About The Blackaby Study Bible

The Blackaby Study Bible teaches you how to have daily encounters with God in the Bible. It encourages you to develop a regular habit of Bible reading and study, expecting great things to happen as God acts to engage us in His Word. Explanatory notes shed light on passages where needed. Examples are given of how God has encountered people many times in the past, using ordinary men and women in extraordinary ways to do His will—people in the Scriptures as well as people throughout history who were reading or hearing the Scriptures. And there are many suggestions about ways God might want to encounter you too!

Encountering God: A Message from the Blackabys

The deepest need of the human heart is to encounter God. People face many needs, some are physical, others are social or emotional. Spiritual needs, however, can only be met by God Himself. Only God can satisfy these desires and He only does so on His own terms. What people need—in addition to good, sound information about God in Scripture—is a fresh encounter with God.

People need to move from an encounter with a principle or a doctrine to an experience with the living God, who is a Person. Just as in Bible times, being in the presence of the living God is an awesome experience. To stand before Him is to stand before the One who created the universe with only the sound of His voice. And He is the One who graciously provides salvation for all of fallen humanity.

Meeting God is life-changing. Everyday encounters are part of His plan. No one can leave His presence and remain the same.

Here is what most people miss. We do not encounter God. He encounters us. And He initiates encounters with us, not in order to give us warm devotional thoughts, but to forever change our lives. As He reveals His will to us, we are compelled to adjust our lives to His activity and join Him in His work.

We are surrounded by values, standards, and viewpoints that are contrary to Scripture and leave us disoriented to a Holy God. Every time we open God's Word, we have the opportunity to experience a dramatic encounter with the living God that will shake us and change our thinking. This is why we need fresh encounters with God and why we must seek such encounters. We must approach God's Word with hearts that are willing to obey whatever God says to us. When we reverently and expectantly approach the Scriptures, God is ready to speak life-transforming words to us.

And we will never be the same again.

Wishing you many life-changing encounters with God,

How to Study the Bible

Hear God Speaking in His Word

The Bible is unique among all literature. It is God's definitive word for humanity. God has provided a written revelation of Himself through the divinely inspired writings of people He appointed to impart His message. The word "inspired" means "God-breathed" (1 Tim. 3:16). God, through the Holy Spirit, guided the writers of the text to communicate exactly what was on His heart for His people (2 Pet. 1:20, 21). As God's revealed truth, the Scriptures are absolutely authoritative. God's Word is the plumb line or standard by which to evaluate all human activity and reasoning.

"Inspiration of Scripture" can be considered in three ways.

Revelation: the act of God whereby He communicates Himself and His will to people (Amos 3:7; Mic. 4:2; Heb. 1:1, 2).

Inspiration: the influence of the Holy Spirit upon people's minds which rendered them agents of God for the infallible communication of that revelation (2 Tim. 3:16, 17; 2 Pet. 1:21).

Illumination or enlightenment: the divine quickening of the human mind, allowing people to understand the truth that has been revealed and communicated (John 14:26; 16:13; 1 Cor. 2:12–14).

God speaks to His people. As you read your Bible, understand that your Creator wants to communicate with you. To reject the Bible's message is to reject God Himself. To accept His message is to find abundant life, as God purposed when He created you.

The Bible is fascinating because of its diversity and remarkable unity. There are sixty-six books, divided into the Old and New Testaments. The Scriptures were penned by a diverse collection of authors representing a variety of languages and cultures. Its literary forms include historical, legal, poetic, prophetic, gospel, epistle, and apocalyptic. Out of a variety of literary forms, the Bible presents a clear, consistent message from Genesis through Revelation. Like the various instruments in an orchestra, each biblical book contributes to a beautiful, masterful harmony.

God's Word instructs us through relevant teaching on life's critical issues: life and death, sin and salvation, love and an eternal relationship with God. The Bible relates God's gracious intervention in human history to show us the way of eternal life. More than merely words on a page, the Bible is an encounter with God Himself. The Bible is often called the "Living Word," for in reading it one discovers that the God of the Word is present and prepared to meet with those who seek Him. No book is more critical to your life than the Bible.

Encounter God in His Word

The Scriptures are filled with the compelling stories of real people. You will read about the triumphs and shortfalls of kings, politicians, religious leaders, farmers, soldiers, slaves, and even young children. But the essence of the Bible is the Lord Himself. The Bible is God-centered. This study Bible, therefore, is designed to help you encounter God on every page. God is pursuing you for Himself as you read and study His Word. So prepare to meet with Him and enter His presence. Can you imagine a greater opportunity than to interact with the God of the universe? Do not be intimidated by the Bible's length or weighty substance. Approach it with confident expectation. You have been invited to a personal meeting with God! Anticipate an encounter with Him whenever you open His Word. A supernatural transformation happens to those who study the Scriptures with a sincere desire to know God.

God speaks by the Holy Spirit through the Bible. He also communicates during your time of prayer, in your life circumstances, and through the church. Read your Bible in an attitude of prayer, and allow the Holy Spirit to make you aware of God's activity around your life. As He guides you specifically, write down what you learn, meditate on it, and adjust your life to what you have heard. As you go about your day, look to see how the truths He has revealed apply to your life. God is not random, but orderly and intentional in the way He speaks to you. He knows what is in your future. He prepares you to live life from His perspective. Whenever you become confused, hurry to God's Word and ask Him to bring clarity to your situation. Remain in His presence and seek Him with all your heart, and He will illuminate your life.

Understanding the nature of God's Word quickly dispels two common fallacies. First is the perception that the Bible is too difficult for the average person to understand. Neither the brilliant person nor the simple can understand Scripture unaided by the Holy Spirit. But anyone who earnestly seeks God through His Word receives the Holy Spirit's help to attain knowledge of Him. The Bible gives everyone equal access to spiritual truth. A second myth is that the Bible is irrelevant or somehow removed from real life situations. Of course the truth is exactly the opposite. God is real and wants to be personally involved in your life. He knows your past, your present situation, and the future that lies before you. What could be more practical or more exciting than spending time with God in His Word? He wants to develop a personal, life-transforming relationship with you. The Bible is the most relevant book you'll ever read.

Every person who reads the Bible can learn from it. However, there are prerequisites to obtaining its maximum benefit. First, you must be born again (John 3:3, 5). Physical birth initiates growth. Likewise, we cannot grow spiritually in the knowledge of God until we have been born into His family and have received the gift of His Spirit. Sin has damaged our capacity to know God. To obtain spiritual truth we need the Spirit. Second, your attitude will influence the outcome of your Bible study. Resist the temptation to focus on what others have said about the Bible, and allow the Holy Spirit to guide you as you study God's Word for yourself. Use commentaries only as a secondary source. Third, make a conscious decision ahead of time to act upon whatever the Holy Spirit teaches you. An obedient heart will open the door for truth to come in. Begin your Bible study with prayer, asking the Holy Spirit to guide your thoughts and impress upon you what is on God's heart. Then make plans to adjust your life immediately, whether it involves an attitude change or a specific action. If you are a Christian with a receptive heart and a desire to do God's will, you're in the best position to experience God as never before.

Understand What God Is Saying

The variety of writing found in the Bible and the lengthy span between the biblical age and our own generation can make interpreting the Scriptures daunting. However, some guidelines are helpful in understanding the meaning of the text.

As you study a book or passage, consider the original meaning of the words you are reading. What did the author have in mind when he wrote and what would the original recipients have understood when they received the message? When the text was written or spoken, there was an immediate meaning and application for the audience. Here are some suggestions to aid you in your study:

Keep in mind the type of literature are you reading. For example, the books of Kings are historical literature and should be viewed differently than a book of prophecy such as Ezekiel. First and Second Kings present a royal history of the kings of Israel and Judah as God related to His people. The material lays out the facts such as names, dates, and specific events related to the people of Israel. However, the prophetic books present descriptive visions that often include highly symbolic language. Therefore, when reading Kings you can usually take the literal meaning of the text, while in a book of prophecy many portions must be read figuratively. The different types of writing you will encounter are: poetry, prophecy, narrative, letter (epistles), history, gospel, and apocalyptic.

Second, consider the context in which the material was written. What was going on in the writer's life when the passage was written? As you read Philippians, a book marked by continued teachings on joy, it is significant that Paul was in a Roman prison when he wrote the letter. This fact brought depth and strength to Paul's words as he proclaimed the joy of Christ in the midst of his own harsh circumstances. Knowing the historical setting is also pivotal. For example, the prophets Amos, Hosea, Micah, and Isaiah called the people to return to God to avoid the coming judgment as the Assyrian empire posed a looming threat to their national survival.

Third, watch for significant transition words. In the apostle Paul's letters you will notice long running ideas and thoughts connected by the word "therefore." Consider this a signal to go back and reread the proceeding verses, as they provide needed insights into the passage. Repeated words or ideas such as "truly, truly" or "He opened His mouth and taught them saying" found in the gospels are essentially saying "you need to listen closely because this is important." Highlight the transitional or key words in a passage. Many times a word or idea is emphasized because it is the focal truth for the passage.

Fourth, use the Bible to interpret itself. Some passages are harder to grasp than others. This study Bible has a center column reference which helps you find other verses that teach the same or similar truths, or that use the same wording and phrases. The best explanation of a biblical passage comes from other verses that teach similar truths. For example, a particular event may be briefly recorded in one of the gospels, but expanded upon and explained in a different gospel. Using the Bible to interpret itself also provides a broader understanding of the truth of scriptures. For example, John 14:13 says, "And whatever you ask in My name, that I will do that the Father may be glorified in the Son." If we were only to read this verse we might conclude that we can have anything we want as long as we ask in Jesus' name. However, when this verse is considered along with 1 John 5:14 ("Now this is the confidence that we have in Him, that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us") and James 4:3 ("You ask and do not receive, because You ask amiss, that you may spend it on your pleasures"), a much clearer picture emerges of what it means to ask and receive from the Lord.

Fifth, after you have searched the Scriptures for yourself, you may want to consult a commentary or another helpful resource related to the passage. A commentary can provide insights you may have missed or offer a perspective you had not considered. It is vital, however, that you make it a habit to study the Scriptures for yourself under the guidance of the Holy Spirit before seeking other opinions.

Finally, remember that you are not attempting to create meaning, but to discover the meaning of the text with the Holy Spirit's guidance. Trust that God has given us His Word because He wants to reveal truth. There will be times when specific verses seem to jump off the page and apply directly to your life. At other times you will learn biblical principles that apply to you.

Apply God's Word to Your Life

Part of the Bible's captivating appeal is that it tells about ordinary people who encountered the living and powerful God. Any encounter with God through the Scriptures will create an opportunity for you to know and experience more of Him. Anticipate that each and every time you read the Scriptures the Holy Spirit will be revealing the ways, nature, and will of God, specifically applying these truths to your life personally.

The psalmist stated "Your word I have hidden in my heart, that I might not sin against You" (Ps. 119:11). In the face of temptation, Jesus quoted scriptures (Matt. 4:1–11). The understanding and application of scripture in your personal life will become one of the greatest helps to deter you from sinning against God. Scripture will guide your thoughts and actions in the face of difficult times or occasions of temptation. The Psalmist understood this and declared "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path" (Ps. 119:105). God's Word, when understood and applied, will bring wisdom and direction as you walk through this life.

The apostle Paul declared "all scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness" (2 Tim. 3:16). As we come to know and apply the Scriptures to our lives, we then need to share God's Word with other people whom He brings around us. People do not need our advice; they need God's wisdom. As you teach, preach, or share with others, the content of what you share is vital. God's Word given to a hurting person will bring life. Jesus, declared that the words He spoke would create deep, abiding joy in the lives of the disciples (John 15:11). Jesus also taught that "you shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free" (John 8:32). When the truth of God's Word is received and applied, people are set free. Therefore, as we relate to others who are in bondage, we must declare God's Word and not our own human reasoning. The power to set people free is clearly seen in Peter's sermon at Pentecost. When the Lord drew a crowd around the disciples, Peter preached truth from the prophet Joel, and three thousand people came to faith in Christ that day (Acts 2).

Biblical interpretation alone is not sufficient for our lives. The truths of scripture must be applied personally and corporately. The parable of the sower provides a powerful illustration of the blessings or consequences of how we receive God's Word. Reading the Bible for information and never applying its truth is like scattering the seed of the Word on rocky and unproductive soil. However, those who seek to live out and practice the Word of God can expect to see the truths of God manifested greatly in their lives and in the lives of those around them (Matt. 13).

Reading the Bible is not primarily an exercise for information; it is for transformation. It is one thing to know truth, it is another thing to experience the truth of God working in your life. This is your opportunity to encounter God and to be changed in His presence. When God speaks, nothing remains the same. Concentrated time with God will add a dimension to your life that can come only from Him. Jesus said, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear" (Matt. 13:9).

Preface to the New King James Version®

Purpose

In the preface to the 1611 edition, the translators of the Authorized Version, known popularly as the King James Bible, state that it was not their purpose "to make a new translation . . . but to make a good one better." Indebted to the earlier work of William Tyndale and others, they saw their best contribution to consist in revising and enhancing the excellence of the English versions which had sprung from the Reformation of the sixteenth century. In harmony with the purpose of the King James scholars, the translators and editors of the present work have not pursued a goal of innovation. They have perceived the Holy Bible, New King James Version, as a continuation of the labors of the earlier translators, thus unlocking for today's readers the spiritual treasures found especially in the Authorized Version of the Holy Scriptures.

A Living Legacy

For nearly four hundred years, and throughout several revisions of its English form, the King James Bible has been deeply revered among the English–speaking peoples of the world. The precision of translation for which it is historically renowned, and its majesty of style, have enabled that monumental version of the word of God to become the mainspring of the religion, language, and legal foundations of our civilization.

Although the Elizabethan period and our own era share in zeal for technical advance, the former period was more aggressively devoted to classical learning. Along with this awakened concern for the classics came a flourishing companion interest in the Scriptures, an interest that was enlivened by the conviction that the manuscripts were providentially handed down and were a trustworthy record of the inspired Word of God. The King James translators were committed to producing an English Bible that would be a precise translation, and by no means a paraphrase or a broadly approximate rendering. On the one hand, the scholars were almost as familiar with the original languages of the Bible as with their native English. On the other hand, their reverence for the divine Author and His Word assured a translation of the Scriptures in which only a principle of utmost accuracy could be accepted.

In 1786 Catholic scholar Alexander Geddes said of the King James Bible, "If accuracy and strictest attention to the letter of the text be supposed to constitute an excellent version, this is of all versions the most excellent." George Bernard Shaw became a literary legend in our century because of his severe and often humorous criticisms of our most cherished values. Surprisingly, however, Shaw pays the following tribute to the scholars commissioned by King James: "The translation was extraordinarily well done because to the translators what they were translating was not merely a curious collection of ancient books written by different authors in different stages of culture, but the Word of God divinely revealed through His chosen and expressly inspired scribes. In this conviction they carried out their work with boundless reverence and care and achieved a beautifully artistic result." History agrees with these estimates. Therefore, while seeking to unveil the excellent form of the traditional English Bible, special care has also been taken in the present edition to preserve the work of precision which is the legacy of the 1611 translators.

Complete Equivalence in Translation

Where new translation has been necessary in the New King James Version, the most complete representation of the original has been rendered by considering the history of usage and etymology of words in their contexts. This principle of complete equivalence seeks to preserve all of the information in the text, while presenting it in good literary form. Dynamic equivalence, a recent procedure in Bible translation, commonly results in paraphrasing where a more literal rendering is needed to reflect a specific and vital sense. For example, complete equivalence truly renders the original text in expressions such as "lifted her voice and wept" (Gen. 21:16); "I gave you cleanness of teeth" (Amos 4:6); "Jesus met them, saying, 'Rejoice!'" (Matt. 28:9); and "Woman, what does your concern have to do with Me?" (John 2:4). Complete equivalence translates fully, in order to provide an English text that is both accurate and readable.

In keeping with the principle of complete equivalence, it is the policy to translate interjections which are commonly omitted in modern language renderings of the Bible. As an example, the interjection behold, in the older King James editions, continues to have a place in English usage, especially in dramatically calling attention to a spectacular scene, or an event of profound importance such as the Immanuel prophecy of Isaiah 7:14. Consequently, behold is retained for these occasions in the present edition. However, the Hebrew and Greek originals for this word can be translated variously, depending on the circumstances in the passage. Therefore, in addition to behold, words such as indeed, look, see, and surely are also rendered to convey the appropriate sense suggested by the context in each case.

In faithfulness to God and to our readers, it was deemed appropriate that all participating scholars sign a statement affirming their belief in the verbal and plenary inspiration of Scripture, and in the inerrancy of the original autographs.

Devotional Quality

The King James scholars readily appreciated the intrinsic beauty of divine revelation. They accordingly disciplined their talents to render well–chosen English words of their time, as well as a graceful, often musical arrangement of language, which has stirred the hearts of Bible readers through the years. The translators, the committees, and the editors of the present edition, while sensitive to the late–twentieth–century English idiom, and while adhering faithfully to the Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek texts, have sought to maintain those lyrical and devotional qualities that are so highly regarded in the Authorized Version. This devotional quality is especially apparent in the poetic and prophetic books, although even the relatively plain style of the Gospels and Epistles cannot strictly be likened, as sometimes suggested, to modern newspaper style. The Koine Greek of the New Testament is influenced by the Hebrew background of the writers, for whom even the gospel narratives were not merely flat utterance, but often song in various degrees of rhythm.

The Style

Students of the Bible applaud the timeless devotional character of our historic Bible. Yet it is also universally understood that our language, like all living languages, has undergone profound change since 1611. Subsequent revisions of the King James Bible have sought to keep abreast of changes in English speech. The present work is a further step toward this objective. Where obsolescence and other reading difficulties exist, present–day vocabulary, punctuation, and grammar have been carefully integrated. Words representing ancient objects, such as chariot and phylactery, have no modern substitutes and are therefore retained.

A special feature of the New King James Version is its conformity to the thought flow of the 1611 Bible. The reader discovers that the sequence and selection of words, phrases, and clauses of the new edition, while much clearer, are so close to the traditional that there is remarkable ease in listening to the reading of either edition while following with the other.

In the discipline of translating biblical and other ancient languages, a standard method of transliteration, that is, the English spelling of untranslated words, such as names of persons and places, has never been commonly adopted. In keeping with the design of the present work, the King James spelling of untranslated words is retained, although made uniform throughout. For example, instead of the spellings Isaiah and Elijah in the Old Testament, and Esaias and Elias in the New Testament, Isaiah and Elijah now appear in both Testaments.

King James doctrinal and theological terms, for example, propitiation, justification, and sanctification, are generally familiar to English–speaking peoples. Such terms have been retained except where the original language indicates need for a more precise translation.

Readers of the Authorized Version will immediately be struck by the absence of several pronouns:

thee, thou, and ye are replaced by the simple you, while your and yours are substituted for thy and thine as applicable. Thee, thou, thy and thine were once forms of address to express a special relationship to human as well as divine persons. These pronouns are no longer part of our language. However, reverence for God in the present work is preserved by capitalizing pronouns, including You, Your, and Yours, which refer to Him. Additionally, capitalization of these pronouns benefits the reader by clearly distinguishing divine and human persons referred to in a passage. Without such capitalization the distinction is often obscure, because the antecedent of a pronoun is not always clear in the English translation.

In addition to the pronoun usages of the seventeenth century, the –eth and –est verb endings, so familiar in the earlier King James editions, are now obsolete. Unless a speaker is schooled in these verb endings, there is common difficulty in selecting the correct form to be used with a given subject of the verb in vocal prayer. That is, should we use love, loveth, or lovest? do, doeth, doest, or dost? have, hath, or hast? Because these forms are obsolete, contemporary English usage has been substituted for the previous verb endings.

In older editions of the King James Version, the frequency of the connective and far exceeded the limits of present English usage. Also, biblical linguists agree that the Hebrew and Greek original words for this conjunction may commonly be translated otherwise, depending on the immediate context. Therefore, instead of and, alternatives such as also, but, however, now, so, then, and thus are accordingly rendered in the present edition, when the original language permits.

The real character of the Authorized Version does not reside in its archaic pronouns or verbs or other grammatical forms of the seventeenth century, but rather in the care taken by its scholars to impart the letter and spirit of the original text in a majestic and reverent style.

THE FORMAT

The format of the New King James Version is designed to enhance the vividness and devotional quality of the Holy Scriptures:

–Subject headings assist the reader to identify topics and transitions in the biblical content.

–Words or phrases in italics indicate expressions in the original language which require clarification by additional English words, as also done throughout the history of the King James Bible.

–Oblique type in the New Testament indicates a quotation from the Old Testament.

–Verse numbers in bold type indicate the beginning of a paragraph.

–Poetry is structured as contemporary verse to reflect the poetic form and beauty of the passage in the original language.

–The covenant name of God was usually translated from the Hebrew as LORD or GOD (using capital letters as shown) in the King James Old Testament. This tradition is maintained. In the present edition the name is so capitalized whenever the covenant name is quoted in the New Testament from a passage in the Old Testament.

THE OLD TESTAMENT TEXT

The Hebrew Bible has come down to us through the scrupulous care of ancient scribes who copied the original text in successive generations. By the sixth century A.D. the scribes were succeeded by a group known as the Masoretes, who continued to preserve the sacred Scriptures for another five hundred years in a form known as the Masoretic Text. Babylonia, Palestine, and Tiberias were the main centers of Masoretic activity; but by the tenth century A.D. the Masoretes of Tiberias, led by the family of ben Asher, gained the ascendancy. Through subsequent editions, the ben Asher text became in the twelfth century the only recognized form of the Hebrew Scriptures.

Daniel Bomberg printed the first Rabbinic Bible in 1516–17; that work was followed in 1524–25 by a second edition prepared by Jacob ben Chayyim and also published by Bomberg. The text of ben Chayyim was adopted in most subsequent Hebrew Bibles, including those used by the King James translators. The ben Chayyim text was also used for the first two editions of Rudolph Kittel's Biblia Hebraica of 1906 and 1912. In 1937 Paul Kahle published a third edition of Biblia Hebraica. This edition was based on the oldest dated manuscript of the ben Asher text, the Leningrad Manuscript B19a (A.D. 1008), which Kahle regarded as superior to that used by ben Chayyim.

For the New King James Version the text used was the 1967/1977 Stuttgart edition of the Biblia Hebraica, with frequent comparisons being made with the Bomberg edition of 1524–25. The Septuagint (Greek) Version of the Old Testament and the Latin Vulgate also were consulted. In addition to referring to a variety of ancient versions of the Hebrew Scriptures, the New King James Version draws on the resources of relevant manuscripts from the Dead Sea caves. In the few places where the Hebrew was so obscure that the 1611 King James was compelled to follow one of the versions, but where information is now available to resolve the problems, the New King James Version follows the Hebrew text. Significant variations are recorded in the center reference column.

The New Testament Text

There is more manuscript support for the New Testament than for any other body of ancient literature. Over five thousand Greek, eight thousand Latin, and many more manuscripts in other languages attest the integrity of the New Testament. There is only one basic New Testament used by Protestants, Roman Catholics, and Orthodox, by conservatives and liberals. Minor variations in hand copying have appeared through the centuries, before mechanical printing began about A.D. 1450.

Some variations exist in the spelling of Greek words, in word order, and in similar details. These ordinarily do not show up in translation and do not affect the sense of the text in any way.

Other manuscript differences such as omission or inclusion of a word or a clause, and two paragraphs in the Gospels, should not overshadow the overwhelming degree of agreement which exists among the ancient records. Bible readers may be assured that the most important differences in English New Testaments of today are due, not to manuscript divergence, but to the way in which translators view the task of translation: How literally should the text be rendered? How does the translator view the matter of biblical inspiration? Does the translator adopt a paraphrase when a literal rendering would be quite clear and more to the point? The New King James Version follows the historic precedent of the Authorized Version in maintaining a literal approach to translation, except where the idiom of the original language cannot be translated directly into our tongue.

The King James New Testament was based on the traditional text of the Greek speaking churches, first published in 1516, and later called the Textus Receptus or Received Text. Although based on the relatively few available manuscripts, these were representative of many more which existed at the time but only became known later. In the late nineteenth century, B. Westcott and F. Hort taught that this text had been officially edited by the fourth–century church, but a total lack of historical evidence for this event has forced a revision of the theory. It is now widely held that the Byzantine Text that largely supports the Textus Receptus has as much right as the Alexandrian or any other tradition to be weighed in determining the text of the New Testament.

Since the 1880s most contemporary translations of the New Testament have relied upon a relatively few manuscripts discovered chiefly in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Such translations depend primarily on two manuscripts, Codex Vaticanus and Codex Sinaiticus, because of their greater age. The Greek text obtained by using these sources and the related papyri (our most ancient manuscripts) is known as the Alexandrian Text. However, some scholars have grounds for doubting the faithfulness of Vaticanus and Sinaiticus, since they often disagree with one another, and Sinaiticus exhibits excessive omission.

A third viewpoint of New Testament scholarship holds that the best text is based on the consensus of the majority of existing Greek manuscripts. This text is called the Majority Text. Most of these manuscripts are in substantial agreement. Even though many are late, and none is earlier than the fifth century, usually their readings are verified by papyri, ancient versions, quotations from the early church fathers, or a combination of these. The Majority Text is similar to the Textus Receptus, but it corrects those readings which have little or no support in the Greek manuscript tradition.

Today, scholars agree that the science of New Testament textual criticism is in a state of flux. Very few scholars still favor the Textus Receptus as such, and then often for its historical prestige as the text of Luther, Calvin, Tyndale, and the King James Version. For about a century most have followed a Critical Text (so called because it is edited according to specific principles of textual criticism) which depends heavily upon the Alexandrian type of text. More recently many have abandoned this Critical Text (which is quite similar to the one edited by Westcott and Hort) for one that is more eclectic. Finally, a small but growing number of scholars prefer the Majority Text, which is close to the traditional text except in the Revelation.

In light of these facts, and also because the New King James Version is the fifth revision of a historic document translated from specific Greek texts, the editors decided to retain the traditional text in the body of the New Testament and to indicate major Critical and Majority Text variant readings in the center reference column. Although these variations are duly indicated in the center–column notes of the present edition, it is most important to emphasize that fully eighty–five percent of the New Testament text is the same in the Textus Receptus, the Alexandrian Text, and the Majority Text.

Center–Column Notes

Significant explanatory notes, alternate translations, and cross–references, as well as New Testament citations of Old Testament passages, are supplied in the center reference column.

Important textual variants in the Old Testament are identified in a standard form.

The textual notes in the present edition of the New Testament make no evaluation of readings, but do clearly indicate the manuscript sources of readings. They objectively present the facts without such tendentious remarks as "the best manuscripts omit" or "the most reliable manuscripts read." Such notes are value judgments that differ according to varying viewpoints on the text. By giving a clearly defined set of variants the New King James Version benefits readers of all textual persuasions.

NU–Text
These variations from the traditional text generally represent the Alexandrian or Egyptian type of text described previously in "The New Testament Text." They are found in the Critical Text published in the twenty–seventh edition of the Nestle–Aland Greek New Testament (N) and in the United Bible Societies' fourth edition (U), hence the acronym, "NU–Text."

M–Text
This symbol indicates points of variation in the Majority Text from the traditional text, as also previously discussed in "The New Testament Text." It should be noted that M stands for whatever reading is printed in the published Greek New Testament According to the Majority Text, whether supported by overwhelming, strong, or only a divided majority textual tradition.

THE OLD TESTAMENT

THE FIRST BOOK OF MOSES CALLED

GENESIS

INTRODUCTION

The title Genesis comes from the Greek language. It means "Origin" or "Source." The Hebrew title for this book was drawn from the first word of chapter one, meaning "In the beginning." Both names are appropriate, as Genesis sets the foundation for a full understanding of biblical faith. In Genesis, the doctrines of God, creation, salvation, sin, family, mission, humanity, and hope all have their beginnings.

SIGNIFICANCE

Genesis was written in a time when people believed in many different gods. These mythical gods did not desire a close fellowship with humans, but were concerned with their own affairs. The gods of the ancient world could allegedly be manipulated. They fought among themselves, tricked one another, and put little value on human life. In contrast, Genesis testified to the one true God who was the creator of all things. He was a God who desired fellowship with humans. His nature was love, and out of that love He created man and woman. Genesis was written to reveal how different the true God was from the false gods of the ancient world and to reveal God's special purpose for His creation.

STRUCTURE

The book has two distinct sections. The first section, 1:1—11:26, includes the creation accounts, the fall of humankind, God's judgment, the deliverance of Noah, and the record of the spread of people around the world. The second section, 11:27—50:26, records God's plan to redeem mankind through the life of Abraham and his descendents. The second section records the way in which God worked in the lives of Abraham (11:27—25:18), Isaac (25:19—26:35), Jacob (27:1—37:1), and Joseph (37:2—50:26) to bring about His purposes to create a people set apart for Himself.

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH GENESIS

The Bible's purpose is not merely to provide a history of the people who walked with God in ancient times, but to reveal God Himself, His nature, His purposes, and His ways. Genesis provides a record of how God walked with those He chose to use to bring about His plans. He does not change. The God we worship is the same yesterday, today, and forever (Heb. 13:8). The truths revealed in Genesis concerning the nature and ways of God are still true today. Some of the truths you will encounter as you read Genesis include: God is the Creator of all and remains in control over His creation; God desires intimate fellowship with humankind; God is holy and requires that His people obey His commands; sin has entered into the world and has affected all people and God will judge sin; God did not give up on humanity when sin entered the world and He seeks to mend the breach that sin has placed between Himself and His world; God is a covenant God who always fulfills His promises.

Through the Patriarchs you will follow the lives of people who learned to walk with God. Their lives reveal shortcomings and failures. However, through God's grace their characters were fashioned so they would become examples for God's people of how to live righteously, by faith. These people's lives and the manner in which God used them will challenge your own life as God shapes and uses you.

The History of Creation

IN the [a]beginning [b]God created the heavens and the earth.

ENCOUNTER Note — Gen. 1:1

In the Beginning—God

God stands at the beginning of human history, of creation and of time. Nothing precedes Him. Nothing is before Him. Nothing begins without Him.

WORD Study — GOD

Gen. 1:1 Scripture uses many names to refer to God. The most common Old Testament term is the Hebrew word, 'elohim. It means "mighty" or "the almighty." The word is plural in form, possibly indicating an awareness of God as Trinity. More likely this is the literary use of the plural of majesty or the intensive plural which reflects God's majesty.

2 The earth was [a]without form, and void; and darkness [1]was on the face of the deep. [b]And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters.
3 [a]Then God said, [b]"Let there be [c]light"; and there was light.
4 And God saw the light, that it was good; and God divided the light from the darkness.
5 God called the light Day, and the [a]darkness He called Night. [1]So the evening and the morning were the first day.
6 Then God said, [a]"Let there be a [1]firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters."
7 Thus God made the firmament, [a]and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were [b]above the firmament; and it was so.
8 And God called the firmament Heaven. So the evening and the morning were the second day.
9 Then God said, [a]"Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together into one place, and [b]let the dry land appear"; and it was so.
10 And God called the dry land Earth, and the gathering together of the waters He called Seas. And God saw that it was good.

11 Then God said, "Let the earth [a]bring forth grass, the herb that yields seed, and the [b]fruit tree that yields fruit according to its kind, whose seed is in itself, on the earth"; and it was so.
12 And the earth brought forth grass, the herb that yields seed according to its kind, and the tree that yields fruit, whose seed is in itself according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.
13 So the evening and the morning were the third day.
14 Then God said, "Let there be [a]lights in the firmament of the heavens to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs and [b]seasons, and for days and years;
15 "and let them be for lights in the firmament of the heavens to give light on the earth"; and it was so.
16 Then God made two great [1]lights: the [a]greater light to rule the day, and the [b]lesser light to rule the night. He made [c]the stars also.
17 God set them in the firmament of the [a]heavens to give light on the earth,
18 and to [a]rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good.
19 So the evening and the morning were the fourth day.
20 Then God said, "Let the waters abound with an abundance of living [1]creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the face of the [2]firmament of the heavens."
21 So [a]God created great sea creatures and every living thing that moves, with which the waters abounded, according to their kind, and every winged bird according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.
22 And God blessed them, saying, [a]"Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth."
23 So the evening and the morning were the fifth day.
24 Then God said, "Let the earth bring forth the living creature according to its kind: cattle and creeping thing and beast of the earth, each according to its kind"; and it was so.
25 And God made the beast of the earth according to its kind, cattle according to its kind, and everything that creeps on the earth according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

1:8 "Firmament" or "expanse." "Heaven" or "sky."

1:22 "Blessed": This is the first mention of this important word. It is found eighty-eight times in Genesis, more than any other book in the Bible. God blesses animals (1:22), mankind (1:28), the Sabbath (2:3), Adam (5:2), Noah (9:1) and the patriarchs (12:3; 17:16). Blessing signifies God's expressed favor, and it generally comes out of a covenant promise. Here God's blessing guarantees humanity's success in fulfilling God's command to "be fruitful and multiply."

God Speaks

God takes the initiative to speak. What He says is always true and it is always good. This is the reality whenever He speaks to you.

26 Then God said, [a]"Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; [b]let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, over [1]all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth."

WORD*Study* GOD'S IMAGE

Gen. 1:26 God originally created people in His image. What is meant by God's image? It includes spiritual, moral and intellectual properties. Being the only creatures made in God's image, people had a unique opportunity to relate to God personally. Thus, they are not merely imitators of God's nature but they actually participate in it. Adam and Eve's sin marred the image and brought about separation from God, further distorting their likeness to God.

27 So God created man [a]in His own image; in the image of God He created him; [b]male and female He created them.

WORD*Study* CREATE

Gen. 1:27 The Hebrew word bara, translated "create" is used exclusively to describe God's activity. God creates material things as well as people (Is. 43:7) and clean hearts (Is. 51:10).

28 Then God blessed them, and God said to them, [a]"Be fruitful and multiply; fill the earth and [b]subdue it; have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over every living thing that [1]moves on the earth."
29 And God said, "See, I have given you every herb that yields seed which is on the face of all the earth, and every tree whose fruit yields seed; [a]to you it shall be for food.
30 "Also, to [a]every beast of the earth, to every [b]bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, in which there is [1]life, I have given every green herb for food"; and it was so.
31 Then [a]God saw everything that He had made, and indeed it was very good. So the evening and the morning were the sixth day.
2 Thus the heavens and the earth, and [a]all the host of them, were finished.
2 [a]And on the seventh day God ended His work which He had done, and He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had done.
3 Then God [a]blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because in it He rested from all His work which God had created and made.
4 [a]This is the [1]history of the heavens and the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens,
5 before any [a]plant of the field was in the earth and before any herb of the field had grown. For the LORD God had not [b]caused it to rain on the earth, and there was no man [c]to till the ground;
6 but a mist went up from the earth and watered the whole face of the ground.
7 And the LORD God formed man of the [a]dust of the ground, and [b]breathed into his [c]nostrils the breath of life; and [d]man became a living being.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 2:7

Breath of Life

God is the only source of life. Into whatever God breathes, there is life and vibrancy. Intimacy with God involves God breathing life into His people.

Life in God's Garden

8 The LORD God planted [a]a garden [b]eastward in [c]Eden, and there He put the man whom He had formed.
9 And out of the ground the LORD God made [a]every tree grow that is pleasant to the sight and good for food. [b]The tree of life was also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and [c]evil.
10 Now a river went out of Eden to

1:27 "Male and female" indicates both were made in God's image.
1:28 "Subdue" is literally "to bring into bondage."
2:2 "Rested": God rested because His work was finished, not because He was weary.
2:7 "Formed" is a word used to describe the work of a skilled craftsman (Ps. 94:90). "Breathed" describes the intimacy of a face to face relationship.
2:8 "Eden" means "delight."

water the garden, and from there it parted and became four riverheads.
11 The name of the first is Pishon; it is the one which skirts [a]the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold.
12 And the gold of that land is good. [a]Bdellium and the onyx stone are there.
13 The name of the second river is Gihon; it is the one which goes around the whole land of Cush.
14 The name of the third river is [a]Hiddekel;[1] it is the one which goes toward the east of [2]Assyria. The fourth river is the Euphrates.
15 Then the LORD God took [1]the man and put him in the garden of Eden to [2]tend and keep it.

ENCOUNTER Note Gen. 2:15

In the Garden

God positions His children in the midst of His grace. God knows you intimately. Your surroundings are God's gracious gift to you.

16 And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, "Of every tree of the garden you may freely eat;
17 "but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil [a]you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it [b]you[1] shall surely [c]die."
18 And the LORD God said, "It is not good that man should be alone; [a]I will make him a helper comparable to him."

WORD Study HELPER

Gen. 2:18 Adam was designed for relationship; he was not created to live in isolation. Therefore God gave him a "helper." God created a companion who was comparable to him. "Helper" literally means "a help as opposite to him" and means "corresponding to him." The same term "helper" is used to describe God's assistance to His people (Ex. 18:4; Deut. 33:7, 26, 29; Ps. 20:2; 121:1, 2; 124:8). Being formed from Adam's side may symbolize a partnership of equals.

19 [a]Out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and [b]brought them to [1]Adam to see what he would call them. And whatever Adam called each living creature, that was its name.
20 So Adam gave names to all cattle, to the birds of the air, and to every beast of the field. But for Adam there was not found a helper comparable to him.
21 And the LORD God caused a [a]deep sleep to fall on Adam, and he slept; and He took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh in its place.
22 Then the rib which the LORD God had taken from man He [1]made into a woman, [a]and He [b]brought her to the man.
23 And Adam said:

"This is now [a]bone of my bones
And flesh of my flesh;
She shall be called [1]Woman,
Because she was [b]taken out of [2]Man."

24 [a]Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and [b]be[1] joined to his wife, and they shall become one flesh.
25 [a]And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not [b]ashamed.

The Temptation and Fall of Man

3 Now [a]the serpent was [b]more cunning than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said to the woman, "Has God indeed said, 'You shall not eat of every tree of the garden'?"
2 And the woman said to the serpent, "We may eat the [a]fruit of the trees of the garden;
3 "but of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God has said, 'You shall not eat it, nor shall you [a]touch it, lest you die.' "
4 [a]Then the serpent said to the woman, "You will not surely die.
5 "For God knows that in the day you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil."
6 So when the woman [a]saw that the tree was good for food, that it was [1]pleasant to the eyes, and a tree desirable to make one wise, she took of its fruit [b]and ate. She also gave to her husband with her, and he ate.
7 Then the eyes of both of them were opened, [a]and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves [1]coverings.
8 And they heard [a]the [1]sound of the LORD God walking in the garden in the [2]cool of the day, and Adam and his wife [b]hid themselves from the presence of

2:19 "Adam" is preceded by an article and could be translated "the man."
3:6 The terms "good, pleasant and desirable" reflect the outward attractiveness of sin, though it led to death.
3:8 "Cool" is literally "wind."
3:8 Sin immediately introduced shame into humanity (3:9). "Presence" literally means "face."

the LORD God among the trees of the garden.
9 Then the LORD God called to Adam and said to him, "Where are you?"

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 3:9

God Calls

Sin separates us from God and others. Yet God does not remain indifferent to our deserved fate. He calls after us. He pursues us. He refuses to give up on us. He breaks down barriers to redeem us.

10 So he said, "I heard Your voice in the garden, [a]and I was afraid because I was naked; and I hid myself."
11 And He said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you that you should not eat?"
12 Then the man said, [a]"The woman whom You gave to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I ate."
13 And the LORD God said to the woman, "What is this you have done?" The woman said, [a]"The serpent deceived me, and I ate."
14 So the LORD God said to the serpent:

"Because you have done this,
You are cursed more than all cattle,
And more than every beast of the field;
On your belly you shall go,
And [a]you shall eat dust
All the days of your life.
15 And I will put enmity
Between you and the woman,
And between [a]your seed and [b]her Seed;
[c]He shall bruise your head,
And you shall bruise His heel."

WORD*Study* SEED

Gen. 3:15 "Seed" can mean the seed sown in the ground, or it can refer to offspring. When speaking of descendants it can refer to an individual, such as the Messiah (Gen. 3:15; Num. 24:7; Gal. 3:16) or to a group of people such as the nation of Israel.

16 To the woman He said:

"I will greatly multiply your sorrow and your conception;
[a]In pain you shall bring forth children;
[b]Your desire shall be [1]for your husband,
And he shall [c]rule over you."

17 Then to Adam He said, [a]"Because you have heeded the voice of your wife, and have eaten from the tree [b]of which I commanded you, saying, 'You shall not eat of it':

[c]"Cursed is the ground for your sake;
[d]In toil you shall eat of it
All the days of your life.
18 Both thorns and thistles it shall [1]bring forth for you,
And [a]you shall eat the herb of the field.
19 [a]In the sweat of your face you shall eat bread
Till you return to the ground,
For out of it you were taken;
[b]For dust you are,
And [c]to dust you shall return."

20 And Adam called his wife's name [a]Eve,[1] because she was the mother of all living.
21 Also for Adam and his wife the LORD God made tunics of skin, and clothed them.
22 Then the LORD God said, "Behold, the man has become like one of Us, to know good and evil. And now, lest he put out his hand and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever"—
23 therefore the LORD God sent him out of the garden of Eden [a]to till the ground from which he was taken.
24 So [a]He drove out the man; and He placed [b]cherubim [c]at the east of the garden of Eden, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the tree of [d]life.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 3:24

No Return

God's judgment on sin is thorough and absolute. Once sin separates us from God there is nothing we can do to regain access to His holy presence. Only God in His grace can enable us to return to Him.

3:15 "Bruise" can also be translated "crush" or "strike."
3:14 Sin ushered in a curse on nature and humanity. Sin leads to death (Deut. 28:15-68).
3:20 "Eve" is only mentioned in the Old Testament by name here and in Genesis 4:1. Her name may mean "Living."
3:21 Adam and Eve's sin, resulting in the need for skins to cover them, immediately meant death for animals presumably in the garden.
3:24 Cherubim were special angelic beings (see Ex. 25:18–22; 26:1; 36:8, 35; 37:7–9; Ps. 18:10; Ezek. 10).

Cain Murders Abel

4 Now Adam knew Eve his wife, and she conceived and bore [1]Cain, and said, "I have acquired a man from the LORD."
2 Then she bore again, this time his brother [1]Abel. Now [a]Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.
3 And [1]in the process of time it came to pass that Cain brought an offering of the fruit [a]of the ground to the LORD.
4 Abel also brought of [a]the firstborn of his flock and of [b]their fat. And the LORD [c]respected Abel and his offering,
5 but He did not respect Cain and his offering. And Cain was very angry, and his countenance fell.
6 So the LORD said to Cain, "Why are you angry? And why has your countenance fallen?
7 "If you do well, will you not be accepted? And if you do not do well, sin lies at the door. And its desire is [1]for you, but you should rule over it."
8 Now Cain [1]talked with Abel his [2]brother; and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother and [a]killed him.
9 Then the LORD said to Cain, "Where is Abel your brother?" He said, [a]"I do not know. Am I [b]my brother's keeper?"
10 And He said, "What have you done? The voice of your brother's blood [a]cries out to Me from the ground.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 4:10

Our Sin Cries Out

We may lie to God and ignore His enquiries, but we cannot hide our sin from His eyes. Our sin cries out to God's holy ears. None escapes His attention. God is ever aware of our fallen, sinful condition.

12 "When you till the ground, it shall no longer yield its strength to you. A fugitive and a vagabond you shall be on the earth."
13 And Cain said to the LORD, "My [1]punishment is greater than I can bear!
14 "Surely You have driven me out this day from the face of the ground; [a]I shall be [b]hidden from Your face; I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond on the earth, and it will happen that [c]anyone who finds me will kill me."
15 And the LORD said to him, [1]"Therefore, whoever kills Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him [a]sevenfold." And the LORD set a [b]mark on Cain, lest anyone finding him should kill him.

The Family of Cain

16 Then Cain [a]went out from the [b]presence of the LORD and dwelt in the land of [1]Nod on the east of Eden.
17 And Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Enoch. And he built a city, [a]and called the name of the city after the name of his son—Enoch.
18 To Enoch was born Irad; and Irad begot Mehujael, and Mehujael begot Methushael, and Methushael begot Lamech.
19 Then Lamech took for himself [a]two wives: the name of one was Adah, and the name of the second was Zillah.
20 And Adah bore Jabal. He was the father of those who dwell in tents and have livestock.
21 His brother's name was Jubal. He was the father of all those who play the harp and [1]flute.
22 And as for Zillah, she also bore Tubal-Cain, an instructor of every craftsman in bronze and iron. And the sister of Tubal-Cain was Naamah.
23 Then Lamech said to his wives:

CHARACTER*Study* CAIN Gen. 4:1

Was the first child born to Adam and Eve. Cain's name may carry the meaning "Obtain" or "Acquire." An alternative meaning might be "Brought Forth." Cain provides many of history's firsts: he was the first person born of a mother; the first person to commit premeditated murder when he killed his brother Abel and the first person to lie to God when confronted with his sin. Cain's life provides graphic evidence of sin's destructive and insidious consequences.

4:2 The word "Abel" is the same as the Hebrew word signifying "breath" or "vapor." It could also mean "son."
4:7 "Rule over it" comes from the same word used to describe the taming of a wild beast.
4:9 God's question "where" parallels His question to Adam and Eve (3:9). Sin separates us from God. Yet God continually calls out to us.
4:16 "Nod" means "Wandering."

"Adah and Zillah, hear my voice;
Wives of Lamech, listen to my speech!
For I have [1]killed a man for wounding me,
Even a young man [2]for hurting me.
24 [a]If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold,
Then Lamech seventy-sevenfold."

A New Son

25 And Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son and [a]named him [1]Seth, "For God has appointed another seed for me instead of Abel, whom Cain killed."
26 And as for Seth, [a]to him also a son was born; and he named him [1]Enosh. Then men began [b]to call on the name of the LORD.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 4:26

Calling on the Name of the Lord

Calling on the name or character of the Lord does not come naturally to people. It originates from a desire for God's holiness and love. It follows the recognition and acknowledgment of our own inability and God's all-sufficiency.

The Family of Adam

5 This is the book of the [a]genealogy of Adam. In the day that God created man, He made him in [b]the likeness of God.
2 He created them [a]male and female, and [b]blessed them and called them Mankind in the day they were created.
3 And Adam lived one hundred and thirty years, and begot a son [a]in his own likeness, after his image, and [b]named him Seth.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 5:3

God's Purposes Prevail

God purposed for Adam and Eve to populate the earth with their offspring. Their children soon experienced deceit, treachery, and murder. Sin sought to destroy every plan God had for His people. Yet God's purposes prevailed over the worst that sin could do.

4 After he begot Seth, [a]the days of Adam were eight hundred years; [b]and he had sons and daughters.
5 So all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years; [a]and he died.
6 Seth lived one hundred and five years, and begot [a]Enosh.
7 After he begot Enosh, Seth lived eight hundred and seven years, and had sons and daughters.
8 So all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years; and he died.
9 Enosh lived ninety years, and begot [1]Cainan.
10 After he begot Cainan, Enosh lived eight hundred and fifteen years, and had sons and daughters.
11 So all the days of Enosh were nine hundred and five years; and he died.
12 Cainan lived seventy years, and begot Mahalalel.
13 After he begot Mahalalel, Cainan lived eight hundred and forty years, and had sons and daughters.
14 So all the days of Cainan were nine hundred and ten years; and he died.
15 Mahalalel lived sixty-five years, and begot Jared.
16 After he begot Jared, Mahalalel lived eight hundred and thirty years, and had sons and daughters.
17 So all the days of Mahalalel were eight hundred and ninety-five years; and he died.
18 Jared lived one hundred and sixty-two years, and begot [a]Enoch.
19 After he begot Enoch, Jared lived eight hundred years, and had sons and daughters.
20 So all the days of Jared were nine hundred and sixty-two years; and he died.
21 Enoch lived sixty-five years, and begot Methuselah.
22 After he begot Methuselah, Enoch [a]walked with God three hundred years, and had sons and daughters.
23 So all the days of Enoch were three hundred and sixty-five years.
24 And [a]Enoch walked with God; and he was not, for God [b]took him.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 5:24

Walking with God

God dearly loves to walk with His children. Walking with God is living with the constant awareness of God's presence. Walking intimately with God in this life brings us naturally and seamlessly into fellowship with God in the next life.

5:18 "Jared" may mean "descent."

25 Methuselah lived one hundred and eighty-seven years, and begot Lamech.
26 After he begot Lamech, Methuselah lived seven hundred and eighty-two years, and had sons and daughters.
27 So all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred and sixty-nine years; and he died.
28 Lamech lived one hundred and eighty-two years, and had a son.
29 And he called his name [a]Noah,[1] saying, "This one will comfort us concerning our work and the toil of our hands, because of the ground [b]which the LORD has cursed."
30 After he begot Noah, Lamech lived five hundred and ninety-five years, and had sons and daughters.
31 So all the days of Lamech were seven hundred and seventy-seven years; and he died.
32 And Noah was five hundred years old, and Noah begot [a]Shem, Ham, [b]and Japheth.

The Wickedness and Judgment of Man

6 Now it came to pass, [a]when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born to them,
2 that the sons of God saw the daughters of men, that they were beautiful; and they [a]took wives for themselves of all whom they chose.
3 And the LORD said, [a]"My Spirit shall not [b]strive[1] with man forever, [c]for he is indeed flesh; yet his days shall be one hundred and twenty years."
4 There were [1]giants on the earth in those [a]days, and also afterward, when the sons of God came in to the daughters of men and they bore children to them. Those were the mighty men who were of old, men of renown.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 6:5

God Sees Our Heart

God relates to us not on the basis of what we say or what we intend but according to what He sees in our heart. Our sin naturally influences us toward evil and away from God.

6 And [a]the LORD was sorry that He had made man on the earth, and [b]He was grieved in His [c]heart.
7 So the LORD said, "I will [a]destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth, both man and beast, creeping thing and birds of the air, for I am sorry that I have made them."
8 But Noah [a]found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

Noah Pleases God

9 This is the genealogy of Noah. [a]Noah was a just man, [1]perfect in his generations. Noah [b]walked with God.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 6:9

Walking Daily

To walk with God is to be daily, regularly aware of His presence. It means maintaining a life that is continually oriented toward God and His purposes. It means enjoying an intimate relationship with the Almighty.

CHARACTER*Study*

Gen. 5:29

Noah was the oldest son of Lamech. Noah's name means "Rest" and may carry with it the idea of "comfort." He lived in an extremely wicked age when people's thoughts dwelled continually on evil. Yet despite the corruption of his day, Noah lived blamelessly before God and men (Gen. 6:9). When God gave him the enormous and peculiar task of building an ark, Noah thoroughly obeyed though the assignment lasted one hundred years (Gen. 6:22). While Noah constructed the ark, he preached to his contemporaries, but without effect (2 Pet. 2:5). Noah's obedience saved him and his family and set a biblical example of faith for future generations (Heb. 11:7). His obedience also led God to initiate a new covenant with Noah and his descendents, one that would remain in effect for all time (Gen. 8:20–22).

5:25 "Methuselah" may mean "man of the javelin."
5:32 "Shem" means "Name." "Ham" later became a synonym for Egypt (Ps. 78:51; 105:23, 27; 106:22). "Japheth" means "May God Enlarge."
6:4 "Giants" is literally "Nephilim" which may designate a particular race of people known for their large size. "Nephilim" means "Fallen Ones."
6:6 "Sorry" is literally "repented."
6:9 "Perfect" can also be translated "blameless." It involves being complete, sound, morally upright, and having integrity.

10 And Noah begot three sons: [a]Shem, Ham, and Japheth.
11 The earth also was corrupt [a]before God, and the earth was [b]filled with violence.
12 So God [a]looked upon the earth, and indeed it was corrupt; for [b]all flesh had corrupted their way on the earth.

The Ark Prepared

13 And God said to Noah, [a]"The end of all flesh has come before Me, for the earth is filled with violence through them; [b]and behold, [c]I will destroy them with the earth.
14 "Make yourself an ark of gopherwood; make [1]rooms in the ark, and cover it inside and outside with pitch.
15 "And this is how you shall make it: The length of the ark shall be three hundred [1]cubits, its width fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits.
16 "You shall make a window for the ark, and you shall finish it to a cubit from above; and set the door of the ark in its side. You shall make it with lower, second, and third decks.
17 [a]"And behold, I Myself am bringing [b]floodwaters on the earth, to destroy from under heaven all flesh in which is the breath of life; everything that is on the earth shall [c]die.
18 "But I will establish My [a]covenant with you; and [b]you shall go into the ark—you, your sons, your wife, and your sons' wives with you.
19 "And of every living thing of all flesh you shall bring [a]two of every sort into the ark, to keep them alive with you; they shall be male and female.
20 "Of the birds after their kind, of animals after their kind, and of every creeping thing of the earth after its kind, two of every kind [a]will come to you to keep them alive.
21 "And you shall take for yourself of all food that is eaten, and you shall gather it to yourself; and it shall be food for you and for them."
22 [a]Thus Noah did; [b]according to all that [c]God commanded him, so he did.

The Great Flood

7 Then the [a]LORD said to Noah, [b]"Come into the ark, you and all your household, because I have seen that [c]you are righteous before Me in this generation.
2 "You shall take with you seven each of every [a]clean animal, a male and his female; [b]two each of animals that are unclean, a male and his female;
3 "also seven each of birds of the air, male and female, to keep [1]the species alive on the face of all the earth.
4 "For after [a]seven more days I will cause it to rain on the earth [b]forty days and forty nights, and I will [1]destroy from the face of the earth all living things that I have made."
5 [a]And Noah did according to all that the LORD commanded him.

6 Noah was [a]six hundred years old when the floodwaters were on the earth.
7 [a]So Noah, with his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives, went into the ark because of the waters of the flood.
8 Of clean animals, of animals that are unclean, of birds, and of everything that creeps on the earth,
9 two by two they went into the ark to Noah, male and female, as God had commanded Noah.
10 And it came to pass after seven days that the waters of the flood were on the earth.
11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, on [a]that day all [b]the fountains of the great deep were broken up, and the [c]windows of heaven were opened.
12 [a]And the rain was on the earth forty days and forty nights.
13 On the very same day Noah and Noah's sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth,

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 7:1

Righteous Before Me

Our righteousness is lived out among people, but it is measured before God. Our holiness is not based on how we compare to others or on peoples' impression of us. It is determined by how we measure up to God's perfect standard.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 7:5

All

Righteousness does not happen in a vacuum. If we have a heart for God, we will do what God tells us to do.

6:14 "Gopherwood" is probably pine or cypress.
6:15 A cubit is approximately 18 inches. The dimensions of the ark would have been approximately 450 feet long, 75 feet wide, and 45 feet high.
7:1 Just as Adam's sin caused suffering for his family and descendents, so Noah's righteousness brought salvation to his entire household.

and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons with them, entered the ark—14 [a]they and every beast after its kind, all cattle after their kind, every creeping thing that creeps on the earth after its kind, and every bird after its kind, every bird of every [b]sort.
15 And they [a]went into the ark to Noah, two by two, of all flesh in which is the breath of life.
16 So those that entered, male and female of all flesh, went in [a]as God had commanded him; and the LORD shut him in.
17 [a]Now the flood was on the earth forty days. The waters increased and lifted up the ark, and it rose high above the earth.
18 The waters prevailed and greatly increased on the earth, [a]and the ark moved about on the surface of the waters.
19 And the waters prevailed exceedingly on the earth, and all the high hills under the whole heaven were covered.
20 The waters prevailed fifteen cubits upward, and the mountains were covered.
21 [a]And all flesh died that moved on [1]the earth: birds and cattle and beasts and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, and every man.
22 All in [a]whose nostrils was the breath [1]of the spirit of life, all that was on the dry land, died.

ENCOUNTER Note — Gen. 7:22

Thorough Judgment

God is infinitely gracious but He is also absolutely just. When God brings judgment there is no relenting and no exceptions. God overlooks nothing and no one when it is time to bring judgment upon sinners.

23 So He destroyed all living things which were on the face of the ground: both man and cattle, creeping thing and bird of the air. They were destroyed from the earth. Only [a]Noah and those who were with him in the ark remained alive.
24 [a]And the waters prevailed on the earth one hundred and fifty days.

Noah's Deliverance

8 Then God [a]remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the animals that were with him in the ark. [b]And God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters subsided.

CHAPTER 8

1 [a]Gen. 19:29

ENCOUNTER Note — Gen. 8:1

God Remembers

Regardless of how evil a generation may be, God always remembers and watches over those who are righteous. When sin is rampant and destruction is everywhere, the righteous take comfort in knowing that God keeps them constantly in His sight and always near His heart.

2 [a]The fountains of the deep and the windows of heaven were also [b]stopped, and [c]the rain from heaven was restrained.
3 And the waters receded continually from the earth. At the end [a]of the hundred and fifty days the waters decreased.
4 Then the ark rested in the seventh month, the seventeenth day of the month, on the mountains of Ararat.
5 And the waters decreased continually until the tenth month. In the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains were seen.
6 So it came to pass, at the end of forty days, that Noah opened [a]the window of the ark which he had made.
7 Then he sent out a raven, which kept going to and fro until the waters had dried up from the earth.
8 He also sent out from himself a dove, to see if the waters had receded from the face of the ground.
9 But the dove found no resting place for the sole of her foot, and she returned into the ark to him, for the waters were on the face of the whole earth. So he put out his hand and took her, and drew her into the ark to himself.
10 And he waited yet another seven days, and again he sent the dove out from the ark.
11 Then the dove came to him in the evening, and behold, a freshly plucked olive leaf was in her mouth; and Noah knew that the waters had receded from the earth.
12 So he waited yet another seven days and sent out the dove, which did not return again to him anymore.

2 [a]Gen. 7:11 [b]Deut. 11:17 [c]Job 38:37
3 [a]Gen. 7:24
6 [a]Gen. 6:16

7:16 The phrase "the LORD shut him in" reflects God's fatherly concern for Noah and his family even as God was bringing judgment on those who were rebelling against Him.

8:4 Mount Ararat: The mountains of Ararat extend over sections of Turkey, southern Russia and northwest Iran but Mount Ararat itself stands 17,000 feet tall and is located in modern Armenia.

13 And it came to pass in the six hundred and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, that the waters were dried up from the earth; and Noah removed the covering of the ark and looked, and indeed the surface of the ground was dry.
14 And in the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dried.
15 Then God spoke to Noah, saying,
16 "Go out of the ark, [a]you and your wife, and your sons and your sons' wives with you.
17 "Bring out with you every living thing of all flesh that is with you: birds and cattle and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, so that they may abound on the earth, and [a]be fruitful and multiply on the earth."
18 So Noah went out, and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives with him.
19 Every animal, every creeping thing, every bird, and whatever creeps on the earth, according to their families, went out of the ark.

God's Covenant with Creation

20 Then Noah built an [a]altar to the LORD, and took of [b]every clean animal and of every clean bird, and offered [c]burnt offerings on the altar.
21 And the LORD smelled [a]a soothing aroma. Then the LORD said in His heart, "I will never again [b]curse the ground for man's sake, although the [c]imagination[1] of man's heart is evil from his youth; [d]nor will I again destroy every living thing as I have done.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 8:21

A Soothing Aroma

God receives divine pleasure from the sincere worship of His people. He takes delight in His creatures' reverence and adoration. Genuine worship elicits a favorable response from God to His people.

3 [a]"Every moving thing that lives shall be food for you. I have given you [b]all things, even as the [c]green herbs.
4 [a]"But you shall not eat flesh with its life, that is, its blood.
5 "Surely for your lifeblood I will demand a reckoning; [a]from the hand of every beast I will require it, and [b]from the hand of man. From the hand of every [c]man's brother I will require the life of man.

6 "Whoever [a]sheds man's blood,
By man his blood shall be shed;
[b]For in the image of God
He made man.
7 And as for you, [a]be fruitful and multiply;
Bring forth abundantly in the earth
And multiply in it."

8 Then God spoke to Noah and to his sons with him, saying:
9 "And as for Me, [a]behold, I establish [b]My covenant with you and with your [1]descendants after you,
10 [a]"and with every living creature that is with you: the birds, the cattle, and every beast of the earth with you, of all that go out of the ark, every beast of the earth.
11 "Thus [a]I establish My covenant with you: Never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of the flood; never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth."
12 And God said: [a]"This is the sign of the covenant which I make between

Reminders

God always upholds His promises. It is we who often forget what He pledged to us, so God seeks to regularly remind us of His intentions toward us. There is evidence of God's love and grace all around us, if we have spiritual eyes to see it.

8:20 Although Noah faced the daunting task of establishing a new home after disembarking from the ark, his first act was to worship God.

8:22 God does not promise that natural disasters will never occur but that the global cycle of nature will not be dramatically disrupted again.

9:9 "Descendents" is literally "seed."

9:9 This is the first formal covenant in scripture. It is universal, permanent and unconditional.

Me and you, and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations:
13 "I set [a]My rainbow in the cloud, and it shall be for the sign of the covenant between Me and the earth.
14 "It shall be, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the rainbow shall be seen in the cloud;
15 "and [a]I will remember My covenant which is between Me and you and every living creature of all flesh; the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh.
16 "The rainbow shall be in the cloud, and I will look on it to remember [a]the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth."
17 And God said to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant which I have established between Me and all flesh that is on the earth."

Noah and His Sons

18 Now the sons of Noah who went out of the ark were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. [a]And Ham was the father of Canaan.
19 [a]These three were the sons of Noah, [b]and from these the whole earth was populated.
20 And Noah began to be [a]a farmer, and he planted a vineyard.
21 Then he drank of the wine [a]and was drunk, and became uncovered in his tent.
22 And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brothers outside.
23 [a]But Shem and Japheth took a garment, laid it on both their shoulders, and went backward and covered the nakedness of their father. Their faces were [1]turned away, and they did not see their father's nakedness.
24 So Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done to him.
25 Then he said:

[a]"Cursed be Canaan;
A [b]servant of servants
He shall be to his brethren."

26 And he said:

[a]"Blessed be the LORD,
The God of Shem,
And may Canaan be his servant.
27 May God [a]enlarge Japheth,
[b]And may he dwell in the tents of Shem;
And may Canaan be his servant."

28 And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years.
29 So all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years; and he died.

Nations Descended from Noah

10 Now this is the genealogy of the sons of Noah: Shem, Ham, and Japheth. [a]And sons were born to them after the flood.

Our Heritage

God is intimately familiar with your history. He knows everything that has gone in to shaping you into who you are. He knows all your ancestors. God understands the challenges you face because of those who preceded you. God always relates to you with your history in view.

2 [a]The sons of Japheth were Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras.
3 The sons of Gomer were Ashkenaz, [1]Riphath, and Togarmah.
4 The sons of Javan were Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, and [1]Dodanim.
5 From these [a]the coastland peoples of the Gentiles were separated into their lands, everyone according to his language, according to their families, into their nations.
6 [a]The sons of Ham were Cush, Mizraim, [1]Put, and Canaan.
7 The sons of Cush were Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabtechah; and the sons of Raamah were Sheba and Dedan.
8 Cush begot [a]Nimrod; he began to be a mighty one on the earth.

25 [a]To Eber were born two sons: the name of one was [1]Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided; and his brother's name was Joktan.
26 Joktan begot Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah,
27 Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah,
28 [1]Obal, Abimael, Sheba,
29 Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. All these were the sons of Joktan.

The Tower of Babel

11 Now the whole earth had one language and one [1]speech.
2 And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land [a]of Shinar, and they dwelt there.
3 Then they said to one another, "Come, let us make bricks and [1]bake them thoroughly." They had brick for stone, and they had asphalt for mortar.
4 And they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower [a]whose top is in the heavens; let us make a [b]name for ourselves, lest we [c]be scattered abroad over the face of the whole earth."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 11:4

Corporate Pride

God created us for interdependence and we can find strength in numbers. Yet God will jealously guard His position as our source of strength lest we substitute other relationships for our dependence on Him.

5 [a]But the LORD came down to see the city and the tower which the sons of men had built.
6 And the LORD said, "Indeed [a]the people are one and they all have [b]one language, and this is what they begin to do; now nothing that they [c]propose to do will be withheld from them.
7 "Come, [a]let Us go down and there [b]confuse their language, that they may not understand one another's speech."
8 So [a]the LORD scattered them abroad from there [b]over the face of all the earth, and they ceased building the city.
9 Therefore its name is called [1]Babel, [a]because there the LORD confused the language of all the earth; and from there the LORD scattered them abroad over the face of all the earth.

Shem's Descendants

10 [a]This is the genealogy of Shem: Shem was one hundred years old, and begot Arphaxad two years after the flood.
11 After he begot Arphaxad, Shem lived five hundred years, and begot sons and daughters.
12 Arphaxad lived thirty-five years, [a]and begot Salah.

14 Salah lived thirty years, and begot Eber.
15 After he begot Eber, Salah lived four hundred and three years, and begot sons and daughters.
16 [a]Eber lived thirty-four years, and begot [b]Peleg.
17 After he begot Peleg, Eber lived four hundred and thirty years, and begot sons and daughters.
18 Peleg lived thirty years, and begot Reu.
19 After he begot Reu, Peleg lived two hundred and nine years, and begot sons and daughters.
20 Reu lived thirty-two years, and begot [a]Serug.
21 After he begot Serug, Reu lived two hundred and seven years, and begot sons and daughters.
22 Serug lived thirty years, and begot Nahor.
23 After he begot Nahor, Serug lived two hundred years, and begot sons and daughters.
24 Nahor lived twenty-nine years, and begot [a]Terah.
25 After he begot Terah, Nahor lived one hundred and nineteen years, and begot sons and daughters.
26 Now Terah lived seventy years, and [a]begot [1]Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

Terah's Descendants

27 This is the genealogy of Terah: Terah begot [a]Abram, Nahor, and Haran. Haran begot Lot.
28 And Haran died before his father Terah in his native land, in Ur of the Chaldeans.
29 Then Abram and Nahor took wives: the name of Abram's wife was [a]Sarai,[1] and the name of Nahor's wife, [b]Milcah, the daughter of Haran the father of Milcah and the father of Iscah.
30 But [a]Sarai was barren; she had no child.
31 And Terah [a]took his son Abram and his grandson Lot, the son of Haran, and his daughter-in-law Sarai, his son Abram's wife, and they went out with them from [b]Ur of the Chaldeans to go to [c]the land of Canaan; and they came to Haran and dwelt there.
32 So the days of Terah were two hundred and five years, and Terah died in Haran.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 11:31

Previous Beginnings

If you examine God's present activity in your life, you will see it as a continuation of what He has been doing for years and even for generations. Your walk with God is a dramatic reflection of the faithfulness of those who went before you.

Promises to Abram

12 Now the [a]LORD had said to Abram:

"Get [b]out of your country,
From your family
And from your father's house,
To a land that I will show you.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 12:1

God Calls

God is the divine initiator in our lives. God's call on a life is specific, extensive, thorough, and eternal. A life set apart by God cannot remain the same. Moreover, when we respond to God's call, the kingdom of God will not remain the same.

2 [a]I will make you a great nation;
[b]I will bless you
And make your name great;
[c]And you shall be a blessing.
3 [a]I will bless those who bless you,
And I will curse him who curses you;
And in [b]you all the families of the earth shall be [c]blessed."

4 So Abram departed as the LORD had spoken to him, and Lot went with him. And Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran.
5 Then Abram took Sarai his wife and Lot his brother's son, and all their possessions that they had gathered, and [a]the [1]people whom they had acquired [b]in Haran, and they [c]departed to go to the land of Canaan. So they came to the land of Canaan.
6 Abram [a]passed through the land to the place of Shechem, [b]as far as [1]the terebinth tree of Moreh. [c]And the Canaanites were then in the land.
7 [a]Then the LORD appeared to Abram and said, [b]"To your [1]descendants I will give this land." And there he built an [c]altar to the LORD, who had appeared to him.

8 And he moved from there to the mountain east of Bethel, and he pitched his tent with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east; there he built an altar to the LORD and [a]called on the name of the LORD.

ENCOUNTER Note — Gen. 12:8

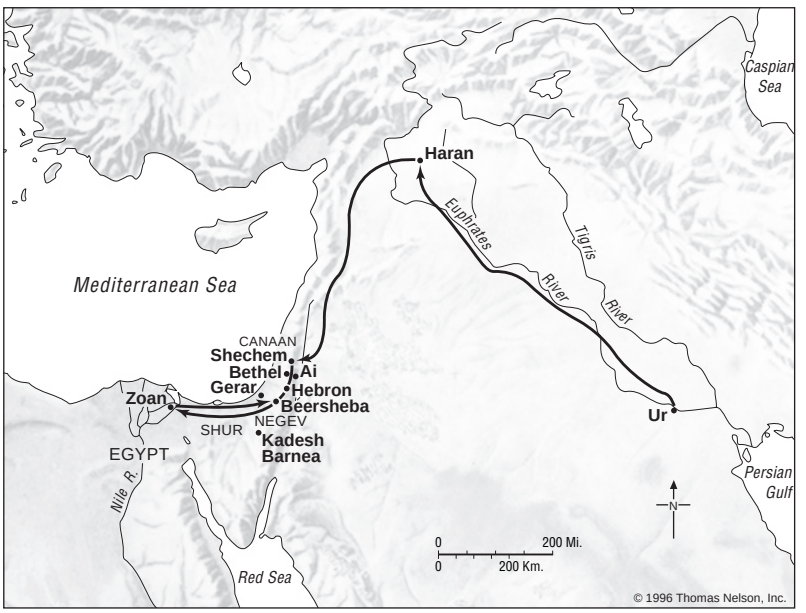
Building Altars

Altars are holy places set apart for communion with God. Establishing an altar takes deliberate effort yet those who continually seek to worship and to hear from God will not be led astray.

9 So Abram journeyed, [a]going on still toward the [1]South.



Abram in Egypt

10 Now there was [a]a famine in the land, and Abram [b]went down to Egypt to dwell there, for the famine was [c]severe in the land.
11 And it came to pass, when he was close to entering Egypt, that he said to Sarai his wife, "Indeed I know that you are [a]a woman of beautiful countenance.
12 "Therefore it will happen, when the Egyptians see you, that they will say, 'This is his wife'; and they [a]will kill me, but they will let you live.
13 [a]"Please say you are my [b]sister, that it may be well with me for your sake, and that [1]I may live because of you."
14 So it was, when Abram came into Egypt, that the Egyptians saw the woman, that she was very beautiful.
15 The princes of Pharaoh also saw her and commended her to Pharaoh. And the woman was taken to Pharaoh's house.
16 He [a]treated Abram well for her sake. He [b]had sheep, oxen, male donkeys, male and female servants, female donkeys, and camels.
17 But the LORD [a]plagued Pharaoh and

CHARACTER Study — SARAH — Gen. 12:14

Originally named Sarai ("princess"), Abram's wife accompanied him from Ur to Haran to Canaan, trusting in God's promise to make them the founders of His people. Sarai had been unable to bear children, but God changed her name to Sarah to signify that she would become the mother of nations. At the age of ninety she gave birth to her son Isaac. Scripture upholds Sarah as a woman of faith who trusted God even though His promises were humanly impossible (Heb. 11:11).

Gen. 12:5 The Journeys of Abraham his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram's wife.

18 And Pharaoh called Abram and said, [a]"What is this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife?
19 "Why did you say, 'She is my sister'? I might have taken her as my wife. Now therefore, here is your wife; take her and go your way."
20 [a]So Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him; and they sent him away, with his wife and all that he had.

Abram Inherits Canaan

13 Then Abram went up from Egypt, he and his wife and all that he had, and [a]Lot with him, [b]to the [1]South.
2 [a]Abram was very rich in livestock, in silver, and in gold.
3 And he went on his journey [a]from the South as far as Bethel, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai,
4 to the [a]place of the altar which he had made there at first. And there Abram [b]called on the name of the LORD.
5 Lot also, who went with Abram, had flocks and herds and tents.
6 Now [a]the land was not able to [1]support them, that they might dwell together, for their possessions were so great that they could not dwell together.
7 And there was [a]strife between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock. [b]The Canaanites and the Perizzites then dwelt in the land.
8 So Abram said to Lot, [a]"Please let there be no strife between you and me, and between my herdsmen and your herdsmen; for we are brethren.
9 [a]"Is not the whole land before you? Please [b]separate from me. [c]If you take the left, then I will go to the right; or, if you go to the right, then I will go to the left."
10 And Lot lifted his eyes and saw all [a]the plain of Jordan, that it was well watered everywhere (before the LORD [b]destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah) [c]like the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt as you go toward [d]Zoar.
11 Then Lot chose for himself all the plain of Jordan, and Lot journeyed east. And they separated from each other.
12 Abram dwelt in the land of Canaan, and Lot [a]dwelt in the cities of the plain and [b]pitched his tent even as far as Sodom.
13 But the men of Sodom [a]were exceedingly wicked and [b]sinful against the LORD.

ENCOUNTER Note — Gen. 13:13

Against the Lord

Our sin, whether private or public, is a personal affront to Holy God. The Lord Almighty is keenly and painfully aware of every sin we commit.

14 And the LORD said to Abram, after Lot [a]had separated from him: "Lift your eyes now and look from the place where you are—[b]northward, southward, eastward, and westward;
15 "for all the land which you see [a]I give to you and [b]your [1]descendants forever.
16 "And [a]I will make your descendants as the dust of the earth; so that if a man could number the dust of the earth, then your descendants also could be numbered.
17 "Arise, walk in the land through its length and its width, for I give it to you."
18 [a]Then Abram moved his tent, and went and [b]dwelt by [1]the terebinth trees of Mamre, [c]which are in Hebron, and built an [d]altar there to the LORD.

CHARACTER Study — ABRAHAM — Gen. 13:1

Originally named Abram ("exalted father"), Abraham was from Ur of the Chaldees. He departed with his father Terah, his wife Sarai, and his nephew Lot for Canaan. When Terah died in Haran, God promised to lead Abram to a new land and to multiply his descendents. Despite his advanced age, Abraham believed God, and God "counted it to him as righteousness" (Gen. 15:6). Yet Abraham had to wait twenty-five years until he was 100 years old before his wife gave birth to their son Isaac. Abraham proved his unwavering faithfulness by his willingness to sacrifice his only son (Gen. 22). Because of Abram's faith, God renamed him Abraham ("father of a multitude") and he became a model of trust in God (Heb. 11:8–10).

13:9 Abraham's faith was in an unseen God. He did not make choices based on what looked most attractive to him, as Lot did (13:10).

13:18 The terebinth trees of Mamre were twenty miles south of Bethlehem.

king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of [b]Elam, and Tidal king of [1]nations,
2 that they made war with Bera king of Sodom, Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of [a]Admah, Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, [b]Zoar).
3 All these joined together in the Valley of Siddim [a](that is, the Salt Sea).
4 Twelve years [a]they served Chedorlaomer, and in the thirteenth year they rebelled.
5 In the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer and the kings that were with him came and attacked [a]the Rephaim in Ashteroth Karnaim, [b]the Zuzim in Ham, [c]the Emim in Shaveh Kiriathaim,
6 [a]and the Horites in their mountain of Seir, as far as El Paran, which is by the wilderness.
7 Then they turned back and came to En Mishpat (that is, Kadesh), and attacked all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites who dwelt [a]in Hazezon Tamar.
8 And the king of Sodom, the king of Gomorrah, the king of Admah, the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar) went out and joined together in battle in the Valley of Siddim
9 against Chedorlaomer king of Elam, Tidal king of [1]nations, Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar—four kings against five.
10 Now the Valley of Siddim was full of [a]asphalt pits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled; some fell there, and the remainder fled [b]to the mountains.
11 Then they took [a]all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their provisions, and went their way.
12 They also took Lot, Abram's [a]brother's son [b]who dwelt in Sodom, and his goods, and departed.
13 Then one who had escaped came and told Abram the [a]Hebrew, for [b]he dwelt by [1]the terebinth trees of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol and brother of Aner; [c]and they were allies with Abram.
14 Now [a]when Abram heard that [b]his brother was taken captive, he armed his three hundred and eighteen trained servants who were [c]born in his own house, and went in pursuit [d]as far as Dan.
15 He divided his forces against them by night, and he and his servants [a]attacked them and pursued them as far as Hobah, which is [1]north of Damascus.
16 So he [a]brought back all the goods, and also brought back his brother Lot and his goods, as well as the women and the people.
17 And the king of Sodom [a]went out to meet him at the Valley of Shaveh (that is, the [b]King's Valley), [c]after his return from [1]the defeat of Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him.

Abram and Melchizedek

18 Then [a]Melchizedek king of Salem brought out [b]bread and wine; he was [c]the priest of [d]God Most High.
19 And he blessed him and said:

[a]"Blessed be Abram of God Most High,
[b]Possessor of heaven and earth;
20 And [a]blessed be God Most High,
Who has delivered your enemies into your hand."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 14:20

Proper Recognition

In the midst of our most magnificent victories, we must hasten to acknowledge the source of our success. All our success comes from God. To think otherwise is to risk losing God's favor.

And he [b]gave him [1]a tithe of all.
21 Now the king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give me the [1]persons, and take the goods for yourself."
22 But Abram [a]said to the king of Sodom, "I [b]have raised my hand to the LORD, God Most High, [c]the Possessor of heaven and earth,
23 "that [a]I will take nothing, from a thread to a sandal strap, and that I will not take anything that is yours, lest you should say, 'I have made Abram rich'—
24 "except only what the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men who went with me: Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre; let them take their portion."

God's Covenant with Abram

15 After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram [a]in a vision, saying, [b]"Do not be afraid, Abram. I am your [c]shield, [1]your exceedingly [d]great reward."

CHAPTER 15

1 [a]Dan. 10:1 [b]Gen. 21:17; 26:24 [c]Deut. 33:29 [d]Prov. 11:18 [1]Or your reward shall be very great

14:18 Salem is probably Jerusalem. Melchizedek means "king of righteousness." As both a priest and a king, he would be a forerunner of the Messiah (Ps. 110:4).

14:23 Abraham refused to accept a reward from the King of Sodom, even though it was customary to receive one. Abraham's trust for his future and his prosperity were placed in the Lord. He knew God was responsible for his success and God would reward him in His own time.

15:1 God's promise to be Abraham's "exceedingly great reward" came after Abraham declined a reward from the King of Sodom but trusted in God instead (Gen. 14:22–24).

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 15:1

A Shield and Reward

There is a vast difference between believing God will protect you and actually experiencing God's protection. We know much about God intellectually, but God wants us to also know Him experientially. What divine truths do we only know second hand?

2 [a]But Abram said, "Lord GOD, what will You give me, [b]seeing I [1]go childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?"
3 Then Abram said, "Look, You have given me no offspring; indeed [a]one[1] born in my house is my heir!"
4 And behold, the word of the LORD came to him, saying, "This one shall not be your heir, but one who [a]will come from your own body shall be your heir."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 15:4

God's Promises

God is a covenant God. He graciously makes promises to us and then is meticulous in keeping them. God has never forsaken His word to His people.

5 Then He brought him outside and said, "Look now toward heaven, and [a]count the [b]stars if you are able to number them." And He said to him, [c]"So shall your [d]descendants be."
6 And he [a]believed in the LORD, and He [b]accounted it to him for righteousness.
7 Then He said to him, "I am the LORD, who [a]brought you out of [b]Ur of the Chaldeans, [c]to give you this land to inherit it."
8 And he said, "Lord GOD, [a]how shall I know that I will inherit it?"
9 So He said to him, "Bring Me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old female goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtledove, and a young pigeon."
10 Then he brought all these to Him and [a]cut them in two, down the middle, and placed each piece opposite the other; but he did not cut [b]the birds in two.

11 And when the vultures came down on the carcasses, Abram drove them away.
12 Now when the sun was going down, [a]a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and behold, horror and great darkness fell upon him.
13 Then He said to Abram: "Know certainly [a]that your descendants will be strangers in a land that is not theirs, and will serve them, and [b]they will afflict them four hundred years.
14 "And also the nation whom they serve [a]I will judge; afterward [b]they shall come out with great possessions.
15 "Now as for you, [a]you shall [1]go [b]to your fathers in peace; [c]you shall be buried at a good old age.
16 "But [a]in the fourth generation they shall return here, for the iniquity [b]of the Amorites [c]is not yet complete."
17 And it came to pass, when the sun went down and it was dark, that behold, there appeared a smoking oven and a burning torch that [a]passed between those pieces.
18 On the same day the LORD [a]made a covenant with Abram, saying:

WORD*Study* COVENANT

Gen. 15:18 A covenant is a solemn, binding promise. Often people in biblical times would "cut a covenant": They would pass through dismembered animals before pronouncing a curse on themselves if they did not fulfill every detail of their commitment. At times there were obligations for both parties in keeping the covenant. At other times the stronger party in the agreement would voluntarily promise to do something without any specific corresponding obligation by the weaker party.

[b]"To your descendants I have given this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the River Euphrates—
19 "the Kenites, the Kenezzites, the Kadmonites, 20 "the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Rephaim,
21 "the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Girgashites, and the Jebusites."

15:2 It was the custom for a childless man to adopt a servant as his heir. Abraham's response resembles that of Mary (Luke 1:34).

15:6 Abraham's righteousness came not from his works, but from his faith (Rom. 4:3; Gal. 3:6; Heb. 11:8–12; James 2:23).

15:13 The Israelite's cruel bondage in Egypt was not a hindrance to God's will. God always intended for the Israelites to spend time in bondage to the Egyptians.

15:16 In His mercy God would grant the Amorites an additional four centuries to repent before He finally brought judgment upon them at the hands of Joshua and his army.

15:17 The smoke and fire was a theophany, or a representation of God's presence.

15:18–21 Only during King David's time did the Israelite territory approach the dimensions promised by God to Abraham.

Hagar and Ishmael

16 Now Sarai, Abram's wife, [a]had borne him no children. And she had [b]an Egyptian maidservant whose name was [c]Hagar.
2 [a]So Sarai said to Abram, "See now, the LORD [b]has restrained me from bearing children. Please, [c]go in to my maid; perhaps I shall [1]obtain children by her." And Abram [d]heeded the voice of Sarai.

ENCOUNTER Note Gen. 16:2

God's Word Challenged

Contrary counsel will always come after God speaks. Human reasoning and counsel from others will appear reasonable, but they must never supersede God's clear instruction. Encounters with God stretch our faith, for His ways are not our ways.

3 Then Sarai, Abram's wife, took Hagar her maid, the Egyptian, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife, after Abram [a]had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan.
4 So he went in to Hagar, and she conceived. And when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress became [a]despised in her [1]eyes.
5 Then Sarai said to Abram, [1]"My wrong be upon you! I gave my maid into your embrace; and when she saw that she had conceived, I became despised in her eyes. [a]The LORD judge between you and me."
6 [a]So Abram said to Sarai, "Indeed your maid is in your hand; do to her as you please." And when Sarai dealt harshly with her, [b]she fled from her presence.

Cause and Effect

Sin has both immediate and lasting consequences. God has no favorites; those who sin will live with the consequences. The result of some sins linger for many generations.

7 Now the [a]Angel of the LORD found her by a spring of water in the wilderness, [b]by the spring on the way to [c]Shur.
8 And He said, "Hagar, Sarai's maid, where have you come from, and where are you going?" She said, "I am fleeing from the presence of my mistress Sarai."
9 The Angel of the LORD said to her, "Return to your mistress, and [a]submit yourself under her hand."
10 Then the Angel of the LORD said to her, [a]"I will multiply your descendants exceedingly, so that they shall not be counted for multitude."
11 And the Angel of the LORD said to her:

"Behold, you are with child,
[a]And you shall bear a son.
You shall call his name [1]Ishmael,
Because the LORD has heard your affliction.
12 [a]He shall be a wild man;
His hand shall be against every man,
And every man's hand against him.
[b]And he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren."

13 Then she called the name of the LORD who spoke to her, You-Are-[1]the-God-Who-Sees; for she said, "Have I also here [2]seen Him [a]who sees me?"
14 Therefore the well was called [a]Beer Lahai Roi;[1] observe, it is [b]between Kadesh and Bered.
15 So [a]Hagar bore Abram a son; and Abram named his son, whom Hagar bore, Ishmael.
16 Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram.

The Sign of the Covenant

17 When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD [a]appeared to Abram and said to him, [b]"I am [1]Almighty God; [c]walk before Me and be [d]blameless.
2 "And I will make My [a]covenant between Me and you, and [b]will multiply you exceedingly."
3 Then Abram fell on his face, and God talked with him, saying:
4 "As for Me, behold, My covenant is with you, and you shall be [a]a father of [1]many nations.

16:4 Even though Abraham had trusted God in arduous circumstances, he proved that even great people of faith can suffer lapses that cost them dearly.

16:7 Shur was on Egypt's northeast frontier.

16:11 "Ishmael" means "God Hears." Though outcast with his mother, Hagar, he was dearly loved by Abraham (Gen. 17:18). He became the father of the Ishmaelites. The Muslim Arabs today claim their descent from Ishmael.

16:13 El Roi is a name of God which means "The Lord That Sees." It is found here as Hagar recognized that God saw her desperate plight.

16:14 "Beer Lahai Roi" means "Well of the One Who Lives and Sees Me." This is the place where God encountered Hagar as she fled from Sarah, signifying His care for the ill-treated bondservant.

17:1 "God almighty" comes from the Hebrew el shaddai. Shaddai signifies divine might in contrast to human weakness. It may refer to "mountain." It denotes power.

ENCOUNTER Note Gen. 17:4

God's Offer

God always initiates a relationship and sets the terms according to His standard. He is always faithful; our response determines if we will see His blessing.

5 "No longer shall [a]your name be called [1]Abram, but your name shall be [2]Abraham; [b]for I have made you a father of [3]many nations.
6 "I will make you exceedingly fruitful; and I will make [a]nations of you, and [b]kings shall come from you.
7 "And I will [a]establish My covenant between Me and you and your descendants after you in their generations, for an everlasting covenant, [b]to be God to you and [c]your descendants after you.
8 "Also [a]I give to you and your descendants after you the land [b]in[1] which you are a stranger, all the land of Canaan, as an everlasting possession; and [c]I will be their God."
9 And God said to Abraham: "As for you, [a]you shall keep My covenant, you and your descendants after you throughout their generations.
10 "This is My covenant which you shall keep, between Me and you and your descendants after you: [a]Every male child among you shall be circumcised;

ENCOUNTER Note Gen. 17:10

Visible Relationship

Although a relationship with God is an internal decision, it also has external expression. Covenant people are visible to the world. The new covenant in Jesus is expressed through baptism, righteous living, and visible devotion.

11 "and you shall be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskins, and it shall be [a]a sign of the covenant between Me and you.
12 "He who is eight days old among you [a]shall be circumcised, every male child in your generations, he who is born in your house or bought with money from any foreigner who is not your descendant.
13 "He who is born in your house and he who is bought with your money must be circumcised, and My covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.
14 "And the uncircumcised male child, who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, that person [a]shall be cut off from his people; he has broken My covenant."
15 Then God said to Abraham, "As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her name Sarai, but [1]Sarah shall be her name.
16 "And I will bless her [a]and also give you a son by her; then I will bless her, and she shall be a mother [b]of nations; [c]kings of peoples shall be from her."
17 Then Abraham fell on his face [a]and laughed, and said in his heart, "Shall a child be born to a man who is one hundred years old? And shall Sarah, who is ninety years old, bear a child?"
18 And Abraham [a]said to God, "Oh, that Ishmael might live before You!"
19 Then God said: "No, [a]Sarah your wife shall bear you a son, and you shall call his name Isaac; I will establish My [b]covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his descendants after him.
20 "And as for Ishmael, I have heard you. Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and [a]will multiply him exceedingly. He shall beget [b]twelve princes, [c]and I will make him a great nation.
21 "But My [a]covenant I will establish with Isaac, [b]whom Sarah shall bear to you at this [c]set time next year."
22 Then He finished talking with him, and God went up from Abraham.
23 So Abraham took Ishmael his son, all who were born in his house and all who were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's house, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskins that very same day, as God had said to him.
24 Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.
25 And Ishmael his son was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

17:19, 21 "Isaac" means "Laughter," or said as a prayer, "may He smile (upon him)." This refers to the special circumstances of his birth, leaving no doubt he was the result of God's covenant promise.

17:23 By circumcising every male, Abraham was dramatically entering a new stage in the covenant with God; it was not just with Abraham but with all his family and their descendents. Each male would carry a physical mark indicating he belonged to God.

26 That very same day Abraham was circumcised, and his son Ishmael;
27 and [a]all the men of his house, born in the house or bought with money from a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

Unified Diversity

God's covenant includes people diverse in age, status, and experience. Our relationship with God automatically brings us into relationship with all of His people.

The Son of Promise

18 Then the LORD appeared to him by [1]the [a]terebinth trees of Mamre, as he was sitting in the tent door in the heat of the day.
2 [a]So he lifted his eyes and looked, and behold, three men were standing by him; [b]and when he saw them, he ran from the tent door to meet them, and bowed himself to the ground,
3 and said, "My Lord, if I have now found favor in Your sight, do not pass on by Your servant.
4 "Please let [a]a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree.
5 "And [a]I will bring a morsel of bread, that [b]you may refresh your hearts. After that you may pass by, [c]inasmuch as you have come to your servant." They said, "Do as you have said."
6 So Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah and said, "Quickly, make ready three measures of fine meal; knead it and make cakes."
7 And Abraham ran to the herd, took a tender and good calf, gave it to a young man, and he hastened to prepare it.
8 So [a]he took butter and milk and the calf which he had prepared, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree as they ate.
9 Then they said to him, "Where is Sarah your wife?" So he said, "Here, [a]in the tent."
10 And He said, "I will certainly return to you [a]according to the time of life, and behold, [b]Sarah your wife shall have a son." (Sarah was listening in the tent door which was behind him.)
11 Now [a]Abraham and Sarah were old, well advanced in age; and [1]Sarah [b]had passed the age of childbearing.
12 Therefore Sarah [a]laughed within herself, saying, [b]"After I have grown old, shall I have pleasure, my [c]lord being old also?"
13 And the LORD said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh, saying, 'Shall I surely bear a child, since I am old?'
14 [a]"Is anything too hard for the LORD? [b]At the appointed time I will return to you, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son."

ENCOUNTER Note Gen. 18:14

Impossible Promises

God promises that which only He can accomplish, so the world may see Him in our lives. Though we may laugh and others may scoff, nothing is impossible for God.

15 But Sarah denied it, saying, "I did not laugh," for she was afraid. And He said, "No, but you did laugh!"

Abraham Intercedes for Sodom

16 Then the men rose from there and looked toward Sodom, and Abraham went with them [a]to send them on the way.
17 And the LORD said, [a]"Shall I hide from Abraham what I am doing, 18 "since Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be [a]blessed in him?
19 "For I have known him, in order [a]that he may command his children and his household after him, that they keep the way of the LORD, to do righteousness and justice, that the LORD may bring to Abraham what He has spoken to him."
20 And the LORD said, "Because [a]the outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their [b]sin is very grave,
21 [a]"I will go down now and see whether they have done altogether according to the outcry against it that has come to Me; and if not, [b]I will know."
22 Then the men turned away from there [a]and went toward Sodom, but Abraham still stood before the LORD.
23 And Abraham [a]came near and said,

18:7 Abraham "ran" to the herd. This apparent lack of decorum for a middle eastern man was because he understood the majesty of his guests.

18:12 Sarah's laughter indicates she had not come to believe God's promises.

18:17 "Shall I hide" reflects the friendship God shared with Abraham (Is. 41:8). God shared His will and heart with His friend.

18:23 This was Abraham's second intervention on behalf of Sodom (Gen. 14:14). God had promised to make Abraham a blessing to all the families of the earth (12:2, 3).

[b]"Would You also [c]destroy the [d]righteous with the wicked?

ENCOUNTER Note Gen. 18:22, 23

Right to Intercede

A person in a covenant relationship with God has special privileges to intercede on behalf of those outside the covenant. It is a two-way relationship, a partnership, where God invites His people to join in His activity.

24 "Suppose there were fifty righteous within the city; would You also destroy the place and not spare it for the fifty righteous that were in it?
25 "Far be it from You to do such a thing as this, to slay the righteous with the wicked, so [a]that the righteous should be as the wicked; far be it from You! [b]Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?"
26 So the LORD said, [a]"If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes."
27 Then Abraham answered and said, "Indeed now, I who am [a]but dust and ashes have taken it upon myself to speak to the Lord:
28 "Suppose there were five less than the fifty righteous; would You destroy all of the city for lack of five?" So He said, "If I find there forty-five, I will not destroy it."
29 And he spoke to Him yet again and said, "Suppose there should be forty found there?" So He said, "I will not do it for the sake of forty."
30 Then he said, "Let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak: Suppose thirty should be found there?" So He said, "I will not do it if I find thirty there."
31 And he said, "Indeed now, I have taken it upon myself to speak to the Lord: Suppose twenty should be found there?" So He said, "I will not destroy it for the sake of twenty."
32 Then he said, [a]"Let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak but once more: Suppose ten should be found there?" [b]And He said, "I will not destroy it for the sake of ten."
33 So the LORD went His way as soon as He had finished speaking with Abraham; and Abraham returned to his place.

Sodom's Depravity

19 Now [a]the two angels came to Sodom in the evening, and [b]Lot was sitting in the gate of Sodom. When Lot saw them, he rose to meet them, and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground.
2 And he said, "Here now, my lords, please [a]turn in to your servant's house and spend the night, and [b]wash your feet; then you may rise early and go on your way." And they said, [c]"No, but we will spend the night in the open square."
3 But he insisted strongly; so they turned in to him and entered his house. [a]Then he made them a feast, and baked [b]unleavened bread, and they ate.
4 Now before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, both old and young, all the people from every quarter, surrounded the house.
5 [a]And they called to Lot and said to him, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? [b]Bring them out to us that we [c]may know them carnally."
6 So [a]Lot went out to them through the doorway, shut the door behind him,
7 and said, "Please, my brethren, do not do so wickedly!
8 [a]"See now, I have two daughters who have not known a man; please, let me bring them out to you, and you may do to them as you wish; only do nothing to these men, [b]since this is the reason they have come under the shadow of my roof."
9 And they said, "Stand back!" Then they said, "This one [a]came in to [1]stay here, [b]and he keeps acting as a judge; now we will deal worse with you than with them." So they pressed hard against the man Lot, and came near to break down the door.
10 But the men reached out their hands and pulled Lot into the house with them, and shut the door.
11 And they [a]struck the men who were at the doorway of the house with blindness, both small and great, so that they became weary trying to find the door.

Sodom and Gomorrah Destroyed

12 Then the men said to Lot, "Have you anyone else here? Son-in-law, your sons, your daughters, and whomever you have in the city—[a]take them out of this place!
13 "For we will destroy this place, because the [a]outcry against them has grown great before the face of the LORD, and [b]the LORD has sent us to destroy it."
14 So Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, [a]who had married his daughters, and said, [b]"Get up, get out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this 19:5 Scripture portrayed the sin of sodomy as particularly loathsome (Lev. 18:22; 20:13; Rom. 1:26–27; 1 Cor. 6:9; 1 Tim. 1:10).

19:14 Lot's sons-in-law did not take him seriously. Lot had treated his faith too casually, so at a time of crisis his spiritual life had no credibility.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 19:13

Judgment Inevitable

God deals with all people, not just those in covenant. There are limits to His patience, and He judges sin both on earth and for eternity.

city!" [c]But to his sons-in-law he seemed to be joking.
15 When the morning dawned, the angels urged Lot to hurry, saying, [a]"Arise, take your wife and your two daughters who are here, lest you be consumed in the punishment of the city."
16 And while he lingered, the men [a]took hold of his hand, his wife's hand, and the hands of his two daughters, the [b]LORD being merciful to him, [c]and they brought him out and set him outside the city.
17 So it came to pass, when they had brought them outside, that [1]he said, [a]"Escape for your life! [b]Do not look behind you nor stay anywhere in the plain. Escape [c]to the mountains, lest you be [2]destroyed."
18 Then Lot said to them, "Please, [a]no, my lords!
19 "Indeed now, your servant has found favor in your sight, and you have increased your mercy which you have shown me by saving my life; but I cannot escape to the mountains, lest some evil overtake me and I die.
20 "See now, this city is near enough to flee to, and it is a little one; please let me escape there (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live."
21 And he said to him, "See, [a]I have favored you concerning this thing also, in that I will not overthrow this city for which you have spoken.
22 "Hurry, escape there. For [a]I cannot do anything until you arrive there." Therefore [b]the name of the city was called [1]Zoar.
23 The sun had risen upon the earth when Lot entered Zoar.
24 Then the LORD rained [a]brimstone and [b]fire on Sodom and Gomorrah, from the LORD out of the heavens.
25 So He [1]overthrew those cities, all the plain, all the inhabitants of the cities, and [a]what grew on the ground.
26 But his wife looked back behind him, and she became [a]a pillar of salt.

27 And Abraham went early in the morning to the place where [a]he had stood before the LORD.
28 Then he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain; and he saw, and behold, [a]the smoke of the land which went up like the smoke of a furnace.
29 And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God [a]remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when He overthrew the cities in which Lot had dwelt.

The Descendants of Lot

30 Then Lot went up out of Zoar and [a]dwelt in the mountains, and his two daughters were with him; for he was afraid to dwell in Zoar. And he and his two daughters dwelt in a cave.
31 Now the firstborn said to the younger, "Our father is old, and there is no man on the earth [a]to come in to us as is the custom of all the earth.
32 "Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we [a]may preserve the [1]lineage of our father."
33 So they made their father drink wine that night. And the firstborn went in and lay with her father, and he did not know when she lay down or when she arose.
34 It happened on the next day that the firstborn said to the younger, "Indeed I lay with my father last night; let us make him drink wine tonight also, and you go in and lie with him, that we may preserve the [1]lineage of our father."
35 Then they made their father drink wine that night also. And the younger arose and lay with him, and he did not know when she lay down or when she arose.
36 Thus both the daughters of Lot were with child by their father.
37 The firstborn bore a son and called his name Moab; [a]he is the father of the Moabites to this day.
38 And the younger, she also bore a son and called his name Ben-Ammi; [a]he is the father of the people of Ammon to this day.

1 [a]Gen. 18:1

19:24 Natural ingredients of the destruction were abundant in this region: petroleum, bitumen, salt, and sulfur. This, however, was not a natural disaster, but divine judgment on sin.

19:33 Lot had begun by taking matters into his own hands (13:10). By this time he no longer had sovereignty over even his own body.

19:37 From the Moabites would come one of the most disastrous moral failures in Israel's history (Num. 25) and the worship of Molech, one of humanity's most depraved religions (Lev. 18:21).

tween [b]Kadesh and Shur, and [c]stayed in Gerar.
2 Now Abraham said of Sarah his wife, [a]"She is my sister." And Abimelech king of Gerar sent and [b]took Sarah.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 20:2

Shaped Through Failure

Failure to consult with God in a time of crisis puts you and those you love into danger. God uses our blunders to reveal our character. For faith to grow it must pass through moments of choices.

3 But [a]God came to Abimelech [b]in a dream by night, and said to him, [c]"Indeed you are a dead man because of the woman whom you have taken, for she is [1]a man's wife."
4 But Abimelech had not come near her; and he said, "Lord, [a]will You slay a righteous nation also?
5 "Did he not say to me, 'She is my sister'? And she, even she herself said, 'He is my brother.' [a]In the [1]integrity of my heart and innocence of my hands I have done this."
6 And God said to him in a dream, "Yes, I know that you did this in the integrity of your heart. For [a]I also withheld you from sinning [b]against Me; therefore I did not let you touch her.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 20:6

God's Character Revealed

God always reads the heart and treats us accordingly. God deals justly with those who do not walk with Him and He provides protection toward His covenant people.

7 "Now therefore, restore the man's wife; [a]for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you and you shall live. But if you do not restore her, [b]know that you shall surely die, you [c]and all who are yours."
8 So Abimelech rose early in the morning, called all his servants, and told all these things in their hearing; and the men were very much afraid.
9 And Abimelech called Abraham and said to him, "What have you done to us? How have I [1]offended you, [a]that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done deeds to me [b]that ought not to be done."
10 Then Abimelech said to Abraham, "What did you have in view, that you have done this thing?"
11 And Abraham said, "Because I thought, surely [a]the fear of God is not in this place; and [b]they will kill me on account of my wife.
12 "But indeed [a]she is truly my sister. She is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife.
13 "And it came to pass, when [a]God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said to her, 'This is your kindness that you should do for me: in every place, wherever we go, [b]say of me, "He is my brother." ' "
14 Then Abimelech [a]took sheep, oxen, and male and female servants, and gave them to Abraham; and he restored Sarah his wife to him.
15 And Abimelech said, "See, [a]my land is before you; dwell where it pleases you."
16 Then to Sarah he said, "Behold, I have given your brother a thousand pieces of silver; [a]indeed this [1]vindicates you [b]before all who are with you and before everybody." Thus she was [2]rebuked.
17 So Abraham [a]prayed to God; and God [b]healed Abimelech, his wife, and his female servants. Then they bore children;
18 for the LORD [a]had closed up all the wombs of the house of Abimelech because of Sarah, Abraham's wife.

Isaac Is Born

21 And the LORD [a]visited Sarah as He had said, and the LORD did for Sarah [b]as He had spoken.
2 For Sarah [a]conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age, [b]at the set time of which God had spoken to him.

Faith is the greatest inheritance one can offer the next generation. Each generation must pass on a legacy to those who follow. When people examine your faith, are they inspired to adopt it themselves?

20:7 God came to the rescue of Abraham after having rescued Lot (Gen. 19:15).

Isaac when he was eight days old, [b]as God had commanded him.
5 Now [a]Abraham was one hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him.
6 And Sarah said, [a]"God has [1]made me laugh, and all who hear [b]will laugh with me."
7 She also said, "Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? [a]For I have borne him a son in his old age."

Hagar and Ishmael Depart

8 So the child grew and was weaned. And Abraham made a great feast on the same day that Isaac was weaned.
9 And Sarah saw the son of Hagar [a]the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, [b]scoffing.[1]
10 Therefore she said to Abraham, [a]"Cast out this bondwoman and her son; for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, namely with Isaac."
11 And the matter was very [1]displeasing in Abraham's sight [a]because of his son.
12 But God said to Abraham, "Do not let it be displeasing in your sight because of the lad or because of your bondwoman. Whatever Sarah has said to you, listen to her voice; for [a]in Isaac your seed shall be called.
13 "Yet I will also make [a]a nation of the son of the bondwoman, because he is your [1]seed."
14 So Abraham rose early in the morning, and took bread and [1]a skin of water; and putting it on her shoulder, he gave it and the boy to Hagar, and [a]sent her away. Then she departed and wandered in the Wilderness of Beersheba.
15 And the water in the skin was used up, and she placed the boy under one of the shrubs.
16 Then she went and sat down across from him at a distance of about a bowshot; for she said to herself, "Let me not see the death of the boy." So she sat opposite him, and lifted her voice and wept.
17 And [a]God heard the voice of the lad. Then the [b]angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said to her, "What ails you, Hagar? Fear not, for God has heard the voice of the lad where he is.
18 "Arise, lift up the lad and hold him with your hand, for [a]I will make him a great nation."
19 Then [a]God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. And she went and filled the skin with water, and gave the lad a drink.

A Covenant with Abimelech

22 And it came to pass at that time that [a]Abimelech and Phichol, the commander of his army, spoke to Abraham, saying, [b]"God is with you in all that you do.

ENCOUNTER Note — Gen. 21:22

A Visible Promise

When God enters a covenant with His people, it will be obvious to others. His presence makes a visible difference.

23 "Now therefore, [a]swear[1] to me by God that you will not deal falsely with me, with my offspring, or with my posterity; but that according to the kindness that I have done to you, you will do to me and to the land in which you have dwelt."

WORD Study — KINDNESS

Gen. 21:23 Is often translated "loyal love" and is a common term used for God's character. It is properly understood in the context of God's covenant loyalty to His people as He expresses His love to them.

24 And Abraham said, "I will swear."
25 Then Abraham rebuked Abimelech because of a well of water which Abimelech's servants [a]had seized.
26 And Abimelech said, "I do not know who has done this thing; you did not tell me, nor had I heard of it until today."
27 So Abraham took sheep and oxen and gave them to Abimelech, and the two of them [a]made a [1]covenant.
28 And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.
29 Then Abimelech asked Abraham, [a]"What is the meaning of these seven ewe lambs which you have set by themselves?"
30 And he said, "You will take these seven ewe lambs from my hand, that [a]they may be my witness that I have dug this well."

21:16 Literally, Hagar said, "It is a covering of the eyes to you."

31 Therefore he [a]called that place [1]Beersheba, because the two of them swore an oath there.
32 Thus they made a covenant at Beersheba. So Abimelech rose with Phichol, the commander of his army, and they returned to the land of the Philistines.
33 Then Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and [a]there called on the name of the LORD, [b]the Everlasting God.
34 And Abraham stayed in the land of the Philistines many days.

Abraham's Faith Confirmed

22 Now it came to pass after these things that [a]God tested Abraham, and said to him, "Abraham!" And he said, "Here I am."
2 Then He said, "Take now your son, [a]your only son Isaac, whom you [b]love, and go [c]to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a [d]burnt offering on one of the mountains of which I shall tell you."

Faith Displayed

At times our faith is weighed against common sense, human affection, and our deepest desires. When we trust God regardless of our circumstances, God is glorified by our faith, which He has nurtured within us.

ENCOUNTER Note — Gen. 22:2

Mount Moriah

The place where Abraham took Isaac is thought to be one of the hills of Jerusalem where Solomon later built the temple. The Jews believed the altar of burnt offerings in the temple was on the site where Abraham built the altar to offer Isaac.

3 So Abraham rose early in the morning and saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son; and he split the wood for the burnt offering, and arose and went to the place of which God had told him.

4 Then on the third day Abraham lifted his eyes and saw the place afar off.
5 And Abraham said to his young men, "Stay here with the donkey; the [1]lad and I will go yonder and worship, and we will [a]come back to you."
6 So Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and [a]laid it on Isaac his son; and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife, and the two of them went together.
7 But Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, "My father!" And he said, "Here I am, my son." Then he said, "Look, the fire and the wood, but where is the [1]lamb for a burnt offering?"
8 And Abraham said, "My son, God will provide for Himself the [a]lamb for a [b]burnt offering." So the two of them went together.
9 Then they came to the place of which God had told him. And Abraham built an altar there and placed the wood in order; and he bound Isaac his son and [a]laid him on the altar, upon the wood.
10 And Abraham stretched out his hand and took the knife to slay his son.
11 But the [a]Angel of the LORD called to him from heaven and said, "Abraham, Abraham!" So he said, "Here I am."
12 And He said, [a]"Do not lay your hand on the lad, or do anything to him; for [b]now I know that you fear God, since you have not [c]withheld your son, your only son, from Me."

Godly Fear

To fear God means that one truly knows the full nature of God and responds to Him accordingly. As we obey God, we experience His nature, and as we come to know God, we cannot help but love Him.

13 Then Abraham lifted his eyes and looked, and there behind him was a ram caught in a thicket by its horns. So Abraham went and took the ram, and offered it up for a burnt offering instead of his son.
14 And Abraham called the name of the place, [1]The-LORD-Will-Provide; as it is said to this day, "In the Mount of the LORD it shall be provided."

21:31 "Beersheba" means literally "Well of the Oath" or "Well of the Seven."

21:33 El olam means "Everlasting God." This is a series of names through which God revealed aspects of His nature to the patriarchs: El Elyon (Gen. 14:18), El Roi (16:13), El Shaddai (17:1), El-Elohe-Israel (33:20), El-Bethel (35:7).

22:5 "Lad" could also be "young man."

22:14 The Hebrew name, Jehovah Jireh, means "The Lord Will Provide" or "The Lord Will See to It." This name marks the completeness of God's care for Abraham in particular and for His people for eternity. As God provided a ram as a substitute for Isaac, so He would provide a Savior as a substitute for all people. Jesus, God's only Son, would be sacrificed near this site in Jerusalem.

ENCOUNTER Note Gen. 22:14

Ours and His

When God gives a command, our responsibility is to obey, and His is to provide for our obedience.

15 Then the Angel of the LORD called to Abraham a second time out of heaven, 16 and said: [a]"By Myself I have sworn, says the LORD, because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your son, your only son—
17 "blessing I will [a]bless you, and multiplying I will multiply your descendants [b]as the stars of the heaven [c]and as the sand which is on the seashore; and [d]your descendants shall possess the gate of their enemies.
18 [a]"In your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, [b]because you have obeyed My voice."

ENCOUNTER Note Gen. 22:18

Impact of Obedience

God's blessing is never isolated to an individual. The blessings our obedience brings always overflow to countless people around us.

19 So Abraham returned to his young men, and they rose and went together to [a]Beersheba; and Abraham dwelt at Beersheba.

The Family of Nahor

20 Now it came to pass after these things that it was told Abraham, saying,
"Indeed [a]Milcah also has borne children to your brother Nahor:
21 [a]"Huz his firstborn, Buz his brother,
Kemuel the father [b]of Aram,
22 "Chesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph, and Bethuel."
23 And [a]Bethuel begot [1]Rebekah.
These eight Milcah bore to Nahor, Abraham's brother.
24 His concubine, whose name was Reumah, also bore Tebah, Gaham, Thahash, and Maachah.

Sarah's Death and Burial

23 Sarah lived one hundred and twenty-seven years; these were the years of the life of Sarah.
2 So Sarah died in [a]Kirjath Arba (that is, [b]Hebron) in the land of Canaan, and Abraham came to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her.
3 Then Abraham stood up from before his dead, and spoke to the sons of [a]Heth, saying,
4 [a]"I am a foreigner and a visitor among you. [b]Give me property for a burial place among you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight."
5 And the sons of Heth answered Abraham, saying to him,
6 "Hear us, my lord: You are [a]a [1]mighty prince among us; bury your dead in the choicest of our burial places. None of us will withhold from you his burial place, that you may bury your dead."

ENCOUNTER Note Gen. 23:6

Honor Bestowed

Those whose lives honor God enjoy His honor in return. God grants favor to those who trust Him.

7 Then Abraham stood up and bowed himself to the people of the land, the sons of Heth.
8 And he spoke with them, saying, "If it is your wish that I bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and [1]meet with Ephron the son of Zohar for me,
9 "that he may give me the cave of [a]Machpelah which he has, which is at the end of his field. Let him give it to me at the full price, as property for a burial place among you."
10 Now Ephron dwelt among the sons of Heth; and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the presence of the sons of Heth, all who [a]entered at the gate of his city, saying, 11 [a]"No, my lord, hear me: I give you the field and the cave that is in it; I give it to you in the presence of the sons of my people. I give it to you. Bury your dead!"
12 Then Abraham bowed himself down before the people of the land;
13 and he spoke to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, saying, "If you will give it, please hear me. I will give you money for the field; take it from me and I will bury my dead there."
14 And Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him,
15 "My lord, listen to me; the land is worth four hundred [a]shekels of silver.
What is that between you and me? So bury your dead."
16 And Abraham listened to Ephron;

and Abraham [a]weighed out the silver for Ephron which he had named in the hearing of the sons of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, currency of the merchants.
17 So [a]the field of Ephron which was in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the field and the cave which was in it, and all the trees that were in the field, which were within all the surrounding borders, were deeded
18 to Abraham as a possession in the presence of the sons of Heth, before all who went in at the gate of his city.
19 And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah, before Mamre (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan.
20 So the field and the cave that is in it [a]were deeded to Abraham by the sons of Heth as property for a burial place.

A Bride for Isaac

24 Now Abraham [a]was old, well advanced in age; and the LORD [b]had blessed Abraham in all things.
2 So Abraham said [a]to the oldest servant of his house, who [b]ruled over all that he had, "Please, [c]put your hand under my thigh,
3 "and I will make you [a]swear[1] by the LORD, the God of heaven and the God of the earth, that [b]you will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell;
4 [a]"but you shall go [b]to my country and to my family, and take a wife for my son Isaac."
5 And the servant said to him, "Perhaps the woman will not be willing to follow me to this land. Must I take your son back to the land from which you came?"
6 But Abraham said to him, "Beware that you do not take my son back there.
7 "The LORD God of heaven, who [a]took me from my father's house and from the land of my family, and who spoke to me and swore to me, saying, [b]'To your [1]descendants I give this land,' [c]He will send His angel before you, and you shall take a wife for my son from there.
8 "And if the woman is not willing to follow you, then [a]you will be released from this oath; only do not take my son back there."
9 So the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and swore to him concerning this matter.
10 Then the servant took ten of his master's camels and departed, [a]for all his master's goods were in his hand. And he arose and went to Mesopotamia, to [b]the city of Nahor.
11 And he made his camels kneel down outside the city by a well of water at evening time, the time [a]when women go out to draw water.
12 Then he [a]said, "O LORD God of my master Abraham, please [b]give me success this day, and show kindness to my master Abraham.
13 "Behold, here [a]I stand by the well of water, and [b]the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water.
14 "Now let it be that the young woman to whom I say, 'Please let down your pitcher that I may drink,' and she says, 'Drink, and I will also give your camels a drink'—let her be the one You have appointed for Your servant Isaac. And [a]by this I will know that You have shown kindness to my master."
15 And it happened, [a]before he had finished speaking, that behold, [b]Rebekah,[1] who was born to Bethuel, son of [c]Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, came out with her pitcher on her shoulder.
16 Now the young woman [a]was very beautiful to behold, a virgin; no man had known her. And she went down to the well, filled her pitcher, and came up.
17 And the servant ran to meet her and said, "Please let me drink a little water from your pitcher."
18 [a]So she said, "Drink, my lord." Then she quickly let her pitcher down to her hand, and gave him a drink.
19 And when she had finished giving him a drink, she said, "I will draw water for your camels also, until they have finished drinking."
20 Then she quickly emptied her pitcher into the trough, ran back to the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels.
21 And the man, wondering at her, remained silent so as to know whether [a]the LORD had made his journey prosperous or not.
22 So it was, when the camels had finished drinking, that the man took a 23:17–20 Though his descendants would possess much territory, the only land Abraham owned was this burial spot for his wife, a place where he would later be laid (Gen. 25:10).

24:2 The "oldest servant" may have been Eliezer mentioned in Genesis 15:2, due to his high position over all Abraham possessed.

24:3 Throughout the Scriptures, God's people are instructed to marry within their own religious family (Deut. 7:3–4; 1 Kin. 11:4; Ezra 9; 1 Cor. 7:39).

24:10 The possession of camels in this time indicated great wealth.

24:15 "Rebekah" means "Rope" or "Noose," as one who "ensnares with her beauty." She was from Abraham's relatives.

24:20 Camels would have required an enormous amount of water after such a sojourn. For Rebekah to have run back to fetch enough water for them revealed a tremendous servant's heart.

golden [a]nose ring weighing half a shekel, and two bracelets for her wrists weighing ten shekels of gold, 23 and said, "Whose daughter are you? Tell me, please, is there room in your father's house for us [1]to lodge?"
24 So she said to him, [a]"I am the daughter of Bethuel, Milcah's son, whom she bore to Nahor."
25 Moreover she said to him, "We have both straw and feed enough, and room to lodge."
26 Then the man [a]bowed down his head and worshiped the LORD.
27 And he said, [a]"Blessed be the LORD God of my master Abraham, who has not forsaken [b]His mercy and His truth toward my master. As for me, being on the way, the LORD [c]led me to the house of my master's brethren."
28 So the young woman ran and told her mother's household these things.
29 Now Rebekah had a brother whose name was [a]Laban, and Laban ran out to the man by the well.
30 So it came to pass, when he saw the nose ring, and the bracelets on his sister's wrists, and when he heard the words of his sister Rebekah, saying, "Thus the man spoke to me," that he went to the man. And there he stood by the camels at the well.
31 And he said, "Come in, [a]O blessed of the LORD! Why do you stand outside? For I have prepared the house, and a place for the camels."
32 Then the man came to the house. And he unloaded the camels, and [a]provided straw and feed for the camels, and water to [b]wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him.
33 Food was set before him to eat, but he said, [a]"I will not eat until I have told about my errand." And he said, "Speak on."
34 So he said, "I am Abraham's servant.
35 "The LORD [a]has blessed my master greatly, and he has become great; and He has given him flocks and herds, silver and gold, male and female servants, and camels and donkeys.
36 "And Sarah my master's wife [a]bore a son to my master when she was old; and [b]to him he has given all that he has.
37 "Now my master [a]made me swear, saying, 'You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell;
38 [a]'but you shall go to my father's house and to my family, and take a wife for my son.'
39 [a]"And I said to my master, 'Perhaps the woman will not follow me.'
40 [a]"But he said to me, 'The LORD, [b]before whom I walk, will send His angel with you and [1]prosper your way; and you shall take a wife for my son from my family and from my father's house.
41 [a]'You will be clear from this oath when you arrive among my family; for if they will not give her to you, then you will be released from my oath.'
42 "And this day I came to the well and said, [a]'O LORD God of my master Abraham, if You will now prosper the way in which I go,
43 [a]'behold, I stand by the well of water; and it shall come to pass that when the virgin comes out to draw water, and I say to her, "Please give me a little water from your pitcher to drink,"
44 'and she says to me, "Drink, and I will draw for your camels also,"—let her be the woman whom the LORD has appointed for my master's son.'
45 [a]"But before I had finished [b]speaking in my heart, there was Rebekah, coming out with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down to the well and drew water. And I said to her, 'Please let me drink.'
46 "And she made haste and let her pitcher down from her shoulder, and said, 'Drink, and I will give your camels a drink also.' So I drank, and she gave the camels a drink also.
47 "Then I asked her, and said, 'Whose daughter are you?' And she said, 'The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bore to him.' So I put the nose ring on her nose and the bracelets on her wrists.
48 [a]"And I bowed my head and worshiped the LORD, and blessed the LORD God of my master Abraham, who had led me in the way of truth to [b]take the daughter of my master's brother for his son.
49 "Now if you will [a]deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me. And if not, tell me, that I may turn to the right hand or to the left."
50 Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, [a]"The thing comes from the LORD; we cannot [b]speak to you either bad or good.
51 [a]"Here is Rebekah before you; take her and go, and let her be your master's son's wife, as the LORD has spoken."
52 And it came to pass, when Abraham's servant heard their words, that [a]he worshiped the LORD, bowing himself to the earth.
53 Then the servant brought out [a]jewelry of silver, jewelry of gold, and clothing, and gave them to Rebekah. He also gave [b]precious things to her brother and to her mother.

All Around Us

God is at work all around us. Yet we often fail to recognize what is happening in our lives as His activity. When we perceive His handiwork, we must immediately take time to worship and thank Him for His goodness.

54 And he and the men who were with him ate and drank and stayed all night. Then they arose in the morning, and he said, [a]"Send me away to my master."
55 But her brother and her mother said, "Let the young woman stay with us a few days, at least ten; after that she may go."
56 And he said to them, "Do not [1]hinder me, since the LORD has prospered my way; send me away so that I may go to my master."
57 So they said, "We will call the young woman and ask her personally."
58 Then they called Rebekah and said to her, "Will you go with this man?" And she said, "I will go."
59 So they sent away Rebekah their sister [a]and her nurse, and Abraham's servant and his men.
60 And they blessed Rebekah and said to her:

"Our sister, may you become [a]The mother of thousands of ten thousands;
[b]And may your descendants possess
The gates of those who hate them."

61 Then Rebekah and her maids arose, and they rode on the camels and followed the man. So the servant took Rebekah and departed.
62 Now Isaac came from the way of [a]Beer Lahai Roi, for he dwelt in the South.
63 And Isaac went out [a]to meditate in the field in the evening; and he lifted his eyes and looked, and there, the camels were coming.
64 Then Rebekah lifted her eyes, and when she saw Isaac [a]she dismounted from her camel;
65 for she had said to the servant, "Who is this man walking in the field to meet us?" The servant said, "It is my master." So she took a veil and covered herself.
66 And the servant told Isaac all the things that he had done.
67 Then Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent; and he [a]took Rebekah and she became his wife, and he loved her. So Isaac [b]was comforted after his mother's death.

Abraham and Keturah

CHAPTER 25

25 Abraham again took a wife, and her name was [a]Keturah.
2 And [a]she bore him Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah.
3 Jokshan begot Sheba and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Asshurim, Letushim, and Leummim.
4 And the sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abidah, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah.
5 And [a]Abraham gave all that he had to Isaac.
6 But Abraham gave gifts to the sons of the concubines which Abraham had; and while he was still living he [a]sent them eastward, away from Isaac his son, to [b]the country of the east.

Abraham's Death and Burial

7 This is the sum of the years of Abraham's life which he lived: one hundred and seventy-five years.
8 Then Abraham breathed his last and [a]died in a good old age, an old man and full of years, and [b]was gathered to his people.
9 And [a]his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of [b]Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite,
10 [a]the field which Abraham purchased from the sons of Heth. [b]There Abraham was buried, and Sarah his wife.
11 And it came to pass, after the death of Abraham, that God blessed his son Isaac. And Isaac dwelt at [a]Beer Lahai Roi.

The Families of Ishmael and Isaac

12 Now this is the [a]genealogy of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's maidservant, bore to Abraham.
13 And [a]these were the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: The firstborn of Ishmael, Nebajoth; then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,
14 Mishma, Dumah, Massa,
15 [1]Hadar, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah.
16 These were the sons of Ishmael and these were their names, by their towns and their [1]settlements, [a]twelve princes according to their nations.
17 These were the years of the life of 19 This is the [a]genealogy of Isaac, Abraham's son. [b]Abraham begot Isaac.

20 Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah as wife, [a]the daughter of Bethuel the Syrian of Padan Aram, [b]the sister of Laban the Syrian.
21 Now Isaac pleaded with the LORD for his wife, because she was barren; [a]and the LORD granted his plea, [b]and Rebekah his wife conceived.
22 But the children struggled together within her; and she said, "If all is well, why am I like this?" [a]So she went to inquire of the LORD.

Renewed Covenant

God's promises are sure, but He may wait on the recipient to cry out for its fulfillment. Blessing is not automatic; members of each generation must seek their own relationship with the Lord.

23 And the LORD said to her:

[a]"Two nations are in your womb,
Two peoples shall be separated from your body;
One people shall be stronger than [b]the other,
[c]And the older shall serve the younger."

24 So when her days were fulfilled for her to give birth, indeed there were twins in her womb.

25 And the first came out red. He was [a]like a hairy garment all over; so they called his name [1]Esau.
26 Afterward his brother came out, and [a]his hand took hold of Esau's heel; so [b]his name was called [1]Jacob. Isaac was sixty years old when she bore them.
27 So the boys grew. And Esau was [a]a skillful hunter, a man of the field; but Jacob was [b]a [1]mild man, [c]dwelling in tents.
28 And Isaac loved Esau because he [a]ate of his game, [b]but Rebekah loved Jacob.

Esau Sells His Birthright

29 Now Jacob cooked a stew; and Esau came in from the field, and he was weary.
30 And Esau said to Jacob, "Please feed me with that same red stew, for I am weary." Therefore his name was called [1]Edom.
31 But Jacob said, "Sell me your birthright as of this day."
32 And Esau said, "Look, I am about to die; so [a]what is this birthright to me?"
33 Then Jacob said, [1]"Swear to me as of this day." So he swore to him, and [a]sold his birthright to Jacob.
34 And Jacob gave Esau bread and stew of lentils; then [a]he ate and drank, arose, and went his way. Thus Esau [b]despised his birthright.

Passed Over

If people "despise" God's purpose for their lives, He may give their assignments to others.

CHARACTER*Study* JACOB Gen. 25:26

Jacob, "the supplanter," was the second son of Isaac and Rebecca, twin brother to Esau. He tricked his older brother out of his firstborn birthright and later deceived Isaac into giving him a blessing intended for Esau. As Jacob passed through Bethel, God appeared to him and foretold the great nation Jacob's descendants would become and the blessing they would be to all nations. Jacob married Leah and Rebecca and fathered twelve sons who would later become the twelve tribes of Israel. After a night of wrestling with God at Jabbok, Jacob's name was changed by the Lord to Israel, meaning "Prince with God." Jacob died in Egypt at 147 years old, and was buried with his fathers in the cave of Machpelah in Canaan. Jacob's life shows how God can work through people, in spite of serious character flaws, to accomplish His will.

25:21 Rebekah experienced a time of barrenness, as did Sarah. Isaac pleaded with God in prayer, waiting twenty years for the answer to come. Twins, Esau and Jacob, "struggled" within Rebekah, foreshadowing the reality to be lived out later in their lives.

25:25, 26 "Esau" means "Hairy"; he was Isaac's favorite. "Jacob" means "Supplanter" or "Heel Catcher," and he was Rebekah's favorite. Esau later taunted Jacob because of his name (Gen. 27:36). Eventually, the Lord would change Jacob's name to "Israel," meaning "Prince with God" (Gen. 32:28).

25:30 "Edom" means "Red."

Isaac and Abimelech

26 There was a famine in the land, besides [a]the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went to [b]Abimelech king of the Philistines, in Gerar.
2 Then the LORD appeared to him and said: [a]"Do not go down to Egypt; live in [b]the land of which I shall tell you.
3 [a]"Dwell in this land, and [b]I will be with you and [c]bless you; for to you and your descendants [d]I give all these lands, and I will perform [e]the oath which I swore to Abraham your father.
4 "And [a]I will make your descendants multiply as the stars of heaven; I will give to your descendants all these lands; [b]and in your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed;
5 [a]"because Abraham obeyed My voice and kept My charge, My commandments, My statutes, and My laws."
6 So Isaac dwelt in Gerar.
7 And the men of the place asked about his wife. And [a]he said, "She is my sister"; for [b]he was afraid to say, "She is my wife," because he thought, "lest the men of the place kill me for Rebekah, because she is [c]beautiful to behold."
8 Now it came to pass, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked through a window, and saw, and there was Isaac, [1]showing endearment to Rebekah his wife.
9 Then Abimelech called Isaac and said, "Quite obviously she is your wife; so how could you say, 'She is my sister'?" Isaac said to him, "Because I said, 'Lest I die on account of her.' "
10 And Abimelech said, "What is this you have done to us? One of the people might soon have lain with your wife, and [a]you would have brought guilt on us."
11 So Abimelech charged all his people, saying, "He who [a]touches this man or his wife shall surely be put to death."
12 Then Isaac sowed in that land, and reaped in the same year [a]a hundredfold; and the LORD [b]blessed him.
13 The man [a]began to prosper, and continued prospering until he became very prosperous;
14 for he had possessions of flocks and possessions of herds and a great number of servants. So the Philistines [a]envied him.

Inherited Blessing

The children of faithful parents will always have the opportunity to enjoy God's blessing. But every generation is responsible for how it responds to the covenant of faith.

15 Now the Philistines had stopped up all the wells [a]which his father's servants had dug in the days of Abraham his father, and they had filled them with earth.
16 And Abimelech said to Isaac, "Go away from us, for [a]you are much mightier than we."
17 Then Isaac departed from there and [1]pitched his tent in the Valley of Gerar, and dwelt there.
18 And Isaac dug again the wells of water which they had dug in the days of Abraham his father, for the Philistines had stopped them up after the death of Abraham. [a]He called them by the names which his father had called them.
19 Also Isaac's servants dug in the valley, and found a well of running water there.
20 But the herdsmen of Gerar [a]quarreled with Isaac's herdsmen, saying, "The water is ours." So he called the name of the well [1]Esek, because they quarreled with him.
21 Then they dug another well, and they quarreled over that one also. So he called its name [1]Sitnah.
22 And he moved from there and dug another well, and they did not quarrel over it. So he called its name [1]Rehoboth, because he said, "For now the LORD has made room for us, and we shall [a]be fruitful in the land."
23 Then he went up from there to Beersheba.
24 And the LORD [a]appeared to him the same night and said, [b]"I am the God of your father Abraham; [c]do not fear, for [d]I am with you. I will bless you and multiply your descendants for My servant Abraham's sake."
25 So he [a]built an altar there and [b]called on the name of the LORD, and he pitched his tent there; and there Isaac's servants dug a well.
26 Then Abimelech came to him from 26:1 The Philistines were a powerful sea people, who settled in the coastlands in southwest Palestine. They became mortal enemies of the nation of Israel.

26:2 This is the first recorded encounter of the Lord with Isaac. He had come to Rebekah previously (Gen. 25:22).

26:7 The sins of the father are often repeated in the next generation.

26:20 "Esek" means "Quarrel."

26:21 "Sitnah" means "Enmity."

26:22 "Rehoboth" means "Spaciousness."

Gerar with Ahuzzath, one of his friends, [a]and Phichol the commander of his army.
27 And Isaac said to them, "Why have you come to me, [a]since you hate me and have [b]sent me away from you?"
28 But they said, "We have certainly seen that the LORD [a]is with you. So we said, 'Let there now be an oath between us, between you and us; and let us make a [1]covenant with you,
29 'that you will do us no harm, since we have not touched you, and since we have done nothing to you but good and have sent you away in peace. [a]You are now the blessed of the LORD.' "
30 [a]So he made them a feast, and they ate and drank.
31 Then they arose early in the morning and [a]swore an oath with one another; and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace.
32 It came to pass the same day that Isaac's servants came and told him about the well which they had dug, and said to him, "We have found water."
33 So he called it [1]Shebah. [a]Therefore the name of the city is [2]Beersheba to this day.
34 [a]When Esau was forty years old, he took as wives Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite.
35 And [a]they were a grief of mind to Isaac and Rebekah.

Isaac Blesses Jacob

27 Now it came to pass, when Isaac was [a]old and [b]his eyes were so dim that he could not see, that he called Esau his older son and said to him, "My son." And he answered him, "Here I am."
2 Then he said, "Behold now, I am old. I [a]do not know the day of my death.
3 [a]"Now therefore, please take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field and hunt game for me.
4 "And make me [1]savory food, such as I love, and bring it to me that I may eat, that my soul [a]may bless you before I die."
5 Now Rebekah was listening when Isaac spoke to Esau his son. And Esau went to the field to hunt game and to bring it.
6 So Rebekah spoke to Jacob her son, saying, "Indeed I heard your father speak to Esau your brother, saying,
7 'Bring me game and make [1]savory food for me, that I may eat it and bless you in the presence of the LORD before my death.'
8 "Now therefore, my son, [a]obey my voice according to what I command you.
9 "Go now to the flock and bring me from there two choice kids of the goats, and I will make [a]savory food from them for your father, such as he loves.
10 "Then you shall take it to your father, that he may eat it, and that he [a]may bless you before his death."
11 And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, "Look, [a]Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth-skinned man.
12 "Perhaps my father will [a]feel me, and I shall seem to be a deceiver to him; and I shall bring [b]a curse on myself and not a blessing."
13 But his mother said to him, [a]"Let your curse be on me, my son; only obey my voice, and go, get them for me."
14 And he went and got them and brought them to his mother, and his mother [a]made [1]savory food, such as his father loved.
15 Then Rebekah took [a]the choice clothes of her elder son Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them on Jacob her younger son.
16 And she put the skins of the kids of the goats on his hands and on the smooth part of his neck.
17 Then she gave the savory food and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob.
18 So he went to his father and said, "My father." And he said, "Here I am. Who are you, my son?"
19 Jacob said to his father, "I am Esau your firstborn; I have done just as you told me; please arise, sit and eat of my game, [a]that your soul may bless me."
20 But Isaac said to his son, "How is it that you have found it so quickly, my son?" And he said, "Because the LORD your God brought it to me."
21 Then Isaac said to Jacob, "Please

WORD Study — BLESSING

Gen. 27:4 The term here comes from the Hebrew barak meaning "to kneel." It was a prophetic word for a positive future. Once spoken, it could not be retracted, and had the power of its own fulfillment as God allowed. Before a father died, he would declare a blessing upon his children that was believed to be fulfilled in their lifetime.

26:33 "Shebah" means "Oath." "Beersheba" means "Well of the Oath."

27:4 The elderly Isaac enjoyed satisfying his physical appetites. This same characteristic in his son Esau would cost Esau his birthright.

come near, that I [a]may feel you, my son, whether you are really my son Esau or not."
22 So Jacob went near to Isaac his father, and he felt him and said, "The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau."
23 And he did not recognize him, because [a]his hands were hairy like his brother Esau's hands; so he blessed him.
24 Then he said, "Are you really my son Esau?" He said, "I am."
25 He said, "Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's game, so [a]that my soul may bless you." So he brought it near to him, and he ate; and he brought him wine, and he drank.
26 Then his father Isaac said to him, "Come near now and kiss me, my son."
27 And he came near and [a]kissed him; and he smelled the smell of his clothing, and blessed him and said:

"Surely, [b]the smell of my son
Is like the smell of a field
Which the LORD has blessed.
28 Therefore may [a]God give you
Of [b]the dew of heaven,
Of [c]the fatness of the earth,
And [d]plenty of grain and wine.
29 [a]Let peoples serve you,
And nations bow down to you.
Be master over your brethren,
And [b]let your mother's sons bow down to you.
[c]Cursed be everyone who curses you,
And blessed be those who bless you!"

Esau's Lost Hope

30 Now it happened, as soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, and Jacob had scarcely gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting.
31 He also had made [1]savory food, and brought it to his father, and said to his father, "Let my father arise and [a]eat of his son's game, that your soul may bless me."
32 And his father Isaac said to him, "Who are you?" So he said, "I am your son, your firstborn, Esau."
33 Then Isaac trembled exceedingly, and said, "Who? Where is the one who hunted game and brought it to me? I ate all of it before you came, and I have blessed him—[a]and indeed he shall be blessed."
34 When Esau heard the words of his father, [a]he cried with an exceedingly great and bitter cry, and said to his father, "Bless me—me also, O my father!"
35 But he said, "Your brother came with deceit and has taken away your blessing."
36 And Esau said, [a]"Is he not rightly named [1]Jacob? For he has supplanted me these two times. He took away my birthright, and now look, he has taken away my blessing!" And he said, "Have you not reserved a blessing for me?"
37 Then Isaac answered and said to Esau, [a]"Indeed I have made him your master, and all his brethren I have given to him as servants; with [b]grain and wine I have [1]sustained him. What shall I do now for you, my son?"
38 And Esau said to his father, "Have you only one blessing, my father? Bless me—me also, O my father!" And Esau lifted up his voice [a]and wept.
39 Then Isaac his father answered and said to him:

"Behold, [a]your dwelling shall be of the [1]fatness of the earth,
And of the dew of heaven from above.
40 By your sword you shall live,
And [a]you shall serve your brother;
And [b]it shall come to pass, when you become restless,
That you shall break his yoke from your neck."

Jacob Escapes from Esau

41 So Esau [a]hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father blessed him, and Esau said in his heart, [b]"The days of mourning for my father [1]are at hand; [c]then I will kill my brother Jacob."

Matters in Our Hands

The great temptation is to take control of our own life and destiny. It takes steady faith to leave our lives and future in God's hands. Yet when we seize control of our lives, disaster inevitably ensues.

42 And the words of Esau her older son were told to Rebekah. So she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said to him, "Surely your brother Esau [a]comforts himself concerning you by intending to kill you.
43 "Now therefore, my son, obey my 44 "And stay with him a [a]few days, until your brother's fury turns away,

45 "until your brother's anger turns away from you, and he forgets what you have done to him; then I will send and bring you from there. Why should I be bereaved also of you both in one day?"
46 And Rebekah said to Isaac, [a]"I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth; [b]if Jacob takes a wife of the daughters of Heth, like these who are the daughters of the land, what good will my life be to me?"

28 Then Isaac called Jacob and [a]blessed him, and [1]charged him, and said to him: [b]"You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan.
2 [a]"Arise, go to [b]Padan Aram, to the house of [c]Bethuel your mother's father; and take yourself a wife from there of the daughters of [d]Laban your mother's brother.

3 "May [a]God Almighty bless you,
And make you [b]fruitful and multiply you,
That you may be an assembly of peoples;
4 And give you [a]the blessing of Abraham,
To you and your descendants with you,
That you may inherit the land
[b]In[1] which you are a stranger,
Which God gave to Abraham."

5 So Isaac sent Jacob away, and he went to Padan Aram, to Laban the son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob and Esau.

Esau Marries Mahalath

6 Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Padan Aram to take himself a wife from there, and that as he blessed him he gave him a charge, saying, "You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan,"
7 and that Jacob had obeyed his father and his mother and had gone to Padan Aram.
8 Also Esau saw [a]that the daughters of Canaan did not please his father Isaac.
9 So Esau went to Ishmael and [a]took [b]Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son, [c]the sister of Nebajoth, to be his wife in addition to the wives he had.

Jacob's Vow at Bethel

10 Now Jacob [a]went out from Beersheba and went toward [b]Haran.
11 So he came to a certain place and stayed there all night, because the sun had set. And he took one of the stones of that place and put it at his head, and he lay down in that place to sleep.
12 Then he [a]dreamed, and behold, a ladder was set up on the earth, and its top reached to heaven; and there [b]the angels of God were ascending and descending on it.
13 [a]And behold, the LORD stood above it and said: [b]"I am the LORD God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac; [c]the land on which you lie I will give to you and your descendants.
14 "Also your [a]descendants shall be as the dust of the earth; you shall spread abroad [b]to the west and the east, to the north and the south; and in you and [c]in your seed all the families of the earth shall be blessed.
15 "Behold, [a]I am with you and will [b]keep[1] you wherever you go, and will [c]bring you back to this land; for [d]I will not leave you [e]until I have done what I have spoken to you."
16 Then Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, "Surely the LORD is in [a]this place, and I did not know it."

Surprised by God

We are not always aware of God's presence with us, but that does not mean He is not near. God never abandons us, though we are often disoriented with regard to Him.

17 And he was afraid and said, "How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven!"
18 Then Jacob rose early in the morn-

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 28:17

God's Presence

When we do not see God at work around us we must never assume He is not active. Rather we should pray for Him to open our spiritual eyes so we can see His activity.

28:2 "Padan Aram" means "Plain of Aram" and was in northwest Mesopotamia near Haran.

28:3 "God almighty" is El Shaddai in Hebrew.

28:5 "Syrian" could also be translated "Aramean."

28:15 God's great promise to His people is His presence. When God is present, no other resource is needed.

ing, and took the stone that he had put at his head, [a]set it up as a pillar, [b]and poured oil on top of it.
19 And he called the name of [a]that place [1]Bethel; but the name of that city had been Luz previously.
20 [a]Then Jacob made a vow, saying, "If [b]God will be with me, and keep me in this way that I am going, and give me [c]bread to eat and clothing to put on, 21 "so that [a]I come back to my father's house in peace, [b]then the LORD shall be my God.
22 "And this stone which I have set as a pillar [a]shall be God's house, [b]and of all that You give me I will surely give a [1]tenth to You."

Jacob Meets Rachel

29 So Jacob went on his journey [a]and came to the land of the people of the East.
2 And he looked, and saw a [a]well in the field; and behold, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks. A large stone was on the well's mouth.
3 Now all the flocks would be gathered there; and they would roll the stone from the well's mouth, water the sheep, and put the stone back in its place on the well's mouth.
4 And Jacob said to them, "My brethren, where are you from?" And they said, "We are from [a]Haran."
5 Then he said to them, "Do you know [a]Laban the son of Nahor?" And they said, "We know him."
6 So he said to them, [a]"Is he well?" And they said, "He is well. And look, his daughter Rachel [b]is coming with the sheep."
7 Then he said, "Look, it is still [1]high day; it is not time for the cattle to be gathered together. Water the sheep, and go and feed them."
8 But they said, "We cannot until all the flocks are gathered together, and they have rolled the stone from the well's mouth; then we water the sheep."
9 Now while he was still speaking with them, [a]Rachel came with her father's sheep, for she was a shepherdess.
10 And it came to pass, when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, that Jacob went near and [a]rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother.

No Coincidences

What may seem like a fortunate coincidence could actually be God at work carrying out His plans. Always look for God's activity in the seemingly ordinary events of your life.

11 Then Jacob [a]kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice and wept.
12 And Jacob told Rachel that he was [a]her father's relative and that he was Rebekah's son. [b]So she ran and told her father.
13 Then it came to pass, when Laban heard the report about Jacob his sister's son, that [a]he ran to meet him, and embraced him and kissed him, and brought him to his house. So he told Laban all these things.
14 And Laban said to him, [a]"Surely you are my bone and my flesh." And he stayed with him for a month.

Jacob Marries Leah and Rachel

15 Then Laban said to Jacob, "Because you are my relative, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, [a]what should your wages be?"
16 Now Laban had two daughters: the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.
17 Leah's eyes were [1]delicate, but Rachel was [a]beautiful of form and appearance.
18 Now Jacob loved Rachel; so he said, [a]"I will serve you seven years for Rachel your younger daughter."
19 And Laban said, "It is better that I give her to you than that I should give her to another man. Stay with me."
20 So Jacob [a]served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed only a few days to him because of the love he had for her.
21 Then Jacob said to Laban, "Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, that I may [a]go in to her."
22 And Laban gathered together all the men of the place and [a]made a feast.
23 Now it came to pass in the evening, that he took Leah his daughter and brought her to Jacob; and he went in to her.
24 And Laban gave his maid [a]Zilpah to his daughter Leah as a maid.
25 So it came to pass in the morning, that behold, it was Leah. And he said to

28:19 "Bethel" means "House of God."

28:22 God's people often created physical monuments of formal commitments made at a particular place and time, to serve as a reminder to themselves and to future generations of what God said and did.

Laban, "What is this you have done to me? Was it not for Rachel that I served you? Why then have you [a]deceived me?"

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 29:25

Deceit

What we give to others God measures back to us. God is absolutely just. Rather than complaining to God about our situation, we might better ask what our circumstances reveal about our character.

26 And Laban said, "It must not be done so in our [1]country, to give the younger before the firstborn.
27 [a]"Fulfill her week, and we will give you this one also for the service which you will serve with me still another seven years."
28 Then Jacob did so and fulfilled her week. So he gave him his daughter Rachel as wife also.
29 And Laban gave his maid [a]Bilhah to his daughter Rachel as a maid.
30 Then Jacob also went in to Rachel, and he also [a]loved Rachel more than Leah. And he served with Laban [b]still another seven years.

The Children of Jacob

31 When the LORD [a]saw that Leah was [1]unloved, He [b]opened her womb; but Rachel was barren.
32 So Leah conceived and bore a son, and she called his name [1]Reuben; for she said, "The LORD has surely [a]looked on my affliction. Now therefore, my husband will love me."
33 Then she conceived again and bore a son, and said, "Because the LORD has heard that I am [1]unloved, He has therefore given me this son also." And she called his name [2]Simeon.
34 She conceived again and bore a son, and said, "Now this time my husband will become attached to me, because I have borne him three sons." Therefore his name was called [1]Levi.
35 And she conceived again and bore a son, and said, "Now I will praise the LORD." Therefore she called his name [a]Judah.[1] Then she stopped bearing.

30 Now when Rachel saw that [a]she bore Jacob no children, Rachel [b]envied her sister, and said to Jacob, "Give me children, [c]or else I die!"

2 And Jacob's anger was aroused against Rachel, and he said, [a]"Am I in the place of God, who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb?"
3 So she said, "Here is [a]my maid Bilhah; go in to her, [b]and she will bear a child on my knees, [c]that I also may [1]have children by her."
4 Then she gave him Bilhah her maid [a]as wife, and Jacob went in to her.
5 And Bilhah conceived and bore Jacob a son.
6 Then Rachel said, "God has [a]judged my case; and He has also heard my voice and given me a son." Therefore she called his name [1]Dan.
7 And Rachel's maid Bilhah conceived again and bore Jacob a second son.
8 Then Rachel said, "With [1]great wrestlings I have wrestled with my sister, and indeed I have prevailed." So she called his name [2]Naphtali.
9 When Leah saw that she had stopped bearing, she took Zilpah her maid and [a]gave her to Jacob as wife.
10 And Leah's maid Zilpah bore Jacob a son.
11 Then Leah said, [1]"A troop comes!" So she called his name [2]Gad.
12 And Leah's maid Zilpah bore Jacob a second son.
13 Then Leah said, "I am happy, for the daughters [a]will call me blessed." So she called his name [1]Asher.
14 Now Reuben went in the days of wheat harvest and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them to his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, [a]"Please give me some of your son's mandrakes."
15 But she said to her, [a]"Is it a small matter that you have taken away my husband? Would you take away my son's mandrakes also?" And Rachel said, "Therefore he will lie with you tonight for your son's mandrakes."
16 When Jacob came out of the field in the evening, Leah went out to meet him and said, "You must come in to me, for I have surely hired you with my son's mandrakes." And he lay with her that night.
17 And God listened to Leah, and she conceived and bore Jacob a fifth son.
18 Leah said, "God has given me my wages, because I have given my maid to my husband." So she called his name [1]Issachar.

29:28 The Mosaic Law would later forbid a man from marrying two sisters while both were living (Lev. 18:18).

29:31 Although Leah was not to be a part of the holy lineage of the Messiah, God loved her and sought to comfort her.

30:3 The phrase "on my knees" meant "children considered my own." They would be viewed as belonging to Rachel.

30:8 "Great wrestlings" is literally "wrestlings of God."

30:14 Mandrakes were believed to increase fertility.

19 Then Leah conceived again and bore Jacob a sixth son.
20 And Leah said, "God has endowed me with a good endowment; now my husband will dwell with me, because I have borne him six sons." So she called his name [1]Zebulun.
21 Afterward she bore a [a]daughter, and called her name [1]Dinah.
22 Then God [a]remembered Rachel, and God listened to her and [b]opened her womb.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 30:22

God Remembers

God knows our troubles. He does not hesitate to address them in His own way and time to accomplish His will and to glorify Himself in the process. His help may not come as soon as we would like, but it will come when it is best.

23 And she conceived and bore a son, and said, "God has taken away [a]my reproach."
24 So she called his name [1]Joseph, and said, [a]"The LORD shall add to me another son."

Jacob's Agreement with Laban

25 And it came to pass, when Rachel had borne Joseph, that Jacob said to Laban, [a]"Send me away, that I may go to [b]my own place and to my country.
26 "Give me my wives and my children [a]for whom I have served you, and let me go; for you know my service which I have done for you."
27 And Laban said to him, "Please stay, if I have found favor in your eyes, for [a]I have learned by experience that the LORD has blessed me for your sake."
28 Then he said, [a]"Name me your wages, and I will give it."
29 So Jacob said to him, [a]"You know how I have served you and how your livestock has been with me.
30 "For what you had before I came was little, and it has increased to a great amount; the LORD has blessed you [1]since my coming. And now, when shall I also [a]provide for my own house?"
31 So he said, "What shall I give you?" And Jacob said, "You shall not give me anything. If you will do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep your flocks:
32 "Let me pass through all your flock today, removing from there all the speckled and spotted sheep, and all the brown ones among the lambs, and the spotted and speckled among the goats; and [a]these shall be my wages.
33 "So my [a]righteousness will answer for me in time to come, when the subject of my wages comes before you: every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and brown among the lambs, will be considered stolen, if it is with me."
34 And Laban said, "Oh, that it were according to your word!"
35 So he removed that day the male goats that were [a]speckled and spotted, all the female goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had some white in it, and all the brown ones among the lambs, and gave them into the hand of his sons.
36 Then he put three days' journey between himself and Jacob, and Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flocks.
37 Now [a]Jacob took for himself rods of green poplar and of the almond and chestnut trees, peeled white strips in them, and exposed the white which was in the rods.
38 And the rods which he had peeled, he set before the flocks in the gutters, in the watering troughs where the flocks came to drink, so that they should conceive when they came to drink.
39 So the flocks conceived before the rods, and the flocks brought forth streaked, speckled, and spotted.
40 Then Jacob separated the lambs, and made the flocks face toward the streaked and all the brown in the flock of Laban; but he put his own flocks by themselves and did not put them with Laban's flock.
41 And it came to pass, whenever the stronger livestock conceived, that Jacob placed the rods before the eyes of the livestock in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods.
42 But when the flocks were feeble, he did not put them in; so the feebler were Laban's and the stronger Jacob's.
43 Thus the man [a]became exceedingly prosperous, and [b]had large flocks, female and male servants, and camels and donkeys.

Jacob Flees from Laban

31 Now Jacob heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, "Jacob has taken away all that was our father's, and from what was our father's he has acquired all this [a]wealth."

1 [a]Ps. 49:16

30:24 "Joseph" means "He Will Add."
30:39 Jacob's plot was based on the belief he could affect the sheep's embryo to his advantage. It was God who intervened on Jacob's behalf to give him success.

ENCOUNTER Note Gen. 30:43

Prosperity

When God chooses to bless, He does so abundantly. When people submit to Him, He turns their negative character traits into positive attributes. Thus Jacob's cunning deceitfulness became creative industry.

2 And Jacob saw the [a]countenance of Laban, and indeed it was not [b]favorable toward him as before.
3 Then the LORD said to Jacob, [a]"Return to the land of your fathers and to your family, and I will [b]be with you."

ENCOUNTER Note Gen. 31:3

Time to Leave

We tend to grow comfortable in familiar surroundings. God has a purpose and plan for our lives. He will make it clear when it is time to leave where we are and to go to the next assignment He has for us.

4 So Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field, to his flock,
5 and said to them, [a]"I see your father's [1]countenance, that it is not favorable toward me as before; but the God of my father [b]has been with me.
6 "And [a]you know that with all my might I have served your father.
7 "Yet your father has deceived me and [a]changed my wages [b]ten times, but God [c]did not allow him to hurt me.
8 "If he said thus: [a]'The speckled shall be your wages,' then all the flocks bore speckled. And if he said thus: 'The streaked shall be your wages,' then all the flocks bore streaked.
9 "So God has [a]taken away the livestock of your father and given them to me.
10 "And it happened, at the time when the flocks conceived, that I lifted my eyes and saw in a dream, and behold, the rams which leaped upon the flocks were streaked, speckled, and gray-spotted.
11 "Then [a]the Angel of God spoke to me in a dream, saying, 'Jacob.' And I said, 'Here I am.'
12 "And He said, 'Lift your eyes now and see, all the rams which leap on the flocks are streaked, speckled, and gray-spotted; for [a]I have seen all that Laban is doing to you.
13 'I am the God of Bethel, [a]where you anointed the pillar and where you made a vow to Me. Now [b]arise, get out of this land, and return to the land of your family.' "
14 Then Rachel and Leah answered and said to him, [a]"Is there still any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house?
15 "Are we not considered strangers by him? For [a]he has sold us, and also completely consumed our money.
16 "For all these riches which God has taken from our father are really ours and our children's; now then, whatever God has said to you, do it."
17 Then Jacob rose and set his sons and his wives on camels.
18 And he carried away all his livestock and all his possessions which he had gained, his acquired livestock which he had gained in Padan Aram, to go to his father Isaac in the land of [a]Canaan.
19 Now Laban had gone to shear his sheep, and Rachel had stolen the [a]household[1] idols that were her father's.
20 And Jacob stole away, unknown to Laban the Syrian, in that he did not tell him that he intended to flee.
21 So he fled with all that he had. He arose and crossed the river, and [a]headed[1] toward the mountains of Gilead.

Laban Pursues Jacob

22 And Laban was told on the third day that Jacob had fled.
23 Then he took [a]his brethren with him and pursued him for seven days' journey, and he overtook him in the mountains of Gilead.

ENCOUNTER Note Gen. 31:23

God Speaks to Our Enemies

God works on behalf of His people to protect them, including working in the lives of their enemies. We cannot know all God is doing in the hearts and minds of those around us.

24 But God [a]had come to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and said to him, "Be careful that you [b]speak to Jacob neither good nor bad."
25 So Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mountains, and Laban with his brethren pitched in the mountains of Gilead.

26 And Laban said to Jacob: "What have you done, that you have stolen away unknown to me, and [a]carried away my daughters like captives taken with the sword?
27 "Why did you flee away secretly, and steal away from me, and not tell me; for I might have sent you away with joy and songs, with timbrel and harp?
28 "And you did not allow me [a]to kiss my sons and my daughters. Now [b]you have done foolishly in so doing.
29 "It is in my power to do you harm, but the [a]God of your father spoke to me [b]last night, saying, 'Be careful that you speak to Jacob neither good nor bad.'
30 "And now you have surely gone because you greatly long for your father's house, but why did you [a]steal my gods?"
31 Then Jacob answered and said to Laban, "Because I was [a]afraid, for I said, 'Perhaps you would take your daughters from me by force.'
32 "With whomever you find your gods, [a]do not let him live. In the presence of our brethren, identify what I have of yours and take it with you." For Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.
33 And Laban went into Jacob's tent, into Leah's tent, and into the two maids' tents, but he did not find them. Then he went out of Leah's tent and entered Rachel's tent.
34 Now Rachel had taken the [1]household idols, put them in the camel's saddle, and sat on them. And Laban [2]searched all about the tent but did not find them.
35 And she said to her father, "Let it not displease my lord that I cannot [a]rise before you, for the manner of women is with me." And he searched but did not find the [1]household idols.
36 Then Jacob was angry and rebuked Laban, and Jacob answered and said to Laban: "What is my [1]trespass? What is my sin, that you have so hotly pursued me?
37 "Although you have searched all my things, what part of your household things have you found? Set it here before my brethren and your brethren, that they may judge between us both!
38 "These twenty years I have been with you; your ewes and your female goats have not miscarried their young, and I have not eaten the rams of your flock.
39 [a]"That which was torn by beasts I did not bring to you; I bore the loss of it. [b]You required it from my hand, whether stolen by day or stolen by night.
40 "There I was! In the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night, and my sleep departed from my eyes.
41 "Thus I have been in your house twenty years; I [a]served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your flock, and [b]you have changed my wages ten times.
42 [a]"Unless the God of my father, the God of Abraham and [b]the Fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely now you would have sent me away empty-handed. [c]God has seen my affliction and the labor of my hands, and [d]rebuked you last night."

Laban's Covenant with Jacob

43 And Laban answered and said to Jacob, "These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and this flock is my flock; all that you see is mine. But what can I do this day to these my daughters or to their children whom they have borne?
44 "Now therefore, come, [a]let us make a [1]covenant, [b]you and I, and let it be a witness between you and me."
45 So Jacob [a]took a stone and set it up as a pillar.
46 Then Jacob said to his brethren, "Gather stones." And they took stones and made a heap, and they ate there on the heap.
47 Laban called it [1]Jegar Sahadutha, but Jacob called it [2]Galeed.
48 And Laban said, [a]"This heap is a witness between you and me this day." Therefore its name was called Galeed, 49 also [a]Mizpah,[1] because he said, "May the LORD watch between you and me when we are absent one from another.
50 "If you afflict my daughters, or if you take other wives besides my daughters, although no man is with us—see, God is witness between you and me!"
51 Then Laban said to Jacob, "Here is this heap and here is this pillar, which I have placed between you and me.

53 "The God of Abraham, the God of Nahor, and the God of their father [a]judge between us." And Jacob [b]swore by [c]the [1]Fear of his father Isaac.
54 Then Jacob offered a sacrifice on the mountain, and called his brethren to eat bread. And they ate bread and stayed all night on the mountain.
55 And early in the morning Laban arose, and [a]kissed his sons and daughters and [b]blessed them. Then Laban departed and [c]returned to his place.

Esau Comes to Meet Jacob

32 So Jacob went on his way, and [a]the angels of God met him.
2 When Jacob saw them, he said, "This is God's [a]camp." And he called the name of that place [1]Mahanaim.
3 Then Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother [a]in the land of Seir, [b]the [1]country of Edom.
4 And he commanded them, saying, [a]"Speak thus to my lord Esau, 'Thus your servant Jacob says: "I have dwelt with Laban and stayed there until now.
5 [a]"I have oxen, donkeys, flocks, and male and female servants; and I have sent to tell my lord, that [b]I may find favor in your sight." ' "
6 Then the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, "We came to your brother Esau, and [a]he also is coming to meet you, and four hundred men are with him."
7 So Jacob was greatly afraid and [a]distressed; and he divided the people that were with him, and the flocks and herds and camels, into two companies.
8 And he said, "If Esau comes to the one company and [1]attacks it, then the other company which is left will escape."
9 [a]Then Jacob said, [b]"O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, the LORD [c]who said to me, 'Return to your country and to your family, and I will deal well with you':
10 "I am not worthy of the least of all the [a]mercies and of all the truth which You have shown Your servant; for I crossed over this Jordan with [b]my staff, and now I have become two companies.
11 [a]"Deliver me, I pray, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau; for I fear him, lest he come and [1]attack me and [b]the mother with the children.
12 "For [a]You said, 'I will surely treat you well, and make your descendants as the [b]sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.' "
13 So he lodged there that same night, and took what [1]came to his hand as [a]a present for Esau his brother:
14 two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams,
15 thirty milk camels with their colts, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten foals.
16 Then he delivered them to the hand of his servants, every drove by itself, and said to his servants, "Pass over before me, and put some distance between successive droves."
17 And he commanded the first one, saying, "When Esau my brother meets you and asks you, saying, 'To whom do you belong, and where are you going? Whose are these in front of you?'
18 "then you shall say, 'They are your servant Jacob's. It is a present sent to my lord Esau; and behold, he also is behind us.' "
19 So he commanded the second, the third, and all who followed the droves, saying, "In this manner you shall speak to Esau when you find him;
20 "and also say, 'Behold, your servant Jacob is behind us.' " For he said, "I will [a]appease him with the present that goes before me, and afterward I will see his face; perhaps he will accept me."
21 So the present went on over before him, but he himself lodged that night in the camp.

Wrestling with God

22 And he arose that night and took his two wives, his two female servants, and his eleven sons, [a]and crossed over the ford of Jabbok.
23 He took them, sent them [1]over the brook, and sent over what he had.
24 Then Jacob was left alone; and [a]a Man wrestled with him until the [1]breaking of day.

ENCOUNTER Note — Gen. 32:11

Fear

We all encounter frightening circumstances. Yet children of God never face their fears alone. God goes with them and He keeps His promises to guide and protect them.

32:1, 2 "Mahanaim" means "Double Camp." The phrase "on his way" is significant. God met Jacob and gave him assurance as he was going.

32:22 The Jabbok River flowed westward through Gilead to the Jordan River.

32:24 By sending his family ahead of him, Jacob was not using them as shields (see 33:3). Rather, it appears that since he was facing a crisis far beyond his capacity to handle, he wanted to be alone. Once Jacob found solitude, God met with him.

25 Now when He saw that He did not prevail against him, He [1]touched the socket of his hip; and [a]the socket of Jacob's hip was out of joint as He wrestled with him.
26 And [a]He said, "Let Me go, for the day breaks." But he said, [b]"I will not let You go unless You bless me!"
27 So He said to him, "What is your name?" He said, "Jacob."
28 And He said, [a]"Your name shall no longer be called Jacob, but [1]Israel; for you have [b]struggled with God and [c]with men, and have prevailed."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 32:28

Wrestling with God

Wrestling with God always brings consequences. Desiring a blessing is one thing, refusing to yield to God is another. There are many who carry with them the permanent reminders of their stubbornness before God.

29 Then Jacob asked, saying, "Tell me Your name, I pray." And He said, [a]"Why is it that you ask about My name?" And He [b]blessed him there.
30 So Jacob called the name of the place [1]Peniel: "For [a]I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved."
31 Just as he crossed over [1]Penuel the sun rose on him, and he limped on his hip.
32 Therefore to this day the children of Israel do not eat the muscle that shrank, which is on the hip socket, because He [1]touched the socket of Jacob's hip in the muscle that shrank.

Jacob and Esau Meet

33 Now Jacob lifted his eyes and looked, and there, [a]Esau was coming, and with him were four hundred men. So he divided the children among Leah, Rachel, and the two maidservants.
2 And he put the maidservants and their children in front, Leah and her children behind, and Rachel and Joseph last.
3 Then he crossed over before them and [a]bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.
4 [a]But Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, [b]and fell on his neck and kissed him, and they wept.

6 Then the maidservants came near, they and their children, and bowed down.
7 And Leah also came near with her children, and they bowed down. Afterward Joseph and Rachel came near, and they bowed down.
8 Then Esau said, "What do you mean by [a]all this company which I met?" And he said, "These are [b]to find favor in the sight of my lord."
9 But Esau said, "I have enough, my brother; keep what you have for yourself."
10 And Jacob said, "No, please, if I have now found favor in your sight, then receive my present from my hand, inasmuch as I [a]have seen your face as though I had seen the face of God, and you were pleased with me.
11 "Please, take [a]my blessing that is brought to you, because God has dealt [b]graciously with me, and because I have [1]enough." [c]So he urged him, and he took it.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 33:11

Take My Blessing

Acts of restitution may be a sign of genuine repentance. Contrition is evidence of a transformed nature and a servant heart.

12 Then Esau said, "Let us take our journey; let us go, and I will go before you."
13 But Jacob said to him, "My lord knows that the children are weak, and the flocks and herds which are nursing are with me. And if the men should drive them hard one day, all the flock will die.
14 "Please let my lord go on ahead before his servant. I will lead on slowly at a pace which the livestock that go before me, and the children, [1]are able to endure, until I come to my lord [a]in Seir."
15 And Esau said, "Now let me leave with you some of the people who are with me." But he said, "What need is there? [a]Let me find favor in the sight of my lord."

32:28 "Israel" means "Prince with God." The name comes from the verb that means "strive" or "persevere."

32:30 "Peniel" means "Face of God." This may be the town mentioned in Judges 8:8 and 1 Kings 12:25.

32:32 Old Testament law did not formally specify such a restriction although it was found in Rabbinic Judaism.

33:4 This moving description of reconciliation anticipates Jesus' parable of the Prodigal Son (Luke 15:20).

33:14 Despite the joyful reunion, Jacob apparently deceived Esau again, for instead of traveling south to Seir, he traveled north to Succoth.

16 So Esau returned that day on his way to Seir.
17 And Jacob journeyed to [a]Succoth, built himself a house, and made [1]booths for his livestock. Therefore the name of the place is called [2]Succoth.

Jacob Comes to Canaan

18 Then Jacob came [1]safely to [a]the city of [b]Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan Aram; and he pitched his tent before the city.
19 And [a]he bought the parcel of [1]land, where he had pitched his tent, from the children of Hamor, Shechem's father, for one hundred pieces of money.
20 Then he erected an altar there and called it [a]El[1] Elohe Israel.

The Dinah Incident

34 Now [a]Dinah the daughter of Leah, whom she had borne to Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the land.
2 And when Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, prince of the country, saw her, he [a]took her and lay with her, and violated her.
3 His soul [1]was strongly attracted to Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the young woman and spoke [2]kindly to the young woman.
4 So Shechem [a]spoke to his father Hamor, saying, "Get me this young woman as a wife."
5 And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter. Now his sons were with his livestock in the field; so Jacob [a]held[1] his peace until they came.
6 Then Hamor the father of Shechem went out to Jacob to speak with him.
7 And the sons of Jacob came in from the field when they heard it; and the men were grieved and very angry, because he [a]had done a disgraceful thing in Israel by lying with Jacob's daughter, [b]a thing which ought not to be done.
8 But Hamor spoke with them, saying, "The soul of my son Shechem longs for your daughter. Please give her to him as a wife.
9 "And make marriages with us; give your daughters to us, and take our daughters to yourselves.
10 "So you shall dwell with us, and the land shall be before you. Dwell and trade in it, and acquire possessions for yourselves in it."
11 Then Shechem said to her father and her brothers, "Let me find favor in your eyes, and whatever you say to me I will give.
12 "Ask me ever so much [a]dowry[1] and gift, and I will give according to what you say to me; but give me the young woman as a wife."
13 But the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father, and spoke [a]deceitfully, because he had defiled Dinah their sister.
14 And they said to them, "We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one who is [a]uncircumcised, for [b]that would be a reproach to us.
15 "But on this condition we will consent to you: If you will become as we are, if every male of you is circumcised, 16 "then we will give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters to us; and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people.
17 "But if you will not heed us and be circumcised, then we will take our daughter and be gone."
18 And their words pleased Hamor and Shechem, Hamor's son.
19 So the young man did not delay to do the thing, because he delighted in Jacob's daughter. He was [a]more honorable than all the household of his father.
20 And Hamor and Shechem his son came to the [a]gate of their city, and spoke with the men of their city, saying:
21 "These men are at peace with us. Therefore let them dwell in the land and trade in it. For indeed the land is large enough for them. Let us take their daughters to us as wives, and let us give them our daughters.
22 "Only on this condition will the men consent to dwell with us, to be one people: if every male among us is circumcised as they are circumcised.
23 "Will not their livestock, their property, and every animal of theirs be ours? Only let us consent to them, and they will dwell with us."
24 And all who went out of the gate of his city heeded Hamor and Shechem his son; every male was circumcised, all who [a]went out of the gate of his city.
25 Now it came to pass on the third day, when they were in pain, that two of the sons of Jacob, [a]Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, each took his sword and came boldly upon the city and killed all the males.

ENCOUNTER Note Gen. 34:25

Sin's Consequence

Sin always has repercussions. Without repentance, swift and severe are sin's consequences.

26 And they [a]killed Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah from Shechem's house, and went out.
27 The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and plundered the city, because their sister had been defiled.
28 They took their sheep, their oxen, and their donkeys, what was in the city and what was in the field,
29 and all their wealth. All their little ones and their wives they took captive; and they plundered even all that was in the houses.
30 Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, [a]"You have [b]troubled me [c]by making me obnoxious among the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites; [d]and since I am few in number, they will gather themselves together against me and kill me. I shall be destroyed, my household and I."
31 But they said, "Should he treat our sister like a harlot?"

Jacob's Return to Bethel

35 Then God said to Jacob, "Arise, go up to [a]Bethel and dwell there; and make an altar there to God, [b]who appeared to you [c]when you fled from the face of Esau your brother."
2 And Jacob said to his [a]household and to all who were with him, "Put away [b]the foreign gods that are among you, [c]purify yourselves, and change your garments.
3 "Then let us arise and go up to Bethel; and I will make an altar there to God, [a]who answered me in the day of my distress [b]and has been with me in the way which I have gone."
4 So they gave Jacob all the foreign [1]gods which were in their hands, and the [a]earrings which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under [b]the terebinth tree which was by Shechem.
5 And they journeyed, and [a]the terror of God was upon the cities that were all around them, and they did not pursue the sons of Jacob.

ENCOUNTER Note Gen. 35:5

The Terror of God

God will protect His people by striking fear in their enemies. Enemies are not always afraid of God's people, but they do fear the God who empowers His people.

6 So Jacob came to [a]Luz (that is, Bethel), which is in the land of Canaan, he and all the people who were with him.
7 And he [a]built an altar there and called the place [1]El Bethel, because [b]there God appeared to him when he fled from the face of his brother.
8 Now [a]Deborah, Rebekah's nurse, died, and she was buried below Bethel under the terebinth tree. So the name of it was called [1]Allon Bachuth.
9 Then [a]God appeared to Jacob again, when he came from Padan Aram, and [b]blessed him.
10 And God said to him, "Your name is Jacob; [a]your name shall not be called Jacob anymore, [b]but Israel shall be your name." So He called his name Israel.
11 Also God said to him: [a]"I am God Almighty. [b]Be fruitful and multiply; [c]a nation and a company of nations shall proceed from you, and kings shall come from your body.
12 "The [a]land which I gave Abraham and Isaac I give to you; and to your descendants after you I give this land."
13 Then God [a]went[1] up from him in the place where He talked with him.
14 So Jacob [a]set up a pillar in the place where He talked with him, a pillar of stone; and he poured a drink offering on it, and he poured oil on it.
15 And Jacob called the name of the place where God spoke with him, [a]Bethel.

Death of Rachel

16 Then they journeyed from Bethel. And when there was but a little distance to go to Ephrath, Rachel labored in childbirth, and she had hard labor.
17 Now it came to pass, when she was in hard labor, that the midwife said to her, "Do not fear; [a]you will have this son also."

35:4 Many years later Joshua would lead his people to make a similar commitment to God in that place (Josh. 24:23).
35:7 "El Bethel" means "God of the House of God."
35:8 "Allon Bachuth" means "Terebinth of Weeping."
35:16 Ephrath is Bethlehem. It was twelve miles from where Rachel was buried.

18 And so it was, as her soul was departing (for she died), that she called his name [1]Ben-Oni; but his father called him [2]Benjamin.
19 So [a]Rachel died and was buried on the way to [b]Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem).
20 And Jacob set a pillar on her grave, which is the pillar of Rachel's grave [a]to this day.
21 Then Israel journeyed and pitched his tent beyond [a]the tower of Eder.
22 And it happened, when Israel dwelt in that land, that Reuben went and [a]lay with Bilhah his father's concubine; and Israel heard about it.

Jacob's Twelve Sons

Now the sons of Jacob were twelve:
23 the sons of Leah were [a]Reuben, Jacob's firstborn, and Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun;
24 the sons of Rachel were Joseph and Benjamin;
25 the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's maidservant, were Dan and Naphtali;
26 and the sons of Zilpah, Leah's maidservant, were Gad and Asher. These were the sons of Jacob who were born to him in Padan Aram.

Death of Isaac

27 Then Jacob came to his father Isaac at [a]Mamre, or [b]Kirjath Arba[1] (that is, Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac had dwelt.
28 Now the days of Isaac were one hundred and eighty years.
29 So Isaac breathed his last and died, and [a]was [1]gathered to his people, being old and full of days. And [b]his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

The Family of Esau

36 Now this is the genealogy of Esau, [a]who is Edom.

WORD Study — EDOM

Gen. 36:1 Also called Mount Seir and Idumea; it is a mountainous tract of land approximately 100 miles long by twenty miles wide. It lies between the southern end of the Dead Sea and the Gulf of Aqabah where Esau's descendents, the Edomites, settled. Edom was another name for Esau.

3 and [a]Basemath, Ishmael's daughter, sister of Nebajoth.
4 Now [a]Adah bore Eliphaz to Esau, and Basemath bore Reuel.
5 And [1]Aholibamah bore Jeush, Jaalam, and Korah. These were the sons of Esau who were born to him in the land of Canaan.
6 Then Esau took his wives, his sons, his daughters, and all the persons of his household, his cattle and all his animals, and all his goods which he had gained in the land of Canaan, and went to a country away from the presence of his brother Jacob.
7 [a]For their possessions were too great for them to dwell together, and [b]the land where they were strangers could not support them because of their livestock.
8 So Esau dwelt in [a]Mount Seir. [b]Esau is Edom.
9 And this is the genealogy of Esau the father of the Edomites in Mount Seir.
10 These were the names of Esau's sons: [a]Eliphaz the son of Adah the wife of Esau, and Reuel the son of Basemath the wife of Esau.
11 And the sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, [1]Zepho, Gatam, and Kenaz.
12 Now Timna was the concubine of Eliphaz, Esau's son, and she bore [a]Amalek to Eliphaz. These were the sons of Adah, Esau's wife.
13 These were the sons of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. These were the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife.
14 These were the sons of [1]Aholibamah, Esau's wife, the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon. And she bore to Esau: Jeush, Jaalam, and Korah.

The Chiefs of Edom

15 These were the chiefs of the sons of Esau. The sons of Eliphaz, the firstborn son of Esau, were Chief Teman, Chief Omar, Chief Zepho, Chief Kenaz, 16 [1]Chief Korah, Chief Gatam, and Chief Amalek. These were the chiefs of Eliphaz in the land of Edom. They were the sons of Adah.

were the chiefs of Reuel in the land of Edom. These were the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife.
18 And these were the sons of [1]Aholibamah, Esau's wife: Chief Jeush, Chief Jaalam, and Chief Korah. These were the chiefs who descended from Aholibamah, Esau's wife, the daughter of Anah.
19 These were the sons of Esau, who is Edom, and these were their chiefs.

The Sons of Seir

20 [a]These were the sons of Seir [b]the Horite who inhabited the land: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, 21 Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. These were the chiefs of the Horites, the sons of Seir, in the land of Edom.
22 And the sons of Lotan were Hori and [1]Hemam. Lotan's sister was Timna.
23 These were the sons of Shobal: [1]Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, [2]Shepho, and Onam.
24 These were the sons of Zibeon: both Ajah and Anah. This was the Anah who found the [1]water in the wilderness as he pastured [a]the donkeys of his father Zibeon.
25 These were the children of Anah: Dishon and [1]Aholibamah the daughter of Anah.
26 These were the sons of [1]Dishon: [2]Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran, and Cheran.
27 These were the sons of Ezer: Bilhan, Zaavan, and [1]Akan.
28 These were the sons of Dishan: [a]Uz and Aran.
29 These were the chiefs of the Horites: Chief Lotan, Chief Shobal, Chief Zibeon, Chief Anah, 30 Chief Dishon, Chief Ezer, and Chief Dishan. These were the chiefs of the Horites, according to their chiefs in the land of Seir.

The Kings of Edom

31 [a]Now these were the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the children of Israel:
32 Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom, and the name of his city was Dinhabah.
33 And when Bela died, Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his place.
34 When Jobab died, Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his place.
35 And when Husham died, Hadad the son of Bedad, who attacked Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his place. And the name of his city was Avith.
36 When Hadad died, Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his place.
37 And when Samlah died, Saul of [a]Rehoboth-by-the-River reigned in his place.
38 When Saul died, Baal-Hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his place.
39 And when Baal-Hanan the son of Achbor died, [1]Hadar reigned in his place; and the name of his city was [2]Pau. His wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

The Chiefs of Esau

40 And these were the names of the chiefs of Esau, according to their families and their places, by their names: Chief Timnah, Chief [1]Alvah, Chief Jetheth, 41 Chief [1]Aholibamah, Chief Elah, Chief Pinon,
42 Chief Kenaz, Chief Teman, Chief Mibzar,
43 Chief Magdiel, and Chief Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom, according to their dwelling places in the land of their possession. Esau was the father of [1]the Edomites.

We can invest our lives in doing God's will. If we strive to make our plans successful we may temporarily impress people around us, but our efforts will not last. Moreover, we will have missed the privilege of investing in God's great work.

Joseph Dreams of Greatness

37 Now Jacob dwelt in the land [a]where his father was a [1]stranger, in the land of Canaan.
2 This is the history of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brothers. And the lad was with the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives; and Joseph brought [a]a bad report of them to his father.
3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was [a]the son of his old age. Also he [b]made him a tunic of many colors.
4 But when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they [a]hated him and could not speak peaceably to him.
5 Now Joseph had a dream, and he told it to his brothers; and they hated him even more.

WORD*Study* DREAMS

Gen. 37:5 God sometimes used dreams to inform people of future events, to warn them of impending danger, or to provide information they would need to accomplish His will. While some people sought to enhance their prestige by attempting to interpret dreams, only those God enabled could correctly interpret a dream given by Him.

6 So he said to them, "Please hear this dream which I have dreamed:
7 [a]"There we were, binding sheaves in the field. Then behold, my sheaf arose and also stood upright; and indeed your sheaves stood all around and bowed down to my sheaf."
8 And his brothers said to him, "Shall you indeed reign over us? Or shall you indeed have dominion over us?" So they hated him even more for his dreams and for his words.
9 Then he dreamed still another dream and told it to his brothers, and said, "Look, I have dreamed another dream. And this time, [a]the sun, the moon, and the eleven stars bowed down to me."
10 So he told it to his father and his brothers; and his father rebuked him and said to him, "What is this dream that you have dreamed? Shall your mother and I and [a]your brothers indeed come to bow down to the earth before you?"
11 And [a]his brothers envied him, but his father [b]kept the matter in mind.

Joseph Sold by His Brothers

12 Then his brothers went to feed their father's flock in [a]Shechem.
13 And Israel said to Joseph, "Are not your brothers feeding the flock in Shechem? Come, I will send you to them." So he said to him, "Here I am."
14 Then he said to him, "Please go and see if it is well with your brothers and well with the flocks, and bring back word to me." So he sent him out of the Valley of [a]Hebron, and he went to Shechem.
15 Now a certain man found him, and there he was, wandering in the field. And the man asked him, saying, "What are you seeking?"
16 So he said, "I am seeking my brothers. [a]Please tell me where they are feeding their flocks."
17 And the man said, "They have departed from here, for I heard them say, 'Let us go to Dothan.' " So Joseph went after his brothers and found them in [a]Dothan.

18 Now when they saw him afar off, even before he came near them, [a]they conspired against him to kill him.
19 Then they said to one another, "Look, this [1]dreamer is coming!
20 [a]"Come therefore, let us now kill him and cast him into some pit; and we shall say, 'Some wild beast has devoured him.' We shall see what will become of his dreams!"

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 37:20

Our Dreams

Whenever God gives you a dream, there will be those who seek to rob you of it. At times your God-given dream may seem impossible, yet what God initiates He completes.

21 But [a]Reuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands, and said, "Let us not kill him."
22 And Reuben said to them, "Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit which is in the wilderness, and do not lay a hand on him"—that he might deliver him out of their hands, and bring him back to his father.
23 So it came to pass, when Joseph had come to his brothers, that they [a]stripped

Joseph of his tunic, the tunic of many colors that was on him.
24 Then they took him and cast him into a pit. And the pit was empty; there was no water in it.

WORD Study — PIT

Gen. 37:24 Also "cistern." These were reservoirs, cavities in the ground intended to store rainwater for later use by people and livestock. In dry climates, conservation of rainwater was essential. This cistern was dry.

25 [a]And they sat down to eat a meal. Then they lifted their eyes and looked, and there was a company of [b]Ishmaelites, coming from Gilead with their camels, bearing spices, [c]balm, and myrrh, on their way to carry them down to Egypt.
26 So Judah said to his brothers, "What profit is there if we kill our brother and [a]conceal his blood?
27 "Come and let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and [a]let not our hand be upon him, for he is [b]our brother and [c]our flesh." And his brothers listened.
28 Then [a]Midianite traders passed by; so the brothers pulled Joseph up and lifted him out of the pit, [b]and sold him to the Ishmaelites for [c]twenty shekels of silver. And they took Joseph to Egypt.
29 Then Reuben returned to the pit, and indeed Joseph was not in the pit; and he [a]tore his clothes.
30 And he returned to his brothers and said, "The lad [a]is no more; and I, where shall I go?"
31 So they took [a]Joseph's tunic, killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the tunic in the blood.
32 Then they sent the tunic of many colors, and they brought it to their father and said, "We have found this. Do you know whether it is your son's tunic or not?"
33 And he recognized it and said, "It is my son's tunic. A [a]wild beast has devoured him. Without doubt Joseph is torn to pieces."
34 Then Jacob [a]tore his clothes, put sackcloth on his waist, and [b]mourned for his son many days.
35 And all his sons and all his daughters [a]arose to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted, and he said, "For [b]I shall go down into the grave to my son in mourning." Thus his father wept for him.
36 Now [a]the [1]Midianites had sold him in Egypt to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh and captain of the guard.

Judah and Tamar

38 It came to pass at that time that Judah departed from his brothers, and [a]visited a certain Adullamite whose name was Hirah.
2 And Judah [a]saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite whose name was [b]Shua, and he married her and went in to her.
3 So she conceived and bore a son, and he called his name [a]Er.
4 She conceived again and bore a son, and she called his name [a]Onan.
5 And she conceived yet again and bore a son, and called his name [a]Shelah. He was at Chezib when she bore him.
6 Then Judah [a]took a wife for Er his firstborn, and her name was [b]Tamar.
7 But [a]Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the LORD, [b]and the LORD killed him.
8 And Judah said to Onan, "Go in to [a]your brother's wife and marry her, and raise up an heir to your brother."
9 But Onan knew that the heir would not be [a]his; and it came to pass, when he went in to his brother's wife, that he emitted on the ground, lest he should give an heir to his brother.
10 And the thing which he did [1]displeased the LORD; therefore He killed [a]him also.

37:25 Ishmaelites were the descendants of Ishmael, son of Abraham and Hagar, who populated the north and west of the Arabian Peninsula.

37:36 Midianites were descendents of Midian, son of Abraham and Keturah, living primarily in the northern regions of the Arabian Peninsula. They caused God's people great harm over the years and were finally defeated by Gideon.

38:7 Er's sin is not specified but it was apparently grievous, because God took his life for it.

grown." For he said, "Lest he also die like his brothers." And Tamar went and dwelt [b]in her father's house.
12 Now in the process of time the daughter of Shua, Judah's wife, died; and Judah [a]was comforted, and went up to his sheepshearers at Timnah, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite.
13 And it was told Tamar, saying, "Look, your father-in-law is going up [a]to Timnah to shear his sheep."
14 So she took off her widow's garments, covered herself with a veil and wrapped herself, and [a]sat in an open place which was on the way to Timnah; for she saw [b]that Shelah was grown, and she was not given to him as a wife.
15 When Judah saw her, he thought she was a harlot, because she had covered her face.
16 Then he turned to her by the way, and said, "Please let me come in to you"; for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law. So she said, "What will you give me, that you may come in to me?"
17 And he said, [a]"I will send a young goat from the flock." So she said, [b]"Will you give me a pledge till you send it?"
18 Then he said, "What pledge shall I give you?" So she said, [a]"Your signet and cord, and your staff that is in your hand." Then he gave them to her, and went in to her, and she conceived by him.

20 And Judah sent the young goat by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to receive his pledge from the woman's hand, but he did not find her.
21 Then he asked the men of that place, saying, "Where is the harlot who was [1]openly by the roadside?" And they said, "There was no harlot in this place."
22 So he returned to Judah and said, "I cannot find her. Also, the men of the place said there was no harlot in this place."
23 Then Judah said, "Let her take them for herself, lest we be shamed; for I sent this young goat and you have not found her."
24 And it came to pass, about three months after, that Judah was told, saying, "Tamar your daughter-in-law has [a]played the harlot; furthermore she is [1]with child by harlotry." So Judah said, "Bring her out [b]and let her be burned!"
25 When she was brought out, she sent to her father-in-law, saying, "By the man to whom these belong, I am with child." And she said, [a]"Please determine whose these are—the signet and cord, and staff."
26 So Judah [a]acknowledged them and said, [b]"She has been more righteous than I, because [c]I did not give her to Shelah my son." And he [d]never knew her again.
27 Now it came to pass, at the time for giving birth, that behold, twins were in her womb.
28 And so it was, when she was giving birth, that the one put out his hand; and the midwife took a scarlet thread and bound it on his hand, saying, "This one came out first."
29 Then it happened, as he drew back his hand, that his brother came out unexpectedly; and she said, "How did you break through? This breach be upon you!" Therefore his name was called [a]Perez.[1]
30 Afterward his brother came out who had the scarlet thread on his hand. And his name was called [a]Zerah.

Joseph a Slave in Egypt

39 Now Joseph had been taken [a]down to Egypt. And [b]Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, an Egyptian, [c]bought him from the Ishmaelites who had taken him down there.
2 [a]The LORD was with Joseph, and he was a successful man; and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian.

ENCOUNTER Note Gen. 39:2

Success

The key to success is not skill, luck, or wealth, but God's presence. God's presence will determine how your life is used to influence those around you.

3 And his master saw that the LORD was with him and that the LORD [a]made all he did [1]to prosper in his hand.
4 So Joseph [a]found favor in his sight, and served him. Then he made him [b]overseer of his house, and all that he had he put [1]under his authority.
5 So it was, from the time that he had made him overseer of his house and all that he had, that [a]the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; and the blessing of the LORD was on all that he had in the house and in the field.

6 Thus he left all that he had in Joseph's [1]hand, and he did not know what he had except for the [2]bread which he ate. Now Joseph [a]was handsome in form and appearance.
7 And it came to pass after these things that his master's wife [1]cast longing eyes on Joseph, and she said, [a]"Lie with me."
8 But he refused and said to his master's wife, "Look, my master does not know what is with me in the house, and he has committed all that he has to my hand.
9 "There is no one greater in this house than I, nor has he kept back anything from me but you, because you are his wife. [a]How then can I do this great wickedness, and [b]sin against God?"
10 So it was, as she spoke to Joseph day by day, that he [a]did not heed her, to lie with her or to be with her.
11 But it happened about this time, when Joseph went into the house to do his work, and none of the men of the house was inside, 12 that she [a]caught him by his garment, saying, "Lie with me." But he left his garment in her hand, and fled and ran outside.
13 And so it was, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand and fled outside,
14 that she called to the men of her house and spoke to them, saying, "See, he has brought in to us a [a]Hebrew to [1]mock us. He came in to me to lie with me, and I cried out with a loud voice.
15 "And it happened, when he heard that I lifted my voice and cried out, that he left his garment with me, and fled and went outside."
16 So she kept his garment with her until his master came home.
17 Then she [a]spoke to him with words like these, saying, "The Hebrew servant whom you brought to us came in to me to mock me;
18 "so it happened, as I lifted my voice and cried out, that he left his garment with me and fled outside."
19 So it was, when his master heard the words which his wife spoke to him, saying, "Your servant did to me after this manner," that his [a]anger was aroused.
20 Then Joseph's master took him and [a]put him into the [b]prison, a place where the king's prisoners were confined. And he was there in the prison.
21 But the LORD was with Joseph and showed him mercy, and He [a]gave[1] him favor in the sight of the keeper of the prison.

Unstoppable Blessings

Difficult circumstances cannot thwart God when He wishes to put His favor on you. God tenaciously blesses whom He chooses.

22 And the keeper of the prison [a]committed to Joseph's hand all the prisoners who were in the prison; whatever they did there, it was his doing.
23 The keeper of the prison did not look into anything that was under [1]Joseph's authority, because [a]the LORD was with him; and whatever he did, the LORD made it prosper.

The Prisoners' Dreams

CHAPTER 40

40 It came to pass after these things that the [a]butler and the baker of the king of Egypt offended their lord, the king of Egypt.
2 And Pharaoh was [a]angry with his two officers, the chief butler and the chief baker.
3 [a]So he put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, in the prison, the place where Joseph was confined.
4 And the captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he served them; so they were in custody for a while.
5 Then the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were confined in the prison, [a]had a dream, both of them, each man's dream in one night and each man's dream with its own interpretation.
6 And Joseph came in to them in the morning and looked at them, and saw that they were [1]sad.
7 So he asked Pharaoh's officers who were with him in the custody of his lord's house, saying, [a]"Why do you look so sad today?"
8 And they said to him, [a]"We each have had a dream, and there is no interpreter of it." So Joseph said to them, [b]"Do not 39:10 Potiphar's wife constantly pressured Joseph to sin with her. Similar temptation caused men like Samson to succumb (Judg. 14:17; 16:16).

39:13 Fleeing the temptation was not a sign of weakness but of strength and wisdom (2 Tim. 2:22; 2 Pet. 1:4).

39:20 Joseph could have expected the death penalty for such an alleged offense. Yet his master showed him mercy. Ultimately God was preserving Joseph for His purposes.

40:1 The butler was the Pharaoh's cup bearer. This person ensured both the quality as well as the safety of his master's wine. Later in history, Nehemiah used this position to further the causes of his people (Neh. 1:11).

40:3 The captain of the guard was Potiphar (37:36).

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 40:8

Confusing Times

Believers ought to be a source of wisdom during confusing times. Do you know the Lord well enough to confidently offer help to those who are troubled?

9 Then the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, "Behold, in my dream a vine was before me,
10 "and in the vine were three branches; it was as though it budded, its blossoms shot forth, and its clusters brought forth ripe grapes.
11 "Then Pharaoh's cup was in my hand; and I took the grapes and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand."
12 And Joseph said to him, [a]"This is the interpretation of it: The three branches [b]are three days.
13 "Now within three days Pharaoh will [a]lift up your head and restore you to your [1]place, and you will put Pharaoh's cup in his hand according to the former manner, when you were his butler.
14 "But [a]remember me when it is well with you, and [b]please show kindness to me; make mention of me to Pharaoh, and get me out of this house.
15 "For indeed I was [a]stolen away from the land of the Hebrews; [b]and also I have done nothing here that they should put me into the dungeon."
16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said to Joseph, "I also was in my dream, and there were three [1]white baskets on my head.
17 "In the uppermost basket were all kinds of baked goods for Pharaoh, and the birds ate them out of the basket on my head."
18 So Joseph answered and said, [a]"This is the interpretation of it: The three baskets are three days.
19 [a]"Within three days Pharaoh will lift [1]off your head from you and [b]hang you on a tree; and the birds will eat your flesh from you."
20 Now it came to pass on the third day, which was Pharaoh's [a]birthday, that he [b]made a feast for all his servants; and he [c]lifted up the head of the chief butler and of the chief baker among his servants.
21 Then he [a]restored the chief butler to his butlership again, and [b]he placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand.
22 But he [a]hanged the chief baker, as Joseph had interpreted to them.
23 Yet the chief butler did not remember Joseph, but [a]forgot him.

Pharaoh's Dreams

41 Then it came to pass, at the end of two full years, that [a]Pharaoh had a dream; and behold, he stood by the river.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 41:1

Divine Timing

We can overestimate our capacity to serve God. We can also misjudge the timing of our service, but God's timing is always perfect. Be willing to wait on God until He has prepared you for His purposes.

2 Suddenly there came up out of the river seven cows, fine looking and fat; and they fed in the meadow.
3 Then behold, seven other cows came up after them out of the river, ugly and gaunt, and stood by the other cows on the bank of the river.
4 And the ugly and gaunt cows ate up the seven fine looking and fat cows. So Pharaoh awoke.
5 He slept and dreamed a second time; and suddenly seven heads of grain came up on one stalk, plump and good.
6 Then behold, seven thin heads, blighted by the [a]east wind, sprang up after them.
7 And the seven thin heads devoured the seven plump and full heads. So Pharaoh awoke, and indeed, it was a dream.
8 Now it came to pass in the morning [a]that his spirit was troubled, and he sent and called for all [b]the magicians of Egypt and all its [c]wise men. And Pharaoh told them his dreams, but there was no one who could interpret them for Pharaoh.
9 Then the [a]chief butler spoke to Pharaoh, saying: "I remember my faults this day.
10 "When Pharaoh was [a]angry with his servants, [b]and put me in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, both me and the chief baker, 41:8 The expression concerning Pharaoh "that his spirit was troubled" following the dreams is the same expression used when King Nebuchadnezzar was disturbed by a dream (Dan. 2:1). In both instances, God used the interpretation of a ruler's dream to place one of His servants in a significant leadership role.

11 [a]"we each had a dream in one night, he and I. Each of us dreamed according to the interpretation of his own dream.
12 "Now there was a young [a]Hebrew man with us there, a [b]servant of the captain of the guard. And we told him, and he [c]interpreted our dreams for us; to each man he interpreted according to his own dream.
13 "And it came to pass, just [a]as he interpreted for us, so it happened. He restored me to my office, and he hanged him."
14 [a]Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they [b]brought him quickly [c]out of the dungeon; and he shaved, [d]changed his clothing, and came to Pharaoh.
15 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I have had a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it. [a]But I have heard it said of you that you can understand a dream, to interpret it."
16 So Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, [a]"It is not in me; [b]God will give Pharaoh an answer of peace."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gen. 41:16

Infinite Wisdom

All truth comes from God. God's servants have access to His infinite wisdom every time they face a difficult challenge. They never have to rely on their own limited strength. Those who are wise know God alone is worthy of honor when He provides wisdom.

17 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph: "Behold, [a]in my dream I stood on the bank of the river.
18 "Suddenly seven cows came up out of the river, fine looking and fat; and they fed in the meadow.
19 "Then behold, seven other cows came up after them, poor and very ugly and gaunt, such ugliness as I have never seen in all the land of Egypt.
20 "And the gaunt and ugly cows ate up the first seven, the fat cows.
21 "When they had eaten them up, no one would have known that they had eaten them, for they were just as ugly as at the beginning. So I awoke.
22 "Also I saw in my dream, and suddenly seven [1]heads came up on one stalk, full and good.
23 "Then behold, seven heads, withered, thin, and blighted by the east wind, sprang up after them.
24 "And the thin heads devoured the seven good heads. So [a]I told this to the magicians, but there was no one who could explain it to me."
25 Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, "The dreams of Pharaoh are one; [a]God has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do:
26 "The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good [1]heads are seven years; the dreams are one.
27 "And the seven thin and ugly cows which came up after them are seven years, and the seven empty heads blighted by the east wind are [a]seven years of famine.
28 [a]"This is the thing which I have spoken to Pharaoh. God has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do.
29 "Indeed [a]seven years of great plenty will come throughout all the land of Egypt;
30 "but after them seven years of famine will [a]arise, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; and the famine [b]will deplete the land.
31 "So the plenty will not be known in the land because of the famine following, for it will be very severe.
32 "And the dream was repeated to Pharaoh twice because the [a]thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass.
33 "Now therefore, let Pharaoh select a discerning and wise man, and set him over the land of Egypt.
34 "Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint [1]officers over the land, [a]to collect one-fifth of the produce of the land of Egypt in the seven plentiful years.
35 "And [a]let them gather all the food of those good years that are coming, and store up grain under the [1]authority of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities.
36 "Then that food shall be as a [1]reserve for the land for the seven years of famine which shall be in the land of Egypt, that the land [a]may not [2]perish during the famine."

Joseph's Rise to Power

37 So [a]the advice was good in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of all his servants.
38 And Pharaoh said to his servants, "Can we find such a one as this, a man [a]in whom is the Spirit of God?"
39 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Inasmuch as God has shown you all this, there is no one as discerning and wise as you.
40 [a]"You shall be [1]over my house, and all my people shall be ruled according to your word; only in regard to the throne will I be greater than you."

42 Then Pharaoh [a]took his signet ring off his hand and put it on Joseph's hand; and he [b]clothed him in garments of fine linen [c]and put a gold chain around his neck.
43 And he had him ride in the second [a]chariot which he had; [b]and they cried out before him, "Bow the knee!" So he set him [c]over all the land of Egypt.
44 Pharaoh also said to Joseph, "I am Pharaoh, and without your consent no man may lift his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt."
45 And Pharaoh called Joseph's name [1]Zaphnath-Paaneah. And he gave him as a wife [a]Asenath, the daughter of Poti-Pherah priest of On. So Joseph went out over all the land of Egypt.
46 Joseph was thirty years old when he [a]stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt.
47 Now in the seven plentiful years the ground brought forth [1]abundantly.
48 So he gathered up all the food of the seven years which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities; he laid up in every city the food of the fields which surrounded them.
49 Joseph gathered very much grain, [a]as the sand of the sea, until he stopped counting, for it was immeasurable.
50 [a]And to Joseph were born two sons before the years of famine came, whom Asenath, the daughter of Poti-Pherah priest of On, bore to him.
51 Joseph called the name of the firstborn [1]Manasseh: "For God has made me forget all my toil and all my [a]father's house."
52 And the name of the second he called [1]Ephraim: "For God has caused me to be [a]fruitful in the land of my affliction."
53 Then the seven years of plenty which were in the land of Egypt ended,
54 [a]and the seven years of famine began to come, [b]as Joseph had said. The famine was in all lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.
55 So when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread. Then Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, "Go to Joseph; [a]whatever he says to you, do."
56 The famine was over all the face of the earth, and Joseph opened [1]all the storehouses and [a]sold to the Egyptians. And the famine became severe in the land of Egypt.
57 [a]So all countries came to Joseph in Egypt to [b]buy grain, because the famine was severe in all lands.

Joseph's Brothers Go to Egypt

CHAPTER 42

42 When [a]Jacob saw that there was grain in Egypt, Jacob said to his sons, "Why do you look at one another?"
2 And he said, "Indeed I have heard that there is grain in Egypt; go down to that place and buy for us there, that we may [a]live and not die."
3 So Joseph's ten brothers went down to buy grain in Egypt.
4 But Jacob did not send Joseph's brother Benjamin with his brothers, for he said, [a]"Lest some calamity befall him."
5 And the sons of Israel went to buy grain among those who journeyed, for the famine was [a]in the land of Canaan.
6 Now Joseph was governor [a]over the land; and it was he who sold to all the people of the land. And Joseph's brothers came and [b]bowed down before him with their faces to the earth.

ENCOUNTER Note Gen. 42:6

Going Before

God often goes ahead of His children to prepare the way for them. This is true even when His people are unaware of His activity or are not following Him.

7 Joseph saw his brothers and recognized them, but he acted as [a]a stranger to them and spoke [1]roughly to them. Then he said to them, "Where do you come from?" And they said, "From the land of Canaan to buy food."
8 So Joseph recognized his brothers, but they did not recognize him.
9 Then Joseph [a]remembered the dreams which he had dreamed about them, and said to them, "You are spies! You have come to see the [1]nakedness of the land!"

41:52 The naming of the two sons was meaningful, providing insight into Joseph's life. The name Manasseh (meaning "Making Forgetful") marked the end of a difficult time. The birth of this son closed the door to all the harsh treatment of the past thirteen years. The goodness of God overshadowed the harsh times and Joseph was freed from years of turmoil. The name Ephraim ("Fruitfulness") signified that God had turned a place of affliction into a place of blessing. The sons' names indicate first a God who preserves and second a God who blesses. In the prophetic writings "Ephraim" is used to designate the northern kingdom of Israel because it was located in the heartland of Israel (Is. 7:2, 5, 8, 9, 17; Jer. 31:9, 18, 20; Ezek. 37:16, 19).

42:4 The fact Jacob did not send Benjamin with his brothers might indicate his suspicion of his older sons. While they had concealed their deed, they could not hide their character.

10 And they said to him, "No, my lord, but your servants have come to buy food.
11 "We are all one man's sons; we are honest men; your servants are not spies."
12 But he said to them, "No, but you have come to see the nakedness of the land."
13 And they said, "Your servants are twelve brothers, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and in fact, the youngest is with our father today, and one [a]is no more."
14 But Joseph said to them, "It is as I spoke to you, saying, 'You are spies!'
15 "In this manner you shall be tested: [a]By the life of Pharaoh, you shall not leave this place unless your youngest brother comes here.
16 "Send one of you, and let him bring your brother; and you shall be [1]kept in prison, that your words may be tested to see whether there is any truth in you; or else, by the life of Pharaoh, surely you are spies!"
17 So he [1]put them all together in prison [a]three days.
18 Then Joseph said to them the third day, "Do this and live, [a]for I fear God:
19 "If you are honest men, let one of your brothers be confined to your prison house; but you, go and carry grain for the famine of your houses.
20 "And [a]bring your youngest brother to me; so your words will be verified, and you shall not die." And they did so.
21 Then they said to one another, [a]"We are truly guilty concerning our brother, for we saw the anguish of his soul when he pleaded with us, and we would not hear; [b]therefore this distress has come upon us."
22 And Reuben answered them, saying, [a]"Did I not speak to you, saying, 'Do not sin against the boy'; and you would not listen? Therefore behold, his blood is now [b]required of us."
23 But they did not know that Joseph understood them, for he spoke to them through an interpreter.
24 And he turned himself away from them and [a]wept. Then he returned to them again, and talked with them. And he took [b]Simeon from them and bound him before their eyes.

The Brothers Return to Canaan

25 Then Joseph [a]gave a command to fill their sacks with grain, to [b]restore every man's money to his sack, and to give them provisions for the journey. [c]Thus he did for them.
26 So they loaded their donkeys with the grain and departed from there.
27 But as [a]one of them opened his sack to give his donkey feed at the encampment, he saw his money; and there it was, in the mouth of his sack.
28 So he said to his brothers, "My money has been restored, and there it is, in my sack!" Then their hearts [1]failed them and they were afraid, saying to one another, "What is this that God has done to us?"
29 Then they went to Jacob their father in the land of Canaan and told him all that had happened to them, saying:
30 "The man who is lord of the land [a]spoke [1]roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country.
31 "But we said to him, 'We are honest men; we are not spies.
32 'We are twelve brothers, sons of our father; one is no more, and the youngest is with our father this day in the land of Canaan.'
33 "Then the man, the lord of the country, said to us, [a]'By this I will know that you are honest men: Leave one of your brothers here with me, take food for the famine of your households, and be gone.
34 'And bring your [a]youngest brother to me; so I shall know that you are not spies, but that you are honest men. I will grant your brother to you, and you may [b]trade in the land.' "
35 Then it happened as they emptied their sacks, that surprisingly [a]each man's bundle of money was in his sack; and when they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.
36 And Jacob their father said to them, "You have [a]bereaved me: Joseph is no more, Simeon is no more, and you want to take [b]Benjamin. All these things are against me."
37 Then Reuben spoke to his father, saying, "Kill my two sons if I do not bring him back to you; put him in my hands, and I will bring him back to you."
38 But he said, "My son shall not go down with you, for [a]his brother is dead, and he is left alone. [b]If any calamity should befall him along the way in which you go, then you would [c]bring down my gray hair with sorrow to the grave."

Joseph's Brothers Return with Benjamin

43 Now the famine was [a]severe in the land.
2 And it came to pass, when they had

CHAPTER 43

1 [a]Gen. 41:54, 57; 42:5; 45:6, 11

42:21 Only after experiencing hardship did the ten brothers begin to feel remorse for their evil deed. Their brother's tears and their father's anguish had not moved the brothers' consciences, but their own suffering did.

42:38 "Grave" can be translated "Sheol."

eaten up the grain which they had brought from Egypt, that their father said to them, "Go [a]back, buy us a little food."
3 But Judah spoke to him, saying, "The man solemnly warned us, saying, 'You shall not see my face unless your [a]brother is with you.'
4 "If you send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food.
5 "But if you will not send him, we will not go down; for the man said to us, 'You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.' "
6 And Israel said, "Why did you deal so [1]wrongfully with me as to tell the man whether you had still another brother?"
7 But they said, "The man asked us pointedly about ourselves and our family, saying, 'Is your father still alive? Have you another brother?' And we told him according to these words. Could we possibly have known that he would say, 'Bring your brother down'?"
8 Then Judah said to Israel his father, "Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go, that we may [a]live and not die, both we and you and also our little ones.
9 "I myself will be surety for him; from my hand you shall require him. [a]If I do not bring him back to you and set him before you, then let me bear the blame forever.
10 "For if we had not lingered, surely by now we would have returned this second time."
11 And their father Israel said to them, "If it must be so, then do this: Take some of the best fruits of the land in your vessels and [a]carry down a present for the man—a little [b]balm and a little honey, spices and myrrh, pistachio nuts and almonds.
12 "Take double money in your hand, and take back in your hand the money [a]that was returned in the mouth of your sacks; perhaps it was an oversight.
13 "Take your brother also, and arise, go back to the man.
14 "And may God [a]Almighty [b]give you mercy before the man, that he may release your other brother and Benjamin. [c]If I am bereaved, I am bereaved!"
15 So the men took that present and Benjamin, and they took double money in their hand, and arose and went [a]down to Egypt; and they stood before Joseph.
16 When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the [a]steward of his house, "Take these men to my home, and slaughter [1]an animal and make ready; for these men will dine with me at noon."
17 Then the man did as Joseph ordered, and the man brought the men into Joseph's house.
18 Now the men were [a]afraid because they were brought into Joseph's house; and they said, "It is because of the money, which was returned in our sacks the first time, that we are brought in, so that he may [1]make a case against us and seize us, to take us as slaves with our donkeys."
19 When they drew near to the steward of Joseph's house, they talked with him at the door of the house,
20 and said, "O sir, [a]we indeed came down the first time to buy food;
21 "but [a]it happened, when we came to the encampment, that we opened our sacks, and there, each man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight; so we have brought it back in our hand.
22 "And we have brought down other money in our hands to buy food. We do not know who put our money in our sacks."
23 But he said, "Peace be with you, do not be afraid. Your God and the God of your father has given you treasure in your sacks; I had your money." Then he brought [a]Simeon out to them.

God's Surprising Provision

Many times when difficult circumstances envelope our lives we are the last ones to recognize the way God is providing for us. Others may perceive God's activity in our lives before we do.

24 So the man brought the men into Joseph's house and [a]gave them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their donkeys feed.
25 Then they made the present ready for Joseph's coming at noon, for they heard that they would eat bread there.
26 And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, and [a]bowed down before him to the earth.
27 Then he asked them about their well-being, and said, "Is your father well, the old man [a]of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?"
28 And they answered, "Your servant our father is in good health; he is still alive." [a]And they bowed their heads down and prostrated themselves.

29 Then he lifted his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, [a]his mother's son, and said, "Is this your younger brother [b]of whom you spoke to me?" And he said, "God be gracious to you, my son."
30 Now [a]his heart yearned for his brother; so Joseph made haste and sought somewhere to weep. And he went into his chamber and [b]wept there.
31 Then he washed his face and came out; and he restrained himself, and said, "Serve the [a]bread."
32 So they set him a place by himself, and them by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves; because the Egyptians could not eat food with the [a]Hebrews, for that is [b]an abomination to the Egyptians.
33 And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his [a]birthright and the youngest according to his youth; and the men looked in astonishment at one another.
34 Then he took servings to them from before him, but Benjamin's serving was [a]five times as much as any of theirs. So they drank and were merry with him.

Joseph's Cup

44 And he commanded [1]the [a]steward of his house, saying, [b]"Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put each man's money in the mouth of his sack.
2 "Also put my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the sack of the youngest, and his grain money." So he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken.
3 As soon as the morning dawned, the men were sent away, they and their donkeys.
4 When they had gone out of the city, and were not yet far off, Joseph said to his steward, "Get up, follow the men; and when you overtake them, say to them, 'Why have you [a]repaid evil for good?
5 'Is not this the one from which my lord drinks, and with which he indeed practices divination? You have done evil in so doing.' "
6 So he overtook them, and he spoke to them these same words.
7 And they said to him, "Why does my lord say these words? Far be it from us that your servants should do such a thing.
8 "Look, we brought back to you from the land of Canaan [a]the money which we found in the mouth of our sacks. How then could we steal silver or gold from your lord's house?
9 "With whomever of your servants it is found, [a]let him die, and we also will be my lord's slaves."
10 And he said, "Now also let it be according to your words; he with whom it is found shall be my slave, and you shall be blameless."
11 Then each man speedily let down his sack to the ground, and each opened his sack.
12 So he searched. He began with the oldest and [1]left off with the youngest; and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.
13 Then they [a]tore their clothes, and each man loaded his donkey and returned to the city.
14 So Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house, and he was still there; and they [a]fell before him on the ground.
15 And Joseph said to them, "What deed is this you have done? Did you not know that such a man as I can certainly practice divination?"
16 Then Judah said, "What shall we say to my lord? What shall we speak? Or how shall we clear ourselves? God has [a]found out the iniquity of your servants; here [b]we are, my lord's slaves, both we and he also with whom the cup was found."

Dealing with Our Sin

God will ultimately reveal the sin of our past and He will provide an opportunity for repentance. God's Spirit forces us to deal with our past sins so we can experience God.

17 But he said, [a]"Far be it from me that I should do so; the man in whose hand the cup was found, he shall be my slave. And as for you, go up in peace to your father."

Judah Intercedes for Benjamin

18 Then Judah came near to him and said: "O my lord, please let your servant speak a word in my lord's hearing, and [a]do not let your anger burn against your servant; for you are even like Pharaoh.

43:33 By seating the brothers in their proper birth order, Joseph would have caused his brother's alarm that their lives were exposed to God, who knew them and who had seen all their actions.

44:5 This may indicate Joseph allegedly used a cup for divination (Ezek. 21:21), or it may be saying that Joseph, who could interpret dreams, would certainly have discovered who had stolen his cup.

19 "My lord asked his servants, saying, 'Have you a father or a brother?'
20 "And we said to my lord, 'We have a father, an old man, and [a]a child of his old age, who is young; his brother is [b]dead, and he [c]alone is left of his mother's children, and his [d]father loves him.'
21 "Then you said to your servants, [a]'Bring him down to me, that I may set my eyes on him.'
22 "And we said to my lord, 'The lad cannot leave his father, for if he should leave his father, his father would die.'
23 "But you said to your servants, [a]'Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you shall see my face no more.'
24 "So it was, when we went up to your servant my father, that we told him the words of my lord.
25 "And [a]our father said, 'Go back and buy us a little food.'
26 "But we said, 'We cannot go down; if our youngest brother is with us, then we will go down; for we may not see the man's face unless our youngest brother is with us.'

31 "it will happen, when he sees that the lad is not with us, that he will die. So your servants will bring down the gray hair of your servant our father with sorrow to the grave.
32 "For your servant became surety for the lad to my father, saying, [a]'If I do not bring him back to you, then I shall bear the blame before my father forever.'
33 "Now therefore, please [a]let your servant remain instead of the lad as a slave to my lord, and let the lad go up with his brothers.
34 "For how shall I go up to my father if the lad is not with me, lest perhaps I see the evil that would [1]come upon my father?"

Joseph Revealed to His Brothers

45 Then Joseph could not restrain himself before all those who stood by him, and he cried out, "Make everyone go out from me!" So no one stood with him [a]while Joseph made himself known to his brothers.
2 And he [a]wept aloud, and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard it.
3 Then Joseph said to his brothers, [a]"I am Joseph; does my father still live?" But his brothers could not answer him, for they were dismayed in his presence.
4 And Joseph said to his brothers, "Please come near to me." So they came near. Then he said: "I am Joseph your brother, [a]whom you sold into Egypt.
5 "But now, do not therefore be grieved or angry with yourselves because you sold me here; [a]for God sent me before you to preserve life.

Hard Places

If you are presently in a difficult place, it may be that God is using you to prepare the way for others. Are you willing to let God walk you through a difficult time so others can be saved?

8 "So now it was not you who sent me here, but [a]God; and He has made me [b]a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a [c]ruler throughout all the land of Egypt.
9 "Hurry and go up to my father, and say to him, 'Thus says your son Joseph: "God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me, do not [1]tarry.
10 [a]"You shall dwell in the land of Goshen, and you shall be near to me, you and your children, your children's 44:20 Although Benjamin is called young, he would have been at least in his twenties or perhaps even his thirties, as Joseph would have been in his forties by this time (37:2; 41:46, 53).

44:33 Judah does not beg for mercy or challenge Joseph's assumptions. He sacrificially offers to suffer for the alleged crimes of his brother, much as Moses would later offer to suffer the penalty for his people (Ex. 32:32).

45:5 Joseph saw the divine perspective. Although his brothers sold him into slavery, God had been using him to prepare the way for his brothers in Egypt.

45:9 The first word of Joseph to his father was "God." Joseph had a godly perspective on his life.

45:10 The location of Goshen was in the "land of Ramses" which may have been in the eastern section of the Nile Delta, near Tanis.

children, your flocks and your herds, and all that you have.
11 "There I will [a]provide for you, lest you and your household, and all that you have, come to poverty; for there are still five years of famine." '
12 "And behold, your eyes and the eyes of my brother Benjamin see that it is [a]my mouth that speaks to you.
13 "So you shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that you have seen; and you shall hurry and [a]bring my father down here."
14 Then he fell on his brother Benjamin's neck and wept, and Benjamin wept on his neck.
15 Moreover he [a]kissed all his brothers and wept over them, and after that his brothers talked with him.
16 Now the report of it was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, "Joseph's brothers have come." So it pleased Pharaoh and his servants well.
17 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Say to your brothers, 'Do this: Load your animals and depart; go to the land of Canaan.
18 'Bring your father and your households and come to me; I will give you the best of the land of Egypt, and you will eat [a]the [1]fat of the land.
19 'Now you are commanded—do this: Take carts out of the land of Egypt for your little ones and your wives; bring your father and come.
20 'Also do not be concerned about your goods, for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.' "
21 Then the sons of Israel did so; and Joseph gave them [a]carts,[1] according to the command of Pharaoh, and he gave them provisions for the journey.
22 He gave to all of them, to each man, [a]changes of garments; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and [b]five changes of garments.
23 And he sent to his father these things: ten donkeys loaded with the good things of Egypt, and ten female donkeys loaded with grain, bread, and food for his father for the journey.
24 So he sent his brothers away, and they departed; and he said to them, "See that you do not become troubled along the way."
25 Then they went up out of Egypt, and came to the land of Canaan to Jacob their father.
26 And they told him, saying, "Joseph is still alive, and he is governor over all the land of Egypt." [a]And Jacob's heart stood still, because he did not believe them.
27 But when they told him all the words which Joseph had said to them, and when he saw the carts which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit [a]of Jacob their father revived.
28 Then Israel said, "It is enough. Joseph my son is still alive. I will go and see him before I die."

Jacob's Journey to Egypt

46 So Israel took his journey with all that he had, and came to [a]Beersheba, and offered sacrifices [b]to the God of his father Isaac.
2 Then God spoke to Israel [a]in the visions of the night, and said, "Jacob, Jacob!" And he said, "Here I am."
3 So He said, "I am God, [a]the God of your father; do not fear to go down to Egypt, for I will [b]make of you a great nation there.

Limiting God's Promises

God is faithful. Don't put limits on the promises of God, but trust that if God gave His word He will certainly fulfill it regardless of the circumstances.

4 [a]"I will go down with you to Egypt, and I will also surely [b]bring you up again; and [c]Joseph [1]will put his hand on your eyes."
5 Then [a]Jacob arose from Beersheba; and the sons of Israel carried their father Jacob, their little ones, and their wives, in the [1]carts [b]which Pharaoh had sent to carry him.
6 So they took their livestock and their goods, which they had acquired in the land of Canaan, and went to Egypt, [a]Jacob and all his descendants with him.
7 His sons and his sons' sons, his daughters and his sons' daughters, and all his descendants he brought with him to Egypt.
8 Now [a]these were the names of the children of Israel, Jacob and his sons, who went to Egypt: [b]Reuben was Jacob's firstborn.
9 The [a]sons of Reuben were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.
10 [a]The sons of Simeon were [1]Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, [2]Jachin, [3]Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman.
11 The sons of [a]Levi were Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

46:2 As Jacob built an altar and sought the Lord, God spoke to him and gave him guidance for his future (46:3, 4).

12 The sons of [a]Judah were [b]Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah (but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan). [c]The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.
13 The sons of Issachar were Tola, [1]Puvah, [2]Job, and Shimron.
14 The [a]sons of Zebulun were Sered, Elon, and Jahleel.
15 These were the [a]sons of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob in Padan Aram, with his daughter Dinah. All the persons, his sons and his daughters, were thirty-three.
16 The sons of Gad were [1]Ziphion, Haggi, Shuni, [2]Ezbon, Eri, [3]Arodi, and Areli.
17 [a]The sons of Asher were Jimnah, Ishuah, Isui, Beriah, and Serah, their sister. And the sons of Beriah were Heber and Malchiel.
18 [a]These were the sons of Zilpah, [b]whom Laban gave to Leah his daughter; and these she bore to Jacob: sixteen persons.
19 The [a]sons of Rachel, [b]Jacob's wife, were Joseph and Benjamin.
20 [a]And to Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, whom Asenath, the daughter of Poti-Pherah priest of On, bore to him.
21 [a]The sons of Benjamin were Belah, Becher, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, [b]Ehi, Rosh, [c]Muppim, [1]Huppim, and Ard.
22 These were the sons of Rachel, who were born to Jacob: fourteen persons in all.
23 The son of Dan was [1]Hushim.
24 [a]The sons of Naphtali were [1]Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer, and [2]Shillem.
25 [a]These were the sons of Bilhah, [b]whom Laban gave to Rachel his daughter, and she bore these to Jacob: seven persons in all.
26 [a]All the persons who went with Jacob to Egypt, who came from his body, [b]besides Jacob's sons' wives, were sixty-six persons in all.
27 And the sons of Joseph who were born to him in Egypt were two persons. [a]All the persons of the house of Jacob who went to Egypt were seventy.

Jacob Settles in Goshen

28 Then he sent Judah before him to Joseph, [a]to point out before him the way to Goshen. And they came [b]to the land of Goshen.
29 So Joseph made ready his [a]chariot and went up to Goshen to meet his father Israel; and he presented himself to him, and [b]fell on his neck and wept on his neck a good while.
30 And Israel said to Joseph, [a]"Now let me die, since I have seen your face, because you are still alive."
31 Then Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's household, [a]"I will go up and tell Pharaoh, and say to him, 'My brothers and those of my father's house, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me.
32 'And the men are [a]shepherds, for their occupation has been to feed livestock; and they have brought their flocks, their herds, and all that they have.'
33 "So it shall be, when Pharaoh calls you and says, [a]'What is your occupation?'
34 "that you shall say, 'Your servants' [a]occupation has been with livestock [b]from our youth even till now, both we and also our fathers,' that you may dwell in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd is [c]an[1] abomination to the Egyptians."

47 Then Joseph [a]went and told Pharaoh, and said, "My father and my brothers, their flocks and their herds and all that they possess, have come from the land of Canaan; and indeed they are in [b]the land of Goshen."
2 And he took five men from among his brothers and [a]presented them to Pharaoh.
3 Then Pharaoh said to his brothers, [a]"What is your occupation?" And they said to Pharaoh, [b]"Your servants are shepherds, both we and also our fathers."
4 And they said to Pharaoh, [a]"We have come to dwell in the land, because your servants have no pasture for their flocks, [b]for the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. Now therefore, please let your servants [c]dwell in the land of Goshen."
5 Then Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, saying, "Your father and your brothers have come to you.
6 [a]"The land of Egypt is before you. Have your father and brothers dwell in the best of the land; let them dwell [b]in the land of Goshen. And if you know any competent men among them, then make them chief herdsmen over my livestock."
7 Then Joseph brought in his father Jacob and set him before Pharaoh; and Jacob [a]blessed Pharaoh.

46:21 Benjamin could have been old enough to have ten children (Gen. 44:20), although it may be that some of those listed were actually his grandchildren (Num. 26:38–40; 1 Chr. 7:6–12).

47:6 God's ability to bless overrides obstacles such as prejudice. Shepherds were despised in Egypt, and yet God continued to bless His people as they found favor with the Pharaoh.

ENCOUNTER Note Gen. 47:6

Blessing Your Family

God may choose to express His pleasure with you by blessing your family. Some of our encounters with God may come as a result of another family member's faithfulness.

8 Pharaoh said to Jacob, "How old are you?"
9 And Jacob said to Pharaoh, [a]"The days of the years of my [1]pilgrimage are [b]one hundred and thirty years; [c]few and evil have been the days of the years of my life, and [d]they have not attained to the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage."
10 So Jacob [a]blessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh.
11 And Joseph situated his father and his brothers, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of [a]Rameses, [b]as Pharaoh had commanded.
12 Then Joseph provided [a]his father, his brothers, and all his father's household with bread, according to the number in their families.

Joseph Deals with the Famine

13 Now there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very severe, [a]so that the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan languished because of the famine.
14 [a]And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, for the grain which they bought; and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.
15 So when the money failed in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph and said, "Give us bread, for [a]why should we die in your presence? For the money has failed."
16 Then Joseph said, "Give your livestock, and I will give you bread for your livestock, if the money is gone."
17 So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for the horses, the flocks, the cattle of the herds, and for the donkeys. Thus he [1]fed them with bread in exchange for all their livestock that year.
18 When that year had ended, they came to him the next year and said to him, "We will not hide from my lord that our money is gone; my lord also has our herds of livestock. There is nothing left in the sight of my lord but our bodies and our lands.
19 "Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants of Pharaoh; give us seed, that we may [a]live and not die, that the land may not be desolate."
20 Then Joseph [a]bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh; for every man of the Egyptians sold his field, because the famine was severe upon them. So the land became Pharaoh's.
21 And as for the people, he [1]moved them into the cities, from one end of the borders of Egypt to the other end.
22 [a]Only the land of the [b]priests he did not buy; for the priests had rations allotted to them by Pharaoh, and they ate their rations which Pharaoh gave them; therefore they did not sell their lands.
23 Then Joseph said to the people, "Indeed I have bought you and your land this day for Pharaoh. Look, here is seed for you, and you shall sow the land.
24 "And it shall come to pass in the harvest that you shall give one-fifth to Pharaoh. Four-fifths shall be your own, as seed for the field and for your food, for those of your households and as food for your little ones."
25 So they said, "You have saved [a]our lives; let us find favor in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants."
26 And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt to this day, that Pharaoh should have one-fifth, [a]except for the land of the priests only, which did not become Pharaoh's.

Joseph's Vow to Jacob

27 So Israel [a]dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen; and they had possessions there and [b]grew and multiplied exceedingly.
28 And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years. So the length of Jacob's life was one hundred and forty-seven years.
29 When the time [a]drew near that Israel must die, he called his son Joseph and said to him, "Now if I have found favor in your sight, please [b]put your hand under my thigh, and [c]deal kindly and truly with me. [d]Please do not bury me in Egypt,
30 "but [a]let me lie with my fathers; you shall carry me out of Egypt and [b]bury me in their burial place." And he said, "I will do as you have said."

47:20 In theory Pharaoh already owned the land but now through Joseph's shrewd policy, Pharaoh owned it in reality.

47:30 Jacob knew of God's promise but he did not receive it (Heb. 11:13).

31 Then he said, "Swear to me." And he swore to him. So [a]Israel bowed himself on the head of the bed.

Jacob Blesses Joseph's Sons

48 Now it came to pass after these things that Joseph was told, "Indeed your father is sick"; and he took with him his two sons, [a]Manasseh and Ephraim.
2 And Jacob was told, "Look, your son Joseph is coming to you"; and Israel [1]strengthened himself and sat up on the bed.
3 Then Jacob said to Joseph: "God [a]Almighty appeared to me at [b]Luz in the land of Canaan and blessed me,
4 "and said to me, 'Behold, I will [a]make you fruitful and multiply you, and I will make of you a multitude of people, and [b]give this land to your descendants after you [c]as an everlasting possession.'
5 "And now your [a]two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt, are mine; as Reuben and Simeon, they shall be mine.
6 "Your [1]offspring [2]whom you beget after them shall be yours; they will be called by the name of their brothers in their inheritance.
7 "But as for me, when I came from Padan, [a]Rachel died beside me in the land of Canaan on the way, when there was but a little distance to go to Ephrath; and I buried her there on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem)."
8 Then Israel saw Joseph's sons, and said, "Who are these?"
9 And Joseph said to his father, "They are my sons, whom God has given me in this place." And he said, "Please bring them to me, and [a]I will bless them."
10 Now [a]the eyes of Israel were dim with age, so that he could not see. Then Joseph brought them near him, and he [b]kissed them and embraced them.
11 And Israel said to Joseph, [a]"I had not thought to see your face; but in fact, God has also shown me your offspring!"
12 So Joseph brought them from beside his knees, and he bowed down with his face to the earth.
13 And Joseph took them both, Ephraim with his right hand toward Israel's left hand, and Manasseh with his left hand toward Israel's right hand, and brought them near him.
14 Then Israel stretched out his right hand and [a]laid it on Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand on Manasseh's head, [b]guiding his hands knowingly, for Manasseh was the [c]firstborn.
15 And [a]he blessed Joseph, and said:

"God, [b]before whom my fathers
Abraham and Isaac walked,
The God who has fed me all my life long to this day,

ENCOUNTER Note — Gen. 48:15

Prayers of Blessing

When we pray for God's blessing on others we offer a prayer of commitment to God, a confession of faith, and a petition to God for His blessing. Those who have experienced God's blessing have a heartfelt desire for others to know the same joy.

16 The Angel [a]who has redeemed me from all evil,
Bless the lads;
Let [b]my name be named upon them,
And the name of my fathers
Abraham and Isaac;
And let them [c]grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth."

17 Now when Joseph saw that his father [a]laid his right hand on the head of Ephraim, it displeased him; so he took hold of his father's hand to remove it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head.
18 And Joseph said to his father, "Not so, my father, for this one is the firstborn; put your right hand on his head."
19 But his father refused and said, [a]"I know, my son, I know. He also shall become a people, and he also shall be great; but truly [b]his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his descendants shall become a multitude of nations."
20 So he blessed them that day, saying, [a]"By you Israel will bless, saying, 'May God make you as Ephraim and as Manasseh!' " And thus he set Ephraim before Manasseh.
21 Then Israel said to Joseph, "Behold, I am dying, but [a]God will be with you and bring you back to the land of your fathers.
22 "Moreover [a]I have given to you one [1]portion above your brothers, which I took from the hand [b]of the Amorite with my sword and my bow."

48:14 The writer of Hebrews identified Jacob's blessing of Joseph's sons as the testimony to his faith (Heb. 11:21).

48:17 Jacob had also been the younger son who received the greater blessing over his older brother Esau (27:23).

Jacob's Last Words to His Sons

49 And Jacob called his sons and said, "Gather together, that I may [a]tell you what shall befall you [b]in the last days:

2 "Gather together and hear, you sons of Jacob,
And listen to Israel your father.

3 "Reuben, you are [a]my firstborn,

Cruelty's Reward

A person characterized by anger and violence should not expect to receive God's blessings.

6 [a]Let not my soul enter their council;
Let not my honor be united [b]to their assembly;
[c]For in their anger they slew a man,
And in their self-will they [1]hamstrung an ox.
7 Cursed be their anger, for it is fierce;
And their wrath, for it is cruel!
[a]I will divide them in Jacob
And scatter them in Israel.

8 "Judah,[a] you are he whom your brothers shall praise;
[b]Your hand shall be on the neck of your enemies;
[c]Your father's children shall bow down before you.
9 Judah is [a]a lion's whelp;
From the prey, my son, you have gone up.
[b]He [1]bows down, he lies down as a lion;
And as a lion, who shall rouse him?
10 [a]The [1]scepter shall not depart from Judah,
Nor [b]a lawgiver from between his feet,
[c]Until Shiloh comes;
[d]And to Him shall be the obedience of the people.
11 Binding his donkey to the vine,
And his donkey's colt to the choice vine,
He washed his garments in wine,
And his clothes in the blood of grapes.
12 His eyes are darker than wine,
And his teeth whiter than milk.

13 "Zebulun[a] shall dwell by the haven of the sea;
He shall become a haven for ships,
And his border shall [b]adjoin Sidon.

14 "Issachar[a] is a strong donkey,
Lying down between two burdens;
15 He saw that rest was good,
And that the land was pleasant;
He bowed [a]his shoulder to bear a burden,
And became a band of slaves.

16 "Dan[a] shall judge his people

49:4 Reuben would never achieve his potential due to his sin against his father (35:22).

49:7 The tribe of Simeon would eventually be dispersed among the tribes of Israel (Josh. 19:2–9; 15:26–32; Neh. 11:25–28; 1 Chr. 34:6). The Levites would serve as priests and would have no tribal territory of their own (Ex. 32:26, 29; Num. 18:20, 23; 35:2–8).

49:16 In the description of Israel in the book of Revelation, the tribe of Dan is missing (Rev. 7:5–8).

Blessings of the breasts and of the womb.

Have excelled the blessings of my ancestors,

And on the crown of the head of him who was separate from his brothers.

27 "Benjamin is a [a]ravenous wolf;
In the morning he shall devour the prey,
[b]And at night he shall divide the spoil."

28 All these are the twelve tribes of Israel, and this is what their father spoke to them. And he blessed them; he blessed each one according to his own blessing.

Jacob's Death and Burial

29 Then he charged them and said to them: "I [a]am to be gathered to my people; [b]bury me with my fathers [c]in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, 30 "in the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre in the land of Canaan, [a]which Abraham bought with the field of Ephron the Hittite as a possession for a burial place.
31 [a]"There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife, [b]there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife, and there I buried Leah.
32 "The field and the cave that is there were purchased from the sons of Heth."
33 And when Jacob had finished commanding his sons, he drew his feet up into the bed and breathed his last, and was gathered to his people.

50 Then Joseph [a]fell on his father's face, and [b]wept over him, and kissed him.
2 And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to [a]embalm his father. So the physicians embalmed Israel.
3 Forty days were required for him, for such are the days required for those who are embalmed; and the Egyptians [a]mourned[1] for him seventy days.
4 Now when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph spoke to [a]the household of Pharaoh, saying, "If now I have found favor in your eyes, please speak in the hearing of Pharaoh, saying,
5 [a]'My father made me swear, saying, "Behold, I am dying; in my grave [b]which I dug for myself in the land of Canaan, there you shall bury me." Now therefore, please let me go up and bury my father, and I will come back.' "
6 And Pharaoh said, "Go up and bury your father, as he made you swear."
7 So Joseph went up to bury his father; and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt,
8 as well as all the house of Joseph, his brothers, and his father's house. Only their little ones, their flocks, and their herds they left in the land of Goshen.
9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen, and it was a very great gathering.
10 Then they came to the threshing floor of Atad, which is beyond the Jordan, and they [a]mourned there with a great and very solemn lamentation. [b]He observed seven days of mourning for his father.
11 And when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning at the threshing floor of Atad, they said, "This is a deep mourning of the Egyptians." Therefore its name was called [1]Abel Mizraim, which is beyond the Jordan.
12 So his sons did for him just as he had commanded them.
13 For [a]his sons carried him to the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, before Mamre, which Abraham [b]bought with the field from Ephron the Hittite as property for a burial place.
14 And after he had buried his father, Joseph returned to Egypt, he and his brothers and all who went up with him to bury his father.

Joseph Reassures His Brothers

15 When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, [a]they said, "Perhaps Joseph will hate us, and may [1]actually repay us for all the evil which we did to him."
16 So they sent messengers to Joseph, saying, "Before your father died he commanded, saying,

God's Intentions

God overrides and uses the evil intentions of people to accomplish His purposes. When you face difficult circumstances do not grow discouraged, but always look at your situation from God's perspective. Allow Him to take painful events and use them for His good.

Death of Joseph

22 So Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he and his father's household. And Joseph lived one hundred and ten years.
23 Joseph saw Ephraim's children [a]to the third generation. [b]The children of Machir, the son of Manasseh, [c]were also brought up on Joseph's knees.
24 And Joseph said to his brethren, "I am dying; but [a]God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land to the land [b]of which He swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob."
25 Then [a]Joseph took an oath from the children of Israel, saying, "God will surely [1]visit you, and [b]you shall carry up my [c]bones from here."
26 So Joseph died, being one hundred and ten years old; and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

SAMUEL LOGAN BRENGLE (1860–1936)

Gen. 50:20

Samuel Brengle was a beloved Salvation Army Commissioner. While he ministered on Boston's skid row, a drunken man struck Brengle with a paving brick. As he recuperated from the blow, Brengle wrote a series of articles for the Salvation Army's publication, The War Cry. Later these articles were compiled into a popular book, Helps to Holiness. When someone thanked him for his book, he would reply, "Well, if there had been no little brick, there would have been no little book!" Brengle's wife saved the brick and had the words of Genesis 50:20 printed on it. What man meant for evil, God used for good.

50:22 The age of 110 was considered the ideal age to reach in Egypt.

50:23 Machir would develop into a strong clan in the tribe of Manasseh (Josh. 17:1; Judg. 5:14).

THE SECOND BOOK OF MOSES CALLED

EXODUS

INTRODUCTION

This book's original Hebrew title meant "Names" or "These Are the Names," derived from the opening words of chapter one. However, the Greek title "Departure" or "Exodus" has been adopted because it relates to the main event recorded in the text. While the Exodus is the major focus, other significant events are described: God's appearance on Mount Sinai, the conclusion of a covenant between God and the Hebrews; the law codes (the Ten Commandments); the institution of the Passover; the establishment of standards for worship; the construction of the Ark of the Covenant; and the building of the tabernacle.

SIGNIFICANCE

Exodus is part of the continuing story of Israel's origins, a story that extends from Genesis to Deuteronomy. Exodus should be read as a second chapter in this comprehensive work rather than as an independent book. The Exodus experience is to the Old Testament and Judaism what the cross in the New Testament is to the Christian faith. The Exodus is the climactic event of Hebrew history, when God acted to deliver His people from bondage, just as the cross is the central event of Christian history, when God acted to deliver mankind from sin's bondage.

STRUCTURE

Exodus can be divided into four sections: Section One: the oppression of the Hebrews in Egypt (1:1—11:10); Section Two: God's deliverance of the Hebrews from Egypt (12:1—18:27); Section Three: God's establishment of a new relationship with His people (19:31—31:18); Section Four: the rebellion and renewal of God's people (32:1—40:38). Exodus can be outlined as follows:

- God's Response to Oppression of His People
  - Preparation of a Leader (1:1—4:31)
  - Confronting the Oppressor (5:1—7:7)
  - Judgment on the Oppressor (7:8—12:30)
- God's Deliverance of His People
  - Beginning the Journey (12:31—13:22)
  - Crossing the Red Sea (14:1—15:21)
  - Journey to Mount Sinai (15:22—18:27)
- God's New Relationship with His People
  - Giving of the Ten Commandments (19:1—21:21)
  - The Covenant (22:1—24:18)
  - Worship (25:1—31:18)
- God's Response to Rebellion of His People
  - Israel's Sin (32:1–35)
  - Renewal of Covenant (33:1—34:35)
  - The Tabernacle (35:1—40:38)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH EXODUS

Exodus develops some of the most important themes in the Old Testament: redemption, salvation, election, worship, law, covenant, and priesthood. As you study Exodus you will encounter God as He reveals how He works mightily in history to orchestrate events, nations, and people to bring about His purposes. God is faithful to His covenant and compassionate to the cries of His people. The account of God freeing this people should invoke a deep sense of personal humility and gratitude for your own deliverance through the Cross. Exodus reveals God to be a holy God who requires His people to live pure and holy lives. The Ten Commandments (20:1–17) convey how God's people are to relate to God and to others. When His people reneged on their part of the covenant, God was willing to forgive them and restore them if they genuinely repented and returned to the covenant. The teachings on worship found in Exodus unfold the reality that God is concerned with the way His people worship Him. For example, the record of the tabernacle's construction in the center of camp symbolizes God's centrality in the Hebrews' lives. It also serves as a reminder and challenge that God must remain central in every believer's life.

The chronicles of Moses, Aaron, Miriam, Jethro, and others demonstrate God's provision for those He calls to serve among His people. Despite their shortcomings, God used these leaders to guide His people. Their story can be your source of strength as you serve God in your generation.

Israel's Suffering in Egypt

NOW [a]these are the names of the children of Israel who came to Egypt; each man and his household came with Jacob:
2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah;
3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin;
4 Dan, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.
5 All those [1]who were descendants of Jacob were [a]seventy[2] persons (for Joseph was in Egypt already).
6 And [a]Joseph died, all his brothers, and all that generation.
7 [a]But the children of Israel were fruitful and increased abundantly, multiplied and [1]grew exceedingly mighty; and the land was filled with them.
8 Now there arose a new king over Egypt, [a]who did not know Joseph.
9 And he said to his people, "Look, the people of the children of Israel are more and [a]mightier than we;
10 [a]"come, let us [b]deal shrewdly with them, lest they multiply, and it happen, in the event of war, that they also join our enemies and fight against us, and so go up out of the land."
11 Therefore they set taskmasters over them [a]to afflict them with their [b]burdens. And they built for Pharaoh [c]supply cities, Pithom [d]and Raamses.
12 But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And they were in dread of the children of Israel.
13 So the Egyptians made the children of Israel [a]serve with [1]rigor.
14 And they [a]made their lives bitter with hard bondage—[b]in mortar, in brick, and in all manner of service in the field. All their service in which they made them serve was with rigor.
15 Then the king of Egypt spoke to the [a]Hebrew midwives, of whom the name of one was Shiphrah and the name of the other Puah;

17 But the midwives [a]feared God, and did not do [b]as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the male children alive.

ENCOUNTER Note Ex. 1:17

Fearing the Lord

A healthy fear of the Lord will strengthen you against the constant pressure to compromise. No one can make you sin if you revere God.

18 So the king of Egypt called for the midwives and said to them, "Why have you done this thing, and saved the male children alive?"
19 And [a]the midwives said to Pharaoh, "Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women; for they [1]are lively and give birth before the midwives come to them."
20 [a]Therefore God dealt well with the midwives, and the people multiplied and [1]grew very mighty.
21 And so it was, because the midwives feared God, [a]that He [1]provided households for them.
22 So Pharaoh commanded all his people, saying, [a]"Every son who is [1]born you shall cast into the river, and every daughter you shall save alive."

Moses Is Born

2 And [a]a man of the house of Levi went and took as wife a daughter of Levi.
2 So the woman conceived and bore a

1:7 Reminiscent of God's blessing in creation (Gen. 1:22), the Hebrew language emphasizes God's blessing by deliberate repetition: "fruitful and increased abundantly," "multiplied and grew exceedingly," and "the land was filled with them."

1:8 The Egyptian Pharaohs who dealt with the Israelites are not named in the Book of Exodus, and Egyptian records do not mention the presence, enslavement, or exodus of the Israelites.

1:10 Forced labor was necessary to provide the extensive amount of man-hours required for the massive engineering and construction projects in ancient Egypt.

1:11 "Raamses," located twenty miles north of Pithom, was originally the Hyksos capital of Avaris. The city was rebuilt by Rameses II in the thirteenth century. He was known for using slave labor, including the "Apiru." This was a term for dispossessed peoples, which would apply to the Hebrews, among others.

1:16–22 The vain attempt to destroy God's plan by murdering God's people finds its New Testament parallel in Herod's plot to kill the male babies of Bethlehem (Matt. 2:16). All great leaders start as helpless children and God protects them for His purposes.

1:16 Women in the ancient world normally gave birth in a crouching or kneeling position. A "birthstool" was a device to give the mother support through the birth process.

son. And [a]when she saw that he was a beautiful child, she hid him three months.
3 But when she could no longer hide him, she took an ark of [a]bulrushes for him, daubed it with [b]asphalt and [c]pitch, put the child in it, and laid it in the reeds [d]by the river's bank.
4 [a]And his sister stood afar off, to know what would be done to him.
5 Then the [a]daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river. And her maidens walked along the riverside; and when she saw the ark among the reeds, she sent her maid to get it.
6 And when she opened it, she saw the child, and behold, the baby wept. So she had compassion on him, and said, "This is one of the Hebrews' children."
7 Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, "Shall I go and call a nurse for you from the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for you?"
8 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Go." So the maiden went and called the child's mother.
9 Then Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this child away and nurse him for me, and I will give you your wages." So the woman took the child and nursed him.
10 And the child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became [a]her son. So she called his name [1]Moses, saying, "Because I drew him out of the water."

CHARACTER*Study*

MOSES

Ex. 2:1, 2

Arguably Israel's greatest leader, Moses was chosen by God to lead His people out of bondage and to establish a new nation under God's rule. Moses was descended from the tribe of Levi; his name means "Drawn Forth," reflecting the events of his early childhood. He lived 120 years. His life can be studied in three parts, each consisting of forty years. The first section covers the time of his birth until the flight from Egypt into Midian; the second recounts his time in Midian to the Exodus; and the third time span is from the Exodus to his death. God gave the Law through Moses, establishing a covenant that would characterize His relationship with the Israelites. The Mosaic covenant would only be replaced by the new covenant in Christ. Moses is remembered as the first great prophet (Acts 7:37), and his name is listed in the "hall of faith" recorded in Hebrews 11. He had a special relationship with God, experiencing numerous significant "face-to-face" encounters with Him. Moses was the only man to have God as his undertaker (Deut. 34:6). He died on Mount Nebo in a final earthly encounter with God.

2:3 "Ark of bulrushes" can be translated "papyrus basket." It would be treated with bitumen as a water sealant, essentially making it a miniature Nile boat. The only other time this Hebrew word is used in the Bible is in reference to Noah's ark (Gen. 6).

2:7 Among the aristocratic households in Egypt, a wet nurse was often procured for the care of a baby until the child was weaned. She acted as a paid legal guardian of the child.

2:9 "Your wages" would have stirred the Hebrew sense of humor, that Moses' mother Jochebed was paid by the Egyptians to nurse her own son. God's deeper purpose was that Moses learn of the God of his fathers (3:15) and receive important instruction from his mother about the promises God had given to his ancestors.

2:11 To grow up in Pharaoh's house and to gain the wisdom of Egypt was a unique opportunity among God's prophets (Acts 7:22). Few biblical servants possessed the extensive education Moses received. The study of law, such as Hammurabi's Code, would be familiar to Moses, who would later receive God's Law.

daughters. [b]And they came and drew water, and they filled the [c]troughs to water their father's flock.
17 Then the [a]shepherds came and [b]drove them away; but Moses stood up and helped them, and [c]watered their flock.
18 When they came to [a]Reuel[1] their father, [b]he said, "How is it that you have come so soon today?"
19 And they said, "An Egyptian delivered us from the hand of the shepherds, and he also drew enough water for us and watered the flock."
20 So he said to his daughters, "And where is he? Why is it that you have left the man? Call him, that he may [a]eat bread."
21 Then Moses was content to live with the man, and he gave [a]Zipporah his daughter to Moses.
22 And she bore him a son. He called his name [a]Gershom,[1] for he said, "I have been [b]a [2]stranger in a foreign land."
23 Now it happened [a]in the process of time that the king of Egypt died. Then the children of Israel [b]groaned because of the bondage, and they cried out; and [c]their cry came up to God because of the bondage.
24 So God [a]heard their groaning, and God [b]remembered His [c]covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ex. 2:24

God Hears

No cry escapes God's hearing. Our heavenly Father sees every tear. If God does not always seem to act immediately, that does not mean He is not keenly aware of our circumstances.

25 And God [a]looked upon the children of Israel, and God [b]acknowledged them.

Moses at the Burning Bush

3 Now Moses was tending the flock of [a]Jethro his father-in-law, [b]the priest of Midian. And he led the flock to the back of the desert, and came to [c]Horeb, [d]the mountain of God.
2 And [a]the Angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire from the midst of a bush. So he looked, and behold, the bush was burning with fire, but the bush was not consumed.
3 Then Moses said, "I will now turn aside and see this [a]great sight, why the bush does not burn."
4 So when the LORD saw that he turned aside to look, God called [a]to him from the midst of the bush and said, "Moses, Moses!" And he said, "Here I am."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ex. 3:4

Turning Aside

We often miss God's activity by failing to turn aside from folllowing our own agenda. We cannot continue in our own direction and join God at the same time.

5 Then He said, "Do not draw near this place. [a]Take your sandals off your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground."
6 Moreover He said, [a]"I am the God of your father—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." And Moses hid his face, for [b]he was afraid to look upon God.
7 And the LORD said: [a]"I have surely seen the oppression of My people who are in Egypt, and have heard their cry [b]because of their taskmasters, [c]for I know their [1]sorrows.
8 "So [a]I have come down to [b]deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up from that land [c]to a good and large land, to a land [d]flowing with milk and honey, to the place of [e]the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites.
9 "Now therefore, behold, [a]the cry of the children of Israel has come to Me, and I have also seen the [b]oppression with which the Egyptians oppress them.
10 [a]"Come now, therefore, and I will send you to Pharaoh that you may bring My people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt."
11 But Moses said to God, [a]"Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and that I should bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?"
12 So He said, [a]"I will certainly be with you. And this shall be a [b]sign to you that I have sent you: When you have brought

2:18 "Reuel" means "Friend of God" or "Shepherd of God." A Midianite priest and father-in-law to Moses, he is also referred to as Jethro in 3:1.

2:21 "Zipporah" means "Warbler" or, less flattering, "Twitterer." It is the name of a small bird.

2:22 Gershom was born in Midian; the name means "Resident Alien" or "Stranger There."

2:24 The narrator sets the Egyptian deliverance upon God's promise to the patriarchs Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Salvation history is summed up as: God promises, God remembers, God acts in salvation.

3:5 It was a common practice for priests to enter a temple barefoot, so as to not bring in dust or impurities.

the people out of Egypt, you shall serve God on this mountain."
13 Then Moses said to God, "Indeed, when I come to the children of Israel and say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you,' and they say to me, 'What is His name?' what shall I say to them?"
14 And God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM." And He said, "Thus you shall say to the children of Israel, [a]'I AM has sent me to you.' "

ENCOUNTER Note — Ex. 3:14

I Am

Experiencing God is not merely a matter of reading about His multifaceted character. As you live out your life in faith, you will come to know Him as Healer, Protector, Provider, Comforter, and Savior. Your unique life experiences will reveal His nature to you in countless personal ways.

WORD Study — YHWH

Ex. 3:14 Name of God, YHWH, is translated "I AM" and is fundamental to Hebrew theology. It is the most sublime name of God, used around 7,000 times in the Old Testament. This august name was whispered by the high priest in the Most Holy Place once a year and was otherwise never to be written or uttered. Rabbinical writings refer to it in terms such as "The Name," "The Great and Terrible Name," "The Unutterable Name," "The Holy Name," and "The Name of Four Letters." Jehovah, the common pronunciation, is considered to be an incorrect rendering of the name, but is still maintained through tradition. YHWH, or Yahweh, speaks of God as "He that always was, always is, and ever is to come." God revealed this name to Moses and it became the foremost name identified with the covenant between God and His people.

15 Moreover God said to Moses, "Thus you shall say to the children of Israel: 'The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you. This is [a]My name forever, and this is My memorial to all generations.'

16 "Go and [a]gather the elders of Israel together, and say to them, 'The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared to me, saying, [b]"I have surely visited you and seen what is done to you in Egypt;
17 "and I have said [a]I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt to the land of the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, to a land flowing with milk and honey." '
18 "Then [a]they will heed your voice; and [b]you shall come, you and the elders of Israel, to the king of Egypt; and you shall say to him, 'The LORD God of the Hebrews has [c]met with us; and now, please, let us go three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.'
19 "But I am sure that the king of Egypt [a]will not let you go, no, not even by a mighty hand.
20 "So I will [a]stretch out My hand and strike Egypt with [b]all My wonders which I will do in its midst; and [c]after that he will let you go.
21 "And [a]I will give this people favor in the sight of the Egyptians; and it shall be, when you go, that you shall not go empty-handed.
22 [a]"But every woman shall ask of her neighbor, namely, of her who dwells near her house, [b]articles of silver, articles of gold, and clothing; and you shall put them on your sons and on your daughters. So [c]you shall plunder the Egyptians."

Miraculous Signs for Pharaoh

4 Then Moses answered and said, "But suppose they will not believe me or listen to my voice; suppose they say, 'The LORD has not appeared to you.' "
2 So the LORD said to him, "What is that in your hand?" He said, "A rod."
3 And He said, "Cast it on the ground." So he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from it.
4 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Reach out your hand and take it by the tail" (and he reached out his hand and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand),
5 "that they may [a]believe that the [b]LORD God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you."
6 Furthermore the LORD said to him,

CHAPTER 4

3:16 The term "elders" is a reference to the clan leaders who formed a ruling assembly. The people would look to the elders' endorsement of Moses before they would follow his leadership.

3:18 The term "God of the Hebrews" is only used in the context of the Exodus story.

3:20 The image of an outstretched hand is commonly found within Egyptian inscriptions to describe the power of Pharaoh. It is used here to show God's power over Pharaoh.

4:2 The rod was a symbol of authority in Egypt. Moses' rod was a sign that God's power and authority is over all of Egypt.

"Now put your hand in your bosom." And he put his hand in his bosom, and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous, [a]like snow.
7 And He said, "Put your hand in your bosom again." So he put his hand in his bosom again, and drew it out of his bosom, and behold, [a]it was restored like his other flesh.
8 "Then it will be, if they do not believe you, nor heed the message of the [a]first sign, that they may believe the message of the latter sign.
9 "And it shall be, if they do not believe even these two signs, or listen to your voice, that you shall take water from [1]the river and pour it on the dry land. [a]The water which you take from the river will become blood on the dry land."
10 Then Moses said to the LORD, "O my Lord, I am not eloquent, neither before nor since You have spoken to Your servant; but [a]I am slow of speech and [1]slow of tongue."
11 So the LORD said to him, [a]"Who has made man's mouth? Or who makes the mute, the deaf, the seeing, or the blind? Have not I, the LORD?
12 "Now therefore, go, and I will be [a]with your mouth and teach you what you shall say."
13 But he said, "O my Lord, [a]please send by the hand of whomever else You may send."
14 So [a]the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses, and He said: "Is not Aaron the Levite your [b]brother? I know that he can speak well. And look, [c]he is also coming out to meet you. When he sees you, he will be glad in his heart.
15 "Now [a]you shall speak to him and [b]put the words in his mouth. And I will be with your mouth and with his mouth, and [c]I will teach you what you shall do.
16 "So he shall be your spokesman to the people. And he himself shall be as a mouth for you, and [a]you shall be to him as God.
17 "And you shall take this rod in your hand, with which you shall do the signs."

Moses Goes to Egypt

18 So Moses went and returned to [a]Jethro his father-in-law, and said to him, "Please let me go and return to my brethren who are in Egypt, and see whether they are still alive." And Jethro said to Moses, [b]"Go in peace."
19 Now the LORD said to Moses in [a]Midian, "Go, return to [b]Egypt; for [c]all the men who sought your life are dead."
20 Then Moses [a]took his wife and his sons and set them on a donkey, and he returned to the land of Egypt. And Moses took [b]the rod of God in his hand.
21 And the LORD said to Moses, "When you go back to Egypt, see that you do all those [a]wonders before Pharaoh which I have put in your hand. But [b]I will harden his heart, so that he will not let the people go.

Unbelief Angers God

To question God's command is to demonstrate unbelief. He desires obedience, no matter how difficult the assignment. He is God. He owes no explanation.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ex. 4:21

Increased Opposition

Our obedience to God does not guarantee us an easier life. God may purpose that we receive opposition and criticism rather than praise and recognition. God's thoughts are on an infinitely higher plane than ours, and God always acts according to His heavenly purposes.

22 "Then you shall [a]say to Pharaoh, 'Thus says the LORD: [b]"Israel is My son, [c]My firstborn.

24 And it came to pass on the way, at the [a]encampment, that the LORD [b]met him and sought to [c]kill him.

4:6 Leprosy was a skin disease that humbled the proud. It also made its victims ceremonially unclean, preventing them from entering God's presence. This sign was to show God's punishment for Pharaoh's assuming sovereignty over that which belonged to God.

4:9 The Nile with its water system was Egypt's sole source of prosperity; it was vital to life. The sign of turning water into blood demonstrated that God controlled Egypt's destiny.

4:17 The rod of Moses was to symbolize God's power. It was not to summon God's power as Moses desired, but to be used only as instructed by God. The one time Moses foolishly used it for his own purposes cost him dearly (Num. 20).

4:20 This is the first reference to Pharaoh's heart being hardened. The phrase will occur twenty times in the next ten chapters.

4:21 The Hebrew word translated "wonder" is somewhat different from our understanding of a miracle. Our word "miracle" implies the transcending or suspension of the natural order. The Hebrews understood "wonders" to mean the marvelous use of the natural order created by God. They did not distinguish between natural and supernatural, for all was God's work.

25 Then [a]Zipporah took [b]a sharp stone and cut off the foreskin of her son and [1]cast it at [2]Moses' feet, and said, "Surely you are a husband of blood to me!"
26 So He let him go. Then she said, "You are a [1]husband of blood!"—because of the circumcision.
27 And the LORD said to Aaron, "Go into the wilderness [a]to meet Moses." So he went and met him on [b]the mountain of God, and kissed him.
28 So Moses [a]told Aaron all the words of the LORD who had sent him, and all the [b]signs which He had commanded him.
29 Then Moses and Aaron [a]went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel.
30 [a]And Aaron spoke all the words which the LORD had spoken to Moses. Then he did the signs in the sight of the people.
31 So the people [a]believed; and when they heard that the LORD had [b]visited the children of Israel and that He [c]had looked on their affliction, then [d]they bowed their heads and worshiped.

First Encounter with Pharaoh

5 Afterward Moses and Aaron went in and told Pharaoh, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'Let My people go, that they may [1]hold [a]a feast to Me in the wilderness.' "
2 And Pharaoh said, [a]"Who is the LORD, that I should obey His voice to let Israel go? I do not know the LORD, [b]nor will I let Israel go."
3 So they said, [a]"The God of the Hebrews has [b]met with us. Please, let us go three days' journey into the desert and sacrifice to the LORD our God, lest He fall upon us with [c]pestilence or with the sword."
4 Then the king of Egypt said to them, "Moses and Aaron, why do you take the people from their work? Get back to your [a]labor."
5 And Pharaoh said, "Look, the people of the land are [a]many now, and you make them rest from their labor!"
6 So the same day Pharaoh commanded the [a]taskmasters of the people and their officers, saying,
7 "You shall no longer give the people straw to make [a]brick as before. Let them go and gather straw for themselves.
8 "And you shall lay on them the quota of bricks which they made before. You shall not reduce it. For they are idle; therefore they cry out, saying, 'Let us go and sacrifice to our God.'
9 "Let more work be laid on the men, that they may labor in it, and let them not regard false words."
10 And the taskmasters of the people and their officers went out and spoke to the people, saying, "Thus says Pharaoh: 'I will not give you straw.
11 'Go, get yourselves straw where you can find it; yet none of your work will be reduced.' "
12 So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble instead of straw.
13 And the taskmasters forced them to hurry, saying, "Fulfill your work, your daily quota, as when there was straw."
14 Also the [a]officers of the children of Israel, whom Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them, were [b]beaten and were asked, "Why have you not fulfilled your task in making brick both yesterday and today, as before?"
15 Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried out to Pharaoh, saying, "Why are you dealing thus with your servants?
16 "There is no straw given to your servants, and they say to us, 'Make brick!' And indeed your servants are beaten, but the fault is in your own people."
17 But he said, "You are idle! Idle! Therefore you say, 'Let us go and sacrifice to the LORD.'

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ex. 5:17

Worship Misunderstood

The secular world does not understand the need to worship or to pray, viewing these activities as wasted time. True worshippers know that worship is their lifeblood.

18 "Therefore go now and work; for no straw shall be given you, yet you shall deliver the quota of bricks."
19 And the officers of the children of Israel saw that they were in trouble after it was said, "You shall not reduce any bricks from your daily quota."
20 Then, as they came out from Pharaoh, they met Moses and Aaron who stood there to meet them.
21 [a]And they said to them, "Let the 4:25 A "sharp stone" refers to a flint knife used in circumcision even after metal tools were available. It was extremely sharp, the traditional instrument in ancient rituals.

5:6 "Taskmasters" were the Egyptian overseers. The "officers" were the Hebrew leaders.

5:7 Straw was a bonding agent used in bricks to hold them together. Insufficient straw would cause a brick to crumble making it even harder to achieve unreasonable quotas.

5:19 "Daily quota" is a term found often in Egyptian literature. The number of men on the crew is never mentioned, but the quotas were rarely met. This offered justification for cruel treatment of slaves.

LORD look on you and judge, because you have made [1]us abhorrent in the sight of Pharaoh and in the sight of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to kill us."

Israel's Deliverance Assured

22 So Moses returned to the LORD and said, "Lord, why have You brought trouble on this people? Why is it You have sent me?
23 "For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in Your name, he has done evil to this people; neither have You delivered Your people at all."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ex. 5:23

God Allows Hardship

Trials often follow immediately after a step of obedience. Rarely are such circumstances understood at the moment, but those who remain faithful will eventually see God's hand in it all.

6 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh. For [a]with a strong hand he will let them go, and with a strong hand [b]he will drive them out of his land."
2 And God spoke to Moses and said to him: "I am [1]the LORD.
3 [a]"I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, as [b]God Almighty, but by My name [c]LORD[1] I was not known to them.
4 [a]"I have also [1]established My covenant with them, [b]to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their [2]pilgrimage, [c]in which they were [3]strangers.
5 "And [a]I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel whom the Egyptians keep in bondage, and I have remembered My covenant.
6 "Therefore say to the children of Israel: [a]'I am the LORD; [b]I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, I will [c]rescue you from their bondage, and I will redeem you with [1]an outstretched arm and with great judgments.
7 'I will [a]take you as My people, and [b]I will be your God. Then you shall know that I am the LORD your God who brings you out [c]from under the burdens of the Egyptians.
8 'And I will bring you into the land which I [a]swore[1] to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; and I will give it to you as a heritage: I am the LORD.' "
9 So Moses spoke thus to the children of Israel; [a]but they did not heed Moses, because of [b]anguish[1] of spirit and cruel bondage.
10 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
11 "Go in, tell Pharaoh king of Egypt to let the children of Israel go out of his land."
12 And Moses spoke before the LORD, saying, "The children of Israel have not heeded me. How then shall Pharaoh heed me, for [a]I am [1]of uncircumcised lips?"
13 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, and gave them a [a]command[1] for the children of Israel and for Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

God Chooses to Redeem

God loves you and desires to redeem you from your bondage. Whatever it is that enslaves you, God desires to set you free.

6:3 The patriarchs knew God as El Shaddai, meaning "God Almighty" (Gen 17:1; 35:11). But the name Yahweh, meaning "Lord," was not known to them. This does not imply they were unfamiliar with the name (Gen 15:7; 28:13), but that they had not come to know God in this way. The name is connected with long term promises, particularly involving land.

6:6 "Outstretched arm" was a common expression for Pharaoh's power to accomplish mighty deeds. God, however, was about to overwhelm Pharaoh and fulfill an oath made to Abraham.

And the years of the life of Amram were one hundred and thirty-seven.
21 [a]The sons of Izhar were Korah, Nepheg, and Zichri.
22 And [a]the sons of Uzziel were Mishael, Elzaphan, and Zithri.
23 Aaron took to himself Elisheba, daughter of [a]Amminadab, sister of Nahshon, as wife; and she bore him [b]Nadab, Abihu, [c]Eleazar, and Ithamar.
24 And [a]the sons of Korah were Assir, Elkanah, and Abiasaph. These are the families of the Korahites.
25 Eleazar, Aaron's son, took for himself one of the daughters of Putiel as wife; and [a]she bore him Phinehas. These are the heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites according to their families.
26 These are the same Aaron and Moses to whom the LORD said, "Bring out the children of Israel from the land of Egypt according to their [a]armies."[1]
27 These are the ones who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt, [a]to bring out the children of Israel from Egypt. These are the same Moses and Aaron.

Aaron Is Moses' Spokesman

28 And it came to pass, on the day the LORD spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt,
29 that the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, "I am the LORD. [a]Speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I say to you."
30 But Moses said before the LORD, "Behold, [a]I am [1]of uncircumcised lips, and how shall Pharaoh heed me?"

7 So the LORD said to Moses: "See, I have made you [a]as God to Pharaoh, and Aaron your brother shall be [b]your prophet.

God's Ambassador

Anyone sent by God speaks as the voice of God. No one is intrinsically qualified to do God's work, yet God is capable of doing anything He chooses through a willing servant.

2 "You [a]shall speak all that I command you. And Aaron your brother shall tell Pharaoh to send the children of Israel out of his land.
3 "And [a]I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and [b]multiply My [c]signs and My wonders in the land of Egypt.
4 "But [a]Pharaoh will not heed you, so [b]that I may lay My hand on Egypt and bring My [1]armies and My people, the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt [c]by great judgments.
5 "And the Egyptians [a]shall know that I am the LORD, when I [b]stretch out My hand on Egypt and [c]bring out the children of Israel from among them."
6 Then Moses and Aaron [a]did so; just as the LORD commanded them, so they did.
7 And Moses was [a]eighty years old and [b]Aaron eighty-three years old when they spoke to Pharaoh.

Aaron's Miraculous Rod

8 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,
9 "When Pharaoh speaks to you, saying, [a]'Show a miracle for yourselves,' then you shall say to Aaron, [b]'Take your rod and cast it before Pharaoh, and let it become a serpent.' "

God's Divine Presence

God dwells in believers. There should be a divine dimension to the Christian's life that unmistakably radiates God's presence.

10 So Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh, and they did so, just [a]as the LORD commanded. And Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh and before his servants, and it [b]became a serpent.
11 But Pharaoh also [a]called the wise men and [b]the [1]sorcerers; so the magicians of Egypt, they also [c]did in like manner with their [2]enchantments.
12 For every man threw down his rod, and they became serpents. But Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods.
13 And Pharaoh's heart grew hard, and he did not heed them, as the LORD had said.

The First Plague: Waters Become Blood

14 So the LORD said to Moses: [a]"Pharaoh's heart is hard; he refuses to let the people go.

7:9 A "serpent" was thought to be a wise and magical creature in Egypt. The patron goddess of Lower Egypt, Wadjet, was symbolized by a serpent on Pharaoh's crown.

7:11 Certain cobras in Egypt are said to become rigid when pressure is applied to a particular spot below their head. This procedure is recorded on Egyptian artifacts and practiced to this day.

7:12 For Aaron's serpent to swallow the other serpents was a clear sign of Israel's victory over Egypt. Magicians would have concluded that their power was absorbed into the rod of Moses.

7:14—11:10 Many people have sought to explain the ten plagues naturally in terms of a cause-and-effect chain of events that began with the flooding of the Nile. However, no one has been able to explain the miraculous use of nature in the timing, discrimination between Egyptians and Israelites, their prior announcement and the severity of their infliction. Though not stated, it is supposed that each plague was to show God's authority over an Egyptian god.

15 "Go to Pharaoh in the morning, when he goes out to the [a]water, and you shall stand by the river's bank to meet him; and [b]the rod which was turned to a serpent you shall take in your hand.
16 "And you shall say to him, [a]'The LORD God of the Hebrews has sent me to you, saying, "Let My people go, [b]that they may [1]serve Me in the wilderness"; but indeed, until now you would not hear!
17 'Thus says the LORD: "By this [a]you shall know that I am the LORD. Behold, I will strike the waters which are in the river with the rod that is in my hand, and [b]they shall be turned [c]to blood.
18 "And the fish that are in the river shall die, the river shall stink, and the Egyptians will [a]loathe[1] to drink the water of the river." ' "
19 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, "Say to Aaron, 'Take your rod and [a]stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt, over their streams, over their rivers, over their ponds, and over all their pools of water, that they may become blood. And there shall be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in buckets of wood and pitchers of stone.' "
20 And Moses and Aaron did so, just as the LORD commanded. So he [a]lifted up the rod and struck the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh and in the sight of his servants. And all the [b]waters that were in the river were turned to blood.
21 The fish that were in the river died, the river stank, and the Egyptians [a]could not drink the water of the river. So there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.
22 [a]Then the magicians of Egypt did [b]so with their [1]enchantments; and Pharaoh's heart grew hard, and he did not heed them, [c]as the LORD had said.
23 And Pharaoh turned and went into his house. Neither was his heart moved by this.
24 So all the Egyptians dug all around the river for water to drink, because they could not drink the water of the river.
25 And seven days passed after the LORD had struck the river.

The Second Plague: Frogs

1 [a]Ex. 3:12, 18; 4:23; 5:1, 3

2 "But if you [a]refuse to let them go, behold, I will smite all your territory with [b]frogs.
3 "So the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into your house, into your [a]bedroom, on your bed, into the houses of your servants, on your people, into your ovens, and into your kneading bowls.
4 "And the frogs shall come up on you, on your people, and on all your servants." ' "
5 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, "Say to Aaron, [a]'Stretch out your hand with your rod over the streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up on the land of Egypt.' "
6 So Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and [a]the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt.
7 [a]And the magicians did so with their [1]enchantments, and brought up frogs on the land of Egypt.
8 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, [a]"Entreat[1] the LORD that He may take away the frogs from me and from my people; and I will let the people [b]go, that they may sacrifice to the LORD."
9 And Moses said to Pharaoh, "Accept the honor of saying when I shall intercede for you, for your servants, and for your people, to destroy the frogs from you and your houses, that they may remain in the river only."
10 So he said, "Tomorrow." And he said, "Let it be according to your word, that you may know that [a]there is no one like the LORD our God.
11 "And the frogs shall depart from you, from your houses, from your servants, and from your people. They shall remain in the river only."
12 Then Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh. And Moses [a]cried out to the LORD concerning the frogs which He had brought against Pharaoh.
13 So the LORD did according to the word of Moses. And the frogs died out of the houses, out of the courtyards, and out of the fields.
14 They gathered them together in heaps, and the land stank.
15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was [a]relief, [b]he hardened his heart and did not heed them, as the LORD had said.

The Third Plague: Lice

16 So the LORD said to Moses, "Say to Aaron, 'Stretch out your rod, and strike

7:17 The Nile would periodically flood the land and deposit rich soil necessary for agriculture. For the Nile to be contaminated was devastating to all Egyptian life.

8:1–15 The plague of frogs is conceivable, as they would naturally flee the contaminated and decomposing river. Perhaps the greater miracle was the frogs' immediate evacuation from the land and their restriction to the river at Moses' command.

8:16 The word translated "lice" is unclear, as it is only used in this context. It could also mean mosquitoes or ticks.

A Hardened Heart

the dust of the land, so that it may become [1]lice throughout all the land of Egypt.' "
17 And they did so. For Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod and struck the dust of the earth, and [a]it became lice on man and beast. All the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt.
18 Now [a]the magicians so worked with their [1]enchantments to bring forth lice, but they [b]could not. So there were lice on man and beast.
19 Then the magicians said to Pharaoh, "This is [a]the[1] finger of God." But Pharaoh's [b]heart grew hard, and he did not heed them, just as the LORD had said.

The Fourth Plague: Flies

20 And the LORD said to Moses, [a]"Rise early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh as he comes out to the water. Then say to him, 'Thus says the LORD: [b]"Let My people go, that they may serve Me.
21 "Or else, if you will not let My people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies on you and your servants, on your people and into your houses. The houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground on which they stand.

23 "I will [1]make a difference between My people and your people. Tomorrow this [a]sign shall be." ' "
24 And the LORD did so. [a]Thick swarms of flies came into the house of Pharaoh, into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Egypt. The land was corrupted because of the swarms of flies.

God Makes a Difference

God's people are distinct in His eyes, and He will set them apart from the world. If a believer blends in seamlessly with the world, something is wrong.

so, for we would be sacrificing [a]the abomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God. If we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, then will they not [1]stone us?
27 "We will go [a]three days' journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to the LORD our God as [b]He will command us."
28 So Pharaoh said, "I will let you go, that you may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only you shall not go very far away. [a]Intercede for me."
29 Then Moses said, "Indeed I am going out from you, and I will entreat the LORD, that the swarms of flies may depart tomorrow from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people. But let Pharaoh not [a]deal deceitfully anymore in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD."
30 So Moses went out from Pharaoh and [a]entreated the LORD.
31 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; He removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people. Not one remained.
32 But Pharaoh [a]hardened his heart at this time also; neither would he let the people go.

The Fifth Plague: Livestock Diseased

9 Then the LORD said to Moses, [a]"Go in to Pharaoh and tell him, 'Thus says the LORD God of the Hebrews: "Let My people go, that they may [b]serve Me.

ENCOUNTER Note Ex. 9:1

Freedom's Purpose

Freedom is never the absence of authority. Believers exchange one master for another as God sets them free from sin's bondage so they may find abundant life in serving Him.

2 "For if you [a]refuse to let them go, and still hold them,

8:21 The type of insect is not specified, but the term "swarm" is used in a manner consistent with flies and would be expected from the rotting frogs and fish.

8:22 The exact location of "Goshen" is still unknown, but it would have been in the eastern part of the Delta. This was the first plague that did not effect the Israelites.

3 "behold, the [a]hand of the LORD will be on your cattle in the field, on the horses, on the donkeys, on the camels, on the oxen, and on the sheep—a very severe pestilence.
4 "And [a]the LORD will make a difference between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt. So nothing shall die of all that belongs to the children of Israel." ' "
5 Then the LORD appointed a set time, saying, "Tomorrow the LORD will do this thing in the land."
6 So the LORD did this thing on the next day, and [a]all the livestock of Egypt died; but of the livestock of the children of Israel, not one died.
7 Then Pharaoh sent, and indeed, not even one of the livestock of the Israelites was dead. But the [a]heart of Pharaoh became hard, and he did not let the people go.

The Sixth Plague: Boils

8 So the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "Take for yourselves handfuls of ashes from a furnace, and let Moses scatter it toward the heavens in the sight of Pharaoh.
9 "And it will become fine dust in all the land of Egypt, and it will cause [a]boils that break out in sores on man and beast throughout all the land of Egypt."
10 Then they took ashes from the furnace and stood before Pharaoh, and Moses scattered them toward heaven. And they caused [a]boils that break out in sores on man and beast.
11 And the [a]magicians could not stand before Moses because of the [b]boils, for the boils were on the magicians and on all the Egyptians.
12 But the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh; and he [a]did not heed them, just [b]as the LORD had spoken to Moses.

The Seventh Plague: Hail

13 Then the LORD said to Moses, [a]"Rise early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh, and say to him, 'Thus says the LORD God of the Hebrews: "Let My people go, that they may [b]serve Me,
14 "for at this time I will send all My plagues to your very heart, and on your servants and on your people, [a]that you may know that there is none like Me in all the earth.
15 "Now if I had [a]stretched out My hand and struck you and your people with [b]pestilence, then you would have been cut off from the earth.
16 "But indeed for [a]this purpose I have raised you up, that I may [b]show My power in you, and that My [c]name may be declared in all the earth.

ENCOUNTER Note Ex. 9:16

The Purpose of Pestilence

God reveals His glory in a myriad of ways including chastisement and calamity. He wants the world to know Him, whether through His blessing or His judgment. It is a frightful thing to become an example of God's punishment.

17 "As yet you exalt yourself against My people in that you will not let them go.
18 "Behold, tomorrow about this time I will cause very heavy hail to rain down, such as has not been in Egypt since its founding until now.
19 "Therefore send now and gather your livestock and all that you have in the field, for the hail shall come down on every man and every animal which is found in the field and is not brought home; and they shall die." ' "
20 He who [a]feared the word of the LORD among the [b]servants of Pharaoh made his servants and his livestock flee to the houses.
21 But he who did not regard the word of the LORD left his servants and his livestock in the field.
22 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward heaven, that there may be [a]hail in all the land of Egypt—on man, on beast, and on every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt."
23 And Moses stretched out his rod toward heaven; and [a]the LORD sent thunder and hail, and fire darted to the ground. And the LORD rained hail on the land of Egypt.
24 So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, so very heavy that there was none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.
25 And the [a]hail struck throughout the whole land of Egypt, all that was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail struck every herb of the field and broke every tree of the field.
26 [a]Only in the land of Goshen, where

9:3 This plague is commonly identified as anthrax, which had come from the bacteria in the river.

9:8 Ashes from the furnace were probably not from drying bricks, as they did not use a kiln but the sun for that. Most likely a residue was left in a large furnace from burning the carcasses of diseased cattle.

9:23 "Fire" is probably lightning. The hail destroyed exposed crops, livestock, and humans.

the children of Israel were, there was no hail.
27 And Pharaoh sent and [a]called for Moses and Aaron, and said to them, [b]"I have sinned this time. [c]The LORD is righteous, and my people and I are wicked.
28 [a]"Entreat[1] the LORD, that there may be no more [2]mighty thundering and hail, for it is enough. I will let you [b]go, and you shall stay no longer."
29 So Moses said to him, "As soon as I have gone out of the city, I will [a]spread out my hands to the LORD; the thunder will cease, and there will be no more hail, that you may know that the [b]earth is the LORD's.
30 "But as for you and your servants, [a]I know that you will not yet fear the LORD God."
31 Now the flax and the barley were struck, [a]for the barley was in the head and the flax was in bud.
32 But the wheat and the spelt were not struck, for they are [1]late crops.
33 So Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh and [a]spread out his hands to the LORD; then the thunder and the hail ceased, and the rain was not poured on the earth.
34 And when Pharaoh saw that the rain, the hail, and the thunder had ceased, he sinned yet more; and he hardened his heart, he and his servants.
35 So [a]the heart of Pharaoh was hard; neither would he let the children of Israel go, as the LORD had spoken by Moses.

The Eighth Plague: Locusts

10 Now the LORD said to Moses, "Go in to Pharaoh; [a]for I have hardened his heart and the hearts of his servants, [b]that I may show these signs of Mine before him,
2 "and that [a]you may tell in the hearing of your son and your son's son the mighty things I have done in Egypt, and My signs which I have done among them, that you may [b]know that I am the LORD."
3 So Moses and Aaron came in to Pharaoh and said to him, "Thus says the LORD God of the Hebrews: 'How long will you refuse to [a]humble yourself before Me? Let My people go, that they may [b]serve Me.
4 'Or else, if you refuse to let My people go, behold, tomorrow I will bring [a]locusts into your territory.
5 'And they shall cover the face of the earth, so that no one will be able to see the earth; and [a]they shall eat the residue of what is left, which remains to you from the hail, and they shall eat every tree which grows up for you out of the field.
6 'They shall [a]fill your houses, the houses of all your servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians—which neither your fathers nor your fathers' fathers have seen, since the day that they were on the earth to this day.' " And he turned and went out from Pharaoh.
7 Then Pharaoh's [a]servants said to him, "How long shall this man be [b]a snare to us? Let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God. Do you not yet know that Egypt is destroyed?"
8 So Moses and Aaron were brought again to Pharaoh, and he said to them, "Go, serve the LORD your God. Who are the ones that are going?"
9 And Moses said, "We will go with our young and our old; with our sons and our daughters, with our flocks and our herds we will go, for [a]we must hold a feast to the LORD."
10 Then he said to them, "The LORD had better be with you when I let you and your little ones go! Beware, for evil is ahead of you.
11 "Not so! Go now, you who are men, and serve the LORD, for that is what you desired." And they were driven [a]out from Pharaoh's presence.
12 Then the LORD said to Moses, [a]"Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come upon the land of Egypt, and [b]eat every herb of the land—all that the hail has left."
13 So Moses stretched out his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind on the land all that day and all that night. When it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts.
14 And [a]the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt and rested on all the territory of Egypt. They were very severe; [b]previously there had been no such locusts as they, nor shall there be such after them.

Humble Yourself or Be Humbled

Everyone is destined for humility. Either we willingly submit to God, or God Himself will humble us at His appointed time. Pride is our ultimate undoing.

10:4 "Locusts" were common in this area and a swarm was known to cover 400 square miles. Each locust eats its own weight per day. Any crop left undamaged by the hail would be devoured.

15 For they [a]covered the face of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened; and they [b]ate every herb of the land and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left. So there remained nothing green on the trees or on the plants of the field throughout all the land of Egypt.
16 Then Pharaoh called [a]for Moses and Aaron in haste, and said, [b]"I have sinned against the LORD your God and against you.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ex. 10:16

Easy Confessions

Shallow confessions spring from a desire to avoid consequences. People naturally seek safety and happiness. Only the truly repentant seek God and pursue His will.

17 "Now therefore, please forgive my sin only this once, and [a]entreat[1] the LORD your God, that He may take away from me this death only."
18 So he [a]went out from Pharaoh and entreated the LORD.
19 And the LORD turned a very strong west wind, which took the locusts away and blew them [a]into the Red Sea. There remained not one locust in all the territory of Egypt.
20 But the LORD [a]hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not let the children of Israel go.

The Ninth Plague: Darkness

21 Then the LORD said to Moses, [a]"Stretch out your hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, [1]darkness which may even be felt."
22 So Moses stretched out his hand toward heaven, and there was [a]thick darkness in all the land of Egypt [b]three days.
23 They did not see one another; nor did anyone rise from his place for three days. [a]But all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings.
24 Then Pharaoh called to Moses and [a]said, "Go, serve the LORD; only let your flocks and your herds be kept back. Let your [b]little ones also go with you."
25 But Moses said, "You must also give [1]us sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.

26 "Our [a]livestock also shall go with us; not a hoof shall be left behind. For we must take some of them to serve the LORD our God, and even we do not know with what we must serve the LORD until we arrive there."
27 But the LORD [a]hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let them go.
28 Then Pharaoh said to him, [a]"Get away from me! Take heed to yourself and see my face no more! For in the day you see my face you shall die!"
29 So Moses said, "You have spoken well. [a]I will never see your face again."

Death of the Firstborn Announced

11 And the LORD said to Moses, "I will bring one more plague on Pharaoh and on Egypt. [a]Afterward he will let you go from here. [b]When he lets you go, he will surely drive you out of here altogether.
2 "Speak now in the hearing of the people, and let every man ask from his neighbor and every woman from her neighbor, [a]articles of silver and articles of gold."
3 [a]And the LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover the man [b]Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants and in the sight of the people.

God's Favor

God bestows authority on those whom He chooses. Association with God brings influence among those who witness His power. God grants such influence to whom He will as it fulfills His purpose.

4 Then Moses said, "Thus says the LORD: [a]'About midnight I will go out into the midst of Egypt;
5 'and [a]all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sits on his throne, even to the firstborn of the female servant who is behind the handmill, and all the firstborn of the animals.
6 [a]'Then there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, [b]such as was not like it before, nor shall be like it again.

11:1 In Egypt, Pharaoh was considered deity. This last plague was a direct attack upon his person, his heir, and his supposed divinity.

11:4 A "female servant" behind the "handmill" represents the lowest person on the social ladder. From top to bottom, God would thoroughly demonstrate His power over all Egypt.

8 "And [a]all these your servants shall come down to me and bow down to me, saying, 'Get out, and all the people who follow you!' After that I will go out." [b]Then he went out from Pharaoh in great anger.
9 But the LORD said to Moses, [a]"Pharaoh will not heed you, so that [b]My wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt."
10 So Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh; [a]and the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

The Passover Instituted

12 Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying,
2 [a]"This month shall be your beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year to you.
3 "Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying: 'On the [a]tenth of this month every man shall take for himself a lamb, according to the house of his father, a lamb for a household.
4 'And if the household is too small for the lamb, let him and his neighbor next to his house take it according to the number of the persons; according to each man's need you shall make your count for the lamb.
5 'Your lamb shall be [a]without[1] blemish, a male [2]of the first year. You may take it from the sheep or from the goats.
6 'Now you shall keep it until the [a]fourteenth day of the same month. Then the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it at twilight.
7 'And they shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and on the lintel of the houses where they eat it.
8 'Then they shall eat the flesh on that [a]night; [b]roasted in fire, with [c]unleavened bread and with bitter herbs they shall eat it.
9 'Do not eat it raw, nor boiled at all with water, but [a]roasted in fire—its head with its legs and its entrails.
10 [a]'You shall let none of it remain until morning, and what remains of it until morning you shall burn with fire.
11 'And thus you shall eat it: [1]with a belt on your waist, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand. So you shall eat it in haste. [a]It is the LORD's Passover.

WORD Study — PASSOVER

Ex. 12:11 God established the annual Passover Feast to commemorate His protecting the Israelites from the last plague and their ultimate deliverance from slavery. It signified their adoption by God and laid the foundation of their national identity. The Hebrew word pesah means "to leap over," "to spare," or "show mercy." It has the connotation of "protection," as seen in Isaiah 31:5 where it is used as a parallel to shielding and delivering. Passover was more than a remembrance; it also pointed prophetically to the sacrificial Lamb of God, Jesus Christ (1 Cor. 5:7; 1 Pet.1:19). John the Baptist announced at Jesus' baptism, "Behold! The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!" (John 1:29). Whereas the blood of the lamb saved the Israelites from physical death, the blood of Jesus saves those who believe in Him from spiritual death.

12 'For I [a]will pass through the land of Egypt on that night, and will strike all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and [b]against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: [c]I am the LORD.
13 'Now the blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you; and the plague shall not be on you to destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.

ENCOUNTER Note Ex. 12:13

The Passover Blood

All sin has consequences, and every sinner is scrutinized by God's holy justice. If He does not see the atoning blood of Jesus Christ covering our lives, God brings judgment upon our sinful condition. God's mercy is given on His terms, through the sacrificial Lamb of God.

14 'So this day shall be to you [a]a memorial; and you shall keep it as a [b]feast to the LORD throughout your generations. You shall keep it as a feast [c]by an everlasting ordinance.

12 [a]Ex. 11:4, 5 [b]Num. 33:4 [c]Ex. 6:2
14 [a]Ex. 13:9 [b]Lev. 23:4, 5 [c]Ex. 12:17, 24; 13:10

12:1 This event established Abib (later Nissan) as the first month of Israel's religious calendar.

12:6 "Twilight" literally means "between two evenings."

12:7 Whereas many ancient religions used blood to ward off evil spirits, the Israelites used it as an agent of cleansing from sin. The blood of the Passover lamb foreshadowed the blood of Christ.

12:8 "Bitter herbs" reminded the Israelites of their dreadful bondage in Egypt.

12:14 The Feast of Unleavened Bread was celebrated during the seven days after Passover (Lev 23:4–8), signifying the Israelite's hasty departure from Egypt.

15 [a]"Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread. On the first day you shall remove leaven from your houses. For whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, [b]that [1]person shall be [2]cut off from Israel.
16 'On the first day there shall be [a]a holy convocation, and on the seventh day there shall be a holy convocation for you. No manner of work shall be done on them; but that which everyone must eat—that only may be prepared by you.
17 'So you shall observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread, for [a]on this same day I will have brought your [1]armies [b]out of the land of Egypt. Therefore you shall observe this day throughout your generations as an everlasting ordinance.
18 [a]'In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, you shall eat unleavened bread, until the twenty-first day of the month at evening.
19 'For [a]seven days no leaven shall be found in your houses, since whoever eats what is leavened, that same person shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he is a stranger or a native of the land.
20 'You shall eat nothing leavened; in all your dwellings you shall eat unleavened bread.' "
21 Then [a]Moses called for all the [b]elders of Israel and said to them, [c]"Pick out and take lambs for yourselves according to your families, and kill the Passover lamb.
22 [a]"And you shall take a bunch of hyssop, dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and [b]strike the lintel and the two doorposts with the blood that is in the basin. And none of you shall go out of the door of his house until morning.
23 [a]"For the LORD will pass through to strike the Egyptians; and when He sees the [b]blood on the [1]lintel and on the two doorposts, the LORD will pass over the door and [c]not allow [d]the destroyer to come into your houses to strike you.
24 "And you shall [a]observe this thing as an ordinance for you and your sons forever.
25 "It will come to pass when you come to the land which the LORD will give you, [a]just as He promised, that you shall keep this service.
26 [a]"And it shall be, when your children say to you, 'What do you mean by this service?'
27 "that you shall say, [a]'It is the Passover sacrifice of the LORD, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt when He struck the Egyptians and delivered our households.' " So the people [b]bowed their heads and worshiped.
28 Then the children of Israel went away and [a]did so; just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

The Tenth Plague: Death of the Firstborn

29 [a]And it came to pass at midnight that [b]the LORD struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the captive who was [1]in the dungeon, and all the firstborn of [c]livestock.
30 So Pharaoh rose in the night, he, all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

The Exodus

31 Then he [a]called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, "Rise, go out from among my people, [b]both you and the children of Israel. And go, serve the LORD as you have [c]said.
32 [a]"Also take your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and be gone; and bless me also."
33 [a]And the Egyptians [b]urged the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste. For they said, "We shall all be dead."
34 So the people took their dough before it was leavened, having their kneading bowls bound up in their clothes on their shoulders.
35 Now the children of Israel had done according to the word of Moses, and they had asked from the Egyptians [a]articles of silver, articles of gold, and clothing.
36 [a]And the LORD had given the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they granted them what they requested. Thus [b]they plundered the Egyptians.
37 Then [a]the children of Israel journeyed from [b]Rameses to Succoth, about [c]six hundred thousand men on foot, besides children.

12:16 A "Holy Convocation," or "Sacred Assembly" was a special summons for public, corporate worship.

12:37 "From Rameses to Succoth" indicates an easterly one day's journey across Goshen along the shortest possible path.

12:37 The number "six hundred thousand men" has been problematic for many scholars, as it suggests a total population of two or three million. A number this large would produce a line of people two hundred miles long as they left Egypt. Furthermore, the Egyptian armies of this period are estimated at only twenty thousand, and an army of sixty thousand Assyrians was considered the largest army ever assembled. The question arises why the Israelites would fear anybody if they had an army of six hundred thousand men. There are many opinions on this matter, but all are problematic. A leading consideration is that the Hebrew word translated "thousand" can also mean "military troop" or "clan."

38 A [a]mixed multitude went up with them also, and flocks and herds—a great deal of [b]livestock.
39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they had brought out of Egypt; for it was not leavened, because [a]they were driven out of Egypt and could not wait, nor had they prepared provisions for themselves.
40 Now the [1]sojourn of the children of Israel who lived in [2]Egypt was [a]four hundred and thirty years.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ex. 12:40

Sojourns

God knows where He ultimately wants to take us, but He often leads us to sojourn in a difficult place along the way. Before we are prepared to receive all God has for us, we must first let Him build our character. Then, in His perfect timing, God will lead us to our destination.

41 And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years—on that very same day—it came to pass that [a]all the armies of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt.
42 It is [a]a [1]night of solemn observance to the LORD for bringing them out of the land of Egypt. This is that night of the LORD, a solemn observance for all the children of Israel throughout their generations.

Passover Regulations

43 And the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "This is [a]the ordinance of the Passover: No foreigner shall eat it.
44 "But every man's servant who is bought for money, when you have [a]circumcised him, then he may eat it.
45 [a]"A sojourner and a hired servant shall not eat it.
46 "In one house it shall be eaten; you shall not carry any of the flesh outside the house, [a]nor shall you break one of its bones.
47 [a]"All the congregation of Israel shall keep it.
48 "And [a]when a stranger [1]dwells with you and wants to keep the Passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as a native of the land. For no uncircumcised person shall eat it.
49 [a]"One law shall be for the native-born and for the stranger who dwells among you."
50 Thus all the children of Israel did; as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.
51 [a]And it came to pass, on that very same day, that the LORD brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt [b]according to their armies.

The Firstborn Consecrated

13 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
2 [a]"Consecrate[1] to Me all the firstborn, whatever opens the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and beast; it is Mine."

The Feast of Unleavened Bread

3 And Moses said to the people: [a]"Remember this day in which you went out of Egypt, out of the house of [1]bondage; for [b]by strength of hand the LORD brought you out of this place. [c]No leavened bread shall be eaten.
4 [a]"On this day you are going out, in the month Abib.
5 "And it shall be, when the LORD [a]brings you into the [b]land of the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, which He [c]swore to your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, [d]that you shall keep this service in this month.
6 [a]"Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a feast to the LORD.
7 "Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days. And [a]no leavened bread shall be seen among you, nor shall leaven be seen among you in all your quarters.
8 "And you shall [a]tell your son in that day, saying, 'This is done because of what the LORD did for me when I came up from Egypt.'

16 "It shall be as [a]a sign on your hand and as frontlets between your eyes, for by strength of hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt."

The Wilderness Way

17 Then it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God did not lead them by way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, "Lest perhaps the people [a]change their minds when they see war, and [b]return to Egypt."
18 So God [a]led the people around by way of the wilderness of the Red Sea. And the children of Israel went up in orderly ranks out of the land of Egypt.
19 And Moses took the [a]bones of [b]Joseph with him, for he had placed the children of Israel under solemn oath, saying, [c]"God will surely [1]visit you, and you shall carry up my bones from here with you."
20 So [a]they took their journey from [b]Succoth and camped in Etham at the edge of the wilderness.
21 And [a]the LORD went before them by

Going Before

God gives specific guidance to those who seek it. He does not leave His people to find their own way, but He leads them to the place He has for them.

22 He did not take away the pillar of cloud by day or the pillar of fire by night from before the people.

The Red Sea Crossing

14 Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
2 "Speak to the children of Israel, [a]that they turn and camp before [b]Pi Hahiroth, between [c]Migdol and the sea, opposite Baal Zephon; you shall camp before it by the sea.
3 "For Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, [a]'They are bewildered by the land; the wilderness has closed them in.'
4 "Then [a]I will harden Pharaoh's heart, so that he will pursue them; and I [b]will gain honor over Pharaoh and over all his army, [c]that the Egyptians may know that I am the LORD." And they did so.
5 Now it was told the king of Egypt that the people had fled, and [a]the heart of Pharaoh and his servants was turned against the people; and they said, "Why have we done this, that we have let Israel go from serving us?"
6 So he [1]made ready his chariot and took his people with him.
7 Also, he took [a]six hundred choice chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt with captains over every one of them.
8 And the LORD [a]hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued the children of Israel; and [b]the children of Israel went out with boldness.
9 So the [a]Egyptians pursued them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, his horsemen and his army, and overtook them camping by the sea beside Pi Hahiroth, before Baal Zephon.
10 And when Pharaoh drew near, the children of Israel lifted their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians marched after them. So they were very afraid, and the children of Israel [a]cried out to the LORD.
11 [a]Then they said to Moses, "Because there were no graves in Egypt, have you taken us away to die in the wilderness? Why have you so dealt with us, to bring us up out of Egypt?
12 [a]"Is this not the word that we told you in Egypt, saying, 'Let us alone that we may serve the Egyptians'? For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than that we should die in the wilderness."
13 And Moses said to the people, [a]"Do not be afraid. [b]Stand still, and see the [c]salvation[1] of the LORD, which He will accomplish for you today. For the Egyptians whom you see today, you shall [d]see again no more forever.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ex. 14:13

Stand Still

Following God's will can sometimes be difficult. Don't panic; stay where God has led you. Quitting or fleeing is evidence of a doubting heart. Remain where God placed you and you witness the miraculous.

14 [a]"The LORD will fight for you, and you shall [b]hold[1] your peace."
15 And the LORD said to Moses, "Why do you cry to Me? Tell the children of Israel to go forward.
16 "But [a]lift up your rod, and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it. And the children of Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea.
17 "And I indeed will [a]harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them. So I will [b]gain honor over Pharaoh and over all his army, his chariots, and his horsemen.
18 "Then the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gained honor for Myself over Pharaoh, his chariots, and his horsemen."
19 And the Angel of God, [a]who went before the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud went from before them and stood behind them.
20 So it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel. Thus it was a cloud and darkness to the one, and it gave light by night to the other, so that the one did not come near the other all that night.
21 Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and [a]made the sea into dry land, and the waters were [b]divided.
22 So [a]the children of Israel went into 23 And the Egyptians pursued and went after them into the midst of the sea, all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.

24 Now it came to pass, in the morning [a]watch, that [b]the LORD looked down upon the army of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and cloud, and He [1]troubled the army of the Egyptians.
25 And He [1]took off their chariot wheels, so that they drove them with difficulty; and the Egyptians said, "Let us flee from the face of Israel, for the LORD [a]fights for them against the Egyptians."
26 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the sea, that the waters may come back upon the Egyptians, on their chariots, and on their horsemen."
27 And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and when the morning appeared, the sea [a]returned to its full depth, while the Egyptians were fleeing into it. So the LORD [b]overthrew[1] the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.
28 Then [a]the waters returned and covered the chariots, the horsemen, and all the army of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them. Not so much as one of them remained.
29 But [a]the children of Israel had walked on dry land in the midst of the sea, and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.
30 So the LORD [a]saved[1] Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians, and Israel [b]saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore.
31 Thus Israel saw the great [1]work which the LORD had done in Egypt; so the people feared the LORD, and [a]believed the LORD and His servant Moses.

The Song of Moses

15 Then [a]Moses and the children of Israel sang this song to the LORD, and spoke, saying:

"I will [b]sing to the LORD,
For He has triumphed gloriously!
The horse and its rider
He has thrown into the sea!
2 The LORD is my strength and [a]song,
And He has become my salvation;
He is my God, and [b]I will praise Him;
My [c]father's God, and I [d]will exalt Him.
3 The LORD is a man of [a]war;
The LORD is His [b]name.
4 [a]Pharaoh's chariots and his army He has cast into the sea;
[b]His chosen captains also are drowned in the Red Sea.
5 The depths have covered them;
[a]They sank to the bottom like a stone.

6 "Your [a]right hand, O LORD, has become glorious in power;
Your right hand, O LORD, has dashed the enemy in pieces.
7 And in the greatness of Your [a]excellence
You have overthrown those who rose against You;
You sent forth [b]Your wrath;
It [c]consumed them [d]like stubble.
8 And [a]with the blast of Your nostrils
The waters were gathered together;
[b]The floods stood upright like a heap;
The depths [1]congealed in the heart of the sea.
9 [a]The enemy said, 'I will pursue,
I will overtake,
I will [b]divide the spoil;
My desire shall be satisfied on them.
I will draw my sword,
My hand shall destroy them.'
10 You blew with Your wind,
The sea covered them;
They sank like lead in the mighty waters.

11 "Who[a] is like You, O LORD, among the [1]gods?
Who is like You, [b]glorious in holiness,
Fearful in [c]praises, [d]doing wonders?

The Song of Miriam

20 Then Miriam [a]the prophetess, [b]the sister of Aaron, [c]took the timbrel in her hand; and all the women went out after her [d]with timbrels and with dances.
21 And Miriam [a]answered them:

[b]"Sing to the Lord,
For He has triumphed gloriously!
The horse and its rider
He has thrown into the sea!"

Bitter Waters Made Sweet

22 So Moses brought Israel from the Red Sea; then they went out into the Wilderness of [a]Shur. And they went three days in the wilderness and found no [b]water.
23 Now when they came to [a]Marah, they could not drink the waters of Marah, for they were bitter. Therefore the name of it was called [1]Marah.
24 And the people [a]complained against Moses, saying, "What shall we drink?"
25 So he cried out to the LORD, and the LORD showed him a tree. [a]When he cast it into the waters, the waters were made sweet. There He [b]made a statute and an [1]ordinance for them, and there [c]He tested them,
26 and said, [a]"If you diligently heed the voice of the LORD your God and do what is right in His sight, give ear to His commandments and keep all His statutes, I will put none of the [b]diseases on you which I have brought on the Egyptians. For I am the LORD [c]who heals you."
27 [a]Then they came to Elim, where there were twelve wells of water and seventy palm trees; so they camped there by the waters.

Bread from Heaven

16 And they [a]journeyed from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Israel came to the Wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and [b]Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after they departed from the land of Egypt.
2 Then the whole congregation of the children of Israel [a]complained against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness.
3 And the children of Israel said to them, [a]"Oh, that we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, [b]when we sat by the pots of meat and when we ate bread to the full! For you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger."

15:17 The words "inheritance," "dwelling" and "sanctuary" indicate that the "mountain" probably refers to Mount Zion, or Jerusalem.

15:20 This is the only mention of Miriam in the book, and the only place she is called a prophetess. She challenged Moses' authority on at least one occasion (Num. 12).

15:23 "Marah" means "Bitter."

16:1 This would be in May, one month into the exodus journey from Egypt.

5 "And it shall be on the sixth day that they shall prepare what they bring in, and [a]it shall be twice as much as they gather daily."
6 Then Moses and Aaron said to all the children of Israel, [a]"At evening you shall know that the LORD has brought you out of the land of Egypt.
7 "And in the morning you shall see [a]the glory of the LORD; for He [b]hears your complaints against the LORD. But [c]what are we, that you complain against us?"
8 Also Moses said, "This shall be seen when the LORD gives you meat to eat in the evening, and in the morning bread to the full; for the LORD hears your complaints which you make against Him. And what are we? Your complaints are not against us but [a]against the LORD."
9 Then Moses spoke to Aaron, "Say to all the congregation of the children of Israel, [a]'Come near before the LORD, for He has heard your complaints.' "
10 Now it came to pass, as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the children of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and behold, the glory of the LORD [a]appeared in the cloud.
11 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
12 [a]"I have heard the complaints of the children of Israel. Speak to them, saying, [b]'At twilight you shall eat meat, and [c]in the morning you shall be filled with bread. And you shall know that I am the LORD your God.' "
13 So it was that [a]quails came up at evening and covered the camp, and in the morning [b]the dew lay all around the camp.
14 And when the layer of dew lifted, there, on the surface of the wilderness, was [a]a small round [b]substance, as fine as frost on the ground.
15 So when the children of Israel saw it, they said to one another, "What is it?" For they did not know what it was. And Moses said to them, [a]"This is the bread which the LORD has given you to eat.
16 "This is the thing which the LORD has commanded: 'Let every man gather it [a]according to each one's need, one [b]omer for each person, according to the number of persons; let every man take for those who are in his tent.' "
17 Then the children of Israel did so and gathered, some more, some less.
18 So when they measured it by omers, [a]he who gathered much had nothing left over, and he who gathered little had no lack. Every man had gathered according to each one's need.
19 And Moses said, "Let no one [a]leave any of it till morning."
20 Notwithstanding they did not [1]heed Moses. But some of them left part of it until morning, and it bred worms and stank. And Moses was angry with them.
21 So they gathered it every morning, every man according to his need. And when the sun became hot, it melted.

ENCOUNTER Note Ex. 16:21

Daily Bread

God's provision is meant to be daily so we constantly sense our dependence on Him. We cannot relive yesterday's divine encounter. Our walk with God must be current and fresh each day.

22 And so it was, on the sixth day, that they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for each one. And all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses.
23 Then he said to them, "This is what the LORD has said: 'Tomorrow is [a]a Sabbath rest, a holy Sabbath to the LORD. Bake what you will bake today, and boil what you will boil; and lay up for yourselves all that remains, to be kept until morning.' "
24 So they laid it up till morning, as Moses commanded; and it did not [a]stink, nor were there any worms in it.
25 Then Moses said, "Eat that today, for today is a Sabbath to the LORD; today you will not find it in the field.
26 [a]"Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day, the Sabbath, there will be none."
27 Now it happened that some of the people went out on the seventh day to gather, but they found none.
28 And the LORD said to Moses, "How long [a]do you refuse to keep My commandments and My laws?
29 "See! For the LORD has given you the Sabbath; therefore He gives you on the sixth day bread for two days. Let every man remain in his place; let no man go out of his place on the seventh day."
30 So the people rested on the seventh day.

16:13 "Quail" were small, plump, migratory birds native to this region.
16:16 An omer was one tenth of an ephah or slightly more than two quarts.

31 And the house of Israel called its name [1]Manna. And [a]it was like white coriander seed, and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey.
32 Then Moses said, "This is the thing which the LORD has commanded: 'Fill an omer with it, to be kept for your generations, that they may see the bread with which I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.' "
33 And Moses said to Aaron, [a]"Take a pot and put an omer of manna in it, and lay it up before the LORD, to be kept for your generations."
34 As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up [a]before the Testimony, to be kept.
35 And the children of Israel [a]ate manna [b]forty years, [c]until they came to an inhabited land; they ate manna until they came to the border of the land of Canaan.
36 Now an omer is one-tenth of an ephah.

Water from the Rock

17 Then [a]all the congregation of the children of Israel set out on their journey from the Wilderness of [b]Sin, according to the commandment of the LORD, and camped in Rephidim; but there was no water for the people to [c]drink.
2 [a]Therefore the people contended with Moses, and said, "Give us water, that we may drink." So Moses said to them, "Why do you contend with me? Why do you [b]tempt the LORD?"
3 And the people thirsted there for water, and the people [a]complained against Moses, and said, "Why is it you have brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our [b]livestock with thirst?"
4 So Moses [a]cried out to the LORD, saying, "What shall I do with this people? They are almost ready to [b]stone[1] me!"
5 And the LORD said to Moses, [a]"Go on before the people, and take with you some of the elders of Israel. Also take in your hand your rod with which [b]you struck the river, and go.
6 [a]"Behold, I will stand before you there on the rock in Horeb; and you shall strike the rock, and water will come out of it, that the people may drink." And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.
7 So he called the name of the place [a]Massah[1] and [2]Meribah, because of the contention of the children of Israel, and because they [3]tempted the LORD, saying, "Is the LORD among us or not?"

Victory over the Amalekites

8 [a]Now Amalek came and fought with Israel in Rephidim.
9 And Moses said to Joshua, "Choose us some men and go out, fight with Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with [a]the rod of God in my hand."
10 So Joshua did as Moses said to him, and fought with Amalek. And Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill.
11 And so it was, when Moses [a]held up his hand, that Israel prevailed; and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed.
12 But Moses' hands became [1]heavy; so they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it. And Aaron and Hur supported his hands, one on one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun.

Supportive Friends

God made us interdependent. Even when God's power is present, our weakness often requires human encouragement to strengthen us.

13 So Joshua defeated Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.
14 Then the LORD said to Moses, [a]"Write this for a memorial in the book and recount it in the hearing of Joshua, that [b]I will utterly blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven."
15 And Moses built an altar and called its name, [1]The-LORD-Is-My-Banner;

16:31 Manna was white, round, sweet, and nutritious. God supplied this flaky bread every morning except the Sabbath. Manna collected the day before the Sabbath lasted two days. Every other gleaning would spoil after one day. Manna carried a faint taste of milk and honey but the wafers lacked the substance of the reality. The supply stopped when the Israelites entered the Promised Land (Josh. 5:12).

16:34 Although the Ark of the Covenant had not yet been built at this point in the narrative, the "testimony" is a clear reference to it. Verses 31–36 act as an appendix to the end of the wilderness wandering. The ark would later contain the Ten Commandments, Aaron's rod, and a jar of manna (Heb. 9:4).

17:1 Rephidim is thought to be at Wadi Refayid in southwest Sinai.

17:8 The Amalekites were descendents of Abraham through Esau (Gen. 36:1, 12, 16).

17:9 This is the first mention of Joshua. At this point his name was Hoshea, but it would later be changed to Joshua at Kadesh (Num. 13:16).

17:15 Moses named the altar Yahweh Nissi, meaning "The Lord Is My Banner."

16 for he said, "Because [1]the LORD has [a]sworn: the LORD will have war with Amalek from generation to generation."

Jethro's Advice

18 And [a]Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law, heard of all that [b]God had done for Moses and for Israel His people—that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt.
2 Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took [a]Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her back,
3 with her [a]two sons, of whom the name of one was [1]Gershom (for he said, [b]"I have been a [2]stranger in a foreign land")
4 and the name of the other was [1]Eliezer (for he said, "The God of my father was my [a]help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh");
5 and Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife to Moses in the wilderness, where he was encamped at [a]the mountain of God.
6 Now he had said to Moses, "I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you with your wife and her two sons with her."
7 So Moses [a]went out to meet his father-in-law, bowed down, and [b]kissed him. And they asked each other about their well-being, and they went into the tent.
8 And Moses told his father-in-law all that the LORD had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, all the hardship that had come upon them on the way, and how the LORD had [a]delivered them.
9 Then Jethro rejoiced for all the [a]good which the LORD had done for Israel, whom He had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians.
10 And Jethro said, [a]"Blessed be the LORD, who has delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians and out of the hand of Pharaoh, and who has delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians.
11 "Now I know that the LORD is [a]greater than all the gods; [b]for in the very thing in which they [1]behaved [c]proudly, He was above them."
12 Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, [1]took a burnt [a]offering and other sacrifices to offer to God. And Aaron came with all the elders of Israel [b]to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law before God.

God Humbles the Proud

Pride will always be revealed for what it is: an elevated estimation of self. Often God humbles us at the point where we thought we were strongest. One way or the other, humility is inevitable in the presence of almighty God.

13 And so it was, on the next day, that Moses [a]sat to judge the people; and the people stood before Moses from morning until evening.
14 So when Moses' father-in-law saw all that he did for the people, he said, "What is this thing that you are doing for the people? Why do you alone [1]sit, and all the people stand before you from morning until evening?"
15 And Moses said to his father-in-law, "Because [a]the people come to me to inquire of God.
16 "When they have [a]a [1]difficulty, they come to me, and I judge between one and another; and I make known the statutes of God and His laws."
17 So Moses' father-in-law said to him, "The thing that you do is not good.
18 "Both you and these people who are with you will surely wear yourselves out. For this thing is too much for you; [a]you are not able to perform it by yourself.
19 "Listen now to my voice; I will give you [1]counsel, and God will be with you: Stand [a]before God for the people, so that you may [b]bring the difficulties to God.

ENCOUNTER Note Ex. 18:19

Godly Counsel

God's word often becomes clear to us through the voices of those He places around us. God wants us to recognize His voice through godly counsel from others.

20 "And you shall [a]teach them the statutes and the laws, and show them the way in which they must walk and [b]the work they must do.
21 "Moreover you shall select from all the people [a]able men, such as [b]fear God, 18:1–27 Jethro is referred to as Moses' father-in-law twelve times in this passage. This could be intended to emphasize Jethro's authority over Moses.

18:4 "Eliezer" means "My God Is Help."

18:5 The "mountain of God" is Mount Sinai.

18:11 Jethro is called a priest of Midian and not necessarily a priest of Yahweh (v.1). He now recognizes that the "Lord is greater" and declares his faith in the God of the Israelites.

[c]men of truth, [d]hating covetousness; and place such over them to be rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.
22 "And let them judge the people at all times. [a]Then it will be that every great matter they shall bring to you, but every small matter they themselves shall judge. So it will be easier for you, for [b]they will bear the burden with you.
23 "If you do this thing, and God so commands you, then you will be able to endure, and all this people will also go to their [a]place in peace."
24 So Moses heeded the voice of his father-in-law and did all that he had said.
25 And [a]Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people: rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.
26 So they judged the people at all times; the [a]hard[1] cases they brought to Moses, but they judged every small case themselves.
27 Then Moses let his father-in-law depart, and [a]he went his way to his own land.

Israel at Mount Sinai

19 In the third month after the children of Israel had gone out of the land of Egypt, on the same day, [a]they came to the Wilderness of Sinai.
2 For they had departed from [a]Rephidim, had come to the Wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness. So Israel camped there before [b]the mountain.
3 And [a]Moses went up to God, and the LORD [b]called to him from the mountain, saying, "Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel:
4 [a]'You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how [b]I [1]bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to Myself.

ENCOUNTER Note Ex. 19:4–6

Freed for Relationship

God does not make us successful, prosperous, or influential to satisfy our worldly ambitions. He frees us for one purpose, so we can know Him. His work in our lives is a means to that end.

5 'Now [a]therefore, if you will indeed obey My voice and [b]keep My covenant, then [c]you shall be a special treasure to Me above all people; for all the earth is [d]Mine.
6 'And you shall be to Me a [a]kingdom of priests and a [b]holy nation.' These are the words which you shall speak to the children of Israel."
7 So Moses came and called for the [a]elders of the people, and [1]laid before them all these words which the LORD commanded him.
8 Then [a]all the people answered together and said, "All that the LORD has spoken we will do." So Moses brought back the words of the people to the LORD.
9 And the LORD said to Moses, "Behold, I come to you [a]in the thick cloud, [b]that the people may hear when I speak with you, and believe you forever." So Moses told the words of the people to the LORD.
10 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go to the people and [a]consecrate them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their clothes.
11 "And let them be ready for the third day. For on the third day the LORD will come down upon Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people.

ENCOUNTER Note Ex. 19:11

Prepare to Meet God

Encounters with God are not casual events. To receive all God wants to share with you, your heart and mind must be inclined toward Him, and you must be ready to respond to what He reveals to you.

12 "You shall set bounds for the people all around, saying, 'Take heed to yourselves that you do not go up to the mountain or touch its base. [a]Whoever touches the mountain shall surely be put to death.
13 'Not a hand shall touch him, but he shall surely be stoned or shot with an arrow; whether man or beast, he shall not live.' When the trumpet sounds long, they shall come near the mountain."
14 So Moses went down from the mountain to the people and sanctified the people, and they washed their clothes.
15 And he said to the people, "Be ready for the third day; [a]do not come near your wives."

19:1 The Israelites reached the base of Mount Sinai two months to the day after leaving Egypt. The location of Mount Sinai is still unclear.

19:13 The "trumpet" was a ram's horn.

16 Then it came to pass on the third day, in the morning, that there were [a]thunderings and lightnings, and a thick cloud on the mountain; and the sound of the trumpet was very loud, so that all the people who were in the camp [b]trembled.
17 And [a]Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet with God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain.
18 Now [a]Mount Sinai was completely in smoke, because the LORD descended upon [b]it in fire. [c]Its smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and [1]the [d]whole mountain quaked greatly.
19 And when the blast of the trumpet sounded long and became louder and louder, [a]Moses spoke, and [b]God answered him by voice.
20 Then the LORD came down upon Mount Sinai, on the top of the mountain. And the LORD called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.
21 And the LORD said to Moses, "Go down and warn the people, lest they break through [a]to gaze at the LORD, and many of them perish.
22 "Also let the [a]priests who come near the LORD [b]consecrate themselves, lest the LORD [c]break out against them."
23 But Moses said to the LORD, "The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai; for You warned us, saying, [a]'Set bounds around the mountain and consecrate it.' "
24 Then the LORD said to him, "Away! Get down and then come up, you and Aaron with you. But do not let the priests and the people break through to come up to the LORD, lest He break out against them."
25 So Moses went down to the people and spoke to them.

The Ten Commandments

20 And God spoke [a]all these words, saying:
2 [a]"I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, [b]out of the house of [1]bondage.
3 [a]"You shall have no other gods before Me.
4 [a]"You shall not make for yourself a carved image—any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth;
5 [a]you shall not bow down to them nor [1]serve them. [b]For I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, [c]visiting[2] the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me,

ENCOUNTER Note — Ex. 20:5, 6

A Jealous God

God is admittedly a jealous God. He cherishes His people's affections and will tolerate no rivals. He is not content to be one of your priorities; He wants to be your one priority.

7 [a]"You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain, for the LORD [b]will not hold him guiltless who takes His name in vain.
8 [a]"Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.
9 [a]Six days you shall labor and do all your work,
10 but the [a]seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD your God. In it you shall do no work: you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your cattle, [b]nor your stranger who is within your gates.
11 For [a]in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it.
12 [a]"Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be [b]long upon the land which the LORD your God is giving you.
13 [a]"You shall not murder.
14 [a]"You shall not commit [b]adultery.
15 [a]"You shall not steal.
16 [a]"You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

19:16 Thunder, lightning, clouds, and trumpet blasts evoked fear among God's people. The god Baal was associated with these elements, but Yahweh proved Himself incomparably powerful.

20:1–17 The type of law contained in the Ten Commandments is called "apodictic law." This means the commandments are legal statements in the form of a command without explanation. They are more than law, however; they outline requirements for a covenant relationship.

20:3 To have "no other gods before Me" does not imply a superior place among lesser gods. It is a command not to have any other gods in His presence, thereby ruling out polytheism.

20:8–11 The Sabbath observance has no known parallel in ancient cultures.

20:12–17 Commandments five to nine all deal with covenant in community, affecting the transmission of the covenant from generation to generation. They safeguard family life, the primary means of passing on the covenant.

17 [a]"You shall not covet your neighbor's house; [b]you shall not covet your neighbor's wife, nor his male servant, nor his female servant, nor his ox, nor his donkey, nor anything that is your neighbor's."

The People Afraid of God's Presence

18 Now [a]all the people [b]witnessed the thunderings, the lightning flashes, the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain [c]smoking; and when the people saw it, they trembled and stood afar off.
19 Then they said to Moses, [a]"You speak with us, and we will hear; but [b]let not God speak with us, lest we die."
20 And Moses said to the people, [a]"Do not fear; [b]for God has come to test you, and [c]that His fear may be before you, so that you may not sin."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ex. 20:20

Fear of God

God does not want you to cower in fear; He desires a reverent fear that acknowledges His complete authority over your life. Veneration for God will protect you from sin and will keep you safe.

21 So the people stood afar off, but Moses drew near [a]the thick darkness where God was.

The Law of the Altar

22 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Thus you shall say to the children of Israel: 'You have seen that I have talked with you [a]from heaven.
23 'You shall not make anything to be [a]with Me—gods of silver or gods of gold you shall not make for yourselves.
24 'An altar of [a]earth you shall make for Me, and you shall sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and your peace offerings, [b]your sheep and your oxen. In every [c]place where I [1]record My name I will come to you, and I will [d]bless you.
25 'And [a]if you make Me an altar of stone, you shall not build it of hewn stone; for if you [b]use your tool on it, you have profaned it.
26 'Nor shall you go up by steps to My altar, that your [a]nakedness may not be exposed on it.'

The Law Concerning Servants

21 "Now these are the [1]judgments which you shall [a]set before them:

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ex. 21:1

Reflecting God's Nature

God's people are to live by a higher standard than the world around them does. The world ought not to determine how you conduct yourself. God alone sets the standards for your morality and lifestyle.

2 [a]"If you buy a Hebrew servant, he shall serve six years; and in the seventh he shall go out free and pay nothing.
3 "If he comes in by himself, he shall go out by himself; if he comes in married, then his wife shall go out with him.
4 "If his master has given him a wife, and she has borne him sons or daughters, the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out by himself.
5 [a]"But if the servant plainly says, 'I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free,'
6 "then his master shall bring him to the [a]judges. He shall also bring him to the door, or to the doorpost, and his master shall pierce his ear with an awl; and he shall serve him forever.
7 "And if a man [a]sells his daughter to be a female slave, she shall not go out as the male slaves do.
8 "If she [1]does not please her master, who has betrothed her to himself, then he shall let her be redeemed. He shall have no right to sell her to a foreign people, since he has dealt deceitfully with her.
9 "And if he has betrothed her to his son, he shall deal with her according to the custom of daughters.
10 "If he takes another wife, he shall not diminish her food, her clothing, [a]and her marriage rights.
11 "And if he does not do these three for her, then she shall go out free, without paying money.

21:1—23:19 This is casuistic law, characterized by "if . . . then." This ensures equal treatment of all people regardless of social standing. This passage is called the "book of the covenant" and is the oldest example of casuistic law.

21:2 "Hebrew servant" is better understood as an indentured laborer who worked for a specified period of time.

21:5, 6 Slaves who voluntarily remained after being set free had an ear pierced as the sign of being a perpetual slave.

The Law Concerning Violence

12 [a]"He who strikes a man so that he dies shall surely be put to death.
13 "However, [a]if he did not lie in wait, but God [b]delivered him into his hand, then [c]I will appoint for you a place where he may flee.
14 "But if a man acts with [a]premeditation against his neighbor, to kill him by treachery, [b]you shall take him from My altar, that he may die.
15 "And he who strikes his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.
16 [a]"He who kidnaps a man and [b]sells him, or if he is [c]found in his hand, shall surely be put to death.
17 "And [a]he who curses his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.
18 "If men contend with each other, and one strikes the other with a stone or with his fist, and he does not die but is confined to his bed,
19 "if he rises again and walks about outside [a]with his staff, then he who struck him shall be [1]acquitted. He shall only pay for the loss of his time, and shall provide for him to be thoroughly healed.
20 "And if a man beats his male or female servant with a rod, so that he dies under his hand, he shall surely be punished.
21 "Notwithstanding, if he remains alive a day or two, he shall not be punished; for he is his [a]property.
22 "If men [1]fight, and hurt a woman with child, so that [2]she gives birth prematurely, yet no harm follows, he shall surely be punished accordingly as the woman's husband imposes on him; and he shall [a]pay as the judges determine.
23 "But if any harm follows, then you shall give life for life,
24 [a]"eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,
25 "burn for burn, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.
26 "If a man strikes the eye of his male or female servant, and destroys it, he shall let him go free for the sake of his eye.
27 "And if he knocks out the tooth of his male or female servant, he shall let him go free for the sake of his tooth.

Animal Control Laws

28 "If an ox gores a man or a woman to death, then [a]the ox shall surely be stoned, and its flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall be [1]acquitted.
29 "But if the ox [1]tended to thrust with its horn in times past, and it has been made known to his owner, and he has not kept it confined, so that it has killed a man or a woman, the ox shall be stoned and its owner also shall be put to death.
30 "If there is imposed on him a sum of money, then he shall pay [a]to redeem his life, whatever is imposed on him.
31 "Whether it has gored a son or gored a daughter, according to this judgment it shall be done to him.
32 "If the ox gores a male or female servant, he shall give to their master [a]thirty shekels of silver, and the [b]ox shall be stoned.
33 "And if a man opens a pit, or if a man digs a pit and does not cover it, and an ox or a donkey falls in it, 34 "the owner of the pit shall make it good; he shall give money to their owner, but the dead animal shall be his.
35 "If one man's ox hurts another's, so that it dies, then they shall sell the live ox and divide the money from it; and the dead ox they shall also divide.
36 "Or if it was known that the ox tended to thrust in time past, and its owner has not kept it confined, he shall surely pay ox for ox, and the dead animal shall be his own.

Responsibility for Property

22 "If a man steals an ox or a sheep, and slaughters it or sells it, he shall [a]restore five oxen for an ox and four sheep for a sheep.
2 "If the thief is found [a]breaking in, and he is struck so that he dies, there shall be [b]no guilt for his bloodshed.
3 "If the sun has risen on him, there shall be guilt for his bloodshed. He should make full restitution; if he has nothing, then he shall be [a]sold[1] for his theft.
4 "If the theft is certainly [a]found alive in his hand, whether it is an ox or donkey or sheep, he shall [b]restore double.
5 "If a man causes a field or vineyard to be grazed, and lets loose his animal, and it feeds in another man's field, he shall make restitution from the best of his own field and the best of his own vineyard.

21:13 A place of sanctuary was established for those who committed unintentional homicide. It was a place of protection from the victim's family. It also allowed time for authorities to determine the correct judgment.

21:21 This is the best-known statement of "lex talionis" (law of retaliation). While many nations allowed punishment that greatly outweighed the original offense, Israel was to exercise justice proportionate to the crime. They were to reflect the justice of God.

21:22 Several ancient law codes punish those who cause a woman to miscarry a child.

21:22–36 Because a person's ability to work was paramount, great detail was given to personal liability.

6 "If fire breaks out and catches in thorns, so that stacked grain, standing grain, or the field is consumed, he who kindled the fire shall surely make restitution.
7 "If a man [a]delivers to his neighbor money or articles to keep, and it is stolen out of the man's house, [b]if the thief is found, he shall pay double.
8 "If the thief is not found, then the master of the house shall be brought to the [a]judges to see whether he has put his hand into his neighbor's goods.
9 "For any kind of trespass, whether it concerns an ox, a donkey, a sheep, or clothing, or for any kind of lost thing which another claims to be his, the [a]cause of both parties shall come before the judges; and whomever the judges condemn shall pay double to his neighbor.
10 "If a man delivers to his neighbor a donkey, an ox, a sheep, or any animal to keep, and it dies, is hurt, or driven away, no one seeing it,
11 "then an [a]oath of the LORD shall be between them both, that he has not put his hand into his neighbor's goods; and the owner of it shall accept that, and he shall not make it good.

13 "If it is [a]torn to pieces by a beast, then he shall bring it as evidence, and he shall not make good what was torn.
14 "And if a man borrows anything from his neighbor, and it becomes injured or dies, the owner of it not being with it, he shall surely make it good.
15 "If its owner was with it, he shall not make it good; if it was hired, it came for its hire.

Moral and Ceremonial Principles

16 [a]"If a man entices a virgin who is not betrothed, and lies with her, he shall surely pay the bride-price for her to be his wife.

21 [a]"You shall neither mistreat a [1]stranger nor oppress him, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt.
22 [a]"You shall not afflict any widow or fatherless child.
23 "If you afflict them in any way, and they [a]cry at all to Me, I will surely [b]hear their cry;
24 "and My [a]wrath will become hot, and I will kill you with the sword; [b]your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.
25 [a]"If you lend money to any of My people who are poor among you, you shall not be like a moneylender to him; you shall not charge him [b]interest.
26 [a]"If you ever take your neighbor's garment as a pledge, you shall return it to him before the sun goes down.
27 "For that is his only covering, it is his garment for his skin. What will he sleep in? And it will be that when he cries to Me, I will hear, for I am [a]gracious.

God's Compassion

Why does God care about the practical concerns of our lives? His compassion is a reflection of His deep love; no detail escapes His notice.

28 [a]"You shall not revile God, nor curse a [b]ruler of your people.
29 "You shall not delay to offer [a]the first of your ripe produce and your juices. [b]The firstborn of your sons you shall give to Me.

WORD*Study* LORD GOD

Ex. 23:17 Adonai Yahweh is a unique description of God linking the title Adonai, meaning "Lord" or "Master" with God's personal name Yahweh. The term "Lord" testifies to God's unlimited power and authority, as a master over a slave. The title "Yahweh" speaks of God's mercy and grace, given to those in a personal relationship. The two names in combination keep the two aspects of our relationship to God in balance.

HISTORICAL*Encounter* JIM ELIOT Ex. 23:20

As Jim Eliot prepared to give his life to missions, he earnestly sought God's leading as to where he should go. One day he came upon Exodus 23:20. Instantly he recognized God's word confirming that he should go to Ecuador. There, ministering to the Aucas, Eliot would lay his life down for the cause of Christ. Eliot had once observed, "He is no fool who gives what he cannot keep to gain what he cannot lose." His attitude of total surrender to God's word would inspire countless others to seek God's leading for their own lives.

23:10 Leaving the land fallow every seventh year follows the pattern of creation, allowing the land rest after six years of being worked.

23:15 The Feast of Unleavened Bread signaled the beginning of the barley harvest. It came to be associated with the Exodus and Passover celebration.

23:16 The Feast of Harvest is also called the Feast of Weeks. This feast was tied to a commemoration of the law given at Mount Sinai. The Feast of Ingathering is also called the Feast of Tabernacles. This feast was also a memorial to the wilderness wanderings. It was later the occasion for the dedication of Solomon's temple (1 Kin. 8:65).

23:21 "My name is in Him" means God's presence and power is fully in His messenger.

ENCOUNTER Note Ex. 23:33

Danger of a Divided Heart

God knows every potential rival to His rightful place in your heart. He understands better than you do what will tempt you and He knows the consequences if you succumb. So He carefully steers you away from such entanglements.

Israel Affirms the Covenant

24 Now He said to Moses, "Come up to the LORD, you and Aaron, [a]Nadab and Abihu, [b]and seventy of the elders of Israel, and worship from afar.
2 "And Moses alone shall come near the LORD, but they shall not come near; nor shall the people go up with him."
3 So Moses came and told the people all the words of the LORD and all the [1]judgments. And all the people answered with one voice and said, [a]"All the words which the LORD has said we will do."
4 And Moses [a]wrote all the words of the LORD. And he rose early in the morning, and built an altar at the foot of the mountain, and twelve [b]pillars according to the twelve tribes of Israel.
5 Then he sent young men of the children of Israel, who offered [a]burnt offerings and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen to the LORD.
6 And Moses [a]took half the blood and put it in basins, and half the blood he sprinkled on the altar.
7 Then he [a]took the Book of the Covenant and read in the hearing of the people. And they said, "All that the LORD has said we will do, and be obedient."
8 And Moses took the blood, sprinkled it on the people, and said, "This is [a]the blood of the covenant which the LORD has made with you according to all these words."

On the Mountain with God

9 Then Moses went up, also Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel,
10 and they [a]saw the God of Israel. And there was under His feet as it were a paved work of [b]sapphire stone, and it was like the [c]very[1] heavens in its clarity.

23:23 The many ethnic groups in Canaan represented its diversity. The region provided a bridge between Mesopotamia and Egypt that attracted many settlers.

23:24 Pagan sites often included sacred poles, representing the power of the local gods.

23:31 "The River" is the Euphrates.

24:1 The "Seventy Elders" were appointed representatives of the tribes and spoke for all of Israel.

24:5 Whereas "burnt offerings" were consumed in their entirety, "peace offerings" were only partly consumed and the rest was used in a celebratory meal.

24:7 A public reading of the "Book of the Covenant" was a part of every covenant renewal ceremony.

11 But on the nobles of the children of Israel He [a]did not [1]lay His hand. So [b]they saw God, and they [c]ate and drank.
12 Then the LORD said to Moses, [a]"Come up to Me on the mountain and be there; and I will give you [b]tablets of stone, and the law and commandments which I have written, that you may teach them."
13 So Moses arose with [a]his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up to the mountain of God.
14 And he said to the elders, "Wait here for us until we come back to you. Indeed, Aaron and [a]Hur are with you. If any man has a difficulty, let him go to them."
15 Then Moses went up into the mountain, and [a]a cloud covered the mountain.
16 Now [a]the glory of the LORD rested on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days. And on the seventh day He called to Moses out of the midst of the cloud.
17 The sight of the glory of the LORD was like [a]a consuming fire on the top of the mountain in the eyes of the children of Israel.

ENCOUNTER Note Ex. 24:17

A Consuming Fire

The sight of the Lord is like a consuming fire. A face-to-face encounter with almighty God either consumes us or changes us.

18 So Moses went into the midst of the cloud and went up into the mountain. And [a]Moses was on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

Offerings for the Sanctuary

25 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
2 "Speak to the children of Israel, that they bring Me an [1]offering. [a]From everyone who gives it willingly with his heart you shall take My offering.
3 "And this is the offering which you shall take from them: gold, silver, and bronze;
4 "blue, purple, and scarlet thread, fine linen, and goats' hair;
5 "ram skins dyed red, [1]badger skins, and acacia wood;
6 [a]"oil for the light, and [b]spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense;
7 "onyx stones, and stones to be set in the [a]ephod and in the breastplate.
8 "And let them make Me a [a]sanctuary,[1] that [b]I may dwell among them.
9 "According to all that I show you, that is, the pattern of the tabernacle and the pattern of all its furnishings, just so you shall make it.

The Ark of the Testimony

10 [a]"And they shall make an ark of acacia wood; two and a half cubits shall be its length, a cubit and a half its width, and a cubit and a half its height.
11 "And you shall overlay it with pure gold, inside and out you shall overlay it, and shall make on it a molding of [a]gold all around.
12 "You shall cast four rings of gold for it, and put them in its four corners; two rings shall be on one side, and two rings on the other side.
13 "And you shall make poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold.
14 "You shall put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, that the ark may be carried by them.
15 [a]"The poles shall be in the rings of the ark; they shall not be taken from it.
16 "And you shall put into the ark [a]the Testimony which I will give you.
17 [a]"You shall make a mercy seat of pure gold; two and a half cubits shall be its length and a cubit and a half its width.
18 "And you shall make two cherubim of gold; of hammered work you shall make them at the two ends of the mercy seat.
19 "Make one cherub at one end, and the other cherub at the other end; you shall make the cherubim at the two ends of it of one piece with the mercy seat.
20 "And [a]the cherubim shall stretch out their wings above, covering the mercy seat with their wings, and they shall face one another; the faces of the cherubim shall be toward the mercy seat.
21 [a]"You shall put the mercy seat on top of the ark, and [b]in the ark you shall put the Testimony that I will give you.

24:18 The number forty was often used to symbolize completion, signifying the passage of an appropriate time.

25:7 The "ephod" was a priestly vestment reserved for the high priest (See 28:6–14).

25:8 "Sanctuary" means "holy place." Its main purpose was not worship, but a place for God to dwell among His people. Since Pentecost, God has made His tabernacle within each believer.

25:10 A cubit was measured from the elbow to the tip of the middle finger, approximately eighteen inches.

25:17 "Mercy seat" is more an interpretation than a translation. The Hebrew noun is derived from a verb meaning "to atone for," "to cover over," or "to make propitiation." It was the lid for the ark as well as the base upon which the cherubim were seated. To the Hebrew in ancient times, the mercy seat's significance was similar to that of the cross for Christians.

25:14, 27 Poles were used to keep both the ark and the table for the showbread from being touched by human hands as they were transported.

22 "And [a]there I will meet with you, and I will speak with you from above the mercy seat, from [b]between the two cherubim which are on the ark of the Testimony, about everything which I will give you in commandment to the children of Israel.

ENCOUNTER Note Ex. 25:22

The Meeting Place

God meets people at the place of forgiveness. People must first be cleansed from their sins before they can follow God's commands.

The Table for the Showbread

23 [a]"You shall also make a table of acacia wood; two cubits shall be its length, a cubit its width, and a cubit and a half its height.
24 "And you shall overlay it with pure gold, and make a molding of gold all around.
25 "You shall make for it a frame of a handbreadth all around, and you shall make a gold molding for the frame all around.
26 "And you shall make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings on the four corners that are at its four legs.
27 "The rings shall be close to the frame, as holders for the poles to bear the table.
28 "And you shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be carried with them.
29 "You shall make [a]its dishes, its pans, its pitchers, and its bowls for pouring. You shall make them of pure gold.
30 "And you shall set the [a]showbread on the table before Me always.

The Gold Lampstand

31 [a]"You shall also make a lampstand of pure gold; the lampstand shall be of hammered work. Its shaft, its branches, its bowls, its ornamental knobs, and flowers shall be of one piece.
32 "And six branches shall come out of its sides: three branches of the lampstand out of one side, and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side.
33 [a]"Three bowls shall be made like almond blossoms on one branch, with an ornamental knob and a flower, and three bowls made like almond blossoms on the other branch, with an ornamental knob and a flower—and so for the six branches that come out of the lampstand.
34 [a]"On the lampstand itself four bowls shall be made like almond blossoms, each with its ornamental knob and flower.
35 "And there shall be a knob under the first two branches of the same, a knob under the second two branches of the same, and a knob under the third two branches of the same, according to the six branches that extend from the lampstand.
36 "Their knobs and their branches shall be of one piece; all of it shall be one hammered piece of pure gold.
37 "You shall make seven lamps for it, and [a]they shall arrange its lamps so that they [b]give light in front of it.
38 "And its wick-trimmers and their trays shall be of pure gold.
39 "It shall be made of a talent of pure gold, with all these utensils.
40 "And [a]see to it that you make them according to the pattern which was shown you on the mountain.

The Tabernacle

26 "Moreover [a]you shall make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine woven linen, and blue, purple, and scarlet thread; with artistic designs of cherubim you shall weave them.
2 "The length of each curtain shall be twenty-eight cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits. And every one of the curtains shall have [1]the same measurements.
3 "Five curtains shall be coupled to one another, and the other five curtains shall be coupled to one another.
4 "And you shall make loops of blue yarn on the edge of the curtain on the selvedge of one set, and likewise you shall do on the outer edge of the other curtain of the second set.
5 "Fifty loops you shall make in the one curtain, and fifty loops you shall make on the edge of the curtain that is on the end of the second set, that the loops may be clasped to one another.

CHAPTER 26
1 [a]Ex. 36:8–19
2 [1]Lit. one measure

25:30 Twelve loaves of showbread, representing the twelve tribes of Israel, were to be on the table continually. When they were eaten by the priests on the Sabbath, new loaves were put in their place (Lev. 24:5–9).

25:31–40 The lampstand, or menorah, has come to symbolize Israel even to this day. Its pattern was seen by Moses on the mountain of God. It symbolizes eternal life, and some suggest it represents the Tree of Life in Genesis.

26:1–14 The four types of material for the curtains progress from the finest fabric to the toughest leather for protection: linen, goat hair, ram skin, and badger skin.

26:1 "Tabernacle" comes from a Latin word meaning "tent." The Hebrew term literally means "dwelling place."

6 "And you shall make fifty clasps of gold, and couple the curtains together with the clasps, so that it may be one tabernacle.
7 [a]"You shall also make curtains of goats' hair, to be a tent over the tabernacle. You shall make eleven curtains.
8 "The length of each curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits; and the eleven curtains shall all have the same measurements.
9 "And you shall couple five curtains by themselves and six curtains by themselves, and you shall double over the sixth curtain at the forefront of the tent.
10 "You shall make fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is outermost in one set, and fifty loops on the edge of the curtain of the second set.
11 "And you shall make fifty bronze clasps, put the clasps into the loops, and couple the tent together, that it may be one.
12 "The remnant that remains of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remains, shall hang over the back of the tabernacle.
13 "And a cubit on one side and a cubit on the other side, of what remains of the length of the curtains of the tent, shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle, on this side and on that side, to cover it.
14 [a]"You shall also make a covering of ram skins dyed red for the tent, and a covering of badger skins above that.
15 "And for the tabernacle you shall [a]make the boards of acacia wood, standing upright.
16 "Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and a cubit and a half shall be the width of each board.
17 "Two [1]tenons shall be in each board for binding one to another. Thus you shall make for all the boards of the tabernacle.
18 "And you shall make the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards for the south side.
19 "You shall make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards: two sockets under each of the boards for its two tenons.
20 "And for the second side of the tabernacle, the north side, there shall be twenty boards 21 "and their forty sockets of silver: two sockets under each of the boards.
22 "For the far side of the tabernacle, westward, you shall make six boards.
23 "And you shall also make two boards for the two back corners of the tabernacle.
24 "They shall be [1]coupled together at the bottom and they shall be coupled together at the top by one ring. Thus it shall be for both of them. They shall be for the two corners.
25 "So there shall be eight boards with their sockets of silver—sixteen sockets—two sockets under each of the boards.
26 "And you shall make bars of acacia wood: five for the boards on one side of the tabernacle, 27 "five bars for the boards on the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the side of the tabernacle, for the far side westward.
28 "The [a]middle bar shall pass through the midst of the boards from end to end.
29 "You shall overlay the boards with gold, make their rings of gold as holders for the bars, and overlay the bars with gold.
30 "And you shall raise up the tabernacle [a]according to its pattern which you were shown on the mountain.
31 [a]"You shall make a veil woven of blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen. It shall be woven with an artistic design of cherubim.
32 "You shall hang it upon the four pillars of acacia wood overlaid with gold. Their hooks shall be gold, upon four sockets of silver.
33 "And you shall hang the veil from the clasps. Then you shall bring [a]the ark of the Testimony in there, behind the veil. The veil shall be a divider for you between [b]the holy place and the Most Holy.

ENCOUNTER Note Ex. 26:33

Behind the Veil

God dwells in the most sacred place. For generations only a select few were invited beyond the veil. But thanks to Christ's sacrifice, we who are in Christ may enter into the Most Holy Place to commune with almighty God.

34 [a]"You shall put the mercy seat upon the ark of the Testimony in the Most Holy.
35 [a]"You shall set the table outside the veil, and [b]the lampstand across from the table on the side of the tabernacle to-

26:17 A "tenon" was a Hebrew term meaning "hands." It was a projection or peg that fit into a socket to make a joint.
26:31–33 The veil was the most beautiful fabric which created an inner sanctum, housing the Ark of the Covenant. This section of the holy place is called the Most Holy Place (see Heb. 9:2, 3).

ward the south; and you shall put the table on the north side.
36 [a]"You shall make a screen for the door of the tabernacle, woven of blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen, made by a weaver.
37 "And you shall make for the screen [a]five pillars of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold; their hooks shall be gold, and you shall cast five sockets of bronze for them.

The Altar of Burnt Offering

27 "You shall make [a]an altar of acacia wood, five cubits long and five cubits wide—the altar shall be square—and its height shall be three cubits.
2 "You shall make its horns on its four corners; its horns shall be of one piece with it. And you shall overlay it with bronze.
3 "Also you shall make its pans to receive its ashes, and its shovels and its basins and its forks and its firepans; you shall make all its utensils of bronze.
4 "You shall make a grate for it, a network of bronze; and on the network you shall make four bronze rings at its four corners.
5 "You shall put it under the rim of the altar beneath, that the network may be midway up the altar.
6 "And you shall make poles for the altar, poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with bronze.
7 "The poles shall be put in the rings, and the poles shall be on the two sides of the altar to bear it.
8 "You shall make it hollow with boards; [a]as it was shown you on the mountain, so shall they make it.

The Court of the Tabernacle

9 [a]"You shall also make the court of the tabernacle. For the south side there shall be hangings for the court made of fine woven linen, one hundred cubits long for one side.
10 "And its twenty pillars and their twenty sockets shall be bronze. The hooks of the pillars and their bands shall be silver.
11 "Likewise along the length of the north side there shall be hangings one hundred cubits long, with its twenty pillars and their twenty sockets of bronze, and the hooks of the pillars and their bands of silver.
12 "And along the width of the court on the west side shall be hangings of fifty cubits, with their ten pillars and their ten sockets.
13 "The width of the court on the east side shall be fifty cubits.
14 "The hangings on one side of the gate shall be fifteen cubits, with their three pillars and their three sockets.
15 "And on the other side shall be hangings of fifteen cubits, with their three pillars and their three sockets.
16 "For the gate of the court there shall be a screen twenty cubits long, woven of blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen, made by a weaver. It shall have four pillars and four sockets.
17 "All the pillars around the court shall have bands of silver; their [a]hooks shall be of silver and their sockets of bronze.
18 "The length of the court shall be one hundred cubits, the width fifty throughout, and the height five cubits, made of fine woven linen, and its sockets of bronze.
19 "All the utensils of the tabernacle for all its service, all its pegs, and all the pegs of the court, shall be of bronze.

The Care of the Lampstand

20 "And [a]you shall command the children of Israel that they bring you pure oil of pressed olives for the light, to cause the lamp to [1]burn continually.

ENCOUNTER Note Ex. 27:20

God's Lamp

The lamp in God's temple burns continually. Night or day, God hears the cries of His children. The path leading to God is always lighted and beckoning those who would come.

21 "In the tabernacle of meeting, [a]outside the veil which is before the Testimony, [b]Aaron and his sons shall tend it from evening until morning before the LORD. [c]It shall be a statute forever to their generations on behalf of the children of Israel.

Garments for the Priesthood

27:1 Acacia wood was a hardwood that was both beautiful and practical. Its density made it extremely durable.

27:9 The courtyard was to provide a buffer between the holy place and the profane world in which it dwelt.

27:20 The lamp was to provide perpetual light before the Most Holy Place to symbolize God's presence.

28:1 Priests ministered for the sake of the people, but their main focus was toward the Lord. Aaron and his sons commenced a formal priesthood which signified a maturing religious system.

Me as [b]priest, Aaron and Aaron's sons: [c]Nadab, Abihu, [d]Eleazar, and Ithamar.
2 "And [a]you shall make [1]holy garments for Aaron your brother, for glory and for beauty.
3 "So [a]you shall speak to all who are gifted artisans, [b]whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they may make Aaron's garments, to consecrate him, that he may minister to Me as priest.
4 "And these are the garments which they shall make: [a]a breastplate, [b]an [1]ephod, [c]a robe, [d]a skillfully woven tunic, a turban, and [e]a sash. So they shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother and his sons, that he may minister to Me as priest.

The Ephod

5 "They shall take the gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and the fine linen,
6 [a]"and they shall make the ephod of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen, artistically worked.
7 "It shall have two shoulder straps joined at its two edges, and so it shall be joined together.
8 "And the [1]intricately woven band of the ephod, which is on it, shall be of the same workmanship, made of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen.
9 "Then you shall take two onyx [a]stones and engrave on them the names of the sons of Israel:
10 "six of their names on one stone and six names on the other stone, in order of their [a]birth.
11 "With the work of an [a]engraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, you shall engrave the two stones with the names of the sons of Israel. You shall set them in settings of gold.
12 "And you shall put the two stones on the shoulders of the ephod as memorial stones for the sons of Israel. So [a]Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD on his two shoulders [b]as a memorial.
13 "You shall also make settings of gold,
14 "and you shall make two chains of pure gold like braided cords, and fasten the braided chains to the settings.

The Breastplate

15 [a]"You shall make the breastplate of judgment. Artistically woven according to the workmanship of the ephod you shall make it: of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen, you shall make it.
16 "It shall be doubled into a square: a span shall be its length, and a span shall be its width.
17 [a]"And you shall put settings of stones in it, four rows of stones: The first row shall be a [1]sardius, a topaz, and an emerald; this shall be the first row;
18 "the second row shall be a turquoise, a sapphire, and a diamond;
19 "the third row, a [1]jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;
20 "and the fourth row, a [1]beryl, an [2]onyx, and a jasper. They shall be set in gold settings.
21 "And the stones shall have the names of the sons of Israel, twelve according to their names, like the engravings of a signet, each one with its own name; they shall be according to the twelve tribes.
22 "You shall make chains for the breastplate at the end, like braided cords of pure gold.
23 "And you shall make two rings of gold for the breastplate, and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate.
24 "Then you shall put the two braided chains of gold in the two rings which are on the ends of the breastplate;
25 "and the other two ends of the two braided chains you shall fasten to the two settings, and put them on the shoulder straps of the ephod in the front.
26 "You shall make two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on the edge of it, which is on the inner side of the ephod.
27 "And two other rings of gold you shall make, and put them on the two shoulder straps, underneath the ephod toward its front, right at the seam above the [1]intricately woven band of the ephod.
28 "They shall bind the breastplate by means of its rings to the rings of the ephod, using a blue cord, so that it is above the intricately woven band of the ephod, and so that the breastplate does not come loose from the ephod.
29 "So Aaron shall [a]bear the names of the sons of Israel on the breastplate of judgment over his heart, when he goes into the holy place, as a memorial before the LORD continually.
30 "And [a]you shall put in the breastplate of judgment the [1]Urim and the Thummim, and they shall be over Aaron's heart when he goes in before

28:6 The ephod was a significant component of the priestly garments. It was a sort of cloak or vest made of fine linen with brilliant colors. It symbolized the High Priest as representative of the whole nation.

28:30 "Urim and Thummim" literally means "Lights and Perfections" and signifies perfect knowledge. They were used as a means of determining God's will in a particular matter.

the LORD. So Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel over his heart before the LORD continually.

Other Priestly Garments

31 [a]"You shall make the robe of the ephod all of blue.
32 "There shall be an opening for his head in the middle of it; it shall have a woven binding all around its opening, like the opening in a coat of mail, so that it does not tear.
33 "And upon its hem you shall make pomegranates of blue, purple, and scarlet, all around its hem, and bells of gold between them all around:
34 "a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, upon the hem of the robe all around.
35 "And it shall be upon Aaron when he ministers, and its sound will be heard when he goes into the holy place before the LORD and when he comes out, that he may not die.
36 [a]"You shall also make a plate of pure gold and engrave on it, like the engraving of a signet:

HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

37 "And you shall put it on a blue cord, that it may be on the turban; it shall be on the front of the turban.
38 "So it shall be on Aaron's forehead, that Aaron may [a]bear the iniquity of the holy things which the children of Israel hallow in all their [1]holy gifts; and it shall always be on his forehead, that they may be [b]accepted before the LORD.
39 "You shall [a]skillfully weave the tunic of fine linen thread, you shall make the turban of fine linen, and you shall make the sash of woven work.
40 [a]"For Aaron's sons you shall make tunics, and you shall make sashes for them. And you shall make [1]hats for them, for glory and [b]beauty.
41 "So you shall put them on Aaron your brother and on his sons with him. You shall [a]anoint them, [b]consecrate them, and [1]sanctify them, that they may minister to Me as priests.
42 "And you shall make [a]for them linen trousers to cover their [1]nakedness; they shall [2]reach from the waist to the thighs.
43 "They shall be on Aaron and on his sons when they come into the tabernacle of meeting, or when they come near [a]the altar to minister in the holy place, that they [b]do not incur [1]iniquity and die. [c]It shall be a statute forever to him and his descendants after him.

Aaron and His Sons Consecrated

29 "And this is what you shall do to them to hallow them for ministering to Me as priests: [a]Take one young bull and two rams without blemish,
2 "and [a]unleavened bread, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil (you shall make them of wheat flour).
3 "You shall put them in one basket and bring them in the basket, with the bull and the two rams.
4 "And Aaron and his sons you shall bring to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, [a]and you shall wash them with water.
5 [a]"Then you shall take the garments, put the tunic on Aaron, and the robe of the ephod, the ephod, and the breastplate, and gird him with [b]the intricately woven band of the ephod.
6 [a]"You shall put the turban on his head, and put the holy crown on the turban.
7 "And you shall take the anointing [a]oil, pour it on his head, and anoint him.
8 "Then [a]you shall bring his sons and put tunics on them.
9 "And you shall gird them with sashes, Aaron and his sons, and put the hats on them. [a]The priesthood shall be theirs for a perpetual statute. So you shall [b]consecrate Aaron and his sons.

28:33 The "pomegranates" symbolized the fertility of the Promised Land.

28:34 The bells on the hem of the high priest's garment were to save his life. This may have been so he did not enter the Most Holy Place without audibly announcing his presence, thus saving him from punishment for presumption. Those listening to the bell from outside the tent could tell if the high priest's offering had been acceptable to God by whether the bell continued to ring or whether it grew silent. Tradition indicates a rope was tied to the high priest so if those waiting outside the veil no longer heard the bell ring, they would assume the priest had been struck dead and they could pull his corpse out of the holy place without entering themselves.

28:42 The modesty of Israelite priests was contrasted with the immodesty of pagan priests who exposed themselves in ritual worship.

29:1 The consecration of Aaron and his sons was a ritual lasting seven days. It set a precedent for the use of the tabernacle and altar, the types of sacrifices offered, and the role of the priests.

11 "Then you shall kill the bull before the LORD, by the door of the tabernacle of meeting.
12 "You shall take some of the blood of the bull and put it on [a]the horns of the altar with your finger, and [b]pour all the blood beside the base of the altar.
13 "And [a]you shall take all the fat that covers the entrails, the fatty lobe attached to the liver, and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, and burn them on the altar.
14 "But [a]the flesh of the bull, with its skin and its offal, you shall burn with fire outside the camp. It is a sin offering.
15 [a]"You shall also take one ram, and Aaron and his sons shall [b]put their hands on the head of the ram;
16 "and you shall kill the ram, and you shall take its blood and [a]sprinkle it all around on the altar.
17 "Then you shall cut the ram in pieces, wash its entrails and its legs, and put them with its pieces and with its head.
18 "And you shall burn the whole ram on the altar. It is a [a]burnt offering to the LORD; it is a sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD.
19 [a]"You shall also take the other ram, and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands on the head of the ram.
20 "Then you shall kill the ram, and take some of its blood and put it on the tip of the right ear of Aaron and on the tip of the right ear of his sons, on the thumb of their right hand and on the big toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood all around on the altar.
21 "And you shall take some of the blood that is on the altar, and some of [a]the anointing oil, and sprinkle it on Aaron and on his garments, on his sons and on the garments of his sons with him; and [b]he and his garments shall be hallowed, and his sons and his sons' garments with him.
22 "Also you shall take the fat of the ram, the fat tail, the fat that covers the entrails, the fatty lobe attached to the liver, the two kidneys and the fat on them, the right thigh (for it is a ram of consecration),
23 [a]"one loaf of bread, one cake made with oil, and one wafer from the basket of the unleavened bread that is before the LORD;
24 "and you shall put all these in the hands of Aaron and in the hands of his sons, and you shall [a]wave them as a wave offering before the LORD.
25 [a]"You shall receive them back from their hands and burn them on the altar as a burnt offering, as a sweet aroma before the LORD. It is an offering made by fire to the LORD.
26 "Then you shall take [a]the breast of the ram of Aaron's consecration and wave it as a wave offering before the LORD; and it shall be your portion.
27 "And from the ram of the consecration you shall consecrate [a]the breast of the wave offering which is waved, and the thigh of the heave offering which is raised, of that which is for Aaron and of that which is for his sons.
28 "It shall be from the children of Israel for Aaron and his sons [a]by a statute forever. For it is a heave offering; [b]it shall be a heave offering from the children of Israel from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, that is, their heave offering to the LORD.
29 "And the [a]holy garments of Aaron [b]shall be his sons' after him, [c]to be anointed in them and to be consecrated in them.
30 [a]"That son who becomes priest in his place shall put them on for [b]seven days, when he enters the tabernacle of meeting to minister in the [1]holy place.
31 "And you shall take the ram of the consecration and [a]boil its flesh in the holy place.
32 "Then Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the [a]bread that is in the basket, by the door of the tabernacle of meeting.
33 [a]"They shall eat those things with which the atonement was made, to consecrate and to sanctify them; [b]but an outsider shall not eat them, because they are holy.
34 "And if any of the flesh of the consecration offerings, or of the bread, remains until the morning, then [a]you shall burn the remainder with fire. It shall not be eaten, because it is holy.
35 "Thus you shall do to Aaron and his sons, according to all that I have commanded you. [a]Seven days you shall consecrate them.
36 "And you [a]shall offer a bull every day as a sin offering for atonement. [b]You shall cleanse the altar when you make atonement for it, and you shall anoint it to sanctify it.

29:14 "Offal" was the waste remaining from a sacrificial animal. A sin offering was meant to purify a person who had become unclean or to consecrate a priest who was to perform rituals.

29:20 Sprinkling blood on the tip of the right ear, thumb, and big toe was to consecrate the ears to hear the word of God, the hands to perform sacrifices, and the feet to lead the people to worship.

29:26 Since priests were limited to religious service and could not own land, they were sustained by a portion of the sacrifices.

37 "Seven days you shall make atonement for the altar and sanctify it. And the altar shall be most holy. [a]Whatever touches the altar must be holy.

The Daily Offerings

38 "Now this is what you shall offer on the altar: [a]two lambs of the first year, [b]day by day continually.
39 "One lamb you shall offer [a]in the morning, and the other lamb you shall offer [1]at twilight.
40 "With the one lamb shall be one-tenth of an ephah of flour mixed with one-fourth of a hin of pressed oil, and one-fourth of a hin of wine as a drink offering.
41 "And the other lamb you shall [a]offer [1]at twilight; and you shall offer with it the grain offering and the drink offering, as in the morning, for a sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD.
42 "This shall be [a]a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the door of the tabernacle of meeting before the LORD, [b]where I will meet you to speak with you.
43 "And there I will meet with the children of Israel, and the tabernacle [a]shall be sanctified by My glory.

ENCOUNTER Note Ex. 29:43

Sanctified Lives

Wherever God chooses to dwell, that place becomes consecrated to Him. God's presence makes something holy. Since holy God dwells within believers, their lives are not their own. They are sanctified: set apart for God's service.

44 "So I will consecrate the tabernacle of meeting and the altar. I will also [a]consecrate both Aaron and his sons to minister to Me as priests.
45 [a]"I will dwell among the children of Israel and will [b]be their God.
46 "And they shall know that [a]I am the LORD their God, who [b]brought them up out of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell among them. I am the LORD their God.

The Altar of Incense

30 "You shall make [a]an altar to burn incense on; you shall make it of acacia wood.
2 "A cubit shall be its length and a cubit its width—it shall be square—and two cubits shall be its height. Its horns shall be of one piece with it.
3 "And you shall overlay its top, its sides all around, and its horns with pure gold; and you shall make for it a [1]molding of gold all around.
4 "Two gold rings you shall make for it, under the molding on both its sides. You shall place them on its two sides, and they will be holders for the poles with which to bear it.
5 "You shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold.
6 "And you shall put it before the [a]veil that is before the ark of the Testimony, before the [b]mercy seat that is over the Testimony, where I will meet with you.
7 "Aaron shall burn on it [a]sweet incense every morning; when [b]he tends the lamps, he shall burn incense on it.
8 "And when Aaron lights the lamps [1]at twilight, he shall burn incense on it, a perpetual incense before the LORD throughout your generations.
9 "You shall not offer [a]strange incense on it, or a burnt offering, or a grain offering; nor shall you pour a drink offering on it.
10 "And [a]Aaron shall make atonement upon its horns once a year with the blood of the sin offering of atonement; once a year he shall make atonement upon it throughout your generations. It is most holy to the LORD."

The Ransom Money

11 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
12 [a]"When you take the census of the children of Israel for their number, then every man shall give [b]a[1] ransom for himself to the LORD, when you number them, that there may be no [c]plague among them when you number them.
13 [a]"This is what everyone among those who are numbered shall give: half a shekel according to the shekel of the sanctuary [b](a shekel is twenty gerahs). [c]The half-shekel shall be an offering to the LORD.
14 "Everyone included among those who are numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give an [1]offering to the LORD.
15 "The [a]rich shall not give more and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel, when you give an offering to the LORD, to make atonement for yourselves.
16 "And you shall take the atonement money of the children of Israel, and

Level Ground

Atonement for sin does not distinguish between wealth and poverty. All must come before God with humility and repentance.

[a]shall [1]appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of meeting, that it may be [b]a memorial for the children of Israel before the LORD, to make atonement for yourselves."

The Bronze Laver

17 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
18 [a]"You shall also make a [1]laver of bronze, with its base also of bronze, for washing. You shall [b]put it between the tabernacle of meeting and the altar. And you shall put water in it,
19 "for Aaron and his sons [a]shall wash their hands and their feet in water from it.
20 "When they go into the tabernacle of meeting, or when they come near the altar to minister, to burn an offering made by fire to the LORD, they shall wash with water, lest they die.
21 "So they shall wash their hands and their feet, lest they die. And [a]it shall be a [1]statute forever to them—to him and his descendants throughout their generations."

The Holy Anointing Oil

22 Moreover the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
23 "Also take for yourself [a]quality spices—five hundred shekels of liquid [b]myrrh, half as much sweet-smelling cinnamon (two hundred and fifty shekels), two hundred and fifty shekels of sweet-smelling [c]cane,
24 "five hundred shekels of [a]cassia, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, and a [b]hin of olive oil.
25 "And you shall make from these a holy anointing oil, an ointment compounded according to the art of the perfumer. It shall be [a]a holy anointing oil.
26 [a]"With it you shall anoint the tabernacle of meeting and the ark of the Testimony;
27 "the table and all its utensils, the lampstand and its utensils, and the altar of incense;

30 [a]"And you shall anoint Aaron and his sons, and consecrate them, that they may minister to Me as priests.
31 "And you shall speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'This shall be a holy anointing oil to Me throughout your generations.

33 [a]'Whoever [1]compounds any like it, or whoever puts any of it on an outsider, [b]shall be [2]cut off from his people.' "

The Incense

34 And the LORD said to Moses: [a]"Take sweet spices, stacte and onycha and galbanum, and pure frankincense with these sweet spices; there shall be equal amounts of each.
35 "You shall make of these an incense, a compound [a]according to the art of the perfumer, salted, pure, and holy.

Artisans for Building the Tabernacle

31 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
2 [a]"See, I have called by name Bezalel the [b]son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah.
3 "And I have [a]filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship,
4 "to design artistic works, to work in gold, in silver, in bronze,

Gift of the Spirit

Every divine task requires divine giftedness through the Holy Spirit. Every one of God's servants, from priest to artisan, serves in God's power.

30:30–38 The anointing oil and incense were to be used exclusively in the tabernacle and not for common purposes. The aroma was to be distinctly the Lord's.

5 "in cutting jewels for setting, in carving wood, and to work in all manner of workmanship.
6 "And I, indeed I, have appointed with him [a]Aholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan; and I have put wisdom in the hearts of all the [b]gifted artisans, that they may make all that I have commanded you:
7 [a]"the tabernacle of meeting, [b]the ark of the Testimony and [c]the mercy seat that is on it, and all the furniture of the tabernacle—
8 [a]"the table and its utensils, [b]the pure gold lampstand with all its utensils, the altar of incense,
9 [a]"the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and [b]the laver and its base—
10 [a]"the [1]garments of ministry, the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments of his sons, to minister as priests,
11 [a]"and the anointing oil and [b]sweet incense for the holy place. According to all that I have commanded you they shall do."

The Sabbath Law

12 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
13 "Speak also to the children of Israel, saying: [a]'Surely My Sabbaths you shall keep, for it is a sign between Me and you throughout your generations, that you may know that I am the LORD who [b]sanctifies[1] you.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ex. 31:13

Honor the Sabbath

The Sabbath is foundational to the Christian faith. The Lord's Day was not designed solely for our own rest and pleasure. God's third commandment specified that this chosen day was set apart to remind His people that He sanctified them. It is God's day, not ours.

14 [a]'You shall keep the Sabbath, therefore, for it is holy to you. Everyone who [1]profanes it shall surely be put to death; for [b]whoever does any work on it, that person shall be cut off from among his people.
15 'Work shall be done for [a]six days, but the [b]seventh is the Sabbath of rest, holy to the LORD. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death.
16 'Therefore the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations as a perpetual covenant.
17 'It is [a]a sign between Me and the children of Israel forever; for [b]in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day He rested and was refreshed.' "
18 And when He had made an end of speaking with him on Mount Sinai, He gave Moses [a]two tablets of the Testimony, tablets of stone, written with the finger of God.

The Gold Calf

32 Now when the people saw that Moses [a]delayed coming down from the mountain, the people [b]gathered together to Aaron, and said to him, [c]"Come, make us [1]gods that shall [d]go before us; for as for this Moses, the man who [e]brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ex. 32:1

Forgetting the Lord

Despite God's miraculous intervention in our lives, our memories are remarkably short. We tend to trade our loyalty to the true and living God for any passing whim or fancy.

2 And Aaron said to them, "Break off the [a]golden earrings which are in the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me."
3 So all the people broke off the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them to Aaron.
4 [a]And he received the gold from their hand, and he fashioned it with an engraving tool, and made a molded calf. Then they said, "This is your god, O Israel, that [b]brought you out of the land of Egypt!"
5 So when Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it. And Aaron made a [a]proclamation and said, "Tomorrow is a feast to the LORD."
6 Then they rose early on the next day,

31:13 Circumcision represents the individual's participation in the covenant. The Sabbath was a sign of corporate participation in the covenant and was to be observed by each succeeding generation.

31:18 The two tablets of the Testimony were the tablets upon which God gave Moses the Ten Commandments. This phrase is the foundation for the name "ark of the Testimony" (Ex. 25:16–22).

32:1 Moses was the sole mediator between God and the people. His absence caused the people to panic.

offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people [a]sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

7 And the LORD said to Moses, [a]"Go, get down! For your people whom you brought out of the land of Egypt [b]have corrupted themselves.

8 "They have turned aside quickly out of the way which [a]I commanded them. They have made themselves a molded calf, and worshiped it and sacrificed to it, and said, [b]'This is your god, O Israel, that brought you out of the land of Egypt!' "

9 And the LORD said to Moses, [a]"I have seen this people, and indeed it is a [1]stiff-necked people!

10 "Now therefore, [a]let Me alone, that [b]My wrath may burn hot against them and I may [1]consume them. And [c]I will make of you a great nation."

11 [a]Then Moses pleaded with [1]the LORD his God, and said: "LORD, why does Your wrath burn hot against Your people whom You have brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand?

12 [a]"Why should the Egyptians speak, and say, 'He brought them out to harm them, to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth'? Turn from Your fierce wrath, and [b]relent from this harm to Your people.

13 "Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, Your servants, to whom You [a]swore by Your own self, and said to them, [b]'I will multiply your descendants as the stars of heaven; and all this land that I have spoken of I give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.' "

14 So the LORD [a]relented from the harm which He said He would do to His people.

15 And [a]Moses turned and went down from the mountain, and the two tablets of the Testimony were in his hand. The tablets were written on both sides; on the one side and on the other they were written.

16 Now the [a]tablets were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God engraved on the tablets.

17 And when Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, "There is a noise of war in the camp."

18 But he said:

"It is not the noise of the shout of victory,
Nor the noise of the cry of defeat,
But the sound of singing I hear."

19 So it was, as soon as he came near the camp, that [a]he saw the calf and the dancing. So Moses' anger became hot, and he cast the tablets out of his hands and broke them at the foot of the mountain.

20 [a]Then he took the calf which they had made, burned it in the fire, and ground it to powder; and he scattered it on the water and made the children of Israel drink it.

21 And Moses said to Aaron, [a]"What did this people do to you that you have brought so great a sin upon them?"

22 So Aaron said, "Do not let the anger of my lord become hot. [a]You know the people, that they are set on evil.

23 "For they said to me, 'Make us gods that shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.'

24 "And I said to them, 'Whoever has any gold, let them break it off.' So they gave it to me, and I cast it into the fire, and this calf came out."

25 Now when Moses saw that the people were [a]unrestrained (for Aaron [b]had not restrained them, to their shame among their enemies),

26 then Moses stood in the entrance of the camp, and said, "Whoever is on the LORD's side—come to me!" And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together to him.

27 And he said to them, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'Let every man put his sword on his side, and go in and out from entrance to entrance throughout the camp, and [a]let every man kill his brother, every man his companion, and every man his neighbor.' "

28 So the sons of Levi did according to the word of Moses. And about three thousand men of the people fell that day.

29 [a]Then Moses said, [1]"Consecrate yourselves today to the LORD, that He may bestow on you a blessing this day, for every man has opposed his son and his brother."

32:9 A "stiff-necked people" was a farming metaphor for an ox or horse that refused to respond to the pull on its rope.

32:14 "Relented," or as it is sometimes translated, "repented," does not mean that God repented as sinners must or that He changed His mind. It means God responded in a way consistent with His nature, based on His people's response to Him.

32:15 The inscription being on both sides of the tablets may have indicated the totality of the instructions God gave Moses for the people.

32:19 Shattering the tablets demonstrated more than Moses' anger. It also symbolized that the people had broken their covenant with God. Their relationship with Him was now broken unless they repented.

30 Now it came to pass on the next day that Moses said to the people, [a]"You have committed a great sin. So now I will go up to the LORD; [b]perhaps I can [c]make atonement for your sin."

ENCOUNTER Note Ex. 32:30

Godly Intercession

Godly leaders empathize with their people and intercede with God for them, just as Jesus identified with sinful humanity and provided atonement on their behalf.

31 Then Moses [a]returned to the LORD and said, "Oh, these people have committed a great sin, and have [b]made for themselves a god of gold!
32 "Yet now, if You will forgive their sin—but if not, I pray, [a]blot me [b]out of Your book which You have written."
33 And the LORD said to Moses, [a]"Whoever has sinned against Me, I will [b]blot him out of My book.
34 "Now therefore, go, lead the people to the place of which I have [a]spoken to you. [b]Behold, My Angel shall go before you. Nevertheless, [c]in the day when I [d]visit for punishment, I will visit punishment upon them for their sin."
35 So the LORD plagued the people because of [a]what they did with the calf which Aaron made.

The Command to Leave Sinai

33 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Depart and go up from here, you [a]and the people whom you have brought out of the land of Egypt, to the land of which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, [b]'To your descendants I will give it.'
2 [a]"And I will send My Angel before you, [b]and I will drive out the Canaanite and the Amorite and the Hittite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite.
3 "Go up [a]to a land flowing with milk and honey; for I will not go up in your midst, lest [b]I [1]consume you on the way, for you are a [c]stiff-necked[2] people."
4 And when the people heard this bad news, [a]they mourned, [b]and no one put on his ornaments.
5 For the LORD had said to Moses, "Say to the children of Israel, 'You are a stiff-necked people. I could come up into your midst in one moment and consume you. Now therefore, take off your [1]ornaments, that I may [a]know what to do to you.' "
6 So the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by Mount Horeb.

Moses Meets with the Lord

7 Moses took his tent and pitched it outside the camp, far from the camp, and [a]called it the tabernacle of meeting. And it came to pass that everyone who [b]sought the LORD went out to the tabernacle of meeting which was outside the camp.
8 So it was, whenever Moses went out to the tabernacle, that all the people rose, and each man stood [a]at his tent door and watched Moses until he had gone into the tabernacle.
9 And it came to pass, when Moses entered the tabernacle, that the pillar of cloud descended and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and the LORD [a]talked with Moses.
10 All the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the tabernacle door, and all the people rose and [a]worshiped, each man in his tent door.
11 So [a]the LORD spoke to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. And he would return to the camp, but [b]his servant Joshua the son of Nun, a young man, did not depart from the tabernacle.

The Promise of God's Presence

12 Then Moses said to the LORD, "See, [a]You say to me, 'Bring up this people.' But You have not let me know whom You will send with me. Yet You have said, [b]'I know you by name, and you have also found grace in My sight.'
13 "Now therefore, I pray, [a]if I have found grace in Your sight, [b]show me now Your way, that I may know You and that I may find grace in Your sight. And consider that this nation is [c]Your people."
14 And He said, [a]"My Presence will go with you, and I will give you [b]rest."
15 Then he said to Him, [a]"If Your Presence does not go with us, do not bring us up from here.
16 "For how then will it be known that Your people and I have found grace in Your sight, [a]except You go with us? So we [b]shall be separate, Your people and I, from all the people who are upon the face of the earth."

33:7 Since the tabernacle had not yet been built, the "tabernacle of meeting" was a place where Moses would receive instruction from God. As it had no altar, it was a prophetic tent, not a priestly one.

33:11 "Face to face" does not imply that Moses physically looked upon God, but that their relationship was intimate. God spoke to Moses directly rather than through dreams and visions.

ENCOUNTER Note Ex. 33:15

Not Without God

Only a fool would attempt to lead God's people apart from God's presence. Never move forward on an assignment without first securing your relationship with God.

17 So the LORD said to Moses, [a]"I will also do this thing that you have spoken; for you have found grace in My sight, and I know you by name."
18 And he said, "Please, show me [a]Your glory."

ENCOUNTER Note Ex. 33:18

Knowing God

Some people settle for a superficial relationship with God. Others hunger for an increasingly deeper walk with Him. They want to experience God in all His glory. God is prepared to satisfy our longing for an intimate relationship with Him.

19 Then He said, "I will make all My [a]goodness pass before you, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before you. [b]I will be gracious to whom I will be [c]gracious, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion."
20 But He said, "You cannot see My face; for [a]no man shall see Me, and live."
21 And the LORD said, "Here is a place by Me, and you shall stand on the rock.
22 "So it shall be, while My glory passes by, that I will put you [a]in the cleft of the rock, and will [b]cover you with My hand while I pass by.
23 "Then I will take away My hand, and you shall see My back; but My face shall [a]not be seen."

Moses Makes New Tablets

34 And the LORD said to Moses, [a]"Cut two tablets of stone like the first ones, and [b]I will write on these tablets the words that were on the first tablets which you broke.
2 "So be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and present yourself to Me there [a]on the top of the mountain.
3 "And no man shall [a]come up with you, and let no man be seen throughout all the mountain; let neither flocks nor herds feed before that mountain."
4 So he cut two tablets of stone like the first ones. Then Moses rose early in the morning and went up Mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him; and he took in his hand the two tablets of stone.
5 Now the LORD descended in the [a]cloud and stood with him there, and [b]proclaimed the name of the LORD.
6 And the LORD passed before him and proclaimed, "The LORD, the LORD [a]God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abounding in [b]goodness and [c]truth,
7 [a]"keeping mercy for thousands, [b]forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, [c]by no means clearing the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children and the children's children to the third and the fourth generation."
8 So Moses made haste and [a]bowed his head toward the earth, and worshiped.
9 Then he said, "If now I have found grace in Your sight, O Lord, [a]let my Lord, I pray, go among us, even though we are a [b]stiff-necked[1] people; and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us as [c]Your inheritance."

The Covenant Renewed

10 And He said: "Behold, [a]I make a covenant. Before all your people I will [b]do [1]marvels such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation; and all the people among whom you are shall see the work of the LORD. For it is [c]an awesome thing that I will do with you.
11 [a]"Observe what I command you this day. Behold, [b]I am driving out from before you the Amorite and the Canaanite and the Hittite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite.
12 [a]"Take heed to yourself, lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land where you are going, lest it be a snare in your midst.
13 "But you shall [a]destroy their altars, break their sacred pillars, and [b]cut down their wooden images
14 "(for you shall worship [a]no other god, for the LORD, whose [b]name is Jealous, is a [c]jealous God),
15 "lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they [a]play the harlot with their gods and make sacrifice to their gods, and one of them [b]invites you and you [c]eat of his sacrifice,

34:1 God's instruction to "cut two tablets of stone" was an act of grace, giving His people another chance.

25 "You shall not offer the blood of My sacrifice with leaven, [a]nor shall the sacrifice of the Feast of the Passover be left until morning.
26 [a]"The first of the firstfruits of your land you shall bring to the house of the LORD your God. You shall not boil a young goat in its mother's milk."
27 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Write [a]these words, for according to the tenor of these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel."
28 [a]So he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he neither ate bread nor drank water. And [b]He wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the [1]Ten Commandments.

The Shining Face of Moses

29 Now it was so, when Moses came down from Mount Sinai (and the [a]two tablets of the Testimony were in Moses' hand when he came down from the mountain), that Moses did not know that [b]the skin of his face shone while he talked with Him.
30 So when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come near him.
31 Then Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned to him; and Moses talked with them.
32 Afterward all the children of Israel came near, [a]and he gave them as commandments all that the LORD had spoken with him on Mount Sinai.
33 And when Moses had finished speaking with them, he put [a]a veil on his face.
34 But [a]whenever Moses went in before the LORD to speak with Him, he would take the veil off until he came out; and he would come out and speak to the children of Israel whatever he had been commanded.
35 And whenever the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone, then Moses would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with Him.

Sabbath Regulations

35 Then Moses gathered all the congregation of the children of Israel together, and said to them, [a]"These are the words which the LORD has commanded you to do:
2 "Work shall be done for [a]six days, but the seventh day shall be a holy day for you, a Sabbath of rest to the LORD. Whoever does any work on it shall be put to [b]death.
3 [a]"You shall kindle no fire throughout your dwellings on the Sabbath day."

Offerings for the Tabernacle

Never the Same

A deep encounter with the Lord always noticeably changes a person. God's presence, whether in heaven, in the tabernacle, or in a life, is dynamic and energizing. One cannot meet with Him and stay the same.

34:17 It was common to mass produce "molded gods" or idols for people to worship in their homes.
34:28 "Ten Commandments" is literally "Ten Words." When God speaks a word, it is a commandment.
35:4—39:31 This passage describes the actual construction of the tabernacle. Moses inspected everything and gave it his approval.

heart, let him bring it as an offering to the LORD: [b]gold, silver, and bronze;
6 [a]'blue, purple, and scarlet thread, fine linen, and [b]goats' hair;

8 'oil for the light, [a]and spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense;
9 'onyx stones, and stones to be set in the ephod and in the breastplate.

ENCOUNTER Note Ex. 35:5–9

A Willing Heart

God cherishes a willing heart. Offerings given in an attitude of guilt, duty, or compulsion fall short of His desire. But those who give from their heart find favor in God's sight.

Articles of the Tabernacle

10 [a]'All who are gifted artisans among you shall come and make all that the LORD has commanded:
11 [a]'the tabernacle, its tent, its covering, its clasps, its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets;
12 [a]'the ark and its poles, with the mercy seat, and the veil of the covering;
13 'the [a]table and its poles, all its utensils, [b]and the showbread;
14 'also [a]the lampstand for the light, its utensils, its lamps, and the oil for the light;
15 [a]'the incense altar, its poles, [b]the anointing oil, [c]the sweet incense, and the screen for the door at the entrance of the tabernacle;
16 [a]'the altar of burnt offering with its bronze grating, its poles, all its utensils, and the laver and its base;
17 [a]'the hangings of the court, its pillars, their sockets, and the screen for the gate of the court;
18 'the pegs of the tabernacle, the pegs of the court, and their cords;
19 [a]'the [1]garments of ministry, for ministering in the holy place—the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments of his sons, to minister as priests.' "

The Tabernacle Offerings Presented

20 And all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.
21 Then everyone came [a]whose heart [1]was stirred, and everyone whose spirit was willing, and they [b]brought the LORD's offering for the work of the tabernacle of meeting, for all its service, and for the holy garments.
22 They came, both men and women, as many as had a willing heart, and brought [a]earrings and nose rings, rings and necklaces, all [b]jewelry of gold, that is, every man who made an offering of gold to the LORD.
23 And [a]every man, with whom was found blue, purple, and scarlet thread, fine linen, and goats' hair, red skins of rams, and [1]badger skins, brought them.
24 Everyone who offered an offering of silver or bronze brought the LORD's offering. And everyone with whom was found acacia wood for any work of the service, brought it.
25 All the women who were [a]gifted artisans spun yarn with their hands, and brought what they had spun, of blue, purple, and scarlet, and fine linen.
26 And all the women whose hearts [1]stirred with wisdom spun yarn of goats' hair.
27 [a]The rulers brought onyx stones, and the stones to be set in the ephod and in the breastplate, 28 and [a]spices and oil for the light, for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense.
29 The children of Israel brought a [a]freewill offering to the LORD, all the men and women whose hearts were willing to bring material for all kinds of work which the LORD, by the hand of Moses, had commanded to be done.

The Artisans Called by God

30 And Moses said to the children of Israel, "See, [a]the LORD has called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah;
31 "and He has filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom and understanding, in knowledge and all manner of workmanship, 32 "to design artistic works, to work in gold and silver and bronze,
33 "in cutting jewels for setting, in carving wood, and to work in all manner of artistic workmanship.
34 "And He has put in his heart the ability to teach, in him and [a]Aholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan.
35 "He has [a]filled them with skill to do all manner of work of the engraver and the designer and the tapestry maker, in blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine linen, and of the weaver—those who do every work and those who design artistic works.

The People Give More than Enough

2 Then Moses called Bezalel and Aholiab, and every gifted artisan in whose heart the LORD had put wisdom, everyone [a]whose heart [1]was stirred, to come and do the work.
3 And they received from Moses all the [a]offering which the children of Israel [b]had brought for the work of the service of making the sanctuary. So they continued bringing to him freewill offerings every morning.
4 Then all the craftsmen who were doing all the work of the sanctuary came, each from the work he was doing,
5 and they spoke to Moses, saying, [a]"The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work which the LORD commanded us to do."
6 So Moses gave a commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, "Let neither man nor woman do any more work for the offering of the sanctuary." And the people were restrained from bringing,
7 for the material they had was sufficient for all the work to be done—indeed too [a]much.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ex. 36:6, 7

Restrained from Giving

When we have a genuine encounter with God, our heart will overflow with a desire to serve Him and to give offerings to Him. Nothing will be too much to sacrifice when we walk intimately with our Lord. Resentment at sacrifice or stinginess in giving is a sure sign that we have lost sight of who we are serving.

Building the Tabernacle

8 [a]Then all the gifted artisans among them who worked on the tabernacle made ten curtains woven of fine linen, and of blue, purple, and scarlet thread; with artistic designs of cherubim they made them.
9 The length of each curtain was twenty-eight cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits; the curtains were all the same size.
10 And he coupled five curtains to one another, and the other five curtains he coupled to one another.
11 He made loops of blue yarn on the edge of the curtain on the selvedge of one set; likewise he did on the outer edge of the other curtain of the second set.
12 [a]Fifty loops he made on one curtain, and fifty loops he made on the edge of the curtain on the end of the second set; the loops held one curtain to another.
13 And he made fifty clasps of gold, and coupled the curtains to one another with the clasps, that it might be one tabernacle.
14 [a]He made curtains of goats' hair for the tent over the tabernacle; he made eleven curtains.
15 The length of each curtain was thirty cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits; the eleven curtains were the same size.
16 He coupled five curtains by themselves and six curtains by themselves.
17 And he made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is outermost in one set, and fifty loops he made on the edge of the curtain of the second set.
18 He also made fifty bronze clasps to couple the tent together, that it might be one.
19 [a]Then he made a covering for the tent of ram skins dyed red, and a covering of [1]badger skins above that.
20 For the tabernacle [a]he made boards of acacia wood, standing upright.
21 The length of each board was ten cubits, and the width of each board a cubit and a half.
22 Each board had two [1]tenons [a]for binding one to another. Thus he made for all the boards of the tabernacle.
23 And he made boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards for the south side.
24 Forty sockets of silver he made to go under the twenty boards: two sockets under each of the boards for its two tenons.
25 And for the other side of the tabernacle, the north side, he made twenty boards
26 and their forty sockets of silver: two sockets under each of the boards.
27 For the west side of the tabernacle he made six boards.
28 He also made two boards for the two back corners of the tabernacle.
29 And they were coupled at the bottom and [1]coupled together at the top by one ring. Thus he made both of them for the two corners.
30 So there were eight boards and their sockets—sixteen sockets of silver—two sockets under each of the boards.

31 And he made [a]bars of acacia wood: five for the boards on one side of the tabernacle,
32 five bars for the boards on the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle on the far side westward.
33 And he made the middle bar to pass through the boards from one end to the other.
34 He overlaid the boards with gold, made their rings of gold to be holders for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.
35 And he made [a]a veil of blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen; it was worked with an artistic design of cherubim.
36 He made for it four pillars of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold, with their hooks of gold; and he cast four sockets of silver for them.
37 He also made a [a]screen for the tabernacle door, of blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and fine woven linen, made by a [1]weaver,
38 and its five pillars with their hooks. And he overlaid their capitals and their rings with gold, but their five sockets were bronze.

Making the Ark of the Testimony

37 Then [a]Bezalel made [b]the ark of acacia wood; two and a half cubits was its length, a cubit and a half its width, and a cubit and a half its height.
2 He overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside, and made a molding of gold all around it.
3 And he cast for it four rings of gold to be set in its four corners: two rings on one side, and two rings on the other side of it.
4 He made poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold.
5 And he put the poles into the rings at the sides of the ark, to bear the ark.
6 He also made the [a]mercy seat of pure gold; two and a half cubits was its length and a cubit and a half its width.
7 He made two cherubim of beaten gold; he made them of one piece at the two ends of the mercy seat:
8 one cherub at one end on this side, and the other cherub at the other end on that side. He made the cherubim at the two ends of one piece with the mercy seat.
9 The cherubim spread out their wings above, and covered the [a]mercy seat with their wings. They faced one another; the faces of the cherubim were toward the mercy seat.

Making the Table for the Showbread

10 He made [a]the table of acacia wood; two cubits was its length, a cubit its width, and a cubit and a half its height.
11 And he overlaid it with pure gold, and made a molding of gold all around it.
12 Also he made a frame of a handbreadth all around it, and made a molding of gold for the frame all around it.
13 And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings on the four corners that were at its four legs.
14 The rings were close to the frame, as holders for the poles to bear the table.
15 And he made the poles of acacia wood to bear the table, and overlaid them with gold.
16 He made of pure gold the utensils which were on the table: its [a]dishes, its cups, its bowls, and its pitchers for pouring.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ex. 37:16

Pure Gold

The implements used in God's service were both pure and precious. For us to be of service to God, we must strive to offer ourselves in purity, yet we do so with the wonderful assurance that God values His servants as we would value an instrument of pure gold.

Making the Gold Lampstand

17 He also made the [a]lampstand of pure gold; of hammered work he made the lampstand. Its shaft, its branches, its bowls, its ornamental knobs, and its flowers were of the same piece.
18 And six branches came out of its sides: three branches of the lampstand out of one side, and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side.
19 There were three bowls made like almond blossoms on one branch, with an ornamental knob and a flower, and three bowls made like almond blossoms on the other branch, with an ornamental knob and a flower—and so for the six branches coming out of the lampstand.
20 And on the lampstand itself were four bowls made like almond blossoms, each with its ornamental knob and flower.
21 There was a knob under the first two branches of the same, a knob under the second two branches of the same, and a knob under the third two branches of the same, according to the six branches extending from it.

37:1 "Bezalel" was the chief architect who constructed the ark; his name means "under the shadow of God."

22 Their knobs and their branches were of one piece; all of it was one hammered piece of pure gold.
23 And he made its seven lamps, its [a]wick-trimmers, and its trays of pure gold.
24 Of a talent of pure gold he made it, with all its utensils.

Making the Altar of Incense

25 [a]He made the incense altar of acacia wood. Its length was a cubit and its width a cubit—it was square—and two cubits was its height. Its horns were of one piece with it.
26 And he overlaid it with pure gold: its top, its sides all around, and its horns. He also made for it a molding of gold all around it.
27 He made two rings of gold for it under its molding, by its two corners on both sides, as holders for the poles with which to bear it.
28 And he [a]made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold.

Making the Anointing Oil and the Incense

29 He also made [a]the holy anointing oil and the pure incense of sweet spices, according to the work of the perfumer.

Making the Altar of Burnt Offering

38 He made [a]the altar of burnt offering of acacia wood; five cubits was its length and five cubits its width—it was square—and its height was three cubits.
2 He made its horns on its four corners; the horns were of one piece with it. And he overlaid it with bronze.
3 He made all the utensils for the altar: the pans, the shovels, the basins, the forks, and the firepans; all its utensils he made of bronze.
4 And he made a grate of bronze network for the altar, under its rim, midway from the bottom.
5 He cast four rings for the four corners of the bronze grating, as holders for the poles.
6 And he made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with bronze.
7 Then he put the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar, with which to bear it. He made the altar hollow with boards.

Making the Bronze Laver

8 He made [a]the laver of bronze and its base of bronze, from the bronze mirrors of the serving women who assembled at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

Making the Court of the Tabernacle

9 Then he made [a]the court on the south side; the hangings of the court were of fine woven linen, one hundred cubits long.
10 There were twenty pillars for them, with twenty bronze sockets. The hooks of the pillars and their bands were silver.
11 On the north side the hangings were one hundred cubits long, with twenty pillars and their twenty bronze sockets. The hooks of the pillars and their bands were silver.
12 And on the west side there were hangings of fifty cubits, with ten pillars and their ten sockets. The hooks of the pillars and their bands were silver.
13 For the east side the hangings were fifty cubits.
14 The hangings of one side of the gate were fifteen cubits long, with their three pillars and their three sockets,
15 and the same for the other side of the court gate; on this side and that were hangings of fifteen cubits, with their three pillars and their three sockets.
16 All the hangings of the court all around were of fine woven linen.
17 The sockets for the pillars were bronze, the hooks of the pillars and their bands were silver, and the overlay of their capitals was silver; and all the pillars of the court had bands of silver.
18 The screen for the gate of the court was woven of blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and of fine woven linen. The length was twenty cubits, and the height along its width was five cubits, corresponding to the hangings of the court.
19 And there were four pillars with their four sockets of bronze; their hooks were silver, and the overlay of their capitals and their bands was silver.
20 All the [a]pegs of the tabernacle, and of the court all around, were bronze.

Materials of the Tabernacle

21 [1]This is the inventory of the tabernacle, [a]the tabernacle of the Testimony, which was counted according to the commandment of Moses, for the service of the Levites, [b]by the hand of [c]Ithamar, son of Aaron the priest.
22 [a]Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that the LORD had commanded Moses.
23 And with him was [a]Aholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver and [1]designer, a weaver of blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and of fine linen.
24 All the gold that was used in all the work of the holy place, that is, the gold of the [a]offering, was twenty-nine talents and seven hundred and thirty shekels, according to [b]the shekel of the sanctuary.

38:24 The gold was consecrated to God before use. Its total weight was measured in talents, the largest measurement of the Israelites. It weighed about 2,200 pounds.

25 And the silver from those who were [a]numbered of the congregation was one hundred talents and one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary:
26 [a]a bekah for [1]each man (that is, half a shekel, according to the shekel of the sanctuary), for everyone included in the numbering from twenty years old and above, for [b]six hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fifty men.
27 And from the hundred talents of silver were cast [a]the sockets of the sanctuary and the bases of the veil: one hundred sockets from the hundred talents, one talent for each socket.
28 Then from the one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five shekels he made hooks for the pillars, overlaid their capitals, and [a]made bands for them.
29 The offering of bronze was seventy talents and two thousand four hundred shekels.
30 And with it he made the sockets for the door of the tabernacle of meeting, the bronze altar, the bronze grating for it, and all the utensils for the altar,
31 the sockets for the court all around, the bases for the court gate, all the pegs for the tabernacle, and all the pegs for the court all around.

Making the Garments of the Priesthood

39 Of the [a]blue, purple, and scarlet thread they made [b]garments[1] of ministry, for ministering in the [2]holy place, and made the holy garments for Aaron, [c]as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Making the Ephod

2 [a]He made the [b]ephod of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and of fine woven linen.
3 And they beat the gold into thin sheets and cut it into threads, to work it in with the blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and the fine linen, into artistic designs.
4 They made shoulder straps for it to couple it together; it was coupled together at its two edges.
5 And the intricately woven band of his ephod that was on it was of the same workmanship, woven of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and of fine woven linen, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
6 [a]And they set onyx stones, enclosed in [1]settings of gold; they were engraved, as signets are engraved, with the names of the sons of Israel.
7 He put them on the shoulders of the ephod as [a]memorial stones for the sons of Israel, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Making the Breastplate

8 [a]And he made the breastplate, artistically woven like the workmanship of the ephod, of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet thread, and of fine woven linen.
9 They made the breastplate square by doubling it; a span was its length and a span its width when doubled.
10 [a]And they set in it four rows of stones: a row with a sardius, a topaz, and an emerald was the first row;
11 the second row, a turquoise, a sapphire, and a diamond;
12 the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;
13 the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper. They were enclosed in settings of gold in their mountings.
14 There were [a]twelve stones according to the names of the sons of Israel: according to their names, engraved like a signet, each one with its own name according to the twelve tribes.
15 And they made chains for the breastplate at the ends, like braided cords of pure gold.
16 They also made two settings of gold and two gold rings, and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate.
17 And they put the two braided chains of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breastplate.
18 The two ends of the two braided chains they fastened in the two settings, and put them on the shoulder straps of the ephod in the front.
19 And they made two rings of gold and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on the edge of it, which was on the inward side of the ephod.
20 They made two other gold rings and put them on the two shoulder straps, un-

21 And they bound the breastplate by means of its rings to the rings of the ephod with a blue cord, so that it would be above the intricately woven band of the ephod, and that the breastplate would not come loose from the ephod, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Making the Other Priestly Garments

22 [a]He made the [b]robe of the ephod of woven work, all of blue.
23 And there was an opening in the middle of the robe, like the opening in a coat of mail, with a woven binding all around the opening, so that it would not tear.
24 They made on the hem of the robe pomegranates of blue, purple, and scarlet, and of fine woven linen.
25 And they made [a]bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates on the hem of the robe all around between the pomegranates:
26 a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, all around the hem of the robe to [1]minister in, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
27 [a]They made tunics, artistically woven of fine linen, for Aaron and his sons,
28 [a]a turban of fine linen, exquisite hats of fine linen, [b]short trousers of fine woven linen,
29 [a]and a sash of fine woven linen with blue, purple, and scarlet thread, made by a weaver, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
30 [a]Then they made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and wrote on it an inscription like the engraving of a signet:

[b]HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

31 And they tied to it a blue cord, to fasten it above on the turban, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

The Work Completed

32 Thus all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting was [a]finished. And the children of Israel did [b]according to all that the LORD had commanded Moses; so they did.
33 And they brought the tabernacle to Moses, the tent and all its furnishings: its clasps, its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets;
34 the covering of ram skins dyed red, the covering of badger skins, and the veil of the covering;
35 the ark of the Testimony with its poles, and the mercy seat;
36 the table, all its utensils, and the [a]showbread;

41 and the [1]garments of ministry, to [2]minister in the holy place: the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and his sons' garments, to minister as priests.
42 According to all that the LORD had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel [a]did all the work.
43 Then Moses looked over all the work, and indeed they had done it; as the LORD had commanded, just so they had done it. And Moses [a]blessed them.

The Tabernacle Erected and Arranged

40 Then the LORD [a]spoke to Moses, saying:
2 "On the first day of the [a]first month you shall set up [b]the tabernacle of the tent of meeting.
3 [a]"You shall put in it the ark of the Testimony, and [1]partition off the ark with the veil.
4 [a]"You shall bring in the table and [b]arrange the things that are to be set in order on it; [c]and you shall bring in the lampstand and [1]light its lamps.
5 [a]"You shall also set the altar of gold for the incense before the ark of the Testimony, and put up the screen for the door of the tabernacle.
6 "Then you shall set the [a]altar of the burnt offering before the door of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting.
7 "And [a]you shall set the laver between the tabernacle of meeting and the altar, and put water in it.
8 "You shall set up the court all around, and hang up the screen at the court gate.

10 "You shall [a]anoint the altar of the burnt offering and all its utensils, and consecrate the altar. [b]The altar shall be most holy.
11 "And you shall anoint the laver and its base, and consecrate it.
12 [a]"Then you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the door of the tabernacle of meeting and wash them with water.
13 "You shall put the holy [a]garments on Aaron, [b]and anoint him and consecrate him, that he may minister to Me as priest.
14 "And you shall bring his sons and clothe them with tunics.
15 "You shall anoint them, as you anointed their father, that they may minister to Me as priests; for their anointing shall surely be [a]an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations."
16 Thus Moses did; according to all that the LORD had commanded him, so he did.
17 And it came to pass in the first month of the second year, on the first day of the month, that the [a]tabernacle was [1]raised up.
18 So Moses raised up the tabernacle, fastened its sockets, set up its boards, put in its bars, and raised up its pillars.
19 And he spread out the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering of the tent on top of it, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
20 He took [a]the Testimony and put it into the ark, inserted the poles through the rings of the ark, and put the mercy seat on top of the ark.
21 And he brought the ark into the tabernacle, [a]hung up the veil of the covering, and partitioned off the ark of the Testimony, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
22 [a]He put the table in the tabernacle of meeting, on the north side of the tabernacle, outside the veil;
23 [a]and he set the bread in order upon it before the LORD, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
24 [a]He put the lampstand in the tabernacle of meeting, across from the table, on the south side of the tabernacle;
25 and [a]he lit the lamps before the LORD, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
26 [a]He put the gold altar in the tabernacle of meeting in front of the veil;
27 [a]and he burned sweet incense on it, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
28 [a]He hung up the screen at the door of the tabernacle.
29 [a]And he put the altar of burnt offering before the door of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting, and [b]offered upon it the burnt offering and the grain offering, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
30 [a]He set the laver between the tabernacle of meeting and the altar, and put water there for washing;
31 and Moses, Aaron, and his sons would [a]wash their hands and their feet with water from it.
32 Whenever they went into the tabernacle of meeting, and when they came near the altar, they washed, [a]as the LORD had commanded Moses.
33 [a]And he raised up the court all around the tabernacle and the altar, and hung up the screen of the court gate. So Moses [b]finished the work.

The Cloud and the Glory

34 [a]Then the [b]cloud covered the tabernacle of meeting, and the [c]glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

Rewards for Obedience

When God's people obey Him wholeheartedly, the rewards are immeasurable. He is not satisfied with simply giving His people possessions. God Himself comes in glory, and His presence is the unmistakable evidence of His pleasure.

35 And Moses [a]was not able to enter the tabernacle of meeting, because the cloud rested above it, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.
36 [a]Whenever the cloud was taken up from above the tabernacle, the children of Israel would [1]go onward in all their journeys.
37 But [a]if the cloud was not taken up, then they did not journey till the day that it was taken up.
38 For [a]the cloud of the LORD was above the tabernacle by day, and fire was over it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.

THE THIRD BOOK OF MOSES CALLED

LEVITICUS

INTRODUCTION

The title of the book is a reflection of its content. It primarily discusses priestly matters, and the priests were drawn from the tribe of Levi. The Hebrew title was taken from the first word of the text translated "and he called." This is relevant since the book relates that the Lord summoned Moses to give him instructions for the priests and for Israel as a whole. It would be a mistake, however, to simply consider Leviticus a manual for the priesthood, since much of the instruction also explains the role of laity in worship.

SIGNIFICANCE

The previous book, Exodus, concluded with the building of the tabernacle and God's glorious appearance as a sign He would accompany the children of Israel wherever they went (Ex. 40:34–38). However, along with the tabernacle's construction came the need for services and ministers as the people worshiped God. Leviticus provided guidelines for the priests to minister to God and to the people, as well as rules for the Israelites to live by as God's chosen, holy people.

STRUCTURE

The book can be divided into two parts. The first section (1:1—16:34) outlines Israel's priestly responsibilities. The laws presented were to help the people stay pure and in turn remain in God's presence. The first section can be broken down further: Chapters 1–7 present different types of acceptable sacrifices; chapters 8–10 describe Aaron's ordination and the establishment of the priesthood; and chapters 11–16 prescribe occasions when the people were to offer sacrifices. In the Sinai covenant, Israel was called to become "a kingdom of priests and a holy nation" (Ex. 19:6). Therefore, the second section (17:1—27:34) addresses the need for national sanctity and outlines the laws and punishments mandated to maintain this holiness.

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH LEVITICUS

This book contains numerous teachings that are relevant to Christians today. The central message is God's holiness and His desire for His people to be holy (Lev. 11:44; 19:2; 20:26). In the New Testament, Peter exhorts Christians to adopt the motto of Leviticus: "Be holy, for I am holy" (1 Pet. 1:16). While Christ's death superseded animal sacrifices, Leviticus reveals the gravity of encountering a holy God. As you read its emphasis on purity, holiness, and cleansing, you should become keenly aware of the importance of your attitude in worship. Entering into God's presence requires the careful preparation of your heart. The sacrificial system described enlightens us regarding the vastness of God's grace as He provided for our sin: "Without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins" (Heb. 9:22). An understanding of the stringent requirement for atonement in the Old Testament will produce a greater appreciation for Christ's death and resurrection.

Leviticus lays down rigorous guidelines for how God's people should relate to each other. When Jesus declared the second greatest commandment as "love your neighbor as yourself" (Mark 12:31), he was quoting from Leviticus 19:18. There is also present an underlying theme that God's people should care for the weaker members of society, including the poor, the orphan, the widow, and the immigrant. While specific laws presented may not be applicable today, the principles set forth should challenge and influence the way we relate to others.

The Burnt Offering

NOW the LORD [a]called to Moses, and spoke to him [b]from the tabernacle of meeting, saying,

God summons His people to give them instruction. Expect God to call you to a "place of meeting" so He can teach you and those around you to walk with Him.

2 "Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: [a]'When any one of you brings an offering to the LORD, you shall bring your offering of the livestock—of the herd and of the flock.
3 'If his offering is a burnt sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male [a]without blemish; he shall offer it of his own free will at the door of the tabernacle of meeting before the LORD.
4 [a]'Then he shall put his hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it will be [b]accepted on his behalf [c]to make atonement for him.
5 'He shall kill the [a]bull before the LORD; [b]and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall bring the blood [c]and sprinkle the blood all around on the altar that is by the door of the tabernacle of meeting.
6 'And he shall [a]skin the burnt offering and cut it into its pieces.
7 'The sons of Aaron the priest shall put [a]fire on the altar, and [b]lay the wood in order on the fire.
8 'Then the priests, Aaron's sons, shall lay the parts, the head, and the fat in order on the wood that is on the fire upon the altar;
9 'but he shall wash its entrails and its legs with water. And the priest shall burn all on the altar as a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, a [a]sweet[1] aroma to the LORD.
10 'If his offering is of the flocks—of the sheep or of the goats—as a burnt sacrifice, he shall bring a male [a]without blemish.
11 [a]'He shall kill it on the north side of the altar before the LORD; and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall sprinkle its blood all around on the altar.
12 'And he shall cut it into its pieces, with its head and its fat; and the priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire upon the altar;
13 'but he shall wash the entrails and the legs with water. Then the priest shall bring it all and burn it on the altar; it is a burnt sacrifice, an [a]offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.
14 'And if the burnt sacrifice of his offering to the LORD is of birds, then he shall bring his offering of [a]turtledoves or young pigeons.
15 'The priest shall bring it to the altar, [1]wring off its head, and burn it on the altar; its blood shall be drained out at the side of the altar.
16 'And he shall remove its crop with its feathers and cast it [a]beside the altar on the east side, into the place for ashes.
17 'Then he shall split it at its wings, but [a]shall not divide it completely; and the priest shall burn it on the altar, on the wood that is on the fire. [b]It is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, a [1]sweet aroma to the LORD.

The Grain Offering

2 'When anyone offers [a]a grain offering to the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour. And he shall pour oil on it, and put [b]frankincense on it.
2 'He shall bring it to Aaron's sons, the priests, one of whom shall take from it his handful of fine flour and oil with all the frankincense. And the priest shall burn [a]it as a memorial on the altar, an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.
3 [a]'The rest of the grain offering shall be Aaron's and his [b]sons'. [c]It is most holy of the offerings to the LORD made by fire.

All on the Altar

When we truly surrender ourselves to the Lord, we lay "all on the altar" and hold nothing back.

1:1 The tabernacle was also called the "tabernacle of meeting" or "tent of meeting," reminding the Israelites that God met there with Moses.

1:2 In Old Testament times meat was a rare luxury for everyone but the rich. Offering an entire animal to be consumed by fire was a costly and deeply meaningful sacrifice to the average Israelite.

1:3 Burnt offerings were the most common sacrifices, presented every morning and evening. They were the only offerings entirely consumed on the altar.

1:9 The offerings were a "sweet aroma" to God. Unlike what is usual in other religions, God is never portrayed as eating the food sacrificed to Him.

2:1 The grain offering was coarsely ground barley or wheat. "Fine flour" came from the best grain and was free from impurities.

2:2 Frankincense was a costly incense made in South Arabia and East Africa. Burning it with the offering on the altar would have produced a "sweet aroma." See the New Testament reflection of this passage in Ephesians 5:2.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Lev. 2:2

Sweet Aroma

A pure sacrifice is pleasing and honoring to God. Just as Christ surrendered His life to please His Father, so too must we offer ourselves as a sweet aroma to our Lord.

The tabernacle was to provide a place where God might dwell among His people. The term tabernacle sometimes refers to the tent, including the holy place and the Most Holy Place, which was covered with embroidered curtains. But in other places it refers to the entire complex, including the curtained court in which the tent stood.

This illustration shows the relative positions of the tabernacle furniture used in Israelite worship. The tabernacle is enlarged for clarity.

shall not allow [b]the salt of the covenant of your God to be lacking from your grain offering. [c]With all your offerings you shall offer salt.

7 'If he offers a [a]lamb as his offering, then he shall [b]offer it [c]before the LORD.
8 'And he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering, and kill it before the tabernacle of meeting; and Aaron's sons shall sprinkle its blood all around on the altar.
9 'Then he shall offer from the sacrifice of the peace offering, as an offering made by fire to the LORD, its fat and the whole fat tail which he shall remove close to the backbone. And the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails,
10 'the two kidneys and the fat that is on them by the flanks, and the fatty lobe attached to the liver above the kidneys, he shall remove;
11 'and the priest shall burn them on the altar as [a]food, an offering made by fire to the LORD.
12 'And if his [a]offering is a goat, then [b]he shall offer it before the LORD.
13 'He shall lay his hand on its head and kill it before the tabernacle of meeting; and the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle its blood all around on the altar.

Death

Never treat your sin casually or flippantly. Sin is no laughing matter; it is enormously costly. God takes all sin seriously as should we.

3:1 The peace offering was an optional sacrifice, taking one of three forms: a thanksgiving offering, a free-will offering, or an offering to fulfill a vow (Lev. 7:11–18).

3:2 With the exception of birds, worshippers laid their hand on the sacrifice to symbolize two things: First, to identify with the sacrifice, and second, to transfer their sin to the sacrifice.

3:3 The fat represented the choicest part of the animal and was reserved for the Lord.

3:8 The laying on of hands generally represented the confession of sins. The priests would lay hands on the sacrificial animal to symbolize that the animal's death was for the sins of others.

Bringing to Mind

The Holy Spirit's role in our lives is to make us aware of our sin, even unintentional sin. This new awareness is a positive thing—a gift—as it brings with it the opportunity to be made right with God.

34 'The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour all the remaining blood at the base of the altar.
35 'He shall remove all its fat, as the fat of the lamb is removed from the sacrifice of the peace offering. Then the priest shall burn it on the altar, [a]according to the offerings made by fire to the LORD. [b]So the priest shall make atonement for his sin that he has committed, and it shall be forgiven him.

The Trespass Offering

5 'If a person sins in [a]hearing the utterance of an oath, and is a witness, whether he has seen or known of the matter—if he does not tell it, he [b]bears [1]guilt.
2 'Or [a]if a person touches any unclean thing, whether it is the carcass of an unclean beast, or the carcass of unclean livestock, or the carcass of unclean creeping things, and he is unaware of it, he also shall be unclean and [b]guilty.
3 'Or if he touches [a]human uncleanness—whatever uncleanness with which a man may be defiled, and he is unaware of it—when he realizes it, then he shall be guilty.
4 'Or if a person [1]swears, speaking thoughtlessly with his lips [a]to do evil or [b]to do good, whatever it is that a man may pronounce by an oath, and he is unaware of it—when he realizes it, then he shall be guilty in any of these matters.
5 'And it shall be, when he is guilty in any of these matters, that he shall [a]confess that he has sinned in that thing;
6 'and he shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD for his sin which he has committed, a female from the flock, a lamb or a kid of the goats as a sin offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin.
7 [a]'If he is not able to bring a lamb, then he shall bring to the LORD, for his trespass which he has committed, two [b]turtledoves or two young pigeons: one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering.
8 'And he shall bring them to the priest, who shall offer that which is for the sin offering first, and [a]wring off its head from its neck, but shall not divide it [1]completely.
9 'Then he shall sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar, and the [a]rest of the blood shall be drained out at the base of the altar. It is a sin offering.
10 'And he shall offer the second as a burnt offering according to the [a]prescribed manner. So [b]the priest shall make atonement on his behalf for his sin which he has committed, and it shall be forgiven him.
11 'But if he is [a]not able to bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons, then he who sinned shall bring for his offering one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour as a sin offering. [b]He shall put no oil on it, nor shall he put frankincense on it, for it is a sin offering.
12 'Then he shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it [a]as a memorial portion, and burn it on the altar [b]according to the offerings made by fire to the LORD. It is a sin offering.
13 [a]'The priest shall make atonement for him, [1]for his sin that he has committed in any of these matters; and it shall be forgiven him. [b]The rest shall be the priest's as a grain offering.' "

5:5 It was not enough merely to offer a sacrifice for one's sin, confession was also required.

Offerings with Restitution

14 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
15 [a]"If a person commits a trespass, and sins unintentionally in regard to the holy things of the LORD, then [b]he shall bring to the LORD as his trespass offering a ram without blemish from the flocks, with your valuation in shekels of silver according to [c]the shekel of the sanctuary, as a trespass offering.
16 "And he shall make restitution for the harm that he has done in regard to the holy thing, [a]and shall add one-fifth to it and give it to the priest. [b]So the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering, and it shall be forgiven him.
17 "If a person sins, and commits any of these things which are forbidden to be done by the commandments of the LORD, [a]though he does not know it, yet he is [b]guilty and shall bear his [1]iniquity.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Lev. 5:17

Accountable to God

We cannot escape accountability for our actions, whether our sin is intentional or unintentional. We may not be aware of every sin we have committed; but we have all sinned, and we will all be held accountable.

18 [a]"And he shall bring to the priest a ram without blemish from the flock, with your valuation, as a trespass offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him regarding his ignorance in which he erred and did not know it, and it shall be forgiven him.
19 "It is a trespass offering; [a]he has certainly trespassed against the LORD."

6 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
2 "If a person sins and [a]commits a trespass against the LORD by [b]lying[1] to his neighbor about [c]what was delivered to him for safekeeping, or about [2]a pledge, or about a robbery, or if he has [d]extorted from his neighbor,
3 "or if he [a]has found what was lost and lies concerning it, and [b]swears falsely—in any one of these things that a man may do in which he sins:
4 "then it shall be, because he has sinned and is guilty, that he shall [1]restore [a]what he has stolen, or the thing which he has extorted, or what was delivered to him for safekeeping, or the lost thing which he found,
5 "or all that about which he has sworn falsely. He shall [a]restore its full value, add one-fifth more to it, and give it to whomever it belongs, on the day of his trespass offering.
6 "And he shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD, [a]a ram without blemish from the flock, with your [1]valuation, as a trespass offering, to the priest.
7 [a]"So the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD, and he shall be forgiven for any one of these things that he may have done in which he trespasses."

The Law of the Burnt Offering

8 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
9 "Command Aaron and his sons, saying, 'This is the [a]law of the burnt offering: The burnt offering shall be on the hearth upon the altar all night until morning, and the fire of the altar shall be kept burning on it.
10 [a]'And the priest shall put on his linen garment, and his linen trousers he shall put on his body, and take up the ashes of the burnt offering which the fire has consumed on the altar, and he shall put them [b]beside the altar.
11 'Then [a]he shall take off his garments, put on other garments, and carry the ashes outside the camp [b]to a clean place.
12 'And the fire on the altar shall be kept burning on it; it shall not be put out. And the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt offering in order on it; and he shall burn on it [a]the fat of the peace offerings.
13 'A fire shall always be burning on the [a]altar; it shall never go out.

The Law of the Grain Offering

14 'This is the law of the grain offering: The sons of Aaron shall offer it on the altar before the LORD.

5:15 The shekel of the sanctuary was slightly heavier than the ordinary shekel. The normal shekel was about eleven and one half grams. The temple shekel weighed a gram more than that.

5:16 Restitution was made first, to demonstrate true repentance, before the priest offered a sacrifice.

6:1 Leviticus makes it clear that a sin against a neighbor is a sin against God.

6:5 Restitution and a fine of one fifth demonstrated genuine remorse. Zacchaeus recognized this and gave back fourfold (Luke 19:8).

6:10 The linen garment and linen trousers were special priestly attire worn only in the tabernacle (Ex. 28:40–43; Lev. 16:4).

6:12 Five times in this chapter the priests are commanded to keep the altar fire going. This may have been because God originally began the fire (Lev. 9:24), or to symbolize perpetual worship of God, or to indicate that mankind was in constant need of atonement.

ENCOUNTER Note Lev. 6:13

Constant Reminder

Even today, figuratively, the fire on God's altar is always burning. The provision for forgiveness of sin and restoration with God is constantly available to those who seek it.

the fine flour of the grain offering, with its oil, and all the frankincense which is on the grain offering, and shall burn it on the altar for a sweet aroma, as a memorial to the LORD.
16 'And the remainder of it Aaron and his sons shall eat; with unleavened bread it shall be eaten in a holy place; in the court of the tabernacle of meeting they shall eat it.
17 'It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it as their [1]portion of My offerings made by fire; it is most holy, like the sin offering and the [a]trespass offering.
18 [a]'All the males among the children of Aaron may eat it. [b]It shall be a statute forever in your generations concerning the offerings made by fire to the LORD. [c]Everyone who touches them must be holy.' "
19 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
20 [a]"This is the offering of Aaron and his sons, which they shall offer to the LORD, beginning on the day when he is anointed: one-tenth of an [b]ephah of fine flour as a daily grain offering, half of it in the morning and half of it at night.
21 "It shall be made in a [a]pan with oil. When it is mixed, you shall bring it in. The baked pieces of the grain offering you shall offer for a [1]sweet aroma to the LORD.
22 "The priest from among his sons, [a]who is anointed in his place, shall offer it. It is a statute forever to the LORD. [b]It shall be [1]wholly burned.
23 "For every grain offering for the priest shall be wholly burned. It shall not be eaten."

The Law of the Sin Offering

24 Also the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
25 "Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, 'This is the law of the sin offering: [a]In the place where the burnt offering is killed, the sin offering shall be killed before the LORD. It is most holy.
26 [a]'The priest who offers it for sin shall eat it. In a holy place it shall be eaten, in the court of the tabernacle of meeting.
27 [a]'Everyone who touches its flesh [1]must be holy. And when its blood is sprinkled on any garment, you shall wash that on which it was sprinkled, in a holy place.
28 'But the earthen vessel in which it is boiled [a]shall be broken. And if it is boiled in a bronze pot, it shall be both scoured and rinsed in water.
29 'All the males among the priests may eat it. It is most holy.
30 [a]'But no sin offering from which any of the blood is brought into the tabernacle of meeting, to make atonement in [1]the holy [b]place, shall be [c]eaten. It shall be [d]burned in the fire.

The Law of the Trespass Offering

7 'Likewise [a]this is the law of the trespass offering (it is most holy):
2 'In the place where they kill the burnt offering they shall kill the trespass offering. And its blood he shall sprinkle all around on the altar.
3 'And he shall offer from it all its fat. The fat tail and the fat that covers the entrails,
4 'the two kidneys and the fat that is on them by the flanks, and the fatty lobe attached to the liver above the kidneys, he shall remove;
5 'and the priest shall burn them on the altar as an offering made by fire to the LORD. It is a trespass offering.
6 [a]'Every male among the priests may eat it. It shall be eaten in a holy place. [b]It is most holy.
7 [a]'The trespass offering is like the sin offering; there is one law for them both: the priest who makes atonement with it shall have it.
8 'And the priest who offers anyone's burnt offering, that priest shall have for himself the skin of the burnt offering which he has offered.
9 'Also [a]every grain offering that is baked in the oven and all that is prepared in the covered pan, or [1]in a pan, shall be the priest's who offers it.

The Law of Peace Offerings

11 [a]‘This is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings which he shall offer to the LORD:
12 ‘If he offers it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer, with the sacrifice of thanksgiving, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, unleavened wafers [a]anointed with oil, or cakes of blended flour mixed with oil.

ENCOUNTER Note Lev. 7:12

Tangible Thanksgiving

Genuine thanksgiving will find expression in practical, tangible ways. A grateful heart seeks ways to demonstrate its thankfulness.

13 ‘Besides the cakes, as his offering he shall offer [a]leavened bread with the sacrifice of thanksgiving of his peace offering.
14 ‘And from it he shall offer one cake from each offering as a heave offering to the LORD. [a]It shall belong to the priest who sprinkles the blood of the peace offering.
15 [a]‘The flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offering for thanksgiving shall be eaten the same day it is offered. He shall not leave any of it until morning.
16 ‘But [a]if the sacrifice of his offering is a vow or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offers his sacrifice; but on the next day the remainder of it also may be eaten;
17 ‘the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day must be burned with fire.
18 ‘And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offering is eaten at all on the third day, it shall not be accepted, nor shall it be [a]imputed to him; it shall be an [b]abomination to him who offers it, and the person who eats of it shall bear [1]guilt.
19 ‘The flesh that touches any unclean thing shall not be eaten. It shall be burned with fire. And as for the clean flesh, all who are [1]clean may eat of it.
20 ‘But the person who eats the flesh of the sacrifice of the peace offering that belongs to the [a]LORD, [b]while he is unclean, that person [c]shall be cut off from his people.

Fat and Blood May Not Be Eaten

22 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
23 “Speak to the children of Israel, saying: [a]‘You shall not eat any fat, of ox or sheep or goat.
24 ‘And the fat of an animal that dies naturally, and the fat of what is torn by wild beasts, may be used in any other way; but you shall by no means eat it.
25 ‘For whoever eats the fat of the animal of which men offer an offering made by fire to the LORD, the person who eats it shall be cut off from his people.
26 [a]‘Moreover you shall not eat any blood in any of your dwellings, whether of bird or beast.
27 ‘Whoever eats any blood, that person shall be cut off from his people.’ ”

The Portion of Aaron and His Sons

28 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
29 “Speak to the children of Israel, saying: [a]‘He who offers the sacrifice of his peace offering to the LORD shall bring his offering to the LORD from the sacrifice of his peace offering.
30 [a]‘His own hands shall bring the offerings made by fire to the LORD. The fat with the breast he shall bring, that the [b]breast may be waved as a wave offering before the LORD.
31 [a]‘And the priest shall burn the fat on the altar, but the [b]breast shall be Aaron’s and his sons’.
32 [a]‘Also the right thigh you shall give to the priest as a heave offering from the sacrifices of your peace offerings.
33 ‘He among the sons of Aaron, who offers the blood of the peace offering and the fat, shall have the right thigh for his part.
34 ‘For [a]the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the heave offering I have taken from the children of Israel, from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and I have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons from the children of Israel by a statute forever.’ ”

7:11 This offering was the only one that could be shared with others after it was offered to God.

7:18 Sacrificial meat uneaten after two days would no longer have any merit for the worshipper. Left unrefrigerated, it would also have rotted.

7:30 No one could worship by proxy. All worship of God and repentance of sin had to be made by the individual.

35 This is the consecrated portion for Aaron and his sons, from the offerings made by fire to the LORD, on the day when Moses presented them to [1]minister to the LORD as priests.
36 The LORD commanded this to be given to them by the children of Israel, [a]on the day that He anointed them, by a statute forever throughout their generations.
37 This is the law [a]of the burnt offering, [b]the grain offering, [c]the sin offering, [d]the trespass offering, [e]the consecrations, and [f]the sacrifice of the peace offering,
38 which the LORD commanded Moses on Mount Sinai, on the day when He commanded the children of Israel [a]to offer their offerings to the LORD in the Wilderness of Sinai.

Aaron and His Sons Consecrated

8 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
2 [a]"Take Aaron and his sons with him, and [b]the garments, [c]the anointing oil, a [d]bull as the sin offering, two [e]rams, and a basket of unleavened bread;
3 "and gather all the congregation together at the door of the tabernacle of meeting."
4 So Moses did as the LORD commanded him. And the congregation was gathered together at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.
5 And Moses said to the congregation, "This is what the LORD commanded to be done."
6 Then Moses brought Aaron and his sons and [a]washed them with water.
7 And he [a]put the tunic on him, girded him with the sash, clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod on him; and he girded him with the intricately woven band of the ephod, and with it tied the ephod on him.
8 Then he put the breastplate on him, and he [a]put the [1]Urim and the Thummim in the breastplate.
9 [a]And he put the turban on his head. Also on the turban, on its front, he put the golden plate, the holy crown, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
10 [a]Also Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all that was in it, and consecrated them.
11 He sprinkled some of it on the altar seven times, anointed the altar and all its utensils, and the laver and its base, to [1]consecrate them.
12 And he [a]poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head and anointed him, to consecrate him.
13 [a]Then Moses brought Aaron's sons and put tunics on them, girded them with sashes, and put [1]hats on them, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
14 [a]And he brought the bull for the sin offering. Then Aaron and his sons [b]laid their hands on the head of the bull for the sin offering,
15 and Moses killed it. [a]Then he took the blood, and put some on the horns of the altar all around with his finger, and purified the altar. And he poured the blood at the base of the altar, and consecrated it, to make [1]atonement for it.
16 [a]Then he took all the fat that was on the entrails, the fatty lobe attached to the liver, and the two kidneys with their fat, and Moses burned them on the altar.
17 But the bull, its hide, its flesh, and its offal, he burned with fire outside the camp, as the LORD [a]had commanded Moses.
18 [a]Then he brought the ram as the burnt offering. And Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram, 19 and Moses killed it. Then he sprinkled the blood all around on the altar.
20 And he cut the ram into pieces; and Moses [a]burned the head, the pieces, and the fat.
21 Then he washed the entrails and the legs in water. And Moses burned the whole ram on the altar. It was a burnt sacrifice for a [1]sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD, [a]as the LORD had commanded Moses.
22 And [a]he brought the second ram, the ram of consecration. Then Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram,
23 and Moses killed it. Also he took some of [a]its blood and put it on the tip of Aaron's right ear, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.
24 Then he brought Aaron's sons. And Moses put some of the [a]blood on the tips of their right ears, on the thumbs of their right hands, and on the big toes of their right feet. And Moses sprinkled the blood all around on the altar.

23 [a]Lev. 14:14
24 [a][Heb. 9:13, 14, 18–23]

8:2 The anointing oil was made from myrrh, cinnamon, cane, cassia and olive oil (Ex. 30:23–25).

8:7 The description of the priestly dress is found in Exodus 28.

8:8 The Urim and Thummim were sacred lots used by the high priest to determine God's will.

8:11 Sprinkling the altar seven times represented a total consecration.

8:13 The priests were set apart but not anointed. Only the high priest was anointed.

8:23 It is unclear why blood was applied to Aaron's ear, thumb, and toe. It may have been to symbolize a complete covering, as these represented Aaron's extremities.

25 [a]Then he took the fat and the fat tail, all the fat that was on the entrails, the fatty lobe attached to the liver, the two kidneys and their fat, and the right thigh;
26 [a]and from the basket of unleavened bread that was before the LORD he took one unleavened cake, a cake of bread anointed with oil, and one wafer, and put them on the fat and on the right thigh;
27 and he put all these [a]in Aaron's hands and in his sons' hands, and waved them as a wave offering before the LORD.
28 [a]Then Moses took them from their hands and burned them on the altar, on the burnt offering. They were consecration offerings for a sweet aroma. That was an offering made by fire to the LORD.
29 And [a]Moses took the [b]breast and waved it as a wave offering before the LORD. It was Moses' [c]part of the ram of consecration, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
30 Then [a]Moses took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood which was on the altar, and sprinkled it on Aaron, on his garments, on his sons, and on the garments of his sons with him; and he consecrated Aaron, his garments, his sons, and the garments of his sons with him.
31 And Moses said to Aaron and his sons, [a]"Boil the flesh at the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and eat it there with the bread that is in the basket of consecration offerings, as I commanded, saying, 'Aaron and his sons shall eat it.'
32 [a]"What remains of the flesh and of the bread you shall burn with fire.
33 "And you shall not go outside the door of the tabernacle of meeting for seven days, until the days of your consecration are ended. For [a]seven days he shall consecrate you.
34 [a]"As he has done this day, so the LORD has commanded to do, to make atonement for you.
35 "Therefore you shall stay at the door of the tabernacle of meeting day and night for seven days, and [a]keep the [1]charge of the LORD, so that you may not die; for so I have been commanded."
36 So Aaron and his sons did all the things that the LORD had commanded by the hand of Moses.

All the Things

Can you be described as one who "does all the things the Lord commands"?

The Priestly Ministry Begins

9 It came to pass on the [a]eighth day that Moses called Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel.
2 And he said to Aaron, "Take for yourself a young [a]bull as a sin offering and a ram as a burnt offering, without blemish, and offer them before the LORD.
3 "And to the children of Israel you shall speak, saying, [a]'Take a kid of the goats as a sin offering, and a calf and a lamb, both of the first year, without blemish, as a burnt offering,
4 'also a bull and a ram as peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD, and [a]a grain offering mixed with oil; for [b]today the LORD will appear to you.' "
5 So they brought what Moses commanded before the tabernacle of meeting. And all the congregation drew near and stood [1]before the LORD.
6 Then Moses said, "This is the thing which the LORD commanded you to do, and the glory of the LORD will appear to you."
7 And Moses said to Aaron, "Go to the altar, [a]offer your sin offering and your burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself and for the people. [b]Offer the

HISTORICAL*Encounter* CHARLES WESLEY Lev. 8:35

Charles Wesley, along with his brother John, founded Methodism. Early Methodists faced unrelenting persecution from unbelievers and even from other members of the Church of England. So fierce was their suffering at times that John Wesley claimed, "Our people die well." Charles wrote over 6,500 hymns to encourage believers to stand fast in their faith. Sixteen of those hymns were inspired by passages in Leviticus.

While studying Matthew Henry's commentary on Leviticus, Charles Wesley considered Leviticus 8:35. He noted: "We shall everyone of us have a charge to keep, an eternal God to glorify, an immortal soul to provide for, one generation to serve." Wesley was inspired to write the hymn "A Charge to Keep I Have," which has been beloved by generations of Christians.

9:2 A young bull was the prescribed offering for the high priest (Lev. 4:3).

offering of the people, and make atonement for them, as the LORD commanded."
8 Aaron therefore went to the altar and killed the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself.
9 Then the sons of Aaron brought the blood to him. And he dipped his finger in the blood, put it on the horns of the altar, and poured the blood at the base of the altar.
10 [a]But the fat, the kidneys, and the fatty lobe from the liver of the sin offering he burned on the altar, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
11 [a]The flesh and the hide he burned with fire outside the camp.
12 And he killed the burnt offering; and Aaron's sons presented to him the blood, [a]which he sprinkled all around on the altar.
13 [a]Then they presented the burnt offering to him, with its pieces and head, and he burned them on the altar.
14 [a]And he washed the entrails and the legs, and burned them with the burnt offering on the altar.
15 [a]Then he brought the people's offering, and took the goat, which was the sin offering for the people, and killed it and offered it for sin, like the first one.
16 And he brought the burnt offering and offered it [a]according to the [1]prescribed manner.
17 Then he brought the grain offering, took a handful of it, and burned it on the altar, [a]besides the burnt sacrifice of the morning.
18 He also killed the bull and the ram as [a]sacrifices of peace offerings, which were for the people. And Aaron's sons presented to him the blood, which he sprinkled all around on the altar,
19 and the fat from the bull and the ram—the fatty tail, what covers the entrails and the kidneys, and the fatty lobe attached to the liver;
20 and they put the fat on the breasts. [a]Then he burned the fat on the altar;
21 but the breasts and the right thigh Aaron waved [a]as a wave offering before the LORD, as Moses had commanded.
22 Then Aaron lifted his hand toward the people, [a]blessed them, and came down from offering the sin offering, the burnt offering, and peace offerings.

Blessing Others

We are best prepared to bless others after we have been in God's presence. People do not need a word from us; they need a word from God.

The Profane Fire of Nadab and Abihu

10 Then [a]Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, [b]each took his censer and put fire in it, put incense on it, and offered [c]profane fire before the LORD, which He had not commanded them.
2 So [a]fire went out from the LORD and devoured them, and they died before the LORD.
3 And Moses said to Aaron, "This is what the LORD spoke, saying:

'By those [a]who come near Me
I must be regarded as holy;
And before all the people
I must be glorified.' "

So Aaron held his peace.

ENCOUNTER Note Lev. 10:3

Regarding God as Holy

God is not a needy supplicant for our affection. Our careless and casual attention is unacceptable to Him. Worship accompanied by obedience is the honor God expects.

4 Then Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said to them, "Come near, [a]carry your brethren from [1]before the sanctuary out of the camp."
5 So they went near and carried them by their tunics out of the camp, as Moses had said.

9:8 Aaron's first sacrifice was to a golden calf he made at the people's request (Ex. 32). Now as God's anointed priest, his first sacrifice was a calf as an offering for his own sin.

9:22 The ultimate responsibility of priests was to bless the people. But first they had to atone for their own sins (Deut. 10:8). The altar was seven and a half feet square and four and a half feet tall. The priest had to ascend a ramp to offer sacrifices on the altar.

9:24 This is the first of five times God sent fire to demonstrate the people's sacrifice was acceptable (see Judg. 6:21; 1 Kin. 18:38; 1 Chr. 21:26; 2 Chr. 7:1).

10:1 Nadab and Abihu were Aaron's two oldest sons (Ex. 6:23; 24:1, 2; 28:1; Num 3:2–4, 26:60, 1 Chr. 6:3).

10:2 Fire from heaven could bring good (Lev. 9:24, Judg. 6:21; 13:20; 1 Kin. 18:38; 1 Chr. 21:26; 2 Chr. 7:2), or it could bring judgment (Lev. 10:1; Num. 11:1; 16:35; 2 Kin. 1:10, 12; Job 1:16).

6 And Moses said to Aaron, and to Eleazar and Ithamar, his sons, "Do not [1]uncover your heads nor tear your clothes, lest you die, and [a]wrath come upon all the people. But let your brethren, the whole house of Israel, [2]bewail the burning which the LORD has kindled.
7 [a]"You shall not go out from the door of the tabernacle of meeting, lest you die, [b]for the anointing oil of the LORD is upon you." And they did according to the word of Moses.

Conduct Prescribed for Priests

8 Then the LORD spoke to Aaron, saying:
9 [a]"Do not drink wine or intoxicating drink, you, nor your sons with you, when you go into the tabernacle of meeting, lest you die. It shall be a statute forever throughout your generations,
10 "that you may [a]distinguish between holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean,
11 [a]"and that you may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the LORD has spoken to them by the hand of Moses."
12 And Moses spoke to Aaron, and to Eleazar and Ithamar, his sons who were left: [a]"Take the grain offering that remains of the offerings made by fire to the LORD, and eat it without leaven beside the altar; [b]for it is most holy.
13 "You shall eat it in a [a]holy place, because it is your [1]due and your sons' due, of the sacrifices made by fire to the LORD; for [b]so I have been commanded.
14 [a]"The breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the heave offering you shall eat in a clean place, you, your sons, and your [b]daughters with you; for they are your due and your sons' [c]due, which are given from the sacrifices of peace offerings of the children of Israel.
15 [a]"The thigh of the heave offering and the breast of the wave offering they shall bring with the offerings of fat made by fire, to offer as a wave offering before the LORD. And it shall be yours and your sons' with you, by a statute forever, as the LORD has commanded."
16 Then Moses made careful inquiry about [a]the goat of the sin offering, and there it was—burned up. And he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron who were left, saying,
17 [a]"Why have you not eaten the sin offering in a holy place, since it is most holy, and God has given it to you to bear [b]the guilt of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD?
18 "See! [a]Its blood was not brought inside [1]the holy place; indeed you should have eaten it in a holy place, [b]as I commanded."
19 And Aaron said to Moses, "Look, [a]this day they have offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD, and such things have befallen me! If I had eaten the sin offering today, [b]would it have been accepted in the sight of the LORD?"
20 So when Moses heard that, he was content.

Foods Permitted and Forbidden

11 Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying to them,
2 "Speak to the children of Israel, saying, [a]'These are the animals which you may eat among all the animals that are on the earth:
3 'Among the animals, whatever divides the hoof, having cloven hooves and chewing the cud—that you may eat.
4 'Nevertheless these you shall [a]not eat among those that chew the cud or those that have cloven hooves: the camel, because it chews the cud but does not have cloven hooves, is [1]unclean to you;
5 'the [1]rock hyrax, because it chews the cud but does not have cloven hooves, is [2]unclean to you;
6 'the hare, because it chews the cud but does not have cloven hooves, is unclean to you;
7 'and the swine, though it divides the hoof, having cloven hooves, yet does not chew the cud, [a]is unclean to you.
8 'Their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch. [a]They are unclean to you.
9 [a]'These you may eat of all that are in the water: whatever in the water has fins and scales, whether in the seas or in the rivers—that you may eat.
10 'But all in the seas or in the rivers that do not have fins and scales, all that move in the water or any living thing which is in the water, they are [1]an [a]abomination to you.

10:14 Concerning the priest's portion of the heave offering, see Leviticus 7:32, 33.

11:2 See Deuteronomy 14 for abbreviated dietary laws.

11:3 Most of the Israelites' meat came from cattle, sheep and goats. Meat was generally considered a luxury and only eaten on special occasions.

11:5 The rock hyrax lives in colonies among the rocks (Prov. 30:26).

11:10 "Abomination" was a much stronger term than "unclean." An "unclean" object was to be avoided. An "abomination" was to be detested.

11 'They shall be an abomination to you; you shall not eat their flesh, but you shall regard their carcasses as an abomination.
12 'Whatever in the water does not have fins or scales—that shall be an abomination to you.
13 [a]'And these you shall regard as an abomination among the birds; they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination: the eagle, the vulture, the buzzard,
14 'the kite, and the falcon after its kind;
15 'every raven after its kind,
16 'the ostrich, the short-eared owl, the sea gull, and the hawk after its kind;
17 'the little owl, the fisher owl, and the screech owl;
18 'the white owl, the jackdaw, and the carrion vulture;
19 'the stork, the heron after its kind, the hoopoe, and the bat.
20 'All flying insects that creep on all fours shall be an abomination to you.
21 'Yet these you may eat of every flying insect that creeps on all fours: those which have jointed legs above their feet with which to leap on the earth.
22 'These you may eat: [a]the locust after its kind, the destroying locust after its kind, the cricket after its kind, and the grasshopper after its kind.
23 'But all other flying insects which have four feet shall be an abomination to you.

Unclean Animals

24 'By these you shall become [1]unclean; whoever touches the carcass of any of them shall be unclean until evening;
25 'whoever carries part of the carcass of any of them [a]shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening:
26 'The carcass of any animal which divides the foot, but is not cloven-hoofed or does not chew the cud, is unclean to you. Everyone who touches it shall be unclean.
27 'And whatever goes on its paws, among all kinds of animals that go on all fours, those are unclean to you. Whoever touches any such carcass shall be unclean until evening.
28 'Whoever carries any such carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening. It is unclean to you.
29 'These also shall be unclean to you among the creeping things that creep on the earth: the mole, [a]the mouse, and the large lizard after its kind;
30 'the gecko, the monitor lizard, the sand reptile, the sand lizard, and the chameleon.
31 'These are unclean to you among all that creep. Whoever [a]touches them when they are dead shall be unclean until evening.
32 'Anything on which any of them falls, when they are dead shall be [1]unclean, whether it is any item of wood or clothing or skin or sack, whatever item it is, in which any work is done, [a]it must be put in water. And it shall be unclean until evening; then it shall be clean.
33 'Any [a]earthen vessel into which any of them falls [b]you shall break; and whatever is in it shall be unclean:
34 'in such a vessel, any edible food upon which water falls becomes unclean, and any drink that may be drunk from it becomes unclean.
35 'And everything on which a part of any such carcass falls shall be unclean; whether it is an oven or cooking stove, it shall be broken down; for they are unclean, and shall be unclean to you.
36 'Nevertheless a spring or a cistern, in which there is plenty of water, shall be clean, but whatever touches any such carcass becomes unclean.
37 'And if a part of any such carcass falls on any planting seed which is to be sown, it remains clean.
38 'But if water is put on the seed, and if a part of any such carcass falls on it, it becomes [1]unclean to you.
39 'And if any animal which you may eat dies, he who touches its carcass shall be [a]unclean until evening.
40 [a]'He who eats of its carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening. He also who carries its carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening.
41 'And every creeping thing that creeps on the earth shall be [1]an abomination. It shall not be eaten.
42 'Whatever crawls on its belly, whatever goes on all fours, or whatever has many feet among all creeping things that creep on the earth—these you shall not eat, for they are an abomination.
43 [a]'You shall not make [1]yourselves [2]abominable with any creeping thing that creeps; nor shall you make yourselves unclean with them, lest you be defiled by them.
44 'For I am the LORD your [a]God. You shall therefore consecrate yourselves, and [b]you shall be holy; for I am holy.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Lev. 11:44

For I Am Holy

God calls us to share in His divine nature. He is holy, pure, righteous, and faultless. His holiness compels us to be holy too.

45 [a]'For I am the LORD who brings you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God. [b]You shall therefore be holy, for I am holy.
46 'This is the law [1]of the animals and the birds and every living creature that moves in the waters, and of every creature that creeps on the earth,
47 [a]'to distinguish between the unclean and the clean, and between the animal that may be eaten and the animal that may not be eaten.' "

The Ritual After Childbirth

12 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
2 "Speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'If a [a]woman has conceived, and borne a male child, then [b]she shall be [1]unclean seven days; [c]as in the days of her customary impurity she shall be unclean.
3 'And on the [a]eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised.
4 'She shall then continue in the blood of her purification thirty-three days. She shall not touch any [1]hallowed thing, nor come into the sanctuary until the days of her purification are fulfilled.
5 'But if she bears a female child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her customary impurity, and she shall continue in the blood of her purification sixty-six days.
6 [a]'When the days of her purification are fulfilled, whether for a son or a daughter, she shall bring to the priest a [b]lamb [1]of the first year as a burnt offering, and a young pigeon or a turtledove as a [c]sin offering, to the door of the tabernacle of meeting.
7 'Then he shall offer it before the LORD, and make [1]atonement for her. And she shall be clean from the flow of her blood. This is the law for her who has borne a male or a female.
8 [a]'And if she is not able to bring a lamb, then she may bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons—one as a burnt offering and the other as a sin offering. [b]So the priest shall make atonement for her, and she will be [1]clean.' "

The Law Concerning Leprosy

13 And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:
2 "When a man has on the skin of his body a swelling, [a]a scab, or a bright spot, and it becomes on the skin of his body like a [1]leprous sore, [b]then he shall be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons the priests.
3 "The priest shall examine the sore on the skin of the body; and if the hair on the sore has turned white, and the sore appears to be deeper than the skin of his body, it is a leprous sore. Then the priest shall examine him, and pronounce him [1]unclean.
4 "But if the bright spot is white on the skin of his body, and does not appear to be deeper than the skin, and its hair has not turned white, then the priest shall isolate the one who has the sore [a]seven days.
5 "And the priest shall examine him on the seventh day; and indeed if the sore appears to be as it was, and the sore has not spread on the skin, then the priest shall isolate him another seven days.
6 "Then the priest shall examine him again on the seventh day; and indeed if the sore has faded, and the sore has not spread on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is only a scab, and he [a]shall wash his clothes and be clean.
7 "But if the scab should at all spread over the skin, after he has been seen by the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen by the priest again.
8 "And if the priest sees that the scab has indeed spread on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him [1]unclean. It is leprosy.
9 "When the leprous sore is on a person, then he shall be brought to the priest.

8 [1]defiled

12:2 The child did not make the mother unclean. The blood and fluids from child birth defiled her.

12:3 Other nations, such as the Ammonites, Moabites and Edomites all practiced circumcision as well. But only Israelite circumcision testified to a covenant with Yahweh (Gen. 17:9–14).

12:4 Women were also considered ceremonially unclean during their monthly period; see Leviticus 15:19–24. While blood brought life and cleansing, it could also bring contamination and death if not handled properly.

12:6 The loss of blood during childbirth required a ritual of purification to acknowledge the sanctity of life.

12:8 "If she is not able to bring a lamb" is literally, "If she cannot find in her hand enough for a lamb." Mary could only afford two birds after Jesus' birth (Luke 2:22–24).

13:2 "A man" means "anyone."

13:3 The priest's role was not that of a physician, but he was to determine if the condition was infectious.

10 [a]"And the priest shall examine him; and indeed if the swelling on the skin is white, and it has turned the hair white, and there is a spot of raw flesh in the swelling,
11 "it is an old leprosy on the skin of his body. The priest shall pronounce him [1]unclean, and shall not isolate him, for he is unclean.
12 "And if leprosy breaks out all over the skin, and the leprosy covers all the skin of the one who has the sore, from his head to his foot, wherever the priest looks,
13 "then the priest shall consider; and indeed if the leprosy has covered all his body, he shall pronounce him clean who has the sore. It has all turned [a]white. He is clean.
14 "But when raw flesh appears on him,
he shall be unclean.
15 "And the priest shall examine the raw flesh and pronounce him to be unclean; for the raw flesh is unclean. It is leprosy.
16 "Or if the raw flesh changes and turns white again, he shall come to the priest.
17 "And the priest shall examine him;
and indeed if the sore has turned white,
then the priest shall pronounce him clean who has the sore. He is clean.
18 "If the body develops a [a]boil in the skin, and it is healed, 19 "and in the place of the boil there comes a white swelling or a bright spot, reddish-white, then it shall be shown to the priest;
20 "and if, when the priest sees it, it indeed appears deeper than the skin, and its hair has turned white, the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a leprous sore which has broken out of the boil.
21 "But if the priest examines it, and indeed there are no white hairs in it, and it is not deeper than the skin, but has faded, then the priest shall isolate him seven days;
22 "and if it should at all spread over the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a [1]leprous sore.
23 "But if the bright spot stays in one place, and has not spread, it is the scar of the boil; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.
24 "Or if the body receives a [a]burn on its skin by fire, and the raw flesh of the burn becomes a bright spot, reddish-white or white,
25 "then the priest shall examine it; and indeed if the hair of the bright spot has turned white, and it appears deeper than the skin, it is leprosy broken out in the burn. Therefore the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a leprous sore.
26 "But if the priest examines it, and indeed there are no white hairs in the bright spot, and it is not deeper than the skin, but has faded, then the priest shall isolate him seven days.
27 "And the priest shall examine him on the seventh day. If it has at all spread over the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a leprous sore.
28 "But if the bright spot stays in one place, and has not spread on the skin, but has faded, it is a swelling from the burn. The priest shall pronounce him clean, for it is the scar from the burn.
29 "If a man or woman has a sore on the head or the beard,
30 "then the priest shall examine the sore; and indeed if it appears deeper than the skin, and there is in it thin yellow hair, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a scaly leprosy of the head or beard.
31 "But if the priest examines the scaly sore, and indeed it does not appear deeper than the skin, and there is no black hair in it, then the priest shall isolate the one who has the scale seven days.
32 "And on the seventh day the priest shall examine the sore; and indeed if the scale has not spread, and there is no yellow hair in it, and the scale does not appear deeper than the skin, 33 "he shall shave himself, but the scale he shall not shave. And the priest shall isolate the one who has the scale another seven days.
34 "On the seventh day the priest shall examine the scale; and indeed if the scale has not spread over the skin, and does not appear deeper than the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean. He shall wash his clothes and be clean.
35 "But if the scale should at all spread over the skin after his cleansing, 36 "then the priest shall examine him;
and indeed if the scale has spread over the skin, the priest need not seek for yellow hair. He is unclean.
37 "But if the scale appears to be at a standstill, and there is black hair grown up in it, the scale has healed. He is clean, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.
38 "If a man or a woman has bright spots on the skin of the body, specifi- cally white bright spots,

39 “then the priest shall look; and indeed if the bright spots on the skin of the body are dull white, it is a white spot that grows on the skin. He is clean.
40 “As for the man whose hair has fallen from his head, he is bald, but he is clean.
41 “He whose hair has fallen from his forehead, he is bald on the forehead, but he is clean.
42 “And if there is on the bald head or bald [a]forehead a reddish-white sore, it is leprosy breaking out on his bald head or his bald forehead.
43 “Then the priest shall examine it; and indeed if the swelling of the sore is reddish-white on his bald head or on his bald forehead, as the appearance of leprosy on the skin of the body, 44 “he is a leprous man. He is unclean. The priest shall surely pronounce him [1]unclean; his sore is on his [a]head.
45 “Now the leper on whom the sore is, his clothes shall be torn and his head [a]bare; and he shall [b]cover his mustache, and cry, [c]‘Unclean! Unclean!’
46 “He shall be unclean. All the days he has the sore he shall be unclean. He is unclean, and he shall [1]dwell alone; his dwelling shall be [a]outside the camp.

The Law Concerning Leprous Garments

47 “Also, if a garment has a [1]leprous plague in it, whether it is a woolen garment or a linen garment, 48 “whether it is in the warp or woof of linen or wool, whether in leather or in anything made of leather,
49 “and if the plague is greenish or reddish in the garment or in the leather, whether in the warp or in the woof, or in anything made of leather, it is a leprous [1]plague and shall be shown to the priest.
50 “The priest shall examine the plague and isolate that which has the plague seven days.
51 “And he shall examine the plague on the seventh day. If the plague has spread in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, in the leather or in anything made of leather, the plague is [a]an active leprosy. It is unclean.
52 “He shall therefore burn that garment in which is the plague, whether warp or woof, in wool or in linen, or anything of leather, for it is an active leprosy; the garment shall be burned in the fire.
53 “But if the priest examines it, and indeed the plague has not spread in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or in anything made of leather,
54 “then the priest shall command that they wash the thing in which is the plague; and he shall isolate it another seven days.
55 “Then the priest shall examine the plague after it has been washed; and indeed if the plague has not changed its color, though the plague has not spread, it is unclean, and you shall burn it in the fire; it continues eating away, whether the damage is outside or inside.
56 “If the priest examines it, and indeed the plague has faded after washing it, then he shall tear it out of the garment, whether out of the warp or out of the woof, or out of the leather.
57 “But if it appears again in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or in anything made of leather, it is a spreading plague; you shall burn with fire that in which is the plague.

ENCOUNTER Note Lev. 13:57

Contagious

Contamination cannot be treated lightly, for infection refuses to remain isolated. So it is with sin, which spreads to affect every part of a life and community it touches.

58 “And if you wash the garment, either warp or woof, or whatever is made of leather, if the plague has disappeared from it, then it shall be washed a second time, and shall be clean.
59 “This is the law of the leprous plague in a garment of wool or linen, either in the warp or woof, or in anything made of leather, to pronounce it clean or to pronounce it unclean.”

The Ritual for Cleansing Healed Lepers

14 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
2 “This shall be the law of the [1]leper for the day of his cleansing: He [a]shall be brought to the priest.
3 “And the priest shall go out of the camp, and the priest shall examine him; and indeed, if the [1]leprosy is healed in the leper,
4 “then the priest shall command to take for him who is to be cleansed two living and clean birds, [a]cedar wood, [b]scarlet, and [c]hyssop.

13:45 This behavior usually characterized mourning (Lev. 10:6; 21:10). Shouting “unclean” about one’s self to others was humiliating.

13:56 Saving a garment with a piece cut out of it reflected the value of cloth at that time.

14:4 Hyssop was an aromatic herb used for flavoring food and also for medicine.

5 "And the priest shall command that one of the birds be killed in an earthen vessel over running water.
6 "As for the living bird, he shall take it, the cedar wood and the scarlet and the hyssop, and dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water.
7 "And he shall [a]sprinkle it [b]seven times on him who is to be cleansed from the leprosy, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird loose in the open field.
8 "He who is to be cleansed [a]shall wash his clothes, shave off all his hair, and [b]wash himself in water, that he may be clean. After that he shall come into the camp, and [c]shall stay outside his tent seven days.
9 "But on the [a]seventh day he shall shave all the hair off his head and his beard and his eyebrows—all his hair he shall shave off. He shall wash his clothes and wash his body in water, and he shall be clean.
10 "And on the eighth day [a]he shall take two male lambs without blemish, one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish, three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil as [b]a grain offering, and one log of oil.
11 "Then the priest who makes him clean shall present the man who is to be made clean, and those things, before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

17 "And of the rest of the oil in his hand, the priest shall put some on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on the blood of the trespass offering.
18 "The rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed. [a]So the priest shall make [1]atonement for him before the LORD.

Healing Comes from God

Physicians treat symptoms; God brings healing. Every experience of healing, great or small, should drive us back to God and remind us of our need for repentance before Him.

20 "And the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar. So the priest shall make atonement for him, and he shall be [a]clean.
21 "But [a]if he is poor and cannot afford it, then he shall take one male lamb as a trespass offering to be waved, to make atonement for him, [1]one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, a log of oil, 29 "The rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed, to make atonement for him before the LORD.

30 "And he shall offer one of [a]the turtledoves or young pigeons, such as he can afford—31 "such as he is able to afford, the one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, with the grain offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him who is to be cleansed before the LORD.
32 "This is the law for one who had a leprous sore, who cannot afford [a]the usual cleansing."

The Law Concerning Leprous Houses

33 And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:
34 [a]"When you have come into the land of Canaan, which I give you as a possession, and [b]I put the [1]leprous plague in a house in the land of your possession,
35 "and he who owns the house comes and tells the priest, saying, 'It seems to me that there is [a]some plague in the house,' 36 "then the priest shall command that they empty the house, before the priest goes into it to examine the plague, that all that is in the house may not be made unclean; and afterward the priest shall go in to examine the house.
37 "And he shall examine the plague; and indeed if the plague is on the walls of the house with ingrained streaks, greenish or reddish, which appear to be [1]deep in the wall, 38 "then the priest shall go out of the house, to the door of the house, and [1]shut up the house seven days.
39 "And the priest shall come again on the seventh day and look; and indeed if the plague has spread on the walls of the house, 40 "then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which is the plague, and they shall cast them into an unclean place outside the city.
41 "And he shall cause the house to be scraped inside, all around, and the dust that they scrape off they shall pour out in an unclean place outside the city.
42 "Then they shall take other stones and put them in the place of those stones, and he shall take other mortar and plaster the house.
43 "Now if the plague comes back and breaks out in the house, after he has taken away the stones, after he has scraped the house, and after it is plastered, 44 "then the priest shall come and look; and indeed if the plague has spread in the house, it is [a]an active leprosy in the house. It is unclean.
45 "And he shall break down the house, its stones, its timber, and all the plaster of the house, and he shall carry them outside the city to an unclean place.
46 "Moreover he who goes into the house at all while it is shut up shall be [1]unclean [a]until evening.
47 "And he who lies down in the house shall [a]wash his clothes, and he who eats in the house shall wash his clothes.
48 "But if the priest comes in and examines it, and indeed the plague has not spread in the house after the house was plastered, then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed.
49 "And [a]he shall take, to cleanse the house, two birds, cedar wood, scarlet, and hyssop.
50 "Then he shall kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water;
51 "and he shall take the cedar wood, the hyssop, the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times.
52 "And he shall [1]cleanse the house with the blood of the bird and the running water and the living bird, with the cedar wood, the hyssop, and the scarlet.
53 "Then he shall let the living bird loose outside the city in the open field, and [a]make atonement for the house, and it shall be clean.
54 "This is the law for any [a]leprous sore and scale,
55 "for the [a]leprosy of a garment [b]and of a house,
56 [a]"for a swelling and a scab and a bright spot,
57 "to [a]teach when it is unclean and when it is clean. This is the law of leprosy."

Rottenness in the Home

An entire home can be destroyed if prompt action is not taken to eradicate any evil that enters it.

14:34 "Leprous plague" is decomposition by mildew, mold, or dry rot.

2 "Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: [a]'When any man has a discharge from his body, his discharge is unclean.
3 'And this shall be his uncleanness in regard to his discharge—whether his body runs with his discharge, or his body is stopped up by his discharge, it is his uncleanness.
4 'Every bed is [1]unclean on which he who has the discharge lies, and everything on which he sits shall be unclean.
5 'And whoever [a]touches his bed shall [b]wash his clothes and [c]bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.
6 'He who sits on anything on which he who has the [a]discharge sat shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.
7 'And he who touches the body of him who has the discharge shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.
8 'If he who has the discharge [a]spits on him who is clean, then he shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.
9 'Any saddle on which he who has the discharge rides shall be unclean.

Unclean

When you are unclean, everything and everyone you touch becomes contaminated. It is imperative that you guard your purity.

10 'Whoever touches anything that was under him shall be unclean until evening. He who carries any of those things shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.
11 'And whomever the one who has the discharge touches, and has not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.
12 'The [a]vessel of earth that he who has the discharge touches shall be broken, and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.
13 'And when he who has a discharge is cleansed of his discharge, then [a]he shall count for himself seven days for his cleansing, wash his clothes, and bathe his body in running water; then he shall be clean.

15:18 Pagan religions gloried in sexual relations and even engaged in sexual acts as a form of idolatrous worship. God's commands put sexual relations in their proper place and provided clear moral boundaries for His people.

and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.
28 'But [a]if she is cleansed of her discharge, then she shall count for herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean.
29 'And on the eighth day she shall take for herself two turtledoves or two young pigeons, and bring them to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of meeting.
30 'Then the priest shall offer the one as a sin offering and the other as a [a]burnt offering, and the priest shall make atonement for her before the LORD for the discharge of her uncleanness.
31 'Thus you shall [a]separate the children of Israel from their uncleanness, lest they die in their uncleanness when they [b]defile My tabernacle that is among them.
32 [a]'This is the law for one who has a discharge, [b]and for him who emits semen and is unclean thereby,
33 [a]'and for her who is indisposed because of her customary impurity, and for one who has a discharge, either man [b]or woman, [c]and for him who lies with her who is unclean.' "

The Day of Atonement

16 Now the LORD spoke to Moses after [a]the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they offered profane fire before the LORD, and died;
2 and the LORD said to Moses: "Tell Aaron your brother [a]not to come at just any time into the Holy Place inside the veil, before the mercy seat which is on the ark, lest he die; for [b]I will appear in the cloud above the mercy seat.

ENCOUNTER Note — Lev. 16:2

Entering the Holy Place

To meet with God is to experience an awesome encounter. An audience with the Lord should not be approached casually or carelessly. God's presence is a most fearful and wonderful place. Ambivalence is an affront to His holiness.

3 [1]"Thus Aaron shall [a]come into the Holy Place: [b]with the blood of a young bull as a sin offering, and of a ram as a burnt offering.
4 "He shall put the [a]holy linen tunic and the linen trousers on his body; he shall be girded with a linen sash, and with the linen turban he shall be attired. These are holy garments. Therefore [b]he shall wash his body in water, and put them on.
5 "And he shall take from [a]the congregation of the children of Israel two kids of the goats as a sin offering, and one ram as a burnt offering.
6 "Aaron shall offer the bull as a sin offering, which is for himself, and [a]make atonement for himself and for his house.
7 "He shall take the two goats and present them before the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.
8 "Then Aaron shall cast lots for the two goats: one lot for the LORD and the other lot for the scapegoat.
9 "And Aaron shall bring the goat on which the LORD's lot fell, and offer it as a sin offering.
10 "But the goat on which the lot fell to be the scapegoat shall be presented alive before the LORD, to make [a]atonement upon it, and to let it go as the scapegoat into the wilderness.
11 "And Aaron shall bring the bull of the sin offering, which is for [a]himself, and make atonement for himself and for his house, and shall kill the bull as the sin offering which is for himself.

ENCOUNTER Note — Lev. 16:11

Earthly Intercessors

No person is holy enough to fully intercede for us with God. Every person, no matter how devout, falls short. What a wonderful gift is our sinless Savior who represents us to the heavenly Father!

12 "Then he shall take [a]a censer full of burning coals of fire from the altar before the LORD, with his hands full of [b]sweet incense beaten fine, and bring it inside the veil.
13 [a]"And he shall put the incense on the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of incense may cover the [b]mercy seat that is on the Testimony, lest he [c]die.
14 [a]"He shall take some of the blood of the bull and [b]sprinkle it with his finger on the mercy seat on the east side; and before the mercy seat he shall sprinkle some of the blood with his finger seven times.
15 [a]"Then he shall kill the goat of the sin offering, which is for the people, bring its blood [b]inside the veil, do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it on the mercy seat and before the mercy seat.

17 "There shall be [a]no man in the tabernacle of meeting when he goes in to make atonement in the Holy Place, until he comes out, that he may make atonement for himself, for his household, and for all the assembly of Israel.

WORD*Study* — DAY OF ATONEMENT

Lev. 16:30 Israel's most sacred day of the year was the Day of Atonement, the one day when the high priest went behind the temple veil into the Most Holy Place. There dwelt God's magnificent presence. On that day the high priest would also utter the nation's sins over a scapegoat before exiling the animal to the wilderness, symbolically taking the sins of the people far away.

31 [a]"It is a sabbath of solemn rest for you, and you shall afflict your souls. It is a statute forever.
32 [a]"And the priest, who is anointed and [b]consecrated to minister as priest in his father's place, shall make atonement, and put on the linen clothes, the holy garments;
33 "then he shall make [1]atonement for [2]the Holy Sanctuary, and he shall make atonement for the tabernacle of meeting and for the altar, and he shall make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the assembly.
34 [a]"This shall be an everlasting statute for you, to make atonement for the children of Israel, for all their sins, [b]once a year." And he did as the LORD commanded Moses.

The Sanctity of Blood

17 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
2 "Speak to Aaron, to his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and say to them, 'This is the thing which the LORD has commanded, saying:

16:16 The people's sin had a defiling effect on the tabernacle. If the tabernacle were not consecrated the priests could not properly offer sacrifices to God to atone for the people's sins.

16:22 The goat bore the people's sins although it was innocent of them. This is the source of the term "scapegoat."

16:29 This would be between mid-September and mid-October.

3 "Whatever man of the house of Israel who [a]kills an ox or lamb or goat in the camp, or who kills it outside the camp,
4 "and does not bring it to the door of the tabernacle of meeting to offer an offering to the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD, the guilt of bloodshed shall be [a]imputed to that man. He has shed blood; and that man shall be [1]cut off from among his people,
5 "to the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices [a]which they offer in the open field, that they may bring them to the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of meeting, to the priest, and offer them as peace offerings to the LORD.
6 "And the priest [a]shall sprinkle the blood on the altar of the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and [b]burn the fat for a sweet aroma to the LORD.
7 "They shall no more offer their sacrifices [a]to [1]demons, after whom they [b]have played the harlot. This shall be a statute forever for them throughout their generations." '
8 "Also you shall say to them: 'Whatever man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who dwell among you, [a]who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice,
9 'and does not [a]bring it to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, to offer it to the LORD, that man shall be [1]cut off from among his people.
10 [a]'And whatever man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who dwell among you, who eats any blood, [b]I will set My face against that person who eats blood, and will cut him off from among his people.
11 'For the [a]life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar [b]to make atonement for your souls; for [c]it is the blood that makes atonement for the soul.'

ENCOUNTER Note — Lev. 17:11

Life Is in the Blood

Life is God's most valuable creation. Only the most precious sacrifice can atone for a soul.

12 "Therefore I said to the children of Israel, 'No one among you shall eat blood, nor shall any stranger who dwells among you eat blood.'
13 "Whatever man of the children of Israel, or of the strangers who dwell among you, who [a]hunts and catches any animal or bird that may be eaten, he shall [b]pour out its blood and [c]cover it with dust;
14 [a]"for it is the life of all flesh. Its blood sustains its life. Therefore I said to the children of Israel, 'You shall not eat the blood of any flesh, for the life of all flesh is its blood. Whoever eats it shall be cut off.'
15 [a]"And every person who eats what died naturally or what was torn by beasts, whether he is a native of your own country or a stranger, [b]he shall both wash his clothes and [c]bathe in water, and be unclean until evening. Then he shall be clean.
16 "But if he does not wash them or bathe his body, then [a]he shall bear his [1]guilt."

Laws of Sexual Morality

18 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
2 "Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: [a]'I am the LORD your God.
3 [a]'According to [1]the doings of the land of Egypt, where you dwelt, you shall not do; and [b]according to the doings of the land of Canaan, where I am bringing you, you shall not do; nor shall you walk in their [2]ordinances.

ENCOUNTER Note — Lev. 18:3

Family Holiness

God expects His people to live by a much higher standard than the unbelieving society around them. Our families are to be sanctified to God. Our relationships are to honor God.

4 [a]'You shall observe My judgments and keep My ordinances, to walk in them: I am the LORD your God.
5 'You shall therefore keep My statutes and My judgments, which if a man does, he shall live by them: I am the LORD.
6 'None of you shall approach anyone who is near of kin to him, to uncover his nakedness: I am the LORD.

Entire Assembly

When God speaks to an individual, His message is meant to benefit the entire community. If God gives you a directive to share and you keep silent, you deprive others of His guidance.

WORD*Study* HOLY

Lev. 19:2 To be holy is to be set apart for God, to be absolutely pure, without sin or fault.

3 [a]'Every one of you shall revere his mother and his father, and [b]keep My Sabbaths: I am the LORD your God.

18:18 This law's practicality was seen in Jacob's relationship with Leah and Rachel who were extremely jealous of one another.

18:20 Scripture clearly condemned all manner of adultery (Ex. 20:14; Lev. 20:10).

18:21 The idolatrous worship of the god Molech included sacrificing children.

18:21 To "profane" something is to defile it and make it unholy.

18:22 An "abomination" is something God despises.

4 [a]'Do not turn to idols, [b]nor make for yourselves [1]molded gods: I am the LORD your God.
5 'And [a]if you offer a sacrifice of a peace offering to the LORD, you shall offer it of your own free will.
6 'It shall be eaten the same day you offer it, and on the next day. And if any remains until the third day, it shall be burned in the fire.
7 'And if it is eaten at all on the third day, it is an abomination. It shall not be accepted.
8 'Therefore everyone who eats it shall bear his iniquity, because he has profaned the hallowed offering of the LORD; and that person shall be cut off from his people.
9 [a]'When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not wholly reap the corners of your field, nor shall you gather the gleanings of your harvest.
10 'And you shall not glean your vineyard, nor shall you gather every grape of your vineyard; you shall leave them for the poor and the stranger: I am the LORD your God.
11 [a]'You shall not steal, nor deal falsely, [b]nor lie to one another.
12 'And you shall not [a]swear by My name falsely, [b]nor shall you profane the name of your God: I am the LORD.
13 [a]'You shall not cheat your neighbor, nor rob him. [b]The wages of him who is hired shall not remain with you all night until morning.
14 'You shall not curse the deaf, [a]nor put a stumbling block before the blind, but shall fear your God: I am the LORD.
15 'You shall do no injustice in [a]judgment. You shall not [b]be partial to the poor, nor honor the person of the mighty. In righteousness you shall judge your neighbor.
16 'You shall not go about as a [a]talebearer among your people; nor shall you [b]take a stand against the life of your neighbor: I am the LORD.
17 [a]'You shall not hate your brother in your heart. [b]You shall surely [1]rebuke your neighbor, and not bear sin because of him.
18 [a]'You shall not take vengeance, nor bear any grudge against the children of your people, [b]but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD.
19 'You shall keep My statutes. You shall not let your livestock breed with another kind. You shall not sow your field with mixed seed. Nor shall a garment of mixed linen and wool come upon you.
20 'Whoever lies carnally with a woman who is [a]betrothed to a man as a concubine, and who has not at all been redeemed nor given her freedom, for this there shall be [1]scourging; but they shall not be put to death, because she was not free.
21 'And he shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD, to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, a ram as a trespass offering.
22 'The priest shall make [1]atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering before the LORD for his sin which he has committed. And the sin which he has committed shall be forgiven him.
23 'When you come into the land, and have planted all kinds of trees for food, then you shall count their fruit as [1]uncircumcised. Three years it shall be as uncircumcised to you. It shall not be eaten.
24 'But in the fourth year all its fruit shall be holy, a praise to the LORD.
25 'And in the fifth year you may eat its fruit, that it may yield to you its increase: I am the LORD your God.
26 'You shall not eat anything with the blood, nor shall you practice divination or soothsaying.
27 'You shall not shave around the sides of your head, nor shall you disfigure the edges of your beard.

Loving Your Neighbors

The message of love permeates God's word. It is a recurring theme in Scripture because it emanates from God's nature. God loves unfailingly and He expects no less of His people.

19:13 Day laborers depended on their daily pay to obtain food. Withholding it from them was considered undue hardship (Deut. 24:14, 15; James 5:4).

19:16 A "talebearer" was more than one who gossiped. This involved malicious slander.

19:18 Jesus identified loving your neighbor as one of two Old Testament commandments which together epitomize God's law (Matt. 22:37–40).

19:26 "Divination" reflected a lack of trust in God for one's future.

32 [a]'You shall [1]rise before the gray headed and honor the presence of an old man, and [b]fear your God: I am the LORD.
33 'And [a]if a stranger dwells with you in your land, you shall not mistreat him.
34 [a]'The stranger who dwells among you shall be to you as [1]one born among you, and [b]you shall love him as yourself; for you were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.
35 'You shall do no injustice in judgment, in measurement of length, weight, or volume.
36 'You shall have [a]honest scales, honest weights, an honest ephah, and an honest hin: I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.
37 [a]'Therefore you shall observe all My statutes and all My judgments, and perform them: I am the LORD.' "

Penalties for Breaking the Law

20 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
2 [a]"Again, you shall say to the children of Israel: [b]'Whoever of the children of Israel, or of the strangers who [1]dwell in Israel, who gives any of his descendants to Molech, he shall surely be put to death. The people of the land shall [c]stone him with stones.
3 [a]'I will set My face against that man, and will [1]cut him off from his people, because he has given some of his descendants to Molech, to defile My sanctuary and profane My holy name.
4 'And if the people of the land should in any way [1]hide their eyes from the man, when he gives some of his descendants to Molech, and they do not kill him,
5 'then I will set My face against that man and against his family; and I will cut him off from his people, and all who prostitute themselves with him to commit harlotry with Molech.
6 'And [a]the person who turns to mediums and familiar spirits, to prostitute himself with them, I will set My face against that person and cut him off from his people.
7 [a]'Consecrate[1] yourselves therefore, and be holy, for I am the LORD your God.
8 'And you shall keep [a]My statutes, and perform them: [b]I am the LORD who [1]sanctifies you.
9 'For [a]everyone who curses his father or his mother shall surely be put to death. He has cursed his father or his mother. [b]His blood shall be upon him.
10 [a]'The man who commits adultery with another man's wife, he who commits adultery with his neighbor's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress, shall surely be put to death.
11 'The man who lies with his [a]father's wife has uncovered his father's nakedness; both of them shall surely be put to death. Their blood shall be upon them.
12 'If a man lies with his [a]daughter-in-law, both of them shall surely be put to death. They have committed perversion. Their blood shall be upon them.
13 [a]'If a man lies with a male as he lies with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination. They shall surely be put to death. Their blood shall be upon them.
14 'If a man marries a woman and her [a]mother, it is wickedness. They shall be burned with fire, both he and they, that there may be no wickedness among you.
15 'If a man mates with an [a]animal, he shall surely be put to death, and you shall kill the animal.
16 'If a woman approaches any animal and mates with it, you shall kill the woman and the animal. They shall surely be put to death. Their blood is upon them.
17 'If a man takes his [a]sister, his father's daughter or his mother's daughter, and sees her nakedness and she sees his nakedness, it is a wicked thing. And they shall be [1]cut off in the sight of their people. He has uncovered his sister's nakedness. He shall bear his [2]guilt.
18 [a]'If a man lies with a woman during her [1]sickness and uncovers her nakedness, he has [2]exposed her flow, and she has uncovered the flow of her blood. Both of them shall be [3]cut off from their people.
19 'You shall not uncover the nakedness of your [a]mother's sister nor of your [b]father's sister, for that would uncover his near of kin. They shall bear their guilt.

Sin's Grave Consequences

Some sins are so serious that God requires the community of believers to take immediate action against the offender. There will be consequences for "looking the other way."

19:36 An ephah was about five gallons. A hin was slightly less than a gallon.

20:9 So serious was disrespecting one's parents that the offense incurred capital punishment.

20:12 "Perversion" is literally "mixing confusion."

20:14 To be burned was a dreadful punishment. In ancient times people believed they could not experience a peaceful afterlife if they were not properly buried upon their death.

20 'If a man lies with his [a]uncle's wife, he has uncovered his uncle's nakedness. They shall bear their sin; they shall die childless.
21 'If a man takes his [a]brother's wife, it is an [1]unclean thing. He has uncovered his brother's nakedness. They shall be childless.
22 'You shall therefore keep all My [a]statutes and all My judgments, and perform them, that the land where I am bringing you to dwell [b]may not vomit you out.
23 [a]'And you shall not walk in the statutes of the nation which I am casting out before you; for they commit all these things, and [b]therefore I abhor them.
24 'But [a]I have said to you, "You shall inherit their land, and I will give it to you to possess, a land flowing with milk and honey." I am the LORD your God, [b]who has separated you from the peoples.
25 [a]'You shall therefore distinguish between clean animals and unclean, between unclean birds and clean, [b]and you shall not make yourselves [1]abominable by beast or by bird, or by any kind of living thing that creeps on the ground, which I have separated from you as [2]unclean.
26 'And you shall be holy to Me, [a]for I the LORD am holy, and have separated you from the peoples, that you should be Mine.

His

God owns the rights to our lives. He chose us and set us apart for Himself. He has the right to fashion us into His image. He deserves the glory our righteous living brings Him.

27 [a]'A man or a woman who is a medium, or who has familiar spirits, shall surely be put to death; they shall stone them with stones. Their blood shall be upon them.' "

Regulations for Conduct of Priests

21 And the LORD said to Moses, "Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them: [a]'None shall defile himself for the dead among his people,
2 'except for his relatives who are nearest to him: his mother, his father, his son, his daughter, and his brother;
3 'also his virgin sister who is near to him, who has had no husband, for her he may defile himself.
4 'Otherwise he shall not defile himself, being a [1]chief man among his people, to profane himself.
5 [a]'They shall not make any bald place on their heads, nor shall they shave the edges of their beards nor make any cuttings in their flesh.
6 'They shall be [a]holy to their God and not profane the name of their God, for they offer the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and the [b]bread of their God; [c]therefore they shall be holy.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Lev. 21:6

Profaning God's Name

When believers live with unholy lives, they profane God's name before a watching world. Treating God's name in any way that devalues His dignity is blasphemy.

7 [a]'They shall not take a wife who is a harlot or a defiled woman, nor shall they take a woman [b]divorced from her husband; for [1]the priest is holy to his God.
8 'Therefore you shall [1]consecrate him, for he offers the bread of your God. He shall be holy to you, for [a]I the LORD, who [b]sanctify you, am holy.
9 'The daughter of any priest, if she profanes herself by playing the harlot, she profanes her father. She shall be [a]burned with fire.
10 'He who is the high priest among his brethren, on whose head the anointing oil was [a]poured and who is consecrated to wear the garments, shall not [b]uncover[1] his head nor tear his clothes;
11 'nor shall he go [a]near any dead body, nor defile himself for his father or his mother;

20:20 Being childless was greatly lamented by the Israelites. The punishment for this sin would affect two families.

20:22 God made it clear that if His people continued to ignore His law and sin, the Promised Land would one day expel them. Despite warnings by the prophets, the people neglected this divine vow until it was too late.

21:5 These were pagan mourning practices and they were strictly forbidden. God's people had no reason to mourn for the dead as others did.

21:6 Priests were set apart to represent God to the people. They were also to petition God on the people's behalf. God chose priests to lead the community in worship and in offering sacrifices to Him.

21:7 Higher marital standards applied to the high priest. He could marry a widow, but no other woman who was not a virgin. Because the high priest was God's representative to the people, his lifestyle had to withstand the strictest scrutiny.

21:11 The high priest could not mourn for deceased family members as others did. His calling to God came before his responsibilities to family.

God; for the [b]consecration of the anointing oil of his God is upon him: I am the LORD.
13 'And he shall take a wife in her virginity.
14 'A widow or a divorced woman or a defiled woman or a harlot—these he shall not marry; but he shall take a virgin of his own people as wife.
15 'Nor shall he profane his posterity among his people, for I the LORD sanctify him.' "
16 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
17 "Speak to Aaron, saying: 'No man of your descendants in succeeding generations, who has any defect, may approach to offer the bread of his God.
18 'For any man who has a [a]defect shall not approach: a man blind or lame, who has a marred face or any limb [b]too long,
19 'a man who has a broken foot or broken hand,

22 'He may eat the bread of his God, both the most holy and the holy;
23 'only he shall not go near the [a]veil or approach the altar, because he has a defect, lest [b]he profane My sanctuaries; for I the LORD sanctify them.' "
24 And Moses told it to Aaron and his sons, and to all the children of Israel.

22 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
2 "Speak to Aaron and his sons, that they [a]separate[1] themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, and that they [b]do not profane My holy name by what they [c]dedicate to Me: I am the LORD.
3 "Say to them: 'Whoever of all your descendants throughout your generations, who goes near the holy things which the children of Israel dedicate to the LORD, [a]while he has [1]uncleanness upon him, that person shall be cut off from My presence: I am the LORD.

WORD*Study* CUT OFF

Lev. 22:3 To be "cut off" from God's presence or from His people meant exclusion from participating in community activities, particularly corporate worship. Whether the offender was to be exiled or killed is unclear.

[c]until he is clean. And [d]whoever touches anything made unclean by a corpse, or [e]a man who has had an emission of semen,
5 'or [a]whoever touches any creeping thing by which he would be made unclean, or [b]any person by whom he would become unclean, whatever his uncleanness may be—
6 'the person who has touched any such thing shall be unclean until evening, and shall not eat the holy offerings unless he [a]washes his body with water.
7 'And when the sun goes down he shall be clean; and afterward he may eat the holy offerings, because [a]it is his food.
8 [a]'Whatever dies naturally or is torn by beasts he shall not eat, to defile himself with it: I am the LORD.
9 'They shall therefore keep [a]My [1]ordinance, [b]lest they bear sin for it and die thereby, if they profane it: I the LORD sanctify them.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Lev. 22:9

Holy Priests

Spiritual leaders must live pure lives. God sets the standard for holiness. We do not.

10 [a]'No outsider shall eat the holy offering; one who [1]dwells with the priest, or a hired servant, shall not eat the holy thing.
11 'But if the priest [a]buys a person with his money, he may eat it; and one who is born in his house may eat his food.
12 'If the priest's daughter is married to an outsider, she may not eat of the holy offerings.
13 'But if the priest's daughter is a widow or divorced, and has no child, and has returned to her father's house as in her youth, she may eat her father's food; but no outsider shall eat it.

21:23 "My sanctuaries" probably referred to the two parts of the tabernacle: the holy place where the altar of incense was located, and the Most Holy Place where the holy of holies stood.

22:4 Regulations concerning lepers are found in Leviticus 13:1–46; 14:1–32).

22:7 The people's sacrifices to God provided a major source of food for the priests.

22:8 Ordinary Israelites could eat this meat, although it would make them temporarily unclean (17:15, 16). But priests could not. They functioned at a higher standard than the common people.

14 'And if a man eats the holy offering unintentionally, then he shall restore a holy offering to the priest, and add one-fifth to it.
15 'They shall not profane the [a]holy offerings of the children of Israel, which they offer to the LORD,
16 'or allow them to bear the guilt of trespass when they eat their holy offerings; for I the LORD sanctify them.' "

Offerings Accepted and Not Accepted

17 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
18 "Speak to Aaron and his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and say to them: [a]'Whatever man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel, who [1]offers his sacrifice for any of his vows or for any of his freewill offerings, which they offer to the LORD as a burnt offering—
19 [a]'you shall offer of your own free will a male without blemish from the cattle, from the sheep, or from the goats.
20 [a]'Whatever has a defect, you shall not offer, for it shall not be acceptable on your behalf.
21 'And [a]whoever offers a sacrifice of a peace offering to the LORD, [b]to fulfill his vow, or a freewill offering from the cattle or the sheep, it must be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no defect in it.
22 [a]'Those that are blind or broken or maimed, or have an [1]ulcer or eczema or scabs, you shall not offer to the LORD, nor make [b]an offering by fire of them on the altar to the LORD.
23 'Either a bull or a lamb that has any limb [a]too long or too short you may offer as a freewill offering, but for a vow it shall not be accepted.
24 'You shall not offer to the LORD what is bruised or crushed, or torn or cut; nor shall you make any offering of them in your land.
25 'Nor [a]from a foreigner's hand shall you offer any of these as [b]the bread of your God, because their [c]corruption is in them, and defects are in them. They shall not be accepted on your behalf.' "
26 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
27 [a]"When a bull or a sheep or a goat is born, it shall be seven days with its mother; and from the eighth day and thereafter it shall be accepted as an offering made by fire to the LORD.
28 "Whether it is a cow or ewe, do not kill both her [a]and her young on the same day.
29 "And when you [a]offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the LORD, offer it of your own free will.
30 "On the same day it shall be eaten; you shall leave [a]none of it until morning: I am the LORD.
31 [a]"Therefore you shall keep My commandments, and perform them: I am the LORD.
32 [a]"You shall not profane My holy name, but [b]I will be [1]hallowed among the children of Israel. I am the LORD who [c]sanctifies you,
33 [a]"who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the LORD."

Feasts of the LORD

23 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
2 "Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: 'The feasts of the LORD, which you shall proclaim to be [a]holy convocations, these are My feasts.

WORD*Study* FEASTS

Lev. 23:2 Religious feasts were regular national celebrations commemorating God's intervention in His people's lives. They were formal occasions, useful for teaching children and educating community members about their identity as God's people. Feasts were intended to inspire gratitude and to show respect for God. Many of the feasts, such as Passover, found their ultimate fulfillment in Jesus' ministry.

The Sabbath

3 [a]'Six days shall work be done, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of solemn rest, a holy convocation. You shall do no work on it; it is the Sabbath of the LORD in all your dwellings.

The Passover and Unleavened Bread

4 [a]'These are the feasts of the LORD, holy convocations which you shall proclaim at their appointed times.

CHAPTER 23

2 [a]Ex. 12:16
3 [a]Luke 13:14
4 [a]Ex. 23:14–16

22:14 Restitution generally involved replacing what was taken plus one fifth more.

22:19 "Without blemish" reminded God's people that God was not a beggar. He would not accept just any sacrifice given to Him (Mal. 1:7–14). He was holy and He expected the best His people could offer. Anything less was an affront.

22:25 God's people were not to sacrifice animals that had been raised by foreigners. Other nations used different standards and did not acknowledge God's standards of what was clean or unclean. The gifts given by God's people had to be prepared by God's people.

23:2 "Feasts of the Lord" is literally the "appointed times of the Lord."

ENCOUNTER Note Lev. 23:3

Sabbaths

A Sabbath is a time of restoration and an opportunity to focus one's attention on the Lord. Both endeavors are vital for the well-being of God's people.

5 [a]'On the fourteenth day of the first month at twilight is the LORD's Passover.
6 'And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the Feast of Unleavened Bread to the LORD; seven days you must eat unleavened bread.
7 [a]'On the first day you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no [1]customary work on it.
8 'But you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD for seven days. The seventh day shall be a holy convocation; you shall do no customary work on it.' "

The Feast of Firstfruits

9 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
10 "Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: [a]'When you come into the land which I give to you, and reap its harvest, then you shall bring a sheaf of [b]the firstfruits of your harvest to the priest.
11 'He shall [a]wave the sheaf before the LORD, to be accepted on your behalf; on the day after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it.
12 'And you shall offer on that day, when you wave the sheaf, a male lamb of the first year, without blemish, as a burnt offering to the LORD.
13 'Its grain offering shall be two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil, an offering made by fire to the LORD, for a [1]sweet aroma; and its drink offering shall be of wine, one-fourth of a hin.
14 'You shall eat neither bread nor parched grain nor fresh grain until the same day that you have brought an offering to your God; it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

The Feast of Weeks

15 'And you shall count for yourselves from the day after the Sabbath, from the day that you brought the sheaf of the wave offering: seven Sabbaths shall be completed.
16 'Count [a]fifty days to the day after the seventh Sabbath; then you shall offer [b]a new grain offering to the LORD.
17 'You shall bring from your dwellings two wave loaves of two-tenths of an ephah. They shall be of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven. They are [a]the firstfruits to the LORD.
18 'And you shall offer with the bread seven lambs of the first year, without blemish, one young bull, and two rams. They shall be as a burnt offering to the LORD, with their grain offering and their drink offerings, an offering made by fire for a sweet aroma to the LORD.
19 'Then you shall sacrifice [a]one kid of the goats as a sin offering, and two male lambs of the first year as a sacrifice of a [b]peace offering.
20 'The priest shall wave them with the bread of the firstfruits as a wave offering before the LORD, with the two lambs. [a]They shall be holy to the LORD for the priest.
21 'And you shall proclaim on the same day that it is a holy convocation to you. You shall do no customary work on it. It shall be a statute forever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.
22 [a]'When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not wholly reap the corners of your field when you reap, nor shall you gather any gleaning from your harvest. You shall leave them for the poor and for the stranger: I am the LORD your God.' "

The Feast of Trumpets

23 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
24 "Speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'In the [a]seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall have a sabbath-rest, [b]a memorial of blowing of trumpets, a holy convocation.
25 'You shall do no customary work on it; and you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD.' "

The Day of Atonement

26 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
27 [a]"Also the tenth day of this seventh month shall be the Day of Atonement. It shall be a holy convocation for you; you shall afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire to the LORD.

23:5 The Feast of Unleavened Bread and the Feast of Tabernacles lasted seven and eight days respectively. The first and last days were holy days for meeting with God. The fourteenth day of the first month would fall between mid March and mid April.

23:11 To "wave" an offering was to elevate it before the Lord.

23:14 Parched grain was a favorite food for people working in the harvest.

23:24 The seventh month on the first day would have been in September.

28 "And you shall do no work on that same day, for it is the Day of Atonement, [a]to make atonement for you before the LORD your God.
29 "For any person who is not [a]afflicted in soul on that same day [b]shall be cut off from his people.
30 "And any person who does any work on that same day, [a]that person I will destroy from among his people.
31 "You shall do no manner of work; it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.
32 "It shall be to you a sabbath of solemn rest, and you shall [1]afflict your souls; on the ninth day of the month at evening, from evening to evening, you shall [2]celebrate your sabbath."

The Feast of Tabernacles

33 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
34 "Speak to the children of Israel, saying: [a]'The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the Feast of Tabernacles for seven days to the LORD.
35 'On the first day there shall be a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work on it.
36 'For seven days you shall offer an [a]offering made by fire to the LORD. [b]On the eighth day you shall have a holy convocation, and you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD. It is a [c]sacred[1] assembly, and you shall do no customary work on it.
37 [a]'These are the feasts of the LORD which you shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire to the LORD, a burnt offering and a grain offering, a sacrifice and drink offerings, everything on its day—
38 [a]'besides the Sabbaths of the LORD, besides your gifts, besides all your vows, and besides all your freewill offerings which you give to the LORD.
39 'Also on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have [a]gathered in the fruit of the land, you shall keep the feast of the LORD for seven days; on the first day there shall be a sabbath-rest, and on the eighth day a sabbath-rest.
40 'And [a]you shall take for yourselves on the first day the [1]fruit of beautiful trees, branches of palm trees, the boughs of leafy trees, and willows of the brook; [b]and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God for seven days.
41 [a]'You shall keep it as a feast to the LORD for seven days in the year. It shall be a statute forever in your generations. You shall celebrate it in the seventh month.
42 [a]'You shall dwell in [1]booths for seven days. [b]All who are native Israelites shall dwell in booths,
43 [a]'that your generations may [b]know that I made the children of Israel dwell in booths when [c]I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.' "
44 So Moses [a]declared to the children of Israel the feasts of the LORD.

Care of the Tabernacle Lamps

24 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
2 [a]"Command the children of Israel that they bring to you pure oil of pressed olives for the light, to make the lamps burn continually.
3 "Outside the veil of the Testimony, in the tabernacle of meeting, Aaron shall be in charge of it from evening until morning before the LORD continually; it shall be a statute forever in your generations.
4 "He shall [1]be in charge of the lamps on [a]the pure gold lampstand before the LORD continually.

The Bread of the Tabernacle

5 "And you shall take fine flour and bake twelve [a]cakes with it. Two-tenths of an ephah shall be in each cake.
6 "You shall set them in two rows, six in a row, [a]on the pure gold table before the LORD.
7 "And you shall put pure frankincense on each row, that it may be on the bread for a [a]memorial, an offering made by fire to the LORD.
8 [a]"Every Sabbath he shall set it in order before the LORD continually, being taken from the children of Israel by an everlasting covenant.
9 "And [a]it shall be for Aaron and his sons, [b]and they shall eat it in a holy place; for it is most holy to him from the offerings of the LORD made by fire, by a perpetual statute."

The Penalty for Blasphemy

10 Now the son of an Israelite woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel; and this Israelite woman's son and a man of Israel fought each other in the camp.
11 And the Israelite woman's son [a]blasphemed the name of the LORD and 12 Then they [a]put him [1]in custody, [b]that [2]the mind of the LORD might be shown to them.

13 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
14 "Take outside the camp him who has cursed; then let all who heard him [a]lay their hands on his head, and let all the congregation stone him.
15 "Then you shall speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'Whoever curses his God [a]shall [1]bear his sin.

ENCOUNTER Note Lev. 24:16

Blasphemy

To blaspheme God's name is to demean Him before others. Blasphemy is a serious matter; God will defend His name and His honor. Believers must live so people praise God's name because of what they witness in their lives.

17 [a]'Whoever kills any man shall surely be put to death.

The Sabbath of the Seventh Year

25 And the LORD spoke to Moses on Mount [a]Sinai, saying,
2 "Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: 'When you come into the land which I give you, then the land shall [a]keep a sabbath to the LORD.
3 'Six years you shall sow your field, and six years you shall prune your vineyard, and gather its fruit;
4 'but in the [a]seventh year there shall be a sabbath of solemn [b]rest for the land, a sabbath to the LORD. You shall neither sow your field nor prune your vineyard.
5 [a]'What grows of its own accord of your harvest you shall not reap, nor gather the grapes of your untended vine, for it is a year of rest for the land.
6 'And the sabbath produce of the land shall be food for you: for you, your male and female servants, your hired man, and the stranger who dwells with you,
7 'for your livestock and the beasts that are in your land—all its produce shall be for food.

The Year of Jubilee

8 'And you shall count seven sabbaths of years for yourself, seven times seven years; and the time of the seven sabbaths of years shall be to you forty-nine years.
9 'Then you shall cause the trumpet of the Jubilee to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month; [a]on the Day of Atonement you shall make the trumpet to sound throughout all your land.
10 'And you shall consecrate the fiftieth year, and [a]proclaim liberty throughout all the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a Jubilee for you; [b]and each of you shall return to his possession, and each of you shall return to his family.
11 'That fiftieth year shall be a Jubilee to you; in it [a]you shall neither sow nor reap what grows of its own accord, nor gather the grapes of your untended vine.

24:14 Foreigners living among the Israelites were also subject to God's laws. Stoning was a public event sending a strong message to all who witnessed the execution. Moreover, those casting the stones were reminded of how seriously God views sin.

24:20 "An eye for an eye" did not require retribution equal to the crime. Rather, it limited the punishment to no more than the crime that had been committed. It set limits to punishment and stifled efforts at revenge.

25:2 "The land which I give you" reminded the Israelites that even though they would fight for the land of Canaan, it was a gift from God and it would continue to belong to God.

25:4 The sabbath rest year allowed the land to be restored and not to be continually depleted. This was not only wise farming, but it demonstrated a trust in God and guarded against unchecked greed.

25:10 The Year of Jubilee sought to protect the lower classes who could slide into poverty and slavery and it addressed the wealthy who might seek to grow still wealthier at the expense of their fellow citizens.

WORD*Study*

YEAR OF JUBILEE

Lev. 25:10 The word "jubilee" originates from "a ram's horn" which was used as a trumpet to proclaim the fiftieth year to be a celebration year. During a jubilee year people were forgiven their debts and slaves were set free. Land lost due to debt was returned to its original owners.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Lev. 25:10

Liberty

People continually put themselves and others into bondage. Slavery is the human plight, but where God is, there is freedom! God sets us free so we are free indeed.

12 'For it is the Jubilee; it shall be holy to you; [a]you shall eat its produce from the field.
13 [a]'In this Year of Jubilee, each of you shall return to his possession.
14 'And if you sell anything to your neighbor or buy from your neighbor's hand, you shall not [a]oppress one another.
15 [a]According to the number of years after the Jubilee you shall buy from your neighbor, and according to the number of years of crops he shall sell to you.
16 'According to the multitude of years you shall increase its price, and according to the fewer number of years you shall diminish its price; for he sells to you according to the number of the years of the crops.
17 'Therefore [a]you shall not [1]oppress one another, [b]but you shall fear your God; for I am the LORD your God.

Provisions for the Seventh Year

18 [a]'So you shall observe My statutes and keep My judgments, and perform them; [b]and you will dwell in the land in safety.
19 'Then the land will yield its fruit, and [a]you will eat your fill, and dwell there in safety.
20 'And if you say, [a]"What shall we eat in the seventh year, since [b]we shall not sow nor gather in our produce?"
21 'Then I will [a]command My blessing on you in the [b]sixth year, and it will bring forth produce enough for three years.
22 [a]'And you shall sow in the eighth year, and eat [b]old produce until the ninth year; until its produce comes in, you shall eat of the old harvest.

Redemption of Property

23 'The land shall not be sold permanently, for [a]the land is Mine; for you are [b]strangers and sojourners with Me.
24 'And in all the land of your possession you shall grant redemption of the land.
25 [a]'If one of your brethren becomes poor, and has sold some of his possession, and if [b]his redeeming relative comes to redeem it, then he may redeem what his brother sold.
26 'Or if the man has no one to redeem it, but he himself becomes able to redeem it,
27 'then [a]let him count the years since its sale, and restore the remainder to the man to whom he sold it, that he may return to his possession.
28 'But if he is not able to have it restored to himself, then what was sold shall remain in the hand of him who bought it until the Year of Jubilee; [a]and in the Jubilee it shall be released, and he shall return to his possession.
29 'If a man sells a house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold; within a full year he may redeem it.
30 'But if it is not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house in the walled city shall belong permanently to him who bought it, throughout his generations. It shall not be released in the Jubilee.
31 'However the houses of villages which have no wall around them shall be counted as the fields of the country. They may be redeemed, and they shall be released in the Jubilee.
32 'Nevertheless [a]the cities of the Levites, and the houses in the cities of their possession, the Levites may redeem at any time.
33 'And if a man purchases a house from the Levites, then the house that was sold in the city of his possession shall be released in the Jubilee; for the houses in the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel.
34 'But [a]the field of the common-land of 25:32 The houses of Levites could be redeemed because it was the only property they owned.

their cities may not be [b]sold, for it is their perpetual possession.

Lending to the Poor

35 'If one of your brethren becomes poor, and [1]falls into poverty among you, then you shall [a]help him, like a stranger or a sojourner, that he may live with you.
36 [a]'Take no usury or interest from him; but [b]fear your God, that your brother may live with you.
37 'You shall not lend him your money for usury, nor lend him your food at a profit.
38 [a]'I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan and to be your God.

The Law Concerning Slavery

39 'And if one of your brethren who dwells by you becomes poor, and sells himself to you, you shall not compel him to serve as a slave.
40 'As a hired servant and a sojourner he shall be with you, and shall serve you until the Year of Jubilee.
41 'And then he shall depart from you—he and his children [a]with him—and shall return to his own family. He shall return to the possession of his fathers.
42 'For they are [a]My servants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt; they shall not be sold as slaves.
43 [a]'You shall not rule over him [b]with [1]rigor, but you [c]shall fear your God.
44 'And as for your male and female slaves whom you may have—from the nations that are around you, from them you may buy male and female slaves.
45 'Moreover you may buy [a]the children of the strangers who dwell among you, and their families who are with you, which they beget in your land; and they shall become your property.
46 'And [a]you may take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them as a possession; they shall be your permanent slaves. But regarding your brethren, the children of Israel, you shall not rule over one another with rigor.
47 'Now if a sojourner or stranger close to you becomes rich, and one of your brethren who dwells by him becomes poor, and sells himself to the stranger or sojourner close to you, or to a member of the stranger's family,
48 'after he is sold he may be redeemed again. One of his brothers may redeem him;
49 'or his uncle or his uncle's son may redeem him; or anyone who is near of kin to him in his family may redeem him; or if he is able he may redeem himself.
50 'Thus he shall reckon with him who bought him: The price of his release shall be according to the number of years, from the year that he was sold to him until the Year of Jubilee; it shall be [a]according to the time of a hired servant for him.
51 'If there are still many years remaining, according to them he shall repay the price of his redemption from the money with which he was bought.
52 'And if there remain but a few years until the Year of Jubilee, then he shall reckon with him, and according to his years he shall repay him the price of his redemption.
53 'He shall be with him as a yearly hired servant, and he shall not rule with rigor over him in your sight.
54 'And if he is not redeemed in these years, then he shall be released in the Year of Jubilee—he and his children with him.
55 'For the children of Israel are servants to Me; they are My servants whom I brought out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

ENCOUNTER Note — Lev. 25:55

Free to Serve

God wants us to remain free to serve Him. If we entangle ourselves in debts or in unhealthy relationships, we may not be able to join God in His activity when He invites us. Keep yourself free from anything that might restrict your service to God.

Promise of Blessing and Retribution

26 'You shall [a]not make idols for yourselves;
neither a carved image nor a sacred pillar shall you rear up for yourselves;
nor shall you set up an engraved stone in your land, to bow down to it;
for I am the LORD your God.
2 [a]You shall [1]keep My Sabbaths and reverence My sanctuary:
I am the LORD.

26:1 "Sacred pillar" was a stone or wooden column that represented a pagan god. Here four types of pagan images are identified and condemned.

3 [a]'If you walk in My statutes and keep My commandments, and perform
them,
4 [a]then I will give you rain in its season, [b]the land shall yield its produce, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit.

ENCOUNTER Note Lev. 26:3, 4

Reward for Obedience

God will reward you for your obedience. Obedience is a tangible demonstration of love for God. His rewards are expressions of His love in return.

5 [a]Your threshing shall last till the time of vintage, and the vintage shall last till the time of sowing;
you shall eat your bread to the full,
and [b]dwell in your land safely.
6 [a]I will give peace in the land, and [b]you shall lie down, and none will make you afraid;
I will rid the land of [c]evil[1] beasts, and [d]the sword will not go through your land.
7 You will chase your enemies, and they shall fall by the sword before you.
8 [a]Five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight;
your enemies shall fall by the sword
before you.

9 'For I will [a]look on you favorably and [b]make you fruitful, multiply you and confirm My [c]covenant with you.
10 You shall eat the [a]old harvest, and clear out the old because of the new.
11 [a]I will set My [1]tabernacle among you, and My soul shall not abhor
you.
12 [a]I will walk among you and be your God, and you shall be My people.
13 I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that you should not be their slaves;
I have broken the bands of your
[a]yoke and made you walk
[1]upright.

14 'But if you do not obey Me, and do not observe all these commandments,
15 and if you despise My statutes, or if your soul abhors My judgments, so that you do not perform all My commandments, but break My covenant,
16 I also will do this to you:
I will even appoint terror over you,
[a]wasting disease and fever which shall [b]consume the eyes and [c]cause sorrow of heart.
And [d]you shall sow your seed [1]in vain, for your enemies shall eat it.
17 I will [1]set [a]My face against you, and [b]you shall be defeated by your enemies.
[c]Those who hate you shall reign over you, and you shall [d]flee when no one pursues you.

18 'And after all this, if you do not obey
Me, then I will punish you [a]seven times more for your sins.
19 I will [a]break the pride of your power;
I [b]will make your heavens like iron and your earth like bronze.
20 And your [a]strength shall be spent in vain;
for your [b]land shall not yield its produce, nor shall the trees of the land yield their fruit.

21 'Then, if you walk contrary to Me, and are not willing to obey Me, I will bring on you seven times more plagues, according to your sins.
22 [a]I will also send wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, destroy your livestock, and make you few in number;
and [b]your highways shall be desolate.
23 'And if [a]by these things you are not reformed by Me, but walk
contrary to Me,
24 [a]then I also will walk contrary to you, and I will punish you yet seven times for your sins.
25 And [a]I will bring a sword against you that will execute the vengeance of the covenant;
when you are gathered together within your cities [b]I will send pestilence among you;
and you shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Lev. 26:25

Enemies

Don't assume when your enemies are harming you that you are experiencing spiritual warfare. It may be God's judgment upon you. When you refuse to obey God, He may use your enemies to humble you and drive you back to God.

[b]and you shall eat and not be satisfied.

27 'And after all this, if you do not obey Me, but walk contrary to Me, 28 then I also will walk contrary to you in fury;
and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins.
29 [a]You[1] shall eat the flesh of your sons, and you shall eat the flesh of your daughters.
30 [a]I will destroy your high places, cut down your incense altars, and cast your carcasses on the lifeless forms of your idols; and My soul shall abhor you.
31 I will lay your [a]cities waste and [b]bring your sanctuaries to desolation, and I will not [c]smell the fragrance of your [1]sweet aromas.
32 [a]I will bring the land to desolation, and your enemies who dwell in it shall be astonished at it.
33 [a]I will scatter you among the nations and draw out a sword after you; your land shall be desolate and your cities waste.
34 [a]Then the land shall enjoy its sabbaths as long as it lies desolate and you are in your enemies' land;
then the land shall rest and enjoy its sabbaths.
35 As long as it lies desolate it shall rest—for the time it did not rest on your [a]sabbaths when you dwelt in it.

36 'And as for those of you who are left, I will send [a]faintness[1] into their hearts in the lands of their enemies;
the sound of a shaken leaf shall cause them to flee;
they shall flee as though fleeing from a sword, and they shall fall when no one pursues.
37 [a]They shall stumble over one another, as it were before a sword, when no one pursues;
and [b]you shall have no power to stand before your enemies.
38 You shall [a]perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up.
39 And those of you who are left [a]shall [1]waste away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; also in their [b]fathers' iniquities, which are with them, they shall waste away.

40 'But [a]if they confess their iniquity and the iniquity of their fathers, with their unfaithfulness in which they were unfaithful to Me, and that they also have walked contrary to Me,
41 and that I also have walked contrary to them and have brought them into the land of their enemies; if their [a]uncircumcised hearts are [b]humbled, and they [c]accept their guilt—
42 then I will [a]remember My covenant with Jacob, and My covenant with Isaac and My covenant with Abraham I will remember;
I will [b]remember the land.
43 [a]The land also shall be left empty by them, and will enjoy its sabbaths while it lies desolate without them;
they will accept their guilt, because they [b]despised My judgments and because their soul abhorred My statutes.
44 Yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, [a]I will not cast them away, nor shall I abhor them, to utterly destroy them and break My covenant with them; for I am the LORD their God.
45 But [a]for their sake I will remember the covenant of their ancestors, [b]whom I brought out of the land of Egypt [c]in the sight of the nations, that I might be their God:
I am the LORD.' "

46 [a]These are the statutes and judgments and laws which the LORD made between Himself and the children of Israel [b]on Mount Sinai by the hand of Moses.

26:33 If God's discipline did not turn His people back to Him, He would ultimately scatter them around the world. God did resort to this drastic measure during the Babylonian captivity.

2 "Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: [a]'When a man [1]consecrates by a vow certain persons to the LORD, according to your [2]valuation,
3 'if your valuation is of a male from twenty years old up to sixty years old, then your valuation shall be fifty shekels of silver, [a]according to the shekel of the sanctuary.
4 'If it is a female, then your valuation shall be thirty shekels;
5 'and if from five years old up to twenty years old, then your valuation for a male shall be twenty shekels, and for a female ten shekels;
6 'and if from a month old up to five years old, then your valuation for a male shall be five shekels of silver, and for a female your valuation shall be three shekels of silver;
7 'and if from sixty years old and above, if it is a male, then your valuation shall be fifteen shekels, and for a female ten shekels.
8 'But if he is too poor to pay your valuation, then he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall set a value for [a]him; according to the ability of him who vowed, the priest shall value him.
9 'If it is an animal that men may bring as an offering to the LORD, all that anyone gives to the LORD shall be holy.
10 'He shall not substitute it or exchange it, good for bad or bad for good; and if he at all exchanges animal for animal, then both it and the one exchanged for it shall be [a]holy.
11 'If it is an unclean animal which they do not offer as a sacrifice to the LORD, then he shall present the animal before the priest;
12 'and the priest shall set a value for it, whether it is good or bad; as you, the priest, value it, so it shall be.
13 [a]'But if he wants at all to redeem it, then he must add one-fifth to your valuation.
14 'And when a man [1]dedicates his house to be holy to the LORD, then the priest shall set a value for it, whether it is good or bad; as the priest values it, so it shall stand.
15 'If he who dedicated it wants to [1]redeem his house, then he must add one-fifth of the money of your valuation to it, and it shall be his.
16 'If a man [1]dedicates to the LORD part of a field of his possession, then your valuation shall be according to the seed for it. A homer of barley seed shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver.
17 'If he dedicates his field from the Year of Jubilee, according to your valuation it shall stand.
18 'But if he dedicates his field after the Jubilee, then the priest shall [a]reckon to him the money due according to the years that remain till the Year of Jubilee, and it shall be deducted from your valuation.
19 'And if he who dedicates the field ever wishes to redeem it, then he must add one-fifth of the money of your valuation to it, and it shall belong to him.
20 'But if he does not want to redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed anymore;
21 'but the field, [a]when it is released in the Jubilee, shall be holy to the LORD, as a [b]devoted field; it shall be [c]the possession of the priest.
22 'And if a man dedicates to the LORD a field which he has bought, which is not the field of [a]his possession,
23 'then the priest shall reckon to him the worth of your valuation, up to the Year of Jubilee, and he shall give your valuation on that day as a holy offering to the LORD.
24 [a]'In the Year of Jubilee the field shall return to him from whom it was bought, to the one who owned the land as a possession.
25 'And all your valuations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: [a]twenty gerahs to the shekel.
26 'But the [a]firstborn of the animals, which should be the LORD's firstborn, no man shall dedicate; whether it is an ox or sheep, it is the LORD's.
27 'And if it is an unclean animal, then he shall redeem it according to your valuation, and [a]shall add one-fifth to it; or if it is not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to your valuation.

Making Pledges to God

Vows made to God are binding. What is devoted to the Lord belongs to Him and is holy, whether it is a person, a possession, or a promised action.

27:2 The chief factor in determining value was physical strength.
27:3 Fifty shekels would have been roughly four years' wages.
27:16 A homer was a donkey load.
27:26 First born animals could not be dedicated to the Lord because they already belonged to God.
27:28 To "devote" something to God meant more than dedicating something to Him. Anything devoted to God was considered "under the ban" and was not redeemable by the one who offered it.

28 [a]‘Nevertheless no [1]devoted offering that a man may devote to the LORD of all that he has, both man and beast, or the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed; every devoted offering is most holy to the LORD.
29 [a]‘No person under the ban, who may become doomed to destruction among men, shall be redeemed, but shall surely be put to death.
30 ‘And [a]all the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land or of the fruit of the tree, is the LORD’s. It is holy to the LORD.

32 ‘And concerning the tithe of the herd or the flock, of whatever [a]passes under the rod, the tenth one shall be holy to the LORD.
33 ‘He shall not inquire whether it is good or bad, [a]nor shall he exchange it; and if he exchanges it at all, then both it and the one exchanged for it shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed.’ ”
34 [a]These are the commandments which the LORD commanded Moses for the children of Israel on Mount [b]Sinai.

28:32 “Under the rod” signified the annual accounting of sheep and goats as they were made to pass under the shepherd’s rod to be counted and examined.

THE FOURTH BOOK OF MOSES CALLED

NUMBERS

INTRODUCTION

The English title "Numbers" comes from the Greek name, arithmoi, which was given because of the two censuses recorded in chapters 1–4 and 26. The Hebrew title is drawn from the fifth word in the text meaning "in the wilderness."

SIGNIFICANCE

Numbers records Israel's forty years of wilderness wandering caused by their disobedience to God. The wilderness experience served as a warning to trust God and receive His blessing rather than to incur His judgment. Following Leviticus which emphasized holiness, Numbers reiterates the value of faith and obedience to God.

STRUCTURE

The book can be divided into three sections: The first records the details and instructions necessary to organize Israelites before their departure for the Promise Land (1:1—10:10). The second portion describes the setbacks and successes of the journey in the desert from Sinai to the Plains of Moab (10:11—22:1). The last section presents the preparation for entrance into the Promised Land (22:2—36:13).

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH NUMBERS

Numbers carries a strong warning to avoid the pattern of sin and ungrateful grumbling that characterized the Israelites during their sojourn in the wilderness. When the apostle Paul cautioned the church at Corinth not to sin lest they invoke God's punishment, he cited Numbers (1 Cor. 10:1–10). The author of Hebrews draws upon the "spy incident" (Num. 13:1—14:45) to show how unbelief and disobedience can prevent people from enjoying heavenly rest (Heb. 3:7—4:13). Jude used examples from Numbers to warn the church concerning God's punishment for unbelief (Jude 5, 9, 11). As you study this book be prepared for the Holy Spirit to draw parallels between the attitudes and faith of the Israelites and your own life.

God is the principal character in Numbers. Several aspects of God's nature are presented, including His faithfulness, His holiness and His desire to communicate with His people. While Numbers records numerous instances of God's judgment of the Israelites, there are also many events that reveal God's patience, provision, and grace towards the children of Israel. God continued to keep His promises and to accomplish His will through the Israelite people despite their persistent rebellion. In this same way, Christians can find hope that God will ultimately accomplish His purposes through His people.

Numbers provides both accountability and encouragement for Christian leaders. God's refusal to allow Moses to enter the Promised Land because of his disobedience warns modern spiritual leaders of the serious responsibility their position carries. In addition, the manner in which God guided Moses to lead the people testifies to God's provision for those in leadership.

The study of this book will provide understanding for comparisons of Jesus' life to events in Israel's past, such as John's reference to Jesus as the good shepherd (John 10:1–18; Num. 27:17), the life-giving serpent (John 3:14; Num. 21:9), and the Passover Lamb (John 19:36; Num. 9:12). The wilderness wanderings played an important part in Israel's history and provided a graphic example for New Testament Christians of the peril of disobedience.

The First Census of Israel

NOW the LORD spoke to Moses [a]in the Wilderness of Sinai, [b]in the tabernacle of meeting, on the [c]first day of the second month, in the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying:

WORD*Study* WILDERNESS OF SINAI

Num. 1:1 This wilderness took its name from Mount Sinai, where God gave Moses the Ten Commandments and where the Israelites camped for eleven months.

2 [a]"Take a census of all the congregation of the children of Israel, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, every male [b]individually,
3 "from [a]twenty years old and above—all who are able to go to war in Israel. You and Aaron shall number them by their armies.
4 "And with you there shall be a man from every tribe, each one the head of his father's house.
5 "These are the names of the men who shall stand with you: from Reuben, Elizur the son of Shedeur;
6 "from Simeon, Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai;
7 "from Judah, Nahshon the son of Amminadab;
8 "from Issachar, Nethanel the son of Zuar;

20 Now the [a]children of Reuben, Israel's oldest son, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, every male individually, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war:

tribe of Zebulun were fifty-seven thousand four hundred.
32 From the sons of Joseph, the [a]children of Ephraim, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war:
33 those who were numbered of the tribe of Ephraim were forty thousand five hundred.
34 From the [a]children of Manasseh, their genealogies by their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war:
35 those who were numbered of the tribe of Manasseh were thirty-two thousand two hundred.

43 those who were numbered of the tribe of Naphtali were fifty-three thousand four hundred.
44 [a]These are the ones who were numbered, whom Moses and Aaron numbered, with the leaders of Israel, twelve men, each one representing his father's house.
45 So all who were numbered of the children of Israel, by their fathers' houses, from twenty years old and above, all who were able to go to war in Israel—46 all who were numbered were [a]six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty.
47 But [a]the Levites were not numbered among them by their fathers' tribe;
48 for the LORD had spoken to Moses, saying:
49 [a]"Only the tribe of Levi you shall not number, nor take a census of them among the children of Israel;
50 [a]"but you shall appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of the Testimony, over all its furnishings, and over all things that belong to it; they shall carry the tabernacle and all its furnishings; they shall attend to it [b]and camp around the tabernacle.
51 [a]"And when the tabernacle is to go forward, the Levites shall take it down; and when the tabernacle is to be set up, the Levites shall set it [b]up. [c]The outsider who comes near shall be put to death.
52 "The children of Israel shall pitch their tents, [a]everyone by his own camp, everyone by his own standard, according to their armies;
53 [a]"but the Levites shall camp around the tabernacle of the Testimony, that there may be no [b]wrath on the congregation of the children of Israel; and the Levites shall [c]keep[1] charge of the tabernacle of the Testimony."

Worship Is Sacred

The place of worship (where we meet with God as His people) is sacred. We should always approach God with reverence and humility.

54 Thus the children of Israel did; according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so they did.

The Tribes and Leaders by Armies

2 And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:
2 [a]"Everyone of the children of Israel shall camp by his own [1]standard, beside the emblems of his father's house; they shall camp [b]some distance from the tabernacle of meeting.
3 "On the [a]east side, toward the rising of the sun, those of the standard of the forces with Judah shall camp according

1:32 The tribe of Joseph received a double inheritance, for both sons Ephraim and Manasseh, inherited land. Because the tribe of Levi did not receive an allotment of land, the land was divided among twelve tribes.

God always dwells in the center of His people and their community.

18 "On the west side shall be the standard of the forces with Ephraim according to their armies, and the leader of the children of Ephraim shall be Elishama the son of Ammihud."
19 And his army was numbered at forty thousand five hundred.
20 "Next to him comes the tribe of Manasseh, and the leader of the children of Manasseh shall be Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur."
21 And his army was numbered at thirty-two thousand two hundred.
22 "Then comes the tribe of Benjamin, and the leader of the children of Benjamin shall be Abidan the son of Gideoni."
23 And his army was numbered at thirty-five thousand four hundred.
24 "All who were numbered according to their armies of the forces with Ephraim, one hundred and eight thousand one hundred—[a]they shall [1]be the third to break camp.
25 "The [1]standard of the forces with Dan shall be on the north side according to their armies, and the leader of the children of Dan shall be Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai."
26 And his army was numbered at sixty-two thousand seven hundred.
27 "Those who camp next to him shall be the tribe of Asher, and the leader of the children of Asher shall be Pagiel the son of Ocran."
28 And his army was numbered at forty-one thousand five hundred.
29 "Then comes the tribe of Naphtali, and the leader of the children of Naphtali shall be Ahira the son of Enan."
30 And his army was numbered at fifty-three thousand four hundred.
31 "All who were numbered of the forces with Dan, one hundred and fifty-seven thousand six hundred—[a]they shall [1]break camp last, with their [2]standards."
32 These are the ones who were numbered of the children of Israel by their fathers' houses. [a]All who were numbered according to their armies of the forces were six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty.
33 But [a]the Levites were not numbered among the children of Israel, just as the LORD commanded Moses.
34 Thus the children of Israel [a]did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses; [b]so they camped by their [1]standards and so they broke camp, each one by his family, according to their fathers' houses.

God's Standards Are Nonnegotiable

God's standards are nonnegotiable. Those who disregard God's holiness or try to circumvent His expectations will pay a heavy price.

The Levites Serve in the Tabernacle

5 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
6 [a]"Bring the tribe of Levi near, and present them before Aaron the priest, that they may serve him.
7 "And they shall attend to his needs and the needs of the whole congregation before the tabernacle of meeting, to do [a]the work of the tabernacle.
8 "Also they shall attend to all the furnishings of the tabernacle of meeting, and to the needs of the children of Israel, to do the work of the tabernacle.
9 "And [a]you shall give the Levites to Aaron and his sons; they are given entirely to [1]him from among the children of Israel.
10 "So you shall appoint Aaron and his sons, [a]and they shall attend to their priesthood; [b]but the outsider who comes near shall be put to death."
11 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
12 "Now behold, [a]I Myself have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel instead of every firstborn who opens the womb among the children of Israel. Therefore the Levites shall be [b]Mine,
13 "because [a]all the firstborn are Mine. [b]On the day that I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I sanctified to Myself all the firstborn in Israel, both man and beast. They shall be Mine: I am the LORD."

Census of the Levites Commanded

14 Then the LORD spoke to Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai, saying:
15 "Number the children of Levi by their fathers' houses, by their families; you shall number [a]every male from a month old and above."
16 So Moses numbered them according to the [1]word of the LORD, as he was commanded.
17 [a]These were the sons of Levi by their names: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.
18 And these are the names of the sons of [a]Gershon by their families: [b]Libni and Shimei.
19 And the sons of [a]Kohath by their families: [b]Amram, Izehar, Hebron, and Uzziel.
20 [a]And the sons of Merari by their families: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites by their fathers' houses.
21 From Gershon came the family of the Libnites and the family of the Shimites; these were the families of the Gershonites.
22 Those who were numbered, according to the number of all the males from a month old and above—of those who were numbered there were seven thousand five hundred.
23 [a]The families of the Gershonites were to camp behind the tabernacle westward.
24 And the leader of the father's house of the Gershonites was Eliasaph the son of Lael.
25 [a]The duties of the children of Gershon in the tabernacle of meeting included [b]the tabernacle, [c]the tent with [d]its covering, [e]the screen for the door of the tabernacle of meeting,
26 [a]the screen for the door of the court, [b]the hangings of the court which are around the tabernacle and the altar, and [c]their cords, according to all the work relating to them.
27 [a]From Kohath came the family of the Amramites, the family of the Izharites, the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites; these were the families of the Kohathites.

3:12 When God spared the firstborn Hebrew children during the Passover, He claimed them for Himself (Ex. 13:1, 2). Firstborn animals also belonged to God. Parents and owners could redeem their firstborn from God by paying a prescribed amount. However, God claimed that rather than taking the first born children from every tribe of Israel, He would take the tribe of Levi as a whole.

3:17 The tribe of Levi was divided into three families: Gershon, Kohath, Merari.

3:27 The Amramites were the family from which Moses, Aaron and Miriam descended (Ex. 6:20).

there were eight thousand [1]six hundred [2]keeping charge of the sanctuary.
29 [a]The families of the children of Kohath were to camp on the south side of the tabernacle.
30 And the leader of the fathers' house of the families of the Kohathites was Elizaphan the son of [a]Uzziel.
31 [a]Their duty included [b]the ark, [c]the table, [d]the lampstand, [e]the altars, the utensils of the sanctuary with which they ministered, [f]the screen, and all the work relating to them.
32 And Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest was to be chief over the leaders of the Levites, with oversight of those who kept charge of the sanctuary.
33 From Merari came the family of the Mahlites and the family of the Mushites; these were the families of Merari.
34 And those who were numbered, according to the number of all the males from a month old and above, were six thousand two hundred.
35 The leader of the fathers' house of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail. [a]These were to camp on the north side of the tabernacle.
36 And [a]the appointed duty of the children of Merari included the boards of the tabernacle, its bars, its pillars, its sockets, its utensils, all the work relating to them,
37 and the pillars of the court all around, with their sockets, their pegs, and their cords.
38 [a]Moreover those who were to camp before the tabernacle on the east, before the tabernacle of meeting, were Moses, Aaron, and his sons, [b]keeping charge of the sanctuary, [c]to meet the needs of the children of Israel; but [d]the outsider who came near was to be put to death.
39 [a]All who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of the LORD, by their families, all the males from a month old and above, were twenty-two thousand.

Levites Dedicated Instead of the Firstborn

40 Then the LORD said to Moses: [a]"Number[1] all the firstborn males of the children of Israel from a month old and above, and take the number of their names.
41 [a]"And you shall take the Levites for Me—I am the LORD—instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the livestock of the children of Israel."
42 So Moses numbered all the firstborn among the children of Israel, as the LORD commanded him.
43 And all the firstborn males, according to the number of names from a month old and above, of those who were numbered of them, were twenty-two thousand two hundred and seventy-three.
44 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
45 [a]"Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites instead of their livestock. The Levites shall be Mine: I am the LORD.
46 "And for [a]the redemption of the two hundred and seventy-three of the firstborn of the children of Israel, [b]who are more than the number of the Levites, 47 "you shall take [a]five shekels for each one [b]individually; you shall take them in the currency of the shekel of the sanctuary, [c]the shekel of twenty gerahs.
48 "And you shall give the money, with which the excess number of them is redeemed, to Aaron and his sons."
49 So Moses took the redemption money from those who were over and above those who were redeemed by the Levites.
50 From the firstborn of the children of Israel he took the money, [a]one thousand three hundred and sixty-five shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary.
51 And Moses [a]gave their redemption money to Aaron and his sons, according to the word of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Duties of the Sons of Kohath

4 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:
2 "Take a census of the sons of [a]Kohath from among the children of Levi, by their families, by their fathers' house,
3 [a]"from thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, all who enter the service to do the work in the tabernacle of meeting.

17 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:
18 "Do not cut off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites;
19 "but do this in regard to them, that they may live and not die when they approach [a]the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in and [1]appoint each of them to his service and his task.
20 [a]"But they shall not go in to watch while the holy things are being covered, lest they die."

Duties of the Sons of Gershon

21 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
22 "Also take a census of the sons of [a]Gershon, by their fathers' house, by their families.
23 [a]"From thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, you shall number them, all who enter to perform the service, to do the work in the tabernacle of meeting.

27 "Aaron and his sons shall [1]assign all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, all their tasks and all their service. And you shall [2]appoint to them all their tasks as their duty.

Census of the Levites

34 [a]And Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of the congregation numbered the sons of the Kohathites by their families and by their fathers' house,
35 from thirty [a]years old and above, even to fifty years old, everyone who entered the service for work in the tabernacle of meeting;
36 and those who were numbered by their families were two thousand seven hundred and fifty.
37 These were the ones who were numbered of the families of the Kohathites, all who might serve in the tabernacle of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.
38 And those who were numbered of the sons of Gershon, by their families and by their fathers' house,
39 from thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, everyone who entered the service for work in the tabernacle of meeting—
40 those who were numbered by their families, by their fathers' house, were two thousand six hundred and thirty.
41 [a]These are the ones who were numbered of the families of the sons of Gershon, of all who might serve in the tabernacle of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD.
42 Those of the families of the sons of Merari who were numbered, by their families, by their fathers' [1]house,
43 from thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, everyone who entered the service for work in the tabernacle of meeting—
44 those who were numbered by their families were three thousand two hundred.
45 These are the ones who were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered [a]according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.
46 All who were [a]numbered of the Levites, whom Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of Israel numbered, by their families and by their fathers' houses,
47 [a]from thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, everyone who came to do the work of service and the work of bearing burdens in the tabernacle of meeting—
48 those who were numbered were eight thousand five hundred and eighty.
49 According to the commandment of the LORD they were numbered by the hand of Moses, [a]each according to his service and according to his task; thus were they numbered by him, [b]as the LORD commanded Moses.

Ceremonially Unclean Persons Isolated

5 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
2 "Command the children of Israel that they put out of the camp every [a]leper, everyone who has a [b]discharge, and whoever becomes [c]defiled [1]by a corpse.
3 "You shall put out both male and female; you shall put them outside the camp, that they may not defile their camps [a]in the midst of which I dwell."
4 And the children of Israel did so, and put them outside the camp; as the LORD spoke to Moses, so the children of Israel did.

Confession and Restitution

5 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
6 "Speak to the children of Israel: [a]'When a man or woman commits any sin that men commit in unfaithfulness against the LORD, and that person is guilty,
7 [a]'then he shall confess the sin which he has committed. He shall make restitution for his trespass [b]in full, plus one-fifth of it, and give it to the one he has wronged.

Genuine Confession

Confession of sin is more than simply acknowledging our wrongdoing. It involves a change of life and a deep desire to make restitution to anyone against whom we have sinned.

8 'But if the man has no [1]relative to whom restitution may be made for the wrong, the restitution for the wrong must go to the LORD for the priest, in addition to [a]the ram of the atonement with which atonement is made for him.
9 'Every [a]offering[1] of all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring to the priest, shall be [b]his.

Concerning Unfaithful Wives

11 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
12 "Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: 'If any man's wife goes astray and behaves unfaithfully toward him,
13 'and a man [a]lies with her carnally, and it is hidden from the eyes of her husband, and it is concealed that she has defiled herself, and there was no witness against her, nor was she [b]caught—
14 'if the spirit of jealousy comes upon him and he becomes [a]jealous of his wife, who has defiled herself; or if the spirit of jealousy comes upon him and he becomes jealous of his wife, although she has not defiled herself—
15 'then the man shall bring his wife to the priest. He shall [a]bring the offering required for her, one-tenth of an ephah of barley meal; he shall pour no oil on it and put no frankincense on it, because it is a grain offering of jealousy, an offering for remembering, for [b]bringing iniquity to remembrance.
16 'And the priest shall bring her near, and set her before the LORD.
17 'The priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel, and take some of the dust that is on the floor of the tabernacle and put it into the water.
18 'Then the priest shall stand the woman before the [a]LORD, uncover the woman's head, and put the offering for remembering in her hands, which is the grain offering of jealousy. And the priest shall have in his hand the bitter water that brings a curse.
19 'And the priest shall put her under oath, and say to the woman, "If no man has lain with you, and if you have not gone astray to uncleanness while under your husband's authority, be free from this bitter water that brings a curse.
20 "But if you have gone astray while under your husband's authority, and if you have defiled yourself and some man other than your husband has lain with you"—
21 'then the priest shall [a]put the woman under the oath of the curse, and he shall say to the woman—[b]"the LORD make you a curse and an oath among your people, when the LORD makes your thigh [1]rot and your belly swell;
22 "and may this water that causes the curse [a]go into your stomach, and make your belly swell and your thigh rot." [b]Then the woman shall say, "Amen, so be it."
23 'Then the priest shall write these curses in a book, and he shall scrape them off into the bitter water.
24 'And he shall make the woman drink the bitter water that brings a curse, and the water that brings the curse shall enter her to become bitter.
25 [a]'Then the priest shall take the grain offering of jealousy from the woman's hand, shall [b]wave the offering before the LORD, and bring it to the altar;
26 'and the priest shall take a handful of the offering, [a]as its memorial portion, burn it on the altar, and afterward make the woman drink the water.
27 'When he has made her drink the water, then it shall be, if she has defiled herself and behaved unfaithfully toward her husband, that the water that brings a [a]curse will enter her and become bitter, and her belly will swell, her thigh will rot, and the woman [b]will become a curse among her people.
28 'But if the woman has not defiled herself, and is clean, then she shall be free and may conceive children.
29 'This is the law of jealousy, when a wife, while under her husband's authority, [a]goes astray and defiles herself,
30 'or when the spirit of jealousy comes upon a man, and he becomes jealous of his wife; then he shall stand the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute all this law upon her.
31 'Then the man shall be free from [1]iniquity, but that woman [a]shall bear her [2]guilt.' "

The Law of the Nazirite

6 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
2 "Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: 'When either a man or woman [1]consecrates an offering to take the vow of a Nazirite, [a]to separate himself to the LORD,
3 [a]'he shall separate himself from wine and similar drink; he shall drink neither vinegar made from wine nor vinegar made from similar drink; neither shall he drink any grape juice, nor eat fresh grapes or raisins.

4 [1]Separation as a Nazirite

5:15 In the ancient world, where a wife was considered her husband's property, the provision to be brought before a priest by a jealous husband may have saved the lives of many women who might otherwise have been beaten or killed.

5:17 This was not a magical rite but an indication that God would ultimately determine the guilt or innocence of the woman.

5:22 This may be referring to a miscarriage of an illegitimate child, as well as subsequent childlessness.

5 'All the days of the vow of his separation no [a]razor shall come upon his head; until the days are fulfilled for which he separated himself to the LORD, he shall be holy. Then he shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow.
6 'All the days that he separates himself to the LORD [a]he shall not go near a dead body.
7 [a]'He shall not [1]make himself unclean even for his father or his mother, for his brother or his sister, when they die, because his separation to God is on his head.
8 [a]'All the days of his separation he shall be holy to the LORD.

WORD*Study* NAZIRITE VOW

Num. 6:8 A nazirite vow was a covenant that people made with God in which they promised to keep themselves pure for a specified period of time. During that period the person could not drink wine, cut their hair, or come into contact with a corpse.

9 'And if anyone dies very suddenly beside him, and he defiles his consecrated head, then he shall [a]shave his head on the day of his cleansing; on the seventh day he shall shave it.
10 'Then [a]on the eighth day he shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of meeting;
11 'and the priest shall offer one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, and make atonement for him, because he sinned in regard to the corpse; and he shall sanctify his head that same day.
12 'He shall consecrate to the LORD the days of his separation, and bring a male lamb in its first year [a]as a trespass offering; but the former days shall be [1]lost, because his separation was defiled.
13 'Now this is the law of the Nazirite: [a]When the days of his separation are fulfilled, he shall be brought to the door of the tabernacle of meeting.
14 'And he shall present his offering to the LORD: one male lamb in its first year without blemish as a burnt offering, one ewe lamb in its first year without blemish [a]as a sin offering, one ram without blemish [b]as a peace offering,
15 'a basket of unleavened bread, [a]cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, unleavened wafers [b]anointed with oil, and their grain offering with their [c]drink offerings.
16 'Then the priest shall bring them before the LORD and offer his sin offering and his burnt offering;
17 'and he shall offer the ram as a sacrifice of a peace offering to the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread; the priest shall also offer its grain offering and its drink offering.
18 [a]'Then the Nazirite shall shave his consecrated head at the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and shall take the hair from his consecrated head and put it on the fire which is under the sacrifice of the peace offering.
19 'And the priest shall take the [a]boiled shoulder of the ram, one [b]unleavened cake from the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and [c]put them upon the hands of the Nazirite after he has shaved his consecrated hair,
20 'and the priest shall wave them as a wave offering before the LORD; [a]they are holy for the priest, together with the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the heave offering. After that the Nazirite may drink wine.'
21 "This is the law of the Nazirite who vows to the LORD the offering for his separation, and besides that, whatever else his hand is able to provide; according to the vow which he takes, so he must do according to the law of his separation."

The Priestly Blessing

22 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
23 "Speak to Aaron and his sons, saying, 'This is the way you shall bless the children of Israel. Say to them:

24 "The LORD [a]bless you and [b]keep you;
25 The LORD [a]make His face shine upon you,
And [b]be gracious to you;
26 [a]The LORD [1]lift up His countenance
upon you,
And [b]give you peace." '

6:25 "His face shine upon you" indicated God's manifest pleasure upon someone's life. It was a profound experience for that person.

Offerings of the Leaders

7 Now it came to pass, when Moses had finished [a]setting up the tabernacle, that he [b]anointed it and consecrated it and all its furnishings, and the altar and all its utensils; so he anointed them and consecrated them.
2 Then [a]the leaders of Israel, the heads of their fathers' houses, who were the leaders of the tribes [1]and over those who were numbered, made an offering.
3 And they brought their offering before the LORD, six covered carts and twelve oxen, a cart for every two of the leaders, and for each one an ox; and they presented them before the tabernacle.
4 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
5 "Accept these from them, that they may be used in doing the work of the tabernacle of meeting; and you shall give them to the Levites, to every man according to his service."
6 So Moses took the carts and the oxen, and gave them to the Levites.
7 Two carts and four oxen [a]he gave to the sons of Gershon, according to their service;
8 [a]and four carts and eight oxen he gave to the sons of Merari, according to their service, under the [1]authority of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.
9 But to the sons of Kohath he gave none, because theirs was [a]the service of the holy things, [b]which they carried on their shoulders.
10 Now the leaders offered [a]the dedication offering for the altar when it was anointed; so the leaders offered their offering before the altar.
11 For the LORD said to Moses, "They shall offer their offering, one leader each day, for the dedication of the altar."
12 And the one who offered his offering on the first day was [a]Nahshon the son of Amminadab, from the tribe of Judah.
13 His offering was one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to [a]the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a [b]grain offering;
14 one gold pan of ten shekels, full of [a]incense;
15 [a]one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb [b]in its first year, as a burnt offering;
16 one kid of the goats as a [a]sin offering;
17 and for [a]the sacrifice of peace offerings: two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Nahshon the son of Amminadab.
18 On the second day Nethanel the son of Zuar, leader of Issachar, presented an offering.
19 For his offering he offered one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;
20 one gold pan of ten shekels, full of incense;

24 On the third day Eliab the son of Helon, leader of the children of Zebulun, presented an offering.
25 His offering was one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

84 This was [a]the dedication offering for the altar from the leaders of Israel, when it was anointed: twelve silver platters, twelve silver bowls, and twelve gold pans.
85 Each silver platter weighed one hundred and thirty shekels and each bowl seventy shekels. All the silver of the vessels weighed two thousand four hundred shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary.
86 The twelve gold pans full of incense weighed ten shekels apiece, according to the shekel of the sanctuary; all the gold of the pans weighed one hundred and twenty shekels.
87 All the oxen for the burnt offering were twelve young bulls, the rams twelve, the male lambs in their first year twelve, with their grain offering, and the kids of the goats as a sin offering twelve.
88 And all the oxen for the sacrifice of peace offerings were twenty-four bulls, the rams sixty, the male goats sixty, and the lambs in their first year sixty. This was the dedication offering for the altar after it was [a]anointed.
89 Now when Moses went into the tabernacle of meeting [a]to speak with Him, he heard [b]the voice of One speaking to him from above the mercy seat that was on the ark of the Testimony, from [c]between the two cherubim; thus He spoke to him.

WORD Study — WAVE OFFERING

Num. 8:11 Parts of the peace offering, such as bread or the first fruits of the harvest, could be waved before God in solemn dedication and then they became the property of the priest. In this case, the Levites would be the offering and they would become the property of God.

12 [a]"Then the Levites shall lay their hands on the heads of the young bulls, and you shall offer one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering to the LORD, to make atonement for the Levites.
13 "And you shall stand the Levites before Aaron and his sons, and then offer them like a wave offering to the LORD.
14 "Thus you shall [a]separate the Levites from among the children of Israel, and the Levites shall be [b]Mine.

Set Apart for Service

Those who belong to God are expected to serve Him wherever He places them.

15 "After that the Levites shall go in to service the tabernacle of meeting. So you shall cleanse them and [a]offer them, like a wave offering.
16 "For they are [a]wholly given to Me from among the children of Israel; I have taken them for Myself [b]instead of all who open the womb, the firstborn of all the children of Israel.
17 [a]"For all the firstborn among the children of Israel are Mine, both man and beast; on the day that I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I [1]sanctified them to Myself.
18 "I have taken the Levites instead of all the firstborn of the children of Israel.
19 "And [a]I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the work for the children of Israel in the tabernacle of meeting, and to make atonement for the children of Israel, [b]that there be no plague among the children of Israel when the children of Israel come near the sanctuary."
20 Thus Moses and Aaron and all the congregation of the children of Israel did to the Levites; according to all that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so the children of Israel did to them.
21 [a]And the Levites purified themselves and washed their clothes; then Aaron presented them, like a wave offering before the LORD, and Aaron made atonement for them to cleanse them.
22 [a]After that the Levites went in to do their work in the tabernacle of meeting before Aaron and his sons; [b]as the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did to them.
23 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
24 "This is what pertains to the Levites: [a]From twenty-five years old and above one may enter to perform service in the work of the tabernacle of meeting;
25 "and at the age of fifty years they must cease performing this work, and shall work no more.
26 "They may minister with their brethren in the tabernacle of meeting, [a]to attend to needs, but they themselves shall do no work. Thus you shall do to the Levites regarding their duties."

The Second Passover

9 Now the LORD spoke to Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying:

7 [a]Num. 19:9, 13, 17, 20 [b]Lev. 14:8, 9 [1]Heb. let them cause a razor to pass over
8 [a]Lev. 2:1
9 [a]Ex. 29:4; 40:12 [b]Lev. 8:3
10 [a]Lev. 1:4
11 [a]Num. 18:6 [1]present
12 [a]Ex. 29:10
14 [a]Num. 16:9 [b]Num. 3:12, 45; 16:9
15 [a]Num. 8:11, 13
16 [a]Num. 3:9 [b]Num. 3:12, 45
17 [a]Ex. 12:2, 12, 13, 15 [1]set them apart
19 [a]Num. 3:9 [b]Num. 1:53; 16:46; 18:5
21 [a]Num. 8:7
22 [a]Num. 8:15 [b]Num. 8:5
24 [a]Num. 4:3
26 [a]Num. 1:53

8:7 To shave the entire body symbolized purity and a fresh beginning.
8:24 The age of twenty five is younger than the specified age of thirty given earlier (Num. 4:3). This may reflect a period of training. Later David would lower the age to twenty (1 Chr. 23:24, 27).

2 "Let the children of Israel keep [a]the Passover at its appointed [b]time.
3 "On the fourteenth day of this month, [1]at twilight, you shall [2]keep it at its appointed time. According to all its [3]rites and ceremonies you shall keep it."
4 So Moses told the children of Israel that they should keep the Passover.
5 And [a]they kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month, at twilight, in the Wilderness of Sinai; according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did.
6 Now there were certain men who were [a]defiled by a human corpse, so that they could not keep the Passover on that day; [b]and they came before Moses and Aaron that day.
7 And those men said to him, "We became defiled by a human corpse. Why are we kept from presenting the offering of the LORD at its appointed time among the children of Israel?"
8 And Moses said to them, "Stand still, that [a]I may hear what the LORD will command concerning you."
9 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
10 "Speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'If anyone of you or your [1]posterity is unclean because of a corpse, or is far away on a journey, he may still keep the LORD's Passover.
11 'On [a]the fourteenth day of the second month, at twilight, they may keep it. They shall [b]eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.
12 [a]'They shall leave none of it until morning, [b]nor break one of its bones. [c]According to all the [1]ordinances of the Passover they shall keep it.
13 'But the man who is clean and is not on a journey, and ceases to keep the Passover, that same person [a]shall be cut off from among his people, because he [b]did not bring the offering of the LORD at its appointed time; that man shall [c]bear his sin.
14 'And if a stranger [1]dwells among you, and would keep the LORD's Passover, he must do so according to the rite of the Passover and according to its ceremony; [a]you shall have one [2]ordinance, both for the stranger and the native of the land.' "

The Cloud and the Fire

15 Now [a]on the day that the tabernacle was raised up, the cloud [b]covered the tabernacle, the tent of the Testimony; [c]from evening until morning it was above the tabernacle like the appearance of fire.
16 So it was always: the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.
17 Whenever the cloud [a]was [1]taken up from above the tabernacle, after that the children of Israel would journey; and in the place where the cloud settled, there the children of Israel would pitch their tents.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Num. 9:17

Following God

God leads His children specifically and intentionally. It is foolish to get ahead of God or to remain behind when God moves forward.

18 At the [1]command of the LORD the children of Israel would journey, and at the command of the LORD they would camp; [a]as long as the cloud stayed above the tabernacle they remained encamped.
19 Even when the cloud continued long, many days above the tabernacle, the children of Israel [a]kept the charge of the LORD and did not journey.
20 So it was, when the cloud was above the tabernacle a few days: according to the command of the LORD they would remain encamped, and according to the command of the LORD they would journey.
21 So it was, when the cloud remained only from evening until morning: when the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they would journey; whether by day or by night, whenever the cloud was taken up, they would journey.
22 Whether it was two days, a month, or a year that the cloud remained above the tabernacle, the children of Israel [a]would remain encamped and not journey; but when it was taken up, they would journey.
23 At the command of the LORD they remained encamped, and at the command of the LORD they journeyed; they [a]kept the charge of the LORD, at the command of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

9:2 The Passover was a solemn annual commemoration of the last plague visited upon the Egyptians, whereby those who painted the blood of a lamb on their doorposts were spared the death of their firstborn child. Ultimately Christ, the Lamb of God, would shed his blood, so whoever believed in Him would also be spared from death and given eternal life.

9:12 The Passover Meal focused on the sacrificed lamb. Having none of its bones broken foreshadowed the Passover lamb of Jesus (John 19:36).

9:17 The cloud symbolized God's presence with His people; they did not have to decide where they would go. God led them specifically.

Two Silver Trumpets

10 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
2 "Make two silver trumpets for yourself; you shall make them of hammered work; you shall use them for [a]calling the congregation and for directing the movement of the camps.
3 "When [a]they blow both of them, all the congregation shall gather before you at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

ENCOUNTER Note Num. 10:3

God's Voice

God's voice can be as clear and penetrating as a trumpet blast. At times God will summon His people because of an urgent matter that requires their immediate attention. Such a summons is ignored at great peril.

4 "But if they blow only one, then the leaders, the [a]heads of the divisions of Israel, shall gather to you.
5 "When you sound the [a]advance, [b]the camps that lie on the east side shall then begin their journey.
6 "When you sound the advance the second time, then the camps that lie [a]on the south side shall begin their journey; they shall sound the call for them to begin their journeys.
7 "And when the assembly is to be gathered together, [a]you shall blow, but not [b]sound the advance.
8 [a]"The sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow the trumpets; and these shall be to you as an [1]ordinance forever throughout your generations.
9 [a]"When you go to war in your land against the enemy who [b]oppresses you, then you shall sound an alarm with the trumpets, and you will be [c]remembered before the LORD your God, and you will be saved from your enemies.
10 "Also [a]in the day of your gladness, in your appointed feasts, and at the beginning of your months, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; and they shall be [b]a memorial for you before your God: I am the LORD your God."

Departure from Sinai

11 Now it came to pass on the twentieth day of the second month, in the second year, that the cloud [a]was taken up from above the tabernacle of the Testimony.
12 And the children of Israel set out from the [a]Wilderness of Sinai on [b]their journeys; then the cloud settled down in the [c]Wilderness of Paran.
13 So they started out for the first time [a]according to the command of the LORD by the hand of Moses.
14 The [1]standard of the camp of the children of Judah [a]set out first according to their armies; over their army was [b]Nahshon the son of Amminadab.
15 Over the army of the tribe of the children of Issachar was Nethanel the son of Zuar.
16 And over the army of the tribe of the children of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon.
17 Then [a]the tabernacle was taken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari set out, [b]carrying the tabernacle.
18 And [a]the standard of the camp of Reuben set out according to their armies; over their army was Elizur the son of Shedeur.
19 Over the army of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.
20 And over the army of the tribe of the children of Gad was Eliasaph the son of Deuel.
21 Then the Kohathites set out, carrying the [a]holy things. (The tabernacle would be [1]prepared for their arrival.)
22 And [a]the standard of the camp of the children of Ephraim set out according to their armies; over their army was Elishama the son of Ammihud.
23 Over the army of the tribe of the children of Manasseh was Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.
24 And over the army of the tribe of the children of Benjamin was Abidan the son of Gideoni.
25 Then [a]the standard of the camp of the children of Dan (the rear guard of all the camps) set out according to their armies; over their army was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.
26 Over the army of the tribe of the children of Asher was Pagiel the son of Ocran.
27 And over the army of the tribe of the children of Naphtali was Ahira the son of Enan.
28 [a]Thus was the order of march of the children of Israel, according to their armies, when they began their journey.

10:3 The unmistakable sound of trumpets clearly communicated what people needed to do (10:3–10). But the sounding trumpet was also a symbolic reminder of God's promise of protection for His people and a reminder to the people of God's goodness during times of celebration.

10:12 The Wilderness of Paran was in the northeastern Sinai Peninsula, south of Judah.

29 Now Moses said to [a]Hobab the son of [b]Reuel[1] the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are setting out for the place of which the LORD said, [c]'I will give it to you.' Come with us, and [d]we will treat you well; for [e]the LORD has promised good things to Israel."
30 And he said to him, "I will not go, but I will depart to my own land and to my relatives."
31 So Moses said, "Please do not leave, inasmuch as you know how we are to camp in the wilderness, and you can [1]be our [a]eyes.
32 "And it shall be, if you go with us—indeed it shall be—that [a]whatever good the LORD will do to us, the same we will do to you."
33 So they departed from [a]the mountain of the LORD on a journey of three days; and the ark of the covenant of the LORD [b]went before them for the three days' journey, to search out a resting place for them.
34 And [a]the cloud of the LORD was above them by day when they went out from the camp.
35 So it was, whenever the ark set out, that Moses said:

[a]"Rise up, O LORD!
Let Your enemies be scattered,
And let those who hate You flee
before You."

36 And when it rested, he said:

"Return, O LORD,
To the many thousands of Israel."

The People Complain

11 Now [a]when the people complained, it displeased the LORD; [b]for the LORD heard it, and His anger was aroused. So the [c]fire of the LORD burned among them, and consumed some in the outskirts of the camp.

Coming from Above

God's provision is always enough, and it always arrives on time. His provision is one of the most tangible expressions of His love. Do you recognize His love in all He gives you? Or do you grumble and complain that it does not satisfy you?

2 Then the people [a]cried out to Moses, and when Moses [b]prayed to the LORD, the fire was [1]quenched.
3 So he called the name of the place [1]Taberah, because the fire of the LORD had burned among them.
4 Now the [a]mixed multitude who were among them [1]yielded to [b]intense craving; so the children of Israel also wept again and said: [c]"Who will give us meat to eat?
5 [a]"We remember the fish which we ate freely in Egypt, the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic;
6 "but now [a]our whole being is dried up; there is nothing at all except this manna before our eyes!"
7 Now [a]the manna was like coriander seed, and its color like the color of bdellium.
8 The people went about and gathered it, ground it on millstones or beat it in the mortar, cooked it in pans, and made cakes of it; and [a]its taste was like the taste of pastry prepared with oil.
9 And [a]when the dew fell on the camp in the night, the manna fell on it.
10 Then Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, everyone at the door of his tent; and [a]the anger of the LORD was greatly aroused; Moses also was displeased.
11 [a]So Moses said to the LORD, "Why have You afflicted Your servant? And why have I not found favor in Your sight, that You have laid the [1]burden of all these people on me?
12 "Did I conceive all these people? Did I beget them, that You should say to me, [a]'Carry them in your bosom, as a [b]guardian carries a nursing child,' to the land which You [c]swore[1] to their fathers?
13 [a]"Where am I to get meat to give to all these people? For they weep all over me, saying, 'Give us meat, that we may eat.'
14 [a]"I am not able to bear all these people alone, because the burden is too heavy for me.
15 "If You treat me like this, please kill me here and now—if I have found favor in Your sight—and [a]do not let me see my wretchedness!"

The Seventy Elders

16 So the LORD said to Moses: "Gather to Me [a]seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people and [b]officers over them; bring them to the tabernacle of meeting, that they may stand there with you.
17 "Then I will come down and talk

10:29 Reuel may have been Jethro.
11:7 A pot of manna was kept in the ark of the covenant (Ex. 16:33).
11:14 Moses grew weary of the people's constant complaining.
11:16 This group of seventy men became an administrative body that assisted Moses in leading the Israelites.

with you there. [a]I will take of the Spirit that is upon you and will put the same upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, that you may not bear it yourself alone.
18 "Then you shall say to the people, [1]'Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, and you shall eat meat; for you have wept [a]in the hearing of the LORD, saying, "Who will give us meat to eat? For it was well with us in Egypt." Therefore the LORD will give you meat, and you shall eat.
19 'You shall eat, not one day, nor two days, nor five days, nor ten days, nor twenty days,
20 [a]'but for a whole month, until it comes out of your nostrils and becomes loathsome to you, because you have [b]despised the LORD who is among you, and have wept before Him, saying, [c]"Why did we ever come up out of Egypt?" ' "
21 And Moses said, [a]"The people whom I am among are six hundred thousand men on foot; yet You have said, 'I will give them meat, that they may eat for a whole month.'
22 [a]"Shall flocks and herds be slaughtered for them, to provide enough for them? Or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to provide enough for them?"
23 And the LORD said to Moses, [a]"Has[1] the LORD's arm been shortened? Now you shall see whether [b]what I say will happen to you or not."
24 So Moses went out and told the people the words of the LORD, and he [a]gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people and placed them around the tabernacle.
25 Then the LORD came down in the cloud, and spoke to him, and took of the Spirit that was upon him, and placed the same upon the seventy elders; and it happened, [a]when the Spirit rested upon them, that [b]they prophesied, [1]although they never did so again.
26 But two men had remained in the camp: the name of one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad. And the Spirit rested upon them. Now they were among those listed, but who [a]had not gone out to the tabernacle; yet they prophesied in the camp.
27 And a young man ran and told Moses, and said, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp."

answered and said, "Moses my lord, [a]forbid them!"
29 Then Moses said to him, "Are you [1]zealous for my sake? [a]Oh, that all the LORD's people were prophets and that the LORD would put His Spirit upon them!"
30 And Moses returned to the camp, both he and the elders of Israel.

The LORD Sends Quail

31 Now a [a]wind went out from the LORD, and it brought quail from the sea and left them fluttering near the camp, about a day's journey on this side and about a day's journey on the other side, all around the camp, and about two cubits above the surface of the ground.
32 And the people stayed up all that day, all night, and all the next day, and gathered the quail (he who gathered least gathered ten [a]homers); and they spread them out for themselves all around the camp.
33 But while the [a]meat was still between their teeth, before it was chewed, the wrath of the LORD was aroused against the people, and the LORD struck the people with a very great plague.
34 So he called the name of that place [1]Kibroth Hattaavah, because there they buried the people who had yielded to craving.
35 [a]From Kibroth Hattaavah the people moved to Hazeroth, and camped at Hazeroth.

Dissension of Aaron and Miriam

12 Then [a]Miriam and Aaron [1]spoke [b]against Moses because of the [2]Ethiopian woman whom he had married; for [c]he had married an Ethiopian woman.
2 So they said, "Has the LORD indeed spoken only through [a]Moses? [b]Has He not spoken through us also?" And the LORD [c]heard it.

ENCOUNTER Note Num. 12:2

The Lord Hears

The Lord hears every criticism and unkind word spoken against you. God will protect the honor of those who remain humble and leave their reputations with Him.

11:20 One of God's methods of discipline is to give people what they have foolishly requested.

11:26 No reason is given for Eldad and Medad remaining in the camp, but they received God's Spirit along with the rest of the seventy elders.

11:34 "Kibroth Hattaavah" means "Graves of Craving."

12:1 Aaron and Miriam complained about Moses' Ethiopian or Cushite wife. This might refer to Zipporah, but she is usually described as a Midianite (Ex. 2:16). It may be this was a second wife.

3 (Now the man Moses was very humble, more than all men who were on the face of the earth.)
4 [a]Suddenly the LORD said to Moses, Aaron, and Miriam, "Come out, you three, to the tabernacle of meeting!" So the three came out.
5 [a]Then the LORD came down in the pillar of cloud and stood in the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam. And they both went forward.
6 Then He said,

"Hear now My words:
If there is a prophet among you,
I, the LORD, make Myself known to him [a]in a vision;
I speak to him [b]in a dream.
7 Not so with [a]My servant Moses;
[b]He is faithful in all [c]My house.
8 I speak with him [a]face to face,
Even [b]plainly,[1] and not in [2]dark sayings;
And he sees [c]the form of the LORD.
Why then [d]were you not afraid
To speak against My servant Moses?"

9 So the anger of the LORD was aroused against them, and He departed.
10 And when the cloud departed from above the tabernacle, [a]suddenly Miriam became [b]leprous, as white as snow. Then Aaron turned toward Miriam, and there she was, a leper.
11 So Aaron said to Moses, "Oh, my lord! Please [a]do not lay [1]this sin on us, in which we have done foolishly and in which we have sinned.
12 "Please [a]do not let her be as one dead, whose flesh is half consumed when he comes out of his mother's womb!"
13 So Moses cried out to the LORD, saying, "Please [a]heal her, O God, I pray!"
14 Then the LORD said to Moses, "If her father had but [a]spit in her face, would she not be shamed seven days? Let her be [b]shut[1] out of the camp seven days, and afterward she may be received again."
15 [a]So Miriam was shut out of the camp seven days, and the people did not journey till Miriam was brought in again.
16 And afterward the people moved from [a]Hazeroth and camped in the Wilderness of Paran.

Spies Sent into Canaan

13 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
2 [a]"Send men to spy out the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the children of Israel; from each tribe of their fathers you shall send a man, every one a leader among them."
3 So Moses sent them [a]from the Wilderness of Paran according to the command of the LORD, all of them men who were heads of the children of Israel.
4 Now these were their names: from the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur;
5 from the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori;
6 [a]from the tribe of Judah, [b]Caleb the son of Jephunneh;
7 from the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph;
8 from the tribe of Ephraim, [1]Hoshea the son of Nun;
9 from the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu;
10 from the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi;
11 from the tribe of Joseph, that is, from the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi;
12 from the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli;
13 from the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael;
14 from the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi;
15 from the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.
16 These are the names of the men whom Moses sent to [1]spy out the land. And Moses called [a]Hoshea[2] the son of Nun, Joshua.
17 Then Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said to them, "Go up this way into the South, and go up to [a]the mountains, 18 "and see what the land is like: whether the people who dwell in it are strong or weak, few or many;
19 "whether the land they dwell in is good or bad; whether the cities they inhabit are like camps or strongholds;
20 "whether the land is [1]rich or poor; and whether there are forests there or not. [a]Be of good courage. And bring some of the fruit of the land." Now the time was the season of the first ripe grapes.

20 [a]Deut. 31:6, 7, 23 [1]fertile or barren

12:4 Moses did not defend himself from his critics. Perhaps his humility kept him from taking offense. Yet his critics had attacked God's servant and God took up his defense.

12:8 God spoke to Moses personally and intimately; however, Moses had not seen God in all His glory (Ex. 33:8).

13:1 According to Deuteronomy 12:22–23, it was the people's idea to send men to spy out the land. God may have granted their desire and authorized Moses to do so.

13:16 These were presumably more than tribal representatives, but rather men of recognized valor.

13:20 "The season of the first ripe grapes" was probably near the end of July.

21 So they went up and spied out the land [a]from the Wilderness of Zin as far as [b]Rehob, near the entrance of [c]Hamath.
22 And they went up through the South and came to [a]Hebron; Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the descendants of [b]Anak, were there. (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)
23 [a]Then they came to the [1]Valley of Eshcol, and there cut down a branch with one cluster of grapes; they carried it between two of them on a pole. They also brought some of the pomegranates and figs.
24 The place was called the Valley of [1]Eshcol, because of the cluster which the men of Israel cut down there.
25 And they returned from spying out the land after forty days.
26 Now they departed and came back to Moses and Aaron and all the congregation of the children of Israel in the Wilderness of Paran, at [a]Kadesh; they brought back word to them and to all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the land.
27 Then they told him, and said: "We went to the land where you sent us. It truly [1]flows with [a]milk and honey, [b]and this is its fruit.
28 "Nevertheless the [a]people who dwell in the land are strong; the cities are fortified and very large; moreover we saw the descendants of [b]Anak there.

ENCOUNTER Note — Num. 13:28

Nevertheless

God's promises call on us to trust Him in spite of how confusing or impossible our situation appears. We must decide to truly believe Him or we will grow discouraged by our circumstances.

29 [a]"The Amalekites dwell in the land of the South; the Hittites, the Jebusites, and the Amorites dwell in the mountains; and the Canaanites dwell by the sea and along the banks of the Jordan."
30 Then [a]Caleb quieted the people before Moses, and said, "Let us go up at once and take possession, for we are well able to overcome it."
31 [a]But the men who had gone up with him said, "We are not able to go up against the people, for they are stronger than we."
32 And they [a]gave the children of Israel a bad report of the land which they had spied out, saying, "The land through which we have gone as spies is a land that devours its inhabitants, and [b]all the people whom we saw in it are men of great stature.
33 "There we saw the [1]giants ([a]the descendants of Anak came from the giants); and we were [b]like[2] grasshoppers in our own sight, and so we were [c]in their sight."

Israel Refuses to Enter Canaan

14 So all the congregation lifted up their voices and cried, and the people [a]wept that night.
2 [a]And all the children of Israel complained against Moses and Aaron, and the whole congregation said to them, "If only we had died in the land of Egypt! Or if only we had died in this wilderness!
3 "Why has the LORD brought us to this land to [1]fall by the sword, that our wives and [a]children should become victims? Would it not be better for us to return to Egypt?"
4 So they said to one another, [a]"Let us select a leader and [b]return to Egypt."
5 Then Moses and Aaron [1]fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel.
6 But Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, who were among those who had spied out the land, tore their clothes;
7 and they spoke to all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying: [a]"The land we passed through to spy out is an exceedingly good land.
8 "If the LORD [a]delights in us, then He will bring us into this land and give it to us, [b]'a land which flows with milk and honey.'
9 "Only [a]do not rebel against the LORD, [b]nor fear the people of the land, for [c]they[1] are our bread; their protection has departed from them, [d]and the LORD is with us. Do not fear them."

13:21 The Wilderness of Zin was the southernmost border of Canaan.

13:22 Hebron, which means "Confederacy," was twenty miles south of Jerusalem. Zoan was a Nile delta city in Egypt, also called Tanis.

13:25 The spying journey covered a distance of 250 miles each way.

13:26 "Kadesh" means "Sanctuary."

14:2 God would give them their wish to die in the wilderness (Num. 14:29, 32, 33, 35). At times our greatest folly is getting what we want.

14:5 Falling on one's face demonstrated extreme grief or fear of God's impending judgment.

10 [a]And all the congregation said to stone them with stones. Now [b]the glory of the LORD appeared in the tabernacle of meeting before all the children of Israel.

Moses Intercedes for the People

11 Then the LORD said to Moses: "How long will these people [a]reject[1] Me? And how long will they not [b]believe Me, with all the [2]signs which I have performed among them?

ENCOUNTER*Note* Num. 14:11

How Long?

How much evidence of God's love will it take before we learn to trust Him? Refusing to believe God, though He continues to provide for us, is an act of defiance that could cost us dearly.

12 "I will strike them with the pestilence and disinherit them, and I will [a]make of you a nation greater and mightier than they."

13 And [a]Moses said to the LORD: [b]"Then the Egyptians will hear it, for by Your might You brought these people up from among them, 14 "and they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land. They have [a]heard that You, LORD, are among these people; that You, LORD, are seen face to face and Your cloud stands above them, and You go before them in a pillar of cloud by day and in a pillar of fire by night.

15 "Now if You kill these people as one man, then the nations which have heard of Your fame will speak, saying,

16 'Because the LORD was not [a]able to bring this people to the land which He swore to give them, therefore He killed them in the wilderness.'

17 "And now, I pray, let the power of my Lord be great, just as You have spoken, saying,

18 [a]'The LORD is longsuffering and abundant in mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression; but He by no means clears the guilty, [b]visiting the iniquity of the fathers on thechildren to the third and fourth generation.'

19 [a]"Pardon the iniquity of this people, I pray, [b]according to the greatness of Your mercy, just [c]as You have forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now."

20 Then the LORD said: "I have pardoned, [a]according to your word;

21 "but truly, as I live, [a]all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD—

22 [a]"because all these men who have seen My glory and the signs which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have put Me to the test now [b]these ten times, and have not heeded My voice, 23 "they certainly shall not [a]see the land of which I [1]swore to their fathers, nor shall any of those who rejected Me see it.

24 "But My servant [a]Caleb, because he has a different spirit in him and [b]has followed Me fully, I will bring into the land where he went, and his descendants shall inherit it.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Num. 14:24

Following Fully

It is tempting to follow God halfheartedly. Partial obedience may seem safer or easier to us, but God looks for those who choose to follow Him fully. We cannot waver in our obedience to Him and still experience God's best for us.

25 "Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites dwell in the valley; tomorrow turn and [a]move out into the wilderness by the Way of the Red Sea."

Death Sentence on the Rebels

26 And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,

27 [a]"How long shall I bear with this evil congregation who complain against Me? [b]I have heard the complaints which the children of Israel make against Me.

28 "Say to them, [a]'As I live,' says the LORD, 'just as you have spoken in My hearing, so I will do to you:

29 'The carcasses of you who have complained against Me shall fall in this wilderness, [a]all of you who were numbered, according to your entire number, from twenty years old and above.

30 [a]'Except for Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun, you shall by no means enter the land which I [1]swore I would make you dwell in.

31 [a]'But your little ones, whom you said would be victims, I will bring in, and they shall [1]know the land which [b]you have despised.

37 those very men who brought the evil report about the land, [a]died by the plague before the LORD.
38 [a]But Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh remained alive, of the men who went to spy out the land.

A Futile Invasion Attempt

39 Then Moses told these words to all the children of Israel, [a]and the people mourned greatly.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Num. 14:39

Consequences

Mourning over sin can take many forms. Grieving the consequences and hoping God will remove them is one thing. Accepting the consequences with a contrite spirit is the sign of a deeper spiritual walk.

40 And they rose early in the morning and went up to the top of the mountain, saying, [a]"Here we are, and we will go up to the place which the LORD has promised, for we have sinned!"
41 And Moses said, "Now why do you [1]transgress the command of the LORD? For this will not succeed.
42 [a]"Do not go up, lest you be defeated by your enemies, for the LORD is not among you.
43 "For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and you shall fall by the sword; [a]because you have turned away from the LORD, the LORD will not be with you."
44 [a]But they presumed to go up to the mountaintop. Nevertheless, neither the ark of the covenant of the LORD nor Moses departed from the camp.
45 Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites who dwelt in that mountain came down and attacked them, and drove them back as far as [a]Hormah.

Laws of Grain and Drink Offerings

CHARACTER*Study* CALEB Num. 14:38

Caleb, son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, was a courageous man who bravely stood by God's promises. His name most likely means "Bold" or "Impetuous" though it might also be translated "dog." He followed the Lord with all his heart (Josh. 14:14). It seems his family was originally a foreign clan that joined the tribe of Judah. As one of the twelve spies sent into Canaan, he and Joshua championed an immediate assault upon the territory to claim God's promise. For his courage, Caleb barely escaped being stoned by his countrymen, but he found favor with God. When Caleb was eighty-five, he and Joshua finally led the next generation into the Promised Land. Caleb shared the consequences of his nation's disobedience, yet God compensated Caleb personally for his faithful service, abundantly blessing him and his family. The villages, cities, and hillsides around Hebron were Caleb's inheritance, the reward for his steadfast faith.

14:37 God punished them by bringing their worst fears upon them.

14:45 "Hormah" means "Complete Destruction" and may be identified with Khirbet el-Meshash, located eight miles east of Beersheba (Josh. 15:30).

15:4 There were six hins to an ephah. An ephah is believed to be equal to about one bushel or 35 liters.

6 [a]'Or for a ram you shall prepare as a grain offering two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with one-third of a hin of oil;
7 'and as a drink offering you shall offer one-third of a hin of wine as a sweet aroma to the LORD.
8 'And when you prepare a young bull as a burnt offering, or as a sacrifice to fulfill a vow, or as a [a]peace offering to the LORD,
9 'then shall be offered [a]with the young bull a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with half a hin of oil;
10 'and you shall bring as the drink offering half a hin of wine as an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.
11 [a]'Thus it shall be done for each young bull, for each ram, or for each lamb or young goat.
12 'According to the number that you prepare, so you shall do with everyone according to their number.
13 'All who are native-born shall do these things in this manner, in presenting an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD.
14 'And if a stranger [1]dwells with you, or whoever is among you throughout your generations, and would present an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the LORD, just as you do, so shall he do.
15 [a]'One [1]ordinance shall be for you of the assembly and for the stranger who dwells with you, an ordinance forever throughout your generations; as you are, so shall the stranger be before the LORD.
16 'One law and one custom shall be for you and for the stranger who dwells with you.' "
17 Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
18 [a]"Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: 'When you come into the land to which I bring you,
19 'then it will be, when you eat of [a]the bread of the land, that you shall offer up a heave offering to the LORD.
20 [a]'You shall offer up a cake of the first of your ground meal as a heave offering; as [b]a heave offering of the threshing floor, so shall you offer it up.
21 'Of the first of your ground meal you shall give to the LORD a heave offering throughout your generations.

Laws Concerning Unintentional Sin

22 [a]'If you sin unintentionally, and do not observe all these commandments which the LORD has spoken to Moses—
23 'all that the LORD has commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the day the LORD gave commandment and onward throughout your generations—
24 'then it will be, [a]if it is unintentionally committed, [1]without the knowledge of the congregation, that the whole congregation shall offer one young bull as a burnt offering, as a sweet aroma to the LORD, [b]with its grain offering and its drink offering, according to the ordinance, and [c]one kid of the goats as a sin offering.
25 [a]'So the priest shall make atonement for the whole congregation of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them, for it was unintentional; they shall bring their offering, an offering made by fire to the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their unintended sin.
26 'It shall be forgiven the whole congregation of the children of Israel and the stranger who dwells among them, because all the people did it unintentionally.
27 'And [a]if a person sins unintentionally, then he shall bring a female goat in its first year as a sin offering.
28 [a]'So the priest shall make atonement for the person who sins unintentionally, when he sins unintentionally before the LORD, to make atonement for him; and it shall be forgiven him.
29 [a]'You shall have one law for him who sins unintentionally, for him who is native-born among the children of Israel and for the stranger who dwells among them.

Law Concerning Presumptuous Sin

30 [a]'But the person who does anything [1]presumptuously, whether he is native-born or a stranger, that one [2]brings reproach on the LORD, and he shall be [3]cut off from among his people.

ENCOUNTER Note Num. 15:30

Presumptuous Sins

There is no human remedy for sin. Until Christ's sacrificial death on the cross there was no way to atone for such defiance.

31 'Because he has [a]despised the word of the LORD, and has broken His commandment, that person shall be completely cut off; his [1]guilt shall be upon him.' "

Penalty for Violating the Sabbath

32 Now while the children of Israel were in the wilderness, [a]they found a man gathering sticks on the Sabbath day.
33 And those who found him gathering sticks brought him to Moses and Aaron, and to all the congregation.
34 They put him [a]under guard, because it had not been explained what should be done to him.
35 Then the LORD said to Moses, [a]"The man must surely be put to death; all the congregation shall [b]stone him with stones outside the camp."
36 So, as the LORD commanded Moses, all the congregation brought him outside the camp and stoned him with stones, and he died.

Tassels on Garments

37 Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
38 "Speak to the children of Israel: Tell [a]them to make tassels on the corners of their garments throughout their generations, and to put a blue thread in the tassels of the corners.
39 "And you shall have the tassel, that you may look upon it and [a]remember all the commandments of the LORD and do them, and that you [b]may not [c]follow the harlotry to which your own heart and your own eyes are inclined, 40 "and that you may remember and do all My commandments, and be [a]holy for your God.
41 "I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the LORD your God."

Rebellion Against Moses and Aaron

16 Now [a]Korah the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, with [b]Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, and On the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took men;
2 and they rose up before Moses with some of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty leaders of the congregation, [a]representatives of the congregation, men of renown.
3 [a]They gathered together against Moses and Aaron, and said to them, "You [1]take too much upon yourselves, for [b]all the congregation is holy, every one of them, [c]and the LORD is among them. Why then do you exalt yourselves above the assembly of the LORD?"
4 So when Moses heard it, he [a]fell on his face;
5 and he spoke to Korah and all his company, saying, "Tomorrow morning the LORD will show who is [a]His and who is [b]holy,[1] and will cause him to come near to Him. That one whom He chooses He will cause to [c]come near to Him.
6 "Do this: Take censers, Korah and all your company;
7 "put fire in them and put incense in them before the LORD tomorrow, and it shall be that the man whom the LORD chooses is the holy one. You take too much upon yourselves, you sons of Levi!"
8 Then Moses said to Korah, "Hear now, you sons of Levi:
9 "Is it [a]a small thing to you that the God of Israel has [b]separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to Himself, to do the work of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to serve them;
10 "and that He has brought you near to Himself, you and all your brethren, the sons of Levi, with you? And are you seeking the priesthood also?
11 "Therefore you and all your company are gathered together against the LORD. [a]And what is Aaron that you complain against him?"
12 And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, but they said, "We will not come up!
13 "Is it a small thing that you have brought us up out of [a]a land flowing with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, that you should [b]keep acting like a prince over us?
14 "Moreover [a]you have not brought us into [b]a land flowing with milk and honey, nor given us inheritance of fields and vineyards. Will you put out the eyes of these men? We will not come up!"
15 Then Moses was very angry, and said to the LORD, [a]"Do not [1]respect their offering. [b]I have not taken one donkey from them, nor have I hurt one of them."
16 And Moses said to Korah, "Tomorrow, you and all your company be present [a]before the LORD—you and they, as well as Aaron.
17 "Let each take his censer and put incense in it, and each of you bring his 15:35 Stoning was the prescribed method of punishing the most grievous sinners because it involved a large number of people acting in judgment, symbolizing the peoples' collective rejection of the sin committed.

15:38 The color blue symbolized royalty and divinity (Esth. 8:15). The color blue was on the high priest's garment (Ex. 28:31, 37).

16:1 The sons of Korah, while not priests, were responsible for carrying the most sacred objects of the tabernacle (4:1–20).

16:3 The 250 leaders resented the prominence God had given Moses. They desired more distinguished positions for themselves.

censer before the LORD, two hundred and fifty censers; both you and Aaron, each with his censer."
18 So every man took his censer, put fire in it, laid incense on it, and stood at the door of the tabernacle of meeting with Moses and Aaron.
19 And Korah gathered all the congregation against them at the door of the tabernacle of meeting. Then [a]the glory of the LORD appeared to all the congregation.
20 And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,
21 [a]"Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may [b]consume them in a moment."
22 Then they [a]fell[1] on their faces, and said, "O God, [b]the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and You be angry with all the [c]congregation?"
23 So the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
24 "Speak to the congregation, saying, 'Get away from the tents of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.' "
25 Then Moses rose and went to Dathan and Abiram, and the elders of Israel followed him.
26 And he spoke to the congregation, saying, [a]"Depart now from the tents of these wicked men! Touch nothing of theirs, lest you be consumed in all their sins."
27 So they got away from around the tents of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram; and Dathan and Abiram came out and stood at the door of their tents, with their wives, their sons, and their little [a]children.
28 And Moses said: [a]"By this you shall know that the LORD has sent me to do all these works, for I have not done them [b]of my own will.
29 "If these men die naturally like all men, or if they are [a]visited by the common fate of all men, then the LORD has not sent me.
30 "But if the LORD creates [a]a new thing, and the earth opens its mouth and swallows them up with all that belongs to them, and they [b]go down alive into the pit, then you will understand that these men have rejected the LORD."
31 [a]Now it came to pass, as he finished speaking all these words, that the ground split apart under them,
32 and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, with their households and [a]all the men with Korah, with all their goods.
33 So they and all those with them went down alive into the pit; the earth closed over them, and they perished from among the assembly.
34 Then all Israel who were around them fled at their cry, for they said, "Lest the earth swallow us up also!"
35 And [a]a fire came out from the LORD and consumed the two hundred and fifty men who were offering incense.
36 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
37 "Tell Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, to pick up the censers out of the blaze, for [a]they are holy, and scatter the fire some distance away.
38 "The censers of [a]these men who sinned [1]against their own souls, let them be made into hammered plates as a covering for the altar. Because they presented them before the LORD, therefore they are holy; [b]and they shall be a sign to the children of Israel."
39 So Eleazar the priest took the bronze censers, which those who were burned up had presented, and they were hammered out as a covering on the altar,
40 to be a [1]memorial to the children of Israel [a]that no outsider, who is not a descendant of Aaron, should come near to offer incense before the LORD, that he might not become like Korah and his companions, just as the LORD had said to him through Moses.

Complaints of the People

41 On the next day [a]all the congregation of the children of Israel complained against Moses and Aaron, saying, "You have killed the people of the LORD."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Num. 16:30

God Makes Things Clear

God will make it obvious when our heart turns away from Him. When God distances Himself from us, we cannot fail to notice. If God seems far way, we should examine our own hearts because we are the ones who have caused the rift in our relationship.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Num. 16:41

Complaining

Complaining about our circumstances reveals a refusal to accept God's sovereignty over our affairs. God views our murmuring as rebellion against His Lordship.

16:32 Korah perished under God's judgment but his descendants would survive to serve God and to worship Him (Ps. 42).

42 Now it happened, when the congregation had gathered against Moses and Aaron, that they turned toward the tabernacle of meeting; and suddenly [a]the cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD appeared.
43 Then Moses and Aaron came before the tabernacle of meeting.
44 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
45 "Get away from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment." And they fell on their faces.
46 So Moses said to Aaron, "Take a censer and put fire in it from the altar, put incense on it, and take it quickly to the congregation and make [1]atonement for them; [a]for wrath has gone out from the LORD. The plague has begun."
47 Then Aaron took it as Moses commanded, and ran into the midst of the assembly; and already the plague had begun among the people. So he put in the incense and made atonement for the people.
48 And he stood between the dead and the living; so [a]the plague was stopped.
49 Now those who died in the plague were fourteen thousand seven hundred, besides those who died in the Korah incident.
50 So Aaron returned to Moses at the door of the tabernacle of meeting, for the plague had stopped.

The Budding of Aaron's Rod

17 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
2 "Speak to the children of Israel, and get from them a rod from each father's house, all their leaders according to their fathers' houses—twelve rods. Write each man's name on his rod.
3 "And you shall write Aaron's name on the rod of Levi. For there shall be one rod for the head of each father's house.
4 "Then you shall place them in the tabernacle of meeting before [a]the Testimony, [b]where I meet with you.
5 "And it shall be that the rod of the man [a]whom I choose will blossom; thus I will rid Myself of the complaints of the children of Israel, [b]which they make against you."
6 So Moses spoke to the children of Israel, and each of their leaders gave him a rod apiece, for each leader according to their fathers' houses, twelve rods; and the rod of Aaron was among their rods.

8 Now it came to pass on the next day that Moses went into the tabernacle of witness, and behold, the [a]rod of Aaron, of the house of Levi, had sprouted and put forth buds, had produced blossoms and yielded ripe almonds.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Num. 17:8

God's Affirmation

God will affirm His call upon His servants. It should be evident to observers if God has singled a person out as a leader.

9 Then Moses brought out all the rods from before the LORD to all the children of Israel; and they looked, and each man took his rod.
10 And the LORD said to Moses, "Bring [a]Aaron's rod back before the Testimony, to be kept [b]as a sign against the rebels, [c]that you may put their complaints away from Me, lest they die."
11 Thus did Moses; just as the LORD had commanded him, so he did.
12 So the children of Israel spoke to Moses, saying, "Surely we die, we perish, we all perish!
13 [a]"Whoever even comes near the tabernacle of the LORD must die. Shall we all utterly die?"

Duties of Priests and Levites

18 Then the LORD said to Aaron: [a]"You and your sons and your father's house with you shall [b]bear the [1]iniquity related to the sanctuary, and you and your sons with you shall bear the iniquity associated with your priesthood.
2 "Also bring with you your brethren of the [a]tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, that they may be [b]joined with you and serve you while you and your sons are with you before the tabernacle of [1]witness.
3 "They shall attend to your [1]needs and [a]all the needs of the tabernacle; [b]but they shall not come near the articles of the sanctuary and the altar, [c]lest they die—they and you also.
4 "They shall be joined with you and attend to the needs of the tabernacle of meeting, for all the work of the tabernacle; [a]but an outsider shall not come near you.

16:47 The fact Aaron ran to intervene on the rebellious people's behalf indicates the gravity of the situation as well as the depth of the elderly priest's compassion.

17:5 Again it was God who answered Moses' critics on his behalf.

17:10 Aaron's rod was placed in the ark of the covenant along with the stone tablets and the pot of manna (Ex. 16: 34; 25:16).

17:12 Once the Israelites realized God had spoken to correct them, they feared for their lives. They had grown to fear God's judgment.

5 "And you shall attend to [a]the duties of the sanctuary and the duties of the altar, [b]that there may be no more wrath on the children of Israel.
6 "Behold, I Myself have [a]taken your brethren the Levites from among the children of Israel; [b]they are a gift to you, given by the LORD, to do the work of the tabernacle of meeting.
7 "Therefore [a]you and your sons with you shall attend to your priesthood for everything at the altar and [b]behind the veil; and you shall serve. I give your priesthood to you as a [c]gift for service, but the outsider who comes near shall be put to death."

ENCOUNTER Note Num. 18:7

Invited to Serve

Sometimes we can take our accessibility to God for granted. We must not forget that God's invitation to serve Him is a marvelous, undeserved privilege.

Offerings for Support of the Priests

8 And the LORD spoke to Aaron: "Here, [a]I Myself have also given you [1]charge of My heave offerings, all the holy gifts of the children of Israel; I have given them [b]as a portion to you and your sons, as an ordinance forever.
9 "This shall be yours of the most holy things reserved from the fire: every offering of theirs, every [a]grain offering and every [b]sin offering and every [c]trespass offering which they render to Me, shall be most holy for you and your sons.
10 [a]"In a most holy place you shall eat it; every male shall eat it. It shall be holy to you.
11 "This also is yours: [a]the heave offering of their gift, with all the wave offerings of the children of Israel; I have given them to you, and your sons and daughters with you, as an ordinance forever. [b]Everyone who is [1]clean in your house may eat it.
12 [a]"All the [1]best of the oil, all the best of the new wine and the grain, [b]their firstfruits which they offer to the LORD, I have given them to you.
13 "Whatever first ripe fruit is in their land, [a]which they bring to the LORD, shall be yours. Everyone who is clean in your house may eat it.
14 [a]"Every [1]devoted thing in Israel shall be yours.
15 "Everything that first opens [a]the womb of all flesh, which they bring to the LORD, whether man or beast, shall be yours; nevertheless [b]the firstborn of man you shall surely redeem, and the firstborn of unclean animals you shall redeem.
16 "And those redeemed of the devoted things you shall redeem when one month old, [a]according to your valuation, for five shekels of silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, which is [b]twenty gerahs.
17 [a]"But the firstborn of a cow, the firstborn of a sheep, or the firstborn of a goat you shall not redeem; they are holy. [b]You shall sprinkle their blood on the altar, and burn their fat as an offering made by fire for a sweet aroma to the LORD.
18 "And their flesh shall be yours, just as the [a]wave[1] breast and the right thigh are yours.
19 "All the heave offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer to the LORD, I have given to you and your sons and daughters with you as an ordinance forever; [a]it is a covenant of salt forever before the LORD with you and your descendants with you."
20 Then the LORD said to Aaron: "You shall have [a]no inheritance in their land, nor shall you have any portion among them; [b]I am your portion and your inheritance among the children of Israel.

Tithes for Support of the Levites

21 "Behold, [a]I have given the children of Levi all the tithes in Israel as [1]an inheritance in return for the work which they perform, [b]the work of the tabernacle of meeting.
22 [a]"Hereafter the children of Israel shall not come near the tabernacle of meeting, [b]lest they bear sin and die.

18:7 The "outsider" was an Israelite who was not from the tribe of Levi. Only the Levites were allowed to minister to the Lord in an official capacity.

18:16 Five shekels of silver was about six month's wages.

18:20 Rather than earning an income from the land, the Levites had God as their resource for everything they would need.

18:21 This is the first mention of the Levites receiving a tithe from the rest of God's people. Tithing had been practiced by the patriarchs (Gen. 14:20; 28:22), but the practice of supporting religious leaders through the tithe is formally prescribed here.

offering to the LORD, I have given to the Levites [1]as an inheritance; therefore I have said to them, 'Among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.' "

The Tithe of the Levites

25 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
26 "Speak thus to the Levites, and say to them: 'When you take from the children of Israel the tithes which I have given you from them as your inheritance, then you shall offer up a heave offering of it to the LORD, [a]a tenth of the tithe.
27 'And your heave offering shall be reckoned to you as though it were the grain of the [a]threshing floor and as the fullness of the winepress.
28 'Thus you shall also offer a heave offering to the LORD from all your tithes which you receive from the children of Israel, and you shall give the LORD's heave offering from it to Aaron the priest.
29 'Of all your gifts you shall offer up every heave offering due to the LORD, from all the [1]best of them, the consecrated part of them.'
30 "Therefore you shall say to them: 'When you have lifted up the best of it, then the rest shall be accounted to the Levites as the produce of the threshing floor and as the produce of the winepress.
31 'You may eat it in any place, you and your households, for it is [a]your [1]reward for your work in the tabernacle of meeting.
32 'And you shall [a]bear no sin because of it, when you have lifted up the best of it. But you shall not [b]profane the holy gifts of the children of Israel, lest you die.' "

Laws of Purification

19 Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,
2 "This is the [1]ordinance of the law which the LORD has commanded, saying: 'Speak to the children of Israel, that they bring you a red heifer without [2]blemish, in which there is no [a]defect [b]and on which a yoke has never come.
3 'You shall give it to Eleazar the priest, that he may take it [a]outside the camp, and it shall be slaughtered before him;
4 'and Eleazar the priest shall take some of its blood with his finger, and [a]sprinkle some of its blood seven times directly in front of the tabernacle of meeting.
5 'Then the heifer shall be burned in his sight: [a]its hide, its flesh, its blood, and its offal shall be burned.
6 'And the priest shall take [a]cedar wood and [b]hyssop and scarlet, and cast them into the midst of the fire burning the heifer.
7 [a]'Then the priest shall wash his clothes, he shall bathe in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp; the priest shall be unclean until evening.
8 'And the one who burns it shall wash his clothes in water, bathe in water, and shall be unclean until evening.
9 'Then a man who is clean shall gather up [a]the ashes of the heifer, and store them outside the camp in a clean place; and they shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Israel [b]for the water of [1]purification; it is for purifying from sin.
10 'And the one who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until evening. It shall be a statute forever to the children of Israel and to the stranger who dwells among them.
11 [a]'He who touches the dead [1]body of anyone shall be unclean seven days.
12 [a]'He shall purify himself with the water on the third day and on the seventh day; then he will be clean. But if he does not purify himself on the third day and on the seventh day, he will not be clean.
13 'Whoever touches the body of anyone who has died, and [a]does not purify himself, [b]defiles the tabernacle of the LORD. That person shall be cut off from Israel. He shall be unclean, because [c]the water of purification was not sprinkled on him; [d]his uncleanness is still on him.
14 'This is the law when a man dies in a tent: All who come into the tent and all who are in the tent shall be unclean seven days;
15 'and every [a]open vessel, which has no cover fastened on it, is unclean.
16 [a]'Whoever in the open field touches one who is slain by a sword or who has died, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.

18:29 Although the Levites received their livelihood from the tithes and offerings of the Israelites, they, too, were required to offer sacrifices to the Lord as a sign and remembrance that God was the source of all they had.

19:2 The sacrifice of the Red Heifer was unusual. It is the only sacrifice conducted outside the tabernacle. Normally a sacrificial animal was male; this one was female. Specifying the color of a sacrificial animal is also unique to this sacrifice.

19:6 Cedar and hyssop were associated with cleansing (Lev. 14:4).

and [1]running water shall be put on them in a vessel.
18 'A clean person shall take [a]hyssop and dip it in the water, sprinkle it on the tent, on all the vessels, on the persons who were there, or on the one who touched a bone, the slain, the dead, or a grave.
19 'The clean person shall sprinkle the unclean on the third day and on the seventh day; [a]and on the seventh day he shall purify himself, wash his clothes, and bathe in water; and at evening he shall be clean.
20 'But the man who is unclean and does not purify himself, that person shall be cut off from among the assembly, because he has [a]defiled the sanctuary of the LORD. The water of purification has not been sprinkled on him; he is unclean.

ENCOUNTER Note Num. 19:20

Purification

Holy God wants His people to be holy and blameless. God provides the means for our purification but we must choose to participate in our own cleansing.

21 'It shall be a perpetual statute for them. He who sprinkles the water of purification shall wash his clothes; and he who touches the water of purification shall be unclean until evening.
22 [a]'Whatever the unclean person touches shall be unclean; and [b]the person who touches it shall be unclean until evening.' "

Moses' Error at Kadesh

20 Then[a] the children of Israel, the whole congregation, came into the Wilderness of Zin in the first month, and the people stayed in [b]Kadesh; and [c]Miriam died there and was buried there.
2 [a]Now there was no water for the congregation; [b]so they gathered together against Moses and Aaron.
3 And the people [a]contended with Moses and spoke, saying: "If only we had died [b]when our brethren died before the LORD!
4 [a]"Why have you brought up the assembly of the LORD into this wilderness, that we and our animals should die here?
5 "And why have you made us come up out of Egypt, to bring us to this evil place? It is not a place of grain or figs or vines or pomegranates; nor is there any water to drink."
6 So Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and [a]they [1]fell on their faces. And [b]the glory of the LORD appeared to them.
7 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
8 [a]"Take the rod; you and your brother Aaron gather the congregation together. Speak to the rock before their eyes, and it will yield its water; thus [b]you shall bring water for them out of the rock, and give drink to the congregation and their animals."
9 So Moses took the rod [a]from before the LORD as He commanded him.
10 And Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly together before the rock; and he said to them, [a]"Hear now, you rebels! Must we bring water for you out of this rock?"
11 Then Moses lifted his hand and struck the rock twice with his rod; [a]and water came out abundantly, and the congregation and their animals drank.
12 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, "Because [a]you did not believe Me, to [b]hallow Me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land which I have given them."
13 [a]This was the water of [1]Meribah, because the children of Israel contended with the LORD, and He was hallowed among them.

Passage Through Edom Refused

14 [a]Now Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of [b]Edom. [c]"Thus says your brother Israel: 'You know all the hardship that has befallen us,
15 [a]'how our fathers went down to Egypt, [b]and we dwelt in Egypt a long time, [c]and the Egyptians [1]afflicted us and our fathers.
16 [a]'When we cried out to the LORD, He heard our voice and [b]sent the Angel and brought us up out of Egypt; now here we are in Kadesh, a city on the edge of your border.
17 'Please [a]let us pass through your country. We will not pass through fields

19:21 "Until evening" was the shortest prescribed period of uncleanness.

18 Then [a]Edom said to him, "You shall not pass through my land, lest I come out against you with the sword."
19 So the children of Israel said to him, "We will go by the Highway, and if I or my livestock drink any of your water, [a]then I will pay for it; let me only pass through on foot, nothing more."
20 Then he said, [a]"You shall not pass through." So Edom came out against them with many men and with a strong hand.
21 Thus Edom [a]refused to give Israel passage through his territory; so Israel [b]turned away from him.

Death of Aaron

22 Now the children of Israel, the whole congregation, journeyed from [a]Kadesh [b]and came to Mount Hor.
23 And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron in Mount Hor by the border of the land of Edom, saying:
24 "Aaron shall [1]be [a]gathered to his people, for he shall not enter the land which I have given to the children of Israel, because you rebelled against My word at the water of Meribah.

No Exceptions

God makes no exceptions to holiness. His standard is unwavering.

25 [a]"Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up to Mount Hor;
26 "and strip Aaron of his garments and put them on Eleazar his son; for Aaron shall be gathered to his people and die there."
27 So Moses did just as the LORD commanded, and they went up to Mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation.
28 [a]Moses stripped Aaron of his garments and put them on Eleazar his son; and [b]Aaron died there on the top of the mountain. Then Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain.
29 Now when all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, all the house of Israel mourned for Aaron [a]thirty days.

Canaanites Defeated at Hormah

21 The [a]king of Arad, the Canaanite, who dwelt in the South, heard that Israel was coming on the road to Atharim. Then he fought against Israel and took some of them prisoners.
2 [a]So Israel made a vow to the LORD, and said, "If You will indeed deliver this people into my hand, then [b]I will utterly destroy their cities."
3 And the LORD listened to the voice of Israel and delivered up the Canaanites, and they utterly destroyed them and their cities. So the name of that place was called [1]Hormah.

The Bronze Serpent

4 Then they journeyed from Mount Hor by the Way of the Red Sea, to [a]go around the land of Edom; and the soul of the people became very [1]discouraged on the way.
5 And the people [a]spoke against God and against Moses: "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and our soul [1]loathes this worthless bread."
6 So [a]the LORD sent [b]fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and many of the people of Israel died.
7 [a]Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, "We have [b]sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD and against you; [c]pray to the LORD that He take away the serpents from us." So Moses prayed for the people.
8 Then the LORD said to Moses, [a]"Make a [b]fiery serpent, and set it on a pole; and it shall be that everyone who is bitten, when he looks at it, shall live."
9 So [a]Moses made a bronze serpent, and put it on a pole; and so it was, if a serpent had bitten anyone, when he looked at the bronze serpent, he lived.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Num. 21:9

Looking to the Pole

We tend to think that to be saved we must do something. Yet God continually asks us to look to Him and His provision.

From Mount Hor to Moab

10 Now the children of Israel moved on and [a]camped in Oboth.

20:26 For Aaron's garments see Leviticus 8:7–9.

20:29 The usual period of mourning was seven days. The Israelites also mourned thirty days for Moses (Deut. 34:8).

21:1 Atharim might be identified with Tamar, located four miles south of the Dead Sea.

21:4 "Red Sea" could also be translated "Sea of Reeds."

21:6 This is the last recorded incident of the Israelites grumbling about food.

11 And they journeyed from Oboth and camped at [1]Ije Abarim, in the wilderness which is east of Moab, toward the sunrise.
12 [a]From there they moved and camped in the Valley of Zered.
13 From there they moved and camped on the other side of the Arnon, which is in the wilderness that extends from the border of the Amorites; for [a]the Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.
14 Therefore it is said in the Book of the Wars of the LORD:

[1]"Waheb in Suphah,
The brooks of the Arnon,
15 And the slope of the brooks
That reaches to the dwelling of [a]Ar,
And lies on the border of Moab."

16 From there they went [a]to Beer, which is the well where the LORD said to Moses, "Gather the people together, and I will give them water."
17 [a]Then Israel sang this song:

"Spring up, O well!
All of you sing to it—
18 The well the leaders sank,
Dug by the nation's nobles,
By the [a]lawgiver, with their staves."

And from the wilderness they went to Mattanah,
19 from Mattanah to Nahaliel, from Nahaliel to Bamoth,
20 and from Bamoth, in the valley that is in the [1]country of Moab, to the top of Pisgah which looks [a]down on the [2]wasteland.

King Sihon Defeated

21 Then [a]Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, saying,
22 [a]"Let me pass through your land. We will not turn aside into fields or vineyards; we will not drink water from wells. We will go by the King's Highway until we have passed through your territory."
23 [a]But Sihon would not allow Israel to pass through his territory. So Sihon gathered all his people together and [1]went out against Israel in the wilderness, [b]and he came to Jahaz and fought against Israel.
24 Then [a]Israel defeated him with the edge of the sword, and took possession of his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, as far as the people of Ammon; for the border of the people of Ammon was fortified.
25 So Israel took all these cities, and Israel [a]dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon and in all its villages.
26 For Heshbon was the city of Sihon king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab, and had taken all his land from his hand as far as the Arnon.

27 Therefore those who speak in [1]proverbs say:

"Come to Heshbon, let it be built;
Let the city of Sihon be repaired.

28 "For [a]fire went out from Heshbon,
A flame from the city of Sihon;
It consumed [b]Ar of Moab,
The lords of the [c]heights of the Arnon.

29 Woe to you, [a]Moab!
You have perished, O people of [b]Chemosh!
He has given his [c]sons as fugitives,
And his [d]daughters into captivity,
To Sihon king of the Amorites.

30 "But we have shot at them;
Heshbon has perished [a]as far as Dibon.
Then we laid waste as far as Nophah,
Which reaches to [b]Medeba."

31 Thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites.
32 Then Moses sent to [1]spy out [a]Jazer; and they took its villages and drove out the Amorites who were there.

King Og Defeated

33 [a]And they turned and went up by the way to [b]Bashan. So Og king of Bashan went out against them, he and all his people, to battle [c]at Edrei.
34 Then the LORD said to Moses, [a]"Do not fear him, for I have [1]delivered him into your hand, with all his people and his land; and [b]you shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon."
35 [a]So they defeated him, his sons, and all his people, until there was no survivor left him; and they took possession of his land.

2 Now [a]Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites.
3 And [a]Moab was exceedingly afraid of the people because they were many, and Moab was sick with dread because of the children of Israel.
4 So Moab said to [a]the elders of Midian, "Now this company will [1]lick up everything around us, as an ox licks up the grass of the field." And Balak the son of Zippor was king of the Moabites at that time.
5 Then [a]he sent messengers to Balaam the son of Beor at [b]Pethor, which is near [1]the River in the land of [2]the sons of his people, to call him, saying: "Look, a people has come from Egypt. See, they cover the face of the earth, and are settling next to me!
6 [a]"Therefore please come at once, [b]curse this people for me, for they are too mighty for me. Perhaps I shall be able to defeat them and drive them out of the land, for I know that he whom you bless is blessed, and he whom you curse is cursed."
7 So the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with [a]the diviner's fee in their hand, and they came to Balaam and spoke to him the words of Balak.
8 And he said to them, [a]"Lodge here tonight, and I will bring back word to you, as the LORD speaks to me." So the princes of Moab stayed with Balaam.
9 [a]Then God came to Balaam and said, "Who are these men with you?"
10 So Balaam said to God, "Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, has sent to me, saying,
11 'Look, a people has come out of Egypt, and they cover the face of the earth. Come now, curse them for me; perhaps I shall be able to overpower them and drive them out.' "
12 And God said to Balaam, "You shall not go with them; you shall not curse the people, for [a]they are blessed."
13 So Balaam rose in the morning and

BALAAM

Num. 22:5

Balaam was a prophet of Eastern religions who allegedly drew upon the powers of various gods to pronounce curses or blessings upon people (for a fee). Balak, king of Moab, hired Balaam to curse the Israelites, but God prevented him from doing so. Rather, God inspired Balaam to bless Israel. Balaam was killed by the Israelites in a battle with the Midianites (Num. 31:8, Josh. 13:22). Scripture presents Balaam as one who sought to use God's power for his own selfish and evil purposes (Num. 31:8–16, Deut. 23:4, 5; 2 Pet. 2:15, Jude 11, Rev. 2:14).

21:29 Chemosh was a god worshipped by the Moabites.
21:33 Edrei is modern Dera, located thirty miles east of the Sea of Galilee.
22:5 Pethor is Pitru on the Euphrates River, twelve miles from Carchemish.

said to the princes of Balak, "Go back to your land, for the LORD has refused to give me permission to go with you."
14 And the princes of Moab rose and went to Balak, and said, "Balaam refuses to come with us."
15 Then Balak again sent princes, more numerous and more [1]honorable than they.
16 And they came to Balaam and said to him, "Thus says Balak the son of Zippor: 'Please let nothing hinder you from coming to me;
17 'for I will certainly [a]honor you greatly, and I will do whatever you say to me. [b]Therefore please come, curse this people for me.' "
18 Then Balaam answered and said to the servants of Balak, [a]"Though Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, [b]I could not go beyond the word of the LORD my God, to do less or more.

ENCOUNTER Note Num. 22:18

Going Beyond God's Word

God's word sets the parameters for our lives. Disregarding God's standards invites disaster.

19 "Now therefore, please, you also [a]stay here tonight, that I may know what more the LORD will say to me."
20 [a]And God came to Balaam at night and said to him, "If the men come to call you, rise and go with them; but [b]only the word which I speak to you—that you shall do."
21 So Balaam rose in the morning, saddled his donkey, and went with the princes of Moab.

Balaam, the Donkey, and the Angel

22 Then God's anger was aroused because he went, [a]and the Angel of the LORD took His stand in the way as an adversary against him. And he was riding on his donkey, and his two servants were with him.
23 Now [a]the donkey saw the Angel of the LORD standing in the way with His drawn sword in His hand, and the donkey turned aside out of the way and went into the field. So Balaam struck the donkey to turn her back onto the road.
24 Then the Angel of the LORD stood in a narrow path between the vineyards, with a wall on this side and a wall on that side.
25 And when the donkey saw the Angel of the LORD, she pushed herself against the wall and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall; so he struck her again.
26 Then the Angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place where there was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left.
27 And when the donkey saw the Angel of the LORD, she lay down under Balaam; so Balaam's anger was aroused, and he struck the donkey with his staff.
28 Then the LORD [a]opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to Balaam, "What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times?"
29 And Balaam said to the donkey, "Because you have [1]abused me. I wish there were a sword in my hand, [a]for now I would kill you!"
30 [a]So the donkey said to Balaam, "Am I not your donkey on which you have ridden, ever since I became yours, to this day? Was I ever [1]disposed to do this to you?" And he said, "No."
31 Then the LORD [a]opened Balaam's eyes, and he saw the Angel of the LORD standing in the way with His drawn sword in His hand; and he bowed his head and fell flat on his face.

ENCOUNTER Note Num. 22:31

Spiritually Blind

When God reveals His activity to you, you will recognize what you are seeing as the divine work of the Lord. God is at work all around you. Do you see it?

32 And the Angel of the LORD said to him, "Why have you struck your donkey these three times? Behold, I have come out [1]to stand against you, because your way is [a]perverse[2] before Me.
33 "The donkey saw Me and turned aside from Me these three times. If she had not turned aside from Me, surely I would also have killed you by now, and let her live."
34 And Balaam said to the Angel of the LORD, [a]"I have sinned, for I did not know You stood in the way against me. Now therefore, if it [1]displeases You, I will turn back."
35 Then the Angel of the LORD said to Balaam, "Go with the men, [a]but only the word that I speak to you, that you shall speak." So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

22:28 Balaam was allegedly able to predict the future by studying such things as the livers of animals. Yet paradoxically in this case the seer could not see what his animal could see.

36 Now when Balak heard that Balaam was coming, [a]he went out to meet him at the city of Moab, [b]which is on the border at the Arnon, the boundary of the territory.
37 Then Balak said to Balaam, "Did I not earnestly send to you, calling for you? Why did you not come to me? Am I not able [a]to honor you?"
38 And Balaam said to Balak, "Look, I have come to you! Now, have I any power at all to say anything? [a]The word that God puts in my mouth, that I must speak."
39 So Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kirjath Huzoth.
40 Then Balak offered oxen and sheep, and he sent some to Balaam and to the princes who were with him.

Balaam's First Prophecy

41 So it was, the next day, that Balak took Balaam and brought him up to the [a]high places of Baal, that from there he might observe [1]the extent of the people.
23 Then Balaam said to Balak, [a]"Build seven altars for me here, and prepare for me here seven bulls and seven rams."
2 And Balak did just as Balaam had spoken, and Balak and Balaam [a]offered a bull and a ram on each altar.
3 Then Balaam said to Balak, [a]"Stand by your burnt offering, and I will go; perhaps the LORD will come [b]to meet me, and whatever He shows me I will tell you." So he went to a desolate height.
4 [a]And God met Balaam, and he said to Him, "I have prepared the seven altars, and I have offered on each altar a bull and a ram."
5 Then the LORD [a]put a word in Balaam's mouth, and said, "Return to Balak, and thus you shall speak."
6 So he returned to him, and there he was, standing by his burnt offering, he and all the princes of Moab.
7 And he [a]took up his [1]oracle and said:

"Balak the king of Moab has brought me from Aram,
From the mountains of the east.
[b]'Come, curse Jacob for me,
And come, [c]denounce Israel!'

8 "How[a] shall I curse whom God has not cursed?
And how shall I denounce whom the LORD has not denounced?
9 For from the top of the rocks I see him,
And from the hills I behold him;
There! [a]A people dwelling alone,
[b]Not reckoning itself among the nations.

10 "Who[a] can count the [1]dust of Jacob,
Or number one-fourth of Israel?
Let me die [b]the death of the righteous,
And let my end be like his!"

11 Then Balak said to Balaam, "What have you done to me? [a]I took you to curse my enemies, and look, you have blessed them bountifully!"

ENCOUNTER*Note* Num. 23:11

Enemy Curses

God can take the worst His enemies can do and transform them into aids to accomplish His purposes. We have no idea of the extent of God's protection over us.

12 So he answered and said, [a]"Must I not take heed to speak what the LORD has put in my mouth?"

Balaam's Second Prophecy

13 Then Balak said to him, "Please come with me to another place from which you may see them; you shall see only the outer part of them, and shall not see them all; curse them for me from there."
14 So he brought him to the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, [a]and built seven altars, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.
15 And he said to Balak, "Stand here by your burnt offering while I [1]meet the LORD over there."
16 Then the LORD met Balaam, and [a]put a word in his mouth, and said, "Go back to Balak, and thus you shall speak."
17 So he came to him, and there he was, standing by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab were with him. And Balak said to him, "What has the LORD spoken?"
18 Then he took up his oracle and said:

[a]"Rise up, Balak, and hear!
Listen to me, son of Zippor!

22:41 "The high places of Baal" (Num. 21:19, 20) are sometimes called Bamoth-Baal. A high place may have been chosen not only for its panoramic view, but also because it was a center for Baal worship.

23:10 One of the purported skills of diviners was predicting the number of an enemy. Yet the Israelites were beyond Balaam's ability to count.

23:14 "The field of Zophim" is literally "field of watchers."

19 "God[a] is not a man, that He should lie,
Nor a son of man, that He should repent.
Has He [b]said, and will He not do?
Or has He spoken, and will He not make it good?
20 Behold, I have received a command to bless;
[a]He has blessed, and I cannot reverse it.
21 "He[a] has not observed iniquity in Jacob,
Nor has He seen [1]wickedness in Israel.
The LORD his God is with him,
[b]And the shout of a King is among them.
22 [a]God brings them out of Egypt;
He has [b]strength like a wild ox.
23 "For there is no [1]sorcery against Jacob,
Nor any [2]divination against Israel.
It now must be said of Jacob
And of Israel, 'Oh, [a]what God has done!'
24 Look, a people rises [a]like a lioness,
And lifts itself up like a lion;
[b]It shall not lie down until it devours the prey,
And drinks the blood of the slain."

25 Then Balak said to Balaam, "Neither curse them at all, nor bless them at all!"
26 So Balaam answered and said to Balak, "Did I not tell you, saying, [a]'All that the LORD speaks, that I must do'?"

Balaam's Third Prophecy

27 Then Balak said to Balaam, "Please come, I will take you to another place; perhaps it will please God that you may curse them for me from there."
28 So Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, that [a]overlooks the [1]wasteland.
29 Then Balaam said to Balak, "Build for me here seven altars, and prepare for me here seven bulls and seven rams."
30 And Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bull and a ram on every altar.

Pleased to Bless

When God is pleased to bless His people, nothing can deter Him. Nothing brings more joy than living under God's blessing.

2 And Balaam raised his eyes, and saw Israel [a]encamped according to their tribes; and [b]the Spirit of God came upon him.
3 [a]Then he took up his oracle and said:

"The utterance of Balaam the son of Beor,
The utterance of the man whose eyes are opened,
4 The utterance of him who hears the words of God,
Who sees the vision of the Almighty,
Who [a]falls down, with eyes wide open:

5 "How lovely are your tents, O Jacob!
Your dwellings, O Israel!
6 Like valleys that stretch out,
Like gardens by the riverside,
[a]Like aloes [b]planted by the LORD,
Like cedars beside the waters.
7 He shall pour water from his buckets,
And his seed shall be [a]in many waters.

HISTORICAL*Encounter*

LEONARD DOBER

Num. 23:19

Count Nikolaus von Zinzendorf was a devout Christian living in Germany during the 1700s. He opened his estate to provide safe haven for Protestant refugees, and a community of Moravian believers was established on his property named Herrnhut. When Zinzendorf informed the Moravian Brethren of the appalling condition of slaves in the West Indies, one of the men, Leonard Dober, felt compelled to go and share the Gospel with them, even if it meant becoming a slave himself. As he and his partner, David Nitschmann, set out from Copenhagen on October 8, 1732, God comforted them with Numbers 23:19. God kept His promise to them to guide and sustain them, and a tremendous ministry to the forsaken slaves was launched. From that courageous beginning, the Moravian Brethren would send missionaries around the globe.

23:23 Despite the threats and curses of demonic powers, nothing can penetrate God's protection surrounding His people.

24:7 Agag was a common title for Amalekite kings. See 1 Samuel 15.

"His king shall be higher than [b]Agag,
And his [c]kingdom shall be exalted.

8 "God[a] brings him out of Egypt;
He has strength like a wild ox;
He shall [b]consume the nations, his enemies;
He shall [c]break their bones
And [d]pierce them with his arrows.
9 'He[a] bows down, he lies down as a lion;
And as a lion, who shall rouse him?'

[b]"Blessed is he who blesses you,
And cursed is he who curses you."

10 Then Balak's anger was aroused against Balaam, and he [a]struck his hands together; and Balak said to Balaam, [b]"I called you to curse my enemies, and look, you have bountifully blessed them these three times!
11 "Now therefore, flee to your place. [a]I said I would greatly honor you, but in fact, the LORD has kept you back from honor."
12 So Balaam said to Balak, "Did I not also speak to your messengers whom you sent to me, saying,
13 'If Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not go beyond the word of the LORD, to do good or bad of my own will. What the LORD says, that I must speak'?
14 "And now, indeed, I am going to my people. Come, [a]I will advise you what this people will do to your people in the [b]latter days."

Balaam's Fourth Prophecy

15 So he took up his oracle and said:

"The utterance of Balaam the son of Beor,
And the utterance of the man whose eyes are opened;
16 The utterance of him who hears the words of God,
And has the knowledge of the Most High,
Who sees the vision of the Almighty,
Who falls down, with eyes wide open:

17 "I[a] see Him, but not now;
I behold Him, but not near;
[b]A Star shall come out of Jacob;
[c]A Scepter shall rise out of Israel,
And [1]batter the brow of Moab,
And destroy all the sons of [2]tumult.

18 "And [a]Edom shall be a possession;
Seir also, his enemies, shall be a possession,
While Israel does [3]valiantly.
19 [a]Out of Jacob One [4]shall have dominion,
And destroy the remains of the city."

20 Then he looked on Amalek, and he took up his oracle and said:

"Amalek was first among the nations,
But shall be last until he perishes."

21 Then he looked on the Kenites, and he took up his oracle and said:

"Firm is your dwelling place,
And your nest is set in the rock;
22 Nevertheless Kain shall be burned.
How long until Asshur carries you away captive?"

23 Then he took up his oracle and said:

"Alas! Who shall live when God does this?
24 But ships shall come from the coasts of [a]Cyprus,[1]
And they shall afflict Asshur and afflict [b]Eber,
And so shall [2]Amalek, until he perishes."

25 So Balaam rose and departed and [a]returned to his place; Balak also went his way.

Israel's Harlotry in Moab

25 Now Israel remained in [a]Acacia Grove,[1] and the [b]people began to commit harlotry with the women of Moab.
2 [a]They invited the people to [b]the sacrifices of their gods, and the people ate and [c]bowed down to their gods.
3 So Israel was joined to Baal of Peor, and [a]the anger of the LORD was aroused against Israel.
4 Then the LORD said to Moses, [a]"Take all the leaders of the people and hang the offenders before the LORD, out in the sun, [b]that the fierce anger of the LORD may turn away from Israel."
5 So Moses said to [a]the judges of Israel, [b]"Every one of you kill his men who were joined to Baal of Peor."

24:17 The pagan seer was given a glimpse of the coming Messiah.

24:20 God had already pronounced a curse upon the Amalekites (Ex. 17:8–16).

24:21 Kenites were descended from Hobab, the father-in-law, or possibly the brother-in-law, of Moses (Judg. 1:16; 4:11).

24:22 Asshur represents Assyria.

25:1 Apparently Balaam instigated this seduction of the Israelites (Num. 31:16).

25:3 Baal of Peor was the last site from which Balaam attempted to curse the Israelites (23:28).

ENCOUNTER*Note* Num. 25:3

Not Indifferent

How it grieves our Lord to see our hearts shift away from Him and gravitate toward worldly temptations. Our disloyalty offends Him deeply. He will not sit idly by and allow it.

6 And indeed, one of the children of Israel came and presented to his brethren a Midianite woman in the sight of Moses and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Israel, [a]who were weeping at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.
7 Now [a]when Phinehas [b]the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose from among the congregation and took a javelin in his hand;
8 and he went after the man of Israel into the tent and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her body. So [a]the plague was [b]stopped among the children of Israel.
9 And [a]those who died in the plague were twenty-four thousand.
10 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
11 [a]"Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, has turned back My wrath from the children of Israel, because he was zealous with My zeal among them, so that I did not consume the children of Israel in [b]My zeal.
12 "Therefore say, [a]'Behold, I give to him My [b]covenant of peace;
13 'and it shall be to him and [a]his descendants after him a covenant of [b]an everlasting priesthood, because he was [c]zealous for his God, and [d]made [1]atonement for the children of Israel.' "
14 Now the name of the Israelite who was killed, who was killed with the Midianite woman, was Zimri the son of Salu, a leader of a father's house among the Simeonites.
15 And the name of the Midianite woman who was killed was Cozbi the daughter of [a]Zur; he was head of the people of a father's house in Midian.
16 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
17 [a]"Harass the Midianites, and [1]attack them;
18 "for they harassed you with their [a]schemes[1] by which they seduced you in the matter of Peor and in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of a leader of Midian, their sister, who was killed in the day of the plague because of Peor."

The Second Census of Israel

26 And it came to pass, after the [a]plague, that the LORD spoke to Moses and Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, saying:
2 [a]"Take a census of all the congregation of the children of Israel [b]from twenty years old and above, by their fathers' houses, all who are able to go to war in Israel."
3 So Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them [a]in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, across from Jericho, saying:

8 And the son of Pallu was Eliab.
9 The sons of Eliab were Nemuel, Dathan, and Abiram. These are the Dathan and Abiram, [a]representatives of the congregation, who contended against Moses and Aaron in the company of Korah, when they contended against the LORD;
10 [a]and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up together with Korah when that company died, when the fire devoured two hundred and fifty men; [b]and they became a sign.
11 Nevertheless [a]the children of Korah did not die.
12 The sons of Simeon according to their families were: of [1]Nemuel, the family of the Nemuelites; of Jamin, the family of the Jaminites; of [2]Jachin, the family of the Jachinites;

51 [a]These are those who were numbered of the children of Israel: six hundred and one thousand seven hundred and thirty.
52 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
53 [a]"To these the land shall be [b]divided as an inheritance, according to the number of names.
54 [a]"To a large tribe you shall give a larger inheritance, and to a small tribe you shall give a smaller inheritance. Each shall be given its inheritance according to those who were numbered of them.

61 And [a]Nadab and Abihu died when they offered profane fire before the LORD.
62 [a]Now those who were numbered of them were twenty-three thousand, every male from a month old and above; [b]for they were not numbered among the other children of Israel, because there was [c]no inheritance given to them among the children of Israel.
63 These are those who were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who numbered the children of Israel [a]in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, across from Jericho.

Not a Man

When God pronounces a consequence for sin, it inevitably comes to pass. It may not occur immediately, but His judgment is sure.

65 For the LORD had said of them, "They [a]shall surely die in the wilderness." So there was not left a man of them, [b]except Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun.

Inheritance Laws

27 Then came the daughters of [a]Zelophehad the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, from the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph; and these were the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.
2 And they stood before Moses, before Eleazar the priest, and before the leaders and all the congregation, by the doorway of the tabernacle of meeting, saying:
3 "Our father [a]died in the wilderness; but he was not in the company of those who gathered together against the LORD, [b]in company with Korah, but he died in his own sin; and he had no sons.
4 "Why should the name of our father be [a]removed[1] from among his family because he had no son? [b]Give us a [2]possession among our father's brothers."
5 So Moses [a]brought their case before the LORD.
6 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
7 "The daughters of Zelophehad speak what is right; [a]you shall surely give them a possession of inheritance among their father's brothers, and cause the inheritance of their father to pass to them.
8 "And you shall speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'If a man dies and has 26:51 The first census recorded a total of 603,550 people (Num. 1:46) while the second one, forty years later, counted 601,730. The fact that the entire adult population had been replaced while the nation inhabited a desolate wilderness was testimony to God's provision.

26:64 "Not a man" indicates that God's word of judgment had occurred and no adult over twenty had survived the wilderness wanderings (Num. 14:29).

27:4 The daughters of Zelophehad asked for something contrary to custom. Women did not normally inherit land, since in theory they could marry a man from another tribe and the land would be lost to that tribe. Moses' decision was fair and progressive.

Joshua the Next Leader of Israel

12 Now the LORD said to Moses: [a]"Go up into this Mount Abarim, and see the land which I have given to the children of Israel.
13 "And when you have seen it, you also [a]shall [1]be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother was gathered.
14 "For in the Wilderness of Zin, during the strife of the congregation, you [a]rebelled against My command to hallow Me at the waters before their eyes." (These are the [b]waters of Meribah, at Kadesh in the Wilderness of Zin.)
15 Then Moses spoke to the LORD, saying:
16 "Let the LORD, [a]the God of the spirits of all flesh, set a man over the congregation,
17 [a]"who may go out before them and go in before them, who may lead them out and bring them in, that the congregation of the LORD may not be [b]like sheep which have no shepherd."
18 And the LORD said to Moses: "Take Joshua the son of Nun with you, a man [a]in whom is the Spirit, and [b]lay your hand on him;

Godly Leaders

God chooses leaders who have His Spirit working within them. We do not become spiritually mature by becoming leaders; God appoints us to be leaders because His Spirit is already working within us.

20 "And [a]you shall give some of your authority to him, that all the congregation of the children of Israel [b]may be obedient.
21 [a]"He shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall inquire before the LORD for him [b]by the judgment of the Urim. [c]At his word they shall go out, and at his word they shall come in, he and all the children of Israel with him—all the congregation."
22 So Moses did as the LORD commanded him. He took Joshua and set him before Eleazar the priest and before all the congregation.
23 And he laid his hands on him [a]and [1]inaugurated him, just as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

Daily Offerings

28 Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
2 "Command the children of Israel, and say to them, 'My offering, [a]My food for My offerings made by fire as a sweet aroma to Me, you shall be careful to offer to Me at their appointed time.'
3 "And you shall say to them, [a]'This is the offering made by fire which you shall offer to the LORD: two male lambs in their first year without blemish, day by day, as a regular burnt offering.

10 'this is [a]the burnt offering for every Sabbath, besides the regular burnt offering with its drink offering.

Monthly Offerings

11 [a]'At the beginnings of your months you shall present a burnt offering to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, and seven lambs in their first year, without blemish;
12 [a]'three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with oil, for each bull; two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with oil, for the one ram;

19 'And you shall present an offering made by fire as a burnt offering to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, and seven lambs in their first year. [a]Be sure they are without blemish.
20 'Their grain offering shall be of fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenths of an ephah you shall offer for a bull, and two-tenths for a ram;
21 'you shall offer one-tenth of an ephah for each of the seven lambs;
22 'also [a]one goat as a sin offering, to make [1]atonement for you.
23 'You shall offer these besides the burnt offering of the morning, which is for a regular burnt offering.
24 'In this manner you shall offer the food of the offering made by fire daily for seven days, as a sweet aroma to the LORD; it shall be offered besides the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

28:16 This would fall in March/April.

28:26 The Feast of Weeks or the Feast of Firstfruits celebrated the beginning of the barley harvest and occurred fifty days after the Feast of Unleavened Bread (Ex. 23:16; Lev. 23:15–21; Deut. 16:9–12).

Offerings on the Day of Atonement

7 [a]'On the tenth day of this seventh month you shall have a holy convocation. You shall [b]afflict your souls; you shall not do any work.
8 'You shall present a burnt offering to the LORD as a sweet aroma: one young bull, one ram, and seven lambs in their first year. [a]Be sure they are without blemish.

40 So Moses told the children of Israel everything, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

The Law Concerning Vows

30 Then Moses spoke to [a]the heads of the tribes concerning the children of Israel, saying, "This is the thing which the LORD has commanded:
2 [a]"If a man makes a vow to the LORD, or [b]swears an oath to bind himself by some agreement, he shall not break his word; he shall [c]do according to all that proceeds out of his mouth.

WORD*Study* VOWS TO GOD

Num. 30:2 At critical moments in peoples' lives they might make a vow to God. Typically this included a solemn oath to give something to God or to abstain from something for God. Such promises were considered binding, and breaking them invited God's wrath (Eccl. 5:4). Keeping a vow to God could be an act of worship (Ps. 66:13).

3 "Or if a woman makes a vow to the LORD, and binds herself by some agreement while in her father's house in her youth,
4 "and her father hears her vow and the agreement by which she has bound herself, and her father [1]holds his peace, then all her vows shall stand, and every agreement with which she has bound herself shall stand.
5 "But if her father overrules her on the day that he hears, then none of her vows nor her agreements by which she has bound herself shall stand; and the LORD will release her, because her father overruled her.
6 "If indeed she takes a husband, while bound by her vows or by a rash utterance from her lips by which she bound herself,
7 "and her husband hears it, and makes no response to her on the day that he hears, then her vows shall stand, and her agreements by which she bound herself shall stand.

People of Our Word

God expects us to keep our promises. We should remember this before we offer a hasty or careless vow to Him or to others.

8 "But if her husband [a]overrules her on the day that he hears it, he shall make void her vow which she took and what she uttered with her lips, by which she bound herself, and the LORD will release her.
9 "Also any vow of a widow or a divorced woman, by which she has bound herself, shall stand against her.
10 "If she vowed in her husband's house, or bound herself by an agreement with an oath, 11 "and her husband heard it, and made no response to her and did not overrule her, then all her vows shall stand, and every agreement by which she bound herself shall stand.
12 "But if her husband truly made them void on the day he heard them, then whatever proceeded from her lips concerning her vows or concerning the agreement binding her, it shall not stand; her husband has made them [1]void, and the LORD will release her.

Vengeance on the Midianites

31 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
2 [a]"Take vengeance on the Midianites for the children of Israel. Afterward you shall [b]be gathered to your people."

ENCOUNTER Note Num. 31:2

Vengeance

God's judgment always begins with His own people. Then it is applied to unbelievers and to God's enemies.

3 So Moses spoke to the people, saying, "Arm some of yourselves for war, and let them go against the Midianites to take vengeance for the LORD on [a]Midian.
4 "A thousand from each tribe of all the tribes of Israel you shall send to the war."
5 So there were recruited from the divisions of Israel one thousand from each tribe, twelve thousand armed for war.
6 Then Moses sent them to the war, one thousand from each tribe; he sent them to the war with Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, with the holy articles and [a]the signal trumpets in his hand.
7 And they warred against the Midianites, just as the LORD commanded Moses, and [a]they killed all the [b]males.
8 They killed the kings of Midian with the rest of those who were killed—[a]Evi, Rekem, [b]Zur, Hur, and Reba, the five kings of Midian. [c]Balaam the son of Beor they also killed with the sword.
9 And the children of Israel took the women of Midian captive, with their little ones, and took as spoil all their cattle, all their flocks, and all their goods.
10 They also burned with fire all the cities where they dwelt, and all their forts.
11 And [a]they took all the spoil and all the booty—of man and beast.

Return from the War

12 Then they brought the captives, the booty, and the spoil to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of the children of Israel, to the camp in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, across from Jericho.
13 And Moses, Eleazar the priest, and all the leaders of the congregation, went to meet them outside the camp.
14 But Moses was angry with the officers of the army, with the captains over thousands and captains over hundreds, who had come from the battle.
15 And Moses said to them: "Have you kept [a]all the women alive?
16 "Look, [a]these women caused the children of Israel, through the [b]counsel of Balaam, to trespass against the LORD in the incident of Peor, and [c]there was a plague among the congregation of the LORD.
17 "Now therefore, [a]kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman who has known a man intimately.
18 "But keep alive [a]for yourselves all the young girls who have not known a man intimately.
19 "And as for you, [a]remain outside the camp seven days; whoever has killed any person, and [b]whoever has touched any slain, purify yourselves and your captives on the third day and on the seventh day.
20 "Purify every garment, everything made of leather, everything woven of goats' hair, and everything made of wood."
21 Then Eleazar the priest said to the men of war who had gone to the battle, "This is the [1]ordinance of the law which the LORD commanded Moses:
22 "Only the gold, the silver, the bronze, the iron, the tin, and the lead,
23 "everything that can endure fire, you shall put through the fire, and it shall be clean; and it shall be purified [a]with the water of purification. But all that cannot endure fire you shall put through water.

Division of the Plunder

25 Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:
26 "Count up the plunder that was [1]taken—of man and beast—you and Eleazar the priest and the chief fathers of the congregation;
27 "and [a]divide the plunder into two parts, between those who took part in the war, who went out to battle, and all the congregation.
28 "And levy a [1]tribute for the LORD on the men of war who went out to battle: [a]one of every five hundred of the persons, the cattle, the donkeys, and the sheep;
29 "take it from their half, and [a]give it to Eleazar the priest as a heave offering to the LORD.
30 "And from the children of Israel's half you shall take [a]one of every fifty, drawn from the persons, the cattle, the donkeys, and the sheep, from all the livestock, and give them to the Levites [b]who [1]keep charge of the tabernacle of the LORD."
31 So Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses.
32 The booty remaining from the plunder, which the men of war had taken, was six hundred and seventy-five thousand sheep,
33 seventy-two thousand cattle,
34 sixty-one thousand donkeys,
35 and thirty-two thousand persons in all, of women who had not known a man intimately.
36 And the half, the portion for those who had gone out to war, was in number three hundred and thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep;
37 and the LORD's [1]tribute of the sheep was six hundred and seventy-five.
38 The cattle were thirty-six thousand, of which the LORD's tribute was seventy-two.
39 The donkeys were thirty thousand five hundred, of which the LORD's tribute was sixty-one.
40 The persons were sixteen thousand, of which the LORD's tribute was thirty-two persons.
41 So Moses gave the tribute which was the LORD's heave offering to Eleazar the priest, [a]as the LORD commanded Moses.
42 And from the children of Israel's half, which Moses separated from the men who fought—43 now the half belonging to the congregation was three hundred and thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep,
44 thirty-six thousand cattle,
45 thirty thousand five hundred donkeys,
46 and sixteen thousand persons—
47 and [a]from the children of Israel's half Moses took one of every fifty, drawn from man and beast, and gave them to the Levites, who kept charge of the tabernacle of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.
48 Then the officers who were over thousands of the army, the captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, came near to Moses;
49 and they said to Moses, "Your servants have taken a count of the men of war who are under our command, and not a man of us is missing.
50 "Therefore we have brought an offering for the LORD, what every man found of ornaments of gold: armlets and bracelets and signet rings and earrings and necklaces, [a]to make [1]atonement for ourselves before the LORD."
51 So Moses and Eleazar the priest received the gold from them, all the fashioned ornaments.
52 And all the gold of the offering that they offered to the LORD, from the captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels.
53 [a](The men of war had taken spoil, every man for himself.)
54 And Moses and Eleazar the priest received the gold from the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the tabernacle of meeting [a]as a memorial for the children of Israel before the LORD.

The Tribes Settling East of the Jordan

32 Now the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had a very great multitude of livestock; and when they saw the land of [a]Jazer and the land of [b]Gilead, that indeed the region was a place for livestock,
2 the children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spoke to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, and to the leaders of the congregation, saying,
3 "Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, [a]Nimrah, [b]Heshbon, Elealeh, [c]Shebam, Nebo, and [d]Beon,
4 "the country [a]which the LORD defeated before the congregation of Israel, is a land for livestock, and your servants have livestock."

favor in your sight, let this land be given to your servants as a possession. Do not take us over the Jordan."
6 And Moses said to the children of Gad and to the children of Reuben: "Shall your brethren go to war while you sit here?

ENCOUNTER*Note* Num. 32:6

Sitting in Battle

God expects all of His people to be engaged in His activity. You cannot sit on the sidelines and walk with God.

7 "Now why will you [a]discourage the heart of the children of Israel from going over into the land which the LORD has given them?
8 "Thus your fathers did [a]when I sent them away from Kadesh Barnea [b]to see the land.
9 "For [a]when they went up to the Valley of Eshcol and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, so that they did not go into the land which the LORD had given them.
10 [a]"So the LORD's anger was aroused on that day, and He swore an oath, saying,
11 'Surely none of the men who came up from Egypt, [a]from twenty years old and above, shall see the land of which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, because [b]they have not wholly followed Me,
12 'except Caleb the son of Jephunneh, the Kenizzite, and Joshua the son of Nun, [a]for they have wholly followed the LORD.'
13 "So the LORD's anger was aroused against Israel, and He made them [a]wander in the wilderness forty years, until [b]all the generation that had done evil in the sight of the LORD was gone.
14 "And look! You have risen in your fathers' place, a brood of sinful men, to increase still more the [a]fierce anger of the LORD against Israel.
15 "For if you [a]turn away from following Him, He will once again leave them in the wilderness, and you will destroy all these people."
16 Then they came near to him and said: "We will build sheepfolds here for our livestock, and cities for our little ones,
17 "but [a]we ourselves will be armed, ready to go before the children of Israel until we have brought them to their place; and our little ones will dwell in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land.
18 [a]"We will not return to our homes until every one of the children of Israel has [1]received his inheritance.
19 "For we will not inherit with them on the other side of the Jordan and beyond, [a]because our inheritance has fallen to us on this eastern side of the Jordan."
20 Then [a]Moses said to them: "If you do this thing, if you arm yourselves before the LORD for the war,
21 "and all your armed men cross over the Jordan before the LORD until He has driven out His enemies from before Him, 22 "and [a]the land is subdued before the LORD, then afterward [b]you may return and be blameless before the LORD and before Israel; and [c]this land shall be your possession before the LORD.
23 "But if you do not do so, then take note, you have sinned against the LORD; and be sure [a]your sin will find you out.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Num. 32:23

Sin Finds You

You cannot escape the consequences of your sin, no matter how secret it is. Sin, by its nature, destroys what it touches and demands payment in full.

24 [a]"Build cities for your little ones and folds for your sheep, and do [1]what has proceeded out of your mouth."
25 And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben spoke to Moses, saying: "Your servants will do as my lord commands.
26 [a]"Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our livestock will be there in the cities of Gilead;
27 [a]"but your servants will cross over, every man armed for war, before the LORD to battle, just as my lord says."
28 So Moses gave command [a]concerning them to Eleazar the priest, to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel.
29 And Moses said to them: "If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben cross over the Jordan with you, every man armed for battle before the LORD, and the land is subdued before you, then you shall give them the land of Gilead as a possession.
30 "But if they do not cross over armed with you, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan."
31 Then the children of Gad and the 32 "We will cross over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, but the possession of our inheritance shall remain with us on this side of the Jordan."

33 So [a]Moses gave to the children of Gad, to the children of Reuben, and to half the tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, [b]the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land with its cities within the borders, the cities of the surrounding country.

39 And the children of [a]Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead and took it, and [1]dispossessed the Amorites who were in it.
40 So Moses [a]gave Gilead to Machir the son of Manasseh, and he dwelt in it.
41 Also [a]Jair the son of Manasseh went and took its small towns, and called them [b]Havoth Jair.[1]
42 Then Nobah went and took Kenath and its villages, and he called it Nobah, after his own name.

Israel's Journey from Egypt Reviewed

33 These are the journeys of the children of Israel, who went out of the land of Egypt by their armies under the [a]hand of Moses and Aaron.
2 Now Moses wrote down the starting points of their journeys at the command of the LORD. And these are their journeys according to their starting points:
3 They [a]departed from Rameses in [b]the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the day after the Passover the children of Israel went out [c]with boldness in the sight of all the Egyptians.
4 For the Egyptians were burying all their firstborn, [a]whom the LORD had killed among them. Also [b]on their gods the LORD had executed judgments.
5 [a]Then the children of Israel moved from Rameses and camped at Succoth.
6 They departed from [a]Succoth and camped at Etham, which is on the edge of the wilderness.
7 [a]They moved from Etham and turned back to Pi Hahiroth, which is east of Baal Zephon; and they camped near Migdol.
8 They departed [1]from before Hahiroth and [a]passed through the midst of the sea into the wilderness, went three days' journey in the Wilderness of Etham, and camped at Marah.
9 They moved from Marah and [a]came to Elim. At Elim were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees; so they camped there.
10 They moved from Elim and camped by the Red Sea.
11 They moved from the Red Sea and camped in the [a]Wilderness of Sin.
12 They journeyed from the Wilderness of Sin and camped at Dophkah.
13 They departed from Dophkah and camped at Alush.
14 They moved from Alush and camped at [a]Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to drink.
15 They departed from Rephidim and camped in the [a]Wilderness of Sinai.
16 They moved from the Wilderness of Sinai and camped [a]at [1]Kibroth Hattaavah.
17 They departed from Kibroth Hattaavah and [a]camped at Hazeroth.
18 They departed from Hazeroth and camped at [a]Rithmah.
19 They departed from Rithmah and camped at Rimmon Perez.
20 They departed from Rimmon Perez and camped at Libnah.
21 They moved from Libnah and camped at Rissah.
22 They journeyed from Rissah and camped at Kehelathah.
23 They went from Kehelathah and camped at Mount Shepher.
24 They moved from Mount Shepher and camped at Haradah.
25 They moved from Haradah and camped at Makheloth.
26 They moved from Makheloth and camped at Tahath.
27 They departed from Tahath and camped at Terah.

33:2 This verse makes it clear Moses was the author of this passage.

33:3 Rameses is mentioned in Genesis 47:11 and Exodus 12:37. It may have been the city of Tanis.

33:6 "Etham" is an Egyptian name meaning "wall" or "fortification."

33:7 Migdol may have been at the northern edge of Egypt (Jer. 44:11; 46:14; Ezek. 29:10; 30:6).

33:9 "Marah" means "bitter."

28 They moved from Terah and camped at Mithkah.
29 They went from Mithkah and camped at Hashmonah.
30 They departed from Hashmonah and [a]camped at Moseroth.
31 They departed from Moseroth and camped at Bene Jaakan.
32 They moved from [a]Bene Jaakan and [b]camped at Hor Hagidgad.
33 They went from Hor Hagidgad and camped at Jotbathah.
34 They moved from Jotbathah and camped at Abronah.
35 They departed from Abronah [a]and camped at Ezion Geber.
36 They moved from Ezion Geber and camped in the [a]Wilderness of Zin, which is Kadesh.
37 They moved from [a]Kadesh and camped at Mount Hor, on the boundary of the land of Edom.
38 Then [a]Aaron the priest went up to Mount Hor at the command of the LORD, and died there in the fortieth year after the children of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, on the first day of the fifth month.
39 Aaron was one hundred and twenty-three years old when he died on Mount Hor.
40 Now [a]the king of Arad, the Canaanite, who dwelt in the South in the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the children of Israel.
41 So they departed from Mount Hor and camped at Zalmonah.
42 They departed from Zalmonah and camped at Punon.
43 They departed from Punon and [a]camped at Oboth.
44 [a]They departed from Oboth and camped at Ije Abarim, at the border of Moab.
45 They departed from [1]Ijim and camped [a]at Dibon Gad.
46 They moved from Dibon Gad and camped at [a]Almon Diblathaim.
47 They moved from Almon Diblathaim [a]and camped in the mountains of Abarim, before Nebo.
48 They departed from the mountains of Abarim and [a]camped in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, across from Jericho.
49 They camped by the Jordan, from Beth Jesimoth as far as the [a]Abel Acacia Grove[1] in the plains of Moab.

Instructions for the Conquest of Canaan

50 Now the LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, across from Jericho, saying,
51 "Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: [a]'When you have crossed the Jordan into the land of Canaan,
52 [a]'then you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, destroy all their engraved stones, destroy all their molded images, and demolish all their [1]high places;
53 'you shall dispossess the inhabitants of the land and dwell in it, for I have given you the land to [a]possess.

ENCOUNTER Note Num. 33:52, 53

Leave Nothing

Each of us carries the remnants of our sinful past. God calls us to systematically eradicate any persisting sinful attitude or behavior that holds us captive. He wants us to be free to walk blamelessly before Him.

54 'And [a]you shall divide the land by lot as an inheritance among your families; to the larger you shall give a larger inheritance, and to the smaller you shall give a smaller inheritance; there everyone's inheritance shall be whatever falls to him by lot. You shall inherit according to the tribes of your fathers.
55 'But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then it shall be that those whom you let remain shall be [a]irritants in your eyes and thorns in your sides, and they shall harass you in the land where you dwell.
56 'Moreover it shall be that I will do to you as I thought to do to them.' "

The Appointed Boundaries of Canaan

34 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
2 "Command the children of Israel, and say to them: 'When you come into [a]the land of Canaan, this is the land that shall fall to you as an inheritance—the land of Canaan to its boundaries.
3 [a]'Your southern border shall be from the Wilderness of Zin along the border of Edom; then your southern border shall extend eastward to the end of [b]the Salt Sea;

CHAPTER 34
2 [a]Gen. 17:8
3 [a]Josh. 15:1–3 [b]Gen. 14:3

33:39 Aaron died in the fortieth year of wilderness wandering, just short of entering the Promised Land.

33:45 Dibon-gad is Dhiban, the Moabite capital.

33:49 Beth Jesimoth is in the Jordan Valley, twelve miles southeast of Jericho (Josh. 12:3; 13:20; Ezek. 25:9).

33:52 "High places" were Canaanite shrines on hilltops. These would prove a constant temptation to idolatry for the Israelites (Lev. 26:30).

34:3 God's will was extremely specific for the Israelite people.

4 'your border shall turn from the southern side of [a]the Ascent of Akrabbim, continue to Zin, and be on the south of [b]Kadesh Barnea; then it shall go on to [c]Hazar Addar, and continue to Azmon;
5 'the border shall turn from Azmon [a]to the Brook of Egypt, and it shall end at the Sea.
6 'As for the [a]western border, you shall have the Great Sea for a border; this shall be your western border.
7 'And this shall be your northern border: From the Great Sea you shall mark out your border line to [a]Mount Hor;
8 'from Mount Hor you shall mark out your border [a]to the entrance of Hamath; then the direction of the border shall be toward [b]Zedad;
9 'the border shall proceed to Ziphron, and it shall end at [a]Hazar Enan. This shall be your northern border.
10 'You shall mark out your eastern border from Hazar Enan to Shepham;
11 'the border shall go down from Shepham [a]to Riblah on the east side of Ain; the border shall go down and reach to the eastern [1]side of the Sea [b]of Chinnereth;
12 'the border shall go down along the Jordan, and it shall end at [a]the Salt Sea. This shall be your land with its surrounding boundaries.' "
13 Then Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying: [a]"This is the land which you shall inherit by lot, which the LORD has commanded to give to the nine tribes and to the half-tribe.
14 [a]"For the tribe of the children of Reuben according to the house of their fathers, and the tribe of the children of Gad according to the house of their fathers, have received their inheritance; and the half-tribe of Manasseh has received its inheritance.
15 "The two tribes and the half-tribe have received their inheritance on this side of the Jordan, across from Jericho eastward, toward the sunrise."

The Leaders Appointed to Divide the Land

16 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
17 "These are the names of the men who shall divide the land among you as an inheritance: [a]Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun.
18 "And you shall take one [a]leader of every tribe to divide the land for the inheritance.
19 "These are the names of the men: from the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh;
20 "from the tribe of the children of Simeon, Shemuel the son of Ammihud;
21 "from the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Chislon;
22 "a leader from the tribe of the children of Dan, Bukki the son of Jogli;
23 "from the sons of Joseph: a leader from the tribe of the children of Manasseh, Hanniel the son of Ephod,

28 "and a leader from the tribe of the children of Naphtali, Pedahel the son of Ammihud."

Cities for the Levites

35 And the LORD spoke to Moses in [a]the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho, saying:
2 [a]"Command the children of Israel that they give the Levites cities to dwell in from the inheritance of their possession, and you shall also give the Levites [b]common-land around the cities.
3 "They shall have the cities to dwell in; and their common-land shall be for their cattle, for their herds, and for all their animals.
4 "The common-land of the cities which you will give the Levites shall extend from the wall of the city outward a thousand cubits all around.
5 "And you shall measure outside the city on the east side two thousand cubits, 34:4 "Akrabbim" means "scorpions." Kadesh-barnea was the southernmost part of the boundary.

34:8 "The entrance of Hamath," or Lebo-hamath, is at the head of the Orontes River.

34:11 "Chinnereth" means "heart shaped," and is the Sea of Galilee.

34:13 God has specific blessings He wants His people to inherit. He will guide us into His perfect will if we will follow Him.

34:29 God gave specific directives concerning who was to divide the land.

35:2 The Levites were dispersed among the tribes to remind the Israelites that they were to be a holy people. "Common-lands" could be translated "pasture lands."

on the south side two thousand cubits, on the west side two thousand cubits, and on the north side two thousand cubits. The city shall be in the middle. This shall belong to them as common-land for the cities.
6 "Now among the cities which you will give to the Levites you shall appoint [a]six cities of refuge, to which a manslayer may flee. And to these you shall add forty-two cities.
7 "So all the cities you will give to the Levites shall be [a]forty-eight; these you shall give with their common-land.
8 "And the cities which you will give shall be [a]from the possession of the children of Israel; [b]from the larger tribe you shall give many, from the smaller you shall give few. Each shall give some of its cities to the Levites, in proportion to the inheritance that each receives."

Cities of Refuge

9 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
10 "Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: [a]'When you cross the Jordan into the land of Canaan,
11 'then [a]you shall appoint cities to be cities of refuge for you, that the manslayer who kills any person accidentally may flee there.
12 [a]'They shall be cities of refuge for you from the avenger, that the manslayer may not die until he stands before the congregation in judgment.
13 'And of the cities which you give, you shall have [a]six cities of refuge.
14 [a]'You shall appoint three cities on this side of the Jordan, and three cities you shall appoint in the land of Canaan, which will be cities of refuge.
15 'These six cities shall be for refuge for the children of Israel, [a]for the stranger, and for the sojourner among them, that anyone who kills a person accidentally may flee there.
16 [a]'But if he strikes him with an iron implement, so that he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death.
17 'And if he strikes him with a stone in the hand, by which one could die, and he does die, he is a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death.
18 'Or if he strikes him with a wooden hand weapon, by which one could die, and he does die, he is a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death.
19 [a]'The[1] avenger of blood himself shall put the murderer to death; when he meets him, he shall put him to death.
20 [a]'If he pushes him out of hatred or, [b]while lying in wait, hurls something at him so that he dies,
21 'or in enmity he strikes him with his hand so that he dies, the one who struck him shall surely be put to death. He is a murderer. The avenger of blood shall put the murderer to death when he meets him.
22 'However, if he pushes him suddenly [a]without enmity, or throws anything at him without lying in wait,
23 'or uses a stone, by which a man could die, throwing it at him without seeing him, so that he dies, while he was not his enemy or seeking his harm,
24 'then [a]the congregation shall judge between the manslayer and the avenger of blood according to these judgments.
25 'So the congregation shall deliver the manslayer from the hand of the avenger of blood, and the congregation shall return him to the city of refuge where he had fled, and [a]he shall remain there until the death of the high priest [b]who was anointed with the holy oil.
26 'But if the manslayer at any time goes outside the limits of the city of refuge where he fled,
27 'and the avenger of blood finds him outside the limits of his city of refuge, and the avenger of blood kills the manslayer, he shall not be guilty of [1]blood,
28 'because he should have remained in his city of refuge until the death of the high priest. But after the death of the high priest the manslayer may return to the land of his possession.
29 'And these things shall be [a]a statute of judgment to you throughout your generations in all your dwellings.
30 'Whoever kills a person, the murderer shall be put to death on the [a]testimony of witnesses; but one witness is not sufficient testimony against a person for the death penalty.
31 'Moreover you shall take no ransom for the life of a murderer who is guilty of death, but he shall surely be put to death.
32 'And you shall take no ransom for him who has fled to his city of refuge, 35:28 Only the death of the high priest was sufficient expiation for someone guilty of manslaughter to be able to go free.

Holy God dwells among His people. Therefore our sins, whether against ourselves or against others, are most of all an affront to God Himself.

Marriage of Female Heirs

36 Now the chief fathers of the families of the [a]children of Gilead the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near and [b]spoke before Moses and before the leaders, the chief fathers of the children of Israel.
2 And they said: [a]"The LORD commanded my lord Moses to give the land as an inheritance by lot to the children of Israel, and [b]my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of our brother Zelophehad to his daughters.
3 "Now if they are married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Israel, then their inheritance will be [a]taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and it will be added to the inheritance of the tribe into which they marry; so it will be taken from the lot of our inheritance.

6 "This is what the LORD commands concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, 'Let them [1]marry whom they think best, [a]but they may marry only within the family of their father's tribe.'
7 "So the inheritance of the children of Israel shall not change hands from tribe to tribe, for every one of the children of Israel shall [a]keep the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Num. 36:7

Keeping the Inheritance

When God blesses us, He is also blessing our descendants. Our children will receive the benefits of our walk with God.

8 "And [a]every daughter who possesses an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israel shall be the wife of one of the family of her father's tribe, so that the children of Israel each may possess the inheritance of his fathers.
9 "Thus no inheritance shall change hands from one tribe to another, but every tribe of the children of Israel shall keep its own inheritance."
10 Just as the LORD commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad;
11 [a]for Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married to the sons of their father's brothers.
12 They were married into the families of the children of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of their father's family.
13 These are the commandments and the judgments which the LORD commanded the children of Israel by the hand of Moses [a]in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, across from Jericho.

36:3 Manasseh's tribal leaders were concerned about the potential loss of tribal lands even before they had occupied the land.

36:5 Moses' decision is an example of Israelite case law. Certain practical laws were made as situations arose, holding to the principles and values God had given them in His law.

THE FIFTH BOOK OF MOSES CALLED

DEUTERONOMY

INTRODUCTION

The English title of the book was drawn from the Latin Vulgate version of the Bible which understood the book to be a repetition of Exodus and therefore entitled it "Second Law." However, Deuteronomy is not a second law or simply a repetition, but an amplification and advancement of the law and teachings that were delivered through Moses almost forty years previously.

SIGNIFICANCE

Deuteronomy was written to restate the covenant between God and the Israelites, but it does so in an expanded form and in appropriate terms for a new generation ready to embark on the conquest of the Promised Land. The Israelites faced a seemingly impossible task, one which could be accomplished only by remaining close to God and walking in His ways. The people needed to be reminded of who God was, what He had promised, and what was required of them to remain faithful and pleasing to Him. A second reason for writing Deuteronomy was Moses' imminent death. He had been commanded to pass the role of leadership on to Joshua (Deut. 3:23–29). There was a change in human leadership, but the true leader of Israel remained God Himself. It was imperative that Moses record all God had instructed for the people as this would serve as the body of law and practice for the Israelite people once he was gone.

STRUCTURE

Deuteronomy can be divided into four sections. In the first part, Moses recounts the mighty acts God performed on the Israelites' behalf (1:1—4:43). The second portion includes a restating and expansion of God's law (4:44—28:68). The third section records Moses' exhortation to the new generation to renew their covenant relationship with God so they would prosper in the land they were about to take (29:1—31:29). The book concludes with what has been called "The Song of Moses." Moses speaks the words of a song as a witness to the renewal of the covenant and his approaching death (31:30—34:12).

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH DEUTERONOMY

The basic principle underlying the relationship between God and His people as emphasized in Deuteronomy is love. God initiated the covenant relationship with His people out of love, and it was by love that they were to maintain their relationship with God (6:5; 7:8–9; 10:15; 11:1). Deuteronomy challenges Christians not to follow and obey God out of a sense of duty or religious ritual, but out of a love relationship.

In the covenant relationship there were promises of blessings for following God and also curses for disobeying God. These warnings challenge God's people to remain faithful. Many of the prophetic admonitions (especially in Jeremiah) draw upon teachings from this book to keep God's people from sinning. As you study Deuteronomy, expect the Holy Spirit to take these same warnings and challenge you to carefully follow Christ in a love relationship.

Deuteronomy provides an understanding of who God's people are and the responsibility they have to raise up their children to honor God. Christians can find tremendous encouragement and help from Deuteronomy as they and their families seek to honor the Lord in the midst of a lost and immoral world.

The Previous Command to Enter Canaan

THESE are the words which Moses spoke to all Israel [a]on this side of the Jordan in the wilderness, in the [1]plain opposite [2]Suph, between Paran, Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Dizahab.
2 It is eleven days' journey from Horeb by way of Mount Seir [a]to Kadesh Barnea.
3 Now it came to pass [a]in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, that Moses spoke to the children of Israel according to all that the LORD had given him as commandments to them,
4 [a]after he had killed Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, who dwelt at Ashtaroth [b]in[1] Edrei.
5 On this side of the Jordan in the land of Moab, Moses began to explain this law, saying,

WORD Study — LAW

Deut. 1:5 The word translated "law" is the Hebrew word torah, which means "teaching" or "instruction." God presented the law as a guide for living within a covenant relationship (Deut. 6:1–3; Ps. 19). Significantly, God initiated the covenant 430 years before He gave the law at Sinai. The law was introduced to give guidance to a people who struggled to uphold the covenant. God was always faithful, but the people of God became unresponsive and needed guidance and structure to the relationship. The Law provided rewards for obedience and consequences for disobedience. It was intended to draw people into a deeper relationship with God. Although the first five books of the Old Testament are referred to as the "Books of the Law," Deuteronomy is the clearest exposition of the Law of God revealed at Mount Sinai. It summarized God's expectations and applied the law to their new situation. Deuteronomy acts as a covenant renewal document, with Moses acting in the place of mediator between God and His people.

6 "The LORD our God spoke to us [a]in Horeb, saying: 'You have dwelt long [b]enough at this mountain.

Long Enough on the Mountain

God does not set people free to remain on the mountain in His presence. Victories are not won by hiding out in the wilderness, but in taking the land and fulfilling God's purposes for our life. Encounters with God are not merely for our encouragement; they are also intended to strengthen us for battle.

Tribal Leaders Appointed

9 "And [a]I spoke to you at that time, saying: 'I [1]alone am not able to bear you.
10 'The LORD your God has multiplied you, [a]and here you are today, as the stars of heaven in multitude.
11 [a]'May the LORD God of your fathers make you a thousand times more numerous than you are, and bless you [b]as He has promised you!
12 [a]'How can I alone bear your problems and your burdens and your complaints?
13 'Choose wise, understanding, and knowledgeable men from among your tribes, and I will make them [1]heads over you.'
14 "And you answered me and said, 'The thing which you have told us to do is good.'
15 "So I took [a]the heads of your tribes, wise and knowledgeable men, and [1]made them heads over you, leaders of thousands, leaders of hundreds, leaders of fifties, leaders of tens, and officers for your tribes.
16 "Then I commanded your judges at that time, saying, 'Hear the cases between your brethren, and [a]judge righteously between a man and his [b]brother or the stranger who is with him.
17 [a]'You shall not show partiality in judgment; you shall hear the small as well as the great; you shall not be afraid in any man's presence, for [b]the judgment is God's. The case that is too hard for you, [c]bring to me, and I will hear it.'

1:2 Kadesh Barnea was a gathering place for the tribes on the northern edge of the Sinai, an oasis located at a major junction of two important roads. Eleven days' journey is approximately 150 miles from Horeb (Sinai).

18 "And I commanded you at that time all the things which you should do.

Israel's Refusal to Enter the Land

19 "So we departed from Horeb, [a]and went through all that great and terrible wilderness which you saw on the way to the mountains of the Amorites, as the LORD our God had commanded us. Then [b]we came to Kadesh Barnea.
20 "And I said to you, 'You have come to the mountains of the Amorites, which the LORD our God is giving us.
21 'Look, the LORD your God has set the land before you; go up and possess it, as the LORD God of your fathers has spoken to you; [a]do not fear or be discouraged.'
22 "And every one of you came near to me and said, 'Let us send men before us, and let them search out the land for us, and bring back word to us of the way by which we should go up, and of the cities into which we shall come.'
23 "The plan pleased me well; so [a]I took twelve of your men, one man from each tribe.
24 [a]"And they departed and went up into the mountains, and came to the Valley of Eshcol, and spied it out.
25 "They also took some of the fruit of the land in their hands and brought it down to us; and they brought back word to us, saying, 'It is a [a]good land which the LORD our God is giving us.'

ENCOUNTER*Note* Deut. 1:25

A Good Land

God's will is always best, but it lies on the other side of faith. It is not enough to know God's will in our heads; we must step out and experience it in life. We cannot enjoy the good land if our unbelief keeps us planted firmly where we are.

26 [a]"Nevertheless you would not go up, but rebelled against the command of the LORD your God;
27 "and you [a]complained in your tents, and said, 'Because the LORD [b]hates us, He has brought us out of the land of Egypt to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us.
28 'Where can we go up? Our brethren have [1]discouraged our hearts, saying, [a]"The people are greater and taller than we; the cities are great and fortified up to heaven; moreover we have seen the sons of the [b]Anakim there." '
29 "Then I said to you, 'Do not be terrified, [a]or afraid of them.
30 [a]'The LORD your God, who goes before you, He will fight for you, according to all He did for you in Egypt before your eyes,
31 'and in the wilderness where you saw how the LORD your God carried you, as a [a]man carries his son, in all the way that you went until you came to this place.'
32 "Yet, for all that, [a]you did not believe the LORD your God,
33 [a]"who went in the way before you [b]to search out a place for you to pitch your tents, to show you the way you should go, in the fire by night and in the cloud by day.

The Penalty for Israel's Rebellion

34 "And the LORD heard the sound of your words, and was angry, [a]and took an oath, saying,
35 [a]'Surely not one of these men of this evil generation shall see that good land of which I [1]swore to give to your fathers,
36 [a]'except Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it, and to him and his children I am giving the land on which he walked, because [b]he [1]wholly followed the LORD.'
37 [a]"The LORD was also angry with me for your sakes, saying, 'Even you shall not go in there.
38 [a]'Joshua the son of Nun, [b]who stands before you, he shall go in there. [c]Encourage him, for he shall cause Israel to inherit it.
39 [a]'Moreover your little ones and your children, who [b]you say will be victims, who today [c]have no knowledge of good and evil, they shall go in there; to them I will give it, and they shall possess it.
40 [a]'But as for you, turn and take your journey into the wilderness by the Way of the Red Sea.'
41 "Then you answered and said to me, [a]'We have sinned against the LORD; we will go up and fight, just as the LORD our God commanded us.' And when everyone of you had girded on his

Presumption

Do not presume God will fight your battles. He does not bless our plans; He fulfills His plans in our lives. It is not always possible to recover an opportunity lost by unbelief.

44 "And the Amorites who dwelt in that mountain came out against you and chased you [a]as bees do, and drove you back from Seir to Hormah.

3 'You have skirted this mountain [a]long enough; turn northward.
4 'And command the people, saying, [a]"You are about to pass through the territory of [b]your brethren, the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir; and they will be afraid of you. Therefore watch yourselves carefully.
5 "Do not meddle with them, for I will not give you any of their land, no, not so much as one footstep, [a]because I have given Mount Seir to Esau as a possession.
6 "You shall buy food from them with money, that you may eat; and you shall also buy water from them with money, that you may drink.
7 "For the LORD your God has blessed you in all the work of your hand. He knows your [1]trudging through this great wilderness. [a]These forty years the LORD your God has been with you; you have lacked nothing." '
8 "And when we passed beyond our brethren, the descendants of Esau who dwell in Seir, away from the road of the plain, away from [a]Elath and Ezion Geber, we [b]turned and passed by way of the Wilderness of Moab.
9 "Then the LORD said to me, 'Do not harass Moab, nor contend with them in battle, for I will not give you any of their land as a possession, because I have given [a]Ar to [b]the descendants of Lot as a possession.' "
10 [a](The Emim had dwelt there in times past, a people as great and numerous and tall as [b]the Anakim.
11 They were also regarded as [1]giants, like the Anakim, but the Moabites call them Emim.
12 [a]The Horites formerly dwelt in Seir, but the descendants of Esau dispossessed them and destroyed them from before them, and dwelt in their [1]place, just as Israel did to the land of their possession which the LORD gave them.)
13 " 'Now rise and cross over [a]the [1]Valley of the Zered.' So we crossed over the Valley of the Zered.
14 "And the time we took to come [a]from Kadesh Barnea until we crossed over the Valley of the Zered was thirty-eight years, [b]until all the generation of the men of war [1]was consumed from the midst of the camp, [c]just as the LORD had sworn to them.
15 "For indeed the hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from the midst of the camp until they [1]were consumed.
16 "So it was, when all the men of war had finally perished from among the people,
17 "that the LORD spoke to me, saying:
18 'This day you are to cross over at Ar, the boundary of Moab.
19 'And when you come near the people of Ammon, do not harass them or meddle with them, for I will not give you any of the land of the people of Ammon as a possession, because I have given it to [a]the descendants of Lot as a possession.' "

King Sihon Defeated

Faith in Process

God chooses not to simply hand us a finished product; rather He invites us to be involved in the process. Faith responds to God's initiative and allows Him to complete His work through us.

34 "We took all his cities at that time, and we [a]utterly destroyed the men, women, and little ones of every city; we left none remaining.
35 "We took only the livestock as plunder for ourselves, with the spoil of the cities which we took.
36 [a]"From Aroer, which is on the bank of the River Arnon, and from [b]the city that is in the ravine, as far as Gilead, there was not one city too strong for us; [c]the LORD our God delivered all to us.

King Og Defeated

3 "Then we turned and went up the road to Bashan; and [a]Og king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle [b]at Edrei.
2 "And the LORD said to me, 'Do not fear him, for I have delivered him and all his people and his land into your hand; you shall do to him as you did to [a]Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon.'
3 "So the LORD our God also delivered into our hands Og king of Bashan, with all his people, and we [1]attacked him until he had no survivors remaining.
4 "And we took all his cities at that time; there was not a city which we did not take from them: sixty cities, [a]all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.
5 "All these cities were fortified with high walls, gates, and bars, besides a great many rural towns.
6 "And we utterly destroyed them, as we did to Sihon king [a]of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women, and children of every city.
7 "But all the livestock and the spoil of the cities we took as booty for ourselves.

9 "(the Sidonians call [a]Hermon Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir),

2:34 The total destruction of a city and its inhabitants was fulfilling the law of herem, which means "ban" or "anathema." The absolute annihilation served as judgment over wicked people as well as redemption for God's people, protecting them from future temptation.

3:8 Mount Hermon is snowcapped through the year and is over 9,200 feet tall. It is the most prominent and beautiful mountain in Lebanon.

The Land East of the Jordan Divided

12 "And this [a]land, which we possessed at that time, [b]from Aroer, which is by the River Arnon, and half the mountains of Gilead and [c]its cities, I gave to the Reubenites and the Gadites.
13 [a]"The rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to half the tribe of Manasseh. (All the region of Argob, with all Bashan, was called the land of the [1]giants.

From Faith to Faith

God's miraculous activity in the past is the foundation for our present faith. The unchanging nature of His faithfulness encourages our obedience in the face of overwhelming circumstances.

22 'You must not fear them, for [a]the LORD your God Himself fights for you.'

Moses Forbidden to Enter the Land

23 "Then [a]I pleaded with the LORD at that time, saying:
24 'O Lord GOD, You have begun to show Your servant [a]Your greatness and Your [1]mighty hand, for [b]what god is there in heaven or on earth who can do anything like Your works and Your mighty deeds?
25 'I pray, let me cross over and see [a]the good land beyond the Jordan, those pleasant mountains, and Lebanon.'
26 "But the LORD [a]was angry with me on your account, and would not listen to me. So the LORD said to me: 'Enough of that! Speak no more to Me of this matter.
27 [a]'Go up to the top of Pisgah, and lift your eyes toward the west, the north, the south, and the east; behold it with your eyes, for you shall not cross over this Jordan.
28 'But [a]command[1] Joshua, and encourage him and strengthen him; for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which you will see.'
29 "So we stayed in [a]the valley opposite Beth Peor.

Moses Commands Obedience

4 "Now, O Israel, listen to [a]the statutes and the judgments which I teach you to observe, that you may live, and go in and [1]possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers is giving you.
2 [a]"You shall not add to the word which I command you, nor take from it, that you may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you.
3 "Your eyes have seen what the LORD did at [a]Baal Peor; for the LORD your God has destroyed from among you all the men who followed Baal of Peor.
4 "But you who held fast to the LORD

3:11 Rabbah was the capital of Ammon. It was referred to as Philadelphia in the New Testament. Today it is called Amman, and it is the capital of Jordan.

3:15 Machir was Manasseh's firstborn son and the ancestor of the Gileadites.

3:17 Chinnereth is sometimes called "Sea of Galilee" in the New Testament.

your God are alive today, every one of you.
5 "Surely I have taught you statutes and judgments, just as the LORD my God commanded me, that you should act according to them in the land which you go to possess.
6 "Therefore be careful to observe them; for this is [a]your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the peoples who will hear all these statutes, and say, 'Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.'

ENCOUNTER*Note* Deut. 4:6

God's Wisdom Our Glory

God always speaks from eternity, with perfect wisdom and foreknowledge. He created all natural and spiritual laws in the universe. Trust Him and live by His commands, for His words are always right.

7 "For [a]what great nation is there that has [b]God[1] so near to it, as the LORD our God is to us, for whatever reason we may call upon Him?
8 "And what great nation is there that has such statutes and righteous judgments as are in all this law which I set before you this day?
9 "Only take heed to yourself, and diligently [a]keep yourself, lest you [b]forget the things your eyes have seen, and lest they depart from your heart all the days of your life. And [c]teach them to your children and your grandchildren,
10 "especially concerning [a]the day you stood before the LORD your God in Horeb, when the LORD said to me, 'Gather the people to Me, and I will let them hear My words, that they may learn to fear Me all the days they live on the earth, and that they may teach their children.'
11 "Then you came near and stood at the foot of the mountain, and the mountain burned with fire to the midst of heaven, with darkness, cloud, and thick darkness.
12 [a]"And the LORD spoke to you out of the midst of the fire. You heard the sound of the words, but saw no [1]form; [b]you only heard a voice.
13 [a]"So He declared to you His covenant which He commanded you to perform, [b]the Ten Commandments; and [c]He wrote them on two tablets of stone.
14 "And [a]the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, that you might [1]observe them in the land which you cross over to possess.

Beware of Idolatry

15 [a]"Take careful heed to yourselves, for you saw no [b]form when the LORD spoke to you at Horeb out of the midst of the fire,
16 "lest you [a]act corruptly and [b]make for yourselves a carved image in the [1]form of any figure: [c]the likeness of male or female,
17 "the likeness of any animal that is on the earth or the likeness of any winged bird that flies in the air,
18 "the likeness of anything that creeps on the ground or the likeness of any fish that is in the water beneath the earth.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Deut. 4:15–18

Knowing Him or Molding Him

An idol is anything worshipped other than the true God. Idolatry involves more than just hand-made images. It also includes fashioning an image of God in our mind to reflect our desires rather than God's self-revelation in Scripture.

19 "And take heed, lest you [a]lift your eyes to heaven, and when you see the sun, the moon, and the stars, [b]all the host of heaven, you feel driven to [c]worship them and serve them, which the LORD your God has [1]given to all the peoples under the whole heaven as a heritage.
20 "But the LORD has taken you and [a]brought you out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt, to be [b]His people, an inheritance, as you are this day.
21 "Furthermore [a]the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and swore that [b]I would not cross over the Jordan, and that I would not enter the good land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.
22 "But [a]I must die in this land, [b]I must not cross over the Jordan; but you shall cross over and [1]possess [c]that good land.
23 "Take heed to yourselves, lest you forget the covenant of the LORD your God which He made with you, [a]and make for yourselves a carved image in the form of anything which the LORD your God has forbidden you.
24 "For [a]the LORD your God is a consuming fire, [b]a jealous God.

WORD Study — JEALOUS GOD

Deut. 4:24 The Hebrew word qanna' does not have the same connotation as the English word translated "jealous." It is not the envy of someone, but the zest for something. It is an active passion for righteousness that arises from God's holiness. His zeal for the truth that He alone is God generates a fiery condemnation for those who worship idols and false gods.

the land, and act corruptly and make a carved image in the form of anything, and [a]do evil in the sight of the LORD your God to provoke Him to anger, 26 [a]"I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that you will soon utterly perish from the land which you cross over the Jordan to possess; you will not [1]prolong your days in it, but will be utterly destroyed.
27 "And the LORD [a]will scatter you among the peoples, and you will be left few in number among the nations where the LORD will drive you.
28 "And [a]there you will serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, [b]which neither see nor hear nor eat nor smell.
29 [a]"But from there you will seek the LORD your God, and you will find Him if you seek Him with all your heart and with all your soul.
30 "When you are in [1]distress, and all these things come upon you in the [a]latter days, when you [b]turn to the LORD your God and obey His voice 31 "(for the LORD your God is a merciful God), He will not forsake you nor [a]destroy you, nor forget the covenant of your fathers which He swore to them.
32 "For [a]ask now concerning the days that are past, which were before you, since the day that God created man on the earth, and ask [b]from one end of heaven to the other, whether any great thing like this has happened, or anything like it has been heard.
33 [a]"Did any people ever hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as you have heard, and live?
34 "Or did God ever try to go and take for Himself a nation from the midst of another nation, [a]by trials, [b]by signs, by wonders, by war, [c]by a mighty hand and [d]an outstretched arm, [e]and by great [1]terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?
35 "To you it was shown, that you might know that the LORD Himself is God; [a]there is none other besides Him.
36 [a]"Out of heaven He let you hear His voice, that He might instruct you; on earth He showed you His great fire, and you heard His words out of the midst of the fire.
37 "And because [a]He loved your fathers, therefore He chose their [1]descendants after them; and [b]He brought you out of Egypt with His Presence, with His mighty power, 38 [a]"driving out from before you nations greater and mightier than you, to bring you in, to give you their land as an inheritance, as it is this day.
39 "Therefore know this day, and consider it in your heart, that [a]the LORD Himself is God in heaven above and on the earth beneath; there is no other.
40 [a]"You shall therefore keep His statutes and His commandments which I command you today, that [1]it may go well with you and with your children after you, and that you may [2]prolong your days in the land which the LORD your God is giving you for all time."

Cities of Refuge East of the Jordan

41 Then Moses [a]set apart three cities on this side of the Jordan, toward the rising of the sun,
42 [a]that the manslayer might flee there, who kills his neighbor unintentionally, without having hated him in time past, and that by fleeing to one of these cities he might live:
43 [a]Bezer in the wilderness on the plateau for the Reubenites, Ramoth in Gilead for the Gadites, and Golan in Bashan for the Manassites.

44 Now this is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel.
45 These are the testimonies, the statutes, and the judgments which Moses spoke to the children of Israel after they came out of Egypt,
46 on this side of the Jordan, [a]in the valley opposite Beth Peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel [b]defeated[1] after they came out of Egypt.

The Ten Commandments Reviewed

5 And Moses called all Israel, and said to them: "Hear, O Israel, the statutes and judgments which I speak in your hearing today, that you may learn them and be careful to observe them.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Deut. 5:1

Hear, Learn, and Observe

People cannot be observant about what they do not know. Diligent study of the Bible is a prerequisite to walking in God's ways. There is no substitute for spending time contemplating the Scriptures. Like the Israelites, we are to hear, learn, and be careful to observe God's word.

2 [a]"The LORD our God made a covenant with us in Horeb.
3 "The LORD [a]did not make this covenant with our fathers, but with us, those who are here today, all of us who are alive.
4 [a]"The LORD talked with you face to face on the mountain from the midst of the fire.
5 [a]"I stood between the LORD and you at that time, to declare to you the word of the LORD; for [b]you were afraid because of the fire, and you did not go up the mountain. He said:

6 [a]'I am the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of [1]bondage.
7 [a]'You shall have no other gods [1]before Me.
8 [a]'You shall not make for yourself a carved image—any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth;
9 you shall not [a]bow[1] down to them nor serve them. For I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, [2]visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me,
10 [a]but showing mercy to thousands, to those who love Me and [1]keep My commandments.
11 [a]'You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain, for the LORD will not hold him [1]guiltless who takes His name in vain.
12 [a]'Observe the Sabbath day, to [1]keep it holy, as the LORD your God commanded you.
13 [a]Six days you shall labor and do all your work,
14 but the seventh day is the [a]Sabbath of the LORD your God. In it you shall do no work: you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your ox, nor your donkey, nor any of your cattle, nor your stranger who is within your gates, that your male servant and your female servant may rest as well as you.
15 [a]And remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God brought you out from there [b]by a mighty hand and by an outstretched arm; therefore the LORD your God commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.
16 [a]'Honor your father and your mother, as the LORD your God has commanded you, [b]that your days may be long, and that it may be well with [c]you in the land which the LORD your God is giving you.
17 [a]'You shall not murder.
18 [a]'You shall not commit adultery.
19 [a]'You shall not steal.
20 [a]'You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.
21 [a]'You shall not covet your neighbor's wife; and you shall not desire your neighbor's house, his field, his male servant, his female servant, his ox, his donkey, or anything that is your neighbor's.'
22 "These words the LORD spoke to all your assembly, in the mountain from the midst of the fire, the cloud, and the thick darkness, with a loud voice; and He added no more. And [a]He wrote them on two tablets of stone and gave them to me.

5:4 "Face to face" expresses personal contact and indicates intimacy.

5:10 God promised to make His judgment for sin so severe it would affect four generations (verse 9), yet to make His mercy so rich it would be felt by a thousand generations.

5:15 God continually urged His people not to forget where they had come from and the bondage from which they had been liberated.

The People Afraid of God's Presence

23 [a]"So it was, when you heard the voice from the midst of the darkness, while the mountain was burning with fire, that you came near to me, all the heads of your tribes and your elders.
24 "And you said: 'Surely the LORD our God has shown us His glory and His greatness, and [a]we have heard His voice from the midst of the fire. We have seen this day that God speaks with man; yet he [b]still lives.
25 'Now therefore, why should we die? For this great fire will consume us; [a]if we hear the voice of the LORD our God anymore, then we shall die.
26 [a]'For who is there of all flesh who has heard the voice of the living God speaking from the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived?
27 'You go near and hear all that the LORD our God may say, and [a]tell us all that the LORD our God says to you, and we will hear and do it.'
28 "Then the LORD heard the voice of your words when you spoke to me, and the LORD said to me: 'I have heard the voice of the words of this people which they have spoken to you. [a]They are right in all that they have spoken.
29 [a]'Oh, that they had such a heart in them that they would fear Me and [b]always keep all My commandments, [c]that it might be well with them and with their children forever!

A Change of Heart

It is easy to be impressed with God when He encounters our lives, but God wants more than our admiration; He wants to see a heart change. Many are enamored with God's power, but far fewer seek His heart.

30 'Go and say to them, "Return to your tents."
31 'But as for you, stand here by Me, [a]and I will speak to you all the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments which you shall teach them, that they may observe them in the land which I am giving them to possess.'

The Greatest Commandment

6 "Now this is [a]the commandment, and these are the statutes and judgments which the LORD your God has commanded to teach you, that you may observe them in the land which you are crossing over to possess,

ENCOUNTER*Note* Deut. 6:5

Covenant of Love

A love relationship is God's desire for your life. Obedience to His Law is simply a gauge of your love; it is not God's ultimate goal. He wants your heart, not obligatory submission.

6 "And [a]these words which I command you today shall be in your heart.
7 [a]"You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up.

5:24 The Israelites experienced the reality that almighty God does speak with people, and, although they are frail and sinful, they can enjoy a relationship with Him.

5:27 Hearing was not the same as listening. The Israelites promised to hear and understand what God commanded and then promptly obey. This resolve would soon be tested.

6:2 The fear of the Lord was a reverent obedience toward God. This submissive spirit was always a prerequisite for God's blessings.

6:4–9 This passage is known as the Shema, which is Hebrew for "hear." It became a Jewish confession of faith recited daily.

6:7 God charged people to walk so closely with Him that their everyday conversation naturally included talking with their children about God and His activity.

6:8 Many Israelites took this command literally. The principle is that God's word ought to be close to our minds (thoughts) and to our hands (actions).

your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes.
9 [a]"You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

Caution Against Disobedience

10 "So it shall be, when the LORD your God brings you into the land of which He [1]swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give you large and beautiful cities [a]which you did not build,
11 "houses full of all good things, which you did not fill, hewn-out wells which you did not dig, vineyards and olive trees which you did not plant—[a]when you have eaten and are full—
12 "then beware, lest you forget the [a]LORD who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.
13 "You shall [a]fear the LORD your God and serve Him, and [b]shall take oaths in His name.
14 "You shall not go after other gods, [a]the gods of the peoples who are all around you 15 "(for [a]the LORD your God is a jealous God [b]among you), lest the anger of the LORD your God be aroused against you and destroy you from the face of the earth.
16 [a]"You shall not [1]tempt the LORD your God [b]as you [2]tempted Him in Massah.
17 "You shall [a]diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God, His testimonies, and His statutes which He has commanded you.
18 "And you [a]shall do what is right and good in the sight of the LORD, that it may be well with you, and that you may go in and possess the good land of which the LORD swore to your fathers, 19 [a]"to cast out all your enemies from before you, as the LORD has spoken.
20 [a]"When your son asks you in time to come, saying, 'What is the meaning of the testimonies, the statutes, and the judgments which the LORD our God has commanded you?'
21 "then you shall say to your son: 'We were slaves of Pharaoh in Egypt, and the LORD brought us out of Egypt [a]with a mighty hand;
22 'and the LORD showed signs and wonders before our eyes, great and severe, against Egypt, Pharaoh, and all his household.
23 'Then He brought us out from there, that He might bring us in, to give us the land of which He [1]swore to our fathers.
24 'And the LORD commanded us to [1]observe all these [2]statutes, [a]to fear the LORD our God, [b]for our good always, that [c]He might preserve us alive, as it is [3]this day.

For Our Good

Whether we understand them or not, God's intentions for our lives are always good. In fact, "fear of God" is for our good, causing us to listen and obey, leading to righteousness and blessing.

25 'Then [a]it will be righteousness for us, if we are careful to observe all these commandments before the LORD our God, as He has commanded us.'

A Chosen People

7 "When the LORD your God brings you into the land which you go to [a]possess, and has cast out many [b]nations before you, [c]the Hittites and the Girgashites and the Amorites and the Canaanites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and mightier than you,
2 "and when the LORD your God delivers [a]them over to you, you shall conquer them and utterly destroy them. [b]You shall make no covenant with them nor show mercy to them.
3 [a]"Nor shall you make marriages with them. You shall not give your daughter to their son, nor take their daughter for your son.
4 "For they will turn your sons away from following Me, to serve other gods; [a]so the anger of the LORD will be aroused against you and destroy you suddenly.
5 "But thus you shall deal with them: you shall [a]destroy their altars, and break down their sacred pillars, and cut down their [1]wooden images, and burn their carved images with fire.
6 "For you are a [1]holy people to the LORD your God; [a]the LORD your God has chosen you to be a people for Himself, a special treasure above all the peoples on the face of the earth.

6:9 God's word should be prominent in a believer's home.

6:16 "Massah" referred to the time the Israelites complained against God because they were thirsty in the desert (Ex. 17:1–7).

6:20 God wanted parents to be prepared to explain their spiritual pilgrimage to their children.

7:1 The Hittites originally came from Asia Minor (Gen. 23:10). The Amorites were native to Canaan and dwelled in the mountains. The Perizzites inhabited the hill country. The Hivites lived south of the Lebanon Mountains, and the Jebusites lived around Jerusalem.

7:3 God continually warned His people not to marry unbelievers (1 Kin. 11:2; 2 Cor. 6:15).

7:5 Altars, sacred pillars, wooden images, and carved images were cult objects of Canaanite worship.

7:6 The term "holy people" indicates the reason for God's uncompromising demands. The Israelites were holy and set apart, a special nation that was uniquely different from other people.

7 "The LORD did not set His [a]love on you nor choose you because you were more in number than any other people, for you were [b]the least of all peoples;
8 "but [a]because the LORD loves you, and because He would keep [b]the oath which He swore to your fathers, [c]the LORD has brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you from the house of [1]bondage, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.
9 "Therefore know that the LORD your God, He is God, [a]the faithful God [b]who keeps covenant and mercy for a thousand generations with those who love Him and keep His commandments;

Covenant Remembered

Even in our rebellion, God seeks to restore the covenant relationship. If He gave us what we deserved, we would all surely perish. Instead, He offers mercy and draws us back to Himself. Those who respond are blessed, but all who refuse are condemned.

10 "and He repays those who hate Him to their face, to destroy them. He will not [1]be [a]slack with him who hates Him; He will repay him to his face.
11 "Therefore you shall keep the commandment, the statutes, and the judgments which I command you today, to observe them.

Blessings of Obedience

12 "Then it shall come to pass, because you listen to these judgments, and keep and do them, that the LORD your God will keep with you the covenant and the mercy which He swore to your fathers.
13 "And He will [a]love you and bless you and [1]multiply you; [b]He will also bless the fruit of your womb and the fruit of your land, your grain and your new wine and your oil, the increase of your cattle and the offspring of your flock, in the land of which He [2]swore to your fathers to give you.
14 "You shall be blessed above all peoples; there shall not be a male or female [a]barren among you or among your livestock.
15 "And the LORD will take away from you all sickness, and will afflict you with none of the [a]terrible diseases of Egypt which you have known, but will lay them on all those who hate you.
16 "Also you shall [1]destroy all the peoples whom the LORD your God delivers over to you; your eye shall have no pity on them; nor shall you serve their gods, for that will [a]be a snare to you.
17 "If you should say in your heart, 'These nations are greater than I; how can I dispossess them?'—
18 "you shall not be afraid of them, but you shall [a]remember well what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt:
19 [a]"the great trials which your eyes saw, the signs and the wonders, the mighty hand and the outstretched arm, by which the LORD your God brought you out. So shall the LORD your God do to all the peoples of whom you are afraid.
20 [a]"Moreover the LORD your God will send the hornet among them until those who are left, who hide themselves from you, are destroyed.
21 "You shall not be terrified of them; for the LORD your God, the great and awesome God, is among you.
22 "And the LORD your God will drive out those nations before you [a]little by little; you will be unable to [1]destroy them at once, lest the beasts of the field become too numerous for you.
23 "But the LORD your God will deliver them over to you, and will inflict defeat upon them until they are destroyed.
24 "And [a]He will deliver their kings into your hand, and you will destroy their name from under heaven; [b]no one shall be able to stand [1]against you until you have destroyed them.
25 "You shall burn the carved images of their gods with fire; you shall not [a]covet[1] the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it for yourselves, lest you be snared by it; for it is an abomination to the LORD your God.
26 "Nor shall you bring an abomination into your house, lest you be doomed to destruction like it. You shall utterly detest it and utterly abhor it, [a]for it is an [1]accursed thing.

Abhor Evil

God's children must flee anything that draws them away from the love relationship. The closer one is to God, the more detestable evil will appear. Beware of a heart that is comfortable with sin.

7:22 "Little by little" indicates the Israelite occupation of Canaan was in two stages. First, Joshua's army subdued the major strongholds and enemy armies. Second, the individual tribes would gradually occupy the specific lands they had inherited.

Remember the LORD Your God

8 "Every commandment which I command you today [a]you must [1]be careful to observe, that you may live and [b]multiply,[2] and go in and possess the land of which the LORD [3]swore to your fathers.
2 "And you shall remember that the LORD your God [a]led you all the way these forty years in the wilderness, to humble you and [b]test you, [c]to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep His commandments or not.

ENCOUNTER Note Deut. 8:2

Dependence

God wants His people to remain dependant upon Him, so we will acknowledge our need and cry out to Him. Self-sufficiency is a trap, leading to pride and arrogance. We must always remember that our good fortune is nothing more than His blessing.

3 "So He humbled you, [a]allowed you to hunger, and [b]fed you with manna which you did not know nor did your fathers know, that He might make you know that man shall [c]not live by bread alone; but man lives by every word that proceeds from the mouth of the LORD.
4 [a]"Your garments did not wear out on you, nor did your foot swell these forty years.
5 [a]"You should [1]know in your heart that as a man chastens his son, so the LORD your God chastens you.
6 "Therefore you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God, [a]to walk in His ways and to fear Him.
7 "For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land, [a]a land of brooks of water, of fountains and springs, that flow out of valleys and hills;
8 "a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive oil and honey;
9 "a land in which you will eat bread without scarcity, in which you will lack nothing; a land whose stones are iron and out of whose hills you can dig copper.

18 "And you shall remember the LORD your God, [a]for it is He who gives you power to get wealth, [b]that He may [1]establish His covenant which He swore to your fathers, as it is this day.

Israel's Rebellions Reviewed

9 "Hear, O Israel: You are to cross over the Jordan today, and go in to dispossess nations greater and mightier than yourself, cities great and fortified up to heaven,

8:2 God's testing of His people was thorough. Before giving them another major assignment, He subjected them to a grueling forty-year test.

8:3 The temptation facing the Israelites was to focus on the land flowing with milk and honey rather on God, who gave them the land.

8:7 The only water source known in Egypt was the Nile. The various sources in the Promised Land were something new and unknown.

8:9 The references to iron and copper are remarkably exact. Ancient mines and smelters have been discovered in the Arabah south of the Dead Sea.

8:17 God warned His people they were in danger of taking credit for their success. Doing so invited God to humble them.

8:19 God warns of a four-stage apostasy: forget the Lord, follow other gods, serve them, worship them.

dants of the Anakim, whom you know, and of whom you heard it said, 'Who can stand before the descendants of Anak?'
3 "Therefore understand today that the LORD your God is He who [a]goes over before you as a [b]consuming fire. [c]He will destroy them and bring them down before you; [d]so you shall drive them out and destroy them quickly, as the LORD has said to you.
4 [a]"Do not think in your heart, after the LORD your God has cast them out before you, saying, 'Because of my righteousness the LORD has brought me in to possess this land'; but it is [b]because of the wickedness of these nations that the LORD is driving them out from before you.

ENCOUNTER Note Deut. 9:4

Humility Required

We are never good enough to achieve, only blessed to receive. Our righteousness will always fall short, but God's grace is sufficient to cover our inadequacy.

5 [a]"It is not because of your righteousness or the uprightness of your heart that you go in to possess their land, but because of the wickedness of these nations that the LORD your God drives them out from before you, and that He may [1]fulfill the [b]word which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.
6 "Therefore understand that the LORD your God is not giving you this good land to possess because of your righteousness, for you are a [a]stiff-necked[1] people.
7 "Remember! Do not forget how you [a]provoked the LORD your God to wrath in the wilderness. [b]From the day that you departed from the land of Egypt until you came to this place, you have been rebellious against the LORD.
8 "Also [a]in Horeb you provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry enough with you to have destroyed you.
9 [a]"When I went up into the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I stayed on the mountain forty days and [b]forty nights. I neither ate bread nor drank water.
10 [a]"Then the LORD delivered to me two tablets of stone written with the finger of God, and on them were all the words which the LORD had spoken to you on the mountain from the midst of the fire [b]in[1] the day of the assembly.
11 "And it came to pass, at the end of forty days and forty nights, that the LORD gave me the two tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant.
12 "Then the LORD said to me, [a]'Arise, go down quickly from here, for your people whom you brought out of Egypt have acted corruptly; they have [b]quickly turned aside from the way which I commanded them; they have made themselves a molded image.'
13 "Furthermore [a]the LORD spoke to me, saying, 'I have seen this people, and indeed [b]they are a [1]stiff-necked people.
14 [a]'Let Me alone, that I may destroy them and [b]blot out their name from under heaven; [c]and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they.'
15 [a]"So I turned and came down from the mountain, and [b]the mountain burned with fire; and the two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands.
16 "And [a]I looked, and behold, you had sinned against the LORD your God—had made for yourselves a molded calf! You had turned aside quickly from the way which the LORD had commanded you.
17 "Then I took the two tablets and threw them out of my two hands and [a]broke them before your eyes.
18 "And I [a]fell[1] down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and forty nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water, because of all your sin which you committed in doing wickedly in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.
19 [a]"For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure with which the LORD was angry with you, to destroy you. [b]But the LORD listened to me at that time also.
20 "And the LORD was very angry with Aaron and would have destroyed him; so I prayed for Aaron also at the same time.
21 "Then I took your sin, the calf which you had made, and burned it with fire and crushed it and ground it very small,

9:6 "Stiff-necked people" is a reference to Israel's constant grumbling, stubbornness, and disobedience. Moses did not want them to forget their unworthiness in light of God's grace. They were to remember God's faithfulness and to maintain humility.

9:7 Sin "provokes" righteous God. It offends His holiness. The children of Israel continually flaunted their sin before God.

9:17 Before Moses returned with the covenant written on stone, it had already been violated. He confirmed this breach by breaking the covenant document.

22 "Also at [a]Taberah and [b]Massah and [c]Kibroth Hattaavah you [1]provoked the LORD to wrath.
23 "Likewise, [a]when the LORD sent you from Kadesh Barnea, saying, 'Go up and possess the land which I have given you,' then you rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God, and [b]you did not believe Him nor obey His voice.

A Leader's Prayer

God especially notices the prayer of a leader. Spiritual leaders must walk closely with God. God grants them the privilege of intercession that holds corporate consequences. Their personal encounter can impact a nation!

27 'Remember Your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; do not look on the stubbornness of this people, or on their wickedness or their sin,
28 'lest the land from which You brought us should say, "Because the LORD was not able to bring them to the land which He promised them, and because He hated them, He has brought them out to kill them in the wilderness."
29 'Yet they are Your people and Your inheritance, whom You brought out by Your mighty power and by Your outstretched arm.'

The Second Pair of Tablets

Second Chances

God may give second chances to those He loves. If we repent, He forgives, restores, and blesses us.

3 "So I made an ark of acacia wood, hewed two tablets of stone like the first, and went up the mountain, having the two tablets in my hand.
4 "And He wrote on the tablets according to the first writing, the Ten [1]Commandments, [a]which the LORD had spoken to you in the mountain from the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly; and the LORD gave them to me.
5 "Then I turned and [a]came down from the mountain, and [b]put the tablets in the ark which I had made; [c]and there they are, just as the LORD commanded me."
6 (Now the children of Israel journeyed from the wells of Bene Jaakan to Moserah, where Aaron [a]died, and where he was buried; and Eleazar his son ministered as priest in his [1]stead.
7 [a]From there they journeyed to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of [1]rivers of water.
8 At that time [a]the LORD [1]separated the tribe of Levi [b]to bear the ark of the covenant of the LORD, [c]to stand before the LORD to minister to Him and [d]to bless in His name, to this day.
9 [a]Therefore Levi has no portion nor inheritance with his brethren; the LORD is his inheritance, just as the LORD your God promised him.)
10 "As at the first time, [a]I stayed in the mountain forty days and forty nights; [b]the LORD also heard me at that time, and the LORD chose not to destroy you.
11 [a]"Then the LORD said to me, 'Arise, begin your journey before the people, that they may go in and possess the land which I swore to their fathers to give them.'

The Essence of the Law

12 "And now, Israel, [a]what does the LORD your God require of you, but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways and to [b]love Him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, 13 "and to keep the commandments of

9:22 In each case mentioned, the people had been more concerned about what they would eat or drink than about their obedience to God (Ex. 17:7; Num. 11:1–4).

10:12, 13 Verbs about fearing, walking, loving, serving, and keeping recur many times in Deuteronomy. They represent interrelated attitudes for maintaining the covenant.

14 "Indeed heaven and the highest heavens belong to the [a]LORD your God, also the earth with all that is in it.
15 "The LORD delighted only in your fathers, to love them; and He chose their [1]descendants after them, you above all peoples, as it is this day.
16 "Therefore circumcise the foreskin of your [a]heart, and be [b]stiff-necked[1] no longer.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Deut. 10:16

A Heart Condition

Every encounter with God calls for a choice: rebellion or obedience. It is always the heart that makes that choice, so keep your heart tender toward the Lord.

17 "For the LORD your God is [a]God of gods and [b]Lord of lords, the great God, [c]mighty and awesome, who [d]shows no partiality nor takes a bribe.
18 [a]"He administers justice for the fatherless and the widow, and loves the stranger, giving him food and clothing.
19 "Therefore love the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt.
20 [a]"You shall fear the LORD your God; you shall serve Him, and to Him you shall hold fast, and take oaths in His name.
21 "He is your praise, and He is your God, who has done for you these great and awesome things which your eyes have seen.
22 "Your fathers went down to Egypt with seventy persons, and now the LORD your God has made you as the stars of heaven in multitude.

Love and Obedience Rewarded

11 "Therefore you shall love the LORD your God, and keep His charge, His statutes, His judgments, and His commandments always.
2 "Know today that I do not speak with your children, who have not known and who have not seen the [1]chastening of the LORD your God, His greatness and His mighty hand and His outstretched arm—

10:16 Circumcision was an external act intended to reflect a disposition of the heart. God's people often wrongly assume that orthodox behavior amounts to pleasing God.

10:22 The reference to the "stars of heaven" was a direct fulfillment of God's promise to Abraham centuries earlier (Gen. 15:5).

11:6 Dathan and Abiram had challenged Aaron's leadership and were killed as a result (Num. 16:12–14, 31–33).

11:8, 9 The conjunction "that" or "in order that" indicates that the fulfillment of this divine promise was not automatic. Fulfillment was based on obedience, not genealogy.

18 "Therefore [a]you shall [1]lay up these words of mine in your heart and in your [b]soul, and [c]bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Deut. 11:18

Forget Me Not

God graciously provides ways to help us remember His goodness. He desires that we recount His mighty deeds and teach His life-giving commands. It is fatal to ignore our spiritual heritage and drift away. Past encounters with God provide an incentive for obedience.

19 [a]"You shall teach them to your children, speaking of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up.
20 [a]"And you shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates, 21 "that [a]your days and the days of your children may be multiplied in the land of which the LORD swore to your fathers to give them, like [b]the days of the heavens above the earth.
22 "For if [a]you carefully keep all these commandments which I command you to do—to love the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways, and [b]to hold fast to Him—
23 "then the LORD will [a]drive out all these nations from before you, and you will [b]dispossess greater and mightier nations than yourselves.
24 [a]"Every place on which the sole of your foot treads shall be yours: [b]from the wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the River Euphrates, even to the [1]Western Sea, shall be your territory.
25 "No man shall be able to [a]stand [1]against you; the LORD your God will put the [b]dread of you and the fear of you upon all the land where you tread, just as He has said to you.
26 [a]"Behold, I set before you today a blessing and a curse:
27 [a]"the blessing, if you obey the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you today;
28 "and the [a]curse, if you do not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside from the way which I command you today, to go after other gods which you have not known.
29 "Now it shall be, when the LORD your God has brought you into the land which you go to possess, that you shall put the [a]blessing on Mount Gerizim and the [b]curse on Mount Ebal.
30 "Are they not on the other side of the Jordan, toward the setting sun, in the land of the Canaanites who dwell in the plain opposite Gilgal, [a]beside the terebinth trees of Moreh?
31 "For you will cross over the Jordan and go in to possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you, and you will possess it and dwell in it.
32 "And you shall be careful to observe all the statutes and judgments which I set before you today.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Deut. 11:26

No Excuse

God is just in all His ways, and He clearly defines the consequences of our actions. Every person has a choice between a blessing or a curse. The fact that many choose the curse reveals the blinding effect of sin; only God's word can bring light and lead us to choose the blessing.

A Prescribed Place of Worship

12 "These [a]are the statutes and judgments which you shall be careful to observe in the land which the LORD God of your fathers is giving you to possess, [b]all[1] the days that you live on the earth.
2 [a]"You shall utterly destroy all the places where the nations which you shall dispossess served their gods, [b]on the high mountains and on the hills and under every green tree.
3 "And [a]you shall destroy their altars, break their sacred pillars, and burn their [1]wooden images with fire; you shall cut down the carved images of their gods and destroy their names from that place.
4 "You shall not [a]worship the LORD your God with such things.

11:26 Blessing and cursing were the two options presented to the Israelites. They would experience one or the other.

11:29 Mount Ebal and Mount Gerizim stood next to each other. The Israelites performed this ceremony under Joshua's leadership (Josh. 8:30–35).

12:2 Canaanite religions built shrines and altars on the summits of hills and mountains, believing the gods resided on mountains. These ancient sites would repeatedly tempt the Israelites.

12:3 Wooden images were used to worship the goddess Asherah.

12:4 God forbade His people from using pagan symbols, or symbols to worship Him.

13 "Take heed to yourself that you do not offer your burnt offerings in every place that you see;

ENCOUNTER*Note* Deut. 12:13

Take Heed to Yourself

We are responsible for our own walk with God. We have no one to blame but ourselves if we do not obey what God commands us.

14 "but in the place which the LORD chooses, in one of your tribes, there you shall offer your burnt offerings, and there you shall do all that I command you.
15 "However, [a]you may slaughter and eat meat within all your gates, whatever your heart desires, according to the blessing of the LORD your God which He has given you; [b]the unclean and the clean may eat of it, [c]of the gazelle and the deer alike.

WORD*Study* UNCLEAN

Deut. 12:15 This term means foul, polluted, and defiled. It was something that was unacceptable in God's presence.

16 [a]"Only you shall not eat the blood; you shall pour it on the earth like water.
17 "You may not eat within your gates the tithe of your grain or your new wine or your oil, of the firstborn of your herd or your flock, of any of your offerings which you vow, of your freewill offerings, or of the [1]heave offering of your hand.
18 "But you must eat them before the LORD your God in the place which the LORD your God chooses, you and your son and your daughter, your male servant and your female servant, and the Levite who is within your gates; and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God in [1]all to which you put your hands.
19 [1]"Take heed to yourself that you do not forsake the Levite as long as you live in your land.
20 "When the LORD your God [a]enlarges your border as He has promised you, and you say, 'Let me eat meat,' because you long to eat meat, you may eat as much meat as your heart desires.
21 "If the place where the LORD your God chooses to put His name is too far from [a]you, then you may slaughter from your herd and from your flock which the LORD has given you, just as I have commanded you, and you may eat within your gates as much as your heart desires.
22 "Just as the gazelle and the deer are eaten, so you may eat them; the unclean and the clean alike may eat them.
23 "Only be sure that you do not eat the blood, [a]for the blood is the life; you may not eat the life with the meat.
24 "You shall not eat it; you shall pour it on the earth like water.
25 "You shall not eat it, [a]that it may go well with you and your children after you, [b]when you do what is right in the sight of the LORD.
26 "Only the [a]holy things which you have, and your vowed offerings, you shall take and go to the place which the LORD chooses.

12:11 The dwelling place for His name would first be the tabernacle during the time of wandering in the wilderness, then at specific locations God chose for special occasions of worship and sacrifice, and finally the magnificent temple built by King Solomon.

27 "And [a]you shall offer your burnt offerings, the meat and the blood, on the altar of the LORD your God; and the blood of your sacrifices shall be poured out on the altar of the LORD your God, and you shall eat the meat.

Beware of False Gods

29 "When [a]the LORD your God cuts off from before you the nations which you go to dispossess, and you displace them and dwell in their land, 30 "take heed to yourself that you are not ensnared to follow them, after they are destroyed from before you, and that you do not inquire after their gods, saying, 'How did these nations serve their gods? I also will do likewise.'

Punishment of Apostates

13 "If there arises among you a prophet or a [a]dreamer of dreams, [b]and he gives you a sign or a wonder,

3 "you shall not listen to the words of that prophet or that dreamer of dreams, for the LORD your God [a]is testing you to know whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.
4 "You shall [a]walk[1] after the LORD your God and fear Him, and keep His commandments and obey His voice; you shall serve Him and [b]hold fast to Him.
5 "But [a]that prophet or that dreamer of dreams shall be put to death, because he has spoken in order to turn you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of bondage, to entice you from the way in which the LORD your God commanded you to walk. [b]So you shall [1]put away the evil from your midst.
6 [a]"If your brother, the son of your mother, your son or your daughter, [b]the wife [1]of your bosom, or your friend [c]who is as your own soul, secretly entices you, saying, 'Let us go and serve other gods,' which you have not known, neither you nor your fathers,

8 "you shall [a]not [1]consent to him or listen to him, nor shall your eye pity him, nor shall you spare him or conceal him;
9 "but you shall surely kill him; your hand shall be first against him to put him to [a]death, and afterward the hand of all the people.
10 "And you shall stone him with stones until he dies, because he sought to entice you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

False Prophets

At times we listen to people because we like their message rather than because their testimony bears the unmistakable ring of truth. Many claim to bring a word from God, but those who "walk after the Lord"—and know His word—can tell a true prophet from a phony one.

12:30 God warned that curiosity of sin leads to sinful behavior.

12:31 The worst depravity of the Canaanite religions was offering their children on an altar to one of their gods (2 Kin. 21:1–9; 2 Chr. 28:1–4).

12:32 Adding to God's law was a serious offense (compare Rev. 22:18, 19).

13:2 Generally the fulfillment of a prophecy validated a true prophet (Deut. 18:20–22). However, even if he performed miracles, his word was not to be followed if he enticed people to forsake God's law.

13:5 God's solution for dealing with evil was never to tolerate it but to remove it.

13:9 God commanded His people not to allow anyone to lead the people into sin and apostasy.

14 "then you shall inquire, search out, and ask diligently. And if it is indeed true and certain that such an [1]abomination was committed among you, 15 "you shall surely strike the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying it, all that is in it and its livestock—with the edge of the sword.
16 "And you shall gather all its plunder into the middle of the street, and [1]completely [a]burn with fire the city and all its plunder, for the LORD your God. It shall be [b]a [2]heap forever; it shall not be built again.
17 [a]"So none of the accursed things shall remain in your hand, that the LORD may [b]turn from the fierceness of His anger and show you mercy, have compassion on you and [1]multiply you, just as He swore to your fathers, 18 "because you have listened to the voice of the LORD your God, [a]to keep all His commandments which I command you today, to do what is right in the eyes of the LORD your God.

Improper Mourning

14 "You are [a]the children of the LORD your God; [b]you shall not cut yourselves nor [1]shave the front of your head for the dead.
2 [a]"For you are a holy people to the LORD your God, and the LORD has chosen you to be a people for Himself, a special treasure above all the peoples who are on the face of the earth.

Clean and Unclean Meat

3 [a]"You shall not eat any [1]detestable thing.
4 [a]"These are the animals which you may eat: the ox, the sheep, the goat,
5 "the deer, the gazelle, the roe deer, the wild goat, the [1]mountain goat, the antelope, and the mountain sheep.
6 "And you may eat every animal with cloven hooves, having the hoof split into two parts, and that chews the cud, among the animals.
7 "Nevertheless, of those that chew the cud or have cloven hooves, you shall not eat, such as these: the camel, the hare, and the rock hyrax; for they chew the cud but do not have cloven hooves; they are unclean for you.
8 "Also the swine is unclean for you, because it has cloven hooves, yet does not chew the cud; you shall not eat their flesh [a]or touch their dead carcasses.
9 [a]"These you may eat of all that are in the waters: you may eat all that have fins and scales.
10 "And whatever does not have fins and scales you shall not eat; it is unclean for you.
11 "All clean birds you may eat.
12 [a]"But these you shall not eat: the eagle, the vulture, the buzzard, 13 "the red kite, the falcon, and the kite after their kinds;
14 "every raven after its kind;
15 "the ostrich, the short-eared owl, the sea gull, and the hawk after their kinds;
16 "the little owl, the screech owl, the white owl,
17 "the jackdaw, the carrion vulture, the fisher owl,
18 "the stork, the heron after its kind, and the hoopoe and the bat.
19 "Also [a]every [1]creeping thing that flies is unclean for you; [b]they shall not be eaten.
20 "You may eat all clean birds.
21 [a]"You shall not eat anything that dies of itself; you may give it to the alien who is within your gates, that he may eat it, or you may sell it to a foreigner; [b]for you are a holy people to the LORD your God. [c]You shall not boil a young goat in its mother's milk.

Tithing Principles

22 [a]"You shall truly tithe all the increase of your grain that the field produces year by year.

WORD Study — TITHE

Deut. 14:22 Meaning "a tenth," the tithe was to be set aside as an act of obedience and reverence for God. It was used to provide for priests, foreigners, widows, and fatherless children.

23 [a]"And you shall eat before the LORD your God, in the place where He chooses to make His name abide, the tithe of your grain and your new wine and your oil, of [b]the firstborn of your herds and your flocks, that you may learn to fear the LORD your God always.

13:14 The actions "inquire, search out, and ask diligently" call for reflect a serious effort to root out those who would bring harm to God's people.

14:2 God viewed His people as His "special treasure." The fact that God chose them and cherished them provided great comfort as well as accountability to God.

14:3 God identified foods considered unclean (Lev. 11). There may have been sanitary and dietary concerns involved. Also, God may have sought to clearly distinguish His people and their practices from the nations around them.

14:12 These unclean birds were generally scavengers and associated with corpses.

14:21 Canaanite religion practiced boiling young goats alive in their mother's milk. The methods of animal sacrifice prescribed by God were more humane.

24 "But if the journey is too long for you, so that you are not able to carry the tithe, or [a]if the place where the LORD your God chooses to put His name is too far from you, when the LORD your God has blessed you, 25 "then you shall exchange it for money, take the money in your hand, and go to the place which the LORD your God chooses.
26 "And you shall spend that money for whatever your heart desires: for oxen or sheep, for wine or similar drink, for whatever your heart desires; you shall eat there before the LORD your God, and you shall [a]rejoice, you and your household.

God is pleased to reward obedience. When God blesses you, do you make the connection between His goodness to you and your faithfulness to Him?

Debts Canceled Every Seven Years

15 "At the end of [a]every seven years you shall grant a [1]release of debts.
2 "And this is the form of the release: Every creditor who has lent anything to his neighbor shall [1]release it; he shall not [2]require it of his neighbor or his brother, because it is called the LORD's release.
3 "Of a foreigner you may require it; but you shall give up your claim to what is owed by your brother,
4 "except when there may be no poor among you; for the LORD will greatly [a]bless you in the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess as an inheritance—

6 "For the LORD your God will bless you just as He promised you; [a]you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow; you shall reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over you.

Generosity to the Poor

7 "If there is among you a poor man of your brethren, within any of the [1]gates in your land which the LORD your God is giving you, [a]you shall not harden your heart nor shut your hand from your poor brother,
8 "but [a]you shall [1]open your hand wide to him and willingly lend him sufficient for his need, whatever he needs.
9 "Beware lest there be a wicked thought in your heart, saying, 'The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand,' and your [a]eye be evil against your poor brother and you give him nothing, and [b]he cry out to the LORD against you, and [c]it become sin among you.
10 "You shall surely give to him, and [a]your heart should not be grieved when you give to him, because [b]for this thing the LORD your God will bless you in all your works and in all to which you put your hand.
11 "For [a]the poor will never cease from the land; therefore I command you, saying, 'You shall [1]open your hand wide to your brother, to your poor and your needy, in your land.'

The Law Concerning Bondservants

12 [a]"If your brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, is [b]sold to you and serves you six years, then in the seventh year you shall let him go free from you.
13 "And when you [1]send him away free from you, you shall not let him go away empty-handed;
14 "you shall supply him liberally from your flock, from your threshing floor, and from your winepress. From what the LORD your God has [a]blessed you with, you shall give to him.
15 [a]"You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you; therefore I command you this thing today.
16 "And [a]if it happens that he says to you, 'I will not go away from you,' because he loves you and your house, since he prospers with you, 18 "It shall not seem hard to you when you send him away free from you; for he has been worth [a]a double hired servant in serving you six years. Then the LORD your God will bless you in all that you do.

The Law Concerning Firstborn Animals

19 [a]"All the firstborn males that come from your herd and your flock you shall [1]sanctify to the LORD your God; you shall do no work with the firstborn of your herd, nor shear the firstborn of your flock.
20 [a]"You and your household shall eat it before the LORD your God year by year in the place which the LORD chooses.
21 [a]"But if there is a defect in it, if it is lame or blind or has any serious defect, you shall not sacrifice it to the LORD your God.

The Passover Reviewed

2 "Therefore you shall sacrifice the Passover to the LORD your God, from the flock and [a]the herd, in the [b]place where the LORD chooses to put His name.
3 "You shall eat no leavened bread with it; [a]seven days you shall eat unleavened bread with it, that is, the bread of affliction (for you came out of the land of Egypt in haste), that you may [b]remember the day in which you came out of the land of Egypt all the days of your life.
4 [a]"And no leaven shall be seen among you in all your territory for seven days, nor shall any of the meat which you sacrifice the first day at twilight remain overnight until [b]morning.
5 "You may not sacrifice the Passover within any of your gates which the LORD your God gives you;
6 "but at the place where the LORD your God chooses to make His name abide, there you shall sacrifice the Passover [a]at twilight, at the going down of the sun, at the time you came out of Egypt.
7 "And you shall roast and eat it [a]in the place which the LORD your God chooses, and in the morning you shall turn and go to your tents.

WORD Study — FEASTS

Deut. 16:1 Feasts were special annual remembrance celebrations of the mighty acts of God for His people. They were occasions for teaching, worship, and thanksgiving as well as fellowship and celebration.

15:21 God refused to accept a sacrifice that was blemished or had a defect. It required great faith for a farmer to sacrifice his best animals to God while also seeking to develop a quality breed of livestock.

15:23 Through the generations God taught His people to respect the blood of humans and animals. It would prepare believers to appreciate the shed blood of Jesus centuries later (1 Cor. 11:25).

16:1 Passover was celebrated on the fourteenth day of Abib, or Nissan, which was in March/April (Ex. 12:1–28).

The Feast of Tabernacles Reviewed

13 [a]"You shall observe the Feast of Tabernacles seven days, when you have gathered from your threshing floor and from your winepress.
14 "And [a]you shall rejoice in your feast, you and your son and your daughter, your male servant and your female servant and the Levite, the stranger and the fatherless and the widow, who are within your [1]gates.
15 [a]"Seven days you shall keep a sacred feast to the LORD your God in the place which the LORD chooses, because the LORD your God will bless you in all your produce and in all the work of your hands, so that you surely rejoice.
16 [a]"Three times a year all your males shall appear before the LORD your God in the place which He chooses: at the Feast of Unleavened Bread, at the Feast of Weeks, and at the Feast of Tabernacles; and [b]they shall not appear before the LORD empty-handed.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Deut. 16:16

Not Empty-Handed

A grateful life expresses itself by giving. Presenting an offering to God is one way to express your love and thankfulness.

17 "Every man shall give as he is able, [a]according to the blessing of the LORD your God which He has given you.

Justice Must Be Administered

18 "You shall appoint [a]judges and officers in all your [1]gates, which the LORD your God gives you, according to your tribes, and they shall judge the people with just judgment.
19 [a]"You shall not pervert justice; [b]you shall not [1]show partiality, [c]nor take a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and [2]twists the words of the righteous.
20 "You shall follow what is altogether just, that you may [a]live and inherit the land which the LORD your God is giving you.
21 [a]"You shall not plant for yourself any tree, as a [1]wooden image, near the altar which you build for yourself to the LORD your God.
22 [a]"You shall not set up a sacred pillar, which the LORD your God hates.

17 "You [a]shall not sacrifice to the LORD your God a bull or sheep which has any [1]blemish or defect, for that is an [2]abomination to the LORD your God.
2 [a]"If there is found among you, within any of your [1]gates which the LORD your God gives you, a man or a woman who has been wicked in the sight of the LORD your God, [b]in transgressing His covenant,
3 "who has gone and served other gods and worshiped them, either [a]the sun or moon or any of the host of heaven, [b]which I have not commanded,
4 [a]"and it is told you, and you hear of it, then you shall inquire diligently. And if it is indeed true and certain that such an [1]abomination has been committed in Israel,
5 "then you shall bring out to your gates that man or woman who has committed that wicked thing, and [a]shall stone [b]to death that man or woman with stones.
6 "Whoever is deserving of death shall be put to death on the testimony of two or three [a]witnesses; he shall not be put to death on the testimony of one witness.
7 "The hands of the witnesses shall be the first against him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people. So you shall put away the evil from among [a]you.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Deut. 17:7

Put Away Evil

Only God fully knows what unchecked evil does to people. Any sin can begin a chain reaction that compromises the obedience, safety, and ultimately the future of His people.

8 [a]"If a matter arises which is too hard for you to judge, between degrees of guilt for bloodshed, between one judgment or another, or between one punishment or another, matters of controversy within your gates, then you shall arise

16:13 The Feast of Tabernacles celebrated the harvest (Ex. 23:16; 34:22).

16:16 There were three annual feasts people were expected to attend: Unleavened Bread, Weeks and Tabernacles.

16:18 Elders traditionally sat at the city gates to dispense justice and settle disputes. This was the most populous section of the city and provided numerous witnesses.

17:1 Certain pagan religions portrayed their gods as hungry, even desperate for the food sacrificed on altars. God was never portrayed as desperate for sacrifices. He did not accept anything that did not meet His perfect standards.

17:4 People were not to be condemned on hearsay, but only after careful investigation proved their guilt.

17:7 Serving as a witness against someone had serious ramifications. Witnesses "cast the first stone," so they had to be certain their testimony was accurate.

11 "According to the sentence of the law in which they instruct you, according to the judgment which they tell you, you shall do; you shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left from the sentence which they pronounce upon you.

ENCOUNTER Note Deut. 17:11

Exact Obedience

God sets the standards for righteousness, and He has the only solution for sin. God's directives are nonnegotiable. To do anything that is not obedient to Him is foolishness.

12 "Now [a]the man who acts presumptuously and will not heed the priest who stands to minister there before the LORD your God, or the judge, that man shall die. So you shall put away the evil from Israel.
13 [a]"And all the people shall hear and fear, and no longer act presumptuously.

Principles Governing Kings

14 "When you come to the land which the LORD your God is giving you, and possess it and dwell in it, and say, [a]'I will set a king over me like all the nations that are around me,' 15 "you shall surely set a king over you [a]whom the LORD your God chooses; one [b]from among your brethren you shall set as king over you; you may not set a foreigner over you, who is not your brother.
16 "But he shall not multiply [a]horses for himself, nor cause the people [b]to return to Egypt to multiply horses, for [c]the LORD has said to you, [d]'You shall not return that way again.'
17 "Neither shall he multiply wives for himself, lest his heart turn away; nor shall he greatly multiply silver and [a]gold for himself.
18 "Also it shall be, when he sits on the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write for himself a copy of this law in a book, from the one [a]before the priests, the Levites.
19 "And [a]it shall be with him, and he shall read it all the days of his life, that he may learn to fear the LORD his God and be careful to observe all the words of this law and these statutes, 20 "that his heart may not [1]be lifted above his brethren, that he [a]may not turn aside from the commandment to the right hand or to the left, and that he may [2]prolong his days in his kingdom, he and his children in the midst of Israel.

The Portion of the Priests and Levites

18 "The priests, the Levites—all the tribe of Levi—shall have [1]no part nor [a]inheritance with Israel; they shall eat the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and His portion.
2 "Therefore they shall have no inheritance among their brethren; the LORD is their inheritance, as He said to them.
3 "And this shall be the priest's [a]due[1] from the people, from those who offer a sacrifice, whether it is bull or sheep: they shall give to the priest the shoulder, the cheeks, and the stomach.
4 [a]"The firstfruits of your grain and your new wine and your oil, and the first of the fleece of your sheep, you shall give him.
5 "For [a]the LORD your God has chosen him out of all your tribes [b]to stand to minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons forever.
6 "So if a Levite comes from any of your [1]gates, from where he [a]dwells among all Israel, and comes with all the desire of his mind [b]to the place which the LORD chooses,
7 "then he may serve in the name of the LORD his God [a]as all his brethren the Levites do, who stand there before the LORD.
8 "They shall have equal [a]portions to eat, besides what comes from the sale of his inheritance.

17:14 Until this point God's people had been governed by a theocracy. They had been led either directly by God, or through one of His prophets such as Moses. God predicted they would one day establish a monarchy as the other nations around them had done. This occurred near the end of Samuel's ministry (1 Sam. 8:5).

17:16 God prohibited Israelite kings from relying on horses, representing modern weaponry, or on Egypt, which represented worldly military power. King Solomon would not heed this instruction, marrying Pharaoh's daughter and maintaining large numbers of horses and chariots (1 Kin. 9:24; 10:26).

18:6 The phrase "with all the desire of his mind to the place which the LORD chooses" indicates that Levites did not automatically serve the Lord merely because of their tribal identity. They also had to have a heart for service.

Avoid Wicked Customs

9 "When you come into the land which the LORD your God is giving you, [a]you shall not learn to follow the [1]abominations of those nations.
10 "There shall not be found among you anyone who makes his son or his daughter [a]pass[1] through the fire, [b]or one who practices witchcraft, or a soothsayer, or one who interprets omens, or a sorcerer,
11 [a]"or one who conjures spells, or a medium, or a spiritist, or [b]one who calls up the dead.
12 "For all who do these things are [1]an abomination to the LORD, and [a]because of these abominations the LORD your God drives them out from before you.
13 "You shall be [1]blameless before the LORD your God.
14 "For these nations which you will dispossess listened to soothsayers and diviners; but as for you, the LORD your God has not [1]appointed such for you.

A New Prophet Like Moses

18 [a]'I will raise up for them a Prophet like you from among their brethren, and [b]will put My words in His mouth, [c]and He shall speak to them all that I command Him.
19 [a]'And it shall be that whoever will not hear My words, which He speaks in My name, I will require it of him.
20 'But [a]the prophet who presumes to speak a word in My name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or [b]who speaks in the name of other gods, that prophet shall die.'
21 "And if you say in your heart, 'How shall we know the word which the LORD has not spoken?'—
22 [a]"when a prophet speaks in the name of the LORD, [b]if the thing does not happen or come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD has not spoken; the prophet has spoken it [c]presumptuously; you shall not be afraid of him.

A True Word

Many speak falsely under the guise of "a word from God." But time confirms the truth, proving what is from God and discrediting false testimony.

Three Cities of Refuge

19 "When the LORD your God [a]has cut off the nations whose land the LORD your God is giving you, and you dispossess them and dwell in their cities and in their houses,
2 [a]"you shall separate three cities for yourself in the midst of your land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess.

WORD Study — CITIES OF REFUGE

Deut. 19:2 Six cities, three on each side of the Jordan River, were to be designated "safe places" for anyone who inadvertently killed someone. These cities were held by the Levites who mediated any restitution and facilitated a trial to determine the guilt or innocence of the offending party.

3 "You shall prepare roads for yourself, and divide into three parts the territory of your land which the LORD your God is giving you to inherit, that any manslayer may flee there.
4 "And [a]this is the case of the manslayer who flees there, that he may live: Whoever kills his neighbor [1]unintentionally, not having hated him in time past—
5 "as when a man goes to the woods with his neighbor to cut timber, and his hand swings a stroke with the ax to cut down the tree, and the head slips from the handle and strikes his neighbor so that he dies—he shall flee to one of these cities and live;

CHAPTER 19
1 [a]Deut. 12:29
2 [a]Num. 35: 10–15
4 [a]Num. 35: 9–34 [1]ignorantly, lit. without knowledge

18:11 These practices were an abomination to God for many reasons. They relied upon falsehood or demons. They also used alternate means of knowing the future rather than relying upon a word from God.

18:13 Blameless does not mean sinless, but it signifies a life of integrity and devotion to God. A blameless life was also expected in the New Testament (Eph. 1:4; 5:27).

18:22 The most obvious test of a true prophet was whether his prophecy came to pass. If it did not, he was a false prophet, regardless of what he claimed. A further test was that the prophet spoke to people in accordance with God's word (13:1–3).

19:1 God's intent was that the Israelites would occupy Canaan and take possession of Canaanite homes, farms, and towns.

6 [a]"lest the avenger of blood, while his anger is hot, pursue the manslayer and overtake him, because the way is long, and kill him, though he was not deserving of death, since he had not hated the victim in time past.
7 "Therefore I command you, saying, 'You shall separate three cities for yourself.'
8 "Now if the LORD your God [a]enlarges your territory, as He swore to [b]your fathers, and gives you the land which He promised to give to your fathers,
9 "and if you keep all these commandments and do them, which I command you today, to love the LORD your God and to walk always in His ways, [a]then you shall add three more cities for yourself besides these three,
10 [a]"lest innocent blood be shed in the midst of your land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, and thus guilt of bloodshed be upon you.
11 "But [a]if anyone hates his neighbor, lies in wait for him, rises against him and strikes him mortally, so that he dies, and he flees to one of these cities,
12 "then the elders of his city shall send and bring him from there, and deliver him over to the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die.
13 [a]"Your eye shall not pity him, [b]but you shall [1]put away the guilt of innocent blood from Israel, that it may go well with you.

ENCOUNTER Note — Deut. 19:13

No Pity

Our sympathy should always remain with God rather than with those who disregard His word.

Property Boundaries

14 [a]"You shall not remove your neighbor's landmark, which the men of old have set, in your inheritance which you will inherit in the land that the LORD your God is giving you to possess.

The Law Concerning Witnesses

15 [a]"One witness shall not rise against a man concerning any iniquity or any sin that he commits; by the mouth of two or three witnesses the matter shall be established.
16 "If a false witness [a]rises against any man to testify against him of wrongdoing, 17 "then both men in the controversy shall stand before the LORD, [a]before the priests and the judges who serve in those days.
18 "And the judges shall make careful inquiry, and indeed, if the witness is a false witness, who has testified falsely against his brother, 19 [a]"then you shall do to him as he thought to have done to his brother; so [b]you shall put away the evil from among you.
20 [a]"And those who remain shall hear and fear, and hereafter they shall not again commit such evil among you.
21 [a]"Your eye shall not pity: [b]life shall be for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

Principles Governing Warfare

20 "When you go out to battle against your enemies, and see [a]horses and chariots and people more numerous than you, do not be [b]afraid of them; for the LORD your God is [c]with you, who brought you up from the land of Egypt.
2 "So it shall be, when you are on the verge of battle, that the priest shall approach and speak to the people.
3 "And he shall say to them, 'Hear, O Israel: Today you are on the verge of battle with your enemies. Do not let your heart faint, do not be afraid, and do not tremble or be terrified because of them;
4 'for the LORD your God is He who goes with you, [a]to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.'

ENCOUNTER Note — Deut. 20:4

4 [a]Josh. 23:10

19:6 The "avenger of blood," sometimes translated "kinsman-redeemer," was a blood relative. An obligation of such a person was to exact justice upon anyone who murdered a family member. This practice was not to promote blood feuds but to ensure that justice was served in times before the establishment of a formal justice system.

19:12 The cities of refuge could not protect someone guilty of premeditated murder. The elders of the city would hand over the murderer to the "avenger of blood" to be executed.

19:15 A person could not be condemned by the testimony of one person. Guilt was determined only after two or three witnesses had testified.

19:20 God's law promoted deterrence. When people witnessed the severity of punishment for guilty offenders, they would be dissuaded from committing the crime themselves.

20:1 God's presence gave the Israelites a far greater advantage than any military device or stratagem possessed by their enemies (Ps. 20:7).

20:5 Not "dedicating" a house implied the new home owner had not yet had time to enjoy living in his house.

has built a new house and has not [a]dedicated it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man dedicate it.
6 'Also what man is there who has planted a vineyard and has not eaten of it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man eat of it.
7 [a]'And what man is there who is betrothed to a woman and has not married her? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man marry her.'
8 "The officers shall speak further to the people, and say, [a]'What man is there who is fearful and fainthearted? Let him go and return to his house, [1]lest the heart of his brethren faint like his heart.'
9 "And so it shall be, when the officers have finished speaking to the people, that they shall make captains of the armies to lead the people.
10 "When you go near a city to fight against it, [a]then proclaim an offer of peace to it.
11 "And it shall be that if they accept your offer of peace, and open to you, then all the people who are found in it shall be placed under tribute to you, and serve you.
12 "Now if the city will not make peace with you, but makes war against you, then you shall besiege it.
13 "And when the LORD your God delivers it into your hands, [a]you shall strike every male in it with the edge of the sword.
14 "But the women, the little ones, [a]the livestock, and all that is in the city, all its spoil, you shall plunder for yourself; and [b]you shall eat the enemies' plunder which the LORD your God gives you.
15 "Thus you shall do to all the cities which are very far from you, which are not of the cities of these nations.
16 "But [a]of the cities of these peoples which the LORD your God gives you as an inheritance, you shall let nothing that breathes remain alive,
17 "but you shall utterly destroy them: the Hittite and the Amorite and the Canaanite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite, just as the LORD your God has commanded you,
18 "lest [a]they teach you to do according to all their [1]abominations which they have done for their gods, and you [b]sin against the LORD your God.
19 "When you besiege a city for a long time, while making war against it to take it, you shall not destroy its trees by wielding an ax against them; if you can eat of them, do not cut them down to use in the siege, for the tree of the field is man's food.
20 "Only the trees which you know are not trees for food you may destroy and cut down, to build siegeworks against the city that makes war with you, until it is subdued.

The Law Concerning Unsolved Murder

21 "If anyone is found slain, lying in the field in the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess, and it is not known who killed him,
2 "then your elders and your judges shall go out and measure the distance from the slain man to the surrounding cities.
3 "And it shall be that the elders of the city nearest to the slain man will take a heifer which has not been worked and which has not pulled with a [a]yoke.
4 "The elders of that city shall bring the heifer down to a valley with flowing water, which is neither plowed nor sown, and they shall break the heifer's neck there in the valley.
5 "Then the priests, the sons of Levi, shall come near, for [a]the LORD your God has chosen them to minister to Him and to bless in the name of the LORD; [b]by their word every controversy and every [1]assault shall be settled.
6 "And all the elders of that city nearest to the slain man [a]shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley.
7 "Then they shall answer and say, 'Our hands have not shed this blood, nor have our eyes seen it.
8 'Provide atonement, O LORD, for Your people Israel, whom You have redeemed, [a]and do not lay innocent blood to the charge of Your people Israel.' And atonement shall be provided on their behalf for the blood.
9 "So [a]you shall put away the guilt of innocent blood from among you when you do what is right in the sight of the LORD.

20:6 It could take five years for a newly planted vineyard to begin producing fruit.

20:7 Betrothal was more binding than a modern engagement to be married. A bethrothed couple had not yet had sexual relations but otherwise were considered man and wife. Newly married men were also exempt from military service (24:5).

20:8 Fear is contagious. It would be better to have fewer soldiers, if they were highly dedicated, than a host of men seized by cowardice.

20:16 The Israelites were commanded to utterly destroy the Canaaniites. There was to be no mercy and no neutrality.

21:8 The shedding of innocent blood defiled a land and could bring it under a curse. People had to find atonement for the blood that had been spilled.

Female Captives

10 "When you go out to war against your enemies, and the LORD your God delivers them into your hand, and you take them captive, 11 "and you see among the captives a beautiful woman, and desire her and would take her for your [a]wife,
12 "then you shall bring her home to your house, and she shall [a]shave her head and trim her nails.
13 "She shall put off the clothes of her captivity, remain in your house, and [a]mourn her father and her mother a full month; after that you may go in to her and be her husband, and she shall be your wife.
14 "And it shall be, if you have no delight in her, then you shall set her free, but you certainly shall not sell her for money; you shall not treat her brutally, because you have [a]humbled her.

Firstborn Inheritance Rights

15 "If a man has two wives, one loved [a]and the other unloved, and they have borne him children, both the loved and the unloved, and if the firstborn son is of her who is unloved,
16 "then it shall be, [a]on the day he bequeaths his possessions to his sons, that he must not bestow firstborn status on the son of the loved wife in preference to the son of the unloved, the true firstborn.
17 "But he shall acknowledge the son of the unloved wife as the firstborn [a]by giving him a double portion of all that he has, for he [b]is the beginning of his strength; [c]the right of the firstborn is his.

The Rebellious Son

18 "If a man has a stubborn and rebellious son who will not obey the voice of his father or the voice of his mother, and who, when they have chastened him, will not heed them,
19 "then his father and his mother shall take hold of him and bring him out to the elders of his city, to the gate of his city.
20 "And they shall say to the elders of his city, 'This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious; he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton and a drunkard.'
21 "Then all the men of his city shall stone him to death with stones; [a]so you shall put away the evil from among you, [b]and all Israel shall hear and fear.

Miscellaneous Laws

22 "If a man has committed a sin [a]deserving of death, and he is put to death, and you hang him on a tree,
23 [a]"his body shall not remain overnight on the tree, but you shall surely bury him that day, so that [b]you do not defile the land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance; for [c]he who is hanged is accursed of God.
22 "You [a]shall not see your brother's ox or his sheep going astray, and [1]hide yourself from them; you shall certainly bring them back to your brother.
2 "And if your brother is not near you, or if you do not know him, then you shall bring it to your own house, and it shall remain with you until your brother seeks it; then you shall restore it to him.
3 "You shall do the same with his donkey, and so shall you do with his garment; with any lost thing of your brother's, which he has lost and you have found, you shall do likewise; you [1]must not hide yourself.

3 [1]may not avoid responsibility

ENCOUNTER*Note* Deut. 21:18

Rebellious Children

A rebellious spirit shows itself on many fronts. Those who shun parental authority reveal a stubbornness that will also characterize their walk with God.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Deut. 22:3

Don't Hide Yourself

God can always be found in the midst of hurting and needy people. If we have a heart like His, we will be found there too.

21:12 For the female captive to shave her head was a symbol of mourning as well as a sign of cleansing as she joined the people of God.

21:14 God's law provided protection and dignity for helpless captives.

21:17 The firstborn son was to receive twice the inheritance of the other children. This signified the father's blessing. It was possible, however, to forfeit the double portion (Gen. 48:8–22; 49:22–26; 49:3, 4).

21:19 "Take hold" signifies the parents taking charge of their wayward child. Israelite parents were not to tolerate rebellion or disrespect, for such behavior could destroy the fabric of their society.

21:23 To hang someone on a tree was to execute them by impaling them on a pole for public display. However, the Israelites were not to allow a corpse to be exposed overnight, as it would defile the land.

22:1 The Israelites were a communal people. They were to care for one another and to seek each other's best interests.

4 [a]"You shall not see your brother's donkey or his ox fall down along the road, and hide yourself from them; you shall surely help him lift them up again.
5 "A woman shall not wear anything that pertains to a man, nor shall a man put on a woman's garment, for all who do so are [1]an abomination to the LORD your God.
6 "If a bird's nest happens to be before you along the way, in any tree or on the ground, with young ones or eggs, with the mother sitting on the young or on the eggs, [a]you shall not take the mother with the young;
7 "you shall surely let the mother go, and take the young for yourself, [a]that it may be well with you and that you may prolong your days.
8 "When you build a new house, then you shall make a parapet for your roof, that you may not bring guilt of bloodshed on your household if anyone falls from it.
9 [a]"You shall not sow your vineyard with different kinds of seed, lest the yield of the seed which you have sown and the fruit of your vineyard be defiled.
10 [a]"You shall not plow with an ox and a donkey together.
11 [a]"You shall not wear a garment of different sorts, such as wool and linen mixed together.
12 "You shall make [a]tassels on the four corners of the clothing with which you cover yourself.

Laws of Sexual Morality

13 "If any man takes a wife, and goes in to her, and [a]detests her,
14 "and charges her with shameful conduct, and brings a bad name on her, and says, 'I took this woman, and when I came to her I found she was not a virgin,' 15 "then the father and mother of the young woman shall take and bring out the evidence of the young woman's virginity to the elders of the city at the gate.
16 "And the young woman's father shall say to the elders, 'I gave my daughter to this man as wife, and he detests her.
17 'Now he has charged her with shameful conduct, saying, "I found your daughter was not a virgin," and yet these are the evidences of my daughter's virginity.' And they shall spread the cloth before the elders of the city.
18 "Then the elders of that city shall take that man and punish him;
19 "and they shall fine him one hundred shekels of silver and give them to the father of the young woman, because he has brought a bad name on a virgin of Israel. And she shall be his wife; he cannot divorce her all his days.
20 "But if the thing is true, and evidences of virginity are not found for the young woman,
21 "then they shall bring out the young woman to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her to death with [a]stones, because she has [b]done a disgraceful thing in Israel, to play the harlot in her father's house. [c]So you shall [1]put away the evil from among you.
22 [a]"If a man is found lying with a woman married to a husband, then both of them shall die—the man that lay with the woman, and the woman; so you shall put away the evil from Israel.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Deut. 22:22

Adultery

God holds marriage in highest regard. He surrounded it with the strongest safeguards to protect it so God's people would maintain holy relationships.

23 "If a young woman who is a virgin is [a]betrothed to a husband, and a man finds her in the city and lies with her,
24 "then you shall bring them both out to the gate of that city, and you shall stone them to death with stones, the young woman because she did not cry out in the city, and the man because he [a]humbled his neighbor's wife; [b]so you shall put away the evil from among you.
25 "But if a man finds a betrothed young woman in the countryside, and the man forces her and lies with her, then only the man who lay with her shall die.
26 "But you shall do nothing to the young woman; there is in the young woman no sin deserving of death, for just as when a man rises against his neighbor and kills him, even so is this matter.
27 "For he found her in the countryside, and the betrothed young woman cried out, but there was no one to save her.
28 [a]"If a man finds a young woman who is a virgin, who is not betrothed, and he 22:8 A parapet was a wall on the edge of a roof that prevented people from falling off.

Those Excluded from the Congregation

23 "He who is emasculated by crushing or mutilation shall [a]not enter the assembly of the LORD.
2 "One of illegitimate birth shall not enter the assembly of the LORD; even to the tenth generation none of his descendants shall enter the assembly of the LORD.
3 [a]"An Ammonite or Moabite shall not enter the assembly of the LORD; even to the tenth generation none of his descendants shall enter the assembly of the LORD forever,
4 [a]"because they did not meet you with bread and water on the road when you came out of Egypt, and [b]because they hired against you Balaam the son of Beor from Pethor of [1]Mesopotamia, to curse you.
5 "Nevertheless the LORD your God would not listen to Balaam, but the LORD your God turned the curse into a blessing for you, because the LORD your God [a]loves you.
6 [a]"You shall not seek their peace nor their prosperity all your days forever.
7 "You shall not abhor an Edomite, [a]for he is your brother. You shall not abhor an Egyptian, because [b]you were an alien in his land.
8 "The children of the third generation born to them may enter the assembly of the LORD.

Cleanliness of the Campsite

9 "When the army goes out against your enemies, then keep yourself from every wicked thing.
10 [a]"If there is any man among you who becomes unclean by some occurrence in the night, then he shall go outside the camp; he shall not come inside the camp.
11 "But it shall be, when evening comes, that [a]he shall wash with water; and when the sun sets, he may come into the camp.
12 "Also you shall have a place outside the camp, where you may go out;
13 "and you shall have an implement among your equipment, and when you sit down outside, you shall dig with it and turn and cover your refuse.
14 "For the LORD your God [a]walks in the midst of your camp, to deliver you and give your enemies over to you; therefore your camp shall be holy, that He may see no unclean thing among you, and turn away from you.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Deut. 23:14

God Walks in Our Midst

God dwells among us to carry out His purposes and to face every challenge with us. We should always be mindful of His holy presence.

Miscellaneous Laws

15 [a]"You shall not give back to his master the slave who has escaped from his master to you.
16 "He may dwell with you in your midst, in the place which he chooses within one of your gates, where it [1]seems best to him; [a]you shall not oppress him.
17 "There shall be no ritual [1]harlot [a]of the daughters of Israel, or a [b]perverted[2] one of the sons of Israel.
18 "You shall not bring the wages of a harlot or the price of a dog to the house of the LORD your God for any vowed offering, for both of these are [1]an abomination to the LORD your God.
19 [a]"You shall not charge interest to your brother—interest on money or food or anything that is lent out at interest.
20 [a]"To a foreigner you may charge interest, but to your brother you shall not charge interest, [b]that the LORD your God may bless you in all to which you set your hand in the land which you are entering to possess.
21 [a]"When you make a vow to the LORD your God, you shall not delay to pay it; for the LORD your God will surely require it of you, and it would be sin to you.

23:2 "Illegitimate birth" may refer to a pagan temple prostitute giving birth. The "tenth generation" means "forever."

23:3 Moabites and Ammonites were restricted from the assembly of the Lord. This was because of their inherent hostility to God's people. However, God intended for His people to be a blessing to all the nations (Gen. 12:3).

23:7 The Israelites were not to permanently exclude the Edomites or the Egyptians. Although the Egyptians eventually enslaved the Hebrews, they had initially shown them hospitality. The Edomites descended from Jacob's brother Esau and were therefore their relatives.

23:17 The use of female and male prostitutes in acts of idol worship was common among pagan communities. This detestable practice was prohibited among God's people. It was idolatry, plus God placed a high value on each individual's purity.

23:21 People were not obligated to make an oath to God. However, if people made a vow to express their love for God, it was a sin not to keep it (Eccl. 5:4–6).

22 "But if you abstain from vowing, it shall not be sin to you.
23 [a]"That which has gone from your lips you shall keep and perform, for you voluntarily vowed to the LORD your God what you have promised with your mouth.
24 "When you come into your neighbor's vineyard, you may eat your fill of grapes at your pleasure, but you shall not put any in your container.
25 "When you come into your neighbor's standing grain, [a]you may pluck the heads with your hand, but you shall not use a sickle on your neighbor's standing grain.

Law Concerning Divorce

24 "When a [a]man takes a wife and marries her, and it happens that she finds no favor in his eyes because he has found some [1]uncleanness in her, and he writes her a [b]certificate of divorce, puts it in her hand, and sends her out of his house,
2 "when she has departed from his house, and goes and becomes another man's wife,
3 "if the latter husband detests her and writes her a certificate of divorce, puts it in her hand, and sends her out of his house, or if the latter husband dies who took her as his wife,
4 [a]"then her former husband who divorced her must not take her back to be his wife after she has been defiled; for that is [1]an abomination before the LORD, and you shall not bring sin on the land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Deut. 24:4

Bringing Sin on the Land

We may sin in isolation but we cannot limit the effects to ourselves. Sin is malignant. It spreads relentlessly through families, churches, communities, and nations.

Miscellaneous Laws

5 [a]"When a man has taken a new wife, he shall not go out to war or be charged with any business; he shall be free at home one year, and [b]bring happiness to his wife whom he has taken.
6 "No man shall take the lower or the upper millstone in pledge, for he takes [1]one's living in pledge.
7 "If a man is [a]found [1]kidnapping any of his brethren of the children of Israel, and mistreats him or sells him, then that kidnapper shall die; [b]and you shall put away the evil from among you.
8 "Take heed in [a]an outbreak of leprosy, that you carefully observe and do according to all that the priests, the Levites, shall teach you; just as I commanded them, so you shall be careful to do.
9 [a]"Remember what the LORD your God did [b]to Miriam on the way when you came out of Egypt!
10 "When you [a]lend your brother anything, you shall not go into his house to get his pledge.
11 "You shall stand outside, and the man to whom you lend shall bring the pledge out to you.
12 "And if the man is poor, you shall not [1]keep his pledge overnight.
13 [a]"You shall in any case return the pledge to him again when the sun goes down, that he may sleep in his own garment and [b]bless you; and [c]it shall be righteousness to you before the LORD your God.
14 "You shall not [a]oppress a hired servant who is poor and needy, whether one of your brethren or one of the aliens who is in your land within your gates.
15 "Each day [a]you shall give him his wages, and not let the sun go down on it, for he is poor and has set his heart on it; [b]lest he cry out against you to the LORD, and it be sin to you.
16 [a]"Fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor shall children be put to death for their fathers; a person shall be put to death for his own sin.
17 [a]"You shall not pervert justice due the stranger or the fatherless, [b]nor take a widow's garment as a pledge.

24:1 A certificate of divorce was a legal document that gave the woman legal rights and protection (Lev. 21:7, 14; 22:13; Num. 30:9).

24:5 The principle of this law was that newlywed couples should take time to establish their marriage and family before undertaking major new challenges.

24:6 Taking the upper or lower millstone from an indebted family prevented them from producing a living for themselves. God protected His people from hopeless bondage.

24:15 Day laborers depended on their wages being paid each day so they could purchase their food and necessities. Withholding wages would oppress the laborer and tempt him to steal.

24:17 God repeatedly urged His people to care for the vulnerable people in their society, especially orphans, widows, and foreigners (Ex. 22:22; 23:9; Deut. 24:21; 26:12).

21 "When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, you shall not glean it afterward; it shall be for the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow.
22 "And you shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt; therefore I command you to do this thing.

25 "If there is a [a]dispute between men, and they come to [1]court, that the judges may judge them, and they [b]justify the righteous and condemn the wicked,
2 "then it shall be, if the wicked man [a]deserves to be beaten, that the judge will cause him to lie down [b]and be beaten in his presence, according to his guilt, with a certain number of blows.
3 [a]"Forty blows he may give him and no more, lest he should exceed this and beat him with many blows above these, and your brother [b]be humiliated in your sight.
4 [a]"You shall not muzzle an ox while it [1]treads out the grain.

Marriage Duty of the Surviving Brother

5 [a]"If brothers dwell together, and one of them dies and has no son, the widow of the dead man shall not be married to a stranger outside the family; her husband's brother shall go in to her, take her as his wife, and perform the duty of a husband's brother to her.
6 "And it shall be that the firstborn son which she bears [a]will succeed to the name of his dead brother, that [b]his name may not be blotted out of Israel.
7 "But if the man does not want to take his brother's wife, then let his brother's wife go up to the [a]gate to the elders, and say, 'My husband's brother refuses to raise up a name to his brother in Israel; he will not perform the duty of my husband's brother.'
8 "Then the elders of his city shall call him and speak to him. But if he stands firm and says, [a]'I do not want to take her,'
9 "then his brother's wife shall come to him in the presence of the elders, [a]remove his sandal from his foot, spit in his face, and answer and say, 'So shall it be done to the man who will not [b]build up his brother's house.'
10 "And his name shall be called in Israel, 'The house of him who had his sandal removed.'

Miscellaneous Laws

11 "If two men fight together, and the wife of one draws near to rescue her husband from the hand of the one attacking him, and puts out her hand and seizes him by the genitals, 12 "then you shall cut off her hand; [a]your eye shall not pity her.
13 [a]"You shall not have in your bag differing weights, a heavy and a light.
14 "You shall not have in your house differing measures, a large and a small.
15 "You shall have a perfect and just weight, a perfect and just measure, [a]that your days may be lengthened in the land which the LORD your God is giving you.
16 "For [a]all who do such things, all who behave unrighteously, are [1]an abomination to the LORD your God.

Destroy the Amalekites

17 [a]"Remember what Amalek did to you on the way as you were coming out of Egypt, 18 "how he met you on the way and attacked your rear ranks, all the stragglers at your rear, when you were tired and weary; and he [a]did not fear God.
19 "Therefore it shall be, [a]when the LORD your God has given you rest from your enemies all around, in the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess as an inheritance, that you will [b]blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven. You shall not forget.

25:3 In New Testament times the maximum number of blows allowed was thirty-nine (2 Cor. 11:24).

25:5 The practice of a brother marrying his deceased brother's widow became known as levirate marriage. This ensured the deceased man would have heirs to carry on his name and his widow would be cared for without falling into poverty.

25:9 Removing someone's sandal was a public disgrace and may have symbolized the loss of rights and honor in the community. Spitting on someone's face was one of the most humiliating acts in ancient society.

25:10 For an example of this see the narrative concerning Ruth and Boaz (Ruth 4:1–12).

God is giving you as an inheritance, and you possess it and dwell in it,
2 [a]"that you shall take some of the first of all the produce of the ground, which you shall bring from your land that the LORD your God is giving you, and put it in a basket and [b]go to the place where the LORD your God chooses to make His name abide.
3 "And you shall go to the one who is priest in those days, and say to him, 'I declare today to the LORD [1]your God that I have come to the country which the LORD swore to our fathers to give us.'
4 "Then the priest shall take the basket out of your hand and set it down before the altar of the LORD your God.
5 "And you shall answer and say before the LORD your God: 'My father was [a]a [1]Syrian, [b]about to perish, and [c]he went down to Egypt and [2]dwelt there, [d]few in number; and there he became a nation, [e]great, mighty, and populous.

7 [a]'Then we cried out to the LORD God of our fathers, and the LORD heard our voice and looked on our affliction and our labor and our oppression.
8 'So [a]the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and with an outstretched arm, [b]with great terror and with signs and wonders.

13 "then you shall say before the LORD your God: 'I have removed the [1]holy tithe from my house, and also have given them to the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, according to all Your commandments which You have commanded me; I have not transgressed Your commandments, [a]nor have I forgotten them.

A Special People of God

16 "This day the LORD your God commands you to observe these statutes and judgments; therefore you shall be careful to observe them with all your heart and with all your soul.
17 "Today you have [a]proclaimed the LORD to be your God, and that you will walk in His ways and keep His statutes, His commandments, and His judgments, and that you will [b]obey His voice.
18 "Also today [a]the LORD has proclaimed you to be His special people, just as He promised you, that you should keep all His commandments,
19 "and that He will set you [a]high above all nations which He has made, in praise, in name, and in honor, and that you may be [b]a [1]holy people to the LORD your God, just as He has spoken."

The Law Inscribed on Stones

27 Now Moses, with the elders of Israel, commanded the people, saying: "Keep all the commandments which I command you today.
2 "And it shall be, on the day [a]when you cross over the Jordan to the land which the LORD your God is giving you, that [b]you shall set up for yourselves large stones, and whitewash them with lime.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Deut. 26:11

Every Good Thing

God delights in a grateful heart. As we rejoice over every good thing He has done for us, we develop a joyful attitude that focuses on the many positives in our lives.

26:5 "Syrian" could also be translated "Aramean." This refers to Jacob whose parents were from Aram (Gen. 24:1–11).

26:16 "With all your heart and with all your soul" indicates that God wanted far more than external conformity His laws. He sought enthusiastic obedience as a response of love for Him.

27:2 Whitewashing the stones would make the writing stand out more distinctly.

of this law, when you have crossed over, that you may enter the land which the LORD your God is giving you, [a]'a land flowing with milk and honey,' just as the LORD God of your fathers promised you.
4 "Therefore it shall be, when you have crossed over the Jordan, that [a]on Mount Ebal you shall set up these stones, which I command you today, and you shall whitewash them with lime.
5 "And there you shall build an altar to the LORD your God, an altar of stones; [a]you shall not use an iron tool on them.
6 "You shall build with [1]whole stones the altar of the LORD your God, and offer burnt offerings on it to the LORD your God.
7 "You shall offer peace offerings, and shall eat there, and [a]rejoice before the LORD your God.
8 "And you shall [a]write very plainly on the stones all the words of this law."
9 Then Moses and the priests, the Levites, spoke to all Israel, saying, "Take heed and listen, O Israel: [a]This day you have become the people of the LORD your God.
10 "Therefore you shall obey the voice of the LORD your God, and observe His commandments and His statutes which I command you today."

Curses Pronounced from Mount Ebal

11 And Moses commanded the people on the same day, saying,
12 "These shall stand [a]on Mount Gerizim to bless the people, when you have crossed over the Jordan: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin;
13 "and [a]these shall stand on Mount Ebal to curse: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.
14 "And [a]the Levites shall speak with a loud voice and say to all the men of Israel:

Cursed

Sin brings inevitable consequences. These are thorough, unpleasant, and unavoidable.

"And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'
17 [a]'Cursed is the one who moves his neighbor's landmark.'
"And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'
18 [a]'Cursed is the one who makes the blind to wander off the road.'
"And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

"And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'
21 [a]'Cursed is the one who lies with any kind of animal.'
"And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'
22 [a]'Cursed is the one who lies with his sister, the daughter of his father or the daughter of his mother.'
"And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'
23 [a]'Cursed is the one who lies with his mother-in-law.'
"And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'
24 [a]'Cursed is the one who attacks his neighbor secretly.'
"And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'
25 [a]'Cursed is the one who takes a bribe to slay an innocent person.'
"And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'
26 [a]'Cursed is the one who does not confirm all the words of this law by observing them.'
"And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

Blessings on Obedience

28 "Now it shall come to pass, [a]if you diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God, to observe carefully all His commandments which I command you today, that the LORD your God [b]will set you high above all nations of the earth.
2 "And all these blessings shall come upon you and [a]overtake you, because 27:4 Mount Ebal is opposite Mount Gerizim in the region of Shechem.

27:5 The Israelites were not to use iron tools to fashion the altar. The altar was not to bring glory to those who fashioned it but to God (Ex. 20:25).

27:8 God's Word was to be written in such a way it could not be overlooked or misunderstood.

27:12 The tribes on Mount Gerizim were descendants of Jacob's wives, Leah and Rachel. The tribes might also have been divided based on their location in Canaan. Mount Ebal is usually barren of vegetation while Mount Gerizim is covered with vegetation. The contrast between the barren mountain pronouncing the curses and the lush mountain heralding God's blessing would have been unmistakable.

27:15 For the people to exclaim "amen" meant they were accepting the terms of the covenant and the ensuing curses if they failed to meet their obligations.

28:1 "Diligently" signifies that God is not looking for reluctant, half-hearted, or ritual compliance, but obedience that stems from a vibrant love relationship with Him.

No Fortress

There is no security or escape from God's discipline. God's hand of judgment will find transgressors.

28:27 The same affliction God brought to such enemies as Egypt He would now bring upon His own people (Ex. 9:8–12).

28:48 A "yoke of iron" symbolized total bondage.

53 [a]"You shall eat the [1]fruit of your own body, the flesh of your sons and your daughters whom the LORD your God has given you, in the siege and desperate straits in which your enemy shall distress you.

60 "Moreover He will bring back on you all [a]the diseases of Egypt, of which you were afraid, and they shall cling to you.

Eyes to See

The Holy Spirit enables us to see spiritual realities. Unless God opens our eyes, we remain spiritually blind.

5 [a]"And I have led you forty years in the wilderness. [b]Your clothes have not worn out on you, and your sandals have not worn out on your feet.

28:53 The result of the enemy siege on Israel would be so severe that mothers would resort to eating their children. Such extremes were unimaginable.

28:56 God foretold His people's rebellion and His divine judgment, anticipating the exile of kings such as Jehoiachin and Zedekiah (2 Kin. 24:8–12; Jer. 39:1–9).

28:61 The "Book of the Law" refers to Deuteronomy.

28:67 Fear would characterize the people undergoing God's judgment.

29:5 One of the miraculous events of the wilderness wandering was the divine preservation of the people's clothes and sandals (Deut. 8:4).

6 [a]"You have not eaten bread, nor have you drunk wine or similar drink, that you may know that I am the LORD your God.

15 "but with him who stands here with us today before the LORD our God, [a]as well as with him who is not here with us today 16 (for you know that we dwelt in the land of Egypt and that we came through the nations which you passed by, 17 and you saw their [1]abominations and their idols which were among them—wood and stone and silver and gold);
18 "so that there may not be among you man or woman or family or tribe, [a]whose heart turns away today from the LORD our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations, [b]and that there may not be among you a root bearing [c]bitterness or wormwood;
19 "and so it may not happen, when he hears the words of this curse, that he blesses himself in his heart, saying, 'I shall have peace, even though I [1]follow the [a]dictates of my heart'—[b]as though the drunkard could be included with the sober.
20 [a]"The LORD would not spare him; for then [b]the anger of the LORD and [c]His jealousy would burn against that man, and every curse that is written in this book would settle on him, and the LORD [d]would blot out his name from under heaven.
21 "And the LORD [a]would separate him from all the tribes of Israel for adversity, according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in this Book of the [b]Law,
22 "so that the coming generation of your children who rise up after you, and the foreigner who comes from a far land, would say, when they [a]see the plagues of that land and the sicknesses which the LORD has laid on it:
23 'The whole land is brimstone, [a]salt, and burning; it is not sown, nor does it bear, nor does any grass grow there, [b]like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboiim, which the LORD overthrew in His anger and His wrath.'
24 "All nations would say, [a]'Why has the LORD done so to this land? What does the heat of this great anger mean?'
25 "Then people would say: 'Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD God of their fathers, which He made with them when He brought them out of the land of Egypt;
26 'for they went and served other gods and worshiped them, gods that they did not know and that He had not given to them.
27 'Then the anger of the LORD was aroused against this land, [a]to bring on it every curse that is written in this book.
28 'And the LORD [a]uprooted them from their land in anger, in wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as it is this day.'
29 "The secret things belong to the LORD our God, but those things which are revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law.

Secret Things

God is pleased to reveal His heart's secrets to His people. A word from God is a precious treasure that we must share with our children.

29:19 God's unmistakable judgment on people would prevent them from deluding themselves into thinking they could do whatever they wished and yet receive God's ongoing blessing.

29:25 God's judgment was to serve as an example and a warning to others of the consequence of forsaking and rejecting God's word.

29:29 The "secret things" refers to God's thoughts and intentions. The Israelites were not accountable for the thoughts of God, only those things He revealed to them.

The Blessing of Returning to God

30 "Now [a]it shall come to pass, when [b]all these things come upon you, the blessing and the [c]curse which I have set before you, and [d]you [1]call them to mind among all the nations where the LORD your God drives you,
2 "and you [a]return to the LORD your God and obey His voice, according to all that I command you today, you and your children, with all your heart and with all your soul,
3 [a]"that the LORD your God will bring you back from captivity, and have compassion on you, and [b]gather you again from all the nations where the LORD your God has scattered you.
4 [a]"If any of you are driven out to the farthest parts under heaven, from there the LORD your God will gather you, and from there He will bring you.
5 "Then the LORD your God will bring you to the land which your fathers possessed, and you shall possess it. He will prosper you and multiply you more than your fathers.
6 "And [a]the LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your descendants, to love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, that you may live.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Deut. 30:6

Transformed Hearts

Human hearts are naturally prone to wickedness. Only when God cleanses and transforms us can we love Him fully.

7 "Also the LORD your God will put all these [a]curses on your enemies and on those who hate you, who persecuted you.
8 "And you will [a]again obey the voice of the LORD and do all His commandments which I command you today.
9 [a]"The LORD your God will make you abound in all the work of your hand, in the [1]fruit of your body, in the increase of your livestock, and in the produce of your land for good. For the LORD will again [b]rejoice over you for good as He rejoiced over your fathers,
10 "if you obey the voice of the LORD your God, to keep His commandments and His statutes which are written in this Book of the Law, and if you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

The Choice of Life or Death

11 "For this commandment which I command you today [a]is [1]not too mysterious for you, nor is it far off.
12 [a]"It is not in heaven, that you should say, 'Who will ascend into heaven for us and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?'
13 "Nor is it beyond the sea, that you should say, 'Who will go over the sea for us and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?'
14 "But the word is very near you, [a]in your mouth and in your heart, that you may do it.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Deut. 30:14

Very Near

God's word is not mysteriously hidden. Anyone with a willing heart can receive it, understand it, and follow it.

15 "See, [a]I have set before you today life and good, death and evil, 16 "in that I command you today to love the LORD your God, to walk in His ways, and to keep His commandments, His statutes, and His judgments, that you may live and multiply; and the LORD your God will bless you in the land which you go to possess.
17 "But if your heart turns away so that you do not hear, and are drawn away, and worship other gods and serve them,
18 [a]"I announce to you today that you shall surely perish; you shall not prolong your days in the land which you cross over the Jordan to go in and possess.
19 [a]"I call heaven and earth as witnesses today against you, that [b]I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing; therefore choose life, that both you and your descendants may live;
20 "that you may love the LORD your God, that you may obey His voice, and that you may cling to Him, for He is your [a]life and the length of your days; and that you may dwell in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give them."

30:1 "When all these things come upon you" indicates that God knew His people would reject Him and that He would have to judge them.

30:11 "Mysterious" could also mean "difficult." God's will is not so difficult to understand or to follow that anyone has an excuse for disobedience (Rom. 10:6–10).

30:20 God does not just give us life; He is our life.

Joshua the New Leader of Israel

31 Then Moses went and spoke these words to all Israel.
2 And he said to them: "I [a]am one hundred and twenty years old today. I can no longer [b]go out and come in. Also the LORD has said to me, [c]'You shall not cross over this Jordan.'
3 "The LORD your God [a]Himself crosses over before you; He will destroy these nations from before you, and you shall dispossess them. [b]Joshua himself crosses over before you, just [c]as the LORD has said.
4 [a]"And the LORD will do to them [b]as He did to Sihon and Og, the kings of the Amorites and their land, when He destroyed them.
5 [a]"The LORD will give them over to you, that you may do to them according to every commandment which I have commanded you.
6 [a]"Be strong and of good courage, [b]do not fear nor be afraid of them; for the LORD your God, [c]He is the One who goes with you. [d]He will not leave you nor forsake you."
7 Then Moses called Joshua and said to him in the sight of all Israel, [a]"Be strong and of good courage, for you must go with this people to the land which the LORD has sworn to their fathers to give them, and you shall cause them to inherit it.
8 "And the LORD, [a]He is the One who goes before you. [b]He will be with you, He will not leave you nor forsake you; do not fear nor be dismayed."

The Law to Be Read Every Seven Years

9 So Moses wrote this law [a]and delivered it to the priests, the sons of Levi, [b]who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel.
10 And Moses commanded them, saying: "At the end of every seven years, at the appointed time in the [a]year of release, [b]at the Feast of Tabernacles, 11 "when all Israel comes to [a]appear before the LORD your God in the [b]place which He chooses, [c]you shall read this law before all Israel in their hearing.
12 [a]"Gather the people together, men and women and little ones, and the stranger who is within your gates, that they may hear and that they may learn to fear the LORD your God and carefully observe all the words of this law,
13 "and that their children, [a]who have not known it, [b]may hear and learn to fear the LORD your God as long as you live in the land which you cross the Jordan to possess."

Prediction of Israel's Rebellion

14 Then the LORD said to Moses, [a]"Behold, the days approach when you must die; call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tabernacle of meeting, that [b]I may [1]inaugurate him." So Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves in the tabernacle of meeting.
15 Now [a]the LORD appeared in the tabernacle in a pillar of cloud, and the pillar of cloud stood above the door of the tabernacle.
16 And the LORD said to Moses: "Behold, you will [1]rest with your fathers; and this people will [a]rise and [b]play the harlot with the gods of the foreigners of the land, where they go to be among them, and they will [c]forsake Me and [d]break My covenant which I have made with them.
17 "Then My anger shall be [a]aroused against them in that day, and [b]I will forsake them, and I will [c]hide My face from them, and they shall be [1]devoured. And many evils and troubles shall befall them, so that they will say in that day, [d]'Have not these evils come upon us because our God is [e]not among us?'
18 "And [a]I will surely hide My face in that day because of all the evil which they have done, in that they have turned to other gods.
19 "Now therefore, write down this song for yourselves, and teach it to the children of Israel; put it in their mouths, that this song may be [a]a witness for Me against the children of Israel.
20 "When I have brought them to the land flowing with milk and honey, of which I swore to their fathers, and they have eaten and filled themselves [a]and grown fat, [b]then they will turn to other gods and serve them; and they will provoke Me and break My covenant.
21 "Then it shall be, [a]when many evils and troubles have come upon them, that this song will testify against them as a witness; for it will not be forgotten in the mouths of their descendants, for [b]I know the inclination [c]of their behavior today, even before I have brought them to the land of which I swore to give them."
22 Therefore Moses wrote this song the 31:2 Moses was keenly aware that God would not allow Him to enter the Promised Land (Deut. 1:37, 38; 3:23–29).

31:7 Moses encouraged Joshua with the same words God would later use (Josh. 1:7, 9).

31:19 Moses wrote this "Song of Moses." He is also recognized as the author of Psalm 90.

same day, and taught it to the children of Israel.
23 [a]Then He inaugurated Joshua the son of Nun, and said, [b]"Be strong and of good courage; for you shall bring the children of Israel into the land of which I swore to them, and I will be with you."
24 So it was, when Moses had completed writing the words of this law in a book, when they were finished,
25 that Moses commanded the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying:
26 "Take this Book of the Law, [a]and put it beside the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be there [b]as a witness against you;
27 [a]"for I know your rebellion and your [b]stiff neck. If today, while I am yet alive with you, you have been rebellious against the LORD, then how much more after my death?
28 "Gather to me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their hearing [a]and call heaven and earth to witness against them.
29 "For I know that after my death you will [a]become utterly corrupt, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you. And [b]evil will befall you [c]in the latter days, because you will do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger through the work of your hands."

The Song of Moses

30 Then Moses spoke in the hearing of all the assembly of Israel the words of this song until they were ended:

32 "Give [a]ear, O heavens, and I will speak;
And hear, O [b]earth, the words of my mouth.
2 Let [a]my [1]teaching drop as the rain,
My speech distill as the dew,
[b]As raindrops on the tender herb,
And as showers on the grass.
3 For I proclaim the [a]name of the LORD:
[b]Ascribe greatness to our God.
4 He is [a]the Rock, [b]His work is perfect;
For all His ways are justice,
[c]A God of truth and [d]without injustice;
Righteous and upright is He.
5 "They[a] have corrupted themselves;
They are not His children,
Because of their blemish:
A [b]perverse and crooked generation.
6 Do you thus [a]deal[1] with the LORD,
O foolish and unwise people?
Is He not [b]your Father, who [c]bought you?
Has He not [d]made you and established you?
7 "Remember[a] the days of old,
Consider the years of many generations.
[b]Ask your father, and he will show you;
Your elders, and they will tell you:
8 When the Most High [a]divided their inheritance to the nations,
When He [b]separated the sons of Adam,
He set the boundaries of the peoples
According to the number of the [1]children of Israel.
9 For [a]the LORD's portion is His people;
Jacob is the place of His inheritance.
10 "He found him [a]in a desert land
And in the wasteland, a howling wilderness;
He encircled him, He instructed him,
He [b]kept him as the [1]apple of His eye.

31:26 The words of the covenant were always kept in God's presence as a perpetual reminder of the mutual obligations between God and His people.

32:5 Jesus would use similar words to address people's unbelief (Luke 9:41).

12 So the LORD alone led him,
And there was no foreign god with him.

13 "He[a] made him ride in the heights of the earth,
That he might eat the produce of the fields;
He made him draw honey from the rock,
And oil from the flinty rock;
14 Curds from the cattle, and milk of the flock,
[a]With fat of lambs;
And rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats,
With the choicest wheat;
And you drank wine, the [b]blood of the grapes.

15 "But Jeshurun grew fat and kicked;
[a]You grew fat, you grew thick,
You are obese!
Then he [b]forsook God who [c]made him,
And scornfully esteemed the [d]Rock of his salvation.
16 [a]They provoked Him to jealousy with foreign gods;
With [1]abominations they provoked Him to anger.
17 [a]They sacrificed to demons, not to God,
To gods they did not know,
To new gods, new arrivals
That your fathers did not fear.
18 [a]Of the Rock who begot you, you are unmindful,
And have [b]forgotten the God who fathered you.

19 "And[a] when the LORD saw it, He spurned them,
Because of the provocation of His sons and His daughters.
20 And He said: 'I will hide My face from them,
I will see what their end will be,
For they are a perverse generation,
[a]Children in whom is no faith.
21 [a]They have provoked Me to jealousy by what is not God;
They have moved Me to anger [b]by their [1]foolish idols.
But [c]I will provoke them to jealousy by those who are not a nation;
I will move them to anger by a foolish nation.
22 For [a]a fire is kindled in My anger,
And shall burn to the [1]lowest [2]hell;
It shall consume the earth with her increase,
And set on fire the foundations of the mountains.

23 'I will [a]heap disasters on them;
[b]I will spend My arrows on them.
24 They shall be wasted with hunger,
Devoured by pestilence and bitter destruction;
I will also send against them the [a]teeth of beasts,
With the poison of serpents of the dust.
25 The sword shall destroy outside;
There shall be terror within
For the young man and virgin,
The nursing child with the man of gray hairs.
26 [a]I would have said, "I will dash them in pieces,
I will make the memory of them to cease from among men,"
27 Had I not feared the wrath of the enemy,
Lest their adversaries should misunderstand,
Lest they should say, [a]"Our hand is high;
And it is not the LORD who has done all this." '

28 "For they are a nation void of counsel,
Nor is there any understanding in them.
29 [a]Oh, that they were wise, that they understood this,
That they would consider their [b]latter end!
30 How could one chase a thousand,
And two put ten thousand to flight,
Unless their Rock [a]had sold them,
And the LORD had surrendered them?
31 For their rock is not like our Rock,
[a]Even our enemies themselves being judges.
32 For [a]their vine is of the vine of Sodom
And of the fields of Gomorrah;
Their grapes are grapes of gall,
Their clusters are bitter.

40 For I raise My hand to heaven,
And say, "As I live forever,
41 [a]If I [1]whet My glittering sword,
And My hand takes hold on judgment,
I will render vengeance to My enemies,
And repay those who hate Me.
42 I will make My arrows drunk with blood,
And My sword shall devour flesh,
With the blood of the slain and the captives,
From the heads of the leaders of the enemy." '

43 "Rejoice,[a] O Gentiles, with His [1]people;
For He will [b]avenge the blood of His servants,
And render vengeance to His adversaries;
He [c]will provide atonement for His land and His people."

44 So Moses came with [1]Joshua the son of Nun and spoke all the words of this song in the hearing of the people.
45 Moses finished speaking all these words to all Israel,

Life

God's word is not simply important to our life; it is our life.

Moses to Die on Mount Nebo

48 Then the LORD spoke to Moses that very same day, saying:
49 [a]"Go up this mountain of the Abarim, Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, across from Jericho; view the land of Canaan, which I give to the children of Israel as a possession;
50 "and die on the mountain which you ascend, and be [1]gathered to your people, just as [a]Aaron your brother died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people;
51 "because [a]you trespassed against Me among the children of Israel at the waters of [1]Meribah Kadesh, in the Wilderness of Zin, because you [b]did not hallow Me in the midst of the children of Israel.
52 [a]"Yet you shall see the land before you, though you shall not go there, into the land which I am giving to the children of Israel."

Moses' Final Blessing on Israel

CHAPTER 33

33 Now this is [a]the blessing with which Moses [b]the man of God

1 [a]Gen. 49:28 [b]Ps. 90

HISTORICAL Encounter — JONATHAN EDWARDS — Deut. 32:35

On July 8, 1741 at a meeting in Enfield, Connecticut, Jonathan Edwards preached a sermon from this verse. He entitled his message "Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God." The effect was dramatic as people cried out in fear and terror at the thought of facing God's judgment. This was a pivotal moment in the First Great Awakening that would sweep America and bring thousands of people to faith in Christ.

32:40 God raised His hand as an oath to Himself.

32:43 "Rejoice O Gentiles" signifies that God always intended for the Gentile nations to worship Him.

32:48 Mount Nebo is located by Heshbon, ten miles northeast of the Dead Sea.

33:1 Despite Moses' failings and shortcomings, the last thing he did was to bless the people he led.

blessed the children of Israel before his death.

2 And he said:

[a]"The LORD came from Sinai,
And dawned on them from [b]Seir;
He shone forth from [c]Mount Paran,
And He came with [d]ten thousands of saints;
From His right hand
Came a fiery law for them.
3 Yes, [a]He loves the people;
[b]All His saints are in Your hand;
They [c]sit down at Your feet;
Everyone [d]receives Your words.

ENCOUNTER Note Deut. 33:3

In God's Hand

There is no more blessed place to be than in God's protective grasp.

4 [a]Moses [1]commanded a law for us,
[b]A heritage of the congregation of Jacob.
5 And He was [a]King in [b]Jeshurun,
When the leaders of the people were gathered,
All the tribes of Israel together.

6 "Let [a]Reuben live, and not die,
Nor let his men be few."

7 And this he said of [a]Judah:

"Hear, LORD, the voice of Judah,
And bring him to his people;
[b]Let his hands be sufficient for him,
And may You be [c]a help against his enemies."

8 And of [a]Levi he said:

[b]"Let Your [1]Thummim and Your Urim be with Your holy one,
[c]Whom You tested at Massah,
And with whom You contended at the waters of Meribah, 9 [a]Who says of his father and mother,
'I have not [b]seen them';
[c]Nor did he acknowledge his brothers,
Or know his own children;
For [d]they have observed Your word
And kept Your covenant.
10 [a]They shall teach Jacob Your judgments,
And Israel Your law.
They shall put incense before You,
[b]And a whole burnt sacrifice on Your altar.
11 Bless his substance, LORD,
And [a]accept the work of his hands;
Strike the loins of those who rise against him,
And of those who hate him, that they rise not again."

12 Of Benjamin he said:

"The beloved of the LORD shall dwell in safety by Him,
Who shelters him all the day long;
And he shall dwell between His shoulders."

13 And of Joseph he said:

[a]"Blessed of the LORD is his land,
With the precious things of heaven, with the [b]dew,
And the deep lying beneath,
14 With the precious fruits of the sun,
With the precious produce of the months,
15 With the best things of [a]the ancient mountains,
With the precious things [b]of the everlasting hills,
16 With the precious things of the earth and its fullness,
And the favor of [a]Him who dwelt in the bush.
Let the blessing come [b]'on the head of Joseph,
And on the crown of the head of him who was separate from his brothers.'
17 His glory is like a [a]firstborn bull,
And his horns like the [b]horns of the wild ox;
Together with them
[c]He shall push the peoples
To the ends of the earth;
[d]They are the ten thousands of Ephraim,
And they are the thousands of Manasseh."

18 And of Zebulun he said:

[a]"Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out,
And Issachar in your tents!
19 They shall [a]call the peoples to the mountain;
There [b]they shall offer sacrifices of righteousness;
For they shall partake of the abundance of the seas
And of treasures hidden in the sand."

33:2 Seir and Paran were northwest of Sinai. "Ten thousands of saints" refers to the angelic host that accompanied God as He gave the law (Gal. 3:1).

33:8 The Urim and Thummim were a prescribed way to determine God's will and were to be kept by the high priest (Ex. 28:30). Massah and Meribah represented occasions where the Israelites grumbled against God but the Levites proved faithful.

33:17 "Ten thousands of Manasseh" reflected God's prophecy that the younger brother Ephraim would surpass the older brother Manasseh (Gen. 48:8–20).

20 And of Gad he said:

"Blessed is he who [a]enlarges Gad;
He dwells as a lion,
And tears the arm and the crown of his head.
21 [a]He provided the first part for himself,
Because a lawgiver's portion was reserved there.
[b]He came with the heads of the people;
He administered the justice of the LORD,
And His judgments with Israel."

22 And of Dan he said:

"Dan is a lion's whelp;
[a]He shall leap from Bashan."

23 And of Naphtali he said:

"O Naphtali, [a]satisfied with favor,
And full of the blessing of the LORD,
[b]Possess the west and the south."

24 And of Asher he said:

[a]"Asher is most blessed of sons;
Let him be favored by his brothers,
And let him [b]dip his foot in oil.
25 Your sandals shall be [a]iron and bronze;
As your days, so shall your strength be.

26 "There is [a]no one like the God of [b]Jeshurun,
[c]Who rides the heavens to help you,
And in His excellency on the clouds.
27 The eternal God is your [a]refuge,
And underneath are the everlasting arms;
[b]He will thrust out the enemy from before you,
And will say, 'Destroy!'
28 Then [a]Israel shall dwell in safety,
[b]The fountain of Jacob [c]alone,
In a land of grain and new wine;
His [d]heavens shall also drop dew.

[b]Who is like you, a people saved by the LORD,
[c]The shield of your help
And the sword of your majesty!
Your enemies [d]shall submit to you,
And [e]you shall tread down their [1]high places."

Moses Dies on Mount Nebo

34 Then Moses went up from the plains of Moab [a]to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is across from Jericho. And the LORD showed him all the land of Gilead as far as Dan,
2 all Naphtali and the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the [1]Western Sea,
3 the South, and the plain of the Valley of Jericho, [a]the city of palm trees, as far as Zoar.
4 Then the LORD said to him, [a]"This is the land of which I swore to give Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, 'I will give it to your descendants.' [b]I have caused you to see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there."
5 [a]So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD.
6 And He buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth Peor; but [a]no one knows his grave to this day.
7 [a]Moses was one hundred and twenty years old when he died. [b]His [1]eyes were not dim nor his natural vigor [2]diminished.
8 And the children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab [a]thirty days. So the days of weeping and mourning for Moses ended.
9 Now Joshua the son of Nun was full of the [a]spirit of wisdom, for [b]Moses had laid his hands on him; so the children of Israel heeded him, and did as the LORD had commanded Moses.

HISTORICAL*Encounter* ANTHONY SHOWALTER Deut. 33:27

Anthony Showalter was teaching at a singing school in Hartsells, Alabama, when he received word that two of his former students in South Carolina were grieving the death of their wives. As he wrote to encourage them, he was inspired to cite Deuteronomy 33:27. As Showalter considered the words of this verse, he was moved to compose the music and refrain of a hymn. "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms" became a widely used and cherished hymn, especially by those who needed the comfort that is only found in God.

34:1 Mount Nebo is located twelve miles east of the mouth of the Jordan River. Its peak rises 4,000 feet above the Dead Sea and provides a magnificent vista for viewing the Promised Land. Dan was the land south of Mount Hermon (Judg. 18).

34:2 The Western Sea is the Mediterranean Sea.

34:3 The "south" is the Negev. Zoar is the city to which Lot and his daughters fled from Sodom (Gen. 19:22).

34:8 Thirty days was the normal time period of mourning for a national leader (Num. 20:29).

34:9 Moses had laid his hands on Joshua not to empower him but to recognize God's Holy Spirit already at work in his life (Num. 27:18).

The Spirit of Wisdom

When you have the Holy Spirit dwelling within you, you have all the wisdom of heaven available to you for every dilemma you face.

in Israel a prophet like Moses, [b]whom the LORD knew face to face, 11 in all [a]the signs and wonders which the LORD sent him to do in the land of Egypt, before Pharaoh, before all his servants, and in all his land,
12 and by all that mighty power and all the great terror which Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

34:10 "Face to face" testifies to the intimacy Moses shared with God (Ex. 33:11; Num. 12:6–8).

THE BOOK OF JOSHUA

INTRODUCTION

The book is named after its central figure, Joshua. Joshua's original name was Hoshea, meaning "Salvation" (Num. 13:16). However, Moses changed his name to Yehoshua, meaning "The Lord Is Salvation" (Num. 13:8). Joshua's name fits well with the history of Israel as Joshua was the leader when they took control of the land of Canaan, but it was God who conquered the Canaanites and gave the land to Israel. The Book of Joshua serves as a link between the first five books of the Old Testament (called the Pentateuch) and the historical books of the Old Testament (Joshua through Esther).

SIGNIFICANCE

At the time Joshua was written, the Israelites were already living in the land of Canaan. Past events in Israel's history revealed that they were prone to forget the saving acts of God. Therefore, God wanted to keep in their remembrance what He had done for His people and to direct their hope toward greater things in the future. Joshua recounted the acts and ways of God and in turn charged God's people to remain faithful to the One who had delivered and blessed them.

STRUCTURE

The book can be divided into three parts. The first section records the conquering of Canaan (1:1—12:24). The second recounts the dividing of the land between the Israelite tribes (13:1—21:45). The third section carries a warning to the children of Israel not to depart from the Lord (22:1—24:33).

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH JOSHUA

As you study this book you will be both challenged by Joshua's faithful leadership and emboldened by the account of God's careful provision. Joshua is first called an assistant to Moses (1:1). However, by the close of his life he is called a servant of the Lord (24:29). Throughout the book he is obedient to God's commands. His leadership produces unity among God's people. His example of faith and obedience amid the onerous circumstances of war and conflict inspires all Christians to remain true to God's calling upon their lives—and His presence in their lives—as they walk with God's people in difficult times.

The Lord's gift of the land is the book's central plot. The land had been promised by God to Israel's ancestors, then to Joshua (1:2–6; 5:6), and God fulfilled this promise in the conquest (11:23; 21:43–45; 23:4, 5; 24:13, 28). God's trustworthiness and His desire for His people to have "rest in the land" encourages Christians today. God continues to give rest to His people, and He remains faithful to His promises. However, God still demands loyalty and obedience from us. The account of Achan (7:10–26) proves how seriously God takes disobedience to His commands and shows the devastating impact one person's sin can have on an entire community.

The Book of Joshua is much more than a record of how God walked with His people in the past. It is a testimony of how God champions His purposes in the midst of His people when they choose to walk in faith and obedience to His word. God leads and provides for His people. He goes before them as they face enemies and challenges. The Book of Joshua attests to God's active involvement in the lives of those who serve Him.

God's Commission to Joshua

AFTER the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, it came to pass that the LORD spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' [a]assistant, saying:

ENCOUNTER*Note* Josh. 1:1

Times of Transition

In times of crisis or transition, God speaks to His servants. Our circumstances would be utterly bewildering if not for a word from the Lord.

2 [a]"Moses My servant is dead. Now therefore, arise, go over this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them—the children of Israel.
3 [a]"Every place that the sole of your foot will tread upon I have given you, as I said to Moses.
4 [a]"From the wilderness and this Lebanon as far as the great river, the River Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and to the Great Sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your territory.
5 [a]"No man shall be able to stand before you all the days of your life; [b]as I was with Moses, so [c]I will be with you. [d]I will not leave you nor forsake you.
6 [a]"Be strong and of good courage, for to this people you shall [1]divide as an inheritance the land which I swore to their fathers to give them.
7 "Only be strong and very courageous, that you may observe to do according to all the law [a]which Moses My servant commanded you; [b]do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may [1]prosper wherever you go.
8 [a]"This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but [b]you[1] shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success.
9 [a]"Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of good courage; [b]do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go."

Be of Good Courage

God's presence makes a radical difference in a believer's life. A confident peace replaces fear and anxiety when you know God is with you.

The Order to Cross the Jordan

10 Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying,
11 "Pass through the camp and command the people, saying, 'Prepare provisions for yourselves, for [a]within three days you will cross over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess.' "
12 And to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh Joshua spoke, saying,
13 "Remember [a]the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, 'The LORD your God is giving you rest and is giving you this land.'
14 "Your wives, your little ones, and your livestock shall remain in the land which Moses gave you on this side of the Jordan. But you shall [1]pass before your brethren armed, all your mighty men of valor, and help them,
15 "until the LORD has given your brethren rest, as He gave you, and they also have taken possession of the land which the LORD your God is giving them. [a]Then you shall return to the land of your possession and enjoy it, which Moses the LORD's servant gave you on this side of the Jordan toward the sunrise."

CHARACTER*Study* JOSHUA Josh. 1:1

Joshua the son of Nun was originally named Hoshea, meaning "Salvation." He was born a slave in Egypt. Moses made him his assistant during the forty years of wandering in the wilderness, renaming him Joshua, "God Is Salvation." Joshua and Caleb remained confident God would give them the Promised Land despite the fearful skepticism of the other leaders (Num. 14:6–10). Joshua succeeded Moses as leader of the Israelites and led them to invade Canaan (Num. 27:12–23). After five years' fighting, the major centers of Canaan were subdued and Joshua oversaw the distribution of the land among the twelve tribes. Joshua died at age 110 and was buried at Timnath Serah.

1:2 Throughout the Book of Joshua, Moses is called God's servant while Joshua is referred to as Moses' servant. Not until his death is Joshua also named God's servant (Josh. 24:29; Judg. 2:8).

1:4 "Hittites" is used here as a synonym for "Canaanites."

16 So they answered Joshua, saying, "All that you command us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go.
17 "Just as we heeded Moses in all things, so we will heed you. Only the LORD your God [a]be with you, as He was with Moses.
18 "Whoever rebels against your command and does not heed your words, in all that you command him, shall be put to death. Only be strong and of good courage."

Rahab Hides the Spies

2 Now Joshua the son of Nun sent out two men [a]from [1]Acacia Grove to spy secretly, saying, "Go, view the land, especially Jericho." So they went, and [b]came to the house of a harlot named [c]Rahab, and [2]lodged there.
2 And [a]it was told the king of Jericho, saying, "Behold, men have come here tonight from the children of Israel to search out the country."
3 So the king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, "Bring out the men who have come to you, who have entered your house, for they have come to search out all the country."
4 [a]Then the woman took the two men and hid them. So she said, "Yes, the men came to me, but I did not know where they were from.
5 "And it happened as the gate was being shut, when it was dark, that the men went out. Where the men went I do not know; pursue them quickly, for you may overtake them."
6 (But [a]she had brought them up to the roof and hidden them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order on the roof.)
7 Then the men pursued them by the road to the Jordan, to the fords. And as soon as those who pursued them had gone out, they shut the gate.
8 Now before they lay down, she came up to them on the roof,
9 and said to the men: [a]"I know that the LORD has given you the land, that [b]the terror of you has fallen on us, and that all the inhabitants of the land [c]are faint-hearted because of you.
10 "For we have heard how the LORD [a]dried up the water of the Red Sea for you when you came out of Egypt, and [b]what you did to the two kings of the Amorites who were on the other side of the Jordan, Sihon and Og, whom you [c]utterly destroyed.

ENCOUNTER Note Josh. 2:10

Confirming God's Presence

When God dwells in a person, His presence is conspicuous. Even your enemies should notice the powerful difference God makes in your life.

11 "And as soon as we [a]heard these things, [b]our hearts melted; neither did there remain any more courage in anyone because of you, for [c]the LORD your God, He is God in heaven above and on earth beneath.
12 "Now therefore, I beg you, [a]swear to me by the LORD, since I have shown you kindness, that you also will show kindness to [b]my father's house, and [c]give me [1]a true token,
13 "and [a]spare my father, my mother, my brothers, my sisters, and all that they have, and deliver our lives from death."
14 So the men answered her, "Our lives for yours, if none of you tell this business of ours. And it shall be, when the LORD has given us the land, that [a]we will deal kindly and truly with you."
15 Then she [a]let them down by a rope through the window, for her house was on the city wall; she dwelt on the wall.
16 And she said to them, "Get to the mountain, lest the pursuers meet you. Hide there three days, until the pursuers have returned. Afterward you may go your way."
17 So the men said to her: "We will be [a]blameless[1] of this oath of yours which you have made us swear, 18 [a]"unless, when we come into the land, you bind this line of scarlet cord in the window through which you let us down, [b]and unless you [1]bring your father, your mother, your brothers, and all your father's household to your own home.
19 "So it shall be that whoever goes outside the doors of your house into the

2:1 "Acacia Grove" in Hebrew is "Shittim," meaning "Acacia trees." Joshua sent two spies into Canaan instead of twelve as Moses had done (Deut. 1:22–23). No reason is given for Joshua's choice. However, the two spies' mission was not as extensive as that of the twelve. It would also have been more difficult to conceal twelve men from the Jericho security forces. Perhaps Joshua also considered that only two spies brought a good report out of the original twelve. "Harlot" is the term for a common prostitute.

2:2 The people of Jericho's knowledge of the spies' presence may indicate their acute awareness of the Israelites' nearness and the imminent danger Jericho faced.

2:7 The Jordan River is roughly one hundred feet wide near Jericho and between five and twelve feet deep.

2:15 Rahab's house was "on" the city wall. Hers would have been a modest home.

2:18 A scarlet cord may be symbolic for the color of blood. Just as shed blood saved the lives of God's people (Ex. 12:7), so the blood-colored cord would save Rahab and her family. Another mention of a scarlet cord related to Tamar, another non-Israelite (Gen. 38:28, 30).

street, his blood shall be on his own head, and we will be [1]guiltless. And whoever is with you in the house, [a]his [2]blood shall be on our head if a hand is laid on him.
20 "And if you tell this business of ours, then we will be [1]free from your oath which you made us swear."
21 Then she said, "According to your words, so be it." And she sent them away, and they departed. And she bound the scarlet cord in the window.
22 They departed and went to the mountain, and stayed there three days until the pursuers returned. The pursuers sought them all along the way, but did not find them.
23 So the two men returned, descended from the mountain, and crossed over; and they came to Joshua the son of Nun, and told him all that had befallen them.
24 And they said to Joshua, "Truly [a]the LORD has delivered all the land into our hands, for indeed all the inhabitants of the country are fainthearted because of us."

Israel Crosses the Jordan

3 Then Joshua rose early in the morning; and they set out [a]from [1]Acacia Grove and came to the Jordan, he and all the children of Israel, and lodged there before they crossed over.
2 So it was, [a]after three days, that the officers went through the camp;
3 and they commanded the people, saying, [a]"When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, [b]and the priests, the Levites, [1]bearing it, then you shall set out from your place and go after it.
4 [a]"Yet there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure. Do not come near it, that you may know the way by which you must go, for you have not passed this way before."
5 And Joshua said to the people, [a]"Sanctify[1] yourselves, for tomorrow the LORD will do wonders among you."
6 Then Joshua spoke to the priests, saying, [a]"Take up the ark of the covenant and cross over before the people." So they took up the ark of the covenant and went before the people.
7 And the LORD said to Joshua, "This day I will begin to [a]exalt[1] you in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that, [b]as I was with Moses, so I will be with you.

God's Prerequisite

God's prerequisite for working mightily through your life is sanctification. God's great work awaits your willingness to be made holy and set apart for God.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Josh. 3:7

God Exalts

God is the One who lifts people up or lets them come crashing down. God exalts those who yield their lives to Him, but those seeking to magnify themselves He will inevitably humble.

8 "You shall command [a]the priests who bear the ark of the covenant, saying, 'When you have come to the edge of the water of the Jordan, [b]you shall stand in the Jordan.' "
9 So Joshua said to the children of Israel, "Come here, and hear the words of the LORD your God."
10 And Joshua said, "By this you shall know that [a]the living God is among you, and that He will without fail [b]drive out from before you the [c]Canaanites and the Hittites and the Hivites and the Perizzites and the Girgashites and the Amorites and the Jebusites:
11 "Behold, the ark of the covenant of [a]the Lord of all the earth is crossing over before you into the Jordan.
12 "Now therefore, [a]take for yourselves twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one man from every tribe.
13 "And it shall come to pass, [a]as soon as the soles of the feet of the priests who bear the ark of the LORD, [b]the Lord of all the earth, shall rest in the waters of the Jordan, that the waters of the Jordan shall be cut off, the waters that come down from upstream, and they [c]shall stand as a heap."
14 So it was, when the people set out from their camp to cross over the Jordan, with the priests bearing the [a]ark of the covenant before the people,
15 and as those who bore the ark came to the Jordan, and [a]the feet of the priests who bore the ark dipped in the edge of the water (for the [b]Jordan overflows all

3:4 Two thousand cubits would have been over half a mile.
3:5 "Wonders" means "miracles." To sanctify oneself was to separate oneself from anything that was unclean.
3:15 The term "overflows" indicates this was no small miracle. God miraculously stopped the Jordan's flow at its peak level. This would have been in March/April.

its banks [c]during the whole time of harvest),
16 that the waters which came down from upstream stood still, and rose in a heap very far away [1]at Adam, the city that is beside [a]Zaretan. So the waters that went down [b]into the Sea of the Arabah, [c]the Salt Sea, failed, and were cut off; and the people crossed over opposite Jericho.
17 Then the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the midst of the Jordan; [a]and all Israel crossed over on dry ground, until all the people had crossed completely over the Jordan.

The Memorial Stones

4 And it came to pass, when all the people had completely crossed [a]over the Jordan, that the LORD spoke to Joshua, saying:
2 [a]"Take for yourselves twelve men from the people, one man from every tribe,
3 "and command them, saying, 'Take for yourselves twelve stones from here, out of the midst of the Jordan, from the place where [a]the priests' feet stood firm. You shall carry them over with you and leave them in [b]the lodging place where you lodge tonight.' "
4 Then Joshua called the twelve men whom he had appointed from the children of Israel, one man from every tribe;
5 and Joshua said to them: "Cross over before the ark of the LORD your God into the midst of the Jordan, and each one of you take up a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel,
6 "that this may be [a]a sign among you [b]when your children ask in time to come, saying, 'What do these stones mean to you?'

Memorials

The most profound encounters with God can grow dim in our memory. Spiritual markers serve to remind us of those divine moments.

before the ark of the covenant of the LORD; when it crossed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. And these stones shall be for [b]a memorial to the children of Israel forever."
8 And the children of Israel did so, just as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones from the midst of the Jordan, as the LORD had spoken to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and carried them over with them to the place where they lodged, and laid them down there.
9 Then Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests who bore the ark of the covenant stood; and they are there to this day.
10 So the priests who bore the ark stood in the midst of the Jordan until everything was finished that the LORD had commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua; and the people hurried and crossed over.
11 Then it came to pass, when all the people had completely crossed over, that the [a]ark of the LORD and the priests crossed over in the presence of the people.
12 And [a]the men of Reuben, the men of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh crossed over armed before the children of Israel, as Moses had spoken to them.
13 About forty thousand [1]prepared for war crossed over before the LORD for battle, to the plains of Jericho.
14 On that day the LORD [a]exalted[1] Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they feared him, as they had feared Moses, all the days of his life.
15 Then the LORD spoke to Joshua, saying,
16 "Command the priests who bear [a]the ark of the Testimony to come up from the Jordan."
17 Joshua therefore commanded the priests, saying, "Come up from the Jordan."
18 And it came to pass, when the priests

3:16 Adam is approximately eighteen miles north of Jericho. The Sea of Arabah is the Dead Sea, the lowest spot on earth at 1286 feet below sea level.

4:13 Jericho is located six miles west of the Jordan River. Forty thousand soldiers of the tribes of Reuben, Dan, and the half tribe of Manasseh represented only a portion of their available manpower (Num. 26:5–7, 15–18, 29–34).

who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD had come from the midst of the Jordan, and the soles of the priests' feet touched the dry land, that the waters of the Jordan returned to their place [a]and overflowed all its banks as before.

19 Now the people came up from the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and they camped [a]in Gilgal on the east border of Jericho.

20 And [a]those twelve stones which they took out of the Jordan, Joshua set up in Gilgal.

21 Then he spoke to the children of Israel, saying: [a]"When your children ask their fathers in time to come, saying, 'What are these stones?'

22 "then you shall let your children know, saying, [a]'Israel crossed over this Jordan on [b]dry land';

23 "for the LORD your God dried up the waters of the Jordan before you until you had crossed over, as the LORD your God did to the Red Sea, [a]which He dried up before us until we had crossed over,

24 [a]"that all the peoples of the earth may know the hand of the LORD, that it is [b]mighty, that you may [c]fear the LORD your God [1]forever."

God's Glory

God gives us victory for His sake, not ours. When God works powerfully through us, people see His activity, not our ability. If we resist God's will, we lose the opportunity to glorify Him.

The Second Generation Circumcised

5 So it was, when all the kings of the Amorites who were on the west side of the Jordan, and all the kings of the Canaanites [a]who were by the sea, [b]heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of the Jordan from before the children of Israel until [1]we had crossed over, that [2]their heart melted; [c]and there was no spirit in them any longer because of the children of Israel.

2 At that time the LORD said to Joshua, "Make [a]flint knives for yourself, and circumcise the sons of Israel again the second time."

God's Terrifying Presence

God's servants are seldom impressive in their own right; but God Himself is. Christianity's success through the centuries has not rested upon extraordinarily gifted followers but on God's awesome nature. It is still God who impresses people.

3 So Joshua made flint knives for himself, and circumcised the sons of Israel at [1]the hill of the foreskins.

4 And this is the reason why Joshua circumcised them: [a]All the people who came out of Egypt who were males, all the men of war, had died in the wilderness on the way, after they had come out of Egypt.

5 For all the people who came out had been circumcised, but all the people born in the wilderness, on the way as they came out of Egypt, had not been circumcised.

6 For the children of Israel walked [a]forty years in the wilderness, till all the people who were men of war, who came out of Egypt, were [1]consumed, because they did not obey the voice of the LORD—to whom the LORD swore that [b]He would not show them the land which the LORD had sworn to their fathers that He would give us, [c]"a land flowing with milk and honey."

7 Then Joshua circumcised [a]their sons whom He raised up in their place; for they were uncircumcised, because they had not been circumcised on the way.

8 So it was, when they had finished circumcising all the people, that they stayed in their places in the camp [a]till they were healed.

9 Then the LORD said to Joshua, "This day I have rolled away [a]the reproach of Egypt from you." Therefore the name of the place is called [b]Gilgal[1] to this day.

10 Now the children of Israel camped in Gilgal, and kept the Passover [a]on the fourteenth day of the month at twilight on the plains of Jericho.

11 And they ate of the produce of the land on the day after the Passover, unleavened bread and [1]parched grain, on the very same day.

4:19 Gilgal was one of the Israelites' three primary religious bases. The others were Shechem (24:1) and Shiloh (18:1). The "first month" is the month of Nissan (March–April). This was the day the Passover lamb was selected (Ex. 12:3).

5:2 The Israelites had neglected to perform circumcision since they departed from Egypt.

5:3 "The hill of the foreskins" in Hebrew is "Gibeath Haaraloth."

5:6 "Men of war" referred to men age twenty and older.

5:9 "Gilgal" means "Roll."

12 Then [a]the manna ceased on the day after they had eaten the produce of the land; and the children of Israel no longer had manna, but they ate the food of the land of Canaan that year.

The Commander of the Army of the LORD

13 And it came to pass, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted his eyes and looked, and behold, [a]a Man stood opposite him [b]with His sword drawn in His hand. And Joshua went to Him and said to Him, "Are You for us or for our adversaries?"

ENCOUNTER*Note* Josh. 5:13

Whose Side?

When God encounters us it is for His own purposes. He speaks to us to accomplish His will and He makes us successful for His glory.

14 So He said, "No, but as Commander of the army of the LORD I have now come." And Joshua [a]fell on his face to the earth and [b]worshiped, and said to Him, "What does my Lord say to His servant?"

15 Then the Commander of the LORD's army said to Joshua, [a]"Take your sandal off your foot, for the place where you stand is holy." And Joshua did so.

The Destruction of Jericho

6 Now [a]Jericho was securely shut up because of the children of Israel; none went out, and none came in.

2 And the LORD said to Joshua: "See! [a]I have given Jericho into your hand, its [b]king, and the mighty men of valor.

3 "You shall march around the city, all you men of war; you shall go all around the city once. This you shall do six days.

4 "And seven priests shall bear seven [a]trumpets of rams' horns before the ark. But the seventh day you shall march around the city [b]seven times, and [c]the priests shall blow the trumpets.

5 "It shall come to pass, when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when you hear the sound of the trumpet, that all the people shall shout with a great shout; then the wall of the city will fall down flat. And the people shall go up every man straight before him."

God's Methods

God may lead us to do things we would never initiate ourselves, even activities that make no sense to us, yet when we obey we experience success, and it reveals God's presence in our lives.

6 Then Joshua the son of Nun called the priests and said to them, "Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD."

7 And he said to the people, "Proceed, and march around the city, and let him who is armed advance before the ark of the LORD."

8 So it was, when Joshua had spoken to the people, that the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns before the LORD advanced and blew the trumpets, and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them.

9 The armed men went before the priests who blew the trumpets, [a]and the rear guard came after the ark, while the priests continued blowing the trumpets.

10 Now Joshua had commanded the people, saying, "You shall not shout or make any noise with your voice, nor shall a word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I say to you, 'Shout!' Then you shall shout."

11 So he had [a]the ark of the LORD circle the city, going around it once. Then they came into the camp and [1]lodged in the camp.

12 And Joshua rose early in the morning, [a]and the priests took up the ark of the LORD.

13 Then seven priests bearing seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD went on continually and blew with the trumpets. And the armed men went before them. But the rear guard came after the ark of the LORD, while the priests continued blowing the trumpets.

5:12 God's miraculous provision of manna ceased once the people entered the Promised Land. Not only was it clear they were now to live off the abundance of the land, but also that they were not to return to the wilderness.

5:15 The command to remove his sandals paralleled Moses' encounter with God at the burning bush (Ex. 3:5).

6:3 The city of Jericho was less than half a mile in circumference, covering less than ten acres. It would not have taken long to march around it.

6:4 A ram's horn, or "shofar," was used as a signaling instrument in times of war. The number seven is rich in biblical meaning, signifying completion.

6:12 Rising early in the morning symbolized preparation and zeal to undertake the tasks of the day (Josh. 3:1; 6:15; 7:16; 8:10, 14).

14 And the second day they marched around the city once and returned to the camp. So they did six days.
15 But it came to pass on the seventh day that they rose early, about the dawning of the day, and marched around the city seven times in the same manner. On that day only they marched around the city seven times.
16 And the seventh time it happened, when the priests blew the trumpets, that Joshua said to the people: "Shout, for the LORD has given you the city!
17 "Now the city shall be [a]doomed by the LORD to destruction, it and all who are in it. Only [b]Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all who are with her in the house, because [c]she hid the messengers that we sent.
18 "And you, [a]by all means abstain from the accursed things, lest you become accursed when you take of the accursed things, and make the camp of Israel a curse, [b]and trouble it.
19 "But all the silver and gold, and vessels of bronze and iron, are [1]consecrated to the LORD; they [2]shall come into the treasury of the LORD."
20 So the people shouted when the priests blew the trumpets. And it happened when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that [a]the wall fell down flat. Then the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Josh. 6:20

God's Way

God's will, done God's way, will bring divine results.

21 And they [a]utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, ox and sheep and donkey, with the edge of the sword.
22 But Joshua had said to the two men who had spied out the country, "Go into the harlot's house, and from there bring out the woman and all that she has, [a]as you swore to her."
23 And the young men who had been spies went in and brought out Rahab, [a]her father, her mother, her brothers, and all that she had. So they brought out all her relatives and left them outside the camp of Israel.
24 But they burned the city and all that was in it with fire. Only the silver and gold, and the vessels of bronze and iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD.
25 And Joshua spared Rahab the harlot, her father's household, and all that she had. So [a]she dwells in Israel to this day, because she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.
26 Then Joshua [1]charged them at that time, saying, [a]"Cursed be the man before the LORD who rises up and builds this city Jericho; he shall lay its foundation with his firstborn, and with his youngest he shall set up its gates."
27 So the LORD was with Joshua, and his fame spread throughout all the country.

Defeat at Ai

7 But the children of Israel [1]committed a [a]trespass regarding the [b]accursed[2] things, for [c]Achan the son of Carmi, the son of [3]Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the accursed things; so the anger of the LORD burned against the children of Israel.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Josh. 7:1

Sin in the Camp

God's people can be tempted to disobey Him even in the midst of His mighty activity. A magnificent victory cannot gloss over the smallest sin.

2 Now Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is beside Beth Aven, on the east side of Bethel, and spoke to them, saying, "Go up and spy out the country." So the men went up and spied out Ai.
3 And they returned to Joshua and said to him, "Do not let all the people go up, but let about two or three thousand men go up and attack Ai. Do not weary all the people there, for the people of Ai are few."
4 So about three thousand men went up there from the people, [a]but they fled before the men of Ai.
5 And the men of Ai struck down about

6:23 By God's grace, the former prostitute and pagan foreigner would join God's people and become an ancestor of the Messiah (Ruth 4:18–22; Matt. 1:5).

6:26 Hiel from Bethel would rebuild the city during the reign of King Ahab, forfeiting two sons in the process (1 Kin. 16:34).

6:27 Joshua's fame came not from his military success but from God's presence in his life.

7:2 "Ai" means "Heap" or "Ruin." It was a small city west of Jericho and may have served as an outpost of the city of Bethel.

thirty-six men, for they chased them from before the gate as far as Shebarim, and struck them down on the descent; therefore [a]the[1] hearts of the people melted and became like water.

6 Then Joshua [a]tore his clothes, and fell to the earth on his face before the ark of the LORD until evening, he and the elders of Israel; and they [b]put dust on their heads.

7 And Joshua said, "Alas, Lord [1]GOD, [a]why have You brought this people over the Jordan at all—to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? Oh, that we had been content, and dwelt on the other side of the Jordan!

8 "O Lord, what shall I say when Israel turns its [1]back before its enemies?

9 "For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear it, and surround us, and [a]cut off our name from the earth. Then [b]what will You do for Your great name?"

The Sin of Achan

10 So the LORD said to Joshua: "Get up! Why do you lie thus on your face?

11 "Israel has sinned, and they have also transgressed My covenant which I commanded them. [a]For they have even taken some of the [1]accursed things, and have both stolen and [b]deceived; and they have also put it among their own stuff.

12 [a]"Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because [b]they have become doomed to destruction. Neither will I be with you anymore, unless you destroy the accursed from among you.

13 "Get up, [a]sanctify[1] the people, and say, [b]'Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, because thus says the LORD God of Israel: "There is an accursed thing in your midst, O Israel; you cannot stand before your enemies until you take away the accursed thing from among you."

14 'In the morning therefore you shall be brought according to your tribes. And it shall be that the tribe which [a]the LORD takes shall come according to families; and the family which the LORD takes shall come by households; and the household which the LORD takes shall come man by man.

15 [a]'Then it shall be that he who is taken with the accursed thing shall be burned with fire, he and all that he has, because he has [b]transgressed[1] the covenant of the LORD, and because he [c]has done a disgraceful thing in Israel.' "

16 So Joshua rose early in the morning and brought Israel by their tribes, and the tribe of Judah was taken.

17 He brought the clan of Judah, and he took the family of the Zarhites; and he brought the family of the Zarhites man by man, and Zabdi was taken.

18 Then he brought his household man by man, and Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, [a]was taken.

19 Now Joshua said to Achan, "My son, I beg you, [a]give glory to the LORD God of Israel, [b]and make confession to Him, and [c]tell me now what you have done; do not hide it from me."

20 And Achan answered Joshua and said, "Indeed [a]I have sinned against the LORD God of Israel, and this is what I have done:

21 "When I saw among the spoils a beautiful Babylonian garment, two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold weighing fifty shekels, I [1]coveted them and took them. And there they are, hidden in the earth in the midst of my tent, with the silver under it."

22 So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent; and there it was, hidden in his tent, with the silver under it.

23 And they took them from the midst of the tent, brought them to Joshua and to all the children of Israel, and laid them out before the LORD.

Sanctified After Judgment

When we experience God's discipline our first desire ought to be to return to Him. Only a repentant, cleansed life can bring a halt to God's judgment and restore the joy of our salvation.

7:4 Three thousand men was a small fraction of the military force available to the Israelites. The limited size of the army reflected their total confidence, especially in light of their spectacular victory over Jericho.

7:5 Thirty-six casualties was relatively light in comparison to the manpower of a nation and the life and death struggles in which they were engaged. Yet it represented the people's first defeat under Joshua and could serve as an ominous sign of worse things to come.

7:9 "Great name" was God's reputation. Joshua knew God's reputation was important and that God protected His own name.

7:12 The debacle at Ai clearly revealed that God's powerful presence would not remain upon a people who embraced sin.

7:13 "Sanctify yourselves" See Josh. 3:5.

7:21 "Babylonian" is literally "Shinar." Two hundred shekels of silver is approximately eighty ounces. Fifty shekels would be twenty ounces. A shekel was the basic unit of weight for coins. It weighed slightly more than 0.4 ounces.

24 Then Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, the silver, the garment, the wedge of gold, his sons, his daughters, his oxen, his donkeys, his sheep, his tent, and [a]all that he had, and they brought them to [b]the Valley of Achor.
25 And Joshua said, [a]"Why have you troubled us? The LORD will trouble you this day." [b]So all Israel stoned him with stones; and they burned them with fire after they had stoned them with stones.
26 Then they [a]raised over him a great heap of stones, still there to this day. So [b]the LORD turned from the fierceness of His anger. Therefore the name of that place has been called [c]the Valley of [1]Achor to this day.

The Fall of Ai

8 Now the LORD said to Joshua: [a]"Do not be afraid, nor be dismayed; take all the people of war with you, and arise, go up to Ai. See, [b]I have given into your hand the king of Ai, his people, his city, and his land.

ENCOUNTER Note Josh. 8:1

No Fear!

A word from God can dispel all fear and worry. A word from God changes everything!

2 "And you shall do to Ai and its king as you did to [a]Jericho and its king. Only [b]its spoil and its cattle you shall take as booty for yourselves. Lay an ambush for the city behind it."
3 So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up against Ai; and Joshua chose thirty thousand mighty men of valor and sent them away by night.
4 And he commanded them, saying: "Behold, [a]you shall lie in ambush against the city, behind the city. Do not go very far from the city, but all of you be ready.
5 "Then I and all the people who are with me will approach the city; and it will come about, when they come out against us as at the first, that [a]we shall flee before them.
6 "For they will come out after us till we have drawn them from the city, for they will say, 'They are fleeing before us as at the first.' Therefore we will flee before them.
7 "Then you shall rise from the ambush and seize the city, for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand.
8 "And it will be, when you have taken the city, that you shall set the city on fire. According to the commandment of the LORD you shall do. [a]See, I have commanded you."
9 Joshua therefore sent them out; and they went to lie in ambush, and stayed between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of Ai; but Joshua lodged that night among the people.
10 Then Joshua rose up early in the morning and mustered the people, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai.
11 [a]And all the people of war who were with him went up and drew near; and they came before the city and camped on the north side of Ai. Now a valley lay between them and Ai.
12 So he took about five thousand men and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of [1]the city.
13 And when they had set the people, all the army that was on the north of the city, and its rear guard on the west of the city, Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley.
14 Now it happened, when the king of Ai saw it, that the men of the city hurried and rose early and went out against Israel to battle, he and all his people, at an appointed place before the plain. But he [a]did not know that there was an ambush against him behind the city.
15 And Joshua and all Israel [a]made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness.
16 So all the people who were in Ai were called together to pursue them. And they pursued Joshua and were drawn away from the city.
17 There was not a man left in Ai or Bethel who did not go out after Israel. So they left the city open and pursued Israel.
18 Then the LORD said to Joshua, "Stretch out the spear that is in your hand toward Ai, for I will give it into your hand." And Joshua stretched out the spear that was in his hand toward the city.
19 So those in ambush arose quickly out of their place; they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand, and they entered the city and took it, and hurried to set the city on fire.

7:24 "Achor" means "Trouble."

8:1 The term "people of war" is somewhat unusual. Normally it would be "men of war." Perhaps God was indicating that all of His people were engaged in the holy conflict.

8:2 In an ironic twist, God allowed the Israelites to keep all the plunder from the city of Ai. If Achan had been patient, he might have legitimately enjoyed the spoils of war and the luxurious prosperity of the Promised Land.

8:19 God commanded the Israelites to burn just three cities: Jericho, Ai, and Hazor. These were devoted to God and became an example to the surrounding kingdoms. Generally the Israelites' battles occurred on the battlefields, and they were able to occupy the cities and villages without mass destruction.

20 And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and behold, the smoke of the city ascended to heaven. So they had no power to flee this way or that way, and the people who had fled to the wilderness turned back on the pursuers.
21 Now when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city and that the smoke of the city ascended, they turned back and struck down the men of Ai.
22 Then the others came out of the city against them; so they were caught in the midst of Israel, some on this side and some on that side. And they struck them down, so that they [a]let none of them remain or escape.
23 But the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.
24 And it came to pass when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness where they pursued them, and when they all had fallen by the edge of the sword until they were consumed, that all the Israelites returned to Ai and struck it with the edge of the sword.
25 So it was that all who fell that day, both men and women, were twelve thousand—all the people of Ai.
26 For Joshua did not draw back his hand, with which he stretched out the spear, until he had [a]utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.
27 [a]Only the livestock and the spoil of that city Israel took as booty for themselves, according to the word of the LORD which He had [b]commanded Joshua.
28 So Joshua burned Ai and made it [a]a heap forever, a desolation to this day.
29 [a]And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree until evening. [b]And as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his corpse down from the tree, cast it at the entrance of the gate of the city, and [c]raise over it a great heap of stones that remains to this day.

Joshua Renews the Covenant

30 Now Joshua built an altar to the LORD God of Israel [a]in Mount Ebal, 31 as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the Book of the Law of Moses: [a]"an altar of whole stones over which no man has wielded an iron tool."

After Success

Our commitment to God must be continually renewed. After experiencing victory, we desperately need to hear from God and to acknowledge His miraculous intervention. God's activity in our lives ought never to be taken for granted.

And [b]they offered on it burnt offerings to the LORD, and sacrificed peace offerings.
32 And there, in the presence of the children of Israel, [a]he wrote on the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he had written.
33 Then all Israel, with their elders and officers and judges, stood on either side of the ark before the priests, the Levites, [a]who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, [b]the stranger as well as he who was born among them. Half of them were in front of Mount Gerizim and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, [c]as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded before, that they should bless the people of Israel.
34 And afterward [a]he read all the words of the law, [b]the blessings and the cursings, according to all that is written in the [c]Book of the Law.
35 There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded which Joshua did not read before all the assembly of Israel, [a]with the women, the little ones, [b]and the strangers who were living among them.

The Treaty with the Gibeonites

9 And it came to pass when [a]all the kings who were on this side of the Jordan, in the hills and in the lowland and in all the coasts of [b]the Great Sea toward Lebanon—[c]the Hittite, the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite—heard about it,
2 that they [a]gathered together to fight with Joshua and Israel with one [1]accord.
3 But when the inhabitants of [a]Gibeon [b]heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and Ai,
4 they worked craftily, and went and

8:26 By holding up his spear, Joshua was giving the command for total destruction. Holding the spear upright also signified it was God who was with them giving them victory. This paralleled Moses' intercession against the Amalekites (Ex. 17:8–16).

8:29 The king's body was removed so as not to violate God's law (Deut. 21:22, 23).

8:30 Mt. Ebal is thirty miles from Ai.

8:35 It was critical for God's people to hear God's word publicly read.

7 Then the men of Israel said to the [a]Hivites, "Perhaps you dwell among us; so [b]how can we make a covenant with you?"
8 But they said to Joshua, [a]"We are your servants." And Joshua said to them, "Who are you, and where do you come from?"
9 So they said to him: [a]"From a very far country your servants have come, because of the name of the LORD your God; for we have [b]heard of His fame, and all that He did in Egypt,
10 "and [a]all that He did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan—to Sihon king of Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, who was at Ashtaroth.
11 "Therefore our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spoke to us, saying, 'Take provisions with you for the journey, and go to meet them, and say to them, "We are your servants; now therefore, make a covenant with us." '
12 "This bread of ours we took hot for our provision from our houses on the day we departed to come to you. But now look, it is dry and moldy.
13 "And these wineskins which we filled were new, and see, they are torn; and these our garments and our sandals have become old because of the very long journey."

No Need for God

It is tempting to think we do not need God's help in simple, straightforward tasks. Yet commonplace events can sorely test our faith.

15 So Joshua [a]made peace with them, and made a covenant with them to let them live; and the rulers of the congregation swore to them.
16 And it happened at the end of three days, after they had made a covenant with them, that they heard that they were their neighbors who dwelt near them.
17 Then the children of Israel journeyed and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities were [a]Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kirjath Jearim.
18 But the children of Israel did not [1]attack them, [a]because the rulers of the congregation had sworn to them by the LORD God of Israel. And all the congregation complained against the rulers.
19 Then all the rulers said to all the congregation, "We have sworn to them by the LORD God of Israel; now therefore, we may not touch them.
20 "This we will do to them: We will let them live, lest [a]wrath be upon us because of the oath which we swore to them."
21 And the rulers said to them, "Let them live, but let them be [a]woodcutters and water carriers for all the congregation, as the rulers had [b]promised them."
22 Then Joshua called for them, and he spoke to them, saying, "Why have you deceived us, saying, [a]'We are very far from you,' when [b]you dwell near us?
23 "Now therefore, you are [a]cursed, and none of you shall be freed from being slaves—woodcutters and water carriers for the house of my God."
24 So they answered Joshua and said, "Because your servants were clearly told that the LORD your God [a]commanded His servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you; therefore [b]we were very much afraid for our lives because of you, and have done this thing.
25 "And now, here we are, [a]in your hands; do with us as it seems good and right to do to us."
26 So he did to them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, so that they did not kill them.
27 And that day Joshua made them [a]woodcutters and water carriers for the congregation and for the altar of the LORD, [b]in the place which He would choose, even to this day.

9:7 Hivites were among those listed by God for destruction (Ex. 34:11; Deut. 20:17; Josh. 3:10).

9:17 Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kirjath Jearim were located close to Gibeon.

9:21 Later, when King Saul attacked the Gibeonites, God sent a famine to punish Israel (2 Sam. 21:1).

9:27 The Gibeonites eventually became fully assimilated into Israel (Neh. 3:7; 7:25).

The Sun Stands Still

10 Now it came to pass when Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem [a]heard how Joshua had taken [b]Ai and had utterly destroyed it—[c]as he had done to Jericho and its king, so he had done to [d]Ai and its king—and [e]how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were among them,
2 that they [a]feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, like one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all its men were mighty.
3 Therefore Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem sent to Hoham king of Hebron, Piram king of Jarmuth, Japhia king of Lachish, and Debir king of Eglon, saying,
4 "Come up to me and help me, that we may attack Gibeon, for [a]it has made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel."
5 Therefore the five kings of the [a]Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon, [b]gathered together and went up, they and all their armies, and camped before Gibeon and made war against it.
6 And the men of Gibeon sent to Joshua at the camp [a]at Gilgal, saying, "Do not forsake your servants; come up to us quickly, save us and help us, for all the kings of the Amorites who dwell in the mountains have gathered together against us."
7 So Joshua ascended from Gilgal, he and [a]all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valor.
8 And the LORD said to Joshua, [a]"Do not fear them, for I have delivered them into your hand; [b]not a man of them shall [c]stand before you."
9 Joshua therefore came upon them suddenly, having marched all night from Gilgal.
10 So the LORD [a]routed them before Israel, killed them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, chased them along the road that goes [b]to Beth Horon, and struck them down as far as [c]Azekah and Makkedah.
11 And it happened, as they fled before Israel and were on the descent of Beth Horon, [a]that the LORD cast down large hailstones from heaven on them as far as Azekah, and they died. There were more who died from the hailstones than the children of Israel killed with the sword.
12 Then Joshua spoke to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel:

[a]"Sun, stand still over Gibeon;
And Moon, in the Valley of [b]Aijalon."

ENCOUNTER Note Josh. 10:12

Prayer that Moves Mountains

Prayer is primarily designed to change us. Yet when we intercede with God to achieve God's purposes, nothing is impossible.

13 So the sun stood still,
And the moon stopped,
Till the people had revenge
Upon their enemies.

[a]Is this not written in the Book of Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and did not hasten to go down for about a whole day.
14 And there has been [a]no day like that, before it or after it, that the LORD heeded the voice of a man; for [b]the LORD fought for Israel.
15 [a]Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

The Amorite Kings Executed

16 But these five kings had fled and hidden themselves in a cave at Makkedah.
17 And it was told Joshua, saying, "The five kings have been found hidden in the cave at Makkedah."
18 So Joshua said, "Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave, and set men by it to guard them.
19 "And do not stay there yourselves, but pursue your enemies, and attack their rear guard. Do not allow them to enter their cities, for the LORD your God has delivered them into your hand."
20 Then it happened, while Joshua and the children of Israel made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, till they had finished, that those who escaped entered fortified cities.
21 And all the people returned to the camp, to Joshua at Makkedah, in peace. [a]No one [1]moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel.

10:12 Aijalon is seven to ten miles west of Gibeon.
10:13 Book of Jasher is an extrabiblical book (2 Sam. 1:18).
10:14 "Heeded" is literally "obeyed."
10:21 Literally, "no one sharpened his tongue."

22 Then Joshua said, "Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five kings to me from the cave."
23 And they did so, and brought out those five kings to him from the cave: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.
24 So it was, when they brought out those kings to Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said to the captains of the men of war who went with him, "Come near, put your feet on the necks of these kings." And they drew near and [a]put their feet on their necks.
25 Then Joshua said to [1]them, [a]"Do not be afraid, nor be dismayed; be strong and of good courage, for [b]thus the LORD will do to all your enemies against whom you fight."
26 And afterward Joshua struck [1]them and killed them, and hanged them on five trees; and they [a]were hanging on the trees until evening.
27 So it was at the time of the going down of the sun that Joshua commanded, and they [a]took them down from the trees, cast them into the cave where they had been hidden, and laid large stones against the cave's mouth, which remain until this very day.

Conquest of the Southland

28 On that day Joshua took Makkedah, and struck it and its king with the edge of the sword. He utterly [a]destroyed [1]them—all the people who were in it. He let none remain. He also did to the king of Makkedah [b]as he had done to the king of Jericho.
29 Then Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, to [a]Libnah; and they fought against Libnah.
30 And the LORD also delivered it and its king into the hand of Israel; he struck it and all the people who were in it with the edge of the sword. He let none remain in it, but did to its king as he had done to the king of Jericho.
31 Then Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, to Lachish; and they encamped against it and fought against it.
32 And the LORD delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel, who took it on the second day, and struck it and all the people who were in it with the edge of the sword, according to all that he had done to Libnah.
33 Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua struck him and his people, until he left him none remaining.
34 From Lachish Joshua passed to Eglon, and all Israel with him; and they encamped against it and fought against it.
35 They took it on that day and struck it with the edge of the sword; all the people who were in it he utterly destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.
36 So Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him, to [a]Hebron; and they fought against it.
37 And they took it and struck it with the edge of the sword—its king, all its cities, and all the people who were in it; he left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon, but utterly destroyed it and all the people who were in it.
38 Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to [a]Debir; and they fought against it.
39 And he took it and its king and all its cities; they struck them with the edge of the sword and utterly destroyed all the people who were in it. He left none remaining; as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir and its king, as he had done also to Libnah and its king.
40 So Joshua conquered all the land: the [a]mountain country and the [1]South and the lowland and the wilderness slopes, and [b]all their kings; he left none remaining, but [c]utterly destroyed all that breathed, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded.

41 And Joshua conquered them from [a]Kadesh Barnea as far as [b]Gaza, [c]and all the country of Goshen, even as far as Gibeon.
42 All these kings and their land Joshua took at one time, [a]because the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel.

Victory

A mark of God's guidance is victory. Constant defeat ought to drive us back to God to seek the reason for our failure.

43 Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

The Northern Conquest

11 And it came to pass, when Jabin king of Hazor heard these things, that he [a]sent to Jobab king of Madon, to the king [b]of Shimron, to the king of Achshaph,
2 and to the kings who were from the north, in the mountains, in the plain south of [a]Chinneroth, in the lowland, and in the heights [b]of Dor on the west,
3 to the Canaanites in the east and in the west, the [a]Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Jebusite in the mountains, [b]and the Hivite below [c]Hermon [d]in the land of Mizpah.
4 So they went out, they and all their armies with them, as many people [a]as the sand that is on the seashore in multitude, with very many horses and chariots.
5 And when all these kings had [1]met together, they came and camped together at the waters of Merom to fight against Israel.
6 But the LORD said to Joshua, [a]"Do not be afraid because of them, for tomorrow about this time I will deliver all of them slain before Israel. You shall [b]hamstring their horses and burn their chariots with fire."

Moments of Crisis

Why does God allow His children to suffer at the hands of their enemies? Moments of crisis are timely opportunities for God's children to hear from Him and to respond in faith and obedience.

7 So Joshua and all the people of war with him came against them suddenly by the waters of Merom, and they attacked them.
8 And the LORD delivered them into the hand of Israel, who defeated them and chased them to [1]Greater [a]Sidon, to the [2]Brook [b]Misrephoth, and to the Valley of Mizpah eastward; they attacked them until they left none of them remaining.
9 So Joshua did to them as the LORD had told him: he hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots with fire.
10 Joshua turned back at that time and took Hazor, and struck its king with the sword; for Hazor was formerly the head of all those kingdoms.
11 And they struck all the people who were in it with the edge of the sword, [a]utterly destroying them. There was none left [b]breathing. Then he burned Hazor with fire.
12 So all the cities of those kings, and all their kings, Joshua took and struck with the edge of the sword. He utterly destroyed them, [a]as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded.
13 But as for the cities that stood on their [1]mounds, Israel burned none of them, except Hazor only, which Joshua burned.

11:1 Hazor is eight miles north of the Sea of Galilee.
11:2 Chinneroth is the Sea of Galilee.
11:11 Hazor was one of only three cities burned to the ground.

14 And all the [a]spoil of these cities and the livestock, the children of Israel took as booty for themselves; but they struck every man with the edge of the sword until they had destroyed them, and they left none breathing.
15 [a]As the LORD had commanded Moses his servant, so [b]Moses commanded Joshua, and [c]so Joshua did. [1]He left nothing undone of all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

Summary of Joshua's Conquests

16 Thus Joshua took all this land: [a]the mountain country, all the South, [b]all the land of Goshen, the lowland, and the Jordan [1]plain—the mountains of Israel and its lowlands,
17 [a]from [1]Mount Halak and the ascent to Seir, even as far as Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon below Mount Hermon. He captured [b]all their kings, and struck them down and killed them.
18 Joshua made war a long time with all those kings.
19 There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, except [a]the Hivites, the inhabitants of Gibeon. All the others they took in battle.
20 For [a]it was of the LORD [1]to harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle, that He might utterly destroy them, and that they might receive no mercy, but that He might destroy them, [b]as the LORD had commanded Moses.

ENCOUNTER Note Josh. 11:20

Hardened Hearts

Trust God to choose whatever method He wishes to reveal Himself to a watching world.

21 And at that time Joshua came and cut off [a]the Anakim from the mountains: from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, from all the mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Israel; Joshua utterly destroyed them with their cities.
22 None of the Anakim were left in the land of the children of Israel; they remained only [a]in Gaza, in Gath, [b]and in Ashdod.
23 So Joshua took the whole land, [a]according to all that the LORD had said to Moses; and Joshua gave it as an inheritance to Israel [b]according to their divisions by their tribes. Then the land [c]rested from war.

The Kings Conquered by Moses

12 These are the kings of the land whom the children of Israel defeated, and whose land they possessed on the other side of the Jordan toward the rising of the sun, [a]from the River Arnon [b]to Mount Hermon, and all the eastern Jordan plain:
2 One king was [a]Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon and ruled half of Gilead, from Aroer, which is on the bank of the River Arnon, from the middle of that river, even as far as the River Jabbok, which is the border of the Ammonites,
3 and [a]the eastern Jordan plain from the [1]Sea of Chinneroth as far as the [2]Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea), [b]the road to Beth Jeshimoth, and [3]southward below [c]the[4] slopes of Pisgah.
4 The other king was [a]Og king of Bashan and his territory, who was of [b]the remnant of the giants, [c]who dwelt at Ashtaroth and at Edrei,
5 and reigned over [a]Mount Hermon, [b]over Salcah, over all Bashan, [c]as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maachathites, and over half of Gilead to the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.
6 [a]These Moses the servant of the LORD and the children of Israel had conquered; and [b]Moses the servant of the LORD had given it as a possession to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh.

The Kings Conquered by Joshua

7 And these are the kings of the country [a]which Joshua and the children of Israel conquered on this side of the Jordan, on the west, from Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon as far as [1]Mount Halak and the ascent to [b]Seir, which Joshua [c]gave to the tribes of Israel as a possession according to their divisions,
8 [a]in the mountain country, in the lowlands, in the Jordan plain, in the slopes, in the wilderness, and in the South—[b]the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites:

Continual Victory

God intends to give victory to those who trust Him. If you consistently trust God over the course of your lifetime, you will see God accomplish a series of great and mighty victories through you.

Remaining Land to Be Conquered

13 Now Joshua [a]was old, advanced in years. And the LORD said to him: "You are old, advanced in years, and there remains very much land yet to be possessed.
2 [a]"This is the land that yet remains: [b]all the territory of the Philistines and all [c]that of the Geshurites,
3 [a]"from Sihor, which is east of Egypt, as far as the border of Ekron northward (which is counted as Canaanite); the [b]five lords of the Philistines—the Gazites, the Ashdodites, the Ashkelonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites; also [c]the Avites;
4 "from the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah that belongs to the Sidonians [a]as far as Aphek, to the border of [b]the Amorites;
5 "the land of [a]the [1]Gebalites, and all Lebanon, toward the sunrise, [b]from Baal Gad below Mount Hermon as far as the entrance to Hamath;
6 "all the inhabitants of the mountains from Lebanon as far as [a]the [1]Brook Misrephoth, and all the Sidonians—them [b]I will drive out from before the children of Israel; only [c]divide[2] it by lot to Israel as an inheritance, as I have commanded you.
7 "Now therefore, divide this land as an inheritance to the nine tribes and half the tribe of Manasseh."

The Land Divided East of the Jordan

8 With the other half-tribe the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance, [a]which Moses had given them, [b]beyond the Jordan eastward, as Moses the servant of the LORD had given them:
9 from Aroer which is on the bank of the River Arnon, and the town that is in the midst of the ravine, [a]and all the plain of Medeba as far as Dibon;
10 [a]all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, as far as the border of the children of Ammon;
11 [a]Gilead, and the border of the Geshurites and Maachathites, all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan as far as Salcah;
12 all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and Edrei, who remained of [a]the remnant of the giants; [b]for Moses had [1]defeated and [2]cast out these.
13 Nevertheless the children of Israel [a]did not drive out the Geshurites or the Maachathites, but the Geshurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Israelites until this day.
14 [a]Only to the tribe of Levi he had given [1]no inheritance; the sacrifices of the LORD God of Israel made by fire are their inheritance, [b]as He said to them.

The Land of Reuben

15 [a]And Moses had given to the tribe of the children of Reuben an inheritance according to their families.
16 Their territory was [a]from Aroer, which is on the bank of the River Arnon, [b]and the city that is in the midst of the ravine, [c]and all the plain by Medeba;

21 [a]all the cities of the plain and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, [b]whom Moses had struck [c]with the princes of Midian: Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, who were princes of Sihon dwelling in the country.
22 The children of Israel also killed with the sword [a]Balaam the son of Beor, the [1]soothsayer, among those who were killed by them.
23 And the border of the children of Reuben was the bank of the Jordan. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben according to their families, the cities and their villages.

The Land of Gad

24 [a]Moses also had given an inheritance to the tribe of Gad, to the children of Gad according to their families.
25 [a]Their territory was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, [b]and half the land of the Ammonites as far as Aroer, which is before [c]Rabbah,
26 and from Heshbon to Ramath Mizpah and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the border of Debir,
27 and in the valley [a]Beth Haram, Beth Nimrah, [b]Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, with the Jordan as its border, as far as the edge [c]of the [1]Sea of Chinnereth, on the other side of the Jordan eastward.
28 This is the inheritance of the children of Gad according to their families, the cities and their villages.

Half the Tribe of Manasseh (East)

29 [a]Moses also had given an inheritance to half the tribe of Manasseh; it was for half the tribe of the children of Manasseh according to their families:
30 Their territory was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and [a]all the towns of Jair which are in Bashan, sixty cities;
31 half of Gilead, and [a]Ashtaroth and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were for the [b]children of Machir the son of Manasseh, for half of the children of Machir according to their families.
32 These are the areas which Moses had [1]distributed as an inheritance in the plains of Moab on the other side of the Jordan, by Jericho eastward.
33 [a]But to the tribe of Levi Moses had given no inheritance; the LORD God of Israel was their inheritance, [b]as He had said to them.

With God as your Father you have everything you could possibly need. Dissatisfaction is a sign you do not understand your inheritance as God's child.

The Land Divided West of the Jordan

CHAPTER 14

14 These are the areas which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, [a]which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel distributed as an inheritance to them.
2 Their inheritance was [a]by lot, as the LORD had commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes and the half-tribe.
3 [a]For Moses had given the inheritance of the two tribes and the half-tribe on the other side of the Jordan; but to the Levites he had given no inheritance among them.
4 For [a]the children of Joseph were two tribes: Manasseh and Ephraim. And they gave no part to the Levites in the land, except [b]cities to dwell in, with their common-lands for their livestock and their property.
5 [a]As the LORD had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did; and they divided the land.

Caleb Inherits Hebron

6 Then the children of Judah came to Joshua in Gilgal. And Caleb the son of Jephunneh the [a]Kenizzite said to him: "You know [b]the word which the LORD said to Moses the man of God concerning [c]you and me in Kadesh Barnea.

14:1 Eleazar was the son and successor of Aaron and high priest of Israel (Ex. 6:25; Num. 20:25–28).
14:6 Kenizzites, perhaps "sons of Kenaz," may have descended from Esau through Kenaz (Gen. 15:19; 36:11, 15, 42). They had joined the Israelites. Caleb's family may have lived among the Israelites for only a generation or two. They had been incorporated into the tribe of Judah.

7 "I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD [a]sent me from Kadesh Barnea to spy out the land, and I brought back word to him as it was in my heart.
8 "Nevertheless [a]my brethren who went up with me made the [1]heart of the people melt, but I wholly [b]followed the LORD my God.
9 "So Moses swore on that day, saying, [a]'Surely the land [b]where your foot has trodden shall be your inheritance and your children's forever, because you have wholly followed the LORD my God.'
10 "And now, behold, the LORD has kept me [a]alive, [b]as He said, these forty-five years, ever since the LORD spoke this word to Moses while Israel [1]wandered in the wilderness; and now, here I am this day, eighty-five years old.

Wholly Following the Lord

Wholeheartedly following the Lord involves determined, focused effort. You cannot seek to please others and wholly follow the Lord. You cannot protect your interests and guard your comforts and still fervently follow God. It is impossible to remain proud and wholly follow God.

14:10 Forty-five years consisted of forty years in the wilderness and five years conquering Canaan.

Josh. 14:1 The Twelve Tribes in Canaan

11 [a]"As yet I am as strong this day as on the day that Moses sent me; just as my strength was then, so now is my strength for war, both [b]for going out and for coming in.
12 "Now therefore, give me this mountain of which the LORD spoke in that day; for you heard in that day how [a]the Anakim were there, and that the cities were great and fortified. [b]It may be that the LORD will be with me, and [c]I shall be able to drive them out as the LORD said."
13 And Joshua [a]blessed him, [b]and gave Hebron to Caleb the son of Jephunneh as an inheritance.
14 [a]Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite to this day, because he [b]wholly followed the LORD God of Israel.
15 And [a]the name of Hebron formerly was Kirjath Arba (Arba was the greatest man among the Anakim). [b]Then the land had rest from war.

The Land of Judah

15 So this was the [1]lot of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families: [a]The border of Edom at the [b]Wilderness of Zin southward was the extreme southern boundary.
2 And their [a]southern border began at the shore of the Salt Sea, from the bay that faces southward.
3 Then it went out to the southern side of [a]the Ascent of Akrabbim, passed along to Zin, ascended on the south side of Kadesh Barnea, passed along to Hezron, went up to Adar, and went around to Karkaa.
4 From there it passed [a]toward Azmon and went out to the Brook of Egypt; and the border ended at the sea. This shall be your southern border.
5 The east border was the Salt Sea as far as the mouth of the Jordan. And the [a]border on the northern quarter began at the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan.
6 The border went up to [a]Beth Hoglah and passed north of Beth Arabah; and the border went up [b]to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben.
7 Then the border went up toward [a]Debir from [b]the Valley of Achor, and it turned northward toward Gilgal, which is before the Ascent of Adummim, which is on the south side of the valley. The border continued toward the waters of En Shemesh and ended at [c]En Rogel.
8 And the border went up [a]by the Valley of the Son of Hinnom to the southern slope of the [b]Jebusite city (which is Jerusalem). The border went up to the top of the mountain that lies before the Valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the end of the Valley [c]of [1]Rephaim northward.
9 Then the border went around from the top of the hill to [a]the fountain of the water of Nephtoah, and extended to the cities of Mount Ephron. And the border went around [b]to Baalah (which is [c]Kirjath Jearim).
10 Then the border [1]turned westward from Baalah to Mount Seir, passed along to the side of Mount Jearim on the north (which is Chesalon), went down to Beth Shemesh, and passed on to [a]Timnah.
11 And the border went out to the side of [a]Ekron northward. Then the border went around to Shicron, passed along to Mount Baalah, and extended to Jabneel; and the border ended at the sea.
12 The west border was [a]the coastline of the Great Sea. This is the boundary of the children of Judah all around according to their families.

Caleb Occupies Hebron and Debir

13 [a]Now to Caleb the son of Jephunneh he gave a share among the children of [b]Judah, according to the commandment of the LORD to Joshua, namely, [c]Kirjath Arba, which is Hebron (Arba was the father of Anak).
14 Caleb drove out [a]the three sons of Anak from there: [b]Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai, the children of Anak.
15 Then [a]he went up from there to the inhabitants of Debir (formerly the name of Debir was Kirjath Sepher).
16 [a]And Caleb said, "He who [1]attacks Kirjath Sepher and takes it, to him I will give Achsah my daughter as wife."
17 So [a]Othniel the [b]son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it; and he gave him [c]Achsah his daughter as wife.
18 [a]Now it was so, when she came to him, that she persuaded him to ask her father for a field. So [b]she dismounted from her donkey, and Caleb said to her, "What do you wish?"
19 She answered, "Give me a [a]blessing; since you have given me land in the South, give me also springs of water." So he gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

Listing Our Inheritance

God regularly expresses His love for us through the protection and provision He gives us. It is imperative that we keep an account of all God has given us lest we inadvertently commit the sin of ingratitude toward our benevolent and generous Provider.

21 The cities at the limits of the tribe of the children of Judah, toward the border of Edom in the South, were Kabzeel, [a]Eder, Jagur,
22 Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah,
23 Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan,
24 [a]Ziph, Telem, Bealoth,
25 Hazor, Hadattah, Kerioth, Hezron (which is Hazor),
26 Amam, Shema, Moladah,
27 Hazar Gaddah, Heshmon, Beth Pelet,
28 Hazar Shual, [a]Beersheba, Bizjothjah,
29 Baalah, Ijim, Ezem,
30 Eltolad, Chesil, [a]Hormah,
31 [a]Ziklag, Madmannah, Sansannah,
32 Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain, and [a]Rimmon: all the cities are twenty-nine, with their villages.
33 In the lowland: [a]Eshtaol, Zorah, Ashnah,
34 Zanoah, En Gannim, Tappuah, Enam,
35 Jarmuth, [a]Adullam, Socoh, Azekah,
36 Sharaim, Adithaim, Gederah, and Gederothaim: fourteen cities with their villages;
37 Zenan, Hadashah, Migdal Gad,
38 Dilean, Mizpah, [a]Joktheel,
39 [a]Lachish, Bozkath, [b]Eglon,
40 Cabbon, [1]Lahmas, Kithlish,
41 Gederoth, Beth Dagon, Naamah, and Makkedah: sixteen cities with their villages;
42 [a]Libnah, Ether, Ashan,
43 Jiphtah, Ashnah, Nezib,
44 Keilah, Achzib, and Mareshah: nine cities with their villages;
45 Ekron, with its towns and villages;
46 from Ekron to the sea, all that lay near [a]Ashdod, with their villages;
47 Ashdod with its towns and villages, Gaza with its towns and villages—as far as [a]the Brook of Egypt and [b]the Great Sea with its coastline.
48 And in the mountain country: Shamir, Jattir, Sochoh,
49 Dannah, Kirjath Sannah (which is Debir),
50 Anab, Eshtemoh, Anim,
51 [a]Goshen, Holon, and Giloh: eleven cities with their villages;
52 Arab, Dumah, Eshean,
53 Janum, Beth Tappuah, Aphekah,
54 Humtah, [a]Kirjath Arba (which is Hebron), and Zior: nine cities with their villages;
55 [a]Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah,
56 Jezreel, Jokdeam, Zanoah,
57 Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah: ten cities with their villages;
58 Halhul, Beth Zur, Gedor,
59 Maarath, Beth Anoth, and Eltekon: six cities with their villages;
60 [a]Kirjath Baal (which is Kirjath Jearim) and Rabbah: two cities with their villages.
61 In the wilderness: Beth Arabah, Middin, Secacah,
62 Nibshan, the City of Salt, and [a]En Gedi: six cities with their villages.
63 As for the Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, [a]the children of Judah could not drive them out; [b]but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Judah at Jerusalem to this day.

Ephraim and West Manasseh

16 The lot [1]fell to the children of Joseph from the Jordan, by Jericho, to the waters of Jericho on the east, to the [a]wilderness that goes up from Jericho through the mountains to [2]Bethel,
2 then went out [1]from [a]Bethel to Luz, passed along to the border of the Archites at Ataroth,
3 and went down westward to the boundary of the Japhletites, [a]as far as the boundary of Lower Beth Horon to [b]Gezer; and [1]it ended at the sea.
4 [a]So the children of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, took their [1]inheritance.

The Land of Ephraim

5 [a]The border of the children of Ephraim, according to their families, was thus: The border of their inheritance on the east side was [b]Ataroth Addar [c]as far as Upper Beth Horon.
6 And the border went out toward the sea on the north side of [a]Michmethath; then the border went around eastward to Taanath Shiloh, and passed by it on the east of Janohah.
7 Then it went down from Janohah to Ataroth and [1]Naarah, reached to Jericho, and came out at the Jordan.

tance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim according to their families.
9 [a]The separate cities for the children of Ephraim were among the inheritance of the children of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages.
10 [a]And they did not drive out the Canaanites who dwelt in Gezer; but the Canaanites dwell among the Ephraimites to this day and have become forced laborers.

ENCOUNTER Note Josh. 16:10

Partial Obedience

God intends for us to obey Him completely. When we do not, God allows us to live with the consequences. We leave tasks unfinished. God does not.

The Other Half-Tribe of Manasseh (West)

17 There was also a lot for the tribe of Manasseh, for he was the [a]first-born of Joseph: namely for [b]Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, because he was a man of war;
therefore he was given [c]Gilead and Bashan.
2 And there was a lot for [a]the rest of the children of Manasseh according to their families: [b]for the children of [1]Abiezer, the children of Helek, [c]the children of Asriel, the children of Shechem, [d]the children of Hepher, and the children of Shemida; these were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph according to their families.
3 But [a]Zelophehad the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but only daughters. And these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.
4 And they came near before [a]Eleazar the priest, before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the rulers, saying, [b]"The LORD commanded Moses to give us an [1]inheritance among our brothers." Therefore, according to the commandment of the LORD, he gave them an inheritance among their father's brothers.

5 Ten shares fell to [a]Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which were on the other side of the Jordan, 6 because the daughters of Manasseh received an inheritance among his sons; and the rest of Manasseh's sons had the land of Gilead.
7 And the territory of Manasseh was from Asher to [a]Michmethath, that lies east of Shechem; and the border went along south to the inhabitants of En Tap-puah.
8 Manasseh had the land of Tappuah, but [a]Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the children of Ephraim.
9 And the [1]border descended to the [2]Brook Kanah, southward to the brook.
[a]These cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasseh. The border of Manasseh was on the north side of the brook; and it ended at the sea.
10 Southward it was Ephraim's, northward it was Manasseh's, and the sea was its border. Manasseh's territory was adjoining Asher on the north and Is-sachar on the east.
11 And in Issachar and in Asher,
[a]Manasseh had [b]Beth Shean and its towns, Ibleam and its towns, the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, the inhabitants of En Dor and its towns, the inhabitants of Taanach and its towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns—three hilly regions.
12 Yet [a]the children of Manasseh could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities, but the Canaanites were determined to dwell in that land.

ENCOUNTER Note Josh. 17:12

Persistent Enemies

God's enemies may not defeat you in face-to-face confrontation, but they may covertly invade your life and wear you down gradually, day by day. Ultimately your victory depends on your absolute trust in and obedience to His word.

13 And it happened, when the children of Israel grew strong, that they put the Canaanites to [a]forced labor, but did not utterly drive them out.

12 [a]Judg. 1:19, 27, 28
13 [a]Josh. 16:10

16:10 God commanded the Israelites to utterly destroy the Canaanites (Deut. 20:16–18). By merely reducing them to forced labor the Israelites were allowing pagan idol worship to remain in the land to be a constant temptation to them.

17:1 Machir was Manasseh's firstborn child (Gen. 50:23; Num. 26:29). He had already received his inheritance in Gilead and Bashan (Josh. 13:29–31).

17:3 Joshua kept the promise made by Moses, reflecting God's faithfulness in keeping all of His promises (Num. 26:33; 27:1–11).

More Land for Ephraim and Manasseh

14 [a]Then the children of Joseph spoke to Joshua, saying, "Why have you given us only [b]one [1]lot and one share to inherit, since we are [c]a great people, inasmuch as the LORD has blessed us until now?"
15 So Joshua answered them, "If you are a great people, then go up to the forest country and clear a place for yourself there in the land of the Perizzites and the giants, since the mountains of Ephraim are too confined for you."
16 But the children of Joseph said, "The mountain country is not enough for us; and all the Canaanites who dwell in the land of the valley have [a]chariots of iron, both those who are of Beth Shean and its towns and those who are [b]of the Valley of Jezreel."
17 And Joshua spoke to the house of Joseph—to Ephraim and Manasseh—saying, "You are a great people and have great power; you shall not have only one [1]lot,
18 "but the mountain country shall be yours. Although it is wooded, you shall cut it down, and its [1]farthest extent shall be yours; for you shall drive out the Canaanites, [a]though they have iron chariots and are strong."

The Remainder of the Land Divided

18 Now the whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled together [a]at Shiloh, and [b]set up the tabernacle of meeting there. And the land was subdued before them.

ENCOUNTER Note Josh. 18:1

The Tabernacle of Meeting

Almighty God chooses to dwell among His people. He does not force Himself on us, yet He is ever near.

2 But there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes which had not yet received their inheritance.
3 Then Joshua said to the children of Israel: [a]"How long will you neglect to go and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers has given you?
4 "Pick out from among you three men for each tribe, and I will send them; they shall rise and go through the land, survey it according to their inheritance, and come back to me.
5 "And they shall divide it into seven parts. [a]Judah shall remain in their territory on the south, and the [b]house of Joseph shall remain in their territory on the north.
6 "You shall therefore [1]survey the land in seven parts and bring the survey here to me, [a]that I may cast lots for you here before the LORD our God.
7 [a]"But the Levites have no part among you, for the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance. [b]And Gad, Reuben, and half the tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan on the east, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them."
8 Then the men arose to go away; and Joshua charged those who went to [1]survey the land, saying, "Go, walk [a]through the land, survey it, and come back to me, that I may cast lots for you here before the LORD in Shiloh."
9 So the men went, passed through the land, and [1]wrote the survey in a book in seven parts by cities; and they came to Joshua at the camp in Shiloh.
10 Then Joshua cast [a]lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD, and there [b]Joshua divided the land to the children of Israel according to their [1]divisions.

The Land of Benjamin

11 [a]Now the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came up according to their families, and the territory of their lot came out between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph.
12 [a]Their border on the north side began at the Jordan, and the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north, and went up through the mountains westward; it ended at the Wilderness of Beth Aven.
13 The border went over from there toward Luz, to the side of Luz [a](which is Bethel) southward; and the border descended to Ataroth Addar, near the hill that lies on the south side [b]of Lower Beth Horon.
14 Then the border extended around the west side to the south, from the hill that lies before Beth Horon southward; and [1]it ended at [a]Kirjath Baal (which is Kirjath Jearim), a city of the children of Judah. This was the west side.

17:15 "Giants" in Hebrew is "Rephaites." Joshua demonstrated wisdom by granting the Ephraimites a "great" assignment. Since Joshua was from the tribe of Ephraim, he was careful not to show partiality.

17:16 The tribe of Joseph's response was contrary to Caleb's (Josh. 14:6–15).

18:1 Shiloh is fifteen miles northwest of Jerusalem. It became a key religious center (Josh. 19:51; 21:2; Judg. 18:31; 21:12; 1 Sam. 1:9), and was destroyed in 1050 B.C. (see Ps. 78:60; Jer. 7:14).

18:3 Joshua did not intend to personally lead the Israelites to conquer every portion of Canaan. He urged the tribes to possess their own inheritance.

Kirjath Jearim, and the border extended on the west and went out to [a]the spring of the waters of Nephtoah.
16 Then the border came down to the end of the mountain that lies before [a]the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, which is in the Valley of the [1]Rephaim on the north, descended to the Valley of Hinnom, to the side of the Jebusite city on the south, and descended to [b]En Rogel.
17 And it went around from the north, went out to En Shemesh, and extended toward Geliloth, which is before the Ascent of Adummim, and descended to [a]the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben.
18 Then it passed along toward the north side of [1]Arabah, and went down to Arabah.
19 And the border passed along to the north side of Beth Hoglah; then [1]the border ended at the north bay at the [a]Salt Sea, at the south end of the Jordan. This was the southern boundary.
20 The Jordan was its border on the east side. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, according to its boundaries all around, according to their families.
21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin, according to their families, were Jericho, Beth Hoglah, Emek Keziz,
22 Beth Arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel,
23 Avim, Parah, Ophrah,
24 Chephar Haammoni, Ophni, and Gaba: twelve cities with their villages;
25 [a]Gibeon, [b]Ramah, Beeroth,
26 Mizpah, Chephirah, Mozah,
27 Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah,
28 Zelah, Eleph, [a]Jebus (which is Jerusalem), Gibeath, and Kirjath: fourteen cities with their villages. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin according to their families.

Simeon's Inheritance with Judah

19 The [a]second lot came out for Simeon, for the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families. [b]And their inheritance was within the inheritance of the children of Judah.
2 [a]They had in their inheritance Beersheba (Sheba), Moladah,
3 Hazar Shual, Balah, Ezem,
4 Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah,
5 Ziklag, Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susah,
6 Beth Lebaoth, and Sharuhen: thirteen cities and their villages;
7 Ain, Rimmon, Ether, and Ashan: four cities and their villages;
8 and all the villages that were all around these cities as far as Baalath Beer, [a]Ramah of the South. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families.
9 The inheritance of the children of Simeon was included in the share of the children of Judah, for the share of the children of Judah was [1]too much for them. [a]Therefore the children of Simeon had their inheritance within the inheritance of [2]that people.

The Land of Zebulun

10 The third lot came out for the children of Zebulun according to their families, and the border of their inheritance was as far as Sarid.
11 [a]Their border went toward the west and to Maralah, went to Dabbasheth, and extended along the brook that is [b]east of Jokneam.
12 Then from Sarid it went eastward toward the sunrise along the border of Chisloth Tabor, and went out toward [a]Daberath, bypassing Japhia.
13 And from there it passed along on the east of [a]Gath Hepher, toward Eth Kazin, and extended to Rimmon, which borders on Neah.
14 Then the border went around it on the north side of Hannathon, and [1]it ended in the Valley of Jiphthah El.
15 Included were Kattath, Nahallal, Shimron, Idalah, and Bethlehem: twelve cities with their villages.
16 This was the inheritance of the children of Zebulun according to their families, these cities with their villages.

The Land of Issachar

17 The fourth lot came out to Issachar, for the children of Issachar according to their families.
18 And their territory went to Jezreel, and included Chesulloth, Shunem,
19 Haphraim, Shion, Anaharath,
20 Rabbith, Kishion, Abez,
21 Remeth, En Gannim, En Haddah, and Beth Pazzez.
22 And the border reached to Tabor, Shahazimah, and [a]Beth Shemesh; their border ended at the Jordan: sixteen cities with their villages.
23 This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Issachar according to their families, the cities and their villages.

The Land of Asher

24 [a]The fifth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families.

19:1 The tribe of Simeon did not receive a separate allotment. Their lands were within the territory of Judah. This may have been due to Simeon's sin generations before (Gen. 49:5–7).

25 And their territory included Helkath, Hali, Beten, Achshaph, 26 Alammelech, Amad, and Mishal; it reached to [a]Mount Carmel westward, along the Brook Shihor Libnath.
27 It turned toward the sunrise to Beth Dagon; and it reached to Zebulun and to the Valley of Jiphthah El, then northward beyond Beth Emek and Neiel, bypassing [a]Cabul which was on the left,
28 including [1]Ebron, Rehob, Hammon, and Kanah, [a]as far as Greater Sidon.
29 And the border turned to Ramah and to the fortified city of Tyre; then the border turned to Hosah, and ended at the sea by the region of [a]Achzib.
30 Also Ummah, Aphek, and Rehob were included: twenty-two cities with their villages.
31 This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages.

The Land of Naphtali

32 [a]The sixth lot came out to the children of Naphtali, for the children of Naphtali according to their families.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Josh. 19:32

God's Inheritance

God has an inheritance for each of His children. It is perfectly suited to our walk with Him and it is always entirely undeserved.

33 And their border began at Heleph, enclosing the territory from the terebinth tree in Zaanannim, Adami Nekeb, and Jabneel, as far as Lakkum; [1]it ended at the Jordan.
34 [a]From Heleph the border extended westward to Aznoth Tabor, and went out from there toward Hukkok; it adjoined Zebulun on the south side and Asher on the west side, and ended at Judah by the Jordan toward the sunrise.
35 And the fortified cities are Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Chinnereth, 36 Adamah, Ramah, Hazor,
37 [a]Kedesh, Edrei, En Hazor,
38 Iron, Migdal El, Horem, Beth Anath, and Beth Shemesh: nineteen cities with their villages.
39 This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their families, the cities and their villages.

The Land of Dan

40 [a]The seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families.
41 And the territory of their inheritance was Zorah, [a]Eshtaol, Ir Shemesh,
42 [a]Shaalabbin, [b]Aijalon, Jethlah,
43 Elon, Timnah, [a]Ekron,
44 Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Baalath,
45 Jehud, Bene Berak, Gath Rimmon,
46 Me Jarkon, and Rakkon, with the region [1]near [2]Joppa.
47 And the [a]border of the children of Dan went beyond these, because the children of Dan went up to fight against Leshem and took it; and they struck it with the edge of the sword, took possession of it, and dwelt in it. They called Leshem, [b]Dan, after the name of Dan their father.
48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.

Joshua's Inheritance

49 When they had [1]made an end of dividing the land as an inheritance according to their borders, the children of Israel gave an inheritance among them to Joshua the son of Nun.
50 According to the word of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked for, [a]Timnath [b]Serah in the mountains of Ephraim; and he built the city and dwelt in it.
51 [a]These were the inheritances which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel divided as an inheritance by lot [b]in Shiloh before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of meeting. So they made an end of dividing the country.

The Cities of Refuge

20 The LORD also spoke to Joshua, saying,
2 "Speak to the children of Israel, saying: [a]'Appoint[1] for yourselves cities of refuge, of which I spoke to you through Moses,

CHAPTER 20
2 [a]Num. 35:6–34 [1]Designate

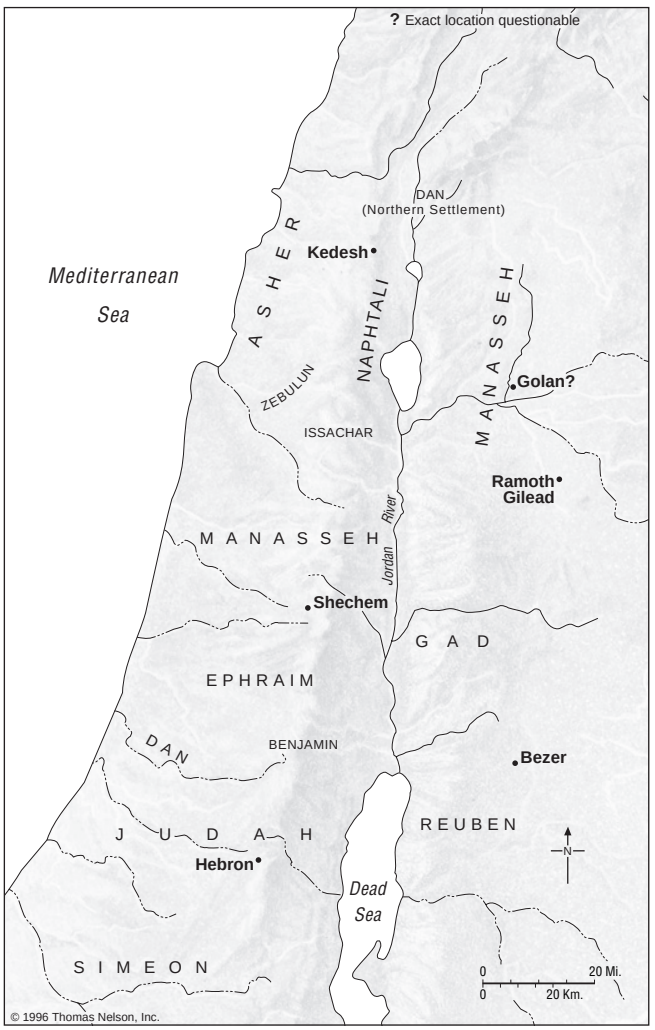
19:47 The tribe of Dan could not overcome the inhabitants of their land so they ultimately migrated north to capture Leshim, called Laish (Judg. 18:27–31).

19:49 Although Joshua had led the Israelites to victory, his inheritance was the last to be determined. Like Caleb, he chose a location in the mountains, the most difficult territory to conquer (Josh. 14:12).



19:50 Timnath Serah Joshua was the only Israelite to be given a city entirely for himself.

there; and they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood.
4 'And when he flees to one of those cities, and stands at the entrance of the gate of the city, and [1]declares his case in the hearing of the elders of that city, they shall take him into the city as one of them, and give him a place, that he may dwell among them.
5 [a]'Then if the avenger of blood pursues him, they shall not deliver the slayer into his hand, because he struck his neighbor unintentionally, but did not hate him beforehand.
6 'And he shall dwell in that city [a]until he stands before the congregation for judgment, and until the death of the one who is high priest in those days. Then the slayer may return and come to his own city and his own house, to the city from which he fled.' "
7 So they appointed [a]Kedesh in Galilee, in the mountains of Naphtali, [b]Shechem in the mountains of Ephraim, and [c]Kirjath Arba (which is Hebron) in [d]the mountains of Judah.
8 And on the other side of the Jordan, by Jericho eastward, they assigned [a]Bezer in the wilderness on the plain, from the tribe of Reuben, [b]Ramoth in Gilead, from the tribe of Gad, and [c]Golan in Bashan, from the tribe of Manasseh.

20:3 "Avenger of blood" can be translated "close relative." It was the duty of relatives to seek justice and retribution against those who harmed their defenseless family members.

20:7 There was a city of refuge within a day's travel of any location in Israel.

Josh. 20:2 The Cities of Refuge

ENCOUNTER Note Josh. 20:7

Places of Refuge

God provides refuge for sinners. There is always a safe place to which a sinner can flee. Sinners will find divine deliverance and forgiveness if they seek it. Ultimately our refuge is in God.

9 [a]These were the cities appointed for all the children of Israel and for the stranger who [1]dwelt among them, that whoever killed a person accidentally might flee there, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood [b]until he stood before the congregation.

Cities of the Levites

21 Then the heads of the fathers' houses of the [a]Levites came near to [b]Eleazar the priest, to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers' houses of the tribes of the children of Israel.
2 And they spoke to them at [a]Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, [b]"The LORD commanded through Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with their common-lands for our livestock."
3 So the children of Israel gave to the Levites from their inheritance, at the commandment of the LORD, these cities and their common-lands:
4 Now the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites. And [a]the children of Aaron the priest, who were of the Levites, [b]had thirteen cities by lot from the tribe of Judah, from the tribe of Simeon, and from the tribe of Benjamin.
5 [a]The rest of the children of Kohath had ten cities by lot from the families of the tribe of Ephraim, from the tribe of Dan, and from the half-tribe of Manasseh.
6 And [a]the children of Gershon had thirteen cities by lot from the families of the tribe of Issachar, from the tribe of Asher, from the tribe of Naphtali, and from the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.
7 [a]The children of Merari according to their families had twelve cities from the tribe of Reuben, from the tribe of Gad, and from the tribe of Zebulun.
8 [a]And the children of Israel gave these cities with their common-lands by lot to the Levites, [b]as the LORD had commanded by the hand of Moses.

9 So they gave from the tribe of the children of Judah and from the tribe of the children of Simeon these cities which are [1]designated by name,
10 which were for the children of Aaron, one of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the children of Levi; for the lot was theirs first.
11 [a]And they gave them [1]Kirjath Arba (Arba was the father of [b]Anak), [c]which is Hebron, in the mountains of Judah, with the common-land surrounding it.
12 But [a]the fields of the city and its villages they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh as his possession.
13 Thus [a]to the children of Aaron the priest they gave [b]Hebron with its common-land (a city of refuge for the slayer), [c]Libnah with its common-land,
14 [a]Jattir with its common-land, [b]Eshtemoa with its common-land,
15 [a]Holon with its common-land, [b]Debir with its common-land,
16 [a]Ain with its common-land, [b]Juttah with its common-land, and [c]Beth Shemesh with its common-land: nine cities from those two tribes;
17 and from the tribe of Benjamin, [a]Gibeon with its common-land, [b]Geba with its common-land, 18 Anathoth with its common-land, and [a]Almon with its common-land: four cities.
19 All the cities of the children of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities with their common-lands.
20 [a]And the families of the children of Kohath, the Levites, the rest of the children of Kohath, even they had the cities of their [1]lot from the tribe of Ephraim.
21 For they gave them [a]Shechem with its common-land in the mountains of Ephraim (a city of refuge for the slayer), [b]Gezer with its common-land,
22 Kibzaim with its common-land, and Beth Horon with its common-land: four cities;
23 and from the tribe of Dan, Eltekeh with its common-land, Gibbethon with its common-land,
24 [a]Aijalon with its common-land, and Gath Rimmon with its common-land: four cities;
25 and from the half-tribe of Manasseh, Tanach with its common-land and Gath Rimmon with its common-land: two cities.
26 All the ten cities with their common-lands were for the rest of the families of the children of Kohath.

21:1 As a consequence of the sin of Simeon and Levi, the Levites and Simeonites never possessed their own territory in Canaan (Gen. 34; 49:5–7).

21:3 The common lands, or pasture lands, immediately surrounded a city.

21:4 The Kohathites were Aaron's descendents who played an important role in Israel's worship. They were placed in the region of Simeon, Judah, and Benjamin so they were in lands generally controlled by Judah and close to the center of worship.

27 [a]Also to the children of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, from the other half-tribe of Manasseh, they gave [b]Golan in Bashan with its common-land (a city of refuge for the slayer), and Be Eshterah with its common-land: two cities;
28 and from the tribe of Issachar, Kishion with its common-land, Daberath with its common-land,
29 Jarmuth with its common-land, and En Gannim with its common-land: four cities;
30 and from the tribe of Asher, Mishal with its common-land, Abdon with its common-land,
31 Helkath with its common-land, and Rehob with its common-land: four cities;
32 and from the tribe of Naphtali, [a]Kedesh in Galilee with its common-land (a city of refuge for the slayer), Hammoth Dor with its common-land, and Kartan with its common-land: three cities.
33 All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families were thirteen cities with their common-lands.
34 [a]And to the families of the children of Merari, the rest of the Levites, from the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with its common-land, Kartah with its common-land,
35 Dimnah with its common-land, and Nahalal with its common-land: four cities;
36 [1]and from the tribe of Reuben, [a]Bezer with its common-land, Jahaz with its common-land,
37 Kedemoth with its common-land, and Mephaath with its common-land: four cities;
38 and from the tribe of Gad, [a]Ramoth in Gilead with its common-land (a city of refuge for the slayer), Mahanaim with its common-land,
39 Heshbon with its common-land, and Jazer with its common-land: four cities in all.
40 So all the cities for the children of Merari according to their families, the rest of the families of the Levites, were by their lot twelve cities.
41 [a]All the cities of the Levites within the possession of the children of Israel were forty-eight cities with their common-lands.
42 Every one of these cities had its common-land surrounding it; thus were all these cities.

44 [a]The LORD gave them [b]rest all around, according to all that He had sworn to their fathers. And [c]not a man of all their enemies stood against them; the LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Josh. 21:44

God's Rest

God grants a profound peace to those who faithfully walk with Him. God's rest is a deep sense of contentment and security. When God gives us His peace, no one can disturb it or take it away.

45 [a]Not a word failed of any good thing which the LORD had spoken to the house of Israel. All came to pass.

Eastern Tribes Return to Their Lands

22 Then Joshua called the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh,
2 and said to them: "You have kept [a]all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, [b]and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you.
3 "You have not [1]left your brethren these many days, up to this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of the LORD your God.
4 "And now the LORD your God has given [a]rest to your brethren, as He promised them; now therefore, return and go to your tents and to the land of your possession, [b]which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side of the Jordan.
5 "But [a]take[1] careful heed to do the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, [b]to love the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways, to keep His commandments, to hold fast to Him, and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul."
6 So Joshua [a]blessed them and sent them away, and they went to their tents.
7 Now to half the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given a possession in Bashan, [a]but to the other half of it Joshua gave a possession among their brethren on this side of the Jordan,

7 [a]Josh. 17:1–13

21:45 This verse could be the theme of the Book of Joshua. After forty years of wandering in the wilderness due to their unbelief, the children of Israel experienced the reality that God is always true to His word.

westward. And indeed, when Joshua sent them away to their tents, he blessed them,
8 and spoke to them, saying, "Return with much riches to your tents, with very much livestock, with silver, with gold, with bronze, with iron, and with very much clothing. [a]Divide the [1]spoil of your enemies with your brethren."
9 So the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go to [a]the country of Gilead, to the land of their possession, which they had obtained according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

An Altar by the Jordan

10 And when they came to the region of the Jordan which is in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh built an altar there by the Jordan—a great, impressive altar.
11 Now the children of Israel [a]heard someone say, "Behold, the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh have built an altar on the [1]frontier of the land of Canaan, in the region of the Jordan—on the children of Israel's side."
12 And when the children of Israel heard of it, [a]the whole congregation of the children of Israel gathered together at Shiloh to go to war against them.
13 Then the children of Israel [a]sent [b]Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest to the children of Reuben, to the children of Gad, and to half the tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead,
14 and with him ten rulers, one ruler each from the chief house of every tribe of Israel; and [a]each one was the head of the house of his father among the [1]divisions of Israel.
15 Then they came to the children of Reuben, to the children of Gad, and to half the tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead, and they spoke with them, saying,
16 "Thus says the whole congregation of the LORD: 'What [a]treachery[1] is this that you have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following the LORD, in that you have built for yourselves an altar, [b]that you might rebel this day against the LORD?
17 'Is the iniquity [a]of Peor not enough for us, from which we are not cleansed till this day, although there was a plague in the congregation of the LORD,
18 'but that you must turn away this day from following the LORD? And it shall be, if you rebel today against the LORD, that tomorrow [a]He will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel.
19 [1]'Nevertheless, if the land of your possession is unclean, then cross over to the land of the possession of the LORD, [a]where the LORD's tabernacle stands, and take possession among us; but do not rebel against the LORD, nor rebel against us, by building yourselves an altar besides the altar of the LORD our God.
20 [a]'Did not Achan the son of Zerah [1]commit a trespass in the [2]accursed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? And that man did not perish alone in his iniquity.' "
21 Then the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh answered and said to the heads of the [1]divisions of Israel:
22 "The LORD [a]God of gods, the LORD God of gods, He [b]knows, and let Israel itself know—if it is in rebellion, or if in treachery against the LORD, do not save us this day.
23 "If we have built ourselves an altar to turn from following the LORD, or if to offer on it burnt offerings or grain offerings, or if to offer peace offerings on it, let the LORD Himself [a]require an account.

PHINEHAS

Josh. 22:13

Phinehas was the grandson of Aaron and the son of Eleazar (Ex. 6:25). He was zealous for the Lord. When the children of Israel began to worship idols at Shittim, it was Phinehas who executed a guilty Israelite (Num. 25:1–13). When the tribes living east of the Jordan were allegedly committing idolatry, Phinehas was sent along with elders from each tribe to appeal to their brethren (Josh. 22:13–34).

22:8 "Much riches," or "great wealth," is used in Scripture only here and in 2 Chr. 1:11, 12; Eccl. 5:19, 6:2.

22:10 The altar was not in the territory of those who built it but it was large enough to be seen from across the Jordan River.

22:12 The Mosaic law prohibited the worship of God at any location other than the tabernacle (Lev. 17:8, 9).

22:17 Peor represented the seduction of the Israelites into idolatry and immorality (Num. 25). God severely punished His people for their sin. For one group of Israelites to sin summoned God's discipline upon the entire nation (Josh. 7:10–26).

24 "But in fact we have done it [1]for fear, for a reason, saying, 'In time to come your descendants may speak to our descendants, saying, "What have you to do with the LORD God of Israel?
25 "For the LORD has made the Jordan a border between you and us, you children of Reuben and children of Gad. You have no part in the LORD." So your descendants would make our descendants cease fearing the LORD.'
26 "Therefore we said, 'Let us now prepare to build ourselves an altar, not for burnt offering nor for sacrifice,
27 'but that it may be [a]a [1]witness between you and us and our generations after us, that we may [b]perform the service of the LORD before Him with our burnt offerings, with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings; that your descendants may not say to our descendants in time to come, "You have no part in the LORD." '
28 "Therefore we said that it will be, when they say this to us or to our generations in time to come, that we may say, 'Here is the replica of the altar of the LORD which our fathers made, though not for burnt offerings nor for sacrifices; but it is a witness between you and us.'
29 "Far be it from us that we should rebel against the LORD, and turn from following the LORD this day, [a]to build an altar for burnt offerings, for grain offerings, or for sacrifices, besides the altar of the LORD our God which is before His tabernacle."
30 Now when Phinehas the priest and the rulers of the congregation, the heads of the [1]divisions of Israel who were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and the children of Manasseh spoke, it pleased them.
31 Then Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said to the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and the children of Manasseh, "This day we perceive that the LORD is [a]among us, because you have not committed this treachery against the LORD. Now you have delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of the LORD."
32 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the rulers, returned from the children of Reuben and the children of Gad, from the land of Gilead to the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought back word to them.
33 So the thing pleased the children of Israel, and the children of Israel [a]blessed God; they spoke no more of going against them in battle, to destroy the land where the children of Reuben and Gad dwelt.
34 The children of Reuben and the children of [1]Gad called the altar, Witness, "For it is a witness between us that the LORD is God."

Joshua's Farewell Address

CHAPTER 23

23 Now it came to pass, a long time after the LORD [a]had given rest to Israel from all their enemies round about, that Joshua [b]was old, advanced in age.
2 And Joshua [a]called for all Israel, for their elders, for their heads, for their judges, and for their officers, and said to them: "I am old, advanced in age.
3 "You have seen all that the [a]LORD your God has done to all these nations because of you, for the [b]LORD your God is He who has fought for you.
4 "See, [a]I have divided to you by lot these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from the Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, as far as the Great Sea westward.
5 "And the LORD your God [a]will expel them from before you and drive them out of your sight. So you shall possess their land, [b]as the LORD your God promised you.
6 [a]"Therefore be very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, [b]lest you turn aside from it to the right hand or to the left,
7 "and lest you [a]go[1] among these nations, these who remain among you. You shall not [b]make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause anyone to [c]swear by them; you shall not [d]serve them nor bow down to them,
8 "but you shall [a]hold fast to the LORD your God, as you have done to this day.
9 [a]"For the LORD has [1]driven out from before you great and strong nations; but as for you, no one has been able to stand against you to this day.
10 [a]"One man of you shall chase a thousand, for the LORD your God is He who fights for you, [b]as He promised you.

22:21 "Divisions" is literally "thousands." See also Josh. 22:14, 30.

22:25 The tribes living east of the Jordan feared they would no longer be considered part of Israel. Clearly the people still had more of a tribal identity than a national one.

22:28 A replica was not a replacement for the national religious center but a reminder of the worship of the true God west of the Jordan River.

23:6 "Be very courageous" was the same exhortation God had given Joshua as he commenced his leadership of God's people (1:7–9).

23:8 "Hold fast" means to cling tightly (Josh. 22:5; 23:12).

23:10 When God's people trusted and obeyed Him, they were invincible.

11 [a]"Therefore take careful heed to yourselves, that you love the LORD your God.

Don't Take Love for Granted

Our love for God is not something we should ever neglect or take for granted. We must nurture and protect our walk with God so we are prepared to love Him wholeheartedly.

12 "Or else, if indeed you do [a]go back, and cling to the remnant of these nations—these that remain among you—and [b]make marriages with them, and go in to them and they to you,
13 "know for certain that [a]the LORD your God will no longer drive out these nations from before you. [b]But they shall be snares and traps to you, and scourges on your sides and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good land which the LORD your God has given you.

ENCOUNTER Note Josh. 23:13

Not Obligated

At times we act as if God is obligated to bless His children regardless of how we live. That is not true. When we walk faithfully with Him, He defeats our enemies. When we are unfaithful, He uses our enemies to discipline us.

14 "Behold, this day [a]I[1] am going the way of all the earth. And you know in all your hearts and in all your souls that [b]not one thing has failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spoke concerning you. All have come to pass for you; not one word of them has failed.
15 [a]"Therefore it shall come to pass, that as all the good things have come upon you which the LORD your God promised you, so the LORD will bring upon you [b]all harmful things, until He has destroyed you from this good land which the LORD your God has given you.
16 [1]"When you have transgressed the covenant of the LORD your God, which He commanded you, and have gone and served other gods, and bowed down to them, then the [a]anger of the LORD will burn against you, and you shall perish quickly from the good land which He has given you."

The Covenant at Shechem

24 Then Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to [a]Shechem and [b]called for the elders of Israel, for their heads, for their judges, and for their officers; and they [c]presented themselves before God.
2 And Joshua said to all the people, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: [a]'Your fathers, including Terah, the father of Abraham and the father of Nahor, dwelt on the other side of [1]the River in old times; and [b]they served other gods.
3 [a]'Then I took your father Abraham from the other side of [1]the River, led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his [2]descendants and [b]gave him Isaac.
4 'To Isaac I gave [a]Jacob and Esau. To [b]Esau I gave the mountains of Seir to possess, [c]but Jacob and his children went down to Egypt.
5 [a]'Also I sent Moses and Aaron, and [b]I plagued Egypt, according to what I did among them. Afterward I brought you out.
6 'Then I [a]brought your fathers out of Egypt, and you came to the sea; and the Egyptians pursued your fathers with chariots and horsemen to the Red Sea.
7 'So they cried out to the LORD; and He put [a]darkness between you and the Egyptians, brought the sea upon them, and covered them. And [b]your eyes saw what I did in Egypt. Then you dwelt in the wilderness [c]a long time.
8 'And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, who dwelt on the other side of the Jordan, [a]and they fought with you. But I gave them into your hand, that you might possess their land, and I destroyed them from before you.
9 'Then [a]Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose to make war against Israel, and [b]sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you.
10 [a]'But I would not listen to Balaam; [b]therefore he continued to bless you. So I delivered you out of his hand.
11 'Then [a]you went over the Jordan and Choose This Day!

The intimacy of your walk with God is directly related to your obedience. Ultimately you will have a walk with God that reflects the choices you have made with God.

16 So the people answered and said: "Far be it from us that we should forsake the LORD to serve other gods;
17 "for the LORD our God is He who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, who did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way that we went and among all the people through whom we passed.
18 "And the LORD drove out from before us all the people, including the Amorites who dwelt in the land. [a]We also will serve the LORD, for He is our God."
19 But Joshua said to the people, [a]"You cannot serve the LORD, for He is a [b]holy God. He is [c]a jealous God; [d]He will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins.

A Jealous God

God is divinely jealous of your affection and loyalty. He wants nothing less than all of your heart, mind, and strength. He zealously protects His divine right to your life.

20 [a]"If you forsake the LORD and serve foreign gods, [b]then He will turn and do you harm and consume you, after He has done you good."
21 And the people said to Joshua, "No, but we will serve the LORD!"
22 So Joshua said to the people, "You are witnesses against yourselves that [a]you have chosen the LORD for yourselves, to serve Him." And they said, "We are witnesses!"
23 "Now therefore," he said, [a]"put away the foreign gods which are among you, and [b]incline your heart to the LORD God of Israel."
24 And the people [a]said to Joshua, "The LORD our God we will serve, and His voice we will obey!"
25 So Joshua [a]made[1] a covenant with the people that day, and made for them a statute and an ordinance [b]in Shechem.

HISTORICAL*Encounter* JAMES TAYLOR Josh. 24:15

In the eighteenth century, James Taylor was a relentless persecutor of the church. When Methodist preachers came to his English village, he would viciously pelt them with rotten eggs. One day an intended victim shouted Joshua 24:15: "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord!" Taylor was smitten. He was converted soon after and then led his new bride to Christ as well. He committed himself to raise his children to follow the Lord. Taylor's great grandson was Hudson Taylor, founder of the China Inland Mission which saw millions of Chinese people come to Christ. Hudson Taylor's grandson, James Hudson Taylor III, eventually led the China Inland Mission (today the Overseas Missionary Fellowship) as a devout missionary himself. God's word to James Taylor led five subsequent generations to follow and serve his Lord.

24:13 While the Israelites fought for Canaan, the real work of winning the land had been accomplished by God.

24:29 This is the first time Joshua was called the "servant of the Lord." Until that time he was referred to as the "servant of Moses" (Josh. 1:1) It took his entire life to earn this meaningful distinction, but he was now a true servant of God just as Moses had been.

THE BOOK OF JUDGES

INTRODUCTION

Judges derives its name from its principal characters, the shophetim. In the Old Testament, a shophet was similar to a governor, who guided the people and settled their legal disputes. These judges had obvious shortcomings. However, God chose to place His Spirit upon them, enduing them with power and wisdom to free His people. This book covers the historical period between Joshua's death and the ministry of Samuel. The government at this time was rather loose, a group of tribes held together by their common loyalty to God.

Under Joshua, God's people had finally entered the Promised Land. Although Joshua's forces subdued the major fortresses and cities in Canaan (Josh. 12), there still remained many unconquered pockets of Canaanites (Josh. 13:1–7; Judg. 1:27–36). While God promised the land to the Israelites, His promise was conditioned upon their obedience. Judges describes how God's people conducted themselves once they received what they had been promised.

SIGNIFICANCE

This book relates God's determination to bring his prodigal people back to Himself. It reveals how fickle and easily tempted God's people are. Despite continual warnings not to become enamored with the pagan gods of the land, the Israelites quickly succumbed to temptation. Judges reveals the futility of fence-sitting—trying to please God yet still participating in sinful activity. The majority of the Israelites did not knowingly reject God; they simply wanted to indulge in Baal worship too, a religion-mixing practice that God detested. This book also exposes the absolute depravity of the human heart. We are repeatedly told that the people "did evil in the sight of the LORD" (2:11; 3:7, 12; 4:1; 6:1; 10:6; 13:1). We are also informed that in the absence of a monarch, "everyone did what was right in their own eyes" (17:6; 21:25). Clearly, left to our own devises, we have a natural proclivity toward evil.

This book graphically portrays the continual spiritual cycle God's people underwent. First they were tempted to abandon their wholehearted devotion to God in order to pursue idols. Second, God disciplined them by sending enemies to oppress them. Third, God's people cried out to Him for deliverance. Fourth, God responded by raising up deliverers (judges), to set His people free, only to have them turn once again to idolatry.

STRUCTURE

Twelve judges are listed: Othniel, Ehud, Deborah, Gideon, Jephtah, and Samson are considered major judges; Shamgar, Tola, Jair, Ibzan, Elon, and Abdon are regarded as minor judges since they are given little biblical text. The book chronicles a deterioration in the caliber of judges as well as a growing depravity in the people. The first judge, Othniel, was a godly man who brought peace and deliverance to Israel (1:12–15; 3:7–11). The final judge, Samson, was more similar in character and lifestyle to his Philistine enemies than to Moses and Joshua. Judges can be outlined as follows:

The Cycle of Apostasy Begins (1:1—3:6)
Othniel, Ehud, and Shamgar (3:7–31)
Deborah and Barak (4:1—5:31)
Gideon's Exploits (6:1—8:32)
Abimelech's Treachery (8:33—9:57)
Tola and Jair (10:1–5)
Jephtah (10:6—12:7)
Ibzan, Eblon, and Abdon (12:8–15)
Samson (13:1—16:31)
Migration of the Tribe of Dan (17:1—18:31)
Immorality and War with Benjamin (19:1—21:25)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH JUDGES

The cycle of apostasy throughout Judges may mirror a pattern in your own life. Do you tend to stray from an intimate walk with God and then cry out for His deliverance as you face the consequences of your own sin? How genuine and lasting is your repentance and grief over your sin? How soon do you forget your total dependence on God? You will see clearly that God views sin as spiritual adultery. He responds in a way that draws you back to Him. At the same time, almighty God is merciful and kind and willing to do whatever is necessary to bring you back to Him when your relationship grows cold.

The Continuing Conquest of Canaan

CHAPTER 1

NOW after the [a]death of Joshua it came to pass that the children of Israel [b]asked the LORD, saying, "Who shall be first to go up for us against the [c]Canaanites to fight against them?"
2 And the LORD said, [a]"Judah shall go up. Indeed I have delivered the land into his hand."
3 So Judah said to [a]Simeon his brother, "Come up with me to my allotted territory, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and [b]I will likewise go with you to your allotted territory." And Simeon went with him.
4 Then Judah went up, and the LORD delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand; and they killed ten thousand men at [a]Bezek.

5 And they found Adoni-Bezek in Bezek, and fought against him; and they defeated the Canaanites and the Perizzites.
6 Then Adoni-Bezek fled, and they pursued him and caught him and cut off his thumbs and big toes.
7 And Adoni-Bezek said, "Seventy kings with their thumbs and big toes cut off used to gather scraps under my table; [a]as I have done, so God has repaid me." Then they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.
8 Now [a]the children of Judah fought against Jerusalem and took it; they struck it with the edge of the sword and set the city on fire.

WORD*Study* JERUSALEM

Judg. 1:8 Jerusalem is one of the world's oldest cities, having been occupied since 3000 B.C. It was originally a fortress on a hillside, also known as Zion. It is probably identified with Salem, of which Melchizedek was king (Gen. 14:18). Joshua defeated the city but it was reoccupied by the Jebusites (Josh. 15:63). Jerusalem lay near the border between the tribes of Benjamin and Judah, just within Benjamin's territory. It would not be fully under Israelite control until King David conquered it and made it his capital city (2 Sam. 5:6).

9 [a]And afterward the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites who dwelt in the mountains, in the [1]South, and in the lowland.
10 Then Judah [1]went against the Canaanites who dwelt in [a]Hebron. (Now the name of Hebron was formerly [b]Kirjath Arba.) And they killed Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai.
11 [a]From there they went against the inhabitants of Debir. (The name of Debir was formerly Kirjath Sepher.)
12 [a]Then Caleb said, "Whoever attacks Kirjath Sepher and takes it, to him I will give my daughter Achsah as wife."
13 And Othniel the son of Kenaz, [a]Caleb's younger brother, took it; so he gave him his daughter Achsah as wife.

1:3 Judah and Simeon had been born of the same mother, Jacob's wife Leah (Gen. 29:33–35). Simeon's inheritance lay within Judah's borders (Josh. 19:1).

1:5 "Adoni-bezek" means "Lord of Bezek."

1:7 Bezek accepted the principal of retaliation in kind, lex talionis; what he had done to others was justly performed on him.

1:10 Hebron, meaning "Confederacy," lay nineteen miles southwest of Jerusalem.

1:11 Debir lay eleven miles southwest of Hebron.

1:13 The Kenizzites were a nomadic tribe descended from Edom (Gen. 36:11).

1:13 Othniel may either have been Caleb's nephew or his younger brother.

14 [a]Now it happened, when she came to him, that [1]she urged him to ask her father for a field. And she dismounted from her donkey, and Caleb said to her, "What do you wish?"
15 So she said to him, [a]"Give me a blessing; since you have given me land in the South, give me also springs of water." And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.
16 [a]Now the children of the Kenite, Moses' father-in-law, went up [b]from the City of Palms with the children of Judah into the Wilderness of Judah, which lies in the South near [c]Arad; [d]and they went and dwelt among the people.
17 [a]And Judah went with his brother Simeon, and they attacked the Canaanites who inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. So the name of the city was called [b]Hormah.
18 Also Judah took [a]Gaza with its territory, Ashkelon with its territory, and Ekron with its territory.
19 So the LORD was with Judah. And they drove out the mountaineers, but they could not drive out the inhabitants of the lowland, because they had [a]chariots of iron.

WORD*Study* CHARIOTS

Judg. 1:19 Chariots were formidable weapons in the ancient world. The Israelites were slow to adopt such weapons and so were fearful of facing them (Ex. 14:6–9, Judg. 4:13). Chariots could only operate on the flat plains, so the Israelites retreated to the hill country to avoid them. Not until King Solomon's time did the Israelites begin making use of chariots (1 Kin. 9:19; 10:26).

20 [a]And they gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses had said. Then he [1]expelled from there the [b]three sons of Anak.
21 [a]But the children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites who inhabited Jerusalem; so the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day.
22 And the [1]house of Joseph also went up against Bethel, [a]and the LORD was with them.
23 So the [1]house of Joseph [a]sent men to spy out Bethel. (The name of the city was formerly [b]Luz.)
24 And when the spies saw a man coming out of the city, they said to him, "Please show us the entrance to the city, and [a]we will show you mercy."
25 So he showed them the entrance to the city, and they struck the city with the edge of the sword; but they let the man and all his family go.
26 And the man went to the land of the Hittites, built a city, and called its name Luz, which is its name to this day.

Incomplete Conquest of the Land

27 [a]However, Manasseh did not drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shean and its villages, or [b]Taanach and its villages, or the inhabitants of [c]Dor and its villages, or the inhabitants of Ibleam and its villages, or the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages; for the Canaanites were determined to dwell in that land.

Determined

Sin is a tenacious parasite in your life. Casual attempts or good intentions will not remove it. Only determined and relentless effort will root sin out of your life.

28 And it came to pass, when Israel was strong, that they put the Canaanites [1]under tribute, but did not completely drive them out.
29 [a]Nor did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites who dwelt in Gezer; so the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among them.
30 Nor did [a]Zebulun drive out the inhabitants of Kitron or the inhabitants of Nahalol; so the Canaanites dwelt among them, and [1]were put under tribute.
31 [a]Nor did Asher drive out the inhabitants of Acco or the inhabitants of Sidon, or of Ahlab, Achzib, Helbah, Aphik, or Rehob.
32 So the Asherites [a]dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; for they did not drive them out.
33 [a]Nor did Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh or the inhabitants of Beth Anath; but they dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants

1:16 Arad was sixteen miles south of Hebron.

1:18 This was probably before the Philistine migration into this area.

1:23 "Bethel" means "House of God."

1:29 Gezer, located eighteen miles west of Jerusalem, was ultimately conquered by Pharaoh and given to King Solomon as a wedding present (1 Kin. 9:15–17).

1:31 This region would become Phoenicia. The Phoenician king's daughter, Jezebel, would one day marry Ahab, king of Israel, and promote Baal worship throughout the nation (1 Kin. 16:31).

1:33 "Beth Shemesh" means "House of the Sun." "Beth Anath" means "House of Anath." Anath was a fertility goddess.

of the land. Nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh and Beth Anath were put under tribute to them.
34 And the Amorites forced the children of Dan into the mountains, for they would not allow them to come down to the valley;
35 and the Amorites were determined to dwell in Mount Heres, [a]in Aijalon, and in [1]Shaalbim; yet when the strength of the house of Joseph became greater, they [2]were put under tribute.
36 Now the boundary of the Amorites was [a]from the Ascent of Akrabbim, from Sela, and upward.

Israel's Disobedience

2 Then the Angel of the LORD came up from Gilgal to Bochim, and said: [a]"I led you up from Egypt and [b]brought you to the land of which I swore to your fathers; and [c]I said, 'I will never break My covenant with you.
2 'And [a]you shall make no [1]covenant with the inhabitants of this land; [b]you shall tear down their altars.' [c]But you have not obeyed My voice. Why have you done this?

ENCOUNTER*Note* Judg. 2:2

Obeying God's Voice

God holds us accountable to do as He says. He will not favor us with success when we blatantly and continually disobey Him. Instead, He will communicate in a manner we cannot ignore.

3 "Therefore I also said, 'I will not drive them out before you; but they shall be [a]thorns[1] in your side, and [b]their gods shall [2]be a [c]snare to you.' "
4 So it was, when the Angel of the LORD spoke these words to all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voices and wept.
5 Then they called the name of that place [1]Bochim; and they sacrificed there to the LORD.
6 And when [a]Joshua had dismissed the people, the children of Israel went each to his own inheritance to possess the land.

Death of Joshua

7 [a]So the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great works of the LORD which He had done for Israel.
8 Now [a]Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died when he was one hundred and ten years old.
9 [a]And they buried him within the border of his inheritance at [b]Timnath Heres, in the mountains of Ephraim, on the north side of Mount Gaash.
10 When all that generation had [1]been gathered to their fathers, another generation arose after them who [a]did not know the LORD nor the work which He had done for Israel.

Israel's Unfaithfulness

11 Then the children of Israel did [a]evil in the sight of the LORD, and served the Baals;

ENCOUNTER*Note* Judg. 2:11

Cycle of Apostasy

Throughout history, God's people have undergone a perpetual fourfold cycle of apostasy: rebellion, punishment, repentance, deliverance. The book of Judges testifies to this continual and repetitive pattern.

12 and they [a]forsook the LORD God of their fathers, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt; and they followed [b]other gods from among the gods of the people who were all around them, and they [c]bowed down to them; and they provoked the LORD to anger.
13 They forsook the LORD [a]and served [1]Baal and the [2]Ashtoreths.

WORD*Study* BAAL

Judg. 2:13 Baal was the supreme Canaanite god, considered the son of the god El. Baal was allegedly the god of the storm and rains, granting success to farmers who worshipped him. There were many variations of Baal worship, including: Baal-Berith (Judg. 9:4), Baal-Peor (Num. 25:3), Baal-Gad (Josh. 11:17), Baal-Zebub (2 Kin. 1:2). The term baal could also mean "husband, owner, lord." Ashtaroth, the companion of Baal, was the goddess of war and fertility. She was known as Ishtar in Babylonia and as Anath in North Syria.

14 [a]And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel. So He [b]delivered them into the hands of plunderers who despoiled them; and [c]He sold them into the hands of their enemies all around, so that they [d]could no longer stand before their enemies.

15 Wherever they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them for calamity, as the LORD had said, and as the LORD had [a]sworn to them. And they were greatly distressed.
16 Nevertheless, [a]the LORD raised up judges who delivered them out of the hand of those who plundered them.

WORD*Study* JUDGES

Judg. 2:16 This word is from the Hebrew shophetim, meaning "governors." These were leaders among the Israelites after Joshua and before the institution of the monarchy under King Saul. They often acted as mediators of disputes. However, they are principally known for the way they delivered the Israelites militarily from their enemies. The power of the judges came from God. God would place His Spirit upon them, enabling them to accomplish the unusual. An example is Samson's strength (Judg. 13:25; 14:19; 15:14). God empowered them to achieve seemingly impossible victories, such as those of Deborah and Barak (Judg. 5:20, 21). The judges typically did not govern over all Israel but were regional leaders, anticipating the day the entire nation would be led by one king.

17 Yet they would not listen to their judges, but they [a]played the harlot with other gods, and bowed down to them. They turned quickly from the way in which their fathers walked, in obeying the commandments of the LORD; they did not do so.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Judg. 2:17

Harlotry

God views our disloyalty to Him as harlotry. God is absolutely committed to us. Our infidelity to Him is betrayal at its worst.

18 And when the LORD raised up judges for them, [a]the LORD was with the judge and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; [b]for the LORD was moved to pity by their groaning because of those who oppressed them and harassed them.
19 And it came to pass, [a]when the judge was dead, that they reverted and behaved more corruptly than their fathers, by following other gods, to serve them and bow down to them. They did not cease from their own doings nor from their stubborn way.
20 Then the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel; and He said, "Because this nation has [a]transgressed My covenant which I commanded their fathers, and has not heeded My voice,
21 "I also will no longer drive out before them any of the nations which Joshua [a]left when he died,
22 "so [a]that through them I may [b]test Israel, whether they will keep the ways of the LORD, to walk in them as their fathers kept them, or not."
23 Therefore the LORD left those nations, without driving them out immediately; nor did He deliver them into the hand of Joshua.

The Nations Remaining in the Land

3 Now these are [a]the nations which the LORD left, that He might test Israel by them, that is, all who had not [1]known any of the wars in Canaan
2 (this was only so that the generations of the children of Israel might be taught to know war, at least those who had not formerly known it),
3 namely, [a]five lords of the Philistines, all the Canaanites, the Sidonians, and the Hivites who dwelt in Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baal Hermon to the entrance of Hamath.
4 And they were left, that He might test Israel by them, to [1]know whether they would obey the commandments of the LORD, which He had commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Judg. 3:4

Tests and Temptation

God may allow temptation as well as adversity to test us. God already knows how we will respond. However, His tests reveal to us what lies within our hearts.

5 [a]Thus the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

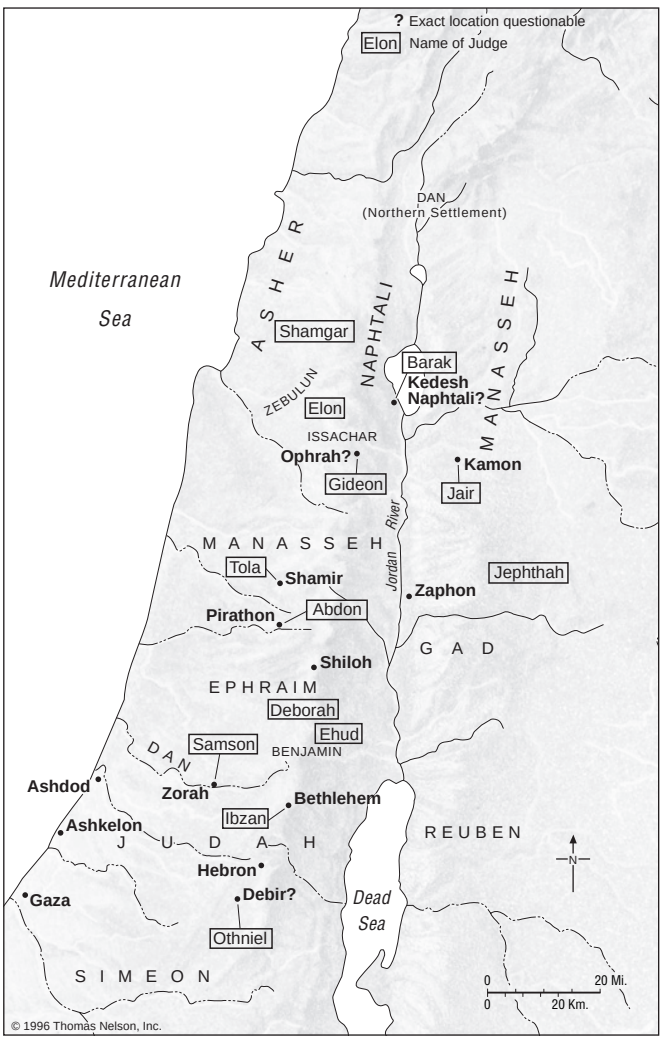
3:1 The book of Judges gives five reasons why the Canaanites remained in the land: because of their superior weapons (1:19); because the Israelites made alliances with them (2:1–5); because of Israel's sin (2:20–21); because God wanted to test His people's loyalty (3:1, 4); and because the men of Israel needed to learn the art of war (3:2).



Othniel

7 So the children of Israel did [a]evil in the sight of the LORD. They [b]forgot the LORD their God, and served the Baals and [1]Asherahs.
8 Therefore the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and He [a]sold them into the hand of [b]Cushan-Rishathaim king of Mesopotamia; and the children of Israel served Cushan-Rishathaim eight years.
9 When the children of Israel [a]cried out to the LORD, the LORD [b]raised up a deliverer for the children of Israel, who delivered them: [c]Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother.
10 [a]The Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel. He went out to war, and the LORD delivered Cushan-Rishathaim king of Mesopotamia into his hand; and his hand prevailed over Cushan-Rishathaim.

WORDStudy CRY OUT

Judg. 3:9 To "cry out to the Lord" meant God's people pled for Him to rescue them. This generally involved liberation from their enemies, but it might also be deliverance from the consequences of their sin (Jer. 7:16). In the book of Judges, the people's pleas increasingly become nothing more than cries of distress under persecution, with no corresponding remorse for the sin that had brought about God's judgment.

Judg. 3:9 The Judges of Israel

11 So the land had rest for forty years. Then Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

Ehud

12 [a]And the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD. So the LORD strengthened [b]Eglon king of Moab against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of the LORD.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Judg. 3:12

Strengthening Our Enemies

God may bring judgment upon us by blessing the efforts of our enemies or by multiplying our troubles. There is no point in asking God to deliver us from that which He is bringing upon us. We can only repent of our sin and throw ourselves upon His mercy.

13 Then he gathered to himself the people of Ammon and [a]Amalek, went and [1]defeated Israel, and took possession of [b]the City of Palms.
14 So the children of Israel [a]served Eglon king of Moab eighteen years.
15 But when the children of Israel [a]cried out to the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer for them: Ehud the son of Gera, the Benjamite, a [b]left-handed man. By him the children of Israel sent tribute to Eglon king of Moab.
16 Now Ehud made himself a dagger (it was double-edged and a cubit in length) and fastened it under his clothes on his right thigh.
17 So he brought the tribute to Eglon king of Moab. (Now Eglon was a very fat man.)
18 And when he had finished presenting the tribute, he sent away the people who had carried the tribute.
19 But he himself turned back [a]from the [1]stone images that were at Gilgal, and said, "I have a secret message for you, O king." He said, "Keep silence!" And all who attended him went out from him.
20 So Ehud came to him (now he was sitting upstairs in his cool private chamber). Then Ehud said, "I have a message from God for you." So he arose from his seat.
21 Then Ehud reached with his left hand, took the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly.
22 Even the [1]hilt went in after the blade, and the fat closed over the blade, for he did not draw the dagger out of his belly; and his entrails came out.
23 Then Ehud went out through the porch and shut the doors of the upper room behind him and locked them.
24 When he had gone out, [1]Eglon's servants came to look, and to their surprise, the doors of the upper room were locked. So they said, "He is probably [a]attending[2] to his needs in the cool chamber."
25 So they waited till they were [a]embarrassed, and still he had not opened the doors of the upper room. Therefore they took the key and opened them. And there was their master, fallen dead on the floor.
26 But Ehud had escaped while they delayed, and passed beyond the [1]stone images and escaped to Seirah.
27 And it happened, when he arrived, that [a]he blew the trumpet in the [b]mountains of Ephraim, and the children of Israel went down with him from the mountains; and [1]he led them.
28 Then he said to them, "Follow me, for [a]the LORD has delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand." So they went down after him, seized the [b]fords of the Jordan leading to Moab, and did not allow anyone to cross over.
29 And at that time they killed about ten thousand men of Moab, all stout men of valor; not a man escaped.
30 So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And [a]the land had rest for eighty years.

Shamgar

31 After him was [a]Shamgar the son of Anath, who killed six hundred men of the Philistines [b]with an ox goad; [c]and he also delivered [d]Israel.

Deborah

4 When Ehud was dead, [a]the children of Israel again did [b]evil in the sight of the LORD.
2 So the LORD [a]sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in [b]Hazor. The commander of his army was [c]Sisera, who dwelt in [d]Harosheth Hagoyim.
3 And the children of Israel cried out to the LORD; for Jabin had nine hundred [a]chariots of iron, and for twenty years

3:13 The City of Palms was Jericho. While the area may have been occupied, the city itself was not rebuilt until King Ahab's time (1 Kin. 16:34). Amalek was the most hated enemy of the Israelites (Ex. 17:8–16; 1 Sam. 15:2, 3).

3:31 An "ox goad" was a pointed instrument, eight feet long with a metal tip, used to control oxen. It could be used as a lethal weapon.

4:2 Hazor was a major city along the main highway between Egypt and Asia.

[b]he had harshly oppressed the children of Israel.
4 Now Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, was judging Israel at that time.
5 [a]And she would sit under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the mountains of Ephraim. And the children of Israel came up to her for judgment.
6 Then she sent and called for [a]Barak the son of Abinoam from [b]Kedesh in Naphtali, and said to him, "Has not the LORD God of Israel commanded, 'Go and [1]deploy troops at Mount [c]Tabor; take with you ten thousand men of the sons of Naphtali and of the sons of Zebulun;
7 'and against you [a]I will deploy Sisera, the commander of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his multitude at the [b]River Kishon; and I will [1]deliver him into your hand'?"
8 And Barak said to her, "If you will go with me, then I will go; but if you will not go with me, I will not go!"
9 So she said, "I will surely go with you; nevertheless there will be no glory for you in the journey you are taking, for the LORD will [a]sell Sisera into the hand of a woman." Then Deborah arose and went with Barak to Kedesh.
10 And Barak called [a]Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh; he went up with ten thousand men [b]under[1] his command, and Deborah went up with him.
11 Now Heber [a]the Kenite, of the children of [b]Hobab the father-in-law of Moses, had separated himself from the Kenites and pitched his tent near the terebinth tree at Zaanaim, [c]which is beside Kedesh.
12 And they reported to Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor.
13 So Sisera gathered together all his chariots, nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people who were with him, from Harosheth Hagoyim to the River Kishon.

Going Out Before

God goes before us preparing the way in every assignment He gives us. He puts everything in place. He ensures our success as long as we follow His leading.

15 And the LORD routed Sisera and all his chariots and all his army with the edge of the sword before Barak; and Sisera alighted from his chariot and fled away on foot.
16 But Barak pursued the chariots and the army as far as Harosheth Hagoyim, and all the army of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword; not a man was [a]left.
17 However, Sisera had fled away on foot to the tent of [a]Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite; for there was peace between Jabin king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.
18 And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said to him, "Turn aside, my lord, turn aside to me; do not fear." And when he had turned aside with her into the tent, she covered him with a [1]blanket.
19 Then he said to her, "Please give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty." So she opened [a]a jug of milk, gave him a drink, and covered him.
20 And he said to her, "Stand at the door of the tent, and if any man comes and inquires of you, and says, 'Is there any man here?' you shall say, 'No.' "
21 Then Jael, Heber's wife, [a]took a tent peg and took a hammer in her hand, and went softly to him and drove the peg into his temple, and it went down into the ground; for he was fast asleep and weary. So he died.

DEBORAH

Judg. 4:4

Deborah, whose name means "Bee," was a prophetess, judge, and military leader. She is one of only five women in the Old Testament referred to as prophets (Ex. 15:20; 2 Kin. 22:14; 2 Chr. 34:22; Is. 8:3). She held court in the southern section of Ephraim under the "palm tree of Deborah" (Judg. 4:4, 5). She was married to Lapidoth. She was held in such high esteem that Barak, the Israelite military commander, refused to go into battle unless Deborah accompanied him (4:8). Deborah commanded the Israelites to engage Sisera's army, leading to a decisive victory and breaking the control of the Canaanite forces over the northern tribes.

4:6 Mount Tabor rose 1,300 feet. It lay on the border of the tribes of Issachar, Naphtali, and Zebulun.

4:21 Women were traditionally responsible for erecting and taking down tents in nomadic tribes.

22 And then, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said to him, "Come, I will show you the man whom you seek." And when he went into her tent, there lay Sisera, dead with the peg in his temple.
23 So on that day God subdued Jabin king of Canaan in the presence of the children of Israel.
24 And the hand of the children of Israel grew stronger and stronger against Jabin king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.

The Song of Deborah

5 Then Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam [a]sang on that day, saying:

2 "When[1] leaders [a]lead in Israel,
[b]When the people [2]willingly offer themselves,
Bless the LORD!

3 "Hear,[a] O kings! Give ear, O princes!
I, even [b]I, will sing to the LORD;
I will sing praise to the LORD God of Israel.

4 "LORD, [a]when You went out from Seir,
When You marched from [b]the field of Edom,
The earth trembled and the heavens poured,
The clouds also poured water;
5 [a]The mountains [1]gushed before the LORD,
[b]This Sinai, before the LORD God of Israel.

6 "In the days of [a]Shamgar, son of Anath,
In the days of [b]Jael,
[c]The highways were deserted,
And the travelers walked along the byways.
7 Village life ceased, it ceased in Israel,
Until I, Deborah, arose,
Arose a mother in Israel.
8 They chose [a]new gods;
Then there was war in the gates;
Not a shield or spear was seen among forty thousand in Israel.
9 My heart is with the rulers of Israel
Who offered themselves willingly with the people.
Bless the LORD!

10 "Speak, you who ride on white
[a]donkeys,
Who sit in judges' attire,
And who walk along the road.
11 Far from the noise of the archers,
among the watering places,
There they shall recount the righteous acts of the LORD,
The righteous acts for His villagers
in Israel;
Then the people of the LORD shall go down to the gates.

12 "Awake,[a] awake, Deborah!
Awake, awake, sing a song!
Arise, Barak, and lead your captives away,
O son of Abinoam!

13 "Then the survivors came down, the people against the nobles;
The LORD came down for me against the mighty.
14 From Ephraim were those whose roots were in [a]Amalek.
After you, Benjamin, with your peoples,
From Machir rulers came down,
And from Zebulun those who bear the recruiter's staff.
15 And [1]the princes of Issachar were with Deborah;
As Issachar, so was Barak
Sent into the valley [2]under his command;
Among the divisions of Reuben
There were great resolves of heart.

Resolves of Heart

We often determine to do what is right. However, an abundance of unfulfilled resolutions means nothing compared to one resolve that is kept.

16 Why did you sit among the sheepfolds,
To hear the pipings for the flocks?
The divisions of Reuben have great searchings of heart.
17 [a]Gilead stayed beyond the Jordan,
And why did Dan remain [1]on ships?
[b]Asher continued at the seashore,
And stayed by his inlets.
18 [a]Zebulun is a people who jeopardized their lives to the point of death,
Naphtali also, on the heights of the battlefield.

5:10 Those who rode white donkeys were wealthy. Those who walked along the road were poor. Yet in this battle, all were recognized for having done their part.

5:17 The four tribes criticized for not sending aid were located in regions far from the conflict. Judah and Benjamin are the only tribes not mentioned, and they were presumably too distant to have responded with timely assistance.

19 "The kings came and fought,
Then the kings of Canaan fought
In [a]Taanach, by the waters of Megiddo;
They took no spoils of silver.
20 They fought from the heavens;
The stars from their courses fought against Sisera.

She pounded Sisera, she pierced his head,
She split and struck through his temple.

At her feet he sank, he fell;
Where he sank, there he fell [a]dead.

28 "The mother of Sisera looked through the window,
And cried out through the lattice,
'Why is his chariot so long in coming?
Why tarries the clatter of his chariots?'
29 Her wisest [1]ladies answered her,
Yes, she [2]answered herself,

So the land had rest for forty years.

Midianites Oppress Israel

6 Then the children of Israel did [a]evil in the sight of the LORD. So the LORD delivered them into the hand of [b]Midian for seven years,
2 and the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel. Because of the Midianites, the children of Israel made for themselves the dens, [a]the caves, and the strongholds which are in the mountains.

WORD Study — MIDIANITES

Judg. 6:1, 2 The Midianites were descendants of Abraham through his concubine Keturah (Gen. 25:1–6). The Midianites were semi nomads whose primary homeland was east of the Jordan River and south of Edom. Joseph was carried into bondage in Egypt by Midianites (Gen. 37:28, 36). Moses' wife and father-in-law were Midianites (Ex. 2:16, 21). They allied themselves with the Moabites in opposing the Israelites under Moses (Num. 22:7). The Midianites also helped the Moabites seduce the Israelites at Baal-peor (Num. 25:1–8). As a result, God commanded Moses to destroy them (Num. 31:3; Josh. 13:21).

3 So it was, whenever Israel had sown, Midianites would come up; also Amalekites and the [a]people of the East would come up against them.
4 Then they would encamp against them and [a]destroy the produce of the earth as far as Gaza, and leave no sustenance for Israel, neither sheep nor ox nor [b]donkey.
5 For they would come up with their livestock and their tents, coming in as numerous as locusts; both they and their camels were [1]without number; and they would enter the land to destroy it.
6 So Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites, and the children of Israel [a]cried out to the LORD.
7 And it came to pass, when the children of Israel cried out to the LORD because of the Midianites,
8 that the LORD sent a prophet to the children of Israel, who said to them,

"Thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'I brought you up from Egypt and brought you out of the [a]house of [1]bondage;
9 'and I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians and out of the hand of all who oppressed you, and [a]drove them out before you and gave you their land.
10 'Also I said to you, "I am the LORD your God; [a]do not fear the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell." But you have not obeyed My [b]voice.' "

Gideon

11 Now the Angel of the LORD came and sat under the terebinth tree which was in Ophrah, which belonged to Joash [a]the Abiezrite, while his son [b]Gideon threshed wheat in the winepress, in order to hide it from the Midianites.
12 And the [a]Angel of the LORD appeared to him, and said to him, "The LORD is [b]with you, you mighty man of valor!"
13 Gideon said to Him, "O [1]my lord, if the LORD is with us, why then has all this happened to us? And [a]where are all His miracles [b]which our fathers told us about, saying, 'Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt?' But now the LORD has [c]forsaken us and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites."
14 Then the LORD turned to him and said, [a]"Go in this might of yours, and you shall save Israel from the hand of the Midianites. [b]Have I not sent you?"
15 So he said to Him, "O [1]my Lord, how can I save Israel? Indeed [a]my clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house."
16 And the LORD said to him, [a]"Surely I will be with you, and you shall [1]defeat the Midianites as one man."
17 Then he said to Him, "If now I have found favor in Your sight, then [a]show me a sign that it is You who talk with me.
18 [a]"Do not depart from here, I pray, until I come to You and bring out my offering and set it before You." And He said, "I will wait until you come back."
19 [a]So Gideon went in and prepared a young goat, and unleavened bread from an ephah of flour. The meat he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot; and he brought them out to Him under the terebinth tree and presented them.
20 The Angel of God said to him, "Take the meat and the unleavened bread and [a]lay them on this rock, and [b]pour out the broth." And he did so.

21 Then the Angel of the LORD put out the end of the staff that was in His hand, and touched the meat and the unleavened bread; and [a]fire rose out of the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened bread. And the Angel of the LORD departed out of his sight.
22 Now Gideon [a]perceived that He was the Angel of the LORD. So Gideon said, "Alas, O Lord GOD! [b]For I have seen the Angel of the LORD face to face."
23 Then the LORD said to him, [a]"Peace be with you; do not fear, you shall not die."
24 So Gideon built an altar there to the LORD, and called it [1]The-LORD-Is-Peace. To this day it is still [a]in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.
25 Now it came to pass the same night that the LORD said to him, "Take your father's young bull, the second bull of seven years old, and [a]tear down the altar of [b]Baal that your father has, and [c]cut down the [1]wooden image that is beside it;
26 "and build an altar to the LORD your God on top of this [1]rock in the proper arrangement, and take the second bull and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the image which you shall cut down."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Judg. 6:25, 26

A New Altar

Before God accomplishes His purposes through our lives He will deal with our sin. Once that has been eradicated we are free to serve God in His power.

27 So Gideon took ten men from among his servants and did as the LORD had said to him. But because he feared his father's household and the men of the city too much to do it by day, he did it by night.

Gideon Destroys the Altar of Baal

28 And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, there was the altar of Baal, torn down; and the wooden image that was beside it was cut down, and the second bull was being offered on the altar which had been built.
29 So they said to one another, "Who has done this thing?" And when they had inquired and asked, they said,

6:11 Normally wheat was threshed by a threshing sledge drawn by an ox. This may indicate Gideon's fear of the Midianites or a meager harvest.

6:12 Jephtah and Boaz were also described this way (Judg. 11:1; Ruth 2:1).

6:19 An ephah of flour would have been between thirty-four and forty-five pounds, a significant gift in a time of such scarcity.

6:22 It was believed that a person could not look upon God and live (Gen. 32:30; Ex. 20:19; 33:20; Judg. 13:22; Is. 6:5).

"Gideon the son of Joash has done this thing."
30 Then the men of the city said to Joash, "Bring out your son, that he may die, because he has torn down the altar of Baal, and because he has cut down the wooden image that was beside it."
31 But Joash said to all who stood against him, "Would you [1]plead for Baal? Would you save him? Let the one who would plead for him be put to death by morning! If he is a god, let him plead for himself, because his altar has been torn down!"
32 Therefore on that day he called him [a]Jerubbaal,[1] saying, "Let Baal plead against him, because he has torn down his altar."
33 Then all [a]the Midianites and Amalekites, the people of the East, gathered together; and they crossed over and encamped in [b]the Valley of Jezreel.
34 But [a]the Spirit of the LORD came upon Gideon; then he [b]blew the trumpet, and the Abiezrites gathered behind him.
35 And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh, who also gathered behind him. He also sent messengers to [a]Asher, [b]Zebulun, and Naphtali; and they came up to meet them.

The Sign of the Fleece

36 So Gideon said to God, "If You will save Israel by my hand as You have said—
37 [a]"look, I shall put a fleece of wool on the threshing floor; if there is dew on the fleece only, and it is dry on all the ground, then I shall know that You will save Israel by my hand, as You have said."
38 And it was so. When he rose early the next morning and squeezed the fleece together, he wrung the dew out of the fleece, a bowlful of water.

Signs

Asking God for a sign is not a demonstration of faith. Once God speaks, obedience is required, not requests for more proof.

39 Then Gideon said to God, [a]"Do not be angry with me, but let me speak just once more: Let me test, I pray, just once more with the fleece; let it now be dry only on the fleece, but on all the ground let there be dew."
40 And God did so that night. It was dry on the fleece only, but there was dew on all the ground.

Gideon's Valiant Three Hundred

7 Then [a]Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) and all the people who were with him rose early and encamped beside the well of Harod, so that the camp of the Midianites was on the north side of them by the hill of Moreh in the valley.
2 And the LORD said to Gideon, "The people who are with you are too many for Me to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel [a]claim glory for itself against Me, saying, 'My own hand has saved me.'

ENCOUNTER*Note* Judg. 7:2

Claiming God's Glory

God works powerfully in our lives so there will be no mistaking His activity. This brings God the glory due Him, and it protects us from mistakenly attributing our success to ourselves.

CHARACTER*Study* GIDEON Judg. 7:1

Gideon's name means "Hewer" or "Smiter." He was also called Jerubbaal, meaning "Baal Strives" or "Baal Founds" or "May Baal Give Increase." He was the son of Joash from the clan of Abiezer and the tribe of Manasseh. Gideon was a humble, timid man who needed repeated promptings and encouragements from God to obey His commands. Gideon's two major acts of obedience were performed at night (Judg. 6:27; 7:19). God used this unlikely hero to utterly rout the Midianite horde and deliver the Israelites from their seven-year oppression. Gideon refused to be made king as a reward (8:22, 23); however, he did accept a bounty of gold which he used to make an ephod, which sadly became an object of idolatry to the Israelites (8:27). Gideon spent the remainder of his days in prosperity (8:29–32).

6:34 The Abiezrites and the tribe of Manasseh responded first, being Gideon's home town and his tribe.

7:3 God had instructed His people to release the cowardly from their ranks (Deut. 20:8).

fearful and afraid, let him turn and depart at once from Mount Gilead.' " And twenty-two thousand of the people returned, and ten thousand remained.
4 But the LORD said to Gideon, "The people are still too many; bring them down to the water, and I will test them for you there. Then it will be, that of whom I say to you, 'This one shall go with you,' the same shall go with you; and of whomever I say to you, 'This one shall not go with you,' the same shall not go."
5 So he brought the people down to the water. And the LORD said to Gideon, "Everyone who laps from the water with his tongue, as a dog laps, you shall set apart by himself; likewise everyone who gets down on his knees to drink."
6 And the number of those who lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, was three hundred men; but all the rest of the people got down on their knees to drink water.
7 Then the LORD said to Gideon, [a]"By the three hundred men who lapped I will save you, and deliver the Midianites into your hand. Let all the other people go, every man to his [1]place."
8 So the people took provisions and their trumpets in their hands. And he sent away all the rest of Israel, every man to his tent, and retained those three hundred men. Now the camp of Midian was below him in the valley.
9 It happened on the same [a]night that the LORD said to him, "Arise, go down against the camp, for I have delivered it into your hand.
10 "But if you are afraid to go down, go down to the camp with Purah your servant,
11 "and you shall [a]hear what they say; and afterward [1]your hands shall be strengthened to go down against the camp." Then he went down with Purah his servant to the outpost of the armed men who were in the camp.
12 Now the Midianites and Amalekites, [a]all the people of the East, were lying in the valley [b]as numerous as locusts; and their camels were [1]without number, as the sand by the seashore in multitude.
13 And when Gideon had come, there was a man telling a dream to his companion. He said, "I have had a dream: To my surprise, a loaf of barley bread tumbled into the camp of Midian; it came to a tent and struck it so that it fell and overturned, and the tent collapsed."
14 Then his companion answered and said, "This is nothing else but the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel! Into his hand [a]God has delivered Midian and the whole camp."
15 And so it was, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream and its interpretation, that he worshiped. He returned to the camp of Israel, and said, "Arise, for the LORD has delivered the camp of Midian into your hand."
16 Then he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put a trumpet into every man's hand, with empty pitchers, and torches inside the pitchers.
17 And he said to them, "Look at me and do likewise; watch, and when I come to the edge of the camp you shall do as I do:
18 "When I blow the trumpet, I and all who are with me, then you also blow the trumpets on every side of the whole camp, and say, 'The sword of the LORD and of Gideon!' "
19 So Gideon and the hundred men who were with him came to the outpost of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, just as they had posted the watch; and they blew the trumpets and broke the pitchers that were in their hands.
20 Then the three companies blew the trumpets and broke the pitchers—they held the torches in their left hands and the trumpets in their right hands for blowing—and they cried, "The sword of the LORD and of Gideon!"
21 And [a]every man stood in his place all around the camp; [b]and the whole army ran and cried out and fled.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Judg. 7:21

Stand in Place

While God often involves us in His work, His work does not depend on us. We can stand and watch as God delivers us.

22 When the three hundred [a]blew the trumpets, [b]the LORD set [c]every man's sword against his companion throughout the whole camp; and the army fled to [1]Beth Acacia, toward Zererah, as far as the border of [d]Abel Meholah, by Tabbath.
23 And the men of Israel gathered together from [a]Naphtali, Asher, and all Manasseh, and pursued the Midianites.
24 Then Gideon sent messengers throughout all the [a]mountains of Ephraim, saying, "Come down against the Midianites, and seize from them the watering places as far as Beth Barah and the Jordan." Then all the men of Ephraim gathered together and [b]seized the watering places as far as [c]Beth Barah and the Jordan.

25 And they captured [a]two princes of the Midianites, [b]Oreb and Zeeb. They killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb they killed at the winepress of Zeeb. They pursued Midian and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the [c]other side of the Jordan.

Gideon Subdues the Midianites

8 Now [a]the men of Ephraim said to him, "Why have you done this to us by not calling us when you went to fight with the Midianites?" And they reprimanded him sharply.
2 So he said to them, "What have I done now in comparison with you? Is not the [1]gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim better than [2]the vintage of [a]Abiezer?
3 [a]"God has delivered into your hands the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb. And what was I able to do in comparison with you?" Then their [b]anger toward him subsided when he said that.
4 When Gideon came [a]to the Jordan, he and [b]the three hundred men who were with him crossed over, exhausted but still in pursuit.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Judg. 8:4

Still in Pursuit

When God gives a promise, we must claim it and pursue it until it comes to pass. We would experience the fulfillment of God's promises more often if we did not give up too soon.

5 Then he said to the men of [a]Succoth, "Please give loaves of bread to the people who follow me, for they are exhausted, and I am pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian."
6 And the leaders of Succoth said, [a]"Are[1] the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that [b]we should give bread to your army?"
7 So Gideon said, "For this cause, when the LORD has delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, [a]then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers!"
8 Then he went up from there [a]to Penuel and spoke to them in the same way. And the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered.
9 So he also spoke to the men of Penuel, saying, "When I [a]come back in peace, [b]I will tear down this tower!"
10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were at Karkor, and their armies with them, about fifteen thousand, all who were left of [a]all the army of the people of the East; for [b]one hundred and twenty thousand men who drew the sword had fallen.
11 Then Gideon went up by the road of those who dwell in tents on the east of [a]Nobah and Jogbehah; and he [1]attacked the army while the camp felt [b]secure.
12 When Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he pursued them; and he [a]took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and routed the whole army.
13 Then Gideon the son of Joash returned from battle, from the Ascent of Heres.
14 And he caught a young man of the men of Succoth and interrogated him; and he wrote down for him the leaders of Succoth and its elders, seventy-seven men.
15 Then he came to the men of Succoth and said, "Here are Zebah and Zalmunna, about whom you [a]ridiculed me, saying, 'Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your weary men?' "
16 [a]And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he [1]taught the men of Succoth.
17 [a]Then he tore down the tower of [b]Penuel and killed the men of the city.
18 And he said to Zebah and Zalmunna, "What kind of men were they whom you killed at [a]Tabor?" So they answered, "As you are, so were they; each one resembled the son of a king."
19 Then he said, "They were my brothers, the sons of my mother. As the LORD lives, if you had let them live, I would not kill you."
20 And he said to Jether his firstborn, "Rise, kill them!" But the youth would not draw his sword; for he was afraid, because he was still a youth.
21 So Zebah and Zalmunna said, "Rise yourself, and kill us; for as a man is, so is his strength." So Gideon arose and

Gideon's Ephod

22 Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, [a]"Rule over us, both you and your son, and your grandson also; for you have [b]delivered us from the hand of Midian."
23 But Gideon said to them, "I will not rule over you, nor shall my son rule over you; [a]the LORD shall rule over you."
24 Then Gideon said to them, "I would like to [1]make a request of you, that each of you would give me the earrings from his plunder." For they had golden earrings, [a]because they were Ishmaelites.
25 So they answered, "We will gladly give them." And they spread out a garment, and each man threw into it the earrings from his plunder.
26 Now the weight of the gold earrings that he requested was one thousand seven hundred shekels of gold, besides the crescent ornaments, pendants, and purple robes which were on the kings of Midian, and besides the chains that were around their camels' necks.
27 Then Gideon [a]made it into an ephod and set it up in his city, [b]Ophrah. And all Israel [c]played the harlot with it there. It became [d]a snare to Gideon and to his house.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Judg. 8:27

Tests of Prosperity

If a crisis cannot shake our faith in God, prosperity may. Hardship drives us to God. Prosperity distracts us with its pleasures.

28 Thus Midian was subdued before the children of Israel, so that they lifted their heads no more. [a]And the country was quiet for forty years in the days of Gideon.

Death of Gideon

29 Then [a]Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and dwelt in his own house.
30 Gideon had [a]seventy sons who were his own offspring, for he had many wives.
31 [a]And his concubine who was in Shechem also bore him a son, whose name he called Abimelech.
32 Now Gideon the son of Joash died [a]at a good old age, and was buried in the tomb of Joash his father, [b]in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.
33 So it was, [a]as soon as Gideon was dead, that the children of Israel again [b]played the harlot with the Baals, [c]and made Baal-Berith their god.
34 Thus the children of Israel [a]did not remember the LORD their God, who had delivered them from the hands of all their enemies on every side;
35 [a]nor did they show kindness to the house of Jerubbaal (Gideon) in accordance with the good he had done for Israel.

Abimelech's Conspiracy

9 Then Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem, to [a]his mother's brothers, and spoke with them and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying,
2 "Please speak in the hearing of all the men of Shechem: 'Which is better for you, that all [a]seventy of the sons of Jerubbaal reign over you, or that one reign over you?' Remember that I am your own flesh and [b]bone."
3 And his mother's brothers spoke all these words concerning him in the hearing of all the men of Shechem; and their heart was inclined to follow Abimelech, for they said, "He is our [a]brother."
4 So they gave him seventy shekels of silver from the temple of [a]Baal-Berith, with which Abimelech hired [b]worthless and reckless men; and they followed him.
5 Then he went to his father's house [a]at Ophrah and [b]killed his brothers, the seventy sons of Jerubbaal, on one stone. But Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left, because he hid himself.
6 And all the men of Shechem gathered together, all of Beth Millo, and they went and made Abimelech king beside the terebinth tree at the pillar that was in Shechem.

The Parable of the Trees

7 Now when they told Jotham, he went and stood on top of [a]Mount Gerizim, and lifted his voice and cried out. And he said to them:

"Listen to me, you men of Shechem,
That God may listen to you!

8 "The[a] trees once went forth to anoint a king over them.
And they said to the olive tree,

21 And Jotham ran away and fled; and he went to [a]Beer and dwelt there, for fear of Abimelech his brother.

24 [a]that the crime done to the seventy sons of Jerubbaal might be settled and their [b]blood be laid on Abimelech their brother, who killed them, and on the men of Shechem, who aided him in the killing of his brothers.
25 And the men of Shechem set [1]men in ambush against him on the tops of the mountains, and they robbed all who passed by them along that way; and it was told Abimelech.
26 Now Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brothers and went over to Shechem; and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him.
27 So they went out into the fields, and gathered grapes from their vineyards and trod them, and [1]made merry. And they went into [a]the house of their god, and ate and drank, and cursed Abimelech.
28 Then Gaal the son of Ebed said, [a]"Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Jerubbaal, and is not Zebul his officer? Serve the men of [b]Hamor the father of Shechem; but why should we serve him?
29 [a]"If only this people were under my [1]authority! Then I would remove Abimelech." So [2]he said to Abimelech, "Increase your army and come out!"
30 When Zebul, the ruler of the city, heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger was aroused.
31 And he sent messengers to Abimelech secretly, saying, "Take note! Gaal the son of Ebed and his brothers have come to Shechem; and here they are, fortifying the city against you.
32 "Now therefore, get up by night, you and the people who are with you, and [1]lie in wait in the field.
33 "And it shall be, as soon as the sun is up in the morning, that you shall rise early and rush upon the city; and when he and the people who are with him come out against you, you may then do to them [1]as you find opportunity."
34 So Abimelech and all the people who were with him rose by night, and [1]lay in wait against Shechem in four companies.
35 When Gaal the son of Ebed went out and stood in the entrance to the city gate, Abimelech and the people who were with him rose from lying in wait.
36 And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, "Look, people are coming down from the tops of the mountains!" But Zebul said to him, "You see the shadows of the mountains as if they were men."

9:21 "Beer" means "Well."

37 So Gaal spoke again and said, "See, people are coming down from the center of the land, and another company is coming from the [1]Diviners' Terebinth Tree."
38 Then Zebul said to him, "Where indeed is your mouth now, with which you [a]said, 'Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him?' Are not these the people whom you despised? Go out, if you will, and fight with them now."
39 So Gaal went out, leading the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.
40 And Abimelech chased him, and he fled from him; and many fell wounded, to the very entrance of the gate.
41 Then Abimelech dwelt at Arumah, and Zebul [1]drove out Gaal and his brothers, so that they would not dwell in Shechem.
42 And it came about on the next day that the people went out into the field, and they told Abimelech.
43 So he took his people, divided them into three companies, and lay in wait in the field. And he looked, and there were the people, coming out of the city; and he rose against them and [1]attacked them.
44 Then Abimelech and the company that was with him rushed forward and stood at the entrance of the gate of the city; and the other two companies rushed upon all who were in the fields and killed them.
45 So Abimelech fought against the city all that day; [a]he took the city and killed the people who were in it; and he [b]demolished the city and sowed it with salt.
46 Now when all the men of the tower of Shechem had heard that, they entered the [1]stronghold of the temple [a]of the god Berith.
47 And it was told Abimelech that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together.
48 Then Abimelech went up to Mount [a]Zalmon, he and all the people who were with him. And Abimelech took an ax in his hand and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it and laid it on his shoulder; then he said to the people who were with him, "What you have seen me do, make haste and do as I have done."
49 So each of the people likewise cut down his own bough and followed Abimelech, put them against the [1]stronghold, and set the stronghold on fire above them, so that all the people of the tower of Shechem died, about a thousand men and women.
50 Then Abimelech went to Thebez, and he [1]encamped against Thebez and took it.
51 But there was a strong tower in the city, and all the men and women—all the people of the city—fled there and shut themselves in; then they went up to the top of the tower.
52 So Abimelech came as far as the tower and fought against it; and he drew near the door of the tower to burn it with fire.
53 But a certain woman [a]dropped an upper millstone on Abimelech's head and crushed his skull.
54 Then [a]he called quickly to the young man, his armorbearer, and said to him, "Draw your sword and kill me, lest men say of me, 'A woman killed him.' " So his young man thrust him through, and he died.
55 And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed, every man to his [1]place.
56 [a]Thus God repaid the wickedness of Abimelech, which he had done to his father by killing his seventy brothers.
57 And all the evil of the men of Shechem God returned on their own heads, and on them came [a]the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal.

On Our Head

The sin we commit upon others inevitably comes back upon us in some way.

Tola

CHAPTER 10

10 After Abimelech there [a]arose to save Israel Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar; and he dwelt in Shamir in the mountains of Ephraim.
2 He judged Israel twenty-three years; and he died and was buried in Shamir.

Jair

3 After him arose Jair, a Gileadite; and he judged Israel twenty-two years.
4 Now he had thirty sons who [a]rode on thirty donkeys; they also had thirty towns, [b]which are called [1]"Havoth Jair"

5 And Jair died and was buried in Camon.

Israel Oppressed Again

6 Then [a]the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD, and [b]served the Baals and the Ashtoreths, [c]the gods of Syria, the gods of [d]Sidon, the gods of Moab, the gods of the people of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines; and they forsook the LORD and did not serve Him.
7 So the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel; and He [a]sold them into the hands of the [b]Philistines and into the hands of the people of [c]Ammon.
8 From that year they [1]harassed and oppressed the children of Israel for eighteen years—all the children of Israel who were on the other side of the Jordan in the [a]land of the Amorites, in Gilead.
9 Moreover the people of Ammon crossed over the Jordan to fight against Judah also, against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim, so that Israel was severely distressed.
10 [a]And the children of Israel cried out to the LORD, saying, "We have [b]sinned against You, because we have both forsaken our God and served the Baals!"
11 So the LORD said to the children of Israel, "Did I not deliver you [a]from the Egyptians and [b]from the Amorites and [c]from the people of Ammon and [d]from the Philistines?
12 "Also [a]the Sidonians [b]and Amalekites and [1]Maonites [c]oppressed you; and you cried out to Me, and I delivered you from their hand.
13 [a]"Yet you have forsaken Me and served other gods. Therefore I will deliver you no more.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Judg. 10:13

Delivered No More

God is under no obligation to save us from adversity, especially if we have brought it on ourselves. If we are constantly experiencing defeat we should hasten to God to find the reason.

14 "Go and [a]cry out to the gods which you have chosen; let them deliver you in your time of distress."
15 And the children of Israel said to the LORD, "We have sinned! [a]Do to us whatever seems best to You; only deliver us this day, we pray."
16 [a]So they put away the foreign gods from among them and served the LORD. And [b]His soul could no longer endure the misery of Israel.
17 Then the people of Ammon gathered together and encamped in Gilead. And the children of Israel assembled together and encamped in [a]Mizpah.
18 And the people, the leaders of Gilead, said to one another, "Who is the man who will begin the fight against the people of Ammon? He shall [a]be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead."

Jephthah

11 Now [a]Jephthah the Gileadite was [b]a mighty man of valor, but he was the son of a harlot; and Gilead begot Jephthah.
2 Gilead's wife bore sons; and when his wife's sons grew up, they drove Jephthah out, and said to him, "You shall have [a]no inheritance in our father's house, for you are the son of another woman."
3 Then Jephthah fled from his brothers and dwelt in the land of [a]Tob; and [b]worthless men banded together with Jephthah and went out raiding with him.
4 It came to pass after a time that the [a]people of Ammon made war against Israel.
5 And so it was, when the people of Ammon made war against Israel, that the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah from the land of Tob.
6 Then they said to Jephthah, "Come and be our commander, that we may fight against the people of Ammon."
7 So Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, [a]"Did you not hate me, and expel me from my father's house? Why have you come to me now when you are in [1]distress?"
8 [a]And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "That is why we have [b]turned[1] again to you now, that you may go with us and fight against the people of Ammon, and be [c]our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead."
9 So Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "If you take me back home to fight against the people of Ammon, and the LORD delivers them to me, shall I be your head?"
10 And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, [a]"The LORD will be a witness

10:17 "Mizpah" means "Watchtower."

11:3 Tob is the modern el-Taiyibeh. It was fifteen miles northeast of Ramoth Gilead just outside the boundary of Israel. Jephthah means "He opens." The people of Gilead descended from a man of the same name (Num. 26:29, 30; 27:1; 36:1).

11:10 "The Lord will be a witness" is literally "the Lord will be listening."

between us, if we do not do according to your words."
11 Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him [a]head and commander over them; and Jephthah spoke all his words [b]before the LORD in Mizpah.
12 Now Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the people of Ammon, saying, [a]"What do you have against me, that you have come to fight against me in my land?"
13 And the king of the people of Ammon answered the messengers of Jephthah, [a]"Because Israel took away my land when they came up out of Egypt, from [b]the Arnon as far as [c]the Jabbok, and to the Jordan. Now therefore, restore those lands peaceably."
14 So Jephthah again sent messengers to the king of the people of Ammon,
15 and said to him, "Thus says Jephthah: [a]'Israel did not take away the land of Moab, nor the land of the people of Ammon;
16 'for when Israel came up from Egypt, they walked through the wilderness as far as the Red Sea and [a]came to Kadesh.
17 'Then [a]Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, "Please let me pass through your land." [b]But the king of Edom would not heed. And in like manner they sent to the [c]king of Moab, but he would not consent. So Israel [d]remained in Kadesh.
18 'And they [a]went along through the wilderness and [b]bypassed the land of Edom and the land of Moab, came to the east side of the land of Moab, and encamped on the other side of the Arnon. But they did not enter the border of Moab, for the Arnon was the border of Moab.
19 'Then [a]Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, king of Heshbon; and Israel said to him, "Please [b]let us pass through your land into our place."
20 [a]'But Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory. So Sihon gathered all his people together, encamped in Jahaz, and fought against Israel.
21 'And the LORD God of Israel [a]delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they [b]defeated[1] them. Thus Israel gained possession of all the land of the Amorites, who inhabited that country.
22 'They took possession of [a]all the territory of the Amorites, from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the wilderness to the Jordan.
23 'And now the LORD God of Israel has [1]dispossessed the Amorites from before His people Israel; should you then possess it?
24 'Will you not possess whatever [a]Chemosh your god gives you to possess? So whatever [b]the LORD our God takes possession of before us, we will possess.
25 'And now, are you any better than [a]Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever strive against Israel? Did he ever fight against them?
26 'While Israel dwelt in [a]Heshbon and its villages, in [b]Aroer and its villages, and in all the cities along the banks of the Arnon, for three hundred years, why did you not recover them within that time?
27 'Therefore I have not sinned against you, but you wronged me by fighting against me. May the LORD, [a]the Judge, [b]render judgment this day between the children of Israel and the people of Ammon.' "
28 However, the king of the people of Ammon did not heed the words which Jephthah sent him.

Jephthah's Vow and Victory

29 Then [a]the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, and he passed through Gilead and Manasseh, and passed through Mizpah of Gilead; and from Mizpah of Gilead he advanced toward the people of Ammon.
30 And Jephthah [a]made a vow to the LORD, and said, "If You will indeed deliver the people of Ammon into my hands,
31 "then it will be that whatever comes out of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the people of Ammon, [a]shall surely be the LORD's, [b]and I will offer it up as a burnt offering."

Our Thinking, Not God's

God does not ask us to give our best; He expects us to seek His best. Our own schemes may seem wise to us, but they can ultimately cause us much grief.

32 So Jephthah advanced toward the people of Ammon to fight against them, and the LORD delivered them into his hands.
33 And he [1]defeated them from Aroer as far as [a]Minnith—twenty cities—and

Jephthah's Daughter

34 When Jephthah came to his house at [a]Mizpah, there was [b]his daughter, coming out to meet him with timbrels and dancing; and she was his only child. Besides her he had neither son nor daughter.
35 And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he [a]tore his clothes, and said, "Alas, my daughter! You have brought me very low! You are among those who trouble me! For I [b]have [1]given my word to the LORD, and [c]I cannot [2]go back on it."
36 So she said to him, "My father, if you have given your word to the LORD, [a]do to me according to what has gone out of your mouth, because [b]the LORD has avenged you of your enemies, the people of Ammon."
37 Then she said to her father, "Let this thing be done for me: let me alone for two months, that I may go and wander on the mountains and [1]bewail my virginity, my [2]friends and I."
38 So he said, "Go." And he sent her away for two months; and she went with her friends, and bewailed her virginity on the mountains.
39 And it was so at the end of two months that she returned to her father, and he [a]carried out his vow with her which he had vowed. She [1]knew no man. And it became a custom in Israel

Jephthah's Conflict with Ephraim

12 Then [a]the men of Ephraim [1]gathered together, crossed over toward Zaphon, and said to Jephthah, "Why did you cross over to fight against the people of Ammon, and did not call us to go with you? We will burn your house down on you with fire!"
2 And Jephthah said to them, "My people and I were in a great struggle with the people of Ammon; and when I called you, you did not deliver me out of their hands.
3 "So when I saw that you would not deliver me, I [a]took my life in my hands and crossed over against the people of Ammon; and the LORD delivered them into my hand. Why then have you come up to me this day to fight against me?"

ENCOUNTER Note — Judg. 12:3

The Lord Delivers

Our victories are not our own, despite our best effort. God provides them and makes them possible.

4 Now Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead and fought against Ephraim. And the men of Gilead defeated Ephraim, because they said, "You Gileadites [a]are fugitives of Ephraim among the Ephraimites and among the Manassites."
5 The Gileadites seized the [a]fords of the Jordan before the Ephraimites arrived. And when any Ephraimite who escaped said, "Let me cross over," the men of Gilead would say to him, "Are you an Ephraimite?" If he said, "No,"
6 then they would say to him, "Then say, [a]'Shibboleth'!"[1] And he would say, "Sibboleth," for he could not [2]pronounce it right. Then they would take him and kill him at the fords of the Jordan. There fell at that time forty-two thousand Ephraimites.
7 And Jephthah judged Israel six years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died and was buried in among the cities of Gilead.

Ibzan, Elon, and Abdon

8 After him, Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel.
9 He had thirty sons. And he gave away thirty daughters in marriage, and brought in thirty daughters from elsewhere for his sons. He judged Israel seven years.
10 Then Ibzan died and was buried at Bethlehem.
11 After him, Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel. He judged Israel ten years.
12 And Elon the Zebulunite died and was buried at Aijalon in the country of Zebulun.

11:39 Scripture does not specify that Jephthah sacrificed his daughter, only that he carried out his vow. Human sacrifices were prohibited in Israel (Lev. 18:21; 20:2; Deut. 12:31; 18:10). The fact that his daughter "knew no man" could mean she was devoted to God's service and restricted from marriage. However, the Bible is not clear about what was done.

12:5 The fords across the Jordan River were strategic military sites (Judg. 3:28, 29; 7:24).

12:6 "Shibboleth" means "ear of corn." The variance in pronouncing this word indicates the differences between the tribes despite their both belonging to Israel.

12:8 Jephthah was childless, but the judges who immediately preceded and followed him each had thirty sons (Judg. 10:3).

13 After him, Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite judged Israel.
14 He had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who [a]rode on seventy young donkeys. He judged Israel eight years.
15 Then Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, [a]in the mountains of the Amalekites.

The Birth of Samson

13 Again the children of Israel [a]did evil in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD delivered them [b]into the hand of the Philistines for forty years.
2 Now there was a certain man from [a]Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife was barren and had no children.
3 And the [a]Angel of the LORD appeared to the woman and said to her, "Indeed now, you are barren and have borne no children, but you shall conceive and bear a son.
4 "Now therefore, please be careful [a]not to drink wine or similar drink, and not to eat anything unclean.
5 "For behold, you shall conceive and bear a son. And no [a]razor shall come upon his head, for the child shall be [b]a Nazirite to God from the womb; and he shall [c]begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines."
6 So the woman came and told her husband, saying, [a]"A Man of God came to me, and His [b]countenance[1] was like the countenance of the Angel of God, very awesome; but I [c]did not ask Him where He was from, and He did not tell me His name.
7 "And He said to me, 'Behold, you shall conceive and bear a son. Now drink no wine or similar drink, nor eat anything unclean, for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb to the day of his death.' "
8 Then Manoah prayed to the LORD, and said, "O my Lord, please let the Man of God whom You sent come to us again and teach us what we shall do for the child who will be born."
9 And God listened to the voice of Manoah, and the Angel of God came to the woman again as she was sitting in the field; but Manoah her husband was not with her.
10 Then the woman ran in haste and told her husband, and said to him, "Look, the Man who came to me the other day has just now appeared to me!"
11 So Manoah arose and followed his wife. When he came to the Man, he said to Him, "Are You the Man who spoke to this woman?" And He said, "I am."
12 Manoah said, "Now let Your words come to pass! What will be the boy's rule of life, and his work?"
13 So the Angel of the LORD said to Manoah, "Of all that I said to the woman let her be careful.
14 "She may not eat anything that comes from the vine, [a]nor may she drink wine or similar drink, nor eat anything unclean. All that I commanded her let her observe."
15 Then Manoah said to the Angel of the LORD, "Please [a]let us detain You, and we will prepare a young goat for You."
16 And the Angel of the LORD said to Manoah, "Though you detain Me, I will not eat your food. But if you offer a burnt offering, you must offer it to the LORD." (For Manoah did not know He was the Angel of the LORD.)
17 Then Manoah said to the Angel of the LORD, "What is Your name, that when Your words come to pass we may honor You?"
18 And the Angel of the LORD said to him, [a]"Why do you ask My name, seeing it is wonderful?"
19 So Manoah took the young goat with the grain offering, [a]and offered it upon the rock to the LORD. And He did a wondrous thing while Manoah and his wife looked on—
20 it happened as the flame went up toward heaven from the altar—the Angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar! When Manoah and his wife saw this, they [a]fell on their faces to the ground.
21 When the Angel of the LORD appeared no more to Manoah and his wife, [a]then Manoah knew that He was the Angel of the LORD.

Appeared No More

Sometimes God speaks to us in dramatic fashion. Then He need not say anything further; rather it is time for us to believe Him and obey what He has already told us.

13:1 "Delivered" indicates that Israel's enemies were allowed to dominate them as part of God's discipline upon His people.

13:2 Zorah was fourteen miles west of Jerusalem.

13:5 "Nazirite" means "one separated." Nazirites had three primary limitations they voluntarily assumed: they could not drink wine, they could not cut their hair, and they could not touch a corpse (Num. 6:1–21).

23 But his wife said to him, "If the LORD had desired to kill us, He would not have accepted a burnt offering and a grain offering from our hands, nor would He have shown us all these things, nor would He have told us such things as these at this time."
24 So the woman bore a son and called his name [a]Samson; and [b]the child grew, and the LORD blessed him.
25 [a]And the Spirit of the LORD began to move upon him at [1]Mahaneh Dan [b]between Zorah and [c]Eshtaol.

Samson's Philistine Wife

14 Now Samson went down [a]to Timnah, and [b]saw a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines.
2 So he went up and told his father and mother, saying, "I have seen a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines; now therefore, [a]get her for me as a wife."
3 Then his father and mother said to him, "Is there no woman among the daughters of [a]your brethren, or among all my people, that you must go and get a wife from the [b]uncircumcised Philistines?" And Samson said to his father, "Get her for me, for [1]she pleases me well."
4 But his father and mother did not know that it was [a]of the LORD—that He was seeking an occasion to move against the Philistines. For at that time [b]the Philistines had dominion over Israel.
5 So Samson went down to Timnah with his father and mother, and came to the vineyards of Timnah.

Now to his surprise, a young lion came roaring against him.
6 And [a]the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and he tore the lion apart as one would have torn apart a young goat, though he had nothing in his hand. But he did not tell his father or his mother what he had done.
7 Then he went down and talked with the woman; and she pleased Samson well.
8 After some time, when he returned to get her, he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion. And behold, a swarm of bees and honey were in the carcass of the lion.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Judg. 14:6

The Spirit of the Lord

The Spirit of the Lord gives us strength far beyond our own. Such power comes at God's discretion and for His purposes.

9 He took some of it in his hands and went along, eating. When he came to his father and mother, he gave some to them, and they also ate. But he did not tell them that he had taken the honey out of the [a]carcass of the lion.
10 So his father went down to the woman. And Samson gave a feast there, for young men used to do so.
11 And it happened, when they saw him, that they brought thirty companions to be with him.
12 Then Samson said to them, "Let me [a]pose a riddle to you. If you can correctly solve and explain it to me [b]within the seven days of the feast, then I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty [c]changes of clothing.
13 "But if you cannot explain it to me, then you shall give me thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing." And they said to him, [a]"Pose your riddle, that we may hear it."
14 So he said to them:

"Out of the eater came something to eat,
And out of the strong came something sweet."

Now for three days they could not explain the riddle.

WORD*Study* RIDDLE

Judg. 14:14 The Hebrew word chidah, translated "riddle," means an enigmatic saying. The queen of Sheba tested King Solomon with riddles (1 Kin. 10:1; 2 Chr. 9:1). Of the 21 occurrences of the word in the Old Testament, eleven are found in Judges 14.

15 But it came to pass on the [1]seventh day that they said to Samson's wife, [a]"Entice your husband, that he may ex-

13:24 The name "Samson" comes from a Hebrew word meaning "sun."

13:25 The Spirit of the Lord motivated Samson to take action.

14:1 Timnah was four miles southwest of Zorah.

14:3 The law forbade marriages between Israelites and non-Israelites (Ex. 34:16; Deut. 7:3).

14:6 Other judges received the Spirit of the Lord but this gift was usually not manifested by extraordinary physical strength (Judg. 3:10; 6:34; 11:29).

14:8 Touching a dead lion violated the Nazirite prohibition against touching corpses (Num. 13:5).

14:10 The feast would certainly have involved the drinking of much wine. For Samson to partake would have broken his Nazirite vow (Num. 13:5).

14:12 The word for "linen garments" describes expensive clothing (Prov. 31:24; Is. 3:23). This would have been a large wager.

plain the riddle to us, [b]or else we will burn you and your father's house with fire. Have you invited us in order to take what is ours? Is that not so?"
16 Then Samson's wife wept on him, and said, [a]"You only hate me! You do not love me! You have posed a riddle to the sons of my people, but you have not explained it to me." And he said to her, "Look, I have not explained it to my father or my mother; so should I explain it to you?"
17 Now she had wept on him the seven days while their feast lasted. And it happened on the seventh day that he told her, because she pressed him so much. Then she explained the riddle to the sons of her people.
18 So the men of the city said to him on the seventh day before the sun went down:

"What is sweeter than honey?
And what is stronger than a lion?"

And he said to them:

"If you had not plowed with my heifer,
You would not have solved my riddle!"

19 Then [a]the Spirit of the LORD came upon him mightily, and he went down to Ashkelon and killed thirty of their men, took their apparel, and gave the changes of clothing to those who had explained the riddle. So his anger was aroused, and he went back up to his father's house.
20 And Samson's wife [a]was given to his companion, who had been [b]his best man.

Samson Defeats the Philistines

15 After a while, in the time of wheat harvest, it happened that Samson visited his wife with a [a]young goat. And he said, "Let me go in to my wife, into her room." But her father would not permit him to go in.
2 Her father said, "I really thought that you thoroughly [a]hated her; therefore I gave her to your companion. Is not her younger sister better than she? Please, take her instead."
3 And Samson said to them, "This time I shall be blameless regarding the Philistines if I harm them!"
4 Then Samson went and caught three hundred foxes; and he took torches, turned the foxes tail to tail, and put a torch between each pair of tails.
5 When he had set the torches on fire, he let the foxes go into the standing grain of the Philistines, and burned up both the shocks and the standing grain, as well as the vineyards and olive groves.
6 Then the Philistines said, "Who has done this?" And they answered, "Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he has taken his wife and given her to his companion." [a]So the Philistines came up and burned her and her father with fire.
7 Samson said to them, "Since you would do a thing like this, I will surely take revenge on you, and after that I will cease."

ENCOUNTER Note Judg. 15:7

Retaliation

Seeking to have the last word inevitably leads to more pain. When we retaliate against our enemies, we invite suffering.

8 So he attacked them hip and thigh with a great slaughter; then he went down and dwelt in the cleft of the rock of [a]Etam.
9 Now the Philistines went up, encamped in Judah, and deployed themselves [a]against Lehi.
10 And the men of Judah said, "Why have you come up against us?" So they answered, "We have come up to [1]arrest Samson, to do to him as he has done to us."
11 Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam, and said to Samson, "Do you not know that the Philistines [a]rule over us? What is this you have done to us?" And he said to them, "As they did to me, so I have done to them."
12 But they said to him, "We have come down to arrest you, that we may deliver you into the hand of the Philistines." Then Samson said to them, "Swear to me that you will not kill me yourselves."
13 So they spoke to him, saying, "No, but we will tie you securely and deliver you into their hand; but we will surely not kill you." And they bound him with 14 When he came to Lehi, the Philistines came shouting against him. Then [a]the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him; and the ropes that were on his arms became like flax that is burned with fire, and his bonds [1]broke loose from his hands.

15 He found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, reached out his hand and took it, and [a]killed a thousand men with it.
16 Then Samson said:

"With the jawbone of a donkey,
Heaps upon heaps,
With the jawbone of a donkey
I have slain a thousand men!"

17 And so it was, when he had finished speaking, that he threw the jawbone from his hand, and called that place [1]Ramath Lehi.
18 Then he became very thirsty; so he cried out to the LORD and said, [a]"You have given this great deliverance by the hand of Your servant; and now shall I die of thirst and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?"
19 So God split the hollow place that is in [1]Lehi, and water came out, and he drank; and [a]his spirit returned, and he revived. Therefore he called its name [2]En Hakkore, which is in Lehi to this day.
20 And [a]he judged Israel [b]twenty years [c]in the days of the Philistines.

Samson and Delilah

16 Now Samson went to [a]Gaza and saw a harlot there, and went in to her.
2 When the Gazites were told, "Samson has come here!" they [a]surrounded the place and lay in wait for him all night at the gate of the city. They were quiet all night, saying, "In the morning, when it is daylight, we will kill him."
3 And Samson lay low till midnight; then he arose at midnight, took hold of the doors of the gate of the city and the two gateposts, pulled them up, bar and all, put them on his shoulders, and carried them to the top of the hill that faces Hebron.
4 Afterward it happened that he loved a woman in the Valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah.
5 And the [a]lords of the Philistines came up to her and said to her, [b]"Entice him, and find out where his great strength lies, and by what means we may overpower him, that we may bind him to afflict him; and every one of us will give you eleven hundred pieces of silver."
6 So Delilah said to Samson, "Please tell me where your great strength lies, and with what you may be bound to afflict you."
7 And Samson said to her, "If they bind me with seven fresh bowstrings, not yet dried, then I shall become weak, and be like any other man."
8 So the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven fresh bowstrings, not yet dried, and she bound him with them.
9 Now men were lying in wait, staying with her in the room. And she said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" But he broke the bowstrings as a strand of yarn breaks when it touches fire. So the secret of his strength was not known.
10 Then Delilah said to Samson, "Look, you have mocked me and told me lies. Now, please tell me what you may be bound with."
11 So he said to her, "If they bind me securely with [a]new ropes [1]that have never been used, then I shall become weak, and be like any other man."
12 Therefore Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them, and said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" And men were lying in wait, staying in the room. But he broke them off his arms like a thread.
13 Delilah said to Samson, "Until now you have mocked me and told me lies. Tell me what you may be bound with." And he said to her, "If you weave the

CHARACTER Study — SAMSON — Judg. 16:10

Samson, whose name means "Of the Sun," was born as a special gift of God to Manoah and his wife. He was dedicated at birth as a lifelong Nazirite, which meant he could not cut his hair, drink strong wine, or touch a corpse (Judg. 6:1–8). Ultimately Samson violated all three restrictions. The Spirit of the Lord gave him incredible physical strength, but his susceptibility to sensual pleasures demonstrated a profound character weakness. Samson was defeated not by his enemies but by his lack of self control. He killed thousands of his enemies, but he never lived to realize his potential as a leader of God's people.

seven locks of my head into the web of the loom"—
14 So she wove it tightly with the batten of the loom, and said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" But he awoke from his sleep, and pulled out the batten and the web from the loom.
15 Then she said to him, [a]"How can you say, 'I love you,' when your heart is not with me? You have mocked me these three times, and have not told me where your great strength lies."
16 And it came to pass, when she pestered him daily with her words and pressed him, so that his soul was [1]vexed to death,
17 that he [a]told her all his heart, and said to her, [b]"No razor has ever come upon my head, for I have been a Nazirite to God from my mother's womb. If I am shaven, then my strength will leave me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man."
18 When Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, "Come up once more, for he has told me all his heart." So the lords of the Philistines came up to her and brought the money in their hand.
19 [a]Then she lulled him to sleep on her knees, and called for a man and had him shave off the seven locks of his head. Then [1]she began to torment him, and his strength left him.
20 And she said, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" So he awoke from his sleep, and said, "I will go out as before, at other times, and shake myself free!" But he did not know that the LORD [a]had departed from him.

ENCOUNTER Note Judg. 16:20

The Lord Departed

Times of crisis reveal whether we are living in God's power or in our own. It is possible to be so preoccupied we don't even notice that God's strength has left us.

21 Then the Philistines took him and [1]put out his [a]eyes, and brought him down to Gaza. They bound him with bronze fetters, and he became a grinder in the prison.
22 However, the hair of his head began to grow again after it had been shaven.

Samson Dies with the Philistines

23 Now the lords of the Philistines gathered together to offer a great sacrifice to [a]Dagon their god, and to rejoice. And they said:

"Our god has delivered into our hands
Samson our enemy!"

24 When the people saw him, they [a]praised their god; for they said:

"Our god has delivered into our hands our enemy,
The destroyer of our land,
And the one who multiplied our dead."

25 So it happened, when their hearts were [a]merry, that they said, "Call for Samson, that he may perform for us." So they called for Samson from the prison, and he performed for them. And they stationed him between the pillars.
26 Then Samson said to the lad who held him by the hand, "Let me feel the pillars which support the temple, so that I can lean on them."
27 Now the temple was full of men and women. All the lords of the Philistines were there—about three thousand men and women on the [a]roof watching while Samson performed.
28 Then Samson called to the LORD, saying, "O Lord GOD, [a]remember me, I pray! Strengthen me, I pray, just this once, O God, that I may with one blow take vengeance on the Philistines for my two eyes!"
29 And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars which supported the temple, and he braced himself against them, one on his right and the other on his left.
30 Then Samson said, "Let me die with the Philistines!" And he pushed with all his might, and the temple fell on the lords and all the people who were in it. So the dead that he killed at his death were more than he had killed in his life.
31 And his brothers and all his father's household came down and took him, and brought him up and [a]buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of his father Manoah. He had judged Israel [b]twenty years.

3 So when he had returned the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother, his mother said, "I had wholly dedicated the silver from my hand to the LORD for my son, to [a]make a carved image and a molded image; now therefore, I will return it to you."
4 Thus he returned the silver to his mother. Then his mother [a]took two hundred shekels of silver and gave them to the silversmith, and he made it into a carved image and a molded image; and they were in the house of Micah.
5 The man Micah had a [a]shrine, and made an [b]ephod and [c]household[1] idols; and he consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest.
6 [a]In those days there was no king in Israel; [b]everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Judg. 17:6

In Our Own Eyes

When left to our own counsel, we can justify all manner of behavior. Some of the excuses we invent for our sin border on the absurd.

7 Now there was a young man from [a]Bethlehem in Judah, of the family of Judah; he was a Levite, and [b]was staying there.
8 The man departed from the city of Bethlehem in Judah to stay wherever he could find a place. Then he came to the mountains of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, as he journeyed.
9 And Micah said to him, "Where do you come from?" So he said to him, "I am a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah, and I am on my way to find a place to stay."
10 Micah said to him, "Dwell with me, [a]and be a [b]father and a priest to me, and I will give you ten shekels of silver per year, a suit of clothes, and your sustenance." So the Levite went in.
11 Then the Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man became like one of his sons to him.
12 So Micah [a]consecrated[1] the Levite, and the young man [b]became his priest, and lived in the house of Micah.
13 Then Micah said, "Now I know that the LORD will be good to me, since I have a Levite as [a]priest!"

The Danites Adopt Micah's Idolatry

18 In [a]those days there was no king in Israel. And in those days [b]the tribe of the Danites was seeking an inheritance for itself to dwell in; for until that day their inheritance among the tribes of Israel had not fallen to them.
2 So the children of Dan sent five men of their family from their territory, men of valor from [a]Zorah and Eshtaol, [b]to spy out the land and search it. They said to them, "Go, search the land." So they went to the mountains of Ephraim, to the [c]house of Micah, and lodged there.
3 While they were at the house of Micah, they recognized the voice of the young Levite. They turned aside and said to him, "Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? What do you have here?"
4 He said to them, "Thus and so Micah did for me. He has [a]hired me, and I have become his priest."
5 So they said to him, "Please [a]inquire [b]of God, that we may know whether the journey on which we go will be prosperous."
6 And the priest said to them, [a]"Go in peace. [1]The presence of the LORD be with you on your way."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Judg. 18:6

The Presence of the Lord

The presence of the Lord does not always eliminate challenges or remove difficulties but in the midst of all we face, it brings peace.

7 So the five men departed and went to [a]Laish. They saw the people who were there, [b]how they dwelt safely, in the manner of the Sidonians, quiet and secure. There were no rulers in the land who might put them to shame for anything. They were far from the [c]Sidonians, and they had no ties [1]with anyone.

17:4 Making any kind of image was forbidden in the Law (Ex. 20:4, 23; Deut. 4:16).

17:5 A "shrine" literally meant a "house of God." Micah also made his own son a priest even though he was neither a Levite nor a descendent of Aaron (Ex. 28:1; 40:12–15. Num. 16:39, 40; 17:8).

8 Then the spies came back to their brethren at [a]Zorah and Eshtaol, and their brethren said to them, "What is your report?"
9 So they said, [a]"Arise, let us go up against them. For we have seen the land, and indeed it is very good. Would you [b]do nothing? Do not hesitate to go, and enter to possess the land.
10 "When you go, you will come to a [a]secure people and a large land. For God has given it into your hands, [b]a place where there is no lack of anything that is on the earth."
11 And six hundred men of the family of the Danites went from there, from Zorah and Eshtaol, armed with weapons of war.
12 Then they went up and encamped in [a]Kirjath Jearim in Judah. (Therefore they call that place [b]Mahaneh Dan[1] to this day. There it is, west of Kirjath Jearim.)
13 And they passed from there to the mountains of Ephraim, and came to [a]the house of Micah.
14 [a]Then the five men who had gone to spy out the country of Laish answered and said to their brethren, "Do you know that [b]there are in these houses an ephod, household idols, a carved image, and a molded image? Now therefore, consider what you should do."
15 So they turned aside there, and came to the house of the young Levite man—to the house of Micah—and greeted him.
16 The [a]six hundred men armed with their weapons of war, who were of the children of Dan, stood by the entrance of the gate.
17 Then [a]the five men who had gone to spy out the land went up. Entering there, they took [b]the carved image, the ephod, the household idols, and the molded image. The priest stood at the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men who were armed with weapons of war.
18 When these went into Micah's house and took the carved image, the ephod, the household idols, and the molded image, the priest said to them, "What are you doing?"
19 And they said to him, "Be quiet, [a]put your hand over your mouth, and come with us; [b]be a father and a priest to us. Is it better for you to be a priest to the household of one man, or that you be a priest to a tribe and a family in Israel?"
20 So the priest's heart was glad; and he took the ephod, the household idols, and the carved image, and took his place among the people.
21 Then they turned and departed, and put the little ones, the livestock, and the goods in front of them.
22 When they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men who were in the houses near Micah's house gathered together and overtook the children of Dan.
23 And they called out to the children of Dan. So they turned around and said to Micah, [a]"What ails you, that you have gathered such a company?"
24 So he said, "You have [a]taken away my [1]gods which I made, and the priest, and you have gone away. Now what more do I have? How can you say to me, 'What ails you?' "
25 And the children of Dan said to him, "Do not let your voice be heard among us, lest [1]angry men fall upon you, and you lose your life, with the lives of your household!"
26 Then the children of Dan went their way. And when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house.

Danites Settle in Laish

27 So they took the things Micah had made, and the priest who had belonged to him, and went to Laish, to a people quiet and secure; [a]and they struck them with the edge of the sword and burned the city with fire.
28 There was no deliverer, because it was [a]far from Sidon, and they had no ties with anyone. It was in the valley that belongs [b]to Beth Rehob. So they rebuilt the city and dwelt there.
29 And [a]they called the name of the city [b]Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born to Israel. However, the name of the city formerly was Laish.
30 Then the children of Dan set up for themselves the carved image; and Jonathan the son of Gershom, the son of [1]Manasseh, and his sons were priests to the tribe of Dan [a]until the day of the captivity of the land.
31 So they set up for themselves Micah's carved image which he made, [a]all the time that the house of God was in Shiloh.

The Levite's Concubine

CHAPTER 19

19 And it came to pass in those days, [a]when there was no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite staying in the remote mountains of Ephraim. He took for himself a concubine from [b]Bethlehem in Judah.
2 But his concubine played the harlot against him, and went away from him to her father's house at Bethlehem in Judah, and was there four whole months.
3 Then her husband arose and went after her, to [a]speak [1]kindly to her and bring her back, having his servant and a couple of donkeys with him. So she brought him into her father's house; and when the father of the young woman saw him, he was glad to meet him.
4 Now his father-in-law, the young woman's father, detained him; and he stayed with him three days. So they ate and drank and lodged there.
5 Then it came to pass on the fourth day that they arose early in the morning, and he stood to depart; but the young woman's father said to his son-in-law, [a]"Refresh your heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward go your way."
6 So they sat down, and the two of them ate and drank together. Then the young woman's father said to the man, "Please be content to stay all night, and let your heart be merry."
7 And when the man stood to depart, his father-in-law urged him; so he lodged there again.
8 Then he arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart, but the young woman's father said, "Please refresh your heart." So they delayed until afternoon; and both of them ate.
9 And when the man stood to depart—he and his concubine and his servant—his father-in-law, the young woman's father, said to him, "Look, the day is now drawing toward evening; please spend the night. See, the day is coming to an end; lodge here, that your heart may be merry. Tomorrow go your way early, so that you may get [1]home."
10 However, the man was not willing to spend that night; so he rose and departed, and came to opposite [a]Jebus (that is, Jerusalem). With him were the two saddled donkeys; his concubine was also with him.
11 They were near Jebus, and the day was far spent; and the servant said to his master, "Come, please, and let us turn aside into this city [a]of the Jebusites and lodge in it."
12 But his master said to him, "We will not turn aside here into a city of foreigners, who are not of the children of Israel; we will go on [a]to Gibeah."
13 So he said to his servant, "Come, let us draw near to one of these places, and spend the night in Gibeah or in [a]Ramah."
14 And they passed by and went their way; and the sun went down on them near Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin.
15 They turned aside there to go in to lodge in Gibeah. And when he went in, he sat down in the open square of the city, for no one would [a]take them into his house to spend the night.
16 Just then an old man came in from [a]his work in the field at evening, who also was from the mountains of Ephraim; he was staying in Gibeah, whereas the men of the place were Benjamites.
17 And when he raised his eyes, he saw the traveler in the open square of the city; and the old man said, "Where are you going, and where do you come from?"
18 So he said to him, "We are passing from Bethlehem in Judah toward the remote mountains of Ephraim; I am from there. I went to Bethlehem in Judah; now I am going to [a]the house of the LORD. But there is no one who will take me into his house,
19 "although we have both straw and fodder for our donkeys, and bread and wine for myself, for your female servant, and for the young man who is with your servant; there is no lack of anything."
20 And the old man said, [a]"Peace be with you! However, let all your needs be my responsibility; [b]only do not spend the night in the open square."
21 [a]So he brought him into his house, and gave fodder to the donkeys. [b]And they washed their feet, and ate and drank.

19:12 Jerusalem had originally been defeated by Joshua but apparently it had been reinhabited by the Jebusites (Josh. 15:63). It would not become a Jewish stronghold until David's time. The fact that the Levite bypassed this pagan city in order to receive proper hospitality from his own countrymen makes the ensuing crime even more reprehensible. Gibeah, birthplace of the future King Saul (1 Sam. 10:26; 11:4), was four miles north of Jerusalem.

19:15 Eastern customs placed a high priority on showing hospitality to travelers. It was expected that when you entered a town people would automatically care for you.

19:22 "Perverted men" is literally "sons of Belial." In Scripture, Belial came to designate Satan (2 Cor. 6:15).

Spiritual Oasis

What a blessing it is when godly people extend hospitality to others. Their kindness is an oasis where weary souls are restored.

beat on the door. They spoke to the master of the house, the old man, saying, [d]"Bring out the man who came to your house, that we may know him carnally!" 23 But [a]the man, the master of the house, went out to them and said to them, "No, my brethren! I beg you, do not act so wickedly! Seeing this man has come into my house, [b]do not commit this outrage.
24 [a]"Look, here is my virgin daughter and [1]the man's concubine; let me bring them out now. [b]Humble them, and do with them as you please; but to this man do not do such a vile thing!"
25 But the men would not heed him. So the man took his concubine and brought her out to them. And they [a]knew her and abused her all night until morning; and when the day began to break, they let her go.
26 Then the woman came as the day was dawning, and fell down at the door of the man's house where her master was, till it was light.
27 When her master arose in the morning, and opened the doors of the house and went out to go his way, there was his concubine, fallen at the door of the house with her hands on the threshold.
28 And he said to her, "Get up and let us be going." But [a]there was no answer. So the man lifted her onto the donkey; and the man got up and went to his place.
29 When he entered his house he took a knife, laid hold of his concubine, and [a]divided her into twelve pieces, [1]limb by limb, and sent her throughout all the territory of Israel.
30 And so it was that all who saw it said, "No such deed has been done or seen from the day that the children of Israel came up from the land of Egypt until this day. Consider it, [a]confer, and speak up!"

Israel's War with the Benjamites

20 So [a]all the children of Israel came out, from [b]Dan to [c]Beersheba, as well as from the land of Gilead, and the congregation gathered together as one man before the LORD [d]at Mizpah.
2 And the leaders of all the people, all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand foot soldiers [a]who drew the sword.
3 (Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel had gone up to Mizpah.) Then the children of Israel said, "Tell us, how did this wicked deed happen?"
4 So the Levite, the husband of the woman who was murdered, answered and said, "My concubine and [a]I went into Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin, to spend the night.
5 [a]"And the men of Gibeah rose against me, and surrounded the house at night because of me. They intended to kill me, [b]but instead they ravished my concubine so that she died.
6 "So [a]I took hold of my concubine, cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the territory of the inheritance of Israel, because they [b]committed lewdness and outrage in Israel.
7 "Look! All of you are children of Israel; [a]give your advice and counsel here and now!"
8 So all the people arose as one man, saying, "None of us will go to his tent, nor will any turn back to his house;
9 "but now this is the thing which we will do to Gibeah: We will go up [a]against it by lot.
10 "We will take ten men out of every hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, a hundred out of every thousand, and a thousand out of every ten thousand, to make provisions for the people, that when they come to Gibeah in Benjamin, they may repay all the vileness that they have done in Israel."
11 So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, united together as one man.
12 [a]Then the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, "What is this wickedness that has occurred among you?
13 "Now therefore, deliver up the men, [a]the [1]perverted men who are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death and [b]remove the evil from Israel!" But the children of Benjamin would not listen to the voice of their brethren, the children of Israel.
14 Instead, the children of Benjamin gathered together from their cities to

When Reproach Is Needed

When God's people commit heinous sin, the proper response is an immediate, direct, uncompromising reproach. Such sin cannot be allowed to go unchallenged.

Gibeah, to go to battle against the children of Israel.
15 And from their cities at that time [a]the children of Benjamin numbered twenty-six thousand men who drew the sword, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah, who numbered seven hundred select men.
16 Among all this people were seven hundred select men who were [a]left-handed; every one could sling a stone at a hair's breadth and not miss.
17 Now besides Benjamin, the men of Israel numbered four hundred thousand men who drew the sword; all of these were men of war.
18 Then the children of Israel arose and [a]went up to [1]the house of God to [b]inquire of God. They said, "Which of us shall go up first to battle against the children of Benjamin?" The LORD said, [c]"Judah first!"
19 So the children of Israel rose in the morning and encamped against Gibeah.
20 And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin, and the men of Israel put themselves in battle array to fight against them at Gibeah.
21 Then [a]the children of Benjamin came out of Gibeah, and on that day cut down to the ground twenty-two thousand men of the Israelites.
22 And the people, that is, the men of Israel, encouraged themselves and again formed the battle line at the place where they had put themselves in array on the first day.
23 [a]Then the children of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until evening, and asked counsel of the LORD, saying, "Shall I again draw near for battle against the children of my brother Benjamin?" And the LORD said, "Go up against him."
24 So the children of Israel approached the children of Benjamin on the second day.
25 And [a]Benjamin went out against them from Gibeah on the second day, and cut down to the ground eighteen thousand more of the children of Israel; all these drew the sword.
26 Then all the children of Israel, that is, all the people, [a]went up and came to [1]the house of God and wept. They sat there before the LORD and fasted that day until evening; and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

Desperation, Not Numbers

We should never assume that people, money, or resources will enable us to accomplish a task for God. Nothing replaces God's powerful presence. If we are not desperate for God's presence, He may allow us to experience the limits of what our own resources can do.

27 So the children of Israel inquired of the LORD ([a]the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, 28 [a]and Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, [b]stood before it in those days), saying, "Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of my brother Benjamin, or shall I cease?" And the LORD said, "Go up, for tomorrow I will deliver them into your hand."
29 Then Israel [a]set men in ambush all around Gibeah.
30 And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in battle array against Gibeah as at the other times.
31 So the children of Benjamin went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city. They began to strike down and kill some of the people, as at the other times, in the highways [a](one of which goes up to Bethel and the other to Gibeah) and in the field, about thirty men of Israel.
32 And the children of Benjamin said, "They are defeated before us, as at first." But the children of Israel said, "Let us flee and draw them away from the city to the highways."
33 So all the men of Israel rose from their place and put themselves in battle array at Baal Tamar. Then Israel's men in ambush burst forth from their position in the plain of Geba.

20:16 The Benjamites had seven hundred soldiers who were left handed which apparently gave them a military advantage. Paradoxically, "Benjamin" means "Son of the Right Hand."

20:18 The men of Judah, like Benjamin, were known for their prowess in battle.

34 And ten thousand select men from all Israel came against Gibeah, and the battle was fierce. [a]But [1]the Benjamites did not know that disaster was upon them.
35 The LORD [1]defeated Benjamin before Israel. And the children of Israel destroyed that day twenty-five thousand one hundred Benjamites; all these drew the sword.
36 So the children of Benjamin saw that they were defeated. [a]The men of Israel had given ground to the Benjamites, because they relied on the men in ambush whom they had set against Gibeah.
37 [a]And the men in ambush quickly rushed upon Gibeah; the men in ambush spread out and struck the whole city with the edge of the sword.
38 Now the appointed signal between the men of Israel and the men in ambush was that they would make a great cloud of [a]smoke rise up from the city,
39 whereupon the men of Israel would turn in battle. Now Benjamin had begun [1]to strike and kill about thirty of the men of Israel. For they said, "Surely they are defeated before us, as in the first battle."
40 But when the cloud began to rise from the city in a column of smoke, the Benjamites [a]looked behind them, and there was the whole city going up in smoke to heaven.
41 And when the men of Israel turned back, the men of Benjamin panicked, for they saw that disaster had come upon them.
42 Therefore they [1]turned their backs before the men of Israel in the direction of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them, and whoever came out of the cities they destroyed in their midst.
43 They surrounded the Benjamites, chased them, and easily trampled them down as far as the front of Gibeah toward the east.
44 And eighteen thousand men of Benjamin fell; all these were men of valor.
45 Then [1]they turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of [a]Rimmon; and they cut down five thousand of them on the highways. Then they pursued them relentlessly up to Gidom, and killed two thousand of them.
46 So all who fell of Benjamin that day were twenty-five thousand men who drew the sword; all these were [1]men of valor.
47 [a]But six hundred men turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, and they stayed at the rock of Rimmon for four months.
48 And the men of Israel turned back against the children of Benjamin, and struck them down with the edge of the sword—from every city, men and beasts, all who were found. They also set fire to all the cities they came to.

Wives Provided for the Benjamites

21 Now [a]the men of Israel had sworn an oath at Mizpah, saying, "None of us shall give his daughter to Benjamin as a wife."
2 Then the people came [a]to [1]the house of God, and remained there before God till evening. They lifted up their voices and wept bitterly,
3 and said, "O LORD God of Israel, why has this come to pass in Israel, that today there should be one tribe missing in Israel?"

Weeping Before the Lord

In times of great crisis and bewilderment, sometimes all we can do is remain before the Lord and weep. God welcomes our tears. He is compassionate toward the brokenhearted. As we pour out our souls to Him, he restores us and gives us hope.

4 So it was, on the next morning, that the people rose early and [a]built an altar there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.
5 The children of Israel said, "Who is there among all the tribes of Israel who did not come up with the assembly to the LORD?" [a]For they had made a great oath concerning anyone who had not come up to the LORD at Mizpah, saying, "He shall surely be put to death."
6 And the children of Israel grieved for Benjamin their brother, and said, "One tribe is cut off from Israel today.
7 "What shall we do for wives for those who remain, seeing we have sworn by the LORD that we will not give them our daughters as wives?"
8 And they said, "What one is there from the tribes of Israel who did not come up to Mizpah to the LORD?" And, in fact, no one had come to the camp from [a]Jabesh Gilead to the assembly.

20:48 The four hundred surviving Benjamite soldiers would form the remnant upon which the Benjamite tribe would be rebuilt.

21:8 Jabesh Gilead was approximately forty-five miles northeast of Gibeah. Its people were descendents of Joseph, the full brother of Benjamin, and should have responded to aid their close relatives. After this time of intermarriage, these two tribes would be closely linked (1 Sam. 11; 31:11–13; 2 Sam. 2:4–7).

9 For when the people were counted, indeed, not one of the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead was there.
10 So the congregation sent out there twelve thousand of their most valiant men, and commanded them, saying, [a]"Go and strike the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead with the edge of the sword, including the women and children.
11 "And this is the thing that you shall do: [a]You shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman who has known a man intimately."
12 So they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead four hundred young virgins who had not known a man intimately; and they brought them to the camp at [a]Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.
13 Then the whole congregation sent word to the children of Benjamin [a]who were at the rock of Rimmon, and announced peace to them.
14 So Benjamin came back at that time, and they gave them the women whom they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh Gilead; and yet they had not found enough for them.
15 And the people [a]grieved for Benjamin, because the LORD had made a void in the tribes of Israel.
16 Then the elders of the congregation said, "What shall we do for wives for those who remain, since the women of Benjamin have been destroyed?"
17 And they said, "There must be an inheritance for the survivors of Benjamin, that a tribe may not be destroyed from Israel.
18 "However, we cannot give them wives from our daughters, [a]for the children of Israel have sworn an oath, saying, 'Cursed be the one who gives a wife to Benjamin.' "
19 Then they said, "In fact, there is a yearly [a]feast of the LORD in [b]Shiloh, which is north of Bethel, on the east side of the [c]highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and south of Lebonah."
20 Therefore they instructed the children of Benjamin, saying, "Go, lie in wait in the vineyards, 21 "and watch; and just when the daughters of Shiloh come out [a]to perform their dances, then come out from the vineyards, and every man catch a wife for himself from the daughters of Shiloh; then go to the land of Benjamin.
22 "Then it shall be, when their fathers or their brothers come to us to complain, that we will say to them, 'Be kind to them for our sakes, because we did not take a wife for any of them in the war; for it is not as though you have given the women to them at this time, making yourselves guilty of your oath.' "
23 And the children of Benjamin did so; they took enough wives for their number from those who danced, whom they caught. Then they went and returned to their inheritance, and they [a]rebuilt the cities and dwelt in them.
24 So the children of Israel departed from there at that time, every man to his tribe and family; they went out from there, every man to his inheritance.

God the King

It is tempting to put our trust in the political leaders of our land rather than placing our hope in God. Leaders are certainly important to a nation, but apart from God they can do nothing. Blessed is the country whose leadership seeks God's dominion.

21:15 The eleven tribes demonstrated grace to the tribe of Benjamin. Although they had severely punished their brethren, and although the Benjamites had inflicted heavy casualties upon them, the eleven tribes grieved over the fallen condition of their brothers.

21:19 This yearly feast may have been the Feast of Tabernacles held every fall.

21:25 Scripturally, a sign of the wickedness of God's people is their inclination to decide their own values of what is right or wrong, rather than heeding God's Word.

THE BOOK OF RUTH

INTRODUCTION

The Book of Ruth is one of only two biblical books named after women (the other being Esther). The events recounted took place during the period of the judges (Ruth 1:1). This was a time of spiritual anarchy when people did what was right in their own eyes and when there was no king to bring order to the land (Judg. 21:25). Ruth's name may mean "Companion" or "Friend." She was from Moab, a land inhabited by Lot's descendents. The Moabites traced their lineage to Lot (Gen. 19:37). The Moabites had seduced the Hebrews into idolatry during Israel's wandering in the wilderness (Num. 25:1–9). Ruth was the widow of Mahlon, an Israelite (Ruth 4:10). Her devotion to her widowed mother-in-law, Naomi, and her trust in the God of Israel has been an inspiration to generations.

SIGNIFICANCE

The Book of Ruth is a story of tragedy transformed to joy. It highlights loyalty among friends and commitment to family. However, even deeper values are expressed in this small book, making it a widely cherished portion of scripture. Ruth's situation epitomizes the plight of the underprivileged. She was a female, with no resources of her own. She was a Moabitess, a citizen of an idolatrous nation. Moreover, she was a widow, one of society's most vulnerable members. Yet God cared tenderly for Ruth. He crossed her path with Boaz, a godly relative of her late husband (2:3). He blessed Ruth and Boaz with a child after Ruth had remained barren throughout the ten years of her first marriage (4:13). Furthermore, God blessed Ruth's descendents (King David was her great grandson). The Messiah would come through Ruth's lineage, making Ruth one of only four women whose name is listed in Jesus' ancestry (Matt 1:5). The book of Ruth depicts God's loving care for ordinary people experiencing life's crises. It also demonstrates that when God encounters faith, He intervenes in peoples' lives to accomplish extraordinary things.

STRUCTURE

Ruth is a beautiful short story consisting of four chapters. It unfolds in four parts.

Section One: Crisis (1:1–22). Naomi and Ruth's husbands die, leaving them both widows. Ruth and Naomi return to Bethlehem to Naomi's former home to begin a seemingly sorrowful and precarious life.

Section Two: God's Provision: (2:1—3:11). Ruth goes to work in the field of her generous relative, Boaz. He expresses his willingness to marry Ruth and to provide her an heir.

Section Three: Complications: (3:12—4:12). Although Boaz is willing to take Ruth as his wife, he is obliged to first offer this responsibility to a man who is more closely related to Ruth than Boaz.

Section Four: God's Blessing: (4:12–23). God overcomes every obstacle so Boaz and Ruth can marry. God also blesses them with a child who will become the grandfather of King David and an ancestor of the Messiah.

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH RUTH

Perhaps reading of God's tender care for these two widows will bring to mind instances of God's loving provision for you during your own difficult times. Consider the examples set by both Ruth and Boaz in honoring and caring for family members. Their devotion and effort may challenge you to examine the quality of your own loyalty to those close to you. Seeing the way God rewards both Ruth and Boaz for their righteousness should inspire you to live a life of integrity (2:11; 3:11). Finally, the book of Ruth shows how God takes the ordinary events of life and uses them to bring significant blessings upon His people. As His people, we should never take this truth for granted.

Elimelech's Family Goes to Moab

NOW it came to pass, in the days when [a]the judges [1]ruled, that there was [b]a famine in the land. And a certain man of [c]Bethlehem, Judah, went to [2]dwell in the country of [d]Moab, he and his wife and his two sons.

WORD Study — JUDGES

Ruth 1:1 Judges were primarily deliverers of God's people from their enemies, then administrators of justice, often having only regional influence. They supplied divine guidance for the people in the absence of formal governing structures.

2 The name of the man was Elimelech, the name of his wife was Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion—[a]Ephrathites of Bethlehem, Judah. And they went [b]to the country of Moab and remained there.

ENCOUNTER Note — Ruth 1:2

Bethlehem

Meaning "House of Bread," Bethlehem was one of the earliest known towns in Palestine. It was previously called Ephrath or Ephrathah (Gen. 35:19; 48:7; Mic. 5:2). It was the City of David and the birthplace of Christ.

3 Then Elimelech, Naomi's husband, died; and she was left, and her two sons.
4 Now they took wives of the women of Moab: the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth. And they [1]dwelt there about ten years.
5 Then both Mahlon and Chilion also died; so the woman survived her two sons and her husband.

6 Then she arose with her daughters-in-law that she might return from the country of Moab, for she had heard in the country of Moab that the LORD had [a]visited[1] His people by [b]giving them bread.
7 Therefore she went out from the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her; and they went on the way to return to the land of Judah.
8 And Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, [a]"Go, return each to her mother's house. [b]The LORD deal kindly with you, as you have dealt [c]with the dead and with me.
9 "The LORD grant that you may find [a]rest, each in the house of her husband." So she kissed them, and they lifted up their voices and wept.
10 And they said to her, "Surely we will return with you to your people."
11 But Naomi said, "Turn back, my daughters; why will you go with me? Are there still sons in my womb, [a]that they may be your husbands?
12 "Turn back, my daughters, go—for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say I have hope, if I should have a husband tonight and should also bear sons,
13 "would you wait for them till they were grown? Would you restrain yourselves from having husbands? No, my daughters; for it grieves me very much

CHARACTER Study — RUTH — Ruth 1:4

Ruth was a young Moabite widow of an Israelite husband. Her deceased husband, Mahlon, had been a son of Elimelech and Naomi. Her people were excluded from God's people in Canaan. Widows were among the most helpless people in society. They could not live independently of male protection. Without a husband and without a son, they would normally return to their father's household. However, when Ruth's mother-in-law, Naomi, chose to return to her home in Bethlehem, Ruth courageously accompanied her to a foreign land rather than remain among her own people. Ruth's devotion to her mother-in-law as well as her embracing of Israel's God soon earned her the respect of all who knew her. She selflessly did what she thought was right, rather than pursue her own self-interest. Her virtuous character won her the respect of the equally righteous Boaz. God rewarded Ruth for her faithfulness by giving her a child, and eventually King David as well as the Messiah Jesus were among her descendants.

1:2 "Elimelech" means "God Is King" or "My God Is King." "Naomi" means "Pleasant" or "Delightful." Mahlon's name comes from the verb meaning "to be weak, sick." Chilion's name is related to a word that means "failing, pining, annihilation."

1:4 Orpah's name may come from a word meaning "neck." It could imply beauty or perhaps that she was "stiff-necked."

1:4 The Israelites were forbidden from marrying Canaanite women, although technically this would not have applied to Moab (Deut. 7:3). One of the most heinous sins committed by the Israelites during their wilderness wanderings occurred with Moabite women (Num. 25:1–9). For opposing Israel's progress toward the Promised Land, Moabite men were barred from the public worship of God for ten generations (Deut. 23:3).

for your sakes that [a]the hand of the LORD has gone out against me!"
14 Then they lifted up their voices and wept again; and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth [a]clung to her.
15 And she said, "Look, your sister-in-law has gone back to [a]her people and to her gods; [b]return after your sister-in-law."
16 But Ruth said:

[a]"Entreat[1] me not to leave you,
Or to turn back from following after you;
For wherever you go, I will go;
And wherever you lodge, I will lodge;
[b]Your people shall be my people,
And your God, my God.

Character Revealed

Adversity exposes character. It brings it out into the open. True character is not based on what we say but on what we do.

17 Where you die, I will die,
And there will I be buried.
[a]The LORD do so to me, and more also,
If anything but death parts you and me."

18 [a]When she saw that she [1]was determined to go with her, she stopped speaking to her.
19 Now the two of them went until they came to Bethlehem. And it happened, when they had come to Bethlehem, that [a]all the city was excited because of them; and the women said, [b]"Is this Naomi?"
20 But she said to them, "Do not call me [1]Naomi; call me [2]Mara, for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me.
21 "I went out full, [a]and the LORD has brought me home again empty. Why do you call me Naomi, since the LORD has testified against me, and [1]the Almighty has afflicted me?"
22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess her daughter-in-law with her, who returned from the country of Moab. Now they came to Bethlehem [a]at the beginning of barley harvest.

Ruth Meets Boaz

2 There was a [a]relative of Naomi's husband, a man of great wealth, of the family of [b]Elimelech. His name was [c]Boaz.
2 So Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, "Please let me go to the [a]field, and glean heads of grain after him in whose sight I may find favor." And she said to her, "Go, my daughter."
3 Then she left, and went and gleaned in the field after the reapers. And she happened to come to the part of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech.
4 Now behold, Boaz came from [a]Bethlehem, and said to the reapers, [b]"The LORD be with you!" And they answered him, "The LORD bless you!"
5 Then Boaz said to his servant who was in charge of the reapers, "Whose young woman is this?"
6 So the servant who was in charge of the reapers answered and said, "It is the young Moabite woman [a]who came back with Naomi from the country of Moab.
7 "And she said, 'Please let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves.' So she came and has continued from morning until now, though she rested a little in the house."
8 Then Boaz said to Ruth, "You will listen, my daughter, will you not? Do not go to glean in another field, nor go from here, but stay close by my young women.
9 "Let your eyes be on the field which they reap, and go after them. Have I not commanded the young men not to touch you? And when you are thirsty, go to the vessels and drink from what the young men have drawn."
10 So she [a]fell on her face, bowed down to the ground, and said to him, "Why have I found [b]favor in your eyes, that you should take notice of me, since I am a foreigner?"
11 And Boaz answered and said to her, "It has been fully reported to me, [a]all that you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband, and how you have left your father and your mother and the land of your birth, and have come to a people whom you did not know before.

1:20 This is the only time the name "Mara" appears in the Bible. It means "bitter," or "grievous."

1:22 Ruth was from Moab. That she, a Gentile, would be part of Christ's lineage is evidence of God's plan to redeem all humanity.

2:1 Boaz's name may refer to "fleetness" or "strength." He was a wealthy Bethlehemite and kinsman to Elimelech. His name is included on a pillar in Solomon's temple (1 Kin. 7:21, 2 Chr. 3:17), as well as in the genealogy of Christ (Matt. 1:5).

2:2 Ruth's readiness to glean leftovers from the grain field demonstrates both her industrious character and her devotion to Naomi.

2:8 God works wonders in the hearts of His people when they are obedient to Him.

Reputations

Our reputations are not what we think of ourselves but what others believe about us. Our reputation precedes us and plays a part in our usefulness to God and His purposes.

God of Israel, [b]under whose wings you have come for refuge."
13 Then she said, [a]"Let me find favor in your sight, my lord; for you have comforted me, and have spoken [1]kindly to your maidservant, [b]though I am not like one of your maidservants."
14 Now Boaz said to her at mealtime, "Come here, and eat of the bread, and dip your piece of bread in the vinegar." So she sat beside the reapers, and he passed parched grain to her; and she ate and [a]was satisfied, and kept some back.
15 And when she rose up to [1]glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, "Let her glean even among the sheaves, and do not [2]reproach her.
16 "Also let grain from the bundles fall purposely for her; leave it that she may glean, and do not rebuke her."
17 So she gleaned in the field until evening, and beat out what she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah of [a]barley.
18 Then she took it up and went into the city, and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. So she brought out and gave to her [a]what she had kept back after she had been satisfied.
19 And her mother-in-law said to her, "Where have you gleaned today? And where did you work? Blessed be the one who [a]took notice of you." So she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and said, "The man's name with whom I worked today is Boaz."
20 Then Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, [a]"Blessed be he of the LORD, who [b]has not forsaken His kindness to the living and the dead!" And Naomi said to her, "This man is a relation of ours, [c]one of [1]our close relatives."
21 Ruth the Moabitess said, "He also said to me, 'You shall stay close by my young men until they have finished all my harvest.' "
22 And Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, "It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his young women, and that people do not [1]meet you in any other field."

No Coincidences

Events that seem coincidental to us are actually evidence of God's plan in action. When we obediently follow the Lord, circumstances around us miraculously unite to fulfill God's purposes, in His timing.

23 So she stayed close by the young women of Boaz, to glean until the end of barley harvest and wheat harvest; and she dwelt with her mother-in-law.

Ruth's Redemption Assured

3 Then Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, "My daughter, [a]shall I not seek [b]security[1] for you, that it may be well with you?
2 "Now Boaz, [a]whose young women you were with, is he not our relative? In fact, he is winnowing barley tonight at the threshing floor.
3 "Therefore wash yourself and [a]anoint yourself, put on your best garment and go down to the threshing floor; but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking.
4 "Then it shall be, when he lies down, that you shall notice the place where he lies; and you shall go in, uncover his feet, and lie down; and he will tell you what you should do."
5 And she said to her, "All that you say to me I will do."
6 So she went down to the threshing floor and did according to all that her mother-in-law instructed her.
7 And after Boaz had eaten and drunk, and [a]his heart was cheerful, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain; and she came softly, uncovered his feet, and lay down.
8 Now it happened at midnight that the man was startled, and turned himself; and there, a woman was lying at his feet.
9 And he said, "Who are you?" So she answered, "I am Ruth, your maidservant. [a]Take[1] your maidservant under your wing, for you are [b]a [2]close relative."
10 Then he said, [a]"Blessed are you of the LORD, my daughter! For you have shown more kindness at the end than [b]at the beginning, in that you did not go after young men, whether poor or rich.
11 "And now, my daughter, do not fear. I

13 "Stay this night, and in the morning it shall be that if he will [a]perform the duty of a close relative for you—good; let him do it. But if he does not want to perform the duty for you, then I will perform the duty for you, [b]as the LORD lives! Lie down until morning."

WORD Study — CLOSE RELATIVE

Ruth 3:12, 13 A widow's nearest male relative was to marry her and provide her with an heir who could carry on the deceased husband's name. He also acted as her protector and cared for her interests in matters of property, rights, and privileges. The redeemer was to purchase back property that had fallen into the hands of others.

14 So she lay at his feet until morning, and she arose before one could recognize another. Then he said, [a]"Do not let it be known that the woman came to the threshing floor."
15 Also he said, "Bring the [1]shawl that is on you and hold it." And when she held it, he measured six ephahs of barley, and laid it on her. Then [2]she went into the city.
16 When she came to her mother-in-law, she said, [1]"Is that you, my daughter?" Then she told her all that the man had done for her.
17 And she said, "These six ephahs of barley he gave me; for he said to me, 'Do not go empty-handed to your mother-in-law.' "
18 Then she said, [a]"Sit still, my daughter, until you know how the matter will turn out; for the man will not rest until he has concluded the matter this day."

Boaz Redeems Ruth

4 Now Boaz went up to the gate and sat down there; and behold, [a]the close relative of whom Boaz had spoken came by. So Boaz said, "Come aside, [1]friend, sit down here." So he came aside and sat down.
2 And he took ten men of [a]the elders of the city, and said, "Sit down here." So they sat down.
3 Then he said to the close relative, "Naomi, who has come back from the country of Moab, sold the piece of land [a]which belonged to our brother Elimelech.
4 "And I thought to [1]inform you, saying, [a]'Buy it back [b]in the presence of the inhabitants and the elders of my people. If you will redeem it, redeem it; but if [2]you will not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know; [c]for there is no one but you to redeem it, and I am next after you.' " And he said, "I will redeem it."
5 Then Boaz said, "On the day you buy the field from the hand of Naomi, you must also buy it from Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, [a]to [1]perpetuate the name of the dead through his inheritance."
6 [a]And the close relative said, "I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I ruin my own inheritance. You redeem my right of redemption for yourself, for I cannot redeem it."
7 [a]Now this was the custom in former times in Israel concerning redeeming and exchanging, to confirm anything: one man took off his sandal and gave it to the other, and this was a confirmation in Israel.
8 Therefore the close relative said to Boaz, "Buy it for yourself." So he took off his sandal.

Removing a Sandal

Removing one's sandal was a customary act for sealing a bargain, often witnessed by those in authority who generally gathered at the city gate.

11 And all the people who were at the gate, and the elders, said, "We are witnesses. [a]The LORD make the woman who is coming to your house like Rachel and Leah, the two who [b]built the house of Israel; and may you prosper in [c]Ephrathah and be famous in [d]Bethlehem.
12 "May your house be like the house of [a]Perez, [b]whom Tamar bore to Judah, because of [c]the offspring which the LORD will give you from this young woman."

13 So Boaz [a]took Ruth and she became his wife; and when he went in to her, [b]the LORD gave her conception, and she bore a son.

THE FIRST BOOK OF

SAMUEL

INTRODUCTION

This book is appropriately named for the prophet Samuel, the crucial character who guided Israel through a time of major transition. First and Second Samuel were originally one book in the Hebrew text, as were First and Second Kings. When the Scriptures were translated into Greek around 150 B.C., Samuel and Kings were brought into one complete history of the monarchy. It was divided into four sections: First, Second, Third, and Fourth Kingdoms. Samuel and Kings were later separated, but the four distinct sections remained. Tradition suggests that Samuel is the author of the early chapters, while the prophet Nathan and the seer Gad were contributors to the rest of the writing. It is generally acknowledged that another anonymous editor took their accounts and combined them into what we currently have as First and Second Samuel.

SIGNIFICANCE

This book introduces a radical transformation of the Israelite culture. This is done with special attention to three distinct concerns. First is the history of Israel as a political state. Samuel provides an official record of how Israel moved from an unstable collection of tribes to a centralized monarchy. Second is the remarkable person of David, who brought the nation through the transformation. Great detail is given to the rise of David from a shepherd boy to a king feared by the surrounding nations. Third is the role of the Lord and His favor toward the covenant people Israel. Though we are introduced to great leaders, God was clearly the one in control. All events were ultimately from God's hand. First Samuel demonstrates the balance between personal accountability before God and the sovereign hand of God working through his people.

STRUCTURE

There are three distinct sections to this book. First is the ministry of Samuel. He is the last of the judges and first of the prophets. This section describes the reason for the transition to a monarchy and God's response to His people's decision. The second section is the anointing and reign of Saul, as the first king of Israel. His reign tragically culminates in his destruction; not by a foreign enemy but by God. The third section is the choosing of David as Saul's successor. His anointing and long period of preparation finally concludes with his rise to the throne. First Samuel can be outlined as follows:

- Life and Ministry of Samuel
  - Birth and Childhood (1:1—2:36)
  - Early Prophetic Ministry (3:1–21)
  - Philistine Conflict (4:1—7:17)
- Anointing and Reign of Saul
  - Israel Demands a King (8:1–22)
  - Saul's Private and Public Anointing (9:1—10:27)
  - Saul Confirmed Through Victory (11:1–15)
  - Samuel's Address (12:1–25)
  - Saul's Failure (13:1—15:35)
- Anointing and Preparation of David
  - David's Anointing (16:1–23)
  - David and Goliath (17:1–58)
  - David and the Royal Family (18:1—20:42)
  - David a Fugitive (21:1—31:13)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH 1 SAMUEL

This is an historical book; yet it is much more than that. It demonstrates how God used ordinary people to accomplish His purposes. Samuel, Saul, and David are legendary figures, yet they are presented with tragic realism. Samuel was a devoted man of God, yet he failed as a father. Saul was anointed the first king of Israel, yet he allowed jealousy and pride to cause his downfall. David rose to the throne with a heart for God, yet he struggled for years under the harassment of Saul with seemingly no end in sight. As these key figures struggle through difficult times, you will learn many truths about how God deals with His people. Look for the mercy of God toward an ungrateful people; the fulfillment of a covenant made many years before; the possession of the Promised Land connected to the spiritual obedience of leadership; the presence of God as the hand of judgment or blessing; and the demand for wholehearted obedience to the Lord. First Samuel describes the actions of sinful human nature in the context of a sovereign God who reigns, achieving His purposes through frail human beings.

CHAPTER 1

The Family of Elkanah

NOW there was a certain man of Ramathaim Zophim, of the [a]mountains of Ephraim, and his name was [b]Elkanah the son of Jeroham, the son of [1]Elihu, the son of [2]Tohu, the son of Zuph, [c]an Ephraimite.
2 And he had [a]two wives: the name of one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.
3 This man went up from his city [a]yearly [b]to worship and sacrifice to the LORD of hosts in [c]Shiloh. Also the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the priests of the LORD, were there.
4 And whenever the time came for Elkanah to make an [a]offering, he would give portions to Peninnah his wife and to all her sons and daughters.
5 But to Hannah he would give a double portion, for he loved Hannah, [a]although the LORD had closed her womb.
6 And her rival also [a]provoked her severely, to make her miserable, because the LORD had closed her womb.
7 So it was, year by year, when she went up to the house of the LORD, that she provoked her; therefore she wept and did not eat.

Hannah's Vow

8 Then Elkanah her husband said to her, "Hannah, why do you weep? Why do you not eat? And why is your heart grieved? Am I not [a]better to you than ten sons?"
9 So Hannah arose after they had finished eating and drinking in Shiloh. Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat by the doorpost of [a]the [1]tabernacle of the LORD.
10 [a]And she was in bitterness of soul, and prayed to the LORD and [1]wept in anguish.
11 Then she [a]made a vow and said, "O LORD of hosts, if You will indeed [b]look on the affliction of Your maidservant and [c]remember me, and not forget Your maidservant, but will give Your maidservant a male child, then I will give him to the LORD all the days of his life, and [d]no razor shall come upon his head."

WORD*Study* — THE LORD OF HOSTS (JEHOVAH SABAOTH)

1 Sam. 1:3 The Lord of Hosts, Jehovah Sabaoth, is a divine name emphasizing God's rule over all. Sabaoth, used 260 times in the Old Testament, is not to be confused with the unrelated word Sabbath. First used by Samuel, this name combines the descriptions of divine creator and divine controller. It has a military implication, whereby God commands the angelic armies in heaven and therefore has military supremacy on earth. It is also used as a gathering title, where people congregate in His name and under His authority. The name Lord of Hosts indicates that all of God's creation is under His control and will ultimately obey His sovereign commands, willingly or unwillingly. The name was a favorite among the prophets and was used by Isaiah and Jeremiah over sixty times (Is. 47:4; Jer. 11:20). Zechariah employed the name fifty-three times to describe God's action in judgment and blessing (Zech. 14:21). It is found in Haggai fourteen times in just two short chapters, and in Malachi twenty-four times.

1:1 Ramathaim Zophim was a village five miles north of Jerusalem, also called Ramah (1:19).

1:1 Elkanah, whose name means "God Has Created," was from the clan of the Kohathites. His family was given land in Ephraim, hence his designation as an Ephraimite. He was, however, a Levite with priestly duties.

1:2 Since children were considered a blessing from God, childlessness was viewed as God's punishment. Barren women were often ostracized and divorced by their husbands.

1:3 Shiloh was twenty miles north of Jerusalem, the place of the tabernacle and therefore the nation's religious center at that time (Josh. 18:1). The Ark of the Covenant was housed there.

1:3 "Eli" means "God Is High." Eli was from the priestly line of Aaron through Aaron's fourth son, Ithamar. "Hophni" means "Tadpole." "Phinehas" may have Egyptian roots meaning "Black One."

1:5 "Hannah" means "Grace."

WORD*Study*

VOW

1 Sam. 1:11 In both testaments, a vow is always a voluntary pledge or promise made to God, never to another person. It expresses unusual or extreme devotion or commitment. God takes vows seriously (Num. 30:2; Deut. 23:21; Eccl. 5:4, 5). It is better not to take a vow than to leave it unfulfilled. The extreme example of a tragic, impulsive vow was Jephthah's, which cost him his daughter (Judg. 11:34, 35). Limitations existed for a woman making vows (Num. 30:3). These could be overruled by her husband or father, for men were legally responsible for their wives and children.

12 And it happened, as she continued praying before the LORD, that Eli watched her mouth.
13 Now Hannah spoke in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard. Therefore Eli thought she was drunk.
14 So Eli said to her, "How long will you be drunk? Put your wine away from you!"
15 But Hannah answered and said, "No, my lord, I am a woman of sorrowful spirit. I have drunk neither wine nor intoxicating drink, but have [a]poured out my soul before the LORD.
16 "Do not consider your maidservant a [a]wicked[1] woman, for out of the abundance of my complaint and grief I have spoken until now."
17 Then Eli answered and said, [a]"Go in peace, and [b]the God of Israel grant your petition which you have asked of Him."
18 And she said, [a]"Let your maidservant find favor in your sight." So the woman [b]went her way and ate, and her face was no longer sad.

19 Then they rose early in the morning and worshiped before the LORD, and returned and came to their house at Ramah. And Elkanah [a]knew Hannah his wife, and the LORD [b]remembered her.

Remembered by God

God hears the prayers that pour out of a sincere heart. He responds compassionately to the wholehearted worship of those who trust Him.

20 So it came to pass in the process of time that Hannah conceived and bore a son, and called his name [1]Samuel, saying, "Because I have asked for him from the LORD."
21 Now the man Elkanah and all his house [a]went up to offer to the LORD the yearly sacrifice and his vow.
22 But Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, "Not until the child is weaned; then I will [a]take him, that he may appear before the LORD and [b]remain there [c]forever."
23 So [a]Elkanah her husband said to her, "Do what seems best to you; wait until you have weaned him. Only let the LORD [1]establish [2]His word." Then the woman stayed and nursed her son until she had weaned him.
24 Now when she had weaned him, she [a]took him up with her, with [1]three bulls, one ephah of flour, and a skin of wine, and brought him to [b]the house of the LORD in Shiloh. And the child was young.
25 Then they slaughtered a bull, and [a]brought the child to Eli.
26 And she said, "O my lord! [a]As your soul lives, my lord, I am the woman who stood by you here, praying to the LORD.

CHARACTER*Study*

SAMUEL

1 Sam. 1:20

Samuel's name, meaning "Heard by God" or "Appointed by God," designated his birth as a direct answer to prayer. His mother, Hannah, had longingly prayed for a son for years. Dedicated to the Lord before his birth, Samuel lived as a perpetual Nazirite, never forsaking his mother's vow that he would serve the Lord all his life. He functioned as a prophet (1 Sam. 3:20), an intercessor (7:5), a priest (2:35), and the last of the Judges (7:6). His life was strategic as he helped Israel make the transition from a theocracy led by judges to a monarchy ruled by kings. He clearly feared God more than he feared men, often speaking stern words of truth condemning the actions of powerful leaders such as Saul and David. Samuel's life exemplified the foundational teaching that "obedience is better than sacrifice" (15:22).

1:24 Samuel was probably taken to the house of the Lord in Shiloh at the age of three, the customary age of weaning a child in the ancient world.

27 [a]"For this child I prayed, and the LORD has granted me my petition which I asked of Him.
28 "Therefore I also have lent him to the LORD; as long as he lives he shall be [1]lent to the LORD." So they [a]worshiped the LORD there.

Hannah's Prayer

2 And Hannah [a]prayed and said:

[b]"My heart rejoices in the LORD;
[c]My [1]horn is exalted in the LORD.
[2]I smile at my enemies,
Because I [d]rejoice in Your salvation.

2 "No[a] one is holy like the LORD,
For there is [b]none besides You,
Nor is there any [c]rock like our God.

3 "Talk no more so very proudly;
[a]Let no arrogance come from your mouth,
For the LORD is the God of [b]knowledge;
And by Him actions are weighed.

4 "The[a] bows of the mighty men are broken,
And those who stumbled are girded with strength.
5 Those who were full have hired themselves out for bread,
And the hungry have ceased to hunger.
Even [a]the barren has borne seven,
And [b]she who has many children has become feeble.

6 "The[a] LORD kills and makes alive;
He brings down to the grave and brings up.
7 The LORD [a]makes poor and makes rich;
[b]He brings low and lifts up.
8 [a]He raises the poor from the dust
And lifts the beggar from the ash heap,
[b]To set them among princes
And make them inherit the throne of glory.

[c]"For the pillars of the earth are the LORD's,
And He has set the world upon them.
9 [a]He will guard the feet of His saints,
But the [b]wicked shall be silent in darkness.

"For by strength no man shall prevail.

The Wicked Sons of Eli

12 Now the sons of Eli were [a]corrupt;[1] [b]they did not know the LORD.

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Sam. 2:12

Next Generation

God commands us to pass our faith on to our children. We cannot condemn the next generation for their behavior if we have not taught them God's ways.

13 And the priests' custom with the people was that when any man offered a sacrifice, the priest's servant would come with a three-pronged fleshhook in his hand while the meat was boiling.
14 Then he would thrust it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; and the priest would take for himself all that the fleshhook brought up. So they did in [a]Shiloh to all the Israelites who came there.
15 Also, before they [a]burned the fat, the priest's servant would come and say to the man who sacrificed, "Give meat for roasting to the priest, for he will not take boiled meat from you, but raw."
16 And if the man said to him, "They should really burn the fat first; then you may take as much as your heart desires," he would then answer him, "No, but you must give it now; and if not, I will take it by force."
17 Therefore the sin of the young men was very great [a]before the LORD, for men [b]abhorred[1] the offering of the LORD.

Samuel's Childhood Ministry

18 [a]But Samuel ministered before the LORD, even as a child, [b]wearing a linen ephod.
19 Moreover his mother used to make

2:1 A horn is symbolic of power like an ox (Dan. 7:21). Hannah's strength was found in God, who had answered her prayer.

2:10 See similarities to Mary's prayer, "the Magnificat" in Luke 1:46–55. Hannah's prayer is often called the "Magnificat of the Old Testament."

2:12 "Corrupt" is literally "sons of Belial" or "persons of no value." Eli's sons knew God's law, but they did not know Him personally.

2:18 A linen ephod was a sleeveless garment worn by a priest while officiating at the altar (Ex. 28:6–14).

him a little robe, and bring it to him year by year when she [a]came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.
20 And Eli [a]would bless Elkanah and his wife, and say, "The LORD give you descendants from this woman for the [1]loan that was [b]given to the LORD." Then they would go to their own home.
21 And the LORD [a]visited[1] Hannah, so that she conceived and bore three sons and two daughters. Meanwhile the child Samuel [b]grew before the LORD.

Prophecy Against Eli's Household

22 Now Eli was very old; and he heard everything his sons did to all Israel, [1]and how they lay with [a]the women who assembled at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.
23 So he said to them, "Why do you do such things? For I hear of your evil dealings from all the people.
24 "No, my sons! For it is not a good report that I hear. You make the LORD's people transgress.
25 "If one man sins against another, [a]God[1] will judge him. But if a man [b]sins against the LORD, who will intercede for him?" Nevertheless they did not heed the voice of their father, [c]because the LORD desired to kill them.
26 And the child Samuel [a]grew in stature, and [b]in favor both with the LORD and men.
27 Then a [a]man of God came to Eli and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: [b]'Did I not clearly reveal Myself to the house of your father when they were in Egypt in Pharaoh's house?
28 'Did I not [a]choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be My priest, to offer upon My altar, to burn incense, and to wear an ephod before Me? And [b]did I not give to the house of your father all the offerings of the children of Israel made by fire?
29 'Why do you [a]kick at My sacrifice and My offering which I have commanded in My [b]dwelling place, and honor your sons more than [c]Me, to make yourselves fat with the best of all the offerings of Israel My people?'
30 "Therefore the LORD God of Israel says: [a]'I said indeed that your house and the house of your father would walk before Me forever.' But now the LORD says: [b]'Far be it from Me; for those who honor Me I will honor, and [c]those who despise Me shall be lightly esteemed.
31 'Behold, [a]the days are coming that I will cut off your [1]arm and the arm of your father's house, so that there will not be an old man in your house.
32 'And you will see an enemy in My dwelling place, despite all the good which God does for Israel. And there shall not be [a]an old man in your house forever.
33 'But any of your men whom I do not cut off from My altar shall consume your eyes and grieve your heart. And all the descendants of your house shall die in the flower of their age.
34 'Now this shall be [a]a sign to you that will come upon your two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas: [b]in one day they shall die, both of them.
35 'Then [a]I will raise up for Myself a faithful priest who shall do according to what is in My heart and in My mind. [b]I will build him a sure house, and he shall walk before [c]My anointed forever.

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Sam. 2:35

For Myself

God's desire is for us to do what is on His heart and His mind. This only comes through self-denial, for we cannot serve ourselves and God.

36 [a]'And it shall come to pass that everyone who is left in your house will come and bow down to him for a piece of silver and a morsel of bread, and say, "Please, [1]put me in one of the priestly positions, that I may eat a piece of bread." ' "

Samuel's First Prophecy

3 Now [a]the boy Samuel ministered to the LORD before Eli. And [b]the word of the LORD was rare in those days; there was no widespread revelation.
2 And it came to pass at that time, while Eli was lying down in his place, and when his eyes had begun to grow [a]so dim that he could not see,

6 Then the LORD called yet again, "Samuel!" So Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." He answered, "I did not call, my son; lie down again."

7 (Now Samuel [a]did not yet know the LORD, nor was the word of the LORD yet revealed to him.)
8 And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. So he arose and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you did call me." Then Eli perceived that the LORD had called the boy.
9 Therefore Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down; and it shall be, if He calls you, that you must say, [a]'Speak, LORD, for Your servant hears.' " So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Sam. 3:9

God's Voice

At first you may struggle to distinguish God's voice. But the more frequent and intimate your times with Him, the easier it becomes to hear and recognize His still small voice.

10 Now the LORD came and stood and called as at other times, "Samuel! Samuel!" And Samuel answered, "Speak, for Your servant hears."
11 Then the LORD said to Samuel: "Behold, I will do something in Israel [a]at which both ears of everyone who hears it will tingle.
12 "In that day I will perform against Eli [a]all that I have spoken concerning his house, from beginning to end.
13 [a]"For I have told him that I will [b]judge his house forever for the iniquity which he knows, because [c]his sons made themselves vile, and he [d]did not [1]restrain them.
14 "And therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli that the iniquity of Eli's house [a]shall not be atoned for by sacrifice or offering forever."
15 So Samuel lay down until [1]morning, and opened the doors of the house of the LORD. And Samuel was afraid to tell Eli the vision.
16 Then Eli called Samuel and said, "Samuel, my son!" He answered, "Here I am."
17 And he said, "What is the word that the LORD spoke to you? Please do not hide it from me. [a]God do so to you, and more also, if you hide anything from me of all the things that He said to you."
18 Then Samuel told him everything, and hid nothing from him. And he said, [a]"It is the LORD. Let Him do what seems good to Him."
19 So Samuel [a]grew, and [b]the LORD was with him [c]and let none of his words [1]fall to the ground.
20 And all Israel [a]from Dan to Beersheba knew that Samuel had been [1]established as a prophet of the LORD.
21 Then the LORD appeared again in Shiloh. For the LORD revealed Himself to Samuel in Shiloh by [a]the word of the LORD.

4 And the word of Samuel came to all [1]Israel.

The Ark of God Captured

Now Israel went out to battle against the Philistines, and encamped beside [a]Ebenezer; and the Philistines encamped in Aphek.
2 Then the [a]Philistines put themselves in battle array against Israel. And when they joined battle, Israel was [1]defeated by the Philistines, who killed about four thousand men of the army in the field.
3 And when the people had come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, "Why has the LORD defeated us today before the Philistines? [a]Let us bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD from Shiloh to us, that when it comes among us it may save us from the hand of our enemies."

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Sam. 4:3

He Alone Saves

Religion does not save people; only a relationship with God can do that. Never put faith in an object or an activity; trust only in the God you know and obey.

4 So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from there the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, [a]who dwells between [b]the cherubim. And the [c]two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.
5 And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted so loudly that the earth shook.

3:10 "The LORD came and stood" implies a theophany, a visible appearance of God as He spoke (see Gen. 12:7).

3:20 "From Dan to Beersheba" was a common expression meaning "all Israel," for these were the most northern and southern points of the land.

4:1 "Ebenezer" means "Stone of Help" and would be the site of an Israelite victory twenty years later (7:12). Aphek was a strategic city thirteen miles northeast of Joppa, bordering on the northernmost point of Philistine territory.

4:4 Cherubim are angels considered to be guardians in God's immediate presence.

6 Now when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, "What does the sound of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews mean?" Then they understood that the ark of the LORD had come into the camp.
7 So the Philistines were afraid, for they said, "God has come into the camp!" And they said, [a]"Woe to us! For such a thing has never happened before.
8 "Woe to us! Who will deliver us from the hand of these mighty gods? These are the gods who struck the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness.
9 [a]"Be strong and conduct yourselves like men, you Philistines, that you do not become servants of the Hebrews, [b]as they have been to you. [1]Conduct yourselves like men, and fight!"
10 So the Philistines fought, and [a]Israel was [1]defeated, and every man fled to his tent. There was a very great slaughter, and there fell of Israel thirty thousand foot soldiers.
11 Also [a]the ark of God was captured; and [b]the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

Death of Eli

12 Then a man of Benjamin ran from the battle line the same day, and [a]came to Shiloh with his clothes torn and [b]dirt on his head.
13 Now when he came, there was Eli, sitting on [a]a seat [1]by the wayside watching, for his heart [2]trembled for the ark of God. And when the man came into the city and told it, all the city cried out.
14 When Eli heard the noise of the outcry, he said, "What does the sound of this tumult mean?" And the man came quickly and told Eli.
15 Eli was ninety-eight years old, and [a]his eyes were so [1]dim that he could not see.
16 Then the man said to Eli, "I am he who came from the battle. And I fled today from the battle line." And he said, [a]"What happened, my son?"
17 So the messenger answered and said, "Israel has fled before the Philistines, and there has been a great slaughter among the people. Also your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead; and the ark of God has been captured."

Ichabod

19 Now his daughter-in-law, Phinehas' wife, was with child, due to be delivered; and when she heard the news that the ark of God was captured, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and gave birth, for her labor pains came upon her.
20 And about the time of her death [a]the women who stood by her said to her, "Do not fear, for you have borne a son." But she did not answer, nor did she [1]regard it.

The Philistines and the Ark

CHAPTER 5

5 Then the Philistines took the ark of God and brought it [a]from Ebenezer to Ashdod.
2 When the Philistines took the ark of God, they brought it into the house of [a]Dagon[1] and set it by Dagon.
3 And when the people of Ashdod arose early in the morning, there was Dagon, [a]fallen on its face to the earth before the ark of the LORD. So they took Dagon and [b]set it in its place again.
4 And when they arose early the next morning, there was Dagon, fallen on its face to the ground before the ark of the LORD. [a]The head of Dagon and both the palms of its hands were broken off on the threshold; only [1]Dagon's torso was left of it.
5 Therefore neither the priests of Dagon nor any who come into Dagon's house [a]tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod to this day.
6 But the [a]hand of the LORD was heavy on the people of Ashdod, and He [b]ravaged them and struck them with [c]tumors,[1] both Ashdod and its [d]territory.

4:12 Torn clothes and dirt on the head were common signs of mourning.

4:21 "Ichabod" literally means "Inglorious" or "No Glory."

4:22 The Ark of the Covenant symbolized God's presence among His people, but He was not inseparably bound to the ark. Its capture demonstrated the damaged relationship between God and His people.

5:1 Ashdod was one of five major Philistine cities on the Mediterranean coast, about thirty-five miles west of Jerusalem.

5:2 Dagon in Canaanite mythology was the father of Baal, the principal god of the Philistines. His name was related to the Hebrew word for "grain." He was believed to control the weather and fertility of the land.

5:6 "Tumor" literally means "swellings" and could refer to any kind of tumor, swelling, or boil. This plague seems to have been brought upon the people through an infestation of rats.

7 And when the men of Ashdod saw how it was, they said, "The ark of the [a]God of Israel must not remain with us, for His hand is harsh toward us and Dagon our god."
8 Therefore they sent and gathered to themselves all the [a]lords of the Philistines, and said, "What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel?" And they answered, "Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried away to [b]Gath." So they carried the ark of the God of Israel away.
9 So it was, after they had carried it away, that [a]the hand of the LORD was against the city with a very great destruction; and He struck the men of the city, both small and great, [1]and tumors broke out on them.
10 Therefore they sent the ark of God to Ekron. So it was, as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, "They have brought the ark of the God of Israel to us, to kill us and our people!"
11 So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, "Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go back to its own place, so that it does not kill us and our people." For there was a deadly destruction throughout all the city; the hand of God was very heavy there.

One True God

No one mocks God without paying a heavy price, either immediately or ultimately. God's name is not to be taken lightly, but revered, for He is the one true God.

12 And the men who did not die were stricken with the tumors, and the [a]cry of the city went up to heaven.

The Ark Returned to Israel

6 Now the ark of the LORD was in the country of the Philistines seven months.
2 And the Philistines [a]called for the priests and the diviners, saying, "What shall we do with the ark of the LORD? Tell us how we should send it to its place."

3 So they said, "If you send away the ark of the God of Israel, do not send it [a]empty; but by all means return it to Him with [b]a trespass offering. Then you will be healed, and it will be known to you why His hand is not removed from you."
4 Then they said, "What is the trespass offering which we shall return to Him?" They answered, [a]"Five golden tumors and five golden rats, according to the number of the lords of the Philistines. For the same plague was on all of [1]you and on your lords.
5 "Therefore you shall make images of your tumors and images of your rats that [a]ravage the land, and you shall [b]give glory to the God of Israel; perhaps He will [c]lighten[1] His hand from you, from [d]your gods, and from your land.
6 "Why then do you harden your hearts [a]as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When He did mighty things among them, [b]did they not let the people go, that they might depart?
7 "Now therefore, make [a]a new cart, take two milk cows [b]which have never been yoked, and hitch the cows to the cart; and take their calves home, away from them.
8 "Then take the ark of the LORD and set it on the cart; and put [a]the articles of gold which you are returning to Him as a trespass offering in a chest by its side. Then send it away, and let it go.
9 "And watch: if it goes up the road to its own territory, to [a]Beth Shemesh, then He has done [1]us this great evil. But if not, then [b]we shall know that it is not His hand that struck us—it happened to us by chance."
10 Then the men did so; they took two milk cows and hitched them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home.
11 And they set the ark of the LORD on the cart, and the chest with the gold rats and the images of their tumors.
12 Then the cows headed straight for the road to Beth Shemesh, and went along the [a]highway, lowing as they went, and did not turn aside to the right hand or the left. And the lords of the Philistines went after them to the border of Beth Shemesh.
13 Now the people of Beth Shemesh were reaping their [a]wheat harvest in the valley; and they lifted their eyes and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it.

5:8 The five rulers of the five cities seem to have been equal in authority.

6:2 Diviners claimed to tell the future and to glean hidden wisdom through the interpretation of omens. They might examine liquid in a cup (Gen. 44:5). They would study the flight patterns of birds and the internal organs of sacrificed animals (Ezek. 21:21). Scripture continually condemns the practice of divination (Ex. 22:18; Lev. 19:26; Deut. 18:11–12; Is. 2:6; Jer. 27:9; Zech. 10:2).

6:9 Beth Shemesh was a Levitical city (Josh. 21:16) near the Philistine border meaning "house of the sun."

6:13 Wheat was planted in the fall and harvested in the spring (mid-April to mid-June).

14 Then the cart came into the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh, and stood there; a large stone was there. So they split the wood of the cart and offered the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD.
15 The Levites took down the ark of the LORD and the chest that was with it, in which were the articles of gold, and put them on the large stone. Then the men of Beth Shemesh offered burnt offerings and made sacrifices the same day to the LORD.
16 So when [a]the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day.
17 [a]These are the golden tumors which the Philistines returned as a trespass offering to the LORD: one for Ashdod, one for Gaza, one for Ashkelon, one for [b]Gath, one for Ekron;
18 and the golden rats, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both fortified cities and country villages, even as far as the large stone of Abel on which they set the ark of the LORD, which stone remains to this day in the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh.
19 Then [a]He struck the men of Beth Shemesh, because they had looked into the ark of the LORD. [1]He [b]struck fifty thousand and seventy men of the people, and the people lamented because the LORD had struck the people with a great slaughter.

The Ark at Kirjath Jearim

20 And the men of Beth Shemesh said, [a]"Who is able to stand before this holy LORD God? And to whom shall it go up from us?"

Confidence Before God

God's presence confirms the condition of our life. It either reveals our sin or affirms our relationship with Him. Nothing remains hidden in God's holy presence.

21 So they sent messengers to the inhabitants of [a]Kirjath Jearim, saying, "The Philistines have brought back the ark of the LORD; come down and take it up with you."

7 Then the men of [a]Kirjath Jearim came and took the ark of the LORD, and brought it into the house of [b]Abinadab on the hill, and [c]consecrated Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the LORD.

Samuel Judges Israel

2 So it was that the ark remained in Kirjath Jearim a long time; it was there twenty years. And all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD.
3 Then Samuel spoke to all the house of Israel, saying, "If you [a]return to the LORD with all your hearts, then [b]put away the foreign gods and the [c]Ashtoreths[1] from among you, and [d]prepare your hearts for the LORD, and [e]serve Him only; and He will deliver you from the hand of the Philistines."
4 So the children of Israel put away the [a]Baals and the [1]Ashtoreths, and served the LORD only.
5 And Samuel said, [a]"Gather all Israel to Mizpah, and [b]I will pray to the LORD for you."
6 So they gathered together at Mizpah, [a]drew water, and poured it out before the LORD. And they [b]fasted that day, and said there, [c]"We have sinned against the LORD." And Samuel judged the children of Israel at Mizpah.
7 Now when the Philistines heard that the children of Israel had gathered together at Mizpah, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard of it, they were afraid of the Philistines.
8 So the children of Israel said to Samuel, [a]"Do not cease to cry out to the LORD our God for us, that He may save us from the hand of the Philistines."
9 And Samuel took a [a]suckling lamb and offered it as a whole burnt offering to the LORD. Then [b]Samuel cried out to the LORD for Israel, and the LORD answered him.

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Sam. 7:9

Power of Prayer

The influence of one person's life can impact an entire nation. Intercession is a great privilege for the one who knows God. Such prayer calls upon the power of God Himself.

6:21 Kirjath Jearim was about ten miles west of Jerusalem.

7:1 "Eleazar" means "God Is Help" or "God Is Power." He was consecrated, or set apart, to keep watch over the ark. He must have been of a priestly order, since he was not punished for handling the ark.

7:2 "Twenty years" refers to the time between the return of the ark by the Philistines and the assembly called by Samuel at Mizpah. The ark was not brought to Jerusalem until David's first year as King (2 Sam. 6:1–18).

7:3 "Ashtoreths" is the plural form of the Canaanite goddess of love, fertility, and war.

10 Now as Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel. [a]But the LORD thundered with a loud thunder upon the Philistines that day, and so confused them that they were overcome before Israel.
11 And the men of Israel went out of Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, and [1]drove them back as far as below Beth Car.
12 Then Samuel [a]took a stone and set it up between Mizpah and Shen, and called its name [1]Ebenezer, saying, "Thus far the LORD has helped us."
13 [a]So the Philistines were subdued, and they [b]did not come anymore into the territory of Israel. And the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.
14 Then the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron to Gath; and Israel recovered its territory from the hands of the Philistines. Also there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.
15 And Samuel [a]judged Israel all the days of his life.
16 He went from year to year on a circuit to Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah, and judged Israel in all those places.
17 But [a]he always returned to Ramah, for his home was there. There he judged Israel, and there he [b]built an altar to the LORD.

Israel Demands a King

8 Now it came to pass when Samuel was [a]old that he [b]made his [c]sons judges over Israel.
2 The name of his firstborn was Joel, and the name of his second, Abijah; they were judges in Beersheba.
3 But his sons [a]did not walk in his ways; they turned aside [b]after dishonest gain, [c]took bribes, and perverted justice.
4 Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah,
5 and said to him, "Look, you are old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Now [a]make us a king to judge us like all the nations."
6 But the thing [a]displeased Samuel when they said, "Give us a king to judge us." So Samuel [b]prayed to the LORD.
7 And the LORD said to Samuel, "Heed the voice of the people in all that they say to you; for [a]they have not rejected you, but [b]they have rejected Me, that I should not reign over them.
8 "According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt, even to this day—with which they have forsaken Me and served other gods—so they are doing to you also.
9 "Now therefore, heed their voice. However, you shall solemnly forewarn them, and [a]show them the behavior of the king who will reign over them."
10 So Samuel told all the words of the LORD to the people who asked him for a king.
11 And he said, [a]"This will be the behavior of the king who will reign over you: He will take your [b]sons and appoint them for his own [c]chariots and to be his horsemen, and some will run before his chariots.
12 "He will [a]appoint captains over his thousands and captains over his fifties, will set some to plow his ground and reap his harvest, and some to make his weapons of war and equipment for his chariots.
13 "He will take your daughters to be perfumers, cooks, and bakers.
14 "And [a]he will take the best of your fields, your vineyards, and your olive groves, and give them to his servants.
15 "He will take a tenth of your grain and your vintage, and give it to his officers and servants.
16 "And he will take your male servants, your female servants, your finest [1]young men, and your donkeys, and put them to his work.
17 "He will take a tenth of your sheep. And you will be his servants.
18 "And you will cry out in that day because of your king whom you have chosen for yourselves, and the LORD [a]will not hear you in that day."

Like the World

To be like the world is an alluring temptation; yielding to it will cost you the favored relationship with God. If the world seems more attractive than God, your heart has shifted and judgment is on its way.

7:12 Stones were commonly used to mark boundaries. They were often inscribed and were legal indicators of property lines. Another use was to designate the location of a significant event.

8:1 Samuel was approximately sixty-five years old at this time.

8:2 "Joel" means "The Lord Is God." "Abijah" means "My Father Is the Lord."

8:2 Beersheba was in southern Israel, the place where Abraham and Isaac formed alliances with Abimelech, king of the Philistines (Gen. 21:22–34).

8:11 Samuel listed the normal policies of contemporary Canaanite kings.

8:15 "The king's tenth" would be in addition to their tithe to the Lord (Lev. 27:30–32; Num. 18:26).

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Sam. 8:18

Going Our Own Way

When we clamor for our own desires, God sometimes lets us have our way. We then experience life apart from Him, without His protection and His blessing.

19 Nevertheless the people [a]refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, "No, but we will have a king over us,
20 "that we also may be [a]like all the nations, and that our king may judge us and go out before us and fight our battles."
21 And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he repeated them in the hearing of the LORD.
22 So the LORD said to Samuel, [a]"Heed their voice, and make them a king." And Samuel said to the men of Israel, "Every man go to his city."

Saul Chosen to Be King

9 There was a man of Benjamin whose name was [a]Kish the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, a Benjamite, a mighty man of [1]power.
2 And he had a choice and handsome son whose name was Saul. There was not a more handsome person than he among the children of Israel. [a]From his shoulders upward he was taller than any of the people.
3 Now the donkeys of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. And Kish said to his son Saul, "Please take one of the servants with you, and arise, go and look for the donkeys."
4 So he passed through the mountains of Ephraim and through the land of [a]Shalisha, but they did not find them. Then they passed through the land of Shaalim, and they were not there. Then he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they did not find them.
5 When they had come to the land of [a]Zuph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, "Come, let [b]us return, lest my father cease caring about the donkeys and become worried about us."
6 And he said to him, "Look now, there is in this city [a]a man of God, and he is an honorable man; [b]all that he says surely comes to pass. So let us go there; perhaps he can show us the way that we should go."

7 Then Saul said to his servant, "But look, if we go, [a]what shall we bring the man? For the bread in our vessels is all gone, and there is no present to bring to the man of God. What do we have?"
8 And the servant answered Saul again and said, "Look, I have here at hand one-fourth of a shekel of silver. I will give that to the man of God, to tell us our way."
9 (Formerly in Israel, when a man [a]went [1]to inquire of God, he spoke thus: "Come, let us go to the seer"; for he who is now called a prophet was formerly called [b]a seer.)
10 Then Saul said to his servant, [1]"Well said; come, let us go." So they went to the city where the man of God was.
11 As they went up the hill to the city, [a]they met some young women going out to draw water, and said to them, "Is the seer here?"
12 And they answered them and said, "Yes, there he is, just ahead of you. Hurry now; for today he came to this city, because [a]there is a sacrifice of the people today [b]on the high place.
13 "As soon as you come into the city, you will surely find him before he goes up to the high place to eat. For the people will not eat until he comes, because he must bless the sacrifice; afterward those who are invited will eat. Now therefore, go up, for about this time you will find him."
14 So they went up to the city. As they were coming into the city, there was Samuel, coming out toward them on his way up to the high place.
15 [a]Now the LORD had told Samuel in his ear the day before Saul came, saying,
16 "Tomorrow about this time [a]I will send you a man from the land of Benjamin, [b]and you shall anoint him [1]commander over My people Israel, that he may save My people from the hand of the Philistines; for I have [c]looked upon My people, because their cry has come to Me."
17 So when Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said to him, [a]"There he is, the man of whom I spoke to you. This one shall reign over My people."
18 Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, "Please tell me, where is the seer's house?"
19 Samuel answered Saul and said, "I am the seer. Go up before me to the high place, for you shall eat with me today;

9:1 Kish, Saul's father, was a "mighty man of power." This indicates he was probably a wealthy land owner and functioned similarly to a feudal lord, a leader in times of war.

9:2 "Saul" means "Asked For." Saul in the New Testament, later Paul, was also from the tribe of Benjamin (Phil. 3:5).

9:6 Saul apparently had not heard of the prophet Samuel, and was therefore not among the nation's leaders.

and tomorrow I will let you go and will tell you all that is in your heart.
20 "But as for [a]your donkeys that were lost three days ago, do not be anxious about them, for they have been found. And [1]on whom [b]is all the desire of Israel? Is it not on you and on all your father's house?"
21 And Saul answered and said, [a]"Am I not a Benjamite, of the [b]smallest of the tribes of Israel, and [c]my family the least of all the families of the [1]tribe of Benjamin? Why then do you speak like this to me?"

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Sam. 9:21

What God Sees

We do not always see the potential in ourselves that God sees. That is because the assignments God gives us are not based on our own ability, but on our obedience to Him.

22 Now Samuel took Saul and his servant and brought them into the hall, and had them sit in the place of honor among those who were invited; there were about thirty persons.
23 And Samuel said to the cook, "Bring the portion which I gave you, of which I said to you, 'Set it apart.' "
24 So the cook took up [a]the thigh with its upper part and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, "Here it is, what was kept back. It was set apart for you. Eat; for until this time it has been kept for you, since I said I invited the people." So Saul ate with Samuel that day.
25 When they had come down from the high place into the city, [1]Samuel spoke with Saul on [a]the top of the house.
26 They arose early; and it was about the dawning of the day that Samuel called to Saul on the top of the house, saying, "Get up, that I may send you on your way." And Saul arose, and both of them went outside, he and Samuel.

Saul Anointed King

27 As they were going down to the outskirts of the city, Samuel said to Saul, "Tell the servant to go on ahead of us." And he went on. "But you stand here [1]awhile, that I may announce to you the word of God."

10 Then [a]Samuel took a flask of oil and poured it on his head, [b]and kissed him and said: "Is it not because [c]the LORD has anointed you commander over [d]His [1]inheritance?
2 "When you have departed from me today, you will find two men by [a]Rachel's tomb in the territory of Benjamin [b]at Zelzah; and they will say to you, 'The donkeys which you went to look for have been found. And now your father has ceased caring about the donkeys and is worrying about [c]you, saying, "What shall I do about my son?" '
3 "Then you shall go on forward from there and come to the terebinth tree of Tabor. There three men going up [a]to God at Bethel will meet you, one carrying three young goats, another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a skin of wine.
4 "And they will [1]greet you and give you two loaves of bread, which you shall receive from their hands.
5 "After that you shall come to the hill of God [a]where the Philistine garrison is. And it will happen, when you have come there to the city, that you will meet a group of prophets coming down [b]from the high place with a stringed instrument, a tambourine, a flute, and a harp before them; [c]and they will be prophesying.
6 "Then [a]the Spirit of the LORD will come upon you, and [b]you will prophesy with them and be turned into another man.
7 "And let it be, when these [a]signs come to you, that you do as the occasion demands; for [b]God is with you.
8 "You shall go down before me [a]to Gilgal; and surely I will come down to you to offer burnt offerings and make sacrifices of peace offerings. [b]Seven days you shall wait, till I come to you and show you what you should do."
9 So it was, when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, that God [1]gave him another heart; and all those signs came to pass that day.
10 [a]When they came there to the hill, there was [b]a group of prophets to meet him; then the Spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied among them.
11 And it happened, when all who knew him formerly saw that he indeed prophesied among the prophets, that the peo-

9:21 Benjamin was the last of Jacob's sons. The tribe of Benjamin was the second smallest tribe at the first census (Num. 1:36, 37). They were reduced to 600 fighting men as punishment after their wicked action at Gibeah (Judg. 19; 20).

9:24 The thigh was the portion of meat given to a person of honor and was normally reserved for the priest (Lev. 7:32, 33).

10:1 "The LORD has anointed you" indicates that the appointment of a king was a religious act. This is why David showed Saul respect (24:6).

10:5 The prophets were probably from the "school of prophets" established and taught by Samuel. They appear to have gathered into small communities during times of spiritual decline. They encouraged one another to be faithful and admonished the people of the land to seek God.

ple said to one another, "What is this that has come upon the son of Kish? [a]Is Saul also among the prophets?"
12 Then a man from there answered and said, "But [a]who is their father?" Therefore it became a proverb: "Is Saul also among the prophets?"
13 And when he had finished prophesying, he went to the high place.
14 Then Saul's [a]uncle said to him and his servant, "Where did you go?" So he said, "To look for the donkeys. When we saw that they were nowhere to be found, we went to Samuel."
15 And Saul's uncle said, "Tell me, please, what Samuel said to you."
16 So Saul said to his uncle, "He told us plainly that the donkeys had been [a]found." But about the matter of the kingdom, he did not tell him what Samuel had said.

Saul Proclaimed King

17 Then Samuel called the people together [a]to the LORD [b]at Mizpah,
18 and said to the children of Israel, [a]"Thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of all kingdoms and from those who oppressed you.'
19 [a]"But you have today rejected your God, who Himself saved you from all your adversities and your tribulations; and you have said to Him, 'No, set a king over us!' Now therefore, present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes and by your [1]clans."

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Sam. 10:19

Less than God's Will

The permission of God is not necessarily the will of God. He may grant our rebellious desires, but always at a great cost—we miss what God originally purposed.

20 And when Samuel had [a]caused all the tribes of Israel to come near, the tribe of Benjamin was chosen.
21 When he had caused the tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of Matri was chosen. And Saul the son of Kish was chosen. But when they sought him, he could not be found.
22 Therefore they [a]inquired of the LORD further, "Has the man come here yet?" And the LORD answered, "There he is, hidden among the equipment."
23 So they ran and brought him from there; and when he stood among the people, [a]he was taller than any of the people from his shoulders upward.
24 And Samuel said to all the people, "Do you see him [a]whom the LORD has chosen, that there is no one like him among all the people?" So all the people shouted and said, [b]"Long[1] live the king!"
25 Then Samuel explained to the people [a]the behavior of royalty, and wrote it in a book and laid it up before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.
26 And Saul also went home [a]to Gibeah; and valiant men went with him, whose hearts God had touched.
27 [a]But some [b]rebels said, "How can this man save us?" So they despised him, [c]and brought him no presents. But he [1]held his peace.

Saul Saves Jabesh Gilead

11 Then [a]Nahash the Ammonite came up and [1]encamped against [b]Jabesh Gilead; and all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, [c]"Make a covenant with us, and we will serve you."
2 And Nahash the Ammonite answered them, "On this condition I will make a covenant with you, that I may put out all your right eyes, and bring [a]reproach on all Israel."
3 Then the elders of Jabesh said to him, "Hold off for seven days, that we may send messengers to all the territory of Israel. And then, if there is no one to [1]save us, we will come out to you."
4 So the messengers came [a]to Gibeah of Saul and told the news in the hearing of the people. And [b]all the people lifted up their voices and wept.
5 Now there was Saul, coming behind the herd from the field; and Saul said, "What troubles the people, that they weep?" And they told him the words of the men of Jabesh.
6 [a]Then the Spirit of God came upon Saul when he heard this news, and his anger was greatly aroused.
7 So he took a yoke of oxen and [a]cut them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the territory of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, [b]"Whoever does not go out with Saul and Samuel to battle, so it shall be done to his oxen." And the fear of the LORD fell

Give Glory Away

Spiritual leaders know success comes from God. While the world gives glory to people, godly people always redirect the praise to God, the true leader of His people.

14 Then Samuel said to the people, "Come, let us go [a]to Gilgal and renew the kingdom there."
15 So all the people went to Gilgal, and there they made Saul king [a]before the LORD in Gilgal. [b]There they made sacrifices of peace offerings before the LORD, and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

Samuel's Address at Saul's Coronation

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Sam. 12:14

Fear the Lord

No person should ever come between you and your God. Even though God uses people to do His will, He alone remains the sole leader of your life.

15 "However, if you do [a]not obey the voice of the LORD, but [b]rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then the hand of the LORD will be against you, as it was against your fathers.
16 "Now therefore, [a]stand and see this great thing which the LORD will do before your eyes:
17 "Is today not the [a]wheat harvest? [b]I will call to the LORD, and He will send thunder and [c]rain, that you may perceive and see that [d]your wickedness is great, which you have done in the sight of the LORD, in asking a king for yourselves."
18 So Samuel called to the LORD, and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day; and [a]all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.
19 And all the people said to Samuel, [a]"Pray for your servants to the LORD your God, that we may not die; for we have added to all our sins the evil of asking a king for ourselves."
20 Then Samuel said to the people, "Do not fear. You have done all this wickedness; [a]yet do not turn aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart.
21 "And [a]do not turn aside; [b]for then you would go after empty things which cannot profit or deliver, for they are nothing.
22 "For [a]the LORD will not forsake [b]His people, [c]for His great name's sake, because [d]it has pleased the LORD to make you His people.
23 "Moreover, as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD [a]in ceasing to pray for you; but [b]I will teach you the [c]good and the right way.

Neglecting Prayer

To neglect prayer is to abandon God's heart; it is to sin against God who has called us to pray. Prayer is the greatest indicator of a person's relationship to God, revealing our faith in His ability to work in our world.

24 [a]"Only fear the LORD, and serve Him in truth with all your heart; for [b]consider what [c]great things He has done for you.
25 "But if you still do wickedly, [a]you shall be swept away, [b]both you and your king."

Saul's Unlawful Sacrifice

13 Saul [1]reigned one year; and when he had reigned two years over Israel,
2 Saul chose for himself three thousand men of Israel. Two thousand were with Saul in [a]Michmash and in the mountains of Bethel, and a thousand were with [b]Jonathan in [c]Gibeah of Benjamin. The rest of the people he sent away, every man to his tent.
3 And Jonathan attacked [a]the garrison of the Philistines that was in [b]Geba, and the Philistines heard of it. Then Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, "Let the Hebrews hear!"
4 Now all Israel heard it said that Saul had attacked a garrison of the Philistines, and that Israel had also become [1]an abomination to the Philistines. And the people were called together to Saul at Gilgal.
5 Then the Philistines gathered together to fight with Israel, [1]thirty thousand chariots and six thousand horsemen, and people [a]as the sand which is on the seashore in multitude. And they came up and encamped in Michmash, to the east of [b]Beth Aven.
6 When the men of Israel saw that they were in danger (for the people were distressed), then the people [a]hid in caves, in thickets, in rocks, in holes, and in pits.
7 And some of the Hebrews crossed over the Jordan to the [a]land of Gad and Gilead. As for Saul, he was still in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling.
8 [a]Then he waited seven days, according to the time set by Samuel. But 12:13 "The LORD set a king over you" indicates that the Lord chose to incorporate kingship in His rule over the people, but not to replace His rule over them.

13:2 Michmash was about two thousand feet above sea level and about four and a half miles south of Bethel. Mountainous terrain in this area would be a hindrance to chariots.

13:5 The Israelites did not obtain chariots until the reign of Solomon (1 Kin. 4:26).

Samuel did not come to Gilgal; and the people were scattered from him.
9 So Saul said, "Bring a burnt offering and peace offerings here to me." And he offered the burnt offering.
10 Now it happened, as soon as he had finished presenting the burnt offering, that Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might [1]greet him.
11 And Samuel said, "What have you done?" Saul said, "When I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that you did not come within the days appointed, and that the Philistines gathered together at Michmash,
12 "then I said, 'The Philistines will now come down on me at Gilgal, and I have not made supplication to the LORD.' Therefore I felt compelled, and offered a burnt offering."
13 And Samuel said to Saul, [a]"You have done foolishly. [b]You have not kept the commandment of the LORD your God, which He commanded you. For now the LORD would have established your kingdom over Israel forever.

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Sam. 13:13

Legacy

Our relationship to God leaves a legacy for the succeeding generations, whether good or bad. Live in such a way to give those who follow maximum opportunity for abundant life in Christ.

14 [a]"But now your kingdom shall not continue. [b]The LORD has sought for Himself a man [c]after His own heart, and the LORD has commanded him to be commander over His people, because you have [d]not kept what the LORD commanded you."
15 Then Samuel arose and went up from Gilgal to Gibeah of [1]Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people present with him, [a]about six hundred men.

No Weapons for the Army

16 Saul, Jonathan his son, and the people present with them remained in [1]Gibeah of Benjamin. But the Philistines encamped in Michmash.
17 Then raiders came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies. One company turned onto the road to [a]Ophrah, to the land of Shual,
18 another company turned to the road to [a]Beth Horon, and another company turned to the road of the border that overlooks the Valley of [b]Zeboim toward the wilderness.
19 Now [a]there was no blacksmith to be found throughout all the land of Israel, for the Philistines said, "Lest the Hebrews make swords or spears."
20 But all the Israelites would go down to the Philistines to sharpen each man's plowshare, his mattock, his ax, and his sickle;
21 and the charge for a sharpening was a [1]pim for the plowshares, the mattocks, the forks, and the axes, and to set the points of the goads.
22 So it came about, on the day of battle, that [a]there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people who were with Saul and Jonathan. But they were found with Saul and Jonathan his son.
23 [a]And the garrison of the Philistines went out to the pass of Michmash.

Jonathan Defeats the Philistines

14 Now it happened one day that Jonathan the son of Saul said to the young man who [1]bore his armor, "Come, let us go over to the Philistines' garrison that is on the other side." But he did not tell his father.
2 And Saul was sitting in the outskirts of [a]Gibeah under a pomegranate tree which is in Migron. The people who were with him were about six hundred men.
3 [a]Ahijah the son of Ahitub, [b]Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the LORD's priest in Shiloh, was [c]wearing an ephod. But the people did not know that Jonathan had gone.
4 Between the passes, by which Jonathan sought to go over [a]to the Philistines' garrison, there was a sharp rock on one side and a sharp rock on the other side. And the name of one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.
5 The front of one faced northward opposite Michmash, and the other southward opposite Gibeah.
6 Then Jonathan said to the young man who bore his armor, "Come, let us go over to the garrison of these [a]uncircumcised; it may be that the LORD will work for us. For nothing restrains the LORD [b]from saving by many or by few."
7 So his armorbearer said to him, "Do all that is in your heart. Go then; here I am with you, according to your heart."

13:19 Israelites did not have the ability to make agricultural tools, let alone weapons of warfare. The Philistine technology of iron production gave them a great advantage.

14:2 Leaders would often hold court under prominent trees (1 Sam. 22:6; Judg. 4:5).

14:3 "Ahijah" means "My Brother Is the Lord."

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Sam. 14:6

God Is a Majority

No matter what the circumstance, any number plus God is a majority. When the battle is won by God's hand, the number of people needed to fight is irrelevant.

8 Then Jonathan said, "Very well, let us cross over to these men, and we will show ourselves to them.
9 "If they say thus to us, 'Wait until we come to you,' then we will stand still in our place and not go up to them.
10 "But if they say thus, 'Come up to us,' then we will go up. For the LORD has delivered them into our hand, and [a]this will be a sign to us."
11 So both of them showed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines. And the Philistines said, "Look, the Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they have [a]hidden."
12 Then the men of the garrison called to Jonathan and his armorbearer, and said, "Come up to us, and we will [1]show you something." Jonathan said to his armorbearer, "Come up after me, for the LORD has delivered them into the hand of Israel."
13 And Jonathan climbed up on his hands and knees with his armorbearer after him; and they [a]fell before Jonathan. And as he came after him, his armorbearer killed them.
14 That first slaughter which Jonathan and his armorbearer made was about twenty men within about [1]half an acre of land.
15 And [a]there was [1]trembling in the camp, in the field, and among all the people. The garrison and [b]the raiders also trembled; and the earth quaked, so that it was [c]a very great trembling.
16 Now the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked, and there was the multitude, melting away; and they [a]went here and there.
17 Then Saul said to the people who were with him, "Now call the roll and see who has gone from us." And when they had called the roll, surprisingly, Jonathan and his armorbearer were not there.
18 And Saul said to Ahijah, "Bring the [1]ark of God here" (for at that time the ark of God was with the children of Israel).
19 Now it happened, while Saul [a]talked to the priest, that the noise which was in the camp of the Philistines continued to increase; so Saul said to the priest, "Withdraw your hand."
20 Then Saul and all the people who were with him assembled, and they went to the battle; and indeed [a]every man's sword was against his neighbor, and there was very great confusion.
21 Moreover the Hebrews who were with the Philistines before that time, who went up with them into the camp from the surrounding country, they also joined the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan.
22 Likewise all the men of Israel who [a]had hidden in the mountains of Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, they also followed hard after them in the battle.
23 [a]So the LORD saved Israel that day, and the battle shifted [b]to Beth Aven.

Saul's Rash Oath

24 And the men of Israel were distressed that day, for Saul had [a]placed the people under oath, saying, "Cursed is the man who eats any food until evening, before I have taken vengeance on my enemies." So none of the people tasted food.
25 [a]Now all the people of the land came to a forest; and there was [b]honey on the ground.
26 And when the people had come into the woods, there was the honey, dripping; but no one put his hand to his mouth, for the people feared the oath.
27 But Jonathan had not heard his father charge the people with the oath; therefore he stretched out the end of the rod that was in his hand and dipped it in a honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his [1]countenance brightened.
28 Then one of the people said, "Your father strictly charged the people with an oath, saying, 'Cursed is the man who eats food this day.' " And the people were faint.
29 But Jonathan said, "My father has troubled the land. Look now, how my countenance has brightened because I tasted a little of this honey.
30 "How much better if the people had eaten freely today of the spoil of their enemies which they found! For now would there not have been a much greater slaughter among the Philistines?"
31 Now they had [1]driven back the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon. So the people were very faint.

32 And the people rushed on the [1]spoil, and took sheep, oxen, and calves, and slaughtered them on the ground; and the people ate them [a]with the blood.
33 Then they told Saul, saying, "Look, the people are sinning against the LORD by eating with the blood!" So he said, "You have dealt treacherously; roll a large stone to me this day."
34 Then Saul said, "Disperse yourselves among the people, and say to them, 'Bring me here every man's ox and every man's sheep, slaughter them here, and eat; and do not sin against the LORD by eating with the blood.' " So every one of the people brought his ox with him that night, and slaughtered it there.
35 Then Saul [a]built an altar to the LORD. This was the first altar that he built to the LORD.
36 Now Saul said, "Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and plunder them until the morning light; and let us not leave a man of them." And they said, "Do whatever seems good to you." Then the priest said, "Let us draw near to God here."
37 So Saul [a]asked counsel of God, "Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will You deliver them into the hand of Israel?" But [b]He did not answer him that day.
38 And Saul said, [a]"Come over here, all you chiefs of the people, and know and see what this sin was today.
39 "For [a]as the LORD lives, who saves Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die." But not a man among all the people answered him.
40 Then he said to all Israel, "You be on one side, and my son Jonathan and I will be on the other side." And the people said to Saul, "Do what seems good to you."
41 Therefore Saul said to the LORD God of Israel, [a]"Give[1] a perfect lot." [b]So Saul and Jonathan were taken, but the people escaped.
42 And Saul said, "Cast lots between my son Jonathan and me." So Jonathan was taken.
43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, [a]"Tell me what you have done." And Jonathan told him, and said, [b]"I only tasted a little honey with the end of the rod that was in my hand. So now I must die!"
44 Saul answered, [a]"God do so and more also; [b]for you shall surely die, Jonathan."

45 But the people said to Saul, "Shall Jonathan die, who has accomplished this great deliverance in Israel? Certainly not! [a]As the LORD lives, not one hair of his head shall fall to the ground, for he has worked [b]with God this day." So the people rescued Jonathan, and he did not die.
46 Then Saul returned from pursuing the Philistines, and the Philistines went to their own place.

Saul's Continuing Wars

47 So Saul established his sovereignty over Israel, and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, against the people of [a]Ammon, against Edom, against the kings of [b]Zobah, and against the Philistines. Wherever he turned, he [1]harassed them.
48 And he gathered an army and [a]attacked[1] the Amalekites, and delivered Israel from the hands of those who plundered them.
49 [a]The sons of Saul were Jonathan, [1]Jishui, and Malchishua. And the names of his two daughters were these: the name of the firstborn Merab, and the name of the younger [b]Michal.
50 The name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz. And the name of the commander of his army was Abner the son of Ner, Saul's [a]uncle.
51 [a]Kish was the father of Saul, and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.
52 Now there was fierce war with the Philistines all the days of Saul. And when Saul saw any strong man or any valiant man, [a]he took him for himself.

Saul Spares King Agag

15 Samuel also said to Saul, [a]"The LORD sent me to anoint you king over His people, over Israel. Now therefore, heed the voice of the words of the LORD.
2 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'I will punish Amalek for what he did to Israel, [a]how he ambushed him on the way when he came up from Egypt.
3 'Now go and [a]attack[1] Amalek, and [b]utterly destroy all that they have, and do not spare them. But kill both man and woman, infant and nursing child, ox and sheep, camel and donkey.' "
4 So Saul gathered the people together and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand foot soldiers and ten thousand men of Judah.

14:33 The Israelites were not permitted to eat meat with blood in it (Gen. 9:4; Lev. 17:11; Deut. 12:16).

14:50 "Ahinoam" means "My Brother Is Pleasant," and is the only wife of Saul mentioned.

15:3 "Utterly destroy" literally means "to put under a ban." This was a severe judgment of God upon the sins of the Amalekites. It also served as a deterrent to anyone considering their sinful practices.

5 And Saul came to a city of Amalek, and lay in wait in the valley.
6 Then Saul said to [a]the Kenites, [b]"Go, depart, get down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them. For [c]you showed kindness to all the children of Israel when they came up out of Egypt." So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.
7 [a]And Saul attacked the Amalekites, from [b]Havilah all the way to [c]Shur, which is east of Egypt.
8 [a]He also took Agag king of the Amalekites alive, and [b]utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.
9 But Saul and the people [a]spared Agag and the best of the sheep, the oxen, the fatlings, the lambs, and all that was good, and were unwilling to utterly destroy them. But everything despised and worthless, that they utterly destroyed.

Saul Rejected as King

10 Now the word of the LORD came to Samuel, saying,
11 [a]"I greatly regret that I have set up Saul as king, for he has [b]turned back from following Me, [c]and has not performed My commandments." And it [d]grieved Samuel, and he cried out to the LORD all night.
12 So when Samuel rose early in the morning to meet Saul, it was told Samuel, saying, "Saul went to [a]Carmel, and indeed, he set up a monument for himself; and he has gone on around, passed by, and gone down to Gilgal."
13 Then Samuel went to Saul, and Saul said to him, [a]"Blessed are you of the LORD! I have performed the commandment of the LORD."
14 But Samuel said, "What then is this bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?"
15 And Saul said, "They have brought them from the Amalekites; [a]for the people spared the best of the sheep and the oxen, to sacrifice to the LORD your God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed."
16 Then Samuel said to Saul, "Be quiet! And I will tell you what the LORD said to me last night." And he said to him, "Speak on."
17 So Samuel said, [a]"When you were little in your own eyes, were you not head of the tribes of Israel? And did not the LORD anoint you king over Israel?
18 "Now the LORD sent you on a mission, and said, 'Go, and utterly destroy the sinners, the Amalekites, and fight against them until they are [1]consumed.'
19 "Why then did you not obey the voice of the LORD? Why did you swoop down on the [1]spoil, and do evil in the sight of the LORD?"
20 And Saul said to Samuel, [a]"But I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, and gone on the mission on which the LORD sent me, and brought back Agag king of Amalek; I have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.
21 [a]"But the people took of the plunder, sheep and oxen, the best of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice to the LORD your God in Gilgal."
22 So Samuel said:

[a]"Has the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices,
As in obeying the voice of the LORD?
Behold, [b]to obey is better than sacrifice,
And to heed than the fat of rams.

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Sam. 15:22

Total Obedience

Spiritually, there is no such thing as partial commitment. We either obey God or we rebel against Him. Sincerity, hard work, good deeds, even sacrifice cannot substitute for obedience.

23 For rebellion is as the sin of
[1]witchcraft,
And stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry.
Because you have rejected the word of the LORD,
[a]He also has rejected you from being king."

24 [a]Then Saul said to Samuel, "I have sinned, for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD and your words, because I [b]feared the people and obeyed their voice.
25 "Now therefore, please pardon my sin, and return with me, that I may worship the LORD."
26 But Samuel said to Saul, "I will not return with you, [a]for you have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel."
27 And as Samuel turned around to go away, [a]Saul seized the edge of his robe, and it tore.
28 So Samuel said to him, [a]"The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you

29 "And also the Strength of Israel [a]will not lie nor relent. For He is not a man, that He should relent."
30 Then he said, "I have sinned; yet [a]honor me now, please, before the elders of my people and before Israel, and return with me, that I may worship the LORD your God."
31 So Samuel turned back after Saul, and Saul worshiped the LORD.
32 Then Samuel said, "Bring Agag king of the Amalekites here to me." So Agag came to him cautiously. And Agag said, "Surely the bitterness of death is past."
33 But Samuel said, [a]"As your sword has made women childless, so shall your mother be childless among women." And Samuel hacked Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal.
34 Then Samuel went to [a]Ramah, and Saul went up to his house at [b]Gibeah of Saul.
35 And [a]Samuel went no more to see Saul until the day of his death. Nevertheless Samuel mourned for Saul, and the LORD regretted that He had made Saul king over Israel.

David Anointed King

16 Now the LORD said to Samuel, [a]"How long will you mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? [b]Fill your horn with oil, and go; I am sending you to [c]Jesse the Bethlehemite. For [d]I have [1]provided Myself a king among his sons."
2 And Samuel said, "How can I go? If Saul hears it, he will kill me." But the LORD said, "Take a heifer with you, and say, [a]'I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.'
3 "Then invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do; you shall anoint for Me the one I name to you."
4 So Samuel did what the LORD said, and went to Bethlehem. And the elders of the town [a]trembled at his coming, and said, [b]"Do you come peaceably?"
5 And he said, "Peaceably; I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. [a]Sanctify[1] yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice." Then he consecrated Jesse and his sons, and invited them to the sacrifice.

6 So it was, when they came, that he looked at [a]Eliab and [b]said, "Surely the LORD's anointed is before Him!"
7 But the LORD said to Samuel, [a]"Do not look at his appearance or at his physical stature, because I have [1]refused him. [b]For[2] the LORD does not see as man sees; for man [c]looks at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the [d]heart."

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Sam. 16:7

What Really Matters

People are impressed and even deceived, by appearance, skill, and charisma, but the primary quality God looks for is a heart that is tender and obedient toward Him.

8 So Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one."
9 Then Jesse made Shammah pass by. And he said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one."
10 Thus Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel. And Samuel said to Jesse, "The LORD has not chosen these."
11 And Samuel said to Jesse, "Are all the young men here?" Then he said, "There remains yet the youngest, and there he is, keeping the [a]sheep." And Samuel said to Jesse, "Send and bring him. For we will not [1]sit down till he comes here."
12 So he sent and brought him in. Now he was [a]ruddy, [b]with [1]bright eyes, and good-looking. [c]And the LORD said, "Arise, anoint him; for this is the one!"
13 Then Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers; and [a]the Spirit of the LORD came upon David from that day forward. So Samuel arose and went to Ramah.

A Distressing Spirit Troubles Saul

14 [a]But the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and [b]a distressing spirit from the LORD troubled him.
15 And Saul's servants said to him, "Surely, a distressing spirit from God is troubling you.
16 "Let our master now command your

15:33 The word used for putting Agag to death, translated "hacked to pieces," is unique. It was not uncommon to dismember high-ranking enemy officials.

16:1 Jesse the Bethlehemite was the son (or descendent) of Obed, the son of Ruth and Boaz (Ruth 4:21, 22).

16:6 The name of Eliab, eldest son of Jesse, means "My God Is Father." He is also known as Elihu (1 Chr. 27:18).

16:8 The name of Abinadab, second son of Jesse, means "My Father Is Noble."

16:9 The name of Shammah, third son of Jesse, means "He Hears." He is also known as Shimea (1 Chr. 2:13).

16:12 "Ruddy" refers to David's complexion, suggesting he had rosy or red cheeks.

servants, who are before you, to seek out a man who is a skillful player on the harp. And it shall be that he will [a]play it with his hand when the [1]distressing spirit from God is upon you, and you shall be well."
17 So Saul said to his servants, [1]"Provide me now a man who can play well, and bring him to me."
18 Then one of the servants answered and said, "Look, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, who is skillful in playing, a mighty man of valor, a man of war, prudent in speech, and a handsome person; and [a]the LORD is with him."
19 Therefore Saul sent messengers to Jesse, and said, "Send me your son David, who is with the sheep."
20 And Jesse [a]took a donkey loaded with bread, a skin of wine, and a young goat, and sent them by his son David to Saul.
21 So David came to Saul and [a]stood before him. And he loved him greatly, and he became his armorbearer.
22 Then Saul sent to Jesse, saying, "Please let David stand before me, for he has found favor in my sight."
23 And so it was, whenever the spirit from God was upon Saul, that David would take a harp and play it with his hand. Then Saul would become refreshed and well, and the distressing spirit would depart from him.

David and Goliath

17 Now the Philistines gathered their armies together to battle, and were gathered at [a]Sochoh, which belongs to Judah; they encamped between Sochoh and Azekah, in Ephes Dammim.
2 And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and they encamped in the Valley of Elah, and drew up in battle array against the Philistines.
3 The Philistines stood on a mountain on one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side, with a valley between them.
4 And a champion went out from the camp of the Philistines, named [a]Goliath, from [b]Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span.
5 He had a bronze helmet on his head, and he was [1]armed with a coat of mail, and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of bronze.
6 And he had bronze armor on his legs and a bronze javelin between his shoulders.
7 Now the staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam, and his iron spearhead weighed six hundred shekels; and a shield-bearer went before him.
8 Then he stood and cried out to the armies of Israel, and said to them, "Why have you come out to line up for battle? Am I not a Philistine, and you the [a]servants of Saul? Choose a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me.
9 "If he is able to fight with me and kill me, then we will be your servants. But if I prevail against him and kill him, then you shall be our servants and [a]serve us."
10 And the Philistine said, "I [a]defy the armies of Israel this day; give me a man, that we may fight together."
11 When Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine, they were dismayed and greatly afraid.
12 Now David was [a]the son of that [b]Ephrathite of Bethlehem Judah, whose name was Jesse, and who had [c]eight sons. And the man was old, advanced in years, in the days of Saul.
13 The three oldest sons of Jesse had gone to follow Saul to the battle. The [a]names of his three sons who went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, next to him Abinadab, and the third Shammah.
14 David was the youngest. And the three oldest followed Saul.
15 But David occasionally went and returned from Saul [a]to feed his father's sheep at Bethlehem.
16 And the Philistine drew near and presented himself forty days, morning and evening.
17 Then Jesse said to his son David, "Take now for your brothers an ephah of this dried grain and these ten loaves, and run to your brothers at the camp.
18 "And carry these ten cheeses to the captain of their thousand, and [a]see how your brothers fare, and bring back news of them."
19 Now Saul and they and all the men of Israel were in the Valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.
20 So David rose early in the morning, left the sheep with a keeper, and took the things and went as Jesse had commanded him. And he came to the camp as the army was going out to the fight and shouting for the battle.

17:4 Goliath stood nine feet nine inches tall. He was a champion, or a "go between." He proposed a fight to the death in representative combat with a warrior from the opposing army. This one-on-one fight was to be a substitute for two full armies engaging in battle and was not regularly practiced among Semitic people. This passage gives the longest description of military apparel in the Bible and emphasizes that God is not impressed with outward appearances (1 Sam. 16:7).

17:5 Five thousand shekels is about 125 pounds.

17:7 Six hundred shekels is about fifteen pounds.

17:17 An ephah was a measurement of about five gallons.

21 For Israel and the Philistines had drawn up in battle array, army against army.
22 And David left his supplies in the hand of the supply keeper, ran to the army, and came and greeted his brothers.
23 Then as he talked with them, there was the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, coming up from the armies of the Philistines; and he spoke [a]according to the same words. So David heard them.
24 And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him and were dreadfully afraid.
25 So the men of Israel said, "Have you seen this man who has come up? Surely he has come up to defy Israel; and it shall be that the man who kills him the king will enrich with great riches, [a]will give him his daughter, and give his father's house exemption from taxes in Israel."
26 Then David spoke to the men who stood by him, saying, "What shall be done for the man who kills this Philistine and takes away [a]the reproach from Israel? For who is this [b]uncircumcised Philistine, that he should [c]defy the armies of [d]the living God?"
27 And the people answered him in this manner, saying, [a]"So shall it be done for the man who kills him."
28 Now Eliab his oldest brother heard when he spoke to the men; and Eliab's [a]anger was aroused against David, and he said, "Why did you come down here? And with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your pride and the insolence of your heart, for you have come down to see the battle."
29 And David said, "What have I done now? [a]Is[1] there not a cause?"
30 Then he turned from him toward another and [a]said the same thing; and these people answered him as the first ones did.
31 Now when the words which David spoke were heard, they reported them to Saul; and he sent for him.
32 Then David said to Saul, [a]"Let no man's heart fail because of him; [b]your servant will go and fight with this Philistine."
33 And Saul said to David, [a]"You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for you are a youth, and he a man of war from his youth."
34 But David said to Saul, "Your servant used to keep his father's sheep, and when a [a]lion or a bear came and took a lamb out of the flock,
35 "I went out after it and struck it, and delivered the lamb from its mouth; and when it arose against me, I caught it by its beard, and struck and killed it.
36 "Your servant has killed both lion and bear; and this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, seeing he has defied the armies of the living God."
37 Moreover David said, [a]"The LORD, who delivered me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, He will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine." And Saul said to David, [b]"Go, and the LORD be with you!"
38 So Saul clothed David with his [1]armor, and he put a bronze helmet on his head; he also clothed him with a coat of mail.
39 David fastened his sword to his armor and tried to walk, for he had not tested them. And David said to Saul, "I cannot walk with these, for I have not tested them." So David took them off.
40 Then he took his staff in his hand; and he chose for himself five smooth stones from the brook, and put them in a shepherd's bag, in a pouch which he had, and his sling was in his hand. And he drew near to the Philistine.
41 So the Philistine came, and began drawing near to David, and the man who bore the shield went before him.
42 And when the Philistine looked about and saw David, he [a]disdained[1] him; for he was only a youth, [b]ruddy and good-looking.
43 So the Philistine [a]said to David, "Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?" And the Philistine cursed David by his gods.
44 And the Philistine [a]said to David, "Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the air and the beasts of the field!"
45 Then David said to the Philistine, "You come to me with a sword, with a spear, and with a javelin. [a]But I come to you in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have [b]defied.
46 "This day the LORD will deliver you into my hand, and I will strike you and take your head from you. And this day I will give [a]the carcasses of the camp of the Philistines to the birds of the air and the wild beasts of the earth, [b]that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Sam. 17:45

Courage

Our strength is not found in self confidence, but in our trust in God. Terrifying circumstances are real, but so is the presence of the living God. His power and authority gives us courage.

47 "Then all this assembly shall know that the LORD [a]does not save with sword and spear; for [b]the battle is the LORD's, and He will give you into our hands."
48 So it was, when the Philistine arose and came and drew near to meet David, that David hurried and [a]ran toward the army to meet the Philistine.
49 Then David put his hand in his bag and took out a stone; and he slung it and struck the Philistine in his forehead, so that the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the earth.
50 So David prevailed over the Philistine with a [a]sling and a stone, and struck the Philistine and killed him. But there was no sword in the hand of David.
51 Therefore David ran and stood over the Philistine, took his [a]sword and drew it out of its sheath and killed him, and cut off his head with it. And when the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, [b]they fled.
52 Now the men of Israel and Judah arose and shouted, and pursued the Philistines as far as the entrance of [1]the valley and to the gates of Ekron. And the wounded of the Philistines fell along the road to [a]Shaaraim, even as far as Gath and Ekron.
53 Then the children of Israel returned from chasing the Philistines, and they plundered their tents.
54 And David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem, but he put his armor in his tent.
55 When Saul saw David going out against the Philistine, he said to [a]Abner, the commander of the army, "Abner, [b]whose son is this youth?" And Abner said, "As your soul lives, O king, I do not know."
56 So the king said, "Inquire whose son this young man is."
57 Then, as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul [a]with the head of the Philistine in his hand.
58 And Saul said to him, "Whose son are you, young man?" So David answered, [a]"I am the son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite."

Saul Resents David

18 Now when he had finished speaking to Saul, [a]the [1]soul of Jonathan was knit to the soul of David, [b]and Jonathan loved him as his own soul.
2 Saul took him that day, [a]and would not let him go home to his father's house anymore.
3 Then Jonathan and David made a [a]covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.
4 And Jonathan took off the robe that was on him and gave it to David, with his armor, even to his sword and his bow and his belt.
5 So David went out wherever Saul sent him, and [1]behaved wisely. And Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people and also in the sight of Saul's servants.
6 Now it had happened as they were coming home, when David was returning from the slaughter of the [1]Philistine, that [a]the women had come out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet King Saul, with tambourines, with joy, and with musical instruments.
7 So the women [a]sang as they danced, and said:

[b]"Saul has slain his thousands,
And David his ten thousands."

8 Then Saul was very angry, and the saying [a]displeased him; and he said, "They have ascribed to David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed only thousands. Now what more can he have but [b]the kingdom?"
9 So Saul [1]eyed David from that day forward.
10 And it happened on the next day that [a]the distressing spirit from God came upon Saul, [b]and he prophesied inside the house. So David [c]played music with his hand, as at other times; [d]but there was a spear in Saul's hand.
11 And Saul [a]cast the spear, for he said, "I will pin David to the wall!" But David escaped his presence twice.
12 Now Saul was [a]afraid of David, because [b]the LORD was with him, but had [c]departed from Saul.
13 Therefore Saul removed him from [1]his presence, and made him his captain over a thousand; and [a]he went out and came in before the people.

17:49 A master "slinger" could hurl a rock at speeds of one hundred miles an hour with amazing accuracy. Such marksmen were often an important part of an army (Judg. 20:16).

18:4 When Jonathan gave his robe, sword, bow, and belt to David, it not only sealed their covenant, but it also signified that David would assume the throne that would have been Jonathan's.

14 And David behaved wisely in all his ways, and [a]the LORD was with him.

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Sam. 18:14

Wisdom of Patience

Patience is a sign of wisdom. God gives clear directions then He achieves His purposes in His way and in His time. We would be foolish to let impatience rob us of God's plans for us.

15 Therefore, when Saul saw that he behaved very wisely, he was afraid of him.
16 But [a]all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out and came in before them.

David Marries Michal

17 Then Saul said to David, "Here is my older daughter Merab; [a]I will give her to you as a wife. Only be valiant for me, and fight [b]the LORD's battles." For Saul thought, [c]"Let my hand not be against him, but let the hand of the Philistines be against him."
18 So David said to Saul, [a]"Who am I, and what is my life or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?"
19 But it happened at the time when Merab, Saul's daughter, should have been given to David, that she was given to [a]Adriel the [b]Meholathite as a wife.
20 [a]Now Michal, Saul's daughter, loved David. And they told Saul, and the thing pleased him.
21 So Saul said, "I will give her to him, that she may [1]be a snare to him, and that [a]the hand of the Philistines may be against him." Therefore Saul said to David a second time, [b]"You shall be my son-in-law today."
22 And Saul commanded his servants, "Communicate with David secretly, and say, 'Look, the king has delight in you, and all his servants love you. Now therefore, become the king's son-in-law.' "
23 So Saul's servants spoke those words in the hearing of David. And David said, "Does it seem to you a light thing to be a king's son-in-law, seeing I am a poor and lightly esteemed man?"
24 And the servants of Saul told him, saying, [1]"In this manner David spoke."
25 Then Saul said, "Thus you shall say to David: 'The king does not desire any [a]dowry but one hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to take [b]vengeance on the king's enemies.' " But Saul [c]thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.
26 So when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to become the king's son-in-law. Now [a]the days had not expired;
27 therefore David arose and went, he and [a]his men, and killed two hundred men of the Philistines. And [b]David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full count to the king, that he might become the king's son-in-law. Then Saul gave him Michal his daughter as a wife.
28 Thus Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and that Michal, Saul's daughter, loved him;
29 and Saul was still more afraid of David. So Saul became David's enemy [1]continually.
30 Then the princes of the Philistines [a]went out to war. And so it was, whenever they went out, that David [b]behaved more wisely than all the servants of Saul, so that his name became highly esteemed.

Saul Persecutes David

19 Now Saul spoke to Jonathan his son and to all his servants, that they should kill [a]David; but Jonathan, Saul's son, [b]delighted greatly in David.
2 So Jonathan told David, saying, "My father Saul seeks to kill you. Therefore please be on your guard until morning, and stay in a secret place and hide.
3 "And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will speak with my father about you. Then what I observe, I will tell [a]you."
4 Thus Jonathan [a]spoke well of David to Saul his father, and said to him, "Let not the king [b]sin against his servant, against David, because he has not sinned against you, and because his works have been very good toward you.
5 "For he took his [a]life in his hands and [b]killed the Philistine, and [c]the LORD brought about a great deliverance for all Israel. You saw it and rejoiced. [d]Why then will you [e]sin against innocent blood, to kill David without a cause?"
6 So Saul heeded the voice of Jonathan, and Saul swore, "As the LORD lives, he shall not be killed."
7 Then Jonathan called David, and Jonathan told him all these things. So Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence [a]as in times past.
8 And there was war again; and David went out and fought with the Philistines,

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Sam. 19:9

Opposite Spirits

Discord in the heart always leads to despair in the soul, but God brings peace to the pure in heart.

10 Then Saul sought to pin David to the wall with the spear, but he slipped away from Saul's presence; and he drove the spear into the wall. So David fled and escaped that night.
11 [a]Saul also sent messengers to David's house to watch him and to kill him in the morning. And Michal, David's wife, told him, saying, "If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be killed."
12 So Michal [a]let David down through a window. And he went and fled and escaped.
13 And Michal took [1]an image and laid it in the bed, put a cover of goats' hair for his head, and covered it with clothes.
14 So when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, "He is sick."
15 Then Saul sent the messengers back to see David, saying, "Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may kill him."
16 And when the messengers had come in, there was the image in the bed, with a cover of goats' hair for his head.
17 Then Saul said to Michal, "Why have you deceived me like this, and sent my enemy away, so that he has escaped?" And Michal answered Saul, "He said to me, 'Let me go! [a]Why should I kill you?' "
18 So David fled and escaped, and went to [a]Samuel at [b]Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and stayed in Naioth.
19 Now it was told Saul, saying, "Take note, David is at Naioth in Ramah!"
20 Then [a]Saul sent messengers to take David. [b]And when they saw the group of prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as leader over them, the Spirit of God came upon the messengers of Saul, and they also [c]prophesied.

21 And when Saul was told, he sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise. Then Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they prophesied also.
22 Then he also went to Ramah, and came to the great well that is at Sechu. So he asked, and said, "Where are Samuel and David?" And someone said, "Indeed they are at Naioth in Ramah."
23 So he went there to Naioth in Ramah. Then [a]the Spirit of God was upon him also, and he went on and prophesied until he came to Naioth in Ramah.
24 [a]And he also stripped off his clothes and prophesied before Samuel in like manner, and lay down [b]naked all that day and all that night. Therefore they say, [c]"Is Saul also among the prophets?"

Jonathan's Loyalty to David

20 Then David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and went and said to Jonathan, "What have I done? What is my iniquity, and what is my sin before your father, that he seeks my life?"
2 So Jonathan said to him, "By no means! You shall not die! Indeed, my father will do nothing either great or small without first telling me. And why should my father hide this thing from me? It is not so!"
3 Then David took an oath again, and said, "Your father certainly knows that I have found favor in your eyes, and he has said, 'Do not let Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved.' But [a]truly, as the LORD lives and as your soul lives, there is but a step between me and death."
4 So Jonathan said to David, "Whatever you yourself desire, I will do it for you."
5 And David said to Jonathan, "Indeed tomorrow is the [a]New Moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king to eat. But let me go, that I may [b]hide in the field until the third day at evening.
6 "If your father misses me at all, then say, 'David earnestly asked permission of me that he might run over [a]to Bethlehem, his city, for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.'
7 [a]"If he says thus: 'It is well,' your servant will be safe. But if he is very angry, be sure that [b]evil is determined by him.

19:13 An "image" refers to a household idol known as a teraphim.

you. Nevertheless, [c]if there is iniquity in me, kill me yourself, for why should you bring me to your father?"
9 But Jonathan said, "Far be it from you! For if I knew certainly that evil was determined by my father to come upon you, then would I not tell you?"
10 Then David said to Jonathan, "Who will tell me, or what if your father answers you roughly?"
11 And Jonathan said to David, "Come, let us go out into the field." So both of them went out into the field.
12 Then Jonathan said to David: "The LORD God of Israel is witness! When I have [1]sounded out my father sometime tomorrow, or the third day, and indeed there is good toward David, and I do not send to you and tell you, 13 "may [a]the LORD do so and much more to Jonathan. But if it pleases my father to do you evil, then I will report it to you and send you away, that you may go in safety. And [b]the LORD be with you as He has [c]been with my father.

16 So Jonathan made a covenant with the [1]house of David, saying, [a]"Let the LORD require it at the hand of David's enemies."

24 Then David hid in the field. And when the New Moon had come, the king sat down to eat the feast.
25 Now the king sat on his seat, as at other times, on a seat by the wall. And [1]Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by Saul's side, but David's place was empty.
26 Nevertheless Saul did not say anything that day, for he thought, "Something has happened to him; he is unclean, surely he is [a]unclean."
27 And it happened the next day, the second day of the month, that David's place was empty. And Saul said to Jonathan his son, "Why has the son of Jesse not come to eat, either yesterday or today?"

CHARACTER Study — JONATHAN — 1 Sam. 20:4

Jonathan's name means "The Lord Gave" or "The Gift of God." He was the eldest son of King Saul and was the rightful heir to the throne. Yet his life reveals a higher moral quality and a deeper spiritual insight than his father possessed. He did not claim his rights as Saul's son but chose to do the right thing, whether in defense of his nation or in loyalty to a friend. He is regarded as a fearless warrior (1 Sam. 14), but remembered first and foremost as a devoted friend to David (20:4). Jonathan's unselfish behavior displays a character that excluded envy or selfish ambition. Jonathan endangered his own life to protect a friend in whom he recognized God's presence. David returned his kindness and promised to care for his family after Jonathan died. Mephibosheth, Jonathan's only son, was permanently crippled at age five when a nurse dropped him during the battle on Mount Gilboa. The same battle took the lives of the rest of his family. David later brought Mephibosheth to Jerusalem, granted him his grandfather's royal estates, and welcomed him as part of his family.

20:26 There were many ways to become ceremonially unclean, including contact with bodily discharges such as semen or blood, and touching the dead. There would be a waiting period necessary as a part of purification (Lev. 11–13).

your eyes, please let me get away and see my brothers.' Therefore he has not come to the king's table."
30 Then Saul's anger was aroused against Jonathan, and he said to him, "You son of a perverse, rebellious woman! Do I not know that you have chosen the son of Jesse to your own shame and to the shame of your mother's nakedness?
31 "For as long as the son of Jesse lives on the earth, you shall not be established, nor your kingdom. Now therefore, send and bring him to me, for he [1]shall surely die."
32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said to him, [a]"Why should he be killed? What has he done?"

Rightful Place

Never seek status God has not given you. Any assignment from God is a gift, so humbly serve where He places you. Resist the urge to maneuver your way into a position that is not meant to be yours. Manipulation is an invitation to disaster.

33 Then Saul [a]cast a spear at him to [1]kill him, [b]by which Jonathan knew that it was determined by his father to kill David.
34 So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and ate no food the second day of the month, for he was grieved for David, because his father had treated him shamefully.
35 And so it was, in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David, and a little lad was with him.
36 Then he said to his lad, "Now run, find the arrows which I shoot." As the lad ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.
37 When the lad had come to the place where the arrow was which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried out after the lad and said, "Is not the arrow beyond you?"
38 And Jonathan cried out after the lad, "Make haste, hurry, do not delay!" So Jonathan's lad gathered up the arrows and came back to his master.
39 But the lad did not know anything. Only Jonathan and David knew of the matter.

40 Then Jonathan gave his [1]weapons to his lad, and said to him, "Go, carry them to the city."
41 As soon as the lad had gone, David arose from a place toward the south, fell on his face to the ground, and bowed down three times. And they kissed one another; and they wept together, but David more so.
42 Then Jonathan said to David, [a]"Go in peace, since we have both sworn in the name of the LORD, saying, 'May the LORD be between you and me, and between your descendants and my descendants, forever.' " So he arose and departed, and Jonathan went into the city.

David and the Holy Bread

21 Now David came to Nob, to Ahimelech the priest. And [a]Ahimelech was [b]afraid when he met David, and said to him, "Why are you alone, and no one is with you?"
2 So David said to Ahimelech the priest, "The king has ordered me on some business, and said to me, 'Do not let anyone know anything about the business on which I send you, or what I have commanded you.' And I have directed my young men to such and such a place.
3 "Now therefore, what have you on hand? Give me five loaves of bread in my hand, or whatever can be found."
4 And the priest answered David and said, "There is no [1]common bread on hand; but there is [a]holy[2] bread, [b]if the young men have at least kept themselves from women."
5 Then David answered the priest, and said to him, "Truly, women have been kept from us about three days since I came out. And [1]the [a]vessels of the young men are holy, and the bread is in effect common, even though it was consecrated [b]in the vessel this day."
6 So the priest [a]gave him holy bread; for there was no bread there but the showbread [b]which had been taken from before the LORD, in order to put hot bread in its place on the day when it was taken away.
7 Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD. And his name was [a]Doeg, an Edomite, the chief of the herdsmen who belonged to Saul.
8 And David said to Ahimelech, "Is there not here on hand a spear or a sword? For I have brought neither my

Unforeseen Blessings

Acts of integrity which seem only for the moment often bring future rewards. God blesses us by working our past obedience into His unfolding plans.

David Flees to Gath

10 Then David arose and fled that day from before Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath.
11 And [a]the servants of Achish said to him, "Is this not David the king of the land? Did they not sing of him to one another in dances, saying:

[b]'Saul has slain his thousands,
And David his ten thousands'?"

12 Now David [a]took these words [1]to heart, and was very much afraid of Achish the king of Gath.
13 So [a]he changed his behavior before them, pretended [1]madness in their hands, [2]scratched on the doors of the gate, and let his saliva fall down on his beard.
14 Then Achish said to his servants, "Look, you see the man is insane. Why have you brought him to me?
15 "Have I need of madmen, that you have brought this fellow to play the madman in my presence? Shall this fellow come into my house?"

David's Four Hundred Men

22 David therefore departed from there and [a]escaped [b]to the cave of Adullam. So when his brothers and all his father's house heard it, they went down there to him.
2 [a]And everyone who was in distress, everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was [1]discontented gathered to him. So he became captain over them. And there were about [b]four hundred men with him.
3 Then David went from there to Mizpah of [a]Moab; and he said to the king of Moab, "Please let my father and mother come here with you, till I know what God will do for me."

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Sam. 22:3

Till I Know

God reveals His will to those who walk with Him, though not always on our time table. Be patient and do not rush into a major decision until God's will is clearly revealed.

4 So he brought them before the king of Moab, and they dwelt with him all the time that David was in the stronghold.
5 Now the prophet [a]Gad said to David, "Do not stay in the stronghold; depart, and go to the land of Judah." So David departed and went into the forest of Hereth.

Saul Murders the Priests

6 When Saul heard that David and the men who were with him had been discovered—now Saul was staying in [a]Gibeah under a tamarisk tree in Ramah, with his spear in his hand, and all his servants standing about him—
7 then Saul said to his servants who stood about him, "Hear now, you Benjamites! Will the son of Jesse [a]give every one of you fields and vineyards, and make you all captains of thousands and captains of hundreds?
8 "All of you have conspired against me, and there is no one who reveals to me that [a]my son has made a covenant with the son of Jesse; and there is not one of you who is sorry for me or reveals to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as it is this day."
9 Then answered [a]Doeg the Edomite, who was set over the servants of Saul, and said, "I saw the son of Jesse going to Nob, to [b]Ahimelech the son of [c]Ahitub.
10 [a]"And he inquired of the LORD for him, [b]gave him provisions, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."
11 So the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests who were in Nob. And they all came to the king.
12 And Saul said, "Hear now, son of Ahitub!" He answered, "Here I am, my lord."
13 Then Saul said to him, "Why have

22:1 The cave of Adullam is where David wrote Psalm 142 and possibly Psalm 57.

22:3 "Mizpah" means "Watchtower" and was probably a fortress in Moab.

you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, in that you have given him bread and a sword, and have inquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as it is this day?"
14 So Ahimelech answered the king and said, "And who among all your servants is as [a]faithful as David, who is the king's son-in-law, who goes at your bidding, and is honorable in your house?
15 "Did I then begin to inquire of God for him? Far be it from me! Let not the king impute anything to his servant, or to any in the house of my father. For your servant knew nothing of all this, little or much."
16 And the king said, "You shall surely die, Ahimelech, you and all [a]your father's house!"
17 Then the king said to the guards who stood about him, "Turn and kill the priests of the LORD, because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled and did not tell it to me." But the servants of the king [a]would not lift their hands to strike the priests
of the LORD.
18 And the king said to Doeg, "You turn and kill the priests!" So Doeg the Edomite turned and [1]struck the priests, and [a]killed on that day eighty-five men who wore a linen ephod.
19 [a]Also Nob, the city of the priests, he struck with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and nursing infants, oxen and donkeys and sheep—with the edge of the sword.
20 [a]Now one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar,
[b]escaped and fled after David.
21 And Abiathar told David that Saul had killed the LORD's priests.
22 So David said to Abiathar, "I knew that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I have caused the death of all the persons of your father's [1]house.
23 "Stay with me; do not fear. [a]For he who seeks my life seeks your life, but with me you shall be safe."

David Saves the City of Keilah

23 Then they told David, saying,
"Look, the Philistines are fighting against [a]Keilah, and they are robbing the threshing floors."
2 Therefore David [a]inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go and [1]attack these Philistines?" And the LORD said to David, "Go and attack the Philistines, and save Keilah."
3 But David's men said to him, "Look, we are afraid here in Judah. How much more then if we go to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?"
4 Then David inquired of the LORD
once again. And the LORD answered him and said, "Arise, go down to Keilah.
For I will deliver the Philistines into your hand."
5 And David and his men went to Keilah and [a]fought with the Philistines, struck them with a mighty blow, and took away their livestock. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.
6 Now it happened, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech [a]fled to David at Keilah, that he went down with an ephod in his hand.
7 And Saul was told that David had gone to Keilah. So Saul said, "God has delivered him into my hand, for he has shut himself in by entering a town that has gates and bars."
8 Then Saul called all the people together for war, to go down to Keilah to besiege David and his men.
9 When David knew that Saul plotted evil against him, [a]he said to Abiathar the priest, "Bring the ephod here."
10 Then David said, "O LORD God of Israel, Your servant has certainly heard that Saul seeks to come to Keilah [a]to destroy the city for my sake.
11 "Will the men of Keilah deliver me into his hand? Will Saul come down, as Your servant has heard? O LORD God of Israel, I pray, tell Your servant." And the LORD said, "He will come down."
12 Then David said, "Will the men of Keilah [1]deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul?" And the LORD said,
"They will deliver you."
13 So David and his men, [a]about six hundred, arose and departed from Keilah and went wherever they could go. Then it was told Saul that David had escaped from Keilah; so he halted the expedition.

David in Wilderness Strongholds

14 And David stayed in strongholds in the wilderness, and remained in [a]the mountains in the Wilderness of [b]Ziph.
Saul [c]sought him every day, but God did not deliver him into his hand.
15 So David saw that Saul had come out to seek his life. And David was in the Wilderness of Ziph [1]in a forest.
16 Then Jonathan, Saul's son, arose and went to David in the woods and [1]strengthened his hand in God.

23:14 "Strongholds" probably refers to inaccessible geographical locations where it would be easy to hide.

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Sam. 23:16

Strengthened by God

Support from friends is good, but deep and lasting encouragement comes from God. Always point your friends to God, and He will strengthen them as only He can.

17 And he said to him, [a]"Do not fear, for the hand of Saul my father shall not find you. You shall be king over Israel, and I shall be next to you. [b]Even my father Saul knows that."
18 So the two of them [a]made a covenant before the LORD. And David stayed in the woods, and Jonathan went to his own house.
19 Then the Ziphites [a]came up to Saul at Gibeah, saying, "Is David not hiding with us in strongholds in the woods, in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the south of Jeshimon?
20 "Now therefore, O king, come down according to all the desire of your soul to come down; and [a]our part shall be to deliver him into the king's hand."
21 And Saul said, "Blessed are you of the LORD, for you have compassion on me.
22 "Please go and find out for sure, and see the place where his hideout is, and who has seen him there. For I am told he is very crafty.
23 "See therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking places where he hides; and come back to me with certainty, and I will go with you. And it shall be, if he is in the land, that I will search for him throughout all the [1]clans of Judah."
24 So they arose and went to Ziph before Saul. But David and his men were in the Wilderness [a]of Maon, in the plain on the south of Jeshimon.
25 When Saul and his men went to seek him, they told David. Therefore he went down [1]to the rock, and stayed in the Wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard that, he pursued David in the Wilderness of Maon.
26 Then Saul went on one side of the mountain, and David and his men on the other side of the mountain. [a]So David made haste to get away from Saul, for Saul and his men [b]were encircling David and his men to take them.
27 [a]But a messenger came to Saul, saying, "Hurry and come, for the Philistines have invaded the land!"
28 Therefore Saul returned from pursuing David, and went against the Philistines; so they called that place [1]the Rock of Escape.
29 Then David went up from there and dwelt in strongholds at [a]En Gedi.

David Spares Saul

CHAPTER 24

24 Now it happened, [a]when Saul had returned from following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, "Take note! David is in the Wilderness of En Gedi."
2 Then Saul took three thousand chosen men from all Israel, and [a]went to seek David and his men on the Rocks of the Wild Goats.
3 So he came to the sheepfolds by the road, where there was a cave; and [a]Saul went in to [b]attend to his needs. ([c]David and his men were staying in the recesses of the cave.)
4 [a]Then the men of David said to him, "This is the day of which the LORD said to you, 'Behold, I will deliver your enemy into your hand, that you may do to him as it seems good to you.' " And David arose and secretly cut off a corner of Saul's robe.
5 Now it happened afterward that [a]David's heart troubled him because he had cut Saul's robe.

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Sam. 24:5

Choose a Pure Heart

Vengeance is troubling to the heart, the fruit of a sinful nature. No matter what others do to you, choose to keep your heart pure and allow God to avenge you. He will act with complete justice.

6 And he said to his men, [a]"The LORD forbid that I should do this thing to my master, the LORD's anointed, to stretch out my hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of the LORD."
7 So David [a]restrained his servants with these words, and did not allow them to rise against Saul. And Saul got up from the cave and went on his way.
8 David also arose afterward, went out of the cave, and called out to Saul, saying, "My lord the king!" And when Saul 23:19–26 This incident in David's life is the background for Psalm 54.

23:29 "En Gedi" means "Spring of the Kid" and was an oasis east of Hebron near the Dead Sea. It was known for its fresh water and lush vineyards. in the midst of an otherwise barren landscape.

looked behind him, David stooped with his face to the earth, and bowed down.
9 And David said to Saul: [a]"Why do you listen to the words of men who say, 'Indeed David seeks your harm'?
10 "Look, this day your eyes have seen that the LORD delivered you today into my hand in the cave, and someone urged me to kill you. But my eye spared you, and I said, 'I will not stretch out my hand against my lord, for he is the LORD's anointed.'
11 "Moreover, my father, see! Yes, see the corner of your robe in my hand! For in that I cut off the corner of your robe, and did not kill you, know and see that there is [a]neither evil nor rebellion in my hand, and I have not sinned against you. Yet you [b]hunt my life to take it.
12 [a]"Let the LORD judge between you and me, and let the LORD avenge me on you. But my hand shall not be against you.
13 "As the proverb of the ancients says, [a]'Wickedness proceeds from the wicked.' But my hand shall not be against you.
14 "After whom has the king of Israel come out? Whom do you pursue? [a]A dead dog? [b]A flea?
15 [a]"Therefore let the LORD be judge, and judge between you and me, and [b]see and [c]plead my case, and deliver me out of your hand."
16 So it was, when David had finished speaking these words to Saul, that Saul said, [a]"Is this your voice, my son David?" And Saul lifted up his voice and wept.
17 [a]Then he said to David: "You are [b]more righteous than I; for [c]you have rewarded me with good, whereas I have rewarded you with evil.
18 "And you have shown this day how you have dealt well with me; for when [a]the LORD delivered me into your hand, you did not kill me.
19 "For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him get away safely? Therefore may the LORD reward you with good for what you have done to me this day.
20 "And now [a]I know indeed that you shall surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in your hand.

22 So David swore to Saul. And Saul went home, but David and his men went up to [a]the stronghold.

Death of Samuel

25 Then [a]Samuel died; and the Israelites gathered together and [b]lamented for him, and buried him at his home in Ramah. And David arose and went down [c]to the Wilderness of [1]Paran.

David and the Wife of Nabal

2 Now there was a man [a]in Maon whose business was in [b]Carmel, and the man was very rich. He had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats. And he was shearing his sheep in Carmel.
3 The name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife Abigail. And she was a woman of good understanding and beautiful appearance; but the man was harsh and evil in his doings. He was of the house of [a]Caleb.
4 When David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was [a]shearing his sheep,
5 David sent ten young men; and David said to the young men, "Go up to Carmel, go to Nabal, and greet him in my name.
6 "And thus you shall say to him who lives in prosperity: [a]'Peace be to you, peace to your house, and peace to all that you have!
7 'Now I have heard that you have shearers. Your shepherds were with us, and we did not hurt them, [a]nor was there anything missing from them all the while they were in Carmel.
8 'Ask your young men, and they will tell you. Therefore [1]let my young men find favor in your eyes, for we come on [a]a feast day. Please give whatever comes to your hand to your servants and to your son David.' "
9 So when David's young men came, they spoke to Nabal according to all these words in the name of David, and waited.
10 Then Nabal answered David's servants, and said, [a]"Who is David, and who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants nowadays who break away each one from his master.
11 [a]"Shall I then take my bread and my water and my [1]meat that I have killed for my shearers, and give it to men when I do not know where they are from?"

24:11 "My father" reflects that Saul was David's father-in-law.

24:13 "Wickedness proceeds from the wicked" was a proverb that exonerated David. If he had wicked intentions, he would have killed Saul.

25:3 "Abigail" means "My Father Rejoices." She was attractive, intelligent, and respectful, gaining David's favor. After Naboth's death, she became David's wife and bore him a son, Chileab (2 Sam. 3:3).

25:4 Sheep shearing was a festive event (2 Sam. 13:23, 24). People were usually more generous during these times.

12 So David's young men turned on their heels and went back; and they came and told him all these words.
13 Then David said to his men, "Every man gird on his sword." So every man girded on his sword, and David also girded on his sword. And about four hundred men went with David, and two hundred [a]stayed with the supplies.
14 Now one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, "Look, David sent messengers from the wilderness to greet our master; and he [1]reviled them.
15 "But the men were very good to us, and [a]we were not hurt, nor did we miss anything as long as we accompanied them, when we were in the fields.
16 "They were [a]a wall to us both by night and day, all the time we were with them keeping the sheep.
17 "Now therefore, know and consider what you will do, for [a]harm is determined against our master and against all his household. For he is such a [b]scoundrel[1] that one cannot speak to him."
18 Then Abigail made haste and [a]took two hundred loaves of bread, two skins of wine, five sheep already dressed, five seahs of roasted grain, one hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and loaded them on donkeys.
19 And she said to her servants, [a]"Go on before me; see, I am coming after you." But she did not tell her husband Nabal.
20 So it was, as she rode on the donkey, that she went down under cover of the hill; and there were David and his men, coming down toward her, and she met them.
21 Now David had said, "Surely in vain I have protected all that this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that belongs to him. And he has [a]repaid me evil for good.
22 [a]"May God do so, and more also, to the enemies of David, if I [b]leave [c]one male of all who belong to him by morning light."
23 Now when Abigail saw David, she [a]dismounted quickly from the donkey, fell on her face before David, and bowed down to the ground.
24 So she fell at his feet and said: "On me, my lord, on me let this iniquity be! And please let your maidservant [1]speak in your ears, and hear the words of your maidservant.
25 "Please, let not my lord [1]regard this scoundrel Nabal. For as his name is, so is he: [2]Nabal is his name, and folly is with him! But I, your maidservant, did not see the young men of my lord whom you sent.
26 "Now therefore, my lord, [a]as the LORD lives and as your soul lives, since the LORD has [b]held you back from coming to bloodshed and from [c]avenging[1] yourself with your own hand, now then, [d]let your enemies and those who seek harm for my lord be as Nabal.
27 "And now [a]this present which your maidservant has brought to my lord, let it be given to the young men who follow my lord.
28 "Please forgive the trespass of your maidservant. For [a]the LORD will certainly make for my lord an enduring house, because my lord [b]fights the battles of the LORD, [c]and evil is not found in you throughout your days.
29 "Yet a man has risen to pursue you and seek your life, but the life of my lord shall be [a]bound in the bundle of the living with the LORD your God; and the lives of your enemies He shall [b]sling out, as from the pocket of a sling.
30 "And it shall come to pass, when the LORD has done for my lord according to all the good that He has spoken concerning you, and has appointed you [a]ruler over Israel,
31 "that this will be no grief to you, nor offense of heart to my lord, either that you have shed blood without cause, or that my lord has avenged himself. But when the LORD has dealt well with my lord, then remember your maidservant."
32 Then David said to Abigail: [a]"Blessed is the LORD God of Israel, who sent you this day to meet me!
33 "And blessed is your advice and blessed are you, because you have [a]kept me this day from coming to bloodshed and from avenging myself with my own hand.

ENCOUNTER Note — 1 Sam. 25:33

A Teachable Spirit

God gives His wisdom through various means. Always remain teachable and open to God's voice, even when it comes through an unlikely source.

25:17 "Scoundrel" is literally "son of Belial" or "son of worthlessness." Servants would not normally talk this way to a man's wife unless she agreed completely.

25:25 "Nabal" is the Hebrew word for "fool."

25:29 "Bound in the bundle of the living" was a figure of speech referring to the wrapping of a valuable possession to protect it from harm. God would do this for David, for he was God's treasure.

34 "For indeed, as the LORD God of Israel lives, who has [a]kept me back from hurting you, unless you had hurried and come to meet me, surely [b]by morning light no males would have been left to Nabal!"
35 So David received from her hand what she had brought him, and said to her, [a]"Go up in peace to your house. See, I have heeded your voice and [b]respected your person."
36 Now Abigail went to Nabal, and there he was, [a]holding a feast in his house, like the feast of a king. And Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunk; therefore she told him nothing, little or much, until morning light.
37 So it was, in the morning, when the wine had gone from Nabal, and his wife had told him these things, that his heart died within him, and he became like a stone.
38 Then it happened, after about ten days, that the LORD [a]struck Nabal, and he died.
39 So when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, [a]"Blessed be the LORD, who has [b]pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and has [c]kept His servant from evil! For the LORD has [d]returned the wickedness of Nabal on his own head." And David sent and proposed to Abigail, to take her as his wife.
40 When the servants of David had come to Abigail at Carmel, they spoke to her saying, "David sent us to you, to ask you to become his wife."
41 Then she arose, bowed her face to the earth, and said, "Here is your maidservant, a servant to [a]wash the feet of the servants of my lord."
42 So Abigail rose in haste and rode on a donkey, [1]attended by five of her maidens; and she followed the messengers of David, and became his wife.
43 David also took Ahinoam [a]of Jezreel, [b]and so both of them were his wives.
44 But Saul had given [a]Michal his daughter, David's wife, to [1]Palti the son of Laish, who was from [b]Gallim.

David Spares Saul a Second Time

26 Now the Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah, saying, [a]"Is David not hiding in the hill of Hachilah, opposite Jeshimon?"
2 Then Saul arose and went down to the Wilderness of Ziph, having [a]three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the Wilderness of Ziph.
3 And Saul encamped in the hill of Hachilah, which is opposite Jeshimon, by the road. But David stayed in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness.
4 David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul had indeed come.
5 So David arose and came to the place where Saul had encamped. And David saw the place where Saul lay, and [a]Abner the son of Ner, the commander of his army. Now Saul lay within the camp, with the people encamped all around him.
6 Then David answered, and said to Ahimelech the Hittite and to Abishai [a]the son of Zeruiah, brother of [b]Joab, saying, "Who will [c]go down with me to Saul in the camp?" And [d]Abishai said, "I will go down with you."
7 So David and Abishai came to the people by night; and there Saul lay sleeping within the camp, with his spear stuck in the ground by his head. And Abner and the people lay all around him.
8 Then Abishai said to David, [a]"God has delivered your enemy into your hand this day. Now therefore, please, let me strike him [1]at once with the spear, right to the earth; and I will not have to strike him a second time!"
9 But David said to Abishai, "Do not destroy him; [a]for who can stretch out his hand against the LORD's anointed, and be guiltless?"
10 David said furthermore, "As the LORD lives, [a]the LORD shall strike him, or [b]his day shall come to die, or he shall [c]go out to battle and perish.

ENCOUNTER Note — 1 Sam. 26:10

Let God Be God

As God has the authority to elevate a person, so He has the ability to bring a person down. That, however, is His responsibility. God's children ought to grieve, never rejoice, over the downfall of a brother.

25:43 Ahinoam, whose name means "My Brother Is Delighted" or "Gracious," was David's first wife, the mother of Amnon (2 Sam. 3:2).

26:5 Abner the son of Ner was Saul's cousin and an outstanding commander in his army. He exerted tremendous influence during and after Saul's reign.

26:6 Ahimelech the Hittite was probably a mercenary soldier who joined David's army. Abishai was David's nephew (1 Chr. 2:15–16).

26:7 A spear was a symbol of Saul's authority.

11 [a]"The LORD forbid that I should stretch out my hand against the LORD's anointed. But please, take now the spear and the jug of water that are by his head, and let us go."
12 So David took the spear and the jug of water by Saul's head, and they got away; and no man saw or knew it or awoke. For they were all asleep, because [a]a deep sleep from the LORD had fallen on them.
13 Now David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of a hill afar off, a great distance being between them.
14 And David called out to the people and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, "Do you not answer, Abner?" Then Abner answered and said, "Who are you, calling out to the king?"
15 So David said to Abner, "Are you not a man? And who is like you in Israel? Why then have you not guarded your lord the king? For one of the people came in to destroy your lord the king.
16 "This thing that you have done is not good. As the LORD lives, you deserve to die, because you have not guarded your master, the LORD's anointed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the jug of water that was by his head."
17 Then Saul knew David's voice, and said, [a]"Is that your voice, my son David?" David said, "It is my voice, my lord, O king."
18 And he said, [a]"Why does my lord thus pursue his servant? For what have I done, or what evil is in my hand?
19 "Now therefore, please, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant: If the LORD has [a]stirred you up against me, let Him accept an offering. But if it is the children of men, may they be cursed before the LORD, [b]for they have driven me out this day from sharing in the [c]inheritance of the LORD, saying, 'Go, serve other gods.'
20 "So now, do not let my blood fall to the earth before the face of the LORD. For the king of Israel has come out to seek [a]a flea, as when one hunts a partridge in the mountains."
21 Then Saul said, [a]"I have sinned. Return, my son David. For I will harm you no more, because my life was precious in your eyes this day. Indeed I have played the fool and erred exceedingly."
22 And David answered and said, "Here is the king's spear. Let one of the young men come over and get it.
23 [a]"May the LORD [b]repay every man for his righteousness and his faithfulness; for the LORD delivered you into my hand today, but I would not stretch out my hand against the LORD's anointed.
24 "And indeed, as your life was valued much this day in my eyes, so let my life be valued much in the eyes of the LORD, and let Him deliver me out of all tribulation."
25 Then Saul said to David, "May you be blessed, my son David! You shall both do great things and also still [a]prevail." So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

David Allied with the Philistines

27 And David said in his heart, "Now I shall perish someday by the hand of Saul. There is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape to the land of the Philistines; and Saul will [1]despair of me, to seek me anymore in any part of Israel. So I shall escape out of his hand."
2 Then David arose [a]and went over with the six hundred men who were with him [b]to Achish the son of Maoch, king of Gath.
3 So David dwelt with Achish at Gath, he and his men, each man with his household, and David [a]with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, Nabal's widow.
4 And it was told Saul that David had fled to Gath; so he sought him no more.
5 Then David said to Achish, "If I have now found favor in your eyes, let them give me a place in some town in the country, that I may dwell there. For why should your servant dwell in the royal city with you?"
6 So Achish gave him Ziklag that day. Therefore [a]Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah to this day.
7 Now [1]the time that David [a]dwelt in the country of the Philistines was one full year and four months.
8 And David and his men went up and raided [a]the Geshurites, [b]the [1]Girzites, and the [c]Amalekites. For those nations were the inhabitants of the land from [2]of old, [d]as you go to Shur, even as far as the land of Egypt.
9 Whenever David [1]attacked the land, he left neither man nor woman alive, but 26:12 David took the spear and the jug of water to prove again his innocence, and to demonstrate Abner's inability to protect Saul.

26:20 David refers to seeking a flea as a way of pointing out how foolish Saul has become, wasting tremendous national resources and precious time to track down and kill a person who offered no threat.

26:25 This was the last meeting between Saul and David.

27:6 Ziklag became David's center of operations until after Saul's death when David relocated to Hebron.

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Sam. 27:7

Obedient in Awkward Times

God's plan does not always unfold as we think it should. When friends become enemies and enemies become friends, stay true to the Lord. His purposes will be fulfilled. Do not lose heart; He knows what He is doing.

took away the sheep, the oxen, the donkeys, the camels, and the apparel, and returned and came to Achish.
10 Then Achish would say, "Where have you made a raid today?" And David would say, "Against the southern area of Judah, or against the southern area of [a]the Jerahmeelites, or against the southern area of [b]the Kenites."
11 David would save neither man nor woman alive, to bring news to Gath, saying, "Lest they should inform on us, saying, 'Thus David did.' " And thus was his behavior all the time he dwelt in the country of the Philistines.
12 So Achish believed David, saying, "He has made his people Israel utterly abhor him; therefore he will be my servant forever."

28 Now [a]it happened in those days that the Philistines gathered their armies together for war, to fight with Israel. And Achish said to David, "You assuredly know that you will go out with me to battle, you and your men."
2 So David said to Achish, "Surely you know what your servant can do." And Achish said to David, "Therefore I will make you one of my chief guardians forever."

Saul Consults a Medium

3 Now [a]Samuel had died, and all Israel had lamented for him and buried him in [b]Ramah, in his own city. And Saul had put [c]the mediums and the spiritists out of the land.
4 Then the Philistines gathered together, and came and encamped at [a]Shunem. So Saul gathered all Israel together, and they encamped at [b]Gilboa.
5 When Saul saw the army of the Philistines, he was [a]afraid, and his heart trembled greatly.

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Sam. 28:6

He Rules, We Serve

God deals with His people on His terms. He does not run to our every beck and call. He is the master; we serve Him; He does not serve us.

7 Then Saul said to his servants, "Find me a woman who is a medium, [a]that I may go to her and inquire of her." And his servants said to him, "In fact, there is a woman who is a medium at En Dor."
8 So Saul disguised himself and put on other clothes, and he went, and two men with him; and they came to the woman by night. And [a]he said, "Please conduct a seance for me, and bring up for me the one I shall name to you."
9 Then the woman said to him, "Look, you know what Saul has done, how he has [a]cut off the mediums and the spiritists from the land. Why then do you lay a snare for my life, to cause me to die?"
10 And Saul swore to her by the LORD, saying, "As the LORD lives, no punishment shall come upon you for this thing."
11 Then the woman said, "Whom shall I bring up for you?" And he said, "Bring up Samuel for me."
12 When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out with a loud voice. And the woman spoke to Saul, saying, "Why have you deceived me? For you are Saul!"
13 And the king said to her, "Do not be afraid. What did you see?" And the woman said to Saul, "I saw [a]a[1] spirit ascending out of the earth."
14 So he said to her, "What is his form?" And she said, "An old man is coming up, and he is covered with [a]a mantle." And Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground and bowed down.
15 Now Samuel said to Saul, "Why have you [a]disturbed me by bringing me up?" And Saul answered, "I am deeply distressed; for the Philistines make war

27:10 The southern region of Palestine is known as the Negev. It means "Dry" in Hebrew and refers to a large area from Beersheba to the Sinai Peninsula.

28:1 "In those days" refers to David's time in Ziklag. Receiving safe haven in a foreign country obligated a refugee to military service in times of war.

28:6 "Urim" was a method of seeking God's advice. The word Urim begins with the first letter of the Hebrew alphabet and means "Curses." The word Thummim begins with the last letter of the alphabet and means "Perfections." Scholars think they were sacred lots used to determine God's will. If Urim dominated the lots cast, the answer was no. If Thummim dominated, the answer was yes.

28:7 In Saul's distress, he resorted to a pagan ritual he had outlawed (28:3) in accordance with Mosaic law (Ex. 22:18; Lev. 19:26).

28:10 Saul's thinking was so twisted he actually called upon God to protect a spiritist who used her evil powers to break God's law.

against me, and [b]God has departed from me and [c]does not answer me anymore, neither by prophets nor by dreams. Therefore I have called you, that you may reveal to me what I should do."
16 Then Samuel said: "So why do you ask me, seeing the LORD has departed from you and has become your enemy?
17 "And the LORD has done for [1]Himself [a]as He spoke by me. For the LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hand and given it to your neighbor, David.
18 [a]"Because you did not obey the voice of the LORD nor execute His fierce wrath upon [b]Amalek, therefore the LORD has done this thing to you this day.
19 "Moreover the LORD will also deliver Israel with you into the hand of the Philistines. And tomorrow you and your sons will be with [a]me. The LORD will also deliver the army of Israel into the hand of the Philistines."
20 Immediately Saul fell full length on the ground, and was dreadfully afraid because of the words of Samuel. And there was no strength in him, for he had eaten no food all day or all night.
21 And the woman came to Saul and saw that he was severely troubled, and said to him, "Look, your maidservant has obeyed your voice, and I have [a]put my life in my hands and heeded the words which you spoke to me.
22 "Now therefore, please, heed also the voice of your maidservant, and let me set a piece of bread before you; and eat, that you may have strength when you go on your way."
23 But he refused and said, "I will not eat." So his servants, together with the woman, urged him; and he heeded their voice. Then he arose from the ground and sat on the bed.
24 Now the woman had a fatted calf in the house, and she hastened to kill it. And she took flour and kneaded it, and baked unleavened bread from it.
25 So she brought it before Saul and his servants, and they ate. Then they rose and went away that night.

The Philistines Reject David

29 Then [a]the Philistines gathered together all their armies [b]at Aphek, and the Israelites encamped by a fountain which is in Jezreel.
2 And the [a]lords of the Philistines [1]passed in review by hundreds and by thousands, but [b]David and his men passed in review at the rear with Achish.
3 Then the princes of the Philistines said, "What are these Hebrews doing here?" And Achish said to the princes of the Philistines, "Is this not David, the servant of Saul king of Israel, who has been with me [a]these days, or these years? And to this day I have [b]found no fault in him since he defected to me."
4 But the princes of the Philistines were angry with him; so the princes of the Philistines said to him, [a]"Make this fellow return, that he may go back to the place which you have appointed for him, and do not let him go down with us to [b]battle, lest [c]in the battle he become our adversary. For with what could he reconcile himself to his master, if not with the heads of these [d]men?
5 "Is this not David, [a]of whom they sang to one another in dances, saying:

[b]'Saul has slain his thousands,
And David his ten thousands'?"

6 Then Achish called David and said to him, "Surely, as the LORD lives, you have been upright, and [a]your going out and your coming in with me in the army is good in my sight. For to this day [b]I have not found evil in you since the day of your coming to me. Nevertheless the lords do not favor you.

At Home in God

Faithfulness to God brings safety in any circumstance. Whether in victory or in defeat, among friends or among enemies, at home or on the run, a relationship with God is a secure place.

7 "Therefore return now, and go in peace, that you may not displease the lords of the Philistines."
8 So David said to Achish, "But what have I done? And to this day what have you found in your servant as long as I have been with you, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?"
9 Then Achish answered and said to David, "I know that you are as good in my sight [a]as an angel of God; nevertheless [b]the princes of the Philistines have said, 'He shall not go up with us to the battle.'
10 "Now therefore, rise early in the morning with your master's servants [a]who have come with [1]you. And as soon

29:5 This is the third time "David his ten thousands" was chanted (1 Sam. 18:7; 21:12).

11 So David and his men rose early to depart in the morning, to return to the land of the Philistines. [a]And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

David's Conflict with the Amalekites

30 Now it happened, when David and his men came to [a]Ziklag, on the third day, that the [b]Amalekites had invaded the South and Ziklag, attacked Ziklag and burned it with fire,
2 and had taken captive the [a]women and those who were there, from small to great; they did not kill anyone, but carried them away and went their way.
3 So David and his men came to the city, and there it was, burned with fire; and their wives, their sons, and their daughters had been taken captive.
4 Then David and the people who were with him lifted up their voices and wept, until they had no more power to weep.
5 And David's two [a]wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite, had been taken captive.
6 Now David was greatly distressed, for [a]the people spoke of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was [1]grieved, every man for his sons and his daughters. [b]But David strengthened himself in the LORD his God.
7 [a]Then David said to Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech's son, "Please bring the ephod here to me." And [b]Abiathar brought the ephod to David.
8 [a]So David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I pursue this troop? Shall I overtake them?" And He answered him, "Pursue, for you shall surely overtake them and without fail recover all."
9 So David went, he and the six hundred men who were with him, and came to the Brook Besor, where those stayed who were left behind.
10 But David pursued, he and four hundred men; [a]for two hundred stayed behind, who were so weary that they could not cross the Brook Besor.
11 Then they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David; and they gave him bread and he ate, and they let him drink water.
12 And they gave him a piece of [a]a cake of figs and two clusters of raisins. So [b]when he had eaten, his strength came back to him; for he had eaten no bread nor drunk water for three days and three nights.

13 Then David said to him, "To whom do you belong, and where are you from?" And he said, "I am a young man from Egypt, servant of an Amalekite; and my master left me behind, because three days ago I fell sick.
14 "We made an invasion of the southern area of [a]the Cherethites, in the territory which belongs to Judah, and of the southern area [b]of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire."
15 And David said to him, "Can you take me down to this troop?" So he said, "Swear to me by God that you will neither kill me nor deliver me into the hands of my [a]master, and I will take you down to this troop."
16 And when he had brought him down, there they were, spread out over all the land, [a]eating and drinking and dancing, because of all the great spoil which they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah.
17 Then David attacked them from twilight until the evening of the next day. Not a man of them escaped, except four hundred young men who rode on camels and fled.
18 So David recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away, and David rescued his two wives.
19 And nothing of theirs was lacking, either small or great, sons or daughters, spoil or anything which they had taken from them; [a]David recovered all.
20 Then David took all the flocks and herds they had driven before those other livestock, and said, "This is David's spoil."
21 Now David came to the [a]two hundred men who had been so weary that they could not follow David, whom they also had made to stay at the Brook Besor. So they went out to meet David and to meet the people who were with him. And when David came near the people, he [1]greeted them.
22 Then all the wicked and [a]worthless[1] men of those who went with David answered and said, "Because they did not go with us, we will not give them any of the spoil that we have recovered, except for every man's wife and children, that they may lead them away and depart."
23 But David said, "My brethren, you shall not do so with what the LORD has given us, who has preserved us and delivered into our hand the troop that came against us.

30:2 The Amalekites did not kill the inhabitants because they probably intended to use them as slaves.

30:13 Slaves were so devalued it was deemed more economical to obtain a new slave than to administer medicine to an existing one.

Share God's Goodness

Both the victory and the reward belong to God. Always acknowledge this truth and be gracious with His benefits.

24 "For who will heed you in this matter? But [a]as his part is who goes down to the battle, so shall his part be who stays by the supplies; they shall share alike."
25 So it was, from that day forward; he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel to this day.
26 Now when David came to Ziklag, he sent some of the [1]spoil to the elders of Judah, to his friends, saying, "Here is a present for you from the spoil of the enemies of the LORD"—
27 to those who were in Bethel, those who were in [a]Ramoth of the South, those who were in [b]Jattir,

The Tragic End of Saul and His Sons

31 Now [a]the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell slain on Mount [b]Gilboa.
2 Then the Philistines followed hard after Saul and his sons. And the Philistines killed [a]Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua, Saul's sons.
3 [a]The battle became fierce against Saul. The archers [1]hit him, and he was severely wounded by the archers.
4 [a]Then Saul said to his armorbearer, "Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest [b]these uncircumcised men come and thrust me through and [1]abuse me." But his armorbearer would not, [c]for he was greatly afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword and [d]fell on it.
5 And when his armorbearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword, and died with him.
6 So Saul, his three sons, his armorbearer, and all his men died together that same day.

Choose Wisely

Life is a direct product of our choices. We either obey God and we receive His blessing, or we disobey God and we live with the consequences.

7 And when the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley, and those who were on the other side of the Jordan, saw that the men of Israel had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.
8 So it happened the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.
9 And they cut off his head and stripped off his armor, and sent word throughout the land of the Philistines, to [a]proclaim it in the temple of their idols and among the people.
10 [a]Then they put his armor in the temple of the [b]Ashtoreths, and [c]they fastened his body to the wall of [d]Beth[1] Shan.
11 [a]Now when the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul,
12 [a]all the valiant men arose and traveled all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth Shan; and they came to Jabesh and [b]burned them there.
13 Then they took their bones and [a]buried them under the tamarisk tree at Jabesh, [b]and fasted seven days.

30:31 Hebron would soon become David's capital. It was a Levitical city given to Caleb by Joshua (Josh. 14:13).

31:2 Saul's other son Ishbosheth was not at the battle and was later declared king by Abner (2 Sam. 2:8–10).

31:10 Putting Saul's armor in the temple attributed victory to the Philistine gods.

31:12 Cremation was not a normal Hebrew practice, but was probably done because the bodies had been so badly mutilated by the Philistines.

THE SECOND BOOK OF SAMUEL

INTRODUCTION

First and Second Samuel were originally combined in one book. See the introduction to First Samuel for information on title, authorship, and compilation of its material.

SIGNIFICANCE

The division between First and Second Samuel is marked by the death of King Saul, establishing the need for a successor to govern Israel. Continuing the theme of First Samuel, this book develops Israel's history as a political nation and a viable power within the ancient Middle East. This remarkable transformation becomes clear when pre-Samuel Israel as depicted in Judges is compared to post-Samuel Israel as described in Kings. Israel was originally little more than a collection of unstable tribes, susceptible to religious idolatry and syncretism, functioning under primitive political structures and prone to ruthless military exploits. The establishment of a monarchy centralized political power and provided an economic structure to advance Israel's interests. Second Samuel also establishes David's significant role as the key figure in this transformation. Among the many contenders for the throne, especially from Saul's own household, the author seeks to identify David as the divinely ordained and legitimate successor. Finally, Second Samuel demonstrates Yahweh's power in creating a people through whom He would bless all nations. God is the central character operating throughout the narrative, His plans being fulfilled through human instrumentation. His demand for wholehearted obedience is the means for His people to experience the fullness of His presence and His blessing.

STRUCTURE

The material in Second Samuel can be divided into three distinct sections. First is David's rise to the throne and his subsequent reign. David's assent to the throne legitimately begins in First Samuel, when Saul's death creates a vacancy for David's succession. This portion describes David's decisive actions in securing the Ark of the Covenant, initiating a plan for the temple, and expanding the empire. The second section focuses on David's family. Here we see more than just a king; the scriptures give insight into David as a man and a father. A person of passion and intense emotion, David is revealed as one who loves God, yet struggles with sin, volatile family relations and bitter rivalries. David's darker side is exposed as his personal weaknesses and failures are candidly recorded in excruciating detail. The last section is an appendix to First and Second Samuel, serving as a remembrance of David's life and achievements. Not necessarily in chronological order, this final reflection describes significant moments and influential people during David's rule. Second Samuel can be outlined as follows:

- David's Rise to the Throne
  - Time of Transition (1:1—4:12)
  - Time of Growth (5:1—8:18)
- David's Personal Relationships
  - Mephibosheth (9:1–13)
  - Conflict with Enemies (10:1–19)
  - Sin with Bathsheba (11:1—12:31)
  - Conflict with Sons (13:1—18:33)
  - Reclaiming the throne (19:1—20:26)
- Remembrance of David's Life (21:1—24:25)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH 2 SAMUEL

Continuing the historical narrative of First Samuel, this book demonstrates how God used a man to accomplish His purposes. The tragic realism of David's character is unexpected for such a composition, but the writer is clearly more concerned with promoting God's nature than with heralding a king's glory. Focus your attention on God and the overall story without being overly distracted by the failures of human characters. You will learn important truths about God as He deals with His people. Look for the fulfillment of God's promise to David, God's judgment upon the house of Saul, David's God-given victory to secure Jerusalem, the covenant God establishes with David, God's response to David's tragic sin with Bathsheba and Uriah, challenges to the throne, God's provision for David's successor; and God as the defender of David's throne. Second Samuel demonstrates God's sovereign control over situations that appear out of control.

The Report of Saul's Death

CHAPTER 1

NOW it came to pass after the [a]death of Saul, when David had returned from [b]the slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had stayed two days in Ziklag,
2 on the third day, behold, it happened that [a]a man came from Saul's camp [b]with his clothes [1]torn and dust on his head. So it was, when he came to David, that he [c]fell to the ground and prostrated himself.
3 And David said to him, "Where have you come from?" So he said to him, "I have escaped from the camp of Israel."
4 Then David said to him, [a]"How did the matter go? Please tell me." And he answered, "The people have fled from the battle, many of the people are fallen and dead, and Saul and [b]Jonathan his son are dead also."
5 So David said to the young man who told him, "How do you know that Saul and Jonathan his son are dead?"
6 Then the young man who told him said, "As I happened by chance to be on [a]Mount Gilboa, there was [b]Saul, leaning on his spear; and indeed the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him.
7 "Now when he looked behind him, he saw me and called to me. And I answered, 'Here I am.'
8 "And he said to me, 'Who are you?' So I answered him, 'I am an Amalekite.'
9 "He said to me again, 'Please stand over me and kill me, for [1]anguish has come upon me, but my life still remains in me.'
10 "So I stood over him and [a]killed him, because I was sure that he could not live after he had fallen. And I took the crown that was on his head and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them here to my lord."

11 Therefore David took hold of his own clothes and [a]tore them, and so did all the men who were with him.
12 And they [a]mourned and wept and [b]fasted until evening for Saul and for Jonathan his son, for the [c]people of the LORD and for the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.
13 Then David said to the young man who told him, "Where are you from?" And he answered, "I am the son of an alien, an Amalekite."
14 So David said to him, "How [a]was it you were not [b]afraid to [c]put forth your hand to destroy the LORD's anointed?"
15 Then [a]David called one of the young men and said, "Go near, and execute him!" And he struck him so that he died.
16 So David said to him, [a]"Your blood is on your own head, for [b]your own mouth has testified against you, saying, 'I have killed the LORD's anointed.' "

The Song of the Bow

17 Then David lamented with this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son,
18 [a]and he told them to teach the children of Judah the Song of the Bow; indeed it is written [b]in the Book [1]of Jasher:

19 "The beauty of Israel is slain on your high places!
[a]How the mighty have fallen!
20 [a]Tell it not in Gath,
Proclaim it not in the streets of [b]Ashkelon—
Lest [c]the daughters of the Philistines rejoice,
Lest the daughters of [d]the uncircumcised triumph.

21 "O [a]mountains of Gilboa,

1:1 Saul's death is recorded in 1 Samuel 31:3–5.

1:1 Ziklag was a city given to David when he served Achish, king of Gath (1 Sam. 27:6).

1:2 "Clothes torn and dust on his head" was not from battle, but was a sign of mourning.

1:6 Mount Gilboa is a small mountain range in the eastern Jezreel Valley.

1:12 The "people of the Lord" were the same army of Saul that earlier tried to hunt down and kill David.

1:13 The man was an Amalekite, belonging to the same race David had just defeated in battle (1 Sam. 30:1–17). The Amalekites were a nomadic, marauding people who roamed southern Canaan. This man was probably not in Saul's army, but was present to pillage the battlefield.

1:14 "The Lord's anointed" is a phrase David often used to show respect for Saul as being divinely chosen by God. David himself refused to harm someone God had chosen (1 Sam. 24:6; 26:9).

1:18 The Book of Jasher was probably a commemorative collection of poetry about Israel's wars and heroic figures.

1:20 Gath and Ashkelon represent the five-city league of Philistines who would rejoice over the death of an Israelite king. Ekron, Gaza, and Ashdod were the other three cities.

[b]Let there be no dew nor rain upon you,

From the fat of the mighty,
[a]The bow of Jonathan did not turn back,
And the sword of Saul did not return empty.
23 "Saul and Jonathan were beloved and pleasant in their lives,
And in their [a]death they were not divided;
They were swifter than eagles,
They were [b]stronger than lions.
24 "O daughters of Israel, weep over Saul,
Who clothed you in scarlet, with luxury;
Who put ornaments of gold on your apparel.
25 "How the mighty have fallen in the midst of the battle!
Jonathan was slain in your high places.
26 I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan;
You have been very pleasant to me;

Those who have experienced God's faithfulness ought to express unwavering concern for those who have fallen. An awareness of God's grace brings humility in success and sympathy for those who have failed.

David Anointed King of Judah

CHAPTER 2

2 It happened after this that David [a]inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go up to any of the cities of Judah?" And the LORD said to him, "Go up." David said, "Where shall I go up?" And He said, "To [b]Hebron."
2 So David went up there, and his [a]two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite.
3 And David brought up [a]the men who were with him, every man with his household. So they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

CHARACTER Study — DAVID — 2 Sam. 2:1

David's name means "Beloved," reflecting his special relationship with the Lord. He was the youngest of the eight sons of Jesse, from Bethlehem. David became Israel's second king, and one of the more renowned figures in world history. David was a multifaceted individual. He rose from a lowly shepherd boy to be anointed king of all Israel by the prophet Samuel (1 Sam. 16:13). David's courageous slaying of Goliath was his first military conquest, but certainly not his last. His battles became legendary; he conquered thousands and captured numerous strongholds by the Lord's power (2 Sam. 5:17). As a man of war, he was not allowed to build the temple (1 Chr. 28:3). That task was bequeathed to his son Solomon. In contrast to his military success, David was also a celebrated musician skilled at the harp. His talents brought him into the presence of King Saul who later tried to slay him (1 Sam. 18:10). David also excelled in writing poetry, as is evident in the Psalms, one of the most treasured books in the Bible. In his writing, we see the passion of his heart, exposed with uncommon realism. He had much to reflect upon; the highs of victory in war and the lows of being a fugitive on the run; the intimacy of an obedient relationship with God and the pain of disobedience and a broken relationship with God. A disturbing yet encouraging theme is David's struggle with sin and his accepted repentance. His shameful blunder of adultery and murder are candidly recorded (2 Sam. 11). His penitence and restored relationship, however, provide a model for all to follow (Ps. 32; 51). No matter what his condition, David continually returned to a solid trust in God. Though prone to failure, he earnestly sought to please the Lord, demonstrating great tenderness and longing for Him. God honored David in return, choosing David's line for the birth of Jesus (Matt. 1:1).

2:1 David inquired of the Lord by means of the Urim and Thummim attached to the breastplate of the priest's ephod. See note on 1 Sam. 28:6.

2:1 Hebron was twenty miles south of Jerusalem. Its natural defenses provided a safe place for David's first capital.

2:4 David was anointed earlier by Samuel, while Saul was still king, as an indication of God's intention (1 Sam. 16:13). This second anointing was by the people of Judah to recognize that David was, indeed, God's anointed man to replace Saul.

there they [b]anointed David king over the house of Judah. And they told David, saying, [c]"The men of Jabesh Gilead were the ones who buried Saul."
5 So David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh Gilead, and said to them, [a]"You are blessed of the LORD, for you have shown this kindness to your lord, to Saul, and have buried him.
6 "And now may [a]the LORD show kindness and truth to you. I also will repay you this kindness, because you have done this thing.
7 "Now therefore, let your hands be strengthened, and be valiant; for your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah has anointed me king over them."

Ishbosheth Made King of Israel

8 But [a]Abner the son of Ner, commander of Saul's army, took [1]Ishbosheth the son of Saul and brought him over to [b]Mahanaim;
9 and he made him king over [a]Gilead, over the [b]Ashurites, over [c]Jezreel, over Ephraim, over Benjamin, and over all Israel.
10 Ishbosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years. Only the house of Judah followed David.
11 And [a]the [1]time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Sam. 2:11

His Will His Way

The road to achieving God's purpose is sometimes long and arduous but accepting God's will also means following the path He chooses.

Israel and Judah at War

12 Now Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to [a]Gibeon.
13 And [a]Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out and met them by [b]the pool of Gibeon. So they sat down, one on one side of the pool and the other on the other side of the pool.
14 Then Abner said to Joab, "Let the young men now arise and compete before us." And Joab said, "Let them arise."
15 So they arose and went over by number, twelve from Benjamin, followers of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and twelve from the servants of David.
16 And each one grasped his opponent by the head and thrust his sword in his opponent's side; so they fell down together. Therefore that place was called [1]the Field of Sharp Swords, which is in Gibeon.
17 So there was a very fierce battle that day, and Abner and the men of Israel were beaten before the servants of David.
18 Now the [a]three sons of Zeruiah were there: Joab and Abishai and Asahel. And Asahel was [b]as fleet of foot [c]as a wild gazelle.
19 So Asahel pursued Abner, and in going he did not turn to the right hand or to the left from following Abner.
20 Then Abner looked behind him and said, "Are you Asahel?" He answered, "I am."
21 And Abner said to him, "Turn aside to your right hand or to your left, and lay hold on one of the young men and take his armor for yourself." But Asahel would not turn aside from following him.
22 So Abner said again to Asahel, "Turn aside from following me. Why should I strike you to the ground? How then could I face your brother Joab?"
23 However, he refused to turn aside. Therefore Abner struck him [a]in the stomach with the blunt end of the spear, so that the spear came out of his back; and he fell down there and died on the spot. So it was that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died, stood [b]still.
24 Joab and Abishai also pursued Abner. And the sun was going down when they came to the hill of Ammah, which is before Giah by the road to the Wilderness of Gibeon.
25 Now the children of Benjamin gathered together behind Abner and became [1]a unit, and took their stand on top of a hill.
26 Then Abner called to Joab and said, "Shall the sword devour forever? Do you not know that it will be bitter in the latter end? How long will it be then until

2:8 Ishbosheth was originally called Esh-Baal (1 Chr. 8:33) but his name was changed by the author of Samuel. His new name meant "Man of Shame."

2:8 Mahanaim was the capital of Gilead. It means "Double Camp." It served as a refuge for Ishbosheth as well as for David (2 Sam. 17:24–27).

2:13 Archeologists discovered the Pool of Gibeon through excavations at El-Jib. It was a rock-cut pool thirty-seven feet in diameter and eighty-two feet deep with a spiral staircase of seventy-nine steps leading to the bottom.

you tell the people to return from pursuing their brethren?"
27 And Joab said, "As God lives, [1]unless [a]you had spoken, surely then by morning all the people would have given up pursuing their brethren."
28 So Joab blew a trumpet; and all the people stood still and did not pursue Israel anymore, nor did they fight anymore.
29 Then Abner and his men went on all that night through the plain, crossed over the Jordan, and went through all Bithron; and they came to Mahanaim.
30 So Joab returned from pursuing Abner. And when he had gathered all the people together, there were missing of David's servants nineteen men and Asahel.
31 But the servants of David had struck down, of Benjamin and Abner's men, three hundred and sixty men who died.
32 Then they took up Asahel and buried him in his father's tomb, which was in [a]Bethlehem. And Joab and his men went all night, and they came to Hebron at daybreak.

3 Now there was a long [a]war between the house of Saul and the house of David. But David grew stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul grew weaker and weaker.

Sons of David

2 Sons were born [a]to David in Hebron:
His firstborn was Amnon [b]by Ahinoam the Jezreelitess;
3 his second, [1]Chileab, by Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite; the third, [a]Absalom the son of Maacah, the daughter of Talmai, king [b]of Geshur;
4 the fourth, [a]Adonijah the son of Haggith; the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital;
5 and the sixth, Ithream, by David's wife Eglah. These were born to David in Hebron.

Abner Joins Forces with David

6 Now it was so, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner was strengthening his hold on the house of Saul.
7 And Saul had a concubine, whose name was [a]Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. So Ishbosheth said to Abner, "Why have you [b]gone in to my father's concubine?"
8 Then Abner became very angry at the words of Ishbosheth, and said, "Am I [a]a dog's head that belongs to Judah? Today I show loyalty to the house of Saul your father, to his brothers, and to his friends, and have not delivered you into the hand of David; and you charge me today with a fault concerning this woman?
9 [a]"May God do so to Abner, and more also, if I do not do for David [b]as the LORD has sworn to him—
10 "to transfer the kingdom from the [1]house of Saul, and set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, [a]from Dan to Beersheba."
11 And he could not answer Abner another word, because he feared him.
12 Then Abner sent messengers on his behalf to David, saying, "Whose is the land?" saying also, "Make your covenant with me, and indeed my hand shall be with you to bring all Israel to you."
13 And David said, "Good, I will make a covenant with you. But one thing I require of you: [a]you shall not see my face unless you first bring [b]Michal, Saul's daughter, when you come to see my face."
14 So David sent messengers to [a]Ishbosheth, Saul's son, saying, "Give me my wife Michal, whom I betrothed to myself [b]for a hundred foreskins of the Philistines."
15 And Ishbosheth sent and took her from her husband, from [1]Paltiel the son of Laish.
16 Then her husband went along with her to [a]Bahurim, [1]weeping behind her. So Abner said to him, "Go, return!" And he returned.
17 Now Abner had communicated with the elders of Israel, saying, "In time past you were seeking for David to be king over you.
18 "Now then, do it! [a]For the LORD has spoken of David, saying, 'By the hand of My servant David, [1]I will save My people Israel from the hand of the Philistines and the hand of all their enemies.' "
19 And Abner also spoke in the hearing of [a]Benjamin. Then Abner also went to

2:27 "As God lives" was a strong and binding oath, identifying God as the supreme witness and enforcer of human actions.

2:28 The trumpet blown was a ram's horn or shofar, signaling a truce.

3:2 David began his reign with two wives, Ahinoam and Abigail, but married four more women while in Hebron. These unions were in defiance of God's warning against polygamy (Deut. 17:17).

3:2–5 The six sons of David named here are all from different wives and represent the royal family during his reign over Judah. Chronicles also has a dynastic list which includes four sons by Bathsheba (1 Chr. 3:5) and nine other sons whose mothers are not named (1 Chr. 3:6–8).

3:7 Abner was having intimate relations with one of King Saul's concubines who would have been passed down to his successor as part of the royal harem. This was a serious offense paramount to usurping the throne.

speak in the hearing of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel and the whole house of Benjamin.
20 So Abner and twenty men with him came to David at Hebron. And David made a feast for Abner and the men who were with him.
21 Then Abner said to David, "I will arise and go, and [a]gather all Israel to my lord the king, that they may make a covenant with you, and that you may [b]reign over all that your heart desires." So David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.

Joab Murders Abner

22 At that moment the servants of David and Joab came from a raid and brought much [1]spoil with them. But Abner was not with David in Hebron, for he had sent him away, and he had gone in peace.
23 When Joab and all the troops that were with him had come, they told Joab, saying, "Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he sent him away, and he has gone in peace."
24 Then Joab came to the king and said, "What have you done? Look, Abner came to you; why is it that you sent him away, and he has already gone?
25 "Surely you realize that Abner the son of Ner came to deceive you, to know [a]your going out and your coming in, and to know all that you are doing."
26 And when Joab had gone from David's presence, he sent messengers after Abner, who brought him back from the well of Sirah. But David did not know it.
27 Now when Abner had returned to Hebron, Joab [a]took him aside in the gate to speak with him privately, and there [1]stabbed him [b]in the stomach, so that he died for the blood of [c]Asahel his brother.
28 Afterward, when David heard it, he said, "My kingdom and I are [1]guiltless before the LORD forever of the blood of Abner the son of Ner.
29 [a]"Let it rest on the head of Joab and on all his father's house; and let there never fail to be in the [1]house of Joab one [b]who has a discharge or is a leper, who leans on a staff or falls by the sword, or who lacks bread."
30 So Joab and Abishai his brother killed Abner, because he had killed their brother [a]Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.

David's Mourning for Abner

31 Then David said to Joab and to all the people who were with him, [a]"Tear your clothes, [b]gird yourselves with sackcloth, and mourn for Abner." And King David followed the coffin.
32 So they buried Abner in Hebron; and the king lifted up his voice and wept at the grave of Abner, and all the people wept.
33 And the king sang a lament over Abner and said:

"Should Abner die as a [a]fool dies?
34 Your hands were not bound
Nor your feet put into fetters;
As a man falls before wicked men,
so you fell."

Then all the people wept over him again.
35 And when all the people came [a]to persuade David to eat food while it was still day, David took an oath, saying, [b]"God do so to me, and more also, if I taste bread or anything else [c]till the sun goes down!"
36 Now all the people took note of it, and it pleased them, since whatever the king did pleased all the people.
37 For all the people and all Israel understood that day that it had not been the king's intent to kill Abner the son of Ner.
38 Then the king said to his servants, "Do you not know that a prince and a great man has fallen this day in Israel?
39 "And I am weak today, though anointed king; and these men, the sons of Zeruiah, [a]are too harsh for me. [b]The LORD shall repay the evildoer according to his wickedness."

Give It to God

The world remains in turmoil despite continuous efforts to bring peace. When wickedness abounds, faith brings the confidence that God is in control and will ultimately achieve His purposes.

Ishbosheth Is Murdered

4 When Saul's [1]son heard that Abner had died in Hebron, [a]he[2] lost heart, and all Israel was [b]troubled.
2 Now Saul's son had two men who

3:22 "Gone in peace"indicated the conflict between Abner and David had been resolved.

3:29 Joab's action was not only deceitful, but it also hurt David's chances of nonviolent unification. David issued a strong curse upon Joab's household. A discharge or leprosy made one ritually unclean and an outcast from society (Lev. 13; 15).

3:31 Tearing one's clothes was an ancient tradition of mourning the dead. Sackcloth was abrasive material in contrast to comfortable clothing.

4:1 He "lost heart" indicates that Ishbosheth knew he had no power apart from Abner's support.

were captains of troops. The name of one was Baanah and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin. (For [a]Beeroth also was [1]part of Benjamin,
3 because the Beerothites fled to [a]Gittaim and have been sojourners there until this day.)
4 [a]Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son who was lame in his feet. He was five years old when the news about Saul and Jonathan came [b]from Jezreel; and his nurse took him up and fled. And it happened, as she made haste to flee, that he fell and became lame. His name was [c]Mephibosheth.[1]
5 Then the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, set out and came at about the heat of the day to the [a]house of Ishbosheth, who was lying on his bed at noon.
6 And they came there, all the way into the house, as though to get wheat, and they [1]stabbed him [a]in the stomach. Then Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped.
7 For when they came into the house, he was lying on his bed in his bedroom; then they struck him and killed him, beheaded him and took his head, and were all night escaping through the plain.
8 And they brought the head of Ishbosheth to David at Hebron, and said to the king, "Here is the head of Ishbosheth, the son of Saul your enemy, [a]who sought your life; and the LORD has avenged my lord the king this day of Saul and his descendants."
9 But David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, "As the LORD lives, [a]who has redeemed my life from all adversity,
10 "when [a]someone told me, saying, 'Look, Saul is dead,' thinking to have brought good news, I arrested him and had him executed in Ziklag—the one who thought I would give him a reward for his news.
11 "How much more, when wicked men have killed a righteous person in his own house on his bed? Therefore, shall I not now [a]require his [1]blood at your hand and [2]remove you from the earth?"
12 So David [a]commanded his young men, and they executed them, cut off their hands and feet, and hanged them by the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ishbosheth and buried it in the [b]tomb of Abner in Hebron.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Sam. 4:11

God Is Just

One cannot accomplish good through evil means. God's ways are always righteous, and He will not reward those who seek to honor Him through immoral actions.

David Reigns over All Israel

5 Then all the tribes of Israel [a]came to David at Hebron and spoke, saying, "Indeed [b]we are your bone and your flesh.
2 "Also, in time past, when Saul was king over us, [a]you were the one who led Israel out and brought them in; and the LORD said to you, [b]'You shall shepherd My people Israel, and be ruler over Israel.' "
3 [a]Therefore all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, [b]and King David made a covenant with them at Hebron [c]before the LORD. And they anointed David king over Israel.
4 David was [a]thirty years old when he began to reign, and [b]he reigned forty years.
5 In Hebron he reigned over Judah [a]seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.

The Conquest of Jerusalem

6 [a]And the king and his men went to Jerusalem against [b]the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, who spoke to David, saying, "You shall not come in here; but the blind and the lame will repel you," thinking, "David cannot come in here."
7 Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion [a](that is, the City of David).
8 Now David said on that day, "Whoever climbs up by way of the water shaft and defeats the Jebusites (the lame and the blind, who are hated by David's soul), [a]he shall be chief and captain." Therefore they say, "The blind and the lame shall not come into the house."
9 Then David dwelt in the stronghold, and called it [a]the City of David. And David built all around from [1]the Millo and inward.

4:5 Because of the intense heat at noon, it was common to rest during midday.

4:12 Burying Ishbosheth's head in Abner's tomb was a sign of respect for Ishbosheth. He had done no crime in David's eyes; he had simply assumed his father's throne.

5:6 David's first and perhaps most significant achievement as king was to capture the city of the Jebusites, making Jerusalem his new capital.

5:8 The water shaft ascended 230 feet up from the Spring of Gihon to the top of the hill where the Jebusite fortress was built.

JERUSALEM

2 Sam 5:6 "Jerusalem" means "Foundation of Peace" or "City of Peace." David chose Jerusalem as his capital city after he became king of all Israel around 1000 B.C. It was an ideal location in which to unite his people. Politically, it did not belong to any of the tribes and would be accepted by all. It was easily defensible, situated on a ridge surrounded by deep valleys. It was centrally located. Economically, it was on the major trade routes. It also had an adequate water supply through a system of reservoirs supplied by aqueducts. Under David and Solomon's reigns, Jerusalem also became the center of Israelite worship, known as the "Holy City" or the "City of Zion." It was to here David brought the Ark of the Covenant, and here Solomon built the temple. As a political and religious center, Jerusalem was the barometer of Israel's spiritual condition, experiencing revival or apostasy depending on who was ruling. It would be a strategic place for Jesus' earthly ministry during his last days. It was just outside the walls of the city that Jesus was crucified, buried, and resurrected. Jerusalem was also the setting for the first gospel message and the coming of the Holy Spirit.

10 So David went on and became great, and [a]the LORD God of hosts was with [b]him.
11 Then [a]Hiram [b]king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and carpenters and masons. And they built
David a house.
12 So David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel, and that He had [a]exalted His kingdom [b]for the sake of His people Israel.
13 And [a]David took more concubines and wives from Jerusalem, after he had come from Hebron. Also more sons and daughters were born to David.
14 Now [a]these are the names of those who were born to him in Jerusalem:
[1]Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, [b]Solomon,
15 Ibhar, [1]Elishua, Nepheg, Japhia,
16 Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet.

The Philistines Defeated

17 [a]Now when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines went up to search for David. And David heard of it
[b]and went down to the stronghold.
18 The Philistines also went and deployed themselves in [a]the Valley of Rephaim.
19 So David [a]inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You deliver them into my hand?" And the LORD said to David,
"Go up, for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into your hand."

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Sam. 5:19

Always Ask God

Never presume upon God for success. Victory is His to grant as He desires.

20 So David went to [a]Baal Perazim, and David defeated them there; and he said,
"The LORD has broken through my enemies before me, like a breakthrough of water." Therefore he called the name of that place [1]Baal Perazim.
21 And they left their [1]images there, and David and his men [a]carried them
away.
22 [a]Then the Philistines went up once again and deployed themselves in the Valley of Rephaim.
23 Therefore [a]David inquired of the LORD, and He said, "You shall not go up; circle around behind them, and come upon them in front of the mulberry trees.
24 "And it shall be, when you [a]hear the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, then you shall advance quickly. For then [b]the LORD will go out before you to strike the camp of the Philistines."
25 And David did so, as the LORD commanded him; and he drove back the Philistines from [a]Geba[1] as far as [b]Gezer.

The Ark Brought to Jerusalem

6 Again David gathered all the choice men of Israel, thirty thousand.

5:10 The "Lord God of Hosts" can also be translated the "Lord God of armies," referring to the multitude of angels who act upon God's command.

5:11 Tyre was a Phoenician city on the Mediterranean seacoast known for its commerce, craftsmen, and wealth. No doubt Hiram's kindness was in the hope of building an alliance with David, encouraging him to grant access through Israel's important trade route.

5:13 David married as a means of securing international alliances. A concubine did not have legal status as a wife. The royal harem was a king's trophy.

5:18 The Valley of Rephaim or "Valley of the Giants" was a strategic approach to Jerusalem which the Philistines used on at least two occasions.

5:24 "Marching in the tops of the mulberry trees" is an allusion to the heavenly hosts coming to battle.

2 And [a]David arose and went with all the people who were with him from [1]Baale Judah to bring up from there the ark of God, whose name is called [2]by the Name, the LORD of Hosts, [b]who dwells between the cherubim.
3 So they set the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on [a]the hill; and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drove the new [1]cart.
4 And they brought it out of [a]the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill, accompanying the ark of God; and Ahio went before the ark.
5 Then David and all the house of Israel [a]played music before the LORD on all kinds of instruments of fir wood, on harps, on stringed instruments, on tambourines, on sistrums, and on cymbals.
6 And when they came to [a]Nachon's threshing floor, Uzzah put out his [b]hand to the ark of God and [1]took hold of it, for the oxen stumbled.
7 Then the anger of the LORD was aroused against Uzzah, and God struck him there for his [1]error; and he died there by the ark of God.
8 And David became angry because of the LORD's outbreak against Uzzah; and he called the name of the place [1]Perez Uzzah to this day.
9 [a]David was afraid of the LORD that day; and he said, "How can the ark of the LORD come to me?"
10 So David would not move the ark of the LORD with him into the [a]City of David; but David took it aside into the house of Obed-Edom the [b]Gittite.
11 [a]The ark of the LORD remained in the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite three months. And the LORD [b]blessed Obed-Edom and all his household.
12 Now it was told King David, saying, "The LORD has blessed the house of Obed-Edom and all that belongs to him, because of the ark of God." [a]So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-Edom to the City of David with gladness.
13 And so it was, when [a]those bearing the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, that he sacrificed [b]oxen and fatted sheep.
14 Then David [a]danced[1] before the LORD with all his might; and David was wearing [b]a linen ephod.
15 [a]So David and all the house of Israel

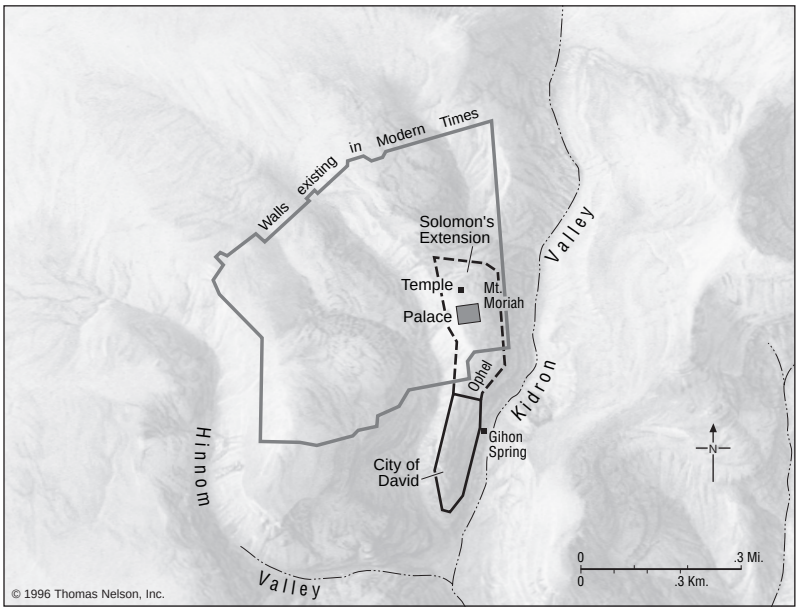
6:2 Baale Judah means "Masters of Judah." It was also called Baalah or Kirjath Jearim (Josh. 15:9; 1 Chr. 13:6). It was located ten miles northwest of Jerusalem.



6:2 Cherubim are angelic beings, guardians of God's holiness (Gen. 3:24; Ex. 25:22).

6:3 David repeated the Philistines' mistake (1 Sam. 6:7) and put the ark on a cart, a direct violation of God's instruction that it should only be carried by the Levites using poles (Ex. 25:14; Num. 3:31).

6:7 Nobody, including the Levites, could touch the holy objects of the tabernacle. Death was the penalty (Num. 4:15).

6:10 Obed-Edom was a Levite of the family of Korah. He became one of the doorkeepers for the ark (1 Chr. 15:14, 18).

6:14 A linen ephod was a short, sleeveless garment worn by priests.

2 Sam. 5:6 Jerusalem: David's City brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting and with the sound of the trumpet.

16 Now as the ark of the LORD came into the City of David, [a]Michal, Saul's daughter, looked through a window and saw King David leaping and whirling before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.
17 So [a]they brought the ark of the LORD, and set it in [b]its place in the midst of the tabernacle that David had erected for it. Then David [c]offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.
18 And when David had finished offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, [a]he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts.
19 [a]Then he distributed among all the people, among the whole multitude of Israel, both the women and the men, to everyone a loaf of bread, a piece of meat, and a cake of raisins. So all the people departed, everyone to his house.
20 [a]Then David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, "How glorious was the king of Israel today, [b]uncovering himself today in the eyes of the maids of his servants, as one of the [c]base fellows [1]shamelessly uncovers himself!"
21 So David said to Michal, "It was before the LORD, [a]who chose me instead of your father and all his house, to appoint me ruler over the [b]people of the LORD, over Israel. Therefore I will play music before the LORD.
22 "And I will be even more undignified than this, and will be humble in my own sight. But as for the maidservants of whom you have spoken, by them I will be held in honor."
23 Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no children [a]to the day of her death.

Know Your Place

There is no place for self aggrandizement in the presence of almighty God. Let God be praised and be content to find a place in His presence.

God's Covenant with David

7 Now it came to pass [a]when the king was dwelling in his house, and the LORD had given him rest from all his enemies all around,
2 that the king said to Nathan the prophet, "See now, I dwell in [a]a house of cedar, [b]but the ark of God dwells inside tent [c]curtains."
3 Then Nathan said to the king, "Go, do all that is in your [a]heart, for the LORD is with you."
4 But it happened that night that the word of the LORD came to Nathan, saying,
5 "Go and tell My servant David, 'Thus says the LORD: [a]"Would you build a house for Me to dwell in?
6 "For I have not dwelt in a house [a]since the time that I brought the children of Israel up from Egypt, even to this day, but have moved about in [b]a tent and in a tabernacle.
7 "Wherever I have [a]moved about with all the children of Israel, have I ever spoken a word to anyone from the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded [b]to shepherd My people Israel, saying, 'Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?' " '
8 "Now therefore, thus shall you say to My servant David, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: [a]"I took you from the sheepfold, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people, over Israel.
9 "And [a]I have been with you wherever you have gone, [b]and have [1]cut off all

CHARACTER*Study* NATHAN 2 Sam. 7:2

Nathan's name means "Gift." He was God's prophet and advisor to King David as well as to King Solomon in that king's early years. We know little about the man personally despite the fact that he figured in some of Israel's defining moments. It was Nathan who told the zealous David that God would not allow him to build the temple (2 Sam. 7:12, 13). Nathan also delivered the devastating rebuke, "You are the man!" after David sinned against Uriah (2 Sam. 12:7). It was Nathan who preserved the kingdom for Solomon when he alerted King David to a conspiracy that was afoot (1 Kin. 1:10–40). Nathan assisted David in arranging musical instruments for the Levites (2 Chr. 29:25). Scripture indicates that Nathan also wrote the chronicles for David (1 Chr. 29:29) and a history of Solomon (2 Chr. 9:29).

6:23 Due to Michal's barrenness and the death of all her brothers, Saul's lineage ceased.

7:1 "Rest" is another way of saying "peace." This allowed David time to refrain from external battles and to deal with internal issues both nationally and personally.

your enemies from before you, and have made you a great name, like the name of the great men who are on the earth.
10 "Moreover I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will [a]plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own and move no more; [b]nor shall the sons of wickedness oppress them anymore, as previously,
11 [a]"since the time that I commanded judges to be over My people Israel, and have caused you to rest from all your enemies. Also the LORD [1]tells you [b]that He will make you a [2]house.
12 [a]"When your days are fulfilled and you [b]rest with your fathers, [c]I will set up your seed after you, who will come from your body, and I will establish his kingdom.
13 [a]"He shall build a house for My name, and I will [b]establish the throne of his kingdom forever.
14 [a]"I will be his Father, and he shall be [b]My son. If he commits iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men and with the [1]blows of the sons of men.
15 "But My mercy shall not depart from him, [a]as I took it from Saul, whom I removed from before you.
16 "And [a]your house and your kingdom shall be established forever before [1]you. Your throne shall be established forever." ' "
17 According to all these words and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

David's Thanksgiving to God

18 Then King David went in and sat before the LORD; and he said: [a]"Who am I, O Lord GOD? And what is my house, that You have brought me this far?
19 "And yet this was a small thing in Your sight, O Lord GOD; and You have also spoken of Your servant's house for a great while to come. [a]Is this the manner of man, O Lord GOD?
20 "Now what more can David say to You? For You, Lord GOD, [a]know Your servant.
21 "For Your word's sake, and according to Your own heart, You have done all these great things, to make Your servant know them.
22 "Therefore [a]You are great, [1]O Lord GOD. For [b]there is none like You, nor is there any God besides You, according to all that we have heard with our [c]ears.
23 "And who is like Your people, like Israel, [a]the one nation on the earth whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people, to make for Himself a name—and to do for Yourself great and awesome deeds for Your land—before [b]Your people whom You redeemed for Yourself from Egypt, the nations, and their gods?
24 "For [a]You have made Your people Israel Your very own people forever; [b]and You, LORD, have become their God.
25 "Now, O LORD God, the word which You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning his house, establish it forever and do as You have said.
26 "So let Your name be magnified forever, saying, 'The LORD of hosts is the God over Israel.' And let the house of Your servant David be established before You.
27 "For You, O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, have revealed this to Your servant, saying, 'I will build you a house.' Therefore Your servant has found it in his heart to pray this prayer to You.
28 "And now, O Lord GOD, You are God, and [a]Your words are true, and You have promised this goodness to Your servant.
29 "Now therefore, let it please You to bless the house of Your servant, that it may continue before You forever; for You, O Lord GOD, have spoken it, and with Your blessing let the house of Your servant be blessed [a]forever."

David's Further Conquests

8 After this it came to pass that David [1]attacked the Philistines and subdued them. And David took [2]Metheg Ammah from the hand of the Philistines.
2 Then [a]he defeated Moab. Forcing them down to the ground, he measured them off with a line. With two lines he measured off those to be put to death, and with one full line those to be kept alive. So the Moabites became David's [b]servants, and [c]brought tribute.
3 David also defeated Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of [a]Zobah, as he went to recover [b]his territory at the River Euphrates.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Sam. 7:21

God's Goodness

God's blessings are not earned, but graciously received. Christians must always keep this truth in perspective.

7:9 A great name was highly cherished by the Hebrews. It was more valuable than riches.

7:11 The Lord declared He would make David a "house," or a royal dynasty, in contrast to David's desire to make God a house, or a temple (2 Sam. 7:5).

8:2 Moabites were descendents of Lot (Gen. 19:37). Saul fought against them (1 Sam. 14:47), but David subdued them as slaves. They later won their freedom from Israel (2 Kin. 1:1).

4 David took from him one thousand chariots, [1]seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand foot soldiers. Also David [a]hamstrung all the chariot horses, except that he spared enough of them for one hundred chariots.
5 [a]When the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David killed twenty-two thousand of the Syrians.
6 Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought tribute. So [a]the LORD preserved David wherever he went.
7 And David took [a]the shields of gold that had belonged to the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.
8 Also from [1]Betah and from [a]Berothai,[2] cities of Hadadezer, King David took a large amount of bronze.
9 When [1]Toi king of [a]Hamath heard that David had defeated all the army of Hadadezer,
10 then Toi sent [1]Joram his son to King David, to [2]greet him and bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him (for Hadadezer had been at war with Toi); and Joram brought with him articles of silver, articles of gold, and articles of bronze.
11 King David also [a]dedicated these to the LORD, along with the silver and gold that he had dedicated from all the nations which he had subdued—
12 from [1]Syria, from Moab, from the people of Ammon, from the [a]Philistines, from Amalek, and from the spoil of Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah.
13 And David made himself a [a]name when he returned from killing [b]eighteen thousand [1]Syrians in [c]the Valley of Salt.
14 He also put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom he put garrisons, and [a]all the Edomites became David's servants. And the LORD preserved David wherever he went.

David's Administration

15 So David reigned over all Israel; and David administered judgment and justice to all his people.

Safety

The Lord preserves those who serve Him. There is no reason for anxiety, for God walks with His people to fulfill His purposes.

16 [a]Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army; [b]Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder;
17 [a]Zadok the son of Ahitub and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar were the priests; [1]Seraiah was the [2]scribe;
18 [a]Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over both the [b]Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were [1]chief ministers.

David's Kindness to Mephibosheth

9 Now David said, "Is there still anyone who is left of the house of Saul, that I may [a]show him [1]kindness for Jonathan's sake?"
2 And there was a servant of the house of Saul whose name was [a]Ziba. So when they had called him to David, the king said to him, "Are you Ziba?" He said, "At your service!"
3 Then the king said, "Is there not still someone of the house of Saul, to whom I may show [a]the kindness of God?" And Ziba said to the king, "There is still a son of Jonathan who is [b]lame in his feet."

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Sam. 9:3

The Kindness of God

Do not only seek God's goodness for yourself, seek to share His goodness with others. When He pours His blessing upon your life, find ways to give it away.

4 So the king said to him, "Where is he?" And Ziba said to the king, "Indeed he is in the house of [a]Machir the son of Ammiel, in Lo Debar."
5 Then King David sent and brought him out of the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, from Lo Debar.

8:5 Damascus was an oasis, considered one of the most strategic cities in the ancient world. It was located at the crossroads of two main highways: the Via Maris, leading southwest to Egypt, and the King's Highway, leading southeast to Arabia.

8:8 Berothai was about thirty miles northwest of Damascus.

8:9 Hamath was about one hundred miles northeast of Damascus.

8:16 Joab was rewarded for leading the attack on the city of Jebus (1 Chr. 11:6), which became David's capital, Jerusalem. Jehoshaphat oversaw state business; his career lasted into Solomon's reign (1 Kin. 4:3).

8:17 Zadok and Ahimelech were the principal priests during David's reign (2 Sam. 15:24; 1 Kin. 1:8). Zadok later anointed Solomon as king (1 Kin. 1:45).

8:18 Benaiah was one of David's mighty men (23:22, 23). Cherethites and Pelethites functioned as a special army or royal guard for David.

9:1 Second Samuel 9:1—20:26 is called the "Court History of David" and is considered some of the best historical narrative produced in the ancient world. Its detail suggests eyewitness recording.

9:4 Machir was a wealthy man who later helped David during Absalom's revolt (17:27–29). Lo Debar, also called "Debir" (Josh. 13:26), was ten miles south of the Sea of Galilee, east of the Jordan River.

6 Now when [a]Mephibosheth[1] the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, had come to David, he fell on his face and prostrated himself. Then David said, "Mephibosheth?" And he answered, "Here is your servant!"
7 So David said to him, "Do not fear, for I will surely show you kindness for Jonathan your father's sake, and will restore to you all the land of Saul your grandfather; and you shall eat bread at my table continually."
8 Then he bowed himself, and said, "What is your servant, that you should look upon such [a]a dead dog as I?"
9 And the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said to him, [a]"I have given to your master's son all that belonged to Saul and to all his house.
10 "You therefore, and your sons and your servants, shall work the land for him, and you shall bring in the harvest, that your master's son may have food to eat. But Mephibosheth your master's son [a]shall eat bread at my table always." Now Ziba had [b]fifteen sons and twenty servants.
11 Then Ziba said to the king, "According to all that my lord the king has commanded his servant, so will your servant do." "As for Mephibosheth," said the king, "he shall eat at [1]my table like one of the king's sons."
12 Mephibosheth had a young son [a]whose name was Micha. And all who dwelt in the house of Ziba were servants of Mephibosheth.
13 So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem, [a]for he ate continually at the king's table. And he [b]was lame in both his feet.

The Ammonites and Syrians Defeated

10 It happened after this that the [a]king of the people of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his place.
2 Then David said, "I will show [a]kindness to Hanun the son of [b]Nahash, as his father showed kindness to me." So David sent by the hand of his servants to comfort him concerning his father. And David's servants came into the land of the people of Ammon.
3 And the princes of the people of Ammon said to Hanun their lord, "Do you think that David really honors your father because he has sent comforters to you? Has David not rather sent his servants to you to search the city, to spy it out, and to overthrow it?"
4 Therefore Hanun took David's servants, shaved off half of their beards, cut off their garments in the middle, [a]at their buttocks, and sent them away.
5 When they told David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly [1]ashamed. And the king said, "Wait at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return."
6 When the people of Ammon saw that they [a]had made themselves repulsive to David, the people of Ammon sent and hired [b]the Syrians of [c]Beth Rehob and the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand foot soldiers; and from the king of [d]Maacah one thousand men, and from [e]Ish-Tob twelve thousand men.
7 Now when David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the army of [a]the mighty men.
8 Then the people of Ammon came out and put themselves in battle array at the entrance of the gate. And [a]the Syrians of Zoba, Beth Rehob, Ish-Tob, and Maacah were by themselves in the field.
9 When Joab saw that the battle line was against him before and behind, he chose some of Israel's best and put them in battle array against the Syrians.
10 And the rest of the people he put under the command of [a]Abishai his brother, that he might set them in battle array against the people of Ammon.
11 Then he said, "If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the people of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will come and help you.
12 [a]"Be of good courage, and let us [b]be strong for our people and for the cities of our God. And may [c]the LORD do what is good in His sight."

Challenges

After every victory comes a new challenge. God works amidst a fallen world; the battle will not end until He brings this world to judgment and ushers us into eternity.

9:7 Eating at the king's table signified a position of high honor and guaranteed provision from the king. The financial support would come from Saul's estate.

9:13 Mephibosheth's lameness came when he was a young child and his nurse dropped him as she fled from Gibeah after Saul and Jonathan had been killed (2 Sam. 4:4).

10:1 The king of Ammon was Nahash, who was defeated by Saul at Jabesh Gilead (1 Sam. 11:1–11).

10:4 In the Semitic culture, beards had great significance to men's appearance. To shave half of their beards was a serious and humiliating gesture. To cut off their garments in the middle, at the buttocks, was a common way of degrading prisoners of war (Is. 20:4).

10:6 Beth Rehob and Zoba were Aramean city-states north of Israel. Maacah was an Aramean kingdom east of the Jordan. Tob was northeast of Perea on the border of Syria.

13 So Joab and the people who were with him drew near for the battle against the Syrians, and they fled before him.
14 When the people of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fleeing, they also fled before Abishai, and entered the city. So Joab returned from the people of Ammon and went to [a]Jerusalem.
15 When the Syrians saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they gathered together.
16 Then [1]Hadadezer sent and brought out the Syrians who were beyond [2]the River, and they came to Helam. And [3]Shobach the commander of Hadadezer's army went before them.
17 When it was told David, he gathered all Israel, crossed over the Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in battle array against David and fought with him.
18 Then the Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed seven hundred charioteers and forty thousand [a]horsemen of the Syrians, and struck Shobach the commander of their army, who died there.
19 And when all the kings who were servants to [1]Hadadezer saw that they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with Israel and [a]served them. So the Syrians were afraid to help the people of Ammon anymore.

David, Bathsheba, and Uriah

11 It happened in the spring of the year, at the [a]time when kings go out to battle, that [b]David sent Joab and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the people of Ammon and besieged [c]Rabbah. But David remained at Jerusalem.
2 Then it happened one evening that David arose from his bed [a]and walked on the roof of the king's house. And from the roof he [b]saw a woman bathing, and the woman was very beautiful to behold.
3 So David sent and inquired about the woman. And someone said, "Is this not [1]Bathsheba, the daughter of [2]Eliam, the wife [a]of Uriah the [b]Hittite?"
4 Then David sent messengers, and took her; and she came to him, and [a]he lay with her, for she was [b]cleansed from her impurity; and she returned to her house.
5 And the woman conceived; so she sent and told David, and said, "I am with child."
6 Then David sent to Joab, saying, "Send me Uriah the Hittite." And Joab sent Uriah to David.
7 When Uriah had come to him, David asked how Joab was doing, and how the people were doing, and how the war prospered.
8 And David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house and [a]wash your feet." So Uriah departed from the king's house, and a gift of food from the king followed him.
9 But Uriah slept at the [a]door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and did not go down to his house.
10 So when they told David, saying, "Uriah did not go down to his house," David said to Uriah, "Did you not come from a journey? Why did you not go down to your house?"
11 And Uriah said to David, [a]"The ark and Israel and Judah are dwelling in tents, and [b]my lord Joab and the servants of my lord are encamped in the open fields. Shall I then go to my house to eat and drink, and to lie with my wife? As you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing."
12 Then David said to Uriah, "Wait here today also, and tomorrow I will let you depart." So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day and the next.
13 Now when David called him, he ate and drank before him; and he made him [a]drunk. And at evening he went out to lie on his bed [b]with the servants of his lord, but he did not go down to his house.
14 In the morning it happened that David [a]wrote a letter to Joab and sent it by the hand of Uriah.
15 And he wrote in the letter, saying, "Set Uriah in the forefront of the [1]hottest battle, and retreat from him, that he may [a]be struck down and die."

ENCOUNTER Note — 2 Sam. 11:4

Wandering Heart

Nobody is immune to temptation or above God's law. Idleness is an enemy if it allows one's heart to wander. Better to stay focused on God's work.

10:16 The "River" was the Euphrates, the northeast border of the Promised Land (Gen. 15:18).

11:1 Spring was when kings traditionally went to battle because of the assurance of good weather and abundant food for their men.

11:3 Uriah was numbered among David's mighty men (2 Sam. 23:39). His name means "The Lord Is Light." Even though a Hittite and perhaps a mercenary by trade, he adopted the Israelites' faith.

11:3 Bathsheba means "Daughter of Sheba."

11:4 "She was cleansed from her impurity" refers to a ceremonial cleansing after a seven day period of impurity due to menstruation (Lev. 15:19–30). This is proof that Bathsheba was not already pregnant before being intimate with David.

16 So it was, while Joab besieged the city, that he assigned Uriah to a place where he knew there were valiant men.
17 Then the men of the city came out and fought with Joab. And some of the people of the servants of David fell; and Uriah the Hittite died also.
18 Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war,
19 and charged the messenger, saying, "When you have finished telling the matters of the war to the king,
20 "if it happens that the king's wrath rises, and he says to you: 'Why did you approach so near to the city when you fought? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall?
21 'Who struck [a]Abimelech the son of [1]Jerubbesheth? Was it not a woman who cast a piece of a millstone on him from the wall, so that he died in Thebez? Why did you go near the wall?'—then you shall say, 'Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.' "
22 So the messenger went, and came and told David all that Joab had sent by him.
23 And the messenger said to David, "Surely the men prevailed against us and came out to us in the field; then we drove them back as far as the entrance of the gate.
24 "The archers shot from the wall at your servants; and some of the king's servants are dead, and your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also."
25 Then David said to the messenger, "Thus you shall say to Joab: 'Do not let this thing [1]displease you, for the sword devours one as well as another. Strengthen your attack against the city, and overthrow it.' So encourage him."
26 When the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she mourned for her husband.
27 And when her mourning was over, David sent and brought her to his house, and she [a]became his wife and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done [b]displeased[1] the LORD.

Nathan's Parable and David's Confession

12 Then the LORD sent Nathan to David. And [a]he came to him, and [b]said to him: "There were two men in one city, one rich and the other poor.
2 "The rich man had exceedingly many flocks and herds.
3 "But the poor man had nothing, except one little ewe lamb which he had bought and nourished; and it grew up together with him and with his children. It ate of his own food and drank from his own cup and lay in his bosom; and it was like a daughter to him.
4 "And a traveler came to the rich man, who refused to take from his own flock and from his own herd to prepare one for the wayfaring man who had come to him; but he took the poor man's lamb and prepared it for the man who had come to him."
5 So David's anger was greatly aroused against the man, and he said to Nathan, "As the LORD lives, the man who has done this [1]shall surely die!
6 "And he shall restore [a]fourfold for the lamb, because he did this thing and because he had no pity."
7 Then Nathan said to David, "You are the man! Thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'I [a]anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you from the hand of Saul.
8 'I gave you your master's house and your master's wives into your keeping, and gave you the house of Israel and Judah. And if that had been too little, I also would have given you much more!
9 [a]'Why have you [b]despised the commandment of the LORD, to do evil in His sight? [c]You have killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword; you have taken his wife to be your wife, and have killed him with the sword of the people of Ammon.
10 'Now therefore, [a]the sword shall never depart from your house, because you have despised Me, and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.'
11 "Thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will raise up adversity against you from your own house; and I will [a]take your wives before your eyes and give them to your neighbor, and he shall lie with your wives in the sight of this sun.
12 'For you did it secretly, [a]but I will do this thing before all Israel, before the sun.' "
13 [a]So David said to Nathan, [b]"I have sinned against the LORD." And Nathan said to David, "The LORD also has [c]put away your sin; you shall not die.

11:21 Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth is a reference to the son of Gideon, who was also called Jerubbaal (Judg. 6:32).

11:27 The usual length of time for mourning a death was seven days (1 Sam. 31:13).

12:9 David had broken the sixth, seventh, and tenth commandments (Ex. 20:13–17; Deut. 5:17–21): murder, adultery, and coveting.

12:10 Sin can be forgiven, but consequences remain. Judgment on David was fulfilled in the violation of Tamar (2 Sam. 13:11–14); the brutal deaths of Amnon (13:28, 29), Absalom (18:15), and Adonijah (1 Kin. 2:25); and Absalom's public acquisition of David's concubines (16:22).

12:13 David's confession is expressed in Psalm 51.

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Sam. 12:12

Secret Sin, Open Judgment

Even the most secretive sins are not hidden from God. The scriptures promise that the Lord will bring both exposure and justice in due time.

14 "However, because by this deed you have given great occasion to the enemies of the LORD [a]to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die."
15 Then Nathan departed to his house.

The Death of David's Son

And the [a]LORD struck the child that Uriah's wife bore to David, and it became ill.
16 David therefore pleaded with God for the child, and David fasted and went in and [a]lay all night on the ground.
17 So the elders of his house arose and went to him, to raise him up from the ground. But he would not, nor did he eat food with them.
18 Then on the seventh day it came to pass that the child died. And the servants of David were afraid to tell him that the child was dead. For they said, "Indeed, while the child was alive, we spoke to him, and he would not heed our voice. How can we tell him that the child is dead? He may do some harm!"
19 When David saw that his servants were whispering, David perceived that the child was dead. Therefore David said to his servants, "Is the child dead?" And they said, "He is dead."
20 So David arose from the ground, washed and [a]anointed himself, and changed his clothes; and he went into the house of the LORD and [b]worshiped. Then he went to his own house; and when he requested, they set food before him, and he ate.
21 Then his servants said to him, "What is this that you have done? You fasted and wept for the child while he was alive, but when the child died, you arose and ate food."
22 And he said, "While the child was alive, I fasted and wept; [a]for I said, 'Who can tell whether [1]the LORD will be gracious to me, that the child may live?'
23 "But now he is dead; why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I shall go [a]to him, but [b]he shall not return to me."

Solomon Is Born

24 Then David comforted Bathsheba his wife, and went in to her and lay with her. So [a]she bore a son, and [b]he[1] called his name Solomon. Now the LORD loved him, 25 and He sent word by the hand of Nathan the prophet: So [1]he called his name [2]Jedidiah, because of the LORD.

Rabbah Is Captured

26 Now [a]Joab fought against [b]Rabbah of the people of Ammon, and took the royal city.
27 And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, "I have fought against Rabbah, and I have taken the city's water supply.
28 "Now therefore, gather the rest of the people together and encamp against the city and take it, lest I take the city and it be called after my name."
29 So David gathered all the people together and went to Rabbah, fought against it, and took it.
30 [a]Then he took their king's crown from his head. Its weight was a talent of gold, with precious stones. And it was set on David's head. Also he brought out the [1]spoil of the city in great abundance.
31 And he brought out the people who were in it, and put them to work with saws and iron picks and iron axes, and made them cross over to the brick works. So he did to all the cities of the people of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

Amnon and Tamar

13 After this [a]Absalom the son of David had a lovely sister, whose name was [b]Tamar; and [c]Amnon the son of David loved her.
2 Amnon was so distressed over his sister Tamar that he became sick; for she was a virgin. And it was improper for Amnon to do anything to her.
3 But Amnon had a friend whose name was Jonadab [a]the son of Shimeah, David's brother. Now Jonadab was a very crafty man.
4 And he said to him, "Why are you, the king's son, becoming thinner day after

1 [a]2 Sam. 3:2, 3 [b]1 Chr. 3:9 [c]2 Sam. 3:2
3 [a]1 Sam. 16:9

12:18 The child died on the seventh day. Sons were to receive circumcision on the eighth day (Lev. 12:3), a physical sign of the covenant people. The child was therefore not in the covenant and his name is never mentioned.

12:24 Solomon literally means "His Peace" or "Peaceful."

12:25 Jedidiah means "Beloved of the Lord." Given by the prophet Nathan, this name also indicates God's forgiveness of David's sin was complete.

12:30 The crown weighed a talent of gold, or about seventy-five pounds. It was only worn for a short time on special occasions.

13:1 Absalom and Tamar were children of David and Maacah (2 Sam. 3:3). Amnon was the firstborn son of David and Ahinoam (3:2). Amnon could not legally marry his half sister (Lev. 18:11).

day? Will you not tell me?" Amnon said to him, "I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister."
5 So Jonadab said to him, "Lie down on your bed and pretend to be ill. And when your father comes to see you, say to him, 'Please let my sister Tamar come and give me food, and prepare the food in my sight, that I may see it and eat it from her hand.' "
6 Then Amnon lay down and pretended to be ill; and when the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, "Please let Tamar my sister come and [a]make a couple of cakes for me in my sight, that I may eat from her hand."
7 And David sent home to Tamar, saying, "Now go to your brother Amnon's house, and prepare food for him."
8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was lying down. Then she took flour and kneaded it, made cakes in his sight, and baked the cakes.
9 And she took the pan and placed them out before him, but he refused to eat. Then Amnon said, [a]"Have everyone go out from me." And they all went out from him.
10 Then Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the bedroom, that I may eat from your hand." And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them to Amnon her brother in the bedroom.
11 Now when she had brought them to him to eat, [a]he took hold of her and said to her, "Come, lie with me, my sister."
12 But she answered him, "No, my brother, do not [1]force me, for [a]no such thing should be done in Israel. Do not do this [b]disgraceful thing!
13 "And I, where could I take my shame? And as for you, you would be like one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, please speak to the king; [a]for he will not withhold me from you."
14 However, he would not heed her voice; and being stronger than she, he [a]forced her and lay with her.
15 Then Amnon hated her [1]exceedingly, so that the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, "Arise, be gone!"
16 So she said to him, "No, indeed! This evil of sending me away is worse than the other that you did to me." But he would not listen to her.

17 Then he called his servant who attended him, and said, "Here! Put this woman out, away from me, and bolt the door behind her."
18 Now she had on [a]a robe of many colors, for the king's virgin daughters wore such apparel. And his servant put her out and bolted the door behind her.
19 Then Tamar put [a]ashes on her head, and tore her robe of many colors that was on her, and [b]laid her hand on her head and went away crying bitterly.
20 And Absalom her brother said to her, "Has Amnon your brother been with you? But now hold your peace, my sister. He is your brother; do not take this thing to heart." So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom's house.
21 But when King David heard of all these things, he was very angry.
22 And Absalom spoke to his brother Amnon [a]neither good nor bad. For Absalom [b]hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

Absalom Murders Amnon

23 And it came to pass, after two full years, that Absalom [a]had sheepshearers in Baal Hazor, which is near Ephraim; so Absalom invited all the king's sons.
24 Then Absalom came to the king and said, "Kindly note, your servant has sheepshearers; please, let the king and his servants go with your servant."
25 But the king said to Absalom, "No, my son, let us not all go now, lest we be a burden to you." Then he urged him, but he would not go; and he blessed him.
26 Then Absalom said, "If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us." And the king said to him, "Why should he go with you?"
27 But Absalom urged him; so he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.
28 Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, "Watch now, when Amnon's [a]heart is merry with wine, and when I say to you, 'Strike Amnon!' then kill him. Do not be afraid. Have I not commanded you? Be courageous and [1]valiant."
29 So the servants of Absalom [a]did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and each one got on [b]his mule and fled.

13:21 Sexual intimacy with a sibling was a clear violation of God's law (Lev. 20:17), yet David did nothing about it.

13:28 Absalom followed his father David's example and ultimately committed both adultery and murder (2 Sam. 16:22).

13:29 A mule was the favored mount of royalty (2 Sam. 18:9; 1 Kin. 1:33; 44). A cross between a horse and a donkey, a mule combined the size and strength of the horse with the surefooted durability of the donkey.

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Sam. 13:29

Results of Sin

We can choose the sin, but we cannot choose the consequences. God alone is the judge and will bring retribution that inevitably affects those closest to us.

30 And it came to pass, while they were on the way, that news came to David, saying, "Absalom has killed all the king's sons, and not one of them is left!"
31 So the king arose and [a]tore his garments and [b]lay on the ground, and all his servants stood by with their clothes torn.
32 Then [a]Jonadab the son of Shimeah, David's brother, answered and said, "Let not my lord suppose they have killed all the young men, the king's sons, for only Amnon is dead. For by the command of Absalom this has been determined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar.
33 "Now therefore, [a]let not my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead. For only Amnon is dead."

Absalom Flees to Geshur

34 [a]Then Absalom fled. And the young man who was keeping watch lifted his eyes and looked, and there, many people were coming from the road on the hillside behind [1]him.
35 And Jonadab said to the king, "Look, the king's sons are coming; as your servant said, so it is."
36 So it was, as soon as he had finished speaking, that the king's sons indeed came, and they lifted up their voice and wept. Also the king and all his servants wept very bitterly.
37 But Absalom fled and went to [a]Talmai the son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son every day.
38 So Absalom fled and went to [a]Geshur, and was there three years.
39 And [1]King David [2]longed to go to Absalom. For he had been [a]comforted concerning Amnon, because he was dead.

Absalom Returns to Jerusalem

14 So Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart was concerned [a]about Absalom.

2 And Joab sent to [a]Tekoa and brought from there a wise woman, and said to her, "Please pretend to be a mourner, [b]and put on mourning apparel; do not anoint yourself with oil, but act like a woman who has been mourning a long time for the dead.
3 "Go to the king and speak to him in this manner." So Joab [a]put the words in her mouth.
4 And when the woman of Tekoa [1]spoke to the king, she [a]fell on her face to the ground and prostrated herself, and said, [b]"Help, O king!"
5 Then the king said to her, "What troubles you?" And she answered, [a]"Indeed I am a widow, my husband is dead.
6 "Now your maidservant had two sons; and the two fought with each other in the field, and there was no one to part them, but the one struck the other and killed him.
7 "And now the whole family has risen up against your maidservant, and they said, 'Deliver him who struck his brother, that we may execute him [a]for the life of his brother whom he killed; and we will destroy the heir also.' So they would extinguish my ember that is left, and leave to my husband neither name nor remnant on the earth."
8 Then the king said to the woman, "Go to your house, and I will give orders concerning you."
9 And the woman of Tekoa said to the king, "My lord, O king, let [a]the [1]iniquity be on me and on my father's house, [b]and the king and his throne be guiltless."
10 So the king said, "Whoever says anything to you, bring him to me, and he shall not touch you anymore."
11 Then she said, "Please let the king remember the LORD your God, and do not permit [a]the avenger of blood to destroy anymore, lest they destroy my son." And he said, [b]"As the LORD lives, not one hair of your son shall fall to the ground."
12 Therefore the woman said, "Please, let your maidservant speak another word to my lord the king." And he said, "Say on."
13 So the woman said: "Why then have you schemed such a thing against [a]the people of God? For the king speaks this thing as one who is guilty, in that the 13:37 Talmai was Absalom's grandfather, the father of David's wife Maacah (2 Sam. 3:3). He ruled the territory of Geshur, northeast of the Sea of Galilee.

14:2 Tekoa was six miles south of Bethlehem and was also the hometown of the prophet Amos.

14:3 Joab's story is remarkably similar to the story of Cain and Abel (Gen. 4:8–16), the first murder in human history. In the case of Absalom's murder of Amnon, the parallel story was told to persuade David to declare the same verdict the Lord gave to Cain.

14:11 "Avenger of blood," sometimes translated "kinsman-redeemer," referred to a victim's family member who sought retaliation for a murder. The law permitted this person to track down and execute the killer (Num. 35:12, 19–21).

king does not bring [b]his banished one home again.
14 "For we [a]will surely die and become like water spilled on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again. Yet God does not [b]take away a life; but He [c]devises means, so that His banished ones are not [1]expelled from Him.
15 "Now therefore, I have come to speak of this thing to my lord the king because the people have made me afraid. And your maidservant said, 'I will now speak to the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his maidservant.
16 'For the king will hear and deliver his maidservant from the hand of the man who would destroy me and my son together from the [a]inheritance of God.'
17 "Your maidservant said, 'The word of my lord the king will now be comforting; for [a]as the angel of God, so is my lord the king in [b]discerning good and evil. And may the LORD your God be with you.' "
18 Then the king answered and said to the woman, "Please do not hide from me anything that I ask you." And the woman said, "Please, let my lord the king speak."
19 So the king said, "Is the hand of Joab with you in all this?" And the woman answered and said, "As you live, my lord the king, no one can turn to the right hand or to the left from anything that my lord the king has spoken. For your servant Joab commanded me, and [a]he put all these words in the mouth of your maidservant.
20 "To bring about this change of affairs your servant Joab has done this thing; but my lord is wise, [a]according to the wisdom of the angel of God, to know everything that is in the earth."
21 And the king said to Joab, "All right, I have granted this thing. Go therefore, bring back the young man Absalom."
22 Then Joab fell to the ground on his face and bowed himself, and [1]thanked the king. And Joab said, "Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your sight, my lord, O king, in that the king has fulfilled the request of his servant."
23 So Joab arose [a]and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.
24 And the king said, "Let him return to his own house, but [a]do not let him see my face." So Absalom returned to his own house, but did not see the king's face.

David Forgives Absalom

25 Now in all Israel there was no one who was praised as much as Absalom for his good looks. [a]From the sole of his foot to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him.
26 And when he cut the hair of his head—at the end of every year he cut it because it was heavy on him—when he cut it, he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels according to the king's standard.
27 [a]To Absalom were born three sons, and one daughter whose name was Tamar. She was a woman of beautiful appearance.
28 And Absalom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, [a]but did not see the king's face.
29 Therefore Absalom sent for Joab, to send him to the king, but he would not come to him. And when he sent again the second time, he would not come.
30 So he said to his servants, "See, Joab's field is near mine, and he has barley there; go and set it on fire." And Absalom's servants set the field on fire.
31 Then Joab arose and came to Absalom's house, and said to him, "Why have your servants set my field on fire?"
32 And Absalom answered Joab, "Look, I sent to you, saying, 'Come here, so that I may send you to the king, to say, "Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me to be there still." ' Now therefore, let me see the king's face; but [a]if there is iniquity in me, let him execute me."
33 So Joab went to the king and told him. And when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king. Then the king [a]kissed Absalom.

ENCOUNTER Note — 2 Sam. 14:33

Mercy

Mercy begets mercy, and one who has been forgiven ought to extend forgiveness to others. Forgiveness is not determined by the offense, but by the heart of the offended.

Absalom's Treason

15 After this [a]it happened that Absalom [b]provided himself with chariots and horses, and fifty men to run before him.
2 Now Absalom would rise early and 14:33 A kiss was a sign of forgiveness and reconciliation.

stand beside the way to the gate. So it was, whenever anyone who had a [a]lawsuit[1] came to the king for a decision, that Absalom would call to him and say, "What city are you from?" And he would say, "Your servant is from such and such a tribe of Israel."
3 Then Absalom would say to him, "Look, your [1]case is good and right; but there is no [2]deputy of the king to hear you."
4 Moreover Absalom would say, [a]"Oh, that I were made judge in the land, and everyone who has any suit or cause would come to me; then I would give him justice."
5 And so it was, whenever anyone came near to bow down to him, that he would put out his hand and take him and [a]kiss him.
6 In this manner Absalom acted toward all Israel who came to the king for judgment. [a]So Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.
7 Now it came to pass [a]after [1]forty years that Absalom said to the king, "Please, let me go to [b]Hebron and pay the vow which I made to the LORD.
8 [a]"For your servant [b]took a vow [c]while I dwelt at Geshur in Syria, saying, 'If the LORD indeed brings me back to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD.' "
9 And the king said to him, "Go in peace." So he arose and went to Hebron.
10 Then Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then you shall say, 'Absalom [a]reigns in Hebron!' "
11 And with Absalom went two hundred men [a]invited from Jerusalem, and they [b]went along innocently and did not know anything.
12 Then Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, [a]David's counselor, from his city—from [b]Giloh—while he offered sacrifices. And the conspiracy grew strong, for the people with Absalom [c]continually increased in number.

David Escapes from Jerusalem

13 Now a messenger came to David, saying, [a]"The hearts of the men of Israel are [1]with Absalom."
14 So David said to all his servants who were with him at Jerusalem, "Arise, and let us [a]flee, or we shall not escape from Absalom. Make haste to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly and bring disaster upon us, and strike the city with the edge of the sword."
15 And the king's servants said to the king, "We are your servants, ready to do whatever my lord the king commands."
16 Then [a]the king went out with all his household after him. But the king left [b]ten women, concubines, to keep the house.
17 And the king went out with all the people after him, and stopped at the outskirts.
18 Then all his servants passed [1]before him; [a]and all the Cherethites, all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, [b]six hundred men who had followed him from Gath, passed before the king.
19 Then the king said to [a]Ittai the Gittite, "Why are you also going with us? Return and remain with the king. For you are a foreigner and also an exile from your own place.
20 "In fact, you came only yesterday. Should I make you wander up and down with us today, since I go [a]I know not where? Return, and take your brethren back. Mercy and truth be with you."
21 But Ittai answered the king and said, [a]"As the LORD lives, and as my lord the king lives, surely in whatever place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also your servant will be."

CHARACTER Study — ABSALOM — 2 Sam. 15:1

Absalom, whose name means "Father of Peace," was King David's third son, born to Maacah, daughter of the king of Geshur (3:3). Absalom, along with his sister Tamar, was attractive in appearance. Tamar was raped by her half brother, Amnon (13:1–18), and Absalom avenged his sister two years later by having Amnon murdered (13:28, 29). Absalom suffered much from his father's neglect. David did not punish Amnon for raping Tamar. Neither did he restore Absalom to favor until after five years of separation from his son. Neglected by his father, Absalom finally launched a rebellion. However, David and his allies completely outmaneuvered Absalom's forces. The devious Joab disobeyed David's direct order and murdered Absalom (18:14, 15). Pride, hatred, and ambition were Absalom's downfall.

15:12 Ahithophel was Bathsheba's grandfather (2 Sam. 11:3; 23:34) and an esteemed royal advisor (16:23). Giloh was a city in the mountains of Judah (Josh. 15:51).

15:18 Cherethites and Pelethites were elite sections of David's army. They were not Israelites, but mercenaries from other nations. Gittites were Philistine mercenaries who became loyal to David during his time in Gath (1 Sam. 21:10–15).

22 So David said to Ittai, "Go, and cross over." Then Ittai the Gittite and all his men and all the little ones who were with him crossed over.
23 And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people crossed over. The king himself also crossed over the Brook Kidron, and all the people crossed over toward the way of the [a]wilderness.
24 There was [a]Zadok also, and all the Levites with him, bearing the [b]ark of the covenant of God. And they set down the ark of God, and [c]Abiathar went up until all the people had finished crossing over from the city.
25 Then the king said to Zadok, "Carry the ark of God back into the city. If I find favor in the eyes of the LORD, He [a]will bring me back and show me both it and [b]His dwelling place.

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Sam. 15:25

Genuine Love

Genuine love for God is expressed in the sacrifice of self-interest in favor of God's will.

26 "But if He says thus: 'I have no [a]delight in you,' here I am, [b]let Him do to me as seems good to Him."
27 The king also said to Zadok the priest, "Are you not a [a]seer?[1] Return to the city in peace, and [b]your two sons with you, Ahimaaz your son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar.
28 "See, [a]I will wait in the plains of the wilderness until word comes from you to inform me."
29 Therefore Zadok and Abiathar carried the ark of God back to Jerusalem. And they remained there.
30 So David went up by the Ascent of the Mount of Olives, and wept as he went up; and he [a]had his head covered and went [b]barefoot. And all the people who were with him [c]covered their heads and went up, [d]weeping as they went up.
31 Then someone told David, saying, [a]"Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom." And David said, "O LORD, I pray, [b]turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness!"
32 Now it happened when David had come to the top of the mountain, where he worshiped God—there was Hushai the [a]Archite coming to meet him [b]with his robe torn and dust on his head.
33 David said to him, "If you go on with me, then you will become [a]a burden to me.
34 "But if you return to the city, and say to Absalom, [a]'I will be your servant, O king; as I was your father's servant previously, so I will now also be your servant,' then you may defeat the counsel of Ahithophel for me.
35 "And do you not have Zadok and Abiathar the priests with you there? Therefore it will be that whatever you hear from the king's house, you shall tell to [a]Zadok and Abiathar the priests.
36 "Indeed they have there [a]with them their two sons, Ahimaaz, Zadok's son, and Jonathan, Abiathar's son; and by them you shall send me everything you hear."
37 So Hushai, [a]David's friend, went into the city. [b]And Absalom came into Jerusalem.

Mephibosheth's Servant

16 When[a] David was a little past the top of the mountain, there was [b]Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth, who met him with a couple of saddled donkeys, and on them two hundred loaves of bread, one hundred clusters of raisins, one hundred summer fruits, and a skin of wine.
2 And the king said to Ziba, "What do you mean to do with these?" So Ziba said, "The donkeys are for the king's household to ride on, the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat, and the wine for [a]those who are faint in the wilderness to drink."
3 Then the king said, "And where is your [a]master's son?" [b]And Ziba said to the king, "Indeed he is staying in Jerusalem, for he said, 'Today the house of Israel will restore the kingdom of my father to me.' "
4 So the king said to Ziba, "Here, all that belongs to Mephibosheth is yours." And Ziba said, "I humbly bow before you, that I may find favor in your sight, my lord, O king!"

15:23 The Brook Kidron is a small stream that separates Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives. The "way of the wilderness" was a road leading through the wilderness of Judah to Jericho and on to the Jordan.

15:30 A covered head and bare feet were outward signs of mourning.

15:32 Hushai the Arkite was a faithful member of David's court. He is called the "king's friend" (1 Chr. 27:33), which appears to be an official title for a king's personal advisor. The Arkites were probably a non-Israelite clan that lived southwest of Bethel (Josh. 16:2).

16:1 Ziba was a trusted servant of both Saul and Mephibosheth.

16:5 Bahurim was near Jerusalem, just east of the Mount of Olives. Shimei the son of Gera was a distant relative of Saul (2 Sam. 19:16–23).

family of the house of Saul, whose name was [b]Shimei the son of Gera, coming from there. He came out, cursing continuously as he came.
6 And he threw stones at David and at all the servants of King David. And all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left.
7 Also Shimei said thus when he cursed: "Come out! Come out! You [1]bloodthirsty man, [a]you [2]rogue!
8 "The LORD has [a]brought upon you all [b]the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned; and the LORD has delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom your son. So now you are caught in your own evil, because you are a [1]bloodthirsty man!"
9 Then Abishai the son of Zeruiah said to the king, "Why should this [a]dead dog [b]curse my lord the king? Please, let me go over and take off his head!"
10 But the king said, [a]"What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah? So let him curse, because [b]the LORD has said to him, 'Curse David.' [c]Who then shall say, 'Why have you done so?' "
11 And David said to Abishai and all his servants, "See how [a]my son who [b]came from my own body seeks my life. How much more now may this Benjamite? Let him alone, and let him curse; for so the LORD has ordered him.
12 "It may be that the LORD will look on [1]my affliction, and that the LORD will [a]repay me with [b]good for his cursing this day."

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Sam. 16:12

God Sees

Learn to let God avenge a wrong done, for His justice is both righteous and complete.

13 And as David and his men went along the road, Shimei went along the hillside opposite him and cursed as he went, threw stones at him and [1]kicked up dust.
14 Now the king and all the people who were with him became weary; so they refreshed themselves there.

The Advice of Ahithophel

15 Meanwhile [a]Absalom and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem; and Ahithophel was with him.
16 And so it was, when Hushai the Archite, [a]David's friend, came to Absalom, that [b]Hushai said to Absalom, "Long live the king! Long live the king!"
17 So Absalom said to Hushai, "Is this your loyalty to your friend? [a]Why did you not go with your friend?"
18 And Hushai said to Absalom, "No, but whom the LORD and this people and all the men of Israel choose, his I will be, and with him I will remain.
19 "Furthermore, [a]whom should I serve? Should I not serve in the presence of his son? As I have served in your father's presence, so will I be in your presence."
20 Then Absalom said to [a]Ahithophel, "Give advice as to what we should do."
21 And Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Go in to your father's [a]concubines, whom he has left to keep the house; and all Israel will hear that you [b]are abhorred by your father. Then [c]the hands of all who are with you will be strong."
22 So they pitched a tent for Absalom on the top of the house, and Absalom went in to his father's concubines [a]in the sight of all Israel.
23 Now the advice of Ahithophel, which he gave in those days, was as if one had inquired at the oracle of God. So was all the advice of Ahithophel [a]both with David and with Absalom.

17 Moreover Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Now let me choose twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue David tonight.
2 "I will come upon him while he is [a]weary and weak, and make him [1]afraid. And all the people who are with him will flee, and I will [b]strike only the king.
3 "Then I will bring back all the people to you. When all return except the man whom you seek, all the people will be at peace."
4 And the saying pleased Absalom and all the [a]elders of Israel.

The Advice of Hushai

5 Then Absalom said, "Now call Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear what he [a]says too."
6 And when Hushai came to Absalom, Absalom spoke to him, saying, "Ahithophel has spoken in this manner. Shall we do as he says? If not, speak up."

CHAPTER 17

2 [a]2 Sam. 16:14 [b]Zech. 13:7 [1]tremble with fear
4 [a]2 Sam. 5:3; 19:11
5 [a]2 Sam. 15: 32–34

16:21 Ahithophel's plan seemed to fulfill the Torah's lex talionis ("eye for an eye, tooth for a tooth," Ex. 21:24; Lev. 24:20). Just as David had unlawful sexual relations with Ahithophel's granddaughter Bathsheba, so Absalom would do the same with David's concubines.

16:22 Concubines were a king's unofficial wives. Taking a king's harem was tantamount to usurping his throne. The tent placed on the roof of the palace was probably a bridal tent. Absalom's public display was intended to bring a clear and irreversible division between him and his father, forcing the people to choose their allegiance.

7 So Hushai said to Absalom: "The advice that Ahithophel has given is not good at this time.
8 "For," said Hushai, "you know your father and his men, that they are mighty men, and they are enraged in their minds, like [a]a bear robbed of her cubs in the field; and your father is a man of war, and will not camp with the people.
9 "Surely by now he is hidden in some pit, or in some other place. And it will be, when some of them are overthrown at the first, that whoever hears it will say, 'There is a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom.'
10 "And even he who is valiant, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, will [a]melt completely. For all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and those who are with him are valiant men.
11 "Therefore I advise that all Israel be fully gathered to you, [a]from Dan to Beersheba, [b]like the sand that is by the sea for multitude, and that you go to battle in person.
12 "So we will come upon him in some place where he may be found, and we will fall on him as the dew falls on the ground. And of him and all the men who are with him there shall not be left so much as one.
13 "Moreover, if he has withdrawn into a city, then all Israel shall bring ropes to that city; and we will [a]pull it into the river, until there is not one small stone found there."
14 So Absalom and all the men of Israel said, "The advice of Hushai the Archite is better than the advice of Ahithophel." For [a]the LORD had purposed to defeat the good advice of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring disaster on Absalom.

Worldly Advice

Worldly advice will come like waves, tossing you this way and that. Always test human reasoning against God's word. His wisdom will confirm your direction.

Hushai Warns David to Escape

15 [a]Then Hushai said to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, "Thus and so Ahithophel advised Absalom and the elders of Israel, and thus and so I have advised.
16 "Now therefore, send quickly and tell David, saying, 'Do not spend this night [a]in the plains of the wilderness, but speedily cross over, lest the king and all the people who are with him be swallowed up.' "
17 [a]Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz [b]stayed at [c]En Rogel, for they dared not be seen coming into the city; so a female servant would come and tell them, and they would go and tell King David.
18 Nevertheless a lad saw them, and told Absalom. But both of them went away quickly and came to a man's house [a]in Bahurim, who had a well in his court; and they went down into it.
19 [a]Then the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground grain on it; and the thing was not known.
20 And when Absalom's servants came to the woman at the house, they said, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?" So [a]the woman said to them, "They have gone over the water brook." And when they had searched and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.
21 Now it came to pass, after they had departed, that they came up out of the well and went and told King David, and said to David, a"Arise and cross over the water quickly. For thus has Ahithophel advised against you."
22 So David and all the people who were with him arose and crossed over the Jordan. By morning light not one of them was left who had not gone over the Jordan.
23 Now when Ahithophel saw that his advice was not followed, he saddled a donkey, and arose and went home to [a]his house, to his city. Then he [1]put his [b]household in order, and [c]hanged himself, and died; and he was buried in his father's tomb.
24 Then David went to [a]Mahanaim. And Absalom crossed over the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him.
25 And Absalom made [a]Amasa captain of the army instead of Joab. This Amasa was the son of a man whose name was [1]Jithra, an [2]Israelite, who had gone in to [b]Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister of Zeruiah, Joab's mother.

17:9 The terrain of Judah is covered with caves, ravines, and hiding places.
17:16 The "plains of the wilderness" refers to the Jordan valley near Jericho.
17:17 En Rogel was a spring or well south of Jerusalem where the Hinnom and Kidron valleys intersect (Josh. 15:7; 18:16), a quarter of a mile from Jerusalem.
17:18 "Well" may also be translated "pit" or "cistern."
17:24 Mahanaim was previously Ishbosheth's capital (2 Sam. 2:8).
17:25 Amasa was David's nephew and was cousin to both Absalom and Joab.

26 So Israel and Absalom encamped in the land of Gilead.
27 Now it happened, when David had come to Mahanaim, that [a]Shobi the son of Nahash from Rabbah of the people of Ammon, [b]Machir the son of Ammiel from Lo Debar, and [c]Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim,
28 brought beds and basins, earthen vessels and wheat, barley and flour, parched grain and beans, lentils and parched seeds,
29 honey and curds, sheep and cheese of the herd, for David and the people who were with him to eat. For they said, "The people are hungry and weary and thirsty [a]in the wilderness."

Absalom's Defeat and Death

18 And David [1]numbered the people who were with him, and [a]set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them.
2 Then David sent out one third of the people under the hand of Joab, [a]one third under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and one third under the hand of [b]Ittai the Gittite. And the king said to the people, "I also will surely go out with you myself."
3 [a]But the people answered, "You shall not go out! For if we flee away, they will not care about us; nor if half of us die, will they care about us. But you are worth ten thousand of us now. For you are now more help to us in the city."
4 Then the king said to them, "Whatever seems best to you I will do." So the king stood beside the gate, and all the people went out by hundreds and by thousands.
5 Now the king had commanded Joab, Abishai, and Ittai, saying, "Deal gently for my sake with the young man Absalom." [a]And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains orders concerning Absalom.
6 So the people went out into the field of battle against Israel. And the battle was in the [a]woods of Ephraim.
7 The people of Israel were overthrown there before the servants of David, and a great slaughter of twenty thousand took place there that day.

Be Gentle

The justice of God is true, and the consequences of sin are certain. So show kindness to others and leave justice to God.

8 For the battle there was scattered over the face of the whole countryside, and the woods devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.
9 Then Absalom met the servants of David. Absalom rode on a mule. The mule went under the thick boughs of a great terebinth tree, and [a]his head caught in the terebinth; so he was left hanging between heaven and earth. And the mule which was under him went on.
10 Now a certain man saw it and told Joab, and said, "I just saw Absalom hanging in a terebinth tree!"
11 So Joab said to the man who told him, "You just saw him! And why did you not strike him there to the ground? I would have given you ten shekels of silver and a belt."
12 But the man said to Joab, "Though I were to receive a thousand shekels of silver in my hand, I would not raise my hand against the king's son. [a]For in our hearing the king commanded you and Abishai and Ittai, saying, [1]'Beware lest anyone touch the young man Absalom!'
13 "Otherwise I would have dealt falsely against my own life. For there is nothing hidden from the king, and you yourself would have set yourself against me."
14 Then Joab said, "I cannot linger with you." And he took three spears in his hand and thrust them through Absalom's heart, while he was still alive in the midst of the terebinth tree.
15 And ten young men who bore Joab's armor surrounded Absalom, and struck and killed him.
16 So Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing Israel. For Joab held back the people.
17 And they took Absalom and cast him into a large pit in the woods, and [a]laid a 17:26 Gilead was famous for its forests (Jer. 22:6), pasture lands (Num. 32:1–4), and healing ointments extracted from its plants (Jer. 8:22; 46:11). It is located in the mountainous region east of the Jordan between the Yarmuk and Jabbok valleys.

17:27 Shobi was a vassal king under David. He ruled Rabbah, the capital of Ammon. He was apparently the brother of Hanun, whom David defeated earlier in his reign (2 Sam. 12:26–31). Lo Debar was about ten miles south of the Sea of Galilee (9:4).

18:2 Joab, the younger son of David's sister Zeruiah, became commander after his heroic leadership in the capture of Jerusalem (1 Chr. 11:6); Abishai, Joab's older brother, was known for his brave yet impulsive spirit (1 Sam. 26:9; 2 Sam. 3:30; 16:9); and Ittai was a Philistine from Gath who was fully committed to David (2 Sam. 15:19–22).

18:9 "Terebinth tree" is sometimes translated "oak" or "elm." It was a strong tree native to Israel that grows to a height of thirty-five feet. Though not stated, Absalom's abundant hair (2 Sam. 14:26) possibly became entangled in the tree.

18:16 The trumpet was a ram's horn or shofar (2 Sam. 2:28; 6:15). Its sound signaled the end of the rebellion.

very large heap of stones over him. Then all Israel [b]fled, everyone to his tent.
18 Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and set up a [1]pillar for himself, which is in [a]the King's Valley. For he said, [b]"I have no son to keep my name in remembrance." He called the pillar after his own name. And to this day it is called Absalom's Monument.

David Hears of Absalom's Death

19 Then [a]Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, "Let me run now and take the news to the king, how the LORD has [1]avenged him of his enemies."
20 And Joab said to him, "You shall not take the news this day, for you shall take the news another day. But today you shall take no news, because the king's son is dead."
21 Then Joab said to the Cushite, "Go, tell the king what you have seen." So the Cushite bowed himself to Joab and ran.
22 And Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said again to Joab, "But [1]whatever happens, please let me also run after the Cushite." So Joab said, "Why will you run, my son, since you have no news ready?"
23 "But whatever happens," he said, "let me run." So he said to him, "Run." Then Ahimaaz ran by way of the plain, and outran the Cushite.
24 Now David was sitting between the [a]two gates. And the watchman went up to the roof over the gate, to the wall, lifted his eyes and looked, and there was a man, running alone.
25 Then the watchman cried out and told the king. And the king said, "If he is alone, there is news in his mouth." And he came rapidly and drew near.
26 Then the watchman saw another man running, and the watchman called to the gatekeeper and said, "There is another man, running alone!" And the king said, "He also brings news."
27 So the watchman said, [1]"I think the running of the first is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok." And the king said, "He is a good man, and comes with [a]good news."
28 So Ahimaaz called out and said to the king, [1]"All is well!" Then he bowed down with his face to the earth before the king, and said, [a]"Blessed be the LORD your God, who has delivered up the men who raised their hand against my lord the king!"
29 The king said, "Is the young man Absalom safe?" Ahimaaz answered, "When Joab sent the king's servant and me your servant, I saw a great tumult, but I did not know what it was about."
30 And the king said, "Turn aside and stand here." So he turned aside and stood still.
31 Just then the Cushite came, and the Cushite said, "There is good news, my lord the king! For the LORD has avenged you this day of all those who rose against you."
32 And the king said to the Cushite, "Is the young man Absalom safe?" So the Cushite answered, "May the enemies of my lord the king, and all who rise against you to do harm, be like that young man!"

David's Mourning for Absalom

33 Then the king was deeply moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept. And as he went, he said thus: [a]"O my son Absalom—my son, my son Absalom—if only I had died in your place! O Absalom my son, [b]my son!"
19 And Joab was told, "Behold, the king is weeping and [a]mourning for Absalom."
2 So the victory that day was turned into [a]mourning for all the people. For the people heard it said that day, "The king is grieved for his son."
3 And the people [1]stole back [a]into the city that day, as people who are ashamed steal away when they flee in battle.
4 But the king [a]covered his face, and the king cried out with a loud voice, [b]"O my son Absalom! O Absalom, my son, my son!"
5 Then [a]Joab came into the house to the king, and said, "Today you have disgraced all your servants who today have saved your life, the lives of your sons and daughters, the lives of your wives and the lives of your concubines,
6 "in that you love your enemies and hate your friends. For you have declared today that you [1]regard neither princes nor servants; for today I perceive that if Absalom had lived and all of us had died today, then it would have pleased you well.
7 "Now therefore, arise, go out and speak [1]comfort to your servants. For I swear by the LORD, if you do not go out, not one will stay with you this night. And that will be worse for you than all the evil that has befallen you from your youth until now."
8 Then the king arose and sat in the [a]gate. And they told all the people, say-

Cost of Following

Sometimes the greatest burden of following the Lord is not what it will cost you, but what it costs others for you to follow God's will.

ing, "There is the king, sitting in the gate." So all the people came before the king. For everyone of Israel had [b]fled to his tent.

David Returns to Jerusalem

9 Now all the people were in a dispute throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "The king saved us from the hand of our [a]enemies, he delivered us from the hand of the [b]Philistines, and now he has [c]fled from the land because of Absalom.
10 "But Absalom, whom we anointed over us, has died in battle. Now therefore, why do you say nothing about bringing back the king?"
11 So King David sent to [a]Zadok and Abiathar the priests, saying, "Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, 'Why are you the last to bring the king back to his house, since the words of all Israel have come to the king, to his very house?
12 'You are my brethren, you are [a]my bone and my flesh. Why then are you the last to bring back the king?'
13 [a]"And say to Amasa, 'Are you not my bone and my flesh? [b]God do so to me, and more also, if you are not commander of the army before me [1]continually in place of Joab.' "
14 So he swayed the hearts of all the men of Judah, [a]just as the heart of one man, so that they sent this word to the king: "Return, you and all your servants!"
15 Then the king returned and came to the Jordan. And Judah came to [a]Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to escort the king [b]across the Jordan.
16 And [a]Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite, who was from Bahurim, hurried and came down with the men of Judah to meet King David.
17 There were a thousand men of [a]Benjamin with him, and [b]Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they went over the Jordan before the king.
18 Then a ferryboat went across to carry over the king's household, and to do what he thought good.

David's Mercy to Shimei

Now Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king when he had crossed the Jordan.
19 Then he said to the king, [a]"Do not let my lord [1]impute iniquity to me, or remember what [b]wrong your servant did on the day that my lord the king left Jerusalem, that the king should [c]take it to heart.
20 "For I, your servant, know that I have sinned. Therefore here I am, the first to come today of all [a]the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king."
21 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, "Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, [a]because he [b]cursed the LORD's anointed?"
22 And David said, [a]"What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah, that you should be adversaries to me today? [b]Shall any man be put to death today in Israel? For do I not know that today I am king over Israel?"
23 Therefore [a]the king said to Shimei, "You shall not die." And the king swore to him.

David and Mephibosheth Meet

24 Now [a]Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king. And he had not cared for his feet, nor trimmed his mustache, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he returned in peace.
25 So it was, when he had come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said to him, [a]"Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?"
26 And he answered, "My lord, O king, my servant deceived me. For your servant said, 'I will saddle a donkey for myself, that I may ride on it and go to the king,' because your servant is lame.
27 "And [a]he has slandered your servant to my lord the king, [b]but my lord the king is like the angel of God. Therefore do what is good in your eyes.
28 "For all my father's house were but dead men before my lord the king. [a]Yet you set your servant among those who eat at your own table. Therefore what right have I still to [1]cry out anymore to the king?"
29 So the king said to him, "Why do you speak anymore of your matters? I have said, 'You and Ziba divide the land.' "

19:13 Amasa had commanded Absalom's army. David's offer of Joab's position as the army's commander in chief was both a political move to secure allegiance of the rebel army and an act of discipline over Joab for killing Absalom against David's direct orders.

19:23 Shimei deserved death for treason, but David showed mercy. This was contingent, however, upon Shimei's loyalty, for on his deathbed David ordered Solomon to put Shimei to death (1 Kin. 2:8, 9, 36–46).

30 Then Mephibosheth said to the king, "Rather, let him take it all, inasmuch as my lord the king has come back in peace to his own house."

David's Kindness to Barzillai

31 And [a]Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim and went across the Jordan with the king, to escort him across the Jordan.
32 Now Barzillai was a very aged man, eighty years old. And [a]he had provided the king with supplies while he stayed at Mahanaim, for he was a very rich man.
33 And the king said to Barzillai, "Come across with me, and I will provide for you while you are with me in Jerusalem."
34 But Barzillai said to the king, "How long have I to live, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem?
35 "I am today [a]eighty years old. Can I discern between the good and bad? Can your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? Can I hear any longer the voice of singing men and singing women? Why then should your servant be a further burden to my lord the king?
36 "Your servant will go a little way across the Jordan with the king. And why should the king repay me with such a reward?
37 "Please let your servant turn back again, that I may die in my own city, near the grave of my father and mother. But here is your servant [a]Chimham; let him cross over with my lord the king, and do for him what seems good to you."
38 And the king answered, "Chimham shall cross over with me, and I will do for him what seems good to you. Now whatever you request of me, I will do for you."
39 Then all the people went over the Jordan. And when the king had crossed over, the king [a]kissed Barzillai and blessed him, and he returned to his own place.

The Quarrel About the King

40 Now the king went on to Gilgal, and [1]Chimham went on with him. And all the people of Judah escorted the king, and also half the people of Israel.
41 Just then all the men of Israel came to the king, and said to the king, "Why have our brethren, the men of Judah, stolen you away and [a]brought the king, his household, and all David's men with him across the Jordan?"
42 So all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, "Because the king is [a]a close relative of ours. Why then are you angry over this matter? Have we ever eaten at the king's expense? Or has he given us any gift?"
43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, "We have [a]ten shares in the king; therefore we also have more right to David than you. Why then do you despise us—were we not the first to advise bringing back our king?" Yet [b]the words of the men of Judah were [1]fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

The Rebellion of Sheba

20 And there happened to be there a [1]rebel, whose name was Sheba the son of Bichri, a Benjamite. And he blew a trumpet, and said:

[a]"We have no share in David,
Nor do we have inheritance in the son of Jesse;
[b]Every man to his tents, O Israel!"

2 So every man of Israel deserted David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri. But the [a]men of Judah, from the Jordan as far as Jerusalem, remained loyal to their king.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Sam. 20:2

Remain Loyal

In the midst of God's activity, there will be people who misunderstand and oppose His work. On the heels of victory often comes the despair of human failure. Keep your eyes on the Lord and be faithful to the end.

3 Now David came to his house at Jerusalem. And the king took the ten women, [a]his concubines whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in seclusion and supported them, but did not go in to them. So they were shut up to the day of their death, living in widowhood.
4 And the king said to Amasa, [a]"Assemble the men of Judah for me within three days, and be present here yourself."
5 So Amasa went to assemble the men of Judah. But he delayed longer than the set time which David had appointed him.
6 And David said to [a]Abishai, "Now

19:37 Chimham was likely a son of Barzillai (1 Kin. 2:7). David's favor toward him was an expression of his love for Chimham's father, similar to the kindness he showed Mephibosheth because he loved Jonathan.

20:1 Sheba was a Benjamite from the same tribe as Saul. Tribal jealousy arose with the transfer of the royal house from Benjamin to Judah. "Rebel" is literally "man of Belial" and means something like "troublemaker" or "scoundrel."

Sheba the son of Bichri will do us more harm than Absalom. Take [b]your lord's servants and pursue him, lest he find for himself fortified cities, and escape us."
7 So Joab's men, with the [a]Cherethites, the Pelethites, and [b]all the mighty men, went out after him. And they went out of Jerusalem to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.
8 When they were at the large stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa came before them. Now Joab was dressed in battle armor; on it was a belt with a sword fastened in its sheath at his hips; and as he was going forward, it fell out.
9 Then Joab said to Amasa, "Are you in health, my brother?" [a]And Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him.
10 But Amasa did not notice the sword that was in Joab's hand. And [a]he struck him with it [b]in the stomach, and his entrails poured out on the ground; and he did not strike him again. Thus he died. Then Joab and Abishai his brother pursued Sheba the son of Bichri.
11 Meanwhile one of Joab's men stood near Amasa, and said, "Whoever favors Joab and whoever is for David—follow Joab!"
12 But Amasa wallowed in his blood in the middle of the highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he moved Amasa from the highway to the field and threw a garment over him, when he saw that everyone who came upon him halted.
13 When he was removed from the highway, all the people went on after Joab to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.
14 And he went through all the tribes of Israel to [a]Abel and Beth Maachah and all the Berites. So they were gathered together and also went after [1]Sheba.
15 Then they came and besieged him in Abel of Beth Maachah; and they [a]cast up a siege mound against the city, and it stood by the rampart. And all the people who were with Joab battered the wall to throw it down.
16 Then a wise woman cried out from the city, "Hear, hear! Please say to Joab, 'Come nearby, that I may speak with you.' "
17 When he had come near to her, the woman said, "Are you Joab?" He answered, "I am." Then she said to him, "Hear the words of your maidservant." And he answered, "I am listening."
18 So she spoke, saying, "They used to talk in former times, saying, 'They shall surely seek guidance at Abel,' and so they would end disputes.
19 "I am among the peaceable and faithful in Israel. You seek to destroy a city and a mother in Israel. Why would you swallow up [a]the inheritance of the LORD?"
20 And Joab answered and said, "Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy!
21 "That is not so. But a man from the mountains of Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, has raised his hand against the king, against David. Deliver him only, and I will depart from the city." So the woman said to Joab, "Watch, his head will be thrown to you over the wall."
22 Then the woman [a]in her wisdom went to all the people. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and threw it out to Joab. Then he blew a trumpet, and they withdrew from the city, every man to his tent. So Joab returned to the king at Jerusalem.

David's Government Officers

23 And [a]Joab was over all the army of Israel; Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites;
24 Adoram was [a]in charge of revenue; [b]Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder;
25 Sheva was scribe; [a]Zadok and Abiathar were the priests;
26 [a]and Ira the Jairite was [1]a chief minister under David.

David Avenges the Gibeonites

21 Now there was a famine in the days of David for three years, year after year; and David [a]inquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, "It is because of Saul and his [1]bloodthirsty house, because he killed the Gibeonites."
2 So the king called the Gibeonites and spoke to them. Now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but [a]of the remnant of the Amorites; the children of Israel had sworn protection to them, but Saul had sought to kill them [b]in his zeal for the children of Israel and Judah.
3 Therefore David said to the Gibeonites,

2 [a]Josh. 9:3, 15–20 [b][Ex. 34:11–16]

20:7 "Joab's men" were apparently an elite group of warriors within David's army that was loyal to Joab.

20:10 Joab again defies David's order, this time by murdering Amasa and reassuming command of David's army.

20:14 Abel and Beth Maachah were cities in northern Galilee, four miles west of Dan (1 Kin. 15:20).

20:15 A siege mound was a pile of dirt and debris placed against a city wall to allow soldiers to climb to the top and overcome it.

21:1 2 Samuel 21:1—24:25 serves as an appendix to 1 and 2 Samuel, including additional material related to David's reign that is not in chronological order. Instead, the material is framed topically using the literary pattern a-b-c-c-b-a, which is common in Old Testament literature.

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Sam. 21:1

Lasting Consequences

A leader's sins can affect succeeding generations. Sin against God is profound in its impact. Both faithfulness and rebellion leave a legacy.

"What shall I do for you? And with what shall I make atonement, that you may bless [a]the inheritance of the LORD?"
4 And the Gibeonites said to him, "We will have no silver or gold from Saul or from his house, nor shall you kill any man in Israel for us." So he said, "Whatever you say, I will do for you."
5 Then they answered the king, "As for the man who consumed us and plotted against us, that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the territories of Israel,
6 "let seven men of his descendants be delivered [a]to us, and we will hang them before the LORD [b]in Gibeah of Saul, [c]whom the LORD chose." And the king said, "I will give them."
7 But the king spared [a]Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, because of [b]the LORD's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.
8 So the king took Armoni and Mephibosheth, the two sons of [a]Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul, and the five sons of [1]Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she [2]brought up for Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite;
9 and he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them on the hill [a]before the LORD. So they fell, all seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, in the beginning of barley harvest.
10 Now [a]Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth and spread it for herself on the rock, [b]from the beginning of harvest until the late rains poured on them from heaven. And she did not allow the birds of the air to rest on them by day nor the beasts of the field by night.
11 And David was told what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done.

12 Then David went and took the bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan his son, from the men of [a]Jabesh Gilead who had stolen them from the street of [1]Beth Shan, where the [b]Philistines had hung them up, after the Philistines had struck down Saul in Gilboa.
13 So he brought up the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from there; and they gathered the bones of those who had been hanged.
14 They buried the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son in the country of Benjamin in [a]Zelah, in the tomb of Kish his father. So they performed all that the king commanded. And after that [b]God heeded the prayer for the land.

Philistine Giants Destroyed

15 When the Philistines were at war again with Israel, David and his servants with him went down and fought against the Philistines; and David grew faint.
16 Then Ishbi-Benob, who was one of the sons of [1]the [a]giant, the weight of whose bronze spear was three hundred shekels, who was bearing a new sword, thought he could kill David.
17 But [a]Abishai the son of Zeruiah came to his aid, and struck the Philistine and killed him. Then the men of David swore to him, saying, [b]"You shall go out no more with us to battle, lest you quench the [c]lamp of Israel."
18 [a]Now it happened afterward that there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gob. Then [b]Sibbechai the Hushathite killed [1]Saph, who was one of the sons of [2]the giant.
19 Again there was war at Gob with the Philistines, where [a]Elhanan the son of [1]Jaare-Oregim the Bethlehemite killed [b]the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.
20 Yet again [a]there was war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, who had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number; and he also was born to [1]the giant.
21 So when he [a]defied Israel, Jonathan the son of [1]Shimea, David's brother, killed him.

21:1–14 The events of 2 Samuel 21:1–14 probably occurred after David's kindness to Mephibosheth and before Absalom's rebellion.

21:2 Gibeonites were Canaanites living about six miles northwest of Jerusalem. "Amorites" is used as a general designation for the original people of Canaan (Gen. 15:16; Josh. 24:18; Judg. 6:10).

21:6 Seven was the number of completeness, signifying full restitution.

21:8 Barzillai mentioned here is not the loyal friend of David mentioned in 2 Sam. 17:27.

21:14 Zelah was a town given to the tribe of Benjamin (Josh. 18:28).

21:15 Second Samuel 21:15–22 records the battles of David and his men against the Philistines. "Giants" in this account refers to the Rephaim, who were known for their great size (Gen. 15:20; Num. 13:33; Deut. 2:11).

21:16 Three hundred shekels is equivalent to seven and a half pounds.

21:18 Sibbechai the Hushathite was one of David's mighty men (1 Chr. 11:29).

22 [a]These four were born to [1]the giant in Gath, and fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

Praise for God's Deliverance

22 Then David [a]spoke to the LORD the words of this song, on the day when the LORD had [b]delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul.
2 And he [a]said:

[b]"The LORD is my rock and my
[c]fortress and my deliverer;
3 The God of my strength, [a]in whom I will trust;
My [b]shield and the [c]horn[1] of my salvation,
My [d]stronghold and my [e]refuge;
My Savior, You save me from violence.
4 I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised;
So shall I be saved from my enemies.

5 "When the waves of death surrounded me,
The floods of ungodliness [1]made me afraid.
6 The [a]sorrows of Sheol surrounded me;
The snares of death confronted me.
7 In my distress [a]I called upon the LORD,
And cried out to my God;
He [b]heard my voice from His temple,
And my cry entered His ears.

8 "Then [a]the earth shook and trembled;
[b]The foundations of [1]heaven quaked and were shaken,
Because He was angry.
9 Smoke went up from His nostrils,
And devouring [a]fire from His mouth;
Coals were kindled by it.
10 He [a]bowed the heavens also, and came down
With [b]darkness under His feet.
11 He rode upon a cherub, and flew;
And He [1]was seen [a]upon the wings of the wind.
12 He made [a]darkness canopies around Him,
Dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.
13 From the brightness before Him
Coals of fire were kindled.
14 "The LORD [a]thundered from heaven,
And the Most High uttered His voice.
15 He sent out [a]arrows and scattered them;
Lightning bolts, and He vanquished them.
16 Then the channels of the sea [a]were seen,
The foundations of the world were uncovered,
At the [b]rebuke of the LORD,
At the blast of the breath of His nostrils.
17 "He[a] sent from above, He took me,
He drew me out of many waters.
18 He delivered me from my strong enemy,
From those who hated me;
For they were too strong for me.
19 They confronted me in the day of my calamity,
But the LORD was my [a]support.
20 [a]He also brought me out into a broad place;
He delivered me because He [b]delighted in me.
21 "The[a] LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness;
According to the [b]cleanness of my hands
He has recompensed me.
22 For I have [a]kept the ways of the LORD,
And have not wickedly departed from my God.
23 For all His [a]judgments were before me;
And as for His statutes, I did not depart from them.
24 I was also [a]blameless before Him,
And I kept myself from my iniquity.
25 Therefore [a]the LORD has [1]recompensed me according to my righteousness,
According to [2]my cleanness in His eyes.
26 "With [a]the merciful You will show Yourself merciful;
With a blameless man You will show Yourself blameless;
27 With the pure You will show Yourself pure;
And [a]with the devious You will show Yourself shrewd.
28 You will save the [a]humble[1] people;
But Your eyes are on [b]the haughty, that You may bring them down.

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Sam. 22:28

The Hand of God

Those who humbly yield to God's majesty will be lifted high by His hand. The arrogant who try to elevate themselves find His hand upon them too, but it is pressing them down.

29 "For You are my [a]lamp, O LORD;
The LORD shall enlighten my darkness.
30 For by You I can run against a troop;
By my God I can leap over a [a]wall.
31 As for God, [a]His way is perfect;
[b]The word of the LORD is proven;
He is a shield to all who trust in Him.

32 "For [a]who is God, except the LORD?
And who is a rock, except our God?
33 [1]God is my [a]strength and power,
And He [b]makes [2]my way [c]perfect.
34 He makes [1]my feet [a]like the feet of deer,
And [b]sets me on my high places.
35 He teaches my hands [1]to make war,
So that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

36 "You have also given me the shield of Your salvation;
Your gentleness has made me great.
37 You [a]enlarged my path under me;
So my feet did not slip.

38 "I have pursued my enemies and destroyed them;
Neither did I turn back again till they were destroyed.
39 And I have destroyed them and wounded them,
So that they could not rise;
They have fallen [a]under my feet.
40 For You have [a]armed me with strength for the battle;
You have [1]subdued under me [b]those who rose against me.
41 You have also [1]given me the [a]necks of my enemies,
So that I destroyed those who hated me.
42 They looked, but there was none to save;
Even [a]to the LORD, but He did not answer them.
43 Then I beat them as fine [a]as the dust of the earth;
I trod them [b]like dirt in the streets,
And I [1]spread them out.

44 "You[a] have also delivered me from the [1]strivings of my people;
You have kept me as the [b]head of the nations.
[c]A people I have not known shall serve me.
45 The foreigners submit to me;
As soon as they hear, they obey me.
46 The foreigners fade away,
And [1]come frightened [a]from their hideouts.

47 "The LORD lives!
Blessed be my Rock!
Let God be exalted,
The [a]Rock of my salvation!
48 It is God who avenges me,
And [a]subdues the peoples under me;
49 He delivers me from my enemies.
You also lift me up above those who rise against me;
You have delivered me from the [a]violent man.
50 Therefore I will give thanks to You, O LORD, among [a]the Gentiles,
And sing praises to Your [b]name.

51 "He[a] is the tower of salvation to His king,
And shows mercy to His [b]anointed,
To David and [c]his descendants forevermore."

David's Last Words

23 Now these are the last words of David.

Thus says David the son of Jesse;
Thus says [a]the man raised up on high,
[b]The anointed of the God of Jacob,
And the sweet psalmist of Israel:

2 "The[a] Spirit of the LORD spoke by me,
And His word was on my tongue.
3 The God of Israel said,
[a]The Rock of Israel spoke to me:
'He who rules over men must be just,
Ruling [b]in the fear of God.
4 And [a]he shall be like the light of the morning when the sun rises,

Like the tender grass springing out of the earth,
By clear shining after rain.'

3 [a][Deut. 32:4] [b]Ex. 18:21
4 [a]Ps. 89:36

22:41 The "necks of my enemies" refers to the custom of victorious warriors putting their foot on the neck of their vanquished enemy as a sign of conquest (Josh. 10:24; Ps. 110:1).

23:1 The "last words of David" is understood to be his last poetic work, probably during his final instructions to Solomon.

23:2 "The Spirit of the Lord spoke through me" indicates divine inspiration of Scripture, similar to several New Testament passages (2 Tim. 3:16; Heb. 1:1, 2; 2 Pet. 1:19–21).

5 "Although my house is not so with God,
[a]Yet He has made with me an everlasting covenant,
Ordered in all things and secure.
For this is all my salvation and all my desire;
Will He not make it increase?
6 But the sons of rebellion shall all be as thorns thrust away,
Because they cannot be taken with hands.
7 But the man who touches them
Must be [1]armed with iron and the shaft of a spear,
And they shall be utterly burned with fire in their place."

David's Mighty Men

8 These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: [1]Josheb-Basshebeth the Tachmonite, chief among [2]the captains. He was called Adino the Eznite, because he had killed eight hundred men at one time.

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Sam. 23:8

Godly Strength

Christians need not face adversity alone. God calls men and women to stand together, and He empowers them by His Spirit to carry out His purposes.

9 And after him was [a]Eleazar the son of [1]Dodo, the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David when they defied the Philistines who were gathered there for battle, and the men of Israel had retreated.
10 He arose and attacked the Philistines until his hand was [a]weary, and his hand stuck to the sword. The LORD brought about a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to [b]plunder.
11 And after him was [a]Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite. [b]The Philistines had gathered together into a troop where there was a piece of ground full of lentils. So the people fled from the Philistines.
12 But he stationed himself in the middle of the field, defended it, and killed the Philistines. So the LORD brought about a great victory.
13 Then [a]three of the thirty chief men went down at harvest time and came to David at [b]the cave of Adullam. And the troop of Philistines encamped in [c]the Valley of Rephaim.
14 David was then in [a]the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem.
15 And David said with longing, "Oh, that someone would give me a drink of the water from the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!"
16 So the three mighty men broke through the camp of the Philistines, drew water from the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, and took it and brought it to David. Nevertheless he would not drink it, but poured it out to the LORD.
17 And he said, "Far be it from me, O LORD, that I should do this! Is this not [a]the blood of the men who went in jeopardy of their lives?" Therefore he would not drink it. These things were done by the three mighty men.
18 Now [a]Abishai the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief of [1]another three. He lifted his spear against three hundred men, killed them, and won a name among these three.
19 Was he not the most honored of three? Therefore he became their captain. However, he did not attain to the first three.
20 Benaiah was the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man from [a]Kabzeel, [1]who had done many deeds. [b]He had killed two lion-like heroes of Moab. He also had gone down and killed a lion in the midst of a pit on a snowy day.
21 And he killed an Egyptian, [1]a spectacular man. The Egyptian had a spear in his hand; so he went down to him with a staff, wrested the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear.
22 These things Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did, and won a name among three mighty men.
23 He was more honored than the thirty, but he did not attain to the first three. And David appointed him [a]over his guard.
24 [a]Asahel the brother of Joab was one

23:5 The covenant was established by God as described in 2 Sam. 7:12–16.

23:8 David's three mighty men all proved skillful and valiant in battle. Their astonishing endeavors were because God's hand was upon them; "the Lord brought about a great victory" (v. 10).

23:13 The Valley of Rephaim was a route to Jerusalem.

23:14 Bethlehem was David's hometown, about six miles south of Jerusalem.

23:20 Benaiah was over David's bodyguards and commander of the Cherethites and the Pelethites (2 Sam. 8:18). He later served under Solomon and took Joab's place as the army's commander (1 Kin. 2:35).

23:24 David's list of thirty includes thirty-one names, and the thirty may have varied from time to time. The list is significant because it is a mixture of ethnic and tribal warriors, which indicates that David was willing to reward anyone who was faithful and deserving of honor.

28 Zalmon the Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite,
29 Heleb the son of Baanah (the Netophathite), Ittai the son of Ribai from Gibeah of the children of Benjamin,
30 Benaiah a Pirathonite, Hiddai from the brooks of [a]Gaash,
31 Abi-Albon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite,
32 Eliahba the Shaalbonite (of the sons of Jashen), Jonathan,
33 [a]Shammah the [1]Hararite, Ahiam the son of Sharar the Hararite,

38 [a]Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,
39 and [a]Uriah the Hittite: thirty-seven in all.

David's Census of Israel and Judah

24 Again [a]the anger of the LORD was aroused against Israel, and He moved David against them to say, [b]"Go, [1]number Israel and Judah."
2 So the king said to Joab the commander of the army who was with him, "Now go throughout all the tribes of Israel, [a]from Dan to Beersheba, and count the people, that [b]I may know the number of the people."
3 And Joab said to the king, "Now may the LORD your God [a]add to the people a hundred times more than there are, and may the eyes of my lord the king see it. But why does my lord the king desire this thing?"
4 Nevertheless the king's word [1]prevailed against Joab and against the captains of the army. Therefore Joab and the captains of the army went out from the presence of the king to count the people of Israel.
5 And they crossed over the Jordan and camped in [a]Aroer, on the right side of the town which is in the midst of the ravine of Gad, and toward [b]Jazer.

8 So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.
9 Then Joab gave the sum of the number of the people to the king. [a]And there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men who drew the sword, and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

The Judgment on David's Sin

10 And [a]David's heart condemned him after he had numbered the people. So [b]David said to the LORD, [c]"I have sinned greatly in what I have done; but now, I pray, O LORD, take away the iniquity of Your servant, for I have [d]done very foolishly."

ENCOUNTER Note — 2 Sam. 24:10

Guard Your Heart

You should remain spiritually alert, for you are always susceptible to sin. Guard your heart diligently, for all sin must be accounted for and consequences will come.

11 Now when David arose in the morning, the word of the LORD came to the prophet [a]Gad, David's [b]seer, saying,
12 "Go and tell David, 'Thus says the LORD: "I offer you three things; choose one of them for yourself, that I may do it to you." ' "
13 So Gad came to David and told him; and he said to him, "Shall [a]seven[1] years of famine come to you in your land? Or shall you flee three months before your enemies, while they pursue you? Or shall there be three days' plague in your land? Now consider and see what answer I should take back to Him who sent me."
14 And David said to Gad, "I am in great distress. Please let us fall into the hand of the LORD, [a]for His mercies are great; but [b]do not let me fall into the hand of man."
15 So [a]the LORD sent a plague upon Israel from the morning till the appointed time. From Dan to Beersheba seventy thousand men of the people died.

24:2 "From Dan to Beersheba" is an expression for the whole of Israel, 150 miles from north to south.

24:11 Gad is first mentioned in 1 Samuel 22:5 and may be a contributing editor to 2 Samuel.

16 [a]And when the [1]angel stretched out
His hand over Jerusalem to destroy it,
[b]the LORD relented from the destruction, and said to the angel who was destroying the people, "It is enough; now restrain your hand." And the angel of the LORD was by the threshing floor of [2]Araunah the Jebusite.
17 Then David spoke to the LORD when he saw the angel who was striking the people, and said, "Surely [a]I have sinned, and I have done wickedly; but these sheep, what have they done? Let Your hand, I pray, be against me and against my father's house."

The Altar on the Threshing Floor

18 And Gad came that day to David and said to him, [a]"Go up, erect an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite."
19 So David, according to the word of Gad, went up as the LORD commanded.
20 Now Araunah looked, and saw the king and his servants coming toward him. So Araunah went out and bowed before the king with his face to the ground.
21 Then Araunah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?" [a]And David said, "To buy the threshing floor from you, to build an altar to the LORD, that [b]the plague may be withdrawn from the people."
22 Now Araunah said to David, "Let my lord the king take and offer up whatever seems good to him. [a]Look, here are oxen for burnt sacrifice, and threshing implements and the yokes of the oxen for wood.
23 "All these, O king, Araunah has given to the king." And Araunah said to the king, "May the LORD your God [a]accept you."
24 Then the king said to Araunah, "No, but I will surely buy it from you for a price; nor will I offer burnt offerings to the LORD my God with that which costs me nothing." So [a]David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.
25 And David built there an altar to the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. [a]So the LORD heeded the prayers for the land, and [b]the plague was withdrawn from Israel.

24:16 A threshing floor is a hard surface where wheat is crushed to separate the kernel from the chaff. Araunah was a Jebusite, one of the original inhabitants of Jerusalem.

24:24 The threshing floor was located on Mount Moriah, the place where Abraham bound Isaac to the altar (Gen. 22:2). Solomon would later build the temple on this site (1 Kin. 6; 1 Chr. 21:27—22:1; 2 Chr. 3:1).

THE FIRST BOOK OF THE KINGS

INTRODUCTION

Originally, First and Second Kings were together as one book. Translators of the Septuagint (the Greek translation of the Jewish Scriptures), divided them for convenience. Together, First and Second Kings provide a "royal history" of Israel. They record principal events and characteristics of the reigns of Israel and Judah's kings, from the death of David to the release of Jehoiachin, the exiled Judahite king, from a Babylonian prison. The time span covered is approximately four hundred years. Currently, two distinct theories of authorship prevail. The first claims that a single author/compiler, an eyewitness to Jerusalem's fall, assembled the books during the sixth century B.C. The second is that Kings was composed by an author or authors who were also responsible for writing Joshua, Judges, and First and Second Samuel. These books are known as the Deuteronomistic History because of the obvious influence of the Book of Deuteronomy on them.

SIGNIFICANCE

Kings was written to the exiled Jews during the Babylonian period. While the primary audience was the Jewish population in Palestine, there were also Jewish communities in Egypt and Babylonia who would have had access to the work. The Jewish people were living in a tumultuous time. The Kingdom of Judah was in a state of devastation. The temple had been destroyed and David's royal line no longer controlled the nation. A general feeling of discontent and disorientation pervaded the population (Ezek. 18:25). Some complained they were being treated unfairly because of their ancestors' sins (Ps. 79; Lam. 5:7; Ezek. 18:2). Others understood God's judgment on Judah to be just, but they despaired under the weight of their guilt (Ezek. 33:10). The established institutions that once brought stability and hope, such as priest, king, prophet, and the holy city, had been decimated. It is to this audience that Kings was directed. In this turbulent setting, the book addressed the following theological questions: What did defeat and exile mean for those who had believed themselves to be the Lord's chosen people? What was the relationship between the individual and the nation in matters of sin and punishment? What impact did Babylonian rule have on God's promise concerning the Davidic dynasty and the city of Jerusalem? The Book of Kings was presented to a Jewish community facing a crisis of faith. These people had to respond or lose their identity.

STRUCTURE

First Kings consists of a series of individual narratives set in a chronological framework. It presents a coherent account of the fate of the two kingdoms, Israel and Judah, based on the manner in which each responded to God. The book can be divided into two sections, the first of which describes David's death and Solomon's rule (1:1—11:43). The second part provides an account of the divided kingdoms of Israel and Judah (12:1—22:53).

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH 1 KINGS

The Book of Kings does not attempt to provide a history of these nations in the manner in which modern historical works are written. Rather, events in the lives of the kings and prophets are selected to orient the reader toward God. First Kings presents truths about God's nature and reveals how God works throughout history to accomplish His purposes. It also provides insight into the way God responds to those who refuse to worship Him or keep His commandments. In addition, the theme of God as a God of deliverance, hope and restoration runs through the entire book. This book will challenge the depth of the reader's walk with God. God uncompromisingly adheres to His purposes and commandments. At the same time, He treats His people with magnificent grace and patience. It should encourage the reader to see how those who walked with God found His continued help and restoration in the midst of their struggles.

Adonijah Presumes to Be King

NOW King David was [a]old, [1]advanced in years; and they put covers on him, but he could not get warm.
2 Therefore his servants said to him, "Let a young woman, a virgin, be sought for our lord the king, and let her [1]stand before the king, and let her care for him; and let her lie in your bosom, that our lord the king may be warm."
3 So they sought for a lovely young woman throughout all the territory of Israel, and found [a]Abishag the [b]Shunammite, and brought her to the king.
4 The young woman was very lovely; and she cared for the king, and served him; but the king did not know her.
5 Then [a]Adonijah the [1]son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, "I will [2]be king"; and [b]he prepared for himself chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Kin. 1:5

Exalting Oneself

Pressing for power and prestige can lead to our destruction. The Bible teaches us to humble ourselves under God's hand, letting Him exalt us in His timing and in His plan.

6 (And his father had not [1]rebuked him at any time by saying, "Why have you done so?" He was also very good-looking. [a]His mother had borne him after Absalom.)
7 Then he conferred with [a]Joab the son of Zeruiah and with [b]Abiathar the priest, and [c]they followed and helped Adonijah.
8 But [a]Zadok the priest, [b]Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, [c]Nathan the prophet, [d]Shimei, Rei, and [e]the mighty men who belonged to David were not with Adonijah.
9 And Adonijah sacrificed sheep and oxen and fattened cattle by the stone of [1]Zoheleth, which is by [a]En Rogel;[2] he also invited all his brothers, the king's sons, and all the men of Judah, the king's servants.

10 But he did not invite Nathan the prophet, Benaiah, the mighty men, or [a]Solomon his brother.
11 So Nathan spoke to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, "Have you not heard that Adonijah the son of [a]Haggith has become king, and David our lord does not know it?
12 "Come, please, let me now give you advice, that you may save your own life and the life of your son Solomon.
13 "Go immediately to King David and say to him, 'Did you not, my lord, O king, swear to your maidservant, saying, [a]"Assuredly your son Solomon shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne"? Why then has Adonijah become king?'
14 "Then, while you are still talking there with the king, I also will come in after you and confirm your words."
15 So Bathsheba went into the chamber to the king. (Now the king was very old, and Abishag the Shunammite was serving the king.)
16 And Bathsheba bowed and did homage to the king. Then the king said, "What is your wish?"
17 Then she said to him, "My lord, [a]you swore by the LORD your God to your maidservant, saying, 'Assuredly Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne.'
18 "So now, look! Adonijah has become king; and now, my lord the king, you do not know about it.
19 [a]"He has sacrificed oxen and fattened cattle and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the sons of the king, Abiathar the priest, and Joab the commander of the army; but Solomon your servant he has not invited.
20 "And as for you, my lord, O king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, that you should tell them who will sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.
21 "Otherwise it will happen, when my lord the king [a]rests with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon will be counted as offenders."
22 And just then, while she was still talking with the king, Nathan the prophet also came in.

1:6 "Rebuked him" carries the meaning of "crossed him" or "stretched him into shape." David's unwillingness to discipline his children had led to earlier conflicts in his household concerning Amnon and Absalom (2 Sam. 13–19).

1:7 On Adonijah's side were: Joab the military man (2 Sam. 3:23–39; 11:14–25; 18:9—19:8); Abiathar the priest (1 Sam. 22:20; 2 Sam. 15:24–29). On Solomon's side were: Benaiah the military man (2 Sam. 8:18; 20:23); Zadok the priest (2 Sam. 8:17; 15:24–36); Nathan the prophet (2 Sam. 7:1–17; 12:1–15, 25).

23 So they told the king, saying, "Here is Nathan the prophet." And when he came in before the king, he bowed down before the king with his face to the ground.
24 And Nathan said, "My lord, O king, have you said, 'Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne'?
25 [a]"For he has gone down today, and has sacrificed oxen and fattened cattle and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the king's sons, and the commanders of the army, and Abiathar the priest; and look! They are eating and drinking before him; and they say, [b]'Long[1] live King Adonijah!'
26 "But he has not invited me—me your servant—nor Zadok the priest, nor Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, nor your servant Solomon.
27 "Has this thing been done by my lord the king, and you have not told your servant who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?"

David Proclaims Solomon King

28 Then King David answered and said, "Call Bathsheba to me." So she came into the king's presence and stood before the king.
29 And the king took an oath and said, [a]"As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my life from every distress,
30 [a]"just as I swore to you by the LORD God of Israel, saying, 'Assuredly Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne in my place,' so I certainly will do this day."
31 Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the earth, and paid homage to the king, and said, [a]"Let my lord King David live forever!"
32 And King David said, "Call to me Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada." So they came before the king.
33 The king also said to them, [a]"Take with you the servants of your lord, and have Solomon my son ride on my own [b]mule, and take him down to [c]Gihon.[1]
34 "There let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet [a]anoint him king over Israel; and [b]blow the horn, and say, [1]'Long live King Solomon!'
35 "Then you shall come up after him, and he shall come and sit on my throne, and he shall be king in my place. For I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and Judah."
36 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king and said, [a]"Amen! May the LORD God of my lord the king say so too.
37 [a]"As the LORD has been with my lord the king, even so may He be with Solomon, and [b]make his throne greater than the throne of my lord King David."
38 So Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, [a]Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the [b]Cherethites, and the Pelethites went down and had Solomon ride on King David's mule, and took him to Gihon.
39 Then Zadok the priest took a horn of [a]oil from the tabernacle and [b]anointed Solomon. And they blew the horn, [c]and all the people said, [1]"Long live King Solomon!"
40 And all the people went up after him; and the people played the flutes and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth seemed to split with their sound.
41 Now Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they finished eating. And when Joab heard the sound of the horn, he said, "Why is the city in such a noisy uproar?"
42 While he was still speaking, there came [a]Jonathan, the son of Abiathar the priest. And Adonijah said to him, "Come in, for [b]you are a prominent man, and bring good news."
43 Then Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, "No! Our lord King David has made Solomon king.
44 "The king has sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites, and the Pelethites; and they have made him ride on the king's mule.
45 "So Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king at Gihon; and they have gone up from there rejoicing, so that the city is in an uproar. This is the noise that you have heard.
46 "Also Solomon [a]sits on the throne of the kingdom.
47 "And moreover the king's servants have gone to bless our lord King David, saying, [a]'May God make the name of Solomon better than your name, and may He make his throne greater than your throne.' [b]Then the king bowed himself on the bed.
48 "Also the king said thus, 'Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who has [a]given one to sit on my throne this day, while my eyes see [b]it!' "
49 So all the guests who were with Adonijah were afraid, and arose, and each one went his way.
50 Now Adonijah was afraid of Solomon; so he arose, and went and [a]took hold of the horns of the altar.

51 And it was told Solomon, saying, "Indeed Adonijah is afraid of King Solomon; for look, he has taken hold of the horns of the altar, saying, 'Let King Solomon swear to me today that he will not put his servant to death with the sword.' "
52 Then Solomon said, "If he proves himself a worthy man, [a]not one hair of him shall fall to the earth; but if wickedness is found in him, he shall die."
53 So King Solomon sent them to bring him down from the altar. And he came and fell down before King Solomon; and Solomon said to him, "Go to your house."

David's Instructions to Solomon

2 Now [a]the days of David drew near that he should die, and he [1]charged Solomon his son, saying:
2 [a]"I go the way of all the earth; [b]be strong, therefore, and prove yourself a man.

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Kin. 2:2

Be Strong

God is our strength. He will guide and empower us when we face overwhelming responsibilities and challenges.

3 "And keep the charge of the LORD your God: to walk in His ways, to keep His statutes, His commandments, His judgments, and His testimonies, as it is written in the Law of Moses, that you may [a]prosper in all that you do and wherever you turn;
4 "that the LORD may [a]fulfill His word which He spoke concerning me, saying, [b]'If your sons take heed to their way, to [c]walk before Me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul,' He said, [d]'you shall not lack a man on the throne of Israel.'
5 "Moreover you know also what Joab the son of Zeruiah [a]did to me, and what he did to the two commanders of the armies of Israel, to [b]Abner the son of Ner and [c]Amasa the son of Jether, whom he killed. And he shed the blood of war in peacetime, and put the blood of war on his belt that was around his waist, and on his sandals that were on his feet.
6 "Therefore do [a]according to your wisdom, and do not let his gray hair go down to the grave in peace.
7 "But show kindness to the sons of [a]Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be among those who [b]eat at your table, for so [c]they came to me when I fled from Absalom your brother.
8 "And see, you have with you [a]Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite from Bahurim, who cursed me with a malicious curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim. But [b]he came down to meet me at the Jordan, and [c]I swore to him by the LORD, saying, 'I will not put you to death with the sword.'
9 "Now therefore, [a]do not hold him guiltless, for you are a wise man and know what you ought to do to him; but [b]bring his gray hair down to the grave with blood."

Death of David

10 So [a]David [1]rested with his fathers, and was buried in [b]the City of David.
11 The period that David [a]reigned over Israel was forty years; seven years he reigned in Hebron, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years.
12 [a]Then Solomon sat on the throne of his father David; and his kingdom was [b]firmly established.

Solomon Executes Adonijah

13 Now Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. So she said, [a]"Do you come peaceably?" And he said, "Peaceably."
14 Moreover he said, "I have something to say to you." And she said, "Say it."
15 Then he said, "You know that the kingdom was [a]mine, and all Israel had set their expectations on me, that I should reign. However, the kingdom has been turned over, and has become my brother's; for [b]it was his from the LORD.
16 "Now I ask one petition of you; do not [1]deny me." And she said to him, "Say it."
17 Then he said, "Please speak to King Solomon, for he will not refuse you, that he may give me [a]Abishag the Shunammite as wife."
18 So Bathsheba said, "Very well, I will speak for you to the king."
19 Bathsheba therefore went to King Solomon, to speak to him for Adonijah.

17 [a]1 Kin. 1:3, 4

2:2 "Strong" has the meaning of "steadfast mentally, physically, and spiritually." This charge is similar to the charge given to Joshua (Josh. 1:7) and to the Corinthians (1 Cor. 16:13) to obey and trust God in the face of demanding times, for He is faithful.

2:7 Hospitality should be repaid. "Showing kindness" denotes a loyal deed done to keep a covenant requirement. To "eat at the king's table" was equivalent to having a pension or regular allowance of food and clothing (2 Sam. 9:7; 1 Kin. 18:19; 2 Kin. 25:29–30).

And the king rose up to meet her and [a]bowed down to her, and sat down on his throne and had a throne set for the king's mother; [b]so she sat at his right hand.
20 Then she said, "I desire one small petition of you; do not [1]refuse me." And the king said to her, "Ask it, my mother, for I will not refuse you."
21 So she said, "Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother as wife."
22 And King Solomon answered and said to his mother, "Now why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him the kingdom also—for he is my [a]older brother—for him, and for [b]Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah."
23 Then King Solomon swore by the LORD, saying, [a]"May God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against his own life!
24 "Now therefore, as the LORD lives, who has confirmed me and set me on the throne of David my father, and who has established a [1]house for me, as He [a]promised, Adonijah shall be put to death today!"
25 So King Solomon sent by the hand of [a]Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he struck him down, and he died.

Abiathar Exiled, Joab Executed

26 And to Abiathar the priest the king said, "Go to [a]Anathoth, to your own fields, for [1]you are deserving of death; but I will not put you to death at this time, [b]because you carried the ark of the Lord GOD before my father David, and because you were afflicted every time my father was afflicted."
27 So Solomon removed Abiathar from being priest to the LORD, that he might [a]fulfill the word of the LORD which He spoke concerning the house of Eli at Shiloh.
28 Then news came to Joab, for Joab [a]had defected to Adonijah, though he had not defected to Absalom. So Joab fled to the tabernacle of the LORD, and [b]took hold of the horns of the altar.
29 And King Solomon was told, "Joab has fled to the tabernacle of the LORD; there he is, by the altar." Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, "Go, [a]strike him down."
30 So Benaiah went to the tabernacle of the LORD, and said to him, "Thus says the king, [a]'Come out!' " And he said, "No, but I will die here." And Benaiah brought back word to the king, saying, "Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me."
31 Then the king said to him, [a]"Do as he has said, and strike him down and bury him, [b]that you may take away from me and from the house of my father the innocent blood which Joab shed.
32 "So the LORD [a]will return his [1]blood on his head, because he struck down two men more righteous [b]and better than he, and killed them with the sword—[c]Abner the son of Ner, the commander of the army of Israel, and [d]Amasa the son of Jether, the commander of the army of Judah—though my father David did not know it.
33 "Their blood shall therefore return upon the head of Joab and [a]upon the head of his descendants forever. [b]But upon David and his descendants, upon his house and his throne, there shall be peace forever from the LORD."
34 So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up and struck and killed him; and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.
35 The king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his place over the army, and the king put [a]Zadok the priest in the place of [b]Abiathar.

Shimei Executed

36 Then the king sent and called for [a]Shimei, and said to him, "Build yourself a house in Jerusalem and dwell there, and do not go out from there anywhere.
37 "For it shall be, on the day you go out and cross [a]the Brook Kidron, know for certain you shall surely die; [b]your [1]blood shall be on your own head."
38 And Shimei said to the king, "The saying is good. As my lord the king has said, so your servant will do." So Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.
39 Now it happened at the end of three years, that two slaves of Shimei ran away to [a]Achish the son of Maachah, king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, "Look, your slaves are in Gath!"
40 So Shimei arose, saddled his donkey, and went to Achish at Gath to seek his slaves. And Shimei went and brought his slaves from Gath.
41 And Solomon was told that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and had come back.
42 Then the king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, "Did I not make you swear by the LORD, and warn you, saying, 'Know for certain that on the day

2:28 The altar was a place of sanctuary in Israel during the pre-temple period. It was built with horns protruding from the corners. If one went to the altar and grasped the horns, that person was in a "safe" zone, protected from physical harm. Solomon was faced with the dilemma—to violate the sanctuary by killing Adonijah or to let him remain free to cause trouble again.

you go out and travel anywhere, you shall surely die'? And you said to me, 'The word I have heard is good.'
43 "Why then have you not kept the oath of the LORD and the commandment that I gave you?"
44 The king said moreover to Shimei, "You know, as your heart acknowledges, [a]all the wickedness that you did to my father David; therefore the LORD will [b]return your wickedness on your own head.
45 "But King Solomon shall be blessed, and [a]the throne of David shall be established before the LORD forever."
46 So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he went out and struck him down, and he died. Thus the [a]kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

Solomon Requests Wisdom

3 Now [a]Solomon made [1]a treaty with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and married Pharaoh's daughter; then he brought her [b]to the City of David until he had finished building his [c]own house, and [d]the house of the LORD, and [e]the wall all around Jerusalem.
2 [a]Meanwhile the people sacrificed at the high places, because there was no house built for the name of the LORD until those days.
3 And Solomon [a]loved the LORD, [b]walking in the statutes of his father David, except that he sacrificed and burned incense at the high places.
4 Now [a]the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, [b]for that was the great high place: Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar.
5 [a]At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon [b]in a dream by night; and God said, "Ask! What shall I give you?"
6 [a]And Solomon said: "You have shown great mercy to Your servant David my father, because he [b]walked before You in truth, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with You; You have continued this great kindness for him, and You [c]have given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.
7 "Now, O LORD my God, You have made Your servant king instead of my father David, but I am a [a]little child; I do not know how [b]to go out or come in.
8 "And Your servant is in the midst of Your people whom You [a]have chosen, a great people, [b]too numerous to be numbered or counted.
9 [a]"Therefore give to Your servant an [1]understanding heart [b]to judge Your people, that I may [c]discern between good and evil. For who is able to judge this great people of Yours?"

WORD*Study* UNDERSTANDING HEART

1 Kin. 3:9 An "understanding heart" (leb shama'): Shama' literally means "to hear, listen to, obey" and leb means "the inner man, mind, will, heart, or understanding." This phrase carries the meaning of a person who seeks to hear and understand God's instructions with a deep desire to implement what He says.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Kin. 3:9

Foundation for Understanding

An attitude of willingness to hear and obey God's word is the basis of wisdom. It is the foundation for understanding right from wrong. Such wisdom produces a life that pleases God.

10 The speech pleased the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing.
11 Then God said to him: "Because you have asked this thing, and have [a]not asked long life for yourself, nor have asked riches for yourself, nor have asked the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern justice,
12 [a]"behold, I have done according to your words; [b]see, I have given you a wise and understanding heart, so that there has not been anyone like you before you, nor shall any like you arise after you.
13 "And I have also [a]given you what you have not asked: both [b]riches and honor, so that there shall not be anyone like you among the kings all your days.
14 "So [a]if you walk in My ways, to keep My statutes and My commandments, [b]as your father David walked, then I will [c]lengthen[1] your days."
15 Then Solomon [a]awoke; and indeed it had been a dream. And he came to Jerusalem and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, offered up burnt offerings, offered peace offerings, and [b]made a feast for all his servants.

3:3 The worship at "high places" continued throughout the history of Israel and Judah and was a continuing source of indictment against subsequent kings (1 Kin. 14:23). God had strictly forbidden the Israelites from using such places in their worship (Deut. 7:5; 12:3).

3:7 "To go out or come in" is an idiom referring to his leadership skills (Num. 27:17; Deut. 31:2, 3; Josh. 14:11).

Solomon's Wise Judgment

16 Now two women who were harlots came to the king, and [a]stood before him.
17 And one woman said, "O my lord, this woman and I dwell in the same house; and I gave birth while she was in the house.
18 "Then it happened, the third day after I had given birth, that this woman also gave birth. And we were together; [1]no one was with us in the house, except the two of us in the house.
19 "And this woman's son died in the night, because she lay on him.
20 "So she arose in the middle of the night and took my son from my side, while your maidservant slept, and laid him in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom.
21 "And when I rose in the morning to nurse my son, there he was, dead. But when I had examined him in the morning, indeed, he was not my son whom I had borne."
22 Then the other woman said, "No! But the living one is my son, and the dead one is your son." And the first woman said, "No! But the dead one is your son, and the living one is my son." Thus they spoke before the king.
23 And the king said, "The one says, 'This is my son, who lives, and your son is the dead one'; and the other says, 'No! But your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one.' "
24 Then the king said, "Bring me a sword." So they brought a sword before the king.
25 And the king said, "Divide the living child in two, and give half to one, and half to the other."
26 Then the woman whose son was living spoke to the king, for [a]she yearned with compassion for her son; and she said, "O my lord, give her the living child, and by no means kill him!" But the other said, "Let him be neither mine nor yours, but divide him."
27 So the king answered and said, "Give the first woman the living child, and by no means kill him; she is his mother."
28 And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had rendered; and they feared the king, for they saw that the [a]wisdom of God was in him to administer justice.

4:21–23 The prophet Samuel had warned Israel that if they instituted a monarchy, the king would appoint captains over the people, claim the best land, take their children to serve in his court, and demand grain and livestock for himself (1 Sam. 8:11–18).

doms from [b]the[1] River to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Egypt. [c]They brought tribute and served Solomon all the days of his life.
22 [a]Now Solomon's [1]provision for one day was thirty [2]kors of fine flour, sixty kors of meal,
23 ten fatted oxen, twenty oxen from the pastures, and one hundred sheep, besides deer, gazelles, roebucks, and fatted fowl.
24 For he had dominion over all the region on this side of [1]the River from Tiphsah even to Gaza, namely over [a]all the kings on this side of the River; and [b]he had peace on every side all around him.
25 And Judah and Israel [a]dwelt[1] safely, [b]each man under his vine and his fig tree, [c]from Dan as far as Beersheba, all the days of Solomon.
26 [a]Solomon had [1]forty thousand stalls of [b]horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.
27 And [a]these governors, each man in his month, provided food for King Solomon and for all who came to King Solomon's table. There was no lack in their supply.
28 They also brought barley and straw to the proper place, for the horses and steeds, each man according to his charge.
29 And [a]God gave Solomon wisdom and exceedingly great understanding, and largeness of heart like the sand on the seashore.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Kin. 4:29

Great Understanding

God grants wisdom to those who glorify Him. Seek to honor God and let His wisdom permeate your life and your relationships.

30 Thus Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the men [a]of the East and all [b]the wisdom of Egypt.
31 For he was [a]wiser than all men—[b]than Ethan the Ezrahite, [c]and Heman, Chalcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol; and his fame was in all the surrounding nations.
32 [a]He spoke three thousand proverbs, and his [b]songs were one thousand and five.
33 Also he spoke of trees, from the cedar tree of Lebanon even to the hyssop that springs out of the wall; he spoke also of animals, of birds, of creeping things, and of fish.
34 And men of all nations, from all the kings of the earth who had heard of his wisdom, [a]came to hear the wisdom of Solomon.

Solomon Prepares to Build the Temple

5 Now [a]Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon, because he heard that they had anointed him king in place of his father, [b]for Hiram had always loved David.
2 Then [a]Solomon sent to Hiram, saying:
3 [a]You know how my father David could not build a house for the name of the LORD his God [b]because of the wars which were fought against him on every side, until the LORD put [1]his foes under the soles of his feet.
4 But now the LORD my God has given me [a]rest[1] on every side; there is neither adversary nor [2]evil occurrence.
5 [a]And behold, [1]I propose to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, [b]as the LORD spoke to my father David, saying, "Your son, whom I will set on your throne in your place, he shall build the house for My name."
6 Now therefore, command that they cut down [a]cedars for me from Lebanon; and my servants will be with your servants, and I will pay you wages for your servants according to whatever you say. For you know there is none among us who has skill to cut timber like the Sidonians.
7 So it was, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly and said,

Blessed be the LORD this day, for He has given David a wise son over this great people!

8 Then Hiram sent to Solomon, saying:

I have considered the message which you sent me, and I will do all you desire concerning the cedar and cypress logs.
9 My servants shall bring them down [a]from Lebanon to the sea; I will float

God's Wisdom

God's wisdom is exceedingly practical and able to enrich all your relationships with understanding and insight. As you relate to those in your workplace or community, ask God to help you live in peace and harmony with the people around you.

14 And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month in shifts: they were one month in Lebanon and two months at home; [a]Adoniram was in charge of the labor force.
15 [a]Solomon had seventy thousand who carried burdens, and eighty thousand who quarried stone in the mountains,
16 besides three thousand [1]three hundred from the [a]chiefs of Solomon's deputies, who supervised the people who labored in the work.
17 And the king commanded them to quarry large stones, costly stones, and [a]hewn stones, to lay the foundation of the [1]temple.
18 So Solomon's builders, Hiram's builders, and the Gebalites quarried them; and they prepared timber and stones to build the [1]temple.

Solomon Builds the Temple

6 And [a]it came to pass in the four hundred and [1]eightieth year after the children of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month of [2]Ziv, which is the second month, [b]that he began to build the house of the LORD.
2 Now [a]the house which King Solomon built for the LORD, its length was sixty cubits, its width twenty, and its height thirty cubits.

1 Kin. 6:1 The Plan of Solomon's Temple

3 The vestibule in front of the [1]sanctuary of the house was [2]twenty cubits long across the width of the house, and the width of [3]the vestibule extended [4]ten cubits from the front of the house.
4 And he made for the house [a]windows with beveled frames.
5 Against the wall of the [1]temple he built [a]chambers all around, against the walls of the temple, all around the sanctuary [b]and the [2]inner sanctuary. Thus he made side chambers all around it.
6 The lowest chamber was five cubits wide, the middle was six cubits wide, and the third was seven cubits wide; for he made narrow ledges around the outside of the temple, so that the support beams would not be fastened into the walls of the [1]temple.
7 And [a]the temple, when it was being built, was built with stone finished at the quarry, so that no hammer or chisel or any iron tool was heard in the temple while it was being built.
8 The doorway for the [1]middle story was on the right side of the temple. They went up by stairs to the middle story, and from the middle to the third.
9 [a]So he built the [1]temple and finished it, and he paneled the temple with beams and boards of cedar.
10 And he built side chambers against the entire temple, each five cubits high; they were attached to the temple with cedar beams.
11 Then the word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying:
12 "Concerning this [1]temple which you are building, [a]if you walk in My statutes, execute My judgments, keep all My commandments, and walk in them, then I will perform My [2]word with you, [b]which I spoke to your father David.

God's Presence and Favor

God's favor is not won by our efforts and hard work, but by our faithfulness to love Him and to obey His commandments. As you serve the Lord, remember the primary goal is not to accomplish great works, but to live in a way that God would be pleased to bless.

13 "And [a]I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not [b]forsake My people Israel."
14 So Solomon built the temple and finished it.

29 [a]Ex. 36:8, 35

15 And he built the inside walls of the temple with cedar boards; from the floor of the temple to the ceiling he paneled the inside with wood; and he covered the floor of the temple with planks of cypress.
16 Then he built the twenty-cubit room at the rear of the temple, from floor to ceiling, with cedar boards; he built it inside as the inner sanctuary, as the [a]Most Holy Place.
17 And in front of it the temple sanctuary was forty cubits long.
18 The inside of the temple was cedar, carved with ornamental buds and open flowers. All was cedar; there was no stone to be seen.
19 And he prepared the [1]inner sanctuary inside the temple, to set the ark of the covenant of the LORD there.
20 The inner sanctuary was twenty cubits long, twenty cubits wide, and twenty cubits high. He overlaid it with pure gold, and overlaid the altar of cedar.
21 So Solomon overlaid the inside of the temple with pure gold. He stretched gold chains across the front of the inner sanctuary, and overlaid it with gold.
22 The whole temple he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the temple; also he overlaid with gold [a]the entire altar that was by the inner sanctuary.
23 Inside the inner sanctuary [a]he made two cherubim of olive wood, each ten cubits high.
24 One wing of the cherub was five cubits, and the other wing of the cherub five cubits: ten cubits from the tip of one wing to the tip of the other.
25 And the other cherub was ten cubits; both cherubim were of the same size and shape.
26 The height of one cherub was ten cubits, and so was the other cherub.
27 Then he set the cherubim inside the inner [1]room; and [a]they stretched out the wings of the cherubim so that the wing of the one touched one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall. And their wings touched each other in the middle of the room.
28 Also he overlaid the cherubim with gold.
29 Then he carved all the walls of the temple all around, both the inner and outer sanctuaries, with carved [a]figures of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers.
30 And the floor of the temple he overlaid with gold, both the inner and outer sanctuaries.

6:11 These words serve as a reminder of God's promise to dwell among His people and the spiritual conditions necessary for Him to do so (Lev. 26:11, 12).

31 For the entrance of the inner sanctuary he made doors of olive wood; the lintel and doorposts were [1]one-fifth of the wall.
32 The two doors were of olive wood; and he carved on them figures of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold; and he spread gold on the cherubim and on the palm trees.
33 So for the door of the [1]sanctuary he also made doorposts of olive wood, [2]one-fourth of the wall.
34 And the two doors were of cypress wood; [a]two panels comprised one folding door, and two panels comprised the other folding door.
35 Then he carved cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers on them, and overlaid them with gold applied evenly on the carved work.
36 And he built the [a]inner court with three rows of hewn stone and a row of cedar beams.
37 [a]In the fourth year the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid, in the month of [1]Ziv.
38 And in the eleventh year, in the month of [1]Bul, which is the eighth month, the house was finished in all its details and according to all its plans. So he was [a]seven years in building it.

Solomon's Other Buildings

7 But Solomon took [a]thirteen years to build his own house; so he finished all his house.
2 He also built the [a]House of the Forest of Lebanon; its length was [1]one hundred cubits, its width [2]fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits, with four rows of cedar pillars, and cedar beams on the pillars.
3 And it was paneled with cedar above the beams that were on forty-five pillars, fifteen to a row.
4 There were windows with beveled frames in three rows, and window was opposite window in three tiers.
5 And all the doorways and doorposts had rectangular frames; and window was opposite window in three tiers.
6 He also made the Hall of Pillars: its length was fifty cubits, and its width thirty cubits; and in front of them was a portico with pillars, and a canopy was in front of them.
7 Then he made a hall for the throne, the Hall of Judgment, where he might judge; and it was paneled with cedar from floor to [1]ceiling.
8 And the house where he dwelt had another court inside the hall, of like workmanship. Solomon also made a house like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter, [a]whom he had taken as wife.
9 All these were of costly stones cut to size, trimmed with saws, inside and out, from the foundation to the eaves, and also on the outside to the great court.
10 The foundation was of costly stones, large stones, some ten cubits and some eight cubits.
11 And above were costly stones, hewn to size, and cedar wood.
12 The great court was enclosed with three rows of hewn stones and a row of cedar beams. So were the [a]inner court of the house of the LORD [b]and the vestibule of the temple.

Hiram the Craftsman

13 Now King Solomon sent and brought [1]Huram from Tyre.
14 [a]He was the son of a widow from the tribe of Naphtali, and [b]his father was a man of Tyre, a bronze worker; [c]he was filled with wisdom and understanding and skill in working with all kinds of bronze work. So he came to King Solomon and did all his work.

The Bronze Pillars for the Temple

15 And he [1]cast [a]two pillars of bronze, each one eighteen cubits high, and a line of twelve cubits measured the circumference of each.
16 Then he made two capitals of cast bronze, to set on the tops of the pillars. The height of one capital was five cubits, and the height of the other capital was five cubits.
17 He made a lattice network, with wreaths of chainwork, for the capitals which were on top of the pillars: seven chains for one capital and seven for the other capital.
18 So he made the pillars, and two rows of pomegranates above the network all around to cover the capitals that were on top; and thus he did for the other capital.
19 The capitals which were on top of the pillars in the hall were in the shape of lilies, four cubits.
20 The capitals on the two pillars also had pomegranates above, by the convex surface which was next to the network; and there were [a]two hundred such pomegranates in rows on each of the capitals all around.

7:2 This pillared building received its name from the four rows of cedar columns which may have given it a forest-like appearance. It might have been used as an audience chamber or throne hall, but was more likely an armory to house shields and weapons (1 Kin. 10:17; Is. 22:8).

21 [a]Then he set up the pillars by the vestibule of the temple; he set up the pillar on the right and called its name [1]Jachin, and he set up the pillar on the left and called its name [2]Boaz.
22 The tops of the pillars were in the shape of lilies. So the work of the pillars was finished.

The Sea and the Oxen

23 And he made [a]the Sea of cast bronze, ten cubits from one brim to the other; it was completely round. Its height was five cubits, and a line of thirty cubits measured its circumference.
24 Below its brim were ornamental buds encircling it all around, ten to a cubit, [a]all the way around the Sea. The ornamental buds were cast in two rows when it was cast.
25 It stood on [a]twelve oxen: three looking toward the north, three looking toward the west, three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east; the Sea was set upon them, and all their back parts pointed inward.
26 It was a handbreadth thick; and its brim was shaped like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It contained [1]two thousand baths.

The Carts and the Lavers

27 He also made ten [1]carts of bronze; four cubits was the length of each cart, four cubits its width, and three cubits its height.
28 And this was the design of the carts: They had panels, and the panels were between frames;
29 on the panels that were between the frames were lions, oxen, and cherubim. And on the frames was a pedestal on top. Below the lions and oxen were wreaths of plaited work.
30 Every cart had four bronze wheels and axles of bronze, and its four feet had supports. Under the laver were supports of cast bronze beside each wreath.
31 Its opening inside the crown at the top was one cubit in diameter; and the opening was round, shaped like a pedestal, one and a half cubits in outside diameter; and also on the opening were engravings, but the panels were square, not round.
32 Under the panels were the four wheels, and the axles of the wheels were joined to the cart. The height of a wheel was one and a half cubits.
33 The workmanship of the wheels was like the workmanship of a chariot wheel; their axle pins, their rims, their spokes, and their hubs were all of cast bronze.
34 And there were four supports at the four corners of each cart; its supports were part of the cart itself.
35 On the top of the cart, at the height of half a cubit, it was perfectly round. And on the top of the cart, its flanges and its panels were of the same casting.
36 On the plates of its flanges and on its panels he engraved cherubim, lions, and palm trees, wherever there was a clear space on each, with wreaths all around.
37 Thus he made the ten carts. All of them were of [1]the same mold, one measure, and one shape.
38 Then [a]he made ten lavers of bronze; each laver contained [1]forty baths, and each laver was four cubits. On each of the ten carts was a laver.
39 And he put five carts on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house. He set the Sea on the right side of the house, toward the southeast.

Furnishings of the Temple

40 [a]Huram[1] made the lavers and the shovels and the bowls. So Huram finished doing all the work that he was to do for King Solomon for the house of the LORD:
41 the two pillars, the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the two pillars; the two [a]networks covering the two bowl-shaped capitals which were on top of the pillars;
42 [a]four hundred pomegranates for the two networks (two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the pillars);
43 the ten carts, and ten lavers on the carts;
44 one Sea, and twelve oxen under the Sea;
45 [a]the pots, the shovels, and the bowls. All these articles which [1]Huram made for King Solomon for the house of the LORD were of burnished bronze.
46 [a]In the plain of Jordan the king had them cast in clay molds, between [b]Succoth and [c]Zaretan.
47 And Solomon did not weigh all the articles, because there were so many; the weight of the bronze was not [a]determined.
48 Thus Solomon had all the furnishings made for the house of the LORD:

Completing the Task

When God gives an assignment we need to stay with it until the task is completed. If God has given you the desire and willingness to work toward a particular goal, He will also give you the strength to continue until it is accomplished.

The Ark Brought into the Temple

CHAPTER 8

8 Now [a]Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the chief fathers of the children of Israel, to King Solomon in Jerusalem, [b]that they might bring [c]up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the City of David, which is Zion.
2 Therefore all the men of Israel assembled with King Solomon at the [a]feast in the month of [1]Ethanim, which is the seventh month.
3 So all the elders of Israel came, [a]and the priests took up the ark.
4 Then they brought up the ark of the LORD, [a]the [1]tabernacle of meeting, and all the holy furnishings that were in the tabernacle. The priests and the Levites brought them up.
5 Also King Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel who were assembled with him, were with him before the ark, [a]sacrificing sheep and oxen that could not be counted or numbered for multitude.
6 Then the priests [a]brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD to [b]its place, into the inner sanctuary of the temple, to the Most Holy Place, [c]under the wings of the cherubim.

WORD*Study* ZION

1 Kin. 8:1 Zion had at least four meanings in biblical usage. The word was first used in reference to a fortress in Jerusalem during the period just before David captured the city and it became known as the City of David (2 Sam. 5:7, 9). When Solomon expanded the city to the northwest, the entire temple mount became known as "Mount Zion" (Ps. 78:68, 69). Eventually, the entire city of Jerusalem was called Zion, with the terms Zion and Jerusalem used interchangeably (Lam. 2:6–10). Both Jerusalem and Zion could refer to the people of Israel by extension (Is. 51:16; Zech. 2:10, 11). Today, "Mount Zion" is the name of a hill in Jerusalem where the foundations of the temple have been discovered.

7 For the cherubim spread their two wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim overshadowed the ark and its poles.
8 The poles [a]extended so that the [1]ends of the poles could be seen from the holy place, in front of the inner sanctuary; but they could not be seen from outside. And they are there to this day.
9 [a]Nothing was in the ark [b]except the two tablets of stone which Moses [c]put there at Horeb, [d]when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.
10 And it came to pass, when the priests came out of the holy place, that the cloud [a]filled the house of the LORD,
11 so that the priests could not continue ministering because of the cloud; for the [a]glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD.
12 [a]Then Solomon spoke:

"The LORD said He would dwell [b]in the dark cloud.
13 [a]I have surely built You an exalted house,
[b]And a place for You to dwell in forever."

Solomon's Speech at Completion of the Work

14 Then the king turned around and [a]blessed the whole assembly of Israel, while all the assembly of Israel was standing.
15 And he said: [a]"Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who [b]spoke with His mouth to my father David, and with His hand has fulfilled it, saying, 17 "Now [a]it was in the heart of my father David to build a [1]temple for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

18 [a]"But the LORD said to my father David, 'Whereas it was in your heart to build a temple for My name, you did well that it was in your heart.
19 'Nevertheless [a]you shall not build the temple, but your son who will come from your body, he shall build the temple for My name.'
20 "So the LORD has fulfilled His word which He spoke; and I have [1]filled the position of my father David, and sit on the throne of Israel, [a]as the LORD promised; and I have built a temple for the name of the LORD God of Israel.
21 "And there I have made a place for the ark, in which is [a]the covenant of the LORD which He made with our fathers, when He brought them out of the land of Egypt."

Solomon's Prayer of Dedication

22 Then Solomon stood before [a]the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and [b]spread out his hands toward heaven;
23 and he said: "LORD God of Israel, [a]there is no God in heaven above or on earth below like You, [b]who keep Your covenant and mercy with Your servants who [c]walk before You with all their hearts.
24 "You have kept what You promised Your servant David my father; You have both spoken with Your mouth and fulfilled it with Your hand, as it is this day.
25 "Therefore, LORD God of Israel, now keep what You promised Your servant David my father, saying, [a]'You shall not fail to have a man sit before Me on the throne of Israel, only if your sons take heed to their way, that they walk before Me as you have walked before Me.'
26 [a]"And now I pray, O God of Israel, let Your word come true, which You have spoken to Your servant David my father.
27 "But [a]will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold, heaven and the [b]heaven of heavens cannot contain You. How much less this temple which I have built!
28 "Yet regard the prayer of Your servant and his supplication, O LORD my God, and listen to the cry and the prayer which Your servant is praying before You today:
29 "that Your eyes may be open toward this [1]temple night and day, toward the place of which You said, [a]'My name shall be [b]there,' that You may hear the prayer which Your servant makes [c]toward this place.
30 [a]"And may You hear the supplication of Your servant and of Your people Israel, when they pray toward this place. Hear in heaven Your dwelling place; and when You hear, forgive.
31 "When anyone sins against his neighbor, and is forced to take [a]an oath, and comes and takes an oath before Your altar in this temple, 32 "then hear in heaven, and act, and judge Your servants, [a]condemning the wicked, bringing his way on his head, and justifying the righteous by giving him according to his righteousness.
33 [a]"When Your people Israel are defeated before an enemy because they have sinned against You, and [b]when they turn back to You and confess Your name, and pray and make supplication to You in this temple, 34 "then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them back to the land which You gave to their [a]fathers.

35 [a]"When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against You, when they pray toward this place and confess Your name, and turn from their sin because You afflict them,
36 "then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of Your servants, Your people Israel, that You may [a]teach them [b]the good way in which they should walk; and send rain on Your land which You have given to Your people as an inheritance.

Limitless

Sometimes we forget that the God we serve is an infinite being. He is not confined by buildings, governments, world philosophies, or our most dreadful fears and problems. Our lives should reflect our belief and trust in a limitless God. Even the heavens cannot contain Him.

WORD*Study* SUPPLICATION

1 Kin. 8:33, 34 Making supplication (Hebrew chanan) is asking or petitioning for God's grace, mercy, and favor.

pestilence or blight or mildew, locusts or grasshoppers; when their enemy besieges them in the land of their [1]cities; whatever plague or whatever sickness there is;
38 "whatever prayer, whatever supplication is made by anyone, or by all Your people Israel, when each one knows the plague of his own heart, and spreads out his hands toward this temple:

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Kin. 8:38

Our Own Heart

God gives us an understanding of the things that "plague our hearts." He reveals our hearts so we can cry out to Him and find forgiveness, peace, and a sense of purpose.

39 "then hear in heaven Your dwelling place, and forgive, and act, and give to everyone according to all his ways, whose heart You know (for You alone [a]know the hearts of all the sons of men), 40 [a]"that they may fear You all the days that they live in the land which You gave to our fathers.
41 "Moreover, concerning a foreigner, who is not of Your people Israel, but has come from a far country for Your name's sake
42 "(for they will hear of Your great name and Your [a]strong hand and Your outstretched arm), when he comes and prays toward this temple,
43 "hear in heaven Your dwelling place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to You, [a]that all peoples of the earth may know Your name and [b]fear You, as do Your people Israel, and that they may know that this temple which I have built is called by Your name.
44 "When Your people go out to battle against their enemy, wherever You send them, and when they pray to the LORD toward the city which You have chosen and the temple which I have built for Your name, 45 "then hear in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their [1]cause.
46 "When they sin against You [a](for there is no one who does not sin), and You become angry with them and deliver them to the enemy, and they take them captive [b]to the land of the enemy, far or near;
47 [a]"yet when they [1]come to themselves in the land where they were carried captive, and repent, and make supplication to You in the land of those who took them captive, [b]saying, 'We have sinned and done wrong, we have committed wickedness';
48 "and when they [a]return to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies who led them away captive, and [b]pray to You toward their land which You gave to their fathers, the city which You have chosen and the temple which I have built for Your name:
49 "then hear in heaven Your dwelling place their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their [1]cause,
50 "and forgive Your people who have sinned against You, and all their transgressions which they have transgressed against You; and [a]grant them compassion before those who took them captive, that they may have compassion on them

WORD Study TRANSGRESSION

1 Kin. 8:50 A transgression (Hebrew pesha') is a breach of trust or a rebellious act. The transgression can be against individuals, nation against nation, or against God.

51 "(for [a]they are Your people and Your inheritance, whom You brought out of Egypt, [b]out of the iron furnace), 52 [a]"that Your eyes may be open to the supplication of Your servant and the supplication of Your people Israel, to listen to them whenever they call to You.
53 "For You separated them from among all the peoples of the earth to be Your inheritance, [a]as You spoke by Your servant Moses, when You brought our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord GOD."

Solomon Blesses the Assembly

54 [a]And so it was, when Solomon had finished praying all this prayer and supplication to the LORD, that he arose from before the altar of the LORD, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven.
55 Then he stood [a]and blessed all the assembly of Israel with a loud voice, saying:
56 "Blessed be the LORD, who has given [a]rest[1] to His people Israel, according to all that He promised. [b]There has not failed one word of all His good promise, 58 "that He may [a]incline our hearts to Himself, to walk in all His ways, and to keep His commandments and His statutes and His judgments, which He commanded our fathers.

WORD*Study* INCLINE

1 Kin. 8:58 To "incline (Hebrew natah) our hearts" (Hebrew lebab) means to stretch out, extend, turn, and bend our inner man (heart, soul, and understanding).

59 "And may these words of mine, with which I have made supplication before the LORD, be near the LORD our God day and night, that He may maintain the cause of His servant and the cause of His people Israel, as each day may require, 60 [a]"that all the peoples of the earth may know that [b]the LORD is God; there is no other.
61 "Let your [a]heart therefore be [1]loyal to the LORD our God, to walk in His statutes and keep His commandments, as at this day."

Solomon Dedicates the Temple

62 Then [a]the king and all Israel with him offered sacrifices before the LORD.
63 And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered to the LORD, twenty-two thousand bulls and one hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD.
64 On [a]the same day the king consecrated the middle of the court that was in front of the house of the LORD; for there he offered burnt offerings, grain offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the [b]bronze altar that was before the LORD was too small to receive the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings.
65 At that time Solomon held [a]a feast, and all Israel with him, a great assembly from [b]the entrance of Hamath to [c]the Brook of Egypt, before the LORD our God, [d]seven days and seven more days—fourteen days.
66 [a]On the eighth day he sent the people away; and they [1]blessed the king, and went to their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the good that the LORD had done for His servant David, and for Israel His people.

God's Second Appearance to Solomon

9 And [a]it came to pass, when Solomon had finished building the house of the LORD [b]and the king's house, and [c]all Solomon's desire which he wanted to do,

Solomon and Hiram Exchange Gifts

10 Now [a]it happened at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD and the king's house
11 [a](Hiram the king of Tyre had supplied Solomon with cedar and cypress and gold, as much as he desired), that King Solomon then gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.
12 Then Hiram went from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him, but they did not please him.
13 So he said, "What kind of cities are these which you have given me, my brother?" [a]And he called them the land of [1]Cabul, as they are to this day.
14 Then Hiram sent the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold.

Solomon's Additional Achievements

15 And this is the reason for [a]the labor force which King Solomon raised: to build the house of the LORD, his own house, [1]the [b]Millo, the wall of Jerusalem, [c]Hazor, [d]Megiddo, and [e]Gezer.
16 (Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up and taken Gezer and burned it with fire, [a]had killed the Canaanites who dwelt in the city, and had given it as a dowry to his daughter, Solomon's wife.)
17 And Solomon built Gezer, Lower [a]Beth Horon, 18 [a]Baalath, and Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land of Judah,
19 all the storage cities that Solomon had, cities for [a]his chariots and cities for his [b]cavalry, and whatever Solomon [c]desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.
20 [a]All the people who were left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, who were not of the children of Israel—
21 that is, their descendants [a]who were left in the land after them, [b]whom the children of Israel had not been able to destroy completely—[c]from these Solomon raised [d]forced labor, as it is to this day.
22 But of the children of Israel Solomon [a]made no forced laborers, because they were men of war and his servants: his officers, his captains, commanders of his chariots, and his cavalry.
23 Others were chiefs of the officials who were over Solomon's work: [a]five hundred and fifty, who ruled over the people who did the work.
24 But [a]Pharaoh's daughter came up from the City of David to [b]her house which [1]Solomon had built for her. [c]Then he built the Millo.
25 [a]Now three times a year Solomon offered burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar which he had built for the LORD, and he burned incense with them on the altar that was before the LORD. So he finished the temple.
26 [a]King Solomon also built a fleet of ships at [b]Ezion Geber, which is near [1]Elath on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom.
27 [a]Then Hiram sent his servants with the fleet, seamen who knew the sea, to work with the servants of Solomon.
28 And they went to [a]Ophir, and acquired four hundred and twenty talents of gold from there, and brought it to King Solomon.

The Queen of Sheba's Praise of Solomon

10 Now when the [a]queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came [b]to test him with hard questions.
2 She came to Jerusalem with a very great [1]retinue, with camels that bore spices, very much gold, and precious stones; and when she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about all that was in her heart.
3 So Solomon answered all her questions; there was nothing [1]so difficult for the king that he could not explain it to her.
4 And when the queen of Sheba had seen all the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built,
5 the food on his table, the seating of his servants, the service of his waiters and their apparel, his cupbearers, [a]and his entryway by which he went up to the house of the LORD, there was no more spirit in her.
6 Then she said to the king: "It was a true report which I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom.
7 "However I did not believe the words until I came and saw with my own eyes; and indeed the half was not told me. Your wisdom and prosperity exceed the fame of which I heard.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Kin. 10:9

Justice and Righteousness

God wants those He blesses and places in leadership to practice justice and righteousness. As God's representatives, leaders are called to treat people fairly in a way that reflects God's love and holiness.

10 Then she [a]gave the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold, spices in great quantity, and precious stones. There never again came such abundance of spices as the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.
11 [a]Also, the ships of Hiram, which brought gold from Ophir, brought great quantities of [1]almug wood and precious stones from Ophir.
12 [a]And the king made [1]steps of the almug wood for the house of the LORD and for the king's house, also harps and stringed instruments for singers. There never again came such [b]almug wood, nor has the like been seen to this day.
13 Now King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba all she desired, whatever she asked, besides what Solomon had given her according to the royal generosity. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

Solomon's Great Wealth

14 The weight of gold that came to Solomon yearly was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold,
15 besides that from the [a]traveling merchants, from the income of traders, [b]from all the kings of Arabia, and from the governors of the country.
16 And King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold; six hundred shekels of gold went into each shield.
17 He also made [a]three hundred shields of hammered gold; three minas of gold went into each shield. The king put them in the [b]House of the Forest of Lebanon.
18 [a]Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold.
19 The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round at the back; there were armrests on either side of the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the armrests.
20 Twelve lions stood there, one on each side of the six steps; nothing like this had been made for any other kingdom.
21 [a]All King Solomon's drinking vessels were gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold. Not one was silver, for this was accounted as nothing in the days of Solomon.
22 For the king had [a]merchant[1] ships at sea with the fleet of Hiram. Once every three years the merchant [b]ships came bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and [2]monkeys.
23 So [a]King Solomon surpassed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.
24 Now all the earth sought the presence of Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.
25 Each man brought his present: articles of silver and gold, garments, armor, spices, horses, and mules, at a set rate year by year.
26 [a]And Solomon [b]gathered chariots and horsemen; he had one thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he [1]stationed in the chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem.
27 [a]The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedar trees as abundant as the sycamores which are in the lowland.
28 [a]Also Solomon had horses imported from Egypt and Keveh; the king's merchants bought them in Keveh at the current price.
29 Now a chariot that was imported from Egypt cost six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse one hundred and fifty; [a]and [1]thus, through their agents, they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Syria.

Solomon's Heart Turns from the LORD

11 But [a]King Solomon loved [b]many foreign women, as well as the daughter of Pharaoh: women of the

CHAPTER 11
1 [a][Neh. 13:26] [b][Deut. 17:17]

10:15 Israel was located between the great civilizations of Mesopotamia and Egypt, serving as a land bridge for trade and travel. The "traveling merchants" is a reference to the people who journeyed through Israel along two main trade routes: the International Coastal Highway (Via Maris) and the interregional route called the King's Highway.

10:28 Keveh, sometimes rendered Kue or Que, was later called Cilicia and was located in southeastern Turkey.

11:1 During Solomon's time, the king was expected to enter into foreign marriages to secure political alliances. In light of Solomon's vast international dealings, many of his marriages should be viewed as politically motivated.
