all Judah, with their little ones, their wives, and their children, stood before the LORD.
14 Then [a]the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, in the midst of the assembly.
15 And he said, "Listen, all you of Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem, and you, King Jehoshaphat! Thus says the LORD to you: [a]'Do not be afraid nor dismayed because of this great multitude, [b]for the battle is not yours, but God's.
16 'Tomorrow go down against them. They will surely come up by the Ascent of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the [1]brook before the Wilderness of Jeruel.
17 [a]'You will not need to fight in this battle. Position yourselves, stand still and see the salvation of the LORD, who is with you, O Judah and Jerusalem!' Do not fear or be dismayed; tomorrow go out against them, [b]for the LORD is with you."
18 And Jehoshaphat [a]bowed his head with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem bowed before the LORD, worshiping the LORD.
19 Then the Levites of the children of the Kohathites and of the children of the Korahites stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with voices loud and high.
20 So they rose early in the morning and went out into the Wilderness of Tekoa; and as they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Hear me, O Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem: [a]Believe in the LORD your God, and you shall be established; believe His prophets, and you shall prosper."
21 And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed those who should sing to the LORD, [a]and who should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army and were saying:

[b]"Praise the LORD,
[c]For His mercy endures forever."

ARTHUR AND WILDA MATTHEWS

2 Chr. 20:17

Arthur and Wilda Matthews were missionaries with the China Inland Mission during the communist takeover in China in the 1940s. By 1951, missionaries were urged to evacuate the country for fear they were in imminent danger. People were being executed daily, and the Matthews could hear the shots ringing through the air every day. Yet the authorities would not allow them to leave. Every day they summoned Arthur Matthews and insisted he become an informant. He refused. Finally, on March 21, 1951, Wilda faced a crisis of faith. She turned to her Bible and read 2 Chronicles 20:17. She knew this was God's word to her. She trusted in His deliverance. Two years later she was allowed to leave the country. Arthur was the last of the CIM missionaries to depart, but every one eventually escaped the country safely.

20:16 The Ascent of Ziz was a dry stream bed north of En Gedi. The Wilderness of Jeruel may be between Hebron and the Dead Sea.

22 Now when they began to sing and to praise, [a]the LORD set ambushes against the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah; and they were defeated.
23 For the people of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir to utterly kill and destroy them. And when they [1]had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, [a]they helped to destroy one another.
24 So when Judah came to a place overlooking the wilderness, they looked toward the multitude; and there were their dead bodies, fallen on the earth. No one had escaped.
25 When Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away their spoil, they found among them an abundance of valuables on the [1]dead bodies, and precious jewelry, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away; and they were three days gathering the spoil because there was so much.
26 And on the fourth day they assembled in the Valley of [1]Berachah, for there they blessed the LORD; therefore the name of that place was called The Valley of Berachah until this day.
27 Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, with Jehoshaphat in front of them, to go back to Jerusalem with joy, for the LORD had [a]made them rejoice over their enemies.
28 So they came to Jerusalem, with stringed instruments and harps and trumpets, to the house of the LORD.
29 And [a]the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries when they heard that the LORD had fought against the enemies of Israel.
30 Then the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet, for his [a]God gave him rest all around.

The End of Jehoshaphat's Reign

31 [a]So Jehoshaphat was king over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.
32 And he walked in the way of his father [a]Asa, and did not turn aside from it, doing what was right in the sight of the LORD.

33 Nevertheless [a]the [1]high places were not taken away, for as yet the people had not [b]directed their hearts to the God of their fathers.
34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, indeed they are written in the book of Jehu the son of Hanani, [a]which is mentioned in the book of the kings of Israel.
35 After this [a]Jehoshaphat king of Judah allied himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, [b]who acted very [c]wickedly.
36 And he allied himself with him [a]to make ships to go to Tarshish, and they made the ships in Ezion Geber.
37 But Eliezer the son of Dodavah of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, "Because you have allied yourself with Ahaziah, the LORD has destroyed your works." [a]Then the ships were wrecked, so that they were not able to go [b]to Tarshish.

Jehoram Reigns in Judah

21 And [a]Jehoshaphat [1]rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. Then Jehoram his son reigned in his place.
2 He had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azaryahu, Michael, and Shephatiah; all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.
3 Their father gave them great gifts of silver and gold and precious things, with fortified cities in Judah; but he gave the kingdom to Jehoram, because he was the firstborn.
4 Now when Jehoram [1]was established over the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself and killed all his brothers with the sword, and also *o*thers of the princes of Israel.
5 [a]Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.
6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab had done, for he had the daughter of [a]Ahab as a wife; and he did evil in the sight of the LORD.
7 Yet the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the [a]covenant that He had made with David, and since He had promised to give a lamp to him and to his [b]sons forever.

20:24 In verse fifteen, God told the people of Judah that the battle was not theirs, but His. This verse reveals the completeness of God's provision for His people. Because the battle was God's, the army of Judah did not have to lift a sword in combat. They had only to stand and view God's total victory over the enemy.

20:35 Ahaziah was the son of Ahab. He reigned for two years (1 Kin. 22:51).

20:36 Tarshish was in the western Mediterranean, perhaps Spain. The name could be used to indicate a distant place in general.

21:2 Having many brothers was a sign of God's favor upon Jehoram's father, Jehoshaphat. However, Jehoram viewed God's blessing only as a threat to his rule.

21:4 The irony here is that by having his brothers killed, Jehoram set in motion the events that would ultimately bring the near obliteration of his own family (2 Chr. 22:10; 2 Kin. 11:1).

8 [a]In his days Edom revolted against Judah's authority, and made a king over themselves.
9 So Jehoram went out with his officers, and all his chariots with him. And he rose by night and attacked the Edomites who had surrounded him and the captains of the chariots.
10 Thus Edom has been in revolt against Judah's authority to this day. At that time Libnah revolted against his rule, because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers.
11 Moreover he made [1]high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to [a]commit harlotry, and led Judah astray.
12 And a letter came to him from Elijah the prophet, saying,

> Thus says the LORD God of your father David:
> Because you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father, or in the ways of Asa king of Judah,
> 13 but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and have [a]made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to [b]play the harlot like the [c]harlotry of the house of Ahab, and also have [d]killed your brothers, those of your father's household, who were better than yourself,
> 14 behold, the LORD will strike your people with a serious affliction—your children, your wives, and all your possessions;
> 15 and you will become very sick with a [a]disease of your intestines, until your intestines come out by reason of the sickness, day by day.

16 Moreover the [a]LORD [b]stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines and the [c]Arabians who were near the Ethiopians.
17 And they came up into Judah and invaded it, and carried away all the possessions that were found in the king's house, and also [a]his sons and his wives, so that there was not a son left to him except [1]Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.
18 After all this the LORD struck him [a]in his intestines with an incurable disease.
19 Then it happened in the course of time, after the end of two years, that his intestines came out because of his sickness; so he died in severe pain. And his people made no [1]burning for him, like [a]the burning for his fathers.
20 He was thirty-two years old when he became king. He reigned in Jerusalem eight years and, to no one's sorrow, departed. However they buried him in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

Unrealized Blessings

There are immense privileges to being a child of God and walking in His ways. However, a selfish heart can cause you to miss His blessings. Be careful that your behavior does not cause you to exchange God's best for a lonely, sorrowful existence.

Ahaziah Reigns in Judah

22 Then the inhabitants of Jerusalem made [a]Ahaziah his youngest son king in his place, for the raiders who came with the [b]Arabians into the camp had killed all the [c]older sons. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, reigned.
2 Ahaziah was [1]forty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was [a]Athaliah the [2]granddaughter of Omri.
3 He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother advised him to do wickedly.
4 Therefore he did evil in the sight of the LORD, like the house of Ahab; for they were his counselors after the death of his father, to his destruction.

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Chr. 22:4

Ungodly Counsel

As you make decisions it is your responsibility to make sure the counsel you take aligns with God's ways. As people offer their advice, be careful to examine it in light of the Scriptures. Wrong counsel can lead to destruction.

21:7 David's lamp is a reference to 1 Kings 11:36. A burning lamp in the home suggested an ongoing presence of life there. God's promise was that David's line would not be extinguished until the Messiah took the throne forever.

21:8 Jehoram's father Jehoshaphat had conquered Edom.

21:16 The Arabians probably lived in the southwestern section of the Arabian peninsula, in modern Yemen.

22:3 Jehoshaphat had been regarded as a good king who was blessed by God (2 Chr.19:3), but he was also condemned for compromising his faith through relationships with those who did not seek God (19:2; 20:35). He did not see the impact of his disobedience, but it was experienced by his family (21:4) following his death.

5 He also followed their advice, and went with [1]Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth Gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram.
6 [a]Then he returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds which he had received at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And [1]Azariah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.
7 His going to Joram [a]was God's occasion for Ahaziah's [1]downfall; for when he arrived, [b]he went out with [2]Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, [c]whom the LORD had anointed to [3]cut off the house of Ahab.
8 And it happened, when Jehu was [a]executing judgment on the house of Ahab, and [b]found the princes of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's brothers who served Ahaziah, that he killed them.
9 [a]Then he searched for Ahaziah; and they caught him (he was hiding in Samaria), and brought him to Jehu. When they had killed him, they buried him, "because," they said, "he is the son of [b]Jehoshaphat, who [c]sought the LORD with all his heart." So the house of Ahaziah had no one to assume power over the kingdom.

Athaliah Reigns in Judah

10 [a]Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal heirs of the house of Judah.
11 But [1]Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took [a]Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were being murdered, and put him and his nurse in a bedroom. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of King Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest (for she was the sister of Ahaziah), hid him from Athaliah so that she did not kill him.
12 And he was hidden with them in the house of God for six years, while Athaliah reigned over the land.

Joash Crowned King of Judah

23 In [a]the seventh year [b]Jehoiada strengthened himself, and made a covenant with the captains of hundreds: Azariah the son of Jeroham, Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, Azariah the son of [c]Obed, Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri.

WORDStudy STRENGTHEN

2 Chr. 23:1 The Hebrew word chazaq means "strengthen" and is also used in 2 Chronicles 16:9 where the Lord strengthens "those whose hearts are fully committed to Him." This word is also used to describe Amaziah's act of courage in 25:11. Chazaq can also be translated to mean "establish himself."

2 And they went throughout Judah and gathered the Levites from all the cities of Judah, and the [a]chief fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.
3 Then all the assembly made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said to them, "Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD has [a]said of the sons of David.
4 "This is what you shall do: One-third of you [a]entering on the Sabbath, of the priests and the Levites, shall be keeping watch over the doors;
5 "one-third shall be at the king's house; and one-third at the Gate of the Foundation. All the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD.
6 "But let no one come into the house of the LORD except the priests and [a]those of the Levites who serve. They may go in, for they are holy; but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD.
7 "And the Levites shall surround the king on all sides, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever comes into the house, let him be put to death. You are to be with the king when he comes in and when he goes out."
8 So the Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. And each man took his men who were to be on duty on the Sabbath, with those who were going off duty on the Sabbath; for Jehoiada the priest had not dismissed [a]the divisions.
9 And Jehoiada the priest gave to the captains of hundreds the spears and the large and small [a]shields which had belonged to King David, that were in the temple of God.
10 Then he set all the people, every man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and by the temple, all around the king.
11 And they brought out the king's son, put the crown on him, [a]gave him the [1]Testimony, and made him king. Then

22:7 God had already set in motion the destruction of the house of Ahab in Israel by Jehu's hand (2 Kin. 9). When Ahaziah ignored God's warnings and chose to join with Israel, he received the immediate judgment of God as well.

22:11 God had promised that David's seed would rule forever, yet at this point there was only one surviving heir.

Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, "Long live the king!"

Death of Athaliah

12 Now when [a]Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people in the temple of the LORD.
13 When she looked, there was the king standing by his pillar at the entrance; and the leaders and the trumpeters were by the king. All the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets, also the singers with musical instruments, and [a]those who led in praise. So Athaliah tore her clothes and said, [b]"Treason! Treason!"
14 And Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, "Take her outside under guard, and slay with the sword whoever follows her." For the priest had said, "Do not kill her in the house of the LORD."
15 So they seized her; and she went by way of the entrance [a]of the Horse Gate into the king's house, and they killed her there.
16 Then Jehoiada made a [a]covenant between himself, the people, and the king, that they should be the LORD's people.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Chr. 23:16

The Lord's People

At times when the world pulls at you, it is important to join with God's people and confirm your loyalty to God. If you have strayed into worldly ways, find support among other believers and recommit your life to focus upon God.

17 And all the people went to the [1]temple of Baal, and tore it down. They broke in pieces its altars and images, and [a]killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.
18 Also Jehoiada appointed the oversight of the house of the LORD to the hand of the priests, the Levites, whom David had [a]assigned in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the [b]Law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, as it was established by David.
19 And he set the [a]gatekeepers at the gates of the house of the LORD, so that no one who was in any way unclean should enter.
20 [a]Then he took the captains of hundreds, the nobles, the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought the king down from the house of the LORD; and they went through the Upper Gate to the king's house, and set the king on the throne of the kingdom.
21 So all the people of the land rejoiced; and the city was quiet, for they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

Joash Repairs the Temple

24 Joash [a]was seven years old when he became king, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.
2 Joash [a]did what was right in the sight of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest.
3 And Jehoiada took two wives for him, and he had sons and daughters.
4 Now it happened after this that Joash set his heart on repairing the house of the LORD.
5 Then he gathered the priests and the Levites, and said to them, "Go out to the cities of Judah, and [a]gather from all Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that you do it quickly." However the Levites did not do it quickly.
6 [a]So the king called Jehoiada the chief priest, and said to him, "Why have you not required the Levites to bring in from Judah and from Jerusalem the collection, according to the commandment of [b]Moses the servant of the LORD and of the assembly of Israel, for the [c]tabernacle of witness?"
7 For [a]the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken into the house of God, and had also presented all the [b]dedicated things of the house of the LORD to the Baals.
8 Then at the king's command [a]they made a chest, and set it outside at the gate of the house of the LORD.
9 And they made a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to bring to the LORD [a]the collection that Moses the servant of God had imposed on Israel in the wilderness.
10 Then all the leaders and all the people rejoiced, brought their contributions, and put them into the chest until all had given.

23:13 The pillar probably refers to one of the two great pillars, Jachin and Boaz, which stood at the entrance of the temple. This would have been an elevated location and a customary place for a king to stand and make proclamations.

23:15 The Horse Gate provided access from the temple to the royal palace.

24:3 The reference to Joash's wives and children is a reflection of God's blessings upon his life following the near annihilation of the Davidic line.

11 So it was, at that time, when the chest was brought to the king's official by the hand of the Levites, and [a]when they saw that there was much money, that the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it and returned it to its place. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance.
12 The king and Jehoiada gave it to those who did the work of the service of the house of the LORD; and they hired masons and carpenters to [a]repair the house of the LORD, and also those who worked in iron and bronze to restore the house of the LORD.
13 So the workmen labored, and the work was completed by them; they restored the house of God to its original condition and reinforced it.
14 When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada; [a]they made from it articles for the house of the LORD, articles for serving and offering, spoons and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.

Apostasy of Joash

15 But Jehoiada grew old and was full of days, and he died; he was one hundred and thirty years old when he died.
16 And they buried him in the City of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both toward God and His house.
17 Now after the death of Jehoiada the leaders of Judah came and bowed down to the king. And the king listened to them.
18 Therefore they left the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served [a]wooden images and idols; and [b]wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem because of their trespass.
19 Yet He [a]sent prophets to them, to bring them back to the LORD; and they testified against them, but they would not listen.
20 Then the Spirit of God [1]came upon [a]Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, who stood above the people, and said to them, "Thus says God: [b]'Why do you transgress the commandments of the LORD, so that you cannot prosper? [c]Because you have forsaken the LORD, He also has forsaken you.' "

Refusing to Listen

The only thing as foolish as turning from God is ignoring the messengers He sends to warn you to return. If you are being called to repentance, pay attention and respond immediately.

21 So they conspired against him, and at the command of the king they [a]stoned him with stones in the court of the house of the LORD.
22 Thus Joash the king did not remember the kindness which Jehoiada his [1]father had done to him, but killed his son; and as he died, he said, "The LORD look on it, and [a]repay!"

Death of Joash

23 So it happened in the spring of the year that [a]the army of Syria came up against him; and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the leaders of the people from among the people, and sent all their [1]spoil to the king of Damascus.
24 For the army of the Syrians [a]came with a small company of men; but the LORD [b]delivered a very great army into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. So they [c]executed judgment against Joash.
25 And when they had withdrawn from him (for they left him severely wounded), [a]his own servants conspired against him because of the blood of the [1]sons of Jehoiada the priest, and killed him on his bed. So he died. And they buried him in the City of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings.
26 These are the ones who conspired against him: [1]Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of [2]Shimrith the Moabitess.
27 Now concerning his sons, and [a]the many oracles about him, and the repairing of the house of God, indeed they are written in the [1]annals of the book of the kings. [b]Then Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 25
1 [a]2 Kin. 14:1–6

24:17 The account of Joash is one of the saddest stories in Chronicles. It describes a king who deliberately turned his back on God after he had personally experienced so much of God's mercy upon his life.

24:22 This verse is a stark reminder of the way sin can harden a person's heart. Joash owed his life to Jehoiada and his family. However, sin had blocked the king's memories of the priest's kindness and replaced gratitude with hatred. Joash may have forgotten, but God had not. He ensured that this injustice was repaid.

His mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.
2 And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, [a]but not with a loyal heart.
3 [a]Now it happened, as soon as the kingdom was established for him, that he executed his servants who had murdered his father the king.
4 However he did not execute their children, but did as it is written in the Law in the Book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, [a]"The fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor shall the children be put to death for their fathers; but a person shall die for his own sin."

The War Against Edom

5 Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together and set over them captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, according to their fathers' houses, throughout all Judah and Benjamin; and he numbered them [a]from twenty years old and above, and found them to be three hundred thousand choice men, able to go to war, who could handle spear and shield.
6 He also hired one hundred thousand mighty men of valor from Israel for one hundred talents of silver.
7 But a [a]man of God came to him, saying, "O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you, for the LORD is not with Israel—not with any of the children of Ephraim.
8 "But if you go, be gone! Be strong in battle! Even so, God shall make you fall before the enemy; for God has [a]power to help and to overthrow."
9 Then Amaziah said to the man of God, "But what shall we do about the hundred talents which I have given to the troops of Israel?" And the man of God answered, [a]"The LORD is able to give you much more than this."
10 So Amaziah discharged the troops that had come to him from Ephraim, to go back home. Therefore their anger was greatly aroused against Judah, and they returned home in great anger.
11 Then Amaziah strengthened himself, and leading his people, he went to [a]the Valley of Salt and killed ten thousand of the people of Seir.
12 Also the children of Judah took captive ten thousand alive, brought them to the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, so that they all were dashed in pieces.
13 But as for the soldiers of the army which Amaziah had discharged, so that they would not go with him to battle, they raided the cities of Judah from Samaria to Beth Horon, killed three thousand in them, and took much [1]spoil.
14 Now it was so, after Amaziah came from the slaughter of the Edomites, that [a]he brought the gods of the people of Seir, set them up to be [b]his gods, and bowed down before them and burned incense to them.
15 Therefore the anger of the LORD was aroused against Amaziah, and He sent him a prophet who said to him, "Why have you sought [a]the gods of the people, which [b]could not rescue their own people from your hand?"
16 So it was, as he talked with him, that the king said to him, "Have we made you the king's counselor? Cease! Why should you be killed?" Then the prophet ceased, and said, "I know that God has [a]determined to destroy you, because you have done this and have not heeded my advice."

A Hardened Heart

How you respond to a word from God reveals your heart. As soon as you begin to resist God or argue with Him, or become sluggish in your obedience, that is a warning that your heart has departed from God and you are in danger.

Israel Defeats Judah

17 Now [a]Amaziah king of Judah asked advice and sent to [1]Joash the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us face one another in battle."
18 And Joash king of Israel sent to

25:4 It was a common custom in the ancient world to kill the children of political enemies, either in retribution or for political expediency. However, Amaziah chose not to follow the customs of his day, but to follow God's laws as recorded by Moses (Deut. 24:16).

25:7 The term "Ephraim" was often used to refer to the kingdom of Israel because the tribe of Ephraim was the most prominent of the northern tribes. For God not to be "with" Israel was not simply a statement that God was no longer available to Israel. If God was not with Israel, He was against Israel and would be against anyone associated with them.

25:10 The Israelite mercenaries would have been angered because they would have counted on gaining much more bounty from the spoils of war than the one hundred talents they had already been paid.

25:11 The Valley of Salt may refer to the desert south of the Dead Sea. The people of Seir were the Edomites (2 Chr. 20:10).

25:14 The removal of the gods from a defeated nation symbolized that their gods had abandoned them and had given support to the victors. In part, Amaziah's actions indicated that the gods of Edom had helped in the victory. Furthermore, to take the gods to Jerusalem and worship them indicated that he expected these gods to continue to support him.

Amaziah king of Judah, saying, "The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son as wife'; and a wild beast that was in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thistle.
19 "Indeed you say that you have defeated the Edomites, and your heart is lifted up to [a]boast. Stay at home now; why should you meddle with trouble, that you should fall—you and Judah with you?"
20 But Amaziah would not heed, for [a]it came from God, that He might give them into the hand of their enemies, because they [b]sought the gods of Edom.
21 So Joash king of Israel went out; and he and Amaziah king of Judah faced one another at [a]Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah.
22 And Judah was defeated by Israel, and every man fled to his tent.
23 Then Joash the king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of [a]Jehoahaz, at Beth Shemesh; and he brought him to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate—four hundred cubits.
24 And he took all the gold and silver, all the articles that were found in the house of God with [a]Obed-Edom, the treasures of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

Death of Amaziah

25 [a]Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel.
26 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, from first to last, indeed are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?
27 After the time that Amaziah turned away from following the LORD, they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish and killed him there.
28 Then they brought him on horses and buried him with his fathers in [1]the City of Judah.

Uzziah Reigns in Judah

26 Now all the people of Judah took [1]Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah.

3 Uzziah was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecholiah of Jerusalem.
4 And he did what was [a]right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done.
5 [a]He sought God in the days of Zechariah, who [b]had understanding in the [1]visions of God; and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him [c]prosper.
6 Now he went out and [a]made war against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath, the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod; and he built cities around Ashdod and among the Philistines.
7 God helped him against [a]the Philistines, against the Arabians who lived in Gur Baal, and against the Meunites.
8 Also the Ammonites [a]brought tribute to Uzziah. His fame spread as far as the entrance of Egypt, for he became exceedingly strong.
9 And Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the [a]Corner Gate, at the Valley Gate, and at the corner buttress of the wall; then he fortified them.
10 Also he built towers in the desert. He dug many wells, for he had much livestock, both in the lowlands and in the plains; he also had farmers and vinedressers in the mountains and in [1]Carmel, for he loved the soil.
11 Moreover Uzziah had an army of fighting men who went out to war by companies, according to the number on their roll as prepared by Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the officer, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains.
12 The total number of [1]chief officers of the mighty men of valor was two thousand six hundred.
13 And under their authority was an army of three hundred and seven thousand five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.
14 Then Uzziah prepared for them, for the entire army, shields, spears, helmets, body armor, bows, and slings to cast stones.
15 And he made devices in Jerusalem,

25:21 Beth Shemesh was eighteen miles west of Jerusalem (1 Sam. 6:12–14).

25:23 Four hundred cubits would have been six hundred feet.

26:1 The name Uzziah is an abbreviated form of Azariah (2 Kin. 14:21). The two names were used interchangeably, with Azariah meaning "the Lord helps" and Uzziah meaning "the Lord is strong." Uzziah may have been used in Chronicles to avoid confusion with the high priest Azariah (26:17–22). The king is also referenced as Uzziah (2 Kin. 15; Is. 6:1; Hos. 1:1; Amos 1:1; Zech. 14:5).

invented by [a]skillful men, to be on the towers and the corners, to shoot arrows and large stones. So his fame spread far and wide, for he was marvelously helped till he became strong.

The Penalty for Uzziah's Pride

16 But [a]when he was strong his heart was [b]lifted up, to his destruction, for he transgressed against the LORD his God [c]by entering the temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense.

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Chr. 26:16

Humility

God brings blessings upon those who recognize and testify to His goodness. However, if a Christian arrogantly assumes credit for success, a humbling experience will likely come.

17 So [a]Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him were eighty priests of the LORD—valiant men.
18 And they withstood King Uzziah, and said to him, "It [a]is not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the LORD, but for the [b]priests, the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn incense. Get out of the sanctuary, for you have trespassed! You shall have no honor from the LORD God."
19 Then Uzziah became furious; and he had a censer in his hand to burn incense. And while he was angry with the priests, [a]leprosy broke out on his forehead, before the priests in the house of the LORD, beside the incense altar.
20 And Azariah the chief priest and all the priests looked at him, and there, on his forehead, he was leprous; so they thrust him out of that place. Indeed he also [a]hurried to get out, because the LORD had struck him.
21 [a]King Uzziah was a leper until the day of his death. He dwelt in an [b]isolated house, because he was a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD. Then Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

23 [a]So Uzziah [1]rested with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of burial which belonged to the kings, for they said, "He is a leper." Then Jotham his son reigned in his place.

Jotham Reigns in Judah

27 Jotham [a]was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was [1]Jerushah the daughter of Zadok.
2 And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done (although he did not enter the temple of the LORD). But still [a]the people acted corruptly.
3 He built the Upper Gate of the house of the LORD, and he built extensively on the wall of [a]Ophel.
4 Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built fortresses and towers.
5 He also fought with the king of the [a]Ammonites and defeated them. And the people of Ammon gave him in that year one hundred talents of silver, ten thousand kors of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. The people of Ammon paid this to him in the second and third years also.
6 So Jotham became mighty, [a]because he prepared his ways before the LORD his God.
7 Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars and his ways, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.
8 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.
9 [a]So Jotham [1]rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. Then [b]Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 28
1 [a]2 Kin. 16:2–4

26:17 Uzziah's pride caused him to breach God's laws for the temple. Only the priests were to burn incense to God in the temple (Ex. 30:1–10; Num. 16:40; 18:1–7). The Hebrew verb ma`al, translated "was unfaithful" is used often in Chronicles to describe serious violations of covenant loyalty (1 Chr. 2:7; 5:25; 28:10–25; 29:6; 36:14).

26:21 Leprosy made one ceremonially unclean. The law demanded that the infected person live in isolation (Lev. 13:46; Num. 5:1–14; 12:15; 2 Kin. 7:3). In light of the king's religious duties and state responsibilities, Uzziah was no longer fit to fulfill his royal obligations. His pride over his kingdom caused him to forfeit it.

27:3 The location of the wall of Ophel is uncertain. It is typically associated with the southeastern part of the hill between the temple and the city of David.

27:6 "Prepared his ways" or "established his ways" appears to be synonymous with a similar phrase used in Chronicles: "to set the heart (on God)" (1 Chr. 20:33; 29:18; 30:19).

2 For he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made [a]molded images for [b]the Baals.
3 He burned incense in [a]the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, and burned [b]his children in the [c]fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had [d]cast out before the children of Israel.
4 And he sacrificed and burned incense on the [1]high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

Syria and Israel Defeat Judah

5 Therefore [a]the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria. They [b]defeated him, and carried away a great multitude of them as captives, and brought them to Damascus. Then he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who defeated him with a great slaughter.
6 For [a]Pekah the son of Remaliah killed one hundred and twenty thousand in Judah in one day, all valiant men, [b]because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers.
7 Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the king's son, Azrikam the officer over the house, and Elkanah who was second to the king.
8 And the children of Israel carried away captive of their [a]brethren two hundred thousand women, sons, and daughters; and they also took away much [1]spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

Israel Returns the Captives

9 But a [a]prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded; and he went out before the army that came to Samaria, and said to them: "Look, [b]because the LORD God of your fathers was angry with Judah, He has delivered them into your hand; but you have killed them in a rage that [c]reaches up to heaven.
10 "And now you propose to force the children of Judah and Jerusalem to be your [a]male and female slaves; but are you not also guilty before the LORD your God?
11 "Now hear me, therefore, and return the captives, whom you have taken captive from your brethren, [a]for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you."
12 Then some of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against those who came from the war,
13 and said to them, "You shall not bring the captives here, for we already have offended the LORD. You intend to add to our sins and to our guilt; for our guilt is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel."
14 So the armed men left the captives and the [1]spoil before the leaders and all the assembly.
15 Then the men [a]who were designated by name rose up and took the captives, and from the [1]spoil they clothed all who were naked among them, dressed them and gave them sandals, [b]gave them food and drink, and anointed them; and they let all the feeble ones ride on donkeys. So they brought them to their brethren at Jericho, [c]the city of palm trees. Then they returned to Samaria.

Assyria Refuses to Help Judah

16 [a]At the same time King Ahaz sent to the [1]kings of Assyria to help him.
17 For again the [a]Edomites had come, attacked Judah, and carried away captives.
18 [a]The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the lowland and of the South of Judah, and had taken Beth Shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, Sochoh with its villages, Timnah with its villages, and Gimzo with its villages; and they dwelt there.
19 For the LORD [1]brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of [a]Israel, for he had [b]encouraged moral decline in Judah and had been continually unfaithful to the LORD.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Chr. 28:19

A Downward Spiral

What begins as a small act of disobedience can turn into a lifestyle characterized as "continually unfaithful to God." Your life is not lived in isolation; therefore, be aware of the way your own decisions affect those around you.

20 Also [a]Tiglath-Pileser[1] king of Assyria came to him and distressed him, and did not assist him.

28:2 The most severe criticism of any Judean king was that "he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel." The added claim that Ahaz worshiped Baal clearly placed him in the tradition of the house of Ahab.

28:3 The Valley of Ben Hinnom (2 Kin. 23:10; 2 Chr. 33:6; Jer. 7:31, 32; Ezek. 16:20, 21) was where Jerusalem deposited and burned its garbage. The Hebrew name for this valley has become popularized as Gehenna or hell.

28:8 Judah had broken its covenant with God (1 Chr. 28:9; 2 Chr. 7:19–22; 15:2) which left it vulnerable to military defeat and captivity as a sign of God's anger (2 Chr. 6:36).

21 For Ahaz took part of the treasures from the house of the LORD, from the house of the king, and from the leaders, and he gave it to the king of Assyria; but he did not help him.

Apostasy and Death of Ahaz

22 Now in the time of his distress King Ahaz became increasingly unfaithful to the LORD. This is that King Ahaz.
23 For [a]he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus which had defeated him, saying, "Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, I will sacrifice to them [b]that they may help me." But they were the ruin of him and of all Israel.
24 So Ahaz gathered the articles of the house of God, cut in pieces the articles of the house of God, [a]shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and made for himself altars in every corner of Jerusalem.
25 And in every single city of Judah he made [1]high places to burn incense to other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD God of his fathers.
26 [a]Now the rest of his acts and all his ways, from first to last, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.
27 So Ahaz [1]rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem; but they [a]did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel. Then Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

Hezekiah Reigns in Judah

29 Hezekiah [a]became king when he was twenty-five years old, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was [1]Abijah the daughter of Zechariah.
2 And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father David had done.

Hezekiah Cleanses the Temple

3 In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he [a]opened the doors of the house of the LORD and repaired them.
4 Then he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them in the East Square,
5 and said to them: "Hear me, Levites! Now [1]sanctify yourselves, [a]sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry out the rubbish from the holy place.
6 "For our fathers have trespassed and done evil in the eyes of the LORD our God; they have forsaken Him, have [a]turned their faces away from the [1]dwelling place of the LORD, and turned their backs on Him.
7 [a]"They have also shut up the doors of the vestibule, put out the lamps, and have not burned incense or offered burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel.
8 "Therefore the [a]wrath of the LORD fell upon Judah and Jerusalem, and He has [b]given them up to trouble, to desolation, and to [c]jeering, as you see with your [d]eyes.
9 "For indeed, because of this [a]our fathers have fallen by the sword; and our sons, our daughters, and our wives are in captivity.
10 "Now it is in my heart to make [a]a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that His fierce wrath may turn away from us.
11 "My sons, do not be negligent now, for the LORD has [a]chosen you to stand before Him, to serve Him, and that you

CHARACTER*Study* | HEZEKIAH | 2 Chr. 29:1

Hezekiah, whose name means "the Lord is my strength," was Judah's thirteenth king. He is a prominent figure in Judah's history and, apart from David and Solomon, he receives more attention in Chronicles than any other king (four chapters). He was the son of Ahaz, one of the wickedest kings of Judah. Hezekiah conducted extensive religious reform among the people of Judah (2 Kin. 18:4) and attempted to reunite Israel and Judah through worship at the temple (30:1–27). Hezekiah was a man of deep conviction. He was not simply concerned with his own life, but understood the need for the entire nation to obey God. In the face of great danger from Assyria, Hezekiah (through the support of the prophet Isaiah) challenged the people to follow God (2 Kin. 19). Because of his allegiance, when he faced certain death from illness, Hezekiah was able to petition God and have his life extended for an additional fifteen years (Is. 38). Hezekiah was not always faithful to God (2 Kin. 20:13–18). However, he sought to live righteously and to influence those around him to worship God as well. Ultimately, Hezekiah's life had a positive impact on the religious life of the entire nation.

29:3 Hezekiah's commencement of the temple's restoration in the first month of his reign revealed his zeal for God.

29:4 The east square was the courtyard in front of the portico of the temple (2 Chr. 4:9, 10; 6:13; 7:7).

29:10 The heart of Hezekiah's speech is that, to avoid this punishment, there must be genuine repentance. Then God will forgive and restore His people (2 Chr. 12:7; 19:10; 32:26).

should minister to Him and burn incense."
12 Then these Levites arose: [a]Mahath the son of Amasai and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the [b]Kohathites; of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi and Azariah the son of Jehallelel; of the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah and Eden the son of Joah;
13 of the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeiel; of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah;
14 of the sons of Heman, Jehiel and Shimei; and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.
15 And they gathered their brethren, [a]sanctified[1] themselves, and went according to the commandment of the king, at the words of the LORD, [b]to cleanse the house of the LORD.
16 Then the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD to cleanse it, and brought out all the debris that they found in the temple of the LORD to the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it out and carried it to the Brook [a]Kidron.
17 Now they began to [1]sanctify on the first day of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they came to the vestibule of the LORD. So they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days, and on the sixteenth day of the first month they finished.
18 Then they went in to King Hezekiah and said, "We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, the altar of burnt offerings with all its articles, and the table of the showbread with all its articles.
19 "Moreover all the articles which King Ahaz in his reign had [a]cast aside in his transgression we have prepared and [1]sanctified; and there they are, before the altar of the LORD."

Hezekiah Restores Temple Worship

20 Then King Hezekiah rose early, gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

21 And they brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven male goats for a [a]sin offering for the kingdom, for the sanctuary, and for Judah. Then he commanded the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of the LORD.
22 So they killed the bulls, and the priests received the blood and [a]sprinkled it on the altar. Likewise they killed the rams and sprinkled the blood on the altar. They also killed the lambs and sprinkled the blood on the altar.
23 Then they brought out the male goats for the sin offering before the king and the assembly, and they laid their [a]hands on them.
24 And the priests killed them; and they presented their blood on the altar as a sin offering [a]to make an atonement for all Israel, for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering be made for all Israel.
25 [a]And he stationed the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with stringed instruments, and with harps, [b]according to the commandment of David, of [c]Gad the king's seer, and of Nathan the prophet; [d]for thus was the commandment of the LORD by His prophets.
26 The Levites stood with the instruments [a]of David, and the priests with [b]the trumpets.
27 Then Hezekiah commanded them to offer the burnt offering on the altar. And when the burnt offering began, [a]the song of the LORD also began, with the trumpets and with the instruments of David king of Israel.
28 So all the assembly worshiped, the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded; all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.
29 And when they had finished offering, [a]the king and all who were present with him bowed and worshiped.
30 Moreover King Hezekiah and the leaders commanded the Levites to sing praise to the LORD with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. So they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshiped.
31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, "Now that you have consecrated yourselves to the LORD, come near, and bring sacrifices and [a]thank offerings into the house of the LORD." So the assembly brought in sacrifices and thank offerings, and as many as were of a [b]willing heart brought burnt offerings.
32 And the number of the burnt offerings which the assembly brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs; all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.

33 The consecrated things were six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep.
34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not skin all the burnt offerings; therefore [a]their brethren the Levites helped them until the work was ended and until the other priests had [1]sanctified themselves, [b]for the Levites were [c]more diligent in [d]sanctifying themselves than the priests.
35 Also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with [a]the fat of the peace offerings and with [b]the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order.
36 Then Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced that God had prepared the people, since the events took place so suddenly.

Hezekiah Keeps the Passover

30 And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the Passover to the LORD God of Israel.
2 For the king and his leaders and all the assembly in Jerusalem had agreed to keep the Passover in the second [a]month.
3 For they could not keep it [a]at [1]the regular time, [b]because a sufficient number of priests had not consecrated themselves, nor had the people gathered together at Jerusalem.
4 And the matter pleased the king and all the assembly.
5 So they [1]resolved to make a proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beersheba to Dan, that they should come to keep the Passover to the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem, since they had not done it for a long time in the prescribed manner.
6 Then the [a]runners went throughout all Israel and Judah with the letters from the king and his leaders, and spoke according to the command of the king: "Children of Israel, [b]return to the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel; then He will return to the remnant of you who have escaped from the hand of [c]the kings of [d]Assyria.
7 "And do not be [a]like your fathers and your brethren, who trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, so that He [b]gave them up to [c]desolation, as you see.
8 "Now do not be [a]stiff-necked,[1] as your fathers were, but yield yourselves to the LORD; and enter His sanctuary, which He has sanctified forever, and serve the LORD your God, [b]that the fierceness of His wrath may turn away from you.
9 "For if you return to the LORD, your brethren and your children will be treated with [a]compassion by those who lead them captive, so that they may come back to this land; for the LORD your God is [b]gracious and merciful, and will not turn His face from you if you [c]return to Him."
10 So the runners passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, as far as Zebulun; but [a]they laughed at them and mocked them.
11 Nevertheless [a]some from Asher, Manasseh, and Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem.
12 Also [a]the hand of God was on Judah to give them singleness of heart to obey the command of the king and the leaders, [b]at the word of the LORD.
13 Now many people, a very great assembly, gathered at Jerusalem to keep the Feast of [a]Unleavened Bread in the second month.
14 They arose and took away the [a]altars that were in Jerusalem, and they took away all the incense altars and cast them into the Brook [b]Kidron.
15 Then they slaughtered the Passover lambs on the fourteenth day of the second month. The priests and the Levites [1]were [a]ashamed, and [2]sanctified themselves, and brought the burnt offerings to the house of the LORD.
16 They stood in their [a]place [1]according to their custom, according to the Law of Moses the man of God; the priests sprinkled the blood received from the hand of the Levites.
17 For there were many in the assembly

16 [a]2 Chr. 35: 10, 15 [1]Or in their proper order

30:2 The word "assembly" occurs nine times in this chapter (verses 2, 4, 13, 17, 23–25). An assembly served as a symbol of unity and was comprised of leaders and ordinary people (1 Chr. 13:1, 2; Neh. 8:2). Its most significant function was to provide counsel to the king. The kings who consulted with the assembly are well regarded in Chronicles.

30:7 "Desolation" comes from the Hebrew word shammah which can also be translated "an object of horror." This was a well known prophetic term associated with the judgment of exile. While it described Israel's condition during the days of Ahaz, it also applied to the readers of Chronicles who needed to turn to God and trust His compassion.

30:10 Zebulun was the northernmost territory in Israel since Naphtali had been exiled (2 Kin. 15:29).

who had not [1]sanctified themselves; [a]therefore the Levites had charge of the slaughter of the Passover lambs for everyone who was not clean, to sanctify them to the LORD.
18 For a multitude of the people, [a]many from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, [b]yet they ate the Passover contrary to what was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, "May the good LORD provide atonement for everyone
19 "who [a]prepares his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he is not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary."
20 And the LORD listened to Hezekiah and healed the people.

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Chr. 30:18–20

Interceding for Others

Intercession is powerful. Do you have integrity before God so you can pray to Him on behalf of others when they sin? Will God heal His people because you prayed?

21 So the children of Israel who were present at Jerusalem kept [a]the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with great gladness; and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing to the LORD, accompanied by loud instruments.
22 And Hezekiah gave encouragement to all the Levites [a]who taught the good knowledge of the LORD; and they ate throughout the feast seven days, offering peace offerings and [b]making confession to the LORD God of their fathers.
23 Then the whole assembly agreed to keep the feast [a]another seven days, and they kept it another seven days with gladness.
24 For Hezekiah king of Judah [a]gave to the assembly a thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep, and the leaders gave to the assembly a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep; and a great number of priests [b]sanctified[1] themselves.
25 The whole assembly of Judah rejoiced, also the priests and Levites, all the assembly that came from Israel, the sojourners [a]who came from the land of Israel, and those who dwelt in Judah.
26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem, for since the time of [a]Solomon the son of David, king of Israel, there had been nothing like this in Jerusalem.
27 Then the priests, the Levites, arose and [a]blessed the people, and their voice was heard; and their prayer came up to [b]His holy dwelling place, to heaven.

The Reforms of Hezekiah

31 Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah and [a]broke the sacred pillars in pieces, cut down the wooden images, and threw down the [1]high places and the altars—from all Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim, and Manasseh—until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned to their own cities, every man to his possession.

Devoted to God

A natural response to worshiping God is the conviction of sin and the removal of any hindrance that competes for your devotion to Him. When you turn to God, expect Him to reveal your sin so you can eliminate it and fully consecrate your life to Him.

2 And Hezekiah appointed [a]the divisions of the priests and the Levites according to their divisions, each man according to his service, the priests and Levites [b]for burnt offerings and peace offerings, to serve, to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the [1]camp of the LORD.
3 The king also appointed a [1]portion of his [a]possessions[2] for the burnt offerings: for the morning and evening burnt offerings, the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths and the New Moons and the set feasts, as it is written in the [b]Law of the LORD.
4 Moreover he commanded the people who dwelt in Jerusalem to contribute [a]support[1] for the priests and the Levites, that they might devote themselves to [b]the Law of the LORD.
5 As soon as the commandment was circulated, the children of Israel brought in abundance [a]the firstfruits of grain and wine, oil and honey, and of all the produce of the field; and they brought in abundantly the [b]tithe of everything.

30:23 Keeping the feast another seven days signified that the people's hearts had been revived toward God.

30:25 Sojourners were foreigners living in Israel who worshipped God (Deut. 16:11; 26:11; 29:11; 31:12).

31:3 New Moon celebrations occurred at the beginning of each month (Num. 28:11–15). The set feasts referred to Passover and Unleavened Bread (Lev. 23:4–8); Firstfruits, or Pentecost (Lev. 23:15–22); and Tabernacles (Lev. 23:33–43).

6 And the children of Israel and Judah, who dwelt in the cities of Judah, brought the tithe of oxen and sheep; also the [a]tithe of holy things which were consecrated to the LORD their God they laid in heaps.
7 In the third month they began laying them in heaps, and they finished in the seventh month.
8 And when Hezekiah and the leaders came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD and His people Israel.
9 Then Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.
10 And Azariah the chief priest, from the [a]house of Zadok, answered him and said, [b]"Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat and have plenty left, for the LORD has blessed His people; and what is left is this great [c]abundance."
11 Now Hezekiah commanded them to prepare [a]rooms[1] in the house of the LORD, and they prepared them.
12 Then they faithfully brought in the offerings, the tithes, and the dedicated things; [a]Cononiah the Levite had charge of them, and Shimei his brother was the next.
13 Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath, and Benaiah were overseers under the hand of Cononiah and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Hezekiah the king and Azariah the [a]ruler of the house of God.
14 Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the keeper of the East Gate, was over the [a]freewill offerings to God, to distribute the offerings of the LORD and the most holy things.
15 And under him were [a]Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, his faithful assistants in [b]the cities of the priests, to distribute [c]allotments to their brethren by divisions, to the great as well as the small.
16 Besides those males from three years old and up who were written in the genealogy, they distributed to everyone who entered the house of the LORD his daily portion for the work of his service, by his division,
17 and to the priests who were written in the genealogy according to their father's house, and to the Levites [a]from twenty years old and up according to their work, by their divisions,
18 and to all who were written in the genealogy—their little ones and their wives, their sons and daughters, the whole company of them—for in their faithfulness they [1]sanctified themselves in holiness.
19 Also for the sons of Aaron the priests, who were in [a]the fields of the common-lands of their cities, in every single city, there were men who were [b]designated by name to distribute portions to all the males among the priests and to all who were listed by genealogies among the Levites.
20 Thus Hezekiah did throughout all Judah, and he [a]did what was good and right and true before the LORD his God.
21 And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, in the law and in the commandment, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart. So he [a]prospered.

All Your Heart

The only way to serve God is wholeheartedly. When you hold nothing back in your dedication to God, He withholds nothing from you.

Sennacherib Boasts Against the LORD

32 After [a]these deeds of faithfulness, Sennacherib king of Assyria came and entered Judah; he encamped against the fortified cities, thinking to win them over to himself.
2 And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come, and that his purpose was to make war against Jerusalem,
3 he consulted with his leaders and [1]commanders to stop the water from the springs which were outside the city; and they helped him.
4 Thus many people gathered together who stopped all the [a]springs and the brook that ran through the land, saying, "Why should the [1]kings of Assyria come and find much water?"
5 And [a]he strengthened himself, [b]built up all the wall that was broken, raised it up to the towers, and built another wall outside; also he repaired [1]the [c]Millo in the City of David, and made [2]weapons and shields in abundance.
6 Then he set military captains over the people, gathered them together to him in the open square of the city gate, and [a]gave them encouragement, saying,

31:14 The East Gate led into the great courtyard toward the Kidron Valley.

32:3 Hezekiah concealed the waters from the springs of Gihon and built an 1,800-foot tunnel to bring the water into the Pool of Siloam inside Jerusalem's walls (2 Kin. 20:20).

32:4 The Brook was Kidron, east of Jerusalem.

7 [a]"Be strong and courageous; [b]do not be afraid nor dismayed before the king of Assyria, nor before all the multitude that is with him; for [c]there are more with us than with him.
8 "With him is an [a]arm of flesh; but [b]with us is the LORD our God, to help us and to fight our battles." And the people were strengthened by the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.
9 [a]After this Sennacherib king of Assyria sent his servants to Jerusalem (but he and all the forces with him laid siege against Lachish), to Hezekiah king of Judah, and to all Judah who were in Jerusalem, saying,
10 [a]"Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria: 'In what do you trust, that you remain under siege in Jerusalem?
11 'Does not Hezekiah persuade you to give yourselves over to die by famine and by thirst, saying, [a]"The LORD our God will deliver us from the hand of the king of Assyria"?
12 [a]'Has not the same Hezekiah taken away His high places and His altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, "You shall worship before one altar and burn incense on [b]it"?
13 'Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of other lands? [a]Were the gods of the nations of those lands in any way able to deliver their lands out of my hand?
14 'Who was there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed that could deliver his people from my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you from my [a]hand?
15 'Now therefore, [a]do not let Hezekiah deceive you or persuade you like this, and do not believe him; for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people from my hand or the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God deliver you from my hand?' "
16 Furthermore, his servants spoke against the LORD God and against His servant Hezekiah.
17 He also wrote letters to revile the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against Him, saying, [a]"As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people from my hand, so the God of Hezekiah will not deliver His people from my [b]hand."
18 [a]Then they called out with a loud voice in [1]Hebrew to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten them and trouble them, that they might take the city.
19 And they spoke against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth—[a]the work of men's hands.

Sennacherib's Defeat and Death

20 [a]Now because of this King Hezekiah and [b]the prophet Isaiah, the son of Amoz, prayed and cried out to heaven.
21 [a]Then the LORD sent an angel who cut down every mighty man of valor, leader, and captain in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned [b]shamefaced to his own land. And when he had gone into the temple of his god, some of his own offspring struck him down with the sword there.
22 Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all others, and [1]guided them on every side.
23 And many brought gifts to the LORD at Jerusalem, and [a]presents[1] to Hezekiah king of Judah, so that he was [b]exalted in the sight of all nations thereafter.

Hezekiah Humbles Himself

24 [a]In those days Hezekiah was sick and near death, and he prayed to the LORD; and He spoke to him and gave him a sign.
25 But Hezekiah [a]did not repay according to the favor shown him, for [b]his heart was lifted up; [c]therefore wrath was looming over him and over Judah and Jerusalem.
26 [a]Then Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD did not come upon them [b]in the days of Hezekiah.

Hezekiah's Wealth and Honor

27 Hezekiah had very great riches and honor. And he made himself treasuries for silver, for gold, for precious stones, for spices, for shields, and for all kinds of desirable items;
28 storehouses for the harvest of grain, wine, and oil; and stalls for all kinds of livestock, and [1]folds for flocks.

32:7 Hezekiah's response to the people's fear was to quote the "charge" of previous leaders: Moses (Deut. 31:7–8, 23); Joshua (Josh. 1:6–9); and David (1 Chr. 22:13; 28:20).

32:8 "Were strengthened" literally means the people "leaned on" Hezekiah's words. The king's exhortation brought unity and faith among the people and the nation's leadership.

32:20 Chronicles provides a brief account of the victory over Sennacherib. For a more complete description, including the words of Hezekiah's prayer, see 2 Kings 19.

32:21 Sennacherib's two sons Adrammelech and Sharezer assassinated him twenty years after Jerusalem's siege while he was worshipping his god. Sennacherib's son Esarhaddon then became king of Assyria.

29 Moreover he provided cities for himself, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance; for [a]God had given him very much property.
30 [a]This same Hezekiah also stopped the water outlet of Upper Gihon, and [1]brought the water by tunnel to the west side of the City of David. Hezekiah [b]prospered in all his works.
31 However, regarding the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, whom they [a]sent to him to inquire about the wonder that was done in the land, God withdrew from him, in order to [b]test him, that He might know all that was in his heart.

God Tests the Heart

God tests our hearts to bring us to genuine repentance, to refine our character, and to deepen our faith. When God brings a time of testing to your life, do not become discouraged, but instead turn to God and submit to His claims on your life.

32 Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his goodness, indeed they are written in [a]the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the [b]book of the kings of Judah and Israel.
33 [a]So Hezekiah [1]rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the upper tombs of the sons of David; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem [b]honored him at his death. Then Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

Manasseh Reigns in Judah

33 Manasseh [a]was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem.
2 But he did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to the [a]abominations of the nations whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

6 [a]Also he caused his sons to pass through the fire in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom; he practiced [b]soothsaying, used witchcraft and sorcery, and [c]consulted mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.
7 [a]He even set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the [1]house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, [b]"In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever;

Manasseh Restored After Repentance

A Telling Response

A sign of spiritual maturity is when we humbly and quickly obey after God speaks. Spiritual immaturity is slow to heed God's voice unless hardship comes into one's life. Spiritual deadness is revealed when no word from God can move us to action.

33:1 See the character study of Manasseh in 2 Kings 21.

33:6 Manasseh practiced the detestable worship of the god Molech by sacrificing his own children as Ahaz had done (2 Chr. 28:3).

33:7 Second Kings 21:7 notes that the statue placed in the temple was an image of the goddess Asherah.

33:13 Manasseh had been raised by a father who worshipped the Lord. He should not have had to wait until his captivity to recognize that "the Lord was God."

kingdom. Then Manasseh [b]knew that the LORD was God.
14 After this he built a wall outside the City of David on the west side of [a]Gihon, in the valley, as far as the entrance of the Fish Gate; and it [b]enclosed Ophel, and he raised it to a very great height. Then he put military captains in all the fortified cities of Judah.
15 He took away [a]the foreign gods and the idol from the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD and in Jerusalem; and he cast them out of the city.
16 He also repaired the altar of the LORD, sacrificed peace offerings and [a]thank offerings on it, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.
17 [a]Nevertheless the people still sacrificed on the [1]high places, but only to the LORD their God.

Death of Manasseh

18 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, his prayer to his God, and the words of [a]the seers who spoke to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, indeed they are written in the [1]book of the kings of Israel.
19 Also his prayer and how God received his entreaty, and all his sin and trespass, and the sites where he built [1]high places and set up wooden images and carved images, before he was humbled, indeed they are written among the sayings of [2]Hozai.
20 [a]So Manasseh rested with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house. Then his son Amon reigned in his place.

Amon's Reign and Death

21 [a]Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem.
22 But he did evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father Manasseh had done; for Amon sacrificed to all the carved images which his father Manasseh had made, and served them.
23 And he did not humble himself before the LORD, [a]as his father Manasseh had humbled himself; but Amon trespassed more and more.
24 [a]Then his servants conspired against him, and [b]killed him in his own house.
25 But the people of the land executed all those who had conspired against King Amon. Then the people of the land made his son Josiah king in his place.

Josiah Reigns in Judah

34 Josiah [a]was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem.
2 And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of his father David; he did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.
3 For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was still [a]young, he began to [b]seek the God of his father David; and in the twelfth year he began [c]to purge Judah and Jerusalem [d]of the [1]high places, the wooden images, the carved images, and the molded images.
4 [a]They broke down the altars of the Baals in his presence, and the incense altars which were above them he cut down; and the wooden images, the carved images, and the molded images he broke in pieces, and made dust of them [b]and scattered it on the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.
5 He also [a]burned the bones of the priests on their [b]altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.
6 And so he did in the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, and Simeon, as far as Naphtali and all around, with [1]axes.
7 When he had broken down the altars and the wooden images, had [a]beaten the carved images into powder, and cut down all the incense altars throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

Hilkiah Finds the Book of the Law

8 [a]In the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the [1]temple, he sent [b]Shaphan the son of Azaliah, Maaseiah the [c]governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God.
9 When they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered [a]the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites who kept the doors had gathered from the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, from all the [b]remnant of Israel, from all Judah and Benjamin, and which they had brought back to Jerusalem.
10 Then they put it in the hand of the foremen who had the oversight of the house of the LORD; and they gave it to 34:2 Not turning to the right or to the left typically meant adhering to God's law single-mindedly (Deut. 5:32; 17:20; 28:14; Josh. 1:7; 23:6).

34:2 Josiah is compared to David and is seen to follow his example in several ways: seeking God, taking responsibility for the temple, organizing the Levitical musicians, obeying God.

34:3 Josiah's reform was the last chance the Judeans had to turn back to God and their heritage in an otherwise downward slide towards exile.

the workmen who worked in the house of the LORD, to repair and restore the house.
11 They gave it to the craftsmen and builders to buy hewn stone and timber for beams, and to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed.
12 And the men did the work faithfully. Their overseers were Jahath and Obadiah the Levites, of the sons of Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to supervise. Others of the Levites, all of whom were skillful with instruments of music, 16 So Shaphan carried the book to the king, bringing the king word, saying, "All that was committed to your servants they are doing.

17 "And they have [1]gathered the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers and the workmen."
18 Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read it before the king.
19 Thus it happened, when the king heard the words of the Law, that he tore his clothes.

Conviction

God's word cuts to the heart of a person's attitudes, motives, and actions. When you read the Bible, do not be surprised if you come under conviction. Scripture is God's living word. It has the power to transform your life.

20 Then the king commanded Hilkiah, [a]Ahikam the son of Shaphan, [1]Abdon the son of Micah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king, saying,
21 "Go, inquire of the LORD for me, and for those who are left in Israel and Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found; for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out on us, because our fathers have not [a]kept the word of the LORD, to do according to all that is written in this book."
22 So Hilkiah and those the king had appointed went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of [1]Tokhath, the son of [2]Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe. (She dwelt in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter.) And they spoke to her to that effect.
23 Then she answered them, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel, 'Tell the man who sent you to Me,
24 "Thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will [a]bring calamity on this place and on its inhabitants, all the curses that are written in the [b]book which they have read before the king of Judah,
25 'because they have forsaken Me and burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands. Therefore My wrath will be poured out on this place, and not be quenched.' " '
26 "But as for the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, in this manner you shall speak to him, 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel: "Concerning the words which you have heard—
27 "because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before God when you heard His words against this place and against its inhabitants, and you humbled yourself before Me, and you tore your clothes and wept before Me, I also have heard you," says the [a]LORD.
28 "Surely I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace; and your eyes shall not see all the calamity which I will bring on this place and its inhabitants." ' " So they brought back word to the king.

Josiah Restores True Worship

29 [a]Then the king sent and gathered all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.
30 The king went up to the house of the LORD, with all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem—the priests and the Levites, and all the people, great and small. And he [a]read in their hearing

34:14 Traditionally, the Book of the Law discovered by Hilkiah is thought to be a portion of the Book of Deuteronomy.

34:21 God's wrath against the people's sin is a recurring theme in chapters 28–36 (28:9, 11, 13, 25; 29:8, 10; 32:25; 33:6; 36:16).

34:22 Huldah is one of four prophetesses mentioned in the Old Testament (Ex. 15:20; Judg. 4:4; Neh. 6:14).

34:27 "Tender heart" can be translated as a "responsive, penitent, willing heart." Here, tender heart is linked with humbling yourself which is the solution to forsaking God (1 Chr. 28:9; 2 Chr. 7:14, 19; 15:2).

all the words of the Book of the Covenant which had been found in the house of the LORD.
31 Then the king [a]stood in [b]his place and made a [c]covenant before the LORD, to follow the LORD, and to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His statutes with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book.
32 And he made all who were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin take a stand. So the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.
33 Thus Josiah removed all the [a]abominations from all the country that belonged to the children of Israel, and made all who were present in Israel [1]diligently serve the LORD their God. [b]All his days they did not depart from following the LORD God of their fathers.

Josiah Keeps the Passover

35 Now [a]Josiah kept a Passover to the LORD in Jerusalem, and they slaughtered the Passover lambs on the [b]fourteenth day of the first month.
2 And he set the priests in their [a]duties and [b]encouraged them for the service of the house of the LORD.
3 Then he said to the Levites [a]who taught all Israel, who were holy to the LORD: [b]"Put the holy ark [c]in the house which Solomon the son of David, king of Israel, built. [d]It shall no longer be a burden on your shoulders. Now serve the LORD your God and His people Israel.
4 "Prepare yourselves [a]according to your fathers' [1]houses, according to your divisions, following the [b]written instruction of David king of Israel and the [c]written instruction of Solomon his son.
5 "And [a]stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of your brethren the lay people, and according to the division of the father's house of the Levites.
6 "So slaughter the Passover offerings, [a]consecrate yourselves, and prepare them for your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses."
7 Then Josiah [a]gave the lay people lambs and young goats from the flock, all for Passover offerings for all who were present, to the number of thirty thousand, as well as three thousand cattle; these were from the king's [b]possessions.
8 And his [a]leaders gave willingly to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings two thousand six hundred from the flock, and three hundred cattle.
9 Also [a]Conaniah, his brothers Shemaiah and Nethanel, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, gave to the Levites for Passover offerings five thousand from the flock and five hundred cattle.
10 So the service was prepared, and the priests [a]stood in their places, and the [b]Levites in their divisions, according to the king's command.
11 And they slaughtered the Passover offerings; and the priests [a]sprinkled the blood with their hands, while the Levites [b]skinned the animals.
12 Then they removed the burnt offerings that they might give them to the divisions of the fathers' houses of the lay people, to offer to the LORD, as it is written [a]in the Book of Moses. And so they did with the cattle.
13 Also they [a]roasted the Passover offerings with fire according to the ordinance; but the other holy offerings they [b]boiled in pots, in caldrons, and in pans, and divided them quickly among all the lay people.
14 Then afterward they prepared portions for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the sons of Aaron, were busy in offering burnt offerings and fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared portions for themselves and for the priests, the sons of Aaron.
15 And the singers, the sons of Asaph, were in their places, according to the [a]command of David, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer. Also the gatekeepers [b]were at each gate; they did not have to leave their position, because their brethren the Levites prepared portions for them.
16 So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the Passover and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD, according to the command of King Josiah.
17 And the children of Israel who were present kept the Passover at that time, and the Feast of [a]Unleavened Bread for seven days.
18 [a]There had been no Passover kept in Israel like that since the days of Samuel the prophet; and none of the kings of Israel had kept such a Passover as Josiah kept, with the priests and the Levites, all

Josiah Dies in Battle

20 [a]After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against [b]Carchemish by the Euphrates; and Josiah went out against him.
21 But he sent messengers to him, saying, "What have I to do with you, king of Judah? I have not come against you this day, but against the house with which I have war; for God commanded me to make haste. Refrain from meddling with God, who is with me, lest He destroy you."

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Chr. 35:21

Interfering in the Lord's Work

The Lord may choose to work through a variety of means and people. It is never our place to disagree or oppose the Lord's plans. When God speaks we should not fight against Him, but rather accept His word. We are not called to understand all of His ways, only to accept them and obey.

22 Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but [a]disguised himself so that he might fight with him, and did not heed the words of Necho from the mouth of God. So he came to fight in the Valley of Megiddo.
23 And the archers shot King Josiah; and the king said to his servants, "Take me away, for I am severely wounded."
24 [a]His servants therefore took him out of that chariot and put him in the second chariot that he had, and they brought him to Jerusalem. So he died, and was buried in one of the tombs of his fathers. And [b]all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.
25 Jeremiah also [a]lamented for [b]Josiah. And to this day [c]all the singing men and the singing women speak of Josiah in their lamentations. [d]They made it a custom in Israel; and indeed they are written in the Laments.
26 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and his goodness, according to what was written in the Law of the LORD,

35:28 "In peace" refers to Josiah not witnessing the destruction of Jerusalem by Babylon. When Josiah died in battle, his death spared him from witnessing the tragic destruction of his nation and his family.

35:21 There are several biblical references to God speaking to unbelievers concerning His will (Gen. 20:6; 41:25; 2 Chr. 36:22; Dan. 2:28).

35:22 This is one of many occasions on which God chose to speak through foreigners (2 Chr. 2:11, 12; 9:8; 36:22, 23).

36:2 Jehoahaz is also called Shallum in the Book of Jeremiah (Jer. 22:11, 12).

36:7 This fulfilled Isaiah's prophecy to King Hezekiah a century earlier (2 Kin. 20:17; 2 Chr. 32:31). Nebuchadnezzar's god was Marduk.

WORD*Study* TRANSGRESS

2 Chr. 36:14 "Transgressed more and more" can be understood as "being unfaithful" which is failing to give God what is due to Him, but taking it for oneself. Chronicles identifies this sin as one of the main reasons for exile (1 Chr. 2:7; 5:25; 10:13; 2 Chr. 12:2; 28:19; 33:17).

THE BOOK OF EZRA

INTRODUCTION

This book is named after its principal character, the scribe Ezra. Ezra's name may be an abbreviation of a name meaning "God Is My Help." Tradition claims Ezra wrote this book along with Chronicles and Nehemiah. Tradition also suggests Ezra may have compiled the final version of the Hebrew Old Testament. Ezra was a priest, a descendent of Aaron as well as of Phinehas and Zadok (Ezra 7:1–5, 1 Chr. 6:4–14). He lived in Babylon as a result of the exile of the Israelites. Ezra rose to a prominent position under the Persian government, serving as a "secretary of state" of Jewish affairs for the empire. The Persian emperor Artaxerxes commissioned Ezra to return to Jerusalem in 458 B.C. to teach the Israelites God's law and to bring order to their worship. Ezra's work overlapped that of Nehemiah as they taught the Law and consecrated the wall around Jerusalem (Neh. 8:9; 12:36, 38).

SIGNIFICANCE

This book is important for several reasons. First, along with the book of Nehemiah, Ezra completes the record of Chronicles and the sojourn of the Israelite exiles in Babylon. Ezra also describes the fulfilment of the promises God gave Israel through His prophet Jeremiah (2 Chr. 36:21; Ezra 1:1). Ezra demonstrates God's remembrance of His disobedient people and shows that with His judgment He also grants mercy and forgiveness. Ezra emphasizes the importance of God's people keeping themselves pure and separate by not marrying unbelievers. After their exile in Babylon, the Israelites might have disappeared from history had they continued to intermarry and to adopt the pagan culture of those around them. Ezra called God's people to set themselves apart so God would continue to use them in His redemptive plan. And finally, Ezra highlights the power of God's word. God not only honors His word (Ezra 1:1), He brings revival to those who obey it (10:1–2).

STRUCTURE

Historically, Ezra continues the account left off at the end of Second Chronicles. The ancient Hebrew scriptures included Ezra and Nehemiah as one book. It is perhaps best to understand the events of Ezra in conjunction with those detailed in the book of Nehemiah. Ezra includes a number of lists and documents as well as first-hand accounts. Two passages were originally written in Aramaic, the diplomatic language of Ezra's time (Ezra 4:8—6:12, 7:12–26).

The Book of Ezra can be divided in the following way: The return to Jerusalem of the first Israelites under Zerubbabel (1:1—2:70); the restoration of worship and the rebuilding of the temple (3:1—6:22); the return of Ezra to Jerusalem along with his fellow exiles (7:1—8:36); and sin confessed and God's people revived (9:1—10:44).

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH EZRA

Just as the reading of God's word made God's people tremble in Ezra's day, likewise reading Ezra can lead you to a holy encounter with God. Ezra's dedication as he "prepared his heart to seek the law of the Lord, and to do it . . ." will challenge you to do the same (Ezra 7:10). You will see how Ezra continually refers to "the hand of the Lord" being on him and with him (7:9, 28; 8:22, 31). Ezra sets a worthy example by regularly praying to God whenever he faces a new challenge (8:23; 9:5–15; 10:1). Noteworthy also is the passionate way Ezra identifies with the sins of his countrymen (9:3, 6, 7, 13–15). When you see how seriously Ezra took the holiness of God's people, it may compel you to be more careful in the way you indulge in activities God condemns (chapters 9–10). Finally, you will witness how God overcame

His enemies by using the most powerful political and military leaders of the day to accomplish His redemptive purposes (1:1–4; 4:6–24; 5:6–17; 6:1–12). Ezra sets a solid example for us to follow. The study of this book should inspire us to fear God, to worship Him, to trust Him and to recognize Him powerfully at work around us.

CHARACTER*Study* EZRA Ezra 1:1

Ezra was both a scribe and a priest. He was well-schooled and pious, residing in Babylon in the time of Artaxerxes. He was permitted by order of the king to go to Jerusalem (458 B.C.), and to take with him a company of Israelites for the purposes of bringing religious reform to the people. He is likely the author of Chronicles, Ezra, and Nehemiah. Ezra diligently prepared his heart to understand God's word. He represents the beginning of a new group of Israel's scriptural teachers known as scribes.

CHARACTER*Study* KING CYRUS Ezra 1:1

Founder of the Persian empire, King Cyrus overthrew Babylon in 539 B.C. This was a fulfilment of prophecy (Jer. 25:11, 12; 29:10; Is. 41:2, 25; 44:28; 45:1, 13). Cyrus was more lenient toward conquered peoples than were the Assyrians or Babylonians. He often encouraged local religious practices and customs in order to gain the loyalty of his subjects. While adopting what appears to be a novel and effective foreign policy, Cyrus was at the same time fulfilling God's redemptive plan for His people.

1:5 Only a small number of those living in exile responded to God's call. The vast majority were unwilling to give up their Babylonian property or lifestyle to return to Jerusalem.

them out by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and counted them out to [a]Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah.
9 This is the number of them: thirty gold platters, one thousand silver platters, twenty-nine knives,
10 thirty gold basins, four hundred and ten silver basins of a similar kind, and one thousand other articles.
11 All the articles of gold and silver were five thousand four hundred. All these Sheshbazzar took with the captives who were brought from Babylon to Jerusalem.

The Captives Who Returned to Jerusalem

2 Now [a]these are the people of the province who came back from the captivity, of those who had been carried away, [b]whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away to Babylon, and who returned to Jerusalem and Judah, everyone to his own city.
2 Those who came with Zerubbabel were Jeshua, Nehemiah, [1]Seraiah, [2]Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, [3]Mispar, Bigvai, [4]Rehum, and Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel:

World Events

World events can appear to be solely the result of human efforts. World leaders can take credit for national and global developments, but God's people recognize the Lord's hand in world history as He moves people, according to His will and toward His purposes.

2:1 Babylon, the country of exile, is often used symbolically to represent a place of punishment or separation from God's blessings. The Israelites came to see their exile in Babylon as God's punishment on them for their idolatry and their disregard for God's law.

2:2 For Zerubbabel, see Ezra 3:2 and 1 Chronicles 3:19. Jeshua was the high priest. He is called "Joshua" in Haggai and Zechariah. He was the grandson of Seraiah, who was the last high priest before Jerusalem's downfall (2 Kin. 25:18, 1 Chr. 6:14, 15).

59 And these were the ones who came up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Cherub, [1]Addan, and Immer; but they could not [2]identify their father's house or their [3]genealogy, whether they were of Israel:

62 These sought their listing among those who were registered by genealogy, but they were not found; [a]therefore they were excluded from the priesthood as defiled.

2:36 King David had organized the priests into twenty-four groups based on families (1 Chr. 24). Here only four groups are listed, the families of Jedaiah, Immer, Pashhur and Harim.

2:43 "Nethinim" means "Given Ones" or "Dedicated Ones." They helped the Levites with their tasks of caring for the temple. They were foreigners, perhaps captured in David's wars. They may also have included Gibeonites, originally subdued by Joshua.

Worship Restored at Jerusalem

3 And when the [a]seventh month had come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered together as one man to Jerusalem.

ENCOUNTER Note Ezra 3:1

As One Man

When God initiates a work His Spirit unites the hearts of His people. One sign that God is the author of a project is the unmistakable spirit of unity among God's people as they work together.

2 Then [1]Jeshua the son of [a]Jozadak[2] and his brethren the priests, [b]and Zerubbabel the son of [c]Shealtiel and his brethren, arose and built the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings on it, as it is [d]written in the Law of Moses the man of God.

3 Though fear had come upon them because of the people of those countries, they set the altar on its [1]bases; and they offered [a]burnt offerings on it to the LORD, both the morning and evening burnt offerings.

4 [a]They also kept the Feast of Tabernacles, [b]as it is written, and [c]offered the daily burnt offerings in the number required by ordinance for each day.

5 Afterwards they offered the [a]regular burnt offering, and those for New Moons and for all the appointed feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and those of everyone who willingly offered a freewill offering to the LORD.

6 From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD, although the foundation of the temple of the LORD had not been laid.

7 They also gave money to the masons and the carpenters, and [a]food, drink, and oil to the people of Sidon and Tyre to bring cedar logs from Lebanon to the sea, to [b]Joppa, [c]according to the permission which they had from Cyrus king of Persia.

2:64 The numbers given in the text come to 29,818, not 42,360. Nehemiah 7:66 gives the same total of 42,360. It may be that the specific list in this passage does not include women, or that it does not identify every individual.

2:69 A drachma was a Persian gold coin weighing two-tenths of an ounce. Five thousand minas of silver would have been roughly 6,300 pounds of silver.

3:1 The "seventh month" would have been Tishri (September–October). The feasts held that month would have been New Year and Feast of Trumpets on the first day, Day of Atonement on the tenth day, and the Feast of Tabernacles from the fifteenth to the twenty-first.

3:2 King David had also constructed an altar here before a temple had been built (2 Sam. 24:25).

3:3 During the age of the patriarchs, the building of an altar symbolized a renewed commitment to God or the recognition that God had dealt with His people in a fresh, new way (Gen. 12:7; 13:4; 22:9; 26:25; 33:20; 35:1, 7; Ex. 17:15).

3:4 Burnt offerings emphasized the complete consecration and dedication of the worshipper. The Feast of Tabernacles was one of the major annual celebrations. Worshippers lived in tents, or booths, for seven days to celebrate God's deliverance from Egypt and to commemorate God's continued care for them (Num. 29:13–38).

Restoration of the Temple Begins

8 Now in the second month of the second year of their coming to the house of God at Jerusalem, [a]Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, Jeshua the son of [1]Jozadak, and the rest of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all those who had come out of the captivity to Jerusalem, began work [b]and appointed the Levites from twenty years old and above to oversee the work of the house of the LORD.
9 Then Jeshua with his sons and brothers, Kadmiel with his sons, and the sons of [1]Judah, arose as one to oversee those working on the house of God: the sons of Henadad with their sons and their brethren the Levites.
10 When the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, [a]the[1] priests stood in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise the LORD, according to the [b]ordinance[2] of David king of Israel.
11 [a]And they sang responsively, praising and giving thanks to the LORD:

[b]"For He is good,
[c] For His mercy endures forever
toward Israel."

Then all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.
12 But many of the priests and Levites and [a]heads of the fathers' houses, old men who had seen the first temple, wept with a loud voice when the foundation of this temple was laid before their eyes. Yet many shouted aloud for joy,
13 so that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people, for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the sound was heard afar off.

Emotional Worship

Worship elicits a broad range of responses from God's people. Some are reminded of what once was; others are encouraged by what is to come. Some weep. Others shout for joy. We serve a living God, so our worship experience is always dynamic, never static.

Resistance to Rebuilding the Temple

4 Now when [a]the [1]adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the descendants of the captivity were building the temple of the LORD God of Israel,
2 they came to Zerubbabel and the heads of the fathers' houses, and said to them, "Let us build with you, for we seek your God as you do; and we have sacrificed to Him [a]since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assyria, who brought us here."
3 But Zerubbabel and Jeshua and the rest of the heads of the fathers' houses of Israel said to them, [a]"You may do nothing with us to build a [1]house for our God; but we alone will build to the LORD God of Israel, as [b]King Cyrus the king of Persia has commanded us."
4 Then [a]the people of the land tried to discourage the people of Judah. They troubled them in building,
5 and hired counselors against them to frustrate their purpose all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of [a]Darius king of Persia.

ENCOUNTER Note — Ezra 4:4, 5

Facing God's Enemies

Following God's will does not save you from critics; in fact it often invites opposition. Success will not come from listening to your enemies but from heeding God's voice.

Rebuilding of Jerusalem Opposed

6 In the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.
7 In the days of [a]Artaxerxes also, [1]Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabel, and the rest of their companions wrote to Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the letter was written in [b]Aramaic script, and translated into the Aramaic language.
8 [1]Rehum the commander and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to King Artaxerxes in this fashion:

9 [1]From Rehum the commander,

4:3 Although assistance with construction would have been enormously helpful, it was rejected for three reasons: (1) This task was given exclusively to God's people; (2) accepting aid would obligate the Jewish people to Samaritan pagans resulting in intermarriage; and (3) the potential for corruption in worship was too great if this fledgling people became allies with those who rejected the true God.

4:7 Artaxerxes became king of Persia by murdering his brother. He ruled from 464 to 424 B.C. Ezra and Nehemiah lived during his reign.

Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the people of Persia and Erech and Babylon and [2]Shushan, the Dehavites, the Elamites,
10 [a]and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Osnapper took captive and settled in the cities of Samaria and the remainder beyond [1]the River—[b]and[2] so forth.

11 (This is a copy of the letter that they sent him)

To King Artaxerxes from your servants, the men of the region beyond the River, [1]and so forth:

12 Let it be known to the king that the Jews who came up from you have come to us at Jerusalem, and are building the [a]rebellious and evil city, and are finishing its [b]walls and repairing the foundations.
13 Let it now be known to the king that, if this city is built and the walls completed, they will not pay [a]tax, tribute, or custom, and the king's treasury will be diminished.
14 Now because we receive support from the palace, it was not proper for us to see the king's dishonor; therefore we have sent and informed the king,
15 that search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers. And you will find in the book of the records and know that this city is a rebellious city, harmful to kings and provinces, and that they have incited sedition within the city in former times, for which cause this city was destroyed.
16 We inform the king that if this city is rebuilt and its walls are completed, the result will be that you will have no dominion beyond the River.

17 The king sent an answer:

To Rehum the commander, to Shimshai the scribe, to the rest of their companions who dwell in Samaria, and to the remainder beyond the River:

Peace, [1]and so forth.

18 The letter which you sent to us has been clearly read before me.
19 And [1]I gave the command, and a search has been made, and it was found that this city in former times has revolted against kings, and rebellion and sedition have been fostered in it.
20 There have also been mighty kings over Jerusalem, who have [a]ruled over all the region [b]beyond the River; and tax, tribute, and custom were paid to them.
21 Now [1]give the command to make these men cease, that this city may not be built until the command is given by me.
22 Take heed now that you do not fail to do this. Why should damage increase to the hurt of the kings?

23 Now when the copy of King Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem against the Jews, and by force of arms made them cease.
24 Thus the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem ceased, and it was discontinued until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Restoration of the Temple Resumed

5 Then the prophet [a]Haggai and [b]Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophets, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem, in the name of the God of Israel, who was over them.
2 So [a]Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of [1]Jozadak rose up and began to build the house of God which is in Jerusalem; and [b]the prophets of God were with them, helping them.
3 At the same time [a]Tattenai the governor of the region beyond [1]the River and Shethar-Boznai and their companions came to them and spoke thus to them: [b]"Who has commanded you to build this [2]temple and finish this wall?"
4 [a]Then, accordingly, we told them the names of the men who were constructing this building.
5 But [a]the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, so that they could not make them cease till a report could go to Darius. Then a [b]written answer was returned concerning this matter.

4:23 Whatever work had been done on the city walls may have been destroyed at this time. Perhaps this was the cause for Nehemiah's tears when he heard about Jerusalem's condition (Neh. 1:3, 4).

5:1 Haggai's prophecies were made between August and December 520 B.C. Zechariah's were given between October 520 and February 519 B.C., during the reign of Darius.

5:2 Zerubbabel was the son of Shealtiel and the grandson of King Jehoiachin, the king of Judah (Matt. 1:11, 12). Jeshua was the high priest (Hag. 2:2).

5:3 Tattenai was one of only twenty regional governors throughout the Persian Empire and was thus an extremely influential man.

The Eye of God

Our critics may deride us. Our enemies may attack us. Our friends may disappoint us. But the eye of our God is always upon us. His watchcare is constant.

6 This is a copy of the letter that Tattenai sent:

The governor of the region beyond the River, and Shethar-Boznai, [a]and his companions, the Persians who were in the region beyond the River, to Darius the king.

7 (They sent a letter to him, in which was written thus)

To Darius the king:

All peace.

8 Let it be known to the king that we went into the province of Judea, to the [1]temple of the great God, which is being built with [2]heavy stones, and timber is being laid in the walls; and this work goes on diligently and prospers in their hands.

9 Then we asked those elders, and spoke thus to them: [a]"Who commanded you to build this temple and to finish these walls?"

10 We also asked them their names to inform you, that we might write the names of the men who were chief among them.

11 And thus they returned us an answer, saying: "We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the [1]temple that was built many years ago, which a great king of Israel built [a]and completed.

Truth About the Past

God is continually moving His people from where they are to where He wants them to be. Honestly examining and processing past sins is the best prevention from repeating them.

14 "Also, [a]the gold and silver articles of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple that was in Jerusalem and carried into the temple of Babylon—those King Cyrus took from the temple of Babylon, and they were given to [b]one named Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor.

15 "And he said to him, 'Take these articles; go, carry them to the temple site that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt on its former site.'

16 "Then the same Sheshbazzar came and [a]laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem; but from that time even until now it has been under construction, and [b]it is not finished."

17 Now therefore, if it seems good to the king, [a]let a search be made in the king's treasure house, which is there in Babylon, whether it is so that a decree was issued by King Cyrus to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send us his pleasure concerning this matter.

The Decree of Darius

6 Then King Darius issued a decree, [a]and a search was made in the [1]archives, where the treasures were stored in Babylon.

2 And at [1]Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of [a]Media, a scroll was found, and in it a record was written thus:

3 In the first year of King Cyrus, King Cyrus issued a [a]decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem: "Let the house be rebuilt, the place where they offered sacrifices; and

5:6 Under King Darius, the Persian Empire reached its pinnacle. Darius followed many of the same policies as Cyrus (Ezra 1:1), such as encouraging local religious practices.

5:14 Some believe Sheshbazzar is the same person as Shenazzar in 1 Chronicles 3:18. If so he would have been the fourth son of King Jehoiachin and the uncle of Zerubbabel.

5:16 Sheshbazzar began the work in 536 B.C. When work on the temple resumed it was sixteen years later, 520 B.C.

6:2 Achmetha, probably Ecbatana, was the summer residence of King Cyrus due to its higher elevation and cooler temperatures.

6:3 Solomon's temple had measured ninety feet long, thirty feet wide, and forty-five feet high (1 Kin. 6:2). Unlike Solomon's temple, the new temple would not house the ark of the covenant in the Most Holy Place.

let the foundations of it be firmly laid, its height sixty cubits and its width sixty cubits,

5 Also let [a]the gold and silver articles of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the temple which is in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be restored and taken back to the temple which is in Jerusalem, each to its place; and deposit them in the house of God"—
6 [a]Now therefore, Tattenai, governor of the region beyond the River, and Shethar-Boznai, and your companions the Persians who are beyond the River, keep yourselves far from there.
7 Let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God on its site.
8 Moreover I issue a decree as to what you shall do for the elders of these Jews, for the building of this [1]house of God: Let the cost be paid at the king's expense from taxes on the region beyond the River; this is to be given immediately to these men, so that they are not hindered.

Extra Blessings

Often God adds bonus delights and blessings as He answers our prayers. Perhaps He is responding to our faithfulness or obedience. He certainly loves us dearly.

9 And whatever they need—young bulls, rams, and lambs for the burnt offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the request of the priests who are in Jerusalem—let it be given them day by day without fail,
10 [a]that they may offer sacrifices of sweet aroma to the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king and his sons.
11 Also I issue a decree that whoever alters this edict, let a timber be pulled from his house and erected, and let him be hanged on it; [a]and let his house be made a refuse heap because of this.
12 And may the God who causes His [a]name to dwell there destroy any king or people who put their hand to alter it, or to destroy this [1]house of God which is in Jerusalem.
I Darius issue a decree; let it be done diligently.

The Temple Completed and Dedicated

13 Then Tattenai, governor of the region beyond the River, Shethar-Boznai, and their companions diligently did according to what King Darius had sent.
14 [a]So the elders of the Jews built, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they built and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the [1]command of [b]Cyrus, [c]Darius, and [d]Artaxerxes king of Persia.

Finishing

It is exhilarating to receive a new assignment from God, but often much patience and extended effort are required to see it through to the end. However, God richly rewards those who persevere.

15 Now the temple was finished on the third day of the month of Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.
16 Then the children of Israel, the priests and the Levites and the rest of the descendants of the captivity, celebrated [a]the dedication of this [1]house of God with joy.
17 And they [a]offered sacrifices at the dedication of this house of God, one hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and as a sin offering for all Israel twelve male goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.
18 They assigned the priests to their [a]divisions and the Levites to their [b]divisions, over the service of God in Jerusalem, [c]as it is written in the Book of Moses.

The Passover Celebrated

19 [1]And the descendants of the captivity kept the Passover [a]on the fourteenth day of the first month.
20 For the priests and the Levites had [a]purified themselves; all of them were ritually clean. And they [b]slaughtered the Passover lambs for all the descendants

21 Then the children of Israel who had returned from the captivity ate together with all who had separated themselves from the [a]filth[1] of the nations of the land in order to seek the LORD God of Israel.
22 And they kept the [a]Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with joy; for the LORD made them joyful, and [b]turned the heart [c]of the king of Assyria toward them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

The Arrival of Ezra

7 Now after these things, in the reign of [a]Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the [b]son of Seraiah, [c]the son of Azariah, the son of [d]Hilkiah,
2 the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,
3 the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth,
4 the son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,
5 the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest—
6 this Ezra came up from Babylon; and he was [a]a skilled scribe in the Law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given. The king granted him all his request, [b]according to the hand of the LORD his God upon him.
7 [a]Some of the children of Israel, the priests, [b]the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers, and [c]the Nethinim came up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.
8 And Ezra came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king.
9 On the first day of the first month he began his journey from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, [a]according to the good hand of his God upon him.
10 For Ezra had prepared his heart to [a]seek[1] the Law of the LORD, and to do it, and to [b]teach statutes and ordinances in Israel.

The Letter of Artaxerxes to Ezra

11 This is a copy of the letter that King Artaxerxes gave Ezra the priest, the scribe, expert in the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of His statutes to Israel:

12 [1]Artaxerxes, [a]king of kings,

To Ezra the priest, a scribe of the Law of the God of heaven:

Perfect peace, [b]and[2] so forth.

13 I issue a decree that all those of the people of Israel and the priests and Levites in my realm, who volunteer to go up to Jerusalem, may go with you.
14 And whereas you are being sent [1]by the king and his [a]seven counselors to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, with regard to the Law of your God which is in your hand;
15 and whereas you are to carry the silver and gold which the king and his counselors have freely offered to the God of Israel, [a]whose dwelling is in Jerusalem;
16 [a]and whereas all the silver and gold that you may find in all the province of Babylon, along with the freewill offering of the people and the priests, are to be [b]freely offered for the [1]house of their God in Jerusalem—
17 now therefore, be careful to buy with this money bulls, rams, and lambs, with their [a]grain offerings and their drink offerings, and [b]offer them on the altar of the house of your God in Jerusalem.
18 And whatever seems good to you and your brethren to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, do it according to the will of your God.
19 Also the articles that are given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver in full before the God of Jerusalem.
20 And whatever more may be needed for the house of your God, which you may have occasion to provide, pay for it from the king's treasury.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ezra 7:10

A Prepared Heart

Our hearts are not naturally pure or attentive to God's word. If we are predisposed to hear from God and to do His will, He has much to say to us.

7:1 Ezra returned fifty-seven years after the completion of the temple in Jerusalem. Seraiah was high priest during the reign of King Zedekiah and was executed by the Babylonians (2 Kin. 25:18–21).

7:2 Zadok's name means "Righteous." He was a priest under King David and later chief priest under King Solomon (2 Sam. 8:17, 1 Kin. 2:35).

7:8 The seventh year of King Artaxerxes was 458 B.C.

7:9 The journey would have been roughly 800 to 900 miles.

7:14 To see how the Persian kings made use of their counselors see Esther 1:14.

21 And I, even I, Artaxerxes the king, issue a decree to all the treasurers who are in the region beyond the River, that whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the Law of the God of heaven, may require of you, let it be done diligently,
22 up to one hundred talents of silver, one hundred kors of wheat, one hundred baths of wine, one hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribed limit.
23 Whatever [1]is commanded by the God of heaven, let it diligently be done for the [2]house of the God of heaven. For why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons?
24 Also we inform you that it shall not be lawful to impose tax, tribute, or custom on any of the priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, Nethinim, or servants of this house of God.
25 And you, Ezra, according to your God-given wisdom, [a]set magistrates and judges who may judge all the people who are in the region beyond the River, all such as know the laws of your God; and [b]teach those who do not know them.
26 Whoever will not observe the law of your God and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily on him, whether it be death, or [1]banishment, or confiscation of goods, or imprisonment.

27 [a]Blessed[1] be the LORD God of our fathers, [b]who has put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem,
28 and [a]has extended mercy to me before the king and his counselors, and before all the king's mighty princes.

So I was encouraged, as the hand of the LORD my God was upon me; and I gathered leading men of Israel to go up with me.

Heads of Families Who Returned with Ezra

8 These are the heads of their fathers' houses, and this is the genealogy of those who went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of King Artaxerxes:
2 of the sons of Phinehas, Gershom; of the sons of Ithamar, Daniel; of the sons of David, [a]Hattush;
3 of the sons of Shecaniah, of the sons of [a]Parosh, Zechariah; and registered with him were one hundred and fifty males;
4 of the sons of [a]Pahath-Moab, Eliehoenai the son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred males;
5 of [1]the sons of Shechaniah, Ben-Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males;
6 of the sons of Adin, Ebed the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males;
7 of the sons of Elam, Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males;
8 of the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him eighty males;
9 of the sons of Joab, Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males;
10 of [1]the sons of Shelomith, Ben-Josiphiah, and with him one hundred and sixty males;
11 of the sons of [a]Bebai, Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty-eight males;
12 of the sons of Azgad, Johanan [1]the son of Hakkatan, and with him one hundred and ten males;
13 of the last sons of Adonikam, whose names are these—Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah—and with them sixty males;
14 also of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and [1]Zabbud, and with them seventy males.

Servants for the Temple

15 Now I gathered them by the river that flows to Ahava, and we camped there three days. And I looked among the people and the priests, and found none of the [a]sons of Levi there.
16 Then I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and [a]Meshullam, leaders; also for Joiarib and Elnathan, men of understanding.
17 And I gave them a command for Iddo the chief man at the place Casiphia, and [1]I told them what they should say to [2]Iddo and his brethren the Nethinim at the place Casiphia—that they should bring us servants for the house of our God.
18 Then, by the good hand of our God upon us, they [a]brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli the son of Levi, the son of Israel, namely Sherebiah, with his sons and brothers, eighteen men;

7:22 One hundred kors would be 380 bushels. One hundred baths would be 480 gallons.

7:25 Others were aware of God's hand upon Ezra's life. There could be no other explanation for Ezra's wisdom.

8:15 Ezra needed Levites to transport the items consecrated to God.

8:17 Casiphia was a town near Babylon.

19 and [a]Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiah of the sons of Merari, his brothers and their sons, twenty men;
20 [a]also of the Nethinim, whom David and the leaders had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinim. All of them were designated by name.

Fasting and Prayer for Protection

21 Then I [a]proclaimed a fast there at the river of Ahava, that we might [b]humble ourselves before our God, to seek from Him the [c]right way for us and our little ones and all our possessions.
22 For [a]I was ashamed to request of the king an escort of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy on the road, because we had spoken to the king, saying, [b]"The hand of our God is upon all those for [c]good who seek Him, but His power and His wrath are [d]against all those who [e]forsake Him."

ENCOUNTER Note Ezra 8:22

The Hand of God

One should never underestimate the power of God's favor or His wrath. With God's hand comes His protection, His provision, and His pleasure. With God's hand, victory is ensured. Without it, disaster is inevitable.

23 So we fasted and entreated our God for this, and He [a]answered our prayer.

Gifts for the Temple

24 And I separated twelve of the leaders of the priests—Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them—
25 and weighed out to them [a]the silver, the gold, and the articles, the offering for the house of our God which the king and his counselors and his princes, and all Israel who were present, had offered.
26 I weighed into their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, silver articles weighing one hundred talents, one hundred talents of gold,
27 twenty gold basins worth a thousand drachmas, and two vessels of fine polished bronze, precious as gold.
28 And I said to them, "You are [a]holy[1] to the LORD; the articles are [b]holy also; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering to the LORD God of your fathers.
29 "Watch and keep them until you weigh them before the leaders of the priests and the Levites and [a]heads of the fathers' houses of Israel in Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD."
30 So the priests and the Levites received the silver and the gold and the articles by weight, to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God.

The Return to Jerusalem

31 Then we departed from the river of Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go to Jerusalem. And [a]the hand of our God was upon us, and He delivered us from the hand of the enemy and from ambush along the road.
32 So we [a]came to Jerusalem, and stayed there three days.
33 Now on the fourth day the silver and the gold and the articles were [a]weighed in the house of our God by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest, and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; with them were the Levites, [b]Jozabad the son of Jeshua and Noadiah the son of Binnui,
34 with the number and weight of everything. All the weight was written down at that time.
35 The children of those who had been [a]carried away captive, who had come from the captivity, [b]offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel: twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, and twelve male goats as a sin offering. All this was a burnt offering to the LORD.
36 And they delivered the king's [a]orders to the king's satraps and the governors in the region beyond [1]the River. So they gave support to the people and the [2]house of God.

Intermarriage with Pagans

9 When these things were done, the leaders came to me, saying, "The people of Israel and the priests and the Levites have not [a]separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, [b]with respect to the abominations of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.
2 "For they have [a]taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and their sons, so that the [b]holy seed is [c]mixed with the peoples of those lands. Indeed, the hand of the leaders and

8:21 Fasting was an act of humiliation and dependence on God. While God's people were commanded to fast as a group only on the Day of Atonement, the practice became more widespread after the Babylonian exile (Neh. 9:1, Esth. 4:3, Zech. 7:3–5).

rulers has been foremost in this [1]trespass."
3 So when I heard this thing, [a]I tore my garment and my robe, and plucked out some of the hair of my head and beard, and sat down [b]astonished.
4 Then everyone who [a]trembled at the words of the God of Israel assembled to me, because of the transgression of those who had been carried away captive, and I sat astonished until the [b]evening sacrifice.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ezra 9:4

Trembling at God's Word

Righteous people tremble at God's word because they know it is their life. It is a dangerous thing to be reckless with God's laws.

5 At the evening sacrifice I arose from my fasting; and having torn my garment and my robe, I fell on my knees and [a]spread out my hands to the LORD my God.
6 And I said: "O my God, I am too [a]ashamed and humiliated to lift up my face to You, my God; for [b]our iniquities have risen higher than our heads, and our guilt has [c]grown up to the heavens.
7 "Since the days of our fathers to this day [a]we have been very guilty, and for our iniquities [b]we, our kings, and our priests have been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the [c]sword, to captivity, to plunder, and to [d]humiliation,[1] as it is this day.
8 "And now for a little while grace has been shown from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a peg in His holy place, that our God may [a]enlighten our eyes and give us a measure of revival in our bondage.
9 [a]"For we were slaves. [b]Yet our God did not forsake us in our bondage; but [c]He extended mercy to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to revive us, to repair the house of our God, to rebuild its ruins, and to give us [d]a wall in Judah and Jerusalem.
10 "And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken Your commandments, 11 "which You commanded by Your servants the prophets, saying, 'The land which you are entering to possess is an unclean land, with the [a]uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, with their abominations which have filled it from one end to another with their impurity.
12 'Now therefore, [a]do not give your daughters as wives for their sons, nor take their daughters to your sons; and [b]never seek their peace or prosperity, that you may be strong and eat the good of the land, and [c]leave it as an inheritance to your children forever.'
13 "And after all that has come upon us for our evil deeds and for our great guilt, since You our God [a]have punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and have given us such deliverance as this,
14 "should we [a]again break Your commandments, and [b]join in marriage with the people committing these abominations? Would You not be [c]angry with us until You had [1]consumed us, so that there would be no remnant or survivor?
15 "O LORD God of Israel, [a]You are righteous, for we are left as a remnant, as it is this day. [b]Here we are before You, [c]in our guilt, though no one can stand before You because of this!"

Confession of Improper Marriages

10 Now [a]while Ezra was praying, and while he was confessing, weeping, and bowing down [b]before the house of God, a very large assembly of men, women, and children gathered to him from Israel; for the people wept very [c]bitterly.

One person's sorrow for sin can bring an entire community to repentance before God.

WORD*Study* REMNANT

Ezra 9:8 A remnant (Hebrew sha'ar) means something left behind. It can refer to that which remains after a tragedy or a disaster. The Old Testament remnant meant those who survived God's punishment of His people at the hand of the Babylonians and eventually returned to Jerusalem. The prophet Amos identified the remnant as the minority of people who remained faithful to God (Amos 5:15). Isaiah spoke of a remnant who would one day be gathered from all over the world to worship the Messiah (Is. 11:10–12). While it may sometimes appear as if everyone has turned away from God, be assured that God maintains a remnant of the faithful who continue to follow Him (1 Kin. 19:10, 18).

9:7 "Humiliation" is literally "shame of face."
9:8 "Peg" could be translated "firm place."

2 And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, spoke up and said to Ezra, "We have [a]trespassed[1] against our God, and have taken pagan wives from the peoples of the land; yet now there is hope in Israel in spite of this.
3 "Now therefore, let us make [a]a covenant with our God to put away all these wives and those who have been born to them, according to the advice of my master and of those who [b]tremble at [c]the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the [d]law.
4 "Arise, for this matter is your responsibility. We also are with you. [a]Be of good courage, and do it."
5 Then Ezra arose, and made the leaders of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel [a]swear an oath that they would do according to this word. So they swore an oath.
6 Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib; and when he came there, he [a]ate no bread and drank no water, for he mourned because of the guilt of those from the captivity.
7 And they issued a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the descendants of the captivity, that they must gather at Jerusalem,
8 and that whoever would not come within three days, according to the instructions of the leaders and elders, all his property would be confiscated, and he himself would be separated from the assembly of those from the captivity.
9 So all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered at Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth of the month; and [a]all the people sat in the open square of the house of God, trembling because of this matter and because of heavy rain.
10 Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, "You have [1]transgressed and [2]have taken pagan wives, adding to the guilt of Israel.
11 "Now therefore, [a]make confession to the LORD God of your fathers, and do His will; [b]separate yourselves from the peoples of the land, and from the pagan wives."
12 Then all the assembly answered and said with a loud voice, "Yes! As you have said, so we must do.
13 "But there are many people; it is the season for heavy rain, and we are not able to stand outside. Nor is this the work of one or two days, for there are many of us who have transgressed in this matter.
14 "Please, let the leaders of our entire assembly stand; and let all those in our cities who have taken pagan wives come at appointed times, together with the elders and judges of their cities, until [a]the fierce wrath of our God is turned away from us in this matter."
15 Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah opposed this, and [a]Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite gave them support.
16 Then the descendants of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain [a]heads of the fathers' households, were set apart by the fathers' households, each of them by name; and they sat down on the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter.
17 By the first day of the first month they finished questioning all the men who had taken pagan wives.

Pagan Wives Put Away

18 And among the sons of the priests who had taken pagan wives the following were found of the sons of [a]Jeshua the son of [1]Jozadak, and his brothers: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah.
19 And they [a]gave their promise that they would put away their wives; and being [b]guilty, they presented a ram of the flock as their [c]trespass offering.
20 Also of the sons of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah;
21 of the sons of Harim: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel, and Uzziah;

Confess and Do

Genuine confession leads to action. When we recognize how far we have strayed from God's commands, our immediate desire is to begin doing His will.

10:8 Sometimes God's people needed motivating to obey God's commands. Learning the consequences for disobedience provided a powerful impetus to obey. Confiscating property from those who did not attend the called meeting was ample motivation.

10:9 This would have occurred roughly four months after Ezra's arrival in Jerusalem.

10:19 "Put away" means to sever, separate, and send away. It does not necessarily mean people were killed, but they were ostracized from the community to maintain national purity both genetically and religiously.

THE BOOK OF NEHEMIAH

INTRODUCTION

This book is named for its principal character. Nehemiah, son of Hachaliah, lived in Susa, a royal city of the Persian empire. His Jewish ancestors were carried into exile after the Babylonian defeat of Judah in 587 B.C. After King Cyrus of Persia conquered Babylon in 539, the Jewish people's fate seemingly rested in the hands of the Persians. Like Ezra and Esther, Nehemiah was strategically placed in a position of political influence. As cupbearer for King Artaxerxes, Nehemiah was trusted by the most powerful political leader of his day. Commissioned by the king, Nehemiah went to Jerusalem in about 445 and led his people to construct a wall around the city. Nehemiah served as governor of the Judean province for twelve years before returning to Persia in 432 (13:6). Nehemiah revisited Jerusalem around 425. During that time he launched several reforms: restoring the tithe to provide for the priesthood, discouraging commerce on the Sabbath, and strongly condemning the practice of intermarriage with foreigners.

SIGNIFICANCE

The Book of Nehemiah demonstrates God's sovereignty over history. While the world superpowers, the Assyrians, the Babylonians, and the Persians, each rose to global preeminence, scripture reveals they were all instruments in the hands of almighty God. Nehemiah also highlights the crucial role laypeople play in God's kingdom. Nehemiah brought safety to God's people through the construction of Jerusalem's wall. He brought stability to Israel's worship and he helped save his people from inevitable extinction by urging them not to intermarry with the pagan peoples surrounding them. Nehemiah's zeal for God's law helped solidify his people's commitment to their Lord, preserving God's people in their faith. Nehemiah reveals the practicality of prayer in the believer's life. Nehemiah, though a capable leader and a pragmatic politician, prayed constantly (1:4–11; 2:4; 4:4, 5, 9; 5:19; 6:9, 14; 13:14, 22, 29, 31). This book emphasizes the need for God's people to remain holy and set apart. Intermarriage with nonbelievers would threaten the spiritual stability of future generations. Moreover, the book stresses the importance of scripture. Nehemiah refused to accommodate modern business or social practices when they contradicted clear biblical teachings. When Nehemiah taught God's word, revival took place (8:9—9:4). By carefully following scripture, Nehemiah reintroduced the Feast of Tabernacles, or Pentecost, which would be a significant event for Jesus' disciples after His resurrection and ascension.

STRUCTURE

The Book of Nehemiah was originally included with Ezra as one book in the ancient Hebrew Bible. Nehemiah is best understood in the context of history as presented in the Book of Ezra. Zerubbabel led the first return of Jewish exiles back to Jerusalem after the decree of Cyrus in 538 B.C. Even before rebuilding the temple, Zerubbabel first constructed an altar upon which to commence worship (Ezra 3:1–3). When enemies opposed these efforts, construction of the temple ceased until the preaching of the prophets Haggai and Zechariah in 520 and the favorable decree of King Darius. Ezra arrived in Jerusalem with a second group of exiles in 458 and initiated religious reforms. Nehemiah, upon hearing that the city walls had not been restored, arrived in Jerusalem in 445, thirteen years after Ezra. King Artaxerxes, having murdered his brother to gain the throne, was not a follower of the true God, but he commissioned two of the most effective religious leaders in Jerusalem's history—Ezra and Nehemiah.

The book can be divided into four main parts. Section One: Nehemiah's arrival in Jerusalem and the rebuilding of the city walls

(1:1—7:73). Section Two: The reading of God's word by Ezra and the religious leaders, leading to revival among God's people (8:1—10:39). Section Three: Information concerning the Jewish population (11:1—12:26). Section Four: Dedication of the wall and reforms instituted by Nehemiah (12:27—13:31). Although sections of Nehemiah are in the first person and may have come from Nehemiah's journal (1:1—7:5; 12:27–43; 13:4–31), tradition suggests that Ezra ultimately compiled the materials of this book.

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH NEHEMIAH

As you read the Book of Nehemiah, contemplate whether God has placed you, too, in a strategic position for His purposes. If you are a layperson, seeing how God uses laypeople mightily for His kingdom purposes may further inspire you to seek His activity where you live and work. Nehemiah constantly voiced prayers to God throughout the course of his day's activities. He was also passionate about obeying God's word. His example can compel you, too, to order your life by God's guidance. Seeing Nehemiah's successes despite constant enemy attacks and criticism should give you hope when you face resistance to your efforts. Finally, knowing how God used one person to bless thousands of God's people, you may want to ask God what He intends to do through your life to encourage and strengthen people in your day.

Nehemiah Prays for His People

CHAPTER 1

1 THE words of [a]Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah.

It came to pass in the month of Chislev, in the [b]twentieth year, as I was in [c]Shushan[1] the [2]citadel,

2 that [a]Hanani one of my brethren came with men from Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews who had escaped, who had survived the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

3 And they said to me, "The survivors who are left from the captivity in the [a]province are there in great distress and [b]reproach. [c]The wall of Jerusalem [d]is also broken down, and its gates are burned with fire."

4 So it was, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned for many days; I was fasting and praying before the God of heaven.

5 And I said: "I pray, [a]LORD God of heaven, O great and [b]awesome God, [c]You who keep Your covenant and mercy with those who love [1]You and observe [2]Your commandments,

6 "please let Your ear be attentive and [a]Your eyes open, that You may hear the prayer of Your servant which I pray before You now, day and night, for the children of Israel Your servants, and [b]confess the sins of the children of Israel which we have sinned against You. Both my father's house and I have sinned.

7 [a]"We have acted very corruptly against You, and have [b]not kept the commandments, the statutes, nor the ordinances which You commanded Your servant Moses.

8 "Remember, I pray, the word that You commanded Your servant Moses, saying, [a]'If you [1]are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the nations;

CHARACTER Study — NEHEMIAH — Neh. 1:1

Nehemiah grew up in exile due to Babylon's destruction of Jerusalem. His name means "The Lord Comforts." Nehemiah rose to prominence in the Persian empire, eventually serving as the king's cupbearer. This was a position of extreme confidence and respect, as the king literally trusted his cupbearer with his life. Nehemiah, a layman, was both a man of prayer and a man of reflective action. He was later appointed governor of Judah by King Artaxerxes. Through this position he led his discouraged countrymen to rebuild the walls of Jerusalem in only fifty-two days. Nehemiah was also instrumental in bringing revival to his people as he called them to return to God's commands found in His word. Nehemiah's life demonstrates what is possible when laypeople yield to God's lordship and submit to His will for their lives.

1:1 Chislev was a Babylonian name for the ninth month of the Jewish calendar. Shushan (Susa) was the administrative capital of Persia, located 150 miles north of the Persian Gulf. It may also have been the city where Queen Esther lived.

1:3 The wall of Jerusalem protected its citizens from enemies and marauding groups. It represented safety. A city's broken wall brought great shame and humiliation to its people.

ENCOUNTER Note Neh. 1:7

Repentance

When we become alarmed at the condition of God's people, our first response should be our own personal repentance. True intercessors identify with those for whom they are interceding. They share in God's judgment on His people.

9 [a]'but if you return to Me, and keep My commandments and do them, [b]though some of you were cast out to the farthest part of the heavens, yet I will gather them from there, and bring them to the place which I have chosen as a dwelling for My name.'
10 [a]"Now these are Your servants and Your people, whom You have redeemed by Your great power, and by Your strong hand.
11 "O Lord, I pray, please [a]let Your ear be attentive to the prayer of Your servant, and to the prayer of Your servants who [b]desire to fear Your name; and let Your servant prosper this day, I pray, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man." For I was the king's [c]cupbearer.

Nehemiah Sent to Judah

2 And it came to pass in the month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of [a]King [1]Artaxerxes, when wine was before him, that [b]I took the wine and gave it to the king. Now I had never been sad in his presence before.
2 Therefore the king said to me, "Why is your face sad, since you are not sick? This is nothing but [a]sorrow of heart." So I became [1]dreadfully afraid,
3 and said to the king, [a]"May the king live forever! Why should my face not be sad, when [b]the city, the place of my fathers' tombs, lies waste, and its gates are burned with [c]fire?"
4 Then the king said to me, "What do you request?" So I [a]prayed to the God of heaven.
5 And I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favor in your sight, I ask that you send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers' tombs, that I may rebuild it."
6 Then the king said to me (the queen also sitting beside him), "How long will your journey be? And when will you return?" So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him [a]a time.
7 Furthermore I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, let letters be given to me for the [a]governors of the region beyond [1]the River, that they must permit me to pass through till I come to Judah,
8 "and a letter to Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he must give me timber to make beams for the gates of the [1]citadel which pertains [a]to the [2]temple, for the city wall, and for the house that I will occupy." And the king granted them to me [b]according to the good hand of my God upon me.
9 Then I went to the governors in the region beyond the River, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.
10 When [a]Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite [1]official heard of it, they were deeply disturbed that a man had come to seek the well-being of the children of Israel.

Nehemiah Views the Wall of Jerusalem

11 So I [a]came to Jerusalem and was there three days.
12 Then I arose in the night, I and a few men with me; I told no one what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem; nor was there any animal with me, except the one on which I rode.

2:1 Nisan was the Babylonian name for the first month of the Jewish calendar. This would be around March/April, roughly four months after Nehemiah first heard of Jerusalem's condition. The twentieth year of King Artaxerxes was 445 B.C.

2:6 King Artaxerxes' official queen was Damaspia.

2:10 Sanballat may have been from Beth Horon, eighteen miles northwest of Jerusalem.

no room for the animal under me to pass.
15 So I went up in the night by the [a]valley,[1] and [2]viewed the wall; then I turned back and entered by the Valley Gate, and so returned.
16 And the officials did not know where I had gone or what I had done; I had not yet told the Jews, the priests, the nobles, the officials, or the others who did the work.
17 Then I said to them, "You see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lies [1]waste, and its gates are burned with fire. Come and let us build the wall of Jerusalem, that we may no longer be [a]a reproach."
18 And I told them of [a]the hand of my God which had been good upon me, and also of the king's words that he had spoken to me. So they said, "Let us rise up and build." Then they [b]set[1] their hands to this good work.

20 So I answered them, and said to them, "The God of heaven Himself will prosper us; therefore we His servants will arise and build, [a]but you have no heritage or right or memorial in Jerusalem."

Rebuilding the Wall

3 Then [a]Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests [b]and built the Sheep Gate; they consecrated it and hung its doors. They built [c]as far as the Tower of [1]the Hundred, and consecrated it, then as far as the Tower of [d]Hananel.

9 And next to them Rephaiah the son of Hur, leader of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs.
10 Next to them Jedaiah the son of Harumaph made repairs in front of his house. And next to him Hattush the son of Hashabniah made repairs.
11 Malchijah the son of Harim and Hashub the son of Pahath-Moab repaired another section, [a]as well as the Tower of the Ovens.
12 And next to him was Shallum the son of Hallohesh, leader of half the district of Jerusalem; he and his daughters made repairs.
13 Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired [a]the Valley Gate. They built it, hung its doors with its bolts and bars, and repaired a thousand cubits of the wall as far as [b]the Refuse Gate.
14 Malchijah the son of Rechab, leader of the district of [a]Beth Haccerem, repaired the Refuse Gate; he built it and hung its doors with its bolts and bars.
15 Shallun the son of Col-Hozeh, leader of the district of Mizpah, repaired [a]the Fountain Gate; he built it, covered it, hung its doors with its bolts and bars, and repaired the wall of the Pool of [b]Shelah[1] by the [c]King's Garden, as far 17 After him the Levites, under Rehum the son of Bani, made repairs. Next to him Hashabiah, leader of half the district of Keilah, made repairs for his district.

18 After him their brethren, under [1]Bavai the son of Henadad, leader of the other half of the district of Keilah, made repairs.
19 And next to him Ezer the son of Jeshua, the leader of Mizpah, repaired another section in front of the Ascent to the Armory at the [a]buttress.[1]
20 After him Baruch the son of [1]Zabbai carefully repaired the other section, from the [2]buttress to the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest.
21 After him Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of [1]Koz, repaired another section, from the door of the house of Eliashib to the end of the house of Eliashib.
22 And after him the priests, the men of the plain, made repairs.
23 After him Benjamin and Hasshub made repairs opposite their house. After them Azariah the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ananiah, made repairs by his house.
24 After him [a]Binnui the son of Henadad repaired another section, from the house of Azariah to [b]the [1]buttress, even as far as the corner.
25 Palal the son of Uzai made repairs opposite the [1]buttress, and on the tower which projects from the king's upper house that was by the [a]court of the prison. After him Pedaiah the son of Parosh made repairs.
26 Moreover [a]the Nethinim who dwelt in [b]Ophel made repairs as far as the place in front of [c]the Water Gate toward the east, and on the projecting tower.
27 After them the Tekoites repaired another section, next to the great projecting tower, and as far as the wall of Ophel.
28 Beyond the [a]Horse Gate the priests made repairs, each in front of his own house.
29 After them Zadok the son of Immer made repairs in front of his own house.
After him Shemaiah the son of Shechaniah, the keeper of the East Gate, made repairs.
30 After him Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun, the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another section. After him Meshullam the son of Berechiah made repairs in front of his [1]dwelling.
31 After him Malchijah, [1]one of the goldsmiths, made repairs as far as the house of the Nethinim and of the merchants, in front of the [2]Miphkad Gate, and as far as the upper room at the corner.
32 And between the upper room at the corner, as far as the [a]Sheep Gate, the goldsmiths and the merchants made repairs.

The Wall Defended Against Enemies

4 But it so happened, [a]when Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, that he was furious and very indignant, and mocked the Jews.
2 And he spoke before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, "What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they fortify themselves? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they complete it in a day? Will they revive the stones from the heaps of rubbish—stones that are burned?"
3 Now [a]Tobiah the Ammonite was beside him, and he said, "Whatever they build, if even a fox goes up on it, he will break down their stone wall."
4 [a]Hear, O our God, for we are despised; [b]turn their reproach on their own heads, and give them as plunder to a land of captivity!
5 [a]Do not cover their iniquity, and do not let their sin be blotted out from before You; for they have provoked You to anger before the builders.
6 So we built the wall, and the entire wall was joined together up to half its height, for the people had a mind to work.

Prayer of Faith

What you do next after you pray reveals what you believe about God. A prayer followed by faithful action demonstrates trust in God.

4:1 It should not be surprising that evil people get angry when their plans to intimidate God's people do not succeed.

Jerusalem were being restored and the [1]gaps were beginning to be closed, that they became very angry,
8 and all of them [a]conspired together to come and attack Jerusalem and create confusion.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Neh. 4:7, 8

Opposition Assured

Opposition to God's work is inevitable. God's enemies feel threatened by the growth of His kingdom, so they will move swiftly and rigorously to stop it. Expect ridicule, injustice, and even threats when you labor for the Lord.

9 Nevertheless [a]we made our prayer to our God, and because of them we set a watch against them day and night.
10 Then Judah said, "The strength of the laborers is failing, and there is so much rubbish that we are not able to build the wall."
11 And our adversaries said, "They will neither know nor see anything, till we come into their midst and kill them and cause the work to cease."
12 So it was, when the Jews who dwelt near them came, that they told us ten times, "From whatever place you turn, they will be upon us."
13 Therefore I positioned men behind the lower parts of the wall, at the openings; and I set the people according to their families, with their swords, their spears, and their bows.
14 And I looked, and arose and said to the nobles, to the leaders, and to the rest of the people, [a]"Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, [b]great and awesome, and [c]fight for your brethren, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your houses."
15 And it happened, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and [a]that God had brought their plot to nothing, that all of us returned to the wall, everyone to his work.
16 So it was, from that time on, that half of my servants worked at construction, while the other half held the spears, the shields, the bows, and wore armor; and the leaders [1]were behind all the house of Judah.
17 Those who built on the wall, and those who carried burdens, loaded themselves so that with one hand they worked at construction, and with the other held a weapon.
18 Every one of the builders had his sword girded at his side as he built. And the one who sounded the trumpet was beside me.
19 Then I said to the nobles, the rulers, and the rest of the people, "The work is great and extensive, and we are separated far from one another on the wall.
20 "Wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet, rally to us there. [a]Our God will fight for us."
21 So we labored in the work, and half of [1]the men held the spears from daybreak until the stars appeared.
22 At the same time I also said to the people, "Let each man and his servant stay at night in Jerusalem, that they may be our guard by night and a working party by day."
23 So neither I, my brethren, my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me took off our clothes, except that everyone took them off for washing.

Nehemiah Deals with Oppression

5 And there was a great [a]outcry of the people and their wives against their [b]Jewish brethren.
2 For there were those who said, "We, our sons, and our daughters are many; therefore let us get grain, that we may eat and live."
3 There were also some who said, "We have mortgaged our lands and vineyards and houses, that we might buy grain because of the famine."
4 There were also those who said, "We have borrowed money for the king's tax on our lands and vineyards.
5 "Yet now [a]our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children; and indeed we [b]are forcing our sons and our daughters to be slaves, and some of our daughters have been brought into slavery. It is not in our power to redeem them, for other men have our lands and vineyards."
6 And I became very angry when I heard their outcry and these words.
7 After serious thought, I rebuked the nobles and rulers, and said to them, [a]"Each of you is [1]exacting usury from his brother." So I [2]called a great assembly against them.
8 And I said to them, "According to our ability we have [a]redeemed our Jewish brethren who were sold to the nations. Now indeed, will you even sell your brethren? Or should they be sold to us?" Then they were silenced and found nothing to say.

9 Then I said, "What you are doing is not good. Should you not walk [a]in the fear of our God [b]because of the reproach of the nations, our enemies?

ENCOUNTER*Note* Neh. 5:9

Walking Blamelessly

Whether we acknowledge it or not, God will call us to account for our actions. Although our love for God should motivate us to live upright lives, the knowledge of our accountability also ought to keep us on the blameless path.

10 "I also, with my brethren and my servants, am lending them money and grain. Please, let us stop this [1]usury!
11 "Restore now to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their olive groves, and their houses, also a hundredth of the money and the grain, the new wine and the oil, that you have charged them."
12 So they said, "We will restore it, and will require nothing from them; we will do as you say." Then I called the priests, [a]and required an oath from them that they would do according to this promise.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Neh. 5:12

Responding to Rebukes

A wise man or woman accepts a rebuke with humility and repentance. God blesses the humble and contrite, but His hand is against the proud.

13 Then [a]I shook out [1]the fold of my garment and said, "So may God shake out each man from his house, and from his property, who does not perform this promise. Even thus may he be shaken out and emptied." And all the assembly said, "Amen!" and praised the LORD. [b]Then the people did according to this promise.

The Generosity of Nehemiah

14 Moreover, from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year [a]until the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes, twelve years, neither I nor my brothers [b]ate the governor's provisions.
15 But the former governors who were before me laid burdens on the people, and took from them bread and wine, besides forty shekels of silver. Yes, even their servants bore rule over the people, but [a]I did not do so, because of the [b]fear of God.
16 Indeed, I also continued the [a]work on this wall, and [1]we did not buy any land. All my servants were gathered there for the work.
17 And [a]at my table were one hundred and fifty Jews and rulers, besides those who came to us from the nations around us.
18 Now that [a]which was prepared daily was one ox and six choice sheep. Also fowl were prepared for me, and once every ten days an abundance of all kinds of wine. Yet in spite of this [b]I did not demand the governor's provisions, because the bondage was heavy on this people.
19 [a]Remember me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

Conspiracy Against Nehemiah

6 Now it happened [a]when Sanballat, Tobiah, [1]Geshem the Arab, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had rebuilt the wall, and that there were no breaks left in it [b](though at that time I had not hung the doors in the gates),
2 that Sanballat and [1]Geshem [a]sent to me, saying, "Come, let us meet together [2]among the villages in the plain of [b]Ono." But they [c]thought to do me harm.
3 So I sent messengers to them, saying, "I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down. Why should the work cease while I leave it and go down to you?"

5:10 "Usury" involves charging high rates of interest on a loan and demanding forfeiture of property for debtors who default on repayment.

5:18 As governor, Nehemiah could have rightfully demanded taxes, food, and provisions from the people to increase his holdings and ease his workload. Requiring his own servants to also work on the wall and forfeiting his benefits demonstrated his character and noble motives.

6:2 Ono was seven miles east of Joppa.

4 But they sent me this message four times, and I answered them in the same manner.
5 Then Sanballat sent his servant to me as before, the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand.
6 In it was written:

> It is reported among the nations, > and [1]Geshem says, that you and the Jews plan to rebel; therefore,
> according to these rumors, you are rebuilding the wall, [a]that you may be their king.
> 7 And you have also appointed prophets to proclaim concerning you at Jerusalem, saying, "There is a king in Judah!" Now these matters will be reported to the king. So come, therefore, and let us consult together.

8 Then I sent to him, saying, "No such things as you say are being done, but you invent them in your own heart."
9 For they all were trying to make us afraid, saying, "Their hands will be weakened in the work, and it will not be done."

Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.

10 Afterward I came to the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, who was a secret informer; and he said, "Let us meet together in the house of God, within the [1]temple, and let us close the doors of the temple, for they are coming to kill you; indeed, at night they will come to kill you."
11 And I said, "Should such a man as I flee? And who is there such as I who would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in!"
12 Then I perceived that God had not sent him at all, but that [a]he pronounced this prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.
13 For this reason he was hired, that I should be afraid and act that way and sin, so that they might have cause for an evil report, that they might reproach me.
14 [a]My God, remember Tobiah and Sanballat, according to these their works, and the [b]prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets who would have made me afraid.

The Wall Completed

15 So the wall was finished on the twenty-fifth day of Elul, in fifty-two days.
16 And it happened, [a]when all our enemies heard of it, and all the nations around us saw these things, that they were very disheartened in their own eyes; for [b]they perceived that this work was done by our God.

God's Work

When we do God's work, His way and in His time, even unbelievers will recognize God's hand in what was accomplished. He will be glorified even before His enemies.

17 Also in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came to them.
18 For many in Judah were pledged to him, because he was the [a]son-in-law of Shechaniah the son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of [b]Meshullam the son of Berechiah.
19 Also they reported his good deeds before me, and reported my [1]words to him. Tobiah sent letters to frighten me.

7 Then it was, when the wall was built and I had [a]hung the doors, when the gatekeepers, the singers, and the Levites had been appointed,
2 that I gave the charge of Jerusalem to my brother [a]Hanani, and Hananiah the leader [b]of the [1]citadel, for he was a faithful man and [c]feared God more than many.

3 And I said to them, "Do not let the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun is hot; and while they stand guard, let them shut and bar the doors; and appoint guards from among the inhabitants of Jerusalem, one at his watch station and another in front of his own house."

sons of Sotai, the sons of Sophereth, the sons of [1]Perida, 58 the sons of Jaala, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel,
59 the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth of Zebaim, and the sons of [1]Amon.
60 All the Nethinim, and the sons of Solomon's servants, were three hundred and ninety-two.
61 And these were the ones who came up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Cherub, [1]Addon, and Immer, but they could not identify their father's house nor their lineage, whether they were of Israel:
62 the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda, six hundred and forty-two;
63 and of the priests: the sons of Habaiah, the sons of [1]Koz, the sons of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called by their name.
64 These sought their listing among those who were registered by genealogy, but it was not found; therefore they were excluded from the priesthood as defiled.
65 And the [1]governor said to them that they should not eat of the most holy things till a priest could consult with the Urim and Thummim.

WORD*Study* URIM AND THUMMIM

Neh. 7:65 Urim means "Light" and Thummim means "Perfection." Though there is no description available of what these actually were, they were probably special stones kept under the golden breastplate of judgment worn by the high priest. They, together with the breastplate, were used by the priest to obtain God's counsel in matters where no previous instruction had been given (Ex. 28:15, 30; Num. 27:21).

66 Altogether the whole assembly was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty,
67 besides their male and female servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven; and they had two hundred and forty-five men and women singers.
68 Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules two hundred and forty-five,
69 their camels four hundred and thirty-five, and donkeys six thousand seven hundred and twenty.
70 And some of the heads of the fathers' houses gave to the work. [a]The [1]governor gave to the treasury one thousand gold drachmas, fifty basins, and five hundred and thirty priestly garments.
71 Some of the heads of the fathers' houses gave to the treasury of the work [a]twenty thousand gold drachmas, and two thousand two hundred silver minas.
72 And that which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand gold drachmas, two thousand silver minas, and sixty-seven priestly garments.

73 So the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, some of the people, the Nethinim, and all Israel dwelt in their cities.

Ezra Reads the Law

[a]When the seventh month came, the children of Israel were in their cities.
8 Now all [a]the people gathered together as one man in the open square that was [b]in front of the Water Gate; and they told Ezra the [c]scribe to bring the Book of the Law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded Israel.
2 So Ezra the priest brought [a]the Law before the assembly of men and women and all who could hear with understanding [b]on the first day of the seventh month.
3 Then he [a]read from it in the open square that was in front of the Water Gate [1]from morning until midday, before the men and women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the Book of the Law.
4 So Ezra the scribe stood on a platform of wood which they had made for the purpose; and beside him, at his right hand, stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Urijah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah; and at his left hand Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam.
5 And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people [a]stood up.
6 And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. Then all the people [a]answered,

8:1 "As one man" indicates their unity of heart and mind and their determination to act as a community of faith.

8:3 The area surrounding the Water Gate was large enough to hold such a crowd. During the six hours of reading, the priests would have also provided explanations and teachings to the people.

"Amen, Amen!" while [b]lifting up their hands. And they [c]bowed their heads and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground.
7 Also Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, [a]helped the people to understand the Law; and the people [b]stood in their place.
8 So they read distinctly from the book, in the Law of God; and they gave the sense, and helped them to understand the reading.
9 [a]And Nehemiah, who was the [1]governor, Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, [b]"This day is holy to the LORD your God; [c]do not mourn nor weep." For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the Law.

ENCOUNTER Note Neh. 8:9

Changed

How can we remain indifferent to a clear presentation of God's word? It may disturb us. It may encourage us. It will convict us, heal us, even break us, but it should never leave us unmoved.

10 Then he said to them, "Go your way, eat the fat, drink the sweet, [a]and send portions to those for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord. Do not sorrow, for the joy of the LORD is your strength."
11 So the Levites quieted all the people, saying, "Be still, for the day is holy; do not be grieved."
12 And all the people went their way to eat and drink, to [a]send portions and rejoice greatly, because they [b]understood the words that were declared to them.

The Feast of Tabernacles

13 Now on the second day the heads of the fathers' houses of all the people, with the priests and Levites, were gathered to Ezra the scribe, in order to understand the words of the Law.
14 And they found written in the Law, which the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in [a]booths[1] during the feast of the seventh month,
15 and [a]that they should announce and proclaim in all their cities and [b]in Jerusalem, saying, "Go out to the mountain, and [c]bring olive branches, branches of oil trees, myrtle branches, palm branches, and branches of leafy trees, to make booths, as it is written."
16 Then the people went out and brought them and made themselves booths, each one on the [a]roof of his house, or in their courtyards or the courts of the house of God, and in the open square of the [b]Water Gate [c]and in the open square of the Gate of Ephraim.
17 So the whole assembly of those who had returned from the captivity made [1]booths and sat under the booths; for since the days of Joshua the son of Nun until that day the children of Israel had not done so. And there was very [a]great gladness.
18 Also [a]day by day, from the first day until the last day, he read from the Book of the Law of God. And they kept the feast [b]seven days; and on the [c]eighth day there was a sacred assembly, according to the prescribed manner.

The People Confess Their Sins

9 Now on the twenty-fourth day of [a]this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, in sackcloth, [b]and with [1]dust on their heads.
2 Then [a]those of Israelite lineage separated themselves from all foreigners; and they stood and [b]confessed their sins and the iniquities of their fathers.

ENCOUNTER Note Neh. 9:2

Genuine Repentance

True repentance involves personal reflection, confession, and humble submission. God is not obligated to forgive us, but He does so willingly out of His mercy, His grace, and His love.

3 And they stood up in their place and [a]read from the Book of the Law of the LORD their God for one-fourth of the day; and for another fourth they confessed and worshiped the LORD their God.
4 Then Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani stood on the [1]stairs of the Levites

8:15 The Feast of Tabernacles is described in Leviticus 23:33–43.

9:1 Traditional fasting involved more than abstaining from food. People would also humble themselves before God. Often they would wear uncomfortable clothing made from grain sacks and spread dirt on their heads to display complete humility and spiritual destitution (Esth. 4:1). The purpose of a fast was either confession or to seek God's special guidance (Is. 58; Zech. 7:5; Joel 2:12; Acts 13:2).

5 And the Levites, Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said:

"Stand up and bless the LORD your God
Forever and ever!

"Blessed be [a]Your glorious name,
Which is exalted above all blessing and praise!
6 [a]You alone are the LORD;
[b]You have made heaven,
[c]The heaven of heavens, with [d]all their host,
The earth and everything on it,
The seas and all that is in them,
And You [e]preserve them all.
The host of heaven worships You.

7 "You are the LORD God,
Who chose [a]Abram,
And brought him out of Ur of the Chaldeans,
And gave him the name [b]Abraham;
8 You found his heart [a]faithful before You,
And made a [b]covenant with him
To give the land of the Canaanites,
The Hittites, the Amorites,
The Perizzites, the Jebusites,
And the Girgashites—
To give it to his descendants.
You [c]have performed Your words,
For You are righteous.

9 "You[a] saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt,
And [b]heard their cry by the Red Sea.
10 You [a]showed signs and wonders against Pharaoh,
Against all his servants,
And against all the people of his land.
For You knew that they [b]acted [1]proudly against them.
So You [c]made a name for Yourself, as it is this day.
11 [a]And You divided the sea before them,
So that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land;
And their persecutors You threw into the deep,
[b]As a stone into the mighty waters.
12 Moreover You [a]led them by day with a cloudy pillar,
And by night with a pillar of fire,
To give them light on the road
Which they should travel.

And commanded them precepts, statutes and laws,
By the hand of Moses Your servant.
15 You [a]gave them bread from heaven for their hunger,

But they hardened their necks,

They appointed [b]a leader

Slow to anger,
Abundant in kindness,

You did not forsake them in the wilderness.
The [b]pillar of the cloud did not depart from them by day,

Nor the pillar of fire by night,

20 You also gave Your [a]good Spirit to instruct them,
And did not withhold Your [b]manna from their mouth,
And gave them [c]water for their thirst.

9:7–31 The people of Israel passed down an oral history that recounted stories of God's activity throughout past generations. This tradition had several purposes including instructing the young, renewing covenants, worshipping God, and increasing their faith so they would trust God for the future.

They lacked nothing;
Their [b]clothes did not wear out
And their feet did not swell.

22 "Moreover You gave them kingdoms and nations,
And divided them into [1]districts.
So they took possession of the land of [a]Sihon,
[2]The land of the king of Heshbon,
And the land of Og king of Bashan.
23 You also multiplied [a]their children
as the stars of heaven,
And brought them into the land
Which You had told their fathers
To go in and possess.
24 So [a]the [1]people went in
And possessed the land;
[b]You subdued before them the inhabitants of the land,
The Canaanites,
And gave them into their hands,
With their kings
And the people of the land,
That they might do with them as they wished.
25 And they took strong cities and a

And possessed [b]houses full of all

And killed Your [c]prophets, who

And they worked great

Who oppressed them;
And in the time of their trouble,
When they cried to You,
You [b]heard from heaven;
And according to Your abundant mercies
[c]You gave them deliverers who saved
them

ENCOUNTER*Note* Neh. 9:28

Many Times

It is a testimony of God's great patience that as many times as His people reverted to sin, then cried out in the midst of its consequences, He listened and readily forgave them once again.

You heard from heaven;
And [b]many times You delivered them according to Your mercies,
29 And [1]testified against them,
That You might bring them back to Your law.
Yet they acted [2]proudly,
And did not heed Your commandments,
But sinned against Your judgments,
[a]'Which if a man does, he shall live
by them.'
And they shrugged their shoulders,
[3]Stiffened their necks,
And would not hear.
30 Yet for many years You had patience
with them,
And [1]testified [a]against them by Your Spirit [b]in Your prophets.
Yet they would not listen;
[c]Therefore You gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands.
31 Nevertheless in Your great mercy
[a]You did not utterly consume them
nor forsake them;
For You are God, gracious and merciful.

32 "Now therefore, our God,
The great, the [a]mighty, and awesome God,
Who keeps covenant and mercy:
Do not let all the [1]trouble seem small before You
That has come upon us,
Our kings and our princes,
Our priests and our prophets,
Our fathers and on all Your people,
[b]From the days of the kings of Assyria until this day.
33 However [a]You are just in all that has befallen us;
For You have dealt faithfully,
But [b]we have done wickedly.
34 Neither our kings nor our princes,
Our priests nor our fathers,
Have kept Your law,
Nor heeded Your commandments
and Your testimonies,
With which You testified against
them.
35 For they have [a]not served You in their kingdom,

Or in the many good things that You gave them,
Or in the large and rich land which You set before them;
Nor did they turn from their wicked works.

36 "Here [a]we are, servants today!
And the land that You gave to our fathers,
To eat its fruit and its bounty,
Here we are, servants in it!
37 And [a]it yields much increase to the kings
You have set over us,
Because of our sins;
Also they have [b]dominion over our bodies and our cattle
At their pleasure;
And we are in great distress.

38 "And because of all this,
We [a]make a sure covenant and write it;
Our leaders, our Levites, and our priests [b]seal it."

The People Who Sealed the Covenant

10 Now those who placed their seal on the document were:
Nehemiah the [1]governor, [a]the son of Hacaliah, and Zedekiah,
2 [a]Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah,
3 Pashhur, Amariah, Malchijah,
4 Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch,
5 Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,
6 Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch,
7 Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin,
8 Maaziah, Bilgai, and Shemaiah. These were the priests.
9 The Levites: Jeshua the son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, and Kadmiel.
10 Their brethren: Shebaniah, Hodijah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan,
11 Micha, Rehob, Hashabiah,
12 Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,
13 Hodijah, Bani, and Beninu.
14 The leaders of the people: [a]Parosh, Pahath-Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani, 15 Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,
16 Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,
17 Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur,
18 Hodijah, Hashum, Bezai,
19 Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai,
20 Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,
21 Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua,
22 Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah,
23 Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub,
24 Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek,
25 Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah,
26 Ahijah, Hanan, Anan,
27 Malluch, Harim, and Baanah.

The Covenant That Was Sealed

28 [a]Now the rest of the people—the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the Nethinim, [b]and all those who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the Law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, everyone who had knowledge and understanding—
29 these joined with their brethren, their nobles, [a]and entered into a curse and an oath [b]to walk in God's Law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our Lord, and His ordinances and His statutes:

ENCOUNTER Note Neh. 10:29

Specific Obedience

God looks for obedience in action, not just in word. Submission is not seen in generalities but in specifics.

30 We would not give [a]our daughters as wives to the peoples of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons;
31 [a]if the peoples of the land brought [1]wares or any grain to sell on the Sabbath day, we would not buy it from them on the Sabbath, or on a holy day; and we would forego the [b]seventh year's produce and the [c]exacting[2] of every debt.
32 Also we made ordinances for ourselves, to exact from ourselves yearly [a]one-third of a shekel for the service of the house of our God:
33 for [a]the showbread, for the regular grain offering, for the [b]regular burnt offering of the Sabbaths, the New Moons, and the set feasts; for the holy things, for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and all the work of the house of our God.
34 We cast lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, [a]for bringing the wood offering into the house of our God, according to our fathers' houses, at the appointed times year by year, to 9:38 "Leaders, Levites, and priests" represented all aspects of society. The leaders of Nehemiah's day stood in stark contrast to previous leaders condemned by the prophets (Is. 1:4; Ezek. 2:4; Jer. 38:4; 43:4; Amos 2:4).

10:28 King Josiah had earlier instituted reforms by royal decree, but they had not made a lasting impact (2 Chr. 34:33). In Nehemiah's day, people from all walks of life, rich and poor, leaders and common people, participated in the reforms, invoking curses upon themselves should they fail to follow through on their commitments to God.

10:29 "Curse" translates the Hebrew word 'alah, meaning "oath, imprecation, execration," or "to swear." The people asked God to punish them should they break their covenant with Him.

35 And we made ordinances [a]to bring the firstfruits of our ground and the firstfruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, to the house of the LORD;
36 to bring the [a]firstborn of our sons and our cattle, as it is written in the Law, and the firstborn of our herds and our flocks, to the house of our God, to the priests who minister in the house of our God;
37 [a]to bring the firstfruits of our dough, our offerings, the fruit from all kinds of trees, the new wine and oil, to the priests, to the storerooms of the [1]house of our God; and to bring [b]the tithes of our land to the Levites, for the Levites should receive the tithes in all our farming communities.
38 And the priest, the descendant of Aaron, shall be with the Levites [a]when the Levites receive tithes; and the Levites shall bring up a tenth of the tithes to the house of our God, to [b]the rooms of the storehouse.
39 For the children of Israel and the children of Levi [a]shall bring the offering of the grain, of the new wine and the oil, to the storerooms where the articles of the sanctuary are, where the priests who minister and the gatekeepers [b]and the singers are; and we will not [c]neglect the house of our God.

The People Dwelling in Jerusalem

11 Now the leaders of the people dwelt at Jerusalem; the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of ten to dwell in Jerusalem, [a]the holy city, and nine-tenths were to dwell in other cities.
2 And the people blessed all the men who [a]willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Neh. 11:2

Willingly

God looks for those willing to adjust their lives to His will and to go anywhere, serve anyone, and endure anything He requires.

3 [a]These are the heads of the province who dwelt in Jerusalem. (But in the cities of Judah everyone dwelt in his own possession in their cities—Israelites, priests, Levites, [b]Nethinim, and [c]descendants of Solomon's servants.)
4 Also [a]in Jerusalem dwelt some of the children of Judah and of the children of Benjamin.

The children of Judah: Athaiah the son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, of the children of [b]Perez;
5 and Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Col-Hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shiloni.
6 All the sons of Perez who dwelt at Jerusalem were four hundred and sixty-eight valiant men.
7 And these are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiah;
8 and after him Gabbai and Sallai, nine hundred and twenty-eight.
9 Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer, and Judah the son of [1]Senuah was second over the city.
10 [a]Of the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, and Jachin;
11 Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, was the leader of the house of God.
12 Their brethren who did the work of the house were eight hundred and twenty-two; and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah,
13 and his brethren, heads of the fathers' houses, were two hundred and forty-two; and Amashai the son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer,
14 and their brethren, mighty men of valor, were one hundred and twenty-eight. Their overseer was Zabdiel [1]the son of one of the great men.
15 Also of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni;
16 [a]Shabbethai and [b]Jozabad, of the heads of the Levites, had the oversight of [c]the business outside of the [1]house of God;
17 Mattaniah the son of [1]Micha, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, the leader who began the thanksgiving with prayer; Bakbukiah, the second among his brethren; and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.
18 All the Levites in [a]the holy city were two hundred and eighty-four.

11:1 The tithe has often been used to represent a minimum measure of one's devotion to God (Gen. 14:18–20; 28:22; Num. 18:20–32; Mal. 3:8).

19 Moreover the gatekeepers, Akkub, Talmon, and their brethren who kept the gates, were one hundred and seventy-two.
20 And the rest of Israel, of the priests and Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, everyone in his inheritance.
21 [a]But the Nethinim dwelt in Ophel. And Ziha and Gishpa were over the Nethinim.
22 Also the overseer of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micha, of the sons of Asaph, the singers in charge of the [1]service of the [2]house of God.
23 For [a]it was the king's command concerning them that a [1]certain portion should be for the singers, a quota day by day.
24 Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, of the children of [a]Zerah the son of Judah, was [b]the[1] king's deputy in all matters concerning the people.

The People Dwelling Outside Jerusalem

25 And as for the villages with their fields, some of the children of Judah dwelt in [a]Kirjath Arba and its villages, Dibon and its villages, Jekabzeel and its villages;
26 in Jeshua, Moladah, Beth Pelet,
27 Hazar Shual, and Beersheba and its villages;
28 in Ziklag and Meconah and its villages;
29 in En Rimmon, Zorah, Jarmuth,
30 Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages; in Lachish and its fields; in Azekah and its villages. They dwelt from Beersheba to the Valley of Hinnom.
31 Also the children of Benjamin from Geba dwelt in Michmash, Aija, and Bethel, and their villages;
32 in Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah;
33 in Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim;
34 in Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat;
35 in Lod, Ono, and [a]the Valley of Craftsmen.
36 Some of the Judean divisions of Levites were in Benjamin.

The Priests and Levites

12 Now these are the [a]priests and the Levites who came up with [b]Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: [c]Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,
2 Amariah, [1]Malluch, Hattush,
3 [1]Shechaniah, [2]Rehum, [3]Meremoth,
4 Iddo, [1]Ginnethoi, [a]Abijah,
5 [1]Mijamin, [2]Maadiah, Bilgah,
6 Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah,
7 [1]Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, and Jedaiah.
These were the heads of the priests and their brethren in the days of [a]Jeshua.
8 Moreover the Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah [a]who led the thanksgiving psalms, he and his brethren.
9 Also Bakbukiah and Unni, their brethren, stood across from them in their duties.
10 Jeshua begot Joiakim, Joiakim begot Eliashib, Eliashib begot Joiada, 11 Joiada begot Jonathan, and Jonathan begot Jaddua.
12 Now in the days of Joiakim, the priests, the [a]heads of the fathers' houses were: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah;
13 of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan;
14 of [1]Melichu, Jonathan; of [2]Shebaniah, Joseph;
15 of [1]Harim, Adna; of [2]Meraioth, Helkai;
16 of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam;
17 of Abijah, Zichri; the son of [1]Minjamin; of [2]Moadiah, Piltai;
18 of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan;
19 of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi;
20 of [1]Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber;
21 of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; and of Jedaiah, Nethanel.
22 During the reign of Darius the Persian, a record was also kept of the Levites and priests who had been [a]heads of their fathers' houses in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua.
23 The sons of Levi, the heads of the fathers' houses until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib, were written in the book of the [a]chronicles.
24 And the heads of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brothers across from them, to [a]praise and give thanks, [b]group[1] alternating with group, [c]according to the command of David the man of God.

WORD*Study* GENEALOGIES

Neh. 12:1 Genealogies were extremely important to the Israelites, as they recorded not only from which tribe a person had come, but also the role each person played in the community. To serve as a priest, one had to be from a bloodline of priests originating from Aaron.

Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub were gatekeepers keeping the watch at the storerooms of the gates.
26 These lived in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of [1]Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah [a]the governor, and of Ezra the priest, [b]the scribe.

Nehemiah Dedicates the Wall

27 Now at [a]the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought out the Levites in all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem to celebrate the dedication with gladness, [b]both with thanksgivings and singing, with cymbals and stringed instruments and harps.
28 And the sons of the singers gathered together from the countryside around Jerusalem, from the [a]villages of the Netophathites,
29 from the house of Gilgal, and from the fields of Geba and Azmaveth; for the singers had built themselves villages all around Jerusalem.
30 Then the priests and Levites [a]purified themselves, and purified the people, the gates, and the wall.
31 So I brought the leaders of Judah up on the wall, and appointed two large thanksgiving choirs. [a]One went to the right hand on the wall [b]toward the Refuse Gate.

ENCOUNTER Note — Neh. 12:31

Thanksgiving Singing

Thanking God is not just an activity; it is a lifestyle. Each milestone God works in your life ought to evoke heartfelt expressions of gratitude.

32 After them went Hoshaiah and half of the leaders of Judah,
33 and Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam,
34 Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, Jeremiah,
35 and some of the priests' sons [a]with trumpets—Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph,
36 and his brethren, Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah, and Hanani, with [a]the musical [b]instruments of David the man of God. Ezra the scribe went before them.
37 [a]By the Fountain Gate, in front of them, they went up [b]the stairs of the [c]City of David, on the stairway of the wall, beyond the house of David, as far as [d]the Water Gate eastward.
38 [a]The other thanksgiving choir went the opposite way, and I was behind them with half of the people on the wall, going past the [b]Tower of the Ovens as far as [c]the Broad Wall,
39 [a]and above the Gate of Ephraim, above [b]the Old Gate, above [c]the Fish Gate, [d]the Tower of Hananel, the Tower of [1]the Hundred, as far as [e]the Sheep Gate; and they stopped by [f]the Gate of the Prison.
40 So the two thanksgiving choirs stood in the house of God, likewise I and the half of the rulers with me;
41 and the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, [1]Minjamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets;
42 also Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam, and Ezer. The singers [1]sang loudly with Jezrahiah the director.
43 Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced, for God had made them rejoice with great joy; the women and the children also rejoiced, so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard [a]afar off.

Temple Responsibilities

44 [a]And at the same time some were appointed over the rooms of the storehouse for the offerings, the firstfruits, and the [b]tithes, to gather into them from the fields of the cities the portions specified by the Law for the priests and Levites; for Judah rejoiced over the priests and Levites who [1]ministered.
45 Both the singers and the gatekeepers kept the charge of their God and the charge of the purification, [a]according to the command of David and Solomon his son.
46 For in the days of David [a]and Asaph of old there were chiefs of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.
47 In the days of Zerubbabel and in the days of Nehemiah all Israel gave the portions for the singers and the gatekeepers, a portion for [a]each day. [b]They also [1]consecrated holy things for the Levites, [c]and the Levites consecrated them for the children of Aaron.

CHAPTER 13

1 [a]Neh. 8:3, 8; 9:3

12:27 God's people often used musical instruments to praise Him in worship as well as to make special announcements or give warnings of imminent danger.

12:27 "Dedication" can also mean consecration. The walls were seen as the primary source of a city's protection, but without God's protection, the walls would merely be a temporary impediment to enemies.

[b]that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever come into the assembly of God,
2 because they had not met the children of Israel with bread and water, but [a]hired Balaam against them to curse them. [b]However, our God turned the curse into a blessing.
3 So it was, when they had heard the Law, [a]that they separated all the mixed multitude from Israel.

The Reforms of Nehemiah

4 Now before this, [a]Eliashib the priest, having authority over the storerooms of the house of our God, was allied with [b]Tobiah.
5 And he had prepared for him a large room, [a]where previously they had stored the grain offerings, the frankincense, the articles, the tithes of grain, the new wine and oil, [b]which were commanded to be given to the Levites and singers and gatekeepers, and the offerings for the priests.
6 But during all this I was not in Jerusalem, [a]for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I had returned to the king. Then after certain days I obtained leave from the king,
7 and I came to Jerusalem and discovered the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in [a]preparing a room for him in the courts of the [1]house of God.

ENCOUNTER Note Neh. 13:7

Backsliding

Sin lurks even in the afterglow of great spiritual revival. Backsliding, or falling back into sin, is the perpetual malady of God's people.

8 And it grieved me bitterly; therefore I threw all the household goods of Tobiah out of the room.
9 Then I commanded them to [a]cleanse the rooms; and I brought back into them the articles of the house of God, with the grain offering and the frankincense.
10 I also realized that the portions for the Levites had [a]not been given them; for each of the Levites and the singers who did the work had gone back to [b]his field.
11 So [a]I contended with the rulers, and said, [b]"Why is the house of God forsaken?" And I gathered them together and set them in their place.
12 [a]Then all Judah brought the tithe of the grain and the new wine and the oil to the storehouse.
13 [a]And I appointed as treasurers over the storehouse Shelemiah the priest and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah; and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah; for they were considered [b]faithful, and their task was to distribute to their brethren.
14 [a]Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and do not wipe out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for its services!
15 In those days I saw people in Judah treading wine presses [a]on the Sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and loading donkeys with wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of burdens, [b]which they brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. And I warned them about the day on which they were selling provisions.
16 Men of Tyre dwelt there also, who brought in fish and all kinds of goods, and sold them on the Sabbath to the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.
17 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said to them, "What evil thing is this that you do, by which you profane the Sabbath day?
18 [a]"Did not your fathers do thus, and did not our God bring all this disaster on us and on this city? Yet you bring added wrath on Israel by profaning the Sabbath."
19 So it was, at the gates of Jerusalem, as it [a]began to be dark before the Sabbath, that I commanded the gates to be shut, and charged that they must not be opened till after the Sabbath. [b]Then I posted some of my servants at the gates, so that no burdens would be brought in on the Sabbath day.
20 Now the merchants and sellers of all kinds of [1]wares [2]lodged outside Jerusalem once or twice.
21 Then I warned them, and said to them, "Why do you spend the night [1]around the wall? If you do so again, I will lay hands on you!" From that time on they came no more on the Sabbath.
22 And I commanded the Levites that [a]they should cleanse themselves, and that they should go and guard the gates, to sanctify the Sabbath day.

Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of Your mercy!

23 In those days I also saw Jews who [a]had married women of [b]Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab.

13:8 Nehemiah knew a house was not clean until every room had been consecrated to God. Even one sinner could corrupt a whole assembly (Josh. 7:12, 22–25).

13:18 It is no use obeying part of the law while neglecting the rest of it (Matt. 23:23; James 2:10).

24 And half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod, and could not speak the language of Judah, but spoke according to the language of one or the other people.
25 So I [a]contended with them and [1]cursed them, struck some of them and pulled out their hair, and made them [b]swear by God, saying, "You shall not give your daughters as wives to their sons, nor take their daughters for your sons or yourselves.

ENCOUNTER Note Neh. 13:25

Drastic Measures

Those who understand sin's heinous nature make no allowance for it. Sin should always be dealt with immediately, thoroughly, and permanently.

26 [a]"Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? Yet among many nations there was no king like him, [b]who was beloved of his God; and God made him king over all Israel. [c]Nevertheless pagan women caused even him to sin.
27 "Should we then hear of your doing all this great evil, [a]transgressing against our God by marrying pagan women?"
28 And one of the sons [a]of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was a son-in-law of [b]Sanballat the Horonite; therefore I drove him from me.
29 [a]Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood and [b]the covenant of the priesthood and the Levites.
30 [a]Thus I cleansed them of everything pagan. I also [b]assigned duties to the priests and the Levites, each to his service, 31 and to bringing [a]the wood offering and the firstfruits at appointed times.

THE BOOK OF ESTHER

INTRODUCTION

Esther is one of only two biblical books bearing a woman's name (the other being Ruth). Esther's Hebrew name was Hadassah, meaning "Myrtle." Her Persian name, Esther, possibly meant "Star" and may have been linked to the Babylonian goddess Ishtar. Esther lived in a time of powerful empires and ambitious, cruel, egotistical despots. Ahasuerus, or Xerxes (486–465 B.C.), inherited the Persian Empire from his father Darius, who had led the kingdom to its zenith. Esther lived among the Jewish exiles in Babylon during a tumultuous and dangerous time. Ahasuerus put away his first wife, Vashti, after she disobeyed his humiliating command (Esth. 1:19–21). Ahasuerus led his famous invasion of Greece (480–479) which ended in disaster at the Bay of Salamis (480). Upon his return from this military debacle, he married Esther in the seventh year of his reign, after an extensive search throughout his kingdom for a suitable wife (2:16). During his tenure, Ahasuerus successfully subdued the rebellious Egyptians and built the magnificent palace in Persepolis. Ultimately he would meet an ignoble end in 465 at the hands of Artabanus, chief of his bodyguard. It was in this context of world conquest, the unrestrained pursuit of wealth and luxury, and the brutal displays of raw power upon subjected peoples that young Esther emerged on the world stage.

SIGNIFICANCE

Esther is the only biblical book which does not specifically mention God by name. The book of Esther is significant because it explains the origin of the nonmosaic Feast of Purim (9:24–28). Many important Old Testament concepts and practices are absent from this book. Yet the reality of God's providential care is evident throughout. Though Esther was a powerless woman from a conquered and vulnerable nation, she was able to save God's people. Her story provides compelling testimony to God's providential care for His people, even in the midst of devastating oppression.

STRUCTURE

The events surrounding Esther's life were deeply significant both for God's people and for world history. Persia was the most powerful empire in the world. Yet, during Esther's time, this once mighty kingdom would begin a slow decline until its ultimate subjugation by the Greeks under Alexander the Great. Moreover, the first group of Jewish exiles had returned to Jerusalem under Zerubbabel in 538. Ezra would come to Jerusalem in 458 and Nehemiah in 445. During the period between the temple's completion in 515 and the coming of Ezra and Nehemiah, Esther played her part in God's redemptive plan by ascending the throne in 479.

The book can be divided into four parts: Part One: God's Preparation (1:1—2:18). The events of Esther and Mordecai's lives were providential, not accidental. God developed Esther's beauty, her character and her relationship with Mordecai to accomplish His divine purposes. Esther's marriage to the king was part of God's plan to provide salvation for thousands of people. Part Two: Evil Conspiracies (2:19—3:15). Enemies plotted against the king and against the Jewish exiles. Despite her royal position, Esther came to realize that God's enemies were her enemies too. Part Three: God's Deliverance (4:1—9:17). Though there is no specific reference to God, the account clearly demonstrates that God worked through His people to accomplish His purposes. Part Four: God Honored (9:18—10:3). A new feast was established to commemorate God's great act of deliverance. Mordecai used his new, influential position to honor God, who had elevated him to it.

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH ESTHER

As you read Esther, you should gain a sense of God's providential guidance in your life. Just as Esther was challenged to consider all of her earlier life experiences as God's preparation "for such a time as this" (4:14), so you may see your past as God's preparation of you for His purposes as well. Perhaps you will be inspired to take a stand for God and His people as you witness Esther's boldness in the face of sinister enemies and potentially dire consequences. You will see God's remarkable power as He worked through the life of an ordinary person to save a vast multitude. Hopefully it will encourage you to see God exercising his unfailing care for His people despite powerful enemies bent on their destruction. Finally, as you read of the establishment of the Feast of Purim, you may decide to make special efforts to remember and celebrate God's provision for your life and for those you love.

The King Dethrones Queen Vashti

CHAPTER 1

NOW it came to pass in the days of [a]Ahasuerus[1] (this was the Ahasuerus who reigned [b]over one hundred and twenty-seven provinces, [c]from India to Ethiopia),
2 in those days when King Ahasuerus [a]sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in [b]Shushan[1] the [2]citadel,
3 that in the third year of his reign he [a]made a feast for all his officials and servants—the powers of Persia and Media, the nobles, and the princes of the provinces being before him—
4 when he showed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the splendor of his excellent majesty for many days, one hundred and eighty days in all.
5 And when these days were completed, the king made a feast lasting seven days for all the people who were present in [1]Shushan the [2]citadel, from great to small, in the court of the garden of the king's palace.
6 There were white and blue linen curtains fastened with cords of fine linen and purple on silver rods and marble pillars; and the [a]couches were of gold and silver on a mosaic pavement of alabaster, turquoise, and white and black marble.
7 And they served drinks in golden vessels, each vessel being different from the other, with royal wine in abundance, [a]according to the [1]generosity of the king.
8 In accordance with the law, the drinking was not compulsory; for so the king had ordered all the officers of his household, that they should do according to each man's pleasure.
9 Queen Vashti also made a feast for the women in the royal palace which belonged to King Ahasuerus.
10 On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, [a]Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, seven eunuchs who served in the presence of King Ahasuerus,
11 to bring Queen Vashti before the king, wearing her royal crown, in order to show her beauty to the people and the officials, for she was beautiful to behold.
12 But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command brought by his eunuchs; therefore the king was furious, and his anger burned within him.
13 Then the king said to the [a]wise men [b]who understood the times (for this was the king's manner toward all who knew law and justice,
14 those closest to him being Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the [a]seven princes of Persia and Media, [b]who had access to the king's presence, and who [1]ranked highest in the kingdom):
15 "What shall we do to Queen Vashti, according to law, because she did not obey the command of King Ahasuerus brought to her by the eunuchs?"
16 And Memucan answered before the king and the princes: "Queen Vashti has not only wronged the king, but also all the princes, and all the people who are in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus.
17 "For the queen's behavior will become known to all women, so that they will [a]despise their husbands in their eyes, when they report, 'King Ahasuerus commanded Queen Vashti to be brought in before him, but she did not come.'
18 "This very day the noble ladies of Persia and Media will say to all the king's officials that they have heard of the behavior of the queen. Thus there will be excessive contempt and wrath.

1:1 Ahasuerus (Xerxes being the Greek form of the name), was king of Persia from 485 to 464 B.C.

1:2 Shushan (Susa) was the administrative capital of Persia, located 150 miles north of the Persian Gulf. See Nehemiah 1:1.

1:3 This would have been 483 B.C.

1:12 Queen Vashti's refusal may well have been a virtuous response to an improper royal command.

19 "If it pleases the king, let a royal [1]decree go out from him, and let it be recorded in the laws of the Persians and the Medes, so that it will [a]not [2]be altered, that Vashti shall come no more before King Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal position to another who is better than she.
20 "When the king's decree which he will make is proclaimed throughout all his empire (for it is great), all wives will [a]honor their husbands, both great and small."
21 And the reply pleased the king and the princes, and the king did according to the word of Memucan.
22 Then he sent letters to all the king's provinces, [a]to each province in its own script, and to every people in their own language, that each man should [b]be master in his own house, and speak in the language of his own people.

Esther Becomes Queen

2 After these things, when the wrath of King Ahasuerus subsided, he remembered Vashti, [a]what she had done, and what had been decreed against her.
2 Then the king's servants who attended him said: "Let beautiful young virgins be sought for the king;
3 "and let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather all the beautiful young virgins to [1]Shushan the [2]citadel, into the women's quarters, under the custody of [3]Hegai the king's eunuch, custodian of the women. And let beauty preparations be given them.
4 "Then let the young woman who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti." This thing pleased the king, and he did so.
5 In [1]Shushan the [2]citadel there was a certain Jew whose name was Mordecai the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of [a]Kish, a Benjamite.
6 [a]Kish[1] had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captives who had been captured with [2]Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.
7 And Mordecai had brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, [a]his uncle's daughter, for she had neither father nor mother. The young woman was lovely and beautiful. When her father and mother died, Mordecai took her as his own daughter.
8 So it was, when the king's command and decree were heard, and when many young women were [a]gathered at [1]Shushan the [2]citadel, under the custody of Hegai, that Esther also was taken to the king's palace, into the care of Hegai the custodian of the women.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Esth. 2:8

Extraordinary Events

God turns ordinary events into extraordinary opportunities to achieve His purposes. No circumstance is beyond God's ability to glorify Himself. The trials we face today may be the beginning of a divine work God is commencing in our lives.

9 Now the young woman pleased him, and she obtained his favor; so he readily gave [a]beauty preparations to her, besides [1]her allowance. Then seven choice maidservants were provided for her from the king's palace, and he moved her and her maidservants to the best place in the house of the women.
10 [a]Esther had not [1]revealed her people or family, for Mordecai had charged her not to reveal it.
11 And every day Mordecai paced in front of the court of the women's quarters, to learn of Esther's welfare and what was happening to her.
12 Each young woman's turn came to go in to King Ahasuerus after she had completed twelve months' preparation,

CHARACTER*Study* ESTHER Esth. 2:7

Esther was a young woman who lived in captivity in Persia along with her fellow Jewish exiles. After her parents died, she was raised by her cousin Mordecai. Esther lived in an age of world superpowers. The immense Persian Empire had conquered the seemingly invincible Babylonian Empire. In contrast, as an orphan, a woman, and an exile, Esther could hardly have been more powerless. Yet because of her virtue and courage, God used her to save the lives of thousands of her countrymen and to change the course of history.

1:19 In this society, once a law or decree was made, no one, not even the king, could change it.
2:6 King Jehoiachin was taken into exile by Nebuchadnezzar in 597 B.C.
2:7 "Hadassah" means "Myrtle." "Esther" means "Star."

according to the regulations for the women, for thus were the days of their preparation apportioned: six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with perfumes and preparations for beautifying women.
13 Thus prepared, each young woman went to the king, and she was given whatever she desired to take with her from the women's quarters to the king's palace.
14 In the evening she went, and in the morning she returned to the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch who kept the concubines. She would not go in to the king again unless the king delighted in her and called for her by name.
15 Now when the turn came for Esther [a]the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her as his daughter, to go in to the king, she requested nothing but what Hegai the king's eunuch, the custodian of the women, advised. And Esther [b]obtained favor in the sight of all who saw her.
16 So Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus, into his royal palace, in the tenth month, which is the month of Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.
17 The king loved Esther more than all the other women, and she obtained grace and favor in his sight more than all the virgins; so he set the royal [a]crown upon her head and made her queen instead of Vashti.
18 Then the king [a]made a great feast, the Feast of Esther, for all his officials and servants; and he proclaimed a holiday in the provinces and gave gifts according to the [1]generosity of a king.

Mordecai Discovers a Plot

19 When virgins were gathered together a second time, Mordecai sat within the king's gate.
20 [a]Now Esther had not revealed her family and her people, just as Mordecai had charged her, for Esther obeyed the command of Mordecai as when she was brought up by him.
21 In those days, while Mordecai sat within the king's gate, two of the king's eunuchs, [1]Bigthan and Teresh, doorkeepers, became furious and sought to lay hands on King Ahasuerus.
22 So the matter became known to Mordecai, [a]who told Queen Esther, and Esther informed the king in Mordecai's name.
23 And when an inquiry was made into the matter, it was confirmed, and both were hanged on a gallows; and it was written in [a]the book of the chronicles in the presence of the king.

Haman's Conspiracy Against the Jews

CHAPTER 3

3 After these things King Ahasuerus promoted Haman, the son of Hammedatha the [a]Agagite, and [b]advanced him and set his seat above all the princes who were with him.
2 And all the king's servants who were [a]within the king's gate bowed and paid homage to Haman, for so the king had commanded concerning him. But Mordecai [b]would not bow or pay homage.
3 Then the king's servants who were within the king's gate said to Mordecai, "Why do you transgress the [a]king's command?"
4 Now it happened, when they spoke to him daily and he would not listen to them, that they told it to Haman, to see whether Mordecai's words would stand; for Mordecai had told them that he was a Jew.
5 When Haman saw that Mordecai [a]did not bow or pay him homage, Haman was [b]filled with wrath.
6 But he disdained to lay hands on Mordecai alone, for they had told him of the people of Mordecai. Instead, Haman [a]sought to destroy all the Jews who were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus—the people of Mordecai.

ENCOUNTER Note — Esth. 3:6

God's Enemies

God's enemies will inevitably oppose God's people. Such conflict is unavoidable, because light and darkness do not mix.

7 In the first month, which is the month of Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, [a]they cast Pur (that is, the lot), before Haman [1]to determine the day and the [2]month, [3]until it fell on the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar.
8 Then Haman said to King Ahasuerus, "There is a certain people scattered and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of your kingdom; [a]their laws are different from all other people's, and they do not keep the king's laws. Therefore it is not fitting for the king to let them remain.
9 "If it pleases the king, let a decree be

2:16 This would have been December–January 479 B.C.

written that they be destroyed, and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who do the work, to bring it into the king's treasuries."
10 So the king [a]took [b]his signet ring from his hand and gave it to Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the [c]enemy of the Jews.
11 And the king said to Haman, "The money and the people are given to you, to do with them as seems good to you."
12 [a]Then the king's scribes were called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and a decree was written according to all that Haman commanded—to the king's satraps, to the governors who were over each province, to the officials of all people, to every province [b]according to its script, and to every people in their language. [c]In the name of King Ahasuerus it was written, and sealed with the king's signet ring.
13 And the letters were [a]sent by couriers into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to annihilate all the Jews, both young and old, little children and women, [b]in one day, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar, and [c]to plunder their [1]possessions.
14 [a]A copy of the document was to be issued as law in every province, being published for all people, that they should be ready for that day.
15 The couriers went out, hastened by the king's command; and the decree was proclaimed in [1]Shushan the [2]citadel. So the king and Haman sat down to drink, but [a]the city of Shushan was [3]perplexed.

Esther Agrees to Help the Jews

4 When Mordecai learned all that had happened, [1]he [a]tore his clothes and put on sackcloth [b]and ashes, and went out into the midst of the city. He [c]cried out with a loud and bitter cry.
2 He went as far as the front of the king's gate, for no one might enter the king's gate clothed with sackcloth.
3 And in every province where the king's command and decree arrived, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.
4 So Esther's maids and eunuchs came and told her, and the queen was deeply distressed. Then she sent garments to clothe Mordecai and take his sackcloth away from him, but he would not accept them.
5 Then Esther called Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs whom he had appointed to attend her, and she gave him a command concerning Mordecai, to learn what and why this was.
6 So Hathach went out to Mordecai in the city square that was in front of the king's gate.
7 And Mordecai told him all that had happened to him, and [a]the sum of money that Haman had promised to pay into the king's treasuries to destroy the Jews.
8 He also gave him [a]a copy of the written decree for their destruction, which was given at [1]Shushan, that he might show it to Esther and explain it to her, and that he might command her to go in to the king to make supplication to him and plead before him for her people.
9 So Hathach returned and told Esther the words of Mordecai.
10 Then Esther spoke to Hathach, and gave him a command for Mordecai:
11 "All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces know that any man or woman who goes into [a]the inner court to the king, who has not been called, [b]he has but one law: put all to death, except the one [c]to whom the king holds out the golden scepter, that he may live. Yet I myself have not been [d]called to go in to the king these thirty days."
12 So they told Mordecai Esther's words.
13 And Mordecai told them to answer Esther: "Do not think in your heart that you will escape in the king's palace any more than all the other Jews.

SACKCLOTH AND ASHES

Esth. 4:3 Replacing fine clothing with the most humble apparel and covering oneself with dust were acts of utter humility and dependency before God. The drastic change in one's outward appearance was also a sign to onlookers of a deeply serious situation. The hope was that others would see and sympathize with their plight, and that God would be moved to action.

3:10 A signet ring was a symbol of authority. It would be pressed into softened wax to make a royal seal on documents. Whoever possessed the ring carried the king's endorsement.

3:12 Ironically, this treacherous decree was written on the day before the Jewish Passover, which celebrated God's deliverance of the Israelites from oppression in Egypt.

3:15 While the king and the schemer sat to drink, the whole city was in turmoil over the sadistic decree. The Jewish people were only one of many minorities abiding in the city, and the others could not know who might be singled out next for extermination.

14 "For if you remain completely silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise for the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will perish. Yet who knows whether you have come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

ENCOUNTER Note Esth. 4:14

Such a Time as This

God prepares you throughout your life for your next encounter with Him. Each step of faithfulness prepares you for His next assignment. Your current circumstances are the tools He will use for His next great work in and through your life.

15 Then Esther told them to reply to Mordecai:
16 "Go, gather all the Jews who are present in [1]Shushan, and fast for me; neither eat nor drink for [a]three days, night or day. My maids and I will fast likewise. And so I will go to the king, which is against the law; [b]and if I perish, I perish!"
17 So Mordecai went his way and did according to all that Esther commanded [1]him.

Esther's Banquet

5 Now it happened [a]on the third day that Esther put on her royal robes and stood in [b]the inner court of the king's palace, across from the king's house, while the king sat on his royal throne in the royal house, facing the entrance of the [1]house.
2 So it was, when the king saw Queen Esther standing in the court, that [a]she found favor in his sight, and [b]the king held out to Esther the golden scepter that was in his hand. Then Esther went near and touched the top of the scepter.
3 And the king said to her, "What do you wish, Queen Esther? What is your request? [a]It shall be given to you—up to half the kingdom!"
4 So Esther answered, "If it pleases the king, let the king and Haman come today to the banquet that I have prepared for him."
5 Then the king said, "Bring Haman quickly, that he may do as Esther has said." So the king and Haman went to the banquet that Esther had prepared.
6 At the banquet of wine [a]the king said to Esther, [b]"What is your petition? It shall be granted you. What is your request, up to half the kingdom? It shall be done!"
7 Then Esther answered and said, "My petition and request is this:
8 "If I have found favor in the sight of the king, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and [1]fulfill my request, then let the king and Haman come to the [a]banquet which I will prepare for them, and tomorrow I will do as the king has said."

Haman's Plot Against Mordecai

9 So Haman went out that day [a]joyful and with a glad heart; but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, and [b]that he did not stand or tremble before him, he was filled with indignation against Mordecai.
10 Nevertheless Haman [a]restrained himself and went home, and he sent and called for his friends and his wife Zeresh.
11 Then Haman told them of his great riches, [a]the multitude of his children, everything in which the king had promoted him, and how he had [b]advanced him above the officials and servants of the king.
12 Moreover Haman said, "Besides, Queen Esther invited no one but me to come in with the king to the banquet that she prepared; and tomorrow I am again invited by her, along with the king.
13 "Yet all this avails me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate."
14 Then his wife Zeresh and all his friends said to him, "Let a [a]gallows[1] be made, [2]fifty cubits high, and in the morning [b]suggest to the king that Mordecai be hanged on it; then go merrily with the king to the banquet." And the thing pleased Haman; so he had [c]the gallows made.

book of the records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king.
2 And it was found written that Mordecai had told of [1]Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs, the doorkeepers who had sought to lay hands on King Ahasuerus.
3 Then the king said, "What honor or dignity has been bestowed on Mordecai for this?" And the king's servants who attended him said, "Nothing has been done for him."
4 So the king said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had just entered [a]the outer court of the king's palace [b]to suggest that the king hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.
5 The king's servants said to him, "Haman is there, standing in the court." And the king said, "Let him come in."
6 So Haman came in, and the king asked him, "What shall be done for the man whom the king delights to honor?" Now Haman thought in his heart, "Whom would the king delight to honor more than [a]me?"
7 And Haman answered the king, "For the man whom the king delights to honor,
8 "let a royal robe be brought which the king has worn, and [a]a horse on which the king has ridden, which has a royal [1]crest placed on its head.
9 "Then let this robe and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that he may array the man whom the king delights to honor. Then [1]parade him on horseback through the city square, [a]and proclaim before him: 'Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honor!' "
10 Then the king said to Haman, "Hurry, take the robe and the horse, as you have suggested, and do so for Mordecai the Jew who sits within the king's gate! Leave nothing undone of all that you have spoken."
11 So Haman took the robe and the horse, arrayed Mordecai and led him on horseback through the city square, and proclaimed before him, "Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honor!"
12 Afterward Mordecai went back to the king's gate. But Haman [a]hurried to his house, mourning [b]and with his head covered.
13 When Haman told his wife Zeresh and all his friends everything that had happened to him, his wise men and his wife Zeresh said to him, "If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, is of Jewish descent, you will not prevail against [a]him but will surely fall before him."
14 While they were still talking with him, the king's eunuchs came, and hastened to bring Haman to [a]the banquet which Esther had prepared.

Haman Hanged Instead of Mordecai

7 So the king and Haman went to dine with Queen Esther.
2 And on the second day, [a]at the banquet of wine, the king again said to Esther, "What is your petition, Queen Esther? It shall be granted you. And what is your request, up to half the kingdom? It shall be done!"
3 Then Queen Esther answered and said, "If I have found favor in your sight, O king, and if it pleases the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request.
4 "For we have been [a]sold, my people and I, to be destroyed, to be killed, and to be annihilated. Had we been sold as [b]male and female slaves, I would have held my tongue, although the enemy could never compensate for the king's loss."
5 So King Ahasuerus answered and said to Queen Esther, "Who is he, and where is he, who would dare presume in his heart to do such a thing?"
6 And Esther said, "The adversary and [a]enemy is this wicked Haman!" So Haman was terrified before the king and queen.
7 Then the king arose in his wrath from the banquet of wine and went into the palace garden; but Haman stood before Queen Esther, pleading for his life, for he saw that evil was determined against him by the king.
8 When the king returned from the palace garden to the place of the banquet of wine, Haman had fallen across [a]the couch where Esther was. Then the king said, "Will he also assault the queen while I am in the house?" As the

God's Protection

It is always best to trust God for justice. God is far more thorough in dealing with sin than we could ever be. When we seek revenge, we act in God's place and cause more harm than good.

6:6 No one more than Haman so clearly and literally demonstrates Proverbs 16:18, "Pride goes before destruction and a haughty spirit before a fall."

7:2 "Up to half my kingdom." Although it implied a generous offer, this was most likely a figure of speech or a proverbial expression (Mark 6:23). No one would dare take him up on the offer.

word left the king's mouth, they [b]covered Haman's face.
9 Now [a]Harbonah, one of the eunuchs, said to the king, "Look! [b]The [1]gallows, fifty cubits high, which Haman made for Mordecai, who spoke [c]good on the king's behalf, is standing at the house of Haman." Then the king said, "Hang him on it!"
10 So [a]they [b]hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king's wrath subsided.

God's Judgment

God's judgment is thorough. God will hold even the most powerful rulers accountable to Him for their actions.

Esther Saves the Jews

8 On that day King Ahasuerus gave Queen Esther the house of Haman, the [a]enemy of the Jews. And Mordecai came before the king, for Esther had told [b]how he was related to her.
2 So the king took off [a]his signet ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai; and Esther appointed Mordecai over the house of Haman.
3 Now Esther spoke again to the king, fell down at his feet, and implored him with tears to counteract the evil of Haman the Agagite, and the scheme which he had devised against the Jews.
4 And [a]the king held out the golden scepter toward Esther. So Esther arose and stood before the king,
5 and said, "If it pleases the king, and if I have found favor in his sight and the thing seems right to the king and I am pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to revoke the [a]letters devised by Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to annihilate the Jews who are in all the king's provinces.
6 "For how can I endure to see [a]the evil that will come to my people? Or how can I endure to see the destruction of my countrymen?"
7 Then King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther and Mordecai the Jew, "Indeed, [a]I have given Esther the house of Haman, and they have hanged him on the gallows because he tried to lay his hand on the Jews.
8 "You yourselves write a decree concerning the Jews, [1]as you please, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's signet ring; for whatever is written in the king's name and sealed with the king's signet ring [a]no one can revoke."
9 [a]So the king's scribes were called at that time, in the third month, which is the month of Sivan, on the twenty-third day; and it was written, according to all that Mordecai commanded, to the Jews, the satraps, the governors, and the princes of the provinces [b]from India to Ethiopia, one hundred and twenty-seven provinces in all, to every province [c]in its own script, to every people in their own language, and to the Jews in their own script and language.
10 [a]And he wrote in the name of King Ahasuerus, sealed it with the king's signet ring, and sent letters by couriers on horseback, riding on royal horses [1]bred from swift steeds.
11 By these letters the king permitted the Jews who were in every city to [a]gather together and protect their lives—to [b]destroy, kill, and annihilate all the forces of any people or province that would assault them, both little children and women, and to plunder their possessions,
12 [a]on one day in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month of [1]Adar.

14 The couriers who rode on royal horses went out, hastened and pressed on by the king's command. And the decree was issued in [1]Shushan the [2]citadel.
15 So Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of [1]blue and white, with a great crown of gold and a garment of fine linen and purple; and [a]the city of [2]Shushan rejoiced and was glad.
16 The Jews had [a]light and gladness, joy and honor.

The Jews Destroy Their Tormentors

9 Now [a]in the twelfth month, that is, the month of Adar, on the thirteenth day, [b]the time came for the king's command and his decree to be executed. On the day that the enemies of the Jews had hoped to overpower them, the opposite occurred, in that the Jews themselves [c]overpowered those who hated them.
2 The Jews [a]gathered together in their cities throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus to lay hands on those who [b]sought their harm. And no one could withstand them, [c]because fear of them fell upon all people.
3 And all the officials of the provinces, the satraps, the governors, and all those doing the king's work, helped the Jews, because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them.
4 For Mordecai was great in the king's palace, and his fame spread throughout all the provinces; for this man Mordecai [a]became increasingly prominent.
5 Thus the Jews defeated all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, with slaughter and destruction, and did what they pleased with those who hated them.

Victorious!

God's people often suffer at the hands of God's enemies. But if you are a child of God, He is your defender, protector, and avenger. You can confidently place your life in His hands.

8 Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha,
9 Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vajezatha—
10 [a]the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews—they killed; [b]but they did not lay a hand on the [1]plunder.
11 On that day the number of those who were killed in [1]Shushan the [2]citadel [3]was brought to the king.
12 And the king said to Queen Esther, "The Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the citadel, and the ten sons of Haman. What have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? Now [a]what is your petition? It shall be granted to you. Or what is your further request? It shall be done."
13 Then Esther said, "If it pleases the king, let it be granted to the Jews who are in Shushan to do again tomorrow [a]according to today's decree, and let Haman's ten sons [b]be hanged on the gallows."
14 So the king commanded this to be done; the decree was issued in Shushan, and they hanged Haman's ten sons.
15 And the Jews who were in [1]Shushan [a]gathered together again on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar and killed three hundred men at Shushan; [b]but they did not lay a hand on the plunder.
16 The remainder of the Jews in the king's provinces [a]gathered together and protected their lives, had rest from their enemies, and killed seventy-five thousand of their enemies; [b]but they did not lay a hand on the plunder.
17 This was on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar. And on the fourteenth of [1]the month they rested and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

The Feast of Purim

18 But the Jews who were at [1]Shushan assembled together [a]on the thirteenth day, as well as on the fourteenth; and on the fifteenth of [2]the month they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.
19 Therefore the Jews of the villages who dwelt in the unwalled towns celebrated the fourteenth day of the month of Adar [a]with gladness and feasting, [b]as a holiday, and for [c]sending presents to one another.
20 And Mordecai wrote these things and sent letters to all the Jews, near and far, who were in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus,
21 to establish among them that they should celebrate yearly the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month of Adar,
22 as the days on which the Jews had rest from their enemies, as the month which was turned from sorrow to joy for them, and from mourning to a holiday; that they should make them days of feasting and joy, of [a]sending presents to one another and gifts to the [b]poor.
23 So the Jews accepted the custom which they had begun, as Mordecai had written to them,

Exalted

Our station in life is inconsequential as long as we are in God's hands. Where He puts us is His sovereign decision. Our role is to be a faithful servant with impeccable character. It is not our position but our God who gives us influence with others.

9:28 Purim, translated "lots" (as in casting lots), was instituted as an annual commemoration of God's gracious intervention that averted the massacre of His people in Persia. This celebration would serve as a poignant reminder of God's care for His people and as a warning to their enemies.

THE BOOK OF JOB

INTRODUCTION

At times the book of Job has been mistakenly viewed as a gloomy and tedious portion of the Scriptures where men make long speeches on the nature of God and His response to evil. Yet it tackles some of life's crucial issues. Job may have lived in the region of Edom during the age of the Hebrew patriarchs Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. He was both extremely righteous and enormously wealthy. While it was not considered unusual for a godly person to receive God's blessing, the fact that God allowed such an honorable man to suffer generated considerable discussion throughout the book. Job loses everything at the beginning of the story and is subsequently tormented by his wife and alleged friends as they all give him their advice. Finally God speaks. After this, nothing more needs to be said. God restores Job's fortunes, his health, and his family. Job receives a double blessing, and posterity is enriched with this poignant account of how one man's faithfulness glorified God.

SIGNIFICANCE

The Book of Job examines adversity from God's perspective. Job never knew why God allowed him to suffer, but that didn't matter to him. Job's unfaltering faith honored God in the heavenly court. This book addresses one of life's most troubling questions: Why do the wicked prosper and the righteous suffer? Few questions vex the thoughtful soul more than this one. Yet Job reveals that God will allow the righteous to endure affliction, although He will never forsake them. God's redemptive purposes far exceed our desire for comfort. A word from God must be sufficient—we don't need all the answers when we know God has them. The Book of Job indicates that Satan has no power over anyone except that which God allows him. Job's story portrays the pain that comes when friends are more concerned with being right than with being helpful. It also shows how the wisdom of people should point us to God's word but it should never replace it, regardless of how pious the advice may sound. Job's life paints a vivid picture of his faithful perseverance and of God's corresponding lovingkindness. Not only does God richly reward Job, but Job's life story provides an enduring encouragement to believers of every generation (Ezek. 14:14, James 5:11).

STRUCTURE

The book can be divided into several parts:
Introduction (1:1–12): Here we see the heavenly dialogue between God and Satan which sets the stage for Job to glorify God by his unwavering trust in Him.

Job's Suffering (1:13—2:10): God allows Satan to take away Job's wealth, family and health. Despite his wife's promptings, Job refuses to curse God.

Round One of Debates (2:11—14:22): Job's three friends, Eliphaz, Bildad and Zophar come to Job. First, Job laments his pathetic situation. Then, each of his three friends enters into debate with Job about the causes of his suffering. Job responds to each friend's speech.

Round Two of Debates (15:1—21:34): All three friends present further argument and Job again responds.

Round Three of Debates (22:1—28:28): Eliphaz and Bildad present further material but Zophar remains silent.

Job's Conclusion (29:1—31:40): Job rehearses his lifestyle and affirms his righteousness. He refuses to believe that his suffering is a result of his sin.

Elihu's Speeches (32:1—37:24): Elihu is a proud young man who grows frustrated at the older men's inability to convince Job of his sin, so he presents his own arguments.

God's Response (38:1—41:34): God speaks out of a whirlwind and challenges Job's credentials for judging the way He is ruling the universe.

Job's Repentance (42:1–6): Job repents of his rashness in questioning God.

Conclusion (42:7–17): God chastises Job's friends for their foolishness and blesses Job for his faithfulness.

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH JOB

Everyone experiences suffering. The Book of Job is rich in material dealing with this universal plight. God's expressed pleasure with Job's life may challenge you to consider how your life glorifies God (1:8; 2:3). God may also speak to you through the way Job held tenaciously to his integrity even when those around him begged him to surrender it (2:9, 10). Perhaps you have brazenly questioned God's love, or power, or wisdom because of your own suffering. Like Job, you may learn that you have no basis for questioning God's rule in your life. God may demonstrate the incredible difference His word makes in your circumstances. Regardless of how difficult your life is, hearing from God changes everything (42:1–6). Maybe you will identify with Job's confession: "I have heard of You by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees You" (42:5). Through these pages God may encounter you in such a way that you experience Him in a deeply personal way.

Job and His Family in Uz

CHAPTER 1

1 THERE was a man [a]in the land of Uz, whose name was [b]Job; and that man was [c]blameless and upright, and one who [d]feared God and [1]shunned evil.
2 And seven sons and three daughters were born to him.
3 Also, his possessions were seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, five hundred female donkeys, and a very large household, so that this man was the greatest of all the [1]people of the East.
4 And his sons would go and feast in their houses, each on his appointed day, and would send and invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them.
5 So it was, when the days of feasting had run their course, that Job would send and [1]sanctify them, and he would rise early in the morning [a]and offer burnt offerings according to the number of them all. For Job said, "It may be that my sons have sinned and [b]cursed[2] God in their hearts." Thus Job did regularly.

Satan Attacks Job's Character

6 Now [a]there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and [1]Satan also came among them.
7 And the LORD said to [1]Satan, "From where do you come?" So Satan answered the LORD and said, "From [a]going

CHARACTER*Study* — JOB — Job 1:1

Job's life provides powerful insight to some of life's most pressing questions. Job was not a Hebrew, but he lived in Uz, probably near Edom. He was extremely wealthy. He was also righteous and blameless before God (Job 1:1). God was so pleased with Job that He confidently held him up to Satan as one who could suffer yet remain faithful to God (Job 1:12; 2:6). Therefore, God allowed Satan to take everything away from Job but his life. Job's friends, Eliphaz, Bildad, and Zophar, along with Elihu, debated with Job about why people suffer. Job's unsympathetic friends, assuming that all suffering was a result of God's punishment for sin and that all blessing came from God's pleasure with those who were righteous, concluded that Job's suffering meant he must have sinned. Job's experience shows that God may allow the righteous to suffer and the wicked to prosper. Yet, in time the righteous will be rewarded and the wicked punished. Whereas Job's friends could not change his views, a word from God brought everything into focus (Job 40:3–5; 42:1–6). Job lived out his life never knowing how much glory he brought to God nor why God's will had required him to temporarily suffer.

1:1 Three people are named Uz in the Old Testament: a son of Aram (Gen. 10:23, 1 Chr. 1:17); a son of Milcah and Nahor (Gen. 22:21); a descendent of Esau (Gen. 36:28). Most likely the name came from the last of the three and indicated a region near Edom (Lam. 4:21).

1:2 Seven is the number that designates perfection. Job apparently had the "perfect family."

1:6 "Sons of God" were angels or some form of heavenly beings (Job 2:1; 1 Kin. 22:19, Ps. 89:5–7; 103:20; Dan. 7:9, 10).

8 Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you [1]considered My servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears God and [2]shuns evil?"
9 So Satan answered the LORD and said, "Does Job fear God for nothing?
10 [a]"Have You not [1]made a hedge around him, around his household, and around all that he has on every side? [b]You have blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land.
11 [a]"But now, stretch out Your hand and touch all that he has, and he will surely [b]curse[1] You to Your face!"
12 And the LORD said to Satan, "Behold, all that he has is in your [1]power; only do not lay a hand on his person." So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD.

Job Loses His Property and Children

13 Now there was a day [a]when his sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house;
14 and a messenger came to Job and said, "The oxen were plowing and the donkeys feeding beside them,
15 "when the [1]Sabeans [2]raided them and took them away—indeed they have killed the servants with the edge of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you!"
16 While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "The fire of God fell from heaven and burned up the sheep and the servants, and [1]consumed them; and I alone have escaped to tell you!"
17 While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "The Chaldeans formed three bands, raided the camels and took them away, yes, and killed the servants with the edge of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you!"
18 While he was still speaking, another also came and said, [a]"Your sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house,
19 "and suddenly a great wind came from [1]across the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young people, and they are dead; and I alone have escaped to tell you!"
20 Then Job arose, [a]tore his robe, and shaved his head; and he [b]fell to the ground and worshiped.
21 And he said:

[a]"Naked I came from my mother's womb,
And naked shall I return there.
The LORD [b]gave, and the LORD has [c]taken away;
[d] Blessed be the name of the LORD."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Job 1:21

A Relationship that Endures

The Lord gives blessings and He allows suffering. Our relationship with Him is not based on His gifts or His blessings but on His character and His love for us.

22 [a]In all this Job did not sin nor charge God with wrong.

Satan Attacks Job's Health

2 Again [a]there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the LORD.
2 And the LORD said to Satan, "From where do you come?" So [a]Satan answered the LORD and said, "From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking back and forth on it."
3 Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered My servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, [a]a

CHARACTER*Study* SATAN Job 1:6

The name "Satan" comes from the Hebrew and means "Adversary" or "Accuser." Originally an angel in heaven, Satan was apparently corrupted by pride (2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6). The Book of Job depicts Satan as limited by time and space (Job 1:7). He is not all-powerful and can only act under the permissive will of God (Job 1:6–12). God sets limits on what Satan can do (Job 1:12; 2:6). Satan's chief tactics appear to be accusing and tempting. Yet scripture assures us that God will not allow us to be tempted beyond our endurance (1 Cor. 10:13). Ultimately Satan will be judged and exiled to an eternity in hell (Rev. 20:10).

1:15 Sabeans were nomads, descendents of Sheba, a grandson of Abraham (Gen. 25:2–3). They settled in southwestern Arabia (modern Yemen), and by King Solomon's time became the wealthy nation of the Queen of Sheba (1 Kin. 10:2, 2 Chr. 9:1).

1:16 For more references to the fire of God see Num. 11:1; 1 Kin. 18:38; 2 Kin. 1:10, 12, 14.

1:19 The "great wind" would have been a sirocco, a hot, sandy wind that blew at the beginning and end of summer.

blameless and upright man, one who fears God and shuns evil? And still he [b]holds fast to his integrity, although you incited Me against him, [c]to [1]destroy him without cause."
4 So Satan answered the LORD and said, "Skin for skin! Yes, all that a man has he will give for his life.
5 [a]"But stretch out Your hand now, and touch his [b]bone and his flesh, and he will surely [1]curse You to Your face!"
6 [a]And the LORD said to Satan, "Behold, he is in your hand, but spare his life."
7 So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD, and struck Job with painful boils [a]from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head.
8 And he took for himself a potsherd with which to scrape himself [a]while he sat in the midst of the ashes.
9 Then his wife said to him, "Do you still hold fast to your integrity? [1]Curse God and die!"

ENCOUNTER*Note* Job 2:9

Hold Fast

Circumstances will contrive to rob us of our righteousness. We must diligently hold on to God or we will lose our integrity.

10 But he said to her, "You speak as one of the foolish women speaks. [a]Shall we indeed accept good from God, and shall we not accept adversity?" [b]In all this Job did not [c]sin with his lips.

Job's Three Friends

11 Now when Job's three friends heard of all this adversity that had come upon him, each one came from his own place—Eliphaz the [a]Temanite, Bildad the [b]Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. For they had made an appointment together to come [c]and mourn with him, and to comfort him.
12 And when they raised their eyes from afar, and did not recognize him, they lifted their voices and wept; and each one tore his robe and [a]sprinkled dust on his head toward heaven.
13 So they sat down with him on the ground [a]seven days and seven nights, and no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his grief was very great.

Job Deplores His Birth

3 After this Job opened his mouth and cursed the day of his birth.
2 And Job [1]spoke, and said:

3 "May[a] the day perish on which I was born,
And the night in which it was said,
'A male child is conceived.'

ENCOUNTER*Note* Job 3:3

Escape

In times of misery, we will be tempted to seek escape. Sometimes life may not even seem worth living. God may leave us in the midst of our circumstances for a time, but He will never abandon us.

4 May that day be darkness;
May God above not seek it,
Nor the light shine upon it.
5 May darkness and [a]the shadow of death claim it;
May a cloud settle on it;
May the blackness of the day terrify it.
6 As for that night, may darkness seize it;
May it not [1]rejoice among the days of the year,
May it not come into the number of the months.
7 Oh, may that night be barren!
May no joyful shout come into it!
8 May those curse it who curse the day,
Those [a]who are ready to arouse Leviathan.
9 May the stars of its morning be dark;
May it look for light, but have none,
And not see the [1]dawning of the day;
10 Because it did not shut up the doors of my mother's womb,
Nor hide sorrow from my eyes.

11 "Why[a] did I not die at birth?
Why did I not [1]perish when I came from the womb?
12 [a]Why did the knees receive me?
Or why the breasts, that I should nurse?
13 For now I would have lain still and been quiet,
I would have been asleep;
Then I would have been at rest

2:7 "Painful boils" is the same term used to describe the plague of boils in Egypt (Ex. 9:9–11). It was also a punishment for those who did not keep God's covenant (Deut. 28:35).

2:8 A "potsherd" was a broken piece of clay pottery.

2:11 Eliphaz was probably the oldest of Job's friends because he spoke first. He was from Teman in northern Edom (Gen. 36:4, 11). Bildad was from Shuah (Gen. 25:2, 1 Chr. 1:32). Zophar came from Naameh in northwest Arabia.

2:12 Dust is symbolic of mourning (Josh. 7:6; 2 Sam. 1:2; Ezek. 27:30; Mic. 1:10).

20 "Why[a] is light given to him who is in misery,
And life to the [b]bitter of soul,
21 Who [a]long[1] for death, but it does not come,
And search for it more than [b]hidden treasures;
22 Who rejoice exceedingly,

[a]And whom God has hedged in?

And what I dreaded has happened to me.

I have no rest, for trouble comes."

Eliphaz: Job Has Sinned

4 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said:

2 "If one attempts a word with you, will you become weary?
But who can withhold himself from speaking?
3 Surely you have instructed many,
And you [a]have strengthened weak hands.
4 Your words have upheld him who was stumbling,
And you [a]have strengthened the [1]feeble knees;

It touches you, and you are troubled.

7 "Remember now, [a]who ever perished being innocent?
Or where were the upright ever cut off?
8 Even as I have seen,
[a]Those who plow iniquity
And sow trouble reap the same.
9 By the blast of God they perish,
And by the breath of His anger they are consumed.

The voice of the fierce lion,

And my ear received a whisper of it.
13 [a]In disquieting thoughts from the visions of the night,
When deep sleep falls on men,
14 Fear came upon me, and [a]trembling,
Which made all my bones shake.
15 Then a spirit passed before my face;
The hair on my body stood up.
16 It stood still,
But I could not discern its appearance.
A form was before my eyes;
There was silence;
Then I heard a voice saying:
17 'Can a mortal be more righteous than God?
Can a man be more pure than his Maker?

ENCOUNTER Note Job 4:17

More Righteous?

God is infinitely more righteous than we are. He is not obligated to justify His actions to us. His ways are perfect. Ours are not.

If He charges His angels with error,

3:12 "Knees" and "breasts" refer to the birthing process.

3:18 Here Job glamorizes death as a better alternative than continuing to live.

4:7 Eliphaz is upholding the "retribution doctrine," namely, that God always punishes the wicked and blesses the righteous.

4:12 Eliphaz sought to bolster his argument based on an alleged word from God in the night. Such visions must always be judged by God's written word.

Whose foundation is in the dust,
Who are crushed before a moth?
20 [a]They are broken in pieces from morning till evening;
They perish forever, with no one regarding.
21 Does not their own excellence go away?
They die, even without wisdom.'

Eliphaz: Job Is Chastened by God

5 "Call out now;
Is there anyone who will answer you?
And to which of the holy ones will you turn?
2 For wrath kills a foolish man,
And envy slays a simple one.
3 [a]I have seen the foolish taking root,
But suddenly I cursed his dwelling place.
4 His sons are [a]far from safety,
They are crushed in the gate,
And [b]there is no deliverer.
5 Because the hungry eat up his harvest,
[1]Taking it even from the thorns,
[2]And a snare snatches their [3]substance.
6 For affliction does not come from the dust,
Nor does trouble spring from the ground;
7 Yet man is [a]born to [1]trouble,
As the sparks fly upward.

8 "But as for me, I would seek God,
And to God I would commit my cause—
9 Who does great things, and unsearchable,
Marvelous things without number.
10 [a]He gives rain on the earth,
And sends waters on the fields.
11 [a]He sets on high those who are lowly,
And those who mourn are lifted to safety.
12 [a]He frustrates the devices of the crafty,
So that their hands cannot carry out their plans.
13 He catches the [a]wise in their own craftiness,
And the counsel of the cunning comes quickly upon them.
14 They meet with darkness in the daytime,
And grope at noontime as in the night.
15 But [a]He saves the needy from the sword,
From the mouth of the mighty,
And from their hand.
16 [a]So the poor have hope,
And injustice shuts her mouth.

17 "Behold,[a] happy is the man whom God corrects;
Therefore do not despise the chastening of the Almighty.

18 [a]For He bruises, but He binds up;
He wounds, but His hands make whole.
19 [a]He shall deliver you in six troubles,
Yes, in seven [b]no evil shall touch you.
20 [a]In famine He shall redeem you from death,
And in war from the [1]power of the sword.
21 [a]You shall be hidden from the scourge of the tongue,
And you shall not be afraid of destruction when it comes.
22 You shall laugh at destruction and famine,
And [a]you shall not be afraid of the [b]beasts of the earth.
23 [a]For you shall have a covenant with the stones of the field,

God's Discipline

God's correction turns us away from death and moves us toward abundant life. We should accept His discipline as the loving gift that it is.

WORD Study — ALMIGHTY

Job 5:17 "Almighty" is translated from the Hebrew shaddai. It is used forty eight times in the Old Testament, thirty-one of them in Job. It was the primary name of God known by the patriarchs (Gen. 17:1; 28:3; 35:11; 49:25). The name's original meaning may have been "All-Sufficient Lord," with rain or mountain imagery. It came to be translated as "Almighty." At times it is combined as el shaddai, "God Almighty" (Ex. 6:3).

5:7 "Sparks" is literally "the children of Resheph," the god of the underworld worshiped by the ancient Ugaritic people, who were related to the Canaanites.

25 You shall also know that [a]your descendants shall be many,
And your offspring [b]like the grass
of the earth.
26 [a]You shall come to the grave at a full age,
As a sheaf of grain ripens in its season.
27 Behold, this we have [a]searched out;
It is true.
Hear it, and know for yourself."

Job: My Complaint Is Just

6 Then Job answered and said:

2 "Oh, that my grief were fully weighed,
And my calamity laid with it on the scales!
3 For then it would be heavier than the sand of the sea—
Therefore my words have been rash.
4 [a]For the arrows of the Almighty are within me;
My spirit drinks in their poison;
[b]The terrors of God are arrayed
[c]against me.
5 Does the [a]wild donkey bray when it has grass,
Or does the ox low over its fodder?
6 Can flavorless food be eaten without salt?
Or is there any taste in the white of an egg?
7 My soul refuses to touch them;
They are as loathsome food to me.

8 "Oh, that I might have my request,
That God would grant me the thing that I long for!
9 That it would please God to crush
me,
That He would loose His hand and
[a]cut me off!
10 Then I would still have comfort;
Though in anguish I would exult,
He will not spare;
For [a]I have not concealed the words of [b]the Holy One.

11 "What strength do I have, that I should hope?
And what is my end, that I should prolong my life?
12 Is my strength the strength of

Or is my flesh bronze?
13 Is my help not within me?

And you [a]undermine your friend.
28 Now therefore, be pleased to look at
me;
For I would never lie to your face.
29 [a]Yield now, let there be no injustice!
Yes, concede, my [b]righteousness
[1]still stands!

ENCOUNTER Note — Job 6:29

My Righteousness

Righteousness prevails under the scrutiny of others. When God builds integrity into your life, it will stand the test of time.

6:4 The arrows of the Lord represented His judgment (Deut. 32:23, 42; Ps. 38:1–2).

6:15 Job calls the men his "brothers," perhaps indicating the close relationship he once enjoyed with them.

6:19 Tema was in northern Arabia, and Sheba was in southwestern Arabia.

30 Is there injustice on my tongue?
Cannot my [1]taste discern the unsavory?

Job: My Suffering Is Comfortless

7 "Is there not [a]a time of hard service for man on earth?
Are not his days also like the days of a hired man?
2 Like a servant who [1]earnestly desires the shade,
And like a hired man who eagerly looks for his wages,
3 So I have been allotted [a]months of futility,
And wearisome nights have been appointed to me.
4 [a]When I lie down, I say, 'When shall I arise,
And the night be ended?'
For I have had my fill of tossing till dawn.
5 My flesh is [a]caked with worms and dust,
My skin is cracked and breaks out afresh.
6 "My[a] days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle,
And are spent without hope.
7 Oh, remember that [a]my life is a breath!
My eye will never again see good.
8 [a]The eye of him who sees me will see me no more;
While your eyes are upon me, I shall no longer be.
9 As the cloud disappears and vanishes away,
So [a]he who goes down to the grave does not come up.
10 He shall never return to his house,
[a]Nor shall his place know him anymore.
11 "Therefore I will [a]not restrain my mouth;
I will speak in the anguish of my spirit;
I will [b]complain in the bitterness of my soul.
12 Am I a sea, or a sea serpent,
That You set a guard over me?
13 [a]When I say, 'My bed will comfort me,
My couch will ease my complaint,'
14 Then You scare me with dreams
And terrify me with visions,
15 So that my soul chooses strangling
And death rather than [1]my body.
16 [a]I loathe my life;
I would not live forever.
[b]Let me alone,
For [c]my days are but [1]a breath.
17 "What[a] is man, that You should exalt him,
That You should set Your heart on him,
18 That You should [1]visit him every morning,
And test him every moment?

ENCOUNTER Note Job 7:17, 18

What Is Man?

Almighty God watches over us and is aware of all we do. We matter to Him. Such interest from the Almighty is beyond comprehension.

19 How long?
Will You not look away from me,
And let me alone till I swallow my saliva?
20 Have I sinned?
What have I done to You, [a]O watcher of men?
Why [b]have You set me as Your target,
So that I am a burden [1]to myself?
21 Why then do You not pardon my transgression,
And take away my iniquity?
For now I will lie down in the dust,
And You will seek me diligently,
But I will no longer be."

Bildad: Job Should Repent

8 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said:
2 "How long will you speak these things,
And the words of your mouth be like a strong wind?
3 [a]Does God subvert judgment?
Or does the Almighty pervert justice?
4 If [a]your sons have sinned against Him,
He has cast them away [1]for their transgression.
5 [a]If you would earnestly seek God
And make your supplication to the Almighty,
6 If you were pure and upright,
Surely now He would [1]awake for you,

7:5 "Worms" are mentioned more in Job than any other book (Job 17:14; 21:26; 24:20).

7:12 Canaanite religions considered serpents to be gods and evil forces (Job 41:1; Ps. 104:26).

7:18 "Visit" here can have the sense of "examine."

8:3 Bildad's questions are quite similar to God's (Job 40:8).

8:4 In the theology of retribution, it was assumed that Job's children must have sinned if God allowed them to die.

And prosper your rightful dwelling place.
7 Though your beginning was small,
Yet your latter end would [a]increase abundantly.

8 "For[a] inquire, please, of the former age,
And consider the things discovered by their fathers;
9 For [a]we were born yesterday, and know [1]nothing,
Because our days on earth are a shadow.
10 Will they not teach you and tell you,
And utter words from their heart?

11 "Can the papyrus grow up without a marsh?
Can the reeds flourish without water?
12 [a]While it is yet green and not cut down,
It withers before any other plant.
13 So are the paths of all who [a]forget God;
And the hope of the [b]hypocrite shall perish,
14 Whose confidence shall be cut off,
And whose trust is [1]a spider's web.
15 [a]He leans on his house, but it does not stand.
He holds it fast, but it does not endure.

And look for a place in the stones.

Then it will deny him, saying, 'I have not seen you.'

19 "Behold, this is the joy of His way,

Nor will He uphold the evildoers.
21 He will yet fill your mouth with laughing,

Cast Away

God may permit the righteous to suffer. But He will never forsake them.

Job: There Is No Mediator

9 Then Job answered and said:

2 "Truly I know it is so,
But how can a [a]man be [b]righteous before God?
3 If one wished to [1]contend with Him,
He could not answer Him one time out of a thousand.
4 [a]God is wise in heart and mighty in strength.
Who has hardened himself against Him and prospered?
5 He removes the mountains, and they do not know
When He overturns them in His anger;
6 He [a]shakes the earth out of its place,
And its [b]pillars tremble;
7 He commands the sun, and it does not rise;
He seals off the stars;
8 [a]He alone spreads out the heavens,
And [1]treads on the [2]waves of the sea;
9 [a]He made [1]the Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades,
And the chambers of the south;
10 [a]He does great things past finding out,
Yes, wonders without number.

ENCOUNTER Note — Job 9:10

Past Finding Out

God is constantly at work around you. Failing to recognize His activity does not negate this reality.

11 [a]If He goes by me, I do not see Him;
If He moves past, I do not perceive Him;
12 [a]If He takes away, [1]who can hinder Him?
Who can say to Him, 'What are You doing?'
13 God will not withdraw His anger,
[a]The allies of [1]the proud lie prostrate beneath Him.

8:7 Job's latter days did indeed become greater than his earlier life (Job 42:10–17).

8:22 Bildad did not realize that his prophetic words would apply to himself and his friends (Job 42:7).

9:3 Job considered his chances of successfully challenging God's charges against him as less than one in a thousand.

9:7 "Rise" could also be translated "shine."

9:13 "The proud" is rahab in Hebrew, the name for a primeval sea monster that symbolizes the chaos overcome by the creator God.

14 "How then can I answer Him,
And choose my words to reason with Him?
15 [a]For though I were righteous, I could not answer Him;
I would beg mercy of my Judge.
16 If I called and He answered me,
I would not believe that He was listening to my voice.
17 For He crushes me with a tempest,
And multiplies my wounds [a]without cause.
18 He will not allow me to catch my breath,
But fills me with bitterness.
19 If it is a matter of strength, indeed He is strong;
And if of justice, who will appoint my day in court?
20 Though I were righteous, my own mouth would condemn me;
Though I were blameless, it would prove me perverse.

21 "I am blameless, yet I do not know myself;
I despise my life.
22 It is all one thing;
Therefore I say, [a]'He destroys the blameless and the wicked.'
23 If the scourge slays suddenly,
He laughs at the plight of the innocent.
24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked.
He covers the faces of its judges.
If it is not He, who else could it be?

25 "Now [a]my days are swifter than a runner;
They flee away, they see no good.
26 They pass by like [1]swift ships,
[a]Like an eagle swooping on its prey.
27 [a]If I say, 'I will forget my complaint,
I will put off my sad face and wear a smile,'
28 [a]I am afraid of all my sufferings;
I know that You [b]will not hold me innocent.
29 If I am condemned,
Why then do I labor in vain?
30 [a]If I wash myself with snow water,
And cleanse my hands with [1]soap,
31 Yet You will plunge me into the pit,
And my own clothes will [1]abhor me.

32 "For [a]He is not a man, as I am,
That I may answer Him,
And that we should go to court together.
33 [a]Nor is there any mediator between us,
Who may lay his hand on us both.
34 [a]Let Him take His rod away from me,
And do not let dread of Him terrify me.
35 Then I would speak and not fear Him,
But it is not so with me.

Job: I Would Plead with God

10 "My [a]soul loathes my life;
I will [1]give free course to my complaint,
[b]I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.
2 I will say to God, 'Do not condemn me;
Show me why You contend with me.
3 Does it seem good to You that You should oppress,
That You should despise the work of Your hands,
And smile on the counsel of the wicked?
4 Do You have eyes of flesh?
Or [a]do You see as man sees?
5 Are Your days like the days of a mortal man?
Are Your years like the days of a mighty man,
6 That You should seek for my iniquity
And search out my sin,
7 Although You know that I am not wicked,
And there is no one who can deliver from Your hand?

8 'Your[a] hands have made me and fashioned me,
An intricate unity;
Yet You would [b]destroy me.
9 Remember, I pray, [a]that You have made me like clay.
And will You turn me into dust again?
10 [a]Did You not pour me out like milk,
And curdle me like cheese,
11 Clothe me with skin and flesh,
And knit me together with bones and sinews?
12 You have granted me life and favor,
And Your care has preserved my spirit.

13 'And these things You have hidden in Your heart;
I know that this was with You:
14 If I sin, then [a]You mark me,
And will not acquit me of my iniquity.
15 If I am wicked, [a]woe to me;

9:33 Job recognized he had no mediator to plead his case before God (1 Tim. 2:5).

10:15 Keeping one's head lowered was a gesture of shame (Judg. 8:28, Lam. 2:10).

10:15 Although Job believes he is innocent, he still feels so ashamed he cannot raise his head.

[b]Even if I am righteous, I [1]cannot lift up my head.
I am full of disgrace;
[c]See my misery!
16 If my head is exalted,
[a]You hunt me like a fierce lion,
And again You show Yourself awesome against me.

ENCOUNTER Note Job 10:16

Opposing the Proud

God targets the pride in our lives because pride convinces us that we don't need Him. Such thinking is not only false, but it's dangerous; so God vigorously opposes it.

17 You renew Your witnesses against me,
And increase Your indignation toward me;
Changes and war are ever with me.
18 'Why[a] then have You brought me out of the womb?
Oh, that I had perished and no eye had seen me!
19 I would have been as though I had not been.
I would have been carried from the womb to the grave.
20 [a]Are not my days few?
Cease! [b]Leave me alone, that I may take a little comfort,
21 Before I go to the place from which I shall not return,
[a]To the land of darkness [b]and the shadow of death,
22 A land as dark as darkness itself,
As the shadow of death, without any order,
Where even the light is like darkness.' "

Zophar Urges Job to Repent

11 Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and said:
2 "Should not the multitude of words be answered?
And should [1]a man full of talk be vindicated?
3 Should your empty talk make men [1]hold their peace?
And when you mock, should no one rebuke you?
4 For you have said,
[a]'My doctrine is pure,
And I am clean in your eyes.'
5 But oh, that God would speak,
And open His lips against you,
6 That He would show you the secrets of wisdom!
For they would double your prudence.
Know therefore that [a]God [1]exacts from you
Less than your iniquity deserves.
7 "Can[a] you search out the deep things of God?
Can you find out the limits of the Almighty?

ENCOUNTER Note Job 11:7

Our Understanding

Why should we even think we could grasp the full extent of God's wisdom? His ways are beyond our capability to understand. We are but creatures; He is the Creator.

8 They are higher than heaven— what can you do?
Deeper than [1]Sheol— what can you know?
9 Their measure is longer than the earth
And broader than the sea.
10 "If[a] He passes by, imprisons, and gathers to judgment,
Then who can [1]hinder Him?
11 For [a]He knows deceitful men;
He sees wickedness also.
Will He not then consider it?
12 For an [a]empty-headed man will be wise,
When a wild donkey's colt is born a man.
13 "If you would [a]prepare your heart,
And [b]stretch out your hands toward Him;
14 If iniquity were in your hand, and you put it far away,
And [a]would not let wickedness dwell in your tents;
15 [a]Then surely you could lift up your face without spot;
Yes, you could be steadfast, and not fear;
16 Because you would [a]forget your misery,
And remember it as waters that have passed away,

16 [a]Is. 65:16

10:16 Holding one's head high was a sign of pride and honor (Gen. 40:20; Ps. 27:6).

11:4 Job had not declared his doctrine to be "pure." Zophar is exaggerating his case.

11:13 Stretching out one's hands in worship was a posture of prayer and often indicated repentance (Ps. 88:9; 143:6; Is. 1:15; 1 Tim. 2:8).

17 And your life [a]would be brighter than noonday.
Though you were dark, you would be like the morning.
18 And you would be secure, because there is hope;
Yes, you would dig around you, and [a]take your rest in safety.
19 You would also lie down, and no one would make you afraid;
Yes, many would court your favor.
20 But [a]the eyes of the wicked will fail,
And they shall not escape,
And [b]their hope—[1]loss of life!"

Job Answers His Critics

12 Then Job answered and said:

2 "No doubt you are the people,
And wisdom will die with you!
3 But I have [1]understanding as well as you;
I am not [a]inferior to you.
Indeed, who does not know such things as these?
4 "I[a] am one mocked by his friends,
Who [b]called on God, and He answered him,
The just and blameless who is ridiculed.
5 A [1]lamp is despised in the thought of one who is at ease;
It is made ready for [a]those whose feet slip.
6 [a]The tents of robbers prosper,
And those who provoke God are secure—
In what God provides by His hand.
7 "But now ask the beasts, and they will teach you;
And the birds of the air, and they will tell you;
8 Or speak to the earth, and it will teach you;
And the fish of the sea will explain to you.
9 Who among all these does not know
That the hand of the LORD has done this,
10 [a]In whose hand is the [1]life of every living thing,
And the [b]breath of [2]all mankind?
11 Does not the ear test words
And the [1]mouth taste its food?
12 Wisdom is with aged men,
And with [1]length of days, understanding.
13 "With Him are [a]wisdom and strength,
He has counsel and understanding.
14 If [a]He breaks a thing down, it cannot be rebuilt;
If He imprisons a man, there can be no release.
15 If He [a]withholds the waters, they dry up;
If He [b]sends them out, they overwhelm the earth.
16 With Him are strength and prudence.
The deceived and the deceiver are His.
17 He leads counselors away plundered,
And makes fools of the judges.

ENCOUNTER Note — Job 12:17

God's Wisdom

God's wisdom infinitely exceeds our own. It is ludicrous for us to debate Him or to judge His actions.

18 He loosens the bonds of kings,
And binds their waist with a belt.
19 He leads [1]princes away plundered,
And overthrows the mighty.
20 [a]He deprives the trusted ones of speech,
And takes away the discernment of the elders.
21 [a]He pours contempt on princes,
And [1]disarms the mighty.
22 He [a]uncovers deep things out of darkness,
And brings the shadow of death to light.
23 [a]He makes nations great, and destroys them;
He [1]enlarges nations, and guides them.
24 He takes away the [1]understanding of the chiefs of the people of the earth,
And [a]makes them wander in a pathless wilderness.
25 [a]They grope in the dark without light,
And He makes them [b]stagger like a drunken man.

My ear has heard and understood it.

2 [a]Job 12:3

11:16 "Waters that have passed away" would be similar to the modern phrase, "water under the bridge."

12:7 "Beasts" is behemoth in Hebrew, meaning "cattle." It is transliterated as "behemoth" in Job 40:15.

12:8 "Speak" may also be translated "complain."

I am not inferior to you.
3 [a]But I would speak to the Almighty,
And I desire to reason with God.
4 But you forgers of lies,
[a]You are all worthless physicians.
5 Oh, that you would be silent,
And [a]it would be your wisdom!
6 Now hear my reasoning,
And heed the pleadings of my lips.
7 [a]Will you speak [1]wickedly for God,
And talk deceitfully for Him?
8 Will you show partiality for Him?
Will you contend for God?
9 Will it be well when He searches you out?
Or can you mock Him as one mocks a man?
10 He will surely rebuke you
If you secretly show partiality.
11 Will not His [1]excellence make you afraid,
And the dread of Him fall upon you?
12 Your platitudes are proverbs of ashes,
Your defenses are defenses of clay.

13 "Hold[1] your peace with me, and let me speak,
Then let come on me what may!
14 Why [a]do I take my flesh in my teeth,
And put my life in my hands?
15 [a]Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him.
[b]Even so, I will defend my own ways before Him.

ENCOUNTER Note Job 13:15

Absolute Trust

True faith in God does not depend on blessings or prosperity. Genuine, deep faith remains firm despite adversity.

16 He also shall be my salvation,
For a [a]hypocrite could not come before Him.
17 Listen carefully to my speech,
And to my declaration with your ears.
18 See now, I have prepared my case,
I know that I shall be [a]vindicated.

Job's Despondent Prayer

20 "Only[a] two things do not do to me,
Then I will not hide myself from You:
21 [a]Withdraw Your hand far from me,
And let not the dread of You make me afraid.
22 Then call, and I will [a]answer;
Or let me speak, then You respond to me.
23 How many are my iniquities and sins?
Make me know my transgression and my sin.
24 [a]Why do You hide Your face,
And [b]regard me as Your enemy?
25 [a]Will You frighten a leaf driven to and fro?
And will You pursue dry stubble?
26 For You write bitter things against me,
And [a]make me inherit the iniquities of my youth.
27 [a]You put my feet in the stocks,
And watch closely all my paths.
You [1]set a limit for the [2]soles of my feet.

28 "Man[1] decays like a rotten thing,
Like a garment that is moth-eaten.

14 "Man who is born of woman
Is of few days and [a]full of [1]trouble.
2 [a]He comes forth like a flower and fades away;
He flees like a shadow and does not continue.
3 And [a]do You open Your eyes on such a one,
And [b]bring [1]me to judgment with Yourself?
4 Who [a]can bring a clean thing out of an unclean?
No one!
5 [a]Since his days are determined,
The number of his months is with You;
You have appointed his limits, so that he cannot pass.
6 [a]Look away from him that he may [1]rest,
Till [b]like a hired man he finishes his day.

5 [a]Job 7:1; 21:21
6 [a]Ps. 39:13 [b]Job 7:1 [1]Lit. cease

13:3 Job's friends spoke dogmatically about things they did not understand. Job realized his real need was to hear from God. This was a time for prayer, not theological debate.

13:4 "Forger of lies" is literally "falsehood plasterers."

13:21 God's hand can either bring comfort or judgment (Neh. 2:8, 18; Ps. 139:5; Heb. 10:31).

14:1 "Man born of woman" means "everyone."

14:5 Job recognized that God had set limits on the human life span (Gen. 6:3; Ps. 90:10).

And that its tender shoots will not cease.
8 Though its root may grow old in the earth,
And its stump may die in the ground,
9 Yet at the scent of water it will bud
And bring forth branches like a plant.
10 But man dies and [1]is laid away;
Indeed he [2]breathes his last
And where is [a]he?
11 As water disappears from the sea,
And a river becomes parched and dries up,
12 So man lies down and does not rise.
[a]Till the heavens are no more,
They will not awake
Nor be roused from their sleep.

13 "Oh, that You would hide me in the grave,
That You would conceal me until Your wrath is past,
That You would appoint me a set time, and remember me!
14 If a man dies, shall he live again?
All the days of my hard service [a]I will wait,
Till my change comes.
15 [a]You shall call, and I will answer You;
You shall desire the work of Your hands.

ENCOUNTER Note Job 14:15

You Shall Call

When God calls, will you recognize His voice and answer Him?

16 For now [a]You number my steps,
But do not watch over my sin.
17 [a]My transgression is sealed up in a bag,
And You [1]cover my iniquity.

18 "But as a mountain falls and crumbles away,
And as a rock is moved from its place;
19 As water wears away stones,
And as torrents wash away the soil of the earth;
So You destroy the hope of man.
20 You prevail forever against him, and he passes on;
You change his countenance and send him away.
21 His sons come to honor, and [a]he does not know it;
They are brought low, and he does not perceive it.
22 But his flesh will be in pain over it,
And his soul will mourn over it."

Eliphaz Accuses Job of Folly

15 Then [a]Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said:

2 "Should a wise man answer with empty knowledge,
And fill [1]himself with the east wind?
3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk,
Or by speeches with which he can do no good?
4 Yes, you cast off fear,
And restrain [1]prayer before God.
5 For your iniquity teaches your mouth,
And you choose the tongue of the crafty.
6 [a]Your own mouth condemns you, and not I;
Yes, your own lips testify against you.

7 "Are you the first man who was born?
[a]Or were you made before the hills?
8 [a]Have you heard the counsel of God?
Do you limit wisdom to yourself?
9 [a]What do you know that we do not know?
What do you understand that is not in us?
10 [a]Both the gray-haired and the aged are among us,
Much older than your father.
11 Are the consolations of God too small for you,
And the word spoken [1]gently with you?
12 Why does your heart carry you away,
And [1]what do your eyes wink at,
13 That you turn your spirit against God,
And let such words go out of your mouth?

14 "What[a] is man, that he could be pure?
And he who is born of a woman, that he could be righteous?

And the heavens are not pure in His sight,

15:15 "Saints" means "holy ones."

16 [a]How much less man, who is abominable and filthy,
[b]Who drinks iniquity like water!

17 "I will tell you, hear me;
What I have seen I will declare,
18 What wise men have told,
Not hiding anything received [a]from their fathers,
19 To whom alone the [1]land was given,
And [a]no alien passed among them:
20 The wicked man writhes with pain
all his days,
[a]And the number of years is hidden from the oppressor.
21 [1]Dreadful sounds are in his ears;
[a]In prosperity the destroyer comes upon him.
22 He does not believe that he will
[a]return from darkness,
For a sword is waiting for him.
23 He [a]wanders about for bread, saying, 'Where is it?'
He knows [b]that a day of darkness is ready at his hand.
24 Trouble and anguish make him afraid;
They overpower him, like a king ready for [1]battle.
25 For he stretches out his hand
against God,
And acts defiantly against the Almighty,
26 Running stubbornly against Him
With his strong, embossed shield.

27 "Though[a] he has covered his face
with his fatness,
And made his waist heavy with fat,
28 He dwells in desolate cities,
In houses which no one inhabits,
Which are destined to become ruins.
29 He will not be rich,
Nor will his wealth [a]continue,
Nor will his possessions overspread
the earth.
30 He will not depart from darkness;
The flame will dry out his branches,
And [a]by the breath of His mouth he will go away.
31 Let him not [a]trust in futile things,
deceiving himself,
For futility will be his reward.
32 It will be accomplished [a]before his time,
And his branch will not be green.
33 He will shake off his unripe grape like a vine,
And cast off his blossom like an olive tree.
34 For the company of hypocrites will be barren,
And fire will consume the tents of bribery.
35 [a]They conceive trouble and bring forth futility;
Their womb prepares deceit."

Job Reproaches His Pitiless Friends

16 Then Job answered and said:

2 "I have heard many such things;
[a]Miserable[1] comforters are you all!
3 Shall [1]words of wind have an end?
Or what provokes you that you
answer?
4 I also could speak as you do,
If your soul were in my soul's place.
I could heap up words against you,
And [a]shake my head at you;
5 But I would strengthen you with my mouth,
And the comfort of my lips would relieve your grief.

6 "Though I speak, my grief is not relieved;
And if I remain silent, how am I eased?
7 But now He has [a]worn me out;
You [b]have made desolate all my company.
8 You have shriveled me up,
And it is a [a]witness against me;
My leanness rises up against me
And bears witness to my face.
9 [a]He tears me in His wrath, and hates
me;
He gnashes at me with His teeth;
[b]My adversary sharpens His gaze on
me.
10 They [a]gape at me with their mouth,
They [b]strike me reproachfully on the cheek,
They gather together against me.
11 God [a]has delivered me to the ungodly,
And turned me over to the hands of the wicked.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Job 15:31

Futile Things

When we trust in anyone or anything other than God, we set ourselves up for certain disappointment.

15:34 "Fire" uses the same word as the one used for the fire that devoured Job's sheep and servants. Eliphaz was implying that Job's children died from God's judgment on sin (Job 1:16).

16:2 "Miserable comforters" describes Job's summary of his friends and their efforts.

16:10 "Gape" may refer to passersby who stared at the famed Job in his humiliated condition.

He also has taken me by my neck,
and shaken me to pieces;
He has [b]set me up for His target,
13 His archers surround me.
He pierces my [1]heart and does not pity;
He pours out my gall on the ground.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Job 16:12, 13

Shattered

It is dangerous to rely on our own security or prosperity. Both can vanish in an instant. We are much wiser to fasten our confidence on the Lord.

14 He breaks me with wound upon wound;
He runs at me like a [1]warrior.
15 "I have sewn sackcloth over my skin,
And [a]laid my [1]head in the dust.
16 My face is [1]flushed from weeping,
And on my eyelids is the shadow of death;
17 Although no violence is in my hands,
And my prayer is pure.
18 "O earth, do not cover my blood,
And [a]let my cry have no resting place!
19 Surely even now [a]my witness is in heaven,
And my evidence is on high.
20 My friends scorn me;
My eyes pour out tears to God.
21 [a]Oh, that one might plead for a man with God,
As a man pleads for his [1]neighbor!
22 For when a few years are finished,
I shall [a]go the way of no return.

Job Prays for Relief

17 "My spirit is broken,
My days are extinguished,
[a]The grave is ready for me.
2 Are not mockers with me?
And does not my eye [1]dwell on their [a]provocation?
3 "Now put down a pledge for me with Yourself.
Who is he who [a]will shake hands with me?
4 For You have hidden their heart from [a]understanding;
Therefore You will not exalt them.
5 He who speaks flattery to his friends,
Even the eyes of his children will [a]fail.
6 "But He has made me [a]a byword of the people,
And I have become one in whose face men spit.
7 [a]My eye has also grown dim because of sorrow,
And all my members are like shadows.
8 Upright men are astonished at this,
And the innocent stirs himself up against the hypocrite.
9 Yet the righteous will hold to his [a]way,
And he who has [b]clean hands will be stronger and stronger.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Job 17:9

Moral Purity

Those who strive to be morally pure will please God and enjoy His favor. They will experience an increasing measure of spiritual power.

10 "But please, [a]come back again, [1]all of you,
For I shall not find one wise man among you.
11 [a]My days are past,
My purposes are broken off,
Even the [1]thoughts of my heart.
12 They change the night into day;
'The light is near,' they say, in the face of darkness.
13 If I wait for the grave as my house,
If I make my bed in the darkness,
14 If I say to corruption, 'You are my father,'
And to the worm, 'You are my mother and my sister,'
15 Where then is my [a]hope?
As for my hope, who can see it?
16 Will they go down [a]to the gates of [1]Sheol?
Shall we have [b]rest together in the dust?"

16 [a]Jon. 2:6 [b]Job 3:17–19; 21:33 [1]The abode of the dead

16:18 To "cover blood" was to conceal a crime.

16:19 "My witness is in heaven" signifies Job's understanding that his right standing with God would ultimately be decided by God's impartial and accurate accounting of his life.

16:21 Interceding for others is an idea we see again in the New Testament (Heb. 7:25, 1 John 2:1).

17:1 Job's spirit was broken. Seeking to justify himself before God and his friends was totally exhausting.

17:3 A "pledge" indicates Job's request for God to put up bail for him. Job is looking for some sign of God's confidence in him.

17:16 "Gates" could also be translated "bars."

Bildad: The Wicked Are Punished

18 Then [a]Bildad the Shuhite answered and said:

2 "How long till you put an end to words?
Gain understanding, and afterward we will speak.
3 Why are we counted [a]as beasts,
And regarded as stupid in your sight?
4 [a]You[1] who tear yourself in anger,
Shall the earth be forsaken for you?
Or shall the rock be removed from its place?
5 "The[a] light of the wicked indeed goes out,
And the flame of his fire does not shine.
6 The light is dark in his tent,
[a]And his lamp beside him is put out.
7 The steps of his strength are shortened,
And [a]his own counsel casts him down.
8 For [a]he is cast into a net by his own feet,
And he walks into a snare.
9 The net takes him by the heel,
And [a]a snare lays hold of him.
10 A noose is hidden for him on the ground,
And a trap for him in the road.
11 [a]Terrors frighten him on every side,
And drive him to his feet.
12 His strength is starved,
And [a]destruction is ready at his side.
13 It devours patches of his skin;
The firstborn of death devours his [1]limbs.
14 He is uprooted from [a]the shelter of his tent,
And they parade him before the king of terrors.
15 They dwell in his tent who are none of his;
Brimstone is scattered on his dwelling.
16 [a]His roots are dried out below,
And his branch withers above.
17 [a]The memory of him perishes from the earth,
And he has no name [1]among the renowned.
18 [1]He is driven from light into darkness,
And chased out of the world.
19 [a]He has neither son nor posterity among his people,
Nor any remaining in his dwellings.
20 Those [1]in the west are astonished [a]at his day,
As those [2]in the east are frightened.
21 Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked,
And this is the place of him who [a]does not know God."

ENCOUNTER Note — Job 18:21

Knowledge of God

Apart from knowing God, life is full of uncertainty. Our security in unstable times is our relationship with God.

Job Trusts in His Redeemer

19 Then Job answered and said:

2 "How long will you torment my soul,
And break me in pieces with words?
3 These ten times you have [1]reproached me;
You are not ashamed that you [2]have wronged me.
4 And if indeed I have erred,
My error remains with me.
5 If indeed you [a]exalt yourselves against me,
And plead my disgrace against me,
6 Know then that [a]God has wronged me,
And has surrounded me with His net.
7 "If I cry out concerning [1]wrong, I am not heard.
If I cry aloud, there is no justice.
8 [a]He has [1]fenced up my way, so that I cannot pass;
And He has set darkness in my paths.
9 [a]He has stripped me of my glory,
And taken the crown from my head.
10 He breaks me down on every side,
And I am gone;
My [a]hope He has uprooted like a tree.
11 He has also kindled His wrath against me,
And [a]He counts me as one of His enemies.
12 His troops come together
And build up their road against me;
They encamp all around my tent.

18:2 "Gain understanding" is an insult from Bildad, implying it is pointless to discuss these issues with Job until he gains more wisdom first.

18:14 "King of terrors" may be death, or perhaps Satan.

18:20 "Day" may be translated "fate."

19:2 "Break me in pieces with words" reflects the devastating power of words, especially to those in vulnerable positions (Eph. 4:29).

13 "He[a] has removed my brothers far from me,
And my acquaintances are completely estranged from me.
14 My relatives have failed,
And my close friends have forgotten
me.
15 Those who dwell in my house, and
my maidservants,
Count me as a stranger;
I am an alien in their sight.
16 I call my servant, but he gives no
answer;
I beg him with my mouth.
17 My breath is offensive to my wife,
And I am [1]repulsive to the children
of my own body.
18 Even [a]young children despise me;
I arise, and they speak against me.
19 [a]All my close friends abhor me,
And those whom I love have turned against me.
20 [a]My bone clings to my skin and to my flesh,
And I have escaped by the skin of my teeth.

21 "Have pity on me, have pity on me,
O you my friends,
For the hand of God has struck
me!
22 Why do you [a]persecute me as God
does,
And are not satisfied with my flesh?

23 "Oh, that my words were written!
Oh, that they were inscribed in a book!
24 That they were engraved on a rock
With an iron pen and lead, forever!
25 For I know that my [a]Redeemer lives,
And He shall stand at last on the
earth;

ENCOUNTER Note Job 19:25

The Redeemer

Everything else in our lives may be lost, but our Redeemer cannot be taken from us. Even in our darkest times, this truth gives us hope.

26 And after my skin is [1]destroyed,
this I know,
That [a]in my flesh I shall see God,
27 Whom I shall see for myself,
And my eyes shall behold, and not another.

Zophar's Sermon on the Wicked Man

20 Then [a]Zophar the Naamathite answered and said:

2 "Therefore my anxious thoughts
make me answer,
Because of the turmoil within me.
3 I have heard the rebuke [1]that reproaches me,
And the spirit of my understanding causes me to answer.

4 "Do you not know this of [a]old,
Since man was placed on earth,
5 [a]That the triumphing of the wicked is short,
And the joy of the hypocrite is but
for a [b]moment?
6 [a]Though his haughtiness mounts up to the heavens,
And his head reaches to the clouds,
7 Yet he will perish forever like his own refuse;
Those who have seen him will say,
'Where is he?'
8 He will fly away [a]like a dream, and not be found;
Yes, he [b]will be chased away like a vision of the night.
9 The eye that saw him will see him
no more,
Nor will his place behold him anymore.
10 His children will seek the favor of the poor,
And his hands will restore his wealth.
11 His bones are full of [a]his youthful vigor,
[b]But it will lie down with him in the dust.

12 "Though evil is sweet in his mouth,
And he hides it under his tongue,
13 Though he spares it and does not forsake it,
But still keeps it in his [1]mouth,
14 Yet his food in his stomach turns sour;
It becomes cobra venom within him.

19:20 "The skin of my teeth" may indicate Job's emaciated condition.

19:21 Specifically, it was Satan's hand, not God's, that struck Job (Job 1:11; 2:5).

20:5 Zophar reminds Job that the prosperity of the wicked is short-lived. Zophar is implying that Job's earlier success and current poverty reflect this traditional pattern.

20:7 "Refuse" could also mean "dung."

15 He swallows down riches
And vomits them up again;
God casts them out of his belly.
16 He will suck the poison of cobras;
The viper's tongue will slay him.
17 He will not see [a]the streams,
The rivers flowing with honey and cream.
18 He will restore that for which he labored,
And will not swallow it down;
From the proceeds of business
He will get no enjoyment.
19 For he has [1]oppressed and forsaken the poor,
He has violently seized a house which he did not build.

20 "Because[a] he knows no quietness in his [1]heart,
He will not save anything he desires.
21 Nothing is left for him to eat;
Therefore his well-being will not last.
22 In his self-sufficiency he will be in distress;
Every hand of [1]misery will come against him.
23 When he is about to fill his stomach,
God will cast on him the fury of His wrath,
And will rain it on him while he is eating.
24 [a]He will flee from the iron weapon;
A bronze bow will pierce him through.
25 It is drawn, and comes out of the body;
Yes, [a]the glittering point comes out of his [1]gall.
[b]Terrors come upon him;
26 Total darkness is reserved for his treasures.
[a]An unfanned fire will consume him;
It shall go ill with him who is left in his tent.
27 The heavens will reveal his iniquity,
And the earth will rise up against him.

ENCOUNTER Note Job 20:27

Nothing Hidden

Wickedness carried out in secret today will one day be fully revealed.

28 The increase of his house will depart,
And his goods will flow away in the day of His [a]wrath.
29 [a]This is the portion from God for a wicked man,
The heritage appointed to him by God."

Job's Discourse on the Wicked

21 Then Job answered and said:

2 "Listen carefully to my speech,
And let this be your [1]consolation.
3 Bear with me that I may speak,
And after I have spoken, keep [a]mocking.

4 "As for me, is my complaint against man?
And if it were, why should I not be impatient?
5 Look at me and be astonished;
[a]Put your hand over your mouth.
6 Even when I remember I am terrified,
And trembling takes hold of my flesh.
7 [a]Why do the wicked live and become old,
Yes, become mighty in power?
8 Their descendants are established with them in their sight,
And their offspring before their eyes.
9 Their houses are safe from fear,
[a]Neither is [1]the rod of God upon them.
10 Their bull breeds without failure;
Their cow calves [a]without miscarriage.
11 They send forth their little ones like a flock,
And their children dance.
12 They sing to the tambourine and harp,
And rejoice to the sound of the flute.
13 They [a]spend their days in wealth,
And [1]in a moment go down to the [2]grave.
14 [a]Yet they say to God, 'Depart from us,
For we do not desire the knowledge of Your ways.
15 [a]Who is the Almighty, that we should serve Him?
And [b]what profit do we have if we pray to Him?'
16 Indeed [1]their prosperity is not in their hand;
[a]The counsel of the wicked is far from me.

20:29 Zophar is concluding that Job must resign himself to the eventual lot of the wicked.

21:7 Job points out that the wicked do not always meet disaster in this life. His friends' dogma is not foolproof.

17 "How often is the lamp of the wicked put out?
How often does their destruction come upon them,
The sorrows God [a]distributes in His anger?
18 [a]They are like straw before the wind,
And like chaff that a storm [1]carries away.
19 They say, 'God [1]lays up [2]one's iniquity [a]for his children';
Let Him recompense him, that he may know it.

ENCOUNTER Note Job 21:19

Our Children

The consequences of our sin affect our families. This truth should motivate us toward purity, for the sake of those we love.

20 Let his eyes see his destruction,
And [a]let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty.
21 For what does he care about his household after him,
When the number of his months is cut in half?

22 "Can[a] anyone teach God knowledge,
Since He judges those on high?
23 One dies in his full strength,
Being wholly at ease and secure;
24 His [1]pails are full of milk,
And the marrow of his bones is moist.
25 Another man dies in the bitterness of his soul,
Never having eaten with pleasure.
26 They [a]lie down alike in the dust,
And worms cover them.

27 "Look, I know your thoughts,
And the schemes with which you would wrong me.
28 For you say,
'Where is the house of the prince?
And where is [1]the tent,
The dwelling place of the wicked?'
29 Have you not asked those who travel the road?
And do you not know their signs?
30 [a]For the wicked are reserved for the day of doom;
They shall be brought out on the day of wrath.

[a]Everyone shall follow him,

34 How then can you comfort me with empty words,
Since [1]falsehood remains in your answers?"

Eliphaz Accuses Job of Wickedness

22 Then [a]Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said:

2 "Can[a] a man be profitable to God,
Though he who is wise may be profitable to himself?
3 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty that you are righteous?
Or is it gain to Him that you make your ways blameless?

4 "Is it because of your fear of Him that He corrects you,
And enters into judgment with you?
5 Is not your wickedness great,
And your iniquity without end?
6 For you have [a]taken pledges from your brother for no reason,
And stripped the naked of their clothing.
7 You have not given the weary water to drink,
And you [a]have withheld bread from the hungry.
8 But the [1]mighty man possessed the land,
And the honorable man dwelt in it.
9 You have sent widows away empty,
And the [1]strength of the fatherless was crushed.
10 Therefore snares are all around you,
And sudden fear troubles you,
11 Or darkness so that you cannot see;
And an abundance of [a]water covers you.

21:19 There are Old Testament scriptures that indicate God would punish the children of sinners for several generations (Ex. 20:5, 6; Jer. 31:29; Lam. 5:7; Ezek. 18:2). However, this view was tempered by other scriptures emphasizing God's perfect justice and the accountability of each person for their actions (Deut. 24:16; Ezek. 18:1–28; John 9:1–3).

21:24 To be fat indicated material success.

21:25 Job points out that some wicked men live long, seemingly contented lives while others suffer misery and die young. There is clearly no set formula in the way God deals with people.

22:3 Here Eliphaz's description of Job as "righteous" and "blameless' is sarcasm.

14 [a]Thick clouds cover Him, so that He cannot see,
And He walks above the circle of heaven.'
15 Will you keep to the old way
Which wicked men have trod,
16 Who [a]were cut down before their time,
Whose foundations were swept away by a flood?
17 [a]They said to God, 'Depart from us!
What can the Almighty do to [1]them?'
18 Yet He filled their houses with good things;
But the counsel of the wicked is far from me.
19 "The[a] righteous see it and are glad,
And the innocent laugh at them:
20 'Surely our [1]adversaries are cut down,
And the fire consumes their remnant.'

21 "Now acquaint yourself with Him, and [a]be at peace;
Thereby good will come to you.
22 Receive, please, [a]instruction from His mouth,
And [b]lay up His words in your heart.
23 If you return to the Almighty, you will be built up;
You will remove iniquity far from your tents.

ENCOUNTER Note — Job 22:23

Return to the Almighty

The only remedy for sin is returning to God. Sin separates us from God. Repentance leads to restoration.

24 Then you will [a]lay your gold in the dust,
And the gold of Ophir among the stones of the brooks.
25 Yes, the Almighty will be your [1]gold
And your precious silver;
26 For then you will have your [a]delight in the Almighty,
And lift up your face to God.
27 [a]You will make your prayer to Him,
He will hear you,
And you will pay your vows.
28 You will also declare a thing,
And it will be established for you;
So light will shine on your ways.
29 When they cast you down, and you say, 'Exaltation will come!'
Then [a]He will save the humble person.
30 He will even deliver one who is not innocent;
Yes, he will be delivered by the purity of your hands."

Job Proclaims God's Righteous Judgments

23 Then Job answered and said:

2 "Even today my [a]complaint is bitter;
[1]My hand is listless because of my groaning.
3 [a]Oh, that I knew where I might find Him,
That I might come to His seat!
4 I would present my case before Him,
And fill my mouth with arguments.
5 I would know the words which He would answer me,
And understand what He would say to me.
6 [a]Would He contend with me in His great power?
No! But He would take note of me.
7 There the upright could reason with Him,
And I would be delivered forever from my Judge.
8 "Look,[a] I go forward, but He is not there,
And backward, but I cannot perceive Him;
9 When He works on the left hand, I cannot behold Him;
When He turns to the right hand, I cannot see Him.
10 But [a]He knows the way that I take;
When [b]He has tested me, I shall come forth as gold.
11 [a]My foot has held fast to His steps;
I have kept His way and not turned aside.
12 I have not departed from the [a]commandment of His lips;
[b]I have treasured the words of His mouth
More than my [1]necessary food.

22:23 "Return" implies Job had drifted away from God and placed his trust in riches (24).

22:30 Eliphaz's prediction that God would deliver people through the purity of Job's hands was fulfilled for Eliphaz and his friends (Job 42:8–10).

23:10 Job was confident he could stand up to God's testing (Ps. 139:23–24; Ezek. 22:17–22).

23:12 "Necessary food" can be translated "daily bread."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Job 23:12

Necessary Food

God's word is top priority. If we must forego sleep or food or recreation in order not to neglect God's word, then that's what we must do.

14 For He performs what is [a]appointed for me,
And many such things are with Him.
15 Therefore I am terrified at His presence;
When I consider this, I am afraid of Him.
16 For God [a]made my heart weak,
And the Almighty terrifies me;
17 Because I was not [a]cut off [1]from the presence of darkness,
And He did not hide deep darkness from my face.

Job Complains of Violence on the Earth

24 "Since [a]times are not hidden from the Almighty,
Why do those who know Him see not His [b]days?
2 "Some remove [a]landmarks;
They seize flocks violently and feed on them;
3 They drive away the donkey of the fatherless;
They [a]take the widow's ox as a pledge.
4 They push the needy off the road;
All the [a]poor of the land are forced to hide.
5 Indeed, like wild donkeys in the desert,
They go out to their work, searching for food.
The wilderness yields food for them and for their children.
6 They gather their fodder in the field
And glean in the vineyard of the wicked.
7 They [a]spend the night naked, without clothing,
And have no covering in the cold.
8 They are wet with the showers of the mountains,
And [a]huddle around the rock for want of shelter.
9 "Some snatch the fatherless from the breast,
And take a pledge from the poor.
10 They cause the poor to go naked, without [a]clothing;
And they take away the sheaves from the hungry.
11 They press out oil within their walls,
And tread winepresses, yet suffer thirst.
12 The dying groan in the city,
And the souls of the wounded cry out;
Yet God does not charge them with wrong.

13 "There are those who rebel against the light;
They do not know its ways
Nor abide in its paths.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Job 24:13

God's Light

God's word sheds light on our circumstances. Yet we are uncomfortable with His light when we do not like what it exposes. The problem is not the light, that we should reject it. The problem is our sin.

14 [a]The murderer rises with the light;
He kills the poor and needy;
And in the night he is like a thief.
15 [a]The eye of the adulterer waits for the twilight,
[b]Saying, 'No eye will see me';
And he [1]disguises his face.
16 In the dark they break into houses
Which they marked for themselves in the daytime;
[a]They do not know the light.
17 For the morning is the same to them as the shadow of death;
If someone recognizes them,
They are in the terrors of the shadow of death.
18 "They should be swift on the face of the waters,
Their portion should be cursed in the earth,
So that no one would turn into the way of their vineyards.
19 As drought and heat [1]consume the snow waters,
So [2]the grave consumes those who have sinned.
20 The womb should forget him,
The worm should feed sweetly on him;

24:2 Moving landmarks constituted theft and was considered a serious crime (Deut. 19:14; 27:17).

24:15 "Twilight" signifies that sin and evil are identified with darkness (16, John 1:5).

24:16 "Break into" is literally "dig into."

[a]He should be remembered no more,
And wickedness should be broken like a tree.
21 For he [1]preys on the barren who do not bear,
And does no good for the widow.
22 "But God draws the mighty away with His power;
He rises up, but no man is sure of life.
23 He gives them security, and they rely on it;
Yet [a]His eyes are on their ways.
24 They are exalted for a little while,

They are brought low;
They are [1]taken out of the way like all others;
They dry out like the heads of grain.
25 "Now if it is not so, who will prove me a liar,
And make my speech worth nothing?"

Bildad: How Can Man Be Righteous?

25 Then [a]Bildad the Shuhite answered and said:

2 "Dominion and fear belong to Him;
He makes peace in His high places.
3 [1]Is there any number to His armies?
Upon whom does [a]His light not rise?
4 [a]How then can man be righteous before God?
Or how can he be [b]pure who is born of a woman?

ENCOUNTER Note Job 25:4

None Righteous

Our morals do not begin to compare with God's righteousness. God's brilliant, penetrating, holy countenance quickly reveals how desperately sinful we really are, despite what we might think.

3 How have you counseled one who has no wisdom?

5 "The dead tremble,

He hangs the earth on nothing.
8 [a]He binds up the water in His thick clouds,
Yet the clouds [1]are not broken under it.
9 He covers the face of His throne,
And spreads His cloud over it.
10 [a]He drew a circular horizon on the face of the waters,

The Edges of His Ways

It is absurd for us to expect to understand all God does. We are creatures. He is the Creator. Too often we flatter ourselves with the capacity of our understanding.

25:6 Bildad sought to exalt God by devaluing humanity to nothing more than maggots or worms. Scripturally, God's love for people gives them enormous worth.

26:6 "Destruction" is Abaddon in Hebrew.

26:7 "North" may refer not to a geographic location but to God's dwelling place in the heavens.

26:14 Job declared that despite the awesome deeds people had seen God perform, they were merely a fraction of what God was capable of doing.

Job Maintains His Integrity

27 Moreover Job continued his discourse, and said:

2 "As God lives, [a]who has taken away my justice,
And the Almighty, who has made my soul bitter,
3 As long as my breath is in me,
And the breath of God in my nostrils,
4 My lips will not speak wickedness,
Nor my tongue utter deceit.
5 Far be it from me
That I should say you are right;
Till I die [a]I will not put away my integrity from me.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Job 27:5

Holding to Integrity

Our integrity is something we control. No one and no event can take it from us. We choose to surrender it or cling to it.

6 My righteousness I [a]hold fast, and will not let it go;
[b]My heart shall not [1]reproach me as long as I live.

7 "May my enemy be like the wicked,
And he who rises up against me like the unrighteous.
8 [a]For what is the hope of the hypocrite,
Though he may gain much,
If God takes away his life?
9 [a]Will God hear his cry
When trouble comes upon him?
10 [a]Will he delight himself in the Almighty?
Will he always call on God?

11 "I will teach you [1]about the hand of God;
What is with the Almighty I will not conceal.
12 Surely all of you have seen it;
Why then do you behave with complete nonsense?

13 "This[a] is the portion of a wicked man with God,
And the heritage of oppressors, received from the Almighty:

14 [a]If his children are multiplied, it is for the sword;
And his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.
15 Those who survive him shall be buried in death,
And [a]their[1] widows shall not weep,
16 Though he heaps up silver like dust,
And piles up clothing like clay—
17 He may pile it up, but [a]the just will wear it,
And the innocent will divide the silver.
18 He builds his house like a [1]moth,
[a]Like a [2]booth which a watchman makes.
19 The rich man will lie down,
[1]But not be gathered up;
He opens his eyes,
And he is [a]no more.
20 [a]Terrors overtake him like a flood;
A tempest steals him away in the night.
21 The east wind carries him away, and he is gone;
It sweeps him out of his place.
22 It hurls against him and does not [a]spare;
He flees desperately from its [1]power.
23 Men shall clap their hands at him,
And shall hiss him out of his place.

Job's Discourse on Wisdom

28 "Surely there is a mine for silver,
And a place where gold is refined.
2 Iron is taken from the [1]earth,
And copper is smelted from ore.
3 Man puts an end to darkness,
And searches every recess
For ore in the darkness and the shadow of death.
4 He breaks open a shaft away from people;
In places forgotten by feet
They hang far away from men;
They swing to and fro.
5 As for the earth, from it comes bread,
But underneath it is turned up as by fire;
6 Its stones are the source of sapphires,
And it contains gold dust.
7 That path no bird knows,
Nor has the falcon's eye seen it.

27:1 In the normal procedure of debate, Zophar would have brought the next speech. That he does not may indicate that the friends could think of nothing new to say to change Job's mind.

27:7 Job is wishing his enemies would experience the fate of the wicked. He may be implying his friends have been acting like enemies toward him.

27:14 All of Job's friends attributed his children's suffering to Job's sin (Job 5:4; 8:4; 18:19; 20:10).

28:1 There were no gold mines in Israel, but gold was highly valued.

28:2 The mention of iron may suggest that the Book of Job was written some time after 1200 B.C., at the beginning of the Iron Age.

28:6 "Sapphires" may refer to lapis lazuli.

8 The [1]proud lions have not trodden it,
Nor has the fierce lion passed over it.
9 He puts his hand on the flint;
He overturns the mountains [1]at the roots.
10 He cuts out channels in the rocks,
And his eye sees every precious thing.
11 He dams up the streams from trickling;
What is hidden he brings forth to light.

12 "But[a] where can wisdom be found?
And where is the place of understanding?
13 Man does not know its [a]value,
Nor is it found in the land of the living.
14 [a]The deep says, 'It is not in me';
And the sea says, 'It is not with me.'
15 It [a]cannot be purchased for gold,
Nor can silver be weighed for its price.
16 It cannot be valued in the gold of Ophir,
In precious onyx or sapphire.
17 Neither [a]gold nor crystal can equal it,
Nor can it be exchanged for [1]jewelry of fine gold.
18 No mention shall be made of [1]coral or quartz,
For the price of wisdom is above [a]rubies.
19 The topaz of Ethiopia cannot equal it,
Nor can it be valued in pure [a]gold.

20 "From[a] where then does wisdom come?
And where is the place of understanding?
21 It is hidden from the eyes of all living,
And concealed from the birds of the [1]air.
22 [a]Destruction[1] and Death say,
'We have heard a report about it with our ears.'
23 God understands its way,
And He knows its place.
24 For He looks to the ends of the earth,
And [a]sees under the whole heavens,
25 [a]To establish a weight for the wind,
And apportion the waters by measure.
26 When He [a]made a law for the rain,
And a path for the thunderbolt,
27 Then He saw [1]wisdom and declared it;
He prepared it, indeed, He searched it out.
28 And to man He said,
'Behold, [a]the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom,
And to depart from evil is understanding.' "

That Is Wisdom

We can seek wisdom, but we cannot obtain it on our own. God grants it to those who revere Him.

Job's Summary Defense

29 Job further continued his discourse, and said:

2 "Oh, that I were as in months [a]past,
As in the days when God [b]watched over me;
3 [a]When His lamp shone upon my head,
And when by His light I walked through darkness;
4 Just as I was in the days of my prime,
When [a]the friendly counsel of God was over my tent;
5 When the Almighty was yet with me,
When my children were around me;
6 When [a]my steps were bathed with [1]cream,
And [b]the rock poured out rivers of oil for me!

7 "When I went out to the gate by the city,
When I took my seat in the open square,
8 The young men saw me and hid,
And the aged arose and stood;
9 The princes refrained from talking,
And [a]put their hand on their mouth;
10 The voice of nobles was hushed,
And their [a]tongue stuck to the roof of their mouth.
11 When the ear heard, then it blessed me,
And when the eye saw, then it approved me;
12 Because [a]I delivered the poor who cried out,
The fatherless and the one who had no helper.

13 The blessing of a perishing man came upon me,
And I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.
14 [a]I put on righteousness, and it clothed me;
My justice was like a robe and a turban.

ENCOUNTER Note Job 29:14

Put on Righteousness

Righteousness does not come automatically, nor does God force it upon us. Moreover, there is no such thing as being "relatively righteous" or "partially pure." We either choose righteousness or we reject it.

15 I was [a]eyes to the blind,
And I was feet to the lame.
16 I was a father to the poor,
And [a]I searched out the case that I did not know.
17 I broke [a]the fangs of the wicked,
And plucked the victim from his teeth.
18 "Then I said, [a]'I shall die in my nest,
And multiply my days as the sand.
19 [a]My root is spread out [b]to the waters,
And the dew lies all night on my branch.
20 My glory is fresh within me,
And my [a]bow is renewed in my hand.'
21 "Men listened to me and waited,
And kept silence for my counsel.
22 After my words they did not speak again,
And my speech settled on them as dew.
23 They waited for me as for the rain,
And they opened their mouth wide as for [a]the spring rain.
24 If I mocked at them, they did not believe it,
And the light of my countenance they did not cast down.
25 I chose the way for them, and sat as chief;
So I dwelt as a king in the army,
As one who comforts mourners.

Their vigor has perished.
3 They are gaunt from want and famine,
Fleeing late to the wilderness, desolate and waste,

5 They were driven out from among men,
They shouted at them as at a thief.
6 They had to live in the clefts of the [1]valleys,
In [2]caves of the earth and the rocks.
7 Among the bushes they brayed,
Under the nettles they nestled.
8 They were sons of fools,
Yes, sons of vile men;
They were scourged from the land.
9 "And[a] now I am their taunting song;
Yes, I am their byword.
10 They abhor me, they keep far from me;
They do not hesitate [a]to spit in my face.
11 Because [a]He has loosed [1]my bowstring and afflicted me,
They have cast off restraint before me.
12 At my right hand the rabble arises;
They push away my feet,
And [a]they raise against me their ways of destruction.
13 They break up my path,
They promote my calamity;
They have no helper.
14 They come as broad breakers;
Under the ruinous storm they roll along.
15 Terrors are turned upon me;
They pursue my honor as the wind,
And my prosperity has passed like a cloud.
16 "And[a] now my soul is [b]poured out because of my plight;
The days of affliction take hold of me.
17 My bones are pierced in me at night,
And my gnawing pains take no rest.

29:18 Sand usually represents something that is beyond counting (Gen. 22:17; Josh. 11:4; Judg. 7:12; 1 Sam. 13:5; Ps. 139:18; Is. 48:19).

29:20 "Bow renewed" may indicate renewed vigor and strength.

30:1 In Old Testament times dogs were scavengers and were not kept as pets or regarded with affection (1 Kin. 14:11; 16:4; 21:23, 24; 22:38; Ps. 59:6; Prov. 26:11).

30:9 Job describes worthless people for whom he had no respect (30:1–8). Then he bemoans the fact that even these fools and outcasts are now looking down upon him.

30:10 Spitting in the face was one of the most despicable gestures one person could do to another.

18 By great force my garment is disfigured;
It binds me about as the collar of my coat.
19 He has cast me into the mire,
And I have become like dust and ashes.

ENCOUNTER Note Job 30:19

The Mire

Circumstances, or our choices, can bring us to low points in our lives. While God may allow us to sink into the depths, His love for us remains constant.

20 "I [a]cry out to You, but You do not answer me;
I stand up, and You regard me.
21 But You have become cruel to me;
With the strength of Your hand You [a]oppose me.
22 You lift me up to the wind and cause me to ride on it;
You spoil my success.
23 For I know that You will bring me to death,
And to the house [a]appointed for all living.

24 "Surely He would not stretch out His hand against a heap of ruins,
If they cry out when He destroys it.
25 [a]Have I not wept for him who was in trouble?
Has not my soul grieved for the poor?
26 [a]But when I looked for good, evil came to me;
And when I waited for light, then came darkness.
27 [1]My heart is in turmoil and cannot rest;
Days of affliction confront me.
28 [a]I go about mourning, but not in the sun;
I stand up in the assembly and cry out for help.
29 [a]I am a brother of jackals,
And a companion of ostriches.
30 [a]My skin grows black and falls from me;
[b]My bones burn with fever.
31 My harp is turned to mourning,
And my flute to the voice of those who weep.

31 "I have made a covenant with my eyes;
Why then should I [1]look upon a [a]young woman?
2 For what is the [a]allotment of God from above,
And the inheritance of the Almighty from on high?
3 Is it not destruction for the wicked,
And disaster for the workers of iniquity?
4 [a]Does He not see my ways,
And count all my steps?

5 "If I have walked with falsehood,
Or if my foot has hastened to deceit,
6 [1]Let me be weighed on honest scales,
That God may know my [a]integrity.

ENCOUNTER Note Job 31:6

Weighed

The measure of our integrity comes not from our own opinion, but from God's standard.

7 If my step has turned from the way,
Or [a]my heart walked after my eyes,
Or if any spot adheres to my hands,
8 Then [a]let me sow, and another eat;
Yes, let my harvest be [1]rooted out.

9 "If my heart has been enticed by a woman,
Or if I have lurked at my neighbor's door,
10 Then let my wife grind for [a]another,
And let others bow down over her.
11 For that would be wickedness;
Yes, [a]it would be iniquity deserving of judgment.
12 For that would be a fire that consumes to destruction,
And would root out all my increase.

13 "If I have [a]despised the cause of my male or female servant
When they complained against me,
14 What then shall I do when [a]God rises up?
When He punishes, how shall I answer Him?
15 [a]Did not He who made me in the womb make them?
Did not the same One fashion us in the womb?

16 "If I have kept the poor from their desire,
Or caused the eyes of the widow to [a]fail,
17 Or eaten my morsel by myself,

16 [a]Job 29:12

30:26 Job expresses bewilderment at living righteously and showing compassion and then receiving God's apparent punishment rather than His blessing.

30:30 This may indicate Job's painful physical suffering.

31:1 This is literally "cut" a covenant.

31:5 "If" in this case implies it is not so. Job has not been guilty of doing these things.

So that the fatherless could not eat of it 18 (But from my youth I reared him as a father,
And from my mother's womb I guided [1]the widow);
19 If I have seen anyone perish for lack of clothing,
Or any poor man without covering;
20 If his [1]heart has not [a]blessed me,
And if he was not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;
21 If I have raised my hand [a]against the fatherless,
When I saw I had help in the gate;
22 Then let my arm fall from my shoulder,
Let my arm be torn from the socket.
23 For [a]destruction from God is a terror to me,
And because of His magnificence I cannot endure.

24 "If[a] I have made gold my hope,
Or said to fine gold, 'You are my confidence';
25 [a]If I have rejoiced because my wealth was great,
And because my hand had gained much;
26 [a]If I have observed the [1]sun when it shines,
Or the moon moving in brightness,
27 So that my heart has been secretly enticed,
And my mouth has kissed my hand;
28 This also would be an iniquity deserving of judgment,
For I would have denied God who is above.

29 "If[a] I have rejoiced at the destruction of him who hated me,
Or lifted myself up when evil found him
30 [a](Indeed I have not allowed my mouth to sin
By asking for a curse on his [1]soul);
31 If the men of my tent have not said,
'Who is there that has not been satisfied with his meat?'
32 [a](But no sojourner had to lodge in the street,
For I have opened my doors to the [1]traveler);
33 If I have covered my transgressions [a]as[1] Adam,
By hiding my iniquity in my bosom,
34 Because I feared the great [a]multitude,
And dreaded the contempt of families,
So that I kept silence
And did not go out of the door—
35 [a]Oh, that I had one to hear me!
Here is my mark.
Oh, [b]that the Almighty would answer me,
That my [1]Prosecutor had written a book!
36 Surely I would carry it on my shoulder,
And bind it on me like a crown;
37 I would declare to Him the number of my steps;
Like a prince I would approach Him.

38 "If my land cries out against me,
And its furrows weep together;
39 If [a]I have eaten its [1]fruit without money,
Or [b]caused its owners to lose their lives;
40 Then let [a]thistles grow instead of wheat,
And weeds instead of barley."

The words of Job are ended.

Elihu Contradicts Job's Friends

32 So these three men ceased answering Job, because he was [a]righteous in his own eyes.
2 Then the wrath of Elihu, the son of Barachel the [a]Buzite, of the family of Ram, was aroused against Job; his wrath was aroused because he [b]justified himself rather than God.
3 Also against his three friends his wrath was aroused, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.
4 Now because they were years older than he, Elihu had waited [1]to speak to Job.
5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his wrath was aroused.
6 So Elihu, the son of Barachel the Buzite, answered and said:

"I am [a]young in years, and you are very old;
Therefore I was afraid,
And dared not declare my opinion to you.

31:27 "My mouth has kissed my hand" may indicate the idolatrous practice of throwing a kiss to false gods in the heavens. Many scriptures warn against idolizing God's creation rather than worshipping the Creator (Deut. 4:19; 17:3; 2 Kin. 23:5; Ezek. 8:16; Rom. 1:25).

31:35 Job reveals his desperation to hear God's word on the matter. He is convinced he could withstand any charge laid against him.

32:2 Elihu's name means "He Is My God." He was from the tribe of Buz, from the family of Ram, which means "High One" (Ruth 4:19).

32:5 "Wrath" indicates Elihu is speaking out of pride and anger.

7 I said, [1]'Age should speak,
And multitude of years should teach wisdom.'
8 But there is a spirit in man,
And [a]the breath of the Almighty gives him understanding.
9 [a]Great[1] men are not always wise,
Nor do the aged always understand justice.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Job 32:9

Age, Not Wisdom

Length of years or amount of experience does not ensure wisdom. Only God's instruction and revelation makes us wise. We will grow old and remain foolish if we will not learn from God.

10 "Therefore I say, 'Listen to me,
I also will declare my opinion.'
11 Indeed I waited for your words,
I listened to your reasonings, while you searched out what to say.
12 I paid close attention to you;
And surely not one of you convinced Job,
Or answered his words—
13 [a]Lest you say,
'We have found wisdom';
God will vanquish him, not man.
14 Now he has not [1]directed his words against me;
So I will not answer him with your words.

15 "They are dismayed and answer no more;
Words escape them.
16 And I have waited, because they did not speak,
Because they stood still and answered no more.
17 I also will answer my part,
I too will declare my opinion.
18 For I am full of words;
The spirit within me compels me.
19 Indeed my [1]belly is like wine that has no [2]vent;
It is ready to burst like new wineskins.
20 I will speak, that I may find relief;
I must open my lips and answer.
21 Let me not, I pray, show partiality to anyone;
Nor let me flatter any man.
22 For I do not know how to flatter,
Else my Maker would soon take me [a]away.

33 "But please, Job, hear my speech,
And listen to all my words.
2 Now, I open my mouth;
My tongue speaks in my mouth.
3 My words come from my upright heart;
My lips utter pure knowledge.
4 [a]The Spirit of God has made me,
And the breath of the Almighty gives me life.
5 If you can answer me,
Set your words in order before me;
Take your stand.
6 [a]Truly I am [1]as your spokesman before God;
I also have been formed out of clay.
7 [a]Surely no fear of me will terrify you,
Nor will my hand be heavy on you.

8 "Surely you have spoken [1]in my hearing,
And I have heard the sound of your words, saying,
9 'I[a] am pure, without transgression;
I am innocent, and there is no iniquity in me.
10 Yet He finds occasions against me,
[a]He counts me as His enemy;
11 [a]He puts my feet in the stocks,
He watches all my paths.'

12 "Look, in this you are not righteous.
I will answer you,
For God is greater than man.
13 Why do you [a]contend with Him?
For He does not give an accounting of any of His words.
14 [a]For God may speak in one way, or in another,
Yet man does not perceive it.
15 [a]In a dream, in a vision of the night,
When deep sleep falls upon men,
While slumbering on their beds,
16 [a]Then He opens the ears of men,
And seals their instruction.
17 In order to turn man from his deed,
And conceal pride from man,
18 He keeps back his soul from the Pit,
And his life from [1]perishing by the sword.

19 "Man is also chastened with pain on his [a]bed,
And with strong pain in many of his bones,
20 [a]So that his life abhors [b]bread,
And his soul [1]succulent food.
21 His flesh wastes away from sight,

32:12 Elihu listened to the debate and recognized that no one had been able to convince Job of his errors.

33:13 Elihu chastised Job for acting as if he could ask God to give an account for His actions.

33:15 Numerous scriptures mention God speaking to people in dreams and visions (Gen. 20:3; 31:11, 24; 1 Kin. 3:5; Is. 6:1; Dan. 7:1; Matt. 1:20; 2:13; Acts 10:11; 16:9).

22 Yes, his soul draws near the Pit,
And his life to the executioners.

23 "If there is a messenger for him,
A mediator, one among a thousand,
To show man His uprightness,
24 Then He is gracious to him, and says,
'Deliver him from going down to the Pit;
I have found [1]a ransom';
25 His flesh shall be young like a child's,
He shall return to the days of his youth.
26 He shall pray to God, and He will delight in him,
He shall see His face with joy,
For He restores to man His righteousness.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Job 33:26

Restoring Righteousness

By our own sin we can forfeit our righteousness, but God can restore it to us. His grace is sufficient for any sin.

27 Then he looks at men and [a]says,
'I have sinned, and perverted what was right,
And it [b]did not profit me.'
28 He will [a]redeem [1]his soul from going down to the Pit,
And [1]his life shall see the light.

29 "Behold, God works all these things,
Twice, in fact, three times with a man,
30 [a]To bring back his soul from the Pit,
That he may be enlightened with the light of life.

Elihu Proclaims God's Justice

34 Elihu further answered and said:

2 "Hear my words, you wise men;
Give ear to me, you who have knowledge.
3 [a]For the ear tests words
As the palate tastes food.
4 Let us choose justice for ourselves;
Let us know among ourselves what is good.

5 "For Job has said, [a]'I am righteous,
But [b]God has taken away my justice;
6 [a]Should I lie concerning my right?
My [1]wound is incurable, though I am without transgression.'
7 What man is like Job,
[a]Who drinks [1]scorn like water,
8 Who goes in company with the workers of iniquity,
And walks with wicked men?
9 For [a]he has said, 'It profits a man nothing
That he should delight in God.'

10 "Therefore listen to me, you [1]men of understanding:
[a]Far be it from God to do wickedness,
And from the Almighty to commit iniquity.
11 [a]For He repays man according to his work,
And makes man to find a reward according to his way.
12 Surely God will never do wickedly,
Nor will the Almighty [a]pervert justice.
13 Who gave Him charge over the earth?
Or who appointed Him over the whole world?

HISTORICAL*Encounter* DUNCAN CAMPBELL Job 33:14

In 1913, a young Scot named Duncan Campbell was playing his bagpipes for a dance. Suddenly, he was deeply moved by thoughts of Jesus' crucifixion. He hastily left the dance and headed home. On the way, he passed a building where his father was participating in an all night prayer service, so he went inside. There he heard an evangelist read Job 33:14. Instantly, he fell under conviction by the Holy Spirit. Later, on the way home, he stopped twice along the roadside to plead with God for mercy and forgiveness for his sins. When he arrived home at 2 A.M., Campbell discovered his mother on her knees praying for him. That night salvation came to Duncan Campbell.

33:30 The Pit, Hebrew shachath, refers to the grave or possibly the pit of hell.

34:2 "You wise men" may be a sarcastic comment by the young Elihu against Job's three friends.

34:11 The comment that "He repays man according to his work" affirms the traditional theology that God always judges the wicked and blesses the righteous.

If He should [a]gather to Himself His Spirit and His breath,
15 [a]All flesh would perish together,
And man would return to dust.

16 "If you have understanding, hear
this;
Listen to the sound of my words:
17 [a]Should one who hates justice govern?
Will you [b]condemn Him who is most just?

ENCOUNTER Note Job 34:17

Most Just

There is only one source of perfect justice. Though we may not understand God's actions, we are confident He will ultimately deal fairly with every person.

18 [a]Is it fitting to say to a king, 'You are worthless,'
And to nobles, 'You are wicked'?
19 Yet He [a]is not partial to princes,
Nor does He regard the rich more than the poor;
For [b]they are all the work of His hands.
20 In a moment they die, [a]in the middle of the night;
The people are shaken and pass
away;
The mighty are taken away without a hand.

21 "For[a] His eyes are on the ways of man,
And He sees all his steps.
22 [a]There is no darkness nor shadow of death
Where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.
23 For He need not further consider a
man,
That he should go before God in
judgment.
24 [a]He breaks in pieces mighty men without inquiry,
And sets others in their place.
25 Therefore He knows their works;
He overthrows them in the night,
And they are crushed.
26 He strikes them as wicked men
In the open sight of others,
27 Because they [a]turned back from Him,
And [b]would not consider any of His
ways,

28 So that they [a]caused the cry of the poor to come to Him;
For He [b]hears the cry of the afflicted.
29 When He gives quietness, who then can make trouble?
And when He hides His face, who then can see Him,
Whether it is against a nation or a man alone?—
30 That the hypocrite should not reign,
Lest the people be ensnared.

31 "For has anyone said to God,
'I have borne chastening;
I will offend no more;
32 Teach me what I do not see;
If I have done iniquity, I will do no more'?
33 Should He repay it according to your terms,
Just because you disavow it?
You must choose, and not I;
Therefore speak what you know.

34 "Men of understanding say to me,
Wise men who listen to me:
35 'Job[a] speaks without knowledge,
His words are without wisdom.'
36 Oh, that Job were tried to the utmost,
Because his answers are like those of wicked men!
37 For he adds [a]rebellion to his sin;
He claps his hands among us,
And multiplies his words against
God."

Elihu Condemns Self-Righteousness

35 Moreover Elihu answered and said:

2 "Do you think this is right?
Do you say,
'My righteousness is more than God's'?
3 For [a]you say,
'What advantage will it be to You?
What profit shall I have, more than if I had sinned?'

4 "I will answer you,
And [a]your companions with you.
5 [a]Look to the heavens and see;
And behold the clouds—
They are higher than you.
6 If you sin, what do you accomplish
[a]against Him?
Or, if your transgressions are multiplied, what do you do to
Him?
7 [a]If you are righteous, what do you give Him?

7 [a]Prov. 9:12

34:17 This question anticipates God's own (Job 40:8).

35:3 Elihu accused Job of trying to be righteous for the benefit of doing so.

Or what does He receive from your hand?
8 Your wickedness affects a man such as you,
And your righteousness a son of man.
9 "Because[a] of the multitude of oppressions they cry out;
They cry out for help because of the arm of the mighty.
10 But no one says, [a]'Where is God my Maker,
[b]Who gives songs in the night,
11 Who [a]teaches us more than the beasts of the earth,
And makes us wiser than the birds of heaven?'
12 [a]There they cry out, but He does not answer,
Because of the pride of evil men.
13 [a]Surely God will not listen to empty talk,
Nor will the Almighty regard it.
14 [a]Although you say you do not see Him,
Yet justice is before Him, and [b]you must wait for Him.

ENCOUNTER Note Job 35:14

God's Timing

God's timing is perfect. We are wise to adjust to Him rather than pleading impatiently for our own agenda.

15 And now, because He has not [a]punished in His anger,
Nor taken much notice of folly,
16 [a]Therefore Job opens his mouth in vain;
He multiplies words without knowledge."

Elihu Proclaims God's Goodness

36 Elihu also proceeded and said:

2 "Bear with me a little, and I will show you
That there are yet words to speak on God's behalf.
3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar;
I will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.
4 For truly my words are not false;
One who is perfect in knowledge is with you.
5 "Behold, God is mighty, but despises no one;
[a]He is mighty in strength [1]of understanding.
6 He does not preserve the life of the wicked,
But gives justice to the [a]oppressed.
7 [a]He does not withdraw His eyes from the righteous;
But [b]they are on the throne with kings,
For He has seated them forever,
And they are exalted.
8 And [a]if they are bound in [1]fetters,
Held in the cords of affliction,
9 Then He tells them their work and their transgressions—
That they have acted [1]defiantly.
10 [a]He also opens their ear to [1]instruction,
And commands that they turn from iniquity.
11 If they obey and serve Him,
They shall [a]spend their days in prosperity,
And their years in pleasures.
12 But if they do not obey,
They shall perish by the sword,
And they shall die [1]without [a]knowledge.
13 "But the hypocrites in heart [a]store up wrath;
They do not cry for help when He binds them.
14 [a]They[1] die in youth,
And their life ends among the [2]perverted persons.
15 He delivers the poor in their affliction,
And opens their ears in oppression.
16 "Indeed He would have brought you out of dire distress,
[a]Into a broad place where there is no restraint;
And [b]what is set on your table would be full of [c]richness.
17 But you are filled with the judgment due the [a]wicked;
Judgment and justice take hold of you.
18 Because there is wrath, beware lest He take you away with one blow;
For [a]a large ransom would not help you avoid it.
19 [a]Will your riches,
Or all the mighty forces,
Keep you from distress?

When people are cut off in their place.

35:13 Elihu implies God has not listened to Job's prayers.
36:2 The use of "a little" is ironic, as this is his longest speech.
36:13 Elihu argues that hypocrites refuse to cry out to God, even as they endure God's judgment.

21 Take heed, [a]do not turn to iniquity,
For [b]you have chosen this rather than affliction.

22 "Behold, God is exalted by His power;
Who teaches like Him?
23 [a]Who has assigned Him His way,
Or who has said, 'You have done [b]wrong'?

Elihu Proclaims God's Majesty

24 "Remember to [a]magnify His work,
Of which men have sung.
25 Everyone has seen it;
Man looks on it from afar.

26 "Behold, God is great, and we [a]do not know Him;
[b]Nor can the number of His years be discovered.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Job 36:26

Knowing God

It is astonishing that almighty God, the creator of all things, should desire a close, personal relationship with us.

27 For He [a]draws up drops of water,
Which distill as rain from the mist,
28 [a]Which the clouds drop down
And pour abundantly on man.
29 Indeed, can anyone understand the spreading of clouds,
The thunder from His canopy?
30 Look, He [a]scatters His light upon it,
And covers the depths of the sea.
31 For [a]by these He judges the peoples;
He [b]gives food in abundance.
32 [a]He covers His hands with lightning,
And commands it to [1]strike.
33 [a]His thunder declares it,
The cattle also, concerning [1]the rising storm.

37 "At this also my heart trembles,
And leaps from its place.
2 Hear attentively the thunder of His voice,
And the rumbling that comes from His mouth.
3 He sends it forth under the whole heaven,
His [1]lightning to the ends of the earth.
4 After it [a]a voice roars;
He thunders with His majestic voice,
And He does not restrain them when His voice is heard.

[a]He does great things which we cannot comprehend.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Job 37:5

God Thunders

God speaks in power. His words must be taken seriously.

6 For [a]He says to the snow, 'Fall on the earth';
Likewise to the [1]gentle rain and the heavy rain of His strength.
7 He seals the hand of every man,
[a]That [b]all men may know His work.
8 The beasts [a]go into dens,
And remain in their lairs.
9 From the chamber of the south comes the whirlwind,
And cold from the scattering winds of the north.
10 [a]By the breath of God ice is given,
And the broad waters are frozen.
11 Also with moisture He saturates the thick clouds;
He scatters His [1]bright clouds.
12 And they swirl about, being turned by His guidance,
That they may [a]do whatever He commands them
On the face of [1]the whole earth.
13 [a]He causes it to come,
Whether for [1]correction,
Or [b]for His land,
Or [c]for mercy.

14 "Listen to this, O Job;
Stand still and [a]consider the wondrous works of God.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Job 37:14

Stand Still

Sometimes we need to stop talking and scurrying about long enough to reflect on who God is and what He is doing.

15 Do you know when God [1]dispatches them,
And causes the light of His cloud to shine?
16 [a]Do you know how the clouds are balanced,
Those wondrous works of [b]Him who is perfect in knowledge?

36:32 Canaanite religion viewed Baal as the god of the storm. Yet God is presented here as clearly sovereign over the heavens.

37:12 "Guidance" is a nautical term meaning "steerings" or "rope pullings."

17 Why are your garments hot,
When He quiets the earth by the south wind?
18 With Him, have you [a]spread out the [b]skies,
Strong as a cast metal mirror?

19 "Teach us what we should say to Him,
For we can prepare nothing because of the darkness.
20 Should He be told that I wish to speak?
If a man were to speak, surely he would be swallowed up.
21 Even now men cannot look at the light when it is bright in the skies,
When the wind has passed and cleared them.
22 He comes from the north as golden splendor;
With God is awesome majesty.
23 As for the Almighty, [a]we cannot find Him;
[b]He is excellent in power,
In judgment and abundant justice;
He does not oppress.
24 Therefore men [a]fear Him;
He shows no partiality to any who are [b]wise of heart."

The LORD Reveals His Omnipotence to Job

38 Then the LORD answered Job [a]out of the whirlwind, and said:

ENCOUNTER Note Job 38:1

Out of the Whirlwind

When God speaks, the power of His word puts our life and our questions instantly into perspective.

2 "Who[a] is this who darkens counsel
By [b]words without knowledge?
3 [a]Now [1]prepare yourself like a man;
I will question you, and you shall answer Me.

4 "Where[a] were you when I laid the foundations of the earth?
Tell Me, if you have understanding.
5 Who determined its measurements?
Surely you know!
Or who stretched the [1]line upon it?
6 To what were its foundations fastened?
Or who laid its cornerstone,
7 When the morning stars sang together,
And all [a]the sons of God shouted for joy?

8 "Or[a] who shut in the sea with doors,
When it burst forth and issued from the womb;
9 When I made the clouds its garment,
And thick darkness its swaddling band;
10 When [a]I fixed My limit for it,
And set bars and doors;
11 When I said,
'This far you may come, but no farther,
And here your proud waves [a]must stop!'

12 "Have you [a]commanded the morning since your days began,
And caused the dawn to know its place,
13 That it might take hold of the ends of the earth,
And [a]the wicked be shaken out of it?
14 It takes on form like clay under a seal,
And stands out like a garment.
15 From the wicked their [a]light is withheld,
And [b]the [1]upraised arm is broken.

16 "Have you [a]entered the springs of the sea?
Or have you walked in search of the depths?
17 Have [a]the gates of death been [1]revealed to you?
Or have you seen the doors of the shadow of death?
18 Have you comprehended the breadth of the earth?
Tell Me, if you know all this.

19 "Where is the way to the dwelling of light?
And darkness, where is its place,
20 That you may take it to its territory,
That you may know the paths to its home?
21 Do you know it, because you were born then,

Can you set their dominion over the
earth?

34 "Can you lift up your voice to the clouds,
That an abundance of water may cover you?
35 Can you send out lightnings, that they may go,
And say to you, 'Here we are!'?
36 [a]Who has put wisdom in [1]the mind?
Or who has given understanding to the heart?
37 Who can number the clouds by wisdom?
Or who can pour out the bottles of heaven,
38 When the dust hardens in clumps,
And the clods cling together?

39 "Can[a] you hunt the prey for the lion,
Or satisfy the appetite of the young lions,
40 When they crouch in their dens,
Or lurk in their lairs to lie in wait?

41 [a]Who provides food for the raven,
When its young ones cry to God,
And wander about for lack of food?

39 "Do you know the time when the wild [a]mountain goats bear young?
Or can you mark when [b]the deer
gives birth?
2 Can you number the months that they fulfill?
Or do you know the time when they bear young?
3 They bow down,
They bring forth their young,
They deliver their [1]offspring.
4 Their young ones are healthy,
They grow strong with grain;
They depart and do not return to
them.

5 "Who set the wild donkey free?
Who loosed the bonds of the [1]onager,
6 [a]Whose home I have made the wilderness,
And the [1]barren land his dwelling?
7 He scorns the tumult of the city;
He does not heed the shouts of the driver.
8 The range of the mountains is his pasture,
And he searches after [a]every green thing.

9 "Will the [a]wild ox be willing to serve
you?
Will he bed by your manger?
10 Can you bind the wild ox in the furrow with ropes?
Or will he plow the valleys behind
you?
11 Will you trust him because his strength is great?
Or will you leave your labor to him?
12 Will you trust him to bring home
your [1]grain,
And gather it to your threshing floor?

13 "The wings of the ostrich wave
proudly,
But are her wings and pinions like the kindly stork's?
14 For she leaves her eggs on the ground,
And warms them in the dust;
15 She forgets that a foot may crush
them,
Or that a wild beast may break
them.

38:31 The name of the constellation known as the Pleiades, which appears as a cluster of stars, means "Beautiful."

38:32 "Great Bear with its cubs" refers to the constellation Ursa Major (the Big Dipper).

39:4 "With grain" can also be translated "in the open field."

16 She [a]treats her young harshly, as though they were not hers;
Her labor is in vain, without [1]concern,
17 Because God deprived her of
wisdom,
And did not [a]endow her with understanding.
18 When she lifts herself on high,
She scorns the horse and its rider.

19 "Have you given the horse strength?
Have you clothed his neck with

His majestic snorting strikes terror.

22 He mocks at fear, and is not frightened;
Nor does he turn back from the sword.
23 The quiver rattles against him,
The glittering spear and javelin.
24 He devours the distance with fierceness and rage;
Nor does he come to a halt because the trumpet has sounded.
25 At the blast of the trumpet he says,
'Aha!'
He smells the battle from afar,
The thunder of captains and shouting.

26 "Does the hawk fly by your wisdom,

Job's Response to God

3 Then Job answered the LORD and said:

4 "Behold,[a] I am vile;
What shall I answer You?
[b]I lay my hand over my mouth.
5 Once I have spoken, but I will not
answer;
Yes, twice, but I will proceed no further."

ENCOUNTER Note Job 40:5

Once I Have Spoken

We will never know more of God by speaking. We learn new truths about God's character by listening to Him.

God's Challenge to Job

6 [a]Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said:

7 "Now[a] [1]prepare yourself like a man;
[b]I will question you, and you shall answer Me:

8 "Would[a] you indeed [1]annul My judgment?
Would you condemn Me that you may be justified?
9 Have you an arm like God?
Or can you thunder with [a]a voice like His?
10 [a]Then adorn yourself with majesty and splendor,
And array yourself with glory and beauty.
11 Disperse the rage of your wrath;
Look on everyone who is proud, and humble him.
12 Look on everyone who is [a]proud,
and bring him low;
Tread down the wicked in their place.
13 Hide them in the dust together,
Bind their faces in hidden darkness.
14 Then I will also confess to you
That your own right hand can save
you.

39:20 Horses and locusts were occasionally compared (Jer. 51:27; Joel 2:4; Rev. 9:7).

39:27 "Eagle" is literally "vulture" and is the most often cited bird in the Scriptures.

40:2 "Contend" is literally "bring a lawsuit."

40:6 Sometimes God speaks gently in a still, small voice (1 Sam. 3:4; 1 Kin. 19:12). At other times God finds it more appropriate to speak from a whirlwind.

40:7 "Prepare yourself" indicates the necessity for readiness to receive God's word.

15 "Look now at the [1]behemoth, which I made along with you;
He eats grass like an ox.
16 See now, his strength is in his hips,
And his power is in his stomach muscles.
17 He moves his tail like a cedar;
The sinews of his thighs are tightly knit.
18 His bones are like beams of bronze,
His ribs like bars of iron.
19 He is the first of the [a]ways of God;
Only He who made him can bring near His sword.
20 Surely the mountains [a]yield food for him,
And all the beasts of the field play there.
21 He lies under the lotus trees,
In a covert of reeds and marsh.
22 The lotus trees cover him with their shade;
The willows by the brook surround him.
23 Indeed the river may rage,
Yet he is not disturbed;
He is confident, though the Jordan gushes into his mouth,
24 Though he takes it in his eyes,
Or one pierces his nose with a snare.

41 "Can you draw out [a]Leviathan[1] with a hook,
Or snare his tongue with a line which you lower?
2 Can you [a]put a reed through his nose,
Or pierce his jaw with a [1]hook?
3 Will he make many supplications to you?
Will he speak softly to you?
4 Will he make a covenant with you?
Will you take him as a servant forever?
5 Will you play with him as with a bird,
Or will you leash him for your maidens?
6 Will your companions [1]make a banquet of him?
Will they apportion him among the merchants?
7 Can you fill his skin with harpoons,
Or his head with fishing spears?
8 Lay your hand on him;
Remember the battle—
Never do it again!
9 Indeed, any hope of overcoming him is false;
Shall one not be overwhelmed at the sight of him?
10 No one is so fierce that he would dare stir him up.
Who then is able to stand against Me?

Who?

Even the fiercest earthly force is powerless before God. God is omnipotent. Nature understands this. Often we do not.

11 [a]Who has preceded Me, that I should pay him?
[b]Everything under heaven is Mine.

12 "I will not [1]conceal his limbs,
His mighty power, or his graceful proportions.
13 Who can [1]remove his outer coat?
Who can approach him with a double bridle?
14 Who can open the doors of his face,
With his terrible teeth all around?
15 His rows of [1]scales are his pride,
Shut up tightly as with a seal;
16 One is so near another
That no air can come between them;
17 They are joined one to another,
They stick together and cannot be parted.
18 His sneezings flash forth light,
And his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.
19 Out of his mouth go burning lights;
Sparks of fire shoot out.
20 Smoke goes out of his nostrils,
As from a boiling pot and burning rushes.
21 His breath kindles coals,
And a flame goes out of his mouth.
22 Strength dwells in his neck,
And [1]sorrow dances before him.
23 The folds of his flesh are joined together;
They are firm on him and cannot be moved.
24 His heart is as hard as stone,
Even as hard as the lower millstone.
25 When he raises himself up, the mighty are afraid;
Because of his crashings they [1]are beside themselves.
26 Though the sword reaches him, it cannot avail;
Nor does spear, dart, or javelin.

40:15 "Behemoth" means "great beast" and may refer to a hippopotamus.

41:1 "Leviathan" may refer to a crocodile.

41:14 Crocodiles have thirty-six upper teeth and thirty lower teeth.

27 He regards iron as straw,
And bronze as rotten wood.
28 The arrow cannot make him flee;
Slingstones become like stubble to him.
29 Darts are regarded as straw;
He laughs at the threat of javelins.
30 His undersides are like sharp potsherds;
He spreads pointed marks in the mire.
31 He makes the deep boil like a pot;
He makes the sea like a pot of ointment.
32 He leaves a shining wake behind him;
One would think the deep had white hair.
33 On earth there is nothing like him,
Which is made without fear.
34 He beholds every high thing;
He is king over all the children of pride."

Job's Repentance and Restoration

42 Then Job answered the LORD and said:

2 "I know that You [a]can do everything,
And that no purpose of Yours can be withheld from You.
3 You asked, [a]'Who is this who hides counsel without knowledge?'
Therefore I have uttered what I did not understand,
[b]Things too wonderful for me, which I did not know.
4 Listen, please, and let me speak;
You said, [a]'I will question you, and you shall answer Me.'
5 "I have [a]heard of You by the hearing of the ear,
But now my eye sees You.

Hearing and Seeing

It is one thing to hear about God from others; quite another to experience Him personally. The former is inspiring, but the latter is absolutely life-changing.

6 Therefore I [a]abhor[1] myself,
And repent in dust and ashes."

7 And so it was, after the LORD had spoken these words to Job, that the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "My wrath is aroused against you and your two friends, for you have not spoken of Me what is right, as My servant Job has.
8 "Now therefore, take for yourselves [a]seven bulls and seven rams, [b]go to My servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and My servant Job shall [c]pray for you. For I will accept [1]him, lest I deal with you according to your folly; because you have not spoken of Me what is right, as My servant Job has."
9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went and did as the LORD commanded them; for the LORD had [1]accepted Job.
10 [a]And the LORD [1]restored Job's losses when he prayed for his friends. Indeed the LORD gave Job [b]twice as much as he had before.
11 Then [a]all his brothers, all his sisters, and all those who had been his acquaintances before, came to him and ate food with him in his house; and they consoled him and comforted him for all the adversity that the LORD had brought upon him. Each one gave him a piece of silver and each a ring of gold.
12 Now the LORD blessed [a]the latter days of Job more than his beginning; for he had [b]fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, one thousand yoke of oxen, and one thousand female donkeys.
13 [a]He also had seven sons and three daughters.
14 And he called the name of the first [1]Jemimah, the name of the second [2]Keziah, and the name of the third [3]Keren-Happuch.
15 In all the land were found no women so beautiful as the daughters of Job; and their father gave them an inheritance among their brothers.
16 After this Job [a]lived one hundred and forty years, and saw his children and grandchildren for four generations.
17 So Job died, old and [a]full of days.

41:34 "He beholds every high thing" could also mean "he looks down on everything haughty."

42:6 "Abhor" here means "to reject" or "to recant."

42:10 Israelite law required thieves to restore twice what they had taken (Ex. 22:4).

42:14 Jemimah may mean "Dove." Keziah may mean "Cassia" referring to a cinnamon spice. Keren-Happuch means "Horn of Eye Shadow."

THE BOOK OF PSALMS

INTRODUCTION

In Hebrew, the book's name means "Songs of Praise." The Greek word psalmos means "song." A synonym for "the Book of Psalms" is "the Psalter." The literature of these psalms is poetry, set to music. They were intended to be sung and to express worshippers' emotions as they praised God or cried out for His deliverance or forgiveness. They were written over a period of roughly a thousand years, but were primarily composed during the reigns of Kings David and Solomon. Tradition suggests that Ezra edited the final version of the Psalter.

SIGNIFICANCE

Because the Psalms are poetical in nature, their primary focus is not theological. Rather, they apply practical theology to everyday circumstances. They issue from the heart rather than from the head; representing the worshippers' honest fears, gratitude, remorse, and hopes. The Psalms are significant for the way their authors candidly express their feelings to God, whatever the circumstances. The Psalter is designed as a worship book. Jesus would use the songs in public worship. Jesus quoted Psalms as He hung on the cross (22:1; 31:5). The Psalms clearly point to Jesus, the Messiah, who would come centuries later. Jesus not only quoted often from the Psalms, but much of His life fulfilled the prophecies found there: He was the Son of God (Ps. 2:7, Matt. 3:17). He would rise from the dead (Ps. 16:10, Matt. 28:7). He would be mocked by His enemies (Ps. 22:7, 8; Luke 23:35). His hands and feet would be pierced (Ps. 22:16, John 20:27). Lots would be cast for His clothes (Ps. 22:18, Matt. 27:35, 36). His bones would not be broken (Ps. 34:20, John 19:32, 33, 36). He would be betrayed by a friend (Ps. 41:9, Luke 22:47). He would ascend to heaven (Ps. 68:18, Acts 1:9–11). He would be the chief cornerstone (Ps. 118:22, Matt. 21:42).

STRUCTURE

The Psalter contains 150 psalms divided into five sections. Book One contains Psalms 1–41; Book Two, Psalms 42–72; Book Three, Psalms 73–89; Book Four, Psalms 90–106; Book Five, Psalms 107–150. Each section ends with a doxology. It has been suggested that these five books were used independently by worshippers and were eventually compiled into the current Psalter. This would explain the seeming duplication of certain psalms contained in different sections. The psalms can be categorized by various themes. There are the Songs of Ascent (120–134), which may have been sung by pilgrims approaching Jerusalem to attend a feast. There are penitential psalms, which express the repentance of a contrite sinner (32, 38, 51). There are also imprecatory psalms, which contain pleas for God's justice (7, 35, 40, 55, 58, 59, 69, 79, 109, 137, 139, 144). Laments express both individual and corporate concern for dire circumstances and contain requests for God's deliverance (3–7, 12, 13, 22, 25, 26, 28, 35, 38–40, 42, 43, 54–57, 59, 60, 64, 69–71, 74, 79, 83, 86, 88, 109, 140–143). Thanksgiving psalms reflect the individual's or the community's praise for God's goodness (18, 30, 34, 40, 41, 66, 106, 124, 138). Wisdom psalms give instruction for wise living (1, 32, 34, 37, 52, 53, 78, 103, 107). Some of the psalms are prayers (17, 56, 57, 60, 85, 86, 88, 102, 140–143). Most important are the messianic psalms which pointed toward the Messiah's coming (2, 16, 22, 45, 97, 110).

The Psalms can also be classified according to their authors. All but forty-eight psalms identify an author. Seventy-three psalms are attributed to David (3–41, 51–70, 86, 103, 108–110, 131, 138–145). Other authors include Solomon (72, 127), Asaph (50, 73–83), the sons of Korah (42, 44–49, 84, 85, 87, 88), Moses (90), Heman (88) and Ethan (89). Seven psalms are also written in the form of an acrostic, using the letters of the Hebrew alphabet for structure (25, 34, 37, 111, 112, 119, 145).

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH PSALMS

The Psalms clearly teach that, although God allows us to go through dark valleys, He carefully guides us and protects us from our enemies. You will experience God through the Psalms as you realize He cares for you just as a shepherd tends his sheep (23). You will be encouraged to honestly express your longings and fears to God as you read the transparent confessions of the psalmists (22). You will be challenged to treasure God's word as you read the wisdom psalms (119). Through the penitential psalm you will learn to look upon sin as God does (38, 51). You will find joy in the Lord as the psalmists repeatedly pour out their passion for God (103, 106, 150). Through the psalms, God will exhort you to keep your heart pure (15:1, 2; 24:3, 4). Just as Jesus repeatedly cited the Psalms for comfort, praise, and wisdom, so you, as you study them, will receive divine guidance and solace from these passages.

BOOK ONE

Psalms 1—41

PSALM 1

The Way of the Righteous and the End of the Ungodly

BLESSED [a]is the man
Who walks not in the counsel of the [1]ungodly,
Nor stands in the path of sinners,
[b]Nor sits in the seat of the scornful;

WORD*Study* BLESSED

Ps. 1:1 This word, barak in Hebrew, is found twenty-six times in Psalms. When referring to God it means "to praise," but in reference to people it translates "happy." To bless someone is to grant that person prosperity and well-being. One may also speak a blessing upon someone, wishing for or calling upon God to bring prosperity to another.

2 But [a]his delight is in the law of the LORD,
[b]And in His law he [1]meditates day and night.
3 He shall be like a tree
[a]Planted by the [1]rivers of water,
That brings forth its fruit in its season,
Whose leaf also shall not wither;
And whatever he does shall [b]prosper.
4 The ungodly are not so,
But are [a]like the chaff which the wind drives away.
5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment,
Nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
6 For [a]the LORD knows the way of the righteous,
But the way of the ungodly shall perish.

4 [a]Job 21:18

PSALM 2

The Messiah's Triumph and Kingdom

WHY [a]do the [1]nations [2]rage,
And the people plot a [3]vain thing?
2 The kings of the earth set themselves,
And the [a]rulers take counsel together,
Against the LORD and against His [b]Anointed,[1] saying,
3 "Let [a]us break Their bonds in pieces
And cast away Their cords from us."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 1:2, 3

Intentional Encounters

Encounters with God can be premeditated. If we continually place ourselves amid the world's values, then a worldly existence will be our experience. Walking with God involves the deliberate choice to immerse ourselves in His ways.

4 He who sits in the heavens [a]shall laugh;
The Lord shall hold them in derision.
5 Then He shall speak to them in His wrath,

PSALM 2
1 [a]Acts 4:25, 26 [1]Gentiles [2]throng tumultuously [3]worthless or empty
2 [a][Matt. 12:14; 26:3, 4, 59–66; 27:1, 2; Mark 3:6; 11:18]; Acts 4:25–28 [b][John 1:41] [1]Christ, Commissioned One, Heb. Messiah
3 [a]Luke 19:14
4 [a]Ps. 37:13

1:3 Fruit, or the positive results of one's life, is the inevitable outcome of an obedient response to God's word.

2:1 This psalm is attributed to David (Acts 4:25).

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 2:4

Heavenly Laughter

World leaders make declarations and threats, but the Lord laughs. He knows that even the greatest of them are but frail creatures of dust.

And distress them in His deep displeasure:
6 "Yet I have [1]set My King
[2]On My holy hill of Zion."

7 "I will declare the [1]decree:
The LORD has said to Me,
[a]'You are My Son,
Today I have begotten You.
8 Ask of Me, and I will give You
The nations for Your inheritance,
And the ends of the earth for Your possession.
9 [a]You shall [1]break them with a rod of iron;
You shall dash them to pieces like a potter's vessel.' "

10 Now therefore, be wise, O kings;
Be instructed, you judges of the earth.
11 Serve the LORD with fear,
And rejoice with trembling.
12 [1]Kiss the Son, lest [2]He be angry,
And you perish in the way,

[b]Blessed are all those who put their trust in Him.

PSALM 3

The LORD Helps His Troubled People

A Psalm of David [a]when he fled from Absalom his son.

LORD, how they have increased who trouble me!
Many are they who rise up against me.
2 Many are they who say of me,
"There is no help for him in God."
Selah

3 But You, O LORD, are [a]a shield [1]for me,
My glory and [b]the One who lifts up my head.

And [a]He heard me from His [b]holy hill. Selah

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 3:5

Peace

True peace comes not from the absence of adversaries but from trust in God. Nothing can disrupt your sense of peace when God exercises His presence in your life.

6 [a]I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people
Who have set themselves against me all around.

7 Arise, O LORD;
Save me, O my God!
[a]For You have struck all my enemies on the cheekbone;
You have broken the teeth of the ungodly.
8 [a]Salvation belongs to the LORD.
Your blessing is upon Your people.
Selah

PSALM 4

The Safety of the Faithful

To the [1]Chief Musician. With stringed instruments. A Psalm of David.

HEAR me when I call, O God of my righteousness!
You have relieved me in my distress;
[1]Have mercy on me, and hear my prayer.

2 How long, O you sons of men,
Will you turn my glory to shame?
How long will you love worthlessness
And seek falsehood? Selah
3 But know that [a]the LORD has [1]set apart for Himself him who is godly;
The LORD will hear when I call to Him.

4 [a]Be[1] angry, and do not sin.
[b]Meditate within your heart on your bed, and be still. Selah
5 Offer [a]the sacrifices of righteousness,
And [b]put your trust in the LORD.

6 There are many who say,
"Who will show us any good?"

2:6 "Zion" originally referred to the fortified hillside in Jerusalem captured by David (2 Sam. 5:6–10). David changed its name to the "City of David." Later Zion came to mean Jerusalem, or the temple, or it pointed to the future city of the Messiah, the heavenly Jerusalem.

3:1 See the passage beginning at 2 Samuel 15:13. In all, fourteen psalms are linked to historic events in David's life.

4:4 See Ephesians 4:26.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 4:6

The Light of God's Countenance

God's holy presence dispels the darkness of sin and confusion and lights the way for his children. Those who do not know God may experience material prosperity, but they will not know the inner peace that His presence brings.

[a]LORD, lift up the light of Your countenance upon us.
7 You have put [a]gladness in my heart,
More than in the season that their grain and wine increased.
8 [a]I will both lie down in peace, and sleep;
[b]For You alone, O LORD, make me dwell in safety.

PSALM 5

A Prayer for Guidance

To the Chief Musician. With [1]flutes. A Psalm of David.

GIVE [a]ear to my words, O LORD,
Consider my [1]meditation.
2 Give heed to the voice of my cry,
My King and my God,
For to You I will pray.
3 My voice You shall hear in the morning, O LORD;
[a]In the morning I will direct it to You,
And I will look up.
4 For You are not a God who takes pleasure in wickedness,
Nor shall evil [1]dwell with You.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 5:4

Evil Separates

Sin polarizes you and God. You cannot condone evil and remain in God's favor.

5 The [a]boastful shall not [b]stand in Your sight;
You hate all workers of iniquity.
6 You shall destroy those who speak falsehood;
The LORD abhors the [a]bloodthirsty and deceitful man.

7 But as for me, I will come into Your house in the multitude of Your mercy;
In fear of You I will worship toward [1]Your holy temple.
8 [a]Lead me, O LORD, in Your righteousness because of my enemies;
Make Your way straight before my face.
9 For there is no [1]faithfulness in their mouth;
Their inward part is destruction;
[a]Their throat is an open tomb;
They flatter with their tongue.
10 Pronounce them guilty, O God!
Let them fall by their own counsels;
Cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions,
For they have rebelled against You.
11 But let all those rejoice who put their trust in You;
Let them ever shout for joy, because You [1]defend them;
Let those also who love Your name
Be joyful in You.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 5:11

Joy in God

Pure joy comes from our love relationship with God. The greater our love for God, the greater will be our joy in Him.

12 For You, O LORD, will bless the righteous;
With favor You will surround him as with a shield.

PSALM 6

A Prayer of Faith in Time of Distress

To the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments. [a]On [1]an eight-stringed harp. A Psalm of David.

O LORD, [a]do not rebuke me in Your anger,
Nor chasten me in Your hot displeasure.
2 Have mercy on me, O LORD, for I am weak;
O LORD, [a]heal me, for my bones are troubled.
3 My soul also is greatly [a]troubled;
But You, O LORD—how long?

5:7 The phrase "but as for me" introduces a sharp contrast to what was said previously.

5:8 "Make Your way straight" means for God to make His will clear so it can be easily followed.

6:1 This is the first of seven "penitential psalms" (6, 32, 38, 51, 102, 130, 143) in which the psalmist expresses his sorrow for sin.

4 Return, O LORD, deliver me!
Oh, save me for Your mercies' sake!
5 [a]For in death there is no remembrance of You;
In the grave who will give You thanks?

6 I am weary with my groaning;
[1]All night I make my bed swim;
I drench my couch with my tears.
7 [a]My eye wastes away because of grief;
It grows old because of all my enemies.

8 [a]Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity;
For the LORD has [b]heard the voice of my weeping.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 6:8

No Need to Fear

There is no need to fear others when we know God has heard our cry. When God champions our cause, our enemies are doomed.

9 The LORD has heard my supplication;
The LORD will receive my prayer.
10 Let all my enemies be ashamed and greatly troubled;
Let them turn back and be ashamed
suddenly.

PSALM 7

Prayer and Praise for Deliverance from Enemies

A [a]Meditation[1] of David, which he sang to the LORD [b]concerning the words of Cush, a Benjamite.

O LORD my God, in You I put my trust;
[a]Save me from all those who persecute me;
And deliver me,
2 [a]Lest they tear me like a lion,
[b]Rending me in pieces, while there is none to deliver.

3 O LORD my God, [a]if I have done
this:
If there is [b]iniquity in my hands,
4 If I have repaid evil to him who was at peace with me,
Or [a]have plundered my enemy

6 Arise, O LORD, in Your anger;
[a]Lift Yourself up because of the rage
of my enemies;
[b]Rise up [1]for me to the judgment You have commanded!
7 So the congregation of the peoples shall surround You;
For their sakes, therefore, return on high.
8 The LORD shall judge the peoples;
[a]Judge me, O LORD, [b]according to
my righteousness,
And according to my integrity
within me.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 7:8

My Righteousness

It is not always easy to live a righteous life, but God sees our integrity and He rewards us accordingly.

9 Oh, let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end,
But establish the just;
[a]For the righteous God tests the hearts and [1]minds.
10 [1]My defense is of God,
Who saves the [a]upright in heart.

11 God is a just judge,
And God is angry with the wicked
every day.
12 If he does not turn back,
He will [a]sharpen His sword;
He bends His bow and makes it ready.
13 He also prepares for Himself instruments of death;
He makes His arrows into fiery shafts.

14 [a]Behold, the wicked brings forth
iniquity;
Yes, he conceives trouble and brings forth falsehood.
15 He made a pit and dug it out,
[a]And has fallen into the ditch which he made.
16 [a]His trouble shall return upon his own head,
And his violent dealing shall come down on [1]his own crown.

6:5 "The grave" translates the Hebrew word Sheol.

7:1 The Hebrew verb used here could describe a young bird finding protection in its mother's wings.

7:3 "If I have done this" means David is pleading his innocence of the charges against him.

7:10 "My defense" could mean "my shield."

17 I will praise the LORD according to His righteousness,
And will sing praise to the name of the LORD Most High.

PSALM 8

The Glory of the LORD in Creation

To the Chief Musician. [1]On the instrument of Gath. A Psalm of David.

O LORD, our Lord,
How [a]excellent is Your name in all
the earth,
Who have [b]set Your glory above the heavens!

2 [a]Out of the mouth of babes and nursing infants
You have [1]ordained strength,
Because of Your enemies,
That You may silence [b]the enemy and the avenger.

3 When I [a]consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers,
The moon and the stars, which You have ordained,
4 [a]What is man that You are mindful of
him,
And the son of man that You [b]visit[1]
him?

ENCOUNTER Note — Ps. 8:3, 4

Why?

Within the majestic expanse of the universe, we are insignificant specks. Yet God sees us, knows us intimately, and loves us ceaselessly. Such heavenly consideration is truly beyond our comprehension.

5 For You have made him a little lower than [1]the angels,
And You have crowned him with glory and honor.

6 [a]You have made him to have dominion over the works of Your hands;
[b]You have put all things under his feet,
7 All sheep and oxen—
Even the beasts of the field,
8 The birds of the air,
And the fish of the sea
That pass through the paths of the seas.

PSALM 9

Prayer and Thanksgiving for the LORD's Righteous Judgments

To the Chief Musician. To the tune of [1]"Death of the Son." A Psalm of David.

I WILL praise You, O LORD, with my whole heart;
I will tell of all Your marvelous
works.
2 I will be glad and [a]rejoice in You;
I will sing praise to Your name,
[b]O Most High.

3 When my enemies turn back,
They shall fall and perish at Your presence.
4 For You have maintained my right and my cause;
You sat on the throne judging in righteousness.
5 You have rebuked the [1]nations,
You have destroyed the wicked;
You have [a]blotted out their name
forever and ever.

6 O enemy, destructions are finished
forever!
And you have destroyed cities;
Even their memory has [a]perished.
7 [a]But the LORD shall endure forever;
He has prepared His throne for
judgment.
8 [a]He shall judge the world in
righteousness,
And He shall administer judgment for the peoples in uprightness.

9 The LORD also will be a [a]refuge[1] for the oppressed,
A refuge in times of trouble.

ENCOUNTER Note — Ps. 9:9

God Our Refuge

God's children can encounter Him in whatever capacity they need Him. If we desperately need a refuge, that is how we will experience Him.

10 And those who [a]know Your name will put their trust in You;
For You, LORD, have not forsaken those who seek You.

7:17 The phrase, "the Lord Most High" is usually found in Psalms but is first mentioned in Genesis 14:18, in Abraham's encounter with Melchizedek.

8:1 God's "name" reflects His character. The psalmist delights in who God is and what He is like (8:9).

8:5 The Hebrew could be translated "You have made him to lack little of God."

9:10 See Jeremiah 29:12–14; Matthew 7:7, 8. In Old Testament times, to know God's name was to have a saving relationship with Him.

11 Sing praises to the LORD, who dwells in Zion!
[a]Declare His deeds among the people.
12 [a]When He avenges blood, He remembers them;
He does not forget the cry of the [1]humble.

13 Have mercy on me, O LORD!
Consider my trouble from those who hate me,
You who lift me up from the gates of death,
14 That I may tell of all Your praise
In the gates of [1]the daughter of Zion.
I will [a]rejoice in Your salvation.

15 [a]The [1]nations have sunk down in the pit which they made;
In the net which they hid, their own foot is caught.
16 The LORD is [a]known by the judgment He executes;
The wicked is snared in the work of his own hands.
[b]Meditation.[1] Selah

17 The wicked shall be turned into hell,
And all the [1]nations [a]that forget God.
18 [a]For the needy shall not always be forgotten;
[b]The expectation of the poor shall not perish forever.

19 Arise, O LORD,
Do not let man prevail;
Let the [1]nations be judged in Your sight.
20 Put them in fear, O LORD,
That the [1]nations may know themselves to be but men. Selah

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 9:20

Fearful

It can be a terrifying experience to encounter the living God. Reverent fear is clear evidence a person has met with God.

PSALM 10

A Song of Confidence in God's Triumph over Evil

WHY do You stand afar off,
O LORD?
Why do You hide in times of trouble?
2 The wicked in his pride [1]persecutes the poor;
[a]Let them be caught in the plots which they have devised.

3 For the wicked [a]boasts of his heart's desire;
[1]He [b]blesses the greedy and renounces the LORD.
4 The wicked in his proud countenance does not seek God;
[1]God is in none of his [a]thoughts.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 10:4

The Wicked Don't Seek God

Wickedness diverts people away from God. Pride convinces them they are self-sufficient. Sure evidence that sin has gained control over someone's life is when that person no longer seeks after God.

5 His ways [1]are always prospering;
Your judgments are far above, out of his sight;
As for all his enemies, he sneers at them.
6 [a]He has said in his heart, "I shall not be moved;
[b]I shall never be in adversity."
7 [a]His mouth is full of cursing and [b]deceit and oppression;
Under his tongue is trouble and iniquity.

8 He sits in the lurking places of the villages;
In the secret places he murders the innocent;
His eyes are secretly fixed on the helpless.
9 He lies in wait secretly, as a lion in his den;
He lies in wait to catch the poor;
He catches the poor when he draws him into his net.
10 So [1]he crouches, he lies low,
That the helpless may fall by his [2]strength.
11 He has said in his heart,
"God has forgotten;
He hides His face;
He will never see."

12 Arise, O LORD!

9:14 "Daughter of Zion" refers to Jerusalem.

9:17 Scripture is clear on the destiny of the wicked (Rev. 20:15).

10:5 The psalmist expresses his honest evaluation that the wicked always seem to thrive while the righteous seem to be forgotten by God. Yet the writer finally acknowledges that God is indeed absolutely just.

10:9 The wicked are viewed as constantly trying to harm the righteous.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 10:11

God Sees

The deadliest folly of the wicked is to assume God does not see or care about their actions. He knows even their most secret thoughts.

Do not forget the [b]humble.
13 Why do the wicked renounce God?
He has said in his heart,
"You will not require an account."
14 But You have [a]seen, for You observe trouble and grief,
To repay it by Your hand.
The helpless [b]commits[1] himself to You;
[c]You are the helper of the fatherless.
15 Break the arm of the wicked and the evil man;
Seek out his wickedness until You find none.
16 [a]The LORD is King forever and ever;
The nations have perished out of His land.
17 LORD, You have heard the desire of the humble;
You will prepare their heart;
You will cause Your ear to hear,

That the man of the earth may [2]oppress no more.

PSALM 11

Faith in the LORD's Righteousness

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

IN [a]the LORD I put my trust;
How can you say to my soul,
"Flee as a bird to your mountain"?
2 For look! [a]The wicked bend their bow,
They make ready their arrow on the string,
That they may shoot [1]secretly at the upright in heart.
3 [a]If the foundations are destroyed,
What can the righteous do?
4 The LORD is in His holy temple,
The LORD's [a]throne is in heaven;
[b]His eyes behold,
His eyelids test the sons of men.
5 The LORD [a]tests the righteous,
But the wicked and the one who loves violence His soul hates.

Testing the Righteous

While God preserves His children, He also tests them. The way we respond to God's tests reveals how much we have learned about Him since our last examination.

6 Upon the wicked He will rain coals;
Fire and brimstone and a burning wind
[a]Shall be [1]the portion of their cup.
7 For the LORD is righteous,
He [a]loves righteousness;
[1]His countenance beholds the upright.

PSALM 12

Man's Treachery and God's Constancy

To the Chief Musician. [a]On [1]an eight-stringed harp. A Psalm of David.

HELP,[1] LORD, for the godly man [a]ceases!
For the faithful disappear from among the sons of men.
2 [a]They speak idly everyone with his neighbor;
With flattering lips and [1]a double heart they speak.
3 May the LORD [1]cut off all flattering lips,
And the tongue that speaks [2]proud things,
4 Who have said,
"With our tongue we will prevail;
Our lips are our own;
Who is lord over us?"
5 "For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy,
Now I will arise," says the LORD;
"I will set him in the safety for which he yearns."
6 The words of the LORD are [a]pure words,
Like silver tried in a furnace of earth,
Purified seven times.
7 You shall keep them, O LORD,

3 [1]destroy [2]great
6 [a]2 Sam. 22:31; Ps. 18:30; 119:140

11:2 "The wicked bend their bow" symbolizes that sinful people are hunting for and intentionally oppressing the righteous.

11:4 The word given here as "temple" can also mean "palace." "You have seen" is the basis of our hope in God. Because He sees, we can be confident He will act.

11:6 See Genesis 19:24, Luke 17:28–29, and 2 Peter 2:6.

12:1 "The godly man ceases" is the psalmist's lament that there are no righteous people left in his wicked society.

12:5 "Now" indicates the time when God, in righteous indignation, takes action against the wicked. Although God is longsuffering, His holiness eventually calls for judgment.

12:6 "Furnace" here refers to a crucible.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 12:6

Pure Words

Amid the clamor of worldly babble, God's words are clear and entirely untainted by evil motives. Do not hesitate to trust His holy voice.

You shall preserve them from this generation forever.

8 The wicked prowl on every side,
When vileness is exalted among the sons of men.

PSALM 13

Trust in the Salvation of the LORD

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

HOW long, O LORD? Will You forget me forever?
[a]How long will You hide Your face from me?

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 13:1

Where Is God?

When God is distant, that is not the time to trust your feelings. Review all God has graciously done for you and said to you, and let that be the standard by which you understand His love for you.

2 How long shall I take counsel in my soul,
Having sorrow in my heart daily?
How long will my enemy be exalted over me?

3 Consider and hear me, O LORD my God;
[a]Enlighten my eyes,
[b]Lest I sleep the sleep of death;
4 Lest my enemy say,
"I have prevailed against him";
Lest those who trouble me rejoice when I am moved.

5 But I have trusted in Your mercy;
My heart shall rejoice in Your salvation.
6 I will sing to the LORD,
Because He has dealt bountifully with me.

PSALM 14

Folly of the Godless, and God's Final Triumph

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

THE [a]fool has said in his heart,
"There is no God."
They are corrupt,
They have done abominable works,
There is none who does good.

2 [a]The LORD looks down from heaven upon the children of men,
To see if there are any who understand, who seek God.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 14:2

God Desires Fellowship

God deeply desires fellowship with us. He will not force a relationship upon us, yet He will always draw near to those who seek Him.

3 [a]They have all turned aside,
They have together become corrupt;
There is none who does good,
No, not one.

4 Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge,
Who eat up my people as they eat bread,
And [a]do not call on the LORD?
5 There they are in great fear,
For God is with the generation of the righteous.
6 You shame the counsel of the poor,
But the LORD is his [a]refuge.

7 [a]Oh,[1] that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion!
[b]When the LORD brings back [2]the captivity of His people,
Let Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad.

PSALM 15

The Character of Those Who May Dwell with the LORD

A Psalm of David.

LORD, [a]who may [1]abide in Your tabernacle?
Who may dwell in Your holy hill?

13:5 "But" marks a turning point in the writer's thinking. Despite all the wicked are doing, the psalmist trusts in God's mercy. The Lord's unfailing love sustains him despite what he faces.

14:1 "Fool" described someone who was insensitive to the will and the voice of God. Ignoring God seemed akin to mental impairment.

14:3 "No not one" does not imply that no one on earth pleases God. It indicates that every person naturally turns to evil and away from God. Only by God's grace can people overcome their evil tendencies and please Him.

14:7 "Brings back the captivity" In other words, "restores the fortunes."

15:1 A tabernacle is a tent.

2 He who walks uprightly,
And works righteousness,
And speaks the [a]truth in his heart;

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 15:2

Qualifications of a Worshipper

We rest in the assurance of God's love, but there is a prerequisite for entering His holy presence. Righteousness is the key to intimacy with the Lord.

3 He who [a]does not backbite with his tongue,
Nor does evil to his neighbor,
[b]Nor does he [1]take up a reproach against his friend;
4 [a]In whose eyes a vile person is despised,
But he honors those who fear the LORD;
He who [b]swears to his own hurt and does not change;
5 He who does not put out his money at usury,
Nor does he take a bribe against the innocent.

He who does these things [a]shall never be moved.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 15:5

Never Moved

No one can harm your walk with God but you. Our relationship with God is based on the choices we make.

PSALM 16

The Hope of the Faithful, and the Messiah's Victory

A [a]Michtam of David.

PRESERVE[1] me, O God, for in You I put my trust.

2 O my soul, you have said to the LORD,
"You are my Lord,
[a]My goodness is nothing apart from You."
3 As for the saints who are on the earth,
"They are the excellent ones, in [a]whom is all my delight."

4 Their sorrows shall be multiplied who hasten after another god;
Their drink offerings of [a]blood I will not offer,
[b]Nor take up their names on my lips.

5 O LORD, You are the portion of my inheritance and my cup;
You [1]maintain my lot.
6 The lines have fallen to me in pleasant places;
Yes, I have a good inheritance.

7 I will bless the LORD who has given me counsel;
My [1]heart also instructs me in the night seasons.
8 [a]I have set the LORD always before me;
Because He is at my right hand I shall not be moved.

9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoices;
My flesh also will [1]rest in hope.
10 [a]For You will not leave my soul in [1]Sheol,
Nor will You allow Your Holy One to [2]see corruption.
11 You will show me the [a]path of life;
In Your presence is fullness of joy;
At Your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 16:11

In Your Presence

True joy comes not from receiving God's blessings but from knowing and spending time with God. Have you been experiencing the indescribable happiness that only comes from communing with your Lord?

PSALM 17

Prayer with Confidence in Final Salvation

A Prayer of David.

HEAR a just cause, O LORD,
Attend to my cry;
Give ear to my prayer which is not from deceitful lips.
2 Let my vindication come from Your presence;
Let Your eyes look on the things that are upright.

3 You have tested my heart;
You have visited me in the night;
[a]You have [1]tried me and have found [2]nothing;

16:7 "Heart" is literally "kidneys."

I have purposed that my mouth

4 Concerning the works of men,
By the word of Your lips,
I have kept away from the paths of the destroyer.
5 [a]Uphold my steps in Your paths,
That my footsteps may not slip.

6 [a]I have called upon You, for You will

From those who rise up *against

8 Keep me as the [1]apple of Your eye;
Hide me under the shadow of Your

9 From the wicked who oppress me,
From my deadly enemies who

With their mouths they [b]speak

11 They have now surrounded us in

They have set their eyes, crouching

And like a young lion lurking in

13 Arise, O LORD,
Confront him, cast him down;
Deliver my life from the wicked
with Your sword,

From men of the world who have

God the Sovereign Savior

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David [a]the servant of the LORD, who

PSALM 18
title [a]Ps. 36:title

spoke to the LORD the words of [b]this song on the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul.
And he said:

I [a]WILL love You, O LORD, my strength.
2 The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer;
My God, my [1]strength, [a]in whom I will trust;
My shield and the [2]horn of my salvation, my stronghold.
3 I will call upon the LORD, [a]who is worthy to be praised;
So shall I be saved from my
enemies.

4 [a]The pangs of death surrounded me,
And the floods of [1]ungodliness made me afraid.
5 The sorrows of Sheol surrounded me;
The snares of death confronted me.
6 In my distress I called upon the
LORD,
And cried out to my God;
He heard my voice from His temple,
And my cry came before Him, even
to His ears.

7 [a]Then the earth shook and trembled;
The foundations of the hills also quaked and were shaken,
Because He was angry.
8 Smoke went up from His nostrils,
And devouring fire from His mouth;
Coals were kindled by it.
9 [a]He bowed the heavens also, and came down
With darkness under His feet.

In Your Likeness

The yearning of every believer is to be with Christ and to be like Him. All of life is a pilgrimage to this ultimate destination.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 18:6

In Your Distress

Times of crisis clearly reveal where our help comes from. When life betrays us and everyone else forsakes us, God remains trustworthy.

17:8 See Deuteronomy 32:10, 11.
17:10 "Fat hearts" indicates insensitivity.
17:15 "In your likeness" reflects the psalmist's belief in eternal life. His desire is not earthly pleasures; his lifelong journey is to ultimately be like God.
18:2 See 1 Samuel 22:4; 24:22, and 2 Samuel 5:17; 23:14.

10 [a]And He rode upon a cherub, and flew;
[b]He flew upon the wings of the wind.
11 He made darkness His secret place;
[a]His canopy around Him was dark waters
And thick clouds of the skies.
12 [a]From the brightness before Him,
His thick clouds passed with hailstones and coals of fire.
13 The LORD thundered from heaven,
And the Most High uttered [a]His voice,
[1]Hailstones and coals of fire.
14 [a]He sent out His arrows and scattered [1]the foe,
Lightnings in abundance, and He vanquished them.
15 Then the channels of the sea were seen,
The foundations of the world were uncovered
At Your rebuke, O LORD,
At the blast of the breath of Your nostrils.
16 [a]He sent from above, He took me;
He drew me out of many waters.
17 He delivered me from my strong enemy,
From those who hated me,
For they were too strong for me.
18 They confronted me in the day of my calamity,
But the LORD was my support.
19 [a]He also brought me out into a broad place;
He delivered me because He delighted in me.
20 [a]The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness;
According to the cleanness of my hands
He has recompensed me.
21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD,
And have not wickedly departed from my God.
22 For all His judgments were before me,
And I did not put away His statutes from me.
23 I was also blameless [1]before Him,
And I kept myself from my iniquity.
24 [a]Therefore the LORD has recompensed me according to my righteousness,
According to the cleanness of my hands in His sight.

But will bring down [a]haughty looks.
28 [a]For You will light my lamp;
The LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.
29 For by You I can [1]run against a troop,
By my God I can leap over a wall.
30 As for God, [a]His way is perfect;

32 It is God who [a]arms me with strength,
And makes my way perfect.

And [b]sets me on my high places.

So that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

Your gentleness has made me great.

Enlarging My Path

God may not change the path you are on but He will help you keep a sure footing as you navigate it.

37 I have pursued my enemies and overtaken them;
Neither did I turn back again till they were destroyed.
38 I have wounded them,
So that they could not rise;
They have fallen under my feet.
39 For You have armed me with strength for the battle;
You have [1]subdued under me those who rose up against me.

18:23 "Blameless" does not imply "sinless." It means the psalmist has made every effort to follow God's will and to repent when he has fallen short of God's righteousness.

18:28 See Psalm 119:105.

18:31 See Deuteronomy 32:4, 31.

40 You have also given me the necks of my enemies,
So that I destroyed those who hated me.
41 They cried out, but there was none to save;
[a]Even to the LORD, but He did not answer them.
42 Then I beat them as fine as the dust before the wind;
I [a]cast them out like dirt in the streets.

43 You have delivered me from the strivings of the people;
[a]You have made me the head of the [1]nations;
[b]A people I have not known shall serve me.
44 As soon as they hear of me they obey me;
The foreigners [1]submit to me.
45 [a]The foreigners fade away,
And come frightened from their hideouts.

46 The LORD lives!
Blessed be my Rock!
Let the God of my salvation be exalted.
47 It is God who avenges me,
[a]And subdues the peoples under me;
48 He delivers me from my enemies.
[a]You also lift me up above those who rise against me;
You have delivered me from the violent man.
49 [a]Therefore I will give thanks to You, O LORD, among the [1]Gentiles,
And sing praises to Your name.

50 [a]Great deliverance He gives to His king,
And shows mercy to His anointed,
To David and his [1]descendants forevermore.

The Heavens Declare

Nature daily testifies to God's greatness. The beauty of God's creation needs no translation—it is a compelling, universal message to all who will receive it.

4 [a]Their [1]line has gone out through all the earth,
And their words to the end of the world.

In them He has set a [2]tabernacle for the sun,
5 Which is like a bridegroom coming out of his chamber,
[a]And rejoices like a strong man to run its race.
6 Its rising is from one end of heaven,
And its circuit to the other end;
And there is nothing hidden from its heat.

7 [a]The law of the LORD is perfect,
[1]converting the soul;
The testimony of the LORD is sure,
making [b]wise the simple;
8 The statutes of the LORD are right,
rejoicing the heart;
The commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes;
9 The fear of the LORD is clean,
enduring forever;
The judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.
10 More to be desired are they than [a]gold,
Yea, than much fine gold;
Sweeter also than honey and the [1]honeycomb.
11 Moreover by them Your servant is warned,
And in keeping them there is great reward.

12 Who can understand his errors?
[a]Cleanse me from secret faults.
13 Keep back Your servant also from [a]presumptuous sins;
Let them not have [b]dominion over me.
Then I shall be blameless,
And I shall be innocent of [1]great transgression.

14 [a]Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart

18:49 "Among the Gentiles" indicates the psalmist's missionary motive. As God's people worshipped the true God, unbelievers would be drawn to join them.

19:7 "Making wise the simple" indicates that success in God's kingdom is not based on intelligence but on obedience.

19:12 The psalmist understood that outward righteousness does not satisfy God. God knows what lies within the most secret recesses of our hearts.

Be acceptable in Your sight,
O LORD, my [1]strength and my

Joy in the Salvation of the LORD

20:1 "The day of trouble" may refer to the "day of battle."

20:7 The word "trust" here is a verb provided by the translators. It could just as easily be "boast." Chariots were the most modern and dreaded weapons of that day.

21:2 "Selah" occurs seventy-one times in Psalms. It may have given directions to musicians for an interlude or a change of musical accompaniment. It may mean "Lift Up" or "Forever."

21:8 God's right hand symbolized His strength. God's enemies would encounter His power.

You will make ready Your arrows
on Your string toward their faces.
13 Be exalted, O LORD, in Your own strength!
We will sing and praise Your power.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 21:13

Be Exalted!

God wants to demonstrate His awesome power through our lives. As we live in God's strength, we bring glory to His name.

PSALM 22

The Suffering, Praise, and Posterity of the Messiah

To the Chief Musician. Set to [1]"The Deer of the Dawn." A Psalm of David.

MY [a]God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?
Why are You so far from helping Me,
And from the words of My groaning?

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 22:1

Why Have You Forsaken Me?

The measure of God's love for us is not how much He allows us to suffer, but the victory and peace He gives in the midst of our hardship.

2 O My God, I cry in the daytime, but You do not hear;
And in the night season, and am not silent.
3 But You are holy,
Enthroned in the [a]praises of Israel.
4 Our fathers trusted in You;
They trusted, and You delivered them.
5 They cried to You, and were delivered;
[a]They trusted in You, and were not ashamed.
6 But I am [a]a worm, and no man;
[b]A reproach of men, and despised by the people.
7 [a]All those who see Me ridicule Me;
They [1]shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,
8 "He[a] [1]trusted in the LORD, let Him rescue Him;
[b]Let Him deliver Him, since He delights in Him!"
9 [a]But You are He who took Me out of the womb;
You made Me trust while on My mother's breasts.
10 I was cast upon You from birth.
From My mother's womb
[a]You have been My God.
11 Be not far from Me,
For trouble is near;
For there is none to help.
12 [a]Many bulls have surrounded Me;
Strong bulls of [b]Bashan have encircled Me.
13 [a]They [1]gape at Me with their mouths,
Like a raging and roaring lion.
14 I am poured out like water,
[a]And all My bones are out of joint;
My heart is like wax;
It has melted [1]within Me.
15 [a]My strength is dried up like a potsherd,
And [b]My tongue clings to My jaws;
You have brought Me to the dust of death.
16 For dogs have surrounded Me;
The congregation of the wicked has enclosed Me.
[a]They[1] pierced My hands and My feet;
17 I can count all My bones.
[a]They look and stare at Me.
18 [a]They divide My garments among them,
And for My clothing they cast lots.
19 But You, O LORD, do not be far from Me;
O My Strength, hasten to help Me!

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 22:19

In Times of Crisis

In times of crisis, what others are doing is not as important as what God is doing. When we focus on God we discover He is always near, and His presence is our deliverance.

20 Deliver Me from the sword,
[a]My[1] precious life from the power of the dog.
21 [a]Save Me from the lion's mouth
And from the horns of the wild oxen!
[b]You have answered Me.

22:3 "Enthroned" can also mean "inhabiting" the praises of Israel. God resides in worshipful hearts, not in ornate throne rooms.

22:15 A "potsherd" is a broken piece of clay pottery.

22 [a]I will declare Your name to [b]My brethren;
In the midst of the assembly I will praise You.
23 [a]You who fear the LORD, praise Him!
All you [1]descendants of Jacob, glorify Him,
And fear Him, all you offspring of Israel!
24 For He has not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted;
Nor has He hidden His face from Him;
But [a]when He cried to Him, He heard.
25 [a]My praise shall be of You in the great assembly;
[b]I will pay My vows before those who fear Him.
26 The poor shall eat and be satisfied;
Those who seek Him will praise the LORD.
Let your heart live forever!
27 All the ends of the world

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 23:1

Shepherds

Shepherds are not passive toward their flock. They lead, tend, feed, protect, and nurture. They provide everything necessary for those in their care.

3 He restores my soul;
[a]He leads me in the paths of righteousness
For His name's sake.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 23:3

Restoring My Soul

There is a spiritual weariness that only God can address. God speaks to the depths of the heart. He brings peace to the mind. He satisfies the deepest longings of the soul.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of [a]the shadow of death,
[b]I will fear no evil;
[c]For You are with me;
Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.
5 You [a]prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
You [b]anoint my head with oil;
My cup runs over.

PSALM 24

The King of Glory and His Kingdom

A Psalm of David.

THE [a]earth is the LORD's, and all its fullness,
The world and those who dwell therein.
2 For He has [a]founded it upon the seas,
And established it upon the [1]waters.
3 [a]Who may ascend into the hill of the LORD?

PSALM 24
1 [a]1 Cor. 10:26, 28
2 [a]Ps. 89:11 [1]Lit. rivers
3 [a]Ps. 15:1–5

22:27 The "ends of the earth" reflects the reality that every nation will eventually recognize the true God.

22:29 "Those who go down to the dust" means those who have died will have an opportunity to praise God.

23:1 David clearly understood the shepherd's role since he had been one himself (1 Sam. 16:19).

23:2 Sheep are fearful, defenseless animals. They will not lie down unless they feel entirely secure.

23:5 In the ancient world, a host would anoint an honored guest with scented olive oil.

23:6 "Follow" is a word used to describe an animal stalking another. When God is our shepherd, goodness and mercy follow us relentlessly.

24:3 Humanity's age-old question has been, "Who can enjoy fellowship with God?" (Ps. 15).

Or who may stand in His holy
place?
4 He who has [a]clean hands and [b]a pure heart,
Who has not lifted up his soul to an idol,
Nor [c]sworn deceitfully.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 24:4

Conditions

We cannot barge irreverently into God's presence and expect a blessing. Saying prayers or attending worship services mean nothing unless we approach God on His conditions. These are: blameless behavior and a pure heart.

5 He shall receive blessing from the
LORD,
And righteousness from the God of his salvation.
6 This is Jacob, the generation of those who [a]seek Him,
Who seek Your face. Selah

7 [a]Lift up your heads, O you gates!
And be lifted up, you everlasting doors!
[b]And the King of glory shall come in.
8 Who is this King of glory?
The LORD strong and mighty,
The LORD mighty in [a]battle.
9 Lift up your heads, O you gates!
Lift up, you everlasting doors!
And the King of glory shall come in.
10 Who is this King of glory?
The LORD of hosts,
He is the King of glory. Selah

A Plea for Deliverance and Forgiveness

A Psalm of David.

TO [a]You, O LORD, I lift up my soul.
2 O my God, I [a]trust in You;
Let me not be ashamed;
[b]Let not my enemies triumph over
me.
3 Indeed, let no one who [1]waits on
You be ashamed;
Let those be ashamed who deal treacherously without cause.

God's Ways

We do not discover God's ways, He reveals them. God will teach those who earnestly desire to learn.

5 Lead me in Your truth and teach me,
For You are the God of my salvation;
On You I wait all the day.

6 Remember, O LORD, [a]Your tender mercies and Your lovingkindnesses,
For they are from of old.
7 Do not remember [a]the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions;
[b]According to Your mercy remember
me,
For Your goodness' sake, O LORD.

8 Good and upright is the LORD;
Therefore He teaches sinners in the way.
9 The humble He guides in justice,
And the humble He teaches His
way.
10 All the paths of the LORD are mercy
and truth,
To such as keep His covenant and
His testimonies.
11 [a]For Your name's sake, O LORD,
Pardon my iniquity, for it is great.

12 Who is the man that fears the LORD?
[a]Him shall [1]He teach in the way He chooses.
13 [a]He himself shall dwell in
[1]prosperity,
And [b]his descendants shall inherit
the earth.
14 [a]The secret of the LORD is with those who fear Him,
And He will show them His covenant.
15 [a]My eyes are ever toward the LORD,
For He shall [1]pluck my feet out of the net.

16 [a]Turn Yourself to me, and have mercy on me,

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 25:15

Ever on the Lord

The safest way to navigate through this evil world is to keep our focus riveted on the Lord.

24:4 "Clean hands" indicated righteous actions. "Pure heart" reflected godly thoughts and motives.

25:1 Shame is what the enemies of the righteous will feel (Ps. 25:20; 35:26).

25:14 The "secret" of the Lord is His counsel.

For I am [1]desolate and afflicted.
17 The troubles of my heart have enlarged;
Bring me out of my distresses!
18 [a]Look on my affliction and my pain,
And forgive all my sins.
19 Consider my enemies, for they are many;
And they hate me with [1]cruel hatred.
20 Keep my soul, and deliver me;
Let me not be ashamed, for I put my trust in You.
21 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me,
For I wait for You.

22 [a]Redeem Israel, O God,
Out of all their troubles!

PSALM 26

A Prayer for Divine Scrutiny and Redemption

A Psalm of David.

VINDICATE [a]me, O LORD,
For I have [b]walked in my integrity.
[c]I have also trusted in the LORD;
I shall not slip.
2 [a]Examine me, O LORD, and [1]prove me;
Try my mind and my heart.
3 For Your lovingkindness is before my eyes,
And [a]I have walked in Your truth.
4 I have not [a]sat with idolatrous mortals,
Nor will I go in with hypocrites.
5 I have [a]hated the assembly of evildoers,
And will not sit with the wicked.

6 I will wash my hands in innocence;
So I will go about Your altar,
O LORD,
7 That I may proclaim with the voice of thanksgiving,
And tell of all Your wondrous works.
8 LORD, [a]I have loved the habitation of Your house,
And the place [1]where Your glory dwells.

9 [a]Do[1] not gather my soul with sinners,
Nor my life with bloodthirsty men,
10 In whose hands is a sinister scheme,
And whose right hand is full of [a]bribes.
11 But as for me, I will walk in my integrity;
Redeem me and be merciful to me.
12 [a]My foot stands in an even place;
In the congregations I will bless the LORD.

True Worship

The true worshipper loves to be in God's presence. Genuine worship emanates from a heart that is drawn toward God. It is not forced by guilt, duty, or habit.

PSALM 27

An Exuberant Declaration of Faith

A Psalm of David.

THE LORD is my [a]light and my salvation;
Whom shall I fear?
The [b]LORD is the strength of my life;
Of whom shall I be afraid?
2 When the wicked came against me
To [a]eat[1] up my flesh,
My enemies and foes,
They stumbled and fell.
3 [a]Though an army may encamp against me,
My heart shall not fear;
Though war may rise against me,
In this I will be confident.

4 [a]One thing I have desired of the LORD,
That will I seek:
That I may [b]dwell in the house of the LORD
All the days of my life,
To behold the [1]beauty of the LORD,
And to inquire in His temple.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 27:4

Beholding His Beauty

We may appreciate God's acts, but His beauty—the essence of His nature—is incomprehensible. To behold God's beauty is a treasure of immense value.

5 For [a]in the time of trouble
He shall hide me in His pavilion;

26:1 "Vindicate" can mean to judge or to declare righteous. Here the psalmist wants to hear God affirm his integrity.

26:6 Before the psalmist can worship God, he must ensure that his "hands are clean," meaning his sins are forgiven.

26:11 Walking in integrity means living one's life in complete obedience to God.

27:1 Darkness represents evil (John 1:5; 13:30). Because God is light, He dispels the darkness and saves us from the evil lurking around us.

In the secret place of His tabernacle
He shall hide me;
He shall [b]set me high upon a rock.

6 And now [a]my head shall be [1]lifted up above my enemies all around me;
Therefore I will offer sacrifices of [2]joy in His tabernacle;
I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to the LORD.

7 Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice!
Have mercy also upon me, and answer me.
8 When You said, "Seek My face,"
My heart said to You, "Your face, LORD, I will seek."
9 [a]Do not hide Your face from me;
Do not turn Your servant away in anger;
You have been my help;
Do not leave me nor forsake me,
O God of my salvation.
10 [a]When my father and my mother forsake me,
Then the LORD will take care of me.

11 [a]Teach me Your way, O LORD,
And lead me in a smooth path, because of my enemies.
12 Do not deliver me to the will of my adversaries;
For [a]false witnesses have risen against me,
And such as breathe out violence.
13 I would have lost heart, unless I had believed That I would see the goodness of the LORD
[a]In the land of the living.

14 [a]Wait[1] on the LORD;
Be of good courage,
And He shall strengthen your heart;
Wait, I say, on the LORD!

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 27:14

Wait!

Acting is easy. Waiting is not. Yet strength comes from waiting on God.

PSALM 28

Rejoicing in Answered Prayer

A Psalm of David.

TO You I will cry, O LORD my Rock:
[a]Do not be silent to me,
[b]Lest, if You are silent to me,
I become like those who go down to the pit.
2 Hear the voice of my supplications
When I cry to You,
[a]When I lift up my hands [b]toward Your holy sanctuary.

3 Do not [1]take me away with the wicked
And with the workers of iniquity,
[a]Who speak peace to their neighbors,
But evil is in their hearts.
4 [a]Give them according to their deeds,
And according to the wickedness of their endeavors;
Give them according to the work of their hands;
Render to them what they deserve.
5 Because [a]they do not regard the works of the LORD,
Nor the operation of His hands,
He shall destroy them
And not build them up.

6 Blessed be the LORD,
Because He has heard the voice of my supplications!
7 The LORD is [a]my strength and my shield;
My heart [b]trusted in Him, and I am helped;
Therefore my heart greatly rejoices,
And with my song I will praise Him.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 28:7

God's Help

God helps those who trust in Him. If His help is not forthcoming, perhaps our trust is lacking.

8 The LORD is [1]their strength,
And He is the [a]saving refuge of His [2]anointed.
9 Save Your people,
And bless [a]Your inheritance;
Shepherd them also,
[b]And bear them up forever.

PSALM 29

1 [a]1 Chr. 16:28, 29 [1]Ascribe

27:11 Since God's ways are not our ways (Is. 55:8, 9), the only means to learn His will is if God teaches it to us.

28:1 The "pit" symbolizes death in the Psalms (Ps. 9:17, 18; 16:10; 143:7).

28:3 "Take me away" refers to death. It means going to the eternal destination reserved for the wicked.

29:1 "Give" means to "ascribe." Worshippers do not give any attribute to God; they recognize and praise God's attributes.

Give unto the LORD glory and
strength.
2 [1]Give unto the LORD the glory [2]due to His name;
Worship the LORD in [a]the [3]beauty of holiness.

3 The voice of the LORD is over the waters;
[a]The God of glory thunders;
The LORD is over many waters.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 29:3

The Voice of God

God's voice is powerful enough to shake the world. No earthly force is comparable to it.

4 The voice of the LORD is powerful;
The voice of the LORD is full of majesty.

5 The voice of the LORD breaks [a]the cedars,
Yes, the LORD splinters the cedars of Lebanon.
6 [a]He makes them also skip like a calf,
Lebanon and [b]Sirion like a young wild ox.
7 The voice of the LORD [1]divides the flames of fire.

8 The voice of the LORD shakes the
wilderness;
The LORD shakes the Wilderness of
[a]Kadesh.
9 The voice of the LORD makes the
[a]deer give birth,
And strips the forests bare;
And in His temple everyone says,
"Glory!"

10 The [a]LORD sat enthroned at the Flood,
And [b]the LORD sits as King forever.
11 [a]The LORD will give strength to His people;
The LORD will bless His people with
peace.

The Blessedness of Answered Prayer

A Psalm. A Song [a]at the dedication of the house of David.

I WILL extol You, O LORD, for You have [a]lifted me up,
And have not let my foes [b]rejoice
over me.
2 O LORD my God, I cried out to You,
And You [a]healed me.

God's Healing

Healing comes from God. We can treat symptoms, but only God brings healing.

3 O LORD, [a]You brought my soul up from the grave;
You have kept me alive, [1]that I should not go down to the pit.

4 [a]Sing praise to the LORD, you saints of His,
And give thanks at the remembrance of [1]His holy name.
5 For [a]His anger is but for a moment,
[b]His favor is for life;
Weeping may endure for a night,
But [1]joy comes in the morning.

6 Now in my prosperity I said,
"I shall never be [1]moved."
7 LORD, by Your favor You have made my mountain stand strong;
[a]You hid Your face, and I was troubled.

8 I cried out to You, O LORD;
And to the LORD I made
supplication:
9 "What profit is there in my blood,
When I go down to the pit?
[a]Will the dust praise You?
Will it declare Your truth?
10 Hear, O LORD, and have mercy on
me;
LORD, be my helper!"

11 [a]You have turned for me my mourning into dancing;
You have put off [1]my sackcloth and clothed me with gladness,

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 30:11

Mourning to Dancing

Only God can transform bitter mourning into unspeakable joy. One word from God changes everything.

29:3 Baal was considered the god of the storm. Here the psalmist rightfully attributes thunder to God. God's voice is portrayed as extremely powerful and unmistakable.

29:6 Sirion is the snow-capped Mount Hermon to the north in Lebanon (Deut. 3:9).

29:11 The Lord blesses His people with peace. This does not mean they are free from troubles but their hearts and minds can be at rest because God is their shepherd (23:4, 5).

30:3 The psalmist was gravely ill, but God healed him.

30:10 "Helper" means "strength" or "power."

12 To the end that my [1]glory may sing praise to You and not be silent.
O LORD my God, I will give thanks to You forever.

PSALM 31

The LORD a Fortress in Adversity

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

IN [a]You, O LORD, I [1]put my trust;
Let me never be ashamed;
Deliver me in Your righteousness.
2 [a]Bow down Your ear to me,
Deliver me speedily;
Be my rock of [1]refuge,
A [2]fortress of defense to save me.
3 [a]For You are my rock and my fortress;
Therefore, [b]for Your name's sake,
Lead me and guide me.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 31:3

My Fortress

There is absolute safety in allowing God to direct your life. God's presence is an unshakable fortress in the believer's life.

4 Pull me out of the net which they have secretly laid for me,
For You are my strength.
5 [a]Into Your hand I commit my spirit;
You have redeemed me, O LORD
God of [b]truth.
6 I have hated those [a]who regard useless idols;
But I trust in the LORD.
7 I will be glad and rejoice in Your mercy,
For You have considered my trouble;
You have [a]known my soul in
[1]adversities,
8 And have not [a]shut[1] me up into the hand of the enemy;
[b]You have set my feet in a wide
place.
9 Have mercy on me, O LORD, for I am in trouble;
[a]My eye wastes away with grief,
Yes, my soul and my [1]body!
10 For my life is spent with grief,
And my years with sighing;
My strength fails because of my
iniquity,
And my bones waste away.
11 [a]I am a [1]reproach among all my
enemies,
But [b]especially among my neighbors,
And am repulsive to my acquaintances;
[c]Those who see me outside flee from
me.
12 [a]I am forgotten like a dead man, out of mind;
I am like a [1]broken vessel.
13 [a]For I hear the slander of many;
[b]Fear is on every side;
While they [c]take counsel together
against me,
They scheme to take away my life.
14 But as for me, I trust in You,
O LORD;
I say, "You are my God."
15 My times are in Your [a]hand; Deliver me from the hand of my
enemies,
And from those who persecute me.
16 [a]Make Your face shine upon Your servant;
Save me for Your mercies' sake.
17 [a]Do not let me be ashamed, O LORD,
for I have called upon You;
Let the wicked be ashamed;
[b]Let them be silent in the grave.
18 [a]Let the lying lips be put to silence,
Which [b]speak insolent things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.
19 [a]Oh, how great is Your goodness,
Which You have laid up for those who fear You,
Which You have prepared for those who trust in You
In the presence of the sons of men!
20 [a]You shall hide them in the secret place of Your presence
From the plots of man;
[b]You shall keep them secretly in a
[1]pavilion
From the strife of tongues.
21 Blessed be the LORD,
For [a]He has shown me His marvelous kindness in a [1]strong city!

30:12 "Glory" may refer to the psalmist's soul (16:9).

31:1 The imagery is of a small bird seeking protection in its mother's wings (Ps. 11:1; 17:7; 91:1–4).

31:16 This may refer to the priestly blessing in Numbers 6:24-26. The psalmist wants God to smile upon his life.

31:20 "The secret place of Your presence" describes the safety found in a close relationship with God. No disaster or enemy can rob God's children of their close fellowship with God.

31:22 "I said in my haste" means the psalmist uttered words in his anguish he would not have said under normal circumstances. The Psalms reflect the psalmist's spontaneous thoughts and feelings as he undergoes life's trials.

Nevertheless You heard the voice of my supplications
When I cried out to You.

23 Oh, love the LORD, all you His saints!
For the LORD preserves the faithful,
And fully repays the proud person.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 31:23

Love the Lord

The irrepressible response to knowing the Lord is love. Loving God comes naturally when you realize who He is and what He has done.

24 [a]Be of good courage,
And He shall strengthen your heart,
All you who hope in the LORD.

PSALM 32

The Joy of Forgiveness

A Psalm of David. A [1]Contemplation.

BLESSED is he whose [a]transgression is forgiven,
Whose sin is covered.
2 Blessed is the man to whom the LORD [a]does not [1]impute iniquity,
And [b]in whose spirit there is no deceit.

3 When I kept silent, my bones grew old
Through my groaning all the day long.
4 For day and night Your [a]hand was heavy upon me;
My vitality was turned into the drought of summer. Selah

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 32:4

The Lord's Heavy Hand

God's righteous hand weighs heavily upon a sinner. His displeasure is apparent. Fighting against God's will is exhausting.

5 I acknowledged my sin to You,
And my iniquity I have not hidden.
[a]I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD,"
And You forgave the iniquity of my sin. Selah

Which have no understanding,
Which must be harnessed with bit and bridle,
Else they will not come near you.

10 [a]Many sorrows shall be to the wicked;
But [b]he who trusts in the LORD, mercy shall surround him.
11 [a]Be glad in the LORD and rejoice, you righteous;
And shout for joy, all you upright in heart!

PSALM 33

The Sovereignty of the LORD in Creation and History

REJOICE [a]in the LORD, O you righteous!
For praise from the upright is beautiful.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 33:1

Beautiful Praise

Not all praise is worthy of God. Worship from unclean lips and disobedient hearts is an abomination. Praise from a holy life is beautiful.

2 Praise the LORD with the harp;
[1]Make melody to Him with an instrument of ten strings.
3 Sing to Him a new song;
Play skillfully with a shout of joy.

4 For the word of the LORD is right,
And all His work is done in truth.
5 He loves righteousness and justice;
The earth is full of the goodness of the LORD.

6 [a][Heb. 11:3]

32:1 "Blessed" means "happy." It describes the joy of knowing your sins have been forgiven by holy God.

32:3 David kept silent about his sin. When he sinned against Uriah, he did not confess until the prophet Nathan confronted him almost nine months later (2 Sam. 12:1–15).

32:5 Silence wrought pain and suffering. Confession brought forgiveness.

7 [a]He gathers the waters of the sea together [1]as a heap;
He lays up the deep in storehouses.

8 Let all the earth fear the LORD;
Let all the inhabitants of the world
stand in awe of Him.
9 For [a]He spoke, and it was done;
He commanded, and it stood fast.

10 [a]The LORD brings the counsel of the nations to nothing;
He makes the plans of the peoples of no effect.
11 [a]The counsel of the LORD stands
forever,
The plans of His heart to all generations.
12 Blessed is the nation whose God is
the LORD,
The people He has [a]chosen as His 13 [a]The LORD looks from heaven;

He sees all the sons of men.
14 From the place of His dwelling He looks
On all the inhabitants of the earth;
15 He fashions their hearts
individually;
[a]He [1]considers all their works.

A mighty man is not delivered by 18 [a]Behold, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear Him,

On those who hope in His mercy,
19 To deliver their soul from death,
And [a]to keep them alive in famine.

He is our help and our shield.

PSALM 34

The Happiness of Those Who Trust in God

A Psalm of David [a]when he pretended madness before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he departed.

I WILL [a]bless the LORD at all times;
His praise shall continually be in my mouth.
2 My soul shall make its boast in the
LORD;
The humble shall hear of it and be glad.
3 Oh, magnify the LORD with me,
And let us exalt His name together.

4 I [a]sought the LORD, and He heard
me,
And delivered me from all my fears.
5 They looked to Him and were radiant,
And their faces were not ashamed.
6 This poor man cried out, and the LORD heard him,
And saved him out of all his troubles.
7 [a]The [1]angel of the LORD [b]encamps
all around those who fear Him,
And delivers them.

8 Oh, [a]taste and see that the LORD is
good;
[b]Blessed is the man who trusts in
Him!
9 Oh, fear the LORD, you His saints!
There is no [1]want to those who fear
Him.
10 The young lions lack and suffer hunger;
[a]But those who seek the LORD shall not lack any good thing.

11 Come, you children, listen to me;
[a]I will teach you the fear of the LORD.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 34:11

Learning to Fear

The fear of God does not come naturally—rebellion and disobedience do. As we grow in our understanding of who God is, we develop a wholesome reverence for Him.

33:7 The reference to the "waters of the sea" refers to creation (Gen. 1:9). Pagan religions viewed the seas as the habitation of evil gods. Yet almighty God is absolutely sovereign over the seas.

33:11 The Lord's plans cannot be thwarted. Though circumstances appear impossible to overcome, God will see that His purposes ultimately succeed.

33:20 Waiting on the Lord is an act of resolute faith and hope in God.

34:1 Psalm 34 is a wisdom psalm. There is one verse for each letter of the Hebrew alphabet. "At all times" was significant for David as he wrote this psalm. He had been reduced to feigning madness to save his life from the Philistines (1 Sam. 21:10–15).

34:8 "Taste and see" implies experiential knowledge of God rather than merely intellectual knowledge. When someone encounters God, they will be strongly inclined to place their trust in Him.

34:13 "Keep your tongue from evil" implies it is possible to control

12 [a]Who is the man who desires life,
And loves many days, that he may see good?
13 Keep your tongue from evil,
And your lips from speaking [a]deceit.
14 [a]Depart from evil and do good;
[b]Seek peace and pursue it.

15 [a]The eyes of the LORD are on the righteous,
And His ears are open to their cry.
16 [a]The face of the LORD is against those who do evil,
[b]To [1]cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

17 The righteous cry out, and [a]the LORD hears,
And delivers them out of all their troubles.
18 [a]The LORD is near [b]to those who have a broken heart,
And saves such as [1]have a contrite spirit.

19 [a]Many are the afflictions of the righteous,
[b]But the LORD delivers him out of them all.
20 He guards all his bones;
[a]Not one of them is broken.
21 [a]Evil shall slay the wicked,
And those who hate the righteous shall be [1]condemned.
22 The LORD [a]redeems the soul of His servants,
And none of those who trust in Him shall be condemned.

PSALM 35

The LORD the Avenger of His People

A Psalm of David.

PLEAD[1] my cause, O LORD, with those who strive with me;
Fight against those who fight against me.
2 Take hold of shield and [1]buckler,
And stand up for my help.
3 Also draw out the spear,
And stop those who pursue me.
Say to my soul,
"I am your salvation."

4 [a]Let those be put to shame and brought to dishonor
Who seek after my life;
Let those be [b]turned back and brought to confusion
Who plot my hurt.
5 [a]Let them be like chaff before the wind,
And let the [1]angel of the LORD chase them.
6 Let their way be [a]dark and slippery,
And let the angel of the LORD pursue them.
7 For without cause they have [a]hidden their net for me in a pit,
Which they have dug without cause for my life.
8 [1]Let [a]destruction come upon him unexpectedly,
And let his net that he has hidden catch himself;
Into that very destruction let him fall.

9 And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD;
It shall rejoice in His salvation.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 35:9

A Joyful Soul

Those who understand what God delivered them from will experience exuberant joy. Salvation inspires gratitude, and gratitude generates joy.

10 [a]All my bones shall say,
"LORD, [b]who is like You,
Delivering the poor from him who is too strong for him,
Yes, the poor and the needy from him who plunders him?"

11 Fierce[a] witnesses rise up;
They ask me things that I do not know.
12 [a]They reward me evil for good,
To the sorrow of my soul.
13 But as for me, [a]when they were sick,
My clothing was sackcloth;
I humbled myself with fasting;
And my prayer would return to my own [1]heart.
14 I paced about as though he were my friend or brother;
I bowed down [1]heavily, as one who mourns for his mother.

your tongue. Our words can bring enormous grief (James 3:1–12).

34:19 "Many" indicates that God's people will not be spared hardships, but through their trials they will experience God's provision.

34:20 This would be a prophecy of the Messiah (John 19:33–36).

35:2 A "buckler" was a small round shield.

35:8 The wicked can appear to be exempt from the consequences of their sin, but judgment can come upon them "unexpectedly" (1 Thess. 5:3).

35:9 "All my bones" implies "all my being."

15 But in my [1]adversity they rejoiced
And gathered together;
Attackers gathered against me,
And I did not know it;
They tore at me and did not cease;
16 With ungodly mockers at feasts
They gnashed at me with their teeth.

17 Lord, how long will You [a]look on?
Rescue me from their destructions,
My precious life from the lions.
18 I will give You thanks in the great assembly;
I will praise You among [1]many people.

19 [a]Let them not rejoice over me who are wrongfully my enemies;
Nor let them wink with the eye who hate me without a cause.
20 For they do not speak peace,
But they devise deceitful matters
Against the quiet ones in the land.
21 They also opened their mouth wide against me,
And said, "Aha, aha!
Our eyes have seen it."

22 This You have seen, O LORD;
Do not keep silence.
O Lord, do not be far from me.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 35:22

No Silence

It is inevitable that you will be misjudged at some time. Only God can ultimately vindicate your innocence and prove your righteousness. He will do so in His timing and at His pleasure.

23 Stir up Yourself, and awake to my vindication,
To my cause, my God and my Lord.
24 Vindicate me, O LORD my God, according to Your righteousness;
And let them not rejoice over me.
25 Let them not say in their hearts,
"Ah, so we would have it!"
Let them not say, "We have swallowed him up."

26 Let them be ashamed and brought to mutual confusion
Who rejoice at my hurt;
Let them be [a]clothed with shame and dishonor
Who exalt themselves against me.

27 [a]Let them shout for joy and be glad,
Who favor my righteous cause;
And let them say continually,
"Let the LORD be magnified,
Who has pleasure in the prosperity of His servant."
28 And my tongue shall speak of Your righteousness
And of Your praise all the day long.

PSALM 36

Man's Wickedness and God's Perfections

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD.

AN oracle within my heart concerning the transgression of the wicked:
[a]There is no fear of God before his eyes.
2 For he flatters himself in his own eyes,
When he finds out his iniquity and when he hates.
3 The words of his mouth are wickedness and deceit;
[a]He has ceased to be wise and to do good.
4 [a]He devises wickedness on his bed;
He sets himself [b]in a way that is not good;
He does not [1]abhor [c]evil.

5 Your mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens;
Your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.
6 Your righteousness is like the [1]great mountains;
[a]Your judgments are a great deep;
O LORD, You preserve man and beast.

7 How precious is Your lovingkindness, O God!
Therefore the children of men [a]put their trust under the shadow of Your wings.
8 [a]They are abundantly satisfied with the fullness of Your house,
And You give them drink from [b]the river of Your pleasures.
9 [a]For with You is the fountain of life;
[b]In Your light we see light.

10 Oh, continue Your lovingkindness to those who know You,
And Your righteousness to the upright in heart.

35:23 "Stir up yourself" does not mean the psalmist thought God was asleep, but he was urging God to vindicate the righteous.

36:1 An "oracle" indicated a word from the Lord.

36:8 The world masquerades itself as a source of unending pleasures, but only God provides true pleasure to those who seek Him. The picture of a river and a fountain indicates a never-ending supply.

36:10 Here to "know" God is not to know intellectually but to be in relationship with Him.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 36:9

Fountain of Life

Abundant life flows from God. Apart from Him there is merely existence. Sparkling life exudes from God as from a fountain.

11 Let not the foot of pride come against me,
And let not the hand of the wicked drive me away.
12 There the workers of iniquity have fallen;
They have been cast down and are not able to rise.

PSALM 37

The Heritage of the Righteous and the Calamity of the Wicked

A Psalm of David.

DO[a] not fret because of evildoers,
Nor be envious of the workers of iniquity.
2 For they shall soon be cut down [a]like the grass,
And wither as the green herb.
3 Trust in the LORD, and do good;
Dwell in the land, and feed on His faithfulness.
4 [a]Delight yourself also in the LORD,
And He shall give you the desires of your [b]heart.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 37:4

Delight Yourself

The greatest source of joy in life comes from a relationship with God. All other pleasures stem from that source.

5 [a]Commit[1] your way to the LORD,
Trust also in Him,
And He shall bring it to pass.
6 [a]He shall bring forth your righteousness as the light,
And your justice as the noonday.
7 Rest in the LORD, [a]and wait patiently for Him;
Do not fret because of him who [b]prospers in his way,
Because of the man who brings wicked schemes to pass.
8 [a]Cease from anger, and forsake wrath;
[b]Do not fret—it only causes harm.
9 For evildoers shall be [1]cut off;
But those who wait on the LORD,
They shall [a]inherit the earth.
10 For [a]yet a little while and the wicked shall be no more;
Indeed, [b]you will look carefully for his place,
But it shall be no more.
11 [a]But the meek shall inherit the earth,
And shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.
12 The wicked plots against the just,
[a]And gnashes at him with his teeth.
13 [a]The Lord laughs at him,
For He sees that [b]his day is coming.
14 The wicked have drawn the sword
And have bent their bow,
To cast down the poor and needy,
To slay those who are of upright conduct.
15 Their sword shall enter their own heart,
And their bows shall be broken.
16 [a]A little that a righteous man has
Is better than the riches of many wicked.
17 For the arms of the wicked shall be broken,
But the LORD upholds the righteous.
18 The LORD knows the days of the upright,
And their inheritance shall be forever.
19 They shall not be ashamed in the evil time,
And in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.
20 But the wicked shall perish;
And the enemies of the LORD,
Like the splendor of the meadows, shall vanish.
Into smoke they shall vanish away.
21 The wicked borrows and does not repay,
But [a]the righteous shows mercy and gives.
22 [a]For those blessed by Him shall inherit the earth,
But those cursed by Him shall be [1]cut off.
23 [a]The steps of a good man are [1]ordered by the LORD,
And He delights in his way.

37:4 The prerequisite for God granting you the desires of your heart is that your heart be set to delight in His ways.

37:7 Resting in the Lord is contrasted with fretting. One cannot do both simultaneously.

37:8 God gives a clear prohibition from anger (Col. 3:8).

37:11 The word translated "earth" can also mean "land," a more specific territory. Jesus quoted this passage in the Beatitudes (Matt. 5:5).

37:16 When people truly delight in the Lord, they do not require material wealth to satisfy them.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 37:23

Ordering Our Steps

God does more than just the spectacular. He guides His children daily, hourly, in practical ways. God delights in the ordinary steps of His children.

24 [a]Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down;
For the LORD upholds him with His hand.
25 I have been young, and now am old;
Yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken,
Nor his descendants begging bread.
26 [a]He is [1]ever merciful, and lends;
And his descendants are blessed.
27 Depart from evil, and do good;
And dwell forevermore.
28 For the LORD loves justice,
And does not forsake His saints;
They are preserved forever,
But the descendants of the wicked shall be cut off.
29 [a]The righteous shall inherit the land,
And dwell in it forever.
30 [a]The mouth of the righteous speaks wisdom,
And his tongue talks of justice.
31 The law of his God is in his heart;
None of his steps shall [1]slide.
32 The wicked [a]watches the righteous,
And seeks to slay him.
33 The LORD [a]will not leave him in his hand,
Nor condemn him when he is judged.
34 [a]Wait on the LORD,
And keep His way,
And He shall exalt you to inherit the land;
When the wicked are cut off, you shall see it.
35 I have seen the wicked in great power,
And spreading himself like a native green tree.
36 Yet [1]he passed away, and behold, he was no more;
Indeed I sought him, but he could not be found.
37 Mark the blameless man, and observe the upright;
For the future of that man is peace.
38 [a]But the transgressors shall be destroyed together;
The future of the wicked shall be cut off.
39 But the salvation of the righteous is from the LORD;
He is their strength [a]in the time of trouble.
40 And [a]the LORD shall help them and deliver them;
He shall deliver them from the wicked,
And save them,
[b]Because they trust in Him.

PSALM 38

Prayer in Time of Chastening

A Psalm of David. [a]To bring to remembrance.

O LORD, do not [a]rebuke me in Your wrath,
Nor chasten me in Your hot displeasure!
2 For Your arrows pierce me deeply,
And Your hand presses me down.
3 There is no soundness in my flesh
Because of Your anger,
Nor any health in my bones
Because of my sin.
4 For my iniquities have gone over my head;
Like a heavy burden they are too heavy for me.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 38:4

Over My Head

We cannot cope with sin. It is too much for us. Apart from God, we are powerless to free ourselves from sin's death grip.

5 My wounds are foul and festering
Because of my foolishness.
6 I am [1]troubled, I am bowed down greatly;
I go mourning all the day long.
7 For my loins are full of inflammation,
And there is no soundness in my flesh.
8 I am feeble and severely broken;
I groan because of the turmoil of my heart.
9 Lord, all my desire is before You;
And my sighing is not hidden from You.
10 My heart pants, my strength fails me;

PSALM 38
title [a]Ps. 70:title
1 [a]Ps. 6:1
6 [1]Lit. bent down

37:40 Here God's deliverance is a response to people's trust in Him.
38:10 David complained that the light of his eyes had gone out which may indicate he is sick or oppressed unto death (Ps. 13:3).

As for the light of my eyes, it also has gone from me.

11 My loved ones and my friends
[a]stand aloof from my plague,
And my relatives stand afar off.
12 Those also who seek my life lay snares for me;
Those who seek my hurt speak of destruction,
And plan deception all the day long.

13 But I, like a deaf man, do not hear;
And I am like a [a]mute who does not open his mouth.
14 Thus I am like a man who does not hear,
And in whose mouth is no response.

15 For [1]in You, O LORD, [a]I hope;
You will [2]hear, O Lord my God.
16 For I said, "Hear me, lest they rejoice over me, Lest, when my foot slips, they exalt themselves against me."

17 [a]For I am ready to fall,
And my sorrow is continually before me.
18 For I will [a]declare my iniquity;
I will be [b]in [1]anguish over my sin.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 38:18

Anguish

A tender heart toward God cannot remain indifferent to sin. Sin grieves God, and it ought to grieve us.

19 But my enemies are vigorous, and they are strong;
And those who hate me wrongfully have multiplied.
20 Those also [a]who render evil for good,
They are my adversaries, because I follow what is good.

21 Do not forsake me, O LORD;
O my God, [a]be not far from me!
22 Make haste to help me,
O Lord, my salvation!

PSALM 39

Prayer for Wisdom and Forgiveness

To the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

I SAID, "I will guard my ways,
Lest I sin with my [a]tongue;
I will restrain my mouth with a muzzle,
While the wicked are before me."
2 [a]I was mute with silence,
I held my peace even from good;
And my sorrow was stirred up.
3 My heart was hot within me;
While I was [1]musing, the fire burned.
Then I spoke with my tongue:

4 "LORD, [a]make me to know my end,
And what is the measure of my days,
That I may know how frail I am.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 39:4

To Know My End

Encounters with God illuminate how powerful and enduring He is and how frail and transitory we are. Through circumstances in our lives God will clarify the difference, and invite us to fix our hope in him.

5 Indeed, You have made my days as handbreadths,
And my age is as nothing before You;
Certainly every man at his best state is but [a]vapor. Selah
6 Surely every man walks about like a shadow;
Surely they [1]busy themselves in vain;
He heaps up riches,
And does not know who will gather them.

7 "And now, Lord, what do I wait for?
My [a]hope is in You.
8 Deliver me from all my transgressions;
Do not make me [a]the reproach of the foolish.
9 [a]I was mute, I did not open my mouth,
Because it was [b]You who did it.
10 [a]Remove Your plague from me;
I am consumed by the blow of Your hand.
11 When with rebukes You correct man for iniquity,
You make his beauty [a]melt away like a moth;
Surely every man is vapor. Selah

39:1 For Jeduthun, see 1 Chronicles 16:41 and 25:1–3.

39:2 "Even from good" could also be translated "to no avail."

39:5 "Vapor" suggests life's transitory nature.

Do not be silent at my tears;
For I am a stranger with You,
A sojourner, [a]as all my fathers were.
13 [a]Remove Your gaze from me, that I may regain strength,
Before I go away and [b]am no more."

PSALM 40

Faith Persevering in Trial

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

I [a]WAITED patiently for the LORD;
And He inclined to me,
And heard my cry.
2 He also brought me up out of a horrible pit,
Out of [a]the miry clay,
And [b]set my feet upon a rock,
And established my steps.
3 [a]He has put a new song in my mouth—
Praise to our God;
Many will see it and fear,
And will trust in the LORD.

4 [a]Blessed is that man who makes the LORD his trust,
And does not respect the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.
5 [a]Many, O LORD my God, are Your wonderful works
Which You have done;
[b]And Your thoughts toward us
Cannot be recounted to You in order;
If I would declare and speak of them,
They are more than can be numbered.

6 [a]Sacrifice and offering You did not desire;
My ears You have opened.
Burnt offering and sin offering You did not require.
7 Then I said, "Behold, I come;
In the scroll of the book it is written of me.
8 [a]I delight to do Your will, O my God,
And Your law is [b]within my heart."

9 [a]I have proclaimed the good news of righteousness
In the great assembly;
Indeed, [b]I do not restrain my lips,
O LORD, You Yourself know.
10 [a]I have not hidden Your righteousness within my heart;
I have declared Your faithfulness and Your salvation;
I have not concealed Your lovingkindness and Your truth
From the great assembly.

11 Do not withhold Your tender mercies from me, O LORD;
[a]Let Your lovingkindness and Your truth continually preserve me.
12 For innumerable evils have surrounded me;
[a]My iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up;
They are more than the hairs of my head;
Therefore my heart fails me.

13 [a]Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me;
O LORD, make haste to help me!
14 [a]Let them be ashamed and brought to mutual confusion
Who seek to destroy my [1]life;
Let them be driven backward and brought to dishonor
Who wish me evil.
15 Let them be [a]confounded because of their shame,
Who say to me, "Aha, aha!"

16 [a]Let all those who seek You rejoice and be glad in You;
Let such as love Your salvation [b]say continually,
"The LORD be magnified!"
17 [a]But I am poor and needy;
[b]Yet the LORD thinks upon me.
You are my help and my deliverer;
Do not delay, O my God.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 40:17

Enthroned

God sits exalted above the universe. We are weak and needy creatures. Yet the Lord thinks of us. What a blessed, incomprehensible thought!

PSALM 41

The Blessing and Suffering of the Godly

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

BLESSED is he who considers the [1]poor;
The LORD will deliver him in time of trouble.

40:1 The psalmist portrays almighty God, enthroned in the heavens, bending down to listen to the entreaty of one of His children.

40:2 For "miry clay," see Jeremiah 38:6.

40:5 That almighty God has any thoughts at all toward His creatures is amazing. The fact God's thoughts toward us are innumerable is more than we can fathom.

41:1 The "poor" are the weak and helpless.

2 The LORD will preserve him and keep him alive,
And he will be blessed on the earth;
[a]You will not deliver him to the will of his enemies.
3 The LORD will strengthen him on his bed of illness;
You will [1]sustain him on his sickbed.

4 I said, "LORD, be merciful to me;
[a]Heal my soul, for I have sinned against You."
5 My enemies speak evil of me:
"When will he die, and his name perish?"
6 And if he comes to see me, he speaks [1]lies;
His heart gathers iniquity to itself;
When he goes out, he tells it.

7 All who hate me whisper together against me;
Against me they [1]devise my hurt.
8 "An[1] evil disease," they say, "clings to him.
And now that he lies down, he will rise up no more."
9 [a]Even my own familiar friend in whom I trusted,
[b]Who ate my bread,
Has [1]lifted up his heel against me.

10 But You, O LORD, be merciful to me, and raise me up,
That I may repay them.
11 By this I know that You are well pleased with me,
Because my enemy does not triumph over me.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 41:11

Well Pleased

A sign of God's pleasure in your life is victory. It is foolhardy to experience repeated failure and still assume God is pleased with you.

12 As for me, You uphold me in my integrity,
And [a]set me before Your face forever.

Psalms 42—72

PSALM 42

Yearning for God in the Midst of Distresses

To the Chief Musician. A [1]Contemplation of the sons of Korah.

As the deer [1]pants for the water brooks,
So pants my soul for You, O God.
2 [a]My soul thirsts for God, for the [b]living God.
When shall I come and [1]appear before God?

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 42:2

Thirsting for God

Deep within our souls is a thirst for God. Even as we experience His presence we will continue to crave more, until finally we abide with Him forever.

3 [a]My tears have been my food day and night,
While they continually say to me,
[b]"Where is your God?"

4 When I remember these things,
[a]I pour out my soul within me.
For I used to go with the multitude;
[b]I went with them to the house of God,
With the voice of joy and praise,
With a multitude that kept a pilgrim feast.

5 [a]Why are you [1]cast down, O my soul?
And why are you disquieted within me?
[b]Hope in God, for I shall yet praise Him
[2]For the help of His countenance.

6 [1]O my God, my soul is cast down within me;
Therefore I will remember You from the land of the Jordan,
And from the heights of Hermon,
From [2]the Hill Mizar.
7 Deep calls unto deep at the noise of Your waterfalls;
[a]All Your waves and billows have gone over me.

41:5 For someone's name to perish was for the memory of that person to be lost as if the individual had never existed.

41:9 David's complaint against his familiar friend is ironic in light of his own action against one of his mighty men, Uriah (2 Sam. 23:39; 1 Chr. 11:41).

41:12 To be set before God's face was to be constantly under His watchful eye.

41:13 "Amen" means "let it be so."

42:1 The psalmist portrays a deer fleeing from hunters, stopping at a cool stream to quench its burning thirst.

42:6 "Mizar" means "Smallness."

8 The LORD will [a]command His lovingkindness in the daytime,
And [b]in the night His song shall be with me—
A prayer to the God of my life.

9 I will say to God my Rock,
[a]"Why have You forgotten me?
Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?"
10 As with a [1]breaking of my bones,
My enemies [2]reproach me,
[a]While they say to me all day long,
"Where is your God?"

11 [a]Why are you cast down, O my soul?
And why are you disquieted within me?
Hope in God;

PSALM 43

Prayer to God in Time of Trouble

VINDICATE [a]me, O God,
And [b]plead my cause against an ungodly nation;
Oh, deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man!

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 43:1

Vindicate Me!

God's activity in your life will vindicate you before your critics. Allow God to be your advocate. As He fully accomplishes His work through you, others will notice. You will be comforted and God will be glorified.

2 For You are the God of my strength;
Why do You cast me off?
[a]Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

3 [a]Oh, send out Your light and Your truth!
Let them lead me;
Let them bring me to [b]Your holy hill
And to Your [1]tabernacle.
4 Then I will go to the altar of God,
To God my exceeding joy;
And on the harp I will praise You,
O God, my God.

5 [a]Why are you cast down, O my soul?
And why are you disquieted within me?
Hope in God;
For I shall yet praise Him,
The [1]help of my countenance and my God.

43:3 Here the psalmist rebukes himself. Although his emotions were drained he knew in his mind he should continue to hope in the Lord.

43:3 In times of distress, the psalmist's overwhelming desire was to go to the place of worship.

PSALM 44

Redemption Remembered in Present Dishonor

To the Chief Musician. A [a]Contemplation[1] of the sons of Korah.

WE have heard with our ears,
O God,
[a]Our fathers have told us,
The deeds You did in their days,
In days of old:

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 44:1

Hearing with Our Ears

There is no such thing as a second-hand walk with God. We can marvel that others have experienced God's mighty power in the past, but our relationship with God must be dynamic, and it must be our own.

2 [a]You drove out the [1]nations with Your hand,
But them You planted;
You afflicted the peoples, and cast them out.
3 For [a]they did not gain possession of the land by their own sword,
Nor did their own arm save them;
But it was Your right hand, Your arm, and the light of Your countenance, [b]Because You favored them.

4 [a]You are my King, [1]O God;
[2]Command victories for Jacob.
5 Through You [a]we will push down our enemies;
Through Your name we will trample those who rise up against us.
6 For [a]I will not trust in my bow,
Nor shall my sword save me.
7 But You have saved us from our enemies,
And have put to shame those who hated us.
8 [a]In God we boast all day long,
And praise Your name forever.
Selah

44:1 It is one thing to hear about God's activity and another to experience it yourself (Job 42:5).

9 But [a]You have cast us off and put us to shame,
And You do not go out with our armies.
10 You make us [a]turn back from the enemy,
And those who hate us have taken [1]spoil for themselves.
11 [a]You have given us up like sheep intended for food,
And have [b]scattered us among the nations.
12 [a]You sell Your people for next to nothing,
And are not enriched by selling them.
13 [a]You make us a reproach to our neighbors,
A scorn and a derision to those all around us.
14 [a]You make us a byword among the nations,
[b]A shaking of the head among the peoples.
15 My dishonor is continually before me,
And the shame of my face has covered me,
16 Because of the voice of him who reproaches and reviles,
[a]Because of the enemy and the avenger.
17 [a]All this has come upon us;
But we have not forgotten You,
Nor have we dealt falsely with Your covenant.
18 Our heart has not turned back,
[a]Nor have our steps departed from Your way;
19 But You have severely broken us in [a]the place of jackals,
And covered us [b]with the shadow of death.
20 If we had forgotten the name of our God,
Or [a]stretched[1] out our hands to a foreign god,
21 [a]Would not God search this out?
For He knows the secrets of the heart.
22 [a]Yet for Your sake we are killed all day long;
We are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.
23 [a]Awake! Why do You sleep, O Lord?
Arise! Do not cast us off forever.
24 [a]Why do You hide Your face,
And forget our affliction and our oppression?
25 For [a]our soul is bowed down to the [1]dust;
Our body clings to the ground.
26 Arise for our help,
And redeem us for Your mercies' sake.

PSALM 45

The Glories of the Messiah and His Bride

To the Chief Musician. [a]Set to [1]"The Lilies." A [2]Contemplation of the sons of Korah. A Song of Love.

MY heart is overflowing with a good theme;
I recite my composition concerning the King;
My tongue is the pen of a [1]ready writer.
2 You are fairer than the sons of men;
[a]Grace is poured upon Your lips;
Therefore God has blessed You forever.
3 [1]Gird Your [a]sword upon Your thigh,
[b]O Mighty One,
With Your [c]glory and Your majesty.
4 [a]And in Your majesty ride prosperously because of truth, humility, and righteousness;
And Your right hand shall teach You awesome things.
5 Your arrows are sharp in the heart of the King's enemies;
The peoples fall under You.
6 [a]Your throne, O God, is forever and ever;
A [b]scepter of righteousness is the scepter of Your kingdom.
7 You love righteousness and hate wickedness;
Therefore God, Your God, has [a]anointed You
With the oil of [b]gladness more than Your companions.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 45:7

Loving Righteousness

Those with a heart like God's will love righteousness and hate wickedness. There is no neutrality with God.

8 All Your garments are [a]scented with myrrh and aloes and cassia,
Out of the ivory palaces, by which they have made You glad.

9 [a]Kings' daughters are among Your

[b]At Your right hand stands the queen

10 Listen, O daughter,

11 So the King will greatly desire your shall be brought;

They shall enter the King's palace.

16 Instead of Your fathers shall be Your

[a]Whom You shall make princes in all

17 [a]I will make Your name to be remembered in all generations;
Therefore the people shall praise
You forever and ever.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 46:10

Be Still

We busy ourselves with inconsequential activities. We fill our lives with incessant noise, commotion, and busyness that distract us from God's presence. It is in the stillness that we find God.

11 The LORD of hosts is with us;
The God of Jacob is our refuge.

awesome;
He is a great [a]King over all the 45:9 Ophir may have been in southern Arabia and was known as a source of fine gold.

46:1 Here God is described as an impregnable fortress. His protection is never more keenly felt by His people than in times of distress.

46:3 Mountains shaking indicates a crisis of cosmic proportions, yet God remains a secure refuge.

46:10 Often the command to be still preceded God's judgment (Hab. 2:20; Zeph. 1:7; Zech. 2:13).

47:1 Clapping one's hands was an expression of joy.

5 [a]God has gone up with a shout,
The LORD with the sound of a trumpet.
6 Sing praises to God, sing praises!
Sing praises to our King, sing praises!
7 [a]For God is the King of all the earth;
[b]Sing praises with understanding.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 47:7

Praises with Understanding

The better we know God the more meaningful our worship will be. God seeks more than mindless praise. He wants us to know Him and worship Him for who He is.

8 [a]God reigns over the nations;
God [b]sits on His [c]holy throne.
9 The princes of the people have gathered together,
[a]The people of the God of Abraham.
[b]For the shields of the earth belong to God;
He is greatly exalted.

PSALM 48

The Glory of God in Zion

A Song. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

GREAT is the LORD, and greatly to be praised
In the [a]city of our God,
In His holy mountain.
2 [a]Beautiful in [1]elevation,
The joy of the whole earth,
Is Mount Zion on the sides of the north,
The city of the great King.
3 God is in her palaces;
He is known as her refuge.
4 For behold, [a]the kings assembled,
They passed by together.
5 They saw it, and so they marveled;
They were troubled, they hastened away.
6 Fear [a]took hold of them there,
And pain, as of a woman in birth pangs,

With an east wind.

9 We have thought, O God, on [a]Your lovingkindness,
In the midst of Your temple.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 48:9

Think of God's Love

It will take eternity to know God's lovingkindness toward us. God's love is so extensive and so multifaceted we cannot plumb its depths or discover its limit.

10 According to [a]Your name, O God,
So is Your praise to the ends of the earth;
Your right hand is full of righteousness.
11 Let Mount Zion rejoice,
Let the daughters of Judah be glad,
Because of Your judgments.
12 Walk about Zion,
And go all around her.
Count her towers;
13 Mark well her bulwarks;

The Confidence of the Foolish

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

HEAR this, all peoples;
Give ear, all inhabitants of the world,
2 Both low and high,
Rich and poor together.
3 My mouth shall speak wisdom,
And the meditation of my heart shall give understanding.
4 I will incline my ear to a proverb;
I will disclose my [1]dark saying on the harp.
5 Why should I fear in the days of evil,

PSALM 49
4 [1]riddle

47:5 This resembles the shouting and the sound of the trumpet when the ark was brought to Jerusalem (2 Sam. 6:15).

48:1 The "city of the Lord" was Jerusalem.

48:2 "The joy of the whole earth" indicates God desires to bless all nations. His salvation should result in joy.

48:14 To be our "guide" is to be our shepherd. God walks with His children day by day, throughout their entire lives.

When the iniquity at my heels surrounds me?
6 Those who [a]trust in their wealth
And boast in the multitude of their riches,
7 None of them can by any means redeem his brother,
Nor [a]give to God a ransom for him—
8 For [a]the redemption of their souls is costly,
And it shall cease forever—
9 That he should continue to live eternally,
And [a]not [1]see the Pit.
10 For he sees wise men die;
Likewise the fool and the senseless person perish,
And leave their wealth to others.
11 [1]Their inner thought is that their houses will last forever,
Their dwelling places to all generations;
They [a]call their lands after their own names.
12 Nevertheless man, though in honor, does not [1]remain;
He is like the beasts that perish.
13 This is the way of those who are [a]foolish,
And of their posterity who approve their sayings. Selah 14 Like sheep they are laid in the grave;
Death shall feed on them;
[a]The upright shall have dominion over them in the morning;
[b]And their beauty shall be consumed in [1]the grave, far from their dwelling.
15 But God [a]will redeem my soul from the power of [1]the grave,
For He shall [b]receive me. Selah

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 49:15

He Shall Receive Me

Death is our greatest adversary, but it does not thwart God. Undaunted, He waits on the other side to welcome His children.

16 Do not be afraid when one becomes rich,
When the glory of his house is increased;
17 For when he dies he shall carry nothing away;
His glory shall not descend after him.
18 Though while he lives [a]he blesses himself
(For men will praise you when you do well for yourself),
19 He shall go to the generation of his fathers;
They shall never see [a]light.[1]

God the Righteous Judge

A Psalm of Asaph.

THE [a]Mighty One, God the LORD,
Has spoken and called the earth
From the rising of the sun to its going down.
2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
[a]God will shine forth.
3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silent;
[a]A fire shall devour before Him,
And it shall be very tempestuous all around Him.
4 [a]He shall call to the heavens from above,
And to the earth, that He may judge His people:
5 "Gather [a]My saints together to Me,
[b]Those who have [1]made a covenant with Me by sacrifice."
6 Let the [a]heavens declare His righteousness,
For [b]God Himself is Judge. Selah
7 "Hear, O My people, and I will speak,
O Israel, and I will testify against you;
[a]I am God, your God!
8 [a]I will not [1]rebuke you [b]for your sacrifices
Or your burnt offerings,
Which are continually before Me.
9 [a]I will not take a bull from your house,
Nor goats out of your folds.
10 For every beast of the forest is Mine,
And the cattle on a thousand hills.
11 I know all the birds of the mountains,
And the wild beasts of the field are Mine.

49:4 A "dark saying" may be a riddle and may refer to a difficult moral or theological dilemma.

49:11 Most people ignore the inevitable reality of their eventual death.

49:15 While the Old testament only gradually developed a theology of heaven and the afterlife, the psalmist contemplated God greeting him after he died.

12 "If I were hungry, I would not tell
you;
[a]For the world is Mine, and all its fullness.
13 [a]Will I eat the flesh of bulls,
Or drink the blood of goats?
14 [a]Offer to God thanksgiving,
And [b]pay your vows to the Most High.
15 [a]Call upon Me in the day of trouble;
I will deliver you, and you shall glorify Me."

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 50:15

Call Upon Me

God is honored when we call to Him in our distress. He is pleased to rescue us and to receive glory through our salvation and our gratitude.

16 But to the wicked God says:
"What right have you to declare My statutes,
Or take My covenant in your mouth,
17 [a]Seeing you hate instruction
And cast My words behind you?
18 When you saw a thief, you
[a]consented[1] with him,
And have been a [b]partaker with adulterers.
19 You give your mouth to evil,
And [a]your tongue frames deceit.
20 You sit and speak against your brother;
You slander your own mother's son.
21 These things you have done, and I kept silent;
[a]You thought that I was altogether
like you;
But I will rebuke you,
And [b]set them in order before your eyes.
22 "Now consider this, you who [a]forget
God,
Lest I tear you in pieces,
And there be none to deliver:
23 Whoever offers praise glorifies Me;
And [a]to him who orders his conduct aright
I will show the salvation of God."

PSALM 51

A Prayer of Repentance

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David [a]when Nathan the prophet went to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

HAVE mercy upon me, O God,
According to Your lovingkindness;
According to the multitude of Your tender mercies,
[a]Blot out my transgressions.
2 [a]Wash me thoroughly from my
iniquity,
And cleanse me from my sin.
3 For I acknowledge my transgressions,
And my sin is always before me.
4 [a]Against You, You only, have I sinned,
And done this evil [b]in Your sight—
[c]That You may be found just [1]when
You speak,
And blameless when You judge.
5 [a]Behold, I was brought forth in
iniquity,
And in sin my mother conceived me.
6 Behold, You desire truth in the inward parts,
And in the hidden part You will make me to know wisdom.
7 [a]Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean;
Wash me, and I shall be [b]whiter than snow.
8 Make me hear joy and gladness,
That the bones You have broken
[a]may rejoice.
9 Hide Your face from my sins,
And blot out all my iniquities.
10 [a]Create in me a clean heart, O God,
And renew a steadfast spirit within
me.
11 Do not cast me away from Your
presence,
And do not take Your [a]Holy Spirit
from me.
12 Restore to me the joy of Your salvation,
And uphold me by Your [a]generous
Spirit.
13 Then I will teach transgressors Your
ways,

8 [a][Matt. 5:4]
10 [a][Ezek. 18: 31]
11 [a][Luke 11:13]
12 [a][2 Cor. 3:17]

50:12 Pagan religions often portrayed their gods as ravenous for the sacrifices offered to them.

50:14 God does not insist that we make vows to Him but He does command us to keep the ones we make (Deut. 23:21).

50:21 One of humanity's greatest mistakes is to imagine that God is like us.

51:1 After David sinned, his first request of God was for mercy. "Blot out" means "wipe away." This psalm refers to David's sin and repentance described in 2 Samuel 11–12.

51:4 David realized that all sin is against God.

51:7 This alludes to the cleansing of a leper or purification after coming in contact with a corpse (Lev. 14; Num. 19:16–19).

51:11 Compare the Spirit's departure from Saul (1 Sam. 16:14).

51:13 David saw that good could come from his situation, for his sin would provide a warning to others. He promised to testify to God's mercy and forgiveness.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 51:11

Cast Me Not

Sin has numerous terrible consequences, but none more agonizing than separation from God.

And sinners shall be converted to
You.

14 Deliver me from the guilt of bloodshed, O God,
The God of my salvation,
And my tongue shall sing aloud of
Your righteousness.
15 O Lord, open my lips,
And my mouth shall show forth
Your praise.
16 For [a]You do not desire sacrifice, or else I would give it;
You do not delight in burnt offering.
17 [a]The sacrifices of God are a broken
spirit,
A broken and a contrite heart—
These, O God, You will not despise.
18 Do good in Your good pleasure to Zion;
Build the walls of Jerusalem.
19 Then You shall be pleased with [a]the sacrifices of righteousness,
With burnt offering and whole burnt offering;
Then they shall offer bulls on Your altar.

PSALM 52

The End of the Wicked and the Peace of the Godly

To the Chief Musician. A [1]Contemplation of David [a]when Doeg the Edomite went and [b]told Saul, and said to him, "David has gone to the house of Ahimelech."

WHY do you boast in evil, O mighty man?
The goodness of God endures
continually.
2 Your tongue devises destruction,
Like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.
3 You love evil more than good,
Lying rather than speaking righteousness. Selah
4 You love all devouring words,
You deceitful tongue.
5 God shall likewise destroy you
forever;
He shall take you away, and pluck you out of your dwelling place,
And uproot you from the land of the living. Selah
6 The righteous also shall see and fear,
And shall laugh at him, saying,
7 "Here is the man who did not make
God his strength,
But trusted in the abundance of his riches,
And strengthened himself in his
[1]wickedness."
8 But I am [a]like a green olive tree in the house of God;
I trust in the mercy of God forever
and ever.

7 [1]Lit. desire, in evil sense
8 [a]Jer. 11:16
9 [1]Or has a good reputation

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 52:8

Mercy

Christians treasure the grace of God, but always before grace comes mercy.

9 I will praise You forever,
Because You have done it;
And in the presence of Your saints
I will wait on Your name, for it [1]is good.

PSALM 53

Folly of the Godless, and the Restoration of Israel

To the Chief Musician. Set to "Mahalath." A [1]Contemplation of David.

THE [a]fool has said in his heart,
"There is no God."
They are corrupt, and have done
abominable iniquity;
[b]There is none who does good.
2 God looks down from heaven upon the children of men,
To see if there are any who understand, who [a]seek God.
3 Every one of them has turned aside;
They have together become corrupt;

PSALM 53
title [1]Heb. Maschil
1 [a]Ps. 10:4 [b]Rom. 3:10–12
2 [a][2 Chr. 15:2]

52:1 "Mighty man" is a derogatory reference to Doeg who slaughtered the priests at Nob because they had assisted David (1 Sam. 22). This allegedly powerful man would soon be dealt with severely.

52:8 The olive tree was known to be one of the longest-living trees in existence.

52:8 A green olive tree was a thing of beauty.

53:1 Psalm 53 is very similar to Psalm Fourteen. Biblically a fool is not someone of low intelligence but someone who ignores God and His word.

53:3 Humanity's condition is such that every person naturally gravitates toward sin and away from God (Is. 53:6).

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 53:2

God Seeks

God searches out those who are earnestly pursuing Him. Those who seek Him with all their heart will find Him.

There is none who does good,
No, not one.

4 Have the workers of iniquity [a]no knowledge,
Who eat up my people as they eat bread,
And do not call upon God?
5 [a]There they are in great fear
Where no fear was,
For God has scattered the bones of him who encamps against you;
You have put them to shame,
Because God has despised them.

6 [a]Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion!
When God brings back [1]the captivity of His people,
Let Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad.

PSALM 54

Answered Prayer for Deliverance from Adversaries

To the Chief Musician. With [1]stringed instruments. A [2]Contemplation of David [a]when the Ziphites went and said to Saul, "Is David not hiding with us?"

SAVE me, O God, by Your name,
And vindicate me by Your strength.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 54:1

Vindication

God's powerful presence in our lives is evidence of His pleasure with us. We cannot enjoy God's power and indulge in sin at the same time.

2 Hear my prayer, O God;
Give ear to the words of my mouth.
3 For strangers have risen up against me,
And oppressors have sought after my life;
They have not set God before them.
Selah

4 Behold, God is my helper;
The Lord is with those who [1]uphold my life.
5 He will repay my enemies for their evil.
[1]Cut them off in Your [2]truth.

6 I will freely sacrifice to You;
I will praise Your name, O LORD, for it is good.
7 For He has delivered me out of all trouble;
[a]And my eye has seen its desire upon my enemies.

PSALM 55

Trust in God Concerning the Treachery of Friends

To the Chief Musician. With [1]stringed instruments. A [2]Contemplation of David.

GIVE ear to my prayer, O God,
And do not hide Yourself from my supplication.
2 Attend to me, and hear me;
I [a]am[1] restless in my complaint, and moan noisily,
3 Because of the voice of the enemy,
Because of the oppression of the wicked;
[a]For they bring down trouble upon me,
And in wrath they hate me.

4 [a]My heart is severely pained within me,
And the terrors of death have fallen upon me.
5 Fearfulness and trembling have come upon me,
And horror has overwhelmed me.
6 So I said, "Oh, that I had wings like a dove!
I would fly away and be at rest.
7 Indeed, I would wander far off,
And remain in the wilderness. Selah
8 I would hasten my escape
From the windy storm and tempest."

9 Destroy, O Lord, and divide their [1]tongues,
For I have seen [a]violence and strife in the city.
10 Day and night they go around it on its walls;
[a]Iniquity and trouble are also in the midst of it.
11 Destruction is in its midst;
[a]Oppression and deceit do not depart from its streets.

9 [a]Jer. 6:7 [1]speech, their counsel
10 [a]Ps. 10:7
11 [a]Ps. 10:7

54:1 This psalm was written after the people of Ziph twice informed King Saul that David was hiding in their territory (1 Sam. 23:19–23; 26:1–3).

54:4 The term "helper" denotes strength.

54:5 David had the manpower to exact vengeance against the people of Ziph, but he left his vindication in the Lord's hands.

12 [a]For it is not an enemy who
reproaches me;
Then I could bear it.
Nor is it one who hates me who has [b]exalted himself against me;
Then I could hide from him.
13 But it was you, a man my equal,
[a]My companion and my acquaintance.
14 We took sweet counsel together,
And [a]walked to the house of God in the throng.

15 Let death seize them;
Let them [a]go down alive into [1]hell,
For wickedness is in their dwellings and among them.

16 As for me, I will call upon God,
And the LORD shall save me.
17 [a]Evening and morning and at noon
I will pray, and cry aloud,
And He shall hear my voice.
18 He has redeemed my soul in peace from the battle that was against
me,
For [a]there were many against me.
19 God will hear, and afflict them,
[a]Even He who abides from of old.
Selah
Because they do not change,
Therefore they do not fear God.

20 He has [a]put forth his hands against those who [b]were at peace with
him;
He has broken his [1]covenant.
21 [a]The words of his mouth were smoother than butter,
But war was in his heart;
His words were softer than oil,
Yet they were drawn swords.

22 [a]Cast your burden on the LORD,
And [b]He shall sustain you;
He shall never permit the righteous to be [1]moved.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 55:22

Cast Your Burden

Why should we shoulder our burdens alone when almighty God wants to carry them for us? Genuine trust in God places every care into His hands.

But I will trust in You.

PSALM 56

Prayer for Relief from Tormentors

To the Chief Musician. Set to [1]"The Silent Dove in Distant Lands." A Michtam of David when the [a]Philistines captured him in Gath.

BE [a]merciful to me, O God, for man would swallow me up;
Fighting all day he oppresses me.
2 My enemies would [a]hound me all day,
For there are many who fight against me, O Most High.

3 Whenever I am afraid,
I will trust in You.
4 In God (I will praise His word),
In God I have put my trust;
[a]I will not fear.
What can flesh do to me?

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 56:4

Fear Reveals

Fear betrays a lack of trust in God. When we truly know the God who sustains us, we have no reason to fear.

5 All day they twist my words;
All their thoughts are against me for evil.
6 They gather together,
They hide, they mark my steps,
When they lie in wait for my life.
7 Shall they escape by iniquity?
In anger cast down the peoples,
O God!

8 You number my wanderings;
Put my tears into Your bottle;
[a]Are they not in Your book?
9 When I cry out to You,
Then my enemies will turn back;
This I know, because [a]God is for
me.
10 In God (I will praise His word),
In the LORD (I will praise His word),

55:13 David also betrayed a friend and colleague (2 Sam. 23:39).
55:15 Witness the punishment given to those who rebelled against Moses and Aaron (Num. 16).
55:21 David was duped by his traitorous friend. His words were friendly, but war was in his heart.
55:22 Peter writes about casting your cares upon God in 1 Peter 5:7.
56:1 This psalm was written in the context of David's crisis in the city of Gath (1 Sam. 21:10–15). Psalm 34 also refers to this event, perhaps indicating how painful this experience was to David.
56:3 "I will trust" indicates trust is a choice to be made.

11 In God I have put my trust;
I will not be afraid.
What can man do to me?

12 Vows made to You are binding upon me, O God;
I will render praises to You,
13 [a]For You have delivered my soul from death.
Have You not kept my feet from falling,
That I may walk before God
In the [b]light of the living?

PSALM 57

Prayer for Safety from Enemies

To the Chief Musician. Set to [1]"Do Not Destroy." A Michtam of David [a]when he fled from Saul into the cave.

BE merciful to me, O God, be merciful to me!
For my soul trusts in You;
[b]And in the shadow of Your wings I will make my refuge,
[c]Until these calamities have passed by.

2 I will cry out to God Most High,
To God [a]who performs all things for me.
3 [a]He shall send from heaven and save me;
He reproaches the one who [1]would swallow me up. Selah
God [b]shall send forth His mercy and His truth.

4 My soul is among lions;
I lie among the sons of men
Who are set on fire,
[a]Whose teeth are spears and arrows,
And their tongue a sharp sword.
5 [a]Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;
Let Your glory be above all the earth.

6 [a]They have prepared a net for my steps;
My soul is bowed down;
They have dug a pit before me;
Into the midst of it they themselves have fallen. Selah

7 [a]My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast;
I will sing and give praise.
8 Awake, [a]my glory!
Awake, lute and harp!
I will awaken the dawn.

A Steadfast Heart

Even dire circumstances cannot suppress the praise from a heart that is determined to focus on God.

9 [a]I will praise You, O Lord, among the peoples;
I will sing to You among the [1]nations.
10 [a]For Your mercy reaches unto the heavens,
And Your truth unto the clouds.

11 [a]Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;
Let Your glory be above all the earth.

PSALM 58

The Just Judgment of the Wicked

To the Chief Musician. Set to [1]"Do Not Destroy." A Michtam of David.

DO you indeed speak righteousness, you silent ones?
Do you judge uprightly, you sons of men?
2 No, in heart you work wickedness;
You weigh out the violence of your hands in the earth.

3 [a]The wicked are estranged from the womb;
They go astray as soon as they are born, speaking lies.
4 [a]Their poison is like the poison of a serpent;
They are like the deaf cobra that stops its ear,
5 Which will not [a]heed the voice of charmers,
Charming ever so skillfully.

6 [a]Break[1] their teeth in their mouth, O God!

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 58:4, 5

Spiritually Deaf

Those who sin continually have turned a deaf ear to God. If they reject God's voice long enough they will grow desensitized to it.

56:11 Paul would say, if God is for us, who can be against us? (Rom. 8:31).

57:1 David took refuge in a cave on at least two occasions (1 Sam. 22:1–5; 1 Sam. 24:1–7).

57:2 "God Most High" translates the divine name El-elyon.

57:4 "Be exalted" indicates David desired to praise God even in the midst of his own heartbreaking circumstances.

58:6 The wicked are viewed as biting and eating the righteous. But God would break their teeth and prevent them from harming His children.

Break out the fangs of the young lions, O LORD!
7 [a]Let them flow away as waters which run continually;
When he bends his bow,
Let his arrows be as if cut in pieces.
8 Let them be like a snail which melts away as it goes,
[a]Like a stillborn child of a woman, that they may not see the sun.

9 Before your [a]pots can feel the burning thorns,
He shall take them away [b]as with a whirlwind,
As in His living and burning wrath.
10 The righteous shall rejoice when he sees the [a]vengeance;
[b]He shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked,
11 [a]So that men will say,
"Surely there is a reward for the righteous;
Surely He is God who [b]judges in the earth."

PSALM 59

The Assured Judgment of the Wicked

To the Chief Musician. Set to [1]"Do Not Destroy." A Michtam of David [a]when Saul sent men, and they watched the house in order to kill him.

DELIVER me from my enemies,
O my God;
[1]Defend me from those who rise up against me.
2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity,
And save me from bloodthirsty men.

3 For look, they lie in wait for my life;
[a]The mighty gather against me,
Not for my transgression nor for my sin, O LORD.
4 They run and prepare themselves through no fault of mine.

[a]Awake to help me, and behold!
5 You therefore, O LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel,
Awake to punish all the [1]nations;
Do not be merciful to any wicked transgressors. Selah

6 [a]At evening they return,
They growl like a dog,
And go all around the city.
7 Indeed, they belch with their mouth;
[a]Swords are in their lips;
For they say, [b]"Who hears?"

8 But [a]You, O LORD, shall laugh at them;
You shall have all the [1]nations in derision.
9 I will wait for You, O You [1]his Strength;
[a]For God is my [2]defense.
10 [1]My God of mercy shall [a]come to meet me;
God shall let [b]me see my desire on my enemies.

11 Do not slay them, lest my people forget;
Scatter them by Your power,
And bring them down,
O Lord our shield.
12 [a]For the sin of their mouth and the words of their lips,
Let them even be taken in their pride,
And for the cursing and lying which they speak.
13 [a]Consume them in wrath, consume them,
That they may not be;
And [b]let them know that God rules in Jacob
To the ends of the earth. Selah

14 And [a]at evening they return,
They growl like a dog,
And go all around the city.
15 They [a]wander up and down for food,
And [1]howl if they are not satisfied.

16 But I will sing of Your power;
Yes, I will sing aloud of Your mercy in the morning;
For You have been my defense
And refuge in the day of my trouble.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 59:16

My Refuge

We would never know God as our strength if we never needed a refuge. It is through life's trials and triumphs that we come to experience the rich array of God's ways.

17 To You, [a]O my Strength, I will sing praises;
For God is my defense,

58:11 A central theme in the Psalms is that both the wicked and the righteous will ultimately receive what is due them.

59:3 This event is described in 1 Samuel 19:9–17.

59:6 "At evening" means under cover of darkness. Dogs were despised and viewed as unclean by the Hebrew people.

59:13 "That all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel" (1 Sam. 17:46).

PSALM 60

Urgent Prayer for the Restored Favor of God

To the Chief Musician. [a]Set to [1]"Lily of the Testimony." A Michtam of David. For teaching. [b]When he fought against Mesopotamia and Syria of Zobah, and Joab returned and killed twelve thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

O GOD, [c]You have cast us off;
You have broken us down;
You have been displeased;
Oh, restore us again!
2 You have made the earth tremble;
You have broken it;
[a]Heal its breaches, for it is shaking.
3 [a]You have shown Your people hard things;
[b]You have made us drink the wine of [1]confusion.
4 [a]You have given a banner to those who fear You,
That it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah
5 [a]That Your beloved may be delivered,
Save with Your right hand, and hear me.
6 God has [a]spoken in His holiness:
"I will rejoice;
I will [b]divide [c]Shechem
And measure out [d]the Valley of Succoth.

ENCOUNTER Note — Ps. 60:6

Holiness

God's every word is pure and true. How we respond to the holiness of His word reveals whether there is holiness in us.

7 Gilead is Mine, and Manasseh is Mine;
[a]Ephraim also is the [1]helmet for My head;
[b]Judah is My lawgiver.
8 [a]Moab is My washpot;
[b]Over Edom I will cast My shoe;
[c]Philistia, shout in triumph because of Me."
9 Who will bring me to the strong city?
Who will lead me to Edom?
10 Is it not You, O God, [a]who cast us off?
And You, O God, who did [b]not go out with our armies?
11 Give us help from trouble,
[a]For the help of man is useless.
12 Through God [a]we will do valiantly,
For it is He who shall tread down our enemies.

PSALM 61

Assurance of God's Eternal Protection

To the Chief Musician. On [1]a stringed instrument. A Psalm of David.

HEAR my cry, O God;
Attend to my prayer.
2 From the end of the earth I will cry to You,
When my heart is overwhelmed;
Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

ENCOUNTER Note — Ps. 61:2

My Rock

We are frail and weak. Life's hectic pressures can easily overwhelm us. Yet God is above all our problems. He is an immovable rock, undaunted by our worst trials. When God reaches down and lifts us up, we see life from an entirely new vista—God's perspective.

3 For You have been a shelter for me,
[a]A strong tower from the enemy.
4 I will abide in Your [1]tabernacle forever;
[a]I will trust in the shelter of Your wings. Selah
5 For You, O God, have heard my vows;
You have given me the heritage of those who fear Your name.
6 You will prolong the king's life,
His years as many generations.
7 He shall abide before God forever.
Oh, prepare mercy [a]and truth, which may [1]preserve him!
8 So I will sing praise to Your name forever,
That I may daily perform my vows.

3 [a]Prov. 18:10
4 [a]Ps. 91:4 [1]tent
7 [a]Ps. 40:11 [1]Lit. guard or keep

60:6 When God speaks it is always in holiness. See also Psalm 108:7–13.

60:7 God was declaring that all of Israel belonged to Him.

60:8 Moab, Edom, and Philistia were Israel's enemies, but they provided no challenge to God.

61:3 The Psalms often portray God as a refuge and shelter (14:6; 46:1; 62:7–8; 71:7; 91:2, 9; 94:22; 142:5).

PSALM 62

A Calm Resolve to Wait for the Salvation of God

To the Chief Musician. To [a]Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

TRULY [b]my soul silently waits for God;
From Him comes my salvation.
2 He only is my rock and my salvation;
He is my [1]defense;
I shall not be greatly [a]moved.[2]
3 How long will you attack a man?
You shall be slain, all of you,
[a]Like a leaning wall and a tottering fence.
4 They only consult to cast him down from his high position;
They [a]delight in lies;
They bless with their mouth,
But they curse inwardly. Selah
5 My soul, wait silently for God alone,
For my [1]expectation is from Him.
6 He only is my rock and my salvation;
He is my defense;
I shall not be [1]moved.
7 [a]In God is my salvation and my glory;
The rock of my strength,
And my refuge, is in God.
8 Trust in Him at all times, you people;
[a]Pour out your heart before Him;
God is a refuge for us. Selah

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 62:8

Trust at All Times

We must trust in God not only when it is easy to but especially when our lives become difficult. Living by faith is a lifestyle.

9 [a]Surely men of low degree are [1]a vapor,
Men of high degree are a lie;
If they are weighed on the scales,
They are altogether lighter than vapor.
10 Do not trust in oppression,
Nor vainly hope in robbery;
[a]If riches increase,
Do not set your heart on them.
11 God has spoken once,
Twice I have heard this:
That power belongs to God.
12 Also to You, O Lord, belongs mercy;
For [a]You [1]render to each one according to his work.

PSALM 63

Joy in the Fellowship of God

A Psalm of David [a]when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

O GOD, You are my God;
Early will I seek You;
[b]My soul thirsts for You;
My flesh longs for You
In a dry and thirsty land
Where there is no water.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 63:1

Spiritual Dryness

The world parches and hardens our souls. God's presence restores and refreshes us. We cannot survive long without a fresh drink from the life-giving pool of God's lovingkindness.

2 So I have looked for You in the sanctuary,
To see [a]Your power and Your glory.
3 [a]Because Your lovingkindness is better than life,
My lips shall praise You.
4 Thus I will bless You while I live;
I will [a]lift up my hands in Your name.
5 My soul shall be satisfied as with [1]marrow and [2]fatness,
And my mouth shall praise You with joyful lips.
6 When [a]I remember You on my bed,
I meditate on You in the night watches.
7 Because You have been my help,
Therefore in the shadow of Your wings I will rejoice.
8 My soul follows close behind You;
Your right hand upholds me.
9 But those who seek my life, to destroy it,
Shall go into the lower parts of the earth.
10 They shall [1]fall by the sword;
They shall be [2]a portion for jackals.
11 But the king shall rejoice in God;
[a]Everyone who swears by Him shall glory;

62:5 "Expectation" signifies hope.

63:6 In the quiet, still moments in David's life, his thoughts naturally gravitated to God.

But the mouth of those who speak lies shall be stopped.

PSALM 64

Oppressed by the Wicked but Rejoicing in the LORD

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

HEAR my voice, O God, in my [1]meditation;
Preserve my life from fear of the enemy.
2 Hide me from the secret plots of the wicked,
From the rebellion of the workers of iniquity,
3 Who sharpen their tongue like a sword,
[a]And bend their bows to shoot their arrows—bitter words,
4 That they may shoot in secret at the blameless;
Suddenly they shoot at him and do not fear.
5 They encourage themselves in an evil matter;
They talk of laying snares secretly;
[a]They say, "Who will see them?"
6 They devise iniquities:
"We have perfected a shrewd scheme."
Both the inward thought and the heart of man are deep.
7 But God shall shoot at them with an arrow;
Suddenly they shall be wounded.
8 So He will make them stumble over their own tongue;
[a]All who see them shall flee away.
9 All men shall fear,
And shall [a]declare the work of God;
For they shall wisely consider His doing.
10 [a]The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and trust in Him.
And all the upright in heart shall glory.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 64:10

Turning to God

People turn to many things for happiness; the righteous turn to God for joy. There is no greater source of joy than God's love.

PSALM 65

Praise to God for His Salvation and Providence

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. A Song.

PRAISE is awaiting You, O God, in Zion;
And to You the [1]vow shall be performed.
2 O You who hear prayer,
[a]To You all flesh will come.
3 Iniquities prevail against me;
As for our transgressions,
You will [a]provide atonement for them.
4 [a]Blessed is the man You [b]choose,
And cause to approach You,
That he may dwell in Your courts.
[c]We shall be satisfied with the goodness of Your house,
Of Your holy temple.
5 By awesome deeds in righteousness You will answer us,
O God of our salvation,
You who are the confidence of all the ends of the earth,
And of the far-off seas;

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 65:5

Awesome Deeds

Do not pray to God unless you are prepared to accept His response. His answers are awesome and perfectly righteous, as He is.

6 Who established the mountains by His strength,
[a]Being clothed with power;
7 [a]You who still the noise of the seas,
The noise of their waves,
[b]And the tumult of the peoples.
8 They also who dwell in the farthest parts are afraid of Your signs;
You make the outgoings of the morning and evening [1]rejoice.
9 You [1]visit the earth and [a]water it,
You greatly enrich it;
[b]The river of God is full of water;
You provide their grain,
For so You have prepared it.
10 You water its ridges abundantly,
You settle its furrows;

64:5 The great self-deception of the wicked is that no one will find them out.

65:2 Once a year the Day of Atonement provided a sacrifice for the sins of the nation (Lev. 23:26–32). However, David also looked toward the final work of atonement at Jesus' crucifixion.

65:10 Rain is seen as a gift of God and a fulfillment of His promise to bless His people (Deut. 28:12).

You make it soft with showers,
You bless its growth.

11 You crown the year with Your goodness,
And Your paths drip with abundance.
12 They drop on the pastures of the wilderness,
And the little hills rejoice on every side.
13 The pastures are clothed with flocks;
[a]The valleys also are covered with grain;
They shout for joy, they also sing.

PSALM 66

Praise to God for His Awesome Works

To the Chief Musician. A Song. A Psalm.

MAKE [a]a joyful shout to God, all the earth!
2 Sing out the honor of His name;
Make His praise glorious.
3 Say to God,
"How [a]awesome are Your works!
[b]Through the greatness of Your power
Your enemies shall submit themselves to You.
4 [a]All the earth shall worship You
And sing praises to You;
They shall sing praises to Your name." Selah

5 Come and see the works of God;
He is awesome in His doing toward the sons of men.
6 [a]He turned the sea into dry land;
[b]They went through the river on foot.
There we will rejoice in Him.
7 He rules by His power forever;
His eyes observe the nations;
Do not let the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah

8 Oh, bless our God, you peoples!
And make the voice of His praise to be heard,
9 Who keeps our soul among the living,
And does not allow our feet to [1]be moved.
10 For [a]You, O God, have tested us;
[b]You have refined us as silver is refined.
11 [a]You brought us into the net;
You laid affliction on our backs.
12 [a]You have caused men to ride over our heads;
[b]We went through fire and through water;
But You brought us out to [1]rich fulfillment.

13 [a]I will go into Your house with burnt offerings;
[b]I will pay You my [1]vows,
14 Which my lips have uttered
And my mouth has spoken when I was in trouble.
15 I will offer You burnt sacrifices of fat animals,
With the sweet aroma of rams;
I will offer bulls with goats. Selah

16 Come and hear, all you who fear God,
And I will declare what He has done for my soul.
17 I cried to Him with my mouth,
And He was [1]extolled with my tongue.
18 [a]If I regard iniquity in my heart,
The Lord will not hear.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 66:18

The Lord Will Not Hear

No one can separate us from God, but our sin can lead God to disregard our prayer. We cannot cling to our sin and hold on to God simultaneously.

19 But certainly God [a]has heard me;
He has attended to the voice of my prayer.
20 Blessed be God,
Who has not turned away my prayer,
Nor His mercy from me!

PSALM 67

An Invocation and a Doxology

To the Chief Musician. On [1]stringed instruments. A Psalm. A Song.

GOD be merciful to us and bless us,
And [a]cause His face to shine upon us, Selah
2 That [a]Your way may be known on earth,
[b]Your salvation among all nations.

3 Let the peoples praise You, O God;
Let all the peoples praise You.
4 Oh, let the nations be glad and sing for joy!

PSALM 68

The Glory of God in His Goodness to Israel

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. A Song.

LET [a]God arise,
Let His enemies be scattered;
Let those also who hate Him flee before Him.
2 [a]As smoke is driven away,
So drive them away;
[b]As wax melts before the fire,
So let the wicked perish at the presence of God.
3 But [a]let the righteous be glad;
Let them rejoice before God;
Yes, let them rejoice exceedingly.

4 Sing to God, sing praises to His name;

[b]By His name [3]YAH,
And rejoice before Him.

Sinai itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Israel.
9 [a]You, O God, sent a plentiful rain,
Whereby You confirmed Your inheritance,
When it was weary.
10 Your congregation dwelt in it;
[a]You, O God, provided from Your goodness for the poor.

11 The Lord gave the word;

68:4 Popular pagan imagery described Baal as the "rider of the clouds." "Yah" is a shortened version of God's name Yahweh.

68:14 "Almighty" is the Hebrew word Shaddai. It describes the strength of the Lord.

68:15 Bashan was northeast of the Sea of Galilee.

Daily

God never neglects His people. Daily, hourly, God pours out His goodness and mercy.

PSALM 69

An Urgent Plea for Help in Trouble

To the Chief Musician. Set to [1]"The Lilies." A Psalm of David.

SAVE me, O God!
For [a]the waters have come up to my [1]neck.
2 [a]I sink in deep mire,
Where there is no standing;
I have come into deep waters,
Where the floods overflow me.
3 [a]I am weary with my crying;
My throat is dry;
[b]My eyes fail while I wait for my God.

4 Those who [a]hate me without a cause
Are more than the hairs of my head;
They are mighty who would destroy me,
Being my enemies wrongfully;
Though I have stolen nothing,
I still must restore it.

5 O God, You know my foolishness;
And my sins are not hidden from You.
6 Let not those who [1]wait for You,
O Lord GOD of hosts, be ashamed because of me;
Let not those who seek You be [2]confounded because of me,
O God of Israel.
7 Because for Your sake I have borne [a]reproach;
Shame has covered my face.
8 [a]I have become a stranger to my brothers,
And an alien to my mother's children;
9 [a]Because zeal for Your house has eaten me up,
[b]And the reproaches of those who reproach You have fallen on me.
10 When I wept and chastened my soul with fasting,
That became my reproach.

Hear me in the truth of Your salvation.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 69:13

The Acceptable Time

God responds to our needs in His time, not ours. All we can do is make our requests acceptable to Him.

14 Deliver me out of the mire,
And let me not sink;
Let me be delivered from those who hate me,
And out of the deep waters.
15 Let not the floodwater overflow me,
Nor let the deep swallow me up;
And let not the pit shut its mouth on me.
16 Hear me, O LORD, for Your lovingkindness is good;
Turn to me according to the multitude of Your tender mercies.
17 And do not hide Your face from Your servant,
For I am in trouble;
Hear me speedily.
18 Draw near to my soul, and redeem it;
Deliver me because of my enemies.
19 You know [a]my reproach, my shame, and my dishonor;
My adversaries are all before You.
20 Reproach has broken my heart,
And I am full of [1]heaviness;
[a]I looked for someone to take pity, but there was none;
And for [b]comforters, but I found none.
21 They also gave me gall for my food,
[a]And for my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.
22 [a]Let their table become a snare before them,
And their well-being a trap.
23 [a]Let their eyes be darkened, so that they do not see;
And make their loins shake continually.

PSALM 70

Prayer for Relief from Adversaries

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. [a]To bring to remembrance.

MAKE haste, [a]O God, to deliver me!
Make haste to help me, O LORD!
2 [a]Let them be ashamed and confounded
Who seek my life;
Let them be [1]turned back and confused
Who desire my hurt.

1 [a]Ps. 40:13–17
2 [a]Ps. 35:4, 26 [1]So with MT, LXX, Tg., Vg.; some Heb. mss., Syr. appalled (cf. 40:15)

69:21 This is a direct description of Jesus (Matt. 27:34; Mark 15:23; Luke 23:36; John 19:28–30).

69:28 Elsewhere, scripture refers to people's names being written in a book of life (Ex. 32:32; Rev. 20:15).

3 [a]Let them be turned back because of their shame,
Who say, [1]"Aha, aha!"

4 Let all those who seek You rejoice and be glad in You;
And let those who love Your salvation say continually,
"Let God be magnified!"

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 70:4

Seeking and Rejoicing

God proves Himself to all those who pursue Him. Incredible joy comes in finding God to be exactly as His word said He would be.

5 [a]But I am poor and needy;
[b]Make haste to me, O God!
You are my help and my deliverer;
O LORD, do not delay.

PSALM 71

God the Rock of Salvation

IN [a]You, O LORD, I put my trust;
Let me never be put to shame.
2 [a]Deliver me in Your righteousness, and cause me to escape;
[b]Incline Your ear to me, and save me.
3 [a]Be my [1]strong refuge,
To which I may resort continually;
You have given the [b]commandment to save me,
For You are my rock and my fortress.

4 [a]Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked,
Out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.
5 For You are [a]my hope, O Lord GOD;
You are my trust from my youth.
6 [a]By You I have been [1]upheld from birth;
You are He who took me out of my mother's womb.
My praise shall be continually of You.

7 [a]I have become as a wonder to many,
But You are my strong refuge.
8 Let [a]my mouth be filled with Your praise
And with Your glory all the day.

9 Do not cast me off in the time of old age;
Do not forsake me when my strength fails.
10 For my enemies speak against me;
And those who lie in wait for my life [a]take counsel together,
11 Saying, "God has forsaken him;
Pursue and take him, for there is none to deliver him."

12 [a]O God, do not be far from me;
O my God, [b]make haste to help me!
13 Let them be [1]confounded and consumed
Who are adversaries of my life;
Let them be covered with reproach and dishonor
Who seek my hurt.

14 But I will hope continually,
And will praise You yet more and more.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 71:14

Continual Hope

The righteous never lose hope, no matter how long God's answer takes, no matter how difficult the problem. Because they know God intimately, they continue to hope, praising Him continually as they wait on Him.

15 My mouth shall tell of Your righteousness
And Your salvation all the day,
For I do not know their limits.
16 I will go in the strength of the Lord GOD;
I will make mention of Your righteousness, of Yours only.

17 O God, You have taught me from my [a]youth;
And to this day I declare Your wondrous works.
18 Now also [a]when I am old and grayheaded,
O God, do not forsake me,
Until I declare Your strength to this generation,
Your power to everyone who is to come.

13 [1]ashamed
17 [a]Deut. 4:5; 6:7
18 [a][Is. 46:4]

70:4 Jeremiah claimed those who earnestly sought God would find Him (Jer. 29:12–14).

70:5 "Make haste" reveals the psalmist's sense of urgency in his circumstances. Yet from God's perspective, the situation may not be as urgent as it looks to David.

71:1 "Let me never be put to shame" is the theme of this psalm. The psalmist does not want to have held fast to God and His ways only to regret doing so later.

71:4 "Deliver me" comes from the verb meaning "cause to escape" (Ps. 17:13).

71:8 Although the psalmist has endured difficult times (7), he wants praises to God and not complaints to characterize his words.

71:14 "But I will hope" is an emphatic Hebrew verb, introducing a sharp contrast to what has been said previously.

71:17 "From my youth" indicates a lifelong relationship with God. Just as God was faithful to him then, the psalmist will continue to rely on Him in his old age.

19 Also [a]Your righteousness, O God, is [1]very high,
You who have done great things;
[b]O God, who is like You?
20 [a]You, who have shown me great and severe troubles,
[b]Shall revive me again,
And bring me up again from the depths of the earth.
21 You shall increase my greatness,
And comfort me on every side.
22 Also [a]with the lute I will praise You—
And Your faithfulness, O my God!
To You I will sing with the harp,
O [b]Holy One of Israel.
23 My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing to You,
And [a]my soul, which You have redeemed.
24 My tongue also shall talk of Your righteousness all the day long;
For they are confounded,
For they are brought to shame
Who seek my hurt.

PSALM 72

Glory and Universality of the Messiah's Reign

A Psalm [a]of Solomon.

GIVE the king Your judgments, O God,
And Your righteousness to the king's Son.
2 [a]He will judge Your people with righteousness,
And Your poor with justice.
3 [a]The mountains will bring peace to the people,
And the little hills, by righteousness.
4 [a]He will bring justice to the poor of the people;
He will save the children of the needy,
And will [1]break in pieces the oppressor.
5 [1]They shall fear You
[a]As long as the sun and moon endure,
Throughout all generations.
6 [a]He shall come down like rain upon the grass before mowing,
Like showers that water the earth.
7 In His days the righteous shall flourish,
[a]And abundance of peace,
Until the moon is no more.
8 [a]He shall have dominion also from sea to sea,
And from the River to the ends of the earth.
9 [a]Those who dwell in the wilderness will bow before Him,
[b]And His enemies will lick the dust.
10 [a]The kings of Tarshish and of the isles
Will bring presents;
The kings of Sheba and Seba
Will offer gifts.
11 [a]Yes, all kings shall fall down before Him;
All nations shall serve Him.
12 For He [a]will deliver the needy when he cries,
The poor also, and him who has no helper.
13 He will spare the poor and needy,
And will save the souls of the needy.
14 He will redeem their life from oppression and violence;
And [a]precious shall be their blood in His sight.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 72:14

Precious

The oppressed do not suffer alone, for God is their advocate. Out of His compassion He will deliver them.

15 And He shall live;
And the gold of [a]Sheba will be given to Him;
Prayer also will be made for Him continually,
And daily He shall be praised.
16 There will be an abundance of grain in the earth,
On the top of the mountains;
Its fruit shall wave like Lebanon;
[a]And those of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.
17 [a]His name shall endure forever;
His name shall continue as long as the sun.
And [b]men shall be blessed in Him;
[c]All nations shall call Him blessed.

17 [a][Ps. 89:36] [b][Gen. 12:3] [c]Luke 1:48

71:20 To "revive" is to "restore" or to "give life." The psalmist had been crushed by his hardships but God would restore him to strength and vitality.

71:24 The psalmist began by asking for deliverance from his own shame (1). Now he asks God to bring shame upon his enemies.

72:8 The "River" is the Euphrates River which signified the extent of the land promised to Abraham (Gen. 15:18).

72:10 Tarshish may have been in modern Spain. Tarshish and Sheba represented the farthest regions known in Solomon's day.

72:12 One role of the Israelite kings was to protect the poor and needy. The prophets often condemned the kings for neglecting their responsibility (Amos 3:15; 6:1; 8:4; Mic. 3:1–3; Zeph. 3:3).

18 [a]Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Israel,
[b]Who only does wondrous things!
19 And [a]blessed be His glorious name
forever!
[b]And let the whole earth be filled with His glory.
Amen and Amen.

Jesse are ended.

Psalms 73—89

PSALM 73

The Tragedy of the Wicked, and the Blessedness of Trust in God

A Psalm of [a]Asaph.

TRULY God is good to Israel,
To such as are pure in heart.
2 But as for me, my feet had almost stumbled;
My steps had nearly [a]slipped.
3 [a]For I was envious of the boastful,
When I saw the prosperity of the [b]wicked.

4 For there are no [1]pangs in their death,
But their strength is firm.
5 [a]They are not in trouble as other
men,
Nor are they plagued like other
men.
6 Therefore pride serves as their necklace;
Violence covers them [a]like a garment.
7 [a]Their [1]eyes bulge with abundance;
They have more than heart could wish.
8 [a]They scoff and speak wickedly concerning oppression;
They [b]speak [1]loftily.
9 They set their mouth [a]against the heavens,
And their tongue walks through the
earth.

10 Therefore his people return here,
[a]And waters of a full cup are drained
by them.
11 And they say, [a]"How does God know?
And is there knowledge in the Most High?"
12 Behold, these are the ungodly,
Who are always at ease;
They increase in riches.
13 Surely I have [1]cleansed my heart in
[a]vain,
And washed my hands in innocence.
14 For all day long I have been plagued,
And chastened every morning.

15 If I had said, "I will speak thus," Behold, I would have been untrue to the generation of Your children.
16 When I thought how to understand
this,
It was [1]too painful for me—
17 Until I went into the sanctuary of
God;
Then I understood their [a]end.

18 Surely [a]You set them in slippery places;
You cast them down to destruction.
19 Oh, how they are brought to desolation, as in a moment!
They are utterly consumed with terrors.
20 As a dream when one awakes,
So, Lord, when You awake,
You shall despise their image.

21 Thus my heart was grieved,
And I was [1]vexed in my mind.
22 [a]I was so foolish and ignorant;
I was like a beast before You.
23 Nevertheless I am continually with
You;
You hold me by my right hand.
24 [a]You will guide me with Your counsel,
And afterward receive me to glory.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 73:24

Guidance

God loves us too much to leave us to our own wisdom. He takes us by the hand and skillfully guides us through life's pathways.

72:18 "Only" indicates that anything God does is miraculous. All of God's infinite power is brought to bear on whatever He undertakes.

72:2 Asaph confessed he almost stumbled in his faith when he shifted his focus from God's goodness and began to envy the apparent pleasure and prosperity of the wicked.

72:13 The psalmist wonders aloud if keeping himself pure and upholding God's standards is worth it since the wicked appear to sin with impunity.

73:17 The depravity of Asaph's world was not obvious to him until he worshipped God. Focusing on God put Asaph's circumstances into perspective.

73:19 "In a moment" describes the tenuous position of the wicked. They may appear to be indulging in sin without consequence, but suddenly they stumble and pay the price for their rebellion against God.

25 [a]Whom have I in heaven but You?
And there is none upon earth that I desire besides You.
26 [a]My flesh and my heart fail;
But God is the [1]strength of my heart and my [b]portion forever.

27 For indeed, [a]those who are far from
You shall perish;
You have destroyed all those who
[1]desert You for harlotry.
28 But it is good for me to [a]draw near to God;
I have put my trust in the Lord GOD,
That I may [b]declare all Your works.

PSALM 74

A Plea for Relief from Oppressors

A [1]Contemplation of Asaph.

O GOD, why have You cast us off
forever?
Why does Your anger smoke against the sheep of Your pasture?
2 Remember Your congregation, which You have purchased of old,
The tribe of Your inheritance, which
You have redeemed—
This Mount Zion where You have dwelt.
3 Lift up Your feet to the perpetual
desolations.
The enemy has damaged everything in the sanctuary.
4 [a]Your enemies roar in the midst of
Your meeting place;
[b]They set up their banners for signs.
5 They seem like men who lift up
Axes among the thick trees.
6 And now they break down its carved work, all at once,
With axes and hammers.
7 They have set fire to Your sanctuary;
They have defiled the dwelling place of Your name to the ground.
8 [a]They said in their hearts,
"Let us [1]destroy them altogether."
They have burned up all the meeting places of God in the land.

9 We do not see our signs;
[a]There is no longer any prophet;
Nor is there any among us who knows how long.
10 O God, how long will the adversary
[1]reproach?
Will the enemy blaspheme Your name forever?
11 [a]Why do You withdraw Your hand, even Your right hand?
Take it out of Your bosom and destroy them.
12 For [a]God is my King from of old, Working salvation in the midst of
the earth.
13 [a]You divided the sea by Your
strength;
You broke the heads of the [1]sea
serpents in the waters.
14 You broke the heads of [1]Leviathan
in pieces,
And gave him as food to the people
inhabiting the wilderness.
15 [a]You broke open the fountain and the flood;
[b]You dried up mighty rivers.
16 The day is Yours, the night also is
[a]Yours;
[b]You have prepared the light and the sun.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 74:16

The Day Is Yours

Each day belongs to the Lord. He is sovereign over time, and nothing occurs apart from His will.

17 You have [a]set all the borders of the
earth;
[b]You have made summer and winter.

18 Remember this, that the enemy has reproached, O LORD,
And that a foolish people has blasphemed Your name.
19 Oh, do not deliver the life of Your turtledove to the wild beast!
Do not forget the life of Your poor
forever.
20 [a]Have respect to the covenant;
For the [1]dark places of the earth are full of the [2]haunts of [3]cruelty.
21 Oh, do not let the oppressed return
ashamed!
Let the poor and needy praise Your name.

22 Arise, O God, plead Your own cause;
Remember how the foolish man
[1]reproaches You daily.
23 Do not forget the voice of Your
enemies;

20 [a]Lev. 26:44, 45 [1]hiding places [2]homes [3]violence
22 [1]reviles or taunts

73:28 God promised to draw near to those who drew near to Him (James 4:8).

74:1 By calling the people "the sheep of Your pasture" the psalmist asks why God seems not to have remembered his role as shepherd (Ps. 23).

74:2 "Tribe" can also be translated "rod" or "scepter."

74:13 In Canaanite mythology, Baal warred against the sea serpents and was victorious, thereby becoming king. Here the psalmist uses their mythical terminology to ascribe victory and power to the true God.

74:14 In poetry, Leviathan was a formidable sea monster symbolizing the dark forces opposing God. Eventually Leviathan became identified with Satan (Is. 27:1).

The tumult of those who rise up against You increases continually.

PSALM 75

Thanksgiving for God's Righteous Judgment

To the Chief Musician. Set to [a]"Do[1] Not Destroy." A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.

WE give thanks to You, O God, we give thanks!
For Your wondrous works declare that Your name is near.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 75:1

Miracles

Miracles are clear reminders that God is present and active around us. The spiritually discerning readily recognize God's activity when they see it.

2 "When I choose the [1]proper time,
I will judge uprightly.
3 The earth and all its inhabitants are dissolved;
I set up its pillars firmly. Selah

4 "I said to the boastful, 'Do not deal boastfully,'
And to the wicked, [a]'Do not [1]lift up the horn.
5 Do not lift up your horn on high;
Do not speak with [1]a stiff neck.' "

6 For exaltation comes neither from the east
Nor from the west nor from the south.
7 But [a]God is the Judge:
[b]He puts down one,
And exalts another.
8 For [a]in the hand of the LORD there is a cup,
And the wine is red;
It is fully mixed, and He pours it
out;
Surely its dregs shall all the wicked
of the earth
Drain and drink down.

9 But I will declare forever,
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

10 "All[a] the [1]horns of the wicked I will also cut off,
But [b]the horns of the righteous shall be [c]exalted."

PSALM 76

The Majesty of God in Judgment

To the Chief Musician. On [1]stringed instruments. A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.

IN [a]Judah God is known;
His name is great in Israel.
2 In [1]Salem also is His tabernacle,
And His dwelling place in Zion.
3 There He broke the arrows of the bow,
The shield and sword of battle.
Selah

4 You are more glorious and excellent
[a]Than the mountains of prey.
5 [a]The stouthearted were plundered;
[b]They [1]have sunk into their sleep;
And none of the mighty men have found the use of their hands.
6 [a]At Your rebuke, O God of Jacob, Both the chariot and horse were cast into a dead sleep.

7 You, Yourself, are to be feared;
And [a]who may stand in Your presence
When once You are angry?
8 [a]You caused judgment to be heard from heaven;
[b]The earth feared and was still,
9 When God [a]arose to judgment,
To deliver all the oppressed of the earth. Selah

10 [a]Surely the wrath of man shall praise You;
With the remainder of wrath You shall gird Yourself.

11 [a]Make vows to the LORD your God,
and pay them;
[b]Let all who are around Him bring presents to Him who ought to be feared.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 76:11

Making Vows

Commitments to God arise naturally out of our devotion to Him. But it is in keeping those promises that we honor God.

12 He shall cut off the spirit of princes;
[a]He is awesome to the kings of the
earth.

75:10 Horns represented power and strength.

76:2 "Salem" is Jerusalem. "Tabernacle" describes the lair of an animal.

76:6 "Chariots and horses" were the most formidable weapons of that day. This may refer to the defeat of Pharaoh's forces during the exodus (Ex. 15:15).

76:11 One act of worship was to voluntarily make vows to God and then keep them (Ps. 61:5, 8; 66:13).

PSALM 77

The Consoling Memory of God's Redemptive Works

To the Chief Musician. [a]To Jeduthun. A Psalm of Asaph.

I CRIED out to God with my voice—
To God with my voice;
And He gave ear to me.
2 In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord;
My hand was stretched out in the night without ceasing;
My soul refused to be comforted.
3 I remembered God, and was troubled;
I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah
4 You hold my eyelids open;
I am so troubled that I cannot speak.
5 I have considered the days of old,
The years of ancient times.
6 I call to remembrance my song in the night;
I meditate within my heart,
And my spirit [1]makes diligent search.
7 Will the Lord cast off forever?
And will He be favorable no more?
8 Has His mercy ceased forever?
Has His [a]promise failed [1]forevermore?
9 Has God forgotten to be gracious?
Has He in anger shut up His tender mercies? Selah
10 And I said, "This is my [1]anguish;
But I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High."
11 I will remember the works of the LORD;
Surely I will remember Your wonders of old.
12 I will also meditate on all Your work,
And talk of Your deeds.
13 Your way, O God, is in [1]the [a]sanctuary;
Who is so great a God as our God?
14 You are the God who does wonders;
You have declared Your strength among the peoples.
15 You have with Your arm redeemed Your people,
The sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah
16 The waters saw You, O God;
The waters saw You, they were [a]afraid;
The depths also trembled.
17 The clouds poured out water;
The skies sent out a sound;
Your arrows also flashed about.
18 The voice of Your thunder was in the whirlwind;
The lightnings lit up the world;
The earth trembled and shook.
19 Your way was in the sea,
Your path in the great waters,
And Your footsteps were not known.
20 You led Your people like a flock
By the hand of Moses and Aaron.

God of Wonders

Our God is not a god of the ordinary but a God of the extraordinary. A review of your walk with Him should bring to mind many instances where He performed wonders in your presence.

PSALM 78

God's Kindness to Rebellious Israel

A [a]Contemplation[1] of Asaph.

GIVE ear, O my people, to my law;
Incline your ears to the words of my mouth.
2 I will open my mouth in a [a]parable;
I will utter [1]dark sayings of old,
3 Which we have heard and known,
And our fathers have told us.
4 [a]We will not hide them from their children,
[b]Telling to the generation to come the praises of the LORD,
And His strength and His wonderful works that He has done.
5 For [a]He established a testimony in Jacob,
And appointed a law in Israel,
Which He commanded our fathers,
That [b]they should make them known to their children;
6 [a]That the generation to come might know them,
The children who would be born,
That they may arise and declare them to their children,

77:2 Asaph was in such distress he held out his hands to God throughout the night, demonstrating his desperate need for the Lord's help.

77:4 "You hold my eyelids open" means Asaph could not sleep.

77:10 During difficult times, Asaph recalled God's previous faithfulness to him.

77:17 "Arrows" refers to lightning.

77:20 God is described here as a shepherd. It was not Moses who led the children of Israel but God Himself.

78:1 "My law" is "Torah," which means "teaching."

78:6 God's word was designed to be passed on from generation to generation.

7 That they may set their hope in God,
And not forget the works of God,
But keep His commandments;
8 And [a]may not be like their fathers,
[b]A stubborn and rebellious generation,
A generation [c]that did not [1]set its heart aright,
And whose spirit was not faithful to God.

9 The children of Ephraim, being armed and [1]carrying bows,
Turned back in the day of battle.
10 [a]They did not keep the covenant of God;
They refused to walk in His law,
11 And [a]forgot His works
And His wonders that He had shown them.

12 [a]Marvelous things He did in the sight of their fathers,
In the land of Egypt, [b]in the field of Zoan.
13 [a]He divided the sea and caused them to pass through;
And [b]He made the waters stand up like a heap.
14 [a]In the daytime also He led them with the cloud,
And all the night with a light of fire.
15 [a]He split the rocks in the wilderness,
And gave them drink in abundance like the depths.
16 He also brought [a]streams out of the rock,
And caused waters to run down like rivers.

17 But they sinned even more against Him
By [a]rebelling against the Most High in the wilderness.
18 And [a]they tested God in their heart
By asking for the food of their fancy.
19 [a]Yes, they spoke against God:
They said, "Can God prepare a table in the wilderness?
20 [a]Behold, He struck the rock,
So that the waters gushed out,
And the streams overflowed.
Can He give bread also?
Can He provide meat for His people?"

21 Therefore the LORD heard this and [a]was furious;
So a fire was kindled against Jacob,
And anger also came up against Israel,
22 Because they [a]did not believe in God,
And did not trust in His salvation.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 78:22

Unbelief

Unbelief refuses to be satisfied despite repeated miracles. Miracles will not convince someone who is unwilling to believe.

23 Yet He had commanded the clouds above,
[a]And opened the doors of heaven,
24 [a]Had rained down manna on them to eat,
And given them of the [1]bread of [b]heaven.
25 Men ate angels' food;
He sent them food to [1]the full.

26 [a]He caused an east wind to blow in the heavens;
And by His power He brought in the south wind.
27 He also rained meat on them like the dust,
Feathered fowl like the sand of the seas;
28 And He let them fall in the midst of their camp,
All around their dwellings.
29 [a]So they ate and were well filled,
For He gave them their own desire.
30 They were not [1]deprived of their craving;
But [a]while their food was still in their mouths,
31 The wrath of God came against them,
And slew the stoutest of them,
And struck down the choice men of Israel.

32 In spite of this [a]they still sinned,
And [b]did not believe in His wondrous works.
33 [a]Therefore their days He consumed in futility,
And their years in fear.

34 [a]When He slew them, then they sought Him;
And they returned and sought earnestly for God.
35 Then they remembered that [a]God was their rock,

78:11 It is sinful to forget the great works God has done in your midst.

78:18 The children of Israel are condemned for their ingratitude to God, pining for things they did not have.

78:30 Getting what we want rather than what God wanted to give us can be disastrous (Num. 11:33–35).

78:34 Ironically, it was God's judgment, rather than His blessing, that drew His people back to Him.

And the Most High God [b]their Redeemer.
36 Nevertheless they [a]flattered Him with their mouth,
And they lied to Him with their tongue;
37 For their heart was not steadfast with Him,
Nor were they faithful in His covenant.
38 [a]But He, being full of [b]compassion, forgave their iniquity,
And did not destroy them.
Yes, many a time [c]He turned His anger away,
And [d]did not stir up all His wrath;
39 For [a]He remembered [b]that they were but flesh,
[c]A breath that passes away and does not come again.
40 How often they [a]provoked[1] Him in the wilderness,
And grieved Him in the desert!
41 Yes, [a]again and again they tempted God,
And limited the Holy One of Israel.
42 They did not remember His [1]power:
The day when He redeemed them from the enemy,
43 When He worked His signs in Egypt,
And His wonders in the field of Zoan;
44 [a]Turned their rivers into blood,
And their streams, that they could not drink.
45 [a]He sent swarms of flies among them, which devoured them,
And [b]frogs, which destroyed them.
46 He also gave their crops to the caterpillar,
And their labor to the [a]locust.
47 [a]He destroyed their vines with hail,
And their sycamore trees with frost.
48 He also gave up their [a]cattle to the hail,
And their flocks to fiery [1]lightning.
49 He cast on them the fierceness of His anger,
Wrath, indignation, and trouble,
By sending angels of destruction among them.
50 He made a path for His anger;
He did not spare their soul from death,
But gave [1]their life over to the plague,

And guided them in the wilderness like a flock;
53 And He [a]led them on safely, so that they did not fear;
But the sea [b]overwhelmed their enemies.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 78:53

Leading Safely

When God leads, we have no reason to fear, despite where He may take us. We can follow Him boldly because He is an infallible, loving guide.

54 And He brought them to His [a]holy border,
This mountain [b]which His right hand had acquired.
55 [a]He also drove out the nations before them,
[b]Allotted them an inheritance by [1]survey,
And made the tribes of Israel dwell in their tents.
56 [a]Yet they tested and provoked the Most High God,
And did not keep His testimonies,
57 But [a]turned back and acted unfaithfully like their fathers;
They were turned aside [b]like a deceitful bow.
58 [a]For they provoked Him to anger with their [b]high places,
And moved Him to jealousy with their carved images.
59 When God heard this, He was furious,
And greatly abhorred Israel,
60 [a]So that He forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh,
The tent He had placed among men,
61 [a]And delivered His strength into captivity,
And His glory into the enemy's hand.
62 [a]He also gave His people over to the sword,
And was furious with His inheritance.

60 [a]1 Sam. 4:11
61 [a]Judg. 18:30

78:41 "Tempted" does not mean tempting God to sin. Rather it means "provoked." The people's sin and complaining provoked God to discipline His people.

78:58 "High places" were shrines and altars erected on mountaintops and used to worship pagan deities.

78:61 His "strength and glory" refers to the ark of the covenant which was lost in a battle against the Philistines (1 Sam. 4:1–11).

63 The fire consumed their young men,
And [a]their maidens were not given in marriage.
64 [a]Their priests fell by the sword,
And [b]their widows made no lamentation.

65 Then the Lord awoke as from sleep,
[a]Like a mighty man who shouts because of wine.
66 And [a]He beat back His enemies;
He put them to a perpetual reproach.

67 Moreover He rejected the tent of Joseph,
And did not choose the tribe of Ephraim,
68 But chose the tribe of Judah,
Mount Zion [a]which He loved.
69 And He built His [a]sanctuary like the heights,
Like the earth which He has established forever.
70 [a]He also chose David His servant,
And took him from the sheepfolds;
71 From following [a]the ewes that had young He brought him,
[b]To shepherd Jacob His people,
And Israel His inheritance.
72 So he shepherded them according to the [a]integrity of his heart,
And guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.

PSALM 79

A Dirge and a Prayer for Israel, Destroyed by Enemies

A Psalm of Asaph.

O GOD, the [1]nations have come into [a]Your inheritance;
Your holy temple they have defiled;
[b]They have laid Jerusalem [2]in heaps.
2 [a]The dead bodies of Your servants
They have given as food for the birds of the heavens,
The flesh of Your saints to the beasts of the earth.
3 Their blood they have shed like water all around Jerusalem,
And there was no one to bury them.
4 We have become a reproach to our [a]neighbors,
A scorn and derision to those who are around us.

5 [a]How long, LORD?
Will You be angry forever?
Will Your [b]jealousy burn like fire?
6 [a]Pour out Your wrath on the [1]nations that [b]do not know You,
And on the kingdoms that [c]do not call on Your name.
7 For they have devoured Jacob,
And laid waste his dwelling place.

8 [a]Oh, do not remember [1]former iniquities against us!
Let Your tender mercies come speedily to meet us,
For we have been brought very low.
9 Help us, O God of our salvation,
For the glory of Your name;
And deliver us, and provide atonement for our sins,
[a]For Your name's sake!

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 79:9

For the Glory of His Name

God delivers us not only because He loves us, but also because it glorifies His name to do so. He receives glory by the way we walk with Him through adversity and by the way we respond once He has delivered us.

10 [a]Why should the [1]nations say,
"Where is their God?"
Let there be known among the nations in our sight
The avenging of the blood of Your servants which has been shed.

11 Let [a]the groaning of the prisoner come before You;
According to the greatness of Your [1]power
Preserve those who are appointed to die;
12 And return to our neighbors [a]sevenfold into their bosom
[b]Their reproach with which they have reproached You, O Lord.

13 So [a]we, Your people and sheep of Your pasture,
Will give You thanks forever;
[b]We will show forth Your praise to all generations.

PSALM 80

Prayer for Israel's Restoration

To the Chief Musician. [a]Set to [1]"The Lilies." A [2]Testimony of Asaph. A Psalm.

title [a]Ps. 45:title [1]Heb. Shoshannim [2]Heb. Eduth

78:72 King David is said to have led his people with integrity. The king was supposed to shepherd the people and would foreshadow the Messiah who would be both a Priest and a King (John 10:14).

79:1 The psalmist is recalling an enemy attack on Jerusalem and the deaths of numerous citizens.

79:2 This may describe Jerusalem's destruction under the Babylonians as it is similar to accounts given in Jeremiah (Jer. 7:33; 19:7; 34:20).

79:13 On behalf of Judah, Asaph is promising to praise God continually for His greatness if He rescues them.

GIVE ear, O Shepherd of Israel,
[a]You who lead Joseph [b]like a flock;
You who dwell between the cherubim, [c]shine forth!
2 Before [a]Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh,
Stir up Your strength,
And come and save us!

3 [a]Restore us, O God;
[b]Cause Your face to shine,
And we shall be saved!

4 O LORD God of hosts,
[a]How long will You be angry
Against the prayer of Your people?
5 [a]You have fed them with the bread of tears,
And given them tears to drink in great measure.
6 You have made us a strife to our neighbors,
And our enemies laugh among themselves.

7 Restore us, O God of hosts;
Cause Your face to shine,
And we shall be saved!

8 You have brought [a]a vine out of Egypt;
[b]You have cast out the [1]nations, and planted it.
9 You prepared room for it,
And caused it to take deep root,
And it filled the land.
10 The hills were covered with its shadow,
And the [1]mighty cedars with its [a]boughs.
11 She sent out her boughs to [1]the Sea,
And her branches to [2]the River.

12 Why have You [a]broken down her [1]hedges,
So that all who pass by the way pluck her fruit?
13 The boar out of the woods uproots it,
And the wild beast of the field devours it.

14 Return, we beseech You, O God of hosts;
[a]Look down from heaven and see,
And visit this vine
15 And the vineyard which Your right hand has planted,
And the branch that You made strong [a]for Yourself.

17 [a]Let Your hand be upon the man of Your right hand,
Upon the son of man whom You made strong for Yourself.
18 Then we will not turn back from You;
Revive us, and we will call upon Your name.

19 Restore us, O LORD God of hosts;
Cause Your face to shine,
And we shall be saved!

16 [a][Ps. 39:11]
17 [a]Ps. 89:21

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 80:19

Restore Us!

Only God can revive His people. No amount of effort on our part can free us, or others, from sin and restore us to spiritual vigor.

PSALM 81

An Appeal for Israel's Repentance

To the Chief Musician. [a]On[1] an instrument of Gath. A Psalm of Asaph.

SING aloud to God our strength;
Make a joyful shout to the God of Jacob.
2 Raise a song and strike the timbrel,
The pleasant harp with the lute.

3 Blow the trumpet at the time of the New Moon,
At the full moon, on our solemn feast day.
4 For [a]this is a statute for Israel,
A law of the God of Jacob.
5 This He established in Joseph as a testimony,
When He went throughout the land of Egypt,
[a]Where I heard a language I did not understand.

6 "I removed his shoulder from the burden;
His hands were freed from the baskets.
7 [a]You called in trouble, and I delivered you;
[b]I answered you in the secret place of thunder;

PSALM 81

5 [a]Ps. 114:1
7 [a]Ex. 2:23; 14:10 [b]Ex. 19:19; 20:18

80:1 "Shepherd" refers to God (Ps. 23; 77:20). "Between the cherubim" refers to the ark of the covenant and the two enormous statues of cherubim placed above it in the Most Holy Place (Ex. 25:22).

80:15 "Branch" means "son."

80:18 The natural outflow of revival is that God's people turn to Him and call upon Him.

81:3 The "trumpet" was a shophar, or ram's horn. The New Moon or "new month" referred to the seventh and most important month, ushering in the Day of Atonement on the tenth and the Feast of Booths or Tabernacles on the fifteenth.

81:7 For the place of thunder, see Exodus 19; for the waters of Meribah, see Numbers 20.

I [c]tested you at the waters of [1]Meribah. Selah

8 "Hear,[a] O My people, and I will admonish you!
O Israel, if you will listen to Me!
9 There shall be no [a]foreign god among you;
Nor shall you worship any foreign god.
10 [a]I am the LORD your God,
Who brought you out of the land of Egypt;
[b]Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.
11 "But My people would not heed My voice,
And Israel would have [a]none of Me.
12 [a]So I gave them over to [1]their own stubborn heart,
To walk in their own counsels.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 81:12

Our Own Counsel

We get what we ask for. If we hunger after God, He will satisfy our longing and make His way clear. But if we are happier following our own "wisdom," He will leave us to our own feeble resources.

13 "Oh,[a] that My people would listen to Me,
That Israel would walk in My ways!
14 I would soon subdue their enemies,
And turn My hand against their adversaries.
15 [a]The haters of the LORD would pretend submission to Him,
But their [1]fate would endure forever.
16 He would [a]have fed them also with [1]the finest of wheat;
And with honey [b]from the rock I would have satisfied you."

PSALM 82

A Plea for Justice

A Psalm of Asaph.

GOD [a]stands in the congregation of [1]the mighty;
He judges among [b]the [2]gods.
2 How long will you judge unjustly,
And [a]show partiality to the wicked? Selah
3 [1]Defend the poor and fatherless;
Do justice to the afflicted and [a]needy.
4 Deliver the poor and needy;
Free them from the hand of the wicked.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 82:4

Practical Belief

Orthodox belief alone does not satisfy God. He looks for righteous action. If we truly love God we will care for those He loves.

5 They do not know, nor do they understand;
They walk about in darkness;
All the [a]foundations of the earth are [1]unstable.
6 I said, [a]"You are [1]gods,
And all of you are children of the Most High.
7 But you shall die like men,
And fall like one of the princes."
8 Arise, O God, judge the earth;
[a]For You shall inherit all nations.

PSALM 83

Prayer to Frustrate Conspiracy Against Israel

A Song. A Psalm of Asaph.

DO[a] not keep silent, O God!
Do not hold Your peace,
And do not be still, O God!

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 83:1

Don't Keep Silent

When troubles abound, nothing comforts like a word from God.

2 For behold, [a]Your enemies make a [1]tumult;
And those who hate You have [2]lifted up their head.
3 They have taken crafty counsel against Your people,
And consulted together [a]against Your sheltered ones.
4 They have said, "Come, and [a]let us cut them off from being a nation,
That the name of Israel may be remembered no more."
5 For they have consulted together with one [1]consent;
They [2]form a confederacy against You:

6 [a]The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites;
Moab and the Hagrites;
7 Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek;

11 Make their nobles like [a]Oreb and 12 Who said, "Let us take for ourselves

The pastures of God for a 13 [a]O my God, make them like the whirling dust,

[b]Like the chaff before the wind!
14 As the fire burns the woods,
And as the flame [a]sets the mountains on fire,
15 So pursue them with Your tempest,
And frighten them with Your storm.
16 Fill their faces with shame,
That they may seek Your name,
O LORD.
17 Let them be [1]confounded and dismayed forever;
Yes, let them be put to shame and perish,
18 [a]That they may know that You,
whose [b]name alone is the LORD,
Are [c]the Most High over all the earth.

PSALM 84

The Blessedness of Dwelling in the House of God

To the Chief Musician. [a]On[1] an instrument of Gath. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

HOW [a]lovely [1]is Your tabernacle,
O LORD of hosts!
2 [a]My soul longs, yes, even faints
For the courts of the LORD;
My heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.

3 Even the sparrow has found a home,
And the swallow a nest for herself,
Where she may lay her young—
Even Your altars, O LORD of hosts,
My King and my God.
4 Blessed are those who dwell in Your
[a]house;
They will still be praising You. Selah

5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in You,
Whose heart is set on pilgrimage.
6 As they pass through the Valley [a]of [1]Baca,
They make a spring;
The rain also covers it with [2]pools.
7 They go [a]from strength to strength;
[1]Each one [b]appears before God in Zion.

8 O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer;
Give ear, O God of Jacob! Selah
9 [a]O God, behold our shield,
And look upon the face of Your
[1]anointed.

10 For a day in Your courts is better than a thousand.
I would rather [1]be a doorkeeper in the house of my God
Than dwell in the tents of wickedness.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 84:10

A Doorkeeper

Indescribable joy is found in God's presence. Our souls ought to long for it.

11 For the LORD God is [a]a sun and [b]shield;
The LORD will give grace and glory;
[c]No good thing will He withhold
From those who walk uprightly.

12 O LORD of hosts,
[a]Blessed is the man who trusts in
You!

83:13 "Whirling dust" is literally "the wheel."
84:1 "Lovely" can also mean "dear, beloved."
84:6 The name Baca means "Weeping."
84:12 A prevalent theme of the Psalms is that trust in God leads to blessings (Ps. 37:5, 25).
85:1 This may refer to the return of the exiles from Babylon.

2 You have forgiven the iniquity of
Your people;
You have covered all their sin. Selah
3 You have taken away all Your wrath;
You have turned from the fierceness of Your anger.

4 [a]Restore us, O God of our salvation,
And cause Your anger toward us to cease.
5 [a]Will You be angry with us forever?
Will You prolong Your anger to all generations?
6 Will You not [a]revive us again,
That Your people may rejoice in
You?
7 Show us Your mercy, LORD,
And grant us Your salvation.

8 I will hear what God the LORD will speak,
For He will speak peace
To His people and to His saints;
But let them not turn back to [1]folly.
9 Surely [a]His salvation is near to those who fear Him,
[b]That glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth have met together;
[a]Righteousness and peace have

Prayer for Mercy, with Meditation on the Excellencies of the LORD

A Prayer of David.

BOW down Your ear, O LORD, hear
me;
For I am poor and needy.
2 Preserve my [1]life, for I am holy;
You are my God;
Save Your servant who trusts in You!
3 Be merciful to me, O Lord,
For I cry to You all day long.
4 [1]Rejoice the soul of Your servant,
[a]For to You, O Lord, I lift up my soul.
5 For [a]You, Lord, are good, and ready to forgive,
And abundant in mercy to all those who call upon You.

6 Give ear, O LORD, to my prayer;
And attend to the voice of my supplications.
7 In the day of my trouble I will call upon You,
For You will answer me.

8 [a]Among the gods there is none like
You, O Lord;
Nor are there any works like Your
works.
9 All nations whom You have made
Shall come and worship before You,
O Lord,
And shall glorify Your name.
10 For You are great, and [a]do wondrous things;
[b]You alone are God.

11 [a]Teach me Your way, O LORD;
I will walk in Your truth;
[1]Unite my heart to fear Your name.
12 I will praise You, O Lord my God,
with all my heart,
And I will glorify Your name
forevermore.

HISTORICAL*Encounter* HUDSON TAYLOR Ps. 86:7

In September 1853, the young missionary Hudson Taylor set out aboard the Dumfries, on a six month voyage to China from Liverpool. On September 24, the small ship was assaulted by fierce winds as it passed through St. George's Channel between Wales and Ireland. The situation appeared so hopeless that Taylor wrote his name and address in his pocketbook so people could identify his body when it washed ashore. Then he recalled Psalm 86:7. He sensed God leading him to cry out to Him as a testimony to the rest of the crew. God received the glory by answering Taylor's prayer and sparing the ship and its passengers.

85:8 The Hebrew idea of "peace" includes wholeness and well-being.

85:10 Only holy God perfectly balances mercy and truth (John 1:14).

86:13 God had delivered David from imminent death.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 86:11

God's Ways

God's ways are not our ways. We do not think like He does. God must teach us His ways if we are to live by them.

14 O God, the proud have risen against me,
And a mob of violent men have sought my life,
And have not set You before them.
15 But [a]You, O Lord, are a God full of compassion, and gracious, Longsuffering and abundant in mercy and truth.
16 Oh, turn to me, and have mercy on me!
Give Your strength to Your servant,
And save the son of Your maidservant.
17 Show me a sign for good,
That those who hate me may see it and be ashamed,
Because You, LORD, have helped me and comforted me.

PSALM 87

The Glories of the City of God

A Psalm of the sons of Korah. A Song.

HIS foundation is in the holy mountains.
2 [a]The LORD loves the gates of Zion
More than all the dwellings of Jacob.
3 [a]Glorious things are spoken of you,
O city of God! Selah
4 "I will make mention of [1]Rahab and Babylon to those who know Me;
Behold, O Philistia and Tyre, with Ethiopia:
'This one was born there.' "
5 And of Zion it will be said,
"This one and that one were born in her;
And the Most High Himself shall establish her."
6 The LORD will record,
When He [a]registers the peoples:
"This one was born there." Selah
7 Both the singers and the players on instruments say,

PSALM 88

A Prayer for Help in Despondency

A Song. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. To the Chief Musician. Set to "Mahalath Leannoth." A [1]Contemplation of [a]Heman the Ezrahite.

O LORD, [a]God of my salvation,
I have cried out day and night before You.
2 Let my prayer come before You;
[1]Incline Your ear to my cry.
3 For my soul is full of troubles,
And my life [a]draws near to the grave.
4 I am counted with those who [a]go[1] down to the pit;
[b]I am like a man who has no strength,
5 [1]Adrift among the dead,
Like the slain who lie in the grave,
Whom You remember no more,
And who are cut off from Your hand.
6 You have laid me in the lowest pit,
In darkness, in the depths.
7 Your wrath lies heavy upon me,
And You have afflicted me with all [a]Your waves. Selah
8 [a]You have [1]put away my acquaintances far from me;
You have made me an abomination to them;
[b]I am shut up, and I cannot get out;
9 My eye wastes away because of affliction.

[a]LORD, I have called daily upon You;
I have stretched out my hands to You.

Daily

Circumstances come upon us daily in which only God can help us. In those moments we have no choice but to call out to Him and then wait for His answer.

86:15 The Lord made a similar declaration about Himself; see Exodus 34:6.

87:4 Rahab is another name for Egypt (Ps. 89:10; Is. 30:1).

88:3 "The grave" here translates the Hebrew term sheol.

88:6 In Heman's despair, he blames God for placing him in his desperate situation.

10 Will You work wonders for the dead?
Shall [1]the dead arise and praise You? Selah
11 Shall Your lovingkindness be declared in the grave?
Or Your faithfulness in the place of destruction?
12 Shall Your wonders be known in the dark?
And Your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?
13 But to You I have cried out, O LORD,
And in the morning my prayer comes before You.
14 LORD, why do You cast off my soul?
Why do You hide Your face from me?
15 I have been afflicted and ready to die from my youth;
I suffer Your terrors;
I am distraught.
16 Your fierce wrath has gone over me;
Your terrors have [1]cut me off.
17 They came around me all day long like water;
They engulfed me altogether.

PSALM 89

Remembering the Covenant with David, and Sorrow for Lost Blessings

A [1]Contemplation of [a]Ethan the Ezrahite.

I WILL sing of the mercies of the LORD forever;
With my mouth will I make known Your faithfulness to all generations.
2 For I have said, "Mercy shall be built up forever;
[a]Your faithfulness You shall establish in the very heavens."
3 "I[a] have made a covenant with My chosen,
I have [b]sworn to My servant David:
4 'Your seed I will establish forever,
And build up your throne [a]to all generations.' " Selah
5 And [a]the heavens will praise Your wonders, O LORD;
Your faithfulness also in the assembly of the saints.
6 [a]For who in the heavens can be compared to the LORD?
Who among the sons of the mighty can be likened to the LORD?
7 [a]God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints,
And to be held in reverence by all those around Him.
8 O LORD God of hosts,
Who is mighty like You, O LORD?
Your faithfulness also surrounds You.
9 [a]You rule the raging of the sea;
When its waves rise, You still them.
10 [a]You have broken [1]Rahab in pieces, as one who is slain;
You have scattered Your enemies with Your mighty arm.
11 [a]The heavens are Yours, the earth also is Yours;
The world and all its fullness, You have founded them.
12 The north and the south, You have created them;
[a]Tabor and [b]Hermon rejoice in Your name.
13 You have a mighty arm;
Strong is Your hand, and high is Your right hand.
14 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of Your throne;
Mercy and truth go before Your face.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 89:14

Mercy and Truth

Mercy and truth remain constantly before God's face. He always sees us through the vantage points of both justice and loving kindness.

15 Blessed are the people who know the [a]joyful sound!
They walk, O LORD, in the light of Your countenance.
16 In Your name they rejoice all day long,
And in Your righteousness they are exalted.
17 For You are the glory of their strength,
And in Your favor our [1]horn is [a]exalted.
18 For our shield belongs to the LORD,
And our king to the Holy One of Israel.

88:14 God's face shining upon people brought blessing (Num. 6:25), but when He turned away suffering ensued.

88:18 This psalm is unique among the lament psalms as it never finds resolution in trust in God. It ends before God answers Heman's questions.

89:10 "Rahab" is another term for Egypt (87:4).

89:12 Mount Tabor's height is 1,900 feet and Mount Hermon's is 9,000 feet, representing the lowest to the highest.

19 Then You spoke in a vision to Your [1]holy one,
And said: "I have given help to one who is mighty;
I have exalted one [a]chosen from the people.
20 [a]I have found My servant David;
With My holy oil I have anointed him,
21 [a]With whom My hand shall be established;
Also My arm shall strengthen him.
22 The enemy shall not [1]outwit him,
Nor the son of wickedness afflict him.
23 I will beat down his foes before his face,
And plague those who hate him.
24 "But My faithfulness and My mercy shall be with him,
And in My name his horn shall be exalted.
25 Also I will [a]set his hand over the sea,
And his right hand over the rivers.
26 He shall cry to Me, 'You are [a]my Father,
My God, and [b]the rock of my salvation.'
27 Also I will make him [a]My firstborn,
[b]The highest of the kings of the earth.
28 [a]My mercy I will keep for him forever,
And My covenant shall stand firm with him.
29 His seed also I will make to endure forever,
[a]And his throne [b]as the days of heaven.
30 "If[a] his sons [b]forsake My law
And do not walk in My judgments,
31 If they [1]break My statutes
And do not keep My commandments,
32 Then I will punish their transgression with the rod,
And their iniquity with stripes.
33 [a]Nevertheless My lovingkindness I will not [1]utterly take from him,
Nor [2]allow My faithfulness to fail.
34 My covenant I will not break,
Nor [a]alter the word that has gone out of My lips.
35 Once I have sworn [a]by My holiness;
I will not lie to David:
36 [a]His seed shall endure forever,
And his throne [b]as the sun before Me;

God's Promises

God refuses to break His promises to us. We may waver in our faithfulness, but His promises are rock solid.

37 It shall be established forever like the moon,
Even like the faithful witness in the sky." Selah
38 But You have [a]cast off and [b]abhorred,[1]
You have been furious with Your [2]anointed.
39 You have renounced the covenant of Your servant;
[a]You have [1]profaned his crown by casting it to the ground.
40 You have broken down all his hedges;
You have brought his [1]strongholds to ruin.
41 All who pass by the way [a]plunder him;
He is a reproach to his neighbors.
42 You have exalted the right hand of his adversaries;
You have made all his enemies rejoice.
43 You have also turned back the edge of his sword,
And have not sustained him in the battle.
44 You have made his [1]glory cease,
And cast his throne down to the ground.
45 The days of his youth You have shortened;
You have covered him with shame. Selah
46 How long, LORD?
Will You hide Yourself forever?
Will Your wrath burn like fire?
47 Remember how short my time [a]is;
For what [b]futility have You created all the children of men?
48 What man can live and not [1]see [a]death?
Can he deliver his life from the power of [2]the grave? Selah
49 Lord, where are Your former lovingkindnesses,
Which You [a]swore to David [b]in Your truth?
50 Remember, Lord, the reproach of Your servants—

89:32 These terms come from God's covenant with David (2 Sam. 7:14).

89:35 There was no vow more sacred than God swearing by His holiness.

89:38 This psalm may have followed a military defeat suffered by Israel. Defeat was a sign of a broken covenant between God and His people (Deut. 28:25).

[a]How I bear in my bosom the reproach of all the many peoples,
51 [a]With which Your enemies have reproached, O LORD,
With which they have reproached the footsteps of Your [1]anointed.

52 [a]Blessed be the LORD forevermore!
Amen and Amen.

PSALM 90

The Eternity of God, and Man's Frailty

A Prayer [a]of Moses the man of God.

Lord, [a]You have been our [1]dwelling place in all generations.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 90:1

Our Dwelling Place

God does not merely offer us protection; He provides Himself. When we abide in Him, we have everything we could possibly need.

2 [a]Before the mountains were brought forth,
Or ever You [1]had formed the earth and the world,
Even from everlasting to everlasting, You are God.

3 You turn man to destruction,
And say, [a]"Return, O children of men."
4 [a]For a thousand years in Your sight
Are like yesterday when it is past,
And like a watch in the night.
5 You carry them away like a flood;
[a]They are like a sleep.
In the morning [b]they are like grass which grows up:
6 In the morning it flourishes and grows up;
In the evening it is cut down and withers.

7 For we have been consumed by Your anger,
And by Your wrath we are terrified.
8 [a]You have set our iniquities before You,
Our [b]secret sins in the light of Your countenance.

4 [a]Ps. 17:8 [1]A small shield

9 For all our days have passed away in Your wrath;
We finish our years like a sigh.
10 The days of our lives are seventy years;
And if by reason of strength they are eighty years,
Yet their boast is only labor and sorrow;
For it is soon cut off, and we fly away.
11 Who knows the power of Your anger?
For as the fear of You, so is Your wrath.
12 [a]So teach us to number our days,
That we may gain a heart of wisdom.

13 Return, O LORD!
How long?
And [a]have compassion on Your servants.
14 Oh, satisfy us early with Your mercy,
[a]That we may rejoice and be glad all our days!
15 Make us glad according to the days in which You have afflicted us,
The years in which we have seen evil.
16 Let [a]Your work appear to Your servants,
And Your glory to their children.
17 [a]And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us,
And [b]establish the work of our hands for us;
Yes, establish the work of our hands.

PSALM 91

Safety of Abiding in the Presence of God

He [a]who dwells in the secret place of the Most High Shall abide [b]under the shadow of the Almighty.
2 [a]I will say of the LORD, "He is my refuge and my fortress;
My God, in Him I will trust."

3 Surely [a]He shall deliver you from the snare of the [1]fowler
And from the perilous pestilence.
4 [a]He shall cover you with His feathers,
And under His wings you shall take refuge;
His truth shall be your shield and [1]buckler.

90:1 Moses wrote two other poems found in scripture, Exodus 15 and Deuteronomy 32.

90:4 Peter echoes this thought in 2 Peter 3:8.

90:8 God's gaze upon our lives reveals every sin, regardless of how concealed we think it is.

90:10 Seventy to eighty years demonstrates the brevity of life.

90:17 Only God can preserve our life's labors.

91:1 "Almighty" comes from the Hebrew word shaddai. Coupled with "Most High," it portrays God as powerful and exalted.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 91:4

Truth

The safest place in the world is wherever someone is covered by God's truth.

5 [a]You shall not be afraid of the terror by night,
Nor of the arrow that flies by day,
6 Nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness,
Nor of the destruction that lays waste at noonday.

7 A thousand may fall at your side,
And ten thousand at your right hand;
But it shall not come near you.
8 Only [a]with your eyes shall you look,
And see the reward of the wicked.

9 Because you have made the LORD,
who is [a]my refuge,
Even the Most High, [b]your dwelling place,
10 [a]No evil shall befall you,
Nor shall any plague come near your dwelling;
11 [a]For He shall give His angels charge over you,
To keep you in all your ways.
12 In their hands they shall [1]bear you up,
[a]Lest you [2]dash your foot against a stone.
13 You shall tread upon the lion and the cobra,
The young lion and the serpent you shall trample underfoot.

14 "Because he has set his love upon Me, therefore I will deliver him;
I will [1]set him on high, because he has [a]known My name.
15 He shall [a]call upon Me, and I will answer him;
I will be [b]with him in trouble;
I will deliver him and honor him.
16 With [1]long life I will satisfy him,
And show him My salvation."

PSALM 92

Praise to the LORD for His Love and Faithfulness

A Psalm. A Song for the Sabbath day.

IT is [a]good to give thanks to the LORD,
And to sing praises to Your name, O Most High;
2 To [a]declare Your lovingkindness in the morning,
And Your faithfulness every night,
3 [a]On an instrument of ten strings,
On the lute,
And on the harp,
With harmonious sound.
4 For You, LORD, have made me glad through Your work;
I will triumph in the works of Your hands.

5 [a]O LORD, how great are Your works!
[b]Your thoughts are very deep.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 92:5

Deep Thoughts

God's thinking far surpasses our own. Few believers seek to explore the depths of God's thoughts.

6 [a]A senseless man does not know,
Nor does a fool understand this.
7 When [a]the wicked [1]spring up like grass,
And when all the workers of iniquity flourish,
It is that they may be destroyed forever.

8 [a]But You, LORD, are on high forevermore.
9 For behold, Your enemies, O LORD,
For behold, Your enemies shall perish;

CHARLES SPURGEON

Ps. 91:9, 10

During the early years of Charles Spurgeon's ministry in London, the city was swept by a deadly cholera epidemic. Over 2,000 people died in just the first week. Spurgeon exhausted himself tending to the sick and dying as well as performing the funerals of those who succumbed to the illness. Fatigue and the constant specter of death took their toll on the young pastor, sinking him into a state of depression. While returning home from a funeral, the disconsolate minister passed an apothecary shop. In its window was printed Psalm 91:9. Spurgeon immediately claimed the verse for himself, and the dark cloud of depression was lifted from his soul.

91:12 Satan quoted this scripture to Jesus trying to tempt Him to cast Himself from the temple (Matt. 4:5, 6).

92:5 The psalmist is perceptive. God Himself declared His thoughts to be beyond our human reasoning (Is. 55:8, 9).

All the workers of iniquity shall [a]be scattered.

10 But [a]my [1]horn You have exalted like a wild ox;
I have been [b]anointed with fresh oil.
11 [a]My eye also has seen my desire on my enemies;
My ears hear my desire on the wicked
Who rise up against me.

12 [a]The righteous shall flourish like a palm tree,
He shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
13 Those who are planted in the house of the LORD
Shall flourish in the courts of our God.
14 They shall still bear fruit in old age;
They shall be [1]fresh and [2]flourishing,
15 To declare that the LORD is upright;
[a]He is my rock, and [b]there is no unrighteousness in Him.

PSALM 93

The Eternal Reign of the LORD

THE [a]LORD reigns, He is clothed with majesty;
The LORD is clothed,
[b]He has girded Himself with strength.
Surely the world is established, so that it cannot be [1]moved.
2 [a]Your throne is established from of old;
You are from everlasting.

3 The floods have [1]lifted up, O LORD,
The floods have lifted up their voice;
The floods lift up their waves.
4 [a]The LORD on high is mightier
Than the noise of many waters,
Than the mighty waves of the sea.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 93:4

Floods

In the midst of the deafening tumult, nothing can muffle God's clear voice. He will not be silenced regardless of the clamor of events around us.

PSALM 94

God the Refuge of the Righteous

O LORD God, [a]to whom vengeance belongs—
O God, to whom vengeance belongs, shine forth!
2 Rise up, O [a]Judge of the earth;
[1]Render punishment to the proud.
3 LORD, [a]how long will the wicked,
How long will the wicked triumph?

4 They [a]utter speech, and speak insolent things;
All the workers of iniquity boast in themselves.
5 They break in pieces Your people, O LORD,
And afflict Your heritage.
6 They slay the widow and the stranger,
And murder the fatherless.
7 [a]Yet they say, "The LORD does not see,
Nor does the God of Jacob [1]understand."

8 Understand, you senseless among the people;
And you fools, when will you be wise?
9 [a]He who planted the ear, shall He not hear?
He who formed the eye, shall He not see?
10 He who [1]instructs the [2]nations, shall He not correct,
He who teaches man knowledge?
11 The LORD [a]knows the thoughts of man,
That they are futile.

12 Blessed is the man whom You [a]instruct, O LORD,
And teach out of Your law,
13 That You may give him [1]rest from the days of adversity,
Until the pit is dug for the wicked.
14 For the LORD will not [1]cast off His people,
Nor will He forsake His inheritance.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 94:12–14

Blessed Is the Man

God's instruction is life-giving. He will apply His word specifically where we need it, and though there is discomfort, there will be healing and relief.

92:12 The palm tree stood straight and erect. The cedar was majestic and strong.

93:4 Baal was supposed to be the ruler over the floods. The psalmist makes it clear that God is sovereign over nature.

94:3 The psalmist believed God would rebuke the wicked. However, God is sovereign over the timing of His judgment.

94:6 These people were all vulnerable and near to God's heart (Ex. 22:21, 22; Deut. 10:18, 19; Ps. 146:9).

15 But judgment will return to righteousness,
And all the upright in heart will follow it.
16 Who will rise up for me against the evildoers?
Who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?
17 Unless the LORD had been my help,
My soul would soon have settled in silence.
18 If I say, "My foot slips,"
Your mercy, O LORD, will hold me up.
19 In the multitude of my anxieties within me,
Your comforts delight my soul.
20 Shall [a]the throne of iniquity, which devises evil by law,
Have fellowship with You?
21 They gather together against the life of the righteous,
And condemn [a]innocent blood.
22 But the LORD has been my defense,
And my God the rock of my refuge.
23 He has brought on them their own iniquity,
And shall [1]cut them off in their own wickedness;
The LORD our God shall cut them off.

PSALM 95

A Call to Worship and Obedience

OH come, let us sing to the LORD!
Let us shout joyfully to the Rock of our salvation.
2 Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving;
Let us shout joyfully to Him with [a]psalms.
3 For [a]the LORD is the great God,
And the great King above all gods.
4 [1]In His hand are the deep places of the earth;
The heights of the hills are His also.
5 [a]The sea is His, for He made it;
And His hands formed the dry land.
6 Oh come, let us worship and bow down;
Let [a]us kneel before the LORD our Maker.
7 For He is our God,
And [a]we are the people of His pasture,
And the sheep [1]of His hand.

[b]Today, if you will hear His voice:
8 "Do not harden your hearts, as in the [1]rebellion,
[a]As in the day of [2]trial in the wilderness,
9 When [a]your fathers tested Me;
They tried Me, though they [b]saw My work.

94:20 "Throne of iniquity" refers to the wicked who have great earthly power.

95:6 The terms "bow down" and "kneel" picture sincere, humble worship.

95:8 The prerequisite to hearing God's voice is a tender heart.

95:10 Here God reveals His sorrow as He disciplined His wayward people in the wilderness.

11 [a]Heb. 4:3, 5

ENCOUNTER Note — Ps. 95:7–9

If You Will Hear

Our ability to hear God's voice is directly related to the receptiveness of our heart.

10 For [a]forty years I was [1]grieved with that generation,
And said, 'It is a people who go astray in their hearts,
And they do not know My ways.'
11 So [a]I swore in My wrath,
'They shall not enter My rest.' "

PSALM 96

A Song of Praise to God Coming in Judgment

OH, [a]sing to the LORD a new song!
Sing to the LORD, all the earth.
2 Sing to the LORD, bless His name;
Proclaim the good news of His salvation from day to day.
3 Declare His glory among the [1]nations,
His wonders among all peoples.
4 For [a]the LORD is great and [b]greatly to be praised;
[c]He is to be feared above all gods.
5 For [a]all the gods of the peoples are idols,
[b]But the LORD made the heavens.
6 Honor and majesty are before Him;
Strength and [a]beauty are in His sanctuary.
7 [a]Give[1] to the LORD, O families of the peoples,
Give to the LORD glory and strength.
8 [1]Give to the LORD the glory due His name;

95:11 God's promise of rest is discussed in Hebrews 4:1–13.

96:3 This is a missionary commission given to God's people in the Old Testament.

96:7 "Families of the peoples" may refer to God's promise to bless the people of the earth through Abraham and his descendants (Gen. 12:3).

Give Glory

Our worship ought to reflect who God is rather than focusing on ourselves.

9 Oh, worship the LORD [a]in the beauty of holiness!
Tremble before Him, all the earth.
10 Say among the [1]nations, [a]"The LORD reigns;
The world also is firmly established,
It shall not be [2]moved;
[b]He shall judge the peoples
righteously."
11 [a]Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;
[b]Let the sea roar, and [1]all its
fullness;
12 Let the field be joyful, and all that is in it.
Then all the trees of the woods will rejoice
before the LORD.
13 For He is coming, for He is coming to judge the earth.
[a]He shall judge the world with
righteousness,
And the peoples with His truth.

PSALM 97

A Song of Praise to the Sovereign LORD

THE LORD [a]reigns;
Let the earth rejoice;
Let the multitude of [1]isles be glad!
2 [a]Clouds and darkness surround Him;
[b]Righteousness and justice are the foundation of His throne.
3 [a]A fire goes before Him,
And burns up His enemies round about.
4 [a]His lightnings light the world;
The earth sees and trembles.
5 [a]The mountains melt like wax at the presence of the LORD,
At the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.
6 [a]The heavens declare His
righteousness,
And all the peoples see His glory.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 97:5

The Presence of the Lord

God's presence is powerful enough to melt mountains, yet it abides within each believer.

7 [a]Let all be put to shame who serve carved images,
Who boast of idols.
[b]Worship Him, all you gods.
8 Zion hears and is glad,
And the daughters of Judah rejoice
Because of Your judgments,
O LORD.
9 For You, LORD, are [a]most high above all the earth;
[b]You are exalted far above all gods.
10 You who love the LORD, [a]hate evil!
[b]He preserves the souls of His saints;
[c]He delivers them out of the hand of
the wicked.
11 [a]Light is sown for the righteous,
And gladness for the upright in heart.
12 [a]Rejoice in the LORD, you righteous,
[b]And give thanks [1]at the remembrance of [2]His holy name.

A New Song

Each time God does a fresh work in our lives we add a new verse to our song praising His name!

2 [a]The LORD has made known His
salvation;
[b]His righteousness He has revealed in the sight of the [1]nations.
3 He has remembered His mercy and
His faithfulness to the house of Israel;

96:9 "The beauty of His holiness" is a poetic expression describing the wonder of God's perfect nature. We are to tremble in reverence, not in dread.

97:4 This may allude to the lightning on Mount Sinai which terrified the Israelites (Ex. 19:16).

97:8 See also Psalm 48:11.

97:9 "Far above all other gods" does not imply that other gods actually exist but rather it portrays God as far superior to any known or imagined powers.

97:10 Detesting evil is a byproduct of loving God. You cannot love God and enjoy what He despises.

97:11 "Light is sown" could also be "light dawns."

[a]All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
4 Shout joyfully to the LORD, all the
earth;
Break forth in song, rejoice, and sing praises.
5 Sing to the LORD with the harp,
With the harp and the sound of a
psalm,
6 With trumpets and the sound of a horn;
Shout joyfully before the LORD, the King.
7 Let the sea roar, and all its fullness,
The world and those who dwell in
it;
8 Let the rivers clap their hands;
Let the hills be joyful together
9 before the LORD,
[a]For He is coming to judge the earth.
With righteousness He shall judge
the world,
And the peoples with [1]equity.

PSALM 99

Praise to the LORD for His Holiness

THE LORD reigns;
Let the peoples tremble!
[a]He dwells between the cherubim;
Let the earth be [1]moved!

WORD Study — CHERUBIM

Ps. 99:1 Cherubim are winged angelic beings, often associated with worship and praise of God. The cherubim are first mentioned in the Bible in Genesis 3:24. When God drove Adam and Eve from the Garden of Eden, He placed cherubim at the east of the garden, "and a flaming sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the tree of life." This passage in Psalm 99 alludes to representations of cherubim that were placed over the ark of the covenant. See also Psalm 18:10 and Ezek 1:5; 10:2.

2 The LORD is great in Zion,
And He is high above all the peoples.
3 Let them praise Your great and awesome name—
[1]He is holy.
4 The King's strength also loves
justice;
You have established equity;
You have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob.
5 Exalt the LORD our God,
And worship at His footstool—
He is holy.
6 Moses and Aaron were among His priests,
And Samuel was among those who
[a]called upon His name;
They called upon the LORD, and He answered them.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 99:6

God's Answer

When we call upon the Lord, the question is not, "Will He answer us?" but "Will we be prepared to accept His answer?" For it will come.

7 He spoke to them in the cloudy
pillar;
They kept His testimonies and the
[1]ordinance He gave them.
8 You answered them, O LORD our
God;
You were to them God-Who-
Forgives,
Though You took vengeance on their deeds.
9 Exalt the LORD our God,
And worship at His holy hill;
For the LORD our God is holy.

PSALM 100

A Song of Praise for the LORD's Faithfulness to His People

[a]A Psalm of Thanksgiving.

MAKE [a]a joyful shout to the LORD,
[1]all you lands!

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 100:1

A Joyful Shout

Serving God is an exhilarating experience. Joy ought to bubble up within us as we fellowship with Him.

2 Serve the LORD with gladness;
Come before His presence with singing.

98:4 Singing praise to God is a recurring theme in Isaiah's prophecies. See Isaiah 14:7; 44:23; and 55:12.

98:9 Those who love the Lord do not dread His coming to judge the earth. They long for that day.

99:5 The earth is often described as God's footstool (Is. 66:1). Zion is also described this way emphasizing God's mastery over all creation (Ps. 132:7; Is. 60:13).

99:6 This is the only mention of Samuel in the Psalms. When Moses, Aaron and Samuel prayed, God answered them because of their close walk of faith with Him.

100:2 Worship is to be reverent, but not necessarily somber. Those who love God have every reason to rejoice and be glad.

3 Know that the LORD, He is God;
[a]It is He who has made us, and [1]not we ourselves;
[b]We are His people and the sheep of His pasture.

4 [a]Enter into His gates with thanksgiving,
And into His courts with praise.
Be thankful to Him, and bless His name.

5 For the LORD is good;
[a]His mercy is everlasting,
And His truth endures to all generations.

PSALM 101

Promised Faithfulness to the LORD

A Psalm of David.

I WILL sing of mercy and justice;
To You, O LORD, I will sing praises.

2 I will behave wisely in a [1]perfect way.
Oh, when will You come to me?
I will [a]walk within my house with a perfect heart.

3 I will set nothing [1]wicked before my eyes;
[a]I hate the work of those [b]who fall away;
It shall not cling to me.

ENCOUNTER Note — Ps. 101:3

Blameless

Every child of God should be passionate about avoiding evil. God is holy. If we are to honor Him we must actively pursue holiness. Blamelessness requires a determined effort to avoid sin.

4 A perverse heart shall depart from me;
I will not [a]know wickedness.

5 Whoever secretly slanders his neighbor,
Him I will destroy;
[a]The one who has a haughty look and a proud heart,
Him I will not endure.

6 My eyes shall be on the faithful of the land,
That they may dwell with me;
He who walks in a [1]perfect way,
He shall serve me.

7 He who works deceit shall not dwell within my house;
He who tells lies shall not [1]continue in my presence.

8 [a]Early I will destroy all the wicked of the land,
That I may cut off all the evildoers
[b]from the city of the LORD.

PSALM 102

The LORD's Eternal Love

A Prayer of the afflicted, [a]when he is overwhelmed and pours out his complaint before the LORD.

HEAR my prayer, O LORD,
And let my cry come to You.

2 [a]Do not hide Your face from me in the day of my trouble;
Incline Your ear to me;
In the day that I call, answer me speedily.

ENCOUNTER Note — Ps. 102:2

In the Day I Call

Adversity drives us to God. His nearness then may be largely determined by how we walked with Him during times of prosperity.

3 For my days [1]are [a]consumed like smoke,
And my bones are burned like a hearth.

4 My heart is stricken and withered like grass,
So that I forget to eat my bread.

5 Because of the sound of my groaning
My bones cling to my [1]skin.

6 I am like a pelican of the wilderness;
I am like an owl of the desert.

7 I lie awake,
And am like a sparrow alone on the housetop.

8 My enemies reproach me all day long;
Those who deride me swear an oath against me.

9 For I have eaten ashes like bread,
And mingled my drink with weeping,

100:3 "The sheep of His pasture" indicates a sense of identity. God's people know where they belong: with Him.

101:2 A "perfect heart" may indicate the psalmist's desire to live a godly life before his family.

101:4 Refusing to "know" wickedness means we refuse to fill our minds with it or to take it in with our eyes (3).

102:1 Examples of beseeching God to hear prayer are found also in Psalm 39:12; 54:2; 61:1; and 64:1.

102:6 The psalmist identifies with a pelican, an owl and a sparrow all of which inhabit lonely, isolated regions.

10 Because of Your indignation and Your wrath;
For You have lifted me up and cast me away.
11 My days are like a shadow that lengthens,
And I wither away like grass.
12 But You, O LORD, shall endure forever,
And the remembrance of Your name to all generations.
13 You will arise and have mercy on Zion;
For the time to favor her,
Yes, the set time, has come.
14 For Your servants take pleasure in her stones,
And show favor to her dust.
15 So the [1]nations shall [a]fear the name of the LORD,
And all the kings of the earth Your glory.
16 For the LORD shall build up Zion;
[a]He shall appear in His glory.
17 [a]He shall regard the prayer of the destitute,
And shall not despise their prayer.
18 This will be [a]written for the generation to come,
That [b]a people yet to be created may praise the LORD.
19 For He [a]looked down from the height of His sanctuary;
From heaven the LORD viewed the earth,
20 [a]To hear the groaning of the prisoner,
To release those appointed to death,
21 To [a]declare the name of the LORD in Zion,
And His praise in Jerusalem,
22 [a]When the peoples are gathered together,
And the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.
23 He weakened my strength in the way;
He [a]shortened my days.
24 [a]I said, "O my God,
Do not take me away in the midst of my days;
[b]Your years are throughout all generations.
25 [a]Of old You laid the foundation of the earth,
And the heavens are the work of Your hands.
26 [a]They will perish, but You will [1]endure;
Yes, they will all grow old like a garment;
Like a cloak You will change them,
And they will be changed.
27 But [a]You are the same,
And Your years will have no end.

DUNCAN CAMPBELL

Ps. 103:1

A young Scot named Duncan Campbell served in the British army during World War One. In April 1918 he participated in one of the last cavalry charges of the war during which his horse was shot from under him. As he lay wounded on the battlefield, a Canadian cavalry unit charged past him. One of the Canadian soldiers found him and brought him to a medical station. As he lay wounded, Campbell had prayed the prayer of Robert Murray M'Cheyne, "Lord, make me as holy as a saved sinner can be." As the Holy Spirit's purifying presence flooded Campbell's soul as he lay in the hospital, he spontaneously began quoting Psalm 103 in the Gaelic language. Soon, seven Canadian soldiers lying nearby were gloriously saved. This life-changing experience propelled Campbell into a lifetime of Christian ministry. God would use him mightily to bring revival to the Hebrides islands of Scotland and to encourage countless people through his life and message.

102:25–27 This passage from Psalms is applied to Christ in Hebrews 1:10–12.

3 [a]Who forgives all your iniquities,
Who [b]heals all your diseases,
4 Who redeems your life from destruction,
[a]Who crowns you with lovingkindness and tender mercies,
5 Who satisfies your mouth with good things,
So that [a]your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

6 The LORD executes righteousness
And justice for all who are oppressed.
7 [a]He made known His ways to Moses,
His acts to the children of Israel.
8 [a]The LORD is merciful and gracious,
Slow to anger, and abounding in mercy.
9 [a]He will not always strive with us,
Nor will He keep His anger forever.
10 [a]He has not dealt with us according to our sins,
Nor punished us according to our iniquities.

11 For as the heavens are high above the earth,
So great is His mercy toward those who fear Him;
12 As far as the east is from the west,
So far has He [a]removed our transgressions from us.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 103:12

The East and West

When God begins working in your life, the first thing He addresses is your sin. He seeks to remove it so far from you that it can no longer rob you of His promises for your life.

13 [a]As a father pities his children,
So the LORD pities those who fear Him.
14 For He [1]knows our frame;
He remembers that we are dust.

15 As for man, [a]his days are like grass;
As a flower of the field, so he flourishes.
16 [a]For the wind passes over it, and it is [1]gone,
And [b]its place remembers it no more.
17 But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting
On those who fear Him,
And His righteousness to children's children,
18 [a]To such as keep His covenant,
And to those who remember His commandments to do them.

19 The LORD has established His throne in heaven,
And [a]His kingdom rules over all.

20 [a]Bless the LORD, you His angels,
Who excel in strength, who [b]do His word,
Heeding the voice of His word.
21 Bless the LORD, all you His hosts,
[a]You [1]ministers of His, who do His pleasure.
22 Bless the LORD, all His works,
In all places of His dominion.

Bless the LORD, O my soul!

PSALM 104

Praise to the Sovereign LORD for His Creation and Providence

BLESS [a]the LORD, O my soul!

O LORD my God, You are very great:
You are clothed with honor and majesty,
2 Who cover Yourself with light as with a garment,
Who stretch out the heavens like a curtain.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 104:2

The God of Light

God is clothed with holy, brilliant, penetrating light. His presence dispels the darkness and reveals every hidden thing.

3 [a]He lays the beams of His upper chambers in the waters,
Who makes the clouds His chariot,
Who walks on the wings of the wind,
4 Who makes His angels spirits,
His [1]ministers a flame of fire.

5 You who [1]laid the foundations of the earth,
So that it should not be moved forever,
6 You [a]covered it with the deep as with a garment;

103:3 The first praise the psalmist offered to the Lord was for God's forgiveness.

103:7 The people of Israel could not have missed God's spectacular acts. Moses saw God's activity too, but he also saw beyond the miracle to God's heart.

103:14 God, our Creator, understands us better than we know ourselves.

104:3 God's sovereignty over creation is also praised in Amos 9:6. Baal was often portrayed as riding in the clouds, but here it is clear that the heavens are God's domain.

The waters stood above the mountains.
7 At Your rebuke they fled;
At the voice of Your thunder they hastened away.
8 [1]They went up over the mountains;
They went down into the valleys,
To the place which You founded for them.
9 You have [a]set a boundary that they may not pass over,
[b]That they may not return to cover the earth.

10 He sends the springs into the valleys;
They flow among the hills.
11 They give drink to every beast of the field;
The wild donkeys quench their thirst.
12 By them the birds of the heavens have their home;
They sing among the branches.
13 [a]He waters the hills from His upper chambers;
The earth is satisfied with [b]the fruit of Your works.

14 [a]He causes the grass to grow for the cattle,
And vegetation for the service of man,
That he may bring forth [b]food from the earth,
15 And [a]wine that makes glad the heart of man,
Oil to make his face shine,
And bread which strengthens man's heart.
16 The trees of the LORD are full of sap,
The cedars of Lebanon which He planted,
17 Where the birds make their nests;
The stork has her home in the fir trees.
18 The high hills are for the wild goats;
The cliffs are a refuge for the [a]rock[1] badgers.

19 [a]He appointed the moon for seasons;
The [b]sun knows its going down.
20 [a]You make darkness, and it is night,
In which all the beasts of the forest creep about.
21 [a]The young lions roar after their prey,
And seek their food from God.
22 When the sun rises, they gather together
And lie down in their dens.
23 Man goes out to [a]his work
And to his labor until the evening.

24 [a]O LORD, how manifold are Your works!
In wisdom You have made them all.
The earth is full of Your [b]possessions—
25 This great and wide sea,
In which are innumerable teeming things,
Living things both small and great.
26 There the ships sail about;
There is that [a]Leviathan[1]
Which You have [2]made to play there.

27 [a]These all wait for You,
That You may give them their food in due season.
28 What You give them they gather in;
You open Your hand, they are filled with good.
29 You hide Your face, they are troubled;
[a]You take away their breath, they die and return to their dust.
30 [a]You send forth Your Spirit, they are created;
And You renew the face of the earth.

31 May the glory of the LORD endure forever;
May the LORD [a]rejoice in His works.
32 He looks on the earth, and it [a]trembles;
[b]He touches the hills, and they smoke.

33 [a]I will sing to the LORD as long as I live;
I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.
34 May my [a]meditation be sweet to Him;
I will be glad in the LORD.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 104:34

PSALM 105

The Eternal Faithfulness of the LORD

OH, [a]give thanks to the LORD!
Call upon His name;
[b]Make known His deeds among the peoples!
2 Sing to Him, sing psalms to Him;
[a]Talk of all His wondrous works!
3 Glory in His holy name;
Let the hearts of those rejoice who seek the LORD!
4 Seek the LORD and His strength;
[a]Seek His face evermore!
5 [a]Remember His marvelous works which He has done,
His wonders, and the judgments of His mouth,
6 O seed of Abraham His servant,
You children of Jacob, His chosen ones!

7 He is the LORD our God;
[a]His judgments are in all the earth.
8 He [a]remembers His covenant forever,
The word which He commanded, for a thousand generations,
9 [a]The covenant which He made with Abraham,
And His oath to Isaac,
10 And confirmed it to Jacob for a statute,
To Israel as an everlasting covenant,
11 Saying, [a]"To you I will give the land of Canaan
As the allotment of your inheritance,"
12 [a]When they were few in number,
Indeed very few, [b]and strangers in it.

13 When they went from one nation to another,
From one kingdom to another people,
14 [a]He permitted no one to do them wrong;
Yes, [b]He rebuked kings for their sakes,
15 Saying, "Do not touch My anointed ones,
And do My prophets no harm."

16 Moreover [a]He called for a famine in the land;
He destroyed all the [b]provision of bread.
17 [a]He sent a man before them—
Joseph—who [b]was sold as a slave.
18 [a]They hurt his feet with fetters,
[1]He was laid in irons.

Tested

Our lives are measured by God's word. How we respond to His word reveals what is within us.

20 [a]The king sent and released him,
The ruler of the people let him go free.
21 [a]He made him lord of his house,
And ruler of all his possessions,
22 To [1]bind his princes at his pleasure,
And teach his elders wisdom.

23 [a]Israel also came into Egypt,
And Jacob dwelt [b]in the land of Ham.
24 [a]He increased His people greatly,
And made them stronger than their enemies.
25 [a]He turned their heart to hate His people,
To deal craftily with His servants.

26 [a]He sent Moses His servant,
And Aaron whom He had chosen.
27 They [a]performed His signs among them,
And wonders in the land of Ham.
28 He sent darkness, and made it dark;
And they did not rebel against His word.
29 [a]He turned their waters into blood,
And killed their fish.
30 [a]Their land abounded with frogs,
Even in the chambers of their kings.
31 [a]He spoke, and there came swarms of flies,
And lice in all their territory.
32 [a]He gave them hail for rain,
And flaming fire in their land.
33 [a]He struck their vines also, and their fig trees,
And splintered the trees of their territory.
34 [a]He spoke, and locusts came,
Young locusts without number,
35 And ate up all the vegetation in their land,
And devoured the fruit of their ground.
36 [a]He also [1]destroyed all the firstborn in their land,
[b]The first of all their strength.

105:1 God's people are obligated to spread His word so others may hear.

105:15 God protected the patriarchs from powerful rulers who might have taken advantage of them (Gen. 12:17; 35:5).

37 [a]He also brought them out with silver and gold,
And there was none feeble among His tribes.
38 [a]Egypt was glad when they departed,
For the fear of them had fallen upon them.
39 [a]He spread a cloud for a covering,
And fire to give light in the night.
40 [a]The people asked, and He brought quail,
And [b]satisfied them with the bread of heaven.
41 [a]He opened the rock, and water gushed out;
It ran in the dry places like a river.
42 For He remembered [a]His holy promise,
And Abraham His servant.
43 He brought out His people with joy,
His chosen ones with [1]gladness.
44 [a]He gave them the lands of the [1]Gentiles,
And they inherited the labor of the nations,
45 [a]That they might observe His statutes
And keep His laws.

PSALM 106

Joy in Forgiveness of Israel's Sins

PRAISE[1] the LORD!

[a]Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!
For His mercy endures forever.
2 Who can [1]utter the mighty acts of the LORD?
Who can declare all His praise?
3 Blessed are those who keep justice,
And [1]he who [a]does righteousness at [b]all times!
4 [a]Remember me, O LORD, with the favor You have toward Your people.
Oh, visit me with Your salvation,
5 That I may see the benefit of Your chosen ones,
That I may rejoice in the gladness of Your nation,
That I may glory with [1]Your inheritance.
6 [a]We have sinned with our fathers,
We have committed iniquity,
We have done wickedly.
7 Our fathers in Egypt did not understand Your wonders;
They did not remember the multitude of Your mercies,
[a]But rebelled by the sea—the Red Sea.
8 Nevertheless He saved them for His name's sake,
[a]That He might make His mighty power known.
9 [a]He rebuked the Red Sea also, and it dried up;
So [b]He led them through the depths,
As through the wilderness.
10 He [a]saved them from the hand of him who hated them,
And redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.
11 [a]The waters covered their enemies;
There was not one of them left.
12 [a]Then they believed His words;
They sang His praise.
13 [a]They soon forgot His works;
They did not wait for His counsel,
14 [a]But lusted exceedingly in the wilderness,
And tested God in the desert.
15 [a]And He gave them their request,
But [b]sent leanness into their soul.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 106:15

Leanness

God is not our servant. If we insist on pestering Him with selfish requests, He may give us what we ask, but along with His answer will come spiritual barrenness.

16 When [a]they envied Moses in the camp,
And Aaron the saint of the LORD,
17 [a]The earth opened up and swallowed Dathan,
And covered the faction of Abiram.
18 [a]A fire was kindled in their company;
The flame burned up the wicked.
19 [a]They made a calf in Horeb,
And worshiped the molded image.
20 Thus [a]they changed their glory
Into the image of an ox that eats grass.
21 They forgot God their Savior,
Who had done great things in Egypt,
22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham,
Awesome things by the Red Sea.

19 [a]Ex. 32:1–4
20 [a]Rom. 1:23

105:42 Often God blessed one generation in fulfillment of His promise to an earlier generation.

106:18 This historical passage refers to Numbers 16:35.

23 [a]Therefore He said that He would destroy them,
Had not Moses His chosen one [b]stood before Him in the breach,
To turn away His wrath, lest He destroy them.

24 Then they despised [a]the pleasant land;
They [b]did not believe His word,
25 [a]But complained in their tents,
And did not heed the voice of the LORD.
26 [a]Therefore He raised His hand in an oath against them,
[b]To [1]overthrow them in the wilderness,
27 [a]To [1]overthrow their descendants among the [2]nations,
And to scatter them in the lands.

28 [a]They joined themselves also to Baal of Peor,
And ate sacrifices [1]made to the dead.
29 Thus they provoked Him to anger with their deeds,
And the plague broke out among them.
30 [a]Then Phinehas stood up and intervened,
And the plague was stopped.
31 And that was accounted to him [a]for righteousness
To all generations forevermore.

32 [a]They angered Him also at the waters of [1]strife,
[b]So that it went ill with Moses on account of them;
33 [a]Because they rebelled against His Spirit,
So that he spoke rashly with his lips.

34 [a]They did not destroy the peoples,
[b]Concerning whom the LORD had commanded them,
35 [a]But they mingled with the Gentiles
And learned their works;
36 [a]They served their idols,
[b]Which became a snare to them.
37 [a]They even sacrificed their sons
And their daughters to [b]demons,
38 And shed innocent blood,
The blood of their sons and daughters,
Whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan;
And [a]the land was polluted with blood.
39 Thus they [1]were [a]defiled by their own works,
And [b]played[2] the harlot by their own deeds.

40 Therefore [a]the wrath of the LORD was kindled against His people,
So that He abhorred [b]His own inheritance.
41 And [a]He gave them into the hand of the Gentiles,
And those who hated them ruled over them.
42 Their enemies also oppressed them,
And they were brought into subjection under their hand.
43 [a]Many times He delivered them;
But they rebelled in their counsel,
And were brought low for their iniquity.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 106:43

Rebellious Counsel

Being satisfied with our own opinion rather than seeking God's counsel is rebellion. He wants to guide us.

44 Nevertheless He regarded their affliction,
When [a]He heard their cry;
45 [a]And for their sake He remembered His covenant,
And [b]relented [c]according to the multitude of His mercies.
46 [a]He also made them to be pitied
By all those who carried them away captive.

47 [a]Save us, O LORD our God,
And gather us from among the Gentiles,
To give thanks to Your holy name,
To triumph in Your praise.

48 [a]Blessed be the LORD God of Israel
From everlasting to everlasting!
And let all the people say, "Amen!"

[1]Praise the LORD!

2 Let the redeemed of the LORD say so,
Whom He has redeemed from the hand of the enemy,
3 And [a]gathered out of the lands,
From the east and from the west,
From the north and from the south.

4 They wandered in [a]the wilderness in a desolate way;
They found no city to dwell in.
5 Hungry and thirsty,
Their soul fainted in them.
6 [a]Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble,
And He delivered them out of their distresses.
7 And He led them forth by the [a]right way,
That they might go to a city for a dwelling place.
8 [a]Oh, that men would give thanks to the LORD for His goodness,
And for His wonderful works to the children of men!
9 For [a]He satisfies the longing soul,
And fills the hungry soul with goodness.

10 Those who [a]sat in darkness and in the shadow of death,
[b]Bound[1] in affliction and irons—
11 Because they [a]rebelled against the words of God,
And [1]despised [b]the counsel of the Most High,
12 Therefore He brought down their heart with labor;
They fell down, and there was [a]none to help.
13 Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble,
And He saved them out of their distresses.
14 [a]He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death,
And broke their chains in pieces.
15 Oh, that men would give thanks to the LORD for His goodness,
And for His wonderful works to the children of men!
16 For He has [a]broken the gates of bronze,
And cut the bars of iron in two.

17 Fools, [a]because of their transgression,
And because of their iniquities, were afflicted.
18 [a]Their soul abhorred all manner of food,
And they [b]drew near to the gates of death.

And [c]delivered them from their destructions.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 107:20

God's Healing Word

The advice of other people may bring help; God's word brings healing. Only words from God can set you free.

21 Oh, that men would give thanks to the LORD for His goodness,
And for His wonderful works to the children of men!
22 [a]Let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving,
And [b]declare His works with [1]rejoicing.

23 Those who go down to the sea in ships,
Who do business on great waters,
24 They see the works of the LORD,
And His wonders in the deep.
25 For He commands and [a]raises the stormy wind,
Which lifts up the waves of the sea.
26 They mount up to the heavens,
They go down again to the depths;
[a]Their soul melts because of trouble.
27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man,
And [1]are at their wits' end.
28 Then they cry out to the LORD in their trouble,
And He brings them out of their distresses.
29 [a]He calms the storm,
So that its waves are still.
30 Then they are glad because they are quiet;
So He guides them to their desired haven.
31 [a]Oh, that men would give thanks to the LORD for His goodness,
And for His wonderful works to the children of men!
32 Let them exalt Him also [a]in the assembly of the people,
And praise Him in the company of the elders.

33 He [a]turns rivers into a wilderness,
And the watersprings into dry ground;
34 A [a]fruitful land into [1]barrenness,

33 [a]1 Kin. 17:1, 7
34 [a]Gen. 13:10 [1]Lit. a salty waste

107:8 One of humanity's most prevalent, and most grievous sins is ingratitude to God (15, 21, 31).

107:17 The term "fools" indicates these people deserved the punishments they were enduring.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 107:31

Spontaneous Thanksgiving

In the midst of God's continuous activity, our lives ought to be punctuated by spontaneous, zealous praise for His goodness.

For the wickedness of those who dwell in it.
35 [a]He turns a wilderness into pools of water,
And dry land into watersprings.
36 There He makes the hungry dwell,
That they may establish a city for a dwelling place,
37 And sow fields and plant vineyards,
That they may yield a fruitful harvest.
38 [a]He also blesses them, and they multiply greatly;
And He does not let their cattle [b]decrease.

39 When they are [a]diminished and brought low
Through oppression, affliction, and sorrow,
40 [a]He pours contempt on princes,
And causes them to wander in the wilderness where there is no way;
41 [a]Yet He sets the poor on high, far from affliction,
And [b]makes their families like a flock.
42 [a]The righteous see it and rejoice,
And all [b]iniquity stops its mouth.

43 [a]Whoever is wise will observe these things,
And they will understand the lovingkindness of the LORD.

PSALM 108

Assurance of God's Victory over Enemies

A Song. A Psalm of David.

O [a]GOD, my heart is steadfast;
I will sing and give praise, even with my glory.
2 [a]Awake, lute and harp!
I will awaken the dawn.
3 I will praise You, O LORD, among the peoples,
And I will sing praises to You among the nations.
4 For Your mercy is great above the [1]heavens,
And Your truth reaches to the clouds.
5 [a]Be exalted, O God, above the heavens,
And Your glory above all the earth;
6 [a]That Your beloved may be delivered,
Save with Your right hand, and [1]hear me.

7 God has spoken in His holiness:
"I will rejoice;
I will divide Shechem
And measure out the Valley of Succoth.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 108:7

Holy Speech

God's words are pure and holy. Those who regularly receive His words and obey them will become pure and holy as well.

8 Gilead is Mine; Manasseh is Mine;
Ephraim also is the [1]helmet for My head;
[a]Judah is My lawgiver.
9 Moab is My washpot;
Over Edom I will cast My shoe;
Over Philistia I will triumph."

10 [a]Who will bring me into the strong city?
Who will lead me to Edom?
11 Is it not You, O God, who cast us off?
And You, O God, who did not go out with our armies?
12 Give us help from trouble,
For the help of man is useless.
13 [a]Through God we will do valiantly,
For it is He who shall tread down our enemies.

PSALM 109

Plea for Judgment of False Accusers

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

D O [a]not keep silent,
O God of my praise!
2 For the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful
Have opened against me;
They have spoken against me with a [a]lying tongue.
3 They have also surrounded me with words of hatred,
And fought against me [a]without a cause.

107:42 God's people recognize expressions of His goodness and they are diligent to praise Him in response.

108:2 The psalmist wanted to begin praising God early in the morning.

108:7 God uses innumerable ways to speak to us, but He always speaks in holiness and in power.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 109:3

Words of Hatred

Our enemies can be fierce and their words cruel. Yet the smallest word from God outweighs the most barbarous verbal onslaught of an accuser.

4 In return for my love they are my accusers,
But I give myself to prayer.
5 Thus [a]they have rewarded me evil for good,
And hatred for my love.
6 Set a wicked man over him,
And let [a]an [1]accuser stand at his right hand.
7 When he is judged, let him be found guilty,
And [a]let his prayer become sin.
8 Let his days be [a]few,
And [b]let another take his office.
9 [a]Let his children be fatherless,
And his wife a widow.
10 Let his children [1]continually be vagabonds, and beg;
Let them [2]seek their bread also from their desolate places.
11 [a]Let the creditor seize all that he has,
And let strangers plunder his labor.
12 Let there be none to extend mercy to him,
Nor let there be any to favor his fatherless children.
13 [a]Let his [1]posterity be cut off,
And in the generation following let their [b]name be blotted out.
14 [a]Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered before the LORD,
And let not the sin of his mother [b]be blotted out.
15 Let them be continually before the LORD,
That He may [a]cut off the memory of them from the earth;
16 Because he did not remember to show mercy,
But persecuted the poor and needy man,
That he might even slay the [a]broken in heart.
17 [a]As he loved cursing, so let it come to him;
As he did not delight in blessing, so let it be far from him.
18 As he clothed himself with cursing as with his garment,
So let it [a]enter his body like water,
And like oil into his bones.
19 Let it be to him like the garment which covers him,
And for a belt with which he girds himself continually.
20 Let this be the LORD's reward to my accusers,
And to those who speak evil against my person.
21 But You, O GOD the Lord,
Deal with me for Your name's sake;
Because Your mercy is good, deliver me.
22 For I am poor and needy,
And my heart is wounded within me.
23 I am gone [a]like a shadow when it lengthens;
I am shaken off like a locust.
24 My [a]knees are weak through fasting,
And my flesh is feeble from lack of fatness.
25 I also have become [a]a reproach to them;
When they look at me, [b]they shake their heads.
26 Help me, O LORD my God!
Oh, save me according to Your mercy,
27 [a]That they may know that this is Your hand—
That You, LORD, have done it!
28 [a]Let them curse, but You bless;
When they arise, let them be ashamed,
But let [b]Your servant rejoice.
29 [a]Let my accusers be clothed with shame,
And let them cover themselves with their own disgrace as with a mantle.
30 I will greatly praise the LORD with my mouth;
Yes, [a]I will praise Him among the multitude.
31 For [a]He shall stand at the right hand of the poor,
To save him from those [1]who condemn him.

109:4 David's response to persecution was neither revenge or retaliation. His hope for vindication and justice remained in the Lord.

109:6 "Accuser" in Hebrew is satan. See also Job 1:6; 2:1; Zechariah 3:1; and Revelation 12:10.

109:7 When God views your prayers as sin, you are in an utterly hopeless situation.

109:13 The impact of sin on entire families is seen in Exodus 20:5; 1 Samuel 2:31; and Luke 19:44.

109:17 The psalmist asks God to see that his enemy reaps what he has sown (Gal. 6:7).

At the Right Hand

God is always near His children in their need. He does not let them face their problems alone.

PSALM 110

Announcement of the Messiah's Reign

A Psalm of David.

THE [a]LORD said to my Lord,
"Sit at My right hand,
Till I make Your enemies Your
[b]footstool."
2 The LORD shall send the rod of Your strength [a]out of Zion.
[b]Rule in the midst of Your enemies!
3 [a]Your people shall be volunteers
In the day of Your power;
[b]In the beauties of holiness, from the womb of the morning,
You have the dew of Your youth.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 110:3

Volunteers

Genuine encounters with God produce a spontaneous desire to volunteer for His service.

4 The LORD has sworn
And [a]will not relent,
"You are a [b]priest forever
According to the order of [c]Melchizedek."
5 The Lord is [a]at Your right hand;
He shall [1]execute kings [b]in the day of His wrath.
6 He shall judge among the nations,
He shall fill the places with dead bodies,
[a]He shall [1]execute the heads of many countries.

PSALM 111

Praise to God for His Faithfulness and Justice

PRAISE[1] the LORD!

[a]I will praise the LORD with my
whole heart,
In the assembly of the upright and in the congregation.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 111:1

Wholehearted Praise

Genuine praise is wholehearted. A distracted mind and a divided heart are incapable of worshipping God as He deserves.

2 [a]The works of the LORD are great,
[b]Studied by all who have pleasure in
them.
3 His work is [a]honorable and glorious,
And His righteousness endures
forever.
4 He has made His wonderful works
to be remembered;
[a]The LORD is gracious and full of compassion.
5 He has given food to those who fear
Him;
He will ever be mindful of His covenant.

WILLIAM CHALMERS BURNS

Ps. 110:3

On July 23, 1839, twenty-four-year-old William Burns visited his home church in Kilsyth, near Glasgow, Scotland. He was asked to preach on Saturday and Sunday. His messages were so powerful the minister encouraged him to speak again the following Tuesday before he departed. A throng of people came to hear him. Burns preached on Psalm 110 a message entitled, "Thy People Shall Be Willing in the Day of Your Power." As Burns concluded his sermon, the congregation was suddenly overcome with conviction of their sin. Many wept. Some shouted for joy after finding spiritual deliverance. That service lasted five hours. "No cross no crown," Burns declared. Revival broke out that day lasting many weeks. Some services lasted until three o'clock in the morning. The crowd occasionally numbered ten thousand listeners. This period at Kilsyth became known as the "Days of Heaven on Earth." God used a young, unordained minister to revive His people. And, it all happened while he was awaiting missionary appointment to China!

110:4 The mysterious priest Melchizedek is a symbol of Christ. See Genesis 14:18–20 and Hebrews 5:5–10; 6:19–7:28.

111:2 Those who love God will diligently study His acts and His ways.

6 He has declared to His people the power of His works,
In giving them the [1]heritage of the nations.
7 The works of His hands are [a]verity[1]
and justice;
All His precepts are sure.
8 [a]They stand fast forever and ever,
And are [b]done in truth and uprightness.
9 [a]He has sent redemption to His
people;
He has commanded His covenant
forever:
[b]Holy and awesome is His name.
10 [a]The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom;
A good understanding have all those who do His commandments.
His praise endures forever.

PSALM 112

The Blessed State of the Righteous

PRAISE[1] the LORD!

Blessed is the man who fears the
LORD,
Who [a]delights greatly in His
commandments.
2 [a]His descendants will be mighty on
earth;
The generation of the upright will be blessed.
3 [a]Wealth and riches will be in his house,
And his righteousness [1]endures
forever.
4 [a]Unto the upright there arises light in the darkness;
He is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 112:4

Light Arises

The darkness of the world can engulf the believer. Yet an encounter with God sheds light on our circumstances and brings hope where there was once despair.

5 [a]A good man deals graciously and lends;
He will guide his affairs [b]with discretion.
6 Surely he will never be shaken;
[a]The righteous will be in everlasting remembrance.
7 [a]He will not be afraid of evil tidings;
His heart is steadfast, trusting in the
LORD.
8 His [a]heart is established;
[b]He will not be afraid,
Until he [c]sees his desire upon his
enemies.
9 He has dispersed abroad,
He has given to the poor;
His righteousness endures forever;
His [1]horn will be exalted with honor.
10 The wicked will see it and be grieved;
He will gnash his teeth and melt
away;
The desire of the wicked shall perish.

PSALM 113

The Majesty and Condescension of God

PRAISE[1] the LORD!

[a]Praise, O servants of the LORD,
Praise the name of the LORD!
2 [a]Blessed be the name of the LORD
From this time forth and forevermore!
3 [a]From the rising of the sun to its going down
The LORD's name is to be praised.
4 The LORD is [a]high above all
nations,
[b]His glory above the heavens.
5 [a]Who is like the LORD our God,
Who dwells on high,
6 [a]Who humbles Himself to behold
The things that are in the heavens and in the earth?
7 [a]He raises the poor out of the dust,
And lifts the [b]needy out of the ash
heap,

111:8 God's principles are timeless. They are as relevant to our generation as they have been through the ages.

111:10 The fear of the Lord brings humility. From humility comes teachability. Teachability leads to growth and wisdom.

112:1 "Praise the Lord" is literally "hallelujah!"

112:4 The threefold description of a godly people is that they are gracious, compassionate and righteous.

113:3 The rising of the sun and its setting depict the east and the west. From every corner of the earth, God's name will be praised.

113:7 See this reflected in Hannah's prayer, 1 Samuel 2:7–8.

8 That He may [a]seat him with princes—
With the princes of His people.
9 [a]He grants the [1]barren woman a home,
Like a joyful mother of children.

Praise the LORD!

PSALM 114

The Power of God in His Deliverance of Israel

WHEN [a]Israel went out of Egypt,
The house of Jacob [b]from a people [1]of strange language,
2 [a]Judah became His sanctuary,
And Israel His dominion.
3 [a]The sea saw it and fled;
[b]Jordan turned back.
4 [a]The mountains skipped like rams,
The little hills like lambs.
5 [a]What ails you, O sea, that you fled?
O Jordan, that you turned back?
6 O mountains, that you skipped like rams?
O little hills, like lambs?
7 Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the Lord,
At the presence of the God of Jacob,

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 114:7

Tremble

There is no earthly force comparable to the power God demonstrates when He rules among His people.

8 [a]Who turned the rock into a pool of water,
The flint into a fountain of waters.

PSALM 115

The Futility of Idols and the Trustworthiness of God

NOT [a]unto us, O LORD, not unto us,
But to Your name give glory,
Because of Your mercy,
Because of Your truth.
2 Why should the [1]Gentiles say,
[a]"So where is their God?"
3 [a]But our God is in heaven;
He does whatever He pleases.
4 [a]Their idols are silver and gold,
The work of men's hands.
5 They have mouths, but they do not speak;
Eyes they have, but they do not see;
6 They have ears, but they do not hear;
Noses they have, but they do not smell;
7 They have hands, but they do not handle;
Feet they have, but they do not walk;
Nor do they mutter through their throat.
8 [a]Those who make them are like them;
So is everyone who trusts in them.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 115:8

Like Them

We become like the one we worship. The person we are today reflects who has been most important to us.

9 [a]O Israel, trust in the LORD;
[b]He is their help and their shield.
10 O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD;
He is their help and their shield.
11 You who fear the LORD, trust in the LORD;
He is their help and their shield.
12 The LORD [1]has been mindful of us;
He will bless us;
He will bless the house of Israel;
He will bless the house of Aaron.
13 [a]He will bless those who fear the LORD,
Both small and great.
14 May the LORD give you increase more and more,
You and your children.
15 May you be [a]blessed by the LORD,
[b]Who made heaven and earth.
16 The heaven, even the heavens, are the LORD's;
But the earth He has given to the children of men.
17 [a]The dead do not praise the LORD,
Nor any who go down into silence.
18 [a]But we will bless the LORD
From this time forth and forevermore.

Praise the LORD!

113:9 Barrenness epitomized grief and frustration to women of the psalmist's day. Yet God can transform even the most hopeless situation.

114:8 God brought water out of a rock for the children of Israel (Ex. 17:1–7; Num. 20:1–11).

115:1 The psalmist acknowledged that every good thing comes from God. Therefore all the glory must go to the Lord.

115:5 Although the idols had the appearance of being able to hear and see, in reality they were completely useless.

PSALM 116

Thanksgiving for Deliverance from Death

I [a]LOVE the LORD, because He has heard
My voice and my supplications.
2 Because He has inclined His ear to me,
Therefore I will call upon Him as long as I live.

3 [a]The [1]pains of death surrounded me,
And the [2]pangs of Sheol [3]laid hold of me;
I found trouble and sorrow.
4 Then I called upon the name of the LORD:
"O LORD, I implore You, deliver my soul!"

5 [a]Gracious is the LORD, and [b]righteous;
Yes, our God is merciful.
6 The LORD preserves the simple;
I was brought low, and He saved me.
7 Return to your [a]rest, O my soul,
For [b]the LORD has dealt bountifully with you.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 116:7

Return to Rest

An encounter with God brings a deep, abiding rest and peace to your soul.

8 [a]For You have delivered my soul from death,
My eyes from tears,
And my feet from falling.
9 I will walk before the LORD
[a]In the land of the living.
10 [a]I believed, therefore I spoke,
"I am greatly afflicted."
11 [a]I said in my haste,
[b]"All men are liars."

12 What shall I render to the LORD
For all His benefits toward me?
13 I will take up the cup of salvation,
And call upon the name of the LORD.
14 [a]I will pay my vows to the LORD
Now in the presence of all His people.

15 [a]Precious in the sight of the LORD
Is the death of His saints.

16 O LORD, truly [a]I am Your servant;
I am Your servant, [b]the son of Your maidservant;
You have loosed my bonds.
17 I will offer to You [a]the sacrifice of thanksgiving,
And will call upon the name of the LORD.

18 I will pay my vows to the LORD
Now in the presence of all His people,
19 In the [a]courts of the LORD's house,
In the midst of you, O Jerusalem.

[1]Praise the LORD!

Praise to God for His Everlasting Mercy

OH, [a]give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!
[b]For His mercy endures forever.

2 [a]Let Israel now say,

3 Let the house of Aaron now say,

6 [a]The LORD is on my side;
I will not fear.
What can man do to me?
7 [a]The LORD is for me among those who help me;
Therefore [b]I shall see my desire on those who hate me.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 118:7

The Lord Is For Me

God is the champion for His children. Everything He does is for our good. He desires to build us up and to make us free.

116:6 "Simple" here has to do with innocence.
116:15 "Precious" in the sense of carrying a high value, costly.
116:17 Thanksgiving is seen here as a sacrifice honoring the Lord.
117:1 Those who know God's love have no desire to hoard it.

8 [a]It is better to trust in the LORD
Than to put confidence in man.
9 [a]It is better to trust in the LORD
Than to put confidence in princes.

10 All nations surrounded me,
But in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.
11 They [a]surrounded me,
Yes, they surrounded me;
But in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.
12 They surrounded me [a]like bees;
They were quenched [b]like a fire of thorns;
For in the name of the LORD I will [1]destroy them.
13 You pushed me violently, that I might fall,
But the LORD helped me.
14 [a]The LORD is my strength and song,
And He has become my salvation.

16 [a]The right hand of the LORD is exalted;
The right hand of the LORD does valiantly.
17 [a]I shall not die, but live,
And [b]declare the works of the LORD.
18 The LORD has [a]chastened[1] me severely,

19 [a]Open to me the gates of righteousness;
I will go through them,
And I will praise the LORD.
20 [a]This is the gate of the LORD,
[b]Through which the righteous shall enter.

21 I will praise You,
For You have [a]answered me,
And have become my salvation.

PSALM 119

Meditations on the Excellencies of the Word of God

א ALEPH

BLESSED are the [1]undefiled in the way,
[a]Who walk in the law of the LORD!
2 Blessed are those who keep His testimonies,
Who seek Him with the [a]whole heart!
3 [a]They also do no iniquity;
They walk in His ways.
4 You have commanded us
To keep Your precepts diligently.
5 Oh, that my ways were directed
To keep Your statutes!
6 [a]Then I would not be ashamed,
When I look into all Your commandments.
7 I will praise You with uprightness of heart,
When I learn Your righteous judgments.
8 I will keep Your statutes;
Oh, do not forsake me utterly!

ב BETH

9 How can a young man cleanse his way?
By taking heed according to Your word.
10 With my whole heart I have [a]sought You;

118:8 Old Testament prophets often repeated this truth (Ps. 20:7).

118:13 Although circumstances can bring us to the brink of collapse, God provides strength to continue on His path (Is. 40:30).

118:14 "Strength and song" is a quote from the Song of Moses (Ex. 15:2).

118:22 This passage is reflected in several New Testament passages. See Matthew 21:42; Romans 9:32; Ephesians 2:20; 1 Peter 2:6.

118:26 Centuries later, crowds would shout these words during Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem (Mark 11:9; Luke 19:38).

119:1 In the original Hebrew, this psalm is written as an alphabetical acrostic. The successive letters of the Hebrew alphabet can be seen in its structure. The first stanza has lines that start with aleph, then the next stanza has lines that start with beth, and so on. Other psalms with acrostic features are: 9, 10, 25, 34, 37, 111, 112, 145.

Oh, let me not wander from Your commandments!
11 [a]Your word I have hidden in my heart,
That I might not sin against You.
12 Blessed are You, O LORD!
Teach me Your statutes.
13 With my lips I have [a]declared
All the judgments of Your mouth.
14 I have rejoiced in the way of Your testimonies,
As much as in all riches.
15 I will meditate on Your precepts,
And [1]contemplate Your ways.
16 I will [a]delight myself in Your statutes;
I will not forget Your word.

ג GIMEL

17 [a]Deal bountifully with Your servant,
That I may live and keep Your word.
18 Open my eyes, that I may see
Wondrous things from Your law.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 119:18

Open My Eyes!

Even the most brilliant scholars who study God's word will remain unchanged apart from the work of the Holy Spirit. God opens our eyes spiritually to the reality of His word, making the Scriptures come alive to us.

19 [a]I am a stranger in the earth;
Do not hide Your commandments from me.
20 [a]My soul [1]breaks with longing
For Your judgments at all times.
21 You rebuke the proud—the cursed,
Who stray from Your commandments.
22 [a]Remove from me reproach and contempt,
For I have kept Your testimonies.
23 Princes also sit and speak against me,
But Your servant meditates on Your statutes.
24 Your testimonies also are my delight
And my counselors.

ד DALETH

25 [a]My soul clings to the dust;
[b]Revive me according to Your word.
26 I have declared my ways, and You answered me;
[a]Teach me Your statutes.
27 Make me understand the way of Your precepts;
So [a]shall I meditate on Your wonderful works.
28 [a]My soul [1]melts from [2]heaviness;
Strengthen me according to Your word.
29 Remove from me the way of lying,
And grant me Your law graciously.
30 I have chosen the way of truth;
Your judgments I have laid before me.
31 I cling to Your testimonies;
O LORD, do not put me to shame!
32 I will run the course of Your commandments,
For You shall [a]enlarge my heart.

ה HE

33 [a]Teach me, O LORD, the way of Your statutes,
And I shall keep it to the end.
34 [a]Give me understanding, and I shall keep Your law;
Indeed, I shall observe it with my whole heart.
35 Make me walk in the path of Your commandments,
For I delight in it.
36 [1]Incline my heart to Your testimonies,
And not to [a]covetousness.
37 [a]Turn[1] away my eyes from [b]looking at worthless things,
And revive me in [2]Your way.
38 [a]Establish Your word to Your servant,
Who is devoted to fearing You.
39 Turn away my reproach which I dread,
For Your judgments are good.
40 Behold, I long for Your precepts;
Revive me in Your righteousness.

ו WAW

41 Let Your mercies come also to me, O LORD—
Your salvation according to Your word.
42 So shall I have an answer for him who [1]reproaches me,
For I trust in Your word.
43 And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth,
For I have hoped in Your ordinances.

119:16 "Statutes" were engraved markers clearly identifying boundaries.

119:22 The Ten Commandments were called the "two tablets of the testimony" (Ex. 31:18).

119:38 "Word" comes from the Hebrew word dabar. It signifies any truth revealed by God.

44 So shall I keep Your law
continually,
Forever and ever.
45 And I will walk [1]at [a]liberty,
For I seek Your precepts.
46 [a]I will speak of Your testimonies also before kings,
And will not be ashamed.
47 And I will delight myself in Your commandments,
Which I love.
48 My hands also I will lift up to Your commandments,
Which I love,
And I will meditate on Your statutes.

ז ZAYIN

49 Remember the word to Your servant,
Upon which You have caused me to hope.
50 This is my [a]comfort in my affliction,
For Your word has given me life.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 119:50

Life

God's word does not simply provide devotional thoughts. It brings us to Him and He gives us life.

51 The proud have me in great derision,
Yet I do not turn aside from Your law.
52 I remembered Your judgments of old, O LORD,
And have comforted myself.
53 [a]Indignation has taken hold of me
Because of the wicked, who forsake Your law.
54 Your statutes have been my songs
In the house of my pilgrimage.
55 [a]I remember Your name in the night, O LORD,
And I keep Your law.
56 This has become mine,
Because I kept Your precepts.

ח HETH

57 [a]You are my portion, O LORD;
I have said that I would keep Your words.
58 I entreated Your favor with my
whole heart;
Be merciful to me according to Your word.
59 I [a]thought about my ways,
And turned my feet to Your testimonies.
60 I made haste, and did not delay
To keep Your commandments.
61 The cords of the wicked have bound me,
But I have not forgotten Your law.
62 [a]At midnight I will rise to give thanks to You,
Because of Your righteous
judgments.
63 I am a companion of all who fear
You,
And of those who keep Your precepts.
64 [a]The earth, O LORD, is full of Your mercy;
Teach me Your statutes.

ט TETH

65 You have dealt well with Your servant,
O LORD, according to Your word.
66 Teach me good judgment and
[a]knowledge,
For I believe Your commandments.
67 Before I was [a]afflicted I went astray,
But now I keep Your word.
68 You are [a]good, and do good;
Teach me Your statutes.
69 The proud have [a]forged[1] a lie
against me,
But I will keep Your precepts with my whole heart.
70 [a]Their heart is [1]as fat as grease,
But I delight in Your law.
71 It is good for me that I have been afflicted,
That I may learn Your statutes.
72 [a]The law of Your mouth is better to
me
Than thousands of coins of gold and silver.

י YOD

73 [a]Your hands have made me and fashioned me;
Give me understanding, that I may learn Your commandments.
74 [a]Those who fear You will be glad when they see me,
Because I have hoped in Your word.
75 I know, O LORD, [a]that Your judgments are [1]right,
And that in faithfulness You have afflicted me.
76 Let, I pray, Your merciful kindness be for my comfort,

119:56 A "precept" is a synonym for a "commandment."
119:60 "Delay" could also be translated "linger."
119:70 A "fat" heart symbolized an attitude impervious to truth or compassion.

According to Your word to Your servant.
77 Let Your tender mercies come to me, that I may live;
For Your law is my delight.
78 Let the proud [a]be ashamed,
For they treated me wrongfully with falsehood;
But I will meditate on Your precepts.
79 Let those who fear You turn to me,
Those who know Your testimonies.
80 Let my heart be blameless regarding Your statutes,
That I may not be ashamed.

כ KAPH

81 [a]My soul faints for Your salvation,
But I hope in Your word.
82 My eyes fail from searching Your word,
Saying, "When will You comfort me?"
83 For [a]I have become like a wineskin in smoke,
Yet I do not forget Your statutes.
84 [a]How many are the days of Your servant?
[b]When will You execute judgment on those who persecute me?
85 [a]The proud have dug pits for me,
Which is not according to Your law.
86 All Your commandments are faithful;
They persecute me [a]wrongfully; Help me!
87 They almost made an end of me on earth,
But I did not forsake Your precepts.
88 Revive me according to Your lovingkindness,
So that I may keep the testimony of Your mouth.

ל LAMED

89 [a]Forever, O LORD,
Your word [1]is settled in heaven.
90 Your faithfulness endures to all generations;
You established the earth, and it [1]abides.
91 They continue this day according to [a]Your ordinances,
For all are Your servants.
92 Unless Your law had been my delight,
I would then have perished in my affliction.
93 I will never forget Your precepts,
For by them You have given me life.
94 I am Yours, save me;
For I have sought Your precepts.
95 The wicked wait for me to destroy me,
But I will [1]consider Your testimonies.
96 [a]I have seen the consummation of all perfection,
But Your commandment is exceedingly broad.

מ MEM

97 Oh, how I love Your law!
[a]It is my meditation all the day.
98 You, through Your commandments, make me [a]wiser than my enemies;
For they are ever with me.
99 I have more understanding than all my teachers,
[a]For Your testimonies are my meditation.
100 [a]I understand more than the [1]ancients,
Because I keep Your precepts.
101 I have restrained my feet from every evil way,
That I may keep Your word.
102 I have not departed from Your judgments,
For You Yourself have taught me.
103 [a]How sweet are Your words to my taste,
Sweeter than honey to my mouth!
104 Through Your precepts I get understanding;
Therefore I hate every false way.

105 [a]Your word is a lamp to my feet
And a light to my path.
106 [a]I have sworn and confirmed
That I will keep Your righteous judgments.
107 I am afflicted very much;
Revive me, O LORD, according to Your word.
108 Accept, I pray, [a]the freewill offerings of my mouth, O LORD,
And teach me Your judgments.

Yet I do not forget Your law.

119:82 The psalmist rightly sought comfort in God's word.

119:88 Only God can restore us to spiritual well-being (vv. 149, 154).

119:101 One cannot indulge in sin and still keep God's way. The psalmist was taking responsibility for his behavior.

119:105 We cannot predict every opportunity or obstacle life will bring, but we can protect ourselves from stumbling if we follow God's leading.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 119:107

Revive Me

God's word can make a spiritually dead person come to life. The only thing that blocks the way from death to life is a resistance to God's word.

Yet I have not strayed from Your precepts.
111[a] Your testimonies I have taken as a [1]heritage forever,
For they are the rejoicing of my heart.
112 I have inclined my heart to perform Your statutes
Forever, to the very end.

For I will keep the commandments of my God!
116 Uphold me according to Your word, that I may live;
And do not let me [a]be ashamed of my hope.
117 [1]Hold me up, and I shall be safe,
And I shall observe Your statutes continually.
118 You reject all those who stray from Your statutes,
For their deceit is falsehood.
119 You [1]put away all the wicked of the earth [a]like [2]dross;

DAVID LIVINGSTONE

Ps. 121:1

David Livingstone became the great missionary explorer of Africa during the nineteenth century. Upon completing his medical studies, he immediately set out for the "dark continent" of Africa. With only one night to spend with his godly parents at their home in Blantyre, Scotland, he spoke earnestly with them about the great needs in Africa. Rising at 5:00 on the morning of November 17, 1840, Livingstone led his parents in a final devotion before his departure. He would never see his dear father again. That morning Livingstone read Psalms 121 and 135, concerning both God's protection and His majesty. Then he departed for a life and ministry that would inspire thousands of Christians even to this day.

120:1 Psalms 120–134 are known as "Songs of Ascents." They were sung by pilgrims as they ascended to the heights of Jerusalem and the temple mount.

120:5 Meshech is also mentioned in Ezekiel 39:1.

121:1 Pilgrims traveled uphill as they approached Jerusalem. Jerusalem and the temple symbolized God's presence.

122:1 "I was glad" comes from the Hebrew word for "laughter" and "delight." The psalmist's spontaneous reaction to thoughts of worshiping God was joy.

122:2 This psalm captures the joy of a weary pilgrim who finally arrives within the gates of the holy city of Jerusalem.

[1]To [b]the Testimony of Israel,
To give thanks to the name of the LORD.
5 [a]For thrones are set there for judgment,
The thrones of the house of David.

6 [a]Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:
"May they prosper who love you.
7 Peace be within your walls,
Prosperity within your palaces."
8 For the sake of my brethren and companions,
I will now say, "Peace be within you."
9 Because of the house of the LORD our God
I will [a]seek your good.

PSALM 123

Prayer for Relief from Contempt

A Song of Ascents.

UNTO You [a]I lift up my eyes,
O You [b]who dwell in the heavens.
2 Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their masters,
As the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress,
[a]So our eyes look to the LORD our God,
Until He has mercy on us.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 123:2

Our Eyes

Our focus should continually be upon the Lord. We will miss encounters with Him if we let our eyes wander.

3 Have mercy on us, O LORD, have mercy on us!
For we are exceedingly filled with contempt.
4 Our soul is exceedingly filled
With the scorn of those who are at ease,
With the contempt of the proud.

PSALM 124

The LORD the Defense of His People

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

"IF it had not been the LORD who was on our [a]side,"
[b]Let Israel now say—
2 "If it had not been the LORD who was on our side,
When men rose up against us,
3 Then they would have [a]swallowed us alive,
When their wrath was kindled against us;
4 Then the waters would have overwhelmed us,
The stream would have [1]gone over our soul;
5 Then the swollen waters
Would have [1]gone over our soul."

6 Blessed be the LORD,
Who has not given us as prey to their teeth.
7 [a]Our soul has escaped [b]as a bird from the snare of the [1]fowlers;
The snare is broken, and we have escaped.
8 [a]Our help is in the name of the LORD,
[b]Who made heaven and earth.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 124:8

Help in the Name

Our security is found in God's character. Because of who God is, we can trust Him in any situation.

PSALM 125

The LORD the Strength of His People

A Song of Ascents.

THOSE who trust in the LORD
Are like Mount Zion,
Which cannot be moved, but abides forever.
2 As the mountains surround Jerusalem,
So the LORD surrounds His people
From this time forth and forever.

3 For [a]the scepter of wickedness shall not rest
On the land allotted to the righteous,
Lest the righteous reach out their hands to iniquity.

4 Do good, O LORD, to those who are good,
And to those who are upright in their hearts.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 125:4

Doing Good

The Lord does good to those who are good. God's response to you may indicate what He sees in your heart.

With the workers of iniquity.
[b]Peace be upon Israel!

PSALM 126

A Joyful Return to Zion

A Song of Ascents.

WHEN [a]the LORD brought back [1]the captivity of Zion,
[b]We were like those who dream.
2 Then [a]our mouth was filled with laughter,
And our tongue with singing.
Then they said among the [1]nations,
"The LORD has done great things for them."
3 The LORD has done great things for us,
And we are glad.
4 Bring back our captivity, O LORD,
As the streams in the South.
5 [a]Those who sow in tears
Shall reap in joy.
6 He who continually goes [1]forth weeping,
Bearing [2]seed for sowing,
Shall doubtless come again [3]with [a]rejoicing,
Bringing his sheaves with him.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 126:6

Come Again Rejoicing

The Lord can transform the worst situation from bad to good. His presence can turn tears to joy and sorrow into celebration.

PSALM 127

Laboring and Prospering with the LORD

A Song of Ascents. Of Solomon.

UNLESS the LORD builds the house,
They labor in vain who build it;
Unless [a]the LORD guards the city,
The watchman stays awake in vain.

3 [a]Ezek. 19:10 [b]Ps. 127:3–5 [c]Ps. 52:8; 144:12

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 127:1

Unless the Lord Builds

God does not ask us to build our own lives. It is vain for us to do so. He will construct our lives, and make them monuments to His grace.

2 It is vain for you to rise up early,
To sit up late,
To [a]eat the bread of sorrows;
For so He gives His beloved sleep.
3 Behold, [a]children are a heritage from the LORD,
[b]The fruit of the womb is a [c]reward.
4 Like arrows in the hand of a warrior,
So are the children of one's youth.
5 [a]Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them;
[b]They shall not be ashamed,
But shall speak with their enemies in the gate.

PSALM 128

Blessings of Those Who Fear the LORD

A Song of Ascents.

BLESSED [a]is every one who fears the LORD,
Who walks in His ways.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 128:1

Blessed

Walking in God's ways inevitably brings blessing.

2 [a]When you eat the [1]labor of your hands,
You shall be happy, and it shall be [b]well with you.
3 Your wife shall be [a]like a fruitful vine
In the very heart of your house,
Your [b]children [c]like olive plants
All around your table.
4 Behold, thus shall the man be blessed
Who fears the LORD.

126:1 This Song of Ascents recalls the period after the return of the Babylonian exiles to Jerusalem.

126:4 The "South" or the Negev, is extremely dry. Streams in the desert would be as stark a contrast as liberty after seventy years of captivity.

126:5 Only God can transform our tears into joy. The Christian life is not always easy, but there is always hope when we serve the Lord.

127:1 This is one of only two psalms credited to King Solomon (see Psalm 72). Solomon built a grand mansion for himself and one for God (1 Kin. 6:1—7:1).

127:2 "Beloved" is from the Hebrew word jedid. Jedidiah (beloved of God) was a personal name given to Solomon, the author of this psalm (2 Sam. 12:25).

127:4 "Like arrows" reflects the belief that having many children was a sign of a parent's strength.

128:2 Eating the labor of your hands is a source of God's blessing when you walk with Him.

5 [a]The LORD bless you out of Zion,
And may you see the good of Jerusalem
All the days of your life.
6 Yes, may you [a]see your children's children.

[b]Peace be upon Israel!

PSALM 129

Song of Victory over Zion's Enemies

A Song of Ascents.

"MANY a time they have [a]afflicted[1] me from [b]my youth,"
[c]Let Israel now say—
2 "Many a time they have afflicted me from my youth;
Yet they have not prevailed against me.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 129:2

They Have Not Prevailed

The afflictions of the righteous may be many, but God ensures victory in the end.

3 The plowers plowed on my back;
They made their furrows long."
4 The LORD is righteous;
He has cut in pieces the cords of the wicked.

5 Let all those who hate Zion
Be put to shame and turned back.
6 Let them be as the [a]grass on the housetops,
Which withers before it grows up,
7 With which the reaper does not fill his hand,
Nor he who binds sheaves, his [1]arms.
8 Neither let those who pass by them say,
[a]"The blessing of the LORD be upon you;
We bless you in the name of the LORD!"

PSALM 130

Waiting for the Redemption of the LORD

A Song of Ascents.

OUT [a]of the depths I have cried to You, O LORD;
2 Lord, hear my voice!
Let Your ears be attentive
To the voice of my supplications.
3 [a]If You, LORD, should [1]mark iniquities,
O Lord, who could [b]stand?
4 But there is [a]forgiveness with You,
That [b]You may be feared.

5 [a]I wait for the LORD, my soul waits,
And [b]in His word I do hope.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 130:5

My Soul Waits

There is no point in rushing ahead with our lives if God does not go with us. It is always better to wait on the Lord than to proceed without Him.

6 [a]My soul waits for the Lord
More than those who watch for the morning—
Yes, more than those who watch for the morning.
7 [a]O Israel, hope in the LORD;
For [b]with the LORD there is mercy,
And with Him is abundant redemption.
8 And [a]He shall redeem Israel
From all his iniquities.

PSALM 131

Simple Trust in the LORD

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

LORD, my heart is not [1]haughty,
Nor my eyes [2]lofty.
[a]Neither do I [3]concern myself with great matters,
Nor with things too [4]profound for me.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 131:1

Humility Before God

The closer we stand to God, the more clearly our imperfections stand out.

2 Surely I have calmed and quieted my soul,
[a]Like a weaned child with his mother;
Like a weaned child is my soul within me.

PSALM 131
1 [a][Rom. 12:16] [1]Proud [2]Arrogant [3]Lit. walk in [4]difficult
2 [a][Matt. 18:3]

129:2 "Many a time" indicates God's people are not immune to suffering or persecution.

129:6 Sod was sometimes used on roof tops. After it rained, new grass might sprout but it soon withered once the sun came out. Likewise those who oppose God may flourish temporarily but God's judgment will soon consume them.

130:3 The psalmist was fully aware that his sins would overwhelm him if God made him give an account for every one. His only hope was in God's forgiveness.

3 [a]O Israel, hope in the LORD
From this time forth and forever.

PSALM 132

The Eternal Dwelling of God in Zion

A Song of Ascents.

LORD, remember David
And all his afflictions;
2 How he swore to the LORD,
[a]And vowed to [b]the Mighty One of Jacob:
3 "Surely I will not go into the chamber of my house,
Or go up to the comfort of my bed;
4 I will [a]not give sleep to my eyes
Or slumber to my eyelids,
5 Until I [a]find a place for the LORD,
A dwelling place for the Mighty One of Jacob."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 132:4, 5

No Sleep

How can we be lackadaisical when God's activity is all around us? Can we stop laboring when our own goals have been met, but God's kingdom has not yet come in its fullness?

6 Behold, we heard of it [a]in Ephrathah;
[b]We found it [c]in the fields of [1]the woods.
7 Let us go into His tabernacle;
[a]Let us worship at His footstool.
8 [a]Arise, O LORD, to Your resting place,
You and [b]the ark of Your strength.
9 Let Your priests [a]be clothed with righteousness,
And let Your saints shout for joy.
10 For Your servant David's sake,
Do not turn away the face of Your [1]Anointed.
11 [a]The LORD has sworn in truth to David;
He will not turn from it:
"I will set upon your throne [b]the [1]fruit of your body.
12 If your sons will keep My covenant
And My testimony which I shall teach them,
Their sons also shall sit upon your throne forevermore."
13 [a]For the LORD has chosen Zion;
He has desired it for His [1]dwelling place:
14 "This[a] is My resting place forever;
Here I will dwell, for I have desired it.
15 [a]I will abundantly bless her [1]provision;
I will satisfy her poor with bread.
16 [a]I will also clothe her priests with salvation,
[b]And her saints shall shout aloud for joy.
17 [a]There I will make the [1]horn of David grow;
[b]I will prepare a lamp for My [2]Anointed.
18 His enemies I will [a]clothe with shame,
But upon Himself His crown shall flourish."

PSALM 133

Blessed Unity of the People of God

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

BEHOLD, how good and how pleasant it is
For [a]brethren to dwell together in unity!

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 133:1

Unity

Unity among Christian brethren pleases God and brings joy to His people.

2 It is like the precious oil upon the head,
Running down on the beard,
The beard of Aaron,
Running down on the edge of his garments.
3 It is like the dew of [a]Hermon,
Descending upon the mountains of Zion;
For [b]there the LORD commanded the blessing—
Life forevermore.

132:17 The word translated "grow" can also mean "blossom."

133:3 Hermon was the tallest peak near Israel, in the Lebanon mountains.

Who by night stand in the house of the LORD!

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 134:1

Bless the Lord

We are God's servants. Our service ought to bless the Lord.

2 [a]Lift up your hands in the sanctuary,
And bless the LORD.
3 The LORD who made heaven and earth
Bless you from Zion!

PSALM 135

Praise to God in Creation and Redemption

PRAISE the LORD!

Praise the name of the LORD;
[a]Praise Him, O you servants of the LORD!
2 [a]You who stand in the house of the LORD,
In [b]the courts of the house of our God,
3 Praise the LORD, for [a]the LORD is good;
Sing praises to His name, [b]for it is pleasant.
4 For [a]the LORD has chosen Jacob for Himself,
Israel for His [1]special treasure.
5 For I know that [a]the LORD is great,
And our Lord is above all gods.
6 [a]Whatever the LORD pleases He does,
In heaven and in earth,
In the seas and in all deep places.
7 [a]He causes the [1]vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth;
[b]He makes lightning for the rain;
He brings the wind out of His [c]treasuries.
8 [a]He [1]destroyed the firstborn of Egypt,
[2]Both of man and beast.
9 [a]He sent signs and wonders into the midst of you, O Egypt,
[b]Upon Pharaoh and all his servants.
10 [a]He defeated many nations
And slew mighty kings—
11 Sihon king of the Amorites,
Og king of Bashan,
And [a]all the kingdoms of Canaan—
12 [a]And gave their land as a [1]heritage,
A heritage to Israel His people.
13 [a]Your name, O LORD, endures forever,
Your fame, O LORD, throughout all generations.
14 [a]For the LORD will judge His people,
And He will have compassion on His servants.
15 [a]The idols of the nations are silver and gold,
The work of men's hands.
16 They have mouths, but they do not speak;
Eyes they have, but they do not see;

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 135:16

False Gods

Idols are lifeless gods that sap our strength and our life because they distract our hearts from God. But God is a living person. He speaks life-giving words to His people.

17 They have ears, but they do not hear;
Nor is there any breath in their mouths.
18 Those who make them are like them;
So is everyone who trusts in them.
19 [a]Bless the LORD, O house of Israel!
Bless the LORD, O house of Aaron!
20 Bless the LORD, O house of Levi!
You who fear the LORD, bless the LORD!
21 Blessed be the LORD [a]out of Zion,
Who dwells in Jerusalem!

Praise the LORD!

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 136:11

Enduring Mercy

God is by nature merciful. He does not treat us as we rightfully deserve. For this grace we can never praise Him enough.

12 [a]With a strong hand, and with [1]an outstretched arm,
For His mercy endures forever.
13 [a]To Him who divided the Red Sea in two,
For His mercy endures forever.

For His mercy endures forever;
22 A heritage to Israel His servant,
For His mercy endures forever.
23 Who [a]remembered us in our lowly state,
For His mercy endures forever;
24 And [a]rescued us from our enemies,
For His mercy endures forever;
25 [a]Who gives food to all flesh,
For His mercy endures forever.

PSALM 137

Longing for Zion in a Foreign Land

BY the rivers of Babylon,
There we sat down, yea, we wept
When we remembered Zion.
2 We hung our harps
Upon the willows in the midst of it.
3 For there those who carried us away captive asked of us a song,
And those who [a]plundered us requested mirth,
Saying, "Sing us one of the songs of Zion!"
4 How shall we sing the LORD's song
In a foreign land?
5 If I forget you, O Jerusalem,
Let my right hand forget its skill!
6 If I do not remember you,
Let my [a]tongue cling to the roof of my mouth—
If I do not exalt Jerusalem
Above my chief joy.
7 Remember, O LORD, against [a]the sons of Edom
The day of Jerusalem,
Who said, [1]"Raze it, raze it,
To its very foundation!"
8 O daughter of Babylon, [a]who are to be destroyed,
Happy the one [b]who repays you as you have served us!
9 Happy the one who takes and [a]dashes
Your little ones against the rock!

PSALM 138

The LORD's Goodness to the Faithful

A Psalm of David.

I WILL praise You with my whole heart;

137:1 This psalm was written by someone who suffered exile in Babylon.

137:2 The exile was so joyless that the psalmist quit playing music altogether.

137:7 During Jerusalem's destruction by the Babylonians, the Edomites had been particularly obnoxious to their fallen relatives (Jer. 49:7–22).

138:1 "Before the gods" may indicate David's desire to sing God's praises in other nations where pagan gods were worshipped.

[a]Before the gods I will sing praises to You.
2 [a]I will worship [b]toward Your holy temple,
And praise Your name
For Your lovingkindness and Your truth;
For You have [c]magnified Your word above all Your name.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 138:2

Magnified Your Word

The more we encounter God's word the greater meaning it has for us. God stands by His word, working it powerfully into our lives.

3 In the day when I cried out, You answered me,
And made me bold with strength in my soul.
4 [a]All the kings of the earth shall praise You, O LORD,
When they hear the words of Your mouth.
5 Yes, they shall sing of the ways of the LORD,
For great is the glory of the LORD.
6 [a]Though the LORD is on high,
Yet [b]He regards the lowly;
But the proud He knows from afar.
7 [a]Though I walk in the midst of trouble, You will revive me;
You will stretch out Your hand
Against the wrath of my enemies,
And Your right hand will save me.
8 [a]The LORD will [1]perfect that which concerns me;
Your mercy, O LORD, endures forever;
[b]Do not forsake the works of Your hands.

PSALM 139

God's Perfect Knowledge of Man

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

O LORD, [a]You have searched me and known me.
2 [a]You know my sitting down and my rising up;
You [b]understand my thought afar off.
3 [a]You [1]comprehend my path and my lying down,
And are acquainted with all my ways.
4 For there is not a word on my tongue,
But behold, O LORD, [a]You know it altogether.
5 You have [1]hedged me behind and before,
And laid Your hand upon me.
6 [a]Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;
It is high, I cannot attain it.
7 [a]Where can I go from Your Spirit?
Or where can I flee from Your presence?
8 [a]If I ascend into heaven, You are there;
[b]If I make my bed in [1]hell, behold, You are there.
9 If I take the wings of the morning,
And dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea,
10 Even there Your hand shall lead me,
And Your right hand shall hold me.
11 If I say, "Surely the darkness shall [1]fall on me,"
Even the night shall be light about me;
12 Indeed, [a]the darkness [1]shall not hide from You,
But the night shines as the day;
The darkness and the light are both alike to You.
13 For You formed my inward parts;
You [1]covered me in my mother's womb.
14 I will praise You, for [1]I am fearfully and wonderfully made;
Marvelous are Your works,
And that my soul knows very well.
15 [a]My [1]frame was not hidden from You,
When I was made in secret,
And skillfully wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.
16 Your eyes saw my substance, being yet unformed.
And in Your book they all were written,
The days fashioned for me,
When as yet there were none of them.
17 [a]How precious also are Your thoughts to me, O God!
How great is the sum of them!

138:6 In a divine paradox, God is highly exalted yet intimately acquainted with the humble and lowly.

138:7 "Revive me" can also mean "preserve my life."

139:1 God is intimately aware of us. There is nothing about our life or thoughts He does not understand thoroughly.

139:8 This is a classic statement of God's omnipresence.

139:10 Regardless of where we are or what we face, God is prepared to take us by the hand and to lead us.

139:16 Although life unfolds gradually before us, it has always been known to God in its entirety (Jer. 1:5).

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 139:17

Precious Thoughts

God's thoughts toward you are infinite, wonderful, and tender. Let Him share them with you and they will become precious to you.

18 If I should count them, they would be more in number than the sand;
When I awake, I am still with You.

19 Oh, that You would [a]slay the wicked, O God!
[b]Depart from me, therefore, you [1]bloodthirsty men.
20 For they [a]speak against You wickedly;
[1]Your enemies take Your name in vain.
21 [a]Do I not hate them, O LORD, who hate You?
And do I not loathe those who rise up against You?
22 I hate them with [1]perfect hatred;
I count them my enemies.

23 [a]Search me, O God, and know my heart;
Try me, and know my anxieties;
24 And see if there is any wicked way in me,
And [a]lead me in the way everlasting.

PSALM 140

Prayer for Deliverance from Evil Men

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

DELIVER me, O LORD, from evil men;
Preserve me from violent men,
2 Who plan evil things in their hearts;
[a]They continually gather together for war.
3 They sharpen their tongues like a serpent;
The [a]poison of asps is under their lips. Selah

4 [a]Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked;
Preserve me from violent men,
Who have purposed to make my steps stumble.
5 The proud have hidden a [a]snare for me, and cords;
They have spread a net by the wayside;
They have set traps for me. Selah

6 I said to the LORD: "You are my God;
Hear the voice of my supplications, O LORD.
7 O GOD the Lord, the strength of my salvation,
You have [1]covered my head in the day of battle.
8 Do not grant, O LORD, the desires of the wicked;
Do not further his wicked scheme,
[a]Lest they be exalted. Selah

9 "As for the head of those who surround me,
Let the evil of their lips cover them;
10 [a]Let burning coals fall upon them;
Let them be cast into the fire,
Into deep pits, that they rise not up again.
11 Let not a slanderer be established in the earth;
Let evil hunt the violent man to overthrow him."

12 I know that the LORD will [a]maintain
The cause of the afflicted,
And justice for the poor.
13 Surely the righteous shall give thanks to Your name;
The upright shall dwell in Your presence.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 140:13

The Upright

The righteous live securely in God's constant presence. That is the arena in which they function. God has promised His abiding presence to those who will walk blamelessly with Him.

PSALM 141

Prayer for Safekeeping from Wickedness

PSALM 141
2 [a][Rev. 5:8; 8:3, 4]

139:23 As God "tries" His servants, He makes us aware of anxieties that keep us from trusting in Him.

139:24 "The way everlasting" can also be "the ancient way."

140:3 The psalmist feared the danger wrought by evil people's words.

140:7 See also the "helmet of salvation" (Eph. 6:17).

140:10 The psalmist may have been asking God to punish the wicked as He did Sodom and Gomorrah (Gen. 19:12–29).

141:2 Prayer was viewed as a pleasant thing, something desired by God (Rev. 5:8).

[b]The lifting up of my hands as [c]the evening sacrifice.

3 Set a guard, O LORD, over my [a]mouth;
Keep watch over the door of my lips.
4 Do not incline my heart to any evil thing,
To practice wicked works
With men who work iniquity;
[a]And do not let me eat of their delicacies.

5 [a]Let the righteous strike me;
It shall be a kindness.
And let him rebuke me;
It shall be as excellent oil;
Let my head not refuse it.

For still my prayer is against the deeds of the wicked.
6 Their judges are overthrown by the sides of the [1]cliff,
And they hear my words, for they are sweet.
7 Our bones are scattered at the mouth of the grave,
As when one plows and breaks up the earth.

8 But [a]my eyes are upon You, O GOD the Lord;
In You I take refuge;
[1]Do not leave my soul destitute.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 141:8

My Eyes

Keeping our eyes on God is our only sure protection in difficult circumstances. A crisis is not the time to focus on people; our safest refuge is always in God.

9 Keep me from [a]the snares they have laid for me,
And from the traps of the workers of iniquity.
10 [a]Let the wicked fall into their own nets,
While I escape safely.

PSALM 142

A Plea for Relief from Persecutors

A [a]Contemplation[1] of David. A Prayer [b]when he was in the cave.

I CRY out to the LORD with my voice;
With my voice to the LORD I make my supplication.
2 I pour out my complaint before Him;
I declare before Him my trouble.
3 When my spirit [1]was [a]overwhelmed within me,
Then You knew my path.
In the way in which I walk
They have secretly [b]set a snare for me.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 142:3

You Knew My Path

We are sometimes overwhelmed by our circumstances. But though life bewilders us, God sees clearly what lies ahead of us. He knows where He intends to lead us.

4 Look on my right hand and see,
For there is no one who acknowledges me;
Refuge has failed me;
No one cares for my soul.
5 I cried out to You, O LORD:
I said, "You are my refuge,
My portion in the land of the living.
6 [1]Attend to my cry,
For I am brought very low;
Deliver me from my persecutors,
For they are stronger than I.
7 Bring my soul out of prison,
That I may [a]praise Your name;
The righteous shall surround me,
For You shall deal bountifully with me."

PSALM 143

An Earnest Appeal for Guidance and Deliverance

A Psalm of David.

HEAR my prayer, O LORD,
Give ear to my supplications!
In Your faithfulness answer me,
And in Your righteousness.
2 Do not enter into judgment with Your servant,
[a]For in Your sight no one living is righteous.
3 For the enemy has persecuted my soul;
He has crushed my life to the ground;
He has made me dwell in [1]darkness,

141:5 The idea of welcome rebuke is also expressed in Proverbs 27:6.

142:2 The psalmist used prayer to pour out his soul to God.

143:2 To holy God, even the most saintly among us is imperfect. All are sinners before Him.

Like those who have long been dead.
4 [a]Therefore my spirit is overwhelmed within me;
My heart within me is distressed.
5 [a]I remember the days of old;
I meditate on all Your works;
I [1]muse on the work of Your hands.
6 I spread out my hands to You;
[a]My soul longs for You like a thirsty land. Selah
7 Answer me speedily, O LORD;
My spirit fails!
Do not hide Your face from me,
[a]Lest I [1]be like those who [2]go down into the pit.
8 Cause me to hear Your lovingkindness [a]in the morning,
For in You do I trust;
[b]Cause me to know the way in which I should walk,
For [c]I lift up my soul to You.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 143:8

Cause Me to Know

We can acquire knowledge, but only God can give wisdom. Only He knows the best paths for us. Only He can guide us unerringly.

9 Deliver me, O LORD, from my enemies;
[1]In You I take shelter.
10 [a]Teach me to do Your will,
For You are my God;
[b]Your Spirit is good.
Lead me in [c]the land of uprightness.
11 [a]Revive me, O LORD, for Your name's sake!
For Your righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.
12 In Your mercy [a]cut[1] off my enemies,
And destroy all those who afflict my soul;
For I am Your servant.

PSALM 144

A Song to the LORD Who Preserves and Prospers His People

A Psalm of David.

BLESSED be the LORD my Rock,
[a]Who trains my hands for war,
And my fingers for battle—
2 My lovingkindness and my fortress,
My high tower and my deliverer,
My shield and the One in whom I take refuge,
Who subdues [1]my people under me.
3 [a]LORD, what is man, that You take knowledge of him?
Or the son of man, that You are mindful of him?

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 144:3

What Is Man?

It is incomprehensible that God concerns Himself with us. In truth, we are nothing compared to His greatness, yet He loves us and cares about the smallest details of our existence.

4 [a]Man is like a breath;
[b]His days are like a passing shadow.
5 [a]Bow down Your heavens, O LORD, and come down;
[b]Touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.
6 [a]Flash forth lightning and scatter them;
Shoot out Your arrows and destroy them.
7 Stretch out Your hand from above;
Rescue me and deliver me out of great waters,
From the hand of foreigners,
8 Whose mouth [a]speaks [1]lying words,
And whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
9 I will [a]sing a new song to You, O God;
On a harp of ten strings I will sing praises to You,
10 The One who gives [1]salvation to kings,
[a]Who delivers David His servant From the deadly sword.
11 Rescue me and deliver me from the hand of foreigners,
Whose mouth speaks lying words,
And whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood—
12 That our sons may be [a]as plants grown up in their youth;
That our daughters may be as [1]pillars,
Sculptured in palace style;
13 That our barns may be full,
Supplying all kinds of produce;

143:6 Stretching out one's hands was the traditional posture of prayer (Is. 1:15).
143:10 Our ways are not God's ways (Is. 55:8, 9), so God must teach us to do His will.
144:3 The psalmist was amazed that almighty God took an interest in his life (Ps. 8:4, 5).
144:8 The hand that affirms a vow; see Deuteronomy 32:40.

That our sheep may bring forth thousands
And ten thousands in our fields;
14 That our oxen may be well laden;
That there be no [1]breaking in or going out;
That there be no outcry in our streets.
15 [a]Happy are the people who are in such a state;
Happy are the people whose God is the LORD!

PSALM 145

A Song of God's Majesty and Love

[a]A Praise of David.

I WILL [1]extol You, my God, O King;
And I will bless Your name forever and ever.
2 Every day I will bless You,
And I will praise Your name forever and ever.
3 [a]Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised;
And [b]His greatness is [1]unsearchable.
4 [a]One generation shall praise Your works to another,
And shall declare Your mighty acts.
5 [1]I will meditate on the glorious splendor of Your majesty,
And [2]on Your wondrous works.

ENCOUNTER Note Ps. 145:5

I Will Meditate

Understanding God and His awesome works does not come easily. Truly, we will never plumb the depths of God's majesty, but through careful meditation we will grasp something of His greatness.

6 Men shall speak of the might of Your awesome acts,
And I will declare Your greatness.
7 They shall [1]utter the memory of Your great goodness,
And shall sing of Your righteousness.
8 [a]The LORD is gracious and full of compassion,
Slow to anger and great in mercy.
9 [a]The LORD is good to all,
And His tender mercies are over all His works.
10 [a]All Your works shall praise You, O LORD,
And Your saints shall bless You.
11 They shall speak of the glory of Your kingdom,
And talk of Your power,
12 To make known to the sons of men His mighty acts,
And the glorious majesty of His kingdom.
13 [a]Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
And Your dominion endures throughout all [1]generations.
14 The LORD upholds all who fall,
And [a]raises up all who are bowed down.
15 [a]The eyes of all look expectantly to You,
And [b]You give them their food in due season.
16 You open Your hand
[a]And satisfy the desire of every living thing.
17 The LORD is righteous in all His ways,
Gracious in all His works.
18 [a]The LORD is near to all who call upon Him,
To all who call upon Him [b]in truth.
19 He will fulfill the desire of those who fear Him;
He also will hear their cry and save them.
20 [a]The LORD preserves all who love Him,
But all the wicked He will destroy.
21 My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD,
And all flesh shall bless His holy name
Forever and ever.

144:15 If anyone has good reason to be happy it is God's people!

145:8 The psalmist had experienced God as gracious and full of compassion. God's grace and compassion were never exhausted.

145:11 God's saints take delight in speaking of His power.

145:17 God is fully righteous and fully gracious. Only He can perfectly balance the two in their fullness (John 1:14).

146:3 Our temptation is to turn to people in our time of need rather to the One person who is prepared and able to help us in any circumstance.

4 [a]His spirit departs, he returns to his
earth;
In that very day [b]his plans perish.

5 [a]Happy is he who has the God of Jacob for his help,
Whose hope is in the LORD his God,

Who keeps truth forever,
7 [a]Who executes justice for the oppressed,
[b]Who gives food to the hungry.
[c]The LORD gives freedom to the prisoners.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 146:5–7

Happy Is He

Perfect circumstances do not bring joy. Hope in the Lord does. With God there is always hope, there is a reason to rejoice in every situation.

8 [a]The LORD opens the eyes of the blind;
[b]The LORD raises those who are
bowed down;
The LORD loves the righteous.
9 [a]The LORD watches over the strangers;
He relieves the fatherless and widow;
[b]But the way of the wicked He [1]turns upside down.

10 [a]The LORD shall reign forever—
Your God, O Zion, to all generations.

Praise the LORD!

[c]His understanding is infinite.
6 [a]The LORD lifts up the humble;
He casts the wicked down to the ground.

7 Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving;
Sing praises on the harp to our God,
8 [a]Who covers the heavens with
clouds,
Who prepares rain for the earth,
Who makes grass to grow on the mountains.
9 [a]He gives to the beast its food,
And [b]to the young ravens that cry.

10 [a]He does not delight in the strength of the horse;
He takes no pleasure in the legs of a
man.
11 The LORD takes pleasure in those who fear Him,
In those who hope in His mercy.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 147:11

The Lord Takes Pleasure

God is pleased when people reverently submit to Him. Our humble surrender to His will brings Him pleasure, because in yielding we are inviting Him to pour out His loving mercy on us.

12 Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem!
Praise your God, O Zion!
13 For He has strengthened the bars of your gates;
He has blessed your children within
you.
14 [a]He makes peace in your borders,
And [b]fills you with [1]the finest wheat.

15 [a]He sends out His command to the
earth;
His word runs very swiftly.
16 [a]He gives snow like wool;
He scatters the frost like ashes;
17 He casts out His hail like [1]morsels;

147:6 God lifts up the lowly and brings down the haughty.

147:10, 11 We are easily impressed by outward demonstrations of wealth, power or beauty. God is pleased with humble reverence.

And as for His judgments, they have not known them.

PSALM 148

Praise to the LORD from Creation

PRAISE[1] the LORD!

Praise the LORD from the heavens;
Praise Him in the heights!
2 Praise Him, all His angels;
Praise Him, all His hosts!
3 Praise Him, sun and moon;
Praise Him, all you stars of light!
4 Praise Him, [a]you heavens of heavens,
And [b]you waters above the heavens!

5 Let them praise the name of the LORD,
For [a]He commanded and they were created.
6 [a]He also established them forever and ever;
He made a decree which shall not pass away.

7 Praise the LORD from the earth,
[a]You great sea creatures and all the depths;
8 Fire and hail, snow and clouds;
Stormy wind, fulfilling His word;
9 [a]Mountains and all hills;
Fruitful trees and all cedars;
10 Beasts and all cattle;
Creeping things and flying fowl;
11 Kings of the earth and all peoples;
Princes and all judges of the earth;
12 Both young men and maidens;
Old men and children.

13 Let them praise the name of the LORD,
For His [a]name alone is exalted;
His glory is above the earth and heaven.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 148:13

His Name Alone

There is only one name worthy of our praise. Every other thing we might admire—be it a person, a phenomenon of nature, or a man-made invention—is under God's sovereignty. God alone deserves the deepest honor our hearts can offer.

Praise to God for His Salvation and Judgment

PRAISE[1] the LORD!

[a]Sing to the LORD a new song,
And His praise in the assembly of saints.

2 Let Israel rejoice in their Maker;
Let the children of Zion be joyful in their [a]King.
3 [a]Let them praise His name with the dance;
Let them sing praises to Him with the timbrel and harp.
4 For [a]the LORD takes pleasure in His people;
[b]He will beautify the [1]humble with salvation.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ps. 149:4

The Lord Takes Pleasure

God is a Creator who delights in relating to His people. He involves Himself in our lives because He loves us and He is pleased to bless us.

5 Let the saints be joyful in glory;
Let them [a]sing aloud on their beds.
6 Let the high praises of God be in their mouth,
And [a]a two-edged sword in their hand,
7 To execute vengeance on the nations,
And punishments on the peoples;

And their nobles with fetters of iron;
9 [a]To execute on them the written judgment—
[b]This honor have all His saints.

149:2 Joy should characterize our relationship with God (John 15:11; 17:13; Gal. 5:22).

Praise

Praising the Lord ought to be second nature to us. We ought to do it spontaneously and wholeheartedly. Praising God should not embarrass us. It should be our lifestyle.

THE BOOK OF

PROVERBS

INTRODUCTION

King Solomon is identified as the primary author of Proverbs. However, Agur wrote chapter 30 and Lemuel wrote the first part of chapter 31. Proverbs 25:1 states that King Hezekiah's royal assistants compiled chapters 25–29. Apparently King Solomon began a process of writing and assembling various proverbs that was not completed until at least King Hezekiah's time. Solomon was King David's second son by Bathsheba. His education was entrusted to the prophet Nathan who called him Jedidiah, "beloved of the Lord" (2 Sam 12:25). He ascended to the throne as a young man, likely a teenager, and reigned for forty years, during which time Israel enjoyed unprecedented prosperity. Solomon's rule is referred to as the "Golden Age" of Israel. However, the last half of his reign was marred by idolatry, excess, and opulent self-indulgence. The cost involved in maintaining his seven hundred wives, three hundred concubines, and numerous court attendants was enormous. Solomon's polygamy led to his idolatry and brought a series of God's judgments against his nation, ending in the dismantling of his kingdom. God's truth is found in these adages. This is a guidebook for successful living. The book of Proverbs compares the way of the righteous with the way of the wicked, the way of the wise with the way of the fool, and the way of the prudent with the way of the idle.

SIGNIFICANCE

Proverbs delivers clear standards by which God's people should live. The wisdom contained here is a practical application of various laws, commandments, prophecies, and admonitions given to God's people over the centuries. Ironically, the compiler himself—King Solomon—lived out a tragic portrayal of what happens when one disregards such wisdom. Solomon could have enjoyed God's blessings and protection, but instead he ended his royal tenure far from God. Numerous enemies harassed his kingdom and usurpers sought his throne. His own sons ignored the wisdom in this book, acting arrogantly and harshly towards the people, and ultimately losing much of what Solomon had left them.

STRUCTURE

Proverbs contains a variety of literary forms, including imperatives, sayings, poems, comparisons and admonitions. It closes with an acrostic. Proverbs can be outlined in seven main sections as follows:

Importance of Wisdom (1:1—9:18)
Solomon's Proverbs (10:1—22:16)
Words of Wisdom (22:17—24:22)
Sayings of Solomon Transcribed by Hezekiah's Men (25:1—29:27)
Agur's Words of Wisdom (30:1–33)
Lemuel's Words of Wisdom (31:1–9)
The Virtuous Wife (31:10—31)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH PROVERBS

God is the source of all truth and wisdom, and His values are expressed on these pages. The sayings in Proverbs teach us how to adopt God's values and incorporate them into our daily lives. This book advises us on caring for the needy, following God's law, acting with integrity, guarding our words, working diligently, and planning for the future. It is no secret what pleases God. He wants us to lead holy, fruitful, and fulfilling lives. The book of Proverbs is a guidebook for achieving these goals.

The Beginning of Knowledge

THE [a]proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel:

2 To know wisdom and instruction,
To [1]perceive the words of understanding,
3 To receive the instruction of wisdom,
Justice, judgment, and equity;
4 To give prudence to the [a]simple,
To the young man knowledge and discretion—
5 [a]A wise man will hear and increase learning,
And a man of understanding will [1]attain wise counsel,
6 To understand a proverb and an enigma,
The words of the wise and their [a]riddles.

7 [a]The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge,
But fools despise wisdom and instruction.

WORD*Study* FEAR

Prov. 1:7 This word translates the Hebrew yir'aw, which signifies dread, respect, honor, reverence, and personal humility before God. Fear is referred to nearly thirty times in the book of Proverbs. To fear God is to hate evil (Prov 8:13). Ironically, such fear brings safety (29:25).

Shun Evil Counsel

And do not forsake the law of your mother;

Fear Brings Wisdom and Revelation

A true appreciation for God's attributes is the starting place for wisdom and holy revelation. Those who approach God reverently and with humility will see His character and learn His will.

9 For they will be a [a]graceful ornament on your head,
And chains about your neck.

10 My son, if sinners entice you,
[a]Do not consent.
11 If they say, "Come with us,
Let us [a]lie in wait to shed blood;
Let us lurk secretly for the innocent without cause;
12 Let us swallow them alive like [1]Sheol,
And whole, [a]like those who go down to the Pit;
13 We shall find all kinds of precious [1]possessions,
We shall fill our houses with [2]spoil;
14 Cast in your lot among us,
Let us all have one purse"—
15 My son, [a]do not walk in the way with them,
[b]Keep your foot from their path;
16 [a]For their feet run to evil,
And they make haste to shed blood.
17 Surely, in [1]vain the net is spread
In the sight of any [2]bird;
18 But they lie in wait for their own blood,
They lurk secretly for their own lives.
19 [a]So are the ways of everyone who is greedy for gain;
It takes away the life of its owners.

HISTORICAL*Encounter* JOHN NEWTON Prov. 1:24

In 1747 the young sailor, John Newton, was serving aboard the Greyhound bound for Liverpool. He was living an immoral and rebellious life, working on slave trading ships to earn his way. Suddenly his vessel was assaulted by a devastating storm. The onerous words of Proverbs 1:24–26 flashed into Newton's mind: "Because I have called and you have refused . . . I also will laugh at your calamity." Newton was terrified! He knew he had treated God shamefully and that he deserved whatever catastrophe awaited him. Nonetheless, he cried out to God in the midst of the storm and his life was spared. Newton went on to become a minister in the Church of England and to pen the hymn "Amazing Grace."

1:2 "Perceive" comes from the Hebrew word biyn, meaning to mentally separate, distinguish, understand, or discern. Spiritual discernment does not come naturally to everyone, but can be achieved by God's revelation and disclosure to those who seek wisdom.

1:8 The word "wisdom" occurs forty-seven times, understanding forty, and instruction twenty-five times in Proverb's thirty-one chapters. There is little differentiation between these terms, as they all have the same objective in mind: creating a righteous character.

The Call of Wisdom

20 [a]Wisdom calls aloud [1]outside;
She raises her voice in the open squares.
21 She cries out in the [1]chief concourses,
At the openings of the gates in the city
She speaks her words:
22 "How long, you [1]simple ones, will you love [2]simplicity?
For scorners delight in their scorning,
And fools hate knowledge.
23 Turn at my rebuke;
Surely [a]I will pour out my spirit on you;
I will make my words known to you.
24 [a]Because I have called and you refused,
I have stretched out my hand and no one regarded,
25 Because you [a]disdained all my counsel,
And would have none of my rebuke,
26 [a]I also will laugh at your calamity;
I will mock when your terror comes,
27 When [a]your terror comes like a storm,
And your destruction comes like a whirlwind,
When distress and anguish come upon you.
28 "Then[a] they will call on me, but I will not answer;
They will seek me diligently, but they will not find me.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Prov. 1:28

Then They Will Call

Seeking God's wisdom ought to occur before you face calamity; not after. You cannot play catch-up with wisdom. It is acquired intentionally and systematically in preparation for life's inevitable challenges.

29 Because they [a]hated knowledge
And did not [b]choose the fear of the LORD,
30 [a]They would have none of my counsel
And despised my every rebuke.
31 Therefore [a]they shall eat the fruit of their own way,
And be filled to the full with their own fancies.
32 For the [1]turning away of the simple will slay them,
And the complacency of fools will destroy them;
33 But whoever listens to me will dwell [a]safely,
And [b]will be [1]secure, without fear of evil."

The Value of Wisdom

2 My son, if you receive my words,
And [a]treasure my commands within you,

ENCOUNTER*Note* Prov. 2:1

Knowledge Apart from God Is Incomplete

God freely gives wisdom and understanding to those who demonstrate their love and respect for Him. Wisdom apart from God is merely knowledge. Such knowledge can become a god and can lead to separation from God.

2 So that you incline your ear to wisdom,
And apply your heart to understanding;
3 Yes, if you cry out for discernment,
And lift up your voice for understanding,
4 [a]If you seek her as silver,
And search for her as for hidden treasures;

ENCOUNTER*Note* Prov. 2:2–4

God Rewards the Seeker

Treasure, incline your ear, apply your heart, cry out, lift up your voice, seek, search—these are all the deliberate actions of a determined person who is pursuing wisdom. God will not fail to reward those who pursue what is good.

5 [a]Then you will understand the fear of the LORD,
And find the knowledge of God.
6 [a]For the LORD gives wisdom;
From His mouth come knowledge and understanding;
7 He stores up sound wisdom for the upright;
[a]He is a shield to those who walk uprightly;
8 He guards the paths of justice,
And [a]preserves the way of His saints.

2:1 "Treasure," from the Hebrew tsaphan, means to hide, protect, or to put in a secret and safe place.

9 Then you will understand righteousness and justice,
Equity and every good path.

10 When wisdom enters your heart,
And knowledge is pleasant to your soul,
11 Discretion will preserve you;
[a]Understanding will keep you,
12 To deliver you from the way of evil,
From the man who speaks perverse
things,
13 From those who leave the paths of uprightness
To [a]walk in the ways of darkness;
14 [a]Who rejoice in doing evil,
And delight in the perversity of the wicked;
15 [a]Whose ways are crooked,
And who are devious in their paths;
16 To deliver you from [a]the immoral woman,
[b]From the seductress who flatters
with her words,
17 Who forsakes the companion of her youth,
And forgets the covenant of her
God.
18 For [a]her house [1]leads down to death,
And her paths to the dead;
19 None who go to her return,
Nor do they [1]regain the paths of
life—
20 So you may walk in the way of goodness,
And keep to the paths of
righteousness.
21 For the upright will dwell in the
[a]land,
And the blameless will remain in it;
22 But the wicked will be [1]cut off from
the [2]earth,
And the unfaithful will be uprooted
from it.

Guidance for the Young

3 My son, do not forget my law,
[a]But let your heart keep my

2 For length of days and long life
And [a]peace they will add to you.

you;

ENCOUNTER*Note* Prov. 3:2

Live Long In Peace

Although following God's ways rarely seem as tantalizing as following the world's ways, the benefits are incomparable, and the rewards are unsurpassed. Only God can give length to days and true peace to those who obey Him.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Prov. 3:5, 6

Prerequisites for Divine Guidance

The prerequisites for God's guidance include reverence, fidelity, and humility toward Him. God rewards faithful obedience and satisfies seeking hearts. Trying to depend on our own wisdom obstructs God's better plan for our lives.

7 Do not be wise in your own [a]eyes;
Fear the LORD and depart from evil.
8 It will be health to your [1]flesh,
And [a]strength[2] to your bones.

9 [a]Honor the LORD with your possessions,
And with the firstfruits of all your
increase;
10 [a]So your barns will be filled with plenty,
And your vats will overflow with new wine.

11 [a]My son, do not despise the chastening of the LORD,
Nor detest His correction;
12 For whom the LORD loves He corrects,

2:9 "Path," from the Hebrew ma'gal, denotes a way with borders such as a road, trench, or a rampart.

2:20–22 Comparisons between good and evil, reward and punishment, blessings and curses form an ongoing theme throughout Proverbs. The reader is always shown both options, but exhorted to follow the path leading to righteousness.

3:3 "Mercy and truth" occur together throughout the Old Testament and are characteristics of God and His people (Ps. 25:10; 86:15; Is. 16:5; Mic. 7:20).

3:8 "Flesh" comes from the Hebrew word shor, which is literally "umbilical cord," or "navel"—the source of all nourishment for the body.

3:10 "New wine," from the Hebrew word tiyrosh, refers either to freshly squeezed grapes or to sweet wine, implying abundance and a good future (Mal. 3:10–12).

3:11 "Chastening of the Lord" comes from the Hebrew musar, and carries the meaning of reproof, warning, and instruction (Deut. 11:2; Job 5:17).

[a]Just as a father the son in whom he delights.

13 [a]Happy is the man who finds wisdom,
And the man who gains understanding;
14 [a]For her proceeds are better than the profits of silver,
And her gain than fine gold.
15 She is more precious than rubies,
And [a]all the things you may desire cannot compare with her.
16 [a]Length of days is in her right hand,
In her left hand riches and honor.
17 [a]Her ways are ways of pleasantness,
And all her paths are peace.
18 She is [a]a tree of life to those who take hold of her,
And happy are all who [1]retain her.

19 [a]The LORD by wisdom founded the earth;
By understanding He established the heavens;
20 By His knowledge the depths were [a]broken up,
And clouds drop down the dew.

21 My son, let them not depart from your eyes—
Keep sound wisdom and discretion;
22 So they will be life to your soul
And grace to your neck.
23 [a]Then you will walk safely in your way,
And your foot will not stumble.
24 When you lie down, you will not be afraid;
Yes, you will lie down and your sleep will be sweet.
25 [a]Do not be afraid of sudden terror,
Nor of trouble from the wicked when it comes;
26 For the LORD will be your confidence,
And will keep your foot from being caught.

27 [a]Do not withhold good from [1]those to whom it is due,
When it is in the power of your hand to do so.
28 [a]Do not say to your neighbor,
"Go, and come back,
And tomorrow I will give it,"
When you have it with you.
29 Do not devise evil against your neighbor,
For he dwells by you for safety's sake.
30 [a]Do not strive with a man without cause,
If he has done you no harm.

31 [a]Do not envy the oppressor,
And choose none of his ways;
32 For the perverse person is an abomination to the LORD,
[a]But His secret counsel is with the upright.
33 [a]The curse of the LORD is on the house of the wicked,
But [b]He blesses the home of the just.
34 [a]Surely He scorns the scornful,
But gives grace to the humble.
35 The wise shall inherit glory,
But shame shall be the legacy of fools.

Security in Wisdom

4 Hear, [a]my children, the instruction of a father,
And give attention to know understanding;
2 For I give you good doctrine:
Do not forsake my law.
3 When I was my father's son,
[a]Tender and the only one in the sight of my mother,
4 [a]He also taught me, and said to me:
"Let your heart retain my words;
[b]Keep my commands, and live.
5 [a]Get wisdom! Get understanding!
Do not forget, nor turn away from the words of my mouth.
6 Do not forsake her, and she will preserve you;
[a]Love her, and she will keep you.
7 [a]Wisdom is the principal thing;
Therefore get wisdom.
And in all your getting, get understanding.
8 [a]Exalt her, and she will promote you;
She will bring you honor, when you embrace her.
9 She will place on your head [a]an ornament of grace;
A crown of glory she will deliver to you."

10 Hear, my son, and receive my sayings,
[a]And the years of your life will be many.
11 I have [a]taught you in the way of wisdom;
I have led you in right paths.
12 When you walk, [a]your steps will not be hindered,
[b]And when you run, you will not stumble.
13 Take firm hold of instruction, do not let go;
Keep her, for she is your life.

12 [a]Ps. 18:36 [b][Ps. 91:11]

4:1-4 Notice wisdom is passed on through three generations, from father to son to grandson. For wisdom to be appreciated, it must be proven effective in the life of the one teaching it.

4:7 "Get wisdom" insinuates each person's ability to choose this rare commodity. We should be determined to acquire it at all costs.

14 [a]Do not enter the path of the wicked,
And do not walk in the way of evil.
15 Avoid it, do not travel on it;
Turn away from it and pass on.
16 [a]For they do not sleep unless they have done evil;
And their sleep is [1]taken away unless they make someone fall.
17 For they eat the bread of wickedness,
And drink the wine of violence.

18 [a]But the path of the just [b]is like the shining [1]sun,
That shines ever brighter unto the perfect day.
19 [a]The way of the wicked is like darkness;
They do not know what makes them stumble.

20 My son, give attention to my words;
Incline your ear to my sayings.
21 Do not let them depart from your eyes;
Keep them in the midst of your heart;
22 For they are life to those who find them,
And health to all their flesh.
23 Keep your heart with all diligence,
For out of it spring the issues of [a]life.

ENCOUNTER Note Prov. 4:23

Guarding Your Heart

God knows that your heart's affections determine your life's direction. Guarding your heart protects you from a myriad of dangers. God's words are the key to keeping your heart pure and safe.

24 Put away from you a [1]deceitful mouth,
And put perverse lips far from you.
25 Let your eyes look straight ahead,
And your eyelids look right before you.
26 Ponder the path of your [a]feet,
And let all your ways be established.
27 Do not turn to the right or the left;
Remove your foot from evil.

The Peril of Adultery

5 My son, pay attention to my wisdom;
[1]Lend your ear to my understanding,
2 That you may [1]preserve discretion,
And your lips [a]may keep knowledge.
3 [a]For the lips of [1]an immoral woman drip honey,
And her mouth is [b]smoother than oil;
4 But in the end she is bitter as wormwood,
Sharp as a two-edged sword.
5 Her feet go down to death,
[a]Her steps lay hold of [1]hell.
6 Lest you ponder her path of life—
Her ways are unstable;
You do not know them.

7 Therefore hear me now, my children,
And do not depart from the words of my mouth.
8 Remove your way far from her,
And do not go near the door of her house,
9 Lest you give your [1]honor to others,
And your years to the cruel one;
10 Lest aliens be filled with your [1]wealth,
And your labors go to the house of a foreigner;
11 And you mourn at last,
When your flesh and your body are consumed,
12 And say:
"How I have hated instruction,
And my heart despised correction!

Paths

Paths are not usually built, but are worn and formed by frequent travel. God knows where every path leads. He warns us ahead of time, for once a path is chosen it takes His intervention to redirect us.

ENCOUNTER Note Prov. 5:12

No Regrets

A life spent following God is a life without regrets. Pursuing anything else leaves you vulnerable to misjudgments and remorse.

13 I have not obeyed the voice of my teachers,
Nor inclined my ear to those who instructed me!
14 I was on the verge of total ruin,

10 [1]Lit. strength

5:1–23 This chapter warns against the trap of pursuing a cheap alternative to the blessings a faithful marriage can bring. Evil always tempts us to settle for less than God's best.

5:4 Wormwood is similar to hemlock and is regarded as poisonous.

5:9 "Honor" translates the Hebrew word hod, and also means grandeur, strength, glory, and majesty, all of which should be protected and preserved.

In the midst of the assembly and congregation."

15 Drink water from your own cistern,
And running water from your own well.
16 Should your fountains be dispersed abroad,
[1]Streams of water in the streets?
17 Let them be only your own,
And not for strangers with you.
18 Let your fountain be blessed,
And rejoice with [a]the wife of your youth.
19 [a]As a loving deer and a graceful doe,
Let her breasts satisfy you at all times;
And always be [1]enraptured with her love.
20 For why should you, my son, be enraptured by [a]an immoral woman,
And be embraced in the arms of a seductress?

21 [a]For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD,
And He [1]ponders all his paths.

ENCOUNTER Note Prov. 5:21

Temptation's Trap

God is fully aware of the temptations you will face. He also knows the certain destruction that awaits you if you succumb to sin's entrapments. The same God who warns you of these dangers gives us the power to overcome them.

22 [a]His own iniquities entrap the wicked man,
And he is caught in the cords of his sin.
23 [a]He shall die for lack of instruction,
And in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

Dangerous Promises

6 My son, [a]if you become [1]surety for your friend,
If you have [2]shaken hands in pledge for a stranger,
2 You are snared by the words of your mouth;
You are taken by the words of your mouth.
3 So do this, my son, and deliver yourself;
For you have come into the hand of your friend:
Go and humble yourself;
Plead with your friend.
4 [a]Give no sleep to your eyes,
Nor slumber to your eyelids.
5 Deliver yourself like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter,
And like a bird from the hand of the [1]fowler.

The Folly of Indolence

6 [a]Go to the ant, you sluggard!
Consider her ways and be wise,
7 Which, having no [1]captain,
Overseer or ruler,
8 Provides her [1]supplies in the summer,
And gathers her food in the harvest.
9 [a]How long will you [1]slumber, O sluggard?
When will you rise from your sleep?
10 A little sleep, a little slumber,
A little folding of the hands to sleep—
11 [a]So shall your poverty come on you like a prowler,
And your need like an armed man.

The Wicked Man

12 A worthless person, a wicked man,
Walks with a perverse mouth;
13 [a]He winks with his eyes,
He [1]shuffles his feet,
He points with his fingers;
14 Perversity is in his heart,
[a]He devises evil continually,
[b]He sows discord.
15 Therefore his calamity shall come [a]suddenly;
Suddenly he shall [b]be broken [c]without remedy.

16 These six things the LORD hates,
Yes, seven are an abomination to [1]Him:

ENCOUNTER Note Prov. 6:16

What God Hates

There are certain attitudes and behaviors that God hates. God opposes anything that robs His children of His best and that treats others with contempt and disregard.

17 [a]A[1] proud look,
[b]A lying tongue,
[c]Hands that shed innocent blood,

17 [a]Ps. 101:5 [b]Ps. 120:2 [c]Is. 1:15 [1]Lit. Haughty eyes

6:1 "Surety" means one who puts up security or a pledge for another's financial obligations. The Bible never prohibits generous giving, but taking on responsibilities rightfully belonging to others is unwise.

6:16 The word "hate" coming from the Hebrew word sane', and "abhor" coming from the Hebrew word to 'ebah, are two of the strongest words used to describe something God considers an abomination.

18 [a]A heart that devises wicked plans,
[b]Feet that are swift in running to evil,
19 [a]A false witness who speaks lies,
And one who [b]sows discord among brethren.

Beware of Adultery

20 [a]My son, keep your father's command,
And do not forsake the law of your mother.
21 [a]Bind them continually upon your heart;
Tie them around your neck.
22 [a]When you roam, [1]they will lead you;
When you sleep, [b]they will keep you;
And when you awake, they will speak with you.
23 [a]For the commandment is a lamp,
And the law a light;
Reproofs of instruction are the way of life,
24 [a]To keep you from the evil woman,
From the flattering tongue of a seductress.
25 [a]Do not lust after her beauty in your heart,
Nor let her allure you with her eyelids.
26 For [a]by means of a harlot
A man is reduced to a crust of bread;
[b]And [1]an adulteress will [c]prey upon his precious life.
27 Can a man take fire to his bosom,
And his clothes not be burned?
28 Can one walk on hot coals,
And his feet not be seared?
29 So is he who goes in to his neighbor's wife;
Whoever touches her shall not be innocent.

30 People do not despise a thief
If he steals to satisfy himself when he is starving.
31 Yet when he is found, [a]he must restore sevenfold;
He may have to give up all the substance of his house.
32 Whoever commits adultery with a woman [a]lacks understanding;
He who does so destroys his own soul.
33 Wounds and dishonor he will get,
And his reproach will not be wiped away.
34 For [a]jealousy is a husband's fury;
Therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

Irreversible Damage

Some sins leave a lasting mark; no compensation or remorse will undo the damage done to others. God warns us about succumbing to sin's enticements and about the devastating consequences, but ultimately we choose whether or not we will sin.

CHAPTER 7

7 My son, keep my words,
And [a]treasure my commands within you.
2 [a]Keep my commands and live,
[b]And my law as the apple of your eye.
3 [a]Bind them on your fingers;
Write them on the tablet of your heart.
4 Say to wisdom, "You are my sister,"
And call understanding your nearest kin,
5 [a]That they may keep you from the immoral woman,
From the seductress who flatters with her words.

The Crafty Harlot

6 For at the window of my house
I looked through my lattice,
7 And saw among the simple,
I perceived among the [1]youths,
A young man [a]devoid[2] of understanding,
8 Passing along the street near her corner;
And he took the path to her house
9 [a]In the twilight, in the evening,
In the black and dark night.

10 And there a woman met him,
With the attire of a harlot, and a crafty heart.
11 [a]She was loud and rebellious,
[b]Her feet would not stay at home.
12 At times she was outside, at times in the open square,
Lurking at every corner.
13 So she caught him and kissed him;
With an [1]impudent face she said to him:
14 "I have peace offerings with me;
Today I have paid my vows.
15 So I came out to meet you,

7:1–5 "Seductress" is literally "adulterous woman" and describes one who tempts others to do evil. It is perhaps ironic that Solomon's mother fell into this category for King David (2 Sam. 11:2–4).

ENCOUNTER Note Prov. 7:12

Sin Seeks Its Victims

God protects His people when we stay on the right path. But when we choose to stray we fall prey to the evil that is ready to lead us to destruction. Our protection is dependant upon our proximity to the Protector.

Diligently to seek your face,
And I have found you.
16 I have spread my bed with tapestry,
Colored coverings of [a]Egyptian linen.
17 I have perfumed my bed
With myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
18 Come, let us take our fill of love
until morning;
Let us delight ourselves with love.
19 For [1]my husband is not at home;
He has gone on a long journey;
20 He has taken a bag of money [1]with him,
And will come home [2]on the appointed day."
21 [1]With [a]her enticing speech she caused him to yield,
[b]With her flattering lips she [2]seduced him.
22 Immediately he went after her, as an ox goes to the slaughter,
Or [1]as a fool to the correction of the [2]stocks,
23 Till an arrow struck his liver.
[a]As a bird hastens to the snare,
He did not know it [1]would cost his life.

24 Now therefore, listen to me, my children;
Pay attention to the words of my mouth:
25 Do not let your heart turn aside to her ways,
Do not stray into her paths;
26 For she has cast down many wounded,
And [a]all who were slain by her were strong men.
27 [a]Her house is the way to [1]hell,
Descending to the chambers of death.

The Excellence of Wisdom

8 Does not [a]wisdom cry out,
And understanding lift up her voice?
2 She takes her stand on the top of the [1]high hill,
Beside the way, where the paths meet.
3 She cries out by the gates, at the entry of the city,
At the entrance of the doors:
4 "To you, O men, I call,
And my voice is to the sons of men.
5 O you [1]simple ones, understand prudence,
And you fools, be of an understanding heart.
6 Listen, for I will speak of [a]excellent things,
And from the opening of my lips will come right things;
7 For my mouth will speak truth;
Wickedness is an abomination to my lips.
8 All the words of my mouth are with righteousness;
Nothing crooked or perverse is in them.
9 They are all plain to him who understands,
And right to those who find knowledge.
10 Receive my instruction, and not silver,
And knowledge rather than choice gold;
11 [a]For wisdom is better than rubies,

ENCOUNTER Note Prov. 7:27

Sin Never Satisfies

Temptation is ultimately from Satan, forged in deceit and seeking our destruction. God knows how seductive temptation can be. It entices us to crave more as it insidiously lures us on, then it leaves us disillusioned and destroyed. God is never pleased to see anyone trapped by Satan's lies, and He lovingly provides us with safeguards through His word.

ENCOUNTER Note Prov. 8:1

Secret Sin Versus a Public Kingdom

In contrast to sin, which works secretly in dark places, truth seeks an audience. God's activity is meant to draw people to Himself and to illuminate the evil that is conspired and perpetrated in the shadows.

7:26 "Strong" translates the Hebrew word 'atsum, meaning mighty, powerful, or great. It was not only the weak that the immoral woman ruined, but the strong.

8:10 Silver, gold, and rubies, though rare and costly, pale in comparison to the value of wisdom and its rewards. A wealthy king without wisdom is still a fool.

And all the things one may desire cannot be compared with her.

12 "I, wisdom, dwell with prudence,
And find out knowledge and
discretion.
13 [a]The fear of the LORD is to hate evil;
[b]Pride and arrogance and the evil
way
And [c]the perverse mouth I hate.
14 Counsel is mine, and sound
wisdom;
I am understanding, [a]I have strength.
15 [a]By me kings reign,
And rulers decree justice.
16 By me princes rule, and nobles,
All the judges of [1]the earth.
17 [a]I love those who love me,
And [b]those who seek me diligently will find me.

ENCOUNTER Note Prov. 8:17

Love for God Rewarded

God is a God of love. His promise to respond to all who seek after Him stands through every generation.

18 [a]Riches and honor are with me,
Enduring riches and righteousness.
19 My fruit is better than gold, yes,
than fine gold,
And my revenue than choice silver.
20 I [1]traverse the way of righteousness,
In the midst of the paths of justice,
21 That I may cause those who love me
to inherit wealth,
That I may fill their treasuries.

22 "The[a] LORD possessed me at the beginning of His way,
Before His works of old.
23 [a]I have been established from everlasting,
From the beginning, before there was ever an earth.
24 When there were no depths I was brought forth,
When there were no fountains
abounding with water.
25 [a]Before the mountains were settled,
Before the hills, I was brought forth;
26 While as yet He had not made the earth or the [1]fields,
Or the [2]primal dust of the world.
27 When He prepared the heavens, I was there,
When He drew a circle on the face of the deep,
28 When He established the clouds above,
When He strengthened the fountains of the deep, 29 [a]When He assigned to the sea its limit,
So that the waters would not transgress His command,
When [b]He marked out the foundations of the earth,
30 [a]Then I was beside Him as [1]a master
craftsman;
[b]And I was daily His delight,
Rejoicing always before Him,
31 Rejoicing in His inhabited world,
And [a]my delight was with the sons of men.

32 "Now therefore, listen to me, my children,
For [a]blessed are those who keep my
ways.
33 Hear instruction and be wise,
And do not disdain it.
34 [a]Blessed is the man who listens to
me,
Watching daily at my gates,
Waiting at the posts of my doors.
35 For whoever finds me finds life,
And [a]obtains favor from the LORD;
36 But he who sins against me
[a]wrongs his own soul;
All those who hate me love death."

The Way of Wisdom

9 Wisdom has [a]built her house,
She has hewn out her seven pillars;
2 [a]She has slaughtered her meat,
[b]She has mixed her wine,
She has also [1]furnished her table.
3 She has sent out her maidens,
She cries out from the highest places of the city, 4 "Whoever[a] is simple, let him turn in here!"
As for him who lacks understanding, she says to him,
5 "Come,[a] eat of my bread
And drink of the wine I have mixed.
6 Forsake foolishness and live,
And go in the way of understanding.

8:22–31 Wisdom is the proper application of knowledge. Here it is given preeminence above all other attributes of God. Some equate this wisdom with the Son of God (John 1:1–14; 1 Cor. 1:24, 30; Heb. 1:1–4), because of His role in creation.

8:34 Without modern methods of communication, waiting at the city gates was an effective way to find someone, since an active person would be likely to pass by there at some point in the day.

9:1 Seven pillars included one for each corner and one on each of three sides. This allowed for one entrance into the courtyard. Although seven would have been a practical number, the allegory involved, though debatable, may represent perfection as the number seven did, or plenty enough.

9:5 It was customary to mix three parts water with one part wine for day-to-day use. However, to improve the strength and intoxicating effects, ingredients such as honey, myrrh, mandragora, and opium were sometimes used. Here the term may simply mean wine of the best possible quality.

7 "He who corrects a scoffer gets shame for himself,
And he who rebukes a wicked man
only harms himself.
8 [a]Do not correct a scoffer, lest he hate
you;
[b]Rebuke a wise man, and he will love you.

ENCOUNTER Note Prov. 9:8

Fear

True wisdom grows out of our relationship with God. The more we revere Him, the more humble and teachable we will be and the wiser we will become.

9 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be still wiser;
Teach a just man, [a]and he will increase in learning.
10 "The[a] fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom,
And the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.
11 [a]For by me your days will be multiplied,
And years of life will be added to
you.
12 [a]If you are wise, you are wise for yourself,
And if you scoff, you will bear it alone."

The Way of Folly

13 [a]A foolish woman is [1]clamorous;
She is simple, and knows nothing.
14 For she sits at the door of her
house,
On a seat [a]by the highest places of the city,
15 To call to those who pass by,
Who go straight on their way:
16 "Whoever[a] is [1]simple, let him turn in here";
And as for him who lacks understanding, she says to
him,

Wise Sayings of Solomon

10 The proverbs of [a]Solomon:
[b]A wise son makes a glad father,
But a foolish son is the grief of his mother.

ENCOUNTER Note Prov. 10:1

Happy Fathers

When a son proves wise, a father can rest, knowing the future is secure for the next generation. So it is with God and His children.

2 [a]Treasures of wickedness profit nothing,
[b]But righteousness delivers from death.
3 [a]The LORD will not allow the righteous soul to famish,
But He casts away the desire of the wicked.
4 [a]He who has a slack hand becomes poor,
But [b]the hand of the diligent makes rich.
5 He who gathers in [a]summer is a wise son;
He who sleeps in harvest is [b]a son who causes shame.
6 Blessings are on the head of the righteous,
But violence covers the mouth of
the wicked.
7 [a]The memory of the righteous is
blessed,
But the name of the wicked will rot.
8 The wise in heart will receive commands,
[a]But [1]a prating fool will [2]fall.
9 [a]He who walks with integrity walks securely,
But he who perverts his ways will become known.
10 He who winks with the eye causes
trouble,
But a prating fool will fall.

8 [a]Prov. 10:10 [1]Lit. the foolish of lips [2]be thrust down or ruined
9 [a][Ps. 23:4]

9:7 God warns against trying to give a blessing to those who will use it against you, thus wasting your efforts (See Matthew 7:6 concerning Jesus' teaching on casting pearls before swine.)

10:8 "Prating" translates the Hebrew word saphah, which refers to a border or empty shoreline and describes one who prattles on at length about nothing.

11 The mouth of the righteous is a well of life,
But violence covers the mouth of the wicked.

12 Hatred stirs up strife,
But [a]love covers all sins.

13 Wisdom is found on the lips of him who has understanding,
But [a]a rod is for the back of him who [1]is devoid of understanding.

14 Wise people store up knowledge,
But [a]the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

15 The [a]rich man's wealth is his strong city;
The destruction of the poor is their poverty.

16 The labor of the righteous leads to [a]life,
The wages of the wicked to sin.

ENCOUNTER Note Prov. 10:16

Reaping What We Sow

There is both righteous labor and wicked labor. Those who invest their efforts in the pursuit of righteousness will always be rewarded with God's blessing. Those with evil motives are wasting their effort, for everything they gain will ultimately be lost.

17 He who keeps instruction is in the way of life,
But he who refuses correction [1]goes astray.

18 Whoever [a]hides hatred has lying lips,
And [b]whoever spreads slander is a fool.

19 [a]In the multitude of words sin is not lacking,
But [b]he who restrains his lips is wise.

20 The tongue of the righteous is choice silver;
The heart of the wicked is worth little.

21 The lips of the righteous feed many,
But fools die for lack of [1]wisdom.

22 [a]The blessing of the LORD makes one rich,
And He adds no sorrow with it.

5 [a]Prov. 5:22 [1]Or make smooth or straight

23 [a]To do evil is like sport to a fool,
But a man of understanding has wisdom.

24 [a]The fear of the wicked will come upon him,
And [b]the desire of the righteous will be granted.

25 When the whirlwind passes by, [a]the wicked is no more,
But [b]the righteous has an everlasting foundation.

26 As vinegar to the teeth and smoke to the eyes,
So is the lazy man to those who send him.

27 [a]The fear of the LORD prolongs days,
But [b]the years of the wicked will be shortened.

28 The hope of the righteous will be gladness,
But the [a]expectation of the wicked will perish.

29 The way of the LORD is strength for the upright,
But [a]destruction will come to the workers of iniquity.

30 [a]The righteous will never be removed,
But the wicked will not inhabit the [1]earth.

31 [a]The mouth of the righteous brings forth wisdom,
But the perverse tongue will be cut out.

32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable,
But the mouth of the wicked what is perverse.

11 [a]Dishonest[1] scales are an abomination to the LORD,
But a [2]just weight is His delight.

2 When pride comes, then comes [a]shame;
But with the humble is wisdom.

3 The integrity of the upright will guide [a]them,
But the perversity of the unfaithful will destroy them.

4 [a]Riches do not profit in the day of wrath,
But [b]righteousness delivers from death.

5 The righteousness of the blameless will [1]direct his way aright,
But the wicked will fall by his own [a]wickedness.

10:24 One result of sin and folly is to fear the wrong things. The foolish fear wicked people, while the righteous fear God.

11:1 The use of scales was a daily part of life for most people. To use false scales treated people with contempt, cheating them for personal gain (Prov. 16:11; 20:10, 23).

11:4 When invading armies took the Israelites captive, riches became irrelevant. Only those who followed the Lord were protected from destruction.

6 The righteousness of the upright will deliver them,
But the unfaithful will be caught by their lust.

7 When a wicked man dies, his expectation will [a]perish,
And the hope of the unjust perishes.
8 [a]The righteous is delivered from trouble,
And it comes to the wicked
instead.
9 The hypocrite with his mouth
destroys his neighbor,
But through knowledge the righteous will be delivered.
10 [a]When it goes well with the righteous, the city rejoices;
And when the wicked perish, there is jubilation.
11 By the blessing of the upright the city is [a]exalted,
But it is overthrown by the mouth of
the wicked.

ENCOUNTER Note — Prov. 11:11

The Greater Impact of Righteousness

Do not underestimate the impact your life has on the people around you. God wants to bless others through your life.

12 He who [1]is devoid of wisdom
despises his neighbor,
But a man of understanding holds his peace.

13 [a]A talebearer reveals secrets,
But he who is of a faithful spirit
[b]conceals a matter.

14 [a]Where there is no counsel, the people fall;
But in the multitude of counselors
there is safety.

15 He who is [a]surety[1] for a stranger will suffer,
But one who hates [2]being surety is secure.

16 A gracious woman retains honor,
But ruthless men retain riches.
17 [a]The merciful man does good for his own soul,
But he who is cruel troubles his own
flesh.
18 The wicked man does deceptive work,
But [a]he who sows righteousness
will have a sure reward.
19 As righteousness leads to [a]life,
So he who pursues evil pursues it to his own [b]death.
20 Those who are of a perverse heart are an abomination to the LORD,
But the blameless in their ways are
His delight.
21 [a]Though they join [1]forces, the wicked will not go unpunished;
But [b]the posterity of the righteous will be delivered.

22 As a ring of gold in a swine's snout,
So is a lovely woman who lacks
[1]discretion.

23 The desire of the righteous is only
good,
But the expectation of the wicked
[a]is wrath.

24 There is one who [a]scatters, yet increases more;
And there is one who withholds
more than is right,
But it leads to poverty.

ENCOUNTER Note — Prov. 11:24

Receiving Because You Give

God sees when no one else is looking. Giving generously is an investment in your own future. The return on this investment is only limited by the generosity of God Himself.

25 [a]The generous soul will be made
rich,
[b]And he who waters will also be watered himself.
26 The people will curse [a]him who withholds grain,
But [b]blessing will be on the head of him who sells it.

27 He who earnestly seeks good [1]finds favor,
[a]But trouble will come to him who seeks evil.

28 [a]He who trusts in his riches will fall,
But [b]the righteous will flourish like foliage.

29 He who troubles his own house
[a]will inherit the wind,
And the fool will be [b]servant to the wise of heart.

30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of
life,
And [a]he who [1]wins souls is wise.

31 [a]If the righteous will be
[1]recompensed on the earth,
How much more the ungodly and the sinner.

But a man of wicked intentions He will condemn.

3 A man is not established by wickedness,
But the [a]root of the righteous cannot be moved.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Prov. 12:3

Eternal Roots

The root of righteousness is found only in eternal God who cannot be shaken. He has been the one constant source of virtue since the beginning of time (Ps. 1:3; 15:5; Prov. 10:25; 12:12; Jer. 17:8).

4 [a]An[1] excellent wife is the crown of her husband,
But she who causes shame is [b]like rottenness in his bones.

5 The thoughts of the righteous are right,
But the counsels of the wicked are deceitful.

6 [a]The words of the wicked are, "Lie in wait for blood,"
[b]But the mouth of the upright will deliver them.

7 [a]The wicked are overthrown and are no more,
But the house of the righteous will stand.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Prov. 12:7

The House of the Righteous

Carnal society invests heavily into temporal things that cannot sustain them in times of disaster. But the righteous live in the security of God's loving protection. They too will face calamity, but they will not be shaken.

8 A man will be commended according to his wisdom,
[a]But he who is of a perverse heart will be despised.

9 [a]Better is the one who is [1]slighted but has a servant,
Than he who honors himself but lacks bread.

10 [a]A righteous man regards the life of his animal,
But the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.

11 [a]He who [1]tills his land will be satisfied with [b]bread,
But he who follows [2]frivolity [c]is devoid of [3]understanding.

12 The wicked covet the catch of evil men,
But the root of the righteous yields fruit.

13 [a]The wicked is ensnared by the transgression of his lips,
[b]But the righteous will come through trouble.

14 [a]A man will be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth,
[b]And the recompense of a man's hands will be rendered to him.

15 [a]The way of a fool is right in his own eyes,
But he who heeds counsel is wise.

16 [a]A fool's wrath is known at once,
But a prudent man covers shame.

17 [a]He who speaks truth declares righteousness,
But a false witness, deceit.

18 [a]There is one who speaks like the piercings of a sword,
But the tongue of the wise promotes health.

19 The truthful lip shall be established forever,
[a]But a lying tongue is but for a moment.

20 Deceit is in the heart of those who devise evil,
But counselors of peace have joy.

21 [a]No grave [1]trouble will overtake the righteous,
But the wicked shall be filled with evil.

22 [a]Lying lips are an abomination to the LORD,
But those who deal truthfully are His delight.

23 [a]A prudent man conceals knowledge,
But the heart of fools proclaims foolishness.

12:2 "Favor," from the Hebrew ratson, could mean delight, desire, or pleasure. "Condemn" is from the Hebrew rasha' and means to be deemed wrong or wicked.

12:4 "Excellent" represents the Hebrew word chayil, which can also mean virtuous, valiant, and worthy. It can signify a source or means of wealth or other resources.

12:22 "Abomination" translates the Hebrew word to'ebah, which means morally disgusting or abhorrent. The term was often used in reference to idolatry.

24 [a]The hand of the diligent will rule,
But the lazy man will be put to forced labor.

25 [a]Anxiety in the heart of man causes depression,
But [b]a good word makes it glad.

26 The righteous should choose his friends carefully,
For the way of the wicked leads them astray.

27 The lazy man does not roast what he took in hunting,
But diligence is man's precious possession.

28 In the way of righteousness is life,
And in its pathway there is no death.

13 A wise son heeds his father's instruction,
[a]But a scoffer does not listen to rebuke.

2 [a]A man shall eat well by the fruit of his mouth,
But the soul of the unfaithful feeds on violence.

3 [a]He who guards his mouth preserves his life,
But he who opens wide his lips shall have destruction.

4 [a]The soul of a lazy man desires, and has nothing;
But the soul of the diligent shall be made rich.

5 A righteous man hates lying,
But a wicked man is loathsome and comes to shame.

6 [a]Righteousness guards him whose way is blameless,
But wickedness overthrows the sinner.

7 [a]There is one who makes himself rich, yet has nothing;
And one who makes himself poor, yet has great riches.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Prov. 13:7

Different Priorities

God's followers live by different priorities. What seems worthless to fools is often valuable to the righteous, and what fools pursue is often worthless in God's eyes.

21 [a]Evil pursues sinners,

24 [a]He who spares his rod hates his son,

13:12 "Deferred" indicates something that is long delayed rather than a simple revision in a schedule.

But he who loves him disciplines him [1]promptly.

ENCOUNTER Note — Prov. 13:24

Love Brings Discipline

Sometimes love requires us to do difficult things. God will not hesitate to intervene in our lives when He sees us straying into danger. We should raise our children with the same diligent love God shows us.

WORD Study — DISCIPLINE

Prov. 13:24 This word carries the meaning of reproof, correction, instruction, admonition and training. It connotes both a negative action of punishment for wrongdoing and a positive action of training in righteousness. God reserves His discipline for His children (Heb. 12:5–8). Learning from God's discipline leads to a successful life (13:18).

25 [a]The righteous eats to the satisfying of his soul,
But the stomach of the wicked shall be in want.

14 The wise woman builds her
house,
But the foolish pulls it down with her hands.

2 He who walks in his uprightness
fears the LORD,
[a]But he who is perverse in his ways
despises Him.

3 In the mouth of a fool is a rod of
pride,
[a]But the lips of the wise will preserve them.

4 Where no oxen are, the [1]trough is

12 [a]There is a way that seems right to a

But [b]its end is the way of [c]death.

ENCOUNTER Note — Prov. 14:12

God's Ways

God's Spirit is a teacher and counselor to guide His people through life's dangers. God's wisdom is beyond us, but He reveals it us so we will know what to do. Left on our own, we would self-destruct.

13 Even in laughter the heart may sorrow,
And [a]the end of mirth may be grief.

14 The backslider in heart will be
[a]filled with his own ways,
But a good man will be satisfied

15 The simple believes every word,
But the prudent considers well his steps.

16 [a]A wise man fears and departs from evil,
But a fool rages and is self-confident.

17 A quick-tempered man acts
foolishly,
And a man of wicked intentions is hated.

18 The simple inherit folly,
But the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

righteous.

16 [a]Prov. 22:3

14:4 Oxen were used for plowing the land, transporting produce, turning the threshing wheel, and providing sheer strength of force in construction. Where there is no industrious activity, such creatures are not required.

14:9 "Mock" translates from the Hebrew luts. It is a sin to scoff at someone for the sorry state that person's sin caused. The righteous, on the other hand, would show grace, pity, and compassion, which were godly characteristics.

20 [a]The poor man is hated even by his own neighbor,
But [1]the rich has many [b]friends.
21 He who despises his neighbor sins;
[a]But he who has mercy on the poor, happy is he.
22 Do they not go astray who devise evil?
But mercy and truth belong to those who devise good.
23 In all labor there is profit,
But [1]idle chatter leads only to poverty.
24 The crown of the wise is their riches,
But the foolishness of fools is folly.
25 A true witness [1]delivers [a]souls,
But a deceitful witness speaks lies.
26 In the fear of the LORD there is strong confidence,
And His children will have a place of refuge.
27 [a]The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life,
To turn one away from the snares of death.
28 In a multitude of people is a king's honor,
But in the lack of people is the downfall of a prince.
29 [a]He who is slow to wrath has great understanding,
But he who is [1]impulsive exalts folly.
30 A sound heart is life to the body,
But [a]envy is [b]rottenness to the bones.
31 [a]He who oppresses the poor reproaches [b]his Maker,
But he who honors Him has mercy on the needy.

ENCOUNTER Note — Prov. 14:31

The Needy

Throughout the Bible, the poor, orphans, and widows are portrayed as holding a special place in God's heart. Caring for the needy is an act of respect and honor for God. Showing compassion to those less fortunate demonstrates a heart that is like God's.

32 The wicked is banished in his wickedness,
But [a]the righteous has a refuge in his death.

35 [a]Matt. 24:45–47

33 Wisdom rests in the heart of him who has understanding,
But [a]what is in the heart of fools is made known.
34 Righteousness exalts a [a]nation,
But sin is a [1]reproach to any people.
35 [a]The king's favor is toward a wise servant,
But his wrath is against him who causes shame.

CHAPTER 15

15 A [a]soft answer turns away wrath,
But [b]a harsh word stirs up anger.
2 The tongue of the wise uses knowledge rightly,
[a]But the mouth of fools pours forth foolishness.
3 [a]The eyes of the LORD are in every place,
Keeping watch on the evil and the good.

ENCOUNTER Note — Prov. 15:3

God Is Watching

The all-knowing, all-seeing God we serve never averts His eyes from the good or evil that people perpetrate upon one another. He defends the cause of the righteous and brings justice to those who do evil, every time, all the time, and in His time.

4 A [1]wholesome tongue is a tree of life,
But perverseness in it breaks the spirit.
5 [a]A fool despises his father's instruction,
[b]But he who [1]receives correction is prudent.
6 In the house of the righteous there is much treasure,
But in the revenue of the wicked is trouble.
7 The lips of the wise [1]disperse knowledge,
But the heart of the fool does not do so.
8 [a]The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD,
But the prayer of the upright is His delight.
9 The way of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD,
But He loves him who [a]follows righteousness.

Prayers of the Upright

God created us for a relationship with Him. He is delighted when we follow His ways, since that enables us to communicate freely with Him through prayer.

10 [a]Harsh discipline is for him who forsakes the way,
And [b]he who hates correction will die.

11 [a]Hell[1] and [2]Destruction are before the LORD;
So how much more [b]the hearts of the sons of men.

12 [a]A scoffer does not love one who corrects him,
Nor will he go to the wise.

13 [a]A merry heart makes a cheerful [1]countenance,
But [b]by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken.

14 The heart of him who has understanding seeks knowledge,
But the mouth of fools feeds on foolishness.

15 All the days of the afflicted are evil,
[a]But he who is of a merry heart has a continual feast.

16 [a]Better is a little with the fear of the LORD,
Than great treasure with trouble.

17 [a]Better is a dinner of [1]herbs where love is,
Than a fatted calf with hatred.

18 [a]A wrathful man stirs up strife,
But he who is slow to anger allays contention.

19 [a]The way of the lazy man is like a hedge of thorns,
But the way of the upright is a highway.

20 [a]A wise son makes a father glad,
But a foolish man despises his mother.

21 [a]Folly is joy to him who is destitute of [1]discernment,
[b]But a man of understanding walks uprightly.

22 [a]Without counsel, plans go awry,
But in the multitude of counselors they are established.

23 A man has joy by the answer of his mouth,
And [a]a word spoken [1]in due season, how good it is!

24 [a]The way of life winds upward for the wise,
That he may [b]turn away from [1]hell below.

25 [a]The LORD will destroy the house of the proud,
But [b]He will establish the boundary of the widow.

26 [a]The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the LORD,
[b]But the words of the pure are pleasant.

27 [a]He who is greedy for gain troubles his own house,
But he who hates bribes will live.

28 The heart of the righteous [a]studies how to answer,
But the mouth of the wicked pours forth evil.

29 [a]The LORD is far from the wicked,
But [b]He hears the prayer of the righteous.

30 The light of the eyes rejoices the heart,
And a good report makes the bones [1]healthy.

31 The ear that hears the rebukes of life
Will abide among the wise.

32 He who disdains instruction despises his own soul,
But he who heeds rebuke gets understanding.

16 The [a]preparations[1] of the heart belong to man,

2 All the ways of a man are pure in his own [a]eyes,
But the LORD weighs the spirits.

2 [a]Prov. 21:2
3 [a]Ps. 37:5 [1]Lit. Roll

15:11 Hell and destruction (literally sheol and abaddon) represent the underworld and the abyss where death reigns, while the hearts of men is where God reigns. While these represent extremes, they are both within God's view.

15:25 The widow in the deepest poverty, is more secure with God than the wicked in their haughty wealth.

16:1 God will use those who are willing and ready to be used. When the heart is ready, the Master will call.

16:3 Commit from the Hebrew word galal, literally means to roll as in rolling something away or down a hill. It implies trusting something into another person's hands, or giving over a burden to someone stronger.

ENCOUNTER Note Prov. 16:2

In Our Own Eyes

We constantly deceive ourselves. We view our actions in the best possible light, and we overestimate the purity of our motives. But God knows us exactly as we are. We must stay close to Him if we are to truly understand ourselves.

And your thoughts will be established.

4 The [a]LORD has made all for Himself,
[b]Yes, even the wicked for the day of [1]doom.

5 [a]Everyone proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD;
Though they join [1]forces, none will go unpunished.

6 [a]In mercy and truth
Atonement is provided for iniquity;
And [b]by the fear of the LORD one departs from evil.

7 When a man's ways please the LORD,
He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.

8 [a]Better is a little with righteousness,
Than vast revenues without justice.

9 [a]A man's heart plans his way,
[b]But the LORD directs his steps.

10 Divination is on the lips of the king;
His mouth must not transgress in judgment.
11 [a]Honest weights and scales are the LORD's;
All the weights in the bag are His [1]work.
12 It is an abomination for kings to commit wickedness,
For [a]a throne is established by righteousness.
13 [a]Righteous lips are the delight of kings,
And they love him who speaks what is right.
14 As messengers of death is the king's wrath,
But a wise man will [a]appease it.
15 In the light of the king's face is life,
And his favor is like a [a]cloud of the latter rain.

16 [a]How much better to get wisdom than gold!
And to get understanding is to be chosen rather than silver.

ENCOUNTER Note Prov. 16:17

Highway of Righteousness

There is a way of life that ensures safety, blessings, and intimacy with the Lord. It is a highway of holiness. It provides a sure path to God's blessing.

18 Pride goes before destruction,
And a haughty spirit before [1]a fall.
19 Better to be of a humble spirit with the lowly,
Than to divide the [1]spoil with the proud.

20 He who heeds the word wisely will find good,
And whoever [a]trusts in the LORD, happy is he.

21 The wise in heart will be called prudent,
And sweetness of the lips increases learning.

22 Understanding is a wellspring of life to him who has it.
But the correction of fools is folly.

23 The heart of the wise teaches his mouth,
And adds learning to his lips.

24 Pleasant words are like a honeycomb,
Sweetness to the soul and health to the bones.

25 There is a way that seems right to a man,
But its end is the way of [a]death.

26 The person who labors, labors for himself,
For his hungry mouth drives [a]him on.

27 [1]An ungodly man digs up evil,
And it is on his lips like a burning [a]fire.
28 A perverse man sows strife,
And [a]a whisperer separates the best of friends.
29 A violent man entices his neighbor,
And leads him in a way that is not good.

16:9 "Directs" comes from the Hebrew word kun, meaning to set up or make sure (Prov. 3:5, 6; Rom. 8:14, 28).

16:17 "Highway" translates the Hebrew word mesillah, and means a raised public road. The way of the righteous has boundaries on either side with a clear view of the destination ahead.

30 He winks his eye to devise perverse things;
He [1]purses his lips and brings about evil.

31 [a]The silver-haired head is a crown of glory,
If it is found in the way of righteousness.

32 [a]He who is slow to anger is better than the mighty,
And he who rules his spirit than he who takes a city.

33 The lot is cast into the lap,
But its every decision is from the LORD.

17 Better is [a]a dry morsel with quietness,
Than a house full of [1]feasting with strife.

2 A wise servant will rule over [a]a son who causes shame,
And will share an inheritance among the brothers.

3 The refining pot is for silver and the furnace for gold,
[a]But the LORD tests the hearts.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Prov. 17:3

Heart Tests

God will regularly test your heart, but not for His benefit—He already knows its condition. His tests show you what He already sees. He will allow pressure, criticism, temptation, and pain to bear upon you so you see what lies within you. Such tests reveal what you are really like.

4 An evildoer gives heed to false lips;
A liar listens eagerly to a [1]spiteful tongue.

5 [a]He who mocks the poor reproaches his Maker;
[b]He who is glad at calamity will not go unpunished.

6 [a]Children's children are the crown of old men,
And the glory of children is their father.

7 Excellent speech is not becoming to a fool,
Much less lying lips to a prince.

8 A present is a precious stone in the eyes of its possessor;
Wherever he turns, he prospers.

9 [a]He who covers a transgression seeks love,
But [b]he who repeats a matter separates friends.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Prov. 17:9

Forgiveness

As God forgives our sins, He expects we will also forgive others. Forgiveness is an extension of grace towards others. We treat them as we would like God to treat us.

10 [a]Rebuke is more effective for a wise man
Than a hundred blows on a fool.

11 An evil man seeks only rebellion;
Therefore a cruel messenger will be sent against him.

12 Let a man meet [a]a bear robbed of her cubs,
Rather than a fool in his folly.

13 Whoever [a]rewards evil for good,
Evil will not depart from his house.

14 The beginning of strife is like releasing water;
Therefore [a]stop contention before a quarrel starts.

15 [a]He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the just,
Both of them alike are an abomination to the LORD.

16 Why is there in the hand of a fool the purchase price of wisdom,
Since he has no heart for it?

17 [a]A friend loves at all times,
And a brother is born for adversity.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Prov. 17:17

A Friend and a Brother

God does not ask anything of us He has not already demonstrated Himself. As He is our Father, and His people are our brothers and sisters, we are to act toward others with the same love, grace, compassion, and sacrifice God showed us in Christ.

18 [a]A man devoid of [1]understanding [2]shakes hands in a pledge,

17:6 Offspring are seen as a blessing from God, but with the blessing comes responsibility. The character and life choices of parents have a tremendous impact on their children's future (Prov 20:8).

19 He who loves transgression loves strife,
And [a]he who exalts his gate seeks destruction.

20 He who has a [1]deceitful heart finds no good,
And he who has [a]a perverse tongue falls into evil.

21 He who begets a scoffer does so to his sorrow,
And the father of a fool has no joy.

22 A [a]merry heart [1]does good, like medicine,
But a broken spirit dries the bones.

23 A wicked man accepts a bribe [1]behind the back
To pervert the ways of justice.

24 [a]Wisdom is in the sight of him who has understanding,
But the eyes of a fool are on the ends of the earth.

25 A [a]foolish son is a grief to his father,
And bitterness to her who bore him.

He rages against all [1]wise judgment.

2 A fool has no delight in understanding,
But in expressing his [a]own heart.

3 When the wicked comes, contempt comes also;
And with dishonor comes reproach.

4 [a]The words of a man's mouth are deep waters;
[b]The wellspring of wisdom is a flowing brook.

5 It is not good to show partiality to the wicked,
Or to overthrow the righteous in [a]judgment.

6 A fool's lips enter into contention,

7 [a]A fool's mouth is his destruction,

10 The name of the LORD is a strong [a]tower;
The righteous run to it and are [1]safe.

WORD*Study* NAME

Prov. 18:10 A name represented a person's power, authority or position. It could also represent a person's character or nature. In the Old Testament, the most revered name of God was Yahweh, (Ex. 3:15; shown in this translation with small capital letters: the LORD or GOD). In the New Testament, it is at the name of Jesus that every knee will bow (Phil 2:9–11).

11 The rich man's wealth is his strong city,
And like a high wall in his own esteem.

HISTORICAL*Encounter* MARTIN NIEMOLLER Prov. 18:10

Martin Niemoller was a pastor in Germany during Adolf Hitler's oppressive regime. When Niemoller refused to yield to Hitler's demands, his church was bombed and he was imprisoned. His trial began February 7, 1938. As a guard led him from his dreary cell to the imposing courtroom, the pastor grew frightened. His church and his family were in danger, and unknown terrors awaited him. As he prepared to ascend a flight of stairs into the courtroom, Niemoller suddenly heard a whisper. It was from his guard. He was quoting Proverbs 18:10. This word from God sustained him through his trial and through his dreary years of imprisonment in Nazi concentration camps, until he could minister in the church once again.

18:1 "Isolates" represents the Hebrew word parad, meaning to sever, be out of joint, or to break away.

ENCOUNTER Note — Prov. 18:10

God Our Fortress

Sometimes the righteous need protection; they must seek a place of safety from danger. The Lord Himself is not intimidated by our greatest fears. He remains unshaken in our worst calamity. We experience incredible peace and security when we abide in Him.

12 [a]Before destruction the heart of a man is haughty,
And before honor is humility.

13 He who answers a matter before he hears it,
It is folly and shame to him.

14 The spirit of a man will sustain him in sickness,
But who can bear a broken spirit?

15 The heart of the prudent acquires knowledge,
And the ear of the wise seeks knowledge.

16 [a]A man's gift makes room for him,
And brings him before great men.

17 The first one to plead his cause seems right,
Until his neighbor comes and examines him.

18 Casting [a]lots causes contentions to cease,
And keeps the mighty apart.

19 A brother offended is harder to win than a strong city,
And contentions are like the bars of a castle.

20 [a]A man's stomach shall be satisfied from the fruit of his mouth;
From the produce of his lips he shall be filled.

21 [a]Death and life are in the power of the tongue,
And those who love it will eat its fruit.

22 [a]He who finds a wife finds a good thing,
And obtains favor from the LORD.

23 The poor man uses entreaties,
But the rich answers [a]roughly.

24 A man who has friends [1]must himself be friendly,
[a]But there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

19 Better [a]is the poor who walks in his integrity
Than one who is perverse in his lips, and is a fool.

ENCOUNTER Note — Prov. 19:1

Character Before Riches

Seeking personal gain at the expense of integrity is never worth the cost. God places high value on good character and personal integrity. Resist the temptation to compromise godly, moral values in the pursuit of worldly comforts. Be assured that the Lord watches and blesses according to the purity of your heart.

2 Also it is not good for a soul to be without knowledge,
And he sins who hastens with his feet.

3 The foolishness of a man twists his way,
And his heart frets against the LORD.

4 [a]Wealth makes many friends,
But the poor is separated from his friend.

5 A [a]false witness will not go unpunished,
And he who speaks lies will not escape.

6 Many entreat the favor of the nobility,
And every man is a friend to one who gives gifts.

7 [a]All the brothers of the poor hate him;
How much more do his friends go [b]far from him!
He may pursue them with words, yet they [1]abandon him.

8 He who gets [1]wisdom loves his own soul;
He who keeps understanding [a]will find good.

9 A false witness will not go unpunished,
And he who speaks lies shall perish.

10 Luxury is not fitting for a fool,
Much less [a]for a servant to rule over princes.

11 [a]The discretion of a man makes him slow to anger,
[b]And his glory is to overlook a transgression.

18:22 The Septuagint, Vulgate (Latin), Syriac, and Arabic versions all say "finds a good wife . . ." (Prov. 19:14).

12 [a]The king's wrath is like the roaring of a lion,
But his favor is [b]like dew on the grass.

13 [a]A foolish son is the ruin of his father,
[b]And the contentions of a wife are a continual [1]dripping.

14 [a]Houses and riches are an inheritance from fathers,
But [b]a prudent wife is from the LORD.

15 [a]Laziness casts one into a deep sleep,
And an idle person will [b]suffer hunger.

16 [a]He who keeps the commandment keeps his soul,
But he who [1]is careless of his ways will die.

17 [a]He who has pity on the poor lends to the LORD,
And He will pay back what he has given.

18 [a]Chasten your son while there is hope,
And do not set your heart [1]on his destruction.

ENCOUNTER Note Prov. 19:18

Raising Children

God instructs us to raise our children carefully, while we have the opportunity. If we teach them to fear the Lord while they are young, and if we model loving Him with all our heart, soul, and mind, we can alleviate much suffering and disappointment down the road.

19 A man of great wrath will suffer punishment;
For if you rescue him, you will have to do it again.

20 Listen to counsel and receive instruction,
That you may be wise [a]in your latter days.

21 There are many plans in a man's heart,
[a]Nevertheless the LORD's counsel—that will stand.

22 What is desired in a man is [1]kindness,
And a poor man is better than a liar.

23 [a]The fear of the LORD leads to life,
And he who has it will abide in satisfaction;
He will not be visited with evil.

24 [a]A lazy man buries his hand in the [1]bowl,
And will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.

25 Strike a scoffer, and the simple [a]will become wary;
[b]Rebuke one who has understanding, and he will discern knowledge.

26 He who mistreats his father and chases away his mother
Is [a]a son who causes shame and brings reproach.

27 Cease listening to instruction, my son,
And you will stray from the words of knowledge.

28 A [1]disreputable witness scorns justice,
And [a]the mouth of the wicked devours iniquity.

29 Judgments are prepared for scoffers,
[a]And beatings for the backs of fools.

20 Wine [a]is a mocker,
Strong drink is a brawler,
And whoever is led astray by it is not wise.

ENCOUNTER Note Prov. 20:1

Under the Influence

Christians are to be under the influence of the Holy Spirit. Chemical intoxicants cause poor judgment and rob us of self-control. Addictions wreak havoc on personal lives, relationships, and careers. Excessive behaviors compromise our character and take us places we are unwise to visit.

2 The [1]wrath of a king is like the roaring of a lion;
Whoever provokes him to anger sins against his own life.

3 [a]It is honorable for a man to stop striving,
Since any fool can start a quarrel.

3 [a]Prov. 17:14

19:23 "Abide" is translated from the Hebrew word lun, and means to stop or stay permanently. "Satisfaction" represents the Hebrew word sabea', and also means fullness.

20:1 "Wine" is yayin in the Hebrew, meaning an effervescent or fermented drink.

4 [a]The lazy man will not plow because of winter;
[b]He will beg during harvest and have nothing.

5 Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water,
But a man of understanding will draw it out.

6 Most men will proclaim each his own [1]goodness,
But who can find a faithful man?

7 [a]The righteous man walks in his integrity;
[b]His children are blessed after him.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Prov. 20:7

High Standards for God's People

God sets high standards for His people. His expectations challenge even the most committed believers, but the results far outweigh the cost. Our actions have a wider impact than we realize and our children are directly affected by our choices. That truth alone should motivate us to rise to the challenge.

8 A king who sits on the throne of judgment
Scatters all evil with his eyes.

9 [a]Who can say, "I have made my heart clean,
I am pure from my sin"?

10 [a]Diverse weights and diverse measures,
They are both alike, an abomination to the LORD.

11 Even a child is [a]known by his deeds,
Whether what he does is pure and right.

12 [a]The hearing ear and the seeing eye,
The LORD has made them both.

13 [a]Do not love sleep, lest you come to poverty;
Open your eyes, and you will be satisfied with bread.

14 "It is [1]good for nothing," cries the buyer;
But when he has gone his way, then he boasts.

15 There is gold and a multitude of rubies,
But [a]the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.

16 [a]Take the garment of one who is surety for a stranger,
And hold it as a pledge when it is for a seductress.

17 [a]Bread gained by deceit is sweet to a man,
But afterward his mouth will be filled with gravel.

18 [a]Plans are established by counsel;
[b]By wise counsel wage war.

19 [a]He who goes about as a talebearer reveals secrets;
Therefore do not associate with one [b]who flatters with his lips.

20 [a]Whoever curses his father or his mother,
[b]His lamp will be put out in deep darkness.

21 [a]An inheritance gained hastily at the beginning
[b]Will not be blessed at the end.

22 [a]Do not say, "I will [1]recompense evil";
[b]Wait for the LORD, and He will save you.

23 Diverse weights are an abomination to the LORD,
And dishonest scales are not good.

24 A man's steps are of the LORD;
How then can a man understand his own way?

25 It is a snare for a man to devote rashly something as holy,
And afterward to reconsider his vows.

26 [a]A wise king sifts out the wicked,
And brings the threshing wheel over them.

27 [a]The spirit of a man is the lamp of the LORD,
Searching all the [1]inner depths of his heart.

28 [a]Mercy and truth preserve the king,
And by [1]lovingkindness he upholds his throne.

29 The glory of young men is their strength,
And [a]the splendor of old men is their gray head.

30 Blows that hurt cleanse away evil,
As do stripes the [1]inner depths of the heart.

30 [1]Lit. rooms of the belly

20:10 Literally "weights and weights, measures and measures," from the Hebrew words 'eben and 'ephah, which mean stones and measures of grain, the words being doubled to imply variety. This means that one weight was used for buying and a different one for selling, while they should have been equal weights.

20:27 Man can know himself through God's revealing Spirit.

21 The king's heart is in the hand of the LORD,
Like the [1]rivers of water;
He turns it wherever He wishes.

2 [a]Every way of a man is right in his own eyes,
[b]But the LORD weighs the hearts.

3 [a]To do righteousness and justice
Is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.

ENCOUNTER Note — Prov. 21:3

Acting Righteously

We expect God to do what is right and just. He expects no less from us. We may be pleased with the sacrifices we present to God, but if we offer them up with sin-stained hands, our shameful behavior renders them unacceptable.

4 [a]A haughty look, a proud heart,
And the [1]plowing of the wicked are sin.

5 [a]The plans of the diligent lead surely to plenty,
But those of everyone who is hasty, surely to poverty.

6 [a]Getting treasures by a lying tongue
[1]Is the fleeting fantasy of those who seek death.

7 The violence of the wicked will [1]destroy them,
Because they refuse to do justice.

8 The way of [1]a guilty man is perverse;
But as for the pure, his work is right.

9 Better to dwell in a corner of a housetop,
Than in a house shared with [a]a contentious woman.

10 [a]The soul of the wicked desires evil;
His neighbor finds no favor in his eyes.

11 When the scoffer is punished, the simple is made wise;
But when the [a]wise is instructed, he receives knowledge.

12 The righteous God wisely considers the house of the wicked,
Overthrowing the wicked for their wickedness.

13 [a]Whoever shuts his ears to the cry of the poor
Will also cry himself and not be heard.

14 A gift in secret pacifies anger,
And a bribe [1]behind the back, strong wrath.

15 It is a joy for the just to do justice,
But destruction will come to the workers of iniquity.

16 A man who wanders from the way of understanding
Will rest in the assembly of the [a]dead.

17 He who loves pleasure will be a poor man;
He who loves wine and oil will not be rich.

18 The wicked shall be a ransom for the righteous,
And the unfaithful for the upright.

19 Better to dwell [1]in the wilderness,
Than with a contentious and angry woman.

20 [a]There is desirable treasure,
And oil in the dwelling of the wise,
But a foolish man squanders it.

21 [a]He who follows righteousness and mercy
Finds life, righteousness. and honor.

22 A [a]wise man [1]scales the city of the mighty,
And brings down the trusted stronghold.

23 [a]Whoever guards his mouth and tongue
Keeps his soul from troubles.

24 A proud and haughty man—
"Scoffer" is his name;
He acts with arrogant pride.

25 The [a]desire of the lazy man kills him,
For his hands refuse to labor.
26 He covets greedily all day long,
But the righteous [a]gives and does not spare.

27 [a]The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination;
How much more when he brings it with wicked intent!

21:14 God never condones bribery to pervert or manipulate justice. However, Christians have a sincere desire to be reconciled with anyone who is opposed to them.

21:17 "Pleasure" translates the Hebrew simchah, meaning joy, mirth, and gladness, such as could be found in feasting, drunkenness, or the use of aromatic oils. Those who dwell on experiences and pleasurable activities rarely have anything to show for their effort.

28 A false witness shall perish,
But the man who hears him will speak endlessly.

29 A wicked man hardens his face,
But as for the upright, he [1]establishes his way.

30 [a]There is no wisdom or understanding
Or counsel against the LORD.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Prov. 21:30

The Lord Always Succeeds

Since the beginning of time, no one has been able to compete with God's wisdom, understanding, insight, or counsel. Many have tried; all have failed. God's omnipresence, omnipotence, and omniscience place Him in a divinely unique position. Wise are the people who seek God's counsel, for He is eager to give it.

31 The horse is prepared for the day of battle,
But [a]deliverance is of the LORD.

22 A [a]good name is to be chosen rather than great riches,
Loving favor rather than silver and gold.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Prov. 22:1

Your Reputation Is Precious

Your "name" represents your character and your reputation. God gave His Son a name by which miracles were performed and people were saved. Protecting the integrity of your name can determine the kind of future you and your children enjoy. A respected name is a valuable treasure.

2 The [a]rich and the poor have this in common,
The [b]LORD is the maker of them all.

3 A prudent man foresees evil and hides himself,
But the simple pass on and are [a]punished.

4 By humility and the fear of the LORD
Are riches and honor and life.

5 Thorns and snares are in the way of the perverse;
He who guards his soul will be far from them.

6 [a]Train up a child in the way he should go,
[1]And when he is old he will not depart from it.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Prov. 22:6

Leading Children

As God leads and guides His children according to His ways, so parents should be intentionally involved in directing their child in life. There is a way that leads to righteousness and blessing from God, and a way that leads to destruction and rebellion. Leading is more than giving instructions. It involves active participation.

7 The [a]rich rules over the poor,
And the borrower is servant to the lender.

8 He who sows iniquity will reap [a]sorrow,[1]
And the rod of his anger will fail.

9 [a]He who has a [1]generous eye will be [b]blessed,
For he gives of his bread to the poor.

10 [a]Cast out the scoffer, and contention will leave;
Yes, strife and reproach will cease.

11 [a]He who loves purity of heart
And has grace on his lips,
The king will be his friend.

12 The eyes of the LORD preserve knowledge,
But He overthrows the words of the faithless.

13 [a]The lazy man says, "There is a lion outside!
I shall be slain in the streets!"

14 [a]The mouth of an immoral woman is a deep pit;
[b]He who is abhorred by the LORD will fall there.

15 Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child;
[a]The rod of correction will drive it far from him.

16 He who oppresses the poor to increase his riches,
And he who gives to the rich, will surely come to poverty.

Sayings of the Wise

17 Incline your ear and hear the words of the wise,
And apply your heart to my knowledge;
18 For it is a pleasant thing if you keep them within you;
Let them all be fixed upon your lips,
19 So that your trust may be in the LORD;
I have instructed you today, even you.
20 Have I not written to you excellent things
Of counsels and knowledge,
21 [a]That I may make you know the certainty of the words of truth,
[b]That you may answer words of truth
To those who [1]send to you?

22 Do not rob the [a]poor because he is poor,
Nor oppress the afflicted at the gate;
23 [a]For the LORD will plead their cause,
And plunder the soul of those who plunder them.

24 Make no friendship with an angry man,
And with a [a]furious man do not go,
25 Lest you learn his ways
And set a snare for your soul.

26 [a]Do not be one of those who [1]shakes hands in a pledge,
One of those who is [2]surety for debts;
27 If you have nothing with which to pay,
Why should he take away your bed from under you?

28 [a]Do not remove the ancient [1]landmark
Which your fathers have set.

29 Do you see a man who [1]excels in his work?
He will stand before kings;
He will not stand before [2]unknown men.

23 When you sit down to eat with a ruler,
Consider carefully what is before you;
2 And put a knife to your throat
If you are a man given to appetite.
3 Do not desire his delicacies,
For they are deceptive food.

4 [a]Do not overwork to be rich;
[b]Because of your own understanding, cease!
5 [1]Will you set your eyes on that which is not?
For riches certainly make themselves wings;
They fly away like an eagle toward heaven.

6 Do not eat the bread of [a]a[1] miser,
Nor desire his delicacies;
7 For as he thinks in his heart, so is he.
"Eat and drink!" [a]he says to you,
But his heart is not with you.
8 The morsel you have eaten, you will vomit up,
And waste your pleasant words.

9 [a]Do not speak in the hearing of a fool,
For he will despise the wisdom of your words.

10 Do not remove the ancient [1]landmark,
Nor enter the fields of the fatherless;

WORD*Study* BOUNDARY STONES

Prov. 23:10 These stones were upright stone markers set in place to define the outer edge of one's property, as decreed by God's command or by the agreement between families or tribes. Moving these markers would be a transgression against those who established them. Moreover, future generations would be robbed of property that was rightfully theirs. (also 22:28)

11 [a]For their Redeemer is mighty;
He will plead their cause against you.

12 Apply your heart to instruction,
And your ears to words of knowledge.

13 [a]Do not withhold correction from a child,
For if you beat him with a rod, he will not die.
14 You shall beat him with a rod,
And deliver his soul from [1]hell.

15 My son, if your heart is wise,

LORD all the day;
18 [a]For surely there is a [1]hereafter,
And your hope will not be cut off.

19 Hear, my son, and be wise;
And guide your heart in the way.
20 [a]Do not mix with winebibbers,
Or with gluttonous eaters of meat;
21 For the drunkard and the glutton will come to poverty,
And drowsiness will clothe a man
with rags.

22 [a]Listen to your father who begot you,

And let your eyes observe my ways.

ENCOUNTER Note — Prov. 23:26

Give Me Your Heart

The eyes follow the heart. A heart set upon God's ways will not allow eyes to seek out sin. To prevent your eyes from gazing on temptations, first secure your heart in the hand of God. He will keep your pathway straight.

27 [a]For a harlot is a deep pit,
And a seductress is a narrow well.
28 [a]She also lies in wait as for a victim,

Those who go in search of [b]mixed

31 Do not look on the wine when it is red,
When it sparkles in the cup,
When it [1]swirls around smoothly;
32 At the last it bites like a serpent,
And stings like a viper.
33 Your eyes will see strange things,
And your heart will utter perverse
things.

ENCOUNTER Note — Prov. 23:29–35

Who's in Control?

God works mightily in the lives of those whose hearts are His. But when other things steal our devotion, our own desires become our god, rendering us powerless.

24 Do not be [a]envious of evil men,
Nor desire to be with them;
2 For their heart devises violence,
And their lips talk of troublemaking.

ENCOUNTER Note — Prov. 24:1, 2

Why Envy the Wicked?

Envy leads to dissatisfaction with our own situation. We must realize that what we envy in the wicked comes with serious consequences and only takes us farther away from God and His blessings.

3 Through wisdom a house is built,
And by understanding it is established;
4 By knowledge the rooms are filled
With all precious and pleasant riches.

5 [a]A wise man is strong,
Yes, a man of knowledge increases
strength;
6 [a]For by wise counsel you will wage
your own war,
And in a multitude of counselors
there is safety.

7 [a]Wisdom is too lofty for a fool;
He does not open his mouth in the gate.

8 He who [a]plots to do evil
Will be called a [1]schemer.
9 The devising of foolishness is sin,

23:17 "Heart" stands for the Hebrew word leb, and it means the center of one's being, including the intellect, feelings, and the will.

And the scoffer is an abomination to men.

10 If you [a]faint in the day of adversity,
Your strength is small.

11 [a]Deliver those who are drawn toward death,
And hold back those stumbling to the slaughter.
12 If you say, "Surely we did not know
this,"
Does not [a]He who weighs the hearts consider it?
He who keeps your soul, does He not know it?
And will He not render to each man
[b]according to his deeds?

ENCOUNTER Note Prov. 24:12

Rescuing the Needy

God expects us to do whatever we can to relieve the needy of their pain, to render mercy or to bring justice. As we show compassion, we invite God's mercy upon our own lives. As we give generously, we invite God's generosity. The measure by which we give determines what we receive from God.

13 My son, [a]eat honey because it is
good,
And the honeycomb which is sweet
to your taste;
14 [a]So shall the knowledge of wisdom
be to your soul;
If you have found it, there is a [1]prospect,
And your hope will not be cut off.

15 Do not lie in wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the
righteous;
Do not plunder his resting place;
16 [a]For a righteous man may fall seven times
And rise again,
[b]But the wicked shall fall by calamity.

17 [a]Do not rejoice when your enemy falls,
And do not let your heart be glad when he stumbles;
18 Lest the LORD see it, and [1]it
displease Him,
And He turn away His wrath from
him.

Nor be envious of the wicked;
20 For there will be no prospect for the

The lamp of the wicked will be put out.

21 My son, [a]fear the LORD and the
king;
Do not associate with those given to change;
22 For their calamity will rise
suddenly,
And who knows the ruin those two can bring?

Further Sayings of the Wise

23 These things also belong to the wise:

[a]It is not good to [1]show partiality in judgment.
24 [a]He who says to the wicked, "You are righteous,"
Him the people will curse;
Nations will abhor him.
25 But those who rebuke the wicked
will have [a]delight,
And a good blessing will come upon
them.

26 He who gives a right answer kisses
the lips.

27 [a]Prepare your outside work,
Make it fit for yourself in the field;
And afterward build your house.

28 [a]Do not be a witness against your neighbor without cause,
[1]For would you deceive with your lips?
29 [a]Do not say, "I will do to him just as he has done to me;
I will render to the man according to his work."

30 I went by the field of the lazy man,
And by the vineyard of the man
devoid of understanding;
31 And there it was, [a]all overgrown with thorns;
Its surface was covered with nettles;
Its stone wall was broken down.
32 When I saw it, I considered it well;
I looked on it and received instruction:
33 [a]A little sleep, a little slumber,
A little folding of the hands to rest;
34 [a]So shall your poverty come like [1]a prowler,
And your need like [2]an armed
man.

24:16 Though the righteous go through the furnace, they come through it refined. The righteous are not exempt from adversity, but God will see them through it.

24:18 God wants the wicked to come to repentance and salvation. He will use the righteous to provide opportunities for this to happen.

Further Wise Sayings of Solomon

25 These[a] also are proverbs of Solomon which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied:

2 [a]It is the glory of God to conceal a matter,
But the glory of kings is to search out a matter.

ENCOUNTER Note — Prov. 25:2

God's Will

You cannot discover God's will. He must reveal it to you. Your thoughts are not His thoughts. He is pleased to disclose His activity to those whose hearts belong to Him.

3 As the heavens for height and the earth for depth,
So the heart of kings is unsearchable.

4 [a]Take away the dross from silver,
And it will go to the silversmith for jewelry.

5 Take away the wicked from before the king,
And his throne will be established in [a]righteousness.

6 Do not exalt yourself in the presence of the king,
And do not stand in the place of the great;

7 [a]For it is better that he say to you, "Come up here,"
Than that you should be put lower in the presence of the prince,
Whom your eyes have seen.

8 [a]Do not go hastily to [1]court;
For what will you do in the end,
When your neighbor has put you to shame?

9 [a]Debate your case with your neighbor,
And do not disclose the secret to another;

10 Lest he who hears it expose your shame,
And [1]your reputation be ruined.

11 A word fitly [a]spoken is like apples of gold
In settings of silver.

12 Like an earring of gold and an ornament of fine gold
Is a wise rebuker to an obedient ear.

13 [a]Like the cold of snow in time of harvest
Is a faithful messenger to those who send him,
For he refreshes the soul of his masters.

14 [a]Whoever falsely boasts of giving
Is like [b]clouds and wind without rain.

15 [a]By long forbearance a ruler is persuaded,
And a gentle tongue breaks a bone.

16 Have you found honey?
Eat only as much as you need,
Lest you be filled with it and vomit.

17 Seldom set foot in your neighbor's house,
Lest he become weary of you and hate you.

18 [a]A man who bears false witness against his neighbor
Is like a club, a sword, and a sharp arrow.

19 Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble
Is like a bad tooth and a foot out of joint.

20 Like one who takes away a garment in cold weather,
And like vinegar on soda,
Is one who [a]sings songs to a heavy heart.

21 [a]If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat;
And if he is thirsty, give him water to drink;

22 For so you will heap coals of fire on his head,
[a]And the LORD will reward you.

ENCOUNTER Note — Prov. 25:21, 22

Goodness Is Our Best Weapon

God's people are expected to live by a different set of values than the world does. When we return evil with goodness, we honor God and show respect for those He has created. We also keep our integrity, enhance our reputations, and show our willingness for God to deal with our enemies according to His standard of justice.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Prov. 26:12

Humility Preferred

To be wise in our own eyes is to be blind to our faults. God honors humility but despises arrogance. He will humble the proud to remind them of their dependence on Him. In so doing, He is protecting the haughty from self-destruction.

13 The lazy man says, "There is a lion in the road!

It wearies him to bring it back to his mouth.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Prov. 26:20

Dousing Fires

Few things do more damage to relationships than the person who gossips. The gossip delights in evil and takes pleasure in causing pain to others. God, however, honors peacemakers because they demonstrate love and compassion toward their neighbors and bring healing to the wounds caused by gossip.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Prov. 27:6

Wounded by a Friend

God surrounds us with spiritual brothers and sisters who encourage us, bless us, and care for us. Sometimes these friends must gently chastise us, and that can be painful. Yet this pain is insignificant compared to the suffering it may prevent.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Prov. 27:17

Sharpened by Others

Others can often see things in our lives that we miss. God designed His people to be interdependent so we can help one another grow towards Christ-likeness. God's people always function best in community, where we can challenge and enrich one another's lives.

27:10 Loyalty is a cherished commodity among friends and should be clearly demonstrated.

27:17 "Countenance" stands for the Hebrew paniym, and can mean the face or forefront. It can also infer a heightened intellect or energized state.

18 [a]Whoever [1]keeps the fig tree will eat its fruit;
So he who waits on his master will be honored.

19 As in water face reflects face,
So a man's heart reveals the man.

20 [a]Hell[1] and [2]Destruction are never full;
So [b]the eyes of man are never satisfied.

21 [a]The refining pot is for silver and the furnace for gold,
And a man is valued by what others say of him.

22 [a]Though you grind a fool in a mortar with a pestle along with crushed grain,
Yet his foolishness will not depart from him.

23 Be diligent to know the state of your [a]flocks,
And attend to your herds;
24 For riches are not forever,
Nor does a crown endure to all generations.
25 [a]When the hay is removed, and the tender grass shows itself,
And the herbs of the mountains are gathered in,

And the nourishment of your maidservants.

ENCOUNTER Note Prov. 28:4, 5

Contending with Evildoers

God wants us to live peaceably with others, but there is a time to stand against injustice and oppression. Evildoers are morally and ethically corrupt; they cannot appreciate justice, equality, or obligations towards others.

6 Better is the poor who walks in his integrity
Than one perverse in his ways, though he be rich.

7 Whoever keeps the law is a discerning son,
But a companion of gluttons shames his father.

8 One who increases his possessions by usury and extortion
Gathers it for him who will pity the poor.

9 One who turns away his ear from hearing the law,
[a]Even his prayer is an abomination.

10 [a]Whoever causes the upright to go astray in an evil way,
He himself will fall into his own pit;
[b]But the blameless will inherit good.

11 The rich man is wise in his own eyes,
But the poor who has understanding searches him out.

12 When the righteous rejoice, there is great [a]glory;
But when the wicked arise, men [1]hide themselves.

13 [a]He who covers his sins will not prosper,
But whoever confesses and forsakes them will have mercy.

14 Happy is the man who is always reverent,
But he who hardens his heart will fall into calamity.

15 [a]Like a roaring lion and a charging bear
[b]Is a wicked ruler over poor people.

16 A ruler who lacks understanding is a great [a]oppressor,
But he who hates covetousness will prolong his days.

27:23 In a rural society, the shepherd's livelihood depended on his knowledge of the state of his flocks. The sheep had to be closely and constantly monitored in terms of their safety, physical condition, and food and water supply. Neglect would lead to economic disaster.

28:6 "Integrity" represents the Hebrew word tom. To have integrity also means to be complete and upright.

28:13 God does not expect us to be perfect and sinless. He does look for us to be honest before Him.

17 [a]A man burdened with bloodshed will flee into a pit;
Let no one help him.

18 Whoever walks blamelessly will be
[1]saved,
But he who is perverse in his ways
will suddenly fall.

19 [a]He who tills his land will have plenty of bread,
But he who follows frivolity will have poverty enough!

20 A faithful man will abound with blessings,
[a]But he who hastens to be rich will not go unpunished.

21 [a]To [1]show partiality is not good,
[b]Because for a piece of bread a man will transgress.

22 A man with an evil eye hastens
after riches,
And does not consider that [a]poverty
will come upon him.

23 [a]He who rebukes a man will find more favor afterward
Than he who flatters with the tongue.

24 Whoever robs his father or his mother,
And says, "It is no transgression,"
The same [a]is companion to a destroyer.

25 [a]He who is of a proud heart stirs up strife,
[b]But he who trusts in the LORD will be prospered.

26 He who [a]trusts in his own heart is a fool,
But whoever walks wisely will be delivered.

27 [a]He who gives to the poor will not lack,
But he who hides his eyes will have many curses.

ENCOUNTER Note Prov. 28:27

Giving to Receive

God provides for the poor through the generosity of others as they share the wealth He has given them. When we help the needy, we fulfill God's strategy for their care and use our resources to glorify God.

ENCOUNTER Note Prov. 29:1

Time Runs Out

God gives us ample opportunity to repent, to change our ways, and to learn from our mistakes. But there comes a point where He will not allow our sin to do any more damage to us or to others. Those who refuse to heed His many reminders will eventually pay a heavy price.

2 When the righteous [1]are in authority, the [a]people rejoice;
But when a wicked man rules, [b]the people groan.

3 Whoever loves wisdom makes his

But a companion of harlots wastes his wealth.

4 The king establishes the land by justice,
But he who receives bribes
overthrows it.

5 A man who [a]flatters his neighbor
Spreads a net for his feet.

6 By transgression an evil man is snared,
But the righteous sings and rejoices.

7 The righteous [a]considers the cause of the poor,
But the wicked does not understand such knowledge.

8 Scoffers [a]set a city aflame,
But wise men turn away wrath.

9 If a wise man contends with a foolish man,
[a]Whether the fool rages or laughs,
there is no peace.

10 [a]The bloodthirsty hate the blameless,
But the upright seek his
[1]well-being.

11 A fool vents all his [a]feelings,[1]
But a wise man holds them back.

12 If a ruler pays attention to lies,
All his servants become wicked.

29:4 Kings were seen as installed by God, or as God's representatives on earth, to bring justice among God's people.

13 The poor man and the oppressor have this in common:
[a]The LORD gives light to the eyes of both.

14 The king who judges the [a]poor with
truth,
His throne will be established forever.

15 The rod and rebuke give [a]wisdom,
But a child left to himself brings shame to his mother.

16 When the wicked are multiplied,
transgression increases;
But the righteous will see their [a]fall.

17 Correct your son, and he will give you rest;
Yes, he will give delight to your soul.

18 [a]Where there is no [1]revelation, the people cast off restraint;
But [b]happy is he who keeps the law.

WORD Study — REVELATION

Prov. 29:18 The Hebrew word chazon signifies an uncovering or revealing of something that was not previously known. All information about God comes in this manner, for people cannot discover facts about God that He does not choose to reveal.

ENCOUNTER Note — Prov. 29:18

Without Revelation

Without a word from God, people do what they wish. However, once God speaks, they have divine wisdom at their disposal. People cannot discover God's will; He reveals it. Once He speaks, we know everything we need to know. We simply have to obey.

19 A servant will not be corrected by mere words;
For though he understands, he will not respond.

20 Do you see a man hasty in his words?
[a]There is more hope for a fool than for him.

21 He who pampers his servant from childhood
Will have him as a son in the end.

22 [a]An angry man stirs up strife,
And a furious man abounds in transgression.

23 [a]A man's pride will bring him low,
But the humble in spirit will retain
honor.

24 Whoever is a partner with a thief
hates his own life;
[a]He [1]swears to tell the truth, but reveals nothing.

25 [a]The fear of man brings a snare,
But whoever trusts in the LORD shall be [1]safe.

26 [a]Many seek the ruler's [1]favor,
But justice for man comes from the
LORD.

27 An unjust man is an abomination to the righteous,
And he who is upright in the way is an abomination to the wicked.

The Wisdom of Agur

30 The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, his utterance. This man declared to Ithiel—to Ithiel and Ucal:

2 [a]Surely I am more stupid than any
man,
And do not have the understanding of a man.
3 I neither learned wisdom
Nor have [a]knowledge of the Holy One.

4 [a]Who has ascended into heaven, or descended?
[b]Who has gathered the wind in His fists?
Who has bound the waters in a garment?
Who has established all the ends of
the earth?
What is His name, and what is His Son's name,
If you know?

5 [a]Every word of God is [1]pure;
[b]He is a shield to those who put their trust in Him.
6 [a]Do not add to His words, Lest He rebuke you, and you be found a liar.

30:1 "Agur" means "Gatherer," as in "gatherer of wisdom." He is an unknown Hebrew sage who was known more for his compilation of wise sayings written by others than he was for creating them himself (30:3).

30:2 This is an expression of extreme humility before men and God.

30:4 Some feel "His Son's name" refers to the coming Messiah. Most likely it is a question to ascertain the nature and character of the Creator—whether He is like man or wholly different.

ENCOUNTER Note — Prov. 30:6

God's Word Needs No Improvement

Too often people misquote the Scriptures to suit their own purposes. God's Word is without error. For anyone to tamper with the Bible is to play god—something God will not abide. We are to repeat God's Word, share it, live it, and study it, but never change it.

Give me neither poverty nor riches—
[a]Feed me with the food allotted to me;
9 [a]Lest I be full and deny You,
And say, "Who is the LORD?"
Or lest I be poor and steal,
And profane the name of my God.

10 Do not malign a servant to his master,
Lest he curse you, and you be found guilty.

11 There is a generation that curses its [a]father,
And does not bless its mother.
12 There is a generation [a]that is pure in its own eyes,
Yet is not washed from its filthiness.
13 There is a generation—oh, how [a]lofty are their eyes!
And their eyelids are [1]lifted up.
14 [a]There is a generation whose teeth are like swords,
And whose fangs are like knives,
[b]To devour the poor from off the earth,
And the needy from among men.

15 The leech has two daughters—

There are three things that are never satisfied,
Four never say, "Enough!":
16 [a]The[1] grave,
The barren womb,
The earth that is not satisfied with water—
And the fire never says, "Enough!"

17 [a]The eye that mocks his father,
And scorns obedience to his mother,
The ravens of the valley will pick it out,
And the young eagles will eat it.

18 There are three things which are too wonderful for me,
Yes, four which I do not understand:
19 The way of an eagle in the air,
The way of a serpent on a rock,
The way of a ship in the [1]midst of the sea,
And the way of a man with a virgin.

ENCOUNTER Note — Prov. 30:19

Incomprehensible Evil

As impossible as it is to trace the flight of an eagle, to see a snake's path on a rock, or track the course of a boat on water, so too are the ways of the wicked beyond comprehension. With God there is reason, order, and truth. Evil is irrational, haphazard, and deceitful. Without God's restraining hand, the world would self-destruct.

20 This is the way of an adulterous woman:
She eats and wipes her mouth,
And says, "I have done no wickedness."

21 For three things the earth is perturbed,
Yes, for four it cannot bear up:
22 [a]For a servant when he reigns,
A fool when he is filled with food,
23 A [1]hateful woman when she is married,
And a maidservant who succeeds her mistress.

24 There are four things which are little on the earth,
But they are exceedingly wise:
25 [a]The ants are a people not strong,
Yet they prepare their food in the summer;
26 [a]The [1]rock badgers are a feeble folk,
Yet they make their homes in the crags;
27 The locusts have no king,
Yet they all advance in ranks;
28 The [1]spider skillfully grasps with its hands,
And it is in kings' palaces.

29 There are three things which are majestic in pace,
Yes, four which are stately in walk:
30 A lion, which is mighty among beasts
And does not turn away from any;
31 A [1]greyhound,
A male goat also,
And [2]a king whose troops are with him.

The Words of King Lemuel's Mother

31 The words of King Lemuel, the utterance which his mother taught him:

2 What, my son?
And what, son of my womb?
And what, [a]son of my vows?
3 [a]Do not give your strength to women,
Nor your ways [b]to that which destroys kings.

4 [a]It is not for kings, O Lemuel,
It is not for kings to drink wine,
Nor for princes intoxicating drink;
5 [a]Lest they drink and forget the law,
And pervert the justice of all [1]the afflicted.
6 [a]Give strong drink to him who is perishing,
And wine to those who are bitter of
heart.
7 Let him drink and forget his poverty,
And remember his misery no more.

8 [a]Open your mouth for the speechless,
In the cause of all who are
[1]appointed to die.
9 Open your mouth, [a]judge
righteously,
And [b]plead the cause of the poor and needy.

ENCOUNTER Note Prov. 31:8, 9

Defending the Defenseless

It was no small thing for a king to show compassion to the most needy in his kingdom. High on God's list of righteous acts is caring for widows, orphans, and foreigners. To God, this is true religion.

The Virtuous Wife

10 [a]Who[1] can find a [2]virtuous wife?
For her worth is far above rubies.
11 The heart of her husband safely trusts her;
So he will have no lack of gain.
12 She does him good and not evil
All the days of her life.
13 She seeks wool and flax,
And willingly works with her
hands.
14 She is like the merchant ships,
She brings her food from afar.
15 [a]She also rises while it is yet night,
And [b]provides food for her
household,
And a portion for her maidservants.
16 She considers a field and buys it;
From [1]her profits she plants a vineyard.
17 She girds herself with strength,
And strengthens her arms.
18 She perceives that her merchandise is good,
And her lamp does not go out by night.
19 She stretches out her hands to the
distaff,
And her hand holds the spindle.
20 [a]She extends her hand to the poor,
Yes, she reaches out her hands to
the needy.
21 She is not afraid of snow for her
household,
For all her household is clothed with scarlet.
22 She makes tapestry for herself;
Her clothing is fine linen and purple.
23 [a]Her husband is known in the gates,
When he sits among the elders of
the land.
24 She makes linen garments and sells
them,
And supplies sashes for the merchants.
25 Strength and honor are her clothing;
She shall rejoice in time to come.
26 She opens her mouth with wisdom,
And on her tongue is the law of kindness.

ENCOUNTER Note Prov. 31:30

Not Fashionable

The things our society considers fashionable deviate drastically from the qualities God admires. What is revered above all else—above beauty, charm, prudence, industry, profitability, and wisdom—is a woman's relationship with God. Without this, nothing else matters.

31:1 Lemuel, whose name means "Dedicated to God," was an unknown king who learned wise sayings from his mother. He was possibly an older brother to Agur of Proverbs 30.

31:10 This was a poem consisting of twenty-two verses, each beginning with a consecutive letter of the Hebrew alphabet. Because it is a literary form of poetry, it most likely describes a figurative woman symbolic of the ideal woman relative to the culture in which it was written.

27 She watches over the ways of her
household,
And does not eat the bread of idleness.
28 Her children rise up and call her
blessed;
Her husband also, and he praises her:
29 "Many daughters have done well,
But you excel them all."
30 Charm is deceitful and beauty is passing,
But a woman who fears the LORD,
she shall be praised.
31 Give her of the fruit of her hands,
And let her own works praise her in the gates.

31:31 "Gates," translating the Hebrew sha'ar, refers to the opening in the city wall where commerce passed by, legal decisions were rendered, and agreements were made. Often this was the place for getting the latest news from abroad. Most people could be met here at some point in the day.

THE BOOK OF

ECCLESIASTES

INTRODUCTION

The Hebrew name for this book is Koheleth, meaning "Teacher," or "Leader of the Assembly," but the Greek and Latin word for "assembly," ekklesiastes, has been used for the title. While never specifically named in the text, the traditional view attributes authorship of Ecclesiastes to King Solomon, the son of David (1:1, 12). The viewpoint of the book's author is that of an older, wise man reflecting back on what he has learned about life. Ecclesiastes is classified as wisdom literature. The content compares the meaning of life without God to life with God at its center. In many ways the author appears contradictory, if not unorthodox, in his statements. At one point everything is vanity and meaningless. Elsewhere, the author encourages the reader to eat, drink, and be merry. It is as though a conversation between the author and one other is taking place, or at least we are reading a debate within the author's own mind. Skepticism and pessimism are prevalent in Ecclesiastes. Not until the end of the book is it evident that this is an apologetic discourse defending faith in God and describing the futility of life without God. It is a presentation of two extremes. This book appeals to observations universal to humanity in order to present God's truth (similar to Paul's sermon in Acts 17).

SIGNIFICANCE

The central theme of the book is that wisdom, resources, and plans apart from God are futile and they lead to a meaningless existence. The fear of God is the key to happiness, fulfillment, and meaning. God's people must continually decide whether to live apart from God's presence or to acknowledge Him as central to their lives. The consequences of this choice always lead down the same two paths—one to destruction, the other to God's blessing. The key text and the conclusion of this work is 12:13: "Fear God and keep His commandments, for this is man's all."

STRUCTURE

According to some traditions Song of Solomon was written in Solomon's youth, Proverbs was written during his midlife, and Ecclesiastes was written near the end of his reign. Ecclesiastes defies common structures and should be read as a complete unit. The first half of the book is decidedly more philosophical, the last half more practical. Ecclesiastes can be outlined as follows:

Introduction (1:1, 2)
Problems Identified (1:3—2:23)
Solutions Found in God (2:24—3:22)
Life Under the Sun (4:1—10:20)
A Decision Required (11:1—12:8)
Concluding Remarks (12:9–14)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH ECCLESIASTES

Throughout the Bible, God asks His people to choose between life and death, between His ways and the ways of the world. Ecclesiastes offers a poignant view of the ultimate destination to which each road will lead. Many people seek momentary, temporal indulgences. But this book looks past the immediate, fleeting pleasures, and through careful discourse shows God's way to be the only path to true satisfaction and personal fulfillment.

The Vanity of Life

THE words of the Preacher, the son of David, [a]king in Jerusalem.

2 "Vanity[a][1] of vanities," says the Preacher;
"Vanity of vanities, [b]all is vanity."

WORD*Study* VANITY

Eccl. 1:2 This word is taken from the Hebrew word hebel, which can mean "vapor" or "breath." This may emphasize the futility of life, or perhaps more importantly, the fleeting nature of life, as a vapor.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Eccl. 1:2

The Vanity of Life Without God

Life is brief and, apart from God, is filled with meaningless activity. If life is nothing more than the pursuit of food, shelter, comfort, and safety, then human effort, sorrow and joy is pointless. Only our relationship with God gives us an eternal perspective and divine purpose for our actions.

3 [a]What profit has a man from all his labor
In which he [1]toils under the sun?
4 One generation passes away, and another generation comes;
[a]But the earth abides forever.
5 [a]The sun also rises, and the sun goes down,
And [1]hastens to the place where it arose.
6 [a]The wind goes toward the south,
And turns around to the north;
The wind whirls about continually,
And comes again on its circuit.
7 [a]All the rivers run into the sea,
Yet the sea is not full;
To the place from which the rivers come,
There they return again.
8 All things are [1]full of labor;
Man cannot express it.
[a]The eye is not satisfied with seeing,
Nor the ear filled with hearing.
9 [a]That which has been is what will be,
That which is done is what will be done,
And there is nothing new under the sun.
10 Is there anything of which it may be said,
"See, this is new"?
It has already been in ancient times before us.
11 There is [a]no remembrance of former things,
Nor will there be any remembrance of things that are to come
By those who will come after.

The Grief of Wisdom

12 I, the Preacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem.
13 And I set my heart to seek and [a]search out by wisdom concerning all that is done under heaven; [b]this burdensome task God has given to the sons of man, by which they may be [1]exercised.
14 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and indeed, all is vanity and grasping for the wind.

15 [a]What is crooked cannot be made straight,
And what is lacking cannot be numbered.

16 I communed with my heart, saying, "Look, I have attained greatness, and have gained [a]more wisdom than all who were before me in Jerusalem. My heart has [1]understood great wisdom and knowledge."
17 [a]And I set my heart to know wisdom and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also is grasping for the wind.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Eccl. 1:17

Chasing After Wind

God's wisdom is not attainable except as He reveals it. All our attempts at enlightenment and our pursuit of knowledge fall far short of God's wisdom. We are God's creatures. When He reveals His wisdom and His ways to us, this is an act of love and grace toward us.

18 For [a]in much wisdom is much grief,
And he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

1:1 "Preacher" can also be translated "teacher, leader of the assembly, one who assembles."

1:4–7 The earth, sun, wind, and rivers all move according to the Creator's plans regardless of what we do, demonstrating God's sovereignty and our dependence on Him.

1:12 Though some scholars believe Ecclesiastes was written much later than Solomon's time, this verse appears to credit him as the author.

The Vanity of Pleasure

2 I said [a]in my heart, "Come now, I will test you with [b]mirth; [1]therefore enjoy pleasure"; but surely, [c]this also was vanity.
2 I said of laughter—"Madness!"; and of mirth, "What does it accomplish?"
3 [a]I searched in my heart how [1]to gratify my flesh with wine, while guiding my heart with wisdom, and how to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was [b]good for the sons of men to do under heaven all the days of their lives.
4 I made my works great, I built myself [a]houses, and planted myself vineyards.
5 I made myself gardens and orchards, and I planted all kinds of fruit trees in them.
6 I made myself water pools from which to [1]water the growing trees of the grove.
7 I acquired male and female servants, and had [1]servants born in my house. Yes, I had greater possessions of herds and flocks than all who were in Jerusalem before me.
8 [a]I also gathered for myself silver and gold and the special treasures of kings and of the provinces. I acquired male and female singers, the delights of the sons of men, and [1]musical instruments of all kinds.
9 [a]So I became great and [1]excelled [b]more than all who were before me in Jerusalem. Also my wisdom remained with me.

10 Whatever my eyes desired I did not keep from them.
I did not withhold my heart from any pleasure,
For my heart rejoiced in all my labor;
And [a]this was my [1]reward from all my labor.
11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had done
And on the labor in which I had toiled;
And indeed all was [a]vanity and grasping for the wind.
There was no profit under the sun.

The End of the Wise and the Fool

12 Then I turned myself to consider wisdom [a]and madness and folly;
For what can the man do who succeeds the king?—
Only what he has already [b]done.
13 Then I saw that wisdom [a]excels folly
As light excels darkness.
14 [a]The wise man's eyes are in his head,
But the fool walks in darkness.
Yet I myself perceived
That [b]the same event happens to them all.

15 So I said in my heart,
"As it happens to the fool,
It also happens to me,
And why was I then more wise?"
Then I said in my heart,
"This also is vanity."
16 For there is [a]no more remembrance of the wise than of the fool forever,
Since all that now is will be forgotten in the days to come.
And how does a wise man die?
As the fool!

17 Therefore I hated life because the work that was done under the sun was distressing to me, for all is vanity and grasping for the wind.
18 Then I hated all my labor in which I had toiled under the sun, because [a]I must leave it to the man who will come after me.
19 And who knows whether he will be wise or a fool? Yet he will rule over all my labor in which I toiled and in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This also is vanity.
20 Therefore I turned my heart and despaired of all the labor in which I had toiled under the sun.
21 For there is a man whose labor is with wisdom, knowledge, and skill; yet he must leave his [1]heritage to a man who has not labored for it. This also is vanity and a great evil.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Eccl. 2:21

Created for Eternity

Food, drink, laughter, and earthly treasures are all temporary pleasures. But God created us for so much more. His kingdom is eternal. Abundant life begins when we submit to Him.

22 [a]For what has man for all his labor, and for the striving of his heart with which he has toiled under the sun?
23 For all his days are [a]sorrowful, and his work burdensome; even in the night his heart takes no rest. This also is vanity.
24 [a]Nothing is better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and that his soul should enjoy good in his labor.

2:1–9 Trying to find fulfillment, the writer sought everything the world had to offer. Yet he remained totally dissatisfied with life. Our search is in vain until we seek God.

This also, I saw, was from the hand of God.
25 For who can eat, or who can have enjoyment, [1]more than I?
26 For God gives [a]wisdom and knowledge and joy to a man who is good in His sight; but to the sinner He gives the work of gathering and collecting, that [b]he may give to him who is good before God. This also is vanity and grasping for the wind.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Eccl. 2:26

God Rewards the Good

The Lord will give wisdom, knowledge and joy to those who love Him and serve Him. Those who lack these things should humbly seek them from God.

Everything Has Its Time

3 To everything there is a season,
A [a]time for every purpose under heaven:

2 A time [1]to be born,
And [a]a time to die;
A time to plant,
And a time to pluck what is planted;
3 A time to kill,
And a time to heal;
A time to break down,
And a time to build up;
4 A time to [a]weep,
And a time to laugh;
A time to mourn,
And a time to dance;
5 A time to cast away stones,
And a time to gather stones;
[a]A time to embrace,
And a time to refrain from embracing;
6 A time to gain,
And a time to lose;
A time to keep,
And a time to throw away;
7 A time to tear,
And a time to sew;
[a]A time to keep silence,
And a time to [b]speak;
8 A time to love,
And a time to [a]hate;
A time of war,
And a time of peace.

The God-Given Task

10 [a]I have seen the God-given task with which the sons of men are to be occupied.
11 He has made everything beautiful in its time. Also He has put eternity in their hearts, except that [a]no one can find out the work that God does from beginning to end.
12 I know that nothing is [a]better for them than to rejoice, and to do good in their lives,
13 and also that [a]every man should eat and drink and enjoy the good of all his labor—it is the gift of God.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Eccl. 3:13

God Is in Control

Every simple pleasure and delightful experience is a gift from God. God puts blessings and joy in our path, and these remind us that He loves us. Apart from His grace, life would be dreary and meaningless.

14 I know that whatever God does,
It shall be forever.
[a]Nothing can be added to it,
And nothing taken from it.
God does it, that men should fear before Him.
15 [a]That which is has already been,
And what is to be has already been;
And God [1]requires an account of [2]what is past.

Injustice Seems to Prevail

16 Moreover [a]I saw under the sun:

In the place of [1]judgment,
Wickedness was there;
And in the place of righteousness,
[2]Iniquity was there.

17 I said in my heart,

[a]"God shall judge the righteous and the wicked,
For there is a time there for every [1]purpose and for every work."

18 I said in my heart, "Concerning the condition of the sons of men, God tests them, that they may see that they themselves are like animals."
19 [a]For what happens to the sons of men also happens to animals; one thing befalls them: as one dies, so dies the other. Surely, they all have one breath; man has no advantage over animals, for all is vanity.

3:1 Over the next eight verses the writer explains that God has designed a proper order for every aspect of life.
3:11 "In its time" can also mean "at the right season."
3:12 The writer does not suggest we should not plan for tomorrow. Rather we are encouraged to enjoy every moment, as there are no guarantees for what tomorrow will bring (Eccl. 5:18).

20 All go to one place: [a]all are from the dust, and all return to dust.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Eccl. 3:20

Dust

God formed us from mere dust. While we live, God grants us the opportunity to fellowship with Him and to partner with Him in His kingdom purposes. Only our investments in eternity will remain after we are gone. Everything else returns to dust.

21 [a]Who[1] knows the spirit of the sons of men, which goes upward, and the spirit of the animal, which goes down to the earth?
22 [a]So I perceived that nothing is better than that a man should rejoice in his own works, for [b]that is his [1]heritage. [c]For who can bring him to see what will happen after him?

4 Then I returned and considered all the [a]oppression that is done under the sun:

And look! The tears of the oppressed,
But they have no comforter—
[1]On the side of their oppressors there is power,
But they have no comforter.
2 [a]Therefore I praised the dead who were already dead,
More than the living who are still alive.
3 [a]Yet, better than both is he who has never existed,
Who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

The Vanity of Selfish Toil

4 Again, I saw that for all toil and every skillful work a man is envied by his neighbor. This also is vanity and grasping for the wind.

5 [a]The fool folds his hands
And consumes his own flesh.
6 [a]Better a handful with quietness
Than both hands full, together with toil and grasping for the wind.

7 Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun:

8 There is one alone, without [1]companion:
He has neither son nor brother.
Yet there is no end to all his labors,
Nor is his [a]eye satisfied with riches.
But [b]he never asks,
"For whom do I toil and deprive myself of [c]good?"
This also is vanity and a [2]grave misfortune.

The Value of a Friend

9 Two are better than one,
Because they have a good reward for their labor.
10 For if they fall, one will lift up his companion.
But woe to him who is alone when he falls,
For he has no one to help him up.
11 Again, if two lie down together, they will keep warm;
But how can one be warm alone?
12 Though one may be overpowered by another, two can withstand him.
And a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Eccl. 4:12

Friendships

The Christian life is not to be lived in isolation. As you link your life with other believers, you will experience God's love and grace through these relationships.

Popularity Passes Away

13 Better a poor and wise youth
Than an old and foolish king who will be admonished no more.
14 For he comes out of prison to be king,
Although [1]he was born poor in his kingdom.
15 I saw all the living who walk under the sun;
They were with the second youth who stands in his place.
16 There was no end of all the people
[1]over whom he was made king;
Yet those who come afterward will not rejoice in him.
Surely this also is vanity and grasping for the wind.

1 [a]Ex. 3:5 [b][1 Sam. 15:22]

4:1 The word "oppressions," from the Hebrew word 'ashuq, can also have the meaning of "tyranny" and "extortion."
4:1 "Under the sun" also means "on earth," or "under heaven."
4:14 This verse may allude to Joseph's imprisonment in Egypt (Gen. 39:20) as well as David's time as a fugitive from King Saul (1 Sam. 18:29).
4:15 This verse may refer to Rehoboam.
5:1 "Walk prudently" literally is "guard your feet."

fools, for they do not know that they do evil.

2 Do not be [a]rash with your mouth,
And let not your heart utter anything hastily before God.
For God is in heaven, and you on
earth;
Therefore let your words [b]be few.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Eccl. 5:2

Silence Before God

God is our master. We enter His presence to receive a word from Him, not to ask Him to do our bidding. We adjust to His will, not the other way around. It is wonderful to offer Him our praise and to express our needs, but to leave His presence before He speaks is a travesty. Waiting upon the Lord and listening to Him is foundational to our relationship with Him.

3 For a dream comes through much activity,
And [a]a fool's voice is known by his many words.

4 [a]When you make a vow to God, do not delay to [b]pay it;
For He has no pleasure in fools.
Pay what you have vowed—5 [a]Better not to vow than to vow and not pay.

6 Do not let your [a]mouth cause your flesh to sin, [b]nor say before the messenger of God that it was an error. Why should God be angry at your [1]excuse and destroy the work of your hands?
7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words there is also vanity. But [a]fear God.

The Vanity of Gain and Honor

8 If you [a]see the oppression of the poor, and the violent [1]perversion of justice and righteousness in a province, do not marvel at the matter; for [b]high official watches over high official, and higher officials are over them.
9 Moreover the profit of the land is for all; even the king is served from the field.

10 He who loves silver will not be satisfied with silver;
Nor he who loves abundance, with
increase.
This also is vanity.

8 [a]Eccl. 3:16 [b][Ps. 12:5; 58:11; 82:1] [1]wresting

11 When goods increase,
They increase who eat them;
So what profit have the owners
Except to see them with their eyes?

12 The sleep of a laboring man is sweet,
Whether he eats little or much;
But the abundance of the rich will not permit him to sleep.

13 [a]There is a severe evil which I have seen under the sun:
Riches kept for their owner to his hurt.
14 But those riches perish through
[1]misfortune;
When he begets a son, there is nothing in his hand.
15 [a]As he came from his mother's womb, naked shall he return,
To go as he came;
And he shall take nothing from his labor
Which he may carry away in his hand.

16 And this also is a severe evil—
Just exactly as he came, so shall he go.
And [a]what profit has he [b]who has labored for the wind?
17 All his days [a]he also eats in darkness,
And he has much sorrow and sickness and anger.

18 Here is what I have seen: [a]It is good and fitting for one to eat and drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labor in which he toils under the sun all the days of his life which God gives him; [b]for it is his [1]heritage.
19 As for [a]every man to whom God has given riches and wealth, and given him power to eat of it, to receive his [1]heritage and rejoice in his labor—this is the [b]gift of God.
20 For he will not dwell unduly on the days of his life, because God keeps him busy with the joy of his heart.

6 There[a] is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men:
2 A man to whom God has given riches and wealth and honor, [a]so that he lacks nothing for himself of all he desires; [b]yet God does not give him power to eat of it, but a foreigner consumes it. This is vanity, and it is an evil [1]affliction.

satisfied with goodness, or [a]indeed he has no burial, I say that [b]a [1]stillborn child is better than he—

ENCOUNTER*Note* Eccl. 6:3

Man's Pleasure Is God's Gift

Death puts life in perspective; the way people live determines how they face death. Life worth living comes from walking with God and enjoying His goodness, regardless of the number of years lived.

4 for it comes in vanity and departs in darkness, and its name is covered with darkness.
5 Though it has not seen the sun or known anything, this has more rest than that man,
6 even if he lives a thousand years twice—but has not seen goodness. Do not all go to one [a]place?

7 [a]All the labor of man is for his mouth,
And yet the soul is not satisfied.
8 For what more has the wise man than the fool?
What does the poor man have,
Who knows how to walk before the living?
9 Better is [1]the [a]sight of the eyes than the wandering of [2]desire.
This also is vanity and grasping for the wind.

10 Whatever one is, he has been named [a]already,
For it is known that he is man;
[b]And he cannot contend with Him who is mightier than he.
11 Since there are many things that increase vanity,
How is man the better?

12 For who knows what is good for man in life, [1]all the days of his [2]vain life which he passes like [a]a shadow? [b]Who can tell a man what will happen after him under the sun?

The Value of Practical Wisdom

7 A [a]good name is better than precious ointment,
And the day of death than the day of one's [b]birth;
2 Better to go to the house of mourning
Than to go to the house of feasting,
For that is the end of all men;
And the living will take it to [a]heart.
3 [1]Sorrow is better than laughter,
[a]For by a sad countenance the heart is made [2]better.
4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning,
But the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

5 [a]It is better to [1]hear the rebuke of the wise
Than for a man to hear the song of fools.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Eccl. 7:5

The Rebuke of the Wise

Most of us hear what we want to hear. We seek out those who will flatter us. God places wise people around us who can speak to our lives if we will allow them to. Humbly acknowledging our shortcomings opens the door to growth, cleansing, and forgiveness.

6 [a]For like the [1]crackling of thorns under a pot,
So is the laughter of the fool.
This also is vanity.
7 Surely oppression destroys a wise man's reason,
[a]And a bribe [1]debases the heart.

8 The end of a thing is better than its beginning;
[a]The patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.
9 [a]Do not hasten in your spirit to be angry,
For anger rests in the bosom of fools.
10 Do not say,
"Why were the former days better than these?"
For you do not inquire wisely concerning this.

11 Wisdom is good with an inheritance,
And profitable [a]to those who see the sun.
12 For wisdom is [1]a [a]defense as money is a defense,
But the [2]excellence of knowledge is that wisdom gives [b]life to those who have it.

6:7 The Hebrew word for "soul" can also be translated "appetite."
7:3 "Sorrow" could also mean anger, indignation, or provocation. The intended reference may be to take life seriously rather than living carelessly.
7:12 The Hebrew word for "excellence" can also be translated "profit."

14 [a]In the day of prosperity be joyful,
But in the day of adversity consider:
Surely God has appointed the one
[1]as well as the other,
So that man can find out nothing that will come after him.

15 I have seen everything in my days of vanity:

[a]There is a just man who perishes in his righteousness,
And there is a wicked man who prolongs life in his wickedness.

16 [a]Do not be overly righteous,
[b]Nor be overly wise:
Why should you destroy yourself?
17 Do not be overly wicked,
Nor be foolish:
[a]Why should you die before your time?
18 It is good that you grasp this,
And also not remove your hand from the other;
For he who [a]fears God will [1]escape them all.

19 [a]Wisdom strengthens the wise
More than ten rulers of the city.

20 [a]For there is not a just man on earth who does good
And does not sin.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Eccl. 7:20

None Sinless

No one is without sin. We all fall miserably short of God's will for us. The first step toward spiritual maturity is recognizing how much we still have to learn.

21 Also do not take to heart everything people say,
Lest you hear your servant cursing you.
22 For many times, also, your own heart has known
That even you have cursed others.

23 All this I have [1]proved by wisdom.
[a]I said, "I will be wise";
But it was far from me.
24 [a]As for that which is far off and [b]exceedingly deep,
Who can find it out?
25 [a]I applied my heart to know,
To search and seek out wisdom and the reason of things,
To know the wickedness of folly,
Even of foolishness and madness.
26 [a]And I find more bitter than death
The woman whose heart is snares and nets,
Whose hands are fetters.
[1]He who pleases God shall escape from her,
But the sinner shall be trapped by her.

27 "Here is what I have found," says [a]the Preacher,
"Adding one thing to the other to find out the reason,
28 Which my soul still seeks but I cannot find:
[a]One man among a thousand I have found,
But a woman among all these I have not found.
29 Truly, this only I have found:
[a]That God made man upright,
But [b]they have sought out many schemes."

8 Who is like a wise man?
And who knows the interpretation of a thing?
[a]A man's wisdom makes his face shine,
And [b]the [1]sternness of his face is changed.

Obey Authorities for God's Sake

2 I say, "Keep the king's commandment [a]for the sake of your oath to God.
3 [a]"Do not be hasty to go from his presence. Do not take your stand for an evil thing, for he does whatever pleases him."

4 Where the word of a king is, there is power;
And [a]who may say to him, "What are you doing?"

ENCOUNTER*Note* Eccl. 8:4

The Words of Power

It is foolish to question or challenge God. Such a response comes only from those who underestimate God and who overestimate their own wisdom. God is patient when we seek clarification and assurance, but to question His wisdom implies that we think we know more than God. Such thinking is absurd.

5 He who keeps his command will experience nothing harmful;
And a wise man's heart [1]discerns both time and judgment,
6 Because [a]for every matter there is a time and judgment,
Though the misery of man [1]increases greatly.

9 All this I have seen, and applied my heart to every work that is done under the sun: There is a time in which one man rules over another to his own hurt.

Death Comes to All

10 Then I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of holiness, and they were [a]forgotten[1] in the city where they had so done. This also is vanity.

ENCOUNTER Note Eccl. 8:10

Wicked Among the Godly

We can pretend to be righteous and upright even among God's people, but God is not mocked. Bad character does not escape God's justice, nor does it invite His blessing.

11 [a]Because the sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.
12 [a]Though a sinner does evil a hundred times, and his days are prolonged, yet I surely know that [b]it will be well with those who fear God, who fear before Him.
13 But it will not be well with the wicked; nor will he prolong his days, which are as a shadow, because he does not fear before God.
14 There is a vanity which occurs on earth, that there are just men to whom it [a]happens according to the work of the wicked; again, there are wicked men to whom it happens according to the work of the [b]righteous. I said that this also is vanity.
15 [a]So I commended enjoyment, because a man has nothing better under the sun than to eat, drink, and be merry; for this will remain with him in his labor all the days of his life which God gives him under the sun.
16 When I applied my heart to know wisdom and to see the business that is done on earth, even though one sees no sleep day or night,
17 then I saw all the work of God, that [a]a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun. For though a man labors to discover it, yet he will not find it; moreover, though a wise man attempts to know it, he will not be able to find it.

9 For I [1]considered all this in my heart, so that I could declare it all: [a]that the righteous and the wise and their works are in the hand of God. People know neither love nor hatred by anything they see before them.
2 [a]All things come alike to all:

One event happens to the righteous and the wicked;
To the [1]good, the clean, and the unclean;
To him who sacrifices and him who does not sacrifice.
As is the good, so is the sinner;
He who takes an oath as he who fears an oath.

3 This is an evil in all that is done under the sun: that one thing happens to all. Truly the hearts of the sons of men are full of evil; madness is in their hearts while they live, and after that they go to the dead.
4 But for him who is joined to all the living there is hope, for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

5 For the living know that they will die;
But [a]the dead know nothing,
And they have no more reward,
For [b]the memory of them is forgotten.
6 Also their love, their hatred, and their envy have now perished;
Nevermore will they have a share
In anything done under the sun.

7 Go, [a]eat your bread with joy,
And drink your wine with a merry
heart;
For God has already accepted your
works.
8 Let your garments always be white,
And let your head lack no oil.

9 [1]Live joyfully with the wife whom you love all the days of your vain life which He has given you under the sun, all your days of vanity; [a]for that is your portion in life, and in the labor which you perform under the sun.

it with your [b]might; for there is no work or device or knowledge or wisdom in the grave where you are going.
11 I returned [a]and saw under the sun that—

The race is not to the swift,
Nor the battle to the strong,
Nor bread to the wise,
Nor riches to men of understanding,
Nor favor to men of skill;
But time and [b]chance happen to them all.
12 For [a]man also does not know his time:
Like fish taken in a cruel net,
Like birds caught in a snare,
So the sons of men are [b]snared in an evil time,
When it falls suddenly upon them.

ENCOUNTER Note — Eccl. 9:12

Life's Uncertainty

Life is full of surprises for both the wicked and the righteous. It is imperative to walk with God in a way that prepares you to give an account of your life. Live a righteous life and you will have no regrets on judgment day.

Wisdom Superior to Folly

13 This wisdom I have also seen under the sun, and it seemed great to me:
14 [a]There was a little city with few men in it; and a great king came against it, besieged it, and built great [1]snares around it.
15 Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city. Yet no one remembered that same poor man.
16 Then I said:

"Wisdom is better than [a]strength.
Nevertheless [b]the poor man's wisdom is despised,
And his words are not heard.
17 Words of the wise, spoken quietly, should be heard
Rather than the shout of a ruler of fools.
18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war;
But [a]one sinner destroys much good."

10 Dead[1] flies [2]putrefy the perfumer's ointment,
And cause it to give off a foul odor;
So does a little folly to one respected for wisdom and honor.

Wisdom

The wise man seeks God in times of trouble. We must trust in the Lord, for He can and will accomplish much more than we ever could on our own. Wisdom is best revealed by knowing where to turn for help. When God defends us, no weapon can withstand Him.

ENCOUNTER Note — Eccl. 10:1

Unwavering

Our integrity is clearly demonstrated by how we behave in our weakest and most casual moments. One careless sin can undo a lifetime of faithfulness. Yesterday's righteousness does not eliminate the need to be on guard today.

2 A wise man's heart is at his right hand,
But a fool's heart at his left.
3 Even when a fool walks along the way,
He lacks wisdom,
[a]And he shows everyone that he is a fool.
4 If the spirit of the ruler rises against you,
[a]Do not leave your post;
For [b]conciliation[1] pacifies great offenses.

5 There is an evil I have seen under the sun,
As an error proceeding from the ruler:

ENCOUNTER Note — Eccl. 10:5

Only God Is Above Error

No one is above error but God. Rulers, kings, and anyone in authority can show poor judgment when they yield to temptation. Those in positions of power need God's wisdom to govern well.

6 [a]Folly is set in [1]great dignity,
While the rich sit in a lowly place.
7 I have seen servants [a]on horses,
While princes walk on the ground like servants.

8 [a]He who digs a pit will fall into it,

9:10 This verse corresponds with Paul's admonition in Colossians 3:23.

And whoever breaks through a wall will be bitten by a serpent.
9 He who quarries stones may be hurt
by them,
And he who splits wood may be endangered by it.
10 If the ax is dull,
And one does not sharpen the edge,
Then he must use more strength;
But wisdom [1]brings success.

11 A serpent may bite [a]when it is not charmed;
The [1]babbler is no different.
12 [a]The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious,
But [b]the lips of a fool shall swallow him up;
13 The words of his mouth begin with foolishness,
And the end of his talk is raving madness.
14 [a]A fool also multiplies words.
No man knows what is to be;
Who can tell him [b]what will be after him?
15 The labor of fools wearies them,
For they do not even know how to go to the city!

16 [a]Woe to you, O land, when your king is a child,
And your princes feast in the morning!
17 Blessed are you, O land, when your king is the son of nobles,
And your [a]princes feast at the proper time—
For strength and not for drunkenness!
18 Because of laziness the [1]building
decays,
And [a]through idleness of hands the house leaks.
19 A feast is made for laughter,
And [a]wine makes merry;
But money answers everything.

20 [a]Do not curse the king, even in your thought;
Do not curse the rich, even in your bedroom;
For a bird of the air may carry your voice,
And a bird in flight may tell the matter.

God Is in Control

We wish we could control our lives and choose what happens to us, but we cannot. What comes will come. While we cannot necessarily change our life's circumstances, we can walk with God as we face them, and that makes all the difference.

4 He who observes the wind will not sow,
And he who regards the clouds will not reap.

5 As [a]you do not know what is the way of the [1]wind, [b]Or how the bones grow in the womb of her who is with child,
So you do not know the works of God who makes everything.
6 In the morning sow your seed,
And in the evening do not withhold your hand;
For you do not know which will prosper,
Either this or that,
Or whether both alike will be good.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Eccl. 11:6

Wise Investments

It is wise to diversify your investments of wealth, time, and energy. Each enterprise does not produce an equal return.

7 Truly the light is sweet,
And it is pleasant for the eyes [a]to behold the sun;
8 But if a man lives many years
And [a]rejoices in them all,
Yet let him [b]remember the days of
darkness,

10:13, 14 Those hoping to impress others by excessive talk merely reveal their foolishness and incompetence.

11:1 This verse may refer to casting grain in marshy areas where it would take root when the waters receded. It may also talk of generously spreading one's wealth to the needy, inviting God's blessings in response.

For they will be many.
All that is coming is vanity.

Seek God in Early Life

9 Rejoice, O young man, in your youth,
And let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth;
[a]Walk in the [1]ways of your heart,
And [2]in the sight of your eyes;
But know that for all these
[b]God will bring you into judgment.
10 Therefore remove [1]sorrow from your heart,
And [a]put away evil from your flesh,
[b]For childhood and [2]youth are vanity.

12 Remember[a] now your Creator in the days of your youth,
Before the [1]difficult days come,
And the years draw near [b]when you say,
"I have no pleasure in them":

ENCOUNTER Note — Eccl. 12:1

Before It Is Too Late

When God speaks, now is the time to respond. If we do not adjust our lives to His will now, a time will come when we must suffer the consequences for not heeding God's voice when we could have.

2 While the sun and the light,
The moon and the stars,
Are not darkened,
And the clouds do not return after the rain;
3 In the day when the keepers of the house tremble,
And the strong men bow down;
When the grinders cease because they are few,
And those that look through the windows grow dim;
4 When the doors are shut in the streets,
And the sound of grinding is low;
When one rises up at the sound of a bird,
And all [a]the daughters of music are brought low.
5 Also they are afraid of height,
And of terrors in the way;
When the almond tree blossoms,
The grasshopper is a burden,
And desire fails.
For man goes to [a]his eternal home,
And [b]the mourners go about the streets.
6 Remember your Creator before the silver cord is [1]loosed,
Or the golden bowl is broken,
Or the pitcher shattered at the fountain,
Or the wheel broken at the well.
7 [a]Then the dust will return to the earth as it was,
[b]And the spirit will return to God [c]who gave it.
8 "Vanity[a] of vanities," says the Preacher,
"All is vanity."

The Whole Duty of Man

9 And moreover, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yes, he pondered and sought out and [a]set[1] in order many proverbs.
10 The Preacher sought to find [1]acceptable words; and what was written was upright—words of truth.
11 The words of the wise are like goads, and the words of [1]scholars are like well-driven nails, given by one Shepherd.
12 And further, my son, be admonished by these. Of making many books there is no end, and [a]much study is wearisome to the flesh.

C.T. Studd was a famous British cricket player during the 1880s. He had it all—youth, fame, health, and wealth. He was a Christian, but his worldly accomplishments had gradually distracted him from his commitment to Christ. Then in 1884 his brother George became critically ill. As he maintained a vigil at George's bedside, Studd realized how little his success mattered in light of eternity. He recalled Ecclesiastes 12:8, "Vanity of vanities . . . all is vanity." Studd lost interest in worldly pursuits and found his joy in the Lord restored. His brother soon recovered his health, but the greater healing took place within C.T. Studd's soul.

12:5 "When the almond tree blossoms" may mean when the elderly person's hair turns grey.

12:11 "Goads" were pointed sticks used to direct cattle.

THE SONG OF SOLOMON

INTRODUCTION

The Song of Solomon (also called The Song of Songs, or Canticles) is unique in the Old Testament because of its character and content. The wording of the first verse represents the superlative of songs, as if to say, "of all the songs ever sung, this is the grandest of them all." The verses, one hundred and seventeen of them, comprise one of the smallest books in the Bible, yet they provide us with one of the most challenging books to interpret. Because of its overtly sensual language, many have difficulty understanding the biblical importance of this book. It has been viewed as allegory (God's love for His people, or Christ's love for the church), typology (an Old Testament foreshadowing of a New Testament teaching), drama (a ritual or pageant to be presented at wedding celebrations), and as a love poem celebrating married love. However, one encounters significant challenges trying to fit this book into three of these categories. Nowhere is God mentioned in the book, the Messiah is nowhere expressly referred to, never is the book quoted in the New Testament, and it is not presentable as a drama. While this could be a love song describing the love between two historic figures such as Solomon and his bride, it may also simply be a love song written during the Solomonic era celebrating the love between man and wife. Some see the seven divisions of Song of Solomon as a dramatic poem to be read over the seven days of the wedding celebration. Traditionally the authorship of Song of Solomon has been attributed to King Solomon, son of David (1:1, 5; 3:7, 9, 11; 8:11, 12); though some believe it may have been written in his honor by a court musician.

SIGNIFICANCE

In this book scripture celebrates the love between man and woman. Here is a God-given love which every godly married couple should strive for. Song of Solomon celebrates pure, monogamous love between a husband and wife. Such love is a part of God's creation and, should be viewed in the context of His loving provision. Many pagan religions elevated sexual relations into a form of worship while other religions encouraged asceticism. This book places love between man and woman in its healthy, appropriate context.

STRUCTURE

The division of this book has been the cause of great debate. Some suggest it can be divided into six sections, with three ending with a common refrain (2:7; 3:5; 8:4), and three beginning with the question asked by the chorus of people (3:6; 6:10; 8:5). Others claim it is indivisible and should be taken as a whole unit. Conceding that there are divergent views, this simple outline is offered:

Introductions, Insecurities, and Longing of the Bride (1:2—2:7)
Expressions of Love (2:8—3:5)
Discourses of the Bride and Bridegroom (3:6—5:1)
Love Overcomes Obstacles (5:2—6:3)
Words of Love (6:4—7:9)
Seeking and Finding Love (7:10–13)
Sealed by Love (8:1–14)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH SONG OF SOLOMON

God loves His people. He created the first man and woman so they would be perfectly suited to one another and so they could enjoy a divinely created dimension of intimacy. When we experience romantic love as God designed it, we will find great joy. This book may challenge you to examine your marriage relationship to see if it carries the joy, pleasure and satisfaction God intended it to have.

Romantic Love

God created man and woman to enjoy each other and to find deep satisfaction in the marriage relationship. The ability to express marital love is a beautiful gift from God.

THE SHULAMITE

Rightly do they love you.

5 I am dark, but lovely,
O daughters of Jerusalem,
Like the tents of Kedar,
Like the curtains of Solomon.

WORD*Study* TENTS OF KEDAR

Song 1:5 These nomadic tribes often made tents from animal hair or tanned skin that made them dark in appearance. This may parallel the darkness of the woman's tanned face.

6 Do not look upon me, because I am dark,
Because the sun has [1]tanned me.
My mother's sons were angry with me;
They made me the keeper of the vineyards,
But my own [a]vineyard I have not kept.

(TO HER BELOVED)

7 Tell me, O you whom I love,
Where you feed your flock,
Where you make it rest at noon.
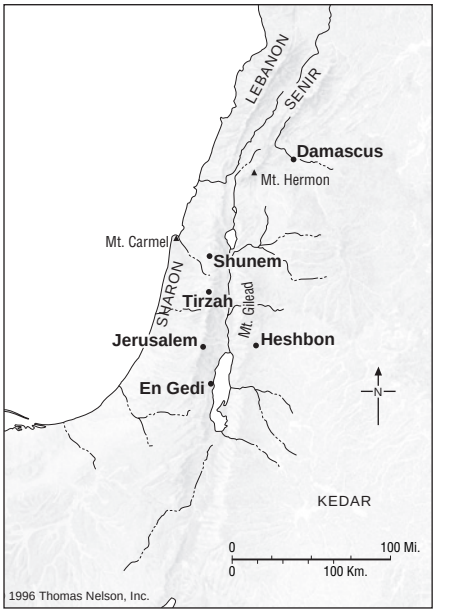
For why should I be as one who [1]veils herself
By the flocks of your companions?

THE BELOVED



8 If you do not know, [a]O fairest among women,
[1]Follow in the footsteps of the flock,
And feed your little goats
Beside the shepherds' tents.
9 I have compared you, [a]my love,
[b]To my filly among Pharaoh's chariots.
10 [a]Your cheeks are lovely with ornaments,
Your neck with chains of gold.

THE DAUGHTERS OF JERUSALEM

11 We will make [1]you ornaments of gold

Song 1:12 Spikenard was a costly perfume extracted from plants grown in the Himalayas. Myrrh was the dried gum from a species of balsam tree used for a variety of purposes including perfume, ointment, and medicine. It was a major ingredient used in the holy oil in the temple. Henna was an aromatic shrub found in Palestine.

Love Expressed

Love can be demonstrated in many ways. Verbal expressions of love can speak to the soul and produce an excitement that physical actions do not. When the Scriptures are read this way, we realize God expresses His love for us in a variety of pleasing ways.

THE SHULAMITE

16 Behold, you are [a]handsome, my beloved!
Yes, pleasant!

CHARLES WILLIAM FRY

Song 2:1

Charles William Fry (1838–1882), together with his three sons, formed the first brass band for the Salvation Army. Fry became their first bandmaster around 1878. He included Song of Solomon 2:1 in the lyrics of "The Lily of the Valley," which has inspired Christians for generations.

2:1 Sharon is the low coastal plain located in western Palestine between the central uplands and the Mediterranean shore.

Leaping upon the mountains,
Skipping upon the hills.
9 [a]My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag.
Behold, he stands behind our wall;
He is looking through the windows,
Gazing through the lattice.

10 My beloved spoke, and said to me:
"Rise up, my love, my fair one,
And come away.
11 For lo, the winter is past,
The rain is over and gone.
12 The flowers appear on the earth;
The time of singing has come,
And the voice of the turtledove
Is heard in our land.
13 The fig tree puts forth her green figs,
And the vines with the tender grapes
Give a good smell.
Rise up, my love, my fair one,
And come away!

14 "O my [a]dove, in the clefts of the rock,
In the secret places of the cliff,
Let me see your [1]face,
[b]Let me hear your voice;
For your voice is sweet,
And your face is lovely."

HER BROTHERS

15 Catch us [a]the foxes,
The little foxes that spoil the vines,
For our vines have tender grapes.

THE SHULAMITE

16 [a]My beloved is mine, and I am his.
He feeds his flock among the lilies.

ENCOUNTER Note — Song 2:16

Love Provides Identity

When we love someone, we are identified with that person, and the relationship better defines who we are. As we reciprocate God's love for us, we gain an identity as His people. The exclusive relationship we have with God defines the parameters of our behavior as well as our relationships with other people. It is our love for God that enables us to love others.

(TO HER BELOVED)

17 [a]Until the day breaks
And the shadows flee away,
Turn, my beloved,
And be [b]like a gazelle
Or a young stag
Upon the mountains of [1]Bether.

A Troubled Night

THE SHULAMITE

3 By [a]night on my bed I sought the one I love;
I sought him, but I did not find him.
2 "I will rise now," I said,
"And go about the city;
In the streets and in the squares
I will seek the one I love."
I sought him, but I did not find him.

ENCOUNTER Note — Song 3:2

Love Seeks Its Own

As a shepherd hunts for a lost sheep, or a mother searches for a missing child, so love compels us to seek the one we love. Love is not passive but tenaciously active and vigorous. It refuses to give up on people. Likewise, God constantly pursues us because of His great love for us. Love is characterized by action more than by affection.

3 [a]The watchmen who go about the city found me;
I said,
"Have you seen the one I love?"

WORD Study — WATCHMEN

Song 3:3 Much like municipal police, watchmen were stationed on the walls of the city as sentinels to observe any unusual activity, particularly threats to the city's security.

4 Scarcely had I passed by them,
When I found the one I love.
I held him and would not let him go,
Until I had brought him to the [a]house of my mother,
And into the [1]chamber of her who conceived me.

5 [a]I [1]charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
By the gazelles or by the does of the field,
Do not stir up nor awaken love
Until it pleases.

3:7 "Solomon's couch" is also translated "bed," and could have been a palanquin, or portable reclining sofa carried on two poles by four men.

The Coming of Solomon

THE SHULAMITE

6 [a]Who is this coming out of the wilderness
Like pillars of smoke,
Perfumed with myrrh and frankincense,
With all the merchant's fragrant powders?
7 Behold, it is Solomon's couch,
With sixty valiant men around it,
Of the valiant of Israel.
8 They all hold swords,
Being expert in war.
Every man has his sword on his thigh
Because of fear in the night.

9 Of the wood of Lebanon
Solomon the King
Made himself a [1]palanquin:
10 He made its pillars of silver,
Its support of gold,
Its seat of purple,
Its interior paved with love
By the daughters of Jerusalem.
11 Go forth, O daughters of Zion,
And see King Solomon with the crown
With which his mother crowned him
On the day of his wedding,
The day of the gladness of his heart.

THE BELOVED

4 Behold, [a]you are fair, my love!
Behold, you are fair!
You have dove's eyes behind your veil.
Your hair is like a [b]flock of goats,
Going down from Mount Gilead.

2 [a]Your teeth are like a flock of shorn sheep
Which have come up from the washing,
Every one of which bears twins,
And none is [1]barren among them.
3 Your lips are like a strand of scarlet,
And your mouth is lovely.
[a]Your temples behind your veil
Are like a piece of pomegranate.
4 [a]Your neck is like the tower of David,
Built [b]for an armory,
On which hang a thousand [1]bucklers,
All shields of mighty men.
5 [a]Your two breasts are like two fawns,
Twins of a gazelle,
Which feed among the lilies.

6 [a]Until the day breaks
And the shadows flee away,
I will go my way to the mountain of myrrh
And to the hill of frankincense.

7 [a]You are all fair, my love,
And there is no spot in you.
8 Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse,
With me from Lebanon.
Look from the top of Amana,
From the top of Senir [a]and Hermon,
From the lions' dens,
From the mountains of the leopards.

9 You have ravished my heart,
My sister, my spouse;
You have ravished my heart
With one look of your eyes,
With one link of your necklace.
10 How fair is your love,
My sister, my spouse!
[a]How much better than wine is your love,
And the [1]scent of your perfumes
Than all spices!
11 Your lips, O my spouse,
Drip as the honeycomb;
[a]Honey and milk are under your tongue;
And the fragrance of your garments
Is [b]like the fragrance of Lebanon.

12 A garden [1]enclosed
Is my sister, my spouse,
A spring shut up,
A fountain sealed.
13 Your plants are an orchard of pomegranates
With pleasant fruits,
Fragrant henna with spikenard,

ENCOUNTER Note Song 4:1

The Beauty of God's Creation

All that God has created is lovely to behold. Romantic love allows a married couple to take pleasure in the beauty God has created in them. To celebrate outward beauty is to acknowledge God's handiwork. But outward beauty does not transcend inward beauty in God's eyes. The state of our heart before Him determines whether or not we are pleasing in His sight.

4:1-6 Love notices even the smallest detail and appreciates what others might overlook.

4:12 A locked garden, a closed spring, and a sealed fountain are protected from impurities, contamination, and abuse, and they are only accessible to the rightful owner. So the writer sees his betrothed.

14 Spikenard and saffron,
Calamus and cinnamon,
With all trees of frankincense,
Myrrh and aloes,
With all the chief spices—
15 A fountain of gardens,
A well of [a]living waters,
And streams from Lebanon.

THE SHULAMITE

16 Awake, O north wind,
And come, O south!
Blow upon my garden,
That its spices may flow out.
[a]Let my beloved come to his garden
And eat its pleasant [b]fruits.

THE BELOVED

5 I [a]have come to my garden, my [b]sister, my spouse;
I have gathered my myrrh with my spice;
[c]I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey;
I have drunk my wine with my milk.

(TO HIS FRIENDS)

Eat, O [d]friends!
Drink, yes, drink deeply,
O beloved ones!

ENCOUNTER Note — Song 5:1

Drink Deeply

Love is meant to be thoroughly enjoyed. Whether it is love for our spouse, love for our children, or love for our God, we need to indulge in it to the fullest. Never settle for a shallow or surface love for those God has placed in your heart.

The Shulamite's Troubled Evening

THE SHULAMITE

2 I sleep, but my heart is awake;
It is the voice of my beloved!
[a]He knocks, saying,
"Open for me, my sister, [1]my love,
My dove, my perfect one;
For my head is covered with dew,
My [2]locks with the drops of the night."
3 I have taken off my robe;
How can I put it on again?
I have washed my feet;
How can I [1]defile them?
4 My beloved put his hand
By the [1]latch of the door,
And my heart yearned for him.
5 I arose to open for my beloved,
And my hands dripped with myrrh,
My fingers with liquid myrrh,
On the handles of the lock.
6 I opened for my beloved,
But my beloved had turned away and was gone.
My [1]heart leaped up when he spoke.
[a]I sought him, but I could not find him;
I called him, but he gave me no answer.
7 [a]The watchmen who went about the city found me.
They struck me, they wounded me;
The keepers of the walls
Took my veil away from me.
8 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
If you find my beloved,
That you tell him I am lovesick!

THE DAUGHTERS OF JERUSALEM

What is your beloved
More than another beloved,
That you so [1]charge us?

HISTORICAL Encounter — Song 5:10–16

SAMUEL STENNETT

Samuel Stennett (1727–1795) served as a Baptist pastor of the Little Wild Street Church in London for thirty-seven years. He was a respected preacher and church leader of his day. While reading Song of Songs 5:10–16, he was moved by the beauty of Christ and the work He accomplished on our behalf. He put his thoughts into words by writing the hymn "Majestic Sweetness Sits Enthroned," which has been used in adoration of Christ by believers ever since.

5:7 Removing the veil of an Eastern woman would cause great indignity, implying she was a woman of ill repute.

5:9 Although there are many choices, the faithful spouse has given her heart to only one man, to the exclusion of all others.

12 [a]His eyes are like doves
By the rivers of waters,
Washed with milk,
And [1]fitly set.
13 His cheeks are like a bed of spices,
Banks of scented herbs.
His lips are lilies,
Dripping liquid myrrh.
14 His hands are rods of gold
Set with beryl.
His body is carved ivory
Inlaid with sapphires.
15 His legs are pillars of marble
Set on bases of fine gold.
His countenance is like Lebanon,
Excellent as the cedars.
16 His mouth is most sweet,
Yes, he is altogether lovely.
This is my beloved,
And this is my friend,
O daughters of Jerusalem!

THE DAUGHTERS OF JERUSALEM

6 Where has your beloved gone,
[a]O fairest among women?
Where has your beloved turned aside,
That we may seek him with you?

THE SHULAMITE

To the beds of spices,
To feed his flock in the gardens,
And to gather lilies.
3 [a]I am my beloved's,
And my beloved is mine.
He feeds his flock among the lilies.

ENCOUNTER Note — Song 6:4

Love Sees the Best

True love sees others in the best possible light. How precious it is to be viewed by another through eyes of love! That is how we ought to view our spouse. That is how God sees us. He looks upon us through the forgiving eyes of unfailing love.

8 There are sixty queens
And eighty concubines,
And [a]virgins without number.
9 My dove, my [a]perfect one,
Is the only one,
The only one of her mother,
The favorite of the one who bore her.
The daughters saw her
And called her blessed,
The queens and the concubines,
And they praised her.

10 Who is she who looks forth as the morning,
Fair as the moon,
Clear as the sun,
[a]Awesome as an army with banners?

THE SHULAMITE

11 I went down to the garden of nuts
To see the verdure of the valley,
[a]To see whether the vine had budded
And the pomegranates had bloomed.
12 Before I was even aware,
My soul had made me
As the chariots of [1]my noble people.

THE BELOVED AND HIS FRIENDS

13 Return, return, O Shulamite;
Return, return, that we may look upon you!

THE SHULAMITE

What would you see in the Shulamite—
As it were, the dance of [1]the two camps?

Expressions of Praise

THE BELOVED

7 How beautiful are your feet in sandals,
[a]O prince's daughter!

6:4 Tirzah, meaning "pleasant," was a royal city of one of the old Canaanite kings (Josh. 12:24). Later it became the capital of the northern tribes under King Jeroboam I (1 Kin. 14:17).

6:13 Shulamite is not the woman's name but a reference to her place of origin. It may mean she was from Shulam; however, she is generally believed to have come from Shunem.

6:13 The "dance of the two camps" can also mean the "dance of Mahanaim" which was purportedly a religious or sacred dance.

The curves of your thighs are like jewels,
The work of the hands of a skillful workman.
2 Your navel is a rounded goblet;
It lacks no [1]blended beverage.
Your waist is a heap of wheat
Set about with lilies.
3 [a]Your two breasts are like two fawns,
Twins of a gazelle.
4 [a]Your neck is like an ivory tower,
Your eyes like the pools in Heshbon
By the gate of Bath Rabbim.
Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon
Which looks toward Damascus.
5 Your head crowns you like Mount Carmel,
And the hair of your head is like purple;
A king is held captive by your tresses.
6 How fair and how pleasant you are,
O love, with your delights!
7 This stature of yours is like a palm tree,
And your breasts like its clusters.
8 I said, "I will go up to the palm tree,
I will take hold of its branches."
Let now your breasts be like clusters of the vine,
The fragrance of your [1]breath like apples,
9 And the roof of your mouth like the best wine.

I would not be despised.
2 I would lead you and bring you

ENCOUNTER Note — Song 7:10

I Am My Beloved's

Love is meant to be given completely, with nothing held in reserve. We should not withhold our love from our spouse or foster a desire for any other partner. God wants us to love Him with absolute fidelity, not turning our hearts toward other gods

7:4 "Pools" may refer to several deep wells cut in the rock near Heshbon, containing large reservoirs of water which would have looked dark, deep, and clear.

8:1 "Like my brother" means she would be free to kiss him in public, for society would not view it as a sexual act but as an expression of filial love.

8:6 A seal was not necessarily meant to tightly close something. Rather, a seal showed ownership or represented a person's authority. Only the intended recipient was permitted to break the seal and open the document or vessel.

ENCOUNTER Note Song 8:6

The Power of Love

No force on earth is more powerful than love. When love is imprinted on a person's heart, nothing can discourage it or deter it from its course. Not even death can separate people from love's grip. God's love is the greatest love there is, and He freely expresses it to His people. Nothing can weaken the power of God's love.

7 Many waters cannot quench
love,
Nor can the floods drown it.
[a]If a man would give for love

THE BOOK OF ISAIAH

INTRODUCTION

This book is attributed to Isaiah the son of Amoz (1:1). He is the only author identified in the text (2:1; 7:3; 13:1; 20:2; 37:2, 6, 21; 38:1, 4, 21; 39:3, 5, 8). However, scholars have voiced various questions concerning Isaiah's authorship. Some have pointed to three distinct sections of the book, Isaiah 1–39; 40–55; 56–66, and suggested each was written by a different person. This theory exists partly because the writings address time periods two centuries after Isaiah's time: Cyrus, the Jews' deliverer from Babylon, is identified in the book, yet Isaiah lived long before Babylon became the dominant world power (45:1). The writing style also varies in some sections of the book. Moreover, Isaiah is not specifically named after chapter 39. However, neither scripture nor tradition identifies any other author but Isaiah.

Those believing God reveals the future to His prophets can accept that Isaiah spoke of events before they unfolded. Also, Isaiah's ministry could have lasted over fifty years. Changing circumstances and Isaiah's own maturing could explain the book's different styles and themes. Particular stylistic features do occur consistently throughout the book, such as the unique use of the phrase "holy one of Israel," used twelve times in Isaiah 1–39, and thirteen times in Isaiah 40–66, while appearing only five times outside this book.

This book was written at a crucial time in Judah's history. King Uzziah of Judah had died after a lengthy and successful rule. The political instability that had weakened Assyria during Uzziah's reign was gone, and now the Assyrian behemoth was beginning to ruthlessly expand toward Judah. The great question for God's people would be: In whom would they place their trust?

SIGNIFICANCE

The book of Isaiah embodies the pinnacle of Old Testament prophecy. The emphasis on holiness is unsurpassed in the Old Testament. Isaiah was called by God in the midst of seraphim singing "holy, holy, holy!" (Is 6:3). The prophet used the term "holy" to describe God 31 times, compared to 26 references to the term in the rest of the Old Testament.

Isaiah also emphasized God's worldwide sovereignty. Sennacherib, king of Assyria, boasted of defeating the gods of every other nation (Is. 36:18–20), but he did not recognize that Judah, a small, powerless country, followed the only true God (Is. 37:7, 36–38). Likewise, God named Cyrus, king of Persia, as His servant roughly two hundred years before Cyrus came on the scene (45:1). Isaiah portrays the world superpowers strutting audaciously across the international stage yet unaware they were wholly under the direction of almighty God.

Other important themes of Isaiah include God's provision of a Messiah (Is. 7:14; 9:1–7; 11:1–5; 52:13—53:12; 61:1–3), God's love for the Gentiles (56:3–8; 65:1, 15, 16; 66:18), and the important role of a servant (42:1–4; 49:1–6; 50:4–9; 52:13—53:12).

STRUCTURE

The book of Isaiah can be divided into three major sections: chapters 1–39; 40–55; and 56–66. It outlines three major time periods as follows:

The Period of the Assyrians
- Condemnation of God's People (1:1—5:30)
- Isaiah's Call (6:1–13)
- God's Word against Assyria (7:1—12:6)

- God's Word Against Assyria (14:24–27)
- God's Word Against Philistia (14:28–32)
- God's Word Against Moab (15:1—16:14)
- God's Word Against Syria and Israel (17:1–14)
- God's Word Against Ethiopia (18:1–7)
- God's Word Against Egypt (19:1—20:6)
- God's Word Against Babylon (21:1–12)
- God's Word Against Arabia (21:13–17)

Encountering God Through Isaiah

The pages of Isaiah present numerous opportunities to encounter God in a life-changing way. Let yourself be challenged by God's condemnation of lifeless religious activity (1:10–20). Consider that God has provided everything for you to produce spiritual fruit, yet He can still find worthless fruit (5:1–7). As you read of Isaiah's transforming encounter with God, ponder His call on your life (6:1–13). Let the comforting words God gave His people during their trials ease your burdens too, as their God is your God (40:1–31). Spend time meditating on Isaiah's moving description of the Suffering Servant who endured so much agony to atone for your sins (52:13—53:12). Finally, gain hope in the assurance that every word God speaks bears fruit and accomplishes His purposes (55:10, 11).

CHAPTER 1

THE [a]vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the [b]days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

The Wickedness of Judah

2 [a]Hear, O heavens, and give ear,
O earth!
For the LORD has spoken:
"I have nourished and brought up children,
And they have rebelled against Me;
3 [a]The ox knows its owner
And the donkey its master's [1]crib;
But Israel [b]does not know,
My people do not [2]consider."

4 Alas, sinful nation,
A people [1]laden with iniquity,
[a]A [2]brood of evildoers,
Children who are corrupters!
They have forsaken the LORD,
They have provoked to anger
The Holy One of Israel,
They have turned away backward.

5 [a]Why should you be stricken again?
You will revolt more and more.
The whole head is sick,
And the whole heart faints.

WORDStudy — ISAIAH

Is. 1:1 Isaiah, an eighth century prophet, ministered during the reigns of four Judahite kings: Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah. The name "Isaiah" means "the Lord saves." Tradition suggests his father Amoz was the brother of King Amaziah, which would make Isaiah Uzziah's cousin and a member of the nobility. He was married to "the prophetess" (Is. 8:3) and had at least two sons: Shear-Jashub, meaning "a remnant will return," and Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz, meaning "speed the spoil, hasten the prey." If Isaiah 6 describes Isaiah's call into ministry at the time of Uzziah's death, his prophetic ministry began in 740 B.C. King Hezekiah assumed the throne by 716 B.C. If Isaiah prophesied throughout Hezekiah's reign, his ministry would have lasted fifty-five years. Jewish tradition claims Isaiah was sawn in two during the evil rule of King Manasseh. He may be the martyr mentioned in Hebrews 11:37.

1:1 Using the term "vision" to describe Isaiah's writing is unusual. Obadiah is the only other Old Testament book to do so (Obad. 1).

ENCOUNTER Note — Is. 1:3

My People

God's people can become oblivious to His voice. How tragic that almighty God must seek to gain our attention!

6 From the sole of the foot even to the head,
There is no soundness in it,
But wounds and bruises and putrefying sores;
They have not been closed or bound up,
Or soothed with ointment.

7 [a]Your country is desolate,
Your cities are burned with fire;
Strangers devour your land in your presence;
And it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers.
8 So the daughter of Zion is left [a]as a [1]booth in a vineyard,
As a hut in a garden of cucumbers,
[b]As a besieged city.
9 [a]Unless the LORD of hosts
Had left to us a very small remnant,
We would have become like [b]Sodom,
We would have been made like Gomorrah.

10 Hear the word of the LORD,
You rulers [a]of Sodom;
Give ear to the law of our God,
You people of Gomorrah:
11 "To what purpose is the multitude of your [a]sacrifices to Me?"
Says the LORD.
"I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams
And the fat of fed cattle.
I do not delight in the blood of bulls,
Or of lambs or goats.

12 "When you come [a]to appear before Me,
Who has required this from your hand,
To trample My courts?
13 Bring no more [a]futile[1] sacrifices;
Incense is an abomination to Me.
The New Moons, the Sabbaths, and [b]the calling of assemblies—
I cannot endure iniquity and the sacred meeting.

14 Your [a]New Moons and your [b]appointed feasts
My soul hates;
They are a trouble to Me,
I am weary of bearing them.
15 [a]When you [1]spread out your hands,
I will hide My eyes from you;
[b]Even though you make many prayers,
I will not hear.
Your hands are full of [2]blood.

ENCOUNTER Note — Is. 1:15

Neither Seeing nor Hearing

Praying to God while our lives are full of sin is blatantly offensive to Him. He has no desire to watch us go through the motions of worship or to hear our empty words.

16 "Wash[a] yourselves, make yourselves clean;
Put away the evil of your doings from before My eyes.
[b]Cease to do evil,
17 Learn to do good;
Seek justice,
Rebuke [1]the oppressor;
[2]Defend the fatherless,
Plead for the widow.

18 "Come now, and let us [a]reason together,"
Says the LORD,
"Though your sins are like scarlet,
[b]They shall be as white as snow;
Though they are red like crimson,
They shall be as wool.
19 If you are willing and obedient,
You shall eat the good of the land;
20 But if you refuse and rebel,
You shall be devoured by the sword";
[a]For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

The Degenerate City

21 [a]How the faithful city has become a [1]harlot!
It was full of justice;
Righteousness lodged in it,
But now [b]murderers.
22 [a]Your silver has become dross,
Your wine mixed with water.
23 [a]Your princes are rebellious,
And [b]companions of thieves;
[c]Everyone loves bribes,

22 [a]Jer. 6:28
23 [a]Hos. 9:15 [b]Prov. 29:24 [c]Jer. 22:17

1:9 Sodom and Gomorrah were the epitome of wickedness. For Jerusalem to be so described was a startling comment. Everyone knew how God had dealt with those evil cities.

1:11 Throughout the Old Testament, God declared His preference for obedience over hollow ritual (Hos. 6:6; Amos 4:4; Mic. 6:6–8).

1:14 God's use of "your" indicates that He had no part in the people's religious observances.

1:18 The term "reason" connotes a legal decision in which two parties reach an agreement. In this context God may be calling His people to consider the wisdom of pursuing their present course of rebellion against Him.

1:21 Referring to His people as harlots was God's graphic way of describing their betrayal of Him (Ezek. 16:22; Hos. 2:2; 3:1).

And follows after rewards.
They [d]do not defend the fatherless,
Nor does the cause of the widow come before them.

24 Therefore the Lord says,
The LORD of hosts, the Mighty One of Israel,
"Ah, [a]I will [1]rid Myself of My adversaries,
And [2]take vengeance on My enemies.
25 I will turn My hand against you,
And [a]thoroughly[1] purge away your dross,
And take away all your alloy.
26 I will restore your judges [a]as at the first,
And your counselors as at the beginning.
Afterward [b]you shall be called the city of righteousness, the faithful city."

27 Zion shall be redeemed with justice,
And her [1]penitents with righteousness.
28 The [a]destruction of transgressors and of sinners shall be together,
And those who forsake the LORD shall be consumed.
29 For [1]they shall be ashamed of the [2]terebinth trees
Which you have desired;
And you shall be embarrassed because of the gardens
Which you have chosen.
30 For you shall be as a terebinth whose leaf fades,
And as a garden that has no water.
31 [a]The strong shall be as tinder,
And the work of it as a spark;
Both will burn together,
And no one shall [b]quench them.

The Future House of God

2 The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

2 Now [a]it shall come to pass [b]in the latter days
[c]That the mountain of the LORD's house
Shall be established on the top of the mountains,
And shall be exalted above the hills;
And all nations shall flow to it.
3 Many people shall come and say,
[a]"Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
To the house of the God of Jacob;
He will teach us His ways,
And we shall walk in His paths."
[b]For out of Zion shall go forth the law,
And the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
4 He shall judge between the nations,
And rebuke many people;
They shall beat their swords into plowshares,
And their spears into pruning [1]hooks;
Nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
Neither shall they learn war anymore.

The Day of the LORD

5 O house of Jacob, come and let us [a]walk
In the light of the LORD.

6 For You have forsaken Your people, the house of Jacob,
Because they are filled [a]with eastern ways;
They are [b]soothsayers like the Philistines,
[c]And they [1]are pleased with the children of foreigners.
7 [a]Their land is also full of silver and gold,
And there is no end to their treasures;
Their land is also full of horses,
And there is no end to their chariots.
8 [a]Their land is also full of idols;
They worship the work of their own hands,
That which their own fingers have made.
9 People bow down,
And each man humbles himself;
Therefore do not forgive them.

10 [a]Enter into the rock, and hide in the dust,
From the terror of the LORD
And the glory of His majesty.
11 The [1]lofty looks of man shall be [a]humbled,
The haughtiness of men shall be bowed down,
And the LORD alone shall be exalted [b]in that day.

1:23 The prophet demonstrated that deserting God inevitably leads to an abandonment of social responsibility and a loss of compassion for those in need.

1:27 The term "Zion" is a dominant theme in this book; it is mentioned forty-seven times.

2:3 The prophet foresaw a time when Jerusalem would not be like Sodom and Gomorrah but would be the place where nations learned of God's ways and His righteousness.

2:8 The word used here for "idol" means "worthless ones."

2:9 The righteous prophet is so appalled at the people's shameless rebellion against God that he urges God not to forgive them, but to give them what they deserve.

12 For the day of the LORD of hosts Shall come upon everything proud and lofty,
Upon everything lifted up—
And it shall be brought low—

ENCOUNTER Note Is. 2:12

Against the Lofty

Pride is an affront to almighty God; it is the core of self-sufficiency. God will inevitably bring low those who exalt themselves, and He will deflate those who puff themselves up.

13 Upon all [a]the cedars of Lebanon that are high and lifted up,
And upon all the oaks of Bashan;
14 [a]Upon all the high mountains,
And upon all the hills that are lifted
up;
15 Upon every high tower,
And upon every fortified wall;
16 [a]Upon all the ships of Tarshish,
And upon all the beautiful sloops.
17 The [1]loftiness of man shall be
bowed down,
And the haughtiness of men shall be brought low;
The LORD alone will be exalted in that day,
18 But the idols [1]He shall utterly abolish.

19 They shall go into the [a]holes of the rocks,
And into the caves of the [1]earth,
[b]From the terror of the LORD
And the glory of His majesty,
When He arises [c]to shake the earth
mightily.

20 In that day a man will cast away his idols of silver
And his idols of gold,
Which they made, each for himself
to worship,
To the moles and bats,
21 To go into the clefts of the rocks,
And into the crags of the rugged
rocks,
From the terror of the LORD
And the glory of His majesty,
When He arises to shake the earth
mightily.

Whose [b]breath is in his nostrils;

Judgment on Judah and Jerusalem

3 For behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts,
[a]Takes away from Jerusalem and from Judah
[b]The[1] stock and the store,
The whole supply of bread and the whole supply of water;
2 [a]The mighty man and the man of war,
The judge and the prophet,
And the diviner and the elder;
3 The captain of fifty and the
[1]honorable man,
The counselor and the skillful artisan,
And the expert enchanter.

4 "I will give [a]children[1] to be their princes,
And [2]babes shall rule over them.
5 The people will be oppressed,
Every one by another and every one
by his neighbor;
The child will be insolent toward the [1]elder,
And the [2]base toward the honorable."

6 When a man takes hold of his brother
In the house of his father, saying,
"You have clothing;
You be our ruler,
And let these ruins be under your
[1]power,"
7 In that day he will protest, saying,
"I cannot cure your ills,
For in my house is neither food nor
clothing;
Do not make me a ruler of the
people."

8 For [a]Jerusalem stumbled,
And Judah is fallen,
Because their tongue and their doings
Are against the LORD,
To provoke the eyes of His glory.
9 The look on their countenance
witnesses against them,
And they declare their sin as [a]Sodom;
They do not hide it.
Woe to their soul!
For they have brought evil upon themselves.

10 "Say to the righteous [a]that it shall be well with them,
[b]For they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

2:16 "Ships of Tarshish" were large, seagoing ships that carried exotic and lucrative cargoes.

3:1 When God identifies Himself with more than one name, it often precedes a pronouncement of judgment (Is. 1:24; 10:16, 33).

3:6 A sign of a degenerated society is its lack of true leaders.

ENCOUNTER Note Is. 3:9

Ourselves

By our own choices we can invite God's judgment. It is devastating when God gives us what we deserve—that which we have been foolishly pursuing.

11 Woe to the wicked! [a]It shall be ill with him,
For the reward of his hands shall be
[1]given him.
12 As for My people, children are their oppressors,
And women rule over them.
O My people! [a]Those who lead you
[1]cause you to err,
And destroy the way of your paths."

Oppression and Luxury Condemned

13 The LORD stands up [a]to [1]plead,
And stands to judge the people.
14 The LORD will enter into judgment
With the elders of His people
And His princes:
"For you have [1]eaten up [a]the
vineyard;
The plunder of the poor is in your houses.
15 What do you mean by [a]crushing My
people
And grinding the faces of the poor?"
Says the Lord GOD of hosts.

16 Moreover the LORD says:

"Because the daughters of Zion are haughty,
And walk with [1]outstretched necks
And [2]wanton eyes,
Walking and [3]mincing as they go,
Making a jingling with their feet,
17 Therefore the Lord will strike with
[a]a scab
The crown of the head of the daughters of Zion,
And the LORD will [b]uncover their secret parts."

18 In that day the Lord will take away
the finery:
The jingling anklets, the [1]scarves,
and the [a]crescents;
19 The pendants, the bracelets, and the veils;
20 The headdresses, the leg ornaments,
and the headbands;
The perfume boxes, the charms,
21 and the rings;
The nose jewels,
22 the festal apparel, and the mantles;
The outer garments, the purses,
23 and the mirrors;
The fine linen, the turbans, and the robes.

24 And so it shall be:

Instead of a sweet smell there will be a stench;
Instead of a sash, a rope;
Instead of well-set hair, [a]baldness;
Instead of a rich robe, a girding of sackcloth;
And [1]branding instead of beauty.
25 Your men shall fall by the sword,
And your [1]mighty in the war.

26 [a]Her gates shall lament and mourn,
And she being desolate [b]shall sit on the ground.

4 And [a]in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying,
"We will [b]eat our own food and wear
our own apparel;
Only let us be called by your name,
To take away [c]our reproach."

The Renewal of Zion

2 In that day [a]the Branch of the LORD shall be beautiful and glorious;
And the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and appealing
For those of Israel who have escaped.

3 And it shall come to pass that he who is left in Zion and remains in Jerusalem [a]will be called holy—everyone who is [b]recorded among the living in Jerusalem.
4 When [a]the Lord has washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and purged the [1]blood of Jerusalem from her midst, by the spirit of judgment and by the spirit of burning,

ENCOUNTER Note Is. 4:4

Only God can cleanse people from sin and make them holy. When He does so, purity and peace eradicate filth and shame.

4 [a]Mal. 3:2, 3 [1]bloodshed

3:16 "Mincing" may refer to childlike steps.

3:18 In judgment, God will remove every human symbol of glory, prestige, and status, so people are seen for what they really are.

3:24 Ropes, baldness, and sackcloth are used to describe prisoners taken into exile.

4:1 The number of men lost in battle will be enormous, leaving seven women to every one man.

4:2 The "Branch" refers to the Messiah (Jer. 23:5; 33:15; Zech. 3:8; 6:12).

5 then the LORD will create above every dwelling place of Mount Zion, and above her assemblies, [a]a cloud and smoke by day and [b]the shining of a flaming fire by night. For over all the glory there will be a [1]covering.
6 And there will be a tabernacle for shade in the daytime from the heat, [a]for a place of refuge, and for a shelter from storm and rain.

God's Disappointing Vineyard

5 Now let me sing to my Well-beloved
A song of my Beloved [a]regarding His vineyard:

My Well-beloved has a vineyard
[1]On a very fruitful hill.
2 He dug it up and cleared out its stones,
And planted it with the choicest vine.
He built a tower in its midst,
And also [1]made a winepress in it;
[a]So He expected it to bring forth good grapes,
But it brought forth wild grapes.

3 "And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah,
[a]Judge, please, between Me and My vineyard.
4 What more could have been done to My vineyard
That I have not done in [a]it?
Why then, when I expected it to bring forth good grapes,
Did it bring forth wild grapes?

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 5:4

What More?

God has made every provision so we can enjoy a close relationship with Him. Nothing is lacking. If we are not experiencing an intimate walk with God, we must ask ourselves why.

5 And now, please let Me tell you what I will do to My vineyard:
[a]I will take away its hedge, and it shall be burned;
And break down its wall, and it shall be trampled down.
6 I will lay it [a]waste;
It shall not be pruned or [1]dug,
But there shall come up briers and [b]thorns.
I will also command the clouds
That they rain no rain on it."

7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel,
And the men of Judah are His pleasant plant.
He looked for justice, but behold, oppression;
For righteousness, but behold, [1]a cry for help.

Impending Judgment on Excesses

8 Woe to those who [1]join [a]house to house;
They add field to field,
Till there is no place
Where they may dwell alone in the midst of the land!
9 [a]In my hearing the LORD of hosts said,
"Truly, many houses shall be desolate,
Great and beautiful ones, without inhabitant.
10 For ten acres of vineyard shall yield one [a]bath,[1]
And a homer of seed shall yield one [2]ephah."

11 [a]Woe to those who rise early in the morning,
That they may [1]follow intoxicating drink;
Who continue until night, till wine inflames them!
12 [a]The harp and the strings,
The tambourine and flute,
And wine are in their feasts;
But [b]they do not regard the work of the LORD,
Nor consider the operation of His hands.

13 [a]Therefore my people have gone into captivity,
Because they have no [b]knowledge;
Their honorable men are famished,
And their multitude dried up with thirst.
14 Therefore Sheol has enlarged itself
And opened its mouth beyond measure;

13 [a]2 Kin. 24: 14–16 [b]Hos. 4:6

4:5 Reference to a cloud and fire harkens back to God's guidance and protection of the Israelites in the wilderness (Ex. 13:20–22; 40:34–38; Num. 9:15–23).

5:2 Generally it took two years after planting vines before they produced their first grapes.

5:8 Land hungry farmers were displacing their impoverished neighbors to build vast estates in direct contradiction to God's commands (Lev. 25:23–28; Num. 27:7–11).

5:10 One bath is about six gallons. One homer is about six bushels. One ephah is about one tenth of a homer. In times of God's judgment, crops would be extremely lean.

5:12 In pitiful contrast to the abiding joy God could give them, the people pursued fleeting worldly pleasures instead.

5:13 The word for "knowledge" used here signifies experiential involvement with someone or some thing.

Their glory and their multitude and their pomp,
And he who is jubilant, shall descend into it.
15 People shall be brought down,
[a]Each man shall be humbled,
And the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled.
16 But the LORD of hosts shall be [a]exalted in judgment,
And God who is holy shall be hallowed in righteousness.
17 Then the lambs shall feed in their pasture,
And in the waste places of [a]the [1]fat ones strangers shall eat.

18 Woe to those who [1]draw iniquity with cords of [2]vanity,
And sin as if with a cart rope;
19 [a]That say, "Let Him make speed and hasten His work,
That we may see it;
And let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come,
That we may know it."

20 Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil;
Who put darkness for light, and light for darkness;
Who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

ENCOUNTER Note Is. 5:20

Woe!

They are desperately depraved who view that which God despises as something good. We must love what God loves and hates what He hates.

21 Woe to those who are [a]wise in their own eyes,
And prudent in their own sight!

22 Woe to men mighty at drinking wine,
Woe to men valiant for mixing intoxicating drink,
23 Who [a]justify the wicked for a bribe,
And take away justice from the righteous man!

24 Therefore, [a]as the [1]fire devours the stubble,
And the flame consumes the chaff,
So [b]their root will be as rottenness,
And their blossom will ascend like dust;
Because they have rejected the law of the LORD of hosts,
And despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.
25 [a]Therefore the anger of the LORD is aroused against His people;
He has stretched out His hand against them
And stricken them,
And [b]the hills trembled.
Their carcasses were as refuse in the midst of the streets.

[c]For all this His anger is not turned away,
But His hand is stretched out still.

26 [a]He will lift up a banner to the nations from afar,
And will [b]whistle to them from [c]the end of the earth;
Surely [d]they shall come with speed, swiftly.
27 No one will be weary or stumble among them,
No one will slumber or sleep;
Nor [a]will the belt on their loins be loosed,
Nor the strap of their sandals be broken;
28 [a]Whose arrows are sharp,
And all their bows bent;
Their horses' hooves will [1]seem like flint,
And their wheels like a whirlwind.
29 Their roaring will be like a lion,
They will roar like young lions;
Yes, they will roar
And lay hold of the prey;
They will carry it away safely,
And no one will deliver.
30 In that day they will roar against them
Like the roaring of the sea.
And if one [a]looks to the land,
Behold, darkness and [1]sorrow;
And the light is darkened by the clouds.

CHAPTER 6

1 [a]2 Kin. 15:7 [b]John 12:41
2 [a]Ezek. 1:11

5:26 Isaiah introduces a major theme of his book here. The world's nations are but God's instruments for His purposes.

6:1 King Uzziah died in 740 B.C. He blatantly sinned against God during his reign (2 Chr. 26:16–23), yet he enjoyed a long and prosperous reign unparalleled since the days of Solomon (2 Chr. 16:1–15). Because of the corresponding weakness of Assyria at this time, Judah and Israel enjoyed a reprieve from constant invasion and were able to expand their economies and armies. Isaiah's vision of eternal God is contrasted with the death of one of Judah's most powerful kings.

WORD*Study* SERAPHIM

Is. 6:2 This chapter in Isaiah contains the only scriptural references to seraphim. Their name is related to the Hebrew word seraph which means to "burn with fire." This may describe their brilliant appearance, or it may refer to their work of purification since fire was one of God's instruments of cleansing (Ex. 3:1–6; 13:21; 19:18; Lev. 10:1, 2; Num. 11:1, 2; 1 Kin. 18:24).

3 And one cried to another and said:

[a]"Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts;
[b]The whole earth is full of His glory!"

4 And the posts of the door were shaken by the voice of him who cried out, and the house was filled with smoke.
5 So I said:

"Woe is me, for I am [1]undone!
Because I am a man of [a]unclean lips,
And I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips;
For my eyes have seen the King,
The LORD of hosts."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 6:5

Woe Is Me!

Those who truly see God as He is can only respond in ardent humility. An encounter with holy God immediately confronts us with our sinfulness. Hearing true worshippers praising God reminds us of the impurity of our own mouths.

6 Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having in his hand a live coal which he had taken with the tongs from [a]the altar.
7 And he [a]touched my mouth with it, and said:

Your iniquity is taken away,
And your sin [1]purged."

8 Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying:

"Whom shall I send,
And who will go for [a]Us?"

Then I said, "Here am I! Send me."
9 And He said, "Go, and [a]tell this people:

'Keep on hearing, but do not understand;
Keep on seeing, but do not perceive.'

10 "Make [a]the heart of this people dull,
And their ears heavy,
And shut their eyes;
[b]Lest they see with their eyes,
And hear with their ears,
And understand with their heart,
And return and be healed."

11 Then I said, "Lord, how long?" And He answered:

[a]"Until the cities are laid waste and without inhabitant,
The houses are without a man,
The land is utterly desolate,
12 [a]The LORD has removed men far away,
And the forsaken places are many in the midst of the land.
13 But yet a tenth will be in it,
And will return and be for consuming,
As a terebinth tree or as an oak,
Whose stump remains when it is cut down.
So [a]the holy seed shall be its stump."

Isaiah Sent to King Ahaz

7 Now it came to pass in the days of [a]Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to make war against [b]it, but could not [1]prevail against it.
2 And it was told to the house of David, saying, "Syria's forces are [1]deployed in Ephraim." So his heart and the heart of his people were moved as the trees of the woods are moved with the wind.

6:3 The Hebrew language emphasized something by repeating it. Saying "holy" twice indicated God was most holy. Saying it three times was employing the strongest form of superlative in the Hebrew language. "Holy, holy, holy" meant God's holiness was beyond human expression. Perhaps because of this profound encounter, Isaiah used the phrase "Holy One of Israel" twenty five times in his book compared to the six times it appears in the rest of the Old Testament (2 Kin. 19:22; Ps. 71:22; 78:41; 89:18; Jer. 50:29; 51:5).

6:6 The live coal was taken either from the altar of sacrifice or the altar of incense which sat immediately before the Most Holy Place. Because the coal came from an altar, it may symbolize the removal of Isaiah's sin through sacrifice.

6:8 Until Isaiah's mouth was cleansed he did not hear God speaking.

6:10 Encounters with God's word affect people one way or the other. Either they yield to God's will or their hearts grow hard.

6:13 The tenth refers to the remnant which returns from exile and remains true to God.

3 Then the LORD said to Isaiah, "Go out now to meet Ahaz, you and [1]Shear-Jashub your son, at the end of the aqueduct from the upper pool, on the highway to the Fuller's Field,
4 "and say to him: [1]'Take heed, and [2]be [a]quiet; do not fear or be fainthearted for these two stubs of smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria, and the son of Remaliah.
5 'Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah have plotted evil against you, saying,
6 "Let us go up against Judah and [1]trouble it, and let us make a gap in its wall for ourselves, and set a king over them, the son of Tabel"—
7 'thus says the Lord GOD:

[a]"It shall not stand,
Nor shall it come to pass.

And the head of Damascus is Rezin.
Within sixty-five years Ephraim will Surely you shall not be

CHARACTER*Study*

KING AHAZ

Is. 7:1

King Ahaz ruled Judah from about 735 to 715 B.C. His name meant "He Has Grasped." He was the son of Jotham and the father of the righteous king, Hezekiah. The reign of Ahaz was marked by wickedness and apostasy (2 Kin. 16:3). He placed a Syrian altar in the holy of holies (2 Kin. 16:11). He accepted Assyrian worship practices in an effort to ally himself with them. When attacked by Syria and northern Israel, Ahaz placed his trust in the pagan nation of Assyria rather than in God, despite the urging of the prophet Isaiah. Ahaz was a contemporary of the prophets Micah and Isaiah, yet despite the availability of these outstanding prophets, Ahaz rejected God. Amazingly, perhaps, despite Ahaz's wickedness, he raised one of the godliest kings in the history of Judah, Hezekiah (2 Kin. 18:1–8). Because of Ahaz's wickedness, he was not buried in the royal tombs (2 Chr. 28:27).

7:3 Shear-Jashub means "A Remnant Will Return." The name of Isaiah's son was a sign that Judah was facing exile. Ahaz may have been inspecting the city's aqueduct to ensure Jerusalem had adequate water supplies should the Syrians and northern Israel besiege them.

7:4 The son of Ramaliah was Pekah, king of Israel.

7:6 Judah would not join in rebellion against Assyria, so Syria and Israel sought to destroy their southern neighbor. They tried to place a puppet king, the son of Tabel (whose name means good for nothing) on the throne so they would not have an enemy behind them should Assyria attack them from the north.

7:8 Israel would be destroyed in 722 B.C., only twelve to thirteen years after this time.

7:10 "Again" implies that Isaiah spoke more than once to the king, urging him to place his trust in God.

7:11 The phrase "in the depth or in the height above" indicates Ahaz could pick any sign he chose and God would prove His word to him. Throughout scripture God gives signs to His people, but this is a rare exception for God to invite someone to choose a sign. It is a testimony to the grace God showed the unbelieving King Ahaz.

7:12 King Ahaz's refusal to ask God for a sign did not stem from his faith in God, nor did it come from his adherence to the scriptural admonition not to test the Lord (Deut. 6:16). Ahaz had already determined to place his trust in Assyria.

7:14 The Hebrew word used here for "virgin" means a young woman of marriageable age. This strongly implies virginity. However, the Hebrew language had another word specifying virginity. Opinions vary concerning the meaning of this prophecy. Some believe it referred to Ahaz's son, Hezekiah, a righteous king whom God would save from the Assyrians. Others think it meant Isaiah's son, Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz, as Isaiah's sons' names were both signs to God's people (Is. 8:3, 4). Ultimately, this promise was fulfilled through the virgin birth of Jesus over seven hundred years later. Christ epitomized God's presence with humanity and He brought complete and final deliverance to them (Matt. 1:23).

refuse the evil and choose the good, the land that you dread will be forsaken by [b]both her kings.
17 [a]"The LORD will bring the king of Assyria upon you and your people and your father's house—days that have not come since the day that [b]Ephraim departed from Judah."

18 And it shall come to pass in that day
That the LORD [a]will whistle for the fly
That is in the farthest part of the rivers of Egypt,
And for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.
19 They will come, and all of them will rest
In the desolate valleys and in [a]the clefts of the rocks,
And on all thorns and in all pastures.

20 In the same day the Lord will shave with a [a]hired [b]razor,
With those from beyond [1]the River, with the king of Assyria,
The head and the hair of the legs,
And will also remove the beard.

21 It shall be in that day
That a man will keep alive a young cow and two sheep;
22 So it shall be, from the abundance of milk they give,
That he will eat curds;
For curds and honey everyone will eat who is left in the land.

23 It shall happen in that day,
That wherever there could be a thousand vines
Worth a thousand shekels of silver,
[a]It will be for briers and thorns.
24 With arrows and bows men will come there,
Because all the land will become briers and thorns.

25 And to any hill which could be dug with the hoe,
You will not go there for fear of briers and thorns;
But it will become a range for oxen
And a place for sheep to roam.

Assyria Will Invade the Land

8 Moreover the LORD said to me, "Take a large scroll, and [a]write on it with a man's pen concerning [1]Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz.
2 "And I will take for Myself faithful witnesses to record, [a]Uriah the priest and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah."
3 Then I went to the prophetess, and she conceived and bore a son. Then the LORD said to me, "Call his name Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz;
4 [a]"for before the child [1]shall have knowledge to cry 'My father' and 'My mother,' [b]the riches of Damascus and the [2]spoil of Samaria will be taken away before the king of Assyria."
5 The LORD also spoke to me again, saying:

6 "Inasmuch as these people refused
The waters of [a]Shiloah that flow softly,
And rejoice [b]in Rezin and in Remaliah's son;
7 Now therefore, behold, the Lord brings up over them
The waters of [1]the River, strong and mighty—
The king of Assyria and all his glory;
He will [2]go up over all his channels
And go over all his banks.
8 He will pass through Judah,
He will overflow and pass over,
[a]He will reach up to the neck;
And the stretching out of his wings
Will [1]fill the breadth of Your land,
O [b]Immanuel.[2]

9 "Be[a] shattered, O you peoples, and be broken in pieces!
Give ear, all you from far countries.
Gird yourselves, but be broken in pieces;

10 [a]Take counsel together, but it will come to nothing;
Speak the word, [b]but it will not stand,
[c]For [1]God is with us."

Fear God, Heed His Word

11 For the LORD spoke thus to me with [1]a strong hand, and instructed me that I

7:20 "Hired" may refer to Ahaz's plan to hire the Assyrians to save him from Israel and Syria (2 Kin.16:7–9). God warned that Ahaz's "savior" would ultimately punish the people of Judah and become a more dreaded enemy than the ones Ahaz presently faced.

8:2 Uriah was a wicked priest (2 Kin. 16:10–16). Zechariah was not the author of the biblical book Zechariah; he may have been a false prophet.

8:4 This would have been shortly before Samaria's overthrow by the Assyrians in 722 B.C., because God announced it would occur before Isaiah's new son could speak.

8:6 The prophet declared that the people rejected God's help, which was gentle and refreshing like the waters of Shiloah. Instead they sought aid from the Assyrians who appeared mighty like the Euphrates River. Yet the Judeans would be dismayed when Assyria swept over them as a flood.

8:8 "Up to the neck" indicated Assyria would devastate Judah but not totally overcome it. The prophecy referred to Sennacherib's invasion against King Hezekiah, which was halted only by God's miraculous intervention (2 Kin. 18:17—19:37).

Let Him be your fear,
And let Him be your dread.

To both the houses of Israel,

15 And many among them shall [a]stumble;
They shall fall and be broken,

16 Bind up the testimony,
Seal the law among my disciples.

Seeking God

Knowing how loving, powerful, and wise God is, it is only natural that His people be constantly seeking Him. To squander one day without enjoying His presence would be tragic. Yet we can become enamored with our plans and pleasures, and we can begin to value them more than we treasure our relationship with God.

8:14 God is a haven of peace to believers but a stumbling stone to unbelievers (Ps. 118:22; Luke 20:17, 18; Rom. 9:33; 1 Pet. 2:6–8).

9:1 Zebulun and Naphtali were in the northern regions of Israel and were some of the first to suffer from the Assyrian invasion (2 Kin. 15:29).

9:4 The "Day of Midian" referred to God's miraculous deliverance of His people under Gideon (Judg. 6–8).

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 9:6

Prince of Peace

Christ can bring peace to any situation. The most difficult circumstance, the most ruthless enemy, the deepest pain—none of these is beyond Christ's reach. He can bring peace to your heart and mind. No one brings peace like Jesus.

The [b]zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.

The Punishment of Samaria

8 The Lord sent a word against [a]Jacob,
And it has fallen on Israel.
9 All the people will know—
Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria—
Who say in pride and arrogance of heart:
10 "The bricks have fallen down,
But we will rebuild with hewn stones;
The sycamores are cut down,
But we will replace them with cedars."
11 Therefore the LORD shall set up
The adversaries of Rezin against him,
And spur his enemies on,
12 The Syrians before and the Philistines behind;
And they shall devour Israel with an open mouth.

For all this His anger is not turned away,
But His hand is [1]stretched out still.

13 For the people do not turn to Him who strikes them,
Nor do they seek the LORD of hosts.
14 Therefore the LORD will cut off head and tail from Israel,
Palm branch and bulrush [a]in one day.
15 The elder and honorable, he is the head;
The prophet who teaches lies, he is the tail.
16 For [a]the leaders of this people cause them to err,
And those who are led by them are destroyed.
17 Therefore the Lord [a]will have no joy in their young men,
Nor have mercy on their fatherless and widows;
For everyone is a hypocrite and an evildoer,
And every mouth speaks [1]folly.

[b]For all this His anger is not turned away,
But His hand is stretched out still.

18 For wickedness [a]burns as the fire;
It shall devour the briers and thorns,
And kindle in the thickets of the forest;
They shall mount up like rising smoke.
19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts
[a]The land is burned up,
And the people shall be as fuel for the fire;
[b]No man shall spare his brother.
20 And he shall [1]snatch on the right hand
And be hungry;
He shall devour on the left hand
[a]And not be satisfied;
[b]Every man shall eat the flesh of his own arm.
21 Manasseh shall devour Ephraim, and Ephraim Manasseh;
Together they shall be [a]against Judah.

[b]For all this His anger is not turned away,
But His hand is stretched out still.

10 "Woe to those who [a]decree unrighteous decrees,
Who write misfortune,
Which they have prescribed
2 To rob the needy of justice,
And to take what is right from the poor of My people,
That widows may be their prey,
And that they may rob the fatherless.
3 [a]What will you do in [b]the day of punishment,
And in the desolation which will come from [c]afar?
To whom will you flee for help?
And where will you leave your glory?
4 Without Me they shall bow down among the [a]prisoners,

1 [a]Ps. 58:2
3 [a]Job 31:14 [b]Hos. 9:7 [c]Is. 5:26
4 [a]Is. 24:22

9:14 The "head and tail" referred to Israel's leaders.

9:20 From King Jeroboam's death until the fall of Samaria thirty years later, northern Israel was rife with intrigue, coups, and internal violence, reflecting the rottenness that had gone to the core of the nation's leadership.

9:21 The Lord's extended hand of judgment is reminiscent of Moses' uplifted arms of intercession for Joshua as he and his army wrought judgment on the Amalekites (Ex. 17:8–16), and of Joshua's hand that remained outstretched until the city of Ai's total destruction (Josh. 8:26).

10:3 "From afar" refers to the Assyrians.

And they shall fall [1]among the slain."

[b]For all this His anger is not turned away,
But His hand is stretched out still.

Arrogant Assyria Also Judged

5 "Woe to Assyria, [a]the rod of My anger
And the staff in whose hand is My indignation.
6 I will send him against [a]an ungodly nation,
And against the people of My wrath
I will [b]give him charge,
To seize the spoil, to take the prey,
And to tread them down like the mire of the streets.
7 [a]Yet he does not mean so,
Nor does his heart think so;
But it is in his heart to destroy,
And cut off not a few nations.
8 [a]For he says,
'Are not my princes altogether kings?
9 Is not [a]Calno [b]like Carchemish?
Is not Hamath like Arpad?
Is not Samaria [c]like Damascus?
10 As my hand has found the kingdoms of the idols,
Whose carved images excelled those of Jerusalem and Samaria,
11 As I have done to Samaria and her idols,
Shall I not do also to Jerusalem and her idols?' "

12 Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Lord has [1]performed all His work [a]on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, that He will say, [b]"I will punish the fruit of the arrogant heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his haughty looks."
13 [a]For he says:

"By the strength of my hand I have done it,
And by my wisdom, for I am prudent;
Also I have removed the boundaries of the people,
And have robbed their treasuries;
So I have put down the inhabitants like a [1]valiant man.
14 [a]My hand has found like a nest the riches of the people,
And as one gathers eggs that are left,
I have gathered all the earth;
And there was no one who moved his wing,
Nor opened his mouth with even a peep."

15 Shall [a]the ax boast itself against him who chops with it?
Or shall the saw exalt itself against him who saws with it?
As if a rod could wield itself against those who lift it up,
Or as if a staff could lift up, as if it were not wood!

Pride

Pride is the root of our sin. Adam and Eve's sin made them to want to be like God. Pride makes us overestimate our position in God's creation. God is adamantly opposed to pride and He will crush it in due time.

16 Therefore the Lord, the [1]Lord of hosts,
Will send leanness among his fat ones;
And under his glory
He will kindle a burning
Like the burning of a fire.
17 So the Light of Israel will be for a fire,
And his Holy One for a flame;
[a]It will burn and devour
His thorns and his briers in one day.
18 And it will consume the glory of his forest and of [a]his fruitful field,
Both soul and body;
And they will be as when a sick man wastes away.
19 Then the rest of the trees of his forest
Will be so few in number
That a child may write them.

The Returning Remnant of Israel

20 And it shall come to pass in that day
That the remnant of Israel,
And such as have escaped of the house of Jacob,

16 [1]So with Bg.; MT, DSS YHWH (the LORD)

10:6 God could send Assyria against an "ungodly nation" because although the Assyrians were also ungodly, they had not received God's revelation to nearly the extent the Judeans had. The Assyrians received one Israelite prophet, Jonah, and they repented. Judah had been given every opportunity to repent but with no response. To whom much had been given, much would be required (Luke 12:48).

10:9 God lists cities that had already been conquered by the Assyrians.

10:11 Ancient thought connected the strength of a nation with the strength of its gods. Since no other god had withstood Assyria, the Assyrians assumed the Judeans' idols would prove no match for them either.

10:17 God is often identified as a light to His people (Is. 9:2; 58:8; 60:1, 19, 20; John 1:1–13).

[a]Will never again depend on him who [1]defeated them,
But will depend on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.
21 The remnant will return, the remnant of Jacob,
To the [a]Mighty God.
22 [a]For though your people, O Israel, be as the sand of the sea,
[b]A remnant of them will return;
The destruction decreed shall overflow with righteousness.
23 [a]For the Lord GOD of hosts
Will make a determined end
In the midst of all the land.

24 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD of hosts: "O My people, who dwell in Zion, [a]do not be afraid of the Assyrian. He shall strike you with a rod and lift up his staff against you, in the manner of [b]Egypt.
25 "For yet a very little while [a]and the indignation will cease, as will My anger in their destruction."
26 And the LORD of hosts will [1]stir up [a]a scourge for him like the slaughter of [b]Midian at the rock of Oreb; [c]as His rod was on the sea, so will He lift it up in the manner of Egypt.

27 It shall come to pass in that day
That his burden will be taken away from your shoulder,
And his yoke from your neck,
And the yoke will be destroyed
because of [a]the anointing oil.

The Spirit of knowledge and of the

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 11:2

The Spirit of Wisdom

The heavenly Father gave Christ the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, which enabled Jesus to please God perfectly. As a young man, Solomon pled for wisdom above everything else. God is pleased to give us the Spirit of wisdom so we might walk in His ways and serve in His power.

3 His delight is in the fear of the LORD,
[a]And He shall not judge by the sight of His eyes,
Nor decide by the hearing of His ears;
4 But [a]with righteousness He shall judge the poor,
And decide with equity for the
meek of the earth;
He shall [b]strike the earth with the rod of His mouth,
And with the breath of His lips He shall slay the wicked.
5 Righteousness shall be the belt of His loins,

10:28 Aiath was probably Ai, located ten miles north of Jerusalem. The cities listed here were positioned increasingly closer to Jerusalem, revealing the inexorable march of the Assyrians toward the Judean capital.

11:1 "Rod" and "Branch" are Messianic terms (Zech. 3:8; 6:12; Jer. 23:5; 33:15). They refer to a descendant of David (Is. 9:6; 16:5; 55:4; Jer. 23:5; 33:15), and also to the promised seed that would bring salvation from sin's curse (Gen. 3:15).

11:3 "Delight" refers to the sense of smell.

11:4 The word for "judge" used here does not refer to a court-room judge but to a leader, as from the period of the judges. Such judges defended God's people and defeated wicked oppressors. The "rod of His mouth" indicated the Messiah's words would be His weapon (Heb. 4:12; 2 Thess. 2:8; Rev. 1:16; 19:15).

And faithfulness the belt of His waist.

6 "The[a] wolf also shall dwell with the lamb,
The leopard shall lie down with the young goat,
The calf and the young lion and the fatling together;
And a little child shall lead them.
7 The cow and the bear shall graze;
Their young ones shall lie down together;
And the lion shall eat straw like the ox.
8 The nursing child shall play by the cobra's hole,
And the weaned child shall put his hand in the viper's den.
9 [a]They shall not hurt nor destroy in all My holy mountain,
For [b]the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD
As the waters cover the sea.

10 "And[a] in that day [b]there shall be a Root of Jesse,
Who shall stand as a [c]banner to the people;
For the [d]Gentiles shall seek Him,
And His resting place shall be glorious."

11 It shall come to pass in that day
That the Lord shall set His hand again the second time
To recover the remnant of His people who are left,
[a]From Assyria and Egypt,
From Pathros and Cush,
From Elam and Shinar,
From Hamath and the [1]islands of the sea.

12 He will set up a banner for the nations,
And will [1]assemble the outcasts of Israel,
And gather together [a]the dispersed of Judah
From the four [2]corners of the earth.
13 Also [a]the envy of Ephraim shall depart,
And the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off;
Ephraim shall not envy Judah,
And Judah shall not harass Ephraim.
14 But they shall fly down upon the shoulder of the Philistines toward the west;
Together they shall plunder the [1]people of the East;
[a]They shall lay their hand on Edom and Moab;
And the people of Ammon shall obey them.
15 The LORD [a]will utterly [1]destroy the tongue of the Sea of Egypt;
With His mighty wind He will shake His fist over [2]the River,
And strike it in the seven streams,
And make men cross over [3]dry-shod.
16 [a]There will be a highway for the remnant of His people
Who will be left from Assyria,
[b]As it was for Israel
In the day that he came up from the land of Egypt.

A Hymn of Praise

12 And [a]in that day you will say:

"O LORD, I will praise You;
Though You were angry with me,
Your anger is turned away, and You comfort me.
2 Behold, God is my salvation,
I will trust and not be afraid;
[a]'For [b]YAH, the LORD, is my strength and song;
He also has become my salvation.' "

3 Therefore with joy you will draw [a]water
From the wells of salvation.

ENCOUNTER Note Is. 12:3

Joy

The inevitable result of genuine salvation is joy. The joy found in Christ is like an inexhaustible well, satisfying the most desperate thirst. It refreshes and invigorates, giving life to the driest soul. Draw deeply from the well of joy.

4 And in that day you will say:

[a]"Praise the LORD, call upon His name;
[b]Declare His deeds among the peoples,
Make mention that His [c]name is exalted.
5 [a]Sing to the LORD,
For He has done excellent things;

11:10 A banner was a rallying point. The Messiah would draw people from all over the earth to Himself.

11:15 The "tongue of the Sea of Egypt" may refer to a bay. The possible reference is to God's deliverance at the Red Sea (Ex. 14:21–27).

11:16 A "highway" for people living in hills and mountainous country indicated that every barrier and obstacle had been removed and easy access to God had been provided.

12:5 Our worship should always be directed "to the Lord" (see Ps. 33:1).

This is known in all the earth.
6 [a]Cry out and shout, O inhabitant of Zion,
For great is [b]the Holy One of Israel in your midst!"

Proclamation Against Babylon

13 The [a]burden[1] against Babylon which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw.

2 "Lift[a] up a banner [b]on the high mountain,
Raise your voice to them;
[c]Wave your hand, that they may enter the gates of the nobles.
3 I have commanded My [1]sanctified ones;
I have also called [a]My mighty ones for My anger—
Those who [b]rejoice in My exaltation."

4 The [a]noise of a multitude in the mountains,
Like that of many people!
A tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together!
The LORD of hosts musters
The army for battle.
5 They come from a far country,
From the end of heaven—
The [a]LORD and His [1]weapons of indignation,
To destroy the whole [b]land.

6 Wail, [a]for the day of the LORD is at hand!
[b]It will come as destruction from the Almighty.
7 Therefore all hands will be limp,
Every man's heart will melt,
8 And they will be afraid.
[a]Pangs[1] and sorrows will take hold of them;
They will be in pain as a woman in childbirth;
They will be amazed at one another;
Their faces will be like flames.

9 Behold, [a]the day of the LORD comes,
Cruel, with both wrath and fierce anger,
To lay the land desolate;
And He will destroy [b]its sinners from it.
10 For the stars of heaven and their constellations
Will not give their light;
The sun will be [a]darkened in its going forth,
And the moon will not cause its light to shine.

11 "I will [a]punish the world for its evil,
And the wicked for their iniquity;
[b]I will halt the arrogance of the proud,
And will lay low the haughtiness of the [1]terrible.
12 I will make a mortal more rare than fine gold,
A man more than the golden wedge of Ophir.
13 [a]Therefore I will shake the heavens,
And the earth will move out of her place,
In the wrath of the LORD of hosts
And in [b]the day of His fierce anger.
14 It shall be as the hunted gazelle,
And as a sheep that no man [1]takes up;
[a]Every man will turn to his own people,
And everyone will flee to his own land.
15 Everyone who is found will be thrust through,
And everyone who is captured will fall by the sword.
16 Their children also will be [a]dashed to pieces before their eyes;
Their houses will be plundered
And their wives [b]ravished.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 13:9

The Day of the Lord Comes

God's judgment on sin is inevitable. The most powerful people and invincible nations will all be humbled and judged by God in righteousness. That day is coming. His judgment is sure.

12:6 The distinctive phrase "the holy One of Israel" is used twenty five times in Isaiah, twelve times in Isaiah 1–39 and thirteen times in Isaiah 40–66.

13:1 The section of Isaiah from 13:1 to 27:13 lists a series of judgments against the world's nations. Although Judah was seemingly insignificant on the world stage, God intended to use this small nation to judge the great empires.

13:10 The "day of the Lord" is often associated with darkness (Ezek. 32:7; Joel 2:2, 31; 3:15; Amos 5:18; Mic. 3:6; Matt. 24:29; Luke 21:25; Rev. 8:12).

13:12 Ophir may have been in east Africa and was known for the high quality of its gold.

13:17 The Medes lived in the region which is today northwest Iran. The Medes helped the Babylonians rout the Assyrians in 609 B.C. They were conquered by the Persians in 550 B.C. Together with the Persians they conquered Babylon in 539 B.C.

And they will have no pity on the fruit of the womb;
Their eye will not spare children.
19 [a]And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms,
The beauty of the Chaldeans' pride,
Will be as when God overthrew
[b]Sodom and Gomorrah.
20 [a]It will never be inhabited,
Nor will it be settled from generation to generation;
Nor will the Arabian pitch tents
there,
Nor will the shepherds make their sheepfolds there.
21 [a]But wild beasts of the desert will lie
there,
And their houses will be full of [1]owls;
Ostriches will dwell there,
And wild goats will caper there.
22 The hyenas will howl in their citadels,
And jackals in their pleasant
palaces.
[a]Her time is near to come,
And her days will not be prolonged."

Mercy on Jacob

14 For the LORD [a]will have mercy on Jacob, and [b]will still choose Israel, and settle them in their own land. [c]The strangers will be joined with them, and they will cling to the house of Jacob.
2 Then people will take them [a]and bring them to their place, and the house of Israel will possess them for servants and maids in the land of the LORD; they will take them captive whose captives they were, [b]and rule over their oppressors.

Fall of the King of Babylon

3 It shall come to pass in the day the LORD gives you rest from your sorrow, and from your fear and the hard bondage in which you were made to serve,
4 that you [a]will take up this proverb against the king of Babylon, and say:

"How the oppressor has ceased,
The [b]golden[1] city ceased!

5 The LORD has broken [a]the staff of
the wicked,
The scepter of the rulers;
6 He who struck the people in wrath
with a continual stroke,
He who ruled the nations in anger,
Is persecuted and no one hinders.
7 The whole earth is at rest and quiet;
They break forth into singing.
8 [a]Indeed the cypress trees rejoice over you,
And the cedars of Lebanon,
Saying, 'Since you [1]were cut down,
No woodsman has come up against us.'

9 "Hell[a1] from beneath is excited about
you,
To meet you at your coming;
It stirs up the dead for you,
All the chief ones of the earth;
It has raised up from their thrones
All the kings of the nations.
10 They all shall [a]speak and say to
you:
'Have you also become as weak as we?
Have you become like us?
11 Your pomp is brought down to
Sheol,
And the sound of your stringed instruments;
The maggot is spread under you,
And worms cover you.'

The Fall of Lucifer

12 "How[a] you are fallen from heaven,
O [1]Lucifer, son of the morning!
How you are cut down to the
ground,
You who weakened the nations!
13 For you have said in your heart:
[a]'I will ascend into heaven,
[b]I will exalt my throne above the stars of God;
I will also sit on the [c]mount of the congregation
[d]On the farthest sides of the north;
14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds,
[a]I will be like the Most High.'
15 Yet you [a]shall be brought down to Sheol,
To the [1]lowest depths of the Pit.

13:20 When God's judgment on the magnificent city of Babylon was complete, the site would be too desolate for Bedouin shepherds to use it as a camp site.

14:1 "Still" here means "again." Just as God chose the Israelites while they were in bondage in Egypt, so He would deliver them from bondage again.

14:5 A staff and scepter were symbols of regal authority.

14:9 Death is the universal equalizer. The greatest monarchs and leaders receive no preferential treatment in death. In a terrifying prophecy, the king of Babylon is told he will actually receive harsher treatment (Is. 14:11, 19).

14:12 "Lucifer" in Hebrew means "day star." It symbolizes the brightest star in the sky and may have referred to the planet Venus. While this passage does not specifically link this name to Satan, scripture pictures Satan's fall in a similar manner (Luke 10:18). Pride is the mortal sin. Those with great pride aspire to the greatest heights, and their downfall is the most spectacular.

14:13 This may have been a reference to Mount Casius in northern Syria. The Canaanites believed this mountain to be a habitation of gods.

16 "Those who see you will gaze at you,
And consider you, saying:
'Is this the man who made the earth tremble,
Who shook kingdoms,
17 Who made the world as a wilderness
And destroyed its cities,
Who [1]did not open the house of his prisoners?'

18 "All the kings of the nations,
All of them, sleep in glory,
Everyone in his own house;
19 But you are cast out of your grave
Like an [1]abominable branch,
Like the garment of those who are slain,
[2]Thrust through with a sword,
Who go down to the stones of the pit,
Like a corpse trodden underfoot.
20 You will not be joined with them in burial,
Because you have destroyed your land
And slain your people.
[a]The brood of evildoers shall never be named.
21 Prepare slaughter for his children
[a]Because of the iniquity of their fathers,
Lest they rise up and possess the land,
And fill the face of the world with cities."

Babylon Destroyed

22 "For I will rise up against them," says the LORD of hosts,
"And cut off from Babylon [a]the name and [b]remnant,
[c]And offspring and posterity," says the LORD.
23 "I will also make it a possession for the [a]porcupine,
And marshes of muddy water;
I will sweep it with the broom of destruction," says the LORD of hosts.

Assyria Destroyed

24 The LORD of hosts has sworn, saying,
"Surely, as I have thought, so it shall come to pass,
And as I have purposed, so it shall [a]stand:
25 That I will break the [a]Assyrian in My land,
And on My mountains tread him underfoot.
Then [b]his yoke shall be removed from them,
And his burden removed from their shoulders.
26 This is the [a]purpose that is purposed against the whole earth,
And this is the hand that is stretched out over all the nations.
27 For the LORD of hosts has [a]purposed,
And who will annul it?
His hand is stretched out,
And who will turn it back?"

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 14:27

God's Purposes

God's plans will come to pass. No world power or satanic force can stop Him. The forces of evil may appear powerfully in control, but what God intends He will ultimately and certainly accomplish.

Philistia Destroyed

28 This is the [1]burden which came in the year that [a]King Ahaz died.

29 "Do not rejoice, all you of Philistia,
[a]Because the rod that struck you is broken;
For out of the serpent's roots will come forth a viper,
[b]And its offspring will be a fiery flying serpent.
30 The firstborn of the poor will feed,
And the needy will lie down in safety;
I will kill your roots with famine,
And it will slay your remnant.
31 Wail, O gate! Cry, O city!
All you of Philistia are dissolved;
For smoke will come from the north,
And no one will be alone in his [1]appointed times."

32 What will they answer the messengers of the nation?
That [a]the LORD has founded Zion,
And [b]the poor of His people shall take refuge in it.

Proclamation Against Moab

15 The [a]burden[1] against Moab.
Because in the night [b]Ar of [c]Moab is laid waste
And destroyed,

14:19 Unlike other kings of the earth, who were pictured in hell sitting upon thrones, the once feared king of Babylon would be cast out of his grave. Ancient peoples believed a proper burial was crucial to a soul's eternal rest. Improper interment purportedly consigned the deceased person to wander the earth looking for a home. The lack of proper burial was considered a horrific disgrace.

14:31 The gate was the weakest point in the city wall. If enemies could overcome the gate they could enter the city.

15:1 Ar and Kir were the chief cities of Moab (Is. 16:7; see Deut. 2:9; 2 Kin. 3:25).

Because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste
And destroyed,
2 He has gone up to the [1]temple and Dibon,
To the high places to weep.
Moab will wail over Nebo and over Medeba;
[a]On all their heads will be baldness,
And every beard cut off.
3 In their streets they will clothe themselves with sackcloth;
On the tops of their houses
And in their streets
Everyone will wail, [a]weeping bitterly.
4 Heshbon and Elealeh will cry out,
Their voice shall be heard as far as [a]Jahaz;
Therefore the [1]armed soldiers of
Moab will cry out;
His life will be burdensome to him.
5 "My[a] heart will cry out for Moab;
His fugitives shall flee to Zoar,
Like [1]a three-year-old heifer.
For [b]by the Ascent of Luhith
They will go up with weeping;
For in the way of Horonaim
They will raise up a cry of destruction,
6 For the waters [a]of Nimrim will be desolate,
For the green grass has withered
away;
The grass fails, there is nothing
green.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 15:5, 6

Broken Hearted

A child of God cannot help but grieve for those who choose judgment over repentance. It is a heartbreaking sight when people reap the consequences of their sin.

7 Therefore the abundance they have gained,
And what they have laid up,
They will carry away to the Brook of the Willows.
8 For the cry has gone all around the borders of Moab,
Its wailing to Eglaim
And its wailing to Beer Elim.
9 For the waters of [1]Dimon will be full of blood;
Because I will bring more upon
[1]Dimon,
[a]Lions upon him who escapes from
[1]Moab,
And on the remnant of the land."

Moab Destroyed

16 Send [a]the lamb to the ruler of the land,
[b]From [1]Sela to the wilderness,
To the mount of the daughter of Zion.
2 For it shall be as a [a]wandering bird thrown out of the nest;
So shall be the daughters of Moab
at the fords of the [b]Arnon.
3 "Take counsel, execute judgment;
Make your shadow like the night in the middle of the day;
Hide the outcasts,
Do not betray him who escapes.
4 Let My outcasts dwell with you,
O Moab;
Be a shelter to them from the face of the [1]spoiler.
For the extortioner is at an end,
Devastation ceases,
The oppressors are consumed out of the land.
5 In mercy [a]the throne will be established;
And One will sit on it in truth, in the tabernacle of David, [b]Judging and seeking justice and hastening [c]righteousness."
6 We have heard of the [a]pride of Moab—
He is very proud—
Of his haughtiness and his pride and his wrath;
[b]But his [1]lies shall not be so.
7 Therefore Moab shall [a]wail for
Moab;
Everyone shall wail.
For the foundations [b]of Kir
Hareseth you shall mourn;
Surely they are stricken.
8 For [a]the fields of Heshbon languish,
And [b]the vine of Sibmah;
The lords of the nations have broken down its choice plants,
Which have reached to Jazer
And wandered through the wilderness.

15:2 Dibon was three miles north of the Arnon River and was the center of worship for the Moabite god Chemosh. Nebo is the mountain to the north of the Dead Sea from which Moses viewed the Promised Land (Deut. 34:1).

15:4 Heshbon and Elealeh were Moabite cities to the north while Jahaz was in southern Moab.

15:5 Zoar was at the southern end of the Dead Sea in the territory of Edom.

16:1 The landlord's lamb may refer to tribute paid to Assyria. Moab was famous for its sheep (2 Kin. 3:4).

16:7 Kir Hareseth is another name for Kir of Moab (Is. 15:1).

16:8 Jazer was at the northern border of Moab.

Her branches are stretched out,
They are gone over the [c]sea.
9 Therefore I will bewail the vine of Sibmah,
With the weeping of Jazer;
I will drench you with my tears,
[a]O Heshbon and Elealeh;
For [1]battle cries have fallen
Over your summer fruits and your harvest.

ENCOUNTER Note Is. 16:9

Sympathy

It is tempting to enjoy the downfall of the proud, especially those who have hurt you personally. Yet their suffering is a poignant reminder that pride is the ruin of every person affected by it. Sin can blind anyone and lead to certain destruction.

10 [a]Gladness is taken away,
And joy from the plentiful field;
In the vineyards there will be no singing,
Nor will there be shouting;
No treaders will tread out wine in the presses;
I have made their shouting cease.
11 Therefore [a]my [1]heart shall resound like a harp for Moab,
And my inner being for [2]Kir Heres.

12 And it shall come to pass,
When it is seen that Moab is weary on [a]the high place,
That he will come to his sanctuary to pray;
But he will not prevail.

13 This is the word which the LORD has spoken concerning Moab since that time.
14 But now the LORD has spoken, saying, "Within three years, [a]as the years of a hired man, the glory of Moab will be despised with all that great multitude, and the remnant will be very small and feeble."

Which lie down, and [b]no one will make them afraid.
3 [a]The fortress also will cease from Ephraim,
The kingdom from Damascus,
And the remnant of Syria;
They will be as the glory of the children of Israel,"
Says the LORD of hosts.

4 "In that day it shall come to pass
That the glory of Jacob will [1]wane,
And [a]the fatness of his flesh grow lean.
5 [a]It shall be as when the harvester gathers the grain,
And reaps the heads with his arm;
It shall be as he who gathers heads of grain
In the Valley of Rephaim.
6 [a]Yet gleaning grapes will be left in it,
Like the shaking of an olive tree,
Two or three olives at the top of the uppermost bough,
Four or five in its most fruitful branches,"
Says the LORD God of Israel.

7 In that day a man will [a]look to his Maker,
And his eyes will have respect for the Holy One of Israel.

ENCOUNTER Note Is. 17:7

Look!

Easy times bring the temptation to forget our dependence on God. Distress and hardship are reminders of our utter reliance on Him. The wise never cease to rely on God in times of prosperity or pain.

8 He will not look to the altars,
The work of his hands;
He will not respect what his [a]fingers have made,
Nor the [1]wooden images nor the incense altars.

9 In that day his strong cities will be as a forsaken [1]bough
And [2]an uppermost branch,
Which they left because of the children of Israel;
And there will be desolation.

16:11 Kir Heres is another name for Kir or Kir Hareseth.

17:3 Damascus was conquered by the Assyrian king Shalmaneser in 732 B.C.

17:5 Rephaim meant "shades" or "ghosts." The Valley of Rephaim meant "Valley of Death" and was located southwest of Jerusalem.

17:10 Forgetting God does not refer just to a mental phenomenon. Remembering God or forgetting Him is manifested in action or lack of action. Both reflect the condition of a person's heart.

10 Because you have forgotten [a]the God of your salvation,
And have not been mindful of the Rock of your [1]stronghold,
Therefore you will plant pleasant plants
And set out foreign seedlings;
11 In the day you will make your plant
to grow,
And in the morning you will make your seed to flourish;
But the harvest will be a heap of
ruins
In the day of grief and desperate sorrow.

12 Woe to the multitude of many people
Who make a noise [a]like the roar of the seas,
And to the rushing of nations
That make a rushing like the rushing of mighty waters!
13 The nations will rush like the rushing of many waters;
But God will [a]rebuke them and they will flee far away,
And [b]be chased like the chaff of the mountains before the wind,
Like a rolling thing before the whirlwind.
14 Then behold, at eventide, trouble!
And before the morning, he is no
more.
This is the portion of those who plunder us,
And the lot of those who rob us.

God Sees

The nations of the earth posture, proclaim, and parade, and God is watching them. In a moment God can reduce a nation to nothing. God watches you too. He can intervene in your life at any moment.

5 For before the harvest, when the bud is perfect
And the sour grape is ripening in the flower,
He will both cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks
And take away and cut down the branches.
6 They will be left together for the mountain birds of prey
And for the beasts of the earth;
The birds of prey will summer on
them,
And all the beasts of the earth will winter on them.

7 In that time [a]a present will be brought to the LORD of hosts [1]From a people tall and smooth of skin,
And from a people terrible from their beginning onward,
A nation powerful and treading
down,
Whose land the rivers divide—
To the place of the name of the LORD of hosts,
To Mount Zion.

Proclamation Against Egypt

19 The [a]burden[1] against Egypt.

Behold, the LORD [b]rides on a swift cloud,
And will come into Egypt;
[c]The idols of Egypt will [2]totter at His
presence,
And the heart of Egypt will melt in its midst.

2 "I will [a]set Egyptians against Egyptians;

17:14 Sennacherib's Assyrian army would be destroyed between evening and morning (Is. 37:36–38).

18:1 Ethiopia is generally known as Cush in the Bible.

18:6 This may reflect on the defeat of Sennacherib when he lost 185,000 soldiers. The abundance of corpses would have provided a feast for the carrion.

Everyone will fight against his brother,
And everyone against his neighbor,
City against city, kingdom against kingdom.
3 The spirit of Egypt will fail in its midst;
I will destroy their counsel,
And they will [a]consult the idols and the charmers,
The mediums and the sorcerers.
4 And the Egyptians I will give
[a]Into the hand of a cruel master,
And a fierce king will rule over them,"
Says the Lord, the LORD of hosts.

5 [a]The waters will fail from the sea,
And the river will be wasted and dried up.
6 The rivers will turn foul;
The brooks [a]of defense will be emptied and dried up;
The reeds and rushes will wither.
7 The papyrus reeds by [1]the River, by the mouth of the River,
And everything sown by the River,
Will wither, be driven away, and be no more.
8 The fishermen also will mourn;
All those will lament who cast hooks into the River,
And they will languish who spread nets on the waters.
9 Moreover those who work in [a]fine flax
And those who weave fine fabric will be ashamed;
10 And its foundations will be broken.
All who make wages will be troubled of soul.

11 Surely the princes of [a]Zoan are fools;
Pharaoh's wise counselors give foolish counsel.
[b]How do you say to Pharaoh, "I am the son of the wise,
The son of ancient kings?"
12 [a]Where are they?
Where are your wise men?
Let them tell you now,
And let them know what the LORD of hosts has [b]purposed against Egypt.
13 The princes of Zoan have become fools;
[a]The princes of [1]Noph are deceived;
They have also [2]deluded Egypt,
Those who are the [3]mainstay of its tribes.
14 The LORD has mingled [a]a perverse spirit in her midst;
And they have caused Egypt to err in all her work,
As a drunken man staggers in his vomit.
15 Neither will there be any work for Egypt,
Which [a]the head or tail,
Palm branch or bulrush, may do.

16 In that day Egypt will [a]be like women, and will be afraid and fear because of the waving of the hand of the LORD of hosts, [b]which He waves over it.
17 And the land of Judah will be a terror to Egypt; everyone who makes mention of it will be afraid in himself, because of the counsel of the LORD of hosts which He has [a]determined against it.

Egypt, Assyria, and Israel Blessed

18 In that day five cities in the land of Egypt will [a]speak the language of Canaan and [b]swear by the LORD of hosts; one will be called the City of [1]Destruction.
19 In that day [a]there will be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to the [b]LORD at its border.
20 And [a]it will be for a sign and for a witness to the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt; for they will cry to the LORD because of the oppressors, and He will send them a [b]Savior and a Mighty One, and He will deliver them.
21 Then the LORD will be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will [a]know the LORD in that day, and [b]will make sacrifice and offering; yes, they will make a vow to the LORD and perform it.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 19:21

Converted

God's power is so dynamic that even His most antagonistic enemies can be converted to belief and trust in Him. Those who appear farthest from God are not beyond His reach.

19:11 Zoan was the capital city of Egypt at this time. "Son" may refer to being a member of a guild.

19:13 Noph, also known as Memphis, was ancient Egypt's capital.

19:14 From around 1200 B.C. onward, Egypt experienced steady decline. In Isaiah's day Egypt was ruled by the Ethiopians. Such weakness and corruption made it ludicrous for any nation to trust in Egypt rather than in God.

19:18 "City of Destruction" may have been a play on the name of the city Heliopolis, meaning "City of the Sun."

19:19 Abraham built an altar to God (Gen. 12:8), and Jacob set up a pillar (Gen. 28:22).

to the LORD, and He will be entreated by them and heal them.
23 In that day [a]there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian will come into Egypt and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians will [b]serve with the Assyrians.
24 In that day Israel will be one of three with Egypt and Assyria—a blessing in the midst of the land,
25 whom the LORD of hosts shall bless, saying, "Blessed is Egypt My people, and Assyria [a]the work of My hands, and Israel My inheritance."

The Sign Against Egypt and Ethiopia

20 In the year that [a]Tartan[1] came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, and he fought against Ashdod and took it,
2 at the same time the LORD spoke by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, "Go, and remove [a]the sackcloth from your [1]body, and take your sandals off your feet." And he did so, [b]walking naked and barefoot.
3 Then the LORD said, "Just as My servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot three years [a]for a sign and a wonder against Egypt and Ethiopia,
4 "so shall the [a]king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians as prisoners and the Ethiopians as captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, [b]with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.
5 [a]"Then they shall be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation and Egypt their glory.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 20:5

Unchanging

The trouble with anchoring your trust in any power or person other than God is that when they go down, you go down with them. The Lord is the only steadfast hope.

The Fall of Babylon Proclaimed

21 The [1]burden against the Wilderness of the Sea.

As [a]whirlwinds in the South pass through,
So it comes from the desert, from a terrible land.
2 A distressing vision is declared to me;
[a]The treacherous dealer deals treacherously,
And the plunderer plunders.
[b]Go up, O Elam!
Besiege, O Media!
All its sighing I have made to cease.
3 Therefore [a]my loins are filled with pain;
[b]Pangs have taken hold of me, like the pangs of a woman in labor.
I was [1]distressed when I heard it;
I was dismayed when I saw it.
4 My heart wavered, fearfulness frightened me;
[a]The night for which I longed He turned into fear for me.
5 [a]Prepare the table,
Set a watchman in the tower,
Eat and drink.
Arise, you princes,
Anoint the shield!
6 For thus has the Lord said to me:
"Go, set a watchman,
Let him declare what he sees."
7 And he saw a chariot with a pair of horsemen,
A chariot of donkeys, and a chariot of camels,
And he listened earnestly with great care.
8 [1]Then he cried, "A lion, my Lord!
I stand continually on the [a]watchtower in the daytime;
I have sat at my post every night.

19:23 A highway symbolized the removal of any barriers between God and people (Is. 11:16; 33:8; 35:8; 40:3; 49:11; 62:10).

19:25 Calling Egypt "My people" and Assyria "the work of My hands" was radical terminology at a time when these nations had been (or were) powerful and fierce enemies of God's people.

20:1 Tartan was one of the chief officers of the Assyrian empire (2 Kin. 18:17). Ashdod, a principal Philistine city rebelled against Assyria under Yamani around 713 B.C. with Egypt's encouragement. When Sargon defeated Ashdod, Yamani fled to his patron, Egypt. Egypt submissively handed Yamani over to the Assyrians, revealing the Egyptians' weakness and blatant inability to follow through on their promises.

20:4 The Assyrian king Esarhaddon defeated Egypt in 671 B.C., fulfilling this prophecy. Being led away naked represented the utmost disgrace and humiliation.

21:1 The term "wilderness" means "desert." This may refer to the southern region of Babylon by the Persian Gulf, known as the "Land of the Sea."

21:2 Elam was a part of Persia located in the south of modern Iraq. Elam and Media were allies in 700 B.C. They may have assisted in the Assyrian army's overthrow of Babylon in 689 B.C. They both helped in Babylon's overthrow in 539 B.C.

21:3 Such grief for the downfall of Babylon was highly unusual for a Judean prophet, but Isaiah's grief modeled God's own.

21:5 This was descriptive of King Belshazzar and the fall of Babylon (Dan. 5).

21:7 The Persian army used donkeys and camels.

9 And look, here comes a chariot of men with a pair of horsemen!"
Then he answered and said,
[a]"Babylon is fallen, is fallen!
And [b]all the carved images of her
gods
He has broken to the ground."

10 [a]Oh, my threshing and the grain of my floor!
That which I have heard from the LORD of hosts,
The God of Israel,
I have declared to you.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 21:10

That Which I Have Heard

People need to know what God is saying. Their lives depend on it. People don't need our opinions; they need to know God's will.

Proclamation Against Edom

11 [a]The [1]burden against Dumah.

He calls to me out of [b]Seir,
"Watchman, what of the night?
Watchman, what of the night?"
12 The watchman said,
"The morning comes, and also the
night.
If you will inquire, inquire;
Return! Come back!"

Proclamation Against Arabia

13 [a]The [1]burden against Arabia.

In the forest in Arabia you will lodge,
O you traveling companies [b]of Dedanites.
14 O inhabitants of the land of Tema,
Bring water to him who is thirsty;
With their bread they met him who fled.
15 For they fled from the swords, from the drawn sword,
From the bent bow, and from the distress of war.

16 For thus the LORD has said to me: "Within a year, [a]according to the year of a hired man, all the glory of [b]Kedar will fail;
17 "and the remainder of the number of archers, the mighty men of the people of Kedar, will be diminished; for the LORD God of Israel has spoken it."

Proclamation Against Jerusalem

22 The [1]burden against the Valley of Vision.

What ails you now, that you have all gone up to the housetops,
2 You who are full of noise,
A [1]tumultuous city, [a]a joyous city?
Your slain men are not slain with the sword,
Nor dead in battle.
3 All your rulers have fled together;
They are captured by the archers.
All who are found in you are bound together;
They have fled from afar.
4 Therefore I said, "Look away from
me,
[a]I will weep bitterly;
Do not labor to comfort me
Because of the plundering of the daughter of my people."

5 [a]For it is a day of trouble and treading down and perplexity
[b]By the Lord GOD of hosts
In the Valley of Vision—
Breaking down the walls
And of crying to the mountain.
6 [a]Elam bore the quiver
With chariots of men and horsemen,
And [b]Kir uncovered the shield.
7 It shall come to pass that your choicest valleys
Shall be full of chariots,
And the horsemen shall set themselves in array at the gate.

8 [a]He removed the [1]protection of Judah.
You looked in that day to the armor
[b]of the House of the Forest;
9 [a]You also saw the [1]damage to the city of David,
That it was great;
And you gathered together the waters of the lower pool.
10 You numbered the houses of Jerusalem,
And the houses you broke down
To fortify the wall.
11 [a]You also made a reservoir between the two walls

21:11 Dumah was in northern Arabia and provided a strategic link between Mesopotamia and Edom. Seir is another term for Edom (Gen. 32:3; Is. 34:5–7). The phrase "what of the night?" could also be translated "what is left of the night?" The watchman, from his vantage point, could see the first rays of light at dawn.

21:13–15 The Dedanites may have been refugees. Dedan was ninety miles southeast of Tema, which was two hundred miles southeast of Dumah.

21:16 Kedar was an area in the northwestern region of the Arabian desert where Dedan and Tema were located (Is. 60:7).

22:1 The "Valley of Vision" refers to Jerusalem. It stood at the juncture of the Hinnom, Kidron, and Tyropoeon valleys. It may indicate that although Jerusalem was set on a hill, its view of its situation was like a city located in a valley.

22:8 The "House of the Forest" was Judah's armory, built by Solomon (1 Kin. 7:2–6).

For the water of the old [b]pool.
But you did not look to its Maker,
Nor did you have respect for Him who fashioned it long ago.

12 And in that day the Lord GOD of hosts
[a]Called for weeping and for mourning,
[b]For baldness and for girding with sackcloth.

ENCOUNTER Note Is. 22:12

Weeping

God's salvation calls for exuberant joy. Yet that time is often preceded by sorrow. When God calls for celebration, we ought to rejoice wholeheartedly. But there is also an appropriate time to weep.

13 But instead, joy and gladness,
Slaying oxen and killing sheep,
Eating meat and [a]drinking wine:
[b]"Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!"

14 [a]Then it was revealed in my hearing by the LORD of hosts,
"Surely for this iniquity there [b]will be no atonement for you,
Even to your death," says the Lord GOD of hosts.

The Judgment on Shebna

15 Thus says the Lord GOD of hosts:

"Go, proceed to this steward,
To [a]Shebna, who is over the house, and say:
16 'What have you here, and whom have you here,
That you have hewn a sepulcher here,
As he [a]who hews himself a sepulcher on high,
Who carves a tomb for himself in a rock?
17 Indeed, the LORD will throw you away violently,
O mighty man,
[a]And will surely seize you.
18 He will surely turn violently and toss you like a ball
Into a large country;
There you shall die, and there [a]your glorious chariots
Shall be the shame of your master's house.
19 So I will drive you out of your office,
And from your position [1]he will pull you down.

20 'Then it shall be in that day,
That I will call My servant [a]Eliakim the son of Hilkiah;
21 I will clothe him with your robe
And strengthen him with your belt;
I will commit your responsibility into his hand.
He shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem
And to the house of Judah.
22 The key of the house of David
I will lay on his [a]shoulder;
So he shall [b]open, and no one shall shut;
And he shall shut, and no one shall open.
23 I will fasten him as [a]a peg in a secure place,
And he will become a glorious throne to his father's house.

24 'They will hang on him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the posterity, all vessels of small quantity, from the cups to all the pitchers.
25 'In that day,' says the LORD of hosts, 'the peg that is fastened in the secure place will be removed and be cut down and fall, and the burden that was on it will be cut off; for the LORD has spoken.' "

Proclamation Against Tyre

23 The [a]burden[1] against Tyre.

Wail, you ships of Tarshish!
For it is laid waste,
So that there is no house, no harbor;
From the land of [2]Cyprus it is revealed to them.

2 Be still, you inhabitants of the coastland,
You merchants of Sidon,
[1]Whom those who cross the sea have filled.
3 And on great waters the grain of Shihor,
The harvest of [1]the River, is her revenue;
And [a]she is a marketplace for the nations.

4 Be ashamed, O Sidon;
For the sea has spoken,
The strength of the sea, saying,
"I do not labor, nor bring forth children;

22:18 Shebna was demoted to secretary by the time of the Assyrian siege of Jerusalem (Is. 36:3, 22).

22:23 A peg symbolized someone who was reliable and trustworthy.

22:25 Even trustworthy Eliakim would be unable to sustain the burden of government during the upcoming crisis.

Neither do I rear young men,
Nor bring up virgins."
5 [a]When the report reaches Egypt,
They also will be in agony at the report of Tyre.

6 Cross over to Tarshish;
Wail, you inhabitants of the coastland!
7 Is this your [a]joyous city,
Whose antiquity is from ancient days,
Whose feet carried her far off to dwell?
8 Who has taken this counsel against Tyre, [a]the crowning city,
Whose merchants are princes,
Whose traders are the honorable of the earth?
9 The LORD of hosts has [a]purposed it,
To [1]bring to dishonor the [b]pride of all glory,
To bring into contempt all the honorable of the earth.

10 Overflow through your land like [1]the River,
O daughter of Tarshish;
There is no more [2]strength.
11 He stretched out His hand over the sea,
He shook the kingdoms;
The LORD has given a commandment [a]against Canaan
To destroy its strongholds.

ENCOUNTER Note Is. 23:11

The Lord's Hand

It is a terrifying thing to make God your enemy. He stretches out His hand and commands the seas to do His bidding. God can devastate a nation at any moment.

12 And He said, "You will rejoice no more,
O you oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon.
Arise, [a]cross over to Cyprus;
There also you will have no rest."

13 Behold, the land of the [a]Chaldeans,
This people which was not;
Assyria founded it for [b]wild beasts of the desert.
They set up its towers,
They raised up its palaces,
And brought it to ruin.

14 [a]Wail, you ships of Tarshish!
For your strength is laid waste.

15 Now it shall come to pass in that day that Tyre will be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king. At the end of seventy years it will happen to Tyre as in the song of the harlot:

16 "Take a harp, go about the city,
You forgotten harlot;
Make sweet melody, sing many songs,
That you may be remembered."

17 And it shall be, at the end of seventy years, that the LORD will deal with Tyre. She will return to her hire, and [a]commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world on the face of the earth.
18 Her gain and her pay [a]will be set apart for the LORD; it will not be treasured nor laid up, for her gain will be for those who dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for [1]fine clothing.

Impending Judgment on the Earth

24 Behold, the LORD makes the earth empty and makes it waste,
Distorts its surface
And scatters abroad its inhabitants.
2 And it shall be:
As with the people, so with the [a]priest;
As with the servant, so with his master;
As with the maid, so with her mistress;
[b]As with the buyer, so with the seller;
As with the lender, so with the borrower;
As with the creditor, so with the debtor.
3 The land shall be entirely emptied and utterly plundered,
For the LORD has spoken this word.

4 The earth mourns and fades away,
The world languishes and fades away;
The [a]haughty[1] people of the earth languish.
5 [a]The earth is also defiled under its inhabitants,
Because they have [b]transgressed the laws,
Changed the ordinance,
Broken the [c]everlasting covenant.
6 Therefore [a]the curse has devoured the earth,

23:6 Tarshish is probably Tartessus in Spain and represents the most distant regions.

23:15 Seventy years represented a full measure of time.

23:17 "Commit fornication" means Tyre would form economic alliances with any city or nation without concern for moral scruples.

24:1 "Scatters" may allude to God's scattering of people at the Tower of Babel (Gen. 11:9).

24:6 God gave clear warning to His people that He would respond to disobedience with cursing (Deut. 27–28). His judgment is never haphazard but in direct fulfillment of His word.

And those who dwell in it are
[1]desolate.
Therefore the inhabitants of the earth are [b]burned,
And few men are left.

7 [a]The new wine fails, the vine
languishes,
All the merry-hearted sigh.
8 The mirth [a]of the tambourine
ceases,
The noise of the jubilant ends,
The joy of the harp ceases.
9 They shall not drink wine with a
song;
Strong drink is bitter to those who drink it.
10 The city of confusion is broken
down;
Every house is shut up, so that none may go in.
11 There is a cry for wine in the streets,
All joy is darkened,
The mirth of the land is gone.
12 In the city desolation is left,
And the gate is stricken with destruction.
13 When it shall be thus in the midst of the land among the people,
[a]It shall be like the shaking of an
olive tree,
Like the gleaning of grapes when the vintage is done.

14 They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing;
For the majesty of the LORD
They shall cry aloud from the sea.
15 Therefore [a]glorify the LORD in the dawning light,
[b]The name of the LORD God of Israel
in the coastlands of the sea.
16 From the ends of the earth we have heard songs:
"Glory to the righteous!"
But I said, [1]"I am ruined, ruined!
Woe to me!
[a]The treacherous dealers have dealt
treacherously,
Indeed, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously."

17 [a]Fear and the pit and the snare
Are upon you, O inhabitant of the
earth.
18 And it shall be
That he who flees from the noise of the fear
Shall fall into the pit,
And he who comes up from the midst of the pit
Shall be [1]caught in the snare;
For [a]the windows from on high are open,
And [b]the foundations of the earth
are shaken.

19 [a]The earth is violently broken,
The earth is split open,
The earth is shaken exceedingly.
20 The earth shall [a]reel[1] to and fro like a drunkard,
And shall totter like a hut;
Its transgression shall be heavy upon it,
And it will fall, and not rise again.

21 It shall come to pass in that day
That the LORD will punish on high
the host of exalted ones,
And on the earth [a]the kings of the
earth.
22 They will be gathered together,
As prisoners are gathered in the [1]pit,
And will be shut up in the prison;
After many days they will be punished.
23 Then the [a]moon will be disgraced
And the sun ashamed;
For the LORD of hosts will [b]reign
On [c]Mount Zion and in Jerusalem
And before His elders, gloriously.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 24:23

The Lord of Hosts

The earth festers with violence and strife. God, in His sovereignty, allows people to suffer the result of their sin. No matter how confused the nations of the earth may be, God continues to accomplish His purposes and people reap what they sow.

Praise to God

25 O LORD, You are my God.
[a]I will exalt You,
I will praise Your name,
[b]For You have done wonderful
things;
[c]Your counsels of old are faithfulness
and truth.
2 For You have made [a]a city a ruin,
A fortified city a ruin,
A palace of foreigners to be a city
no more;
It will never be rebuilt.
3 Therefore the strong people will
[a]glorify You;
The city of the [1]terrible nations will fear You.

24:18 The "windows from on high" may allude to God's judgment by the flood during Noah's day (Gen. 7:11).

24:21 The Hebrew word "punish" is literally "to visit."

4 For You have been a strength to the poor,
A strength to the needy in his distress,
[a]A refuge from the storm,
A shade from the heat;
For the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.
5 You will reduce the noise of aliens,
As heat in a dry place;
As heat in the shadow of a cloud,
The song of the terrible ones will be [1]diminished.

6 And in [a]this mountain
[b]The LORD of hosts will make for [c]all people
A feast of [1]choice pieces,
A feast of [2]wines on the lees,
Of fat things full of marrow,
Of well-refined wines on the lees.
7 And He will destroy on this mountain
The surface of the covering cast over all people,
And [a]the veil that is spread over all nations.
8 He will [a]swallow up death forever,
And the Lord GOD will [b]wipe away tears from all faces;
The rebuke of His people
He will take away from all the earth;
For the LORD has spoken.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 25:8

No Tears

This life in a sinful world brings heartache and pain. Yet a day is coming when God will bring our suffering to an end. He will eliminate any reason for tears. He will care for us and give us everlasting joy in His presence.

9 And it will be said in that day:
"Behold, this is our God;
[a]We have waited for Him, and He will save us.
This is the LORD;
We have waited for Him;
[b]We will be glad and rejoice in His salvation."

10 For on this mountain the hand of the LORD will rest,
And [a]Moab shall be trampled down under Him,
As straw is trampled down for the refuse heap.
11 And He will spread out His hands in their midst
As a swimmer reaches out to swim,
And He will bring down their [a]pride
Together with the trickery of their hands.
12 The [a]fortress of the high fort of your walls
He will bring down, lay low,
And bring to the ground, down to the dust.

A Song of Salvation

26 In [a]that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah:

"We have a strong city;
[b]God will appoint salvation for walls and bulwarks.
2 [a]Open the gates,
That the righteous nation which [1]keeps the truth may enter in.
3 You will keep him in perfect [a]peace,
Whose mind is stayed on You,
Because he trusts in You.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 26:3

Perfect Peace

A sense of peace is not determined by your circumstances but by your state of mind. When you focus on God, His majesty, and His love for you, it matters not what is happening around you. Seeing your situation from God's perspective brings peace.

4 Trust in the LORD forever,
[a]For in YAH, the LORD, is [1]everlasting strength.
5 For He brings [1]down those who dwell on high,
[a]The lofty city;
He lays it low,
He lays it low to the ground,
He brings it down to the dust.
6 The foot shall [1]tread it down—
The feet of the poor
And the steps of the needy."

7 The way of the just is uprightness;
[a]O Most Upright,
You [1]weigh the path of the just.
8 Yes, [a]in the way of Your judgments,
O LORD, we have [b]waited for You;

25:4 The truth that God is a refuge and a source of strength is a popular one in scripture (Deut. 33:27; 2 Sam. 22:3; Neh. 8:10; Ps. 14:6; 27:1; 28:8; 31:2; 37:39; 43:2; 46:1, 7, 11; 48:3; 62:7; 71:7; 91:2; 94:22; 142:5; Is. 4:6; 27:5).

25:6 A feast of wines on the lees refers to the best wine.

26:2 "Open the gates" reflects a pilgrim song (Ps. 118:19, 20).

26:3 "Perfect peace" is literally "peace, peace."

26:4 "Trust" means to commit oneself fully.

26:8 Waiting on the Lord is one of the clearest signs of genuine trust in the Lord (Ps. 25:3; 37:9; 69:6; Hos. 12:6; Mic. 7:7).

The desire of our soul is for Your name
And for the remembrance of You.
9 [a]With my soul I have desired You in the night,
Yes, by my spirit within me I will seek You early;
For when Your judgments are in the earth,
The inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

10 [a]Let grace be shown to the wicked,
Yet he will not learn righteousness;
In [b]the land of uprightness he will deal unjustly,
And will not behold the majesty of the LORD.
11 LORD, when Your hand is lifted up,
[a]they will not see.
But they will see and be ashamed
For [1]their envy of people;
Yes, the fire of Your enemies shall devour them.

12 LORD, You will establish peace for us,
For You have also done all our works [1]in us.
13 O LORD our God, [a]masters besides You
Have had dominion over us;
But by You only we make mention of Your name.
14 They are dead, they will not live;
They are deceased, they will not rise.
Therefore You have punished and destroyed them,
And made all their memory to [a]perish.
15 You have increased the nation, O LORD,
You have [a]increased the nation;
You are glorified;
You have expanded all the [1]borders of the land.

16 LORD, [a]in trouble they have visited You,
They poured out a prayer when Your chastening was upon them.
17 As [a]a woman with child
Is in pain and cries out in her [1]pangs,
When she draws near the time of her delivery,
So have we been in Your sight, O LORD.
18 We have been with child, we have been in pain;
We have, as it were, [1]brought forth wind;
We have not accomplished any deliverance in the earth,
Nor have [a]the inhabitants of the world fallen.

19 [a]Your dead shall live;
Together with [1]my dead body they shall arise.
[b]Awake and sing, you who dwell in dust;
For your dew is like the dew of herbs,
And the earth shall cast out the dead.

Take Refuge from the Coming Judgment

20 Come, my people, [a]enter your chambers,
And shut your doors behind you;
Hide yourself, as it were, [b]for a little moment,
Until the indignation is past.
21 For behold, the LORD [a]comes out of His place
To punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity;
The earth will also disclose her [1]blood,
And will no more cover her slain.

27 In that day the LORD with His severe sword, great and strong,
Will punish Leviathan the fleeing serpent,
[a]Leviathan that twisted serpent;
And He will slay [b]the reptile that is in the sea.

The Restoration of Israel

2 In that day [a]sing to her,
[b]"A vineyard of [1]red wine!
3 [a]I, the LORD, keep it,
I water it every moment;
Lest any hurt it,
I keep it night and day.
4 Fury is not in Me.
Who would set [a]briers and thorns Against Me in battle?
I would go through them,
I would burn them together.
5 Or let him take hold [a]of My strength,
That he may [b]make peace with Me;
And he shall make peace with Me."

3 [a]Is. 31:5
4 [a]2 Sam. 23:6
5 [a]Is. 25:4 [b]Job 22:21

26:11 God's uplifted hand was a sign of impending judgment (Ex. 17:11; 2 Sam. 24:16).

26:17 A woman can endure labor pains because of the joy of receiving a new child; so God's people can endure suffering because they know God is going to deliver them.

26:19 The Old Testament gradually came to anticipate the resurrection of the dead (Job 19:26; Dan. 12:2).

26:20 "For a little moment" suggests the present suffering of God's people does not compare to the joy they will experience when His salvation comes (Is. 26:19; 54:7; see Ps. 30:5; 2 Cor. 4:17).

27:1 Leviathan was a legendary sea monster that represented chaos and opposition to God (Job 3:8; 41:1).

27:2 The vineyard represented Israel. Red wine was a delightful luxury in contrast with the wild grapes Israel produced earlier (Is. 5:2).

ENCOUNTER Note Is. 27:3

God's Delight

God delights in caring for His people. Like a gardener watching over his plants, God protects and provides for our every need, awaiting the day of abundant harvest.

6 Those who come He shall cause [a]to take root in Jacob;
Israel shall blossom and bud,
And fill the face of the world with fruit.

7 [a]Has He struck [1]Israel as He struck those who struck him?
Or has He been slain according to the slaughter of those who were slain by Him?
8 [a]In measure, by sending it away,
You contended with it.
[b]He removes it by His rough wind
In the day of the east wind.
9 Therefore by this the iniquity of Jacob will be covered;
And this is all the fruit of taking away his sin:
When he makes all the stones of the altar
Like chalkstones that are beaten to dust,
[1]Wooden images and incense altars shall not stand.

10 Yet the fortified city will be [a]desolate,
The habitation forsaken and left like a wilderness;
There the calf will feed, and there it will lie down
And consume its branches.
11 When its boughs are withered, they will be broken off;
The women come and set them on fire.
For [a]it is a people of no understanding;
Therefore He who made them will [b]not have mercy on them,
And [c]He who formed them will show them no favor.

12 And it shall come to pass in that day
That the LORD will thresh,
From the channel of [1]the River to the Brook of Egypt;
And you will be [a]gathered one by one,
O you children of Israel.

13 [a]So it shall be in that day:
[b]The great trumpet will be blown;
They will come, who are about to perish in the land of Assyria,
And they who are outcasts in the land of [c]Egypt,
And shall [d]worship the LORD in the holy mount at Jerusalem.

Woe to Ephraim and Jerusalem

28 Woe to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim,
Whose glorious beauty is a fading flower
Which is at the head of the [1]verdant valleys,
To those who are overcome with wine!
2 Behold, the Lord has a mighty and strong one,
[a]Like a tempest of hail and a destroying storm,
Like a flood of mighty waters overflowing,
Who will bring them down to the earth with His hand.
3 The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim,
Will be trampled underfoot;
4 And the glorious beauty is a fading flower
Which is at the head of the [1]verdant valley,
Like the first fruit before the summer,
Which an observer sees;
He eats it up while it is still in his hand.

5 In that day the LORD of hosts will be
For a crown of glory and a diadem of beauty
To the remnant of His people,
6 For a spirit of justice to him who sits in judgment,
And for strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate.

7 But they also [a]have erred through wine,
And through intoxicating drink are out of the way;
[b]The priest and the prophet have erred through intoxicating drink,

27:12 The region between the Euphrates River and the Wadi el-Arish describes the Promised Land (Gen. 15:18; Ex. 23:31; Deut. 1:7).

27:13 "The great trumpet" described the calling of troops together (Ex. 19:16, 19; 1 Sam. 13:3; 2 Sam. 6:15; Matt. 24:31; 1 Cor. 15:52; 1 Thess. 4:16).

28:1 The "crown of pride" may refer to Samaria, which was soon to be destroyed and stripped of its beauty.

28:7 At a time when Israel should have listened intently to God's instruction, the leaders were intoxicated and oblivious to their vulnerability.

They are swallowed up by wine,
They are out of the way through intoxicating drink;
They err in vision, they stumble in judgment.
8 For all tables are full of vomit and filth;
No place is clean.

9 "Whom[a] will he teach knowledge?
And whom will he make to understand the message?
Those just weaned from milk?
Those just drawn from the breasts?
10 [a]For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept,
Line upon line, line upon line,
Here a little, there a little."

11 For with [a]stammering lips and another tongue
He will speak to this people, 12 To whom He said, "This is the [a]rest with which You may cause the weary to rest,"
And, "This is the refreshing";
Yet they would not hear.
13 But the word of the LORD was to them,
"Precept upon precept, precept upon precept,
Line upon line, line upon line,
Here a little, there a little,"
That they might go and fall backward, and be broken
And snared and caught.

14 Therefore hear the word of the LORD, you scornful men,
Who rule this people who are in Jerusalem,
15 Because you have said, "We have made a covenant with death,
And with Sheol we are in agreement.
When the overflowing scourge passes through,
It will not come to us,
[a]For we have made lies our refuge,
And under falsehood we have hidden ourselves."

A Cornerstone in Zion

16 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:
"Behold, I lay in Zion [a]a stone for a foundation,
A tried stone, a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation;
Whoever believes will not act hastily.

9 [a]Jer. 6:10
10 [a][2 Chr. 36: 15]
11 [a]1 Cor. 14:21
12 [a]Is. 30:15

16 [a]Matt. 21:42; Mark 12:10; Luke 20:17; Acts 4:11; Rom. 9:33; 10:11; Eph. 2:20; 1 Pet. 2:6–8

17 Also I will make justice the measuring line,
And righteousness the plummet;
The hail will sweep away the refuge of lies,
And the waters will overflow the hiding place.
18 Your covenant with death will be annulled,
And your agreement with Sheol will not stand;
When the overflowing scourge passes through,
Then you will be trampled down by it.
19 As often as it goes out it will take you;
For morning by morning it will pass over,
And by day and by night;
It will be a terror just to understand the report."

20 For the bed is too short to stretch out on,
And the covering so narrow that one cannot wrap himself in it.
21 For the LORD will rise up as at Mount [a]Perazim,
He will be angry as in the Valley of [b]Gibeon—
That He may do His work, [c]His awesome work,
And bring to pass His act, His [1]unusual act.
22 Now therefore, do not be mockers,
Lest your bonds be made strong;
For I have heard from the Lord GOD of hosts,
[a]A [1]destruction determined even upon the whole earth.

Listen to the Teaching of God

23 Give ear and hear my voice,
Listen and hear my speech.
24 Does the plowman keep plowing all day to sow?
Does he keep turning his soil and breaking the clods?
25 When he has leveled its surface,
Does he not sow the black cummin
And scatter the cummin,
Plant the wheat in rows,
The barley in the appointed place,
And the [1]spelt in its place?
26 For He instructs him in right judgment,
His God teaches him.

28:9 The normal age to wean a child was between three and five years old.

28:11 "Stammering lips" may refer to the Assyrian language. God would have to teach His people through the oppression of an enemy.

28:20 The short bed and narrow covering may symbolize the inadequate comfort and the insecurity that came from making alliances with other nations.

28:21 God sent a great flood at Mount Perazim (2 Sam. 5:20; 1 Chr. 14:11). At the valley of Gibeon, God sent hail (Josh. 10:10, 11).

27 For the black cummin is not threshed with a threshing sledge,
Nor is a cartwheel rolled over the cummin;
But the black cummin is beaten out with a stick,
And the cummin with a rod.
28 Bread flour must be ground;
Therefore he does not thresh it
forever,
Break it with his cartwheel,
Or crush it with his horsemen.
29 This also comes from the LORD of
hosts,
[a]Who is wonderful in counsel and excellent in [1]guidance.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 28:29

Excellent in Guidance

God wants to guide His people into His ways. He has given perfect counsel to His people throughout history. He will guide you too if you will seek His will.

Woe to Jerusalem

29 "Woe [a]to [1]Ariel, to Ariel, the city
[b]where David dwelt!
Add year to year;
Let feasts come around.
2 Yet I will distress Ariel;
There shall be heaviness and sorrow,
And it shall be to Me as Ariel.
3 I will encamp against you all around,
I will lay siege against you with a mound,
And I will raise siegeworks against
you.
4 You shall be brought down,
You shall speak out of the ground;
Your speech shall be low, out of the
dust;
Your voice shall be like a medium's,
[a]out of the ground;
And your speech shall whisper out of the dust.

5 "Moreover the multitude of your
[a]foes
Shall be like fine dust,
And the multitude of the terrible ones
Like [b]chaff that passes away;
Yes, it shall be [c]in an instant,
suddenly.

But he awakes, and his soul is still empty;
Or as when a thirsty man dreams,
And look—he drinks;
But he awakes, and indeed he is faint,
And his soul still craves:
So the multitude of all the nations shall be,
Who fight against Mount Zion."

The Blindness of Disobedience

9 Pause and wonder!
Blind yourselves and be blind!
[a]They are drunk, [b]but not with wine;
They stagger, but not with intoxicating drink.
10 For [a]the LORD has poured out on
you
The spirit of deep sleep,
And has [b]closed your eyes, namely,
the prophets;
And He has covered your heads,
namely, [c]the seers.

11 The whole vision has become to you like the words of a [1]book [a]that is sealed, which men deliver to one who is literate, saying, "Read this, please." [b]And he says, "I cannot, for it is sealed."
12 Then the book is delivered to one who [1]is illiterate, saying, "Read this, please." And he says, "I am not literate."
13 Therefore the Lord said:

[a]"Inasmuch as these people draw near with their mouths
And honor Me [b]with their lips,
But have removed their hearts far
from Me,
And their fear toward Me is taught by the commandment of men, 14 [a]Therefore, behold, I will again do a marvelous work

29:1 Ariel is Jerusalem. It may mean "altar hearth" (Ezek. 43:15). The coming burning and bloodshed in Jerusalem would cause the city to resemble an altar.

29:3 This "siege works" referred to the Assyrian siege of Jerusalem under Sennacherib. The Assyrians used large towers on wheels with a battering ram at the bottom and a platform at the top from which soldiers shot arrows.

29:10 The phrase "deep sleep" is the same term as that used to describe Adam's condition when God made Eve (Gen. 2:21).

Among this people,
A marvelous work and a wonder;
[b]For the wisdom of their wise men shall perish,
And the understanding of their prudent men shall be hidden."

15 [a]Woe to those who seek deep to hide their counsel far from the LORD,
And their works are in the dark;
[b]They say, "Who sees us?" and, "Who knows us?"
16 Surely you have things turned around!
Shall the potter be esteemed as the clay;
For shall the [a]thing made say of him who made it,
"He did not make me"?
Or shall the thing formed say of him who formed it,
"He has no understanding"?

Future Recovery of Wisdom

17 Is it not yet a very little while
Till [a]Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field,
And the fruitful field be esteemed as a forest?
18 [a]In that day the deaf shall hear the words of the book,
And the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity and out of darkness.
19 [a]The humble also shall increase their joy in the LORD,
And [b]the poor among men shall rejoice
In the Holy One of Israel.
20 For the [1]terrible one is brought to nothing,
[a]The scornful one is consumed,
And all who [b]watch for iniquity are cut off—
21 Who make a man an offender by a word,
And [a]lay a snare for him who reproves in the gate,
And turn aside the just [b]by empty words.

22 Therefore thus says the LORD, [a]who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob:

"Jacob shall not now be [b]ashamed,
Nor shall his face now grow pale;
23 But when he sees his children,
[a]The work of My hands, in his midst,
They will hallow My name,
And hallow the Holy One of Jacob,
And fear the God of Israel.
24 These also [a]who erred in spirit will come to understanding,
And those who complained will learn doctrine."

Futile Confidence in Egypt

30 "Woe to the rebellious children," says the LORD,
[a]"Who take counsel, but not of Me,
And who [1]devise plans, but not of My Spirit,
[b]That they may add sin to sin;
2 [a]Who walk to go down to Egypt,
And [b]have not asked My advice,
To strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh,
And to trust in the shadow of Egypt!
3 [a]Therefore the strength of Pharaoh
Shall be your shame,
And trust in the shadow of Egypt
Shall be your humiliation.
4 For his princes were at [a]Zoan,
And his ambassadors came to Hanes.
5 [a]They were all ashamed of a people who could not benefit them,
Or be help or benefit,
But a shame and also a reproach."

6 [a]The [1]burden against the beasts of the South.

Through a land of trouble and anguish,
From which came the lioness and lion,
[b]The viper and fiery flying serpent,
They will carry their riches on the backs of young donkeys,
And their treasures on the humps of camels,
To a people who shall not profit;
7 [a]For the Egyptians shall help in vain and to no purpose.

God's Work

Christianity can deteriorate into empty, lifeless ritual. However, seeing God's activity in your midst can revive the most deadened spirit. Look around. God is at work right now. Recognizing His activity and joining Him will change your life.

30:2 The "shadow of Egypt" implies that the vaunted power of Egypt was an illusion. God's people did not want to hear God's opinion, so they turned to a worldly power instead.

30:4 Zoan was located in the delta region of Egypt (Is. 19:11–13). Hanes was fifty miles south of modern Cairo.

30:7 "Rahab" meant "storm" or "arrogant" and was a sea monster in ancient mythology symbolizing resistance against God.

Therefore I have called her
[1]Rahab-Hem-Shebeth.

A Rebellious People

8 Now go, [a]write it before them on a tablet,
And note it on a scroll,
That it may be for time to come,
Forever and ever:
9 That [a]this is a rebellious people,
Lying children,
Children who will not hear the law of the LORD;
10 [a]Who say to the seers, "Do not see,"
And to the prophets, "Do not prophesy to us right things;
[b]Speak to us smooth things, prophesy deceits.
11 Get out of the way,
Turn aside from the path,
Cause the Holy One of Israel
To cease from before us."

12 Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel:

"Because you [a]despise this word,
And trust in oppression and perversity,
And rely on them,
13 Therefore this iniquity shall be to you
[a]Like a breach ready to fall,
A bulge in a high wall,
Whose breaking [b]comes suddenly, in an instant.
14 And [a]He shall break it like the breaking of the potter's vessel,
Which is broken in pieces;
He shall not spare.
So there shall not be found among its fragments
[1]A shard to take fire from the hearth,
Or to take water from the cistern."

15 For thus says the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel:

[a]"In returning and rest you shall be saved;
In quietness and confidence shall be your strength."
[b]But you would not,
16 And you said, "No, for we will flee on horses"—
Therefore you shall flee!
And, "We will ride on swift horses"—
Therefore those who pursue you shall be swift!

17 [a]One thousand shall flee at the threat of one,
At the threat of five you shall flee,
Till you are left as a [1]pole on top of a mountain
And as a banner on a hill.

God Will Be Gracious

18 Therefore the LORD will wait, that He may be [a]gracious to you;
And therefore He will be exalted, that He may have mercy on you.
For the LORD is a God of justice;
[b]Blessed are all those who [c]wait for Him.

19 For the people [a]shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem;
You shall [b]weep no more.
He will be very gracious to you at the sound of your cry;
When He hears it, He will [c]answer you.
20 And though the Lord gives you
[a]The bread of adversity and the water of [1]affliction,
Yet [b]your teachers will not be moved into a corner anymore,
But your eyes shall see your teachers.
21 Your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying,
"This is the way, walk in it,"
Whenever you [a]turn to the right hand
Or whenever you turn to the left.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 30:21

This Is the Way

Many religions are based on humanity's quest to follow laws. Strenuous effort and genuine sacrifice are expended. But God does not intend for His followers to take matters into their own hands. God's Spirit resides within us; He is active in our lives. He knows which way we should go. He will guide us if we listen to His voice. The obedience He looks for is not to follow laws; it is to do His will.

22 [a]You will also defile the covering of your images of silver,
And the ornament of your molded images of gold.
You will throw them away as an unclean thing;
[b]You will say to them, "Get away!"

23 [a]Then He will give the rain for your seed
With which you sow the ground,
And bread of the increase of the earth;

30:17 "One thousand" fleeing symbolized the total defeat of the nation and God's displeasure upon them (Deut. 32:30).

It will be [1]fat and plentiful.
In that day your cattle will feed
In large pastures.
24 Likewise the oxen and the young donkeys that work the ground
Will eat cured fodder,
Which has been winnowed with the shovel and fan.
25 There will be [a]on every high mountain
And on every high hill
Rivers and streams of waters,
In the day of the [b]great slaughter,
When the towers fall.
26 Moreover [a]the light of the moon will be as the light of the sun,
And the light of the sun will be sevenfold,
As the light of seven days,
In the day that the LORD binds up the bruise of His people
And heals the stroke of their wound.

Judgment on Assyria

27 Behold, the name of the LORD comes from afar,
Burning with His anger,
And His burden is heavy;
His lips are full of indignation,
And His tongue like a devouring fire.
28 [a]His breath is like an overflowing stream,
[b]Which reaches up to the neck,
To sift the nations with the sieve of futility;
And there shall be [c]a bridle in the jaws of the people,
Causing them to err.
29 You shall have a song
As in the night when a holy festival is kept,
And gladness of heart as when one goes with a flute,
To come into [a]the mountain of the LORD,
To [1]the Mighty One of Israel.
30 [a]The LORD will cause His glorious voice to be heard,
And show the descent of His arm,
With the indignation of His anger
And the flame of a devouring fire,
With scattering, tempest, [b]and hailstones.
31 For [a]through the voice of the LORD Assyria will be [1]beaten down,
As He strikes with the [b]rod.

Yes, for the king it is prepared.
He has made it deep and large;
Its pyre is fire with much wood;
The breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone,
Kindles it.

The Folly of Not Trusting God

31 Woe to those [a]who go down to Egypt for help,
And [b]rely on horses,
Who trust in chariots because they are many,
And in horsemen because they are very strong,
But who do not look to the Holy One of Israel,
[c]Nor seek the LORD!

ENCOUNTER Note Is. 31:1

Egypt

Where do you turn in a crisis? That is your god.

2 Yet He also is wise and will bring disaster,
And [a]will not [1]call back His words,
But will arise against the house of evildoers,
And against the help of those who work iniquity.
3 Now the Egyptians are men, and not God;
And their horses are flesh, and not spirit.
When the LORD stretches out His hand,
Both he who helps will fall,
And he who is helped will fall down;
They all will perish [a]together.

God Will Deliver Jerusalem

31:1 Egypt was famous for using horses and chariots which were the elite weapons of the ancient world. Yet God warned His people about becoming enamored with human inventions instead of trusting in Him (Ps. 20:7).

He will not be afraid of their voice
Nor be disturbed by their noise),
So the LORD of hosts will come down
To fight for Mount Zion and for its hill.
5 [a]Like birds flying about,
So will the LORD of hosts defend Jerusalem.
Defending, He will also deliver it;
Passing over, He will preserve it."

6 Return to Him against whom the children of Israel have [a]deeply revolted.
7 For in that day every man shall [a]throw away his idols of silver and his idols of gold—[b]sin, which your own hands have made for yourselves.

8 "Then Assyria shall [a]fall by a sword not of man,
And a sword not of mankind shall [b]devour him.
But he shall flee from the sword,
And his young men shall become forced labor.
9 [a]He shall cross over to his stronghold for fear,
And his princes shall be afraid of the banner,"
Says the LORD,
Whose fire is in Zion
And whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

A Reign of Righteousness

32 Behold, [a]a king will reign in righteousness,
And princes will rule with justice.
2 A man will be as a hiding place from the wind,
And [a]a [1]cover from the tempest,
As rivers of water in a dry place,
As the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.
3 [a]The eyes of those who see will not be dim,
And the ears of those who hear will listen.
4 Also the heart of the [1]rash will [a]understand knowledge,
And the tongue of the stammerers will be ready to speak plainly.

5 The foolish person will no longer be called [1]generous,
Nor the miser said to be bountiful;

Living Generously

You are not a generous person because you believe in generosity, but because you act generously. No matter who you are or what you say, sooner or later your behavior will reveal your heart. Open your heart to God and let Him make you like Christ.

To keep the hungry unsatisfied,
And he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.
7 Also the schemes of the schemer are evil;
He devises wicked plans
To destroy the poor with [a]lying words,
Even when the needy speaks justice.
8 But a [1]generous man devises generous things,
And by generosity he shall stand.

Consequences of Complacency

9 Rise up, you women [a]who are at ease,
Hear my voice;
You complacent daughters,
Give ear to my speech.
10 In a year and some days
You will be troubled, you complacent women;
For the vintage will fail,
The gathering will not come.
11 Tremble, you women who are at ease;
Be troubled, you complacent ones;
Strip yourselves, make yourselves bare,
And gird sackcloth on your waists.

12 People shall mourn upon their breasts
For the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine.
13 [a]On the land of my people will come up thorns and briers,
Yes, on all the happy homes in [b]the joyous city;
14 [a]Because the palaces will be forsaken,
The bustling city will be deserted.
The forts and towers will become lairs forever,
A joy of wild donkeys, a pasture of flocks—

31:5 "Passing over" may allude to the passing over of the death angel in Egypt (Ex. 12:13, 23). In Isaiah's day God passed over Sennacherib's army and struck 185,000 of his soldiers (Is. 37:36).

32:3 The eyes and ears of God's future leaders would not be dulled; unlike Isaiah's generation, they would understand God's ways.

32:13 The word "thorns" used here is the same word mentioned in the curse in Genesis 3:18.

15 Until [a]the Spirit is poured upon us from on high,
And [b]the wilderness becomes a
fruitful field,
And the fruitful field is counted as a forest.

The Peace of God's Reign

16 Then justice will dwell in the wilderness,
And righteousness remain in the
fruitful field.
17 [a]The work of righteousness will be
peace,
And the effect of righteousness,
quietness and assurance forever.
18 My people will dwell in a peaceful habitation,
In secure dwellings, and in quiet
[a]resting places,
19 [a]Though hail comes down [b]on the forest,
And the city is brought low in humiliation.

20 Blessed are you who sow beside all
waters,
Who send out freely the feet of [a]the ox and the donkey.

A Prayer in Deep Distress

33 Woe to you [a]who plunder, though you have not been plundered;
And you who deal treacherously, though they have not dealt treacherously with you!
[b]When you cease plundering,
You will be [c]plundered;
When you make an end of dealing
treacherously,
They will deal treacherously with you.

2 O LORD, be gracious to us;
[a]We have waited for You.
Be [1]their arm every morning,
Our salvation also in the time of trouble.
3 At the noise of the tumult the people [a]shall flee;
When You lift Yourself up, the nations shall be scattered;
4 And Your plunder shall be gathered
Like the gathering of the caterpillar;
As the running to and fro of locusts,
He shall run upon them.

5 [a]The LORD is exalted, for He dwells on high;
He has filled Zion with justice and
righteousness.
6 Wisdom and knowledge will be the stability of your times,
And the strength of salvation;
The fear of the LORD is His treasure.

7 Surely their valiant ones shall cry outside,
[a]The ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly.
8 [a]The highways lie waste,
The traveling man ceases.
[b]He has broken the covenant,
[1]He has despised the [2]cities,
He regards no man.
9 [a]The earth mourns and languishes,
Lebanon is shamed and shriveled;
Sharon is like a wilderness,
And Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits.

HISTORICAL Encounter — ISAIAH WALLACE — Is. 33:14

During the great revival of 1858–59, many churches and cities experienced the powerful convicting work of the Holy Spirit. In Beldune, New Brunswick, Canada, Isaiah Wallace preached on Isaiah 33:14, "The sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness has surprised the hypocrites." Soon after, a woman fell under deep conviction and she began earnestly praying for her community. Meanwhile sixty young people were dancing in a nearby dance hall. One young man noticed a piece of paper on the floor. Picking it up he read "These shall go away into everlasting punishment." Shocked, he fell to the floor under great conviction. Soon five others were in terrible distress. Isaiah Wallace and the local Presbyterian minister were summoned to the gathering to help the young people. Revival broke out in the town and hundreds were added to the churches.

32:15 The coming age would be governed by God's Spirit (Is. 11:2; 42:1; 61:1; Ezek. 36:26, 27; Joel 2:28, 29). People could only live as God wanted them to if they were filled and empowered by the Holy Spirit.

33:1 "You" refers to Assyria. Apparently Assyria had accepted tribute from Judah, then betrayed them by using force against them (2 Kin. 18:13–37; Is. 21:2; 24:16).

33:7 "Valiant ones" may be a sarcastic reference to the three Judean officials who vainly offered tribute to Assyria (Is. 36:3, 22).

33:9 Sharon was on the west coastal plain. Bashan was on the east side of the Jordan River. The four regions mentioned in this verse were among the most fertile regions in that area.

Your breath, as fire, shall devour you.
12 And the people shall be like the burnings of lime;
[a]Like thorns cut up they shall be burned in the fire.
13 Hear, [a]you who are afar off, what I have done;
And you who are near, acknowledge My might."

14 The sinners in Zion are afraid;
Fearfulness has seized the hypocrites:
"Who among us shall dwell with the devouring [a]fire?
Who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings?"
15 He who [a]walks righteously and speaks uprightly,
He who despises the gain of oppressions,
Who gestures with his hands, refusing bribes,
Who stops his ears from hearing of bloodshed,
And [b]shuts his eyes from seeing evil:
16 He will dwell on [1]high;
His place of defense will be the fortress of rocks;
Bread will be given him,
His water will be sure.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 33:15, 16

Walking Righteously

How do people live a righteous life in the midst of a carnal and licentious world? They guard what they see and hear. Those truly desiring holiness will not allow unholy things to enter their minds and hearts. They hate what God hates and they love righteousness, as He does.

The Land of the Majestic King

17 Your eyes will see the King in His [a]beauty;
They will see the land that is very far off.
18 Your heart will meditate on terror:
[a]"Where is the scribe?
Where is he who weighs?
Where is he who counts the towers?"

19 [a]You will not see a fierce people,
[b]A people of obscure speech, beyond perception,
Of a [1]stammering tongue that you cannot understand.

20 [a]Look upon Zion, the city of our appointed feasts;
Your eyes will see [b]Jerusalem, a quiet home,
A tabernacle that will not be taken down;
[c]Not one of [d]its stakes will ever be removed,
Nor will any of its cords be broken.
21 But there the majestic LORD will be for us
A place of broad rivers and streams,
In which no [1]galley with oars will sail,
Nor majestic ships pass by 22 (For the LORD is our [a]Judge,
The LORD is our [b]Lawgiver,
[c]The LORD is our King;
He will save us);
23 Your tackle is loosed,
They could not strengthen their mast,
They could not spread the sail.

Then the prey of great plunder is divided;
The lame take the prey.
24 And the inhabitant will not say, "I am sick";
[a]The people who dwell in it will be forgiven their iniquity.

Judgment on the Nations

34 Come [a]near, you nations, to hear;

Come Near to Hear

God's invitation is to draw near to Him so you can hear what He has to say. You will not hear His voice if you do not walk closely with Him. Draw near today and listen carefully.

33:18 The scribe "who weighs" described the one who counted tribute being paid.

33:19 "Stammering tongue" referred to Judah's enemies, particularly Assyria (Deut. 28:49).

33:20 "The city of our appointed feasts" described Jerusalem. The city's divine purpose was to be a place where people regularly met with God.

33:21 Great cities like Nineveh and Babylon were protected by impressive rivers. Jerusalem's protection would be far more secure, because theirs would come from God.

And His fury against all their armies;
He has utterly destroyed them,
He has given them over to the [a]slaughter.
3 Also their slain shall be thrown out;
[a]Their stench shall rise from their corpses,
And the mountains shall be melted with their blood.
4 [a]All the host of heaven shall be dissolved,
And the heavens shall be rolled up like a scroll;
[b]All their host shall fall down
As the leaf falls from the vine,
And as [c]fruit falling from a fig tree.

5 "For [a]My sword shall be bathed in heaven;
Indeed it [b]shall come down on Edom,
And on the people of My curse, for judgment.
6 The [a]sword of the LORD is filled with blood,
It is made [1]overflowing with fatness,
With the blood of lambs and goats,
With the fat of the kidneys of rams.
For [b]the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah,
And a great slaughter in the land of Edom.
7 The wild oxen shall come down with them,
And the young bulls with the mighty bulls;
Their land shall be soaked with blood,
And their dust [1]saturated with fatness."

8 For it is the day of the LORD's [a]vengeance,
The year of recompense for the cause of Zion.
9 [a]Its streams shall be turned into pitch,
And its dust into brimstone;
Its land shall become burning pitch.
10 It shall not be quenched night or day;
[a]Its smoke shall ascend forever.
[b]From generation to generation it shall lie waste;
No one shall pass through it forever and ever.

Also the owl and the raven shall dwell in it.
And [b]He shall stretch out over it
The line of confusion and the stones of emptiness.
12 They shall call its nobles to the kingdom,
But none shall be there, and all its princes shall be nothing.
13 And [a]thorns shall come up in its palaces,
Nettles and brambles in its fortresses;
[b]It shall be a habitation of jackals,
A courtyard for ostriches.
14 The wild beasts of the desert shall also meet with the [1]jackals,
And the wild goat shall bleat to its companion;
Also [2]the night creature shall rest there,
And find for herself a place of rest.
15 There the arrow snake shall make her nest and lay eggs
And hatch, and gather them under her shadow;
There also shall the hawks be gathered,
Every one with her mate.

16 "Search from [a]the book of the LORD, and read:
Not one of these shall fail;
Not one shall lack her mate.
For My mouth has commanded it, and His Spirit has gathered them.
17 He has cast the lot for them,

HISTORICAL*Encounter* — ROBERT MOFFAT — Is. 35:6

Robert Moffat was born in 1795 and grew up in Scotland. He trained to be a gardener, but God called him to serve Him as a missionary in Africa. On his first journey into the African desert he almost perished. Running out of water and supplies, he sent two men for help. After three days exposed to the blistering desert heat, Moffat knew his life was almost spent. He turned in his Bible to Isaiah 35, and read God's promise to bring waters in the desert and streams in the wilderness. Moffat realized that people's spiritual thirst exceeded their physical want. He committed himself to be God's instrument to bring streams of living water to the Africans. Moffat survived his harrowing ordeal and lived to see thousands of Africans accept God's living water. His life inspired many, including David Livingston, to dedicate themselves to missionary service in Africa.

35:2 This is a reversal of God's judgment (Is. 33:9).

36:1 The fourteenth year of Hezekiah's reign may have been 701 B.C. By this time Sennacherib had ruled Assyria for four years. Sennacherib indicated he attacked forty-six cities in Judah. His army struck Tyre to the north and then moved southward to Ashkelon. The Assyrians then defeated the Egyptian army at Eltekeh, twenty miles west of Jerusalem, before moving against the Judean stronghold at Lachish. Sennacherib's army was probably besieging Lachish when he sent Rabshakeh, his spokesman, hoping to frighten Jerusalem into submission without a prolonged siege.

36:2 The Assyrians spoke to Jerusalem's leaders from the aqueduct, the same location where Isaiah had warned King Ahaz of the imminent Assyrian threat (Is. 7:3).

words. Now in whom do you trust, that you rebel against me?

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 36:5

In Whom Do You Trust?

Who, or what, is powerful enough to warrant rebellion against God? The answer is obvious, yet we continue to set ourselves up for disappointment and judgment.

6 "Look! You are trusting in the [a]staff of this broken reed, Egypt, on which if a man leans, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who [b]trust in him.
7 "But if you say to me, 'We trust in the LORD our God,' is it not He whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and said to Judah and Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar'?" '
8 "Now therefore, I urge you, give a pledge to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses—if you are able on your part to put riders on them!
9 "How then will you repel one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust in Egypt for chariots and horsemen?
10 "Have I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? The LORD said to me, 'Go up against this land, and destroy it.' "
11 Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it; and do not speak to us in [1]Hebrew in the hearing of the people who are on the wall."
12 But the Rabshakeh said, "Has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words, and not to the men who sit on the wall, who will eat and drink their own waste with you?"
13 Then the Rabshakeh stood and called out with a loud voice in Hebrew, and said, "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria!
14 "Thus says the king: 'Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to deliver you;
15 'nor let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, "The LORD will surely deliver us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria." '
16 "Do not listen to Hezekiah; for thus says the king of Assyria: 'Make peace with me by a present and come out to me; [a]and every one of you eat from his own vine and every one from his own fig tree, and every one of you drink the waters of his own cistern;
17 'until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards.
18 'Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, "The LORD will deliver us." Has any one of the [a]gods of the nations delivered its land from the hand of the king of Assyria?

SENNACHERIB

Is. 36:1

Sennacherib, who name means "Sin (the moon god) has increased the brothers," was king of Assyria (704–681 B.C.). Sennacherib's father, Sargon, was assassinated, leaving him the throne. Widespread revolts immediately erupted against the new king, led by Merodach Baladan of Babylon. It may have been at this time the Babylonian king sent emissaries to King Hezekiah of Judah (2 Kin. 20:12–19; Is. 39). Sennacherib spent the first years of his reign subduing the rebellious Babylonians and their allies. In 701 B.C., Sennacherib moved west, reducing Sidon, Arvad, Byblos, Beth Ammon, Moab, and Edom into submission. He destroyed Ashkelon, which refused to submit to him. Finally Sennacherib turned against Judah and King Hezekiah who had led the regional rebellion. Sennacherib captured forty-six Judean cities and took 200,150 Judean captives into exile. Egypt sent an army to Hezekiah's relief but the effort was unsuccessful. King Hezekiah was forced to pay Sennacherib an enormous tribute (2 Kin. 18:14–16). Eventually God intervened, killing 185,000 of Sennacherib's men (2 Kin. 19:35, 36). Sennacherib was forced to return to his capital in Nineveh. In 681 B.C., while he was worshipping his god Nisroch, two of his sons murdered him (2 Kin. 19:37). Sennacherib's life illustrates the emptiness of human boasting and posturing in light of God's universal sovereignty.

36:7 King Hezekiah removed the idolatrous places of worship his father Ahaz had erected (2 Kin. 18:1–5; 2 Chr. 31:1–3).

36:10 "The Lord said to me" was an arrogant boast by the Assyrian messenger. The Assyrians assumed that when they conquered a nation its god joined them in support (2 Chr. 35:21). Rabshakeh spoke as if God had already been defeated and was now helping the Assyrians.

36:19 Hamath was a Syrian city on the Orontes River, fifty miles north of Damascus and 275 miles northeast of Jerusalem. Arpad was a Syrian city eighty-five miles north of Hamath.

vaim? Indeed, have they delivered [a]Samaria from my hand?
20 'Who among all the gods of these lands have delivered their countries from my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem from my hand?' "
21 But they [1]held their peace and answered him not a word; for the king's commandment was, "Do not answer him."
22 Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of the Rabshakeh.

Isaiah Assures Deliverance

37 And [a]so it was, when King Hezekiah heard it, that he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.
2 Then he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz.
3 And they said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah: 'This day is a day of [a]trouble and rebuke and [1]blasphemy; for the children have come to birth, but there is no strength to bring them forth.
4 'It may be that the LORD your God will hear the words of the Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to [a]reproach the living God, and will rebuke the words which the LORD your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.' "
5 So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah.
6 And Isaiah said to them, "Thus you shall say to your master, 'Thus says the LORD: "Do not be afraid of the words which you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me.
7 "Surely I will send a spirit upon him, and he shall hear a rumor and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land." ' "

Sennacherib's Threat and Hezekiah's Prayer

8 Then the Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah, for he heard that he had departed from Lachish.
9 And the king heard concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, "He has come out to make war with you." So when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,
10 "Thus you shall speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying: 'Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, "Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria."
11 'Look! You have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by utterly destroying them; and shall you be delivered?
12 'Have the [a]gods of the nations delivered those whom my fathers have destroyed, Gozan and Haran and Rezeph, and the people of Eden who were in Telassar?
13 'Where is the king of [a]Hamath, the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?' "
14 And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it; and Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.
15 Then Hezekiah prayed to the LORD, saying:
16 "O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, the One who dwells between the cherubim, You are God, You [a]alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth.
17 [a]"Incline Your ear, O LORD, and hear; open Your eyes, O LORD, and see; and [b]hear all the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to reproach the living God.
18 "Truly, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations and their [a]lands, 19 "and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were [a]not gods, but the work of men's hands—wood and stone. Therefore they destroyed them.
20 "Now therefore, O LORD our God, [a]save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may [b]know that You are the LORD, You alone."

The Word of the LORD Concerning Sennacherib

21 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel, 'Because you have prayed to Me against Sennacherib king of Assyria,
22 'this is the word which the LORD has spoken concerning him:

37:4 Hezekiah's concern was for God to be honored before the blasphemous Assyrians.

37:9 It is uncertain that a battle occurred between Tirhakah and the Assyrians at this time, but Sennacherib had to withdraw from Lachish to prepare for a possible confrontation.

The daughter of Jerusalem
Has shaken her head behind your back!

23 "Whom have you reproached and blasphemed?
Against whom have you raised your voice,
And lifted up your eyes on high?
Against the Holy One of Israel.
24 By your servants you have reproached the Lord,
And said, 'By the multitude of my chariots
I have come up to the height of the mountains,
To the limits of Lebanon;
I will cut down its tall cedars
And its choice cypress trees;
I will enter its farthest height,
To its fruitful forest.
25 I have dug and drunk water,
And with the soles of my feet I have dried up

26 "Did you not hear [a]long ago
How I made it,
From ancient times that I formed it?
Now I have brought it to pass,
That you should be

27 Therefore their inhabitants had little power;
They were dismayed and confounded;
They were as the grass of the field

28 "But I know your dwelling place,
Your going out and your coming in,
And your rage against Me.
29 Because your rage against Me and your tumult
Have come up to My ears,
Therefore [a]I will put My hook in your nose
And My bridle in your lips,
And I will [b]turn you back
By the way which you came." '

30 "This shall be a sign to you:

You shall eat this year such as grows of itself,
And the second year what springs from the same;
Also in the third year sow and reap,
Plant vineyards and eat the fruit of them.
31 And the remnant who have escaped of the house of Judah
Shall again take root downward,
And bear fruit upward.
32 For out of Jerusalem shall go a remnant,
And those who escape from Mount Zion.
The [a]zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

33 "Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria:

'He shall not come into this city,
Nor shoot an arrow there,
Nor come before it with shield,
Nor build a siege mound against it.
34 By the way that he came,
By the same shall he return;
And he shall not come into this city,'
Says the LORD.

Sennacherib's Defeat and Death

36 Then the [a]angel[1] of the LORD went out, and [2]killed in the camp of the Assyrians one hundred and eighty-five thousand; and when people arose early in the morning, there were the corpses—all dead.
37 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed and went away, returned home, and remained at Nineveh.
38 Now it came to pass, as he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god, that his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him down with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Then [a]Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

37:24 Chariots were prized and expensive weapons. Assyria had an abundance of them.

37:30 This may have been within thirteen to fifteen months. A part of a year was counted as a year.

37:35 "My servant David" indicates God was remaining faithful to His promise to David (2 Sam. 7:8–16; 1 Kin. 8:17–20; Ps. 89:19–37; Is. 9:7; 49:8).

37:38 Esarhaddon began ruling Assyria in 681 B.C. When King Hezekiah prayed to his God, God delivered him. When Sennacherib prayed to his god, his sons murdered him.

Hezekiah's Life Extended

38 In [a]those days Hezekiah was sick and near death. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, went to him and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: [b]'Set your house in order, for you shall die and not live.' "
2 Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed to the LORD,
3 and said, [a]"Remember now, O LORD, I pray, how I have walked before You in truth and with a [1]loyal heart, and have done what is good in Your [b]sight." And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 38:3

Our Tears

God gently invites us to bring our sorrows to Him. He is aware of every tear. He is the only One with the answer for our grief.

4 And the word of the LORD came to Isaiah, saying,
5 "Go and tell Hezekiah, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father: "I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; surely I will add to your days fifteen years.
6 "I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria, and [a]I will defend this city." '
7 "And this is [a]the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing which He has spoken:
8 "Behold, I will bring the shadow on the sundial, which has gone down with the sun on the sundial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward." So the sun returned ten degrees on the dial by which it had gone down.
9 This is the writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick and had recovered from his sickness:

10 I said,
"In the prime of my life
I shall go to the gates of Sheol;
I am deprived of the remainder of my years."
11 I said,
"I shall not see [1]YAH,
The LORD [a]in the land of the living;
I shall observe man no more
[2]among the inhabitants of [3]the world.
12 [a]My life span is gone,
Taken from me like a shepherd's tent;
I have cut off my life like a weaver.
He cuts me off from the loom;
From day until night You make an end of me.
13 I have considered until morning—
Like a lion,
So He breaks all my bones;
From day until night You make an end of me.
14 Like a crane or a swallow, so I chattered;
[a]I mourned like a dove;
My eyes fail from looking upward.
O [1]LORD, I am oppressed;
[2]Undertake for me!

15 "What shall I say?
[1]He has both spoken to me,
And He Himself has done it.
I shall walk carefully all my years
[a]In the bitterness of my soul.
16 O Lord, by these things men live;
And in all these things is the life of my spirit;
So You will restore me and make me live.
17 Indeed it was for my own peace
That I had great bitterness;
But You have lovingly delivered my soul from the pit of corruption,
For You have cast all my sins behind Your back.
18 For [a]Sheol cannot thank You,
Death cannot praise You;
Those who go down to the pit cannot hope for Your truth.
19 The living, the living man, he shall praise You,
As I do this day;
[a]The father shall make known Your truth to the children.

20 "The LORD was ready to save me;
Therefore we will sing my songs with stringed instruments
All the days of our life, in the house of the LORD."

21 Now [a]Isaiah had said, "Let them take a lump of figs, and apply it as a poultice on the boil, and he shall recover."
22 And [a]Hezekiah had said, "What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?"

38:4 Isaiah had not yet departed from Hezekiah's palace before God's word of mercy returned to him (2 Kin. 20:4).

38:19 Hezekiah apparently failed to properly teach his son Manasseh about the Lord, for he would grow up to become the most wicked king in Judah's history (2 Kin. 21:11).

38:22 Hezekiah's request concerning a sign contrasted his father Ahaz's refusal to ask for one (7:12).

The Babylonian Envoys

39 At [a]that time [1]Merodach-Baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he heard that he had been sick and had recovered.
2 [a]And Hezekiah was pleased with them, and showed them the house of his treasures—the silver and gold, the spices and precious ointment, and all his armory—all that was found among his treasures. There was nothing in his house or in all his dominion that Hezekiah did not show them.
3 Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah, and said to him, "What did these men say, and from where did they come to you?" So Hezekiah said, "They came to me from a [a]far country, from Babylon."

Hear the Word

Listening to what God has to say is one thing; receiving it is another. When God speaks, His voice deserves our full attention and our immediate response.

4 And he said, "What have they seen in your house?" So Hezekiah answered, "They have seen all that is in my house; there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them."
5 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD of hosts:
6 'Behold, the days are coming [a]when all that is in your house, and what your fathers have accumulated until this day, shall be carried to Babylon; nothing shall be left,' says the LORD.
7 'And they shall take away some of your [a]sons who will descend from you, whom you will beget; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.' "
8 So Hezekiah said to Isaiah, [a]"The word of the LORD which you have spoken is good!" For he said, "At least there will be peace and truth in my days."

God's People Are Comforted

40 "Comfort, yes, comfort My people!"
Says your God.
2 "Speak [1]comfort to Jerusalem, and cry out to her,
That her warfare is ended,
That her iniquity is pardoned;
[a]For she has received from the LORD's hand
Double for all her sins."

3 [a]The voice of one crying in the wilderness:
[b]"Prepare the way of the LORD;
[c]Make straight [1]in the desert
A highway for our God.
4 Every valley shall be exalted
And every mountain and hill brought low;
[a]The crooked places shall be made [1]straight
And the rough places smooth;
5 The [a]glory of the LORD shall be revealed,
And all flesh shall see it together;
For the mouth of the LORD has spoken."

6 The voice said, "Cry out!"
And [1]he said, "What shall I cry?"
[a]"All flesh is grass,
And all its loveliness is like the flower of the field.
7 The grass withers, the flower fades,
Because the breath of the LORD blows upon it;
Surely the people are grass.
8 The grass withers, the flower fades,
But [a]the word of our God stands forever."

9 O Zion,
You who bring good tidings,
Get up into the high mountain;
O Jerusalem,
You who bring good tidings,
Lift up your voice with strength,
Lift it up, be not afraid;
Say to the cities of Judah, "Behold your God!"

10 Behold, the Lord GOD shall come [1]with a strong hand,
And [a]His arm shall rule for Him;
Behold, [b]His reward is with Him,

10 [a]Is. 59:16, 18 [b]Is. 62:11 [1]in strength

39:1 The Babylonians were fascinated with astronomy (2 Chr. 32:31). They would have been curious at the divine intervention concerning Hezekiah's sundial. Merodach Baladan fought tenaciously against Assyria. He was anxious to encourage rebellion against Assyria in order to deflect Assyria's vengeance from Babylon.

39:7 Royal servants would be made into eunuchs to protect the king's harem. Hezekiah's descendents would one day serve another king without any possibility of furthering the Davidic line.

40:1 "Comfort My people" was spoken to the Jewish exiles in Babylon long before the need arose. While Isaiah uttered this prophecy in the eighth century B.C., the Jewish exiles would not go to Babylon until the sixth century. Yet God was already preparing His people for what was coming.

40:5 "All flesh" means all humanity.

40:6 Grass is a symbol of something transitory.

40:10 The arm of the Lord is a symbol of strength (Is. 48:14; 51:5, 9; 52:10).

And His [2]work before Him.
11 He will [a]feed His flock like a shepherd;
He will gather the lambs with His arm,
And carry them in His bosom,
And gently lead those who are with young.

12 [a]Who has measured the [1]waters in the hollow of His hand,
Measured heaven with a [2]span
And calculated the dust of the earth in a measure?
Weighed the mountains in scales
And the hills in a balance?
13 [a]Who has directed the Spirit of the LORD,
Or as His counselor has taught Him?
14 With whom did He take counsel, and who instructed Him,
And [a]taught Him in the path of justice?
Who taught Him knowledge,
And showed Him the way of understanding?

15 Behold, the nations are as a drop in a bucket,
And are counted as the small dust on the scales;
Look, He lifts up the isles as a very little thing.
16 And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn,
Nor its beasts sufficient for a burnt offering.
17 All nations before Him are as [a]nothing,
And [b]they are counted by Him less than nothing and worthless.

18 To whom then will you [a]liken God?
Or what likeness will you compare to Him?
19 [a]The workman molds an image,
The goldsmith overspreads it with gold,
And the silversmith casts silver chains.
20 Whoever is too impoverished for such [1]a contribution
Chooses a tree that will not rot;
He seeks for himself a skillful workman
[a]To prepare a carved image that will not totter.

21 [a]Have you not known?
Have you not heard?
Has it not been told you from the beginning?
Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?
22 It is He who sits above the circle of the earth,
And its inhabitants are like grasshoppers,
Who [a]stretches out the heavens like a curtain,
And spreads them out like a [b]tent to dwell in.
23 He [1]brings the [a]princes to nothing;
He makes the judges of the earth useless.

24 Scarcely shall they be planted,
Scarcely shall they be sown,
Scarcely shall their stock take root in the earth,
When He will also blow on them,
And they will wither,
And the whirlwind will take them away like stubble.

25 "To[a] whom then will you liken Me,
Or to whom shall I be equal?" says the Holy One.
26 Lift up your eyes on high,
And see who has created these things,
Who brings out their host by number;
[a]He calls them all by name,
By the greatness of His might
And the strength of His power;
Not one is missing.

27 [a]Why do you say, O Jacob,
And speak, O Israel:
"My way is hidden from the LORD,
And my just claim is passed over by my God"?
28 Have you not known?
Have you not heard?
The everlasting God, the LORD,
The Creator of the ends of the earth,
Neither faints nor is weary.
[a]His understanding is unsearchable.
29 He gives power to the weak,
And to those who have no might He increases strength.
30 Even the youths shall faint and be weary,
And the young men shall utterly fall,
31 But those who [a]wait on the LORD
[b]Shall renew their strength;

40:11 God's almighty power guides the stars in their orbits, yet He is often portrayed as a gentle shepherd caring for His people (2 Sam. 5:2; 7:7; Jer. 23:1–8; Ezek. 34; Mic. 5:4). Both realities characterize our great and loving Lord.

40:12 A span is the length of an outstretched arm.

40:19 Silver chains were attached to idols to prevent them from toppling over.

4:30 "Youths" designated young men in peak condition.

40:31 Eagles represented the greatest of birds (Ezek. 1:10; Rev. 4:7).

They shall mount up with wings
like eagles,
They shall run and not be weary,
They shall walk and not faint.

ENCOUNTER Note Is. 40:31

Wait

Waiting on the Lord is an expression of faith. When circumstances bear down on us, it is tempting to orchestrate our own relief effort. Yet if we will tenaciously trust the Lord, He will renew our spirit and strengthen us for any challenge.

Israel Assured of God's Help

41 "Keep [a]silence before Me,
O coastlands,
And let the people renew their strength!
Let them come near, then let them speak;
Let us [b]come near together for judgment.

2 "Who raised up one [a]from the east?
Who in righteousness called him to His feet?
Who [b]gave the nations before him,
And made him rule over kings?
Who gave them as the dust to his sword,
As driven stubble to his bow?
3 Who pursued them, and passed [1]safely
By the way that he had not gone with his feet?
4 [a]Who has performed and done it,
Calling the generations from the beginning?
'I, the LORD, am [b]the first;
And with the last I am [c]He.' "

5 The coastlands saw it and feared,
The ends of the earth were afraid;
They drew near and came.
6 [a]Everyone helped his neighbor,
And said to his brother,
[1]"Be of good courage!"
7 [a]So the craftsman encouraged the [b]goldsmith;[1]
He who smooths with the hammer inspired him who strikes the anvil,
Saying, [2]"It is ready for the soldering";
Then he fastened it with pegs,
[c]That it might not totter.

8 "But you, Israel, are My servant,
Jacob whom I have [a]chosen,
The descendants of Abraham My [b]friend.

ENCOUNTER Note Is. 41:8

God's Friend

God chooses people to be His servants and His friends. The Lord deserves our devoted service, but the great mystery is that He should seek our friendship.

9 You whom I have taken from the ends of the earth,
And called from its farthest regions,
And said to you,
'You are My servant,
I have chosen you and have not cast you away:
10 [a]Fear not, [b]for I am with you;
Be not dismayed, for I am your God.
I will strengthen you,
Yes, I will help you,
I will uphold you with My righteous right hand.'

11 "Behold, all those who were incensed against you Shall be [a]ashamed and disgraced;
They shall be as nothing,
And those who strive with you shall perish.
12 You shall seek them and not find them—
[1]Those who contended with you.
Those who war against you
Shall be as nothing,
As a nonexistent thing.
13 For I, the LORD your God, will hold your right hand,
Saying to you, 'Fear not, I will help you.'

14 "Fear not, you [a]worm Jacob,
You men of Israel!
I will help you," says the LORD
And your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

41:1 Keeping silence usually preceded judgment (Zeph. 1:7).

41:2 "One from the east" may refer to Cyrus, who conquered Babylon and set the Jewish captives free.

41:8 Isaiah referred to several people as God's servants: Cyrus (Is. 45:1–4); God's prophets (44:26); Israel (44:21); and the Messiah (42:1–4). Abraham is the only person in the Old Testament God explicitly called His friend (Gen. 18:17–19; 2 Chr. 20:7; James 2:23).

41:10 The term "dismayed" comes from the term to "gaze" and conveys the idea of anxiously looking about, unsure where to turn for help. God's constant solution for fear is His presence.

41:14 A redeemer was someone who protected relatives facing hardship. The benefactor might avenge a murder (Num. 35:19), marry a childless widow (Ruth 3:9), or purchase land for an impoverished relative. When God described Himself as His people's redeemer He was promising to come to their aid and meet whatever need they faced, including reclaiming land lost to the Jewish exiles in Babylon.

15 "Behold, [a]I will make you into a new threshing sledge with sharp teeth;
You shall thresh the mountains and beat them small,
And make the hills like chaff.
16 You shall [a]winnow them, the wind shall carry them away,
And the whirlwind shall scatter
them;
You shall rejoice in the LORD,
And [b]glory in the Holy One of Israel.

17 "The poor and needy seek water, but there is none,
Their tongues fail for thirst.
I, the LORD, will hear them;
I, the God of Israel, will not
[a]forsake them.
18 I will open [a]rivers in desolate heights,
And fountains in the midst of the valleys;
I will make the [b]wilderness a pool
of water,
And the dry land springs of water.
19 I will plant in the wilderness the cedar and the acacia tree,
The myrtle and the oil tree;
I will set in the [a]desert the cypress tree and the pine
And the box tree together,
20 [a]That they may see and know,
And consider and understand
together,
That the hand of the LORD has done
this,
And the Holy One of Israel has created it.

The Futility of Idols

21 "Present your case," says the LORD.
"Bring forth your strong reasons,"
says the [a]King of Jacob.
22 "Let[a] them bring forth and show us
what will happen;
Let them show the [b]former things,
what they were,
That we may [1]consider them,
And know the latter end of them;
Or declare to us things to come.
23 [a]Show the things that are to come hereafter,
That we may know that you are
gods;
Yes, [b]do good or do evil,
That we may be dismayed and see it
together.

25 "I have raised up one from the north,
And he shall come;
From the [1]rising of the sun [a]he shall call on My name;
[b]And he shall come against princes
as though mortar,
As the potter treads clay.
26 [a]Who has declared from the beginning, that we may know?
And former times, that we may say,
'He is righteous'?
Surely there is no one who shows,
Surely there is no one who declares,
Surely there is no one who hears your words.
27 [a]The first time [b]I said to Zion,
'Look, there they are!'
And I will give to Jerusalem one who brings good tidings.
28 [a]For I looked, and there was no man;
I looked among them, but there was no counselor,
Who, when I asked of them, could answer a word.
29 [a]Indeed they are all [1]worthless;
Their works are nothing;
Their molded images are wind and confusion.

The Servant of the LORD

42 "Behold! [a]My Servant whom
I uphold,
My [1]Elect One in whom My soul
[b]delights!
[c]I have put My Spirit upon Him;
He will bring forth justice to the Gentiles.
2 [a]He will not cry out, nor raise His
voice,
Nor cause His voice to be heard in the street.
3 A bruised reed He will not break,
And [1]smoking flax He will not
[2]quench;
He will bring forth justice for truth.
4 He will not fail nor be discouraged, Till He has established justice in the
earth;
[a]And the coastlands shall wait for His law."

41:18 Those traveling in the desert needed water and shade. God promised both in abundance as His people returned to Him from Babylonian exile.

41:24 "Abomination" was that which God despised. People take on the values of what they worship (Ps. 115:8; Jer. 2:5).

41:25 Cyrus conquered Media in 550 B.C., thereby taking control of the lands north of Babylon.

42:1 Scripture presents Jesus as filled and guided by the Holy Spirit (Is. 11:2; 48:16; 59:21; 61:1; Luke 3:22). This verse begins the first servant song (Is. 42:1–4).

42:3 Christ is gentle in His work among His people. He does not need to raise His voice. He does not break "bruised reeds" or quench a "smoking flax."

ENCOUNTER Note Is. 42:4

Not Discouraged

God is not daunted by your circumstances or your failures. His purposes do not fail; His will shall be done. You may grow discouraged, but God never does.

[a]Who created the heavens and stretched them out,
Who spread forth the earth and that which comes from it,
[b]Who gives breath to the people on it,
And spirit to those who walk on it:
6 "I,[a] the LORD, have called You in righteousness,
And will hold Your hand;
I will keep You [b]and give You as a covenant to the people,
As [c]a light to the Gentiles,
7 [a]To open blind eyes,
To [b]bring out prisoners from the prison,
Those who sit in [c]darkness from the prison house.
8 I am the LORD, that is My name;
And My [a]glory I will not give to another,
Nor My praise to carved images.
9 Behold, the former things have come to pass,
And new things I declare;
Before they spring forth I tell you of them."

Praise to the LORD

10 [a]Sing to the LORD a new song,
And His praise from the ends of the earth,
[b]You who go down to the sea, and [1]all that is in it,
You coastlands and you inhabitants of them!
11 Let the wilderness and its cities lift up their voice,
The villages that Kedar inhabits.
Let the inhabitants of Sela sing,
Let them shout from the top of the mountains.
12 Let them give glory to the LORD,
And declare His praise in the coastlands.
13 The LORD shall go forth like a mighty man;
He shall stir up His zeal like a man of war.
He shall cry out, [a]yes, shout aloud;
He shall prevail against His enemies.

Promise of the LORD's Help

14 "I have held My peace a long time,
I have been still and restrained Myself.
Now I will cry like a woman in [1]labor,
I will pant and gasp at once.
15 I will lay waste the mountains and hills,
And dry up all their vegetation;
I will make the rivers coastlands,
And I will dry up the pools.
16 I will bring the blind by a way they did not know;
I will lead them in paths they have not known.
I will make darkness light before them,
And crooked places straight.
These things I will do for them,
And not forsake them.
17 They shall be [a]turned back,
They shall be greatly ashamed,
Who trust in carved images,
Who say to the molded images,
'You are our gods.'

18 "Hear, you deaf;
And look, you blind, that you may see.
19 [a]Who is blind but My servant,
Or deaf as My messenger whom I send?
Who is blind as he who is perfect,
And blind as the LORD's servant?
20 Seeing many things, [a]but you do not observe;
Opening the ears, but he does not hear."

Israel's Obstinate Disobedience

21 The LORD is well pleased for His righteousness' sake;
He will exalt the law and make it honorable.
22 But this is a people robbed and plundered;
All of them are [1]snared in holes,
And they are hidden in prison houses;
They are for prey, and no one delivers;
For plunder, and no one says, "Restore!"

23 Who among you will give ear to this?
Who will listen and hear for the time to come?

42:10 A "new song" may reflect a fresh revelation of God or the return of God's people to Him (Ps. 33:3; 96:1; 98:1).

42:14 "Held my peace" means God was extremely patient (Is. 48:9; 57:11).

42:18 In this verse Isaiah described Israel as God's servant. Israel was supposed to carry out His will and to represent Him to other nations but they had forsaken Him.

24 Who gave Jacob for plunder, and Israel to the robbers?
Was it not the LORD,
He against whom we have sinned?
[a]For they would not walk in His
ways,
Nor were they obedient to His law.
25 Therefore He has poured on him the fury of His anger
And the strength of battle;
[a]It has set him on fire all around,
[b]Yet he did not know;
And it burned him,
Yet he did not take it to [c]heart.

The Redeemer of Israel

43 But now, thus says the LORD, who created you, O Jacob,
And He who formed you, O Israel:
"Fear not, [a]for I have redeemed you;
[b]I have called you by your name;
You are Mine.
2 [a]When you pass through the waters,
[b]I will be with you;
And through the rivers, they shall not overflow you.
When you [c]walk through the fire,
you shall not be burned,
Nor shall the flame scorch you.
3 For I am the LORD your God,
The Holy One of Israel, your Savior;
[a]I gave Egypt for your ransom,
Ethiopia and Seba in your place.
4 Since you were precious in My sight,
You have been honored,
And I have [a]loved you;
Therefore I will give men for you,
And people for your life.
5 [a]Fear not, for I am with you;
I will bring your descendants from
the east,
And [b]gather you from the west;
6 I will say to the [a]north, 'Give them
up!'
And to the south, 'Do not keep them back!'
Bring My sons from afar,
And My daughters from the ends of
the earth—
7 Everyone who is [a]called by My name,
Whom [b]I have created for My glory;
I have formed him, yes, I have made
him."

8 [a]Bring out the blind people who have eyes,
And the [b]deaf who have ears.
9 Let all the nations be gathered
together,
And let the people be assembled.
[a]Who among them can declare this,
And show us former things?
Let them bring out their witnesses,
that they may be justified;
Or let them hear and say, "It is truth."
10 "You[a] are My witnesses," says the
LORD,
[b]"And My servant whom I have chosen,
That you may know and [c]believe
Me,
And understand that I am He.
Before Me there was no God formed,
Nor shall there be after Me.
11 I, even I, [a]am the LORD,
And besides Me there is no savior.
12 I have declared and saved,
I have proclaimed,
And there was no [a]foreign god
among you;
[b]Therefore you are My witnesses,"
Says the LORD, "that I am God.
13 [a]Indeed before the day was, I am He;
And there is no one who can deliver out of My hand;
I work, and who will [b]reverse it?"

14 Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer,
The Holy One of Israel:
"For your sake I will send to Babylon,
And bring them all down as fugitives—
The Chaldeans, who rejoice in their ships.
15 I am the LORD, your Holy One,
The Creator of Israel, your [a]King."

16 Thus says the LORD, who [a]makes a way in the sea
And a [b]path through the mighty
waters,
17 Who [a]brings forth the chariot and horse,
The army and the power
(They shall lie down together, they shall not rise;
They are extinguished, they are quenched like a wick):
18 "Do[a] not remember the former
things,

43:1 "Created" means "fashioned anew" (Gen. 1:1; Is. 40:26; 41:20; 45:12, 18; 57:19; 65:17, 18).

43:2 God had led His people through the waters before (Ex. 14:21; Josh. 3:14–17). "Walking through fire" symbolized protection from danger (Ps. 66:12; Dan. 3:25–27).

43:3 Ethiopia and Seba refer to lands south of Egypt.

43:14 The Chaldeans settled in lower Mesopotamia and established the neo-Babylonian empire.

43:18 "Former things" may refer to the people's previous lifestyles and attitudes or to prior prophecies of judgment (Is. 42:9, 21–25; 43:9, 10; 46:8, 9; 48:3). It could also point to God's earlier acts of delivering Israel from Egyptian exile. God could be indicating that His next move would far exceed anything they had witnessed before.

Nor consider the things of old.
19 Behold, I will do a [a]new thing,
Now it shall spring forth;
Shall you not know it?
[b]I will even make a road in the wilderness
And rivers in the desert.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 43:19

Free

God does not want us to be bound to our past. When God saves us, He frees us from the guilt and shame of our former life. He gives us a fresh beginning. He frees us to receive every good thing He wants to give us.

20 The beast of the field will honor Me,
The jackals and the ostriches,
Because [a]I give waters in the wilderness
And rivers in the desert,
To give drink to My people, My chosen.
21 [a]This people I have formed for Myself;
They shall declare My [b]praise.

Pleading with Unfaithful Israel

22 "But you have not called upon Me, O Jacob;
And you [a]have been weary of Me, O Israel.
23 [a]You have not brought Me the sheep for your burnt offerings,
Nor have you honored Me with your sacrifices.
I have not caused you to serve with grain offerings,
Nor wearied you with incense.
24 You have bought Me no sweet cane with money,
Nor have you satisfied Me with the fat of your sacrifices;
But you have burdened Me with your sins,
You have [a]wearied Me with your iniquities.

25 "I, even I, am He who [a]blots out your transgressions [b]for My own sake;
[c]And I will not remember your sins.
26 Put Me in remembrance;
Let us contend together;
State your case, that you may be [1]acquitted.
27 Your first father sinned,
And your [1]mediators have transgressed against Me.
28 Therefore I will profane the princes of the sanctuary;
[a]I will give Jacob to the curse,
And Israel to reproaches.

God's Blessing on Israel

44 "Yet hear now, O Jacob My servant,
And Israel whom I have chosen.
2 Thus says the LORD who made you
And formed you from the womb, who will help you:
'Fear not, O Jacob My servant;
And you, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.
3 For I will pour water on him who is thirsty,
And floods on the dry ground;
I will pour My Spirit on your descendants,
And My blessing on your offspring;
4 They will spring up among the grass
Like willows by the watercourses.'
5 One will say, 'I am the LORD's';
Another will call himself by the name of Jacob;
Another will write with his hand, 'The LORD's,'
And name himself by the name of Israel.

There Is No Other God

6 "Thus says the LORD, the King of Israel,
And his Redeemer, the LORD of hosts:
[a]'I am the First and I am the Last;
Besides Me there is no God.
7 And [a]who can proclaim as I do?
Then let him declare it and set it in order for Me,
Since I appointed the ancient people.
And the things that are coming and shall come,
Let them show these to them.
8 Do not fear, nor be afraid;
[a]Have I not told you from that time, and declared it?
[b]You are My witnesses.

7 [a]Is. 41:4, 22, 26
8 [a]Is. 41:22 [b]Is. 43:10, 12

43:25 "Blots out" can be translated "wipes clean" (2 Kin. 21:13).

43:27 "First father" refers to Abraham. He was the revered patriarch and the friend of God, yet he sinned too (Gen. 12:18, 19; 20:9).

44:1 "Now" indicated the appointed time God always expected His people to respond to His word.

44:2 Jeshurun means "upright one" and is a poetic name for Israel (Deut. 32:15; 33:5, 26).

44:3 Moses had prayed God would pour His Spirit out on His people (Num. 11:29). The prophets foresaw that day (Joel 2:28–32).

44:8 Being God's witnesses was not a New Testament innovation (Acts 1:8). The Israelites had experienced many encounters with God both in judgment and in deliverance. God expected them to testify of their experiences to the surrounding nations. A rock symbolized stability and protection (Ps. 62:2, 6, 7).

Is there a God besides Me?
Indeed [c]there is no other Rock;
I know not one.' "

Idolatry Is Foolishness

9 [a]Those who make an image, all of them are useless,
And their precious things shall not profit;
They are their own witnesses;
[b]They neither see nor know, that they may be ashamed.
10 Who would form a god or mold an image
[a]That profits him nothing?
11 Surely all his companions would be [a]ashamed;
And the workmen, they are mere men.
Let them all be gathered together,
Let them stand up;
Yet they shall fear,
They shall be ashamed together.

12 [a]The blacksmith with the tongs works one in the coals,
Fashions it with hammers,
And works it with the strength of his arms.
Even so, he is hungry, and his strength fails;
He drinks no water and is faint.

13 The craftsman stretches out his rule,
He marks one out with chalk;
He fashions it with a plane,
He marks it out with the compass,
And makes it like the figure of a man,
According to the beauty of a man, that it may remain in the house.
14 He cuts down cedars for himself,
And takes the cypress and the oak;
He [1]secures it for himself among the trees of the forest.
He plants a pine, and the rain nourishes it.

15 Then it shall be for a man to burn,
For he will take some of it and warm himself;
Yes, he kindles it and bakes bread;
Indeed he makes a god and worships it;
He makes it a carved image, and falls down to it.
16 He burns half of it in the fire;
With this half he eats meat;
He roasts a roast, and is satisfied.
He even warms himself and says,
"Ah! I am warm,
I have seen the fire."

18 [a]They do not know nor understand;
For [b]He has [1]shut their eyes, so that they cannot see,
And their hearts, so that they cannot [c]understand.
19 And no one [a]considers in his heart,
Nor is there knowledge nor understanding to say,
"I have burned half of it in the fire,
Yes, I have also baked bread on its coals;
I have roasted meat and eaten it;
And shall I make the rest of it an abomination?
Shall I fall down before a block of wood?"

And Israel, for you are My servant;
I have formed you, you are My servant;
O Israel, you will not be [a]forgotten by Me!
22 [a]I have blotted out, like a thick cloud, your transgressions,
And like a cloud, your sins.

Return

God has provided atonement for every sin you commit. He can cleanse you from every sin. He can give you a new beginning. He has already paid the price and put everything in place for your restoration. Now you must return.

23 [a]Sing, O heavens, for the LORD has done it!
Shout, you lower parts of the earth;
Break forth into singing, you mountains,

44:13 God made man in His image (Gen. 1:26, 27), but God's people made gods in their image (Deut. 4:16; Rom. 1:23).

44:19 Here Isaiah highlighted the people's spiritual blindness. They had devised their own idolatrous religion, and they could not see how ludicrous their beliefs and practices were.

O forest, and every tree in it!
For the LORD has redeemed Jacob,
And [b]glorified Himself in Israel.

Judah Will Be Restored

24 Thus says the LORD, [a]your Redeemer,
And [b]He who formed you from the womb:
"I am the LORD, who makes all things,
[c]Who stretches out the heavens [1]all alone,
Who spreads abroad the earth by Myself;
25 Who [a]frustrates the signs [b]of the babblers,
And drives diviners mad;
Who turns wise men backward,
[c]And makes their knowledge foolishness;
26 [a]Who confirms the word of His servant,
And performs the counsel of His messengers;
Who says to Jerusalem, 'You shall be inhabited,'
To the cities of Judah, 'You shall be built,'
And I will raise up her waste places;
27 [a]Who says to the deep, 'Be dry!
And I will dry up your rivers';
28 Who says of [a]Cyrus, 'He is My shepherd,
And he shall perform all My pleasure,
Saying to Jerusalem, [b]"You shall be built,"
And to the temple, "Your foundation shall be laid." '

Cyrus, God's Instrument

45 "Thus says the LORD to His anointed,
To [a]Cyrus, whose [b]right hand I have [1]held—
[c]To subdue nations before him
And [d]loose the armor of kings,
To open before him the double doors,
So that the gates will not be shut:
2 'I will go before you
[a]And[1] make the [2]crooked places straight;
[b]I will break in pieces the gates of bronze
And cut the bars of iron.
3 I will give you the treasures of darkness
And hidden riches of secret places,
[a]That you may know that I, the LORD,
Who [b]call you by your name,
Am the God of Israel.
4 For [a]Jacob My servant's sake,
And Israel My elect,
I have even called you by your name;
I have named you, though you have not known Me.
5 I [a]am the LORD, and [b]there is no other;
There is no God besides Me.
[c]I will gird you, though you have not known Me,
6 [a]That they may [b]know from the rising of the sun to its setting
That there is none besides Me.
I am the LORD, and there is no other;
7 I form the light and create darkness,
I make peace and [a]create calamity;
I, the LORD, do all these things.'

8 "Rain[a] down, you heavens, from above,
And let the skies pour down righteousness;
Let the earth open, let them bring forth salvation,
And let righteousness spring up together.
I, the LORD, have created it.

9 "Woe to him who strives with [a]his Maker!
Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth!
[b]Shall the clay say to him who forms it, 'What are you making?'
Or shall your handiwork say, 'He has no hands'?
10 Woe to him who says to his father, 'What are you begetting?'
Or to the woman, 'What have you brought forth?' "

11 Thus says the LORD,
The Holy One of Israel, and his Maker:
[a]"Ask Me of things to come concerning [b]My sons;
And concerning [c]the work of My hands, you command Me.

44:25 "Babblers" meant diviners (Deut. 18:10, 11).

44:28 Here Isaiah names Cyrus, Israel's deliverer from Babylon, long before the Israelites had even been exiled there. God's provision is always in place long before His people are in need.

45:1 "Double doors" were part of the gates connected to the defensive moat around Babylon. The gates were apparently open when Cyrus attacked Babylon.

45:2 Babylon had one hundred bronze gates.

45:3 "Treasures of darkness" may allude to the famous wealth of Sardis, captured by Cyrus in 546 B.C.

45:6 "The rising of the sun to its setting" indicated everywhere between the east and the west.

12 [a]I have made the earth,
And [b]created man on it.
I—My hands—stretched out the heavens,
And [c]all their host I have commanded.
13 [a]I have raised him up in righteousness,
And I will [1]direct all his ways;
He shall [b]build My city
And let My exiles go free,
[c]Not for price nor reward,"
Says the LORD of hosts.

The LORD, the Only Savior

14 Thus says the LORD:

[a]"The labor of Egypt and merchandise of Cush
And of the Sabeans, men of stature,
Shall come over to you, and they shall be yours;
They shall walk behind you,
They shall come over [b]in chains;
And they shall bow down to you.
They will make supplication to you, saying, [c]'Surely God is in you,
And there is no other;
[d]There is no other God.' "

15 Truly You are God, [a]who hide Yourself,
O God of Israel, the Savior!
16 They shall be [a]ashamed
And also disgraced, all of them;
They shall go in confusion together,
Who are makers of idols.
17 [a]But Israel shall be saved by the LORD
With an [b]everlasting salvation;
You shall not be ashamed or [c]disgraced
Forever and ever.

18 For thus says the LORD,
[a]Who created the heavens,
Who is God,
Who formed the earth and made it,
Who has established it,
Who did not create it [1]in vain,
Who formed it to be [b]inhabited:
[c]"I am the LORD, and there is no other.
19 I have not spoken in [a]secret,
In a dark place of the earth;
I did not say to the seed of Jacob,
'Seek Me [1]in vain';

I declare things that are right.

Not Hidden

God does not hide His will from us; He wants us to know it. What God speaks is right and true. If we want to know what God has to say, He will guide us.

20 "Assemble yourselves and come;
Draw near together,
You who have escaped from the nations.
[a]They have no knowledge,
Who carry the wood of their carved image,
And pray to a god that cannot save.
21 Tell and bring forth your case;
Yes, let them take counsel together.

There is none besides Me.

For I am God, and there is no other.
23 [a]I have sworn by Myself;

And shall not return,

HISTORICAL*Encounter* CHARLES SPURGEON Is. 45:22

One Sunday in January 1850, a fierce blizzard crippled London, England. A troubled fifteen-year-old named Charles Spurgeon set out for a distant church, but the harsh weather forced him to seek shelter with a nearby congregation. Attendance was sparse at Artillery Street Methodist Church. The storm had even waylaid the pastor. So, a layman approached the pulpit and read Isaiah 45:22. Sighting Spurgeon, the man suddenly pointed directly at him and shouted, "Young man, you're in trouble! Look to Jesus Christ! Look! Look! Look!" The startled Spurgeon was converted on the spot and went on to become a powerful preacher of the gospel. Having encountered God through the simplest of sermons, he became one of the most influential preachers in history.

45:23 Isaiah anticipated the day when every nation would recognize that Israel's God was the only true God (Rom. 14:11; 1 Cor. 15:24, 25; Phil. 2:10, 11).

That to Me every [b]knee shall bow,
[c]Every tongue shall take an oath.
24 He shall say,
[1]'Surely in the LORD I have [a]righteousness and strength.
To Him men shall come,
And [b]all shall be ashamed
Who are incensed against Him.
25 [a]In the LORD all the descendants of Israel
Shall be justified, and [b]shall glory.' "

Their idols were on the beasts and on the cattle.
Your carriages were heavily loaded,
[b]A burden to the weary beast.
2 They stoop, they bow down
together;
They could not deliver the burden,
[a]But have themselves gone into

Israel,

Who have been carried from the 4 Even to your old age, [a]I am He,

And even to gray hairs [b]I will carry
you!
I have made, and I will bear;
Even I will carry, and will deliver
you.

5 "To[a] whom will you liken Me, and Indeed [c]I have spoken it;

I will also bring it to pass.
I have purposed it;
I will also do it.

ENCOUNTER Note Is. 46:11

God's Word

It is foolish to ignore God's Word or to argue with Him. His purposes are inevitably accomplished. We can adjust our lives to His Word and experience life, or we can ignore God's Word and face the consequences.

12 "Listen to Me, you [a]stubborn-hearted,
[b]Who are far from righteousness:
13 [a]I bring My righteousness near, it shall not be far off;
My salvation [b]shall not [1]linger.
And I will place [c]salvation in Zion,
For Israel My glory.

The Humiliation of Babylon

47 "Come [a]down and [b]sit in the dust,
O virgin daughter of [c]Babylon;
Sit on the ground without a throne,
O daughter of the Chaldeans!
For you shall no more be called
Tender and [1]delicate.
2 [a]Take the millstones and grind meal.
Remove your veil,
Take off the skirt,
Uncover the thigh,
Pass through the rivers.
3 [a]Your nakedness shall be uncovered,
Yes, your shame will be seen;
[b]I will take vengeance,
And I will not arbitrate with a man."

46:1 Bel, means "lord" and was a title for Marduk, the chief god of Babylon. Nebo was Marduk's son and the god of fate, writing, and wisdom. Each New Year the idols of Bel and Nebo were carried through Babylon, where Nebo allegedly wrote on the Tables of Destiny what the gods decreed would occur during the coming year. Here they are portrayed as having to be helplessly carried into exile on wagons because of the approaching enemy.

46:11 A "bird of prey from the east" refers to Cyrus and alludes to the speed with which his armies swept against their enemies. Even the most powerful empires and generals are still God's servants.

47:2 Grinding meal was normally the work of female slaves.

4 As for [a]our Redeemer, the LORD of hosts is His name,
The Holy One of Israel.

5 "Sit in [a]silence, and go into darkness,
O daughter of the Chaldeans;
[b]For you shall no longer be called
The Lady of Kingdoms.
6 [a]I was angry with My people;
[b]I have profaned My inheritance,
And given them into your hand.
You showed them no mercy;
[c]On the elderly you laid your yoke very heavily.
7 And you said, 'I shall be [a]a lady
forever,'
So that you did not [b]take these things to heart,
[c]Nor remember the latter end of
them.

8 "Therefore hear this now, you who are given to pleasures,
Who dwell securely,
Who say in your heart,
'I am, and there is no one else
besides me;
I shall not sit as a widow,
Nor shall I know the loss of
children';
9 But these two things shall come to
you
[a]In a moment, in one day:
The loss of children, and widowhood.
They shall come upon you in their
fullness
Because of the multitude of your sorceries,
For the great abundance of your enchantments.

10 "For you have trusted in your
wickedness;
You have said, 'No one [a]sees me';
Your wisdom and your knowledge
have [1]warped you;
And you have said in your heart,
'I am, and there is no one else
besides me.'
11 Therefore evil shall come upon you;
You shall not know from where it arises.
And trouble shall fall upon you;
You will not be able [1]to put it off.
And [a]desolation shall come upon you [b]suddenly,
Which you shall not know.

12 "Stand now with your enchantments
And the multitude of your sorceries,
In which you have labored from your youth—
Perhaps you will be able to profit,
Perhaps you will prevail.
13 [a]You are wearied in the multitude of your counsels;
Let now [b]the[1] astrologers, the stargazers,
And [2]the monthly prognosticators
Stand up and save you
From what shall come upon you.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 47:13

Seeking Counsel

Where do you turn for advice? Whose opinion influences you the most? If people's counsel is more important to you than God's, God will show you what their strength and wisdom can do for you. It is foolish to turn to people for things God promised to give.

14 Behold, they shall be [a]as stubble,
The fire shall [b]burn them;
They shall not deliver themselves
From the power of the flame;
It shall not be a coal to be warmed
by,
Nor a fire to sit before!
15 Thus shall they be to you
With whom you have labored,
[a]Your merchants from your youth;
They shall wander each one to his [1]quarter.
No one shall save you.

Israel Refined for God's Glory

48 "Hear this, O house of Jacob,
Who are called by the name of Israel,
And have come forth from the wellsprings of Judah;
Who swear by the name of the
LORD,
And make mention of the God of Israel,
But [a]not in truth or in
righteousness;
2 For they call themselves [a]after the holy city,
And [b]lean on the God of Israel;
The LORD of hosts is His name:

CHAPTER 48

1 [a]Jer. 4:2; 5:2
2 [a]Is. 52:1; 64:10 [b]Mic. 3:11

47:6 The Babylonians had only been God's instrument to punish His people. Yet they had grown proud and erroneously considered themselves responsible for their own success. Just as God gave them success, now He would show them abject failure.

47:7 By saying they would be a "lady forever," the Babylonians were vainly boasting their empire would be everlasting.

47:9 Babylon's fall would come in one day, in the spectacular and unprecedented overthrow of an empire (Dan. 5).

48:1 God's appeal for Israel to "hear" is framed against the backdrop of God accusing them of spiritual deafness (Is. 6:9, 10; 48:6, 8).

48:2 The holy city is Jerusalem.

3 "I have [a]declared the former things from the beginning;
They went forth from My mouth, and I caused them to hear it.
Suddenly I did them, [b]and they came to pass.
4 Because I knew that you were [1]obstinate,
And [a]your neck was an iron sinew,
And your brow bronze,
5 Even from the beginning I have declared it to you;
Before it came to pass I proclaimed it to you,
Lest you should say, 'My idol has done them,
And my carved image and my molded image
Have commanded them.'

6 "You have heard;
See all this.
And will you not declare it?
I have made you hear new things from this time,
Even hidden things, and you did not know them.
7 They are created now and not from the beginning;
And before this day you have not heard them,
Lest you should say, 'Of course I knew them.'
8 Surely you did not hear,
Surely you did not know;
Surely from long ago your ear was not opened.
For I knew that you would deal very treacherously,
And were called [a]a transgressor from the womb.

9 "For[a] My name's sake [b]I will [1]defer My anger,
And for My praise I will restrain it from you,
So that I do not cut you off.
10 Behold, [a]I have refined you, but not as silver;
I have tested you in the [b]furnace of affliction.
11 For My own sake, for My own sake, I will do it;
For [a]how should My name be profaned?
And [b]I will not give My glory to another.

God's Ancient Plan to Redeem Israel

12 "Listen to Me, O Jacob,
And Israel, My called:
I am He, [a]I am the [b]First,
I am also the Last.

11 [a]Ezek. 20:9 [b]Is. 42:8
12 [a]Deut. 32:39 [b][Rev. 22:13]

13 Indeed [a]My hand has laid the foundation of the earth,
And My right hand has stretched out the heavens;
When [b]I call to them,
They stand up together.

14 "All of you, assemble yourselves, and hear!
Who among them has declared these things?
[a]The LORD loves him;
[b]He shall do His pleasure on Babylon,
And His arm shall be against the Chaldeans.
15 I, even I, have spoken;
Yes, [a]I have called him,
I have brought him, and his way will prosper.

16 "Come near to Me, hear this:
[a]I have not spoken in secret from the beginning;
From the time that it was, I was there.
And now [b]the Lord GOD and His Spirit
[1]Have sent Me."

17 Thus says [a]the LORD, your Redeemer,
The Holy One of Israel:
"I am the LORD your God,
Who teaches you to profit,
[b]Who leads you by the way you should go.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 48:17

God's Leading

The great tragedy of human history is that God has always desired to lead His people into abundant life, yet His people have steadfastly refused to follow Him. We would rather lead ourselves into the wilderness than follow God into the Promised Land.

13 [a]Ps. 102:25 [b]Is. 40:26
14 [a]Is. 45:1 [b]Is. 44:28; 47:1–15

17 [a]Is. 43:14 [b]Ps. 32:8
18 [a]Ps. 81:13 [b]Ps. 119:165
19 [a]Gen. 22:17

18 [a]Oh, that you had heeded My commandments!
[b]Then your peace would have been like a river,
And your righteousness like the waves of the sea.
19 [a]Your descendants also would have been like the sand,
And the offspring of your body like the grains of sand;
His name would not have been cut off
Nor destroyed from before Me."

48:16 "Me" refers to the Messiah, God's Servant (Is. 42:1–13; 61:1).

20 [a]Go forth from Babylon!
Flee from the Chaldeans!
With a voice of singing,
Declare, proclaim this,
Utter it to the end of the earth;
Say, "The LORD has [b]redeemed
His servant Jacob!"
21 And they [a]did not thirst
When He led them through the deserts;
He [b]caused the waters to flow from the rock for them;
He also split the rock, and the waters gushed out.

22 "There[a] is no peace," says the LORD,
"for the wicked."

The Servant, the Light to the Gentiles

49 "Listen, [a]O coastlands, to Me,
And take heed, you peoples from afar!
[b]The LORD has called Me from the womb;
From the [1]matrix of My mother He has made mention of My name.
2 And He has made [a]My mouth like a sharp sword;
[b]In the shadow of His hand He has hidden Me,
And made Me [c]a polished shaft;
In His quiver He has hidden Me."

3 "And He said to me,
[a]'You are My servant, O Israel,
[b]In whom I will be glorified.'
4 [a]Then I said, 'I have labored in vain,
I have spent my strength for nothing and in vain;
Yet surely my [1]just reward is with the LORD,
And my [2]work with my God.' "

5 "And now the LORD says,
Who formed Me from the womb to be His Servant,
To bring Jacob back to Him,
So that Israel [a]is [1]gathered to Him
(For I shall be glorious in the eyes of the LORD,
And My God shall be My strength),
6 Indeed He says,
'It is too small a thing that You should be My Servant
To raise up the tribes of Jacob,
And to restore the preserved ones of Israel;
I will also give You as a [a]light to the Gentiles,
That You should be My salvation to the ends of the earth.' "

7 Thus says the LORD,
The Redeemer of Israel, [1]their Holy One,
[a]To Him [2]whom man despises,
To Him whom the nation abhors,
To the Servant of rulers:
[b]"Kings shall see and arise,
Princes also shall worship,
Because of the LORD who is faithful,
The Holy One of Israel;
And He has chosen You."

8 Thus says the LORD:

"In an [a]acceptable[1] time I have heard You,
And in the day of salvation I have helped You;
I will [2]preserve You [b]and give You
As a covenant to the people,
To restore the earth,
To cause them to inherit the desolate [3]heritages;
9 That You may say [a]to the prisoners, 'Go forth,'
To those who are in darkness, 'Show yourselves.'

"They shall feed along the roads,
And their pastures shall be on all desolate heights.
10 They shall neither [a]hunger nor thirst,
[b]Neither heat nor sun shall strike them;
For He who has mercy on them [c]will lead them,
Even by the springs of water He will guide them.
11 [a]I will make each of My mountains a road,
And My highways shall be elevated.
12 Surely [a]these shall come from afar;
Look! Those from the north and the west,
And these from the land of Sinim."

13 [a]Sing, O heavens!
Be joyful, O earth!
And break out in singing, O mountains!
For the LORD has comforted His people,
And will have mercy on His afflicted.

49:1 "Matrix" means "womb" (Gen. 25:23; Ruth 1:11). This verse begins the second servant song (49:1–6).

49:2 The word of the Lord is like a sharp sword (Eph. 6:17; Heb. 4:12; Rev. 1:16). "Shadow" indicated protection (Is. 30:2, 3).

49:6 God intended that Abraham's descendents would be a "light to the Gentiles" (Gen. 12:1–3). It was not until Jesus' resurrection that God's people clearly understood and accepted this mandate (Matt. 28:18–20).

49:7 Isaiah foresaw that God's Servant would be rejected by those to whom He was sent (50:4–9; 52:13—53:12).

49:12 Sinim may have been a region in southern Egypt, but its exact identity is unknown.

God Will Remember Zion

14 [a]But Zion said, "The LORD has forsaken me,
And my Lord has forgotten me."

15 "Can[a] a woman forget her nursing child,
[1]And not have compassion on the son of her womb?
Surely they may forget,
[b]Yet I will not forget you.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 49:15

Unforgettable

God loves us with an everlasting love. Nothing distracts him. Nothing discourages Him or causes His love to wane. As a parent loves a child, so God cares for each of His children. How could we not respond positively to such divine affection?

16 See, [a]I have inscribed you on the palms of My hands;
Your walls are continually before
Me.
17 Your [1]sons shall make haste;
Your destroyers and those who laid you waste
Shall go away from you.
18 [a]Lift up your eyes, look around and see;
All these gather together and come to you.
As I live," says the LORD,
"You shall surely clothe yourselves with them all [b]as an ornament,
And bind them on you as a bride
does.

19 "For your waste and desolate places,
And the land of your destruction,
[a]Will even now be too small for the inhabitants;
And those who swallowed you up will be far away.
20 [a]The children you will have,
[b]After you have lost the others,
Will say again in your ears,
'The place is too small for me;
Give me a place where I may dwell.'
21 Then you will say in your heart,
'Who has begotten these for me,
Since I have lost my children and am desolate,
A captive, and wandering to and fro?
And who has brought these up?
There I was, left alone;
But these, where were they?' "

50 Thus says the LORD:

mother's divorce,

CHAPTER 50
1 [a]Deut. 24:1

49:15 "I will not forget you" could be translated "I am unable to forget you."

49:16 The names of the twelve tribes were inscribed on stones on the high priest's ephod (Ex. 28:9–12). When the priest was ministering in the temple, the Lord was "reminded" of His promises to Israel.

49:20 The complaint that their place was too small was a cause for rejoicing, for God was multiplying them, indicating His blessing (Is. 54:1–3; Zech. 2:4, 5).

49:22 "Standard" can also be translated "banner" (Is. 11:12).

49:26 Cannibalism could occur during the horrific conditions of a prolonged siege (Deut. 28:53–57; 2 Kin. 6:24–31; Lam. 4:10; Is. 9:20; Zech. 11:9).

50:1 "Certificate of divorce" indicated God had cast out Israel for a short time, as a husband puts away his unfaithful wife until her shame and disgrace are past (Is. 54:5–7; 62:4). However, if God had actually divorced Himself from His people, He could not technically have taken them back (Deut. 24:1–4). "Creditors" referred to the Israelites selling themselves into captivity. If God had sold them, He could not have reclaimed them according to the law. However, as a Redeemer, He could purchase His people back (Is. 41:14; 52:3).

Whom I have put away?
Or which of My [b]creditors is it to whom I have sold you?
For your iniquities [c]you have sold yourselves,
And for your transgressions your mother has been put away.
2 Why, when I came, was there no man?
Why, when I called, was there none to answer?
Is My hand shortened at all that it cannot redeem?
Or have I no power to deliver?
Indeed with My [a]rebuke I dry up the sea,
I make the rivers a wilderness;
Their fish stink because there is no water,
And die of thirst.
3 [a]I clothe the heavens with blackness,
[b]And I make sackcloth their covering."

4 "The[a] Lord GOD has given Me
The tongue of the learned,
That I should know how to speak
A word in season to him who is [b]weary.
He awakens Me morning by morning,
He awakens My ear
To hear as the learned.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 50:4

Morning by Morning

Our time with God is not only crucial to our own well-being, it is also a time for Him to sensitize us to the needs of those around us.

5 The Lord GOD [a]has opened My ear;
And I was not [b]rebellious,
Nor did I turn away.
6 [a]I gave My back to those who struck Me,
And [b]My cheeks to those who plucked out the beard;
I did not hide My face from shame and [c]spitting.

7 "For the Lord GOD will help Me;
Therefore I will not be disgraced;
Therefore [a]I have set My face like a flint,
And I know that I will not be ashamed.
8 [a]He is near who justifies Me;
Who will contend with Me?
Let us stand together.
Who is [1]My adversary?
Let him come near Me.
9 Surely the Lord GOD will help Me;
Who is he who will condemn Me?
[a]Indeed they will all grow old like a garment;
[b]The moth will eat them up.

10 "Who among you fears the LORD?
Who obeys the voice of His Servant?
Who [a]walks in darkness
And has no light?
[b]Let him trust in the name of the LORD
And rely upon his God.
11 Look, all you who kindle a fire,
Who encircle yourselves with sparks:
Walk in the light of your fire and in the sparks you have kindled—
[a]This you shall have from My hand:
You shall lie down [b]in torment.

The LORD Comforts Zion

51 "Listen to Me, [a]you who [1]follow after righteousness,
You who seek the LORD:
Look to the rock from which you were hewn,
And to the hole of the pit from which you were dug.
2 [a]Look to Abraham your father,
And to Sarah who bore you;
[b]For I called him alone,
And [c]blessed him and increased him."

3 For the LORD will [a]comfort Zion,
He will comfort all her waste places;
He will make her wilderness like Eden,
And her desert [b]like the garden of the LORD;
Joy and gladness will be found in it,
Thanksgiving and the voice of melody.

4 "Listen to Me, My people;
And give ear to Me, O My nation:
[a]For law will proceed from Me,
And I will make My justice rest
[b]As a light of the peoples.

50:4 Isaiah 50:4–9 is the third Servant Song.

50:6 Jesus' back was struck by His oppressors (Is. 42:2; 49:4; 53:12; Matt. 27:26; John 19:1). Jesus also had people spit upon His face (Matt. 27:30).

50:7 To set your face like flint indicated deep resolve. Jesus did this on His way to Calvary (Luke 9:51).

50:11 To "kindle a fire" indicated self reliance.

51:4 God's Servant will be a light to all people (Is. 42:6; 49:6; John 3:17–18).

51:5 God's salvation is always near (Is. 56:1; Zeph. 1:14; 1 Thess. 5:4–11; James 5:8).

[b]And My arms will judge the peoples;
[c]The coastlands will wait upon Me,
And [d]on My arm they will trust.
6 [a]Lift up your eyes to the heavens,
And look on the earth beneath.
For [b]the heavens will vanish away like smoke,
[c]The earth will grow old like a garment,
And those who dwell in it will die in like manner;
But My salvation will be [d]forever,
And My righteousness will not be [1]abolished.

7 "Listen to Me, you who know righteousness,
You people [a]in whose heart is My law:
[b]Do not fear the reproach of men,
Nor be afraid of their insults.
8 For [a]the moth will eat them up like a garment,
And the worm will eat them like wool;
But My righteousness will be forever,
And My salvation from generation to generation."

9 [a]Awake, awake, [b]put on strength,
O arm of the LORD!
Awake [c]as in the ancient days,
In the generations of old.
[d]Are You not the arm that cut [e]Rahab apart,
And wounded the [f]serpent?
10 Are You not the One who [a]dried up the sea,
The waters of the great deep;
That made the depths of the sea a road
For the redeemed to cross over?
11 So [a]the ransomed of the LORD shall return,
And come to Zion with singing,
With everlasting joy on their heads.
They shall obtain joy and gladness;
Sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

12 "I, even I, am He [a]who comforts you.
Who are you that you should be afraid
[b]Of a man who will die,
And of the son of a man who will be made [c]like grass?

God's Comfort

God's comfort is not a concept. His sustaining presence is real and it makes a difference in real life. Don't hold on to your fears; turn them over to the Lord.

You have feared continually every day
Because of the fury of the oppressor,
When he has prepared to destroy.
[c]And where is the fury of the oppressor?
14 The captive exile hastens, that he may be loosed,
[a]That he should not die in the pit,
And that his bread should not fail.
15 But I am the LORD your God,
Who [a]divided the sea whose waves roared—
The LORD of hosts is His name.
16 And [a]I have put My words in your mouth;
[b]I have covered you with the shadow of My hand,
[c]That I may [1]plant the heavens,
Lay the foundations of the earth,
And say to Zion, 'You are My people.' "

God's Fury Removed

17 [a]Awake, awake!
Stand up, O Jerusalem,
You who [b]have drunk at the hand of the LORD
The cup of His fury;
You have drunk the dregs of the cup of trembling,
And drained it out.
18 There is no one to guide her
Among all the sons she has brought forth;
Nor is there any who takes her by the hand
Among all the sons she has brought up.
19 [a]These two things have come to you;
Who will be sorry for you?—
Desolation and destruction, famine and sword—
[b]By whom will I comfort you?
20 [a]Your sons have fainted,
They lie at the head of all the streets,
Like an antelope in a net;

51:6 The "heavens and earth" represented the universe (Is. 13:13; 40:21, 22; 48:13; 51:13).

51:9 Rahab was a mythological sea monster who opposed God's work (Job 7:12; Ps. 74:13, 14). It could also symbolize Egypt and its defeat at God's hands (Is. 30:7).

51:17 "Awake, awake" is a double imperative, indicating urgency.

They are full of the fury of the LORD,
The rebuke of your God.

21 Therefore please hear this, you afflicted,
And drunk [a]but not with wine.
22 Thus says your Lord,
The LORD and your God,
Who [a]pleads the cause of His people:
"See, I have taken out of your hand
The cup of trembling,
The dregs of the cup of My fury;
You shall no longer drink it.
23 [a]But I will put it into the hand of those who afflict you,
Who have said to [1]you,
'Lie down, that we may walk over you.'
And you have laid your body like the ground,
And as the street, for those who walk over."

God Redeems Jerusalem

52 Awake, awake!
Put on your strength, O Zion;
Put on your beautiful garments,
O Jerusalem, the holy city!
For the uncircumcised [a]and the unclean
Shall no longer come to you.

ENCOUNTER Note Is. 52:1

Awake!

There are believers who are slumbering. God has promised to do so much in their lives, but they remain unconscious of it. God is at work all around them, but their eyes are closed to it.

2 [a]Shake yourself from the dust, arise;
Sit down, O Jerusalem!
[b]Loose yourself from the bonds of your neck,
O captive daughter of Zion!

3 For thus says the LORD:

[a]"You have sold yourselves for nothing,
And you shall be redeemed [b]without money."

4 For thus says the Lord GOD:

"My people went down at first
Into [a]Egypt to [1]dwell there;
Then the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.
5 Now therefore, what have I here," says the LORD,
"That My people are taken away for nothing?
Those who rule over them
[1]Make them wail," says the LORD,
"And My name is [a]blasphemed continually every day.
6 Therefore My people shall know My name;
Therefore they shall know in that day
That I am He who speaks:
'Behold, it is I.' "

7 [a]How beautiful upon the mountains
Are the feet of him who brings good news,
Who proclaims peace,
Who brings glad tidings of good things,
Who proclaims salvation,
Who says to Zion,
[b]"Your God reigns!"
8 Your watchmen shall lift up their voices,
With their voices they shall sing together;
For they shall see eye to eye
When the LORD brings back Zion.
9 Break forth into joy, sing together,
You waste places of Jerusalem!
For the LORD has comforted His people,
He has redeemed Jerusalem.
10 [a]The LORD has [1]made bare His holy arm
In the eyes of [b]all the nations;
And all the ends of the earth shall see
The salvation of our God.

11 [a]Depart! Depart! Go out from there,
Touch no unclean thing;
Go out from the midst of her,
[b]Be clean,
You who bear the vessels of the LORD.
12 For [a]you shall not go out with haste,
Nor go by flight;
[b]For the LORD will go before you,
[c]And the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

52:6 "Know my name" may allude to Exodus 3:13, 14; 6:2.

52:7 This verse portrays a messenger hurriedly leaving the scene of battle and running across the mountains to announce to his anxious city the good news of victory (2 Sam. 18:26).

52:10 "Laid bare His holy arm" indicated God uses history to demonstrate His awesome strength (Ex. 6:6; Is. 40:15; 51:9).

52:12 "Before" and "rear guard" referred to the cloud and pillar of fire that guided the Israelites (Ex. 13:21, 22; 14:19, 20; Is. 42:16; 49:10; 58:8).

52:13 This verse begins the fourth Servant Song (Is. 52:13—53:12).

WORD Study

SERVANT OF THE LORD

Is. 52:13 The designation "servant of the Lord" describes several prominent Old Testament figures, including Moses (more than thirty times) and David (more than seventy times). Here in the Book of Isaiah a series of passages describes the Servant of the Lord. Each Servant Song reveals a clearer picture of the nature and role of the Servant. In the first song (Is. 42:1–4) He is portrayed as bringing justice to the nations; He will bring delight to God; He will be gentle, and He will not grow discouraged. The second song (49:1–6) says the Servant will glorify God. He will not only bring God's people back to Him but He will also be a light to the Gentiles. In the third song (50:4–9) the Servant suffers greatly in His work. His enemies strike His back, pluck His beard and spit in His face. Yet the Servant will set His face like flint toward His task. In the final song (52:13—53:12) the Servant is graphically portrayed as a Suffering Servant. His visage will be marred. He will be despised and forsaken. He will suffer for the sins of His people, yet He will not utter a word in complaint. Through His work, the Servant will justify many. It becomes clear that no human servant can accomplish this task. It will be Jesus, the Messiah, who perfectly fulfills this prophecy.

[b]He shall be exalted and [2]extolled and be very high.
14 Just as many were astonished at you,
So His [a]visage[1] was marred more than any man,
And His form more than the sons of men;
15 [a]So shall He [1]sprinkle many nations.
Kings shall shut their mouths at Him;
For [b]what had not been told them they shall see,
And what they had not heard they shall consider.

53 Who [a]has believed our report?
And to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?
2 For He shall grow up before Him as a tender plant,
And as a root out of dry ground.
He has no [1]form or [2]comeliness;
And when we see Him,
There is no [3]beauty that we should desire Him.
3 [a]He is despised and [1]rejected by men,
A Man of [2]sorrows and [b]acquainted with [3]grief.
And we hid, as it were, our faces from Him;
He was despised, and [c]we did not esteem Him.

4 Surely [a]He has borne our [1]griefs
And carried our [2]sorrows;
Yet we [3]esteemed Him stricken,
[4]Smitten by God, and afflicted.
5 But He was [a]wounded[1] for our transgressions,
He was [2]bruised for our iniquities;
The chastisement for our peace was upon Him,
And by His [b]stripes[3] we are healed.
6 [a]All we like sheep have gone astray;
We have turned, every one, to his own way;
And the LORD [1]has laid on Him the iniquity of us all.

7 He was oppressed and He was afflicted,
Yet [a]He opened not His mouth;
[b]He was led as a lamb to the slaughter,
And as a sheep before its shearers is silent,
So He opened not His mouth.
8 He was [a]taken from [1]prison and from judgment,
And who will declare His generation?
For [b]He was cut off from the land of the living;
For the transgressions of My people He was stricken.

8 [a]Matt. 27:57–60; Luke 23:1–25; 1 Cor. 15:3 [b][Dan. 9:26] [1]confinement

52:14 "Visage was marred" indicated the Servant was so disfigured from His suffering that he was hardly recognizable as human.

53:1 "Who has believed" is a rhetorical question expecting a negative answer (John 12:38; Rom. 10:16).

53:2 "No form or comeliness" indicated the Servant did not have a regal bearing or anything notable about His physical appearance that would draw crowds to Him.

53:3 "Man of sorrows" does not mean the Servant was humorless but that He was keenly aware of the devastation caused by sin and the desperate condition of those separated from God.

53:4 "Smitten by God" indicates that the Romans were not the ultimate cause of Jesus' death; the heavenly Father was.

53:6 This is one way Isaiah described the nature and extent of sin. "All" have sinned (Rom. 3:23). Sin is going our own way and rejecting God's ways.

53:7 "Opened not His mouth" indicated Christ's serenity and His submission to His Father's will. He did not argue with, condemn, or revile those who were brutally murdering Him (Matt. 26:67, 68; 27:12–14; 1 Pet. 2:23).

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 53:8

Stricken

Christ suffered crucifixion for our sin. Our sin cost Him His life. The brutal and despicable horror of the cross is a poignant reminder of sin's ugliness.

9 [a]And [1]they made His grave with the wicked—
But with the rich at His death,
Because He had done no violence,
Nor was any [b]deceit in His mouth.

10 Yet it pleased the LORD to [1]bruise Him;
He has put Him to grief.
When You make His soul [a]an offering for sin,
He shall see His seed, He shall prolong His days,
And the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in His hand.
11 [1]He shall see the labor of His soul, and be satisfied.
By His knowledge [a]My righteous [b]Servant shall [c]justify many,
For He shall bear their iniquities.
12 [a]Therefore I will divide Him a portion with the great,
[b]And He shall divide the [1]spoil with the strong,
Because He [c]poured out His soul unto death,
And He was [d]numbered with the transgressors,
And He bore the sin of many,
And [e]made intercession for the transgressors.

A Perpetual Covenant of Peace

54 "Sing, O [a]barren,
You who have not borne!
Break forth into singing, and cry aloud,
You who have not labored with child!
For more are the children of the desolate
Than the children of the married woman," says the LORD.
2 "Enlarge[a] the place of your tent,
And let them stretch out the curtains of your dwellings;
Do not spare;
Lengthen your cords,
And strengthen your stakes.
3 For you shall expand to the right and to the left,
And your descendants will [a]inherit the nations,
And make the desolate cities inhabited.
4 "Do[a] not fear, for you will not be ashamed;
Neither be disgraced, for you will not be put to shame;
For you will forget the shame of your youth,
And will not remember the reproach of your widowhood anymore.

HISTORICAL*Encounter* WILLIAM CAREY Is. 54:2

William Carey was born August 17, 1761 in Paulers Pury, England. He earned a living as a cobbler but came to serve as a Baptist pastor for Harvey Lane Baptist Church in Leicester. Carey developed a deep compassion for people who had never heard the gospel. For several years he pored over the scriptures and studied world maps. He grew increasingly convicted about sharing the good news around the world. During a ministers' meeting Carey shared his belief with his fellow pastors. An older minister told him to sit down, for when God wanted to save those who were lost, God in His sovereignty would do so without their help. Eight years later, on May 31, 1792, Carey delivered a sermon at Nottingham based on Isaiah 54:2, 3, part of his favorite chapter in the Bible. He exhorted the people to "Expect Great Things from God, Attempt Great Things for God." At the close of the service, Carey urged Andrew Fuller, a highly respected minister, to lead the people in response. A Baptist Missions society was eventually formed and the modern mission movement was launched. When Carey sought God's guidance for his own involvement in missions, he came upon Isaiah 54:6, "For the Lord has called you." Carey did go to India as one of the society's first missionaries and inspired thousands of others over the next two centuries to carry the gospel around the world.

53:9 Jesus was crucified as if He were wicked, but His grave was that of a wealthy man (Matt. 27:57–60).

53:10 "It pleased the Lord" indicated God's desire to provide atonement for humanity's sins so they might receive eternal life.

54:1 Sarah, Abraham's wife, provided the precedent for this barren woman (Gen. 11:30; 16:1; Is. 51:2).

54:3 "Expand" alludes to Genesis 28:14.

54:4 "The shame of your youth" referred to the Israelites' iniquities which led to their suffering under the Egyptians and Assyrians (Is. 52:4; Jer. 31:19; Ezek. 16:1–6).

5 [a]For your Maker is your husband,
The LORD of hosts is His name;
And your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel;
He is called [b]the God of the whole earth.
6 For the LORD [a]has called you
Like a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit,
Like a youthful wife when you were refused,"
Says your God.
7 "For[a] a mere moment I have forsaken you,
But with great mercies [b]I will gather you.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 54:7

For a Moment

God will do what it takes to humble you and to bring you back to holy fellowship with Him. His desire is not to punish you but to bless you.

8 With a little wrath I hid My face from you for a moment;
[a]But with everlasting kindness I will have mercy on you,"
Says the LORD, your Redeemer.

9 "For this is like the waters of [a]Noah to Me;
For as I have sworn
That the waters of Noah would no longer cover the earth,
So have I sworn
That I would not be angry with [b]you, nor rebuke you.
10 For [a]the mountains shall depart
And the hills be removed,
[b]But My kindness shall not depart from you,
Nor shall My covenant of peace be removed,"
Says the LORD, who has mercy on you.

11 "O you afflicted one,
Tossed with tempest, and not comforted,
Behold, I will lay your stones with [a]colorful gems,
And lay your foundations with sapphires.
12 I will make your pinnacles of rubies,
Your gates of crystal,
And all your walls of precious stones.
13 All your children shall be [a]taught by the LORD,
And [b]great shall be the peace of your children.
14 In righteousness you shall be established;
You shall be far from oppression, for you shall not fear;
And from terror, for it shall not come near you.
15 Indeed they shall surely assemble, but not because of Me.
Whoever assembles against you shall [a]fall for your sake.

16 "Behold, I have created the blacksmith
Who blows the coals in the fire,
Who brings forth an [1]instrument for his work;
And I have created the [2]spoiler to destroy.
17 No weapon formed against you shall [a]prosper,
And every tongue which rises against you in judgment
You shall condemn.
This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD,
[b]And their righteousness is from Me," Says the LORD.

An Invitation to Abundant Life

55 "Ho! [a]Everyone who thirsts,
Come to the waters;
And you who have no money,
[b]Come, buy and eat.
Yes, come, buy wine and milk
Without money and without price.
2 Why do you [1]spend money for what is not bread,
And your wages for what does not satisfy?
Listen carefully to Me, and eat what is good,
And let your soul delight itself in abundance.
3 Incline your ear, and [a]come to Me.
Hear, and your soul shall live;
[b]And I will make an everlasting covenant with you—
The [c]sure mercies of David.
4 Indeed I have given him as [a]a witness to the people,
[b]A leader and commander for the people.
5 [a]Surely you shall call a nation you do not know,
[b]And nations who do not know you shall run to you,

54:11 This description is similar to that of the New Jerusalem in Revelation 21:18–21.

55:1 "Ho!" is an expression of pity. "Thirsts" expresses a longing for those things that satisfy spiritually (Ps. 42:1–2; 63:1; Is. 41:17; 44:3; Matt. 5:6). Waters reference the joy of salvation (John 4:10–14). "Without money" indicates that salvation is free and cannot be obtained except as God's gift (Deut. 8:3; Is. 52:3; Rom. 6:23).

Because of the LORD your God,
And the Holy One of Israel;
[c]For He has glorified you."

6 [a]Seek the LORD while He may be
[b]found,
Call upon Him while He is near.
7 [a]Let the [1]wicked forsake his way,
And the unrighteous man [b]his thoughts;
Let him return to the LORD,
[c]And He will have mercy on him;
And to our God,
For He will abundantly pardon.

8 "For[a] My thoughts are not your thoughts,
Nor are your ways My ways," says
the LORD.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 55:8

God's Thoughts

We should not try to reduce God's Word to a level that makes sense to us. Rather we should ask God to raise our thinking so we have His perspective on the world around us.

9 "For[a] as the heavens are higher than
the earth,
So are My ways higher than your
ways,
And My thoughts than your thoughts.

10 "For [a]as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven,
And do not return there,
But water the earth,
And make it bring forth and bud,
That it may give seed to the sower
And bread to the eater,
11 [a]So shall My word be that goes forth from My mouth;
It shall not return to Me [1]void,
But it shall accomplish what I please,
And it shall [b]prosper in the thing
for which I sent it.

12 "For[a] you shall go out with joy,
And be led out with peace;
The mountains and the hills
Shall [b]break forth into singing before you,
And [c]all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

Salvation for the Gentiles

56 Thus says the LORD:

"Keep justice, and do righteousness,
[a]For My salvation is about to come,
And My righteousness to be revealed.
2 Blessed is the man who does this,
And the son of man who lays hold on it;
[a]Who keeps from defiling the Sabbath,
And keeps his hand from doing any evil."

WORD*Study* SABBATH

Is. 56:2 "Sabbath" comes from the Hebrew word shabbat, and means "to cease" or "desist." Scripture says God "rested" on the seventh day of creation and thus instituted the Sabbath for His people (Gen. 2:1–3). God commanded people to keep the Sabbath holy and to rest on that day (Ex. 20:8–11). The prophets denounced God's people for not adhering to the Sabbath (Jer. 17:19–27; Ezek. 20:12, 20; 22:8, 26). Jesus worshipped in the synagogues on the Sabbath (Luke 4:16), but He was often criticized by religious authorities for not observing it as strictly as they did (Mark 2:23–28; 3:1–6; Luke 13:10–17, John 5:1–18). Jesus made it clear that the Sabbath was a time for rest and for spiritual renewal through devoting the day to God.

3 Do not let [a]the son of the foreigner
Who has joined himself to the LORD
Speak, saying,
"The LORD has utterly separated me
from His people";
Nor let the [b]eunuch say,
"Here I am, a dry tree."
4 For thus says the LORD:
"To the eunuchs who keep My Sabbaths,

1 [a]Matt. 3:2; 4:17
2 [a]Is. 58:13
3 [a][Eph. 2:12–19] [b]Acts 8:27

55:6 "Seek" does not allude to searching for something that is lost, but coming to something that is known.

55:10 God's Word is like rain in that both produce fruit.

55:12 "Go out" may refer to the Israelite's release from Babylon (Is. 48:20–21; 52:11, 12). It expresses the joy of experiencing God's salvation.

56:1 "My righteousness" is a synonym for "My salvation" (Is. 41:2; 45:8; 46:13; 51:6).

56:3 God made provision for foreigners to become His worshippers (Ex. 12:48, 49). Eunuchs had previously been excluded from worshipping God (Deut. 23:1).

And choose what pleases Me,
And hold fast My covenant,
5 Even to them I will give in [a]My house
And within My walls a place [b]and a name
Better than that of sons and daughters;
I will give [1]them an everlasting name
That shall not be cut off.

6 "Also the sons of the foreigner
Who join themselves to the LORD, to serve Him,
And to love the name of the LORD, to be His servants—
Everyone who keeps from defiling the Sabbath,
And holds fast My covenant—
7 Even them I will [a]bring to My holy mountain,
And make them joyful in My [b]house of prayer.
[c]Their burnt offerings and their sacrifices
Will be [d]accepted on My altar;
For [e]My house shall be called a house of prayer [f]for all nations."

ENCOUNTER Note — Is. 56:7

Prayer

God's house is a place for communing with Him. God does not seek our religious activity—He wants a personal relationship with His people. Busyness without prayer is meaningless.

8 The Lord GOD, [a]who gathers the outcasts of Israel, says,
[b]"Yet I will gather to him
Others besides those who are gathered to him."

Israel's Irresponsible Leaders

9 [a]All you beasts of the field, come to devour,
All you beasts in the forest.

Israel's Futile Idolatry

57 The righteous perishes,
And no man takes it to heart;
[a]Merciful men are taken away,
[b]While no one considers
That the righteous is taken away from [1]evil.

[a]You sons of the sorceress,
You offspring of the adulterer and the harlot!
4 Whom do you ridicule?
Against whom do you make a wide mouth
And stick out the tongue?
Are you not children of transgression,
Offspring of falsehood,
5 Inflaming yourselves with gods [a]under every green tree,
[b]Slaying the children in the valleys,
Under the clefts of the rocks?
6 Among the smooth [a]stones of the stream
Is your portion;

You have offered a grain offering.

56:9 The "beasts" were the ungodly nations who attacked God's people (Is. 18:6; Jer. 12:8, 9; Ezek. 34:5, 8, 25; 1 Cor. 15:32).

56:11 "Shepherds" represented rulers (Is. 40:11; Ezek. 34:1–6). "Watchmen" were alert to external dangers; shepherds were concerned with the flock itself.

57:2 "Peace" may refer to death for the righteous (Is. 3:10, 11; 53:5; Phil. 1:21–23).

57:3 "Adulterer" and "harlot" referred to the perverted Canaanite fertility religious practices.

57:5 "Green tree" referred to idolatrous fertility practices (1:29, 30; 1 Kin. 14:23; Jer. 2:20). "Slaying the children" referred to the worship of the god Molech (2 Kin. 23:10; Ps. 106:37, 38; Is. 30:33; Jer. 7:31).

57:7 A "high mountain" was where idolatry was commonly practiced (Jer. 3:6; Ezek. 16:16; Mic 1:3–5).

And have gone up to them;
You have enlarged your bed
And [1]made a covenant with them;
[a]You have loved their bed,
Where you saw their [2]nudity.
9 [a]You went to the king with ointment,
And increased your perfumes;
You sent your [b]messengers far off,
And even descended to Sheol.
10 You are wearied in the length of your way;
[a]Yet you did not say, 'There is no hope.'
You have found the life of your hand;
Therefore you were not grieved.

11 "And [a]of whom have you been afraid, or feared,
That you have lied
And not remembered Me,
Nor taken it to your heart?
Is it not because [b]I have [1]held My peace from of old
That you do not fear Me?
12 I will declare your righteousness
And your works,
For they will not profit you.
13 When you cry out,
Let your collection of idols deliver you.
But the wind will carry them all away,
A breath will take them.
But he who puts his trust in Me shall possess the land,
And shall inherit My holy mountain."

Healing for the Backslider

14 And one shall say,
[a]"Heap it up! Heap it up!
Prepare the way,
Take the stumbling block out of the way of My people."

15 For thus says the High and Lofty One Who inhabits eternity, [a]whose name is Holy:
[b]"I dwell in the high and holy place,
[c]With him who has a contrite and humble spirit,
[d]To revive the spirit of the humble,
And to revive the heart of the contrite ones.
16 [a]For I will not contend forever,
Nor will I always be angry;
For the spirit would fail before Me,
And the souls [b]which I have made.
17 For the iniquity of [a]his covetousness
I was angry and struck him;
[b]I hid and was angry,
[c]And he went on [1]backsliding in the way of his heart.
18 I have seen his ways, and [a]will heal him;
I will also lead him,
And restore comforts to him
And to [b]his mourners.

19 "I create [a]the fruit of the lips:
Peace, peace [b]to him who is far off and to him who is near,"
Says the LORD,
"And I will heal him."
20 [a]But the wicked are like the troubled sea,
When it cannot rest,
Whose waters cast up mire and dirt.

21 "There[a] is no peace,"
Says my God, "for the wicked."

Fasting that Pleases God

58 "Cry aloud, [1]spare not;
Lift up your voice like a trumpet;
[b]Tell My people their transgression,
And the house of Jacob their sins.
2 Yet they seek Me daily,
And delight to know My ways,
As a nation that did righteousness,
And did not forsake the ordinance of their God.
They ask of Me the ordinances of justice;
They take delight in approaching God.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 57:15

High and Holy

Almighty God, who rules the universe and judges humanity, is exalted and righteous. He chooses to dwell in the high and holy place. Where is that place? In the heavens? In celestial palaces? It is in every believer who has a contrite and humble heart. We are never more exalted than when we are humble.

57:9 "King" may refer to the idol Molech whose name meant "king" (1 Kin. 11:7).

57:14 This verse may allude to Isaiah 40:3 where every valley was filled in and every mountain made low, leaving no obstructions for those coming to the Lord.

57:19 The "fruit of the lips" may be the "sacrifice of praise" (Heb. 13:15).

58:3 The only fast the law commanded was on the Day of Atonement (Lev. 23:26–32). The Israelites also fasted during national crises (Jer. 36:9; Joel 1:14). Later they made fasting a regular ritual (Zech. 7:2, 3; 8:19; Luke 18:12). These people delighted in this religious rite while simultaneously abusing their laborers.

"In fact, in the day of your fast you find pleasure,
And [1]exploit all your laborers.
4 [a]Indeed you fast for strife and debate,
And to strike with the fist of wickedness.
You will not fast as you do this day,
To make your voice heard on high.
5 Is [a]it a fast that I have chosen,
[b]A day for a man to afflict his soul?
Is it to bow down his head like a bulrush,
And [c]to spread out sackcloth and ashes?
Would you call this a fast,
And an acceptable day to the LORD?
6 "Is this not the fast that I have chosen:
To [a]loose the bonds of wickedness,
[b]To undo the [1]heavy burdens,
[c]To let the oppressed go free,
And that you break every yoke?
7 Is it not [a]to share your bread with the hungry,
And that you bring to your house the poor who are [1]cast out;
[b]When you see the naked, that you cover him,
And not hide yourself from [c]your own flesh?
8 [a]Then your light shall break forth like the morning,
Your healing shall spring forth speedily,
And your righteousness shall go before you;
[b]The glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard.
9 Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer;
You shall cry, and He will say, 'Here I am.'

ENCOUNTER*Note* Is. 58:9

Then You Shall Cry

What pleases God? Songs of praise? A meticulous moral lifestyle? Faith in action pleases God. God promises to respond readily to those who have a heart for doing His will.

10 If you extend your soul to the hungry
And satisfy the afflicted soul,
Then your light shall dawn in the darkness,
And your [1]darkness shall be as the noonday.
11 The LORD will guide you continually,
And satisfy your soul in drought,
And strengthen your bones;
You shall be like a watered garden,
And like a spring of water, whose waters do not fail.
12 Those from among you
[a]Shall build the old waste places;
You shall raise up the foundations of many generations;
And you shall be called the Repairer of the Breach,
The Restorer of [1]Streets to Dwell In.

13 "If [a]you turn away your foot from the Sabbath,
From doing your pleasure on My holy day,
And call the Sabbath a delight,
The holy day of the LORD honorable,
And shall honor Him, not doing your own ways,
Nor finding your own pleasure,
Nor speaking your own words,
14 [a]Then you shall delight yourself in the LORD;
And I will cause you to [b]ride on the high hills of the earth,
And feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father.
[c]The mouth of the LORD has spoken."

Separated from God

59 Behold, the LORD's hand is not [d]shortened,
That it cannot save;
Nor His ear heavy,
That it cannot hear.
2 But your iniquities have separated you from your God;
And your sins have hidden His face from you,
So that He will [a]not hear.
3 For [a]your hands are defiled with [1]blood,
And your fingers with iniquity;
Your lips have spoken lies,
Your tongue has muttered perversity.

58:5 Bowing down "like a bulrush" signified humility (Is. 42:3).
58:6 The yoke alluded to social oppression.
58:13 "Doing your pleasure" may refer to doing business (Amos 8:5).
58:14 This blessing is based on the Song of Moses (Deut. 32:9, 13).

ENCOUNTER Note Is. 59:2

Separation

Sin alienates people from God. Why would God heed the prayers of those who refuse to repent of their sin? We cannot embrace sin and God at the same time. If we will not give up our sin, God will distance Himself from us.

4 No one calls for justice,
Nor does any plead for truth.
They trust in [a]empty words and speak lies;
[b]They conceive [1]evil and bring forth iniquity.
5 They hatch vipers' eggs and weave the spider's web;
He who eats of their eggs dies,
And from that which is crushed a viper breaks out.
6 [a]Their webs will not become garments,
Nor will they cover themselves with their works;
Their works are works of iniquity,
And the act of violence is in their hands.
7 [a]Their feet run to evil,
And they make haste to shed [b]innocent blood;
[c]Their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity;
Wasting and [d]destruction are in their paths.
8 The way of [a]peace they have not known,
And there is no justice in their ways;
[b]They have made themselves crooked paths;
Whoever takes that way shall not know peace.

Sin Confessed

9 Therefore justice is far from us,
Nor does righteousness overtake us;
[a]We look for light, but there is darkness!
For brightness, but we walk in blackness!
10 [a]We grope for the wall like the blind,
And we grope as if we had no eyes;
We stumble at noonday as at twilight;
We are as dead men in desolate places.
11 We all growl like bears,
And [a]moan sadly like doves;
We look for justice, but there is none;
For salvation, but it is far from us.
12 For our [a]transgressions are multiplied before You,
And our sins testify against us;
For our transgressions are with us,
And as for our iniquities, we know them:
13 In transgressing and lying against the LORD,
And departing from our God,
Speaking oppression and revolt,
Conceiving and uttering [a]from the heart words of falsehood.
14 Justice is turned back,
And righteousness stands afar off;
For truth is fallen in the street,
And equity cannot enter.
15 So truth fails,
And he who departs from evil makes himself a [a]prey.

The Redeemer of Zion

Then the LORD saw it, and [1]it displeased Him
That there was no justice.
16 [a]He saw that there was no man,
And [b]wondered that there was no intercessor;
[c]Therefore His own arm brought salvation for Him;
And His own righteousness, it sustained Him.
17 [a]For He put on righteousness as a breastplate,
And a helmet of salvation on His head;
He put on the garments of vengeance for clothing,
And was clad with zeal as a cloak.
18 [a]According to their deeds, accordingly He will repay,
Fury to His adversaries,
Recompense to His enemies;
The coastlands He will fully repay.
19 [a]So shall they fear
The name of the LORD from the west,
And His glory from the rising of the sun;
When the enemy comes in [b]like a flood,
The Spirit of the LORD will lift up a standard against him.
20 "The[a] Redeemer will come to Zion,
And to those who turn from transgression in Jacob,"
Says the LORD.

59:9 Light signifies salvation, and darkness represents judgment (Is. 9:2; 42:16; 58:8, 10; 60:1–3). Isaiah contrasted light and darkness, truth and falsehood as the apostle John did centuries later (John 1:4–9; 3:19–21; 8:12; 9:5; 12:35, 36).

59:16 "His own arm" portrayed God as a warrior (Is. 42:13; 49:24, 25; 51:9; 52:10).

59:17 See the Apostle Paul's description of spiritual armor (Eph. 6:14–17).

21 "As[a] for Me," says the LORD, "this is My covenant with them: My Spirit who is upon you, and My words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart from your mouth, nor from the mouth of your descendants, nor from the mouth of your descendants' descendants," says the LORD, "from this time and forevermore."

The Gentiles Bless Zion

60 Arise, [a]shine;
For your light has come!
And [b]the glory of the LORD is risen upon you.
2 For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth,
And deep darkness the people;
But the LORD will arise over you,
And His glory will be seen upon you.
3 The [a]Gentiles shall come to your light,
And kings to the brightness of your rising.

4 "Lift[a] up your eyes all around, and see:
They all gather together, [b]they come to you;
Your sons shall come from afar,
And your daughters shall be nursed at your side.
5 Then you shall see and become radiant,
And your heart shall swell with joy;
Because [a]the abundance of the sea shall be turned to you,
The wealth of the Gentiles shall come to you.
6 The multitude of camels shall cover your land,
The dromedaries of Midian and [a]Ephah;
All those from [b]Sheba shall come;
They shall bring [c]gold and incense,
And they shall proclaim the praises of the LORD.
7 All the flocks of [a]Kedar shall be gathered together to you,
The rams of Nebaioth shall minister to you;
They shall ascend with [b]acceptance on My altar,
And [c]I will glorify the house of My glory.

8 "Who are these who fly like a cloud,
And like doves to their roosts?
9 [a]Surely the coastlands shall wait for Me;
And the ships of Tarshish will come first,
[b]To bring your sons from afar,
[c]Their silver and their gold with them,
To the name of the LORD your God,
And to the Holy One of Israel,
[d]Because He has glorified you.

10 "The[a] sons of foreigners shall build up your walls,
[b]And their kings shall minister to you;
For [c]in My wrath I struck you,
[d]But in My favor I have had mercy on you.
11 Therefore your gates [a]shall be open continually;
They shall not be shut day or night,
That men may bring to you the wealth of the Gentiles,
And their kings in procession.
12 [a]For the nation and kingdom which will not serve you shall perish,
And those nations shall be utterly ruined.

13 "The[a] glory of Lebanon shall come to you,
The cypress, the pine, and the box tree together,
To beautify the place of My sanctuary;
And I will make [b]the place of My feet glorious.
14 Also the sons of those who afflicted you
Shall come [a]bowing to you,
And all those who despised you shall [b]fall prostrate at the soles of your feet;
And they shall call you The City of the LORD,
[c]Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

15 "Whereas you have been forsaken and hated,
So that no one went through you,
I will make you an eternal excellence,
A joy of many generations.
16 You shall drink the milk of the Gentiles,
[a]And milk the breast of kings;
You shall know that [b]I, the LORD, am your Savior
And your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

17 "Instead of bronze I will bring gold,
Instead of iron I will bring silver,

60:1 God's people are to receive God's light and reflect it.

60:6 "Dromedaries" are camels. Midian was famous for its caravans (Gen. 37:28, 36). Ephah was one of Midian's sons (Gen. 25:4). Sheba was known for its wealth.

60:11 Isaiah prophesied that Zion's gates would be open continually, symbolizing its safety. They will remain open to admit a constant stream of wealth.

60:13 "The place of my feet" was the Ark of the Covenant in the Most Holy Place (1 Chr. 28:2).

Instead of wood, bronze,
And instead of stones, iron.
I will also make your officers peace,
And your magistrates
righteousness.
18 Violence shall no longer be heard in your land,
Neither [1]wasting nor destruction
within your borders;
But you shall call [a]your walls
Salvation,
And your gates Praise.

God the Glory of His People

19 "The [a]sun shall no longer be your light by day,
Nor for brightness shall the moon
give light to you;
But the LORD will be to you an everlasting light,
And [b]your God your glory.

ENCOUNTER Note Is. 60:19

Everlasting Light

God sheds light on our lives. We cannot see ourselves as we are unless He shines upon us. We cannot see where we are going unless He illuminates our way.

20 [a]Your sun shall no longer go down,
Nor shall your moon withdraw itself;
For the LORD will be your
everlasting light,
And the days of your mourning
shall be ended.
21 [a]Also your people shall all be
righteous;
[b]They shall inherit the land forever,
[c]The branch of My planting,
[d]The work of My hands,
That I may be glorified.
22 [a]A little one shall become a thousand,
And a small one a strong nation.
I, the LORD, will hasten it in its time."

The Good News of Salvation

61 "The [a]Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon Me,
Because the LORD [b]has anointed
Me
To preach good tidings to the poor;
He has sent Me [c]to [1]heal the
brokenhearted,
To proclaim [d]liberty to the captives,
And the opening of the prison to those who are bound;
2 [a]To proclaim the acceptable year of
the LORD,
And [b]the day of vengeance of our
God;
[c]To comfort all who mourn,
3 To [1]console those who mourn in
Zion,
[a]To give them beauty for ashes,
The oil of joy for mourning,
The garment of praise for the spirit
of heaviness;
That they may be called trees of
righteousness,
[b]The planting of the LORD, [c]that He may be glorified."

4 And they shall [a]rebuild the old
ruins,
They shall raise up the former
desolations,
And they shall repair the ruined cities,
The desolations of many
generations.
5 [a]Strangers shall stand and feed your flocks,
And the sons of the foreigner
Shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers.
6 [a]But you shall be named the priests of the LORD,
They shall call you the servants of our God.
[b]You shall eat the riches of the Gentiles,
And in their glory you shall boast.
7 [a]Instead of your shame you shall have double honor,
And instead of confusion they shall rejoice in their portion.
Therefore in their land they shall possess double;
Everlasting joy shall be theirs.

8 "For [a]I, the LORD, love justice;
[b]I hate robbery [1]for burnt offering;
I will direct their work in truth,
[c]And will make with them an everlasting covenant.
9 Their descendants shall be known among the Gentiles,
And their offspring among the people.

the LORD has blessed."

60:18 The defense of the new Zion will be God's salvation and the people's praise (Zech. 2:4, 5).

61:1 The term "Me" refers to the same person as in previous Servant Songs (Is. 42:1; 49:1; 50:4; 52:13).

61:3 A gracious host would pour oil on a guest (Ps. 23:5; 45:7; Luke 7:46). The "garment" described a wrap that completely covered the body. This described the total transformation of a person.

61:6 God intended for all of His people to be priests (Ex. 19:6).

61:7 Joy is a distinguishing mark of God's salvation (Is. 35:10; 51:11; 60:19, 20).

10 [a]I will greatly rejoice in the LORD,
My soul shall be joyful in my God;
For [b]He has clothed me with the garments of salvation,
He has covered me with the robe of righteousness,
[c]As a bridegroom decks himself with ornaments,
And as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

ENCOUNTER Note Is. 61:10

Joyful in God

Irrepressible joy comes from knowing God. The closer you walk with Him, the more joyful your soul becomes. Joy is not found apart from God; it is found in God.

11 For as the earth brings forth its bud,
As the garden causes the things that are sown in it to spring forth,
So the Lord GOD will cause
[a]righteousness and [b]praise to spring forth before all the nations.

Assurance of Zion's Salvation

62 For Zion's sake I will not [1]hold My peace,
And for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest,
Until her righteousness goes forth as brightness,
And her salvation as a lamp that burns.
2 [a]The Gentiles shall see your righteousness,
And all [b]kings your glory.
[c]You shall be called by a new name,
Which the mouth of the LORD will name.
3 You shall also be [a]a crown of glory
In the hand of the LORD,
And a royal diadem
In the hand of your God.
4 [a]You shall no longer be termed
[b]Forsaken,[1]
Nor shall your land any more be termed [c]Desolate;[2]
But you shall be called [3]Hephzibah, and your land [4]Beulah;
For the LORD delights in you,
And your land shall be married.
5 For as a young man marries a virgin,
So shall your sons marry you;
And as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride,
[a]So shall your God rejoice over you.

ENCOUNTER Note Is. 62:4

Delighted

Almighty God takes pleasure in you. He delights in His fellowship with you and the glory you bring Him. Although God needs nothing, He is pleased to receive your obedience, your worship and your praise.

6 [a]I have set watchmen on your walls, O Jerusalem;
They shall [1]never hold their peace day or night.
You who [2]make mention of the LORD, do not keep silent,
7 And give Him no rest till He establishes
And till He makes Jerusalem [a]a praise in the earth.

8 The LORD has sworn by His right hand
And by the arm of His strength:
"Surely I will no longer [a]give your grain
As food for your enemies;
And the sons of the foreigner shall not drink your new wine,
For which you have labored.
9 But those who have gathered it shall eat it,
And praise the LORD;
Those who have brought it together shall drink it [a]in My holy courts."

10 Go through,
Go through the gates!
[a]Prepare the way for the people;
Build up,
Build up the highway!
Take out the stones,
[b]Lift up a banner for the peoples!

11 Indeed the LORD has proclaimed
To the end of the world:
[a]"Say to the daughter of Zion,
'Surely your salvation is coming;
Behold, His [b]reward is with Him,
And His [1]work before Him.' "
12 And they shall call them The Holy People,
The Redeemed of the LORD;
And you shall be called Sought Out,
A City Not Forsaken.

62:2 A new name signified new status (Gen. 17:5, 15; 32:28; Rev. 2:17).

62:4 "Forsaken" stands for Jerusalem (Is. 54:6; 60:15). King Manasseh's mother was named Hephzibah (2 Kin. 21:1).

62:9 "In My holy courts" indicated God's intention for the temple to be rebuilt after the Babylonians demolished it (Lev. 23:39, 40; Deut. 12:17, 18; 14:22–27; 16:9–17).

The LORD in Judgment and Salvation

63 Who is this who comes from Edom,
With dyed garments from Bozrah,
This One who is [1]glorious in His apparel,
Traveling in the greatness of His strength?—
"I who speak in righteousness, mighty to save."

2 Why [a]is Your apparel red,
And Your garments like one who treads in the winepress?

3 "I have [a]trodden the winepress alone,
And from the peoples no one was with Me.
For I have trodden them in My anger,
And trampled them in My fury;
Their blood is sprinkled upon My garments,
And I have stained all My robes.
4 For the [a]day of vengeance is in My heart,
And the year of My redeemed has come.
5 [a]I looked, but [b]there was no one to help,
And I wondered
That there was no one to uphold;
Therefore My own [c]arm brought salvation for Me;
And My own fury, it sustained Me.
6 I have trodden down the peoples in My anger,
Made them drunk in My fury,
And brought down their strength to the earth."

God's Mercy Remembered

7 I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the LORD
And the praises of the LORD,
According to all that the LORD has bestowed on us,
And the great goodness toward the house of Israel,
Which He has bestowed on them according to His mercies,
According to the multitude of His lovingkindnesses.
8 For He said, "Surely they are My people,
Children who will not lie."
So He became their Savior.
9 [a]In all their affliction He was [1]afflicted,
[b]And the Angel of His Presence saved them;
[c]In His love and in His pity He redeemed them;
And [d]He bore them and carried them
All the days of old.
10 But they [a]rebelled and [b]grieved His Holy Spirit;
[c]So He turned Himself against them as an enemy,
And He fought against them.

11 Then he [a]remembered the days of old,
Moses and his people, saying:
"Where is He who [b]brought them up out of the sea
With the [1]shepherd of His flock?
[c]Where is He who put His Holy Spirit within them,
12 Who led them by the right hand of Moses,
[a]With His glorious arm,
[b]Dividing the water before them
To make for Himself an everlasting name,
13 [a]Who led them through the deep,
As a horse in the wilderness,
That they might not stumble?"

14 As a beast goes down into the valley,
And the Spirit of the LORD causes him to rest,
So You lead Your people,
[a]To make Yourself a glorious name.

ENCOUNTER Note Is. 63:14

God Leads

God guides His people not to make them successful but to bring glory to His name. When His people obediently follow His leading, God accomplishes His purposes through them, and other people turn to Him as well.

A Prayer of Penitence

15 [a]Look down from heaven,
And see [b]from Your habitation, holy and glorious.
Where are Your zeal and Your strength,
The yearning [c]of Your heart and Your mercies toward me?
Are they restrained?
16 [a]Doubtless You are our Father,

63:1 Edom symbolized Israel's traditional enemies (Ps. 137:7; Lam 4:21, 22; Ezek. 25:12; 35:1–15; Obad 13, 14). Bozrah was a major city in Edom (Is. 34:6; Jer. 49:13).

63:2 The apparel is red from blood stains.

63:4 "Year of My redeemed" may allude to the redemption of slaves and property (Lev. 25; Is. 61:2).

63:9 "Bore them" and "carried them" referred to Exodus 19:4.

63:12 "Dividing the water" referred to parting the Red Sea (Ex. 14:16, 21).

Though Abraham [b]was ignorant of us,
And Israel does not acknowledge us.
You, O LORD, are our Father;
Our Redeemer from Everlasting is Your name.
17 O LORD, why have You [a]made us stray from Your ways,
And hardened our heart from Your fear?
Return for Your servants' sake,
The tribes of Your inheritance.
18 [a]Your holy people have possessed it but a little while;
[b]Our adversaries have trodden down Your sanctuary.
19 We have become like those of old, over whom You never ruled,
Those who were never called by Your name.

64 Oh, that You would [1]rend the heavens!
That You would come down!
That the mountains might shake at Your [a]presence—
2 As fire burns brushwood,
As fire causes water to boil—
To make Your name known to Your adversaries,
That the nations may tremble at Your presence!
3 When [a]You did awesome things for which we did not look,
You came down,
The mountains shook at Your presence.
4 For since the beginning of the world
[a]Men have not heard nor perceived by the ear,
Nor has the eye seen any God besides You,
Who acts for the one who waits for Him.
5 You meet him who rejoices and does righteousness,
Who remembers You in Your ways.
You are indeed angry, for we have sinned—
[a]In these ways we continue;
And we need to be saved.
6 But we are all like an unclean thing,
And all [a]our righteousnesses are like [1]filthy rags;
We all [b]fade as a leaf,
And our iniquities, like the wind,
Have taken us away.
7 And there is no one who calls on Your name,
Who stirs himself up to take hold of You;
For You have hidden Your face from us,
And have [1]consumed us because of our iniquities.
8 But now, O LORD,
You are our Father;
We are the clay, and You our [a]potter;
And all we are the work of Your hand.
9 Do not be furious, O LORD,
Nor remember iniquity forever;
Indeed, please look—we all are Your people!
10 Your holy cities are a wilderness,
Zion is a wilderness,
Jerusalem a desolation.
11 Our holy and beautiful [1]temple,
Where our fathers praised You,
Is burned up with fire;
And all [a]our pleasant things [2]are laid waste.
12 [a]Will You restrain Yourself because of these things, O LORD?
[b]Will You [1]hold Your peace, and afflict us very severely?

ENCOUNTER Note Is. 64:4

Waiting

God acts in His way and in His time. We do not instruct Him on what we think He should do. We wait upon Him and submit to the way He chooses to work. If we have not seen God working powerfully around us, perhaps we have not been humbly and faithfully waiting for Him to act.

63:16 God as Father to His people was a concept generally understood in Old Testament times. However, this is one of the few direct Old Testament references to Him as a Father.

64:1 This reference may allude to the time God descended upon Mount Sinai in a terrifying display of His powerful presence (Ex. 19:16–18). God's people long for Him to demonstrate His might in their midst.

64:2 Fire often symbolized God's presence (Ex. 19:18; Is. 10:17; 31:9; Heb. 12:18).

64:7 "Hidden Your face" does not mean God was in literal hiding, but that He was unwilling to allow sinful people to enjoy His holy presence.

65:1 "I was sought" literally means "I allowed myself to be sought." A "nation that was not called by My name" included the Gentiles (42:1; 49:6, 22; 52:15).

65:2 God stretching out His hands "all day long" to a people who provoked Him to His face reflected God's infinite, merciful, patient love for His wayward people.

2 [a]I have stretched out My hands all day long to a [b]rebellious people,
Who [c]walk in a way that is not
good,
According to their own thoughts;
3 A people [a]who provoke Me to anger continually to My face;
[b]Who sacrifice in gardens,
And burn incense on altars of brick;
4 [a]Who sit among the graves,
And spend the night in the tombs;
[b]Who eat swine's flesh,
And the broth of [1]abominable things is in their vessels;
5 [a]Who say, 'Keep to yourself,
Do not come near me,
For I am holier than you!'
These [1]are smoke in My nostrils,
A fire that burns all the day.

6 "Behold, [a]it is written before Me:
[b]I will not keep silence, [c]but will repay—
Even repay into their bosom—
7 Your iniquities and [a]the iniquities of your fathers together,"
Says the LORD,
[b]"Who have burned incense on the mountains
[c]And blasphemed Me on the hills;
Therefore I will measure their former work into their bosom."

8 Thus says the LORD:

"As the new wine is found in the cluster,
And one says, 'Do not destroy it,
For [a]a blessing is in it,'
So will I do for My servants' sake,
That I may not destroy them [b]all.
9 I will bring forth descendants from
Jacob,
And from Judah an heir of My
mountains;
My [a]elect shall inherit it,
And My servants shall dwell there.
10 [a]Sharon shall be a fold of flocks,
And [b]the Valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down,
For My people who have [c]sought Me.

11 "But you are those who forsake the
LORD,
Who forget [a]My holy mountain,
Who prepare [b]a table for [1]Gad,
And who furnish a drink offering for [2]Meni.
12 Therefore I will number you for the
sword,
And you shall all bow down to the slaughter;
[a]Because, when I called, you did not answer;
When I spoke, you did not hear,
But did evil before My eyes,
And chose that in which I do not delight."

Unhearing

If you are not hearing God's voice, it may not be that He is silent. It may be that your sin has deafened you to His voice.

13 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

"Behold, My servants shall eat,
But you shall be hungry;
Behold, My servants shall drink,
But you shall be thirsty;
Behold, My servants shall rejoice,
But you shall be ashamed;
14 Behold, My servants shall sing for joy of heart,
But you shall cry for sorrow of
heart,
And [a]wail for [1]grief of spirit.
15 You shall leave your name [a]as a curse to [b]My chosen;
For the Lord GOD will slay you,
And [c]call His servants by another
name;
16 [a]So that he who blesses himself in
the earth
Shall bless himself in the God of
truth;
And [b]he who swears in the earth
Shall swear by the God of truth;
Because the former troubles are
forgotten,
And because they are hidden from
My eyes.

The Glorious New Creation

17 "For behold, I create [a]new heavens and a new earth;

65:3 "Brick" may refer to the Babylonian practice of offering sacrifices to the "host of heaven" on the brick or tile roofs of their houses (2 Kin. 23:12; Jer. 19:13; Zeph. 1:5).

65:4 Eating "swine's flesh" was explicitly condemned in the Mosaic Law (Lev. 11:7; Deut. 14:8; Is. 66:17).

65:5 "I am holier than you" reflected the appalling spiritual blindness of God's people. Although their practices were abominable to God, they actually took pride in their sanctified lives.

65:9 An "heir" designated the Messiah (Gen. 49:10; Matt. 21:38; Gal. 3:26–29).

65:10 Sharon was on the west coastal plain (1 Chr. 5:16; 27:29). The Valley of Achor was to the east near Jericho (Josh. 7:24–26). These regions represented the totality of the land.

65:11 Gad was a Syrian god of good luck. Meni was the god of fate.

65:15 "By another name" signified that God would do a new work in His people's lives. Calling them by another name meant God would change their nature and give them a fresh beginning.

And the former shall not be remembered or [1]come to mind.
18 But be glad and rejoice forever in what I create;
For behold, I create Jerusalem as a rejoicing,
And her people a joy.
19 [a]I will rejoice in Jerusalem,
And joy in My people;
The [b]voice of weeping shall no longer be heard in her,
Nor the voice of crying.

20 "No more shall an infant from there live but a few days,
Nor an old man who has not fulfilled his days;
For the child shall die one hundred years old,
[a]But the sinner being one hundred years old shall be accursed.
21 [a]They shall build houses and inhabit
them;
They shall plant vineyards and eat
their fruit.
22 They shall not build and another inhabit;
They shall not plant and [a]another eat;
For [b]as the days of a tree, so shall be the days of My people,
And [c]My elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.
23 They shall not labor in vain,
[a]Nor bring forth children for trouble;
For [b]they shall be the descendants of the blessed of the LORD,
And their offspring with them.

24 "It shall come to pass
That [a]before they call, I will answer;
And while they are still speaking, I will [b]hear.
25 The [a]wolf and the lamb shall feed
together,
The lion shall eat straw like the ox,
[b]And dust shall be the serpent's food.
They shall not hurt nor destroy in all My holy mountain,"
Says the LORD.

True Worship and False

66 Thus says the LORD:

[a]"Heaven is My throne,
And earth is My footstool.
Where is the house that you will build Me?
And where is the place of My rest?
2 For all those things My hand has made,
And all those things exist,"
Says the LORD.
[a]"But on this one will I look:
[b]On him who is poor and of a contrite spirit,
And who trembles at My word.

ENCOUNTER Note Is. 66:2

Trembling at God's Word

Trembling is the instinctive response of those who clearly understand the magnitude of a word from God. Such people hear from God and give Him the reverence that is due Him.

3 "He[a] who kills a bull is as if he slays
a man;
He who sacrifices a lamb, as if he [b]breaks a dog's neck;
He who offers a grain offering, as if he offers swine's blood;
He who burns incense, as if he blesses an idol.
Just as they have chosen their own
ways,
And their soul delights in their abominations,
4 So will I choose their delusions,
And bring their fears on them;
[a]Because, when I called, no one answered,
When I spoke they did not hear;
But they did evil before My eyes,
And chose that in which I do not delight."

The LORD Vindicates Zion

5 Hear the word of the LORD,
You who tremble at His word:
"Your brethren who [a]hated you,
Who cast you out for My name's sake, said,
[b]'Let the LORD be glorified,
That [c]we may see your joy.'
But they shall be ashamed."

6 The sound of noise from the city!
A voice from the temple!
The voice of the LORD,
Who fully repays His enemies!

7 "Before she was in labor, she gave birth;

65:20 "One hundred years old" may refer to the period before Noah's flood when a life span was much longer (Gen. 5). God promised to remove the effects of sin's curse and to give health and prosperity to His people.

65:24 "Before they call I will answer" indicates an intimate, unhindered walk with God in which He answers prayers before they are even voiced.

66:1 God's footstool was once the Ark of the Covenant (1 Chr. 28:2; Ps. 99:5; 132:7; Is. 60:13), but now it is the whole earth.

66:3 "Breaks a dog's neck" may refer to a pagan ritual. Dogs were despised by Jewish people as unclean scavengers.

Before her pain came,
She delivered a male child.
8 Who has heard such a thing?
Who has seen such things?
Shall the earth be made to give birth in one day?
Or shall a nation be born at once?
For as soon as Zion was in labor,
She gave birth to her children.
9 Shall I bring to the time of birth, and not cause delivery?" says the LORD.
"Shall I who cause delivery shut up the womb?" says your God.
10 "Rejoice with Jerusalem,
And be glad with her, all you who love her;
Rejoice for joy with her, all you who mourn for her;
11 That you may feed and be satisfied
With the consolation of her bosom,
That you may drink deeply and be delighted
With the abundance of her glory."

12 For thus says the LORD:

"Behold, [a]I will extend peace to her like a river,
And the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream.
Then you shall [b]feed;
On her sides shall you be [c]carried,
And be dandled on her knees.
13 As one whom his mother comforts,
So I will [a]comfort you;
And you shall be comforted in Jerusalem."

The Reign and Indignation of God

14 When you see this, your heart shall rejoice,
And [a]your bones shall flourish like grass;
The hand of the LORD shall be known to His servants,
And His indignation to His enemies.
15 [a]For behold, the LORD will come with fire
And with His chariots, like a whirlwind,
To render His anger with fury,
And His rebuke with flames of fire.
16 For by fire and by [a]His sword
The LORD will judge all flesh;
And the slain of the LORD shall be [b]many.

18 "For I know their works and their [a]thoughts. It shall be that I will [b]gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come and see My glory.
19 [a]"I will set a sign among them; and those among them who escape I will send to the nations: to Tarshish and [1]Pul and Lud, who draw the bow, and Tubal and Javan, to the coastlands afar off who have not heard My fame nor seen My glory. WORD*Study* GENTILES

Is. 66:19 The term "Gentiles" comes from the Hebrew word, goyim and the Greek word ethnoi. It can be translated as "nations" and could refer to a particular country or to a certain ethnic group. Theologically Gentiles were people not chosen by God. Such people were not part of the covenant God made with Abraham or followers of the law God gave to Moses (Ex. 19:6; Lev. 19:2). The Mosaic Law forbade God's people from intermarrying and associating with Gentiles (Deut. 7:3, 6, 16). Due to the suffering other nations inflicted on Israel, Jewish people often expressed contempt and hatred for the pagan nations (Ps. 9; 59; 137). Yet God always planned for His chosen people to bless the nations of the earth (Gen. 12:3; Ps. 86:9; 102:15–17; Is. 2:2–4; 49:6; Zeph. 3:9, 10). The Israelites assumed certain Gentiles would recognize their God as the only true God and would choose to worship Him. This was what the court of the Gentiles was for in Solomon's temple. Yet God's people did not understand their missionary call until Jesus' resurrection (Matt. 28:19). The prophet Isaiah made it clear God intended for His people to be a light to the Gentiles.

66:9 God promised He would finish what He began (Is. 55:10, 11; Phil. 1:6).

66:14 "Heart" and "bones" symbolized the emotional and spiritual as well as the physical, encompassing the whole person.

66:18 God not only knows our actions but He also knows our secret thoughts. This enables Him to judge each person perfectly and thoroughly. God's glory refers to His presence (Ezek. 11:22, 23; 44:4).

66:19 Tarshish may be Tartessos in Spain. Pul and Lud may be Lybians and Lydians. Tubal was north of Israel. Javan may refer to Greece.

20 “Then they shall [a]bring all your brethren [b]for an offering to the LORD out of all nations, on horses and in char-iots and in litters, on mules and on camels, to My holy mountain Jerusalem,” says the LORD, “as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD.
21 “And I will also take some of them for [a]priests and Levites,” says the LORD.

name remain.
23 And [a]it shall come to pass
That from one New Moon to another,
And from one Sabbath to another,
[b]All flesh shall come to worship
before Me,” says the LORD.

24 “And they shall go forth and look
Upon the corpses of the men
Who have transgressed against Me.
For their [a]worm does not die,
And their fire is not quenched.
They shall be an abhorrence to all flesh.”

66:23 “From one New Moon to another” meant forever.
66:24 This graphic passage referred to the Valley of Hinnom, Jerusalem’s dumping ground where rubbish and unclean corpses were cast and burned. The fires smoldered continuously (Mark 9:44, 46, 48). Isaiah’s final word is a dire warning to those who do not heed God’s word.

THE BOOK OF JEREMIAH

INTRODUCTION

The first edition of Jeremiah was dictated to Baruch, a scribe, in the fourth year of King Jehoiakim (609–598 B.C.). The king had it burned section by section (Jer. 36:23). Jeremiah then dictated it a second time in expanded form to Baruch (36:32). The Book of Jeremiah, the second longest book in the Bible, includes a description of Jerusalem's fall (587 B.C.) and the insurrection against Gedaliah, indicating the book was completed during the period of the Babylonian exile. Jeremiah is known as the "weeping prophet." He was the quintessential prophet. His ministry spanned more than forty years. Jeremiah served as a God's spokesman during the reigns of Josiah, Jehoiakim, Jehoiachin and Zedekiah. He continued in God's service after Jerusalem's fall under the governorship of Gedaliah and then with the Judean exiles who fled to Egypt. During his ministry, Jeremiah suffered greatly for his service to his Lord. He and his message were often rejected and scorned by those in power. Yet his prophetic book is filled with powerful messages from God that still challenge God's people today.

SIGNIFICANCE

Jeremiah faced spiritual and emotional dilemmas as he obeyed God in the face of overwhelming opposition. His heart broke over the sins of his people and the dire circumstances he often endured. As a man of God, Jeremiah was constantly at odds with the authorities, both political and religious. King Jehoiakim was so incensed at Jeremiah that he burned Jeremiah's scroll piece by piece as each section was read publicly. Jeremiah is a study in contrasts. Those he loved hated him. Despite his loyal patriotism he was branded a traitor. He prophesied judgment upon Judah and Jerusalem as well as hope and salvation. He sang praises to God, yet complained about the miserable conditions of his role as prophet. He uttered biting warnings against the rulers, yet they still sought his advice. In many ways this weeping prophet is a tragic figure, yet his honesty, his persistent obedience, and his clear love and reverence for God prove him to be one of the most notable prophets in the Bible.

STRUCTURE OF THE BOOK

Jeremiah can be outlined as follows:

Jeremiah's Call and First Visions (1:1–19)
Prophecies and Visions of a General Nature (2:1—20:18)
Prophecies to Judah and the Nations (21:1—25:38)
False Prophets (26:1—29:32)
Words of Hope (30:1—33:26)
Fall of Jerusalem, 605 B.C. (34:1—39:18)
Events After Jerusalem's Fall (40:1—45:5)
Prophecies Against Foreign Nations (46:1—51:64)
Prophecies Regarding History (52:1–34)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH JEREMIAH

God is deeply grieved when both temporal and spiritual leaders misrepresent Him to His people. The monarchy, the priests, the prophets, and the worship leaders had all strayed from God, incurring His imminent judgment. Though God is slow to anger, compassionate and gracious, He will not tolerate willful rebellion and sin among His people. His judgment is sure, effective, and devastating. For the sake of His name, retribution will come unless there is repentance, humility, and a whole-hearted seeking after righteousness. Jeremiah's life reminds us that God sometimes calls us to take a difficult stand. He works through His servants to expose sin among His people, calling them to repentance and a renewed commitment to righteousness. God's messengers are not permitted to choose their message or the people to whom they are sent. Their only choice is to obey God's call. Sometimes, as in Jeremiah's case, messengers must suffer persecution at the hands of those they are called to warn. Jeremiah felt the pain of rejection, the agony of his people's suffering, and the anguish of experiencing God's judgment. Yet he also knew the joy of being called to represent almighty God to his people. The Book of Jeremiah proves that God is looking for more than outward reform, as in King Josiah's case; He desires the reformation of our hearts. Outward modifications without inward transformation are cosmetic actions that do not bring lasting change.

CHAPTER 1

THE words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests who were [a]in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin,
2 to whom the word of the LORD came in the days of [a]Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, [b]in the thirteenth year of his reign.
3 It came also in the days of [a]Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, [b]until the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah, king of Judah, [c]until the carrying away of Jerusalem captive [d]in the fifth month.

The Prophet Is Called

4 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

5 "Before I [a]formed you in the womb
[b]I knew you;
Before you were born I [c]sanctified[1] you;
I [2]ordained you a prophet to the nations."

6 Then said I:

[a]"Ah, Lord GOD!
Behold, I cannot speak, for I am a youth."

7 But the LORD said to me:

"Do not say, 'I am a youth,'
For you shall go to all to whom I send you,
And [a]whatever I command you, you shall speak.
8 [a]Do not be afraid of their faces,
For [b]I am with you to deliver you,"
says the LORD.

9 Then the LORD put forth His hand and [a]touched my mouth, and the LORD said to me:

"Behold, I have [b]put My words in your mouth.
10 [a]See, I have this day set you over the nations and over the kingdoms,
To [b]root out and to pull down,
To destroy and to throw down,
To build and to plant."

11 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, "Jeremiah, what do you see?" And I said, "I see a [1]branch of an almond tree."
12 Then the LORD said to me, "You have seen well, for I am [1]ready to perform My word."
13 And the word of the LORD came to me the second time, saying, "What do you see?" And I said, "I see [a]a boiling

CHARACTER Study — JEREMIAH — Jer. 1:1

Jeremiah, whose name may mean "The Lord Exalts" or "The Lord Establishes," spent most of his life as a prophet. His father was Hilkiah, a priest in the town of Anathoth, located three miles from Jerusalem in the region of Benjamin. We are not told if Jeremiah ever served as a priest. Jeremiah's divine call came in the thirteenth year of King Josiah (627 B.C.). Jeremiah was probably under twenty when God called him, for he was not yet married. God commanded him to remain single—a solitary prophet (16:2). Although God called Jeremiah as a young man, He had planned since Jeremiah's conception to use him as His messenger (1:4, 5). Such assurance would sustain the lonely prophet over the forty-year span when the people rejected his message. Jeremiah served under Kings Josiah, Jehoahaz, Jehoiakim, Jehoiachin until the final downfall of King Zedekiah (1:2). The prophet suffered numerous indignities and merciless ridicule for his service to God (36:20–26; 38:6). Ultimately, God vindicated Jeremiah's message by keeping His word. Jeremiah witnessed the horrific devastation of Jerusalem under God's judgment. His sorrow over his people led to his designation as the "weeping prophet." Jeremiah was forcibly taken to Egypt by his rebellious countrymen (Jer. 43), and Scripture tells us no more about him.

1:1 Anathoth was located three miles northeast of Jerusalem. This was where King Solomon banished the priest Abiathar for his traitorous support of Adonijah's attempt to usurp Solomon's throne (1 Kin. 1:7; 2:26, 27).

1:5 "Formed" is the same word used to describe God's work in creation (Gen. 2:7).

1:10 Jeremiah's twofold ministry was first to bring people down to repentance and then to build them up with God's blessing.

pot, and it is facing away from the north."

A Second Time

The way we respond to God is crucial. If we receive His word obediently the first time, we can expect a fuller revelation to follow. But if we reject God's word, the next thing we experience may be His discipline.

14 Then the LORD said to me:

"Out of the [a]north calamity shall break forth
On all the inhabitants of the land.
15 For behold, I am [a]calling
All the families of the kingdoms of the north," says the LORD;
"They shall come and [b]each one set his throne
At the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem,
Against all its walls all around,
And against all the cities of Judah.
16 I will utter My judgments
Against them concerning all their wickedness,
Because [a]they have forsaken Me,
Burned [b]incense to other gods,
And worshiped the works of their own [c]hands.

17 "Therefore [a]prepare yourself and arise,
And speak to them all that I command you.
[b]Do not be dismayed before their faces,
Lest I dismay you before them.
18 For behold, I have made you this day
[a]A fortified city and an iron pillar,
And bronze walls against the whole land—
Against the kings of Judah,
Against its princes,
Against its priests,
And against the people of the land.
19 They will fight against you,
But they shall not prevail against you.
For I am with you," says the LORD,
"to deliver you."

Where Is the Lord?

Abundance makes us self sufficient, so we live as if we do not need God. We may not even notice our heart shifting until we wonder where the Lord has gone. In fact, we are the ones who have wandered.

1:17 "Prepare yourself" is literally "gird up your loins."

"And against your children's children
I will bring charges.

Send to [2]Kedar and consider diligently,
And see if there has been such a
[a]thing.
11 [a]Has a nation changed its gods,
Which are [b]not gods?
[c]But My people have changed their
Glory
For what does not profit.
12 Be astonished, O heavens, at this,
And be horribly afraid;
Be very desolate," says the LORD.
13 "For My people have committed two evils:
They have forsaken Me, the
[a]fountain of living waters,
And hewn themselves cisterns—broken cisterns that can hold no water.

14 "Is Israel [a]a servant?
Is he a homeborn slave?
Why is he plundered?
15 [a]The young lions roared at him, and growled;
They made his land waste;
His cities are burned, without inhabitant.
16 Also the people of [1]Noph and
[a]Tahpanhes
Have [2]broken the crown of your head.
17 [a]Have you not brought this on
yourself,
In that you have forsaken the LORD
your God
When [b]He led you in the way?
18 And now why take [a]the road to
Egypt,
To drink the waters of [b]Sihor?
Or why take the road to [c]Assyria,
To drink the waters of [1]the River?
19 Your own wickedness will [a]correct
you,
And your backslidings will rebuke
you.
Know therefore and see that it is an evil and bitter thing
That you have forsaken the LORD
your God,
And the [1]fear of Me is not in you,"
Says the Lord GOD of hosts.

20 "For of old I have [a]broken your yoke and burst your bonds;
And [b]you said, 'I will not
[1]transgress,'
When [c]on every high hill and under every green tree
You lay down, [d]playing the harlot.
21 Yet I had [a]planted you a noble vine, a seed of highest quality.
How then have you turned before Me Into [b]the degenerate plant of an alien vine?
22 For though you wash yourself with lye, and use much soap,
Yet your iniquity is [a]marked[1] before Me," says the Lord GOD.

23 "How[a] can you say, 'I am not
[1]polluted,
I have not gone after the Baals'?
See your way in the valley;
Know what you have done:
You are a swift dromedary breaking loose in her ways, 24 A wild donkey used to the
wilderness,
That sniffs at the wind in her desire;
In her time of mating, who can turn her away?
All those who seek her will not weary themselves;
In her month they will find her.
25 Withhold your foot from being unshod, and your throat from thirst.
But you said, [a]'There is no hope.
No! For I have loved [b]aliens, and after them I will go.'

26 "As the thief is ashamed when he is found out,
So is the house of Israel ashamed;
They and their kings and their princes, and their priests and their [a]prophets,
27 Saying to a tree, 'You are my father,'
And to a [a]stone, 'You gave birth to
me.'
For they have turned their back to Me, and not their face.
But in the time of their [b]trouble
They will say, 'Arise and save us.'
28 But [a]where are your gods that you have made for yourselves?
Let them arise,
If they [b]can save you in the time of your [1]trouble;
For [c]according to the number of your cities
Are your gods, O Judah.

29 "Why will you plead with Me?
You all have transgressed against Me," says the LORD.

2:11 "Exchanging glory" means the people traded their relationship with God for temporal pleasures and false gods to satisfy their lusts, perverse appetites, and personal ambitions. The exchange cost them God's presence.

2:18 Sihor was a branch of the Nile River.

2:23 In this case, "dromedary" is a female camel.

ENCOUNTER Note Jer. 2:28

Where Are Your Gods?

Is God obligated to rescue us from the consequences of our foolish decisions? No. In fact, He may choose to let us experience the full effects of our own choices.

30 "In vain I have [a]chastened your children;
They [b]received no correction.
Your sword has [c]devoured your prophets
Like a destroying lion.

31 "O generation, see the word of the LORD!
Have I been a wilderness to Israel,
Or a land of darkness?
Why do My people say, 'We [1]are lords;
[a]We will come no more to You'?
32 Can a virgin forget her ornaments,
Or a bride her attire?
Yet My people [a]have forgotten Me days without number.

33 "Why do you beautify your way to seek love?
Therefore you have also taught
The wicked women your ways.
34 Also on your skirts is found
[a]The blood of the lives of the poor innocents.
I have not found it by [1]secret search,
But plainly on all these things.
35 [a]Yet you say, 'Because I am innocent,
Surely His anger shall turn from me.'
Behold, [b]I will plead My case against you,
[c]Because you say, 'I have not sinned.'
36 [a]Why do you gad about so much to change your way?
Also [b]you shall be ashamed of Egypt [c]as you were ashamed of Assyria.
37 Indeed you will go forth from him
With your hands on [a]your head;
For the LORD has rejected your trusted allies,
And you will [b]not prosper by them.

Israel Is Shameless

3 "They say, 'If a man divorces his wife,
And she goes from him
And becomes another man's,
[a]May he return to her again?'
Would not that [b]land be greatly polluted?
But you have [c]played the harlot with many lovers;
[d]Yet return to Me," says the LORD.

2 "Lift up your eyes to [a]the desolate heights and see:
Where have you not [1]lain with men?
[b]By the road you have sat for them
Like an Arabian in the wilderness;
[c]And you have polluted the land
With your harlotries and your wickedness.
3 Therefore the [a]showers have been withheld,
And there has been no latter rain.
You have had a [b]harlot's forehead;
You refuse to be ashamed.
4 Will you not from this time cry to Me,
'My Father, You are [a]the guide of [b]my youth?
5 [a]Will He remain angry forever?
Will He keep it to the end?'
Behold, you have spoken and done evil things,
As you were able."

A Call to Repentance

6 The LORD said also to me in the days of Josiah the king: "Have you seen what [a]backsliding Israel has done? She has [b]gone up on every high mountain and under every green tree, and there played the harlot.
7 [a]"And I said, after she had done all these things, 'Return to Me.' But she did not return. And her treacherous [b]sister Judah saw it.

ENCOUNTER Note Jer. 3:7

Return to Me

It is incomprehensible that God would continually call us back to Himself when we stray, but such is His great love for His people.

8 "Then I saw that [a]for all the causes for which backsliding Israel had committed adultery, I had [b]put her away and given her a certificate of divorce; [c]yet her treacherous sister Judah did not fear, but went and played the harlot also.
9 "So it came to pass, through her casual harlotry, that she [a]defiled the land

3:2 Scripture often uses images of harlotry to depict those who forsake God's love in favor of substitutes (Is. 1:21; Jer. 3:1; Ezek. 16:30; Hos. 2:5).

3:6 "Backsliding" means "turning" and can be translated "faithless." The term describes someone who continually turns away from God and is repeatedly unfaithful to the covenant with God (Jer. 3:14, 22; 8:5; 31:22; 49:4).

and committed adultery with [b]stones and trees.
10 "And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah has not turned to Me [a]with her whole heart, but in pretense," says the LORD.

WORD*Study* RETURN

Jer. 3:10 The Hebrew word shub means "to turn, return" or "to turn around." It is a key term in Jeremiah, appearing 125 times in the book. It signifies a conscious change of direction. It describes true repentance, which includes turning away from wickedness and seeking God's righteousness instead.

11 Then the LORD said to me, [a]"Backsliding Israel has shown herself more righteous than treacherous Judah.
12 "Go and proclaim these words toward [a]the north, and say:

'Return, backsliding Israel,' says the LORD;
'I will not cause My anger to fall on you.
For I am [b]merciful,' says the LORD;
'I will not remain angry forever.
13 [a]Only acknowledge your iniquity,
That you have transgressed against the LORD your God,
And have [b]scattered your [1]charms
To [c]alien deities [d]under every green tree,
And you have not obeyed My voice,' says the LORD.

14 "Return, O backsliding children," says the LORD; [a]"for I am married to you. I will take you, [b]one from a city and two from a family, and I will bring you to [c]Zion.
15 "And I will give you [a]shepherds according to My heart, who will [b]feed you with knowledge and understanding.
16 "Then it shall come to pass, when you are multiplied and [a]increased in the land in those days," says the LORD, "that they will say no more, 'The ark of the covenant of the LORD.' [b]It shall not come to mind, nor shall they remember it, nor shall they visit it, nor shall it be made anymore.
17 "At that time Jerusalem shall be called The Throne of the LORD, and all the nations shall be gathered to it, [a]to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem. No more shall they [b]follow[1] the dictates of their evil hearts.
18 "In those days [a]the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of [b]the north to [c]the land that I have given as an inheritance to your fathers.
19 "But I said:

'How can I put you among the children
And give you [a]a pleasant land,
A beautiful heritage of the hosts of nations?'

"And I said:

'You shall call Me, [b]"My Father,"
And not turn away from Me.'
20 Surely, as a wife treacherously departs from her [1]husband,
So [a]have you dealt treacherously with Me,
O house of Israel," says the LORD.

Spiritual Treachery

Marital infidelity is a devastating sin, shattering lives and causing untold anguish. Likewise, spiritual adultery grieves our Lord more than we can know.

21 A voice was heard on [a]the desolate heights,
Weeping and supplications of the children of Israel.
For they have perverted their way;
They have forgotten the LORD their God.

22 "Return, you backsliding children,
And I will [a]heal your backslidings."

"Indeed we do come to You,
For You are the LORD our God.
23 [a]Truly, in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills,
And from the multitude of mountains;
[b]Truly, in the LORD our God
Is the salvation of Israel.
24 [a]For shame has devoured
The labor of our fathers from our youth—
Their flocks and their herds,
Their sons and their daughters.
25 We lie down in our shame,
And our [1]reproach covers us.
[a]For we have sinned against the LORD our God,
We and our fathers,
From our youth even to this day,
And [b]have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God."

4:1 An "abomination" was filthy and disgusting as well as idolatrous, and incurred God's severest disapproval. This is one of the strongest possible terms to describe things that offend God.

[a]"Return to Me;
And if you will put away your abominations out of My sight,
Then you shall not be moved.
2 [a]And you shall swear, 'The LORD lives,'
[b]In truth, in [1]judgment, and in righteousness;
[c]The nations shall bless themselves in Him,
And in Him they shall [d]glory."

3 For thus says the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem:

[a]"Break up your [1]fallow ground,
And [b]do not sow among thorns.

WORD*Study* — FALLOW GROUND

Jer. 4:3 This term applies to land that has never been cultivated or has not been tilled for some time. By law, farmers were to leave their fields uncultivated every seventh year. The purpose was to rejuvenate the soil. However, if it was left too long, the ground would become hard, full of weeds, and difficult to work. Unprepared soil is not welcoming to seeds that could bring new life.

ENCOUNTER*Note* — Jer. 4:3

A Hardened Heart

A heart left untended can harden and become impervious to God's word. Keeping ourselves tender and receptive toward God prepares us for a bountiful spiritual harvest.

4 [a]Circumcise yourselves to the LORD,
And take away the foreskins of your hearts,
You men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem,
Lest My fury come forth like fire,
And burn so that no one can quench it,
Because of the evil of your doings."

An Imminent Invasion

5 Declare in Judah and proclaim in Jerusalem, and say:

[a]"Blow the trumpet in the land;
Cry, 'Gather together,'
And say, [b]'Assemble yourselves,
And let us go into the fortified cities.'
6 Set up the [1]standard toward Zion.
Take refuge! Do not delay!
For I will bring disaster from the [a]north,
And great destruction."

7 [a]The lion has come up from his thicket,
And [b]the destroyer of nations is on his way.
He has gone forth from his place
[c]To make your land desolate.
Your cities will be laid waste,
Without inhabitant.
8 For this, [a]clothe yourself with sackcloth,
Lament and wail.
For the fierce anger of the LORD
Has not turned back from us.

9 "And it shall come to pass in that day," says the LORD,
"That the heart of the king shall perish,
And the heart of the princes;
The priests shall be astonished,
And the prophets shall wonder."

10 Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD!
[a]Surely You have greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem,
[b]Saying, 'You shall have peace,'
Whereas the sword reaches to the [1]heart."

11 At that time it will be said
To this people and to Jerusalem,
[a]"A dry wind of the desolate heights blows in the wilderness
Toward the daughter of My people—
Not to fan or to cleanse—
12 A wind too strong for these will come for Me;
Now [a]I will also speak judgment against them."

13 "Behold, he shall come up like clouds,
And [a]his chariots like a whirlwind.
[b]His horses are swifter than eagles.
Woe to us, for we are plundered!"

14 O Jerusalem, [a]wash your heart from wickedness,
That you may be saved.
How long shall your evil thoughts lodge within you?

And proclaims [1]affliction from Mount Ephraim:

4:5 Blowing a trumpet was the quickest possible means of calling together all who were within hearing distance. It was an effective way to communicate orders to troops during battle. Signal fires were also used to warn of approaching danger (Jer. 6:1).

Yes, proclaim against Jerusalem,
That watchers come from a [a]far country
And raise their voice against the cities of Judah.
17 [a]Like keepers of a field they are against her all around,
Because she has been rebellious against Me," says the LORD.
18 "Your[a] ways and your doings
Have procured these things for you.
This is your wickedness,
Because it is bitter,
Because it reaches to your heart."

Sorrow for the Doomed Nation

19 O my [a]soul, my soul!
I am pained in my very heart!
My heart makes a noise in me;
I cannot hold my peace,
Because you have heard, O my soul,
The sound of the trumpet,
The alarm of war.
20 [a]Destruction upon destruction is cried,
For the whole land is plundered.
Suddenly [b]my tents are plundered,
And my curtains in a moment.
21 How long will I see the [1]standard,
And hear the sound of the trumpet?

22 "For My people are foolish,
They have not known Me.
They are [1]silly children,
And they have no understanding.
[a]They are wise to do evil,
But to do good they have no knowledge."

23 [a]I beheld the earth, and indeed it was [b]without form, and void;
And the heavens, they had no light.
24 [a]I beheld the mountains, and indeed they trembled,
And all the hills moved back and forth.
25 I beheld, and indeed there was no man,
And [a]all the birds of the heavens had fled.
26 I beheld, and indeed the fruitful land was a [a]wilderness,
And all its cities were broken down
At the presence of the LORD,
By His fierce anger.

27 For thus says the LORD:

"The whole land shall be desolate;
[a]Yet I will not make a full end.
28 For this [a]shall the earth mourn,
And [b]the heavens above be black,
Because I have spoken.
I have [c]purposed and [d]will not relent,
Nor will I turn back from it.
29 The whole city shall flee from the noise of the horsemen and bowmen.
They shall go into thickets and climb up on the rocks.
Every city shall be forsaken,
And not a man shall dwell in it.

30 "And when you are plundered,
What will you do?
Though you clothe yourself with crimson,
Though you adorn yourself with ornaments of gold,
[a]Though you enlarge your eyes with paint,
In vain you will make yourself fair;
[b]Your lovers will despise you;
They will seek your life.

31 "For I have heard a voice as of a woman in [1]labor,
The anguish as of her who brings forth her first child,
The voice of the daughter of Zion bewailing herself;
She [a]spreads her hands, saying,
'Woe is me now, for my soul is [2]weary
Because of murderers!'

The Justice of God's Judgment

5 "Run to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem;
See now and know;
And seek in her open places
[a]If you can find a man,
[b]If there is anyone who executes [1]judgment,
Who seeks the truth,
[c]And I will pardon her.
2 [a]Though they say, 'As [b]the LORD lives,' Surely they [c]swear falsely."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Jer. 4:26

The Lord's Presence

God is absolutely true to His word, whether He pledges a blessing or pronounces judgment. Trust His promises and tremble at His warnings. Both have the potential to dramatically impact your life.

5:1 As was true with the town of Sodom (Gen. 18), God wanted to spare people His wrath, even for the sake of only a few righteous persons. In this case, none was found, so irreversible judgment was forthcoming.

5:3 "Faces harder than rock" describes a stubborn heart condition that is deliberately set against God or those in His Kingdom. The phrase implies more than apathy or disregard; it refers to a conscious choice to oppose God and His ways (6:16).

You have [b]stricken them,
But they have not grieved;
You have consumed them,
But [c]they have refused to receive correction.
They have made their faces harder than rock;
They have refused to return.

4 Therefore I said, "Surely these are poor.
They are foolish;
For [a]they do not know the way of the LORD,
The judgment of their God.
5 I will go to the great men and speak to them,
For [a]they have known the way of the LORD,
The judgment of their God."

But these have altogether [b]broken the yoke
And burst the bonds.
6 Therefore [a]a lion from the forest shall slay them,
[b]A wolf of the deserts shall destroy them;
[c]A leopard will watch over their cities.
Everyone who goes out from there shall be torn in pieces,
Because their transgressions are many;
Their backslidings have increased.

7 "How shall I pardon you for this?
Your children have forsaken Me
And [a]sworn by those [b]that are not gods.
[c]When I had fed them to the full,
Then they committed adultery
And assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses.
8 [a]They were like well-fed lusty stallions;
Every one neighed after his neighbor's wife.
9 Shall I not punish them for these things?" says the LORD.
"And shall I not [a]avenge Myself on such a nation as this?

10 "Go up on her walls and destroy,
But do not [1]make a [a]complete end.
Take away her branches,
For they are not the LORD's.
11 For [a]the house of Israel and the house of Judah

And this people wood,
And it shall devour them.
15 Behold, I will bring a [a]nation against you [b]from afar,

It is an ancient nation,

19 "And it will be when you say, [a]'Why does the LORD our God do all these things to us?' then you shall answer them, 'Just as you have [b]forsaken Me and served foreign gods in your land, so [c]you shall serve aliens in a land that is not yours.'

Will You Not Tremble?

There is danger in complacency. God is not a friend whose opinion is merely one of many. He is God-His voice supersedes all else.

24 They do not say in their heart,
"Let us now fear the LORD our God,
[a]Who gives rain, both the [b]former and the latter, in its season.
[c]He reserves for us the appointed weeks of the harvest."
25 [a]Your iniquities have turned these things away,
And your sins have withheld good from you.

26 'For among My people are found wicked men;
They [a]lie in wait as one who sets snares;
They set a trap;
They catch men.
27 As a cage is full of birds,
So their houses are full of deceit.
Therefore they have become great and grown rich.
28 They have grown [a]fat, they are sleek;
Yes, they [1]surpass the deeds of the wicked;
They do not plead [b]the cause,
The cause of the fatherless;
[c]Yet they prosper,
And the right of the needy they do not defend.
29 [a]Shall I not punish them for these things?' says the LORD.
'Shall I not avenge Myself on such a nation as this?'

30 "An astonishing and [a]horrible thing
Has been committed in the land:
31 The prophets prophesy [a]falsely,
And the priests rule by their own power;
And My people [b]love to have it so.
But what will you do in the end?

False Prophets

Why do false prophets abound? They tell us what we want to hear. Never accept a preacher's words without verifying the message through God's word.

WORD Study FALSE PROPHETS

Jer. 5:31 The Hebrew word for prophet is nabi, meaning "one who is called." The mark of biblical prophets was that God called them into His service and God gave them a message to deliver (1:4, 5). The law prescribed the test for a prophet: if the prophecy came to pass, the prophet was authentic. Those exposed as false prophets were to be executed (Deut. 18:20–22).

And great destruction.
2 I have likened the daughter of Zion
To a lovely and delicate woman.
3 The [a]shepherds with their flocks shall come to her.
They shall pitch their tents against her all around.
Each one shall pasture in his own place."

4 "Prepare[a] war against her;
Arise, and let us go up [b]at noon.
Woe to us, for the day goes away,
For the shadows of the evening are lengthening.
5 Arise, and let us go by night,
And let us destroy her palaces."

6 For thus has the LORD of hosts said:

"Cut down trees,
And build a mound against Jerusalem.
This is the city to be punished.
She is full of oppression in her midst.
7 [a]As a fountain [1]wells up with water,
So she wells up with her wickedness.
[b]Violence and plundering are heard in her.
Before Me continually are [2]grief and wounds.
8 Be instructed, O Jerusalem,
Lest [a]My soul depart from you;
Lest I make you desolate,
A land not inhabited."

6:1 Tekoa was the home town of the prophet Amos (Amos 1:1).
6:6 Building a mound was a military strategy used to breach the walls of a fortified city. Often prisoners or slaves were used for this purpose (Ezek. 4:2).
6:8 "Instructed" can also mean "disciplined, chastised."

9 Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"They shall thoroughly glean as a vine the remnant of Israel;
As a grape-gatherer, put your hand back into the branches."

10 To whom shall I speak and give warning,
That they may hear?
Indeed their [a]ear is uncircumcised,
And they cannot give heed.
Behold, [b]the word of the LORD is a reproach to them;
They have no delight in it.
11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD.
[a]I am weary of holding it in.
"I will pour it out [b]on the children outside,
And on the assembly of young men together;
For even the husband shall be taken with the wife,
The aged with him who is full of days.
12 And [a]their houses shall be turned over to others,
Fields and wives together;
For I will stretch out My hand
Against the inhabitants of the land," says the LORD.
13 "Because from the least of them even to the greatest of them,
Everyone is given to [a]covetousness;
And from the prophet even to the [b]priest,
Everyone deals falsely.
14 They have also [a]healed the [1]hurt of My people [2]slightly,
[b]Saying, 'Peace, peace!'
When there is no peace.
15 Were they [a]ashamed when they had committed abomination?
No! They were not at all ashamed;
Nor did they know how to blush.
Therefore they shall fall among those who fall;
At the time I punish them,
They shall be cast down," says the LORD.

16 Thus says the LORD:

"Stand in the ways and see,
And ask for the [a]old paths, where the good way is,
And walk in it;
Then you will find [b]rest for your souls.

But they said, 'We will not walk in it.'
17 Also, I set [a]watchmen over you, saying,
[b]'Listen to the sound of the trumpet!'
But they said, 'We will not listen.'
18 Therefore hear, you nations,
And know, O congregation, what is among them.
19 [a]Hear, O earth!
Behold, I will certainly bring [b]calamity on this people—
[c]The fruit of their thoughts,
Because they have not heeded My words
Nor My law, but rejected it.
20 [a]For what purpose to Me
Comes frankincense [b]from Sheba,
And [c]sweet cane from a far country?
[d]Your burnt offerings are not acceptable,
Nor your sacrifices sweet to Me."

21 Therefore thus says the LORD:

"Behold, I will lay stumbling blocks before this people,
And the fathers and the sons together shall fall on them.
The neighbor and his friend shall perish."

22 Thus says the LORD:

"Behold, a people comes from the [a]north country,
And a great nation will be raised from the farthest parts of the earth.
23 They will lay hold on bow and spear;
They are cruel and have no mercy;
Their voice [a]roars like the sea;

As men of war set in array against you, O daughter of Zion."

Old Ways

When we choose our own path, we seriously damage our relationship with God. Yet God urges us to reclaim the intimacy we once enjoyed with Him. Although a close walk with God may seem a thing of the past, it is not too late to return.

6:14 "Healed the hurt . . . slightly" refers to dealing with symptoms rather than root problems. Covering a hurt with pacifying words may soothe the person, but the injury continues to do its damage.

6:14 "Peace" is the Hebrew word shalom and means "wholeness, contentment, safety."

6:21 Stumbling blocks could be impediments, enticements, or snares to prevent people from reaching their goal. Christ was an obstacle hindering those who sought to do evil (Is. 8:14; Matt. 21:14).

24 We have heard the report of it;
Our hands grow feeble.
[a]Anguish has taken hold of us,
Pain as of a woman in [1]labor.
25 Do not go out into the field,
Nor walk by the way.
Because of the sword of the enemy,
Fear is on every side.
26 O daughter of my people,
[a]Dress in sackcloth
[b]And roll about in ashes!
[c]Make mourning as for an only son,
most bitter lamentation;
For the plunderer will suddenly come upon us.
27 "I have set you as an assayer and [a]a fortress among My people,
That you may know and test their
way.
28 [a]They are all stubborn rebels,
[b]walking as slanderers.
They are [c]bronze and iron,
They are all corrupters;
29 The bellows blow fiercely,
The lead is consumed by the fire;
The smelter refines in vain,
For the wicked are not drawn off.
30 People will call them [a]rejected
silver,
Because the LORD has rejected
them."

Trusting in Lying Words

7 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,
2 [a]"Stand in the gate of the LORD's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, all you of Judah who enter in at these gates to worship the LORD!' "
3 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: [a]"Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place.
4 [a]"Do not trust in these lying words, saying, 'The temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD are these.'
5 "For if you thoroughly amend your ways and your doings, if you thoroughly [a]execute [1]judgment between a man and his neighbor,
6 "if you do not oppress the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and do not shed innocent blood in this place, [a]or walk after other gods to your hurt,
7 [a]"then I will cause you to dwell in this place, in [b]the land that I gave to your fathers forever and ever.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Jer. 7:9, 10

Shameless

It takes tremendous audacity to revel in all forms of evil, and then blithely lift up one's hands to worship God. He knows who fears Him and who does not, and He responds accordingly.

11 "Has [a]this house, which is called by My name, become a [b]den of thieves in your eyes? Behold, I, even I, have seen it," says the LORD.
12 "But go now to [a]My place which was in Shiloh, [b]where I set My name at the first, and see [c]what I did to it because of the wickedness of My people Israel.
13 "And now, because you have done all these works," says the LORD, "and I spoke to you, [a]rising up early and speaking, but you did not hear, and I [b]called you, but you did not answer,
14 "therefore I will do to the house which is called by My name, in which you trust, and to this place which I gave to you and your fathers, as I have done to [a]Shiloh.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Jer. 7:13, 14

God Calls

God uses a variety of methods to get our attention and to give us clear guidance. But His words fall on deaf ears when our hearts no longer seek Him. God's patience is not limitless. There comes a time when His calling stops and His discipline begins. Yet even then His purpose is to bring us to repentance.

15 "And I will cast you out of My sight, [a]as I have cast out all your brethren—[b]the whole posterity of Ephraim.
16 "Therefore [a]do not pray for this people, nor lift up a cry or prayer for them,

6:27 An "assayer" was a tester of precious metals, especially gold and silver.

7:11 Bandits would sometimes hide in caves in the Judean hills until their pursuers had given up chase. Such criminals were now finding refuge in the temple (Mark 11:17).

7:12 Shiloh was the first permanent home of the tabernacle (Josh. 18:1). It was located eighteen miles north of Jerusalem. Shiloh was destroyed by the Philistines around 1050 B.C. after the Israelites were defeated in battle (1 Sam. 4).

17 "Do you not see what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?
18 [a]"The children gather wood, the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead dough, to make cakes for the queen of heaven; and they [b]pour out drink offerings to other gods, that they may provoke Me to anger.
19 [a]"Do they provoke Me to anger?" says the LORD. "Do they not provoke themselves, to the shame of their own faces?"
20 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, My anger and My fury will be poured out on this place—on man and on beast, on the trees of the field and on the fruit of the ground. And it will burn and not be quenched."
21 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: [a]"Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices and eat meat.
22 [a]"For I did not speak to your fathers, or command them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices.
23 "But this is what I commanded them, saying, [a]'Obey My voice, and [b]I will be your God, and you shall be My people. And walk in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well with you.'
24 [a]"Yet they did not obey or incline their ear, but [b]followed[1] the counsels and the [2]dictates of their evil hearts, and [c]went[3] backward and not forward.

27 "Therefore [a]you shall speak all these words to them, but they will not obey you. You shall also call to them, but they will not answer you.

Judgment on Obscene Religion

28 "So you shall say to them, 'This is a nation that does not obey the voice of the LORD their God [a]nor receive correction. [b]Truth has perished and has been cut off from their mouth.
29 [a]'Cut off your hair and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on the desolate heights; for the LORD has rejected and forsaken the generation of His wrath.'
30 "For the children of Judah have done evil in My sight," says the LORD. [a]"They have set their abominations in the house which is called by My name, to [1]pollute it.
31 "And they have built the [a]high places of Topheth, which is in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, to [b]burn their sons and their daughters in the fire, [c]which I did not command, nor did it come into My heart.
32 "Therefore behold, [a]the days are coming," says the LORD, "when it will no more be called Topheth, or the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter; [b]for they will bury in Topheth until there is no room.
33 "The [a]corpses of this people will be food for the birds of the heaven and for the beasts of the earth. And no one will frighten them away.
34 "Then I will cause to [a]cease from the cities of Judah and from the streets of Jerusalem the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride. For [b]the land shall be desolate.

8 "At that time," says the LORD, "they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of its princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Jer. 8:1

God of Love, Severe in Judgment

God's judgment seems harsh—and so it must be. His love compels Him to arduously punish sin. By the same token, His great love moves Him to forgive the repentant and richly bless the obedient.

2 "They shall spread them before the sun and the moon and all the host of heaven, which they have loved and which they have served and after which they have walked, which they have sought and [a]which they have worshiped. They shall not be gathered [b]nor buried; they shall be like refuse on the face of the earth.

All Nature Understands God

God marvels that even the birds understand and respond to the seasons, but humanity seems completely oblivious to God's expectations. We ignore God's activity around us and choose foolish ways instead-to our own peril.

the LORD.
"No grapes shall be [a]on the vine,
Nor figs on the [b]fig tree,
And the leaf shall fade;
And the things I have given them shall [c]pass away from them." ' "

14 "Why do we sit still?
[a]Assemble yourselves,
And let us enter the fortified cities,
And let us be silent there.
For the LORD our God has put us to silence
And given us [b]water[1] of gall to drink,
Because we have sinned against the
LORD.

15 "We [a]looked for peace, but no good came;
And for a time of health, and there was trouble!
16 The snorting of His horses was heard from [a]Dan.
The whole land trembled at the sound of the neighing of His [b]strong ones;
For they have come and devoured
the land and all that is in it,
The city and those who dwell in it."

17 "For behold, I will send serpents
among you,
Vipers which cannot be [a]charmed,
And they shall bite you," says the
LORD.

The Prophet Mourns for the People

18 I would comfort myself in sorrow;
My heart is faint in me.
19 Listen! The voice,
The cry of the daughter of my
people
From [a]a far country:
"Is not the LORD in Zion?
Is not her King in her?"

"Why have they provoked Me to anger

12 [a]Jer. 3:3; 6:15
13 [a]Joel 1:17 [b]Matt. 21:19 [c]Deut. 28:39, 40 [1]Or take them away

8:12 "Blush" means to be ashamed or confounded. The people had lost their moral compass, so they no longer felt shame for their offensive behaviors.

With their carved images—
With foreign idols?"

20 "The harvest is past,
The summer is ended,
And we are not saved!"

21 [a]For the hurt of the daughter of my people I am hurt.
I am [b]mourning;
Astonishment has taken hold of me.
22 Is there no [a]balm in Gilead,
Is there no physician there?
Why then is there no recovery
For the health of the daughter of my people?

9 Oh, [a]that my head were waters,
And my eyes a fountain of tears,
That I might weep day and night
For the slain of the daughter of my people!
2 Oh, that I had in the wilderness
A lodging place for travelers;
That I might leave my people,
And go from them!
For [a]they are all adulterers,
An assembly of treacherous men.

3 "And like their bow [a]they have bent their tongues for lies.
They are not valiant for the truth on the earth.
For they proceed from [b]evil to evil,
And they [c]do not know Me," says the LORD.
4 "Everyone[a] take heed to his [1]neighbor,
And do not trust any brother;
For every brother will utterly supplant,
And every neighbor will [b]walk with slanderers.
5 Everyone will [a]deceive his neighbor,
And will not speak the truth;
They have taught their tongue to speak lies;
They weary themselves to commit iniquity.
6 Your dwelling place is in the midst of deceit;
Through deceit they refuse to know Me," says the LORD.

7 Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts:

"Behold, [a]I will refine them and [1]try them;
[b]For how shall I deal with the daughter of My people?
8 Their tongue is an arrow shot out;
It speaks [a]deceit;
One speaks [b]peaceably to his neighbor with his mouth,
But [1]in his heart he [2]lies in wait.
9 [a]Shall I not punish them for these things?" says the LORD.
"Shall I not avenge Myself on such a nation as this?"

10 I will take up a weeping and wailing for the mountains,
And [a]for the [1]dwelling places of the wilderness a lamentation,
Because they are burned up,
So that no one can pass through;
Nor can men hear the voice of the cattle.
[b]Both the birds of the heavens and the beasts have fled;
