They are gone.

11 "I will make Jerusalem [a]a heap of ruins, [b]a den of jackals.
I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant."

12 [a]Who is the wise man who may understand this? And who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD has spoken, that he may declare it? Why does the land perish and burn up like a wilderness, so that no one can pass through?
13 And the LORD said, "Because they have forsaken My law which I set before them, and have [a]not obeyed My voice, nor walked according to it,
14 "but they have [a]walked according to the [1]dictates of their own hearts and after the Baals, [b]which their fathers taught them,"

Heritage

Many people do not come from a Christian background. Even those who are from a long line of unbelievers must make a personal choice whether or not to follow Christ. We are all accountable to God for our own choices, regardless of our heritage.

8:22 Gilead means "hill of testimony" and is a mountainous region east of the River Jordan. It was known for its aromatic spices and healing balms that were exported to Egypt (Gen. 37:25).

9:1 This is one of the verses that earned Jeremiah the designation "the weeping prophet" (9:10).

9:7 "Refine them and try them" are terms used to describe purifying metals from dross. The reference would be understood among common people who depended upon blacksmiths and artisans for tools, weapons, and decorative items.

fathers have known. [b]And I will send a sword after them until I have consumed them."

The People Mourn in Judgment

17 Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"Consider and call for [a]the mourning women,
That they may come;
And send for skillful wailing women,
That they may come.
18 Let them make haste
And take up a wailing for us,
That [a]our eyes may run with tears,
And our eyelids gush with water.
19 For a voice of wailing is heard from Zion:
'How we are plundered!
We are greatly ashamed,
Because we have forsaken the land,
Because we have been cast out of [a]our dwellings.' "

20 Yet hear the word of the LORD,
O women,
And let your ear receive the word of His mouth;
Teach your daughters wailing,
And everyone her neighbor a lamentation.
21 For death has come through our windows,
Has entered our palaces,
To kill off [a]the children— [1]no longer to be outside!
And the young men— [2]no longer on the streets!

22 Speak, "Thus says the LORD:

'Even the carcasses of men shall fall
[a]as refuse on the open field,
Like cuttings after the harvester,
And no one shall gather them.' "

23 Thus says the LORD:

[a]"Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom,
Let not the mighty man glory in his [b]might,
Nor let the rich man glory in his riches;
24 But [a]let him who glories glory in this,
That he understands and knows Me,
That I am the LORD, exercising lovingkindness, [1]judgment, and righteousness in the earth.
[b]For in these I delight," says the LORD.

Knowing God

There is no greater goal in life than to truly know God. Experiencing Him and knowing Him intimately is a treasure far greater than any human achievement. God takes great pleasure in those who seek to know Him.

25 "Behold, the days are coming," says the LORD, "that [a]I will punish all who are circumcised with the uncircumcised—
26 "Egypt, Judah, Edom, the people of Ammon, Moab, and all who are in the [a]farthest corners, who dwell in the wilderness. For all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are [b]uncircumcised in the heart."

Idols and the True God

10 Hear the word which the LORD speaks to you, O house of Israel.
2 Thus says the LORD:

[a]"Do not learn the way of the Gentiles;
Do not be dismayed at the signs of heaven,
For the Gentiles are dismayed at them.
3 For the customs of the peoples are [1]futile;
For [a]one cuts a tree from the forest,
The work of the hands of the workman, with the ax.
4 They decorate it with silver and gold;
They [a]fasten it with nails and hammers
So that it will not topple.
5 They are upright, like a palm tree,
And [a]they cannot speak;
They must be [b]carried,
Because they cannot go by themselves.
Do not be afraid of them,
For [c]they cannot do evil,
Nor can they do any good."

6 Inasmuch as there is none [a]like You, O LORD
(You are great, and Your name is great in might),
7 [a]Who would not fear You, O King of the nations?
For this is Your rightful due.
For [b]among all the wise men of the nations,

9:17 "Skillful wailing women" refers to professional mourners who would be hired to wail for the deceased (2 Chr. 35:25). Loud weeping was a sign of honor for the one who had died.

10:1–5 The making of idols was a common practice, but idols only represented whatever power the makers attributed to them. In reality, idols were worthless distractions and nothing more. The only power in these decorated inanimate objects was in that they denied God His people's devotion which He desired.

And in all their kingdoms,
There is none like You.
8 But they are altogether
[a]dull-hearted and foolish;
A wooden idol is a [1]worthless doctrine.
9 Silver is beaten into plates;
It is brought from Tarshish,
And [a]gold from Uphaz,
The work of the craftsman
And of the hands of the metalsmith;
Blue and purple are their clothing;
They are all [b]the work of skillful
men.
10 But the LORD is the true God;
He is [a]the living God and the [b]everlasting King.
At His wrath the earth will tremble,
And the nations will not be able to endure His indignation.

11 Thus you shall say to them: [a]"The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth [b]shall perish from the earth and from under these heavens."

12 He [a]has made the earth by His power,
He has [b]established the world by His wisdom,
And [c]has stretched out the heavens at His discretion.
13 [a]When He utters His voice,
There is a [1]multitude of waters in the heavens:
[b]"And He causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth.
He makes lightning for the rain,
He brings the wind out of His treasuries."

14 [a]Everyone is [b]dull-hearted, without knowledge;
[c]Every metalsmith is put to shame by an image;
[d]For his molded image is falsehood,
And there is no breath in them.
15 They are futile, a work of errors;
In the time of their punishment they shall perish.
16 [a]The Portion of Jacob is not like them,
For He is the Maker of all things,
And [b]Israel is the tribe of His inheritance;
[c]The LORD of hosts is His name.

My wound is severe.
But I say, [b]"Truly this is an infirmity,
And [c]I must bear it."
20 [a]My tent is plundered,
And all my cords are broken;
My children have gone from me,
And they are [b]no more.
There is no one to pitch my tent anymore,
Or set up my curtains.

21 For the shepherds have become dull-hearted,
And have not sought the LORD;
Therefore they shall not prosper,
And all their flocks shall be [a]scattered.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Jer. 10:21

Guiding God's People

Throughout Scripture, God likens spiritual leaders to shepherds. When the shepherds follow after God, their people experience blessing, safety, and intimacy with the Lord. But when leaders are wicked, God's people suffer and stray from Him. God expects spiritual leaders to have a shepherd's heart; if they are careless they will be accountable for those who wander.

22 Behold, the noise of the report has come,
And a great commotion out of the [a]north country,
To make the cities of Judah desolate, a [b]den of jackals.

23 O LORD, I know the [a]way of man is not in himself;
It is not in man who walks to direct his own steps.
24 O LORD, [a]correct me, but with justice;
Not in Your anger, lest You bring me to nothing.
25 [a]Pour out Your fury on the Gentiles,
[b]who do not know You,
And on the families who do not call on Your name;

10:9 Tarshish is usually identified with Tartessus in Spain. Blue and purple were used for the most expensive clothing, usually belonging to royalty.

10:11 This verse is in Aramaic while the rest of the book is in Hebrew.

10:21 "Shepherds" also can be translated "pastors" or "rulers."

For they have eaten up Jacob,
[c]Devoured him and consumed him,
And made his dwelling place desolate.

The Broken Covenant

11 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,
2 "Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem;
3 "and say to them, 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel: [a]"Cursed is the man who does not obey the words of this covenant 4 "which I commanded your fathers in the day I brought them out of the land of Egypt, [a]from the iron furnace, saying,
[b]'Obey My voice, and do according to all that I command you; so shall you be My people, and I will be your God,' 5 "that I may establish the [a]oath which I have sworn to your fathers, to give them [b]'a land flowing with milk and honey,' as it is this day." ' " And I answered and said, [1]"So be it, LORD."
6 Then the LORD said to me, "Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying: 'Hear the words of this covenant [a]and do them.
7 'For I earnestly exhorted your fathers in the day I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, until this day, [a]rising early and exhorting, saying, "Obey My voice."
8 [a]'Yet they did not obey or incline their ear, but [b]everyone [1]followed the dictates of his evil heart; therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but which they have not done.' " 9 And the LORD said to me, [a]"A conspiracy has been found among the men of Judah and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
10 "They have turned back to [a]the iniquities of their forefathers who refused to hear My words, and they have gone after other gods to serve them; the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken My covenant which I made with their fathers."
11 Therefore thus says the LORD: "Behold, I will surely bring calamity on them which they will not be able to [1]escape; and [a]though they cry out to Me, I will not listen to them.
12 "Then the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will go and [a]cry out to the gods to whom they offer incense, but they will not save them at all in the time of their trouble.
13 "For according to the number of your [a]cities were your gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem you have set up altars to that shameful thing, altars to burn incense to Baal.
14 "So [a]do not pray for this people, or lift up a cry or prayer for them; for I will not hear them in the time that they cry out to Me because of their trouble.

15 "What[a] has My beloved to do in My house,
Having [b]done lewd deeds with many?
And [c]the holy flesh has passed from
you.
When you do evil, then you [d]rejoice.
16 The LORD called your name,
[a]Green Olive Tree, Lovely and of Good Fruit.
With the noise of a great tumult
He has kindled fire on it,
And its branches are broken.

17 "For the LORD of hosts, [a]who planted you, has pronounced doom against you for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke Me to anger in offering incense to Baal."

Jeremiah's Life Threatened

18 Now the LORD gave me knowledge of it, and I know it; for You showed me their doings.
19 But I was like a docile lamb brought to the slaughter; and I did not know that they had devised schemes against me, saying, "Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, [a]and let us cut him off from [b]the land of the living, that his name may be remembered no more."

God Will Not Hear

There comes a time when God's people exhaust His patience. His offers for reconciliation and pleas for repentance stop, and all that remains is punishment for our stubbornness. It is not that God cannot hear our prayers, but that He chooses not to listen. When that time comes, prayers for deliverance must turn into prayers for mercy.

11:1 A covenant was a legal treaty between two individuals or nations or between people and God. There were certain binding obligations on each party. Breaking a covenant was an extremely serious offense (Deut. 27:26).

11:9 "Conspiracy" speaks of a deliberate plan to turn to other gods and to reject God despite Judah's contractual obligations.

ENCOUNTER Note Jer. 11:19

The Duty of the Messenger

As God's messenger, you will not always be well received. You may even face personal danger. But if God sends you with a message, you must go. To refuse invites disaster upon those who need to hear God's word.

20 But, O LORD of hosts,
You who judge righteously,
[a]Testing the [1]mind and the heart,
Let me see Your [b]vengeance on them,
For to You I have revealed my cause.

21 "Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the men of [a]Anathoth who seek your life, saying, [b]'Do not prophesy in the name of the LORD, lest you die by our hand'—
22 "therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: 'Behold, I will punish them. The young men shall die by the sword, their sons and their daughters shall [a]die by famine;
23 'and there shall be no remnant of them, for I will bring catastrophe on the men of Anathoth, even [a]the year of their punishment.' "

Jeremiah's Question

12 Righteous [a]are You, O LORD,
when I plead with You;
Yet let me talk with You about Your judgments.
[c]Why does the way of the wicked prosper?
Why are those happy who deal so treacherously?

Eternal Justice

We see the wicked prosper and the righteous suffer, and we wonder why God allows it. But He promises that a time is coming when He will mete out His justice. Every person will face eternity—the righteous will enjoy God's loving presence and the wicked will depart from Him forever.

2 You have planted them, yes, they have taken root;
They grow, yes, they bear fruit.
[a]You are near in their mouth
But far from their [1]mind.

3 But You, O LORD, [a]know me;
You have seen me,
And You have [b]tested my heart toward You.
Pull them out like sheep for the slaughter,
And prepare them for [c]the day of slaughter.

ENCOUNTER Note Jer. 12:3

Knowing God Knows

Times of God's testing are crucial for His people because they reveal whether or not He can trust us with important matters in His kingdom. Proving faithful in the test gives us confidence because we too learn how trustworthy we are.

4 How long will [a]the land mourn,
And the herbs of every field wither?
[b]The beasts and birds are consumed,
[c]For the wickedness of those who dwell there,
Because they said, "He will not see our final end."

The LORD Answers Jeremiah

5 "If you have run with the footmen, and they have wearied you,
Then how can you contend with horses?
And if in the land of peace,
In which you trusted, they wearied you,
Then how will you do in [a]the [1]floodplain of the Jordan?
6 For even [a]your brothers, the house of your father,
Even they have dealt treacherously with you;
Yes, they have called [1]a multitude after you.
[b]Do not believe them,
Even though they speak [2]smooth words to you.

7 "I have forsaken My house, I have left My heritage;
I have given the dearly beloved of My soul into the hand of her enemies.

11:21 Anathoth was Jeremiah's home town, which would make its citizens' treachery against him all the more painful.

12:4 It should not be surprising that what we do as created beings will affect other aspects of God's creation.

12:7 "Heritage" most likely means inheritance or property passed down through family lineage.

It cries out against Me;
Therefore I have [a]hated it.
9 My [1]heritage is to Me like a speckled vulture;
The vultures all around are against her.
Come, assemble all the beasts of the field,
[a]Bring them to devour!

10 "Many [a]rulers[1] have destroyed [b]My vineyard,
They have [c]trodden My portion underfoot;
They have made My [2]pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.
11 They have made it [a]desolate;
Desolate, it mourns to Me;
The whole land is made desolate,
Because [b]no one takes it to heart.
12 The plunderers have come
On all the desolate heights in the wilderness,
For the sword of the LORD shall devour
From one end of the land to the other end of the land;
No flesh shall have peace.
13 [a]They have sown wheat but reaped thorns;
They have [1]put themselves to pain but do not profit.
But be ashamed of your harvest
Because of the fierce anger of the LORD."

14 Thus says the LORD: "Against all My evil neighbors who [a]touch the inheritance which I have caused My people Israel to inherit—behold, I will [b]pluck them out of their land and pluck out the house of Judah from among them.
15 [a]"Then it shall be, after I have plucked them out, that I will return and have compassion on them [b]and bring them back, everyone to his heritage and everyone to his land.
16 "And it shall be, if they will learn carefully the ways of My people, [a]to swear by My name, 'As the LORD lives,' as they taught My people to swear by Baal, then they shall be [b]established in the midst of My people.
17 "But if they do not [a]obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation," says the LORD.

Symbol of the Linen Sash

13 Thus the LORD said to me: "Go and get yourself a linen sash, and put it [1]around your waist, but do not put it in water."
2 So I got a [1]sash according to the word of the LORD, and put it around my waist.
3 And the word of the LORD came to me the second time, saying,
4 "Take the [1]sash that you acquired, which is [2]around your waist, and arise, go to the [3]Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole in the rock."
5 So I went and hid it by the Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.
6 Now it came to pass after many days that the LORD said to me, "Arise, go to the Euphrates, and take from there the sash which I commanded you to hide there."
7 Then I went to the Euphrates and dug, and I took the [1]sash from the place where I had hidden it; and there was the sash, ruined. It was profitable for nothing.
8 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
9 "Thus says the LORD: 'In this manner [a]I will ruin the pride of Judah and the great [b]pride of Jerusalem.
10 'This evil people, who [a]refuse to hear My words, who [b]follow[1] the dictates of their hearts, and walk after other gods to serve them and worship them, shall be just like this sash which is profitable for nothing.
11 'For as the sash clings to the waist of a man, so I have caused the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah to cling to Me,' says the LORD, 'that [a]they may become My people, [b]for renown, for praise, and for [c]glory; but they would [d]not hear.'

Symbol of the Wine Bottles

12 "Therefore you shall speak to them this word: 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel: "Every bottle shall be filled with wine." ' And they will say to you, 'Do we not certainly know that every bottle will be filled with wine?'
13 "Then you shall say to them, 'Thus says the LORD: "Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land—even the kings who sit on David's throne, the priests, the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem—[a]with drunkenness!
14 "And [a]I will dash them [1]one against another, even the fathers and the sons together," says the LORD. "I will not pity nor spare nor have mercy, but will destroy them." ' "

12:17 "Pluck up and destroy" speaks of cutting off even the roots of the plant, destroying any possibility of regeneration.

13:1 Linen was normally used exclusively for priestly garments. This piece of clothing was like a kilt worn by men.

13:3 A trip to the Euphrates River would have covered roughly 700 miles, taking several months to complete.

13:12 "Bottle" is literally "wineskin." It probably referred here to clay pots used for storage.

13:13 Drunkenness symbolizes helplessness against attack.

Pride Precedes Captivity

15 Hear and give ear:
Do not be proud,
For the LORD has spoken.
16 [a]Give glory to the LORD your God
Before He causes [b]darkness,
And before your feet stumble
On the dark mountains,
And while you are [c]looking for light,
He turns it into [d]the shadow of death
And makes it dense darkness.
17 But if you will not hear it,
My soul will [a]weep in secret for your pride;
My eyes will weep bitterly
And run down with tears,
Because the LORD's flock has been taken captive.

ENCOUNTER Note Jer. 13:17

Pride in Perspective

God abhors haughtiness. We cannot represent Him or minister in His name without a humble spirit. Arrogance invites humbling circumstances, and these will come!

18 Say to [a]the king and to the queen mother,
"Humble yourselves;
Sit down,
For your rule shall collapse, the crown of your glory."
19 The cities of the South shall be shut up,
And no one shall open them;
Judah shall be carried away captive, all of it;
It shall be wholly carried away captive.

20 Lift up your eyes and see
Those who come from the [a]north.
Where is the flock that was given to you,
Your beautiful sheep?
21 What will you say when He punishes you?
For you have taught them
To be chieftains, to be head over you.
Will not [a]pangs seize you,
Like a woman in [1]labor?
22 And if you say in your heart,
[a]"Why have these things come upon me?"
For the greatness of your iniquity
[b]Your skirts have been uncovered,
Your heels [1]made bare.
23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin or the leopard its spots?
Then may you also do good who are accustomed to do evil.

24 "Therefore I will [a]scatter them [b]like stubble
That passes away by the wind of the wilderness.
25 [a]This is your lot,
The portion of your measures from Me," says the LORD,
"Because you have forgotten Me
And trusted in [b]falsehood.
26 Therefore [a]I will uncover your skirts over your face,
That your shame may appear.
27 I have seen your adulteries
And your lustful [a]neighings,
The lewdness of your harlotry,
Your abominations [b]on the hills in the fields.
Woe to you, O Jerusalem!
Will you still not be made clean?"

ENCOUNTER Note Jer. 13:27

Purity

God wants us to be morally and spiritually clean, and He is perfectly capable of making us pure. The only hindrance is our willingness to allow Him to cleanse us.

Sword, Famine, and Pestilence

14 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the droughts.

2 "Judah mourns,
And [a]her gates languish;
They [b]mourn for the land,
And [c]the cry of Jerusalem has gone up.
3 Their nobles have sent their lads for water;
They went to the cisterns and found no water.
They returned with their vessels empty;
They were [a]ashamed and confounded
[b]And covered their heads.
4 Because the ground is parched,
For there was [a]no rain in the land,
The plowmen were ashamed;
They covered their heads.
5 Yes, the deer also gave birth in the field,

13:19 The "South" is literally "Negeb" or "Negev," and referred to southern Judah and northern Arabia.

But [1]left because there was no grass.
6 And [a]the wild donkeys stood in the desolate heights;
They sniffed at the wind like jackals;
Their eyes failed because there was no grass."

7 O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us,
Do it [a]for Your name's sake;
For our backslidings are many,
We have sinned against You.
8 [a]O the Hope of Israel, his Savior in time of trouble,
Why should You be like a stranger in the land,
And like a traveler who turns aside to tarry for a night?
9 Why should You be like a man astonished,
Like a mighty one [a]who cannot save?
Yet You, O LORD, [b]are in our midst,
And we are called by Your name;
Do not leave us!

10 Thus says the LORD to this people:

[a]"Thus they have loved to wander;
They have not restrained their feet.
Therefore the LORD does not accept them;
[b]He will remember their iniquity now,
And punish their sins."

11 Then the LORD said to me, [a]"Do not pray for this people, for their good.
12 [a]"When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and [b]when they offer burnt offering and grain offering, I will not accept them. But [c]I will consume them by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Jer. 14:12

I Will Not Hear

Our sin causes a breach in our relationship with God. We cannot continually sin with impunity. Sin separates us from holy God. An immoral lifestyle is not remedied by superficial praying.

13 [a]Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! Behold, the prophets say to them, 'You shall not see the sword, nor shall you have famine, but I will give you [1]assured [b]peace in this place.' "
14 And the LORD said to me, [a]"The prophets prophesy lies in My name. [b]I have not sent them, commanded them, nor spoken to them; they prophesy to you a false vision, [1]divination, a worthless thing, and the [c]deceit of their heart.
15 "Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who prophesy in My name, whom I did not send, [a]and who say, 'Sword and famine shall not be in this land'—'By sword and famine those prophets shall be consumed!
16 'And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; [a]they will have no one to bury them—them nor their wives, their sons nor their daughters—for I will pour their wickedness on them.'
17 "Therefore you shall say this word to them:

[a]'Let my eyes flow with tears night and day,
And let them not cease;
[b]For the virgin daughter of my people
Has been broken with a mighty stroke, with a very severe blow.
18 If I go out to [a]the field,
Then behold, those slain with the sword!
And if I enter the city,
Then behold, those sick from famine!
Yes, both prophet and [b]priest go about in a land they do not know.' "

The People Plead for Mercy

19 [a]Have You utterly rejected Judah?
Has Your soul loathed Zion?
Why have You stricken us so that [b]there is no healing for us?
[c]We looked for peace, but there was no good;
And for the time of healing, and there was trouble.
20 We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness
And the iniquity of our [a]fathers,
For [b]we have sinned against You.
21 Do not abhor us, for Your name's sake;
Do not disgrace the throne of Your glory.
[a]Remember, do not break Your covenant with us.

14:8 God is the Hope of Israel, both the object and the giver of hope for His people (Ps. 130:7, Jer. 17:13; Ezek. 29:16; Acts 28:20).

14:13 Jeremiah blamed the false prophets for the people's sin. He believed the wicked religious leaders had led the people astray. While this may have been so, the people would still be punished for having followed those whom God did not send.

14:19 Verses 19–22 may reflect Jeremiah speaking on behalf of the people and voicing their prayers. However, no one can repent on behalf of someone else.

ENCOUNTER Note Jer. 14:20

Against You

All sin is against God. He takes personal offense at every trace of evil in our lives. The first place we must hasten to in times of remorse is God's holy presence.

22 [a]Are there any among [b]the idols of the nations that can cause [c]rain?
Or can the heavens give showers?
[d]Are You not He, O LORD our God?
Therefore we will wait for You,
Since You have made all these.

The LORD Will Not Relent

15 Then the LORD said to me, [a]"Even if [b]Moses and [c]Samuel stood before Me, My [1]mind would not be favorable toward this people. Cast them out of My sight, and let them go forth.
2 "And it shall be, if they say to you, 'Where should we go?' then you shall tell them, 'Thus says the LORD:

[a]"Such as are for death, to death;
And such as are for the sword, to the sword;
And such as are for the famine, to the famine;
And such as are for the [b]captivity, to the captivity." '

3 "And I will [a]appoint over them four forms of destruction," says the LORD: "the sword to slay, the dogs to drag, [b]the birds of the heavens and the beasts of the earth to devour and destroy.
4 "I will hand them over to [a]trouble, to all kingdoms of the earth, because of [b]Manasseh the son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, for what he did in Jerusalem.

5 "For who will have pity on you, O Jerusalem?
Or who will bemoan you?
Or who will turn aside to ask how you are doing?
6 [a]You have forsaken Me," says the LORD,
"You have [b]gone backward.
Therefore I will stretch out My hand against you and destroy you;
[c]I am [1]weary of relenting!
7 And I will winnow them with a winnowing fan in the gates of the land;

ENCOUNTER Note Jer. 15:5

Where Are Your Gods Now?

Should we be surprised when our ungodly pursuits prove worthless, leaving us empty and wanting? God has warned us about straying from the safety of His protection.

I will [a]bereave them of children;
I will destroy My people,
Since they [b]do not return from their ways.
8 Their widows will be increased to Me more than the sand of the seas;
I will bring against them,
Against the mother of the young men,
A plunderer at noonday;
I will cause anguish and terror to fall on them [a]suddenly.

9 "She[a] languishes who has borne seven;
She has breathed her last;
[b]Her sun has gone down
While it was yet day;
She has been ashamed and confounded.
And the remnant of them I will deliver to the sword
Before their enemies," says the LORD.

Jeremiah's Dejection

10 [a]Woe is me, my mother,
That you have borne me,
A man of strife and a man of contention to the whole [1]earth!
I have neither lent for interest,
Nor have men lent to me for interest.
Every one of them curses me.

11 The LORD said:

"Surely it will be well with your remnant;
Surely I will cause [a]the enemy to intercede with you
In the time of adversity and in the time of affliction.
12 Can anyone break iron,
The northern iron and the bronze?
13 Your wealth and your treasures
I will give as [a]plunder without price,

15:1 Moses and Samuel were renowned for intercessory prayers (Ex. 32:11–14, 30–34; Num. 14:13–19; Deut. 9:18–20, 25–29; 1 Sam. 7:5–9; 12:19–23).

15:4 Manasseh ruled longer than any Judean king and was undoubtedly the most wicked (2 Kin. 21:3–16).

15:6 "Weary of relenting" shows that God's patience and grace toward unrepentant and rebellious people are not to be presumed upon.

Because of all your sins,
Throughout your territories.
14 And I will [1]make you cross over with your enemies
[a]Into a land which you do not know;
For a [b]fire is kindled in My anger,
Which shall burn upon you."

15 O LORD, [a]You know;
Remember me and [1]visit me,
And [b]take vengeance for me on my persecutors.
In Your enduring patience, do not take me away.
Know that [c]for Your sake I have suffered rebuke.
16 Your words were found, and I [a]ate
them,
And [b]Your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart;
For I am called by Your name,
O LORD God of hosts.

Joy

God's word can bring joy even in the midst of heartache and suffering. Our circumstances can become dismal in an instant, but God's word to us is a source of strength and unquenchable joy.

17 [a]I did not sit in the assembly of the mockers,
Nor did I rejoice;
I sat alone because of Your hand,
For You have filled me with indignation.
18 Why is my [a]pain perpetual
And my wound incurable,
Which refuses to be healed?
Will You surely be to me [b]like an unreliable stream,
As waters that [1]fail?

The LORD Reassures Jeremiah

19 Therefore thus says the LORD:

[a]"If you return,
Then I will bring you back;
You shall [b]stand before Me;
If you [c]take out the precious from the vile,
You shall be as My mouth.
Let them return to you,
But you must not return to them.
20 And I will make you to this people a fortified bronze [a]wall;
And they will fight against you,
But [b]they shall not prevail against
you;
For I am with you to save you
And deliver you," says the LORD.
21 "I will deliver you from the hand of the wicked,
And I will redeem you from the grip of the terrible."

Jeremiah's Lifestyle and Message

16 The word of the LORD also came to me, saying,
2 "You shall not take a wife, nor shall you have sons or daughters in this place."
3 For thus says the LORD concerning the sons and daughters who are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who bore them and their fathers who begot them in this land:
4 "They shall die [a]gruesome deaths; they shall not be [b]lamented nor shall they be [c]buried, but they shall be [d]like refuse on the face of the earth. They shall be consumed by the sword and by famine, and their [e]corpses shall be meat for the birds of heaven and for the beasts of the earth."
5 For thus says the LORD: [a]"Do not enter the house of mourning, nor go to lament or bemoan them; for I have taken away My peace from this people," says the LORD, "lovingkindness and mercies.

ENCOUNTER Note Jer. 16:5

God's Peace

God's peace is unmistakable. Regardless of the circumstances, there is an abiding confidence that all is well. When God chooses to remove His peace, anxiety and fear prevail and nothing can calm the spirit.

6 "Both the great and the small shall die in this land. They shall not be buried; [a]neither shall men lament for them, [b]cut themselves, nor [c]make themselves bald for them.
7 "Nor shall men break bread in mourning for them, to comfort them for the dead; nor shall men give them the cup of consolation to [a]drink for their father or their mother.
8 "Also you shall not go into the house of feasting to sit with them, to eat and drink."
9 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, [a]I will cause to cease from this place, before your eyes and in your days, the voice of [1]mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride.

10 "And it shall be, when you show this people all these words, and they say to you, [a]'Why has the LORD pronounced all this great disaster against us? Or what is our iniquity? Or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?'
11 "then you shall say to them, [a]'Because your fathers have forsaken Me,' says the LORD; 'they have walked after other gods and have served them and worshiped them, and have forsaken Me and not kept My law.
12 'And you have done [a]worse than your fathers, for behold, [b]each one [1]follows the dictates of his own evil heart, so that no one listens to Me.
13 [a]'Therefore I will cast you out of this land [b]into a land that you do not know, neither you nor your fathers; and there you shall serve other gods day and night, where I will not show you favor.'

God Will Restore Israel

14 "Therefore behold, the [a]days are coming," says the LORD, "that it shall no more be said, 'The LORD lives who brought up the children of Israel from the land of Egypt,' 15 "but, 'The LORD lives who brought up the children of Israel from the land of the [a]north and from all the lands where He had driven them.' For [b]I will bring them back into their land which I gave to their fathers.
16 "Behold, I will send for many [a]fishermen," says the LORD, "and they shall fish them; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain and every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks.
17 "For My [a]eyes are on all their ways;
they are not hidden from My face, nor is their iniquity hidden from My eyes.
18 "And first I will repay [a]double for their iniquity and their sin, because [b]they have defiled My land; they have filled My inheritance with the carcasses of their detestable and abominable idols."

19 O LORD, [a]my strength and my fortress,
[b]My refuge in the day of affliction,
The Gentiles shall come to You
From the ends of the earth and say,
"Surely our fathers have inherited lies, Worthlessness and [c]unprofitable things."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Jer. 16:21

They Shall Know

God wants us to know Him. When He chooses to reveal who He is and what He is like, there can be no doubt about His sovereignty.

Judah's Sin and Punishment

17 "The sin of Judah is [a]written with a [b]pen of iron;
With the point of a diamond it is [c]engraved
On the tablet of their heart,
And on the horns of your altars,
2 While their children remember
Their altars and their [a]wooden[1] images
By the green trees on the high hills.
3 O My mountain in the field,
I will give as plunder your wealth,
all your treasures,
And your high places of sin within all your borders.
4 And you, even yourself,
Shall let go of your heritage which I gave you;
And I will cause you to serve your enemies
In [a]the land which you do not know;
For [b]you have kindled a fire in My anger which shall burn forever."

5 Thus says the LORD:

[a]"Cursed is the man who trusts in man
And makes [b]flesh his [1]strength,
Whose heart departs from the
LORD.
6 For he shall be [a]like a shrub in the

And [b]shall not see when good in the wilderness,

16:13 "You shall serve other gods" indicates that God abandoned His people to their useless idols until they realized their foolishness and turned back to Him.

16:16 "Hunters" and "fishermen" refer to the Babylonians who would come and scour the land for Judean refugees.

17:1-4 God treated His people like pagans because they behaved like pagans. Even worse, they had the truth and rejected it, whereas heathens did not know God at all.

17:3 In 586 B.C., King Nebuchadnezzar and his army removed the last of the temple and palace treasures from Jerusalem.

7 "Blessed[a] is the man who trusts in the LORD,
And whose hope is the LORD.
8 For he shall be [a]like a tree planted by the waters,
Which spreads out its roots by the river,
And will not [1]fear when heat comes;
But its leaf will be green,
And will not be anxious in the year of drought,
Nor will cease from yielding fruit.

9 "The [a]heart is deceitful above all things,
And [1]desperately wicked;
Who can know it?

ENCOUNTER Note — Jer. 17:9

Deceitful

People are not naturally good and honest. We fool ourselves about our motives and we overestimate our righteousness. Only God truly knows us as we are. We must seek His evaluation of our lives if we are to address our sin.

10 I, the LORD, [a]search the heart,
I test the [1]mind,
[b]Even to give every man according to his ways,
According to the fruit of his doings.

11 "As a partridge that [1]broods but does not hatch,
So is he who gets riches, but not by right;
It [a]will leave him in the midst of his days,
And at his end he will be [b]a fool."

12 A glorious high throne from the beginning
Is the place of our sanctuary.
13 O LORD, [a]the hope of Israel,
[b]All who forsake You shall be ashamed.

"Those who depart from Me
Shall be [c]written in the earth,
Because they have forsaken the LORD,
The [d]fountain of living waters."

Jeremiah Prays for Deliverance

14 Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed;
Save me, and I shall be saved,
For [a]You are my praise.
15 Indeed they say to me,

Healing

Only God can heal the soul and mend the heart. Never be afraid to cry out to Him in your anguish. Whatever your affliction is, God has the remedy.

[a]"Where is the word of the LORD?
Let it come now!"
16 As for me, [a]I have not hurried away from being a shepherd who follows You,
Nor have I desired the woeful day;
You know what came out of my lips;
It was right there before You.
17 Do not be a terror to me;
[a]You are my hope in the day of doom.
18 [a]Let them be ashamed who persecute me,
But [b]do not let me be put to shame;
Let them be dismayed,
But do not let me be dismayed.
Bring on them the day of doom,
And [c]destroy[1] them with double destruction!

Hallow the Sabbath Day

19 Thus the LORD said to me: "Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, by which the kings of Judah come in and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem;
20 "and say to them, [a]'Hear the word of the LORD, you kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, who enter by these gates.
21 'Thus says the LORD: [a]"Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the Sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem;
22 "nor carry a burden out of your houses on the Sabbath day, nor do any work, but hallow the Sabbath day, as I [a]commanded your fathers.
23 [a]"But they did not obey nor incline their ear, but [1]made their neck stiff, that they might not hear nor receive instruction.
24 "And it shall be, [a]if you heed Me carefully," says the LORD, "to bring no burden through the gates of this city on the [b]Sabbath day, but hallow the Sabbath day, to do no work in it,
25 [a]"then shall enter the gates of this city kings and princes sitting on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they and their princes, accompanied by the men of Judah and the 27 "But if you will not heed Me to hallow the Sabbath day, such as not carrying a burden when entering the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, then [a]I will kindle a fire in its gates, [b]and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be [c]quenched." ' "

The Potter and the Clay

18 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying:
2 "Arise and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause you to hear My words."
3 Then I went down to the potter's house, and there he was, making something at the [1]wheel.
4 And the vessel that he [1]made of clay was [2]marred in the hand of the potter; so he made it again into another vessel, as it seemed good to the potter to make.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Jer. 18:4

Vessels

God intends to form our lives into useful instruments for His purposes. Those things in us that displease Him will be reshaped and refashioned for His glory. It is futile to resist His will; it is wise to be pliable.

5 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying:
6 "O house of Israel, [a]can I not do with you as this potter?" says the LORD. "Look, [b]as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are you in My hand, O house of Israel!
7 "The instant I speak concerning a nation and concerning a kingdom, to [a]pluck up, to pull down, and to destroy it,
8 [a]"if that nation against whom I have spoken turns from its evil, [b]I will relent of the disaster that I thought to bring upon it.
9 "And the instant I speak concerning a nation and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it,
10 "if it does evil in My sight so that it does not obey My voice, then I will relent concerning the good with which I said I would benefit it.
11 "Now therefore, speak to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: "Behold, I am fashioning a disaster and devising a plan against you. [a]Return now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings [b]good." ' "

God's Warning Rejected

12 And they said, [a]"That is hopeless! So we will walk according to our own plans, and we will every one [1]obey the [b]dictates[2] of his evil heart."
13 Therefore thus says the LORD:

[a]"Ask now among the Gentiles,
Who has heard such things?
The virgin of Israel has done [b]a very horrible thing.
14 Will a man [1]leave the snow water of Lebanon,
Which comes from the rock of the field?
Will the cold flowing waters be forsaken for strange waters?

HISTORICAL*Encounter* ADELAIDE POLLARD Jer. 18:3, 4

In 1902, Adelaide Pollard longed to do missionary work in Africa. She sought to raise funds for the trip but was bitterly disappointed at her lack of success. One evening she attended her church prayer meeting, where an elderly woman humbly prayed, "It really doesn't matter what you do with us, Lord—just have your way with our lives." Adelaide was deeply moved by the woman's humble submission to God. Upon her return home that evening, Adelaide looked up Jeremiah 18:3, 4 and read about the potter and the clay. She quickly penned her new spiritual insight into a hymn which became known as "Have Thine Own Way, Lord!" and has been sung by countless believers as a song of consecration to God.

Everyone who passes by it will be astonished
And shake his head.
17 [a]I will scatter them [b]as with an east wind before the enemy;
[c]I will [1]show them the back and not the face
In the day of their calamity."

Jeremiah Persecuted

18 Then they said, [a]"Come and let us devise plans against Jeremiah; [b]for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come and let us attack him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words."

19 Give heed to me, O LORD,
And listen to the voice of those who contend with me!
20 [a]Shall evil be repaid for good?
For they have [b]dug a pit for my life.
Remember that I [c]stood before You
To speak good [1]for them,
To turn away Your wrath from them.
21 Therefore [a]deliver up their children to the famine,
And pour out their blood
By the force of the sword;
Let their wives become widows
And [b]bereaved of their children.
Let their men be put to death,
Their young men be slain
By the sword in battle.
22 Let a cry be heard from their houses,
When You bring a troop suddenly upon them;
For they have dug a pit to take me,
And hidden snares for my feet.
23 Yet, LORD, You know all their counsel
Which is against me, to slay me.
[a]Provide no atonement for their iniquity,
Nor blot out their sin from Your sight;
But let them be overthrown before You.
Deal thus with them
In the time of Your [b]anger.

As Go the Leaders

God appoints leaders over His people to care for them, instruct them, and guide them. As go the leaders, so go His people. Corrupt leaders breed corrupt followers and become a stumbling block to communication between God and His people.

18:23 The word "atonement" used here is the word used in yom kippur, the Day of Atonement.

19:1 A flask was a small, narrow-necked clay bottle, generally six to ten inches tall.

19:2 The "Valley of the Son of Hinnom" was a deep, narrow valley on the southeast side of Jerusalem. Child sacrifices had been offered there. It later became a garbage dump where fires smoldered constantly. Gehenna, meaning "Valley of Hinnom," became a New Testament word for hell (Matt 18:9; Mark 9:47, 48). The Potsherd Gate may have been the place potters discarded broken pottery outside the city.

19:4 Each generation comes up with its own ways to offend God, often building on the sins of past generations.

14 Then Jeremiah came from Tophet, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in [a]the court of the LORD's house and said to all the people,
15 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Behold, I will bring on this city and on all her towns all the doom that I have pronounced against it, because [a]they have stiffened their necks that they might not hear My words.' "

Stiffnecked

We can be receptive to God's word or we can harden our hearts and justify our actions so no amount of communication from God will change our minds. Receiving God's word is our choice, but living with the consequences is not.

The Word of God to Pashhur

20 Now [a]Pashhur the son of [b]Immer, the priest who was also chief governor in the house of the LORD, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things.
2 Then Pashhur struck Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the high [a]gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD.
3 And it happened on the next day that Pashhur brought Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then Jeremiah said to him, "The LORD has not called your name Pashhur, but [1]Magor-Missabib.
4 "For thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will make you a terror to yourself and to all your friends; and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and your eyes shall see it. I will [a]give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive to Babylon and slay them with the sword.
5 'Moreover I [a]will deliver all the wealth of this city, all its produce, and all its precious things; all the treasures of the kings of Judah I will give into the hand of their enemies, who will plunder them, seize them, and [b]carry them to Babylon.
6 'And you, Pashhur, and all who dwell in your house, shall go into captivity. You shall go to Babylon, and there you shall die, and be buried there, you and all your friends, to whom you have [a]prophesied lies.' "

Burning Fire Within

God puts His words in our hearts for a dual purpose: to refine us and for us to share with those around us. God's word is powerfully dynamic, and it will accomplish His purposes even if we or others try to suppress it.

20:1 Pashhur means "splitter" or "cleaver." God changed the name to Magor-Missabib, meaning "terror on every side."

20:1 Pashhur would have been a priest. As chief governor in the temple, he would have been responsible for overseeing the temple guards and for other administrative duties. Immer was the founder of the sixteenth priestly order and served during David's rule (1 Chr. 24:14).

20:2 The high gate of Benjamin was also named the "Upper Gate." It provided access to the temple area from the north, where Benjamin's territory lay.

"Report," they say, "and we will report it!"
[b]All my acquaintances watched for my stumbling, saying,
"Perhaps he can be induced;
Then we will prevail against him,
And we will take our revenge on him."

11 But the LORD is [a]with me as a mighty, awesome One.
Therefore my persecutors will stumble, and will not [b]prevail.
They will be greatly ashamed, for they will not prosper.
Their [c]everlasting confusion will never be forgotten.
12 But, O LORD of hosts,
You who [a]test the righteous,
And see the [1]mind and heart,
[b]Let me see Your vengeance on them;
For I have pleaded my cause before You.

13 Sing to the LORD! Praise the LORD!
For [a]He has delivered the life of the poor
From the hand of evildoers.

14 [a]Cursed be the day in which I was born!
Let the day not be blessed in which my mother bore me!

ENCOUNTER*Note* Jer. 20:14

Discouragement

It is not unusual for those encountering weighty spiritual battles to experience discouragement and to temporarily lose perspective. But God is faithful. He will uphold His servants and renew their strength as they turn to Him for comfort.

15 Let the man be cursed
Who brought news to my father, saying,
"A male child has been born to you!"
Making him very glad.
16 And let that man be like the cities
Which the LORD [a]overthrew, and did not relent;
Let him [b]hear the cry in the morning
And the shouting at noon,
17 [a]Because he did not kill me from the womb,
That my mother might have been my grave,
And her womb always enlarged with me.
18 [a]Why did I come forth from the womb to [b]see [1]labor and sorrow,
That my days should be consumed with shame?

Jerusalem's Doom Is Sealed

21 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD when [a]King Zedekiah sent to him [b]Pashhur the son of Melchiah, and [c]Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, saying,
2 [a]"Please inquire of the LORD for us, for [1]Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon makes war against us. Perhaps the LORD will deal with us according to all His wonderful works, that the king may go away from us."

Betting on God's Grace

It is our nature to depend on God's grace in our time of need even while we deliberately ignore our own sin. We want Holy God to ignore our sin as we have done, but He is unwilling to do so.

3 Then Jeremiah said to them, "Thus you shall say to Zedekiah,
4 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel: "Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, with which you fight against the king of Babylon and the [1]Chaldeans who besiege you outside the walls; and [a]I will assemble them in the midst of this city.
5 "I [a]Myself will fight against you with an [b]outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger and fury and great wrath.
6 "I will strike the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast; they shall die of a great pestilence.
7 "And afterward," says the LORD, [a]"I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, his servants and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence and the sword and the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life; and he shall strike them with the edge of the sword. Our Choice

Daily, God invites us to follow His path of righteousness. We are free to choose our way, but God makes it clear that the choice is between life or death.

ENCOUNTER Note Jer. 22:1

Go to the King

As God's representatives, we may be asked to carry an important message to those in authority over us. Though we may feel intimidated, our faithfulness to this task will have a direct effect on many lives.

3 'Thus says the LORD: [a]"Execute[1] judgment and righteousness, and deliver the plundered out of the hand of the oppressor. Do no wrong and do no violence to the stranger, the [b]fatherless, or the widow, nor shed innocent blood in this place.
4 "For if you indeed do this thing, [a]then shall enter the gates of this house, riding on horses and in chariots, accompanied by servants and people, kings who sit on the throne of David.
5 "But if you will not [1]hear these words, [a]I swear by Myself," says the LORD, "that this house shall become a desolation." ' "
6 For thus says the LORD to the house of the king of Judah:

"You are [a]Gilead to Me,
The head of Lebanon;
Yet I surely will make you a
wilderness,
Cities which are not inhabited.
7 I will prepare destroyers against
you,
Everyone with his weapons;
They shall cut down [a]your choice
cedars
[b]And cast them into the fire.

8 "And many nations will pass by this city; and everyone will say to his neighbor, [a]'Why has the LORD done so to this great city?'
9 "Then they will answer, [a]'Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshiped other gods and served them.' "

10 Weep not for [a]the dead, nor bemoan
him;
Weep bitterly for him [b]who goes
away,
For he shall return no more,
Nor see his native country.

Message to the Sons of Josiah

11 For thus says the LORD concerning [a]Shallum[1] the son of Josiah, king of Judah, who reigned instead of Josiah his 22:11 Shallum, also called Jehoahaz, succeeded his father Josiah on the throne of Judah in 610 B.C. He was taken captive by the Egyptians and died a prisoner in Egypt (2 Kin. 23:34; 2 Chr. 36:1–4).

Bowing Before God

National leaders hold a position of grave accountability before God whether they acknowledge it or not. There is only one true King.

12 "but he shall die in the place where they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more.

13 "Woe[a] to him who builds his house by unrighteousness
And his [1]chambers by injustice,
[b]Who uses his neighbor's service without wages
And gives him nothing for his work, 14 Who says, 'I will build myself a wide house with spacious [1]chambers,
And cut out windows for it,
Paneling it with cedar
And painting it with vermilion.'

15 "Shall you reign because you enclose yourself in cedar?
Did not your father eat and drink,
And do justice and righteousness?
Then [a]it was well with him.
16 He [1]judged the cause of the poor and needy;
Then it was well.
Was not this knowing Me?" says the
LORD.
17 "Yet[a] your eyes and your heart are for nothing but your covetousness,
For shedding innocent blood,
And practicing oppression and violence."

18 Therefore thus says the LORD concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah:

[a]"They shall not lament for him,
Saying, [b]'Alas, my brother!' or 'Alas,
my sister!'
They shall not lament for him, Saying, 'Alas, master!' or 'Alas, his glory!'
19 [a]He shall be buried with the burial of a donkey,
Dragged and cast out beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

But you said, 'I will not hear.'
[a]This has been your manner from your youth,
That you did not obey My voice.
22 The wind shall eat up all [a]your
[1]rulers,
And your lovers shall go into captivity;
Surely then you will be ashamed and humiliated
For all your wickedness.
23 O inhabitant of Lebanon,
Making your nest in the cedars,
How gracious will you be when pangs come upon you,
Like [a]the pain of a woman in

Message to Coniah

24 "As I live," says the LORD, [a]"though [1]Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, [b]were the [2]signet on My right hand, yet I would pluck you off;
25 [a]"and I will give you into the hand of those who seek your life, and into the hand of those whose face you fear—the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and the hand of the [1]Chaldeans.
26 [a]"So I will cast you out, and your mother who bore you, into another country where you were not born; and there you shall die.
27 "But to the land to which they desire to return, there they shall not return.

28 "Is this man [1]Coniah a despised, broken idol—
[a]A vessel in which is no pleasure?
Why are they cast out, he and his descendants,
And cast into a land which they do not know?
29 [a]O earth, earth, earth,
Hear the word of the LORD!
30 Thus says the LORD:
'Write this man down as [a]childless,
A man who shall not prosper in his prosper,

22:20 Lebanon is located in northern Palestine; Bashan and Abarim (land of Moab) are east of the Jordan River.

22:24 Coniah, also known as Jehoiachin, was eighteen when he succeeded his father in 598 B.C. He reigned three months and then was exiled to Babylon by Nebuchadnezzar (2 Kin. 24:6–16).

The Branch of Righteousness

23 "Woe [a]to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of My pasture!" says the LORD.
2 Therefore thus says the LORD God of Israel against the shepherds who feed My people: "You have scattered My flock, driven them away, and not attended to them. [a]Behold, I will attend to you for the evil of your doings," says the LORD.
3 "But [a]I will gather the remnant of My flock out of all countries where I have driven them, and bring them back to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase.
4 "I will set up [a]shepherds over them who will feed them; and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, nor shall they be lacking," says the LORD.

5 "Behold, [a]the days are coming," says the LORD,
"That I will raise to David a Branch of righteousness;
A King shall reign and [1]prosper,
[b]And execute [2]judgment and righteousness in the [3]earth.
6 [a]In His days Judah will be saved,
And Israel [b]will dwell safely;
Now [c]this is His name by which He will be called:

[1]THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

7 "Therefore, behold, [a]the days are coming," says the LORD, "that they shall no longer say, 'As the LORD lives who brought up the children of Israel from the land of Egypt,'
8 "but, 'As the LORD lives who brought up and led the descendants of the house of Israel from the north country [a]and from all the countries where I had driven them.' And they shall dwell in their own [b]land."

False Prophets and Empty Oracles

9 My heart within me is broken
Because of the prophets;
[a]All my bones shake.
I am like a drunken man,
And like a man whom wine has overcome,
Because of the LORD,
And because of His holy words.
10 For [a]the land is full of adulterers;
For [b]because of a curse the land mourns.
[c]The pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up.
Their course of life is evil,
And their might is not right.

11 "For [a]both prophet and priest are profane;
Yes, [b]in My house I have found their wickedness," says the LORD.
12 "Therefore[a] their way shall be to them
Like slippery ways;
In the darkness they shall be driven on
And fall in them;
For I [b]will bring disaster on them,
The year of their punishment," says the LORD.
13 "And I have seen [1]folly in the prophets of Samaria:
[a]They prophesied by Baal
And [b]caused My people Israel to err.
14 Also I have seen a horrible thing in the prophets of Jerusalem:
[a]They commit adultery and walk in lies;
They also [b]strengthen the hands of evildoers,
So that no one turns back from his wickedness.
All of them are like [c]Sodom to Me,
And her inhabitants like Gomorrah.

HISTORICAL*Encounter* WILLIAM M'CULLOCH Jer. 23:6

William M'Culloch was selected as the minister in the Scottish village of Cambuslang in 1731. Not known for his oratorical skills, he had a weak voice and a slow sermon delivery, for which he was occasionally ridiculed. Yet in 1742 the hearts of his people were suddenly, dramatically awakened. On February 18, he was preaching from the text of Jeremiah 23:6. As he drew his message to a close, M'Culloch grew frustrated at his people's seeming inability to comprehend the profound truth he was explaining. In frustration he exhorted them with the words of Isaiah 53:1: "Who has believed our report? And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?" Suddenly the people were overcome. A revival erupted that lasted six months and spread throughout the region. Services were held daily. Thousands of people attended and hundreds were converted. The famous evangelist George Whitefield came and spoke to tens of thousands. On M'Culloch's tombstone was written: "He was eminently successful in preaching the gospel."

23:5 "The Branch" referred to the coming Messiah (Is. 4:2; Jer. 33:15; Zech. 3:8; 6:12).

23:6 "The Lord our righteousness" is one of the names of God, Yahweh Tsidkenu.

15 "Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets:

'Behold, I will feed them with [a]wormwood,
And make them drink the water of gall;
For from the prophets of Jerusalem
[1]Profaneness has gone out into all the land.' "

16 Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you.
They make you worthless;
[a]They speak a vision of their own heart,
Not from the mouth of the LORD.

ENCOUNTER Note Jer. 23:16

Our Own Vision

A dangerous but far too common temptation is to project our own wishes on to God. We conceive a desire in our heart and convince ourselves, or others, it must be God's will. We do this to our own detriment and we do a grave disservice to those who trust us.

17 They continually say to those who despise Me,
'The LORD has said, [a]"You shall have peace" ';
And to everyone who [b]walks according to the [1]dictates of his own heart, they say,
[c]'No evil shall come upon you.' "

18 For [a]who has stood in the counsel of the LORD,
And has perceived and heard His word?
Who has marked His word and heard it?
19 Behold, a [a]whirlwind of the LORD has gone forth in fury—
A violent whirlwind!
It will fall violently on the head of the wicked.
20 The [a]anger of the LORD will not turn back
Until He has executed and performed the thoughts of His heart.
[b]In the latter days you will understand it perfectly.
21 "I[a] have not sent these prophets, yet they ran.
I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

False Words

Many share their dreams and their visions, but only those who have been in God's presence receive a word from Him. God's word sets people free. Those who spread lies, claiming to represent God, should tremble in fear, for God does not tolerate false prophets.

23 "Am I a God near at hand," says the LORD,
"And not a God afar off?
24 Can anyone [a]hide himself in secret places,
So I shall not see him?" says the LORD;
[b]"Do I not fill heaven and earth?" says the LORD.

25 "I have heard what the prophets have said who prophesy lies in My name, saying, 'I have dreamed, I have dreamed!'
26 "How long will this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies? Indeed they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart, 27 "who try to make My people forget My name by their dreams which everyone tells his neighbor, [a]as their fathers forgot My name for Baal.

28 "The prophet who has a dream, let him tell a dream;
And he who has My word, let him speak My word faithfully.
What is the chaff to the wheat?" says the LORD.
29 "Is not My word like a [a]fire?" says the LORD,
"And like a hammer that breaks the rock in pieces?

30 "Therefore behold, [a]I am against the prophets," says the LORD, "who steal My words every one from his neighbor.
31 "Behold, I am [a]against the prophets," says the LORD, "who use their tongues and say, 'He says.'
32 "Behold, I am against those who prophesy false dreams," says the LORD, "and tell them, and cause My people to err by their [a]lies and by [b]their recklessness. Yet I did not send them or command them; therefore they shall not [c]profit this people at all," says the LORD.

33 "So when these people or the prophet or the priest ask you, saying, 'What is [a]the [1]oracle of the LORD?' you shall then say to them, [2]'What oracle?' I will even forsake you," says the LORD.
34 "And as for the prophet and the priest and the people who say, 'The [1]oracle of the LORD!' I will even punish that man and his house.
35 "Thus every one of you shall say to his neighbor, and every one to his brother, 'What has the LORD answered?' and, 'What has the LORD spoken?'
36 "And the [1]oracle of the LORD you shall mention no more. For every man's word will be his oracle, for you have [a]perverted the words of the living God, the LORD of hosts, our God.
37 "Thus you shall say to the prophet, 'What has the LORD answered you?' and, 'What has the LORD spoken?'
38 "But since you say, 'The [1]oracle of the LORD!' therefore thus says the LORD: 'Because you say this word, "The oracle of the LORD!" and I have sent to you, saying, "Do not say, 'The oracle of the LORD!' "
39 'therefore behold, I, even I, [a]will utterly forget you and forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and will cast you out of My presence.
40 'And I will bring [a]an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual [b]shame, which shall not be forgotten.' "

The Sign of Two Baskets of Figs

24 The [a]LORD showed me, and there were two baskets of figs set before the temple of the LORD, after Nebuchadnezzar [b]king of Babylon had carried away captive [c]Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the princes of Judah with the craftsmen and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.
2 One basket had very good figs, like the figs that are first ripe; and the other basket had very bad figs which could not be eaten, they were so [a]bad.
3 Then the LORD said to me, "What do you see, Jeremiah?" And I said, "Figs, the good figs, very good; and the bad, very bad, which cannot be eaten, they are so bad."
4 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
5 "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'Like these good figs, so will I [1]acknowledge those who are carried away captive from Judah, whom I have sent out of this place for their own good, into the land of the Chaldeans.
6 'For I will set My eyes on them for good, and [a]I will bring them back to this land; [b]I will build them and not pull them down, and I will plant them and not pluck them up.
7 'Then I will give them [a]a heart to know Me, that I am the LORD; and they shall be [b]My people, and I will be their God, for they shall return to Me [c]with their whole heart.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Jer. 24:7

A Change of Heart

God's judgment is a means, not an end. His inclination is toward mercy and forgiveness. His judgment is designed to elicit repentance from His people, opening the way to a restored relationship.

8 'And as the bad [a]figs which cannot be eaten, they are so bad'—surely thus says the LORD—'so will I give up Zedekiah the king of Judah, his princes, the [b]residue of Jerusalem who remain in this land, and [c]those who dwell in the land of Egypt.
9 'I will deliver them to [a]trouble into all the kingdoms of the earth, for their harm, [b]to be a reproach and a byword, a taunt and a curse, in all places where I shall drive them.
10 'And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence among them, till they are [1]consumed from the land that I gave to them and their fathers.' "

Seventy Years of Desolation

25 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, [a]in the fourth year of [b]Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah (which was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon),
2 which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying:
3 [a]"From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even to this day, this is the twenty-third year in which the word of the LORD has come to me; and I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking, [b]but you have not listened.

24:2 This may have been during the autumn festival called Firstfruits (Deut. 26:1–11).
25:1 This would have been in 605 B.C.

4 "And the LORD has sent to you all His servants the prophets, [a]rising early and sending them, but you have not listened nor inclined your ear to hear.
5 "They said, [a]'Repent now everyone of his evil way and his evil doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD has given to you and your fathers forever and ever.
6 'Do not go after other gods to serve them and worship them, and do not provoke Me to anger with the works of your hands; and I will not harm you.'
7 "Yet you have not listened to Me," says the LORD, "that you might [a]provoke Me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt.
8 "Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: 'Because you have not heard My words,
9 'behold, I will send and take [a]all the families of the north,' says the LORD, 'and Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, [b]My servant, and will bring them against this land, against its inhabitants, and against these nations all around, and will utterly destroy them, and [c]make them an astonishment, a hissing, and perpetual desolations.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Jer. 25:9

The Wicked as God's Servants

God is not confined to only using His people for His purposes. His entire creation is at His disposal. It is a sad situation when God's enemies actually become His servants, carrying out judgment on His people.

10 'Moreover I will [1]take from them the [a]voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, [b]the sound of the millstones and the light of the lamp.
11 'And this whole land shall be a desolation and an astonishment, and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy [a]years.
12 'Then it will come to pass, [a]when [1]seventy years are completed, that I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation, the land of the Chaldeans, for their iniquity,' says the LORD; [b]'and I will make it a perpetual desolation.
13 'So I will bring on that land all My words which I have pronounced against it, all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah has prophesied concerning all the nations.
14 [a]'(For many nations [b]and great kings shall [c]be served by them also; [d]and I will repay them according to their deeds and according to the works of their own hands.)' "

Judgment on the Nations

15 For thus says the LORD God of Israel to me: "Take this [a]wine cup of [1]fury from My hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send you, to drink it.
16 "And [a]they will drink and stagger and go mad because of the sword that I will send among them."
17 Then I took the cup from the LORD's hand, and made all the nations drink, to whom the LORD had sent me:
18 Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, its kings and its princes, to make them [a]a desolation, an astonishment, a hissing, and [b]a curse, as it is this day;
19 Pharaoh king of Egypt, his servants, his princes, and all his people;
20 all the mixed multitude, all the kings of [a]the land of Uz, all the kings of the land of the [b]Philistines (namely, Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and [c]the remnant of Ashdod);
21 [a]Edom, Moab, and the people of Ammon;
22 all the kings of [a]Tyre, all the kings of Sidon, and the kings of the coastlands which are across the [b]sea;
23 [a]Dedan, Tema, Buz, and all who are in the farthest corners;
24 all the kings of Arabia and all the kings of the [a]mixed multitude who dwell in the desert;
25 all the kings of Zimri, all the kings of [a]Elam, and all the kings of the [b]Medes;

He will roar mightily against [c]His fold.
He will give [d]a shout, as those who tread the grapes,

You shall fall like a precious vessel.

Nor the leaders of the flock to escape.

And a wailing of the leaders to the flock will be heard.
For the LORD has plundered their pasture,

Because of the fierceness of the Oppressor,
And because of His fierce anger."

Jeremiah Saved from Death

26 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came from the LORD, saying,
2 "Thus says the LORD: 'Stand in [a]the court of the LORD's house, and speak to all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, [b]all the words that I command you to speak to them. [c]Do not diminish a word.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Jer. 26:2

Faithful Messengers

We must share whatever truth God gives us, with absolute accuracy. Though we are tempted to adjust the message to make it more palatable, that risks distorting the truth and misrepresenting God. God works in wondrous detail, tailoring His message precisely for those who need to hear it.

3 [a]'Perhaps everyone will listen and turn from his evil way, that I may [b]relent concerning the calamity which I purpose to bring on them because of the evil of their doings.'
4 "And you shall say to them, 'Thus says the LORD: [a]"If you will not listen to Me, to walk in My law which I have set before you,
5 "to heed the words of My servants the prophets [a]whom I sent to you, both rising up early and sending them (but you have not heeded),
6 "then I will make this house like [a]Shiloh, and will make this city [b]a curse to all the nations of the earth." ' "
7 So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.
8 Now it happened, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak to all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people seized him, saying, "You will surely die!
9 "Why have you prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, 'This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be [a]desolate, without an inhabitant'?" And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.
10 When the princes of Judah heard these things, they came up from the 11 And the priests and the prophets spoke to the princes and all the people, saying, [1]"This man deserves to [a]die! For he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your ears."

12 Then Jeremiah spoke to all the princes and all the people, saying: "The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city with all the words that you have heard.
13 "Now therefore, [a]amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; then the LORD will relent concerning the doom that He has pronounced against you.
14 "As for me, here [a]I am, in your hand; do with me as seems good and [1]proper to you.
15 "But know for certain that if you put me to death, you will surely bring innocent blood on yourselves, on this city, and on its inhabitants; for truly the LORD has sent me to you to speak all these words in your hearing."
16 So the princes and all the people said to the priests and the prophets, "This man does not deserve to die. For he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God."
17 [a]Then certain of the elders of the land rose up and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying:
18 [a]"Micah of Moresheth prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts:

> [b]"Zion shall be plowed like a field,
> Jerusalem shall become [c]heaps of ruins,
> And the mountain of the [1]temple

19 "Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah ever put him to death? [a]Did he not fear the LORD and [b]seek the LORD's favor? And the LORD [c]relented concerning the doom which He had pronounced against them. [d]But we are doing great evil against ourselves."
20 Now there was also a man who prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath Jearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah.
21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid and fled, and went to Egypt.
22 Then Jehoiakim the king sent men to Egypt: Elnathan the son of Achbor, and other men who went with him to Egypt.
23 And they brought Urijah from Egypt and brought him to Jehoiakim the king, who killed him with the sword and cast his dead body into the graves of the [1]common people.
24 Nevertheless [a]the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, so that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

3 'and send them to the king of Edom, the king of Moab, the king of the Ammonites, the king of Tyre, and the king of Sidon, by the hand of the messengers who come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah.
4 'And command them to say to their masters, "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel—thus you shall say to your masters:
5 [a]'I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are on the ground, by My great power and by My outstretched arm, and [b]have given it to whom it seemed proper to Me.

When you are in God's service, He has the right to assign you anywhere and to anyone He chooses. It should not surprise you when God sends you to people of influence. Do not be intimidated; you represent the King of kings.

13 [a]"Why will you die, you and your people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD has spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

15 "for I have [a]not sent them," says the LORD, "yet they prophesy a lie in My name, that I may drive you out, and that you may perish, you and the prophets who prophesy to you."
16 Also I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, "Thus says the LORD: 'Do not listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying, "Behold, [a]the vessels of the LORD's house will now shortly be brought back from Babylon"; for they prophesy a lie to you.

ENCOUNTER Note Jer. 27:16

Why?

A word from God brings peace and freedom. Lies lead to bondage and turmoil. Why would we fill our minds with lies instead of God's truth?

17 'Do not listen to them; serve the king of Babylon, and live! Why should this city be laid waste?
18 'But if they are prophets, and if the word of the LORD is with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, do not go to Babylon.'
19 "For thus says the LORD of hosts [a]concerning the pillars, concerning the Sea, concerning the carts, and concerning the remainder of the vessels that remain in this city,
20 "which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take, when he carried away [a]captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem—

27:19 Some of the treasures remaining in the temple were the bronze pillars called Jachin and Boaz (1 Kin. 7:15–22), the bronze sea (1 Kin. 7:23–26) and other bronze furnishings (1 Kin. 7:27–39; 2 Kin. 25:13–17).

28:1 This would have been about 594 B.C. The fifth month would be the month of Ab (July/August). Hananiah means "Gift of God." Zedekiah was the last king of Judah, put in place by Nebuchadnezzar around 597 B.C. Gibeon was one of the royal cities of the Hivites that fell within the territory of Benjamin after its citizens made an agreement with Joshua. It lay five miles from Jerusalem.

28:2 "Thus speaks the Lord of hosts" was a solemn formula prophets used to verify that the message was directly from God.

Speaking for God

Many have used Scriptures to advance their own interests; others have peddled God's Word for profit. God is rightly offended when unscrupulous leaders manipulate His people. No one should presume to speak for God without full confidence that every word is according to His will.

WORD Study YOKE

Jer. 28:2 The word translated "yoke" comes from motah, meaning a staff or bar used to guide oxen to pull a plow. Here it is used figuratively for severe bondage, affliction, or subjection to oppressive authority.

3 [a]'Within two full years I will bring back to this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon [b]took away from this place and carried to Babylon.
4 'And I will bring back to this place [1]Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah who went to Babylon,' says the LORD, 'for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.' "
5 Then the prophet Jeremiah spoke to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and in the presence of all the people who stood in the house of the LORD,
6 and the prophet Jeremiah said, [a]"Amen! The LORD do so; the LORD perform your words which you have prophesied, to bring back the vessels of the LORD's house and all who were carried away captive, from Babylon to this place.
7 "Nevertheless hear now this word that I speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people:
8 "The prophets who have been before me and before you of old prophesied against many countries and great kingdoms—of war and disaster and pestilence.
9 "As for [a]the prophet who prophesies of [b]peace, when the word of the prophet comes to pass, the prophet will be known as one whom the LORD has truly sent."
10 Then Hananiah the prophet took the [a]yoke off the prophet Jeremiah's neck and broke it.
11 And Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, "Thus says the LORD: 'Even so I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon [a]from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years.' " And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.
12 Now the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying,
13 "Go and tell Hananiah, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: "You have broken the yokes of wood, but you have made in their place yokes of iron."
14 'For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: [a]"I have put a yoke of iron on the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him. [b]I have given him the beasts of the field also." ' "
15 Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, "Hear now, Hananiah, the LORD has not sent you, but [a]you make this people trust in a [b]lie.

ENCOUNTER Note Jer. 28:15

Opposing Messages

There is only one truth and it comes from God. God's way is not one among many; it is the only way, and it leads to life. Competing messages are only lies, distortions, and distractions.

16 "Therefore thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will cast you from the face of the earth. This year you shall [a]die, because you have taught [b]rebellion against the LORD.' "
17 So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

Born in rural Connecticut, Charles Finney was first a schoolteacher and then a lawyer. Though he was well educated, he did not understand the truths of the Gospel. On October 10, 1821, Finney reached a turning point in his effort to find peace with God. As he prayed in the woods near his office in northern New York, Jeremiah 29:12, 13 flooded his mind. Finney later reflected, "I had intellectually believed the Bible before; but never had the truth been in my mind that faith was a voluntary trust instead of an intellectual state. . . . Somehow I knew that was a passage of scripture, though I do not think I had ever read it. I knew that it was God's word, and God's voice, as it were, that spoke to me." Finney was soundly converted and would become the greatest evangelist of his day, seeing thousands of people come to faith in Christ through his ministry.

29:2 Jeconiah (also known as Jehoiachin) was taken with his mother, Nahushta, to Babylon, where he lived thirty-seven years before he died.

29:10 Seventy years was considered one complete generation.

29:14 The return from Babylonian captivity began under Cyrus in 536 B.C.

18 And I will pursue them with the sword, with famine, and with pestilence; and I [a]will deliver them to trouble among all the kingdoms of the earth—to be [b]a curse, an astonishment, a hissing, and a reproach among all the nations where I have driven them,
19 because they have not heeded My words, says the LORD, which [a]I sent to them by My servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; neither would you heed, says the LORD.
20 Therefore hear the word of the LORD, all you of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon.
21 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who prophesy a [a]lie to you in My name: Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall slay them before your eyes.
22 [a]And because of them a curse shall be taken up by all the captivity of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, "The LORD make you like Zedekiah and Ahab, [b]whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire";
23 because [a]they have done disgraceful things in Israel, have committed adultery with their neighbors' wives, and have spoken lying words in My name, which I have not commanded them. Indeed I [b]know, and am a witness, says the LORD.
24 You shall also speak to Shemaiah the Nehelamite, saying,
25 Thus speaks the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying: You have sent letters in your name to all the people who are at Jerusalem, [a]to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying,
26 "The LORD has made you priest instead of Jehoiada the priest, so that there should be [a]officers in the house of the LORD over every man who is [b]demented and considers himself a prophet, that you should [c]put him in prison and in the stocks.
27 Now therefore, why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth who makes himself a prophet to you?
28 For he has sent to us in Babylon, saying, 'This captivity is long; build houses and dwell in them, and plant gardens and eat their fruit.' "
29 Now Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the hearing of Jeremiah the prophet.
30 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying:
31 Send to all those in captivity, saying, Thus says the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, [a]and I have not sent him, and he has caused you to trust in a [b]lie—
32 therefore thus says the LORD: Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his [1]family: he shall not have anyone to dwell among this people, nor shall he see the good that I will do for My people, says the LORD, [a]because he has taught rebellion against the LORD.

Restoration of Israel and Judah

30 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,
2 "Thus speaks the LORD God of Israel, saying: 'Write in a book for yourself all the words that I have spoken to you.
3 'For behold, the days are coming,' says the LORD, 'that [a]I will bring back from captivity My people Israel and Judah,' says the LORD. [b]'And I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.' "
4 Now these are the words that the LORD spoke concerning Israel and Judah.
5 "For thus says the LORD:

'We have heard a voice of trembling,
Of [1]fear, and not of peace.
6 Ask now, and see,
Whether a [1]man is ever in [2]labor with child?
So why do I see every man with his hands on his loins
[a]Like a woman in labor,
And all faces turned pale?
7 [a]Alas! For that day is great,
[b]So that none is like it;
And it is the time of Jacob's trouble,
But he shall be saved out of it.
8 'For it shall come to pass in that day,'
Says the LORD of hosts,
'That I will break his yoke from your neck,

29:24 Shemaiah was a Babylonian false prophet who faked receiving dreams from God to refute Jeremiah's prophecies.

29:26 Jehoiada was the first to be specifically designated high priest. He was married to Jehoshabeath, the daughter of Jehoram.

30:1 "The word that came to Jeremiah." This phrase appears more than a dozen times in this book. For a prophet to truly hear from God requires constant listening and a life that is ready to receive God's Word.

30:2 God sometimes commands that His words be written down so they may be transmitted exactly as spoken, and so they may be reviewed for generations to come (Deut. 6:9, Rev. 1:11). Recording God's message acknowledges its permanence and endurance.

And will burst your bonds;
Foreigners shall no more enslave them.
9 But they shall serve the LORD their God,
And [a]David their king,
Whom I will [b]raise up for them.
10 'Therefore [a]do not fear, O My servant Jacob,' says the LORD,
'Nor be dismayed, O Israel;
For behold, I will save you from afar,
And your seed [b]from the land of their captivity.
Jacob shall return, have rest and be quiet,
And no one shall make him afraid.
11 For I am with [a]you,' says the LORD,
'to save you;
[b]Though I make a full end of all nations where I have scattered you,
[c]Yet I will not make a complete end of you.
But I will correct you [d]in justice,
And will not let you go altogether unpunished.'

God's Loving Discipline

God promises His people they will face judgment for their sins, yet He will be with them through it all. Like a parent who disciplines a child, afterward God lifts us up in His arms demonstrating love and compassion.

12 "For thus says the LORD:

[a]'Your affliction is incurable,
Your wound is severe.
13 There is no one to plead your cause,
That you may be bound up;
[a]You have no healing medicines.
14 [a]All your lovers have forgotten you;
They do not seek you;
For I have wounded you with the wound [b]of an enemy,
With the chastisement [c]of a cruel one,
For the multitude of your iniquities,
[d]Because your sins have increased.
15 Why [a]do you cry about your affliction?
Your sorrow is incurable.
Because of the multitude of your iniquities,
Because your sins have increased,
I have done these things to you.
16 'Therefore all those who devour you
[a]shall be devoured;
And all your adversaries, every one of them, shall go into [b]captivity;
Those who plunder you shall become [c]plunder,
And all who prey upon you I will make a [d]prey.

As You Do to Others

God sees the way we treat others, whether for good or for bad. And He responds accordingly. Those who bless others will receive God's favor, but oppressors will know oppression themselves in God's time.

17 [a]For I will restore health to you
And heal you of your wounds,' says the LORD,
'Because they called you an outcast saying:
"This is Zion;
No one seeks her." '

18 "Thus says the LORD:

'Behold, I will bring back the captivity of Jacob's tents,
And [a]have mercy on his dwelling places;
The city shall be built upon its own [1]mound,
And the palace shall remain according to its own plan.
19 Then [a]out of them shall proceed thanksgiving
And the voice of those who make merry;
[b]I will multiply them, and they shall not diminish;
I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.
20 Their children also shall be [a]as before,
And their congregation shall be established before Me;
And I will punish all who oppress them.
21 Their nobles shall be from among them,
[a]And their governor shall come from their midst;
Then I will [b]cause him to draw near,
And he shall approach Me;
For who is this who pledged his heart to approach Me?' says the LORD.

And I will be your God.' "

23 Behold, the [a]whirlwind of the LORD
Goes forth with fury,
A [1]continuing whirlwind;
It will fall violently on the head of the wicked.
24 The fierce anger of the LORD will not return until He has done it,
And until He has performed the intents of His heart.

[a]In the latter days you will consider it.

The Remnant of Israel Saved

31 "At [a]the same time," says the LORD, [b]"I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be My people."
2 Thus says the LORD:

"The people who survived the sword
Found grace in the wilderness—
Israel, when [a]I went to give him rest."

"Yes, [a]I have loved you with [b]an everlasting love;
Therefore with lovingkindness I have [c]drawn you.

Drawn

God's Spirit seeks to give you a desire to know Him and to follow Him. When you begin to hunger for a deeper relationship with God, recognize this as God's activity in your life, drawing you to Him.

4 Again [a]I will build you, and you shall be rebuilt,
O virgin of Israel!
You shall again be adorned with your [b]tambourines,
And shall go forth in the dances of those who rejoice.
5 [a]You shall yet plant vines on the mountains of Samaria;
The planters shall plant and [1]eat them as ordinary food.

When the watchmen will cry on Mount Ephraim,

7 For thus says the LORD:

[a]"Sing with gladness for Jacob,
And shout among the chief of the nations;
Proclaim, give praise, and say,
'O LORD, save Your people,
The remnant of Israel!'

WORD*Study* REMNANT

Jer. 31:7 A remnant is what is left over, or a residue. The term depicts a holy "kernel" or "seed" that would survive judgment and doom to form a new nation, providing great blessings for future generations.

8 Behold, I will bring them [a]from the north country,
And [b]gather them from the ends of the earth,
Among them the blind and the lame,
The woman with child
And the one who labors with child, together;
A great throng shall return there.
9 [a]They shall come with weeping,
And with supplications I will lead them.
I will cause them to walk [b]by the rivers of waters,
In a straight way in which they shall not stumble;
For I am a Father to Israel,
And Ephraim is My [c]firstborn.

10 "Hear the word of the LORD,
O nations,
And declare it in the [1]isles afar off, and say,
'He who scattered Israel [a]will gather him,
And keep him as a shepherd does his flock.'
11 For [a]the LORD has redeemed Jacob,
And ransomed him [b]from the hand of one stronger than he.
12 Therefore they shall come and sing in [a]the height of Zion,
Streaming to [b]the goodness of the LORD—
For wheat and new wine and oil,
For the young of the flock and the herd;
Their souls shall be like a [c]well-watered garden,
[d]And they shall sorrow no more at all.

31:4 Using the term "virgin" demonstrates God's amazing ability to forgive His people and to restore them to their previous standing before Him.

31:9 Ephraim (one of Joseph's two sons) represents Israel's ten northern tribes.

13 "Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance,
And the young men and the old, together;
For I will turn their mourning to joy,
Will comfort them,
And make them rejoice rather than sorrow.
14 I will [1]satiate the soul of the priests with abundance,
And My people shall be satisfied with My goodness, says the LORD."

Mercy on Ephraim

15 Thus says the LORD:

[a]"A voice was heard in [b]Ramah,
Lamentation and bitter [c]weeping,
Rachel weeping for her children,
Refusing to be comforted for her children,
Because [d]they are no more."

16 Thus says the LORD:

"Refrain your voice from [a]weeping,
And your eyes from tears;
For your work shall be rewarded, says the LORD,
And they shall come back from the land of the enemy.
17 There is [a]hope in your future, says the LORD,
That your children shall come back to their own border.

18 "I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself:
'You have [a]chastised me, and I was chastised,
Like an untrained bull;
[b]Restore me, and I will return,
For You are the LORD my God.
19 Surely, [a]after my turning, I repented;
And after I was instructed, I struck myself on the thigh;
I was [b]ashamed, yes, even humiliated,
Because I bore the reproach of my youth.'
20 Is Ephraim My dear son?
Is he a pleasant child?
For though I spoke against him,
I earnestly remember him still;
[a]Therefore My [1]heart yearns for him;
[b]I will surely have mercy on him, says the LORD.

21 "Set up signposts,
Make landmarks;
[a]Set your heart toward the highway,
The way in which you went.
[1]Turn back, O virgin of Israel,
Turn back to these your cities.
22 How long will you [a]gad about,
O you [b]backsliding daughter?
For the LORD has created a new thing in the earth—
A woman shall encompass a man."

Future Prosperity of Judah

23 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "They shall again use this speech in the land of Judah and in its cities, when I bring back their captivity:
[a]'The LORD bless you, O home of justice, and [b]mountain of holiness!'
24 "And there shall dwell in Judah itself, and [a]in all its cities together, farmers and those going out with flocks.
25 "For I have [1]satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul."
26 After this I awoke and looked around, and my sleep was [a]sweet to me.
27 "Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, that [a]I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man and the seed of beast.
28 "And it shall come to pass, that as I have [a]watched over them [b]to pluck up, to break down, to throw down, to destroy, and to afflict, so I will watch over them [c]to build and to plant, says the LORD.
29 [a]"In those days they shall say no more:

'The fathers have eaten sour grapes,
And the children's teeth are set on edge.'

30 [a]"But every one shall die for his own iniquity; every man who eats the sour grapes, his teeth shall be set on edge.

A New Covenant

31 "Behold, the [a]days are coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah—
32 "not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that [a]I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt, My covenant which they broke, [1]though I was a husband to them, says the LORD.
33 [a]"But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: [b]I will put My law in their minds, and write it on their [1]hearts; [c]and I will be their God, and they shall be My people.

On Your Heart

Your faith in God will merely be a collection of religious beliefs unless the Holy Spirit convinces you, in your heart, of His truth. Only God can lead us to believe with our mind and heart that what He said is true. He is always seeking to do that in us.

34 "No more shall every man teach his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, 'Know the LORD,' for [a]they all shall know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them, says the LORD. For [b]I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin I will remember no more."

36 "If [a]those ordinances depart
From before Me, says the LORD,
Then the seed of Israel shall also cease
From being a nation before Me forever."

37 Thus says the LORD:

[a]"If heaven above can be measured,
And the foundations of the earth searched out beneath,
I will also [b]cast off all the seed of Israel
For all that they have done, says the LORD.

38 "Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, that the city shall be built for the LORD [a]from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate.
39 [a]"The surveyor's line shall again extend straight forward over the hill Gareb; then it shall turn toward Goath.

Jeremiah Buys a Field

32 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD [a]in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar.
2 For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up [a]in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house.
3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, "Why do you [a]prophesy and say, 'Thus says the LORD: [b]"Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it;
4 "and Zedekiah king of Judah [a]shall not escape from the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him [1]face to face, and see him [b]eye to eye;
5 "then he shall [a]lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there he shall be [b]until I visit him," says the LORD; [c]"though you fight with the Chaldeans, you shall not succeed" '?"
6 And Jeremiah said, "The word of the LORD came to me, saying,
7 'Behold, Hanamel the son of Shallum your uncle will come to you, saying, "Buy my field which is in Anathoth, for the [a]right of redemption is yours to buy it." '
8 "Then Hanamel my uncle's son came to me in the court of the prison according to the word of the LORD, and said to me, 'Please buy my field that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin; for the right of inheritance is yours, and the redemption yours; buy it for yourself.' Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.
9 "So I bought the field from Hanamel, the son of my uncle who was in Anathoth, and [a]weighed out to him the money—seventeen shekels of silver.
10 "And I signed the [1]deed and sealed it, took witnesses, and weighed the money on the scales.
11 "So I took the purchase deed, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open;
12 "and I gave the purchase deed to [a]Baruch the son of Neriah, son of Mahseiah, in the presence of Hanamel my uncle's son, and in the presence of the [b]witnesses who signed the purchase

History with God

God's activity among His people becomes our history. When we remember God's word to us in the past, our faith is bolstered to trust Him now and in the future.

15 'For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Houses and fields and vineyards shall be [a]possessed again in this land." '

Jeremiah Prays for Understanding

16 "Now when I had delivered the purchase deed to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD, saying:
17 'Ah, Lord GOD! Behold, [a]You have made the heavens and the earth by Your great power and outstretched arm. [b]There is nothing too [1]hard for You.
18 'You show [a]lovingkindness to thousands, and repay the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them—the Great, [b]the Mighty God, whose name is [c]the LORD of hosts.
19 'You are [a]great in counsel and mighty in [1]work, for Your [b]eyes are open to all the ways of the sons of men, [c]to give everyone according to his ways and according to the fruit of his doings.
20 'You have set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, to this day, and in Israel and among other men; and You have made Yourself [a]a name, as it is this day.
21 'You [a]have brought Your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs and wonders, with a strong hand and an outstretched arm, and with great terror;
22 'You have given them this land, of which You swore to their fathers to give them—[a]"a land flowing with milk and honey."
23 'And they came in and took possession of it, but [a]they have not obeyed Your voice or walked in Your law. They have done nothing of all that You commanded them to do; therefore You have caused all this calamity to come upon them.
24 'Look, the siege mounds! They have come to the city to take it; and the city has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans who fight against it, because of [a]the sword and famine and pestilence. What You have spoken has happened; there You see it!
25 'And You have said to me, O Lord GOD, "Buy the field for money, and take witnesses"!—yet the city has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans.' "

God's Assurance of the People's Return

26 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,
27 "Behold, I am the LORD, the [a]God of all flesh. Is there anything too hard for Me?
28 "Therefore thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it.
29 'And the Chaldeans who fight against this city shall come and [a]set fire to this city and burn it, with the houses [b]on whose roofs they have offered incense to Baal and poured out drink offerings to other gods, to provoke Me to anger;
30 'because the children of Israel and the children of Judah [a]have done only evil before Me from their youth. For the children of Israel have provoked Me only to anger with the work of their hands,' says the LORD.
31 'For this city has been to Me a provocation of My anger and My fury from the day that they built it, even to this day; [a]so I will remove it from before My face
32 'because of all the evil of the children of Israel and the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke Me to anger—[a]they, their kings, their princes, their priests, [b]their prophets, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
33 'And they have turned to Me the [a]back, and not the face; though I taught them, [b]rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not listened to receive instruction.
34 'But they [a]set their abominations in [1]the house which is called by My name, to defile it.
35 'And they built the high places of Baal which are in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, to [a]cause their sons and

The Core Relationship

The most fundamental description of the relationship between God and those who love Him is in the phrase, "They shall be my people, and I shall be their God." This is God's desire. He seeks from us an acknowledgement of this relationship and a willing heart to maintain it.

40 'And [a]I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from doing them good; but [b]I will put My fear in their hearts so that they will not depart from Me.

41 'Yes, [a]I will rejoice over them to do them good, and [b]I will [1]assuredly plant them in this land, with all My heart and with all My soul.'

42 "For thus says the LORD: [a]'Just as I have brought all this great calamity on this people, so I will bring on them all the good that I have promised them.

43 'And fields will be bought in this land [a]of which you say, "It is desolate, without man or beast; it has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans."

44 'Men will buy fields for money, sign deeds and seal them, and take witnesses, in [a]the land of Benjamin, in the places around Jerusalem, in the cities of Judah, in the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the [1]lowland, and in the cities of the [2]South; for [b]I will cause their captives to return,' says the LORD."

Timing of God's Message

God speaks in periods of tranquility and security, and He speaks in times of distress and danger. The message may seem to come at an awkward time, and it may test our resolve to listen and to follow Him. Yet God's timing is perfect, and we must learn to focus on the message, not the circumstances.

Excellence of the Restored Nation

33 Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah a second time, while he was still [a]shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

2 "Thus says the LORD [a]who made it, the LORD who formed it to establish it [b](the[1] LORD is His name):

3 [a]'Call to Me, and I will answer you, and show you great and [1]mighty things, which you do not know.'

ENCOUNTER*Note* Jer. 33:3

Calling on God

There is no question that God answers those who seek Him. And His response is beyond our imagination, wiser than any counsel we could otherwise seek.

4 "For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city and the houses of the kings of Judah, which have been pulled down to fortify against [a]the siege mounds and the sword:

5 'They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but only to [a]fill their places with the dead bodies of men whom I will slay in My anger and My fury, all for whose wickedness I have hidden My face from this city.

6 'Behold, [a]I will bring it health and healing; I will heal them and reveal to them the abundance of peace and truth.

7 'And [a]I will cause the captives of Judah and the captives of Israel to return, and will rebuild those places [b]as at the first.

8 'I will [a]cleanse them from all their iniquity by which they have sinned against Me, and I will pardon all their iniquities by which they have sinned and by which they have transgressed against Me.

33:1 The prison belonged to the palace, and the court area afforded Jeremiah some freedom of movement and interaction with others.

God's Forgiveness

God may restore losses suffered during His judgment. He may reinstate peace after turmoil. But even more importantly, He offers forgiveness, cleansing, and a renewed fellowship with Him.

9 [a]'Then it shall be to Me a name of joy, a praise, and an honor before all nations of the earth, who shall hear all the good that I do to them; they shall [b]fear and tremble for all the goodness and all the prosperity that I provide for it.'
10 "Thus says the LORD: 'Again there shall be heard in this place—[a]of which you say, "It is desolate, without man and without beast"—in the cities of Judah, in the streets of Jerusalem that are desolate, without man and without inhabitant and without beast,
11 'the [a]voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voice of those who will say:

For the LORD is good,
For His mercy endures forever"— and of those who will bring [a]the sacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD. For I will cause the captives of the land to return as at the first,' says the LORD.

12 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: [a]'In this place which is desolate, without man and without beast, and in all its cities, there shall again be a dwelling place of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down.
13 [a]'In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the lowland, in the cities of the South, in the land of Benjamin, in the places around Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, the flocks shall again [b]pass under the hands of him who counts them,' says the LORD.
14 [a]'Behold, the days are coming,' says the LORD, 'that [b]I will perform that good thing which I have promised to the house of Israel and to the house of Judah:

15 'In those days and at that time
I will cause to grow up to David

He shall execute judgment and 18 'nor shall the [a]priests, the Levites, lack a man to [b]offer burnt offerings before Me, to [1]kindle grain offerings, and to sacrifice continually.' "

The Permanence of God's Covenant

19 And the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,
20 "Thus says the LORD: 'If you can break My covenant with the day and My covenant with the night, so that there will not be day and night in their season,
21 'then [a]My covenant may also be broken with David My servant, so that he shall not have a son to reign on his throne, and with the Levites, the priests, My ministers.
22 'As [a]the host of heaven cannot be numbered, nor the sand of the sea measured, so will I [b]multiply the descendants of David My servant and the [c]Levites who minister to Me.' "
23 Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,
24 "Have you not considered what these people have spoken, saying, 'The two families which the LORD has chosen, He has also cast them off'? Thus they have [a]despised My people, as if they should no more be a nation before them.
25 "Thus says the LORD: 'If [a]My covenant is not with day and night, and if I have not [b]appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth, 26 [a]'then I will [b]cast away the descendants of Jacob and David My servant, so that I will not take any of his descendants to be rulers over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will cause their captives to return, and will have mercy on them.' "

Zedekiah Warned by God

34 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, [a]when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army, [b]all the kingdoms of the earth under his dominion, and all the people, fought against Jerusalem and all its cities, saying,
2 "Thus says the LORD, the God of Is-

CHAPTER 34

1 [a]2 Kin. 25:1 [b]Jer. 1:15; 25:9

33:11 "His mercy endures forever" was a common refrain spoken in worship (1 Chr. 16:34; 2 Chr. 5:13; Ezra 3:11; Ps. 118; 136). The phrase appears more than forty times in the Old Testament.

33:11 "Sacrifice of praise" occurs only here and in Hebrews 13:15, which describes the sacrifice of praise as "the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to His name."

33:16 "Righteousness" comes from the Hebrew word tsidkenu meaning "just" (Jer. 23:5, 6).

rael: 'Go and [a]speak to Zedekiah king of Judah and tell him, "Thus says the LORD: 'Behold, [b]I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.
3 'And [a]you shall not escape from his hand, but shall surely be taken and delivered into his hand; your eyes shall see the eyes of the king of Babylon, he shall speak with you [b]face[1] to face, and you shall go to Babylon.' " '
4 "Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah! Thus says the LORD concerning you: 'You shall not die by the sword.
5 'You shall die in peace; as in [a]the ceremonies of your fathers, the former kings who were before you, [b]so they shall burn incense for you and [c]lament for you, saying, "Alas, lord!" For I have pronounced the word, says the LORD.' "
6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem,
7 when the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem and all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish and Azekah; for only [a]these fortified cities remained of the cities of Judah.

Treacherous Treatment of Slaves

8 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people who were at Jerusalem to proclaim [a]liberty to them:
9 [a]that every man should set free his male and female slave—a Hebrew man or woman—[b]that no one should keep a Jewish brother in bondage.
10 Now when all the princes and all the people, who had entered into the covenant, heard that everyone should set free his male and female slaves, that no one should keep them in bondage anymore, they obeyed and let them go.
11 But afterward they changed their minds and made the male and female slaves return, whom they had set free, and brought them into subjection as male and female slaves.
12 Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,
13 "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'I made a [a]covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying,
14 "At the end of [a]seven years let every man set free his Hebrew brother, who [1]has been sold to him; and when he has served you six years, you shall let him go free from you." But your fathers did not obey Me nor incline their ear.
15 'Then you [1]recently turned and did what was right in My sight—every man proclaiming liberty to his neighbor; and you [a]made a covenant before Me [b]in the house which is called by My name.
16 'Then you turned around and [a]profaned My name, and every one of you brought back his male and female slaves, whom you had set at liberty, at their pleasure, and brought them back into subjection, to be your male and female slaves.'
17 "Therefore thus says the LORD: 'You have not obeyed Me in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother and every one to his neighbor. [a]Behold, I proclaim liberty to you,' says the LORD—[b]'to the sword, to pestilence, and to famine! And I will deliver you to [c]trouble among all the kingdoms of the earth.
18 'And I will give the men who have transgressed My covenant, who have not performed the words of the covenant which they made before Me, when [a]they cut the calf in two and passed between the parts of it—
19 'the princes of Judah, the princes of Jerusalem, the [1]eunuchs, the priests, and all the people of the land who passed between the parts of the calf—
20 'I will [a]give them into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who seek their life. Their [b]dead bodies shall be for meat for the birds of the heaven and the beasts of the earth.

The Obedient Rechabites

35 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying,
2 "Go to the house of the [a]Rechabites, speak to them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of [b]the chambers, and give them wine to drink."
3 Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, his brothers and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites,
4 and I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan the son of Igdaliah, a man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, [a]the keeper of the [1]door.
5 Then I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites bowls full of wine, and cups; and I said to them, "Drink wine."

Standing Firm

By testing us, God gives us the opportunity to affirm our resolve to obey Him. Responding obediently to God's tests deepens our relationship with Him and brings a fresh experience of His grace.

6 But they said, "We will drink no wine, for [a]Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us, saying, 'You shall drink [b]no wine, you nor your sons, forever.
7 'You shall not build a house, sow seed, plant a vineyard, nor have any of these; but all your days you shall dwell in tents, [a]that you may live many days in the land where you are sojourners.'
8 "Thus we have [a]obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, in all that he charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, or our daughters,

12 Then came the word of the LORD to Jeremiah, saying,
13 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, "Will you not [a]receive instruction to [1]obey My words?" says the LORD.
14 "The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, which he commanded his sons, not to drink wine, are performed; for to this day they drink none, and obey their father's commandment. [a]But although I have spoken to you, [b]rising early and speaking, you did not [1]obey Me.
15 "I have also sent to you all My [a]servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, [b]'Turn now everyone from his evil way, amend your doings, and do not go after other gods to serve them; then you will [c]dwell in the land which I have given you and your fathers.' The Scroll Read in the Temple

2 "Take a [a]scroll of a book and [b]write on it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel, against Judah, and against [c]all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of [d]Josiah even to this day.
3 "It [a]may be that the house of Judah will hear all the adversities which I purpose to bring upon them, that everyone may [b]turn from his evil way, that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin."

ENCOUNTER Note — Jer. 36:3

Adversity's Purpose

Adversity reminds us of our dependence on God. God has warned that when we depart from Him, He will do what is necessary to bring us back to Himself.

4 Then Jeremiah [a]called Baruch the son of Neriah; and [b]Baruch wrote on a scroll of a book, [1]at the instruction of Jeremiah, all the words of the LORD which He had spoken to him.
5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, "I am confined, I cannot go into the house of the LORD.
6 "You go, therefore, and read from the scroll which you have written [1]at my instruction, the words of the LORD, in the hearing of the people in the LORD's house on [a]the day of fasting. And you shall also read them in the hearing of all Judah who come from their cities.
7 "It may be that they will present their supplication before the LORD, and everyone will turn from his evil way. For great is the anger and the fury that the LORD has pronounced against this people."
8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading from the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.
9 Now it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people who came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem.
10 Then Baruch read from the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the upper court at the [a]entry of the New Gate of the LORD's house, in the [1]hearing of all the people.

The Scroll Read in the Palace

11 When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, heard all the words of the LORD from the book,
12 he then went down to the king's house, into the scribe's chamber; and there all the princes were sitting—[a]Elishama the scribe, Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, [b]Elnathan the son of Achbor, Gemariah the son of Shaphan, Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes.
13 Then Michaiah declared to them all the words that he had heard when Baruch read the book in the hearing of the people.
14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, "Take in your hand the scroll from which you have read in the hearing of the people, and come." So Baruch the son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand and came to them.
15 And they said to him, "Sit down now, and read it in our hearing." So Baruch read it in their hearing.

CHARACTER Study — BARUCH — Jer. 36:5

Scripture reveals little about Jeremiah's loyal friend and scribe Baruch. He was descended from a noble family, grandson of Mahseiah (2 Chr. 34:8; Jer. 32:12). His brother was Seraiah, an officer under King Zedekiah (Jer. 51:59). Baruch served as Jeremiah's steadfast attendant and messenger, and he was taken with him into Egypt by the rebellious Jewish leaders.

36:1 This took place eighteen years before the destruction of Jerusalem.

36:9 This fast was proclaimed in November–December 604 B.C.

36:10 Gemariah was the son of Shaphan, the scribe who read the scroll discovered during King Josiah's reign (2 Kin. 22:1–20).

16 Now it happened, when they had heard all the words, that they looked in fear from one to another, and said to Baruch, "We will surely tell the king of all these words."
17 And they asked Baruch, saying, "Tell us now, how did you write all these words—[1]at his instruction?"
18 So Baruch answered them, "He proclaimed with his mouth all these words to me, and I wrote them with ink in the book."
19 Then the princes said to Baruch, "Go and hide, you and Jeremiah; and let no one know where you are."

The King Destroys Jeremiah's Scroll

20 And they went to the king, into the court; but they stored the scroll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the hearing of the king.
21 So the king sent Jehudi to bring the scroll, and he took it from Elishama the scribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the hearing of the king and in the hearing of all the princes who stood beside the king.
22 Now the king was sitting in [a]the winter house in the ninth month, with a fire burning on the hearth before him.
23 And it happened, when Jehudi had read three or four columns, that the king cut it with the scribe's knife and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the scroll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.
24 Yet they were [a]not afraid, nor did they [b]tear their garments, the king nor any of his servants who heard all these words.
25 Nevertheless Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah implored the king not to burn the scroll; but he would not listen to them.
26 And the king commanded Jerahmeel [1]the king's son, Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to seize Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet, but the LORD hid them.

Jeremiah Rewrites the Scroll

27 Now after the king had burned the scroll with the words which Baruch had written [1]at the instruction of Jeremiah, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying:

17 [1]Lit. with his mouth
22 [a]Amos 3:15

28 "Take yet another scroll, and write on it all the former words that were in the first scroll which Jehoiakim the king of Judah has burned.
29 "And you shall say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, 'Thus says the LORD: "You have burned this scroll, saying, [a]'Why have you written in it that the king of Babylon will certainly come and destroy this land, and cause man and beast to [b]cease from here?' "
30 'Therefore thus says the LORD concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: [a]"He shall have no one to sit on the throne of David, and his dead body shall be [b]cast out to the heat of the day and the frost of the night.
31 "I will punish him, his [1]family, and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring on them, on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on the men of Judah all the doom that I have pronounced against them; but they did not heed." ' "
32 Then Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who wrote on it [1]at the instruction of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire. And besides, there were added to them many similar words.

A Clear Word

We may be uncomfortable with what God says to us, yet we cannot ignore His word. God will continue to speak so there is no doubt concerning His will.

Zedekiah's Vain Hope

CHAPTER 37

37 Now King [a]Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah.
2 [a]But neither he nor his servants nor the people of the land gave heed to the words of the LORD which He spoke by the prophet Jeremiah.
3 And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and [a]Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, [b]"Pray now to the LORD our God for us."
4 Now Jeremiah was coming and going among the people, for they had not yet put him in prison.

1 [a]2 Kin. 24:17
2 [a]2 Chr. 36:12–16
3 [a]Jer. 21:1, 2; 29:25; 52:24 [b]Jer. 42:2

36:19 The official's concern for the safety of Jeremiah and Baruch was not misplaced. Uriah the prophet had already lost his life for delivering unpopular news (26:22, 23).

37:1 Zedekiah means "Righteousness of the Lord." He was the third son of Josiah and the brother of Jehoahaz. Originally named Mattaniah, he ascended to the throne at age twenty-one.

5 Then [a]Pharaoh's army came up from Egypt; and when the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard news of them, they departed from Jerusalem.
6 Then the word of the LORD came to the prophet Jeremiah, saying,
7 "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Thus you shall say to the king of Judah, [a]who sent you to Me to inquire of Me: "Behold, Pharaoh's army which has come up to help you will return to Egypt, to their own land.
8 [a]"And the Chaldeans shall come back and fight against this city, and take it and burn it with fire." '
9 "Thus says the LORD: 'Do not deceive yourselves, saying, "The Chaldeans will surely depart from us," for they will not depart.
10 [a]'For though you had defeated the whole army of the Chaldeans who fight against you, and there remained only wounded men among them, they would rise up, every man in his tent, and burn the city with fire.' "

Jeremiah Imprisoned

11 And it happened, when the army of the Chaldeans left the siege of Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army,
12 that Jeremiah went out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin to claim his property there among the people.
13 And when he was in the Gate of Benjamin, a captain of the guard was there whose name was Irijah the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he seized Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "You are defecting to the Chaldeans!"
14 Then Jeremiah said, [1]"False! I am not defecting to the Chaldeans." But he did not listen to him. So Irijah seized Jeremiah and brought him to the princes.
15 Therefore the princes were angry with Jeremiah, and they struck him [a]and put him in prison in the [b]house of Jonathan the scribe. For they had made that the prison.
16 When Jeremiah entered [a]the dungeon and the cells, and Jeremiah had remained there many days,
17 then Zedekiah the king sent and took him out. The king asked him secretly in his house, and said, "Is there any word from the LORD?" And Jeremiah said, "There is." Then he said, "You shall be [a]delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon!"
18 Moreover Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, "What offense have I committed against you, against your servants, or against this people, that you have put me in prison?
19 "Where now are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, 'The king of Babylon will not come against you or against this land'?

ENCOUNTER*Note* Jer. 37:17

The Truth

If we are halfhearted in our desire to hear from God, we will be unprepared to respond to what He says. God's word to us is not always what we want to hear, but it is always what we need to know. We are wise to obey whatever God says, regardless of what others think.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Jer. 37:19

Now Do You Believe?

God's word can be trusted one hundred percent of the time. He is never wrong, and His accuracy is complete to the last detail. Who else can make such a claim?

20 "Therefore please hear now, O my lord the king. Please, let my petition be accepted before you, and do not make me return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there."
21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah [a]to the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread from the bakers' street, [b]until all the bread in the city was gone. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

Jeremiah in the Dungeon

38 Now Shephatiah the son of Mattan, Gedaliah the son of Pashhur, [a]Jucal[1] the son of Shelemiah, and [b]Pashhur the son of Malchiah [c]heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken to all the people, saying,
2 "Thus says the LORD: [a]'He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence; but he who goes over to the Chaldeans shall live; his life shall be as a prize to him, and he shall live.'
3 "Thus says the LORD: [a]'This city shall surely be [b]given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it.' "

37:5 In 588 B.C., Pharaoh Hophra led his Egyptian army into Palestine, forcing Nebuchadnezzar to temporarily withdraw his army from besieging Jerusalem.

4 Therefore the princes said to the king, "Please, [a]let this man be put to death, for thus he [1]weakens the hands of the men of war who remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, by speaking such words to them. For this man does not seek the [2]welfare of this people, but their harm."

ENCOUNTER Note Jer. 38:4

Exposing Evil

The revealing light of God's truth always exposes corruption and evil. God's messengers who speak out will be viewed as a threat by evildoers.

5 Then Zedekiah the king said, "Look, he is in your hand. For the king can do nothing against you."
6 [a]So they took Jeremiah and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah [1]the king's son, which was in the court of the prison, and they let Jeremiah down with ropes. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire. So Jeremiah sank in the mire.
7 [a]Now Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian, one of the [1]eunuchs, who was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon. When the king was sitting at the Gate of Benjamin,
8 Ebed-Melech went out of the king's house and spoke to the king, saying:
9 "My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon, and he is likely to die from hunger in the place where he is. For there is [a]no more bread in the city."
10 Then the king commanded Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian, saying, "Take from here thirty men with you, and lift Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon before he dies."
11 So Ebed-Melech took the men with him and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took from there old clothes and old rags, and let them down by ropes into the dungeon to Jeremiah.
12 Then Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, "Please put these old clothes and rags under your armpits, under the ropes." And Jeremiah did so.
13 So they pulled Jeremiah up with ropes and lifted him out of the dungeon. And Jeremiah remained [a]in the court of the prison.

Zedekiah's Fears and Jeremiah's Advice

14 Then Zedekiah the king sent and had Jeremiah the prophet brought to him at the third entrance of the house of the LORD. And the king said to Jeremiah, "I will [a]ask you something. Hide nothing from me."

ENCOUNTER Note Jer. 38:14

Hearing and Not Obeying

God's word is much more than information for study. It is instruction for life. To know God's word and not to obey it is far worse than not to have known it at all.

15 Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I declare it to you, will you not surely put me to death? And if I give you advice, you will not listen to me."
16 So Zedekiah the king swore secretly to Jeremiah, saying, "As the LORD lives, [a]who made our very souls, I will not put you to death, nor will I give you into the hand of these men who seek your life."
17 Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "Thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: 'If you surely [a]surrender[1] [b]to the king of Babylon's princes, then your soul shall live; this city shall not be burned with fire, and you and your house shall live.
18 'But if you do not [1]surrender to the king of Babylon's princes, then this city shall be given into the hand of the Chaldeans; they shall burn it with fire, and [a]you shall not escape from their hand.' "
19 And Zedekiah the king said to Jeremiah, "I am afraid of the Jews who have [a]defected to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they [b]abuse me."
20 But Jeremiah said, "They shall not deliver you. Please, obey the voice of the LORD which I speak to you. So it shall be [a]well with you, and your soul shall live.
21 "But if you refuse to [1]surrender, this is the word that the LORD has shown me:
22 'Now behold, all the [a]women who are left in the king of Judah's house shall be surrendered to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say:

"Your close friends have [1]set upon you

20 [a]Jer. 40:9
21 [1]Lit. go out
22 [a]Jer. 8:10 [1]Or misled

38:4 Princes could also refer to rulers, governors, officers, or city magistrates, all of whom had judicial authority.
38:6 This may have been a cistern that had been emptied of most of its water due to the Babylonian siege and now contained only soggy residue.
38:7 "Ebed-Melech" means "Servant of the king."

And prevailed against you;
Your feet have sunk in the mire,
And they have [2]turned away again."

23 'So they shall surrender all your wives and [a]children to the Chaldeans. [b]You shall not escape from their hand, but shall be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon. And you shall cause this city to be burned with fire.' "

24 Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "Let no one know of these words, and you shall not die.

25 "But if the princes hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you and say to you, 'Declare to us now what you have said to the king, and also what the king said to you; do not hide it from us, and we will not put you to death,'

26 "then you shall say to them, '[a]I presented my request before the king, that he would not make me return [b]to Jonathan's house to die there.' "

27 Then all the princes came to Jeremiah and asked him. And he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they stopped speaking with him, for the conversation had not been heard.

28 Now [a]Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken. And he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

The Fall of Jerusalem

39 In the [a]ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem, and besieged it.

2 In the [a]eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, the [1]city was penetrated.

3 [a]Then all the princes of the king of Babylon came in and sat in the Middle Gate: Nergal-Sharezer, Samgar-Nebo, Sarsechim, [1]Rabsaris, Nergal-Sarezer, [2]Rabmag, with the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon.

4 [a]So it was, when Zedekiah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, that they fled and went out of the city by night, by way of the king's garden, by the gate between the two walls. And he went out by way of the [1]plain.

5 But the Chaldean army pursued them and [a]overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. And when they had captured him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, to [b]Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he pronounced judgment on him.

6 Then the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his [a]eyes in Riblah; the king of Babylon also killed all the [b]nobles of Judah.

7 Moreover [a]he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with bronze [1]fetters to carry him off to Babylon.

8 [a]And the Chaldeans burned the king's house and the houses of the people with [b]fire, and broke down the [c]walls of Jerusalem.

9 [a]Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive to Babylon the remnant of the people who remained in the city and those who [b]defected to him, with the rest of the people who remained.

10 But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left in the land of Judah the [a]poor people, who had nothing, and gave them vineyards and fields [1]at the same time.

Jeremiah Goes Free

11 Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, saying,

12 "Take him and look after him, and do him no [a]harm; but do to him just as he says to you."

13 So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard sent Nebushasban, Rabsaris, Nergal-Sharezer, Rabmag, and all the king of Babylon's chief officers;

14 then they sent someone [a]to take Jeremiah from the court of the prison, and committed him [b]to Gedaliah the son of [c]Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should take him home. So he dwelt among the people.

15 Meanwhile the word of the LORD had come to Jeremiah while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

16 "Go and speak to [a]Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, [b]I will bring My words upon this city for adversity and not for good, and they

ENCOUNTER*Note* Jer. 39:4

Futility in Fleeing

Trying to flee God's justice is futile. The way to avoid God's wrath for our sin is not through bargaining or negotiation, but through repentance.

38:24 Many people secretly want to know God's will, but they are too swayed by public opinion to follow it.

39:8 Breaking down the walls left the city exposed to outside threats and ensured it would not be defensible in the future.

39:13 Nebuzaradan, whose name meant "Nabu Has Given Seed," was commander of the imperial guard.

17 "But I will deliver you in that day," says the LORD, "and you shall not be given into the hand of the men of whom you are afraid.

ENCOUNTER Note Jer. 39:17

Kindness Rewarded

God's word says He blesses our kindness toward others. Showing goodness to God's servants especially pleases Him, as these people often suffer greatly and sacrifice much in God's service.

18 "For I will surely deliver you, and you shall not fall by the sword; but [a]your life shall be as a prize to you, [b]because you have put your trust in Me," says the LORD.' "

Jeremiah with Gedaliah the Governor

40 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD [a]after Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him bound in chains among all who were carried away captive from Jerusalem and Judah, who were carried away captive to Babylon.
2 And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah and [a]said to him: "The LORD your God has pronounced this doom on this place.

ENCOUNTER Note Jer. 40:2

Confirmation

If there is any doubt about what God told you, He will confirm His message so you can be confident in your understanding and obedience.

3 "Now the LORD has brought it, and has done just as He said. [a]Because you people have sinned against the LORD, and not obeyed His voice, therefore this thing has come upon you.
4 "And now look, I free you this day from the chains that [1]were on your hand. [a]If it seems good to you to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will look after you. But if it seems wrong for you to come with me to Babylon, remain here. See, [b]all the land is before you; wherever it seems good and convenient for you to go, go there."
5 Now while Jeremiah had not yet gone back, Nebuzaradan said, "Go back to [a]Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, [b]whom the king of Babylon has made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people. Or go wherever it seems convenient for you to go." So the captain of the guard gave him rations and a gift and let him go.
6 [a]Then Jeremiah went to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, to [b]Mizpah, and dwelt with him among the people who were left in the land.
7 [a]And when all the captains of the armies who were in the fields, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed to him men, women, children, and [b]the poorest of the land who had not been carried away captive to Babylon,
8 then they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah—[a]Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, [b]Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and [c]Jezaniah[1] the son of a [d]Maachathite, they and their men.
9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, took an oath before them and their men, saying, "Do not be afraid to serve the Chaldeans. Dwell in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be [a]well with you.
10 "As for me, I will indeed dwell at Mizpah and serve the Chaldeans who come to us. But you, gather wine and summer fruit and oil, put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that you have taken."
11 Likewise, when all the Jews who were in Moab, among the Ammonites, in Edom, and who were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan,
12 then all the Jews [a]returned out of all places where they had been driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah

40:1 Ramah was about five miles north of Jerusalem and served as a gathering place for prisoners' examination before their exile to Babylon. Prisoners were likely bound with chains, and a long rope was woven between them to prevent escape.

40:6 Appointed by Nebuchadnezzar, Gedaliah served as a governor for about three months until his assassination.

40:7 Several Jewish military leaders had escaped to the countryside and remained undetected by the Chaldeans.

40:10 Mizpah, meaning "Tower," was located four miles northwest of Jerusalem. It sat on the highest hill in the region, six hundred feet above the plain of Gibeon. It may be the place of Samuel's tomb, and it served as a meeting place in turbulent times.

at Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruit in abundance.
13 Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields came to Gedaliah at Mizpah,
14 and said to him, [1]"Do you certainly know that [a]Baalis the king of the Ammonites has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to murder you?" But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam did not believe them.
15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke secretly to Gedaliah in Mizpah, saying, "Let me go, please, and I will kill Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no one will know it. Why should he murder you, so that all the Jews who are gathered to you would be scattered, and the [a]remnant in Judah perish?"
16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah, "You shall not do this thing, for you speak falsely concerning Ishmael."

Insurrection Against Gedaliah

41 Now it came to pass in the seventh month [a]that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal [1]family and of the officers of the king, came with ten men to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, at [b]Mizpah. And there they ate bread together in Mizpah.
2 Then Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men who were with him, arose and [a]struck Gedaliah the son of [b]Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword, and killed him whom the king of Babylon had made [c]governor over the land.
3 Ishmael also struck down all the Jews who were with him, that is, with Gedaliah at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans who were found there, the men of war.
4 And it happened, on the second day after he had killed Gedaliah, when as yet no one knew it,
5 that certain men came from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, eighty men [a]with their beards shaved and their clothes torn, having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to [b]the house of the LORD.
6 Now Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he went along; and it happened as he met them that he said to them, "Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam!"
7 So it was, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah [a]killed them and cast them into the midst of a [1]pit, he and the men who were with him.
8 But ten men were found among them who said to Ishmael, "Do not kill us, for we have treasures of wheat, barley, oil, and honey in the field." So he desisted and did not kill them among their brethren.
9 Now the [1]pit into which Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men whom he had slain, because of Gedaliah, was [a]the same one Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel. Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with the slain.
10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the [a]rest of the people who were in Mizpah, [b]the king's daughters and all the people who remained in Mizpah, [c]whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive and departed to go over to [d]the Ammonites.
11 But when [a]Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces that were with him heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done,
12 they took all the men and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah; and they found him by [a]the great pool that is in Gibeon.
13 So it was, when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, that they were glad.
14 Then all the people whom Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned around and came back, and went to Johanan the son of Kareah.
15 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men and went to the Ammonites.
16 Then Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, took from Mizpah all the [a]rest of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah after he had murdered Gedaliah the son

17 And they departed and dwelt in the habitation of [a]Chimham, which is near Bethlehem, as they went on their way to [b]Egypt,
18 because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had murdered Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, [a]whom the king of Babylon had made governor in the land.

The Flight to Egypt Forbidden

42 Now all the captains of the forces, [a]Johanan the son of Kareah, Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people, from the least to the greatest, came near
2 and said to Jeremiah the prophet, [a]"Please, let our petition be acceptable to you, and [b]pray for us to the LORD your God, for all this remnant (since we are left but [c]a few of many, as you can see),
3 "that the LORD your God may show us [a]the way in which we should walk and the thing we should do."

ENCOUNTER Note — Jer. 42:3

Don't Ask!

There is little point in seeking God's will if there is no determination to follow it. If our response depends upon convenience or favorable answers to our prayers, we are better off not asking!

4 Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, "I have heard. Indeed, I will pray to the LORD your God according to your words, and it shall be, that [a]whatever the LORD answers you, I will declare it to you. I will [b]keep nothing back from you."
5 So they said to Jeremiah, [a]"Let the LORD be a true and faithful witness between us, if we do not do according to everything which the LORD your God sends us by you.
6 "Whether it is [1]pleasing or [2]displeasing, we will [a]obey the voice of the LORD our God to whom we send you, [b]that it may be well with us when we obey the voice of the LORD our God."
7 And it happened after ten days that the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah.
8 Then he called Johanan the son of Kareah, all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest,
9 and said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your petition before Him:
10 'If you will still remain in this land, then [a]I will build you and not pull you down, and I will plant you and not pluck you up. For I [b]relent concerning the disaster that I have brought upon you.
11 'Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom you are afraid; do not be afraid of him,' says the LORD, [a]'for I am with you, to save you and deliver you from his hand.

ENCOUNTER Note — Jer. 42:11

Fearful but Trusting

Sometimes God's answers to our prayers require us to go against our fears and subject ourselves in complete dependence upon Him. Believing that God is greater than our fears is the first step toward victory over them.

12 'And [a]I will show you mercy, that he may have mercy on you and cause you to return to your own land.'
13 "But if [a]you say, 'We will not dwell in this land,' disobeying the voice of the LORD your God,
14 "saying, 'No, but we will go to the land of [a]Egypt where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor be hungry for bread, and there we will dwell'—
15 "Then hear now the word of the LORD, O remnant of Judah! Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'If you [a]wholly[1] set [b]your faces to enter Egypt, and go to dwell there,
16 'then it shall be that the [a]sword which you feared shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt; the famine of which you were afraid shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there you shall die.
17 'So shall it be with all the men who set their faces to go to Egypt to dwell there. They shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence. And [a]none of them shall remain or escape from the disaster that I will bring upon them.'
18 "For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'As My anger and My fury

Jeremiah Taken to Egypt

43 Now it happened, when Jeremiah had stopped speaking to all the people all the [a]words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, all these words,
2 [a]that Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men spoke, saying to Jeremiah, "You speak falsely! The LORD our God has not sent you to say, 'Do not go to Egypt to dwell there.'

ENCOUNTER Note Jer. 43:2

Risky Truth

God's people run the risk of offending unbelievers when they speak the truth. Unregenerate people can be violently opposed to God and will sometimes slander and ridicule those He sends to them.

3 "But [a]Baruch the son of Neriah has [1]set you against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may put us to death or carry us away captive to Babylon."
4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, all the captains of the forces, and all the people would [a]not obey the voice of the LORD, to remain in the land of Judah.
5 But Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces took [a]all the remnant of Judah who had returned to dwell in the land of Judah, from all nations where they had been driven—
6 men, women, children, [a]the king's daughters, [b]and every person whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch the son of Neriah.
7 [a]So they went to the land of Egypt, for they did not obey the voice of the LORD. And they went as far as [b]Tahpanhes.
8 Then the [a]word of the LORD came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,
9 "Take large stones in your hand, and hide them in the sight of the men of Judah, in the [1]clay in the brick courtyard which is at the entrance to Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes;
10 "and say to them, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, I will send and bring Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, [a]My servant, and will set his throne above these stones that I have hidden. And he will spread his royal pavilion over them.
11 [a]"When he comes, he shall strike the land of Egypt and deliver to death [b]those appointed for death, and to captivity those appointed for captivity, and to the sword those appointed for the sword.
12 [1]"I will kindle a fire in the houses of [a]the gods of Egypt, and he shall burn them and carry them away captive. And he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd puts on his garment, and he shall go out from there in peace.

Resisting

It is sometimes easier to discount God's messenger than to heed God's message. Many a pious protest against the words of an emissary is nothing more than a stubborn refusal to heed what God is saying.

43:7 Tahpanhes, known as Daphne by the Greeks, was the residence of Pharaoh. It was a city on the eastern edge of the Nile delta.

43:13 Beth Shemesh, meant "house of the sun" and was the temple of the sun god Re.

44:1 Migdol and Tahpanhes were in the far northern region of Egypt, while Noph (or Memphis, modern Cairo), and Pathros were inland.

in the land of Egypt, who dwell at [a]Migdol, at [b]Tahpanhes, at [c]Noph,[1] and in the country of [d]Pathros, saying,
2 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'You have seen all the calamity that I have brought on Jerusalem and on all the cities of Judah; and behold, this day they are [a]a desolation, and no one dwells in them,
3 'because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke Me to anger, in that they went [a]to burn incense and to [b]serve other gods whom they did not know, they nor you nor your fathers.
4 'However [a]I have sent to you all My servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, "Oh, do not do this abominable thing that I hate!"
5 'But they did not listen or incline their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense to other gods.
6 'So My fury and My anger were poured out and kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they [1]are wasted and desolate, as it is this day.'
7 "Now therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Why do you commit this great evil [a]against yourselves, to cut off from you man and woman, child and infant, out of Judah, leaving none to remain,
8 'in that you [a]provoke Me to wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt where you have gone to dwell, that you may cut yourselves off and be [b]a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?
9 'Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, the wickedness of the kings of Judah, the wickedness of their wives, your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?
10 'They have not been [a]humbled,[1] to this day, nor have they [b]feared; they have not walked in My law or in My statutes that I set before you and your fathers.'
11 "Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Behold, [a]I will set My face against you for catastrophe and for [1]cutting off all Judah.
12 'And I will take the remnant of Judah who have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to dwell there, and [a]they shall all be consumed and fall in the land of Egypt. They shall be consumed by the sword and by famine. They shall die, from the least to the greatest, by the sword and by famine; and [b]they shall be an oath, an astonishment, a curse and a reproach!
13 [a]'For I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence, 14 'so that none of the remnant of Judah who have gone into the land of Egypt to dwell there shall escape or survive, lest they return to the land of Judah, to which they [a]desire[1] to return and dwell. For [b]none shall return except those who escape.' "

God's Way

Our solutions to our problems are disastrous when they are not in sync with God's way. He will not bless us simply because we are His children, He honors us because we follow and obey Him.

15 Then all the men who knew that their wives had burned incense to other gods, with all the women who stood by, a great multitude, and all the people who dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying:
16 "As for the word that you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD, [a]we will not listen to you!
17 "But we will certainly do [a]whatever has gone out of our own mouth, to burn incense to the [b]queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. For then we had plenty of [1]food, were well-off, and saw no trouble.
18 "But since we stopped burning incense to the queen of heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have lacked everything and have been consumed by the sword and by famine."
19 The women also said, [a]"And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven and poured out drink offerings to her, did we make cakes for her, to worship her, and pour out drink offerings to her without our husbands' permission?"
20 Then Jeremiah spoke to all the people—the men, the women, and all the people who had given him that answer—saying:

44:18 The "queen of heaven" referred to Ishtar, a war goddess who was believed to bring fertility. Worship of Ishtar involved sexual acts. The people reasoned that their lives had been better before King Josiah's reforms forced them to abandon their idolatrous activity.

21 "The incense that you burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your fathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and did it not come into His mind?
22 "So the LORD could no longer bear it, because of the evil of your doings and because of the abominations which you committed. Therefore your land is a desolation, an astonishment, a curse, and without an inhabitant, [a]as it is this day.
23 "Because you have burned incense and because you have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD or walked in His law, in His statutes or in His testimonies, [a]therefore this calamity has happened to you, as at this day."
24 Moreover Jeremiah said to all the people and to all the women, "Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah who are in the land of Egypt!
25 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying: 'You and your wives have spoken with your mouths and fulfilled with your hands, saying, "We will surely keep our vows that we have made, to burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her." You will surely keep your vows and perform your vows!'
26 "Therefore hear the word of the LORD, all Judah who dwell in the land of Egypt: 'Behold, [a]I have sworn by My [b]great name,' says the LORD, 'that [c]My name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, "The Lord GOD lives."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Jer. 44:26

God's Name

God's name represents His character, His presence, and His activity among the people. Removing His name means He left them to their own destruction and to the consequences of their sins.

27 'Behold, I will watch over them for adversity and not for good. And all the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt [a]shall be consumed by the sword and by famine, until there is an end to them.
28 'Yet [a]a small number who escape the sword shall return from the land of Egypt to the land of Judah; and all the remnant of Judah, who have gone to the land of Egypt to dwell there, shall know whose words will stand, Mine or theirs.
29 'And this shall be a sign to you,' says the LORD, 'that I will punish you in this place, that you may know that My words will surely [a]stand against you for adversity.'
30 "Thus says the LORD: 'Behold, [a]I will give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies and into the hand of those who seek his life, as I gave [b]Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, his enemy who sought his life.' "

Assurance to Baruch

45 The [a]word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to [b]Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book [1]at the instruction of Jeremiah, in the [c]fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying,
2 "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to you, O Baruch:
3 'You said, "Woe is me now! For the LORD has added grief to my sorrow. I [a]fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest." '
4 "Thus you shall say to him, 'Thus says the LORD: "Behold, [a]what I have built I will break down, and what I have planted I will pluck up, that is, this whole land.
5 "And do you seek great things for yourself? Do not seek them; for behold, [a]I will bring adversity on all flesh," says the LORD. "But I will give your [b]life to you as a prize in all places, wherever you go." ' "

Misguided Ambition

Personal ambition is foolhardy if we are out of step with God's activity. Our chief aim ought to be the accomplishment of God's will, not the achievement of our plans.

44:30 Hophra, also known as Pharaoh Apries, ruled Egypt from 589 until his downfall in 570 B.C.

45:1 This chapter is best understood as an appendage to Jeremiah 36, as it takes place prior to the destruction of Jerusalem.

46:2 Pharaoh Neco took the city of Carchemish after the Battle of Megiddo in which King Josiah was killed (609 B.C.). Nebuchadnezzar reclaimed it three years later.

cho, king of Egypt, which was by the River Euphrates in Carchemish, and which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon [c]defeated in the [d]fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah:

3 "Order[1] the [2]buckler and shield,
And draw near to battle!
4 Harness the horses,
And mount up, you horsemen!
Stand forth with your helmets,
Polish the spears,
[a]Put on the armor!
5 Why have I seen them dismayed and turned back?
Their mighty ones are beaten down;
They have speedily fled,
And did not look back,
For [a]fear was all around," says the LORD.
6 "Do not let the swift flee away,
Nor the mighty man escape;
They will [a]stumble and fall
Toward the north, by the River Euphrates.

7 "Who is this coming up [a]like a flood,
Whose waters move like the rivers?
8 Egypt rises up like a flood,
And its waters move like the rivers;
And he says, 'I will go up and cover the earth,
I will destroy the city and its inhabitants.'
9 Come up, O horses, and rage,
O chariots!
And let the mighty men come forth:
[1]The Ethiopians and [2]the Libyans who handle the shield,
And the Lydians [a]who handle and bend the bow.
10 For this is [a]the day of the Lord GOD of hosts,
A day of vengeance,
That He may avenge Himself on His adversaries.
[b]The sword shall devour;
It shall be [1]satiated and made drunk with their blood;
For the Lord GOD of hosts [c]has a sacrifice
In the north country by the River Euphrates.

11 "Go[a] up to Gilead and take balm,
[b]O virgin, the daughter of Egypt;
In vain you will use many medicines;
[c]You shall not be cured.
12 The nations have heard of your [a]shame,
And your cry has filled the land;
For the mighty man has stumbled against the mighty;
They both have fallen together."

Babylonia Will Strike Egypt

13 The word that the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon would come and [a]strike the land of Egypt.

14 "Declare in Egypt, and proclaim in [a]Migdol;
Proclaim in [1]Noph and in [b]Tahpanhes;
Say, 'Stand fast and prepare yourselves,
For the sword devours all around you.'
15 Why are your valiant men swept away?
They did not stand
Because the LORD drove them away.
16 He made many fall;
Yes, [a]one fell upon another.
And they said, 'Arise!
[b]Let us go back to our own people
And to the land of our nativity
From the oppressing sword.'
17 They cried there,
'Pharaoh, king of Egypt, is but a noise.

HISTORICAL*Encounter* CHARLES SPURGEON Jer. 45:5

As a young man zealous to serve the Lord, Charles Spurgeon was urged to obtain formal training before he could properly serve. His giftedness as a teacher was already apparent, and further education could launch him into a respectable educational career. Hence, he scheduled an appointment with Dr. Joseph Angus, principal of Stepney College (later Regent's Park College). Arriving at the appointed time, Spurgeon waited two hours for Angus. Finally, after despairing of the meeting, Spurgeon discovered that Angus had waited for him the entire time in an adjoining room but had finally given up and gone home. Spurgeon sullenly set off for home, and was crossing a bridge when suddenly his mind was flooded with the words, "Seekest thou great things for thyself? Seek them not." Spurgeon recognized this as God's word to him. He realized he had been planning his own career rather than submitting to God's will. He never did attend college, although he later founded one that continues to this day.

46:14 Migdol, Noph, Tahpanhes were cities in the east, north and south. Nebuchadnezzar did not advance westward because he had to terminate his campaign early at the news of his father's death in Babylon.

He has passed by the appointed time!'

18 "As I live," says the King,
[a]Whose name is the LORD of hosts,
"Surely as Tabor is among the mountains
And as Carmel by the sea, so he shall come.
19 O [a]you daughter dwelling in Egypt,
Prepare yourself [b]to go into captivity!
For [1]Noph shall be waste and desolate, without inhabitant.

20 "Egypt is a very pretty [a]heifer,
But destruction comes, it comes [b]from the north.
21 Also her mercenaries are in her midst like [1]fat bulls,
For they also are turned back,
They have fled away together.
They did not stand,
For [a]the day of their calamity had come upon them,
The time of their punishment.
22 [a]Her noise shall go like a serpent,
For they shall march with an army
And come against her with axes,
Like those who chop wood.

23 "They shall [a]cut down her forest," says the LORD,
"Though it cannot be searched,
Because they are innumerable,
And more numerous than [b]grasshoppers.
24 The daughter of Egypt shall be ashamed;
She shall be delivered into the hand
Of [a]the people of the north."

25 The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: "Behold, I will bring punishment on [1]Amon of [a]No,[2] and Pharaoh and Egypt, [b]with their gods and their kings—Pharaoh and those who [c]trust in him.
26 [a]"And I will deliver them into the hand of those who seek their lives, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and the hand of his servants. [b]Afterward it shall be inhabited as in the days of old," says the LORD.

God Will Preserve Israel

27 "But[a] do not fear, O My servant Jacob,
And do not be dismayed, O Israel!
For behold, I will [b]save you from afar,
And your offspring from the land of their captivity;
Jacob shall return, have rest and be at ease;
No one shall make him afraid.
28 Do not fear, O Jacob My servant," says the LORD,
"For I am with you;
For I will make a complete end of all the nations
To which I have driven you,
But I will not make [a]a complete end of you.
I will rightly [b]correct you,
For I will not leave you wholly unpunished."

God's Love in Action

God's love is far-reaching and multifaceted. It includes blessing, protection, and guidance. It also includes discipline, forgiveness, and restoration.

Judgment on Philistia

47 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet [a]against the Philistines, [b]before Pharaoh attacked Gaza.
2 Thus says the LORD:

"Behold, [a]waters rise [b]out of the north,
And shall be an overflowing flood;
They shall overflow the land and all that is in it,
The city and those who dwell within;
Then the men shall cry,
And all the inhabitants of the land shall wail.
3 At the [a]noise of the stamping hooves of his strong horses,
At the rushing of his chariots,
At the rumbling of his wheels,
The fathers will not look back for their children,
[1]Lacking courage,
4 Because of the day that comes to plunder all the [a]Philistines,
To cut off from [b]Tyre and Sidon every helper who remains;
For the LORD shall plunder the Philistines,
[c]The remnant of the country of [d]Caphtor.[1]
5 [a]Baldness has come upon Gaza,
[b]Ashkelon is cut off
With the remnant of their valley.
How long will you cut yourself?

46:25 Amon was Egypt's sun god; No is known today as ancient Thebes, the capital of Upper Egypt.

47:4 Caphtor was another name Crete.

6 "O you [a]sword of the LORD,
How long until you are quiet?
Put yourself up into your scabbard,
Rest and be still!
7 How can [1]it be quiet,
Seeing the LORD has [a]given it a charge
Against Ashkelon and against the seashore?
There He has [b]appointed it."

Judgment on Moab

48 Against [a]Moab.
Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:

"Woe to [b]Nebo!
For it is plundered,
[c]Kirjathaim is shamed and taken;
[1]The high stronghold is shamed and dismayed—
2 [a]No more praise of Moab.
In [b]Heshbon they have devised evil against her:
'Come, and let us cut her off as a nation.'
You also shall be cut down,
O [c]Madmen![1]
The sword shall pursue you;
3 A voice of crying shall be from [a]Horonaim:
'Plundering and great destruction!'
4 "Moab is destroyed;
[1]Her little ones have caused a cry to be heard;
5 [a]For in the Ascent of Luhith they ascend with continual weeping;
For in the descent of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.
6 "Flee, save your lives!
And be like [1]the [a]juniper in the wilderness.
7 For because you have trusted in your works and your [a]treasures,
You also shall be taken.
And [b]Chemosh shall go forth into captivity,
His [c]priests and his princes together.
8 And [a]the plunderer shall come against every city;
No one shall escape.
The valley also shall perish,
And the plain shall be destroyed,
As the LORD has spoken.
9 "Give[a] wings to Moab,
That she may flee and get away;
For her cities shall be desolate,
Without any to dwell in them.
10 [a]Cursed is he who does the work of the LORD deceitfully,
And cursed is he who keeps back his sword from blood.
11 "Moab has been at ease from [1]his youth;
He [a]has settled on his dregs,
And has not been emptied from vessel to vessel,
Nor has he gone into captivity.
Therefore his taste remained in him,
And his scent has not changed.
12 "Therefore behold, the days are coming," says the LORD,
"That I shall send him [1]wine-workers
Who will tip him over
And empty his vessels
And break the bottles.
13 Moab shall be ashamed of [a]Chemosh,
As the house of Israel [b]was ashamed of [c]Bethel, their confidence.
14 "How can you say, [a]'We are mighty
And strong men for the war'?
15 Moab is plundered and gone up from her cities;
Her chosen young men have [a]gone down to the slaughter," says [b]the King,
Whose name is the LORD of hosts.
16 "The calamity of Moab is near at hand,
And his affliction comes quickly.
17 Bemoan him, all you who are around him;
And all you who know his name,
Say, [a]'How the strong staff is broken,
The beautiful rod!'
18 "O [a]daughter inhabiting [b]Dibon,
Come down from your glory,
And sit in thirst;
For the plunderer of Moab has come against you,
He has destroyed your strongholds.
19 O inhabitant of [a]Aroer,

47:7 Ashkelon was a maritime town between Jaffa and Gaza, and was one of the five chief cities of the Philistines that played a prominent role throughout the Old Testament.

48:1 Moab was the area east of the Dead Sea. This district was fifty miles long by thirty miles wide, averaging 4,300 feet above sea level.

48:7 Chemosh was the main god of the Moabites.

48:13 Bethel at one time contained a golden calf built by King Jeroboam (1 Kin. 12:28, 29).

48:18 Dibon was the capital of Moab from which Mesha ruled (2 Kin. 3:4–27).

48:19 Aroer was located on the Arnon River south of Dibon.

And her who escapes;
Say, 'What has happened?'
20 Moab is shamed, for he is broken down.
[a]Wail and cry!
Tell it in [b]Arnon, that Moab is plundered.

21 "And judgment has come on the plain country:
On Holon and Jahzah and Mephaath,
22 On Dibon and Nebo and Beth Diblathaim,
23 On Kirjathaim and Beth Gamul and Beth Meon,
24 On [a]Kerioth and Bozrah,
On all the cities of the land of Moab,
Far or near.
25 [a]The [1]horn of Moab is cut off,
And his [b]arm is broken," says the LORD.

26 "Make[a] him drunk,
Because he exalted himself against the LORD.
Moab shall wallow in his vomit,
And he shall also be in derision.
27 For [a]was not Israel a derision to you?
[b]Was he found among thieves?
For whenever you speak of him,
You shake your head in [c]scorn.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Jer. 48:27

Turnabout

It is no coincidence that those who ridicule God become the mocked themselves. Divine irony demonstrates that God remembers the sins of evildoers and He revisits them with the consequences of their actions.

28 You who dwell in Moab,
Leave the cities and [a]dwell in the rock,
And be like [b]the dove which makes her nest
In the sides of the cave's mouth.

29 "We have heard the [a]pride of Moab
(He is exceedingly proud),
Of his loftiness and arrogance and [b]pride,
And of the haughtiness of his heart."

30 "I know his wrath," says the LORD,
"But it is not right;
[a]His [1]lies have made nothing right.
31 Therefore [a]I will wail for Moab,
And I will cry out for all Moab;
[1]I will mourn for the men of Kir Heres.
32 [a]O vine of Sibmah! I will weep for you with the weeping of [b]Jazer.
Your plants have gone over the sea,
They reach to the sea of Jazer.
The plunderer has fallen on your summer fruit and your vintage.
33 [a]Joy and gladness are taken
From the plentiful field
And from the land of Moab;
I have caused wine to [1]fail from the winepresses;
No one will tread with joyous shouting—
Not joyous shouting!

34 "From[a] the cry of Heshbon to [b]Elealeh and to Jahaz
They have uttered their voice,
[c]From Zoar to Horonaim,
Like [1]a three-year-old heifer;
For the waters of Nimrim also shall be desolate.

35 "Moreover," says the LORD,
"I will cause to cease in Moab
[a]The one who offers sacrifices in the [1]high places
And burns incense to his gods.
36 Therefore [a]My heart shall wail like flutes for Moab,
And like flutes My heart shall wail
For the men of Kir Heres.
Therefore [b]the riches they have acquired have perished.

37 "For [a]every head shall be bald, and every beard clipped;
On all the hands shall be cuts, and [b]on the loins sackcloth—
38 A general lamentation
On all the [a]housetops of Moab,
And in its streets;
For I have [b]broken Moab like a vessel in which is no pleasure," says the LORD.
39 "They shall wail:
'How she is broken down!
How Moab has turned her back with shame!'
So Moab shall be a derision
And a dismay to all those about her."

40 For thus says the LORD:

"Behold, [a]one shall fly like an eagle,
And [b]spread his wings over Moab.
41 Kerioth is taken,
And the strongholds are surprised;
[a]The mighty men's hearts in Moab on that day shall be
Like the heart of a woman in birth pangs.

O inhabitant of Moab," says the LORD.
44 "He who flees from the fear shall fall into the pit,
And he who gets out of the pit shall be caught in the [a]snare.
For upon Moab, upon it [b]I will bring
The year of their punishment," says the LORD.

45 "Those who fled stood under the shadow of Heshbon
Because of exhaustion.
But [a]a fire shall come out of Heshbon,
A flame from the midst of [b]Sihon,
And [c]shall devour the brow of Moab,
The crown of the head of the sons of tumult.
46 [a]Woe to you, O Moab!
The people of Chemosh perish;
For your sons have been taken captive,
And your daughters captive.

47 "Yet I will bring back the captives of Moab
[a]In the latter days," says the LORD.

Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Jer. 48:47

Yet There Is Hope

Despite God's judgment on the wicked, He offers the hope of restoration. Just as there is calm after the storm, there is compassion after God's wrath.

Judgment on Ammon

49 Against the [a]Ammonites.
Thus says the LORD:

"Has Israel no sons?
Has he no heir?
Why then does [1]Milcom inherit [b]Gad,
And his people dwell in its cities?
2 [a]Therefore behold, the days are coming," says the LORD,
"That I will cause to be heard an alarm of war
In [b]Rabbah of the Ammonites;
It shall be a desolate mound,
And her [1]villages shall be burned with fire.
Then Israel shall take possession of his inheritance," says the LORD.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Jer. 49:2

Right over Might

In the world might over right is the rule. But in God's kingdom righteousness will prevail in God's time and in His way. God's holiness will triumph over man's violence.

3 "Wail, O [a]Heshbon, for Ai is plundered!
Cry, you daughters of Rabbah,
[b]Gird yourselves with sackcloth!
Lament and run to and fro by the walls;
For [1]Milcom shall go into captivity
With his [c]priests and his princes together.
4 Why [a]do you boast in the valleys,
[1]Your flowing valley, O [b]backsliding daughter?
Who trusted in her [c]treasures,
[d]saying,
'Who will come against me?'
5 Behold, I will bring fear upon you,"
Says the Lord GOD of hosts,
"From all those who are around you;
You shall be driven out, everyone headlong,
And no one will gather those who wander off.
6 But [a]afterward I will bring back
The captives of the people of Ammon," says the LORD.

Judgment on Edom

7 [a]Against Edom.
Thus says the LORD of hosts:

[b]"Is wisdom no more in Teman?
[c]Has counsel perished from the prudent?
Has their wisdom [d]vanished?
8 Flee, turn back, dwell in the depths,
O inhabitants of [a]Dedan!

The time that I will punish him.

8 [a]Jer. 25:23
9 [a]Obad. 5, 6

49:1 Rabbah was located fourteen miles from Heshbon and was the capital city of Ammon. The present-day capital of Jordan, Amman, is located at the site.

49:7 Edom, meaning "Red," was the name given to Esau, Jacob's twin brother. The land of Edom, also called Mount Seir, was located southeast of the Dead Sea. The Edomites were eventually overrun by Arab invaders and relocated into southern Judah in a region known as Idumea.

Would they not destroy until they have enough?
10 [a]But I have made Esau bare;
I have uncovered his secret places,
And he shall not be able to hide himself.
His descendants are plundered,
His brethren and his neighbors,
And [b]he is no more.
11 Leave your fatherless children,
I will preserve them alive;
And let your widows trust in Me."

12 For thus says the LORD: "Behold, [a]those whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunk. And are you the one who will altogether go unpunished? You shall not go unpunished, but you shall surely drink of it.
13 "For [a]I have sworn by Myself," says the LORD, "that [b]Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a [1]waste, and a curse. And all its cities shall be perpetual [2]wastes."

14 [a]I have heard a message from the
LORD,
And an ambassador has been sent to the nations:
"Gather together, come against her,
And rise up to battle!

15 "For indeed, I will make you small among nations,
Despised among men.
16 Your fierceness has deceived you,
The [a]pride of your heart,
O you who dwell in the clefts of the rock,
Who hold the height of the hill!
[b]Though you make your [c]nest as high as the eagle,
[d]I will bring you down from there,"
says the LORD.

17 "Edom also shall be an astonishment;
[a]Everyone who goes by it will be astonished
And will hiss at all its plagues.
18 [a]As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah
And their neighbors," says the LORD,
"No one shall remain there,
Nor shall a son of man dwell in it.

19 "Behold,[a] he shall come up like a lion from [b]the [1]floodplain of the Jordan
Against the dwelling place of the strong;
But I will suddenly make him run away from her.

may appoint over her?
For [c]who is like Me?
Who will arraign Me?
And [d]who is that shepherd
Who will withstand Me?"

20 [a]Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD that He has taken against Edom,
And His purposes that He has proposed against the inhabitants of Teman:
Surely the least of the flock shall [1]draw them out;
Surely He shall make their dwelling places desolate with them.
21 [a]The earth shakes at the noise of their fall;
At the cry its noise is heard at the Red Sea.
22 Behold, [a]He shall come up and fly like the eagle,
And spread His wings over Bozrah;
The heart of the mighty men of Edom in that day shall be Like the heart of a woman in birth pangs.

Judgment on Damascus

23 [a]Against Damascus.

[b]"Hamath and Arpad are shamed,
For they have heard bad news.
They are fainthearted;
[c]There is [1]trouble on the sea;
It cannot be quiet.
24 Damascus has grown feeble;
She turns to flee,
And fear has seized her.
[a]Anguish and sorrows have taken her like a woman in [1]labor.
25 Why is [a]the city of praise not deserted, the city of My joy?

ENCOUNTER Note Jer. 49:25

Fleeting Pleasures

Fleeting sinful pleasures quickly turn sour when God's judgment falls. Carnality cannot withstand the scrutiny of God's righteousness, and it will be exposed as the empty, deceitful, and destructive practice it is.

26 [a]Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets,
And all the men of war shall be cut off in that day," says the LORD of hosts.

49:18 Sodom and Gomorrah exemplified the ultimate expression of God's wrath.

49:23 Damascus was one of the most ancient and important cities of Syria. It is located one hundred and thirty miles northeast of Jerusalem.

27 "I[a] will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus,
And it shall consume the palaces of Ben-Hadad."

Judgment on Kedar and Hazor

28 [a]Against Kedar and against the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon shall strike.
Thus says the LORD:

"Arise, go up to Kedar,
And devastate [a]the men of the East!
29 Their [a]tents and their flocks they shall take away.
They shall take for themselves their curtains,
All their vessels and their camels;
And they shall cry out to them,
[b]'Fear is on every side!'

30 "Flee, get far away! Dwell in the depths,
O inhabitants of Hazor!" says the
LORD.
"For Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has taken counsel
against you,
And has conceived a plan against
you.

31 "Arise, go up to [a]the wealthy nation that dwells securely," says the
LORD,
"Which has neither gates nor bars,
[b]Dwelling alone.
32 Their camels shall be for booty,
And the multitude of their cattle for plunder.
I will [a]scatter to all winds those [1]in the farthest corners,
And I will bring their calamity from all its sides," says the LORD.
33 "Hazor [a]shall be a dwelling for jackals, a desolation forever;
No one shall reside there,
Nor son of man dwell in it."

Judgment on Elam

34 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against [a]Elam, in the [b]beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying,
35 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

'Behold, I will break [a]the [1]bow of Elam,
The foremost of their might.
36 Against Elam I will bring the four winds
From the four quarters of heaven,
And scatter them toward all those
winds;
There shall be no nations where the outcasts of Elam will not go.
37 For I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies
And before those who seek their life.
[a]I will bring disaster upon them,
My fierce anger,' says the LORD;
'And I will send the sword after them
Until I have consumed them.
38 I will [a]set My throne in Elam,
And will destroy from there the king and the princes,' says the
LORD.

39 'But it shall come to pass [a]in the latter days:
I will bring back the captives of
Elam,' says the LORD."

Judgment on Babylon and Babylonia

50 The word that the LORD spoke [a]against Babylon and against the land of the Chaldeans by Jeremiah the prophet.

2 "Declare among the nations,
Proclaim, and [1]set up a standard;
Proclaim—do not conceal it—
Say, 'Babylon is [a]taken, [b]Bel is shamed.
[2]Merodach is broken in pieces;
[c]Her idols are humiliated,
Her images are broken in pieces.'
3 [a]For out of the north [b]a nation comes up against her,
Which shall make her land
desolate,
And no one shall dwell therein.
They shall [1]move, they shall depart,
Both man and beast.

4 "In those days and in that time," says
the LORD,
"The children of Israel shall come,
[a]They and the children of Judah together;
[b]With continual weeping they shall come,
[c]And seek the LORD their God.
5 They shall ask the way to Zion,
With their faces toward it, saying,
'Come and let us join ourselves to
the LORD
In [a]a perpetual covenant
That will not be forgotten.'

5 [a]Jer. 31:31

49:28 Kedar and Hazor were nomadic tribes inhabiting the Arabian peninsula.

49:34 Elam's capital was Susa. It was south of Assyria, east of Persia, and two hundred miles east of Babylon. Elam allied with the Babylonians to defeat Nineveh in 612 B.C. Then in 539 they helped overthrow the Babylonian empire.

50:2 Bel, a name that means "Lord," was the equivalent of Baal. Merodach, meaning "Death," was another name for Marduk and became the chief deity of Babylon.

ENCOUNTER Note Jer. 50:5

Return to God

Repentance means returning to God immediately. When our relationship with God is restored, the door is open for other blessings to follow.

6 "My people have been [a]lost sheep.
Their shepherds have led them
[b]astray;
They have turned them away on
[c]the mountains.
They have gone from mountain to hill;
They have forgotten their resting place.
7 All who found them have [a]devoured
them;
And [b]their adversaries said, [c]'We have not offended,
Because they have sinned against the LORD, [d]the habitation of justice,
The LORD, [e]the hope of their fathers.'

8 "Move[a] from the midst of Babylon,
Go out of the land of the Chaldeans;
And be like the [1]rams before the flocks.
9 [a]For behold, I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon
An assembly of great nations from the north country,
And they shall array themselves against her;
From there she shall be captured.
Their arrows shall be like those of [1]an expert warrior;
[b]None shall return in vain.
10 And Chaldea shall become plunder;
[a]All who plunder her shall be satisfied," says the LORD.

11 "Because[a] you were glad, because you rejoiced,
You destroyers of My heritage,
Because you have grown fat [b]like a heifer threshing grain,
And you [1]bellow like bulls,
12 Your mother shall be deeply ashamed;
She who bore you shall be ashamed.
Behold, the least of the nations shall be a [a]wilderness,
A dry land and a desert.
13 Because of the wrath of the LORD
She shall not be inhabited,
[a]But she shall be wholly desolate.
[b]Everyone who goes by Babylon shall be horrified
And hiss at all her plagues.

14 "Put[a] yourselves in array against Babylon all around,
All you who bend the bow;
Shoot at her, spare no arrows,
For she has sinned against the
LORD.
15 Shout against her all around;
She has [a]given her hand,
Her foundations have fallen,
[b]Her walls are thrown down;
For [c]it is the vengeance of the LORD.
Take vengeance on her.
As she has done, so do to her.
16 Cut off the sower from Babylon,
And him who handles the sickle at harvest time.
For fear of the oppressing sword
[a]Everyone shall turn to his own people,
And everyone shall flee to his own land.

17 "Israel is like [a]scattered sheep;
[b]The lions have driven him away.
First [c]the king of Assyria devoured
him;
Now at last this [d]Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has broken his bones."

18 Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:

"Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land,
As I have punished the king of
[a]Assyria.
19 [a]But I will bring back Israel to his home,
And he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan;
His soul shall be satisfied on Mount
Ephraim and Gilead.
20 In those days and in that time," says
the LORD,
[a]"The iniquity of Israel shall be sought, but there shall be none;
And the sins of Judah, but they shall not be found;
For I will pardon those [b]whom I preserve.

21 "Go up against the land of Merathaim, against it,
And against the inhabitants of [a]Pekod.
[1]Waste and utterly destroy them,"
says the LORD,

50:6 God's devastating indictment upon the leaders of His people serves as a focus of blame, but should also be a dire warning to all who lead others astray.

50:21 Merathaim was a region in southern Babylon. Pekod was the name of a tribe in eastern Babylon.

ENCOUNTER Note Jer. 50:20

Not Found

When God deals with our sins, He does so once and for all. His pardon is complete, comprehensive, and without reservation, leaving nothing for reproach.

"And do [b]according to all that I have commanded you.
22 [a]A sound of battle is in the land,
And of great destruction.
23 How [a]the hammer of the whole earth has been cut apart and broken!
How Babylon has become a desolation among the nations!
24 I have laid a snare for you;
You have indeed been [a]trapped, O Babylon,
And you were not aware;
You have been found and also caught,
Because you have [b]contended against the LORD.
25 The LORD has opened His armory,
And has brought out [a]the weapons of His indignation;
For this is the work of the Lord GOD of hosts
In the land of the Chaldeans.
26 Come against her from the farthest border;
Open her storehouses;
Cast her up as heaps of ruins,
And destroy her utterly;
Let nothing of her be left.
27 Slay all her [a]bulls,
Let them go down to the slaughter.
Woe to them!
For their day has come, the time of [b]their punishment.
28 The voice of those who flee and escape from the land of Babylon
[a]Declares in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God,
The vengeance of His temple.

29 "Call together the archers against Babylon.
All you who bend the bow, encamp against it all around;
Let none of them [1]escape.
[a]Repay her according to her work;
According to all she has done, do to her;
[b]For she has been proud against the LORD,
Against the Holy One of Israel.
30 [a]Therefore her young men shall fall in the streets,
And all her men of war shall be cut off in that day," says the LORD.
31 "Behold, I am against you,
O most haughty one!" says the Lord GOD of hosts;
"For your day has come,
[1]The time that I will punish you.
32 The most [a]proud shall stumble and fall,
And no one will raise him up;
[b]I will kindle a fire in his cities,
And it will devour all around him."

33 Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"The children of Israel were oppressed,
Along with the children of Judah;
All who took them captive have held them fast;
They have refused to let them go.
34 [a]Their Redeemer is strong;
[b]The LORD of hosts is His name.
He will thoroughly plead their [c]case,
That He may give rest to the land,
And disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

35 "A sword is against the Chaldeans," says the LORD,
"Against the inhabitants of Babylon,
And [a]against her princes and [b]her wise men.
36 A sword is [a]against the soothsayers, and they will be fools.
A sword is against her mighty men, and they will be dismayed.
37 A sword is against their horses,
Against their chariots,
And against all [a]the mixed peoples who are in her midst;
And [b]they will become like women.
A sword is against her treasures, and they will be robbed.
38 [a]A [1]drought is against her waters, and they will be dried up.
For it is the land of carved images,
And they are insane with their idols.

39 "Therefore[a] the wild desert beasts shall dwell there with the jackals,
And the ostriches shall dwell in it.
[b]It shall be inhabited no more forever,
Nor shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.
40 [a]As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah
And their neighbors," says the LORD,
"So no one shall reside there,
Nor son of man [b]dwell in it.

And a great nation and many kings
Shall be raised up from the ends of the earth.
42 [a]They shall hold the bow and the lance;
[b]They are cruel and shall not show mercy.
[c]Their voice shall roar like the sea;
They shall ride on horses,
Set in array, like a man for the battle,
Against you, O daughter of Babylon.

43 "The king of Babylon has [a]heard the report about them,
And his hands grow feeble;
Anguish has taken hold of him,
Pangs as of a woman in [b]childbirth.

44 "Behold,[a] he shall come up like a lion from the [1]floodplain of the Jordan
Against the dwelling place of the strong;
But I will make them suddenly run away from her.
And who is a chosen man that I may appoint over her?
For who is like Me?
Who will arraign Me?
And [b]who is that shepherd
Who will withstand Me?"

45 Therefore hear [a]the counsel of the LORD that He has taken against Babylon,
And His [b]purposes that He has proposed against the land of the Chaldeans:
[c]Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out;
Surely He will make their dwelling place desolate with them.
46 [a]At the noise of the taking of Babylon
The earth trembles,
And the cry is heard among the nations.

The Utter Destruction of Babylon

51 Thus says the LORD:

"Behold, I will raise up against [a]Babylon,
Against those who dwell in [1]Leb Kamai,
[b]A destroying wind.
2 And I will send [a]winnowers to Babylon,
Who shall winnow her and empty her land.
[b]For in the day of doom
They shall be against her all around.
3 Against her [a]let the archer bend his bow,
And lift himself up against her in his armor.
Do not spare her young men;
[b]Utterly destroy all her army.
4 Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans,
[a]And those thrust through in her streets.
5 For Israel is [a]not forsaken, nor Judah,
By his God, the LORD of hosts,
Though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel."

6 [a]Flee from the midst of Babylon,
And every one save his life!
Do not be cut off in her iniquity,
For [b]this is the time of the LORD's vengeance;
[c]He shall recompense her.
7 [a]Babylon was a golden cup in the LORD's hand,
That made all the earth drunk.
[b]The nations drank her wine;
Therefore the nations [c]are deranged.
8 Babylon has suddenly [a]fallen and been destroyed.
[b]Wail for her!
[c]Take balm for her pain;
Perhaps she may be healed.

9 We would have healed Babylon,
But she is not healed.
Forsake her, and [a]let us go everyone to his own country;
[b]For her judgment reaches to heaven and is lifted up to the skies.
10 The LORD has [a]revealed our righteousness.
Come and let us [b]declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.

11 [a]Make[1] the arrows bright!
Gather the shields!
[b]The LORD has raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes.
[c]For His plan is against Babylon to destroy it,
Because it is [d]the vengeance of the LORD,
The vengeance for His temple.
12 [a]Set up the standard on the walls of Babylon;
Make the guard strong,
Set up the watchmen,
Prepare the ambushes.
For the LORD has both devised and done
What He spoke against the inhabitants of Babylon.
13 [a]O you who dwell by many waters,

Abundant in treasures,
Your end has come,

15 [a]He has made the earth by His power;
He has established the world by His wisdom,

There is a multitude of waters in the heavens:
[a]"He causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth;
He makes lightnings for the rain;
He brings the wind out of His treasuries."

17 [a]Everyone is dull-hearted, without knowledge;
Every metalsmith is put to shame by the carved image;
[b]For his molded image is falsehood,
And there is no breath in them.

God of Truth, Idols of Deceit

History demonstrates that trusting in any power apart from God is utter futility. Nation after nation, power after power, and army after army have fallen and vanished. But God continues to lead, guide, protect, and bless His people.

18 They are futile, a work of errors;
In the time of their punishment they shall perish.
19 The Portion of Jacob is not like them,
For He is the Maker of all things;
And Israel is the tribe of His inheritance.
The LORD of hosts is His name.

20 "You[a] are My battle-ax and weapons of war:
For with you I will break the nation in pieces;
With you I will destroy kingdoms;
21 With you I will break in pieces the horse and its rider;
With you I will break in pieces the chariot and its rider;
22 With you also I will break in pieces man and woman;
With you I will break in pieces [a]old and young;
With you I will break in pieces the young man and the maiden;
23 With you also I will break in pieces the shepherd and his flock;
With you I will break in pieces the farmer and his yoke of oxen;
And with you I will break in pieces governors and rulers.

24 "And[a] I will repay Babylon
And all the inhabitants of Chaldea
For all the evil they have done
In Zion in your sight," says the LORD.

25 "Behold, I am against you,
[a]O destroying mountain,
Who destroys all the earth," says the LORD.
"And I will stretch out My hand against you,
Roll you down from the rocks,
[b]And make you a burnt mountain.
26 They shall not take from you a stone for a corner
Nor a stone for a foundation,
[a]But you shall be desolate forever," says the LORD.

27 [a]Set up a banner in the land,
Blow the trumpet among the nations!
[b]Prepare the nations against her,
Call [c]the kingdoms together against her:
Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz.
Appoint a general against her;
Cause the horses to come up like the bristling locusts.
28 Prepare against her the nations,
With the kings of the Medes,
Its governors and all its rulers,
All the land of his dominion.
29 And the land will tremble and sorrow;
For every [a]purpose of the LORD shall be performed against Babylon,
[b]To make the land of Babylon a desolation without inhabitant.
30 The mighty men of Babylon have ceased fighting,
They have remained in their strongholds;
Their might has failed,

29 [a]Jer. 50:45 [b]Jer. 50:13; 51:26, 43

51:15 Jeremiah 51:15–19 repeats Jeremiah 10:12–16 with some differences.

51:27 Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz were mountain tribes in parts of present-day Turkey and Armenia.

51:28 The Medes were from the Zagros mountain region in present-day central Iran.

51:30 Apparently King Cyrus of Persia entered Babylon without opposition.

[a]They became like women;
They have burned her dwelling places,
[b]The bars of her gate are broken.
31 [a]One runner will run to meet another,
And one messenger to meet another,
To show the king of Babylon that his city is taken on all sides;
32 [a]The passages are blocked,
The reeds they have burned with fire,
And the men of war are terrified.

33 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:

"The daughter of Babylon is [a]like a threshing floor
When [b]it is time to thresh her;
Yet a little while
[c]And the time of her harvest will come."

34 "Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon
Has [a]devoured me, he has crushed me;
He has made me an [b]empty vessel,
He has swallowed me up like a monster;
He has filled his stomach with my delicacies,
He has spit me out.
35 Let the violence done to me and my flesh be upon Babylon,"
The inhabitant of Zion will say;
"And my blood be upon the inhabitants of Chaldea!"
Jerusalem will say.

36 Therefore thus says the LORD:

"Behold, [a]I will plead your case and take vengeance for you.
[b]I will dry up her sea and make her springs dry.
37 [a]Babylon shall become a heap,
A dwelling place for jackals,
[b]An astonishment and a hissing,
Without an inhabitant.
38 They shall roar together like lions,
They shall growl like lions' whelps.
39 In their excitement I will prepare their feasts;
[a]I will make them drunk,
That they may rejoice,
And sleep a perpetual sleep
And not awake," says the LORD.
40 "I will bring them down
Like lambs to the slaughter,
Like rams with male goats.

41 "Oh, how [a]Sheshach[1] is taken!
Oh, how [b]the praise of the whole earth is seized!
How Babylon has become desolate among the nations!
42 [a]The sea has come up over Babylon;
She is covered with the multitude of its waves.
43 [a]Her cities are a desolation,
A dry land and a wilderness,
A land where [b]no one dwells,
Through which no son of man passes.
44 I will punish [a]Bel[1] in Babylon,
And I will bring out of his mouth what he has swallowed;
And the nations shall not stream to him anymore.
Yes, [b]the wall of Babylon shall fall.

45 "My[a] people, go out of the midst of her!
And let everyone deliver [1]himself from the fierce anger of the LORD.
46 And lest your heart faint,
And you fear [a]for the rumor that will be heard in the land
(A rumor will come one year,
And after that, in another year
A rumor will come,
And violence in the land,
Ruler against ruler),
47 Therefore behold, the days are coming
That I will bring judgment on the carved images of Babylon;
Her whole land shall be ashamed,
And all her slain shall fall in her midst.
48 Then [a]the heavens and the earth and all that is in them
Shall sing joyously over Babylon;
[b]For the plunderers shall come to her from the north," says the LORD.

49 As Babylon has caused the slain of Israel to fall,
So at Babylon the slain of all the earth shall fall.
50 [a]You who have escaped the sword,
Get away! Do not stand still!
[b]Remember the LORD afar off,
And let Jerusalem come to your mind.

51 [a]We are ashamed because we have heard reproach.
Shame has covered our faces,
For strangers [b]have come into the [1]sanctuaries of the LORD's house.

52 "Therefore behold, the days are coming," says the LORD,

51:41 "Sheshach" may have been another name for Babylon.
51:44 The walls surrounding Babylon were formidable. The outer wall was twelve feet thick. The inner wall was twenty-three feet thick.

"That I will bring judgment on her carved images,
And throughout all her land the wounded shall groan.
53 [a]Though Babylon were to [1]mount up to heaven,
And though she were to fortify the height of her strength,
Yet from Me plunderers would come to her," says the LORD.

54 [a]The sound of a cry comes from Babylon,
And great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans,
55 Because the LORD is plundering
Babylon
And silencing her loud voice,
Though her waves roar like great waters,
And the noise of their voice is uttered,
56 Because the plunderer comes against her, against Babylon,
And her mighty men are taken.
Every one of their bows is broken;
[a]For the LORD is the God of recompense,
He will surely repay.

57 "And I will make drunk
Her princes and [a]wise men,
Her governors, her deputies, and her mighty men.
And they shall sleep a perpetual sleep
And not awake," says [b]the King,
Whose name is the LORD of hosts.

58 Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly [a]broken,[1]
And her high gates shall be burned with fire;
[b]The people will labor in vain,
And the nations, because of the fire;
And they shall be weary."

Jeremiah's Command to Seraiah

59 The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of [a]Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign.
And Seraiah was the quartermaster.
60 So Jeremiah [a]wrote in a book all the evil that would come upon Babylon, all these words that are written against Babylon.
61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah,
"When you arrive in Babylon and see it, ished reading this book, [a]that you shall tie a stone to it and throw it out into the Euphrates.

shall sink and not rise from the catastrophe that I will bring upon her. And they shall be weary.' " Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

The Fall of Jerusalem Reviewed

52 Zedekiah was [a]twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of [b]Libnah.
2 He also did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.
3 For because of the anger of the LORD
this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, till He finally cast them out from His presence. Then Zedekiah [a]rebelled against the king of Babylon.
4 Now it came to pass in the [a]ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem and encamped against it; and they built a siege wall against it all around.
5 So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.
6 By the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, the famine had become so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.
7 Then the city wall was broken through, and all the men of war fled and went out of the city at night by way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden, even though the Chaldeans were near the city all around. And they went by way of the [1]plain.
8 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and they overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. All his army was scattered from him.
9 [a]So they took the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, and he pronounced judgment on him.
10 [a]Then the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes. And he killed all the princes of Judah in Riblah.

52:1 The contents of this chapter correspond almost verbatim with 2 Kings 24:18–25, 30. The account in Kings tells of the fulfillment of thirteen of Jeremiah's prophecies.

52:4 The tenth month would be January.

52:5 The city of Jerusalem lasted eighteen months under siege.

11 He also [a]put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in [1]bronze fetters, took him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death.

The Temple and City Plundered and Burned

12 [a]Now in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month ([b]which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), [c]Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, who served the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.
13 He burned the house of the LORD and the king's house; all the houses of Jerusalem, that is, all the houses of the great, he burned with fire.
14 And all the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the guard broke down all the walls of Jerusalem all around.
15 [a]Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive some of the poor people, the rest of the people who remained in the city, the defectors who had deserted to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the craftsmen.
16 But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left some of the poor of the land as vinedressers and farmers.
17 [a]The [b]bronze pillars that were in the house of the LORD, and the carts and the bronze Sea that were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke in pieces, and carried all their bronze to Babylon.
18 They also took away [a]the pots, the shovels, the trimmers, the [1]bowls, the spoons, and all the bronze utensils with which the priests ministered.
19 The basins, the firepans, the bowls, the pots, the lampstands, the spoons, and the cups, whatever was solid gold and whatever was solid silver, the captain of the guard took away.
20 The two pillars, one Sea, the twelve bronze bulls which were under it, and the carts, which King Solomon had made for the house of the LORD—[a]the bronze of all these articles was beyond measure.
21 Now concerning the [a]pillars: the height of one pillar was eighteen [1]cubits, a measuring line of twelve cubits could measure its circumference, and its thickness was [2]four fingers; it was hollow.
22 A capital of bronze was on it; and the height of one capital was five cubits, with a network and pomegranates all around the capital, all of bronze. The second pillar, with pomegranates was the same.

The People Taken Captive to Babylonia

24 [a]The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, [b]Zephaniah the second priest, and the three doorkeepers.
25 He also took out of the city an [1]officer who had charge of the men of war, seven men of the king's close associates who were found in the city, the principal scribe of the army who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the midst of the city.
26 And Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took these and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.
27 Then the king of Babylon struck them and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive from its own land.
28 [a]These are the people whom Nebuchadnezzar carried away captive: [b]in the seventh year, [c]three thousand and twenty-three Jews;
29 [a]in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred and thirty-two persons;
30 in the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred and forty-five persons. All the persons were four thousand six hundred.

Jehoiachin Released from Prison

31 [a]Now it came to pass in the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth day of the month, that [1]Evil-Merodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, [b]lifted[2] up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah and brought him out of prison.

Always Hope

God's people always have cause for hope. In the most deplorable circumstances and the most oppressive tribulations, there is still hope because of God's faithfulness and His love for His people.

32 And he spoke kindly to him and gave him a more prominent seat than those of the kings who were with him in Babylon.
33 So [1]Jehoiachin changed from his prison garments, [a]and he ate bread regularly before the king all the days of his life.
34 And as for his provisions, there was a regular ration given him by the king of Babylon, a portion for each day until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

THE BOOK OF

LAMENTATIONS

INTRODUCTION

The title in the Hebrew Bible for this book is taken from its first word, eka, "how!" (1:1; 2:1; 4:1). Lamentations is mourning set to poetry. It is apparently written by an eyewitness to Jerusalem's destruction in 587 B.C. Its authorship has traditionally been attributed to the prophet Jeremiah. Most commentators believe the book was written soon after the fall of Jerusalem as its expressions of grief and anguish are intense. Lamentations is read in synagogues annually on the ninth day of the month of Ab (the fifth Hebrew month), to commemorate the downfall of Jerusalem and the destruction of the temple.

SIGNIFICANCE

Lamentations is an important book in the canon for several reasons. It graphically portrays the anguish of facing God's judgment. It also addresses the reality that God abandoned His people's defense and even allowed His holy temple to be looted and destroyed when His people forsook Him. The Hebrew people believed God would never allow pagans to capture the holy city or to enter the Most Holy Place. They mistakenly assumed that regardless of their disloyalty to God, He would protect them from their idolatrous enemies. This book clearly demonstrates that God is not oblivious to their infidelity. He will allow His wayward people to suffer, so their suffering draws them back to Him.

STRUCTURE

Lamentations is a collection of five poems, each independent of the others. Chapters One, Two and Four are each composed of twenty-two verses arranged in an acrostic, the first word of each verse beginning with a successive letter from the Hebrew alphabet. Chapter Three is also an acrostic but it is composed of sixty-six verses; the first three verses start with the first letter of the Hebrew alphabet and then the poem proceeds through the remaining letters of the alphabet. Chapter Five has twenty-two verses but it is not an acrostic, perhaps signifying poetically the chaos and disarray of the situation being described. Chapter Three, verses 22–23 are the climax of the book as the author realizes that with God, there is hope even in the most devastating human circumstances. Lamentations can be outlined as follows:

Mourning over Jerusalem's Destruction (1:1–22)
God's Judgment on Jerusalem (2:1–22)
Hope in the Midst of Suffering (3:1–66)
The Degradation of Jerusalem (4:1–22)
Prayer for Restoration with God (5:1–22)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH LAMENTATIONS

As you read this book, it will be clear that God's people are not exempt from God's exacting judgment should they sin against Him. Readers cannot miss the anguish wrought by God's judgment and wrath. Yet, in the midst of the lament for the suffering of God's people, you should also detect seeds of hope. For the story of Lamentations is that God cares. He is deeply concerned about His relationship with His people, and He will go to great lengths to bring them back when they wander from Him.

Jerusalem in Affliction

HOW lonely sits the city
That was full of people!
[a]How like a widow is she,
Who was great among the nations!
The [b]princess among the provinces
Has become a [1]slave!

2 She [a]weeps bitterly in the [b]night,
Her tears are on her cheeks;
Among all her lovers
She has none to comfort her.
All her friends have dealt treacherously with her;
They have become her enemies.

WORD*Study* WEEP

Lam. 1:2 This word is from the Hebrew bakah. It describes strong emotion, either mourning or rejoicing. For example, it described the wailing that mourners offered for their dead (2 Sam. 1:12). It also reflected concern for imminent doom (Jer. 9:1). Throughout Lamentations, the author weeps over the sin of his people and God's resultant judgment.

3 [a]Judah has gone into captivity,
Under affliction and hard servitude;
[b]She dwells among the [1]nations,
She finds no [c]rest;
All her persecutors overtake her in dire straits.

4 The roads to Zion mourn
Because no one comes to the [1]set feasts.
All her gates are [a]desolate;
Her priests sigh,
Her virgins are afflicted,
And she is in bitterness.

5 Her adversaries [a]have become [1]the master,
Her enemies prosper;
For the LORD has afflicted her
[b]Because of the multitude of her transgressions.
Her [c]children have gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zion
All her splendor has departed.
Her princes have become like deer
That find no pasture,
That [1]flee without strength
Before the pursuer.

Enemies Prosper

One way God gains our attention is by removing His protection from us. If everything seems to be going against us and we experience continual defeat, we must consider whether we are experiencing the consequences of our sin. It is futile to ask for God's protection when we should be pleading for His forgiveness.

7 In the days of her affliction and roaming,
Jerusalem [a]remembers all her pleasant things
That she had in the days of old.
When her people fell into the hand of the enemy,
With no one to help her,
The adversaries saw her
And mocked at her [1]downfall.

8 [a]Jerusalem has sinned gravely,
Therefore she has become [1]vile.
All who honored her despise her
Because [b]they have seen her
nakedness;
Yes, she sighs and turns away.

9 Her uncleanness is in her skirts;
She [a]did not consider her destiny;
Therefore her collapse was awesome;
She had no comforter.
"O LORD, behold my affliction,
For the enemy is exalted!"

10 The adversary has spread his hand
Over all her [1]pleasant things;
For she has seen [a]the nations enter her [2]sanctuary,
Those whom You commanded
[b]Not to enter Your assembly.

11 All her people sigh,
[a]They [1]seek bread;
They have given their [2]valuables for food to restore life.
"See, O LORD, and consider,
For I am scorned."

12 "Is it nothing to you, all you who

Behold and see
[a]If there is any sorrow like my sorrow,
Which has been brought on me,

1:1 In scripture, widowhood often represents despair and hopelessness (Deut. 24:19–21; 1 Kin. 17:9–24; Is. 10:2, 47:8, 54:4, 5; Ezek. 22:7).

1:6 "Her princes have become like deer" may refer to King Zedekiah who fled Jerusalem along with his nobles in a desperate and futile attempt to escape the wrath of the conquering Babylonians (2 Kin. 25:4; Jer. 52:7–11).

1:10 "Entering her sanctuary" probably refers to the Babylonians entering the temple and looting it of its treasures before tearing it down (Jer. 52:12–23). To a normal Israelite who could not enter the holy place himself, such an abomination by pagan enemies was incomprehensible.

Which the LORD has inflicted
In the day of His fierce anger.

13 "From above He has sent fire into my bones,
And it overpowered them;
He has [a]spread a net for my feet
And turned me back;
He has made me desolate
And faint all the day.

14 "The[a] yoke of my transgressions was [1]bound;
They were woven together by His hands,
And thrust upon my neck.
He made my strength fail;
The Lord delivered me into the hands of those whom I am not able to withstand.

15 "The Lord has trampled underfoot all my mighty men in my midst;
He has called an assembly against me
To crush my young men;
[a]The Lord trampled as in a winepress
The virgin daughter of Judah.

16 "For these things I weep;
My eye, [a]my eye overflows with water;
Because the comforter, who should restore my life,
Is far from me.
My children are desolate
Because the enemy prevailed."

17 [a]Zion [1]spreads out her hands,
But no one comforts her;
The LORD has commanded concerning Jacob
That those [b]around him become his adversaries;
Jerusalem has become an unclean thing among them.

18 "The LORD is [a]righteous,
For I [b]rebelled against His [1]commandment.
Hear now, all peoples,
And behold my sorrow;
My virgins and my young men
Have gone into captivity.

19 "I called for my lovers,
But they deceived me;
My priests and my elders
Breathed their last in the city,
While they sought food
To restore their life.

20 "See, O LORD, that I am in distress;
My [a]soul[1] is troubled;
My heart is overturned within me,
For I have been very rebellious.
[b]Outside the sword bereaves,
At home it is like death.

21 "They have heard that I sigh,
But no one comforts me.
All my enemies have heard of my trouble;
They are [a]glad that You have done it.
Bring on [b]the day You have [1]announced,
That they may become like me.

22 "Let[a] all their wickedness come before You,
And do to them as You have done to me
For all my transgressions;
For my sighs are many,
And my heart is faint."

God's Anger with Jerusalem

2 How the Lord has covered the daughter of Zion
With a [a]cloud in His anger!
[b]He cast down from heaven to the earth
[c]The beauty of Israel,
And did not remember [d]His footstool
In the day of His anger.

2 The Lord has swallowed up and has [a]not pitied
All the dwelling places of Jacob.
He has thrown down in His wrath
The strongholds of the daughter of Judah;
He has brought them down to the ground;
[b]He has profaned the kingdom and its princes.

3 He has cut off in fierce anger
Every [1]horn of Israel;
[a]He has drawn back His right hand
From before the enemy.
[b]He has blazed against Jacob like a flaming fire
Devouring all around.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Lam. 1:18

The Lord Is Righteous

God will remain righteous regardless of what we choose to do. He will not be passive toward our sin. To maintain His righteousness, He must punish our rebellion.

1:15 A winepress is used in scripture as a symbol of God's wrath (Is. 63:3; Rev. 14:19; 19:15).

2:3 A horn symbolizes strength and pride (1 Sam. 2:10; Ps. 132:17; Jer. 48:25). Fire is often a symbol of judgment (Ps. 11:6; Is. 29:6; Amos 2:4, 5; 7:4; Zeph. 3:8; Matt. 18:8; Rev. 20:10).

4 [a]Standing like an enemy, He has bent His bow;
With His right hand, like an adversary,
He has slain [b]all who were pleasing to His eye;
On the tent of the daughter of Zion,
He has poured out His fury like fire.

5 [a]The Lord was like an enemy.
He has swallowed up Israel,
He has swallowed up all her palaces;
[b]He has destroyed her strongholds,
And has increased mourning and lamentation
In the daughter of Judah.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Lam. 2:5

Strongholds

When God chooses to punish our sin, no stronghold can withstand Him. Security, wealth, friends or position—none of these can shield us from God's discipline.

6 He has done violence [a]to His
[1]tabernacle,
[b]As if it were a garden;
He has destroyed His place of assembly;
The LORD has caused
The appointed feasts and Sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion.
In His burning indignation He has [c]spurned the king and the priest.

7 The Lord has spurned His altar,
He has [a]abandoned His sanctuary;
He has [1]given up the walls of her palaces
Into the hand of the enemy.
[b]They have made a noise in the house of the LORD
As on the day of a set feast.

8 The LORD has [1]purposed to destroy
The [a]wall of the daughter of Zion.
[b]He has stretched out a line;
He has not withdrawn His hand from destroying;
Therefore He has caused the rampart and wall to lament;
They languished together.

9 Her gates have sunk into the ground;
He has destroyed and [a]broken her
bars.
[b]Her king and her princes are among the [1]nations;
[c]The Law is no more,
And her [d]prophets find no [2]vision
from the LORD.

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion
[a]Sit on the ground and keep silence;
[1]They [b]throw dust on their heads
And [c]gird themselves with sackcloth.
The virgins of Jerusalem
Bow their heads to the ground.

11 [a]My eyes fail with tears,
My [1]heart is troubled;
[b]My [2]bile is poured on the ground
Because of the destruction of the daughter of my people,
Because [c]the children and the infants
Faint in the streets of the city.

12 They say to their mothers,
"Where is grain and wine?"
As they swoon like the wounded
In the streets of the city,
As their life is poured out
In their mothers' bosom.

13 How shall I [a]console[1] you?
To what shall I liken you,
O daughter of Jerusalem?
What shall I compare with you, that
I may comfort you,
O virgin daughter of Zion?
For your ruin is spread wide as the sea;
Who can heal you?

14 Your [a]prophets have seen for you
False and deceptive visions;
They have not [b]uncovered your iniquity,
To bring back your captives,
But have envisioned for you false
[c]prophecies and delusions.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Lam. 2:14

False Prophets

False prophets abound. They seek to give you their advice and their convictions but they do not have a word from God. Their counsel is worthless and dangerous, and it ought to be avoided.

15 All who [1]pass by [a]clap their hands at you;
They hiss [b]and shake their heads
At the daughter of Jerusalem:

4 [a]Is. 63:10 [b]Ezek. 24:25
5 [a]Jer. 30:14 [b]Jer. 52:13
6 [a]Ps. 80:12; 89:40 [b]Is. 1:8 [c]Is. 43:28 [1]Lit. booth

15 [a]Ezek. 25:6 [b]Ps. 44:14 [1]Lit. pass by this way

2:11 "Bile" is literally "liver."

2:14 False prophets were frequently blamed for the misfortune of God's people (Jer. 14:13–16; 23:13; Ezek. 12:24; 13:3–23; Mic. 3:6; 2 Pet. 2:17–19).

2:17 God had warned His people that if they forsook Him, He would punish them (Deut. 28:15, 16).

"Is this the city that is called [c]'The perfection of beauty,
The joy of the whole earth'?"

16 [a]All your enemies have opened their mouth against you;
They hiss and gnash their teeth.
They say, [b]"We have swallowed her up!
Surely this is the [c]day we have waited for;
We have found it, [d]we have seen it!"

17 The LORD has done what He [a]purposed;
He has fulfilled His word
Which He commanded in days of old.
He has thrown down and has not pitied,
And He has caused an enemy to [b]rejoice over you;
He has exalted the [1]horn of your adversaries.

18 Their heart cried out to the Lord,
"O wall of the daughter of Zion,
[a]Let tears run down like a river day and night;
Give yourself no relief;
Give [1]your eyes no rest.

19 "Arise, [a]cry out in the night,
At the beginning of the watches;
[b]Pour out your heart like water before the face of the Lord.
Lift your hands toward Him
For the life of your young children,
Who faint from hunger [c]at the head of every street."

20 "See, O LORD, and consider!
To whom have You done this?
[a]Should the women eat their offspring,
The children [1]they have cuddled?
Should the priest and prophet be slain
In the sanctuary of the Lord?

21 "Young[a] and old lie
On the ground in the streets;
My virgins and my young men
Have fallen by the [b]sword;
You have slain them in the day of Your anger,
You have slaughtered and not pitied.

22 "You have invited as to a feast day
[a]The terrors that surround me.
In the day of the LORD's anger
There was no refugee or survivor.
[b]Those whom I have borne and brought up
My enemies have [c]destroyed."

The Prophet's Anguish and Hope

3 I am the man who has seen affliction by the rod of His wrath.
2 He has led me and made me walk
In darkness and not in light.
3 Surely He has turned His hand against me
Time and time again throughout the day.

4 He has aged [a]my flesh and my skin,
And [b]broken my bones.
5 He has besieged me
And surrounded me with bitterness and [1]woe.
6 [a]He has set me in dark places
Like the dead of long ago.

7 [a]He has hedged me in so that I cannot get out;
He has made my chain heavy.
8 Even [a]when I cry and shout,
He shuts out my prayer.
9 He has blocked my ways with hewn stone;
He has made my paths crooked.

10 [a]He has been to me a bear lying in wait,
Like a lion in [1]ambush.
11 He has turned aside my ways and [a]torn me in pieces;
He has made me desolate.
12 He has bent His bow
And [a]set me up as a target for the arrow.

13 He has caused [a]the [1]arrows of His quiver
To pierce my [2]loins.
14 I have become the [a]ridicule of all my people—
[b]Their taunting song all the day.
15 [a]He has filled me with bitterness,
He has made me drink wormwood.

16 He has also broken my teeth [a]with gravel,
And [1]covered me with ashes.
17 You have moved my soul far from peace;
I have forgotten [1]prosperity.
18 [a]And I said, "My strength and my hope
Have perished from the LORD."

19 Remember my affliction and roaming,
[a]The wormwood and the [1]gall.
20 My soul still remembers
And [1]sinks within me.
21 This I recall to my mind,
Therefore I have [a]hope.

22 [a]Through the LORD's mercies we are not consumed,
Because His compassions [b]fail not.

WORD Study — COMPASSION

Lam. 3:22 From the Hebrew racham, this word is related to the word for a womb. It refers to a mother's protective love for a helpless child. It is expressed in acts of selfless service for a weaker person.

ENCOUNTER Note — Lam. 3:23

Every Morning

Every day God expresses His love for us in fresh and personal ways. We ought to watch daily to see how God uniquely demonstrates His love and compassion for us.

23 They are new [a]every morning;
Great is Your faithfulness.
24 "The LORD is my [a]portion," says my soul,
"Therefore I [b]hope in Him!"

25 The LORD is good to those who [a]wait for Him,
To the soul who seeks Him.
26 It is good that one should [a]hope
[b]and wait quietly
For the salvation of the LORD.
27 [a]It is good for a man to bear
The yoke in his youth.

28 [a]Let him sit alone and keep silent,
Because God has laid it on him;
29 [a]Let him put his mouth in the dust—
There may yet be hope.
30 [a]Let him give his cheek to the one who strikes him,
And be full of reproach.

31 [a]For the Lord will not cast off forever.
32 Though He causes grief,
Yet He will show compassion
According to the multitude of His mercies.
33 For [a]He does not afflict [1]willingly,
Nor grieve the children of men.

34 To crush under one's feet
All the prisoners of the earth,
35 To turn aside the justice due a man
Before the face of the Most High,
36 Or subvert a man in his cause—
[a]The Lord does not approve.

37 Who is he [a]who speaks and it comes to pass,
When the Lord has not commanded it?
38 Is it not from the mouth of the Most High
That [a]woe and well-being proceed?
39 [a]Why should a living man [1]complain,
[b]A man for the punishment of his sins?

40 Let us search out and examine our ways,
And turn back to the LORD;
41 [a]Let us lift our hearts and hands
To God in heaven.
42 [a]We have transgressed and rebelled;
You have not pardoned.

43 You have covered Yourself with anger
And pursued us;
You have slain and not pitied.
44 You have covered Yourself with a cloud,
That prayer should not pass through.
45 You have made us an [a]offscouring and refuse
In the midst of the peoples.

46 [a]All our enemies
Have opened their mouths against us.
47 [a]Fear and a snare have come upon us,
[b]Desolation and destruction.

THOMAS OBEDIAH CHISHOLM

Lam. 3:23

Thomas Chisholm (1866–1960) suffered most of his life from poor health. After he became a Methodist minister, his ailments forced him to resign after serving only one year. Chisholm enjoyed writing and often submitted his poetry to Christian magazines. He never earned much from his efforts, so he obtained a modest income selling life insurance. He was reading Lamentations 3 one day when the powerful truth of God's unwavering devotion struck a deep chord within his heart. Quickly Chisholm penned a hymn that would bless countless believers for generations to follow: "Great Is Thy Faithfulness." Though he had suffered many hardships and disappointments in his life, these did not blind Chisholm to the numerous blessings God had faithfully bestowed upon him.

3:25 The Hebrew word used here for "good" is the same one used in Genesis 1:1–25 to describe God's creation.

48 [a]My eyes overflow with rivers of water
For the destruction of the daughter of my people.

49 [a]My eyes flow and do not cease,
Without interruption,
50 Till the LORD from heaven
[a]Looks down and sees.
51 My eyes bring suffering to my soul
Because of all the daughters of my city.

52 My enemies [a]without cause
Hunted me down like a bird.
53 They [1]silenced my life [a]in the pit
And [b]threw [2]stones at me.
54 [a]The waters flowed over my head;
[b]I said, "I am cut off!"

55 [a]I called on Your name, O LORD,
From the lowest [b]pit.
56 [a]You have heard my voice:
"Do not hide Your ear
From my sighing, from my cry for help."
57 You [a]drew near on the day I called on You,
And said, [b]"Do not fear!"

58 O Lord, You have [a]pleaded the case for my soul;
[b]You have redeemed my life.
59 O LORD, You have seen [1]how I am wronged;
[a]Judge my case.
60 You have seen all their vengeance,
All their [a]schemes against me.

61 You have heard their reproach, O LORD,
All their schemes against me,
62 The lips of my enemies
And their whispering against me all the day.
63 Look at their [a]sitting down and their rising up;
I am their taunting song.

64 [a]Repay them, O LORD,
According to the work of their hands.
65 Give them [1]a veiled heart;
Your curse be upon them!
66 In Your anger,
Pursue and destroy them
[a]From under the heavens of the [b]LORD.

2 The precious sons of Zion,
[1]Valuable as fine gold,
How they are [2]regarded [a]as clay pots,
The work of the hands of the potter!

3 Even the jackals present their breasts
To nurse their young;
But the daughter of my people is cruel,
[a]Like ostriches in the wilderness.

4 The tongue of the infant clings
To the roof of its mouth for thirst;
[a]The young children ask for bread,
But no one breaks it for them.

5 Those who ate delicacies
Are desolate in the streets;
Those who were brought up in scarlet
[a]Embrace ash heaps.

6 The punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people
Is greater than the punishment of the [a]sin of Sodom,
Which was [b]overthrown in a moment,
With no hand to help her!

7 Her [1]Nazirites were [2]brighter than snow
And whiter than milk;
They were more ruddy in body than rubies,
Like sapphire in their [3]appearance.

8 Now their appearance is blacker than soot;
They go unrecognized in the streets;
[a]Their skin clings to their bones,
It has become as dry as wood.

9 Those slain by the sword are better off
Than those who die of hunger;
For these [a]pine away,
Stricken for lack of the fruits of the [b]field.

10 The hands of the [a]compassionate women
Have [1]cooked their [b]own children;
They became [c]food for them
In the destruction of the daughter of my people.

11 The LORD has fulfilled His fury,
[a]He has poured out His fierce anger.
[b]He kindled a fire in Zion,
And it has devoured its foundations.

12 The kings of the earth,
And all inhabitants of the world,

4:3 Jackals were wild dogs, yet they cared for their young. God's people did not show such compassion to the defenseless among them.

4:12 The people of Judah believed no enemy could conquer Jerusalem, for it was the city of God and the home of God's holy temple. The Judeans withstood the powerful Babylonian army for eighteen months until they were defeated.

Would not have believed
That the adversary and the enemy
Could [a]enter the gates of Jerusalem—

13 [a]Because of the sins of her prophets
And the iniquities of her priests,
[b]Who shed in her midst
The blood of the just.

14 They wandered blind in the streets;
[a]They have defiled themselves with blood,
[b]So that no one would touch their garments.

15 They cried out to them,
"Go away, [a]unclean!
Go away, go away,
Do not touch us!"
When they fled and wandered,
Those among the nations said,
"They shall no longer dwell here."

16 The [1]face of the LORD scattered
them;
He no longer regards them.
[a]The people do not respect the priests
Nor show favor to the elders.

17 Still [a]our eyes failed us,
Watching vainly for our help;
In our watching we watched
For a nation that could not save us.

Vainly

It is always in vain that we look to others for what only God can give. It makes no sense to place our trust in those who will only disappoint us.

18 [a]They [1]tracked our steps
So that we could not walk in our streets.
[b]Our end was near;
Our days were over,
For our end had come.

19 Our pursuers were [a]swifter
Than the eagles of the heavens.
They pursued us on the mountains
And lay in wait for us in the wilderness.

[b]Was caught in their pits,
Of whom we said, "Under his shadow
We shall live among the nations."

Turn Us Back

We are so spiritually frail that we cannot return to God unless He helps us. Only by the Holy Spirit's help can we turn from our wicked ways.

And are very angry with us!

THE BOOK OF

EZEKIEL

INTRODUCTION

This book is titled after the prophet Ezekiel whom God called to proclaim His message to Judah during its final days. There is little information concerning the prophet except that he was a priest, the son of a priest (1:3), and he was called to the prophetic ministry while a captive in the Babylonian exile. Ezekiel was taken to Babylon during the rebellion of Jehoiakim and Jehoiachin in 597 B.C. During this time of banishment, which included Jerusalem's destruction and the devastation of Judah, the people experienced great distress. To these people God announced a message of judgment and restoration through Ezekiel.

SIGNIFICANCE

Ezekiel's prophecy is addressed to the people of Judah during the darkest period of their history. The exiles were perplexed over what happened to their proud nation and why God allowed their demise. Some concluded that Babylon's gods were superior to the Lord, so they abandoned their faith (8:14, 15). Others ignored their situation and believed they would be quickly returned to Judah (Jer. 29:8–10). There were some who gave up all hope and whose lives were filled with despair. In the face of their plight, God used Ezekiel to warn the people they would face further judgment unless they repented and returned to their covenant relationship with Him. The prophet informed them of God's indignation in light of their disobedience. However, God also offered a message of hope to follow their period of discipline. There would come a time that the Lord would forgive, restore, and once again become Israel's protector.

STRUCTURE

Four distinct parts characterize the book. The first section (1:1—3:37) presents Ezekiel's call as a prophet and his appointment as a watchman for Judah's people. The second (4:1—24:27) records God's message of judgment and destruction upon Judah and Jerusalem for abandoning their covenant relationship as God's chosen people. The third part (25:1—32:32) is a prophetic announcement against the foreign nations who rejoiced in Judah's destruction, and mocked God's apparent inability to protect His people. The book closes with a message of hope and restoration for Israel (33:1—48:35).

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH EZEKIEL

The Book of Ezekiel may seem overwhelming because of its length, subject matter, and prophetic speech. However, many important and practical lessons can be gleaned from this book. Ezekiel's obedience provides a compelling example of one person's commitment to serve God. Under the triple burden of opposition, confusing circumstances, and an arduous assignment, he remained faithful to his calling. The warning for Christians is that God holds His people accountable to their covenant relationship with Him. There may be many opportunities to repent from sin; however He will not permit His people to profane His name through their sinful lifestyle. Ezekiel's message will confront you with the reality of sin's devastating power and how it tarnishes the Lord's name. You will also read of hope and restoration for those who have experienced God's judgment. God does not hold a grudge or punish unfairly. Once He has dealt with your sin, He will once again become your advocate and protector. The encouraging truth of this book is that when God restores a person from a life of sin, that restoration is complete. Being a child of God carries both great responsibility and great blessing. When God chooses to dwell among believers, He brings abundant life and joy to all who encounter Him.

Ezekiel's Vision of God

NOW it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives by [a]the River Chebar, that [b]the heavens were opened and I saw [c]visions[1] of God.
2 On the fifth day of the month, which was in the fifth year of King Jehoiachin's captivity,
3 the word of the LORD came expressly to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the [1]Chaldeans by the River Chebar; and [a]the hand of the LORD was upon him there.
4 Then I looked, and behold, [a]a whirlwind was coming [b]out of the north, a great cloud with raging fire engulfing itself; and brightness was all around it and radiating out of its midst like the color of amber, out of the midst of the fire.
5 [a]Also from within it came the likeness of four living creatures. And [b]this was their appearance: they had [c]the likeness of a man.
6 Each one had four faces, and each one had four wings.
7 Their [1]legs were straight, and the soles of their feet were like the soles of calves' feet. They sparkled [a]like the color of burnished bronze.
8 [a]The hands of a man were under their wings on their four sides; and each of the four had faces and wings.
9 Their wings touched one another. The creatures did not turn when they went, but each one went straight [a]forward.
10 As for [a]the likeness of their faces, each [b]had the face of a man; each of the four had [c]the face of a lion on the right side, [d]each of the four had the face of an ox on the left side, [e]and each of the four had the face of an eagle.
11 Thus were their faces. Their wings stretched upward; two wings of each one touched one another, and [a]two covered their bodies.
12 And [a]each one went straight forward; they went wherever the spirit wanted to go, and they did not turn when they went.
13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, [a]like the appearance of torches going back and forth among the living creatures. The fire was bright, and out of the fire went lightning.
14 And the living creatures ran back and forth, [a]in appearance like a flash of lightning.

CHARACTER Study — EZEKIEL — Ezek. 1:3

Ezekiel's name carried the meaning "God will strengthen," which was appropriate to his assignment. Ezekiel, a contemporary of the prophet Jeremiah, was called to proclaim God's judgment and restoration to the people of Judah during the Babylonian exile. He was taken to Babylon in 597 B.C. and conducted his entire ministry while in captivity. He was appointed as a "spiritual watchman" (Ezek. 3:17) for the house of Israel, and God held him accountable to warn his people of God's certain punishment upon sin.

Personal information regarding the prophet is limited. He was a priest and the son of a priest (1:3). He was married, although his wife died suddenly during the siege of Jerusalem (24:18) and there is no mention of his family life. The prophet's fate is unknown as the Bible makes no reference to Ezekiel following his prophetic ministry.

Ezekiel's ministry was marked by visions, prophecies, symbolic actions, and unpopular speeches. At times the actions he took appear to be extreme, for example, setting his face against a clay tablet (4:1, 2), lying on one side for 390 days and on the other for forty days (4:4-6), shaving off his hair (5:1–4), and his many visions of judgment. Ezekiel's behavior gave noteworthy demonstrations of God's judgment over the exilic people. Ezekiel's unique ministry bore witness to a life completely surrendered to God and committed to His purposes. The prophet's life is one of the most notable examples of a "living sacrifice" to God found in all of Scripture.

1:1 The word "saw" can be understood as physical sight, but it also may be associated with spiritual insight. It is often linked with visionary experiences recounted through the prophets' messages (1 Sam. 9:9; Is. 6:1; Zech. 1:18). The River Chebar is a branch of the Euphrates River flowing southeast from Babylon.

1:3 The phrase "the hand of the Lord" appears seven times in Ezekiel (3:14, 22; 8:1; 33:22; 37:1; 40:1). In First Kings 8:46 this phrase relates to physical empowering to run with exceptional speed. In Isaiah 8:11 it describes a divine constraint linked with the delivery of an oracle. In Jeremiah 15:17 it communicates the general antisocial consequences of being a prophet. For Ezekiel, the "hand of the Lord" pertains to the overwhelming pressure God exerted on the prophet throughout his life and ministry. The phrase, "the word of the Lord came" is used fifty times in the book, introducing a word from God.

1:10 Each of these faces carried symbolic meaning in Ezekiel's day. The lion, a symbol of royalty, was recognized for its strength and courage (Judg. 14:18; 2 Sam. 1:23; 17:10). The eagle was the swiftest and most noble of birds (Deut. 28:49; Is. 40:31; Jer. 48:40). The ox was the most valuable domestic animal (Prov 14:4); it also functioned as a symbol of fertility. The human was created in God's image (Gen. 1:28) and was given dominion over the other created things (Ps. 8:5–6).

15 Now as I looked at the living creatures, behold, [a]a wheel was on the earth beside each living creature with its four faces.
16 [a]The appearance of the wheels and their workings was [b]like the color of beryl, and all four had the same likeness. The appearance of their workings was, as it were, a wheel in the middle of a wheel.
17 When they moved, they went toward any one of four directions; they did not turn aside when they went.
18 As for their rims, they were so high they were awesome; and their rims were [a]full of eyes, all around the four of them.
19 [a]When the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them; and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up.
20 Wherever the spirit wanted to go, they went, because there the spirit went; and the wheels were lifted together with them, [a]for the spirit of the [1]living creatures was in the wheels.
21 When those went, these went; when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up together with them, for the spirit of the [1]living creatures was in the wheels.
22 [a]The likeness of the [1]firmament above the heads of the [2]living creatures was like the color of an awesome [b]crystal, stretched out [c]over their heads.
23 And under the firmament their wings spread out straight, one toward another. Each one had two which covered one side, and each one had two which covered the other side of the body.
24 [a]When they went, I heard the noise of their wings, [b]like the noise of many waters, like [c]the voice of the Almighty, a tumult like the noise of an army; and when they stood still, they let down their wings.
25 A voice came from above the firmament that was over their heads; whenever they stood, they let down their wings.
26 [a]And above the firmament over their heads was the likeness of a throne, [b]in appearance like a sapphire stone; on the likeness of the throne was a likeness with the appearance of a man high above [c]it.
27 Also from the appearance of His waist and upward [a]I saw, as it were, the color of amber with the appearance of fire all around within it; and from the appearance of His waist and downward I saw, as it were, the appearance of fire with brightness all around.
28 [a]Like the appearance of a rainbow in a cloud on a rainy day, so was the appearance of the brightness all around it. [b]This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD.

God's Majesty

Christians in the midst of adversity do not need a better understanding of their plight; they need a fresh vision of God's majesty. No matter what the crisis is, God is sovereign.

2 And He said to me, "Son of man, [a]stand on your feet, and I will speak to you."
2 Then [a]the Spirit entered me when He spoke to me, and set me on my feet; and I heard Him who spoke to me.
3 And He said to me: "Son of man, I am sending you to the children of Israel, to a rebellious nation that has [a]rebelled against Me; [b]they and their fathers have transgressed against Me to this very day.

WORD Study — REVOLT

Ezek. 2:3 "Revolt" comes from the Hebrew word pasha, often translated "transgress," which was understood as overstepping the bounds set forth in God's law or betraying a trust.

4 [a]"For they are [1]impudent and stubborn children. I am sending you to them, and you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD.'

1:26 Sapphire is a deep blue colored stone.

2:1 God used the term "son of man" ninety-three times to address the prophet, but did not call him by his proper name, Ezekiel. The expression "son of" carried the meaning "having the characteristics of," so this phrase could simply mean "member of humanity." This would serve to emphasize the prophet's frail mortality before eternal, majestic God. The call to stand up (Dan. 10:11; Acts 26:16) was an invitation to conscious participation in God's concerns and a call to be ready for action on His behalf.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ezek. 2:7

In the Face of Rejection

God's Word is God's Word, whether we accept it or reject it. In our most rebellious times, we cannot say God does not speak to us. The truth is that we simply do not want to hear Him.

8 "But you, son of man, hear what I say to you. Do not be rebellious like that rebellious house; open your mouth and [a]eat what I give you."
9 Now when I looked, there was [a]a hand stretched out to me; and behold, [b]a scroll of a book was in it.
10 Then He spread it before me; and there was writing on the inside and on the outside, and written on it were lamentations and mourning and woe.
3 Moreover He said to me, "Son of man, eat what you find; [a]eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel."
2 So I opened my mouth, and He caused me to eat that scroll.
3 And He said to me, "Son of man, feed your belly, and fill your stomach with this scroll that I give you." So I [a]ate, and it was in my mouth [b]like honey in sweetness.
4 Then He said to me: "Son of man, go to the house of Israel and speak with My words to them.
5 "For you are not sent to a people of unfamiliar speech and of hard language, but to the house of Israel,
6 "not to many people of unfamiliar speech and of hard language, whose words you cannot understand. Surely, [a]had I sent you to them, they would have listened to you.
7 "But the house of Israel will not listen to you, [a]because they will not listen to Me; [b]for all the house of Israel are [1]impudent and hard-hearted.

11 "And go, get to the captives, to the children of your people, and speak to them and tell them, [a]'Thus says the Lord GOD,' whether they hear, or whether they refuse."
12 Then [a]the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me a great thunderous voice: "Blessed is the [b]glory of the LORD from His place!"
13 I also heard the [a]noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels beside them, and a great thunderous noise.

Give Them a Warning

God chooses some of His people to exhort and alert others of His activity, sharing with them as He directs. To be called as God's messenger is a high privilege, carrying heightened accountability.

2:10 Writing on both sides of the scroll symbolized the enormity of Israel's sin and the need for extended lamentation.

3:3 When the apostle John ate the scroll of his vision (Rev. 10:8–11), it tasted like honey, but resulted in a bitter stomach. God's word is considered sweet (Ps. 19:10; 119:103), but its declaration of judgment brings a bitter experience (Jer. 2:19; 4:18).

3:6 The difficulties of cross-cultural communication did not compare to the challenges of communicating with spiritually rebellious people.

3:10 Receiving God's words was not limited to the call experience, but it depended on an ongoing relationship.

3:15 Tel Abib, meaning "hill of flood" was where many of the Jewish exiles lived in Babylon. Sitting silent for seven days reflected Ezekiel's unusual encounter with God (see Job 2:13).

same wicked man [a]shall die in his iniquity; but his blood I will require at your hand.
19 "Yet, if you warn the wicked, and he does not turn from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; [a]but you have delivered your soul.
20 "Again, when a [a]righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, and I lay a stumbling block before him, he shall die; because you did not give him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he has done shall not be remembered; but his blood I will require at your hand.
21 "Nevertheless if you warn the righteous man that the righteous should not sin, and he does not sin, he shall surely live because he took warning; also you will have delivered your soul."

25 "And you, O son of man, surely [a]they will put ropes on you and bind you with them, so that you cannot go out among them.
26 [a]"I will make your tongue cling to the roof of your mouth, so that you shall be mute and [b]not be [1]one to rebuke them, [c]for they are a rebellious house.
27 [a]"But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall say to them, [b]'Thus says the Lord GOD.' He who hears, let him hear; and he who refuses, let him refuse; for they are a rebellious house.

The Siege of Jerusalem Portrayed

4 "You also, son of man, take a clay tablet and lay it before you, and portray on it a city, Jerusalem.
2 [a]"Lay siege against it, build a [b]siege wall against it, and heap up a mound against it; set camps against it also, and place battering rams against it all around.
3 "Moreover take for yourself an iron plate, and set it as an iron wall between you and the city. Set your face against it, and it shall be [a]besieged, and you shall lay siege against it. [b]This will be a sign to the house of Israel.
4 "Lie also on your left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it. According to the number of the days that you lie on it, you shall bear their iniquity.
5 "For I have laid on you the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days; [a]so you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.
6 "And when you have completed them, lie again on your right side; then you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days. I have laid on you a day for each year.
7 "Therefore you shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem; your arm shall be uncovered, and you shall prophesy against it.
8 [a]"And surely I will [1]restrain you so that you cannot turn from one side to another till you have ended the days of your siege.
9 "Also take for yourself wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt; put them into one vessel, and make bread of them for yourself. During the number of days that you lie on your side, three hundred and ninety days, you shall eat it.
10 "And your food which you eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day; from time to time you shall eat it.
11 "You shall also drink water by measure, one-sixth of a hin; from time to time you shall drink.
12 "And you shall eat it as barley cakes; and bake it using fuel of human waste in their sight."
13 Then the LORD said, "So [a]shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, where I will drive them."
14 So I said, [a]"Ah, Lord GOD! Indeed I have never defiled myself from my youth till now; I have never eaten [b]what died of itself or was torn by beasts, nor has [c]abominable[1] flesh ever come into my mouth."

3:27 "He who hears" is the same phrase Jesus used (Mark 4:23). It indicates that although God's message is delivered, only those with hearts sensitive to God will receive it.

4:1 These symbolic actions were God's way of communicating important truths. Jeremiah (a contemporary of Ezekiel) also used symbolic actions during his ministry, including a decayed belt (Jer. 13:1–11), filled bottles (13:12–27), a broken pot (19:1–13), wearing an ox yoke (27:1–22), and buying a field (32:1–15).

4:3 Ezekiel was to set his face against the iron plate to symbolize God's resolve to bring about Jerusalem's destruction. God would not reverse His decision to destroy the people because of their sin.

4:10 The specified amount of food and water was equivalent to starvation rations during a time of siege.

4:12 Using human waste for fuel to cook food would have been an act of ritual defilement (Deut. 23:12–14).

15 Then He said to me, "See, I am giving you cow dung instead of human waste, and you shall prepare your bread over it."
16 Moreover He said to me, "Son of man, surely I will cut off the [a]supply of bread in Jerusalem; they shall [b]eat bread by weight and with anxiety, and shall [c]drink water by measure and with dread, 17 "that they may lack bread and water, and be dismayed with one another, and [a]waste away because of their iniquity.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ezek. 4:17

Blaming One Another

God's judgment is never misdirected. If you are facing consequences for your actions, do not try to deflect the blame. Admit your sin and seek forgiveness. Then restoration will come.

A Sword Against Jerusalem

5 "And you, son of man, take a sharp sword, take it as a barber's razor, [a]and pass it over your head and your beard; then take scales to weigh and divide the hair.
2 [a]"You shall burn with fire one-third in the midst of [b]the city, when [c]the days of the siege are finished; then you shall take one-third and strike around it with the sword, and one-third you shall scatter in the wind: I will draw out a sword after [d]them.
3 [a]"You shall also take a small number of them and bind them in the edge of your garment.
4 "Then take some of them again and [a]throw them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire. From there a fire will go out into all the house of Israel.
5 "Thus says the Lord GOD: 'This is Jerusalem; I have set her in the midst of the nations and the countries all around her.
6 'She has rebelled against My judgments by doing wickedness more than the nations, and against My statutes more than the countries that are all around her; for they have refused My judgments, and they have not walked in My statutes.'
7 "Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Because you have [1]multiplied disobedience more than the nations that are all around you, have not walked in My statutes [a]nor kept My judgments, [2]nor even done according to the judgments of the nations that are all around you'—
8 "therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Indeed I, even I, am against you and will execute judgments in your midst in the sight of the nations.
9 [a]'And I will do among you what I have never done, and the like of which I will never do again, because of all your abominations.
10 'Therefore fathers [a]shall eat their sons in your midst, and sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments among you, and all of you who remain I will [b]scatter to all the winds.
11 'Therefore, as I live,' says the Lord GOD, 'surely, because you have [a]defiled My sanctuary with all your [b]detestable things and with all your abominations, therefore I will also diminish you; [c]My eye will not spare, nor will I have any pity.
12 [a]'One-third of you shall die of the pestilence, and be consumed with famine in your midst; and one-third shall fall by the sword all around you; and [b]I will scatter another third to all the winds, and I will draw out a sword after [c]them.
13 'Thus shall My anger [a]be spent, and I will [b]cause My fury to rest upon them, [c]and I will be avenged; [d]and they shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken it in My zeal, when I have spent My fury upon them.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ezek. 5:13

The Lord Avenges Himself

Sin is a rejection of God's love and an insult to His holiness. He does not ignore sin or let it continue unchecked. We must never forget that continuing in sin will ultimately bring God's severe judgment.

14 'Moreover [a]I will make you a waste and a reproach among the nations that are all around you, in the sight of all who pass by.
15 'So [1]it shall be a [a]reproach, a taunt, a [b]lesson, and an astonishment to the nations that are all around you, when I execute judgments among you in anger and in fury and in [c]furious rebukes. I, the LORD, have spoken.

9 "Then those of you who escape will [a]remember Me among the nations where they are carried captive, because [b]I was crushed by their adulterous heart which has departed from Me, and [c]by their eyes which play the harlot after their idols; [d]they will loathe themselves for the evils which they committed in all their abominations.

ENCOUNTER Note — Ezek. 6:10

God's Judgment

Judgment is not an end in itself. It is a means of bringing rebellious people to their senses. When God's children return to Him and honor Him they will enjoy the benefits of abundant life.

10 "And they shall know that I am the LORD; I have not said in vain that I would bring this calamity upon them."
11 'Thus says the Lord GOD: [a]"Pound[1] your fists and stamp your feet, and say, 'Alas, for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! [b]For they shall fall by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence.
12 'He who is far off shall die by the pestilence, he who is near shall fall by the sword, and he who remains and is besieged shall die by the famine. [a]Thus will I spend My fury upon them.
13 'Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when their slain are among their idols all around their altars, [a]on every high hill, [b]on all the mountaintops, [c]under every green tree, and under every thick oak, wherever they offered sweet incense to all their idols.
14 'So I will [a]stretch out My hand against them and make the land desolate, yes, more desolate than the wilderness toward [b]Diblah, in all their dwelling places. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.' " ' "

Judgment on Israel Is Near

7 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
2 "And you, son of man, thus says the Lord GOD to the land of Israel:

[a]'An end! The end has come upon the four corners of the land.
3 Now the end has come upon you,
And I will send My anger against you;
I will judge you [a]according to your ways,
And I will repay you for all your abominations.

6:2 The "mountains of Israel" are mentioned sixteen times in this book. The phrase is only used in one other instance in the Old Testament (Josh. 11:16, in the singular). The term referred to all of Israel, but especially the city of Jerusalem (Ezek. 33:28; 34:13, 14; 35:12; 37:22; 39:2, 4, 17). The mountains were associated with worship of the Canaanite gods on the "high places" (1 Kin. 18:1–40; Hos. 4:12–13; Amos 7:9).

6:5 The scattering of bodies at the worship sites was significant for three reasons. (1) God would not allow a proper burial for those destroyed under His wrath, which incurred a final humiliation and desecration of their bodies. (2) Contact with the dead rendered a person unclean and could also permanently contaminate a sacred site. (3) The depositing of corpses around the altars of the false gods placed the blame for their death upon the worship of these gods.

6:14 Diblah probably refers to the city of Riblah located in Hamath just south of Kadesh (2 Kin. 23:33). This was the city occupied by Nebuchadnezzar during his siege of Jerusalem in 588-586 B.C. The Babylonian king captured Zedekiah at Riblah, where Zedekiah's eyes were blinded (2 Kin. 25:5, 7; Jer. 39:6, 7; 52:8–11, 26, 27).

7:2 Ezekiel's statement "the end has come" indicated the absolute certainty of Israel's future. In God's eyes, the judgment had already happened; it was sealed, permanent, and irreversible. The "four corners" reflected the completeness of the judgment which would encompass every part of Judah.

4 [a]My eye will not spare you,
Nor will I have pity;
But I will repay your ways,
And your abominations will be in your midst;
[b]Then you shall know that I am the LORD!'

5 "Thus says the Lord GOD:

'A disaster, a singular [a]disaster;
Behold, it has come!
6 An end has come,
The end has come;
It has dawned for you;
Behold, it has come!
7 [a]Doom has come to you, you who dwell in the land;
[b]The time has come,
A day of trouble is near,
And not of rejoicing in the mountains.
8 Now upon you I will soon [a]pour out My fury,
And spend My anger upon you;
I will judge you according to your ways,
And I will repay you for all your abominations.

9 'My eye will not spare,
Nor will I have pity;
I will [1]repay you according to your ways,
And your abominations will be in your midst.
Then you shall know that I am the LORD who strikes.

10 'Behold, the day!
Behold, it has come!
[a]Doom has gone out;
The rod has blossomed,
Pride has budded.
11 [a]Violence has risen up into a rod of wickedness;
None of them shall remain,
None of their multitude,
None of [1]them;
[b]Nor shall there be wailing for them.
12 The time has come,
The day draws near.

'Let not the buyer [a]rejoice,
Nor the seller [b]mourn,
For wrath is on their whole multitude.
13 For the seller shall not return to what has been sold,
Though he may still be alive;
For the vision concerns the whole multitude,
And it shall not turn back;
No one will strengthen himself
Who lives in iniquity.

14 'They have blown the trumpet and made everyone ready,
But no one goes to battle;
For My wrath is on all their multitude.
15 [a]The sword is outside,
And the pestilence and famine within.
Whoever is in the field
Will die by the sword;
And whoever is in the city,
Famine and pestilence will devour him.

16 'Those who [a]survive will escape and be on the mountains
Like doves of the valleys,
All of them mourning,
Each for his iniquity.
17 Every [a]hand will be feeble,
And every knee will be as weak as water.
18 They will also [a]be girded with sackcloth;
Horror will cover them;
Shame will be on every face,
Baldness on all their heads.

19 'They will throw their silver into the streets,
And their gold will be like refuse;
Their [a]silver and their gold will not be able to deliver them
In the day of the wrath of the LORD;
They will not satisfy their souls,
Nor fill their stomachs,
Because it became their stumbling block of iniquity.

20 'As for the beauty of his ornaments,
He set it in majesty;
[a]But they made from it
The images of their abominations—
Their detestable things;
Therefore I have made it
Like refuse to them.
21 I will give it as [a]plunder
Into the hands of strangers,
And to the wicked of the earth as spoil;
And they shall defile it.
22 I will turn My face from them,
And they will defile My secret place;

7:13 This verse alludes to the law of the Sabbath year (Deut. 15:1, 2) and the Jubilee year (Lev. 25:1–6). In the Sabbath year all slaves were set free and in the Jubilee year all property was returned to its original owner. However, in the time of God's judgment personal possessions and freedom would be replaced with bondage and exile.

7:18 Sackcloth was traditionally worn as a sign of mourning and repentance. Made from goat or camel hair, it was coarse and uncomfortable. The sackcloth chafed the skin, serving as a continual reminder of pain and sorrow.

For robbers shall enter it and defile it.

23 'Make a chain,
For [a]the land is filled with crimes of blood,
And the city is full of violence.
24 Therefore I will bring the [a]worst of the Gentiles,
And they will possess their houses;
I will cause the pomp of the strong to cease,
And their holy places shall be [b]defiled.

They will seek peace, but there shall be none.

ENCOUNTER Note — Ezek. 7:25

Too Late

Seek the Lord's peace while it is offered. If God is warning you about your sin and calling you to return to Him, do so immediately. If you procrastinate you may seek peace, but find none.

26 [a]Disaster will come upon disaster,
And rumor will be upon rumor.
[b]Then they will seek a vision from a prophet;
But the law will perish from the priest,
And counsel from the elders.

27 'The king will mourn,
The prince will be clothed with desolation,
And the hands of the common people will tremble.
I will do to them according to their way,
And according to what they deserve I will judge them;
Then they shall know that I am the LORD!' "

Abominations in the Temple

8 And it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house with [a]the elders of Judah sitting before me, that [b]the hand of the Lord GOD fell upon me there.
2 [a]Then I looked, and there was a likeness, like the appearance of fire—from the appearance of His waist and downward, fire; and from His waist and upward, like the appearance of brightness, [b]like the color of amber.
3 He [a]stretched out the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my hair; and [b]the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven, and [c]brought me in visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the north gate of the inner court, [d]where the seat of the image of jealousy was, which [e]provokes[1] to jealousy.
4 And behold, the [a]glory of the God of Israel was there, like the vision that I [b]saw in the plain.
5 Then He said to me, "Son of man, lift your eyes now toward the north." So I lifted my eyes toward the north, and there, north of the altar gate, was this image of jealousy in the entrance.
6 Furthermore He said to me, "Son of man, do you see what they are doing, the great [a]abominations that the house of Israel commits here, to make Me go far away from My sanctuary? Now turn again, you will see greater abominations."
7 So He brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, there was a hole in the wall.
8 Then He said to me, "Son of man, dig into the wall"; and when I dug into the wall, there was a door.
9 And He said to me, "Go in, and see the wicked abominations which they are doing there."
10 So I went in and saw, and there—every [a]sort of [b]creeping thing, abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, [1]portrayed all around on the walls.
11 And there stood before them [a]seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel, and in their midst stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan. Each man had a censer in his hand, and a thick cloud of incense went up.
12 Then He said to me, "Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the room of his idols? For they say, [a]'The LORD does not see us, the LORD has forsaken the land.' "
13 And He said to me, "Turn again, and you will see greater abominations that they are doing."

7:23 The word "chain" is derived from a root word meaning "to bind" and is a direct reference to the exile of the people. The conquering nations would bind their captives in a line with a chain and lead them away.

8:3 The Israelites were forbidden to fashion an image that would distract the people from their exclusive devotion to the Lord (Deut. 4:16). The abominable image Manasseh placed in the temple was a sculptured form of Asherah (2 Kin. 21:7; 2 Chr. 33:7, 15). The reference here is to some form of idol to a foreign god which provoked the Lord's jealousy.

8:11 Jaazaniah may be identified as Josiah's secretary of state (2 Kin. 22:8–14; 2 Chr. 34:15–21; Jer. 26:24; 29:3; 36:10; 40:5, 9, 11; 41:2; 43:6). If this is the same man, his brother Ahikan was a defender of the prophet Jeremiah (Jer. 26:24). For a leader of this stature to be involved with this apostasy, the corruption of Judah must have been severe.

14 So He brought me to the door of the north gate of the LORD's house; and to my dismay, women were sitting there weeping for [1]Tammuz.
15 Then He said to me, "Have you seen this, O son of man? Turn again, you will see greater abominations than these."
16 So He brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house; and there, at the door of the temple of the LORD, [a]between the porch and the altar, [b]were about twenty-five men [c]with their backs toward the temple of the LORD and their faces toward the east, and they were worshiping [d]the sun toward the east.
17 And He said to me, "Have you seen this, O son of man? Is it a trivial thing to the house of Judah to commit the abominations which they commit here? For they have [a]filled the land with violence; then they have returned to provoke Me to anger. Indeed they put the branch to their nose.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ezek. 8:17

When Sin Becomes Commonplace

When a person continues in sin, evil takes root and develops into a lifestyle. It becomes habitual to ignore warnings. Never let sin become commonplace in your life!

18 [a]"Therefore I also will act in fury. My [b]eye will not spare nor will I have pity; and though they [c]cry in My ears with a loud voice, I will not hear them."

The Wicked Are Slain

9 Then He called out in my hearing with a loud voice, saying, "Let those who have charge over the city draw near, each with a [1]deadly weapon in his hand."
2 And suddenly six men came from the direction of the upper gate, which faces north, each with his [1]battle-ax in his hand. [a]One man among them was clothed with linen and had a writer's inkhorn [2]at his side. They went in and stood beside the bronze altar.
3 Now [a]the glory of the God of Israel had gone up from the cherub, where it had been, to the threshold of the [1]temple. And He called to the man clothed with linen, who had the writer's inkhorn at his side;
4 and the LORD said to him, "Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and put [a]a mark on the foreheads of the men [b]who sigh and cry over all the abominations that are done within it."
5 To the others He said in my [1]hearing, "Go after him through the city and [a]kill;[2] [b]do not let your eye spare, nor have any pity.
6 [a]"Utterly[1] slay old and young men, maidens and little children and women; but [b]do not come near anyone on whom is the mark; and [c]begin at My sanctuary." [d]So they began with the elders who were before the [2]temple.
7 Then He said to them, "Defile the [1]temple, and fill the courts with the slain. Go out!" And they went out and killed in the city.
8 So it was, that while they were killing them, I was left alone; and I [a]fell on my face and cried out, and said, [b]"Ah, Lord GOD! Will You destroy all the remnant of Israel in pouring out Your fury on Jerusalem?"

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ezek. 9:8

Compassion for Those in Judgment

Christians should never take delight in the suffering of others regardless of the merit of their punishment. In the face of others' distress, Christians should be marked by compassionate love, that some may be brought to repentance.

9 Then He said to me, "The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great, and [a]the land is full of bloodshed, and the city full of perversity; for they say, [b]'The LORD has forsaken the land, and [c]the LORD does not see!'
10 "And as for Me also, My [a]eye will neither spare, nor will I have pity, but [b]I will recompense their deeds on their own head."
11 Just then, the man clothed with linen, who had the inkhorn at his side, reported back and said, "I have done as You commanded me."

8:14 Tammuz was a Sumerian fertility goddess who allegedly spent part of the year in the underworld (during the dry and unproductive season). The women's crying was part of the religious worship pleading for the restoration of the goddess and in turn, the rains that would bring the new crops.

9:2 This writing kit was typically made from an animal horn (inkhorn) and consisted of a palette with a slot for pens and a hollow place for two kinds of ink (usually black and red).

9:4 God's judgment is always accompanied by His mercy. The ones who were marked by the "man clothed in linen" were spared to become a remnant of hope for future restoration.

The Glory Departs from the Temple

10 And I looked, and there in the [a]firmament[1] that was above the head of the cherubim, there appeared something like a sapphire stone, having the appearance of the likeness of a throne.
2 [a]Then He spoke to the man clothed with linen, and said, "Go in among the wheels, under the cherub, fill your hands with [b]coals of fire from among the cherubim, and [c]scatter them over the city." And he went in as I watched.
3 Now the cherubim were standing on the [1]south side of the [2]temple when the man went in, and the [a]cloud filled the inner court.
4 [a]Then the glory of the LORD went up from the cherub, and paused over the threshold of the [1]temple; and [b]the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD's [c]glory.
5 And the [a]sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard even in the outer court, like [b]the voice of Almighty God when He speaks.
6 Then it happened, when He commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, "Take fire from among the wheels, from among the cherubim," that he went in and stood beside the wheels.
7 And the cherub stretched out his hand from among the cherubim to the fire that was among the cherubim, and took some of it and put it into the hands of the man clothed with linen, who took it and went out.
8 [a]The cherubim appeared to have the form of a man's hand under their wings.
9 [a]And when I looked, there were four wheels by the cherubim, one wheel by one cherub and another wheel by each other cherub; the wheels appeared to have the color of a [b]beryl stone.
10 As for their appearance, all four looked alike—as it were, a wheel in the middle of a wheel.
11 [a]When they went, they went toward any of their four directions; they did not turn aside when they went, but followed in the direction the head was facing. They did not turn aside when they went.
12 And their whole body, with their back, their hands, their wings, and the wheels that the four had, were [a]full of eyes all around.
13 As for the wheels, they were called in my [1]hearing, "Wheel."
14 [a]Each one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, the second face the face of a man, the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.
15 And the cherubim were lifted up. This was [a]the living creature I saw by the River Chebar.
16 [a]When the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them; and when the cherubim lifted their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also did not turn from beside them.
17 [a]When [1]the cherubim stood still, the wheels stood still, and when [2]one was lifted up, [3]the other lifted itself up, for the spirit of the living creature was in them.
18 Then [a]the glory of the LORD [b]departed from the threshold of the [1]temple and stood over the cherubim.

ENCOUNTER Note Ezek. 10:18

The Glory of the Lord Departed

God will never abandon us, but by our own unchecked rebellion we can choose to sever fellowship with Him. The loss is ours.

19 And [a]the cherubim lifted their wings and mounted up from the earth in my sight. When they went out, the wheels were beside them; and they stood at the door of the [b]east gate of the LORD's house, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.
20 [a]This is the living creature I saw under the God of Israel [b]by the River Chebar, and I knew they were cherubim.
21 [a]Each one had four faces and each one four wings, and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings.
22 And [a]the likeness of their faces was the same as the faces which I had seen by the River Chebar, their appearance and their persons. [b]They each went straight forward.

10:7 The presence of God's glory demands purity and purging to produce holiness. The fire is used for both purposes in the Old Testament. A burning coal was used to purify Isaiah's mouth (Is. 6:6). Sodom and Gomorrah were destroyed by fire and brimstone (Gen. 19:24).

10:18 God's strongest judgment upon His people was to withdraw His presence. Though He still occupied the land and was aware of events in Judah, He would no longer make Himself known. His departure from the temple indicated His decision to remove Himself from the people.

4 "Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man!"
5 Then [a]the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and said to me, "Speak! 'Thus says the LORD: "Thus you have said, O house of Israel; for [b]I know the things that come into your mind.
6 [a]"You have multiplied your slain in

7 'Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ezek. 11:19, 20

A Heart of Flesh

Repeatedly disobeying God necessitates a hardening of the heart until it is impervious to the Holy Spirit's conviction. But still, God offers a heart of flesh that is soft and tender towards Him. If over time you have developed a stony heart, turn to God, repent, and receive a heart of flesh. Then you will once again seek His promises and desire His way.

21 "But as for those whose hearts follow the desire for their detestable things and their abominations, [a]I will recompense their deeds on their own heads,"
says the Lord GOD.
22 So the cherubim [a]lifted up their wings, with the wheels beside them, and the glory of the God of Israel was high above them.
23 And [a]the glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city and stood [b]on the mountain, [c]which is on the east side of the city.
24 Then [a]the Spirit took me up and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God into [1]Chaldea, to those in captivity.
And the vision that I had seen went up
from me.

11:3 This quote reflects the arrogance of the leaders who felt they had everything under control. It may indicate their need to concentrate on the city fortifications to defend against Babylon, or perhaps there was no need to build as they were confiscating the properties of those who had already been exiled. The "caldron" or "cooking pot" again reveals the smugness of the leaders. Cooking pots were used to protect choice meats from the fire. This reference suggests the cooking pot was Jerusalem and its fortifications, while the choice meats were the new leaders of the city.

11:5 The Lord knows our thoughts and our attitudes. He is aware of what is going on in our minds and hearts even when we do not understand it ourselves (Ps. 139:1–6; Dan. 2:30; Acts 1:24).

11:13 The prophet's strong emotional reaction may be understood in light of the name Pelatiah, which means "the Lord has delivered." Pelatiah symbolized the hope of Jerusalem, and by his death Ezekiel may have concluded that God would not leave any remnant.

25 So I spoke to those in captivity of all the things the LORD had shown me.

Judah's Captivity Portrayed

12 Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying:
2 "Son of man, you dwell in the midst of [a]a rebellious house, which [b]has eyes to see but does not see, and ears to hear but does not hear; [c]for they are a rebellious house.
3 "Therefore, son of man, prepare your belongings for captivity, and go into captivity by day in their sight. You shall go from your place into captivity to another place in their sight. It may be that they will consider, though they are a rebellious house.
4 "By day you shall bring out your belongings in their sight, as though going into captivity; and at evening you shall go in their sight, like those who go into captivity.
5 "Dig through the wall in their sight, and carry your belongings out through it.
6 "In their sight you shall bear them on your shoulders and carry them out at twilight; you shall cover your face, so that you cannot see the ground, [a]for I have made you a sign to the house of Israel."
7 So I did as I was commanded. I brought out my belongings by day, as though going into captivity, and at evening I dug through the wall with my hand. I brought them out at twilight, and I bore them on my shoulder in their sight.
8 And in the morning the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
9 "Son of man, has not the house of Israel, [a]the rebellious house, said to you, [b]'What are you doing?'
10 "Say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "This [a]burden[1] concerns the prince in Jerusalem and all the house of Israel who are among them." '
11 "Say, [a]'I am a sign to you. As I have done, so shall it be done to them; [b]they shall be carried away into captivity.'
12 "And [a]the prince who is among them shall bear his belongings on his shoulder at twilight and go out. They shall dig through the wall to carry them out through it. He shall cover his face, so that he cannot see the ground with his eyes.
13 "I will also spread My [a]net over him, and he shall be caught in My snare. [b]I will bring him to Babylon, to the land of the Chaldeans; yet he shall not see it, though he shall die there.
14 [a]"I will scatter to every wind all who are around him to help him, and all his troops; and [b]I will draw out the sword after them.
15 [a]"Then they shall know that I am the LORD, when I scatter them among the nations and disperse them throughout the countries.
16 [a]"But I will spare a few of their men from the sword, from famine, and from pestilence, that they may declare all their abominations among the Gentiles wherever they go. Then they shall know that I am the LORD."

Judgment Not Postponed

17 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
18 "Son of man, [a]eat your bread with [1]quaking, and drink your water with trembling and anxiety.
19 "And say to the people of the land, 'Thus says the Lord GOD to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the land of Israel: "They shall eat their bread with anxiety, and drink their water with dread, so that her land may [a]be emptied of all who are in it, [b]because of the violence of all those who dwell in it.
20 "Then the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall become desolate; and you shall know that I am the LORD." ' "
21 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
22 "Son of man, what is this proverb that you people have about the land of Israel, which says, [a]'The days are prolonged, and every vision fails'?
23 "Tell them therefore, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "I will lay this proverb to rest, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel.' " But say to them, [a]" 'The days are at hand, and the [1]fulfillment of every vision.

12:2 The people had the ability to see and hear God's warnings. They were clearly admonished through the prophets Jeremiah and Ezekiel, but their sin desensitized them to God's words.

12:5 Digging through the wall was a common military practice during a siege. The attacking army used men called sappers to burrow under the foundations of a city wall and collapse the fortifications. Ezekiel's symbolic actions foreshadowed the destruction of the wall in which the people placed great confidence.

12:10 Zedekiah, the third son of Josiah, was the ruler of Jerusalem at the time (2 Kin. 24:15–17). Ezekiel's reference to him as a "prince" instead of a king reveals the prophet's belief that he was not David's true successor.

12:13 This statement was fulfilled when Zedekiah was blinded following Nebuchadnezzar's capture of Jerusalem. The king's eyes were put out after he witnessed his children's executions (2 Kin. 25:7).

12:22 The delay in the fulfillment of Jeremiah and Ezekiel's prophecies caused the people to reject their warnings and dismiss them. The words "and every vision fails" indicate that the people had judged these men to be false prophets based on the test of Deuteronomy 18:21, 22.

24 "For [a]no more shall there be any [b]false[1] vision or flattering divination within the house of Israel.
25 "For I am the LORD. I speak, and [a]the word which I speak will come to pass; it will no more be postponed; for in your days, O rebellious house, I will say the word and [b]perform it," says the Lord GOD.' "
26 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
27 [a]"Son of man, look, the house of Israel is saying, 'The vision that he sees is [b]for many days from now, and he prophesies of times far off.'

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ezek. 12:27

Plenty of Time

We foolishly assume we have unlimited time to heed God's warning and deal with our sin. It is a grave error to procrastinate in any spiritual matter. Now is the time to make things right with God.

28 [a]"Therefore say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "None of My words will be postponed any more, but the word which I speak [b]will be done," says the Lord GOD.' "

Woe to Foolish Prophets

13 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
2 "Son of man, prophesy [a]against the prophets of Israel who prophesy, and say to [b]those who prophesy out of their own [c]heart,[1] 'Hear the word of the LORD!' "
3 Thus says the Lord GOD: "Woe to the foolish prophets, who follow their own spirit and have seen [1]nothing!
4 "O Israel, your prophets are [a]like foxes in the deserts.
5 "You [a]have not gone up into the [1]gaps to build a wall for the house of Israel to stand in battle on the day of the LORD.
6 [a]"They have envisioned futility and false divination, saying, 'Thus says the LORD!' But the LORD has [b]not sent them; yet they hope that the word may [1]be confirmed.
7 "Have you not seen a futile vision, and have you not spoken false divination? You say, 'The LORD says,' but I have not spoken."
8 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "Because you have spoken nonsense and envisioned lies, therefore I am indeed against you," says the Lord GOD.
9 "My hand will be [a]against the prophets who envision futility and who [b]divine lies; they shall not be in the assembly of My people, [c]nor be written in the record of the house of Israel, [d]nor shall they enter into the land of Israel. [e]Then you shall know that I am the Lord GOD.
10 "Because, indeed, because they have seduced My people, saying, [a]'Peace!' when there is no peace—and one builds a wall, and they [b]plaster[1] it with untempered mortar—
11 "say to those who plaster it with untempered mortar, that it will fall. [a]There will be flooding rain, and you, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall tear it down.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ezek. 13:10, 11

Loving Counsel

There is always a temptation to speak words someone wants to hear rather than what they need to hear. When God's Spirit is convicting someone of their sin, do not let your compassion cause you to give poor counsel. The most loving thing you can do is to acknowledge the sin and help the person toward repentance.

12 "Surely, when the wall has fallen, will it not be said to you, 'Where is the mortar with which you plastered it?' "
13 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "I will cause a stormy wind to break forth in My fury; and there shall be a flooding rain in My anger, and great hailstones in fury to consume it.
14 "So I will break down the wall you have plastered with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundation will be uncovered; it will fall, and you shall be consumed in the midst of it. [a]Then you shall know that I am the LORD.
15 "Thus will I accomplish My wrath on the wall and on those who have plastered it with untempered mortar; and I will say to you, 'The wall is no more, nor those who plastered it, 16 'that is, the prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and who [a]see visions of peace for her when there is no peace,' " says the Lord GOD.

13:10 Ezekiel's analogy is similar to Jeremiah's (Jer. 6:14; 8:11). In both cases the people ignored the obvious reality. They overestimated the wall's strength and underestimated the gravity of its damage. Whitewashing the wall's serious structural problems was like trying to heal a mortal wound with a bandage.

them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Everyone of the house of Israel who sets up his idols in his heart, and puts before him what causes him to stumble into iniquity, and then comes to the prophet, I the LORD will answer him who comes,
according to the multitude of his idols, tranged from Me by their idols." '

WORD*Study* SEIZE

Ezek. 14:5 The Hebrew word taphas, meaning "seize," is applied elsewhere to the forceful apprehension of prisoners and captives (Josh. 8:23; 1 Sam. 15:8) and the conquest of cities (Deut. 20:19; Josh. 8:8).

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ezek. 14:5

The Battle over the Heart

The external concerns of life are transient and not worth the cost of compromising your allegiance to God. When you divide your loyalty between worldly and spiritual pursuits, God is rightly offended. When all is said and done, it matters not whether you were wealthy or poor, famous or anonymous. God does not want your divided attention; He wants your devotion.

6 "Therefore say to the house of Israel,
'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Repent, turn away from your idols, and [a]turn your faces away from all your abominations.
7 "For anyone of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who dwell in Israel, who separates himself from Me and sets up his idols in his heart and puts before him what causes him to stumble into iniquity, then comes to a prophet to inquire of him concerning Me, I the LORD will answer him by Myself.
8 [a]"I will set My face against that man and make him a [b]sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of My people. [c]Then you shall know that I am the LORD.
9 "And if the prophet is induced to speak anything, I the LORD [a]have induced that prophet, and I will stretch out
My hand against him and destroy him from among My people Israel.
10 "And they shall bear their iniquity;
the punishment of the prophet shall be the same as the punishment of the one who inquired,
11 "that the house of Israel may [a]no longer stray from Me, nor be profaned anymore with all their transgressions, [b]but that they may be My people and I may be their God," says the Lord GOD.' "

13:18 Babylonian texts record how people tried to control others through magic bands containing incantations attached to their arms or wrist. Ezekiel may have been referring to this practice.

14:3 These leaders had set their hearts on foreign gods, yet they still considered themselves to be God's people and they sought an understanding with God through Ezekiel. They had clearly rejected God's standards, yet they assumed they could approach Him on their own terms.

Judgment on Persistent Unfaithfulness

12 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying:
13 "Son of man, when a land sins against Me by persistent unfaithfulness, I will stretch out My hand against it; I will cut off its [a]supply of bread, send famine on it, and cut off man and beast from it.
14 [a]"Even if these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they would deliver only themselves [b]by their righteousness," says the Lord GOD.
15 "If I cause [a]wild beasts to pass through the land, and they [1]empty it, and make it so desolate that no man may pass through because of the beasts,
16 "even [a]though these three men were [1]in it, as I live," says the Lord GOD, "they would deliver neither sons nor daughters; only they would be delivered, and the land would be [b]desolate.
17 "Or if [a]I bring a sword on that land, and say, 'Sword, go through the land,' and I [b]cut off man and beast from it,
18 "even [a]though these three men were in it, as I live," says the Lord GOD, "they would deliver neither sons nor daughters, but only they themselves would be delivered.
19 "Or if I send [a]a pestilence into that land and [b]pour out My fury on it in blood, and cut off from it man and beast,
20 "even [a]though Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, as I live," says the Lord GOD, "they would deliver neither son nor daughter; they would deliver only themselves by their righteousness."
21 For thus says the Lord GOD: "How much more it shall be when [a]I send My four [1]severe judgments on Jerusalem—the sword and famine and wild beasts and pestilence—to cut off man and beast from it?
22 [a]"Yet behold, there shall be left in it a remnant who will be [b]brought out, both sons and daughters; surely they will come out to you, and [c]you will see their ways and their doings. Then you will be comforted concerning the disaster that I have brought upon Jerusalem, all that I have brought upon it.
23 "And they will comfort you, when you see their ways and their doings; and you shall know that I have done nothing [a]without cause that I have done in it," says the Lord GOD.

Justice

When God punishes the sins of His people, His actions are absolutely just. He never acts randomly or without cause. If He disciplines you, you can be certain it is deserved.

The Outcast Vine

15 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying:
2 "Son of man, how is the wood of the vine better than any other wood, the vine branch which is among the trees of the forest?
3 "Is wood taken from it to make any object? Or can men make a peg from it to hang any vessel on?
4 "Instead, [a]it is thrown into the fire for fuel; the fire devours both ends of it, and its middle is burned. Is it useful for any work?
5 "Indeed, when it was whole, no object could be made from it. How much less will it be useful for any work when the fire has devoured it, and it is burned?
6 "Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Like the wood of the vine among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so I will give up the inhabitants of Jerusalem;
7 'and [a]I will set My face against them. [b]They will go out from one fire, but another fire shall devour them. [c]Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I set My face against them.
8 'Thus I will make the land desolate, because they have persisted in unfaithfulness,' says the Lord GOD."

God's Love for Jerusalem

16 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
2 "Son of man, [a]cause Jerusalem to know her abominations,
3 "and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD to Jerusalem: "Your [1]birth [a]and your nativity are from the land of Canaan; [b]your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite.

14:23 God continues to defend his actions of judgment to Judah in Ezekiel 18:25–31.

15:2 Ezekiel uses the vine as a metaphor for Judah as Isaiah did (Is. 5:1–7). In both cases the uselessness of the vine versus a well-rooted branch or tree is the justification for its destruction. Other Old Testament references to Israel as a vine include: Gen. 49:22; Deut. 32:32; Ps. 80:8–16; Is. 5:1–7; Jer. 2:21.

15:5 If an entire branch was unfruitful, then a partial, burnt branch was even more useless. Jerusalem had been invaded twice by Babylon in 605 and 597 B.C., and in a sense had been "burned." Ezekiel was foretelling the city's destruction in 586 B.C.

16:3 Jerusalem's origins were traced back to Canaan with Amorite and Hittite ancestors. These nations represented the worst of society and stood in opposition to the traditional lineage of the pious Abraham and Sarah. The Amorites were the pagan people the Israelites had been told to eradicate (Deut. 7:1–5).

4 "As for your nativity, [a]on the day you were born your navel cord was not cut, nor were you washed in water to cleanse you; you were not rubbed with salt nor wrapped in swaddling cloths.
5 "No eye pitied you, to do any of these things for you, to have compassion on you; but you were thrown out into the open field, when you yourself were [1]loathed on the day you were born.
6 "And when I passed by you and saw you struggling in your own blood, I said to you in your blood, 'Live!' Yes, I said to you in your blood, 'Live!'
7 [a]"I made you [1]thrive like a plant in the field; and you grew, matured, and became very beautiful. Your breasts were formed, your hair grew, but you were naked and bare.
8 "When I passed by you again and looked upon you, indeed your time was the time of love; [a]so I spread [1]My wing over you and covered your nakedness. Yes, I [b]swore an oath to you and entered into a [c]covenant with you, and [d]you became Mine," says the Lord GOD.
9 "Then I washed you in water; yes, I thoroughly washed off your blood, and I anointed you with oil.
10 "I clothed you in embroidered cloth and gave you sandals of [1]badger skin; I clothed you with fine linen and covered you with silk.
11 "I adorned you with ornaments, [a]put bracelets on your wrists, [b]and a chain on your neck.
12 "And I put a [1]jewel in your nose, earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head.
13 "Thus you were adorned with gold and silver, and your clothing was of fine linen, silk, and embroidered cloth. [a]You ate pastry of fine flour, honey, and oil. You were exceedingly [b]beautiful, and succeeded to royalty.
14 [a]"Your fame went out among the nations because of your beauty, for it was perfect through My splendor which I had bestowed on you," says the Lord GOD.

Jerusalem's Harlotry

15 [a]"But you trusted in your own beauty, [b]played the harlot because of your fame, and poured out your harlotry on everyone passing by who would have it.
16 [a]"You took some of your garments and adorned multicolored [1]high places for yourself, and played the harlot on them. Such things should not happen, nor be.
17 "You have also taken your beautiful jewelry from My gold and My silver, which I had given you, and made for yourself male images and played the harlot with them.
18 "You took your embroidered garments and covered them, and you set My oil and My incense before them.
19 "Also [a]My food which I gave you—the pastry of fine flour, oil, and honey which I fed you—you set it before them as [1]sweet incense; and so it was," says the Lord GOD.
20 [a]"Moreover you took your sons and your daughters, whom you bore to Me, and these you sacrificed to them to be devoured. Were your acts of harlotry a small matter, 21 "that you have slain My children and offered them up to them by causing them to pass through the [a]fire?
22 "And in all your abominations and acts of harlotry you did not remember the days of your [a]youth, [b]when you were naked and bare, struggling in your blood.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ezek. 16:22

Remembering Former Days

When God shows His favor to us and delivers us, we tend to forget the low places from which He raised us. We should never take God's goodness for granted. Remembering our condition before salvation will foster a continual sense of thankfulness.

23 "Then it was so, after all your wickedness—'Woe, woe to you!' says the Lord GOD—24 "that [a]you also built for yourself a shrine, and [b]made a [1]high place for yourself in every street.
25 "You built your high places [a]at the head of every road, and made your beauty to be abhorred. You offered yourself to everyone who passed by, and multiplied your acts of harlotry.
26 "You also committed harlotry with [a]the Egyptians, your very fleshly neighbors, and increased your acts of harlotry to [b]provoke Me to anger.
27 "Behold, therefore, I stretched out My hand against you, diminished your [1]allotment, and gave you up to the will

16:4 This chapter is a parable about a wretched orphan girl who married the king, only to give away everything to become a harlot. It describes how Israel despised and squandered God's love and blessings.

16:8 An alternate reading of "I spread My wing" is "I spread the corner of My garment over you." This was a legal and symbolic gesture by a husband that he intended to provide for the needs of his wife. He further confirmed his intentions by taking an oath.

of those who hate you, [a]the daughters of the Philistines, who were ashamed of your lewd behavior.
28 "You also played the harlot with the [a]Assyrians, because you were insatiable; indeed you played the harlot with them and still were not satisfied.
29 "Moreover you multiplied your acts of harlotry as far as the land of the trader, [a]Chaldea; and even then you were not satisfied.
30 "How degenerate is your heart!" says the Lord GOD, "seeing you do all these things, the deeds of a brazen harlot.

Jerusalem's Adultery

31 [a]"You erected your shrine at the head of every road, and built your [1]high place in every street. Yet you were not like a harlot, because you scorned [b]payment.
32 "You are an adulterous wife, who takes strangers instead of her husband.
33 "Men make payment to all harlots, but [a]you made your payments to all your lovers, and [1]hired them to come to you from all around for your harlotry.
34 "You are the opposite of other women in your harlotry, because no one solicited you to be a harlot. In that you gave payment but no payment was given you, therefore you are the opposite."

Jerusalem's Lovers Will Abuse Her

35 'Now then, O harlot, hear the word of the LORD!
36 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because your filthiness was poured out and your nakedness uncovered in your harlotry with your lovers, and with all your abominable idols, and because of [a]the blood of your children which you gave to them,
37 "surely, therefore, [a]I will gather all your lovers with whom you took pleasure, all those you loved, and all those you hated; I will gather them from all around against you and will uncover your nakedness to them, that they may see all your nakedness.
38 "And I will judge you as [a]women who break wedlock or [b]shed blood are judged; I will bring blood upon you in fury and jealousy.
39 "I will also give you into their hand, and they shall throw down your shrines and break down [a]your [1]high places. [b]They shall also strip you of your clothes, take your beautiful jewelry, and leave you naked and bare.
40 [a]"They shall also bring up an assembly against you, [b]and they shall stone you with stones and thrust you through with their swords.
41 "They shall [a]burn your houses with fire, and [b]execute judgments on you in the sight of many women; and I will make you [c]cease playing the harlot, and you shall no longer hire lovers.
42 "So [a]I will lay to rest My fury toward you, and My jealousy shall depart from you. I will be quiet, and be angry no more.
43 "Because [a]you did not remember the days of your youth, but [1]agitated Me with all these things, surely [b]I will also recompense your [2]deeds on your own head," says the Lord GOD. "And you shall not commit lewdness in addition to all your abominations.

More Wicked than Samaria and Sodom

44 "Indeed everyone who quotes proverbs will use this proverb against you: 'Like mother, like daughter!'
45 "You are your mother's daughter, [1]loathing husband and children; and you are the [a]sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and children; [b]your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite.
46 "Your elder sister is Samaria, who dwells with her daughters to the north of you; and [a]your younger sister, who dwells to the south of you, is Sodom and her daughters.
47 "You did not walk in their ways nor act according to their abominations; but, as if that were too little, [a]you became more corrupt than they in all your ways.
48 "As I live," says the Lord GOD, "neither [a]your sister Sodom nor her daughters have done as you and your daughters have done.
49 "Look, this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: She and her daughter had pride, [a]fullness of food, and abundance of idleness; neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy.
50 "And they were haughty and [a]committed abomination before Me; therefore [b]I took them away as [1]I saw fit.
51 "Samaria did not commit [a]half of your sins; but you have multiplied your abominations more than they, and [b]have justified your sisters by all the abominations which you have done.
52 "You who judged your sisters, bear your own shame also, because the sins which you committed were more abominable than theirs; they are more righteous than you. Yes, be disgraced also,

61 "Then [a]you will remember your ways and be ashamed, when you receive your older and your younger sisters; for I will give them to you for [b]daughters, [c]but not because of My covenant with you.
62 [a]"And I will establish My covenant with you. Then you shall know that I am the LORD, 63 "that you may [a]remember and be ashamed, [b]and never open your mouth anymore because of your shame, when I provide you an atonement for all you have done," says the Lord GOD.' "

The Eagles and the Vine

17 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
2 "Son of man, pose a riddle, and speak a [a]parable to the house of Israel,
3 "and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

[a]"A great eagle with large wings and long pinions,
Full of feathers of various colors,
Came to Lebanon
And [b]took from the cedar the highest branch.
4 He cropped off its topmost young twig
And carried it to a land of trade;
He set it in a city of merchants.
5 Then he took some of the seed of the land
And planted it in [a]a fertile field;
He placed it by abundant waters
And set it [b]like a willow tree.
6 And it grew and became a spreading vine [a]of low stature;
Its branches turned toward him,
But its roots were under it.
So it became a vine,
Brought forth branches,
And put forth shoots.

7 "But there was [1]another great eagle with large wings and many feathers;
And behold, [a]this vine bent its roots toward him,
And stretched its branches toward him,
From the garden terrace where it had been planted,
That he might water it.
8 It was planted in [1]good soil by many waters,
To bring forth branches, bear fruit,
And become a majestic vine." '

9 "Say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"Will it thrive?
[a]Will he not pull up its roots,
Cut off its fruit,
And leave it to wither?
All of its spring leaves will wither,
And no great power or many people
Will be needed to pluck it up by its roots.
10 Behold, it is planted,
Will it thrive?
[a]Will it not utterly wither when the east wind touches it?
It will wither in the garden terrace where it grew." ' "

11 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
12 "Say now to [a]the rebellious house: 'Do you not know what these things mean?' Tell them, 'Indeed [b]the king of Babylon went to Jerusalem and took its king and princes, and led them with him to Babylon.
13 [a]'And he took the king's offspring, made a covenant with him, [b]and put him under oath. He also took away the mighty of the land, 17:2 The purpose of a riddle was to present an ambiguous story to challenge the hearer to search for the meaning.

14 'that the kingdom might be [a]brought low and not lift itself up, but that by keeping his covenant it might stand.
15 'But [a]he rebelled against him by sending his ambassadors to Egypt, [b]that they might give him horses and many people. [c]Will he prosper? Will he who does such things escape? Can he break a covenant and still be delivered?
16 'As I live,' says the Lord GOD, 'surely [a]in the place where the king dwells who made him king, whose oath he despised and whose covenant he broke—with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die.
17 [a]'Nor will Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company do anything in the war, [b]when they heap up a siege mound and build a [1]wall to cut off many persons.
18 'Since he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, and in fact [a]gave[1] his hand and still did all these things, he shall not escape.' "
19 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "As I live, surely My oath which he despised, and My covenant which he broke, I will recompense on his own head.
20 "I will [a]spread My net over him, and he shall be taken in My snare. I will bring him to Babylon and [b]try him there for the [1]treason which he committed against Me.
21 [a]"All his [1]fugitives with all his troops shall fall by the sword, and those who remain shall be [b]scattered to every wind; and you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken."

23 [a]"On the mountain height of Israel I will plant it; and it will bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a majestic cedar. [b]Under it will dwell birds of every sort; in the shadow of its branches they will dwell.
24 "And all the trees of the field shall know that I, the LORD, [a]have brought down the high tree and exalted the low tree, dried up the green tree and made the dry tree flourish; [b]I, the LORD, have spoken and have done it."

Exalting the Lowly

God brings down the exalted and raises up the lowly. This is a principle in His kingdom. If proud, self-serving people seem to reap undeserved blessings, do not let that distract you from humbly serving God.

A False Proverb Refuted

18 The word of the LORD came to me again, saying,
2 "What do you mean when you use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying:

'The [a]fathers have eaten sour grapes,
And the children's teeth are set on edge'?

3 "As I live," says the Lord GOD, "you shall no longer use this proverb in Israel.

4 "Behold, all souls are [a]Mine;
The soul of the father
As well as the soul of the son is Mine;
[b]The soul who sins shall die.
5 But if a man is just
And does what is lawful and right;
6 [a]If he has not eaten [1]on the mountains,
Nor lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel,
Nor [b]defiled his neighbor's wife,
Nor approached [c]a woman during her impurity;

But has restored to the debtor his [b]pledge;
Has robbed no one by violence,
But has [c]given his bread to the hungry

Nor taken any increase,
But has withdrawn his hand from iniquity

17:16 Zedekiah further dishonored God by breaking the oath of allegiance to Babylon which he invoked by the name of the Lord (2 Chr. 36:13). Zedekiah was disloyal toward Nebuchadnezzar just as he had been toward God.

18:2 This was a popular saying, meaning children suffered from the sins of past generations. God's people were wrongfully using this axiom to remove personal responsibility for their lack of holiness. Jeremiah also mentioned and dismissed this adage (Jer. 31:29). God now commanded His people to no longer use the proverb.

18:4 God extends an invitation to choose life rather than death. Many people erroneously conclude that judgment is reserved for those who do not belong to Christ. The Bible teaches that the lost are judged for sin because they reject the Savior's redemption (John 3:18; Rev. 20:11–15). Yet, the saved will also be judged according to their stewardship of their life (Rom. 14:10–12; 1 Cor. 3:11–15; 2 Cor. 5:10).

And [b]executed true [2]judgment between man and man;

And kept My judgments faithfully—
He is just;

Says the Lord GOD.

10 "If he begets a son who is a

Or [a]a shedder of blood,
Who does any of these things
11 And does none of those duties,
But has eaten [1]on the mountains
Or defiled his neighbor's wife;
12 If he has oppressed the poor and needy,
Robbed by violence,
Not restored the pledge,
Lifted his eyes to the idols,
Or [a]committed abomination;
13 If he has exacted usury
Or taken increase—
Shall he then live?
He shall not live!
If he has done any of these abominations,
He shall surely die;
[a]His blood shall be upon him.

Who sees all the sins which his father has done,
And considers but does not do
likewise;

Nor lifted his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel,
Nor defiled his neighbor's wife;
16 Has not oppressed anyone,
Nor withheld a pledge,
Nor robbed by violence,
But has given his bread to the hungry
And covered the naked with clothing;
17 Who has withdrawn his hand from
[1]the poor
And not received usury or increase,
But has executed My judgments
And walked in My statutes—
He shall not die for the iniquity of his father;
He shall surely live!

18 "As for his father,
Because he cruelly oppressed,
Robbed his brother by violence,
And did what is not good among his people,
Behold, [a]he shall die for his

Turn and Live

19 "Yet you say, 'Why [a]should the son not bear the guilt of the father?' Because the son has done what is lawful and right, and has kept all My statutes and observed them, he shall surely live.
20 [a]"The soul who sins shall die. [b]The son shall not bear the guilt of the father, nor the father bear the guilt of the son. [c]The righteousness of the righteous shall be upon himself, [d]and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon himself.
21 "But [a]if a wicked man turns from all his sins which he has committed, keeps all My statutes, and does what is lawful and right, he shall surely live; he shall not die.
22 [a]"None of the transgressions which he has committed shall be remembered against him; because of the righteousness which he has done, he shall [b]live.
23 [a]"Do I have any pleasure at all that the wicked should die?" says the Lord GOD, "and not that he should turn from his ways and live?
24 "But [a]when a righteous man turns away from his righteousness and commits iniquity, and does according to all the abominations that the wicked man does, shall he live? [b]All the righteousness which he has done shall not be remembered; because of the unfaithfulness of which he is guilty and the sin which he has committed, because of them he shall die.
25 "Yet you say, [a]'The way of the Lord is not fair.' Hear now, O house of Israel, is it not My way which is fair, and your ways which are not fair?

ENCOUNTER Note — Ezek. 18:25

Always Fair

When we look at life from our own perspective we often cry "unfair!" However, God defends His ways as right and just. If you feel God has not dealt with you properly, ask Him to show you His perspective. He will reveal His perfect actions toward you.

26 [a]"When a righteous man turns away from his righteousness, commits iniquity, and dies in it, it is because of the iniquity which he has done that he dies.
27 "Again, [a]when a wicked man turns away from the wickedness which he committed, and does what is lawful and right, he preserves himself alive.

18:20 "Soul" is used here to mean "life" or "person," and should not be confused with the concept of a soul as the spiritual part of a person. This new proverb simply means "the person who sins will be judged because of that sin" (Rom. 6:23).

28 "Because he [a]considers and turns away from all the transgressions which he committed, he shall surely live; he shall not die.
29 [a]"Yet the house of Israel says, 'The way of the Lord is not fair.' O house of Israel, is it not My ways which are fair, and your ways which are not fair?
30 [a]"Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways," says the Lord GOD. [b]"Repent, and turn from all your transgressions, so that iniquity will not be your ruin.
31 [a]"Cast away from you all the transgressions which you have committed, and get yourselves a [b]new heart and a new spirit. For why should you die, O house of Israel?
32 "For [a]I have no pleasure in the death of one who dies," says the Lord GOD. "Therefore turn and [b]live!"

Israel Degraded

19 "Moreover [a]take up a lamentation for the princes of Israel,
2 "and say:

'What is your mother? A lioness:
She lay down among the lions;
Among the young lions she nourished her cubs.
3 She brought up one of her cubs,
And [a]he became a young lion;
He learned to catch prey,
And he devoured men.
4 The nations also heard of him;
He was trapped in their pit,
And they brought him with chains to the land of [a]Egypt.

5 'When she saw that she waited, that her hope was lost,
She took [a]another of her cubs and made him a young lion.
6 [a]He roved among the lions,
And [b]became a young lion;
He learned to catch prey;
He devoured men.
7 [1]He knew their desolate places,
And laid waste their cities;
The land with its fullness was desolated
By the noise of his roaring.
8 [a]Then the nations set against him from the provinces on every side,
And spread their net over him;
[b]He was trapped in their pit.
9 [a]They put him in a cage with [1]chains,
And brought him to the king of Babylon;
They brought him in nets,
That his voice should no longer be heard on [b]the mountains of Israel.

10 'Your mother was [a]like a vine in your [1]bloodline,
Planted by the waters,
[b]Fruitful and full of branches
Because of many waters.
11 She had strong branches for scepters of rulers.
[a]She towered in stature above the thick branches,
And was seen in her height amid the [1]dense foliage.
12 But she was [a]plucked up in fury,
She was cast down to the ground,
And the [b]east wind dried her fruit.
Her strong branches were broken and withered;
The fire consumed them.
13 And now she is planted in the wilderness,
In a dry and thirsty land.
14 [a]Fire has come out from a rod of her branches
And devoured her fruit,
So that she has no strong branch—
a scepter for ruling.' "

[b]This is a lamentation, and has become a lamentation.

18:32 The Bible repeatedly emphasizes God's desire that no one should perish. If you do not know Him, repent and receive a new heart today. If you have fallen away from Christ, return quickly and ask Him to restore you.

19:1 Chapter nineteen is comprised of two funeral laments. The two poems, one for the king (1–9) and one for the people of Judah (10–14), are dirges set in the poetic meter specifically used for funerary poems.

19:3 The lion was commonly linked with Judah, especially the descendants of David (Gen. 49:9; Num. 23:24; 1 Kin. 10:19, 20; Mic. 5:8; Rev. 5:5).

19:10 Ezekiel used the vine metaphor previously (Ezek. 15:1–8; 17:5–10) to describe Judah's decline and destruction.

20:3 God will not cast His pearls before swine (Matt. 7:6). He refused to dignify their request with a revelation of Himself.

Inquiring of God

Do not assume you can receive an answer from God any time you want one. God speaks with those who meet His requirements for holiness and devotion to Him. Be careful as you seek the Lord for advice, that your heart and actions do not discourage His response.

scendants of the house of Jacob, and made Myself [b]known to them in the land of Egypt, I raised My hand in an oath to them, saying, [c]'I am the LORD your God.'
6 "On that day I raised My hand in an oath to them, [a]to bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, [b]'flowing with milk and honey,' [c]the glory of all lands.
7 "Then I said to them, 'Each of you, [a]throw away [b]the abominations which are before his eyes, and do not defile yourselves with [c]the idols of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.'
8 "But they rebelled against Me and would not [1]obey Me. They did not all cast away the abominations which were before their eyes, nor did they forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I said, 'I will [a]pour out My fury on them and fulfill My anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.'
9 [a]"But I acted for My name's sake, that it should not be profaned before the Gentiles among whom they were, in whose sight I had made Myself [b]known to them, to bring them out of the land of Egypt.
10 "Therefore I [a]made them go out of the land of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness.
11 [a]"And I gave them My statutes and [1]showed them My judgments, [b]'which, if a man does, he shall live by them.'
12 "Moreover I also gave them My [a]Sabbaths, to be a sign between them and Me, that they might know that I am the LORD who sanctifies them.
13 "Yet the house of Israel [a]rebelled against Me in the wilderness; they did not walk in My statutes; they [b]despised My judgments, [c]'which, if a man does, he shall live by them'; and they greatly [d]defiled My Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out My fury on them in the [e]wilderness, to consume them.
14 [a]"But I acted for My name's sake, that it should not be profaned before the Gentiles, in whose sight I had brought them out.
15 "So [a]I also raised My hand in an oath to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, [b]'flowing with milk and honey,' [c]the glory of all lands, 16 [a]"because they despised My judgments and did not walk in My statutes, but profaned My Sabbaths; for [b]their heart went after their idols.
17 [a]"Nevertheless My eye spared them from destruction. I did not make an end of them in the wilderness.

20:9 The reason God withheld the complete destruction of Israel was not last-minute pity, or the people's realization of their need for forgiveness; it was for God's own reputation. His relationship with Israel was not a secret. They were living among pagan nations, and God had openly demonstrated His covenant relationship with them by delivering them from Egypt. He spared them for "His own name's sake."

20:20 The sign of Israel's corporate participation in the covenant was the keeping of the Sabbath. Like circumcision, the maintaining of the Sabbath was an ongoing responsibility for each generation and served as a commemoration of God's creation.

cause of their ritual gifts, in that they caused all [1]their firstborn to pass [a]through the fire, that I might make them desolate and that they [b]might know that I am the LORD." '

27 "Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel, and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "In this too your fathers have [a]blasphemed Me, by being unfaithful to Me.

28 "When I brought them into the land concerning which I had raised My hand in an oath to give them, and [a]they saw all the high hills and all the thick trees, there they offered their sacrifices and provoked Me with their offerings. There they also sent up their [b]sweet aroma and poured out their drink offerings.

29 "Then I said to them, 'What is this [1]high place to which you go?' So its name is called [2]Bamah to this day." '

30 "Therefore say to the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Are you defiling yourselves in the manner of your [a]fathers, and committing harlotry according to their [b]abominations?

31 "For when you offer [a]your gifts and make your sons pass through the fire, you defile yourselves with all your idols, even to this day. So shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live," says the Lord GOD, "I will [b]not be inquired of by you.

32 [a]"What you have in your mind shall never be, when you say, 'We will be like the Gentiles, like the families in other countries, serving wood and stone.'

God Will Restore Israel

33 "As I live," says the Lord GOD, "surely with a mighty hand, [a]with an outstretched arm, and with fury poured out, I will rule over you.

34 "I will bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the countries where you are scattered, with a mighty hand, with an outstretched arm, and with fury poured out.

35 "And I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there [a]I will plead My case with you face to face.

36 [a]"Just as I pleaded My case with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will plead My case with you," says the Lord GOD.

37 "I will make you [a]pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the [b]covenant;

38 [a]"I will purge the rebels from among you, and those who transgress against Me; I will bring them out of the country where they dwell, but [b]they shall not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

39 "As for you, O house of Israel," thus says the Lord GOD: [a]"Go, serve every one of you his idols—and hereafter—if you will not obey Me; [b]but profane My holy name no more with your gifts and your idols.

40 "For [a]on My holy mountain, on the mountain height of Israel," says the Lord GOD, "there [b]all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, shall serve Me; there [c]I will accept them, and there I will require your offerings and the firstfruits of your [1]sacrifices, together with all your holy things.

41 "I will accept you as a [a]sweet aroma when I bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the countries where you have been scattered; and I will be hallowed in you before the Gentiles.

42 [a]"Then you shall know that I am the LORD, [b]when I bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for which I raised My hand in an oath to give to your fathers.

43 "And [a]there you shall remember your ways and all your doings with which you were defiled; and [b]you shall [1]loathe yourselves in your own sight because of all the evils that you have committed.

44 [a]"Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I have dealt with you [b]for My name's sake, not according to your wicked ways nor according to your corrupt doings, O house of Israel," says the Lord GOD.' "

Fire in the Forest

45 Furthermore the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

46 [a]"Son of man, set your face toward the south; [1]preach against the south and prophesy against the forest land, the [2]South,

47 "and say to the forest of the South, 'Hear the word of the LORD! Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, [a]I will kindle a fire in you, and it shall devour [b]every green tree and every dry tree in you; the blazing flame shall not be quenched, and all faces [c]from the south to the north shall be scorched by it.

48 "All flesh shall see that I, the LORD, have kindled it; it shall not be quenched." ' "

49 Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! They say of me, 'Does he not speak [a]parables?' "

20:39 This remarkable command to "go and serve your idols" parallels Romans 1:24, 26, 28, which describes those who continually reject God. Rather than accepting the people's halfhearted and defiled worship, God eventually gives them over to their depravity, and they suffer the consequences.

Babylon, the Sword of God

21 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
2 [a]"Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, [b]preach[1] against the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel;
3 "and say to the land of Israel, 'Thus says the LORD: "Behold, I am [a]against you, and I will draw My sword out of its sheath and cut off both [b]righteous and wicked from you.
4 "Because I will cut off both righteous and wicked from you, therefore My sword shall go out of its sheath against all flesh [a]from south to north,
5 "that all flesh may know that I, the LORD, have drawn My sword out of its sheath; it [a]shall not return anymore." '
6 [a]"Sigh therefore, son of man, with [1]a breaking heart, and sigh with bitterness before their eyes.
7 "And it shall be when they say to you, 'Why are you sighing?' that you shall answer, 'Because of the news; when it comes, every heart will melt, [a]all hands will be feeble, every spirit will faint, and all knees will be weak as water. Behold, it is coming and shall be brought to pass,' says the Lord GOD."
8 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
9 "Son of man, prophesy and say, 'Thus says the LORD!' Say:

[a]'A sword, a sword is sharpened
And also polished!
10 Sharpened to make a dreadful slaughter,
Polished to flash like lightning!
Should we then make mirth?
It despises the scepter of My son,
As it does all wood.
11 And He has given it to be polished,
That it may be handled;
This sword is sharpened, and it is polished
To be given into the hand of [a]the slayer.'

12 "Cry and wail, son of man;
For it will be against My people,
Against all the princes of Israel.
Terrors including the sword will be against My people;
Therefore [a]strike your thigh.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ezek. 21:17

The Certainty of God's Word

God's promises are certain and unchanging. His gift of life-giving forgiveness is assured, but His warnings of judgment are also absolute. The promises are there; the choice between them is ours to make.

18 The word of the LORD came to me again, saying:
19 "And son of man, appoint for yourself two ways for the sword of the king of Babylon to go; both of them shall go from the same land. Make a sign; put it at the head of the road to the city.
20 "Appoint a road for the sword to go to [a]Rabbah of the Ammonites, and to Judah, into fortified Jerusalem.
21 "For the king of Babylon stands at the parting of the road, at the fork of the two roads, to use divination: he shakes

21:2 The phrase "Son of man, set your face toward . . ." occurs nine times in the Scriptures, all in Ezekiel (6:2; 13:17; 20:46; 21:2; 25:2; 28:21; 29:2; 35:2; 38:2), and refers to God's command to the prophet to speak a word of judgment against Jerusalem.

21:3 For God to say "I will draw My sword" indicated His plan to use Babylon as His instrument to judge Judah. The Book of Habakkuk relates Judah's struggle to understand how God could use a pagan nation like Babylon to destroy His own people.

21:4 There is no contradiction between this verse and God's promise of individual accountability in chapter eighteen. Chapter eighteen addresses personal responsibility for judgment and confirms that each person bears individual guilt. However, the Bible also teaches corporate responsibility and its relationship to the effects of individual sins. Exodus 34:6, 7 and the account of Achan in Joshua 7:1-26 both illustrate this principle. At times the righteous will suffer because of the sins of others even though they did nothing wrong themselves.

22 "In his right hand is the divination for Jerusalem: to set up battering rams, to call for a slaughter, to [a]lift the voice with shouting, [b]to set battering rams against the gates, to heap up a siege mound, and to build a wall.
23 "And it will be to them like a false divination in the eyes of those who [a]have sworn oaths with them; but he will bring their iniquity to remembrance, that they may be taken.
24 "Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Because you have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your doings your sins appear—because you have come to remembrance, you shall be taken in hand.
25 'Now to you, O [a]profane, wicked prince of Israel, [b]whose day has come, whose iniquity shall end,
26 'thus says the Lord GOD:

"Remove the turban, and take off the crown;
Nothing shall remain the same.
[a]Exalt the humble, and humble the exalted.
27 [1]Overthrown, overthrown,
I will make it overthrown!
[a]It shall be no longer,
Until He comes whose right it is,
And I will give it to [b]Him." '

A Sword Against the Ammonites

28 "And you, son of man, prophesy and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD [a]concerning the Ammonites and concerning their reproach,' and say:

'A sword, a sword is drawn,
Polished for slaughter,
For consuming, for flashing—
29 While they [a]see false visions for you,
While they divine a lie to you,
To bring you on the necks of the wicked, the slain
[b]Whose day has come,
Whose iniquity shall end.

30 'Return[a] it to its sheath.
[b]I will judge you
In the place where you were created,
[c]In the land of your [1]nativity.
31 I will [a]pour out My indignation on you;
I will [b]blow against you with the fire of My wrath,
And deliver you into the hands of brutal men who are skillful to [c]destroy.
32 You shall be fuel for the fire;
Your blood shall be in the midst of the land.
[a]You shall not be remembered,
For I the LORD have spoken.' "

Sins of Jerusalem

22 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
2 "Now, son of man, [a]will you judge, will you judge [b]the bloody city? Yes, show her all her abominations!
3 "Then say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "The city sheds [a]blood in her own midst, that her time may come; and she makes idols within herself to defile herself.
4 "You have become guilty by the blood which you have [a]shed, and have defiled yourself with the idols which you have made. You have caused your days to draw near, and have come to the end of your years; [b]therefore I have made you a reproach to the nations, and a mockery to all countries.
5 "Those near and those far from you will mock you as [1]infamous and full of tumult.
6 "Look, [a]the princes of Israel: each one has used his [1]power to shed blood in you.
7 "In you they have [a]made light of father and mother; in your midst they have [b]oppressed the stranger; in you they have mistreated the [1]fatherless and the widow.
8 "You have despised My holy things and [a]profaned My Sabbaths.
9 "In you are [a]men who slander to cause bloodshed; [b]in you are those who eat on the mountains; in your midst they commit lewdness.
10 "In you men [a]uncover their fathers' nakedness; in you they violate women who are [b]set apart during their impurity.
11 "One commits abomination [a]with his neighbor's wife; [b]another lewdly defiles his daughter-in-law; and another in you violates his sister, his father's [c]daughter.
12 "In you [a]they take bribes to shed blood; [b]you take usury and increase; you have made profit from your neighbors by extortion, and [c]have forgotten Me," says the Lord GOD.
13 "Behold, therefore, I [a]beat My fists at the dishonest profit which you have made, and at the bloodshed which has been in your midst.

22:6 The indictment Ezekiel read accused the people of Judah of violating the basic elements of the holiness code in Leviticus chapters 18–20. Similar charges are found in Jeremiah 7:6–11 and Amos 2:6–12.

14 [a]"Can your heart endure, or can your hands remain strong, in the days when I shall deal with you? [b]I, the LORD, have

ENCOUNTER Note Ezek. 22:14

The Heart of Sin

At the heart of every sin is a disregard for God's will. As you become aware of various sins in your life, return to the main issue of seeking to follow God.

15 [a]"I will scatter you among the nations, disperse you throughout the countries, and [b]remove your filthiness completely from you.
16 "You shall defile yourself in the sight of the nations; then [a]you shall know that I am the LORD." ' "

Israel in the Furnace

17 The word of the LORD came to me, saying,
18 "Son of man, [a]the house of Israel has become dross to Me; they are all bronze, tin, iron, and lead, in the midst of a [b]furnace; they have become dross from silver.
19 "Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Because you have all become dross, therefore behold, I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.
20 'As men gather silver, bronze, iron, lead, and tin into the midst of a furnace, to blow fire on it, to [a]melt it; so I will gather you in My anger and in My fury, and I will leave you there and melt you.
21 'Yes, I will gather you and blow on you with the fire of My wrath, and you shall be melted in its midst.
22 'As silver is melted in the midst of a furnace, so shall you be melted in its midst; then you shall know that I, the LORD, have [a]poured out My fury on you.' "

Israel's Wicked Leaders

23 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
24 "Son of man, say to her: 'You are a land that is [a]not [1]cleansed or rained on in the day of indignation.'
25 [a]"The conspiracy of her [1]prophets in her midst is like a roaring lion tearing the prey; they [b]have devoured [2]people; [c]they have taken treasure and precious things; they have made many widows in her midst.
26 [a]"Her priests have [1]violated My law and [b]profaned My holy things; they have not [c]distinguished between the holy and unholy, nor have they made known the difference between the unclean and the clean; and they have hidden their eyes from My Sabbaths, so that I am profaned among them.
27 "Her [a]princes in her midst are like wolves tearing the prey, to shed blood, to destroy [1]people, and to get dishonest gain.
28 [a]"Her prophets plastered them with untempered mortar, [b]seeing false visions, and divining [c]lies for them, saying, 'Thus says the Lord GOD,' when the LORD had not spoken.
29 "The people of the land have used oppressions, committed robbery, and mistreated the poor and needy; and they wrongfully [a]oppress the stranger.
30 [a]"So I sought for a man among them who would [b]make a wall, and [c]stand in the gap before Me on behalf of the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found no one.

ENCOUNTER Note Ezek. 22:30

Standing in the Gap

God's plan for reaching ungodly people has not changed. He continues to look for people who will love and obey Him and take a stand for the good of others. If you find yourself surrounded by moral decay and spiritual apathy, ask God to use you to "stand in the gap" on behalf of a reckless and desperate society.

31 "Therefore I have [a]poured out My indignation on them; I have consumed them with the fire of My wrath; and I have recompensed [b]their deeds on their own heads," says the Lord GOD.

Two Harlot Sisters

23 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying:

2 "Son of man, there were [a]two women,
The daughters of one mother.

They committed harlotry in [b]their youth;

CHAPTER 23
2 [a]Ezek. 16: 44–46
3 [a]Lev. 17:7 [b]Ezek. 16:22

22:18 The smelting process separates silver from lead, copper, tin, and iron through a two-stage process. During the second stage the silver liquefies and the dross floats to the top to be removed. The prophet is saying Judah's lawless nature must be identified and eliminated. Malachi delivered a similar message that God would come as a refiner's fire to purify His people (Mal. 3:1–4).

23:2 One mother and two daughters indicated the northern and southern kingdoms of Israel.

Their breasts were there embraced,
Their virgin bosom was there pressed.
4 Their names: [1]Oholah the elder and [2]Oholibah [a]her sister;
[b]They were Mine,
And they bore sons and daughters.
As for their names,
Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem is Oholibah.

The Older Sister, Samaria

5 "Oholah played the harlot even though she was Mine;
And she lusted for her lovers, the neighboring [a]Assyrians,
6 Who were clothed in purple,
Captains and rulers,
All of them desirable young men,
Horsemen riding on horses.
7 Thus she committed her harlotry with them,
All of them choice men of Assyria;
And with all for whom she lusted,
With all their idols, she defiled herself.
8 She has never given up her harlotry brought [a]from Egypt,
For in her youth they had lain with her,
Pressed her virgin bosom,
And poured out their immorality upon her.

9 "Therefore I have delivered her
Into the hand of her lovers,
Into the hand of the [a]Assyrians,
For whom she lusted.
10 They uncovered her nakedness,
Took away her sons and daughters,
And slew her with the sword;
She became a byword among women,
For they had executed judgment on her.

The Younger Sister, Jerusalem

11 "Now [a]although her sister Oholibah saw this, [b]she became more corrupt in her lust than she, and in her harlotry more corrupt than her sister's harlotry.

12 "She lusted for the neighboring [a]Assyrians,
[b]Captains and rulers,
Clothed most gorgeously,
Horsemen riding on horses,
All of them desirable young men.
13 Then I saw that she was defiled;
Both took the same way.
14 But she increased her harlotry;
She looked at men portrayed on the wall,
Images of [a]Chaldeans portrayed in vermilion,
15 Girded with belts around their waists,
Flowing turbans on their heads,
All of them looking like captains,
In the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea,
The land of their nativity.
16 [a]As soon as her eyes saw them,
She lusted for them
And sent [b]messengers to them in Chaldea.

17 "Then the [1]Babylonians came to her, into the bed of love,
And they defiled her with their immorality;
So she was defiled by them, [a]and alienated herself from them.
18 She revealed her harlotry and uncovered her nakedness.
Then [a]I [b]alienated Myself from her,
As I had alienated Myself from her sister.

When God Leaves

One of the most tragic truths in scripture is that God must eventually remove Himself from people who persist in sinning. God's deep desire is intimate fellowship with His people. Yet His holiness demands that He withdraw from those determined to live in sin. Remember this as you live out your daily life.

19 "Yet she multiplied her harlotry
In calling to remembrance the days of her youth,
[a]When she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.
20 For she lusted for her [1]paramours,
Whose flesh is like the flesh of donkeys,
And whose issue is like the issue of horses.
21 Thus you called to remembrance the lewdness of your youth,

23:4 "Oholah" means "her tent" and may refer to worship sites such as the pagan shrines commonly found in the north. "Oholibah" means "my tent is in her" and may reflect God's selection of Jerusalem as the place for His "tent" or place of worship (2 Sam. 6:17; Ps. 48:1–14).

23:5 Israel and Judah were located on the land bridge connecting Mesopotamia and Egypt. The two small states had to maintain relations with the ruling powers of both regions. However, Israel and Judah "prostituted" themselves politically in order to secure favor and protection from the Egyptians or Assyrians.

Judgment on Jerusalem

22 "Therefore, Oholibah, thus says the Lord GOD:

[a]'Behold, I will stir up your lovers against you,
From whom you have alienated yourself,
And I will bring them against you from every side:
23 The Babylonians,
All the Chaldeans,
[a]Pekod, Shoa, Koa,
[b]All the Assyrians with them,
All of them desirable young men,
Governors and rulers,
Captains and men of renown,
All of them riding on horses.
24 And they shall come against you
With chariots, wagons, and warhorses,
With a horde of people.
They shall array against you
Buckler, shield, and helmet all around.

'I will delegate judgment to them,
And they shall judge you according to their judgments.
25 I will set My [a]jealousy against you,
And they shall deal furiously with you;
They shall remove your nose and your ears,
And your remnant shall fall by the sword;
They shall take your sons and your daughters,
And your remnant shall be devoured by fire.
26 [a]They shall also strip you of your clothes
And take away your beautiful jewelry.

27 'Thus [a]I will make you cease your lewdness and your [b]harlotry
Brought from the land of Egypt,
So that you will not lift your eyes to them,
Nor remember Egypt anymore.'

28 "For thus says the Lord GOD: 'Surely I will deliver you into the hand of [a]those you hate, into the hand of those [b]from whom you alienated yourself.
29 [a]'They will deal hatefully with you, take away all you have worked for, and [b]leave you naked and bare. The nakedness of your harlotry shall be uncovered, both your lewdness and your harlotry.
30 'I will do these things to you because you have [a]gone as a harlot after the Gentiles, because you have become defiled by their idols.
31 'You have walked in the way of your sister; therefore I will put her [a]cup in your hand.'
32 "Thus says the Lord GOD:

'You shall drink of your sister's cup,
The deep and wide one;
[a]You shall be laughed to scorn
And held in derision;
It contains much.
33 You will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow,
The cup of horror and desolation,
The cup of your sister Samaria.
34 You shall [a]drink and drain it,
You shall break its [1]shards,
And tear at your own breasts;
For I have spoken,'
Says the Lord GOD.

35 "Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

'Because you [a]have forgotten Me and [b]cast Me behind your back,
Therefore you shall bear the penalty
Of your lewdness and your harlotry.' "

Both Sisters Judged

36 The LORD also said to me: "Son of man, will you [a]judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then [b]declare to them their abominations.
37 "For they have committed adultery, and [a]blood is on their hands. They have committed adultery with their idols, and even sacrificed their sons [b]whom they bore to Me, passing them through the fire, to devour them.
38 "Moreover they have done this to Me: They have [a]defiled My sanctuary on the same day and [b]profaned My Sabbaths.
39 "For after they had slain their children for their idols, on the same day they came into My sanctuary to profane it; and indeed [a]thus they have done in the midst of My house.
40 "Furthermore you sent for men to come from afar, [a]to whom a messenger was sent; and there they came. And you [b]washed yourself for them, [c]painted your eyes, and adorned yourself with ornaments.

45 "But righteous men will [a]judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women who shed blood, because they are adulteresses, and [b]blood is on their hands.
46 "For thus says the Lord GOD: [a]'Bring up an assembly against them, give them up to trouble and plunder.
47 [a]'The assembly shall stone them with stones and [1]execute them with their swords; [b]they shall slay their sons and their daughters, and burn their houses with fire.

Symbol of the Cooking Pot

24 Again, in the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
2 "Son of man, write down the name of the day, this very day—the king of Babylon started his siege against Jerusalem [a]this very day.
3 [a]"And utter a parable to the rebellious house, and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

[b]"Put on a pot, set it on,
And also pour water into it.
4 Gather pieces of meat in it,
Every good piece,
The thigh and the shoulder.
Fill it with choice [1]cuts;
5 Take the choice of the flock.
Also pile fuel bones under it,
Make it boil well,
And let the cuts simmer in it."

6 'Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

"Woe to [a]the bloody city,
To the pot whose scum is in it,
And whose scum is not gone from it!
Bring it out piece by piece,
On which no [b]lot has fallen.
7 For her blood is in her midst;
She set it on top of a rock;
[a]She did not pour it on the ground,
To cover it with dust.
8 That it may raise up fury and take vengeance,
[a]I have set her blood on top of a rock,
That it may not be covered."

9 'Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

[a]"Woe to the bloody city!
I too will make the pyre great.
10 Heap on the wood,
Kindle the fire;
Cook the meat well,
Mix in the spices,
And let the [1]cuts be burned up.
11 "Then set the pot empty on the coals,
That it may become hot and its bronze may burn,
That [a]its filthiness may be melted in it,
That its scum may be consumed.
12 She has [1]grown weary with [2]lies,
And her great scum has not gone from her.
Let her scum be in the fire!
13 In your [a]filthiness is lewdness.
Because I have cleansed you, and you were not cleansed,
You will [b]not be cleansed of your filthiness anymore,
[c]Till I have caused My fury to rest upon you.
14 [a]I, the LORD, have spoken it;
[b]It shall come to pass, and I will do it;
I will not hold back,
[c]Nor will I spare,
Nor will I relent;
According to your ways
And according to your deeds
[1]They will judge you,"
Says the Lord GOD.' "

23:42 The Hebrew word for "Sabeans" could also be translated "drunkards." They were a nomadic people south and east of Judah whom the Judeans despised.

24:2 This prophecy was written on the day Nebuchadnezzar began his siege of Jerusalem in January 588 B.C.

24:3 This "cooking pot song" is similar to the "sword song" (Ezek. 21:8–17) and the "cup song" (23:32–34). The cooking pot represents Jerusalem; the meat represents the people living in the city. The text is meant to illustrate the ferocity of Nebuchadnezzar's attack.

24:11 Pouring the contents of the pot into the fire and burning the leftovers was an illustration declaring there was no more hope for Judah.

16 "Son of man, behold, I take away from you the desire of your eyes with one stroke; yet you shall [a]neither mourn nor weep, nor shall your tears run down.

18 So I spoke to the people in the morning, and at evening my wife died; and the next morning I did as I was commanded.
19 And the people said to me, [a]"Will you not tell us what these things signify to us, that you behave so?"
20 Then I answered them, "The word of the LORD came to me, saying,

A Living Demonstration

God often uses His servants as living demonstrations of His word. If He should choose to use your life as a witness, be faithful to the call, knowing His purpose is to glorify Himself to a watching world.

25 'And you, son of man—will it not be in the day when I take from them [a]their stronghold, their joy and their glory, the desire of their eyes, and [1]that on which they set their minds, their sons and their daughters:
26 'that on that day [a]one who escapes will come to you to let you hear it with your ears?
27 [a]'On that day your mouth will be opened to him who has escaped; you shall speak and no longer be mute. Thus you will be a sign to them, and they shall know that I am the LORD.' "

Proclamation Against Ammon

2 "Son of man, [a]set your face [b]against the Ammonites, and prophesy against them.
3 "Say to the Ammonites, 'Hear the word of the Lord GOD! Thus says the Lord GOD: [a]"Because you said, 'Aha!' against My sanctuary when it was profaned, and against the land of Israel when it was desolate, and against the house of Judah when they went into captivity,
4 "indeed, therefore, I will deliver you as a possession to the [1]men of the East, and they shall set their encampments among you and make their dwellings among you; they shall eat your fruit, and they shall drink your milk.
5 "And I will make [a]Rabbah [b]a stable for camels and Ammon a resting place for flocks. [c]Then you shall know that I am the LORD."
6 'For thus says the Lord GOD: "Because you [a]clapped your hands, stamped your feet, and [b]rejoiced in heart with all your disdain for the land of Israel,
7 "indeed, therefore, I will [a]stretch out My hand against you, and give you as plunder to the nations; I will cut you off from the peoples, and I will cause you to perish from the countries; I will destroy you, and you shall know that I am the LORD."

24:17 Typically, a man mourning his wife's death would tear his clothing (2 Sam. 3:31), remove his turban and shoes (2 Sam. 15:30), shave, and place dust and ashes on his head (1 Sam. 4:12). The mourners would also cover their faces and wail for the deceased. At times, those grieving would fast and only eat "mourners' bread" provided by friends and neighbors.

24:18 Ezekiel's wife may have been sick before God announced her death. The reasons for this suffering are not clear, as the text does not go into detail. According to the Bible, suffering accomplishes many things: it tests our faith (1 Pet. 1: 4:12, 13), it strengthens our faith (Matt. 15:28; Acts 16:5; Rom. 4:19, 20), it disciplines us (Heb. 12:7), it brings humility (Deut. 8:2, 3; 1 Cor. 12:7–9), and it purifies us (Mal. 3:3; 1 Pet. 1:7).

25:2 This word against Ammon indicates the period of judgment was over and God was beginning to act as Judah's advocate again. It appears the Ammonites not only took joy in Judah's destruction, but used the occasion to mock the Lord.

25:4 "Men of the East" refers to the Babylonians (Ezek. 21:31).

monites, that the Ammonites [b]may not be remembered among the nations.
11 "And I will execute judgments upon Moab, and they shall know that I am the LORD."

Proclamation Against Edom

12 'Thus says the Lord GOD: [a]"Because of what Edom did against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended by avenging itself on them," 13 'therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "I will also stretch out My hand against Edom, cut off man and beast from it, and make it desolate from Teman; [1]Dedan shall fall by the sword.
14 [a]"I will lay My vengeance on Edom by the hand of My people Israel, that they may do in Edom according to My anger and according to My fury; and they shall know My vengeance," says the Lord GOD.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ezek. 25:14

Forgiven and Restored

Whether or not God chooses to work through our lives is His choice. Even after we have provoked His discipline, He may decide to give us new opportunities to honor Him. If He does so, we must understand that our restoration is not a "given" but a "gift."

Proclamation Against Philistia

15 'Thus says the Lord GOD: [a]"Because [b]the Philistines dealt vengefully and took vengeance with [1]a spiteful heart, to destroy because of the [2]old hatred,"

25:12 God punished the people of Judah for their sins. However, it was sin for Edom to take delight in Judah's punishment and humiliation (Obad. 11–14).

25:15 "A spiteful heart" is literally translated "scorn in the soul" and reflects the longstanding animosity between the Philistines and the people of Israel and Judah. The Israelites and the Philistines had entered Canaan at about the same time and carried hostilities towards each other throughout their entire history.

26:3 Tyre consisted of two parts, a fortress on the coastline and a city on a small rocky island about half a mile from the shore. The people of Tyre were renowned sea traders who established colonies throughout the Mediterranean, the most notable being Carthage, in North Africa. The reference to God's wrath coming like waves of the sea was appropriate for a seafaring state.

26:15 Because of the influence of Tyrian trade in the Mediterranean, any destruction of the city and its royal family would have repercussions throughout the ancient world.

[b]your songs, and the sound of your harps shall be heard no more.
14 [a]'I will make you like the top of a rock; you shall be a place for spreading nets, and you shall never be rebuilt, for I the LORD have spoken,' says the Lord GOD.
15 "Thus says the Lord GOD to Tyre: 'Will the coastlands not [a]shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded cry, when slaughter is made in the midst of you?
16 'Then all the [a]princes of the sea will [b]come down from their thrones, lay aside their robes, and take off their embroidered garments; they will clothe themselves with trembling; [c]they will sit on the ground, [d]tremble every moment, and [e]be astonished at you.
17 'And they will take up a [a]lamentation for you, and say to you:

"How you have perished,
O one inhabited by seafaring men,
O renowned city,
Who was [b]strong at sea,
She and her inhabitants,
Who caused their terror to be on all her inhabitants!
18 Now [a]the coastlands tremble on the day of your fall;
Yes, the coastlands by the sea are troubled at your departure." '

19 "For thus says the Lord GOD: 'When I make you a desolate city, like cities that are not inhabited, when I bring the deep upon you, and great waters cover you,
20 'then I will bring you down [a]with those who descend into the Pit, to the people of old, and I will make you dwell in the lowest part of the earth, in places desolate from antiquity, with those who go down to the Pit, so that you may never be inhabited; and I shall establish glory [b]in the land of the living.

2 "Now, son of man, [a]take up a lamentation for Tyre,
3 "and say to Tyre, [a]'You who [1]are situated at the entrance of the sea, [b]merchant of the peoples on many coastlands, thus says the Lord GOD:

"O Tyre, you have said,
[c]'I am perfect in beauty.'
4 Your borders are in the midst of the seas.
Your builders have perfected your beauty.
5 They [1]made all your planks of fir trees from [a]Senir;
They took a cedar from Lebanon to make you a mast.
6 Of [a]oaks from Bashan they made your oars;
The company of Ashurites have inlaid your planks
With ivory from [b]the coasts of [1]Cyprus.
7 Fine embroidered linen from Egypt was what you spread for your sail;
Blue and purple from the coasts of Elishah was what covered you.

8 "Inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your oarsmen;
Your wise men, O Tyre, were in you;
They became your pilots.
9 Elders of [a]Gebal and its wise men
Were in you to caulk your seams;
All the ships of the sea
And their oarsmen were in you
To market your merchandise.

10 "Those from Persia, [1]Lydia, and [2]Libya
Were in your army as men of war;
They hung shield and helmet in you;
They gave splendor to you.
11 Men of Arvad with your army were on your walls all around,
And the men of Gammad were in your towers;
They hung their shields on your walls all around;
They made [a]your beauty perfect.

12 [a]"Tarshish was your merchant because of your many luxury goods. They gave you silver, iron, tin, and lead for your goods.

27:3 Tyre had two harbors, a natural one on the north side of the island and a constructed one on the south, giving it the reputation of "the entrance to the sea." The phrase "perfect in beauty" was the same phrase the people in Jerusalem used to describe their city when their pride led to its destruction (Lam. 2:15).

27:5 Senir is an Amorite name for Mount Hermon or another peak in its range.

27:8 These were also Phoenician cities like Tyre. Arvad was situated about 110 miles to the north, while Sidon was located 25 miles to the north.

27:9 Gebal was a Phoenician port located between Sidon and Arvad.

27:10 The listing of Persia, Lydia, and Libya represented peoples from the outermost parts of the known world. Persia was located in western Iran, Lydia in central Turkey, and Libya may refer to the region west of Egypt.

27:12 Tarshish was probably located in Spain.

13 [a]"Javan, Tubal, and Meshech were your traders. They bartered [b]human lives and vessels of bronze for your merchandise.
14 "Those from the house of [a]Togarmah traded for your wares with horses, steeds, and mules.
15 "The men of [a]Dedan were your traders; many isles were the market of your hand. They brought you ivory tusks and ebony as payment.
16 "Syria was your merchant because of the abundance of goods you made. They gave you for your wares emeralds, purple, embroidery, fine linen, corals, and rubies.
17 "Judah and the land of Israel were your traders. They traded for your merchandise wheat of [a]Minnith, millet, honey, oil, and [b]balm.
18 "Damascus was your merchant because of the abundance of goods you made, because of your many luxury items, with the wine of Helbon and with white wool.
19 "Dan and Javan paid for your wares, [1]traversing back and forth. Wrought iron, cassia, and cane were among your merchandise.
20 [a]"Dedan was your merchant in saddlecloths for riding.
21 "Arabia and all the princes of [a]Kedar were your regular merchants. They traded with you in lambs, rams, and goats.
22 "The merchants of [a]Sheba and Raamah were your merchants. They traded for your wares the choicest spices, all kinds of precious stones, and gold.
23 [a]"Haran, Canneh, Eden, the merchants of [b]Sheba, Assyria, and Chilmad were your merchants.
24 "These were your merchants in choice items—in purple clothes, in embroidered garments, in chests of multicolored apparel, in sturdy woven cords, which were in your marketplace.

25 "The [a]ships of Tarshish were carriers of your merchandise.
You were filled and very glorious
[b]in the midst of the seas.
26 Your oarsmen brought you into many waters,
But [a]the east wind broke you in the midst of the seas.

27 "Your [a]riches, wares, and merchandise,
Your mariners and pilots,
Your caulkers and merchandisers,
All your men of war who are in you,
And the entire company which is in
your midst,
Will fall into the midst of the seas on the day of your ruin.
28 The [a]common-land[1] will shake at the sound of the cry of your pilots.

29 "All [a]who handle the oar,
The mariners,
All the pilots of the sea
Will come down from their ships and stand on the [1]shore.
30 They will make their voice heard because of you;
They will cry bitterly and [a]cast dust
on their heads;
They [b]will roll about in ashes;
31 They will [a]shave themselves completely bald because of you,
Gird themselves with sackcloth,
And weep for you
With bitterness of heart and bitter wailing.
32 In their wailing for you
They will [a]take up a lamentation,
And lament for you:
[b]'What city is like Tyre,
Destroyed in the midst of the sea?

Trusting in the Wrong Side

So often it appears as if those who oppose God and His people have all the power. However, putting your trust in anything other than God will bring disappointment and loss.

33 'When[a] your wares went out by sea,
You satisfied many people;
You enriched the kings of the earth
With your many luxury goods and your merchandise.
34 But [a]you are broken by the seas in the depths of the waters;
[b]Your merchandise and the entire company will fall in your midst.
35 [a]All the inhabitants of the isles will be astonished at you;
Their kings will be greatly afraid,
And their countenance will be troubled.
36 The merchants among the peoples
[a]will hiss at you;

Proclamation Against the King of Tyre

28 The word of the LORD came to me again, saying,
2 "Son of man, say to the prince of Tyre,
'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"Because your heart is [a]lifted[1] up,
And [b]you say, 'I am a god,
I sit in the seat of gods,
[c]In the midst of the seas,'
[d]Yet you are a man, and not a god,
Though you set your heart as the heart of a god

ENCOUNTER Note Ezek. 28:2

Only Human

No matter how successful or famous people become, God will continue to remind us that the greatest human is still a weak mortal in His sight. Every good thing comes from God. Until we settle that truth, we set ourselves up for catastrophe.

3 (Behold, [a]you are wiser than Daniel!
There is no secret that can be hidden from you!
4 With your wisdom and your understanding
You have gained [a]riches for yourself,
And gathered gold and silver into your treasuries;
5 [a]By your great wisdom in trade you have increased your riches,
And your heart is lifted up because of your riches),"

6 'Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

"Because you have set your heart as
the heart of a god,
7 Behold, therefore, I will bring
[a]strangers against you,
[b]The most terrible of the nations;
And they shall draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom,
And defile your splendor.

And you shall die the death of the slain

Lamentation for the King of Tyre

11 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
12 "Son of man, [a]take up a lamentation for the king of Tyre, and say to him,
'Thus says the Lord GOD:

[b]"You were the seal of perfection,
Full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.
13 You were in [a]Eden, the garden of
God;
Every precious stone was your covering:
The sardius, topaz, and diamond,
Beryl, onyx, and jasper,
Sapphire, turquoise, and emerald with gold.
The workmanship of [b]your timbrels and pipes
Was prepared for you on the day
you were created.

14 "You were the anointed [a]cherub who covers;
I established you;
You were on [b]the holy mountain of
God;
You walked back and forth in the midst of fiery stones.
15 You were perfect in your ways from the day you were created,
Till [a]iniquity was found in you.

16 "By the abundance of your trading
You became filled with violence within,
And you sinned;
Therefore I cast you as a profane thing
Out of the mountain of God;
And I destroyed you, [a]O covering cherub,
From the midst of the fiery stones.

of your beauty;
You corrupted your wisdom for the sake of your splendor;

28:2 A nation's character reflected its leader's character. In this account, the king's arrogance was reproduced in the people's prideful attitude. The king of Tyre acted as if he were a god. The reference to his heart refers to his mind and will.

28:4 The king was an astute businessman and he was proud of his financial success. However, just as God had warned the Israelites not to forget who deserved the praise for their success (Deut. 8:17, 18), the leaders of Tyre were also sealing their own doom by their arrogance.

I cast you to the ground,
I laid you before kings,
That they might gaze at you.

18 "You defiled your sanctuaries
By the multitude of your iniquities,
By the iniquity of your trading;
Therefore I brought fire from your midst;
It devoured you,
And I turned you to ashes upon the earth
In the sight of all who saw you.
19 All who knew you among the peoples are astonished at you;
[a]You have become a horror,
And shall be no [b]more forever." ' "

Proclamation Against Sidon

20 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
21 "Son of man, [a]set your face [b]toward Sidon, and prophesy against her,
22 "and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

[a]"Behold, I am against you, O Sidon;
I will be glorified in your midst;
And [b]they shall know that I am the LORD,
When I execute judgments in her
and am [c]hallowed in her.
23 [a]For I will send pestilence upon her,
And blood in her streets;
The wounded shall be judged in her midst
By the sword against her on every side;
Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

24 "And there shall no longer be a pricking brier or [a]a painful thorn for the house of Israel from among all who are around them, who [b]despise them. Then they shall know that I am the Lord GOD."

Israel's Future Blessing

25 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "When I have [a]gathered the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and am [b]hallowed in them in the sight of the Gentiles, then they will dwell in their own land which I gave to My servant Jacob.
26 "And they will [a]dwell [1]safely there, [b]build houses, and [c]plant vineyards; yes, they will dwell securely, when I execute judgments on all those around them who despise them. Then they shall know that I am the LORD their God." ' "

Proclamation Against Egypt

29 In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
2 "Son of man, [a]set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and [b]against all Egypt.
3 "Speak, and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

[a]"Behold, I am against you,
O Pharaoh king of Egypt,
O great [b]monster who lies in the midst of his rivers,
[c]Who has said, 'My [1]River is my own;
I have made it for myself.'
4 But [a]I will put hooks in your jaws,
And cause the fish of your rivers to stick to your scales;
I will bring you up out of the midst of your rivers,
And all the fish in your rivers will stick to your scales.
5 I will leave you in the wilderness,
You and all the fish of your rivers;
You shall fall on the [1]open [a]field;
[b]You shall not be picked up or [2]gathered.
[c]I have given you as food
To the beasts of the field
And to the birds of the heavens.

6 "Then all the inhabitants of Egypt
Shall know that I am the LORD,
Because they have been a [a]staff of reed to the house of Israel.
7 [a]When they took hold of you with the hand,
You broke and tore all their [1]shoulders;
When they leaned on you,
You broke and made all their backs quiver."

8 'Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "Surely I will bring [a]a sword upon you and cut off from you man and beast.

28:23 Earlier, God had proclaimed a similar judgment of "plague, blood, and sword" towards Israel and Judah through Ezekiel (6:11, 12; 14:21).

29:2 The word "pharaoh" literally means "great house." Originally it was used to describe the palace in Memphis, but eventually it came to signify the ruling authority and the king himself. The pharaoh is not identified in Ezekiel; however Jeremiah names him as Hophra (Jer. 44:30).

29:3 The "monster" was most likely a crocodile, as they were common in the Nile River.

29:4 The "hook in the jaw" described the typical method of capturing crocodiles.

29:7 Second Kings 18:21 gives an account of Israel's reliance upon Egypt during the Assyrian siege, where Egypt is portrayed as a broken reed. God's people often relied on Egypt for help rather than on God. They ultimately discovered their ally was unreliable (Ezek. 29:17–21; 30:1—31:9).

[a]desolate and waste; then they will know that I am the LORD, because he said, 'The River is mine, and I have made it.'
10 "Indeed, therefore, I am against you and against your rivers, [a]and I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste and desolate, [b]from [1]Migdol to Syene, as far as the border of Ethiopia.
11 [a]"Neither foot of man shall pass through it nor foot of beast pass through it, and it shall be uninhabited forty years.
12 [a]"I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate; and among the cities that are laid waste, her cities shall be desolate forty years; and I will [b]scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them throughout the countries."
13 'Yet, thus says the Lord GOD: "At the [a]end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the peoples among whom they were scattered.
14 "I will bring back the captives of Egypt and cause them to return to the land of Pathros, to the land of their origin, and there they shall be a [a]lowly kingdom.
15 "It shall be the lowliest of kingdoms; it shall never again exalt itself above the nations, for I will diminish them so that they will not rule over the nations anymore.
16 "No longer shall it be [a]the confidence of the house of Israel, but will remind them of their iniquity when they turned to follow them. Then they shall know that I am the Lord GOD." ' "

Babylonia Will Plunder Egypt

17 And it came to pass in the twenty-seventh year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
18 "Son of man, [a]Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon caused his army to labor strenuously against Tyre; every head was made [b]bald, and every shoulder rubbed raw; yet neither he nor his army received wages from Tyre, for the labor which they expended on it.
19 "Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Surely I will give the land of Egypt to [a]Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; he shall take away her wealth, carry off her spoil, and remove her pillage; and that will be the wages for his army.
20 'I have given him the land of Egypt for his labor, because they [a]worked for Me,' says the Lord GOD.

The Lord Provides

True to His word, the Lord always repays all who work in His service. Do you feel you have missed out financially or otherwise because you have devoted yourself to serving God? God is faithful. Trust Him to care for you as only He can.

21 'In that day [a]I will cause the [1]horn of the house of Israel to spring forth, and I will [b]open your mouth to speak in their midst. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.' "

Egypt and Her Allies Will Fall

30 The word of the LORD came to me again, saying,
2 "Son of man, prophesy and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

[a]"Wail, 'Woe to the day!'

WORD*Study* WAIL

Ezek. 30:2 The word "wail" is an imperative form of the word meaning "to howl." It is a command calling for a deep cry of distress.

3 For [a]the day is near,
Even the day of the LORD is near;
It will be a day of clouds, the time of the Gentiles.
4 The sword shall come upon Egypt,
And great anguish shall be in [1]Ethiopia,
When the slain fall in Egypt,
And they [a]take away her wealth,
And [b]her foundations are broken down.

5 "Ethiopia, [1]Libya, [2]Lydia, [a]all the mingled people, Chub, and the men of the lands who are allied, shall fall with them by the sword."
6 'Thus says the LORD:

20 [a]Jer. 25:9
21 [a]Ps. 92:10; 132:17 [b]Ezek. 24:27 [1]Strength

CHAPTER 30
2 [a]Is. 13:6; 15:2
3 [a]Joel 2:1
4 [a]Ezek. 29:19 [b]Jer. 50:15 [1]Heb. Cush
5 [a]Jer. 25:20, 24 [1]Heb. Put [2]Heb. Lud

29:18 Nebuchadnezzar laid siege to Tyre for thirteen years without successfully taking the city. He was unable to pay his troops with the spoils of conquest. Therefore, God gave him Egypt and its riches to pay for the service of his army.

29:21 The horn symbolized strength and power (1 Sam. 2:1; 1 Kin. 22:11; Ps. 92:10; Jer. 48:25). To "spring forth" or "grow" was a messianic term meaning a "sprout" or "shoot" of new growth. The same term appears in other important messianic passages (Is. 4:2; Jer. 23:5; Zech. 3:8).

30:3 The "day of the Lord" often refers to times of God's judgment. The term also has eschatological overtones (Is. 13:1–22; 19:1–25; Joel 1:15; 2:1–11; 3:14–16; Amos 5:18; Obad. 15; Zeph. 1:7–18).

"Those who uphold Egypt shall fall,
And the pride of her power shall come down.
[a]From [1]Migdol to Syene
Those within her shall fall by the sword,"
Says the Lord GOD.

7 "They[a] shall be desolate in the midst of the desolate countries,
And her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are laid waste.
8 Then they will know that I am the LORD,
When I have set a fire in Egypt
And all her helpers are destroyed.
9 On that day [a]messengers shall go forth from Me in ships
To make the [1]careless Ethiopians afraid,
And great anguish shall come upon them,
As on the day of Egypt;
For indeed it is coming!"

10 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

[a]"I will also make a multitude of Egypt to cease
By the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.
11 He and his people with him, [a]the most terrible of the nations,
Shall be brought to destroy the land;
They shall draw their swords against Egypt,
And fill the land with the slain.
12 [a]I will make the rivers dry,
And [b]sell the land into the hand of the wicked;
I will make the land waste, and all that is in it,
By the hand of aliens.
I, the LORD, have spoken."

13 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"I will also [a]destroy the idols,
And cause the images to cease from [1]Noph;
[b]There shall no longer be princes from the land of Egypt;
[c]I will put fear in the land of Egypt.
14 I will make [a]Pathros desolate,
Set fire to [b]Zoan,
[c]And execute judgments in [1]No.
15 I will pour My fury on [1]Sin, the strength of Egypt;
[a]I will cut off the multitude of [2]No,
16 And [a]set a fire in Egypt;
Sin shall have great pain,
No shall be split open,
And Noph shall be in distress daily.
17 The young men of [1]Aven and Pi Beseth shall fall by the sword,
And these cities shall go into captivity.
18 [a]At [1]Tehaphnehes the day shall also be [2]darkened,
When I break the yokes of Egypt there.
And her arrogant strength shall cease in her;
As for her, a cloud shall cover her,
And her daughters shall go into captivity.
19 Thus I will [a]execute judgments on Egypt,
Then they shall know that I am the LORD." ' "

Proclamation Against Pharaoh

20 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, on the seventh day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
21 "Son of man, I have [a]broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and see, [b]it has not been bandaged for healing, nor a [1]splint put on to bind it, to make it strong enough to hold a sword.
22 "Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Surely I am [a]against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will [b]break his arms, both the strong one and the one that was broken; and I will make the sword fall out of his hand.
23 [a]'I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them throughout the countries.
24 'I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and put My sword in his hand; but I will break Pharaoh's arms, and he will groan before him with the groanings of a mortally wounded man.
25 'Thus I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; [a]they shall know that I am the LORD, when I put My sword into the hand of the king of Babylon and he stretches it out against the land of Egypt.
26 [a]'I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them throughout the countries. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.' "

CHAPTER 31

1 [a]Ezek. 30:20; 32:1

30:12 Egypt's agriculture depended on the Nile River and the canal (irrigation) system stemming from the river. Drying up the river would completely devastate the country's food supply system. The river was also crucial for transportation and communication between upper and lower Egypt.

30:21 The "breaking of Pharaoh's arm" served two purposes. The first was to punish Egypt for lending aid to Zedekiah, thus intervening in God's plans to judge Judah (Jer. 37:5–11). The second was to crush any hopes the Judeans had of deliverance by the Egyptians.

ENCOUNTER Note Ezek. 30:25

God's Sovereignty

God wants every nation to know and worship Him. We may think that because a nation pays no recognition to the Lord, He is not working there. But we can be assured that God is involved. He will hold every nation accountable to honor Him and His name.

on the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
2 "Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his multitude:

[a]'Whom are you like in your greatness?
3 [a]Indeed Assyria was a cedar in Lebanon,
With fine branches that shaded the forest,
And of high stature;
And its top was among the thick boughs.
4 [a]The waters made it grow;
Underground waters gave it height,
With their rivers running around the place where it was planted,
And sent out [1]rivulets to all the trees of the field.

5 'Therefore [a]its height was exalted above all the trees of the field;
Its boughs were multiplied,
And its branches became long because of the abundance of water,
As it sent them out.
6 All the [a]birds of the heavens made their nests in its boughs;
Under its branches all the beasts of the field brought forth their young;
And in its shadow all great nations [1]made their home.

7 'Thus it was beautiful in greatness and in the length of its branches,
Because its roots reached to abundant waters.
8 The cedars in the [a]garden of God could not hide it;
The fir trees were not like its boughs,
And the [1]chestnut trees were not like its branches;
No tree in the garden of God was like it in beauty.
9 I made it beautiful with a multitude of branches,
So that all the trees of Eden envied it,
That were in the garden of God.'

11 'therefore I will deliver it into the hand of the [a]mighty one of the nations, and he shall surely deal with it; I have driven it out for its wickedness.
12 'And aliens, [a]the most terrible of the nations, have cut it down and left it; its branches have fallen [b]on the mountains and in all the valleys; its boughs lie [c]broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the peoples of the earth have gone from under its shadow and left it.

13 'On [a]its ruin will remain all the birds of the heavens,
And all the beasts of the field will come to its branches—

14 'So that no trees by the waters may ever again exalt themselves for their height, nor set their tops among the thick boughs, that no tree which drinks water may ever be high enough to reach up to them.

Overconfidence

We all have a tendency to take credit for our accomplishments instead of acknowledging our success as God's blessing. In light of how God deals with haughtiness, we are wise to praise God for the success and victories in our lives.

15 "Thus says the Lord GOD: 'In the day when it [a]went down to [1]hell, I caused mourning. I covered the deep because of it. I restrained its rivers, and the great waters were held back. I caused Lebanon to [2]mourn for it, and all the trees of the field wilted because of it.
16 'I made the nations [a]shake at the sound of its fall, when I [b]cast it down to [1]hell together with those who descend into the Pit; and [c]all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that 17 'They also went down to hell with it, with those slain by the sword; and those who were its strong arm [a]dwelt in its shadows among the nations.

18 [a]'To which of the trees in Eden will you then be likened in glory and greatness? Yet you shall be brought down with the trees of Eden to the depths of the earth; [b]you shall lie in the midst of the uncircumcised, with those slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude,' says the Lord GOD."

Lamentation for Pharaoh and Egypt

32 And it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the [a]twelfth month, on the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
2 "Son of man, [a]take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say to him:

[b]'You are like a young lion among the nations,
And [c]you are like a monster in the seas,
[d]Bursting forth in your rivers,
Troubling the waters with your feet,
And [e]fouling their rivers.

3 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"I will therefore [a]spread My net over you with a company of many people,
And they will draw you up in My net.
4 Then [a]I will leave you on the land;
I will cast you out on the open fields,
[b]And cause to [1]settle on you all the birds of the heavens.
And with you I will fill the beasts of the whole earth.
5 I will lay your flesh [a]on the mountains,
And fill the valleys with your carcass.

6 "I will also water the land with the flow of your blood,
Even to the mountains;
And the riverbeds will be full of you.

I will cover the sun with a cloud,
And the moon shall not give her light.

WORD*Study* PUT OUT YOUR LIGHT

Ezek. 32:7 To "put out your light" (kabah) meant to "snuff out a wick or a lamp" and could describe putting to death. Isaiah 43:17 records a similar phrase to describe the way God dealt with His enemies.

8 All the [1]bright lights of the heavens I will make dark over you,
And bring darkness upon your land,"
Says the Lord GOD.

9 'I will also trouble the hearts of many peoples, when I bring your destruction among the nations, into the countries which you have not known.
10 'Yes, I will make many peoples astonished at you, and their kings shall be horribly afraid of you when I brandish My sword before them; and [a]they shall tremble every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of your fall.
11 [a]'For thus says the Lord GOD: 'The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon you.
12 "By the swords of the mighty warriors, all of them [a]the most terrible of the nations, I will cause your multitude to fall.

[b]"They shall plunder the pomp of Egypt,
And all its multitude shall be destroyed.
13 Also I will destroy all its animals
From beside its great waters;
[a]The foot of man shall muddy them no more,
Nor shall the hooves of animals muddy them.
14 Then I will make their waters [1]clear,
And make their rivers run like oil,"
Says the Lord GOD.

15 'When I make the land of Egypt desolate,
And the country is destitute of all that once filled it,
When I strike all who dwell in it,
[a]Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

16 "This is the [a]lamentation
With which they shall lament her;
The daughters of the nations shall lament her;
They shall lament for her, for Egypt,

32:2 This lamentation is again in the form of a funeral dirge. Ezekiel used the funeral song more than any other Old Testament writer (Ezek. 19:1, 14; 27:2, 32; 28:12; 32:2). God was again stressing to the Judeans that there was no reason to place hope in Egypt for deliverance from God's judgment at the hands of Babylon.

32:2 The pharaoh viewed himself as the royal creature (the lion), but in God's eyes he was nothing more than a sea monster or crocodile thrashing about and spoiling the waters. Pharaoh's pride had distorted his perceptions so he could not see himself as God saw him.

And for all her multitude,"
Says the Lord GOD.'"

Egypt and Others Consigned to the Pit

17 It came to pass also in the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the month, [a]that the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

18 "Son of man, wail over the multitude of Egypt,
And [a]cast them down to the depths of the earth,
Her and the daughters of the famous nations,
With those who go down to the Pit:
19 'Whom [a]do you surpass in beauty?
[b]Go down, be placed with the uncircumcised.'

20 "They shall fall in the midst of those slain by the sword;
She is delivered to the sword,
[a]Drawing her and all her multitudes.
21 [a]The strong among the mighty
Shall speak to him out of the midst of hell
With those who help him:
'They have [b]gone down,
They lie with the uncircumcised, slain by the sword.'

22 "Assyria[a] is there, and all her company,
With their graves all around her,
All of them slain, fallen by the sword.
23 [a]Her graves are set in the recesses of the Pit,
And her company is all around her grave,
All of them slain, fallen by the sword,
Who [b]caused terror in the land of the living.

24 "There is [a]Elam and all her multitude,
All around her grave,
All of them slain, fallen by the sword,
Who have [b]gone down uncircumcised to the lower parts of the earth,
[c]Who caused their terror in the land of the living;
Now they bear their shame with those who go down to the Pit.
25 They have set her [a]bed in the midst of the slain,
With all her multitude,
With her graves all around it,
All of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword;
Though their terror was caused
In the land of the living,
Yet they bear their shame
With those who go down to the Pit;
It was put in the midst of the slain.

26 "There are [a]Meshech and Tubal and all their multitudes,
With all their graves around it,
All of them [b]uncircumcised, slain by the sword,
Though they caused their terror in the land of the living.
27 [a]They do not lie with the mighty
Who are fallen of the uncircumcised,
Who have gone down to hell with their weapons of war;
They have laid their swords under their heads,
But their iniquities will be on their bones,
Because of the terror of the mighty in the land of the living.
28 Yes, you shall be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised,
And lie with those slain by the sword.

29 "There is [a]Edom,
Her kings and all her princes,
Who despite their might
Are laid beside those slain by the sword;
They shall lie with the uncircumcised,
And with those who go down to the Pit.
30 [a]There are the princes of the north,
All of them, and all the [b]Sidonians,
Who have gone down with the slain
In shame at the terror which they caused by their might;
They lie uncircumcised with those slain by the sword,
And bear their shame with those who go down to the Pit.

31 "Pharaoh will see them
And be [a]comforted over all his multitude,
Pharaoh and all his army,
Slain by the sword,"
Says the Lord GOD.

32 "For I have caused My terror in the land of the living;

Bearing Their Shame

Every person and every nation is accountable to God, whether they acknowledge it or not. Those who live ruthlessly or take advantage of others during this life will bear their shame in the judgment.

And he shall be placed in the midst of the uncircumcised
With those slain by the sword,
Pharaoh and all his multitude,"
Says the Lord GOD.

The Watchman and His Message

33 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
2 "Son of man, speak to [a]the children of your people, and say to them: [b]'When I bring the sword upon a land, and the people of the land take a man from their territory and make him their [c]watchman,
3 'when he sees the sword coming upon the land, if he blows the trumpet and warns the people,
4 'then whoever hears the sound of the trumpet and does [a]not take warning, if the sword comes and takes him away, [b]his blood shall be on his own head.
5 'He heard the sound of the trumpet, but did not take warning; his blood shall be upon himself. But he who takes warning will [1]save his life.
6 'But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet, and the people are not warned, and the sword comes and takes any person from among them, [a]he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood I will require at the watchman's hand.'

ENCOUNTER Note Ezek. 33:6

Warning the People

God holds Christians responsible to be "watchmen" for others and to warn them of sin's destructive nature. Christians are not responsible for the choices people make toward Christ, but God expects and commands that His people proclaim the gospel message so every person has the opportunity to choose life.

7 [a]"So you, son of man: I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; therefore you shall hear a word from My mouth and warn them for Me.
8 "When I say to the wicked, 'O wicked man, you shall surely die!' and you do not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood I will require at your hand.
9 "Nevertheless if you warn the wicked to turn from his way, and he does not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but you have [1]delivered your soul.
10 "Therefore you, O son of man, say to the house of Israel: 'Thus you say, "If our transgressions and our sins lie upon us, and we [a]pine[1] away in them, [b]how can we then live?" '
11 "Say to them: 'As I live,' says the Lord GOD, [a]'I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked [b]turn from his way and live. Turn, turn from your evil ways! For [c]why should you die, O house of Israel?'

The Fairness of God's Judgment

12 "Therefore you, O son of man, say to the children of your people: 'The [a]righteousness of the righteous man shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression; as for the wickedness of the wicked, [b]he shall not fall because of it in the day that he turns from his wickedness; nor shall the righteous be able to live because of his righteousness in the day that he sins.'
13 "When I say to the righteous that he shall surely live, [a]but he trusts in his own righteousness and commits iniquity, none of his righteous works shall be remembered; but because of the iniquity that he has committed, he shall die.
14 "Again, [a]when I say to the wicked, 'You shall surely die,' if he turns from his sin and does [1]what is lawful and [2]right, 15 "if the wicked [a]restores the pledge, [b]gives back what he has stolen, and walks in [c]the statutes of life without committing iniquity, he shall surely live; he shall not die.
16 [a]"None of his sins which he has committed shall be remembered against him; he has done what is lawful and right; he shall surely live.
17 [a]"Yet the children of your people say, 'The way of the Lord is not [1]fair.' But it is their way which is not fair!
18 [a]"When the righteous turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, he shall die because of it.

33:1 False prophets had deceived the people of Israel and Judah (Ezek. 13:1—14:23). These prophets had given the people false hope that the exile would end quickly and they could return home. In the midst of the people's despair, Ezekiel was charged to deliver the truths about the coming Messiah who would set up a new kingdom.

33:3 The trumpet (shophar) was a ram's horn and was used for both military and religious purposes (Josh. 6:4; 2 Sam. 2:28; Ps. 81:3; Jer. 4:19; Hos. 5:8; Joel 2:15).

33:7 This chapter parallels Ezekiel 3:16–21 which recounted the prophet's original call to be a watchman for the people of Judah. The reintroduction of Ezekiel's call affirmed his faithfulness to his assignment.

33:10 The people's complaint that God's judgment on Judah was unfair and the prophet's response to it must be viewed in conjunction with Ezekiel's earlier message in 18:1–32. God is just and must deal with sin, but He also provides the opportunity for every person to repent and find life (John 3:16–18).

19 "But when the wicked turns from his wickedness and does what is lawful and right, he shall live because of it.
20 "Yet you say, [a]'The way of the Lord is not [1]fair.' O house of Israel, I will judge every one of you according to his own ways."

The Fall of Jerusalem

21 And it came to pass in the twelfth year [a]of our captivity, in the tenth month, on the fifth day of the month, [b]that one who had escaped from Jerusalem came to me and said, [c]"The city has been [1]captured!"
22 Now [a]the hand of the LORD had been upon me the evening before the man came who had escaped. And He had [b]opened my mouth; so when he came to me in the morning, my mouth was opened, and I was no longer mute.

The Cause of Judah's Ruin

23 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying:
24 "Son of man, [a]they who inhabit those [b]ruins in the land of Israel are saying, [c]'Abraham was only one, and he inherited the land. [d]But we are many; the land has been given to us as a [e]possession.'
25 "Therefore say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: [a]"You eat meat with blood, you [b]lift up your eyes toward your idols, and [c]shed blood. Should you then possess the [d]land?
26 "You rely on your sword, you commit abominations, and you [a]defile one another's wives. Should you then possess the land?" '
27 "Say thus to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "As I live, surely [a]those who are in the ruins shall fall by the sword, and the one who is in the open field [b]I will give to the beasts to be devoured, and those who are in the strongholds and [c]caves shall die of the pestilence.
28 [a]"For I will make the land most desolate, [1]her [b]arrogant strength shall cease, and [c]the mountains of Israel shall be so desolate that no one will pass through.
29 "Then they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land most desolate because of all their abominations which they have committed." '

Hearing and Not Doing

30 "As for you, son of man, the children of your people are talking about you beside the walls and in the doors of the houses; and they [a]speak to one another, everyone saying to his brother, 'Please come and hear what the word is that comes from the LORD.'
31 "So [a]they come to you as people do, they [b]sit before you as My people, and they [c]hear your words, but they do not do them; [d]for with their mouth they show much love, but [e]their hearts pursue their own gain.
32 "Indeed you are to them as a very lovely song of one who has a pleasant voice and can play well on an instrument; for they hear your words, but they do [a]not do them.
33 [a]"And when this comes to pass—surely it will come—then [b]they will know that a prophet has been among them."

Irresponsible Shepherds

34 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
2 "Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD to the shepherds: [a]"Woe to the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves! Should not the shepherds feed the flocks?
3 [a]"You eat the fat and clothe yourselves with the wool; you [b]slaughter the fatlings, but you do not feed the flock.
4 [a]"The weak you have not strengthened, nor have you healed those who were sick, nor bound up the broken, nor brought back what was driven away, nor [b]sought what was lost; but with [c]force and [1]cruelty you have ruled them.
5 [a]"So they were [b]scattered because there was no shepherd; [c]and they became food for all the beasts of the field when they were scattered.
6 "My sheep [a]wandered through all the mountains, and on every high hill; yes, My flock was scattered over the whole face of the earth, and no one was seeking or searching for them."
7 'Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD:
8 "As I live," says the Lord GOD, "surely because My flock became a prey, and My flock [a]became food for every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, nor did My shepherds search for 33:24 Ezekiel was vindicated when his prophecy for Jerusalem was fulfilled. However, God warned him not to expect the people to repent or to recognize his warnings. Judah's people remained defiant and assumed that because they had remained in the land they had avoided God's punishment. Even in the face of God's wrath, pride had blinded them towards His ways.

34:2 Kings and leaders (military and religious) were sometimes called "shepherds" in the Old Testament (Is. 44:28; Jer. 2:8; 10:21; 23:1–6; 25:34–38; Mic. 5:4, 5; Zech. 11:4–17). Chapter thirty-four addresses the problem of dealing with the corrupt leaders during the restoration. "Shepherd" was one of the earliest names used for God (Gen. 49:24). Psalm 23 is well known for its beautiful depiction of God as our Shepherd.

My flock, [b]but the shepherds fed themselves and did not feed My flock"—
9 'therefore, O shepherds, hear the word of the LORD!
10 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I am [a]against the shepherds, and [b]I will require My flock at their hand; I will cause them to cease feeding the sheep, and the shepherds shall [c]feed themselves no more; for I will [d]deliver My flock from their mouths, that they may no longer be food for them."

God, the True Shepherd

11 'For thus says the Lord GOD: "Indeed I Myself will search for My sheep and seek them out.
12 "As a [a]shepherd seeks out his flock on the day he is among his scattered sheep, so will I seek out My sheep and deliver them from all the places where they were scattered on [b]a cloudy and dark day.
13 "And [a]I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land; I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, [1]in the valleys and in all the inhabited places of the country.
14 [a]"I will feed them in good pasture, and their fold shall be on the high mountains of Israel. [b]There they shall lie down in a good fold and feed in rich pasture on the mountains of Israel.
15 "I will feed My flock, and I will make them lie down," says the Lord GOD.
16 [a]"I will seek what was lost and bring back what was driven away, bind up the broken and strengthen what was sick; but I will destroy [b]the fat and the strong, and feed them [c]in judgment."
17 'And as for you, O My flock, thus says the Lord GOD: [a]"Behold, I shall judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and goats.
18 "Is it too little for you to have eaten up the good pasture, that you must tread down with your feet the [1]residue of your pasture—and to have drunk of the clear waters, that you must foul the residue with your feet?
19 "And as for My flock, they eat what you have trampled with your feet, and they drink what you have fouled with your feet."
20 'Therefore thus says the Lord GOD to them: [a]"Behold, I Myself will judge between the fat and the lean sheep.
21 "Because you have pushed with side and shoulder, butted all the weak ones with your horns, and scattered them abroad,
22 "therefore I will save My flock, and they shall no longer be a prey; and I will judge between sheep and sheep.
23 "I will establish one [a]shepherd over them, and he shall feed them—[b]My servant David. He shall feed them and be their shepherd.
24 "And [a]I, the LORD, will be their God, and My servant David [b]a prince among them; I, the LORD, have spoken.
25 [a]"I will make a covenant of peace with them, and [b]cause wild beasts to cease from the land; and they [c]will dwell safely in the wilderness and sleep in the woods.
26 "I will make them and the places all around [a]My hill [b]a blessing; and I will [c]cause showers to come down in their season; there shall be [d]showers of blessing.
27 "Then [a]the trees of the field shall yield their fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase. They shall be safe in their land; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have [b]broken the bands of their yoke and delivered them from the hand of those who [c]enslaved them.
28 "And they shall no longer be a prey for the nations, nor shall beasts of the land devour them; but [a]they shall dwell safely, and no one shall make them afraid.
29 "I will raise up for them a [a]garden[1] of renown, and they shall [b]no longer be consumed with hunger in the land, [c]nor bear the shame of the Gentiles anymore.
30 "Thus they shall know that [a]I, the LORD their God, am with them, and they, the house of Israel, are [b]My people," says the Lord GOD.'

To Be Called One of His

In times of distress, there is no greater comfort than to hear God's voice affirming that you are one of His. Enemies may be trying to harm you, but remember: If you are a child of the Good Shepherd, He will protect you, love you, and bring comfort to your life.

34:11 This verse begins God's description of the way He will care for His people. In this chapter, God makes twenty-five promises of judgment and deliverance. The numerous occurrences of "I will" reveal God's intention to be personally involved in the destiny of His people.

34:22 In a manner similar to the way a shepherd evaluates his sheep to judge which to breed, sell, or butcher, the Lord will determine those who are His and those who need care, judgment, or blessing.

34:25 The "covenant of peace" is called the "new covenant" in the Book of Jeremiah (31:31). The prophets pictured a time (in the messianic age) when God would restore the life and peace lost due to humanity's sin (Is. 9:6, 7; 52:7; 66:12; Jer. 30:10; 33:6, 9; Hag. 2:9).

31 "You are My [a]flock, the flock of My pasture; you are men, and I am your God," says the Lord GOD.

Judgment on Mount Seir

35 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
2 "Son of man, set your face against [a]Mount Seir and [b]prophesy against it,
3 "and say to it, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"Behold, O Mount Seir, I am against you;
[a]I will stretch out My hand against you,
And make you [1]most desolate;
4 I shall lay your cities waste,
And you shall be desolate.
Then you shall know that I am the LORD.

5 [a]"Because you have had an [1]ancient hatred, and have shed the blood of the children of Israel by the power of the sword at the time of their calamity, [b]when their iniquity came to an end,
6 "therefore, as I live," says the Lord GOD, "I will prepare you for [a]blood, and blood shall pursue you; [b]since you have not hated [1]blood, therefore blood shall pursue you.
7 "Thus I will make Mount Seir [1]most desolate, and cut off from it the [a]one who leaves and the one who returns.
8 "And I will fill its mountains with the slain; on your hills and in your valleys and in all your ravines those who are slain by the sword shall fall.
9 [a]"I will make you [1]perpetually desolate, and your cities shall be uninhabited; [b]then you shall know that I am the LORD.
10 "Because you have said, 'These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will [a]possess them,' although [b]the LORD was there,
11 "therefore, as I live," says the Lord GOD, "I will do [a]according to your anger and according to the envy which you showed in your hatred against them; and I will make Myself known among them when I judge you.
12 [a]"Then you shall know that I am the LORD. I have [b]heard all your [c]blasphemies which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, 'They are desolate; they are given to us to consume.'

The Lord Is Listening

We are foolish if we think God does not hear every word that comes out of our mouths. What does He hear—words of encouragement, or threats of revenge?

14 'Thus says the Lord GOD: [a]"The whole earth will rejoice when I make you desolate.
15 [a]"As you rejoiced because the inheritance of the house of Israel was desolate, [b]so I will do to you; you shall be desolate, O Mount Seir, as well as all of Edom—all of it! Then they shall know that I am the LORD." '

Blessing on Israel

36 "And you, son of man, prophesy to the [a]mountains of Israel, and say, 'O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD!
2 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because [a]the enemy has said of you, 'Aha! [b]The [1]ancient heights [c]have become our possession,' " '
3 "therefore prophesy, and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because they made you desolate and swallowed you up on every side, so that you became the possession of the rest of the nations, [a]and you are taken up by the lips of [b]talkers and slandered by the people"—
4 'therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD! Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains, the hills, the [1]rivers, the valleys, the desolate wastes, and the cities that have been forsaken, which [a]became plunder and [b]mockery to the rest of the nations all around—
5 'therefore thus says the Lord GOD: [a]"Surely I have spoken in My burning jealousy against the rest of the nations and against all Edom, [b]who gave My land to themselves as a possession, with wholehearted joy and [1]spiteful minds, in order to plunder its open country." '
6 "Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and say to the mountains,

35:2 Mount Seir was the mountainous region south of the Dead Sea on both sides of the Rift Valley running south to the Gulf of Aqaba. Seir became synonymous with the entire country of Edom.

35:5 There was ongoing contention between Edom and Israel and Judah. Scripture states that Edom rejoiced when Nebuchadnezzar destroyed the city of Jerusalem (Ps. 137:7; Joel 3:19; Obad. 1–14).

36:2 The "ancient heights" were high places used for pagan worship (most prominently for Baal and Asherah). These prized locations were believed to be endued with special powers.

36:5 Edom's delight in Judah's destruction displeased God. The Lord takes no delight in death (Ezek. 18:32). God could not allow the nations to use His acts of righteous judgment as occasions for spiteful revenge.

the hills, the rivers, and the valleys, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I have spoken in My jealousy and My fury, because you have [a]borne the shame of the nations."
7 'Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "I have [a]raised My hand in an oath that surely the nations that are around you shall [b]bear their own shame.
8 "But you, O mountains of Israel, you shall shoot forth your branches and yield your fruit to My people Israel, for they are about to come.
9 "For indeed I am for you, and I will turn to you, and you shall be tilled and sown.
10 "I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, all of it; and the cities shall be inhabited and [a]the ruins rebuilt.
11 [a]"I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and [1]bear young; I will make you inhabited as in former times, and do [b]better for you than at your beginnings. [c]Then you shall know that I am the LORD.
12 "Yes, I will cause men to walk on you, My people Israel; [a]they shall take possession of you, and you shall be their inheritance; no more shall you [b]bereave them of children."
13 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because they say to you, [a]'You devour men and bereave your nation of children,'
14 "therefore you shall devour men no more, nor bereave your nation anymore," says the Lord GOD.
15 [a]"Nor will I let you hear the taunts of the nations anymore, nor bear the reproach of the peoples anymore, nor shall you cause your nation to stumble anymore," says the Lord GOD.' "

JOHN LIVINGSTON

Ezek. 36:25

On June 30, 1630, an unusual communion service was held at the Kirk of Shotts in Scotland. Well known ministers from all over the area were invited to assist in the service. The number of worshippers gathered was so large the service had to be moved outdoors. The ministers had chosen one of their own to deliver the sermon, but when he became too ill to preach, twenty-seven year old John Livingston was asked to replace him. Livingston was not yet ordained, nor did he have his own congregation. He was so intimidated about speaking to such an august gathering he thought seriously about fleeing the responsibility. Finally, Johnson resolved to preach from Ezekiel 36:25, 26. As he delivered his message, rain began to fall. Yet Johnson continued. Suddenly there was an outpouring of the Holy Spirit and people were overcome by the weight of their sin. Over five hundred people were converted that day.

36:9 The Lord's change in attitude toward His people is worded in terms of His covenant promise as recorded in Leviticus 26:9. He said He would turn toward His people and make them multiply. Once again, the people would be able to cultivate the soil and enjoy the rewards of the Promised Land.

36:11 This promise served to restore God's people after His earlier warnings of judgment (Ezek. 5:17). God would remove His agents of judgment: famine, wild beasts, plague, bloodshed, and warfare. Now He promised prosperity and life.

27 "I will put My [a]Spirit within you and cause you to walk in My statutes, and you will keep My judgments and do them.
28 [a]"Then you shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; [b]you shall be My people, and I will be your God.
29 "I will [a]deliver you from all your uncleannesses. [b]I will call for the grain and multiply it, and [c]bring no famine upon you.
30 [a]"And I will multiply the fruit of your trees and the increase of your fields, so that you need never again bear the reproach of famine among the nations.
31 "Then [a]you will remember your evil ways and your deeds that were not good; and you [b]will [1]loathe yourselves in your own sight, for your iniquities and your abominations.

The Dry Bones Live

37 The [a]hand of the LORD came upon me and brought me out [b]in the Spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley; and it was full of bones.
2 Then He caused me to pass by them all around, and behold, there were very many in the open valley; and indeed they were very dry.
3 And He said to me, "Son of man, can these bones live?" So I answered, "O Lord GOD, [a]You know."
4 Again He said to me, "Prophesy to these bones, and say to them, 'O dry bones, hear the word of the LORD!

God's Word Brings Life

God's word brings renewal to His people. If you and your family are in a spiritual wasteland as a result of your sin, humble yourself before God and allow Him to bring words of life to your situation.

5 'Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones: "Surely I will [a]cause breath to enter into you, and you shall live.
6 "I will put sinews on you and bring flesh upon you, cover you with skin and put breath in you; and you shall live. [a]Then you shall know that I am the LORD." ' "
7 So I prophesied as I was commanded; and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and suddenly a rattling; and the bones came together, bone to bone.
8 Indeed, as I looked, the sinews and the flesh came upon them, and the skin covered them over; but there was no breath in them.
9 Also He said to me, "Prophesy to the breath, prophesy, son of man, and say to the [1]breath, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: [a]"Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live." ' "
10 So I prophesied as He commanded me, [a]and [1]breath came into them, and they lived, and stood upon their feet, an exceedingly great army.
11 Then He said to me, "Son of man,

13 "Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O My people, and brought you up from your graves.
14 "I [a]will put My Spirit in you, and you shall live, and I will place you in your own land. Then you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken it and performed it," says the LORD.' "

One Kingdom, One King

15 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
16 "As for you, son of man, [a]take a stick for yourself and write on it: 'For Judah and for [b]the children of Israel, his companions.' Then take another stick and write on it, 'For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel, his companions.'
17 "Then [a]join them one to another for yourself into one stick, and they will become one in your hand.
18 "And when the children of your people speak to you, saying, [a]'Will you not show us what you mean by these?'— 19 [a]"say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Surely I will take [b]the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel, his companions; and I will join them with it, with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they will be one in My hand." '
20 "And the sticks on which you write will be in your hand [a]before their eyes.
21 "Then say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Surely [a]I will take the children of Israel from among the nations, wherever they have gone, and will gather them from every side and bring them into their own land;
22 "and [a]I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel; and [b]one king shall be king over them all; they shall no longer be two nations, nor shall they ever be divided into two kingdoms again.
23 [a]"They shall not defile themselves anymore with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions; but [b]I will deliver them from all their dwelling places in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them. Then they shall be My people, and I will be their God.
24 [a]"David My servant shall be king over them, and [b]they shall all have one shepherd; [c]they shall also walk in My judgments and observe My statutes, and do them.
25 [a]"Then they shall dwell in the land that I have given to Jacob My servant, where your fathers dwelt; and they shall dwell there, they, their children, and their children's children, [b]forever; and [c]My servant David shall be their prince forever.
26 "Moreover I will [1]make [a]a covenant of peace with them, and it shall be an everlasting covenant with them; I will establish them and [b]multiply them, and I will set My [c]sanctuary in their midst forevermore.
27 [a]"My tabernacle also shall be with them; indeed I will be [b]their God, and they shall be My people.
28 [a]"The nations also will know that I, the LORD, [b]sanctify Israel, when My sanctuary is in their midst forevermore." ' "

Gog and Allies Attack Israel

38 Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
2 [a]"Son of man, [b]set your face against [c]Gog, of the land of [d]Magog, [1]the prince of Rosh, [e]Meshech, and Tubal, and prophesy against him,
3 "and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I am against you, O Gog, the prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal.
4 [a]"I will turn you around, put hooks into your jaws, and [b]lead you out, with all your army, horses, and horsemen, [c]all splendidly clothed, a great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords.

37:24 This prophecy had immediate relevance for the people of Ezekiel's day and partial fulfillment in their return from Babylon. However, it also included a long-range meaning in the development of the messianic hope (Rom. 11:25, 36).

37:28 God promised His people that His tabernacle would be with them (37:27). The tabernacle was portable and therefore signified that God would go with His people wherever they went. God's presence with His people is the ultimate proof of His forgiveness of their sin, His acceptance of them, and His pleasure upon them.

38:2 The most probable identification of Gog is with Gyges, the king of Lydia (located in western Anatolia). He is mentioned in six inscriptions by the Assyrian king Ashurbanipal (668–631 B.C.). Because Gog's rule was over by Ezekiel's day, Gog/Gyges is believed to be a dynastic name, applied to the kings of the land of Magog (Lydia).

38:4 The expression "I will turn you around" depicts the image of horsemen turning their steeds around. It was an apt description of invaders coming from a region renowned in ancient times for its horses.

of [b]Togarmah from the far north and all its troops—many people are with you.
7 [a]"Prepare yourself and be ready, you and all your companies that are gathered about you; and be a guard for them.
8 [a]"After many days [b]you will be visited. In the latter years you will come into the land of those brought back from the sword [c]and gathered from many people on [d]the mountains of Israel, which had long been desolate; they were brought out of the nations, and now all of them [e]dwell safely.
9 "You will ascend, coming [a]like a storm, covering the [b]land like a cloud, you and all your troops and many peoples with you."
10 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "On that day it shall come to pass that thoughts will arise in your mind, and you will make an evil plan:
11 "You will say, 'I will go up against a land of [a]unwalled villages; I will [b]go to a peaceful people, [c]who dwell [1]safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates'—
12 "to take plunder and to take booty, to stretch out your hand against the waste places that are again inhabited, [a]and against a people gathered from the nations, who have acquired livestock and goods, who dwell in the midst of the land.
13 [a]"Sheba, [b]Dedan, the merchants [c]of Tarshish, and all [d]their young lions will say to you, 'Have you come to take plunder? Have you gathered your army to take booty, to carry away silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods, to take great plunder?' " '
14 "Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say to Gog, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: [a]"On that day when My people Israel [b]dwell safely, will you not know it?
15 [a]"Then you will come from your place out of the far north, you and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great company and a mighty army.
16 "You will come up against My people Israel like a cloud, to cover the land. It will be in the latter days that I will bring you against My land, so that the nations may [a]know Me, when I am [b]hallowed in you, O Gog, before their eyes."
17 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Are you he of whom I have spoken in former days by My servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied for years in those days that I would bring you against them?

Judgment on Gog

18 "And it will come to pass at the same time, when Gog comes against the land of Israel," says the Lord GOD, "that My fury will show in My face.
19 "For [a]in My jealousy [b]and in the fire of My wrath I have spoken: [c]'Surely in that day there shall be a great [1]earthquake in the land of Israel,

[b]The mountains shall be thrown down, the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground.'
21 "I will [a]call for [b]a sword against Gog throughout all My mountains," says the Lord GOD. [c]"Every man's sword will be against his brother.
22 "And I will [a]bring him to judgment with [b]pestilence and bloodshed; [c]I will rain down on him, on his troops, and on the many peoples who are with him, flooding rain, [d]great hailstones, fire, and brimstone.

Then They Shall Know

God often deals with one person or nation in a way that demonstrates His power to a watching world. When you perceive that God is disciplining a person or group of people, recognize that it is also a demonstration to you of God's character.

23 "Thus I will magnify Myself and [a]sanctify Myself, [b]and I will be known in the eyes of many nations. Then they shall know that I am the LORD." '

38:9 Jeremiah also spoke of an enemy coming from the north like a storm cloud (Jer. 4:12, 13).

38:16 What Gog had intended as a victory and an assurance of riches, the Lord turned into an opportunity to glorify Himself. The people of Israel had trusted in God, living in unfortified villages, but God wanted all the nations to recognize His authority. He used Gog's greed to demonstrate His own strength and authority.

4 [a]"You shall [1]fall upon the mountains of Israel, you and all your troops and the peoples who are with you; [b]I will give you to birds of prey of every sort and to the beasts of the field to be devoured.
5 "You shall [1]fall on [2]the open field; for I have spoken," says the Lord GOD.
6 [a]"And I will send fire on Magog and on those who live [1]in security in [b]the coastlands. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.
7 [a]"So I will make My holy name known in the midst of My people Israel, and I will not let them [b]profane My holy name anymore. [c]Then the nations shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.
8 [a]"Surely it is coming, and it shall be done," says the Lord GOD. "This is the day [b]of which I have spoken.
9 "Then those who dwell in the cities of Israel will go out and set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and bucklers, the bows and arrows, the [1]javelins and spears; and they will make fires with them for seven years.
10 "They will not take wood from the field nor cut down any from the forests, because they will make fires with the weapons; [a]and they will plunder those who plundered them, and pillage those who pillaged them," says the Lord GOD.

The Burial of Gog

11 "It will come to pass in that day that I will give Gog a burial place there in Israel, the valley of those who pass by east of the sea; and it will obstruct travelers, because there they will bury Gog and all his multitude. Therefore they will call it the Valley of [1]Hamon Gog.
12 "For seven months the house of Israel will be burying them, [a]in order to cleanse the land.
13 "Indeed all the people of the land will be burying, and they will gain [a]renown for it on the day that [b]I am glorified," says the Lord GOD.
14 "They will set apart men regularly employed, with the help of [1]a search party, to pass through the land and bury those bodies remaining on the ground, in order [a]to cleanse it. At the end of seven months they will make a search.
15 "The search party will pass through the land; and when anyone sees a man's bone, he shall [1]set up a marker by it, till the buriers have buried it in the Valley of Hamon Gog.
16 "The name of the city will also be [1]Hamonah. Thus they shall [a]cleanse the land." '

A Triumphant Festival

17 "And as for you, son of man, thus says the Lord GOD, [a]'Speak to every sort of bird and to every beast of the field:

[b]"Assemble yourselves and come;
Gather together from all sides to
My [c]sacrificial meal
Which I am sacrificing for you,

And with all the men of war," says
the Lord GOD.

Israel Restored to the Land

21 [a]"I will set My glory among the nations; all the nations shall see My judgment which I have executed, and [b]My hand which I have laid on them.
22 [a]"So the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God from that day forward.
23 [a]"The Gentiles shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity; because they were unfaithful to Me, therefore [b]I hid My face from them. I [c]gave them into the hand of their enemies, and they all fell by the sword.

39:7 The defeat of Gog and his allies was not simply to let the nations know of the Lord's might, but to cause them to recognize His holiness. God would no longer tolerate the desecration of His name. Israel and Judah had defiled God's name and doing so had ultimately led to their destruction and exile. However, in the course of their exile, foreign nations had mocked God for the defeat of His people. The Lord was determined that these nations would clearly understand His holiness.

39:10 Ironically, the ones who came to plunder became the plundered. Those who did not build fortifications nor lift their hand in defense benefited from the spoils of the invading nations. The weapons meant for destruction were used as fuel to provide a rest for the land during its recovery from the ravages of war.

25 "Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: [a]'Now I will bring back the captives of Jacob, and have mercy on the [b]whole house of Israel; and I will be jealous for My holy name—
26 [a]'after they have borne their shame, and all their unfaithfulness in which they were unfaithful to Me, when they [b]dwelt safely in their own land and no one made them afraid.
27 [a]'When I have brought them back from the peoples and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and I [b]am hallowed in them in the sight of many nations,
28 [a]'then they shall know that I am the LORD their God, who sent them into captivity among the nations, but also brought them back to their land, and left none of them [1]captive any longer.

A Witness to the Nations

Worship and reverence toward God is not a private matter, but an outward expression that serves as a witness to others. The people around you should see your devotion to God and your sanctified life.

29 [a]'And I will not hide My face from them anymore; for I shall have [b]poured out My Spirit on the house of Israel,' says the Lord GOD."

A New City, a New Temple

40 In the twenty-fifth year of our captivity, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after [a]the city was [1]captured, on the very same day [b]the hand of the LORD was upon me; and He took me there.
2 [a]In the visions of God He took me into the land of Israel and [b]set me on a very high mountain; on it toward the south was something like the structure of a city.
3 He took me there, and behold, there was a man whose appearance was [a]like the appearance of bronze. [b]He had a line of flax [c]and a measuring rod in his hand, and he stood in the gateway.
4 And the man said to me, [a]"Son of man, look with your eyes and hear with your ears, and [1]fix your mind on everything I show you; for you were brought here so that I might show them to you. [b]Declare to the house of Israel everything you see."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Ezek. 40:4

With All of Your Mind

When God speaks to you, He expects you to focus on what He is saying. You can miss God's directions because of inattention or halfhearted listening. Be careful to put aside anything that could distract you from hearing God's voice.

5 Now there was [a]a wall all around the outside of the [1]temple. In the man's hand was a measuring rod six [2]cubits long, each being a cubit and a handbreadth; and he measured the width of the wall structure, one rod; and the height, one rod.

The Eastern Gateway of the Temple

6 Then he went to the gateway which faced [a]east; and he went up its stairs and measured the threshold of the gateway, which was one rod wide, and the other threshold was one rod wide.
7 Each gate chamber was one rod long and one rod wide; between the gate chambers was a space of five cubits; and the threshold of the gateway by the vestibule of the inside gate was one rod.
8 He also measured the vestibule of the inside gate, one rod.
9 Then he measured the vestibule of the gateway, eight cubits; and the gateposts, two cubits. The vestibule of the gate was on the inside.
10 In the eastern gateway were three gate chambers on one side and three on the other; the three were all the same size; also the gateposts were of the same size on this side and that side.
11 He measured the width of the entrance to the gateway, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.
12 There was a [1]space in front of the gate chambers, one cubit on this side and one cubit on that side; the gate chambers were six cubits on this side and six cubits on that side.
13 Then he measured the gateway from the roof of one gate chamber to the roof of the other; the width was twenty-five cubits, as door faces door.

40:3 The instruments in the man's hands indicated he was a surveyor. The cord made of flax fibers was a device similar to a tape measure, used for measuring long distances. The measuring stick was for determining shorter distances and was similar to a carpenter's yardstick.

40:6 This account is similar to other divine residence accounts found in scripture, such as the description of the tabernacle (Ex. 25–31; 36–40) and Solomon's temple (1 Kin. 6–8; 2 Chr. 2, 3).

14 He measured the gateposts, sixty cubits high, and the court all around the gateway extended to the gatepost.
15 From the front of the entrance gate to the front of the vestibule of the inner gate was fifty cubits.
16 There were [a]beveled window frames in the gate chambers and in their intervening archways on the inside of the gateway all around, and likewise in the vestibules. There were windows all around on the inside. And on each gatepost were [b]palm trees.

The Outer Court

17 Then he brought me into [a]the outer court; and there were [b]chambers and a pavement made all around the court; [c]thirty chambers faced the pavement.
18 The pavement was by the side of the gateways, corresponding to the length of the gateways; this was the lower pavement.
19 Then he measured the width from the front of the lower gateway to the front of the inner court exterior, one hundred cubits toward the east and the north.

The Northern Gateway

20 On the outer court was also a gateway facing north, and he measured its length and its width.
21 Its gate chambers, three on this side and three on that side, its gateposts and its archways, had the same measurements as the first gate; its length was fifty cubits and its width twenty-five cubits.
22 Its windows and those of its archways, and also its palm trees, had the same measurements as the gateway facing east; it was ascended by seven steps, and its archway was in front of it.
23 A gate of the inner court was opposite the northern gateway, just as the eastern gateway; and he measured from gateway to gateway, one hundred cubits.

The Southern Gateway

24 After that he brought me toward the south, and there a gateway was facing south; and he measured its gateposts and archways according to these same measurements.
25 There were windows in it and in its archways all around like those windows; its length was fifty cubits and its width twenty-five cubits.
26 Seven steps led up to it, and its archway was in front of them; and it had palm trees on its gateposts, one on this side and one on that side.

27 There was also a gateway on the inner court, facing south; and he measured from gateway to gateway toward the south, one hundred cubits.

Gateways of the Inner Court

28 Then he brought me to the inner court through the southern gateway; he measured the southern gateway according to these same measurements.
29 Also its gate chambers, its gateposts, and its archways were according to these same measurements; there were windows in it and in its archways all around; it was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.
30 There were archways all around, [a]twenty-five cubits long and five cubits wide.
31 Its archways faced the outer court, palm trees were on its gateposts, and going up to it were eight steps.
32 And he brought me into the inner court facing east; he measured the gateway according to these same measurements.
33 Also its gate chambers, its gateposts, and its archways were according to these same measurements; and there were windows in it and in its archways all around; it was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.
34 Its archways faced the outer court, and palm trees were on its gateposts on this side and on that side; and going up to it were eight steps.
35 Then he brought me to the north gateway and measured it according to these same measurements—
36 also its gate chambers, its gateposts, and its archways. It had windows all around; its length was fifty cubits and its width twenty-five cubits.
37 Its gateposts faced the outer court, palm trees were on its gateposts on this side and on that side, and going up to it were eight steps.

Where Sacrifices Were Prepared

38 There was a chamber and its entrance by the gateposts of the gateway, where they [a]washed the burnt offering.
39 In the vestibule of the gateway were two tables on this side and two tables on that side, on which to slay the burnt offering, [a]the sin offering, and [b]the trespass offering.
40 At the outer side of the vestibule, as one goes up to the entrance of the northern gateway, were two tables; and on the other side of the vestibule of the gateway were two tables.

38 [a]2 Chr. 4:6
39 [a]Lev. 4:2, 3 [b]Lev. 5:6; 6:6; 7:1

40:17 The chambers were probably porticoes used by small groups of worshipers as meeting and eating places.

41 Four tables were on this side and four tables on that side, by the side of the gateway, eight tables on which they slaughtered the sacrifices.
42 There were also four tables of hewn stone for the burnt offering, one cubit and a half long, one cubit and a half wide, and one cubit high; on these they laid the instruments with which they slaughtered the burnt offering and the sacrifice.
43 Inside were hooks, a handbreadth wide, fastened all around; and the flesh of the sacrifices was on the tables.

Chambers for Singers and Priests

44 Outside the inner gate were the chambers for [a]the singers in the inner court, one facing south at the side of the northern gateway, and the other facing north at the side of the [1]southern gateway.
45 Then he said to me, "This chamber which faces south is for [a]the priests who have charge of the temple.
46 "The chamber which faces north is for the priests [a]who have charge of the altar; these are the sons of [b]Zadok, from the sons of Levi, who come near the LORD to minister to Him."

Dimensions of the Inner Court and Vestibule

47 And he measured the court, one hundred cubits long and one hundred cubits wide, foursquare. The altar was in front of the temple.
48 Then he brought me to the [a]vestibule of the temple and measured the doorposts of the vestibule, five cubits on this side and five cubits on that side; and the width of the gateway was three cubits on this side and three cubits on that side.
49 [a]The length of the vestibule was twenty cubits, and the width eleven cubits; and by the steps which led up to it there were [b]pillars by the doorposts, one on this side and another on that side.

Dimensions of the Sanctuary

41 Then he [a]brought me into the [1]sanctuary and measured the doorposts, six cubits wide on one side and six cubits wide on the other side—the width of the tabernacle.
2 The width of the entryway was ten cubits, and the side walls of the entrance were five cubits on this side and five cubits on the other side; and he measured its length, forty cubits, and its width, twenty cubits.
3 Also he went inside and measured the doorposts, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits high; and the width of the entrance, seven cubits.
4 [a]He measured the length, twenty cubits; and the width, twenty cubits, beyond the sanctuary; and he said to me, "This is the Most Holy Place."

The Side Chambers on the Wall

5 Next, he measured the wall of the [1]temple, six cubits. The width of each side chamber all around the temple was four cubits on every side.
6 [a]The side chambers were in three stories, one above the other, thirty chambers in each story; they rested on [1]ledges which were for the side chambers all around, that they might be supported, but [b]not fastened to the wall of the temple.
7 As one went up from story to story, the side chambers [a]became wider all around, because their supporting ledges in the wall of the temple ascended like steps; therefore the width of the structure increased as one went up from the lowest story to the highest by way of the middle one.
8 I also saw an elevation all around the temple; it was the foundation of the side chambers, [a]a full rod, that is, six cubits high.
9 The thickness of the outer wall of the side chambers was five cubits, and so also the remaining terrace by the place of the side chambers of the [1]temple.
10 And between it and the wall chambers was a width of twenty cubits all around the temple on every side.
11 The doors of the side chambers opened on the terrace, one door toward the north and another toward the south; and the width of the terrace was five cubits all around.

The Building at the Western End

12 The building that faced the separating courtyard at its western end was seventy cubits wide; the wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and its length ninety cubits.

Dimensions and Design of the Temple Area

13 So he measured the temple, one [a]hundred cubits long; and the separating courtyard with the building and its walls was one hundred cubits long;

9 [1]Lit. house
13 [a]Ezek. 40:47

41:1 The sanctuary, or great hall, indicates the role of the building as the palace of God. The sanctuary was not a reference to the entire temple, but to the great hall between the vestibule and the Most Holy Place.

41:3 The similarities between Solomon's and Ezekiel's temple are notable (1 Kin. 6, 7). Both temples had two pillars of unknown significance in the front. Both temples had three rooms, with the holy room and the great hall having identical measurements.

14 also the width of the eastern face of the temple, including the separating courtyard, was one hundred cubits.
15 He measured the length of the building behind it, facing the separating courtyard, with its [a]galleries on the one side and on the other side, one hundred cubits, as well as the inner [1]temple and the porches of the court,
16 their doorposts and [a]the beveled window frames. And the galleries all around their three stories opposite the threshold were paneled with [b]wood from the ground to the windows—the windows were covered—
17 from the space above the door, even to the inner [1]room, as well as outside, and on every wall all around, inside and outside, by measure.
18 And it was made [a]with cherubim and [b]palm trees, a palm tree between cherub and cherub. Each cherub had two faces,
19 [a]so that the face of a man was toward a palm tree on one side, and the face of a young lion toward a palm tree on the other side; thus it was made throughout the temple all around.
20 From the floor to the space above the door, and on the wall of the sanctuary, cherubim and palm trees were carved.
21 The [a]doorposts of the temple were square, as was the front of the sanctuary; their appearance was similar.
22 [a]The altar was of wood, three cubits high, and its length two cubits. Its corners, its length, and its sides were of wood; and he said to me, "This is [b]the table that is [c]before the LORD."
23 [a]The temple and the sanctuary had two doors.
24 The doors had two [a]panels apiece, two folding panels: two panels for one door and two panels for the other door.
25 Cherubim and palm trees were carved on the doors of the temple just as they were carved on the walls. A wooden canopy was on the front of the vestibule outside.
26 There were [a]beveled window frames and palm trees on one side and on the other, on the sides of the vestibule—also on the side chambers of the temple and on the canopies.

The Chambers for the Priests

42 Then he [a]brought me out into the outer court, by the way toward the [b]north; and he brought me into [c]the chamber which was opposite the separating courtyard, and which was opposite the building toward the north.
2 Facing the length, which was one hundred cubits (the width was fifty cubits), was the north door.
3 Opposite the inner court of twenty cubits, and opposite the [a]pavement of the outer court, was [b]gallery against gallery in three stories.
4 In front of the chambers, toward the inside, was a walk ten cubits wide, at a distance of one cubit; and their doors faced north.
5 Now the upper chambers were shorter, because the galleries took away space from them more than from the lower and middle stories of the building.
6 For they were in three stories and did not have pillars like the pillars of the courts; therefore the upper level was [1]shortened more than the lower and middle levels from the ground up.
7 And a wall which was outside ran parallel to the chambers, at the front of the chambers, toward the outer court; its length was fifty cubits.
8 The length of the chambers toward the outer court was fifty cubits, whereas that facing the temple was one [a]hundred cubits.
9 At the lower chambers was the entrance on the east side, as one goes into them from the outer court.
10 Also there were chambers in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, opposite the separating courtyard and opposite the building.
11 [a]There was a walk in front of them also, and their appearance was like the chambers which were toward the north; they were as long and as wide as the others, and all their exits and entrances were according to plan.
12 And corresponding to the doors of the chambers that were facing south, as one enters them, there was a door in front of the walk, the way directly in front of the wall toward the east.
13 Then he said to me, "The north chambers and the south chambers, which are opposite the separating courtyard, are the holy chambers where the priests who approach the LORD [a]shall eat the most holy offerings. There they shall lay the most holy offerings—[b]the grain offering, the sin offering, and the trespass offering—for the place is holy.

41:18 The carvings of cherubim and palm trees were similar to the decorations from Solomon's temple (1 Kin. 6:29–36). The cherubim differed from the creatures of Ezekiel's earlier vision, which had four faces (1:10; 10:14); the palm trees carved in the woodwork symbolized peace.

42:13 The priests used these buildings and rooms to eat communal offering meals. According to the Mosaic system, the priest received a portion of the offerings to eat. Only a small part of the grain offering was burned; the rest went to the priests (Lev. 2:3, 10; 6:16–18; 7:14, 15). The priests received part of the trespass and sin offering (Lev. 6:26; 7:6, 7).

ENCOUNTER Note Ezek. 42:13

God Dwells with His People

The temple served as a reminder of God's desire to dwell among His people and to have fellowship with them. Jesus became flesh and lived among people, teaching them and interacting with them. Today you are God's temple. Your life is evidence that God continues to abide with his people.

14 [a]"When the priests enter them, they shall not go out of the holy chamber into the outer court; but there they shall leave their garments in which they minister, for they are holy. They shall put on other garments; then they may approach that which is for the people."

Outer Dimensions of the Temple

15 Now when he had finished measuring the inner [1]temple, he brought me out through the gateway that faces toward the [a]east, and measured it all around.
16 He measured the east side with the [1]measuring rod, five hundred rods by the measuring rod all around.
17 He measured the north side, five hundred rods by the measuring rod all around.
18 He measured the south side, five hundred rods by the measuring rod.
19 He came around to the west side and measured five hundred rods by the measuring rod.
20 He measured it on the four sides; [a]it had a wall all around, [b]five hundred cubits long and five hundred wide, to separate the holy areas from the [1]common.

The Temple, the LORD's Dwelling Place

43 Afterward he brought me to the gate, the gate [a]that faces toward the east.
2 [a]And behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east. [b]His voice was like the sound of many waters; [c]and the earth shone with His glory.
3 It was [a]like the appearance of the vision which I saw—like the vision which I saw when [1]I came [b]to destroy the city. The visions were like the vision which I saw [c]by the River Chebar; and I fell on my face.

WORD Study GLORY

Ezek. 43:2 God's glory was represented by a bright light. This light was typically referred to as the shekinah glory. It came from the Hebrew verb shakan, which means "to rest" or "to abide." This same term was used to describe God's appearance on Mount Sinai (Ex. 24:9–17).

4 [a]And the glory of the LORD came into the [1]temple by way of the gate which faces toward the east.
5 [a]The Spirit lifted me up and brought me into the inner court; and behold, [b]the glory of the LORD filled the [1]temple.
6 Then I heard Him speaking to me from the temple, while [a]a man stood beside me.
7 And He said to me, "Son of man, this is [a]the place of My throne and [b]the place of the soles of My feet, [c]where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel forever. [d]No more shall the house of Israel defile My holy name, they nor their kings, by their [1]harlotry or with [e]the carcasses of their kings on their high places.
8 [a]"When they set their threshold by My threshold, and their doorpost by My doorpost, with a wall between them and Me, they defiled My holy name by the abominations which they committed; therefore I have consumed them in My anger.
9 "Now let them put their harlotry and the carcasses of their kings far away from Me, and I will dwell in their midst forever.
10 "Son of man, [a]describe the [1]temple to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the pattern.
11 "And if they are ashamed of all that they have done, make known to them

ENCOUNTER Note Ezek. 43:10

God's Mercy

We are sinners visited by God. We do not earn the right to have God's presence among us. His presence should instill in us a humble sense of thankfulness for His mercy.

42:20 The description of this temple served as a positive counterpart to the negative vision presented in chapters eight through eleven. In stark contrast to the defiling corruption allowed into the temple, this one was marked by order and protected by a thick wall, keeping corruption from the holy place.

43:4 When Ezekiel first received his call, he saw God's glory in the bright, radiating glow from a fire (Ezek. 1:4). Later he witnessed the glory of God departing from the temple (10:4, 18, 19). The glory had departed to the east towards the Mount of Olives (11:22–25). Eventually God's glory left Judah. Now the prophet witnessed its return from the east.

the design of the [1]temple and its arrangement, its exits and its entrances, its entire design and all its [a]ordinances, all its forms and all its laws. Write it down in their sight, so that they may keep its whole design and all its ordinances, and [b]perform them.
12 "This is the law of the [1]temple: The whole area surrounding [a]the mountaintop is most holy. Behold, this is the law of the temple.

Dimensions of the Altar

13 "These are the measurements of the [a]altar in cubits [b](the [1]cubit is one cubit and a handbreadth): the base one cubit high and one cubit wide, with a rim all around its edge of one span. This is the height of the altar:
14 "from the base on the ground to the lower ledge, two cubits; the width of the ledge, one cubit; from the smaller ledge to the larger ledge, four cubits; and the width of the ledge, one cubit.
15 "The altar hearth is four cubits high, with four [a]horns extending upward from the [1]hearth.
16 "The altar hearth is twelve cubits long, twelve wide, [a]square at its four corners;
17 "the ledge, fourteen cubits long and fourteen wide on its four sides, with a rim of half a cubit around it; its base, one cubit all around; and [a]its steps face toward the east."

Consecrating the Altar

18 And He said to me, "Son of man, thus says the Lord GOD: 'These are the ordinances for the altar on the day when it is made, for sacrificing [a]burnt offerings on it, and for [b]sprinkling blood on it.
19 'You shall give [a]a young bull for a sin offering to [b]the priests, the Levites, who are of the seed of [c]Zadok, who approach Me to minister to Me,' says the Lord GOD.
20 'You shall take some of its blood and put it on the four horns of the altar, on the four corners of the ledge, and on the rim around it; thus you shall cleanse it and make atonement for it.
21 'Then you shall also take the bull of the sin offering, and [a]burn it in the appointed place of the [1]temple, [b]outside the sanctuary.
22 'On the second day you shall offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they cleansed it with the bull.
23 'When you have finished cleansing it, you shall offer a young bull without blemish, and a ram from the flock without blemish.
24 'When you offer them before the LORD, [a]the priests shall throw salt on them, and they will offer them up as a burnt offering to the LORD.
25 'Every day for [a]seven days you shall prepare a goat for a sin offering; they shall also prepare a young bull and a ram from the flock, both without blemish.
26 'Seven days they shall make atonement for the altar and purify it, and so [1]consecrate [2]it.
27 [a]'When these days are over it shall be, on the eighth day and thereafter, that the priests shall offer your burnt offerings and your peace offerings on the altar; and I will [b]accept you,' says the Lord GOD."

The East Gate and the Prince

44 Then He brought me back to the outer gate of the sanctuary [a]which faces toward the east, but it was shut.
2 And the LORD said to me, "This gate shall be shut; it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter by it, [a]because the LORD God of Israel has entered by it; therefore it shall be shut.
3 "As for the [a]prince, because he is the prince, he may sit in it to [b]eat bread before the LORD; he shall enter by way of the vestibule of the gateway, and go out the same way."

Those Admitted to the Temple

4 Also He brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the [1]temple; so I looked, and [a]behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD; [b]and I fell on my face.
5 And the LORD said to me, [a]"Son of man, [1]mark well, see with your eyes and hear with your ears, all that I say to you concerning all the [b]ordinances of the house of the LORD and all its laws. Mark well who may enter the house and all who go out from the sanctuary.
6 "Now say to the [a]rebellious, to the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "O house of Israel, [b]let Us have no more of all your abominations.
7 [a]"When you brought in [b]foreigners, [c]uncircumcised in heart and uncircum-

43:13 Just as God's glory had filled the tabernacle during Moses' time (Ex. 40:34–38) and it had inhabited the temple during Solomon's time (1 Kin. 8:10, 11), the vision assured Ezekiel that God's glory would rest among Israel's people once again.

44:2 The closing of the gate symbolized God's permanent presence within the temple. God had promised to abide with His people forever (Ezek. 43:7–9). He said the gates were not to be opened, thereby assuring His people that the tragedy of His departing would never happen again (11:23).

ENCOUNTER Note Ezek. 44:6

No More

When God forgives you and cleanses your life, He will challenge you to not return to your old ways. When you experience God's forgiveness and restoration, resolutely determine to live accordingly and obey Him.

cised in flesh, to be in My sanctuary to defile it—My house—and when you offered [d]My food, [e]the fat and the blood, then they broke My covenant because of all your abominations.
8 "And you have not [a]kept charge of My holy things, but you have set others to keep charge of My sanctuary for you."
9 'Thus says the Lord GOD: [a]"No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart or uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter My sanctuary, including any foreigner who is among the children of Israel.

Laws Governing Priests

10 [a]"And the Levites who went far from Me, when Israel went astray, who strayed away from Me after their idols, they shall bear their iniquity.
11 "Yet they shall be ministers in My sanctuary, [a]as gatekeepers of the house and ministers of the house; [b]they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and [c]they shall stand before them to minister to them.
12 "Because they ministered to them before their idols and [a]caused[1] the house of Israel to fall into iniquity, therefore I have [b]raised My hand in an oath against them," says the Lord GOD, "that they shall bear their iniquity.
13 [a]"And they shall not come near Me to minister to Me as priest, nor come near any of My holy things, nor into the Most Holy Place; but they shall [b]bear their shame and their abominations which they have committed.
14 "Nevertheless I will make them [a]keep charge of the temple, for all its work, and for all that has to be done in it.
15 [a]"But the priests, the Levites, [b]the sons of Zadok, who kept charge of My sanctuary [c]when the children of Israel went astray from Me, they shall come near Me to minister to Me; and they [d]shall stand before Me to offer to Me the [e]fat and the blood," says the Lord GOD.
16 "They shall [a]enter My sanctuary, and they shall come near [b]My table to minister to Me, and they shall keep My charge.
17 "And it shall be, whenever they enter the gates of the inner court, that [a]they shall put on linen garments; no wool shall come upon them while they minister within the gates of the inner court or within the house.
18 [a]"They shall have linen turbans on their heads and linen trousers on their bodies; they shall not clothe themselves with anything that causes sweat.
19 "When they go out to the outer court, to the outer court to the people, [a]they shall take off their garments in which they have ministered, leave them in the holy chambers, and put on other garments; and in their holy garments they shall [b]not sanctify the people.
20 [a]"They shall neither shave their heads nor let their hair grow [b]long, but they shall keep their hair well trimmed.
21 [a]"No priest shall drink wine when he enters the inner court.
22 "They shall not take as wife a [a]widow or a divorced woman, but take virgins of the descendants of the house of Israel, or widows of priests.
23 "And [a]they shall teach My people the difference between the holy and the unholy, and cause them to [b]discern between the unclean and the clean.
24 [a]"In controversy they shall stand as judges, and judge it according to My judgments. They shall keep My laws and My statutes in all My appointed meetings, [b]and they shall hallow My Sabbaths.
25 "They shall not defile themselves by coming near a dead person. Only for father or mother, for son or daughter, for brother or unmarried sister may they defile themselves.
26 [a]"After he is cleansed, they shall count seven days for him.
27 "And on the day that he goes to the sanctuary to minister in the sanctuary, [a]he must offer his sin offering [b]in the inner court," says the Lord GOD.
28 "It shall be, in regard to their inheritance, that I [a]am their inheritance. You shall give them no [b]possession in Israel, for I am their possession.

44:10 The Levites were to guard the sacredness of the sanctuary (Num. 18:1–7). However, at a time when Israel was departing from God, instead of deterring sin, the Levites promoted it. Therefore, they were demoted in their responsibilities at the temple.

44:15 Zadok was a priest in David's day along with Abiathar (2 Sam. 8:17). Zadok became the high priest through his support of Solomon in the midst of Adonijah's attempt to take the throne (1 Kin. 2:35). The Zadokite line of priests maintained its dominance throughout the second temple period until 171 B.C.

44:23 The priests were responsible for teaching God's people the difference between what was holy and unholy. Jesus instructed His followers to make disciples and teach them to practice "all He had commanded" (Matt. 28:20).

29 [a]"They shall eat the grain offering, the sin offering, and the trespass offering; [b]every dedicated thing in Israel shall be theirs.
30 "The [a]best[1] of all firstfruits of any kind, and every sacrifice of any kind from all your sacrifices, shall be the priest's; also you [b]shall give to the priest the first of your ground meal, [c]to cause a blessing to rest on your house.
31 "The priests shall not eat anything, bird or beast, that [a]died naturally or was torn by wild beasts.

The Holy District

45 "Moreover, when you [a]divide the land by lot into inheritance, you shall [b]set apart a district for the LORD, a holy section of the land; its length shall be twenty-five thousand cubits, and the width ten thousand. It shall be holy throughout its territory all around.
2 "Of this there shall be a square plot for the sanctuary, [a]five hundred by five hundred rods, with fifty cubits around it for an open space.
3 "So this is the district you shall measure: twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand wide; [a]in it shall be the sanctuary, the Most Holy Place.
4 "It shall be [a]a holy section of the land, belonging to the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who come near to minister to the LORD; it shall be a place for their houses and a holy place for the sanctuary.
5 [a]"An area twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand wide shall belong to the Levites, the ministers of the [1]temple; they shall have [b]twenty[2] chambers as a possession.

Properties of the City and the Prince

6 [a]"You shall appoint as the property of the city an area five thousand cubits wide and twenty-five thousand long, adjacent to the district of the holy section; it shall belong to the whole house of Israel.
7 [a]"The prince shall have a section on one side and the other of the holy district and the city's property; and bordering on the holy district and the city's property, extending westward on the west side and eastward on the east side, the length shall be side by side with one of the tribal portions, from the west border to the east border.
8 "The land shall be his possession in Israel; and [a]My princes shall no more oppress My people, but they shall give the rest of the land to the house of Israel, according to their tribes."

Laws Governing the Prince

9 'Thus says the Lord GOD: [a]"Enough, O princes of Israel! [b]Remove violence and plundering, execute justice and righteousness, and stop dispossessing My people," says the Lord GOD.

God observes the atrocities people commit against each other, and He will bring justice to the oppressed. The Lord is longsuffering and patient toward us, but there comes a point when He declares "enough!"

12 "The [a]shekel shall be twenty gerahs; twenty shekels, twenty-five shekels, and fifteen shekels shall be your mina.

45:8 This call to the princes not to take advantage of commoners, but to use their influence to promote righteousness instead is similar to Jeremiah's message (Jer. 22:3; 13–17).

45:10 At the temple, animals were sold for sacrifices and money was exchanged for acceptable temple coins. Corrupt priests seized this opportunity to cheat people through dishonest scales, weights, and measures. Such deception had been condemned previously (Lev. 19:35; Deut. 25:1–16; Prov 11:1; Amos 8:5; Mic. 6:10–12).

45:11 A homer was a dry measure of about five bushels. An ephah was one-tenth of a homer (half a bushel). A bath was a liquid measurement of about five and a half gallons.

45:12 A shekel weighed an average of about four-tenths of an ounce. A mina would have weighed approximately one and a half pounds.

Keeping the Feasts

18 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "In the first month, on the first day of the month, you shall take a young bull without blemish and [a]cleanse the sanctuary.
19 [a]"The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering and put it on the doorposts of the [1]temple, on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the gateposts of the gate of the inner court.
20 "And so you shall do on the seventh day of the month [a]for everyone who has sinned unintentionally or in ignorance. Thus you shall make atonement for the temple.
21 [a]"In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, you shall observe the Passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten.
22 "And on that day the prince shall prepare for himself and for all the people of the land [a]a bull for a sin offering.
23 "On the [a]seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to the LORD, seven bulls and seven rams without blemish, daily for seven days, [b]and a kid of the goats daily for a sin offering.
24 [a]"And he shall prepare a grain offering of one ephah for each bull and one ephah for each ram, together with a hin of oil for each ephah.
25 "In the seventh month, on the fifteenth day of the month, at the [a]feast, he shall do likewise for seven days, according to the sin offering, the burnt offering, the grain offering, and the oil."

The Manner of Worship

46 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "The gateway of the inner court that faces toward the east shall be shut the six [a]working days; but on the Sabbath it shall be opened, and on the day of the New Moon it shall be opened.
2 [a]"The prince shall enter by way of the vestibule of the gateway from the outside, and stand by the gatepost. The priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings. He shall worship at the threshold of the gate. Then he shall go out, but the gate shall not be shut until evening.

46:9 The system to enter and exit the gates prevented congestion when large numbers of people entered the temple. The temple reflected order; uncontrolled masses would have caused chaos.

perpetual ordinance, to be made regularly to the LORD.
15 "Thus they shall prepare the lamb, the grain offering, and the oil, as a [a]regular burnt offering every morning."

The Prince and Inheritance Laws

16 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "If the prince gives a gift of some of his inheritance to any of his sons, it shall belong to his sons; it is their possession by inheritance.
17 "But if he gives a gift of some of his inheritance to one of his servants, it shall be his until [a]the year of liberty, after which it shall return to the prince. But his inheritance shall belong to his sons; it shall become theirs.
18 "Moreover [a]the prince shall not take any of the people's inheritance by evicting them from their property; he shall provide an inheritance for his sons from his own property, so that none of My people may be scattered from his property." ' "

How the Offerings Were Prepared

19 Now he brought me through the entrance, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy [a]chambers of the priests which face toward the north; and there a place was situated at their extreme western end.
20 And he said to me, "This is the place where the priests shall [a]boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, and where they shall [b]bake the grain offering, so that they do not bring them out into the outer court [c]to sanctify the people."
21 Then he brought me out into the outer court and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and in fact, in every corner of the court there was another court.
22 In the four corners of the court were enclosed courts, forty cubits long and thirty wide; all four corners were the same size.
23 There was a row of building stones all around in them, all around the four of them; and [1]cooking hearths were made under the rows of stones all around.
24 And he said to me, "These are the [1]kitchens where the ministers of the [2]temple shall [a]boil the sacrifices of the people."

The Healing Waters and Trees

47 Then he brought me back to the door of the [1]temple; and there was [a]water, flowing from under the threshold of the temple toward the east, for the front of the temple faced east; the water was flowing from under the right side of the temple, south of the altar.
2 He brought me out by way of the north gate, and led me around on the outside to the outer gateway that faces [a]east; and there was water, running out on the right side.
3 And when [a]the man went out to the east with the line in his hand, he measured one thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the water came up to my ankles.
4 Again he measured one thousand and brought me through the waters; the water came up to my knees. Again he measured one thousand and brought me through; the water came up to my waist.
5 Again he measured one thousand, and it was a river that I could not cross; for the water was too deep, water in which one must swim, a river that could not be crossed.
6 He said to me, "Son of man, have you seen this?" Then he brought me and returned me to the bank of the river.

46:17 The year of liberty occurred every seven years and specified that bondservants were to be freed (Jer. 34:14). However, this was most likely a reference to the Jubilee (Lev. 25:8–16, 23–55; 27:16–25) which Israel celebrated every fifty years. On that year no sowing, reaping, or gathering from the vine was to be done, so the land could have a year of rest. In addition, property an owner had sold due to poverty was returned to him or to his lawful heir at no cost. Any impoverished Israelites who had been sold into slavery were freed.

9 "And it shall be that every living thing that moves, wherever [1]the rivers go, will live. There will be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters go there; for they will be healed, and everything will live wherever the river goes.
10 "It shall be that fishermen will stand by it from En Gedi to En Eglaim; they will be places for spreading their nets. Their fish will be of the same kinds as the fish [a]of the Great Sea, exceedingly many.

They will bear fruit every month, because their water flows from the sanctuary. Their fruit will be for food, and their leaves for [c]medicine."[1]

Borders of the Land

13 Thus says the Lord GOD: "These are the [a]borders by which you shall divide the land as an inheritance among the twelve tribes of Israel. [b]Joseph shall have two portions.
14 "You shall inherit it equally with one another; for I [a]raised My hand in an oath to give it to your fathers, and this land shall [b]fall to you as your inheritance.
15 "This shall be the border of the land on the north: from the Great Sea, by [a]the road to Hethlon, as one goes to [b]Zedad, 17 "Thus the boundary shall be from the Sea to [a]Hazar Enan, the border of Damascus; and as for the north, northward, it is the border of Hamath. This is the north side.

18 "On the east side you shall mark out the border from between Hauran and Damascus, and between Gilead and the land of Israel, along the Jordan, and along the eastern side of the sea. This is the east side.
19 "The south side, toward the [1]South, shall be from Tamar to [a]the waters of [2]Meribah by Kadesh, along the brook to the Great Sea. This is the south side, toward the South.
20 "The west side shall be the Great Sea, from the southern boundary until one comes to a point opposite Hamath. This is the west side.
21 "Thus you shall [a]divide this land among yourselves according to the tribes of Israel.
22 "It shall be that you will divide it by [a]lot as an inheritance for yourselves, [b]and for the strangers who dwell among you and who bear children among you. [c]They shall be to you as native-born among the children of Israel; they shall have an inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel.
23 "And it shall be that in whatever tribe the stranger dwells, there you shall give him his inheritance," says the Lord GOD.

Division of the Land

48 "Now these are the names of the tribes: [a]From the northern border along the road to Hethlon at the entrance of Hamath, to Hazar Enan, the border of Damascus northward, in the direction of Hamath, there shall be one section for [b]Dan from its east to its west side;

47:9 Ezekiel knew the people were devastated by God's apparent abandonment of them and their resulting captivity in Babylon. They needed encouragement and they longed for freedom from their bondage. In the same manner as the vision of the dry bones lifted the death curse (37:1–14), this vision announced the renewal of the land.

47:12 The abundant waters in Ezekiel's vision bring life to the land's dead regions. This life-giving river has a correlation with the New Testament, when Jesus stated "the one who believes in Christ, out of his heart shall flow rivers of living water" (John 7:38). John recognized that Ezekiel's vision presented imagery of the curse being lifted from the earth (Rev 22:1, 2).

47:15 Although the northern border is described in detail, none of the place names are identifiable. The list is similar to the border described in Numbers 34:7–9 which corresponded to the northern limits of the land of Canaan.

48:1 The allocation of the land excluded the Levites and provided both of Joseph's sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, with portions (Josh. 13–19). This allotment repudiated the nation's administrative division under Solomon's rule (1 Kin. 7–19).

8 "by the border of Judah, from the east side to the west, shall be [a]the district which you shall set apart, twenty-five thousand cubits in width, and in length the same as one of the other portions, from the east side to the west, with the [b]sanctuary in the center.
9 "The district that you shall set apart for the LORD shall be twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand in width.
10 "To these—to the priests—the holy district shall belong: on the north twenty-five thousand cubits in length, on the west ten thousand in width, on the east ten thousand in width, and on the south twenty-five thousand in length. The sanctuary of the LORD shall be in the center.
11 [a]"It shall be for the priests of the sons of Zadok, who are sanctified, who have kept My charge, who did not go astray when the children of Israel went astray, [b]as the Levites went astray.

Rewarded for Faithfulness

Do not be deterred when it appears no one else remains faithful to God. The Lord sees your life and He knows if you are true to Him. Be assured that if you continue in God's ways even when others are falling away, God will acknowledge and reward your faithfulness.

12 "And this district of land that is set apart shall be to them a thing most [a]holy by the border of the Levites.
13 "Opposite the border of the priests, the [a]Levites shall have an area twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand in width; its entire length shall be twenty-five thousand and its width ten thousand.
14 [a]"And they shall not sell or exchange any of it; they may not alienate this best part of the land, for it is holy to the LORD.
15 [a]"The five thousand cubits in width that remain, along the edge of the twenty-five thousand, shall be [b]for general use by the city, for dwellings and common-land; and the city shall be in the center.
16 "These shall be its measurements: the north side four thousand five hundred cubits, the south side four thousand five hundred, the east side four thousand five hundred, and the west side four thousand five hundred.

48:35 In the exilic years, Ezekiel had seen the calamity that ensued after God withdrew from His people. Ezekiel's closing words promised that the Lord would forgive and restore His people and establish Himself permanently among them. The apostle John, on the island of Patmos, would see the fulfillment of this prophet's vision in the coming of Christ as Immanuel. John, too, anticipated a time when God would dwell among humanity in a "new Jerusalem" (Rev. 21:2, 3).

THE BOOK OF DANIEL

INTRODUCTION

The book is named after the author and primary personality, Daniel. "Daniel" means "God is my judge" and aptly characterizes the prophet's beliefs and practices. Daniel and Ezekiel were the only prophets to conduct their entire ministries while in captivity. Daniel was deported to Babylon as a teenager, selected to serve in the king's court, and appointed by God to be His spokesman for the seventy year period of Judah's exile. Daniel communicated God's message in a form distinct from that of other Old Testament writers. He used apocalyptic writing which involved elaborate visions and images describing future events among God's people and in the supernatural world. Other books such as Isaiah, Zechariah, and Ezekiel make some use of this genre, but not to the same extent as Daniel. The Book of Revelation is an example of apocalyptic writing in the New Testament.

SIGNIFICANCE

Through Daniel, God addressed the Jewish community during their seventy years of Babylonian exile. Political turmoil enveloped the nation as the prophet witnessed the demise of the Babylonian empire and the rise of the Medo-Persian empire. The Judahite people felt overwhelmed by the competing empires. They were confused about their role as a nation. Daniel presented a message of hope and he challenged them to hold to their heritage as God's chosen people. Daniel's visions inspired the people and gave them strength to continue in spite of their oppression. The example of faithfulness set down by Daniel and his friends, and God's response of deliverance demonstrated the strength and protection in honoring the covenant relationship with God. The Hebrew people were not alone in this struggle; God had sent his angels (Gabriel and Michael) to battle on their behalf in the supernatural world. The Jews were an insignificant people in the world's eyes, but in reality they were defended by the very power of heaven.

STRUCTURE

The book can be divided into two main sections. The first, chapters 1–6, presents the stories of Daniel's life. This section consists of six subsections: the introduction of Daniel, his friends, and the general setting in Babylon (1:1–21); Nebuchadnezzar's first dream and its interpretation (2:1–49); the indictment and deliverance of the three Hebrews (3:1–30); Nebuchadnezzar's second dream (4:1–37); the judgment of Belshazzar and the demise of Babylon (5:1–31); and Daniel's experience in the lion's den (6:1–28). The second section, chapters 7–12, presents Daniel's four visions: the night vision (7:1–28); the vision of the ram, goat, and little horn (8:1–27); Daniel's prayer and the vision of the seventy weeks (9:1–27); his final vision and prophecies (10:1—12:13).

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH DANIEL

The Book of Daniel can be difficult to understand. Hence, there are numerous differing opinions regarding its interpretation. However, the many important truths presented have the power to challenge and encourage. Christians are strongly incited to persevere in opposition and danger. Do not lose heart when circumstances look dire, because God is faithful and He will preserve you. Daniel makes it clear there is often a cost for asserting your loyalty to God and to His ways. Christians must risk standing up for Christ while trusting in God's deliverance. Daniel teaches and models the absolute necessity of a consistent prayer life. Through constant communication with God, Christians gain strength, wisdom, and peace in a tumultuous world. Christians can take heart because God knows those who actively oppose Him and His people, and in time He will defeat them. Those who remain faithful will be rewarded.

Daniel and His Friends Obey God

CHAPTER 1

1 IN the third year of the reign of [a]Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it.
2 And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with [a]some of the articles of [1]the house of God, which he carried [b]into the land of Shinar to the house of his god; [c]and he brought the articles into the treasure house of his god.
3 Then the king instructed Ashpenaz, the master of his eunuchs, to bring [a]some of the children of Israel and some of the king's descendants and some of the nobles,
4 young men [a]in whom there was no blemish, but good-looking, gifted in all wisdom, possessing knowledge and quick to understand, who had ability to serve in the king's palace, and [b]whom they might teach the language and [1]literature of the Chaldeans.
5 And the king appointed for them a daily provision of the king's delicacies and of the wine which he drank, and three years of training for them, so that at the end of that time they might [a]serve before the king.
6 Now from among those of the sons of Judah were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah.
7 [a]To them the chief of the eunuchs gave names: [b]he gave Daniel the name Belteshazzar; to Hananiah, Shadrach; to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abed-Nego.
8 But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself [a]with the portion of the king's delicacies, nor with the wine which he drank; therefore he requested of the chief of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

WORD*Study* DEFILE

Dan. 1:8 "Defile" comes from the Hebrew word ga'al, meaning to pollute, to desecrate, or to stain oneself. It is unclear why Daniel believed the king's food would defile him. The food served may have violated the Levitical food laws (Lev. 3:17; 11:1–47) or Daniel's objections may have been on moral grounds. In the ancient Near Eastern culture, to share a meal was to commit oneself to friendship, so the act carried covenant significance (Gen. 31:54; Ex. 24:11; Neh. 8:10–12).

CHARACTER*Study* DANIEL Dan. 1:6

Daniel was born into noble lineage. In his early teens he was taken captive to Babylon by King Nebuchadnezzar's forces in 605 B.C. Daniel's name means "God is my judge" but for the sake of convenience, the Babylonians changed his name to Belteshazzar, meaning "protect his life," referring to the king's protection. During his early years in exile, Daniel was prepared for service in the king's palace through the study of Babylonian language and literature (Dan. 1:4), and was given a daily provision from the king's table (1:5). Through the hand of God, Daniel rose to prominence in the government of the Babylonian kings Nebuchadnezzar (2:48) and Belshazzar (5:29), and the Medo-Persian king Darius (6:3). From his first days in exile, Daniel determined to resist defiling himself (1:8) through the pagan culture of his captors. God helped Daniel interpret the dreams and visions of kings and used Daniel to deliver words of hope and encouragement to his own people. Daniel demonstrated his faith in God through regular prayers and unwavering obedience. Even in the face of death, Daniel did not compromise or conceal his allegiance to God (6:10); he trusted his life to God's mercy. He also carried a deep burden for God's people and interceded before God for their deliverance and restoration (9:1–19). In his intercession for the people's sins, he included himself with his brethren in compassionate concern that their lives would honor God. Daniel's life embodied steadfast faith and obedience, and his example challenges every Christian to a lifelong practice of consistently seeking the Lord.

1:1 Jehoiakim was the son of Josiah. He was put on the throne by the Egyptian pharaoh Necho in 609 B.C. (2 Chr. 36:4). The biblical account does not clearly state whether he was taken to Babylon by Nebuchadnezzar in 597 B.C. (2 Kin. 24:5, 6; 2 Chr. 36:6).

1:7 The renaming of foreigners who would serve in the king's court was a simple matter of linguistic convenience rather than ideology.

9 Now [a]God had brought Daniel into the favor and [1]goodwill of the chief of the eunuchs.

ENCOUNTER Note Dan. 1:9

Favor and Goodwill

In the middle of arduous circumstances, God may choose to give you favor with those who have authority over you. Do not get discouraged, but prepare your heart to be a witness for God should He place your life under the goodwill of leaders.

10 And the chief of the eunuchs said to Daniel, "I fear my lord the king, who has appointed your food and drink. For why should he see your faces looking worse than the young men who are your age? Then you would endanger my head before the king."
11 So Daniel said to [1]the steward whom the chief of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, 12 "Please test your servants for ten days, and let them give us vegetables to eat and water to drink.
13 "Then let our appearance be examined before you, and the appearance of the young men who eat the portion of the king's delicacies; and as you see fit, so deal with your servants."
14 So he consented with them in this matter, and tested them ten days.
15 And at the end of ten days their features appeared better and fatter in flesh than all the young men who ate the portion of the king's delicacies.
16 Thus [1]the steward took away their portion of delicacies and the wine that they were to drink, and gave them vegetables.
17 As for these four young men, [a]God gave them [b]knowledge and skill in all literature and wisdom; and Daniel had [c]understanding in all visions and dreams.
18 Now at the end of the days, when the king had said that they should be brought in, the chief of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.
19 Then the king [1]interviewed them, and among them all none was found like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah; therefore [a]they served before the king.
20 [a]And in all matters of wisdom and understanding about which the king examined them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers who were in all his realm.
21 [a]Thus Daniel continued until the first year of King Cyrus.

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream

2 Now in the second year of Nebuchadnezzar's reign, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams; [a]and his spirit was so troubled that [b]his sleep left him.
2 [a]Then the king gave the command to call the magicians, the astrologers, the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans to tell the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.
3 And the king said to them, "I have had a dream, and my spirit is anxious to [1]know the dream."
4 Then the Chaldeans spoke to the king in Aramaic, [a]"O[1] king, live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will give the interpretation."
5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, "My [1]decision is firm: if you do not make known the dream to me, and its interpretation, you shall be [a]cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made an ash heap.
6 [a]"However, if you tell the dream and its interpretation, you shall receive from me gifts, rewards, and great honor. Therefore tell me the dream and its interpretation."
7 They answered again and said, "Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will give its interpretation."
8 The king answered and said, "I know for certain that you would gain time, because you see that my decision is firm:
9 "if you do not make known the dream to me, there is only one decree for you! For you have agreed to speak lying and corrupt words before me till the [1]time has changed. Therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that you can [2]give me its interpretation."
10 The Chaldeans answered the king, and said, "There is not a man on earth who can tell the king's matter; therefore no king, lord, or ruler has ever asked

1:17 God gave Daniel wisdom in the areas most important to King Nebuchadnezzar. A person with the gift of interpreting dreams was highly regarded in Babylon.

2:1 Babylonians considered dreams messages from the gods; they carried great importance for the recipients. The nature of Nebuchadnezzar's dream suggested bad news for the king and his kingdom, which understandably caused him anxiety and sleeplessness.

2:5 These verses hint that the king had forgotten much of the dream he was seeking to have interpreted. The ancient world believed that forgetting your dreams signified the gods were angry with you. Therefore, the king would not have wanted to admit his memory lapse.

11 "It is a [1]difficult thing that the king requests, and there is no other who can tell it to the king [a]except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh."
12 For this reason the king was angry and very furious, and gave the command to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.
13 So the decree went out, and they began killing the wise men; and they sought [a]Daniel and his companions, to kill them.

God Reveals Nebuchadnezzar's Dream

14 Then with counsel and wisdom Daniel answered Arioch, the captain of the king's guard, who had gone out to kill the wise men of Babylon;
15 he answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, "Why is the decree from the king so [1]urgent?" Then Arioch made the decision known to Daniel.
16 So Daniel went in and asked the king to give him time, that he might tell the king the interpretation.
17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the decision known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions, 18 [a]that they might seek mercies from the God of heaven concerning this secret, so that Daniel and his companions might not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

ENCOUNTER Note Dan. 2:18

Praying Together

Christians do not have to face challenges alone; they can join their hearts in prayer with other believers to seek God's guidance. If you are in a precarious situation, look to see whom God has placed alongside you to intercede in prayer and to help carry the burden.

19 Then the secret was revealed to Daniel [a]in a night vision. So Daniel blessed the God of heaven.
20 Daniel answered and said:

[a]"Blessed be the name of God forever and ever,
[b]For wisdom and might are His.
21 And He changes [a]the times and the seasons;
[b]He removes kings and raises up kings;
[c]He gives wisdom to the wise
And knowledge to those who have understanding.
22 [a]He reveals deep and secret things;
[b]He knows what is in the darkness,
And [c]light dwells with Him.

23 "I thank You and praise You,
O God of my fathers;
You have given me wisdom and might,
And have now made known to me what we [a]asked of You,
For You have made known to us the king's [1]demand."

Daniel Explains the Dream

24 Therefore Daniel went to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon. He went and said thus to him: "Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon; take me before the king, and I will tell the king the interpretation."
25 Then Arioch quickly brought Daniel before the king, and said thus to him, "I have found a man of the [1]captives of Judah, who will make known to the king the interpretation."
26 The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, "Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and its interpretation?"
27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, "The secret which the king has demanded, the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, and the soothsayers cannot declare to the king.
28 [a]"But there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets, and He has made known to King Nebuchadnezzar [b]what will be in the latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head upon your bed, were these:
29 "As for you, O king, thoughts came to your mind while on your bed, about what would come to pass after this; [a]and He who reveals secrets has made known to you what will be.
30 [a]"But as for me, this secret has not been revealed to me because I have more wisdom than anyone living, but for our sakes who make known the interpretation to the king, [b]and that you may [1]know the thoughts of your heart.

2:21 Babylon had the greatest scientists and astrologers in the ancient world, but their wisdom could not compare to that of Daniel's God. The apostle Paul stated that "the foolishness of God is wiser than men" (1 Cor. 1:25). The world acquires more and more knowledge, but God's wisdom is supreme. Proverbs 1:20, 21 portrays wisdom crying out in the streets to all who would receive it. James reminds Christians, "If anyone lacks wisdom, let him ask of God who gives to all liberally" (James 1:5). Clearly, God is the source of true wisdom.

hold, a great image! This great image, whose splendor was excellent, stood before you; and its form was awesome.
32 [a]"This image's head was of fine gold, its chest and arms of silver, its belly and [1]thighs of bronze, 33 "its legs of iron, its feet partly of iron and partly of [1]clay.
34 "You watched while a stone was cut out [a]without hands, which struck the image on its feet of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces.
35 [a]"Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold were crushed together, and became [b]like chaff from the summer threshing floors; the wind carried them away so that [c]no trace of them was found. And the stone that struck the image [d]became a great mountain [e]and filled the whole earth.
36 "This is the dream. Now we will tell the interpretation of it before the king.
37 [a]"You, O king, are a king of kings. [b]For the God of heaven has given you a kingdom, power, strength, and glory;
38 [a]"and wherever the children of men dwell, or the beasts of the field and the birds of the heaven, He has given them into your hand, and has made you ruler over them all—[b]you are this head of gold.
39 "But after you shall arise [a]another kingdom [b]inferior to yours; then another, a third kingdom of bronze, which shall rule over all the earth.
40 "And [a]the fourth kingdom shall be as strong as iron, inasmuch as iron breaks in pieces and shatters everything; and like iron that crushes, that kingdom will break in pieces and crush all the others.
41 "Whereas you saw the feet and toes, partly of potter's clay and partly of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; yet the strength of the iron shall be in it, just as you saw the iron mixed with ceramic clay.
42 "And as the toes of the feet were partly of iron and partly of clay, [a]so the kingdom shall be partly strong and partly [1]fragile.
43 "As you saw iron mixed with ceramic clay, they will mingle with the seed of men; but they will not adhere to one another, just as iron does not mix with clay.
44 "And in the days of these kings [a]the God of heaven will set up a kingdom [b]which shall never be destroyed; and the kingdom shall not be left to other people; [c]it shall [1]break in pieces and [2]consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever.
45 [a]"Inasmuch as you saw that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold—the great God has made known to the king what will come to pass after this. The dream is certain, and its interpretation is sure."

Daniel and His Friends Promoted

46 [a]Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face, prostrate before Daniel, and commanded that they should present an offering [b]and incense to him.
47 The king answered Daniel, and said, "Truly [a]your God is the God of [b]gods, the Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, since you could reveal this secret."
48 [a]Then the king promoted Daniel [b]and gave him many great gifts; and he made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and [c]chief administrator over all the wise men of Babylon.
49 Also Daniel petitioned the king, [a]and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego over the affairs of the province of Babylon; but Daniel [b]sat in [1]the gate of the king.

The Image of Gold

3 Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was [1]sixty cubits and its width six cubits. He set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.
2 And King Nebuchadnezzar sent word to gather together the satraps, the administrators, the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.
3 So the satraps, the administrators, the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces gathered together for the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.
4 Then a herald cried [1]aloud: "To you it is commanded, [a]O peoples, nations, and languages,

CHAPTER 3

4 [a]Dan. 4:1; 6:25 [1]Lit. with strength

2:48 Daniel's appointment to oversee the province of Babylon required him to hold office in the capital of the empire, keeping in close contact with the king. The promotion to chief administrator also necessitated his residence in the king's court.

2:49 Daniel took no credit for the interpretation (Dan. 2:30) before the king. He recognized God's answer as a response to his prayers combined with intercession from his three friends (2:23). His humility also prompted Daniel to immediately share the rewards with the other men who had supported and prayed with him.

music, you shall fall down and worship the gold image that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up;
6 "and whoever does not fall down and worship shall [a]be cast immediately into the midst of a burning fiery furnace."
7 So at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the horn, flute, harp, and lyre, in symphony with all kinds of music, all the people, nations, and languages fell down and worshiped the gold image which King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Daniel's Friends Disobey the King

8 Therefore at that time certain Chaldeans [a]came forward and accused the Jews.

WORD*Study* ACCUSED

Dan. 3:8 This word here literally translates "ate the pieces of," and it indicates a malicious hatred towards the Jews. These accusers were no doubt jealous of the favor these foreign men received from the king.

9 They spoke and said to King Nebuchadnezzar, [a]"O king, live forever!
10 "You, O king, have made a decree that everyone who hears the sound of the horn, flute, harp, lyre, and psaltery, in symphony with all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the gold image;
11 "and whoever does not fall down and worship shall be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.
12 [a]"There are certain Jews whom you have set over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego; these men, O king, have [b]not paid due regard to you. They do not serve your gods or worship the gold image which you have set up."
13 Then Nebuchadnezzar, in [a]rage and fury, gave the command to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego. So they brought these men before the king.
14 Nebuchadnezzar spoke, saying to them, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, that you do not serve my gods or worship the gold image which I have set up?
15 "Now if you are ready at the time you hear the sound of the horn, flute, harp, lyre, and psaltery, in symphony with all kinds of music, and you fall down and worship the image which I have made, [a]good! But if you do not worship, you shall be cast immediately into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. [b]And who is the god who will deliver you from my hands?"
16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego answered and said to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, [a]we have no need to answer you in this matter.
17 "If that is the case, our [a]God whom we serve is able to [b]deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and He will deliver us from your hand, O king.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Dan. 3:17

Our God Is Able

As we face life's challenges, do we believe God is able to meet our every need? Nothing is impossible for Him! He can intervene on our behalf at any moment. The question is: Do we live like we believe this truth?

18 "But if not, let it be known to you, O king, that we do not serve your gods, nor will we [a]worship the gold image which you have set up."

HISTORICAL*Encounter* HENRY BLACKABY Dan. 3:17

In the 1970s, Henry Blackaby was enjoying a successful pastorate in California when God called him to move to a small, struggling church in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan in Canada. The church had meager resources and only a few discouraged members. Blackaby was drawn to Daniel 3:17, which became the theme verse for his life: "Our God whom we serve is able . . . and He will . . ." Confident from this scripture that God would enable him to accomplish any assignment God gave him, Blackaby moved to Saskatoon and set out to walk with the Lord by faith. He saw almost forty churches started by his church and their missions. Ultimately he shared what God taught him in his book Experiencing God: Knowing and Doing the Will of God. God has used this book to encourage millions of people to relate to Him personally and to seek to know and to do His will.

3:16 These three men were resolved to worship their God, confident He would act on their behalf. They did not argue with the king or defend themselves. They simply proclaimed their faith and put their lives in the hands of the one true God.

changed toward Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego. He spoke and commanded that they heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated.
20 And he commanded certain mighty men of valor who were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, and cast them into the burning fiery furnace.
21 Then these men were bound in their coats, their trousers, their turbans, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.
22 Therefore, because the king's command was [1]urgent, and the furnace exceedingly hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego.
23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.
24 Then King Nebuchadnezzar was astonished; and he rose in haste and spoke, saying to his [1]counselors, "Did we not cast three men bound into the midst of the fire?" They answered and said to the king, "True, O king."
25 "Look!" he answered, "I see four men loose, [a]walking in the midst of the fire; and they are not hurt, and the form of the fourth is like [b]the[1] Son of God."

Nebuchadnezzar Praises God

26 Then Nebuchadnezzar went near the [1]mouth of the burning fiery furnace and spoke, saying, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, servants of the [a]Most High God, come out, and come here." Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego came from the midst of the fire.
27 And the satraps, administrators, governors, and the king's counselors gathered together, and they saw these men [a]on whose bodies the fire had no power; the hair of their head was not singed nor were their garments affected, and the smell of fire was not on them.
28 Nebuchadnezzar spoke, saying, "Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, who sent His [a]Angel[1] and delivered His servants who trusted in Him, and they have frustrated the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they should not serve nor worship any god except their own God!
29 [a]"Therefore I make a decree that any people, nation, or language which speaks anything amiss against the [b]God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego shall be [c]cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made an ash heap; [d]because there is no other God who can deliver like this."
30 Then the king [1]promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego in the province of Babylon.

Nebuchadnezzar's Second Dream

4 Nebuchadnezzar the king,

[a]To all peoples, nations, and languages that dwell in all the earth:

Peace be multiplied to you.

2 I thought it good to declare the signs and wonders [a]that the Most High God has worked for me.

3 [a]How great are His signs,
And how mighty His wonders!
His kingdom is [b]an everlasting kingdom,
And His dominion is from generation to generation.

4 I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace.
5 I saw a dream which made me afraid, [a]and the thoughts on my bed and the visions of my head [b]troubled me.
6 Therefore I issued a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream.
7 [a]Then the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers came in, and I told them the dream; but they did not make known to me its interpretation.
8 But at last Daniel came before me [a](his name is Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god; [b]in him is the Spirit of the Holy God), and I told the dream before him, saying:
9 "Belteshazzar, [a]chief of the magicians, because I know that the Spirit of the Holy God is in you, and no secret troubles you, explain to me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and its interpretation.

Confidence in God

When you walk with the Lord, the problems you face should not distress you. Because the answers rest in God, you can confidently seek His guidance. As you honor Him, He will provide you with understanding and direction for the tough questions and issues of life.

I was looking, and behold,
[a]A tree in the midst of the earth,
And its height was great.
11 The tree grew and became strong;
Its height reached to the heavens,
And it could be seen to the ends of all the earth.
12 Its leaves were lovely,
Its fruit abundant,
And in it was food for all.
[a]The beasts of the field found shade under it,
The birds of the heavens dwelt in its branches,
And all flesh was fed from it.

13 "I saw in the visions of my head while on my bed, and there was [a]a watcher, [b]a holy one, coming down from heaven.
14 He cried [1]aloud and said thus:

[a]'Chop down the tree and cut off its branches,
Strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit.
[b]Let the beasts get out from under it,
And the birds from its branches.
15 Nevertheless leave the stump and roots in the earth,
Bound with a band of iron and bronze,
In the tender grass of the field.
Let it be wet with the dew of heaven,
And let him graze with the beasts
On the grass of the earth.
16 Let his heart be changed from that of a man,
Let him be given the heart of a beast,
And let seven [a]times[1] pass over him.

17 'This decision is by the decree of the watchers,
And the sentence by the word of the holy ones,
In order [a]that the living may know
[b]That the Most High rules in the kingdom of men,
[c]Gives it to whomever He will,
And sets over it the [d]lowest of men.'

18 "This dream I, King Nebuchadnezzar, have seen. Now you, Belteshazzar, declare its interpretation, [a]since all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation; but you are able, [b]for the Spirit of the Holy God is in you."

Daniel Explains the Second Dream

19 Then Daniel, [a]whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonished for a time, and his thoughts [b]troubled him. So the king spoke, and said, "Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or its interpretation trouble you." Belteshazzar answered and said, "My lord, may [c]the dream [1]concern those who hate you, and its interpretation [2]concern your enemies!

22 [a]it is you, O king, who have grown and become strong; for your greatness has grown and reaches to the heavens, [b]and your dominion to the end of the earth.
23 [a]And inasmuch as the king saw a watcher, a holy one, coming down from heaven and saying, 'Chop down the tree and destroy it, but leave its stump and roots in the earth, bound with a band of iron and bronze in the tender grass of the field; let it be wet with the dew of heaven, [b]and let him graze with the beasts of the field, till seven [1]times pass over him';
24 this is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the Most High, which has come upon my lord the king:

WORD*Study* RIGHTEOUS

Dan. 4:27 The word translated "righteous" here, tsidkah, is only found in this verse. It means to break away from bad habits and start practicing good ones. Its root can be seen in Genesis 27:40 and Exodus 32:2. Daniel chose a strong word so it would move the king to change his evil ways and turn to the Lord.

Nebuchadnezzar's Humiliation

28 All this came upon King Nebuchadnezzar.

29 At the end of the twelve months he was walking [1]about the royal palace of Babylon.

30 The king [a]spoke, saying, "Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for a royal dwelling by my mighty power and for the honor of my majesty?"

31 [a]While the word was still in the king's mouth, [b]a voice fell from heaven: "King Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken: the kingdom has departed from you!

32 And [a]they shall drive you from men, and your dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field. They shall make you eat grass like oxen; and seven [1]times shall pass over you, until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever He chooses."

33 That very hour the word was fulfilled concerning Nebuchadnezzar; he was driven from men and ate grass like oxen; his body was wet with the dew of heaven till his hair had grown like eagles' feathers and his nails like birds' claws.

4:30 God had given the king numerous opportunities to turn to Him, but he did not repent in spite of witnessing the miraculous signs. Rather, his pride caused him to bask in his accomplishments. While he was alone, the king marveled at himself and God heard his words and thoughts. As Christians, we must remember God knows our heart and our thoughts, and He requires purity in both areas.

Nebuchadnezzar, lifted my eyes to

Most High and praised and honored
Him [b]who lives forever:

dominion,
And His kingdom is from army of heaven

And among the inhabitants of the earth.
[c]No one can restrain His hand
Or say to Him, [d]"What have You done?"

36 At the same time my reason returned to me, [a]and for the glory of my kingdom, my honor and splendor returned to me. My counselors and nobles resorted to me, I was [b]restored to my kingdom, and excellent majesty was [c]added

Belshazzar's Feast

5 Belshazzar the king [a]made a great feast for a thousand of his lords, and drank wine in the presence of the thousand.
2 While he tasted the wine, Belshazzar gave the command to bring the gold and silver vessels [a]which his [1]father Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple which had been in Jerusalem, that the king and his lords, his wives, and his concubines might drink from them.
3 Then they brought the gold [a]vessels that had been taken from the temple of the house of God which had been in Jerusalem; and the king and his lords, his wives, and his concubines drank from them.
4 They drank wine, [a]and praised the gods of gold and silver, bronze and iron, wood and stone.
5 [a]In the same hour the fingers of a man's hand appeared and wrote opposite the lampstand on the plaster of the wall of the king's palace; and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.
6 Then the king's countenance changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his hips were loosened and his [a]knees knocked against each other.
7 [a]The king cried [1]aloud to bring in [b]the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. The king spoke, saying to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever reads this writing, and tells me its interpretation, shall be clothed with purple and have a chain of gold around his neck; [c]and he shall be the third ruler in the kingdom."
8 Now all the king's wise men came,
[a]but they could not read the writing, or make known to the king its interpretation.
9 Then King Belshazzar was greatly
[a]troubled, his countenance was changed, and his lords were [1]astonished.
10 The queen, because of the words of the king and his lords, came to the banquet hall. The queen spoke, saying, "O king, live forever! Do not let your thoughts trouble you, nor let your countenance change.
11 [a]"There is a man in your kingdom in whom is the Spirit of the Holy God. And in the days of your [1]father, light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in him; and King Nebuchadnezzar your father—your father the king—made him chief of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers.
12 "Inasmuch as an excellent spirit, knowledge, understanding, interpreting dreams, solving riddles, and [1]explaining enigmas were found in this Daniel,
[a]whom the king named Belteshazzar, now let Daniel be called, and he will give the interpretation."

4:37 The king genuinely acknowledged God and recognized it was God who had humbled him. Nebuchadnezzar would agree with the Psalmist who stated that God's affliction was good for him because it taught him God's statutes (Ps 119:71). Even though the king's suffering was great, the result was a clear understanding of God's authority. This example of God pursuing a pagan king shows His concern that all leaders and nations understand and submit to His authority.

5:2 The word "tasting" means more than an initial sample; it implies drinking much wine and feeling its effects. The king was most likely intoxicated. That his judgment was impaired was reflected in his order to put sacred vessels from another religion to common use.

5:12 It appears King Belshazzar did not know Daniel, or maybe did not remember him, having been inebriated. Nebuchadnezzar had been dead for twenty-three years and Daniel would have been in his eighties at this point. The queen's description of Daniel's ability to explain enigmas could be described as someone who could easily untie knotty things or solve difficulties.

Daniel, "Are you that Daniel [1]who is one of the captives from Judah, whom my [2]father the king brought from Judah?
14 "I have heard of you, that [a]the [1]Spirit of God is in you, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in you.
15 "Now [a]the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing and make known to me its interpretation, but they could not give the interpretation of the thing.
16 "And I have heard of you, that you can give interpretations and [1]explain enigmas. [a]Now if you can read the writing and make known to me its interpretation, you shall be clothed with purple and have a chain of gold around your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom."
17 Then Daniel answered, and said before the king, "Let your gifts be for yourself, and give your rewards to another; yet I will read the writing to the king, and make known to him the interpretation.
18 "O king, [a]the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your [1]father a kingdom and majesty, glory and honor.

They fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, [b]till he [1]knew that the Most High God rules in the kingdom of men, and appoints over it whomever He chooses.
22 "But you his son, Belshazzar, [a]have not humbled your heart, although you knew all this.

ENCOUNTER Note Dan. 5:23

Your Breath in His Hand

Living in a fast-paced world makes it easy to forget that our every breath has been granted by God. Life is not measured by the sum of our achievements, but is determined by the hand of the heavenly Father. God directs our lives and calls us to glorify Him in all things as we set out to accomplish our tasks.

24 "Then the [1]fingers of the hand were sent from Him, and this writing was written.
25 "And this is the inscription that was written:

[1]MENE, MENE, [2]TEKEL, [3]UPHARSIN.

26 "This is the interpretation of each word. MENE: God has numbered your kingdom, and finished it;
27 "TEKEL: [a]You have been weighed in the balances, and found wanting;
28 "PERES: Your kingdom has been divided, and given to the [a]Medes and [b]Persians."[1]
29 Then Belshazzar gave the command, and they clothed Daniel with purple and put a chain of gold around his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him [a]that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

Belshazzar's Fall

30 [a]That very night Belshazzar, king of the Chaldeans, was slain.
31 [a]And Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

The Plot Against Daniel

6 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom one hundred and twenty satraps, to be over the whole kingdom;
2 and over these, three governors, of whom Daniel was one, that the satraps might give account to them, so that the king would suffer no loss.

5:17 Daniel's refusal to accept any reward for the interpretation was in line with his prophetic consciousness that the interpretation came from God and could not be bought (Num. 22:18). Daniel, like Naaman (2 Kin. 5:17), understood that he should acknowledge his debt to God for the interpretation.

5:27 The three words written on the wall were measures of weight. Belshazzar's life had been measured, and he had failed to tip the balance, thus revealing his lack of worth on God's scales. The idea of God weighing or measuring a person's life and actions is also found in 1 Samuel 2:3, Job 31:6, and Psalms 62:9. One found lacking was regarded as "a vapor." This was certainly true of this king's life.

3 Then this Daniel distinguished himself above the governors and satraps, [a]because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king gave thought to setting him over the whole realm.
4 [a]So the governors and satraps sought to find some charge against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find no charge or fault, because he was faithful; nor was there any error or fault found in him.
5 Then these men said, "We shall not find any charge against this Daniel unless we find it against him concerning the law of his God."
6 So these governors and satraps thronged before the king, and said thus to him: [a]"King Darius, live forever!
7 "All the governors of the kingdom, the administrators and satraps, the counselors and advisors, have [a]consulted together to establish a royal statute and to make a firm decree, that whoever petitions any god or man for thirty days, except you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions.
8 "Now, O king, establish the decree and sign the writing, so that it cannot be changed, according to the [a]law of the Medes and Persians, which [1]does not alter."
9 Therefore King Darius signed the written decree.

Daniel in the Lions' Den

10 Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went home. And in his upper room, with his windows open [a]toward Jerusalem, he knelt down on his knees [b]three times that day, and prayed and gave thanks before his God, as was his custom since early days.
11 Then these men assembled and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God.
12 [a]And they went before the king, and spoke concerning the king's decree: "Have you not signed a decree that every man who petitions any god or man within thirty days, except you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions?" The king answered and said, "The thing is true, [b]according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which [1]does not alter."
13 So they answered and said before the king, "That Daniel, [a]who is [1]one of the captives from Judah, [b]does not show due regard for you, O king, or for the decree that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day."
14 And the king, when he heard these words, [a]was greatly displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he [1]labored till the going down of the sun to deliver him.
15 Then these men [1]approached the king, and said to the king, "Know, O king, that it is [a]the law of the Medes and Persians that no decree or statute which the king establishes may be changed."
16 So the king gave the command, and they brought Daniel and cast him into the den of lions. But the king spoke, saying to Daniel, "Your God, whom you serve continually, He will deliver you."

WORD Study CONTINUALLY

Dan. 6:16 This Aramaic word, tedira', conveys the idea that Daniel's relationship with his God was constant, steady, and unwavering. The king recognized Daniel's intimacy with God and had some understanding that Daniel's God was able to protect him.

17 [a]Then a stone was brought and laid on the mouth of the den, [b]and the king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the signets of his lords, that the purpose concerning Daniel might not be changed.

Daniel Saved from the Lions

18 Now the king went to his palace and spent the night fasting; and no [1]musicians were brought before him. [a]Also his sleep [2]went from him.
19 Then the [a]king arose very early in the morning and went in haste to the den of lions.
20 And when he came to the den, he cried out with a [1]lamenting voice to Daniel. The king spoke, saying to Daniel, "Daniel, servant of the living God, [a]has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to deliver you from the lions?"
21 Then Daniel said to the king, [a]"O king, live forever!
22 [a]"My God sent His angel and [b]shut the lions' mouths, so that they have not

6:10 Daniel's heart remained steadfast towards his Lord regardless of imminent danger (1 Cor. 15:58). He did not abandon his lifelong habit of regular prayer as his enemies expected him to do. Had Daniel forfeited his prayer life he would have betrayed his Lord whom he had served faithfully all his days. Then his accusers would have simply devised another trap. Nothing would have been gained through compromise, and he would have lost the opportunity to prove his faithfulness to his God.

23 Now the king was exceedingly glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no injury whatever was found on him, [a]because he believed in his God.

Darius Honors God

24 And the king gave the command, [a]and they brought those men who had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions—them, [b]their children, and their wives; and the lions overpowered them, and broke all their bones in pieces before they ever came to the bottom of the den.
25 [a]Then King Darius wrote:

To all peoples, nations, and languages that dwell in all the earth:

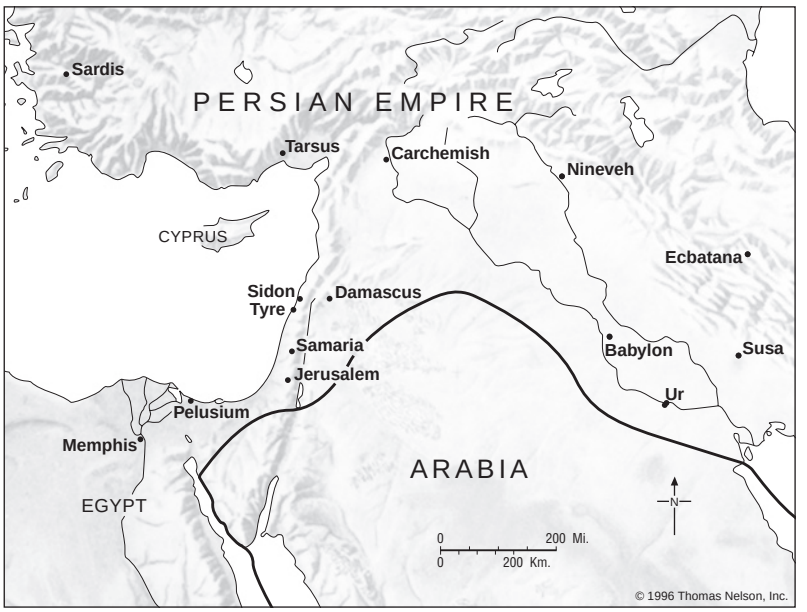
Obedience That Honors God

When we step out in faith and obedience to God, it creates an opportunity for the Lord to demonstrate His character to a watching world. Always be aware that people around you observe how you respond in times of crisis. They will develop much of their understanding of God through the testimony of your life.

28 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius [a]and in the reign of [b]Cyrus the Persian.



Vision of the Four Beasts

CHAPTER 7

7 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, [a]Daniel [1]had a dream and [b]visions of his head while on his bed. Then he wrote down the dream, telling [2]the main facts.

1 [a][Amos 3:7] [b][Dan. 2:28] [1]Lit. saw [2]Lit. the head or chief of the words

7:1 This is a transitional chapter moving the reader from historical accounts to prophecies and visions. Daniel's vision greatly encouraged the Jewish people because it showed that God had not forgotten them. They retained the hope that one day their promised Messiah would come to deliver them. This vision is also relevant for its relationship to future events including the return of Christ.

Dan. 6:28 The Persian Empire (500 B.C.)

2 Daniel spoke, saying, "I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of heaven were stirring up the Great Sea.
3 "And four great beasts [a]came up from the sea, each different from the other.
4 "The first was [a]like a lion, and had eagle's wings. I watched till its wings were plucked off; and it was lifted up from the earth and made to stand on two feet like a man, and a [b]man's heart was given to it.
5 [a]"And suddenly another beast, a second, like a bear. It was raised up on one side, and had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. And they said thus to it: 'Arise, devour much flesh!'
6 "After this I looked, and there was another, like a leopard, which had on its back four wings of a bird. The beast also had [a]four heads, and dominion was given to it.
7 "After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, [a]a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, exceedingly strong. It had huge iron teeth; it was devouring, breaking in pieces, and trampling the residue with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that were before it, [b]and it had ten horns.
8 "I was considering the horns, and [a]there was another horn, a little one, coming up among them, before whom three of the first horns were plucked out by the roots. And there, in this horn, were eyes like the eyes [b]of a man, [c]and a mouth speaking [1]pompous words.

Vision of the Ancient of Days

9 "I[a] watched till thrones were [1]put in place,
And [b]the Ancient of Days was seated;
[c]His garment was white as snow,
And the hair of His head was like pure wool.
His throne was a fiery flame,
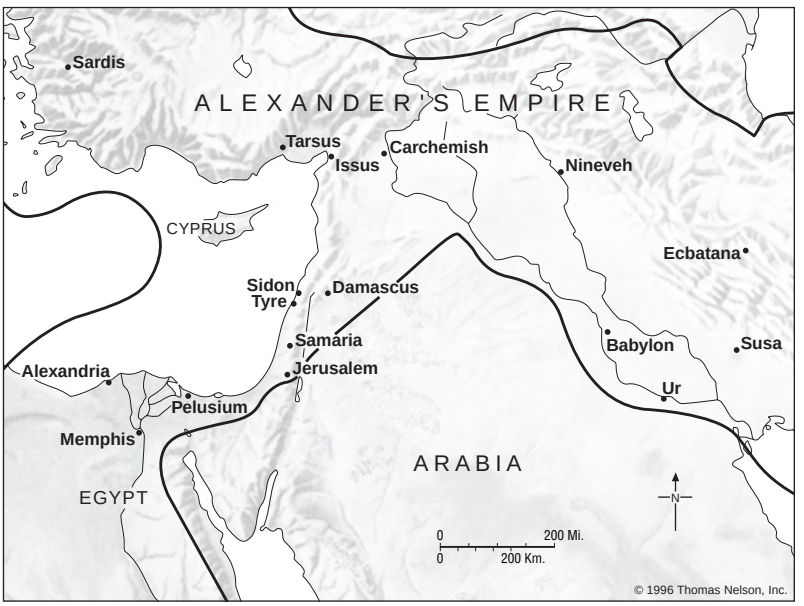
[d]Its wheels a burning fire;
10 [a]A fiery stream issued
And came forth from before Him.
[b]A thousand thousands ministered to Him;
Ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him.
[c]The [1]court was seated,
And the books were opened.



11 "I watched then because of the sound of the [1]pompous words which the horn was speaking; [a]I watched till the beast was slain, and its body destroyed and given to the burning flame.
12 "As for the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away, yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time.

13 "I was watching in the night visions,

7:10 Royal courts maintained records or "books" of the account of the king and the activity of the people. As the judgment begins, God opens His books. "The books" are symbolic of God's memory of the deeds, words, and thoughts of every person (Ex. 32:32; Dan. 12:1; Luke 10:20; Rev. 20:12).

7:13 This is arguably the most discussed and debated verse in the book of Daniel. There are many suggestions as to the identity of the one who is "like the Son of Man." See Jesus' description of himself in Mark 14:61, 62.

Dan. 7:6 Alexander's Empire (323 B.C.)

And behold, [a]One like the Son of Man,
Coming with the clouds of heaven!
He came to the Ancient of Days,
And they brought Him near before Him.
14 [a]Then to Him was given dominion and glory and a kingdom,
That all [b]peoples, nations, and languages should serve Him.
His dominion is [c]an everlasting dominion,
Which shall not pass away,
And His kingdom the one
Which shall not be destroyed.

Daniel's Visions Interpreted

15 "I, Daniel, was grieved in my spirit [1]within my body, and the visions of my head troubled me.
16 "I came near to one of those who stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me and made known to me the interpretation of these things:
17 'Those great beasts, which are four, are four [1]kings which arise out of the earth.
18 'But [a]the saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever.'
19 "Then I wished to know the truth about the fourth beast, which was different from all the others, exceedingly dreadful, with its teeth of iron and its nails of bronze, which devoured, broke in pieces, and trampled the residue with its feet;
20 "and the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, before which three fell, namely, that horn which had eyes and a mouth which spoke [1]pompous words, whose appearance was greater than his fellows.
21 "I was watching; [a]and the same horn was making war against the saints, and prevailing against them,
22 "until the Ancient of Days came, [a]and a judgment was made in favor of the saints of the Most High, and the time came for the saints to possess the kingdom.
23 "Thus he said:

'The fourth beast shall be
[a]A fourth kingdom on earth,
Which shall be different from all other kingdoms,
And shall devour the whole earth,
Trample it and break it in pieces.
24 [a]The ten horns are ten kings
Who shall arise from this kingdom.
And another shall rise after them;
He shall be different from the first ones,
And shall subdue three kings.
25 [a]He shall speak pompous words against the Most High,
Shall [b]persecute[1] the saints of the Most High,
And shall [c]intend to change times and law.
Then [d]the saints shall be given into his hand
[e]For a time and times and half a time.

26 'But[a] the court shall be seated,
And they shall [b]take away his dominion,
To consume and destroy it forever.
27 Then the [a]kingdom and dominion,
And the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven,
Shall be given to the people, the saints of the Most High.
[b]His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
[c]And all dominions shall serve and obey Him.'

28 "This is the end of the [1]account. As for me, Daniel, [a]my thoughts greatly troubled me, and my countenance changed; but I [b]kept the matter in my heart."

Ponder God's Word

If God gives you a word that is not immediately clear, do not discount the word or become frustrated. Instead, hold it in your heart, search the Scriptures, and pray until God bring its full meaning to light. If God impresses something on your heart and mind, be assured that in due time He will also provide an interpretation.

Vision of a Ram and a Goat

8 In[1] the third year of the reign of King Belshazzar a vision appeared to me—to me, Daniel—after the one that appeared to me [a]the first time.
2 I saw in the vision, and it so happened while I was looking, that I was in [a]Shushan,[1] the [2]citadel, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in the vision that I was by the River Ulai.
3 Then I lifted my eyes and saw, and there, standing beside the river, was a ram which had two horns, and the two horns were high; but one was [a]higher than the other, and the higher one came up last.
4 I saw the ram pushing westward, northward, and southward, so that no animal could [1]withstand him; nor was there any that could deliver from his hand, [a]but he did according to his will and became great.

5 And as I was considering, suddenly a male goat came from the west, across the surface of the whole earth, without touching the ground; and the goat had a notable [a]horn between his eyes.

6 Then he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing beside the river, and ran at him with furious power.

7 And I saw him confronting the ram; he was moved with rage against him, [1]attacked the ram, and broke his two horns. There was no power in the ram to withstand him, but he cast him down to the ground and trampled him; and there was no one that could deliver the ram from his hand.

8 Therefore the male goat grew very great; but when he became strong, the large horn was broken, and in place of it [a]four notable ones came up toward the four winds of heaven.

9 [a]And out of one of them came a little horn which grew exceedingly great toward the south, [b]toward the east, and toward the [c]Glorious Land.

10 [a]And it grew up to [b]the host of heaven; and [c]it cast down some of the host and some of the stars to the ground, and trampled them.

11 [a]He even exalted himself as high as [b]the Prince of the host; [c]and by him [d]the daily sacrifices were taken away, and the place of [1]His sanctuary was cast down.

12 Because of transgression, [a]an army was given over to the horn to oppose the daily sacrifices; and he cast [b]truth down to the ground. He [c]did all this and prospered.

13 Then I heard [a]a holy one speaking; and another holy one said to that certain one who was speaking, "How long will the vision be, concerning the daily sacrifices and the transgression [1]of desolation, the giving of both the sanctuary and the host to be trampled underfoot?"

14 And he said to me, "For two thousand three hundred [1]days; then the sanctuary shall be cleansed."

Gabriel Interprets the Vision

15 Then it happened, when I, Daniel, had seen the vision and [a]was seeking the meaning, that suddenly there stood before me [b]one having the appearance of a man.

16 And I heard a man's voice [a]between the banks of the Ulai, who called, and said, [b]"Gabriel, make this man understand the vision."

17 So he came near where I stood, and when he came I was afraid and [a]fell on my face; but he said to me, "Understand, son of man, that the vision refers to the time of the end."

18 [a]Now, as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep with my face to the ground; [b]but he touched me, and stood me upright.

19 And he said, "Look, I am making known to you what shall happen in the latter time of the indignation; [a]for at the appointed time the end shall be.

8:16 This is the first instance in scripture of an angel being designated by name. Gabriel is a prominent angel who also appeared to Zechariah (Luke 1:19) and Mary (Luke 1:26). Michael (called the archangel) is the only other angel specifically named in the Bible (Dan. 10:13, 21; 12:1; Jude 9; Rev. 12:7).

8:17 The "time of the end" is a general prophetic expression for the time which lies at the end of the existing prophetic horizon. This may be an answer to the question asked in verse 13. Therefore, the prophecy would not be addressing the end of the age, as do Daniel 11:40 and 12:4, but rather would be making reference to the end of the "trampling under foot" of the sanctuary and the host.

8:20 Gabriel's explanation of the vision is well attested in Medo-Persian history. Persia was much smaller than Media, but rapidly expanded and dominated the known world. Under Cyrus, the Persians established the largest empire the world had seen. Later, under the leadership of Alexander the Great, Greece would defeat Persia only to have Alexander's empire divided by his successors, who were known as the Diadochi.

He shall destroy [1]fearfully,
[b]And shall prosper and thrive;
[c]He shall destroy the mighty, and also the holy people.

25 "Through[a] his cunning
He shall cause deceit to prosper under his [1]rule;
[b]And he shall exalt himself in his heart.
He shall destroy many in their prosperity.
[c]He shall even rise against the Prince of princes;
But he shall be [d]broken without human means.

26 "And the vision of the evenings and mornings
Which was told is true;
[a]Therefore seal up the vision,
For it refers to many days in the future."

27 [a]And I, Daniel, fainted and was sick for days; afterward I arose and went about the king's business. I was [1]astonished by the vision, but no one understood it.

Daniel's Prayer for the People

9 In the first year [a]of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the lineage of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans—
2 in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood by the books the number of the years specified by the word of the LORD through [a]Jeremiah the prophet, that He would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.
3 [a]Then I set my face toward the Lord God to make request by prayer and supplications, with fasting, sackcloth, and ashes.
4 And I prayed to the LORD my God, and made confession, and said, "O [a]Lord, great and awesome God, who keeps His covenant and mercy with those who love Him, and with those who keep His commandments,
5 [a]"we have sinned and committed iniquity, we have done wickedly and rebelled, even by departing from Your precepts and Your judgments.
6 [a]"Neither have we heeded Your servants the prophets, who spoke in Your name to our kings and our princes, to our fathers and all the people of the land.
7 "O Lord, [a]righteousness belongs to You, but to us shame of face, as it is this day—to the men of Judah, to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and all Israel, those near and those far off in all the countries to which You have driven them, because of the unfaithfulness which they have committed against You.
8 "O Lord, to us belongs shame of face, to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, because we have sinned against You.
9 [a]"To the Lord our God belong mercy and forgiveness, though we have rebelled against Him.
10 "We have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in His laws, which He set before us by His servants the prophets.
11 "Yes, [a]all Israel has transgressed Your law, and has departed so as not to obey Your voice; therefore the curse and the oath written in the [b]Law of Moses the servant of God have been poured out on us, because we have sinned against Him.
12 "And He has [a]confirmed His words, which He spoke against us and against our judges who judged us, by bringing upon us a great disaster; [b]for under the whole heaven such has never been done as what has been done to Jerusalem.
13 [a]"As it is written in the Law of Moses, all this disaster has come upon us; [b]yet we have not made our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities and understand Your truth.
14 "Therefore the LORD has [a]kept the disaster in mind, and brought it upon us; for [b]the LORD our God is righteous in all the works which He does, though we have not obeyed His voice.
15 "And now, O Lord our God, [a]who brought Your people out of the land of

SINNED AND COMMITTED INIQUITY

Dan. 9:5 The Hebrew word chata', translated "sinned," means "to miss the mark." The people had missed the mark of holy living required by God. The Hebrew word `avah, translated "committed iniquity," appears to come from the root word meaning "bend" or "twist" indicating the one who sins veers from the straight path.

9:2 The prophet Jeremiah had announced Judah would go into captivity for seventy years in Babylon (Jer. 25:11, 12; 29:10). Seventy years was the fixed term of divine indignation (2 Chr. 36:21; Zech. 7:5).

9:11 The contents of the curse and a warning to remain faithful to God are stated in Deuteronomy 28:15–68. The description of the curse includes poor crops, disease, drought, defeat by enemies, and eviction from the land.

Egypt with a mighty hand, and made Yourself [b]a name, as it is this day—we have sinned, we have done wickedly!
16 "O Lord, [a]according to all Your righteousness, I pray, let Your anger and Your fury be turned away from Your city Jerusalem, [b]Your holy mountain; because for our sins, [c]and for the iniquities of our fathers, [d]Jerusalem and Your people [e]are a reproach to all those around us.
17 "Now therefore, our God, hear the prayer of Your servant, and his supplications, [a]and [b]for the Lord's sake [1]cause Your face to shine on [2]Your sanctuary, [c]which is desolate.
18 [a]"O my God, incline Your ear and hear; open Your eyes [b]and see our desolations, and the city [c]which is called by Your name; for we do not present our supplications before You because of our righteous deeds, but because of Your great mercies.
19 "O Lord, hear! O Lord, forgive! O Lord, listen and act! Do not delay for Your own sake, my God, for Your city and Your people are called by Your name."

The Seventy-Weeks Prophecy

20 Now while I was speaking, praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God,
21 yes, while I was speaking in prayer, the man [a]Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, [1]being caused to fly swiftly, reached me about the time of the evening offering.
22 And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, "O Daniel, I have now come forth to give you skill to understand.
23 "At the beginning of your supplications the [1]command went out, and I have come to tell you, for you are greatly [a]beloved; therefore [b]consider the matter, and understand the vision:

24 "Seventy [1]weeks are determined
For your people and for your holy city,
To finish the transgression,
[2]To make an end of sins,
[a]To make reconciliation for iniquity,
[b]To bring in everlasting righteousness,
To seal up vision and prophecy,
[c]And to anoint [3]the Most Holy.

25 "Know therefore and understand,
That from the going forth of the command
To restore and build Jerusalem
Until [a]Messiah [b]the Prince,
There shall be seven weeks and sixty-two weeks;
The [1]street shall be built again, and the [2]wall,
Even in troublesome times.

26 "And after the sixty-two weeks
[a]Messiah shall [1]be cut off, [b]but not for Himself;
And [c]the people of the prince who is to come
[d]Shall destroy the city and the sanctuary.
The end of it shall be with a flood,
And till the end of the war desolations are determined.
27 Then he shall confirm [a]a [1]covenant with [b]many for one week;
But in the middle of the week
He shall bring an end to sacrifice and offering.
And on the wing of abominations shall be one who makes desolate,
[c]Even until the consummation, which is determined,
Is poured out on the [2]desolate."

Vision of the Glorious Man

10 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a message was revealed to Daniel, whose [a]name was called Belteshazzar. The message was true, [1]but the appointed time was long; and he understood the message, and had understanding of the vision.

CHAPTER 10

1 [a]Dan. 1:7 [1]Or and of great conflict;

ENCOUNTER*Note* Dan. 9:23

Greatly Beloved

When you pray, do you have to be reacquainted with God? Or do you enjoy a fellowship of familiarity, wherein you enjoy easy and open communication with the Lord?

WORD*Study* GREATLY BELOVED

Dan. 9:23 The term "greatly beloved," or "highly esteemed" was used to address items of value, such as gold (Ezra 8:27) and costly garments (Gen. 27:15). Daniel was obviously a special treasure to the Lord.

9:16 This verse reveals the basis for Daniel's prayers. He prayed according to God's righteousness. Justice had been served, and Israel had been punished for her sins. Now that the people had paid for their sins, the "just" response for God would be to restore the nation (Lev. 26:41–45; Is. 40:2).

2 In those days I, Daniel, was mourning three full weeks.

WORD Study — MOURNING

Dan. 10:2 The word describing Daniel's mourning is understood as a continual grieving. This word was used to describe mourning for the dead (Gen. 37:34), mourning over sin (Ezra 10:6), mourning over calamity (Ezek. 7:12), or mourning over the condition of the Jews who returned to Palestine after the exile (Neh. 1:4).

3 I ate no [1]pleasant food, no meat or wine came into my mouth, nor did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.
4 Now on the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, that is, the [1]Tigris,
5 I lifted my eyes and looked, and behold, a certain man clothed in [a]linen, whose waist was [b]girded with gold of Uphaz!
6 His body was like beryl, his face like the appearance of lightning, his eyes like torches of fire, his arms and feet like burnished bronze in color, [a]and the sound of his words like the voice of a multitude.
7 And I, Daniel, alone saw the vision, for the men who were with me did not see the vision; but a great terror fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.
8 Therefore I was left alone when I saw this great vision, and no strength remained in me; for my [1]vigor was turned to [2]frailty in me, and I retained no strength.
9 Yet I heard the sound of his words; and while I heard the sound of his words I was in a deep sleep on my face, with my face to the ground.

Prophecies Concerning Persia and Greece

10 [a]Suddenly, a hand touched me, which made me tremble on my knees and on the palms of my hands.
11 And he said to me, "O Daniel, [a]man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright, for I have now been sent to you." While he was speaking this word to me, I stood trembling.
12 Then he said to me, [a]"Do not fear, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, [b]your words were heard; and I have come because of your words.

ENCOUNTER Note — Dan. 10:12

A Humble Heart

When we humble ourselves before the Lord and submit to His authority, God inclines His ear to us and answers our prayers. Present yourself reverently to God and wait with anticipation for His response.

13 [a]"But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days; and behold, [b]Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, for I had been left alone there with the kings of Persia.
14 "Now I have come to make you understand what will happen to your people [a]in the latter days, [b]for the vision refers to many days yet to come."
15 When he had spoken such words to me, [a]I [1]turned my face toward the ground and became speechless.
16 And suddenly, [a]one having the likeness of the [1]sons of men [b]touched my lips; then I opened my mouth and spoke, saying to him who stood before me, "My lord, because of the vision [c]my sorrows have [2]overwhelmed me, and I have retained no strength.
17 "For how can this servant of my lord talk with you, my lord? As for me, no strength remains in me now, nor is any breath left in me."
18 Then again, the one having the likeness of a man touched me and strengthened me.
19 [a]And he said, "O man greatly beloved, [b]fear not! Peace be to you; be strong, yes, be strong!" So when he spoke to me I was strengthened, and said, "Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me."
20 Then he said, "Do you know why I have come to you? And now I must return to fight [a]with the prince of Persia; and when I have gone forth, indeed the prince of Greece will come.
21 "But I will tell you what is noted in the Scripture of Truth. (No one upholds me against these, [a]except Michael your prince.

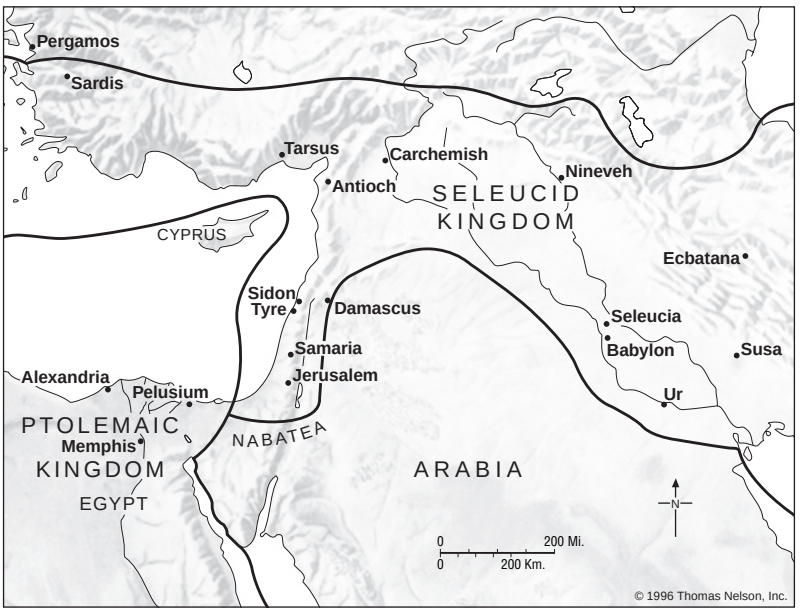
10:13 This verse provides a glimpse of supernatural warfare. Although the final outcome is assured by God, there will be fierce conflict until the final judgment (Eph. 6:12; Rev. 12:7).

10:21 While the world viewed Israel as an insignificant people from a small state, in the supernatural world they were represented and defended by the great angels Gabriel and Michael.

11 "Also [a]in the first year of [b]Darius the Mede, I, even I, stood up to confirm and strengthen him.)
2 "And now I will tell you the truth: Behold, three more kings will arise in Persia, and the fourth shall be far richer than them all; by his strength, through his riches, he shall stir up all against the realm of Greece.
3 "Then [a]a mighty king shall arise, who shall rule with great dominion, and [b]do according to his will.
4 "And when he has arisen, [a]his kingdom shall be broken up and divided toward the four winds of heaven, but not among his posterity [b]nor according to his dominion with which he ruled; for his kingdom shall be uprooted, even for others besides these.



Warring Kings of North and South

5 "Also the king of the South shall become strong, as well as one of his princes; and he shall gain power over him and have dominion. His dominion shall be a great dominion.
6 "And at the end of some years they shall join forces, for the daughter of the king of the South shall go to the king of the North to make an agreement; but she shall not retain the power of her [1]authority, and neither he nor his authority shall stand; but she shall be given up, with those who brought her, and with him who begot her, and with him who strengthened her in those times.
7 "But from a branch of her roots one shall arise in his place, who shall come with an army, enter the fortress of the king of the North, and deal with them and prevail.
8 "And he shall also carry their gods captive to Egypt, with their [1]princes and their precious articles of silver and gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the North.
9 "Also the king of the North shall come to the kingdom of the king of the South, but shall return to his own land.
10 "However his sons shall stir up strife, and assemble a multitude of great forces; and one shall certainly come [a]and overwhelm and pass through; then he shall return [b]to his fortress and stir up strife.
11 "And the king of the South shall be [a]moved with rage, and go out and fight with him, with the king of the North, who shall muster a great multitude; but the [b]multitude shall be given into the hand of his enemy.

11:1 The first year of Darius was the year he decreed the Jews could return to their homeland. Unknown to the Persian king, his decision was determined in part by angelic forces.

11:2 Gabriel unfolds the main events leading up to the end. He begins with the Persian period of Daniel's time, then moves on to describe the Greek empire, its subsequent division, and the Ptolemiac and Seleucid empires.

A Stark Contrast

This is a stark contrast between the passing of those who oppose God in comparison to those who trust God. The one who defies God can expect a lonely end. However, God's faithful children can look forward to the loving welcome of their Lord.

12:1 God assigned the powerful angel Michael to watch over His people. The designation "great prince" may indicate he is the greatest of the angels. He is also described as an archangel (Jude 9), and as leading the angels in the fight against the dragon (Rev. 12:7).

12:2 This verse represents the most unambiguous reference to the afterlife found in the Old Testament. (Isaiah 26:19 provides an example as well, but it is less detailed.) Those who follow God are vindicated and those who oppose Him are delivered into eternal punishment.

People who walk faithfully with God experience profound contentment. Their mind and heart are enveloped in a sense of peace. They are characterized by hope for the future because they know heaven's glorious riches await them.

THE BOOK OF HOSEA

INTRODUCTION

Hosea wrote this book during the northern kingdom of Israel's final decline which culminated in its destruction in 722 B.C. Northern Israel had enjoyed a period of political calm under King Jeroboam II. Assyria, the world's superpower, had humbled Israel's chief rival, Syria to their north, giving Israel time to develop its commerce and to enjoy economic prosperity. However, rather than recognizing God as the author of their success, the people embraced the immoral worship of Baal. They built altars to this idol virtually on every hill and high place in the country. Rather than suppressing this disloyalty to the true God, the king and the priests were the strongest advocates of idolatry. Society deteriorated as the wealthy indulged themselves in every manner of perversion and neglected the plight of the poor. Political instability and intrigue plagued the nation during its final days. Six kings ruled and were overthrown in a span of only thirty years. In a misguided and foolish effort to free itself of Assyrian domination, Israel united with its rival Syria in a futile rebellion. As Assyria prepared to inflict its final death blows on Israel, the prophet Hosea wrote, urging the people to return to God before it was too late.

SIGNIFICANCE

The book of Hosea is listed first among the twelve Minor Prophets, not only because it is the longest book, but because it addresses all the major themes of Old Testament prophecy. Hosea likens the covenant between God and His people to that of a marriage, in which sacred vows of loyalty are pledged. Judgment is also a prominent theme as God refuses to allow His people to abandon Him without making every effort to draw them back to Himself. This book is permeated with hope. Despite Israel's horrific treachery toward God, God continually looks toward a renewed time of reconciliation and intimacy (1:10—2:1; 2:14–23; 3:1–5; 11:8–11; 14:1–7). This book is unique in the way God commands His prophet to incarnate the divine message in his personal life. The righteous prophet Hosea is instructed to marry a harlot to show Israel the agony of betrayal God has experienced (1:2). This noble man is also commanded to love and care for his wayward wife even after she betrays him (3:1). The urgency of Hosea's cries to God's people is obvious as the prophet pleads with them to return to God. Through his own experience, Hosea has a deep desire for his people to know God in a personal, intimate way, not merely through religious ritual (6:6).

STRUCTURE

This book does not follow an easily recognizable outline. This is partly because of the passionate way God continually interrupts His message of judgment to urge His people to return to Him. However, a general outline of the book is as follows:

- The Prophet's Life Message of Betrayal and Restoration
  - Hosea's Marriage and Family (1:1–11)
  - Charges and Consequences of Unfaithfulness (2:1–13)
  - Restoration (2:14—3:5)
- God's Message to His People
  - God's Charge Against His People (4:1–19)
  - God's Judgment on His People (5:1–15)
  - A Call to Repentance (6:1–6)
  - The Condition of God's People (6:7—8:14)
  - God's Impending Judgment (9:1—10:15)
  - God's Unfailing Love for His People (11:1–11)
  - God's Response to Unfaithfulness (11:12—13:16)
  - God's Restoration of His People (14:1–9)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH HOSEA

The book of Hosea is one of the most personal Old Testament books, in which God repeatedly expresses His love for His people and His desire for a close relationship with them. It is an intimate portrayal of God's heart for His people as He describes them with the intimacy of a bride and a groom (2:14–16). You should be challenged by God's desire for His people to keep their covenant with Him. You may feel convicted by the superficial repentance that often characterizes God's people (6:1–6). You will confront the heartbreaking reality that every time you turn away from God, He views your rejection as spiritual adultery and your betrayal grieves Him. Finally, you will be encouraged to see that even at the worst points of estrangement between God and His people, there is always hope because of God's unfailing love.

CHAPTER 1

THE word of the LORD that came to Hosea the son of Beeri, in the days of [a]Uzziah, [b]Jotham, [c]Ahaz, and [d]Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of [e]Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

The Family of Hosea

2 When the LORD began to speak by Hosea, the LORD said to Hosea:

[a]"Go, take yourself a wife of harlotry
And children of harlotry,
For [b]the land has committed great [1]harlotry
By departing from the LORD."

3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son.

4 Then the LORD said to him:

"Call his name Jezreel,
For in a little while
[a]I will avenge the bloodshed of Jezreel on the house of Jehu,
[b]And bring an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel.

5 [a]It shall come to pass in that day
That I will break the bow of Israel in the Valley of Jezreel."

6 And she conceived again and bore a daughter. Then God said to him:

"Call her name [1]Lo-Ruhamah,
[a]For I will no longer have mercy on the house of Israel,
[2]But I will utterly take them away.

7 [a]Yet I will have mercy on the house of Judah,
Will save them by the LORD their God,
And [b]will not save them by bow,
Nor by sword or battle,
By horses or horsemen."

8 Now when she had weaned Lo-Ruhamah, she conceived and bore a son.

9 Then God said:

"Call his name [1]Lo-Ammi,
For you are not My people,
And I will not be your God.

CHARACTER Study — HOSEA — Hos. 1:1

Hosea's name is a variant of the name "Joshua," meaning "The Lord Saves." Probably a young man when God called him to his prophetic ministry, Hosea was given an extremely difficult assignment. Not only was he to minister to the northern kingdom of Israel during its demise and fall, he was also to manifest, through his personal life, God's stirring message of betrayal and reconciliation to His people. By marrying an immoral, unfaithful woman, Hosea would graphically demonstrate God's view of His people's idolatry. Gomer would publicly humiliate and forsake Hosea, but he was to take her back and love her, just as God was willing to forgive and receive His people. Despite the enormity of the assignment, Hosea obeyed immediately. While Hosea's personal story fades into the book's background after chapter three, the passion, love and grace he demonstrated pervades the entire book. Hosea's profound ministry to the northern tribes would inspire the prophet Jeremiah much later when he issued similar warnings to the southern kingdom of Judah before its fall.

1:1 "Beeri" means "My Well."

1:1 Hosea was a prophet to the northern kingdom of Israel, but Jeroboam II (793–753) is the only northern king mentioned, although Hosea's ministry would have covered the reigns of Zechariah, Shallum, Menahem, Pekahiah, Pekah, and Hoshea as well.

1:4 "Jezreel" means "God Will Sow" or "God Will Scatter." Jezreel was the town where Jehu murdered King Joram of Israel along with every member of the house of Ahab (2 Kin. 9–10).

1:8 A child would be weaned at two to three years of age.

WORD*Study* HARLOTRY

Hos. 1:2 Scripture describes two kinds of harlots or prostitutes. One is the general prostitute who sold sexual favors (Gen. 34:31; 38:15, 24; Lev. 21:14; Josh. 2:1; Judg. 11:1; 16:1; 1 Kin. 3:16; Prov. 7:10; 29:3; Amos 7:17). While this behavior was condemned as immoral, unmarried women with no parents to care for them could have felt forced into such activity for their survival. Rahab is perhaps the most famous harlot. She demonstrated her trust in God and became a hero of the faith (Heb 11:31). A second type of harlot was the cult prostitute (Num. 25:1; 1 Sam. 2:22; Jer. 13:27; Ezek. 16:15–30; 23:37–41; Amos 2:8). Men and women served at temples for idols such as Asherah or Aphrodite. It was believed that a sexual act with a temple prostitute was an act of worship with the god or goddess, and would result in fertility for one's crops. It is unclear which type of harlot Gomer was.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Hos. 1:2

Harlotry

Harlotry is a morally offensive act mocking true intimacy. Likewise, we deeply offend God when we reject the pure love He offers us.

In the place where it was said to them,
'You are [1]not My [c]people,'
There it shall be said to them,
'You are [d]sons of the living God.'
11 [a]Then the children of Judah and the children of Israel
Shall be gathered together,
And appoint for themselves one head;
And they shall come up out of the land,
For great will be the day of Jezreel!
2 Say to your brethren, [1]'My people,'
And to your sisters, [2]'Mercy is shown.'

God's Unfaithful People

2 "Bring[1] charges against your mother,
[2]bring charges;
For [a]she is not My wife, nor am I her Husband!
Let her put away her [b]harlotries from her sight,
And her adulteries from between her breasts;
3 Lest [a]I strip her naked
And expose her, as in the day she was [b]born,
And make her like a wilderness,
And set her like a dry land,
And slay her with [c]thirst.
4 "I will not have mercy on her children,
For they are the [a]children of harlotry.
5 For their mother has played the harlot;
She who conceived them has behaved shamefully.
For she said, 'I will go after my lovers,
[a]Who give me my bread and my water,
My wool and my linen,
My oil and my drink.'
6 "Therefore, behold,
[a]I will hedge up your way with thorns,
And [1]wall her in,
So that she cannot find her paths.
7 She will [1]chase her lovers,
But not overtake them;
Yes, she will seek them, but not find them.
Then she will say,
[a]'I will go and return to my [b]first husband,

CHARACTER*Study* GOMER Hos. 1:3

Gomer, whose name means "Complete" or "Achieve," was the daughter of Diblaim (1:3). Some believe Gomer did not become a harlot until after Hosea married her. However it appears her character was such that if she were not practicing prostitution before her marriage, she was strongly inclined to do so. Whether she became a temple prostitute or a general harlot is also unclear. Her depravity seems to have increased after her marriage. Her children are described as "children of harlotry" (1:2) which may indicate that at least the last two children were not fathered by Hosea. Despite being married to a godly prophet, Gomer pursued her promiscuous lifestyle until she became enslaved. Her righteous husband bought her back, paying a slave's price for her (3:2). Hosea then kept her in temporary isolation until she had been purified and committed afresh to her husband (3:3–5).

2:7 "Chase" reflects the zeal with which the Israelites pursued Baal worship and its depraved practices.

For then it was better for me than now.'
8 For she did not [a]know
That I gave her grain, new wine, and oil,
And multiplied her silver and gold—
Which they prepared for Baal.

9 "Therefore I will return and take away
My grain in its time
And My new wine in its season,
And will take back My wool and My linen,
Given to cover her nakedness.
10 Now [a]I will uncover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers,
And no one shall deliver her from My hand.
11 [a]I will also cause all her mirth to cease,
Her feast days,
Her New Moons,
Her Sabbaths—
All her appointed feasts.

12 "And I will destroy her vines and her fig trees,
Of which she has said,
'These are my wages that my lovers have given me.'
So I will make them a forest,
And the beasts of the field shall eat them.

ENCOUNTER Note Hos. 2:12

Forgotten

It is tragic when the very blessings God showers upon us become snares that capture our love and attention and draw us away from Him.

13 I will punish her
For the days of the Baals to which she burned incense.
She decked herself with her earrings and jewelry,
And went after her lovers;
But Me she forgot," says the LORD.

God's Mercy on His People

14 "Therefore, behold, I will allure her,
Will bring her into the wilderness,
And speak [1]comfort to her.
15 I will give her her vineyards from there,
And [a]the Valley of Achor as a door of hope;
She shall sing there,
As in [b]the days of her youth,
[c]As in the day when she came up from the land of Egypt.

16 "And it shall be, in that day," Says the LORD,
"That you will call Me [1]'My Husband,'
And no longer call Me [2]'My Master,'
17 For [a]I will take from her mouth the names of the Baals,
And they shall be remembered by their name no more.

ENCOUNTER Note Hos. 2:16, 17

Intimacy

God wants more than your allegiance. He wants your devotion. He seeks a deeper level of intimacy with you than you might realize.

18 In that day I will make a [a]covenant for them
With the beasts of the field,
With the birds of the air,
And with the creeping things of the ground.
Bow and sword of battle [b]I will shatter from the earth,
To make them [c]lie down safely.

19 "I will betroth you to Me forever;
Yes, I will betroth you to Me
In righteousness and justice,
In lovingkindness and mercy;
20 I will betroth you to Me in faithfulness,
And [a]you shall know the LORD.

21 "It shall come to pass in that day
That [a]I will answer," says the LORD;
"I will answer the heavens,
And they shall answer the earth.
22 The earth shall answer
With grain,
With new wine,
And with oil;
They shall answer [1]Jezreel.
23 Then [a]I will sow her for Myself in the earth,
[b]And I will have mercy on her who had [1]not obtained mercy;

'You are [3]My people!'

2:8 "Know" is a key word in Hosea (2:20; 4:1, 6; 5:3, 4; 6:3, 6; 13:4, 5). God repeatedly expresses His desire for a mutual, intimate relationship with His people.

2:9 Grain would be harvested in May and June. Grapes would be ripe from July to September.

2:11 New Moons were celebrated monthly. Sabbaths were observed weekly.

2:15 "Achor" means "Trouble."

2:16 "Master" could be a reference to Baal.

And they shall say, 'You are my God!' "

Israel Will Return to God

3 Then the LORD said to me, "Go again, love a woman who is loved by a [a]lover[1] and is committing adultery, just like the love of the LORD for the children of Israel, who look to other gods and love the raisin cakes of the pagans."

ENCOUNTER Note Hos. 3:1

Go Again

Who can fathom God's love? Despite our rejection and betrayal, despite our unfaithfulness and broken promises, He continues to love us. When we stray from him, He lovingly and relentlessly pursues us. If not for His unfailing love, we would be victims of our own wickedness.

2 So I bought her for myself for fifteen shekels of silver, and one and one-half homers of barley.
3 And I said to her, "You shall [a]stay with me many days; you shall not play the harlot, nor shall you have a man—so, too, will I be toward you."
4 For the children of Israel shall abide many days [a]without king or prince, without sacrifice or sacred pillar, without [b]ephod or [c]teraphim.
5 Afterward the children of Israel shall return and [a]seek the LORD their God and [b]David their king. They shall fear the LORD and His goodness in the [c]latter days.

God's Charge Against Israel

4 Hear the word of the LORD,
You children of Israel,
For the LORD brings a [a]charge[1] against the inhabitants of the land:

"There is no truth or mercy
Or [b]knowledge of God in the land.
2 By swearing and lying,
Killing and stealing and committing adultery,
They break all restraint,
With bloodshed [1]upon bloodshed.
3 Therefore [a]the land will mourn;
And [b]everyone who dwells there will waste away
With the beasts of the field
And the birds of the air;
Even the fish of the sea will be taken away.

4 "Now let no man contend, or rebuke another;
For your people are like those [a]who contend with the priest.
5 Therefore you shall stumble [a]in the day;
The prophet also shall stumble with you in the night;
And I will destroy your mother.
6 [a]My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.
Because you have rejected knowledge,
I also will reject you from being priest for Me;
[b]Because you have forgotten the law of your God,
I also will forget your children.

ENCOUNTER Note Hos. 4:6

Lack of Knowledge

God's ways are accessible to all who want to know them. Ignorance of God's word is a dangerous choice we make, and it carries severe consequences.

7 "The more they increased,
The more they sinned against Me;
[a]I[1] will change [2]their glory into shame.
8 They eat up the sin of My people;
They set their [1]heart on their iniquity.
9 And it shall be: [a]like people, like priest.
So I will punish them for their ways,
And [1]reward them for their deeds.
10 For [a]they shall eat, but not have enough;
They shall commit harlotry, but not increase;
Because they have ceased obeying the LORD.

The Idolatry of Israel

11 "Harlotry, wine, and new wine
[a]enslave the heart.
12 My people ask counsel from their
[a]wooden idols,
And their [1]staff informs them.
For [b]the spirit of harlotry has caused them to stray,
And they have played the harlot against their God.

3:1 "Love" was not in the initial command to Hosea (1:2). First, he was instructed to "take" a wife of harlotry. After all Gomer had done, the prophet was commanded to love her, as God loved His wayward people.

3:5 "Latter days" may mean "afterward" rather than at the end times.

13 [a]They offer sacrifices on the mountaintops,
And burn incense on the hills,
Under oaks, poplars, and terebinths,
Because their shade is good.
[b]Therefore your daughters commit harlotry,

For [1]yours is the judgment,
Because [a]you have been a snare to Mizpah
And a net spread on Tabor.
2 The revolters are [a]deeply involved in slaughter,
Though I rebuke them all.
3 [a]I know Ephraim,
And Israel is not hidden from Me;
For now, O Ephraim, [b]you commit harlotry;
Israel is defiled.

For [a]the spirit of harlotry is in their midst,
And they do not know the LORD.
5 The [a]pride of Israel testifies to his face;
Therefore Israel and Ephraim stumble in their iniquity;
Judah also stumbles with them.

6 "With their flocks and herds
[a]They shall go to seek the LORD,
But they will not find Him;
He has withdrawn Himself from them.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Hos. 5:6

Withdrawn

Be careful in saying "God is always there for me." Do not presume upon Him. Our sin alienates us from Him and may hinder our finding Him in times of distress. God is available to us on His terms, not ours.

7 They have [a]dealt treacherously with the LORD,
For they have begotten [1]pagan children.
Now a New Moon shall devour them and their heritage.

8 "Blow[a] the ram's horn in Gibeah,
The trumpet in Ramah!
[b]Cry aloud at [c]Beth Aven,
'Look behind you, O Benjamin!'
9 Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke;
Among the tribes of Israel I make known what is sure.

10 "The princes of Judah are like those who [a]remove a landmark;
I will pour out My wrath on them like water.
11 Ephraim is [a]oppressed and broken in judgment,
Because he willingly walked by [b]human precept.
12 Therefore I will be to Ephraim like a moth,
And to the house of Judah [a]like rottenness.

4:13 "Terebinths" were large trees that are otherwise unidentified (Gen. 35:4; Judg. 6:11, 19; Is. 57:5).

4:14 "Harlotry" may indicate that the priests' daughters were involved in cultic prostitution.

4:15 "Beth Aven" means "House of Iniquity" and is a derisive term for Bethel, which meant "House of God."

5:1 "Mizpah" means "Watchtower."

5:8 Gibeah, Ramah, and Beth Aven are all situated in a line from Jerusalem toward Ephraim.

5:10 This may refer to when King Ahaz of Judah allied himself with Assyria and captured lands from the northern kingdom of Israel. The prophet condemned Judah for violating the law of moving ancient landmarks (Deut. 27:17).

13 "When Ephraim saw his sickness,
And Judah saw his [a]wound,
Then Ephraim went [b]to Assyria
And sent to King Jareb;
Yet he cannot cure you,
Nor heal you of your wound.
14 For [a]I will be like a lion to Ephraim,
And like a young lion to the house of Judah.
[b]I, even I, will tear them and go away;
I will take them away, and no one shall rescue.
15 I will return again to My place
Till they [1]acknowledge their offense.
Then they will seek My face;
In their affliction they will earnestly seek Me."

A Call to Repentance

6 Come,[a] and let us return to the LORD;
For [b]He has torn, but [c]He will heal us;
He has stricken, but He will [1]bind us up.
2 [a]After two days He will revive us;
On the third day He will raise us up,
That we may live in His sight.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Hos. 6:2

Return

We foolishly depart from God when we are on our own terms. There is only one way to return to Him—in humble repentance. He restores us, not to our sinful ways, but to a renewed commitment to Him.

3 [a]Let us know,
Let us pursue the knowledge of the LORD.
His going forth is established [b]as the morning;
[c]He will come to us [d]like the rain,
Like the latter and former rain to the earth.

Impenitence of Israel and Judah

4 "O Ephraim, what shall I do to you?
O Judah, what shall I do to you?
For your faithfulness is like a morning cloud,
And like the early dew it goes away.
5 Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets,
I have slain them by [a]the words of My mouth;
And [1]your judgments are like light that goes forth.

8 [a]Gilead is a city of evildoers
And [1]defiled with blood.
9 As bands of robbers lie in wait for a man,
So the company of [a]priests [b]murder on the way to Shechem;
Surely they commit [c]lewdness.
10 I have seen a horrible thing in the house of Israel:
There is the [1]harlotry of Ephraim;
Israel is defiled.
11 Also, O Judah, a harvest is appointed for you,
When I return the captives of My people.

7 "When I would have healed Israel,
Then the iniquity of Ephraim was uncovered,
And the wickedness of Samaria.
For [a]they have committed fraud;
A thief comes in;
A band of robbers [1]takes spoil outside.
2 They [1]do not consider in their hearts
That [a]I remember all their wickedness;
Now their own deeds have surrounded them;
They are before My face.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Hos. 7:2

Before God's Face

We cannot afford to be cavalier about our sin, carrying on as though it never happened. God remembers it.

3 They make a [a]king glad with their wickedness,
And princes [b]with their lies.
4 "They[a] are all adulterers.
Like an oven heated by a baker—
He ceases stirring the fire after kneading the dough,
Until it is leavened.
5 In the day of our king
Princes have made him sick,
[1]inflamed with [a]wine;

5:13 "King Jareb" could also be translated the "great king."
6:2 "The third day" indicates a brief time period.
6:8 Gilead was traditionally a place of refuge, but it had become a city of bloodshed (Josh. 20:8).
6:9 The nation's religious leaders had become so corrupt they were described as a band of murderers.

He stretched out his hand with scoffers.
6 They prepare their heart like an oven,
While they lie in wait;
[1]Their baker sleeps all night;
In the morning it burns like a flaming fire.
7 They are all hot, like an oven,
And have devoured their judges;
All their kings have fallen.
[a]None among them calls upon Me.

8 "Ephraim [a]has mixed himself among the peoples;
Ephraim is a cake unturned.
9 [a]Aliens have devoured his strength,
But he does not know it;
Yes, gray hairs are here and there on him,
Yet he does not know it.

ENCOUNTER Note Hos. 7:9

Sin's Price

Sin takes a heavy toll on those who embrace it. We pay a hefty price for our wickedness whether we realize it or not.

10 And the [a]pride of Israel testifies to his face,
But [b]they do not return to the LORD
their God,
Nor seek Him for all this.

Futile Reliance on the Nations

11 "Ephraim[a] also is like a silly dove, without [1]sense—
[b]They call to Egypt,
They go to [c]Assyria.
12 Wherever they go, I will [a]spread My net on them;
I will bring them down like birds of the air;
I will chastise them
[b]According to what their congregation has heard.

13 "Woe to them, for they have fled
from Me!
Destruction to them,
Because they have transgressed against Me!
Though [a]I redeemed them,
Yet they have spoken lies against Me.

the house of the LORD,
Because they have transgressed My covenant
And rebelled against My law.
2 [a]Israel will cry to Me,
'My God, [b]we know You!'

ENCOUNTER Note Hos. 8:2

Knowledge of God

Knowing who God is and being religious—these things are not enough to please God. He seeks a reciprocal, loving relationship with us.

3 Israel has rejected the good;
The enemy will pursue him.

4 "They[a] set up kings, but not by Me;
They made princes, but I did not acknowledge them.
From their silver and gold
They made idols for themselves—
That they might be cut off.
5 Your [1]calf [2]is rejected, O Samaria!
My anger is aroused against them—
[a]How long until they attain to innocence?
6 For from Israel is even this:
A [a]workman made it, and it is not
God;
But the calf of Samaria shall be broken to pieces.

7 "They[a] sow the wind,
And reap the whirlwind.
The stalk has no bud;

7:9 Gray hairs symbolized aging and weakness. Israel was oblivious to its own deteriorating condition.

7:11 Egypt and Assyria were the superpowers. Israel foolishly sought to manipulate these nations to preserve its national life.

7:16 Repentance involves a turning back to God. Ironically, Israel turned, but not to God.

8:1 "Eagle" could also be translated "vulture."

8:5 King Jeroboam I had erected a golden calf at Bethel as an idol (1 Kin. 12:28).

8:7 This may mean Israel sowed military alliances and fortresses and now they are reaping an invasion they cannot withstand.

It shall never produce meal.
If it should produce,
[b]Aliens would swallow it up.
8 [a]Israel is swallowed up;
Now they are among the Gentiles
[b]Like a vessel in which is no pleasure.
9 For they have gone up to Assyria,
Like [a]a wild donkey alone by itself;
Ephraim [b]has hired lovers.
10 Yes, though they have hired among the nations,
Now [a]I will gather them;
And they shall [1]sorrow a little,
Because of the [2]burden of [b]the king of princes.

11 "Because Ephraim has made many altars for sin,
They have become for him altars for sinning.
12 I have written for him [a]the great things of My law,
But they were considered a strange thing.

ENCOUNTER Note Hos. 8:12

Strange

When your heart is far from God, His word will seem foreign to you. But His ways are not strange to those who follow Him sincerely and reverently.

13 For the sacrifices of My offerings
[a]they sacrifice flesh and eat it,
[b]But the LORD does not accept them.
[c]Now He will remember their iniquity and punish their sins.
They shall return to Egypt.

14 "For[a] Israel has forgotten [b]his Maker,
And has built [1]temples;
Judah also has multiplied [c]fortified cities;
But [d]I will send fire upon his cities,
And it shall devour his [2]palaces."

Judgment of Israel's Sin

9 Do[a] not rejoice, O Israel, with joy like other peoples,
For you have played the harlot against your God.
You have made love for [b]hire on every threshing floor.
2 The threshing floor and the winepress
Shall not feed them,
And the new wine shall fail in her.

[b]But Ephraim shall return to Egypt,
And [c]shall eat unclean things in Assyria.
4 They shall not offer wine offerings to the LORD,
Nor [a]shall their [b]sacrifices be pleasing to Him.
It shall be like bread of mourners to them;
All who eat it shall be defiled.
For their bread shall be for their own life;
It shall not come into the house of the LORD.
5 What will you do in the appointed day,
And in the day of the feast of the LORD?
6 For indeed they are gone because of destruction.
Egypt shall gather them up;
Memphis shall bury them.
[a]Nettles shall possess their valuables of silver;
Thorns shall be in their tents.
7 The [a]days of punishment have come;
The days of recompense have come.
Israel knows!
The prophet is a [b]fool,
[c]The spiritual man is insane,
Because of the greatness of your iniquity and great enmity.
8 The [a]watchman of Ephraim is with my God;
But the prophet is a [1]fowler's snare in all his ways—
Enmity in the house of his God.
9 [a]They are deeply corrupted,
As in the days of [b]Gibeah.
He will remember their iniquity;
He will punish their sins.

10 "I found Israel
Like grapes in the [a]wilderness;
I saw your fathers
As the [b]firstfruits on the fig tree in its first season.
But they went to [c]Baal Peor,
And [1]separated themselves to that shame;
[d]They became an abomination like the thing they loved.
11 As for Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird—
No birth, no pregnancy, and no conception!

8:13 "Egypt" symbolized captivity and bondage.

9:7 "Insane" may reflect the criticisms thrown at Hosea as he delivered his prophecies.

9:9 The wickedness at Gibeah was considered the most despicable evil in Israel's history, causing a civil war (Judg. 19–21).

ENCOUNTER Note Hos. 9:10

Becoming Like Our Idols

We become like our idols. By the same token, the more we revere the Lord, the more Christlike we become.

12 Though they bring up their children,
Yet I will bereave them to the last man.
Yes, [a]woe to them when I depart from them!
13 Just [a]as I saw Ephraim like Tyre, planted in a pleasant place,
So Ephraim will bring out his children to the murderer."

14 Give them, O LORD—
What will You give?
Give them [a]a miscarrying womb
And dry breasts!

15 "All their wickedness is in [a]Gilgal,
For there I hated them.
Because of the evil of their deeds
I will drive them from My house;
I will love them no more.
[b]All their princes are rebellious.
16 Ephraim is [a]stricken,
Their root is dried up;
They shall bear no fruit.
Yes, were they to bear children,
I would kill the darlings of their womb."

17 My God will [a]cast them away,
Because they did not obey Him;
And they shall be [b]wanderers among the nations.

Israel's Sin and Captivity

10 Israel [a]empties his vine;
He brings forth fruit for himself.
According to the multitude of his fruit
[b]He has increased the altars;
According to the bounty of his land
They have embellished his sacred pillars.
2 Their heart is [a]divided;[1]
Now they are held guilty.
He will break down their altars;
He will ruin their sacred pillars.

3 For now they say,
"We have no king,
Because we did not fear the LORD.
And as for a king, what would he do for us?"

5 The inhabitants of Samaria fear
Because of the [a]calf[1] of Beth Aven.
For its people mourn for it,
And [2]its priests shriek for it—
Because its [b]glory has departed from it.
6 The idol also shall be carried to Assyria
As a present for King [a]Jareb.
Ephraim shall receive shame,
And Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel.

7 As for Samaria, her king is cut off
Like a twig on the water.
8 Also the [a]high places of [1]Aven, [b]the sin of Israel,
Shall be destroyed.
The thorn and thistle shall grow on their altars;
[c]They shall say to the mountains, "Cover us!"
And to the hills, "Fall on us!"

9 "O Israel, you have sinned from the days of [a]Gibeah;
There they stood.
The [b]battle in Gibeah against the children of [1]iniquity
Did not [2]overtake them.
10 When it is My desire, I will chasten them.
[a]Peoples shall be gathered against them
When I bind them [1]for their two transgressions.
11 Ephraim is [a]a trained heifer
That loves to thresh grain;
But I harnessed her fair neck,
I will make Ephraim [1]pull a plow.
Judah shall plow;
Jacob shall break his clods."

12 Sow for yourselves righteousness;
Reap in mercy;
[a]Break up your fallow ground,
For it is time to seek the LORD,
Till He [b]comes and rains righteousness on you.

13 [a]You have plowed wickedness;
You have reaped iniquity.
You have eaten the fruit of lies,
Because you trusted in your own way,

9:15 King Saul was inaugurated at Gilgal (1 Sam. 11:14, 15). It was also there that Saul led his people to disobey God's commands (1 Sam. 15:12–16). It was Israel's kings who had led the people astray.

10:4 Hemlock was a poisonous plant, surreptitiously growing in places expected to produce nourishing food.

10:6 "King Jareb" or the "great king" may have been Shalmaneser V or Sargon of Assyria.

ENCOUNTER Note Hos. 10:12

Fallow Ground

God responds to a broken heart, not a brittle one. If you are seeking God in a spirit of tender humility, He will come and He will rain righteousness on you.

In the multitude of your mighty men.
14 Therefore tumult shall arise among your people,
And all your fortresses shall be plundered
As Shalman plundered Beth Arbel in the day of battle—
A mother dashed in pieces upon her children.
15 Thus it shall be done to you, O Bethel,
Because of your great wickedness.
At dawn the king of Israel
Shall be cut off utterly.

God's Continuing Love for Israel

11 "When Israel was a [1]child, I loved him,
And out of Egypt [a]I called My [b]son.
2 [1]As they called them,
So they [a]went [2]from them;
They sacrificed to the Baals,
And burned incense to carved images.
3 "I[a] taught Ephraim to walk,
Taking them by [1]their arms;
But they did not know that [b]I healed them.
4 I drew them with [1]gentle cords,
With bands of love,
And [a]I was to them as those who take the yoke from their [2]neck.
[b]I stooped and fed them.
5 "He shall not return to the land of Egypt;
But the Assyrian shall be his king,
Because they refused to repent.
6 And the sword shall slash in his cities,
Devour his districts,
And consume them,
Because of their own counsels.
7 My people are bent on [a]backsliding from Me.
Though [1]they call [2]to the Most High,
None at all exalt Him.

How can I hand you over, Israel?
How can I make you like [b]Admah?
How can I set you like Zeboiim?
My heart [1]churns within Me;
My sympathy is stirred.

ENCOUNTER Note Hos. 11:8

How?

God is extremely reluctant to leave us to our sinful ways. It grieves Him deeply when we stray from Him.

9 I will not execute the fierceness of My anger;
I will not again destroy Ephraim.
[a]For I am God, and not man,
The Holy One in your midst;
And I will not [1]come with terror.
10 "They shall walk after the LORD.
[a]He will roar like a lion.
When He roars,
Then His sons shall come trembling from the west;
11 They shall come trembling like a bird from Egypt,
[a]Like a dove from the land of Assyria.
[b]And I will let them dwell in their houses,"
Says the LORD.

God's Charge Against Ephraim

12 "Ephraim has encircled Me with lies,
And the house of Israel with deceit;
But Judah still walks with God,
Even with the [1]Holy One who is faithful.

12 "Ephraim [a]feeds on the wind,
And pursues the east wind;
He daily increases lies and [1]desolation.
[b]Also they make a [2]covenant with the Assyrians,
And [c]oil is carried to Egypt.
2 "The[a] LORD also brings a [1]charge against Judah,
And will punish Jacob according to his ways;
According to his deeds He will recompense him.
3 He took his brother [a]by the heel in the womb,
And in his strength he [b]struggled with God.

10:14 Beth Arbel has been identified with Arbela, about 20 miles northwest of Amman, Jordan.

11:1 God had looked upon the nation of Israel as His own son.

11:8 Admah and Zeboiim were situated near Sodom and Gomorrah and were also destroyed in God's judgment (Gen. 10:19; 14:2, 8; Deut. 29:23).

11:12 Although Judah was not without sin, its people had not descended to the same depths of idolatry and corruption as northern Israel.

4 Yes, he struggled with the Angel and prevailed;
He wept, and sought favor from
Him.
He found Him in [a]Bethel,
And there He spoke to us—
5 That is, the LORD God of hosts.
The LORD is His [a]memorable name.
6 [a]So you, by the help of your God,
return;
Observe mercy and justice,
And wait on your God continually.

7 "A cunning [1]Canaanite!
[a]Deceitful scales are in his hand;
He loves to oppress.
8 And Ephraim said,
[a]'Surely I have become rich,
I have found wealth for myself;
In all my labors
They shall find in me no iniquity that is sin.'

9 "But I am the LORD your God,
Ever since the land of Egypt;
[a]I will again make you dwell in tents,
As in the days of the appointed feast.
10 [a]I have also spoken by the prophets,
And have multiplied visions;
I have given [1]symbols [2]through the witness of the prophets."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Hos. 12:10

I Have Spoken

God speaks to His people. When we drift away from Him and reject Him, God will speak to us in various ways to bring us back to Him. God has a message for each person who wanders from Him.

11 Though [a]Gilead has idols—
Surely they are [1]vanity—
Though they sacrifice bulls in [b]Gilgal,
Indeed their altars shall be heaps in the furrows of the field.

12 Jacob [a]fled to the country of Syria;
[b]Israel served for a spouse,
And for a wife he tended sheep.
13 [a]By a prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt,
And by a prophet he was preserved.
14 Ephraim [a]provoked Him to anger
most bitterly;
Therefore his Lord will leave the guilt of his bloodshed upon him,
[b]And return his reproach upon him.

Relentless Judgment on Israel

13 When Ephraim spoke, trembling,
He exalted himself in Israel;
But when he offended through Baal
worship, he died.
2 Now they sin more and more,
And have made for themselves
molded images,
Idols of their silver, according to their skill;
All of it is the work of craftsmen.
They say of them,
"Let [1]the men who sacrifice [2]kiss the calves!"
3 Therefore they shall be like the morning cloud
And like the early dew that passes
away,
[a]Like chaff blown off from a threshing floor
And like smoke from a chimney.

4 "Yet [a]I am the LORD your God
Ever since the land of Egypt,
And you shall know no God but Me;
For [b]there is no savior besides Me.
5 [a]I [1]knew you in the wilderness,
[b]In the land of [2]great drought.
6 [a]When they had pasture, they were filled;
They were filled and their heart was exalted;
Therefore they forgot Me.

Filled and Forgetful

While a crisis draws us toward God, prosperity can cause indifference to spiritual things, giving us a false sense of self-sufficiency.

7 "So [a]I will be to them like a lion;
Like [b]a leopard by the road I will lurk;
8 I will meet them [a]like a bear deprived of her cubs;
I will tear open their rib cage,
And there I will devour them like a lion.
The [1]wild beast shall tear them.

12:4 The account of Jacob's wrestling in Genesis indicates he wrestled with God (Gen. 32:28). This reference may be to the angel of the Lord which is at times identified with God (Gen. 16:9–13; Judg. 6:11–14).

12:7 "Canaanite" also means "merchant."

12:10 God often used prophets to speak to His people (Amos 2:11, 12; 3:7, 8; 7:10–17).

13:2 To "kiss the calves" was a ritual performed in idol worship.

13:10 This reference recalls the time Israel demanded a king instead of trusting in God's leadership (1 Sam. 8).

10 [1]I will be your King;
[a]Where is any other,
That he may save you in all your cities?
And your judges to whom [b]you said,
'Give me a king and princes'?
11 [a]I gave you a king in My anger,
And took him away in My wrath.

12 "The[a] iniquity of Ephraim is bound up;

For he should not stay long where children are born.

14 "I will ransom them from the [1]power of [2]the grave;

O [4]Grave, [5]I will be your destruction!
[b]Pity is hidden from My eyes."

For she has [a]rebelled against her God.
They shall fall by the sword,
Their infants shall be dashed in pieces,
And their women with child [b]ripped open.

Israel Restored at Last

14 O Israel, [a]return to the LORD your God,
For you have stumbled because of your iniquity;
2 Take words with you,
And return to the LORD.
Say to Him,
"Take away all iniquity;
Receive us graciously,
For we will offer the [a]sacrifices[1] of our lips.
3 Assyria shall [a]not save us,
[b]We will not ride on horses,
Nor will we say anymore to the work of our hands,
'You are our gods.'
[c]For in You the fatherless finds mercy."

4 "I will heal their [a]backsliding,
I will [b]love them freely,
For My anger has turned away from him.

ENCOUNTER Note Hos. 14:4

Backsliding Healed

Sin is a progressive disease. It draws us farther and farther from God and leads to death and destruction. Healing comes only through the Lord as He transforms our heart.

5 I will be like the [a]dew to Israel;
He shall [1]grow like the lily,
And [2]lengthen his roots like Lebanon.
6 His branches shall [1]spread;
[a]His beauty shall be like an olive tree,
And [b]his fragrance like Lebanon.
7 [a]Those who dwell under his shadow shall return;
They shall be revived like grain,
And [1]grow like a vine.
Their [2]scent shall be like the wine of Lebanon.

8 "Ephraim shall say,
'What have I to do anymore with idols?'
I have heard and observed him.
I am like a green cypress tree;
[a]Your fruit is found in Me."

Let him understand these things.
Who is prudent?
Let him know them.
For [a]the ways of the LORD are right;
The righteous walk in them,
But transgressors stumble in them.

14:1 Returning to God is a central theme in the book of Hosea (2:7, 9; 3:5; 5:4; 7:10, 16; 11:5; 12:6).

THE BOOK OF JOEL

INTRODUCTION

The book of Joel is dominated by a horrific natural disaster. A devastating swarm of locusts had assaulted the land of Judah in several stages, devouring the vegetation so thoroughly that grain and drink offerings could not be made in the temple. Thus the people were prevented from fellowshipping with God in worship. Then Joel appeared with a divine interpretation of the circumstances, and the people were dismayed to learn that God had sent the locusts as His instruments of judgment. However, God's message was that if they turned from their sin, He would be gracious and compassionate toward them. He would restore His relationship and blessing to them. We are told little about the prophet Joel. The dating of his book and ministry range from 835 B.C. under the coregency of King Joash to as late as the postexilic era in 200 B.C. Joel was the son of Pethuel. It appears he may have resided in Jerusalem and possibly have been a priest.

SIGNIFICANCE

Joel makes use of the powerful term "the day of the Lord" (1:15; 2:1, 11; 3:14). The prophet clarifies that this will not be a time of vindication and victory for the Israelites but a day of accountability and judgment. Yet, unlike the prophet Amos who spoke of this ominous day as well (Amos 5:18), Joel offers hope for future reconciliation, forgiveness, and blessing. The day of the Lord will be both terrifying and redemptive. Joel also speaks of the day when God will liberally pour out His Spirit on all of His people (2:28–29). This was a radical concept, as the average Israelite would not have hoped to experience such a generous offering of God's presence. The book of Joel is cited elsewhere in Scripture. Its description of the last days appears in subsequent books (2:31; Is. 13:10; Mark 13:24; Rev. 6:12). Finally, this book clearly distinguishes between surface penitence and genuine, deep contrition. Joel warns that shallow, insincere confession of sin will not satisfy God's desire for wholehearted repentance (2:12, 13).

STRUCTURE

This book is divided into two main parts. The first section is dominated by a locust plague. The devastation of God's judgment is described (1:1—2:11) and a call to repentance is issued (2:12–17). In the second half of the book, the prophet holds out hope of God's forgiveness and His vindication against His peoples' enemies. A future time is portrayed when God's Spirit will be poured out on His people and He will dwell with His people forever (2:18—3:21).

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH JOEL

As you read this book, consider the difficulties and crises God has allowed in your life. Could they be a message for you to return to Him? Ponder the condition of your own heart in light of God's call for genuine repentance (2:13). Examine your life to see if God has unmistakably poured out His Spirit on you. Or has sin quenched the Spirit's presence in you? Finally, we all have to face the dreadful reality of the day of the Lord. We must not assume that whenever God approaches us it is always for blessing. Are you prepared for that day of awesome accountability? Perhaps you need to return to the Lord as did the people in Joel's day.

THE word of the LORD that came to [a]Joel the son of Pethuel.

The Land Laid Waste

2 Hear this, you elders,
And give ear, all you inhabitants of the land!
[a]Has anything like this happened in your days,
Or even in the days of your fathers?
3 [a]Tell your children about it,
Let your children tell their children,
And their children another generation.

4 [a]What the chewing [1]locust left, the [b]swarming locust has eaten;
What the swarming locust left, the crawling locust has eaten;
And what the crawling locust left, the consuming locust has eaten.

WORD*Study* LOCUST

Joel 1:4 Locusts, extremely destructive insects, are mentioned fifty-six times in the Bible. Nine different words are used for it. A female locust lays eggs which lie just below the earth's surface for several months until moisture causes them to hatch. Locusts multiply to enormous numbers and then swarm upon a region's vegetation. God used locusts as an instrument of judgment (Ex 10:4, 5).

5 Awake, you [a]drunkards, and weep;
And wail, all you drinkers of wine,
Because of the new wine,
[b]For it has been cut off from your mouth.
6 For [a]a nation has come up against My land,
Strong, and without number;
[b]His teeth are the teeth of a lion,
And he has the fangs of a [1]fierce lion.
7 He has [a]laid waste My vine,
And [1]ruined My fig tree;
He has stripped it bare and thrown it away;
Its branches are made white.

8 [a]Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth
For [b]the husband of her youth.
9 [a]The grain offering and the drink offering
Have been cut off from the house of the LORD;
The priests [b]mourn, who minister to the LORD.
10 The field is wasted,
[a]The land mourns;
For the grain is ruined,
[b]The new wine is dried up,
The oil fails.

11 [a]Be ashamed, you farmers,
Wail, you vinedressers,
For the wheat and the barley;
Because the harvest of the field has perished.
12 [a]The vine has dried up,
And the fig tree has withered;
The pomegranate tree,
The palm tree also,
And the apple tree—
All the trees of the field are withered;
Surely [b]joy has withered away from the sons of men.

Mourning for the Land

13 [a]Gird yourselves and lament, you priests;
Wail, you who minister before the altar;
Come, lie all night in sackcloth,
You who minister to my God;
For the grain offering and the drink offering
Are withheld from the house of your God.
14 [a]Consecrate a fast,
Call [b]a sacred assembly;
Gather the elders
And [c]all the inhabitants of the land
Into the house of the LORD your God,
And cry out to the LORD.

15 [a]Alas for the day!
For [b]the day of the LORD is at hand;
It shall come as destruction from the Almighty.

THE DAY OF THE LORD

Joel 1:15 The Israelites originally understood the "day of the Lord" to be a time when God would bring His people victory over their enemies, with little regard toward how His people conducted themselves. The prophet Amos revealed this view to be misguided. The day of the Lord would actually be a day of judgment first for God's people, and then for others (Amos 5:18). Various prophets spoke about that day (Is. 2:12; Jer. 46:10; Ezek. 13:5; Obad. 15; Zeph. 1:7, 14; Zech. 14:1). It is described as a day when God will demonstrate His sovereignty over all nations and execute His judgment on sinners. The New Testament identifies this day with the second coming of Christ (1 Cor. 1:8; 5:5; Phil. 1:6, 10; 2:16; 2 Thess. 2:2).

Storehouses are in shambles;
Barns are broken down,
For the grain has withered.
18 How [a]the animals groan!
The herds of cattle are restless,
Because they have no pasture;
Even the flocks of sheep [1]suffer punishment.

19 O LORD, [a]to You I cry out;
For [b]fire has devoured the [1]open pastures,
And a flame has burned all the trees of the field.
20 The beasts of the field also [a]cry out to You,
For [b]the water brooks are dried up,
And fire has devoured the [1]open pastures.

And [b]sound an alarm in My holy mountain!
Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble;
For [c]the day of the LORD is coming,
For it is at hand:

A day of clouds and thick darkness,
Like the morning clouds spread over the mountains.

TRUMPET

Joel 2:1 These trumpets were straight, metal instruments primarily used to summon people (Num. 10:1–10). Trumpets were listed as sacred utensils of the temple (Num. 31:6; 2 Kin. 12:13; 2 Chr. 5:12–13).

3 A fire devours before them,
And behind them a flame burns;
The land is like [a]the Garden of Eden before them,
[b]And behind them a desolate wilderness;
Surely nothing shall escape them.
4 [a]Their appearance is like the appearance of horses;
And like [1]swift steeds, so they run.
5 [a]With a noise like chariots
Over mountaintops they leap,
Like the noise of a flaming fire that devours the stubble,
Like a strong people set in battle array.

6 Before them the people writhe in pain;
[a]All faces [1]are drained of color.
7 They run like mighty men,
They climb the wall like men of war;
Every one marches in formation,
And they do not break [a]ranks.
8 They do not push one another;
Every one marches in his own [1]column.
Though they lunge between the weapons,
They are not [2]cut down.
9 They run to and fro in the city,
They run on the wall;
They climb into the houses,
They [a]enter at the windows [b]like a thief.

10 [a]The earth quakes before them,
The heavens tremble;
[b]The sun and moon grow dark,
And the stars diminish their brightness.
11 [a]The LORD gives voice before His army,
For His camp is very great;
[b]For strong is the One who executes His word.
For the [c]day of the LORD is great and very terrible;
[d]Who can endure it?

A Call to Repentance

12 "Now, therefore," says the LORD,
[a]"Turn to Me with all your heart,

1:19 Hot, dry weather was most conducive for both locust plagues and fires.

With fasting, with weeping, and with mourning."
13 So [a]rend your heart, and not [b]your garments;
Return to the LORD your God,
For He is [c]gracious and merciful,
Slow to anger, and of great kindness;
And He relents from doing harm.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Joel 2:12, 13

Wholehearted Repentance

True repentance is not a pleasant experience. It involves a broken heart and deep sorrow. But the outcome is a new beginning and a conspicuous change of life direction.

14 [a]Who knows if He will turn and relent,
And leave [b]a blessing behind Him—
[c]A grain offering and a drink offering
For the LORD your God?

15 [a]Blow the [1]trumpet in Zion,
[b]Consecrate a fast,
Call a sacred assembly;
16 Gather the people,
[a]Sanctify the congregation,
Assemble the elders,
Gather the children and nursing babes;
[b]Let the bridegroom go out from his chamber,
And the bride from her dressing room.
17 Let the priests, who minister to the
LORD,
Weep [a]between the porch and the altar;
Let them say, [b]"Spare Your people,
O LORD,
And do not give Your heritage to reproach,
That the nations should [1]rule over
them.
[c]Why should they say among the peoples,
'Where is their God?' "

The Land Refreshed

18 Then the LORD will [a]be zealous for
His land,
And pity His people.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Joel 2:18

Then

We cry out to God in remorse and He hears us. When we are brokenhearted and genuinely humbled, He will have compassion on us. Then we will experience His bountiful blessing rather than His judgment.

19 The LORD will answer and say to
His people,
"Behold, I will send you [a]grain and
new wine and oil,
And you will be satisfied by them;
I will no longer make you a reproach among the nations.
20 "But [a]I will remove far from you [b]the northern army,
And will drive him away into a barren and desolate land,
With his face toward the eastern sea
And his back [c]toward the western sea;
His stench will come up,
And his foul odor will rise,
Because he has done [1]monstrous
things."

21 Fear not, O land;
Be glad and rejoice,
For the LORD has done [1]marvelous
things!
22 Do not be afraid, you beasts of the

HISTORICAL*Encounter* BROWNWOOD REVIVAL Joel 2:12

On January 22, 1985, Coggin Avenue Baptist Church in Brownwood, Texas held its Sunday worship service as usual. At the close of the service, a college student approached the pastor to ask if he could address the congregation. He read Joel 2:12 and implored the people to return to God. The response was immediate and dramatic as people wept in confession and repentance. Many people were converted. Simultaneous revival erupted in neighboring churches. A mighty movement of God's Spirit swept the local university and then touched college and seminary campuses all across the country.

2:16 Normally a bridegroom would be exempt from certain duties, but the urgent need for repentance compels everyone to present themselves to the Lord (Deut. 20:7; 24:5).

2:17 The taunt, "where is your God" was common among the Israelite's enemies (Ps. 42:10; 79:10; Mic. 7:10). The porch was twenty cubits by ten cubits at the east end of the temple (1 Kin. 6:3). A cubit was roughly eighteen inches.

2:20 The "eastern sea" may be the Dead Sea while the "western sea" is the Mediterranean Sea.

For [a]the open pastures are springing up,
And the tree bears its fruit;
The fig tree and the vine yield their strength.
23 Be glad then, you children of Zion,
And [a]rejoice in the LORD your God;
For He has given you the [1]former rain faithfully,
And He [b]will cause the rain to come down for you—
The former rain,
And the latter rain in the first month.
24 The threshing floors shall be full of wheat,
And the vats shall overflow with new wine and oil.

25 "So I will restore to you the years
[a]that the swarming [1]locust has eaten,
The crawling locust,
The consuming locust,
And the chewing locust,
My great army which I sent among
you.
26 You shall [a]eat in plenty and be satisfied,
And praise the name of the LORD
your God,
Who has dealt wondrously with you;
And My people shall never be put to [b]shame.
27 Then you shall know that I am [a]in the midst of Israel:
[b]I am the LORD your God
And there is no other.
My people shall never be put to shame.

God's Spirit Poured Out

28 "And[a] it shall come to pass afterward
That [b]I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh;
[c]Your sons and your [d]daughters shall prophesy,
Your old men shall dream dreams,
Your young men shall see visions.
29 And also on My [a]menservants and on My maidservants
I will pour out My Spirit in those days.

30 "And [a]I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth:
Blood and fire and pillars of smoke.
31 [a]The sun shall be turned into darkness,
And the moon into blood,
[b]Before the coming of the great and awesome day of the LORD.
32 And it shall come to pass
That [a]whoever calls on the name of
the LORD
Shall be [1]saved.
For [b]in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be [2]deliverance,
As the LORD has said,
Among [c]the remnant whom the
LORD calls.

And I [b]will enter into judgment

On account of My people, My Whom they have scattered among the nations;

They have also divided up My land.
3 They have [a]cast lots for My people,
Have given a boy as payment for a

And sold a girl for wine, that they may drink.

Will you [1]retaliate against Me?
But if you [2]retaliate against Me,
Swiftly and speedily I will return

Poured Out

God expresses His pleasure by pouring out His Spirit upon us. When He does so, the evidence is unmistakable and irrepressible.

2:23 The former rains would come from October to December. The latter rains came from March to April.

2:28 This had been Moses' wish (Num. 11:29).

2:31 These phenomena are mentioned in other biblical books (Is. 13:10; Mark 13:24; Rev. 6:12).

2:32 This may be a reference to Obadiah 17.

3:2 "Jehoshaphat" means "The Lord Has Judged." The Valley of Jehoshaphat may be referring to God's judgment rather than to an actual place.

You have sold to the Greeks,
That you may remove them far from their borders.

7 "Behold, [a]I will raise them
Out of the place to which you have sold them,
And will return your [1]retaliation upon your own head.
8 I will sell your sons and your daughters
Into the hand of the people of Judah,
And they will sell them to the [a]Sabeans,[1]
To a people [b]far off;
For the LORD has spoken."

9 [a]Proclaim this among the nations:
"Prepare for war!
Wake up the mighty men,
Let all the men of war draw near,
Let them come up.
10 [a]Beat your plowshares into swords
And your [1]pruning hooks into spears;
[b]Let the weak say, 'I am strong.' "
11 Assemble and come, all you nations,
And gather together all around.
Cause [a]Your mighty ones to go down there, O LORD.

12 "Let the nations be wakened, and come up to the Valley of Jehoshaphat;
For there I will sit to [a]judge all the surrounding nations.
13 [a]Put in the sickle, for [b]the harvest is ripe.
Come, go down;
For the [c]winepress is full,
The vats overflow—
For their wickedness is great."

14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision!
For [a]the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.
15 The sun and moon will grow dark,
And the stars will diminish their brightness.
16 The LORD also will roar from Zion,
And utter His voice from Jerusalem;
The heavens and earth will shake;
[a]But the LORD will be a shelter for His people,
And the strength of the children of Israel.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Joel 3:16

God's Voice

God's voice created the heavens and the earth, and His voice determines their fate. A word from God is intensely powerful; we ought to tremble when we hear it.

17 "So you shall know that I am the LORD your God,
Dwelling in Zion My [a]holy mountain.
Then Jerusalem shall be holy,
And no aliens shall ever pass through her again."

God Blesses His People

18 And it will come to pass in that day
That the mountains shall drip with new wine,
The hills shall flow with milk,
And all the brooks of Judah shall be flooded with water;
A [a]fountain shall flow from the house of the LORD
And water the Valley of [1]Acacias.

HISTORICAL*Encounter* JOHN BUNYAN Joel 3:21

John Bunyan, famed author of Pilgrim's Progress, was tormented in his soul. He longed for peace with God. One day, he encountered a small group of poor women discussing spiritual things. He was deeply convicted by their piety and their obvious love for God. Yet doubts continued to assail him. How could God ever forgive a man like him, after all he had done? Then, Bunyan read Joel 3:21 and the truth of God's cleansing forgiveness struck a chord with him. God had forgiven him, and His presence was proof. Bunyan was set free.

3:6 "Greeks" might also refer to Ionians, who lived on both sides of the Aegean Sea.

3:13 "Harvest" is often used as a metaphor for judgment (Is. 17:4–6; 63:3; Hos. 6:11; Matt. 13:36–43; Rev. 14:14–20).

3:18 "Milk" may refer to the promises of Canaan being a land flowing with milk and honey (Ex. 3:8; Lev. 20:24; Num. 13:27; Deut. 6:3, Josh. 5:6). "Acacias" is shittim in Hebrew. Acacia wood was used extensively in the tabernacle for the ark and the altar (Ex. 25:10, 23; 26:15; 27:1; 30:1).

3:19 Even after escaping from Egypt, the Israelites suffered much from the Egyptian's hands (1 Kin. 14:25, 26; 2 Kin. 23:28–30; 2 Chr. 12:2–12; 14:9–15; 16:8). Edom had also been a longtime enemy to Israel (Num. 20:14–21; 21:4; Judg. 11:17, 18; 1 Sam. 14:47; 2 Sam. 8:13, 14; 2 Chr. 20:1).

Because of violence against the people of Judah,
For they have shed innocent blood
in their land.
20 But Judah shall abide forever,
And Jerusalem from generation to generation.
21 For I will [a]acquit them of the guilt of bloodshed, whom I had not acquitted;
For the LORD dwells in Zion."

21 [a]Is. 4:4

3:21 "The Lord dwells in Zion" refers to God's presence with His people Israel. The greatest sign of God's forgiveness and blessing is His presence.

THE BOOK OF AMOS

INTRODUCTION

The prophet Amos was from the Judean city of Tekoa, but his ministry was to the northern kingdom of Israel. Amos was a layman, called by God to deliver a somber message to the nation's leaders. The ministry of Amos occurred during the reigns of two prominent kings: Uzziah, king of Judah, and Jeroboam II, king of northern Israel (1:1). His prophetic words came at a time of unprecedented prosperity. Yet, even as some were growing extravagantly wealthy, others were falling into abject poverty and slavery. The wealthy were so distracted by their riches and pleasurable lifestyles they were oblivious to the plight of their fellow citizens. Such callous disregard for others' needs clearly demonstrated the people's disorientation to God. Therefore judgment was imminent.

SIGNIFICANCE

Amos is one of the first writing prophets to hold entire nations accountable for their sins. The book conveys God's deep compassion for society's poor and helpless. According to the prophet, love for God should translate into concern for others. Theology is not abstract. It is lived out in specifics. Further, Amos emphasizes that orthodox worship without corresponding love for God and for others is an abomination (5:21–23). Amos reveals that God's people may be terribly surprised on the Day of the Lord, for God's judgment will begin with His people (5:16–20).

STRUCTURE

The book of Amos is full of graphic pictures and stern warnings. It is a compilation of several powerful messages the prophet delivers to Israel. While it is filled with straightforward accusations, it closes on a note of hope, should God's people return to Him. Amos can be outlined as follows:

Introduction (1:1, 2)
Judgment Against the Nations (1:3—2:16)
Judgment Against Israel (3:1–15)
God's Complaints Against Israel (4:1—6:14)
Visions of Judgment (7:1—9:10)
Words of Hope (9:11–15)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH AMOS

It is difficult to read Amos without feeling convicted over one's own behavior. The book reveals the ugliness of our sin, and it forces us to consider our own selfishness, especially in light of the needy all around us (2:6–8; 4:1; 5:10–13). Amos challenges us to re-examine the way we worship God, because He despises superficial praise (5:21–27). You may sense God calling you into some form of divine service even as God summoned this sheep breeder (7:14, 15). As you study Amos, it inspires the question: Do you truly desire and seek God's will, or would a fresh word from God disturb the plans you have already made? Amos' rebuke for business people whose obsession with profit overshadowed their desire to please God is a challenge to examine our own priorities and motives (8:4–6). Finally, if you are not walking with God as closely as you once did, you can find hope in God's desire to restore His people to an intimate fellowship with Him (9:11–15).

THE words of Amos, who was among the [a]sheepbreeders of [b]Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of [c]Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of [d]Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel, two years before the [e]earthquake.
2 And he said:

"The LORD [a]roars from Zion,
And utters His voice from Jerusalem;
The pastures of the shepherds mourn,
And the top of [b]Carmel withers."

Judgment on the Nations

3 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of
[a]Damascus, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because they have [b]threshed Gilead with implements of iron.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Amos 1:3

Transgressions

God is infinitely patient. Yet we cannot continually ignore His word and do what we please without encountering His judgment.

4 [a]But I will send a fire into the house of Hazael,
Which shall devour the palaces of [b]Ben-Hadad.
5 I will also break the gate [a]bar of Damascus,
And cut off the inhabitant from the Valley of Aven,
And the one who [1]holds the scepter from [2]Beth Eden.
The people of Syria shall go captive to Kir,"
Says the LORD.

6 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of [a]Gaza, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because they took captive the whole captivity
To deliver them up to Edom.

7 [a]But I will send a fire upon the wall of Gaza,
Which shall devour its palaces.
8 I will cut off the inhabitant [a]from Ashdod,
And the one who holds the scepter from Ashkelon;
I will [b]turn My hand against Ekron,
And [c]the remnant of the Philistines shall perish,"
Says the Lord GOD.

9 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of [a]Tyre, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom,
And did not remember the covenant of brotherhood.
10 But I will send a fire upon the wall of Tyre,
Which shall devour its palaces."

11 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of [a]Edom, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because he pursued his [b]brother with the sword,
And cast off all pity;
His anger tore perpetually,
And he kept his wrath forever.
12 But [a]I will send a fire upon Teman,
Which shall devour the palaces of Bozrah."

13 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of [a]the people of Ammon, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because they ripped open the women with child in Gilead,
That they might enlarge their territory.
14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of [a]Rabbah,
And it shall devour its palaces,
[b]Amid shouting in the day of battle,
And a tempest in the day of the whirlwind.
15 [a]Their king shall go into captivity,
He and his princes together,"
Says the LORD.

1:1 Tekoa was ten miles south of Jerusalem. King Uzziah reigned in Judah from 792 to 740 B.C. and Jeroboam II ruled Israel from 793 to 753 B.C. The earthquake is mentioned in Zechariah 14:5.

1:2 Mount Carmel represented one of the highest points in Palestine.

1:3 Damascus was the ancient Syrian capital.

1:4 Hazael was the Israelites' relentless foe (1 Kin. 19:15–17; 2 Kin. 8:7–15, 28, 29; 9:14, 15; 10:32, 33; 13:3, 22, 23). Ben-Hadad was Hazael's successor (2 Kin. 13:24, 25).

1:6 Gaza was the strongest of five major Philistine cities.

1:12 Teman was a major Edomite city (Gen. 36:15, 42; Jer. 49:7; Obad. 8, 9). Bozrah was the capital of Edom, located half way between Teman and the south end of the Dead Sea (Gen. 36:33).

1:13 For the sins of the people of Ammon, see Judg. 10:7; 11:4; 1 Sam. 11:1–11.

1:14 Rabbah is present-day Amman, the capital of Jordan.

2 Thus says the LORD:
[a]"For three transgressions of Moab,
and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because he [b]burned the bones of the king of Edom to lime.
2 But I will send a fire upon Moab,
And it shall devour the palaces of
[a]Kerioth;
Moab shall die with tumult,
With shouting and trumpet sound.
3 And I will cut off [a]the judge from its midst,
And slay all its princes with him,"
Says the LORD.

Judgment on Judah

4 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of [a]Judah,
and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
[b]Because they have despised the law of the LORD,
And have not kept His commandments.
[c]Their lies lead them astray,
Lies [d]which their fathers followed.
5 [a]But I will send a fire upon Judah,
And it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem."

Judgment on Israel

6 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of [a]Israel,
and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because [b]they sell the righteous for silver,
And the [c]poor for a pair of sandals.
7 They [1]pant after the dust of the earth which is on the head of the poor,
And [a]pervert the way of the humble.
[b]A man and his father go in to the same girl,
[c]To defile My holy name.
8 They lie down [a]by every altar on clothes [b]taken in pledge,
And drink the wine of [1]the condemned in the house of their god.

9 "Yet it was I who destroyed the
[a]Amorite before them,
Whose height was like the [b]height of the cedars,
And he was as strong as the oaks;
Yet I [c]destroyed his fruit above
And his roots beneath.
10 Also it was [a]I who brought you up from the land of Egypt,
And [b]led you forty years through the wilderness,
To possess the land of the Amorite.
11 I raised up some of your sons as
[a]prophets,
And some of your young men as [b]Nazirites.
Is it not so, O you children of Israel?"
Says the LORD.
12 "But you gave the Nazirites wine to drink,
And commanded the prophets
[a]saying,
'Do not prophesy!'

ENCOUNTER Note — Amos 2:12

Do Not Prophesy!

Sometimes we'd rather not hear what God has to say. He always speaks the truth, regardless of how troubling it may be. If you are not hearing God speak, maybe you have closed your ears to His voice.

13 "Behold,[a] I am [1]weighed down by
you,
As a cart full of sheaves [2]is weighed down.
14 [a]Therefore [1]flight shall perish from the swift,
The strong shall not strengthen his power,
[b]Nor shall the mighty [2]deliver
himself;
15 He shall not stand who handles the bow,
The swift of foot shall not [1]escape,
Nor shall he who rides a horse deliver himself.
16 The most [1]courageous men of might Shall flee naked in that day,"
Says the LORD.

Authority of the Prophet's Message

3 Hear this word that the LORD has spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying:

2:1 This violated the ancient rules of conduct which prescribed respect toward slain royalty. Desecrating a corpse was considered exceedingly wicked (2 Kin. 9:34).

2:2 Kerioth was the center of worship for the Moabite idol Chemosh.

2:7 The Law clearly spoke to such sins (Lev. 18:15; 20:12; Deut. 22:30).

2:11 For the law of Nazirites, see Num 6:1–8.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Amos 3:2

Election Brings Discipline

Intimacy with God comes at a price. After experiencing God's loving care, we are without excuse for abandoning Him and forsaking His will.

WORD*Study* KNOW

Amos 3:2 For Hebrews, to know something was to experience it. Biblically, for a man and woman to "know" each other was to engage in sexual relations. "Knowing God" meant the people had more than mere factual knowledge about Him. It meant they experienced Him personally (Hos. 2:16). They received His love and care. The Old Testament prophets often condemned God's people for seeking to know pagan idols more than they sought to walk with and love the true God (Hos. 4:6; 6:6).

3 Can two walk together, unless they are agreed?
4 Will a lion roar in the forest, when he has no prey?
Will a young lion [1]cry out of his den, if he has caught nothing?
5 Will a bird fall into a snare on the earth, where there is no [1]trap for it?
Will a snare spring up from the earth, if it has caught nothing at all?
6 If a [1]trumpet is blown in a city, will not the people be afraid?
[a]If there is calamity in a city, will not the LORD have done it?
7 Surely the Lord GOD does nothing,
Unless [a]He reveals His secret to His servants the prophets.
8 A lion has roared!
Who will not fear?
The Lord GOD has spoken!
[a]Who can but prophesy?

Punishment of Israel's Sins

9 "Proclaim in the palaces at [1]Ashdod,
And in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say:
'Assemble on the mountains of Samaria;
See great tumults in her midst,
And the [2]oppressed within her.
10 For they [a]do not know to do right,'
Says the LORD,
'Who store up violence and [1]robbery in their palaces.' "

11 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

"An adversary shall be all around the land;
He shall sap your strength from you,
And your palaces shall be plundered."

12 Thus says the LORD:

"As a shepherd [1]takes from the mouth of a lion
Two legs or a piece of an ear,
So shall the children of Israel be taken out
Who dwell in Samaria—
In the corner of a bed and [2]on the edge of a couch!
13 Hear and testify against the house of Jacob,"
Says the Lord GOD, the God of hosts,
14 "That in the day I punish Israel for their transgressions,
I will also visit destruction on the altars of [a]Bethel;
And the horns of the altar shall be cut off
And fall to the ground.
15 I will [1]destroy [a]the winter house along with [b]the summer house;
The [c]houses of ivory shall perish,
And the great houses shall have an end,"
Says the LORD.

4 Hear this word, you [a]cows of Bashan, who are on the mountain of Samaria,
Who oppress the [b]poor,
Who crush the needy,
Who say to [1]your husbands, "Bring wine, let us [c]drink!"
2 [a]The Lord GOD has sworn by His holiness:
"Behold, the days shall come upon you
When He will take you away [b]with fishhooks,
And your posterity with fishhooks.
3 [a]You will go out through broken walls,

3:9 To "proclaim" was the function of a herald. Ashdod and Egypt symbolized evil and oppression to the Israelites.

3:14 The horns of the altar would normally have been a safe place of refuge.

4:1 "Cows" may allude to Baal worship. Baal was often depicted as a bull. Bashan was the most fertile region in Gilead.

Each one straight ahead of her,
And you will [1]be cast into Harmon,"
Says the LORD.

4 "Come[a] to Bethel and transgress,
At [b]Gilgal multiply transgression;
[c]Bring your sacrifices every morning,
[d]Your tithes every three [1]days.
5 [a]Offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven,
Proclaim and announce [b]the freewill offerings;
For this you love,
You children of Israel!"
Says the Lord GOD.

Israel Did Not Accept Correction

6 "Also I gave you [1]cleanness of teeth in all your cities,
And lack of bread in all your places;
[a]Yet you have not returned to Me,"
Says the LORD.

7 "I also withheld rain from you,
When there were still three months to the harvest.
I made it rain on one city,
I withheld rain from another city.
One part was rained upon,
And where it did not rain the part withered.
8 So two or three cities wandered to another city to drink water,
But they were not satisfied;
Yet you have not returned to Me,"
Says the LORD.

9 "I[a] blasted you with blight and mildew.
When your gardens increased,
Your vineyards,
Your fig trees,
And your olive trees,
[b]The locust devoured them;
Yet you have not returned to Me,"
Says the LORD.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Amos 4:9

Yet

God loves you too much to let you go your own way. He will go to great lengths to gain your attention and make you aware of the gravity of your defection. He wants you back.

10 "I sent among you a plague [a]after the manner of Egypt;
Your young men I killed with a sword,
Along with your captive horses;
I made the stench of your camps come up into your nostrils;
Yet you have not returned to Me,"
Says the LORD.

11 "I overthrew some of you,
As God overthrew [a]Sodom and Gomorrah,
And you were like a firebrand plucked from the burning;
Yet you have not returned to Me,"
Says the LORD.

12 "Therefore thus will I do to you,
O Israel;
Because I will do this to you,
[a]Prepare to meet your God, O Israel!"

13 For behold,
He who forms mountains,
And creates the [1]wind,
[a]Who declares to man what [2]his thought is,
And makes the morning darkness,
[b]Who treads the high places of the earth—
[c]The LORD God of hosts is His name.

A Lament for Israel

5 Hear this word which I [a]take up against you, a lamentation, O house of Israel:

2 The virgin of Israel has fallen;
She will rise no more.
She lies forsaken on her land;
There is no one to raise her up.

3 For thus says the Lord GOD:

"The city that goes out by a thousand
Shall have a hundred left,
And that which goes out by a hundred
Shall have ten left to the house of Israel."

A Call to Repentance

4 For thus says the LORD to the house of Israel:

[a]"Seek Me [b]and live;
5 But do not seek [a]Bethel,
Nor enter Gilgal,
Nor pass over to [b]Beersheba;
For Gilgal shall surely go into captivity,
And [c]Bethel shall come to nothing.

5 [a]Amos 4:4 [b]Amos 8:14 [c]Hos. 4:15
6 [a][Is. 55:3, 6, 7]

4:6 "Cleanness of teeth" refers to an absence of food.

4:9 Blight came from a strong east wind that dried up crops. Mildew was caused by a fungus that turned plants pale (Deut. 28:22; 1 Kin. 8:37; 2 Chr. 6:28; Is. 37:27; Hag. 2:17).

5:2 Virgins symbolized the powerless and defenseless.

5:5 Bethel would be destroyed by the Assyrians (Hos. 10:8) as well as by King Josiah (2 Kin. 23:15–18).

Lest He break out like fire in the house of Joseph,
And devour it,
With no one to quench it in Bethel—
7 You who [a]turn justice to wormwood,
And lay righteousness to rest in the earth!"

8 He made the [a]Pleiades and Orion;
He turns the shadow of death into morning
[b]And makes the day dark as night;
He [c]calls for the waters of the sea
And pours them out on the face of the earth;
[d]The LORD is His name.
9 He [1]rains ruin upon the strong,
So that fury comes upon the fortress.

10 [a]They hate the one who rebukes in the gate,
And they [b]abhor the one who speaks uprightly.
11 [a]Therefore, because you [1]tread down the poor
And take grain [2]taxes from him,
Though [b]you have built houses of hewn stone,
Yet you shall not dwell in them;
You have planted [3]pleasant vineyards,
But you shall not drink wine from them.
12 For I [a]know your manifold transgressions
And your mighty sins:
[b]Afflicting the just and taking bribes;
[c]Diverting the poor from justice at the gate.
13 Therefore [a]the prudent keep silent at that time,
For it is an evil time.

14 Seek good and not evil,
That you may live;
So the LORD God of hosts will be with you,
[a]As you have spoken.
15 [a]Hate evil, love good;
Establish justice in the gate.
[b]It may be that the LORD God of hosts
Will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

The Day of the LORD

16 Therefore the LORD God of hosts, the Lord, says this:

"There shall be wailing in all streets,
And they shall say in all the highways,
'Alas! Alas!'
They shall call the farmer to mourning,
[a]And skillful lamenters to wailing.
17 In all vineyards there shall be wailing,
For [a]I will pass through you,"
Says the LORD.

18 [a]Woe to you who desire the day of the LORD!
For what good is [b]the day of the LORD to you?
It will be darkness, and not light.
19 It will be [a]as though a man fled from a lion,
And a bear met him!
Or as though he went into the house,
Leaned his hand on the wall,
And a serpent bit him!
20 Is not the day of the LORD darkness, and not light?
Is it not very dark, with no brightness in it?

21 "I[a] hate, I despise your feast days,
And [b]I do not savor your sacred assemblies.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Amos 5:21

Despised Worship

Our generation is characterized by pretentious religion. God is not pleased or appeased by meaningless ritual and insincere worship. No amount of offerings or praise songs can replace a reverent heart.

22 [a]Though you offer Me burnt offerings and your grain offerings,
I will not accept them,
Nor will I regard your fattened peace offerings.
23 Take away from Me the noise of your songs,
For I will not hear the melody of your stringed instruments.

5:7 Wormwood, a plant found in the Mediterranean area, was well known for its bitter taste (Deut. 29:18; Prov. 5:4; Jer. 23:15; Lam. 3:19; Amos 6:12).

5:10 The "gate" was in the city wall and was the focal point of the city. This is where the courts heard legal cases.

5:11 Hewn stone represented the opulent luxury introduced into Israel by King Solomon (1 Kin. 5:13–18; 7:9–12).

5:17 "Pass through" carried connotations of the death angel who passed through Egypt and killed firstborn children (Ex. 12:12).

5:18 For "the Day of the Lord" see Joel 1:15.

5:19 Lions and bears were sometimes symbols of God (Hos. 11:10; 13:8; Amos 3:8).

24 [a]But let justice run down like water,
And righteousness like a mighty stream.

25 "Did[a] you offer Me sacrifices and offerings
In the wilderness forty years,
O house of Israel?
26 You also carried [1]Sikkuth[2] [a]your king
And Chiun, your idols,
The star of your gods,
Which you made for yourselves.
27 Therefore I will send you into captivity [a]beyond Damascus,"
Says the LORD, [b]whose name is the God of hosts.

Warnings to Zion and Samaria

And [c]trust in Mount Samaria,
Notable persons in the [d]chief nation,
To whom the house of Israel comes!

And from there go to [c]Hamath the great;
Then go down to Gath of the Philistines.
[d]Are you better than these kingdoms?
Or is their territory greater than your territory?

3 Woe to you who [a]put far off the day of [b]doom,
[c]Who cause [d]the seat of violence to come near;
4 Who lie on beds of ivory,
Stretch out on your couches,
Eat lambs from the flock
And calves from the midst of the stall;
5 [a]Who sing idly to the sound of stringed instruments,
And invent for yourselves [b]musical instruments [c]like David;
6 Who [a]drink wine from bowls,
And anoint yourselves with the best ointments,
[b]But are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.
7 Therefore they shall now go [a]captive as the first of the captives,
And those who recline at banquets shall be removed.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Amos 6:8

Abhorring Pride

God absolutely detests pride. For us to boast in our accomplishments while ignoring our sin is a sure invitation for God to humble us.

9 Then it shall come to pass, that if ten men remain in one house, they shall die. 10 And when [1]a relative of the dead, with one who will burn the bodies, picks up the [2]bodies to take them out of the house, he will say to one inside the house, "Are there any more with you?" Then someone will say, "None." And he will say, [a]"Hold your tongue! [b]For we dare not mention the name of the LORD."

11 For behold, [a]the LORD gives a command:
[b]He will break the great house into bits,
And the little house into pieces.

12 Do horses run on rocks?
Does one plow there with oxen?
Yet [a]you have turned justice into gall,
And the fruit of righteousness into wormwood,
13 You who rejoice over [1]Lo Debar,
Who say, "Have we not taken [2]Karnaim for ourselves
By our own strength?"

14 "But, behold, [a]I will raise up a nation against you,
O house of Israel,"
Says the LORD God of hosts;
"And they will afflict you from the [b]entrance of Hamath
To the Valley of the Arabah."

CHAPTER 7

1 [1]Lit. beginning of the sprouting of

6:1 "Zion" represents Jerusalem and the kingdom of Judah.

6:2 Calneh was in north-central Syria. Hamath was approximately 120 miles north of Damascus (2 Kin. 14:28; 2 Chr. 8:4; Is. 10:9).

6:4 The average Israelite ate little meat, because it was an expensive luxury.

6:13 The non-strategic city of Lo Debar was subdued by King Jeroboam II (2 Kin. 14:28).

6:14 Hamath and the valley of Arabah represented the extreme limits to Israel's northern and southern boundaries, possessed only in its glorious past (1 Kin. 8:65; 2 Kin. 14:25).

7:1 The "king's mowings" referred to the monarch's right to take the first crop from farmers for taxes (1 Kin. 18:5).

was the late crop after the king's mowings.
2 And so it was, when they had finished eating the grass of the land, that I said:

"O Lord GOD, forgive, I pray!
[a]Oh,[1] that Jacob may stand,
For he is small!"
3 So [a]the LORD relented concerning this.
"It shall not be," said the LORD.

Vision of the Fire

4 Thus the Lord GOD showed me: Behold, the Lord GOD called [1]for conflict by fire, and it consumed the great deep and devoured the [2]territory.
5 Then I said:

"O Lord GOD, cease, I pray!
[a]Oh, that Jacob may stand,
For he is small!"
6 So the LORD relented concerning this.
"This also shall not be," said the Lord GOD.

Vision of the Plumb Line

7 Thus He showed me: Behold, the Lord stood on a wall made with a plumb line, with a plumb line in His hand.
8 And the LORD said to me, "Amos, what do you see?" And I said, "A plumb line." Then the Lord said:

"Behold, [a]I am setting a plumb line
In the midst of My people Israel;
[b]I will not pass by them anymore.
9 [a]The [1]high places of Isaac shall be desolate,
And the [2]sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste.
[b]I will rise with the sword against the house of Jeroboam."

Amaziah's Complaint

10 Then Amaziah the [a]priest of [b]Bethel sent to [c]Jeroboam king of Israel, saying,

God's Plumb Line

God sets the standards for our lives; we do not. God knows how far we have spiraled into sin. We may insist we have not strayed from God, but there is no argument against God's measurement.

"Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel. The land is not able to [1]bear all his words.
11 "For thus Amos has said:

'Jeroboam shall die by the sword,
And Israel shall surely be led away [a]captive
From their own land.' "

12 Then Amaziah said to Amos:

"Go, you seer!
Flee to the land of Judah.
There eat bread,
And there prophesy.
13 But [a]never again prophesy at Bethel,
[b]For it is the king's [1]sanctuary,
And it is the royal [2]residence."

14 Then Amos answered, and said to Amaziah:

"I was no prophet,
Nor was I [a]a son of a prophet,
But I was a [b]sheepbreeder
And a tender of sycamore fruit.
15 Then the LORD took me [1]as I followed the flock,
And the LORD said to me,
'Go, [a]prophesy to My people Israel.'
16 Now therefore, hear the word of the LORD:
You say, 'Do not prophesy against Israel,

CHARACTER*Study* AMOS Amos 7:14

The name "Amos" means "Burden" or "One Who Is Supported." He was from Tekoa, ten miles south of Jerusalem. Amos was a sheep breeder, which may indicate he was an owner of sheep and not merely a shepherd who tended a flock. He also tended sycamore fruit. This involved the tedious procedure of pricking the bottom of figs to help them ripen. Amos' prophetic ministry occurred "two years before the earthquake" (1:1). This time is uncertain but may have been around 750 B.C. Amos did not belong to the professional caste of prophets but performed his ministry as a response to God's personal call (7:14, 15). Amos preached to the northern kingdom of Israel when they were experiencing tremendous prosperity. Yet while the wealthy lavished riches on themselves, they oppressed the poor and helpless. Amos thundered against these sins of injustice, warning of future defeat and exile should the people not turn from their wickedness (5:24).

7:3 Time and again throughout history God relented from his intended acts of judgment (Gen. 6:6; Ex. 32:14; 1 Sam. 15:35; Joel 2:13–14; Jon. 3:10; 4:2).

7:10 "Amaziah" means "The Lord Has Been Mighty." Amaziah supervised the temple at Bethel.

ENCOUNTER Note Amos 7:15

God's Call

The most important credential for God's servants is not their skills or abilities but their divine calling. God calls whom He will. He is glorified in demonstrating His strength through our weakness.

And [a]do not [1]spout against the house of Isaac.'

17 "Therefore[a] thus says the LORD:

[b]'Your wife shall be a harlot in the city;
Your sons and daughters shall fall by the sword;
Your land shall be divided by survey line;
You shall die in a [c]defiled land;
And Israel shall surely be led away captive
From his own land.' "

Vision of the Summer Fruit

8 Thus the Lord GOD showed me: Behold, a basket of summer fruit.
2 And He said, "Amos, what do you see?" So I said, "A basket of summer fruit." Then the LORD said to me:

[a]"The end has come upon My people Israel;
[b]I will not pass by them anymore.
3 And [a]the songs of the temple
Shall be wailing in that day,"
Says the Lord GOD—
"Many dead bodies everywhere,
[b]They shall be thrown out in silence."

4 Hear this, you who [1]swallow up the needy,
And make the poor of the land fail,

5 Saying:

"When will the New Moon be past,
That we may sell grain?
And [a]the Sabbath,
That we may [1]trade wheat?

Falsifying the scales by [c]deceit,

7 The LORD has sworn by [a]the pride of Jacob:
"Surely [b]I will never forget any of their works.
8 [a]Shall the land not tremble for this,
And everyone mourn who dwells in it?
All of it shall swell like [1]the River,
Heave and subside
[b]Like the River of Egypt.

9 "And it shall come to pass in that day," says the Lord GOD,
[a]"That I will make the sun go down at noon,
And I will darken the earth in [1]broad daylight;
10 I will turn your feasts into [a]mourning,
[b]And all your songs into lamentation;
[c]I will bring sackcloth on every waist,
And baldness on every head;
I will make it like mourning for an only son,
And its end like a bitter day.

11 "Behold, the days are coming," says the Lord GOD,
"That I will send a famine on the land,
Not a famine of bread,
Nor a thirst for water,
But [a]of hearing the words of the LORD.

ENCOUNTER Note Amos 8:11

Famine

We depend on God's word. We may act like we don't need it but to neglect His word is to starve one's soul.

12 They shall wander from sea to sea,
And from north to east;
They shall run to and fro, seeking the word of the LORD,
But shall [a]not find it.

13 "In that day the fair virgins
And strong young men
Shall faint from thirst.
14 Those who [a]swear by [b]the [1]sin of Samaria,
Who say,
'As your god lives, O Dan!'
And, 'As the way of [c]Beersheba lives!'
They shall fall and never rise again."

7:17 A priest could not be married to a harlot (Lev 21:7).
8:5 An ephah was a dry measure of twenty-two liters. A shekel weighed eleven grams or about four-tenths of an ounce.
8:10 Shaving one's head was a sign of mourning (Jer. 16:6).
8:15 From "sea to sea" may refer to the Mediterranean Sea and the Dead Sea.

The Destruction of Israel

9 I saw the Lord standing by the altar,
and He said:

"Strike the [1]doorposts, that the thresholds may shake,
And [a]break them on the heads of them all.
I will slay the last of them with the sword.
[b]He who flees from them shall not get away,
And he who escapes from them
shall not be delivered.

2 "Though[a] they dig into [1]hell,
From there My hand shall take
them;
[b]Though they climb up to heaven,
From there I will bring them down;
3 And though they [a]hide themselves on top of Carmel,
From there I will search and take
them;
Though they hide from My sight at the bottom of the sea,
From there I will command the serpent, and it shall bite them;
4 Though they go into captivity
before their enemies,
From there [a]I will command the
sword,
And it shall slay them.
[b]I will set My eyes on them for harm and not for good."

5 The Lord GOD of hosts,
He who touches the earth and it
[a]melts,
[b]And all who dwell there mourn;
All of it shall swell like [1]the River,
And subside like the River of Egypt.
6 He who builds His [a]layers[1] in the sky,
And has founded His strata in the earth;
Who [b]calls for the waters of the sea,
And pours them out on the face of the earth—
[c]The LORD is His name.

7 "Are you not like the [1]people of Ethiopia to Me,
O children of Israel?" says the LORD.
"Did I not bring up Israel from the land of Egypt,
The [a]Philistines from [b]Caphtor,[2]
And the Syrians from [c]Kir?

8 "Behold, [a]the eyes of the Lord GOD are on the sinful kingdom,
And I [b]will destroy it from the face of the earth;
Yet I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob,"
Says the LORD.

9 "For surely I will command,
And will [1]sift the house of Israel
among all nations,
As grain is sifted in a sieve;
[a]Yet not the smallest [2]grain shall fall to the ground.
10 All the sinners of My people shall die by the sword,
[a]Who say, 'The calamity shall not overtake nor confront us.'

Israel Will Be Restored

11 "On[a] that day I will raise up
The [1]tabernacle of David, which has fallen down,
And [2]repair its damages;
I will raise up its ruins,
And rebuild it as in the days of old;
12 [a]That they may possess the remnant of [b]Edom,[1]
And all the Gentiles who are called by My name,"
Says the LORD who does this thing.

13 "Behold, [a]the days are coming," says
the LORD,
"When the plowman shall overtake
the reaper,
And the treader of grapes him who sows seed;
[b]The mountains shall drip with sweet wine,
And all the hills shall flow with it.
14 [a]I will bring back the captives of My people Israel;
[b]They shall build the waste cities and inhabit them;
They shall plant vineyards and drink wine from them;
They shall also make gardens and eat fruit from them.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Amos 9:14

Rebuilding

Sin yields brokenness. Repentance brings a return of God's favor and blessing. If you are living in rebellion, you are one genuine, repentant prayer away from the path of divine restoration.

15 I will plant them in their land,
[a]And no longer shall they be pulled up
From the land I have given them,"
Says the LORD your God.

THE BOOK OF OBADIAH

INTRODUCTION

In 587 B.C., the Babylonian armies of King Nebuchadnezzar overcame Jerusalem's defenses to defeat the kingdom of Judah. Numerous Judean refugees fled for their lives before the rapacious enemy. Rather than helping their suffering neighbors, the Edomites joined in the pillaging (13). Capturing desperate Judean refugees, they mercilessly turned them over to their Babylonian pursuers (14). Such treachery by the descendents of Esau and Abraham was despicable and resulted in their condemnation by God's prophet. Even as Obadiah wrote, Arab forces were conspiring against Edom. Ultimately this proud nation would itself be dispossessed by the Nabateans.

SIGNIFICANCE

Obadiah addresses two disturbing questions that plague God's people: Is God truly sovereign over all the nations? Why does God allow His people to suffer at the hands of the wicked? The people of Obadiah's day could not understand why God would allow depraved, idolatrous people to violate the sacred temple chambers and to tear down and burn the house of God. The Israelites were bewildered that God would be so thorough in disciplining them for their sins and yet use an even more sinful nation to deliver the punishment. The Book of Obadiah affirms God's sovereignty over all, even world superpowers. God uses them for His purposes as a king makes use of a servant. Likewise, while God does work through wicked people, He will ultimately judge them thoroughly for their own sin.

STRUCTURE

Obadiah is the shortest book in the Old Testament. It is one of two prophetic books that focus entirely on a nation other than the Israelites. Its twenty-one verses can be divided into three major sections: Edom's imminent judgment (1–9); Edom's crimes (10–16); and Israel's vindication (17–21).

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH OBADIAH

As we read of God's thorough judgment of Edom, we are reminded that God ultimately judges every nation and world leader according to His divine scale of justice. The arrogant pride of the Edomites demonstrates the danger in believing we are secure and immune to calamity. On the contrary, the passionate prophet inspires a desire to see all who are oppressed receive justice. Finally, God's response to Edom warns us to take a more compassionate stance toward those who suffer, for we could be visited by the same crisis.

The Coming Judgment on Edom

THE vision of Obadiah.

Thus says the Lord GOD
[a]concerning Edom
[b](We have heard a report from the LORD,
And a messenger has been sent among the nations, saying,
"Arise, and let us rise up against her for battle"):

2 "Behold, I will make you small among the nations;
You shall be greatly despised.
3 The [a]pride of your heart has deceived you,
You who dwell in the clefts of the rock,
Whose habitation is high;
[b]You who say in your heart,
'Who will bring me down to the ground?'

ENCOUNTER*Note* Obad. 3

The Pride of Your Heart

Our pride blinds us. It makes us overlook our sin and magnify our self-sufficiency. But pride inevitably brings us down.

4 [a]Though you ascend as high as the eagle,
And though you [b]set your nest among the stars,
From there I will bring you down," says the LORD.

5 "If [a]thieves had come to you,
If robbers by night—
Oh, how you will be cut off!—
Would they not have stolen till they had enough?
If grape-gatherers had come to you,
[b]Would they not have left some gleanings?

6 "Oh, how Esau shall be searched out!
How his hidden treasures shall be sought after!
7 All the men in your confederacy
Shall force you to the border;
[a]The men at peace with you
Shall deceive you and prevail against you.
Those who eat your bread shall lay a [1]trap for you.
[b]No[2] one is aware of it.

8 "Will[a] I not in that day," says the LORD,
"Even destroy the wise men from Edom,
And understanding from the mountains of Esau?
9 Then your [a]mighty men, O [b]Teman, shall be dismayed,
To the end that everyone from the mountains of Esau
May be cut off by slaughter.

Edom Mistreated His Brother

10 "For [a]violence against your brother Jacob,
Shame shall cover you,
And [b]you shall be cut off forever.
11 In the day that you [a]stood on the other side—
In the day that strangers carried captive his forces,
When foreigners entered his gates
And [b]cast lots for Jerusalem—
Even you were as one of them.

12 "But you should not have [a]gazed[1] on the day of your brother
[2]In the day of his captivity;
Nor should you have [b]rejoiced over the children of Judah
In the day of their destruction;
Nor should you have spoken proudly
In the day of distress.

CHARACTER*Study*

OBADIAH

Obad. 1

The name Obadiah is common in the Old Testament and means "the servant of the Lord." This may have been the prophet's actual name or it could be his humble, anonymous self-identification. The name may reflect his pious parents' aspirations for their son. Obadiah's father and hometown are not mentioned as they are for most biblical prophets. The prophet's passionate writing style may indicate he was an eyewitness to some of the tragic events or to the ensuing suffering. Obadiah is characterized by indignation at injustice and disdain for cruelty toward helpless victims.

3 The Edomites lived in a mountainous region in seemingly impregnable fortresses. Some of the mountains in Edom reached 6,000 feet, while Jerusalem was 2,400 feet above sea level.

8 Edom was renowned for its wise men (Jer. 49:7). Eliphaz, one of Job's counselors, was from Teman in Edom (Job 2:11).

10 God had earlier instructed the Israelites to treat Edomites as brothers (Deut. 23:7).

The Fallen

Our heart's condition is revealed by how we treat those who have fallen. A hardened heart rejoices or is indifferent at another's calamity. A contrite heart breaks for those who stumble.

13 You should not have entered the gate of My people
In the day of their calamity.
Indeed, you should not have [1]gazed on their affliction
In the day of their calamity,
Nor laid hands on their substance
In the day of their calamity.
14 You should not have stood at the crossroads
To cut off those among them who escaped;
Nor should you have [1]delivered up those among them who remained
In the day of distress.

15 "For[a] the day of the LORD upon all the nations is near;
[b]As you have done, it shall be done to you;
Your [1]reprisal shall return upon your own head.
16 [a]For as you drank on My holy mountain,
So shall all the nations drink continually;
Yes, they shall drink, and swallow,
And they shall be as though they had never been.

Israel's Final Triumph

17 "But on Mount Zion there [a]shall be [1]deliverance,
And there shall be holiness;
The house of Jacob shall possess their possessions.
18 The house of Jacob shall be a fire,
And the house of Joseph [a]a flame;
But the house of Esau shall be stubble;
They shall kindle them and devour them,
And no survivor shall remain of the house of Esau,"
For the LORD has spoken.

19 The [1]South [a]shall possess the mountains of Esau,
[b]And the Lowland shall possess Philistia.
They shall possess the fields of Ephraim
And the fields of Samaria.
Benjamin shall possess Gilead.
20 And the captives of this host of the children of Israel
Shall possess the land of the Canaanites
As [a]far as Zarephath.
The captives of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad
[b]Shall possess the cities of the [1]South.
21 Then [a]saviors[1] shall come to Mount Zion
To judge the mountains of Esau,
And the [b]kingdom shall be the LORD's.

21 [a][James 5:20] [b][Rev. 11:15] [1]deliverers

15 "The Day of the Lord" was considered to be a future time when God would vindicate Himself and His people against their enemies (Lam. 1:12; 2:21; Joel 2:1, 2; Amos 5:18–20).

18 The imagery of fire and stubble often represent God's judgment on the wicked (Ex. 15:7; Is. 10:17; Matt. 3:12; Luke 3:17).

19 "The south" is the Negev, consisting of the region of Simeon and southern Judah.

20 Zarephath was a Phoenician city fourteen miles north of Tyre. Sepharad has not been clearly identified, but may be Sardis in Lydia and may represent those Jewish exiles far from Palestine who would be restored one day.

THE BOOK OF JONAH

INTRODUCTION

This book chronicles the pilgrimage of a reluctant missionary named Jonah. He lived in Gath Hepher during the reign of Jeroboam II in the eighth century B.C. Jonah foretold northern Israel's prosperity and expansion (2 Kin. 14:25). This would have made him unpopular in the southern kingdom of Judah. It is unclear whether Jonah wrote this book, but in light of the extremely negative way he is portrayed, it would be remarkable had he written so candidly about his own shortcomings.

SIGNIFICANCE

The book makes a valuable contribution to the canon as a part of the Minor Prophets: It highlights the magnitude of God's call. God's call can be frightening and overwhelming, but it cannot be rejected without great cost. While other prophets resisted and questioned God's call, Jonah is notorious for actively fleeing from it. The Book of Jonah also reveals God's tenderness toward all people. Whereas the Israelites believed God's love was restricted to them, Jonah's assignment was evidence of God's love for even the wickedest people on earth. Finally, Jonah demonstrates the force of God's word, which is so powerful that even when spoken by a reluctant preacher it can transform the hardest and vilest of hearts.

STRUCTURE

This short book is an intriguing story and it is full of surprises. Chapter 1 discloses God's desire to send His word to the most vicious and debased people of that day. But when He chooses Jonah to do it, God's holy messenger flees in the opposite direction! The chapter ends with a highly unusual development: A large fish is appointed to redirect the prophet. Chapter 2 reveals the surprising change of heart in the prodigal prophet and his subsequent prayer to God. Chapter 3 recounts a notably short sermon, considering the magnitude of the message. Even more amazing is the response—wholesale repentance! Chapter 4 presents a final contrast: the selfish, hard-heartedness of one of God's children, juxtaposed with the amazing love God shows for even the most contemptible sinner.

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH JONAH

Jonah's transparent weaknesses provide many opportunities to consider our own shortcomings. We too may have sought to avoid God's will, though such behavior is patently foolish. Perhaps Jonah's reluctance to share God's message mirrors our own lack of concern for those who have yet to hear the Gospel. We should be both encouraged and challenged by God's infinite, universal love for people, even those who appear the least likely to respond to Him.

Jonah's Disobedience

NOW the word of the LORD came to [a]Jonah the son of Amittai, saying,
2 "Arise, go to [a]Nineveh, that [b]great city, and cry out against it; for [c]their wickedness has come up before Me."
3 But Jonah arose to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. He went down to [a]Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid the fare, and went down into it, to go with them to [b]Tarshish [c]from the presence of the LORD.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Jon. 1:3

Fleeing

God's assignments are enormous. God calls us to do things that seem impossible and make us uncomfortable. However, there is no escaping God's call. Once God speaks all we can reasonably do is submit.

The Storm at Sea

4 But [a]the LORD [1]sent out a great wind on the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship was about to be broken up.
5 Then the mariners were afraid; and every man cried out to his god, and threw the cargo that was in the ship into the sea, to lighten [1]the load. But Jonah had gone down [a]into the lowest parts of the ship, had lain down, and was fast asleep.
6 So the captain came to him, and said to him, "What do you mean, sleeper? Arise, [a]call on your God; [b]perhaps your God will consider us, so that we may not perish."
7 And they said to one another, "Come, let us [a]cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this trouble has come upon us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah.
8 Then they said to him, [a]"Please tell us! For whose cause is this trouble upon us? What is your occupation? And where do you come from? What is your country? And of what people are you?"
9 So he said to them, "I am a Hebrew; and I fear [1]the LORD, the God of heaven, [a]who made the sea and the dry land."

Jonah Thrown into the Sea

10 Then the men were exceedingly afraid, and said to him, "Why have you done this?" For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.
11 Then they said to him, "What shall we do to you that the sea may be calm for us?"—for the sea was growing more tempestuous.
12 And he said to them, [a]"Pick me up and [1]throw me into the sea; then the sea will become calm for you. For I know that this great tempest is because of me."
13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to return to land, [a]but they could not, for the sea continued to grow more tempestuous against them.
14 Therefore they cried out to the LORD and said, "We pray, O LORD, please do not let us perish for this man's life, and [a]do not charge us with innocent blood; for You, O LORD, [b]have done as it pleased You."

CHARACTER*Study* JONAH Jon. 1:1

Jonah, whose name means "Dove," was the son of Amittai. He was from Gath Hepher, three miles northeast of Nazareth in the tribal area of Zebulun (2 Kin. 14:25). Jonah lived during the reign of Jeroboam II, which was approximately 793 to 753 B.C. He had delivered the welcome message to the wicked king that God would grant northern Israel peace and prosperity, a prophecy that came to pass. While Jonah agreed to deliver words of prosperity to an evil Israelite king, he was unwilling to preach a word of judgment to the pagan city of Nineveh. His concern was that God in his mercy might forgive the Assyrians whom Jonah despised (4:2). Sadly, Jonah personifies the mindset of many Christians. We wish to serve God on our terms; we believe we can run from God's call, and we think more of our safety and comfort than of the countless multitudes who desperately need a word from God.

1:1 Nineveh, situated on the eastern shores of the Tigris River in present-day Iraq, was a major Assyrian city with a population of 120,000 (4:11). Scripture indicates it was an ancient city established by Nimrod, dating back to the events of Genesis 10. Its heyday was between 800 and 612 B.C. The Assyrian king, Sennacherib (704–681 B.C.), expanded the city, built a magnificent palace, and temporarily made it his capital. Nahum prophesied against it (Nah 3:7), and Nineveh was indeed destroyed by the Medes and the Babylonians in 612 B.C.

1:3 Joppa was a Gentile coastal city in the area of present-day Tel Aviv. It lay fifty miles south of Jonah's home town of Gath Hepher. Tarshish is generally identified with Tartessus in Spain, roughly 2,000 miles to the west. Nineveh lay 500 miles to the northeast.

1:5 The violent storm that terrified the veteran Phoenician sailors did not wake the slumbering prophet. The word "sleep" is the same word used to describe Adam's unconscious state while undergoing divine surgery (Gen. 2:21).

1:10 Ironically, unbelievers were shocked at the indifferent manner in which a man of God disobeyed his Lord.

15 So they picked up Jonah and threw him into the sea, [a]and the sea ceased from its raging.
16 Then the men [a]feared the LORD exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice to the LORD and took vows.

Jonah's Prayer and Deliverance

17 Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow Jonah. And [a]Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

2 Then Jonah prayed to the LORD his God from the fish's belly.
2 And he said:

"I [a]cried out to the LORD because of my affliction,
[b]And He answered me.

"Out of the belly of Sheol I cried,
And You heard my voice.
3 [a]For You cast me into the deep,
Into the heart of the seas,
And the floods surrounded me;
[b]All Your billows and Your waves passed over me.
4 [a]Then I said, 'I have been cast out of Your sight;
Yet I will look again [b]toward Your holy temple.'
5 The [a]waters surrounded me, even to my soul;
The deep closed around me;
Weeds were wrapped around my head.
6 I went down to the [1]moorings of the mountains;
The earth with its bars closed behind me forever;
Yet You have brought up my [a]life from the pit,
O LORD, my God.

7 "When my soul fainted within me,
I remembered the LORD;
[a]And my prayer went up to You,
Into Your holy temple.

8 "Those who regard [a]worthless idols
Forsake their own [1]Mercy.
9 But I will [a]sacrifice to You
With the voice of thanksgiving;
I will pay what I have [b]vowed.
[c]Salvation is of the [d]LORD."

I Remembered

We habitually forget our constant need of God's presence and provision in our lives. It is generally through crises much more than in peaceful times that we remember our desperate dependence on God and we prayerfully turn to Him.

10 So the LORD spoke to the fish, and it vomited Jonah onto dry land.

Jonah Preaches at Nineveh

3 Now the word of the LORD came to Jonah the second time, saying,
2 "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach to it the message that I tell you."
3 So Jonah arose and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, [1]a three-day journey in extent.
4 And Jonah began to enter the city on the first day's walk. Then [a]he cried out and said, "Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!"

The People of Nineveh Believe

5 So the [a]people of Nineveh believed God, proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest to the least of them.
6 Then word came to the king of Nineveh; and he arose from his throne and laid aside his robe, covered himself with sackcloth [a]and sat in ashes.
7 [a]And he caused it to be proclaimed and published throughout Nineveh by the decree of the king and his [1]nobles, saying,

Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste anything; do not let them eat, or drink water.
8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily to God; yes, [a]let every one turn from his evil way and from [b]the violence that is in his hands.

1:17 Three days and three nights were thought to be the time required to travel to the underworld and back. Moreover, after three days a corpse was considered to be beyond resuscitation. Jesus would cite Jonah's experience as paralleling his own death and resurrection (Matt. 12:39, 40; 16:4; Luke 11:29).

2:2 Sheol was the place of the dead. Jonah saw himself as dead while in the great fish. Sheol also symbolized separation from God (Ps. 88:3–12; Is. 38:18).

2:8 The word "idol" translates the Hebrew word meaning "vapor."

2:10 God was gracious to his disobedient prophet. He had used a lion to punish another wayward messenger who met a more grisly end (1 Kin. 13:24).

3:3 The walls of Nineveh were approximately eight miles in circumference, but the larger administrative district of the city may have been fifty-five miles in circumference.

3:4 In Hebrew, Jonah's sermon was only five words long.

3:5 The result of Jonah's sermon was dramatic. When the prophet Jeremiah preached a similar message to God's people, he was thrown into prison (Jer. 26:8).

3:6 Sackcloth and ashes were signs of mourning as well as genuine repentance.

9 [a]Who can tell if God will turn and relent, and turn away from His fierce anger, so that we may not perish?

10 [a]Then God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God relented from the disaster that He had said He would bring upon them, and He did not do it.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Jon. 3:10

Their Works

It is one thing to say you're sorry; it is another to live out your repentance. The truest sign of genuine repentance is a changed life.

Jonah's Anger and God's Kindness

4 But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he became angry.
2 So he prayed to the LORD, and said, "Ah, LORD, was not this what I said when I was still in my country? Therefore I [a]fled previously to Tarshish; for I know that You are a [b]gracious and merciful God, slow to anger and abundant in lovingkindness, One who relents from doing harm.
3 [a]"Therefore now, O LORD, please take my life from me, for [b]it is better for me to die than to live!"
4 Then the LORD said, "Is it right for you to be angry?"
5 So Jonah went out of the city and sat on the east side of the city. There he made himself a shelter and sat under it in the shade, till he might see what would become of the city.

Gracious and Merciful

Think of the most hardened sinners you know. God loves them. He has mercy and compassion on them. This truth exceeds anything we could understand or practice in our own strength.

6 And the LORD God prepared a [1]plant and made it come up over Jonah, that it might be shade for his head to deliver him from his misery. So Jonah [2]was very grateful for the plant.
7 But as morning dawned the next day God prepared a worm, and it so damaged the plant that it withered.
8 And it happened, when the sun arose, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat on Jonah's head, so that he grew faint. Then he wished death for himself, and said, [a]"It is better for me to die than to live."
9 Then God said to Jonah, "Is it right for you to be angry about the plant?" And he said, "It is right for me to be angry, even to death!"
10 But the LORD said, "You have had pity on the plant for which you have not labored, nor made it grow, which [1]came up in a night and perished in a night.
11 "And should I not pity Nineveh, [a]that great city, in which are more than one hundred and twenty thousand persons [b]who cannot discern between their right hand and their left—and much livestock?"

6 [1]Heb. kikayon, exact identity unknown [2]Lit. rejoiced with great joy
8 [a]Jon. 4:3
10 [1]Lit. was a son of a night
11 [a]Jon. 1:2; 3:2, 3 [b]Deut. 1:39

4:3 Jonah's prayer is similar to that of the discouraged Elijah (1 Kin. 19:4). The difference is that Elijah was depressed at the people's rejection of his message, while Jonah was upset because the people accepted his word.

4:5 The word for shelter describes a temporary structure covered with leaves that was used during the Feast of Tabernacles (Lev. 23:40–42; Neh. 8:14–18).

4:6 The Lord is portrayed in Jonah as sovereign over nature. He prepares a storm (1:4), a great fish (1:17), a plant (4:6), and a worm (4:7) to accomplish His purposes.

4:11 Not discerning between the right and left hand may indicate the Ninevites were religiously and morally naive and could not, on their own, do what was pleasing to God.

THE BOOK OF MICAH

INTRODUCTION

The prophet Micah lived during turbulent times in the latter half of eighth century B.C. A contemporary of the prophet Isaiah, Micah was concerned that the flagrant injustice and idolatry of Samaria and Judah would lead to God's judgment (1:8–16). Even as Micah prophesied, Samaria was in its final days. The mighty Assyrian Empire was flexing its muscles and capturing town after town in Palestine. In 722 B.C. Assyria eliminated the Northern Kingdom as a nation. In 701, King Sennacherib launched an invasion of southern Palestine, conquering forty-six Judean towns and ultimately besieging King Hezekiah in Jerusalem (2 Kin. 18). The Book of Micah provides commentary on why God allowed His people to be defeated by pagan nations like the Assyrians.

SIGNIFICANCE

Micah was from a rural farming community in southern Judah. He displayed an acute concern for justice. He challenged wealthy land barons who cheated small farmers of their land (2:1–2). He condemned business and government leaders who shamelessly swindled their countrymen (3:1–4). He castigated the prophets who predicted peace when judgment was coming (3:5). He denounced religious leaders who served money rather than God (3:9–12). But Micah also offered hope, for he saw a day when the Messiah would come, bringing peace to His people (5:2–5). The prophet taught that God desired heartfelt worship, not ritual service and offerings (6:6–8). He foresaw a day when God would ultimately forgive His people's sins and show them mercy (7:18–20).

STRUCTURE

The Book of Micah can be divided into thirds, including three sets of oracles of judgment and three sets of promises of future blessing:

Oracles of Judgment	Promises of Blessing
(1:1—2:11)	(2:12, 13)
(3:1–12)	(4:1—5:15)
(6:1—7:7)	(7:8–20)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH MICAH

As you read this book, you will witness the terrifying manner in which God holds His people accountable for their actions (1:2–9). You will be confronted with the utter contrast between profiteering and compassion for the needy (2:1–5; 3:1–4). You will encounter God's poignant pleas for His people to justify their abandonment of Him (6:1–5). You may discover that despite your own religious activity, you have not been serving God out of a love relationship (6:6–8). This book closes with the encouraging truth that God wants to eradicate your sin and set you free (7:18–20).

THE word of the LORD that came to [a]Micah of Moresheth in the days of [b]Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

The Coming Judgment on Israel

2 Hear, all you peoples!
Listen, O earth, and all that is in it!
Let the Lord GOD be a witness against you,
The Lord from [a]His holy temple.

3 For behold, the LORD is coming out of His place;
He will come down
And tread on the high places of the earth.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Mic. 1:3

The Lord Is Coming

When God has to gain your attention it can be terrifying. Better to seek God in humility and repentance now than to have Him come to you in judgment.

4 [a]The mountains will melt under Him,
And the valleys will split
Like wax before the fire,
Like waters poured down a steep place.
5 All this is for the transgression of Jacob
And for the sins of the house of Israel.
What is the transgression of Jacob?
Is it not Samaria?
And what are the [a]high places of Judah?
Are they not Jerusalem?

6 "Therefore I will make Samaria [a]a heap of ruins in the field,
Places for planting a vineyard;
I will pour down her stones into the valley,
And I will [b]uncover her foundations.
7 All her carved images shall be beaten to pieces,
And all her [a]pay as a harlot shall be burned with the fire;
All her idols I will lay desolate,
For she gathered it from the pay of a harlot,
And they shall return to the [b]pay of a harlot."

Mourning for Israel and Judah

8 Therefore I will wail and howl,
I will go stripped and naked;
[a]I will make a wailing like the jackals
And a mourning like the ostriches,
9 For her wounds are incurable.
For [a]it has come to Judah;
It has come to the gate of My people—
To Jerusalem.

10 [a]Tell it not in Gath,
Weep not at all;
In [1]Beth Aphrah
Roll yourself in the dust.
11 Pass by in naked shame, you inhabitant of [1]Shaphir;

MICAH

Mic. 1:1

Micah's name is an abbreviated form of Micaiah, meaning "who is like the Lord?" He was from the village of Moresheth in rural southern Judah. His ministry occurred in eighth century B.C. during the reigns of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, making him a contemporary of the prophets Isaiah, Hosea, and possibly Amos. Micah issued a stern warning to King Hezekiah that was still remembered in the prophet Jeremiah's day (Jer. 26:18, 19). Micah's concern was injustice. He condemned God's people for the disharmony between their worship and their business and social practices (2:1–11; 3:1–4; 6:9–16). Micah prophesied during the terrifying approach of the Assyrian empire into Palestine. The Assyrians would ultimately destroy the northern kingdom in 722 B.C. and came extremely close to conquering the southern kingdom under King Hezekiah in 701 B.C. In this dangerous and tumultuous time, the prophet Micah delivered his word from God and watched to see how God's people would respond.

1:1 Moresheth was located twenty-five miles southwest of Jerusalem on the road between Azekah and Lachish.

1:6 When Sargon II defeated Samaria in 722 B.C., he did not destroy the physical structures of Samaria. However, he deported 27,290 of its citizens and replaced them with foreigners, effectively eliminating Samaria as a nation.

1:8 Wailing and howling were extreme displays of mourning, reserved for intense grief. Such behavior surely would have gained the prophet an audience.

1:10 Micah lists twelve cities that face imminent peril. This may have referred to the Assyrian invasion of Sennacherib in 701 B.C. He claimed to have captured forty-six Judean cities and shut King Hezekiah up in Jerusalem like a "bird in a cage." The twelve cities mentioned are found in the Judean region known as the Shephelah, which was the rural area between the Philistine coast and the Judean hill country. These twelve cities followed the route an invading army would take from the Philistine city of Gath moving toward Jerusalem.

The inhabitant of [2]Zaanan does not go out.
Beth Ezel mourns;
Its place to stand is taken away from you.

12 For the inhabitant of [1]Maroth [2]pined for good,
But [a]disaster came down from the LORD
To the gate of Jerusalem.
13 O inhabitant of [a]Lachish,
Harness the chariot to the swift steeds
(She was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion),
For the transgressions of Israel were [b]found in you.

14 Therefore you shall [a]give presents to [1]Moresheth Gath;
The houses of [b]Achzib[2] shall be a lie to the kings of Israel.
15 I will yet bring an heir to you,
O inhabitant of [a]Mareshah;[1]
The glory of Israel shall come to [b]Adullam.[2]
16 Make yourself [a]bald and cut off your hair,
Because of your [b]precious children;
Enlarge your baldness like an eagle,
For they shall go from you into [c]captivity.

Woe to Evildoers

2 Woe to those who devise iniquity,
And [1]work out evil on their beds!
At [a]morning light they practice it,
Because it is in the power of their hand.
2 They [a]covet fields and take them by violence,
Also houses, and seize them.
So they oppress a man and his house,
A man and his inheritance.

3 Therefore thus says the LORD:

"Behold, against this [a]family I am devising [b]disaster,
From which you cannot remove your necks;
Nor shall you walk haughtily,
For this is an evil time.
4 In that day one shall take up a proverb against you,
And [a]lament with a bitter lamentation, saying:
'We are utterly destroyed!
He has changed the [1]heritage of my people;
How He has removed it from me!
To [2]a turncoat He has divided our fields.' "

5 Therefore you will have no [1]one to determine boundaries by lot
In the assembly of the LORD.

Lying Prophets

6 "Do not prattle," you say to those who [1]prophesy.
So they shall not prophesy [2]to you;
[3]They shall not return insult for insult.
7 You who are named the house of Jacob:
"Is the Spirit of the LORD restricted?
Are these His doings?
Do not My words do good
To him who walks uprightly?

ENCOUNTER Note Mic. 2:7

Him Who Walks Uprightly

God's word brings blessing and strength to the righteous, and they gladly receive it. Those who resist or argue with God reveal hearts that are far from Him.

8 "Lately My people have risen up as an enemy—
You pull off the robe with the garment
From those who trust you, as they pass by,
Like men returned from war.
9 The women of My people you cast out
From their pleasant houses;
From their children
You have taken away My glory forever.

10 "Arise and depart,
For this is not your [a]rest;
Because it is [b]defiled, it shall destroy,
Yes, with utter destruction.
11 If a man should walk in a false spirit
And speak a lie, saying,
'I will [1]prophesy to you [2]of wine and drink,'
Even he would be the [a]prattler of this people.

1:15 Mareshah is an alternate form of Moresheth Gath.

1:16 These activities were forbidden in Hebrew law (Lev. 21:5; Deut. 14:10).

2:10 In God's perfect justice, the greedy land holders who seized other peoples' property would themselves be forcibly ejected by their enemies.

I will surely gather the remnant of Israel;
I will put them together [b]like sheep of [1]the fold,
Like a flock in the midst of their pasture;
[c]They shall make a loud noise because of so many people.

WORD Study — REMNANT

Mic. 2:12 The concept of a remnant became a repeating theme of the prophets (Is. 37:32; Jer. 44:7; Amos 3:12; Zeph. 2:7, 9). It can mean a survivor, residue, or remainder, and often it refers to war or judgment where only a small percentage of the original population remains. The idea of a remnant occurs five times in Micah (2:12; 4:7; 5:6, 7; 7:18). It was through God's sanctified remnant that He would continue to work out His purposes and accomplish His will.

13 The one who breaks open will come up before them;
They will break out,
Pass through the gate,
And go out by it;
[a]Their king will pass before them,
[b]With the LORD at their head."

Wicked Rulers and Prophets

3 And I said:
"Hear now, O heads of Jacob,
And you [a]rulers of the house of Israel:
[b]Is it not for you to know justice?
2 You who hate good and love evil;
Who strip the skin from [1]My people,
And the flesh from their bones;
3 Who also [a]eat the flesh of My people,
Flay their skin from them,
Break their bones,
And chop them in pieces
Like meat for the pot,
[b]Like flesh in the caldron."
4 Then [a]they will cry to the LORD,
But He will not hear them;
He will even hide His face from them at that time,
Because they have been evil in their deeds.
5 Thus says the LORD [a]concerning the prophets
Who make my people stray;
Who chant [1]"Peace"
[2]While they [b]chew with their teeth,
But who prepare war against him
[c]Who puts nothing into their mouths:
6 "Therefore[a] you shall have night without [1]vision,
And you shall have darkness without divination;
The sun shall go down on the prophets,
And the day shall be dark for [b]them.
7 So the seers shall be ashamed,
And the diviners abashed;
Indeed they shall all cover their lips;
[a]For there is no answer from God."
8 But truly I am full of power by the Spirit of the LORD,
And of justice and might,
[a]To declare to Jacob his transgression
And to Israel his sin.
9 Now hear this,
You heads of the house of Jacob
And rulers of the house of Israel,
Who abhor justice
And [1]pervert all equity,
10 [a]Who build up Zion with [b]bloodshed
And Jerusalem with iniquity:
11 [a]Her heads judge for a bribe,
[b]Her priests teach for pay,
And her prophets divine for [1]money.
[c]Yet they lean on the LORD, and say,
"Is not the LORD among us?
No harm can come upon us."
12 Therefore because of you
Zion shall be [a]plowed like a field,

ENCOUNTER Note — Mic. 3:4

Without Him

If we choose to live without God's guidance and power, then when calamity inevitably surrounds us, God's guidance and power will be unavailable to us.

3:1 The "heads" of Jacob refer to those tribal and family leaders who constituted the law courts (Ex. 18). King Jehoshaphat instituted a system of judges that was expected to be impartial and to embrace justice (2 Chr. 19:5–11).

3:3 Micah repeatedly uses the phrase "my people" (1:9; 2:4, 8, 9; 3:2, 3, 5; 6:3, 5, 16). God and the righteous prophet identified with the victims of injustice.

3:4 "Cry" is a technical term referring to a desperate plea for justice from the courts.

3:5 "Peace" is the Hebrew word shalom. It connotes wholeness and well-being, based on God's presence and blessing. Micah argued that God's people could not presume upon either.

3:11 Bribes and the selling of justice were expressly forbidden in the law (Ex. 23:8; Deut. 27:25). "No harm can come upon us" was the fundamental fallacy of the false prophets. They assumed God would never allow the city where the temple stood and the ark of the covenant resided to fall into pagan hands.

[b]Jerusalem shall become heaps of ruins,
And [c]the mountain of the [1]temple
Like the bare hills of the forest.

The LORD's Reign in Zion

4 Now [a]it shall come to pass in the latter days
That the mountain of the LORD's house
Shall be established on the top of the mountains,
And shall be exalted above the hills;
And peoples shall flow to it.
2 Many nations shall come and say,
"Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
To the house of the God of Jacob;
He will teach us His ways,
And we shall walk in His paths."
For out of Zion the law shall go forth,
And the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Mic. 4:2

God's Ways

We cannot figure out God's ways. He must teach them to us. Only when He leads us can we walk in His paths.

3 He shall judge between many peoples,
And rebuke strong nations afar off;
They shall beat their swords into [a]plowshares,
And their spears into [1]pruning hooks;
Nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
[b]Neither shall they learn war anymore.

4 [a]But everyone shall sit under his vine and under his fig tree,
And no one shall make them afraid;
For the mouth of the LORD of hosts has spoken.
5 For all people walk each in the name of his god,
But [a]we will walk in the name of the LORD our God
Forever and ever.

Zion's Future Triumph

6 "In that day," says the LORD,
[a]"I will assemble the lame,
[b]I will gather the outcast
And those whom I have afflicted;
7 I will make the lame [a]a remnant,
And the outcast a strong nation;
So the LORD [b]will reign over them in Mount Zion
From now on, even forever.
8 And you, O tower of the flock,
The stronghold of the daughter of Zion,
To you shall it come,
Even the former dominion shall come,
The kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem."

9 Now why do you cry aloud?
[a]Is there no king in your midst?
Has your counselor perished?
For [b]pangs have seized you like a woman in [1]labor.
10 Be in pain, and labor to bring forth,
O daughter of Zion,
Like a woman in birth pangs.
For now you shall go forth from the city,
You shall dwell in the field,
And to [a]Babylon you shall go.
There you shall be delivered;
There the [b]LORD will [c]redeem you
From the hand of your enemies.

11 [a]Now also many nations have gathered against you,
Who say, "Let her be defiled,
And let our eye [b]look upon Zion."
12 But they do not know [a]the thoughts of the LORD,
Nor do they understand His counsel;
For He will gather them [b]like sheaves to the threshing floor.

13 "Arise[a] and [b]thresh, O daughter of Zion;
For I will make your horn iron,
And I will make your hooves bronze;

Every Life Stands for Something

Our lives ought to be so immersed in God's character, power, and righteousness that our relationships, our words, and our actions reflect His nature, holiness, and love.

4:1 "The mountain of the Lord" referred to Jerusalem, although it stood only 2,400 feet above sea level. Yet God's presence would give it a majesty unmatched by any other nation, city, or mountain peak.

4:4 After enduring repeated invasions from hostile enemies, the Israelite farmers longed for peace so they could enjoy the fruit of their labor without living in constant dread.

4:12 Damascus had apparently "threshed" the Israelites in war earlier but Micah promised that one day God's people would defeat their enemies in a similar manner (Amos 1:3).

You shall [c]beat in pieces many peoples;
[d]I will consecrate their gain to the LORD,
And their substance to [e]the Lord of the whole earth."

5 Now gather yourself in troops,
O daughter of troops;
He has laid siege against us;
They will [a]strike the judge of Israel with a rod on the cheek.

The Coming Messiah

Though you are little [c]among the [d]thousands of Judah,
Yet out of you shall come forth to Me
The One to be [e]Ruler in Israel,
[f]Whose goings forth are from of old,
From [1]everlasting."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Mic. 5:2

Though Little

God uses the meek, the powerless, and the humble to accomplish His great works. No one and no place is too insignificant for God to effect His will.

3 Therefore He shall give them up,
Until the time that [a]she who is in labor has given birth;
Then [b]the remnant of His brethren
Shall return to the children of Israel.
4 And He shall stand and [a]feed[1] His flock
In the strength of the LORD,
In the majesty of the name of the LORD His God;
And they shall abide,
For now He [b]shall be great
To the ends of the earth;
5 And this One [a]shall be peace.

Judgment on Israel's Enemies

When the Assyrian comes into our land,
And when he treads in our palaces,
Then we will raise against him
Seven shepherds and eight princely men.
6 They shall [1]waste with the sword the land of Assyria,
And the land of [a]Nimrod at its entrances;
Thus He shall [b]deliver us from the Assyrian,
When he comes into our land
And when he treads within our borders.

7 Then [a]the remnant of Jacob
Shall be in the midst of many peoples,
[b]Like dew from the LORD,
Like showers on the grass,
That [1]tarry for no man
Nor [2]wait for the sons of men.
8 And the remnant of Jacob
Shall be among the Gentiles,
In the midst of many peoples,
Like a [a]lion among the beasts of the forest,
Like a young lion among flocks of sheep,
Who, if he passes through,
Both treads down and tears in pieces,
And none can deliver.
9 Your hand shall be lifted against your adversaries,
And all your enemies shall be [1]cut off.

10 "And it shall be in that day," says the LORD,
"That I will [a]cut[1] off your [b]horses from your midst
And destroy your [c]chariots.
11 I will cut off the cities of your land
And throw down all your strongholds.
12 I will cut off sorceries from your hand,
And you shall have no [a]soothsayers.
13 [a]Your carved images I will also cut off,
And your sacred pillars from your midst;
You shall [b]no more worship the work of your hands;
14 I will pluck your [1]wooden images from your midst;
Thus I will destroy your cities.
15 And I will [a]execute vengeance in anger and fury
On the nations that have not [1]heard."

5:2 Bethlehem means "house of bread." Ephrathah represented the smallest, least influential clan in the Judean tribe.

5:5 "Seven shepherds and eight princely men" symbolize a host of leaders who will one day be available to Israel.

5:10 Horses and chariots were generally condemned by God's prophets because people tended to place their trust in them rather than in God (Ps. 20:7; Is. 2:7; 30:15–17; Hos. 10:13).

5:12 Sorcery was repeatedly condemned in scripture (2 Kin. 9:22; Is. 47:9, Nah. 3:4).

And let the hills hear your voice.

And He will [1]contend with Israel.

What the Lord Requires

God's desires for us are not shrouded in mystery. He has made it crystal clear how we can please Him—the way we should act, what we should value, and how we should relate to Him. It's not a question of knowledge but a matter of the will.

And the short measure that is an abomination?
11 Shall I count pure those with [a]the wicked scales,
And with the bag of deceitful weights?
12 For her rich men are full of [a]violence,
Her inhabitants have spoken lies,
And [b]their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

13 "Therefore I will also [a]make you sick by striking you,
By making you desolate because of your sins.
14 [a]You shall eat, but not be satisfied;
[1]Hunger shall be in your midst.
[2]You may carry some away, but shall not save them;
And what you do rescue I will give over to the sword.

15 "You shall [a]sow, but not reap;
You shall tread the olives, but not anoint yourselves with oil;
And make sweet wine, but not drink wine.
16 For the statutes of [a]Omri are [b]kept;
All the works of Ahab's house are done;
And you walk in their counsels,
That I may make you a [1]desolation,
And your inhabitants a hissing.
Therefore you shall bear the [c]reproach of [2]My people."

Sorrow for Israel's Sins

7 Woe is me!
For I am like those who gather summer fruits,
Like those who [a]glean vintage grapes;
There is no cluster to eat
Of the first-ripe fruit which [b]my soul desires.

6:1 Calling on witnesses as majestic as mountains to hear court testimony indicated the magnitude of the trial.

6:5 "The Acacia Grove to Gilgal" represented the last stop for the Israelites before entering the Promised Land and their first encampment once they crossed the Jordan River (Josh. 3:1; 4:19).

6:7 Surrendering your firstborn son was a form of offering to the god Molech. Judean kings Ahaz and Manasseh had both done so (2 Kin. 16:3; 21:6). This sacrificial act was viewed as the ultimate demonstration of one's loyalty to a god.

7:1 The early fig ripened in June.

2 The [a]faithful[1] man has perished from the earth,
And there is no one upright among men.
They all lie in wait for blood;
[b]Every man hunts his brother with a net.

3 That they may successfully do evil with both hands—
The prince asks for gifts,
The judge seeks a [a]bribe,
And the great man utters his evil desire;
So they scheme together.

4 The best of them is [a]like a brier;
The most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge;
The day of your watchman and your punishment comes;
Now shall be their perplexity.

5 [a]Do not trust in a friend;
Do not put your confidence in a companion;
Guard the doors of your mouth
From her who lies in your [b]bosom.

6 For [a]son dishonors father,
Daughter rises against her mother,
Daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law;
A man's enemies are the men of his own household.

7 Therefore I will look to the LORD;
I will [a]wait for the God of my salvation;
My God will hear me.

ENCOUNTER Note Mic. 7:7

I Will Look

If you put your hope in people you will inevitably be disappointed. Trust God. He alone is absolutely reliable; His salvation will come.

Israel's Confession and Comfort

8 [a]Do not rejoice over me, my enemy;
[b]When I fall, I will arise;
When I sit in darkness,
The LORD will be a light to me.

9 [a]I will bear the indignation of the LORD,
Because I have sinned against Him,
Until He pleads my [b]case
And executes justice for me.
He will bring me forth to the light;
I will see His righteousness.

10 Then she who is my enemy will see,
And [a]shame will cover her who said to me,
[b]"Where is the LORD your God?"
My eyes will see her;
Now she will be trampled down
Like mud in the streets.

11 In the day when your [a]walls are to be built,
In that day [1]the decree shall go far and wide.

12 In that day [a]they[1] shall come to you
From Assyria and the [2]fortified cities,
From the [3]fortress to [4]the River,
From sea to sea,
And mountain to mountain.

13 Yet the land shall be desolate
Because of those who dwell in it,
And [a]for the fruit of their deeds.

God Will Forgive Israel

15 "As[a] in the days when you came out of the land of Egypt,

16 The nations [a]shall see and be ashamed of all their might;
[b]They shall put their hand over their mouth;
Their ears shall be deaf.

17 They shall lick the [a]dust like a serpent;
[b]They shall crawl from their holes like [1]snakes of the earth.
[c]They shall be afraid of the LORD our God,
And shall fear because of You.

18 [a]Who is a God like You,
[b]Pardoning iniquity

THE BOOK OF NAHUM

INTRODUCTION

This book is named for its writer, Nahum. During the ascendancy of the oppressive, malicious Assyrian empire, the Judean king, Manasseh, was forced to humiliate himself and to pay a burdensome tribute to his Assyrian overlord. Perhaps it was in an effort to please this master that Manasseh introduced many of the pagan Assyrian practices into Judah. Manasseh ruled during the height of Assyrian domination, under Assyrian kings Sennacherib, Esarhaddon, and Ashurbanipal. The Assyrians had already destroyed the northern kingdom of Israel and conquered Thebes, the capital city of Egypt. For two hundred years the Assyrians were the world's dominant power. They were notorious for their cruelty and inhumanity toward their captives. They epitomized arrogance, cruelty and wickedness. It was to this brutish world superpower the prophet Nahum addressed his book.

SIGNIFICANCE

The Book of Nahum stands in contrast to the Book of Jonah. While Jonah was written approximately a century earlier, both were addressed to the Assyrian city of Nineveh. Jonah's ministry was one of judgment, but it provided the possibility of God's forgiveness, should the Ninevites repent. However, Nahum held out no hope of mercy. People's wickedness and effrontery toward God's righteousness can reach a point where judgment is the only solution. Hearts become so hardened in their sin that God's patience ends and His judgment begins. Amazingly, considering the unprecedented cruelty of the Assyrians, God delayed His judgment upon the wicked, vain Assyrian nation for roughly two centuries. However, when His judgment came, it was so catastrophic that Nineveh could not be located until archeologists discovered its ruins centuries afterward. The Book of Nahum emphasizes God's sovereignty over all nations; they are all accountable to Him. While He is patient, God is also absolutely just. The righteous may suffer for a time at the hands of the wicked, but God will ultimately vindicate His name and His righteousness. God's people can take comfort knowing God is perfectly just.

STRUCTURE

The short book of Nahum can be roughly divided into three sections corresponding to its three chapters. Chapter one describes God's justice, the sureness of His judgment, and His protection of the righteous. The following two chapters describe in increasing detail the specific divine judgment on Nineveh. The book can be outlined as follows: God's judgment on the wicked and His defense of the upright (1:1–15); God's judgment on Nineveh (2:1–13); the siege and fall of Nineveh (3:1–19).

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH NAHUM

As your read Nahum, you may be comforted knowing God is truly sovereign over even the most powerful nations (1:2–6). You will see that God is good and slow to bring judgment (1:3). He is a stronghold to those who trust in Him (1:7). As you read of the terrible destruction meted out on the unrepentant Nineveh, you may also be challenged to guard your heart lest you become indifferent to God's grace and mercy. Finally, you may be humbled to realize that in God's perfect justice, He gives to you what you have given to others. If you are persistently unkind, cruel, or callous toward the pain and suffering of others, a time will come when you will experience God's wrath.

THE [1]burden [a]against Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

God's Wrath on His Enemies

2 God is [a]jealous, and the LORD avenges;
The LORD avenges and is furious.
The LORD will take vengeance on His adversaries,
And He reserves wrath for His enemies;

WORD Study — JEALOUS

Nah. 1:2 Scripture often describes God as "jealous" (Ex. 20:5; 34:14; Deut. 4:24; 6:15; Josh. 24:19; Ezek. 38:18, 19). Jealousy involves an intolerance of competitors or rivals. When describing God, it is often associated with covenant loyalty and the obligation of God's people to be wholly committed to Him. God's jealousy, is not the sin of envy as we know it; it stems from his covenant love for His people and His knowledge that for them to turn from Him will lead to their destruction. Vengeance is something scripture reserves for the Lord (Deut. 32:35; Ps. 94:1).

3 The LORD is [a]slow to anger and [b]great in power,
And will not at all acquit the wicked.
[c]The LORD has His way
In the whirlwind and in the storm,
And the clouds are the dust of His feet.
4 [a]He rebukes the sea and makes it dry,
And dries up all the rivers.
[b]Bashan and Carmel wither,
And the flower of Lebanon wilts.
5 The mountains quake before Him,
The hills melt,
And the earth [1]heaves at His presence,
Yes, the world and all who dwell in it.
6 Who can stand before His indignation?
And [a]who can endure the fierceness of His anger?
His fury is poured out like fire,
And the rocks are thrown down by Him.
7 [a]The LORD is good,
A stronghold in the day of trouble;
And [b]He knows those who trust in Him.

ENCOUNTER Note — Nah. 1:7

God Knows

God looks past our religious ritual and formulaic prayers and sees our hearts. He knows those who genuinely trust Him, and they will find God to be an unassailable fortress in times of distress.

8 But with an overflowing flood
He will make an utter end of its place,
And darkness will pursue His enemies.
9 [a]What do you [1]conspire against the LORD?
[b]He will make an utter end of it.
Affliction will not rise up a second time.
10 For while tangled [a]like thorns,
[b]And while drunken like drunkards,
[c]They shall be devoured like stubble fully dried.
11 From you comes forth one
Who plots evil against the LORD,
A [1]wicked counselor.
12 Thus says the LORD:
"Though they are [1]safe, and likewise many,
Yet in this manner they will be [a]cut down
When he passes through.
Though I have afflicted you,
I will afflict you no more;
13 For now I will break off his yoke from you,
And burst your bonds apart."
14 The LORD has given a command concerning you:

11 [1]Lit. counselor of Belial
12 [a][Is. 10:16–19, 33, 34] [1]Or at peace or complete

1:1 Nahum means "comforter" or "full of comfort." "Burden" can also be translated "oracle." It may signify the burdensome nature of the vision of judgment Nahum was given to declare. Nineveh was the capital city of the Assyrian empire. It had been established long before recorded history and was located on the eastern bank of the Tigris River. Nahum is described as an "Elkoshite." This town has not been positively identified. It may correspond to the small Galilean village of Elkosh, but any identification is speculative.

1:3 Scripture often pictures God's coming to people in terms of a storm or whirlwind (Ex. 19:16; Job 38:1; Ps. 18:10; Is. 28:2; 29:6; 66:15; Jer. 23:19; Zech. 7:14; 9:14). It demonstrates not only God's irresistible power but also the unpredictability of His coming.

1:4 Bashan, Carmel, and Lebanon were famous for their luxuriant vegetation (Deut. 1:4–7; 2 Kin. 19:23; Is. 35:2; Jer. 50:18, 19; Ezek. 39:18). Lebanon's cedars were legendary. For these to dry up would constitute a horrendous drought.

1:11 "A wicked counselor" uses the word belial in the Hebrew. The term means "worthless." It was used to describe wicked people (Deut. 13:14; Judg. 19:22; 20:13; 1 Kin. 21:10), and eventually came to personify Satan (2 Cor. 6:15).

Perform Your Vows

Trials and persecutions will come. That is not the time to grow discouraged or to lose faith in God. Rather, that is when we must diligently walk closely with Him, anticipating His deliverance and future blessing.

The Destruction of Nineveh

2 He[1] who scatters has come up before your face.
Man the fort!
Watch the road!
Strengthen your flanks!
Fortify your power mightily.

2 For the LORD will restore the excellence of Jacob
Like the excellence of Israel,
For the emptiers have emptied them out
And ruined their vine branches.

3 The shields of his mighty men are made red,
The valiant men are in scarlet.
The chariots come with flaming torches
In the day of his preparation,
And [1]the spears are brandished.
4 The chariots rage in the streets,
They jostle one another in the broad roads;
They seem like torches,
They run like lightning.

[a]Filled his caves with prey,
And his dens with [2]flesh.

13 "Behold, [a]I am against you," says the LORD of hosts, "I will burn [1]your chariots in smoke, and the sword shall devour your young lions; I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your [b]messengers shall be heard no more."

The Woe of Nineveh

3 Woe to the [a]bloody city!
It is all full of lies and robbery.
Its [1]victim never departs.
2 The noise of a whip
And the noise of rattling wheels,
Of galloping horses,
Of [1]clattering chariots!

2:1 "He who scatters" refers to the Assyrian policy of dispersing conquered peoples so they were too weakened to offer further resistance. Now Assyria itself would be subject to the same form of devastation.

2:3 Red shields probably referred to the blood on the shields from the conflict as the fighters relentlessly subdued their enemies.

2:6 The Greek historian Diodorus Siculus wrote that Nineveh was overcome when the Tigris River flooded the city and caused the collapse of two miles of its walls.

2:8 This is the first specific mention of Nineveh since the introduction. If this prophecy was written during King Manasseh's reign, it would have been cheered by the common people. But it would upset the ruling authorities who were forced into subservience by their Assyrian overlords. Nineveh was defeated by the combined forces of Babylon, the Medes, and the Scythians in 612 B.C.

2:9 For two hundred years the Assyrian kings boasted of the treasures they pillaged from their defeated foes. Now the city notorious for looting others would itself be ransacked.

ENCOUNTER Note Nah. 2:13

Behold!

It is terrifying when you realize God is against you. God is patient, gracious, and merciful, but He is also thoroughly just. If we will not turn to Him in repentance, He will measure out His justice in a manner that overwhelms us.

3 Horsemen charge with bright sword and glittering spear.
There is a multitude of slain,
A great number of bodies,
Countless corpses—
They stumble over the corpses—
4 Because of the multitude of [1]harlotries of the [2]seductive harlot,
[a]The mistress of sorceries,
Who sells nations through her
harlotries,
And families through her sorceries.

5 "Behold, I am [a]against you," says the LORD of hosts;
[b]"I will lift your skirts over your face,
I will show the nations your
nakedness,
And the kingdoms your shame.
6 I will cast abominable filth upon
you,
Make you [a]vile,[1]
And make you [b]a spectacle.
7 It shall come to pass that all who look upon you
[a]Will flee from you, and say,
[b]'Nineveh is laid waste!
[c]Who will bemoan her?'
Where shall I seek comforters for
you?"

8 [a]Are you better than [b]No[1] Amon
That was situated by the [2]River,
That had the waters around her,
Whose rampart was the sea,
Whose wall was the sea?
9 Ethiopia and Egypt were her
strength,
And it was boundless;
[a]Put and Lubim were [1]your helpers.
10 Yet she was carried away,
She went into captivity;
[a]Her young children also were dashed to pieces
[b]At the head of every street;
They [c]cast lots for her honorable
men,
And all her great men were bound in chains.
11 You also will be [a]drunk;
You will be hidden;
You also will seek refuge from the enemy.

12 All your strongholds are [a]fig trees with ripened figs:
If they are shaken,
They fall into the mouth of the eater.
13 Surely, [a]your people in your midst are women!
The gates of your land are wide open for your enemies;
Fire shall devour the [b]bars of your gates.

14 Draw your water for the siege!
[a]Fortify your strongholds!
Go into the clay and tread the mortar!
Make strong the brick kiln!
15 There the fire will devour you,
The sword will cut you off;
It will eat you up like a [a]locust.

Make yourself many—like the locust!
Make yourself many— like the swarming locusts!
16 You have multiplied your
[a]merchants more than the stars of heaven.
The locust plunders and flies
away.
17 [a]Your commanders are like
swarming locusts,
And your generals like great
grasshoppers,
Which camp in the hedges on a cold day;
When the sun rises they flee away,

3:3 Assyria was notorious for its brutality to its conquered peoples. They would desecrate corpses and humiliate and torture their prisoners. In God's perfect justice, the perpetrators of such inhumanity would have the same violence visited upon them at their downfall.

3:5 Lifting up one's skirts was a humiliating act generally performed on prostitutes to expose them publicly. There comes a time when God exposes every sinner and every evil deed.

3:7 The prophet Jonah had delivered a message of imminent doom to Nineveh one hundred years earlier and the Ninevites had repented, saving themselves from God's judgment. Now the Ninevites' sin had become so entrenched there was no hope of return, and no one to whom they could turn for help.

3:8 "No Amon" is Thebes, the capital of Egypt which was conquered by the Assyrian king, Ashurbanipal (668–627) in 663 B.C. Thebes lay four hundred miles south of the Nile delta. The Nile provided a natural defense of the ancient city which was twenty seven miles in circumference. Despite its impressive size and fortifications, the Assyrian army had marched thirteen hundred miles and conquered it.

3:9 Ethiopia is identified with Cush (2 Kin. 19:9). Put may refer to Libya (Jer. 46:9; Ezek. 30:5). Lubim were northern Libyans located west of Egypt (2 Chr. 12:3; 16:8).

3:14 Under Sennacherib, the Ninevites had built an aqueduct system and dug eighteen canals to bring water to the city. These would prove inadequate for withstanding a siege by determined foes.

And the place where they are is not known.

18 [a]Your shepherds slumber, O [b]king of Assyria;
Your nobles rest in the dust.
Your people are [c]scattered on the mountains,
And no one gathers them.
19 Your injury has no healing,
[a]Your wound is severe.
[b]All who hear news of you
Will clap their hands over you,
For upon whom has not your wickedness passed continually?

ENCOUNTER Note Nah. 3:19

Continually

We think we only sin occasionally, but God sees the regular pattern of rebellion in our lives. To sin once against God is offensive to His righteousness; to sin repeatedly is an abomination.

3:18 The king of Assyria at this time may have been Ashurbanipal, who represented the peak of Assyrian power and international influence. It would have been inconceivable that this great power could sink to the depths described by the prophet.

3:19 Two biblical books, Jonah and Nahum, end in a question. Both are addressed to Nineveh. Jonah's question indicates God will show mercy. Nahum reveals that God's judgment must fall on the unrepentant.

THE BOOK OF HABAKKUK

INTRODUCTION

Very little is known about the prophet Habakkuk. The book's importance, however, comes not from who wrote it but from the One who gave Habakkuk his message. Habakkuk wrote at a time when his countrymen were shamefully mistreating each other (1:2–4). The righteous prophet had pled with God to do something about the deplorable condition but Habakkuk was unprepared for God's solution (1:5). God would use a rising superpower, the Babylonians, to punish His people. This proud, violent, idolatrous, wicked nation would be God's instrument of discipline for His wayward people (1:6). This caused the seer an even more difficult problem: Why would God use a country more wicked than His own people to punish them? How could holy God countenance the depravity and cruelty of the Babylonians as they annihilated His people? (1:13). The remainder of the book contains God's answer to His troubled servant.

SIGNIFICANCE

This book was written during the dramatic decline of the Assyrian empire and the rapid rise of the Babylonians. The Assyrians were defeated in a series of decisive battles in 614, 612, 610 and 605 B.C. By 587 B.C., Babylon had destroyed Jerusalem and sent its inhabitants into exile. The troubled prophet asks God several sincere and profound questions: Why does God allow violence and injustice to go unpunished? Why does God use wicked people as His instruments? Why does it seem that God does not listen to his prayers? These are questions modern Christians also want to know. Significantly, God did not rebuke His prophet for making such queries, but rather God revealed that He was far more aware of injustice and suffering than was Habakkuk, and He had an extremely thorough solution.

STRUCTURE

This short book can be divided as follows: Habakkuk's first question (1:1–4); God's answer (1:5–11); Habakkuk's second question (1:12—2:1); God's second answer (2:2–20) (five woes); Habakkuk's prayer (3:1–19).

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH HABAKKUK

You may identify with Habakkuk as you read his questions to God. Like the prophet, you may be bewildered at the unchecked violence in your nation and around the world that seems to go unpunished. You may also wonder why God uses frail, human instruments to accomplish His purposes. You will be challenged by the truth "the just shall live by faith" (2:4). This became the cornerstone of the apostle Paul's theology (Rom. 1:17) and the revolutionary truth rediscovered fifteen hundred years later by the German monk Martin Luther, launching the Protestant revolution. Hopefully you will come to realize, as did Habakkuk, that you do not have to understand everything that is happening around you as long as you trust in the One who is sovereign over history. You will see how Habakkuk took his concerns to God and then waited for His answer (2:1). Ultimately, Habakkuk chose to trust the Lord regardless of the difficult circumstances that enveloped him (3:18). This is the challenge for every Christian.

THE [1]burden which the prophet Habakkuk saw.

The Prophet's Question

2 O LORD, how long shall I cry,
[a]And You will not hear?
Even cry out to You, [b]"Violence!"
And You will [c]not save.
3 Why do You show me iniquity,
And cause me to see [1]trouble?
For plundering and violence are before me;
There is strife, and contention arises.
4 Therefore the law is powerless,
And justice never goes forth.
For the [a]wicked surround the righteous;
Therefore perverse judgment proceeds.

The LORD's Reply

5 "Look[a] among the nations and watch—
Be utterly astounded!
For I will work a work in your days
Which you would not believe, though it were told you.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Hab. 1:5

Look!

God is at work in our midst. We do not have to coax Him to become involved in our world. We must open our eyes so we recognize and understand what He is already doing.

6 For indeed I am [a]raising up the Chaldeans,
A bitter and hasty [b]nation
Which marches through the breadth of the earth,
To possess dwelling places that are not theirs.
7 They are terrible and dreadful;
Their judgment and their dignity proceed from themselves.

CHAPTER 1

1 [1]oracle, prophecy
2 [a]Lam. 3:8 [b]Mic. 2:1, 2; 3:1–3 [c][Job 21:5–16]
3 [1]Or toil
4 [a]Jer. 12:1
5 [a]Is. 29:14
6 [a]2 Kin. 24:2 [b]Ezek. 7:24; 21:31

8 Their horses also are [a]swifter than leopards,
And more fierce than evening wolves.
Their [1]chargers [2]charge ahead;
Their cavalry comes from afar;
They fly as the [b]eagle that hastens to eat.

9 "They all come for violence;
Their faces are set like the east wind.
They gather captives like sand.
10 They scoff at kings,
And princes are scorned by them.
They deride every stronghold,
For they heap up earthen mounds and seize it.
11 Then his [1]mind changes, and he transgresses;
He commits offense,
[a]Ascribing this power to his god."

The Prophet's Second Question

12 Are You not [a]from everlasting,
O LORD my God, my Holy One?
We shall not die.
O LORD, [b]You have appointed them for judgment;
O Rock, You have marked them for [c]correction.
13 You are of purer eyes than to behold evil,
And cannot look on wickedness.
Why do You look on those who deal treacherously,
And hold Your tongue when the wicked devours
A person more righteous than he?
14 Why do You make men like fish of the sea,
Like creeping things that have no ruler over them?

15 They take up all of them with a hook,
They catch them in their net,
And gather them in their dragnet.
Therefore they rejoice and are glad.

8 [a]Jer. 4:13 [b]Hos. 8:1 [1]Lit. horsemen [2]Lit. spring about 11 [a]Dan. 5:4 [1]Lit. spirit or wind
12 [a]Ps. 90:2; 93:2 [b]Is. 10:5–7 [c]Jer. 25:9

1:1 A "burden" was generally a prophetic oracle of judgment. Almost nothing is known about Habakkuk beyond his mention in this book. His name may mean "embraced" and could signify he was "embraced by God."

1:2 "How long" is a question God had expressed at the unbelief of His people (Ex. 16:28; Num. 14:11). It may indicate the prophet had already been praying about this matter for some time. "Violence" was the foremost sin in Noah's day (Gen. 6:11, 13).

1:4 "The law is powerless" may refer to the Torah. If so, Habakkuk's complaint is that God's law seems to have no restraining effect upon His people as they plunder and commit atrocities against each other.

1:6 "Chaldeans" refers to the Babylonians, possibly under King Nabopolassar (626–605 B.C.). Nabopolassar and his son, Nebuchadnezzar (605–562), saw the Babylonian empire rise quickly and dramatically to overcome the seemingly invincible Assyrian empire. By defeating Asshur (614), Nineveh (612), Haran (610) and the Egyptians at Carchemish (605), the Babylonian empire became the undisputed superpower of the ancient world. This reference seems to indicate that at the time of the writing, Babylon had begun to displace Assyria but had not yet reached its pinnacle as a dominant force in Palestine.

1:8 The swift Babylonian cavalry traveled great distances amazingly fast so they could rapidly subdue large territories.

1:13 While the prophet understood God's purpose in punishing His wayward people, he could not understand how holy God could use such wicked servants as the Babylonians to mete out the discipline.

1:15 The Babylonians were known to insert hooks into the lower lips of their captives and then lead them docilely single file into bondage.

16 Therefore [a]they sacrifice to their net,
And burn incense to their dragnet;
Because by them their share is [1]sumptuous
And their food plentiful.
17 Shall they therefore empty their net,
And continue to slay nations without pity?

2 I will [a]stand my watch
And set myself on the rampart,
And watch to see what He will say
to me,
And what I will answer when I am corrected.

ENCOUNTER Note Hab. 2:1

Stand Watch

No amount of reasoning or problem-solving can explain some of life's circumstances. Only a word from God can make things clear and bring peace to our hearts. The diligence with which we await that word will determine what we hear.

The Just Live by Faith

2 Then the LORD answered me and said:

[a]"Write the vision
And make it plain on tablets,
That he may run who reads it.
3 For [a]the vision is yet for an appointed time;
But at the end it will speak, and it will [b]not lie.
Though it tarries, [c]wait for it;
Because it will [d]surely come,
It will not tarry.

4 "Behold the proud,
His soul is not upright in him;
But the [a]just shall live by his faith.

Woe to the Wicked

5 "Indeed, because he transgresses by wine,
He is a proud man,
And he does not stay at home.
Because he [a]enlarges his desire as [1]hell,
And he is like death, and cannot be satisfied,
He gathers to himself all nations
And heaps up for himself all peoples.

7 Will not [1]your creditors rise up suddenly?
Will they not awaken who oppress
you?
And you will become their booty.
8 [a]Because you have plundered many nations,
All the remnant of the people shall plunder you,
Because of men's [1]blood
And the violence of the land and the city,
And of all who dwell in it.

9 "Woe to him who covets evil gain for his house,
That he may [a]set his nest on high,
That he may be delivered from the
[1]power of disaster!
10 You give shameful counsel to your house,
Cutting off many peoples,
And sin against your soul.
11 For the stone will cry out from the wall,
And the beam from the timbers will answer it.

12 "Woe to him who builds a town with bloodshed,
Who establishes a city by iniquity!
13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts
That the peoples labor [1]to feed the fire,
And nations weary themselves in vain?
14 For the earth will be filled
With the knowledge of the glory of
the LORD,
As the waters cover the sea.

15 "Woe to him who gives drink to his neighbor,
[1]Pressing him to your [a]bottle,
Even to make him drunk,
That you may look on [2]his
nakedness!
16 You are filled with shame instead of glory.
You also—drink!
And [1]be exposed as uncircumcised!

will be turned against you,

2:8 Babylon would fall to the Persians under Cyrus in 539 B.C. in a sudden and dramatic collapse.

2:12 Early cities in biblical history had been notorious for the pride and vice they bred (Gen. 4:17; 10:8–12; 11:4; 19:24, 25).

And utter shame will be on your glory.
17 For the violence done to Lebanon will cover you,
And the plunder of beasts which made them afraid,
Because of men's blood
And the violence of the land and the
city,
And of all who dwell in it.

18 "What profit is the image, that its maker should carve it,
The molded image, a teacher of lies,
That the maker of its mold should trust in it,
To make mute idols?
19 Woe to him who says to wood,
'Awake!'
To silent stone, 'Arise! It shall teach!'
Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver,
Yet in it there is no breath at all.

20 "But[a] the LORD is in His holy temple.
Let all the earth keep silence before
Him."

Wait Before God

God is on His throne. His purposes continue to unfold as He has planned. Who are we to instruct Him? How could we presume to tell Him what He should do? We must wait silently before Him to hear what He has to say next. His word is our life.

The Prophet's Prayer

2:20 The prophets Zephaniah and Zechariah gave similar commands in light of God's impending judgment (Zeph. 1:7; Zech. 2:13).

3:1 The term "a prayer" is in the heading of five Psalms (17, 86, 90, 102, 142). The term "shigionoth" is unknown but is used as a musical term in Psalm 7.

3:3 This is the only place outside the Psalms where the term "selah" is used. Habakkuk's prayer was apparently used in Israelite worship. Teman and Mount Paran reflect the journey of the exodus from Egypt. Paran is the desert area outside Egypt and Sinai (Gen. 21:21; Num. 12:16; Deut. 33:2; 1 Kin. 11:18). Teman usually represents Edom, next to Canaan (Amos 1:12; Obad. 9).

3:7 Cushan may refer to Cush, or Ethiopia. Both Cush and Midian were early oppressors of the Israelites, and now God was bringing justice upon them (Judg. 3:8–11; 6:1—7:25).

15 [a]You walked through the sea with
Your horses,
Through the heap of great waters.

16 When I heard, [a]my body trembled;
My lips quivered at the voice;
Rottenness entered my bones;
And I trembled in myself,
That I might rest in the day of trouble.

THE BOOK OF ZEPHANIAH

INTRODUCTION

After the prophecies of Isaiah and Micah in the eighth century B.C., God did not send another prophet to His people until the latter part of the seventh century, when Nahum, Habakkuk, Zephaniah, and Jeremiah thundered on to the scene. For much of the seventh century, Assyria ruled the known world and exerted control over the kingdom of Judah. King Manasseh, Judah's most wicked king, reigned during this time. However, with the decline of Assyria and the rise of the godly king Josiah, God sent another message to His people. Zephaniah prophesied during Josiah's reign and witnessed revival sweeping the land after 621 B.C. However, despite King Josiah's efforts and despite the exhortation of men like Zephaniah, Judah would not be cured of its sins and would soon go careening into a period of horrendous judgment at the hands of the Babylonians.

SIGNIFICANCE

The Book of Zephaniah vividly presents two seemingly contradictory aspects of God's nature: His wrath and His love. God's wrath is viewed as it will be expressed on the Day of the Lord. On that day, God will "utterly consume everything from the face of the land" (1:2). God's people will not be exempt from His judgment (1:4—2:3), although a faithful remnant will emerge from the Day of the Lord to serve Him in meekness and humility (3:12, 13). In contrast to God's wrath is His love. Zephaniah portrays God's fervent love for His people even as He judges their sin. The purpose of God's discipline is to purify His people so they can enjoy fellowship with Him (3:14–20).

STRUCTURE

This short book can be outlined as follows:

The Coming Judgment of God (1:1–18)
A Call for God's People to Repent (2:1–3)
Judgment on the Nations (2:4–15)
Jerusalem's Sin (3:1–7)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH ZEPHANIAH

As you read Zephaniah, you may be astonished by the ferocity of God's wrath (1:14–18). If you have grown complacent in your obedience and reverence for the Lord, reading this book gives notice that God is not One to be treated casually. It is a fearful thing to realize you have gone too far to avoid God's impending judgment. If you, like Judah, have fallen, Zephaniah's advice is to remain silent before God and place yourself at His mercy (1:7). Be encouraged to know that God's judgment is not forever, and a time may come when He will cleanse you from your sin and set you free to serve Him with all your heart. You will also be encouraged to see how God cherishes His own and delights in blessing them (3:14–20).

THE word of the LORD which came to Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of [a]Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

The Great Day of the LORD

2 "I will [1]utterly consume everything
From the face of the land,"
Says the LORD;
3 "I[a] will consume man and beast;
I will consume the birds of the heavens,
The fish of the sea,
And the [1]stumbling blocks along with the wicked.
I will cut off man from the face of the [2]land,"
Says the LORD.

4 "I will stretch out My hand against Judah,
And against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
[1]I will cut off every trace of Baal from this place,
The names of the [a]idolatrous[2] priests with the pagan priests—
5 Those [a]who worship the host of heaven on the housetops;
Those who worship and swear oaths by the LORD,
But who also swear [b]by [1]Milcom;
6 [a]Those who have turned back from following the LORD,
And [b]have not sought the LORD, nor inquired of Him."

7 [a]Be silent in the presence of the Lord GOD;
[b]For the day of the LORD is at hand,
For [c]the LORD has prepared a sacrifice;
He has [1]invited His guests.

8 "And it shall be,
In the day of the LORD's sacrifice,
That I will punish [a]the princes and the king's children,
And all such as are clothed with foreign apparel.
9 In the same day I will punish
All those who [a]leap over the threshold,
Who fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit.

10 "And there shall be on that day," says the LORD,
"The sound of a mournful cry from [a]the Fish Gate,
A wailing from the Second Quarter,
And a loud crashing from the hills.
11 [a]Wail, you inhabitants of [1]Maktesh!
For all the merchant people are cut down;
All those who handle money are cut off.

Omission

There is much more to Christianity than repenting and abstaining from sin. A vibrant relationship with God involves seeking His face and living by His wisdom.

CHARACTER*Study* — ZEPHANIAH — Zeph. 1:1

Nothing is known about this prophet beyond what is found in the opening verse of his prophecy. His name may mean "hidden in the Lord," which reflects the theme of his writing (2:3). It might also suggest the dangerous circumstances of his birth during the reign of King Manasseh, whose wickedness caused the widespread shedding of innocent blood. It is unique that this prophet's lineage is traced back four generations to Hezekiah. This may indicate that Zephaniah was a descendent of the godly king Hezekiah, and if so, he was a relative of King Josiah. However, the tracing of four generations may also be to demonstrate his Judean ancestry, since his father is described as a Cushite. Zephaniah prophesied during the reign of King Josiah (640–609 B.C.) and witnessed a short-lived revival of the nation (2 Kin. 22–23; 2 Chr. 34–35). His book has numerous parallels with the Book of Deuteronomy, which was rediscovered in approximately 622 B.C. during King Josiah's reign.

1:1 "The word of the Lord" was the cornerstone of the prophet's message. Zephaniah's identity and personality fades immediately into the background, and the awesome word from almighty God remains central in this prophetic work.

1:3 The order of destruction—man, beast, birds, fish—occurs in the reverse order of their creation.

1:4 Every "trace" or "remnant" of Baal may indicate that King Josiah's reforms had already eliminated much Baal worship, but God's judgment would eradicate every trace.

1:5 Worship of objects in the heavens was expressly forbidden in the Israelite law (Deut. 4:19; 17:3–7).

1:9 Leaping over the threshold was a superstitious practice of the Philistines for their god Dagon (1 Sam. 5:5).

1:10 The Fish Gate would have been a major entrance to Jerusalem from the north, the direction from which most invading armies would approach. The Second Quarter may have been a newer section of Jerusalem, to the north, built when King Manasseh extended the walls of the city (2 Kin. 22:14; 2 Chr. 34:22).

THE DAY OF THE LORD

Zeph. 1:7 "The day of the Lord" was a significant prophetic theme. Perhaps the first prophet to describe that day was Amos. He declared that this would not merely be a time of vindication and punishment for Israel's enemies, but God's judgment would actually begin with God's people (Amos 5:18–20). Isaiah warned of the imminence of this terrible day (Is. 13:6). Joel added a degree of hope for God's people once judgment had been served (Joel 2:1–11, 28–32; 3:18–21). Zephaniah's contribution describes the apocalyptic nature of the day of the Lord. It will involve the entire earth and all creation (Zeph. 1:2, 3). Nothing will remain the same. Once it has come, every nation will worship the Lord (2:11). This universal viewpoint prepared the way for the New Testament understanding of Jesus' second coming (Matt. 25:31–46).

12 "And it shall come to pass at that time
That I will search Jerusalem with lamps,
And punish the men
Who are [a]settled[1] in complacency,
[b]Who say in their heart,
'The LORD will not do good,
Nor will He do evil.'
13 Therefore their goods shall become booty,
And their houses a desolation;
They shall build houses, but not inhabit them;
They shall plant vineyards, but [a]not drink their wine."

14 [a]The great day of the LORD is near;
It is near and hastens quickly.
The noise of the day of the LORD is bitter;
There the mighty men shall cry out.
15 [a]That day is a day of wrath,
A day of trouble and distress,
A day of devastation and desolation,
A day of darkness and gloominess,
A day of clouds and thick darkness,
16 A day of [a]trumpet and alarm
Against the fortified cities
And against the high towers.
17 "I will bring distress upon men,
And they shall [a]walk like blind men,
Because they have sinned against the LORD;
Their blood shall be poured out like dust,
And their flesh like refuse."
18 [a]Neither their silver nor their gold
Shall be able to deliver them
In the day of the LORD's wrath;
But the whole land shall be devoured
By the fire of His jealousy,
For He will make speedy riddance
Of all those who dwell in the land.

A Call to Repentance

2 Gather[a] yourselves together, yes, gather together,
O [1]undesirable nation,
2 Before the decree is issued,
Or the day passes like chaff,
Before the LORD's fierce anger comes upon you,
Before the day of the LORD's anger comes upon you!
3 [a]Seek the LORD, [b]all you meek of the earth,
Who have upheld His justice.
Seek righteousness, seek humility.
[c]It may be that you will be hidden
In the day of the LORD's anger.

WRATH

Zeph. 1:15 God shows mercy and patience even in the face of His peoples' continual rebellion (Hos. 2:14–17; 11:8, 9). But God's love for His people also compels Him to hate that which destroys them. God abhors sin. Those who reject His love and who cling to their sin must face God's overwhelming wrath. He will ultimately punish all sin (Matt. 3:7; Rom. 1:18; 2:5; 1 Thess. 1:10; Rev. 11:18; 14:10; 16:9; 19:15). God's love is balanced equally by His righteousness. The wrath of God is the response of holy love to deadly sin.

1:16 Trumpets had been blown before God's judgment on Jericho (Josh. 6:4, 5, 16, 20).

1:17 King Zedekiah, the final Judean king to rule Israel, was forced to watch his sons' execution by King Nebuchadnezzar's soldiers immediately before he was blinded. This ordeal was judgment for his sins and his stubborn resistance to God's word (2 Kin. 25:6, 7).

2:2 "Like chaff" indicates the fleeting moments before the day of God's wrath comes. There is no time to delay in preparing for that day.

ENCOUNTER Note Zeph. 2:3

It May Be

God's people make no demands upon their Lord. They have no right to exemption from suffering; God owes them nothing. Yet where else can they turn but to Him? They must therefore appeal to God's grace and mercy to save them.

They shall drive out Ashdod [b]at noonday,
And Ekron shall be uprooted.
5 Woe to the inhabitants of [a]the seacoast,
The nation of the Cherethites!
The word of the LORD is against you,
O [b]Canaan, land of the Philistines:
"I will destroy you;
So there shall be no inhabitant."
6 The seacoast shall be pastures,
With [1]shelters for shepherds [a]and folds for flocks.
7 The coast shall be for [a]the remnant of the house of Judah;
They shall feed their flocks there;
In the houses of Ashkelon they shall lie down at evening.
For the LORD their God will [b]intervene[1] for them,
And [c]return their captives.

8 "I[a] have heard the reproach of Moab,
And [b]the insults of the people of Ammon,
With which they have reproached My people,
And [c]made arrogant threats against their borders.
9 Therefore, as I live,"
Says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel,
"Surely [a]Moab shall be like Sodom,
And [b]the people of Ammon like Gomorrah—
[c]Overrun[1] with weeds and saltpits,
And a [2]perpetual desolation.
The residue of My people shall plunder them,
And the remnant of My people shall possess them."

10 This they shall have [a]for their pride,
Because they have reproached and made arrogant threats
Against the people of the LORD of hosts.
11 The LORD will be awesome to them,
For He will reduce to nothing all the gods of the earth;
[a]People shall worship Him,
Each one from his place,
Indeed all [b]the shores of the nations.

12 "You[a] Ethiopians also,
You shall be slain by [b]My sword."

13 And He will stretch out His hand against the north,
[a]Destroy Assyria,
And make Nineveh a desolation,
As dry as the wilderness.
14 The herds shall lie down in her midst,
[a]Every beast of the nation.
Both the [b]pelican and the bittern
Shall lodge on the capitals of her pillars;
Their voice shall sing in the windows;
Desolation shall be at the threshold;
For He will lay bare the [c]cedar work.
15 This is the rejoicing city
[a]That dwelt securely,
[b]That said in her heart,
"I am it, and there is none besides me."
How has she become a desolation,
A place for beasts to lie down!
Everyone who passes by her
[c]Shall hiss and [d]shake his fist.

The Wickedness of Jerusalem

CHAPTER 3

3 Woe to her who is rebellious and polluted,
To the oppressing city!
2 She has not obeyed His voice,
She has not received correction;
She has not trusted in the LORD,
She has not drawn near to her God.

3 [a]Her princes in her midst are roaring lions;
Her judges are [b]evening wolves
That leave not a bone till morning.

3 [a]Ezek. 22:27 [b]Hab. 1:8

2:5 Cherethites were inhabitants of Crete (Ezek. 25:16).

2:7 Despite God's comprehensive, universal judgment, there will be a "remnant" of His people. They will serve God faithfully and enjoy all of His promises.

2:8 Moab had opposed the Israelites when they sought to enter the Promised Land (Num. 22–24). Ammon had also been a persistent and bitter foe (1 Sam. 11:1, 2; 2 Sam. 10:1–4; Neh. 4:3; Jer. 40:14).

2:9 The term "as I live" usually introduces a divine curse. The nations of Ammon and Moab were near the ruins of the infamous Sodom and Gomorrah, which stood as a stark reminder of God's thoroughness in judgment.

2:11 This is a unique contribution of Zephaniah, for rather than the nations coming to Jerusalem to worship at the temple, he foresaw a day when people would worship God in their own cities.

2:13 Nineveh was indeed destroyed by the Babylonians in 612 B.C. In 401 B.C., Xenophon passed by the site and could not detect a trace of the once formidable city.

3:2 Jerusalem was unique among all the world's capital cities, for its people had heard God's voice, yet they had not heeded it (Deut. 4:32, 33).

4 Her [a]prophets are insolent, treacherous people;
Her priests have [1]polluted the sanctuary,
They have done [b]violence to the law.
5 The LORD is righteous in her midst,
He will do no unrighteousness.
[1]Every morning He brings His justice to light;
He never fails,
But [a]the unjust knows no shame.

6 "I have cut off nations,
Their fortresses are devastated;
I have made their streets desolate,
With none passing by.
Their cities are destroyed;
There is no one, no inhabitant.
7 [a]I said, 'Surely you will fear Me,
You will receive instruction'—
So that her dwelling would not be cut off,
Despite everything for which I punished her.
But [1]they rose early and [b]corrupted
all their deeds.

A Faithful Remnant

8 "Therefore [a]wait for Me," says the
LORD,
"Until the day I rise up [1]for plunder;
My determination is to [b]gather the nations
To My assembly of kingdoms,
To pour on them My indignation,
All My fierce anger;
All the earth [c]shall be devoured
With the fire of My jealousy.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Zeph. 3:8

A Remnant

God's purposes may require discipline and even judgment upon His people. How many are willing to undergo the pruning process until God has purged them of their sin? Will you be one of the faithful remnant to serve Him?

9 "For then I will restore to the peoples
[a]a pure [1]language,
That they all may call on the name

My worshipers,

11 In that day you shall not be shamed for any of your deeds
In which you transgress against Me;
For then I will take away from your midst
Those who [a]rejoice in your pride,
And you shall no longer be haughty
In My holy mountain.
12 I will leave in your midst
[a]A meek and humble people,
And they shall trust in the name of
the LORD.
13 [a]The remnant of Israel [b]shall do no unrighteousness
[c]And speak no lies,
Nor shall a deceitful tongue be

For [d]they shall feed their flocks and lie down,
And no one shall make them afraid."

Joy in God's Faithfulness

14 [a]Sing, O daughter of Zion!
Shout, O Israel!
Be glad and rejoice with all your heart,
O daughter of Jerusalem!
15 The LORD has taken away your judgments,
He has cast out your enemy.
[a]The King of Israel, the LORD, [b]is in
your midst;
You shall [1]see disaster no more.

16 In that day [a]it shall be said to Jerusalem:
"Do not fear;
Zion, [b]let not your hands be weak.
17 The LORD your God [a]in your midst,
The Mighty One, will save;
[b]He will rejoice over you with gladness,
He will quiet you with His love,
He will rejoice over you with singing."

18 "I will gather those who [a]sorrow

Who are among you,
To whom its reproach is a burden.

3:7 While the people rose early to commit evil, scripture indicates God rose early to send prophets with a message for His people (Jer. 7:13, 25; 11:7; 25:3; 26:5; 29:19; 32:33; 35:14, 15; 44:4).

3:9 A "pure language" may be similar to Isaiah's experience when his lips first had to be cleansed before he could worship the Lord (Is. 6:5–7).

3:10 "My dispersed ones" reflects the Deuteronomic warning that God would disperse His people if they disobeyed Him (Deut. 4:27; 28:64; 30:3).

3:14 "Daughter of Zion" is an affectionate name for Jerusalem.

3:15 "The King of Israel, the Lord" indicates that not merely a descendent of David, but God Himself would dwell among his people. Josiah's three sons would all face God's judgment, and King Zedekiah's sons would all be executed. God Himself would rule His people.

Rejoicing over You

Infinite, almighty God loves you dearly. He rejoices when you seek Him. He longs to care for you and comfort you. You are not one of countless, nameless millions. He knows you personally. He loves you and celebrates your love for Him.

I will deal with all who afflict you;
I will save the [a]lame,
And gather those who were driven out;
I will appoint them for praise and fame
In every land where they were put to shame.
20 At that time [a]I will bring you back,
Even at the time I gather you;
For I will give you [1]fame and praise
Among all the peoples of the earth,
When I return your captives before your eyes,"
Says the LORD.

THE BOOK OF HAGGAI

INTRODUCTION

The prophet Haggai's name means "festival." He may have been among the exiles who returned from Babylon to Jerusalem. Although Jewish people began returning to Jerusalem in 538 B.C. led by Zerubbabel and the high priest Joshua, the temple had still not been completed eighteen years later. Apparently after an initial attempt, opposition had arisen and discouragement set in (Ezra 3–4). The unfinished temple lay in ruins until 520 B.C., when the prophet Haggai entered the scene to encourage God's people to complete what they had begun. Haggai's public ministry evidently lasted only four months. Yet he, along with the prophet Zechariah, led God's people to accomplish their task.

SIGNIFICANCE

Haggai may have been an elderly man when God used him to deliver His messages to His people. Though Haggai's ministry was brief, it resulted in the construction of a temple that would be used to worship God for nearly 600 years. Haggai was an encourager. Even when the top religious and political leaders had grown disheartened, the faithful prophet remained confident. Moreover, he inspired others to share his trust in God. Haggai's confidence was not merely theoretical; it was expressed tangibly in accomplishing God's work. We only know of one assignment God gave this prophet late in life, but he accomplished it faithfully and completely.

STRUCTURE

This book is carefully dated and can be outlined according to the months in which Haggai delivered his messages:

August 520 B.C.: A Call to Build (1:1–11)
August 520 B.C.: The People's Response (1:12–15)
October 520 B.C.: Encouraged to Continue (2:1–9)
December 520 B.C.: Cleansing and Blessing (2:10–19)
December 520 B.C.: God's Chosen Servant (2:20–23)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH HAGGAI

It may be convicting to read God's condemnation of those who focus on pursuing luxury and comfort but who do not invest their time or resources into the Lord's work (1:4). Perhaps God will ask you to consider why difficult events are occurring in your life, just as Haggai challenged his contemporaries to contemplate why God allowed their hardships (1:5–11). You should be inspired by Haggai's confident example to serve God without fear (2:4, 5). And finally, Haggai's story proves that one person's faith and obedience can leave a lasting legacy in God's kingdom.

The Command to Build God's House

IN [a]the second year of King Darius, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came by [b]Haggai the prophet to [c]Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to [d]Joshua the son of [e]Jehozadak, the high priest, saying,
2 "Thus speaks the LORD of hosts, saying: 'This people says, "The time has not come, the time that the LORD's house should be built." ' "
3 Then the word of the LORD [a]came by Haggai the prophet, saying,
4 "Is it [a]time for you yourselves to dwell in your paneled houses, and this [1]temple to lie in ruins?"
5 Now therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts: [a]"Consider your ways!

ENCOUNTER*Note* Hag. 1:5

Consider Your Ways!

God often uses the circumstances of our lives to speak to us. When everything is going wrong, we must consider whether God is voicing His displeasure. What does God have to do before we stop and listen?

6 "You have [a]sown much, and bring in little;
You eat, but do not have enough;
You drink, but you are not filled with drink;
You clothe yourselves, but no one is warm;
And [b]he who earns wages,
Earns wages to put into a bag with holes."

7 Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Consider your ways!
8 "Go up to the [a]mountains and bring wood and build the [1]temple, that I may take pleasure in it and be glorified," says the LORD.
9 [a]"You looked for much, but indeed it came to little; and when you brought it home, [b]I blew it away. Why?" says the LORD of hosts. "Because of My house that is in ruins, while every one of you runs to his own house.
10 "Therefore [a]the heavens above you withhold the dew, and the earth withholds its fruit.
11 "For I [a]called for a drought on the land and the mountains, on the grain and the new wine and the oil, on whatever the ground brings forth, on men and livestock, and on [b]all the labor of your hands."

The People's Obedience

12 [a]Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him; and the people feared the presence of the LORD.

ZERUBBABEL

Hag. 1:1

Zerubbabel, whose name meant, "seed of Babylon," was the grandson of King Jehoiachin who was taken captive to Babylon in 597 B.C. (2 Kin. 24:15). According to 1 Chronicles 3:19, Zerubbabel was the offspring of Jehoiachin's third son, Pedaiah. Shealtiel, the oldest son, appears to have been childless and may have adopted Zerubbabel as his heir. Zerubbabel was a direct descendent of King David, and although only a governor appointed by the Persians, he carried with him the Jewish hopes of a restored Davidic kingdom.

HANDLEY C.G. MOULE

Hag. 1:6

At the age of twenty-five, Handley Moule was converted during the 1866 Christmas season. However, although he was now a believer, he sensed he lacked the enduement of the Holy Spirit to serve God in power. He watched the powerful ministry of D.L. Moody and knew he did not have the same vibrant relationship with God. Then while attending a Keswick convention on September 18, 1884, he listened to a Christian businessman, William Slone, preach from Haggai 1:6. The layman explained that self sufficiency would never lead to a victorious Christian life. That could only come through absolute surrender to God's sanctifying work. Suddenly Moule realized he had been attempting what only God could do in his life. He surrendered his life completely to Christ. For the next thirty-six years he would enjoy a dynamic international ministry that would see him become a revered bishop in the Church of England.

1:1 The date would have been August 29, 520 B.C.

13 Then Haggai, the LORD's messenger, spoke the LORD's message to the people, saying, [a]"I am with you, says the LORD."
14 So [a]the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, [b]governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; [c]and they came and worked on the house of the LORD of hosts, their God,
15 on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of King Darius.

The Coming Glory of God's House

2 In the seventh month, on the twenty-first of the month, the word of the LORD came [1]by Haggai the prophet, saying:
2 "Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying:
3 [a]'Who is left among you who saw this [1]temple in its former glory? And how do you see it now? In comparison with it, [b]is this not in your eyes as nothing?
4 'Yet now [a]be strong, Zerubbabel,' says the LORD; 'and be strong, Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest; and be strong, all you people of the land,' says the LORD, 'and work; for I am with you,' says the LORD of hosts.
5 [a]'According to the word that I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt, so [b]My Spirit remains among you; do not fear!'
6 "For thus says the LORD of hosts: [a]'Once more (it is a little while) [b]I will shake heaven and earth, the sea and dry land;
7 'and I will shake all nations, and they shall come to [a]the [1]Desire of All Nations, and I will fill this [2]temple with [b]glory,' says the LORD of hosts.
8 'The silver is Mine, and the gold is Mine,' says the LORD of hosts.
9 [a]'The glory of this latter [1]temple shall be greater than the former,' says the LORD of hosts. 'And in this place I will give [b]peace,' says the LORD of hosts."

The People Are Defiled

10 On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying,
11 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'Now, [a]ask the priests concerning the law, saying,
12 "If one carries holy meat in the fold of his garment, and with the edge he touches bread or stew, wine or oil, or any food, will it become holy?" ' " Then the priests answered and said, "No."
13 And Haggai said, "If one who is [a]unclean because of a dead body touches any of these, will it be unclean?" So the priests answered and said, "It shall be unclean."
14 Then Haggai answered and said, [a]" 'So is this people, and so is this nation before Me,' says the LORD, 'and so is every work of their hands; and what they offer there is unclean.

JOSHUA THE HIGH PRIEST

Hag. 1:12

Joshua, or Jeshua, was the high priest who was exiled to Babylon by King Nebuchadnezzar. He returned from exile to Jerusalem around 537 B.C. (Ezra 2:2). He led in the building of the altar and restoring the sacrificial system (Ezra 3:2–6). Joshua was challenged by the prophet Haggai to resume construction of the temple after he and the people grew discouraged. Some of Joshua's children later married outside the faith and were corrected under the ministry of Ezra (Ezra 10:18, 19). Joshua appears in a vision seen by the prophet Zechariah (Zech. 3).

1:13 "Messenger" could also be translated "angel."

1:15 There was a delay of twenty-three days between Haggai's message and the people's commencement of work on the temple.

2:1 This would have been October 17, 520 B.C. This message came a month after the work had begun.

2:3 This was spoken in 520 B.C. Few listeners would have been alive to see the temple before 586 B.C.

2:6 "Shake" involves the vivid imagery of an earthquake. Several prophets used this term to describe the sudden, unexpected, violent coming of God, especially in judgment (Is. 2:13–21; 13:13; 29:6; Ezek. 38:20; Amos 1:1; Joel 3:16).

2:10 This was December 18, 520 B.C., and came two months after Haggai's previous message. The prophet Zechariah had commenced his ministry a few weeks earlier (Zech. 1:1).

16 'since those days, [a]when one came to a heap of twenty ephahs, there were but ten; when one came to the wine vat to draw out fifty baths from the press, there were but twenty.
17 [a]'I struck you with blight and mildew and hail [b]in all the labors of your hands; [c]yet you did not turn to Me,' says the LORD.
18 'Consider now from this day forward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, from [a]the day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid—consider it:
19 [a]'Is the seed still in the barn? As yet the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree have not yielded fruit. But from this day I will [b]bless you.' "

Zerubbabel Chosen as a Signet

20 And again the word of the LORD came to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month, saying,
21 "Speak to Zerubbabel, [a]governor of Judah, saying:

[b]'I will shake heaven and earth.
22 [a]I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms;
I will destroy the strength of the Gentile kingdoms.
[b]I will overthrow the chariots
And those who ride in them;
The horses and their riders shall come down,
Every one by the sword of his brother.

23 'In that day,' says the LORD of hosts, 'I will take you, Zerubbabel My servant, the son of Shealtiel,' says the LORD, [a]'and will make you like a signet ring; for [b]I have chosen you,' says the LORD of hosts."

Hag. 2:23 A signet ring had the king's emblem engraved on it and was used to seal documents indicating they were official words from the king. It was often worn by the king for safekeeping. God had rejected Zerubbabel's grandfather, Jehoiachin, as a "signet ring" (Jer. 22:24).

Chosen

When God designates you as His servant, He also values you as a special treasure. There is nothing more rewarding than to be chosen by God.

2:20 This message came to Haggai on the same day as his third message from the Lord (Hag. 2:10).

THE BOOK OF ZECHARIAH

INTRODUCTION

Zechariah began his prophetic ministry in 520 B.C., one month before the prophet Haggai delivered his final message. Both addressed the rebuilding of the temple. But whereas the older prophet Haggai focused on the actual rebuilding of the temple, Zechariah concentrated on the spiritual condition of the people, God's judgment, the final restoration of His people, and God's universal rule.

SIGNIFICANCE

Much of this book is apocalyptic in nature, looking to the future and using imagery that is at times challenging to understand. Zechariah foresees the final Day of the Lord when God will defeat His enemies and all the nations will worship Him (14:1). The Gospel writers cite Zechariah more than any other of the Minor Prophets. Jesus' entering Jerusalem on a donkey is foretold (9:9) as is Judas's betrayal for thirty pieces of silver (11:13), as well as the servant of God who is pierced by his enemies (12:10). The Book of Revelation draws heavily upon this Old Testament book. Zechariah looks past the current challenges and failures of God's people and sees a day when God's reign will be absolute and universal upon the earth (14:16–21).

STRUCTURE

Zechariah has two distinct parts: chapters 1–8 and 9–14. The first eight chapters are dated and deal with historic characters such as Zechariah, Joshua, and Zerubbabel. The latter chapters no longer mention these people but look to a future time when God will cleanse His people and deliver them from their enemies. Zechariah can be outlined as follows:

Part One
- Introduction (1:1–6)
- First Vision: Horses in the Myrtles (1:7–17)
- Second Vision: Horns and Craftsmen (1:18–21)
- Third Vision: A Measuring Line (2:1–13)
- Fourth Vision: The High Priest (3:1–10)
- Fifth Vision: A Lampstand and Olive Trees (4:1–14)
- Sixth Vision: A Flying Scroll (5:1–4)
- Seventh Vision: Wickedness Dealt With (5:5–11)
- Seventh Vision: Chariots (6:1–8)
- Crowning the High Priest (6:7–15)
- The Call for Obedience (7:1–14)
- Promises for the Future (8:1–23)

Part Two
- An Oracle of God's Future Deliverance (9:1—11:17)
- An Oracle of God's Deliverance of Jerusalem (12:1—14:21)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH ZECHARIAH

The Book of Zechariah opens with God's compelling invitation: "Return to Me . . . and I will return to you" (1:3). The prophet reiterates a fundamental spiritual truth: you do not serve God in your own strength, nor by your righteousness, but in the power of the Holy Spirit (4:6). Moreover, you cannot remove your own sin. God alone has that power (3:4). You will confront poignant imagery, such as people grasping your sleeve to go worship with you because they recognize God's presence in you (8:23). Be encouraged to know God has saved you to make you a blessing to others (8:13). Take comfort in knowing God supplies abundant grace and forgiveness to address your every sin (13:1).

A Call to Repentance

IN the eighth month [a]of the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came [b]to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of [c]Iddo the prophet, saying,
2 "The LORD has been very angry with your fathers.
3 "Therefore say to them, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Return [a]to Me," says the LORD of hosts, "and I will return to you," says the LORD of hosts.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Zech. 1:3

To Me

God's call to return to Him is a heart cry; it is not a request to resume our religion. Our worship practices and our lifestyle are the outward expressions of our love for the Lord. He calls us out of rebellion back to a relationship; the rest will follow.

4 "Do not be like your fathers, [a]to whom the former prophets preached, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: [b]"Turn now from your evil ways and your evil deeds." ' But they did not hear nor heed Me," says the LORD.

5 "Your fathers, where are they?
And the prophets, do they live forever?
6 Yet surely [a]My words and My statutes,
Which I commanded My servants the prophets,
Did they not overtake your fathers?

"So they returned and said:

[a]'Just as the LORD of hosts determined to do to us,
According to our ways and according to our deeds,
So He has dealt with us.' " ' "

Vision of the Horses

7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet:
8 I saw by night, and behold, [a]a man riding on a red horse, and it stood among the myrtle trees in the hollow; and behind him were [b]horses: red, sorrel, and white.
9 Then I said, [a]"My lord, what are these?" So the angel who talked with me said to me, "I will show you what they are."
10 And the man who stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, [a]"These are the ones whom the LORD has sent to walk to and fro throughout the earth."
11 [a]So they answered the Angel of the LORD, who stood among the myrtle trees, and said, "We have walked to and fro throughout the earth, and behold, all the earth is [1]resting quietly."

The LORD Will Comfort Zion

12 Then the Angel of the LORD answered and said, "O LORD of hosts, [a]how long will You not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which You were angry [b]these seventy years?"
13 And the LORD answered the angel who talked to me, with [a]good and comforting words.

Good and Comforting

During our darkest hours come the difficult questions. God is prepared to answer, bringing comfort in the midst of confusion and crisis.

CHARACTER*Study* ZECHARIAH Zech. 1:1

Over thirty people in the Old Testament are named Zechariah. His name means "the Lord remembers." His father is identified as Berechiah and his grandfather is Iddo. But in Ezra 5:1 and 6:14, Zechariah's father is identified as Iddo. This could indicate his grandfather Iddo raised him after Zechariah lost his father. It is also possible that Ezra highlights the prophet's better-known relative, since the same term can mean "father" or "grandfather." He may have been a young man during his prophetic ministry (2:3, 4). His last dated prophecy occurred December 7, 518 B.C. (7:1). Zechariah's ministry overlapped that of the prophet Haggai. Zechariah looked to the future, to a time God would bring victory to His people and usher in the last days.

1:1 This month began on October 27, 520 B.C.

1:7 This date was February 15, 519 B.C. and probably was when the prophet received all eight visions.

1:12 "Seventy years" is used several times in the Old Testament. In Jeremiah it refers to the period of domination by Babylon over Jerusalem (Jer. 25:11, 12; 29:1). In Zechariah 1:12 and 7:5 it refers to the length of Jerusalem's destruction.

14 So the angel who spoke with me said to me, [1]"Proclaim, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"I am [a]zealous[2] for Jerusalem
And for Zion with great [3]zeal.
15 I am exceedingly angry with the nations at ease;
For [a]I was a little angry,
And they helped—but with evil intent."

16 'Therefore thus says the LORD:

[a]"I am returning to Jerusalem with mercy;
My [b]house [c]shall be built in it," says the LORD of hosts,
"And [d]a surveyor's line shall be stretched out over Jerusalem." '

17 "Again proclaim, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"My cities shall again [1]spread out through prosperity;
[a]The LORD will again comfort Zion,
And [b]will again choose Jerusalem." ' "

Vision of the Horns

18 Then I raised my eyes and looked, and there were four [a]horns.
19 And I said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these?" So he answered me, [a]"These are the [1]horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."
20 Then the LORD showed me four craftsmen.
21 And I said, "What are these coming to do?" So he said, "These are the [a]horns that scattered Judah, so that no one could lift up his head; but [1]the craftsmen are coming to terrify them, to cast out the horns of the nations that [b]lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it."

Vision of the Measuring Line

2 Then I raised my eyes and looked, and behold, [a]a man with a measuring line in his hand.
2 So I said, "Where are you going?" And he said to me, [a]"To measure Jerusalem, to see what is its width and what is its length."

4 who said to him, "Run, speak to this young man, saying: [a]'Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls, because of the multitude of men and livestock in it.
5 'For I,' says the LORD, 'will be [a]a wall of fire all around her, [b]and I will be the glory in her midst.' "

ENCOUNTER*Note* Zech. 2:5

Glory

The one thing that sets God's people apart from others is God's presence. God's presence authenticates everything His people do and say.

Future Joy of Zion and Many Nations

6 "Up, up! Flee [a]from the land of the north," says the LORD; "for I have [b]spread you abroad like the four winds of heaven," says the LORD.
7 "Up, Zion! [a]Escape, you who dwell with the daughter of Babylon."
8 For thus says the LORD of hosts: "He sent Me after glory, to the nations which plunder you; for he who [a]touches you touches the [1]apple of His eye.
9 "For surely I will [a]shake My hand against them, and they shall become [1]spoil for their servants. Then [b]you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent Me.
10 [a]"Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion! For behold, I am coming and I [b]will dwell in your midst," says the LORD.
11 [a]"Many nations shall be joined to the LORD [b]in that day, and they shall become [c]My people. And I will dwell in your midst. Then [d]you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent Me to you.
12 "And the LORD will [a]take possession of Judah as His inheritance in the Holy Land, and will again choose Jerusalem.
13 [a]"Be silent, all flesh, before the LORD, for He is aroused [b]from His holy habitation!"

1:15 God was angry with nations such as Assyria and Babylon. God had used them as instruments of discipline on His people, but these evil nations had exceeded God's intent and cruelly oppressed God's people. Now they would face God's wrath themselves.

1:21 Horns represented strength. God planned to thoroughly defeat the powerful nations that had oppressed His people.

2:4 A city without walls would be so vast in population that walls could not contain it. Only enormous prosperity could warrant the absence of protective walls. The city would not need to invest in fortifications because God Himself would stand guard around it. If the "young man" mentioned here is Zechariah, then it demonstrates his youth as he began his prophetic ministry.

2:7 "Daughter of Babylon" may refer to Babylon's inhabitants, particularly the Jewish exiles.

2:8 The "apple of His eye" referred to God's affection for His people (Deut. 32:10). Part of their covenant relationship with God included His protection.

2:11 The concept of "many nations being joined to the Lord and becoming His people" would have been a radical one in Zechariah's day. The prophet's contemporaries looked for God to judge other nations, not to accept them as His family.

Vision of the High Priest

3 Then he showed me [a]Joshua the high priest standing before the Angel of the LORD, and [b]Satan[1] standing at his right hand to oppose him.
2 And the LORD said to Satan, [a]"The LORD rebuke you, Satan! The LORD who [b]has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! [c]Is this not a brand plucked from the fire?"
3 Now Joshua was clothed with [a]filthy garments, and was standing before the Angel.
4 Then He answered and spoke to those who stood before Him, saying, "Take away the filthy garments from him." And to him He said, "See, I have removed your iniquity from you, [a]and I will clothe you with rich robes."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Zech. 3:4

Filthy Garments

We cannot hide our sins from God. They are as obvious to Him as filthy garments. He offers to cleanse us and to clothe us in new robes of righteousness.

5 And I said, "Let them put a clean [a]turban on his head." So they put a clean turban on his head, and they put the clothes on him. And the Angel of the LORD stood by.

The Coming Branch

6 Then the Angel of the LORD admonished Joshua, saying,
7 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

'If you will walk in My ways,
And if you will [a]keep My command,
Then you shall also [b]judge My house,
And likewise have charge of My courts;
I will give you places to walk
Among these who [c]stand here.

8 'Hear, O Joshua, the high priest,
You and your companions who sit before you,
For they are [a]a[1] wondrous sign;
For behold, I am bringing forth [b]My Servant the [c]BRANCH.
9 For behold, the stone
That I have laid before Joshua:
[a]Upon the stone are [b]seven eyes.
Behold, I will engrave its inscription,'
Says the LORD of hosts,
'And [c]I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.
10 [a]In that day,' says the LORD of hosts,
'Everyone will invite his neighbor
[b]Under his vine and under his fig tree.' "

Vision of the Lampstand and Olive Trees

4 Now [a]the angel who talked with me came back and wakened me, [b]as a man who is wakened out of his sleep.
2 And he said to me, "What do you see?" So I said, "I am looking, and there is [a]a lampstand of solid gold with a bowl on top of it, [b]and on the stand seven lamps with seven pipes to the seven lamps.
3 [a]"Two olive trees are by it, one at the right of the bowl and the other at its left."
4 So I answered and spoke to the angel who talked with me, saying, "What are these, my lord?"
5 Then the angel who talked with me answered and said to me, "Do you not know what these are?" And I said, "No, my lord."
6 So he answered and said to me:

"This is the word of the LORD to [a]Zerubbabel:
[b]'Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit,'
Says the LORD of hosts.
7 'Who are you, [a]O great mountain?
Before Zerubbabel you shall become a plain!
And he shall bring forth [b]the capstone
[c]With shouts of "Grace, grace to it!" ' "

8 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

9 "The hands of Zerubbabel
[a]Have laid the foundation of this [1]temple;
His hands [b]shall also finish it.
Then [c]you will know
That the [d]LORD of hosts has sent Me to you.
10 For who has despised the day of [a]small things?

3:1 "Satan" is literally "the accuser." It is not always evident whether the Scripture writers intended for this to indicate the person of Satan or someone who was accusing God's people.

3:2 A "brand plucked from the fire" indicated someone who had survived the fire of God's judgment. Joshua, the priest, had returned from Babylonian exile purged of his sin, and he now served as God's servant.

3:8 The prophet is using metaphors of a stone and a branch to foreshadow the coming Messiah. Isaiah also looked to God's Servant who would bring in the final age (Is. 52:13—53:12).

4:2 A golden lampstand stood in the tabernacle (Ex. 25:31). King Solomon's temple had ten lampstands (1 Kin. 7:49).

For these seven rejoice to see
The [1]plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel.
[b]They are the eyes of the LORD,
Which scan to and fro throughout the whole earth."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Zech. 4:10

Small Things

The church is enamored with enormity. We are impressed with great size and large numbers. But God often chooses seemingly insignificant ways to accomplish His greatest works. Don't overlook or underestimate God's mighty activity through the small things.

11 Then I answered and said to him, "What are these [a]two olive trees—at the right of the lampstand and at its left?"
12 And I further answered and said to him, "What are these two olive branches that drip [1]into the receptacles of the two gold pipes from which the golden oil drains?"
13 Then he answered me and said, "Do you not know what these are?" And I said, "No, my lord."
14 So he said, [a]"These are the two [1]anointed ones, [b]who stand beside the Lord of the whole earth."

Vision of the Flying Scroll

5 Then I turned and raised my eyes, and saw there a flying [a]scroll.
2 And he said to me, "What do you see?" So I answered, "I see a flying scroll. Its length is twenty cubits and its width ten cubits."
3 Then he said to me, "This is the [a]curse that goes out over the face of the whole earth: 'Every thief shall be expelled,' according to this side of the scroll; and, 'Every perjurer shall be expelled,' according to that side of it."
4 "I will send out the curse," says the LORD of hosts;
"It shall enter the house of the [a]thief
And the house of [b]the one who swears falsely by My name.
It shall remain in the midst of his house
And consume [c]it, with its timber and stones."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Zech. 5:4

Dishonesty

God despises deceit, for He is Truth. He has no tolerance for dishonesty among His people.

Vision of the Woman in a Basket

5 Then the angel who talked with me came out and said to me, "Lift your eyes now, and see what this is that goes forth."
6 So I asked, "What is it?" And he said, "It is a [1]basket that is going forth." He also said, "This is their resemblance throughout the earth:
7 "Here is a lead disc lifted up, and this is a woman sitting inside the basket";
8 then he said, "This is Wickedness!"

HISTORICAL*Encounter* JONATHAN GOFORTH Zech. 4:6

Jonathan Goforth was born on February 10, 1859 on his father's farm outside London, Ontario in Canada. As young adults, he and his wife Rosalind sailed for China as Presbyterian missionaries. They planned to evangelize regions deep within China as yet unreached with the gospel. The Goforths suffered untold hardships: the deaths of five children, the repeated loss of all their possessions, threats on their lives, and numerous bouts with disease. Yet through their ministry thousands of Chinese people came to Christ. Then God used Goforth to spark revival among Christians in China. There was a great outpouring of God's Spirit upon His people. God worked powerfully through this dedicated couple. Someone asked Jonathon the "secret" to his success. He replied that when he was young, he made Zechariah 4:6 the theme of his life. This verse is inscribed on his tomb as a lasting tribute to the power of the Holy Spirit.

4:14 "Two anointed" referred to the political leader Zerubbabel and the religious leader, the high priest Joshua. Jewish thought anticipated two types of messianic leaders, one political, to deliver God's people from their enemies, and the other religious, to deliver God's people from their sins. Jesus would ultimately embody every messianic hope.

5:1 "Flying" indicates the speed of the coming judgment as well as the divine source of the message.

5:2 The scroll was huge, measuring ten yards long by five yards wide. The porch of Solomon's temple had the same dimensions (1 Kin. 6:3) although it is unclear whether this parallel had a particular significance.

5:3 Despite the purging process of the Babylonian exile, God's people were still plagued by theft and deceit.

5:8 The Hebrew word translated "wickedness" is a feminine noun and so it is personified here as a woman.

And he thrust her down into the basket, and threw the lead [1]cover over its mouth.
9 Then I raised my eyes and looked, and there were two women, coming with the wind in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a [a]stork, and they lifted up the basket between earth and heaven.
10 So I said to the [a]angel who talked with me, "Where are they carrying the basket?"
11 And he said to me, "To [a]build a house for it in [b]the land of [1]Shinar; when it is ready, the basket will be set there on its base."

Vision of the Four Chariots

6 Then I turned and raised my eyes and looked, and behold, four chariots were coming from between two mountains, and the mountains were mountains of bronze.
2 With the first chariot were [a]red horses, with the second chariot [b]black horses,
3 with the third chariot white horses, and with the fourth chariot dappled horses—strong steeds.
4 Then I answered [a]and said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?"
5 And the angel answered and said to me, [a]"These are four spirits of heaven, who go out from their [b]station before the Lord of all the earth.
6 [1]"The one with the black horses is going to [a]the north country, the white are going after them, and the dappled are going toward the south country."
7 Then the strong steeds went out, eager to go, that they might [a]walk to and fro throughout the earth. And He said, "Go, walk to and fro throughout the earth." So they walked to and fro throughout the earth.
8 And He called to me, and spoke to me, saying, "See, those who go toward the north country have given rest to My [a]Spirit in the north country."

The Command to Crown Joshua

9 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying:
10 "Receive the gift from the captives—from Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, who have come from Babylon—and go the same day and enter the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah.
11 "Take the silver and gold, make [a]an[1] elaborate crown, and set it on the head of [b]Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest.
12 "Then speak to him, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, saying:

"Behold, [a]the Man whose name is the [b]BRANCH!
From His place He shall [1]branch out,
[c]And He shall build the temple of the LORD;
13 Yes, He shall build the temple of the LORD.
He [a]shall bear the glory,
And shall sit and rule on His throne;
So [b]He shall be a priest on His throne,
And the counsel of peace shall be between [1]them both." '

14 "Now the [1]elaborate crown shall be [a]for a memorial in the temple of the LORD [2]for Helem, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Hen the son of Zephaniah.

ENCOUNTER Note — Zech. 6:14

If

God stands ready to pour out His blessings on us. There is but one contingency, and that is our obedience. If we are loyal to our covenant with Him, then we will experience His immeasurable goodness.

15 "Even [a]those from afar shall come and build the temple of the LORD. Then you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent Me to you. And this shall come to pass if you diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God."

Obedience Better than Fasting

7 Now in the fourth year of King Darius it came to pass that the word of the LORD came to Zechariah, on the fourth day of the ninth month, Chislev,
2 when [1]the people sent [2]Sherezer, with Regem-Melech and his men, to [3]the house of God, [4]to pray before the LORD,

CHAPTER 7

2 [1]Lit. they, cf. v. 5 [2]Or Sar-Ezer [3]Heb. Bethel [4]Or to entreat the favor of 5:11 Shinar was the ancient region in which Babylon was located (Gen. 10:10).

6:1 The writer of Revelation uses much of the same imagery (Rev. 6:1–8).

6:12 This may be a play on the name Zerubbabel, which means "shoot of Babylon."

6:15 Helem, whose name means "strength" is called Hedai, a name meaning "mole," in 6:10. Perhaps his more dignified, formal name was preferred in this case.

7:1 The date was December 7, 518 B.C. This was almost two years after the date of Zechariah's first vision (Zech. 1:7).

7:2 "Sherezer" could refer to the town of Bethel, located twelve miles from Jerusalem, but this verse seems to refer to a person living in Babylon.

3 and to [a]ask the priests who were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and the prophets, saying, "Should I weep in [b]the fifth month and [1]fast as I have done for so many years?"
4 Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,
5 "Say to all the people of the land, and to the priests: 'When you [a]fasted and mourned in the fifth [b]and seventh months [c]during those seventy years, did you really fast [d]for Me—for Me?
6 [a]'When you eat and when you drink, do you not eat and drink for yourselves?
7 'Should you not have obeyed the words which the LORD proclaimed through the [a]former prophets when Jerusalem and the cities around it were inhabited and prosperous, and [b]the [1]South and the Lowland were inhabited?' "

Disobedience Resulted in Captivity

8 Then the word of the LORD came to Zechariah, saying,
9 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

[a]'Execute true justice,
Show [1]mercy and compassion
Everyone to his brother.
10 [a]Do not oppress the widow or the fatherless,
The alien or the poor.
[b]Let none of you plan evil in his heart
Against his brother.'

11 "But they refused to heed, [a]shrugged[1] their shoulders, and [b]stopped[2] their ears so that they could not hear.

ENCOUNTER Note — Zech. 7:11

Refused

Our great struggle is not hearing God speak, but obeying what we have heard Him say.

12 "Yes, they made their [a]hearts like flint, [b]refusing to hear the law and the words which the LORD of hosts had sent by His Spirit through the former prophets. [c]Thus great wrath came from the LORD of hosts.
13 "Therefore it happened, that just as He proclaimed and they would not hear, so [a]they called out and I would not listen," says the LORD of hosts.
14 "But [a]I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations which they had not known. Thus the land became desolate after them, so that no one passed through or returned; for they made the pleasant land desolate."

Jerusalem, Holy City of the Future

8 Again the word of the LORD of hosts came, saying,
2 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

[a]'I am [1]zealous for Zion with great [2]zeal;
With great [3]fervor I am zealous for her.'

3 "Thus says the LORD:

[a]'I will return to Zion,
And [b]dwell in the midst of Jerusalem.
Jerusalem [c]shall be called the City of Truth,
[d]The Mountain of the LORD of hosts,
[e]The Holy Mountain.'

4 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

[a]'Old men and old women shall again sit
In the streets of Jerusalem,
Each one with his staff in his hand
Because of [1]great age.
5 The streets of the city
Shall be [a]full of boys and girls
Playing in its streets.'

6 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

'If it is [1]marvelous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days,
[a]Will it also be marvelous in My eyes?'
Says the LORD of hosts.

7 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

'Behold, [a]I will save My people from the land of the [1]east
And from the land of the [2]west;
8 I will [a]bring them back,
And they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem.
[b]They shall be My people
And I will be their God,
[c]In truth and righteousness.'

7:3 Four special days were set apart in remembrance of the fall of Jerusalem. The fast of the fifth month marked the destruction of the temple (2 Kin. 25:8, 9). The ninth day of the fourth month remembered the day Jerusalem's wall was breached (Jer. 39:2). The fast of the seventh month brought to mind the murder of Gedaliah (2 Kin. 25:25; Jer. 41:1), or possibly the Day of Atonement. The tenth day of the tenth month recalled the beginning of King Nebuchadnezzar's siege of Jerusalem (2 Kin. 25:1, 2; Jer. 39:1). The envoys wanted to know if, in light of the rebuilding of the temple, these holidays should still be observed.

7:12 Zechariah was the first Old Testament writer to explain the work of the Holy Spirit in such clear detail.

8:9 Only Haggai and Zechariah were known to have prophesied at this time (Hag. 1:6–11; 2:15–19).

9 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

[a]'Let your hands be strong,
You who have been hearing in these days
These words by the mouth of [b]the prophets,
Who spoke in [c]the day the foundation was laid
For the house of the LORD of hosts,
That the temple might be built.
10 For before these days
There were no [a]wages for man nor any hire for beast;
There was no peace from the enemy for whoever went out or came in;
For I set all men, everyone, against his neighbor.

11 [a]'But now I will not treat the remnant of this people as in the former days,' says the LORD of hosts.

12 'For[a] the [1]seed shall be prosperous,
The vine shall give its fruit,
[b]The ground shall give her increase,
And [c]the heavens shall give their dew—
I will cause the remnant of this people
To possess all these.
13 And it shall come to pass
That just as you were [a]a curse among the nations,
O house of Judah and house of Israel,
So I will save you, and [b]you shall be a blessing.
Do not fear,
Let your hands be strong.'

ENCOUNTER Note Zech. 8:13

A Blessing

We seldom realize it, but when we are embroiled in sin, we are a burden to those around us. Conversely, when we live a pure life, we become God's instruments for blessing everyone around us.

14 "For thus says the LORD of hosts:

[a]'Just as I determined to [1]punish you
When your fathers provoked Me to wrath,'
Says the LORD of hosts,
[b]'And I would not relent,

9 [a]Hag. 2:4 [b]Ezra 5:1, 2; 6:14 [c]Hag. 2:18

14 [a]Jer. 31:28 [b][2 Chr. 36:16] [1]Lit. bring calamity to you

15 So again in these days
I am determined to do good
To Jerusalem and to the house of Judah.
Do not fear.
16 These are the things you shall [a]do:
[b]Speak each man the truth to his neighbor;
Give judgment in your gates for truth, justice, and peace;
17 [a]Let none of you think evil in [1]your heart against your neighbor;
And do not love a false oath.
For all these are things that I hate,'
Says the LORD."

18 Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,
19 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

[a]'The fast of the fourth month,
[b]The fast of the fifth,
[c]The fast of the seventh,
[d]And the fast of the tenth,
Shall be [e]joy and gladness and cheerful feasts
For the house of Judah.
[f]Therefore love truth and peace.'

20 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

'Peoples shall yet come,
Inhabitants of many cities;
21 The inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying,
[a]"Let us continue to go and pray before the LORD,
And seek the LORD of hosts.
I myself will go also."
22 Yes, [a]many peoples and strong nations
Shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem,
And to pray before the LORD.'

23 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'In those days ten men [a]from every language of the nations shall [b]grasp the [1]sleeve of a Jewish man, saying, "Let us go with you, for we have heard [c]that God is with you." ' "

CHAPTER 9

1 [a]Is. 17:1 [b]Amos 1:3–5 [1]oracle, prophecy
2 [a]Jer. 49:23

8:22 The prophet foresaw a day when many nations would come to Jerusalem to worship God. However, there is no mention of these people being circumcised or adopting Jewish customs. This was a radical concept for Zechariah's day.

9:1 This is the only scriptural reference to Hadrach. It lay north of Hamath, making it the northernmost city mentioned. Damascus was the capital of Syria and had inflicted much harm on the Israelites.

9:2 Hamath lay on the Orontes River and represented the northern limit of the Promised Land (Num. 13:21; Josh. 13:5; Judg. 3:3).

And against [b]Tyre and [c]Sidon, though they are very [d]wise.

3 For Tyre built herself a tower,
Heaped up silver like the dust,
And gold like the mire of the streets.

4 Behold, [a]the Lord will cast her out;
He will destroy [b]her power in the
sea,
And she will be devoured by fire.

5 Ashkelon shall see it and fear;
Gaza also shall be very sorrowful;
And [a]Ekron, for He dried up her expectation.
The king shall perish from Gaza,
And Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.

6 "A[1] mixed race shall settle [a]in Ashdod,
And I will cut off the pride of the [b]Philistines.

7 I will take away the blood from his mouth,
And the abominations from between his teeth.
But he who remains, even he shall be for our God,
And shall be like a leader in Judah,
And Ekron like a Jebusite.

8 [a]I will camp around My house
Because of the army,
Because of him who passes by and
him who returns.
No more shall an oppressor pass through them,
For now I have seen with My eyes.

Dominion

God created the entire world, and He will have dominion over every part of it. We deceive ourselves if we think He will settle for a partial domain.

God Will Save His People

11 "As for you also,
Because of the blood of your
covenant,
I will set your [a]prisoners free from the waterless pit.

12 Return to the stronghold,
[a]You prisoners of hope.
Even today I declare
That I will restore [b]double to you.

13 For I have bent Judah, My bow,
Fitted the bow with Ephraim,
And raised up your sons, O Zion,
Against your sons, O Greece,
And made you like the sword of a mighty man."

14 Then the LORD will be seen over
them,
And [a]His arrow will go forth like lightning.
The Lord GOD will blow the
trumpet,
And go [b]with whirlwinds from the south.

15 The LORD of hosts will [a]defend
them;
They shall devour and subdue with slingstones.
They shall drink and roar as if with
wine;
They shall be filled with blood like
[1]basins,
Like the corners of the altar.

16 The LORD their God will [a]save them
in that day,
As the flock of His people.
For [b]they shall be like the [1]jewels of a crown,
[c]Lifted like a banner over His land—

17 For [a]how great is [1]its goodness
And how great its [b]beauty!
[c]Grain shall make the young men thrive,
And new wine the young women.

9:4 As predicted, Tyre would be overcome by the Assyrians in 722 B.C. after a five-year siege. Later, Nebuchadnezzar besieged it for thirteen years before giving up in 572 B.C. The Persians also defeated Tyre. However, it was Tyre's defeat at the hands of Alexander the Great that forever broke its power.

9:5 Only four of the five Philistine cities are mentioned. The city of Gath may already have been destroyed. The Assyrians and the Babylonians both fought against the Philistines and decimated the nation.

9:9 This is a prophecy of the Messiah and would be cited by the gospel writers (Matt. 21:5; John 12:15).

9:11 Only here and Exodus 24:8 is the "blood of the covenant" specifically mentioned in the Old Testament.

9:12 Restoring "double" was to treat these prisoners as firstborn children receiving their inheritance (Deut. 21:17).

Restoration of Judah and Israel

10 Ask [a]the LORD for [b]rain
In [c]the time of the [1]latter rain.
The LORD will make [2]flashing clouds;
He will give them showers of rain,
Grass in the field for everyone.

2 For the [a]idols[1] speak delusion;
The diviners envision [b]lies,
And tell false dreams;
They [c]comfort in vain.
Therefore the people wend their way like [d]sheep;
They are [2]in trouble [e]because there is no shepherd.

3 "My anger is kindled against the [a]shepherds,
[b]And I will punish the [1]goatherds.
For the LORD of hosts [c]will visit His flock,
The house of Judah,
And [d]will make them as His royal horse in the battle.
4 From him comes [a]the cornerstone,
From him [b]the tent peg,
From him the battle bow,
From him every [1]ruler together.
5 They shall be like mighty men,
Who [a]tread down their enemies
In the mire of the streets in the battle.
They shall fight because the LORD is with them,
And the riders on horses shall be put to shame.

6 "I will strengthen the house of Judah,
And I will save the house of Joseph.
[a]I will bring them back,
Because I [b]have mercy on them.
They shall be as though I had not cast them aside;
For I am the LORD their God,
And I [c]will hear them.
7 Those of Ephraim shall be like a mighty man,
And their [a]heart shall rejoice as if with wine.
Yes, their children shall see it and be glad;
Their heart shall rejoice in the LORD.
8 I will [a]whistle for them and gather them,
For I will redeem them;
[b]And they shall increase as they once increased.

Complete Restoration

When God restores us to Himself, He holds nothing against us. Our relationship with Him is new again, as if nothing had happened. Our sins are forgotten.

9 "I[a] will [1]sow them among the peoples,
And they shall [b]remember Me in far countries;
They shall live, together with their children,
And they shall return.
10 [a]I will also bring them back from the land of Egypt,
And gather them from Assyria.
I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon,
[b]Until no more room is found for them.
11 [a]He shall pass through the sea with affliction,
And strike the waves of the sea:
All the depths of [1]the River shall dry up.
Then [b]the pride of Assyria shall be brought down,
And [c]the scepter of Egypt shall depart.

12 "So I will strengthen them in the LORD,
And [a]they shall walk up and down in His name,"
Says the LORD.

Desolation of Israel

11 Open [a]your doors, O Lebanon,
That fire may devour your cedars.
2 Wail, O cypress, for the [a]cedar has fallen,
Because the mighty trees are ruined.
Wail, O oaks of Bashan,
[b]For the thick forest has come down.
3 There is the sound of wailing [a]shepherds!
For their glory is in ruins.
There is the sound of roaring lions!
For the [1]pride of the Jordan is in ruins.

10:1 The latter or spring rains came in March–April.

10:2 These were teraphim, household idols (Gen. 31:19). Diviners interpreted omens to determine the future.

10:6 Many prophets and religious leaders anticipated the day when the northern and southern kingdoms would be reunited (Is. 11:12, 13; Jer. 3:12; Ezek. 37:15–22; Zech. 8:13; 9:10; 10:6–10).

10:10 Assyria symbolized all the countries to the north and east to which God's people had been dispersed.

11:1 Lebanon and Bashan were often linked in scripture (Is. 2:13; Jer. 22:20; Ezek. 27:5, 6).

WORDStudy

CEDARS

Zech. 11:2 The cedar was the most regal of Middle Eastern trees. The cedar forests in Lebanon were legendary for their size and grandeur. Royalty used cedars to construct their palaces (2 Sam. 5:11; 1 Kin. 5:6; 6:9—7:12). King David's descendents were compared to cedar trees (Ezek. 17:3, 4, 12). Cedars could also symbolize pride (Is. 2:12, 13), yet ultimately they owed their existence to their Creator (Ps. 104:16).

Prophecy of the Shepherds

4 Thus says the LORD my God, "Feed the flock for slaughter,
5 "whose owners slaughter them and [a]feel no guilt; those who sell them [b]say, 'Blessed be the LORD, for I am rich'; and their shepherds do [c]not pity them.
6 "For I will no longer pity the inhabitants of the land," says the LORD. "But indeed I will give everyone into his neighbor's hand and into the hand of his king. They shall [1]attack the land, and I will not deliver them from their hand."
7 So I fed the flock for slaughter, [1]in particular [a]the poor of the flock. I took for myself two staffs: the one I called [2]Beauty, and the other I called [3]Bonds; and I fed the flock.
8 I [1]dismissed the three shepherds [a]in one month. My soul loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me.
9 Then I said, "I will not feed you. [a]Let what is dying die, and what is perishing perish. Let those that are left eat each other's flesh."
10 And I took my staff, [1]Beauty, and cut it in two, that I might break the covenant which I had made with all the peoples.
11 So it was broken on that day. Thus [a]the[1] poor of the flock, who were watching me, knew that it was the word of the LORD.
12 Then I said to them, "If it is [1]agreeable to you, give me my wages; and if not, refrain." So they [a]weighed out for my wages thirty pieces of silver.
13 And the LORD said to me, "Throw it to the [a]potter"—that princely price they set on me. So I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw them into the house of the LORD for the potter.
14 Then I cut in two my other staff, [1]Bonds, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

ENCOUNTERNote Zech. 11:17

Worthless Shepherds

God upholds a high standard for those who shepherd His people. He will hold them accountable for how they care for His flock.

The Coming Deliverance of Judah

12 The [1]burden of the word of the LORD against Israel. Thus says the LORD, [a]who stretches out the heavens, lays the foundation of the earth, and [b]forms the spirit of man within him:
2 "Behold, I will make Jerusalem [a]a cup of [1]drunkenness to all the surrounding peoples, when they lay siege against Judah and Jerusalem.
3 [a]"And it shall happen in that day that I will make Jerusalem [b]a very heavy stone for all peoples; all who would heave it away will surely be cut in pieces, though all nations of the earth are gathered against it.
4 "In that day," says the LORD, [a]"I will strike every horse with confusion, and its rider with madness; I will open My eyes on the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness.
5 "And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength in the LORD of hosts, their God.'
6 "In that day I will make the governors of Judah [a]like a firepan in the woodpile, and like a fiery torch in the sheaves; they shall devour all the surrounding peoples on the right hand and

7 "The LORD will save the tents of Judah first, so that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem shall not become greater than that of Judah.
8 "In that day the LORD will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; the one who is feeble among them in that day shall be like David, and the house of David shall be like God, like the Angel of the LORD before them.
9 "It shall be in that day that I will seek to [a]destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

Mourning for the Pierced One

10 [a]"And I will pour on the house of David and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem the Spirit of grace and supplication; then they will [b]look on Me whom they pierced. Yes, they will mourn for Him [c]as one mourns for his only son, and grieve for Him as one grieves for a firstborn.

ENCOUNTER Note — Zech. 12:10

Grace and Supplication

We are unable to save ourselves. We cannot turn from our sin or call out to God unless God helps us to do so. Yet God in His grace not only enables us to return to Him, He pours out His grace in an inexhaustible supply.

11 "In that day there shall be a great [a]mourning in Jerusalem, [b]like the mourning at Hadad Rimmon in the plain of [1]Megiddo.
12 [a]"And the land shall mourn, every family by itself: the family of the house of David by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of the house of [b]Nathan by itself, and their wives by themselves;

Idolatry Cut Off

13 "In that [a]day [b]a fountain shall be opened for the house of David and for the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for [c]uncleanness.

ENCOUNTER Note — Zech. 13:1

A Fountain

God provides a cleansing fountain of forgiveness to all who will wash in it. There is no sin so dark, no life so vile that God's forgiveness cannot reach and purify the sinner.

2 "It shall be in that day," says the LORD of hosts, "that I will [a]cut off the names of the idols from the land, and they shall no longer be remembered. I will also cause [b]the prophets and the unclean spirit to depart from the land.
3 "It shall come to pass that if anyone still prophesies, then his father and mother who begot him will say to him, 'You shall [a]not live, because you have spoken lies in the name of the LORD.' And his father and mother who begot him [b]shall thrust him through when he prophesies.
4 "And it shall be in that day that [a]every prophet will be ashamed of his vision when he prophesies; they will not wear [b]a robe of coarse hair to deceive.
5 [a]"But he will say, 'I am no prophet, I am a farmer; for a man taught me to keep cattle from my youth.'
6 "And one will say to him, 'What are these wounds between your [1]arms?' Then he will answer, 'Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.'

The Shepherd Savior

7 "Awake, O sword, against [a]My Shepherd, Against the Man [b]who is My Companion,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
[c]"Strike the Shepherd,
And the sheep will be scattered;
Then I will turn My hand against [d]the little ones.
8 And it shall come to pass in all the land,"
Says the LORD,

12:11 "Hadad Rimmon" may have been a pagan god. The people of Judah mourned annually for King Josiah, who was slain at Megiddo (2 Chr. 35:25).

12:12 David had a son Nathan (2 Sam. 5:14). This verse may indicate that the royal family was involved in the crime here condemned.

13:3 This violent reaction by the false prophets' parents would be in accord with the proscription against false prophets (Deut. 13:1–5).

13:4 A robe of coarse hair may refer to the traditional prophetic garb of Elijah (2 Kin. 1:8).

13:6 "Between your arms," literally, "between your hands," would be a person's back or chest.

"That [a]two-thirds in it shall be cut off and die,
[b]But one-third shall be left in it:
9 I will bring the one-third [a]through the fire,
Will [b]refine them as silver is refined,
And test them as gold is tested.
[c]They will call on My name,
And I will answer them.
[d]I will say, 'This is My people';
And each one will say, 'The LORD is my God.' "

The Day of the LORD

14 Behold, [a]the day of the LORD is coming,
And your [1]spoil will be divided in your midst.

ENCOUNTER Note — Zech. 14:1

The Day of the Lord

The terrible, earth-shattering, righteous Day of the Lord is coming. Every day it draws closer. Nothing can stop God from accomplishing His purposes. All we can do is prepare ourselves for that awesome day.

2 For [a]I will gather all the nations to battle against Jerusalem;
The city shall be taken,
The houses [1]rifled,
And the women ravished.
Half of the city shall go into captivity,
But the remnant of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3 Then the LORD will go forth
And fight against those nations,
As He fights in the day of battle.
4 And in that day His feet will stand [a]on the Mount of Olives,
Which faces Jerusalem on the east.
And the Mount of Olives shall be split in two,
From east to west,
[b]Making a very large valley;
Half of the mountain shall move toward the north
And half of it toward the south.

For the mountain valley shall reach to Azal.
Yes, you shall flee
As you fled from the [a]earthquake
In the days of Uzziah king of Judah.
[b]Thus the LORD my God will come,
And [c]all the saints with [1]You.

6 It shall come to pass in that day
That there will be no light;
The [1]lights will diminish.
7 It shall be one day
[a]Which is known to the LORD—
Neither day nor night.
But at [b]evening time it shall happen
That it will be light.

8 And in that day it shall be
That living [a]waters shall flow from Jerusalem,
Half of them toward [1]the eastern sea
And half of them toward [2]the western sea;
In both summer and winter it shall occur.
9 And the LORD shall be [a]King over all the earth.
In that day it shall be—
[b]"The LORD is one,"
And His name one.

10 All the land shall be turned into a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem. [1]Jerusalem shall be raised up and [a]inhabited in her place from Benjamin's Gate to the place of the First Gate and the Corner Gate, [b]and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's winepresses.

11 The people shall dwell in it;
And [a]no longer shall there be utter destruction,
[b]But Jerusalem shall be safely inhabited.

12 And this shall be the plague with which the LORD will strike all the people who fought against Jerusalem:

Their flesh shall [1]dissolve while they stand on their feet,
Their eyes shall dissolve in their sockets,

14:4 The Mount of Olives, first mentioned by name in this scripture, was referred to by Ezekiel as the mountain to the east of the city (Ezek. 11:23). King David fled from his son Absalom up the "Slope of Olives" (2 Sam. 15:30). It was two and a half miles long and was separated from Jerusalem by the Kidron Valley.

14:5 The earthquake in Amos' day occurred in the middle of the eighth century B.C. and must have been terrifying if it was still remembered in Zechariah's time (Amos 1:1).

14:8 Jerusalem had traditionally been supplied with water from the spring Gihon that fed the Siloam Brook (Is. 8:6). A day would come when Jerusalem would enjoy an abundant water supply.

14:10 Geba lay six miles northeast of Jerusalem and marked the northern border of Judah (1 Kin. 15:22; 2 Kin. 23:8). Rimmon was approximately thirty-five miles southwest of Jerusalem. The Gate of Benjamin would probably have been on the northwest corner of Jerusalem's wall (Jer. 37:12, 13). The Tower of Hananel marked the northernmost point of the wall (Neh. 3:1; 12:39). The king's winepresses were to the south of the city. Naming such landmarks indicated that the entire city was included.

And their tongues shall dissolve in their mouths.

13 It shall come to pass in that day
That [a]a great panic from the LORD will be among them.
Everyone will seize the hand of his neighbor,
And raise [b]his hand against his neighbor's hand;
14 Judah also will fight at Jerusalem.
[a]And the wealth of all the surrounding nations
Shall be gathered together:
Gold, silver, and apparel in great abundance.

15 [a]Such also shall be the plague
On the horse and the mule,
On the camel and the donkey,
And on all the cattle that will be in those camps.
So shall this plague be.

The Nations Worship the King

16 And it shall come to pass that everyone who is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall [a]go up from year to year to [b]worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep [c]the Feast of Tabernacles.
17 [a]And it shall be that whichever of the families of the earth do not come up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, on them there will be no rain.
18 If the family of [a]Egypt will not come up and enter in, [b]they shall have no rain; they shall receive the plague with which the LORD strikes the nations who do not come up to keep the Feast of Tabernacles.
19 This shall be the [1]punishment of Egypt and the punishment of all the nations that do not come up to keep the Feast of Tabernacles.
20 In that day [a]"HOLINESS TO THE LORD" shall be engraved on the bells of the horses. The [b]pots in the LORD's house shall be like the bowls before the altar.
21 Yes, [1]every pot in Jerusalem and Judah shall be holiness to the LORD of hosts. Everyone who sacrifices shall come and take them and cook in them. In that day there shall no longer be a [a]Canaanite [b]in the house of the LORD of hosts.

14:16 The activity that united the nations is the Feast of Booths, or Tabernacles (Deut. 16:13–17; Ezra 3:4; Neh. 8:14–18).

14:20 "Holiness to the Lord" was engraved in gold on the turban of the high priest (Ex. 28:36).

14:21 "Every pot" indicates there will no longer be a distinction between the secular and the holy. Everything in life will be holy to the Lord in the final days. The statement about there no longer being a Canaanite in the temple means cheating and exploitation will no longer occur among God's people once the Messiah has come (Matt. 21:12, 13).

THE BOOK OF MALACHI

INTRODUCTION

Malachi delivered God's message to His people after they returned to Jerusalem from exile in Babylon. The prophets Haggai and Zechariah had exhorted them to rebuild the temple so God would once again manifest His glorious presence in the city of Jerusalem. The prophet Ezekiel had predicted that one day God would, once again, fill His temple with glory (Ezek. 43:4). Yet nothing spectacular had happened. The land of Judah was a small, politically insignificant backwater in the international landscape. No Israelite king reigned. No miracles had occurred to demonstrate God's presence. Worship practices continued but the peoples' enthusiasm had waned. Malachi appeared on the scene to urge people to renew their enthusiasm for God and His commandments before the Lord returned to judge His people (Mal. 4:4, 5).

SIGNIFICANCE

Malachi addresses some of the most fundamental issues in the Christian life. How does God look upon our worship? What offerings bring Him pleasure? How do we grow closer to God? What does God say about finances (3:8–10), marriage, divorce (2:13–16)? Malachi urges people to return to the covenant love relationship they once enjoyed (3:7). This is a fitting finale to the Old Testament as its refrain will sound again four centuries later from the mouth of John the Baptist.

STRUCTURE

This book features a unique disputation writing style. That is, the prophet anticipates the thoughts and struggles of people and then voices their concerns before delivering God's answer. Malachi can be divided into six disputes and a final warning:

Disputes
- About God's Love (1:1–5)
- About God's Honor (1:6—2:9)
- About Faithfulness (2:10–16)
- About God's Judgment (2:17—3:6)
- About Returning to God (3:7–12)
- About Questioning God (3:13–18)

A Call to Prepare for the Day of the Lord (4:1–6)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH MALACHI

The book opens with a powerful statement: " 'I have loved you,' says the Lord" (1:2). God's love motivates and permeates every encounter He has with you. In order to understand God's blessings and His discipline, you must accept His love. In return, God expects your best, not your "spiritual leftovers" (1:7, 8). God's love explains the passionate way He defends the marriage commitment and His desire for families to produce godly offspring (2:13–16). The Day of the Lord is coming; that is a reality—and it will be a day of purifying and refining (3:2). If you have been careless in your Christianity or negligent with your family, God's call to "return" to Him should prompt you to make these relationships right (3:7). You may identify with the insincere worshippers who spurred God's condemnation (3:8–10). The Book of Malachi closes as it opened, with good news. If you have been struggling in your family, take heart. Know that God wants to work in your relationships to bring healing and intimacy to your family (4:6).

THE [1]burden of the word of the LORD to Israel [2]by Malachi.

Israel Beloved of God

2 "I[a] have loved you," says the LORD.
"Yet you say, 'In what way have You loved us?'
Was not Esau Jacob's brother?"
Says the LORD.
"Yet [b]Jacob I have loved;

ENCOUNTER Note — Mal. 1:2

In What Way?

The reality of God's love for us is indisputable. Sometimes we look for God's compassion to appear one way but He is expressing it in another.

3 But Esau I have hated,
And [a]laid waste his mountains and his heritage
For the jackals of the wilderness."

4 Even though Edom has said,
"We have been impoverished,
But we will return and build the desolate places,"

Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"They may build, but I will [a]throw down;
They shall be called the Territory of Wickedness,
And the people against whom the LORD will have indignation forever.

5 Your eyes shall see,
And you shall say,
[a]'The LORD is magnified beyond the border of Israel.'

Polluted Offerings

6 "A son [a]honors his father,
And a servant his master.
[b]If then I am the Father,
Where is My honor?
And if I am a Master,
Where is My reverence?
Says the LORD of hosts
To you priests who despise My name.
[c]Yet you say, 'In what way have we despised Your name?'

7 "You offer [a]defiled food on My altar,
But say,
'In what way have we defiled You?'
By saying,
[b]'The table of the LORD is [1]contemptible.'

8 And [a]when you offer the blind as a sacrifice,
Is it not evil?
And when you offer the lame and sick,
Is it not evil?
Offer it then to your governor!
Would he be pleased with you?
Would he [b]accept[1] you favorably?"
Says the LORD of hosts.

9 "But now entreat God's favor,
That He may be gracious to us.
[a]While this is being done by your hands,
Will He accept you favorably?"
Says the LORD of hosts.

10 "Who is there even among you who would shut the doors,
[a]So that you would not kindle fire on My altar in vain?
I have no pleasure in you,"
Says the LORD of hosts,
[b]"Nor will I accept an offering from your hands.

11 For [a]from the rising of the sun, even to its going down,
My name shall be great [b]among the Gentiles;
[c]In every place [d]incense shall be offered to My name,
And a pure offering;

CHARACTER Study — MALACHI — Mal. 1:1

The name Malachi means "my messenger" or "my angel." Some scholars believe the prophet humbly disguised his true identity by calling himself God's messenger. This is the only place in Scripture where we find this name. If it is the personal name of the prophet, he may have lived at a time shortly before the ministry of Ezra and Nehemiah, somewhere around the middle of the fifth century B.C. Malachi sought to rouse the people of Judea from their spiritual lethargy and to invigorate their worship of God.

1:3 Esau's descendents became the Edomites. This scripture may refer to the Nabatean invasion that forced the Edomites to abandon their lands and settle in the Negev.

1:7 The "table of the Lord" would be the tables at the gates of the inner temple court set up there for the slaughtering of sacrificial animals.

1:8 Scripture was adamant that animals sacrificed to the Lord were to be without blemish (Ex. 12:5; Lev. 1:3; 22:18–25; Deut. 15:21).

1:10 The "doors" may have been to the court of priests in the temple (2 Chr. 4:9). When they were closed no sacrifices could be offered.

[e]For My name shall be great among the nations,"
Says the LORD of hosts.

12 "But you profane it,
In that you say,
[a]'The table of the [1]LORD is defiled;
And its fruit, its food, is contemptible.'
13 You also say,
'Oh, what a [a]weariness!'
And you sneer at it,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
"And you bring the stolen, the lame,
and the sick;
Thus you bring an offering!
[b]Should I accept this from your hand?"
Says the LORD.
14 "But cursed be [a]the deceiver
Who has in his flock a male,
And takes a vow,
But sacrifices to the Lord [b]what is blemished—
For [c]I am a great King,"
Says the LORD of hosts,
"And My name is to be feared
among the nations.

ENCOUNTER Note Mal. 1:14

A Name to Be Feared

Our understanding of who God is directs our worship and obedience. If we do not see Him as the almighty Creator and universal Judge, we may discount His commands and offend His holiness. But when we realize who He truly is, we revere Him and obey Him wholeheartedly.

Corrupt Priests

2 "And now, O [a]priests, this commandment is for you.
2 [a]If you will not hear,
And if you will not take it to heart,
To give glory to My name,"
Says the LORD of hosts,
"I will send a curse upon you,
And I will curse your blessings.
Yes, I have cursed them [b]already,
Because you do not take it to heart.

3 "Behold, I will rebuke your descendants
And spread [a]refuse on your faces,
The refuse of your solemn feasts;
And one will [b]take you away
[1]with it.
4 Then you shall know that I have sent this commandment to you,
That My covenant with Levi may continue,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
5 "My[a] covenant was with him, one of life and peace,
And I gave them to him [b]that he might fear Me;
So he feared Me
And was reverent before My name.
6 [a]The[1] law of truth was in his mouth,
And [2]injustice was not found on his lips.
He walked with Me in peace and equity,
And [b]turned many away from iniquity.

7 "For[a] the lips of a priest should keep knowledge,
And people should seek the law
from his mouth;
[b]For he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.
8 But you have departed from the way;
You [a]have caused many to stumble
at the law.
[b]You have corrupted the covenant of Levi,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
9 "Therefore [a]I also have made you contemptible and base
Before all the people,
Because you have not kept My ways
But have shown [b]partiality in the law."

Treachery of Infidelity

10 [a]Have we not all one Father?
[b]Has not one God created us?
Why do we deal treacherously with one another
By profaning the covenant of the fathers?

ENCOUNTER Note Mal. 2:1

Refusing to Hear

What we hear God say is directly related to our desire to hear Him speak. Closing ourselves off from God's word is a disastrous mistake.

2:3 The excrement of sacrificial animals was to be removed from the temple and burned (Ex. 29:14; Lev. 4:11). So displeasing to God were the corrupt priests that it was as if they had excrement on their faces as they worshipped Him.

2:4 Scripture does not mention many notable achievements of Levi (Gen. 29:34; 34:25, 26).

2:5 This may refer to Moses' blessing upon the Levites for their service to Israel (Deut. 33:8–11) or to the covenant God made with Phinehas (Num. 25:7–12).

2:6 The Bible identifies one of the profound marks of integrity to be righteous words as opposed to impure talk (Ps. 15:2, 3; Prov. 12:17; Matt. 12:33–37; Luke 6:45; James 1:26; 3:2–12).

11 Judah has dealt treacherously,
And an abomination has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem,
For Judah has [a]profaned
The LORD's holy institution which He loves:
He has married the daughter of a foreign god.
12 May the LORD cut off from the tents of Jacob
The man who does this, being [1]awake and aware,
Yet [a]who brings an offering to the LORD of hosts!

13 And this is the second thing you do:
You cover the altar of the LORD with tears,
With weeping and crying;
So He does not regard the offering anymore,
Nor receive it with goodwill from your hands.
14 Yet you say, "For what reason?"
Because the LORD has been witness
Between you and [a]the wife of your youth,
With whom you have dealt treacherously;
[b]Yet she is your companion
And your wife by covenant.
15 But [a]did He not make them one,
Having a remnant of the Spirit?
And why one?
He seeks [b]godly offspring.
Therefore take heed to your spirit,
And let none deal treacherously with the wife of his youth.

16 "For [a]the LORD God of Israel says
That He hates divorce,
For it covers one's garment with violence,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
"Therefore take heed to your spirit,
That you do not deal treacherously."

17 [a]You have wearied the LORD with your words;
Yet you say,
"In what way have we wearied Him?"
In that you say,
[b]"Everyone who does evil
Is good in the sight of the LORD,
And He delights in them,"
Or, "Where is the God of justice?"

ENCOUNTER Note — Mal. 2:17

Wearying the Lord

God is not fooled by pious and religious words. He sees the heart. He grows weary of our words when there is no corresponding love in our hearts or obedience in our actions.

The Coming Messenger

3 "Behold, [a]I send My messenger,
And he will [b]prepare the way before Me.
And the Lord, whom you seek,
Will suddenly come to His temple,
[c]Even the Messenger of the covenant,
In whom you delight.
Behold, [d]He is coming,"
Says the LORD of hosts.

2 "But who can endure [a]the day of His coming?
And [b]who can stand when He appears?
For [c]He is like a refiner's fire
And like launderers' soap.

ENCOUNTER Note — Mal. 3:2

His Coming

Christians often express a desire for the Lord to return. Yet will we be prepared for it? He will come in righteousness, as a holy Judge of nations. His desire is to find a pure and holy people ready to receive Him.

3 [a]He will sit as a refiner and a purifier of silver;
He will purify the sons of Levi,
And [1]purge them as gold and silver,
That they may [b]offer to the LORD
An offering in righteousness.

4 "Then [a]the offering of Judah and Jerusalem
Will be [1]pleasant to the LORD,

3 [a]Is. 1:25 [b][1 Pet. 2:5] [1]Or refine
4 [a]Mal. 1:11 [1]pleasing

2:11 God's law prohibited marriage to foreign women (Ex. 34:12–16; Num. 25:1; Deut. 7:3, 4; 1 Kin. 11:1–8). The phrase "daughter of" means "character of." These women continued to worship false gods even after marrying into Israel.

2:14 While other nations viewed marriage as entering into a contract, God's people understood that God Himself stood as witness to their wedding vows (Gen. 31:50; Prov. 2:17).

2:15 Godly offspring is the result of a holy home. God adamantly opposed divorce because it destroyed the next generation of righteous people who would serve Him.

2:16 God hates divorce. He made allowance for it due to the hardness of peoples' hearts (Deut. 24:1), but clearly He is passionately against the dissolving of unions He has put together.

3:1 "Behold" is literally "behold me." "Suddenly" usually indicates a time of judgment and cleansing (Is. 47:11; Jer. 4:20).

3:2 God's presence is often likened to fire (Ex. 3:2; 19:18; Ps. 18:7–15; 68:2; 97:3; Mic. 1:4; Nah. 1:6). A refiner did not destroy its object but purified it (Is. 1:25; Jer. 6:29, 30; Ezek. 22:17–22).

As in the days of old,
As in former years.
5 And I will come near you for judgment;
I will be a swift witness
Against sorcerers,
Against adulterers,
[a]Against perjurers,
Against those who [b]exploit wage earners and [c]widows and orphans,
And against those who turn away an alien—
Because they do not fear Me,"
Says the LORD of hosts.

6 "For I am the LORD, [a]I do not change;
[b]Therefore you are not consumed,
O sons of Jacob.

ENCOUNTER Note — Mal. 3:6

Unchanging

We may change; our circumstances may change; but God remains perfectly consistent. He is not whimsical or capricious in His dealings. He is loving, patient, and gracious toward us all the time.

7 Yet from the days of [a]your fathers
You have gone away from My ordinances
And have not kept them.
[b]Return to Me, and I will return to you,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
[c]"But you said,
'In what way shall we return?'

Do Not Rob God

8 "Will a man rob God?
Yet you have robbed Me!
But you say,
'In what way have we robbed You?'
[a]In tithes and offerings.
9 You are cursed with a curse,
For you have robbed Me,
Even this whole nation.
10 [a]Bring all the tithes into the [b]storehouse,
That there may be food in My house,
And try Me now in this,"
Says the LORD of hosts,
"If I will not open for you the [c]windows of heaven
And [d]pour out for you such blessing
That there will not be room enough to receive it.

11 "And I will rebuke [a]the devourer for your sakes,
So that he will not destroy the fruit of your ground,
Nor shall the vine fail to bear fruit for you in the field,"
Says the LORD of hosts;
12 "And all nations will call you blessed,
For you will be [a]a delightful land,"
Says the LORD of hosts.

The People Complain Harshly

13 "Your[a] words have been [1]harsh against Me,"
Says the LORD,
"Yet you say,
'What have we spoken against You?'
14 [a]You have said,
'It is useless to serve God;
What profit is it that we have kept His ordinance,
And that we have walked as mourners
Before the LORD of hosts?
15 So now [a]we call the proud blessed,
For those who do wickedness are [1]raised up;
They even [b]tempt God and go free.' "

WORD Study — TITHING

Mal. 3:8 Tithing is mentioned sporadically in scripture (Gen. 14:20; 28:22; Lev. 27:30; Num. 18:21; Deut. 12:6; 14:22–29; 26:12, 13; 2 Chr. 31:5, 11; Neh. 10:37–38; 12:44; 13:5; Amos 4:4; Matt. 23:23; Luke 11:42; 18:12; Heb. 7:2). A tithe, meaning a tenth, was an amount of spoil or possessions one gave to God. The first account of tithing was when Abraham gave a tenth of his plunder to Melchizedek (Gen. 14:20). The people's tithing practice ebbed and flowed based on their zeal for the Lord and His house. Tithes were intended to sustain the Levites and the priests as they served the Lord. The Levites were not given an inheritance of land like the other twelve tribes so their income was the tithes given to God by the people. Tithing was a matter not only of obedience, but of faith, as tithers acknowledged their dependence upon God for His ongoing provision.

3:5 The sins listed are all participles reflecting continuous, habitual action. The law forbade such practices (Ex. 22:22–24; Lev. 19:19).

3:10 God promises to bless those who are generous (Luke 6:38; 2 Cor. 9:6–11). "Windows of heaven" may refer to rain that would bring the faithful Judean farmers a bountiful harvest.

A Book of Remembrance

16 Then those [a]who feared the LORD
[b]spoke to one another,
And the LORD listened and heard them;
So [c]a book of remembrance was written before Him
For those who fear the LORD
And who [1]meditate on His name.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Mal. 3:16

God's Presence

God's presence can be quite apparent when His people gather to discuss His activity. We will hear God in unique ways when we open our hearts to fellow believers.

17 "They[a] shall be Mine," says the LORD of hosts,
"On the day that I make them My [b]jewels.[1]
And [c]I will spare them
As a man spares his own son who serves him."
18 [a]Then you shall again discern
Between the righteous and the wicked,
Between one who serves God
And one who does not serve Him.

The Great Day of God

4 "For behold, [a]the day is coming,
Burning like an oven,
And all [b]the proud, yes, all who do wickedly will be [c]stubble.
And the day which is coming shall burn them up,"
Says the LORD of hosts,
"That will [d]leave them neither root nor branch.
2 But to you who [a]fear My name
The [b]Sun of Righteousness shall arise
With healing in His wings;
And you shall go out
And grow fat like stall-fed calves.
3 [a]You shall trample the wicked,
For they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet
On the day that I do this,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
4 "Remember the [a]Law of Moses, My servant,
Which I commanded him in Horeb for all Israel,
With [b]the statutes and judgments.
5 Behold, I will send you [a]Elijah the prophet
[b]Before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD.
6 And [a]he will turn
The hearts of the fathers to the children,
And the hearts of the children to their fathers,
Lest I come and [b]strike the earth with [c]a curse."

Hearts

3:16 This is the only place in the Bible that refers to a "book of remembrance" although elsewhere, Scripture suggests divine records of peoples' actions are kept (Ex. 32:32, 33; Ps. 69:28; 87:6; Dan. 12:1).

4:4 "Horeb" is another name for Mount Sinai.

4:5 The prophet Elijah may be cited here because he, too, received a divine message on Mount Horeb and God used him to dramatically affect the attitude of his nation (1 Kin. 19:8–18).

4:6 The last word in Malachi, and the Old Testament, is "curse." The Old Testament ends with an ominous look to the day God will come to purify and to judge. At the same time, God promises deliverance through His messenger, Elijah. Likewise, the New Testament opens with John the Baptist preaching repentance in preparation for the coming of Christ, the holy deliverer.

THE NEW TESTAMENT

Words of Christ in Red

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MATTHEW

INTRODUCTION

This book is named after its author, one of the twelve disciples closely associated with Jesus. Though he is not named in the book, Matthew's authorship is not seriously contested. As a tax collector, he was literate and acquainted with accounting. It is not surprising that Matthew mentions money more than the other gospel writers. He was from Capernaum, a small but prominent village. He was obviously familiar with the geography of Palestine, Jewish history and customs, and Old Testament prophecies. The book was written after Mark's gospel and before the fall of Jerusalem in A.D. 70, probably between A.D. 50 and 60. Matthew wrote in Greek, but the content seems to indicate a primarily Jewish audience. He demonstrated a passionate concern for Old Testament prophecy, a well constructed genealogy of Jesus back through David to Abraham, and a Jewish reluctance to use the name of God (being the only writer to use the term kingdom of heaven). He alone says that Jesus came to "the lost sheep of the house of Israel" (10:5, 6; 15:24). Matthew was not restricted to Jewish concerns, however. He was the only one to record the visit of the eastern magi (2:1–12), and his Gospel closes with the Great Commission (28:18–20).

SIGNIFICANCE

Seeking to reach people of his own nation, Matthew set out to prove that Jesus was the Messiah. This was no small claim, for the Jewish nation had been looking forward to His coming with great anticipation. Matthew based his arguments primarily on the fulfillment of Old Testament prophecies and eyewitness accounts of Jesus' life. A striking feature of Matthew is the emphasis on the kingdom, a sensitive topic to the Jewish nation occupied by Roman legions. He gave Jesus the title "Son of David" nine times and referred to Jerusalem as the "holy city" (4:5; 27:53) or the "city of the great King" (5:35). Significantly, Matthew sought to demonstrate the nature of the kingdom that Jesus established, for it was not what the Jews were expecting. The nation was looking for a deliverer who would cast out foreign oppressors and restore the nation to its former glory. Jesus, however, taught that the kingdom was already at hand (4:17; 10:7); it had arrived with the coming of the King. But since the Jews rejected the King, He extended His blessing to the Gentiles. The gospel, therefore, was to be preached to all nations. As such, the church was born. Matthew is the only Gospel that specifically mentions the church (16:18; 18:17).

STRUCTURE

It is common to develop a structure around five passages, or sermons (see chapters 5–7; 10; 13; 18; 23–25). Whereas these are clearly important sections, it is also appropriate to see the gospel of Matthew as three distinct stages of Jesus' life. First is the introduction to His ministry (1:1—4:25). This includes the birth and early years of Jesus' life, the ministry of John the Baptist as His forerunner, Jesus' baptism, temptation, and settling in Capernaum. The second stage describes the progress of Jesus' ministry (5:1—16:20). Matthew chronicles Jesus' early preaching and healing ministry, His growing popularity and the resulting animosity among religious leaders, including the distinct polarization that developed as His identity came into question. Simon Peter correctly identifies Jesus as "the Christ, the Son of the living God." This marks an abrupt shift into the third section, the climax of Jesus' ministry (16:21—28:20). Matthew covers the road to the cross, Christ's resurrection, and the reason for His coming, our salvation. Matthew can be outlined as follows:

Introduction to Jesus' Ministry
Genealogy of Jesus (1:1–17)
Birth and Early Childhood of Jesus (1:18—2:23)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH MATTHEW

This Gospel is more than a biography of Jesus, more than an argument for the Messiah, more than instruction on the kingdom, and more than a historical basis for our faith. Matthew demonstrates how God encountered humanity in the person of His Son. Jesus was God in the flesh, so observe what was important to Him. Watch how Jesus always looked for those who "got it," those whose eyes were opened to see and whose ears were ready to hear. When Jesus saw the Father working in people's lives, He immediately joined Him in His work. When He saw people respond, He marveled at their faith or was disturbed by their lack of it. When the Father gave Him twelve disciples, He pushed them beyond themselves and into a deeper experience with God. He will do that with you as well. As you see people interact with Jesus, you will probably identify with some of the characters. They were people desperate for an encounter with God. Just as they met Christ, so can you encounter the risen Christ through the work of the Holy Spirit.

The Genealogy of Jesus Christ

CHAPTER 1

THE book of the [a]genealogy[1] of Jesus Christ, [b]the Son of David, [c]the Son of Abraham:

2 [a]Abraham begot Isaac, [b]Isaac begot Jacob, and Jacob begot [c]Judah and his brothers.

3 [a]Judah begot Perez and Zerah by Tamar, [b]Perez begot Hezron, and Hezron begot Ram.

4 Ram begot Amminadab, Amminadab begot Nahshon, and Nahshon begot Salmon.

5 Salmon begot [a]Boaz by Rahab, Boaz begot Obed by Ruth, Obed begot Jesse,

6 and [a]Jesse begot David the king.

[b]David the king begot Solomon by her [1]who had been the wife of Uriah.

7 [a]Solomon begot Rehoboam, Rehoboam begot [b]Abijah, and Abijah begot [1]Asa.

8 Asa begot [a]Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat begot Joram, and Joram begot [b]Uzziah.

9 Uzziah begot Jotham, Jotham begot [a]Ahaz, and Ahaz begot Hezekiah.

10 [a]Hezekiah begot Manasseh, Manasseh begot [1]Amon, and Amon begot [b]Josiah.

11 [a]Josiah begot [1]Jeconiah and his brothers about the time they were [b]carried away to Babylon.

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, [a]Jeconiah begot Shealtiel, and Shealtiel begot [b]Zerubbabel.

13 Zerubbabel begot Abiud, Abiud begot Eliakim, and Eliakim begot Azor.

14 Azor begot Zadok, Zadok begot Achim, and Achim begot Eliud.

15 Eliud begot Eleazar, Eleazar begot Matthan, and Matthan begot Jacob.

16 And Jacob begot Joseph the husband of [a]Mary, of whom was born Jesus who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations, from David until the captivity in Babylon are fourteen generations, and from the captivity in Babylon until the Christ are fourteen generations.

1:1 "Genealogy" here means "origin," and was highly significant to the Jews. Matthew traces Jesus' lineage back through King David to Abraham, both key Jewish patriarchs. The list is divided into three groups of fourteen names. Unusual to this list are four women, not just because women were typically excluded, but because of who these women were. Tamar had a scandalous relationship with Judah (Gen. 38); Rahab was a Canaanite harlot from Jericho (Josh. 2); Ruth was a Moabite (Ruth 1:4); and Bathsheba committed adultery with David (2 Sam. 11:1—12:25). Their inclusion reflects God's forgiveness and grace to all people.

1:18 A betrothal or covenant of marriage was made approximately a year before its consummation. Often Jewish girls would be betrothed by the age of thirteen. Although not technically a marriage, it was equally binding and could only be broken by divorce. It was during this time of betrothal that Mary was found to be pregnant.

Christ Born of Mary

18 Now the [a]birth of Jesus Christ was as follows: After His mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child [b]of the Holy Spirit.
19 Then Joseph her husband, being [1]a just man, and not wanting [a]to make her a public example, was minded to put her away secretly.
20 But while he thought about these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take to you Mary your wife, [a]for that which is [1]conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Matt. 1:20

Fear Not

Life circumstances often appear out of control, but when God is involved there is no need to fear. God-sized events will always take us out of our comfort zone and leave us totally dependent on His intervention.

21 [a]"And she will bring forth a Son, and you shall call His name [1]JESUS, [b]for He will save His people from their sins."
22 So all this was done that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying:
23 [a]"Behold,[1] the virgin shall be with child, and bear a Son, and they shall call His name Immanuel," which is translated, "God with us."
24 Then Joseph, being aroused from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord commanded him and took to him his wife,
25 and [1]did not know her till she had brought forth [a]her[2] firstborn Son. And he called His name JESUS.

Wise Men from the East

2 Now after [a]Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, [1]wise men [b]from the East came to Jerusalem,
2 saying, [a]"Where is He who has been born King of the Jews? For we have seen [b]His star in the East and have come to worship Him."
3 When Herod the king heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.
4 And when he had gathered all [a]the chief priests and [b]scribes of the people together, [c]he inquired of them where the Christ was to be born.
5 So they said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it is written by the prophet:

6 'But[a] you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah,
Are not the least among the rulers of Judah;
For out of you shall come a Ruler
[b]Who will shepherd My people Israel.'"

7 Then Herod, when he had secretly called the [1]wise men, determined from them what time the [a]star appeared.
8 And he sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search carefully for the young Child, and when you have found Him, bring back word to me, that I may come and worship Him also."
9 When they heard the king, they departed; and behold, the star which they had seen in the East went before them, till it came and stood over where the young Child was.
10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy.
11 And when they had come into the

WORD*Study* IMMANUEL

Matt. 1:23 This is a transliteration of a Hebrew name which means "God with us." Quoting Isaiah 7:14, Matthew applied this title to Jesus as God in the flesh. It is only used once in the New Testament, and no one on record ever called Jesus by this name, yet it is one of the most familiar designations of Jesus. It affirms the deity of Jesus, suggesting that God is personal, approachable, and present. Using a Trinitarian formula, one could say God the Father is for us; God the Son is with us; and God the Spirit is in us.

1:25 Consummation of the marriage usually occurred on the first night of a seven day wedding ceremony. Joseph officially married Mary but abstained from intimacy with her until after Jesus was born.

2:1 Bethlehem was a village five miles southwest of Jerusalem. Herod the Great ruled Judea from 37 B.C. until he died in 4 B.C. A ruthless ruler, he murdered his wife, three sons, mother-in-law, uncle, and many others. He would later call for the murder of all boys under the age of two in Bethlehem. He is also known for the splendor he brought to Palestine, including the rebuilding of the temple in Jerusalem.

2:1 Wise men, or magi, were those who studied the stars. They were originally a class of priests among the Persians and Medes who developed astronomy, medicine, and natural sciences. Magi were frequently mentioned in ancient literature, the term eventually encompassing all eastern philosophers. Their study led them to believe a king had been born in Judea, so they traveled to the capital city, Jerusalem.

2:11 Gold was a symbol of royalty, frankincense was a rich fragrance, and myrrh was the ointment of death. These gifts may have financed the family's journey to Egypt.

house, they saw the young Child with Mary His mother, and fell down and worshiped Him. And when they had opened their treasures, [a]they presented gifts to Him: gold, frankincense, and myrrh.
12 Then, being divinely warned [a]in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed for their own country another way.

The Flight into Egypt

13 Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, "Arise, take the young Child and His mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I bring you word; for Herod will seek the young Child to destroy Him."
14 When he arose, he took the young Child and His mother by night and departed for Egypt,
15 and was there until the death of Herod, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, [a]"Out of Egypt I called My Son."

Massacre of the Innocents

16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was deceived by the wise men, was exceedingly angry; and he sent forth and put to death all the male children who were in Bethlehem and in all its districts, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had determined from the wise men.
17 Then was fulfilled what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying:

18 "A [a]voice was heard in Ramah,
Lamentation, weeping, and great mourning,
Rachel weeping for her children,
Refusing to be comforted,
Because they are no more."

The Home in Nazareth

19 Now when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt,
20 [a]saying, "Arise, take the young Child and His mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who [b]sought the young Child's life are dead."

21 Then he arose, took the young Child and His mother, and came into the land of Israel.
22 But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea instead of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And being warned by God in a [a]dream, he turned aside [b]into the region of Galilee.
23 And he came and dwelt in a city called [a]Nazareth, that it might be fulfilled [b]which was spoken by the prophets, "He shall be called a Nazarene."

A Word Fulfilled

If God speaks a prophetic word to us, He will fulfill everything He has said. Receive His word carefully and live with confident expectation. He speaks no idle words.

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

3 In those days [a]John the Baptist came preaching [b]in the wilderness of Judea,
2 and saying, "Repent, for [a]the kingdom of heaven is at hand!"
3 For this is he who was spoken of by the prophet Isaiah, saying:

[a]"The voice of one crying in the wilderness:
[b]'Prepare the way of the LORD;
Make His paths straight.'"

4 Now [a]John himself was clothed in camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist; and his food was [b]locusts and [c]wild honey.
5 [a]Then Jerusalem, all Judea, and all the region around the Jordan went out to him
6 [a]and were baptized by him in the Jordan, confessing their sins.
7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said to them, [a]"Brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from [b]the wrath to come?
8 "Therefore bear fruits worthy of repentance,

2:13 A large Jewish population lived in Egypt at this time. Perhaps one third of Alexandria in northern Egypt was Jewish. Other Jewish people had used Egypt as a place of refuge (1 Kin. 11:40; Jer. 26:21).

2:20 The original readers of Matthew's gospel would immediately draw the parallel between Moses and Jesus.

2:22 When Herod died, the kingdom was divided among his three sons. Archelaus ruled over Judea and had a reputation for cruelty. The fact that his mother was a Samaritan would have also caused resentment among the Jews.

2:23 Nazareth, not mentioned in the Old Testament, was a city in northern Galilee that contained a Roman garrison. Because of their association with the Gentile occupiers, those living there were looked upon with contempt by most Jews (John 1:46).

3:4 John's appearance is similar to Elijah's (2 Kin. 1:8). The allusion to Elijah signified the coming of the Lord (Mal. 4:5). Locusts were considered a clean food to eat (Lev. 11:21, 22).

3:5–6 At that time pagans were baptized to convert to Judaism. John, however, taught that everyone, Jewish or Gentile must submit to baptism as a symbol of their repentance.

WORD Study

REPENT

Matt. 3:2 This word translates the Greek metanoeō. It was at the heart of John the Baptist's message and was the first word of Jesus' preaching along the shores of Galilee. It signifies a change of mind and attitude. Repentance begins with the confession that there is a need for change (John 3:19–21). Repentance, however, is not merely an emotional response, but a conscious decision to change the direction of one's life (2 Cor. 7:9–11). It causes the sinner to seek forgiveness from God and cleansing from sin (1 John 1:9). John the Baptist described repentance as turning from evil to holiness (Matt. 3:2). Jesus spoke in a similar manner in His early ministry (Matt. 4:17; Mark 1:15; 6:12). Later He called people to repent by changing their mind about Him and making a personal commitment to Him as Lord (Luke 13:3–5).

9 "and do not think to say to yourselves, [a]'We have Abraham as our father.' For I say to you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones.
10 "And even now the ax is laid to the root of the trees. [a]Therefore every tree which does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.
11 [a]"I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance, but He who is coming after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. [b]He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit [1]and fire.

ENCOUNTER Note Matt. 3:11

Immersed in the Spirit

Baptism of the Holy Spirit results in cleansing from sin and provides a new relationship to Christ. The Holy Spirit makes us holy by burning away all impurities. The renewed life is free to serve the Lord unimpeded by sin.

12 [a]"His winnowing fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly clean out His threshing floor, and gather His wheat into the barn; but He will [b]burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

John Baptizes Jesus

13 [a]Then Jesus came [b]from Galilee to John at the Jordan to be baptized by him.
14 And John tried to prevent Him, saying, "I need to be baptized by You, and are You coming to me?"
15 But Jesus answered and said to him, "Permit it to be so now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he allowed Him.
16 [a]When He had been baptized, Jesus came up immediately from the water; and behold, the heavens were opened to Him, and [1]He saw [b]the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting upon Him.
17 [a]And suddenly a voice came from heaven, saying, [b]"This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

Satan Tempts Jesus

4 Then [a]Jesus was led up by [b]the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil.
2 And when He had fasted forty days and forty nights, afterward He was hungry.
3 Now when the tempter came to Him, he said, "If You are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread."
4 But He answered and said, "It is written, [a]'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God.'"
5 Then the devil took Him up [a]into the holy city, set Him on the pinnacle of the temple,
6 and said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down. For it is written:

> [a]'He shall give His angels charge over you,'

and,

> [b]'In their hands they shall bear you up,
> Lest you dash your foot against a stone.'"

7 Jesus said to him, "It is written again, [a]'You shall not [1]tempt the LORD your God.'"
8 Again, the devil took Him up on an exceedingly high mountain, and [a]showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory.
9 And he said to Him, "All these things I will give You if You will fall down and worship me."

3:17 The simultaneous expression of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (verses 15-17) demonstrates the existence of the Trinity.

4:4 Jesus answered all temptations with scripture, demonstrating the power of God's Word to defeat the evil one.

10 Then Jesus said to him, [1]"Away with you, Satan! For it is written, [a]'You shall worship the LORD your God, and Him only you shall serve.'"
11 Then the devil [a]left Him, and behold, [b]angels came and ministered to Him.

Jesus Begins His Galilean Ministry

12 [a]Now when Jesus heard that John had been put in prison, He departed to Galilee.
13 And leaving Nazareth, He came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the regions of Zebulun and Naphtali,
14 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying:

15 "The[a] land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali,
By the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles:
16[a] The people who sat in darkness have seen a great light,
And upon those who sat in the region and shadow of death
Light has dawned."

17 [a]From that time Jesus began to preach and to say, [b]"Repent, for the kingdom of heaven [1]is at hand."

Four Fishermen Called as Disciples

18 [a]And Jesus, walking by the Sea of Galilee, saw two brothers, Simon [b]called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen.
19 Then He said to them, "Follow Me, and [a]I will make you fishers of men."
20 [a]They immediately left their nets and followed Him.
21 [a]Going on from there, He saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets. He called them,
22 and immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed Him.

Jesus Heals a Great Multitude

23 And Jesus went about all Galilee, [a]teaching in their synagogues, preaching [b]the gospel of the kingdom, [c]and healing all kinds of sickness and all kinds of disease among the people.
24 Then [1]His fame went throughout all Syria; and they [a]brought to Him all sick people who were afflicted with various diseases and torments, and those who were demon-possessed, epileptics, and paralytics; and He healed them.
25 [a]Great multitudes followed Him—from Galilee, and from [1]Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and beyond the Jordan.

The Beatitudes

5 And seeing the multitudes, [a]He went up on a mountain, and when He was seated His disciples came to Him.
2 Then He opened His mouth and [a]taught them, saying:

3 "Blessed[a] are the poor in spirit,
For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
4 [a]Blessed are those who mourn,
For they shall be comforted.

Immediate Response

The call of God requires an immediate response; never keep Him waiting. Respond to what you know, and trust Him to reveal that which is forthcoming.

WORD*Study* BLESSED

Matt. 5:3–11 This word means "happy" or "fortunate" as a result of divine favor. But there is more to blessedness than simply being happy. The beatitudes describe a divine paradox. Those who are blessed experience the kingdom's inner riches in the midst of external poverty and distress (2 Cor. 1:3–6). The kingdom is "already" but "not yet" in its fullness. To be blessed is to have a relationship with God, who satisfies our soul and promises future reward (Rev. 22:14).

4:13 Luke records that Jesus was rejected in His home town of Nazareth (Luke 4:16–30). Matthew simply states that Jesus moved to Capernaum. Peter had a house there which became home base for Jesus and His followers (Mark 2:1; 9:33).

4:24 Syria was the area north of Galilee between Damascus and the Mediterranean Sea.

4:25 The Decapolis was a league of ten free cities, most of them east of the Sea of Galilee.

5:2 The Sermon on the Mount extends from 5:2—7:27. It is recorded slightly differently in Luke, but is essentially the same message that may have been preached several times in Jesus' early ministry. This message was not intended to bring lost people to salvation, but to instruct His people on how to live within the kingdom.

9 Blessed are the peacemakers,
For they shall be called sons of God.
10 [a]Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake,
For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 [a]"Blessed are you when they revile and persecute you, and say all kinds of [b]evil against you falsely for My sake.
12 [a]"Rejoice and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in heaven, for [b]so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Believers Are Salt and Light

13 "You are the salt of the earth; [a]but if the salt loses its flavor, how shall it be seasoned? It is then good for nothing but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot by men.
14 [a]"You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden.
15 "Nor do they [a]light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house.
16 "Let your light so shine before men, [a]that they may see your good works and [b]glorify your Father in heaven.

ENCOUNTER Note — Matt. 5:16

Light

Light shines; it always has and it always will. Jesus, the light of the world, will always be visible in the life of a believer. Our faith is personal, but it is never private. It is obvious for all to see.

Christ Fulfills the Law

17 [a]"Do not think that I came to destroy the Law or the Prophets. I did not come to destroy but to fulfill.
18 "For assuredly, I say to you, [a]till heaven and earth pass away, one [1]jot or one [2]tittle will by no means pass from the law till all is fulfilled.
19 [a]"Whoever therefore breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does and teaches them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.
20 "For I say to you, that unless your righteousness exceeds [a]the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven.

Murder Begins in the Heart

21 "You have heard that it was said to those [1]of old, [a]'You shall not murder, and whoever murders will be in danger of the judgment.'
22 "But I say to you that [a]whoever is angry with his brother [1]without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment. And whoever says to his brother, [b]'Raca!'[2] shall be in danger of the council. But whoever says, [3]'You fool!' shall be in danger of [4]hell fire.
23 "Therefore [a]if you bring your gift to the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you,
24 [a]"leave your gift there before the altar, and go your way. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift.
25 [a]"Agree with your adversary quickly, [b]while you are on the way with him, lest your adversary deliver you to the judge, the judge hand you over to the officer, and you be thrown into prison.
26 "Assuredly, I say to you, you will by no means get out of there till you have paid the last penny.

Adultery in the Heart

27 "You have heard that it was said [1]to those of old, [a]'You shall not commit adultery.'
28 "But I say to you that whoever [a]looks at a woman to lust for her has already committed adultery with her in his heart.
29 [a]"If your right eye causes you to [1]sin, [b]pluck it out and cast it from you; for it is more profitable for you that one of your members perish, than for your whole body to be cast into hell.
30 "And if your right hand causes you to [1]sin, cut it off and cast it from you; for it is more profitable for you that one of your members perish, than for your whole body to be cast into hell.

Marriage Is Sacred and Binding

31 "Furthermore it has been said, [a]'Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.'
32 "But I say to you that [a]whoever divorces his wife for any reason except

5:22 "Raca" means "empty head."

5:26 A penny was the smallest copper coin of the Romans.

5:29 These statements are not literal; they use hyperbole for emphasis. The point is to do whatever is necessary to avoid sin's eternal consequences.

[1]sexual immorality causes her to commit adultery; and whoever marries a woman who is divorced commits adultery.

Jesus Forbids Oaths

33 "Again you have heard that [a]it was said to those of [1]old, [b]'You shall not swear falsely, but [c]shall perform your oaths to the Lord.'
34 "But I say to you, [a]do not swear at all: neither by heaven, for it is [b]God's throne;
35 "nor by the earth, for it is His footstool; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of [a]the great King.
36 "Nor shall you swear by your head, because you cannot make one hair white or black.
37 [a]"But let [1]your 'Yes' be 'Yes,' and your 'No,' 'No.' For whatever is more than these is from the evil one.

Go the Second Mile

38 "You have heard that it was said, [a]'An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.'
39 [a]"But I tell you not to resist an evil person. [b]But whoever slaps you on your right cheek, turn the other to him also.

41 "And whoever [a]compels you to go one mile, go with him two.
42 "Give to him who asks you, and [a]from him who wants to borrow from you do not turn away.

Love Your Enemies

43 "You have heard that it was said, [a]'You shall love your neighbor [b]and hate your enemy.'
44 [1]"But I say to you, [a]love your enemies, bless those who curse you, [b]do good to those who hate you, and pray [c]for those who spitefully use you and persecute you,

2 "Therefore, [a]when you do a charitable deed, do not sound a trumpet before you as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory from men. Assuredly, I say to you, they have their reward.
3 "But when you do a charitable deed, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing,

The Model Prayer

5 "And when you pray, you shall not be like the [1]hypocrites. For they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the corners of the streets, that they may be seen by men. Assuredly, I say to you, they have their reward.
6 "But you, when you pray, [a]go into your room, and when you have shut your door, pray to your Father who is in the secret place; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you [1]openly.

5:37 If an oath is necessary, integrity is lacking.

5:38 This Old Testament law is called "lex talionis" or "the law of retaliation" (Ex. 21:24, 25; Lev. 24:20; Deut. 19:21). It served to limit the amount of retribution for an offense.

5:41 "Compels" is a technical term referring to the law of impressment. A Roman could press anyone into service to carry a load for one mile (Matt. 27:32).

6:5, 6 Public prayer is not the issue here, but wrong motives that seek public acknowledgment.

ENCOUNTER Note Matt. 6:14

Interdependent Relationships

Our relationship to God is personal, but never exclusive or independent of others. Once we know and experience God, that relationship becomes the standard for how we treat others. If we refuse to show grace, we will be denied the same consideration.

trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

Fasting to Be Seen Only by God

16 "Moreover, [a]when you fast, do not be like the [1]hypocrites, with a sad countenance. For they disfigure their faces that they may appear to men to be fasting. Assuredly, I say to you, they have their reward.
17 "But you, when you fast, [a]anoint your head and wash your face, 18 "so that you do not appear to men to be fasting, but to your Father who is in the secret place; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you [1]openly.

Lay Up Treasures in Heaven

19 [a]"Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal;
20 [a]"but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal.
21 "For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

The Lamp of the Body

22 [a]"The lamp of the body is the eye. If therefore your eye is [1]good, your whole body will be full of light.
23 "But if your eye is [1]bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is that darkness!

You Cannot Serve God and Riches

24 [a]"No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. [b]You cannot serve God and [1]mammon.

Do Not Worry

25 "Therefore I say to you, [a]do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink; nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food and the body more than clothing?
26 [a]"Look at the birds of the air, for they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they?
27 "Which of you by worrying can add one [1]cubit to his [2]stature?
28 "So why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin;
29 "and yet I say to you that even Solomon in all his glory was not [1]arrayed like one of these.
30 "Now if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will He not much more clothe you, O you of little faith?
31 "Therefore do not worry, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?'
32 "For after all these things the Gentiles seek. For your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things.
33 "But [a]seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.

Kingdom Living

To seek the kingdom of God is to abide with the King. When we live in His presence and follow His purposes, He takes responsibility for our needs.

34 "Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about its own things. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble.

Do Not Judge

7 "Judge[1] [a]not, that you be not judged.
2 "For with what [1]judgment you judge, you will be judged; [a]and with the measure you use, it will be measured back to you.
3 [a]"And why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye, but do not consider the plank in your own eye?
4 "Or how can you say to your brother, 'Let me remove the speck from your eye'; and look, a plank is in your own eye?

6:24 Mammon includes wealth, money, or property.

6:25 This is a command. According to Jesus, worry is not an option for His followers. Most people of antiquity were poor and had little more than rudimentary necessities of food, clothing, and shelter. Anxiety over daily needs was common because the people had to count on natural conditions for good crops.

Human pride makes it far easier to notice the fault in our neighbor than to acknowledge the sin in our own life. Only after we allow God to thoroughly cleanse us from our sin are we able to see others as God sees them.

6 [a]"Do not give what is holy to the dogs; nor cast your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you in pieces.

Keep Asking, Seeking, Knocking

7 [a]"Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.
8 "For [a]everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened.
9 [a]"Or what man is there among you who, if his son asks for bread, will give him a stone?
10 "Or if he asks for a fish, will he give him a serpent?
11 "If you then, [a]being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask Him!
12 "Therefore, [a]whatever you want men to do to you, do also to them, for [b]this is the Law and the Prophets.

The Narrow Way

13 [a]"Enter by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in by it.
14 [1]"Because narrow is the gate and [2]difficult is the way which leads to life, and there are few who find it.

You Will Know Them by Their Fruits

15 [a]"Beware of false prophets, [b]who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves.
16 [a]"You will know them by their fruits. [b]Do men gather grapes from thornbushes or figs from thistles?

19 [a]"Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.
20 "Therefore by their fruits you will know them.

I Never Knew You

21 "Not everyone who says to Me, [a]'Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who [b]does the will of My Father in heaven.
22 "Many will say to Me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, have we [a]not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?'
23 "And [a]then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; [b]depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!'

ENCOUNTER Note Matt. 7:23

Does God Know You?

Eternal life is not dependant on whether you know Christ, but whether He knows you. If He had a relationship with you, then He would have taken up residence in your life and you would be filled with His Spirit. Your life would be a reflection of His holiness. When He spoke you would hear and respond to His will. Obedience, not activity, is the sign of relationship.

Build on the Rock

24 "Therefore [a]whoever hears these sayings of Mine, and does them, I will liken him to a wise man who built his house on the rock:
25 "and the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it did not fall, for it was founded on the rock.
26 "But everyone who hears these sayings of Mine, and does not do them, will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand:
27 "and the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it fell. And great was its fall."
28 And so it was, when Jesus had ended these sayings, that [a]the people were astonished at His teaching,
29 [a]for He taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

7:6 Dogs and swine were considered unclean animals.

7:29 Scribes sought authority by the use of scripture; Jesus opened scripture with authority.

Jesus Cleanses a Leper

8 When He had come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed Him.
2 [a]And behold, a leper came and [b]worshiped Him, saying, "Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean."
3 Then Jesus put out His hand and touched him, saying, "I am willing; be cleansed." Immediately his leprosy [a]was cleansed.
4 And Jesus said to him, [a]"See that you tell no one; but go your way, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that [b]Moses [c]commanded, as a testimony to them."

Jesus Heals a Centurion's Servant

5 [a]Now when Jesus had entered Capernaum, a [b]centurion came to Him, pleading with Him,
6 saying, "Lord, my servant is lying at home paralyzed, dreadfully tormented."
7 And Jesus said to him, "I will come and heal him."
8 The centurion answered and said, "Lord, [a]I am not worthy that You should come under my roof. But only [b]speak a word, and my servant will be healed.
9 "For I also am a man under authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."
10 When Jesus heard it, He marveled, and said to those who followed, "Assuredly, I say to you, I have not found such great faith, not even in Israel!

ENCOUNTER Note — Matt. 8:10

Marvelous Faith

It would seem impossible to impress the Creator of the universe, yet our faith in Him delights Him. Faith is the chief evidence that we know Christ. It releases heaven's blessings into our world. Conversely, a lack of faith is our condemnation, leaving us a prisoner to our own resources.

11 "And I say to you that [a]many will come from east and west, and sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven.
12 "But [a]the sons of the kingdom [b]will be cast out into outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."
13 Then Jesus said to the centurion, "Go your way; and as you have believed, so let it be done for you." And his servant was healed that same hour.

Peter's Mother-in-Law Healed

14 [a]Now when Jesus had come into Peter's house, He saw [b]his wife's mother lying sick with a fever.
15 So He touched her hand, and the fever left her. And she arose and served [1]them.

Many Healed in the Evening

16 [a]When evening had come, they brought to Him many who were demon-possessed. And He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were sick,
17 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying:

> [a]"He Himself took our infirmities
> And bore our sicknesses."

The Cost of Discipleship

18 And when Jesus saw great multitudes about Him, He gave a command to depart to the other side.
19 [a]Then a certain scribe came and said to Him, "Teacher, I will follow You wherever You go."
20 And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head."
21 [a]Then another of His disciples said to Him, "Lord, [b]let me first go and bury my father."
22 But Jesus said to him, "Follow Me, and let the dead bury their own dead."

Wind and Wave Obey Jesus

23 Now when He got into a boat, His disciples followed Him.
24 [a]And suddenly a great tempest arose on the sea, so that the boat was covered with the waves. But He was asleep.
25 Then His disciples came to Him and awoke Him, saying, "Lord, save us! We are perishing!"
26 But He said to them, "Why are you fearful, O you of little faith?" Then [a]He 8:5 A centurion was a Roman officer in command of one hundred men.

8:12 "Sons of the kingdom" refers to the Jews who were a part of the Abrahamic covenant. It was considered unthinkable that Gentiles would take their place in the kingdom of heaven.

arose and rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm.
27 So the men marveled, saying, [1]"Who can this be, that even the winds and the sea obey Him?"

Two Demon-Possessed Men Healed

28 [a]When He had come to the other side, to the country of the [1]Gergesenes, there met Him two demon-possessed men, coming out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that no one could pass that way.
29 And suddenly they cried out, saying, "What have we to do with You, Jesus, You Son of God? Have You come here to torment us before the time?"
30 Now a good way off from them there was a herd of many swine feeding.
31 So the demons begged Him, saying, "If You cast us out, [1]permit us to go away into the herd of swine."
32 And He said to them, "Go." So when they had come out, they went into the herd of swine. And suddenly the whole herd of swine ran violently down the steep place into the sea, and perished in the water.
33 Then those who kept them fled; and they went away into the city and told everything, including what had happened to the demon-possessed men.
34 And behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus. And when they saw Him, [a]they begged Him to depart from their region.

Jesus Forgives and Heals a Paralytic

9 So He got into a boat, crossed over, [a]and came to His own city.
2 [a]Then behold, they brought to Him a paralytic lying on a bed. [b]When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the paralytic, "Son, be of good cheer; your sins are forgiven you."
3 And at once some of the scribes said within themselves, "This Man blasphemes!"
4 But Jesus, [a]knowing their thoughts, said, "Why do you think evil in your hearts?
5 "For which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Arise and walk'?
6 "But that you may know that the Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins"—then He said to the paralytic, "Arise, take up your bed, and go to your house."
7 And he arose and departed to his house.
8 Now when the multitudes saw it, they [a]marveled[1] and glorified God, who had given such power to men.

Matthew the Tax Collector

9 [a]As Jesus passed on from there, He saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax office. And He said to him, "Follow Me." So he arose and followed Him.
10 [a]Now it happened, as Jesus sat at the table in the house, that behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with Him and His disciples.
11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said to His disciples, "Why does your Teacher eat with [a]tax collectors and [b]sinners?"
12 When Jesus heard that, He said to them, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick.
13 "But go and learn what this means: [a]'I desire mercy and not sacrifice.' For I did not come to call the righteous, [b]but sinners, [1]to repentance."

CHARACTER Study — MATTHEW — Matt. 9:9

Matthew's life is a story of God's grace, wherein a sinner was made into a saint. The son of Alphaeus, he was a Hebrew known by two names. He called himself Matthew, meaning "gift of God," but Mark and Luke identify him as Levi, meaning "joined." As a publican, he was allied with Roman occupational forces to collect taxes for a foreign enemy, not to mention extracting extra money for himself. This made him detestable to orthodox Jews. In fact, the name publican was synonymous with sinner (Luke 15:1). When Jesus extended a call to leave behind his corrupt world and follow Him, Matthew did not hesitate (Matt. 9:9; Luke 5:28). In fact he had a celebration, inviting other tax collectors and sinners to dinner. His invitation served as a public testimony of his desire to follow Christ, and an opportunity for other outcasts to find acceptance and freedom. Matthew's encounter with Jesus gives hope to all sinners. He was a social pariah, a notorious sinner, but Christ forgave him and cleansed his life completely. Formerly absorbed with self interests, he would spend the rest of his days living for Christ.

8:28 The country of the Gergesenes may be identified with Khersa on the eastern shore of the Sea of Galilee; or Gerasa, thirty miles southeast of the Sea of Galilee; or Gadara, six miles away.
8:29 "Before the time" is a reference to Judgment Day.
9:1 "His own city" is Capernaum (Matt. 4:13).
9:9 The tax office was a toll booth set up on roadside for collecting taxes on transported merchandise. Matthew probably worked for Herod Antipas.

ENCOUNTER Note Matt. 9:12, 13

What Is Right?

God desires a right heart more than right activity. Compassion longs to see people find God's heart; condemnation demands that people adhere to God's law.

Jesus Is Questioned About Fasting

14 Then the disciples of John came to Him, saying, [a]"Why do we and the Pharisees fast [1]often, but Your disciples do not fast?"
15 And Jesus said to them, "Can [a]the [1]friends of the bridegroom mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and [b]then they will fast.
16 "No one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; for [1]the patch pulls away from the garment, and the tear is made worse.
17 "Nor do they put new wine into old wineskins, or else the wineskins [1]break, the wine is spilled, and the wineskins are ruined. But they put new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved."

A Girl Restored to Life and a Woman Healed

18 [a]While He spoke these things to them, behold, a ruler came and worshiped Him, saying, "My daughter has just died, but come and lay Your hand on her and she will live."
19 So Jesus arose and followed him, and so did His [a]disciples.
20 [a]And suddenly, a woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years came from behind and [b]touched the hem of His garment.
21 For she said to herself, "If only I may touch His garment, I shall be made well."
22 But Jesus turned around, and when He saw her He said, "Be of good cheer, daughter; [a]your faith has made you well." And the woman was made well from that hour.
23 [a]When Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw [b]the flute players and the noisy crowd wailing,
24 He said to them, [a]"Make room, for the girl is not dead, but sleeping." And they ridiculed Him.
25 But when the crowd was put outside, He went in and [a]took her by the hand, and the girl arose.
26 And the [a]report of this went out into all that land.

Two Blind Men Healed

27 When Jesus departed from there, [a]two blind men followed Him, crying out and saying, [b]"Son of David, have mercy on us!"
28 And when He had come into the house, the blind men came to Him. And Jesus said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They said to Him, "Yes, Lord."
29 Then He touched their eyes, saying, "According to your faith let it be to you."
30 And their eyes were opened. And Jesus sternly warned them, saying, [a]"See that no one knows it."
31 [a]But when they had departed, they [1]spread the news about Him in all that [2]country.

A Mute Man Speaks

32 [a]As they went out, behold, they brought to Him a man, mute and demon-possessed.
33 And when the demon was cast out, the mute spoke. And the multitudes marveled, saying, "It was never seen like this in Israel!"
34 But the Pharisees said, [a]"He casts out demons by the ruler of the demons."

The Compassion of Jesus

35 Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, [a]teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease [1]among the people.
36 [a]But when He saw the multitudes, He was moved with compassion for them, because they were [1]weary and scattered, [b]like sheep having no shepherd.
37 Then He said to His disciples, [a]"The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few.
38 [a]"Therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest."

Sending Out the Twelve

FRANCIS OF ASSISI

Matt. 10:7

Francis of Assisi was born around 1182. His father was a wealthy cloth merchant, so Francis spent his early years reveling with friends in pursuit of pleasure. However, events in his life began turning his attention to spiritual matters. In 1202 he was captured by an enemy army that fought against Assisi, and he spent a year in prison. Soon after his release he contracted tuberculosis, which would plague him for the remainder of his life. On February 24, 1209, Francis was worshipping at Portiuncula when he heard Matthew 10:7–42 being read. He immediately sensed God telling him he should devote his life to traveling and preaching the kingdom of God. Even as he heard Jesus' instruction to His disciples to take no money with them, so Francis believed God was leading him to devote his life to poverty as he shared the gospel. He founded the Franciscan monastic order, which would become the largest order in the Catholic Church.

10:2 Until this time the twelve had been called disciples, a term indicating a follower or student. Now they are called "apostles" because they have been sent out with authority.

10:4 "Cananite," which means "Zealot" (see Luke 6:15), refers either to Simon's religious fervor or to his involvement in an organized political group that opposed Roman rule over Palestine.

10:11 Showing hospitality to travelers was considered an extremely important virtue in the ancient world.

10:17 Local councils were connected to the synagogues and acted as lower courts dealing with minor cases. They had the authority to flog but not to authorize executions.

10:25 Beelzebub was the prince of demons, and the name eventually came to refer to Satan. This name is a Jewish distortion of Beelzeboul, the name of a Canaanite deity meaning "lord of the dwelling." "Baal-Zebub" means "lord of flies" (2 Kin. 1:2).

26 "Therefore do not fear them. [a]For there is nothing covered that will not be revealed, and hidden that will not be known.

Jesus Teaches the Fear of God

27 "Whatever I tell you in the dark, [a]speak in the light; and what you hear in the ear, preach on the housetops.
28 [a]"And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. But rather [b]fear Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in [1]hell.

ENCOUNTER Note Matt. 10:28

Appropriate Fear

The proper perspective on life is from eternity. Jesus has been there and urges us to beware of men and to fear God. Sinful humanity and a fallen world will bring pain, but never let anyone shake your faith in the eternal God. He has control over all that really matters.

29 "Are not two [a]sparrows sold for a [1]copper coin? And not one of them falls to the ground apart from your Father's will.
30 [a]"But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.
31 "Do not fear therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows.

Confess Christ Before Men

32 [a]"Therefore whoever confesses Me before men, [b]him I will also confess before My Father who is in heaven.
33 [a]"But whoever denies Me before men, him I will also deny before My Father who is in heaven.

Christ Brings Division

34 [a]"Do not think that I came to bring peace on earth. I did not come to bring peace but a sword.
35 "For I have come to [a]'set[1] a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law';

42 [a]"And whoever gives one of these little ones only a cup of cold water in the name of a disciple, assuredly, I say to you, he shall by no means lose his reward."

John the Baptist Sends Messengers to Jesus

11 Now it came to pass, when Jesus finished commanding His twelve disciples, that He departed from there to [a]teach and to preach in their cities.
2 [a]And when John had heard [b]in prison about the works of Christ, he [1]sent two of his disciples
3 and said to Him, "Are You [a]the Coming One, or do we look for another?"
4 Jesus answered and said to them, "Go and tell John the things which you hear and see:
5 [a]"The blind see and the lame walk; the lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear; the dead are raised up and [b]the poor have the gospel preached to them.
6 "And blessed is he who is not [a]offended because of Me."
7 [a]As they departed, Jesus began to say to the multitudes concerning John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? [b]A reed shaken by the wind?
8 "But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft garments? Indeed, those who wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.
9 "But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, [a]and more than a prophet.
10 "For this is he of whom it is written:

[a]'Behold, I send My messenger
before Your face,

10:28 "Destroy" does not suggest annihilation, but ruin or wasted existence. The same verb is used in Matthew 9:17 for a spoiled wine skin.

10:38 A condemned man would carry the horizontal beam of his cross down a road filled with antagonistic and jeering crowds to the site of his execution.

11:2 John was probably imprisoned in the fortress Machaerus, east of the Dead Sea.

11:3 "The Coming One" is another reference to the Messiah (Ps. 118:26; Heb. 10:37).

11:8 Prophets were rarely prosperous. They often lived outside the city during wicked times.

Who will prepare Your way before You.'

11 "Assuredly, I say to you, among those born of women there has not risen one greater than John the Baptist; but he who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.
12 [a]"And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force.
13 [a]"For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.
14 "And if you are willing to receive it, he is [a]Elijah who is to come.
15 [a]"He who has ears to hear, let him hear!
16 [a]"But to what shall I liken this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces and calling to their companions, 17 "and saying:

'We played the flute for you,
And you did not dance;
We mourned to you,
And you did not [1]lament.'

18 "For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon.'
19 "The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Look, a glutton and a [1]winebibber, [a]a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' [b]But wisdom is justified by her [2]children."

Woe to the Impenitent Cities

20 [a]Then He began to rebuke the cities in which most of His mighty works had been done, because they did not repent:

21 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago [a]in sackcloth and ashes.
22 "But I say to you, [a]it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the day of judgment than for you.
23 "And you, Capernaum, [a]who[1] are exalted to heaven, will be brought down to Hades; for if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.
24 "But I say to you [a]that it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment than for you."

Jesus Gives True Rest

25 [a]At that time Jesus answered and said, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that [b]You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent [c]and have revealed them to babes.
26 "Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in Your sight.
27 [a]"All things have been delivered to Me by My Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father. [b]Nor does anyone know the Father except the Son, and the one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him.
28 "Come to [a]Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.
29 "Take My yoke upon you [a]and learn from Me, for I am [1]gentle and [b]lowly in heart, [c]and you will find rest for your souls.

BENAJAH HARVEY CARROLL

Matt. 11:28

B. H. Carroll (1843–1914) was baptized at the age of thirteen. However, he subsequently struggled in his faith for many years. Upon entering Baylor University he became a reputed debater. He was headed for a promising law career when, just before graduation, he volunteered for the Confederate Army in McCullough's Rangers. He returned home to Arkansas to attend his dying father. He married a young woman there, but she refused to go with him to Texas and quickly broke her marriage vows. Although a jury granted him a divorce, Carroll grew deeply depressed. He severed all ties to the church, rejected the Bible, and enlisted in the Seventeenth Texas Infantry that was deploying to the front lines of the Civil War. He threw himself into the heat of every battle. Finally, when a minie ball nearly killed him at Mansfield, Louisiana (April, 1864), he was sent home to convalesce. He began reading the Scriptures, and he was overcome by the vision of Jesus in Matthew 11:28. Later that night he surrendered to God's call to preach the gospel. Days later he was baptized and went on to be a highly effective pastor, denominational leader, and founder of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth.

11:11 "Born of women" is an idiom meaning "human."

11:19 A winebibber is a drunkard.

11:21 "Woe" is a pronouncement of judgment, but it communicates more than vengeance; it also expresses regret. It combines warning with compassion. Chorazin was a village two and a half miles north of Capernaum; Bethsaida was three miles to the east. Philip the Tetrarch later rebuilt Bethsaida and named it "Julias" after the daughter of Caesar Augustus.

11:27 "All things" means "all authority."

ENCOUNTER Note Matt. 11:28

Yoked to Christ

If what we do for the Lord is burdensome, we are not yoked with Him. Those who walk in the Lord's strength do not complain, for they have learned from Jesus. But those who seek to produce for God by their own efforts will encounter frustration, disappointment, and a lowering of standards. God does not reward our duty; He blesses our relationship with His Son.

30 [a]"For My yoke is easy and My burden is light."

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath

12 At that time [a]Jesus went through the grainfields on the Sabbath. And His disciples were hungry, and began to [b]pluck heads of grain and to eat.
2 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said to Him, "Look, Your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath!"
3 But He said to them, "Have you not read [a]what David did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him:
4 "how he entered the house of God and ate [a]the showbread which was not lawful for him to eat, nor for those who were with him, [b]but only for the priests?
5 "Or have you not read in the [a]law that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple [1]profane the Sabbath, and are blameless?
6 "Yet I say to you that in this place there is [a]One greater than the temple.
7 "But if you had known what this means, [a]'I desire mercy and not sacrifice,' you would not have condemned the guiltless.
8 "For the Son of Man is Lord [1]even of the Sabbath."

ENCOUNTER Note Matt. 12:7

Mercy, Not Sacrifice

God always looks to the heart. People are continually drawn to ritual and outward performance. We often devote great effort and concern to religious issues that mean nothing to God.

Healing on the Sabbath

9 [a]Now when He had departed from there, He went into their synagogue.
10 And behold, there was a man who had a withered hand. And they asked Him, saying, [a]"Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"—that they might accuse Him.
11 Then He said to them, "What man is there among you who has one sheep, and if it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will not lay hold of it and lift it out?
12 "Of how much more value then is a man than a sheep? Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath."
13 Then He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and it was restored as whole as the other.
14 Then [a]the Pharisees went out and plotted against Him, how they might destroy Him.

Behold, My Servant

15 But when Jesus knew it, [a]He withdrew from there. [b]And great [1]multitudes followed Him, and He healed them all.
16 Yet He [a]warned them not to make Him known,
17 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying:

18 "Behold![a] My Servant whom I have chosen,
My Beloved [b]in whom My soul is well pleased!
I will put My Spirit upon Him,
And He will declare justice to the Gentiles.
19 He will not quarrel nor cry out,
Nor will anyone hear His voice in the streets.
20 A bruised reed He will not break,
And smoking flax He will not quench,
Till He sends forth justice to victory;
21 And in His name Gentiles will trust."

A House Divided Cannot Stand

22 [a]Then one was brought to Him who was demon-possessed, blind and mute; and He healed him, so that the [1]blind and mute man both spoke and saw.
23 And all the multitudes were amazed and said, "Could this be the [a]Son of David?"

12:3 Jesus regularly quoted scripture in answer to a challenge (Matt. 4:4, 7, 10).

12:11 Pits were often dug to trap predators of livestock.

12:15 Although Jesus came to earth to be crucified, He did not allow people to determine His agenda, only His Father. Jesus' life was preserved until His "hour" had come (John 7:6; 8:20).

12:21 Although Matthew does not record Jesus' ministry in Chorazin or Bethsaida, it is clear Jesus traveled throughout Galilee (Matt. 4:23–25). These cities were near Capernaum.

24 [a]Now when the Pharisees heard it they said, "This fellow does not cast out demons except by [1]Beelzebub, the ruler of the demons."
25 But Jesus [a]knew their thoughts, and said to them: "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand.
26 "If Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand?
27 "And if I cast out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they shall be your judges.
28 "But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, [a]surely the kingdom of God has come upon you.
29 [a]"Or how can one enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man? And then he will plunder his house.
30 "He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters abroad.

ENCOUNTER Note — Matt. 12:30

For or Against

Do your actions build up and strengthen? Do your words encourage and edify? Do your efforts gather and draw others to Christ? There is no neutral stance when we walk with the Lord. If we are not a positive influence for Him, we are hurting His work.

The Unpardonable Sin

31 "Therefore I say to you, [a]every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, [b]but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven men.
32 "Anyone who [a]speaks a word against the Son of Man, [b]it will be forgiven him; but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him, either in this age or in the age to come.

WORD Study — BLASPHEMY

Matt. 12:31 Blasphemy literally means to "speak harm." The Mosaic law identified blasphemy against God as punishable by death (Lev. 14–16). Blasphemy against the Holy Spirit reflects a willful, stubborn rejection of the Holy Spirit's divine work, thus precluding salvation.

36 "But I say to you that for every idle word men may speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment.
37 "For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned."

The Scribes and Pharisees Ask for a Sign

38 [a]Then some of the scribes and Pharisees answered, saying, "Teacher, we want to see a sign from You."
39 But He answered and said to them, "An evil and [a]adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah.
40 [a]"For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the great fish, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.
41 [a]"The men of Nineveh will rise up in the judgment with this generation and [b]condemn it, [c]because they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and indeed a greater than Jonah is here.
42 [a]"The queen of the South will rise up in the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and indeed a greater than Solomon is here.

An Unclean Spirit Returns

43 [a]"When an unclean spirit goes out of a man, [b]he goes through dry places, seeking rest, and finds none.
44 "Then he says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.' And when he comes, he finds it empty, swept, and put in order.
45 "Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter and dwell there; [a]and the last state of that man is worse than the first. So shall it also be with this wicked generation."

ers stood outside, seeking to speak with Him.
47 Then one said to Him, "Look, [a]Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, seeking to speak with You."
48 But He answered and said to the one who told Him, "Who is My mother and who are My brothers?"
49 And He stretched out His hand toward His disciples and said, "Here are My mother and My [a]brothers!
50 "For [a]whoever does the will of My Father in heaven is My brother and sister and mother."

The Parable of the Sower

13 On the same day Jesus went out of the house [a]and sat by the sea.
2 [a]And great multitudes were gathered together to Him, so that [b]He got into a boat and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.
3 Then He spoke many things to them in parables, saying: [a]"Behold, a sower went out to sow.
4 "And as he sowed, some seed fell by the wayside; and the birds came and devoured them.
5 "Some fell on stony places, where they did not have much earth; and they immediately sprang up because they had no depth of earth.
6 "But when the sun was up they were scorched, and because they had no root they withered away.
7 "And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up and choked them.
8 "But others fell on good ground and yielded a crop: some [a]a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.
9 [a]"He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

The Purpose of Parables

10 And the disciples came and said to Him, "Why do You speak to them in parables?"
11 He answered and said to them, "Because [a]it has been given to you to know the [1]mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given.
12 [a]"For whoever has, to him more will be given, and he will have abundance; but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him.
13 "Therefore I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand.
14 "And in them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled, which says:

> [a]'Hearing you will hear and shall not understand,
> And seeing you will see and not [b]perceive;
> 15 For the hearts of this people have grown dull.
> Their ears [a]are hard of hearing,
> And their eyes they have [b]closed,
> Lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears,
> Lest they should understand with their hearts and turn,
> So that I [1]should [c]heal them.'

16 "But [a]blessed are your eyes for they see, and your ears for they hear;
17 "for assuredly, I say to you [a]that many prophets and righteous men desired to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.

ENCOUNTER Note — Matt. 13:11

Spiritual Perception

There is a radical difference between knowing through physical senses and knowing through spiritual senses. Sin dulls our capacity to know God. Did people see Jesus but not recognize the Son of God? Yes. Could Jesus be working around your life and you not recognize His activity? Yes. Only those who have been born again of the Spirit of God can see His activity.

12:47 Most Jews would agree that honoring father and mother was preeminent in the law of Moses. To disavow one's family member would be offensive in Jewish society. Jesus' statement (50) would be an emphatic and controversial assertion.

13:3 Parables were a method of teaching that used common or familiar scenes to describe a spiritual truth. They were meant to teach one truth at a time; not every detail should be used to extrapolate more than was meant by the speaker.

13:8 "Good ground" refers to tilled ground prepared to receive seed.

lation or persecution arises because of the word, immediately [b]he stumbles.
22 "Now [a]he who received seed [b]among the thorns is he who hears the word, and the cares of this world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful.
23 "But he who received seed on the good ground is he who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears [a]fruit and produces: some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty."

The Parable of the Wheat and the Tares

24 Another parable He put forth to them, saying: "The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field;
25 "but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat and went his way.
26 "But when the grain had sprouted and produced a crop, then the tares also appeared.
27 "So the servants of the owner came and said to him, 'Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? How then does it have tares?'
28 "He said to them, 'An enemy has done this.' The servants said to him, 'Do you want us then to go and gather them up?'
29 "But he said, 'No, lest while you gather up the tares you also uproot the wheat with them.
30 'Let both grow together until the harvest, and at the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, "First gather together the tares and bind them in bundles to burn them, but [a]gather the wheat into my barn." ' "

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

31 Another parable He put forth to them, saying: [a]"The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field,
32 "which indeed is the least of all the seeds; but when it is grown it is greater than the herbs and becomes a [a]tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest in its branches."

The Parable of the Leaven

33 [a]Another parable He spoke to them: "The kingdom of heaven is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three [1]measures of meal till [b]it was all leavened."

Prophecy and the Parables

34 [a]All these things Jesus spoke to the multitude in parables; and without a parable He did not speak to them,
35 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying:

> [a]"I will open My mouth in parables;
> [b]I will utter things kept secret from the foundation of the world."

The Parable of the Tares Explained

36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away and went into the house. And His disciples came to Him, saying, "Explain to us the parable of the tares of the field."
37 He answered and said to them: "He who sows the good seed is the Son of Man.
38 [a]"The field is the world, the good seeds are the sons of the kingdom, but the tares are [b]the sons of the wicked one.
39 "The enemy who sowed them is the devil, [a]the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are the angels.
40 "Therefore as the tares are gathered and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of this age.
41 "The Son of Man will send out His angels, [a]and they will gather out of His kingdom all things that offend, and those who practice lawlessness, 42 [a]"and will cast them into the furnace of fire. [b]There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth.
43 [a]"Then the righteous will shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. [b]He who has ears to hear, let him hear!

The Parable of the Hidden Treasure

44 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and hid; and for joy over it he goes and [a]sells all that he has and [b]buys that field.

The Parable of the Pearl of Great Price

45 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant seeking beautiful pearls, 46 "who, when he had found [a]one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had and bought it.

The Parable of the Dragnet

47 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a dragnet that was cast into the sea and [a]gathered some of every kind, 13:24 Many of those listening to Jesus would be rural laborers on large estates. They would readily identify with this parable.

13:31 The nature of the mustard seed Jesus referred to has been the subject of debate. The point of the parable, however, is its small size.

13:44 Valuables were often buried for safekeeping. Tales were common of laborers uncovering treasures buried in fields.

48 "which, when it was full, they drew to shore; and they sat down and gathered the good into vessels, but threw the bad away.
49 "So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come forth, [a]separate the wicked from among the just,
50 "and cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth."
51 [1]Jesus said to them, "Have you understood all these things?" They said to Him, "Yes, [2]Lord."
52 Then He said to them, "Therefore every [1]scribe instructed [2]concerning the kingdom of heaven is like a householder who brings out of his treasure [a]things new and old."

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

53 Now it came to pass, when Jesus had finished these parables, that He departed from there.
54 [a]When He had come to His own country, He taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished and said, "Where did this Man get this wisdom and these mighty works?
55 [a]"Is this not the carpenter's son? Is not His mother called Mary? And [b]His brothers [c]James, [1]Joses, Simon, and Judas?
56 "And His sisters, are they not all with us? Where then did this Man get all these things?"
57 So they [a]were offended at Him. But Jesus said to them, [b]"A prophet is not without honor except in his own country and in his own house."
58 Now [a]He did not do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

John the Baptist Beheaded

14 At that time [a]Herod the tetrarch heard the report about Jesus
2 and said to his servants, "This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead, and therefore these powers are at work in him."
3 [a]For Herod had laid hold of John and bound him, and put him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife.
4 Because John had said to him, [a]"It is not lawful for you to have her."
5 And although he wanted to put him to death, he feared the multitude, [a]because they counted him as a prophet.
6 But when Herod's birthday was celebrated, the daughter of Herodias danced before them and pleased Herod.
7 Therefore he promised with an oath to give her whatever she might ask.
8 So she, having been prompted by her mother, said, "Give me John the Baptist's head here on a platter."
9 And the king was sorry; nevertheless, because of the oaths and because of those who sat with him, he commanded it to be given to her.
10 So he sent and had John beheaded in prison.
11 And his head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother.
12 Then his disciples came and took away the body and buried it, and went and told Jesus.

Feeding the Five Thousand

13 [a]When Jesus heard it, He departed from there by boat to a deserted place by Himself. But when the multitudes heard it, they followed Him on foot from the cities.
14 And when Jesus went out He saw a great multitude; and He [a]was moved with compassion for them, and healed their sick.
15 [a]When it was evening, His disciples came to Him, saying, "This is a deserted place, and the hour is already late. Send the multitudes away, that they may go into the villages and buy themselves food."
16 But Jesus said to them, "They do not need to go away. You give them something to eat."
17 And they said to Him, "We have here only five loaves and two fish."
18 He said, "Bring them here to Me."
19 Then He commanded the multitudes to sit down on the grass. And He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, [a]He blessed and broke and gave the loaves to the disciples; and the disciples gave to the multitudes.
20 So they all ate and were filled, and they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments that remained.
21 Now those who had eaten were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

Building Faith

If you struggle with doubt, Jesus may put you into situations that require faith. He wants to take you beyond yourself and teach you more about Himself. It is in times of trust that you will truly experience God.

23 [a]And when He had sent the multitudes away, He went up on the mountain by Himself to pray. [b]Now when evening came, He was alone there.
24 But the boat was now [1]in the middle of the sea, tossed by the waves, for the wind was contrary.
25 Now in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went to them, walking on the sea.
26 And when the disciples saw Him [a]walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out for fear.
27 But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, [1]"Be of good [a]cheer! [2]It is I; do not be afraid."
28 And Peter answered Him and said, "Lord, if it is You, command me to come to You on the water."
29 So He said, "Come." And when Peter had come down out of the boat, he walked on the water to go to Jesus.
30 But when he saw [1]that the wind was boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink he cried out, saying, "Lord, save me!"
31 And immediately Jesus stretched out His hand and caught him, and said to him, "O you of [a]little faith, why did you doubt?"
32 And when they got into the boat, the wind ceased.
33 Then those who were in the boat [1]came and worshiped Him, saying, "Truly [a]You are the Son of God."

Defilement Comes from Within

15 Then [a]the scribes and Pharisees who were from Jerusalem came to Jesus, saying,
2 [a]"Why do Your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat bread."
3 He answered and said to them, "Why do you also transgress the commandment of God because of your tradition?
4 "For God commanded, saying, [a]'Honor your father and your mother'; and, [b]'He who curses father or mother, let him be put to death.'
5 "But you say, 'Whoever says to his father or mother, [a]"Whatever profit you might have received from me is a gift to God"—
6 'then he need not honor his father [1]or mother.' Thus you have made the [2]commandment of God of no effect by your tradition.
7 [a]"Hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy about you, saying:

8 'These[a] people [1]draw near to Me
with their mouth,
And honor Me with their lips,
But their heart is far from Me.
9 And in vain they worship Me,
[a]Teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.' "

10 [a]When He had called the multitude to Himself, He said to them, "Hear and understand:
11 [a]"Not what goes into the mouth defiles a man; but what comes out of the mouth, this defiles a man."
12 Then His disciples came and said to Him, "Do You know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this saying?"
13 But He answered and said, [a]"Every plant which My heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted.
14 "Let them alone. [a]They are blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind leads the blind, both will fall into a ditch."
15 [a]Then Peter answered and said to Him, "Explain this parable to us."
16 So Jesus said, [a]"Are you also still without understanding?
17 "Do you not yet understand that [a]whatever enters the mouth goes into the stomach and is eliminated?

15:1 The fact that scribes and Pharisees traveled from Jerusalem to Galilee to see Jesus is an indication of his growing reputation.

18 "But [a]those things which proceed out of the mouth come from the heart, and they defile a man.
19 [a]"For out of the heart proceed evil

tions, thefts, false witness, blasphemies.
20 "These are the things which defile a does not defile a man."

A Gentile Shows Her Faith

21 [a]Then Jesus went out from there and departed to the region of Tyre and Sidon.
22 And behold, a woman of Canaan came from that region and cried out to Him, saying, "Have mercy on me, O Lord, [a]Son of David! My daughter is severely demon-possessed."
23 But He answered her not a word.
And His disciples came and urged Him, saying, "Send her away, for she cries out after us."
24 But He answered and said, [a]"I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."
25 Then she came and worshiped Him, saying, "Lord, help me!"
26 But He answered and said, "It is not good to take the children's bread and throw it to the little [a]dogs."
27 And she said, "Yes, Lord, yet even the little dogs eat the crumbs which fall from their masters' table."
28 Then Jesus answered and said to her,
"O woman, [a]great is your faith! Let it be to you as you desire." And her daughter was healed from that very hour.

ENCOUNTER Note — Matt. 15:28

Persevering Faith

When you ask of God, do you ask in faith? Faith does not give up; it perseveres even amid discouraging circumstances. The measure of your faith will determine your experience with God. Little faith receives little blessing; great faith receives great blessing.

Jesus Heals Great Multitudes

29 [a]Jesus departed from there, [b]skirted the Sea of Galilee, and went up on the mountain and sat down there.
30 [a]Then great multitudes came to Him, having with them the lame, blind, mute,
[1]maimed, and many others; and they laid them down at Jesus' [b]feet, and He healed them.
31 So the multitude marveled when they saw the mute speaking, the [1]maimed made whole, the lame walking, and the blind seeing; and they [a]glorified the God of Israel.

Feeding the Four Thousand

32 [a]Now Jesus called His disciples to Himself and said, "I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now continued with Me three days and have nothing to eat. And I do not want to send them away hungry, lest they faint on the way."
33 [a]Then His disciples said to Him,
"Where could we get enough bread in the wilderness to fill such a great multitude?"
34 Jesus said to them, "How many loaves do you have?" And they said,
"Seven, and a few little fish."
35 So He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.
36 And [a]He took the seven loaves and the fish and [b]gave thanks, broke them and gave them to His disciples; and the disciples gave to the multitude.
37 So they all ate and were filled, and they took up seven large baskets full of the fragments that were left.
38 Now those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children.
39 [a]And He sent away the multitude, got into the boat, and came to the region of [1]Magdala.

The Pharisees and Sadducees Seek a Sign

16 Then the [a]Pharisees and Sadducees came, and testing Him asked that He would show them a sign from heaven.
2 He answered and said to them, "When it is evening you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red';
3 "and in the morning, 'It will be foul weather today, for the sky is red and threatening.' [1]Hypocrites! You know how to discern the face of the sky, but you cannot discern the signs of the times.
4 [a]"A wicked and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and no sign shall be given to it except the sign of [1]the prophet Jonah." And He left them and departed.

4 [a]Matt. 12:39
[1]NU omits the prophet

15:21 Tyre and Sidon were considered pagan territory. Sidon was the former home of Jezebel (1 Kin. 16:31).

15:24 When Jesus refers to saving the "lost," He is referring to God's people, the sheep of His flock (Matt. 1:21; Luke 15:3–7, 8–10, 32).

15:27 The word for "little dogs" used here does not describe the mongrel scavengers roaming the countryside, but pets that would gather under the table where children ate.

15:39 Magdala was the home of Mary Magdalene.

16:1 Pharisees and Sadducees rarely agreed on anything. Combining forces brought them great influence; Pharisees had the support of the populace while Sadducees held political power.

The Leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees

5 Now [a]when His disciples had come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.
6 Then Jesus said to them, [a]"Take heed and beware of the [1]leaven of the Pharisees and the Sadducees."
7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "It is because we have taken no bread."
8 But Jesus, being aware of it, said to them, "O you of little faith, why do you reason among yourselves because you [1]have brought no bread?
9 [a]"Do you not yet understand, or remember the five loaves of the five thousand and how many baskets you took up?
10 [a]"Nor the seven loaves of the four thousand and how many large baskets you took up?
11 "How is it you do not understand that I did not speak to you concerning bread?—but to beware of the [1]leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees."
12 Then they understood that He did not tell them to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the [1]doctrine of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Peter Confesses Jesus as the Christ

13 When Jesus came into the region of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, saying, [a]"Who do men say that I, the Son of Man, am?"
14 So they said, [a]"Some say John the Baptist, some Elijah, and others Jeremiah or [b]one of the prophets."
15 He said to them, "But who do [a]you say that I am?"
16 Simon Peter answered and said, [a]"You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."
17 Jesus answered and said to him, "Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah, [a]for flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but [b]My Father who is in heaven.
18 "And I also say to you that [a]you are Peter, and [b]on this rock I will build My church, and [c]the gates of Hades shall not [1]prevail against it.
19 [a]"And I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth [1]will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven."

20 [a]Then He commanded His disciples that they should tell no one that He was Jesus the Christ.

Jesus Predicts His Death and Resurrection

21 From that time Jesus began [a]to show to His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem, and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised the third day.
22 Then Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him, saying, [1]"Far be it from You, Lord; this shall not happen to You!"
23 But He turned and said to Peter, "Get behind Me, [a]Satan! [b]You are [1]an offense to Me, for you are not mindful of the things of God, but the things of men."

Take Up the Cross and Follow Him

24 [a]Then Jesus said to His disciples, "If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and [b]follow Me.

ENCOUNTER Note — Matt. 16:24

Following Jesus

While we incline toward self-centered interests, the concerns of the Father go unnoticed and rejected. Unless we deny the power of self, choose to seek the Father's will, and settle the Lordship of Christ in our life, we are incapable of following Him. He looks for ready obedience, not reluctant submission.

25 "For [a]whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it.
26 "For what [a]profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? Or [b]what will a man give in exchange for his soul?
27 "For [a]the Son of Man will come in the glory of His Father [b]with His angels, [c]and then He will reward each according to his works.
28 "Assuredly, I say to you, [a]there are some standing here who shall not taste death till they see the Son of Man coming in His kingdom."

16:13 Caesarea Philippi was north of the Sea of Galilee at the base of Mount Hermon. It was known as a pagan place of worship.

16:16 Peter had the right title but the wrong understanding of the term "messiah."

16:18 The name "Peter" and the word "rock" are the same in Aramaic. In Greek, the name "Peter" is petros, and "rock" is petra. "Hades" referred to the underworld, or the place of the dead. It is the equivalent of the term sheol in the Old Testament.

16:21 Elders and chief priests and scribes comprised the Jewish council called the Sandhedrin.

16:23 Satan had returned with his temptation for Jesus to avoid the cross, this time speaking through one of Jesus' closest friends (Matt. 4:9).

Jesus Transfigured on the Mount

17 Now [a]after six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, led them up on a high mountain by themselves;
2 and He was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became as white as the light.
3 And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with Him.
4 Then Peter answered and said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if You wish, [1]let us make here three tabernacles: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."
5 [a]While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them; and suddenly a voice came out of the cloud, saying, [b]"This is My beloved Son, [c]in whom I am well pleased. [d]Hear Him!"

ENCOUNTER Note — Matt. 17:5

Listen to Him

In great moments with the Lord, we need to do two things: be quiet and listen. In the midst of our constant chatter, the Father says, "Stop talking and listen to My Son. He knows My will for your life, if only you would listen." He is God; He doesn't need our suggestions. Learn to be quiet, meditate, and listen.

6 [a]And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces and were greatly afraid.
7 But Jesus came and [a]touched them and said, "Arise, and do not be afraid."
8 When they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus only.
9 Now as they came down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, "Tell the vision to no one until the Son of Man is risen from the dead."
10 And His disciples asked Him, saying, [a]"Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"
11 Jesus answered and said to them, "Indeed, Elijah is coming [1]first and will [a]restore all things.
12 [a]"But I say to you that Elijah has come already, and they [b]did not know him but did to him whatever they wished. Likewise [c]the Son of Man is also about to suffer at their hands."
13 [a]Then the disciples understood that He spoke to them of John the Baptist.

A Boy Is Healed

14 [a]And when they had come to the multitude, a man came to Him, kneeling down to Him and saying,
15 "Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is [1]an epileptic and suffers severely; for he often falls into the fire and often into the water.
16 "So I brought him to Your disciples, but they could not cure him."
17 Then Jesus answered and said, "O [1]faithless and [a]perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him here to Me."
18 And Jesus [a]rebuked the demon, and it came out of him; and the child was cured from that very hour.
19 Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, "Why could we not cast it out?"

ENCOUNTER Note — Matt. 17:19

Why?

Spiritual powerlessness provides compelling evidence that something is wrong with our faith. At such times we need not speculate why God's power is absent from our lives. We can go directly to God and inquire of Him.

20 So Jesus said to them, "Because of your [1]unbelief; for assuredly, I say to you, [a]if you have faith as a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.
21 [1]"However, this kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting."

Jesus Again Predicts His Death and Resurrection

22 [a]Now while they were [1]staying in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men,
23 "and they will kill Him, and the third day He will be raised up." And they were exceedingly [a]sorrowful.

17:1–13 This passage holds several allusions to God's glory as displayed before Moses on Mount Sinai (Ex. 24).

17:3 Moses and Elijah represented the law and the prophets. The significance was that the entire Old Testament pointed toward the coming of the Messiah. Elijah was expected to return just before the day of the Lord (Mal. 4:5, 6).

17:14–17 Like Moses, Jesus would have to immediately confront the people's failings when He came down the mountain.

17:24 The temple tax was given annually by every male over the age of twenty. Exodus 30:13 set the requirement at a half a shekel for a common laborer, about two day's wages.

tax came to Peter and said, "Does your Teacher not pay the temple tax?"
25 He said, "Yes." And when he had come into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth take customs or taxes, from their sons or from [a]strangers?"
26 Peter said to Him, "From strangers." Jesus said to him, "Then the sons are free.
27 "Nevertheless, lest we offend them, go to the sea, cast in a hook, and take the fish that comes up first. And when you have opened its mouth, you will find a [1]piece of money; take that and give it to them for Me and you."

Who Is the Greatest?

18 At [a]that time the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Who then is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?"
2 Then Jesus called a little [a]child to Him, set him in the midst of them,
3 and said, "Assuredly, I say to you, [a]unless you are converted and become as little children, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven.
4 [a]"Therefore whoever humbles himself as this little child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

10 "Take heed that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that in heaven [a]their angels always [b]see the face of My Father who is in heaven.
11 [a]"For[1] the Son of Man has come to save that which was lost.
12 [a]"What do you think? If a man has a hundred sheep, and one of them goes astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine and go to the mountains to seek the one that is straying?
13 "And if he should find it, assuredly, I say to you, he rejoices more over that sheep than over the ninety-nine that did not go astray.
14 "Even so it is not the [a]will of your Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.

Dealing with a Sinning Brother

15 "Moreover [a]if your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he hears you, [b]you have gained your brother.
16 "But if he will not hear, take with you one or two more, that [a]'by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.'
17 "And if he refuses to hear them, tell it to the church. But if he refuses even to hear the church, let him be to you like a [a]heathen and a tax collector.
18 "Assuredly, I say to you, [a]whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.
19 [a]"Again[1] I say to you that if two of you agree on earth concerning anything that they ask, [b]it will be done for them by My Father in heaven.
20 "For where two or three are gathered [a]together in My name, I am there in the midst of them."

The Parable of the Unforgiving Servant

21 Then Peter came to Him and said, "Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? [a]Up to seven times?"
22 Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you, [a]up to seven times, but up to seventy times seven.
23 "Therefore the kingdom of heaven is like a certain king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants.

18:1, 2 Issues of rank and status were daily concerns in the ancient world. Children were among the most powerless members of society.

18:6 A millstone was a large, heavy grinding stone that had to be turned by a donkey.

18:10 Jewish culture generally held that every person had a guardian angel and that angel received orders directly from God.

18:17 This is the only clear reference to a local church in the gospels.

18:18 "Binding" refers to what is not allowed and "loosing" to what is permitted (Matt. 16:19). The implication is that the act on earth has already been done in heaven.

18:21 Peter was being generous. The traditional number of times one was encouraged to forgive was only three.

24 "And when he had begun to settle accounts, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents.
25 "But as he was not able to pay, his master commanded [a]that he be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and that payment be made.
26 "The servant therefore fell down before him, saying, 'Master, have patience with me, and I will pay you all.'
27 "Then the master of that servant was moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the debt.
28 "But that servant went out and found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii; and he laid hands on him and took him by the throat, saying, 'Pay me what you owe!'
29 "So his fellow servant fell down [1]at his feet and begged him, saying, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you [2]all.'
30 "And he would not, but went and threw him into prison till he should pay the debt.
31 "So when his fellow servants saw what had been done, they were very grieved, and came and told their master all that had been done.
32 "Then his master, after he had called him, said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you [a]all that debt because you begged me.
33 'Should you not also have had compassion on your fellow servant, just as I had pity on you?'

A Measure of Grace

God's grace makes a difference one way or the other. If we accept it and treat others in like manner, His blessings will continue to overflow. But if we accept His grace and withhold it from others, His blessing turns to a curse. Be aware that God will take your measure of kindness or cruelty and bring it upon you.

34 "And his master was angry, and delivered him to the torturers until he should pay all that was due to him.
35 [a]"So My heavenly Father also will do to you if each of you, from his heart, does not forgive his brother [1]his trespasses."

Marriage and Divorce

19 Now it came to pass, [a]when Jesus had finished these sayings, that He departed from Galilee and came to the region of Judea beyond the Jordan.
2 [a]And great multitudes followed Him, and He healed them there.
3 The Pharisees also came to Him, testing Him, and saying to Him, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for just any reason?"
4 And He answered and said to them, "Have you not read that He who [1]made them at the beginning [a]'made them male and female,'
5 "and said, [a]'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and [b]the two shall become one flesh'?
6 "So then, they are no longer two but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let not man separate."
7 They said to Him, [a]"Why then did Moses command to give a certificate of divorce, and to put her away?"
8 He said to them, "Moses, because of the [a]hardness of your hearts, permitted you to divorce your [b]wives, but from the beginning it was not so.
9 [a]"And I say to you, whoever divorces his wife, except for [1]sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery; and whoever marries her who is divorced commits adultery."
10 His disciples said to Him, [a]"If such is the case of the man with his wife, it is better not to marry."

Jesus Teaches on Celibacy

11 But He said to them, [a]"All cannot accept this saying, but only those to whom it has been given:
12 "For there are [1]eunuchs who were born thus from their mother's womb, and [a]there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He who is able to accept it, let him accept it."

Jesus Blesses Little Children

13 [a]Then little children were brought to Him that He might put His hands on them and pray, but the disciples rebuked them.
14 But Jesus said, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for [a]of such is the kingdom of heaven."

18:24 Ten thousand talents was an exorbitant amount of money. A talent was the highest known currency in the ancient Roman world. There is discrepancy as to its value, as it is primarily a measure of weight. A denarius was one day's wage, and an estimate of the value of a talent ranges from six to ten thousand denarii. Jesus' parable set this man in a hopeless position.

19:1 "Beyond the Jordan," was the east side of the river known as Transjordan or Perea.

19:8 Concession was a legal means of regulating sin rather than losing control of it altogether. Divorce fell into such a category (Mal. 2:14–16).

15 And He laid His hands on them and departed from there.

Jesus Counsels the Rich Young Ruler

16 [a]Now behold, one came and said to Him, [b]"Good[1] Teacher, what good thing shall I do that I may have eternal life?"
17 So He said to him, [1]"Why do you call Me good? [2]No one is [a]good but One, that is, God. But if you want to enter into life, [b]keep the commandments."
18 He said to Him, "Which ones?" Jesus said, [a]"'You shall not murder,' 'You shall not commit adultery,' 'You shall not steal,' 'You shall not bear false witness,'
19 [a]'Honor your father and your mother,' and, [b]'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' "
20 The young man said to Him, "All these things I have [a]kept [1]from my youth. What do I still lack?"
21 Jesus said to him, "If you want to be perfect, [a]go, sell what you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me."
22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions.

With God All Things Are Possible

23 Then Jesus said to His disciples, "Assuredly, I say to you that [a]it is hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven.
24 "And again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."
25 When His disciples heard it, they were greatly astonished, saying, "Who then can be saved?"
26 But Jesus looked at them and said to them, "With men this is impossible, but [a]with God all things are possible."

Salvation Possible

A self-reliant person shuns dependency. An intellectual ridicules childlike faith. But salvation is impossible to achieve on our own; it requires a humble cry to God for help. What is impossible for us is possible with God—on His terms.

27 Then Peter answered and said to Him, "See, [a]we have left all and followed You. Therefore what shall we have?"
28 So Jesus said to them, "Assuredly I say to you, that in the regeneration, when the Son of Man sits on the throne of His glory, [a]you who have followed Me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.
29 [a]"And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother [1]or wife or children or [2]lands, for My name's sake, shall receive a hundredfold, and inherit eternal life.

The Parable of the Workers in the Vineyard

20 "For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard.

PETER WALDO

Little is known about the personal life of Peter Waldo. He was apparently a prosperous man who lived in Lyon, France. Hearing a minstrel sing about Saint Aexis who had given away his possessions, Waldo invited the minstrel to his home to discuss his message. Waldo became troubled by what he heard and sought counsel from a priest. The priest quoted Matthew 19:21. Waldo accepted this as God's word to him, so he sold his many possessions and committed himself to give away his wealth to the poor and to preach the gospel. He had the Scriptures translated from Latin into French. His message attracted others who joined his cause. Together they became known as the "Poor Men of Lyons." Waldo sent his followers out two by two preaching the Gospel and sharing scripture in peoples' native tongue. Though often opposed for doing so, the Waldensians evangelized Europe.

19:20 The term "young man" probably places him between the ages of 24 and 40.

19:28 The regeneration was the expected renewal or re-creation of all things at the end of the world.

20:1 Wealthy landowners often hired temporary laborers during harvest time.

20:3 The third hour was 9:00 A.M.; the sixth hour was noon; the ninth hour was 3:00 P.M.; the eleventh hour was 5:00 P.M.

the vineyard, and whatever is right I will give you.' So they went.
5 "Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did likewise.
6 "And about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing [1]idle, and said to them, 'Why have you been standing here idle all day?'
7 "They said to him, 'Because no one hired us.' He said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, [1]and whatever is right you will receive.'
8 "So when evening had come, the owner of the vineyard said to his steward, 'Call the laborers and give them their wages, beginning with the last to the first.'
9 "And when those came who were hired about the eleventh hour, they each received a denarius.
10 "But when the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; and they likewise received each a denarius.
11 "And when they had received it, they [1]complained against the landowner,
12 "saying, 'These last men have worked only one hour, and you made them equal to us who have borne the burden and the heat of the day.'
13 "But he answered one of them and said, 'Friend, I am doing you no wrong. Did you not agree with me for a denarius?
14 'Take what is yours and go your way. I wish to give to this last man the same as to you.
15 [a]'Is it not lawful for me to do what I wish with my own things? Or [b]is your eye evil because I am good?'
16 [a]"So the last will be first, and the first last. [b]For[1] many are called, but few chosen."

Jesus a Third Time Predicts His Death and Resurrection

17 [a]Now Jesus, going up to Jerusalem, took the twelve disciples aside on the road and said to them,
18 [a]"Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and to the scribes; and they will condemn Him to death,
19 [a]"and deliver Him to the Gentiles to [b]mock and to [c]scourge and to [d]crucify. And the third day He will [e]rise again."

Greatness Is Serving

20 [a]Then the mother of [b]Zebedee's sons came to Him with her sons, kneeling down and asking something from Him.
21 And He said to her, "What do you wish?" She said to Him, "Grant that these two sons of mine [a]may sit, one on Your right hand and the other on the left, in Your kingdom."
22 But Jesus answered and said, "You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink [a]the cup that I am about to drink, [1]and be baptized with [b]the baptism that I am baptized with?" They said to Him, "We are able."
23 So He said to them, [a]"You will indeed drink My cup, [1]and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with; but to sit on My right hand and on My left is not Mine to give, but it is for those for whom it is prepared by My Father."
24 [a]And when the ten heard it, they were greatly displeased with the two brothers.
25 But Jesus called them to Himself and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those who are great exercise authority over them.
26 "Yet [a]it shall not be so among you; but [b]whoever desires to become great among you, let him be your servant.
27 [a]"And whoever desires to be first among you, let him be your slave—
28 [a]"just as the [b]Son of Man did not come to be served, [c]but to serve, and [d]to give His life a ransom [e]for many."

ENCOUNTER Note Matt. 20:28

Called to Serve

The kingdom of God is completely different from the kingdom of this world. The world tells us to look out for ourselves; God tells us to give ourselves away. The world tells us to rule; God tells us to serve. The world tells us to be first; God tells us to put others first. The King of kings came to serve. The world will see Jesus in us when they see a servant.

Two Blind Men Receive Their Sight

29 [a]Now as they went out of Jericho, a great multitude followed Him.
30 And behold, [a]two blind men sitting by the road, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying, "Have mercy on us, O Lord, [b]Son of David!"
31 Then the multitude [a]warned them that they should be quiet; but they cried out all the more, saying, "Have mercy on us, O Lord, Son of David!"

20:22 "The cup" represents Jesus' death (Matt. 26:27, 28, 39).
20:28 A ransom was the common reference to the price paid to redeem a slave.
20:30 Only Matthew mentions two blind men. Mark and Luke mention only the man who spoke to Jesus. Matthew may have specified the second person to certify that there were two witnesses to Jesus' miracle (Deut. 17:6).

32 So Jesus stood still and called them, and said, "What do you want Me to do for you?"
33 They said to Him, "Lord, that our eyes may be opened."
34 So Jesus had [a]compassion and touched their eyes. And immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed Him.

The Triumphal Entry

21 Now [a]when they drew near Jerusalem, and came to [1]Bethphage, at [b]the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples,
2 saying to them, "Go into the village opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her. Loose them and bring them to Me.
3 "And if anyone says anything to you, you shall say, 'The Lord has need of them,' and immediately he will send them."
4 [1]All this was done that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying:

5 "Tell[a] the daughter of Zion,
'Behold, your King is coming to you,
Lowly, and sitting on a donkey,
A colt, the foal of a donkey.' "

6 [a]So the disciples went and did as Jesus commanded them.
7 They brought the donkey and the colt, [a]laid their clothes on them, [1]and set Him on them.
8 And a very great multitude spread their clothes on the road; [a]others cut down branches from the trees and spread them on the road.
9 Then the multitudes who went before and those who followed cried out, saying:

"Hosanna to the Son of David!
[a]'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!'
Hosanna in the highest!"

10 [a]And when He had come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, "Who is this?"
11 So the multitudes said, "This is Jesus, [a]the prophet from Nazareth of Galilee."

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

12 [a]Then Jesus went into the temple [1]of God and drove out all those who bought and sold in the temple, and overturned the tables of the [b]money changers and the seats of those who sold doves.
13 And He said to them, "It is written, [a]'My house shall be called a house of prayer,' but you have made it a [b]'den of thieves.' "
14 Then the blind and the lame came to Him in the temple, and He healed them.
15 But when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that He did, and the children crying out in the temple and saying, "Hosanna to the [a]Son of David!" they were [1]indignant
16 and said to Him, "Do You hear what these are saying?" And Jesus said to them, "Yes. Have you never read,

[a]'Out of the mouth of babes and nursing infants
You have perfected praise'?"

17 Then He left them and [a]went out of the city to Bethany, and He lodged there.

The Fig Tree Withered

18 [a]Now in the morning, as He returned to the city, He was hungry.
19 [a]And seeing a fig tree by the road, He came to it and found nothing on it but leaves, and said to it, "Let no fruit grow on you ever again." Immediately the fig tree withered away.

The Lesson of the Withered Fig Tree

20 [a]And when the disciples saw it, they marveled, saying, "How did the fig tree wither away so soon?"
21 So Jesus answered and said to them, "Assuredly, I say to you, [a]if you have faith and [b]do not doubt, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, [c]but also if you say to this mountain, 'Be removed and be cast into the sea,' it will be done.
22 "And [a]whatever things you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive."

Jesus' Authority Questioned

23 [a]Now when He came into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people confronted Him as He was teaching, and [b]said, "By what authority are You doing these things? And who gave You this authority?"
24 But Jesus answered and said to them, "I also will ask you one thing, which if you tell Me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things:

21:1 Bethphage was located on the eastern side of the Mount of Olives. The name means "house of figs." The Mount of Olives was directly east of Jerusalem on the other side of a deep ravine.

21:2 A donkey was symbolic of humility and peace. It was the preferred mount of Davidic royalty (2 Sam. 18:9; 1 Kin. 1:33, 44).

21:9 "Hosanna" means "save now," but it was often used as an expression of joy.

21:12 Money changers were currency brokers; they exchanged foreign coins bearing pagan images into acceptable coins for the temple.

21:18 Jerusalem was full of visitors during Passover. Many had to stay in the countryside at night.

25 "The [a]baptism of [b]John—where was it from? From heaven or from men?" And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say to us, 'Why then did you not believe him?' 26 "But if we say, 'From men,' we [a]fear the multitude, [b]for all count John as a prophet."
27 So they answered Jesus and said, "We do not know." And He said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.

The Parable of the Two Sons

28 "But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he came to the first and said, 'Son, go, work today in my [a]vineyard.'
29 "He answered and said, 'I will not,' but afterward he regretted it and went.
30 "Then he came to the second and said likewise. And he answered and said, 'I go, sir,' but he did not go.
31 "Which of the two did the will of his father?" They said to Him, "The first." Jesus said to them, [a]"Assuredly, I say to you that tax collectors and harlots enter the kingdom of God before you.

ENCOUNTER Note Matt. 21:31

Take Action

Actions speak louder than words. Anyone can say the right things, but God sees what we do. To call Jesus Lord is not enough; we must live under his lordship and do what He says, for one day we will stand before God to give an account for our actions.

32 "For [a]John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him; [b]but tax collectors and harlots believed him; and when you saw it, you did not afterward [1]relent and believe him.

The Parable of the Wicked Vinedressers

33 "Hear another parable: There was a certain landowner [a]who planted a vineyard and set a hedge around it, dug a winepress in it and built a tower. And he leased it to vinedressers and [b]went into a far country.
34 "Now when vintage-time drew near, he sent his servants to the vinedressers, that they might receive its fruit.
35 [a]"And the vinedressers took his servants, beat one, killed one, and stoned another.
36 "Again he sent other servants, more than the first, and they did likewise to them.
37 "Then last of all he sent his [a]son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.'
38 "But when the vinedressers saw the son, they said among themselves, [a]'This is the heir. [b]Come, let us kill him and seize his inheritance.'
39 [a]"So they took him and cast him out of the vineyard and killed him.
40 "Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those vinedressers?"
41 [a]They said to Him, [b]"He will destroy those wicked men miserably, [c]and lease his vineyard to other vinedressers who will [1]render to him the fruits in their seasons."
42 Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the Scriptures:

> [a]'The stone which the builders rejected
> Has become the chief cornerstone.
> This was the Lord's doing,
> And it is marvelous in our eyes'?

43 "Therefore I say to you, [a]the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a nation bearing the fruits of it.
44 "And [a]whoever falls on this stone will be broken; but on whomever it falls, [b]it will grind him to powder."
45 Now when the chief priests and Pharisees heard His parables, they [1]perceived that He was speaking of them.
46 But when they sought to lay hands on Him, they [a]feared the multitudes, because [b]they took Him for a prophet.

The Parable of the Wedding Feast

22 And Jesus answered [a]and spoke to them again by parables and said:
2 "The kingdom of heaven is like a certain king who arranged a marriage for his son,
3 "and sent out his servants to call those who were invited to the wedding; and they were not willing to come.
4 "Again, he sent out other servants, saying, 'Tell those who are invited, "See, I have prepared my dinner; [a]my oxen and fatted cattle are killed, and all things are ready. Come to the wedding." '
5 "But they made light of it and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his business.
6 "And the rest seized his servants, treated them [1]spitefully, and killed them.
7 "But when the king heard about it, he was furious. And he sent out [a]his

7 [a][Dan. 9:26]

21:31 Jesus could not have chosen a more socially offensive group than tax gatherers and harlots for his example.

21:33 A watchtower was to guard the vineyard from thieves and to provide protection from enemies. It was fifteen feet high and six feet square.

ENCOUNTER Note Matt. 22:2

The Invitation

God's offer of salvation goes out to all people, but not everyone responds favorably. Some blatantly reject His invitation; others are interested, but only on their terms. Fewer humbly turn to God and accept His love. God willingly gives salvation to those who hear the invitation, accept His call, and take action to obey.

armies, destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.
8 "Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding is ready, but those who were invited were not [a]worthy.
9 'Therefore go into the highways, and as many as you find, invite to the wedding.'
10 "So those servants went out into the highways and [a]gathered together all whom they found, both bad and good. And the wedding hall was filled with guests.
11 "But when the king came in to see the guests, he saw a man there [a]who did not have on a wedding garment.
12 "So he said to him, 'Friend, how did you come in here without a wedding garment?' And he was [a]speechless.
13 "Then the king said to the servants, 'Bind him hand and foot, [1]take him away, and cast him [a]into outer darkness; there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'
14 [a]"For many are called, but few are chosen."

The Pharisees: Is It Lawful to Pay Taxes to Caesar?

15 [a]Then the Pharisees went and plotted how they might entangle Him in His talk.
16 And they sent to Him their disciples with the [a]Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that You are true, and teach the way of God in truth; nor do You care about anyone, for You do not [1]regard the person of men.
17 "Tell us, therefore, what do You think? Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"
18 But Jesus [1]perceived their wickedness, and said, "Why do you test Me, you hypocrites?
19 "Show Me the tax money." So they brought Him a denarius.
20 And He said to them, "Whose image and inscription is this?"
21 They said to Him, "Caesar's." And He said to them, [a]"Render[1] therefore to Caesar the things that are [b]Caesar's, and to God the things that are [c]God's."
22 When they had heard these words, they marveled, and left Him and went their way.

The Sadducees: What About the Resurrection?

23 [a]The same day the Sadducees, [b]who say there is no resurrection, came to Him and asked Him,
24 saying: "Teacher, [a]Moses said that if a man dies, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife and raise up offspring for his brother.
25 "Now there were with us seven brothers. The first died after he had married, and having no offspring, left his wife to his brother.
26 "Likewise the second also, and the third, even to the seventh.
27 "Last of all the woman died also.
28 "Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife of the seven will she be? For they all had her."
29 Jesus answered and said to them, "You are [1]mistaken, [a]not knowing the Scriptures nor the power of God.
30 "For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but [a]are like angels [1]of God in heaven.
31 "But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was spoken to you by God, saying,
32 [a]'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living."
33 And when the multitudes heard this, [a]they were astonished at His teaching.

The Scribes: Which Is the First Commandment of All?

34 [a]But when the Pharisees heard that He had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together.
35 Then one of them, [a]a lawyer, asked Him a question, testing Him, and saying,
36 "Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?"

22:11 Christians are urged to "put on" righteousness (Eph. 4:24; Col. 3:10). Because the wedding guest had not clothed himself properly, he was considered unworthy and was cast out.

22:14 In this context, "called" means "invited." God's invitation to salvation is broad, but only a few accept it and enter into fellowship with Jesus.

22:15 To "entangle" means to ensnare like a trapper of animals.

22:23 Sadducees were a religious party whose members gained their positions through power and socioeconomic status. They based their doctrinal beliefs upon the first five books of Moses alone, the Pentateuch, and did not accept teachings from other Old Testament books or the oral traditions that surrounded the Hebrew Scriptures as did the Pharisees.

22:35 The lawyer was a student of the Mosaic law.

37 Jesus said to him, [a]"'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.'
38 "This is the first and great commandment.
39 "And the second is like it: [a]'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'
40 [a]"On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets."

Jesus: How Can David Call His Descendant Lord?

41 [a]While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them,
42 saying, "What do you think about the Christ? Whose Son is He?" They said to Him, "The [a]Son of David."
43 He said to them, "How then does David in the Spirit call Him 'Lord,' saying:

44 'The[a] LORD said to my Lord,
"Sit at My right hand,
Till I make Your enemies Your footstool" '?

45 "If David then calls Him 'Lord,' how is He his Son?"
46 [a]And no one was able to answer Him a word, [b]nor from that day on did anyone dare question Him anymore.

Woe to the Scribes and Pharisees

23 Then Jesus spoke to the multitudes and to His disciples,
2 saying: [a]"The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat.
3 "Therefore whatever they tell you [1]to observe, that observe and do, but do not do according to their works; for [a]they say, and do not do.
4 [a]"For they bind heavy burdens, hard to bear, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.
5 "But all their works they do to [a]be seen by men. They make their phylacteries broad and enlarge the borders of their garments.
6 [a]"They love the [1]best places at feasts, the best seats in the synagogues,
7 "greetings in the marketplaces, and to be called by men, 'Rabbi, Rabbi.'
8 [a]"But you, do not be called 'Rabbi'; for One is your [1]Teacher, [2]the Christ, and you are all brethren.
9 "Do not call anyone on earth your father; [a]for One is your Father, He who is in heaven.
10 "And do not be called teachers; for One is your Teacher, the Christ.
11 "But [a]he who is greatest among you shall be your servant.
12 [a]"And whoever exalts himself will be [1]humbled, and he who humbles himself will be [2]exalted.
13 "But [a]woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you shut up the kingdom of heaven against men; for you neither go in yourselves, nor do you allow those who are entering to go in.
14 [1]"Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! [a]For you devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers. Therefore you will receive greater condemnation.
15 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you travel land and sea to win one proselyte, and when he is won, you make him twice as much a son of [1]hell as yourselves.
16 "Woe to you, [a]blind guides, who say, [b]'Whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gold of the temple, he is obliged to perform it.'
17 "Fools and blind! For which is greater, the gold [a]or the temple that [1]sanctifies the gold?
18 "And, 'Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gift that is on it, he is obliged to perform it.'
19 "Fools and blind! For which is greater, the gift [a]or the altar that sanctifies the gift?
20 "Therefore he who [1]swears by the altar, swears by it and by all things on it.
21 "He who swears by the temple, swears by it and by [a]Him who [1]dwells in it.
22 "And he who swears by heaven, swears by [a]the throne of God and by Him who sits on it.
23 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! [a]For you pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and [b]have neglected the weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faith. These you ought to have done, without leaving the others undone.

23:6 The "best seats" would have been the first row of seats in the front of the synagogue, facing the congregation. Seating arrangements were important in the ancient world, as they conveyed status.

23:15 Converts of false teachers become "sons of Hell" because they think they are right but they are on the wrong path. Unless they hear the truth and respond they are destined for destruction.

23:23 Mint and anise were spices. Cummin was a small fruit.

ENCOUNTER Note — Matt. 23:28

Exposed

Sin blinds us to that which is meaningful, leaving us to focus on the inconsequential. External appearances can shroud one who is spiritually dead, but the veil will be torn and our soul laid bare on the day of judgment.

29 [a]"Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you build the tombs of the prophets and [1]adorn the monuments of the righteous,
30 "and say, 'If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.'
31 "Therefore you are witnesses against yourselves that [a]you are sons of those who murdered the prophets.

35 [a]"that on you may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, [b]from the blood of righteous Abel to [c]the blood of Zechariah, son of Berechiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar.
36 "Assuredly, I say to you, all these things will come upon this generation.

Jesus Laments over Jerusalem

37 [a]"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the one who kills the prophets [b]and stones those who are sent to her! How often [c]I wanted to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks [d]under her wings, but you were not willing!
38 "See! Your house is left to you desolate;
39 "for I say to you, you shall see Me no more till you say, [a]'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!' "

Jesus Predicts the Destruction of the Temple

24 Then [a]Jesus went out and departed from the temple, and His disciples came up to show Him the buildings of the temple.
2 And Jesus said to them, "Do you not see all these things? Assuredly, I say to you, [a]not one stone shall be left here upon another, that shall not be thrown down."

The Signs of the Times and the End of the Age

3 Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives, [a]the disciples came to Him privately, saying, [b]"Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign of Your coming, and of the end of the age?"
4 And Jesus answered and said to them: [a]"Take heed that no one deceives you.
5 "For [a]many will come in My name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' [b]and will deceive many.
6 "And you will hear of [a]wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not troubled; for [1]all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.
7 "For [a]nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be [b]famines, [1]pestilences, and earthquakes in various places.
8 "All these are the beginning of sorrows.
9 [a]"Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and kill you, and you will be hated by all nations for My name's sake.
10 "And then many will be offended, will betray one another, and will hate one another.
11 "Then [a]many false prophets will rise up and [b]deceive many.
12 "And because lawlessness will abound, the love of many will grow [a]cold.

23:35 Abel's was the first murder reported in the Bible (Gen. 4:8), and Zechariah's was the last in the Hebrew canon (2 Chr. 24:20–22).

24:8 "Sorrows" literally means "birth pangs."

24:15 "Abomination of desolation" refers to the prophecy in Daniel 11:31; 12:11. The fulfillment of that prophecy was in 168 B.C., when Antiochus Epiphanes built an altar to Zeus on the sacred altar in the temple of Jerusalem. Jesus used this prophecy to look toward A.D. 70, when the Romans laid siege to Jerusalem under Titus, both desecrating and destroying the temple.

13 [a]"But he who endures to the end shall be saved.
14 "And this [a]gospel of the kingdom [b]will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come.

The Great Tribulation

15 [a]"Therefore when you see the [b]'abomination of desolation,' spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place" [c](whoever reads, let him understand), 16 "then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains.
17 "Let him who is on the housetop not go down to take anything out of his house.
18 "And let him who is in the field not go back to get his clothes.
19 "But [a]woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days!
20 "And pray that your flight may not be in winter or on the Sabbath.
21 "For [a]then there will be great tribulation, such as has not been since the beginning of the world until this time, no, nor ever shall be.
22 "And unless those days were shortened, no flesh would be saved; [a]but for the [1]elect's sake those days will be shortened.
23 [a]"Then if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ!' or 'There!' do not believe it.
24 "For [a]false christs and false prophets will rise and show great signs and wonders to deceive, [b]if possible, even the elect.
25 "See, I have told you beforehand.
26 "Therefore if they say to you, 'Look, He is in the desert!' do not go out; or 'Look, He is in the inner rooms!' do not believe it.
27 [a]"For as the lightning comes from the east and flashes to the west, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be.
28 [a]"For wherever the carcass is, there the eagles will be gathered together.

The Coming of the Son of Man

29 [a]"Immediately after the tribulation of those days [b]the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.
30 [a]"Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, [b]and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.
31 [a]"And He will send His angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather together His [1]elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

The Parable of the Fig Tree

32 "Now learn [a]this parable from the fig tree: When its branch has already become tender and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near.
33 "So you also, when you see all these things, know [a]that [1]it is near—at the doors!
34 "Assuredly, I say to you, [a]this generation will by no means pass away till all these things take place.
35 [a]"Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will by no means pass away.

No One Knows the Day or Hour

36 [a]"But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of [1]heaven, [b]but My Father only.
37 "But as the days of Noah were, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be.
38 [a]"For as in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, 39 "and did not know until the flood came and took them all away, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be.
40 [a]"Then two men will be in the field: one will be taken and the other left.
41 "Two women will be grinding at the mill: one will be taken and the other left.
42 [a]"Watch therefore, for you do not know what [1]hour your Lord is coming.

Readiness

Could you face Christ if He stepped out of heaven right now to take you home? Christ's return is certain. Another certainty is that we must all give an account on that day, with no excuses. Are you ready to present your life's work to Christ?

24:22 "The elect" means those God has chosen, which includes not just the Jews, but all of God's people.

24:31 Trumpets were used to announce significant events such as the approach of royalty. In Old Testament times, the trumpet was also used to call God's people to assemble.

watched and not allowed his house to be broken into.
44 [a]"Therefore you also be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.

The Faithful Servant and the Evil Servant

45 [a]"Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his master made ruler over his household, to give them food [1]in due season?
46 [a]"Blessed is that servant whom his master, when he comes, will find so doing.
47 "Assuredly, I say to you that [a]he will make him ruler over all his goods.
48 "But if that evil servant says in his heart, 'My master [a]is delaying [1]his coming,' 49 "and begins to beat his fellow servants, and to eat and drink with the drunkards,
50 "the master of that servant will come on a day when he is not looking for him and at an hour that he is [a]not aware of,
51 "and will cut him in two and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites. [a]There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

The Parable of the Wise and Foolish Virgins

25 "Then the kingdom of heaven shall be likened to ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet [a]the bridegroom.
2 [a]"Now five of them were wise, and five were foolish.
3 "Those who were foolish took their lamps and took no oil with them,
4 "but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.
5 "But while the bridegroom was delayed, [a]they all slumbered and slept.
6 "And at midnight [a]a cry was heard: 'Behold, the bridegroom [1]is coming; go out to meet him!'
7 "Then all those virgins arose and [a]trimmed their lamps.
8 "And the foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.'
9 "But the wise answered, saying, 'No, lest there should not be enough for us and you; but go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.'
10 "And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding; and [a]the door was shut.
11 "Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, [a]'Lord, Lord, open to us!'
12 "But he answered and said, 'Assuredly, I say to you, [a]I do not know you.'
13 [a]"Watch therefore, for you [b]know neither the day nor the hour [1]in which the Son of Man is coming.

The Parable of the Talents

14 [a]"For the kingdom of heaven is [b]like a man traveling to a far country, who called his own servants and delivered his goods to them.
15 "And to one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one, [a]to each according to his own ability; and immediately he went on a journey.
16 "Then he who had received the five talents went and traded with them, and made another five talents.
17 "And likewise he who had received two gained two more also.
18 "But he who had received one went and dug in the ground, and hid his lord's money.
19 "After a long time the lord of those servants came and settled accounts with them.

JOHN TAULER

Matt. 25:6

John Tauler was born in around 1300. At an early age, he entered the Dominican order of preachers and his sister entered a Dominican convent in Strasbourg. Tauler became a famous preacher. Tradition claims that Nicolas of Basel traveled 150 miles to listen to Tauler preach. After listening to Tauler speak on holiness, Basel accused him of being a hypocrite and told him he lacked spiritual power. Tauler was so shaken by the rebuke that he did not preach again for two years. In his first sermon after his absence from the pulpit, he could do nothing but weep. However, his sister invited him to address the nuns of her convent. Tauler's text was Matthew 25:6. As he preached people fell to the floor under the power of the anointed sermon. Tauler went on to become a revival preacher calling many back to holiness and obedience to God. He was instrumental in laying a foundation for the Reformation that eventually came.

25:1 The ten virgins were bridesmaids in the wedding party, responsible for attending the bride.

25:14 Wealthy landowners often went on long journeys, but primitive traveling conditions made the length of their trip unpredictable.

25:15 Concerning the talent, see the note on Matthew 18:24.

20 "So he who had received five talents came and brought five other talents, saying, 'Lord, you delivered to me five talents; look, I have gained five more talents besides them.'
21 "His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant; you were [a]faithful over a few things, [b]I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into [c]the joy of your lord.'
22 "He also who had received two talents came and said, 'Lord, you delivered to me two talents; look, I have gained two more talents besides them.'
23 "His lord said to him, [a]'Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into [b]the joy of your lord.'
24 "Then he who had received the one talent came and said, 'Lord, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you have not sown, and gathering where you have not scattered seed.
25 'And I was afraid, and went and hid your talent in the ground. Look, there you have what is yours.'
26 "But his lord answered and said to him, 'You [a]wicked and lazy servant, you knew that I reap where I have not sown, and gather where I have not scattered seed.
27 'So you ought to have deposited my money with the bankers, and at my coming I would have received back my own with interest.
28 'Therefore take the talent from him,
and give it to him who has ten talents.
29 [a]'For to everyone who has, more will be given, and he will have abundance; but from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away.
30 'And cast the unprofitable servant
[a]into the outer darkness. [b]There will be weeping and [c]gnashing of teeth.'

The Son of Man Will Judge the Nations

31 [a]"When the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the [1]holy angels with Him, then He will sit on the throne of His glory.
32 [a]"All the nations will be gathered before Him, and [b]He will separate them one from another, as a shepherd divides his sheep from the goats.
33 "And He will set the [a]sheep on His right hand, but the goats on the left.
34 "Then the King will say to those on His right hand, 'Come, you blessed of My Father, [a]inherit the kingdom [b]prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

drink; [b]I was a stranger and you took Me in;
36 'I was [a]naked and you clothed Me; I was sick and you visited Me; [b]I was in prison and you came to Me.'
37 "Then the righteous will answer
Him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry and feed You, or thirsty and give You drink?
38 'When did we see You a stranger and take You in, or naked and clothe You?
39 'Or when did we see You sick, or in prison, and come to You?'
40 "And the King will answer and say to them, 'Assuredly, I say to you, [a]inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these My brethren, you did it to Me.'

ENCOUNTER Note — Matt. 25:40

Ministering to God

Our love for God is expressed through our relationships with other people. Caring for others, especially those who "don't matter" in the world's eyes, is ministry to God. This is the test and the proof of true Christianity.

41 "Then He will also say to those on the left hand, [a]'Depart from Me, you cursed, [b]into the everlasting fire prepared for [c]the devil and his angels:
42 'for I was hungry and you gave Me no food; I was thirsty and you gave Me
no drink;
43 'I was a stranger and you did not take Me in, naked and you did not clothe Me, sick and in prison and you did not visit Me.'
44 "Then they also will answer [1]Him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not minister to
You?'
45 "Then He will answer them, saying,
'Assuredly, I say to you, [a]inasmuch as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to Me.'
46 "And [a]these will go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

The Plot to Kill Jesus

26 Now it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, that
He said to His disciples,
2 [a]"You know that after two days is the Passover, and the Son of Man will be delivered up to be crucified."

CHAPTER 26

2 [a]Luke 22:1, 2

25:33 In ancient times, the right side was reserved for the righteous and the left was for the wicked.

3 [a]Then the chief priests, [1]the scribes, and the elders of the people assembled at the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,
4 and [a]plotted to take Jesus by [1]trickery and kill Him.
5 But they said, "Not during the feast, lest there be an uproar among the [a]people."

The Anointing at Bethany

6 And when Jesus was in [a]Bethany at the house of Simon the leper,
7 a woman came to Him having an alabaster flask of very costly fragrant oil, and she poured it on His head as He sat at the table.
8 [a]But when His disciples saw it, they were indignant, saying, "Why this waste?
9 "For this fragrant oil might have been sold for much and given to the poor."
10 But when Jesus was aware of it, He said to them, "Why do you trouble the woman? For she has done a good work for Me.
11 [a]"For you have the poor with you always, but [b]Me you do not have always.
12 "For in pouring this fragrant oil on My body, she did it for My [a]burial.
13 "Assuredly, I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told as a memorial to her."

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

14 [a]Then one of the twelve, called [b]Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests
15 and said, [a]"What are you willing to give me if I deliver Him to you?" And they counted out to him thirty pieces of silver.
16 So from that time he sought opportunity to betray Him.

Jesus Celebrates Passover with His Disciples

17 [a]Now on the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying to Him, "Where do You want us to prepare for You to eat the Passover?"
18 And He said, "Go into the city to a certain man, and say to him, 'The Teacher says, [a]"My time is at hand; I will keep the Passover at your house with My disciples." ' "
19 So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them; and they prepared the Passover.
20 [a]When evening had come, He sat down with the twelve.
21 Now as they were eating, He said, "Assuredly, I say to you, one of you will [a]betray Me."
22 And they were exceedingly sorrowful, and each of them began to say to Him, "Lord, is it I?"
23 He answered and said, [a]"He who dipped his hand with Me in the dish will betray Me.
24 "The Son of Man indeed goes just [a]as it is written of Him, but [b]woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! [c]It would have been good for that man if he had not been born."
25 Then Judas, who was betraying Him, answered and said, "Rabbi, is it I?" He said to him, "You have said it."

Jesus Institutes the Lord's Supper

26 [a]And as they were eating, [b]Jesus took bread, [1]blessed and broke it, and gave it to the disciples and said, "Take, eat; [c]this is My body."
27 Then He took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, [a]"Drink from it, all of you.
28 "For [a]this is My blood [b]of the [1]new covenant, which is shed [c]for many for the [2]remission of sins.
29 "But [a]I say to you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on [b]until that day when I drink it new with you in My Father's kingdom."
30 [a]And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

31 Then Jesus said to them, [a]"All of you will [b]be [1]made to stumble because of Me this night, for it is written:

> [c]'I will strike the Shepherd,
> And the sheep of the flock will be scattered.'

32 "But after I have been raised, [a]I will go before you to Galilee."
33 Peter answered and said to Him, "Even if all are [1]made to stumble because of You, I will never be made to stumble."
34 Jesus said to him, [a]"Assuredly, I say to you that this night, before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times."
35 Peter said to Him, "Even if I have to die with You, I will not deny You!" And so said all the disciples.

26:3 Caiaphas was high priest under Tiberius from A.D. 18 to 37. His father-in-law, Annas, was the former high priest and still had considerable influence.

26:7 Alabaster was the ancient name for marble.

26:15 Thirty pieces of silver was the price of a slave.

26:17 The first day of the feast of Unleavened Bread was the fourteenth of Nisan (March–April) and was also the time of preparation for the Passover. The Passover meal was eaten after sunset; technically the fifteenth according to the Jewish day.

The Prayer in the Garden

36 [a]Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and said to the disciples, "Sit here while I go and pray over there."
37 And He took with Him Peter and [a]the two sons of Zebedee, and He began to be sorrowful and deeply distressed.
38 Then He said to them, [a]"My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here and watch with Me."
39 He went a little farther and fell on His face, and [a]prayed, saying, [b]"O My Father, if it is possible, [c]let this cup pass from Me; nevertheless, [d]not as I will, but as You will."

ENCOUNTER Note Matt. 26:39

Trusting God's Purposes

Trials will either make us more sinful or more holy, depending on our relationship to God. When testing comes, we either trust God's purposes and find peace, or we trust our own plans and develop bitter, cynical hearts. We may not like our situation, but we love God, and we must trust His will for our lives.

40 Then He came to the disciples and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "What? Could you not watch with Me one hour?
41 [a]"Watch and pray, lest you enter into temptation. [b]The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."
42 Again, a second time, He went away and prayed, saying, "O My Father, [1]if this cup cannot pass away from Me unless I drink it, Your will be done."
43 And He came and found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavy.
44 So He left them, went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.
45 Then He came to His disciples and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Behold, the hour [1]is at hand, and the Son of Man is being [a]betrayed into the hands of sinners.
46 "Rise, let us be going. See, My betrayer is at hand."

Betrayal and Arrest in Gethsemane

47 And [a]while He was still speaking, behold, Judas, one of the twelve, with a great multitude with swords and clubs, came from the chief priests and elders of the people.
48 Now His betrayer had given them a sign, saying, "Whomever I kiss, He is the One; seize Him."
49 Immediately he went up to Jesus and said, "Greetings, Rabbi!" [a]and kissed Him.
50 But Jesus said to him, [a]"Friend, why have you come?" Then they came and laid hands on Jesus and took Him.
51 And suddenly, [a]one of those who were with Jesus stretched out his hand and drew his sword, struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.
52 But Jesus said to him, "Put your sword in its place, [a]for all who take the sword will [1]perish by the sword.
53 "Or do you think that I cannot now pray to My Father, and He will provide Me with [a]more than twelve legions of angels?
54 "How then could the Scriptures be fulfilled, [a]that it must happen thus?"
55 In that hour Jesus said to the multitudes, "Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to take Me? I sat daily with you, teaching in the temple, and you did not seize Me.
56 "But all this was done that the [a]Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled." Then [b]all the disciples forsook Him and fled.

Jesus Faces the Sanhedrin

57 [a]And those who had laid hold of Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.
58 But [a]Peter followed Him at a distance to the high priest's courtyard. And he went in and sat with the servants to see the end.
59 Now the chief priests, [1]the elders, and all the council sought [a]false testimony against Jesus to put Him to death,
60 [1]but found none. Even though [a]many false witnesses came forward, they found none. But at last [b]two [2]false witnesses came forward
61 and said, "This fellow said, [a]'I am able to destroy the temple of God and to build it in three days.' "
62 [a]And the high priest arose and said to Him, "Do You answer nothing? What is it these men testify against You?"

26:36 Gethsemane's name means "oil press." This was where they squeezed oil from the olives.

26:51 John 18:10 indicates Peter was the one who used the sword. Luke 22:38 records the disciples had two swords.

26:53 A Roman legion consisted of six thousand men.

26:57 Matthew does not mention Jesus' trial before Herod Antipas (Luke 23:6–12). He also combines the two trials before Pilate into one in 27:2, 11–26 (see Luke 23:1–5, 13–25).

26:59 The high court of the Jews, or Sanhedrin, was comprised of three groups: chief priests, elders, and teachers of the law. It numbered seventy-one, including the high priest who presided over the assembly. The Sanhedrin had great authority, but it could not give the death sentence.

63 But [a]Jesus kept silent. And the high priest answered and said to Him, [b]"I put You under oath by the living God: Tell us if You are the Christ, the Son of God!"
64 Jesus said to him, "It is as you said. Nevertheless, I say to you, [a]hereafter you will see the Son of Man [b]sitting at the right hand of the Power, and coming on the clouds of heaven."
65 [a]Then the high priest tore his clothes, saying, "He has spoken blasphemy! What further need do we have of witnesses? Look, now you have heard His [b]blasphemy!
66 "What do you think?" They answered and said, [a]"He is deserving of death."
67 [a]Then they spat in His face and beat Him; and [b]others struck Him with [1]the palms of their hands,
68 saying, [a]"Prophesy to us, Christ! Who is the one who struck You?"

Peter Denies Jesus, and Weeps Bitterly

69 [a]Now Peter sat outside in the courtyard. And a servant girl came to him, saying, "You also were with Jesus of Galilee."
70 But he denied it before them all, saying, "I do not know what you are saying."
71 And when he had gone out to the gateway, another girl saw him and said to those who were there, "This fellow also was with Jesus of Nazareth."
72 But again he denied with an oath, "I do not know the Man!"
73 And a little later those who stood by came up and said to Peter, "Surely you also are one of them, for your [a]speech betrays you."
74 Then [a]he began to [1]curse and [2]swear, saying, "I do not know the Man!" Immediately a rooster crowed.
75 And Peter remembered the word of Jesus who had said to him, [a]"Before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times." So he went out and wept bitterly.

Jesus Handed Over to Pontius Pilate

27 When morning came, [a]all the chief priests and elders of the people plotted against Jesus to put Him to death.
2 And when they had bound Him, they led Him away and [a]delivered Him to [1]Pontius Pilate the governor.

Judas Hangs Himself

3 [a]Then Judas, His betrayer, seeing that He had been condemned, was remorseful and brought back the thirty [b]pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,
4 saying, "I have sinned by betraying innocent blood." And they said, "What is that to us? You see to it!"
5 Then he threw down the pieces of silver in the temple and [a]departed, and went and hanged himself.
6 But the chief priests took the silver pieces and said, "It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, because they are the price of blood."
7 And they consulted together and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.
8 Therefore that field has been called [a]the Field of Blood to this day.
9 Then was fulfilled what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, [a]"And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the value of Him who was priced, whom they of the children of Israel priced,
10 "and [a]gave them for the potter's field, as the LORD directed me."

Jesus Faces Pilate

11 Now Jesus stood before the governor. [a]And the governor asked Him, saying, "Are You the King of the Jews?" Jesus said to him, [b]"It is as you say."
12 And while He was being accused by the chief priests and elders, [a]He answered nothing.
13 Then Pilate said to Him, [a]"Do You not hear how many things they testify against You?"
14 [a]But He answered him not one word, so that the governor marveled greatly.

Taking the Place of Barabbas

15 [a]Now at the feast the governor was accustomed to releasing to the multitude one prisoner whom they wished.

ENCOUNTER Note — Matt. 26:75

Seeing One's True Self

Jesus knows us better than we know ourselves. He understands our natural weaknesses and where we can find strength. Self-reliance will always get us into trouble, for we do not have the personal ability to fulfill what our heart wants to do. God will reveal our insufficiencies so we cease striving and find our strength in Him.

27:1, 2 Jewish authorities had to bring Jesus to Pilate because their powers did not include condemning a man to death.

27:19 Dreams in ancient times were highly respected as being revelatory of future events.

16 And at that time they had a notorious prisoner called [1]Barabbas.
17 Therefore, when they had gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release to you? Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?"
18 For he knew that they had handed Him over because of [a]envy.
19 While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, "Have nothing to do with that just Man, for I have suffered many things today in a dream because of Him."
20 [a]But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitudes that they should ask for Barabbas and destroy Jesus.
21 The governor answered and said to them, "Which of the two do you want me to release to you?" They said, [a]"Barabbas!"
22 Pilate said to them, "What then shall I do with Jesus who is called Christ?" They all said to him, "Let Him be crucified!"
23 Then the governor said, [a]"Why, what evil has He done?" But they cried out all the more, saying, "Let Him be crucified!"
24 When Pilate saw that he could not prevail at all, but rather that a [1]tumult was rising, he [a]took water and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, "I am innocent of the blood of this [2]just Person. You see to it."
25 And all the people answered and said, [a]"His blood be on us and on our children."
26 Then he released Barabbas to them; and when [a]he had [1]scourged Jesus, he delivered Him to be crucified.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

27 [a]Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the [1]Praetorium and gathered the whole [2]garrison around Him.
28 And they [a]stripped Him and [b]put a scarlet robe on Him.
29 [a]When they had [1]twisted a crown of thorns, they put it on His head, and a reed in His right hand. And they bowed the knee before Him and mocked Him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!"
30 Then [a]they spat on Him, and took the reed and struck Him on the head.
31 And when they had mocked Him, they took the robe off Him, put His own clothes on Him, [a]and led Him away to be crucified.

The King on a Cross

32 [a]Now as they came out, [b]they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name. Him they compelled to bear His cross.
33 [a]And when they had come to a place called Golgotha, that is to say, Place of a Skull, 34 [a]they gave Him [1]sour wine mingled with gall to drink. But when He had tasted it, He would not drink.
35 [a]Then they crucified Him, and divided His garments, casting lots, [1]that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet:

> [b]"They divided My garments among them,
> And for My clothing they cast lots."

Christ's Love

Words are woefully inadequate to capture the depth of Christ's love for us. Observe the crucifixion of Christ and feel His pain that was rightfully ours. If His love, demonstrated on the cross, does not compel us to follow Him, nothing else will.

36 [a]Sitting down, they kept watch over Him there.
37 And they [a]put up over His head the accusation written against Him:

THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 [a]Then two robbers were crucified with Him, one on the right and another on the left.
39 And [a]those who passed by blasphemed Him, wagging their heads
40 and saying, [a]"You who destroy the temple and build it in three days, save Yourself! [b]If You are the Son of God, come down from the cross."
41 Likewise the chief priests also, mocking with the [1]scribes and elders, said, 42 "He [a]saved others; Himself He cannot save. [1]If He is the King of Israel, let 27:24 Washing one's hands symbolized innocence.

27:26 To be scourged, or flogged, was a gruesome punishment that often led to death. The scourging was inflicted with a whip that had pieces of metal or bone attached to its multiple tips.

27:27 The Praetorium was the governor's residence in Jerusalem.

27:31 Crucifixion was considered the cruelest form of death by the Romans; it was reserved for the worst criminals. By law, a Roman citizen could not be crucified. It could take two or three days for the victim to die.

27:33 The exact location of Golgotha is unknown, but it must have been on a slight hill. It received its name, "Place of the Skull," because of either its appearance or the people who died there.

27:34 Sour wine mingled with gall was a pain killer that dulled the senses and made crucifixion more bearable. Jesus refused even this small comfort, keeping His senses alert throughout His ordeal.

ENCOUNTER Note Matt. 27:39

Opinion and Truth

The world's evaluation is often the exact opposite of the truth. God is not swayed by the erroneous opinions of people, but forges ahead in accomplishing His will. Never get turned aside by the comments of ignorant people. Remain true to God's plan and let eternity vindicate your faithfulness.

Him now come down from the cross, and we will believe [2]Him.
43 [a]"He trusted in God; let Him deliver Him now if He will have Him; for He said, 'I am the Son of God.' "
44 [a]Even the robbers who were crucified with Him reviled Him with the same thing.

Jesus Dies on the Cross

45 [a]Now from the sixth hour until the ninth hour there was darkness over all the land.
46 And about the ninth hour [a]Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" that is, [b]"My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?"
47 Some of those who stood there, when they heard that, said, "This Man is calling for Elijah!"
48 Immediately one of them ran and took a sponge, [a]filled it with sour wine and put it on a reed, and offered it to Him to drink.
49 The rest said, "Let Him alone; let us see if Elijah will come to save Him."
50 And Jesus [a]cried out again with a loud voice, and [b]yielded up His spirit.
51 Then, behold, [a]the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom; and the earth quaked, and the rocks were split,
52 and the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised;
53 and coming out of the graves after His resurrection, they went into the holy city and appeared to many.
54 [a]So when the centurion and those with him, who were guarding Jesus, saw the earthquake and the things that had happened, they feared greatly, saying, [b]"Truly this was the Son of God!"

56 [a]among whom were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and [1]Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's sons.

Jesus Buried in Joseph's Tomb

57 Now [a]when evening had come, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who himself had also become a disciple of Jesus.
58 This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be given to him.
59 When Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,
60 and [a]laid it in his new tomb which he had hewn out of the rock; and he rolled a large stone against the door of the tomb, and departed.
61 And Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting [1]opposite the tomb.

Pilate Sets a Guard

62 On the next day, which followed the Day of Preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees gathered together to Pilate,
63 saying, "Sir, we remember, while He was still alive, how that deceiver said, [a]'After three days I will rise.'
64 "Therefore command that the tomb be made secure until the third day, lest His disciples come [1]by night and steal Him away, and say to the people, 'He has risen from the dead.' So the last deception will be worse than the first."
65 Pilate said to them, "You have a guard; go your way, make it as secure as you know how."
66 So they went and made the tomb secure, [a]sealing the stone and setting the guard.

He Is Risen

28 Now [a]after the Sabbath, as the first day of the week began to dawn, Mary Magdalene [b]and the other Mary came to see the tomb.
2 And behold, there was a great earthquake; for [a]an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone [1]from the door, and sat on it.

27:45 The sixth hour until the ninth hour was noon until 3:00 p.m.

27:51 The veil of the temple refers to the curtain separating the holy place from the Most Holy Place. The fact it was torn in two indicates that Christ's death provided access for all to enter God's presence (Heb. 9:1–14; 10:14–22).

27:57 Arimathea was twenty miles northwest of Jerusalem.

28:1 "After the Sabbath" was after sunset on Saturday. This event happened at dawn on Sunday morning. It is significant that women were chosen as the first witnesses to the resurrection, as their testimony would have been considered worthless in a law court. Their role in this significant event embodies the countercultural teaching of Jesus. This event lends further credibility to the veracity of Matthew's account.

4 And the guards shook for fear of him,
and became like [a]dead men.
5 But the angel answered and said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified.
6 "He is not here; for He is risen, [a]as He said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.
7 "And go quickly and tell His disciples that He is risen from the dead, and indeed [a]He is going before you into Galilee; there you will see Him. Behold,
I have told you."
8 So they went out quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring His disciples word.

The Women Worship the Risen Lord

9 And [1]as they went to tell His disciples, behold, [a]Jesus met them, saying, "Rejoice!" So they came and held Him by the feet and worshiped Him.
10 Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid. Go and tell [a]My brethren to go to Galilee, and there they will see Me."

The Soldiers Are Bribed

11 Now while they were going, behold, some of the guard came into the city and reported to the chief priests all the things that had happened.
12 When they had assembled with the elders and consulted together, they gave a large sum of money to the soldiers, 13 saying, "Tell them, 'His disciples came at night and stole Him away while we slept.'
14 "And if this comes to the governor's ears, we will appease him and make you secure."
15 So they took the money and did as they were instructed; and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

sus had appointed for them.
17 When they saw Him, they worshiped
Him; but some [a]doubted.

WORD*Study* AUTHORITY

Matt. 28:18 The basic New Testament meaning of the term "authority," (exousía in the Greek), is freedom of choice. The greater the authority, the more autonomy one has to choose and to act. God has ultimate authority and is completely free to make decisions. He cannot be thwarted by any natural or personal power in the universe. God also has the absolute power to carry out His will. He is free to grant authority to whomever He chooses. He gave His Son all authority (Matt. 28:18; Phil. 2:9–11; Heb. 10:12), and the Son in turn gives authority to those He chooses to represent Him (Mark 3:14, 15; 6:7; Luke 9:1; 10:19). God demonstrated His authority over traditions, the laws of nature, the power of sin, and the grip of death itself. As Christians, our authority is relational; it is authority in Jesus' name (Acts 3:6; 4:10, 30). The emphasis is on an internal right, not an external license to do as one pleases. We are not free to do as we will, but to act according to the Lord's will.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Matt. 28:18

On Whose Authority?

The work of the kingdom rests on Christ's authority, not our ability. Do you get discouraged at a task that exceeds your competence and resources? It is a question of belief. Do you believe Christ is able and willing to use your life to do His work? When God sets an assignment before you, what you do next reveals what you believe about Him.

19 [a]"Go [1]therefore and [b]make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,
20 [a]"teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am [b]with you always, even to the end of the age." [1]Amen.

28:11 Only Matthew records the posting of the guards.

28:19 The Great Commission is a threefold assignment. As we go we are to (1) make disciples, (2) baptize new believers in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and (3) teach them to practice all that Christ has commanded. All three must be accomplished for the gospel to spread as Christ intended.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MARK

INTRODUCTION

The Gospel of Mark is widely regarded as the first of the Bible's four accounts written about the life and ministry of Jesus Christ. John Mark was the cousin of Barnabas (Col. 4:10), and the son of Mary, whose Jerusalem home was used as a meeting place by the early church (Acts 12:12). His Jewish name was John (Acts 13:5, 13). His Roman name was Mark (Acts 12:12, 25; 15:37). Some think he may have been the young man who fled in the night during Jesus' arrest (Mark 14:51, 52). He accompanied Barnabas and Paul on their first missionary journey (Acts 13:5, 13). Later, the apostle Peter provided Mark with eyewitness reports that formed the basis of this book, which could have been written as early as A.D. 50.

SIGNIFICANCE

Assuming that Mark's Gospel was the earliest of the four, the writers of Matthew and Luke appear to have drawn extensively from its material. If Mark used Peter's recollections of Jesus, then Mark gives us a view of Christ shared by one of Jesus' closest disciples. Mark was probably written from Rome to Gentile Christians. It was written to encourage Christians who were suffering persecution under cruel Caesars such as Nero. Mark includes more Aramaic and Latin phrases than Matthew or Luke, and there are over eighty Greek words unique to Mark among the gospels. Mark is described as containing minimum discourse and maximum action. He is a chronicler rather than a historian, portraying Christ in His everyday life rather than as the fulfillment of prophecy (as Matthew did).

STRUCTURE

Mark can be outlined as follows:

Prologue (1:1–13)
Jesus' Early Ministry (1:14—8:30)
Jesus' Approach to the Cross (8:31—10:52)
Jesus' Final Ministry in Jerusalem (11:1—13:37)
Jesus' Arrest and Crucifixion (14:1—15:47)
Jesus' Resurrection (16:1–8)
Epilogue (16:9–20)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH MARK

Mark reveals Christ in action, busy doing the will of the Father. No effort is wasted. No time is spent on the frivolous. This simple book focuses on the most basic elements of how God demonstrated His love towards us in sending His Son to die as a sacrifice for humanity's sin. Mark brings us face to face with the Gospel message as quickly as possible, and urges the reader to waste no time believing and joining Christ in His mission to bring salvation to others.

Preparation

God sets the stage for His greatest works. Often He uses ordinary men and women to get our attention so we are prepared for what He is about to do. The messenger may be ordinary, but the message is divine.

3 "The[a] voice of one crying in the 4 [a]John came baptizing in the wilderness and preaching a baptism of repentance [1]for the remission of sins.

5 [a]Then all the land of Judea, and those from Jerusalem, went out to him and were all baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins.
6 Now John was [a]clothed with camel's hair and with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey.
7 And he preached, saying, [a]"There comes One after me who is mightier than I, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to stoop down and loose.
8 [a]"I indeed baptized you with water, but He will baptize you [b]with the Holy Spirit."

WORD*Study* BAPTIZE

Mark 1:4–9 "Baptize" (from the Greek baptizo) means to dip, plunge, immerse, or wash. It was a sacred rite using water to symbolize cleansing and purification.

John Baptizes Jesus

9 [a]It came to pass in those days that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized by John in the Jordan.
10 [a]And immediately, coming up [1]from the water, He saw the heavens [2]parting and the Spirit [b]descending upon Him like a dove.
11 Then a voice came from heaven, [a]"You are My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Mark 1:10

The Holy Spirit

Jesus' earthly ministry of healing, teaching, preaching, and performing miracles was all done in the power of the Holy Spirit. Likewise, as a believer, you have received the Spirit into your life. You are therefore fully equipped for any task God assigns you.

CHARACTER*Study* JOHN THE BAPTIST Mark 1:9

John the Baptist was descended from a priestly race through his father Zacharias, a priest in the line of Abijah (1 Chr. 24:10), and his mother Elizabeth, a descendant of Aaron (Luke 1:5.) His birth was foretold by an angel (Luke 1:5–25) and preceded the birth of Christ by six months. He spent his adult life in the wilderness between Jerusalem and the Dead Sea until he began his public ministry (Luke 3:1–3), about A.D. 26 or 27. His message focused on repentance and spiritual preparation for the coming Messiah. People from every class of society flocked to hear him, to confess their sins, and to be baptized. Jesus Himself came to be baptized by John. The Baptist's life and ministry were brief, but he accomplished the task God gave him. His uncompromising righteousness drew the ire of the political leaders, however, and Herod Antipas had John imprisoned. A court festival was held in honor of the king's birthday whereupon his wife's daughter Salome was granted a wish. Her mother, Herodias, pressed her to ask for the head of John the Baptist, who was then executed. Jesus summarized John's life with this tribute: "Among those born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist" (Luke 7:28).

1:1 "Gospel" comes from the Greek word from which we get our word "evangel." It means "good news." The term was used by heralds to celebrate the pivotal moments in the lives of Roman Caesars. In the Christian era, it came to be identified with the good news of the life, death, resurrection, and second coming of Jesus Christ.

1:4 "Wilderness" is the barren region of Judea that lies between the mountains of Hebron and the Dead Sea.

1:9 When John baptized people he required them to confess their sin and pledge their loyalty to God. Employing His disciples, Christ also baptized people in the same fashion (John 3:22; 4:2), but He would later baptize believers with His Holy Spirit, completing the process heralded by John.

1:10 Mark used the term "immediately" forty-one times. It suggests swift action, as a servant heeding his master's commands.

Satan Tempts Jesus

12 [a]Immediately the Spirit [1]drove Him into the wilderness.
13 And He was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan, and was with the wild beasts; [a]and the angels ministered to Him.

Jesus Begins His Galilean Ministry

14 [a]Now after John was put in prison, Jesus came to Galilee, [b]preaching the gospel [1]of the kingdom of God,
15 and saying, [a]"The time is fulfilled, and [b]the kingdom of God [1]is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel."

Four Fishermen Called as Disciples

16 [a]And as He walked by the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen.
17 Then Jesus said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make you become [a]fishers of men."
18 [a]They immediately left their nets and followed Him.
19 When He had gone a little farther from there, He saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the boat mending their nets.
20 And immediately He called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and went after Him.

Jesus Casts Out an Unclean Spirit

21 [a]Then they went into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbath He entered the [b]synagogue and taught.
22 [a]And they were astonished at His teaching, for He taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.
23 Now there was a man in their synagogue with an [a]unclean spirit. And he cried out,
24 saying, "Let us alone! [a]What have we to do with You, Jesus of Nazareth? Did You come to destroy us? I [b]know who You are—the [c]Holy One of God!"
25 But Jesus [a]rebuked him, saying, [1]"Be quiet, and come out of him!"
26 And when the unclean spirit [a]had convulsed him and cried out with a loud voice, he came out of him.
27 Then they were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying, [1]"What is this? What new [2]doctrine is this? For with authority He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey Him."
28 And immediately His [a]fame spread throughout all the region around Galilee.

Peter's Mother-in-Law Healed

29 [a]Now as soon as they had come out of the synagogue, they entered the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.
30 But Simon's wife's mother lay sick with a fever, and they told Him about her at once.
31 So He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up, and immediately the fever left her. And she served them.

Many Healed After Sabbath Sunset

32 [a]At evening, when the sun had set, they brought to Him all who were sick and those who were demon-possessed.
33 And the whole city was gathered together at the door.
34 Then He healed many who were sick with various diseases, and [a]cast out many demons; and He [b]did not allow the demons to speak, because they knew Him.

Preaching in Galilee

35 Now [a]in the morning, having risen a long while before daylight, He went out and departed to a [1]solitary place; and there He [b]prayed.
36 And Simon and those who were with Him searched for Him.
37 When they found Him, they said to Him, [a]"Everyone [b]is looking for You."
38 But He said to them, [a]"Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also, because [b]for this purpose I have come forth."
39 [a]And He was preaching in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and [b]casting out demons.

ENCOUNTER Note Mark 1:27

With Authority

Jesus' words do not simply encourage your heart or brighten your day. They have the power to set you free.

1:15 Two words summarized the essence of Jesus' message: repent and believe.

1:16 Simon and Andrew had apparently been disciples of John the Baptist before they began following Jesus (John 1:35–42). The Sea of Galilee was 13 miles long by up to 8 miles wide and teemed with fish.

1:32 The Sabbath was officially over after sunset.

1:35 The tense of the verb for "prayed" implies continuous action. Jesus did not simply "say a prayer." He earnestly communed with His Father.

ENCOUNTER Note Mark 1:37

God's Agenda

People do not determine the agenda for our lives, God does. People have needs and we have a responsibility to respond as God directs. Prayer allows us to discern God's will and to avoid distractions that divert us from God's activity.

ing to Him, "If You are willing, You can make me clean."
41 Then Jesus, moved with [a]compassion, stretched out His hand and touched him, and said to him, "I am willing; be cleansed."
42 As soon as He had spoken, [a]immediately the leprosy left him, and he was cleansed.
43 And He strictly warned him and sent him away at once,
44 and said to him, "See that you say nothing to anyone; but go your way, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing those things [a]which Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."
45 [a]However, he went out and began to proclaim it freely, and to spread the matter, so that Jesus could no longer openly enter the city, but was outside in deserted places; [b]and they came to Him from every direction.

Jesus Forgives and Heals a Paralytic

2 And again [a]He entered Capernaum after some days, and it was heard that He was in the house.
2 [1]Immediately many gathered together, so that there was no longer room to receive them, not even near the door. And He preached the word to them.
3 Then they came to Him, bringing a [a]paralytic who was carried by four men.
4 And when they could not come near Him because of the crowd, they uncovered the roof where He was. So when they had broken through, they let down the bed on which the paralytic was lying.
5 When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven you."

Faith in Action

The kind of faith God honors is not a possession but an action. A living faith, one that is put into practice daily, moves God to action.

WORD Study SCRIBE

Mark 2:6 The word for "scribe" signified someone who would write, order, or count. Scribes were students of the law and served as both legal advisors and teachers. They exercised great influence in their communities. There is only one favorable reference to a scribe in Mark (12:28–34).

6 And some of the scribes were sitting there and reasoning in their hearts,
7 "Why does this Man speak blasphemies like this? [a]Who can forgive sins but God alone?"
8 But immediately, when Jesus perceived in His spirit that they reasoned thus within themselves, He said to them, "Why do you reason about these things in your hearts?
9 [a]"Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Arise, take up your bed and walk'?
10 "But that you may know that the Son of Man has [1]power on earth to forgive sins"—He said to the paralytic,
11 "I say to you, arise, take up your bed, and go to your house."
12 Immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went out in the presence of them all, so that all were amazed and [a]glorified God, saying, "We never saw anything like this!"

Matthew the Tax Collector

13 [a]Then He went out again by the sea; and all the multitude came to Him, and He taught them.
14 [a]As He passed by, He saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax office. And He said to him, [b]"Follow Me." So he arose and [c]followed Him.
15 [a]Now it happened, as He was dining in Levi's house, that many tax collectors

1:41 The fact that Jesus "touched" the leper is significant. This was not necessary for Jesus to perform a miracle. However, being touched was extremely meaningful to a person with leprosy. Jesus personalized His encounters with people to meet their deepest needs.

1:42 In the entire Old Testament, only two lepers were reportedly healed (Num. 12:10–15; 2 Kin. 5:1–14).

2:1 Capernaum, meaning "village of Nahum," was northwest of the Sea of Tiberius in the region called Gennesaret. It was the site of a customs station and the residence of a high officer of the king. A Roman detachment was stationed there. It was probably the hometown of Peter, Andrew, James, John, and Matthew.

2:13 These verbs are in the continuous tense meaning the people "kept on coming" and Jesus "kept on teaching."

2:14 Levi means "joined." He was also known as Matthew (Matt. 9:9; 10:3).

and sinners also sat together with Jesus and His disciples; for there were many, and they followed Him.
16 And when the scribes [1]and Pharisees saw Him eating with the tax collectors and sinners, they said to His disciples, "How is it that He eats and drinks with tax collectors and sinners?"
17 When Jesus heard it, He said to them, [a]"Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners, [1]to repentance."

Jesus Is Questioned About Fasting

18 [a]The disciples of John and of the Pharisees were fasting. Then they came and said to Him, "Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but Your disciples do not fast?"
19 And Jesus said to them, "Can the [1]friends of the bridegroom fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them they cannot fast.
20 "But the days will come when the bridegroom will be [a]taken away from them, and then they will fast in those days.
21 "No one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; or else the new piece pulls away from the old, and the tear is made worse.
22 "And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; or else the new wine bursts the wineskins, the wine is spilled, and the wineskins are ruined. But new wine must be put into new wineskins."

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath

23 [a]Now it happened that He went through the grainfields on the Sabbath; and as they went His disciples began [b]to pluck the heads of grain.
24 And the Pharisees said to Him, "Look, why do they do what is [a]not lawful on the Sabbath?"
25 But He said to them, "Have you never read [a]what David did when he was in need and hungry, he and those with him:
26 "how he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and ate the showbread, [a]which is not lawful to eat except for the priests, and also gave some to those who were with him?"

Healing on the Sabbath

3 And [a]He entered the synagogue again, and a man was there who had a withered hand.
2 So they [a]watched Him closely, whether He would [b]heal him on the Sabbath, so that they might [1]accuse Him.
3 And He said to the man who had the withered hand, [1]"Step forward."
4 Then He said to them, "Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save life or to kill?" But they kept silent.
5 And when He had looked around at them with anger, being grieved by the [a]hardness of their hearts, He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored [1]as whole as the other.
6 [a]Then the Pharisees went out and immediately plotted with [b]the Herodians against Him, how they might destroy Him.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Mark 3:6

Rejecting a Miracle

Why would anyone refuse to believe after seeing God perform a mighty miracle? To some people, God's existence and His power are more threat than blessing.

A Great Multitude Follows Jesus

7 But Jesus withdrew with His disciples to the sea. And a great multitude from Galilee followed Him, [a]and from Judea
8 and Jerusalem and Idumea and beyond the Jordan; and those from Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they heard how [a]many things He was doing, came to Him.
9 So He told His disciples that a small boat should be kept ready for Him because of the multitude, lest they should crush Him.
10 For He healed [a]many, so that as many as had afflictions pressed about Him to [b]touch Him.

2:16 The word for "Pharisee" indicated someone separated unto God. Pharisees were known for their strict adherence to the law. In New Testament times they formed an influential bloc on the Sanhedrin. Jesus often criticized their self-righteousness and pride.

2:18 The Pharisees regularly fasted on Mondays and Thursdays.

2:23 The Jewish religious officials identified thirty nine different categories of work that were forbidden on the Sabbath. Reaping was the third category listed.

3:6 The Herodians were a Jewish political party sympathetic to the Herods as rulers. Although usually antagonistic to Pharisees, they plotted together on several occasions to destroy Jesus (Matt. 22:16; Mark 12:13).

3:8 Idumea was the territory of ancient Edom and the birthplace of Herod the Great.

11 [a]And the unclean spirits, whenever they saw Him, fell down before Him and cried out, saying, [b]"You are the Son of God."
12 But [a]He sternly warned them that they should not make Him known.

The Twelve Apostles

13 [a]And He went up on the mountain and called to Him those He Himself wanted. And they came to Him.
14 Then He appointed twelve, [1]that they might be with Him and that He might send them out to preach,
15 and to have [1]power [2]to heal sicknesses and to cast out demons:

ENCOUNTER*Note* Mark 3:14, 15

Staying and Going

Jesus' call is twofold. He wants us to spend time with Him developing an intimate relationship. He also wants us to venture out to spread His truth. Both are important. The power to go comes from having first spent time with Him.

16 [1]Simon, [a]to whom He gave the name Peter;
17 James the son of Zebedee and John the brother of James, to whom He gave the name Boanerges, that is, "Sons of Thunder";
18 Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Mat thew, Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Cananite;
19 and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed Him. And they went into a house.

A House Divided Cannot Stand

20 Then the multitude came together again, [a]so that they could not so much as eat bread.
21 But when His [a]own people heard about this, they went out to lay hold of Him, [b]for they said, "He is out of His mind."
22 And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, [a]"He has Beelzebub," and, "By the [b]ruler of the demons He casts out demons."
23 [a]So He called them to Himself and said to them in parables: "How can Satan cast out Satan?
24 "If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.
25 "And if a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand.
26 "And if Satan has risen up against himself, and is divided, he cannot stand, but has an end.
27 [a]"No one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man. And then he will plunder his house.

The Unpardonable Sin

28 [a]"Assuredly, I say to you, all sins will be forgiven the sons of men, and whatever blasphemies they may utter;
29 "but he who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is subject to eternal condemnation"—
30 because they [a]said, "He has an unclean spirit."

Jesus' Mother and Brothers Send for Him

31 [a]Then His brothers and His mother came, and standing outside they sent to Him, calling Him.
32 And a multitude was sitting around Him; and they said to Him, "Look, Your mother and Your brothers [1]are outside seeking You."
33 But He answered them, saying, "Who is My mother, or My brothers?"
34 And He looked around in a circle at those who sat about Him, and said, "Here are My mother and My brothers!
35 "For whoever does the [a]will of God is My brother and My sister and mother."

The Parable of the Sower

4 And [a]again He began to teach by the sea. And a great multitude was gathered to Him, so that He got into a boat and sat in it on the sea; and the whole multitude was on the land facing the sea.
2 Then He taught them many things by parables, [a]and said to them in His teaching:
3 "Listen! Behold, a sower went out to sow.
4 "And it happened, as he sowed, that some seed fell by the wayside; and the birds [1]of the air came and devoured it.
5 "Some fell on stony ground, where it did not have much earth; and immediately it sprang up because it had no depth of earth.

3:28 "Assuredly" is literally "amen."

4:1 The "sea," is called the Sea of Tiberias. It was also known as the Sea of Galilee and Gennesaret. In the Old Testament it was called the Sea of Chinnereth or Chinneroth. This lake is 13 miles long and up to 8 miles wide. Its surface is 682 feet below the level of the Mediterranean. Its depth varies from 80 to 160 feet.

6 "But when the sun was up it was withered away.

you understand all the parables?

4:9 Jesus recognized that people could not understand His message unless His Father opened their spiritual eyes and ears to perceive the truth of what He was teaching.

Mark 4:1 Places of Jesus' Galilean Ministry

14 [a]"The sower sows the word.
15 "And these are the ones by the wayside where the word is sown. When they hear, Satan comes immediately and takes away the word that was sown in their hearts.
16 "These likewise are the ones sown on stony ground who, when they hear the word, immediately receive it with gladness;
17 "and they have no root in themselves, and so endure only for a time. Afterward, when tribulation or persecution arises for the word's sake, immediately they stumble.
18 "Now these are the ones sown among thorns; they are the ones who hear the word, 19 "and the [a]cares of this world, [b]the deceitfulness of riches, and the desires for other things entering in choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.
20 "But these are the ones sown on good ground, those who hear the word, [1]accept it, and bear [a]fruit: some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some a hundred."

Light Under a Basket

21 [a]Also He said to them, "Is a lamp brought to be put under a basket or under a bed? Is it not to be set on a lampstand?
22 [a]"For there is nothing hidden which will not be revealed, nor has anything been kept secret but that it should come to light.
23 [a]"If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear."
24 Then He said to them, "Take heed what you hear. [a]With the same measure you use, it will be measured to you; and to you who hear, more will be given.
25 [a]"For whoever has, to him more will be given; but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him."

The Parable of the Growing Seed

26 And He said, [a]"The kingdom of God is as if a man should [1]scatter seed on the ground, 27 "and should sleep by night and rise by day, and the seed should sprout and [a]grow, he himself does not know how.
28 "For the earth [a]yields crops by itself: first the blade, then the head, after that the full grain in the head.

The Kingdom of God

God's kingdom does not expand by our strength and wisdom. It grows because God's Spirit works in people's hearts. Our efforts to enlarge the kingdom are in vain without the empowering presence of God to lead and to guide us.

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

30 Then He said, [a]"To what shall we liken the kingdom of God? Or with what parable shall we picture it?
31 "It is like a mustard seed which, when it is sown on the ground, is smaller than all the seeds on earth;
32 "but when it is sown, it grows up and becomes greater than all herbs, and shoots out large branches, so that the birds of the air may nest under its shade."

Jesus' Use of Parables

33 [a]And with many such parables He spoke the word to them as they were able to hear it.
34 But without a parable He did not speak to them. And when they were alone, [a]He explained all things to His disciples.

Wind and Wave Obey Jesus

35 [a]On the same day, when evening had come, He said to them, "Let us cross over to the other side."
36 Now when they had left the multitude, they took Him along in the boat as He was. And other little boats were also with Him.
37 And a great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that it was already filling.
38 But He was in the stern, asleep on a pillow. And they awoke Him and said to Him, [a]"Teacher, [b]do You not care that we are perishing?"
39 Then He arose and [a]rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, [b]"Peace,[1] be still!" And the wind ceased and there was a great calm.
40 But He said to them, "Why are you so fearful? [a]How[1] is it that you have no faith?"
41 And they feared exceedingly, and said to one another, "Who can this be, that even the wind and the sea obey Him!"

4:21 A lamp was a small clay vessel with a wick protruding from olive oil within.

4:37 The Sea of Galilee lay seven hundred feet below sea level with bordering mountains that rose several thousand feet high. Cool winds from the mountain peaks would sweep down on to the sea stirring up strong, violent winds.

4:40 Jesus often rebuked the sin of unbelief (Mark 7:18; 8:17, 21, 32; 9:19).

ENCOUNTER Note Mark 4:39

Peace, Be Still

We are limited by physical constraints and nature's laws, but God is not. What are obstacles to us are thoroughfares to God. The key is trusting God in spite of what our senses tell us.

A Demon-Possessed Man Healed

5 Then [a]they came to the other side of the sea, to the country of the [1]Gadarenes.
2 And when He had come out of the boat, immediately there met Him out of the tombs a man with an [a]unclean spirit,
3 who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no one could bind [1]him, not even with chains,
4 because he had often been bound with shackles and chains. And the chains had been pulled apart by him, and the shackles broken in pieces; neither could anyone tame him.
5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains and in the tombs, crying out and cutting himself with stones.
6 When he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and worshiped Him.
7 And he cried out with a loud voice and said, "What have I to do with You, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I [a]implore[1] You by God that You do not torment me."
8 For He said to him, [a]"Come out of the man, unclean spirit!"
9 Then He asked him, "What is your name?" And he answered, saying, "My name is Legion; for we are many."
10 Also he begged Him earnestly that He would not send them out of the country.
11 Now a large herd of [a]swine was feeding there near the mountains.
12 So all the demons begged Him, saying, "Send us to the swine, that we may enter them."
13 And [1]at once Jesus gave them permission. Then the unclean spirits went out and entered the swine (there were about two thousand); and the herd ran violently down the steep place into the sea, and drowned in the sea.
14 So those who fed the swine fled, and they told it in the city and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that had happened.
15 Then they came to Jesus, and saw the one who had been [a]demon-possessed and had the legion, [b]sitting and [c]clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid.
16 And those who saw it told them how it happened to him who had been demon-possessed, and about the swine.
17 Then [a]they began to plead with Him to depart from their region.
18 And when He got into the boat, [a]he who had been demon-possessed begged Him that he might be with Him.
19 However, Jesus did not permit him, but said to him, "Go home to your friends, and tell them what great things the Lord has done for you, and how He has had compassion on you."

Called to Stay

Because Jesus is Lord, He has the right to send us to the ends of the earth. However, He knows our most challenging and rewarding mission field may be the place we live.

20 And he departed and began to [a]proclaim in [1]Decapolis all that Jesus had done for him; and all [b]marveled.

A Girl Restored to Life and a Woman Healed

21 [a]Now when Jesus had crossed over again by boat to the other side, a great multitude gathered to Him; and He was by the sea.
22 [a]And behold, one of the rulers of the synagogue came, Jairus by name. And when he saw Him, he fell at His feet
23 and begged Him earnestly, saying, "My little daughter lies at the point of death. Come and [a]lay Your hands on her, that she may be healed, and she will live."
24 So Jesus went with him, and a great multitude followed Him and thronged Him.
25 Now a certain woman [a]had a flow of blood for twelve years,

5:1 The city of Gadara was located six miles southeast of the Sea of Galilee but its region reached the eastern seashore.

5:3 The Jewish Talmud identified four signs of madness: walking about at night, spending the night among tombs, tearing one's clothes, and destroying what was given to you.

5:8 Note that Jesus did not command the evil spirits to go into the pigs, he only commanded them to come out of the man.

5:14 Biblical law prohibited Jews from coming in contact with swine (Lev. 11:7, 8). If the owners were not Gentiles, perhaps this could have been an act of God's judgment.

5:20 The Decapolis was a league of ten cities situated in a district to the east of the Sea of Galilee.

5:25 This woman had a blood disorder possibly related to a menstrual condition. This made her ritually unclean, and she would be forbidden to touch anyone (Lev. 15:25–33).

26 and had suffered many things from many physicians. She had spent all that she had and was no better, but rather grew worse.
27 When she heard about Jesus, she came behind Him in the crowd and [a]touched His garment.
28 For she said, "If only I may touch His clothes, I shall be made well."
29 Immediately the fountain of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of the [1]affliction.
30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in Himself that [a]power had gone out of Him, turned around in the crowd and said, "Who touched My clothes?"
31 But His disciples said to Him, "You see the multitude thronging You, and You say, 'Who touched Me?' "
32 And He looked around to see her who had done this thing.
33 But the woman, [a]fearing and trembling, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him and told Him the whole truth.
34 And He said to her, "Daughter, [a]your faith has made you well. [b]Go in peace, and be healed of your affliction."
35 [a]While He was still speaking, some came from the ruler of the synagogue's house who said, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the Teacher any further?"
36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, He said to the ruler of the synagogue, "Do not be afraid; only [a]believe."

Do Not Fear

God may test our faith by allowing obstacles to come between our prayers and the answer. The test is overcome when we believe God's word is true regardless of the circumstances and the conditions. Then He will make the answer known.

37 And He permitted no one to follow Him except Peter, James, and John the brother of James.
38 Then He came to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and saw [1]a tumult and those who [a]wept and wailed loudly.
39 When He came in, He said to them,

"Why make this commotion and weep? The child is not dead, but [a]sleeping."
40 And they ridiculed Him. [a]But when He had put them all outside, He took the father and the mother of the child, and those who were with Him, and entered where the child was lying.
41 Then He took the child by the hand, and said to her, "Talitha, cumi," which is translated, "Little girl, I say to you, arise."
42 Immediately the girl arose and walked, for she was twelve years of age. And they were [a]overcome with great amazement.
43 But [a]He commanded them strictly that no one should know it, and said that something should be given her to eat.

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

6 Then [a]He went out from there and came to His own country, and His disciples followed Him.
2 And when the Sabbath had come, He began to teach in the synagogue. And many hearing Him were [a]astonished, saying, [b]"Where did this Man get these things? And what wisdom is this which is given to Him, that such mighty works are performed by His hands!
3 "Is this not the carpenter, the Son of Mary, and [a]brother of James, Joses, Judas, and Simon? And are not His sisters here with us?" So they [b]were offended at Him.
4 But Jesus said to them, [a]"A prophet is not without honor except in his own country, among his own relatives, and in his own house."
5 [a]Now He could do no mighty work there, except that He laid His hands on a few sick people and healed them.
6 And [a]He marveled because of their unbelief. [b]Then He went about the villages in a circuit, teaching.

ENCOUNTER Note — Mark 6:6

Unbelief

God's power is poured out in proportion to our faith. We should not expect huge miracles in response to a puny faith.

Sending Out the Twelve

7 [a]And He called the twelve to Himself, and began to send them out [b]two by two,

5:37 Jesus' "inner circle" of disciples included Peter, James, and John (Mark 9:2; 14:33).

5:38 Often professional mourners were hired to grieve the death of loved ones. The more prominent the person, the greater the number of mourners.

6:3 The absence of any mention of Joseph the husband of Mary may indicate he was no longer living.

and gave them power over unclean spirits.
8 He commanded them to take nothing for the journey except a staff—no bag, no bread, no copper in their money belts—
9 but [a]to wear sandals, and not to put on two tunics.
10 [a]Also He said to them, "In whatever place you enter a house, stay there till you depart from that place.
11 [a]"And [1]whoever will not receive you nor hear you, when you depart from there, [b]shake off the dust under your feet as a testimony against them. [2]Assuredly, I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city!"
12 So they went out and preached that people should repent.
13 And they cast out many demons, [a]and anointed with oil many who were sick, and healed them.

John the Baptist Beheaded

14 [a]Now King Herod heard of Him, for His name had become well known. And he said, "John the Baptist is risen from the dead, and therefore [b]these powers are at work in him."
15 [a]Others said, "It is Elijah." And others said, "It is [1]the Prophet, [b]or like one of the prophets."
16 [a]But when Herod heard, he said, "This is John, whom I beheaded; he has been raised from the dead!"
17 For Herod himself had sent and laid hold of John, and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife; for he had married her.
18 Because John had said to Herod, [a]"It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife."
19 Therefore Herodias [1]held it against him and wanted to kill him, but she could not;
20 for Herod [a]feared John, knowing that he was a just and holy man, and he protected him. And when he heard him, he [1]did many things, and heard him gladly.
21 [a]Then an opportune day came when Herod [b]on his birthday gave a feast for his nobles, the high officers, and the chief men of Galilee.
22 And when Herodias' daughter herself came in and danced, and pleased Herod and those who sat with him, the king said to the girl, "Ask me whatever you want, and I will give it to you."
23 He also swore to her, [a]"Whatever you ask me, I will give you, up to half my kingdom."
24 So she went out and said to her mother, "What shall I ask?" And she said, "The head of John the Baptist!"
25 Immediately she came in with haste to the king and asked, saying, "I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter."
26 [a]And the king was exceedingly sorry; yet, because of the oaths and because of those who sat with him, he did not want to refuse her.
27 Immediately the king sent an executioner and commanded his head to be brought. And he went and beheaded him in prison, 28 brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl; and the girl gave it to her mother.
29 When his disciples heard of it, they came and [a]took away his corpse and laid it in a tomb.

Feeding the Five Thousand

30 [a]Then the apostles gathered to Jesus and told Him all things, both what they had done and what they had taught.
31 [a]And He said to them, "Come aside by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." For [b]there were many coming and going, and they did not even have time to eat.
32 [a]So they departed to a deserted place in the boat by themselves.
33 But [1]the multitudes saw them departing, and many [a]knew Him and ran there on foot from all the cities. They arrived before them and came together to Him.
34 [a]And Jesus, when He came out, saw a great multitude and was moved with compassion for them, because they were like [b]sheep not having a shepherd. So [c]He began to teach them many things.
35 [a]When the day was now far spent, His disciples came to Him and said, "This is a deserted place, and already the hour is late.
36 "Send them away, that they may go into the surrounding country and villages and buy themselves [1]bread; for they have nothing to eat."
37 But He answered and said to them, "You give them something to eat." And they said to Him, [a]"Shall we go and buy

6:14 Herod Antipas, one of the three sons of Herod the Great and brother of Archelaus, ruled as tetrarch over Galilee and Perea (4 B.C.–A.D. 39).

6:19 Herodias was the daughter of Aristobulus, one of the sons of Mariamne and Herod the Great, and consequently, sister of Agrippa I. She married Herod Philip I, then she eloped to marry Herod Antipas her step-uncle, thus violating scriptural admonitions (Lev. 18:16, 20, 21).

38 But He said to them, "How many loaves do you have? Go and see." And when they found out they said, [a]"Five, and two fish."
39 Then He [a]commanded them to make them all sit down in groups on the green grass.
40 So they sat down in ranks, in hundreds and in fifties.
41 And when He had taken the five loaves and the two fish, He [a]looked up to heaven, [b]blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to His disciples to set before them; and the two fish He divided among them all.
42 So they all ate and were filled.
43 And they took up twelve baskets full of fragments and of the fish.
44 Now those who had eaten the loaves were [1]about five thousand men.

Jesus Walks on the Sea

45 [a]Immediately He [1]made His disciples get into the boat and go before Him to the other side, to Bethsaida, while He sent the multitude away.
46 And when He had sent them away, He [a]departed to the mountain to pray.
47 Now when evening came, the boat was in the middle of the sea; and He was alone on the land.
48 Then He saw them straining at rowing, for the wind was against them. Now about the fourth watch of the night He came to them, walking on the sea, and [a]would have passed them by.
49 And when they saw Him walking on the sea, they supposed it was a [a]ghost, and cried out;
50 for they all saw Him and were troubled. But immediately He talked with them and said to them, [a]"Be[1] of good cheer! It is I; do not be [b]afraid."
51 Then He went up into the boat to them, and the wind [a]ceased. And they were greatly [b]amazed in themselves beyond measure, and marveled.
52 For [a]they had not understood about the loaves, because their [b]heart was hardened.

ENCOUNTER Note — Mark 6:52

Understanding

Spiritual understanding comes from a tender heart entirely open to God.

54 And when they came out of the boat, immediately [1]the people recognized Him,
55 ran through that whole surrounding region, and began to carry about on beds those who were sick to wherever they heard He was.
56 Wherever He entered, into villages, cities, or the country, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged Him that [a]they might just touch the [b]hem of His garment. And as many as touched Him were made well.

Defilement Comes from Within

7 Then [a]the Pharisees and some of the scribes came together to Him, having come from Jerusalem.
2 Now [1]when they saw some of His disciples eat bread with defiled, that is, with [a]unwashed hands, [2]they found fault.
3 For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they wash their hands [1]in a special way, holding the [a]tradition of the elders.
4 When they come from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they wash. And there are many other things which they have received and hold, like the washing of cups, pitchers, copper vessels, and couches.
5 [a]Then the Pharisees and scribes asked Him, "Why do Your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands?"
6 He answered and said to them, "Well did Isaiah prophesy of you [a]hypocrites, as it is written:

> [b]'This people honors Me with their lips,
> But their heart is far from Me.
> 7 And in vain they worship Me,
> Teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.'

8 "For laying aside the commandment of God, you hold the tradition of men—

6:48 Fourth watch was 3:00 a.m.

6:53 The land of Gennesaret was northwest of Capernaum.

7:2 The Pharisees practiced the ritualistic, ceremonial washing of their hands up to the wrist (Ex. 30:19).

7:6 The term "hypocrite" was originally used to describe actors who used large masks to identify themselves with a character. Actors might use various masks throughout a play to assume the identity of several characters. Jesus charged the Pharisees with merely putting on a religious facade and pretending to be devout followers of God.

7:8 "The tradition of men" indicates that Jesus viewed the Pharisees' religious practices and customs as coming from them and not from God.

[1]the washing of pitchers and cups, and many other such things you do."
9 He said to them, "All too well [a]you [1]reject the commandment of God, that you may keep your tradition.
10 "For Moses said, [a]'Honor your father and your mother'; and, [b]'He who curses father or mother, let him be put to death.'
11 "But you say, 'If a man says to his father or mother, [a]"Whatever profit you might have received from me is Corban"—' (that is, a gift to God), 12 "then you no longer let him do anything for his father or his mother,
13 "making the word of God of no effect through your tradition which you have handed down. And many such things you do."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Mark 7:13

Of No Effect

God's word is clear and direct, yet we tend to complicate it by debating it or adding to it or being selective about what we believe. It is God's word that has power, not our interpretation of it.

14 [a]When He had called all the multitude to Himself, He said to them, "Hear Me, everyone, and [b]understand:
15 "There is nothing that enters a man from outside which can defile him; but the things which come out of him, those are the things that [a]defile a man.
16 [a]"If[1] anyone has ears to hear, let him hear!"
17 [a]When He had entered a house away from the crowd, His disciples asked Him concerning the parable.
18 So He said to them, [a]"Are you thus without understanding also? Do you not perceive that whatever enters a man from outside cannot defile him,
19 "because it does not enter his heart but his stomach, and is eliminated, [1]thus purifying all foods?"
20 And He said, [a]"What comes out of a man, that defiles a man.
21 [a]"For from within, out of the heart of men, [b]proceed evil thoughts, [c]adulteries, [d]fornications, murders, 22 "thefts, [a]covetousness, wickedness, [b]deceit, [c]lewdness, an evil eye, [d]blasphemy, [e]pride, foolishness.
23 "All these evil things come from within and defile a man."

24 [a]From there He arose and went to the region of Tyre [1]and Sidon. And He entered a house and wanted no one to know it, but He could not be [b]hidden.
25 For a woman whose young daughter had an unclean spirit heard about Him, and she came and [a]fell at His feet.
26 The woman was a [1]Greek, a [2]Syro-Phoenician by birth, and she kept [3]asking Him to cast the demon out of her daughter.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Mark 7:26

Persistence in Prayer

Persistent prayer indicates a genuine faith. God shows favor to those who pray until the answer comes, regardless of how long it takes.

27 But Jesus said to her, "Let the children be filled first, for it is not good to take the children's bread and throw it to the little dogs."
28 And she answered and said to Him, "Yes, Lord, yet even the little dogs under the table eat from the children's crumbs."
29 Then He said to her, "For this saying go your way; the demon has gone out of your daughter."
30 And when she had come to her house, she found the demon gone out, and her daughter lying on the bed.

Jesus Heals a Deaf-Mute

31 [a]Again, departing from the region of Tyre and Sidon, He came through the midst of the region of Decapolis to the Sea of Galilee.
32 Then [a]they brought to Him one who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech, and they begged Him to put His hand on him.
33 And He took him aside from the multitude, and put His fingers in his ears, and [a]He spat and touched his tongue.
34 Then, [a]looking up to heaven, [b]He sighed, and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened."
35 [a]Immediately his ears were opened, and the [1]impediment of his tongue was loosed, and he spoke plainly.
36 Then [a]He commanded them that they should tell no one; but the more He commanded them, the more widely they proclaimed it.

7:21 People spoke of the heart as the center of the will where decisions were made.

7:24 Sidon was fifty miles northwest of Capernaum and was the farthest distance Jesus is known to have traveled in His public ministry.

37 And they were [a]astonished beyond measure, saying, "He has done all things well. He [b]makes both the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."

Feeding the Four Thousand

8 In those days, [a]the multitude being very great and having nothing to eat, Jesus called His disciples to Him and said to them,
2 "I have [a]compassion on the multitude, because they have now continued with Me three days and have nothing to eat.
3 "And if I send them away hungry to their own houses, they will faint on the way; for some of them have come from afar."
4 Then His disciples answered Him, "How can one satisfy these people with bread here in the wilderness?"
5 [a]He asked them, "How many loaves do you have?" And they said, "Seven."
6 So He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground. And He took the seven loaves and gave thanks, broke them and gave them to His disciples to set before them; and they set them before the multitude.
7 They also had a few small fish; and [a]having blessed them, He said to set them also before them.
8 So they ate and were filled, and they took up seven large baskets of leftover fragments.
9 Now those who had eaten were about four thousand. And He sent them away,
10 [a]immediately got into the boat with His disciples, and came to the region of Dalmanutha.

The Pharisees Seek a Sign

11 [a]Then the Pharisees came out and began to dispute with Him, seeking from Him a sign from heaven, testing Him.
12 But He [a]sighed deeply in His spirit, and said, "Why does this generation seek a sign? Assuredly, I say to you, [b]no sign shall be given to this generation."

Beware of the Leaven of the Pharisees and Herod

13 And He left them, and getting into the boat again, departed to the other side.
14 [a]Now [1]the disciples had forgotten to take bread, and they did not have more than one loaf with them in the boat.

Processing God's Activity

God can surround our lives with miracles, but we must take time to process them to be prepared for His next work. God's activity is an expression of His character—it is not just for our benefit. Therefore we should always consider carefully what His work reveals to us.

19 [a]"When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments did you take up?" They said to Him, "Twelve."
20 "Also, [a]when I broke the seven for the four thousand, how many large baskets full of fragments did you take up?" And they said, "Seven."
21 So He said to them, "How is it [a]you do not understand?"

A Blind Man Healed at Bethsaida

22 Then He came to Bethsaida; and they brought a [a]blind man to Him, and begged Him to [b]touch him.
23 So He took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the town. And when [a]He had spit on his eyes and put His hands on him, He asked him if he saw anything.
24 And he looked up and said, "I see men like trees, walking."
25 Then He put His hands on his eyes again and made him look up. And he was restored and saw everyone clearly.
26 Then He sent him away to his house, saying, [1]"Neither go into the town, [a]nor tell anyone in the town."

8:8 The seven baskets used to gather the leftover fragments appear to have been much larger than the twelve used after the feeding of the 5,000.

8:10 Dalmanutha and Magdala were in the same region on the west side of the Sea of Galilee.

8:15 Leaven was a common metaphor for an invisible, pervasive influence that ultimately affects everything around it. The effect can be either good or evil.

8:22 Bethsaida was a city in northeast Galilee near the Jordan River and is distinct from the Bethsaida native to Andrew, Peter, and Philip in the land of Gennesaret, on the west side of the Sea of Galilee.

Peter Confesses Jesus as the Christ

27 [a]Now Jesus and His disciples went out to the towns of Caesarea Philippi; and on the road He asked His disciples, saying to them, "Who do men say that I am?"
28 So they answered, [a]"John the Baptist; but some say, [b]Elijah; and others, one of the prophets."
29 He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter answered and said to Him, [a]"You are the Christ."
30 [a]Then He strictly warned them that they should tell no one about Him.

Jesus Predicts His Death and Resurrection

31 And [a]He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things, and be [b]rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be [c]killed, and after three days rise again.
32 He spoke this word openly. Then Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him.
33 But when He had turned around and looked at His disciples, He [a]rebuked Peter, saying, "Get behind Me, Satan! For you are not [1]mindful of the things of God, but the things of men."

Take Up the Cross and Follow Him

34 When He had called the people to Himself, with His disciples also, He said to them, [a]"Whoever desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me.
35 "For [a]whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake and the gospel's will save it.

ENCOUNTER Note — Mark 8:34, 35

Deny Self

You cannot follow Jesus if you have not first taken up your cross and given up your right to your life. You will never be able to take up your cross if you remain self-centered rather than God-centered.

9 And He said to them, [a]"Assuredly, I say to you that there are some standing here who will not taste death till they see [b]the kingdom of God [1]present with power."

Jesus Transfigured on the Mount

2 [a]Now after six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John, and led them up on a high mountain apart by themselves; and He was transfigured before them.
3 His clothes became shining, exceedingly [a]white, like snow, such as no launderer on earth can whiten them.

ENCOUNTER Note — Mark 9:3

God's Nature Revealed

When God chooses to reveal His nature, there can be no doubt that He is God. His revelation is also a clear reminder that we are but mortals.

4 And Elijah appeared to them with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus.
5 Then Peter answered and said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; and let us make three tabernacles: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah"—
6 because he did not know what to say, for they were greatly afraid.
7 And a [a]cloud came and overshadowed them; and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is [b]My beloved Son. [c]Hear Him!"
8 Suddenly, when they had looked around, they saw no one anymore, but only Jesus with themselves.

8:27 Caesarea Philippi was a city in northern Palestine located at the southwest base of Mount Hermon in the area where Jesus may have been transfigured. It was twenty-five miles northeast of Bethsaida. Herod Philip had built it in 3 B.C. in honor of Caesar. The region at the base of Mount Hermon was cluttered with idols and images carved into the rock. Surrounded by idolatry and Caesar worship, this was an ideal place for Jesus to question the view His disciples had of Him.

8:29 "Christ" means "anointed." It comes from the Greek equivalent of the Hebrew word translated "Messiah." It occurs 514 times in the New Testament.

8:31 Immediately after the disciples affirmed Jesus was the Christ, Jesus began teaching them about the cross.

8:33 Throughout Jesus' ministry, Satan tried to tempt Him to avoid the cross (Matt. 4:9, 10; Luke 4:7, 8).

8:34 The image is of a condemned man carrying his cross through the town streets to the place of his execution. Often a placard would be posted on the man signifying the crime for which he was dying.

9:2 Most scholars believe this to be around either Mount Hermon or Mount Tabor.

9:4 Elijah represented the prophets. Moses represented the law. Both experienced mysterious deaths.

WORD Study TABERNACLE

Mark 9:5 "Tabernacle" translates the Greek word skene, meaning a house or hut. It was often portable, such as a tent. When housing an idol or a sacred object it would serve as a shrine.

ENCOUNTER Note Mark 9:7

Hear Him!

We cannot hear Christ's words when we are constantly talking. When we are in God's presence, it is far more important for us to listen than to instruct God on what we think He should do.

9 [a]Now as they came down from the mountain, He commanded them that they should tell no one the things they had seen, till the Son of Man had risen from the dead.
10 So they kept this word to themselves, questioning [a]what the rising from the dead meant.
11 And they asked Him, saying, "Why do the scribes say [a]that Elijah must come first?"
12 Then He answered and told them, "Indeed, Elijah is coming first and restores all things. And [a]how is it written concerning the Son of Man, that He must suffer many things and [b]be treated with contempt?
13 "But I say to you that [a]Elijah has also come, and they did to him whatever they wished, as it is written of him."

A Boy Is Healed

14 [a]And when He came to the disciples, He saw a great multitude around them, and scribes disputing with them.
15 Immediately, when they saw Him, all the people were greatly amazed, and running to Him, greeted Him.
16 And He asked the scribes, "What are you discussing with them?"
17 Then [a]one of the crowd answered and said, "Teacher, I brought You my son, who has a mute spirit.
18 "And wherever it seizes him, it throws him down; he foams at the mouth, gnashes his teeth, and becomes rigid. So I spoke to Your disciples, that they should cast it out, but they could not."
19 He answered him and said, "O [a]faithless[1] generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I [2]bear with you? Bring him to Me."

20 Then they brought him to Him. And [a]when he saw Him, immediately the spirit convulsed him, and he fell on the ground and wallowed, foaming at the mouth.
21 So He asked his father, "How long has this been happening to him?" And he said, "From childhood.
22 "And often he has thrown him both into the fire and into the water to destroy him. But if You can do anything, have compassion on us and help us."
23 Jesus said to him, [a]"If[1] you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes."
24 Immediately the father of the child cried out and said with tears, "Lord, I believe; [a]help my unbelief!"

ENCOUNTER Note Mark 9:24

Unbelief

Where should we go when we have doubts? To Christ. He alone can help our unbelief and strengthen our faith.

25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, He [a]rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it: "Deaf and dumb spirit, I command you, come out of him and enter him no more!"
26 Then the spirit cried out, convulsed him greatly, and came out of him. And he became as one dead, so that many said, "He is dead."
27 But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he arose.
28 [a]And when He had come into the house, His disciples asked Him privately, "Why could we not cast it out?"
29 So He said to them, "This kind can come out by nothing but [a]prayer [1]and fasting."

Jesus Again Predicts His Death and Resurrection

30 Then they departed from there and passed through Galilee, and He did not want anyone to know it.
31 [a]For He taught His disciples and said to them, "The Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of men, and they will [b]kill Him. And after He is killed, He will [c]rise the third day."
32 But they [a]did not understand this saying, and were afraid to ask Him.

them, "What was it you [1]disputed among yourselves on the road?"
34 But they kept silent, for on the road they had [a]disputed among themselves who would be the [b]greatest.
35 And He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, [a]"If anyone desires to be first, he shall be last of all and servant of all."
36 Then [a]He took a little child and set him in the midst of them. And when He had taken him in His arms, He said to them,
37 "Whoever receives one of these little children in My name receives Me; and [a]whoever receives Me, receives not Me but Him who sent Me."

Jesus Forbids Sectarianism

38 [a]Now John answered Him, saying, "Teacher, we saw someone who does not follow us casting out demons in Your name, and we forbade him because he does not follow us."
39 But Jesus said, "Do not forbid him, [a]for no one who works a miracle in My name can soon afterward speak evil of Me.

Radical Response

It is a grave error to treat our sin lightly. God knows how lethal sin is, and He commands us to eradicate it immediately, thoroughly, and irrevocably.

47 "And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye, rather than having two eyes, to be cast into [1]hell fire—48 "where

[a]'Their worm does not die,

Tasteless Salt Is Worthless

49 "For everyone will be [a]seasoned with fire, [b]and[1] every sacrifice will be seasoned with salt.
50 [a]"Salt is good, but if the salt loses its flavor, how will you season it? [b]Have salt in yourselves, and [c]have peace with one another."

Marriage and Divorce

10 Then [a]He arose from there and came to the region of Judea by the other side of the Jordan. And multitudes gathered to Him again, and as He was accustomed, He taught them again.
2 [a]The Pharisees came and asked Him, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?" testing Him.
3 And He answered and said to them, "What did Moses command you?"
4 They said, [a]"Moses permitted a man to write a certificate of divorce, and to dismiss her."
5 And Jesus answered and said to them, "Because of the hardness of your heart he wrote you this [1]precept.
6 "But from the beginning of the creation, God [a]'made them male and female.'
7 [a]'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife,
8 'and the two shall become one flesh'; so then they are no longer two, but one flesh.
9 "Therefore what God has joined together, let not man separate."
10 In the house His disciples also asked Him again about the same matter.
11 So He said to them, [a]"Whoever di-

9:42 A millstone was an extremely heavy, round stone, perhaps three to four feet in diameter, used for grinding grain.

9:49 Old Testament sacrifices would be offered with salt (Lev. 2:13; Ezek. 43:24).

10:1 This marks the beginning of Jesus' journey toward Jerusalem and the cross.

10:2 This question concerning divorce was devised as a trap. Herod Antipas had divorced his wife to marry Herodias. John the Baptist had been beheaded for publicly condemning his marital status. Deuteronomy 24:1–4 allowed for divorce under certain circumstances.

vorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her.
12 "And if a woman divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery."

Jesus Blesses Little Children

13 [a]Then they brought little children to Him, that He might touch them; but the disciples rebuked those who brought them.
14 But when Jesus saw it, He was greatly displeased and said to them, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for [a]of such is the kingdom of God.
15 "Assuredly, I say to you, [a]whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will [b]by no means enter it."
16 And He took them up in His arms, laid His hands on them, and blessed them.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Mark 10:15, 16

Humility

You cannot enter God's kingdom without humility. Even the wealthiest, most powerful person must come to Christ humbly and submissively.

Jesus Counsels the Rich Young Ruler

17 [a]Now as He was going out on the road, one came running, knelt before Him, and asked Him, "Good Teacher, what shall I [b]do that I may inherit eternal life?"
18 So Jesus said to him, "Why do you call Me good? No one is good but One, that is, [a]God.
19 "You know the commandments: [a]'Do not commit adultery,' 'Do not murder,' 'Do not steal,' 'Do not bear false witness,' 'Do not defraud,' 'Honor your father and your mother.' "
20 And he answered and said to Him, "Teacher, all these things I have [a]kept from my youth."
21 Then Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, "One thing you lack: Go your way, [a]sell whatever you have and give to the poor, and you will have [b]treasure in heaven; and come, [c]take up the cross, and follow Me."
22 But he was sad at this word, and went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions.

With God All Things Are Possible

23 [a]Then Jesus looked around and said to His disciples, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!"
24 And the disciples were astonished at His words. But Jesus answered again and said to them, "Children, how hard it is [1]for those [a]who trust in riches to enter the kingdom of God!
25 "It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a [a]rich man to enter the kingdom of God."
26 And they were greatly astonished, saying among themselves, "Who then can be saved?"
27 But Jesus looked at them and said, "With men it is impossible, but not [a]with God; for with God all things are possible."
28 [a]Then Peter began to say to Him, "See, we have left all and followed You."
29 So Jesus answered and said, "Assuredly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or father or mother [1]or wife or children or [2]lands, for My sake and the gospel's, 30 [a]"who shall not receive a hundredfold now in this time—houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with [b]persecutions—and in the age to come, eternal life.
31 [a]"But many who are first will be last, and the last first."

Jesus a Third Time Predicts His Death and Resurrection

32 [a]Now they were on the road, going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was going before them; and they were amazed. And as they followed they were afraid. [b]Then He took the twelve aside again and began to tell them the things that would happen to Him:
33 "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and to the scribes; and they will condemn Him to death and deliver Him to the Gentiles;
34 "and they will mock Him, and [1]scourge Him, and spit on Him, and kill Him. And the third day He will rise again."

One Thing Lacking

Some people desire an intimate walk with Christ, but something prevents them from following him wholeheartedly. Whatever prevents you from following Jesus is not worth holding onto. How tragic to almost be a committed follower of Jesus!

Greatness Is Serving

35 [a]Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Him, saying, "Teacher, we want You to do for us whatever we ask."
36 And He said to them, "What do you want Me to do for you?"
37 They said to Him, "Grant us that we may sit, one on Your right hand and the other on Your left, in Your glory."
38 But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink the [a]cup that I drink, and be baptized with the [b]baptism that I am baptized with?"
39 They said to Him, "We are able." So Jesus said to them, [a]"You will indeed drink the cup that I drink, and with the baptism I am baptized with you will be baptized;
40 "but to sit on My right hand and on My left is not Mine to give, but it is for those [a]for whom it is prepared."
41 [a]And when the ten heard it, they began to be greatly displeased with James and John.
42 But Jesus called them to Himself and said to them, [a]"You know that those who are considered rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them.
43 [a]"Yet it shall not be so among you; but whoever desires to become great among you shall be your servant.
44 "And whoever of you desires to be first shall be slave of all.
45 "For even [a]the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and [b]to give His life a ransom for many."

ENCOUNTER Note Mark 10:45

Greatness in God's Eyes

Jesus set the standard for every Christian. If anyone deserved to be served, Jesus did. Yet He laid down His life, and He asks us to do the same.

Jesus Heals Blind Bartimaeus

46 [a]Now they came to Jericho. As He went out of Jericho with His disciples and a great multitude, blind Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, sat by the road begging.
47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, [a]Son of David, [b]have mercy on me!"
48 Then many warned him to be quiet; but he cried out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"
49 So Jesus stood still and commanded him to be called. Then they called the blind man, saying to him, "Be of good cheer. Rise, He is calling you."
50 And throwing aside his garment, he rose and came to Jesus.
51 So Jesus answered and said to him, "What do you want Me to do for you?" The blind man said to Him, [1]"Rabboni, that I may receive my sight."
52 Then Jesus said to him, "Go your way; [a]your faith has [1]made you well." And immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus on the road.

The Triumphal Entry

11 Now [a]when they drew near Jerusalem, to [1]Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, He sent two of His disciples;
2 and He said to them, "Go into the village opposite you; and as soon as you have entered it you will find a colt tied, on which no one has sat. Loose it and bring it.
3 "And if anyone says to you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord has need of it,' and immediately he will send it here."
4 So they went their way, and found [1]the colt tied by the door outside on the street, and they loosed it.
5 But some of those who stood there said to them, "What are you doing, loosing the colt?"
6 And they spoke to them just as Jesus had commanded. So they let them go.
7 [a]Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their clothes on it, and He sat on it.
8 [a]And many spread their clothes on the road, and others cut down leafy branches from the trees and spread them on the road.
9 Then those who went before and those who followed cried out, saying:

"Hosanna!
[a]'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD*!'*
10 Blessed is the kingdom of our father David
That comes [1]in the name of the Lord!

10:35 Matthew indicates it was James and John's mother who asked on behalf of her sons (Matt. 20:20).

10:39 James would soon share the same cup as his Lord, being beheaded by Herod (Acts 12:1, 2).

10:51 "Rabboni" means "teacher" or "master." It is the greatest in a series of titles of respect: "Rab," master; "Rabbi," my master; "Rabban," our master; and "Rabboni," my great master."

11:1 Bethphage (meaning "place of young figs") and Bethany (meaning "house of dates") were located east of the Mount of Olives on the road between Jericho and Jerusalem.

WORD Study HOSANNA

Mark 11:9 Hosanna is a Greek transliteration of the Hebrew word meaning "save now" or "save, we pray!"

11 [a]And Jesus went into Jerusalem and into the temple. So when He had looked around at all things, as the hour was already late, He went out to Bethany with the twelve.

The Fig Tree Withered

12 [a]Now the next day, when they had come out from Bethany, He was hungry.
13 [a]And seeing from afar a fig tree having leaves, He went to see if perhaps He would find something on it. When He came to it, He found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs.
14 In response Jesus said to it, "Let no one eat fruit from you ever again." And His disciples heard it.

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

15 [a]So they came to Jerusalem. Then Jesus went into the temple and began to drive out those who bought and sold in the temple, and overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who sold [b]doves.
16 And He would not allow anyone to carry wares through the temple.
17 Then He taught, saying to them, "Is it not written, [a]'My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations'? But you have made it a [b]'den of thieves.'"
18 And [a]the scribes and chief priests heard it and sought how they might destroy Him; for they feared Him, because [b]all the people were astonished at His teaching.
19 When evening had come, He went out of the city.

The Lesson of the Withered Fig Tree

20 [a]Now in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.
21 And Peter, remembering, said to Him, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree which You cursed has withered away."
22 So Jesus answered and said to them, "Have faith in God.
23 "For [a]assuredly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be removed and be cast into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that those things he says will be done, he will have whatever he says.
24 "Therefore I say to you, [a]whatever things you ask when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you will have them.

Pray and Believe

God's requirement for answering our prayers is faith. With faith, nothing is impossible through prayer. Without it, nothing is accomplished.

Forgiveness and Prayer

25 "And whenever you stand praying, [a]if you have anything against anyone, forgive him, that your Father in heaven may also forgive you your trespasses.
26 [1]"But [a]if you do not forgive, neither will your Father in heaven forgive your trespasses."

Jesus' Authority Questioned

27 Then they came again to Jerusalem. [a]And as He was walking in the temple, the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders came to Him.
28 And they said to Him, "By what [a]authority are You doing these things? And who gave You this authority to do these things?"
29 But Jesus answered and said to them, "I also will ask you one question; then answer Me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things:
30 "The [a]baptism of John—was it from heaven or from men? Answer Me."
31 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say, 'Why then did you not believe him?'
32 "But if we say, 'From men' "—they feared the people, for [a]all counted John to have been a prophet indeed.
33 So they answered and said to Jesus, "We do not know." And Jesus answered and said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

The Parable of the Wicked Vinedressers

12 Then [a]He began to speak to them in parables: "A man planted a vineyard and set a hedge around it, dug a place for the wine vat and built a tower. And he leased it to [1]vinedressers and went into a far country.

CHAPTER 12

1 [a]Luke 20:9–19 [1]tenant farmers

11:13 Passover is in March–April. Figs typically ripen in May–June. In the Old Testament, Israel was often identified with figs (Jer. 8:13; 29:17; Hos. 9:10, 16; Joel 1:7; Mic. 7:1).

11:15 This would have occurred in the Court of the Gentiles. The temple did not accept the common Roman coinage for its annual temple tax. Tyrian coinage was closest to the ancient shekel and was exchanged in the temple area for a fee of 1/24 of the amount exchanged.

11:20 The damage to the roots of the tree indicates total destruction.

2 "Now at vintage-time he sent a servant to the vinedressers, that he might receive some of the fruit of the vineyard from the vinedressers.
3 "And they took him and beat him and sent him away empty-handed.
4 "Again he sent them another servant, [1]and at him they threw stones, wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully treated.
5 "And again he sent another, and him they killed; and many others, [a]beating some and killing some.
6 "Therefore still having one son, his beloved, he also sent him to them last, saying, 'They will respect my son.'
7 "But those [1]vinedressers said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.'
8 "So they took him and [a]killed him and cast him out of the vineyard.
9 "Therefore what will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the vinedressers, and give the vineyard to others.
10 "Have you not even read this Scripture:

[a]'The stone which the builders rejected
Has become the chief cornerstone.
11 This was the LORD's doing,
And it is marvelous in our eyes'?"

12 [a]And they sought to lay hands on Him, but feared the multitude, for they knew He had spoken the parable against them. So they left Him and went away.

The Pharisees: Is It Lawful to Pay Taxes to Caesar?

13 [a]Then they sent to Him some of the Pharisees and the Herodians, to catch Him in His words.
14 When they had come, they said to Him, "Teacher, we know that You are true, and [1]care about no one; for You do not [2]regard the person of men, but teach the [a]way of God in truth. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?
15 "Shall we pay, or shall we not pay?" But He, knowing their [a]hypocrisy, said to them, "Why do you test Me? Bring Me a denarius that I may see it."
16 So they brought it. And He said to them, "Whose image and inscription is this?" They said to Him, "Caesar's."
17 And Jesus answered and said to them, [1]"Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to [a]God the things that are God's." And they marveled at Him.

The Sadducees: What About the Resurrection?

18 [a]Then some Sadducees, [b]who say there is no resurrection, came to Him; and they asked Him, saying:
19 "Teacher, [a]Moses wrote to us that if a man's brother dies, and leaves his wife behind, and leaves no children, his brother should take his wife and raise up offspring for his brother.
20 "Now there were seven brothers. The first took a wife; and dying, he left no offspring.
21 "And the second took her, and he died; nor did he leave any offspring. And the third likewise.
22 "So the seven had her and left no offspring. Last of all the woman died also.
23 "Therefore, in the resurrection, when they rise, whose wife will she be? For all seven had her as wife."
24 Jesus answered and said to them, "Are you not therefore [1]mistaken, because you do not know the Scriptures nor the power of God?
25 "For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but [a]are like angels in heaven.
26 "But concerning the dead, that they [a]rise, have you not read in the book of Moses, in the burning bush passage, how God spoke to him, saying, [b]'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'?
27 "He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living. You are therefore greatly [1]mistaken."

The Scribes: Which Is the First Commandment of All?

28 [a]Then one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, [1]perceiving that He had answered them well, asked Him, "Which is the [2]first commandment of all?"
29 Jesus answered him, "The [1]first of all the commandments is: [a]'Hear, O Israel, the LORD our God, the LORD is one.
30 'And you shall [a]love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.' [1]This is the first commandment.
31 "And the second, like it, is this: [a]'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than [b]these."
32 So the scribe said to Him, "Well said,

ENCOUNTER Note Mark 12:31

Sharing Love with Others

God is delighted when we share His love with those around us. His love drew us to Him, and His love works through us to draw others to Him. His love is not for hoarding, but for sharing.

Teacher. You have spoken the truth, for there is one God, [a]and there is no other but He.
33 "And to love Him with all the heart, with all the understanding, [1]with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love one's neighbor as oneself, [a]is more than all the whole burnt offerings and sacrifices."
34 Now when Jesus saw that he answered wisely, He said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." [a]But after that no one dared question Him.

Jesus: How Can David Call His Descendant Lord?

35 [a]Then Jesus answered and said, while He taught in the temple, "How is it that the scribes say that the Christ is the Son of David?
36 "For David himself said [a]by the Holy Spirit:

> [b]'The LORD said to my Lord,
> "Sit at My right hand,
> Till I make Your enemies Your footstool." '

37 "Therefore David himself calls Him 'Lord'; how is He then his [a]Son?" And the common people heard Him gladly.

Beware of the Scribes

38 Then [a]He said to them in His teaching, [b]"Beware of the scribes, who desire to go around in long robes, [c]love greetings in the marketplaces, 39 "the [a]best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts,
40 [a]"who devour widows' houses, and [1]for a pretense make long prayers. These will receive greater condemnation."

The Widow's Two Mites

41 [a]Now Jesus sat opposite the treasury and saw how the people put money [b]into the treasury. And many who were rich put in much.
42 Then one poor widow came and threw in two [1]mites, which make a [2]quadrans.
43 So He called His disciples to Himself and said to them, "Assuredly, I say to you that [a]this poor widow has put in more than all those who have given to the treasury;
44 "for they all put in out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty put in all that she had, [a]her whole livelihood."

Complete Trust

God knows the hearts of men and women. He is moved to action by those who rely on Him. Total dependency and absolute trust not only deepen our relationship with God, they also bring great reward from God's heart.

Jesus Predicts the Destruction of the Temple

13 Then [a]as He went out of the temple, one of His disciples said to Him, "Teacher, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!"
2 And Jesus answered and said to him, "Do you see these great buildings? [a]Not one stone shall be left upon another, that shall not be thrown down."

The Signs of the Times and the End of the Age

3 Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, [a]Peter, [b]James, [c]John, and [d]Andrew asked Him privately,
4 [a]"Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign when all these things will be fulfilled?"
5 And Jesus, answering them, began to say: [a]"Take heed that no one deceives you.

12:38 Scribes wore long white robes which made them distinctive in public. The general public showed them great respect, rising in their honor when they passed by. Because they could not earn money from their profession, scribes were generally not wealthy. They depended upon the patronage of others, which made them eager to impress people.

12:41 There were thirteen trumpet-shaped receptacles against the wall in the Court of Women which were used to collect people's offerings.

12:42 A mite was the smallest copper coin in circulation, worth only a fraction of a penny.

13:2 The Roman general Titus ordered the city and temple to be demolished in A.D. 70. King Herod had commenced the building of the temple in 20 B.C. on twenty acres of the most prominent hillside in Jerusalem. It was made of white stones and was twenty-five cubits in length, twelve cubits in width, and eight cubits high. Adorned with gold, this was a spectacular building.

6 "For many will come in My name, saying, 'I am He,' and will deceive many.
7 "But when you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be troubled; for such things must happen, but the end is not yet.
8 "For nation will rise against nation, and [a]kingdom against kingdom. And there will be earthquakes in various places, and there will be famines [1]and troubles. [b]These are the beginnings of [2]sorrows.
9 "But [a]watch out for yourselves, for they will deliver you up to councils, and you will be beaten in the synagogues. You will [1]be brought before rulers and kings for My sake, for a testimony to them.
10 "And [a]the gospel must first be preached to all the nations.
11 [a]"But when they arrest you and deliver you up, do not worry beforehand, [1]or premeditate what you will speak. But whatever is given you in that hour, speak that; for it is not you who speak, [b]but the Holy Spirit.

ENCOUNTER Note — Mark 13:11

God Speaks Through Us

When God's people bear witness of His love to others, God gives them the words to say. The Holy Spirit works through their words to draw the hearts of hearers to Himself.

12 "Now [a]brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child; and children will rise up against parents and cause them to be put to death.
13 [a]"And you will be hated by all for My name's sake. But [b]he who [1]endures to the end shall be saved.

The Great Tribulation

14 [a]"So when you see the [b]'abomination of desolation,' [1]spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not" (let the reader understand), "then [c]let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains.
15 "Let him who is on the housetop not go down into the house, nor enter to take anything out of his house.
16 "And let him who is in the field not go back to get his clothes.
17 [a]"But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days!
18 "And pray that your flight may not be in winter.
19 [a]"For in those days there will be tribulation, such as has not been since the beginning of the creation which God created until this time, nor ever shall be.
20 "And unless the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh would be saved; but for the elect's sake, whom He chose, He shortened the days.
21 [a]"Then if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ!' or, 'Look, He is there!' do not believe it.
22 "For false christs and false prophets will rise and show signs and [a]wonders to deceive, if possible, even the [1]elect.
23 "But [a]take heed; see, I have told you all things beforehand.

The Coming of the Son of Man

24 [a]"But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light;
25 "the stars of heaven will fall, and the powers in the heavens will be [a]shaken.
26 [a]"Then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.

The Parable of the Fig Tree

28 [a]"Now learn this parable from the fig tree: When its branch has already become tender, and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near.

Watch!

God wants us to be alert to His activity and watchful of the signs of the times so we will not be caught off guard. Until Christ's return, God's people are to be diligently about His business, redeeming the time that is left.

The Plot to Kill Jesus

14 After [a]two days it was the Passover and [b]the Feast of Unleavened Bread. And the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take Him by [1]trickery and put Him to death.
2 But they said, "Not during the feast, lest there be an uproar of the people."

The Anointing at Bethany

3 [a]And being in Bethany at the house of Simon the leper, as He sat at the table, a woman came having an alabaster flask of very costly [1]oil of spikenard. Then she broke the flask and poured it on His head.
4 But there were some who were indignant among themselves, and said, "Why was this fragrant oil wasted?
5 "For it might have been sold for more than three hundred [a]denarii and given to the poor." And they [b]criticized[1] her sharply.
6 But Jesus said, "Let her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has done a good work for Me.
7 [a]"For you have the poor with you always, and whenever you wish you may do them good; [b]but Me you do not have always.
8 "She has done what she could. She has come beforehand to anoint My body for burial.

Doing What We Can

Our best is never wasted on God. He sees our sacrifice and knows it comes from a heart overflowing with gratitude and worship.

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

10 [a]Then Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went to the chief priests to betray Him to them.
11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. So he sought how he might conveniently betray Him.

Jesus Celebrates the Passover with His Disciples

12 [a]Now on the first day of Unleavened Bread, when they [1]killed the Passover lamb, His disciples said to Him, "Where do You want us to go and prepare, that You may eat the Passover?"
13 And He sent out two of His disciples and said to them, "Go into the city, and a man will meet you carrying a pitcher of water; follow him.
14 "Wherever he goes in, say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is the guest room in which I may eat the Passover with My disciples?" '
15 "Then he will show you a large upper room, furnished and prepared; there make ready for us."
16 So His disciples went out, and came into the city, and found it just as He had said to them; and they prepared the Passover.
17 [a]In the evening He came with the twelve.
18 Now as they sat and ate, Jesus said, "Assuredly, I say to you, [a]one of you who eats with Me will betray Me."
19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say to Him one by one, "Is it I?" [1]And another said, "Is it I?"
20 He answered and said to them, "It is one of the twelve, who dips with Me in the dish.
21 [a]"The Son of Man indeed goes just as it is written of Him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been good for that man if he had never been born."

Jesus Institutes the Lord's Supper

22 [a]And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them and said, "Take, [1]eat; this is My [b]body."

14:1 The Passover was an annual Hebrew festival beginning on the evening of the fourteenth day of the month of Nisan (March–April). It was followed by a seven-day Festival of Unleavened Bread which was later included as part of the Passover festivities. Jerusalem's population could swell from 50,000 people to over 250,000 at that time.

14:19 The Greek for "Is it I?" anticipates a negative response.

23 Then He took the cup, and when He had given thanks He gave it to them, and they all drank from it.
24 And He said to them, "This is My blood of the [1]new covenant, which is shed for many.
25 "Assuredly, I say to you, I will no longer drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."
26 [a]And when they had sung [1]a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

27 [a]Then Jesus said to them, "All of you will be made to stumble [1]because of Me this night, for it is written:

[b]'I will strike the Shepherd,
And the sheep will be scattered.'

WORD Study STUMBLE

Mark 14:27 This word comes from the Greek scandalizo meaning "to offend, trip up, entice to sin, or scandalize."

28 "But [a]after I have been raised, I will go before you to Galilee."
29 [a]Peter said to Him, "Even if all are made to [1]stumble, yet I will not be."
30 Jesus said to him, "Assuredly, I say to you that today, even this night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times."
31 But he spoke more vehemently, "If I have to die with You, I will not deny You!" And they all said likewise.

The Prayer in the Garden

32 [a]Then they came to a place which was named Gethsemane; and He said to His disciples, "Sit here while I pray."
33 And He [a]took Peter, James, and John with Him, and He began to be troubled and deeply distressed.
34 Then He said to them, [a]"My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here and watch."
35 He went a little farther, and fell on the ground, and prayed that if it were possible, the hour might pass from Him.
36 And He said, [a]"Abba, Father, [b]all things are possible for You. Take this cup away from Me; [c]nevertheless, not what I will, but what You will."

ENCOUNTER Note Mark 14:36

Not My Will

At times you must make the difficult choice to put aside your own wishes and submit to God's will. God's way is rarely the easy path, but it is always the right way.

37 Then He came and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "Simon, are you sleeping? Could you not watch one hour?
38 [a]"Watch and pray, lest you enter into temptation. [b]The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."
39 Again He went away and prayed, and spoke the same words.
40 And when He returned, He found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavy; and they did not know what to answer Him.
41 Then He came the third time and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? It is enough! [a]The hour has come; behold, the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners.
42 [a]"Rise, let us be going. See, My betrayer is at hand."

Betrayal and Arrest in Gethsemane

43 [a]And immediately, while He was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, with a great multitude with swords and clubs, came from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.
44 Now His betrayer had given them a signal, saying, "Whomever I [a]kiss, He is the One; seize Him and lead Him away safely."
45 As soon as he had come, immediately he went up to Him and said to Him, "Rabbi, Rabbi!" and kissed Him.
46 Then they laid their hands on Him and took Him.
47 And one of those who stood by drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.
48 [a]Then Jesus answered and said to them, "Have you come out, as against a 14:26 Typically people sang from Psalms 113 to 118 during the Passover meal.

14:30 The rooster would normally crow twice: once at midnight, and once at the break of day. This could also be used as a proverbial expression indicating morning.

14:32 "Gethsemane" means "oil press" and was located just over half a mile from the walls of Jerusalem, directly across from the eastern gate (Luke 22:39; John 18:2).

14:36 "Abba," meaning "father," was an affectionate word used in the everyday language of a family. It was not normally used in prayer when addressing God.

14:43 John's Gospel identifies this as a detachment of troops, normally consisting of one-tenth of a legion, or six hundred men (John 18:3). The entire detachment may not have been sent for this covert operation.

14:46 Judas addressed Jesus as "Rabbi" expressing respect, and kissed Him, expressing affection.

robber, with swords and clubs to take Me?
49 "I was daily with you in the temple [a]teaching, and you did not seize Me. But [b]the Scriptures must be fulfilled."
50 [a]Then they all forsook Him and fled.

A Young Man Flees Naked

51 Now a certain young man followed Him, having a linen cloth thrown around his naked body. And the young men laid hold of him, 52 and he left the linen cloth and fled from them naked.

Jesus Faces the Sanhedrin

53 [a]And they led Jesus away to the high priest; and with him were [b]assembled all the [c]chief priests, the elders, and the scribes.
54 But [a]Peter followed Him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest. And he sat with the servants and warmed himself at the fire.
55 [a]Now the chief priests and all the council sought testimony against Jesus to put Him to death, but found none.
56 For many bore [a]false witness against Him, but their testimonies [1]did not agree.
57 [a]Then some rose up and bore false witness against Him, saying,
58 "We heard Him say, [a]'I will destroy this temple made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.' "
59 But not even then did their testimony agree.
60 [a]And the high priest stood up in the midst and asked Jesus, saying, "Do You answer nothing? What is it these men testify against You?"
61 But [a]He kept silent and answered nothing. [b]Again the high priest asked Him, saying to Him, "Are You the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?"
62 Jesus said, "I am. [a]And you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Power, and coming with the clouds of heaven."
63 Then the high priest tore his clothes and said, "What further need do we have of witnesses?
64 "You have heard the [a]blasphemy! What do you think?" And they all condemned Him to be deserving of [b]death.
65 Then some began to [a]spit on Him, and to blindfold Him, and to beat Him, and to say to Him, "Prophesy!" And the officers [1]struck Him with the palms of their hands.

Peter Denies Jesus, and Weeps

66 [a]Now as Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the high priest came.
67 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked at him and said, "You also were with [a]Jesus of Nazareth."
68 But he denied it, saying, "I neither know nor understand what you are saying." And he went out on the porch, and a rooster crowed.
69 [a]And the servant girl saw him again, and began to say to those who stood by, "This is one of them."
70 But he denied it again. [a]And a little later those who stood by said to Peter again, "Surely you are one of them; [b]for you are a Galilean, [1]and your [2]speech shows it."
71 Then he began to curse and swear, "I do not know this Man of whom you speak!"
72 [a]A second time the rooster crowed. Then Peter called to mind the word that Jesus had said to him, "Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times." And when he thought about it, he wept.

Jesus Faces Pilate

15 Immediately, [a]in the morning, the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council; and they bound Jesus, led Him away, and [b]delivered Him to Pilate.
2 [a]Then Pilate asked Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?" He answered and said to him, "It is as you say."
3 And the chief priests accused Him of many things, but He [a]answered nothing.
4 [a]Then Pilate asked Him again, saying, "Do You answer nothing? See how many things [1]they testify against You!"
5 [a]But Jesus still answered nothing, so that Pilate marveled.

Taking the Place of Barabbas

6 Now [a]at the feast he was accustomed to releasing one prisoner to them, whomever they requested.
7 And there was one named Barabbas, who was chained with his fellow rebels; they had committed murder in the rebellion.

14:53 Caiaphas served as high priest from A.D. 18 to 37, an impressive span at a time when people bribed Roman officials for the position.

14:55 Jewish law indicated that if witnesses' testimony did not agree, the charges were invalid (Num. 35:30; Deut. 17:6; 19:15).

15:1 Pontius Pilate was the sixth Roman procurator of Judea appointed in A.D. 25–26. He served for ten years.

15:7 Barabbas's name means "son of Abba."

8 Then the multitude, [1]crying aloud, began to ask him to do just as he had always done for them.
9 But Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"
10 For he knew that the chief priests had handed Him over because of envy.
11 But [a]the chief priests stirred up the crowd, so that he should rather release Barabbas to them.
12 Pilate answered and said to them again, "What then do you want me to do with Him whom you call the [a]King of the Jews?"
13 So they cried out again, "Crucify Him!"
14 Then Pilate said to them, "Why, [a]what evil has He done?" But they cried out all the more, "Crucify Him!"
15 [a]So Pilate, wanting to gratify the crowd, released Barabbas to them; and he delivered Jesus, after he had scourged Him, to be [b]crucified.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

16 [a]Then the soldiers led Him away into the hall called [1]Praetorium, and they called together the whole garrison.
17 And they clothed Him with purple; and they twisted a crown of thorns, put it on His head,
18 and began to salute Him, "Hail, King of the Jews!"
19 Then they [a]struck Him on the head with a reed and spat on Him; and bowing the knee, they worshiped Him.
20 And when they had [a]mocked Him, they took the purple off Him, put His own clothes on Him, and led Him out to crucify Him.

The King on a Cross

21 [a]Then they compelled a certain man, Simon a Cyrenian, the father of Alexander and Rufus, as he was coming out of the country and passing by, to bear His cross.
22 [a]And they brought Him to the place Golgotha, which is translated, Place of a Skull.
23 [a]Then they gave Him wine mingled with myrrh to drink, but He did not take it.
24 And when they crucified Him, [a]they divided His garments, casting lots for them to determine what every man should take.
25 Now [a]it was the third hour, and they crucified Him.
26 And [a]the inscription of His [1]accusation was written above:

THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 [a]With Him they also crucified two robbers, one on His right and the other on His left.
28 [1]So the Scripture was fulfilled which says, [a]"And He was numbered with the transgressors."
29 And [a]those who passed by blasphemed Him, [b]wagging their heads and saying, "Aha! [c]You who destroy the temple and build it in three days,
30 "save Yourself, and come down from the cross!"
31 Likewise the chief priests also, [a]mocking among themselves with the scribes, said, "He saved [b]others; Himself He cannot save.
32 "Let the Christ, the King of Israel, descend now from the cross, that we may see and [1]believe." Even [a]those who were crucified with Him reviled Him.

Jesus Dies on the Cross

33 Now [a]when the sixth hour had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.
34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" which is translated, [a]"My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?"
35 Some of those who stood by, when they heard that, said, "Look, He is calling for Elijah!"
36 Then [a]someone ran and filled a sponge full of sour wine, put it on a reed, and [b]offered it to Him to drink, saying, "Let Him alone; let us see if Elijah will come to take Him down."
37 [a]And Jesus cried out with a loud voice, and breathed His last.
38 Then [a]the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom.

15:23 Jesus refused wine which was normally used to deaden the senses to the pain. Jesus remained fully conscious and alert throughout His suffering.

15:25 The third hour was 9 a.m.

15:34 The ninth hour was 3 p.m.

15:36 Vinegar and water was considered a refreshing drink (Ruth 2:14). It may have given Jesus moisture to issue His final shout of triumph.

15:38 According to tradition the veil was a handbreadth in thickness, woven of seventy-two twisted plaits. Each plait consisted of twenty-four threads. It was supposedly sixty feet long and thirty feet wide. Being torn from the top down indicated an irrevocable act of God that gave people access to Him.

15:39 A centurion was the commander of one hundred soldiers.

42 [a]Now when evening had come, because it was the Preparation Day, that is, the day before the Sabbath,
43 Joseph of Arimathea, a prominent council member, who [a]was himself waiting for the kingdom of God, coming and taking courage, went in to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.
44 Pilate marveled that He was already dead; and summoning the centurion, he asked him if He had been dead for some time.
45 So when he found out from the centurion, [a]he granted the body to Joseph.
46 [a]Then he bought fine linen, took Him down, and wrapped Him in the linen. And he laid Him in a tomb which had been hewn out of the rock, and rolled a stone against the door of the tomb.

God does not stop loving us when we fail Him or deny Him. He continues to draw us back into His presence, offering us forgiveness, restoration, and another opportunity to serve Him.

HISTORICAL*Encounter* ADONIRAM JUDSON Mark 16:15

Adoniram Judson was born into a Congregational minister's family on August 9, 1788. As a young man he became attracted to deism and renounced the Christian faith. Through a series of events, God drew Judson back to Himself and led him to study at Andover Seminary. While he was there, God impressed upon him the missionary needs in India and Burma. The United States had not sent a foreign missionary before and there was no missionary organization to commission him. His parents were unenthusiastic about his plans. Others openly ridiculed him. One day as he walked through the woods, he sensed God speaking to him, bringing Mark 16:15 to his mind. Instantly Judson knew God was confirming His call on him to missions. Along with his wife Anne, he would be among America's first foreign missionaries. The Judsons devoted the rest of their lives to sharing the gospel in some of the most spiritually darkened regions of the world.

15:43 Arimathea was also called Ramah and was located five miles north of Jerusalem. Jewish law prohibited leaving corpses exposed during the Sabbath so as not to defile the day (Deut. 21:23).

16:6 The term "risen" is passive indicating it was performed by someone else.

It is inconceivable that we could withhold the good news of Christ from people when their eternal destiny is at stake.

16:12 Luke identifies one of the travelers as Cleopas (Luke 24:18).
16:14 The disciples were referred to as "the eleven" after Judas' death, even when one or more of them were not actually present, as was the case here with Thomas.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

LUKE

INTRODUCTION

Tradition indicates that the writer of this book was Luke (shortened form of Lucanus), a physician and traveling companion of the apostle Paul (Phil. 24:2; Col. 4:14; 2 Tim. 4:11). The writer demonstrates knowledge of Jewish traditions and customs, although he wrote to a Gentile audience. This longest book in the New Testament was written to clarify and correct other accounts of the life of Christ that might have been in circulation at the time (according to 1:3–4). Luke provides vivid eyewitness accounts of Christ's miracles and teachings. Luke's Gospel is the prequel to the book of Acts, and both are addressed to Theophilus (1:3; Acts 1:1). The date of writing is unclear, but many believe Acts was written around A.D. 60–61, so Luke may have been written shortly before this time. Luke includes Christ's prophecies regarding the destruction of Jerusalem, which occurred in A.D. 70, but makes no mention of this happening, so he probably wrote before that event.

SIGNIFICANCE

This book corroborates the testimony and verifies the integrity of the other three gospel accounts, particularly Matthew and Mark, which together with Luke are known as the Synoptic Gospels. Furthermore, because of Luke's keen interest in the salvation of the Gentiles, he gives non-Jews a clear presentation of Jesus as the Christ, the Savior for all who believe, not just for the Jewish nation. As a physician, Luke has several unique emphases in his gospel account. He approaches his research and writing in a scientific, orderly manner in which he carefully checks his sources (1:1–4). He also, not surprisingly, demonstrates an interest in Jesus' healing miracles (7:1–10, 11–17; 13:10–17; 14:1–6; 17:11–19; 22:51), at times mentioning details absent from the other accounts. Luke also presents an extensive account of Jesus' birth including information not found anywhere else (1:5-50). Luke strongly emphasizes the kingdom of God and the Holy Spirit (1:15, 17, 35; 2:25–27; 3:16, 22; 4:1, 14, 18; 5:17; 24:49). Prayer is another significant subject of Luke (1:14; 6:12; 9:18, 28, 29; 11:1–4; 18:1; 22:32, 40, 46).

STRUCTURE

Luke can be outlined as follows:

Birth of Christ and Preparation for Ministry (1:1—4:13)
Christ's Public Ministry (4:14—9:50)
Journey to Jerusalem (9:51—19:44)
Final Days of Christ's Life (19:45—23:56)
Resurrection and Ascension (24:1–53)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH LUKE

Luke presents God as One who offers salvation to all who accept Christ as their Savior. Samaritans, Gentiles, publicans, sinners and those shunned by society are all offered redemption by God through Christ. Luke demonstrates that God planned from the beginning of time to redeem sinners through His Son, and that all creation waits in eager anticipation for the return of the Lord Jesus Christ. Luke draws attention to Christ's kindness towards the outcasts, the vulnerable, and the despised including children, women, the diseased, and those trapped in sin and in bondage to evil spirits. God is revealed as compassionate, gentle, and caring, not wanting anyone to perish in their sin, and inviting all to experience the abundant life He intends for them.

Dedication to Theophilus

INASMUCH as many have taken in hand to set in order a narrative of those [a]things which [1]have been fulfilled among us,
2 just as those who [a]from the beginning were [b]eyewitnesses and ministers of the word [c]delivered them to us,
3 it seemed good to me also, having [1]had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write to you an orderly account, [a]most excellent Theophilus,
4 [a]that you may know the certainty of those things in which you were instructed.

Certainty

Our faith is not blind; it is founded on certainty—what we understand from God's Word. When we read the Scriptures with hearts of faith, God confirms everything He said so we know for certain it is true.

John's Birth Announced to Zacharias

5 There was [a]in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, [b]of the division of [c]Abijah. His [d]wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.
6 And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.
7 But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and they were both well advanced in years.
8 So it was, that while he was serving as priest before God in the order of his division,
9 according to the custom of the priesthood, [1]his lot fell [a]to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.
10 [a]And the whole multitude of the people was praying outside at the hour of incense.
11 Then an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing on the right side of [a]the altar of incense.
12 And when Zacharias saw him, [a]he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.
13 But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zacharias, for your prayer is heard; and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and [a]you shall call his name John.
14 "And you will have joy and gladness, and [a]many will rejoice at his birth.
15 "For he will be [a]great in the sight of the Lord, and [b]shall drink neither wine nor strong drink. He will also be filled with the Holy Spirit, [c]even from his mother's womb.
16 "And he will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord their God.
17 [a]"He will also go before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, 'to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children,' and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."
18 And Zacharias said to the angel, [a]"How shall I know this? For I am an old man, and my wife is well advanced in years."
19 And the angel answered and said to him, "I am [a]Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God, and was sent to speak to you and bring you [1]these glad [b]tidings.
20 "But behold, [a]you will be mute and not able to speak until the day these things take place, because you did not believe my words which will be fulfilled in their own time."
21 And the people waited for Zacharias, and marveled that he lingered so long in the temple.
22 But when he came out, he could not speak to them; and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple, for he

CHARACTER*Study* ELIZABETH Luke 1:5

Elizabeth means "my God has sworn an oath" or "my God is good fortune." She was a descendant of Aaron and married to Zacharias, a priest. She and her husband are described as "righteous" and "blameless" before God (Luke 1:6). Nevertheless, Elizabeth was barren, which carried the stigma of not being blessed by God. Elizabeth was a relative of Mary, Jesus' mother (1:36). She faithfully waited most of her life to receive God's blessing, and ultimately God granted her a child whom Jesus would later declare to be the greatest of men (Matt. 11:11).

1:3 Theophilus means "loved of God."

1:5 Herod was appointed by Rome, and he reigned over Judea, Samaria, and portions of Syria and Perea from 37 B.C. until A.D. 4. Abijah was the name of one of the divisions of priests who served in the temple (1 Chr. 24:10; Neh. 12:17).

1:10 Offering incense was done at 9:00 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. daily. Priests could only offer incense once in their life, so this would have been a climactic moment for the aged priest Zacharias.

1:13 John means "God's gift," or "God has been gracious."

1:19 Gabriel means "man or champion of God." He is one of only two angels named in the Old Testament (Dan. 8:16; 9:21). The other is Michael (Dan. 10:13, 21; Rev. 12:7).

Our faith is not proven by what we say but by what we do. If we are surprised or fearful when God answers our prayers, our response exposes the depth of our faith.

beckoned to them and remained speechless.
23 So it was, as soon as [a]the days of his service were completed, that he departed to his own house.
24 Now after those days his wife Elizabeth conceived; and she hid herself five months, saying,
25 "Thus the Lord has dealt with me, in the days when He looked on me, to [a]take away my reproach among people."

Christ's Birth Announced to Mary

26 Now in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a city of Galilee named Nazareth, 27 to a virgin [a]betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary.
28 And having come in, the angel said to her, [a]"Rejoice, highly favored one, [b]the Lord is with you; [1]blessed are you among women!"
29 But [1]when she saw him, [a]she was troubled at his saying, and considered what manner of greeting this was.
30 Then the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found [a]favor with God.
31 [a]"And behold, you will conceive in your womb and bring forth a Son, and [b]shall call His name JESUS.
32 "He will be great, [a]and will be called the Son of the Highest; and [b]the Lord God will give Him the [c]throne of His [d]father David.
33 [a]"And He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of His kingdom there will be no end."
34 Then Mary said to the angel, "How can this be, since I [1]do not know a man?"
35 And the angel answered and said to her, [a]"The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Highest will overshadow you; therefore, also, that Holy One who is to be born will be called [b]the Son of God.
36 "Now indeed, Elizabeth your relative has also conceived a son in her old age; and this is now the sixth month for her who was called barren.
37 "For [a]with God nothing will be impossible."

Nothing!

God's purposes for us exceed our abilities and cannot be accomplished apart from Him. However, that is how God works. When He reveals His plans, He is also promising to fulfill them. Trust Him and remember, with God, nothing is impossible!

38 Then Mary said, "Behold the maidservant of the Lord! Let it be to me according to your word." And the angel departed from her.

Mary Visits Elizabeth

39 Now Mary arose in those days and went into the hill country with haste, [a]to a city of Judah,
40 and entered the house of Zacharias and greeted Elizabeth.
41 And it happened, when Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, that the babe leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was [a]filled with the Holy Spirit.
42 Then she spoke out with a loud voice and said, [a]"Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb!
43 "But why is this granted to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?
44 "For indeed, as soon as the voice of your greeting sounded in my ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.
45 [a]"Blessed is she who [1]believed, for there will be a fulfillment of those things which were told her from the Lord."

The Song of Mary

46 And Mary said:

[a]"My soul [1]magnifies the Lord,
47 And my spirit has [a]rejoiced in [b]God my Savior.
48 For [a]He has regarded the lowly state of His maidservant;
For behold, henceforth [b]all generations will call me blessed.
49 For He who is mighty [a]has done great things for me,
And [b]holy is His name.
50 And [a]His mercy is on those who fear Him
From generation to generation.

1:27 The customary age of a bride to be betrothed was thirteen. Mary was probably not more than fifteen years old at the time of Christ's birth.

1:34 Mary's question assumed God would perform the miracle. She did not ask for a sign. She was enquiring how God was going to perform this miraculous work.

51 [a]He has shown strength with His arm;
[b]He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
52 [a]He has put down the mighty from their thrones,
And exalted the lowly.
53 He has [a]filled the hungry with good things,
And the rich He has sent away empty.
54 He has helped His [a]servant Israel,
[b]In remembrance of His mercy,
55 [a]As He spoke to our [b]fathers,
To Abraham and to his [c]seed forever."

56 And Mary remained with her about three months, and returned to her house.

Birth of John the Baptist

57 Now Elizabeth's full time came for her to be delivered, and she brought forth a son.
58 When her neighbors and relatives heard how the Lord had shown great mercy to her, they [a]rejoiced with her.

Circumcision of John the Baptist

59 So it was, [a]on the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child; and they would have called him by the name of his father, Zacharias.
60 His mother answered and said, [a]"No; he shall be called John."
61 But they said to her, "There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name."
62 So they made signs to his father—what he would have him called.
63 And he asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, saying, "His name is John." So they all marveled.
64 Immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue loosed, and he spoke, praising God.
65 Then fear came on all who dwelt around them; and all these sayings were discussed throughout all the hill country of Judea.
66 And all those who heard them [a]kept them in their hearts, saying, "What kind of child will this be?" And [b]the hand of the Lord was with him.

Zacharias' Prophecy

67 Now his father Zacharias [a]was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying:

In the house of His servant David,
70 [a]As He spoke by the mouth of His holy prophets,
Who have been [b]since the world began,
71 That we should be saved from our enemies
And from the hand of all who hate us,
72 [a]To perform the mercy promised to our fathers
And to remember His holy covenant,
73 [a]The oath which He swore to our father Abraham:
74 To grant us that we,
Being delivered from the hand of our enemies,
Might [a]serve Him without fear,
75 [a]In holiness and righteousness before Him all the days of our life.

76 "And you, child, will be called the [a]prophet of the Highest;
For [b]you will go before the face of the Lord to prepare His ways,
77 To give [a]knowledge of salvation to His people
By the remission of their sins,
78 Through the tender mercy of our God,
With which the [1]Dayspring from on high [2]has visited us;
79 [a]To give light to those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death,
To [b]guide our feet into the way of peace."

80 So [a]the child grew and became strong in spirit, and [b]was in the deserts till the day of his manifestation to Israel.

Christ Born of Mary

2 And it came to pass in those days that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be registered.
2 [a]This census first took place while Quirinius was governing Syria.
3 So all went to be registered, everyone to his own city.
4 Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to [a]the city of David, which is called Beth-

1:62 People made signs to Zacharias, indicating he was probably rendered deaf as well as mute.

1:78 "Dayspring" was a reference to the Messiah (Num. 24:17; Mal. 4:2). It can also be translated "branch" or "sprout" (Is. 11:1–10; Jer. 23:5; 33:15; Zech. 3:8; 6:12).

2:1 Caesar Augustus (31 B.C.–A.D. 14), originally named Caius Octavius, was the grandnephew of Julius Caesar. He eventually took the throne after Julius Caesar's assassination.

2:4 Nazareth was ninety miles from Bethlehem and would have been at least a three-day journey.

lehem, [b]because he was of the house and lineage of David,
5 to be registered with Mary, [a]his betrothed [1]wife, who was with child.
6 So it was, that while they were there, the days were completed for her to be delivered.
7 And [a]she brought forth her firstborn Son, and wrapped Him in swaddling cloths, and laid Him in a [1]manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

Glory in the Highest

8 Now there were in the same country shepherds living out in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night.
9 And [1]behold, an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, [a]and they were greatly afraid.
10 Then the angel said to them, [a]"Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy [b]which will be to all people.
11 [a]"For there is born to you this day in the city of David [b]a Savior, [c]who is Christ the Lord.
12 "And this will be the sign to you: You will find a Babe wrapped in swaddling cloths, lying in a [1]manger."
13 [a]And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying:

14 "Glory[a] to God in the highest,
And on earth [b]peace, [c]goodwill[1] toward men!"

15 So it was, when the angels had gone away from them into heaven, that the shepherds said to one another, "Let us now go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has come to pass, which the Lord has made known to us."
16 And they came with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the Babe lying in a manger.
17 Now when they had seen Him, they made [1]widely known the saying which was told them concerning this Child.
18 And all those who heard it marveled at those things which were told them by the shepherds.
19 [a]But Mary kept all these things and pondered them in her heart.
20 Then the shepherds returned, glorifying and [a]praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told them.

Circumcision of Jesus

21 [a]And when eight days were completed [1]for the circumcision of the Child, His name was called [b]JESUS, the name given by the angel [c]before He was conceived in the womb.

Jesus Presented in the Temple

22 Now when [a]the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were completed, they brought Him to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord
23 [a](as it is written in the law of the Lord, [b]"Every male who opens the womb shall be called holy to the LORD"), 24 and to offer a sacrifice according to what is said in the law of the Lord, [a]"A pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons."

Simeon Sees God's Salvation

25 And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon, and this man was just and devout, [a]waiting for the Consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him.
26 And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not [a]see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

JAMES MONTGOMERY

Luke 2:13

In the late eighteenth century, when James Montgomery was six years old, his parents placed him in a boarding school and sailed to the West Indies as missionaries with the Moravian Brethren. Both of them met early deaths, and James was left in poverty. He eventually became a writer for a British newspaper, The Sheffield Iris. The officials became angry at an article he wrote, threw him in jail, and fined him twenty pounds. Nevertheless, despite the loss of his parents and the numerous hardships he experienced, Montgomery remained committed to Christ. Early one morning on Christmas Eve, 1816, he was reading from Luke's Gospel and was deeply impressed by Luke 2:13. By day's end he had written a Christmas poem which quickly spread across England through his newspaper. It was later put to music and entitled, "Angels from the Realms of Glory." It was first sung in a Moravian Church in England.

2:7 "Firstborn" implies that Mary would have other children (Matt. 1:25; 13:55; Mark 3:31–35).

2:8 Shepherds were generally considered dishonest and ritually unclean. They were normally in the fields with their flocks from March to November.

2:22 Forty days were required for a woman's purification after having a male child (Lev. 12:6).

ENCOUNTER Note Luke 2:25

Finishing Well

The longer we serve God the more intimately acquainted we become with Him. Because God has access to our heart, mind, and soul over the years of fellowship and worship, He allows us to see more of His activity and to be involved in His miraculous work.

27 So he came [a]by the Spirit into the temple. And when the parents brought in the Child Jesus, to do for Him according to the custom of the law,
28 he took Him up in his arms and blessed God and said:

29 "Lord, [a]now You are letting Your servant depart in peace,
According to Your word;
30 For my eyes [a]have seen Your salvation
31 Which You have prepared before the face of all peoples, 32 [a]A light to bring revelation to the Gentiles,
And the glory of Your people Israel."

33 [1]And Joseph and His mother marveled at those things which were spoken of Him.
34 Then Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary His mother, "Behold, this Child is destined for the [a]fall and rising of many in Israel, and for [b]a sign which will be spoken against 35 "(yes, [a]a sword will pierce through your own soul also), that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed."

Anna Bears Witness to the Redeemer

36 Now there was one, Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of [a]Asher. She was of a great age, and had lived with a husband seven years from her virginity;
37 and this woman was a widow [1]of about eighty-four years, who did not depart from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers [a]night and day.
38 And coming in that instant she gave thanks to [1]the Lord, and spoke of Him to all those who [a]looked for redemption in Jerusalem.

The Family Returns to Nazareth

39 So when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own city, Nazareth.
40 [a]And the Child grew and became strong [1]in spirit, filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon Him.

The Boy Jesus Amazes the Scholars

41 His parents went to [a]Jerusalem [b]every year at the Feast of the Passover.
42 And when He was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the [a]custom of the feast.
43 When they had finished the [a]days, as they returned, the Boy Jesus lingered behind in Jerusalem. And [1]Joseph and His mother did not know it;
44 but supposing Him to have been in the company, they went a day's journey, and sought Him among their relatives and acquaintances.
45 So when they did not find Him, they returned to Jerusalem, seeking Him.
46 Now so it was that after three days they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both listening to them and asking them questions.
47 And [a]all who heard Him were astonished at His understanding and answers.

ENCOUNTER Note Luke 2:47

Astonishing Wisdom

When God is at work in believers' lives, His Spirit of wisdom and truth infuses them with insights and understandings directly from Him. Only those with the Spirit have access to the truths of the Spirit.

48 So when they saw Him, they were amazed; and His mother said to Him, "Son, why have You done this to us? Look, Your father and I have sought You anxiously."
49 And He said to them, "Why did you seek Me? Did you not know that I must be [a]about [b]My Father's business?"
50 But [a]they did not understand the statement which He spoke to them.

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

3 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, [a]Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, his brother Philip tetrarch of Ituraea and the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene,
2 [1]while [a]Annas and Caiaphas were high priests, the word of God came to [b]John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.
3 [a]And he went into all the region around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance [b]for the remission of sins,
4 as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, saying:

> [a]"The voice of one crying in the wilderness:
> 'Prepare the way of the LORD;
> Make His paths straight.
> 5 Every valley shall be filled
> And every mountain and hill brought low;
> The crooked places shall be made straight
> And the rough ways smooth;
> 6 And [a]all flesh shall see the salvation of God.'"

John Preaches to the People

7 Then he said to the multitudes that came out to be baptized by him, [a]"Brood[1] of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?
8 "Therefore bear fruits [a]worthy of repentance, and do not begin to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I say to you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones.

Fruit Worthy of Repentance

In God's eyes, repentance must not only bring a change of heart but also a change of behavior. Outward actions verify or disprove inward transformation.

9 "And even now the ax is laid to the root of the trees. Therefore [a]every tree which does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire."

10 So the people asked him, saying, [a]"What shall we do then?"
11 He answered and said to them, [a]"He who has two tunics, let him give to him who has none; and he who has food, [b]let him do likewise."
12 Then [a]tax collectors also came to be baptized, and said to him, "Teacher, what shall we do?"
13 And he said to them, [a]"Collect no more than what is appointed for you."
14 Likewise the soldiers asked him, saying, "And what shall we do?" So he said to them, "Do not [1]intimidate anyone [a]or accuse falsely, and be content with your wages."
15 Now as the people were in expectation, and all reasoned in their hearts about John, whether he was the Christ or not,
16 John answered, saying to all, [a]"I indeed baptize you with water; but One mightier than I is coming, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to loose. He will [b]baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.
17 "His winnowing fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly clean out His threshing floor, and [a]gather the wheat into His barn; but the chaff He will burn with unquenchable fire."

John Baptizes Jesus

21 When all the people were baptized, [a]it came to pass that Jesus also was baptized; and while He prayed, the heaven was opened.

3:1 Tiberius Caesar, also known as Tiberius Claudius Nero, the stepson of Augustus, ascended the throne in A.D. 14. Pontius Pilate was the Roman prefect of Judea from A.D. 26 to 36. Herod Antipas was the son of Herod the Great. He ruled Galilee as the Roman tetrarch from 4 B.C. to A.D. 39.

3:2 Annas had been high priest from A.D. 6 to 15. Caiaphas was high priest from A.D. 18 to 36.

3:12 Tax collectors were Jewish citizens who collected tolls for the Roman government. They were viewed as traitors for collaborating with the oppressors of God's people. They worked in cities such as Capernaum and Jericho. Assumed to be inherently dishonest, their testimony was not accepted in a court of law.

3:16 The baptism of the Holy Spirit is mentioned seven times in the New Testament (Matt. 3:11; Mark 1:8; John 1:33; Acts 1:5; 11:16; 1 Cor. 12:13).

3:17 A winnowing fan was a wooden forklike shovel used to throw grain in the air so the wind could separate the grain from the chaff. Chaff was useful only as fuel to be burned.

3:23 Luke's genealogy of Jesus includes seventy seven names, sixty of which Matthew does not include. Whereas Matthew's list goes back to Abraham, the patriarch of God's people, Luke's account goes back to Adam, indicating Jesus is the Savior of all peoples.

Satan Tempts Jesus

4 Then [a]Jesus, being filled with the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and [b]was led by the Spirit [1]into the wilderness,
2 being [1]tempted for forty days by the devil. And [a]in those days He ate nothing, and afterward, when they had ended, He was hungry.

ENCOUNTER Note Luke 4:1, 2

Filled and Led

Those who are filled with the Spirit will also be led by the Spirit. The Spirit may lead believers to difficult or dangerous places, but His presence assures His protection and His provision for any circumstance.

3 And the devil said to Him, "If You are [a]the Son of God, command this stone to become bread."
4 But Jesus answered him, saying, "It is written, [a]'Man shall not live by bread alone, [1]but by every word of God.' "
5 [1]Then the devil, taking Him up on a high mountain, showed Him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.
6 And the devil said to Him, "All this authority I will give You, and their glory; for [a]this has been delivered to me, and I give it to whomever I wish.
7 "Therefore, if You will worship before me, all will be Yours."
8 And Jesus answered and said to him, [1]"Get behind Me, Satan! [2]For it is written, [a]'You shall worship the LORD your God, and Him only you shall serve.' "
9 [a]Then he brought Him to Jerusalem, set Him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down from here.
10 "For it is written:

> [a]'He shall give His angels charge over you,
> To keep you,'

11 "and,

> [a]'In their hands they shall bear you up,

Jesus Begins His Galilean Ministry

14 [a]Then Jesus returned [b]in the power of the Spirit to [c]Galilee, and [d]news of Him went out through all the surrounding region.
15 And He [a]taught in their synagogues, [b]being glorified by all.

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

16 So He came to [a]Nazareth, where He had been brought up. And as His custom was, [b]He went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read.
17 And He was handed the book of the prophet Isaiah. And when He had opened the book, He found the place where it was written:

18 "The[a] Spirit of the LORD is upon Me,
Because He has anointed Me
To preach the gospel to the poor;
He has sent Me [1]to heal the brokenhearted,
To proclaim liberty to the captives
And recovery of sight to the blind,
To [b]set at liberty those who are
[2]oppressed;
19 To proclaim the acceptable year of
the LORD."

WORD Study — ANOINT

Luke 4:18 The Greek word for "anoint" is chriō, which in the New Testament generally refers to sacred and symbolic anointing. It also is used to describe Christ as the Anointed of God (Acts 4:27; 10:38; Heb. 1:9).

20 Then He closed the book, and gave it back to the attendant and sat down. And the eyes of all who were in the synagogue were fixed on Him.
21 And He began to say to them, "Today this Scripture is [a]fulfilled in your hearing."
22 So all bore witness to Him, and [a]marveled at the gracious words which proceeded out of His mouth. And they said, [b]"Is this not Joseph's son?"
23 He said to them, "You will surely say this proverb to Me, 'Physician, heal yourself! Whatever we have heard done in [a]Capernaum,[1] do also here in [b]Your country.' "
24 Then He said, "Assuredly, I say to you, no [a]prophet is accepted in his own country.

WORD Study — ASSUREDLY

Luke 4:24 This word is literally "amen." It can also be translated "verily" or "truly." The term is used over seventy times in the Gospels and always by Jesus.

25 "But I tell you truly, [a]many widows were in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, and there was a great famine throughout all the land;
26 "but to none of them was Elijah sent except to [1]Zarephath, in the region of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow.
27 [a]"And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, and none of them was cleansed except Naaman the Syrian."
28 So all those in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were [a]filled with [1]wrath,
29 [a]and rose up and thrust Him out of the city; and they led Him to the brow of the hill on which their city was built, that they might throw Him down over the cliff.
30 Then [a]passing through the midst of them, He went His way.

Jesus Casts Out an Unclean Spirit

31 Then [a]He went down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and was teaching them on the Sabbaths.
32 And they were [a]astonished at His teaching, [b]for His word was with authority.
33 [a]Now in the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon. And he cried out with a loud voice,
34 saying, "Let us alone! What have we to do with You, Jesus of Nazareth? Did You come to destroy us? [a]I know who You are—[b]the Holy One of God!"
35 But Jesus rebuked him, saying, [1]"Be quiet, and come out of him!" And when the demon had thrown him in their midst, it came out of him and did not hurt him.
36 Then they were all amazed and spoke among themselves, saying, "What a word this is! For with authority and power He commands the unclean spirits, and they come out."
37 And the report about Him went out into every place in the surrounding region.

Peter's Mother-in-Law Healed

38 [a]Now He arose from the synagogue and entered Simon's house. But Simon's wife's mother was [1]sick with a high fever, and they [b]made request of Him concerning her.

39 So He stood over her and [a]rebuked the fever, and it left her. And immediately she arose and served them.

Many Healed After Sabbath Sunset

40 [a]When the sun was setting, all those who had any that were sick with various diseases brought them to Him; and He laid His hands on every one of them and healed them.
41 [a]And demons also came out of many, crying out and saying, [b]"You are [1]the Christ, the Son of God!" And He, [c]rebuking them, did not allow them to [2]speak, for they knew that He was the Christ.

Jesus Preaches in Galilee

42 [a]Now when it was day, He departed and went into a deserted place. And the crowd sought Him and came to Him, and tried to keep Him from leaving them;
43 but He said to them, "I must [a]preach the kingdom of God to the other cities also, because for this purpose I have been sent."
44 [a]And He was preaching in the synagogues of [1]Galilee.

Four Fishermen Called as Disciples

5 So [a]it was, as the multitude pressed about Him to [b]hear the word of God, that He stood by the Lake of Gennesaret,
2 and saw two boats standing by the lake; but the fishermen had gone from them and were washing their nets.
3 Then He got into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. And He [a]sat down and taught the multitudes from the boat.
4 When He had stopped speaking, He said to Simon, [a]"Launch out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch."
5 But Simon answered and said to Him, "Master, we have toiled all night and caught [a]nothing; nevertheless [b]at Your word I will let down the net."
6 And when they had done this, they caught a great number of fish, and their net was breaking.
7 So they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink.
8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, [a]"Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord!"
9 For he and all who were with him were [a]astonished at the catch of fish which they had taken;
10 and so also were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid. [a]From now on you will catch men."
11 So when they had brought their boats to land, [a]they [1]forsook all and followed Him.

Jesus Cleanses a Leper

12 [a]And it happened when He was in a certain city, that behold, a man who was full of [b]leprosy saw Jesus; and he fell on his face and [1]implored Him, saying, "Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean."
13 Then He put out His hand and touched him, saying, "I am willing; be cleansed." [a]Immediately the leprosy left him.
14 [a]And He charged him to tell no one, "But go and show yourself to the priest, and make an offering for your cleansing, as a testimony to them, [b]just as Moses commanded."
15 However, [a]the report went around concerning Him all the more; and [b]great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by Him of their infirmities.
16 [a]So He Himself often withdrew into the wilderness and [b]prayed.

Jesus Forgives and Heals a Paralytic

17 Now it happened on a certain day, as He was teaching, that there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting by, who had come out of every town of Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was present [1]to heal them.

Christ the Difference

The difference between success and failure is not strategy; it is the working of God's Spirit through us.

4:39 This is the only time Luke records Jesus addressing the disease rather than the person.

4:43 Jesus often spoke in terms of what He "must" do (Luke 2:49; 9:22; 17:25; 19:5; 21:9; 22:37; 24:7, 26, 44). He had a clear sense of His mission and purpose.

4:44 The region of Galilee would have included such towns as Tiberias, Magdala, Bethsaida, Gennesaret, Capernaum, Chinnereth, and Caesarea Philippi. See the map at Mark 4:1.

5:1 Gennesaret was also called the Sea of Galilee and the Sea of Tiberias.

5:14 Only a priest could declare former lepers clean, allowing them back into society (Lev. 14:2–32).

Withdraw

Before we can move ahead for God we must withdraw with Him. The more meaningful our times of retreat are, the more spectacular our times of spiritual advance will be.

a man who was paralyzed, whom they sought to bring in and lay before Him.
19 And when they could not find how they might bring him in, because of the crowd, they went up on the housetop and let him down with his bed through the tiling into the midst [a]before Jesus.
20 When He saw their faith, He said to him, "Man, your sins are forgiven you."
21 [a]And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, "Who is this who speaks blasphemies? [b]Who can forgive sins but God alone?"
22 But when Jesus [a]perceived their thoughts, He answered and said to them, "Why are you reasoning in your hearts?
23 "Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Rise up and walk'?
24 "But that you may know that the Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins"—He said to the man who was paralyzed, [a]"I say to you, arise, take up your bed, and go to your house."
25 Immediately he rose up before them, took up what he had been lying on, and departed to his own house, [a]glorifying God.
26 And they were all amazed, and they [a]glorified God and were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen strange things today!"

Matthew the Tax Collector

27 [a]After these things He went out and saw a tax collector named Levi, sitting at the tax office. And He said to him, [b]"Follow Me."
28 So he left all, rose up, and [a]followed Him.
29 [a]Then Levi gave Him a great feast in his own house. And [b]there were a great number of tax collectors and others who sat down with them.
30 [1]And their scribes and the Pharisees [2]complained against His disciples, saying, [a]"Why do You eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"
31 Jesus answered and said to them, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick.
32 [a]"I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners, to repentance."

Jesus Is Questioned About Fasting

33 Then they said to Him, [a]"Why[1] do the disciples of John fast often and make prayers, and likewise those of the Pharisees, but Yours eat and drink?"
34 And He said to them, "Can you make the friends of the bridegroom fast while the [a]bridegroom is with them?
35 "But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them; then they will fast in those days."
36 [a]Then He spoke a parable to them: "No one [1]puts a piece from a new garment on an old one; otherwise the new makes a tear, and also the piece that was taken out of the new does not match the old.
37 "And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; or else the new wine will burst the wineskins and be spilled, and the wineskins will be ruined.
38 "But new wine must be put into new wineskins, [1]and both are preserved.
39 "And no one, having drunk old wine, [1]immediately desires new; for he says, 'The old is [2]better.' "

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath

6 Now [a]it happened [1]on the second Sabbath after the first that He went through the grainfields. And His disciples plucked the heads of grain and ate them, rubbing them in their hands.
2 And some of the Pharisees said to them, "Why are you doing [a]what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath?"

WORD Study — SABBATH

Luke 6:2 The term "Sabbath" is ultimately from the Hebrew word shabath, meaning "cease" or "rest." It typically occurred from sunset Friday evening until sunset Saturday evening, during which time work would cease (Ex. 20:8–11).

3 But Jesus answering them said, "Have you not even read this, [a]what David did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him:
4 "how he went into the house of God, took and ate the showbread, and also gave some to those with him, [a]which is not lawful for any but the priests to eat?"

CHAPTER 6

1 [a]Matt. 12:1–8 [1]NU on a Sabbath that He went
2 [a]Ex. 20:10
3 [a]1 Sam. 21:6
4 [a]Lev. 24:9

5:33 Pharisees fasted twice a week, on Mondays and Thursdays, as well as annually on the Day of Atonement (Lev. 16:29–31; Luke 18:12).

6:1 According to the Pharisees, by plucking grain, rubbing it and eating it, they were in fact, reaping, threshing and preparing food on the Sabbath which was breaking the Law's command to rest.

5 And He said to them, "The Son of Man is also Lord of the Sabbath."

Healing on the Sabbath

6 [a]Now it happened on another Sabbath, also, that He entered the synagogue and taught. And a man was there whose right hand was withered.
7 So the scribes and Pharisees watched Him closely, whether He would [a]heal on the Sabbath, that they might find an [b]accusation against Him.
8 But He [a]knew their thoughts, and said to the man who had the withered hand, "Arise and stand here." And he arose and stood.
9 Then Jesus said to them, "I will ask you one thing: [a]Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save life or [1]to destroy?"
10 And when He had looked around at them all, He said to [1]the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he did so, and his hand was restored [2]as whole as the other.
11 But they were filled with rage, and discussed with one another what they might do to Jesus.

The Twelve Apostles

12 Now it came to pass in those days that He went out to the mountain to pray, and continued all night in [a]prayer to God.

ENCOUNTER Note Luke 6:12

Prayer

When Jesus prayed, He was not merely looking for the best decision; He was seeking His Father's will. We must do likewise, for there is too much at stake for us to miss the Lord's will.

13 And when it was day, He called His disciples to Himself; [a]and from them He chose [b]twelve whom He also named apostles:
14 Simon, [a]whom He also named Peter, and Andrew his brother; James and John; Philip and Bartholomew;
15 Matthew and Thomas; James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon called the Zealot;
16 Judas [a]the son of James, and [b]Judas Iscariot who also became a traitor.

Jesus Heals a Great Multitude

17 And He came down with them and stood on a level place with a crowd of His disciples [a]and a great multitude of people from all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear Him and be healed of their diseases,
18 as well as those who were tormented with unclean spirits. And they were healed.
19 And the whole multitude [a]sought to [b]touch Him, for [c]power went out from Him and healed them all.

The Beatitudes

20 Then He lifted up His eyes toward His disciples, and said:

[a]"Blessed are you poor,
For yours is the kingdom of God.
21 [a]Blessed are you who hunger now,
For you shall be [b]filled.[1]
[c]Blessed are you who weep now,
For you shall [d]laugh.
22 [a]Blessed are you when men hate you,
And when they [b]exclude you,
And revile you, and cast out your name as evil,
For the Son of Man's sake.
23 [a]Rejoice in that day and leap for joy!
For indeed your reward is great in heaven,
For [b]in like manner their fathers did to the prophets.

Jesus Pronounces Woes

24 "But[a] woe to you [b]who are rich,
For [c]you have received your consolation.
25 [a]Woe to you who are full,
For you shall hunger.
[b]Woe to you who laugh now,
For you shall mourn and [c]weep.
26 [a]Woe [1]to you when [2]all men speak well of you,
For so did their fathers to the false prophets.

27 [a]Rom. 12:20

6:14 Simon means "God has heard." Peter means "stone." Bartholomew can likely be identified as another name for Nathanael (John 1:45).

6:15 Matthew is probably to be identified with Levi in Luke 5:27–32 (Matt. 9:9; 10:3; Mark 2:14–17).

6:16 Judas the son of James was probably Thaddaeus (Matt. 10:3; Mark 3:18). The other Judas's surname, Iscariot, means "man from Kerioth."

6:20 Jesus spoke the beatitudes specifically to His twelve disciples, although the crowd also would have heard this teaching. Beatitudes means "blessed sayings," and they were so entitled because each statement begins with the word "blessed," which means "happy" and is a state of joy that comes from experiencing God's pleasure.

28 [a]"bless those who curse you, and [b]pray for those who spitefully use you.
29 [a]"To him who strikes you on the one cheek, offer the other also. [b]And from him who takes away your cloak, do not withhold your tunic either.
30 [a]"Give to everyone who asks of you. And from him who takes away your goods do not ask them back.
31 [a]"And just as you want men to do to you, you also do to them likewise.
32 [a]"But if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them.
33 "And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same.
34 [a]"And if you lend to those from whom you hope to receive back, what credit is that to you? For even sinners lend to sinners to receive as much back.
35 "But [a]love your enemies, [b]do good, and [c]lend, [1]hoping for nothing in return; and your reward will be great, and [d]you will be sons of the Most High. For He is kind to the unthankful and evil.
36 [a]"Therefore be merciful, just as your Father also is merciful.

Do Not Judge

37 [a]"Judge not, and you shall not be judged. Condemn not, and you shall not be condemned. [b]Forgive, and you will be forgiven.
38 [a]"Give, and it will be given to you: good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over will be put into your [b]bosom. For [c]with the same measure that you use, it will be measured back to you."
39 And He spoke a parable to them: [a]"Can the blind lead the blind? Will they not both fall into the ditch?
40 [a]"A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone who is perfectly trained will be like his teacher.
41 [a]"And why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the plank in your own eye?
42 "Or how can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me remove the speck that is in your eye,' when you yourself do not see the plank that is in your own eye? Hypocrite! First remove the plank from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck that is in your brother's eye.

Build on the Rock

46 [a]"But why do you call Me 'Lord, Lord,' and not do the things which I say?

WORD*Study* LORD

6:46 "Lord" translates the Greek word kurios, meaning "supreme authority, controller, master, sir." Jesus took this title for Himself (Matt. 7:21–22; 9:38; 22:41–45; Mark 5:19; John 13:13). His disciples did not understand the full implication of Jesus as Lord until after His ascension (Acts 2:36; Rom. 10:9; 14:9).

47 [a]"Whoever comes to Me, and hears My sayings and does them, I will show you whom he is like:
48 "He is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently against that house, and could not shake it, for it was [1]founded on the rock.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Luke 6:48

Unshaken

Establishing your life on God's Word brings a security nothing can shake. The measure of your faith in the Scriptures is revealed when you face life's storms.

49 "But he who heard and did nothing is like a man who built a house on the earth without a foundation, against which the stream beat vehemently; and immediately it [1]fell. And the ruin of that house was great."

Jesus Heals a Centurion's Servant

7 Now when He concluded all His sayings in the hearing of the people, He [a]entered Capernaum.
2 And a certain centurion's servant,

6:29 A tunic was an undergarment. A cloak was an outer garment.
6:37 Jesus prohibited a censorious and critical spirit that is quick to condemn others.

who was dear to him, was sick and ready to die.
3 So when he heard about Jesus, he sent elders of the Jews to Him, pleading with Him to come and heal his servant.
4 And when they came to Jesus, they begged Him earnestly, saying that the one for whom He should do this was deserving,
5 "for he loves our nation, and has built us a synagogue."
6 Then Jesus went with them. And when He was already not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to Him, saying to Him, "Lord, do not trouble Yourself, for I am not worthy that You should enter under my roof.

WORD Study — CENTURION

Luke 7:6 This military term comes from the Greek word hekatontarchos meaning "the captain of one hundred men." Centurions were the heart and soul of the Roman legions and would have been the equivalent of a modern sergeant.

7 "Therefore I did not even think myself worthy to come to You. But [a]say the word, and my servant will be healed.
8 "For I also am a man placed under [a]authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."
9 When Jesus heard these things, He marveled at him, and turned around and said to the crowd that followed Him, "I say to you, I have not found such great faith, not even in Israel!"
10 And those who were sent, returning to the house, found the servant well [1]who had been sick.

Jesus Raises the Son of the Widow of Nain

11 Now it happened, the day after, that He went into a city called Nain; and many of His disciples went with Him, and a large crowd.
12 And when He came near the gate of the city, behold, a dead man was being carried out, the only son of his mother; and she was a widow. And a large crowd from the city was with her.
13 When the Lord saw her, He had [a]compassion on her and said to her, [b]"Do not weep."
14 Then He came and touched the open coffin, and those who carried him stood still. And He said, "Young man, I say to you, [a]arise."
15 So he who was dead [a]sat up and began to speak. And He [b]presented him to his mother.
16 [a]Then fear [1]came upon all, and they [b]glorified God, saying, [c]"A great prophet has risen up among us"; and, [d]"God has visited His people."
17 And this report about Him went throughout all Judea and all the surrounding region.

John the Baptist Sends Messengers to Jesus

18 [a]Then the disciples of John reported to him concerning all these things.
19 And John, calling two of his disciples to him, sent them to [1]Jesus, saying, "Are You [a]the Coming One, or [2]do we look for another?"

ENCOUNTER Note — Luke 7:19

Assurances

We often begin serving God confidently, with great enthusiasm, until troubles confront us and doubts arise. At such times God graciously reassures us that despite our circumstances we are still in His will. Difficulties do not necessarily mean we have missed God's will.

20 When the men had come to Him, they said, "John the Baptist has sent us to You, saying, 'Are You the Coming One, or do we look for another?' "
21 And that very hour He cured many of [1]infirmities, afflictions, and evil spirits; and to many blind He gave sight.
22 [a]Jesus answered and said to them, "Go and tell John the things you have seen and heard: [b]that the blind [c]see, the lame [d]walk, the lepers are [e]cleansed, the deaf [f]hear, the dead are raised, [g]the poor have the gospel preached to them.
23 "And blessed is he who is not [1]offended because of Me."
24 [a]When the messengers of John had departed, He began to speak to the multitudes concerning John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?
25 "But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft garments? Indeed those who are gorgeously appareled and live in luxury are in kings' courts.
26 "But what did you go out to see? A

A Sinful Woman Forgiven

36 [a]Then one of the Pharisees asked Him to eat with him. And He went to the Pharisee's house, and sat down to eat.

WORD*Study* SINNER

Luke 7:37 The word translated "sinner" is the Greek hamartolos, meaning "devoted to sin" or "erring one." The term was applied to those who did not follow the ceremonial religious laws, those with known vices, those with vocations prone to abuse (tax collectors, prostitutes), and heathens.

saying, [a]"This Man, if He were a prophet, would know who and what manner of woman this is who is touching Him, for she is a sinner."
40 And Jesus answered and said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." So he said, "Teacher, say it."
41 "There was a certain creditor who had two debtors. One owed five hundred [a]denarii, and the other fifty.
42 "And when they had nothing with which to repay, he freely forgave them both. Tell Me, therefore, which of them will love him more?"
43 Simon answered and said, "I suppose the one whom he forgave more." And He said to him, "You have rightly judged."
44 Then He turned to the woman and said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave Me no [a]water for My feet, but she has washed My feet with her tears and wiped them with the hair of her head.
45 "You gave Me no [a]kiss, but this woman has not ceased to kiss My feet since the time I came in.
46 [a]"You did not anoint My head with oil, but this woman has anointed My feet with fragrant oil.
47 [a]"Therefore I say to you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much. But to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Luke 7:47

Much

We cannot separate the awareness of our sin from our love for God. The more clearly we understand just how much God has forgiven us, the greater our love for God will be.

7:35 Time bears out wisdom. The results of an action or belief ultimately demonstrate its soundness.

7:37 Alabaster is a soft white stone, similar to marble, formed from crystalline gypsum or sulfate of lime.

7:39 Jesus routinely identified with sinners (Luke 5:8, 30, 32; 13:2; 15:1, 2, 7, 10; 18:13; 19:7; 24:7). While Jesus' host, Simon, determined Jesus must not be a prophet because He did not know who was anointing His feet, Jesus revealed that He knew Simon's thoughts, proving He was a prophet.

7:41 A denarius was the principal silver coin of the Roman empire and was the normal wages for one day's work. Five hundred denarii represented one and a half year's wages.

48 Then He said to her, [a]"Your sins are forgiven."
49 And those who sat at the table with Him began to say to themselves, [a]"Who is this who even forgives sins?"
50 Then He said to the woman, [a]"Your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

Many Women Minister to Jesus

8 Now it came to pass, afterward, that He went through every city and village, preaching and [1]bringing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God. And the twelve were with Him,
2 and [a]certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and [1]infirmities—Mary called Magdalene, [b]out of whom had come seven demons,
3 and Joanna the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others who provided for [1]Him from their [2]substance.

The Parable of the Sower

4 [a]And when a great multitude had gathered, and they had come to Him from every city, He spoke by a parable:
5 "A sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some fell by the wayside; and it was trampled down, and the birds of the air devoured it.
6 "Some fell on rock; and as soon as it sprang up, it withered away because it lacked moisture.
7 "And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up with it and choked it.
8 "But others fell on good ground, sprang up, and yielded [1]a crop a hundredfold." When He had said these things He cried, [a]"He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

The Purpose of Parables

9 [a]Then His disciples asked Him, saying, "What does this parable mean?"
10 And He said, "To you it has been given to know the [1]mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest it is given in parables, that

The Parable of the Sower Explained

11 [a]"Now the parable is this: The seed is the [b]word of God.
12 "Those by the wayside are the ones who hear; then the devil comes and takes away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.
13 "But the ones on the rock are those who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, who believe for a while and in time of [1]temptation fall away.
14 "Now the ones that fell among thorns are those who, when they have heard, go out and are choked with cares, [a]riches, and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to maturity.
15 "But the ones that fell on the good ground are those who, having heard the word with a noble and good heart, keep it and bear fruit with [a]patience.[1]

The Parable of the Revealed Light

16 [a]"No one, when he has lit a lamp, covers it with a vessel or puts it under a bed, but sets it on a lampstand, that those who enter may see the [b]light.
17 [a]"For nothing is secret that will not be [b]revealed, nor anything hidden that will not be known and come to light.
18 "Therefore take heed how you hear. [a]For whoever has, to him more will be given; and whoever does not have, even what he [1]seems to [b]have will be taken from him."

ENCOUNTER Note — Luke 8:18

Take Heed

God's word is offered to all; it is our responsibility to listen and respond. If we are distracted, hardhearted or rebellious, God's word will not abide in us.

Jesus' Mother and Brothers Come to Him

19 [a]Then His mother and brothers came to Him, and could not approach Him because of the crowd.

CHARACTER Study — MARY MAGDALENE — Luke 8:2

Mary Magdalene played a prominent role among the women who followed Jesus. She was from Magdala in Galilee. She had been possessed by seven demons (Mark 16:9), indicating her abject spiritual bondage. She might have been the sinful woman described in Luke 7:36–50. She stood with Jesus at the cross (Matt. 27:56; Mark 15:40). She watched where Jesus was buried (Matt. 27:61; Mark 15:47). She was at the empty tomb (Matt. 28:1; Mark 16:1; Luke 24:1–10), and perhaps most importantly, she was the first person to speak with the risen Christ (John 20:1–18). Mary demonstrated unflinching devotion to Christ.

20 And it was told Him by some, who said, "Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, desiring to see You."
21 But He answered and said to them, "My mother and My brothers are these who hear the word of God and do it."

Wind and Wave Obey Jesus

22 [a]Now it happened, on a certain day, that He got into a boat with His disciples. And He said to them, "Let us cross over to the other side of the lake." And they launched out.
23 But as they sailed He fell asleep. And a windstorm came down on the lake, and they were filling with water, and were in [1]jeopardy.
24 And they came to Him and awoke Him, saying, "Master, Master, we are perishing!" Then He arose and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water. And they ceased, and there was a calm.

ENCOUNTER Note — Luke 8:24

Truth

Sometimes our circumstances look hopeless, but we never know the reality of our situation until we have asked Jesus. He knows things we do not. He has power we cannot imagine. It is foolish to come to conclusions on our own when Jesus is right next to us.

25 But He said to them, [a]"Where is your faith?" And they were afraid, and marveled, saying to one another, [b]"Who can this be? For He commands even the winds and water, and they obey Him!"

A Demon-Possessed Man Healed

26 [a]Then they sailed to the country of the [1]Gadarenes, which is opposite Galilee.
27 And when He stepped out on the land, there met Him a certain man from the city who had demons [1]for a long time. And he wore no clothes, nor did he live in a house but in the tombs.
28 When he saw Jesus, he [a]cried out, fell down before Him, and with a loud voice said, [b]"What have I to do with [c]You, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg You, do not torment me!"

29 For He had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For it had often seized him, and he was kept under guard, bound with chains and shackles; and he broke the bonds and was driven by the demon into the wilderness.
30 Jesus asked him, saying, "What is your name?" And he said, "Legion," because many demons had entered him.
31 And they begged Him that He would not command them to go out [a]into the abyss.
32 Now a herd of many [a]swine was feeding there on the mountain. So they begged Him that He would permit them to enter them. And He permitted them.
33 Then the demons went out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd ran violently down the steep place into the lake and drowned.
34 When those who fed them saw what had happened, they fled and told it in the city and in the country.
35 Then they went out to see what had happened, and came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had departed, [a]sitting at the [b]feet of Jesus, clothed and in his [c]right mind. And they were afraid.
36 They also who had seen it told them by what means he who had been demon-possessed was [1]healed.
37 [a]Then the whole multitude of the surrounding region of the [1]Gadarenes [b]asked Him to [c]depart from them, for they were seized with great [d]fear. And He got into the boat and returned.

ENCOUNTER Note — Luke 8:37

Fear or Faith?

Revering God is not the same thing as believing in Him. Many hold great respect for Christ yet they refuse to put their trust in Him.

38 Now [a]the man from whom the demons had departed begged Him that he might be with Him. But Jesus sent him away, saying,
39 "Return to your own house, and tell what great things God has done for you." And he went his way and proclaimed throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him.

8:24 This is the beginning of a series of miracles through which Jesus demonstrated His authority over nature, demons, disease and death (Luke 8:22–56). The fact the storm did not waken Jesus may reflect how exhausted He was.

8:26 The country of the Gadarenes was probably five miles southwest of the Sea of Galilee (Matt. 8:28), but the name could also refer to the Gerasenes, some thirty miles southeast of the Sea of Galilee, or the Gergesenes, located along the Sea of Galilee.

8:30 This is the only account in the Gospels that reports Jesus having a conversation with a demon.

8:31 The abyss is the place of final destination for demons (Matt. 25:41; 2 Pet. 2:4; Rev. 20:3).

8:33 Mark's account indicates there were two thousand swine (Mark 5:13).

A Girl Restored to Life and a Woman Healed

40 So it was, when Jesus returned, that the multitude welcomed Him, for they were all waiting for Him.
41 [a]And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. And he fell down at Jesus' feet and begged Him to come to his house,
42 for he had an only daughter about twelve years of age, and she [a]was dying. But as He went, the multitudes thronged Him.
43 [a]Now a woman, having a [b]flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent all her livelihood on physicians and could not be healed by any,
44 came from behind and [a]touched the border of His garment. And immediately her flow of blood stopped.
45 And Jesus said, "Who touched Me?" When all denied it, Peter [1]and those with him said, "Master, the multitudes throng and press You, [2]and You say, 'Who touched Me?' "
46 But Jesus said, "Somebody touched Me, for I perceived [a]power going out from Me."
47 Now when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling; and falling down before Him, she declared to Him in the presence of all the people the reason she had touched Him and how she was healed immediately.
48 And He said to her, "Daughter, [1]be of good cheer; [a]your faith has made you well. [b]Go in peace."
49 [a]While He was still speaking, someone came from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, "Your daughter is dead. Do not trouble the [1]Teacher."
50 But when Jesus heard it, He answered him, saying, "Do not be afraid; [a]only believe, and she will be made well."
51 When He came into the house, He permitted no one to go [1]in except [2]Peter, James, and John, and the father and mother of the girl.
52 Now all wept and mourned for her; but He said, [a]"Do not weep; she is not dead, [b]but sleeping."
53 And they ridiculed Him, knowing that she was dead.
54 But He [1]put them all outside, took her by the hand and called, saying, "Little girl, [a]arise."
55 Then her spirit returned, and she arose immediately. And He commanded that she be given something to eat.
56 And her parents were astonished, but [a]He charged them to tell no one what had happened.

Sending Out the Twelve

9 Then [a]He called His twelve disciples together and [b]gave them power and authority over all demons, and to cure diseases.

ENCOUNTER Note — Luke 9:1

Empowered

If you feel overwhelmed by what God has called you to do, be encouraged! God will enable you, and you will see miracles occur through your life!

2 [a]He sent them to preach the kingdom of God and to heal the sick.
3 [a]And He said to them, "Take nothing for the journey, neither staffs nor bag nor bread nor money; and do not have two tunics apiece.
4 [a]"Whatever house you enter, stay there, and from there depart.
5 [a]"And whoever will not receive you, when you go out of that city, [b]shake off the very dust from your feet as a testimony against them."
6 [a]So they departed and went through the towns, preaching the gospel and healing everywhere.

Herod Seeks to See Jesus

7 [a]Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by Him; and he was perplexed, because it was said by some that John had risen from the dead,
8 and by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the old prophets had risen again.
9 Herod said, "John I have beheaded, but who is this of whom I hear such things?" [a]So he sought to see Him.

Feeding the Five Thousand

10 [a]And the apostles, when they had returned, told Him all that they had done. [b]Then He took them and went aside privately into a deserted place belonging to the city called Bethsaida.
11 But when the multitudes knew it, they followed Him; and He received them and spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and healed those who had need of healing.

8:41 Jairus, whose name means "whom God enlightens," likely resided in Capernaum.

8:45 Jesus was surrounded by crowds pressing in upon Him. The fact Jesus sensed someone touching Him was remarkable and revealed His sensitivity to every person who reached out to Him in faith.

12 [a]When the day began to wear away, the twelve came and said to Him, "Send the multitude away, that they may go into the surrounding towns and country, and lodge and get provisions; for we are in a deserted place here."
13 But He said to them, "You give them something to eat." And they said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we go and buy food for all these people."
14 For there were about five thousand men. Then He said to His disciples, "Make them sit down in groups of fifty."
15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.
16 Then He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, He [a]blessed and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the multitude.
17 So they all ate and were [1]filled, and twelve baskets of the leftover fragments were taken up by them.

Peter Confesses Jesus as the Christ

18 [a]And it happened, as He was alone praying, that His disciples joined Him, and He asked them, saying, "Who do the crowds say that I am?"
19 So they answered and said, [a]"John the Baptist, but some say Elijah; and others say that one of the old prophets has risen again."
20 He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" [a]Peter answered and said, "The Christ of God."

Jesus Predicts His Death and Resurrection

21 [a]And He strictly warned and commanded them to tell this to no one,
22 saying, [a]"The Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised the third day."

Take Up the Cross and Follow Him

23 [a]Then He said to them all, "If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross [1]daily, and follow Me.
24 [a]"For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will save it.
25 [a]"For what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and is himself destroyed or lost?
26 [a]"For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words, of him the Son of Man will be [b]ashamed when He comes in His own glory, and in His Father's, and of the holy angels.
27 [a]"But I tell you truly, there are some standing here who shall not taste death till they see the kingdom of God."

Jesus Transfigured on the Mount

28 [a]Now it came to pass, about eight days after these sayings, that He took Peter, John, and James and went up on the mountain to pray.
29 As He prayed, the appearance of His face was altered, and His robe became white and glistening.
30 And behold, two men talked with Him, who were [a]Moses and [b]Elijah,
31 who appeared in glory and spoke of His [1]decease which He was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.
32 But Peter and those with him [a]were heavy with sleep; and when they were fully awake, they saw His glory and the two men who stood with Him.
33 Then it happened, as they were parting from Him, that Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here; and let us make three [1]tabernacles: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah"—not knowing what he said.
34 While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were fearful as they entered the [a]cloud.
35 And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, [a]"This is [1]My beloved Son. [b]Hear Him!"
36 When the voice had ceased, Jesus was found alone. [a]But they kept quiet,

ENCOUNTER Note — Luke 9:35

Hear Him!

In our zeal for God, we can rush into plans and ministries for Him that actually oppose His purposes. God does not need our ideas, our initiative, or our imagination. He already has a plan. He is looking for our obedience.

9:12 The disciples' suggestion for Jesus to send the multitude away was not selfish. Not having asked Jesus what He intended to do, their suggestion made perfect sense and demonstrated their concern both for the people and for Jesus.

9:13 This is the only miracle of Jesus recorded in all four gospels (Matt. 14:13–21; Mark 6:30–44; John 6:5–14).

9:14 Seating the people in groups of fifty indicates that, even as Jesus prepared to perform a stupendous miracle, He did so in an orderly, planned manner.

9:20 "You" is emphatic. Jesus' concern was not the opinion of the multitudes but the belief of His disciples.

9:30 Moses represented the Law while Elijah represented the prophets. The entire Old Testament had pointed toward this great event: God's provision of salvation for humanity.

9:31 "Decease" is literally "exodus."

and told no one in those days any of the things they had seen.

A Boy Is Healed

37 [a]Now it happened on the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, that a great multitude met Him.
38 Suddenly a man from the multitude cried out, saying, "Teacher, I implore You, look on my son, for he is my only child.
39 "And behold, a spirit seizes him, and he suddenly cries out; it convulses him so that he foams at the mouth; and it departs from him with great difficulty, bruising him.
40 "So I implored Your disciples to cast it out, but they could not."
41 Then Jesus answered and said, "O [1]faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you and [2]bear with you? Bring your son here."
42 And as he was still coming, the demon threw him down and convulsed him. Then Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the child, and gave him back to his father.

Jesus Again Predicts His Death

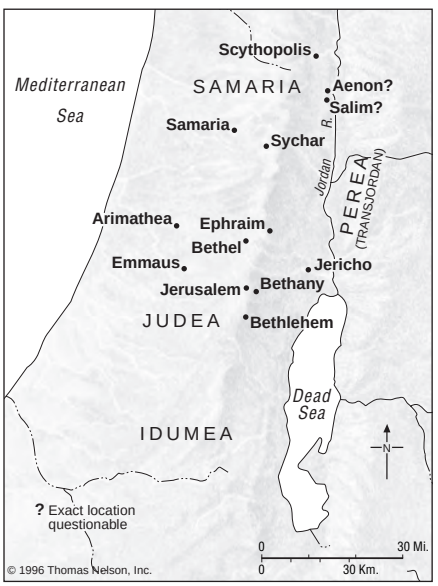
43 And they were all amazed at the majesty of God. But while everyone marveled at all the things which Jesus did, He said to His disciples,
44 [a]"Let these words sink down into your ears, for the Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men."
45 [a]But they did not understand this saying, and it was hidden from them so that they did not perceive it; and they were afraid to ask Him about this saying.

Who Is the Greatest?

46 [a]Then a dispute arose among them as to which of them would be greatest.
47 And Jesus, [a]perceiving the thought of their heart, took a [b]little child and set him by Him,
48 and said to them, [a]"Whoever receives this little child in My name receives Me; and [b]whoever receives Me [c]receives Him who sent Me. [d]For he who is least among you all will be great."

Jesus Forbids Sectarianism

49 [a]Now John answered and said, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in Your name, and we forbade him because he does not follow with us."
50 But Jesus said to him, "Do not forbid him, for [a]he who is not against [1]us is on [2]our side."



A Samaritan Village Rejects the Savior

51 Now it came to pass, when the time had come for [a]Him to be received up, that He steadfastly set His face to go to Jerusalem, 52 and sent messengers before His face. And as they went, they entered a village of the Samaritans, to prepare for Him.
53 But [a]they did not receive Him, because His face was set for the journey to Jerusalem.
54 And when His disciples [a]James and John saw this, they said, "Lord, do You want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them, [1]just as [b]Elijah did?"
55 But He turned and rebuked them, [1]and said, "You do not know what manner of [a]spirit you are of.
56 [1]"For [a]the Son of Man did not come to destroy men's lives but to save them." And they went to another village.

The Cost of Discipleship

57 [a]Now it happened as they journeyed on the road, that someone said to Him,

Luke. 9:51 Last Journey to Jerusalem

9:41 Jesus had previously given His disciples power and authority to cast out demons. Perhaps their pride and competitive spirit had quenched their spiritual power.

9:51 Jesus setting His face toward Jerusalem marked the time He began traveling to Calvary to be crucified for humanity's sins. Jesus was determined to fulfill His calling and to do His Father's will whatever the cost.

9:54 On this occasion the sons of Zebedee justified their nicknames, the "sons of thunder" (Mark 3:17; Luke 6:14).

ENCOUNTER Note Luke 9:54

Disoriented

Even the most zealous Christians can become radically disoriented to Christ. In our passion to defend His name and to extend His kingdom, we can be so out of touch with His heart that we seek to destroy the very people He wants to save.

"Lord, I will follow You wherever You go."
58 And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man [a]has nowhere to lay His head."
59 [a]Then He said to another, "Follow Me." But he said, "Lord, let me first go and bury my father."
60 Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead, but you go and preach the kingdom of God."
61 And another also said, "Lord, [a]I will follow You, but let me first go and bid them farewell who are at my house."
62 But Jesus said to him, "No one, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is [a]fit for the kingdom of God."

The Seventy Sent Out

10 After these things the Lord appointed [1]seventy others also, and [a]sent them two by two before His face into every city and place where He Himself was about to go.

ENCOUNTER Note Luke 10:1

Forerunners

Each of us has the opportunity to represent Christ. God's Spirit will lead us to share the good news with those in darkness so they have the opportunity to accept the truth of Christ and to believe in Him. God will use us to plant the seeds of salvation in people's hearts to prepare them for Christ's coming.

2 Then He said to them, [a]"The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few; therefore [b]pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest.
3 "Go your way; [a]behold, I send you out as lambs among wolves.
4 [a]"Carry neither money bag, knapsack, nor sandals; and [b]greet no one along the road.
5 [a]"But whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this house.'
6 "And if a son of peace is there, your peace will rest on it; if not, it will return to you.
7 [a]"And remain in the same house, [b]eating and drinking such things as they give, for [c]the laborer is worthy of his wages. Do not go from house to house.
8 "Whatever city you enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you.
9 [a]"And heal the sick there, and say to them, [b]'The kingdom of God has come near to you.'
10 "But whatever city you enter, and they do not receive you, go out into its streets and say,
11 [a]'The very dust of your city which clings to [1]us we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that the kingdom of God has come near you.'
12 [1]"But I say to you that [a]it will be more tolerable in that Day for Sodom than for that city.

Woe to the Impenitent Cities

13 [a]"Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! [b]For if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.
14 "But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for you.
15 [a]"And you, Capernaum, [1]who are [b]exalted to heaven, [c]will be brought down to Hades.
16 [a]"He who hears you hears Me, [b]he who rejects you rejects Me, and [c]he who rejects Me rejects Him who sent Me."

The Seventy Return with Joy

17 Then [a]the [1]seventy returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in Your name."
18 And He said to them, [a]"I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven.
19 "Behold, [a]I give you the authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

9:59 The duty to bury one's parents was extremely important and the law allowed for few exceptions (Num. 6:6, 7; Lev. 21:10, 11).

9:62 Putting your hand to the plow symbolizes undertaking a task. Looking back would make it difficult to plow a straight line.

10:1 Mention of the seventy who were sent out is unique to Luke's account. Jesus' instructions to them were similar to what he told the twelve (Luke 9:1–6). Obviously Jesus had other dedicated followers besides the twelve.

10:17 The term "demon" comes from the Greek word daimōn, meaning "a god" or "a devil." Other scripture passages use the word diabolos for the devil (Rev. 2:10).

10:18 "Satan" comes from the Greek word satanas, which is from a Hebrew word meaning "accuser, adversary." He is God's constant enemy (Job 1:6–12; 2:1–7).

20 "Nevertheless do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but [1]rather rejoice because [a]your names are written in heaven."

Jesus Rejoices in the Spirit

21 [a]In that hour Jesus rejoiced in the Spirit and said, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and revealed them to babes. Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in Your sight.
22 [a]"All[1] things have been delivered to Me by My Father, and [b]no one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son, and the one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him."
23 Then He turned to His disciples and said privately, [a]"Blessed are the eyes which see the things you see;

ENCOUNTER Note Luke 10:23

Seeing Eyes

Don't take your spiritual insights for granted. God enables you to understand His truths; you cannot discover them on your own. Be aware that your spiritual wisdom reflects God's work in your life, enabling you to see and to understand.

24 "for I tell you [a]that many prophets and kings have desired to see what you see, and have not seen it, and to hear what you hear, and have not heard it."

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

25 And behold, a certain [1]lawyer stood up and tested Him, saying, [a]"Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"
26 He said to him, "What is written in the law? What is your reading of it?"
27 So he answered and said, [a]"'You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind,' and [b]'your neighbor as yourself.'"
28 And He said to him, "You have answered rightly; do this and [a]you will live."
29 But he, wanting to [a]justify himself, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"
30 Then Jesus answered and said: "A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among [1]thieves, who stripped him of his clothing, wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.
31 "Now by chance a certain priest came down that road. And when he saw him, [a]he passed by on the other side.
32 "Likewise a Levite, when he arrived at the place, came and looked, and passed by on the other side.
33 "But a certain [a]Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was. And when he saw him, he had [b]compassion.
34 "So he went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine; and he set him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him.
35 "On the next day, [1]when he departed, he took out two [a]denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said to him, 'Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, when I come again, I will repay you.'
36 "So which of these three do you think was neighbor to him who fell among the thieves?"
37 And he said, "He who showed mercy on him." Then Jesus said to him, [a]"Go and do likewise."

Mary and Martha Worship and Serve

38 Now it happened as they went that He entered a certain village; and a certain woman named [a]Martha welcomed Him into her house.
39 And she had a sister called Mary, [a]who also [b]sat at [1]Jesus' feet and heard His word.
40 But Martha was distracted with much serving, and she approached Him and said, "Lord, do You not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Therefore tell her to help me."
41 And [1]Jesus answered and said to her, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and troubled about many things.

10:34 Oil soothed wounds. Wine was used as a disinfectant.

10:35 The typical rate for renting a room was one twelfth of a denarius per day. The Samaritan paid for about twenty-four days.

10:38 This village would have been Bethany, near Jerusalem (John 11:1—12:8).

The Model Prayer

11 Now it came to pass, as He was praying in a certain place, when He ceased, that one of His disciples said to Him, "Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples."
2 So He said to them, "When you pray, say:

[a]Our[1] Father [2]in heaven,
Hallowed be Your name.
Your kingdom come.
[3]Your will be done
On earth as it is in heaven.
3 Give us day by day our daily bread.
4 And [a]forgive us our sins,
For we also forgive everyone who is indebted to us.
And do not lead us into temptation,
[1]But deliver us from the evil one."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Luke 11:2–4

Our Father

Prayer is not a ritual or religious duty. It is communing with your loving, all-powerful, compassionate heavenly Father. No one could ever be as attentive or prepared to respond as He is.

A Friend Comes at Midnight

5 And He said to them, "Which of you shall have a friend, and go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves;
6 'for a friend of mine has come to me on his journey, and I have nothing to set before him';
7 "and he will answer from within and say, 'Do not trouble me; the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give to you'?
8 "I say to you, [a]though he will not rise and give to him because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence he will rise and give him as many as he needs.

Keep Asking, Seeking, Knocking

9 [a]"So I say to you, ask, and it will be given to you; [b]seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.
10 "For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened.
11 [a]"If a son asks for [1]bread from any father among you, will he give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will he give him a serpent instead of a fish?
12 "Or if he asks for an egg, will he offer him a scorpion?
13 "If you then, being evil, know how to give [a]good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!"

A House Divided Cannot Stand

14 [a]And He was casting out a demon, and it was mute. So it was, when the demon had gone out, that the mute spoke; and the multitudes marveled.

16 Others, testing Him, [a]sought from Him a sign from heaven.

HISTORICAL*Encounter* OSWALD CHAMBERS Luke 11:13

As a young man, Oswald Chambers was a gifted artist, planning to study at one of the great European universities. Then he was converted under Charles Spurgeon, and God immediately changed his life's direction. He enrolled at Dunoon Bible Training College and there he heard F.B. Meyer speak about the work of the Holy Spirit. Chambers became miserable as he realized he was not experiencing the powerful work of the Spirit in his life. He claimed, "I knew that if what I had was all the Christianity there was, the thing was a fraud." Then he came upon Luke 11:13. He claimed God's promise of the Holy Spirit, though nothing dramatic occurred at that moment. He was soon asked to speak at a religious meeting. At the close of the service, forty people came to the front of the church, so moved were they by Chambers' message. Chambers would come to know God's powerful presence in dramatic fashion for the rest of his life. After his death, his wife compiled a number of his writings and published them as one of the most beloved Christian books of all time, My Utmost for His Highest.

11:8 This verse does not advocate relentless nagging of God to give you your requests. Rather, it is a dramatic contrast between the reluctance of a weary friend and the loving, generous response of the heavenly Father.

11:15 "Beelzebub" originally referred to the Philistine god Baal-Zebub who was worshipped in the city of Ekron (2 Kin. 1:2, 3, 6, 16). It literally means "lord of the flies." It came to be used as a name for Satan.

cause you say I cast out demons by Beelzebub.
19 "And if I cast out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges.
20 "But if I cast out demons [a]with the finger of God, surely the kingdom of God has come upon you.
21 [a]"When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own palace, his goods are in peace.

23 [a]"He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters.

An Unclean Spirit Returns

24 [a]"When an unclean spirit goes out of a man, he goes through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.'
25 "And when he comes, he finds it swept and put in order.
26 "Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter and dwell there; and [a]the last state of that man is worse than the first."

Keeping the Word

27 And it happened, as He spoke these things, that a certain woman from the crowd raised her voice and said to Him, [a]"Blessed is the womb that bore You, and the breasts which nursed You!"
28 But He said, [a]"More than that, blessed are those who hear the word of God and keep it!"

Seeking a Sign

29 [a]And while the crowds were thickly gathered together, He began to say, "This is an evil generation. It seeks a [b]sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah [1]the prophet.
30 "For as [a]Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so also the Son of Man will be to this generation.

32 "The men of Nineveh will rise up in the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for [a]they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and indeed a greater than Jonah is here.

The Lamp of the Body

33 [a]"No one, when he has lit a lamp, puts it in a secret place or under a [b]basket, but on a lampstand, that those who come in may see the light.
34 [a]"The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore, when your eye is [1]good, your whole body also is full of light. But when your eye is [2]bad, your body also is full of darkness.
35 "Therefore take heed that the light which is in you is not darkness.
36 "If then your whole body is full of light, having no part dark, the whole body will be full of light, as when the bright shining of a lamp gives you light."

Woe to the Pharisees and Lawyers

37 And as He spoke, a certain Pharisee asked Him to dine with him. So He went in and sat down to eat.
38 [a]When the Pharisee saw it, he marveled that He had not first washed before dinner.
39 [a]Then the Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees make the outside of the cup and dish clean, but [b]your inward part is full of [1]greed and wickedness.
40 "Foolish ones! Did not [a]He who made the outside make the inside also?
41 [a]"But rather give alms of [1]such things as you have; then indeed all things are clean to you.
42 [a]"But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and [b]pass by justice and the [c]love of God. These you ought to have done, without leaving the others undone.
43 [a]"Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the [1]best seats in the synagogues and greetings in the marketplaces.
44 [a]"Woe to you, [1]scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! [b]For you are like graves which are not seen, and the men who walk over them are not aware of them."
45 Then one of the lawyers answered and said to Him, "Teacher, by saying these things You reproach us also."
46 And He said, "Woe to you also, lawyers! [a]For you load men with burdens hard to bear, and you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers.

11:20 The finger of God represented God's power.
11:31 The queen of the South was the queen of Sheba (1 Kin. 10:1–13; 2 Chr. 9:1–12).
11:38 This washing was for ritual rather than hygienic purposes. The Old Testament did not require this, but the custom had developed through Jewish tradition.
11:45 Lawyers were also known as scribes and doctors of the law.
11:46 "Burdens" referred to a ship's cargo.

47 [a]"Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.
48 "In fact, you bear witness that you approve the deeds of your fathers; for they indeed killed them, and you build their tombs.
49 "Therefore the wisdom of God also said, [a]'I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and persecute,'
50 "that the blood of all the prophets which was shed from the foundation of the world may be required of this generation,
51 [a]"from the blood of Abel to [b]the blood of Zechariah who perished between the altar and the temple. Yes, I say to you, it shall be required of this generation.
52 [a]"Woe to you lawyers! For you have taken away the key of knowledge. You did not enter in yourselves, and those who were entering in you hindered."
53 [1]And as He said these things to them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to assail Him vehemently, and to cross-examine Him about many things, 54 lying in wait for Him, [1]and [a]seeking to catch Him in something He might say, [2]that they might accuse Him.

Beware of Hypocrisy

12 In [a]the meantime, when an innumerable multitude of people had gathered together, so that they trampled one another, He began to say to His disciples first of all, [b]"Beware of the [1]leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.
2 [a]"For there is nothing covered that will not be revealed, nor hidden that will not be known.
3 "Therefore whatever you have spoken in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have spoken in the ear in inner rooms will be proclaimed on the housetops.

Jesus Teaches the Fear of God

4 [a]"And I say to you, [b]My friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.
5 "But I will show you whom you should fear: Fear Him who, after He has killed, has power to cast into hell; yes, I say to you, [a]fear Him!

Confess Christ Before Men

8 [a]"Also I say to you, whoever confesses Me [b]before men, him the Son of Man also will confess before the angels of God.
9 "But he who [a]denies Me before men will be denied before the angels of God.
10 "And [a]anyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him; but to him who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven.
11 [a]"Now when they bring you to the synagogues and magistrates and authorities, do not worry about how or what you should answer, or what you should say.
12 "For the Holy Spirit will [a]teach you in that very hour what you ought to say."

The Parable of the Rich Fool

13 Then one from the crowd said to Him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."
14 But He said to him, [a]"Man, who made Me a judge or an arbitrator over you?"
15 And He said to them, [a]"Take heed and beware of [1]covetousness, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of the things he possesses."
16 Then He spoke a parable to them, saying: "The ground of a certain rich man yielded plentifully.
17 "And he thought within himself, saying, 'What shall I do, since I have no room to store my crops?'
18 "So he said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build greater, and there I will store all my crops and my goods.
19 'And I will say to my soul, [a]"Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years; take your ease; [b]eat, drink, and be merry." '
20 "But God said to him, 'Fool! This night [a]your soul will be required of you; [b]then whose will those things be which you have provided?'
21 "So is he who lays up treasure for himself, [a]and is not rich toward God."

Do Not Worry

22 Then He said to His disciples, "Therefore I say to you, [a]do not worry about your life, what you will eat; nor about the body, what you will put on.
23 "Life is more than food, and the body is more than clothing.

Do Not Worry

Worry expresses a lack of faith. God has repeatedly promised us in His word that He loves us, that He will provide for our every need and that He is sovereign over our future. If after all these assurances we are still anxious, we underestimate our Lord.

26 "If you then are not able to do the least, why [1]are you anxious for the rest?
27 "Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; and yet I say to you, even [a]Solomon in all his glory was not [1]arrayed like one of these.
28 "If then God so clothes the grass, which today is in the field and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will He clothe you, O you of [a]little faith?
29 "And do not seek what you should eat or what you should drink, nor have an anxious mind.
30 "For all these things the nations of the world seek after, and your Father [a]knows that you need these things.
31 [a]"But seek [1]the kingdom of God, and all these things shall be added to you.
32 "Do not fear, little flock, for [a]it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.
33 [a]"Sell what you have and give [b]alms; [c]provide yourselves money bags which do not grow old, a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches nor moth destroys.
34 "For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

The Faithful Servant and the Evil Servant

35 [a]"Let your waist be girded and [b]your lamps burning;
36 "and you yourselves be like men who wait for their master, when he will return from the wedding, that when he comes and knocks they may open to him immediately.
37 [a]"Blessed are those servants whom the master, when he comes, will find watching. Assuredly, I say to you that he will gird himself and have them sit down to eat, and will come and serve them.
38 "And if he should come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.
39 [a]"But know this, that if the master of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would [1]have watched and not allowed his house to be broken into.
40 [a]"Therefore you also be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect."
41 Then Peter said to Him, "Lord, do You speak this parable only to us, or to all people?"
42 And the Lord said, [a]"Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his master will make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of food [1]in due season?
43 "Blessed is that servant whom his master will find so doing when he comes.
44 [a]"Truly, I say to you that he will make him ruler over all that he has.
45 [a]"But if that servant says in his heart, 'My master is delaying his coming,' and begins to beat the male and female servants, and to eat and drink and be drunk,
46 "the master of that servant will come on a [a]day when he is not looking for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in two and appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.
47 "And [a]that servant who [b]knew his master's will, and did not prepare himself or do according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.
48 [a]"But he who did not know, yet committed things deserving of stripes, shall be beaten with few. For everyone to whom much is given, from him much will be required; and to whom much has been committed, of him they will ask the more.

12:24 Ravens were despised and considered unclean (Lev. 11:15; Deut. 14:14), yet God cared even for them.

12:34 Jesus explained that what we value is what we give our attention to. If we invest our wealth into people and into God's kingdom, then that is what our heart will care for.

12:35 These are symbols of readiness. Without a lamp at night, a person was unable to work or travel. Girding one's waist was necessary before someone could work or travel quickly.

12:48 This indicates that rewards and punishments in God's kingdom will not be equal. While salvation is based on God's grace through our faith, rewards as well as punishments are based on our faithfulness.

51 [a]"Do you suppose that I came to give peace on earth? I tell you, not at all, [b]but rather division.

53 [a]"Father will be divided against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

Discern the Time

54 Then He also said to the multitudes, [a]"Whenever you see a cloud rising out of the west, immediately you say, 'A shower is coming'; and so it is.
55 "And when you see the [a]south wind blow, you say, 'There will be hot weather'; and there is.
56 "Hypocrites! You can discern the face of the sky and of the earth, but how is it you do not discern [a]this time?

ENCOUNTER Note Luke 12:56

Experts

We become experts in many things. We can spend years studying for our careers, tending our finances and monitoring our health. But if we fail to learn the ways of God, this oversight will cost us dearly.

59 "I tell you, you shall not depart from there till you have paid the very last mite."

Repent or Perish

13 There were present at that season some who told Him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had [1]mingled with their sacrifices.
2 And Jesus answered and said to them, "Do you suppose that these Galileans were worse sinners than all other Galileans, because they suffered such things?
3 "I tell you, no; but unless you repent you will all likewise perish.

Celebrating God's Activity

True disciples of Jesus rejoice whenever they see God at work. Whether it is answered prayer, a miracle, the repentance of a sinner or any divine work that glorifies God, genuine believers spontaneously celebrate, as angels do, when they see God's activity.

5 "I tell you, no; but unless you repent you will all likewise perish."

The Parable of the Barren Fig Tree

6 He also spoke this parable: [a]"A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it and found none.
7 "Then he said to the keeper of his vineyard, 'Look, for three years I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree and find none. Cut it down; why does it [1]use up the ground?'
8 "But he answered and said to him, 'Sir, let it alone this year also, until I dig around it and fertilize it.
9 [1]'And if it bears fruit, well. But if not, after that you can [a]cut it down.' "

A Spirit of Infirmity

10 Now He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath.
11 And behold, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bent over and could in no way [1]raise herself up.
12 But when Jesus saw her, He called her to Him and said to her, "Woman, you are loosed from your [a]infirmity."
13 [a]And He laid His hands on her, and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.
14 But the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because Jesus had [a]healed on the Sabbath; and he said to the crowd, [b]"There are six days on which men ought to work; therefore come and be healed on them, and [c]not on the Sabbath day."
15 The Lord then answered him and said, [1]"Hypocrite! [a]Does not each one of you on the Sabbath loose his ox or donkey from the stall, and lead it away to water it?

12:52 Believers are to expect that following Jesus will at times bring them into conflict with family and friends.

13:4 Siloam was located in the southeastern section of Jerusalem.

16 "So ought not this woman, [a]being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has bound—think of it—for eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath?"
17 And when He said these things, all His adversaries were put to shame; and all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were [a]done by Him.

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

18 [a]Then He said, "What is the kingdom of God like? And to what shall I compare it?
19 "It is like a mustard seed, which a man took and put in his garden; and it grew and became a [1]large tree, and the birds of the air nested in its branches."

The Parable of the Leaven

20 And again He said, "To what shall I liken the kingdom of God?
21 "It is like [1]leaven, which a woman took and hid in three [a]measures[2] of meal till it was all leavened."

The Narrow Way

22 [a]And He went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem.
23 Then one said to Him, "Lord, are there [a]few who are saved?" And He said to them, 24 [a]"Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for [b]many, I say to you, will seek to enter and will not be able.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Luke 13:24

The Narrow Gate

The gate to salvation is narrow and only a minority of people enter through it. While generous-hearted people often seek to expand the way, God is the one who established the means of salvation, and He has made it narrow.

25 [a]"When once the Master of the house has risen up and [b]shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and knock at the door, saying, [c]'Lord, Lord, open for us,' and He will answer and say to you, [d]'I do not know you, where you are from,'
26 "then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in Your presence, and You taught in our streets.'

30 [a]"And indeed there are last who will be first, and there are first who will be last."
31 [1]On that very day some Pharisees came, saying to Him, "Get out and depart from here, for Herod wants to kill You."
32 And He said to them, "Go, tell that fox, 'Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day [a]I shall be [1]perfected.'
33 "Nevertheless I must journey today, tomorrow, and the day following; for it cannot be that a prophet should perish outside of Jerusalem.

Jesus Laments over Jerusalem

34 [a]"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the one who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, but you were not willing!

ENCOUNTER*Note* Luke 13:34

Unwilling

It is heartbreaking to watch as Christ continues to pursue those who need Him so desperately, yet in their blindness they stubbornly reject His every overture.

35 "See! [a]Your house is left to you desolate; and [1]assuredly, I say to you, you shall not see Me until the time comes when you say, [b]'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!' "

A Man with Dropsy Healed on the Sabbath

14 Now it happened, as He went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees to eat bread on the Sabbath, that they watched Him closely.
2 And behold, there was a certain man before Him who had dropsy.

13:19 A mustard tree would grow to be about twelve feet tall.
13:27 "Iniquity" comes from the Greek word adikia meaning "unrighteousness, injustice, and wrongfulness."
13:33 Though they were revered later in history, God's prophets were often killed by the people to whom they were sent (1 Kin. 18:4, 13; 19:10, 14; 2 Chr. 24:21; Jer. 2:30; 26:20–23; 38:4–6; Amos 7:10–17).
13:34 Repeating the name "Jerusalem" indicates deep sorrow and compassion.
14:2 Dropsy was a condition in which a person retained excess water, which caused swollen limbs (Num. 5:11–27).

3 And Jesus, answering, spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, [a]"Is it lawful to heal on the [1]Sabbath?"
4 But they kept silent. And He took him and healed him, and let him go.
5 Then He answered them, saying, [a]"Which of you, having a [1]donkey or an ox that has fallen into a pit, will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath day?"
6 And they could not answer Him regarding these things.

Take the Lowly Place

7 So He told a parable to those who were invited, when He noted how they chose the best places, saying to them:
8 "When you are invited by anyone to a wedding feast, do not sit down in the best place, lest one more honorable than you be invited by him;
9 "and he who invited you and him come and say to you, 'Give place to this man,' and then you begin with shame to take the lowest place.
10 [a]"But when you are invited, go and sit down in the lowest place, so that when he who invited you comes he may say to you, 'Friend, go up higher.' Then you will have glory in the presence of those who sit at the table with you.
11 [a]"For whoever exalts himself will be [1]humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

ENCOUNTER Note — Luke 14:11

Humility

Our natural tendency is to promote ourselves because we want others to think well of us. Yet God wants us to take our eyes off ourselves and to look to Him. If we will act humbly, God will work powerfully through us.

12 Then He also said to him who invited Him, "When you give a dinner or a supper, do not ask your friends, your brothers, your relatives, nor rich neighbors, lest they also invite you back, and you be repaid.
13 "But when you give a feast, invite [a]the poor, the [1]maimed, the lame, the blind.
14 "And you will be [a]blessed, because they cannot repay you; for you shall be repaid at the resurrection of the just."

The Parable of the Great Supper

15 Now when one of those who sat at the table with Him heard these things, he said to Him, [a]"Blessed is he who shall eat [1]bread in the kingdom of God!"
16 [a]Then He said to him, "A certain man gave a great supper and invited many,
17 "and [a]sent his servant at supper time to say to those who were invited, 'Come, for all things are now ready.'
18 "But they all with one accord began to make excuses. The first said to him, 'I have bought a piece of ground, and I must go and see it. I ask you to have me excused.'
19 "And another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to test them. I ask you to have me excused.'
20 "Still another said, 'I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.'
21 "So that servant came and reported these things to his master. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in here the poor and the [1]maimed and the lame and the blind.'
22 "And the servant said, 'Master, it is done as you commanded, and still there is room.'
23 "Then the master said to the servant, 'Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.
24 'For I say to you [a]that none of those men who were invited shall taste my supper.' "

Leaving All to Follow Christ

25 Now great multitudes went with Him. And He turned and said to them,
26 [a]"If anyone comes to Me [b]and does not hate his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, [c]yes, and his own life also, he cannot be My disciple.
27 "And [a]whoever does not bear his cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple.
28 "For [a]which of you, intending to build a tower, does not sit down first and count the cost, whether he has enough to finish it—
29 "lest, after he has laid the foundation, and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him,

Tasteless Salt Is Worthless

34 [a]"Salt is good; but if the salt has lost its flavor, how shall it be seasoned?

WORD*Study* SALT

Luke 14:34 Salt was valuable in the Middle East. It could be used to preserve meat; it was offered with sacrifices (Lev 2:13); it was sometimes given as a part of one's salary. It could be used as a catalyst for burning cattle dung. Salt taken from the Dead Sea area could contain impurities that caused it to lose its saltiness over time, becoming useless.

35 "It is neither fit for the land nor for

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

15 Then [a]all the tax collectors and the sinners drew near to Him to hear
Him.
2 And the Pharisees and scribes complained, saying, "This Man [1]receives sinners [a]and eats with them."
3 So He spoke this parable to them, saying:
4 [a]"What man of you, having a hundred sheep, if he loses one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one which is lost until he finds it?
5 "And when he has found it, he lays it
on his shoulders, rejoicing.
6 "And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, [a]'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep [b]which was lost!'
7 "I say to you that likewise there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents [a]than over ninety-nine tance.

The Parable of the Lost Son

11 Then He said: "A certain man had two sons.
12 "And the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the portion of goods that falls to me.' So he divided to them [a]his livelihood.
13 "And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together, journeyed to a far country, and there wasted his possessions with [1]prodigal living.
14 "But when he had spent all, there arose a severe famine in that land, and he began to be in want.
15 "Then he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.
16 "And he would gladly have filled his stomach with the [1]pods that the swine ate, and no one gave him anything.
17 "But when he came to himself, he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!
18 'I will arise and go to my father, and will say to him, "Father, [a]I have sinned against heaven and before you, 19 "and I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Make me like one of your hired servants." '
20 "And he arose and came to his father.
But [a]when he was still a great way off,
his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and fell on his neck and kissed
him.
21 "And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven [a]and in your sight, and am no longer worthy to be called your son.'
22 "But the father said to his servants,
[1]'Bring out the best robe and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand and sandals on his feet.

15:1 Sinners were drawn to Jesus by His love rather than feeling condemned by His righteousness. Despite Christ's sinless perfection, those who knew themselves to be sinners were attracted to Him.

15:2 In Middle Eastern culture, sharing a meal with someone was to accept them and to share your life with that person and them in friendship.

15:3 To tell a parable means literally "to place beside" and is a fictional story used to teach a deeper truth.

15:8 A silver coin, literally a drachma, was equivalent to a day's wages.

15:13 The word "wasted" means "scattered, dispersed." "Prodigal" means "wasteful, extravagant."

15:22 The father had the right to exercise control over his property even if he had already willed it to his oldest son. A ring symbolized authority. Sandals were a luxury.

23 'And bring the fatted calf here and kill it, and let us eat and be merry; 24 [a]"for this my son was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.'
And they began to be merry.
25 "Now his older son was in the field.
And as he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing.
26 "So he called one of the servants and asked what these things meant.
27 "And he said to him, 'Your brother has come, and because he has received him safe and sound, your father has killed the fatted calf.'
28 "But he was angry and would not go in. Therefore his father came out and pleaded with him.
29 "So he answered and said to his father, 'Lo, these many years I have been serving you; I never transgressed your commandment at any time; and yet you never gave me a young goat, that I might make merry with my friends.
30 'But as soon as this son of yours came, who has devoured your livelihood with harlots, you killed the fatted calf for him.'
31 "And he said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that I have is yours.
32 'It was right that we should make merry and be glad, [a]for your brother was dead and is alive again, and was lost and is found.' "

Dead and Alive

Repentance initiates a miracle, bringing what is dead back to life. Sin brings death. Repentance returns us to God, the source of life.

The Parable of the Unjust Steward

16 He also said to His disciples:
"There was a certain rich man who had a steward, and an accusation was brought to him that this man was [1]wasting his goods.
2 "So he called him and said to him,
'What is this I hear about you? Give an [a]account of your stewardship, for you can no longer be steward.'
3 "Then the steward said within himself, 'What shall I do? For my master is taking the stewardship away from me. I cannot dig; I am ashamed to beg.

I am put out of the stewardship, they

ENCOUNTER Note — Luke 16:10

Faithful

God will not entrust great responsibility to someone who has not been faithful with a little. If you are frustrated that God is not doing more in your life, consider how you handled the last assignment He gave you.

11 "Therefore if you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?
12 "And if you have not been faithful in what is another man's, who will give you what is your [a]own?
13 [a]"No servant can serve two masters;
for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon."

The Law, the Prophets, and the Kingdom

14 Now the Pharisees, [a]who were lovers of money, also heard all these things, and they [1]derided Him.
15 And He said to them, "You are those who [a]justify yourselves [b]before men, but [c]God knows your hearts. For [d]what is highly esteemed among men is an abomination in the sight of God.
16 [a]"The law and the prophets were until John. Since that time the kingdom of God has been preached, and everyone is pressing into it.

The Rich Man and Lazarus

19 "There was a certain rich man who was clothed in purple and fine linen and [1]fared sumptuously every day.
20 "But there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, full of sores, who was laid at his gate, 21 "desiring to be fed with [1]the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table. Moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.
22 "So it was that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels to [a]Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died and was buried.
23 "And being in torments in Hades, he lifted up his eyes and saw Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.
24 "Then he cried and said, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and [a]cool my tongue; for I [b]am tormented in this flame.'
25 "But Abraham said, 'Son, [a]remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things; but now he is comforted and you are tormented.
26 'And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, so that those who want to pass from here to you cannot, nor can those from there pass to us.'
27 "Then he said, 'I beg you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father's house,
28 'for I have five brothers, that he may testify to them, lest they also come to this place of torment.'
29 "Abraham said to him, [a]'They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.'
30 "And he said, 'No, father Abraham; but if one goes to them from the dead, they will repent.'
31 "But he said to him, [a]'If they do not hear Moses and the prophets, [b]neither will they be persuaded though one rise from the dead.' "

Jesus Warns of Offenses

17 Then He said to the disciples, [a]"It is impossible that no [1]offenses should come, but [b]woe to him through whom they do come!
2 "It would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, than that he should [1]offend one of these little ones.
3 "Take heed to yourselves. [a]If your brother sins [1]against you, [b]rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him.
4 "And if he sins against you seven times in a day, and seven times in a day returns [1]to you, saying, 'I repent,' you shall forgive him."

ENCOUNTER Note — Luke 16:31

How Much?

How much does it take to convince people to follow Christ? Those who are determined to harden their hearts will not listen to the prophets or believe the Scriptures. Neither will they acknowledge the One who has risen from the dead.

ENCOUNTER Note — Luke 17:4

Forgiveness

Forgiveness can be a most difficult thing to do. It goes against human nature to act lovingly toward someone who has offended us. Only God's grace working in our lives through faith can enable us to do this.

Faith and Duty

5 And the apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith."
6 [a]So the Lord said, "If you have faith as a mustard seed, you can say to this mulberry tree, 'Be pulled up by the roots and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.
7 "And which of you, having a servant plowing or tending sheep, will say to him when he has come in from the field, 'Come at once and sit down to eat'?
8 "But will he not rather say to him, 'Prepare something for my supper, and gird yourself [a]and serve me till I have eaten and drunk, and afterward you will eat and drink'?
9 "Does he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded [1]him? I think not.

16:20 The name Lazarus means "he whom God has helped." This is the only parable in which Jesus specifically names a character. The fact that the rich man knew Lazarus' name indicates that he knew of his dire condition but did nothing to help him.

16:21 Dogs were despised by Hebrews because they were scavengers, eating garbage and dead animals. Their licking of Lazarus would not only have made him susceptible to infection, it would also have made him ritually unclean.

16:25 The rich man was extended the same standard of mercy he had given to others while he lived.

10 "So likewise you, when you have done all those things which you are commanded, say, 'We are [a]unprofitable servants. We have done what was our duty to do.' "

Ten Lepers Cleansed

11 Now it happened [a]as He went to Jerusalem that He passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.
12 Then as He entered a certain village, there met Him ten men who were lepers, [a]who stood afar off.
13 And they lifted up their voices and said, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"
14 So when He saw them, He said to them, [a]"Go, show yourselves to the priests." And so it was that as they went, they were cleansed.
15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, returned, and with a loud voice [a]glorified God,
16 and fell down on his face at His feet, giving Him thanks. And he was a [a]Samaritan.

ENCOUNTER Note Luke 17:15, 16

Thanksgiving

Those who truly understand what God has done for them cannot thank or praise Him enough. They recognize their unworthiness, and everything within them cries out, "To God be the glory!"

17 So Jesus answered and said, "Were there not ten cleansed? But where are the nine?
18 "Were there not any found who returned to give glory to God except this foreigner?"
19 [a]And He said to him, "Arise, go your way. Your faith has made you well."

The Coming of the Kingdom

20 Now when He was asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, He answered them and said, "The kingdom of God does not come with observation;
21 [a]"nor will they say, [1]'See here!' or 'See there!' For indeed, [b]the kingdom of God is [2]within you."
22 Then He said to the disciples, [a]"The days will come when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it.

23 [a]"And they will say to you, [1]'Look here!' or 'Look there!' Do not go after them or follow them.
24 [a]"For as the lightning that flashes out of one part under heaven shines to the other part under heaven, so also the Son of Man will be in His day.
25 [a]"But first He must suffer many things and be [b]rejected by this generation.
26 [a]"And as it [b]was in the [c]days of [d]Noah, so it will be also in the days of the Son of Man:
27 "They ate, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the [a]day that Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and [b]destroyed them all.
28 [a]"Likewise as it was also in the days of Lot: They ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built;
29 "but on [a]the day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all.
30 "Even so will it be in the day when the Son of Man [a]is revealed.
31 "In that day, he [a]who is on the housetop, and his [1]goods are in the house, let him not come down to take them away. And likewise the one who is in the field, let him not turn back.
32 [a]"Remember Lot's wife.
33 [a]"Whoever seeks to save his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life will preserve it.
34 [a]"I tell you, in that night there will be two [1]men in one bed: the one will be taken and the other will be left.
35 [a]"Two women will be grinding together: the one will be taken and the other left.
36 [1]"Two men will be in the field: the one will be taken and the other left."
37 And they answered and said to Him, [a]"Where, Lord?" So He said to them, "Wherever the body is, there the eagles will be gathered together."

The Parable of the Persistent Widow

18 Then He spoke a parable to them, that men [a]always ought to pray and not lose heart,
2 saying: "There was in a certain city a judge who did not fear God nor [1]regard man.
3 "Now there was a widow in that city; and she came to him, saying, [1]'Get justice for me from my adversary.'

17:21 "Within you" can also be translated, "in your midst." The religious leaders were looking for a spectacular coming of the kingdom of God, so they did not recognize God's Son when He came in humility.

17:27 Eating and drinking symbolize life as usual. God's judgment caught people totally unprepared.

18:3 Widows represented the most helpless and needy people in society. Luke gives much attention to widows and their plight (Luke 2:37; 4:25, 26; 7:12; 20:47; 21:2, 3).

4 "And he would not for a while; but afterward he said within himself, 'Though I do not fear God nor regard man,
5 [a]'yet because this widow troubles me I will [1]avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.' "
6 Then the Lord said, "Hear what the unjust judge said.
7 "And [a]shall God not avenge His own elect who cry out day and night to Him, though He bears long with them?
8 "I tell you [a]that He will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will He really find faith on the earth?"

The Parable of the Pharisee and the Tax Collector

9 Also He spoke this parable to some [a]who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others:
10 "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector.
11 "The Pharisee [a]stood and prayed thus with himself, [b]'God, I thank You that I am not like other men—extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this tax collector.
12 'I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I possess.'
13 "And the tax collector, standing afar off, would not so much as raise his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me a sinner!'
14 "I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; [a]for everyone who exalts himself will be [1]humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

Jesus Blesses Little Children

17 [a]"Assuredly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will by no means enter it."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Luke 18:17

As a Child

God's greatness is beyond the most brilliant scholar's comprehension. Yet we must all come to Christ in the same way, in humility and simplicity, as a little child.

Jesus Counsels the Rich Young Ruler

18 [a]Now a certain ruler asked Him, saying, "Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"
19 So Jesus said to him, "Why do you call Me good? No one is good but [a]One, that is, God.
20 "You know the commandments: [a]'Do not commit adultery,' 'Do not murder,' 'Do not steal,' 'Do not bear false witness,' [b]'Honor your father and your mother.' "
21 And he said, "All [a]these things I have kept from my youth."
22 So when Jesus heard these things, He said to him, "You still lack one thing. [a]Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me."
23 But when he heard this, he became very sorrowful, for he was very rich.

With God All Things Are Possible

24 And when Jesus saw that he became very sorrowful, He said, [a]"How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!

C.T. STUDD

C.T. Studd was a popular cricket player in England and heir to a substantial fortune. At twenty-three, knowing God had called him to missions in China, he had to decide what he would do with the enormous wealth he would inherit when he turned twenty-five. As he read scripture, he was deeply impacted by Jesus' words to the rich young ruler. Studd determined to do what the ruler had failed to do. He gave his money to various mission causes, such as the China Inland Mission, George Mueller's orphanages, and the Salvation Army. Three years after arriving in China, he married Priscilla Stuart. Upon learning Studd had a small amount of his fortune remaining, she reminded him that Jesus commanded the young ruler to sell "all." So Studd yielded the final portion of his inheritance and spent his remaining days as a missionary challenging many others to join with him in wholehearted service to God.

18:10 Public prayer times at the temple were at nine in the morning and three in the afternoon.

18:11 The Pharisee used the pronoun "I" five times in two sentences. Jesus was demonstrating how self-centeredness can blind people to their true condition before God.

25 "For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."
26 And those who heard it said, "Who then can be saved?"
27 But He said, [a]"The things which are impossible with men are possible with God."

ENCOUNTER Note — Luke 18:27

Impossible

Life transformation is impossible apart from the work of the Holy Spirit. We have no remedy for sin. We have no antidote for evil. Yet God is delighted to do what it is impossible for us to do.

28 [a]Then Peter said, "See, we have left [1]all and followed You."
29 So He said to them, "Assuredly, I say to you, [a]there is no one who has left house or parents or brothers or wife or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God,
30 [a]"who shall not receive many times more in this present time, and in the age to come eternal life."

Jesus a Third Time Predicts His Death and Resurrection

31 [a]Then He took the twelve aside and said to them, "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all things [b]that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of Man will be [1]accomplished.
32 "For [a]He will be delivered to the Gentiles and will be mocked and insulted and spit upon.
33 "They will scourge Him and kill Him. And the third day He will rise again."
34 [a]But they understood none of these things; this saying was hidden from them, and they did not know the things which were spoken.

A Blind Man Receives His Sight

35 [a]Then it happened, as He was coming near Jericho, that a certain blind man sat by the road begging.
36 And hearing a multitude passing by, he asked what it meant.
37 So they told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by.
38 And he cried out, saying, "Jesus, [a]Son of David, have mercy on me!"
39 Then those who went before warned him that he should be quiet; but he cried out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

42 Then Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight; [a]your faith has made you well."
43 And immediately he received his sight, and followed Him, [a]glorifying God. And all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

Jesus Comes to Zacchaeus' House

19 Then Jesus entered and passed through [a]Jericho.
2 Now behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus who was a chief tax collector, and he was rich.
3 And he sought to [a]see who Jesus was, but could not because of the crowd, for he was of short stature.
4 So he ran ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Him, for He was going to pass that way.
5 And when Jesus came to the place, He looked up [1]and saw him, and said to him, "Zacchaeus, [2]make haste and come down, for today I must stay at your house."
6 So he [1]made haste and came down, and received Him joyfully.
7 But when they saw it, they all [1]complained, saying, [a]"He has gone to be a guest with a man who is a sinner."
8 Then Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord, I give half of my goods to the [a]poor; and if I have taken anything from anyone by [b]false accusation, [c]I restore fourfold."
9 And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because [a]he also is [b]a son of Abraham;
10 [a]"for the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost."

The Parable of the Minas

11 Now as they heard these things, He spoke another parable, because He was near Jerusalem and because [a]they thought the kingdom of God would appear immediately.
12 [a]Therefore He said: "A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom and to return.
13 "So he called ten of his servants, delivered to them ten [1]minas, and said to them, 'Do business till I come.'
14 [a]"But his citizens hated him, and sent a delegation after him, saying, 'We will not have this man to reign over us.'

18:35 Mark gives the man's name as Bartimaeus (Mark 10:46).
18:42 "Receive your sight" is literally "see."
19:2 The name Zacchaeus means "righteous one."

15 "And so it was that when he returned, having received the kingdom, he then commanded these servants, to whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.
16 "Then came the first, saying, 'Master, your mina has earned ten minas.'
17 "And he said to him, [a]'Well done, good servant; because you were [b]faithful in a very little, have authority over ten cities.'
18 "And the second came, saying, 'Master, your mina has earned five minas.'
19 "Likewise he said to him, 'You also be over five cities.'
20 "Then another came, saying, 'Master, here is your mina, which I have kept put away in a handkerchief.
21 [a]'For I feared you, because you are [1]an austere man. You collect what you did not deposit, and reap what you did not sow.'
22 "And he said to him, [a]'Out of your own mouth I will judge you, you wicked servant. [b]You knew that I was an austere man, collecting what I did not deposit and reaping what I did not sow.
23 'Why then did you not put my money in the bank, that at my coming I might have collected it with interest?'
24 "And he said to those who stood by, 'Take the mina from him, and give it to him who has ten minas.'
25 ("But they said to him, 'Master, he has ten minas.')
26 'For I say to you, [a]that to everyone who has will be given; and from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him.
27 'But bring here those enemies of mine, who did not want me to reign over them, and slay them before me.' "

The Triumphal Entry

28 When He had said this, [a]He went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.
29 [a]And it came to pass, when He drew near to [1]Bethphage and [b]Bethany, at the mountain called [c]Olivet, that He sent two of His disciples,
30 saying, "Go into the village opposite you, where as you enter you will find a colt tied, on which no one has ever sat. Loose it and bring it here.
31 "And if anyone asks you, 'Why are you loosing it?' thus you shall say to him, 'Because the Lord has need of it.' "
32 So those who were sent went their way and found it just [a]as He had said to them.
33 But as they were loosing the colt, the owners of it said to them, "Why are you loosing the colt?"
34 And they said, "The Lord has need of him."
35 Then they brought him to Jesus. [a]And they threw their own clothes on the colt, and they set Jesus on him.
36 And as He went, many spread their clothes on the road.
37 Then, as He was now drawing near the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to [a]rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works they had seen,
38 saying:

[a]" 'Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the LORD!'
[b]Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!"

39 And some of the Pharisees called to Him from the crowd, "Teacher, rebuke Your disciples."
40 But He answered and said to them, "I tell you that if these should keep silent, [a]the stones would immediately cry out."

Jesus Weeps over Jerusalem

41 Now as He drew near, He saw the city and [a]wept over it,
42 saying, "If you had known, even you, especially in this [a]your day, the things that [b]make for your [c]peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes.
43 "For days will come upon you when your enemies will [a]build an embankment around you, surround you and close you in on every side,
44 [a]"and level you, and your children within you, to the ground; and [b]they will not leave in you one stone upon another, [c]because you did not know the time of your visitation."

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

45 [a]Then He went into the temple and began to drive out those who [1]bought and sold in it,
46 saying to them, "It is written, [a]'My house [1]is a house of prayer,' but you have made it a [b]'den of thieves.' "
47 And He [a]was teaching daily in the temple. But [b]the chief priests, the 19:36 Throwing one's outer garments on the road was a symbol of deep respect. This gesture was usually reserved for royalty (2 Kin. 9:13).

19:41 This verse and John 11:35 are the only recorded instances of Jesus weeping. In both cases He grieved over people's spiritual blindness.

19:43 Jesus' words foreshadowed the siege of Jerusalem, under the Roman general Titus, that ultimately led to its destruction in 70 A.D.

True Worship

We continually try to turn our relationship with God into a complicated religion. God seeks to remove artificial barriers that hinder us from coming to Him.

scribes, and the leaders of the people sought to destroy Him, 48 and were unable to do anything; for all the people were very attentive to [a]hear Him.

Jesus' Authority Questioned

20 Now [a]it happened on one of those days, as He taught the people in the temple and preached the gospel, that the chief priests and the scribes, together with the elders, confronted Him
2 and spoke to Him, saying, "Tell us, [a]by what authority are You doing these things? Or who is he who gave You this authority?"
3 But He answered and said to them, "I also will ask you one thing, and answer Me:
4 "The [a]baptism of John—was it from heaven or from men?"
5 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say, 'Why [1]then did you not believe him?'
6 "But if we say, 'From men,' all the people will stone us, [a]for they are persuaded that John was a prophet."
7 So they answered that they did not know where it was from.
8 And Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

The Parable of the Wicked Vinedressers

9 Then He began to tell the people this parable: [a]"A certain man planted a vineyard, leased it to [1]vinedressers, and went into a far country for a long time.
10 "Now at [1]vintage-time he [a]sent a servant to the vinedressers, that they might give him some of the fruit of the vineyard. But the vinedressers beat him and sent him away empty-handed.
11 "Again he sent another servant; and they beat him also, treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty-handed.
12 "And again he sent a third; and they wounded him also and cast him out.
13 "Then the owner of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my beloved son. Probably they will respect him when they see him.'
14 "But when the vinedressers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, 'This is the [a]heir. Come, [b]let us kill him, that the inheritance may be [c]ours.'
15 "So they cast him out of the vineyard and [a]killed him. Therefore what will the owner of the vineyard do to them?
16 "He will come and destroy those vinedressers and give the vineyard to [a]others." And when they heard it they said, "Certainly not!"
17 Then He looked at them and said, "What then is this that is written:

> [a]'The stone which the builders rejected
> Has become the chief cornerstone'?

18 "Whoever falls on that stone will be [a]broken; but [b]on whomever it falls, it will grind him to powder."
19 And the chief priests and the scribes that very hour sought to lay hands on Him, but they [1]feared the people—for they knew He had spoken this parable against them.

The Pharisees: Is It Lawful to Pay Taxes to Caesar?

20 [a]So they watched Him, and sent spies who pretended to be righteous, that they might seize on His words, in order to deliver Him to the power and the authority of the governor.
21 Then they asked Him, saying, [a]"Teacher, we know that You say and teach rightly, and You do not show personal favoritism, but teach the way of God in truth:
22 "Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"
23 But He perceived their craftiness, and said to them, [1]"Why do you test Me?

Reaching Out

God continually seeks a relationship with us. We may reject or ignore His overtures, but in His grace He uses many ways to reach out to us. Have you noticed the numerous messages of love He has been sending you?

20:14 There was some precedence in the ancient world that if a man died without an heir, his property could be distributed among his laborers.

20:24 By having the Pharisees show Him a denarius, Jesus proved that even the Pharisees acknowledged the political authority of the emperor Tiberius since they were using his coinage themselves.

26 But they could not catch Him in His words in the presence of the people. And they marveled at His answer and kept silent.

The Sadducees: What About the Resurrection?

27 [a]Then some of the Sadducees, [b]who deny that there is a resurrection, came to Him and asked Him,
28 saying: "Teacher, Moses wrote to us that if a man's brother dies, having a wife, and he dies without children, his brother should take his wife and raise up offspring for his brother.
29 "Now there were seven brothers. And the first took a wife, and died without children.
30 "And the second [1]took her as wife, and he died childless.
31 "Then the third took her, and in like manner the seven [1]also; and they left no children, and died.
32 "Last of all the woman died also.
33 "Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife does she become? For all seven had her as wife."
34 Jesus answered and said to them, "The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage.
35 "But those who are [a]counted worthy to attain that age, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry nor are given in marriage;
36 "nor can they die anymore, for [a]they are equal to the angels and are sons of God, [b]being sons of the resurrection.
37 "But even Moses showed in the burning bush passage that the dead are raised, when he called the Lord [a]'the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.'
38 "For He is not the God of the dead but of the living, for [a]all live to Him."
39 Then some of the scribes answered and said, "Teacher, You have spoken well."
40 But after that they dared not question Him anymore.

Beware of the Scribes

45 [a]Then, in the hearing of all the people, He said to His disciples,
46 [a]"Beware of the scribes, who desire to go around in long robes, [b]love greetings in the marketplaces, the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts,
47 [a]"who devour widows' houses, and for a [b]pretense make long prayers. These will receive greater condemnation."

The Widow's Two Mites

21 And He looked up [a]and saw the rich putting their gifts into the treasury,
2 and He saw also a certain [a]poor widow putting in two [b]mites.[1]
3 So He said, "Truly I say to you [a]that this poor widow has put in more than all;
4 "for all these out of their abundance have put in offerings [1]for God, but she out of her poverty put in [a]all the livelihood that she had."

Jesus Predicts the Destruction of the Temple

5 [a]Then, as some spoke of the temple, how it was [1]adorned with beautiful stones and donations, He said,
6 "These things which you see—the days will come in which [a]not one stone shall be left upon another that shall not be thrown down."

The Signs of the Times and the End of the Age

7 So they asked Him, saying, "Teacher, but when will these things be? And what sign will there be when these things are about to take place?"
8 And He said: [a]"Take heed that you not be deceived. For many will come in My name, saying, 'I am He,' and, 'The time has drawn near.' [1]Therefore do not [2]go after them.
9 "But when you hear of [a]wars and commotions, do not be terrified; for these things must come to pass first, but the end will not come immediately."

20:28 Levirate marriage allowed for a widow to marry her deceased husband's brother to produce an heir and to carry on the family name (Deut. 25:5; Ruth 4:1–12).

21:2 Mites were small copper coins worth a fraction of a penny. They were the smallest money in circulation.

21:5 Herod the Great launched a massive refurbishing of the temple lasting from 20 B.C. until A.D.. 64. Giant white stones twelve feet by sixty feet were used. Gold and silver adorned the structure, making it one of the world wonders of the day.

10 [a]Then He said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom.
11 "And there will be great [a]earthquakes in various places, and famines and pestilences; and there will be fearful sights and great signs from heaven.
12 [a]"But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and [b]prisons. [c]You will be brought before kings and rulers [d]for My name's sake.
13 "But [a]it will turn out for you as an occasion for testimony.
14 [a]"Therefore settle it in your hearts not to meditate beforehand on what you will [1]answer;
15 "for I will give you a mouth and wisdom [a]which all your adversaries will not be able to contradict or [1]resist.
16 [a]"You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, relatives and friends; and they will put [b]some of you to death.
17 "And [a]you will be hated by all for My name's sake.
18 [a]"But not a hair of your head shall be lost.
19 "By your patience possess your souls.

The Destruction of Jerusalem

20 [a]"But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation is near.
21 "Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, let those who are in the midst of her depart, and let not those who are in the country enter her.
22 "For these are the days of vengeance, that [a]all things which are written may be fulfilled.
23 [a]"But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! For there will be great distress in the land and wrath upon this people.
24 "And they will fall by the edge of the sword, and be led away captive into all nations. And Jerusalem will be trampled by Gentiles [a]until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

The Coming of the Son of Man

25 [a]"And there will be signs in the sun, in the moon, and in the stars; and on the earth distress of nations, with perplexity, the sea and the waves roaring;
26 "men's hearts failing them from fear and the expectation of those things which are coming on the earth, [a]for the powers of the heavens will be shaken.
27 "Then they will see the Son of Man [a]coming in a cloud with power and great glory.
28 "Now when these things begin to happen, look up and lift up your heads, because [a]your redemption draws near."

The Parable of the Fig Tree

29 [a]Then He spoke to them a parable: "Look at the fig tree, and all the trees.
30 "When they are already budding, you see and know for yourselves that summer is now near.
31 "So you also, when you see these things happening, know that the kingdom of God is near.
32 "Assuredly, I say to you, this generation will by no means pass away till all things take place.
33 [a]"Heaven and earth will pass away, but My [b]words will by no means pass away.

The Importance of Watching

34 "But [a]take heed to yourselves, lest your hearts be weighed down with [1]carousing, drunkenness, and [b]cares of this life, and that Day come on you unexpectedly.

Unprepared

We are so easily distracted; we intend to obey God, but the busyness of life dulls us to any sense of urgency. If we are not diligent to prepare ourselves for the Lord's coming, we will be caught by surprise.

35 "For [a]it will come as a snare on all those who dwell on the face of the whole earth.
36 [a]"Watch therefore, and [b]pray always that you may [1]be counted [c]worthy to escape all these things that will come to pass, and [d]to stand before the Son of Man."
37 [a]And in the daytime He was teaching in the temple, but [b]at night He went out and stayed on the mountain called Olivet.
38 Then early in the morning all the people came to Him in the temple to hear Him.

21:37 Olivet, also known as the Mount of Olives, was located outside Jerusalem's walls. It was there that David escaped from Absalom (2 Sam. 15:30), and there Ezekiel saw his vision (Ezek. 11:23), as did Zechariah (Zech. 14:4).

The Plot to Kill Jesus

22 Now [a]the Feast of Unleavened Bread drew near, which is called Passover.
2 And [a]the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might kill Him, for they feared the people.
3 [a]Then Satan entered Judas, surnamed Iscariot, who was numbered among the [b]twelve.
4 So he went his way and conferred with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray Him to them.
5 And they were glad, and [a]agreed to give him money.
6 So he promised and sought opportunity to [a]betray Him to them in the absence of the multitude.

Jesus and His Disciples Prepare the Passover

7 [a]Then came the Day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover must be [1]killed.
8 And He sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare the Passover for us, that we may eat."
9 So they said to Him, "Where do You want us to prepare?"
10 And He said to them, "Behold, when you have entered the city, a man will meet you carrying a pitcher of water; follow him into the house which he enters.
11 "Then you shall say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says to you, "Where is the guest room where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?" '
12 "Then he will show you a large, furnished upper room; there make ready."
13 So they went and [a]found it just as He had said to them, and they prepared the Passover.

Jesus Institutes the Lord's Supper

14 [a]When the hour had come, He sat down, and the [1]twelve apostles with Him.
15 Then He said to them, "With fervent desire I have desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer;
16 "for I say to you, I will no longer eat of it [a]until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God."
17 Then He took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, "Take this and divide it among yourselves;
18 "for [a]I say to you, [1]I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes."
19 [a]And He took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is My [b]body which is given for you; [c]do this in remembrance of Me."
20 Likewise He also took the cup after supper, saying, [a]"This cup is the new covenant in My blood, which is shed for you.
21 [a]"But behold, the hand of My betrayer is with Me on the table.
22 [a]"And truly the Son of Man goes [b]as it has been determined, but woe to that man by whom He is betrayed!"
23 [a]Then they began to question among themselves, which of them it was who would do this thing.

The Disciples Argue About Greatness

24 [a]Now there was also a dispute among them, as to which of them should be considered the greatest.
25 [a]And He said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them, and those who exercise authority over them are called 'benefactors.'
26 [a]"But not so among you; on the contrary, [b]he who is greatest among you, let him be as the younger, and he who governs as he who serves.
27 [a]"For who is greater, he who sits at the table, or he who serves? Is it not he who sits at the table? Yet [b]I am among you as the One who serves.

ENCOUNTER Note Luke 22:27

One Who Serves

Although we are Christians, we are often reluctant to do what Christ does. Jesus came as a servant, humbly ministering to those who would betray Him and deny Him. As Christ lives in us, we too must be servants.

28 "But you are those who have continued with Me in [a]My trials.
29 "And [a]I bestow upon you a kingdom, just as My Father bestowed one upon Me,
30 "that [a]you may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom, [b]and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel."

22:1 The Feast of Unleavened Bread preceded the Passover, but came to be included as a part of the Passover activities (Ex. 12:1–20; Deut. 16:1–8). Passover celebrated God's deliverance from the death angel in Egypt while the Feast of Unleavened Bread remembered the exodus, a time when God's people had to leave Egypt so suddenly that their bread had insufficient time to rise.

22:4 The captains were Levite members of the temple guard.

22:17 A Passover meal traditionally had four courses and four cups.

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

31 [1]And the Lord said, "Simon, Simon! Indeed, [a]Satan has asked for you, that he may [b]sift you as wheat.
32 "But [a]I have prayed for you, that your faith should not fail; and when you have returned to Me, [b]strengthen your brethren."

34 [a]Then He said, "I tell you, Peter, the rooster shall not crow this day before you will deny three times that you know Me."

Supplies for the Road

35 [a]And He said to them, "When I sent you without money bag, knapsack, and sandals, did you lack anything?" So they said, "Nothing."
36 Then He said to them, "But now, he who has a money bag, let him take it, and likewise a knapsack; and he who has no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one.
37 "For I say to you that this which is written must still be [1]accomplished in Me: [a]'And He was numbered with the transgressors.' For the things concerning Me have an end."
38 So they said, "Lord, look, here are two swords." And He said to them, "It is enough."

The Prayer in the Garden

39 [a]Coming out, [b]He went to the Mount of Olives, as He was accustomed, and His disciples also followed Him.
40 [a]When He came to the place, He said to them, "Pray that you may not enter into temptation."
41 [a]And He was withdrawn from them about a stone's throw, and He knelt down and prayed,
42 saying, "Father, if it is Your will, take this cup away from Me; nevertheless [a]not My will, but Yours, be done."
43 [1]Then [a]an angel appeared to Him from heaven, strengthening Him.
44 [a]And being in agony, He prayed more earnestly. Then His sweat became like great drops of blood falling down to the ground.
45 When He rose up from prayer, and had come to His disciples, He found them sleeping from sorrow.
46 Then He said to them, "Why [a]do you sleep? Rise and [b]pray, lest you enter into temptation."

ENCOUNTER Note — Luke 22:42

Not My Will

No one has ever faced a more horrifying and excruciating assignment than Jesus did. Yet He willingly yielded His life into His Father's hands. Such submission ought to characterize our lives as we follow Jesus.

Betrayal and Arrest in Gethsemane

47 And while He was still speaking, [a]behold, a multitude; and he who was called [b]Judas, one of the twelve, went before them and drew near to Jesus to kiss Him.
48 But Jesus said to him, "Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a [a]kiss?"
49 When those around Him saw what was going to happen, they said to Him, "Lord, shall we strike with the sword?"
50 And [a]one of them struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear.
51 But Jesus answered and said, "Permit even this." And He touched his ear and healed him.
52 [a]Then Jesus said to the chief priests, captains of the temple, and the elders who had come to Him, "Have you come out, as against a [b]robber, with swords and clubs?
53 "When I was with you daily in the [a]temple, you did not try to seize Me. But this is your [b]hour, and the power of darkness."

Peter Denies Jesus, and Weeps Bitterly

54 [a]Having arrested Him, they led Him and brought Him into the high priest's house. [b]But Peter followed at a distance.
55 [a]Now when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter sat among them.
56 And a certain servant girl, seeing him as he sat by the fire, looked intently at him and said, "This man was also with Him."
57 But he denied [1]Him, saying, "Woman, I do not know Him."
58 [a]And after a little while another saw him and said, "You also are of them." But Peter said, "Man, I am not!"

22:31 The word "you" here is plural, indicating Satan sought to assault all the disciples.

22:32 Even before Peter was tempted, Jesus had already been interceding for him.

22:37 "Transgressor" translates the Greek word anomos meaning "lawless."

22:42 A cup was a symbol of wrath (Ps. 11:6; 75:7, 8; Jer. 25:15, 16; Ezek. 23:31–34).

22:52 The term for "robber" was used of highway bandits as well as violent revolutionaries.

22:54 Caiaphas was high priest at this time.

59 [a]Then after about an hour had passed, another confidently affirmed, saying, "Surely this fellow also was with Him, for he is a [b]Galilean."
60 But Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you are saying!" Immediately, while he was still speaking, [1]the rooster crowed.
61 And the Lord turned and looked at Peter. Then [a]Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He had said to him, [b]"Before the rooster [1]crows, you will deny Me three times."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Luke 22:61

Denial

Nothing is more devastating than seeing Jesus after we have failed Him. After all He has done to extend His love to us, how can we so easily deny Him?

62 So Peter went out and wept bitterly.

Jesus Mocked and Beaten

63 [a]Now the men who held Jesus mocked Him and [b]beat Him.
64 [1]And having blindfolded Him, they [a]struck Him on the face and asked Him, saying, "Prophesy! Who is the one who struck You?"
65 And many other things they blasphemously spoke against Him.

Jesus Faces the Sanhedrin

66 [a]As soon as it was day, [b]the elders of the people, both chief priests and scribes, came together and led Him into their council, saying,
67 [a]"If You are the Christ, tell us." But He said to them, "If I tell you, you will [b]by no means believe.
68 "And if I [1]also ask you, you will by no means answer [2]Me or let Me go.
69 [a]"Hereafter the Son of Man will sit on the right hand of the power of God."
70 Then they all said, "Are You then the Son of God?" So He said to them, [a]"You rightly say that I am."
71 [a]And they said, "What further testimony do we need? For we have heard it ourselves from His own mouth."

Jesus Handed Over to Pontius Pilate

23 Then [a]the whole multitude of them arose and led Him to [b]Pilate.
2 And they began to [a]accuse Him, saying, "We found this fellow [b]perverting [1]the nation, and [c]forbidding to pay taxes to Caesar, saying [d]that He Himself is Christ, a King."
3 [a]Then Pilate asked Him, saying, "Are You the King of the Jews?" He answered him and said, "It is as you say."
4 So Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowd, [a]"I find no fault in this Man."
5 But they were the more fierce, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from [a]Galilee to this place."

Jesus Faces Herod

6 When Pilate heard [1]of Galilee, he asked if the Man were a Galilean.
7 And as soon as he knew that He belonged to [a]Herod's jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem at that time.
8 Now when Herod saw Jesus, [a]he was exceedingly glad; for he had desired for a long time to see Him, because [b]he had heard many things about Him, and he hoped to see some miracle done by Him.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Luke 23:8

Curiosity

Many people have inquired about Jesus and find Him interesting to discuss. Many have been fascinated by His life and His crucifixion, yet they have never placed their faith in Him. Curiosity about Christ does not save people from their sin.

9 Then he questioned Him with many words, but He answered him [a]nothing.
10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused Him.
11 [a]Then Herod, with his [1]men of war, treated Him with contempt and mocked Him, arrayed Him in a gorgeous robe, and sent Him back to Pilate.
12 That very day [a]Pilate and Herod became friends with each other, for previously they had been at enmity with each other.

Taking the Place of Barabbas

13 [a]Then Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests, the rulers, and the people,
14 said to them, [a]"You have brought this Man to me, as one who misleads the people. And indeed, [b]having examined

22:66 The religious leaders broke numerous laws in trying Jesus: They met at a home, they did not allow a defense, they met on the morning of a feast, and they reached a verdict for a capital crime in one day rather than in the prescribed two days.

23:1 Pontius Pilate was the sixth Roman procurator of Judea, appointed in Tiberius' twelfth year (A.D. 25 or 26).

23:4 On three occasions Pilate declared Jesus' innocence, yet he did not release Him (vv. 14, 22).

Him in your presence, I have found no fault in this Man concerning those things of which you accuse Him;
15 "no, neither did Herod, for [1]I sent you back to him; and indeed nothing deserving of death has been done by Him.
16 [a]"I will therefore chastise Him and release Him"
17 [a](for[1] it was necessary for him to release one to them at the feast).
18 And [a]they all cried out at once, saying, "Away with this Man, and release to us Barabbas"— 19 who had been thrown into prison for a certain rebellion made in the city, and for murder.
20 Pilate, therefore, wishing to release Jesus, again called out to them.
21 But they shouted, saying, "Crucify Him, crucify Him!"
22 Then he said to them the third time, "Why, what evil has He done? I have found no reason for death in Him. I will therefore chastise Him and let Him go."
23 But they were insistent, demanding with loud voices that He be crucified. And the voices of these men [1]and of the chief priests prevailed.

ENCOUNTER Note — Luke 23:23

Voices

God's word is surrounded by other voices as people urge us to do what they say. But the Holy Spirit prompts us in the direction God wants us to go and we must decide who to follow. God's word must prevail; our lives depend on it.

24 So [a]Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they requested.
25 [a]And he released [1]to them the one they requested, who for rebellion and murder had been thrown into prison; but he delivered Jesus to their will.

The King on a Cross

26 [a]Now as they led Him away, they laid hold of a certain man, Simon a Cyrenian, who was coming from the country, and on him they laid the cross that he might bear it after Jesus.
27 And a great multitude of the people followed Him, and women who also mourned and lamented Him.
28 But Jesus, turning to them, said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for Me, but weep for yourselves and for your children.
29 [a]"For indeed the days are coming in which they will say, 'Blessed are the barren, wombs that never bore, and breasts which never nursed!'
30 "Then they will begin [a]'to say to the mountains, "Fall on us!" and to the hills, "Cover us!" '
31 [a]"For if they do these things in the green wood, what will be done in the dry?"
32 [a]There were also two others, criminals, led with Him to be put to death.
33 And [a]when they had come to the place called Calvary, there they crucified Him, and the criminals, one on the right hand and the other on the left.
34 [1]Then Jesus said, "Father, [a]forgive them, for [b]they do not know what they do." And [c]they divided His garments and cast lots.
35 And [a]the people stood looking on. But even the [b]rulers with them sneered, saying, "He saved others; let Him save Himself if He is the Christ, the chosen of God."
36 The soldiers also mocked Him, coming and offering Him [a]sour wine,
37 and saying, "If You are the King of the Jews, save Yourself."
38 [a]And an inscription also was [1]written over Him in letters of Greek, Latin, and Hebrew:

THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 [a]Then one of the criminals who were hanged blasphemed Him, saying, [1]"If You are the Christ, save Yourself and us."
40 But the other, answering, rebuked him, saying, "Do you not even fear God, seeing you are under the same condemnation?
41 "And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward of our deeds; but this Man has done [a]nothing wrong."
42 Then he said [1]to Jesus, "Lord, remember me when You come into Your kingdom."
43 And Jesus said to him, "Assuredly, I say to you, today you will be with Me in [a]Paradise."

Jesus Dies on the Cross

44 [a]Now it [1]was about the sixth hour, and there was darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour.

23:26 Simon was from Cyrene, a city located in Libya (Acts 6:9; 11:20; 13:1). Mark's gospel indicates his sons were Rufus and Alexander (Mark 15:20, 21).

23:33 The name Golgotha is from an Aramaic word meaning "skull." "Calvary" is from the Latin word for Golgotha.

23:38 This full title appeared in Latin representing the empire, in Aramaic for the Jews, and in Greek as that was the common language.

23:44 This was from noon until 3:00 p.m.

46 And when Jesus had cried out with a loud voice, He said, "Father, [a]'into Your hands I commit My spirit.'" [b]Having said this, He breathed His last.
47 [a]So when the centurion saw what had happened, he glorified God, saying, "Certainly this was a righteous Man!"
48 And the whole crowd who came together to that sight, seeing what had been done, beat their breasts and returned.
49 [a]But all His acquaintances, and the women who followed Him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

Jesus Buried in Joseph's Tomb

50 [a]Now behold, there was a man named Joseph, a council member, a good and just man.
51 He had not consented to their decision and deed. He was from Arimathea, a city of the Jews, [a]who[1] himself was also waiting for the kingdom of God.
52 This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.
53 [a]Then he took it down, wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a tomb that was hewn out of the rock, where no one had ever lain before.
54 That day was [a]the Preparation, and the Sabbath drew near.
55 And the women [a]who had come with Him from Galilee followed after, and [b]they observed the tomb and how His body was laid.
56 Then they returned and [a]prepared spices and fragrant oils. And they rested on the Sabbath [b]according to the commandment.

He Is Risen

24 Now [a]on the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they, [1]and certain other women with them, came to the tomb [b]bringing the spices which they had prepared.
2 [a]But they found the stone rolled away from the tomb.
3 [a]Then they went in and did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.
4 And it happened, as they were [1]greatly perplexed about this, that [a]behold, two men stood by them in shining garments.
5 Then, as they were afraid and bowed their faces to the earth, they said to them, "Why do you seek the living among the dead?
6 "He is not here, but is risen! [a]Remember how He spoke to you when He was still in Galilee,
7 "saying, 'The Son of Man must be [a]delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.' "
8 And [a]they remembered His words.
9 [a]Then they returned from the tomb and told all these things to the eleven and to all the rest.
10 It was Mary Magdalene, [a]Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them, who told these things to the apostles.
11 [a]And their words seemed to them like [1]idle tales, and they did not believe them.
12 [a]But Peter arose and ran to the tomb; and stooping down, he saw the linen cloths [1]lying by themselves; and he departed, marveling to himself at what had happened.

The Road to Emmaus

13 [a]Now behold, two of them were traveling that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was [1]seven miles from Jerusalem.
14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened.
15 So it was, while they conversed and reasoned, that [a]Jesus Himself drew near and went with them.
16 But [a]their eyes were restrained, so that they did not know Him.
17 And He said to them, "What kind of conversation is this that you have with one another as you [1]walk and are sad?"
18 Then the one [a]whose name was Cleopas answered and said to Him, "Are You the only stranger in Jerusalem, and have You not known the things which happened there in these days?"
19 And He said to them, "What things?" So they said to Him, "The things concerning Jesus of Nazareth, [a]who was a Prophet [b]mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, 20 [a]"and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered Him to be condemned to death, and crucified Him.
21 "But we were hoping [a]that it was He who was going to redeem Israel. Indeed, besides all this, today is the third day since these things happened.

24:10 Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, and Mary Magdalene, who had been healed of evil spirits, had ministered to Jesus from their own resources (Luke 8:2, 3).

24:11 The disciples did not anticipate Jesus' resurrection despite all He had told them.

24:13 Emmaus contained hot springs or baths known for their healing properties.

24:18 Cleopas means "renowned father."

22 "Yes, and [a]certain women of our company, who arrived at the tomb early, astonished us.
23 "When they did not find His body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of angels who said He was alive.
24 "And [a]certain of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but Him they did not see."
25 Then He said to them, "O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken!
26 [a]"Ought not the Christ to have suffered these things and to enter into His [b]glory?"
27 And beginning at [a]Moses and [b]all the Prophets, He [1]expounded to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself.

Scriptures

In times of confusion or uncertainty, Jesus will open the Scriptures to us. They are words of life. In them we find God's answer to whatever problems we are facing.

The Disciples' Eyes Opened

28 Then they drew near to the village where they were going, and [a]He [1]indicated that He would have gone farther.
29 But [a]they constrained Him, saying, [b]"Abide with us, for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent." And He went in to stay with them.
30 Now it came to pass, as [a]He sat at the table with them, that He took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them.
31 Then their eyes were opened and they knew Him; and He vanished from their sight.
32 And they said to one another, "Did not our heart burn within us while He talked with us on the road, and while He opened the Scriptures to us?"
33 So they rose up that very hour and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven and those who were with them gathered together,
34 saying, "The Lord is risen indeed, and [a]has appeared to Simon!"
35 And they told about the things that had happened on the road, and how He was [1]known to them in the breaking of bread.

Jesus Appears to His Disciples

36 [a]Now as they said these things, Jesus Himself stood in the midst of them, and said to them, "Peace to you."
37 But they were terrified and frightened, and supposed they had seen [a]a spirit.
38 And He said to them, "Why are you troubled? And why do doubts arise in your hearts?
39 "Behold My hands and My feet, that it is I Myself. [a]Handle Me and see, for a [b]spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see I have."
40 [1]When He had said this, He showed them His hands and His feet.
41 But while they still did not believe [a]for joy, and marveled, He said to them, [b]"Have you any food here?"
42 So they gave Him a piece of a broiled fish [1]and some honeycomb.
43 [a]And He took it and ate in their presence.

The Scriptures Opened

44 Then He said to them, [a]"These are the words which I spoke to you while I was still with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms concerning Me."
45 And [a]He opened their understanding, that they might comprehend the Scriptures.
46 Then He said to them, [a]"Thus it is written, [1]and thus it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day, 47 "and that repentance and [a]remission of sins should be preached in His name [b]to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.
48 "And [a]you are witnesses of these things.

Equipped with Power

Regardless of how eager we are to serve our Lord, we must wait until He equips us. The Holy Spirit's work in us enables us to accomplish any task God assigns. There is no point in serving God if we do not do so in His power.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

INTRODUCTION

The author of John's Gospel clearly explains his purpose for writing: "that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in His name" (John 20:31). Tradition suggests the disciple John was the author, although his name is not mentioned. The author refers to "the disciple whom Jesus loved" (13:23; 19:26; 20:2; 21:7, 20). It is clear the author was an eye witness and probably a member of Jesus' inner circle. Since Peter is ruled out (21:20), and James was martyred early in church history, it may be assumed that John is the author. As an eyewitness to the life and ministry of Jesus, John could write his Gospel from a strong vantage point.

SIGNIFICANCE

Most scholars conclude that Matthew, Mark, and Luke (the Synoptic Gospels), were written earlier than was John. John's Gospel is more theological and does not include many of the details found in the Synoptics. The writer of John has a number of unique emphases in his book. He is the only writer who uses the term agape for love. He also uses the word phileo for love, more than any other Gospel writer. John does not refer to miracles as demonstrations of divine power the way the Synoptics do. Rather, he presents Jesus' miracles as "signs" that point to Jesus' heavenly origin and authority. John also uses the terms "word," "light," and "believe" throughout his presentation. John was written not to provide an exhaustive chronicle of Jesus' life (21:25), but rather to present Jesus in a way that convinces readers of His deity.

STRUCTURE

The author of John used a thematic presentation to Jesus' life. He uses seven "I am" statements of Jesus that describe His identity throughout the book. Jesus says He is "the bread of life" (6:35, 41, 48, 51); "the light of the world" (8:12; 9:5); "the door of the sheep" (10:7, 9); "the Good Shepherd" (10:11, 14); "the resurrection and the life" (11:25), "the way, the truth, and the life" (14:6); and "the true vine" (15:1, 5). The Gospel of John also identifies seven specific signs that clearly revealed Jesus' divinity: changing water to wine (2:1–11); healing a man's son (4:46–54); healing a lame man (5:1–9); feeding five thousand (6:1–14); walking on water (6:15–21); healing a blind man (9:1–7); and raising Lazarus from the dead (11:38–44). John can be outlined as follows:

Prologue (1:1–18)
Jesus' Early Ministry (1:9—4:54)
Controversies (5:1—12:50)
Ministry to Jesus' Disciples (13:1—17:26)
Jesus' Trial and Crucifixion (18:1—19:42)
Jesus' Resurrection and Appearances (20:1—21:25)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH JOHN

John's Gospel has long been one of Christendom's most popular Bible books. Perhaps no scripture has been more memorized or instrumental in more conversions to Christianity than John 3:16. As you read you will encounter the contrasts Christians face: light and darkness, belief and unbelief, life and death. You may be convicted by Jesus' emphasis on love: your obedience reflects your love for Christ (15:14). Your love for Christ will be expressed in caring for God's people (21:15–17). Believers' love for one another will convince the world Christians are Jesus' disciples (17:21). You will confront the lamentable reality that, though they witnessed first-hand the astounding miracles of Christ, many still refused to believe He was God. Despite all Jesus did to communicate God's love, many hearts remained closed. This Gospel will bring you face to face with your own spiritual condition. Will you choose to believe Him, to follow Him, and to love Him?

The Eternal Word

IN the beginning [a]was the Word, and the [b]Word was [c]with God, and the Word was [d]God.

WORD Study — WORD

John 1:1 The "word" comes from the Greek logos. Greek philosophy theorized about a rational, impersonal force called the logos that brought order to the cosmos. The Gospel of John, however, personalizes the Word, claiming it was eternally with God and it was also divine. John describes the Word as giving both life and light to people (1:4). The term "word" implies communication and revelation. The eternal Son of God is the Word. Jesus is God the Father's fullest expression of Himself to mankind.

2 [a]He was in the beginning with God.
3 [a]All things were made through Him, and without Him nothing was made that was made.
4 [a]In Him was life, and [b]the life was the light of men.

WORD Study — LIFE

John 1:4 This word comes from the Greek zoe. John's Gospel uses the term thirty-six times, twice as often as any other New Testament book. Life is associated with the Word, or God's Son. It is Christ who gives life. Apart from Him there is no life.

5 And [a]the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not [1]comprehend it.

John's Witness: The True Light

6 There was a [a]man sent from God, whose name was John.
7 This man came for a [a]witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all through him might [b]believe.
8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that [a]Light.
9 [a]That[1] was the true Light which gives light to every man coming into the world.
10 He was in the world, and the world was made through Him, and [a]the world did not know Him.

WORD Study — WORLD

John 1:10 The Greek word kosmos is used seventy-eight times in John. It usually signifies the universe. John uses it to refer to the earth and the people occupying it. Because the world has been corrupted by sin, it is generally portrayed as evil and hostile to God and His work.

11 [a]He came to His [1]own, and His [2]own did not receive Him.
12 But [a]as many as received Him, to them He gave the [1]right to become children of God, to those who believe in His name:
13 [a]who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

ENCOUNTER Note — John 1:12, 13

Children

God owes us nothing. Yet He desires an intimate relationship with us, that of a Father with His children. Such a magnificent gift is not forced upon us, but offered to all who will receive it.

The Word Becomes Flesh

14 [a]And the Word [b]became [c]flesh and dwelt among us, and [d]we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, [e]full of grace and truth.
15 [a]John bore witness of Him and cried out, saying, "This was He of whom I said, [b]'He who comes after me [1]is preferred before me, [c]for He was before me.' "
16 [1]And of His [a]fullness we have all received, and grace for grace.
17 For [a]the law was given through Moses, but [b]grace and [c]truth came through Jesus Christ.
18 [a]No one has seen God at any time. [b]The only begotten [1]Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, He has declared Him.

A Voice in the Wilderness

19 Now this is [a]the testimony of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?"

1:5 The verb "shines" reflects continuous action. The witness and light of Christ is constantly shining. It cannot be doused.

1:6 John the Baptist's description as "a man" suggests a contrast with the eternal Word. John was not divine. He was merely a witness for God.

1:14 "Dwelt" means "tabernacled" or "pitched its tent." "Flesh" is a graphic way of expressing the fact that the Word truly became human.

20 [a]He confessed, and did not deny, but confessed, "I am not the Christ."
21 And they asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?" He said, "I am not." "Are you [a]the Prophet?" And he answered, "No."
22 Then they said to him, "Who are you, that we may give an answer to those who sent us? What do you say about yourself?"
23 He said: [a]"I am

[b]'The voice of one crying in the wilderness:
"Make straight the way of the LORD,"'

as the prophet Isaiah said."
24 Now those who were sent were from the Pharisees.
25 And they asked him, saying, "Why then do you baptize if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?"
26 John answered them, saying, [a]"I baptize with water, [b]but there stands One among you whom you do not know.
27 [a]"It is He who, coming after me, [1]is preferred before me, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to loose."
28 These things were done [a]in [1]Bethabara beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

The Lamb of God

29 The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him, and said, "Behold! [a]The Lamb of God [b]who takes away the sin of the world!
30 "This is He of whom I said, 'After me comes a Man who [1]is preferred before me, for He was before me.'
31 "I did not know Him; but that He should be revealed to Israel, [a]therefore I came baptizing with water."
32 [a]And John bore witness, saying, "I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and He remained upon Him.
33 "I did not know Him, but He who sent me to baptize with water said to me, 'Upon whom you see the Spirit descending, and remaining on Him, [a]this is He who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.'
34 "And I have seen and testified that this is the [a]Son of God."

The First Disciples

35 Again, the next day, John stood with two of his disciples.
36 And looking at Jesus as He walked, he said, [a]"Behold the Lamb of God!"
37 The two disciples heard him speak, and they [a]followed Jesus.
38 Then Jesus turned, and seeing them following, said to them, "What do you seek?" They said to Him, "Rabbi" (which is to say, when translated, Teacher), "where are You staying?"
39 He said to them, "Come and see." They came and saw where He was staying, and remained with Him that day (now it was about the tenth hour).
40 One of the two who heard John speak, and followed Him, was [a]Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.
41 He first found his own brother Simon, and said to him, "We have found the [1]Messiah" (which is translated, the Christ).
42 And he brought him to Jesus. Now when Jesus looked at him, He said, "You are Simon the son of [1]Jonah. [a]You shall be called Cephas" (which is translated, [2]A Stone).

Philip and Nathanael

43 The following day Jesus wanted to go to Galilee, and He found [a]Philip and said to him, "Follow Me."
44 Now [a]Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.
45 Philip found [a]Nathanael and said to him, "We have found Him of whom [b]Moses in the law, and also the [c]prophets, wrote—Jesus [d]of Nazareth, the [e]son of Joseph."
46 And Nathanael said to him, [a]"Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see."

ENCOUNTER Note — John 1:46

Come and See

Christianity involves a relationship with a Person. It is not merely a religion to study or a philosophy to ponder. It is not what we speculate about Christ that is important, but what we experience as we follow Him.

1:27 Taking off someone's sandals was the demeaning work of a slave. Although disciples would perform certain menial tasks for their rabbi, this act would have been unthinkable even to the most devout follower. Yet John claimed he was unworthy to perform that humiliating task upon the coming One.

1:33 John did not know Jesus was the Messiah until he witnessed the Holy Spirit descending upon Him (1:32), although he presumably knew of Jesus, who was his cousin.

1:39 The tenth hour was 4:00 p.m.

1:42 Each time Andrew is portrayed in the Gospels, he is bringing someone to Jesus.

1:43 "Follow" is in the present tense, indicating continuous action. Jesus is inviting him to "keep on following Me."

1:45 Nathanael, meaning "giver of God," is only listed in John's Gospel. In the synoptic Gospels it appears that he is called Bartholomew.

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward Him, and said of him, "Behold, [a]an Israelite indeed, in whom is no deceit!"
48 Nathanael said to Him, "How do You know me?" Jesus answered and said to him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you."
49 Nathanael answered and said to Him, "Rabbi, [a]You are the Son of God! You are [b]the King of Israel!"
50 Jesus answered and said to him, "Because I said to you, 'I saw you under the fig tree,' do you believe? You will see greater things than these."
51 And He said to him, "Most assuredly, I say to you, [a]hereafter[1] you shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man."

Water Turned to Wine

2 On the third day there was a [a]wedding in [b]Cana of Galilee, and the [c]mother of Jesus was there.
2 Now both Jesus and His disciples were invited to the wedding.
3 And when they ran out of wine, the mother of Jesus said to Him, "They have no wine."
4 Jesus said to her, [a]"Woman, [b]what does your concern have to do with Me? [c]My hour has not yet come."
5 His mother said to the servants, "Whatever He says to you, do it."
6 Now there were set there six waterpots of stone, [a]according to the manner of purification of the Jews, containing twenty or thirty gallons apiece.
7 Jesus said to them, "Fill the waterpots with water." And they filled them up to the brim.
8 And He said to them, "Draw some out now, and take it to the master of the feast." And they took it.
9 When the master of the feast had tasted [a]the water that was made wine, and did not know where it came from (but the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom.
10 And he said to him, "Every man at the beginning sets out the good wine, and when the guests have well drunk, then the inferior. You have kept the good wine until now!"
11 This [a]beginning of signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, [b]and [1]manifested His glory; and His disciples believed in Him.

His Glory Manifested

God takes the most ordinary circumstances and accomplishes the miraculous. Through God's divine activity we see His glory revealed, and we choose to believe in Him or to reject Him.

WORD Study — SIGNS

John 2:11 John uses the Greek word semeion, or "sign" to describe miraculous occurrences in Jesus' life. The synoptic Gospels prefer the Greek term dunamis which emphasizes power. However, John sees Jesus' miracles as pointing to a heavenly truth or reality. Jesus' miracles served as a witness to His divinity as well as to His being the Messiah. For those with spiritual eyes to see, Jesus' actions were proof that He was divine and that He was the fulfillment of the prophetic scriptures. People are condemned for seeking signs (John 4:48). However, Jesus' signs are meant to convince people of His true identity (2:23). The Gospel of John highlights seven signs of Jesus that display significant spiritual truths (4:46–54; 5:1–9; 6:1–14; 6:15–21; 9:1–7; 11:38–44).

12 After this He went down to [a]Capernaum, He, His mother, [b]His brothers, and His disciples; and they did not stay there many days.

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

13 [a]Now the Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

11 [a]John 4:54 [b][John 1:14] [1]revealed
12 [a]Matt. 4:13 [b]Matt. 12:46; 13:55
13 [a]Deut. 16:1–6

1:51 "Most assuredly" can also be translated, "verily, verily," which is literally "amen, amen!" It confirms a statement as the truth. Jesus often introduced an important truth with this phrase.

2:4 "Hour" represents a particular moment in time. Jesus knew there was an appointed time for Him to give His life for others, but that time had not yet arrived.

2:12 Capernaum, meaning "village of Nahum," was a fishing village by the Sea of Galilee. Apparently it was the home town of Jesus' disciples Peter, Andrew, Matthew and James and John. It became the headquarters of Jesus' ministry (Matt. 9:1). Because of the numerous miracles Jesus performed there it would eventually face a strict judgment (Matt. 11:20–24).

2:13 John refers to at least three Passover Feasts during Jesus' ministry (John 2:23; 6:4; 11:55). It was a popular feast dating from Moses' time. Thousands of pilgrims would come to Jerusalem annually to celebrate it.

2:14 This would have occurred in the Court of the Gentiles. Pilgrims often needed to purchase sacrificial animals upon their arrival in Jerusalem. Approved animals were conveniently sold at the temple. Every Jewish male over age nineteen had to pay an annual temple tax. Because the temple only accepted approved coinage, money-changing was conducted in the temple environs. Charges for such services often became exorbitant as merchants were obsessed with gain rather than facilitating worship.

14 [a]And He found in the temple those who sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the money changers [1]doing business.
15 When He had made a whip of cords, He drove them all out of the temple, with the sheep and the oxen, and poured out the changers' money and overturned the tables.
16 And He said to those who sold doves, "Take these things away! Do not make [a]My Father's house a house of merchandise!"
17 Then His disciples remembered that it was written, [a]"Zeal for Your house [1]has eaten Me up."
18 So the Jews answered and said to Him, [a]"What sign do You show to us, since You do these things?"
19 Jesus answered and said to them, [a]"Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."
20 Then the Jews said, "It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and will You raise it up in three days?"
21 But He was speaking [a]of the temple of His body.
22 Therefore, when He had risen from the dead, [a]His disciples remembered that He had said this [1]to them; and they believed the Scripture and the word which Jesus had said.

The Discerner of Hearts

23 Now when He was in Jerusalem at the Passover, during the feast, many believed in His name when they saw the [a]signs which He did.
24 But Jesus did not commit Himself to them, because He [a]knew all men,
25 and had no need that anyone should testify of man, for [a]He knew what was in man.

Jesus Knows

God is never shocked or surprised by people's sinful actions. He knows what lies within us. He also knows how to set us free.

The New Birth

3 There was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews.
2 [a]This man came to Jesus by night and said to Him, "Rabbi, we know that You are a teacher come from God; for [b]no one can do these signs that You do unless [c]God is with him."
3 Jesus answered and said to him, "Most assuredly, I say to you, [a]unless one is born [1]again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."
4 Nicodemus said to Him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born?"
5 Jesus answered, "Most assuredly, I say to you, [a]unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God.
6 "That which is born of the flesh is [a]flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.
7 "Do not marvel that I said to you, 'You must be born again.'
8 [a]"The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear the sound of it, but cannot tell where it comes from and where it goes. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit."
9 Nicodemus answered and said to Him, [a]"How can these things be?"

CHARACTER*Study* — NICODEMUS — John 3:1

Nicodemus, whose name meant "innocent of blood," was a Pharisee who had a seat on the powerful Sanhedrin. Jesus described him as "the teacher of Israel" which means he was renowned for his interpretation of Hebrew scripture (John 3:10). His coming at night may signify his timidity at being identified with Jesus or it may only indicate he came at an hour when he could enjoy an extended, uninterrupted conversation. Coming at night may also be symbolic of the Light's mission to free people from darkness (1:4, 5). Nicodemus later defended Jesus to the Sanhedrin (7:50) and provided materials for a royal burial for Jesus (19:39–41). It was to Nicodemus that Jesus gave the simple instruction: "You must be born again" (3:7).

2:18 The "Jews" typically refers to the Jewish authorities, representing the ruling council called the Sanhedrin (John 1:19).

2:19 Jesus' claim would be used as an accusation in his trial and as a source of mockery as He hung on the cross (Matt. 26:61; 27:40; Mark 14:57–59; 15:29).

2:20 King Herod began constructing the temple in approximately 20–19 B.C. This event in Jesus' day would have occurred at around A.D. 27 or 28. The temple would be completed in A.D. 64, just six years before it was destroyed by Roman forces under Titus in A.D. 70.

3:3 The word "again" can also be translated "from above." Both meanings are pertinent, although it appears Nicodemus understood it to mean "again."

10 Jesus answered and said to him, "Are you the teacher of Israel, and do not know these things?
11 [a]"Most assuredly, I say to you, We speak what We know and testify what We have seen, and [b]you do not receive Our witness.
12 "If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things?
13 [a]"No one has ascended to heaven but He who came down from heaven, that is, the Son of Man [1]who is in heaven.
14 [a]"And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so [b]must the Son of Man be lifted up, 16 [a]"For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten [b]Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.

ENCOUNTER*Note* John 3:16

God's Love Demonstrated

God has forever proven His love for us. The Father's giving of His Son is an everlasting expression of His affection. It is proof that He loves us and wants us to live with Him forever.

17 [a]"For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved.
18 [a]"He who believes in Him is not condemned; but he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.
19 "And this is the condemnation, [a]that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.
20 "For [a]everyone practicing evil hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed.
21 "But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his deeds may be clearly seen, that they have been [a]done in God."

John the Baptist Exalts Christ

22 After these things Jesus and His disciples came into the land of Judea, and there He remained with them [a]and baptized.
23 Now John also was baptizing in Aenon near [a]Salim, because there was much water there. [b]And they came and were baptized.
24 For [a]John had not yet been thrown into prison.
25 Then there arose a dispute between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purification.
26 And they came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, He who was with you beyond the Jordan, [a]to whom you have testified—behold, He is baptizing, and all [b]are coming to Him!"
27 John answered and said, [a]"A man can receive nothing unless it has been given to him from heaven.
28 "You yourselves bear me witness, that I said, [a]'I am not the Christ,' but, [b]'I have been sent before Him.'

HISTORICAL*Encounter* WILLIAM BORDEN John 3:16

William Borden was born into an extremely wealthy family in Chicago from which he inherited fifty million dollars. As a young man Borden felt God leading him to give his life and his money to the evangelization of Muslims living in China. He gave away his fortune to mission causes and then, in December 1912, he prepared to board a ship that would take him to Egypt, where he would prepare himself for mission service with language study. His widowed mother was concerned and questioned the wisdom of his plans. That night, as Borden earnestly pondered the action he was about to take, he heard a quiet voice speaking to his soul saying, "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son. . . ." Borden knew God was leading him. A month after arriving in Egypt he contracted spinal meningitis and died within two weeks. His story, however, inspired many Christians around the world to dedicate themselves to missions in Borden's place. He knew his choice had been worth it. In the back of his Bible he had written: "No reserve. No retreat. No regrets."

3:11 Jesus presented a "witness" to the truth. Just as John the Baptist testified of Jesus (John 3:28–30), likewise Jesus' miracles were proof of His identity and mission.

3:15 John often presents stark contrasts. Here the beautiful gift of eternal life is juxtaposed to the horrible, inevitable alternative of perishing.

3:20 Jesus made it clear that anyone with a sinful lifestyle hates God's truth, for it exposes the evil within them.

3:23 For a short period, Jesus' and John the Baptist's ministries overlapped, as both preached repentance and baptized believers.

greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. Therefore this joy of mine is fulfilled.

ENCOUNTER*Note* John 3:30

I Must Decrease

The challenge of every Christian is to deny ourselves and to magnify Christ in our lives. We naturally tend to focus on self rather than God. But if Christ is to have His rightful place in us, we must set selfishness aside to make room for Him.

31 [a]"He who comes from above [b]is above all; [c]he who is of the earth is earthly and speaks of the earth. [d]He who comes from heaven is above all.
32 "And [a]what He has seen and heard, that He testifies; and no one receives His testimony.
33 "He who has received His testimony [a]has certified that God is true.
34 [a]"For He whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God does not give the Spirit [b]by measure.
35 [a]"The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into His hand.
36 [a]"He who believes in the Son has everlasting life; and he who does not believe the Son shall not see life, but the [b]wrath of God abides on him."

3 He left Judea and departed again to Galilee.

WORD*Study* SAMARITANS

John 4:4 Samaritans took their name from the region in which they lived, between Galilee and Judea. The city of Samaria had been the capital of the northern kingdom of Israel until it was captured by the Assyrians in 722 B.C. The Assyrians deported many leading citizens at that time and replaced them with idol-worshipping peoples from across their empire (2 Kin. 17:23–31). Over time they adopted the Jewish religion, but developed a form of Judaism that was offensive to pious Jews. They accepted only the Pentateuch as authoritative. When the Jews returned from Babylonian exile, the Samaritans' offer to help rebuild Jerusalem was rejected (Ezra 4:2, 3). The Samaritans also built their own temple on Mount Gerizim in 400 B.C. In 128 B.C. the Jews burned it down. Such hostility made Jewish people most unwelcome in Samaria, and conversations between Samaritans and Jews were uncommon.

CHARACTER*Study* WOMAN AT THE WELL John 4:7

It was uncommon for a woman to go to a public well at noon, for women usually went at sunset. However, this was an immoral woman. She had been married five times and was presently living with a man (John 4:18). She would have been shunned by the other women of her community. Perhaps she came at noon because she was least likely to encounter them then. It was also highly irregular for a Jewish man to speak to a woman in public. Devout men would not even speak to their wives publicly. Yet Jesus entered into conversation with this outcast woman. So profound was her encounter with Jesus that her simple testimony ultimately led her entire community to faith in Christ. The Book of Acts reveals that many from the regions of Samaria later believed in Jesus. This may have been partially the result of the transformation of this woman and her subsequent witnessing to her countrymen (Acts 8:5–8, 14–17).

3:36 "Believe" is a present participle indicating a continuous action. He who continues to believe will experience life as only God can give it. Those who refuse to believe will face the active, persistent opposition of God.

4:4 Jesus "needed" to go through Samaria. Pious Jews often went a great distance out of their way to avoid passing through the land of the detested Samaritans. However, Jesus was always conscious of His mission to be a light to all the world. He often expressed the sense that He "must" do something (John 3:14; 9:4; 10:16; 12:34; 20:9). Matthew and Mark seldom speak of Samaria, while Luke and John tell several significant events that occurred there in Jesus' ministry (Luke 9:51–56).

4:5 Sychar may be identified with Askar, which was located near Shechem.

6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied from His journey, sat thus by the well. It was about the sixth hour.
7 A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give Me a drink."
8 For His disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.
9 Then the woman of Samaria said to Him, "How is it that You, being a Jew, ask a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?" For [a]Jews have no dealings with [b]Samaritans.
10 Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the [a]gift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give Me a drink,' you would have asked Him, and He would have given you [b]living water."
11 The woman said to Him, "Sir, You have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. Where then do You get that living water?
12 "Are You greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank from it himself, as well as his sons and his livestock?"
13 Jesus answered and said to her, "Whoever drinks of this water will thirst again,
14 "but [a]whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him will never thirst. But the water that I shall give him [b]will become in him a fountain of water springing up into everlasting life."
15 [a]The woman said to Him, "Sir, give me this water, that I may not thirst, nor come here to draw."
16 Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here."
17 The woman answered and said, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You have well said, 'I have no husband,'
18 "for you have had five husbands, and the one whom you now have is not your husband; in that you spoke truly."
19 The woman said to Him, "Sir, [a]I perceive that You are a prophet.
20 "Our fathers worshiped on [a]this mountain, and you Jews say that in [b]Jerusalem is the place where one ought to worship."
21 Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe Me, the hour is coming [a]when you will neither on this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, worship the Father.
22 "You worship [a]what you do not know; we know what we worship, for [b]salvation is of the Jews.
23 "But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will [a]worship the Father in [b]spirit [c]and truth; for the Father is seeking such to worship Him.

ENCOUNTER Note — John 4:23

True Worship

God seeks those who worship Him in Spirit and in truth. We respond by praising Him wholeheartedly and honestly. True worshippers hide no hypocrisy or false motives in their hearts.

24 [a]"God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth."
25 The woman said to Him, "I know that Messiah [a]is coming" (who is called Christ). "When He comes, [b]He will tell us all things."
26 Jesus said to her, [a]"I who speak to you am He."

The Whitened Harvest

27 And at this point His disciples came, and they marveled that He talked with a woman; yet no one said, "What do You seek?" or, "Why are You talking with her?"
28 The woman then left her waterpot, went her way into the city, and said to the men,
29 "Come, see a Man [a]who told me all things that I ever did. Could this be the Christ?"
30 Then they went out of the city and came to Him.
31 In the meantime His disciples urged Him, saying, "Rabbi, eat."
32 But He said to them, "I have food to eat of which you do not know."
33 Therefore the disciples said to one another, "Has anyone brought Him anything to eat?"
34 Jesus said to them, [a]"My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me, and to [b]finish His work.
35 "Do you not say, 'There are still four months and then comes [a]the harvest'?

4:6 The "sixth hour" was noon.

4:14 "Springing up" is an active word. It comes from the same word used to describe the lame man who was healed and he leapt for joy (Acts 3:8). The life Christ gives is invigorating and refreshing to the soul.

4:20 Tradition held that Abraham built an altar on the mountain (Gen. 12:7); as did Jacob (Gen. 33:20). It was on Mount Gerizim that God blessed the children of Israel (Deut. 11:29; 27:12).

4:25 The Samaritan word for Messiah meant "He who returns" or "He who restores."

4:26 This may be Jesus' only clear admission that He was the Messiah before His trial.

4:30 The verb used implies continuous action. They kept on coming out to meet Jesus.

4:34 Jesus always saw His work as accomplishing the will of His Father (John 5:30; 6:38; 7:18; 8:50; 9:4; 10:37; 12:49; 14:31; 15:10; 17:4).

Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields, [b]for they are already white for harvest!
36 [a]"And he who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit for eternal life, that [b]both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together.
37 "For in this the saying is true: [a]'One sows and another reaps.'
38 "I sent you to reap that for which you have not labored; [a]others have labored, and you have entered into their labors."

The Savior of the World

39 And many of the Samaritans of that city believed in Him [a]because of the word of the woman who testified, "He told me all that I ever did."
40 So when the Samaritans had come to Him, they urged Him to stay with them; and He stayed there two days.
41 And many more believed because of His own [a]word.
42 Then they said to the woman, "Now we believe, not because of what you said, for [a]we ourselves have heard Him and we know that this is indeed [1]the Christ, the Savior of the world."

Welcome at Galilee

43 Now after the two days He departed from there and went to Galilee.
44 For [a]Jesus Himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country.
45 So when He came to Galilee, the Galileans received Him, [a]having seen all the things He did in Jerusalem at the feast; [b]for they also had gone to the feast.

A Nobleman's Son Healed

46 So Jesus came again to Cana of Galilee [a]where He had made the water wine. And there was a certain [1]nobleman whose son was sick at Capernaum.
47 When he heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to Him and implored Him to come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death.
48 Then Jesus said to him, [a]"Unless you people see signs and wonders, you will by no means believe."

49 The nobleman said to Him, "Sir, come down before my child dies!"
50 Jesus said to him, "Go your way; your son lives." So the man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and he went his way.
51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him and told him, saying, "Your son lives!"
52 Then he inquired of them the hour when he got better. And they said to him, "Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him."
53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour in which Jesus said to him, "Your son lives." And he himself believed, and his whole household.
54 This again is the second sign Jesus did when He had come out of Judea into Galilee.

A Man Healed at the Pool of Bethesda

5 After [a]this there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus [b]went up to Jerusalem.
2 Now there is in Jerusalem [a]by the Sheep Gate a pool, which is called in Hebrew, [1]Bethesda, having five porches.
3 In these lay a great multitude of sick people, blind, lame, [1]paralyzed, [2]waiting for the moving of the water.
4 For an angel went down at a certain time into the pool and stirred up the water; then whoever stepped in first, after the stirring of the water, was made well of whatever disease he had.
5 Now a certain man was there who had an infirmity thirty-eight years.
6 When Jesus saw him lying there, and knew that he already had been in that condition a long time, He said to him, "Do you want to be made well?"
7 The sick man answered Him, "Sir, I have no man to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up; but while I am coming, another steps down before me."
8 Jesus said to him, [a]"Rise, take up your bed and walk."
9 And immediately the man was made well, took up his bed, and walked. And [a]that day was the Sabbath.
10 The Jews therefore said to him who was cured, "It is the Sabbath; [a]it is not lawful for you to carry your bed."

4:40 The word here for "urged" implies continuous action. They kept urging Him to stay.

4:42 The title "Savior of the world" occurs only here and in 1 John 4:14.

4:46 The "nobleman" would have been an officer of the king. Technically, Herod Antipas was the tetrarch of Galilee, but he was referred to as a king.

4:47 "Implored" is in the continuous tense, implying the nobleman persisted in begging Jesus to help him.

4:52 The seventh hour was 1:00 p.m.

5:1 This feast might have been the Passover but generally John refers to it specifically (John 2:13; 6:4; 11:55). It may have been the Feast of Tabernacles.

5:2 The Pool of Bethesda was a double pool with colonnades around it.

5:7 The lame man did not express faith to Jesus. At times, Jesus in His grace healed people even in the absence of clear belief.

5:10 "The Jews" refers to the religious leaders. They had developed extensive lists identifying numerous classes of work prohibited on the Sabbath. So enamored were they with their legalistic rules that they ignored a divine miracle and became angered by a technicality.

11 He answered them, "He who made me well said to me, 'Take up your bed and walk.' "
12 Then they asked him, "Who is the Man who said to you, 'Take up your bed and walk'?"
13 But the one who was [a]healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, a multitude being in that place.
14 Afterward Jesus found him in the temple, and said to him, "See, you have been made well. [a]Sin no more, lest a worse thing come upon you."
15 The man departed and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.

Honor the Father and the Son

16 For this reason the Jews [a]persecuted Jesus, [1]and sought to kill Him, because He had done these things on the Sabbath.
17 But Jesus answered them, [a]"My Father has been working until now, and I have been working."
18 Therefore the Jews [a]sought all the more to kill Him, because He not only broke the Sabbath, but also said that God was His Father, [b]making Himself equal with God.
19 Then Jesus answered and said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, [a]the Son can do nothing of Himself, but what He sees the Father do; for whatever He does, the Son also does in like manner.

ENCOUNTER Note — John 5:19

Like Manner

Jesus, the perfect, sinless Son of God, did nothing on His own initiative. His sole aim in life was to obey His Father's will and to bring Him glory.

20 "For [a]the Father loves the Son, and [b]shows Him all things that He Himself does; and He will show Him greater works than these, that you may marvel.
21 "For as the Father raises the dead and gives life to them, [a]even so the Son gives life to whom He will.
22 "For the Father judges no one, but [a]has committed all judgment to the Son,
23 "that all should honor the Son just as they honor the Father. [a]He who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent Him.

Life and Judgment Are Through the Son

24 "Most assuredly, I say to you, [a]he who hears My word and believes in Him who sent Me has everlasting life, and shall not come into judgment, [b]but has passed from death into life.
25 "Most assuredly, I say to you, the hour is coming, and now is, when [a]the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God; and those who hear will live.
26 "For [a]as the Father has life in Himself, so He has granted the Son to have [b]life in Himself, 27 "and [a]has given Him authority to execute judgment also, [b]because He is the Son of Man.
28 "Do not marvel at this; for the hour is coming in which all who are in the graves will [a]hear His voice
29 [a]"and come forth—[b]those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of condemnation.
30 [a]"I can of Myself do nothing. As I hear, I judge; and My judgment is righteous, because [b]I do not seek My own will but the will of the Father who sent Me.

HISTORICAL Encounter — WILBUR CHAPMAN — John 5:24

J. Wilbur Chapman was born in 1859 while revival was sweeping New York City. As a young man he struggled with doubts about whether he was saved or not. After attending a service led by Dwight L. Moody, Chapman went to the "inquiry room" to seek counsel. Moody shared John 5:24 with Chapman and helped him understand its meaning. Finally, Chapman found peace in Christ. He went on to become a prolific author and a prominent pastor and revival preacher. God used him to bring many others to assurance of their salvation.

5:18 It was Jesus' claim of divine Sonship that most angered His opponents and ultimately led to Jesus' death sentence (John 19:7).

5:23 Jesus made it clear that what was done to the Son was done to the Father.

Life

It is possible to be an expert in the Bible yet be ignorant of Christ. Scripture is not an end in itself. It points us to Christ, who is our life. As you read the scriptures, are you encountering Christ?

40 [a]"But you are not willing to come to Me that you may have life.
41 [a]"I do not receive honor from men.
42 "But I know you, that you do not have the love of God in you.
43 "I have come in My Father's name, and you do not receive Me; if another comes in his own name, him you will receive.
44 [a]"How can you believe, who receive honor from one another, and do not seek [b]the honor that comes from the only God?
45 "Do not think that I shall accuse you to the Father; [a]there is one who accuses you—Moses, in whom you trust.
46 "For if you believed Moses, you would believe Me; [a]for he wrote about Me.
47 "But if you [a]do not believe his writings, how will you believe My words?"

4 [a]Now the Passover, a feast of the Jews, was near.
5 [a]Then Jesus lifted up His eyes, and seeing a great multitude coming toward Him, He said to [b]Philip, "Where shall we buy bread, that these may eat?"
6 But this He said to test him, for He Himself knew what He would do.

Tested

God may present us with a problem so He can reveal the caliber of our faith and our knowledge of Him. It is one thing to say we believe God, but how we respond in difficult circumstances is a true test of our faith.

7 Philip answered Him, [a]"Two hundred denarii worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may have a little."
8 One of His disciples, [a]Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to Him,
9 "There is a lad here who has five barley loaves and two small fish, [a]but what are they among so many?"
10 Then Jesus said, "Make the people sit down." Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.
11 And Jesus took the loaves, and when He had given thanks He distributed them [1]to the disciples, and the disciples to those sitting down; and likewise of the fish, as much as they wanted.
12 So when they were filled, He said to His disciples, "Gather up the fragments that remain, so that nothing is lost."
13 Therefore they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves which were left over by those who had eaten.
14 Then those men, when they had seen the sign that Jesus did, said, "This is 5:29 In scripture, salvation comes by grace through faith (Eph. 2:8, 9). However, judgment is based on works (1 Cor. 5:10).

5:35 The past tense of the word "was" may indicate John the Baptist was dead by this time.

5:45 The irony of the Jews' position was that the very thing they placed their trust in, Mosaic law, would be that which condemned them at the judgment.

6:1 The Sea of Tiberias was the Sea of Galilee. It was named after the town of Tiberias that was built on its shores in A.D. 20 in honor of the Roman emperor.

6:5 This is the only miracle Jesus performed that is recorded in all four Gospels. In ancient times, eating abundantly was a sign of prosperity and blessing (Deut. 8:9; 11:15; Neh. 9:36). However, a lack of food was seen as a crisis (Eccl. 6:2).

6:7 A common laborer's wage was one denarius per day. Two hundred denarii would have represented two-thirds of a year's wages.

6:9 The term "lad" signifies a young boy. Barley bread was the bread of a poor person.

truly [a]the Prophet who is to come into the world."

Jesus Walks on the Sea

15 Therefore when Jesus perceived that they were about to come and take Him by force to make Him [a]king, He departed again to the mountain by Himself alone.
16 [a]Now when evening came, His disciples went down to the sea,
17 got into the boat, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was already dark, and Jesus had not come to them.
18 Then the sea arose because a great wind was blowing.
19 So when they had rowed about [1]three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and drawing near the boat; and they were [a]afraid.
20 But He said to them, [a]"It is I; do not be afraid."
21 Then they willingly received Him into the boat, and immediately the boat was at the land where they were going.

The Bread from Heaven

22 On the following day, when the people who were standing on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except [1]that one [2]which His disciples had entered, and that Jesus had not entered the boat with His disciples, but His disciples had gone away alone—
23 however, other boats came from Tiberias, near the place where they ate bread after the Lord had given thanks—
24 when the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, nor His disciples, they also got into boats and came to Capernaum, [a]seeking Jesus.
25 And when they found Him on the other side of the sea, they said to Him, "Rabbi, when did You come here?"
26 Jesus answered them and said, "Most assuredly, I say to you, you seek Me, not because you saw the signs, but because you ate of the loaves and were filled.
27 [a]"Do not labor for the food which perishes, but [b]for the food which endures to everlasting life, which the Son of Man will give you, [c]because God the Father has set His seal on Him."
28 Then they said to Him, "What shall we do, that we may work the works of God?"

ENCOUNTER*Note* John 6:35

Bread of Life

Jesus satisfies our soul as food satisfies our hunger. Being near food is not enough; we must eat it. Likewise, being near Jesus is not sufficient. We must thoroughly be filled by Him.

36 [a]"But I said to you that you have seen Me and yet [b]do not believe.
37 [a]"All that the Father gives Me will come to Me, and [b]the one who comes to Me I will [1]by no means cast out.
38 "For I have come down from heaven, [a]not to do My own will, [b]but the will of Him who sent Me.
39 "This is the will of the Father who sent Me, [a]that of all He has given Me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up at the last day.
40 "And this is the will of Him who sent Me, [a]that everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him may have everlasting life; and I will raise him up at the last day."

Rejected by His Own

41 The Jews then [1]complained about Him, because He said, "I am the bread which came down from heaven."

6:30 It is astonishing that Jesus had just miraculously fed a multitude and yet people asked Him for a sign. A heart that is unwilling to believe will not be convinced regardless of the quantity of proof provided.

6:31 A Jewish tradition had developed that the Messiah would cause manna to fall from heaven as Moses had done (Ex. 16:4, 15).

6:35 Jesus makes seven dramatic "I am" statements in John's Gospel, all of which reveal His identity (John 6:48; 8:12; 10:7, 9, 10, 11, 14; 11:25; 14:6; 15:5).

6:37 John made it clear that it was the Father's activity to draw people to His Son.

42 And they said, [a]"Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How is it then that He says, 'I have come down from heaven'?"
43 Jesus therefore answered and said to them, [1]"Do not murmur among yourselves.
44 [a]"No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me [b]draws him; and I will raise him up at the last day.
45 "It is written in the prophets, [a]'And they shall all be taught by God.' [b]Therefore everyone who [1]has heard and learned from the Father comes to Me.
46 [a]"Not that anyone has seen the Father, [b]except He who is from God; He has seen the Father.
47 "Most assuredly, I say to you, [a]he who believes [1]in Me has everlasting life.
48 [a]"I am the bread of life.
49 [a]"Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and are dead.
50 [a]"This is the bread which comes down from heaven, that one may eat of it and not die.
51 "I am the living bread [a]which came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever; and [b]the bread that I shall give is My flesh, which I shall give for the life of the world."
52 The Jews therefore [a]quarreled among themselves, saying, "How can this Man give us His flesh to eat?"
53 Then Jesus said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless [a]you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in you.
54 [a]"Whoever eats My flesh and drinks
My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.
55 "For My flesh is [1]food indeed, and
My blood is [2]drink indeed.
56 "He who eats My flesh and drinks
My blood [a]abides in Me, and I in him.
57 "As the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father, so he who feeds on Me will live because of Me.

Many Disciples Turn Away

60 [a]Therefore many of His disciples, when they heard this, said, "This is a [1]hard saying; who can understand it?"
61 When Jesus knew in Himself that His disciples [1]complained about this, He said to them, "Does this [2]offend you?

of Man ascend where He was before?

ENCOUNTER*Note* John 6:63

Life Words

Jesus' words must be understood spiritually. When believed and accepted, they bring everlasting life.

64 "But [a]there are some of you who do not believe." For [b]Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who did not believe, and who would betray Him.
65 And He said, "Therefore [a]I have said to you that no one can come to Me unless it has been granted to him by My Father."
66 [a]From that time many of His disciples went [1]back and walked with Him
no more.
67 Then Jesus said to the twelve, "Do you also want to go away?"
68 But Simon Peter answered Him,
"Lord, to whom shall we go? You have
[a]the words of eternal life.
69 [a]"Also we have come to believe and know that You are the [1]Christ, the Son of the living God."

HISTORICAL*Encounter* JOHN BUNYAN John 6:37

John Bunyan was raised in a modest home, receiving little education. He grew to become a hardened, blasphemous, worldly young man. As Bunyan became troubled about his soul, he sought to reform himself and to win favor with God, even ringing the church bell on Sundays. Yet he feared he was not one of God's elect and therefore he could not be saved. Then he read John 6:37, "Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out." Bunyan focused on the phrase "in no wise." Bunyan later told how he and Satan wrestled over that phrase but gradually Bunyan gained assurance that God would not reject him if Bunyan went to Christ in faith. He eventually became a minister and wrote Pilgrim's Progress, which helped millions of people in their walk with Christ.

6:49 The manna God provided for the children of Israel gave temporary subsistence. Like manna, Jesus was also a gift from heaven, but He gave everlasting life.

6:50 Here the word "eat" signifies a once-for-all act.

6:69 "Believe" and "know" are in the perfect tense, implying that what they have done in the past continues to have its effect on the present.

70 Jesus answered them, [a]"Did I not choose you, the twelve, [b]and one of you is a devil?"
71 He spoke of [a]Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon, for it was he who would [b]betray Him, being one of the twelve.

Jesus' Brothers Disbelieve

7 After these things Jesus walked in Galilee; for He did not want to walk in Judea, [a]because the [1]Jews sought to kill Him.
2 [a]Now the Jews' Feast of Tabernacles was at hand.
3 [a]His brothers therefore said to Him, "Depart from here and go into Judea, that Your disciples also may see the works that You are doing.
4 "For no one does anything in secret while he himself seeks to be known openly. If You do these things, show Yourself to the world."
5 For [a]even His [b]brothers did not believe in Him.
6 Then Jesus said to them, [a]"My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready.
7 [a]"The world cannot hate you, but it hates Me [b]because I testify of it that its works are evil.

No one can remain indifferent to Jesus. You are either for Him or against Him. If you are unwilling to renounce your sin, you will reject Him, for His very presence reveals the sin and darkness in your life.

8 "You go up to this feast. I am not [1]yet going up to this feast, [a]for My time has not yet fully come."
9 When He had said these things to them, He remained in Galilee.

6:71 Judas is identified with his father, Simon Iscariot. Iscariot means "man of Kerioth." Judas was the only one of the twelve disciples not from Galilee.

7:1 The interval between chapter six and seven would have been roughly six months.

7:2 The Feast of Tabernacles was one of three primary Jewish feasts. For seven days, people lived in makeshift shelters to commemorate their journey from Egypt to the Promised Land (Lev. 23:40–43). It was held in September–October.

7:3 Jesus' unbelieving brothers assumed that if Jesus was to establish a following, He would need to impress the multitudes gathering in Jerusalem for the feast.

7:6 "Time" used here is not the typical Greek word chronos which depicts events in chronological order, but kairos, which describes a qualitative time rather than quantitative. It signifies a suitable or favorable time.

7:14 The middle of the feast would have been the fourth day.

7:15 "Having never studied" means Jesus had never attended a formal rabbinical school.

7:23 The Jews scrupulously observed the ritual of circumcision on the Sabbath (Lev. 12:3), but were incensed that a person was healed on that day.

31 And [a]many of the people believed in Him, and said, "When the Christ comes, will He do more signs than these which this Man has done?"

Jesus and the Religious Leaders

32 The Pharisees heard the crowd murmuring these things concerning Him, and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take Him.
33 Then Jesus said [1]to them, [a]"I shall be with you a little while longer, and then I [b]go to Him who sent Me.

36 "What is this thing that He said, 'You will seek Me and not find Me, and where I am you cannot come'?"

Living Water

Genuine belief in Christ results in a heart overflowing with love and life. Those whose hearts are cold and lifeless need to renew their faith.

39 [a]But this He spoke concerning the Spirit, whom those [1]believing in Him would receive; for the [2]Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet [b]glorified.

Who Is He?

40 Therefore [1]many from the crowd, when they heard this saying, said, "Truly this is [a]the Prophet."
41 Others said, "This is [a]the Christ." But some said, "Will the Christ come out of Galilee?
42 [a]"Has not the Scripture said that the Christ comes from the seed of David and from the town of Bethlehem, [b]where David was?"
43 So [a]there was a division among the people because of Him.
44 Now [a]some of them wanted to take Him, but no one laid hands on Him.

Rejected by the Authorities

45 Then the officers came to the chief priests and Pharisees, who said to them, "Why have you not brought Him?"
46 The officers answered, [a]"No man ever spoke like this Man!"
47 Then the Pharisees answered them, "Are you also deceived?
48 "Have any of the rulers or the Pharisees believed in Him?

HISTORICAL Encounter — DAVID BRAINERD — John 7:38

David Brainerd was a devout young man with a passion to evangelize the native Indians of Massachusetts. Despite his valiant and selfless efforts in 1743, he was largely unsuccessful. The following year saw no improvement. He suffered great hardship and deprivation, yet the people were not responding to the gospel as he had prayed. Finally, he set aside January 3, 1745 as a day of fasting and prayer, begging God to anoint his ministry with power. He claimed for his life and ministry John 7:38. He began to regularly preach from this chapter of John's Gospel. It was his most successful year of ministry, as Brainerd began to witness an amazing work of God among the native Indian people. As the living waters of Christ flowed through him, large numbers of people found salvation, and millions of Christians were eventually encouraged by reading Brainerd's story.

7:27 The Jews assumed Jesus was from Nazareth because that was where he grew up. They should have known the Messiah would come from Bethlehem, for the prophet Micah had foretold it (Mic. 5:2).

7:28 "Cried out" signifies a loud shout, expressing deep emotion.

7:37 On the seventh day of the feast, the high priest took a golden pitcher filled with water from the pool of Siloam and poured it on the altar. The water symbolized the miraculous provision of water for the Israelites in the wilderness. It may be that Jesus cried out just as the high priest poured the water.

49 "But this crowd that does not know the law is accursed."
50 Nicodemus [a](he who came to [1]Jesus [2]by night, being one of them) said to them,
51 [a]"Does our law judge a man before it hears him and knows what he is doing?"
52 They answered and said to him, "Are you also from Galilee? Search and look, for [a]no prophet [1]has arisen out of Galilee."

An Adulteress Faces the Light of the World

53 [1]And everyone went to his own house.
8 But Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.
2 Now [1]early in the morning He came again into the temple, and all the people came to Him; and He sat down and [a]taught them.
3 Then the scribes and Pharisees brought to Him a woman caught in adultery. And when they had set her in the midst,
4 they said to Him, "Teacher, [1]this woman was caught in [a]adultery, in the very act.
5 [a]"Now [1]Moses, in the law, commanded us [2]that such should be stoned. But what do You [3]say?"
6 This they said, testing Him, that they [a]might have something of which to accuse Him. But Jesus stooped down and wrote on the ground with His finger, [1]as though He did not hear.
7 So when they continued asking Him, He [1]raised Himself up and said to them, [a]"He who is without sin among you, let him throw a stone at her first."
8 And again He stooped down and wrote on the ground.
9 Then those who heard it, [a]being[1] convicted by their conscience, went out one by one, beginning with the oldest even to the last. And Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.
10 When Jesus had raised Himself up [1]and saw no one but the woman, He said to her, "Woman, where are those accusers [2]of yours? Has no one condemned you?"
11 She said, "No one, Lord." And Jesus said to her, [a]"Neither do I condemn you; go [1]and [b]sin no more."
12 Then Jesus spoke to them again, saying, [a]"I am the light of the world. He who [b]follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but have the light of life."

Jesus Defends His Self-Witness

13 The Pharisees therefore said to Him, [a]"You bear witness of Yourself; Your witness is not [1]true."
14 Jesus answered and said to them, "Even if I bear witness of Myself, My witness is true, for I know where I came from and where I am going; but [a]you do not know where I come from and where I am going.
15 [a]"You judge according to the flesh; [b]I judge no one.
16 "And yet if I do judge, My judgment is true; for [a]I am not alone, but I am with the Father who sent Me.
17 [a]"It is also written in your law that the testimony of two men is true.
18 "I am One who bears witness of Myself, and [a]the Father who sent Me bears witness of Me."
19 Then they said to Him, "Where is Your Father?" Jesus answered, [a]"You know neither Me nor My Father. [b]If you had known Me, you would have known My Father also."
20 These words Jesus spoke in [a]the treasury, as He taught in the temple; and [b]no one laid hands on Him, for [c]His hour had not yet come.

Jesus Predicts His Departure

21 Then Jesus said to them again, "I am going away, and [a]you will seek Me, and [b]will die in your sin. Where I go you cannot come."
22 So the Jews said, "Will He kill Himself, because He says, 'Where I go you cannot come'?"
23 And He said to them, [a]"You are from beneath; I am from above. [b]You are of this world; I am not of this world.
24 [a]"Therefore I said to you that you will die in your sins; [b]for if you do not believe that I am He, you will die in your sins."
25 Then they said to Him, "Who are You?" And Jesus said to them, "Just

7:50 Nicodemus rightly pointed out the injustice of what his colleagues were contemplating, yet their passions were too aroused to listen to reason.

7:52 This does not mean there had been no prophets in the past from Galilee. Jonah, Hosea, Nahum and possibly Elijah and Elisha had all come from that region. This statement implies that no one expected God to do any significant work from that area in their day.

8:4 "In the very act," as well as the absence of the guilty man, implies a trap had been set for the woman.

8:5 Leviticus 20:10 and Deuteronomy 22:22 instructed both the guilty man and woman to be put to death, but the method of execution was not specified.

8:11 The tense of "sin no more" suggests discontinuing a habit or lifestyle.

8:19 This is a fundamental theme in John's Gospel. By coming to know Jesus, you come to know God the Father.

8:20 The "treasury" probably refers to the court of women where thirteen trumpet-shaped collection boxes were located to receive people's offerings.

what I [a]have been saying to you from the beginning.
26 "I have many things to say and to judge concerning you, but [a]He who sent Me is true; and [b]I speak to the world those things which I heard from Him."
27 They did not understand that He spoke to them of the Father.
28 Then Jesus said to them, "When you [a]lift[1] up the Son of Man, [b]then you will know that I am He, and [c]that I do nothing of Myself; but [d]as My Father taught Me, I speak these things.
29 "And [a]He who sent Me is with Me. [b]The Father has not left Me alone, [c]for I always do those things that please Him."
30 As He spoke these words, [a]many believed in Him.

The Truth Shall Make You Free

31 Then Jesus said to those Jews who believed Him, "If you [a]abide in My word, you are My disciples indeed.
32 "And you shall know the [a]truth, and [b]the truth shall make you free."

ENCOUNTER Note — John 8:32

Set Free

There is no reason to fear a word from God. His word exposes our sin. It reveals our bondage. Those who are enslaved by sin need to experience God's truth and be liberated from sin's grip.

33 They answered Him, [a]"We are Abraham's descendants, and have never been in bondage to anyone. How can You say, 'You will be made free'?"
34 Jesus answered them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, [a]whoever commits sin is a slave of sin.
35 "And [a]a slave does not abide in the house forever, but a son abides forever.
36 [a]"Therefore if the Son makes you free, you shall be free indeed.

Abraham's Seed and Satan's

37 "I know that you are Abraham's descendants, but [a]you seek to kill Me, because My word has no place in you.
38 [a]"I speak what I have seen with My Father, and you do what you have [1]seen with your father."
39 They answered and said to Him, [a]"Abraham is our father." Jesus said to them, [b]"If you were Abraham's children, you would do the works of Abraham.
40 [a]"But now you seek to kill Me, a Man who has told you the truth [b]which I heard from God. Abraham did not do this.
41 "You do the deeds of your father." Then they said to Him, "We were not born of fornication; [a]we have one Father—God."
42 Jesus said to them, [a]"If God were your Father, you would love Me, for [b]I proceeded forth and came from God; [c]nor have I come of Myself, but He sent Me.
43 [a]"Why do you not understand My speech? Because you are not able to listen to My word.
44 [a]"You are of your father the devil, and the [b]desires of your father you want to [c]do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and [d]does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own resources, for he is a liar and the father of it.
45 "But because I tell the truth, you do not believe Me.
46 "Which of you convicts Me of sin? And if I tell the truth, why do you not believe Me?
47 [a]"He who is of God hears God's words; therefore you do not hear, because you are not of God."

ENCOUNTER Note — John 8:47

God's Words

God's children hear His words and recognize His voice. Those who never hear from God give evidence they do not belong to Him.

Before Abraham Was, I AM

48 Then the Jews answered and said to Him, "Do we not say rightly that You are a Samaritan and [a]have a demon?"
49 Jesus answered, "I do not have a demon; but I honor My Father, and [a]you dishonor Me.
50 "And [a]I do not seek My own glory; there is One who seeks and judges.
51 "Most assuredly, I say to you, [a]if anyone keeps My word he shall never see death."
52 Then the Jews said to Him, "Now we

8:28 "Lift up" carries double meaning. It points to the crucifixion, when Jesus would physically be lifted up on a cross. It can also mean He will be exalted. Both occurred during the crucifixion.

8:33 Taken literally, this claim was blatantly false. They were under the yoke of the Roman empire. They had previously been controlled by the Assyrians, the Babylonians, the Persians, and the Greeks.

8:41 The reference to "fornication" may have been a derogatory remark aimed at the unusual circumstances of Jesus' birth.

8:46 Despite this bold challenge, Jesus' enemies could not point to one sin He had committed.

know that You [a]have a demon! [b]Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and You say, 'If anyone keeps My word he shall never taste death.'
53 "Are You greater than our father Abraham, who is dead? And the prophets are dead. [a]Who do You make Yourself out to be?"
54 Jesus answered, "[a]If I honor Myself, My honor is nothing. [b]It is My Father who honors Me, of whom you say that He is [1]your God.
55 "Yet [a]you have not known Him, but I know Him. And if I say, 'I do not know Him,' I shall be a liar like you; but I do know Him and [b]keep His word.
56 "Your father Abraham [a]rejoiced to see My day, [b]and he saw it and was glad."
57 Then the Jews said to Him, "You are not yet fifty years old, and have You seen Abraham?"
58 Jesus said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, [a]before Abraham was, [b]I AM."
59 Then [a]they took up stones to throw at Him; but Jesus hid Himself and went out of the temple, [b]going[1] through the midst of them, and so passed by.

A Man Born Blind Receives Sight

9 Now as Jesus passed by, He saw a man who was blind from birth.
2 And His disciples asked Him, saying, "Rabbi, [a]who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?"
3 Jesus answered, "Neither this man nor his parents sinned, [a]but that the works of God should be revealed in him.
4 [a]"I[1] must work the works of Him who sent Me while it is [b]day; the night is coming when no one can work.
5 "As long as I am in the world, [a]I am the light of the world."
6 When He had said these things, [a]He spat on the ground and made clay with the saliva; and He anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay.
7 And He said to him, "Go, wash [a]in the pool of Siloam" (which is translated, Sent). So [b]he went and washed, and came back seeing.
8 Therefore the neighbors and those who previously had seen that he was [1]blind said, "Is not this he who sat and begged?"
9 Some said, "This is he." Others said, [1]"He is like him." He said, "I am he."
10 Therefore they said to him, "How were your eyes opened?"
11 He answered and said, [a]"A Man called Jesus made clay and anointed my eyes and said to me, 'Go to [1]the pool of Siloam and wash.' So I went and washed, and I received sight."
12 Then they said to him, "Where is He?" He said, "I do not know."

The Pharisees Excommunicate the Healed Man

13 They brought him who formerly was blind to the Pharisees.
14 Now it was a Sabbath when Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes.
15 Then the Pharisees also asked him again how he had received his sight. He said to them, "He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and I see."
16 Therefore some of the Pharisees said, "This Man is not from God, because He does not [1]keep the Sabbath." Others said, [a]"How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?" And [b]there was a division among them.
17 They said to the blind man again, "What do you say about Him because He opened your eyes?" He said, [a]"He is a prophet."
18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind and received his sight, until they called the parents of him who had received his sight.
19 And they asked them, saying, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?"
20 His parents answered them and said, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind;
21 "but by what means he now sees we do not know, or who opened his eyes we do not know. He is of age; ask him. He will speak for himself."
22 His parents said these things because [a]they feared the Jews, for the Jews had agreed already that if anyone confessed that He was Christ, he [b]would be put out of the synagogue.
23 Therefore his parents said, "He is of age; ask him."
24 So they again called the man who was blind, and said to him, [a]"Give God

8:57 Luke's Gospel indicates Jesus was around thirty years old (Luke 3:23).

8:59 The Greek verb "hid Himself" is passive, indicating He was hidden. The heavenly Father would keep His Son safe until His appointed time had come.

9:4 "Must" carries the sense of compulsion. Jesus was driven to accomplish His Father's will while there was still time to do it.

9:6 In the ancient world, saliva was considered to have healing properties.

9:7 King Hezekiah had built a tunnel through solid rock, bringing water from Gihon to Jerusalem where it collected in the Pool of Siloam (2 Kin. 20:20; 2 Chr. 32:30).

9:17 The healed man did not yet know who Jesus was. The designation of "prophet" was the highest honor he could conceivably give a fellow man.

the glory! [b]We know that this Man is a sinner."
25 He answered and said, "Whether He is a sinner or not I do not know. One thing I know: that though I was blind, now I see."

ENCOUNTER*Note* John 9:25

One Thing I Know

It is not enough to know what the Scriptures say about Jesus, nor is it satisfactory only to hear what others have experienced in their relationship with Him. We must come to know Him ourselves. Such personal knowledge will forever change our lives.

26 Then they said to him again, "What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?"
27 He answered them, "I told you already, and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become His disciples?"
28 Then they reviled him and said, "You are His disciple, but we are Moses' disciples.
29 "We know that God [a]spoke to [b]Moses; as for this fellow, [c]we do not know where He is from."
30 The man answered and said to them, [a]"Why, this is a marvelous thing, that you do not know where He is from; yet He has opened my eyes!
31 "Now we know that [a]God does not hear sinners; but if anyone is a worshiper of God and does His will, He hears him.
32 "Since the world began it has been unheard of that anyone opened the eyes of one who was born blind.
33 [a]"If this Man were not from God, He could do nothing."
34 They answered and said to him, [a]"You were completely born in sins, and are you teaching us?" And they [1]cast him out.

True Vision and True Blindness

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when He had [a]found him, He said to him, "Do you [b]believe in [c]the Son of [1]God?"
36 He answered and said, "Who is He, Lord, that I may believe in Him?"
37 And Jesus said to him, "You have both seen Him and [a]it is He who is talking with you."
38 Then he said, "Lord, I believe!" And he [a]worshiped Him.
39 And Jesus said, [a]"For judgment I have come into this world, [b]that those who do not see may see, and that those who see may be made blind."
40 Then some of the Pharisees who were with Him heard these words, [a]and said to Him, "Are we blind also?"
41 Jesus said to them, [a]"If you were blind, you would have no sin; but now you say, 'We see.' Therefore your sin remains.

Spiritual Blindness

The worst mistake we can make is to overestimate our spiritual condition. False confidence in our walk with God is like thinking we are healthy when we are terminally ill, a dangerous misconception.

Jesus the True Shepherd

10 "Most assuredly, I say to you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door, but climbs up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.
2 "But he who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.
3 "To him the doorkeeper opens, and the sheep hear his voice; and he calls his own sheep by [a]name and leads them out.
4 "And when he brings out his own sheep, he goes before them; and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice.
5 "Yet they will by no means follow a [a]stranger, but will flee from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers."
6 Jesus used this illustration, but they did not understand the things which He spoke to them.

Jesus the Good Shepherd

7 Then Jesus said to them again, "Most assuredly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep.

9:34 "Born in sins" suggests the Pharisees believed the man's blindness was in punishment for sin.

9:38 The formerly blind man progressed in His understanding of Jesus. He first described Him as "a man" (v. 11); then "a prophet" (17); and finally as "the Son of God" to be worshipped (35–38).

10:7 Jesus is the "door," which means all God's promises are made available through Him. Moreover, He alone gives access to the Father.

Me, he will be saved, and will go in and out and find pasture.
10 "The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly.

ENCOUNTER Note John 10:10

Abundant Life

A relationship with Jesus brings life. The life Christ offers is not a mundane existence, but an ongoing, vibrant, dynamic, and joyful experience. Life is available to all, but abundant life comes only through Jesus.

11 [a]"I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd gives His life for the sheep.

14 "I am the good shepherd; and [a]I know My sheep, and [b]am known by My own.
15 [a]"As the Father knows Me, even so I know the Father; [b]and I lay down My life for the sheep.

18 "No one takes it from Me, but I lay it down of Myself. I [a]have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. [b]This command I have received from My Father."
19 Therefore [a]there was a division again among the Jews because of these sayings.
20 And many of them said, [a]"He has a demon and is [1]mad. Why do you listen to Him?"
21 Others said, "These are not the words of one who has a demon. [a]Can a demon [b]open the eyes of the blind?"

The Shepherd Knows His Sheep

22 Now it was the Feast of Dedication in Jerusalem, and it was winter.
23 And Jesus walked in the temple, [a]in Solomon's porch.
24 Then the Jews surrounded Him and said to Him, "How long do You keep us in [1]doubt? If You are the Christ, tell us plainly."
25 Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you do not believe. [a]The works that I do in My Father's name, they [b]bear witness of Me.
26 "But [a]you do not believe, because you are not of My sheep, [1]as I said to you.
27 [a]"My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me.

ENCOUNTER Note John 10:27

Jesus' Voice

There is something about Jesus' voice that resonates within the hearts of His people. The longer we walk with Him, the more clearly recognizable and distinctive His voice should become to us.

28 "And I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; neither shall anyone snatch them out of My hand.
29 [a]"My Father, [b]who has given them to Me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of My Father's hand.
30 [a]"I and My Father are one."

Renewed Efforts to Stone Jesus

31 Then [a]the Jews took up stones again to stone Him.
32 Jesus answered them, "Many good works I have shown you from My Father. For which of those works do you stone Me?"
33 The Jews answered Him, saying, "For a good work we do not stone You, but for [a]blasphemy, and because You, being a Man, [b]make Yourself God."

10:11 Jesus described Himself as the "good shepherd." God often condemned false or wicked shepherds of His people (Jer. 23:1–4; 25:32–38; Is. 56:9–12; Zech. 11; Ezek. 34). The Greek word for "good," kalos, could also be translated "beautiful." Normally a shepherd did not lay down his life for his sheep, for this would leave the remaining sheep vulnerable. However, Jesus' self sacrifice would bring life to His sheep.

10:12 A "hireling's" sole purpose in working was to make a living. Hired shepherds were expected to defend the sheep against one wolf but if there was more than one wolf, he was absolved from his duty and could flee for his life.

10:22 The Feast of Dedication celebrated the rededication of the temple by Judas Maccabaeus in 165 B.C. after Antiochus Epiphanes had desecrated it. The feast was observed for eight days in December and it later became known as the Feast of Lights, or Hanukkah.

10:23 Solomon's porch was a long, covered colonnade, probably on the east side of the temple (Acts 3:11; 5:12).

10:28 "Snatch" connotes a violent abduction. When you belong to Christ, no one and nothing can remove you. A Christian is held in both Christ's and the Father's hand.

10:30 This was a transparent claim of deity by Jesus.

34 Jesus answered them, "Is it not written in your law, [a]'I said, "You are gods" '?
35 "If He called them gods, [a]to whom the word of God came (and the Scripture [b]cannot be broken), 36 "do you say of Him [a]whom the Father sanctified and [b]sent into the world, 'You are blaspheming,' [c]because I said, 'I am [d]the Son of God'?
37 [a]"If I do not do the works of My Father, do not believe Me;
38 "but if I do, though you do not believe Me, [a]believe the works, that you may know and [1]believe [b]that the Father is in Me, and I in Him."
39 [a]Therefore they sought again to seize Him, but He escaped out of their hand.

The Believers Beyond Jordan

40 And He went away again beyond the Jordan to the place [a]where John was baptizing at first, and there He stayed.
41 Then many came to Him and said, "John performed no sign, [a]but all the things that John spoke about this Man were true."
42 And many believed in Him there.

The Death of Lazarus

11 Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus of Bethany, the town of [a]Mary and her sister Martha.
2 [a]It was that Mary who anointed the Lord with fragrant oil and wiped His feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.
3 Therefore the sisters sent to Him, saying, "Lord, behold, he whom You love is sick."
4 When Jesus heard that, He said, "This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it."
5 Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus.
6 So, when He heard that he was sick, [a]He stayed two more days in the place where He was.
7 Then after this He said to the disciples, "Let us go to Judea again."
8 The disciples said to Him, "Rabbi, lately the Jews sought to [a]stone You, and are You going there again?"

10 "But [a]if one walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him."
11 These things He said, and after that He said to them, "Our friend Lazarus [a]sleeps, but I go that I may wake him up."
12 Then His disciples said, "Lord, if he sleeps he will get well."
13 However, Jesus spoke of his death, but they thought that He was speaking about taking rest in sleep.
14 Then Jesus said to them plainly, "Lazarus is dead.
15 "And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, that you may believe. Nevertheless let us go to him."

ENCOUNTER*Note* John 11:15

For Your Sake

The circumstances of life that so discourage us are viewed by God as opportunities to increase our faith and to deepen our understanding of Him.

16 Then [a]Thomas, who is called the Twin, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with Him."

I Am the Resurrection and the Life

17 So when Jesus came, He found that he had already been in the tomb four days.
18 Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about [1]two miles away.
19 And many of the Jews had joined the women around Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.
20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met Him, but Mary was sitting in the house.
21 Now Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died.
22 "But even now I know that [a]whatever You ask of God, God will give You."
23 Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again."

10:38 The "works" Jesus performed were clear evidence that He was sent by His Father. Miracles speak for themselves, whether one chooses to believe or not.

11:6 The messenger's journey from Bethany to summon Jesus would only take one day. If Lazarus died shortly after the messenger was sent for Jesus, his delay of two days would not have made a difference in Lazarus' fate. After Jesus and his followers took a day to travel to Bethany, Lazarus would have been dead for four days.

11:9 The Jews divided the day in two. Twelve hours represented the night and the other twelve hours represented the day.

11:16 The disciple Thomas made a bold statement of commitment to Jesus. He may also have been demonstrating his essentially pessimistic outlook.

11:17 The four days Lazarus spent in the tomb were significant. It was believed that the soul lingered by the deceased body for three days in case there was any hope of resuscitation. However, the onlookers knew the corpse would begin to decay on the fourth day, and any hope of life would then end.

11:20 Martha may have been the oldest sister. As hostess, she would have taken responsibility for serving and would have been alerted first should a prominent guest like Jesus arrive.

24 Martha said to Him, [a]"I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day."
25 Jesus said to her, "I am [a]the resurrection and the life. [b]He who believes in Me, though he may [c]die, he shall live.

ENCOUNTER Note John 11:25

The Resurrection

Our most formidable foe has always been death. No person has conquered it. Yet Jesus offers resurrection life. To accept Jesus is to invite resurrection power into your life.

26 "And whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die. Do you believe this?"
27 She said to Him, "Yes, Lord, [a]I believe that You are the Christ, the Son of God, who is to come into the world."

Jesus and Death, the Last Enemy

28 And when she had said these things, she went her way and secretly called Mary her sister, saying, "The Teacher has come and is calling for you."
29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly and came to Him.
30 Now Jesus had not yet come into the town, but [1]was in the place where Martha met Him.
31 [a]Then the Jews who were with her in the house, and comforting her, when they saw that Mary rose up quickly and went out, followed her, [1]saying, "She is going to the tomb to weep there."
32 Then, when Mary came where Jesus was, and saw Him, she [a]fell down at His feet, saying to Him, [b]"Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died."
33 Therefore, when Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her weeping, He groaned in the spirit and was troubled.
34 And He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to Him, "Lord, come and see."
35 [a]Jesus wept.
36 Then the Jews said, "See how He loved him!"
37 And some of them said, "Could not this Man, [a]who opened the eyes of the blind, also have kept this man from dying?"

Jesus Weeps

It is heartbreaking to be in Jesus' presence and yet to be hampered by unbelief. Such ignorance of God's power and love is tragic.

Lazarus Raised from the Dead

38 Then Jesus, again groaning in Himself, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a [a]stone lay against it.
39 Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of him who was dead, said to Him, "Lord, by this time there is a stench, for he has been dead four days."
40 Jesus said to her, "Did I not say to you that if you would believe you would [a]see the glory of God?"
41 Then they took away the stone [1]from the place where the dead man was lying. And Jesus lifted up His eyes and said, "Father, I thank You that You have heard Me.
42 "And I know that You always hear Me, but [a]because of the people who are standing by I said this, that they may believe that You sent Me."
43 Now when He had said these things, He cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come forth!"
44 And he who had died came out bound hand and foot with [a]grave-clothes, and [b]his face was wrapped with a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Loose him, and let him go."

The Plot to Kill Jesus

45 Then many of the Jews who had come to Mary, [a]and had seen the things Jesus did, believed in Him.
46 But some of them went away to the Pharisees and [a]told them the things Jesus did.
47 [a]Then the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered a council and said, [b]"What shall we do? For this Man works many signs.
48 "If we let Him alone like this, everyone will believe in Him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and nation."
49 And one of them, [a]Caiaphas, being

11:23 Martha took Jesus' statement as a general expression of condolence, referring to the end times. She did not yet understand that He had the power to raise her brother right then and there.

11:28 Jesus was known by Martha and Mary as "the Teacher," or Rabbi. A rabbi did not teach women. However, Jesus did not bind Himself to human traditions.

11:33 The customary way to demonstrate respect for the dead was to wail loudly. The more anguished the weeping, the more loved and respected the deceased was deemed to be.

11:39 Martha remained pragmatic in her thinking, yet she yielded to Jesus' directions.

ENCOUNTER Note — John 11:46

But Some

Why is it that some see the evidence and believe while others remain cynical? The answer lies in the skeptic's heart. Often those who are not trustworthy do not trust others either.

high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all,
50 [a]"nor do you consider that it is expedient for [1]us that one man should die for the people, and not that the whole nation should perish."
51 Now this he did not say on his own authority; but being high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus would die for the nation,
52 and [a]not for that nation only, but [b]also that He would gather together in one the children of God who were scattered abroad.
53 Then, from that day on, they plotted to [a]put Him to death.
54 [a]Therefore Jesus no longer walked openly among the Jews, but went from there into the country near the wilderness, to a city called [b]Ephraim, and there remained with His disciples.
55 [a]And the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went from the country up to Jerusalem before the Passover, to [b]purify themselves.
56 [a]Then they sought Jesus, and spoke among themselves as they stood in the temple, "What do you think—that He will not come to the feast?"
57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a command, that if anyone knew where He was, he should report it, that they might [a]seize Him.

The Anointing at Bethany

12 Then, six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, [a]where Lazarus was [1]who had been dead, whom He had raised from the dead.
2 [a]There they made Him a supper; and Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with Him.
3 Then [a]Mary took a pound of very costly oil of [b]spikenard, anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped His feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the oil.
4 But one of His disciples, [a]Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, who would betray Him, said,
5 "Why was this fragrant oil not sold for [1]three hundred denarii and given to the poor?"
6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and [a]had the money box; and he used to take what was put in it.
7 But Jesus said, "Let her alone; [1]she has kept this for the day of My burial.
8 "For [a]the poor you have with you always, but Me you do not have always."

The Plot to Kill Lazarus

9 Now a great many of the Jews knew that He was there; and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might also see Lazarus, [a]whom He had raised from the dead.
10 [a]But the chief priests plotted to put Lazarus to death also,

Refusal

Those who refuse to accept God's word will always find a way to dismiss or remove the evidence of His power. Only the Holy Spirit can soften a hardened heart.

11 [a]because on account of him many of the Jews went away and believed in Jesus.

The Triumphal Entry

12 [a]The next day a great multitude that had come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem,
13 took branches of palm trees and went out to meet Him, and cried out:

12 [a]Matt. 21: 4–9

11:49 Caiaphas was high priest about A.D. 18–36. This was traditionally a life-long position, appointed by the Roman authorities.

11:54 Ephraim may be identified with Ophrah which was fifteen miles from Jerusalem (2 Chr. 13:19).

12:2 Martha was actively serving Jesus, as was her custom (Luke 10:41–42). However, this time there is no mention of her being distracted or agitated.

12:3 Such an expensive perfume would normally have been poured on someone's head. However, Mary assumed the most humiliating position imaginable, at Jesus' feet. Pious women never publicly unbraided their hair. However, Mary's devotion to Jesus made her oblivious to any embarrassment or criticism.

12:5 A day laborer earned one denarius per day. This gift represented a year's wages. This may well have been a family treasure that Mary dispensed.

12:6 This is the only mention in the Gospels of Judas's evil character before he betrayed Jesus. Apparently he had followed Jesus for His own profit and would eventually betray Him from the same motive.

12:10 The chief priests mostly consisted of Sadducees who rejected the belief in the resurrection. Lazarus was therefore doubly offensive to them, not only because of his strong testimony, but because his resurrection contradicted their theology.

12:13 Jewish law prescribed palm branches to be used at the Feast of Tabernacles (Lev. 23:40). Palms symbolized victory.

"Hosanna!
[a]'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!'
The King of Israel!"

14 [a]Then Jesus, when He had found a young donkey, sat on it; as it is written:

15 "Fear[a] not, daughter of Zion;
Behold, your King is coming,
Sitting on a donkey's colt."

16 [a]His disciples did not understand these things at first; [b]but when Jesus was glorified, [c]then they remembered that these things were written about Him and that they had done these things to Him.
17 Therefore the people, who were with Him when He called Lazarus out of his tomb and raised him from the dead, bore witness.
18 [a]For this reason the people also met Him, because they heard that He had done this sign.
19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, [a]"You see that you are accomplishing nothing. Look, the world has gone after Him!"

The Fruitful Grain of Wheat

20 Now there [a]were certain Greeks among those [b]who came up to worship at the feast.
21 Then they came to Philip, [a]who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus."
22 Philip came and told Andrew, and in turn Andrew and Philip told Jesus.
23 But Jesus answered them, saying, [a]"The hour has come that the Son of Man should be glorified.
24 "Most assuredly, I say to you, [a]unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it produces much [1]grain.
25 [a]"He who loves his life will lose it, and he who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life.
26 "If anyone serves Me, let him [a]follow Me; and [b]where I am, there My servant will be also. If anyone serves Me, him My Father will honor.

Jesus Predicts His Death on the Cross

27 [a]"Now My soul is troubled, and what shall I say? 'Father, save Me from this hour'? [b]But for this purpose I came to this hour.
28 "Father, glorify Your name." [a]Then a voice came from heaven, saying, "I have both glorified it and will glorify it again."
29 Therefore the people who stood by and heard it said that it had thundered. Others said, "An angel has spoken to Him."
30 Jesus answered and said, [a]"This voice did not come because of Me, but for your sake.
31 "Now is the judgment of this world; now [a]the ruler of this world will be cast out.
32 "And I, [a]if I am [1]lifted up from the earth, will draw [b]all peoples to Myself."
33 [a]This He said, signifying by what death He would die.
34 The people answered Him, [a]"We have heard from the law that the Christ remains forever; and how can You say, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up'? Who is this Son of Man?"
35 Then Jesus said to them, "A little while longer [a]the light is with you. [b]Walk while you have the light, lest darkness overtake you; [c]he who walks in darkness does not know where he is going.
36 "While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become [a]sons of light." These things Jesus spoke, and departed, and [b]was hidden from them.

Who Has Believed Our Report?

37 But although He had done so many [a]signs before them, they did not believe in Him,

Losing Your Life

The Christian life is filled with paradoxes. Trying to save your life and manage it yourself shows you do not trust God. The only way to truly experience abundant life is to submit your future to God's hands. The irony is in losing, you win.

12:20 The coming of Greeks to seek Jesus signified that Jesus was no longer merely a Jewish Messiah but the Savior of the world.

12:21 The Greeks came to Philip and were continually asking to see Jesus. They may have approached Philip because he had a Greek name, as did Andrew.

12:38 Jesus' entire life and ministry followed in accordance with scripture, fulfilling every prophecy.

40 "He[a] has blinded their eyes and hardened their hearts,
[b]Lest they should see with their eyes,
Lest they should understand with their hearts and turn,
So that I should heal them."

41 [a]These things Isaiah said [1]when he saw His glory and spoke of Him.

Walk in the Light

42 Nevertheless even among the rulers many believed in Him, but [a]because of the Pharisees they did not confess Him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue;
43 [a]for they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.
44 Then Jesus cried out and said, [a]"He who believes in Me, [b]believes not in Me [c]but in Him who sent Me.
45 "And [a]he who sees Me sees Him who sent Me.
46 [a]"I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes in Me should not abide in darkness.

ENCOUNTER Note — John 12:46

Light

Light dispels darkness. Once you place your trust in Jesus, your life is illuminated. You see yourself as you never did before. Until then you walk in shadows.

47 "And if anyone hears My words and does not [1]believe, [a]I do not judge him; for [b]I did not come to judge the world but to save the world.
48 [a]"He who rejects Me, and does not receive My words, has that which judges him—[b]the word that I have spoken will judge him in the last day.
49 "For [a]I have not spoken on My own authority; but the Father who sent Me gave Me a command, [b]what I should say and what I should speak.
50 "And I know that His command is everlasting life. Therefore, whatever I speak, just as the Father has told Me, so I [a]speak."

Jesus Washes the Disciples' Feet

13 Now [a]before the Feast of the Passover, when Jesus knew that [b]His hour had come that He should depart from this world to the Father, having loved His own who were in the world, He [c]loved them to the end.
2 And [1]supper being ended, [a]the devil having already put it into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray Him,
3 Jesus, knowing [a]that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He [b]had come from God and [c]was going to God,
4 [a]rose from supper and laid aside His garments, took a towel and girded Himself.
5 After that, He poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel with which He was girded.
6 Then He came to Simon Peter. And Peter said to Him, [a]"Lord, are You washing my feet?"
7 Jesus answered and said to him, "What I am doing you [a]do not understand now, [b]but you will know after this."
8 Peter said to Him, "You shall never wash my feet!" Jesus answered him, [a]"If I do not wash you, you have no part with Me."
9 Simon Peter said to Him, "Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head!"
10 Jesus said to him, "He who is bathed needs only to wash his feet, but is completely clean; and [a]you are clean, but not all of you."
11 For [a]He knew who would betray Him; therefore He said, "You are not all clean."
12 So when He had washed their feet, taken His garments, and sat down again, He said to them, "Do you [1]know what I have done to you?
13 [a]"You call Me Teacher and Lord, and you say well, for so I am.
14 [a]"If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, [b]you also ought to wash one another's feet.
15 "For [a]I have given you an example, that you should do as I have done to you.
16 [a]"Most assuredly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master; nor is he who is sent greater than he who sent him.
17 [a]"If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them.

12:48 Ultimately people will determine their own judgment, based on how they respond to God's word.

13:1 Throughout John's Gospel we are told that Jesus' "hour" had not come. Finally it does arrive on the night He celebrates the Passover with His disciples.

13:4 Jesus apparently stripped Himself down to His basic garment, in the manner of a slave, then wrapped a towel around His waist so He could use it to dry His disciples' feet.

ENCOUNTER Note — John 13:17

Knowing and Doing

We can impress others with our accumulation of knowledge, but our great challenge is putting into practice everything we know.

that the [a]Scripture may be fulfilled, [b]'He who eats [1]bread with Me has lifted up his heel against Me.'
19 [a]"Now I tell you before it comes, that when it does come to pass, you may believe that I am He.
20 [a]"Most assuredly, I say to you, he who receives whomever I send receives Me; and he who receives Me receives Him who sent Me."
21 [a]When Jesus had said these things, [b]He was troubled in spirit, and testified and said, "Most assuredly, I say to you, [c]one of you will betray Me."
22 Then the disciples looked at one another, perplexed about whom He spoke.
23 Now [a]there was [1]leaning on Jesus' bosom one of His disciples, whom Jesus loved.
24 Simon Peter therefore motioned to him to ask who it was of whom He spoke.
25 Then, leaning [1]back on Jesus' breast, he said to Him, "Lord, who is it?"
26 Jesus answered, "It is he to whom I shall give a piece of bread when I have dipped it." And having dipped the bread, He gave it to [a]Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.
27 [a]Now after the piece of bread, Satan entered him. Then Jesus said to him, "What you do, do quickly."
28 But no one at the table knew for what reason He said this to him.
29 For some thought, because [a]Judas had the money box, that Jesus had said to him, "Buy those things we need for the feast," or that he should give something to the poor.
30 Having received the piece of bread, he then went out immediately. And it was night.

The New Commandment

31 So, when he had gone out, Jesus said, [a]"Now the Son of Man is glorified, and [b]God is glorified in Him.
32 "If God is glorified in Him, God will also glorify Him in Himself, and [a]glorify Him immediately.
33 "Little children, I shall be with you a [a]little while longer. You will seek Me; [b]and as I said to the Jews, 'Where I am going, you cannot come,' so now I say to you.
34 [a]"A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another.

ENCOUNTER Note — John 13:34

A New Commandment

Many religions promote kindness and brotherly love, but Christ set the perfect standard Himself by laying down His own life. This is our calling, one we can fulfill only if Christ is in us.

35 [a]"By this all will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another."

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

36 Simon Peter said to Him, "Lord, where are You going?" Jesus answered him, "Where I [a]am going you cannot follow Me now, but [b]you shall follow Me afterward."
37 Peter said to Him, "Lord, why can I not follow You now? I will [a]lay down my life for Your sake."
38 Jesus answered him, "Will you lay down your life for My sake? Most assuredly, I say to you, the rooster shall not [a]crow till you have denied Me three times.

The Way, the Truth, and the Life

14 "Let [a]not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me.
2 "In My Father's house are many [1]mansions; if it were not so, [2]I would have told you. [a]I go to prepare a place for you.
3 "And if I go and prepare a place for you, [a]I will come again and receive you to Myself; that [b]where I am, there you may be also.
4 "And where I go you know, and the way you know."
5 [a]Thomas said to Him, "Lord, we do not know where You are going, and how can we know the way?"

5 [a]Matt. 10:3

13:21 Even on the night of Jesus' betrayal, the disciples did not suspect Judas as a traitor. Jesus washed Judas' feet, passed him food, and seated him close to Himself.

13:23 The disciple "whom Jesus loved" was more than likely John (John 19:26; 20:2; 21:7, 20). Modesty probably prevented him from mentioning himself or his brother James. Nevertheless, he enjoyed a position of honor, leaning on Jesus during the Passover meal.

13:27 In John's Gospel, Satan is mentioned just this once. Despite all Jesus had done to reach out to Judas, he had hardened his heart and opened himself to Satan's influence.

14:2 "My Father's house" refers to heaven.

6 Jesus said to him, "I am [a]the way, [b]the truth, and [c]the life. [d]No one comes to the Father [e]except through Me.

The Father Revealed

7 [a]"If you had known Me, you would have known My Father also; and from now on you know Him and have seen Him."
8 Philip said to Him, "Lord, show us the Father, and it is sufficient for us."
9 Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you so long, and yet you have not known Me, Philip? [a]He who has seen Me has seen the Father; so how can you say, 'Show us the Father'?

ENCOUNTER*Note* John 14:9

How Long?

The length of your relationship to Christ is less important than its depth. The passage of time does not guarantee spiritual maturity. Maturity comes through knowing who Christ is and trusting Him as He leads you.

10 "Do you not believe that [a]I am in the Father, and the Father in Me? The words that I speak to you [b]I do not speak on My own authority; but the Father who dwells in Me does the works.
11 "Believe Me that I am in the Father and the Father in Me, [a]or else believe Me for the sake of the works themselves.

The Answered Prayer

12 [a]"Most assuredly, I say to you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do he will do also; and greater works than these he will do, because I go to My Father.
13 [a]"And whatever you ask in My name, that I will do, that the Father may be [b]glorified in the Son.
14 "If you [1]ask anything in My name, I will do it.

Jesus Promises Another Helper

15 [a]"If you love Me, [1]keep My commandments.

18 [a]"I will not leave you orphans; [b]I will come to you.

Indwelling of the Father and the Son

19 "A little while longer and the world will see Me no more, but [a]you will see Me. [b]Because I live, you will live also.
20 "At that day you will know that [a]I am in My Father, and you in Me, and I in you.
21 [a]"He who has My commandments and keeps them, it is he who loves Me. And he who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and [1]manifest Myself to him."
22 [a]Judas (not Iscariot) said to Him, "Lord, how is it that You will manifest Yourself to us, and not to the world?"
23 Jesus answered and said to him, "If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word; and My Father will love him, [a]and We will come to him and make Our home with him.
24 "He who does not love Me does not keep My words; and [a]the word which you hear is not Mine but the Father's who sent Me.

The Gift of His Peace

25 "These things I have spoken to you while being present with you.
26 "But [a]the [1]Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will [b]send in My name, [c]He will teach you all things, and bring to your [d]remembrance all things that I said to you.
27 [a]"Peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.
28 "You have heard Me [a]say to you, 'I am going away and coming back to you.' If you loved Me, you would rejoice because [1]I said, [b]'I am going to the Father,' for [c]My Father is greater than I.
29 "And [a]now I have told you before it comes, that when it does come to pass, you may believe.

14:5 Thomas displayed his honesty by freely admitting his lack of understanding to Jesus and the other disciples.

14:13 "My name" refers to praying for something according to the nature and will of Christ.

14:16 "Another" indicated one of exactly the same kind. "Helper" is also translated "Comforter." It comes from the Greek word paraclete, which signifies a friend who is called to your side to provide assistance, especially of a legal nature.

14:17 The "Spirit of truth" refers to the Holy Spirit's activity in revealing truth to believers (John 15:26; 16:13).

14:18 "Orphans" may be linked to Jesus' reference to His disciples as "little children" (John 13:33).

14:22 This is the only place Judas (not Iscariot) is mentioned in John's Gospel (Luke 6:16; Acts 1:13). He may be called Thaddeus in Matthew 10:3 and Mark 3:18.

14:26 Although God's Spirit is described several ways, the Holy Spirit is the term most commonly used. The primary characteristic emphasized is not His power, but His holiness.

ENCOUNTER Note — John 14:27

Peace

Jesus never promised that life would not have crises. The world presents numerous reasons to be anxious. That is what makes God's peace so amazing. If we walk intimately with Christ, we will not be shaken, come what may.

30 "I will no longer talk much with you, [a]for the ruler of this world is coming, and he has [b]nothing in Me.
31 "But that the world may know that I love the Father, and [a]as the Father gave Me commandment, so I do. Arise, let us go from here.

The True Vine

15 "I am the true vine, and My Father is the vinedresser.
2 [a]"Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit He [1]takes away; and every branch that bears fruit He prunes, that it may bear [b]more fruit.
3 [a]"You are already clean because of the word which I have spoken to you.
4 [a]"Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in Me.
5 "I am the vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much [a]fruit; for without Me you can do [b]nothing.

ENCOUNTER Note — John 15:5

Abide

Out of our intimate relationship with God flows everything of consequence. Apart from His presence in our lives, we can do nothing of eternal significance.

6 "If anyone does not abide in Me, [a]he is cast out as a branch and is withered; and they gather them and throw them into the fire, and they are burned.
7 "If you abide in Me, and My words [a]abide in you, [b]you[1] will ask what you desire, and it shall be done for you.
8 [a]"By this My Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit; [b]so you will be My disciples.

Love and Joy Perfected

9 "As the Father [a]loved Me, I also have loved you; abide in My love.
10 [a]"If you keep My commandments, you will abide in My love, just as I have kept My Father's commandments and abide in His love.
11 "These things I have spoken to you, that My joy may remain in you, and [a]that your joy may be full.
12 [a]"This is My [b]commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.
13 [a]"Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one's life for his friends.
14 [a]"You are My friends if you do whatever I command you.

ENCOUNTER Note — John 15:14

Spontaneous Obedience

A lifestyle of spontaneous obedience is the most compelling evidence of our friendship and affection for Christ.

15 "No longer do I call you servants, for a servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, [a]for all things that I heard from My Father I have made known to you.
16 [a]"You did not choose Me, but I chose you and [b]appointed you that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain, that whatever you ask the Father [c]in My name He may give you.
17 "These things I command you, that you love one another.

The World's Hatred

18 [a]"If the world hates you, you know that it hated Me before it hated you.
19 [a]"If you were of the world, the world would love its own. Yet [b]because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you.
20 "Remember the word that I said to you, [a]'A servant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you. [b]If they kept My word, they will keep yours also.

15:1 In the Old Testament, Israel had been described as a vine (Ps. 80:8–16; Is. 5:1–7; Jer. 2:21; Ezek. 15:2; 19:10; Hos. 10:1).

15:3 The word "clean" used here is significant. The pruning process that produces spiritual fruit in our lives requires cleansing and consecration.

15:7 "My words" indicate that God's word actively works in us to draw us to God and to give us a heart that desires His will in all things.

15:11 Joy is a particular emphasis in John's writing (John 3:29; 16:24; 17:13; 1 John 1:4; 2 John 12).

15:18 Jesus explained that the world is fundamentally opposed to Christians. The closer you walk with Christ, the more you can expect worldly hostility.

21 "But [a]all these things they will do to you for My name's sake, because they do not know Him who sent Me.
22 [a]"If I had not come and spoken to them, they would have no sin, [b]but now they have no excuse for their sin.
23 [a]"He who hates Me hates My Father also.
24 "If I had not done among them [a]the works which no one else did, they would have no sin; but now they have [b]seen and also hated both Me and My Father.
25 "But this happened that the word might be fulfilled which is written in their law, [a]'They hated Me without a cause.'

The Coming Rejection

26 [a]"But when the [1]Helper comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, [b]He will testify of Me.
27 "And [a]you also will bear witness, because [b]you have been with Me from the beginning.

16 "These things I have spoken to you, that you [a]should not be made to stumble.
2 [a]"They will put you out of the synagogues; yes, the time is coming [b]that whoever kills you will think that he offers God service.
3 "And [a]these things they will do [1]to you because they have not known the Father nor Me.
4 "But these things I have told you, that when [1]the time comes, you may remember that I told you of them. And these things I did not say to you at the beginning, because I was with you.

The Work of the Holy Spirit

5 "But now I [a]go away to Him who sent Me, and none of you asks Me, 'Where are You going?'
6 "But because I have said these things to you, [a]sorrow has filled your heart.
7 "Nevertheless I tell you the truth. It is to your advantage that I go away; for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you; but [a]if I depart, I will send Him to you.
8 "And when He has [a]come, He will convict the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:
9 [a]"of sin, because they do not believe in Me;

The Limit

We all have limits in our relationship with God. We are capable of receiving only so much of God's revelation at a time. Therefore, as we walk with Christ, the Holy Spirit teaches and stretches us so we can grow in our capacity to receive what God is saying.

13 "However, when He, [a]the Spirit of truth, has come, [b]He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak; and He will tell you things to come.
14 [a]"He will glorify Me, for He will take of what is Mine and declare it to you.
15 [a]"All things that the Father has are Mine. Therefore I said that He [1]will take of Mine and declare it to you.

Sorrow Will Turn to Joy

16 "A [a]little while, and you will not see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me, [b]because I go to the Father."
17 Then some of His disciples said among themselves, "What is this that He says to us, 'A little while, and you will not see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me'; and, 'because I go to the Father'?"
18 They said therefore, "What is this that He says, 'A little while'? We do not [1]know what He is saying."
19 Now Jesus knew that they desired to ask Him, and He said to them, "Are you inquiring among yourselves about what I said, 'A little while, and you will not see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me'?
20 "Most assuredly, I say to you that you will weep and [a]lament, but the world will rejoice; and you will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned into [b]joy.
21 [a]"A woman, when she is in labor, has sorrow because her hour has come; but as soon as she has given birth to the 15:26 This verse highlights the closeness and oneness of the Trinity. The Holy Spirit is described as being sent by Jesus and proceeding from the Father.

16:7 As incredible as walking with Jesus in His flesh was for the twelve disciples, Jesus declared it was advantageous that He leave them so they might receive the Holy Spirit.

16:33 The word "tribulation" means "pressure," and can be interpreted as "affliction, distress."

16:14 The Holy Spirit's role is to focus on Christ and to exalt Him.

child, she no longer remembers the anguish, for joy that a human being has been born into the world.
22 "Therefore you now have sorrow; but I will see you again and [a]your heart will rejoice, and your joy no one will take from you.
23 "And in that day you will ask Me nothing. [a]Most assuredly, I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in My name He will give you.
24 "Until now you have asked nothing in My name. Ask, and you will receive, [a]that your joy may be [b]full.

Jesus Christ Has Overcome the World

25 "These things I have spoken to you in figurative language; but the time is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figurative language, but I will tell you [a]plainly about the Father.
26 "In that day you will ask in My name, and I do not say to you that I shall pray the Father for you;
27 [a]"for the Father Himself loves you, because you have loved Me, and [b]have believed that I came forth from God.
28 [a]"I came forth from the Father and have come into the world. Again, I leave the world and go to the Father."
29 His disciples said to Him, "See, now You are speaking plainly, and using no figure of speech!
30 "Now we are sure that [a]You know all things, and have no need that anyone should question You. By this [b]we believe that You came forth from God."
31 Jesus answered them, "Do you now believe?
32 [a]"Indeed the hour is coming, yes, has now come, that you will be scattered, [b]each to his [1]own, and will leave Me alone. And [c]yet I am not alone, because the Father is with Me.
33 "These things I have spoken to you, that [a]in Me you may have peace. [b]In the world you [1]will have tribulation; but be of good cheer, [c]I have overcome the world."

Jesus Prays for Himself

17 Jesus spoke these words, lifted up His eyes to heaven, and said: "Father, [a]the hour has come. Glorify Your Son, that Your Son also may glorify You,
2 [a]"as You have given Him authority over all flesh, that He [1]should give eternal life to as many [b]as You have given Him.
3 "And [a]this is eternal life, that they may know You, [b]the only true God, and Jesus Christ [c]whom You have sent.
4 [a]"I have glorified You on the earth. [b]I have finished the work [c]which You have given Me to do.
5 "And now, O Father, glorify Me together [1]with Yourself, with the glory [a]which I had with You before the world was.

Jesus Prays for His Disciples

6 [a]"I have [1]manifested Your name to the men [b]whom You have given Me out of the world. [c]They were Yours, You gave them to Me, and they have kept Your word.
7 "Now they have known that all things which You have given Me are from You.
8 "For I have given to them the words [a]which You have given Me; and they have received them, [b]and have known surely that I came forth from You; and they have believed that [c]You sent Me.
9 "I pray for them. [a]I do not pray for the world but for those whom You have given Me, for they are Yours.

WORD Study — GIVEN

John 17:2 "Given" comes from the Greek didomi, meaning "to give." It is a favorite word in John, used seventy-six times. It appears seventeen times in chapter 17, often in the perfect tense, meaning it is a gift with ongoing results.

ENCOUNTER Note John 17:3

Eternal Life

Eternal life does not mean merely living forever, but knowing God intimately. It refers to a quality of life. The moment a person enters into a relationship with Christ, eternal life begins and extends throughout eternity.

WORD Study — GLORIFY

John 17:5 Glorify is from the Greek, doxazo. It means "to give glory" or "to make glorious." It involves putting the divine, holy nature of God on display for people to witness. Ironically, the cross, a most humiliating form of death, was the platform on which Jesus was glorified and where He magnified His Father's love.

17:1 "Lifted up His eyes" indicated the customary manner of praying.
17:6 Manifesting the Father's name meant teaching and modeling the Father's character and nature in such a way that the disciples clearly understood what the Father was like.

11 [a]"Now I am no longer in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to You. Holy Father, [b]keep[1] through Your name those whom You have given Me, that they may be one [c]as We are.
12 "While I was with them [1]in the world, [a]I kept them in [2]Your name. Those whom You gave Me I have kept; and [b]none of them is [3]lost [c]except the son of [4]perdition, [d]that the Scripture might be fulfilled.
13 "But now I come to You, and these things I speak in the world, that they may have My joy fulfilled in themselves.
14 "I have given them Your word; [a]and the world has hated them because they are not of the world, [b]just as I am not of the world.
15 "I do not pray that You should take them out of the world, but [a]that You should keep them from the evil one.
16 "They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world.
17 [a]"Sanctify[1] them by Your truth. [b]Your word is truth.

ENCOUNTER Note John 17:17

The Sanctifying Word

God's word exposes our sin. It breaks sin's power to bind us. It dispels spiritual darkness and illuminates our path. God's word actively transforms us to be like Christ as we allow it to work in our lives.

18 [a]"As You sent Me into the world, I also have sent them into the world.
19 "And [a]for their sakes I sanctify Myself, that they also may be sanctified by the truth.

Jesus Prays for All Believers

20 "I do not pray for these alone, but also for those who [1]will believe in Me through their word;
21 [a]"that they all may be one, as [b]You, Father, are in Me, and I in You; that they also may be one in Us, that the world may believe that You sent Me.
22 "And the [a]glory which You gave Me I have given them, [b]that they may be one just as We are one:
23 "I in them, and You in Me; [a]that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know that You have sent Me, and have loved them as You have loved Me.
24 [a]"Father, I desire that they also whom You gave Me may be with Me where I am, that they may behold My glory which You have given Me; [b]for You loved Me before the foundation of the world.
25 "O righteous Father! [a]The world has not known You, but [b]I have known You; and [c]these have known that You sent Me.
26 [a]"And I have declared to them Your name, and will declare it, that the love [b]with which You loved Me may be in them, and I in them."

Betrayal and Arrest in Gethsemane

18 When Jesus had spoken these words, [a]He went out with His disciples over [b]the Brook Kidron, where there was a garden, which He and His disciples entered.
2 And Judas, who betrayed Him, also knew the place; [a]for Jesus often met there with His disciples.
3 [a]Then Judas, having received a detachment of troops, and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons.
4 Jesus therefore, [a]knowing all things that would come upon Him, went forward and said to them, "Whom are you seeking?"
5 They answered Him, [a]"Jesus [1]of Nazareth." Jesus said to them, "I am He." And Judas, who [b]betrayed Him, also stood with them.
6 Now when He said to them, "I am He," they drew back and fell to the ground.
7 Then He asked them again, "Whom are you seeking?" And they said, "Jesus of Nazareth."
8 Jesus answered, "I have told you that I am He. Therefore, if you seek Me, let these go their way,"
9 that the saying might be fulfilled which He spoke, [a]"Of those whom You gave Me I have lost none."

9 [a][John 6:39; 17:12]

17:11 Jesus used the present tense. Although He was technically still in the world, He soon would be taken from it.

17:12 Jesus had a shepherd's heart, strongly desiring that He not lose even one of His disciples. However, it was clear from the beginning that Judas was never truly a believer belonging to Jesus' flock (John 6:64–71; 13:11; 18:8, 9).

17:15 God's desire is never to remove His people from the world but to use them as salt and light to make a difference in the world.

17:20 Jesus prayed not only for the twelve disciples but also for those who would eventually become His followers. The testimony of His disciples would work divinely to expand God's kingdom through the generations to countless millions of people.

18:1 The Brook Kidron was a ravine that lay between Jerusalem and the Mount of Olives to the east.

18:3 A detachment of troops, or a cohort, consisted of roughly six hundred men. The entire detachment may not have been sent for Jesus' secret arrest. They would have been stationed in the Fortress Antonia near the temple.

18:8 Even at this critical moment, Jesus cared for and protected His disciples, as a Good Shepherd does.

10 [a]Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it and struck the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.
11 So Jesus said to Peter, "Put your sword into the sheath. Shall I not drink [a]the cup which My Father has given Me?"

Before the High Priest

12 Then the detachment of troops and the captain and the officers of the Jews arrested Jesus and bound Him.
13 And [a]they led Him away to [b]Annas first, for he was the father-in-law of [c]Caiaphas who was high priest that year.
14 [a]Now it was Caiaphas who advised the Jews that it was [1]expedient that one man should die for the people.

Peter Denies Jesus

15 [a]And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did [b]another[1] disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and went with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest.
16 [a]But Peter stood at the door outside. Then the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought Peter in.
17 Then the servant girl who kept the door said to Peter, "You are not also one of this Man's disciples, are you?" He said, "I am [a]not."
18 Now the servants and officers who had made a fire of coals stood there, for it was cold, and they warmed themselves. And Peter stood with them and warmed himself.

Jesus Questioned by the High Priest

19 The high priest then asked Jesus about His disciples and His doctrine.
20 Jesus answered him, [a]"I spoke openly to the world. I always taught [b]in synagogues and [c]in the temple, where [1]the Jews always meet, and in secret I have said nothing.
21 "Why do you ask Me? Ask [a]those who have heard Me what I said to them. Indeed they know what I said."
22 And when He had said these things, one of the officers who stood by [a]struck[1] Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, "Do You answer the high priest like that?"
23 Jesus answered him, "If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil; but if well, why do you strike Me?"
24 [a]Then Annas sent Him bound to [b]Caiaphas the high priest.

Peter Denies Twice More

25 Now Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. [a]Therefore they said to him, "You are not also one of His disciples, are you?" He denied it and said, "I am not!"
26 One of the servants of the high priest, a relative of him whose ear Peter cut off, said, "Did I not see you in the garden with Him?"
27 Peter then denied again; and [a]immediately a rooster crowed.

ENCOUNTER Note — John 18:27

Denial

We all experience failure; it is a consequence of our fallen human condition. But how agonizingly painful it is when we fail to honor our precious Lord. Our sin is a direct affront to His death on the cross for us and His unfailing love for us.

In Pilate's Court

28 [a]Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas to the Praetorium, and it was early morning. [b]But they themselves did not go into the [1]Praetorium, lest they should be defiled, but that they might eat the Passover.
29 [a]Pilate then went out to them and said, "What accusation do you bring against this Man?"
30 They answered and said to him, "If He were not [1]an evildoer, we would not have delivered Him up to you."
31 Then Pilate said to them, "You take Him and judge Him according to your law." Therefore the Jews said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death," 32 [a]that the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled which He spoke, [b]signifying by what death He would die.
33 [a]Then Pilate entered the [1]Praetorium again, called Jesus, and said to Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?"
34 Jesus answered him, "Are you speaking for yourself about this, or did others tell you this concerning Me?"

18:10 The "sword" would have been a short sword, more like a long knife.

18:13 Jesus first appeared before Annas, although Caiaphas was high priest. Annas had been high priest (A.D. 7–14), and five of his sons would follow him in that position. He was therefore still influential on the Sanhedrin. He was also Caiaphas's father-in-law, and may have been the ringleader in the plot against Jesus.

18:15 "Another disciple" has traditionally been assumed to be the disciple John. Salome, who stood at the cross was probably John's mother (Matt. 27:56; Mark 15:40).

18:22 Striking Jesus was illegal according to Jewish law. A criminal could not be punished before his trial was concluded.

35 Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew? Your own nation and the chief priests have delivered You to me. What have You done?"
36 [a]Jesus answered, [b]"My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, My servants would fight, so that I should not be delivered to the Jews; but now My kingdom is not from here."
37 Pilate therefore said to Him, "Are You a king then?" Jesus answered, "You say rightly that I am a king. For this cause I was born, and for this cause I have come into the world, [a]that I should bear [b]witness to the truth. Everyone who [c]is of the truth [d]hears My voice."
38 Pilate said to Him, "What is truth?" And when he had said this, he went out again to the Jews, and said to them, [a]"I find no fault in Him at all.

Taking the Place of Barabbas

39 [a]"But you have a custom that I should release someone to you at the Passover. Do you therefore want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"
40 [a]Then they all cried again, saying, "Not this Man, but Barabbas!" [b]Now Barabbas was a robber.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

19 So then [a]Pilate took Jesus and scourged Him.
2 And the soldiers twisted a crown of thorns and put it on His head, and they put on Him a purple robe.
3 [1]Then they said, "Hail, King of the Jews!" And they [a]struck Him with their hands.
4 Pilate then went out again, and said to them, "Behold, I am bringing Him out to you, [a]that you may know that I find no fault in Him."

Pilate's Decision

5 Then Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. And Pilate said to them, "Behold the Man!"
6 [a]Therefore, when the chief priests and officers saw Him, they cried out, saying, "Crucify Him, crucify Him!" Pilate said to them, "You take Him and crucify Him, for I find no fault in Him."
7 The Jews answered him, [a]"We have a law, and according to [1]our law He ought to die, because [b]He made Himself the Son of God."
8 Therefore, when Pilate heard that saying, he was the more afraid,
9 and went again into the Praetorium, and said to Jesus, "Where are You from?" [a]But Jesus gave him no answer.
10 Then Pilate said to Him, "Are You not speaking to me? Do You not know that I have [1]power to crucify You, and [1]power to release You?"
11 Jesus answered, [a]"You could have no power at all against Me unless it had been given you from above. Therefore [b]the one who delivered Me to you has the greater sin."
12 From then on Pilate sought to release Him, but the Jews cried out, saying, "If you let this Man go, you are not Caesar's friend. [a]Whoever makes himself a king speaks against Caesar."
13 [a]When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus out and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called The Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha.
14 Now [a]it was the Preparation Day of the Passover, and about the sixth hour. And he said to the Jews, "Behold your King!"
15 But they cried out, "Away with Him, away with Him! Crucify Him!" Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, [a]"We have no king but Caesar!"
16 [a]Then he delivered Him to them to be crucified. So they took Jesus [1]and led Him away.

The King on a Cross

17 [a]And He, bearing His cross, [b]went out to a place called the Place of a Skull, which is called in Hebrew, Golgotha,

18:28 The Praetorium was the Roman governor's official residence. Pious Jews would not defile themselves by entering his residence for fear of disqualifying themselves from participating in the religious feast occurring at that time. "Early morning" would have been between 3:00 and 6:00 a.m.

18:29 Pilate, as Roman governor, possessed the imperium, which gave him the power to make laws and to condemn a person to death.

18:33 "Thou" is in the emphatic position. Pilate was surprised that someone of Jesus' lowly stature would consider himself a king or be looked upon as one.

18:39 Releasing Jesus in honor of the Passover seemed like a perfect solution to Pilate. It would satisfy the Jews by allowing Jesus to appear guilty, while releasing Him satisfied justice.

18:40 Barabbas means "son of Abba" or "son of father." He is described in the Gospels as a robber, a rebel (Mark 15:7), and a murderer (Luke 23:19).

19:1 Scourging was a brutal and often fatal form of punishment. A whip with pieces of metal or stone at the end was used. Every blow would rip flesh from the victim. It may be that Pilate had Jesus scourged in an effort to show He had suffered enough and was not in need of crucifixion (Luke 23:16, 22). Its effect was to greatly weaken Jesus before He was crucified.

19:6 It was the chief priests and officers of the Jews who demanded crucifixion, not the people at large. The people may have been taken aback temporarily at the sight of Jesus after His brutal scourging.

19:9 Jesus' silence may well have been in fulfillment of the prophecy in Isaiah 53:7 (Matt. 23:63; 27:14; Mark 14:60; 15:5; Luke 23:9).

19:12 The Jews' reference to Caesar was determinative. Pilate could not let a challenge to Caesar go unanswered without appearing to be disloyal to the emperor.

19:14 The Preparation Day of the Passover was Friday.

18 where they crucified Him, and [a]two others with Him, one on either side, and Jesus in the center.
19 [a]Now Pilate wrote a title and put it on the cross. And the writing was:

JESUS OF NAZARETH,
THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 Then many of the Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, Greek, and Latin.
21 Therefore the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but, 'He said, "I am the King of the Jews." ' "
22 Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written."
23 [a]Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took His garments and made four parts, to each soldier a part, and also the tunic. Now the tunic was without seam, woven from the top in one piece.
24 They said therefore among themselves, "Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be," that the Scripture might be fulfilled which says:

> [a]"They divided My garments among them,
> And for My clothing they cast lots."

Therefore the soldiers did these things.

Behold Your Mother

25 [a]Now there stood by the cross of Jesus His mother, and His mother's sister, Mary the wife of [b]Clopas, and Mary Magdalene.
26 When Jesus therefore saw His mother, and [a]the disciple whom He loved standing by, He said to His mother, [b]"Woman, behold your son!"

27 Then He said to the disciple, "Behold your mother!" And from that hour that disciple took her [a]to his own home.

It Is Finished

28 After this, Jesus, [1]knowing that all things were now accomplished, [a]that the Scripture might be fulfilled, said, "I thirst!"
29 Now a vessel full of sour wine was sitting there; and [a]they filled a sponge with sour wine, put it on hyssop, and put it to His mouth.
30 So when Jesus had received the sour wine, He said, [a]"It is finished!" And bowing His head, He gave up His spirit.

It Is Finished

There can be no better satisfaction than successfully completing an assignment God has given. God's will is expressed in many forms throughout our lives. The completion of tasks given by God brings exhilarating joy.

Jesus' Side Is Pierced

31 [a]Therefore, because it was the Preparation Day, [b]that the bodies should not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a [c]high day), the Jews asked Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.
32 Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and of the other who was crucified with Him.
33 But when they came to Jesus and saw that He was already dead, [a]they did not break His legs.
34 But one of the soldiers pierced His

HISTORICAL*Encounter* — HUDSON TAYLOR — John 19:30

One afternoon in June, 1849, a bored seventeen-year-old named Hudson Taylor entered his father's library looking for something to read. He came across a pamphlet entitled, "It Is Finished." As Taylor asked himself, "What is finished?" the Holy Spirit helped him understand the great work of salvation Christ had wrought on the cross for him. Quietly and resolutely, Taylor gave his life to Christ. Seventy-five miles away, Taylor's mother was visiting a friend. She suddenly became deeply burdened for her son's salvation and locked herself in a room to pray for him until she had a sense of peace that his salvation was secure. Upon returning home she celebrated her son's rebirth. Taylor would go on to found the China Inland Mission and devote his life to the evangelization of China.

19:20 The three languages of the inscription represented Latin, Rome's official language; Greek, the common language used across the empire; and Aramaic, the local language of everyday speech in Palestine.

19:25 If "His mother's sister" is in fact Salome (Mark 15:40; 16:1), then she would have been the mother of James and John, making them cousins of Jesus (Matt. 27:56).

19:30 Jesus may have asked for sour wine to relieve His parched mouth so He could shout His final words of victory.

side with a spear, and immediately [a]blood and water came out.
35 And he who has seen has testified, and his testimony is [a]true; and he knows that he is telling the truth, so that you may [b]believe.
36 For these things were done that the Scripture should be fulfilled, [a]"Not one of His bones shall be broken."
37 And again another Scripture says, [a]"They shall look on Him whom they pierced."

Jesus Buried in Joseph's Tomb

38 [a]After this, Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly, [b]for fear of the Jews, asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus; and Pilate gave him permission. So he came and took the body of Jesus.
39 And [a]Nicodemus, who at first came to Jesus by night, also came, bringing a mixture of [b]myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds.
40 Then they took the body of Jesus, and [a]bound it in strips of linen with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury.
41 Now in the place where He was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb in which no one had yet been laid.
42 So [a]there they laid Jesus, [b]because of the Jews' Preparation Day, for the tomb was nearby.

The Empty Tomb

20 Now on the [a]first day of the week Mary Magdalene went to the tomb early, while it was still dark, and saw that the [b]stone had been taken away from the tomb.
2 Then she ran and came to Simon Peter, and to the [a]other disciple, [b]whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid Him."
3 [a]Peter therefore went out, and the other disciple, and were going to the tomb.
4 So they both ran together, and the other disciple outran Peter and came to the tomb first.
5 And he, stooping down and looking in, saw [a]the linen cloths lying there; yet he did not go in.
6 Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb; and he saw the linen cloths lying there,
7 and [a]the [1]handkerchief that had been around His head, not lying with the linen cloths, but folded together in a place by itself.
8 Then the [a]other disciple, who came to the tomb first, went in also; and he saw and believed.
9 For as yet they did not [1]know the [a]Scripture, that He must rise again from the dead.
10 Then the disciples went away again to their own homes.

Mary Magdalene Sees the Risen Lord

11 [a]But Mary stood outside by the tomb weeping, and as she wept she stooped down and looked into the tomb.
12 And she saw two angels in white sitting, one at the head and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.
13 Then they said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid Him."
14 [a]Now when she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, and [b]did not know that it was Jesus.
15 Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?" She, supposing Him to be the gardener, said to Him, "Sir, if You have carried Him away, tell me where You have laid Him, and I will take Him away."
16 Jesus said to her, [a]"Mary!" She turned and said to [1]Him, "Rabboni!" (which is to say, Teacher).

19:39 One hundred pounds of burial spices would have been a kingly amount. Nicodemus was paying Jesus high tribute at His death. Ironically, Jesus' death scattered His twelve disciples for the time being, while His peripheral followers emerged to take leading roles.

20:1 As soon as it was possible for Mary to travel after the Sabbath had ended, she made her way to Jesus' tomb to begin preparing His body properly for burial. She must have arrived earlier than the other women recorded in the Synoptic Gospels (Matt. 28:1; Mark 16:1; Luke 24:10).

20:7 This portrays an orderly scene where the resurrection occurred peacefully and without great disruption.

20:8 The "other disciple" is traditionally believed to have been John.

18 [a]Mary Magdalene came and told the [1]disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that He had spoken these things to her.

The Apostles Commissioned

19 [a]Then, the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were [1]assembled, for [b]fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and said to them, [c]"Peace be with you."
20 When He had said this, He [a]showed them His hands and His side. [b]Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord.
21 So Jesus said to them again, "Peace to you! [a]As the Father has sent Me, I also send you."
22 And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit.
23 [a]"If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

Seeing and Believing

24 Now Thomas, [a]called the Twin, one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came.
25 The other disciples therefore said to him, "We have seen the Lord." So he said to them, "Unless I see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe."
26 And after eight days His disciples were again inside, and Thomas with them. Jesus came, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, "Peace to you!"
27 Then He said to Thomas, "Reach your finger here, and look at My hands; and [a]reach your hand here, and put it into My side. Do not be [b]unbelieving, but believing."
28 And Thomas answered and said to Him, "My Lord and my God!"
29 Jesus said to him, [1]"Thomas, because you have seen Me, you have believed. [a]Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed."

That You May Believe

30 And [a]truly Jesus did many other signs in the presence of His disciples, which are not written in this book;
31 [a]but these are written that [b]you may believe that Jesus [c]is the Christ, the Son of God, [d]and that believing you may have life in His name.

Scripture has not been written for our information but for our transformation. Everything we need to know about God can be found in the Bible. But the Scriptures give much more than knowledge. Our faith opens our hearts for the Holy Spirit to teach us through God's holy word.

HISTORICAL Encounter — C. AUSTIN MILES — John 20:18

One day C. Austin Miles (1868–1946) was reading his favorite chapter in the Bible, John 20, when suddenly he visualized the scene. It was as though he were standing at the entrance to a garden. Down a winding path lined with olive trees was a woman slowly making her way along in the shadows. She was dressed in white and her head was bowed. She approached the tomb, looked in, and then hurried away. Then Miles saw Peter and John approach Jesus' tomb, then depart. The woman, Mary Magdalene, reappeared and leaned her head against the tomb. She turned and saw Jesus. She looked into her Master's face, and with arms outstretched cried "Rabboni." Deeply moved and inspired by the vision, Miles quickly penned the lyrics for a hymn. That evening he composed the music. The song, "In the Garden," became one of the most popular and beloved hymns ever written.

20:19 Jesus' resurrected body was not hindered by closed or locked doors.

20:28 "My God!" is a major statement of faith for one of the disciples, especially the doubtful Thomas.

21:3 This appears to have been a spontaneous suggestion by Peter. It may indicate that these disciples were beginning to consider returning to their former profession. They apparently did not yet have a sense of divine purpose or mission.

mediately got into the boat, and that night they caught nothing.
4 But when the morning had now come, Jesus stood on the shore; yet the disciples [a]did not know that it was Jesus.
5 Then [a]Jesus said to them, "Children, have you any food?" They answered Him, "No."
6 And He said to them, [a]"Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast, and now they were not able to draw it in because of the multitude of fish.
7 Therefore [a]that disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his outer garment (for he had removed it), and plunged into the sea.
8 But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from land, but about two hundred cubits), dragging the net with fish.
9 Then, as soon as they had come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid on it, and bread.
10 Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have just caught."
11 Simon Peter went up and dragged the net to land, full of large fish, one hundred and fifty-three; and although there were so many, the net was not broken.
12 Jesus said to them, [a]"Come and eat breakfast." Yet none of the disciples dared ask Him, "Who are You?"—knowing that it was the Lord.
13 Jesus then came and took the bread and gave it to them, and likewise the fish.
14 This is now [a]the third time Jesus showed Himself to His disciples after He was raised from the dead.

Jesus Restores Peter

15 So when they had eaten breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of [1]Jonah, do you love Me more than these?" He said to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I [2]love You." He said to him, [a]"Feed My lambs."

ENCOUNTER Note — John 21:16

Do You Love Me?

The most fundamental question Christ ever asks us is: "Do you love Me?" Everything else in our relationship with Him stems from our honest answer to this one question. We may do many things for Jesus, but His deep desire is that we truly love Him.

17 He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of [1]Jonah, do you [2]love Me?" Peter was grieved because He said to him the third time, "Do you [2]love Me?" And he said to Him, "Lord, [a]You know all things; You know that I [2]love You." Jesus said to him, "Feed My sheep.
18 [a]"Most assuredly, I say to you, when you were younger, you girded yourself and walked where you wished; but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will gird you and carry you where you do not wish."
19 This He spoke, signifying [a]by what death he would glorify God. And when He had spoken this, He said to him, [b]"Follow Me."

The Beloved Disciple and His Book

20 Then Peter, turning around, saw the disciple [a]whom Jesus loved following, [b]who also had leaned on His breast at the supper, and said, "Lord, who is the one who betrays You?"
21 Peter, seeing him, said to Jesus, "But Lord, what about this man?"
22 Jesus said to him, "If I [1]will that he remain [a]till I come, what is that to you? You follow Me."
23 Then this saying went out among the brethren that this disciple would not die. Yet Jesus did not say to him that he 21:7 The actions of John and Peter are distinctive to their characters. John recognized Jesus first; Peter was the first to take action.

21:8 Two hundred cubits would have been roughly one hundred yards.

21:12 There may have been something unusual about Jesus' appearance after His resurrection, because those who had known Him before did not always immediately recognize Him.

21:15 The meaning of Jesus' question is uncertain. He may have asked if Peter loved Him more than his fellow disciples did, for Peter had made such a claim earlier (Matt. 26:33; Mark 14:29; John 13:37; 15:12). Jesus may have wanted to clarify if Peter was more loyal to Him or, to his fishing business and lifestyle. The word "these" seems to refer to objects such as nets and boats, not people.

21:16 Jesus uses two words for love in His three questions. The first two times He uses agape, which reflects a selfless, devoted, active love. The third time He uses phileo, which involves a brotherly affection. Peter uses phileo all three times in his response. Some believe Jesus was calling on Peter to love Him with a divine quality of love. However, their original conversation was probably in Aramaic and would not have carried the same nuances as the Greek language. More likely Jesus was seeking to restore Peter after his humiliating denial. Three times he had denied Jesus, and now Jesus gave him three opportunities to affirm his love for Him.

21:18 Christian tradition claims Peter was martyred by being crucified upside down.

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

INTRODUCTION

As the bridge between the gospels and the epistles, this book is a strategic one. It is the sequel to the former and provides the historic background to the latter. Acts records the practical application of Christ's redemptive work and demonstrates how the gospel spread from a small group of disciples into a worldwide phenomenon. The book has been entitled differently in various manuscripts, but most commonly as "Acts" or "Acts of the Apostles." Yet it makes little mention of the apostles, except for Peter and Paul. John is mentioned only three times, as a companion of Peter. In fact, Stephen and Philip are spoken of more than the apostles. Perhaps a more fitting title would be "Acts of the Early Christians," or even "Acts of the Holy Spirit."

Luke is recognized as the author of Acts, as well as the writer of the "former treatise" known as the Gospel of Luke. These two volumes were originally circulated as one complete and independent history. Luke was a doctor Paul met in Troas (Acts 16:8–11; notice the "we sections" beginning as he joined Paul at this point). Luke is called the beloved physician in Paul's writing (Col. 4:14). He became Paul's traveling companion as well as his attending physician (2 Tim. 4:11; Philem. 24). He begins the book with the resurrected Lord's last words and ends with the apostle Paul imprisoned in Rome. Paul's arrest was in A.D. 60, and the book makes no mention of Jerusalem's collapse in A.D. 70 or Nero's persecution of the Christians after Rome's fire in A.D. 64. The book was probably written between A.D. 62 and 64.

SIGNIFICANCE

The prologue in the Gospel of Luke states the author's desire to give an orderly account of the origins of Christianity (Luke 1:1–4); Acts is the continuation of that narrative. It is important to look at the book in terms of Luke's interests. As a Gentile, he exemplifies the Hellenistic style of recording history. He did not write simply to keep records or to chronicle the past, but rather to encourage his readers and to offer an apologetic for the Christian church. As such, he set out to clarify how Christianity expanded from Jerusalem to become a worldwide movement among the Gentiles. He was keenly interested in the expansion of the gospel orchestrated by the Holy Spirit, but he had no particular interest in individuals, church government, or the geographical advancement of the church. The student of Acts should be careful to discern the difference between descriptive narrative and prescriptive teaching.

As a historical narrative of early Christianity, the Book of Acts addresses several concerns. First, Christianity is defended as a legitimate movement against charges that it was a new and seditious sect. Luke argues that it was the continuation of the Jewish faith; the proper fulfillment of Israel's religion. Second, Luke describes the birth of the church as the fulfillment of the Lord's commission to make disciples of all nations (Luke 24:46–49). God's strategy was to extend the kingdom of God through the church, and the fact that the gospel moved from Jerusalem to Rome in less than thirty-five years is remarkable. Third, the Holy Spirit is central to the story, and is mentioned more than fifty times. As God promised (Acts 1:4), the Spirit guided and empowered the disciples in many ways. God was the One actively taking the gospel to the world through His people. Therefore, even the gates of hell could not prevail against Him. Finally, Luke encouraged the early church by demonstrating Christianity's triumph despite fierce persecution.

STRUCTURE

As the continuation of Luke's gospel, Acts begins with the ascension of Christ, records the significant coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, and then describes the life of the early church. The book's structure is suggested in Acts 1:8, and the thrust of the gospel changes with each succeeding section. It develops in a systematic manner. First the gospel is in Jerusalem among the Jews. Then it is expanded geographically by Greek-speaking Jewish Christians. After this, the gospel reaches Gentiles in Palestine. Then Paul's missionary journeys take the message to Gentiles outside of Palestine, to Europe, and ultimately to Rome. Acts can be outlined as follows:

Introduction (1:1–3)
The Coming of the Spirit (1:3—2:4)
The Gospel Spreads to Jews in Jerusalem (2:5—6:7)
Expansion Geographically by Hellenists (6:8—9:31)
Expansion to Gentiles in Palestine (9:32—12:24)
Expansion to the Gentile World (12:25—16:5)
Expansion to Europe (16:6—19:20)
The Gospel Reaches Rome (19:21—28:31)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH ACTS

This book is an inspiration, both to those seeking God and to those who have already put their faith in Him through Jesus Christ. It describes how God is active in the world and how He wants all people to know His saving grace. It records several sermons, including the first gospel message ever preached (2:14–39). It answers several important questions raised by the gospels: What happened to the small group of disciples left with such an enormous task? How did they respond to the challenge? How could they make a difference in a world hostile to the gospel? How would the world respond to God's gift of salvation? All of these are answered in one succinct statement: "You shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you" (1:8). God wants to fill you too with the Holy Spirit. He wants you to take the gospel with you into your world, to endure persecution with joy, and to be faithful to the end no matter what the circumstances. In this book of new beginnings, God will share a number of life changing truths that the Holy Spirit is ready to apply to your life.

The Holy Spirit Promised

4 [a]And being assembled together with them, He commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the Promise of the Father, "which," He said, "you have [b]heard from Me;
5 [a]"for John truly baptized with water, [b]but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now."
6 Therefore, when they had come together, they asked Him, saying, "Lord, will You at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?"
7 And He said to them, [a]"It is not for you to [b]know times or seasons which the Father has put in His own authority.
8 [a]"But you shall receive power [b]when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and [c]you shall be [1]witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and [d]Samaria, and to the [e]end of the earth."

ENCOUNTER Note Acts 1:4

The Spirit's Necessity

Just as the Holy Spirit empowered Christ to fulfill His assignment from the Father, we too need the Spirit. As we walk in the Spirit's power, He will impact the world through us.

1:1 Theophilus was the recipient of both this letter and the Gospel of Luke. He was apparently a man of great importance, but little is known about him. His name means "loved by God."

1:4 The Promise of the Father was predicted by John the Baptist (Matt. 3:11; Mark 1:8; Luke 3:16; John 1:33) and by Jesus Himself (John 14:26; 15:26; 16:7, 13).

WORD Study — POWER

Acts 1:8 There are many forms of power, but none equal to that of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit's power is described by the Greek word dunamis. The English word "dynamite" comes from this word, but it does not adequately reflect the original meaning. Dynamite destroys, but dunamis gives life. The word "dynamic," meaning active, energizing, and vitalizing, is a derivative of this word. Dunamis means power, force, or ability, with the implication of a miracle or divine influence. The Holy Spirit's power is necessary to do kingdom work, which is why Jesus told His disciples to wait for it (Luke 24:49; Acts 1:8). They could do more in a day in the Spirit's power than they could do in a lifetime on their own. Jesus was endued with the Holy Spirit's power (Luke 4:14; 5:17), and He gives His power to all who believe (3:12; 4:7; 10:38).

taken up, and a cloud received Him out of their sight.
10 And while they looked steadfastly toward heaven as He went up, behold, two men stood by them [a]in white apparel,
11 who also said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, [a]will so come in like manner as you saw Him go into heaven."

The Upper Room Prayer Meeting

12 [a]Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey.
13 And when they had entered, they went up [a]into the upper room where they were staying: [b]Peter, James, John, and Andrew; Philip and Thomas; Bartholomew and Matthew; James the son of Alphaeus and [c]Simon the Zealot; and [d]Judas the son of James.
14 [a]These all continued with one [1]accord in prayer [2]and supplication, with [b]the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with [c]His brothers.

Matthias Chosen

15 And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the [1]disciples (altogether the number [a]of names was about a hundred and twenty), and said,
16 "Men and brethren, this Scripture had to be fulfilled, [a]which the Holy Spirit spoke before by the mouth of David concerning Judas, [b]who became a guide to those who arrested Jesus;
17 "for [a]he was numbered with us and obtained a part in [b]this ministry."
18 [a](Now this man purchased a field with [b]the [1]wages of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst open in the middle and all his [2]entrails gushed out.
19 And it became known to all those dwelling in Jerusalem; so that field is called in their own language, Akel Dama, that is, Field of Blood.)
20 "For it is written in the Book of Psalms:

> [a]'Let his dwelling place be [1]desolate,
> And let no one live in it';

and,

> [b]'Let another take his [2]office.'

21 "Therefore, of these men who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,
22 "beginning from the baptism of John to that day when [a]He was taken up from us, one of these must [b]become a witness with us of His resurrection."
23 And they proposed two: Joseph called [a]Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.
24 And they prayed and said, "You, O Lord, [a]who know the hearts of all, show which of these two You have chosen
25 [a]"to take part in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place."
26 And they cast their lots, and the lot fell on Matthias. And he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

Coming of the Holy Spirit

2 When [a]the Day of Pentecost had fully come, [b]they were all [1]with one accord in one place.
2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and [a]it filled the whole house where they were sitting.
3 Then there appeared to them [1]divided tongues, as of fire, and one sat upon each of them.

3 [1]Or tongues as of fire, distributed and resting on each

1:12 A Sabbath day's journey was about half a mile (Ex. 16:29; Num. 35:5). Anyone who traveled farther on the Sabbath was considered to have broken the fourth commandment.

1:26 Casting lots was a normal practice for Israelites seeking to determine God's will. They most likely wrote the names on small rocks, placed them in a clay jar, and shook the jar until one rock fell out.

2:1 Pentecost was one of three major festivals. The other two were Passover and the Feast of Tabernacles. Also known as the Feast of Weeks, Pentecost was fifty days after the Passover Sabbath (the word means "fifty"). This was a harvest festival where people brought their first fruits to God.

2:3 Fire often represented God's presence (Ex. 3; 13:21, 22; 19:18; Ezek. 1:26, 27).

4 And [a]they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began [b]to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

The Crowd's Response

5 And there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, [a]devout men, from every nation under heaven.
6 And when this sound occurred, the [a]multitude came together, and were confused, because everyone heard them speak in his own language.
7 Then they were all amazed and marveled, saying to one another, "Look, are not all these who speak [a]Galileans?
8 "And how is it that we hear, each in our own [1]language in which we were born?
9 "Parthians and Medes and Elamites, those dwelling in Mesopotamia, Judea and [a]Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia,
10 "Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya adjoining Cyrene, visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes,
11 "Cretans and [1]Arabs—we hear them speaking in our own tongues the wonderful works of God."
12 So they were all amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "Whatever could this mean?"

Peter's Sermon

14 But Peter, standing up with the eleven, raised his voice and said to them, "Men of Judea and all who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and heed my words.
15 "For these are not drunk, as you suppose, [a]since it is only [1]the third hour of the day.
16 "But this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:

17 'And[a] it shall come to pass in the last days, says God,
[b]That I will pour out of My Spirit on all flesh;
Your sons and [c]your daughters shall prophesy,
Your young men shall see visions,
Your old men shall dream dreams.
18 And on My menservants and on My maidservants
I will pour out My Spirit in those days;
[a]And they shall prophesy.
19 [a]I will show wonders in heaven above

2:4 The word "tongues" in this passage is the normal Greek word for known languages or foreign dialects.

2:5 "Men, from every nation under heaven" is another way of saying people from all over the known world. Most of them probably knew Greek but also conversed in their native language.

2:15 The third hour, or 9:00 a.m., was normally an hour devoted to prayer. Devout Jews would not eat or drink wine until after that time.

38 Then Peter said to them, [a]"Repent, and let every one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the [1]remission of sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Acts 2:38

The Blessing of Repentance

Before we can be filled with the Holy Spirit, we must be rid of our sin. Repentance is the most positive word in the Bible. It turns us away from that which destroys and redirects us to embrace life in Christ.

39 "For the promise is to you and [a]to your children, and [b]to all who are afar off, as many as the Lord our God will call."

A Vital Church Grows

40 And with many other words he testified and exhorted them, saying, "Be saved from this [1]perverse generation."
41 Then those who [1]gladly received his word were baptized; and that day about three thousand souls were added to them.
42 [a]And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' [1]doctrine and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in prayers.
43 Then fear came upon every soul, and [a]many wonders and signs were done through the apostles.
44 Now all who believed were together, and [a]had all things in common,
45 and [1]sold their possessions and goods, and [a]divided[2] them among all, as anyone had need.
46 [a]So continuing daily with one accord [b]in the temple, and [c]breaking bread from house to house, they ate their food with gladness and simplicity of heart,

A Lame Man Healed

3 Now Peter and John went up together [a]to the temple at the hour of prayer, [b]the ninth hour.
2 And [a]a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, [b]to [1]ask alms from those who entered the temple;
3 who, seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked for alms.
4 And fixing his eyes on him, with John, Peter said, "Look at us."
5 So he gave them his attention, expecting to receive something from them.
6 Then Peter said, "Silver and gold I do not have, but what I do have I give you: [a]In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk."

ENCOUNTER Note — Acts 3:6

Sharing Christ

Every believer holds the greatest gift in the world. More than wealth, more than health, more than any other thing . . . people need the Lord. To know Christ is to have the privilege of sharing Him with others and seeing their lives transformed by His saving grace.

7 And he took him by the right hand and lifted him up, and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength.
8 So he, [a]leaping up, stood and walked and entered the temple with them—walking, leaping, and praising God.
9 [a]And all the people saw him walking and praising God.
10 Then they knew that it was he who [a]sat begging alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

Preaching in Solomon's Portico

11 Now as the lame man who was healed held on to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch [a]which is called Solomon's, greatly amazed.
12 So when Peter saw it, he responded to the people: "Men of Israel, why do you marvel at this? Or why look so intently at us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made this man walk?
13 [a]"The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our fathers, [b]glorified His Servant Jesus, whom you [c]delivered up and [d]denied in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let Him go.
14 "But you denied [a]the Holy One [b]and the Just, and [c]asked for a murderer to be granted to you,
15 "and killed the [1]Prince of life, [a]whom God raised from the dead, [b]of which we are witnesses.
16 [a]"And His name, through faith in His name, has made this man strong, whom you see and know. Yes, the faith which comes through Him has given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.
17 "Yet now, brethren, I know that [a]you did it in ignorance, as did also your rulers.
18 "But [a]those things which God foretold [b]by the mouth of all His prophets, that the Christ would suffer, He has thus fulfilled.
19 [a]"Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord,
20 "and that He may send [1]Jesus Christ, who was [2]preached to you before,
21 [a]"whom heaven must receive until the times of [b]restoration of all things, [c]which God has spoken by the mouth of all His holy prophets since [1]the world began.

3:1 The disciples continued the Jewish tradition and went to the temple at the hour of prayer. There were two daily sacrifices and accompanying prayer services, one in the morning and one in the afternoon. The ninth hour was 3:00 p.m. Peter and John served together often in the early days of the church (Acts 3:3, 11; 4:13, 19; 8:14).

3:2 The gate called "Beautiful" opened into the Court of the Women from the outer Court of the Gentiles and was covered with ornate Corinthian bronze.

Peter and John Arrested

4 Now as they spoke to the people, the priests, the captain of the temple, and the [a]Sadducees came upon them,
2 being greatly disturbed that they taught the people and preached in Jesus the resurrection from the dead.
3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in custody until the next day, for it was already evening.
4 However, many of those who heard the word believed; and the number of the men came to be about five thousand.

Addressing the Sanhedrin

5 And it came to pass, on the next day, that their rulers, elders, and scribes,
6 as well as [a]Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the family of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem.
7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, [a]"By what power or by what name have you done this?"
8 [a]Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders of Israel:
9 "If we this day are judged for a good deed done to a helpless man, by what means he has been made well,
10 "let it be known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, [a]that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, [b]whom God raised from the dead, by Him this man stands here before you whole.
11 "This is the [a]'stone which was rejected by you builders, which has become the chief cornerstone.'
12 [a]"Nor is there salvation in any other, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved."

The Name of Jesus Forbidden

13 Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, [a]and perceived that they were uneducated and untrained men, they marveled. And they realized that they had been with Jesus.
14 And seeing the man who had been healed [a]standing with them, they could say nothing against it.
15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves,
16 saying, [a]"What shall we do to these men? For, indeed, that a [1]notable miracle has been done through them is [b]evident[2] to all who dwell in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it.
17 "But so that it spreads no further among the people, let us severely threaten them, that from now on they speak to no man in this name."
18 [a]So they called them and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.
19 But Peter and John answered and said to them, [a]"Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you more than to God, you judge.
20 [a]"For we cannot but speak the things which [b]we have seen and heard."

3:24 Moses was considered to be the first prophet, Samuel the second.

4:1 Sadducees were disturbed at the content of Peter's preaching. Their only authority derived from the first five books of Moses, the Pentateuch. As a result, they did not believe in angels, resurrection from the dead, or an afterlife. Peter's preaching of a resurrected King concerned them, especially since they enjoyed a privileged position within the Roman government in Palestine.

4:6 Annas, the former high priest, had been removed from office by the Romans in A.D. 14 because he posed a threat. The Jews, however, disliked Roman influence over this position, and they continued looking to Annas as their leader. His son-in-law, Caiaphas, was the current high priest. John may have been the son of Annas who succeeded Caiaphas.

4:11 The "chief cornerstone" was a familiar Old Testament image (Job 38:6; Is. 28:16; Jer. 51:26), representing the anchor or primary stone upon which a foundation was built. In the first century, the expression also referred to the stone placed at the summit of the Jerusalem temple.

since they all [b]glorified God for [c]what had been done.
22 For the man was over forty years old on whom this miracle of healing had been performed.

Prayer for Boldness

23 And being let go, [a]they went to their own companions and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said to them.
24 So when they heard that, they raised their voice to God with one accord and said: "Lord, [a]You are God, who made heaven and earth and the sea, and all that is in them,
25 "who [1]by the mouth of Your servant David have said:

[a]'Why did the nations rage,
And the people plot vain things?
26 The kings of the earth took their stand,
And the rulers were gathered together
Against the LORD and against His Christ.'

27 "For [a]truly against [b]Your holy Servant Jesus, [c]whom You anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, were gathered together
28 [a]"to do whatever Your hand and Your purpose determined before to be done.
29 "Now, Lord, look on their threats, and grant to Your servants [a]that with all boldness they may speak Your word,
30 "by stretching out Your hand to heal, [a]and that signs and wonders may be done [b]through the name of [c]Your holy Servant Jesus."
31 And when they had prayed, [a]the place where they were assembled together was shaken; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, [b]and they spoke the word of God with boldness.

Sharing in All Things

32 Now the multitude of those who believed [a]were of one heart and one soul; [b]neither did anyone say that any of the things he possessed was his own, but they had all things in common.
33 And with [a]great power the apostles gave [b]witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. And [c]great grace was upon them all.
34 Nor was there anyone among them who lacked; [a]for all who were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of the things that were sold,
35 [a]and laid them at the apostles' feet; [b]and they distributed to each as anyone had need.
36 And [1]Joses, who was also named Barnabas by the apostles (which is translated Son of [2]Encouragement), a Levite of the country of Cyprus, 37 [a]having land, sold it, and brought the money and laid it at the apostles' feet.

Lying to the Holy Spirit

5 But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession.
2 And he kept back part of the proceeds, his wife also being aware of it, and brought a certain part and laid it at the apostles' feet.
3 [a]But Peter said, "Ananias, why has [b]Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and keep back part of the price of the land for yourself?
4 "While it remained, was it not your own? And after it was sold, was it not in your own control? Why have you conceived this thing in your heart? You have not lied to men but to God."
5 Then Ananias, hearing these words, [a]fell down and breathed his last. So great fear came upon all those who heard these things.
6 And the young men arose and [a]wrapped him up, carried him out, and buried him.
7 Now it was about three hours later when his wife came in, not knowing what had happened.

ENCOUNTER Note — Acts 4:31

Revival

There is divine power in the united prayers of God's people. It brings to earth that which is in heaven. It is one thing for an individual to be moved, but when a gathering of believers encounters the living Christ through His Spirit, the world will know it! Then God's people will participate in God's eternal purposes, experience deep peace, be swept into action, and speak His word with boldness.

4:29 Significantly, early Christians did not pray for deliverance from their oppressors but they did ask for boldness to continue witnessing in the face of persecution.

5:2 The phrase "kept back" comes from a Greek verb that can also mean "embezzle." Embezzlement is committed against another person's property. Clearly, Ananias and Sapphira had promised the proceeds of their land to the Lord, so it no longer belonged to them.

5:3 Satan entered the heart of Ananias as he had the heart of Judas. Likewise, Satan enticed both victims with the prospect of financial gain (Luke 22:3–5).

8 And Peter answered her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for so much?" She said, "Yes, for so much."
9 Then Peter said to her, "How is it that you have agreed together [a]to test the Spirit of the Lord? Look, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out."
10 [a]Then immediately she fell down at his feet and breathed her last. And the young men came in and found her dead, and carrying her out, buried her by her husband.
11 [a]So great fear came upon all the church and upon all who heard these things.

Continuing Power in the Church

12 And [a]through the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were done among the people. [b]And they were all with one accord in Solomon's Porch.
13 Yet [a]none of the rest dared join them, [b]but the people esteemed them highly.
14 And believers were increasingly added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and women,
15 so that they brought the sick out into the streets and laid them on beds and couches, [a]that at least the shadow of Peter passing by might fall on some of them.
16 Also a multitude gathered from the surrounding cities to Jerusalem, bringing [a]sick people and those who were tormented by unclean spirits, and they were all healed.

Imprisoned Apostles Freed

17 [a]Then the high priest rose up, and all those who were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with [1]indignation, 18 [a]and laid their hands on the apostles and put them in the common prison.

19 But at night [a]an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors and brought them out, and said,
20 "Go, stand in the temple and speak to the people [a]all the words of this life."
21 And when they heard that, they entered the temple early in the morning and taught. [a]But the high priest and those with him came and called the [1]council together, with all the [2]elders of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

Apostles on Trial Again

22 But when the officers came and did not find them in the prison, they returned and reported,
23 saying, "Indeed we found the prison shut securely, and the guards standing [1]outside before the doors; but when we opened them, we found no one inside!"
24 Now when [1]the high priest, [a]the captain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these things, they wondered what the outcome would be.
25 So one came and told them, [1]saying, "Look, the men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people!"
26 Then the captain went with the officers and brought them without violence, [a]for they feared the people, lest they should be stoned.
27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council. And the high priest asked them,
28 saying, [a]"Did we not strictly command you not to teach in this name? And look, you have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, [b]and intend to bring this Man's [c]blood on us!"
29 But Peter and the other apostles answered and said: [a]"We ought to obey God rather than men.

HISTORICAL*Encounter* — PETER WALDO — Acts 5:29

Peter Waldo had a dramatic conversion experience around 1170 (see Matthew 19:21). Waldo had the scriptures translated from Latin into French, gave away his possessions, and began traveling from town to town preaching. Others soon joined him and they took on the name "the Poor Men of Lyons." History knows them as the Waldensians. In 1177, Waldo was summoned before Bishop Guichard of Lyons. He was ordered to cease from preaching and explaining the Scriptures to common people. Waldo cited Acts 5:29 and claimed he was subject to God before being under the authority of men. Six years later, Pope Lucian III demanded that the Waldensians desist from the crime of preaching. Yet they did not. Scripture had clearly guided them and no one could dissuade them.

5:12 Signs were supernatural events that pointed observers to spiritual truth. Wonders may have been a more general term to describe miracles that testified to the power of God being wrought through His people.

5:15 In the ancient word, people's shadows were viewed as an extension of their personalities and influence.

5:23 The fact the guards were "standing" indicates they had not fallen asleep but were at their post.

30 [a]"The God of our fathers raised up Jesus whom you murdered by [b]hanging on a tree.
31 [a]"Him God has exalted to His right hand to be [b]Prince and [c]Savior, [d]to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins.
32 "And [a]we are His witnesses to these things, and so also is the Holy Spirit [b]whom God has given to those who obey Him."

Gamaliel's Advice

33 When they heard this, they were [a]furious[1] and plotted to kill them.
34 Then one in the council stood up, a Pharisee named [a]Gamaliel, a teacher of the law held in respect by all the people, and commanded them to put the apostles outside for a little while.
35 And he said to them: "Men of Israel, [1]take heed to yourselves what you intend to do regarding these men.
36 "For some time ago Theudas rose up, claiming to be somebody. A number of men, about four hundred, [1]joined him. He was slain, and all who obeyed him were scattered and came to nothing.
37 "After this man, Judas of Galilee rose up in the days of the census, and drew away many people after him. He also perished, and all who obeyed him were dispersed.
38 "And now I say to you, keep away from these men and let them alone; for if this plan or this work is of men, it will come to nothing;
39 [a]"but if it is of God, you cannot overthrow it—lest you even be found [b]to fight against God."
40 And they agreed with him, and when they had [a]called for the apostles [b]and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.
41 So they departed from the presence of the council, [a]rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for [1]His name.
42 And daily [a]in the temple, and in every house, [b]they did not cease teaching and preaching Jesus as the Christ.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Acts 5:41

Worthy to Suffer

Trials come whether you follow Christ or not. Would you rather face the painful consequences of your sin and rebellion, or suffer for your obedience to God? Stop complaining about trials and rejoice that you are worthy to serve the Lord. What does the Lord think when He hears His people grumbling?

Seven Chosen to Serve

6 Now in those days, [a]when the number of the disciples was multiplying, there arose a complaint against the Hebrews by the [b]Hellenists,[1] because their widows were neglected [c]in the daily distribution.
2 Then the twelve summoned the multitude of the disciples and said, [a]"It is not desirable that we should leave the word of God and serve tables.
3 "Therefore, brethren, [a]seek out from among you seven men of good reputation, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this [b]business;
4 "but we [a]will give ourselves continually to prayer and to the ministry of the word."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Acts 6:4

Return to the Relationship

You cannot understand God's ways or His purposes unless you spend time with Him. Ministry to people is important, but if good activity replaces prayer and time in God's word, stop everything and return to the relationship. You are in danger of spending your life on dead works.

5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude. And they chose Stephen, [a]a man full of faith and the Holy Spirit, and [b]Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and [c]Nicolas, a proselyte from Antioch,
6 whom they set before the apostles;

5:30 Tree refers to Jesus' crucifixion on the cross (Deut. 21:22, 23; 1 Pet. 2:24).

5:34 Gamaliel was a highly respected Pharisee, the grandson of Rabbi Hillel. He instructed Saul, who later became the apostle Paul (Acts 22:3).

5:37 Although this Judas's uprising was quickly suppressed by the Romans, he is credited with launching the zealot movement around A.D. 6.

5:40 This would have been a flogging, consisting of thirty-nine lashes, based on Deuteronomy 25:3, where the provision was for forty lashes. The custom was to give one less, in case of a miscount, thereby erring on the side of leniency. People occasionally died from the ordeal.

6:1 Hellenists were Greek-speaking Jews who grew up outside the land of Israel. They used the Septuagint, a Greek translation of the Old Testament. The Hebrews were Aramaic-speaking Jews who grew up in Palestine and used the Hebrew Old Testament.

6:6 Laying on of hands was not to receive the Holy Spirit, as they were already "full of faith and the Holy Spirit." Rather, it was a traditional method of granting authority for a special task (Num. 27:15–23).

and [a]when they had prayed, [b]they laid hands on them.
7 Then [a]the word of God spread, and the number of the disciples multiplied greatly in Jerusalem, and a great many [b]of the priests were obedient to the faith.

Stephen Accused of Blasphemy

8 And Stephen, full of [1]faith and power, did great [a]wonders and signs among the people.
9 Then there arose some from what is called the Synagogue of the Freedmen (Cyrenians, Alexandrians, and those from Cilicia and Asia), disputing with Stephen.
10 And [a]they were not able to resist the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke.
11 [a]Then they secretly induced men to say, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God."
12 And they stirred up the people, the elders, and the scribes; and they came upon him, seized him, and brought him to the council.
13 They also set up false witnesses who said, "This man does not cease to speak [1]blasphemous words against this holy place and the law;
14 [a]"for we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place and change the customs which Moses delivered to us."
15 And all who sat in the council, looking steadfastly at him, saw his face as the face of an angel.

Stephen's Address: The Call of Abraham

7 Then the high priest said, "Are these things so?"
2 And he said, [a]"Brethren and fathers, listen: The [b]God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in [c]Haran,
3 "and said to him, [a]'Get out of your country and from your relatives, and come to a land that I will show you.'
4 "Then [a]he came out of the land of the Chaldeans and dwelt in Haran. And from there, when his father was [b]dead, He moved him to this land in which you now dwell.
5 "And God gave him no inheritance in it, not even enough to set his foot on. But even when Abraham had no child, [a]He promised to give it to him for a possession, and to his descendants after him.
6 "But God spoke in this way: [a]that his descendants would dwell in a foreign land, and that they would bring them into [b]bondage and oppress them four hundred years.
7 [a]'And the nation to whom they will be in bondage I will [b]judge,' said God, [c]'and after that they shall come out and serve Me in this place.'
8 [a]"Then He gave him the covenant of circumcision; [b]and so Abraham begot Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day; [c]and Isaac begot Jacob, and [d]Jacob begot the twelve patriarchs.

The Patriarchs in Egypt

9 [a]"And the patriarchs, becoming envious, [b]sold Joseph into Egypt. [c]But God was with him
10 "and delivered him out of all his troubles, [a]and gave him favor and wisdom in the presence of Pharaoh, king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house.
11 [a]"Now a famine and great [1]trouble came over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and our fathers found no sustenance.

CHARACTER Study — STEPHEN — Acts 7:2

Stephen, whose name means "crown," was one of those given the task of serving (Acts 6:1–5). The Holy Spirit's presence in his life was obvious when Stephen was set apart for service. When he stood to preach, his countenance was like that of an angel (6:15). Although his enemies rose up against him, "being full of the Holy Spirit" he gazed toward heaven and saw His Lord watching (7:55). Upon fulfilling His assignment from the Lord, he laid down his life and was stoned to death. Stephen's life, though brief, has inspired millions. Totally consumed with pleasing the Lord, this godly man found courage in the midst of mortal danger. His vision of heaven overshadowed the things of this world. His encounter with Christ made everything else look worthless. Whether waiting tables or preaching, Stephen's goal was to please his Lord.

6:9 The Synagogue of the Freedmen was a community center for worship and studying the Scriptures.

7:8 The covenant of circumcision was symbolic of God's promise to bless Abraham (Gen. 17). It was passed down through the generations as a reminder of God's special relationship with the Jewish people.

13 "And the [a]second time Joseph was made known to his brothers, and Joseph's family became known to the Pharaoh.
14 [a]"Then Joseph sent and called his father Jacob and [b]all his relatives to him, [1]seventy-five people.
15 [a]"So Jacob went down to Egypt; [b]and he died, he and our fathers.
16 "And [a]they were carried back to Shechem and laid in [b]the tomb that Abraham bought for a sum of money from the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem.

God Delivers Israel by Moses

17 "But when [a]the time of the promise drew near which God had sworn to Abraham, [b]the people grew and multiplied in Egypt
18 "till another king [a]arose who did not know Joseph.
19 "This man dealt treacherously with our people, and oppressed our forefathers, [a]making them expose their babies, so that they might not live.
20 [a]"At this time Moses was born, and [b]was well pleasing to God; and he was brought up in his father's house for three months.
21 "But [a]when he was set out, [b]Pharaoh's daughter took him away and brought him up as her own son.
22 "And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was [a]mighty in words and deeds.
23 [a]"Now when he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren, the children of Israel.
24 "And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended and avenged him who was oppressed, and struck down the Egyptian.
25 "For he supposed that his brethren would have understood that God would deliver them by his hand, but they did not understand.
26 "And the next day he appeared to two of them as they were fighting, and tried to reconcile them, saying, 'Men, you are brethren; why do you wrong one another?'
27 "But he who did his neighbor wrong pushed him away, saying, [a]'Who made you a ruler and a judge over us?
28 'Do you want to kill me as you did the Egyptian yesterday?'
29 [a]"Then, at this saying, Moses fled and became a dweller in the land of Midian, where he [b]had two sons.
30 [a]"And when forty years had passed, an Angel [1]of the Lord appeared to him in a flame of fire in a bush, in the wilderness of Mount Sinai.
31 "When Moses saw it, he marveled at the sight; and as he drew near to observe, the voice of the Lord came to him, 32 "saying, [a]'I am the God of your fathers—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.' And Moses trembled and dared not look.
33 [a]'Then the LORD said to him, "Take your sandals off your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground.
34 "I have surely [a]seen the oppression of My people who are in Egypt; I have heard their groaning and have come down to deliver them. And now come, I will [b]send you to Egypt." '
35 "This Moses whom they rejected, saying, [a]'Who made you a ruler and a judge?' is the one God sent to be a ruler and a deliverer [b]by the hand of the Angel who appeared to him in the bush.
36 [a]"He brought them out, after he had [b]shown wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, [c]and in the Red Sea, [d]and in the wilderness forty years.

Israel Rebels Against God

37 "This is that Moses who said to the children of Israel, [a]'The LORD your God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from your brethren. [b]Him[1] you shall hear.'
38 [a]"This is he who was in the [1]congregation in the wilderness with [b]the Angel who spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers, [c]the one who received the living [d]oracles[2] to give to us,
39 "whom our fathers [a]would not obey, but rejected. And in their hearts they turned back to Egypt,
40 [a]"saying to Aaron, 'Make us gods to go before us; as for this Moses who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.'
41 [a]"And they made a calf in those days, offered sacrifices to the idol, and [b]rejoiced in the works of their own hands.
42 "Then [a]God turned and gave them up to worship [b]the host of heaven, as it is written in the book of the Prophets:

[c]'Did you offer Me slaughtered animals and sacrifices during forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel?

ENCOUNTER*Note* Acts 7:55

Foundation of Courage

Courage does not come from our abilities or strength, but from a steadfast hope in God, who holds our eternal destiny. To see Christ at the Father's right hand, to know He has been given all authority, to know He loves us, and to know He is coming again—this generates courage.

58 and they cast him out of the city and stoned him. And [a]the witnesses laid down their clothes at the feet of a young man named Saul.
59 And they stoned Stephen as he was calling on God and saying, "Lord Jesus, [a]receive my spirit."
60 Then he knelt down and cried out with a loud voice, [a]"Lord, do not charge them with this sin." And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

Saul Persecutes the Church

8 Now Saul was consenting to his death. At that time a great persecution arose against the church which was at Jerusalem; and [a]they were all scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles.
2 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and [a]made great lamentation over him.
3 As for Saul, [a]he made havoc of the church, entering every house, and dragging off men and women, committing them to prison.

Christ Is Preached in Samaria

4 Therefore [a]those who were scattered went everywhere preaching the word.
5 Then [a]Philip went down to [1]the city of Samaria and preached Christ to them.
6 And the multitudes with one accord heeded the things spoken by Philip, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.
7 For [a]unclean spirits, crying with a loud voice, came out of many who were possessed; and many who were paralyzed and lame were healed.
8 And there was great joy in that city.

The Sorcerer's Profession of Faith

9 But there was a certain man called Simon, who previously [a]practiced [1]sor-

7:44 The tabernacle of witness was a visual reminder of God's presence. Wherever they went, the Israelites took the tabernacle as a focus of worship.

7:56 The fact Jesus was seen by Stephen as standing is unusual. Normally someone in Jesus' position would have been seated. This may indicate Jesus stood to welcome Stephen or perhaps Jesus' standing reflects His activity of passing judgment on the murderous mob.

7:58 Stephen was taken outside the city because Jewish law forbade executions within Jerusalem.

8:1 Being scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria set in motion the fulfillment of Christ's commission in Acts 1:8.

cery in the city and [b]astonished the [2]people of Samaria, claiming that he was someone great,
10 to whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, "This man is the great power of God."
11 And they heeded him because he had astonished them with his [1]sorceries for a long time.
12 But when they believed Philip as he preached the things [a]concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, both men and women were baptized.
13 Then Simon himself also believed; and when he was baptized he continued with Philip, and was amazed, seeing the miracles and signs which were done.

The Sorcerer's Sin

14 Now when the [a]apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them,
15 who, when they had come down, prayed for them [a]that they might receive the Holy Spirit.
16 For [a]as yet He had fallen upon none of them. [b]They had only been baptized in [c]the name of the Lord Jesus.
17 Then [a]they laid hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.
18 And when Simon saw that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Spirit was given, he offered them money,
19 saying, "Give me this power also, that anyone on whom I lay hands may receive the Holy Spirit."
20 But Peter said to him, "Your money perish with you, because [a]you thought that [b]the gift of God could be purchased with money!
21 "You have neither part nor portion in this matter, for your [a]heart is not right in the sight of God.
22 "Repent therefore of this your wickedness, and pray God [a]if perhaps the thought of your heart may be forgiven you.
23 "For I see that you are [a]poisoned by bitterness and bound by iniquity."
24 Then Simon answered and said, [a]"Pray to the Lord for me, that none of the things which you have spoken may come upon me."
25 So when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, they returned to Jerusalem, preaching the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

Christ Is Preached to an Ethiopian

26 Now an angel of the Lord spoke to [a]Philip, saying, "Arise and go toward the south along the road which goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." This is [1]desert.
27 So he arose and went. And behold, [a]a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace the queen of the Ethiopians, who had charge of all her treasury, and [b]had come to Jerusalem to worship, 28 was returning. And sitting in his chariot, he was reading Isaiah the prophet.
29 Then the Spirit said to Philip, "Go near and overtake this chariot."

God's Activity

As you step out in obedience to go where God sends you, trust Him to do two things: He will bring obvious opportunities for you to minister in His name, and He will equip you to meet the needs of those to whom He sends you.

30 So Philip ran to him, and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah, and said, "Do you understand what you are reading?"
31 And he said, "How can I, unless someone guides me?" And he asked Philip to come up and sit with him.
32 The place in the Scripture which he read was this:

[a]"He was led as a sheep to the slaughter;
And as a lamb before its shearer is silent,
[b]So He opened not His mouth.
33 In His humiliation His [a]justice was taken away,
And who will declare His generation?
For His life is [b]taken from the earth."

34 So the eunuch answered Philip and said, "I ask you, of whom does the prophet say this, of himself or of some other man?"
35 Then Philip opened his mouth, [a]and

8:18 Simon's action is the basis for the ecclesiastical term "simony," which is the corrupt practice of buying church offices.

8:26 The road from Jerusalem to Gaza was the most traveled route to Africa. Gaza was the last community before the great desert.

8:27 The term "eunuch" initially described a man who had been castrated. It literally meant "bed-keeper," a person who cared for the bed chambers in palaces or mansions. Eunuchs often rose to positions of great importance due to their close relationship with people of privilege. "Eunuch" had also become a term for important court officials, regardless of their masculinity. Candace was the traditional title of the queen mother who ruled ancient Ethiopia, for it was believed the reigning king was too holy to become involved in secular affairs.

beginning at this Scripture, preached Jesus to him.
36 Now as they went down the road, they came to some water. And the eunuch said, "See, here is water. [a]What hinders me from being baptized?"
37 [1]Then Philip said, [a]"If you believe with all your heart, you may." And he answered and said, [b]"I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God."
38 So he commanded the chariot to stand still. And both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water, and he baptized him.
39 Now when they came up out of the water, [a]the Spirit of the Lord caught Philip away, so that the eunuch saw him no more; and he went on his way rejoicing.
40 But Philip was found at [1]Azotus. And passing through, he preached in all the cities till he came to [a]Caesarea.

The Damascus Road: Saul Converted

9 Then [a]Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest
2 and asked [a]letters from him to the synagogues of Damascus, so that if he found any who were of the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.
3 [a]As he journeyed he came near Damascus, and suddenly a light shone around him from heaven.
4 Then he fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, [a]why are you persecuting Me?"
5 And he said, "Who are You, Lord?" Then the Lord said, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. [1]It is hard for you to kick against the goads."
6 So he, trembling and astonished, said, "Lord, what do You want me to do?" Then the Lord said to him, "Arise and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do."
7 And [a]the men who journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice but seeing no one.
8 Then Saul arose from the ground, and when his eyes were opened he saw no one. But they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus.
9 And he was three days without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

Ananias Baptizes Saul

10 Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus [a]named Ananias; and to him the Lord said in a vision, "Ananias." And he said, "Here I am, Lord."
11 So the Lord said to him, "Arise and go to the street called Straight, and inquire at the house of Judas for one called Saul [a]of Tarsus, for behold, he is praying.
12 "And in a vision he has seen a man named Ananias coming in and putting his hand on him, so that he might receive his sight."
13 Then Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, [a]how much [1]harm he has done to Your saints in Jerusalem.
14 "And here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all [a]who call on Your name."
15 But the Lord said to him, "Go, for [a]he is a chosen vessel of Mine to bear My name before [b]Gentiles, [c]kings, and the [d]children[1] of Israel.
16 "For [a]I will show him how many things he must suffer for My [b]name's sake."
17 [a]And Ananias went his way and entered the house; and [b]laying his hands on him he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord [1]Jesus, who appeared to you on the road as you came, has sent me that you may receive your sight and [c]be filled with the Holy Spirit."

BARNABAS

Acts 9:27

The name Barnabas means "son of comfort" or "consolation." Originally named Joses, he was a Levite from the island of Cyprus. He is acknowledged as a man of exceeding generosity who sold his land and gave the money to the early church in Jerusalem (Acts 4:37). He was courageous enough to take the convert Saul into his care when others were afraid of him (9:27). His winsome personality enhanced his humble spirit. The Lycaonians called him Zeus, thinking him a god in human form. He refused the title and pointed people to Christ as the source of his strength. He and Paul traveled together preaching the gospel and encouraging believers until a dispute arose concerning John Mark, Barnabas's cousin (Acts 15:36–39; Col. 4:10). Paul saw Mark as a hindrance to the trip, but Barnabas chose to show compassion and give his cousin a second chance after his defection on the first missionary journey. True to his name, Barnabas cared for people more than programs. His heart was both tender and courageous, prompting him to stand firmly for what he thought was right.

9:30 Tarsus was Saul's birthplace. It was three hundred miles north of Jerusalem and ten miles inland from the Mediterranean on the Cydnus River. It was not only a significant trade route, but it was well known for its university.

saints and widows, he presented her alive.
42 And it became known throughout all Joppa, [a]and many believed on the Lord.
43 So it was that he stayed many days in Joppa with [a]Simon, a tanner.

Cornelius Sends a Delegation

10 There was a certain man in [a]Caesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of what was called the Italian [1]Regiment,
2 [a]a devout man and one who [b]feared God with all his household, who gave [1]alms generously to the people, and prayed to God always.
3 About [1]the ninth hour of the day [a]he saw clearly in a vision an angel of God coming in and saying to him, "Cornelius!"
4 And when he observed him, he was afraid, and said, "What is it, lord?" So he said to him, "Your prayers and your alms have come up for a memorial before God.
5 "Now [a]send men to Joppa, and send for Simon whose surname is Peter.
6 "He is lodging with [a]Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the sea. [b]He[1] will tell you what you must do."
7 And when the angel who spoke to him had departed, Cornelius called two of his household servants and a devout soldier from among those who waited on him continually.
8 So when he had explained all these things to them, he sent them to Joppa.

Peter's Vision

9 The next day, as they went on their journey and drew near the city, [a]Peter went up on the housetop to pray, about [1]the sixth hour.
10 Then he became very hungry and wanted to eat; but while they made ready, he fell into a trance
11 and [a]saw heaven opened and an object like a great sheet bound at the four corners, descending to him and let down to the earth.
12 In it were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth, wild beasts, creeping things, and birds of the air.
13 And a voice came to him, "Rise, Peter; kill and eat."
14 But Peter said, "Not so, Lord! [a]For I have never eaten anything common or unclean."

16 This was done three times. And the object was taken up into heaven again.

Summoned to Caesarea

17 Now while Peter [1]wondered within himself what this vision which he had seen meant, behold, the men who had been sent from Cornelius had made inquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate.
18 And they called and asked whether Simon, whose surname was Peter, was lodging there.
19 While Peter thought about the vision, [a]the Spirit said to him, "Behold, three men are seeking you.
20 [a]"Arise therefore, go down and go with them, doubting nothing; for I have sent them."
21 Then Peter went down to the men [1]who had been sent to him from Cornelius, and said, "Yes, I am he whom you seek. For what reason have you come?"
22 And they said, "Cornelius the centurion, a just man, one who fears God and [a]has a good reputation among all the nation of the Jews, was divinely instructed by a holy angel to summon you to his house, and to hear words from you."
23 Then he invited them in and lodged them. On the next day Peter went away with them, [a]and some brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

Peter Meets Cornelius

24 And the following day they entered Caesarea. Now Cornelius was waiting for them, and had called together his relatives and close friends.

9:43 To be a tanner was an undesirable profession. Beyond the unpleasantness and odor of the job, it required touching dead animals that were unclean according to Jewish law.

10:1 Roman legions consisted of six thousand men. These were divided into ten cohorts of six hundred men each. A cohort consisted of six centuries, each being led by a centurion. This basic military unit was considered to be the backbone of the army.

10:3 The ninth hour was 3:00 p.m.

10:9 Joppa was thirty miles south of Caesarea.

10:14 To refuse the unclean foods was exactly what a Jew was taught to do since childhood (Lev. 11). The command to "kill and eat" signified a major movement away from Jewish law (see also Jesus' statement about unclean foods, Matt. 15:11).

25 As Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him and fell down at his feet and worshiped him.
26 But Peter lifted him up, saying, [a]"Stand up; I myself am also a man."
27 And as he talked with him, he went in and found many who had come together.
28 Then he said to them, "You know how [a]unlawful it is for a Jewish man to keep company with or go to one of another nation. But [b]God has shown me that I should not call any man common or unclean.
29 "Therefore I came without objection as soon as I was sent for. I ask, then, for what reason have you sent for me?"
30 So Cornelius said, [1]"Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and behold, [a]a man stood before me [b]in bright clothing, 31 "and said, 'Cornelius, [a]your prayer has been heard, and [b]your [1]alms are remembered in the sight of God.
32 'Send therefore to Joppa and call Simon here, whose surname is Peter. He is lodging in the house of Simon, a tanner, by the sea. [1]When he comes, he will speak to you.'
33 "So I sent to you immediately, and you have done well to come. Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God."

Preaching to Cornelius' Household

34 Then Peter opened his mouth and said: [a]"In truth I perceive that God shows no partiality.
35 "But [a]in every nation whoever fears Him and works righteousness is [b]accepted by Him.
36 "The word which God sent to the [1]children of Israel, [a]preaching peace through Jesus Christ—[b]He is Lord of all—

39 "And we are [a]witnesses of all things which He did both in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem, whom [1]they [b]killed by hanging on a tree.

42 "And [a]He commanded us to preach to the people, and to testify [b]that it is He who was ordained by God to be Judge [c]of the living and the dead.
43 [a]"To Him all the prophets witness that, through His name, [b]whoever believes in Him will receive [c]remission[1] of sins."

The Holy Spirit Falls on the Gentiles

44 While Peter was still speaking these words, [a]the Holy Spirit fell upon all those who heard the word.
45 [a]And [1]those of the circumcision who believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, [b]because the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out on the Gentiles also.
46 For they heard them speak with tongues and magnify God. Then Peter answered, 47 "Can anyone forbid water, that these should not be baptized who have received the Holy Spirit [a]just as we have?"
48 [a]And he commanded them to be baptized [b]in the name of the Lord. Then they asked him to stay a few days.

Peter Defends God's Grace

11 Now the apostles and brethren who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.
2 And when Peter came up to Jerusalem, [a]those of the circumcision contended with him,
3 saying, [a]"You went in to uncircumcised men [b]and ate with them!"
4 But Peter explained it to them [a]in order from the beginning, saying:
5 [a]"I was in the city of Joppa praying; and in a trance I saw a vision, an object descending like a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came to me.
6 "When I observed it intently and considered, I saw four-footed animals of the earth, wild beasts, creeping things, and birds of the air.
7 "And I heard a voice saying to me, 'Rise, Peter; kill and eat.'
8 "But I said, 'Not so, Lord! For nothing common or unclean has at any time entered my mouth.'

10:46 Speaking in tongues in this context was apparently a unique event, as was Pentecost. It signified the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the Gentiles as He had descended upon Jewish Christians.

10:48 Staying with a Gentile household for several days would have involved eating with them, an act abhorrent to orthodox Jews.

WORD Study — GENTILE

Acts 11:1 The term probably originated from ethnos which means "mass, multitude, host," or even "herd" or "swarm." As applied to humans it means "people," but is a much weaker term than other words (such as laos or glossa). The term is used in the New Testament in the general sense to include all nations or peoples, including Jews (1 Pet. 2:9). But the word Gentile was most commonly used by Hebrews as a derogatory term, indicating non-Jewish people. It described those who were not set apart as God's elect. A Gentile was considered unclean compared to a member of God's chosen race. The idea that God would choose a Gentile to enter His Kingdom was unimaginable to most Jews. Hence, even Jewish Christians assumed that Gentiles who converted to Christianity also needed to be circumcised and to adopt Jewish customs (Acts 15:1).

9 "But the voice answered me again from heaven, 'What God has cleansed you must not call common.'
10 "Now this was done three times, and all were drawn up again into heaven.
11 "At that very moment, three men stood before the house where I was, having been sent to me from Caesarea.
12 "Then [a]the Spirit told me to go with them, doubting nothing. Moreover [b]these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered the man's house.
13 [a]"And he told us how he had seen an angel standing in his house, who said to him, 'Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter,
14 'who will tell you words by which you and all your household will be saved.'
15 "And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them, [a]as upon us at the beginning.
16 "Then I remembered the word of the Lord, how He said, [a]'John indeed baptized with water, but [b]you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit.'
17 [a]"If therefore God gave them the same gift as He gave us when we believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, [b]who was I that I could withstand God?"

Testify

Nobody will fully understand your encounter with God; all you can do is to provide testimony to it. You cannot persuade people of divine truth, for it must be spiritually discerned. The Holy Spirit will confirm your experience among God's family, that they too may be blessed.

Barnabas and Saul at Antioch

19 [a]Now those who were scattered after the persecution that arose over Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to no one but the Jews only.
20 But some of them were men from Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to [a]the Hellenists, preaching the Lord Jesus.
21 And [a]the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed and [b]turned to the Lord.
22 Then news of these things came to the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent out [a]Barnabas to go as far as Antioch.
23 When he came and had seen the grace of God, he was glad, and [a]encouraged them all that with purpose of heart they should continue with the Lord.
24 For he was a good man, [a]full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. [b]And a great many people were added to the Lord.
25 Then Barnabas departed for [a]Tarsus to seek Saul.
26 And when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. So it was that for a whole year they assembled with the church and taught a great many people. And the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch.

Relief to Judea

27 And in these days [a]prophets came from Jerusalem to Antioch.
28 Then one of them, named [a]Agabus, stood up and showed by the Spirit that 11:15 "At the beginning" refers to the Day of Pentecost described in Acts 2.

11:22 Seleucus I founded the city, naming it after his father. Antioch was a major city in the Roman empire, surpassed only by Rome and Alexandria. It was a cosmopolitan center, attracting people from different cultural and ethnic groups, including immigrants from Persia, India, and China. Its diversity allowed more freedom for the gospel to be preached, and its international ties gave it great potential to impact other nations.

11:26 The term "Christian" was first applied as a derogatory term, meaning "belonging to Christ." The early disciples originally called themselves "the Way" (Acts 19:9, 23; 22:4; 24:14, 22), but later took the name "Christians" for themselves.

there was going to be a great famine throughout all the world, which also happened in the days of [b]Claudius Caesar.
29 Then the disciples, each according to his ability, determined to send [a]relief to the brethren dwelling in Judea.
30 [a]This they also did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

Herod's Violence to the Church

12 Now about that time Herod the king stretched out his hand to harass some from the church.
2 Then he killed James [a]the brother of John with the sword.
3 And because he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to seize Peter also. Now it was during [a]the Days of Unleavened Bread.
4 So [a]when he had arrested him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four [1]squads of soldiers to keep him, intending to bring him before the people after Passover.

Peter Freed from Prison

5 Peter was therefore kept in prison, but [1]constant prayer was offered to God for him by the church.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Acts 12:5

United in Prayer

No one can serve God in isolation. Even when circumstances separate a member from the body, the spiritual bond remains. The fervent and continual prayer of the church allows each one to go where God leads, and yet not be serving Him alone.

6 And when Herod was about to bring him out, that night Peter was sleeping, bound with two chains between two soldiers; and the guards before the door were [1]keeping the prison.
7 Now behold, [a]an angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light shone in the prison; and he struck Peter on the side and raised him up, saying, "Arise quickly!" And his chains fell off his hands.
8 Then the angel said to him, "Gird yourself and tie on your sandals"; and so he did. And he said to him, "Put on your garment and follow me."
9 So he went out and followed him, and [a]did not know that what was done by the angel was real, but thought [b]he was seeing a vision.
10 When they were past the first and the second guard posts, they came to the iron gate that leads to the city, [a]which opened to them of its own accord; and they went out and went down one street, and immediately the angel departed from him.
11 And when Peter had come to himself, he said, "Now I know for certain that [a]the Lord has sent His angel, and [b]has delivered me from the hand of Herod and from all the expectation of the Jewish people."
12 So, when he had considered this, [a]he came to the house of Mary, the mother of [b]John whose surname was Mark, where many were gathered together [c]praying.
13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a girl named Rhoda came to answer.
14 When she recognized Peter's voice, because of her gladness she did not open the gate, but ran in and announced that Peter stood before the gate.
15 But they said to her, "You are beside yourself!" Yet she kept insisting that it was so. So they said, [a]"It is his angel."
16 Now Peter continued knocking; and when they opened the door and saw him, they were astonished.
17 But [a]motioning to them with his hand to keep silent, he declared to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, "Go, tell these things to James and to the brethren." And he departed and went to another place.
18 Then, as soon as it was day, there was no small [1]stir among the soldiers about what had become of Peter.
19 But when Herod had searched for him and not found him, he examined the guards and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judea to Caesarea, and stayed there.

12:2 James, brother of John, was the first of the twelve apostles to be martyred, and he is the only one whose death is recorded in the New Testament. Death "with the sword" means he was beheaded.

12:12 Mary was the aunt of Barnabas. The disciples were gathered to pray in her home (Acts 4:31). Her house was possibly the location of the upper room where the last supper was held (Mark 14:13–15).

12:15 His angel refers to the belief that every person has an angel watching over them (Matt. 18:10; Heb 1:14).

they came to him with one accord, and having made Blastus [1]the king's personal aide their friend, they asked for peace, because [b]their country was [2]supplied with food by the king's country.
21 So on a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat on his throne and gave an oration to them.
22 And the people kept shouting, "The voice of a god and not of a man!"
23 Then immediately an angel of the Lord [a]struck him, because [b]he did not give glory to God. And he was eaten by worms and [1]died.
24 But [a]the word of God grew and multiplied.

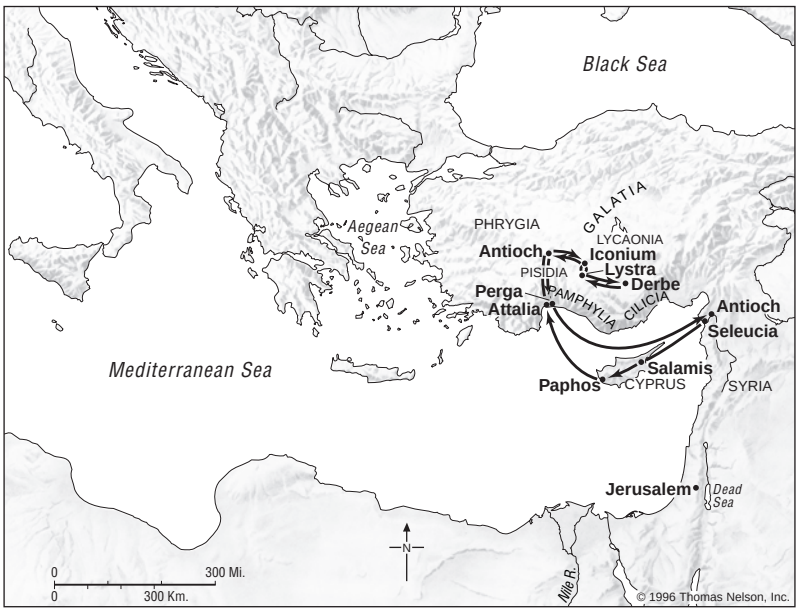
25 And [a]Barnabas and Saul returned [1]from Jerusalem when they had [b]fulfilled their ministry, and they also [c]took with them [d]John whose surname was Mark.

13 Now [a]in the church that was at Antioch there were certain prophets and teachers: [b]Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, [c]Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.
2 As they ministered to the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, [a]"Now separate to Me Barnabas and Saul for the work [b]to which I have called them."
3 Then, [a]having fasted and prayed, and laid hands on them, they sent them away.

Preaching in Cyprus



4 So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia, and from there they sailed to [a]Cyprus.
5 And when they arrived in Salamis, [a]they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. They also had [b]John as their assistant.

8 But [a]Elymas the sorcerer (for so his name is translated) [1]withstood them, seeking to turn the proconsul away from the faith.

At Antioch in Pisidia

13 Now when Paul and his party set sail from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia; and [a]John, departing from them, returned to Jerusalem.
14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and [a]went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day and sat down.
15 And [a]after the reading of the Law and the Prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, "Men and brethren, if you have [b]any word of [1]exhortation for the people, say on."
16 Then Paul stood up, and motioning with his hand said, "Men of Israel, and [a]you who fear God, listen:

Blessing and Conflict at Antioch

42 [1]So when the Jews went out of the synagogue, the Gentiles begged that these words might be preached to them the next Sabbath.
43 Now when the congregation had broken up, many of the Jews and devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who, speaking to them, [a]persuaded them to continue in [b]the grace of God.
44 On the next Sabbath almost the whole city came together to hear the word of God.
45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy; and contradicting and blaspheming, they [a]opposed the things spoken by Paul.
46 Then Paul and Barnabas grew bold and said, [a]"It was necessary that the word of God should be spoken to you first; but [b]since you reject it, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, behold, [c]we turn to the Gentiles.
47 "For so the Lord has commanded us:

[a]'I have set you as a light to the Gentiles,
That you should be for salvation to the ends of the earth.'"

48 Now when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and glorified the word of the Lord. [a]And as many as had been appointed to eternal life believed.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Acts 13:48

Truth Offered

Truth is not necessarily recognized or received. That is the nature of sin; it distorts what is obvious and conceals the way to abundant life. Some hear God's word and receive truth that sets them free. Others hear the same message and violently oppose it, never experiencing its inherent blessing. Only the Holy Spirit can give spiritual insight, but people must be willing to accept it.

49 And the word of the Lord was being spread throughout all the region.
50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and prominent women and the chief men of the city, [a]raised up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their region.

52 And the disciples [a]were filled with joy and [b]with the Holy Spirit.

At Iconium

14 Now it happened in Iconium that they went together to the synagogue of the Jews, and so spoke that a great multitude both of the Jews and of the [a]Greeks believed.
2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles and [1]poisoned their [2]minds against the brethren.
3 Therefore they stayed there a long time, speaking boldly in the Lord, [a]who was bearing witness to the word of His grace, granting signs and [b]wonders to be done by their hands.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Acts 14:3

Bearing Witness

When we deliver the message God gives us, God affirms His word. The confirmation may come though a direct act of God, through answered prayer, or through the unfailing testimony revealed by the passing of time. In whatever way it comes, the evidence is clear if what we declare is from God.

4 But the multitude of the city was [a]divided: part sided with the Jews, and part with the [b]apostles.
5 And when a violent attempt was made by both the Gentiles and Jews, with their rulers, [a]to abuse and stone them,
6 they became aware of it and [a]fled to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and to the surrounding region.
7 And they were preaching the gospel there.

Idolatry at Lystra

8 [a]And in Lystra a certain man without strength in his feet was sitting, a cripple from his mother's womb, who had never walked.
9 This man heard Paul speaking. [1]Paul, observing him intently and seeing that he had faith to be healed,
10 said with a loud voice, [a]"Stand up straight on your feet!" And he leaped and walked.
11 Now when the people saw what Paul had done, they raised their voices, saying in the Lycaonian language, [a]"The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!"

13 Then the priest of Zeus, whose temple was in front of their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, [a]intending to sacrifice with the multitudes.
14 But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard this, [a]they tore their clothes and ran in among the multitude, crying out
15 and saying, "Men, [a]why are you doing these things? [b]We also are men with the same nature as you, and preach to you that you should turn from [c]these useless things [d]to the living God, [e]who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and all things that are in them, 16 [a]"who in bygone generations allowed all nations to walk in their own ways.
17 [a]"Nevertheless He did not leave Himself without witness, in that He did good, [b]gave us rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with [c]food and gladness."
18 And with these sayings they could scarcely restrain the multitudes from sacrificing to them.

Stoning, Escape to Derbe

19 [a]Then Jews from Antioch and Iconium came there; and having persuaded the multitudes, [b]they stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city, supposing him to be [c]dead.
20 However, when the disciples gathered around him, he rose up and went into the city. And the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

Strengthening the Converts

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city [a]and made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch,
22 strengthening the souls of the disciples, [a]exhorting them to continue in the faith, and saying, [b]"We must through many tribulations enter the kingdom of God."
23 So when they had [a]appointed elders in every church, and prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord in whom they had believed.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Acts 14:22

Encouraging Others

When persecution comes, those who are strong must encourage those who are weak and young in their faith. Though your needs are great, seek to help others; God will in turn bring encouragement back to your life. When you give your life away for the sake of Christ, you will truly understand abundant life in Christ.

25 Now when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia.
26 From there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work which they had completed.
27 Now when they had come and gathered the church together, [a]they reported all that God had done with them, and that He had [b]opened the door of faith to the Gentiles.
28 So they stayed there a long time with the disciples.

Conflict over Circumcision

15 And [a]certain men came down from Judea and taught the brethren, [b]"Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved."
2 Therefore, when Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and dispute with them, they determined that [a]Paul and Barnabas and certain others of them should go up to Jerusalem, to the apostles and elders, about this question.
3 So, [a]being sent on their way by the church, they passed through Phoenicia and Samaria, [b]describing the conversion of the Gentiles; and they caused great joy to all the brethren.
4 And when they had come to Jerusalem, they were received by the church and the apostles and the elders; and they reported all things that God had done with them.
5 But some of the sect of the Pharisees who believed rose up, saying, "It is necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses."

14:12 The Roman poet Ovid wrote that Zeus and Hermes came to the Phrygian hill country as humans to seek lodging. After many homes turned them away, so goes the story, they found refuge in an elderly couple's cottage. As a result, the cottage was turned into a great temple with gold and marble, and the other homes were destroyed. This legend may have given rise to the great welcome Barnabas and Paul received, for the people did not want to be guilty of the same error of inhospitality.

14:14 Tearing one's clothes was a sign of extreme grief and horror.

14:19 The only other person recorded in the New Testament as being stoned was Stephen, whose execution was sanctioned by Saul of Tarsus (Acts 7:58).

15:1 "Certain men" probably refers to Pharisees who had become Christians, but still insisted that the law of Moses, including circumcision, was essential for salvation.

The Jerusalem Council

6 Now the apostles and elders came together to consider this matter.
7 And when there had been much dispute, Peter rose up and said to them: [a]"Men and brethren, you know that a good while ago God chose among us, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the gospel and believe.
8 "So God, [a]who knows the heart, [1]acknowledged them by [b]giving them the Holy Spirit, just as He did to us, 9 [a]"and made no distinction between us and them, [b]purifying their hearts by faith.
10 "Now therefore, why do you test God [a]by putting a yoke on the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

ENCOUNTER*Note* Acts 15:10

Set Free

Legalism always kills the spirit of a relationship. God set us free to serve Him out of love, not to be burdened with ritual and tradition. Jesus said His yoke is easy and His burden is light. We are in a new covenant, one that is based upon relationship, not religion.

11 "But [a]we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus [1]Christ we shall be saved in the same manner as they."
12 Then all the multitude kept silent and listened to Barnabas and Paul declaring how many miracles and wonders God had [a]worked through them among the Gentiles.
13 And after they had [1]become silent, [a]James answered, saying, "Men and brethren, listen to me:
14 [a]"Simon has declared how God at the first visited the Gentiles to take out of them a people for His name.
15 "And with this the words of the prophets agree, just as it is written:

16 'After[a] this I will return
And will rebuild the tabernacle of David, which has fallen down;
I will rebuild its ruins,
And I will set it up;
17 So that the rest of mankind may seek the LORD,
Even all the Gentiles who are called by My name,
Says the [1]LORD who does all these things.'

18 [1]"Known to God from eternity are all His works.
19 "Therefore [a]I judge that we should not trouble those from among the Gentiles who [b]are turning to God,
20 "but that we [a]write to them to abstain [b]from things polluted by idols, [c]from [1]sexual immorality, [d]from things strangled, and from blood.
21 "For Moses has had throughout many generations those who preach him in every city, [a]being read in the synagogues every Sabbath."

The Jerusalem Decree

22 Then it pleased the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas, namely, Judas who was also named [a]Barsabas,[1] and Silas, leading men among the brethren.
23 They wrote this letter by them:

The apostles, the elders, and the brethren,

To the brethren who are of the Gentiles in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia:

Greetings.

24 Since we have heard that [a]some who went out from us have troubled you with words, [b]unsettling your souls, [1]saying, "You must be circumcised and keep the law"—to whom we gave no such commandment—
25 it seemed good to us, being assembled with one [1]accord, to send chosen men to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,
26 [a]men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.
27 We have therefore sent Judas and Silas, who will also report the same things by word of mouth.
28 For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things:
29 [a]that you abstain from things offered to idols, [b]from blood, from things strangled, and from [c]sexual[1]

15:19 Whereas the council did not want to burden Gentile converts with Jewish ceremonial laws, the four issues mentioned were known Greek practices. Since these practices repulsed the Jews, they had to be dealt with directly or there would always be problems between Jewish and Gentile Christians.

15:22 Judas was Jewish and Silas was Greek. Sending representatives from both parties reinforced the council's decision.

Continuing Ministry in Syria

30 So when they were sent off, they came to Antioch; and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the letter.
31 When they had read it, they rejoiced over its encouragement.
32 Now Judas and Silas, themselves being [a]prophets also, [b]exhorted and strengthened the brethren with many words.
33 And after they had stayed there for a time, they were [a]sent back with greetings from the brethren to [1]the apostles.
34 [1]However, it seemed good to Silas to remain there.
35 [a]Paul and Barnabas also remained in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

Division over John Mark

36 Then after some days Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us now go back and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they are doing."
37 Now Barnabas [1]was determined to take with them [a]John called Mark.
38 But Paul insisted that they should not take with them [a]the one who had departed from them in Pamphylia, and had not gone with them to the work.
39 Then the contention became so sharp that they parted from one another. And so Barnabas took Mark and sailed to [a]Cyprus;
40 but Paul chose Silas and departed, [a]being [1]commended by the brethren to the grace of God.
41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, [a]strengthening the churches.

Timothy Joins Paul and Silas

16 Then he came to [a]Derbe and Lystra. And behold, a certain disciple was there, [b]named Timothy, [c]the son of a certain Jewish woman who believed, but his father was Greek.
2 He was well spoken of by the brethren who were at Lystra and Iconium.
3 Paul wanted to have him go on with him. And he [a]took him and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in that region, for they all knew that his father was Greek.
4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered to them the [a]decrees to keep, [b]which were determined by the apostles and elders at Jerusalem.
5 [a]So the churches were strengthened in the faith, and increased in number daily.

Acts 15:36 Paul's Second Missionary Journey

The Macedonian Call

6 Now when they had gone through Phrygia and the region of [a]Galatia, they were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to preach the word in [1]Asia.
7 After they had come to Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia, but the [1]Spirit did not permit them.
8 So passing by Mysia, they [a]came down to Troas.
9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night. A [a]man of Macedonia stood and pleaded with him, saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us."
10 Now after he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go [a]to Macedonia, concluding that the Lord had called us to preach the gospel to them.

Lydia Baptized at Philippi

11 Therefore, sailing from Troas, we ran a straight course to Samothrace, and the next day came to Neapolis,
12 and from there to [a]Philippi, which is the [1]foremost city of that part of Macedonia, a colony. And we were staying in that city for some days.
13 And on the Sabbath day we went out of the city to the riverside, where prayer was customarily made; and we sat down and spoke to the women who met there.
14 Now a certain woman named Lydia heard us. She was a seller of purple from the city of [a]Thyatira, who worshiped God. [b]The Lord opened her heart to heed the things spoken by Paul.
15 And when she and her household were baptized, she begged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come to my house and stay." So [a]she persuaded us.

Paul and Silas Imprisoned

16 Now it happened, as we went to prayer, that a certain slave girl [a]possessed with a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters [b]much profit by fortune-telling.
17 This girl followed Paul and us, and cried out, saying, "These men are the servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to us the way of salvation."
18 And this she did for many days. But Paul, [a]greatly [1]annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." [b]And he came out that very hour.
19 But [a]when her masters saw that their hope of profit was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and [b]dragged them into the marketplace to the authorities.
20 And they brought them to the magistrates, and said, "These men, being Jews, [a]exceedingly trouble our city;
21 "and they teach customs which are not lawful for us, being Romans, to receive or observe."
22 Then the multitude rose up together against them; and the magistrates tore off their clothes [a]and commanded them to be beaten with rods.
23 And when they had laid many stripes on them, they threw them into prison, commanding the jailer to keep them securely.
24 Having received such a charge, he put them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks.

The Philippian Jailer Saved

25 But at midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Acts 16:25

The Joy of Salvation

External circumstances do not determine our joy; joy comes from within, from a relationship with Christ. A Spirit-filled life is characterized by unwavering joy. Joy comes in knowing we have been forgiven of sin, born into the family of God, and we have a personal relationship with the Heavenly Father. Irrespective of circumstances, salvation alone is cause for great rejoicing.

26 [a]Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately [b]all the doors were opened and everyone's chains were loosed.
27 And the keeper of the prison, awak-

16:8 Troas was ten miles from ancient Troy. It was a Roman colony and an important seaport for travel between Greece, Macedonia, and Asia Minor.

16:10 Luke's use of the term "we" indicates that he accompanied Paul. This is the first of four "we" sections in the book (Acts 16:10–17; 20:5–15; 21:1–18; 27:1—28:16).

16:11 Samothrace was an island in the Aegean Sea and was suitable for anchoring overnight. Neapolis was the seaport for Philippi which was ten miles inland.

16:12 Philippi was a Roman colony named after Alexander the Great's father. It was a military outpost, probably occupied by numerous army veterans. It became a great commercial center in Macedonia.

16:14 Thyatira was known for its cloth dyeing, especially its purple dye. Purple dye was extremely expensive and reserved primarily for royalty. Lydia was probably a wealthy woman.

16:21 All religions had to receive Roman consent. Judaism was legal, but Christianity had not been approved. Paul, however, did not view his faith as a new religion. To him, the gospel was the fulfillment of the faith of his fathers.

31 So they said, [a]"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household."
32 Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house.
33 And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their stripes. And immediately he and all his family were baptized.
34 Now when he had brought them into his house, [a]he set food before them; and he rejoiced, having believed in God with all his household.

Paul Refuses to Depart Secretly

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the [1]officers, saying, "Let those men go."
36 So the keeper of the prison reported these words to Paul, saying, "The magistrates have sent to let you go. Now therefore depart, and go in peace."
37 But Paul said to them, "They have beaten us openly, uncondemned [a]Romans, and have thrown us into prison. And now do they put us out secretly? No indeed! Let them come themselves and get us out."
38 And the officers told these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Romans.
39 Then they came and pleaded with them and brought them out, and [a]asked them to depart from the city.
40 So they went out of the prison [a]and entered the house of Lydia; and when they had seen the brethren, they encouraged them and departed.

Preaching Christ at Thessalonica

17 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to [a]Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews.

2 Then Paul, as his custom was, [a]went in to them, and for three Sabbaths [b]reasoned with them from the Scriptures,
3 explaining and demonstrating [a]that the Christ had to suffer and rise again from the dead, and saying, "This Jesus whom I preach to you is the Christ."
4 [a]And some of them were persuaded; and a great multitude of the devout Greeks, and not a few of the leading women, joined Paul and [b]Silas.

Assault on Jason's House

5 But the Jews [1]who were not persuaded, [2]becoming [a]envious, took some of the evil men from the marketplace, and gathering a mob, set all the city in an uproar and attacked the house of [b]Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.
6 But when they did not find them, they dragged Jason and some brethren to the rulers of the city, crying out, [a]"These who have turned the world upside down have come here too.
7 "Jason has [1]harbored them, and these are all acting contrary to the decrees of Caesar, [a]saying there is another king—Jesus."
8 And they troubled the crowd and the rulers of the city when they heard these things.
9 So when they had taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go.

Ministering at Berea

10 Then [a]the brethren immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Berea. When they arrived, they went into the synagogue of the Jews.
11 These were more [1]fair-minded than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness, and [a]searched the Scriptures daily to find out whether these things were so.

WORD*Study* READINESS

Acts 17:11 The word translated "readiness," from the Greek word prothumia, has various nuances such as "desire," "eagerness," or "zeal." The underlying tone suggests "voluntary or willing action," or even "cheerful resolution." Acts 17:11 records that the Bereans were ready to receive and act upon the word God gave them through Paul (see 2 Cor. 8:11, 12; 9:2).

16:38 Roman citizens generally could not be publicly beaten this way without first receiving a fair trial. Paul and Silas clearly had their rights violated. Paul was beaten this way at least three times (1 Cor. 11:25).

17:1 Thessalonica was one hundred miles away. Founded in 315 B.C. by Cassander, Thessalonica was named after Alexander the Great's stepsister. Having a population of roughly 200,000 people, it was the second largest city in Greece and the capital of the Roman province of Macedonia.

17:9 "Taking security" is similar to posting bond. It guaranteed that Paul and Silas would not cause any more trouble.

ENCOUNTER Note Acts 17:11

Ready to Receive

God's truth is at hand and available to all. But the readiness to receive that truth is often absent. Those who want to hear from God will consistently search the Scriptures, convinced that God wants to reveal Himself through His word. Neglecting the Scriptures indicates a lack of interest in receiving God's truth.

12 Therefore many of them believed, and also not a few of the Greeks, prominent women as well as men.
13 But when the Jews from Thessalonica learned that the word of God was preached by Paul at Berea, they came there also and stirred up the crowds.
14 [a]Then immediately the brethren sent Paul away, to go to the sea; but both Silas and Timothy remained there.
15 So those who conducted Paul brought him to Athens; and [a]receiving a command for Silas and Timothy to come to him with all speed, they departed.

The Philosophers at Athens

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, [a]his spirit was provoked within him when he saw that the city was [1]given over to idols.
17 Therefore he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and with the Gentile worshipers, and in the marketplace daily with those who happened to be there.
18 [1]Then certain Epicurean and Stoic philosophers encountered him. And some said, "What does this [2]babbler want to say?" Others said, "He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign gods," because he preached to them [a]Jesus and the resurrection.
19 And they took him and brought him to the [1]Areopagus, saying, "May we know what this new doctrine is of which you speak?
20 "For you are bringing some strange things to our ears. Therefore we want to know what these things mean."
21 For all the Athenians and the foreigners who were there spent their time in nothing else but either to tell or to hear some new thing.

Addressing the Areopagus

22 Then Paul stood in the midst of the [1]Areopagus and said, "Men of Athens, I perceive that in all things you are very religious;
23 "for as I was passing through and considering the objects of your worship, I even found an altar with this inscription:

TO THE UNKNOWN GOD.

Therefore, the One whom you worship without knowing, Him I proclaim to you:
24 [a]"God, who made the world and everything in it, since He is [b]Lord of heaven and earth, [c]does not dwell in temples made with hands.
25 "Nor is He worshiped with men's hands, as though He needed anything, since He [a]gives to all life, breath, and all things.
26 "And He has made from one [1]blood every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, and has determined their preappointed times and [a]the boundaries of their dwellings,
27 [a]"so that they should seek the Lord, in the hope that they might grope for Him and find Him, [b]though He is not far from each one of us;
28 "for [a]in Him we live and move and have our being, [b]as also some of your own poets have said, 'For we are also His offspring.'
29 "Therefore, since we are the offspring of God, [a]we ought not to think that the Divine Nature is like gold or silver or stone, something shaped by art and man's devising.
30 "Truly, [a]these times of ignorance God overlooked, but [b]now commands all men everywhere to repent,
31 "because He has appointed a day on which [a]He will judge the world in righteousness by the Man whom He has ordained. He has given assurance of this to all by [b]raising Him from the dead."
32 And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked, while 17:18 Epicurean philosophers followed the teaching of Epicurus (341–270 B.C.) who held that the main goal in life was pleasure and happiness. He also believed that if gods existed, they did not have much involvement in earthly affairs. This philosophy had degenerated from seeking happiness down to mere sensual desires. Stoic philosophers followed the teaching of Zeno (334–262 B.C.), who taught that the universe was ruled by an absolute Purpose or Will. People were to live in harmony with nature and to seek freedom from emotion, producing self-sufficiency and independence. This too had deteriorated into a system of pride and self-glorification.

17:19 The Areopagus was a hill southwest of the Acropolis in Athens and meant "Hill of Ares" (Mars Hill in Latin). Ares was the Greek god of thunder and war. Court was conducted on the hill, and officials deliberated on issues of religion and morals. The court acted as a custodian of new religions and foreign gods.

17:23 The Greeks built an altar to "the Unknown God," as they were fearful of offending any god, even in ignorance.

17:32 Teaching on the resurrection of the dead was troublesome to Greeks. Following the teachings of Socrates and Plato, they believed the soul lived forever, but the body was considered evil and something to be discarded.

others said, "We will hear you again on this matter."
33 So Paul departed from among them.
34 However, some men joined him and believed, among them Dionysius the Areopagite, a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Ministering at Corinth

18 After these things Paul departed from Athens and went to Corinth.
2 And he found a certain Jew named [a]Aquila, born in Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla (because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome); and he came to them.
3 So, because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them [a]and worked; for by occupation they were tentmakers.
4 [a]And he reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath, and persuaded both Jews and Greeks.
5 [a]When Silas and Timothy had come from Macedonia, Paul was [b]compelled [1]by the Spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus is the Christ.

ENCOUNTER Note Acts 18:5

Compelled

Those who have been born again are inwardly directed by the Holy Spirit. They do not call upon the Spirit to help their efforts; He calls upon them to release their lives to join the Father's efforts. His compelling influence is the voice of God calling Christians to action.

6 But [a]when they opposed him and blasphemed, [b]he shook his garments and said to them, [c]"Your blood be upon your own heads; [d]I am clean. [e]From now on I will go to the Gentiles."
7 And he departed from there and entered the house of a certain man named [1]Justus, one who worshiped God, whose house was next door to the synagogue.
8 [a]Then Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his household. And many of the Corinthians, hearing, believed and were baptized.

10 [a]"for I am with you, and no one will attack you to hurt you; for I have many people in this city."
11 And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.
12 When Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul and brought him to the [1]judgment seat,
13 saying, "This fellow persuades men to worship God contrary to the law."
14 And when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "If it were a matter of wrongdoing or wicked crimes, O Jews, there would be reason why I should bear with you.
15 "But if it is a [a]question of words and names and your own law, look to it yourselves; for I do not want to be a judge of such matters."
16 And he drove them from the judgment seat.
17 Then [1]all the Greeks took [a]Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. But Gallio took no notice of these things.

Paul Returns to Antioch

18 So Paul still remained [1]a good while. Then he took leave of the brethren and sailed for Syria, and Priscilla and Aquila were with him. [a]He had his hair cut off at [b]Cenchrea, for he had taken a vow.
19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there; but he himself entered the synagogue and reasoned with the Jews.
20 When they asked him to stay a longer time with them, he did not consent,
21 but took leave of them, saying, [a]"I[1] must by all means keep this coming feast in Jerusalem; but I will return again to you, [b]God willing." And he sailed from Ephesus.
22 And when he had landed at [a]Caesarea, and [1]gone up and greeted the church, he went down to Antioch.
23 After he had spent some time there, he departed and went over the region of [a]Galatia and Phrygia [1]in order, [b]strengthening all the disciples.

18:1 Corinth was the major city of Greece, the capital of Achaia, and served as the center for worshiping Aphrodite, the fertility goddess. It also housed the major temple of Apollo. Corinth was notorious for sexual immorality.

18:12 Gallio was the brother of Seneca, an influential Stoic philosopher and tutor of the Roman emperor Nero.

18:18 A Nazirite vow involved pledging to abstain from wine and from cutting one's hair, as a sign of special devotion to God. At the end of the period dedicated to God, the person would cut his hair and have it burned in the temple at Jerusalem (Acts 21:23–26). He would also offer other sacrifices to God as an act of worship and gratitude. Paul's was probably a temporary vow made in gratitude to God for his safekeeping or perhaps a petition for future blessing.

18:19 Ephesus was a strong commercial city and the capital of the province of Asia. It also contained the temple of Artemis (Diana). Paul had earlier been prevented by the Holy Spirit from going to Ephesus (Acts 16:6).

Ministry of Apollos

24 [a]Now a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man and mighty in the Scriptures, came to Ephesus.
25 This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being [a]fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things of the Lord, [b]though he knew only the baptism of John.
26 So he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. When Aquila and Priscilla heard him, they took him aside and explained to him the way of God more accurately.
27 And when he desired to cross to Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him; and when he arrived, [a]he greatly helped those who had believed through grace;
28 for he vigorously refuted the Jews publicly, [a]showing from the Scriptures that Jesus is the Christ.

Paul at Ephesus

19 And it happened, while [a]Apollos was at Corinth, that Paul, having passed through [b]the upper regions, came to Ephesus. And finding some disciples

4 Then Paul said, [a]"John indeed baptized with a baptism of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe on Him who would come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus."
5 When they heard this, they were baptized [a]in the name of the Lord Jesus.
6 And when Paul had [a]laid hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and [b]they spoke with tongues and prophesied.
7 Now the men were about twelve in all.
8 [a]And he went into the synagogue and spoke boldly for three months, reasoning and persuading [b]concerning the things of the kingdom of God.
9 But [a]when some were hardened and did not believe, but spoke evil [b]of the Way before the multitude, he departed from them and withdrew the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus.

18:24 Apollos was a Jewish man with a Greek name. Alexandria was founded by Alexander the Great and was the second largest city in the Roman empire. It is estimated that one quarter of the population was Jewish. It was famous for its library and scriptures. The Septuagint had been translated in this city some 150 years before the time of Christ.

19:8 Paul followed a pattern of first going to the local Jewish population in a city and then expanding his ministry to Gentiles.

19:10 Although Paul does not seem to have traveled far from Ephesus during his time there, those he taught were responsible for beginning churches in Colosse, Smyrna, Pergamos, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea.

word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

Miracles Glorify Christ

11 Now [a]God worked unusual miracles by the hands of Paul,
12 [a]so that even handkerchiefs or aprons were brought from his body to the sick, and the diseases left them and the evil spirits went out of them.
13 [a]Then some of the itinerant Jewish exorcists [b]took it upon themselves to call the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, [1]"We [2]exorcise you by the Jesus whom Paul [c]preaches."
14 Also there were seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, who did so.
15 And the evil spirit answered and said, "Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are you?"

ENCOUNTER*Note* Acts 19:15

Spiritual Influence

There is no second hand spirituality. You can recite religious words or imitate godly activity, but spiritual power is a gift from God that cannot be conjured up. To call upon the power of Jesus, you must have a relationship with Him.

16 Then the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, [1]overpowered them, and prevailed against [2]them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.
17 This became known both to all Jews and Greeks dwelling in Ephesus; and [a]fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.
18 And many who had believed came [a]confessing and telling their deeds.
19 Also, many of those who had practiced magic brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all. And they counted up the value of them, and it totaled fifty thousand pieces of silver.
20 [a]So the word of the Lord grew mightily and prevailed.

The Riot at Ephesus

21 [a]When these things were accomplished, Paul [b]purposed in the Spirit, when he had passed through [c]Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, "After I have been there, [d]I must also see Rome."
22 So he sent into Macedonia two of those who ministered to him, [a]Timothy and [b]Erastus, but he himself stayed in Asia for a time.
23 And [a]about that time there arose a great commotion about [b]the Way.
24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of [1]Diana, brought [a]no small profit to the craftsmen.
25 He called them together with the workers of similar occupation, and said: "Men, you know that we have our prosperity by this trade.
26 "Moreover you see and hear that not only at Ephesus, but throughout almost all Asia, this Paul has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that [a]they are not gods which are made with hands.
27 "So not only is this trade of ours in danger of falling into disrepute, but also the temple of the great goddess Diana may be despised and [1]her magnificence destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worship."
28 Now when they heard this, they were full of wrath and cried out, saying, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians!"
29 So the whole city was filled with confusion, and rushed into the theater with one accord, having seized [a]Gaius and [b]Aristarchus, Macedonians, Paul's travel companions.
30 And when Paul wanted to go in to the people, the disciples would not allow him.
31 Then some of the [1]officials of Asia, who were his friends, sent to him pleading that he would not venture into the theater.
32 Some therefore cried one thing and some another, for the assembly was confused, and most of them did not know why they had come together.
33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And [a]Alexander [b]motioned with his hand, and wanted to make his defense to the people.
34 But when they found out that he was a Jew, all with one voice cried out for about two hours, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians!"
35 And when the city clerk had quieted the crowd, he said: "Men of Ephesus,

19:19 The books that were burned probably contained magic formulas, astrological predictions, and secret information used by magicians or exorcists. They were worth an enormous amount of money.

19:27 The Temple of Diana was an impressive structure, measuring 345 feet by 165 feet. It was covered in gold and elaborate designs. Inside the temple stood an enormous altar and a gigantic statue of the goddess Diana.

19:29 This was a large open-air theater holding up to 25,000 people.

what man is there who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is temple guardian of the great goddess [1]Diana, and of the image which fell down from [2]Zeus?
36 "Therefore, since these things cannot be denied, you ought to be quiet and do nothing rashly.
37 "For you have brought these men here who are neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of [1]your goddess.
38 "Therefore, if Demetrius and his fellow craftsmen have a [1]case against anyone, the courts are open and there are proconsuls. Let them bring charges against one another.
39 "But if you have any other inquiry to make, it shall be determined in the lawful assembly.
40 "For we are in danger of being [1]called in question for today's uproar, there being no reason which we may give to account for this disorderly gathering."
41 And when he had said these things, he dismissed the assembly.

Journeys in Greece

20 After the uproar had ceased, Paul called the disciples to himself, embraced them, and [a]departed to go to Macedonia.
2 Now when he had gone over that region and encouraged them with many words, he came to [a]Greece
3 and stayed three months. And [a]when the Jews plotted against him as he was about to sail to Syria, he decided to return through Macedonia.
4 And Sopater of Berea accompanied him to Asia—also [a]Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians, and [b]Gaius of Derbe, and [c]Timothy, and [d]Tychicus and [e]Trophimus of Asia.
5 These men, going ahead, waited for us at [a]Troas.
6 But we sailed away from Philippi after [a]the Days of Unleavened Bread, and in five days joined them [b]at Troas, where we stayed seven days.

Ministering at Troas

7 Now on [a]the first day of the week, when the disciples came together [b]to break bread, Paul, ready to depart the next day, spoke to them and continued his message until midnight.
8 There were many lamps [a]in the upper room where [1]they were gathered together.
9 And in a window sat a certain young man named Eutychus, who was sinking into a deep sleep. He was overcome by sleep; and as Paul continued speaking, he fell down from the third story and was taken up dead.
10 But Paul went down, [a]fell on him, and embracing him said, [b]"Do not trouble yourselves, for his life is in him."
11 Now when he had come up, had broken bread and eaten, and talked a long while, even till daybreak, he departed.
12 And they brought the young man in alive, and they were not a little comforted.

From Troas to Miletus

13 Then we went ahead to the ship and sailed to Assos, there intending to take Paul on board; for so he had [1]given orders, intending himself to go on foot.
14 And when he met us at Assos, we took him on board and came to Mitylene.
15 We sailed from there, and the next day came opposite Chios. The following day we arrived at Samos and stayed at Trogyllium. The next day we came to Miletus.
16 For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus, so that he would not have to spend time in Asia; for [a]he was hurrying [b]to be at Jerusalem, if possible, on [c]the Day of Pentecost.

The Ephesian Elders Exhorted

17 From Miletus he sent to Ephesus and called for the elders of the church.
18 And when they had come to him, he said to them: "You know, [a]from the first day that I came to Asia, in what manner I always lived among you,
19 "serving the Lord with all humility, with many tears and trials which happened to me [a]by the plotting of the Jews;
20 "how [a]I kept back nothing that was helpful, but proclaimed it to you, and taught you publicly and from house to house, self, [b]so that I may finish my [2]race with joy, [c]and the ministry [d]which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God.

ENCOUNTER Note Acts 20:24

Realizing God's Purpose

Every Christian has a special purpose within God's plan. Joy comes when you recognize it, adjust to it, and set about doing it in the power of the Holy Spirit. Trials along the way are insignificant when your eyes are set on the goal. Consider the joy of looking into the eyes of the Lord and hearing the words, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

25 "And indeed, now I know that you all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, will see my face no more.
26 "Therefore I testify to you this day that I am [a]innocent[1] of the blood of all men.
27 "For I have not [1]shunned to declare to you [a]the whole counsel of God.
28 [a]"Therefore take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, among which the Holy Spirit [b]has made you overseers, to shepherd the church [1]of God [c]which He purchased [d]with His own blood.
29 "For I know this, that after my departure [a]savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock.
30 "Also [a]from among yourselves men will rise up, speaking [1]perverse things, to draw away the disciples after themselves.
31 "Therefore watch, and remember that [a]for three years I did not cease to warn everyone night and day with tears.
32 "So now, brethren, I commend you to God and [a]to the word of His grace, which is able [b]to build you up and give you [c]an inheritance among all those who are sanctified.
33 "I have coveted no one's silver or gold or apparel.
34 [1]"Yes, you yourselves know [a]that these hands have provided for my necessities, and for those who were with me.
35 "I have shown you in every way, [a]by laboring like this, that you must support the weak. And remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that He said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.' "
36 And when he had said these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all.
37 Then they all [a]wept [1]freely, and [b]fell on Paul's neck and kissed him,
38 sorrowing most of all for the words which he spoke, that they would see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

Warnings on the Journey to Jerusalem

21 Now it came to pass, that when we had departed from them and set sail, running a straight course we came to Cos, the following day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara.
2 And finding a ship sailing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard and set sail.
3 When we had sighted Cyprus, we passed it on the left, sailed to Syria, and landed at Tyre; for there the ship was to unload her cargo.
4 And finding [1]disciples, we stayed there seven days. [a]They told Paul through the Spirit not to go up to Jerusalem.
5 When we had come to the end of those days, we departed and went on our way; and they all accompanied us, with wives and children, till we were out of the city. And [a]we knelt down on the shore and prayed.
6 When we had taken our leave of one another, we boarded the ship, and they returned [a]home.
7 And when we had finished our voyage from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, greeted the brethren, and stayed with them one day.
8 On the next day we [1]who were Paul's companions departed and came to [a]Caesarea, and entered the house of Philip [b]the evangelist, [c]who was one of the seven, and stayed with him.
9 Now this man had four virgin daughters [a]who prophesied.
10 And as we stayed many days, a certain prophet named [a]Agabus came down from Judea.
11 When he had come to us, he took Paul's belt, bound his own hands and feet, and said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit, [a]'So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man who owns this belt, and deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.' "

20:30 Paul identified two main threats to the church: those who came from without and those who rose up from within.

20:35 This saying of Jesus is not recorded in the Gospels.

21:1 Patara is on the southern coast of Lycia and would have larger vessels that could go straight to Tyre much faster, not having to follow the coastline.

21:2 Paul had celebrated the Passover in Philippi three weeks earlier, so he had less than thirty days to reach Jerusalem to celebrate Pentecost.

21:10 Agabus had also predicted the famine in Judea that prompted the love offering (Acts 11:27–30).

both we and those from that place pleaded with him not to go up to Jerusalem.
13 Then Paul answered, [a]"What do you mean by weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus."

ENCOUNTER Note Acts 21:13

Hope Remains

Faith in God trusts that His will is best, despite circumstances that suggest the contrary. Hope remains even when the comforts in life are taken, for God's love remains. Confidence is strengthened by the knowledge that heaven waits for all who are faithful to the end.

14 So when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, [a]"The will of the Lord be done."

Paul Urged to Make Peace

15 And after those days we [1]packed and went up to Jerusalem.
16 Also some of the disciples from Caesarea went with us and brought with them a certain Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we were to lodge.
17 [a]And when we had come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.
18 On the following day Paul went in with us to [a]James, and all the elders were present.
19 When he had greeted them, [a]he told in detail those things which God had done among the Gentiles [b]through his ministry.
20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord. And they said to him, "You see, brother, how many myriads of Jews there are who have believed, and they are all [a]zealous for the law;
21 "but they have been informed about you that you teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children nor to walk according to the customs.
22 [1]"What then? The assembly must certainly meet, for they will hear that you have come.

25 "But concerning the Gentiles who believe, we have written and decided [1]that they should observe no such thing, except[a] that they should keep themselves from things offered to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from [2]sexual immorality."

Arrested in the Temple

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day, having been purified with them, [a]entered the temple [b]to announce the [1]expiration of the days of purification, at which time an offering should be made for each one of them.
27 Now when the seven days were almost ended, [a]the Jews from Asia, seeing him in the temple, stirred up the whole crowd and [b]laid hands on him,
28 crying out, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man [a]who teaches all men everywhere against the people, the law, and this place; and furthermore he also brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place."
29 (For they had [1]previously seen [a]Trophimus the Ephesian with him in the city, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)
30 And [a]all the city was disturbed; and the people ran together, seized Paul, and dragged him out of the temple; and immediately the doors were shut.
31 Now as they were [a]seeking to kill him, news came to the commander of the [1]garrison that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.
32 [a]He immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them. And when they saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.
33 Then the [a]commander came near and took him, and [b]commanded him to be bound with two chains; and he asked who he was and what he had done.
34 And some among the multitude cried one thing and some another. So when he could not ascertain the truth because of 21:28 Only consecrated priests could enter the temple itself. Jewish men could come as far as the Court of Israel. Outside of that was the Court of Women, and outside of that was the Court of Gentiles where anyone wishing to worship God could come. Paul's enemies accused him of bringing a Gentile beyond the Court of Gentiles. Such an offense was punishable by death.

21:31 This garrison contained between six hundred and one thousand men. It was stationed at the Fortress Antonia on the northwest side of the temple. The commander was Claudius Lysias (Acts 23:26).

the tumult, he commanded him to be taken into the barracks.
35 When he reached the stairs, he had to be carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the mob.
36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying out, [a]"Away with him!"

Addressing the Jerusalem Mob

37 Then as Paul was about to be led into the barracks, he said to the commander, "May I speak to you?" He replied, "Can you speak Greek?
38 [a]"Are you not the Egyptian who some time ago stirred up a rebellion and led the four thousand assassins out into the wilderness?"
39 But Paul said, [a]"I am a Jew from Tarsus, in Cilicia, a citizen of no [1]mean city; and I implore you, permit me to speak to the people."
40 So when he had given him permission, Paul stood on the stairs and [a]motioned with his hand to the people. And when there was a great silence, he spoke to them in the [b]Hebrew language, saying,

22 "Brethren[a] and fathers, hear my defense before you now."
2 And when they heard that he spoke to them in the [a]Hebrew language, they kept all the more silent. Then he said:
3 [a]"I am indeed a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city [b]at the feet of [c]Gamaliel, taught [d]according to the strictness of our fathers' law, and [e]was zealous toward God [f]as you all are today.
4 [a]"I persecuted this Way to the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women,
5 "as also the high priest bears me witness, and [a]all the council of the elders, [b]from whom I also received letters to the brethren, and went to Damascus [c]to bring in chains even those who were there to Jerusalem to be punished.
6 "Now [a]it happened, as I journeyed and came near Damascus at about noon, suddenly a great light from heaven shone around me.
7 "And I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?'
8 "So I answered, 'Who are You, Lord?' And He said to me, 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting.'
9 "And [a]those who were with me indeed saw the light [1]and were afraid, but they did not hear the voice of Him who spoke to me.
10 "So I said, 'What shall I do, Lord?' And the Lord said to me, 'Arise and go into Damascus, and there you will be told all things which are appointed for you to do.'
11 "And since I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of those who were with me, I came into Damascus.
12 "Then [a]a certain Ananias, a devout man according to the law, [b]having a good testimony with all the [c]Jews who dwelt there,
13 "came to me; and he stood and said to me, 'Brother Saul, receive your sight.' And at that same hour I looked up at him.
14 "Then he said, [a]'The God of our fathers [b]has chosen you that you should [c]know His will, and [d]see the Just One, [e]and hear the voice of His mouth.
15 [a]'For you will be His witness to all men of [b]what you have seen and heard.
16 'And now why are you waiting? Arise and be baptized, [a]and wash away your sins, [b]calling on the name of the Lord.'

Amazing Grace

All the terrible things we have done cannot cancel Christ's sacrifice. No matter how wretched our sin, Christ's death has covered it completely. He forgives the repentant sinner, cleanses us of our unrighteousness, and gives us a place in His kingdom.

17 "Now [a]it happened, when I returned to Jerusalem and was praying in the temple, that I was in a trance
18 "and [a]saw Him saying to me, [b]'Make haste and get out of Jerusalem quickly, for they will not receive your testimony concerning Me.'
19 "So I said, 'Lord, [a]they know that in every synagogue I imprisoned and [b]beat those who believe on You.
20 [a]'And when the blood of Your martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by [b]consenting [1]to his death, and guarding the clothes of those who were killing him.'

Paul's Roman Citizenship

22 And they listened to him until this word, and then they raised their voices and said, [a]"Away with such a fellow from the earth, for [b]he is not fit to live!"
23 Then, as they cried out and [1]tore off their clothes and threw dust into the air,
24 the commander ordered him to be brought into the barracks, and said that he should be examined under scourging, so that he might know why they shouted so against him.
25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said to the centurion who stood by, [a]"Is it lawful for you to scourge a man who is a Roman, and uncondemned?"
26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the commander, saying, "Take care what you do, for this man is a Roman."
27 Then the commander came and said to him, "Tell me, are you a Roman?" He said, "Yes."
28 The commander answered, "With a large sum I obtained this citizenship." And Paul said, "But I was born a citizen."
29 Then immediately those who were about to examine him withdrew from him; and the commander was also afraid after he found out that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

The Sanhedrin Divided

30 The next day, because he wanted to know for certain why he was accused by the Jews, he released him from his bonds, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down and set him before them.

23 Then Paul, looking earnestly at the council, said, "Men and brethren, [a]I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day."
2 And the high priest Ananias commanded those who stood by him [a]to strike him on the mouth.
3 Then Paul said to him, "God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! For you sit to judge me according to the law, and [a]do you command me to be struck contrary to the law?"
4 And those who stood by said, "Do you revile God's high priest?"
5 Then Paul said, [a]"I did not know, brethren, that he was the high priest; for it is written, [b]'You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.'"
6 But when Paul perceived that one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, "Men and brethren, [a]I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee; [b]concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am being judged!"
7 And when he had said this, a dissension arose between the Pharisees and the Sadducees; and the assembly was divided.
8 [a]For Sadducees say that there is no resurrection—and no angel or spirit; but the Pharisees confess both.
9 Then there arose a loud outcry. And the scribes of the Pharisees' party arose and protested, saying, [a]"We find no evil in this man; [1]but [b]if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him, [c]let us not fight against God."
10 Now when there arose a great dissension, the commander, fearing lest Paul might be pulled to pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them, and bring him into the barracks.

The Plot Against Paul

11 But [a]the following night the Lord stood by him and said, [1]"Be of good cheer, Paul; for as you have testified for Me in [b]Jerusalem, so you must also bear witness at [c]Rome."

13 Now there were more than forty who had formed this conspiracy.
14 They came to the chief priests and [a]elders, and said, "We have bound ourselves under a great oath that we will eat nothing until we have killed Paul.

22:24 The scourge was a leather whip with pieces of metal or bone inserted in the tips. This terrible punishment often left people crippled, if they survived the flogging. Roman citizens were generally not publicly humiliated in such a manner, and certainly not without first receiving a fair trial.

23:6 Sadducees did not believe in the resurrection of the dead, miracles, or angels. But the Pharisees did believe in these supernatural occurrences, and Paul played upon this division.

15 "Now you, therefore, together with the council, suggest to the commander that he be brought down to you [1]tomorrow, as though you were going to make further inquiries concerning him; but we are ready to kill him before he comes near."
16 So when Paul's sister's son heard of their ambush, he went and entered the barracks and told Paul.
17 Then Paul called one of the centurions to him and said, "Take this young man to the commander, for he has something to tell him."
18 So he took him and brought him to the commander and said, "Paul the prisoner called me to him and asked me to bring this young man to you. He has something to say to you."
19 Then the commander took him by the hand, went aside, and asked privately, "What is it that you have to tell me?"
20 And he said, [a]"The Jews have agreed to ask that you bring Paul down to the council tomorrow, as though they were going to inquire more fully about him.
21 "But do not yield to them, for more than forty of them lie in wait for him, men who have bound themselves by an oath that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him; and now they are ready, waiting for the promise from you."
22 So the commander let the young man depart, and commanded him, "Tell no one that you have revealed these things to me."

Sent to Felix

23 And he called for two centurions, saying, "Prepare two hundred soldiers, seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen to go to [a]Caesarea at the third hour of the night;
24 "and provide mounts to set Paul on, and bring him safely to Felix the governor."
25 He wrote a letter in the following manner:

26 Claudius Lysias,

To the most excellent governor Felix:

Greetings.

27 [a]This man was seized by the Jews and was about to be killed by them. Coming with the troops I rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman.
28 [a]And when I wanted to know the reason they accused him, I brought him before their council.
29 I found out that he was accused [a]concerning questions of their law, [b]but had nothing charged against him deserving of death or chains.
30 And [a]when it was told me that [1]the Jews lay in wait for the man, I sent him immediately to you, and [b]also commanded his accusers to state before you the charges against him.

Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as they were commanded, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris.
32 The next day they left the horsemen to go on with him, and returned to the barracks.
33 When they came to [a]Caesarea and had delivered the [b]letter to the governor, they also presented Paul to him.
34 And when the governor had read it, he asked what province he was from. And when he understood that he was from [a]Cilicia,
35 he said, [a]"I will hear you when your accusers also have come." And he commanded him to be kept in [b]Herod's [1]Praetorium.

Accused of Sedition

24 Now after [a]five days [b]Ananias the high priest came down with the elders and a certain orator named Tertullus. These gave evidence to the governor against Paul.
2 And when he was called upon, Tertullus began his accusation, saying: "Seeing that through you we enjoy great peace, and [1]prosperity is being brought to this nation by your foresight,
3 "we accept it always and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.
4 "Nevertheless, not to be tedious to you any further, I beg you to hear, by your [1]courtesy, a few words from us.
5 [a]"For we have found this man a plague, a creator of dissension among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes.
6 [a]"He even tried to profane the temple,

23:23 Two hundred soldiers, seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen comprised a significant protective force for Paul's transportation to Caesarea. This was almost half the garrison in the fortress.

23:31 Antipatris was a relay station for Roman troops between Samaria and Judea, approximately thirty miles from Jerusalem.

23:34 The governor of Judea was Antonius Felix, who was appointed by Emperor Claudius. He governed from A.D. 52 to 60.

23:35 Herod's palace was once a royal home for Herod the Great, but later it was used as a Roman praetorium. This was where official business of the emperor or his representatives was conducted.

24:2 This was sheer flattery, as the rule of Felix witnessed some of the most violent outbreaks to plague Roman governors until the final destruction of Jerusalem.

and we seized him, [1]and wanted [b]to judge him according to our law.
7 [a]"But the commander Lysias came by and with great violence took him out of our hands,
8 [a]"commanding his accusers to come to you. By examining him yourself you may ascertain all these things of which we accuse him."
9 And the Jews also [1]assented, maintaining that these things were so.

The Defense Before Felix

10 Then Paul, after the governor had nodded to him to speak, answered: "Inasmuch as I know that you have been for many years a judge of this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself, 11 "because you may ascertain that it is no more than twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem [a]to worship.
12 [a]"And they neither found me in the temple disputing with anyone nor inciting the crowd, either in the synagogues or in the city.
13 "Nor can they prove the things of which they now accuse me.
14 "But this I confess to you, that according to [a]the Way which they call a sect, so I worship the [b]God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in [c]the Law and in the Prophets.
15 [a]"I have hope in God, which they themselves also accept, [b]that there will be a resurrection [1]of the dead, both of the just and the unjust.
16 [a]"This being so, I myself always strive to have a conscience without offense toward God and men.

A Clear Conscience

You cannot control what other people think of you, but you can live at peace. No matter what happens to you, you control what happens in you. A clean heart is a repentant heart, one that has found forgiveness from God and has been cleansed. A clear conscience is priceless.

17 "Now after many years [a]I came to bring alms and offerings to my nation, 18 [a]"in the midst of which some Jews from Asia found me [b]purified in the temple, neither with a mob nor with tumult.
19 [a]"They ought to have been here before you to object if they had anything against me.
20 "Or else let those who are here themselves say [1]if they found any wrongdoing in me while I stood before the council,
21 "unless it is for this one statement which I cried out, standing among them, [a]'Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am being judged by you this day.' "

Felix Procrastinates

22 But when Felix heard these things, having more accurate knowledge of the [a]Way, he adjourned the proceedings and said, "When [b]Lysias the commander comes down, I will make a decision on your case."
23 So he commanded the centurion to keep Paul and to let him have liberty, and [a]told him not to forbid any of his friends to provide for or visit him.
24 And after some days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish, he sent for Paul and heard him concerning the [a]faith in Christ.
25 Now as he reasoned about righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix was afraid and answered, "Go away for now; when I have a convenient time I will call for you."
26 Meanwhile he also hoped that [a]money would be given him by Paul, [1]that he might release him. Therefore he sent for him more often and conversed with him.
27 But after two years Porcius Festus succeeded Felix; and Felix, [a]wanting to do the Jews a favor, left Paul bound.

Paul Appeals to Caesar

25 Now when Festus had come to the province, after three days he went up from [a]Caesarea to Jerusalem.
2 [a]Then the [1]high priest and the chief men of the Jews informed him against Paul; and they petitioned him,
3 asking a favor against him, that he would summon him to Jerusalem—[a]while they lay in ambush along the road to kill him.
4 But Festus answered that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself was going there shortly.
5 "Therefore," he said, "let those who have authority among you go down with 24:19 It was an exceedingly weak argument for the prosecution to make charges but neglect to provide supporting witnesses.

24:22 Felix, whose Latin name meant "happy," was the Roman governor and was well acquainted with "the Way," as his wife Drusilla was Jewish (Acts 24:24). Her great-grandfather was Herod the Great (Matt. 2:16). She was also the grandniece of the Herod who had John the Baptist beheaded (Matt. 14:1–12). Her father had James put to death (Acts 12:1, 2).

24:27 Around A.D. 60, Felix suppressed a Jewish uprising so violently that Rome replaced him with Festus.

me and accuse this man, to see [a]if there is any fault in him."
6 And when he had remained among them more than ten days, he went down to Caesarea. And the next day, sitting on the judgment seat, he commanded Paul to be brought.
7 When he had come, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood about [a]and laid many serious complaints against Paul, which they could not prove,
8 while he answered for himself, [a]"Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar have I offended in anything at all."
9 But Festus, [a]wanting to do the Jews a favor, answered Paul and said, [b]"Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and there be judged before me concerning these things?"
10 So Paul said, "I stand at Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged. To the Jews I have done no wrong, as you very well know.
11 [a]"For if I am an offender, or have committed anything deserving of death, I do not object to dying; but if there is nothing in these things of which these men accuse me, no one can deliver me to them. [b]I appeal to Caesar."
12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, "You have appealed to Caesar? To Caesar you shall go!"

Paul Before Agrippa

13 And after some days King Agrippa and Bernice came to Caesarea to greet Festus.
14 When they had been there many days, Festus laid Paul's case before the king, saying: [a]"There is a certain man left a prisoner by Felix,
15 [a]"about whom the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, when I was in Jerusalem, asking for a judgment against him.
16 [a]"To them I answered, 'It is not the custom of the Romans to deliver any man [1]to destruction before the accused meets the accusers face to face, and has opportunity to answer for himself concerning the charge against him.'
17 "Therefore when they had come together, [a]without any delay, the next day I sat on the judgment seat and commanded the man to be brought in.
18 "When the accusers stood up, they brought no accusation against him of such things as I [1]supposed,
19 [a]"but had some questions against him about their own religion and about a certain Jesus, who had died, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.
20 "And because I was uncertain of such questions, I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem and there be judged concerning these matters.
21 "But when Paul [a]appealed to be reserved for the decision of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I could send him to Caesar."
22 Then [a]Agrippa said to Festus, "I also would like to hear the man myself." "Tomorrow," he said, "you shall hear him."
23 So the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great [1]pomp, and had entered the auditorium with the commanders and the prominent men of the city, at Festus' command [a]Paul was brought in.
24 And Festus said: "King Agrippa and all the men who are here present with us, you see this man about whom [a]the whole assembly of the Jews petitioned me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying out that he was [b]not fit to live any longer.
25 "But when I found that [a]he had committed nothing deserving of death, [b]and that he himself had appealed to Augustus, I decided to send him.
26 "I have nothing certain to write to my lord concerning him. Therefore I have brought him out before you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after the examination has taken place I may have something to write.
27 "For it seems to me unreasonable to send a prisoner and not to specify the charges against him."

Paul's Early Life

26 Then Agrippa said to Paul, "You are permitted to speak for yourself." So Paul stretched out his hand and answered for himself:

CHAPTER 26

2 [a][1 Pet. 3:14; 4:14]

25:11 An appeal to Caesar was the right of Roman citizens if they felt they had been unfairly treated. Nero had become Caesar by this time.

25:13 King Agrippa was the great-grandson of Herod the Great. He was born in A.D. 27 and grew up in Rome. He did not rule Judea, Samaria, or Galilee, but small, primarily Gentile, territories, including the region around Caesarea Philippi. Bernice was Agrippa's sister. She lived an immoral lifestyle, eventually consorting with Vespasian's son, Titus, who succeeded him as Caesar in A.D. 79.

because today I shall answer [b]for myself before you concerning all the things of which I am [c]accused by the Jews, 3 "especially because you are expert in all customs and questions which have to do with the Jews. Therefore I beg you to hear me patiently.
4 "My manner of life from my youth, which was spent from the beginning among my own nation at Jerusalem, all the Jews know.
5 "They knew me from the first, if they were willing to testify, that according to [a]the strictest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee.
6 [a]"And now I stand and am judged for the hope of [b]the promise made by God to our fathers.
7 "To this promise [a]our twelve tribes, earnestly serving God [b]night and day, [c]hope to attain. For this hope's sake, King Agrippa, I am accused by the Jews.
8 "Why should it be thought incredible by you that God raises the dead?
9 [a]"Indeed, I myself thought I must do many things [1]contrary to the name of [b]Jesus of Nazareth.
10 [a]"This I also did in Jerusalem, and many of the saints I shut up in prison, having received authority [b]from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I cast my vote against them.
11 [a]"And I punished them often in every synagogue and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly enraged against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.

Paul Recounts His Conversion

12 [a]"While thus occupied, as I journeyed to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, 13 "at midday, O king, along the road I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those who journeyed with me.
14 "And when we all had fallen to the ground, I heard a voice speaking to me and saying in the Hebrew language, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'
15 "So I said, 'Who are You, Lord?' And He said, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.
16 'But rise and stand on your feet; for I have appeared to you for this purpose, [a]to make you a minister and a witness both of the things which you have seen and of the things which I will yet reveal to you.
17 'I will [1]deliver you from the Jewish people, as well as from the Gentiles, [a]to whom I [2]now send you,
18 [a]'to open their eyes, in order [b]to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, [c]that they may receive forgiveness of sins and [d]an inheritance among those who are [e]sanctified[1] by faith in Me.'

Paul's Post-Conversion Life

19 "Therefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, 20 "but [a]declared first to those in Damascus and in Jerusalem, and throughout all the region of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent, turn to God, and do [b]works befitting repentance.
21 "For these reasons the Jews seized me in the temple and tried to kill me.
22 "Therefore, having obtained help from God, to this day I stand, witnessing both to small and great, saying no other things than those [a]which the prophets and [b]Moses said would come—
23 [a]"that the Christ would suffer, [b]that He would be the first to rise from the dead, and [c]would proclaim light to the Jewish people and to the Gentiles."

Agrippa Parries Paul's Challenge

24 Now as he thus made his defense, Festus said with a loud voice, "Paul, [a]you are beside yourself! Much learning is driving you mad!"
25 But he said, "I am not [1]mad, most noble Festus, but speak the words of truth and reason.
26 "For the king, before whom I also speak freely, [a]knows these things; for I am convinced that none of these things escapes his attention, since this thing was not done in a corner.
27 "King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you do believe."
28 Then Agrippa said to Paul, "You almost persuade me to become a Christian."
29 And Paul said, [a]"I would to God that not only you, but also all who hear me today, might become both almost and altogether such as I am, except for these chains."
30 When he had said these things, the king stood up, as well as the governor and Bernice and those who sat with them;

26:10 Some suggest that Paul "cast his vote" against Christians as a member of the Sanhedrin. However, he probably would not have been old enough at that time. More likely he refers to himself as the Sanhedrin's henchman, or chief prosecutor.

26:14 To "kick against the goads" was an expression derived from training young oxen for the yoke. Goads were sharp objects or spikes placed near the oxen's feet or on a long stick held by the plowman. When they kicked, trying to free themselves from the burden, they would be cut and soon learned to stop resisting the yoke. The phrase came to mean "useless resistance."

ENCOUNTER Note Acts 26:28

Almost Persuaded

People may acknowledge Christ's birth, death, and resurrection. They may even believe God sent Him, and that He will come again. But salvation does not come through information. It requires repentance, faith, and submission to Christ as Lord. Being close to salvation means you are still lost.

31 and when they had gone aside, they talked among themselves, saying, [a]"This man is doing nothing deserving of death or chains."
32 Then Agrippa said to Festus, "This man might have been set [a]free [b]if he had not appealed to Caesar."

The Voyage to Rome Begins

27 And when [a]it was decided that we should sail to Italy, they delivered Paul and some other prisoners to one named Julius, a centurion of the Augustan Regiment.
2 So, entering a ship of Adramyttium, we put to sea, meaning to sail along the coasts of Asia. [a]Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, was with us.
3 And the next day we landed at Sidon. And Julius [a]treated Paul kindly and gave him liberty to go to his friends and receive care.
4 When we had put to sea from there, we sailed under the shelter of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.
5 And when we had sailed over the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.
6 There the centurion found [a]an Alexandrian ship sailing to Italy, and he put us on board.
7 When we had sailed slowly many days, and arrived with difficulty off Cnidus, the wind not permitting us to proceed, we sailed under the shelter of [a]Crete off Salmone.
8 Passing it with difficulty, we came to a place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.

Paul's Warning Ignored

9 Now when much time had been spent, and sailing was now dangerous [a]because [1]the Fast was already over, Paul advised them,
10 saying, "Men, I perceive that this voyage will end with disaster and much loss, not only of the cargo and ship, but also our lives."
11 Nevertheless the centurion was more persuaded by the helmsman and the owner of the ship than by the things spoken by Paul.
12 And because the harbor was not suitable to winter in, the majority advised to set sail from there also, if by any means they could reach Phoenix, a harbor of Crete opening toward the southwest and northwest, and winter there.

In the Tempest

13 When the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their desire, putting out to sea, they sailed close by Crete.
14 But not long after, a tempestuous head wind arose, called [1]Euroclydon.
15 So when the ship was caught, and could not head into the wind, we let her [1]drive.
16 And running under the shelter of an island called [1]Clauda, we secured the skiff with difficulty.
17 When they had taken it on board, they used cables to undergird the ship; and fearing lest they should run aground on the [1]Syrtis Sands, they struck sail and so were driven.
18 And because we were exceedingly tempest-tossed, the next day they lightened the ship.
19 On the third day [a]we threw the ship's tackle overboard with our own hands.
20 Now when neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small tempest beat on us, all hope that we would be saved was finally given up.
21 But after long abstinence from food, then Paul stood in the midst of them and said, "Men, you should have listened to me, and not have sailed from Crete and incurred this disaster and loss.
22 "And now I urge you to take [1]heart, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship.
23 [a]"For there stood by me this night an angel of the God to whom I belong and [b]whom I serve,
24 "saying, 'Do not be afraid, Paul; you must be brought before Caesar; and indeed God has granted you all those who sail with you.'
25 "Therefore take heart, men, [a]for I believe God that it will be just as it was told me.
26 "However, [a]we must run aground on a certain island."
27 Now when the fourteenth night had come, as we were driven up and down in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors sensed that they were drawing near some land.
28 And they took soundings and found it to be twenty fathoms; and when they had gone a little farther, they took soundings again and found it to be fifteen fathoms.
29 Then, fearing lest we should run aground on the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern, and [1]prayed for day to come.
30 And as the sailors were seeking to escape from the ship, when they had let down the skiff into the sea, under pretense of putting out anchors from the prow,
31 Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, "Unless these men stay in the ship, you cannot be saved."
32 Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the skiff and let it fall off.
33 And as day was about to dawn, Paul implored them all to take food, saying, "Today is the fourteenth day you have waited and continued without food, and eaten nothing.
34 "Therefore I urge you to take nourishment, for this is for your survival, [a]since not a hair will fall from the head of any of you."
35 And when he had said these things, he took bread and [a]gave thanks to God in the presence of them all; and when he had broken it he began to eat.
36 Then they were all encouraged, and also took food themselves.
37 And in all we were two hundred and seventy-six [a]persons on the ship.
38 So when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship and threw out the wheat into the sea.

Shipwrecked on Malta

39 When it was day, they did not recognize the land; but they observed a bay with a beach, onto which they planned to run the ship if possible.
40 And they [1]let go the anchors and left them in the sea, meanwhile loosing the rudder ropes; and they hoisted the mainsail to the wind and made for shore.
41 But striking [1]a place where two seas met, [a]they ran the ship aground; and the prow stuck fast and remained immov-

Take Heart

Hope for the Christian is confident expectation that God will accomplish every promise He has made. Hope looks to the future and gives courage to remain faithful in the present. Look to God, and He will give you a new point of view.

27:14 A euroclydon was a strong northeasterly storm.
27:17 The Syrtis Islands were just off the northern coast of Africa.
27:18 The word translated "tempest-tossed" is from the same root as the word "typhoon."

able, but the stern was being broken up by the violence of the waves.
42 And the soldiers' plan was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim away and escape.
43 But the centurion, wanting to save Paul, kept them from their purpose, and commanded that those who could swim should jump overboard first and get to land, 44 and the rest, some on boards and some on parts of the ship. And so it was [a]that they all escaped safely to land.

Paul's Ministry on Malta

28 Now when they had escaped, they then found out that [a]the island was called Malta.
2 And the [a]natives[1] showed us unusual kindness; for they kindled a fire and made us all welcome, because of the rain that was falling and because of the cold.
3 But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat, and fastened on his hand.
4 So when the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said to one another, "No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he has escaped the sea, yet justice does not allow to live."
5 But he shook off the creature into the fire and [a]suffered no harm.
6 However, they were expecting that he would swell up or suddenly fall down dead. But after they had looked for a long time and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds and [a]said that he was a god.
7 In that region there was an estate of the [1]leading citizen of the island, whose name was Publius, who received us and entertained us courteously for three days.
8 And it happened that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and dysentery. Paul went in to him and [a]prayed, and [b]he laid his hands on him and healed him.
9 So when this was done, the rest of those on the island who had diseases also came and were healed.
10 They also honored us in many [a]ways; and when we departed, they provided such things as were [b]necessary.

Arrival at Rome

11 After three months we sailed in [a]an Alexandrian ship whose figurehead was the [1]Twin Brothers, which had wintered at the island.
12 And landing at Syracuse, we stayed three days.
13 From there we circled round and reached Rhegium. And after one day the south wind blew; and the next day we came to Puteoli,
14 where we found [a]brethren, and were invited to stay with them seven days. And so we went toward Rome.
15 And from there, when the brethren heard about us, they came to meet us as far as Appii Forum and Three Inns. When Paul saw them, he thanked God and took courage.
16 Now when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard; but [a]Paul was permitted to dwell by himself with the soldier who guarded him.

Paul's Ministry at Rome

17 And it came to pass after three days that Paul called the leaders of the Jews together. So when they had come together, he said to them: "Men and brethren, [a]though I have done nothing against our people or the customs of our fathers, yet [b]I was delivered as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans, 18 "who, [a]when they had examined me, wanted to let me go, because there was no cause for putting me to death.
19 "But when the [1]Jews spoke against it, [a]I was compelled to appeal to Caesar, not that I had anything of which to accuse my nation.
20 "For this reason therefore I have called for you, to see you and speak with you, because [a]for the hope of Israel I am bound with [b]this chain."
21 Then they said to him, "We neither received letters from Judea concerning you, nor have any of the brethren who came reported or spoken any evil of you.
22 "But we desire to hear from you what you think; for concerning this sect, we know that [a]it is spoken against everywhere."
23 So when they had appointed him a day, many came to him at his lodging, [a]to whom he explained and solemnly testified of the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus [b]from both the Law of Moses and the Prophets, from morning till evening.

27:42 The soldiers planned to kill the prisoners because Roman military law stated that a guard's life was taken in exchange for that of an escaped prisoner.

28:2 The word translated "natives" literally means "barbarians," and was a term used by the Greeks for all non-Greek-speaking people.

28:8 The fever was probably the Malta fever, which was common on many Mediterranean islands. It has been traced to a microorganism in the milk of the Maltese goats. It could last from four months to three years.

28:11 The "Twin Brothers" were the sons of Zeus, Castor and Pollux. They were mythical figures thought to be protectors on the sea.

ENCOUNTER Note Acts 28:23

Faithful to the End

One of the greatest characteristics in a servant of God is faithfulness. Do not waver or turn back from your calling. Do not grow weary in proclaiming the kingdom of God. As long as you have breath, speak the name of God.

24 And [a]some were persuaded by the things which were spoken, and some disbelieved.
25 So when they did not agree among themselves, they departed after Paul had said one word: "The Holy Spirit spoke rightly through Isaiah the prophet to [1]our fathers,
26 "saying,

[a] 'Go to this people and say:
"Hearing you will hear, and shall not understand;
And seeing you will see, and not perceive;
27 For the hearts of this people have grown dull.
Their ears are hard of hearing,
And their eyes they have closed,
Lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears,
Lest they should understand with their hearts and turn,
So that I should heal them."'

28 "Therefore let it be known to you that the salvation of God has been sent [a]to the Gentiles, and they will hear it!"
29 [1]And when he had said these words, the Jews departed and had a great dispute among themselves.
30 Then Paul dwelt two whole years in his own rented house, and received all who came to him,
31 [a]preaching the kingdom of God and teaching the things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ with all confidence, no one forbidding him.

28:31 The Book of Acts ends without revealing Paul's fate. There are some indications in Paul's writings that he expected to be released (Phil. 1:25; Philem. 22). Tradition suggests he was released and continued his missionary travels until finally being martyred under the emperor Nero.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE

ROMANS

INTRODUCTION

The Book of Romans is considered by many to be the greatest letter ever written. The apostle Paul wrote it in preparation for his upcoming visit to the church in Rome. He had never been to this great city or visited the church, he knew the godly reputation of the Roman Christians. The origin of the church is uncertain, but it was a vibrant and growing congregation. Paul dictated the letter to a secretary named Tertius (16:22) just before he returned to Jerusalem to deliver a relief offering from the Gentile churches (15:25–29). This mission would not only delay his travel plans to Rome, but also put his life in danger as he had many enemies in Jerusalem. He probably wrote the letter from Corinth around A.D. 55–56 while on his third missionary journey. God's grace is emphasized throughout the letter. It was a familiar and dear theme to Paul in light of his own conversion and life transformation. This epistle reflects the writer, a mature and seasoned apostle, shaped by the Holy Spirit through many challenging years of ministry among the churches. His thorough understanding of the Old Testament and contemporary Jewish issues provided a strong foundation upon which to build his message to the Gentiles.

SIGNIFICANCE

Paul's writing was usually focused upon some occasion or issue. Romans, however, is much different than his other letters. Its content is thoroughly oriented toward teaching. Paul wants the church to be well established in their faith, so he delivers a detailed and systematic presentation of the gospel. We therefore have some of the richest doctrine on the nature of salvation in the Bible. After illustrating that Jews and Gentiles alike are sinners in need of salvation, he describes salvation by grace, through faith. He argues that Christianity, though rooted in Judaism, is universal in application. He makes great efforts to explain the relationship between the Jews of the old covenant and God's plan to redeem all humanity. But salvation is only the beginning of the Christian faith. Paul's message is also one of death to sin, freedom in Christ, and new life. All of this is possible by our union with Christ who died and rose again. Paul's declaration is of profound importance to Christians who await Christ's return in a fallen world. We have victory in this life as we die to self and Christ lives in us.

STRUCTURE

Although it was a letter to a church, Romans reads more like a theological essay covering several important issues. A widespread use of the Old Testament scriptures and a deep interest in the role of Judaism pervades this letter. The book in general is divided into two distinct sections. After a greeting and description of his travel plans (1:1–15), Paul launches into a theological discourse on salvation and God's righteousness (1:16—11:36). Beginning with a survey of mankind's spiritual need, the devastating effects of sin, and the justified wrath of God, Paul lays the foundation. He then systematically covers several important theological themes: sin and righteousness, faith and works, justification and election, sanctification and the Holy Spirit. He also deals with the nation of Israel and the destiny of God's people. The second section builds upon the first; it is the application of salvation (12:1—16:27). Although salvation, the event, is completely dependent upon God, Christians must work out their salvation practically through their lives. This is done in the church through spiritual gifts, in society through Christian behavior, toward government through submission, and among other believers through the law of love. Romans can be outlined as follows:

Introduction (1:1–15)
Accepting the Righteousness of God
Righteousness Needed (1:16—3:20)
Righteousness Imputed (3:21—5:21)
Righteousness Accomplished (6:1—8:39)
Righteousness Vindicated (9:1—11:36)
Living the Righteousness of God
In the Church (12:1–21)
In the World (13:1–14)
Among Believers (14:1—15:13)
Conclusion (15:14—16:27)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH ROMANS

Paul's letter to the Romans communicates God's truth in a clear, pragmatic style. Prepare for God to encounter your life as you discover the depth of God's grace. If you struggle with faith, this book will challenge you in this crucial aspect of salvation. Everyone is tempted to sin, yet Romans carries the promise of freedom from unrighteousness. Paul does not challenge us to act right, but to be right. Watch for the crucial role of the indwelling Spirit as God's solution to our struggle to be righteous before Him. Paul's words present a fresh understanding of God's love. You will be challenged to lay your life down as a living sacrifice. You will be urged to go and tell the gospel to a world that is without hope; and Paul will exhort you to live out your faith in practical and often difficult situations.

Greeting

PAUL, a bondservant of Jesus Christ, [a]called to be an apostle, [b]separated to the gospel of God
2 [a]which He promised before [b]through His prophets in the Holy Scriptures,
3 concerning His Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who [1]was [a]born of the seed of David according to the flesh,
4 and [a]declared to be the Son of God with power according [b]to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead.
5 Through Him [a]we have received grace and apostleship for [b]obedience to the faith among all nations [c]for His name,
6 among whom you also are the called of Jesus Christ;

7 To all who are in Rome, beloved of God, [a]called to be saints:

[b]Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Desire to Visit Rome

8 First, [a]I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that [b]your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.
9 For [a]God is my witness, [b]whom I serve [1]with my spirit in the gospel of His Son, that [c]without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers,
10 making request if, by some means, now at last I may find a way in the will of God to come to you.

11 For I long to see you, that [a]I may impart to you some spiritual gift, so that you may be established—
12 that is, that I may be encouraged together with you by [a]the mutual faith both of you and me.
13 Now I do not want you to be unaware, brethren, that I often planned to come to you (but [a]was hindered until now), that I might have some [b]fruit among you also, just as among the other Gentiles.
14 I am a debtor both to Greeks and to barbarians, both to wise and to unwise.
15 So, as much as is in me, I am ready to preach the gospel to you who are in Rome also.

The Just Live by Faith

16 For [a]I am not ashamed of the gospel [1]of Christ, for [b]it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes, [c]for the Jew first and also for the Greek.
17 For [a]in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is written, [b]"The just shall live by faith."

God's Wrath on Unrighteousness

18 [a]For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and [b]unrighteousness of men, who [1]suppress the truth in unrighteousness,
19 because [a]what may be known of God is [1]manifest [2]in them, for [b]God has shown it to them.
20 For since the creation of the world

1:1 A bondservant was a slave who served willingly and not out of forced obligation. To be a slave of Christ is the result of calling Christ Lord (Gal. 1:10; Phil. 1:1; Titus 1:1).

1:14 Greeks are those who spoke Greek or followed the Greek way of life. Barbarians were any people who were not Greeks.

1:16 Power and gospel are often linked together by Paul (Rom. 15:19; 1 Cor. 1:18, 24; 2:5).

[a]His invisible attributes are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and [1]Godhead, so that they are without excuse,
21 because, although they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God, nor were thankful, but [a]became futile in their thoughts, and their foolish hearts were darkened.
22 [a]Professing to be wise, they became fools,
23 and changed the glory of the [a]incorruptible [b]God into an image made like [1]corruptible man—and birds and fourfooted animals and creeping things.
24 [a]Therefore God also gave them up to uncleanness, in the lusts of their hearts, [b]to dishonor their bodies [c]among themselves,
25 who exchanged [a]the truth of God [b]for the lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.
26 For this reason God gave them up to [a]vile passions. For even their [1]women exchanged the natural use for what is against nature.
27 Likewise also the [1]men, leaving the natural use of the [2]woman, burned in their lust for one another, [1]men with [1]men committing what is shameful, and receiving in themselves the penalty of their error which was due.
28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a debased mind, to do those things [a]which are not fitting;
29 being filled with all unrighteousness, [1]sexual immorality, wickedness, [2]covetousness, [3]maliciousness; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, evil-mindedness; they are whisperers,
30 backbiters, haters of God, violent, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,
31 [1]undiscerning, untrustworthy, unloving, [2]unforgiving, unmerciful;
32 who, [a]knowing the righteous judgment of God, that those who practice such things [b]are deserving of death, not only do the same but also [c]approve of those who practice them.

When God Gives Us Over

God's most devastating response to our sin is to give us over to it—to let the sin we have chosen have us. To know God and still reject Him is inconceivable; yet sin blinds us and causes us to stumble toward destruction. To get what we deserve is fair; to receive help from the One we have offended is grace.

God's Righteous Judgment

2 Therefore you are [a]inexcusable, O man, whoever you are who judge, [b]for in whatever you judge another you condemn yourself; for you who judge practice the same things.
2 But we know that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who practice such things.
3 And do you think this, O man, you who judge those practicing such things, and doing the same, that you will escape the judgment of God?
4 Or do you despise [a]the riches of His goodness, [b]forbearance, and [c]longsuffering, [d]not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance?
5 But in accordance with your hardness and your [1]impenitent heart [a]you are

MARTIN LUTHER

Rom. 1:17

Martin Luther was preparing himself to become a lawyer when, in 1505, at age twenty-one, he had a life changing experience when he was almost struck by lightning. After this near brush with death he vowed to become a monk. Luther was extremely devout, spending many hours in prayer and fasting as well as physically punishing himself in efforts to gain mastery over his body. Yet despite his valiant, misguided efforts, Luther could not gain peace with God. He had read in Romans 1:17 that the righteous shall live by faith. Yet he knew himself to be far from righteous. He feared he could never be holy enough to please a perfect God. He finally began meditating day and night, seeking to understand this passage. Then suddenly God revealed the simple, profound truth to Luther that righteousness came through faith in Christ. Joy and peace flooded Luther's soul. Luther began sharing his newfound discovery with others despite violent protests against him. The Protestant Reformation exploded across Europe, bringing millions of people to faith in Christ.

1:32 This is the most extensive list of sins in the Bible (Mark 7:21, 22; Gal. 5:19–21; 2 Tim. 3:2–5). Whereas society rationalizes the severity of different sins, God judges them all.

2:5 The "day of wrath" refers to God's final judgment at the end of time, in contrast to God's remedial judgment while we remain on earth and have the opportunity to repent.

[2]treasuring up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God,
6 who [a]"will render to each one according to his deeds":
7 eternal life to those who by patient continuance in doing good seek for glory, honor, and immortality;
8 but to those who are self-seeking and [a]do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness—indignation and wrath,
9 tribulation and anguish, on every soul of man who does evil, of the Jew [a]first and also of the [1]Greek;
10 [a]but glory, honor, and peace to everyone who works what is good, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.
11 For [a]there is no partiality with God.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Rom. 2:11

On Level Ground

We live in a world that categorizes us according to class, race, wealth, intelligence, and abilities. But these divisions are arbitrary and irrelevant to God. He judges each one of us according to the way we respond to Him. Salvation is available to anyone, but we must know Him to receive it.

12 For as many as have sinned without law will also perish without law, and as many as have sinned in the law will be judged by the law
13 (for [a]not the hearers of the law are just in the sight of God, but the doers of the law will be justified;
14 for when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do the things in the law, these, although not having the law, are a law to themselves,
15 who show the [a]work of the law written in their hearts, their [b]conscience also bearing witness, and between themselves their thoughts accusing or else excusing them)
16 [a]in the day when God will judge the secrets of men [b]by Jesus Christ, [c]according to my gospel.

The Jews Guilty as the Gentiles

17 [1]Indeed [a]you are called a Jew, and [b]rest[2] on the law, [c]and make your boast in God,
18 and [a]know His will, and [b]approve the things that are excellent, being instructed out of the law,
19 and [a]are confident that you yourself are a guide to the blind, a light to those who are in darkness,
20 an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, [a]having the form of knowledge and truth in the law.
21 [a]You, therefore, who teach another, do you not teach yourself? You who preach that a man should not steal, do you steal?
22 You who say, "Do not commit adultery," do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, [a]do you rob temples?
23 You who [a]make your boast in the law, do you dishonor God through breaking the law?
24 For [a]"the name of God is [b]blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you," as it is written.

Circumcision of No Avail

25 [a]For circumcision is indeed profitable if you keep the law; but if you are a breaker of the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision.
26 Therefore, [a]if an uncircumcised man keeps the righteous requirements of the law, will not his uncircumcision be counted as circumcision?
27 And will not the physically uncircumcised, if he fulfills the law, [a]judge you who, even with your [1]written code and circumcision, are a transgressor of the law?
28 For [a]he is not a Jew who is one outwardly, nor is circumcision that which is outward in the flesh;
29 but he is a Jew [a]who is one inwardly; and [b]circumcision is that of the heart, [c]in the Spirit, not in the letter; [d]whose [1]praise is not from men but from God.

God's Judgment Defended

3 What advantage then has the Jew, or what is the profit of circumcision?
2 Much in every way! Chiefly because [a]to them were committed the [1]oracles of God.
3 For what if [a]some did not believe? [b]Will their unbelief make the faithfulness of God without effect?
4 [a]Certainly not! Indeed, let [b]God be [1]true but [c]every man a liar. As it is written:

[d]"That You may be justified in Your words,
And may overcome when You are judged."

2:16 The "secrets of men" are our thoughts and intentions. God sees more than our actions; He also judges what is in our heart.

2:28 Paul aligns with Old Testament teaching that physical circumcision was an outward expression of that which is inward and real (Deut. 10:16; Jer. 4:4). Since Pentecost, regeneration by the Spirit is the true sign of salvation.

3:2 "Oracles of God" refers to the Old Testament.

5 But if our unrighteousness demonstrates the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unjust who inflicts wrath? [a](I speak as a man.)
6 Certainly not! For then [a]how will God judge the world?
7 For if the truth of God has increased through my lie to His glory, why am I also still judged as a sinner?
8 And why not say, [a]"Let us do evil that good may come"?—as we are slanderously reported and as some affirm that we say. Their [1]condemnation is just.

All Have Sinned

9 What then? Are we better than they? Not at all. For we have previously charged both Jews and Greeks that [a]they are all under sin.
10 As it is written:

[a]"There is none righteous, no, not one;
11 There is none who understands;
There is none who seeks after God.

Qualified for Salvation

Since every person is under the penalty of sin, we are all on equal footing to receive God's gift of grace. While some humbly accept it, others arrogantly reject it. Only when we become desperate and poor of heart can we receive the riches of salvation.

ROBERT MOFFAT

Rom. 3:22

Robert Moffat was born into a devout Christian home in Scotland in 1795. Just before he turned eighteen, he took a job as a gardener at High Leigh in Cheshire, England. His devoted Christian mother made her unbelieving son promise he would read one chapter of the Bible every morning and another chapter each evening. One evening as he read Romans 3:22–26, Moffat's spiritual understanding was suddenly enlightened. Through the text he recognized the truth of universal condemnation, propitiation, and justification, and he was converted. Moffat would later respond to God's call to go as a missionary to South Africa, where he would minister to the Bechwana tribes along the Kuruman River. For the next thirty years, Robert and his wife Mary ministered to the people while Robert translated the Bible into the Bechwana language. The Moffats' story greatly inspired others to commit their lives to missions in Africa, among them the famous David Livingstone.

3:20 The word "justified" is a legal term meaning "declared righteous." No one is declared righteous by the law, for its purpose was to expose sin, not to take it away. Instead, we are justified by faith in Christ, who satisfied the requirements of the law.

WORD Study — PROPITIATION

Rom. 3:25 Propitiation comes from the Greek word, hilasmos, and refers to an atoning sacrifice. The term was originally used by the Greeks to mean an appeasement of the gods. It was something a person did to earn a god's favor. This application is never used in the Bible. Instead, it is God who makes things right with people. It is His own work of grace that satisfies His righteousness. Christ, the sacrificial Lamb, provided full payment for our sin (1 John 2:2; 4:10).

Boasting Excluded

27 [a]Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? Of works? No, but by the law of faith.
28 Therefore we conclude [a]that a man is [1]justified by faith apart from the deeds of the law.
29 Or is He the God of the Jews only? Is He not also the God of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also,
30 since [a]there is one God who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith.
31 Do we then make void the law through faith? Certainly not! On the contrary, we establish the law.

Abraham Justified by Faith

4 What then shall we say that [a]Abraham our [b]father[1] has found according to the flesh?
2 For if Abraham was [a]justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God.
3 For what does the Scripture say? [a]"Abraham believed God, and it was [1]accounted to him for righteousness."
4 Now [a]to him who works, the wages are not counted [1]as grace but as debt.

David Celebrates the Same Truth

5 But to him who [a]does not work but believes on Him who justifies [b]the ungodly, his faith is accounted for righteousness,
6 just as David also [a]describes the blessedness of the man to whom God imputes righteousness apart from works:

7 "Blessed[a] are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven,
And whose sins are covered;
8 Blessed is the man to whom the LORD shall not impute sin."

Abraham Justified Before Circumcision

9 Does this blessedness then come upon the circumcised only, or upon the uncircumcised also? For we say that faith was accounted to Abraham for righteousness.
10 How then was it accounted? While he was circumcised, or uncircumcised? Not while circumcised, but while uncircumcised.
11 And [a]he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while still uncircumcised, that [b]he might be the father of all those who believe, though they are uncircumcised, that righteousness might be imputed to them also,
12 and the father of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of the faith which our father [a]Abraham had while still uncircumcised.

The Promise Granted Through Faith

13 For the promise that he would be the [a]heir of the world was not to Abraham or to his seed through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.
14 For [a]if those who are of the law are heirs, faith is made void and the promise made of no effect,
15 because [a]the law brings about wrath; for where there is no law there is no transgression.
16 Therefore it is of faith that it might be [a]according to grace, [b]so that the promise might be [1]sure to all the seed, not only to those who are of the law, but also to those who are of the faith of Abraham, [c]who is the father of us all
17 (as it is written, [a]"I have made you a father of many nations") in the presence of Him whom he believed—God, [b]who gives life to the dead and calls those [c]things which do not exist as though they did;
18 who, contrary to hope, in hope believed, so that he became the father of many nations, according to what was

3:30 Paul's reference to only one God anchors his argument to the first article of Jewish faith, monotheism (Deut. 6:4). If there is only one God, Jews and Gentiles alike must come to Him, and there is no need for boasting.

4:1 Abraham was the great patriarch of the Jews, held up as one who was truly justified before God. Paul used him as the chief illustration of justification by faith (Gal. 3:6–9; Heb. 11:8–10, 17–19).

4:9 Abraham's faith made him righteous fourteen years before he was circumcised (Gen. 15:6; 17:24).

4:15 The word translated transgression literally means "stepping over a clearly defined line."

4:17 The reference "giving life to the dead" refers to Isaac's birth to Abraham and Sarah at an age well beyond the usual childbearing years (Gen. 21:1–7).

spoken, [a]"So shall your descendants be."
19 And not being weak in faith, [a]he did not consider his own body, already dead (since he was about a hundred years old), [b]and the deadness of Sarah's womb.
20 He did not waver at the promise of God through unbelief, but was strengthened in faith, giving glory to God,

ENCOUNTER*Note* Rom. 4:20

The Wisdom of Faith

The strongest evidence of a relationship with God is faith. Only those who know God will trust Him. If you struggle in the area of faith, spend more time getting to know God. Faith applies the knowledge from a personal relationship with God to the practical details of life; it is the heart of experiencing God.

21 and being fully convinced that what He had promised [a]He was also able to perform.
22 And therefore [a]"it was accounted to him for righteousness."
23 Now [a]it was not written for his sake alone that it was imputed to him,
24 but also for us. It shall be imputed to us who believe [a]in Him who raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead,
25 [a]who was delivered up because of our offenses, and [b]was raised because of our justification.

Faith Triumphs in Trouble

5 Therefore, [a]having been justified by faith, [1]we have [b]peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ,
2 [a]through whom also we have access by faith into this grace [b]in which we stand, and [c]rejoice in hope of the glory of God.
3 And not only that, but [a]we also glory in tribulations, [b]knowing that tribulation produces [1]perseverance;
4 [a]and perseverance, [1]character; and character, hope.
5 [a]Now hope does not disappoint, [b]because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who was given to us.

WORD*Study* FAITH

Rom. 5:1 The Greek word pistis, translated "faith," means "trust" or "confidence" with the nuance of obedience. Faith is belief in action, responding to that in which you have put your confidence. In the Bible, faith is belief in and commitment to God. It produces obedience to His word no matter what the circumstances. Faith alone pleases God (Heb. 11:6), and anything we do outside of faith in God is sin (14:23). Faith in Christ is necessary for salvation (3:28; 5:1; 9:30–32), believing that His death and resurrection covered our sin and gave us access to a holy God. Inherent in that belief is repentance from sin and the willful decision to follow Christ as Lord.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Rom. 5:6

Life and Death

In God's eyes, death is something beyond the mere termination of physical life. Spiritual death is utter darkness and absolute abandonment. The hopelessness of the soul without hope is "the wages of sin." All sinners were destined to die, but God intervened and sent His Son to die for the ungodly. Christians are now alive by faith, and will never spiritually die.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die; yet perhaps for a good man someone would even dare to die.
8 But [a]God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.
9 Much more then, having now been justified [a]by His blood, we shall be saved [b]from wrath through Him.
10 For [a]if when we were enemies [b]we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved [c]by His life.
11 And not only that, but we also [a]rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.

Death in Adam, Life in Christ

12 Therefore, just as [a]through one man sin entered the world, and [b]death

5:1 Peace with God is not an emotion but a position before Him. It is to be in a state of peace, not animosity as an enemy of God.

5:12 Paul's point that all have sinned is not that every person has committed at least one sin in life (as in 3:23), but that all are born in sin because we inherit Adam's sinful nature (Ps. 51:5; 58:3; 1 Cor. 15:21; Eph. 2:3). We did not stand a chance of living a life without sin.

through sin, and thus death spread to all men, because all sinned—13 (For until the law sin was in the world, but [a]sin is not imputed when there is no law.
14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who had not sinned according to the likeness of the transgression of Adam, [a]who is a type of Him who was to come.
15 But the free gift is not like the [1]offense. For if by the one man's offense many died, much more the grace of God and the gift by the grace of the one Man, Jesus Christ, abounded [a]to many.
16 And the gift is not like that which came through the one who sinned. For the judgment which came from one offense resulted in condemnation, but the free gift which came from many [1]offenses resulted in justification.
17 For if by the one man's [1]offense death reigned through the one, much more those who receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness will reign in life through the One, Jesus Christ.)
18 Therefore, as through [1]one man's offense judgment came to all men, resulting in condemnation, even so through [a]one[2] Man's righteous act the free gift came [b]to all men, resulting in justification of life.

19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so also by [a]one Man's obedience many will be made righteous.
20 Moreover [a]the law entered that the offense might abound. But where sin abounded, grace [b]abounded much more,
21 so that as sin reigned in death, even so grace might reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Dead to Sin, Alive to God

6 What shall we say then? [a]Shall we continue in sin that grace may abound?
2 Certainly not! How shall we who [a]died to sin live any longer in it?
3 Or do you not know that [a]as many of us as were baptized into Christ Jesus [b]were baptized into His death?

HISTORICAL*Encounter* — EVAN ROBERTS — Rom. 5:8

Evan Roberts was born on June 8, 1878 in Wales, the ninth of fourteen children. As a young man he often prayed for revival and the filling of the Holy Spirit. Roberts began sensing God wanted to use his life in some way to bring revival to his beloved Wales. He enrolled in a preparatory school with a view to going to college. Two weeks after enrolling, on October 29, 1904, Roberts accompanied evangelist Seth Joshua along with nineteen other students to Blaenanerch to conduct services. Joshua concluded the 7:00 a.m. service by praying, "Bend us, O Lord." Roberts silently prayed, "O Lord, bend me." At the 9:00 service, Joshua read Romans 5:8. Roberts suddenly felt overwhelmed by divine love as God began bending him and setting him free from his sin. The Holy Spirit came upon Roberts powerfully and gave him a vision of tens of thousands of his countrymen surrendering to Christ's lordship. On October 31, Roberts returned to his home in Loughor and held a meeting with thirteen young people in a schoolroom next to the church. Revival erupted among that small group and rapidly spread across the country. Within six months, 100,000 people had been converted and joined the churches. The revival spread around the world, resulting in millions of conversions to Christ.

5:13 To impute means to charge to one's account, as in keeping a record. Although sin was in the world before the Law of Moses, God did not keep account of sin because there was no clear law to obey or disobey. Sin, however, still resulted in death, for all mankind inherited the consequence of Adam's transgression. After God gave the Law to Moses, sin was going against the knowledge of God's will through disobedience.

5:15 The gift of God's grace is priceless; it cannot be earned. The way to obtain salvation is by receiving God's grace, salvation is not a reward for deeds done.

5:19 To be made righteous is not a character transformation; it is attaining a positional status before God. We are made right through the sacrifice of Christ who took away our sin.

5:20 The law causes sin to abound in that the law magnifies sin by exposing it. Consequently, the gravity of our sin magnifies God's grace.

6:3 In the New Testament, baptism immediately followed conversion, and the two were often identified as one act. Although baptism does not bring us into a relationship with God, it is closely related to faith as the outward expression of an inward experience. Believers are united with Christ in His death and resurrection, an experience that is celebrated and portrayed through the act of baptism.

might be [1]done away with, that we should no longer be slaves of sin.
7 For [a]he who has died has been [1]freed from sin.
8 Now [a]if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him,
9 knowing that [a]Christ, having been raised from the dead, dies no more. Death no longer has dominion over Him.
10 For the death that He died, [a]He died to sin once for all; but the life that He lives, [b]He lives to God.
11 Likewise you also, [1]reckon yourselves to be [a]dead indeed to sin, but [b]alive to God in Christ Jesus our Lord.
12 [a]Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts.
13 And do not present your [a]members as [1]instruments of unrighteousness to sin, but [b]present yourselves to God as being alive from the dead, and your members as [1]instruments of righteousness to God.
