14 For [a]sin shall not have dominion over you, for you are not under law but under grace.

From Slaves of Sin to Slaves of God

15 What then? Shall we sin [a]because we are not under law but under grace? Certainly not!
16 Do you not know that [a]to whom you present yourselves slaves to obey, you are that one's slaves whom you obey, whether of sin leading to death, or of obedience leading to righteousness?
17 But God be thanked that though you were slaves of sin, yet you obeyed from the heart [a]that form of doctrine to which you were [1]delivered.
18 And [a]having been set free from sin, you became slaves of righteousness.

ENCOUNTER Note Rom. 6:18

Created to Serve

By creation, every person is a slave. Our master is either good or evil, rewarding with life or death, blessing or cursing. Redemption frees us from sin's bondage, but we remain a slave—a slave to righteousness. Freedom in Christ does not allow us to do as we please, but to do as He pleases. We are no longer held back in the grip of sin, but free to follow Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit.

19 I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh. For just as you presented your members as slaves of uncleanness, and of lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves of righteousness [1]for holiness.
20 For when you were [a]slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness.
21 [a]What fruit did you have then in the things of which you are now ashamed? For [b]the end of those things is death.
22 But now [a]having been set free from sin, and having become slaves of God, you have your fruit [1]to holiness, and the end, everlasting life.
23 For [a]the wages of sin is death, but [b]the [1]gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Freed from the Law

7 Or do you not know, brethren (for I speak to those who know the law), that the law [1]has dominion over a man as long as he lives?
2 For [a]the woman who has a husband is bound by the law to her husband as long as he lives. But if the husband dies, she is released from the law of her husband.
3 So then [a]if, while her husband lives, she marries another man, she will be called an adulteress; but if her husband dies, she is free from that law, so that she is no adulteress, though she has married another man.
4 Therefore, my brethren, you also have become [a]dead to the law through the body of Christ, that you may be married to another—to Him who was raised from the dead, that we should [b]bear fruit to God.
5 For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions which were aroused by the law [a]were at work in our members [b]to bear fruit to death.
6 But now we have been delivered from the law, having died to what we were held by, so that we should serve [a]in the newness of the Spirit and not in the oldness of the letter.

Sin's Advantage in the Law

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? Certainly not! On the contrary, [a]I would not have known sin except through the law. For I would not have known covetousness unless the law had said, [b]"You shall not covet."
8 But [a]sin, taking opportunity by the 6:7 The word translated "has been freed" is a legal term related to justification. The believer is no longer under any obligation to sin.

6:17 "That form of doctrine" is a unique expression. It refers to the "pattern" or "example" of the gospel message that Christ died for our sins and is risen.
7:5 "In the flesh" refers to the time before conversion.

commandment, produced in me all manner of evil desire. For [b]apart from the law sin was dead.
9 I was alive once without the law, but when the commandment came, sin revived and I died.
10 And the commandment, [a]which was to bring life, I found to bring death.
11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it killed me.
12 Therefore [a]the law is holy, and the commandment holy and just and good.

Law Cannot Save from Sin

13 Has then what is good become death to me? Certainly not! But sin, that it might appear sin, was producing death in me through what is good, so that sin through the commandment might become exceedingly sinful.
14 For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am carnal, [a]sold under sin.
15 For what I am doing, I do not understand. [a]For what I will to do, that I do not practice; but what I hate, that I do.
16 If, then, I do what I will not to do, I agree with the law that it is good.
17 But now, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells in me.
18 For I know that [a]in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Rom. 7:18

An Exchanged Life

It is not good enough to recognize sin, not good enough to want a godly life, and not good enough to work hard to change. Nothing within us can defeat sin and bring us victory. We cannot change our life, but we can exchange our life. When Christ lives within us, we die to sin and become alive to righteousness. That which is impossible for us is possible with God.

19 For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice.
20 Now if I do what I will not to do, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells in me.
21 I find then a law, that evil is present with me, the one who wills to do good.
22 For I [a]delight in the law of God according to [b]the inward man.
23 But [a]I see another law in [b]my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.
24 O wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me [a]from this body of death?
25 [a]I thank God—through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, with the mind I myself serve the law of God, but with the flesh the law of sin.

Free from Indwelling Sin

8 There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, [a]who[1] do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.
2 For [a]the law of [b]the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from [c]the law of sin and death.
3 For [a]what the law could not do in that it was weak through the flesh, [b]God did by sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, on account of sin: He condemned sin in the flesh,
4 that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us who [a]do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.
5 For [a]those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, [b]the things of the Spirit.
6 For [a]to be [1]carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.
7 Because [a]the [1]carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, [b]nor indeed can be.
8 So then, those who are in the flesh cannot please God.
9 But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwells in you. Now if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he is not His.
10 And if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.
11 But if the Spirit of [a]Him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, [b]He who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies [1]through His Spirit who dwells in you.

Sonship Through the Spirit

12 [a]Therefore, brethren, we are debtors—not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh.
13 For [a]if you live according to the flesh you will die; but if by the Spirit you [b]put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

7:12 "The law is holy" means it is set apart as God's standard of righteousness. The problem is not the law, but our inability to keep it.

7:24 "This body of death" is a figurative expression for our sinful nature which is a burdensome "dead weight" that keeps us from following Christ.

14 For [a]as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God.
15 For [a]you did not receive the spirit of bondage again [b]to fear, but you received the [c]Spirit of adoption by whom we cry out, [d]"Abba,[1] Father."
16 [a]The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God,
17 and if children, then [a]heirs—heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, [b]if indeed we suffer with Him, that we may also be glorified together.

From Suffering to Glory

18 For I consider that [a]the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.
19 For [a]the earnest expectation of the creation eagerly waits for the revealing of the sons of God.
20 For [a]the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of Him who subjected it in hope;
21 because the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of [1]corruption into the glorious [a]liberty of the children of God.
22 For we know that the whole creation [a]groans and labors with birth pangs together until now.
23 Not only that, but we also who have [a]the firstfruits of the Spirit, [b]even we ourselves groan [c]within ourselves, eagerly waiting for the adoption, the [d]redemption of our body.
24 For we were saved in this hope, but [a]hope that is seen is not hope; for why does one still hope for what he sees?
25 But if we hope for what we do not see, we eagerly wait for it with perseverance.
26 Likewise the Spirit also helps in our weaknesses. For [a]we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but [b]the Spirit Himself makes intercession [1]for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.
27 Now [a]He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the saints [b]according to the will of God.
28 And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those [a]who are the called according to His purpose.

The Spirit Himself

People cannot live the Christian life without the Holy Spirit's guidance and empowering. Even our prayers can be self centered and far below God's purposes. But the Holy Spirit elevates our prayers, leading us to ask for things God desires to accomplish.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Rom. 8:28

For Good

For those called according to God's purposes, God can cause any experience of their lives to bring about good. The primary good to be wrought in a believer's life is found in verse 29: conformity to the image of Christ. God can take every event of your life and use it to bring you closer to Christlikeness.

29 For whom [a]He foreknew, [b]He also predestined [c]to be conformed to the image of His Son, [d]that He might be the firstborn among many brethren.
30 Moreover whom He predestined, these He also [a]called; whom He called, these He also [b]justified; and whom He justified, these He also [c]glorified.

God's Everlasting Love

31 What then shall we say to these things? [a]If God is for us, who can be against us?
32 [a]He who did not spare His own Son, but [b]delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things?
33 Who shall bring a charge against God's elect? [a]It is God who justifies.
34 [a]Who is he who condemns? It is Christ who died, and furthermore is also risen, [b]who is even at the right hand of God, [c]who also makes intercession for us.
35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?
36 As it is written:

8:15 "Abba" is the Hebrew word for father, and expresses a deeply personal relationship with God. Old Testament people generally did not view God in such familiar terms.

8:17 As God's children who have been born again, believers are also heirs of God. As we join with Christ in His suffering, we also join with Him in His glory (Phil. 3:10–14). The indwelling Spirit is the assurance of our future inheritance (2 Cor. 1:22; Eph. 1:13, 14; 4:30).

8:19 "Creation" refers to all animate and inanimate objects, excluding human beings.

8:32 Genesis 22:16 explains how Abraham did not withhold his only son Isaac from God. However, whereas God halted Abraham's costly sacrifice, God did not stay His hand with His only Son. Such sacrificial love forever proves God's love and commitment to His people.

WORD Study — PREDESTINE

Rom. 8:29 The Greek word, proorízō, translated "predestine" is used only six times in the New Testament (Acts 4:28; Rom. 8:29, 30; 1 Cor. 2:7; Eph. 1:5, 11), but is a word that has sparked much theological debate (classically between Arminians and Calvinists). The word means "to decide beforehand," "to foreordain," or "to mark out ahead of time." Romans 8:29, 30 says God predestined that those who would be saved would be conformed to the image of His Son through the power of His Spirit. The words "predestined," "called," "justified," and "glorified" are all in the past tense. From the perspective of eternity, God already sees these acts as complete through the finished work of Christ (1 Pet. 1:2). As the creator of all things God stands outside of time; all is present and complete. As His creation, we must live through the process in time and experience what God already knows. He brings into our lives what has been on His heart from the beginning of time.

ENCOUNTER Note Rom. 8:35

Love's Guarantee

The greatest experience in life is to know God's love. Once we enter that love relationship through faith in Jesus Christ, we experience pure love, sealed by God's promise never to leave us no matter what.

[a] "For Your sake we are killed all day long;
We are accounted as sheep for the slaughter."

37 [a]Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us.
38 For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor [a]principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come,
39 nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Israel's Rejection of Christ

9 I [a]tell the truth in Christ, I am not lying, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Spirit,
2 [a]that I have great sorrow and continual grief in my heart.
3 For [a]I could wish that I myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my [1]countrymen according to the flesh,
4 who are Israelites, [a]to whom pertain the adoption, [b]the glory, [c]the covenants, [d]the giving of the law, [e]the service of God, and [f]the promises;
5 [a]of whom are the fathers and from [b]whom, according to the flesh, Christ came, [c]who is over all, the eternally blessed God. Amen.

Israel's Rejection and God's Purpose

6 [a]But it is not that the word of God has taken no effect. For [b]they are not all Israel who are of Israel,
7 [a]nor are they all children because they are the seed of Abraham; but, [b]"In Isaac your seed shall be called."
8 That is, those who are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God; but [a]the children of the promise are counted as the seed.
9 For this is the word of promise: [a]"At this time I will come and Sarah shall have a son."
10 And not only this, but when [a]Rebecca also had conceived by one man, even by our father Isaac
11 (for the children not yet being born, nor having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works but of [a]Him who calls), 12 it was said to her, [a]"The older shall serve the younger."
13 As it is written, [a]"Jacob I have loved, but Esau I have hated."

Israel's Rejection and God's Justice

14 What shall we say then? [a]Is there unrighteousness with God? Certainly not!
15 For He says to Moses, [a]"I will have mercy on whomever I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whomever I will have compassion."
16 So then it is not of him who wills, nor of him who runs, but of God who shows mercy.
17 For [a]the Scripture says to the Pharaoh, [b]"For this very purpose I have raised you up, that I may show

9:3 Accursed is the Greek word "anathema," which means to be separated from God or given over to the wrath of God for eternal destruction. This assertion illustrates Paul's deep love for the Jewish nation (Ex. 32:32).

9:5 "The fathers" is a reference to Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and Jacob's sons.

9:17 Pharaoh was the Egyptian ruler whose heart grew hard during the time of Moses and the Exodus (Ex. 7:13, 14, 22; 8:15, 32; 9:7).

ENCOUNTER Note Rom. 9:14

The Right Way

God sees the beginning through to the end; He knows every detail of every event past, present, and future; He perceives every thought and intention of the heart; and nothing is beyond His grasp. No one deserves mercy and grace, but He chooses to act in the world according to His knowledge. He is God and we are not.

My power in you, and that My name may be declared in all the earth."
18 Therefore He has mercy on whom He wills, and whom He wills He [a]hardens.
19 You will say to me then, "Why does He still find fault? For [a]who has resisted His will?"
20 But indeed, O man, who are you to reply against God? [a]Will the thing formed say to him who formed it, "Why have you made me like this?"
21 Does not the [a]potter have power over the clay, from the same lump to make [b]one vessel for honor and another for dishonor?
22 What if God, wanting to show His wrath and to make His power known, endured with much longsuffering [a]the vessels of wrath [b]prepared for destruction,
23 and that He might make known [a]the riches of His glory on the vessels of mercy, which He had [b]prepared beforehand for glory,
24 even us whom He [a]called, [b]not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?
25 As He says also in Hosea:

> [a]"I will call them My people, who were not My people,
> And her beloved, who was not beloved."
> 26 "And[a] it shall come to pass in the place where it was said to them,
> 'You are not My people,'
> There they shall be called sons of the living God."

27 Isaiah also cries out concerning Israel:

> [a]"Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea,
> [b]The remnant will be saved.
> 28 For [1]He will finish the work and cut it short in righteousness,
> [a]Because the LORD will make a short work upon the earth."

29 And as Isaiah said before:

> [a]"Unless the LORD of [1]Sabaoth had left us a seed,
> [b]We would have become like Sodom,
> And we would have been made like Gomorrah."

Present Condition of Israel

30 What shall we say then? [a]That Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, have attained to righteousness, [b]even the righteousness of faith;
31 but Israel, [a]pursuing the law of righteousness, [b]has not attained to the law [1]of righteousness.
32 Why? Because they did not seek it by faith, but as it were, [1]by the works of the law. For [a]they stumbled at that stumbling stone.
33 As it is written:

> [a]"Behold, I lay in Zion a stumbling stone and rock of offense,
> And [b]whoever believes on Him will not be put to shame."

Israel Needs the Gospel

10 Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for [1]Israel is that they may be saved.
2 For I bear them witness [a]that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge.
3 For they being ignorant of [a]God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own [b]righteousness, have not submitted to the righteousness of God.
4 For [a]Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes.
5 For Moses writes about the righteousness which is of the law, [a]"The man who does those things shall live by them."
6 But the righteousness of faith speaks in this way, [a]"Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?' " (that is, to bring Christ down from above)
7 or, [a]" 'Who will descend into the abyss?' " (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead).
8 But what does it say? [a]"The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith which we preach):
9 that [a]if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart

9:33 These two passages from Isaiah (8:14; 28:16) were commonly put together by early Christians as a defense of Christ as the Messiah (Luke 20:17, 18; 1 Pet. 2:4, 6–8).

10:4 The word translated "end" can mean "goal." Christ was the goal to which the law was pointing. It can also mean "fulfillment." Christ fulfilled all the requirements of the law (Matt. 5:17).

10:9 The phrase "Jesus is Lord" is considered the earliest Christian confession, and was probably used at baptisms.

WORD Study

CONFESS

Rom. 10:9 The Greek word, homologeō, translated "confess" means "to say the same thing" or "to agree" (John 9:22; 1 John 1:9; 4:15). In the context of confessing sin, it means that people agree with God about their sinful condition. Confession, however, is more than intellectual assent; it includes the desire to align with God's thinking. It is perhaps first motivated by the knowledge of divine judgment and the need for cleansing, but those growing deeper in their relationships are moved to confession because they do not wish to offend the One they love.

ENCOUNTER Note Rom. 10:17

Foundation for Faith

People can only respond to what they know. Faith is not a leap in the dark; it is not based upon ignorance but upon knowledge of what God has said in His word. As you share the gospel, the Holy Spirit confirms it as the truth and calls for a response of faith.

that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved.
10 For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.
11 For the Scripture says, [a]"Whoever believes on Him will not be put to shame."
12 For [a]there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for [b]the same Lord over all [c]is rich to all who call upon Him.
13 For [a]"whoever calls [b]on the name of the LORD shall be saved."

Israel Rejects the Gospel

14 How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear [a]without a preacher?
15 And how shall they preach unless they are sent? As it is written:

> [a]"How beautiful are the feet of those who [1]preach the gospel of peace,
> Who bring glad tidings of good things!"

16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, [a]"LORD, who has believed our report?"
17 So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.
18 But I say, have they not heard? Yes indeed:

> [a]"Their sound has gone out to all the earth,
> [b]And their words to the ends of the world."

19 But I say, did Israel not know? First Moses says:

> [a]"I will provoke you to jealousy by those who are not a nation,
> I will move you to anger by a [b]foolish nation."

20 But Isaiah is very bold and says:

> [a]"I was found by those who did not seek Me;
> I was made manifest to those who did not ask for Me."

21 But to Israel he says:

> [a]"All day long I have stretched out My hands
> To a disobedient and contrary people."

Israel's Rejection Not Total

11 I say then, [a]has God cast away His people? [b]Certainly not! For [c]I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.
2 God has not cast away His people whom [a]He foreknew. Or do you not know what the Scripture says of Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel, saying,
3 [a]"LORD, they have killed Your prophets and torn down Your altars, and I alone am left, and they seek my life"?
4 But what does the divine response say to him? [a]"I have reserved for Myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal."
5 [a]Even so then, at this present time there is a remnant according to the election of grace.
6 And [a]if by grace, then it is no longer of works; otherwise grace is no longer grace. [1]But if it is of works, it is no longer grace; otherwise work is no longer work.
7 What then? [a]Israel has not obtained what it seeks; but the elect have obtained it, and the rest were [b]blinded.
8 Just as it is written:

7 [a]Rom. 9:31 [b]2 Cor. 3:14

10:13 This same Old Testament passage (Joel 2:32) was quoted by Peter on the day of Pentecost (Acts 2:21).

[a]"God has given them a spirit of stupor,
[b]Eyes that they should not see
And ears that they should not hear,
To this very day."

9 And David says:

[a]"Let their table become a snare and a trap,
A stumbling block and a recompense to them.
10 Let their eyes be darkened, so that they do not see,
And bow down their back always."

Israel's Rejection Not Final

11 I say then, have they stumbled that they should fall? Certainly not! But [a]through their [1]fall, to provoke them to [b]jealousy, salvation has come to the Gentiles.
12 Now if their [1]fall is riches for the world, and their failure riches for the Gentiles, how much more their fullness!
13 For I speak to you Gentiles; inasmuch as [a]I am an apostle to the Gentiles, I magnify my ministry, 14 if by any means I may provoke to jealousy those who are my flesh and [a]save some of them.
15 For if their being cast away is the reconciling of the world, what will their acceptance be [a]but life from the dead?
16 For if [a]the firstfruit is holy, the lump is also holy; and if the root is holy, so are the branches.
17 And if [a]some of the branches were broken off, [b]and you, being a wild olive tree, were grafted in among them, and with them became a partaker of the root and [1]fatness of the olive tree,
18 [a]do not boast against the branches. But if you do boast, remember that you do not support the root, but the root supports you.
19 You will say then, "Branches were broken off that I might be grafted in."
20 Well said. Because of [a]unbelief they were broken off, and you stand by faith. Do not be haughty, but fear.
21 For if God did not spare the natural branches, He may not spare you either.
22 Therefore consider the goodness and severity of God: on those who fell, severity; but toward you, [1]goodness, [a]if you continue in His goodness. Otherwise [b]you also will be cut off.
23 And they also, [a]if they do not continue in unbelief, will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again.

ENCOUNTER Note — Rom. 11:23

As Long as We Have Breath

God is constantly drawing us into a relationship with Him. In our pain and suffering we cry out to Him and find forgiveness and restoration. No matter how far we have strayed from God, as long as we have life we have hope. Salvation is offered to all until our last breath . . . then judgment.

24 For if you were cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and were grafted contrary to nature into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these, who are natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?
25 For I do not desire, brethren, that you should be ignorant of this mystery, lest you should be [a]wise in your own [1]opinion, that [b]blindness in part has happened to Israel [c]until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in.
26 And so all Israel will be [1]saved, as it is written:

[a]"The Deliverer will come out of Zion,
And He will turn away ungodliness from Jacob;
27 For [a]this is My covenant with them,
When I take away their sins."

28 Concerning the gospel they are enemies for your sake, but concerning the election they are [a]beloved for the sake of the fathers.
29 For the gifts and the calling of God are [a]irrevocable.
30 For as you [a]were once disobedient to God, yet have now obtained mercy through their disobedience, 31 even so these also have now been disobedient, that through the mercy shown you they also may obtain mercy.
32 For God has [1]committed them [a]all to disobedience, that He might have mercy on all.
33 Oh, the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments and His ways past finding out!

34 "For who has known the [a]mind of the LORD?
Or [b]who has become His counselor?"

11:17 The wild olive tree represents Gentile Christians. The olive tree is Israel.

11:29 "Irrevocable" means "not to repent." God is determined to accomplish His purposes, despite what people do.

ENCOUNTER Note Rom. 11:33

The Depths

We cannot imagine the magnitude of God's love and wisdom toward us. Yet we are often content with only a surface relationship with God. It is tragic to be satisfied with so little when we have so much available to us.

35 "Or[a] who has first given to Him
And it shall be repaid to him?"

36 For [a]of Him and through Him and to Him are all things, [b]to whom be glory forever. Amen.

Living Sacrifices to God

12 I [a]beseech[1] you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies [b]a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your [2]reasonable service.
2 And [a]do not be conformed to this world, but [b]be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may [c]prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

Serve God with Spiritual Gifts

3 For I say, [a]through the grace given to me, to everyone who is among you, [b]not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think soberly, as God has dealt [c]to each one a measure of faith.
4 For [a]as we have many members in one body, but all the members do not have the same function,
5 so [a]we, being many, are one body in Christ, and individually members of one another.
6 Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is [a]given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, let us [b]prophesy in proportion to our faith;
7 or ministry, let us use it in our ministering; [a]he who teaches, in teaching;
8 [a]he who exhorts, in exhortation; [b]he who gives, with liberality; [c]he who leads, with diligence; he who shows mercy, [d]with cheerfulness.

Behave Like a Christian

9 [a]Let love be without hypocrisy. [b]Abhor what is evil. Cling to what is good.
10 [a]Be kindly affectionate to one another with brotherly love, [b]in honor giving preference to one another;
11 not lagging in diligence, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord;

The Sacrifice

There is a cost to following Jesus, because He is willing to pay the price, and you are His body. The evil one is quick to reveal the cost of obedience, but he conceals the price of disobedience—never experiencing the adventure of following Christ; your children's not seeing God at work; suffering the consequences of your sin; and having your relationship with the Lord harmed—because you would not follow Him. How great is your sacrifice? It gains you eternal life in Christ.

HISTORICAL Encounter

WALTER WILSON

Rom. 12:1

On December 21, 1896, Walter Wilson became a Christian. He immediately developed a passion for studying and teaching scripture and distributing evangelistic tracts to unbelievers. However, despite his enthusiastic efforts, he saw little result. Then in 1913, a missionary to France was visiting with Wilson. "What is the Holy Spirit to you?" the missionary asked. Wilson admitted he revered God the Father and he knew Christ had purchased his salvation, but he had no use for the Holy Spirit. The missionary urged Wilson to become personally familiar with the Holy Spirit as a member of the Trinity, promising it would transform his life. Then on January 14, 1914, Wilson heard a powerful sermon based on Romans 12:1. Hearers were challenged to submit their bodies to the Holy Spirit so He could use them to impact their world. Wilson was shaken by the simplicity and truth of the message. He immediately yielded every part of his life to the Spirit's leading, and his ministry began to flourish. He would become the renowned pastor of Central Bible Church in Kansas City, president of Kansas City Bible College, and a popular Christian author and speaker who saw many people come to Christ through the Holy Spirit's working in his life.

12:1 The term "therefore" indicates that Paul's subsequent teaching on Christian living in Romans 12:1—16:27 is the practical application of what he has just taught. The term "present" is an aorist infinite verb, indicating a decisive act. "Reasonable service" could also be translated "your spiritual worship."

12:6 Gifts are God-given abilities, literally the work of the Holy Spirit within and through the human body (1 Cor. 12:7). Prophecy is a general term for any ministry that involves speaking God's word.

12 [a]rejoicing in hope, [b]patient[1] in tribulation, [c]continuing steadfastly in prayer;
13 [a]distributing to the needs of the saints, [b]given[1] to hospitality.
14 [a]Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse.
15 [a]Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep.
16 [a]Be of the same mind toward one another. [b]Do not set your mind on high things, but associate with the humble. Do not be wise in your own opinion.
17 [a]Repay no one evil for evil. [b]Have[1] regard for good things in the sight of all men.
18 If it is possible, as much as depends on you, [a]live peaceably with all men.
19 Beloved, [a]do not avenge yourselves, but rather give place to wrath; for it is written, [b]"Vengeance is Mine, I will repay," says the Lord.
20 Therefore

> [a]"If your enemy is hungry, feed him;
> If he is thirsty, give him a drink;
> For in so doing you will heap
> coals of fire on his head."

21 Do not be overcome by evil, but [a]overcome evil with good.

Submit to Government

13 Let every soul be [a]subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and the authorities that exist are appointed by God.
2 Therefore whoever resists [a]the authority resists the ordinance of God, and those who resist will [1]bring judgment on themselves.
3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to evil. Do you want to be unafraid of the authority? [a]Do what is good, and you will have praise from the same.
4 For he is God's minister to you for good. But if you do evil, be afraid; for he does not bear the sword in vain; for he is God's minister, an avenger to execute wrath on him who practices evil.
5 Therefore [a]you must be subject, not only because of wrath [b]but also for conscience' sake.
6 For because of this you also pay taxes, for they are God's ministers attending continually to this very thing.
7 [a]Render therefore to all their due: taxes to whom taxes are due, customs to whom customs, fear to whom fear, honor to whom honor.

Love Your Neighbor

8 Owe no one anything except to love one another, for [a]he who loves another has fulfilled the law.
9 For the commandments, [a]"You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," [1]"You shall not bear false witness," "You shall not covet," and if there is any other commandment, are all summed up in this saying, namely, [b]"You shall love your neighbor as yourself."
10 Love does no harm to a neighbor; therefore [a]love is the fulfillment of the law.

Put on Christ

11 And do this, knowing the time, that now it is high time [a]to awake out of sleep; for now our salvation is nearer than when we first believed.
12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand. [a]Therefore let us cast off the works of darkness, and [b]let us put on the armor of light.
13 [a]Let us walk [1]properly, as in the day, [b]not in revelry and drunkenness, [c]not in lewdness and lust, [d]not in strife and envy.
14 But [a]put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and [b]make no provision for the flesh, to fulfill its lusts.

The Law of Liberty

14 Receive[a] one who is weak in the faith, but not to disputes over doubtful things.
2 For one believes he [a]may eat all things, but he who is weak eats only vegetables.

ENCOUNTER Note — Rom. 13:3

Displaying God's Character

Christians are not cut off from responsibility in the world. Instead, they display their faith by responsible living. Children of God live with integrity and honesty, showing respect to everyone. Believers live out the example of redeemed humanity, that others might also seek and find new life in Christ.

12:20 When showing grace to their opponents, believers "heap coals of fire" on them, or cause them to feel guilt and shame. The motivation is not revenge, but the hope that kindness may draw them to repentance.

13:1 Believers are to submit to governing authorities. Civic duty is ultimately in obedience to God and not to evil rulers. Nero, a man responsible for the death of many Christians, was in power (A.D. 54–68) when Paul was in Rome. If God allows an evil ruler, His will is part of a greater plan that must be trusted.

13:12 The "night" is the present evil age. The "day" is the reign of Christ at His second coming. Scripture indicates Christ's return is imminent (Matt. 24:33; 1 Cor. 7:29; Phil. 4:5; James 5:8, 9; 1 Pet. 4:7).

does not eat, and [a]let not him who does not eat judge him who eats; for God has received him.
4 [a]Who are you to judge another's servant? To his own master he stands or falls. Indeed, he will be made to stand, for God is able to make him stand.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Rom. 14:4

Judging

We are accountable to God. We are His servants. Our ultimate responsibility is not to judge what others have done with their lives but to prepare ourselves to give an account of our own service to our Master.

5 [a]One person esteems one day above another; another esteems every day alike. Let each be fully convinced in his own mind.
6 He who [a]observes the day, observes it to the Lord; [1]and he who does not observe the day, to the Lord he does not observe it. He who eats, eats to the Lord, for [b]he gives God thanks; and he who does not eat, to the Lord he does not eat, and gives God thanks.
7 For [a]none of us lives to himself, and no one dies to himself.
8 For if we [a]live, we live to the Lord; and if we die, we die to the Lord. Therefore, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's.
9 For [a]to this end Christ died [1]and rose and lived again, that He might be [b]Lord of both the dead and the living.
10 But why do you judge your brother? Or why do you show contempt for your brother? For [a]we shall all stand before the judgment seat of [1]Christ.
11 For it is written:

[a]"As I live, says the LORD,
Every knee shall bow to Me,
And every tongue shall confess to God."

12 So then [a]each of us shall give account of himself to God.
13 Therefore let us not judge one another [1]anymore, but rather resolve this, [a]not to put a stumbling block or a cause to fall in our brother's way.

The Law of Love

14 I know and am convinced by the Lord Jesus [a]that there is nothing unclean of itself; but to him who considers anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean.
15 Yet if your brother is grieved because of your food, you are no longer walking in love. [a]Do not destroy with your food the one for whom Christ died.

The Right to Love

Being conformed to the image of Christ means having His love for God's people, the people for whom He died. He gave up what was rightfully His to bring people into a relationship with the Father. Woe to those who, by clinging to their rights, cause others harm in their faith. Love willingly lays aside liberty and puts others first.

16 [a]Therefore do not let your good be spoken of as evil;
17 [a]for the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and [b]peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.
18 For he who serves Christ in [1]these things [a]is acceptable to God and approved by men.
19 [a]Therefore let us pursue the things which make for peace and the things by which [b]one may [1]edify another.

HISTORICAL*Encounter* AUGUSTINE Rom. 13:13

Augustine was born in North Africa in A.D. 354. His mother, Monica, was a devout Christian but his father was an unbeliever. Brilliant, but undisciplined, Augustine recklessly pursued carnal pleasures. Eventually he went to Milan. Monica encouraged her son to attend services where Bishop Ambrose preached. Although he enjoyed listening to Ambrose, Augustine was not yet prepared to turn from his sinful lifestyle. Then one day he was in a friend's garden and he heard a child's voice saying, "Take up and read!" Seeing a collection of the apostle Paul's writings near him, Augustine began reading Romans 13:13, 14. He recalled: "No further would I read; nor needed I: for instantly at the end of this sentence, by a light as it were of serenity infused into my heart, all darkness of doubt vanished away." Augustine became the Bishop of Hippo and one of the most influential thinkers in church history.

14:5 Some interpreters think that "one day above another" refers to the Sabbath, but it more likely refers to different holy days of the Old Testament ceremonial law.

20 [a]Do not destroy the work of God for the sake of food. [b]All things indeed are pure, [c]but it is evil for the man who eats with [1]offense.
21 It is good neither to eat [a]meat nor drink wine nor do anything by which your brother stumbles [1]or is offended or is made weak.
22 [1]Do you have faith? Have it to yourself before God. [a]Happy is he who does not condemn himself in what he approves.
23 But he who doubts is condemned if he eats, because he does not eat from faith; for [a]whatever is not from faith is [1]sin.

Bearing Others' Burdens

15 We [a]then who are strong ought to bear with the [1]scruples of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

WORD*Study* BEAR

Rom. 15:1 The Greek word bastazō, translated "bear," means "to lift up," "to pick up" or to "sustain." Believers are to carry the load of those who are weak, building up the body of Christ into maturity (Matt. 8:17; Gal. 6:2).

ENCOUNTER*Note* Rom. 15:1

Strengthening the Body

Christian love is unselfish. Believers share their strengths with those who are weak while they humbly receive help from those who are stronger. God's people support one another, just as Christ bore their weakness. In this way the entire body is fortified.

2 [a]Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, leading to [1]edification.
3 [a]For even Christ did not please Himself; but as it is written, [b]"The reproaches of those who reproached You fell on Me."
4 For [a]whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that we through the [1]patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope.
5 [a]Now may the God of patience and comfort grant you to be like-minded toward one another, according to Christ Jesus,
6 that you may [a]with one mind and one mouth glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Glorify God Together

7 Therefore [a]receive one another, just [b]as Christ also received [1]us, to the glory of God.
8 Now I say that [a]Jesus Christ has become a [1]servant to the circumcision for the truth of God, [b]to confirm the promises made to the fathers,
9 and [a]that the Gentiles might glorify God for His mercy, as it is written:

[b]"For this reason I will confess to
You among the Gentiles,
And sing to Your name."

10 And again he says:

[a]"Rejoice, O Gentiles, with His people!"

11 And again:

[a]"Praise the LORD, all you Gentiles!
Laud Him, all you peoples!"

12 And again, Isaiah says:

[a]"There shall be a root of Jesse;
And He who shall rise to reign over the Gentiles,
In Him the Gentiles shall hope."

13 Now may the God of hope fill you with all [a]joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

From Jerusalem to Illyricum

14 Now [a]I myself am confident concerning you, my brethren, that you also are full of goodness, [b]filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish [1]one another.
15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written more boldly to you on some points, as reminding you, [a]because of the grace given to me by God,
16 that [a]I might be a minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the [b]offering [1]of the Gentiles might be acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.
17 Therefore I have reason to glory in Christ Jesus [a]in the things which pertain to God.
18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things [a]which Christ has not accomplished through me, in word and deed, [b]to make the Gentiles obedient—19 [a]in mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God, so that from Jerusalem and round about to Illyricum I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

14:20 "The work of God" is a new believer; a new creation whom God is fashioning into the image of His Son (2 Cor. 5:17; Eph. 2:10).

15:12 "The root of Jesse" is a title for the Messiah (Is. 11:10). Jesse was the father of King David (1 Sam. 16:5–13), through whom the Messiah would come.

20 And so I have made it my aim to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, [a]lest I should build on another man's foundation,
21 but as it is written:

> [a]"To whom He was not announced,
> they shall see;
> And those who have not heard > shall understand."

Plan to Visit Rome

22 For this reason [a]I also have been much hindered from coming to you.
23 But now no longer having a place in these parts, and [a]having a great desire these many years to come to you,
24 whenever I journey to Spain, [1]I shall come to you. For I hope to see you on my journey, [a]and to be helped on my way there by you, if first I may [b]enjoy your company for a while.
25 But now [a]I am going to Jerusalem to [1]minister to the saints.
26 For [a]it pleased those from Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor among the saints who are in Jerusalem.
27 It pleased them indeed, and they are their debtors. For [a]if the Gentiles have been partakers of their spiritual things, [b]their duty is also to minister to them in material things.
28 Therefore, when I have performed this and have sealed to them [a]this fruit, I shall go by way of you to Spain.
29 [a]But I know that when I come to you, I shall come in the fullness of the blessing [1]of the gospel of Christ.
30 Now I beg you, brethren, through the Lord Jesus Christ, and [a]through the love of the Spirit, [b]that you strive together with me in prayers to God for me,
31 [a]that I may be delivered from those in Judea who [1]do not believe, and that [b]my service for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints,
32 [a]that I may come to you with joy [b]by the will of God, and may [c]be refreshed together with you.
33 Now [a]the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Sister Phoebe Commended

16 I commend to you Phoebe our sister, who is a servant of the church in [a]Cenchrea,
2 [a]that you may receive her in the Lord [b]in a manner worthy of the saints, and assist her in whatever business she has need of you; for indeed she has been a helper of many and of myself also.

Greeting Roman Saints

3 Greet [a]Priscilla and Aquila, my fellow workers in Christ Jesus,
4 who risked their own necks for my life, to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.
5 Likewise greet [a]the church that is in their house. Greet my beloved Epaenetus, who is [b]the firstfruits of [1]Achaia to Christ.
6 Greet Mary, who labored much for us.
7 Greet Andronicus and Junia, my countrymen and my fellow prisoners, who are of note among the [a]apostles, who also [b]were in Christ before me.
8 Greet Amplias, my beloved in the Lord.
9 Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Christ, and Stachys, my beloved.
10 Greet Apelles, approved in Christ. Greet those who are of the household of Aristobulus.
11 Greet Herodion, my [1]countryman. Greet those who are of the household of Narcissus who are in the Lord.
12 Greet Tryphena and Tryphosa, who have labored in the Lord. Greet the beloved Persis, who labored much in the Lord.
13 Greet Rufus, [a]chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.
14 Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brethren who are with them.
15 Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints who are with them.
16 [a]Greet one another with a holy kiss. [1]The churches of Christ greet you.

15:28 There is no record of Paul ever traveling to Spain, though he intended to do so.

16:1 Phoebe probably carried Paul's letter to Rome. Cenchrea is a port six miles east of Corinth.

16:3 Priscilla and Aquila were a married couple, and they are always mentioned together. They were of the same trade as Paul, tentmakers, and ministered with him in Corinth and Ephesus (Acts 18:1, 2, 19, 26).

16:8–10 Amplias, Urbanus, Stachys, and Apelles were common slave names found in the imperial household. Aristobulus was a familiar Greek name often used in the family of Herod the Great. Some have suggested he was a grandson of Herod the Great and a brother of Herod Agrippa I.

16:11 Narcissus has been identified as a wealthy freedman of the Roman emperor Tiberius. He was put to death by Agrippa after Nero came to power.

16:12 Tryphena and Tryphosa were most likely sisters and perhaps twins. Their names means "delicate" and "dainty" but they are commended for their hard work.

16:13 Rufus, meaning "red," was a common name, but many believe he was the same man mentioned in Mark 15:21.

16:15 Philologus means "fond of words." Julia may have been the most common female slave name. Olympas is a Greek name.

16:16 The holy kiss was practiced in the early church as a sign of love and unity (1 Cor. 16:20; 2 Cor. 13:12; 1 Thess. 5:26; 1 Pet. 5:14).

Avoid Divisive Persons

17 Now I urge you, brethren, note those [a]who cause divisions and offenses, contrary to the doctrine which you learned, and [b]avoid them.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Rom. 16:17

United in Christ

Those who are godly love God's people. They seek unity through the bond of peace, they put others first, they forgive those who wrong them, they build up those who are weak, and they seek to edify the body of Christ. Watch those who stir up dissension, they are not led by God's Spirit.

18 For those who are such do not serve our Lord [1]Jesus Christ, but [a]their own belly, and [b]by smooth words and flattering speech deceive the hearts of the simple.
19 For [a]your obedience has become known to all. Therefore I am glad on your behalf; but I want you to be [b]wise in what is good, and [1]simple concerning evil.
20 And [a]the God of peace [b]will crush Satan under your feet shortly. [c]The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

25 [1]Now [a]to Him who is able to establish you [b]according to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, [c]according to the revelation of the mystery [d]kept secret since the world began
26 but [a]now made manifest, and by the prophetic Scriptures made known to all nations, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, for [b]obedience to the faith—
27 to [a]God, alone wise, be glory through Jesus Christ forever. Amen.

16:21 Jason was Paul's host in Thessalonica (Acts 17:5, 7, 9). Sosipater was probably the same man mentioned in Acts 20:4.

16:23 Gaius gave lodging to Paul in Corinth and offered his home as a place for the church to meet (1 Cor. 1:14). Erastus was a common name, but he was probably the man Paul sent to Macedonia along with Timothy (Acts 19:22). Quartus means "quarter."

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS

INTRODUCTION

The apostle Paul identifies himself as the author of this epistle (1 Cor. 1:1, 2; 16:21). It was written on Paul's third missionary journey near the end of his three-year stay in Ephesus (Acts 19; 20:31); the most probable date was before Pentecost in the spring, A.D. 55. It was not his first letter to the Corinthians, for Paul mentions an earlier letter that we do not possess (1 Cor. 5:9).

The city of Corinth was one of the chief and most affluent cities in Greece with a population in Paul's day of about 250,000 free people and perhaps another 400,000 slaves. It was a commercial hub of activity serviced by two harbors, allowing goods to flow between Italy and Spain to the west and Asia, Phoenicia, and Egypt to the east. International trade also created an ethnically diverse population with varied religious influences. There were at least twelve temples, including the temple of Apollo and the famous temple of Aphrodite, the goddess of love. Temple prostitution flourished in Corinth, with as many as 1,000 male and female prostitutes servicing the worship of Aphrodite. Immorality was so ingrained in the culture that the term "corinthianize" meant "to practice sexual immorality." Unfortunately, the church in Corinth began to reflect the surrounding culture. Paul, therefore, wrote to instruct this gifted but immature church as well as to address specific situations occurring there.

SIGNIFICANCE

The Corinthian church's troubles prompted Paul to return clear, extensive correspondence that provides the most practical instruction concerning the church found in the Bible. This is a rare look at the intimate inner life and workings of an early congregation. We see Paul's heart as like a father who loves enough to discipline his children, encouraging the believers in Corinth to make a break from their old life to their new life in Christ. The challenge of being God's people in the midst of a pagan and immoral society is relevant for believers in any age. Paul explains how to deal with divisions and disputes in the church, how to treat believers who are engaged in immoral conduct, the proper perspective on marital relationships, and the appropriate use of our rights as Christians. Paul also gives some of the most significant New Testament teaching on the Lord's Supper, spiritual gifts, and the resurrection of Jesus.

STRUCTURE

Paul had several reasons for writing this letter, and he clearly and purposefully addresses each issue. After the introduction (1:1–9), the letter is divided into two major sections. The first deals with two concerns that had come to Paul's attention from the house of Chloe: division in the church and moral and ethical misconduct (1:10—6:20). Specifically, Paul deals with the need for church discipline, legal disputes between believers, and sexual immorality. The second section is Paul's response to questions posed by the Corinthian church (7:1—14:40). Then Paul offers a significant theological discourse on the resurrection (15:1–58). The letter concludes with practical instruction for a financial collection and some personal matters (16:1–24). First Corinthians can be outlined as follows:

Introduction (1:1–9)
Addressing Church Issues
  Division (1:10—4:21)
  Moral Negligence (5:1—6:20)
Addressing Church Questions
  Instruction on Marriage (7:1–40)
  Christian Liberty (8:1—11:1)
  Worship (11:2–34)
  Spiritual Gifts (12:1—14:40)
Discourse on Resurrection (15:1–58)
Conclusion (16:1–24)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH FIRST CORINTHIANS

This practical letter to a struggling church presents numerous truths that apply today. Consider the dramatic differences between involvement in the world and entanglement by the world. God wants you to be holy and set apart in the midst of an immoral and evil society which can only be accomplished through the power of His Spirit. Among the various teachings Paul offers, pay close attention to the nature of spiritual gifts. Again, the Spirit is the key to living the Christian life; He is the gift who manifests Himself in our lives. He is the teacher, and equipper of every believer. Watch for the priority of love in this letter—love for God and for one another. Paul's teaching on this essential virtue climaxes in chapter thirteen as the guiding force in all Christian activity. Allow the Holy Spirit to measure your love by His standard and be prepared to make the necessary adjustments. Finally, Christ is your only hope; His crucifixion and resurrection are the power of God that sets you free. He is the head and focus of the church, your hope of eternal life.

Greeting

1 PAUL, [a]called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ [b]through the will of God, and [c]Sosthenes our brother,

2 To the church of God which is at Corinth, to those who [a]are [1]sanctified in Christ Jesus, [b]called to be saints, with all who in every place call on the name of Jesus Christ [c]our Lord, [d]both theirs and ours:

3 [a]Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Spiritual Gifts at Corinth

4 [a]I thank my God always concerning you for the grace of God which was given to you by Christ Jesus,
5 that you were enriched in everything by Him [a]in all [1]utterance and all knowledge,
6 even as [a]the testimony of Christ was confirmed [1]in you,
7 so that you come short in no gift, eagerly [a]waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ,
8 [a]who will also confirm you to the end, [b]that you may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.
9 [a]God is faithful, by whom you were called into [b]the fellowship of His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Sectarianism Is Sin

10 Now I plead with you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, [a]that you all [1]speak the same thing, and that there be no [2]divisions among you, but that you be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.
11 For it has been declared to me concerning you, my brethren, by those of Chloe's household, that there are [1]contentions among you.
12 Now I say this, that [a]each of you says, "I am of Paul," or "I am of [b]Apollos," or "I am of [c]Cephas," or "I am of Christ."
13 [a]Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul?
14 I thank God that I baptized [a]none of you except [b]Crispus and [c]Gaius, 15 lest anyone should say that I had baptized in my own name.
16 Yes, I also baptized the household of [a]Stephanas. Besides, I do not know whether I baptized any other.
17 For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel, [a]not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of no effect.

Christ the Power and Wisdom of God

18 For the [1]message of the cross is [a]foolishness to [b]those who are perishing, but to us [c]who are being saved it is the [d]power of God.
19 For it is written:

[a]"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,

1 [a]Rom. 1:1 [b]2 Cor. 1:1 [c]Acts 18:17
2 [a][Acts 15:9] [b]Rom. 1:7 [c][1 Cor. 8:6] [d][Rom. 3:22] [1]set apart

7 [a]Phil. 3:20
8 [a]1 Thess. 3:13; 5:23 [b]Col. 1:22; 2:7
9 [a]Is. 49:7 [b][John 15:4]
10 [a]2 Cor. 13:11 [1]Have a uniform testimony [2]schisms or dissensions
11 [1]quarrels

13 [a]2 Cor. 11:4
14 [a]John 4:2 [b]Acts 18:8 [c]Rom. 16:23
16 [a]1 Cor. 16: 15, 17
17 [a][1 Cor. 2:1, 4, 13]
18 [a]1 Cor. 2:14 [b]2 Cor. 2:15 [c][1 Cor. 15:2] [d]Rom. 1:16 [1]Lit. word
19 [a]Is. 29:14

1:1 Paul named Christ ten times in the first ten verses. He focused squarely on Christ as Lord, and he directed the Corinthians to do likewise. Paul's call was by the will of God, whereas the Corinthians were enamored with human wisdom.

1:2 The Corinthian believers were sanctified in Christ because of His work and not their own goodness.

1:11 Chloe is only mentioned in this verse. She was apparently respected among the church and she provided information upon which Paul based his judgment.

1:14 Crispus was the ruler of the synagogue in Corinth (Acts 18:8). His influential position caused many to accept Christ. Gaius is probably the man mentioned by Paul in Romans, who had hosted Paul and the church (Rom. 16:23). Stephanas was one of the first converts in Achaia, the region of which Corinth was the capital (1 Cor. 16:15).

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Cor. 1:18

Extreme Measures

Encounters with God are often surprising in their expression. God chose the way of the cross for salvation. Its raw agony, public humiliation, and excruciating death were extreme measures reflecting humanity's extreme need. No one could have predicted the cross. We could not have imagined our sin to be that bad, but it is.

And bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent."

20 [a]Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the [1]disputer of this age? [b]Has not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?
21 For since, in the [a]wisdom of God, the world through wisdom did not know God, it pleased God through the foolishness of the message preached to save those who believe.
22 For [a]Jews request a sign, and Greeks seek after wisdom;
23 but we preach Christ crucified, [a]to the Jews a [1]stumbling block and to the [2]Greeks [b]foolishness,
24 but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ [a]the power of God and [b]the wisdom of God.
25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

Glory Only in the Lord

26 For [1]you see your calling, brethren, [a]that not many wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, not many [2]noble, are called.
27 But [a]God has chosen the foolish things of the world to put to shame the wise, and God has chosen the weak things of the world to put to shame the things which are mighty;
28 and the [1]base things of the world and the things which are despised God has chosen, and the things which are not, to bring to nothing the things that are,
29 that no flesh should glory in His presence.
30 But of Him you are in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God—and [a]righteousness and sanctification and redemption—
31 that, as it is written, [a]"He who glories, let him glory in the LORD*."*

Christ Crucified

2 And I, brethren, when I came to you, did not come with excellence of speech or of wisdom declaring to you the [1]testimony of God.
2 For I determined not to know anything among you [a]except Jesus Christ and Him crucified.
3 [a]I was with you [b]in weakness, in fear, and in much trembling.
4 And my speech and my preaching [a]were not with persuasive words of [1]human wisdom, [b]but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power,
5 that your faith should not be in the wisdom of men but in the [a]power of God.

Spiritual Wisdom

6 However, we speak wisdom among those who are mature, yet not the wisdom of this age, nor of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing.
7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, the hidden wisdom which God [1]ordained before the ages for our glory,

HISTORICAL Encounter

JOHN CLOUGH

1 Cor. 1:26

John Clough resisted God as long as he could. In college, he drew a line down the middle of his room and insisted his pious roommate not read scripture or pray on his side of the room. Yet he was eventually converted and soon began to sense God calling him into missions. On November 30, 1864, John and his wife sailed for Telegu, India, where other missionaries had labored for seventeen years with few results. The Cloughs immediately faced a dilemma. The upper caste Indians would not attend church with the lower castes. Turning randomly in his Bible, Clough came across First Corinthians 1:26–29. At the same time his wife turned to the identical passage. Convinced God had led them, they began to focus on the lower castes. Fifteen months later they witnessed thousands of people being baptized and added to the churches.

1:20 The "wise" may be a reference to Greek philosophers. The "scribe" is a term for a Jewish scholar trained in the details of the law. The "disputer" is a Greek person trained in rhetoric. All three functioned on the basis of logic and debate.

1:26 The "mighty" refers to influential and powerful rulers. The "noble" includes the privileged aristocratic class of society.

2:7 The "mystery" or "secret" is hidden from unbelievers but has been made known to believers. It is defined by Paul as "revelation . . . kept secret since the world began but now made manifest" (Rom. 16:25, 26). The mystery of which Paul speaks is the gospel, God's plan of redemption in Christ (Eph. 3:4, 5; 1 Tim. 3:16).

8 which none of the rulers of this age knew; for [a]had they known, they would not have [b]crucified the Lord of glory.
9 But as it is written:

> [a]"Eye has not seen, nor ear heard,
> Nor have entered into the heart of man
> The things which God has prepared for those who love Him."

10 But [a]God has revealed them to us through His Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God.
11 For what man knows the things of a man except the [a]spirit of the man which is in him? [b]Even so no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God.
12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but [a]the Spirit who is from God, that we might know the things that have been freely given to us by God.
13 These things we also speak, not in words which man's wisdom teaches but which the [1]Holy Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual.
14 [a]But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; nor can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.
15 But he who is spiritual judges all things, yet he himself is rightly judged by no one.
16 For [a]"who has known the mind of the LORD that he may instruct Him?"
[b]But we have the mind of Christ.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Cor. 2:14

An Encounter with Truth

Apart from God's Spirit, the brightest human mind will never understand the simplest spiritual truth. Truth is revealed through encounter, not through study, for Truth is a person. Jesus is Truth. The Spirit of God brings us to Christ, and then unlocks the door to all spiritual realities. Those who are unwilling to accept Him can do nothing but follow a lie.

2 I fed you with [a]milk and not with solid food; [b]for until now you were not able to receive it, and even now you are still not able;
3 for you are still carnal. For where there are envy, strife, and divisions among you, are you not carnal and [1]behaving like mere men?
4 For when one says, "I am of Paul," and another, "I am of Apollos," are you not carnal?

Watering, Working, Warning

5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but [a]ministers through whom you believed, as the Lord gave to each one?
6 [a]I planted, [b]Apollos watered, [c]but God gave the increase.
7 So then [a]neither he who plants is anything, nor he who waters, but God who gives the increase.
8 Now he who plants and he who waters are one, [a]and each one will receive his own reward according to his own labor.

CHARACTER*Study*

APOLLOS

1 Cor. 3:5

A relatively unknown but influential leader in the early church was an Alexandrian Jew named Apollos (Acts 18:24). Noted as being eloquent and cultured, he quickly rose to leadership in the church. He originally responded to the ministry of John the Baptist, but was nurtured and discipled in the gospel by Aquila and Priscilla. Apollos was well versed in the Old Testament scriptures, able to teach and preach with authority and passion. He became a champion for the early church in refuting Jewish criticism and defending the Christian belief that Jesus was the Messiah. So effective was his preaching that some in Corinth held him in higher esteem than both Peter and Paul. Paul recognized his genuine heart and God's call on him, and welcomed him as a trusted friend and companion (1 Cor. 16:12; Titus 3:13).

Apollos developed a deep and mature faith in God. All who met him were challenged with the living word of God, powerful and effective for transforming lives. God's Word was the standard for Apollos and the power behind his proclamation. His teachable spirit allowed him to grow in his faith, so God used him as a leader among His people. The greatness of Apollos was found in his humility. His faith was lived out and poured out among God's people.

2:12 The Holy Spirit's role is to help believers understand all God wants to give them if they will believe.

3:1 A carnal person would not be an unbeliever or the "natural man" mentioned in 2:14. Rather, the context indicates a spiritually immature Christian, one who is still influenced by the flesh.

Mere Mortals

Faith in God transports the believer out of the domain of darkness into the kingdom of light, out of death into new life in Christ. To live carnally, as a mere mortal, is worthy of reprimand, because we ought to be different. We have been born again of the Spirit of God and share in His divine nature.

9 For [a]we are God's fellow workers; you are God's field, you are [b]God's building.
10 [a]According to the grace of God which was given to me, as a wise master builder I have laid [b]the foundation, and another builds on it. But let each one take heed how he builds on it.
11 For no other foundation can anyone lay than [a]that which is laid, [b]which is Jesus Christ.
12 Now if anyone builds on this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw, 13 each one's work will become clear; for the Day [a]will declare it, because [b]it will be revealed by fire; and the fire will test each one's work, of what sort it is.
14 If anyone's work which he has built on it endures, he will receive a reward.
15 If anyone's work is burned, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, yet so as through fire.
16 [a]Do you not know that you are the temple of God and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?
17 If anyone [1]defiles the temple of God, God will destroy him. For the temple of God is holy, which temple you are.

Avoid Worldly Wisdom

18 [a]Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you seems to be wise in this age, let him become a fool that he may become wise.
19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, [a]"He catches the wise in their own craftiness";
20 and again, [a]"The LORD knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are futile."
21 Therefore let no one boast in men. For [a]all things are yours:
22 whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas, or the world or life or death, or things present or things to come—all are yours.

WORD Study DWELL

1 Cor. 3:16 The Greek word oikeō, translated "dwell" means "to live" or "to inhabit" as one would dwell in a house. Within believers, the very presence of God exists, for the Spirit of God takes up residence within them. The believer's body, therefore, is a temple set apart for God's purposes. The Holy Spirit sets the house in order, cleansing it and making it holy. Paul also uses the term "dwell" to describe sin that abides in us (Rom. 7:17, 20). Whatever is within us has influence. When the Spirit enters a life, sin, the unwelcome occupant, is evicted; for sin has no power over God's Spirit (Matt. 12:22–30; Mark 3:22–27; Luke 11:14–23).

23 And [a]you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

Stewards of the Mysteries of God

4 Let a man so consider us, as [a]servants of Christ [b]and stewards of the mysteries of God.
2 Moreover it is required in stewards that one be found faithful.
3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you or by a human [1]court. In fact, I do not even judge myself.
4 For I know of nothing against myself, yet I am not justified by this; but He who judges me is the Lord.
5 [a]Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to [b]light the hidden things of darkness and [c]reveal the [1]counsels of the hearts. [d]Then each one's praise will come from God.

Fools for Christ's Sake

6 Now these things, brethren, I have figuratively transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes, that you may learn in us not to think beyond what is written, that none of you may be [1]puffed up on behalf of one against the other.
7 For who [1]makes you differ from another? And [a]what do you have that you did not receive? Now if you did indeed receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it?
8 You are already full! [a]You are already rich! You have reigned as kings without us—and indeed I could wish you did reign, that we also might reign with you!

8 [a]Rev. 3:17

3:13 The "Day" is the day when Christ returns to judge each of us according to our deeds (2 Cor. 5:10).

3:17 "Destroy" is strong language, accurate in describing God's response to those who harm His people.

4:1 Whereas a servant was simply a slave under orders, a steward was a slave with managerial responsibility over household affairs. As stewards, believers are to manage and care for the gospel message entrusted to them.

9 For I think that God has displayed us, the apostles, last, as men condemned to death; for we have been made a [a]spectacle [1]to the world, both to angels and to men.
10 We are [a]fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ! [b]We are weak, but you are strong! You are distinguished, but we are dishonored!
11 To the present hour we both hunger and thirst, and we are poorly clothed, and beaten, and homeless.
12 [a]And we labor, working with our own hands. [b]Being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we endure;
13 being defamed, we [1]entreat. [a]We have been made as the filth of the world, the offscouring of all things until now.

Paul's Paternal Care

14 I do not write these things to shame you, but [a]as my beloved children I warn you.
15 For though you might have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet you do not have many fathers; for [a]in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.
16 Therefore I urge you, [a]imitate me.
17 For this reason I have sent [a]Timothy to you, [b]who is my beloved and faithful son in the Lord, who will [c]remind you of my ways in Christ, as I [d]teach everywhere [e]in every church.
18 [a]Now some are [1]puffed up, as though I were not coming to you.
19 [a]But I will come to you shortly, [b]if the Lord wills, and I will know, not the word of those who are puffed up, but the power.
20 For [a]the kingdom of God is not in word but in [b]power.
21 What do you want? [a]Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Cor. 4:20

True Faith

Faith in Christ is not verified by words, not by right belief, not even by noble action. The only evidence of genuine faith in Christ is His power. The Holy Spirit is God's gift to empower us in life. Never rely on knowledge, ability, or religion; the kingdom of God is moved by the power of the Spirit through living faith.

3 [a]For I indeed, as absent in body but present in spirit, have already judged (as though I were present) him who has so done this deed.
4 In the [a]name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when you are gathered together, along with my spirit, [b]with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,
5 [a]deliver such a one to [b]Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord [1]Jesus.
6 [a]Your glorying is not good. Do you not know that [b]a little leaven leavens the whole lump?
7 Therefore [1]purge out the old leaven, that you may be a new lump, since you truly are unleavened. For indeed [a]Christ, our [b]Passover, was sacrificed [2]for us.
8 Therefore [a]let us keep the feast, [b]not with old leaven, nor [c]with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Immorality Must Be Judged

9 I wrote to you in my epistle [a]not to [1]keep company with sexually immoral people.
10 Yet I certainly did not mean with the sexually immoral people of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or idolaters, since then you would need to go [a]out of the world.
11 But now I have written to you not to keep company [a]with anyone named a brother, who is sexually immoral, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner—[b]not even to eat with such a person.
12 For what have I to do with judging

4:20 Paul's reference to the kingdom of God is not a future state, but the present reign of Christ in the hearts of His people.

5:1 Incest was strictly forbidden in Old Testament law (Lev. 18:8; Deut. 22:30).

5:6 The imagery in this passage refers to the Passover Feast and the prohibition to use yeast in that meal (Ex. 12:8). The people were to remove the old (leavened) bread crumbs from the house before they began to prepare the Passover meal.

5:8 The feast in this passage is used as an image of Christ, as He satisfied the requirements for the Passover Lamb (Is. 53:7; John 1:29; 1 Pet. 1:19).

5:9 "My epistle" refers to an earlier letter written to the church that has been lost to history. He corrects an apparent confusion from his first letter about avoiding sexually immoral people. They had understood him to mean all such people in the world, but he meant only those in the church who would corrupt it.

those also who are outside? Do you not judge those who are inside?
13 But those who are outside God judges. Therefore [a]"put away from yourselves the evil person."

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Cor. 5:6–13

A Healthy Body

Immorality is infectious, spreading its deadly poison like a contagious disease. Your personal relationship with God is to be diligently guarded. While reaching out to sinners, beware of downplaying sin and lowering standards of holiness. The health of the church body is at stake.

Do Not Sue the Brethren

6 Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unrighteous, and not before the [a]saints?
2 Do you not know that [a]the saints will judge the world? And if the world will be judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters?
3 Do you not know that we shall [a]judge angels? How much more, things that pertain to this life?
4 If then you have [1]judgments concerning things pertaining to this life, do you appoint those who are least esteemed by the church to judge?
5 I say this to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you, not even one, who will be able to judge between his brethren?
6 But brother goes to law against brother, and that before unbelievers!
7 Now therefore, it is already an utter failure for you that you go to law against one another. [a]Why do you not rather accept wrong? Why do you not rather let yourselves be cheated?
8 No, you yourselves do wrong and cheat, and you do these things to your brethren!
9 Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived. [a]Neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor [1]homosexuals, nor [2]sodomites, 10 nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners will inherit the kingdom of God.

1 [a]1 Cor. 7:8, 26

11 And such were [a]some of you. [b]But you were [1]sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus and by the Spirit of our God.

Glorify God in Body and Spirit

12 [a]All things are lawful for me, but all things are not [1]helpful. All things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of [2]any.
13 [a]Foods for the stomach and the stomach for foods, but God will destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for [b]sexual immorality but [c]for the Lord, [d]and the Lord for the body.
14 And [a]God both raised up the Lord and will also raise us up [b]by His power.
15 Do you not know that [a]your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ and make them members of a harlot? Certainly not!
16 Or do you not know that he who is joined to a harlot is one body with her? For [a]"the two," He says, "shall become one flesh."
17 [a]But he who is joined to the Lord is one spirit with Him.
18 [a]Flee sexual immorality. Every sin that a man does is outside the body, but he who commits sexual immorality sins [b]against his own body.

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Cor. 6:18

Stay Free

Flee anything that can potentially harm your relationship with Christ. Do not risk allowing sin to enter your heart. Once God has set you free by the blood of Christ, do not willingly walk back into bondage. Your salvation is too precious to treat carelessly, and so is the salvation of others.

19 Or [a]do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, [b]and you are not your own?
20 For [a]you were bought at a price; therefore glorify God in your body [1]and in your spirit, which are God's.

Principles of Marriage

7 Now concerning the things of which you wrote to me: [a]It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

6:1 The Corinthian church had members suing one another in the Roman courts, thereby making the church a mockery in the community. Their behavior illustrated just how divided the body was.

6:4 The "least esteemed" referred to judges in civil courts.

6:20 The description of a believer's body as a temple is not a figure of speech, it is reality. God's Spirit dwells within believers and makes use of their bodies for kingdom purposes. Believers, therefore, honor God with their bodies (Rom. 6:12, 13; 1 Cor. 10:31).

7:1 In 1 Corinthians 7:1—14:40 Paul refers to questions in a letter the Corinthian church wrote to him. The following section contains his response to their inquiries.

2 Nevertheless, because of sexual immorality, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband.
3 [a]Let the husband render to his wife the affection due her, and likewise also the wife to her husband.
4 The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband does. And likewise the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does.
5 [a]Do not deprive one another except with consent for a time, that you may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again so that [b]Satan does not tempt you because of your lack of self-control.
6 But I say this as a concession, [a]not as a commandment.
7 For [a]I wish that all men were even as I myself. But each one has his own gift from God, one in this manner and another in that.
8 But I say to the unmarried and to the widows: [a]It is good for them if they remain even as I am;
9 but [a]if they cannot exercise self-control, let them marry. For it is better to marry than to burn with passion.

Keep Your Marriage Vows

10 Now to the married I command, yet not I but the [a]Lord: [b]A wife is not to depart from her husband.
11 But even if she does depart, let her remain unmarried or be reconciled to her husband. And a husband is not to divorce his wife.
12 But to the rest I, not the Lord, say: If any brother has a wife who does not believe, and she is willing to live with him, let him not divorce her.
13 And a woman who has a husband who does not believe, if he is willing to live with her, let her not divorce him.
14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband; otherwise [a]your children would be unclean, but now they are holy.
15 But if the unbeliever departs, let him depart; a brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases. But God has called us [a]to peace.
16 For how do you know, O wife, whether you will [a]save your husband? Or how do you know, O husband, whether you will save your wife?

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Cor. 7:16

An Attractive Spirit

Allow Christ in you to affect those closest to you. More than words or actions, the Spirit within you is powerful in God's hands. Nobody is beyond Christ's power to save, so allow others to encounter Him in you. You may not always recognize what is happening, but Christ is in control. Trust Him to work in you and through you to bring glory to the Father.

Live as You Are Called

17 But as God has distributed to each one, as the Lord has called each one, so let him walk. And [a]so I [1]ordain in all the churches.
18 Was anyone called while circumcised? Let him not become uncircumcised. Was anyone called while uncircumcised? [a]Let him not be circumcised.
19 [a]Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing, but [b]keeping the commandments of God is what matters.
20 Let each one remain in the same calling in which he was called.
21 Were you called while a slave? Do not be concerned about it; but if you can be made free, rather use it.
22 For he who is called in the Lord while a slave is [a]the Lord's freedman. Likewise he who is called while free is [b]Christ's slave.
23 [a]You were bought at a price; do not become slaves of men.
24 Brethren, let each one remain with [a]God in that state in which he was called.

To the Unmarried and Widows

25 Now concerning virgins: [a]I have no commandment from the Lord; yet I give judgment as one [b]whom the Lord in His mercy has made [c]trustworthy.
26 I suppose therefore that this is good because of the present distress—[a]that it is good for a man to remain as he is:
27 Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be loosed. Are you loosed from a wife? Do not seek a wife.

7:2 Immorality was a way of life in Corinth. The temple to Aphrodite within the city employed 1,000 prostitute priestesses.

7:3 Spousal affection in this passage refers to sexual relations meant to be experienced within marriage as a deterrent to seeking sexual satisfaction outside of marriage.

7:25 Paul admits he has no commandment from the Lord on what he is about to suggest; it is simply his own opinion. As an apostle, however, his opinion would be regarded as authoritative.

7:26 The "present distress" refers to the persecution of Christians. In dangerous times, those with family responsibilities would find it harder to live out their calling because of the cost to their families. In less perilous circumstances, Paul urges young women to marry (1 Tim. 5:14). Paul is clearly not against marriage, but speaks realistically of the prevailing severe situation.

28 But even if you do marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Nevertheless such will have trouble in the flesh, but I would spare you.
29 But [a]this I say, brethren, the time is short, so that from now on even those who have wives should be as though they had none,
30 those who weep as though they did not weep, those who rejoice as though they did not rejoice, those who buy as though they did not possess,
31 and those who use this world as not [a]misusing it. For [b]the form of this world is passing away.
32 But I want you to be without [1]care. [a]He who is unmarried [2]cares for the things of the Lord—how he may please the Lord.
33 But he who is married cares about the things of the world—how he may please his wife.
34 There is a difference between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman [a]cares about the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But she who is married cares about the things of the world—how she may please her husband.
35 And this I say for your own profit, not that I may put a leash on you, but for what is proper, and that you may serve the Lord without distraction.
36 But if any man thinks he is behaving improperly toward his [1]virgin, if she is past the flower of youth, and thus it must be, let him do what he wishes. He does not sin; let them marry.
37 Nevertheless he who stands steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but has power over his own will, and has so determined in his heart that he will keep his [1]virgin, does well.
38 [a]So then he who gives [1]her in marriage does well, but he who does not give her in marriage does better.
39 [a]A wife is bound by law as long as her husband lives; but if her husband dies, she is at liberty to be married to whom she wishes, [b]only in the Lord.
40 But she is happier if she remains as she is, [a]according to my judgment—and [b]I think I also have the Spirit of God.

Be Sensitive to Conscience

8 Now [a]concerning things offered to idols: We know that we all have [b]knowledge. [c]Knowledge [1]puffs up, but love [2]edifies.
2 And [a]if anyone thinks that he knows anything, he knows nothing yet as he ought to know.
3 But if anyone loves God, this one is known by Him.
4 Therefore concerning the eating of things offered to idols, we know that [a]an idol is nothing in the world, [b]and that there is no other God but one.
5 For even if there are [a]so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth (as there are many gods and many lords),
6 yet [a]for us there is one God, the Father, [b]of whom are all things, and we for Him; and [c]one Lord Jesus Christ, [d]through whom are all things, and [e]through whom we live.
7 However, there is not in everyone that knowledge; for some, [a]with consciousness of the idol, until now eat it as a thing offered to an idol; and their conscience, being weak, is [b]defiled.
8 But [a]food does not commend us to God; for neither if we eat are we the better, nor if we do not eat are we the worse.
9 But [a]beware lest somehow this liberty of yours become [b]a [1]stumbling block to those who are weak.
10 For if anyone sees you who have knowledge eating in an idol's temple, will not [a]the conscience of him who is

Prove Your Love

Knowledge can be dangerous when not controlled by love. Seek to prove your love, not your knowledge. You will be accountable to God not for how much you knew, but for how you loved those whom He sent you.

WORD*Study* EDIFY

1 Cor. 8:1 The Greek word translated "edify," oikodomeō, means "to build." The New Testament uses the term to refer to objects: to build a house (Matt. 7:24; Luke 6:48), a tower (Matt. 21:33; Mark 12:1); and a sepulcher (Luke 11:47). Paul uses it to describe his apostolic activity building up the people of God (2 Cor. 12:19). All believers are to edify or build up one another (1 Thess. 5:11).

8:1 The Corinthians questioned Paul about food sacrificed to idols. There was a practice of taking meat that had previously been sacrificed to a pagan god and eating it. The meat was consumed by either the priest, the one offering the sacrifice, or one who bought the meat at a public market.

8:10 "Eating in an idol's temple" apparently was a common practice. In Corinth, archaeologists have discovered two temples containing large rooms for banquets. This could be where people gathered to feast on the meat that was abundant and readily available through daily sacrifices.

weak be emboldened to eat those things offered to idols?
11 And [a]because of your knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?
12 But [a]when you thus sin against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, you sin against Christ.
13 Therefore, [a]if food makes my brother stumble, I will never again eat meat, lest I make my brother stumble.

A Pattern of Self-Denial

9 Am [a]I not an apostle? Am I not free? [b]Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? [c]Are you not my work in the Lord?
2 If I am not an apostle to others, yet doubtless I am to you. For you are [a]the [1]seal of my apostleship in the Lord.
3 My defense to those who examine me is this:
4 [a]Do we have no [1]right to eat and drink?
5 Do we have no right to take along [1]a believing wife, as do also the other apostles, [a]the brothers of the Lord, and [b]Cephas?
6 Or is it only Barnabas and I [a]who have no right to refrain from working?
7 Who ever [a]goes to war at his own expense? Who [b]plants a vineyard and does not eat of its fruit? Or who [c]tends a flock and does not drink of the milk of the flock?
8 Do I say these things as a mere man? Or does not the law say the same also?
9 For it is written in the law of Moses, [a]"You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain." Is it oxen God is concerned about?
10 Or does He say it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written, that [a]he who plows should plow in hope, and he who threshes in hope should be partaker of his hope.
11 [a]If we have sown spiritual things for you, is it a great thing if we reap your material things?
12 If others are partakers of this right over you, are we not even more? [a]Nevertheless we have not used this right, but endure all things [b]lest we hinder the gospel of Christ.
13 [a]Do you not know that those who minister the holy things eat of the things of the [b]temple, and those who serve at the altar partake of the offerings of the altar?
14 Even so [a]the Lord has commanded [b]that those who preach the gospel should live from the gospel.
15 But [a]I have used none of these things, nor have I written these things that it should be done so to me; for [b]it would be better for me to die than that anyone should make my boasting void.
16 For if I preach the gospel, I have nothing to boast of, for [a]necessity is laid upon me; yes, woe is me if I do not preach the gospel!
17 For if I do this willingly, [a]I have a reward; but if against my will, [b]I have been entrusted with a stewardship.
18 What is my reward then? That [a]when I preach the gospel, I may present the gospel [1]of Christ without charge, that I [b]may not abuse my authority in the gospel.

Serving All Men

19 For though I am [a]free from all men, [b]I have made myself a servant to all, [c]that I might win the more;

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Cor. 9:19

Gospel Rights

Christ gave up everything for us. He left His Father's side to assume a frail human body. He who should have been served became a servant. He turned Himself over to the brutality of human hatred and He died a convict's death. Who are we to quibble over trivialities and cling to our "rights?"

20 and [a]to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might win Jews; to those who are under the law, as under the [1]law, that I might win those who are under the law;
21 [a]to [b]those who are without law, as without law [c](not being without [1]law toward God, but under [2]law toward Christ), that I might win those who are without law;
22 [a]to the weak I became [1]as weak, that I might win the weak. [b]I have become all things to all men, [c]that I might by all means save some.
23 Now this I do for the gospel's sake, that I may be partaker of it with you.

9:14 Paul's admonition that "those who preach the gospel should live from the gospel," indicates that God's people must support ministers. Priests in Israel were cared for; likewise New Testament ministers are to be supported financially (1 Tim. 5:17, 18).

9:20 Those under the law were those raised in the law of the Old Testament and its religious practices.

9:21 Those "without law" were the Gentiles who did not practice Old Testament laws and religious practices.

25 And everyone who competes for the prize [1]is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a perishable crown, but we for [a]an imperishable crown.
26 Therefore I run thus: [a]not with uncertainty. Thus I fight: not as one who beats the air.
27 [a]But I discipline my body and [b]bring it into subjection, lest, when I have preached to others, I myself should become [c]disqualified.

ENCOUNTER Note — 1 Cor. 9:27

Discipline

God's salvation is a gift; we cannot earn it. Yet the depth of salvation as we experience it depends largely on our determination and effort. Christian maturity and spiritual power do not come automatically. These come through focused effort to incorporate every promise of God into our lives.

Old Testament Examples

10 Moreover, brethren, I do not want you to be unaware that all our fathers were under [a]the cloud, all passed through [b]the sea,
2 all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea,
3 all ate the same [a]spiritual food,
4 and all drank the same [a]spiritual drink. For they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them, and that Rock was Christ.
5 But with most of them God was not well pleased, for their bodies [a]were scattered in the wilderness.
6 Now these things became our examples, to the intent that we should not lust after evil things as [a]they also lusted.
7 [a]And do not become idolaters as were some of them. As it is written, [b]"The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play."
8 [a]Nor let us commit sexual immorality, as [b]some of them did, and [c]in one day twenty-three thousand fell;
9 nor let us [1]tempt Christ, as [a]some of them also tempted, and [b]were destroyed by serpents;
10 nor complain, as [a]some of them also complained, and [b]were destroyed by [c]the destroyer.

11 Now [1]all these things happened to them as examples, and [a]they were written for our [2]admonition, [b]upon whom the ends of the ages have come.
12 Therefore [a]let him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall.

Humble Strength

Victory is a fleeting experience. While you are busy celebrating a success, the enemy can catch you off your guard and bring you down. Praise God for your success, but never let pride convince you that you are invulnerable. You are in critical need of God's guidance following your victory.

13 No temptation has overtaken you except such as is common to man; but [a]God is faithful, [b]who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will also make the way of escape, that you may be able to [1]bear it.

Flee from Idolatry

14 Therefore, my beloved, [a]flee from idolatry.
15 I speak as to [a]wise men; judge for yourselves what I say.
16 [a]The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the [1]communion of the blood of Christ? [b]The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?
17 For [a]we, though many, are one bread and one body; for we all partake of that one bread.
18 Observe [a]Israel [b]after the flesh: [c]Are not those who eat of the sacrifices [1]partakers of the altar?
19 What am I saying then? [a]That an idol is anything, or what is offered to idols is anything?
20 Rather, that the things which the Gentiles [a]sacrifice [b]they sacrifice to demons and not to God, and I do not want you to have fellowship with demons.
21 [a]You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and [b]the cup of demons; you cannot partake of the [c]Lord's table and of the table of demons.

10:1 "Under the cloud" refers to God's guidance and protection during the Exodus (Ex. 13:21, 22; 14:19; Num. 9:15–22; 14:14). "Passed through the sea" recalls God's deliverance from the Egyptians by parting the Red Sea (Ex. 14:22, 29).

10:7 The ancient Israelites were notorious for being idolaters in spite of God's presence among them. Their most notorious offense was worshiping a golden calf (Ex. 32:1–6).

10:13 Paul makes it clear that no sin is irresistible. God always makes provision for escape if we will make use of it.

10:14 Paul had to firmly address idolatry, as it was ingrained in Greek culture and pervaded the city of Corinth. The people had numerous gods, and the temptation would be to simply add the one true God to their list.

22 Or do we [a]provoke the Lord to jealousy? [b]Are we stronger than He?

All to the Glory of God

23 All things are lawful [1]for me, but not all things are [a]helpful; all things are lawful for me, but not all things [2]edify.
24 Let no one seek his own, but each one [a]the other's well-being.
25 [a]Eat whatever is sold in the meat market, asking no questions for conscience' sake;
26 for [a]"the earth is the LORD's, and all its fullness."
27 If any of those who do not believe invites you to dinner, and you desire to go, [a]eat whatever is set before you, asking no question for conscience' sake.
28 But if anyone says to you, "This was offered to idols," do not eat it [a]for the sake of the one who told you, and for conscience' sake; [1]for [b]"the earth is the LORD's, and all its fullness."
29 "Conscience," I say, not your own, but that of the other. For [a]why is my liberty judged by another man's conscience?
30 But if I partake with thanks, why am I evil spoken of for the food [a]over which I give thanks?
31 [a]Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.
32 [a]Give no offense, either to the Jews or to the Greeks or to the church of God,
33 just [a]as I also please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

11 Imitate[a] me, just as I also imitate Christ.

WORD*Study* IMITATE

1 Cor. 11:1 The Greek word, mimētēs, translated "imitate" is a noun meaning "imitator" or "follower" (1 Cor. 4:16; Eph. 5:1; 1 Thess. 1:6; 1 Pet. 3:13). The verb form of this word can also mean "to mimic." Paul uses the term in the sense of following his example as an authoritative figure. To imitate his life is to imitate his faith. More than just living up to the standard of his faith, Paul encourages believers to take up the full commitment to Jesus Christ. For those who do not know how to follow Christ, he offers himself as a living example of what the Christian faith looks like.

6 For if a woman is not covered, let her also be shorn. But if it is [a]shameful for a woman to be shorn or shaved, let her be covered.
7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, since [a]he is the image and glory of God; but woman is the glory of man.
8 For man is not from woman, but woman [a]from man.
9 Nor was man created for the woman, but woman [a]for the man.
10 For this reason the woman ought to have a symbol of authority on her head, because of the angels.
11 Nevertheless, [a]neither is man independent of woman, nor woman independent of man, in the Lord.
12 For as woman came from man, even so man also comes through woman; but all things are from God.
13 Judge among yourselves. Is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered?
14 Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him?
15 But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her; for her hair is given [1]to her for a covering.
16 But [a]if anyone seems to be contentious, we have no such custom, [b]nor do the churches of God.

Conduct at the Lord's Supper

17 Now in giving these instructions I do not praise you, since you come together not for the better but for the worse.

10:26 "The earth is the Lord's and all its fullness" was a traditional saying at Jewish mealtime, a quote from Psalm 24:1. It meant all food is produced from the earth, and therefore is a gift from God.

11:5 For a woman in the city and culture of Corinth to have her head uncovered in public was a sign of loose morals and sexual promiscuity. It was also disrespectful to her husband. According to Paul, man was created first and is to have first place as the spiritual head of the home (1 Tim. 2:11–14). The wife was created out of man's body and is to be a helper and companion to her husband (Gen. 2:20). The husband and wife are equal before God, but they each have different roles within marriage; just as the Father and the Son are equal in essence, but Jesus willingly submitted to the will of the Father.

11:8 Woman from man is a reference to the order and occasion of creation (Gen. 2:21–23).

18 For first of all, when you come together as a church, [a]I hear that there are divisions among you, and in part I believe it.
19 For [a]there must also be factions among you, [b]that those who are approved may be [1]recognized among you.
20 Therefore when you come together in one place, it is not to eat the Lord's Supper.
21 For in eating, each one takes his own supper ahead of others; and one is hungry and [a]another is drunk.
22 What! Do you not have houses to eat and drink in? Or do you despise [a]the church of God and [b]shame [1]those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you in this? I do not praise you.

Institution of the Lord's Supper

23 For [a]I received from the Lord that which I also delivered to you: [b]that the Lord Jesus on the same night in which He was betrayed took bread;
24 and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, [1]"Take, eat; this is My body which is [2]broken for you; do this in remembrance of Me."
25 In the same manner He also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me."
26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death [a]till He comes.

Examine Yourself

27 Therefore whoever eats [a]this bread or drinks this cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of the body and [1]blood of the Lord.
28 But [a]let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread and drink of the cup.

ENCOUNTER Note — 1 Cor. 11:27

Sacrifice Remembered

Access to holy God has been granted through the death of His only Son; a solemn and intense act of love. The death and resurrection of Christ must be remembered in a manner worthy of the act itself. He gave His life for us; and He is present as we offer ourselves to Him through the Lord's Supper.

29 For he who eats and drinks [1]in an unworthy manner eats and drinks judgment to himself, not discerning the [2]Lord's body.
30 For this reason many are weak and sick among you, and many [1]sleep.
31 For [a]if we would judge ourselves, we would not be judged.
32 But when we are judged, [a]we are chastened by the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world.
33 Therefore, my brethren, when you [a]come together to eat, wait for one another.
34 But if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, lest you come together for judgment. And the rest I will set in order when I come.

Spiritual Gifts: Unity in Diversity

12 Now [a]concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I do not want you to be ignorant:
2 You know [a]that[1] you were Gentiles, carried away to these [b]dumb[2] idols, however you were led.
3 Therefore I make known to you that

WORD Study — SPIRITUAL GIFTS

1 Cor. 12:1 The Greek term translated "spiritual gifts" is literally "spiritual" (pneumatikos), and could be "spiritual matters," or even "spiritual ones" (Rom. 1:11; 7:14; 15:27; 1 Cor. 2:13, 15; 3:1; 10:3, 4; Col. 1:9). It comes from the root word pneuma which means "spirit," "breath," "life," or "soul." Paul uses this term for anything spiritual that comes from God to a believer. The proper term for "gift" is the word charisma. It means "gift," "benefit," or "a favor bestowed" (Rom. 6:23; 11:29; 1 Cor. 1:7; 7:7; 12:4, 9, 28, 30; 1 Tim. 4:14). Its root word charis means "grace." This phrase is therefore often called a "grace gift;" something that is freely and graciously given. All spiritual gifts are the manifestation of the indwelling Spirit of God (1 Cor. 12:7) within a believer's life, and they are for the purpose of building up the body. These gifts include teaching, extraordinary faith, healing, miracles, prophesying, discerning spirits, tongues, interpreting tongues, and other gifts as mentioned in scripture.

11:26 "As often as you eat this bread and drink this cup" indicates the continuous nature of the Lord's Supper, but not the rate of recurrence.

11:30 "Sleep" is a figure of speech for death, punishment for taking the Lord's Supper in an unworthy manner.

12:1 "Now concerning" indicates that Paul was responding to a question posed by the Corinthian church about spiritual gifts.

no one speaking by the Spirit of God calls Jesus [1]accursed, and [a]no one can say that Jesus is Lord except by the Holy Spirit.
4 [a]There are [1]diversities of gifts, but [b]the same Spirit.
5 [a]There are differences of ministries, but the same Lord.
6 And there are diversities of activities, but it is the same God [a]who works [1]all in all.
7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to each one for the profit of all:

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Cor. 12:7

The Gift

The Holy Spirit does not merely give us a talent or ability, He gives us Himself; He then works through us to accomplish the Father's will. Though people observe a believer doing good works, in reality they are seeing the manifestation of the Spirit through a human instrument. If we do not walk in the Spirit, however, we have no spiritual gifts, only natural talent to serve God in our own strength.

8 for to one is given [a]the word of wisdom through the Spirit, to another [b]the word of knowledge through the same Spirit,
9 [a]to another faith by the same Spirit, to another [b]gifts of healings by [1]the same Spirit,
10 [a]to another the working of miracles, to another [b]prophecy, to another [c]discerning of spirits, to another [d]different kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues.
11 But one and the same Spirit works all these things, [a]distributing to each one individually [b]as He wills.

Unity and Diversity in One Body

12 For [a]as the body is one and has many members, but all the members of that one body, being many, are one body, [b]so also is Christ.
13 For [a]by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—[b]whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free—and [c]have all been made to drink [1]into one Spirit.
14 For in fact the body is not one member but many.
15 If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I am not of the body," is it therefore not of the body?
16 And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I am not of the body," is it therefore not of the body?
17 If the whole body were an eye, where would be the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where would be the smelling?
18 But now [a]God has set the members, each one of them, in the body [b]just as He pleased.
19 And if they were all one member, where would the body be?
20 But now indeed there are many members, yet one body.
21 And the eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you"; nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you."
22 No, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary.
23 And those members of the body which we think to be less honorable, on these we bestow greater honor; and our unpresentable parts have greater modesty,
24 but our presentable parts have no need. But God composed the body, having given greater honor to that part which lacks it,
25 that there should be no [1]schism in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another.
26 And if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; or if one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.
27 Now [a]you are the body of Christ, and [b]members individually.
28 And [a]God has appointed these in the church: first [b]apostles, second [c]prophets, third teachers, after that [d]miracles, then [e]gifts of healings, [f]helps, [g]administrations, varieties of tongues.
29 Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all workers of miracles?
30 Do all have gifts of healings? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret?
31 But [a]earnestly desire the [1]best gifts. And yet I show you a more excellent way.

The Greatest Gift

13 Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I have become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal.

12:4 There is diversity among the members; but unity as a body (12:12). "Same Spirit . . . same Lord . . . same God . . ." is a clear Trinitarian formula which unites all believers and calls attention to the divine origin of spiritual gifts.

12:11 "He wills" indicates that gifts are given according to the Father's plan. All gifts are for the common good, as the church pursues God's will, not to benefit individual members' interests.

13:1 Paul uses hyperbole in this section, extreme or exaggerated statements to make his point.

2 And though I have the gift of [a]prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith, [b]so that I could remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.
3 And [a]though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body [1]to be burned, but have not love, it profits me nothing.

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Cor. 13:3

Christ's Love

We can do all the right things, but unless they emanate from the love of Christ they are dead works. When God's Spirit loves others through us, these people experience God's love firsthand.

4 [a]Love suffers long and is [b]kind; love [c]does not envy; love does not parade itself, is not [1]puffed up;
5 does not behave rudely, [a]does not seek its own, is not provoked, [1]thinks no evil;
6 [a]does not rejoice in iniquity, but [b]rejoices in the truth;
7 [a]bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.
8 Love never fails. But whether there are prophecies, they will fail; whether there are tongues, they will cease; whether there is knowledge, it will vanish away.
9 [a]For we know in part and we prophesy in part.
10 But when that which is [1]perfect has come, then that which is in part will be done away.
11 When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things.
12 For [a]now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then [b]face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know just as I also am known.
13 And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

Prophecy and Tongues

14 Pursue love, and [a]desire spiritual gifts, [b]but especially that you may prophesy.

2 For he who [a]speaks in a tongue does not speak to men but to God, for no one understands him; however, in the spirit he speaks mysteries.
3 But he who prophesies speaks [a]edification and [b]exhortation and comfort to men.
4 He who speaks in a tongue edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies the church.
5 I wish you all spoke with tongues, but even more that you prophesied; [1]for he who prophesies is greater than he who speaks with tongues, unless indeed he interprets, that the church may receive edification.

Tongues Must Be Interpreted

6 But now, brethren, if I come to you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you unless I speak to you either by [a]revelation, by knowledge, by prophesying, or by teaching?
7 Even things without life, whether flute or harp, when they make a sound, unless they make a distinction in the sounds, how will it be known what is piped or played?
8 For if the trumpet makes an uncertain sound, who will prepare for battle?
9 So likewise you, unless you utter by the tongue words easy to understand, how will it be known what is spoken? For you will be speaking into the air.
10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of languages in the world, and none of them is without [1]significance.
11 Therefore, if I do not know the meaning of the language, I shall be a [1]foreigner to him who speaks, and he who speaks will be a foreigner to me.
12 Even so you, since you are [1]zealous for spiritual gifts, let it be for the [2]edification of the church that you seek to excel.

Zealous for God

Gifts of the Spirit are for glorifying God, not self. The Spirit distributes gifts to every believer for the purpose of building up the body. Zeal for God and His people must be the established priority of our lives.

13:3 "Give my body to be burned" is a reference to martyrdom—being burned at the stake.

13:4 This passage is a description of love in action within the body of Christ. Though it can be applied to spousal love, as it often is, it is meant as instruction for how believers are to treat one another in the church.

13:10 "Perfect" can also be translated "end" or "complete." It is probably a reference to the Second Coming of Christ when He will bring all things to completion.

14:3 To prophecy would include all speaking gifts which build up the body. Edification, exhortation, and comfort are the results of prophecy.

13 Therefore let him who speaks in a tongue pray that he may [a]interpret.
14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful.
15 What is the conclusion then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will also pray with the understanding. [a]I will sing with the spirit, and I will also sing [b]with the understanding.
16 Otherwise, if you bless with the spirit, how will he who occupies the place of the uninformed say "Amen" [a]at your giving of thanks, since he does not understand what you say?
17 For you indeed give thanks well, but the other is not edified.
18 I thank my God I speak with tongues more than you all;
19 yet in the church I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that I may teach others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

Tongues a Sign to Unbelievers

20 Brethren, [a]do not be children in understanding; however, in malice [b]be babes, but in understanding be mature.
21 [a]In the law it is written:

> [b]"With men of other tongues and other lips
> I will speak to this people;
> And yet, for all that, they will not hear Me,"

says the Lord.
22 Therefore tongues are for a [a]sign, not to those who believe but to unbelievers; but prophesying is not for unbelievers but for those who believe.
23 Therefore if the whole church comes together in one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those who are uninformed or unbelievers, [a]will they not say that you are [1]out of your mind?
24 But if all prophesy, and an unbeliever or an uninformed person comes in, he is convinced by all, he is convicted by all.
25 [1]And thus the secrets of his heart are revealed; and so, falling down on his face, he will worship God and report [a]that God is truly among you.

Order in Church Meetings

26 How is it then, brethren? Whenever you come together, each of you has a psalm, [a]has a teaching, has a tongue, has a revelation, has an interpretation. [b]Let all things be done for [1]edification.

WORD*Study* TONGUES

1 Cor. 14:18 The Greek word, glōssa translated "tongue" is the word for "language," or "speech." The English word "glossary" comes from this Greek word. "Tongue" is used in several distinctive ways in the New Testament. First, the tongue is a physical organ (Mark 7:35; Luke 16:24). Second, writers use tongue in an Old Testament manner as an expression of character, an organ that expresses the heart of the speaker (Rom. 3:13; Phil. 2:11; James 1:26). Third, tongue is used as a visible manifestation of the Holy Spirit coming, as "tongues of fire" (Acts 2:3), and thus fulfilling Joel's prophecy concerning the Spirit being poured out on all flesh (Joel 2:28–32). Fourth, the word tongue is used to express a foreign language, as in Acts 2:4, 11, where people from many nations heard and understood the apostles speak the gospel in their native tongue. This event demonstrated the universality of the gospel. Paul, the greatest missionary in the early church, had the gift of tongues more than any other; he was called to communicate the gospel to the Gentiles. The last meaning for tongues designates the Spirit's gift of verbal communication in a language unknown to the speaker (Acts 10:46; 19:6; 1 Cor. 12:3–31; 14:1–40). The reason glossa came to be used for this phenomenon is debatable. It is never "meaningless babble" or in some way "unintelligible sound," but communication of the Spirit; a sign of the Spirit. This form of language was being abused by the church, as people wanted to appear more spiritual through ecstatic utterances. Paul sharply criticized this practice and subjected it to strict guidelines (1 Cor. 14:6–33).

27 If anyone speaks in a tongue, let there be two or at the most three, each in turn, and let one interpret.
28 But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silent in church, and let him speak to himself and to God.
29 Let two or three prophets speak, and [a]let the others judge.
30 But if anything is revealed to another who sits by, [a]let the first keep silent.
31 For you can all prophesy one by one,

14:16 "Amen" means "it is true" or "so be it." Amen was a common response in worship when a person agreed with truth spoken. One cannot agree with words that are unintelligible.

14:29 "Let the others judge" indicates that everyone is accountable to the church. No gift is solely to benefit the individual, nor can a person go against the judgment of the body in using a spiritual gift.

that all may learn and all may be encouraged.
32 And [a]the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.
33 For God is not the author of [1]confusion but of peace, [a]as in all the churches of the saints.
34 [a]Let [1]your women keep silent in the churches, for they are not permitted to speak; but they are to be submissive, as the [b]law also says.
35 And if they want to learn something, let them ask their own husbands at home; for it is shameful for women to speak in church.
36 Or did the word of God come originally from you? Or was it you only that it reached?
37 [a]If anyone thinks himself to be a prophet or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things which I write to you are the commandments of the Lord.
38 But [1]if anyone is ignorant, let him be ignorant.
39 Therefore, brethren, [a]desire earnestly to prophesy, and do not forbid to speak with tongues.
40 [a]Let all things be done decently and in order.

The Risen Christ, Faith's Reality

15 Moreover, brethren, I declare to you the gospel [a]which I preached to you, which also you received and [b]in which you stand,
2 [a]by which also you are saved, if you hold fast that word which I preached to you—unless [b]you believed in vain.
3 For [a]I delivered to you first of all that [b]which I also received: that Christ died for our sins [c]according to the Scriptures,
4 and that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day [a]according to the Scriptures,
5 [a]and that He was seen by [1]Cephas, then [b]by the twelve.
6 After that He was seen by over five hundred brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain to the present, but some have [1]fallen asleep.
7 After that He was seen by James, then [a]by all the apostles.
8 [a]Then last of all He was seen by me also, as by one born out of due time.
9 For I am [a]the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because [b]I persecuted the church of God.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Cor. 15:10

The Courage of Humility

Humility does not deny the supernatural miracle of redemption; it does not downplay or minimize the new creation in Christ. The believer has been born again by the Spirit of God, and Christ dwells within. To make light of God's grace is to offend the Savior and to neglect His saving purposes. True humility is confident and courageous; knowing that the grace of God provides everything necessary for a godly life.

11 Therefore, whether it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed.

The Risen Christ, Our Hope

12 Now if Christ is preached that He has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead?
13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, [a]then Christ is not risen.
14 And if Christ is not risen, then our preaching is empty and your faith is also empty.
15 Yes, and we are found false witnesses of God, because [a]we have testified of God that He raised up Christ, whom He did not raise up—if in fact the dead do not rise.
16 For if the dead do not rise, then Christ is not risen.
17 And if Christ is not risen, your faith is futile; [a]you are still in your sins!
18 Then also those who have [1]fallen [a]asleep in Christ have perished.
19 [a]If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men the most pitiable.

The Last Enemy Destroyed

20 But now [a]Christ is risen from the dead, and has become [b]the firstfruits of those who have [1]fallen asleep.
21 For [a]since by man came death, [b]by Man also came the resurrection of the dead.

15:3 Evidence for the death and resurrection of Jesus is twofold: the testimony of the Old Testament prophets (Ps. 16:8–11; 22:1, 18; 69:21; Is. 53:5–12; Dan. 7:13, 14) and the testimony of numerous eyewitness (John 20:1—21:25; Acts 1:21, 22), most of whom were still alive at the time of Paul's writing.

15:7 James was the half brother of Jesus (Matt. 13:55), as Paul mentions him apart from the group of apostles. He became a significant leader in the Jerusalem church (Acts 15:13).

15:8 "Out of due time" singles Paul out as the only apostle who began his relationship with Jesus after the resurrection and who did not have the privilege of knowing Him on earth as the others did.

WORD Study — RESURRECTION

1 Cor. 15:12 The Greek word anastasis, translated "resurrection" comes from a word meaning "to rise" (Luke 2:34; 14:14; 20:27; John 11:24, 25; Acts 1:22; Rom. 1:4; 6:5; Phil. 3:10). Individuals in the Old and New Testament were resuscitated back to life after death (1 Kin. 17:17–24; 2 Kin. 4:18–37; Matt. 9:18–26; John 11). These all represent God's power over death, but none of them involve resurrection. Jesus was resurrected to everlasting life in a transformed state of being that passed beyond death and decay. Jesus, therefore, was resurrected in a manner unknown to humanity, and the term acquired new meaning when applied to Him. Resurrection became the proof of the gospel's power to redeem, and Jesus became the "firstfruits" of those who would be raised up on the day of His return (1 Cor. 15:20). It is clear that all who have died must appear before God in judgment (Heb. 9:27; Rev. 20:11–15), but resurrection as transformation is only for believers (1 Cor. 15:42–55; 1 Thess. 4:14–18; 1 John 3:1, 2). Resurrection is the state in which believers enjoy their eternal destiny; a life beyond this life. Because Jesus lives, we too shall live with Him. The resurrection of Christ is the proof and power of the gospel.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ all shall [a]be made alive.
23 But [a]each one in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, afterward those who are Christ's at His coming.
24 Then comes the end, when He delivers [a]the kingdom to God the Father, when He puts an end to all rule and all authority and power.
25 For He must reign [a]till He has put all enemies under His feet.
26 [a]The last enemy that will be destroyed is death.
27 For [a]"He has put all things under His feet." But when He says "all things are put under Him," it is evident that He who put all things under Him is excepted.
28 [a]Now when all things are made subject to Him, then [b]the Son Himself will also be subject to Him who put all things under Him, that God may be all in all.

Effects of Denying the Resurrection

29 Otherwise, what will they do who are baptized for the dead, if the dead do not rise at all? Why then are they baptized for the dead?
30 And [a]why do we stand in [1]jeopardy every hour?
31 I affirm, by [a]the boasting in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, [b]I die daily.
32 If, in the manner of men, [a]I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantage is it to me? If the dead do not rise, [b]"Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!"
33 Do not be deceived: [a]"Evil company corrupts good habits."
34 [a]Awake to righteousness, and do not sin; [b]for some do not have the knowledge of God. [c]I speak this to your shame.

A Glorious Body

35 But someone will say, [a]"How are the dead raised up? And with what body do they come?"
36 Foolish one, [a]what you sow is not made alive unless it dies.
37 And what you sow, you do not sow that body that shall be, but mere grain—perhaps wheat or some other grain.
38 But God gives it a body as He pleases, and to each seed its own body.
39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one kind [1]of flesh of men, another flesh of animals, another of fish, and another of birds.
40 There are also [1]celestial bodies and [2]terrestrial bodies; but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.
41 There is one glory of the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory.
42 [a]So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption.
43 [a]It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power.
44 It is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.
45 And so it is written, [a]"The first man Adam became a living being." [b]The last Adam became [c]a life-giving spirit.
46 However, the spiritual is not first, but the natural, and afterward the spiritual.

15:22 "In Adam all die" means that all mankind suffers the consequence of Adam's sin (Gen. 2:17; 3:17–19).

15:29 "Baptized for the dead" suggests there were those being baptized on behalf of people who had died without baptism. Paul neither condones nor condemns the practice, but it does not find support in scripture.

15:33 Paul quotes the Greek poet Menander from the comedy entitled "Thais." This saying was familiar to the Corinthians.

47 [a]The first man was of the earth, [b]made[1] of dust; the second Man is [2]the Lord [c]from heaven.
48 As was the [1]man of dust, so also are those who are made of dust; [a]and as is the heavenly Man, so also are those who are heavenly.
49 And [a]as we have borne the image of the man of dust, [b]we[1] shall also bear the image of the heavenly Man.

Our Final Victory

50 Now this I say, brethren, that [a]flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; nor does corruption inherit incorruption.
51 Behold, I tell you a [1]mystery: [a]We shall not all sleep, [b]but we shall all be changed—
52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. [a]For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.
53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and [a]this mortal must put on immortality.
54 So when this corruptible has put on incorruption, and this mortal has put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written: [a]"Death is swallowed up in victory."

55 "O[a1] Death, where is your sting?
O Hades, where is your victory?"

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Cor. 15:55

Fear Turns to Hope

No one can escape death, but we can escape its sting. Knowing Christ means our fear of death has now become our hope of glory. Those who die in Christ will live in the presence of God for eternity. Death temporarily removes us from those we love, but it relocates us into the presence of the One who loves us most.

56 The sting of death is sin, and [a]the strength of sin is the law.
57 [a]But thanks be to God, who gives us [b]the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.
58 [a]Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing [b]that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

3 And when I come, [a]whomever you approve by your letters I will send to bear your gift to Jerusalem.
4 [a]But if it is fitting that I go also, they will go with me.

Personal Plans

5 Now I will come to you [a]when I pass through Macedonia (for I am passing through Macedonia).
6 And it may be that I will remain, or even spend the winter with you, that you may [a]send me on my journey, wherever I go.
7 For I do not wish to see you now on the way; but I hope to stay a while with you, [a]if the Lord permits.
8 But I will tarry in Ephesus until [a]Pentecost.
9 For [a]a great and effective door has opened to me, and [b]there are many adversaries.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Cor. 16:9

Opportunity and Opposition

Opportunity for service often attracts opposition to the gospel. No person can thwart God's plans, so keep your eyes on Him and don't be distracted by the activity of people. Be wary, but be of good courage; the God whom you serve is more than capable of giving you victory.

10 And [a]if Timothy comes, see that he may be with you without fear; for [b]he does the work of the Lord, as I also do.
11 [a]Therefore let no one despise him. But send him on his journey [b]in peace, that he may come to me; for I am waiting for him with the brethren.
12 Now concerning our brother [a]Apollos, I strongly urged him to come to you with the brethren, but he was quite unwilling to come at this time; however, he will come when he has a convenient time.

Final Exhortations

13 [a]Watch, [b]stand fast in the faith, be brave, [c]be strong.

15:56 The strength of sin is the law because the law reveals sin and condemns the sinner.

16:1 "Now concerning" indicates this is the answer to another question posed by the Corinthian church this time regarding the collection of an offering (Acts 11:29, 30; Rom. 15:25–28).

14 [a]Let all that you do be done with love.
15 I urge you, brethren—you know [a]the household of Stephanas, that it is [b]the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have devoted themselves to [c]the ministry of the saints—16 [a]that you also submit to such, and to everyone who works and [b]labors with us.
17 I am glad about the coming of Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus, [a]for what was lacking on your part they supplied.
18 [a]For they refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore [b]acknowledge such men.

Greetings and a Solemn Farewell

19 The churches of Asia greet you. Aquila and Priscilla greet you heartily in the Lord, [a]with the church that is in their house.
20 All the brethren greet you. [a]Greet one another with a holy kiss.
21 [a]The salutation with my own hand—Paul's.
22 If anyone [a]does not love the Lord Jesus Christ, [b]let him be [1]accursed. [c]O[2] Lord, come!
23 [a]The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

16:15 The household of Stephanas was one of the first to respond to the gospel in Achaia.

16:19 The province of Asia was in western Asia Minor (present-day Turkey). Aquila and Priscilla, tentmakers, were always mentioned together as husband and wife. They made their house available to the church (Rom. 16:3–5).

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS

INTRODUCTION

The apostle Paul identifies himself as the author of this epistle (2 Cor. 1:1; 10:1), which contains the most autobiographical material found in any of his letters. Both First and Second Corinthians were written during Paul's third missionary journey. The first epistle was written from Ephesus before Pentecost in the spring of A.D. 55. Evidence suggests that this second letter was written later that year in Macedonia, probably at Philippi (2:13; 7:5; 8:1). Though it is addressed to the church in Corinth and to Christians throughout Achaia (1:1), the letter was probably copied and distributed among several churches. Paul had apparently written a letter previous to First Corinthians which has not been preserved. For information on the city of Corinth, see the introduction to First Corinthians.

Second Corinthians is a candid letter, written to people Paul knew personally. It alludes to people and events the readers would have known, but no explanations are included that would enlighten the modern reader. One such example is Paul's reference to "a thorn in the flesh" (12:7). The Corinthians probably knew what this was, but we are left to speculate. The defensive nature of the letter is unusual in Paul's writing. He was compelled to respond to accusations against him.

SIGNIFICANCE

Paul had established the church in Corinth (Acts 18:1–17; 1 Cor. 3:6, 10) and he had a special interest in its spiritual condition. The troubled state of the church warranted Paul's stern tone in response. This was undoubtedly a painful letter for Paul to write. His earlier admonition to correct issues in the church was met with resistance by false teachers who challenged his apostolic authority. This letter, therefore, is more personal, revealing Paul's inner feelings and ministerial struggles more than any other book. It is a godly response to a difficult situation, dispensing a mixture of grace and truth.

Second Corinthians is laced with rich theological insight and practical application. Paul challenges the believer both in victory and in affliction, knowing both the heights and depths of the Christian experience. But he relates all sin and schisms in the church back to a spiritual root. While affirming the triumph of Christ in all things (2 Cor. 1:20; 2:14), he also warns against the schemes of the evil one intended to divide the church (2:11) and blind Christians from the truth (4:4; 11:3, 14). Paul urges all believers to live holy lives, to be reconciled with one another, and to be set apart for Christ (5:14–18), for in Christ alone is our victory. All must give an account for how they have responded to Him and how they have acted toward His people (5:10, 11; 7:1). Everyone, therefore, ought to examine their lives to see if they belong to God or not (13:5).

STRUCTURE

The structure of this letter relates to Paul's upcoming third visit to Corinth. The book falls into three distinct sections. First, Paul explains his change of plans. Second, he challenges the church to complete their collection of the love offering for impoverished Christians in Jerusalem before he comes. Third, he emphasizes the certainty of his coming, the authenticity of his apostolic authority, and his willingness to bring discipline to the church if necessary. Second Corinthians can be outlined as follows:

Introduction (1:1–11)
Paul's Ministry
- Paul's Conduct in Ministry (1:12—2:11)
- Paul's Character in Ministry (2:12—6:10)
- Paul's Appeal (6:11—7:4)
- Paul's Comfort (7:5–16)

Partnership Through Giving (8:1—9:15)

Vindication of Paul's Ministry
Apostolic Authority (10:1—12:10)
Discipline (12:11—13:10)
Conclusion (13:11–14)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH SECOND CORINTHIANS

This letter, although quite personal in nature, contains profound theological truth for all believers. Be alert for things that will distract the church and keep God's people from experiencing His best. Satan is active in the world, seeking to deceive believers into living impoverished and ineffective lives (10:3–6). You will be challenged to guard your relationship with Christ. Abiding in Christ provides everything necessary to combat the evil one and to live a victorious Christian life. Notice also the nature of Christ, both His human and divine attributes that bring victory over sin and death. You should find great encouragement in the hope of eternal life through the power of the resurrection (4:14). Most of all, the Holy Spirit will point you to the love of Christ; a love that compels you to live for Him who died for you. A life that has been reconciled to God must also live a life of reconciliation before a watching world (5:12–21). The Holy Spirit, therefore, will challenge you in the area of relationships. Respond to His word, for it will set you free to be used by God in His wonderful plan of salvation.

Greeting

PAUL, [a]an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and [b]Timothy our brother,

To the church of God which is at Corinth, [c]with all the saints who are in all Achaia:

2 [a]Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Comfort in Suffering

3 [a]Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort,
4 who [a]comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any [1]trouble, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.
5 For as [a]the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our [1]consolation also abounds through Christ.
6 Now if we are afflicted, [a]it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effective for enduring the same sufferings which we also suffer. Or if we are comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.
7 And our hope for you is steadfast, because we know that [a]as you are partakers of the sufferings, so also you will partake of the consolation.

Delivered from Suffering

8 For we do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, of [a]our [1]trouble which came to us in Asia: that we were burdened beyond measure, above strength, so that we despaired even of life.
9 Yes, we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should [a]not trust in ourselves but in God who raises the dead,
10 [a]who delivered us from so great a death, and [1]does deliver us; in whom we trust that He will still deliver us, 11 you also [a]helping together in prayer for us, that thanks may be given by many persons on [1]our behalf [b]for the gift granted to us through many.

Paul's Sincerity

WORDStudy — COMFORT

2 Cor. 1:4 The Greek word parakaleō, translated "comfort," is a compound verb that literally means "to call to one's side," or "to summon" for help. Its most common meaning is "to exhort," "to comfort," or "to encourage" (2 Cor. 7:6, 7, 13; Col. 2:2; 4:8; 1 Thess. 4:18; 5:11). God's comfort is the result of His presence through salvation, but it also looks forward to a future deliverance (Rom. 15:4; 2 Thess. 2:16). Paul uses this term or one like it ten times in this chapter, claiming it is the purpose for meeting together as a church. Just as God has come alongside our lives to comfort, so we do likewise to other believers.

1:1 An apostle is one commissioned by Christ. This designation is especially important, as some in Corinth questioned Paul's authority. "Achaia" was southern Greece.

1:8 "Asia" was the name of a Roman province in western Asia Minor (present-day Turkey).

ducted ourselves in the world in [1]simplicity and [a]godly sincerity, [b]not with fleshly wisdom but by the grace of God, and more abundantly toward you.
13 For we are not writing any other things to you than what you read or understand. Now I trust you will understand, even to the end 14 (as also you have understood us in part), [a]that we are your boast as [b]you also are ours, in the day of the Lord Jesus.

Sparing the Church

15 And in this confidence [a]I intended to come to you before, that you might have [b]a second benefit—
16 to pass by way of you to Macedonia, [a]to come again from Macedonia to you, and be helped by you on my way to Judea.
17 Therefore, when I was planning this, did I do it lightly? Or the things I plan, do I plan [a]according to the flesh, that with me there should be Yes, Yes, and No, No?
18 But as God is [a]faithful, our [1]word to you was not Yes and No.
19 For [a]the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us—by me, [b]Silvanus, and [c]Timothy—was not Yes and No, [d]but in Him was Yes.
20 [a]For all the promises of God in Him are Yes, and in Him Amen, to the glory of God through us.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Cor. 1:20

Yes In Christ

An encounter with God is not a theory, but an experience. All the promises of God in scripture are to be realized in life through a relationship with His Son, the channel of His blessing to humanity. Search the scriptures to discover the riches of His grace toward you in Christ Jesus. A wealth of God's promises await those who know them, believe them, and embrace them.

21 Now He who establishes us with you in Christ and [a]has anointed us is God, 22 who [a]also has sealed us and [b]given us the Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee.

12 [a]Acts 16:8 [b]1 Cor. 16:9 [1]Opportunity
13 [a]2 Cor. 7:6, 13; 8:6

23 Moreover [a]I call God as witness against my soul, [b]that to spare you I came no more to Corinth.
24 Not [a]that we [1]have dominion over your faith, but are fellow workers for your joy; for [b]by faith you stand.
2 But I determined this within myself, [a]that I would not come again to you in sorrow.
2 For if I make you [a]sorrowful, then who is he who makes me glad but the one who is made sorrowful by me?

Forgive the Offender

3 And I wrote this very thing to you, lest, when I came, [a]I should have sorrow over those from whom I ought to have joy, [b]having confidence in you all that my joy is the joy of you all.
4 For out of much [1]affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you, with many tears, [a]not that you should be grieved, but that you might know the love which I have so abundantly for you.
5 But [a]if anyone has caused grief, he has not [b]grieved me, but all of you to some extent—not to be too severe.
6 This punishment which was inflicted [a]by the majority is sufficient for such a man,
7 [a]so that, on the contrary, you ought rather to forgive and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one be swallowed up with too much sorrow.
8 Therefore I urge you to reaffirm your love to him.
9 For to this end I also wrote, that I might put you to the test, whether you are [a]obedient in all things.
10 Now whom you forgive anything, I also forgive. For [1]if indeed I have forgiven anything, I have forgiven that one for your sakes in the presence of Christ, 11 lest Satan should take advantage of us; for we are not ignorant of his devices.

Triumph in Christ

12 Furthermore, [a]when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and [b]a [1]door was opened to me by the Lord,
13 [a]I had no rest in my spirit, because I did not find Titus my brother; but taking my leave of them, I departed for Macedonia.

1:22 To seal something was a sign of ownership. A guarantee acted as a down payment of that which would come in the future. This was an assurance that the whole was yet to come.

2:1 Paul apparently had a previous visit to the church in Corinth that was very painful. This former visit is not recorded, or at least no record of it has survived.

2:3 Paul indicates that he wrote an earlier letter. Traditionally this letter is believed to be First Corinthians. More recently, it is thought to be a letter written in between First and Second Corinthians that has been lost. Still others identify this letter as chapters 10–13, as they match the tone of being with "much anguish."

2:12 "Troas" was on the Aegean coast; the city where Paul received the call to preach in Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be to God who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and through us [1]diffuses the fragrance of His knowledge in every place.
15 For we are to God the fragrance of Christ [a]among those who are being saved and [b]among those who are perishing.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Cor. 2:15

A Sweet Fragrance

When Christ captivates believers' hearts and takes up residence in their lives, they don't have the victory; they are the victory, enjoying the fruits of His labor. They become a living demonstration of His victory over sin; disseminating a sweet and distinctive aroma of Christ. When people encounter those who live in victory, they encounter the Victor, Jesus Christ.

16 [a]To the one we are the aroma of death leading to death, and to the other the aroma of life leading to life. And [b]who is sufficient for these things?
17 For we are not, as [1]so many, [a]peddling[2] the word of God; but as [b]of sincerity, but as from God, we speak in the sight of God in Christ.

Christ's Epistle

3 Do [a]we begin again to commend ourselves? Or do we need, as some others, [b]epistles of commendation to you or letters of commendation from you?
2 [a]You are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read by all men;
3 clearly you are an epistle of Christ,
[a]ministered by us, written not with ink but by the Spirit of the living God, not [b]on tablets of stone but [c]on tablets of flesh, that is, of the heart.

The Spirit, Not the Letter

4 And we have such trust through Christ toward God.
5 [a]Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think of anything as being from ourselves, but [b]our sufficiency is from God,
6 who also made us sufficient as [a]ministers of [b]the new covenant, not [c]of the letter but of the [1]Spirit; for [d]the letter kills, [e]but the Spirit gives life.

Glory of the New Covenant

7 But if [a]the ministry of death, [b]written and engraved on stones, was glorious,
[c]so that the children of Israel could not look steadily at the face of Moses because of the glory of his countenance, which glory was passing away,
8 how will [a]the ministry of the Spirit not be more glorious?
9 For if the ministry of condemnation had glory, the ministry [a]of righteousness exceeds much more in glory.
10 For even what was made glorious had no glory in this respect, because of the glory that excels.
11 For if what is passing away was glorious, what remains is much more glorious.
12 Therefore, since we have such hope,
[a]we use great boldness of speech—
13 unlike Moses, [a]who put a veil over his face so that the children of Israel could not look steadily at [b]the end of what was passing away.
14 But [a]their minds were blinded. For until this day the same veil remains un-lifted in the reading of the Old Testament, because the veil is taken away in Christ.
15 But even to this day, when Moses is read, a veil lies on their heart.
16 Nevertheless [a]when one turns to the Lord, [b]the veil is taken away.
17 Now [a]the Lord is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is [b]liberty.
18 But we all, with unveiled face, beholding [a]as in a mirror [b]the glory of the Lord, [c]are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as [1]by the Spirit of the Lord.

The Light of Christ's Gospel

4 Therefore, since we have this ministry, [a]as we have received mercy, we [b]do not lose heart.
2 But we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness nor [1]handling the word of God de-ceitfully, but by manifestation of the truth [a]commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.
3 But even if our gospel is veiled, [a]it is veiled to those who are perishing,

2:16 During a Roman triumph celebrating military victory, the leader of the procession would be followed by priests burning incense, then officers and soldiers leading captives to slavery or execution. The aroma of the incense would spread, advertising the victory to everyone in the vicinity.

3:6 "The letter" is the Old Testament covenant, or the Ten Commandments.

3:7 "Glory" refers to the manifest presence of God at the giving of the law. The law was therefore holy, righteous, and good (Rom 7:12).

3:18 "The glory of the Lord" is Jesus, the complete personal expression of God (Heb. 1:3). His glory is unfading and eternal (John 17:5), radiating through believers who are transformed into His image and who share in His glory.

WORD*Study* TRANSFORM

2 Cor. 3:18 The Greek word metamorphoō, translated "transformed" means to change into another form either externally or internally. In the New Testament this term is always in the passive voice, indicating the transformation is not self-induced. The term is used for Jesus on the Mount of Transfiguration (Matt. 17:2; Mark 9:2), as His form was changed. The transformation in believers begins at salvation and is a present reality, but it has an eschatological significance with the anticipation and guarantee of a new reality. Spiritual transformation does not come through rituals but by the Spirit, who restores in each believer the likeness of God. Believers are commanded to conform their conduct to match what they already have become in the Spirit (Rom. 12:2).

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Cor. 3:18

Linger

Those who have beheld the glory of the Lord as in a mirror have lingered before Him. Learn to continue in God's presence; He gradually, but assuredly, transforms you into His image. Never let a hurried lifestyle disrupt an abiding relationship with Christ.

4 whose minds [a]the god of this age [b]has blinded, who do not believe, lest [c]the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, [d]who is the image of God, should shine on them.
5 [a]For we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and [b]ourselves your bondservants for Jesus' sake.
6 For it is the God [a]who commanded light to shine out of darkness, who has [b]shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

Cast Down but Unconquered

7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, [a]that the excellence of the power may be of God and not of us.

8 We are [a]hard-pressed on every side, yet not crushed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;
9 persecuted, but not [a]forsaken; [b]struck down, but not destroyed—
10 [a]always carrying about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, [b]that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our body.
11 For we who live [a]are always delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh.
12 So then death is working in us, but life in you.
13 And since we have [a]the same spirit of faith, according to what is written, [b]"I believed and therefore I spoke," we also believe and therefore speak,
14 knowing that [a]He who raised up the Lord Jesus will also raise us up with Jesus, and will present us with you.
15 For [a]all things are for your sakes, that [b]grace, having spread through the many, may cause thanksgiving to abound to the glory of God.

Seeing the Invisible

16 Therefore we [a]do not lose heart. Even though our outward man is perishing, yet the inward man is [b]being renewed day by day.
17 For [a]our light affliction, which is but for a moment, is working for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory,
18 [a]while we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporary, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

18 [a][Heb. 11:1, 13]

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Cor. 4:17, 18

In Light of Eternity

Life must be lived with the backdrop of eternity. An encounter with God brings our spirit to life and assures us of eternal life in Christ. Everything physical is temporal; all suffering is momentary. Adversity displays the beauty of His life in our mortal bodies, a testimony that we are passing through this life into life eternal.

4:4 "The god of this age" is a term for Satan, who is an unseen influence on the unbeliever. Jesus referred to Satan as "the prince of this world" (John 12:31; 16:11). However, Paul calls Jesus the "image of God" as One who has not been marred by sin. The image of God is what people were created in, and all believers are being transformed into it. That transformation will be complete at Christ's coming (1 John 3:2).

4:7 The "treasure" is the gospel, the light of the knowledge of God's glory. Believers are described as "earthen vessels," shaped by the hand of God as a potter molds the clay (Is. 29:16; Rom. 9:20). The truth that we were formed out of earth is a basic biblical teaching (Gen. 2:7; Job 33:6).

4:16 "The outward man" is the physical body. Paul also refers to it as an earthen vessel (2 Cor. 4:7), mortal flesh (4:11), an earthly house (5:1), and a tent (5:1).

Assurance of the Resurrection

5 For we know that if [a]our earthly [1]house, this tent, is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house [b]not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.
2 For in this [a]we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed with our [1]habitation which is from heaven,
3 if indeed, [a]having been clothed, we shall not be found naked.
4 For we who are in this tent groan, being burdened, not because we want to be unclothed, [a]but further clothed, that mortality may be swallowed up by life.
5 Now He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who also [a]has given us the Spirit as [1]a guarantee.
6 So we are always confident, knowing that while we are at home in the body we are absent from the Lord.
7 For [a]we walk by faith, not by sight.
8 We are confident, yes, [a]well pleased rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord.

The Judgment Seat of Christ

9 Therefore we make it our aim, whether present or absent, to be well pleasing to Him.
10 [a]For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, [b]that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Cor. 5:10

Our Response to Grace

God will never force His will on us, but He will make us give an account for how we responded to Him. We have freedom to choose our course of action; but we are not free to choose the consequence of our actions. God's offer of grace must be received by faith and lived out through obedience.

11 Knowing, therefore, [a]the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are well known to God, and I also trust are well known in your consciences.

Be Reconciled to God

12 For [a]we do not commend ourselves again to you, but give you opportunity [b]to boast on our behalf, that you may have an answer for those who boast in appearance and not in heart.
13 For [a]if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; or if we are of sound mind, it is for you.
14 For the love of Christ compels us, because we judge thus: that [a]if One died for all, then all died;

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Cor. 5:14

Moved by Love

There are many reasons people seek God: the quest for a better life; sorrow over sin; the fear of judgment and hell; the desire for eternal life in heaven. All of these are realities that can move us closer to salvation. But once we enter a relationship with Jesus Christ, love becomes our supreme motivation. His sacrificial love on the cross revives our soul, overwhelms our intellect, captures our heart, and compels us to live for Him who died for us.

15 and He died for all, [a]that those who live should live no longer for themselves, but for Him who died for them and rose again.
16 [a]Therefore, from now on, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we have known Christ according to the flesh, [b]yet now we know Him thus no longer.
17 Therefore, if anyone [a]is in Christ, he is [b]a new creation; [c]old things have passed away; behold, all things have become [d]new.
18 Now all things are of God, [a]who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation,
19 that is, that [a]God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not [1]imputing their trespasses to them, and has committed to us the word of reconciliation.
20 Now then, we are [a]ambassadors for Christ, as though God were pleading through us: we implore you on Christ's behalf, be reconciled to God.
21 For [a]He made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become [b]the righteousness of God in Him.

5:5 A "guarantee" is a pledge or deposit that acted as a down payment or first installment of that which was to come.

5:11 The "terror of the Lord" is the thought of standing before the Lord as Judge, to give an account for how we lived our life. This will be a reality for all who will have their deeds, good and bad, exposed.

5:16 To regard someone "according to the flesh" is the ordinary way of evaluating a person based upon human reasoning and not from God's perspective.

5:17 The verbs "passed away" and "become new" are both perfect tenses, indicating the action has occurred and has lasting results. The word "new" describes something of a different quality and character than existed before.

WORD Study — AMBASSADOR

2 Cor. 5:20 The Greek word presbeúō, translated "we are ambassadors," is a verb meaning to travel or work as an official representative (Eph. 6:20). It comes from a word which means "to be older or eldest," or "to occupy first place," which is where we get our English word presbyter or elder. Ambassadors are more than messengers. They represent another and they speak with authority equal to that of the person who sent them. God's ministry of reconciliation, therefore, is declared through those who have been reconciled; God speaks through the mouth of His ambassadors. The focus is upon the authority of the message, not the messenger. As one speaks on behalf of Christ as His ambassador, He is at the same time present and speaking through the individual.

Marks of the Ministry

6 We then, as [a]workers together with Him also [b]plead with you not to receive the grace of God in vain.
2 For He says:

[a]"In an acceptable time I have heard you,
And in the day of salvation I have helped you."

Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.
3 [a]We give no offense in anything, that our ministry may not be blamed.
4 But in all things we commend ourselves [a]as ministers of God: in much [1]patience, in tribulations, in needs, in distresses,
5 [a]in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in sleeplessness, in fastings;
6 by purity, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by [1]sincere love,
7 [a]by the word of truth, by [b]the power of God, by [c]the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,
8 by honor and dishonor, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true;
9 as unknown, and [a]yet well known; [b]as dying, and behold we live; [c]as chastened, and yet not killed;

Be Holy

11 O Corinthians! [1]We have spoken openly to you, [a]our heart is wide open.
12 You are not restricted by us, but [a]you are restricted by your own affections.
13 Now in return for the same [a](I speak as to children), you also be open.
14 [a]Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers. For [b]what [1]fellowship has righteousness with lawlessness? And what [2]communion has light with darkness?

ENCOUNTER Note — 2 Cor. 6:14

Unholy Relationships

Your relationship with God must be unrivaled, unequalled, and unadulterated. Beware of unholy alliances that draw you away from God. This is not isolation from the world, but consecration to God.

15 And what accord has Christ with Belial? Or what part has a believer with an unbeliever?
16 And what agreement has the temple of God with idols? For [a]you[1] are the temple of the living God. As God has said:

[b]"I will dwell in them
And walk among them.
I will be their God,
And they shall be My people."

17 Therefore

[a]"Come out from among them
And be separate, says the Lord.
Do not touch what is unclean,
And I will receive you."
18 "I [a]will be a Father to you,
And you shall be My [b]sons and daughters,
Says the LORD Almighty."

7 Therefore,[a] having these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

CHAPTER 7
1 [a][1 John 3:3]

6:3 An "offense" here means an occasion for stumbling.

6:11 Second Corinthians 6:11—7:4 is highly emotional. Paul struggled with the Corinthians' response to his earlier exhortation; some rejected both his teaching and his fellowship.

6:14 To not be "unequally yoked together with unbelievers" was Paul's warning not to be too closely related to unbelievers. Those whose loyalties are diametrically opposed to ours cannot partner together with us without the potential for us to compromise our faith.

6:15 "Belial" is a Hebrew term given to Satan that is only used once in the New Testament. It refers to one who is vile, wicked, and worthless.

The Corinthians' Repentance

2 Open your hearts to us. We have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, [a]we have cheated no one.
3 I do not say this to condemn; for [a]I have said before that you are in our hearts, to die together and to live together.
4 [a]Great is my boldness of speech toward you, [b]great is my boasting on your behalf. [c]I am filled with comfort. I am exceedingly joyful in all our tribulation.
5 For indeed, [a]when we came to Macedonia, our bodies had no rest, but [b]we were troubled on every side. [c]Outside were conflicts, inside were fears.
6 Nevertheless [a]God, who comforts the downcast, comforted us by [b]the coming of Titus,
7 and not only by his coming, but also by the [1]consolation with which he was comforted in you, when he told us of your earnest desire, your mourning, your zeal for me, so that I rejoiced even more.
8 For even if I made you [a]sorry with my letter, I do not regret it; [b]though I did regret it. For I perceive that the same epistle made you sorry, though only for a while.
9 Now I rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that your sorrow led to repentance. For you were made sorry in a godly manner, that you might suffer loss from us in nothing.
10 For [a]godly sorrow produces repentance leading to salvation, not to be regretted; [b]but the sorrow of the world produces death.

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Cor. 7:10

Love that Convicts

Conviction of sin is both good and godly. It means God cares about your life and wants to remove that which will ultimately hurt you. Conviction will either be an irritation to a defiant heart, or it will bring sorrow leading to repentance and a renewed relationship with God. True repentance is a gift of the Spirit, as He alone can convict of sin.

11 For observe this very thing, that you sorrowed in a godly manner: What diligence it produced in you, what [a]clearing of yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what vehement desire, what zeal, what vindication! In all things you proved yourselves to be [b]clear in this matter.
12 Therefore, although I wrote to you, I did not do it for the sake of him who had done the wrong, nor for the sake of him who suffered wrong, [a]but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear to you.

The Joy of Titus

13 Therefore we have been comforted in your comfort. And we rejoiced exceedingly more for the joy of Titus, because his spirit [a]has been refreshed by you all.
14 For if in anything I have boasted to him about you, I am not ashamed. But as we spoke all things to you in truth, even so our boasting to Titus was found true.
15 And his affections are greater for you as he remembers [a]the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling you received him.
16 Therefore I rejoice that [a]I have confidence in you in everything.

Excel in Giving

8 Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia:
2 that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and [a]their deep poverty abounded in the riches of their liberality.
3 For I bear witness that according to their ability, yes, and beyond their ability, they were freely willing,
4 imploring us with much urgency [1]that we would receive the gift and [a]the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.
5 And not only as we had hoped, but they first [a]gave themselves to the Lord, and then to us by the [b]will of God.
6 So [a]we urged Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also complete this grace in you as well.
7 But as [a]you abound in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all diligence, and in your love for us—see [b]that you abound in this grace also.

Christ Our Pattern

8 [a]I speak not by commandment, but I am testing the sincerity of your love by the diligence of others.

7:5 Paul here picks up his discussion from chapter 2. He was restless in spirit to hear a word from Titus about how the Corinthian church had responded to his earlier letter.

7:8 For Paul's reference to "my letter," see note on 2:3. He did not regret writing the letter, but regretted the occasion for writing it.

7:10 Feeling sad for what you have done is a step toward repentance, but sorrow for sin is not repentance in itself.

8:1 "Macedonia" is present-day northern Greece.

8:6 The offering in Corinth had been started under Titus but was left incomplete, no doubt due to the internal struggles of the church. Titus was sent back to help the church complete the collection.

9 For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, [a]that though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, that you through His poverty might become [b]rich.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Cor. 8:9

Riches are for Sharing

Human love typically expects something in return; divine love is expressed for the benefit of the recipient. Whether we choose to love God or not, His love for us remains. He has sacrificed that which was rightfully His, and suffered pains that were rightfully ours. He has loved us unconditionally. We must do likewise.

10 And in this [a]I give advice: [b]It is to your advantage not only to be doing what you began and [c]were desiring to do a year ago;
11 but now you also must complete the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to desire it, so there also may be a completion out of what you have.
12 For [a]if there is first a willing mind, it is accepted according to what one has, and not according to what he does not have.
13 For I do not mean that others should be eased and you burdened;
14 but by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may supply their lack, that their abundance also may supply your lack—that there may be equality.
15 As it is written, [a]"He who gathered much had nothing left over, and he who gathered little had no lack."

Collection for the Judean Saints

16 But thanks be to God who [1]puts the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus.
17 For he not only accepted the exhortation, but being more diligent, he went to you of his own accord.
18 And we have sent with him [a]the brother whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches,
19 and not only that, but who was also [a]chosen by the churches to travel with us with this gift, which is administered by us [b]to the glory of the Lord Himself and to show your ready mind,
20 avoiding this: that anyone should blame us in this lavish gift which is administered by us—
21 [a]providing honorable things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.
22 And we have sent with them our brother whom we have often proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, because of the great confidence which we have in you.
23 If anyone inquires about [a]Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker concerning you. Or if our brethren are inquired about, they are [b]messengers[1] of the churches, the glory of Christ.
24 Therefore show to them, [1]and before the churches, the proof of your love and of our [a]boasting on your behalf.

Administering the Gift

9 Now concerning [a]the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you;
2 for I know your willingness, about which I boast of you to the Macedonians, that Achaia was ready a [a]year ago; and your zeal has stirred up the majority.
3 [a]Yet I have sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this respect, that, as I said, you may be ready;
4 lest if some Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we (not to mention you!) should be ashamed of this [1]confident boasting.
5 Therefore I thought it necessary to [1]exhort the brethren to go to you ahead of time, and prepare your generous gift beforehand, which you had previously promised, that it may be ready as a matter of generosity and not as a [2]grudging obligation.

The Cheerful Giver

6 [a]But this I say: He who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows [1]bountifully will also reap [1]bountifully.
7 So let each one give as he purposes in his heart, [a]not grudgingly or of [1]necessity; for [b]God loves a cheerful giver.
8 [a]And God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may have an abundance for every good work.

9:6 The concept of sowing and reaping a harvest is common in the scriptures (Prov. 11:24, 25; 19:17; Luke 6:38; Gal. 6:7).

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Cor. 9:6

A Generous Heart

For every good work God has called us to do, He is ready to provide for our response. He gives to us so we can give to Him and to His people. His provision is never short and it is never late. He waits to give proportionally to our faith. He loves to bless those whose hearts are generous.

10 Now [1]may He who [a]supplies seed to the sower, and bread for food, [2]supply and multiply the seed you have sown and increase the fruits of your [b]righteousness,
11 while you are enriched in everything for all liberality, [a]which causes thanksgiving through us to God.
12 For the administration of this service not only [a]supplies the needs of the saints, but also is abounding through many thanksgivings to God,
13 while, through the proof of this ministry, they [a]glorify God for the obedience of your confession to the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal [b]sharing with them and all men,
14 and by their prayer for you, who long for you because of the exceeding [a]grace of God in you.
15 Thanks be to God [a]for His indescribable gift!

The Spiritual War

10 Now [a]I, Paul, myself am pleading with you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ—[b]who in presence am lowly among you, but being absent am bold toward you.
2 But I beg you [a]that when I am present I may not be bold with that confidence by which I intend to be bold against some, who think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.
3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh.
4 [a]For the weapons [b]of our warfare are not [1]carnal but [c]mighty in God [d]for pulling down strongholds,
5 [a]casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ,
6 [a]and being ready to punish all disobedience when [b]your obedience is fulfilled.

Choose Wisely

Set free from sin's bondage, we still battle human nature. Our carnal desires, our stubborn will, and our arrogant pride make their presence known as we seek to grow spiritually in the process of sanctification. We have the power to overcome every temptation, but we must choose to do so. Our life today is the sum total of the choices we have made thus far.

Reality of Paul's Authority

7 [a]Do you look at things according to the outward appearance? [b]If anyone is convinced in himself that he is Christ's, let him again consider this in himself, that just as he is Christ's, even [1]so [c]we are Christ's.
8 For even if I should boast somewhat more [a]about our authority, which the Lord gave [1]us for [2]edification and not for your destruction, [b]I shall not be ashamed—

HISTORICAL*Encounter* ROSALIND GOFORTH 2 Cor. 9:6

Rosalind Goforth and her husband Jonathan were missionaries in China in the late 1800s. Their early labors saw few results, and Rosalind grew discouraged at the apparent futility of their efforts. One day, as she struggled with disappointment, she turned in her Bible to 2 Corinthians 9:6. The words leapt out at her as God's clear answer to her situation. She was so moved by God's truth that she wrote the words "HE WHO SOWS BOUNTIFULLY WILL ALSO REAP BOUNTIFULLY" on a blackboard that was intended for teaching children. For the next two years she kept that truth before herself and others. In due time, God would use the Goforths in one of the greatest periods of revival in missionary history.

9:15 God's "indescribable gift" is His own Son, Jesus (John 3:16). All giving is a humble response to God's unsurpassed generosity.
10:4 Ancient Corinth was known for a hill over the city that was 1,857 feet high and upon which a fortress was built. The military images of strongholds, towers, and captives were the backdrop of Paul's discussion about the spiritual warfare that Christians face.

and powerful, but [a]his bodily presence is weak, and his [b]speech contemptible."
11 Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such we will also be in deed when we are present.

Limits of Paul's Authority

12 [a]For we dare not class ourselves or compare ourselves with those who commend themselves. But they, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.
13 [a]We, however, will not boast beyond measure, but within the limits of the sphere which God appointed us—a sphere which especially includes you.
14 For we are not overextending ourselves (as though our authority did not extend to you), [a]for it was to you that we came with the gospel of Christ;
15 not boasting of things beyond measure, that is, [a]in other men's labors, but having hope, that as your faith is increased, we shall be greatly enlarged by you in our sphere,
16 to preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's sphere of accomplishment.
17 But [a]"he who glories, let him glory in the LORD."
18 For [a]not he who commends himself is approved, but [b]whom the Lord commends.

Concern for Their Faithfulness

11 Oh, that you would bear with me in a little [a]folly—and indeed you do bear with me.
2 For I am [a]jealous for you with godly jealousy. For [b]I have betrothed you to one husband, [c]that I may present you [d]as a chaste virgin to Christ.
3 But I fear, lest somehow, as [a]the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, so your minds [b]may be corrupted from the [1]simplicity that is in Christ.
4 For if he who comes preaches another Jesus whom we have not preached, or if you receive a different spirit which you have not received, or a [a]different gospel which you have not accepted—you may well put up with it!

Paul and False Apostles

5 For I consider that [a]I am not at all inferior to the most eminent apostles.
6 Even though [a]I am untrained in speech, yet I am not [b]in knowledge. But [c]we have [1]been thoroughly manifested among you in all things.
7 Did I commit sin in [1]humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I preached the gospel of God to you [a]free of charge?
8 I robbed other churches, taking wages from them to minister to you.
9 And when I was present with you, and in need, [a]I was a burden to no one, for what I lacked [b]the brethren who came from Macedonia supplied. And in everything I kept myself from being burdensome to you, and so I will keep myself.
10 [a]As the truth of Christ is in me, [b]no one shall stop me from this boasting in the regions of Achaia.
11 Why? [a]Because I do not love you? God knows!
12 But what I do, I will also continue to do, [a]that I may cut off the opportunity from those who desire an opportunity to be regarded just as we are in the things of which they boast.

WORD*Study* SIMPLICITY

2 Cor. 11:3 The Greek word haplotēs, translated "simplicity," also means "purity" or "singleness of heart" (Eph. 6:5; Col. 3:22). It comes from a word meaning "simple," "pure," or even "healthy." Christ is the pure essence of God, the clear expression of the divine. Anything added to Him dilutes or distorts the reality of God.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Cor. 11:3

Simple Obedience

A great hindrance to the gospel is intellectual pride. People have a propensity for adding to the gospel, trying to improve upon it or make it more attractive. Consequently they complicate and distort it. Jesus urged His disciples to have faith as a child and to follow Him, for the natural man will never understand the ways of God. Spiritual confusion will be clarified through simple obedience to Christ.

10:13 The sphere or measure which God gave Paul is most likely an athletic image. It describes lanes marked out in a race. False teachers had come into his region of Corinth to sabotage the work he had done.

10:16 "Regions beyond you" probably refers to Spain (Rom. 15:24).

11:5 The "most eminent apostles" has been interpreted as a sarcastic comment toward the false teachers, whom he clearly identifies in verse 13 and later in 12:11, 12. Some have suggested that he was comparing himself to the legitimate apostles.

11:9 The believers "from Macedonia" were probably from the church at Philippi.

ful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ.
14 And no wonder! For Satan himself transforms himself into [a]an angel of light.
15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also transform themselves into ministers of righteousness, [a]whose end will be according to their works.

Reluctant Boasting

16 I say again, let no one think me a fool. If otherwise, at least receive me as a fool, that I also may boast a little.
17 What I speak, [a]I speak not according to the Lord, but as it were, foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.
18 Seeing that many boast according to the flesh, I also will boast.
19 For you put up with fools gladly, [a]since you yourselves are wise!
20 For you put up with it [a]if one brings you into bondage, if one devours you, if one takes from you, if one exalts himself, if one strikes you on the face.
21 To our shame [a]I say that we were too weak for that! But [b]in whatever anyone is bold—I speak foolishly—I am bold also.

Suffering for Christ

22 Are they [a]Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? So am I.
23 Are they ministers of Christ?—I speak as a fool—I am more: [a]in labors more abundant, [b]in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequently, [c]in deaths often.
24 From the Jews five times I received [a]forty [b]stripes minus one.
25 Three times I was [a]beaten with rods; [b]once I was stoned; three times I [c]was shipwrecked; a night and a day I have been in the deep;
26 in journeys often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, [a]in perils of my own countrymen, [b]in perils of the Gentiles, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;
27 in weariness and toil, [a]in sleeplessness often, [b]in hunger and thirst, in [c]fastings often, in cold and nakedness—
28 besides the other things, what comes upon me daily: [a]my deep concern for all the churches.
29 [a]Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is made to stumble, and I do not burn with indignation?
30 If I must boast, [a]I will boast in the things which concern my [1]infirmity.
31 [a]The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, [b]who is blessed forever, knows that I am not lying.
32 [a]In Damascus the governor, under Aretas the king, was guarding the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desiring to arrest me;
33 but I was let down in a basket through a window in the wall, and escaped from his hands.

The Vision of Paradise

12 It is [1]doubtless not profitable for me to boast. I will come to [a]visions and [b]revelations of the Lord:
2 I know a man [a]in Christ who fourteen years ago—whether in the body I do not know, or whether out of the body I do not know, God knows—such a one [b]was caught up to the third heaven.
3 And I know such a man—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, God knows—
4 how he was caught up into [a]Paradise and heard inexpressible words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.
5 Of such a one I will boast; yet of myself I will not [a]boast, except in my infirmities.
6 For though I might desire to boast, I will not be a fool; for I will speak the truth. But I refrain, lest anyone should think of me above what he sees me to be or hears from me.

The Thorn in the Flesh

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure by the abundance of the revelations, a [a]thorn in the flesh was given to me, [b]a messenger of Satan to [1]buffet me, lest I be exalted above measure.
8 [a]Concerning this thing I pleaded with the Lord three times that it might depart from me.
9 And He said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness." Therefore most gladly 11:25 Paul was "beaten with rods" (Acts 16:22) which was illegal, since he was a Roman citizen who had not received a fair trial. Stoning (Acts 16:19, 20) was the preferred manner of execution by the Jews. Acts only records one "shipwreck," but it was after this letter was written (Acts 27:39–44). The three shipwrecks recorded here could have happened on one of his many journeys at sea (Acts 9:30; 11:25, 26; 13:4, 13; 14:25, 26; 16:11; 17:14; 18:18–22).

11:32 "Aretas the king" was Aretas IV (9 B.C.–A.D. 40), the father-in-law of Herod Antipas. He was given control of Damascus by the emperor Caligula.

12:2 "Fourteen years ago" would probably put Paul in Antioch at the time of this vision (Acts 11:26). "The third heaven" was synonymous with "paradise." It was common to talk of the heavens in three distinct ways: (1) the atmosphere around the earth, (2) space with its many stars and other heavenly bodies, and (3) the place of God's presence.

12:7 Paul's "thorn in the flesh" is not identified with certainty. It is generally understood to have been a physical problem, the most common suggestion being an eye ailment (Gal. 4:15). Whatever it was, it was both painful and humiliating.

[a]I will rather boast in my infirmities, [b]that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Cor. 12:9

In Weakness He Is Strong

Beware of your strength, for it can lead to self-reliance. Glory in your weakness, for it can lead to humility and dependence upon God. He can show Himself strong through your weakness and demonstrate to the world what He can do through a willing servant. God gives strengths and weaknesses; let Him work through both.

10 Therefore [a]I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in needs, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake. [b]For when I am weak, then I am strong.

Signs of an Apostle

11 I have become [a]a fool [1]in boasting; you have compelled me. For I ought to have been commended by you; for [b]in nothing was I behind the most eminent apostles, though [c]I am nothing.
12 [a]Truly the signs of an apostle were accomplished among you with all perseverance, in signs and [b]wonders and mighty [c]deeds.
13 For what is it in which you were inferior to other churches, except that I myself was not burdensome to you? Forgive me this wrong!

Love for the Church

14 [a]Now for the third time I am ready to come to you. And I will not be burdensome to you; for [b]I do not seek yours, but you. [c]For the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.
15 And I will very gladly spend and be spent [a]for your souls; though [b]the more abundantly I love you, the less I am loved.
16 But be that as it may, [a]I did not burden you. Nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you by cunning!
17 Did I take advantage of you by any of those whom I sent to you?
18 I urged Titus, and sent our [a]brother with him. Did Titus take advantage of you? Did we not walk in the same spirit? Did we not walk in the same steps?
19 [a]Again,[1] do you think that we excuse ourselves to you? [b]We speak before God in Christ. [c]But we do all things, beloved, for your edification.

Spiritual Examinations

Jesus Christ abides in every believer; a fact that should be obvious to all who observe. If there is no difference between one who still lives in spiritual darkness and one who claims to live in the light of Christ, something is desperately wrong. Self examination in light of the gospel can bring great joy, or it can be an opportunity to genuinely seek the Lord.

6 But I trust that you will know that we are not disqualified.

Paul Prefers Gentleness

7 Now [1]I pray to God that you do no evil, not that we should appear approved, but that you should do what is honorable, though [a]we may seem disqualified.

12:18 Titus apparently was falsely accused, as was Paul.
13:5 Paul urges them to "examine" their own lives with the standard by which they have judged his life. He does not doubt their salvation, but wants them to live according to the faith they profess.

8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.
9 For we are glad [a]when we are weak and you are strong. And this also we pray, [b]that you may be made complete.
10 [a]Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the [b]authority which the Lord has given me for edification and not for destruction.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE GALATIANS

INTRODUCTION

This letter to the Galatians is passionate, straightforward, and insightful. The author identifies himself as the apostle Paul (1:1), a claim generally uncontested by today's scholars. Paul makes a case for his apostolic authority and urges the Galatians to heed his instruction. There are elements of an apologetic writing, but this is mainly a direct argument to persuade believers to change their behavior.

The date of this letter is somewhat unclear. Depending on the correct identification of the recipients, two theories have been put forth: An older view contends that the Galatians were the Gauls located in northern Asia Minor who invaded the area in the third century B.C. This would include cities like Pessinus, Ancyra and Tavium. Though a trip to this area is not mentioned in the Book of Acts, it is conceivable that Paul evangelized this region on his second missionary journey (Acts 16:6). This would suggest a date no earlier than 52 A.D. and quite possibly as late as A.D. 57. A more widely accepted theory suggests this letter was written to churches in the Roman province of Galatia in southern Asia Minor. This would include Derbe, Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch, which Paul visited on his first missionary journey (Acts 14: 21). This conclusion dates the letter as early as A.D. 48. In this book, Paul addressed the same issues that were settled in the Jerusalem council (Acts 15). If the council had already occurred when he wrote this letter, he would most likely have referred to it in his argument to the Galatians. Since the Jerusalem council is not mentioned, the earlier date is preferred and positions Galatians as one of Paul's earliest writings.

SIGNIFICANCE

False teachers had infiltrated the Galatian churches, introducing a corrupt message. Though his letter is stern in tone, Paul did not write out of anger but love, leaving us clear teaching on the truth of the gospel. Whereas Paul's letter to the Romans presented the gospel as God's response to universal human sin (Rom. 3:23; 6:23), he wrote this letter to set the gospel against the folly of seeking salvation by works. The heart of the issue was circumcision. Many legalistic Jewish Christians insisted Gentile converts must undergo this Jewish rite to be truly saved and to join God's family. They also added additional requirements for justification. Paul's converts were in danger of straying from God's grace and into the bondage of legalism. Paul's letter clarified that no one is saved by the law or by good deeds; salvation is by faith in Jesus Christ alone (2:16). God's work to secure salvation through the cross cannot be replaced by any work of sinful humanity. Paul took great effort to repeatedly emphasize this point, reasserting his apostolic authority to strengthen his argument. Since the time of the Protestant Reformation, many have called Galatians "Luther's book," because its forceful argument on the nature of salvation was used extensively by Luther, providing the foundation for Reformation theology.

STRUCTURE

The letter contains the basic elements of a first-century letter: Introduction (1:1–5), body (1:6—6:10) and conclusion (6:11–18). It is unique from his other letters in its absence of an introductory thanksgiving and in its terse benediction. This indicates the severity of the situation in Galatia. The body of material has three main sections. First is Paul's personal defence of his authority as an apostle, including information about Paul's early Christian experiences and relationship to the other apostles. Second, Paul offers a doctrinal statement. He explores the Old Testament roots of the gospel through the faith of Abraham and the purpose of the law. Third, Paul discusses the practical implications of the gospel. He warns against extremes of legalism and liberty, encouraging believers to walk in the power of the Spirit. Galatians can be outlined as follows:

Introduction (1:1–9)
Defense of Paul's Apostolic Authority (1:6—2:21)
Scriptural Foundation for the Gospel (3:1—4:31)
Practical Application of the Gospel (5:1—6:10)
Conclusion (6:11–18)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH GALATIANS

This letter has the potential to both convict us and set us free. Paul clearly and unapologetically lays out the truth of the gospel, identifying the characteristics of true salvation (2:16). We must deal with the cross of Jesus Christ and its impact on us, for the crucifixion and resurrection are central to the gospel. We cannot be confronted with Christ's sacrifice and not be ready to lay our lives down for Him (2:20). The only evidence proving we have been crucified with Christ is if Christ now lives His life in us. When this is true, the Holy Spirit conforms us to Christ's image and produces identifiable fruit in our lives (5:22–25). The Holy Spirit will apply our freedom in Christ to practical living; we were not liberated for self, but to serve others in Jesus' name (6:9, 10). A self-centered life is an abuse of the gospel. In the context of God's family, we are to carry one another's burdens by encouragement in the faith. Continuing to live in the flesh denies the Spirit's presence. Through Paul, Christ urges us to reject legalism and embrace the Holy Spirit's teachings. Then we will learn to walk in the freedom of the gospel as God directs us.

CHAPTER 1

PAUL, an apostle (not from men nor through man, but [a]through Jesus Christ and God the Father [b]who raised Him from the dead),
2 and all the brethren who are with me,

To the churches of Galatia:

3 Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ,
4 [a]who gave Himself for our sins, that He might deliver us [b]from this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father,
5 to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

ENCOUNTER Note — Gal. 1:4

Realizing the Cross

Christ's passion was a purposeful event, chosen by God to set us free from sin's powerful bondage. The victory of the cross was accomplished through Christ's obedience; the effectual power of the cross is realized through our obedience.

Only One Gospel

6 I marvel that you are turning away so soon [a]from Him who called you in the grace of Christ, to a different gospel,
7 [a]which is not another; but there are some [b]who trouble you and want to [c]pervert[1] the gospel of Christ.
8 But even if [a]we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel to you than what we have preached to you, let him be [1]accursed.
9 As we have said before, so now I say again, if anyone preaches any other gospel to you [a]than what you have received, let him be accursed.
10 For [a]do I now [b]persuade men, or God? Or [c]do I seek to please men? For if I still pleased men, I would not be a bondservant of Christ.

12 [a]1 Cor. 15:1

1:1 Ancient letters typically included words of thanksgiving in the introduction. This letter to the Galatians omits this show of etiquette, possibly indicating Paul's temperament and his intent to aggressively correct false teaching that had infiltrated the churches.

1:2 Written to the churches in Galatia, this letter was intended to be circulated among many congregations in the area.

1:4 Jewish people divided history into two periods: the "present evil age" under the rule of foreign powers, and the future age when God would rule unchallenged.

WORD*Study* REVEAL

Gal. 1:16 The Greek word, apokalyptō, translated "reveal," also means to uncover or unveil. It is the Greek word from which we get the English word "apocalypse" meaning "revelation" or "uncovered truth." The New Testament usage of this word is for the disclosure of truth that has been previously unknown, especially as communicated through the work of the Holy Spirit (1 Cor. 2:10–14; Eph. 3:3). God alone, through the Holy Spirit, reveals Christ to us, for nobody can discern spiritual truth unless the Spirit reveals it. We only have two options: work hard for God and exhibit our talents, or die to self and make ourselves available for God to reveal Christ in and through our mortal bodies (2 Cor. 13:5; Gal. 2:20). God clearly desires the latter.

CHARACTER*Study* PAUL Gal. 1:1

The apostle Paul's name was originally Saul (Acts 13:9), the royal name of Israel's first king. Upon his conversion, he adopted the name Paul, which literally meant "little" and reflected his self-evaluation as "the least of the apostles" (1 Cor. 15:9). His hometown was Tarsus, the chief city of Cilicia, where he was born a Roman citizen (Acts 21:39; 22:3, 25) and became fluent in Greek. He studied theology and philosophy under Gamaliel (Acts 22:3). He was also a Hebrew, the son of a Pharisee from the tribe of Benjamin (Acts 23:6; Phil. 3:5). He therefore received strict religious training and followed his father's footsteps to become a Pharisee. By trade, he was a tentmaker, which he continued as a means of support throughout his life (Acts 18:3).

The significance of Paul's life was not in his background and education, but in his encounter with the resurrected Christ (Acts 9:3–9; 22:6–11; 26:12–18). At one time a ferocious persecutor of Christians, Paul even stood watch over the martyrdom of Stephen (Acts 8:1). His conversion to Christianity was dramatic. Drawn by the love of Christ, He sought to know and obey Him no matter what the cost. The result: Christ transformed him into the most influential missionary, church planter, and theologian of the early church. Paul wrote to encourage churches and leaders throughout his ministry. After three fruitful but demanding missionary journeys, he spent his remaining years as a prisoner in Jerusalem, Caesarea, and finally in Nero's Rome where he was beheaded. He left a legacy of faithful service to God and to the church and he willingly laid his life down for both. Determined to strengthen the churches under his care, Paul provided significant direction for the early community of faith, which is invaluable instruction for us today. Beyond teaching about church life, he also fought corruption of the gospel by false teachers and outlined a clear doctrine of salvation by grace through faith (Rom. 3:21–26; Gal. 2:16—4:7). Putting others first, he elevated the church as the body of Christ and demonstrated that a life of sacrifice is a life well spent in God's kingdom (2 Cor. 5:14, 15; Phil. 2:2–8; 3:7–11).

1:13 Judaism was a way of life based upon the Old Testament law and traditions of the Jewish fathers. Saul of Tarsus had adhered to the law and offered fierce opposition to any teaching foreign to Judaism.

1:17 Jerusalem was not only the religious hub of Judaism, it was also the birthplace of Christianity. Damascus was one of the most ancient and influential cities of Syria, located about 130 miles northeast of Jerusalem. Arabia was a region, ruled by the Nabataean Arabs, between Damascus and the Red Sea. It included parts of present-day Syria, Jordan, Israel, and Saudi Arabia.

1:20 The phrase "before God" was an oath that could be used in court as a guarantee of integrity.

churches of Judea which [a]were in Christ.
23 But they were [a]hearing only, "He who formerly [b]persecuted us now preaches the faith which he once tried to destroy."
24 And they [a]glorified God in me.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gal. 1:24

God in Me

There is a vast difference between a religious person and a believer in whom God has taken up residence. The world does not need to see good people doing their best for God; it needs to see God doing His work through His people.

Defending the Gospel

2 Then after fourteen years [a]I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and also took Titus with me.
2 And I went up [1]by revelation, and communicated to them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but [a]privately to those who were of reputation, lest by any means [b]I might run, or had run, in vain.
3 Yet not even Titus who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised.
4 And this occurred because of [a]false brethren secretly brought in (who came in by stealth to spy out our [b]liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, [c]that they might bring us into bondage),
5 to whom we did not yield submission even for an hour, that [a]the truth of the gospel might continue with you.
6 But from those [a]who seemed to be something—whatever they were, it makes no difference to me; [b]God [1]shows personal favoritism to no man—for those who seemed to be something [c]added nothing to me.
7 But on the contrary, [a]when they saw that the gospel for the uncircumcised [b]had been committed to me, as the gospel for the circumcised was to Peter
8 (for He who worked effectively in Peter for the apostleship to the [a]circumcised [b]also [c]worked effectively in me toward the Gentiles),
9 and when James, [1]Cephas, and John, who seemed to be [a]pillars, perceived [b]the grace that had been given to me, they gave me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, [c]that we should go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised.
10 They desired only that we should remember the poor, [a]the very thing which I also was eager to do.

No Return to the Law

11 [a]Now when [1]Peter had come to Antioch, I [2]withstood him to his face, because he was to be blamed;
12 for before certain men came from James, [a]he would eat with the Gentiles; but when they came, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing [1]those who were of the circumcision.
13 And the rest of the Jews also played the hypocrite with him, so that even Barnabas was carried away with their hypocrisy.
14 But when I saw that they were not straightforward about [a]the truth of the gospel, I said to Peter [b]before them all, [c]"If you, being a Jew, live in the manner of Gentiles and not as the Jews, [1]why do you compel Gentiles to live as [2]Jews?
15 [a]"We who are Jews by nature, and not [b]sinners of the Gentiles, 16 [a]"knowing that a man is not [1]justified by the works of the law but [b]by faith in Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ and not [c]by the works of the law; for by the works of the law no flesh shall be justified.
17 "But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found [a]sinners, is Christ therefore a minister of sin? Certainly not!
18 "For if I build again those things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.
19 "For I [a]through the law [b]died to the law that I might [c]live to God.
20 "I have been [a]crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh [b]I live by faith in the Son of God, [c]who loved me and gave Himself for me.
21 "I do not set aside the grace of God; for [a]if righteousness comes through the law, then Christ died [1]in vain."

2:2 "Those who were of reputation" probably refers to James, Cephas (Peter), and John (Gal. 2:9).

2:3 Whereas Paul had Timothy circumcised, Titus was not. Most Jewish Christians accepted that believing Gentiles could be saved, but they were not prepared to say they could be adopted into the covenant people on equal grounds until they had followed the Jewish law of circumcision. Titus became Paul's example that the new covenant in Christ was by grace through faith, apart from Judaism. Titus was an effective minister for many years.

2:10 Remembering the poor was Paul's ongoing concern (Rom. 15:26; 2 Cor. 8) and a reflection of Old Testament teaching (Deut. 15:11; Ps. 41:1; Prov. 14:21).

2:11 Antioch, the largest city in Syria, was a center for mission work into Gentile regions.

2:12 "Those who were of the circumcision" were Judaizers who believed circumcision was necessary for salvation.

WORD*Study* JUSTIFIED

Gal. 2:16 The Greek word dikaioō, translated "justify," also means to acquit, vindicate, or pronounce righteous. In the New Testament, this word almost always has a legal implication attached to it. God pronounces righteousness upon all who believe in Jesus (Acts 13:39). Paul developed this theme to express that because of sin no one is righteous (Rom. 1–3). Only God can justify or pronounce righteousness over sinners, through the substitutionary death of His Son who paid the price for all sin (Rom. 3:21–31). As a result of Christ's atoning work, the righteous will live by faith and not by works of the law (Gal. 3:11).

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gal. 2:20

Life from Death

Christianity is not about living our best for God; it is about dying to self and about Christ living in us. Our great weakness in serving Christ is self confidence. The choice is simple: either we deny self or we deny Christ.

Justification by Faith

3 O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you [1]that you should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was clearly portrayed [2]among you as crucified?
2 This only I want to learn from you: Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, [a]or by the hearing of faith?
3 Are you so foolish? [a]Having begun in the Spirit, are you now being made perfect by [b]the flesh?

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gal. 3:2

God's Answer to Faith

Good works do not result in salvation; they are the result of salvation. Faith alone leads to a relationship with God as we are born of the Spirit. Faith acknowledges our helpless condition and looks to God for divine intervention. His answer is the gift of the Holy Spirit.

4 [a]Have you suffered so [1]many things in vain—if indeed it was in vain?
5 Therefore He who supplies the Spirit to you and works miracles among you, does He do it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?—
6 just as Abraham [a]"believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness."
7 Therefore know that only [a]those who are of faith are sons of Abraham.
8 And [a]the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel to Abraham beforehand, saying, [b]"In you all the nations shall be blessed."
9 So then those who are of faith are blessed with believing Abraham.

The Law Brings a Curse

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse; for it is written, [a]"Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things which are written in the book of the law, to do them."
11 But that no one is [1]justified by the law in the sight of God is evident, for [a]"the just shall live by faith."
12 Yet [a]the law is not of faith, but [b]"the man who does them shall live by them."

HISTORICAL*Encounter* CHARLES WESLEY Gal. 2:20

Charles Wesley was an unusually devout young man. While a student at Oxford University, he established a Holy Club in which he and fellow students disciplined themselves for godliness. He also went to the new American colony of Georgia to conduct mission work. But he was not converted himself. Then, while Wesley lay sick in bed, a Moravian believer named William Holland visited him and brought him Martin Luther's commentary on Galatians. After Holland departed, Wesley meditated on the phrase from Galatians 2:20, "who loved me and gave Himself for me." Finally, on May 21, 1738, Wesley believed Jesus had done this for him personally and yielded his life to Christ. Wesley went on with his brother John to bring thousands of people to Christ in a revival that swept England. He wrote outstanding hymns that are still used today.

3:1 "Foolish" is not the lack of knowledge but the lack of wisdom. The Galatians knew the gospel as preached by Paul, but they had drifted from the truth.

3:3 Both salvation and sanctification are the Spirit's work. Paul mentions the Spirit sixteen times from this point to the end of Galatians.

3:8 The personification of Scripture emphasizes its divine origin.

13 [a]Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us (for it is written, [b]"Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree"), 14 [a]that the blessing of Abraham might come upon the [b]Gentiles in Christ Jesus, that we might receive [c]the promise of the Spirit through faith.

The Changeless Promise

15 Brethren, I speak in the manner of men: [a]Though it is only a man's covenant, yet if it is confirmed, no one annuls or adds to it.
16 Now to Abraham and his Seed were the promises made. He does not say, "And to seeds," as of many, but as of [a]one, [b]"And to your Seed," who is [c]Christ.
17 And this I say, that the law, [a]which was four hundred and thirty years later, cannot annul the covenant that was confirmed before by God [1]in Christ, [b]that it should make the promise of no effect.
18 For if [a]the inheritance is of the law, [b]it is no longer of promise; but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

Purpose of the Law

19 What purpose then does the law serve? [a]It was added because of transgressions, till the [b]Seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was [c]appointed through angels by the hand [d]of a mediator.
20 Now a mediator does not mediate for one only, [a]but God is one.
21 Is the law then against the promises of God? Certainly not! For if there had been a law given which could have given life, truly righteousness would have been by the law.
22 But the Scripture has confined [a]all under sin, [b]that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.
23 But before faith came, we were kept under guard by the law, [1]kept for the faith which would afterward be revealed.
24 Therefore [a]the law was our [1]tutor to bring us to Christ, [b]that we might be justified by faith.

Sons and Heirs

26 For you [a]are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus.
27 For [a]as many of you as were baptized into Christ [b]have put on Christ.
28 [a]There is neither Jew nor Greek, [b]there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all [c]one in Christ Jesus.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gal. 3:28

One in Christ

Sin causes separation, isolation, and independence. Redemption produces unity, inclusion, and interdependence. In Christ, divisive boundaries are eclipsed by fellowship in the Spirit.

29 And [a]if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's [b]seed, and [c]heirs according to the promise.
4 Now I say that the heir, as long as he is a child, does not differ at all from a slave, though he is master of all,
2 but is under guardians and stewards until the time appointed by the father.
3 Even so we, when we were children, [a]were in bondage under the elements of the world.
4 But [a]when the fullness of the time had come, God sent forth His Son, [b]born[1] [c]of a woman, [d]born under the law,
5 [a]to redeem those who were under the law, [b]that we might receive the adoption as sons.
6 And because you are sons, God has sent forth [a]the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying out, [1]"Abba, Father!"
7 Therefore you are no longer a slave but a son, [a]and if a son, then an heir [1]of God [2]through Christ.

Fears for the Church

8 But then, indeed, [a]when you did not know God, [b]you served those which by nature are not gods.
9 But now [a]after you have known God,

3:17 "Four hundred thirty years" refers to the time the Hebrew people were in Egypt before the Exodus (Ex. 12:40). The law did not replace the covenant with Abraham; its purpose was to reveal sin and to stimulate people back to the covenant relationship.

3:24 A "tutor," or guardian, was usually a slave assigned to watch over a student to help him with life skills and education.

3:29 "Abraham's seed" traditionally referred to the Jews; Paul uses it here for Gentile believers also, in a major departure from Jewish thinking.

4:4 Being "born under the law" meant Jesus was obligated to keep the law of Moses. Doing so brought further identification with those under the law whom He came to redeem.

4:5 "To redeem" literally means "to buy from the slave market." In the New Testament, Paul was the only writer to use this term.

4:5 In Rome, adopted children had the right to be legal heirs as long as their adoption was performed in the presence of witnesses. The Holy Spirit is the witness for those adopted by God. "Abba" is an intimate term for a father, rarely, if ever, used in Judaism to address God.

4:7 According to ancient laws, sons were heirs destined to inherit their father's possessions. In contrast, slaves were merely part of the inherited property.

ENCOUNTER Note Gal. 4:6

The Family of God

When God adopts us as His children, His Holy Spirit joins us as family to Christ and to other Christians. We are reborn to royalty, receiving a divine nature through the Spirit.

or rather are known by God, [b]how is it that you turn again to [c]the weak and beggarly elements, to which you desire again to be in bondage?
10 [a]You observe days and months and seasons and years.
11 I am afraid for you, [a]lest I have labored for you in vain.
12 Brethren, I urge you to become like me, for I became like you. [a]You have not injured me at all.
13 You know that [a]because of physical infirmity I preached the gospel to you at the first.
14 And my trial which was in my flesh you did not despise or reject, but you received me [a]as an [1]angel of God, [b]even as Christ Jesus.
15 [1]What then was the blessing you enjoyed? For I bear you witness that, if possible, you would have plucked out your own eyes and given them to me.
16 Have I therefore become your enemy because I tell you the truth?
17 They [a]zealously court you, but for no good; yes, they want to exclude you, that you may be zealous for them.
18 But it is good to be zealous in a good thing always, and not only when I am present with you.
19 [a]My little children, for whom I labor in birth again until Christ is formed in you, 20 I would like to be present with you now and to change my tone; for I have doubts about you.

Two Covenants

21 Tell me, you who desire to be under the law, do you not hear the law?
22 For it is written that Abraham had two sons: [a]the one by a bondwoman, [b]the other by a freewoman.
23 But he who was of the bondwoman [a]was born according to the flesh, [b]and he of the freewoman through promise,
24 which things are symbolic. For these are [1]the two covenants: the one from Mount [a]Sinai which gives birth to bondage, which is Hagar—
25 for this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and corresponds to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children—26 but the [a]Jerusalem above is free, which is the mother of us all.
27 For it is written:

[a]"Rejoice, O barren,
You who do not bear!
Break forth and shout,
You who are not in labor!
For the desolate has many more children
Than she who has a husband."

28 Now [a]we, brethren, as Isaac was, are [b]children of promise.
29 But, as [a]he who was born according to the flesh then persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, [b]even so it is now.
30 Nevertheless what does [a]the Scripture say? [b]"Cast out the bondwoman and her son, for [c]the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman."
31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman but of the free.

Christian Liberty

5 [a]Stand[1] fast therefore in the liberty by which Christ has made us free, and do not be entangled again with a [b]yoke of bondage.
2 Indeed I, Paul, say to you that [a]if you become circumcised, Christ will profit you nothing.
3 And I testify again to every man who becomes circumcised [a]that he is [1]a debtor to keep the whole law.
4 [a]You have become estranged from Christ, you who attempt to be justified by law; [b]you have fallen from grace.
5 For we through the Spirit eagerly [a]wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

4:10 "Days" likely refers to Sabbath days or special feasts. "Months and seasons" represented longer observances such as the time between Passover and Pentecost. "Years" could mean the Year of Jubilee. The Jewish calendar had numerous celebrations to honor God.

4:19 Calling the Galatians "little children" suggests Paul's affection for them. It also reflects the Roman custom of teachers being viewed as fathers to their students. A father was a respected authority figure.

4:22 Paul compares the two covenants with the two sons of Abraham. Ishmael was born to a slave woman, Hagar (Gen. 16:1–16) and Isaac to a free woman, Sarah (Gen 21:2–5).

4:24 The account of Abraham's two sons as symbolic does not mean their existence was not historical, but that the historical account is used to illustrate a theological truth.

4:25 Paul compares Jerusalem, the center of Jewish life, to Mount Sinai, the site where God's law was given to Moses.

5:2 Legalistic Jewish teachers insisted that new believers be circumcised as a means to salvation. Paul argued that such an act would be to fall away from salvation by grace and to trust in human effort for salvation.

WORD Study — LIBERTY

Gal. 5:1 The Greek word eleutheria, translated "liberty" also means "freedom." Technically the Greeks understood this to mean political freedom through independence and self governing as opposed to slavery. The New Testament, however, presents true freedom as serving Christ. We can be free only as we voluntarily give ourselves to another. In Christ we have freedom from sin (Rom. 6:18–23), from the law (Rom. 7:3, 4; Gal. 2:4), and from death (Rom. 6:21, 22; 8:21). Our freedom was achieved by Christ when He broke the chains of sin on the cross (John 8:36; Gal. 5:1). This freedom is not to do as we wish, but as He wills (1 Pet. 2:16). Our liberty is expressed in love and service to God's family (Gal. 5:13).

6 For [a]in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision avails anything, but [b]faith working through love.

Love Fulfills the Law

7 You [a]ran well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth?
8 This persuasion does not come from Him who calls you.
9 [a]A little leaven leavens the whole lump.
10 I have confidence in you, in the Lord, that you will have no other mind; but he who troubles you shall bear his judgment, whoever he is.
11 And I, brethren, if I still preach circumcision, [a]why do I still suffer persecution? Then [b]the offense of the cross has ceased.
12 [a]I could wish that those [b]who trouble you would even [1]cut themselves off!
13 For you, brethren, have been called to liberty; only [a]do not use liberty as an [b]opportunity for the flesh, but [c]through love serve one another.
14 For [a]all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: [b]"You shall love your neighbor as yourself."
15 But if you bite and devour one another, beware lest you be consumed by one another!

Walking in the Spirit

16 I say then: [a]Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh.

ENCOUNTER Note — Gal. 5:13

Free to Serve

Christ liberates us from sin's deadly bondage so we can enjoy a life giving relationship with Him. Our new freedom does not leave us in a vacuum, void of responsibility. Rather, it frees us to fulfill our created purpose—to love and to serve God and His people wholeheartedly.

ENCOUNTER Note — Gal. 5:16

A Divine Nature

Carnality is not just a "problem" unbelievers have; it is their nature. Likewise, righteousness is not merely a "spiritual condition," it is a believer's new nature. Walking in the flesh will always produce sin. Walking in the Spirit will always produce righteousness. Real-life situations are opportunities for the Spirit within Christians to express His divine attributes through their response.

17 For [a]the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another, [b]so that you do not do the things that you wish.
18 But [a]if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.
19 Now [a]the works of the flesh are evident, which are: [1]adultery, [2]fornication, uncleanness, lewdness,
20 idolatry, sorcery, hatred, contentions, jealousies, outbursts of wrath, selfish ambitions, dissensions, heresies,
21 envy, [1]murders, drunkenness, revelries, and the like; of which I tell you beforehand, just as I also told you in time past, that [a]those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.
22 But [a]the fruit of the Spirit is [b]love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, [c]goodness, [d]faithfulness,
23 [1]gentleness, self-control. [a]Against such there is no law.
24 And those who are Christ's [a]have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.
25 [a]If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

17 [a]Rom. 7:18, 22, 23; 8:5 [b]Rom. 7:15
18 [a][Rom. 6:14; 7:4; 8:14]
19 [a]Eph. 5:3, 11 [1]NU omits adultery [2]sexual immorality
21 [a]1 Cor. 6:9, 10 [1]NU omits murders
22 [a][John 15:2] [b][Col. 3:12–15] [c]Rom. 15:14 [d]1 Cor. 13:7
23 [a]1 Tim. 1:9 [1]meekness
24 [a]Rom. 6:6
25 [a][Rom. 8:4, 5]

5:12 This phrase is a witty insult suggesting that those insisting on circumcision should go all the way and "mutilate" or "emasculate" themselves.

5:22 The analogy of fruit is reminiscent of Jesus' teaching on the vine and the branches (John 15:1–5). Christlike behavior is produced by the Holy Spirit, not by strict adherence to the law.

5:24 Those who have crucified the flesh have died to self, and the Spirit now lives in them. This is the only way to have freedom from sin.

26 [a]Let us not become conceited, provoking one another, envying one another.

Bear and Share the Burdens

6 Brethren, if a man is [1]overtaken in any trespass, you who are spiritual restore such a one in a spirit of [a]gentleness, considering yourself lest you also be tempted.
2 [a]Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill [b]the law of Christ.
3 For [a]if anyone thinks himself to be something, when [b]he is nothing, he deceives himself.
4 But [a]let each one examine his own work, and then he will have rejoicing in himself alone, and [b]not in another.
5 For [a]each one shall bear his own load.

Be Generous and Do Good

6 [a]Let him who is taught the word share in all good things with him who teaches.
7 Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for [a]whatever a man sows, that he will also reap.
8 For he who sows to his flesh will of the flesh reap corruption, but he who sows to the Spirit will of the Spirit reap [a]everlasting life.
9 And [a]let us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we shall reap [b]if we do not lose heart.
10 [a]Therefore, as we have opportunity, [b]let us do good to all, [c]especially to those who are of the household of faith.

14 But God forbid that I should boast except in the [a]cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by [1]whom the world has been crucified to me, and [b]I to the world.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Gal. 6:14

Power of the Cross

Linger before the cross of Jesus Christ. Gaze upon the cross until sin's grip is loosened and Christ's love takes hold. The crucifixion and resurrection were the pivotal events ushering God's power into our lives.

15 For [a]in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision avails anything, but a new creation.

Blessing and a Plea

16 And as many as walk according to this rule, peace and mercy be upon them, and upon the Israel of God.
17 From now on let no one trouble me, for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.
18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

HISTORICAL*Encounter* ITHAMAR CONKEY Gal. 6:4

Ithamar Conkey was the organist and choir director for Central Baptist Church in Norwich, Connecticut. On a rainy Sunday morning in 1849, the pastor, Dr. Hiscox, began a sermon series on "The Words on the Cross." However, the weather was so miserable that few people braved the elements and only one choir member, Mrs. Rathbun, came to sing. Conkey was so disgusted at the people's lack of dedication that he stormed out of the church. Later, Conkey felt convicted at his harsh attitude in light of Jesus' words from the cross. He was reminded of the hymn by John Bowering, "In the Cross of Christ I Glory," which was based on Galatians 6:4. Conkey wrote a new tune for the hymn which would make the hymn famous. He named the tune "Rathbun" after the one faithful choir member on that memorable Sunday.

6:1 As Jesus came in "grace and truth" (John 1:14), so we are to be gentle in bringing the sinner back to the truth of God's Word. There is no room for a critical spirit in the body of Christ.

6:7 It insults God when Christians assume they can indulge in sin and not face sin's inevitable consequences.

6:11 Some have suggested Paul wrote with "large letters" because he had poor eyesight. This is in light of a physical ailment to which he alluded (Gal. 4:13), and his struggle with a "thorn in the flesh" (2 Cor. 12:7).

6:15 The physical mark of circumcision does not indicate salvation. Salvation is marked by spiritual renewal and the evidence that a new creation has been born of the Spirit (2 Cor. 5:17).

6:17 The Greek word for "marks" was a term used to describe a brand upon slaves. Paul's suffering (stoning, beatings, and illness) marked him as Christ's servant (2 Cor. 11:23–28).

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE EPHESIANS

INTRODUCTION

Paul's authorship of this epistle (1:1; 3:1), has been widely accepted among scholars. The themes are Pauline, reflecting much of his earlier teaching on salvation by grace through faith. Any variance to his other letters may be due to the fact this was almost certainly a circular letter, intended to address all the churches in the area around Ephesus. He was taken into official custody in Rome around A.D. 60. He was able, however, to write to both the Ephesians and Colossians, encouraging the churches in those cities as well as other local congregations that were springing up in the region.

Ephesus was in the Roman province of Asia (present-day Turkey). Located on several significant trade routes, it became a major commercial center with an international population. Famous for its temple to the fertility goddess Diana, one of the seven wonders of the ancient world, Ephesus was permeated with immorality. As a "hub city" with great influence, it also became a center for mission work throughout Asia Minor. Paul had been to the city on his second missionary journey, leaving Priscilla and Aquila to continue the work (Acts 18:18–21). On his third missionary journey, Paul stayed in Ephesus for three years (Acts 19:1–41). His ministry during this time was marked by numerous miracles and conversions. The impact of Paul's ministry was so great that it threatened the livelihood of the local artisans who made idols for pagan worship.

Much evidence suggests this was a circular letter sent to several congregations in Asia, of which Ephesus was the capital. Some of the manuscripts discovered do not contain the phrase "in Ephesus" (Eph. 1:1) in the greeting. The lack of personal references also suggests its broader audience. Moreover, Paul suggests he had not met some of the recipients (1:15; 3:2) which would be an odd statement since he spent three years with the Ephesian church. Furthermore, he does not address specific issues in the church as he does in other letters. Instead, his teaching is general in nature. It is clear that all New Testament epistles eventually became circular in nature, but Ephesians was probably intended as such from the outset.

SIGNIFICANCE

This epistle moves beyond specific and immediate issues to much higher and grander truths. It represents Paul's mature thinking after many years of ministry. He is stretching the early believers to a broader understanding of God's eternal purposes. Many believe this letter to be Paul's greatest work, as relevant today as it was to its original audience. It breaks down the barriers that divide people and testifies to God's sovereign rule over humanity. There is no central theme, but rather a presentation of several theological truths. Paul addresses the grace of God (2:8–10); the Christian calling (4:1); unity of believers (2:11–22); and God's eternal purpose which culminates in Christ (1:10). Included throughout the book are truths concerning God's people. God is active in history calling people to Himself through Christ. Those called out and gathered together are referred to as a building (2:19–22), Christ's body (1:22, 23), Christ's bride (5:23), the church (1:22; 3:10, 21), and the new man (2:14, 15). God's people uniquely belong to Him and have a mission in His great plan of salvation. Paul, therefore, helps us understand God's eternal plan and how believers fit into His purposes through Christ.

STRUCTURE

The Book of Ephesians can be divided into two sections. The first is doctrinal and the second is ethical, applying the doctrines. The doctrinal section has two parts. First is the purpose of God's salvation (1:3–23). God chose us for salvation according to His will and for His glory. The second part of the doctrinal section expounds the greatness of God's salvation (2:1—3:21). In Christ, believers have new life and they are unified as one body through the Spirit. As such, they make known the mystery of God. The ethical section has four parts. First is the need for unity among believers (4:1–16). Christians must walk worthy of the gospel and seek to build up the body through the gifts God has given them. Second, Christ brings new life (4:17—5:21). Believers must cast off the old and put on the new. Sin grieves the Holy Spirit and it must be discarded. Third, all relationships must honor God (5:22—6:9). These relationships include spouses in marriage, parents and children in families, and employers/employees in the workplace. Fourth, believers are to put on the armor of God (6:10–20). There is a spiritual battle to fight, but God has equipped us to live the victorious Christian life. Paul's letter closes with a final word of salutation (6:21–24). Ephesians can be outlined as follows:

Introduction (1:1, 2)
Doctrinal Treatise
  Purpose of Salvation (1:3–23)
  Greatness of Salvation (2:1—3:21)
Ethical Implications
  Unity (4:1–16)
  New Life in Christ (4:17—5:21)
  Godly Relationships (5:22—6:9)
  Armor of God (6:10–20)
Conclusion (6:21–24)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH EPHESIANS

This is the favorite book of many Christians, for it helps clarify the bigger picture of what God is doing in our world. We have a purpose, we belong, and we have been given everything we need to live the Christian life.

God wants to encourage you with the assurance of salvation. If you are a Christian, He has saved you, sealed you, and promised you much more to come. God will use you in the church body to bless other believers and to astound those who watch your life as you reflect His glory. A significant truth that will set you free to serve the Lord is the corporate dimension to salvation. God has adopted you as part of His family. He expects you to connect with His people. The metaphor of the body is important. Every member must play a part in building up the body. Prepare for the Holy Spirit to show you where you fit and how you can serve.

Greeting

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God,

To the saints who are in Ephesus, and faithful in Christ Jesus:

2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Redemption in Christ

3 [a]Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ,
4 just as [a]He chose us in Him [b]before the foundation of the world, that we should [c]be holy and without blame before Him in love,
5 [a]having predestined us to [b]adoption as sons by Jesus Christ to Himself, [c]according to the good pleasure of His will,
6 to the praise of the glory of His grace, [a]by which He [1]made us accepted in [b]the Beloved.
7 [a]In Him we have redemption through

In Christ

Every spiritual blessing God has for us is found in Christ and Christ alone. According to the Father's will, His good pleasure, His purposes, and by His grace, He has been glorified in redeeming us. God has made Christ the bridge by which we have access to Him and the means by which He comes to us.

1:1 Not all manuscripts include "in Ephesus." Many scholars believe this was a circular letter to a group of churches, Ephesus being the most prominent one in that region.

1:3 Ancient letters often began with a prayer of thanksgiving. Paul's elaboration seems unusually long, yet it is only one sentence in Greek (covering vv. 3–14). He uses several terms normally reserved to identify Jewish people as God's covenant people (chosen, holy, predestined, adopted, heirs). Yet Paul is now describing all believers, Jews and Gentiles alike.

1:6 "The Beloved" refers to Jesus and literally means "the One He loves."

His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to [b]the riches of His grace
8 which He made to abound toward us in all wisdom and [1]prudence,
9 [a]having made known to us the mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure [b]which He purposed in Himself,
10 that in the dispensation of [a]the fullness of the times [b]He might gather together in one [c]all things in Christ, [1]both which are in heaven and which are on earth—in Him.
11 [a]In Him also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestined according to [b]the purpose of Him who works all things according to the counsel of His will,
12 [a]that we [b]who first trusted in Christ should be to the praise of His glory.
13 In Him you also trusted, after you heard [a]the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation; in whom also, having believed, [b]you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise,
14 [a]who[1] is the [2]guarantee of our inheritance [b]until the redemption of [c]the purchased possession, [d]to the praise of His glory.

Prayer for Spiritual Wisdom

15 Therefore I also, [a]after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints,
16 [a]do not cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers:
17 that [a]the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, [b]may give to you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him,
18 [a]the eyes of your [1]understanding being enlightened; that you may know what is [b]the hope of His calling, what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints,
19 and what is the exceeding greatness of His power toward us who believe, [a]according to the working of His mighty power
20 which He worked in Christ when [a]He raised Him from the dead and [b]seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly places, 21 [a]far above all [b]principality[1] and [2]power and [3]might and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age but also in that which is to come.
22 And [a]He put all things under His feet, and gave Him [b]to be head over all things to the church,
23 [a]which is His body, [b]the fullness of Him [c]who fills all in all.

By Grace Through Faith

2 And [a]you He made alive, [b]who were dead in trespasses and sins,
2 [a]in which you once walked according to the [1]course of this world, according to [b]the prince of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in [c]the sons of disobedience,
3 [a]among whom also we all once conducted ourselves in [b]the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and [c]were by nature children of wrath, just as the others.
4 But God, [a]who is rich in mercy, because of His [b]great love with which He loved us,
5 [a]even when we were dead in trespasses, [b]made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved),
6 and raised us up together, and made us sit together [a]in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus,
7 that in the ages to come He might show the exceeding riches of His grace

Power of God

The power of God in our lives requires revelation and belief. God must reveal truth so we can respond to Him, but His power in our lives awaits acceptance and adjustment to that which He reveals. God's power is only given to those who hear Him, believe Him, and obey Him.

1:7 "Redemption" means "buy back" or "ransom." One could "buy back" a person sold into slavery. The word refers to the liberation of anyone shackled by debt or overpowering circumstances. God redeemed Israel out of Egyptian slavery and led His people to the Promised Land. The blood of the Passover Lamb forever symbolized freedom from bondage, and pointed to the Lamb of God who would set people free from their sin. Our redemption is through the blood Christ shed on the cross.

1:10 "Dispensation" means management or administration. The English word "economy" is derived from this word. Dispensation is God's arrangement of history to fulfill His ultimate purposes.

1:13 A wax seal with a mark of identification stamped in it was a common practice for signifying ownership. Christians are "sealed with the Holy Spirit."

1:14 The term "guarantee" was used in ancient business documents to indicate a down payment or earnest money. The Holy Spirit is God's assurance of future rewards—a foretaste of what is to come.

1:20 Jewish people believed the future resurrection was the ultimate example of God's power. Paul affirmed resurrection power and pointed to the decisive moment in history when Christ was raised from the dead.

1:21 Magicians and exorcists sought to use powerful spirits by calling upon them by name. But the name of Jesus is above all other names, the supreme power of the universe.

in [a]His kindness toward us in Christ Jesus.
8 [a]For by grace you have been saved [b]through faith, and that not of yourselves; [c]it is the gift of God,
9 not of [a]works, lest anyone should [b]boast.
10 For we are [a]His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them.

ENCOUNTER Note Eph. 2:10

Walk in Grace

Living a life in Christ is to be where He is; it is to know heavenly realities on earth. Nothing is too hard for Christ. Grace means that when Christ lives within us, all that we have and all that we are is His gift. We cannot boast in what He has given, we simply live in gratitude, walking according to His grace.

Brought Near by His Blood

11 Therefore remember that you, once Gentiles in the flesh—who are called Uncircumcision by what is called [a]the Circumcision made in the flesh by hands—
12 that at that time you were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world.
13 But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ.

Christ Our Peace

14 For He Himself is our peace, who has made both one, and has broken down the middle wall of separation,
15 having abolished in His flesh the enmity, that is, the law of commandments contained in ordinances, so as to create in Himself one [a]new man from the two, thus making peace,
16 and that He might [a]reconcile them both to God in one body through the cross, thereby [b]putting to death the enmity.
17 And He came and preached peace to you who were afar off and to those who were near.
18 For [a]through Him we both have access [b]by one Spirit to the Father.

Christ Our Cornerstone

19 Now, therefore, you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God,
20 having been [a]built [b]on the foundation of the [c]apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being [d]the chief cornerstone,
21 in whom the whole building, being fitted together, grows into [a]a holy temple in the Lord,
22 [a]in whom you also are being built together for a [b]dwelling place of God in the Spirit.

ENCOUNTER Note Eph. 2:22

Together with Christ

In His characteristic orderly way, God fashions His dwelling place. Jesus is the cornerstone and each believer is a building block. The unified, divine temple—the body of Christ—displays God's glory.

The Mystery Revealed

3 For this reason I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus for you Gentiles—
2 if indeed you have heard of the [1]dispensation of the grace of God [a]which was given to me for you,
3 [a]how that by revelation [b]He made known to me the mystery (as I have briefly written already,
4 by which, when you read, you may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ),
5 which in other ages was not made known to the sons of men, as it has now been revealed by the Spirit to His holy apostles and prophets:
6 that the Gentiles [a]should be fellow heirs, of the same body, and partakers of His promise in Christ through the gospel,
7 [a]of which I became a minister [b]according to the gift of the grace of God given to me by [c]the effective working of His power.

2:8 Most Jewish believers agreed their salvation was completely an act of God's grace in the covenant, but they did not believe God would extend His grace to non-Jews.

2:14 The recipients of this letter knew Paul was in prison, falsely accused of taking a Gentile inside the temple (Acts 21:27–29). The offense was considered so serious that the Romans allowed Jewish leaders to execute violators of this law. There was no greater symbol of the barrier between Jew and non-Jew than the "middle wall of separation" or "dividing wall" in the temple. Paul claimed Christ had demolished this wall.

2:20 A cornerstone was the first rock laid for a foundation. The entire structure would be aligned to the cornerstone.

3:1 Paul was under house arrest (Acts 28:16, 30).

Purpose of the Mystery

8 To me, [a]who am less than the least of all the saints, this grace was given, that I should preach among the Gentiles [b]the unsearchable riches of Christ,
9 and to make all see what is the [1]fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the ages has been hidden in God who [a]created all things [2]through Jesus Christ;

WORD Study MYSTERY

Eph. 3:9 The Greek word mysterion, translated "mystery" can also mean "secret." It is used in Greek literature to describe concealed teaching within religious or political systems. These secrets were often hidden in rituals or customs that only a chosen few were privileged to know. The term is mentioned twenty-seven times in the New Testament, twenty of those times by the apostle Paul. In the Scriptures, "mystery" describes divine knowledge too profound for human understanding. All spiritual knowledge, including the nature of Christ, remains a mystery unless God, through the Holy Spirit, reveals the truth (Rom. 16:25; 1 Cor. 2:14; Eph. 3:4, 5; Col. 2:2). The mystery of God does not mean He hides Himself from people, but that those corrupted by sin cannot see, hear, or understand Him. All people are dead in sin (Eph. 2:1) and cannot know God unless He brings them to life. The mystery is made clear through the work of God's grace to bring salvation.

10 [a]to the intent that now [b]the [1]manifold wisdom of God might be made known by the church [c]to the [2]principalities and powers in the heavenly places,
11 [a]according to the eternal purpose which He accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord, 12 in whom we have boldness and access [a]with confidence through faith in Him.
13 [a]Therefore I ask that you do not lose heart at my tribulations for you, [b]which is your glory.

Declaring the Divine

The church is God's primary instrument for displaying His manifold wisdom. Nowhere else has He bestowed such a magnitude of mercy and grace. People who have received God's great salvation through the blood of Christ have experienced His greatest work; their life is a tribute to God's awesome power.

15 from whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named,

God's Best

God does not need our grandiose plans and creative imagination. He is prepared to do far more in our lives than we could ever imagine, if we are willing to wait on His will and to trust Him to accomplish it through us.

21 [a]to Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

Walk in Unity

4 I, therefore, the prisoner [1]of the Lord, [2]beseech you to [a]walk worthy of the calling with which you were called,
2 with all lowliness and gentleness, with longsuffering, bearing with one another in love,
3 endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit [a]in the bond of peace.

3:8 "Less than the least" is an expression of deep humility. God's grace never ceased to amaze Paul, for he once persecuted the church. Paul also called himself the chief of sinners (1 Tim. 1:15).

3:12 "Boldness" is a term referring to frank speech that would only be appropriate among close friends.

4:1 As in most of Paul's letters, he applies moral conduct to the doctrines just taught.

4:2 To "bear with one another" means to put up with or to overlook shortcomings in other people for the sake of Christ.

4 [a]There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called in one hope of your calling;
5 [a]one Lord, [b]one faith, [c]one baptism;
6 [a]one God and Father of all, who is above all, and [b]through all, and in [1]you all.

Spiritual Gifts

7 But [a]to each one of us grace was given according to the measure of Christ's gift.
8 Therefore He says:

> [a]"When He ascended on high,
> He led captivity captive,
> And gave gifts to men."

9 [a](Now this, "He ascended"—what does it mean but that He also [1]first descended into the lower parts of the earth?
10 He who descended is also the One [a]who ascended far above all the heavens, [b]that He might fill all things.)
11 And He Himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers,

Serve the Master

Christ is Head of the church and Lord of our lives. A servant of the Lord never tells the Master what to do, but quickly obeys everything that is on his master's heart. God gives gifts to fulfill His purposes. He wants every member of His body to know the fullness of His presence. All church ministries work toward this purpose.

WORD Study — EQUIPPING

Eph. 4:12 The Greek word katartismos, translated "equipping," is only used here in the New Testament. It can be used in the medical sense of setting a bone or more generally it can mean a restoration. It suggests bringing to health or making complete. Paul was saying ministers should invest in God's people to bring them to a place where they are healthy, strong, and lacking nothing for service in Christ's body. Every believer has a significant role in building up the body; each one, therefore, must be given tools to serve as a disciple of Christ.

16 [a]from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by what every joint supplies, according to the effective working by which every part does its share, causes growth of the body for the edifying of itself in love.

The New Man

17 This I say, therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you should [a]no longer walk as [1]the rest of the Gentiles walk, in the futility of their mind,
18 having their understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the [a]blindness of their heart;
19 [a]who, being past feeling, [b]have given themselves over to lewdness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.
20 But you have not so learned Christ,
21 if indeed you have heard Him and have been taught by Him, as the truth is in Jesus:
22 that you [a]put off, concerning your former conduct, the old man which grows corrupt according to the deceitful lusts,
23 and [a]be renewed in the spirit of your mind,
24 and that you [a]put on the new man which was created according to God, in true righteousness and holiness.

Do Not Grieve the Spirit

25 Therefore, putting away lying, [a]"Let each one of you speak truth with his neighbor," for [b]we are members of one another.

4:11 Apostles were commissioned messengers sent by Christ with special authority to establish churches. They were all eye witnesses of the resurrected Christ. Prophets were spokespersons for God and were well known from the Old Testament tradition. Prophets both proclaimed what God had said and foretold what He would do. Evangelists were heralds of God's message of salvation, proclaiming the good news. Pastors were shepherds, overseers of local congregations. As such, they were to nurture, care for, and protect God's people. Teachers explained and applied the Scriptures for God's people to follow. God established all five roles to equip the body of Christ for the ministry of edification so the church would experience unity and maturity in Christ.

26 [a]"Be angry, and do not sin": do not let the sun go down on your wrath,
27 [a]nor give [1]place to the devil.
28 Let him who stole steal no longer, but rather [a]let him labor, working with his hands what is good, that he may have something [b]to give him who has need.
29 [a]Let no corrupt word proceed out of your mouth, but [b]what is good for necessary [1]edification, [c]that it may impart grace to the hearers.
30 And [a]do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.
31 [a]Let all bitterness, wrath, anger,
[1]clamor, and [b]evil speaking be put away from you, [c]with all malice.
32 And [a]be kind to one another, tender-hearted, [b]forgiving one another, even as God in Christ forgave you.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Eph. 4:32

Love Expressed

Christian kindness is God's love expressed in practical ways; it is intentionally sharing the love He has shown us. Our current relationship with God can be measured by how we express kindness, tenderness, and forgiveness to others.

Walk in Love

5 Therefore[a] be imitators of God as dear [b]children.
2 And [a]walk in love, [b]as Christ also has loved us and given Himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God [c]for a sweet-smelling aroma.
3 But fornication and all [a]uncleanness or [b]covetousness, let it not even be named among you, as is fitting for saints;
4 [a]neither filthiness, nor [b]foolish talking, nor coarse jesting, [c]which are not fitting, but rather [d]giving of thanks.
5 For [1]this you know, that no fornicator, unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, has any [a]inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God.
6 Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience.
7 Therefore do not be [a]partakers with them.

Walk in Light

8 For you were once darkness, but now you are [a]light in the Lord. Walk as children of light
9 (for [a]the fruit of the [1]Spirit is in all goodness, righteousness, and truth), 10 [a]finding out what is acceptable to the Lord.
11 And have [a]no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather [1]expose them.
12 [a]For it is shameful even to speak of those things which are done by them in secret.
13 But [a]all things that are [1]exposed are made manifest by the light, for whatever makes manifest is light.
14 Therefore He says:

[a]"Awake, you who sleep,
Arise from the dead,
And Christ will give you light."

Walk in Wisdom

15 [a]See then that you walk [1]circumspectly, not as fools but as wise, 16 [a]redeeming the time, [b]because the days are evil.

One Life to Live

You have one life to live, so don't waste it. Foolish choices will always cost you and those around you. Frivolous pursuits will lead you away from God's best.

17 [a]Therefore do not be unwise, but [b]understand [c]what the will of the Lord is.
18 And [a]do not be drunk with wine, in which is dissipation; but be filled with 4:29 The word translated "unwholesome" can mean "foul, putrid, rotten, worthless." Paul makes no allowance for such words ever being spoken by believers.

4:30 The Spirit is a person and not a force or influence. To "grieve the Holy Spirit" is to let our flesh control us rather than following the Spirit's guidance. Sin in our life brings the Spirit great sorrow, because it separates us from God and keeps us from our intended purpose.

5:1 Many moralists of Paul's day appealed to the imitation of God for ethical standards, but none of the pagan gods had sacrificed for their people out of love for them.

5:7 "Do not be partakers with them" does not indicate isolation or removal from the world; the point is that Christians should not participate in the sinful lifestyle of unbelievers.

5:8 Jewish texts often used "light" and "darkness" to contrast good and evil. This was especially meaningful to Paul's audience, as some of the Greek mystery cults emphasized night initiations connected with sexual immorality. Paul sought to disassociate Christians with the many immoral pagan cults.

5:18 "Be filled" is present tense in the Greek; the filling is not a one-time event, but a continuous or daily experience. It is also an imperative, meaning God expects every believer to remain under the influence of the Holy Spirit at all times.

19 speaking to one another [a]in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making [b]melody in your heart to the Lord,
20 [a]giving thanks always for all things to God the Father [b]in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, 21 [a]submitting to one another in the fear of [1]God.

Marriage—Christ and the Church

22 Wives, [a]submit to your own husbands, as to the Lord.
23 For [a]the husband is head of the wife, as also [b]Christ is head of the church; and He is the Savior of the body.
24 Therefore, just as the church is subject to Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands [a]in everything.
25 [a]Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ also loved the church and [b]gave Himself for her,
26 that He might [1]sanctify and cleanse her [a]with the washing of water [b]by the word,
27 [a]that He might present her to Himself a glorious church, [b]not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing, but that she should be holy and without blemish.
28 So husbands ought to love their own wives as their own bodies; he who loves his wife loves himself.
29 For no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, just as the Lord does the church.
30 For [a]we are members of His body, [1]of His flesh and of His bones.
31 [a]"For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the [b]two shall become one flesh."
32 This is a great mystery, but I speak concerning Christ and the church.
33 Nevertheless [a]let each one of you in particular so love his own wife as himself, and let the wife see that she [b]respects her husband.

Children and Parents

6 Children, [a]obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right.
2 [a]"Honor your father and mother," which is the first commandment with promise:
3 "that it may be well with you and you may live long on the earth."
4 And [a]you, fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but [b]bring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord.

Bondservants and Masters

5 [a]Bondservants, be obedient to those who are your masters according to the flesh, [b]with fear and trembling, [c]in sincerity of heart, as to Christ;
6 [a]not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers, but as bondservants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart,
7 with goodwill doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men,
8 [a]knowing that whatever good anyone does, he will receive the same from the Lord, whether he is a slave or free.
9 And you, masters, do the same things to them, giving up threatening, knowing that [1]your own [a]Master also is in heaven, and [b]there is no partiality with Him.

The Whole Armor of God

5:19 "Psalms and hymns and spiritual songs" are various ways to worship God through music. If there were a characteristic feature of each, psalms probably refers to singing the 150 psalms we have in Scripture or other poetic works; hymns generally refer to compositions directed toward God; and spiritual songs are Spirit-inspired songs that express the Christian experience.

5:21 This section (vv. 21–33) has been called "household codes." Greco-Roman moral writings usually broke this discussion down to husband-wife, father-child, and master-slave relationships. Paul borrows this structure, but undermines their basic premise: absolute authority of the male head of the house. "Submitting to one another" because Christ is the Lord of all forms the basis for Paul's argument. Although wives, children, and slaves all practiced some form of submission, Paul was including the male head of the household among those who were to submit. This was an unheard of concept in that society.

5:22 No ancient household code listed love as a husband's duty; society called on husbands to make wives submit. Paul maintained wifely submission to define roles in marriage, but qualified it by the example of Christ loving and giving His life for the church.

5:26 "Washing" alludes to the bride's prenuptial cleansing. After the washing, the bride was perfumed, anointed, and dressed in wedding clothes. This ceremony came to be known as "the sanctification of the bride," which set her apart for her husband. Here Paul claims Christ cleanses His bride through God's Word.

6:2 The Old Testament command to honor parents (Ex. 20:12; Deut. 5:16) was foundational to the people of God and to the nation of Israel. Many believed this to be the most important commandment because the rest of society was built upon this fundamental relationship of respect and obedience (Deut. 21:18–21).

6:4 Children were often taught through beating and harsh discipline. Paul is in the minority of ancient writers when he disapproves of excessive punishment; instead he promotes discipline through mutual love and respect.

6:9 It was a revolutionary thought that masters should treat slaves with respect. Paul reminds them they also have a Master who watches over them. His words reflect the principle Jesus taught: "With the measure you use, it will be measured back to you" (Matt. 7:2).

6:11 The image of warriors doing battle was common in the Old Testament, but the armor Paul described characterized Roman soldiers. Paul probably did not intend to closely associate parts of the armor with specific strengths of a Christian; he was impressing upon his readers that all of the armor is necessary for a victorious Christian life.

6:11 Paul continues the metaphor of Christians as an army, exhorting them to stand firm against opposition (vv. 13–14). Roman soldiers were to take their stand and not retreat on the day of battle. If they stood together and did not break ranks and flee, their legions were considered practically invincible.

you may be able to stand against the [1]wiles of the devil.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Eph. 6:12

Spiritual Battle

If you are a Christian, you are engaged in a spiritual battle of universal proportions. Your soul is in a conflict against the forces of evil, so fight the good fight. As frightening as the powers of darkness may appear, you serve the God of light, and the victory is His.

13 [a]Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand [b]in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.
14 Stand therefore, [a]having girded your waist with truth, [b]having put on the breastplate of righteousness,
15 [a]and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace;
16 above all, taking [a]the shield of faith with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked one.
17 And [a]take the helmet of salvation, and [b]the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God;
18 [a]praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, [b]being watchful to this end with all perseverance and [c]supplication for all the saints—
19 and for me, that utterance may be given to me, [a]that I may open my mouth boldly to make known the mystery of the gospel, 20 for which [a]I am an ambassador in chains; that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

A Gracious Greeting

21 But that you also may know my affairs and how I am doing, [a]Tychicus, a beloved brother and [b]faithful minister in the Lord, will make all things known to you;
22 [a]whom I have sent to you for this very purpose, that you may know our affairs, and that he may [b]comfort your hearts.
23 Peace to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
24 Grace be with all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

The Work of the Kingdom

Prayer is the most practical work God assigns us as He sends us out on mission in our world. Prayer alerts us to schemes of the evil one and reveals God's activity. Prayer engages the work of the Spirit in our lives and in those for whom we pray. Prayer does not just prepare us for the work of the Kingdom; it is the greatest work God has given us.

HISTORICAL*Encounter* GEORGE DUFFIELD Eph. 6:14

A pastor, Dudley Tyng, preached to over five thousand men at Jayne's Hall in Philadelphia on March 30, 1858, and exhorted them to serve God with all their hearts. A few days later Tyng was fatally injured when his sleeve became caught in a large machine. His dying words in light of his recent sermon were "stand up for Jesus!" The following Sunday, George Duffield, Tyng's friend, preached a sermon based on Ephesians 6:14. At the close of his sermon, in honor of his friend's life and death, he read a new hymn he had written, "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus." This hymn continues to encourage men and women to give their all for Christ.

6:14 "Having girded your waist" refers to the belt or girdle that had strips of leather to protect the lower body. The "breastplate" was normally made with hard leather overlaid with metal to protect the chest.

6:15 "Having shod your feet" refers to sandals or boots (technically the Roman caliga, a half-boot) so the warrior could advance on the enemy without injuring his feet.

6:16 Roman soldiers were given a large rectangular wooden shield that stood four feet high and was covered with leather on the front. The leather was soaked in water to help extinguish flaming arrows.

6:17 The helmet was bronze and was equipped with cheek pieces to protect the head and face. The sword was generally 20 to 24 inches long and was used for close conflict with the enemy.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE PHILIPPIANS

INTRODUCTION

The early church accepted Philippians as an authentic letter written by the apostle Paul (Phil. 1:1), and modern scholars agree. Paul wrote the letter from prison (1:13, 14), almost certainly in Rome (Acts 28:16–31) in A.D. 61–62. His situation confined him, but it did not keep him from communicating with churches and preaching the gospel to his captors (Phil. 1:12–14).

Through a vision, God called Paul to preach the gospel in Macedonia during his second missionary journey. As a result, the first church in Europe was established in Philippi (Acts 16:6–12). The city was named for Philip II of Macedon, father of Alexander the Great. It was a strategic trade center located on the Egnatian Way, connecting the eastern provinces of the Roman Empire to Rome. Philippi became classified as a Roman colony in 42 B.C., making its people Roman citizens with the right to purchase or sell property. Philippians enjoyed special legal status, with privileges in civil courts and exemption from paying poll and land taxes. Their wealth and status led to an attitude of pride and superiority among the citizens. The church included a mixture of Gentile races and cultures along with a small but influential group of Jews. The blended congregation was reflected in its first converts: Lydia, an upper-class woman who sold expensive dyes for royalty (Acts 16:14, 15), a slave girl formerly possessed by an evil spirit (Acts 16:16–18), and a middle-class jailer (Acts 16:25–34). Paul wrote to thank the Philippians for their fellowship in the gospel. Clearly this church was dear to his heart. The people had cared for him and were significant partners in his ministry (Phil. 1:5).

SIGNIFICANCE

Although Paul's main purpose in writing was to thank the Philippians, his time in prison gave him opportunity to consider and address the needs of the church. As a personal letter to people familiar to him, this was not a systematic treatment of doctrine but rather a report to his partners in ministry about his circumstances. Paul was also commending the work of Timothy and Epaphroditus. One prominent theme throughout the letter is joy. God was working in and through Paul's life, even in prison. His joy was not circumstantial but grounded in a personal relationship with the Lord. This was particularly appropriate for those also under the threat of persecution.

A notable feature is Paul's sensitivity to the Christian mind. He challenged believers to strive together "with one mind" (Phil. 1:27), to be "like-minded" (2:2), to be "in lowliness of mind" (2:3), and to "let this mind be in you which was also in Christ" (2:5). Other statements include: "as many as are mature, have this mind" (3:15), and the peace of God will "guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus" (4:7). Paul asserted that the Philippians' enemies "set their mind on earthly things" (3:19). He was concerned that Christians have a godly perspective as protection against false and corrupt teachers. This defense was found in knowing Christ personally (3:8–10) and meditating on that which is from God (4:8). In particular, Paul used the life of Christ as the ultimate example of how Christians ought to think and act (2:5–11).

STRUCTURE

This letter exhibits a traditional style. Paul identifies the author and the audience in the introduction and continues with a prayer of thanksgiving for the Philippians. Next comes a short autobiographical note to inform his readers of his condition. Along with his own activity, Paul speaks of God's work in the midst of difficult circumstances, and he gives various exhortations for Christian living. He speaks of a life worthy of the gospel and gives Christ as the example of humble service. He commends the good conduct of Timothy and Epaphroditus but warns against false teachers. He ends with concluding statements and a benediction. Philippians can be outlined as follows:

Introduction (1:1, 2)
Prayer of Thanksgiving (1:3–11)
Personal Update (1:12–26)
Exhortation for Christian Living
  Christlike Character (1:27—2:18)
  Christian Examples (2:19–30)
  Warning of False Teachers (3:1–21)
  Miscellaneous Teaching (4:1–9)
Conclusion (4:10–20)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH PHILIPPIANS

Let this book speak to you about true Christianity, and what it really means to be in a relationship with Jesus Christ. Everything flows from that relationship, so it ought to be your foremost pursuit. The evidence of a close walk with God is contentment and joy. The Holy Spirit bestowed those qualities on Paul in prison and likewise they are available to you. The Holy Spirit brings joy from within, despite life's circumstances. Be encouraged to know God is at work in your life. Your challenge is to walk with Him and release your life to His will.

CHAPTER 1

PAUL and Timothy, bondservants of Jesus Christ,

To all the saints in Christ Jesus who are in Philippi, with the [1]bishops and [a]deacons:

2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thankfulness and Prayer

3 [a]I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,
4 always in [a]every prayer of mine making request for you all with joy,
5 [a]for your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now,
6 being confident of this very thing, that He who has begun [a]a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ;
7 just as it is right for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart, inasmuch as both in my chains and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel, you all are partakers with me of grace.
8 For God is my witness, how greatly I long for you all with the affection of Jesus Christ.
9 And this I pray, that your love may abound still more and more in knowledge and all discernment,
10 that you may approve the things that are excellent, that you may be sincere and without offense till the day of Christ,
11 being filled with the fruits of righteousness [a]which are by Jesus Christ, [b]to the glory and praise of God.

Christ Is Preached

12 But I want you to know, brethren, that the things which happened to me have actually turned out for the furtherance of the gospel,
13 so that it has become evident [a]to the whole [1]palace guard, and to all the rest, that my chains are in Christ;

God Is at Work

God loved you, chose you, drew you, enlightened you, and saved you, but He is not done with you yet. His desire is to bring you into the center of His activity according to His eternal purpose for your life. Stand before Him with a heart of ready obedience; God alone knows what you will become in Him.

1:1 "Bondservant" is a title of honor for Paul. He spent years persecuting Christians (Acts 22:7), but devoted the rest of his life to serving Christ. "Bishops" were overseers who watched over the spiritual wellbeing of the church. "Deacons" literally meant servants; they ministered to the church in many practical ways. The existence of these two offices indicates the growth and development of the Philippian church.

1:5 "Fellowship" is an economic term meaning partnership in a business venture where all parties are active participants.

1:6 "Day of Jesus Christ" is an adaptation of the Old Testament "Day of the Lord," which in essence equates Christ with divinity. It refers to the day of Christ's return to judge the world.

1:7 Given Paul's imprisonment, he is inclined to use legal terms. "Defense and confirmation" are the negative and positive sides of the ministry. Defend the gospel against false teachers and confirm the gospel in the power of the Holy Spirit.

1:13 The "palace guard" probably refers to the praetorian guard, an elite military body numbering between thirteen and fourteen thousand soldiers stationed in Rome. No army was permitted in Italy, but this group was more like a private guard to the emperor. Their loyalty was secured with high wages. The guard was also kept from political aspirations, for they were under the leadership of a prefect who could never legally become an emperor; he was technically a knight and not a senator.

14 and most of the brethren in the Lord, having become confident by my chains, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.
15 Some indeed preach Christ even from envy and strife, and some also from goodwill:
16 [1]The former preach Christ from selfish ambition, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my chains;
17 but the latter out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the gospel.
18 What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is preached; and in this I rejoice, yes, and will rejoice.

To Live Is Christ

19 For I know that [a]this will turn out for my deliverance through your prayer and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,
20 according to my earnest expectation and hope that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but [a]with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life [b]or by death.
21 For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Phil. 1:21

No Fear

Christ brings freedom in life by removing fear in death. Invest in eternity by living for Christ today.

22 But if I live on in the flesh, this will mean fruit from my labor; yet what I shall choose I [1]cannot tell.
23 [1]For I am hard-pressed between the two, having a [a]desire to depart and be with Christ, which is [b]far better.
24 Nevertheless to remain in the flesh is more needful for you.
25 And being confident of this, I know that I shall remain and continue with you all for your progress and joy of faith,
26 that [a]your rejoicing for me may be more abundant in Jesus Christ by my coming to you again.

Striving and Suffering for Christ

27 Only [a]let your conduct be worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of your affairs, that you stand fast in one spirit, [b]with one mind [c]striving together for the faith of the gospel,

ENCOUNTER*Note* Phil. 1:27

Live the Gospel

The gospel is pure love, willing sacrifice, ultimate suffering, and the gracious offer of salvation. It is the visible expression of Christ's heart. To receive the gospel is to live the gospel; its truth captivates you and motivates your soul. Can others see the gospel in you?

28 and not in any way terrified by your adversaries, which is to them a proof of perdition, but [1]to you of salvation, and that from God.
29 For to you [a]it has been granted on behalf of Christ, [b]not only to believe in Him, but also to [c]suffer for His sake,
30 [a]having the same conflict [b]which you saw in me and now hear is in me.

Unity Through Humility

2 Therefore if there is any [1]consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any [a]affection and mercy,

HISTORICAL*Encounter* MAJOR IAN THOMAS Phil. 1:21

Ian Thomas was converted to Christianity at age thirteen. By fifteen he had committed his life to Christ's service. As a college student, he constantly sought avenues to share the gospel, filling his days with ministry as he prepared to go as a missionary to Africa. Yet by age nineteen he was spiritually exhausted. Despite his heroic efforts, he saw no results. People were not responding to the gospel. Finally reduced to tears of despair, he cried out to God. Then he heard God say, "To me to live is Christ." Thomas realized he had been trying to accomplish what only Christ could do through him. He surrendered his life fully to Christ, and everything changed. Now Christ worked through Thomas and people's lives were transformed all around him. Major Thomas was powerfully used by God to impact his generation for Christ.

1:19 "Deliverance" refers to Paul's release from prison. Paul and the Philippians were Roman citizens with legal rights. Paul's legal standing as a Christian would set a precedent for all Christians in the empire.

1:29 To suffer for the sake of Christ is always presented as a privilege in the New Testament; a blessing that brings glory to God and results in eternal rewards (Matt. 5:1–12; 2 Cor. 4:17; 2 Tim. 2:12; 1 Pet. 4:16; Rev. 22:12).

STRIVING TOGETHER

Phil. 1:27 The Greek word sunathleō, translated "striving together" literally means to engage in competition. It suggests the need for exertion, sacrifice, and discipline. Paul used this athletic term as an exhortation to fight or struggle together, side by side (1:27; 4:3). It calls for teamwork rather than contending against one another. The gospel pulls believers together for a common purpose, for the cause of Christ is far greater than anything that would divide His followers.

2 [a]fulfill my joy [b]by being like-minded,

3 [a]Let nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but [b]in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself.
4 [a]Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of [b]others.

ENCOUNTER Note Phil. 2:5

A Humble View

Our major impediment in life is pride; it defies God's right to our lives. When we release our pride, give ourselves away, and humbly obey God, something miraculous happens: We see the humble Christ by our side. In His presence, we are carried into God's throne room and we see His activity to redeem a lost world. Then God uses us for His glory.

6 who, [a]being in the form of God, did not consider it [1]robbery to be equal with God, 7 [a]but [1]made Himself of no reputation, taking the form [b]of a bondservant, and [c]coming in the likeness of men.
8 And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and [a]became [b]obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross.
9 [a]Therefore God also [b]has highly exalted Him and [c]given Him the name which is above every name,
10 [a]that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and of those under the earth,
11 and [a]that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Light Bearers

12 Therefore, my beloved, [a]as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, [b]work out your own salvation with [c]fear and trembling;

Realizing Salvation

Experiencing God's great salvation is not an event, but a process of implementing all He has made available. Children of God can enjoy their inheritance and know abundant life in Christ, or they can live as spiritual paupers and neglect what is rightfully theirs. Faith must move from the head to the heart, acting upon what God says is true.

13 for [a]it is God who works in you both to will and to do [b]for His good pleasure.
14 Do all things [a]without [1]complaining and [b]disputing,[2]
15 that you may become blameless and [1]harmless, children of God without fault in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you shine as [a]lights in the world,
16 holding fast the word of life, so that [a]I may rejoice in the day of Christ that [b]I have not run in vain or labored in [c]vain.

17 [a]2 Tim. 4:6

2:6 Due to the poetic structure and language of this passage (vv. 6–11), scholars consider it a pre-Pauline hymn already in use by the early church. Whether Paul quotes it verbatim or adapts it for his purposes is debatable. "Robbery" is literally "a thing to be seized."

2:7 "Made Himself of no reputation" can be translated "emptied Himself."

2:8 Crucifixion was the most degrading form of execution among the Romans. The cross was reserved for slaves and foreigners convicted of serious crimes. Christ's obedience took Him from the throne room of heaven to the humiliation of the cross.

2:10 The Greeks worshipped gods in the heavens, earth, sea, and underworld. Paul proclaimed that any category of being known or imagined among the nations, as well as the living and the dead, must eventually acknowledge Christ as ruler of all.

2:12 "Work out" your salvation means to implement all God has made available to the believer. It is not a command to work "for" your salvation.

2:14 Grumbling and complaining was a common problem among God's people (Ex. 15:24; 16:2; 17:3; Num. 11:1; 16:41; 21:5; 1 Cor. 10:9, 10).

Timothy Commended

19 But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send [a]Timothy to you shortly, that I also may be encouraged when I know your [1]state.
20 For I have no one [a]like-minded, who will sincerely care for your state.
21 For all seek their own, not the things which are of Christ Jesus.
22 But you know his proven character, [a]that as a son with his father he served with me in the gospel.
23 Therefore I hope to send him at once, as soon as I see how it goes with me.
24 But I trust in the Lord that I myself shall also come shortly.

Epaphroditus Praised

25 Yet I considered it necessary to send to you [a]Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker, and [b]fellow soldier, [c]but your messenger and [d]the one who ministered to my need;
26 [a]since he was longing for you all, and was distressed because you had heard that he was sick.
27 For indeed he was sick almost unto death; but God had mercy on him, and not only on him but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.
28 Therefore I sent him the more eagerly, that when you see him again you may rejoice, and I may be less sorrowful.
29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness, and hold such men in esteem;
30 because for the work of Christ he came close to death, [1]not regarding his life, [a]to supply what was lacking in your service toward me.

All for Christ

ENCOUNTER*Note* Phil. 3:10

Knowing Him

Christianity is not based on knowing about Christ. It is experiencing Him in His power and in His suffering. A dry, academic, impersonal knowledge of God does not bring life. True knowledge of Christ is personal, powerful, and life-changing.

11 if, by any means, I may [a]attain[1] to the resurrection from the dead.

Pressing Toward the Goal

12 Not that I have already [a]attained,[1] or am already [b]perfected; but I press on, that I may lay hold of that for which Christ Jesus has also laid hold of me.
13 Brethren, I do not count myself to have [1]apprehended; but one thing I do,

2:22 Paul often shared words of praise, but he seems to place Timothy in a special category with a high commendation. Timothy's name means "one whom God honors."

2:25 Epaphroditus was a common name, but this and Philippians 4:18 are the only biblical mention of it.

3:1 This section (vv. 1–21) is a digression in Paul's main thought, which was uncommon in ancient letters.

3:2 "Dogs" is a derogatory term for fraudulent teachers. Dogs were scavengers, considered unclean by the Jews. Paul is probably referring to the false teachers he spoke against in his letter to the Galatians. These heretics had distorted the meaning of circumcision so it was nothing more than cutting the body.

3:5 "The eighth day" was the prescribed day for Jewish parents to circumcise their male children (Gen. 17:12; Lev. 12:2, 3). The tribe of Benjamin was significant to the Israelites, since it produced their first king (1 Sam. 10:20–24). A Pharisee was a highly educated Jewish leader and an expert in God's law. Paul studied under Gamaliel, a well respected Pharisee and teacher (Acts 22:3).

New Life

The world is preoccupied with and even controlled by the past, for it faces an uncertain future. Believers, however, have dealt with their past and are inspired by a future hope. The old life has gone and new life has come. Their past is forgiven and they are advancing forward in their eternal calling.

[a]forgetting those things which are behind and [b]reaching forward to those things which are ahead,
14 [a]I press toward the goal for the prize of [b]the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.
15 Therefore let us, as many as are [a]mature, [b]have this mind; and if in anything you think otherwise, [c]God will reveal even this to you.
16 Nevertheless, to the degree that we have already [1]attained, [a]let us walk [b]by the same [2]rule, let us be of the same mind.

Our Citizenship in Heaven

17 Brethren, [a]join in following my example, and note those who so walk, as [b]you have us for a pattern.
18 For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are [a]the enemies of the cross of Christ:
19 [a]whose end is destruction, [b]whose god is their belly, and [c]whose glory is in their shame—[d]who set their mind on earthly things.
20 For [a]our citizenship is in heaven, [b]from which we also [c]eagerly wait for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ,
21 [a]who will transform our lowly body that it may be [b]conformed to His glorious body, [c]according to the working by which He is able even to [d]subdue all things to Himself.

7 and [a]the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

ENCOUNTER Note — Phil. 4:6, 7

Be Not Anxious

Scripture commands us not to worry. Anxiety demonstrates a lack of faith. Christ promised to provide for all our needs; we must choose to believe Him and obey, no matter what the circumstances might be.

Meditate on These Things

8 Finally, brethren, whatever things are [a]true, whatever things are [b]noble, whatever things are [c]just, [d]whatever things are pure, whatever things are [e]lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy—meditate on these things.
9 The things which you learned and received and heard and saw in me, these do, and [a]the God of peace will be with you.

Philippian Generosity

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now at last [a]your[1] care for me has flourished again; though you surely did care, but you lacked opportunity.
11 Not that I speak in regard to need,

3:14 Paul often uses images of athletic competition in describing the Christian life (1 Cor. 9:24–27; 1 Tim. 6:12; 2 Tim. 4:7, 8). The term "goal" refers to a marker at the finish line to which runners fix their eyes.

3:19 Roman aristocrats took pleasure in gluttony. Being ruled by the "belly" is more than just overeating; it is overindulging in any physical desire.

3:21 Greek culture considered bodily resurrection to be vulgar. Paul understood the resurrection to include the body, but also to involve a new and sanctified nature.

4:2 Euodia and Syntyche are not mentioned elsewhere in the Bible. They had apparently been helpful to Paul in the past, but were currently involved in a disagreement. Paul's concern about their conflict is obvious, and it suggests that women played a significant role in the early church.

4:3 The "Book of Life" holds the record of all believers who will inhabit heaven (Dan. 12:1; Rev. 3:5; 21:27). "Clement" is not mentioned elsewhere in Scripture. He is possibly the author of First Clement, a late-first-century Christian letter (nonbiblical) sent from Rome to Corinth.

WORD*Study* MEDITATE

Phil. 4:8 The Greek word logizomai, translated "meditate," has various nuances. It can mean to account, consider, or let one's mind dwell on something. Paul's focus was not indifferent examination, but practical consideration that leads to action. We are not merely to reflect on a principle, but we are to live according to all the implications of God's great salvation. That takes energy, striving to know fully all of what God desires for our life. When we consider what God has promised His children and meditate on the truth revealed in His Word, the Holy Spirit works those truths into our lives.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Phil. 4:11

He Is Enough

The test of pure Christianity, the evidence of a personal relationship with Christ, is contentment in all circumstances. He is enough, for when you have Him, you have everything.

for I have learned in whatever state I am, [a]to be content:
12 [a]I know how to [1]be abased, and I know how to [2]abound. Everywhere and in all things I have learned both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.
13 I can do all things [a]through [1]Christ who strengthens me.
14 Nevertheless you have done well that [a]you shared in my distress.
15 Now you Philippians know also that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, [a]no church shared with me concerning giving and receiving but you only.
16 For even in Thessalonica you sent aid once and again for my necessities.
17 Not that I seek the gift, but I seek [a]the fruit that abounds to your account.
18 Indeed I [1]have all and abound. I am full, having received from [a]Epaphroditus the things sent from you, [b]a sweet-smelling aroma, [c]an acceptable sacrifice, well pleasing to God.
19 And my God [a]shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

HISTORICAL*Encounter* JONATHAN GOFORTH Phil. 4:19

In 1894 Jonathan and Rosalind Goforth, Presbyterian missionaries in China, opened a new mission station in Change, in the isolated region of North Hogan. They preached and taught for many hours every day. Finally, exhausted and swamped with mission work to do, Jonathan invited his wife to bow and pray with him on the basis of Philippians 4:19 that God would provide for their need of missionary assistance. The next day, Wang Fulin, a converted gambler and former opium addict, arrived at their door looking for work. He was dressed in rags. His body was hunched over and severe coughs frequently wracked his sickly frame. Yet the Goforths recognized him as God's provision for them. In the next five months, twenty-five thousand people visited their mission compound and heard the gospel. Fulin became a fervent gospel preacher and greatly assisted the Goforth's work.

4:18 "Sweet-smelling aroma" is an image from the Old Testament; the sacrifice of thanksgiving and praise (Lev. 7:12–15; Heb. 13:15, 16).

4:22 Paul's greeting from "Caesar's household" would encourage his audience that the gospel had been spread into some influential places (see comment on 1:13).

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS

INTRODUCTION

The Book of Colossians is a brief but fascinating letter written by the apostle Paul (1:1; 1:23; 4:18). It emphasizes Christ's centrality and His influence in the church. Paul wrote to this group of new believers during his first Roman imprisonment, around A.D. 60.

Colosse was strategically situated in the Lycus Valley in the region of Phrygia, one hundred miles east of Ephesus. Historically, it played a prominent role in the Persian wars of the fifth century B.C. Located on a trade route, it was highly commercialized. However, by the time Paul wrote, the city was in decline, having lost much of its influence. It was overshadowed in size and importance by its two sister cities, Laodicea and Hierapolis. There was, however, a lingering pagan religious fervor, and Paul often warned against the influence of ungodly beliefs and practices (1:12, 13, 21, 27; 2:13; 3:5–7). During Paul's three year ministry in Ephesus, one of his converts took the gospel to Colosse. Ephaphras became an influential church leader and apparently evangelized the neighboring cities of Laodicea and Hierapolis as well.

SIGNIFICANCE

The young churches in the region of Phrygia were growing, but suffering under attack from many directions. Paul wrote to encourage them and to help them firmly establish their faith. There are many similarities between Colossians and Ephesians. Both strongly focus on Christ and His relationship to the church. The emphasis in the two books, however, differs slightly. Whereas Ephesians speaks of the glory of the church in relation to Christ, Colossians highlights the glory of Christ and His impact on the church (1:13–18). Paul also takes the relationship believers have with Christ to a much deeper level (2:9, 10; 3:1–4), desiring that "every man" be complete in Him (1:28). Paul extends Christ's authority beyond the church to all creation, for all things were created through Him and for Him (1:16, 17). He seeks to apply Christ's work to every aspect of the Christian faith: salvation, creation, reconciliation, service, holy living, and relationships at home and at work.

For the most complete understanding of Christ's nature and His relationship to believers personally and to the church corporately, Ephesians and Colossians must be studied together. Paul had time in prison to lay a strong foundation for the centrality of Christ in all things, a theme which permeates both writings. The phrase "mystery of God" reflected language prominent in Paul's culture. The words "mystery" and "hidden" are always accompanied by "revealed" or "made known." God's ways cannot be known outside a relationship with Christ, but in Him all things are available to those who believe.

STRUCTURE

The book is laid out like most of Paul's letters. It was meant for at least two churches, Colosse and Laodicea (4:16) and has personal references to several individuals. Paul begins by introducing himself and Timothy, and addressing the believers in Colosse. He gives thanks for their faith in Christ. The next section is a beautiful and comprehensive picture of the preeminence of Christ and the knowledge of God. Establishing the role of Christ as Redeemer and Creator, Paul describes the good news of the gospel and the peace Christ secured for believers through His death on the cross. Then follows a short description of Paul's ministry. The Lamb of God transformed Paul's life, resulting in Paul's sacrificial ministry to the Lord, as expressed by his love for the church and his desire to make known the mystery of God. The next section is an expression of the preeminence of Christ in practical living. Paul presents the superiority of the gospel over false teachings based on human reasoning. He stresses the need to remain in Christ and to not be swayed by those who prize anything above Him. Christ's presence should impact every relationship in a believer's life. Paul ends with final greetings. Colossians can be outlined as follows:

Introduction (1:1–8)
Christ and the Knowledge of God
  Reconciliation (1:9–23)
  Paul's Ministry (1:24–29)
  Danger of Human Philosophy (2:1–10)
  Danger of Legalism (2:11–23)
Christ and Practical Living
  Transformed Activity (3:1–11)
  Transformed Character (3:12–17)
  Transformed Relationships (3:18—4:1)
  Grace (4:2–6)
Conclusion (4:7–18)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH COLOSSIANS

Many Christians count Colossians among their favorite books of the Bible. Paul goes right to the heart of faith and proclaims the complete centrality of Christ in a believer's life. The Holy Spirit will impart profound truths about Christ and His relationship to your life. Nothing else matters if your relationship with God is not as He intends. All you need is found in Christ. Ask the Holy Spirit to open your understanding to the mystery of God; Christ in you, the hope of glory. That one truth will transform you. Be prepared for "the hope of glory" to permeate your life.

Greeting

CHAPTER 1

PAUL, [a]an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

2 To the saints [a]and faithful brethren in Christ who are in Colosse:

[a]Grace to you and peace from God our Father [1]and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Their Faith in Christ

3 [a]We give thanks to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,
4 [a]since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of [b]your love for all the saints;
5 because of the hope [a]which is laid up for you in heaven, of which you heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel,
6 which has come to you, [a]as it has also in all the world, and [b]is bringing forth [1]fruit, as it is also among you since the day you heard and knew [c]the grace of God in truth;
7 as you also learned from [a]Epaphras, our dear fellow servant, who is [b]a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf,
8 who also declared to us your [a]love in the Spirit.

Preeminence of Christ

9 [a]For this reason we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to ask [b]that you may be filled with [c]the knowledge of His will [d]in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;
10 [a]that you may walk worthy of the Lord, [b]fully pleasing Him, [c]being fruitful in every good work and increasing in the [d]knowledge of God;
11 [a]strengthened with all might, according to His glorious power, [b]for all patience and longsuffering [c]with joy;
12 [a]giving thanks to the Father who has qualified us to be partakers of [b]the inheritance of the saints in the light.

In Christ

Eternity will reveal how desperate our soul is without Christ and how great is God's salvation in Christ. Sin brings death, darkness, abandonment, and spiritual homelessness. In Christ, God gives eternal life, spiritual enlightenment, pure love, and a heavenly home.

1:1 "Apostle" meant "one sent" and specifically designated those sent by Christ to guide the early church. One of the qualifications for apostleship was a personal, first-hand knowledge of Jesus. Paul's credentials were derived from his personal encounter with the resurrected Christ on the road to Damascus (Acts 9:1–19).

1:7 "Epaphras" was a common name, but this was most likely the same person mentioned in Philemon 23. He was probably the founder of the Colossian church and an evangelist to nearby Laodicea and Hierapolis (Col. 4:12, 13).

13 He has delivered us from [a]the power of darkness [b]and [1]conveyed us into the kingdom of the Son of His love, 14 [a]in whom we have redemption [1]through His blood, the forgiveness of sins.
15 He is [a]the image of the invisible God, [b]the firstborn over all creation.
16 For [a]by Him all things were created that are in heaven and that are on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or [b]dominions or [1]principalities or [2]powers. All things were created [c]through Him and for Him.
17 [a]And He is before all things, and in Him [b]all things consist.
18 And [a]He is the head of the body, the church, who is the beginning, [b]the firstborn from the dead, that in all things He may have the preeminence.

Reconciled in Christ

19 For it pleased the Father that [a]in Him all the fullness should dwell,
20 and [a]by Him to reconcile [b]all things to Himself, by Him, whether things on earth or things in heaven, [c]having made peace through the blood of His cross.
21 And you, [a]who once were alienated and enemies in your mind [b]by wicked works, yet now He has [c]reconciled
22 [a]in the body of His flesh through death, [b]to present you holy, and blameless, and above reproach in His sight—
23 if indeed you continue [a]in the faith, grounded and steadfast, and are [b]not moved away from the hope of the gospel which you heard, [c]which was preached to every creature under heaven, [d]of which I, Paul, became a minister.

Sacrificial Service for Christ

24 [a]I now rejoice in my sufferings [b]for you, and fill up in my flesh [c]what is lacking in the afflictions of Christ, for [d]the sake of His body, which is the church,
25 of which I became a minister according to [a]the [1]stewardship from God which was given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God,
26 [a]the [1]mystery which has been hidden from ages and from generations, [b]but now has been revealed to His saints.
27 [a]To them God willed to make known what are [b]the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles: [1]which is [c]Christ in you, [d]the hope of glory.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Col. 1:27

Christ in Us

The mystery of God which eludes those in darkness is this: Christ in us. Sanctification is not something Christ gives to us; it is Him dwelling in us. We do not imitate Him, He inhabits us. The mystery of God is astounding; He has given us the hope of glory. We bring hope to those who remain in darkness because Christ lives in us.

28 Him we preach, [a]warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, [b]that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus.
29 To this end I also labor, striving according to His working which works in me [a]mightily.

Not Philosophy but Christ

2 For I want you to know what a great [a]conflict[1] I have for you and those in Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh,
2 that their hearts may be encouraged, being knit together in love, and attaining to all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the knowledge of the mystery of God, [1]both of the Father and of Christ,
3 [a]in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.
4 Now this I say [a]lest anyone should deceive you with persuasive words.

1:14 "Redemption" means "buying back." The word is used for any situation where one is set free from a condition of powerlessness or hopeless debt. In the Old Testament, God redeemed Israel out of Egyptian slavery and led His people to the Promised Land. Paul is speaking of a transfer from one kingdom to another.

1:15 In Jewish thought, "firstborn" signified a position of authority and preeminence, not necessarily a birth order. Christ was not the firstborn in the sense that He was created first, for all things were "created by Him" and "He is before all things."

1:18 The "head of the body" imagery was used by secular writers to describe a god's relationship to the universe. Paul used the analogy uniquely for the church: Christ is the head and believers are the body. This truth dissolves the hierarchical distinctions between clergy and laity found in most religions, giving all believers equal access to Christ (Rom. 12:3–5; 1 Cor. 12:12–26).

1:20 "Reconciling" all things, including invisible things (1:16), does not necessarily imply salvation, but subordination to Christ's authority.

1:24 "Sufferings for you" fits the context of Paul's athletic imagery. When athletes suffered the grueling pain of competition, they did it for the cities they represented and not for themselves.

1:25 "Stewards" were managers of large household estates; therefore they had great responsibility.

1:27 It had been prophesied that the mysteries of God would be made known to the Gentiles (Is. 66:19). However, most Jews did not think He would dwell among the Gentiles.

1:28 Paul used the phrase "every man" three times in this verse, stressing that Gentiles participate in God's redemption and are made "perfect" or "complete" in Christ.

2:1 Laodicea was about eleven miles from Colosse. The two churches were to share Paul's letter (Col. 4:16).

2:3 "Hidden treasures" were the dream of disadvantaged multitudes, and this phrase would have caught their attention. The treasures of God were available to them.

WORDStudy
WORKING

Col. 1:29 The Greek word energeia, translated "working" also meant "energy" or "power." It described both physical and cosmic forces. In the New Testament, however, it primarily denoted the activity of either divine or evil powers. Paul used this word to identify the source of his strength for ministry. God's power to raise Jesus from the dead (2:12) empowered Paul for ministry. He labored and strove in the power of his Lord, accomplishing things he could never do in his own strength (Eph. 1:19; 3:7). The same power is available to all who are in Christ (Eph. 3:20; 1 Thess. 2:13).

5 For [a]though I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing [1]to see [b]your good order and the [c]steadfastness of your faith in Christ.
6 [a]As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him,
7 [a]rooted and built up in Him and established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding [1]in it with thanksgiving.
8 Beware lest anyone [1]cheat you through philosophy and empty deceit, according to [a]the tradition of men, according to the [b]basic principles of the world, and not according to Christ.
9 For [a]in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead [1]bodily;
10 and you are complete in Him, who is the [a]head of all [1]principality and power.

Not Legalism but Christ

11 In Him you were also [a]circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, by [b]putting off the body [1]of the sins of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ,
12 [a]buried with Him in baptism, in which you also were raised with Him through [b]faith in the working of God, [c]who raised Him from the dead.
13 And you, being dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He has made alive together with Him, having forgiven you all trespasses,
14 [a]having wiped out the [1]handwriting of requirements that was against us, which was contrary to us. And He has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the cross.
15 [a]Having disarmed [b]principalities and powers, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them in it.
16 So let no one [a]judge you in food or in drink, or regarding a [1]festival or a new moon or sabbaths,

God in Us

To have a relationship with Christ is to know God in His fullness. Christ was not given a divine nature; He is deity. To be complete in Christ is incomprehensible, beyond the scope of human intelligence. It is a mystery that only the Holy Spirit can translate into your life, but that is His assignment.

WORDStudy
COMPLETE

Col. 2:10 The Greek word plēroō, translated "complete," literally means to be made full, and can also be translated "bring to completion" or "fulfill." Paul says the "fullness" of the Godhead dwells bodily, using the same root word he used for believers being "complete" or "made full" in Christ. Since all of God is in Christ, believers who are in Christ have all they need for life and godliness; nothing is lacking. According to Peter, they become "partakers of the divine nature" (2 Pet. 1:4).

ENCOUNTERNote Col. 2:15
Victory in Christ

Christians should not be frightened or preoccupied by a defeated and disarmed foe. Satan is the father of lies and tries to lure us into a phantom battle that Christ has already won. Our calling is not to defeat Satan, but to trust in Christ's power and to expose falsehood by the truth of God's Word.

2:8 "Cheat" here literally means to rob, carry off as booty, or take into captivity. Deceptive philosophies based on human reasoning rob you of what is already yours in Christ.

2:14 "Handwriting of requirements" was a certificate of debt with penalties attached. Jewish people often referred to sin as debts before God.

2:15 The "public spectacle" was an image familiar to Roman citizens. A victorious general would march down a parade route with his defeated captives following behind, humiliated and stripped of their possessions for all to see.

2:16 Three practices characterized Jewish people no matter where they lived: circumcision, dietary laws, and special holy days. Some Judaizers were seeking to impose these observances on the Gentile converts.

17 [a]which are a shadow of things to come, but the [1]substance is of Christ.
18 Let no one cheat you of your reward, taking delight in false humility and worship of angels, intruding into those things which he has [1]not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind,
19 and not holding fast to [a]the Head, from whom all the body, nourished and knit together by joints and ligaments, [b]grows with the increase that is from God.
20 [1]Therefore, if you [a]died with Christ from the basic principles of the world, [b]why, as though living in the world, do you subject yourselves to regulations—
21 [a]"Do not touch, do not taste, do not handle,"
22 which all concern things which perish with the using—[a]according to the commandments and doctrines of men?
23 [a]These things indeed have an appearance of wisdom in self-imposed religion, false humility, and [1]neglect of the body, but are of no value against the indulgence of the flesh.

Not Carnality but Christ

3 If then you were [a]raised with Christ, seek those things which are above, [b]where Christ is, sitting at the right hand of God.
2 Set your mind on things above, not on things on the [a]earth.
3 [a]For you died, [b]and your life is hidden with Christ in God.

ENCOUNTER Note Col. 3:3

Obscured by His Glory

We are to be where Christ is, and therefore obscured by His glory. Christ will increase in our lives as we are hidden in Him, dead to self and alive to Christ. Never allow anything in your life to distract people from seeing Christ.

4 [a]When Christ who is [b]our life appears, then you also will appear with Him in [c]glory.
5 [a]Therefore put to death [b]your members which are on the earth: [c]fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, [d]which is idolatry.
6 [a]Because of these things the wrath of God is coming upon [b]the sons of disobedience,
7 [a]in which you yourselves once walked when you lived in them.
8 [a]But now you yourselves are to put off all these: anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy language out of your mouth.
9 Do not lie to one another, since you have put off the old man with his deeds,
10 and have put on the new man who [a]is renewed in knowledge [b]according to the image of Him who [c]created him,
11 where there is neither [a]Greek nor Jew, circumcised nor uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave nor free, [b]but Christ is all and in all.

Character of the New Man

12 Therefore, [a]as the elect of God, holy and beloved, [b]put on tender mercies, kindness, humility, meekness, longsuffering;
13 [a]bearing with one another, and forgiving one another, if anyone has a complaint against another; even as Christ forgave you, so you also must do.
14 [a]But above all these things [b]put on love, which is the [c]bond of perfection.
15 And let [a]the peace of God rule in your hearts, [b]to which also you were called [c]in one body; and [d]be thankful.
16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another [a]in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.
17 And [a]whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.

The Christian Home

2:23 Asceticism, or rigorous self denial, was a growing trend as a way to escape earthly evils and to attain spiritual power or revelatory experiences. Paul clarified that false humility and beating down the body was of no benefit in dealing with fleshly passions.

3:11 To the Greeks, "barbarians" included all non-Greeks, who were assumed to lack culture. Scythians were considered the most barbaric, cruel, and anti-Greek people. They lived primarily around the Black Sea. "Slave and free" designated social classes. Paul argued that in Christ there are no such divisions, for He rules all.

3:12 The terms "elect," "holy," and "beloved" were used in the Old Testament exclusively for the Jews. Paul applied them to all believers in Christ.

3:16 For "psalms and hymns and spiritual songs" see the note on Ephesians 5:19.

3:17 Many people in ancient times were religious ceremonially. Their religion did not significantly influence their lives. Paul argued that the lordship of Christ impacts every aspect of life.

3:18 Aristotle had developed a set of household codes of conduct. Minority groups that did not uphold them were accused of undermining traditional Roman family values. Paul used the categories but modified them.

3:19 Ancient instruction stressed the husband's right to rule over his wife; Paul stressed love.

20 [a]Children, obey your parents [b]in all things, for this is well pleasing to the Lord.
21 [a]Fathers, do not provoke your children, lest they become discouraged.
22 [a]Bondservants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh, not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers, but in sincerity of heart, fearing God.
23 [a]And whatever you do, do it heartily, as to the Lord and not to men, 24 [a]knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance; [b]for[1] you serve the Lord Christ.

Labor of Love

There is no place for mediocrity and laziness in God's service. If you are a child of the King, everything you do is for His glory. Your labor is an expression of love to God.

25 But he who does wrong will be repaid for what he has done, and [a]there is no partiality.
4 Masters,[a] give your bondservants what is just and fair, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.

Christian Graces

2 [a]Continue earnestly in prayer, being vigilant in it [b]with thanksgiving;
3 [a]meanwhile praying also for us, that God would [b]open to us a door for the word, to speak [c]the [1]mystery of Christ, [d]for which I am also in chains,
4 that I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.
5 [a]Walk in [b]wisdom toward those who are outside, [c]redeeming the time.

Say It Out Loud

God has given us a powerful tool to bless others—our tongue. Godly speech is the result of our unity with Him. Our relationships in this life are opportunities to bless others with God's kindness.

Final Greetings

7 [a]Tychicus, a beloved brother, faithful minister, and fellow servant in the Lord, will tell you all the news about me.
8 [a]I am sending him to you for this very purpose, that [1]he may know your circumstances and comfort your hearts,
9 with [a]Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will make known to you all things which are happening here.
10 [a]Aristarchus my fellow prisoner greets you, with [b]Mark the cousin of Barnabas (about whom you received instructions: if he comes to you, welcome him),
11 and Jesus who is called Justus. These are my only fellow workers for the kingdom of God who are of the circumcision; they have proved to be a comfort to me.
12 [a]Epaphras, who is one of you, a bondservant of Christ, greets you, always [b]laboring fervently for you in prayers, that you may stand [c]perfect and [1]complete in all the will of God.
13 For I bear him witness that he has a great [1]zeal for you, and those who are in Laodicea, and those in Hierapolis.
14 [a]Luke the beloved physician and [b]Demas greet you.
15 Greet the brethren who are in Laodicea, and [1]Nymphas and [a]the church that is in [2]his house.

Closing Exhortations and Blessing

3:21 Most fathers beat their children as a means of instruction. Paul advocated a gentler, more respectful approach to child rearing.

3:22 "Bondservants" were considered property of their masters. They had a reputation for being lazy, an understandable attitude since they did not share in the master's profit.

4:1 Paul clearly views all people as equal before God (Col. 3:11). His intent, however, is not to address the institution of slavery but to warn masters to treat their slaves justly, knowing they also have a Master who is over them.

4:5 "Outside" is a term Paul often used for those not belonging to the church.

4:7 Since communication was limited and letters were sent infrequently, closing remarks often included many greetings from mutual acquaintances (vv. 7–17).

4:9 The exact identity of Onesimus is unknown, but there is an Onesimus mentioned in Philemon 10.

4:10 Both Aristarchus (Acts 20:4) and Mark (Acts 13:13; 15:37–39; 2 Tim. 4:11) were colaborers with Paul on his journeys. Paul had a falling out with Mark (Acts 15:37–40), but they were later reunited and enjoyed a good relationship (2 Tim. 4:11).

4:11 "Jesus" was a common name, also translated "Joshua." "Justus" was a surname.

4:13 The three largest cities in this region of Phrygia were Colossae, Laodicea and Hierapolis.

4:14 Luke was trained as a physician; he wrote both Luke and Acts. Demas would later abandon Paul (2 Tim. 4:10).

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS

INTRODUCTION

The apostle Paul identified himself as the author of this letter (1:1; 2:18), and his authorship was acknowledged by the early church. The letter was probably written from Corinth around A.D. 51 and is one of the earliest of Paul's canonical letters, Galatians perhaps being the first in A.D. 48. First Thessalonians, therefore, was written only two decades after Jesus' death and resurrection.

Paul received the Macedonian call in a vision (Acts 16:9, 10), which led to his second missionary journey. After spending time in Philippi, the first significant city upon arriving in Macedonia (Acts 16:12), Paul traveled one hundred miles to the port city and capital, Thessalonica. This was a dynamic city on the Egnatian Way, which linked Rome to Byzantium in the east and was therefore significant for communication and commerce. It was the largest city in the province with about 200,000 inhabitants. The strategic location made Thessalonica a natural center from which the gospel could be spread.

On three consecutive Sabbaths, Paul preached in the synagogue to a great response from both Jews and God-fearing Gentiles. Some Jews, however, rejected Paul's message and provoked a mob to take him from the house of Jason. Not finding Paul there, they seized Jason and dragged him before the city rulers. They charged Jason with harboring a treasonous leader who promoted a king other than Caesar. They took a bond, or security, from Jason before releasing him. Paul and Silas left the city, but the persecution of the Christians persisted.

SIGNIFICANCE

Since Paul left Thessalonica abruptly, the new Christians remaining there needed much guidance, so Paul sent Timothy to help them. Timothy returned with a favorable report of their faithfulness as well as some questions to be addressed. First Thessalonians reveals how Paul discipled young believers, teaching them both doctrine and application. He touched on Christ's deity (3:11), the Holy Spirit's power (1:5, 6) the nature of Scripture (2:13), and sanctification (4:3; 5:23). He also gave practical words of instruction (5:12–22). But knowing the persecution they endured, Paul predominantly taught on their hope in the Second Coming of Christ and the Day of the Lord, comforting them and encouraging them to remain faithful (1:10; 2:19; 3:13; 4:13–17; 5:1–3; 5:23). The Second Coming was apparently a theme of Paul's preaching on his second missionary journey.

STRUCTURE

The letter begins with a traditional greeting to the Thessalonians, but quickly moves to an expression of thanksgiving for their response to the gospel and their encouraging reputation throughout Macedonia and Achaia. The main body of the letter can be divided into four sections. First, Paul gives a defense of his apostolic authority and ministry in Thessalonica. He argues for the integrity of his actions and deep love for the people. The second section is an exhortation for proper Christian conduct. Paul urges the people to refrain from the sexual immorality that saturated their culture and to abound in godly love for one another. Third, Paul comforts them with hope in Christ's return, which will be sudden and unexpected, bringing destruction to the unbeliever and great reward for believers. Fourth, Paul addresses various concerns of church life. He concludes with a prayer of blessing and final instructions. First Thessalonians can be outlined as follows:

Introduction (1:1)
Thanksgiving (1:2–10)
Paul's Apostolic Authority
Integrity in Ministry (2:1–12)
Encouraging Spiritual Growth (2:13—3:13)
Proper Christian Conduct
Sexual Purity (4:1–8)
Brotherly Love (4:9–12)
Hope in Christ
Return of Christ (4:13–18)
Day of the Lord (5:1–11)
Church Life (5:12–22)
Conclusion (5:23–28)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH 1 THESSALONIANS

Since this is a letter written to new believers, it contains the basic truths of the faith. Watch for doctrinal statements and instruction on how to live according to the truth revealed. As you experience personal struggles, find courage in the hope of Christ's Second Coming and the eternal joy that awaits you. Remember you are not on this journey alone. The Lord wants you to encourage others and to abound in love with other Christians. Ask the Holy Spirit to sanctify your life and fill you with God's presence.

Greeting

CHAPTER 1

PAUL, [a]Silvanus, and Timothy,

To the church of the [a]Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Grace to you and peace [1]from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Their Good Example

2 [a]We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers,
3 remembering without ceasing [a]your work of faith, [b]labor of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ in the sight of our God and Father,
4 knowing, beloved brethren, [a]your election by God.
5 For [a]our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power, [b]and in the Holy Spirit [c]and in much assurance, as you know what kind of men we were among you for your sake.
6 And [a]you became followers of us and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, [b]with joy of the Holy Spirit,
7 so that you became examples to all in Macedonia and Achaia who believe.
8 For from you the word of the Lord [a]has sounded forth, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also [b]in every place. Your faith toward God has gone out, so that we do not need to say anything.
9 For they themselves declare concerning us [a]what manner of entry we had to you, [b]and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God,
10 and [a]to wait for His Son from heaven, whom He raised from the dead, even Jesus who delivers us [b]from the wrath to come.

Paul's Conduct

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Thess. 1:5

An Encounter with God

Unless the Holy Spirit communicates God's message to us, we are merely hearing or reading words. Words do not transform lives, but God's Word, illuminated by the Holy Spirit, is the power for salvation. The Word of God, therefore, does not lead us to God; it is in itself our encounter with the living Lord.

1:1 Paul uses a customary structure for an ancient letter, stating the author, intended recipient, and greeting. "Silvanus" is the Roman form of the name Silas. He became Paul's traveling companion on the second missionary journey after Barnabas left (Acts 15:36–40). Timothy, whom Paul loved as his own son, also traveled with them on this journey (Acts 16:3; 1 Tim. 1:2). All three helped plant the church in Thessalonica (Acts 17:1–14).

1:4 The concept of election, or of being chosen, was applied by the Jews to themselves alone as God's holy people. Paul uses it here in reference to a church comprised of Jews and Gentiles.

1:8 Since Thessalonica was a well-traveled port city located on the Egnatian Way, news of the Thessalonian believers' faith was easily spread throughout Greece and Macedonia.

1:10 Paul frequently refers to the return of Christ in his two letters to the Thessalonians (1 Thess. 1:10; 2:19; 3:13; 4:13—5:4; 2 Thess 1:7–10; 2:1–12).

2:2 In Philippi, Paul was beaten and bound in stocks (Acts 16:22–24).

WORD*Study* DELIVER

1 Thess. 1:10 The Greek word rhuomai is translated "to deliver," can mean to save or rescue. It was used in the Septuagint (the Greek translation of the Old Testament), to translate a Hebrew Old Testament word meaning to release, buy back, or set free. In the New Testament the term describes how people are set free from sin's bondage (Matt. 6:13; Col. 1:13). It also has an eschatological meaning: Jesus rescues the sinner from God's wrath on the Day of Judgment (2 Cor. 1:10; 2 Pet. 2:9). The implication is that sinners need to be rescued, for we already stand condemned and cannot save ourselves. Unless God intervenes on our behalf, we are left in a hopeless state under God's judgment because of our sin.

our God to speak to you the gospel of God in much conflict.
3 [a]For our exhortation did not come from error or uncleanness, nor was it in deceit.
4 But as [a]we have been approved by God [b]to be entrusted with the gospel, even so we speak, [c]not as pleasing men, but God [d]who tests our hearts.
5 For [a]neither at any time did we use flattering words, as you know, nor a [1]cloak for covetousness—[b]God is witness.
6 [a]Nor did we seek glory from men, either from you or from others, when [b]we might have [c]made demands [d]as apostles of Christ.
7 But [a]we were gentle among you, just as a nursing mother cherishes her own children.
8 So, affectionately longing for you, we were well pleased [a]to impart to you not only the gospel of God, but also [b]our own lives, because you had become dear to us.
9 For you remember, brethren, our [a]labor and toil; for laboring night and day, [b]that we might not be a burden to any of you, we preached to you the gospel of God.
10 [a]You are witnesses, and God also, [b]how devoutly and justly and blamelessly we behaved ourselves among you who believe;
11 as you know how we exhorted, and comforted, and [1]charged every one of you, as a father does his own children,
12 [a]that you would walk worthy of God [b]who calls you into His own kingdom and glory.

Their Conversion

13 For this reason we also thank God [a]without ceasing, because when you [b]received the word of God which you heard from us, you welcomed it [c]not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which also effectively [d]works in you who believe.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Thess. 2:8

Incarnate Love

True love involves much more than giving good things to those we love. Jesus did not simply give us salvation; He gave us Himself. The gospel is not a prescription doled out to those in need but a gift of love from God. We also must give ourselves away for the sake of the gospel that the world might know God's love.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Thess. 2:13

Shaped by God

The Word of God is powerful and effective to transform lives, if it is received. Allow God's Word to permeate your life. To resist it is to refuse God Himself. Accept it and place your life under God's mighty hand to be shaped according to His divine will.

14 For you, brethren, became imitators [a]of the churches of God which are in Judea in Christ Jesus. For [b]you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen, just as they did from the Judeans,
15 [a]who killed both the Lord Jesus and [b]their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they do not please God [c]and are [1]contrary to all men,

2:3 The word translated "deceit" is the same word used for a fishing lure, suggesting pretense and trickery. The ancient Mediterranean region teemed with religious and philosophical charlatans, so Paul had to distinguish himself from them as God's genuine messenger.

2:9 Even though Paul merited financial support (1 Cor. 9:3–14; 2 Cor. 11:7–11), he chose to work as a tentmaker so as not to burden the Thessalonians. Greeks despised manual labor as a task suitable only for slaves, but Paul willingly humbled himself for the sake of the gospel.

2:16 "To fill up the measure of their sins" is an Old Testament concept (Gen. 15:16) that was also cited by Jesus (Matt. 23:32). It suggests that God will only allow sin to go so far before certain judgment comes.

tiles that they may be saved, so as always [b]to fill up the measure of their sins; [c]but wrath has come upon them to the uttermost.

Longing to See Them

17 But we, brethren, having been taken away from you for a short time [a]in presence, not in heart, endeavored more eagerly to see your face with great desire.
18 Therefore we wanted to come to you—even I, Paul, time and again—but [a]Satan hindered us.
19 For [a]what is our hope, or joy, or [b]crown of rejoicing? Is it not even you in the [c]presence of our Lord Jesus Christ [d]at His coming?
20 For you are our glory and joy.

Concern for Their Faith

3 Therefore, when we could no longer endure it, we thought it good to be left in Athens alone,
2 and sent [a]Timothy, our brother and minister of God, and our fellow laborer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you and encourage you concerning your faith,
3 [a]that no one should be shaken by these afflictions; for you yourselves know that [b]we are appointed to this.
4 [a]For, in fact, we told you before when we were with you that we would suffer tribulation, just as it happened, and you know.
5 For this reason, when I could no longer endure it, I sent to know your faith, [a]lest by some means the tempter had tempted you, and [b]our labor might be in vain.

Encouraged by Timothy

6 [a]But now that Timothy has come to us from you, and brought us good news of your faith and love, and that you always have good remembrance of us, greatly desiring to see us, [b]as we also to see you—
7 therefore, brethren, in all our affliction and distress [a]we were comforted concerning you by your faith.
8 For now we live, if you [a]stand fast in the Lord.
9 For what thanks can we render to God for you, for all the joy with which we rejoice for your sake before our God,
10 night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face [a]and perfect what is lacking in your faith?

Prayer for the Church

11 Now may our God and Father Himself, and our Lord Jesus Christ, [a]direct our way to you.
12 And may the Lord make you increase and [a]abound in love to one another and to all, just as we do to you,
13 so that He may establish [a]your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all His saints.

ENCOUNTER Note — 1 Thess. 3:12, 13

Love Abounding

There is no greater evidence of God's work in a believer's life than for that person to love the body of Christ. To care for God's children is to touch God's heart. Growing love for God always produces increased love for His people.

Plea for Purity

4 Finally then, brethren, we urge and exhort in the Lord Jesus [a]that you should abound more and more, [b]just as you received from us how you ought to walk and to please God;
2 for you know what commandments we gave you through the Lord Jesus.
3 For this is [a]the will of God, [b]your sanctification: [c]that you should abstain from sexual immorality;
4 [a]that each of you should know how to possess his own vessel in sanctification and honor,

ENCOUNTER Note — 1 Thess. 4:3

Life and Death

The process of sanctification is a life-and-death situation. To experience the life of Christ in our lives, we must crucify our sinful, selfish desires and attitudes. His active presence in us makes us holy.

2:17 The phrase "having been taken away" conveys the image of being separated; it literally meant to be orphaned. Earlier Paul wrote of being like a mother (2:7) and a father (2:11).

2:19 This crown was not a royal crown but a victor's wreath given as a prize at athletic games in Greece.

3:1 After leaving Thessalonica, Paul and Silas went to Berea, the nearest city to the west. They had a brief but fruitful ministry there until some Jews from Thessalonica came to stir up trouble. Paul then traveled to Athens (Acts 17:10–15).

3:2 Since Timothy was still young, Paul gave this endorsement to strengthen his authority among the people.

4:3 Greek and Roman culture allowed for rampant sexual promiscuity. People would engage in intercourse with prostitutes or slaves without expecting any religious condemnation. Paul urged Christians to abstain from any sexual misconduct.

4:4 "Vessel" was a common metaphor for one's body.

5 [a]not in passion of lust, [b]like the Gentiles [c]who do not know God;
6 that no one should take advantage of and defraud his brother in this matter, because the Lord [a]is the avenger of all such, as we also forewarned you and testified.
7 For God did not call us to uncleanness, [a]but in holiness.
8 [a]Therefore he who rejects this does not reject man, but God, [b]who[1] has also given us His Holy Spirit.

A Brotherly and Orderly Life

9 But concerning brotherly love you have no need that I should write to you, for [a]you yourselves are taught by God [b]to love one another;
10 and indeed you do so toward all the brethren who are in all Macedonia. But we urge you, brethren, [a]that you increase more and more;
11 that you also aspire to lead a quiet life, [a]to mind your own business, and [b]to work with your own hands, as we commanded you,
12 [a]that you may walk properly toward those who are outside, and that you may lack nothing.

The Comfort of Christ's Coming

13 But I do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning those who have [1]fallen asleep, lest you sorrow [a]as others [b]who have no hope.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Thess. 4:13

Prepared for Eternity

That which has been your joy in life will be your reward in eternity. If you found pleasure in God, you will dwell with Him eternally. If you chose sin, you will live perpetually in darkness. Your passion on earth determines your experience in eternity. The hope of God's people is sure to come.

14 For [a]if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him [b]those who [1]sleep in Jesus.
15 For this we say to you [a]by the word of the Lord, that [b]we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will by no means precede those who are [1]asleep.
16 For [a]the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with [b]the trumpet of God. [c]And the dead in Christ will rise first.
17 [a]Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them [b]in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus [c]we shall always be with the Lord.
18 [a]Therefore comfort one another with these words.

The Day of the Lord

5 But concerning [a]the times and the seasons, brethren, you have no need that I should write to you.
2 For you yourselves know perfectly that [a]the day of the Lord so comes as a thief in the night.
3 For when they say, "Peace and safety!" then [a]sudden destruction comes upon them, [b]as labor pains upon a pregnant woman. And they shall not escape.
4 [a]But you, brethren, are not in darkness, so that this Day should overtake you as a thief.
5 You are all [a]sons of light and sons of the day. We are not of the night nor of darkness.

WORD*Study* HOPE

1 Thess. 4:13 The Greek word elpis, translated "hope," finds it strength in its object. For the Greeks, hope was a projection into the future, a comfort in distress. New Testament hope, however, is not unfounded optimism but confident assurance that God will keep His every promise. It is a future event established on past action. Hope in eternal salvation is based upon the historical event of the cross and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Hope in God, therefore, embraces expectation, trust, and patience (Rom. 15:13; 1 Cor. 9:10; Heb. 11:1).

4:5 Paul opposed the "passion of lust" that led to such things as greed and sexual immorality. Unlike many religions of that day, Christianity promoted self control in all things.

4:7 For a Christian not to seek holiness is to reject God's work through the Holy Spirit.

4:9 The exhortation to abound in love was reflective of Jesus' clear teaching on the subject (John 13:34, 35; 15:12, 17).

4:13 "Fallen asleep" was a common euphemism for death.

4:16 The images of clouds, trumpet, and archangel reflect Jesus' teaching about the end times (Matt. 24:30, 31). The archangel is perhaps a reference to Michael, the leader of God's army (Dan. 10:13, 21; Jude 9; Rev. 12:7–9).

5:3 "Destruction" for people is not annihilation but everlasting exclusion from God's presence (2 Thess. 1:9). The work of our hands, however, will come to nothing. Labor pains were a well known symbol of intense and unavoidable agony (Ps. 48:6; Is. 21:3; Jer. 4:31; Hos. 13:13). Paul also echoed Jesus' warnings regarding the sudden and unexpected judgment of the wicked (Matt. 24:36–44).

6 [a]Therefore let us not sleep, as others do, but [b]let us watch and be [1]sober.
7 For [a]those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk [b]are drunk at night.
8 But let us who are of the day be sober, [a]putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and as a helmet the hope of salvation.
9 For [a]God did not appoint us to wrath, [b]but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ,
10 [a]who died for us, that whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with Him.
11 Therefore [1]comfort each other and [2]edify one another, just as you also are doing.

Various Exhortations

12 And we urge you, brethren, [a]to recognize those who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord and [1]admonish you,
13 and to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. [a]Be at peace among yourselves.
14 Now we [1]exhort you, brethren, [a]warn those who are [2]unruly, [b]comfort the fainthearted, [c]uphold the weak, [d]be patient with all.
15 [a]See that no one renders evil for evil to anyone, but always [b]pursue what is good both for yourselves and for all.
16 [a]Rejoice always,
17 [a]pray without ceasing,
18 in everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.
19 [a]Do not quench the Spirit.
20 [a]Do not despise prophecies.
21 [a]Test all things; [b]hold fast what is good.
22 Abstain from every form of evil.

Blessing and Admonition

23 Now may [a]the God of peace Himself [b]sanctify[1] you completely; and may your whole spirit, soul, and body [c]be preserved blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
24 He who calls you is [a]faithful, who also will [b]do it.
25 Brethren, pray for us.
26 Greet all the brethren with a holy kiss.
27 I charge you by the Lord that this [1]epistle be read to all the [2]holy brethren.
28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

Gentle Truth

If God calls you to speak truth to another believer, He expects you to help the person appropriate that truth. Work gently and patiently with God's people. Love does not condemn or harshly criticize; love invests in people.

HISTORICAL*Encounter*

CORRIE TEN BOOM

1 Thess. 5:18

During World War II the German Gestapo arrested Corrie Ten Boom and her sister Betsie for helping Jews escape capture and death at the hands of the Nazis. The two women were eventually interred in the infamous concentration camp at Ravensbruck. They were herded into barracks designed for four hundred people that now contained 1,400. As Corrie and Betsie sought to survive their deplorable conditions, they were led to 1 Thessalonians 5:18. They began to thank God for all He had done for them, even in the midst of the death camp. But when Betsie thanked God for the fleas that infested the bedding, Corrie objected. Yet as they began leading Bible studies in their barracks, bringing hope to the prisoners by reading passages of scripture, they made an ironic discovery. The prison guards were not searching their quarters for contraband because they were reluctant to come in contact with the fleas. Therefore, their Bible was not discovered and confiscated. Betsie had been right to thank God for the fleas!

5:8 Paul often used the image of armor for Christians in a spiritual battle (Rom. 13:12; 2 Cor. 6:7; 10:4; Eph. 6:13–17).

5:19 To "quench the Spirit" invokes an image of dousing fire with water. It means to hinder or stifle the Spirit's work.

5:27 Many people in the church would have been illiterate, so Paul instructed that the letter be read aloud so all could understand.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS

INTRODUCTION

Paul is identified as the author of 2 Thessalonians (1:1; 3:17), although his authorship of this epistle has been questioned more than the first Thessalonian letter. Early church writers such as Polycarp, Ignatius, Justin, and Irenaeus firmly believed Paul wrote it, but certain factors raised questions. Some words are unique from Paul's other writing; the style seems more formal than would be expected; and the teaching on the "man of lawlessness" is not found elsewhere. Still, most scholars ascribe this letter to Paul, attributing the variances to the different issues being addressed. For example, regarding eschatology, 1 Thessalonians focused on the sudden and unexpected return of Christ for those who were unprepared, while 2 Thessalonians spoke to the events leading up to the Second Coming to correct false teaching on its timing.

Paul wrote this letter shortly after 1 Thessalonians, perhaps six months later. It was therefore written from Corinth about A.D. 51–52 after Timothy and Silas returned from delivering the first letter. He had written the first letter to encourage the young church and to answer a few questions. This one was intended to correct some misunderstandings and to confront false teaching. For further information on Thessalonica and the history of the church, see the introduction to 1 Thessalonians.

SIGNIFICANCE

Paul's care for a young church is evident in this letter. He was encouraged by their faithfulness in the midst of persecution and their growing reputation in the Lord's work. The situation in Thessalonica had not changed significantly since his first letter, so Paul wrote to further encourage them in their trials, to exhort them to continue their good works, and to correct false teaching concerning Christ's Second Coming. The majority of the letter was spent correcting the belief that "the day of Christ" had already come (2 Thess. 2:2). This gives us specific teaching on the events leading up to "the day" and is reflective of Christ's teaching on the subject (Matt. 24:3–31). Another issue was idleness. Paul was disturbed that some believers, waiting for Christ's imminent return, were not working and had become "busybodies" (2 Thess. 3:11), causing dissension. Paul taught in both word and example that Christians should never grow weary in working hard and in doing good.

STRUCTURE

This is a short letter with a simple structure. After a greeting, Paul offers thanksgiving for the Thessalonians' faithfulness and assures them of God's justice upon both the wicked and the godly. Then Paul gives instruction to them, correcting false teaching about the day of the Lord and encouraging faithfulness through prayer. There follows an exhortation to continue in faithfulness. Paul asks for prayer and warns against idleness, and closes with a benediction. Second Thessalonians can be outlined as follows:

Introduction (1:1, 2)
Thanksgiving and Encouragement (1:3–12)
The Day of the Lord (2:1–17)
Exhortation to Faithfulness (3:1–15)
Conclusion (3:16–18)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH 2 THESSALONIANS

This book was meant to encourage those who are loyal to God, so expect the Holy Spirit to build your faith as you read. The letter warns the unfaithful, challenging them to draw close to the Lord in light of His certain return. No matter what persecution may come, remain faithful to the end and receive your just reward.

Greeting

PAUL, Silvanus, and Timothy,

To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 [a]Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

God's Final Judgment and Glory

3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is fitting, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of every one of you all abounds toward each other,
4 so that [a]we ourselves boast of you among the churches of God [b]for your patience and faith [c]in all your persecutions and [1]tribulations that you endure,
5 which is [a]manifest[1] evidence of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, [b]for which you also suffer;
6 [a]since it is a righteous thing with God to repay with [1]tribulation those who trouble you,
7 and to give you who are troubled [a]rest with us when [b]the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with His mighty angels,
8 in flaming fire taking vengeance on those who do not know God, and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Thess. 1:6–8

Righteous in All Things

Being absolutely righteous, God is by nature adamantly opposed to all evil. He will always confront ungodliness in our lives with the intent to make us holy.

9 [a]These shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord and [b]from the glory of His power,
10 when He comes, in that Day, [a]to be [b]glorified in His saints and to be admired among all those who [1]believe, because our testimony among you was believed.
11 Therefore we also pray always for you that our God would [a]count you worthy of this calling, and fulfill all the good pleasure of His goodness and [b]the work of faith with power, 12 [a]that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and you in Him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

WORD*Study* CALLING

2 Thess. 1:11 The Greek word klēsis, translated "calling," has great significance for Christians. Outside of the New Testament, calling usually signifies vocation, position, or station in life. But it also has the connotation of invitation. God's calling is much more than a secular vocation; it is a divine opportunity to participate in God's will (1 Cor. 1:26; Eph. 1:18; 4:1; Phil. 3:14; 2 Pet. 1:10). We should consider our call as the highest privilege life offers; it means we are significant to God. The calling is always initiated by God and revealed to us through the Holy Spirit.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Thess. 1:11, 12

Called by God

If you are a Christian, your salvation is solely an act of God. By His mercy and grace He called you out of darkness and into an eternal love relationship that is completely undeserved. Live the new life with thankfulness and bring Him honor in all you do.

The Great Apostasy

2 Now, brethren, [a]concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ [b]and our gathering together to Him, we ask you,
2 [a]not to be soon shaken in mind or troubled, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as if from us, as though the day of [1]Christ had come.

1:1 Paul is identified as the author of 2 Thessalonians along with Silvanus and Timothy. "Silvanus" is the Roman form of the name "Silas." Beginning with the second missionary journey, Silas was a traveling companion of Paul (Acts 15:40). Timothy had been sent to Thessalonica to encourage the believers and report back to Paul.

1:4 "Persecution" reveals the authenticity of faith and fosters growth into maturity (Thessalonian persecution is recorded in Acts 17:5–9; 1 Thess. 2:14.)

1:7 God's justice will bring the wicked to retribution and the righteous to rest. Notice that Paul is not merely a theologian espousing a doctrine, but a practitioner who also finds rest from his trials.

1:8 The wicked being destroyed by fire is a common Old Testament image (Num. 11:1; Ps. 97:3; Is. 26:11; 66:15, 16; Jer. 4:4; Ezek. 21:31; Nah. 1:6; Zeph. 1:18; 3:8).

2:1 After Paul wrote 1 Thessalonians, questions and debate arose about Christ's Second Coming. Because of false teachers who claimed the day of Christ had already come, the Thessalonians were in danger of losing the hope of His Second Coming.

3 Let no one deceive you by any means; for that Day will not come [a]unless the falling away comes first, and [b]the man of [1]sin is revealed, [c]the son of perdition,
4 who opposes and [a]exalts himself [b]above all that is called God or that is worshiped, so that he sits [1]as God in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.
5 Do you not remember that when I was still with you I told you these things?
6 And now you know what is restraining, that he may be revealed in his own time.
7 For [a]the [1]mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only [2]He who now restrains will do so until He is taken out of the way.
8 And then the lawless one will be revealed, [a]whom the Lord will consume [b]with the breath of His mouth and destroy [c]with the brightness of His coming.
9 The coming of the lawless one is [a]according to the working of Satan, with all power, [b]signs, and lying wonders,
10 and with all unrighteous deception among [a]those who perish, because they did not receive [b]the love of the truth, that they might be saved.
11 And [a]for this reason God will send them strong delusion, [b]that they should believe the lie, 12 that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but [a]had pleasure in unrighteousness.

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Thess. 2:11, 12

Receiving Grace

God's grace is demonstrated both in the event of the gospel and in our ability to believe the gospel. When He presents the opportunity to receive salvation, accept it while you can. He often gives second chances, but not always.

Stand Fast

13 But we are [1]bound to give thanks to God always for you, brethren beloved by the Lord, because God [a]from the beginning [b]chose you for salvation [c]through [2]sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth,
14 to which He called you by our gospel, for [a]the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.
15 Therefore, brethren, [a]stand fast and hold [b]the traditions which you were taught, whether by word or our [1]epistle.
16 Now may our Lord Jesus Christ Himself, and our God and Father, [a]who has loved us and given us everlasting consolation and [b]good hope by grace, 17 comfort your hearts [a]and [1]establish you in every good word and work.

Pray for Us

3 Finally, brethren, [a]pray for us, that the word of the Lord may run swiftly and be glorified, just as it is with you,
2 and [a]that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men; [b]for not all have faith.
3 But [a]the Lord is faithful, who will establish you and [b]guard you from the evil one.
4 And [a]we have confidence in the Lord concerning you, both that you do and will do the things we command you.
5 Now may [a]the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God and into the patience of Christ.

Warning Against Idleness

6 But we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, [a]that you withdraw [b]from every brother who walks [c]disorderly and not according to the tradition which [1]he received from us.
7 For you yourselves know how you ought to follow us, for we were not disorderly among you;
8 nor did we eat anyone's bread [1]free of charge, but worked with [a]labor and toil

2:3 The "man of sin" or the "man of lawlessness" represents one who sets himself against God and His people. Ancient writings describe such men in early church history. The Dead Sea Scrolls talk of a "man of lies" who opposed God's people. The Roman general Pompey was also described in similar terms. The Roman emperor Gaius Caligula tried to place his image in the temple of Jerusalem almost a decade before this letter was written. Claudius was the emperor at the time of this letter. His successor was the notoriously evil Nero, who burned Christians alive to illuminate his garden at night. Two decades after this letter, the Roman general Titus destroyed Jerusalem and the temple, desecrating it by paying divine homage to the Emperor Vespasian on the site of the temple. Throughout history, leaders have opposed God and set themselves in a blasphemous place of honor.

2:9 Many deceptive signs were already present in Paul's day. Sorcerers, shrines to healing gods, and imperial worship led people astray. Jesus also warned against those who deceive through various wonders (Matt. 24:24).

2:11 One way God punished people in Old Testament times was to give them the very thing they wanted and blind them to the truth (Is. 29:9, 10).

2:15 "Traditions" in Judaism referred to the careful passing of instruction from earlier teachers. Paul faithfully conveyed Jesus' teaching to the Thessalonian Christians.

3:6 Citing "the name of Jesus" is to speak as His representative. "Disorderly" in this context seems to describe idle or unproductive people.

night and day, that we might not be a burden to any of you, 9 not because we do not have [a]authority, but to make ourselves an example of how you should follow us.
10 For even when we were with you, we commanded you this: If anyone will not work, neither shall he eat.
11 For we hear that there are some who walk among you in a disorderly manner, not working at all, but are [a]busybodies.
12 Now those who are such we command and [1]exhort through our Lord Jesus Christ [a]that they work in quietness and eat their own bread.
13 But as for you, brethren, [a]do not grow weary in doing good.
14 And if anyone does not obey our word in this [1]epistle, note that person and [a]do not keep company with him, that he may be ashamed.

A Life Well Spent

Life on earth is short and eternity is long. Serve the Lord with all your heart and make your life count. God has given you life, so live it well.

15 [a]Yet do not count him as an enemy, [b]but [1]admonish him as a brother.

Benediction

16 Now may [a]the Lord of peace Himself give you peace always in every way. The Lord be with you all.

3:17 Most letter writers used scribes but signed by their own hand for authenticity (Col. 4:18).

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY

INTRODUCTION

Having sent Timothy to a challenging ministry assignment, Paul wrote to encourage, instruct, and endorse him in the task. Paul identified himself as the author of this letter (1:1), a claim confirmed by many of the early church fathers. The authenticity of this letter and of 2 Timothy came under scrutiny in the early nineteenth century, but without convincing objections. Questions about writing style, mature church leadership, and theological statements that oppose gnostic teaching have all been raised. Paul, however, is known to have used scribes to write his letters, which could account for variant styles (Rom. 16:22). The church was almost ten years old and had likely developed an organized church structure out of necessity for its growing needs, as had the church in Jerusalem (Acts 6:1–7). While Gnosticism took shape in the second century, seeds of gnostic thought were already rampant during Paul's lifetime.

Paul wrote this letter to Timothy toward the end of his life and shortly after his first Roman imprisonment, described in Acts 28:30, 31. While Scripture does not indicate if Paul was released from his Roman imprisonment, tradition suggests he was set free for a time. It may be that during his brief release from prison, Paul completed his fourth missionary journey into Macedonia before he returned to Rome where he was eventually executed at the hands of Nero. He had sent Titus to be his representative in Crete to help establish leadership among the churches and left Timothy in charge of the church in Ephesus. First Timothy was, therefore, written from Macedonia around A.D. 62–64. Paul's letters to Timothy and Titus are called "the Pastoral Epistles."

SIGNIFICANCE

Although Paul wrote a personal letter to Timothy, it came in the form of an open letter endorsing a young minister and giving instruction to the church. This is an important writing, for the church is God's strategy to reach the world. It is His vehicle for encouraging and building up believers and for proclaiming truth to those who do not yet know God through Jesus Christ. Paul stated two major purposes for writing. First, he charged Timothy with the task of addressing the false doctrine that threatened the Ephesian church (1:3). We therefore have insight into various false teachings and the appropriate response. Second, Paul wrote "so that you may know how you ought to conduct yourself in the house of God" (3:15). He included instructions for the pastor as well as other church leaders. Paul's letter was initially a response to false doctrines that had arisen in a rapidly growing church. It was not written to be a formal church manual, but it has given wise guidance to churches throughout the ages.

STRUCTURE

This letter is relatively short and straightforward. Paul begins with a salutation, identifying himself and the letter's intended recipient. The rest of the letter can be studied in two sections. First, Paul describes the task given to Timothy in the church. This includes preventing the spread of false doctrine and the proclamation of the true gospel of Jesus Christ. Second, Paul explains how the task is to be carried out in the life of the church. This includes the priority of prayer and holy living, characteristics of leadership within the church, proper conduct of church members both within the church and before a watching world, and the proper use of God's resources. First Timothy can be outlined as follows:

Introduction (1:1, 2)
Timothy's Assignment
  Warning Against False Teachers (1:3–11)
  Grace to Serve the Lord (1:12–20)
Instruction on Church Life

Public Worship (2:1–15)
Church Leadership (3:1–16)
Confronting False Teachers (4:1–16)
Personal Responsibilities in the Church (5:17—6:19)
Concluding Remark (6:20, 21)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH 1 TIMOTHY

This is a highly practical letter, so you will find much application personally and corporately from reading Paul's words to Timothy. This letter is primarily known for its encouragement of a youthful leader by a seasoned veteran minister. It is not so much endorsing youth as it is upholding godly character. Ungodly character disqualifies young and old alike, but anyone who yields to God and who walks in the Spirit is of great use in the kingdom. Never assume the right to lead; it is a privilege that comes with integrity and the evidence of God's hand upon your life. As you study this book, take note of the qualities God is looking for in your life, observe the pitfalls that will disqualify you, and be faithful no matter what the circumstance. For those who have been called to lead God's people, there are many practical lessons to be learned. Just as God gave courage to young Timothy, so He will encourage your life.

Greeting

1 PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the commandment of God our Savior and the Lord Jesus Christ, our hope,

2 To Timothy, a [a]true son in the faith:

[b]Grace, mercy, and peace from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

No Other Doctrine

CHARACTER Study — TIMOTHY — 1 Tim. 1:1

Timothy is an example of a godly man who followed the Lord from the days of his youth. His name meant "honored of God," a reality he never took for granted. He was from the town of Lystra, born of a Greek father and a godly Jewish mother. His father probably died while Timothy was still young, but his mother Eunice and his grandmother Lois were Christians who taught him the Scriptures from his childhood (2 Tim. 1:5; 3:15), providing a great advantage to his ministry. He is primarily known as a young companion and colaborer of Paul, Paul's "true son in the faith" (1 Tim. 1:2). His mentor listed him as a coauthor of six letters (2 Corinthians, Philippians, Colossians, 1 & 2 Thessalonians, and Philemon). Paul also wrote two letters to him personally (1 & 2 Timothy), and singled him out for special recognition, noting that apart from Timothy he had "no one like-minded, who will sincerely care for your state" (Phil. 2:20). Paul circumcised Timothy to remove any barriers to his ministry among the Jews (Acts 16:3) and sent him on many significant assignments. Timothy encouraged the persecuted church in Philippi (1 Thess. 3:1–10), corrected false teaching in Corinth (1 Cor. 4:17; 16:10, 11), traveled to Macedonia (Acts 19:22), visited the church in Philippi (Phil. 2:19–24), and gave leadership to the church in Ephesus (1 Tim. 1:3). His role appears to be that of an apostolic representative to the churches. At the end of Paul's life, he summoned Timothy to come and be with him in Rome (2 Tim. 4:9, 21). Timothy was also imprisoned, but was subsequently released (Heb. 13:23).

A godly heritage is a gift from God, a strong foundation giving rise to future opportunities to serve God. Timothy's humble and teachable spirit was fertile soil for God's Word to grow rapidly and to produce fruit (2 Tim. 3:10, 11). Hence, he was given leadership positions early in life (4:12) and equipped by the Holy Spirit as an evangelist and church strengthener. Age is not the only key to effective ministry; character and integrity are powerful tools in God's hand.

1:2 Although this letter was addressed to Timothy, it was considered an open letter of reference which gave Timothy apostolic authorization to guide the church in Ephesus.

1:4 "Fables and endless genealogies" were probably extrabiblical elaborations of Old Testament histories that were common among the Jews (Titus 1:14; 3:9). Some have suggested this refers to the elaborate gnostic speculations.

No Regret

God has given us one life to live and then eternity to enjoy. Serve Him with a pure heart that suffers no regret. A walk of faith produces a priceless treasure: a clear conscience.

Grateful Service

Motivation for Christian service is not based on the needs of humanity, compassion for unbelievers, or obligatory action. Our primary motivation is the mercy and grace of God. Gratitude for what we have received is expressed by what we give to others.

WORD Study — MERCY

1 Tim. 1:13 The word eleeō, translated "obtained mercy," means to receive exemption from punishment that one deserves. Whereas grace is undeserved favor bestowed, mercy is deserved punishment withheld. This is an extremely significant word for all who have sinned against God. God's love has not given us what we rightly deserve, but instead it has freely offered salvation through Jesus Christ, who took our sin upon Himself (Titus 3:5; 1 Pet. 2:10). The apostle Paul deserved punishment as a blasphemer and persecutor of the church, but God showed him mercy.

16 However, for this reason I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might show all longsuffering, as a pattern to those who are going to believe on Him for everlasting life.
17 Now to [a]the King eternal, [b]immortal, [c]invisible, to [1]God [d]who alone is wise, [e]be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

HISTORICAL Encounter — JONATHAN EDWARDS — 1 Tim. 1:17

As a young man, Jonathan Edwards struggled to trust in a God who condemned people to eternal punishment. One day he was reading 1 Timothy 1:17. Suddenly God enlightened his understanding to the reality that people are to both glorify and enjoy almighty God. He observed: "There came into my soul . . . a sense of the glory of the divine being; a new sense, quite different from anything I had ever experienced before. . . . I thought with myself, how excellent a Being that was; and how happy I should be, if I might enjoy that God, and be wrapped up to God in heaven, and be as it were swallowed up in him." Edwards was converted from skeptic to believer, and would become one of the towering figures in American church history.

1:10 "Kidnappers" is a reference to slave traders who abducted children to be sold into slavery. "Perjurers" was a category of liars who violated a divine oath.

1:13 A "blasphemer" is someone with a hostile attitude toward God who expresses it in slanderous speech. While a Pharisee, Paul considered himself extremely zealous for God. Looking back, however, he realized he was actually fighting against God's purposes.

One Way

In His righteousness, God could not allow sinful humanity into a perfect heaven. But His love found a way: the way of the cross. Jesus, Son of God and Son of Man, was the only one who could pay the debt of sin on our behalf. There is no other way to holiness or to God's presence.

Qualifications of Overseers

3 This is a faithful saying: If a man desires the position of a [1]bishop, he desires a good work.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Tim. 3:1

Privilege of Service

The desire to serve is an outflow of a love relationship with God. He fosters a love for His people. God confirms His call upon leaders by transforming their lives as models of godliness.

2 A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, temperate, sober-minded, of good behavior, hospitable, able to teach;
3 not [1]given to wine, not violent, [2]not greedy for money, but gentle, not quarrelsome, not [3]covetous;
4 one who rules his own house well, having his children in submission with all reverence
5 (for if a man does not know how to rule his own house, how will he take care of the church of God?);

2:2 The Romans permitted conquered people to worship their own gods, but insisted they also pay homage to the goddess Roma and the spirit of the emperor. Because the Jews only worshipped one God, they were allowed to pray and sacrifice for the emperor's health without praying and sacrificing to him.

2:8 "Doubting" literally means "to think backward and forward" and involves the concept of quarrelling.

2:9 The inappropriate action of the women was an issue of excess and flirtation. A woman was allowed to adorn herself for her husband, but not in such a way as to attract the attention of other men and foster sexual temptation. Such behavior brought dishonor to God and to her husband.

2:11 For Paul to "let a woman learn" was encouraging for women but radical for the culture. Most females were not literate and even fewer women were trained in philosophy, rhetoric, or Jewish law. Given their lack of training and the threat of false teachers in Ephesus, it was prudent for Paul to instruct the women as he did and not allow false teachers to exploit them to spread their error (1 Tim. 5:13). With that in mind, he clearly compared the unlearned women with Eve who was deceived by the serpent (Gen. 3). His argument for authority, however, had to do with the priority of man in the order of creation. "Firstborn" signifies a position of authority and privilege in Jewish thought.

3:2 A bishop must be "blameless," or above reproach as one giving leadership to the church. As a persecuted minority, Christians needed to protect themselves against public slander. Polygamy was not practiced in the Roman world, but adultery was rampant. "Husband of one wife" means to be faithful to the marriage covenant and not be prone to wandering eyes. "Hospitable" was the custom of taking in travelers as house guests. Inns tended to act as brothels and Jews in foreign lands avoided such places.

WORDStudy — BISHOP

1 Tim. 3:2 The Greek word episkopos, translated "bishop," means an overseer, watcher, or protector. It is only used five times in the New Testament. Christ is called "the Shepherd and Overseer (episkopos) of your souls" (1 Pet. 2:25). Elsewhere, it is used of men who were leaders in established congregations (Acts 20:28; Phil. 1:1; 1 Tim. 3:2; Titus 1:7). It is different than the word presbuteros, which means "elder," but the terms seem to be used interchangeably in the New Testament. A bishop gave oversight to the spiritual needs and direction of a congregation. As church structures developed after the New Testament era, it was customary to appoint one elder as a presiding elder, with the title of bishop.

6 not a [1]novice, lest being puffed up with pride he fall into the same condemnation as the devil.
7 Moreover he must have a good testimony among those who are outside, lest he fall into reproach and the [a]snare of the devil.

Qualifications of Deacons

8 Likewise deacons must be reverent, not double-tongued, [a]not given to much wine, not greedy for money, 9 holding the [1]mystery of the faith with a pure conscience.
10 But let these also first be tested; then let them serve as deacons, being found blameless.
11 Likewise, their wives must be reverent, not [1]slanderers, temperate, faithful in all things.
12 Let deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.
13 For those who have served well as deacons [a]obtain for themselves a good standing and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

The Great Mystery

14 These things I write to you, though I hope to come to you shortly;
15 but if I am delayed, I write so that you may know how you ought to conduct yourself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and [1]ground of the truth.
16 And without controversy great is the [1]mystery of godliness:

[a]God[2] was manifested in the flesh,
[b]Justified in the Spirit,
[c]Seen by angels,
[d]Preached among the Gentiles,
[e]Believed on in the world,
[f]Received up in glory.

The Great Apostasy

4 Now the Spirit [1]expressly says that in latter times some will depart from the faith, giving heed [a]to deceiving spirits and doctrines of demons,
2 [a]speaking lies in hypocrisy, having their own conscience [b]seared with a hot iron,
3 forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth.
4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be refused if it is received with thanksgiving;
5 for it is [1]sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

A Good Servant of Jesus Christ

6 If you instruct the brethren in these things, you will be a good minister of Jesus Christ, [a]nourished in the words of faith and of the good doctrine which you have carefully followed.
7 But [a]reject profane and old wives' fables, and [b]exercise yourself toward godliness.
8 For [a]bodily exercise profits a little, but godliness is profitable for all things, [b]having promise of the life that now is and of that which is to come.
9 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance.
10 For to this end [1]we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, [a]who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe.
11 These things command and teach.

3:6 A prerequisite for leaders is testing. A church leader ought not to be a novice. The church in Ephesus was ten years old and had members who had proven their faithfulness. The exclusion of novices is not mentioned in Titus, where the church in Crete was still young.

3:8 The word "deacon" is used in several ways in the New Testament, but its basic meaning is "servant."

4:1 "Doctrine of demons" is a reference to occult practices.

4:2 A "hot iron" was a branding instrument used on livestock to designate ownership.

4:3 "Asceticism" was on the rise in pagan societies, advocating celibacy and other forms of abstinence as a way to gain approval from the gods.

4:8 The gymnasium was the center of most towns constructed on the Greek pattern, and the image of bodily exercise was familiar.

4:12 Those not yet old enough were considered inappropriate for significant leadership; many offices within Judaism required an age of at least forty. Timothy, in his youth, was given a rare privilege of leadership.

in conduct, in love, [2]in spirit, in faith, in purity.

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Tim. 4:12

Godly Leaders

When God chooses a spiritual leader, character, not age, is the determining factor. His people desperately look for spiritual leaders, but they require evidence of a relationship with God before they will follow. Service for God is not a right, but a privilege given to those who walk with God and who reflect His character.

13 Till I come, give attention to reading, to exhortation, to [1]doctrine.
14 [a]Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy [b]with the laying on of the hands of the eldership.
15 Meditate on these things; give yourself entirely to them, that your progress may be evident to all.
16 Take heed to yourself and to the doctrine. Continue in them, for in doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Tim. 4:16

Compound Blessings

The blessing of individual obedience has an exponential impact on surrounding people.

Treatment of Church Members

5 Do not rebuke an older man, but exhort him as a father, younger men as brothers,
2 older women as mothers, younger women as sisters, with all purity.

Honor True Widows

3 Honor widows who are really widows.
4 But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them first learn to show piety at home and [a]to repay their parents; for this is [1]good and acceptable before God.
5 Now she who is really a widow, and left alone, trusts in God and continues in supplications and prayers [a]night and day.
6 But she who lives in [1]pleasure is dead while she lives.
7 And these things command, that they may be blameless.
8 But if anyone does not provide for his own, [a]and especially for those of his household, [b]he has denied the faith [c]and is worse than an unbeliever.
9 Do not let a widow under sixty years old be taken into the number, and not unless she has been the wife of one man,
10 well reported for good works: if she has brought up children, if she has lodged strangers, if she has washed the saints' feet, if she has relieved the afflicted, if she has diligently followed every good work.
11 But [1]refuse the younger widows; for when they have begun to grow wanton against Christ, they desire to marry, 12 having condemnation because they have cast off their first [1]faith.
13 And besides they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house, and not only idle but also gossips and busybodies, saying things which they ought not.
14 Therefore I desire that the younger widows marry, bear children, manage the house, give no opportunity to the adversary to speak reproachfully.
15 For some have already turned aside after Satan.
16 If any believing [1]man or woman has widows, let them [2]relieve them, and do not let the church be burdened, that it may relieve those who are really widows.

Honor the Elders

17 Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the word and doctrine.
18 For the Scripture says, [a]"You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain," and, [b]"The laborer is worthy of his wages."
19 Do not receive an accusation against an elder except [a]from two or three witnesses.

5:3 "Honor" here also includes financial support.

5:9 Sixty was considered old age in New Testament times. "Taken into the number" refers to an official registration.

5:13 The popular perception of uneducated women in this culture was that they were given to idle talk or gossip. Both Jewish and Greco-Roman texts condemn "babbling women."

5:17 "Honor" includes financial payment. "Double honor" was sometimes given to worthy soldiers who went above and beyond the call of duty. That was probably the analogy here.

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Tim. 5:17

Honor God's Gifts

Humble servants who faithfully handle the Word of God are a rare and precious gift to the church and ought to be treated as such.

Lord Jesus Christ and the [1]elect angels that you observe these things without [a]prejudice, doing nothing with partiality.
22 Do not lay hands on anyone hastily, nor [a]share in other people's sins; keep yourself pure.
23 No longer drink only water, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your frequent [1]infirmities.
24 Some men's sins are [a]clearly evident, preceding them to judgment, but those of some men follow later.
25 Likewise, the good works of some are clearly evident, and those that are otherwise cannot be hidden.

Honor Masters

6 Let as many [a]bondservants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, so that the name of God and His doctrine may not be blasphemed.
2 And those who have believing masters, let them not despise them because they are brethren, but rather serve them because those who are benefited are believers and beloved. Teach and exhort these things.

Error and Greed

3 If anyone teaches otherwise and does not consent to [a]wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, [b]and to the [1]doctrine which accords with godliness,
4 he is proud, knowing nothing, but is obsessed with disputes and arguments over words, from which come envy, strife, reviling, evil suspicions,
5 [1]useless wranglings of men of corrupt minds and destitute of the truth, who suppose that godliness is a means of gain. [2]From [a]such withdraw yourself.

8 And having food and clothing, with these we shall be [a]content.

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Tim. 6:6–8

Content in Him

All of the world's wealth cannot buy a peaceful heart. But the free gift of God leaves our soul content.

9 But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and harmful lusts which drown men in destruction and perdition.
10 For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, for which some have strayed from the faith in their greediness, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

The Good Confession

11 But you, O man of God, flee these things and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, gentleness.
12 Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, to which you were also called and have confessed the good confession in the presence of many witnesses.
13 I urge you in the sight of God who gives life to all things, and before Christ Jesus [a]who witnessed the good confession before Pontius Pilate,
14 that you keep this commandment without spot, blameless until our Lord Jesus Christ's appearing,
15 which He will manifest in His own time, He who is the blessed and only [1]Potentate, the King of kings and Lord of lords,
16 who alone has immortality, dwelling in [a]unapproachable light, [b]whom no man has seen or can see, to whom be honor and everlasting power. Amen.

Instructions to the Rich

17 Command those who are rich in this present age not to be haughty, nor to trust in uncertain [a]riches but in the living God, who gives us richly all things [b]to enjoy.

5:22 Jewish teachers would "lay hands on" their disciples to ordain them. Ordaining an untested person would make the one doing the ordaining responsible if that person proved unworthy.

6:1 Paul acknowledged the role of slaves in his society. Any religion that caused slave discontent was considered subversive and became a target for fierce persecution.

6:7 Paul quotes a common moral assertion found in both Jewish and Greco-Roman texts (Job 1:21).

6:11 Paul explains the best way to deal with temptation: flee!

6:17 Paul condemned those who sought wealth at all costs, but he also spoke to those who were already rich. The wealthy usually derived their riches as landowners who rented out property. However, a growing sector of businesspeople was developing.

ENCOUNTER Note 1 Tim. 6:17

Truth About Treasure

In God's economy, investing in the kingdom produces dividends both now and for eternity. Those who recognize the source of their prosperity will share it generously with others. Those who jealously hoard their possessions demonstrate their ignorance of the eternity they are facing.

18 Let them do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to give, willing to share, 19 [a]storing up for themselves a good foundation for the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

Guard the Faith

20 O Timothy! [a]Guard what was committed to your trust, [b]avoiding the profane and [1]idle babblings and contradictions of what is falsely called knowledge—
21 by professing it some have strayed concerning the faith. Grace be with you. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY

INTRODUCTION

Paul identifies himself as the author (1:1) and fills this short letter with personal greetings. The early church fathers accepted this letter as authentic, as they did 1 Timothy. Any objections are the same as those brought against the first letter (see Introduction to 1 Timothy).

The Book of Acts ends with Paul in prison, but it is believed he was acquitted as he expected (Phil. 1:19). He then took his fourth missionary journey, during which time he wrote 1 Timothy and Titus. He traveled through Crete (Titus 1:5), Ephesus (1 Tim. 1:3), Macedonia, and perhaps Colosse (Philem. 22). He left Timothy in Ephesus to guard against false teachers. Paul was again imprisoned in Rome under the reign of Nero. When Paul wrote this letter, he was aware of his impending death (2 Tim. 4:6–8) and his thoughts went to his young apprentice Timothy. He dearly wanted to see Timothy in person. This letter may have been written during Paul's second imprisonment in Rome. A great fire torched most of Rome in A.D. 64, and Nero blamed the Christians, sparking a fresh wave of persecution. The fourth-century historian Eusebius indicated Paul was martyred during this campaign of Nero, sometime before A.D. 68. This letter was probably written in A.D. 67.

SIGNIFICANCE

Paul expressed two major concerns in this letter. First, he knew persecution was intensifying and false teachers were using cunning tactics to infiltrate the churches. He wanted to help Timothy be on his guard and to know how to strengthen the churches. Paul's chief goal was to ground Timothy and the church in Scripture (2 Tim. 1:13; 2:2; 2:15; 3:16; 4:2).

On a more personal note, Paul was lonely and knew his execution was pending. Only Luke was with him, and he longed to see his close friends Timothy and Mark. Obviously Paul had the finish line in his sights (4:7). This epistle gives insight into the final thoughts of a veteran apostle. As such, it has the tender tone of a "testament" or final instructions of a dying father-leader. His last words to his dear friend and colleague ought to be read carefully.

STRUCTURE

The letter is brief and succinct. Paul identifies himself and the intended recipient and follows with a short greeting and word of thanksgiving. Next, he calls for perseverance in the ministry. He lays out the qualities of a spiritual leader and reminds Timothy of his calling as a minister to the truth. Paul uses several forms of imagery to give a clear picture of what faithful service looks like. Following this is a call for doctrinal purity. Paul urges Timothy to boldly confront false teachers and to correct any errors that are creeping into the church. He declares Scripture to be authoritative and encourages Timothy to stand firm on the truth. The letter ends with a plea for Timothy to come to Paul. Then Paul expresses final greetings. Second Timothy can be outlined as follows:

Introduction (1:1–4)
Encouragement in Ministry
- Power of the Gospel (1:5–12)
- Strength for Faithful Service (1:13–18)
- Perseverance (2:1–13)

Doctrinal Purity
- Priority of God's Word (2:14–26)
- Warnings of Apostasy in Last Days (3:1—4:8)

Conclusion (4:9–22)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH 2 TIMOTHY

This touching letter gives insight into the heart of a wise, experienced apostle. Paul's life demonstrates a peace and depth of faith for which every believer should strive. As you read Paul's tender words of challenge and encouragement, keep in mind the life behind the words. Recall that this godly teacher was once a young, fervent persecutor of God's people. Only God's grace could have wrought such a transformation from that misguided murderer to the beloved saint who poured out his life for the church. Paul's wise words to his young friend are worthy of careful meditation. Don't give up. Press on. Be bold in your faith. Be diligent to learn the scriptures. And above all, trust God to guide you, as He did Paul, so one day you too can say: "I have fought the good fight, I have kept the faith" (3:7).

Greeting

CHAPTER 1

1 PAUL, an apostle of [1]Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the [a]promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,

2 To Timothy, a [a]beloved son:

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

Timothy's Faith and Heritage

3 I thank God, whom I serve with a pure conscience, as my [a]forefathers did, as without ceasing I remember you in my prayers night and day,
4 greatly desiring to see you, being mindful of your tears, that I may be filled with joy,
5 when I call to remembrance [a]the [1]genuine faith that is in you, which dwelt first in your grandmother Lois and [b]your mother Eunice, and I am persuaded is in you also.
6 Therefore I remind you [a]to stir up the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands.
7 For [a]God has not given us a spirit of fear, [b]but of power and of love and of a sound mind.

Not Ashamed of the Gospel

8 [a]Therefore do not be ashamed of [b]the testimony of our Lord, nor of me [c]His prisoner, but share with me in the sufferings for the gospel according to the power of God,
9 who has saved us and called us with a holy calling, [a]not according to our works, but [b]according to His own purpose and grace which was given to us in Christ Jesus [c]before time began,

ENCOUNTER Note — 2 Tim. 1:7

Appropriate Fear

We are to fear God, not people. Most fear comes from the unknown, but a love relationship with God and the desire to know Him produces in us a sound mind to see our circumstances from His perspective. Fear of people will paralyze, but the fear of God empowers the believer for faithful service.

10 but [a]has now been revealed by the appearing of our Savior Jesus Christ, who has abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel,
11 [a]to which I was appointed a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher [1]of the Gentiles.
12 For this reason I also suffer these things; nevertheless I am not ashamed, [a]for I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to keep what I have committed to Him until that Day.

Be Loyal to the Faith

13 [a]Hold fast [b]the pattern of [c]sound words which you have heard from me, in faith and love which are in Christ Jesus.
14 That good thing which was committed to you, keep by the Holy Spirit who dwells in us.
15 This you know, that all those in Asia have turned away from me, among whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.
16 The Lord grant mercy to the [a]household of Onesiphorus, for he often re-

16 [a]2 Tim. 4:19

1:1 For "apostle," see the note on 1 Timothy 1:1.

1:2 This letter was addressed to Timothy, but like Paul's first letter, it was considered an open letter of reference which gave Timothy apostolic authorization to guide the church in Ephesus.

1:5 Fathers were responsible for their sons' education, but mothers exercised a tremendous influence during the formative early years. Since Timothy's father was an unbelieving Gentile, his mother and grandmother impressed upon him the Christian faith.

1:6 "Laying on of hands" was a sign of ordination, an act of setting one apart for ministry, in recognition of the work God had already done in that person.

1:7 Although Timothy is called "timid," one should keep in mind that during those perilous times, every Christian, including Paul himself, needed courage from the Lord (Acts 18:9; 1 Cor. 2:3). The exhortation to "not be afraid" was not exclusive to Timothy but is a common theme throughout the Bible (Gen. 26:24; Josh. 1:9; Jer. 1:8).

1:16 "Onesiphorus" must have had a large home with many dependants and almost certainly slaves. He often showed hospitality to Paul, giving him lodging when in Ephesus. Apparently Onesiphorus had ministered to Paul when he was a prisoner and had not feared for his own safety as he cared for the apostle.

WORD Study SOUND

2 Tim. 1:13 The Greek word hugiainō, translated "sound," meant "healthy," and is where we get the English word "hygiene." As a healthy lifestyle brings strength to the body, so the "sound words" of Scripture bring spiritual sustenance. Paul urged Timothy to hold fast to that which would revitalize his spirit and stimulate his mind toward the things of God (Phil. 4:8). Jesus said, "He who hears My word and believes in Him who sent Me has everlasting life" (John 5:24).

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Tim. 1:14

The Gift of a Life

There is no excuse for idleness, no justification for shallowness of character, and no reason to live in defeat. God has given the Holy Spirit to dwell in each believer. Live the full life God has given you!

freshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain;
17 but when he arrived in Rome, he sought me out very zealously and found me.
18 The Lord [a]grant to him that he may find mercy from the Lord [b]in that Day—and you know very well how many ways he [c]ministered [1]to me at Ephesus.

Be Strong in Grace

2 You therefore, [a]my son, [b]be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.
2 And the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.
3 You therefore must [a]endure[1] hardship [b]as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.
4 [a]No one engaged in warfare entangles himself with the affairs of this life, that he may please him who enlisted him as a soldier.
5 And also [a]if anyone competes in athletics, he is not crowned unless he competes according to the rules.
6 The hardworking farmer must be first to partake of the crops.
7 Consider what I say, and [1]may the Lord [a]give you understanding in all things.
8 Remember that Jesus Christ, [a]of the seed of David, [b]was raised from the dead [c]according to my gospel,
9 [a]for which I suffer trouble as an evildoer, [b]even to the point of chains; [c]but the word of God is not chained.
10 Therefore [a]I endure all things for the sake of the [1]elect, [b]that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.
11 This is a faithful saying:

For [a]if we died with Him,
We shall also live with Him.
12 [a]If we endure,
We shall also reign with Him.
[b]If we deny Him,
He also will deny us.
13 If we are faithless,
He remains faithful;
He [a]cannot deny Himself.

Approved and Disapproved Workers

14 Remind them of these things, [a]charging them before the Lord not to [1]strive about words to no profit, to the ruin of the hearers.
15 [a]Be diligent to present yourself approved to God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Tim. 2:15

The Process of God's Truth

If you are to serve the Lord, you must know His Word thoroughly. Believers must study it, meditate on it, and obey it completely. God is not satisfied with your belief; He wants your obedience. God knows that truth has moved from your head to your heart when it is expressed through your life to others.

16 But shun profane and [1]idle babblings, for they will [2]increase to more ungodliness.
17 And their message will spread like cancer. [a]Hymenaeus and Philetus are of this sort, 18 who have strayed concerning the truth, [a]saying that the resurrection is already past; and they overthrow the faith of some.

2:3 Paul compares a minister's work to that of a soldier, an athlete, and a farmer (2 Tim. 1:3–15). Each one emphasizes the effort, commitment, and persistence necessary to achieve results.

2:17 "Cancer" could also be translated "gangrene." It suggests the spread of false doctrine that poisons the entire body until the victim dies. Cancer must be removed to spare the body. Hymenaeus was an uncommon name and is probably the Hymenaeus mentioned in 1 Timothy 1:20. This is the only biblical reference to Philetus.

21 Therefore if anyone cleanses himself from the latter, he will be a vessel for honor, [1]sanctified and useful for the Master, [a]prepared for every good work.
22 [a]Flee also youthful lusts; but pursue righteousness, faith, love, peace with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart.
23 But avoid foolish and ignorant disputes, knowing that they generate strife.
24 And [a]a servant of the Lord must not quarrel but be gentle to all, [b]able to teach, [c]patient, 26 and that they may come to their senses and [a]escape the snare of the devil, having been taken captive by him to do his will.

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Tim. 2:24–26

Leave It to God

Only God's Holy Spirit can convince people of spiritual truth. Believers must proclaim truth, but they should never be quarrelsome or argumentative. Skillful debate does not convince people of the gospel's veracity, but a life transformed by the gospel does. Live with integrity, give God the glory, and let Him vindicate His message.

Perilous Times and Perilous Men

3 But know this, that [a]in the last days [1]perilous times will come:
2 For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,
3 unloving, [1]unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good,
4 [a]traitors, headstrong, haughty, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God,
5 [a]having a form of godliness but [b]denying its power. And [c]from such people turn away!
6 For [a]of this sort are those who creep into households and make captives of gullible women loaded down with sins, led away by various lusts,
7 always learning and never able [a]to come to the knowledge of the truth.
8 [a]Now as Jannes and Jambres resisted Moses, so do these also resist the truth: [b]men of corrupt minds, [c]disapproved concerning the faith;
9 but they will progress no further, for their folly will be manifest to all, [a]as theirs also was.

The Man of God and the Word of God

10 [a]But you have carefully followed my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, love, perseverance,
11 persecutions, afflictions, which happened to me [a]at Antioch, [b]at Iconium, [c]at Lystra—what persecutions I endured. And [d]out of them all the Lord delivered me.
12 Yes, and [a]all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution.

2:25 Whereas philosophers often verbally abused students and followers with their alleged "wisdom," Paul urged humble and private correction before resorting to public reproof. The hope of future restoration was always the goal.

3:2 Lists of vices were common among ancient moralists (see Rom. 1:28–32). "Disobedient to parents" seems out of place in the midst of such heinous sins, but love and honor for parents was considered an essential virtue and foundational to a stable society.

3:6 Women were generally uneducated and considered more susceptible to false teaching. They were also known to switch religions more easily and more frequently than men. False teachers wishing to influence women had to go into the homes, for they had restricted access to women in public.

3:8 Paul drew upon Jewish tradition found outside the Old Testament scriptures, which identified Jannes and his brother Jambres as Pharaoh's magicians who challenged Moses (Ex. 7:11). They were no match for God's power as expressed through Moses.

3:11 For Paul's persecution, see Acts 13–14. Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra were in the region of Asia Minor in which Timothy lived.

WORD Study — INSPIRATION

2 Tim. 3:16 The Greek word theopneustos, translated "inspiration" is a compound word that literally means "God-breathed." It is used to describe wisdom that comes from God. The term appears only here in the New Testament, describing the nature of the sacred Scriptures. Inspiration describes the Holy Spirit's influence on men's minds which made them God's agents for the infallible communication of God's revelation (2 Tim. 3:16; 2 Pet. 1:21). The Scriptures, though penned through the hands of men, are the Word of God. To understand Scripture's truths we must receive the illumination or enlightenment of the Holy Spirit, the divine quickening of the human mind. Only the Holy Spirit can enable us to understand the truth that has been revealed and communicated.

17 [a]that the man of God may be complete, [b]thoroughly equipped for every good work.

Preach the Word

4 I [a]charge you [1]therefore before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, [b]who will judge the living and the dead [2]at His appearing and His kingdom:
2 Preach the word! Be ready in season and out of season. [a]Convince, [b]rebuke, [c]exhort, with all longsuffering and teaching.
3 [a]For the time will come when they will not endure [b]sound doctrine, [c]but according to their own desires, because they have itching ears, they will heap up for themselves teachers;
4 and they will turn their ears away from the truth, and [a]be turned aside to fables.

The power of a preacher is not in the proclamation of the Word, but in the incarnation of the Word. Preaching is the outpouring of one's soul in speech. The main task of a preacher is not so much in doing as in becoming.

Mark was later reconciled with Paul and served with him (Col. 4:10). He wrote the Gospel of Mark.

HISTORICAL*Encounter* — GEORGE MUELLER — 2 Tim. 4:16

At a critical time during Hudson Taylor's ministry in China, the China Inland Mission faced a dramatic shortfall in monetary support from England. A crisis in the mission had caused many benefactors to cease contributing. Missionaries on the field in China were in dire financial straits. Then Taylor received a letter from George Mueller, the Christian leader in Bristol who cared for thousands of orphans through his faith ministry. Mueller noted that as he had prayed, God had impressed on him the need to encourage Taylor and his colleagues in China. Mueller noted that God had never failed him in all his years of faithful obedience. Mueller pointed Taylor to 2 Timothy 4:16–18. Even when the apostle Paul was abandoned by others, God remained faithful. Enclosed within Mueller's letter were eleven checks for the support of the missionaries along with a pledge to send more funds in the coming days, a promise Mueller honored.

4:19 Prisca (Priscilla) and Aquila met Paul in Corinth on his second missionary journey (Acts 18:1–3). They helped with the work in Ephesus (Acts 18:18, 19). Onesiphorus was a worker in the church at Ephesus (see note on 2 Tim. 1:16–18).

4:20 "Trophimus" was a member of the church in Ephesus (Acts 21:29) who traveled with Paul to Jerusalem (Acts 20:4).

4:21 The seas were generally closed to traffic during the winter due to storms and rough water.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TITUS

INTRODUCTION

This epistle opens with a statement identifying Paul as the writer (Titus 1:1). Some have questioned whether he was the true author of this and the other Pastoral Epistles (1 and 2 Timothy). The style differs from Paul's other letters, but Paul may well have enlisted a scribe whose style differed from scribes he had used on other occasions (Rom. 16:22). The variance in style could also exist because this letter was written to a friend and not to a church.

Accepting Paul's authorship of this and the letters to Timothy, he wrote to Titus some time between his two Roman imprisonments around A.D. 62–65, probably just after his first letter to Timothy. Paul had taken Titus with him to evangelize Crete, but left him there to establish the church. Crete is a large island, 160 miles long and 35 miles wide, southeast of Greece, in the Mediterranean Sea. It was a lucrative trade center, bringing prosperity to the island. In the first century, Cretans as a whole were notoriously immoral people, known for their deception and evil practices (Titus 1:12). It would take a strong leader to help them anchor their faith and guide them in establishing church leadership. Furthermore, legalistic Judaizers Paul had encountered in Galatia had followed him to Crete. Their influence was threatening to dissuade new believers from following the true gospel. Titus was Paul's choice to face such challenges and to build upon the foundation already laid.

SIGNIFICANCE

Written to a faithful companion and colaborer in the gospel, the letter to Titus lends insight into the structure of the early church. Any church needs to be organized and built upon sound doctrine. The most pressing need was to develop church leaders, for the struggling churches on the island were in danger of being led astray. Paul's guidelines for such leaders provide a plumb line for selecting church leaders today. Doctrinally, Paul made some of the strongest statements on God's grace in the New Testament (Titus 2:11–14; 3:3–7). He was responding to the Judaizers, who sought to promote a doctrine of salvation by works (3:4, 5). Paul insisted that good works must result from salvation, as evidence of God's grace in our lives (2:7, 14; 3:1, 8, 14). Through the Christlike behavior of His people, God displays His grace to those outside the faith (2:11).

STRUCTURE

This letter is brief but highly informative. Following Paul's short introduction are three major sections. The first is instruction about church leaders. Titus is charged with the duty of establishing leaders and then given the criterion for identifying such individuals. The second section is instruction about various groups within the church, including older men and women, younger men and women, and slaves. Then Paul explains the foundation for all Christian character. The third section contains guidance about Christian behavior in general. This includes respect for government leaders, motives for proper behavior, and warnings against divisive people. The letter closes with some personal directions and salutations. Titus can be outlined as follows:

Introduction (1:1–4)
Church Leadership (1:5–16)
Various Groups in Church (2:1–15)
Christian Behavior (3:1–11)
Conclusion (3:12–15)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH TITUS

This letter speaks to those who want to apply their faith practically. The standard for church leadership is high, but the characteristics listed ought to be the goal of every believer.

Anticipate the Spirit challenging you to develop every one of these qualities. You will also be urged to live out your Christianity in the "real world," displaying good works and applying your faith in practical ways. You will be called to find your place of service within the body of Christ, to strive for unity with fellow believers and to avoid disputes.

Greeting

CHAPTER 1

1 PAUL, a bondservant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect and [a]the acknowledgment of the truth [b]which accords with godliness,
2 in hope of eternal life which God, who [a]cannot lie, promised before time began,
3 but has in due time manifested His word through preaching, which was committed to me according to the commandment of God our Savior;

4 To [a]Titus, a true son in our common faith:

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and [1]the Lord Jesus Christ our Savior.

Qualified Elders

5 For this reason I left you in Crete, that you should [a]set in order the things that are lacking, and appoint elders in every city as I commanded you—
6 if a man is blameless, the husband of one wife, [a]having faithful children not accused of [1]dissipation or insubordination.
7 For a [1]bishop must be blameless, as a steward of God, not self-willed, not quick-tempered, [a]not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for money,
8 but hospitable, a lover of what is good, sober-minded, just, holy, self-controlled,
9 holding fast the faithful word as he has been taught, that he may be able, by sound doctrine, both to exhort and convict those who contradict.

In Due Time

God does not react to the current state of affairs, He is proactive from eternity. Our hope does not lie in human effort but in God's activity before time began. In due time, in His time, His purposes are revealed.

CHARACTER*Study* — TITUS — Titus 1:4

Titus was God's servant and Paul's trusted companion. He was born to Gentile parents and was most likely converted under Paul's ministry (Gal. 2:3; Titus 1:4). There appears to have been a significant bond between Titus and Paul. Although Luke does not mention Titus in Acts, Paul refers to him nine times in 2 Corinthians alone, and mentions the encouragement Titus brought to his life (2 Cor. 7:6, 13). Paul took him along on his missionary work and often sought to visit him (2 Cor. 2:13; 7:6; Titus 3:12). He also gave him authority to guide the struggling church in Crete, and trusted him to establish leadership among the churches (Titus 1:5). Most scholars believe Paul presented Titus to the Jerusalem council in Acts 15 as an example of a true Christian Gentile (Gal. 2:3). Titus also delivered Paul's letter to Corinth and collected funds from that church. He later went to Dalmatia at Paul's request (2 Tim. 4:10). Tradition says he returned to Crete and spent the remainder of his ministry there. Although he was a leader in his own right, Titus is best known for undergirding and supporting the apostle Paul and the work God had given him. Titus was a team player who honored God by giving his life for others. He was humble, strong in faith, and gentle of heart.

1:1 This is the only introduction where Paul departs from his usual title "a bondservant of Christ" and calls himself "a bondservant of God." Such titles identify his right to speak with authority.

1:5 Paul left Titus in Crete because he was unable to remain there long enough himself to fully establish the church with proper organization and leadership. Synagogues at that time were ruled by prominent older men called elders. Paul utilized this system of leadership that was already accepted and established. The term "elder" is used interchangeably with "bishop." "Elder" emphasizes the qualities of maturity and experience. "Bishop" or "overseer" suggests the responsibility of watching over the people.

1:6 See also 1 Timothy 3:1–7 for a parallel list of qualifications for elders. The phrase "husband of one wife" has been thoroughly debated as to its exact meaning and application. When the phrase is understood in the context of "blameless" and with a concern for the church's good reputation, interpretation becomes much clearer. One must have a married life that brings honor the Lord. To have one wife is to be faithful in a monogamous and loving marriage, not prone to wandering eyes or flirtation with other women. The term "dissipation" refers to wasting money, often on selfish pleasures such as strong drink.

1:7 The term "steward" reflects the culture of the day. Stewards were household managers, either slaves or free people who cared for someone's property and were accountable to him.

1:9 Before they could be appointed over a church, potential elders were taught. Purity of doctrine was crucial in the early church, as it is today.

WORD Study — BLAMELESS

Titus 1:6 The Greek word anenklētos, translated "blameless," also means irreproachable, not a target for censure. It is used here and in 1 Timothy 3:10 to describe leaders in the church. This word does not imply complete perfection or flawlessness. It does call for a life of scrupulous integrity. Church leaders should not bring disrepute or shame to the church through sinful or even questionable activity. Increased responsibility means increased accountability and visibility. A leader who brings dishonor to God can be forgiven, but is disqualified from certain leadership roles.

The Elders' Task

10 For there are many insubordinate, both idle [a]talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision,
11 whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole households, teaching things which they ought not, [a]for the sake of dishonest gain.
12 [a]One of them, a prophet of their own, said, "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons."
13 This testimony is true. [a]Therefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith,
14 not giving heed to Jewish fables and [a]commandments of men who turn from the truth.
15 [a]To the pure all things are pure, but to those who are defiled and unbelieving nothing is pure; but even their mind and conscience are defiled.
16 They profess to [a]know God, but [b]in works they deny Him, being [1]abominable, disobedient, [c]and disqualified for every good work.

Qualities of a Sound Church

2 But as for you, speak the things which are proper for sound doctrine:
2 that the older men be sober, reverent, temperate, sound in faith, in love, in patience;
3 the older women likewise, that they be reverent in behavior, not slanderers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things—

Living Faith

Words cannot negate reality; our life proclaims our faith. What we do reveals what we believe about God.

7 in all things showing yourself to be [a]a pattern of good works; in doctrine showing integrity, reverence, [b]incorruptibility,[1]

ENCOUNTER Note — Titus 2:10

Salvation Seen

People do not need to hear about God's salvation; they need to see it. Words can explain the gospel, but a transformed life convinces others of the gospel's power. The great doctrines of God are not discovered by intellectual pursuit, but are the expression of God's presence in our lives.

Trained by Saving Grace

11 For [a]the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men,
12 teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in the present age,
13 [a]looking for the blessed [b]hope and glorious appearing of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ,
14 [a]who gave Himself for us, that He

1:12 "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons" was a quote from the Cretan poet Epimenides who wrote around 600 B.C. Such was the Cretans' reputation in the Mediterranean region that the phrase "to Cretanize" meant "to lie."

2:4 Paul made it clear that the character of the Christian home would do much to prove the truth and attractiveness of the Christian message.

2:13 "Our great God and Savior Jesus Christ" is perhaps the strongest statement of Christ's deity in Scripture.

2:14 To "redeem" is to purchase, and therefore to own. Christ paid the price for our salvation through His death on the cross (Eph. 1:7). Therefore we belong to Him.

might redeem us from every lawless deed [b]and purify for Himself [c]His own special people, zealous for good works.
15 Speak these things, [a]exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no one despise you.

Graces of the Heirs of Grace

3 Remind them [a]to be subject to rulers and authorities, to obey, [b]to be ready for every good work,
2 to speak evil of no one, to be peaceable, gentle, showing all humility to all men.
3 For [a]we ourselves were also once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful and hating one another.
4 But when [a]the kindness and the love of [b]God our Savior toward man appeared,
5 [a]not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us, through [b]the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit,
6 [a]whom He poured out on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior,
7 that having been justified by His grace [a]we should become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.
8 [a]This is a faithful saying, and these things I want you to affirm constantly, that those who have believed in God should be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to men.

Avoid Dissension

9 But [a]avoid foolish disputes, genealogies, contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and useless.
10 [a]Reject a divisive man after the first and second [1]admonition,

ENCOUNTER Note — Titus 3:4–7

Salvation

Salvation is the kindness of God expressed. It is unearned, undeserved, and uncommon; it is nothing less than a divine act of love. All God has done on our behalf has been channeled to us through Jesus Christ. The cross is the ultimate symbol of God's love.

ENCOUNTER Note — Titus 3:10

For or Against

The Holy Spirit builds up the body of Christ and unifies believers under Christ's leadership. A person who consistently brings division is not walking in the Spirit, no matter what that individual claims. A divisive person is in bondage to sin and is therefore an enemy to God and His people.

11 knowing that such a person is warped and sinning, being self-condemned.

Final Messages

12 When I send Artemas to you, or [a]Tychicus, be diligent to come to me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to spend the winter there.
13 Send Zenas the lawyer and [a]Apollos on their journey with haste, that they may lack nothing.
14 And let our people also learn to maintain good works, to meet urgent needs, that they may not be unfruitful.

Farewell

15 All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

3:1 "Rulers and authorities" refers to all forms of human government. Paul mentions the importance of "good works" six times in this short letter (Titus 1:16; 2:7, 14; 3:8, 14).

3:10 To "reject" a divisive man is to exclude him from the religious community. Religious law provided many opportunities to repent; exclusion was the last resort. Bringing discord into the body of Christ is a serious offense calling for serious action.

3:12 Tychicus was one of Paul's missionary colleagues (Acts 20:4; Eph. 6:21; Col. 4:7; 2 Tim. 4:12). Nicopolis, the "city of victory," was on the Adriatic coast.

3:13 This is the only mention of "Zenas the lawyer" in the New Testament. If he were a Jewish convert he would have been an expert in the Mosaic law. If a Gentile, he would have been a Roman jurist, trained in debate. Apollos was a respected colaborer with Paul and was well known for his persuasive oratory skills (Acts 18:24; 19:1; 1 Cor. 1:12; 3:4–6; 4:6; 16:12).

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO

PHILEMON

INTRODUCTION

The Apostle Paul wrote this letter while in a Roman prison around 64 A.D. The Book of Philemon stands alone as a personal letter. It was not written, as were others of Paul's letters, to address a theological issue or to correct sin in a church. Rather, it was a plea for the life of a new brother in Christ. The subject of the letter was Onesimus, a runaway slave who stole from his master. The acceptable punishment for such offenses was death. However, Paul exhorted Philemon to see Onesimus not as an unworthy slave but as a spiritual brother. Paul's personal intervention in the life of a new convert is exemplary for all believers.

SIGNIFICANCE

This letter demonstrates, in the most practical way, the kind of Christian character that befuddled first-century non-Christians. Forgiveness, inward transformation and personal sacrifice were common behaviors among believers and demonstrated a commitment to Christ above all other loyalties. This letter speaks volumes about the character of the apostle Paul, who put his own resources and reputation on the line for Onesimus.

STRUCTURE

Philemon can be outlined as follows:

Greeting (1–3)
The Character of Philemon (4–7)
Intercession for Onesimus (8–21)
Concluding Remarks (22–25)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH PHILEMON

God has the amazing capacity to forgive our sins and to offer us not only a new life, but also a new identity in Christ. The Book of Philemon highlights the importance of those who serve as agents of reconciliation. Every Christian is God's ambassador for reconciliation, forgiveness, and new hope in Christ. We are to look at the heart of a person rather than the outward appearance or circumstances. God demonstrates through Paul's appeal that mercy is preferable to legalism.

Greeting

PAUL, a [a]prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother,

To Philemon our beloved friend and fellow laborer,

WORD Study — FELLOW LABORER

Philem. 1 This term comes from the Greek sunergos, meaning co-laborer, companion, and fellow worker. It carries the idea of working together for a common purpose and encouraging one another in the task.

2 to [1]the beloved Apphia, [a]Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church in your house:

3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philemon's Love and Faith

4 [a]I thank my God, making mention of you always in my prayers,
5 [a]hearing of your love and faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus and toward all the saints,
6 that the sharing of your faith may become effective [a]by the acknowledgment of [b]every good thing which is in [1]you in Christ Jesus.
7 For we [1]have great [2]joy and [3]consolation in your love, because the [4]hearts of the saints have been refreshed by you, brother.

The Plea for Onesimus

8 Therefore, though I might be very bold in Christ to command you what is fitting,
9 yet for love's sake I rather appeal to you—being such a one as Paul, the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ—
10 I appeal to you for my son [a]Onesimus, whom I have begotten while in my chains, 11 who once was unprofitable to you, but now is profitable to you and to me.
12 I am sending him [1]back. You therefore receive him, that is, my own [2]heart,
13 whom I wished to keep with me, that on your behalf he might minister to me in my chains for the gospel.
14 But without your consent I wanted to do nothing, [a]that your good deed might not be by compulsion, as it were, but voluntary.
15 For perhaps he departed for a while for this purpose, that you might receive him forever,
16 no longer as a slave but more than a slave—a beloved brother, especially to me but how much more to you, both in the [a]flesh and in the Lord.

Philemon's Obedience Encouraged

17 If then you count me as a partner, receive him as you would me.
18 But if he has wronged you or owes anything, put that on my account.

ENCOUNTER Note — Philem. 7

Refreshing Love

God designed love to be powerful in every way. Whether it is expressed in forgiveness, addressing a person's needs, sharing the Good News, or simply encouraging the weary, love can change a life forever.

WORD Study — PARTNER

Philem. 17 This word comes from the Greek koinonos, denoting "companion, fellow, partaker, and associate." The picture is of two or more people yoked together, pulling in the same direction.

CHARACTER Study — ONESIMUS — Philem. 10

Onesimus was a runaway slave. His name means "Useful." Scripture is silent about why he fled his master, although it is generally assumed he absconded with some of his master's funds or property. He had since become a believer and had proven himself "useful" to the apostle Paul (v. 11). Onesimus' life had been so transformed that he willingly returned to his master to face the consequences of his past sins.

1 Paul called himself a "prisoner" of Christ Jesus. He was literally a prisoner in a Roman jail, because of his commitment to Christ (vv. 9, 10, 13, 23). Philemon must have been a wealthy man if he owned slaves and a house large enough to accommodate a church.

2 "Apphia" means "Fruitful." "Archippus" means "Master of the Horse." Both were Christians connected to the church meeting in Philemon's home in Colosse. Apphia may have been Philemon's wife. Wives normally took responsibility for household affairs and would have been concerned about a household slave.

19 I, Paul, am writing with my own [a]hand. I will repay—not to mention to you that you owe me even your own self besides.
20 Yes, brother, let me have joy from you in the Lord; refresh my heart in the Lord.
21 [a]Having confidence in your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say.
22 But, meanwhile, also prepare a guest room for me, for [a]I trust that [b]through your prayers I shall be granted to you.

Farewell

23 [a]Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, greets you,

19 [a]1 Cor. 16:21
21 [a]2 Cor. 7:16
22 [a]Phil. 1:25; 2:24 [b]2 Cor. 1:11
23 [a]Col. 1:7; 4:12

25 [a]2 Tim. 4:22

ENCOUNTER Note Philem. 23

Companions in Ministry

God intended for Christians to be interdependent. We must see one another as coworkers in God's kingdom. No individual has all the gifts for ministry, but each person must depend upon others. Christ's body, the Church, is so designed that each person is absolutely critical to others.

24 as do [a]Mark, [b]Aristarchus, [c]Demas, [d]Luke, my fellow laborers.
25 [a]The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

23 "Epaphras" is derived from the name of the Greek goddess Aphrodite, which means "Lovely." He ministered in the Colossian church (Col. 1:7).

THE EPISTLE TO THE

HEBREWS

INTRODUCTION

The writer of Hebrews is not named, nor are the intended recipients. There are few indicators as to the time and place of writing. Scholars have debated these details and several possible authors have been suggested, including Paul, Luke, Clement of Rome, Phillip, Priscilla, Barnabas, or Apollos. The recipients of the letter had evidently undergone persecution and would face more in the future (10:32–34). As a result, some were being tempted to question their Christian commitment (6:4–8). This scenario could easily apply to the Jewish Christians in Rome as they approached persecution under the emperor Nero, but this is speculation (13:24). The writer provides a presentation of an exalted Christ as the King-Priest who continually intercedes on behalf of His people. Hebrews is described as a unique epistle because it begins like a treatise, proceeds like a sermon, and concludes like a letter.

SIGNIFICANCE

Hebrews includes all the major themes of the gospels and continues with the presentation of Christ as the high priest who made the perfect sacrifice once and for all. The writer clearly presents some of the most essential doctrines of Christ found in the New Testament, and at the same time, dispels the major arguments against Christ being the Messiah. This book exalts Christ as superior to everything that preceded Him including the law, the prophets, sacrifices, and any priesthood. All are deficient in comparison to Christ, the perfect sacrifice, the perfect high priest, the only Savior, and the Son of God.

STRUCTURE

Hebrews can be outlined as follows:

Christ's Preeminence (1:1—4:13)
Christ the High Priest (4:14—5:11)
Spiritual Immaturity (5:12—6:12)
God's Promise (6:13–19)
Priesthood of Melchizedek (6:20—7:28)
High Priest of a New Covenant (8:1—10:18)
Holding the Faith (10:19–39)
Examples of Faith (11:1–40)
Heeding God's Voice (12:1–29)
Final Exhortations (13:1–25)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH HEBREWS

While Hebrews examines critical theological issues, it also addresses the most fundamental needs of God's people. You will be challenged to respond to God's Word as spoken through his Son (1:1–2). Hebrews will warn you not to fall short of all God has provided for you (4:2). You will be encouraged by the powerful, active work of God's Word (4:12) and by the intercession of Christ, your high priest who provides access into the Most Holy Place (4:14–16). You will confront the stark reality that "without faith, it is impossible to please Him" (11:6). You will also be exhorted to "go on to perfection" (6:1) and to "run with endurance the race" set before you (12:1). Finally, Hebrews will help you view God's discipline more positively when you are reminded that such discipline proves you are God's child (12:3–11).

God's Supreme Revelation

GOD, who [1]at various times and [a]in various ways spoke in time past to the fathers by the prophets,
2 has in these last days spoken to us by His Son, whom He has appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the [1]worlds;

ENCOUNTER*Note* Heb. 1:2

God Speaks

Throughout history God has spoken to His people, but His greatest revelation to us has been through His Son. Now Christ is our great high priest and advocate who sympathizes with us in our weaknesses and who helps us overcome every trial and temptation.

3 [a]who being the brightness of His glory and the express [b]image of His person, and [c]upholding all things by the word of His power, [d]when He had [1]by Himself [2]purged [3]our sins, [e]sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high,
4 having become so much better than the angels, as [a]He has by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

WORD*Study* GLORY

Heb. 1:3 The Old Testament "glory" came from the Hebrew word kabod, meaning "heavy in weight." To give someone glory was to give them honor (Ex. 20:12; Ps. 15:4). The New Testament meaning comes from the Greek word doxa, which refers to an opinion or an estimate, and to which we trace our word "doxology." It therefore refers to the honor that comes from a high opinion of others. The New Testament meaning came to be associated with God alone as He revealed His nature and His acts to people in various ways. The greatest revelation of God's glory came through His Son (John 17:5, 24).

The Son Exalted Above Angels

5 For to which of the angels did He ever say:

[a]"You are My Son,
Today I have begotten You"?

And again:

[b]"I will be to Him a Father,
And He shall be to Me a Son"?

6 But when He again brings [a]the firstborn into the world, He says:

[b]"Let all the angels of God worship Him."

7 And of the angels He says:

[a]"Who makes His angels spirits
And His ministers a flame of fire."

8 But to the Son He says:

[a]"Your throne, O God, is forever and ever;
A [1]scepter of righteousness is the scepter of Your kingdom.
9 You have loved righteousness and hated lawlessness;
Therefore God, Your God, [a]has anointed You
With the oil of gladness more than Your companions."

10 And:

[a]"You, LORD, in the beginning laid the foundation of the earth,
And the heavens are the work of Your hands.
11 [a]They will perish, but You remain;
And [b]they will all grow old like a garment;
12 Like a cloak You will fold them up,
And they will be changed.
But You are the [a]same,
And Your years will not fail."

13 But to which of the angels has He ever said:

[a]"Sit at My right hand,
Till I make Your enemies Your footstool"?

14 [a]Are they not all ministering spirits sent forth to minister for those who will [b]inherit salvation?

1:3 "Express image" is found only here in the New Testament and means the exact representation or character. "Sat down" implies that Christ's work was complete.

1:5 The author of Hebrews cites seven Old Testament passages (vv. 5–14) to demonstrate that Christ is superior to angels.

1:5 "Begotten" is from the Greek word gennaō, meaning to create, conceive or bring forth.

1:6 "Firstborn" comes from the Greek word prōtotokos. This term describes the oldest son, and could also refer to an entire people.

1:8 The writer quotes from Psalm 45:6, 7, directly applying this Messianic prophecy to Jesus Christ.

1:10–12 Here Psalms 102:25–27 is quoted as another reference to Christ.

1:13 The writer continues to apply Messianic scriptures from David's Psalms to Christ (Ps. 110:1).

Do Not Neglect Salvation

2 Therefore we must give [1]the more earnest heed to the things we have heard, lest we drift away.
2 For if the word [a]spoken through angels proved steadfast, and [b]every transgression and disobedience received a just [1]reward,
3 [a]how shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation, [b]which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was [c]confirmed to us by those who heard Him,
4 [a]God also bearing witness [b]both with signs and wonders, with various miracles, and [c]gifts[1] of the Holy Spirit, [d]according to His own will?

The Son Made Lower than Angels

5 For He has not put [a]the world to come, of which we speak, in subjection to angels.
6 But one testified in a certain place, saying:

> [a]"What is man that You are mindful of him,
> Or the son of man that You take care of him?
> 7 You have made him [1]a little lower than the angels;
> You have crowned him with glory and honor,
> [2]And set him over the works of Your hands.
> 8 [a]You have put all things in subjection under his feet."

For in that He put all in subjection under him, He left nothing that is not put under him. But now [b]we do not yet see all things put under him.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Heb. 2:8

The Servant King

God gave authority over all to the One who completely humbled Himself as a servant to all. God exalts the lowly, strengthens the weak, and honors the humble.

9 But we see Jesus, [a]who was made [1]a little lower than the angels, for the suffering of death [b]crowned with glory and honor, that He, by the grace of God, might taste death [c]for everyone.

Bringing Many Sons to Glory

10 For it was fitting for Him, [a]for whom are all things and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to make the captain of their salvation [b]perfect through sufferings.

WORD*Study* CAPTAIN

Heb. 2:10 "Captain" comes from the Greek word archēgos, and can also mean an author, pioneer, or pathfinder. Christ established a trail of salvation which countless others could follow.

11 For [a]both He who [1]sanctifies and those who are being sanctified [b]are all of one, for which reason [c]He is not ashamed to call them brethren,
12 saying:

> [a]"I will declare Your name to My brethren;
> In the midst of the assembly I will sing praise to You."

13 And again:

> [a]"I will put My trust in Him."

And again:

> [b]"Here am I and the children whom God has given Me."

14 Inasmuch then as the children have partaken of flesh and blood, He [a]Himself likewise shared in the same, [b]that through death He might destroy him who had the power of [c]death, that is, the devil,
15 and release those who [a]through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.
16 For indeed He does not [1]give aid to angels, but He does [2]give aid to the seed of Abraham.
17 Therefore, in all things He had [a]to be made like His brethren, that He might be [b]a merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people.
18 [a]For in that He Himself has suffered, being [1]tempted, He is able to aid those who are tempted.

The Son Was Faithful

3 Therefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession, Christ Jesus,

2:1 This is the first of five exhortations (Heb. 2:1–4; 3:1—4:16; 5:11—6:20; 10:19–39; 12:1–29).

2:2 God gave the Law to Moses through angels (Acts 7:38, 53; Gal. 3:19).

3:1 This is the only passage in the New Testament that refers to Jesus as an apostle. Apostle refers to one who is sent. Christ is portrayed as both God's "sent One" to us, and our intercessor with God.

3:1 "Holy brethren" can be interpreted in a double sense. The author writes to fellow Jews who were often called a "holy nation" and to fellow Christians who were made holy by the sanctification of Christ. Holy means "set apart" for God.

WORD Study PROPITIATION

Heb. 2:17 Propitiation comes from the Greek word hilaskomai. To the Greeks it meant to appease the gods and avert their wrath. Scripture says God's wrath is poured out on all sin (Rom. 1:18, 24, 26, 28; 3:25). Yet it is impossible for humanity to do anything sufficient to satisfy God's wrath. Being sinful by nature, we cannot make atonement for ourselves. It is Christ's death on the cross that fully satisfies God's holiness, allowing us to be reconciled with Him.

ENCOUNTER Note Heb. 2:18

Christ Understands

Christ suffered unimaginable anguish on earth. He was also tempted in every way possible. Now, as our high priest, He stands ready to give us decisive victory over every temptation or trial we face, just as He experienced victory when He walked this earth.

2 who was faithful to Him who appointed Him, as [a]Moses also was faithful in all His house.
3 For this One has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as [a]He who built the house has more honor than the house.
4 For every house is built by someone, but [a]He who built all things is God.
5 [a]And Moses indeed was faithful in all His house as [b]a servant, [c]for a testimony of those things which would be spoken afterward,
6 but Christ as [a]a Son over His own house, [b]whose house we are [c]if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope [1]firm to the end.

Be Faithful

7 Therefore, as [a]the Holy Spirit says:

[b]"Today, if you will hear His voice,
8 Do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion,
In the day of trial in the wilderness,
9 Where your fathers tested Me, tried Me,
And saw My works forty years.
10 Therefore I was angry with that generation,
And said, 'They always go astray in their heart,
And they have not known My ways.'
11 So I swore in My wrath,
'They shall not enter My rest.'"

WORD Study REST

Heb. 3:11 The term "rest" had deep theological significance in the Old Testament. After six days of creation, God rested (Gen. 2:2, 3). This may indicate a cessation of work and the enjoyment of creation. Likewise, the children of Israel viewed the Promised Land as a place of rest (Deut. 3:20; 12:9; 25:19; Josh. 11:23; 21:44; 22:4; 23:1). It was to be more than merely a location, but a life filled with God's blessing, free from struggle and conflict. In the New Testament, rest represents entering eternal fellowship with Christ and experiencing the joy of His presence.

12 Beware, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief in departing from the living God;
13 but [1]exhort one another daily, while it is called "Today," lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.
14 For we have become partakers of Christ if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast to the end,
15 while it is said:

[a]"Today, if you will hear His voice,
Do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion."

ENCOUNTER Note Heb. 3:15

Hear His Voice

Hearing God's voice is directly dependent on the condition of one's heart. A pure and open heart is prepared to receive whatever God has to say. A hardened, distracted person would not recognize, let alone accept, God's Word.

Failure of the Wilderness Wanderers

16 [a]For who, having heard, rebelled? Indeed, was it not all who came out of Egypt, led by Moses?
17 Now with whom was He angry forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, [a]whose corpses fell in the wilderness?
18 And [a]to whom did He swear that

3:9 "Tested and tried" is also translated "tempted and proved." God's people test Him to see if He will follow through on His promises of blessings or of wrath. They always find Him true to His word.

they would not enter His rest, but to those who did not obey?
19 So we see that they could not enter in because of [a]unbelief.

The Promise of Rest

4 Therefore, since a promise remains of entering His rest, [a]let us fear lest any of you seem to have come short of it.
2 For indeed the gospel was preached to us as well as to them; but the word which they heard did not profit them, [1]not being mixed with faith in those who heard it.
3 For we who have believed do enter that rest, as He has said:

> [a]"So I swore in My wrath,
> 'They shall not enter My rest,'"

although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.
4 For He has spoken in a certain place of the seventh day in this way: [a]"And God rested on the seventh day from all His works";
5 and again in this place: [a]"They shall not enter My rest."
6 Since therefore it remains that some must enter it, and those to whom it was first preached did not enter because of disobedience,
7 again He designates a certain day, saying in David, "Today," after such a long time, as it has been said:

> [a]"Today, if you will hear His voice,
> Do not harden your hearts."

8 For if [1]Joshua had [a]given them rest, then He would not afterward have spoken of another day.
9 There remains therefore a rest for the people of God.
10 For he who has entered His rest has himself also ceased from his works as God did from His.

The Word Discovers Our Condition

11 [a]Let us therefore be diligent to enter that rest, lest anyone fall according to the same example of disobedience.
12 For the word of God is [a]living and powerful, and [b]sharper than any [c]two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is [d]a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

ENCOUNTER Note — Heb. 4:12

Living Word

God's Word, the Bible, is not a work of religious literature. It is living and powerful and active in people's lives. Scripture's truths can set the most hopeless prisoner free and can convict a saint of hidden sin.

13 [a]And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are [b]naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.

Our Compassionate High Priest

14 Seeing then that we have a great [a]High Priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, [b]let us hold fast our confession.
15 For [a]we do not have a High Priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but [b]was in all points tempted as we are, [c]yet without sin.
16 [a]Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Qualifications for High Priesthood

5 For every high priest taken from among men [a]is appointed for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins.
2 He can [1]have compassion on those who are ignorant and going astray, since he himself is also subject to [a]weakness.
3 Because of this he is required as for the people, so also for [a]himself, to offer sacrifices for sins.
4 And no man takes this honor to himself, but he who is called by God, just as [a]Aaron was.

A Priest Forever

5 [a]So also Christ did not glorify Himself to become High Priest, but it was He who said to Him:

[d]1 Cor. 14:24, 25
13 [a]Ps. 33:13–15; 90:8 [b]Job 26:6
14 [a]Heb. 2:17; 7:26 [b]Heb. 10:23

CHAPTER 5

1 [a]Heb. 2:17; 8:3
2 [a]Heb. 7:28 [1]deal gently with
3 [a]Lev. 9:7; 16:6
4 [a]Ex. 28:1
5 [a]John 8:54

4:9 The word used for "rest" in this particular verse is unique to the New Testament. It refers to the Sabbath rest.

4:13 The phrase "naked and open" highlights the totality of God's judgment. Nothing escapes His attention. He is all-seeing and all-knowing (Rom. 14:10–12; 2 Cor. 5:10).

4:15 "Sympathize" means to suffer with. Christ did not have to sin in order to sympathize with sinners. Unlike us, He felt the full, unrelenting force of temptation by never yielding to it.

4:16 "Boldly" is the same word translated as confidence in Hebrews 3:6. It can have to do with plainness of speech, fearlessness, and courage. Even the high priest did not enter the Most Holy Place boldly, but with fear that his sacrifice might not be acceptable to the Lord and his life be taken in judgment. However, having Christ as our high priest enables us to confidently approach the throne of grace.

5:3 Even the high priest committed sin and therefore had to atone for his own transgressions before he could intercede on behalf of the people (Lev. 16:6).

5:4 The essential qualities of a high priest were that he be "from among men" (Heb. 5:1) and that he be "called by God." He represented God to the people and he represented the people to God.

[b] "You are My Son,
Today I have begotten You."

6 As He also says in another place:

[a] "You are a priest forever
According to the order of Melchizedek";

7 who, in the days of His flesh, when He had [a]offered up prayers and supplications, [b]with vehement cries and tears to Him [c]who was able to save Him from death, and was heard [d]because of His godly fear,
8 though He was a Son, yet He learned [a]obedience by the things which He suffered.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Heb. 5:8

Suffering

There are some things we can only learn through suffering. The will of God inevitably leads each of us to our cross. He will deepen our character and our walk with Him if we will obediently trust Him with the process.

9 And [a]having been perfected, He became the author of eternal salvation to all who obey Him,
10 called by God as High Priest [a]"according to the order of Melchizedek," 11 of whom [a]we have much to say, and hard to explain, since you have become [b]dull of hearing.

Spiritual Immaturity

12 For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you again the first principles of the [1]oracles of God; and you have come to need [a]milk and not solid food.
13 For everyone who partakes only of milk is unskilled in the word of righteousness, for he is [a]a babe.
14 But solid food belongs to those who are [1]of full age, that is, those who by reason of [2]use have their senses exercised [a]to discern both good and evil.

The Peril of Not Progressing

6 Therefore, [a]leaving the discussion of the elementary principles of Christ, let us go on to [1]perfection, not laying again the foundation of repentance from [b]dead works and of faith toward God,
2 [a]of the doctrine of baptisms, [b]of laying on of hands, [c]of resurrection of the dead, [d]and of eternal judgment.
3 And this [1]we will do if God permits.
4 For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted [a]the heavenly gift, and [b]have become partakers of the Holy Spirit,
5 and have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the age to come,
6 [1]if they fall away, to renew them again to repentance, [a]since they crucify again for themselves the Son of God, and put Him to an open shame.
7 For the earth which drinks in the rain that often comes upon it, and bears herbs useful for those by whom it is cultivated, [a]receives blessing from God;
8 [a]but if it bears thorns and briers, it is rejected and near to being cursed, whose end is to be burned.

A Better Estimate

9 But, beloved, we are confident of better things concerning you, yes, things that accompany salvation, though we speak in this manner.
10 For [a]God is not unjust to forget [b]your work and [1]labor of love which you have shown toward His name, in that you have [c]ministered to the saints, and do minister.
11 And we desire that each one of you

MELCHIZEDEK

Heb. 5:6

Melchizedek, whose name means "Zedek Is My King" or "My King of Righteousness," was the priest king of Salem (Jerusalem). After Abraham's victory over Chedorlaomer, king of Elam, Melchizedek met Abraham with wine and bread and blessed him in the name of "God Most High" (El Elyon). Abraham responded by giving him a tenth of all his spoils (Gen. 14:20). Psalm 110:4 foretells the Messiah who would come as both a priest and king in the order of Melchizedek.

5:9 Being "perfected" does not mean Jesus improved or became something He was not before. It means He accomplished His assignment and became fully qualified to be a high priest both for God and for people. "Author" means cause or source.

5:11 "Dull" means sluggish. The readers were slow to respond to what God had said.

5:12 "First principles" refers to the letters of the alphabet or the addition and subtraction tables of arithmetic. The author returns to this theme in Hebrews 6:1.

5:14 "Full age" means spiritually mature.

6:1 "Perfection" means maturity.

6:4 Hebrews uses the word "impossible" four times (6:4, 18; 10:4, 11:6).

6:5 A heart so calloused that it can receive all God has to give and yet reject God would appear too hardened to be reclaimed. While nothing is impossible for God, it is dangerous to reject God's Word and to allow your heart to stiffen toward Him.

show the same diligence [a]to the full assurance of hope until the end, 12 that you do not become [1]sluggish, but imitate those who through faith and patience [a]inherit the promises.

God's Infallible Purpose in Christ

13 For when God made a promise to Abraham, because He could swear by no one greater, [a]He swore by Himself,
14 saying, [a]"Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you."
15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the [a]promise.
16 For men indeed swear by the greater, and [a]an oath for confirmation is for them an end of all dispute.
17 Thus God, determining to show more abundantly to [a]the heirs of promise [b]the [1]immutability of His counsel, [2]confirmed it by an oath,
18 that by two [1]immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to [a]lie, we [2]might have strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold of the hope [b]set before us.

ENCOUNTER Note Heb. 6:18

Our Hope

Our hope lies not in ourselves but in the reliability of Christ. He is absolutely faithful. His promises to us always come to pass. Our confidence in the future lies within Him, not within ourselves.

19 This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, [a]and which enters the Presence behind the veil, 20 [a]where the forerunner has entered for us, even Jesus, [b]having become High Priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

The King of Righteousness

7 For this [a]Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the Most High God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him,
2 to whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all, first being translated "king of righteousness," and then also king of Salem, meaning "king of peace,"
3 without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God, remains a priest continually.
4 Now consider how great this man was, to whom even the patriarch Abraham gave a tenth of the [1]spoils.
5 And indeed [a]those who are of the sons of Levi, who receive the priesthood, have a commandment to receive tithes from the people according to the law, that is, from their brethren, though they have come from the loins of Abraham;
6 but he whose genealogy is not derived from them received tithes from Abraham [a]and blessed [b]him who had the promises.
7 Now beyond all contradiction the lesser is blessed by the better.
8 Here mortal men receive tithes, but there he receives them, [a]of whom it is witnessed that he lives.
9 Even Levi, who receives tithes, paid tithes through Abraham, so to speak,
10 for he was still in the loins of his father when Melchizedek met him.

Need for a New Priesthood

11 [a]Therefore, if perfection were through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law), what further need was there that another priest should rise according to the order of Melchizedek, and not be called according to the order of Aaron?
12 For the priesthood being changed, of necessity there is also a change of the law.
13 For He of whom these things are spoken belongs to another tribe, from which no man has [1]officiated at the altar.
14 For it is evident that [a]our Lord arose from [b]Judah, of which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning [1]priesthood.
15 And it is yet far more evident if, in the likeness of Melchizedek, there arises another priest 16 who has come, not according to the

6:13 God's promise to Abraham is found in Genesis 22:16–18.

6:19 "Behind the veil" refers to the Most Holy Place in the Old Testament tabernacle and the temple. It signifies God's presence.

6:20 The word "forerunner" was used to describe small boats that helped larger ships enter a harbor by carrying their anchor into a safe place and preparing the way for the larger ship to enter.

7:2 "Tenth part" comes from the Greek word dekatē, which is also translated "tithe." A tithe was rendered to the priest from the booty taken from enemies in battle.

7:3 Scripture gives no indication of Melchizedek's lineage. He was not an Israelite and therefore not a member of the priestly line of the Levites. Yet he was greater than Abraham, the father of the Israelites and of the Levites. Likewise, Jesus was not from the priestly line of the Levites but was superior to them.

7:11 Despite centuries of sacrifices being offered by the Levitical priests, people remained sinful. This clearly pointed to the need for a higher priesthood who could deal decisively with humanity's condition (Ps. 110:4).

law of a fleshly commandment, but according to the power of an endless life.
17 For [1]He testifies:

[a]"You are a priest forever
According to the order of Melchizedek."

18 For on the one hand there is an annulling of the former commandment because of [a]its weakness and unprofitableness,
19 for [a]the law made nothing [1]perfect; on the other hand, there is the bringing in of [b]a better hope, through which [c]we draw near to God.

Greatness of the New Priest

20 And inasmuch as He was not made priest without an oath
21 (for they have become priests without an oath, but He with an oath by Him who said to Him:

[a]"The LORD has sworn
And will not relent,
'You are a priest [1]forever
According to the order of Melchizedek'"),

22 by so much more Jesus has become a [1]surety of a [a]better covenant.
23 Also there were many priests, because they were prevented by death from continuing.
24 But He, because He continues forever, has an unchangeable priesthood.
25 Therefore He is also [a]able to save [1]to the uttermost those who come to God through Him, since He always lives [b]to make intercession for them.

ENCOUNTER Note — Heb. 7:25

Constant Intercession

We will face temptations and difficult circumstances. At times our strength may fail and our faith may waiver, but we have this hope: Christ our high priest forever intercedes for us with the Father. He is victorious and intends to bring us victory as well.

26 For such a High Priest was fitting for us, [a]who is holy, [1]harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, [b]and has become higher than the heavens;
27 who does not need daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifices, first for His [a]own sins and then for the people's, for this He did once for all when He offered up Himself.
28 For the law appoints as high priests men who have weakness, but the word of the oath, which came after the law, appoints the Son who has been perfected forever.

The New Priestly Service

8 Now this is the main point of the things we are saying: We have such a High Priest, [a]who is seated at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens,
2 a Minister of [a]the [1]sanctuary and of [b]the true tabernacle which the Lord erected, and not man.
3 For [a]every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices. Therefore [b]it is necessary that this One also have something to offer.
4 For if He were on earth, He would not be a priest, since there are priests who offer the gifts according to the law;
5 who serve [a]the copy and [b]shadow of the heavenly things, as Moses was divinely instructed when he was about to make the tabernacle. For He said, [c]"See that you make all things according to the pattern shown you on the mountain."
6 But now [a]He has obtained a more excellent ministry, inasmuch as He is also Mediator of a [b]better covenant, which was established on better promises.

WORD Study — COVENANT

Heb. 8:6 The word "covenant" comes from the Greek word diathēkē, and signifies an agreement, disposition, testament, or contract between two parties. God's covenant relationship with His people Israel was based on the promises exchanged between Him and them. The new covenant relationship with God, open to all, is based on Christ's atoning work of salvation.

A New Covenant

7 For if that [a]first covenant had been faultless, then no place would have been sought for a second.
8 Because finding fault with them, He says: [a]"Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will make a

7:24 "Unchangeable" does not mean Christ's priesthood is passed down through the generations but that Christ continually serves as priest Himself.

8:1 "Majesty" is a reference to God and His holy presence. Christ's work is finished. He is seated. On the basis of what He has already accomplished perfectly, He has constant access to His Father and He receives everything He asks for on our behalf.

8:6 "More excellent" signifies "surpassing," or "a different kind."

10 "For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the [a]LORD: I will put My laws in their mind and write them on their hearts; and [b]I will be their God, and they shall be My people.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Heb. 8:10

Written on Our Hearts

God's offer of salvation through Christ is not to give us a religion to follow but to transform us to be like Christ. God is not satisfied with outward religious activity. He wants our hearts and minds to be devoted to Him.

11 [a]"None of them shall teach his neighbor, and none his brother, saying, 'Know the [b]LORD,' for all shall know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them.
12 "For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, [a]and their sins [1]and their lawless deeds I will remember no more."
13 [a]In that He says, "A new covenant," He has made the first obsolete. Now what is becoming obsolete and growing old is ready to vanish away.

The Earthly Sanctuary

9 Then indeed, even the first covenant had ordinances of divine service and [a]the earthly sanctuary.
2 For a tabernacle was prepared: the first part, in which was the lampstand, the table, and the showbread, which is called the [1]sanctuary;
3 [a]and behind the second veil, the part of the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of All,
4 which had the [a]golden censer and [b]the ark of the covenant overlaid on all sides with gold, in which were [c]the golden pot that had the manna, [d]Aaron's rod that budded, and [e]the tablets of the covenant;
5 and [a]above it were the cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat. Of these things we cannot now speak in detail.

Limitations of the Earthly Service

6 Now when these things had been thus prepared, [a]the priests always went into the first part of the tabernacle, performing the services.
7 But into the second part the high priest went alone [a]once a year, not without blood, which he offered for [b]himself and for the people's sins committed in ignorance;
8 the Holy Spirit indicating this, that [a]the way into the Holiest of All was not yet made manifest while the first tabernacle was still standing.
9 It was symbolic for the present time in which both gifts and sacrifices are offered [a]which cannot make him who performed the service perfect in regard to the conscience—
10 concerned only with [a]foods and drinks, [b]various [1]washings, [c]and fleshly ordinances imposed until the time of reformation.

The Heavenly Sanctuary

11 But Christ came as High Priest of [a]the good things [1]to come, with the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made with hands, that is, not of this creation.
12 Not [a]with the blood of goats and calves, but [b]with His own blood He entered the Most Holy Place [c]once for all, [d]having obtained eternal redemption.
13 For if [a]the blood of bulls and goats and [b]the ashes of a heifer, sprinkling the unclean, [1]sanctifies for the [2]purifying of the flesh,
14 how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without [1]spot to God, [a]cleanse your conscience from [b]dead works [c]to serve the living God?
15 And for this reason [a]He is the Mediator of the new covenant, by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions under the first covenant, that [b]those who are called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance.

The Mediator's Death Necessary

16 For where there is a testament, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator.

8:13 In A.D. 70 the Roman general Titus and his army would destroy the temple in Jerusalem and bring to an end the sacrificial system upon which the old covenant had been based.

9:6 The priests would daily enter the sanctuary to burn incense on the altar and trim the lamps (Ex. 30:7, 8). Once a week they would replace the showbread (Lev. 24:5–8).

9:8 Under the old covenant, no one could enter God's presence but the high priest, and he only once a year on the Day of Atonement. Clearly the old covenant did not yet provide for full fellowship between God and His people.

9:16 "Testament" is the same word as covenant. Here it refers to a last will and testament. The benefactor must die before its provisions take effect.

ENCOUNTER Note Heb. 9:14

The Blood of Christ

Christ's death on the cross was perfect and complete. There is no sin or offense so great that His sacrifice cannot make you clean and holy. There is no condition so vile that His holy sacrifice cannot purify you.

17 For [a]a testament is in force after men are dead, since it has no power at all while the testator lives.
18 [a]Therefore not even the first covenant was dedicated without blood.
19 For when Moses had spoken every [1]precept to all the people according to the law, [a]he took the blood of calves and goats, [b]with water, scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people,
20 saying, [a]"This is the [b]blood of the covenant which God has commanded you."
21 Then likewise [a]he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry.
22 And according to the law almost all things are [1]purified with blood, and [a]without shedding of blood there is no [2]remission.

Greatness of Christ's Sacrifice

23 Therefore it was necessary that [a]the copies of the things in the heavens should be [1]purified with these, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.
24 For [a]Christ has not entered the holy places made with hands, which are [1]copies of [b]the true, but into heaven itself, now [c]to appear in the presence of God for us;
25 not that He should offer Himself often, as [a]the high priest enters the Most Holy Place every year with blood of another—
26 He then would have had to suffer often since the foundation of the world; but now, once at the end of the ages, He has appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself.
27 [a]And as it is appointed for men to die once, [b]but after this the judgment,
28 so [a]Christ was [b]offered once to bear the sins [c]of many. To those who [d]eagerly wait for Him He will appear a second time, apart from sin, for salvation.

Animal Sacrifices Insufficient

10 For the law, having a [a]shadow of the good things to come, and not the very image of the things, [b]can never with these same sacrifices, which they offer continually year by year, make those who approach perfect.
2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? For the worshipers, once [1]purified, would have had no more consciousness of sins.
3 But in those sacrifices there is a reminder of sins every year.
4 For [a]it is not possible that the blood of bulls and goats could take away sins.

Christ's Death Fulfills God's Will

5 Therefore, when He came into the world, He said:

[a]"Sacrifice and offering You did not desire,
But a body You have prepared for Me.
6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin
You had no pleasure.
7 Then I said, 'Behold, I have come—
In the volume of the book it is written of Me—
To do Your will, O God.' "

8 Previously saying, "Sacrifice and offering, burnt offerings, and offerings for sin You did not desire, nor had pleasure in them" (which are offered according to the law),
9 then He said, "Behold, I have come to do Your will, [1]O God." He takes away the first that He may establish the second.
10 [a]By that will we have been [1]sanctified [b]through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

Christ's Death Perfects the Sanctified

11 And every priest stands [a]ministering daily and offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins.
12 [a]But this Man, after He had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down [b]at the right hand of God, 13 from that time waiting [a]till His enemies are made His footstool.

9:22 The word "almost" indicates there were a few rare instances where blood was not necessary to cleanse from sin (Lev. 5:11–13). However, these were exceptions (Lev. 17:11).

10:1 "Law" refers to the Mosaic law contained in the Pentateuch, which included moral, ceremonial, and civil regulations as given by God to Moses. Although the law addressed the people's sins, it did not change their hearts.

10:11 The Old Testament priests always stood in the temple because their work was never finished. This is a stark contrast to Christ's work which has been completed.

14 For by one offering He has perfected forever those who are being [1]sanctified.
15 But the Holy Spirit also witnesses to us; for after He had said before, 16 [a]"This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the LORD: I will put My laws into their hearts, and in their minds I will write them,"
17 then He adds, [a]"Their sins and their lawless deeds I will remember no more."
18 Now where there is [1]remission of these, there is no longer an offering for sin.

Hold Fast Your Confession

19 Therefore, brethren, having [a]boldness[1] to enter [b]the Holiest by the blood of Jesus,
20 by a new and [a]living way which He consecrated for us, through the veil, that is, His flesh, 21 and having a High Priest over the house of God,
22 let us [a]draw near with a true heart
[b]in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.
23 Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for [a]He who promised is faithful.
24 And let us consider one another in ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and approaching.

The Just Live by Faith

26 For [a]if we sin willfully [b]after we have there [c]no longer remains a sacrifice for 27 but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and [a]fiery indignation which will devour the adversaries.

Insulting the Spirit

Christ paid an incalculable price for our salvation. We will never know the anguish He endured so we might have unimpeded access to God. How tragic for us to treat lightly such a priceless gift. Our temerity insults Christ and mocks His sacrifice.

31 [a]It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.
32 But [a]recall the former days in which, after you were [1]illuminated, you endured a great struggle with sufferings:
33 partly while you were made [a]a spectacle both by reproaches and tribulations, and partly while [b]you became companions of those who were so treated;

WORD*Study* COMPANIONS

Heb. 10:33 "Companions" comes from the Greek word, koinōnos, which is most often translated as fellowship. It means to share together or commune, to partner with, and to be colaborers.

34 for you had compassion on [1]me [a]in my chains, and [b]joyfully accepted the plundering of your [2]goods, knowing that [c]you have a better and an enduring possession for yourselves [3]in heaven.
35 Therefore do not cast away your confidence, [a]which has great reward.
36 [a]For you have need of endurance, so that after you have done the will of God,
[b]you may receive the promise:

37 "For [a]yet a little while,
And [b]He[1] who is coming will come and will not [2]tarry.
38 Now [a]the[1] just shall live by faith;
But if anyone draws back,
My soul has no pleasure in him."

39 But we are not of those [a]who draw back to [1]perdition, but of those who [b]believe to the saving of the soul.

By Faith We Understand

11 Now faith is the [1]substance of things hoped for, the [2]evidence [a]of things not seen.
2 For by it the elders obtained a good testimony.
3 By faith we understand that [a]the [1]worlds were framed by the word of 11:1 "Substance" means essence or reality. "Evidence" means proof or conviction. Faith acts as if that which is hoped for is already a reality.

God, so that the things which are seen were not made of things which are visible.

Faith at the Dawn of History

4 By faith [a]Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts; and through it he being dead still [b]speaks.
5 By faith Enoch was taken away so that he did not see death, [a]"and was not found, because God had taken him"; for before he was taken he had this testimony, that he pleased God.
6 But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Heb. 11:6

Impossible

Regardless of what else you do for God, your life is not pleasing to Him if it is not characterized by faith. You will face situations where you must practice faith in order to live a life that glorifies Him.

7 By faith [a]Noah, being divinely warned of things not yet seen, moved with godly fear, [b]prepared an ark for the saving of his household, by which he condemned the world and became heir of [c]the righteousness which is according to faith.

Faithful Abraham

8 By faith [a]Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to the place which he would receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going.
9 By faith he dwelt in the land of promise as in a foreign country, [a]dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, [b]the heirs with him of the same promise;
10 for he waited for [a]the city which has foundations, [b]whose builder and maker is God.
11 By faith [a]Sarah herself also received strength to conceive seed, and [b]she[1] bore a child when she was past the age, because she judged Him [c]faithful who had promised.
12 Therefore from one man, and him as good as [a]dead, were born as many as the [b]stars of the sky in multitude—innumerable as the sand which is by the seashore.

The Heavenly Hope

13 These all died in faith, [a]not having received the [b]promises, but [c]having seen them afar off [1]were assured of them, embraced them and [d]confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.
14 For those who say such things [a]declare plainly that they seek a homeland.
15 And truly if they had called to mind [a]that country from which they had come out, they would have had opportunity to return.
16 But now they desire a better, that is, a heavenly country. Therefore God is not ashamed [a]to be called their God, for He has [b]prepared a city for them.

The Faith of the Patriarchs

17 By faith Abraham, [a]when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises offered up his only begotten son,
18 [1]of whom it was said, [a]"In Isaac your seed shall be called,"
19 concluding that God [a]was able to raise him up, even from the dead, from which he also received him in a figurative sense.
20 By faith [a]Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.
21 By faith Jacob, when he was dying, [a]blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and worshiped, leaning on the top of his staff.
22 By faith [a]Joseph, when he was dying, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel, and gave instructions concerning his bones.

The Faith of Moses

23 By faith [a]Moses, when he was born, was hidden three months by his parents, because they saw he was a beautiful child; and they were not afraid of the king's [b]command.
24 By faith [a]Moses, when he became of age, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter,
25 choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the [1]passing pleasures of sin,
26 esteeming [a]the [1]reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures [2]in Egypt; for he looked to the [b]reward.

11:8 Faith is seen in Abraham's life in that, although he did not know where he was going, he trusted the One who was telling him to go.

11:26 The anticipation of a reward is often cited in scripture as a reason for persevering in the faith (Matt. 5:10–12; 16:24–27; 1 Cor.3:12–15; 2 Cor. 4:16–18; 2 Tim. 2:11–13; 1 John 2:28; Rev. 22:12).

27 By faith [a]he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king; for he endured as seeing Him who is invisible.
28 By faith [a]he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, lest he who destroyed the firstborn should touch them.
29 By faith [a]they passed through the Red Sea as by dry land, whereas the Egyptians, attempting to do so, were drowned.

By Faith They Overcame

30 By faith [a]the walls of Jericho fell down after they were encircled for seven days.
31 By faith [a]the harlot Rahab did not perish with those who [1]did not believe, when [b]she had received the spies with peace.
32 And what more shall I say? For the time would fail me to tell of [a]Gideon and [b]Barak and [c]Samson and [d]Jephthah, also of [e]David and [f]Samuel and the prophets:
33 who through faith subdued kingdoms, worked righteousness, obtained promises, [a]stopped the mouths of lions,
34 [a]quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, became valiant in battle, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.
35 [a]Women received their dead raised to life again. Others were [b]tortured, not accepting deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Heb. 11:35

Faith

Faith is demonstrated through action. Sometimes faith results in incredible victory, healing, and miraculous deliverance. Other times it is expressed by confidence and peace in the presence of continued pain, suffering and rejection. Genuine faith perseveres in both trial and triumph.

36 Still others had trial of mockings and scourgings, yes, and [a]of chains and imprisonment.
37 [a]They were stoned, they were sawn in two, [1]were tempted, were slain with the sword. [b]They wandered about [c]in sheepskins and goatskins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented—
38 of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains, [a]in dens and caves of the earth.
39 And all these, [a]having obtained a good testimony through faith, did not receive the promise, 40 God having provided something better for us, that they should not be [a]made perfect apart from us.

The Race of Faith

12 Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, [a]let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and [b]let us run [c]with endurance the race that is set before us,
2 looking unto Jesus, the [1]author and [2]finisher of our faith, [a]who for the joy that was set before Him [b]endured the cross, despising the shame, and [c]has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

The Discipline of God

3 [a]For consider Him who endured such hostility from sinners against Himself, [b]lest you become weary and discouraged in your souls.
4 [a]You have not yet resisted to bloodshed, striving against sin.
5 And you have forgotten the exhortation which speaks to you as to sons:

> [a]"My son, do not despise the [1]chastening of the LORD,
> Nor be discouraged when you are rebuked by Him;
> 6 For [a]whom the LORD loves He chastens,
> And scourges every son whom He receives."

7 [a]If[1] you endure chastening, God deals with you as with sons; for what [b]son is there whom a father does not chasten?
8 But if you are without chastening, [a]of which all have become partakers, then you are illegitimate and not sons.
9 Furthermore, we have had human fathers who corrected us, and we paid them respect. Shall we not much more readily be in subjection to [a]the Father of spirits and live?
10 For they indeed for a few days chastened us as seemed best to them, but He 11:37 Zechariah was stoned (2 Chr. 24:20, 21). Jewish tradition said Isaiah was sawn in two. Urijah was killed by the sword (Jer. 26:20–23).

12:1 "Witnesses" does not imply the heroes of faith mentioned in chapter eleven are our spectators in heaven but that they are witnesses to the truth of the faith (Heb. 11:2). "Weight" refers to anything that hinders a runner.

12:2 "Looking" implies focusing on something or someone with trust.

12:8 In Roman society, illegitimate sons had no inheritance rights.

ENCOUNTER Note Heb. 12:7

Chastening

God loves you too much to leave you as you are. He will work in your life to cause you to resemble Christ. Don't misunderstand God's discipline in your life. It is not spiritual warfare of the enemy. It is not a sign that God has abandoned you. It is an indication that God loves you and He is determined for you to experience His very best.

for our profit, [a]that we may be partakers of His holiness.
11 Now no [1]chastening seems to be joyful for the present, but painful; nevertheless, afterward it yields [a]the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

WORD Study CHASTENING

Heb. 12:11 "Chastening" comes from the Greek word paideia, meaning correction, discipline, training, and nurturing, with the goal of improving one's character.

Renew Your Spiritual Vitality

12 Therefore [a]strengthen the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees,
13 and make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame may not be dislocated, but rather be healed.
14 [a]Pursue peace with all people, and holiness, [b]without which no one will see the Lord:
15 looking carefully lest anyone [a]fall short of the grace of God; lest any [b]root of bitterness springing up cause trouble, and by this many become defiled;
16 lest there be any [a]fornicator or [1]profane person like Esau, [b]who for one morsel of food sold his birthright.
17 For you know that afterward, when he wanted to inherit the blessing, he was [a]rejected, for he found no place for repentance, though he sought it diligently with tears.

The Glorious Company

18 For you have not come [1]to [a]the mountain that may be touched and that burned with fire, and to blackness and [2]darkness and tempest,
19 and the sound of a trumpet and the voice of words, so that those who heard it [a]begged that the word should not be spoken to them anymore.
20 (For they could not endure what was commanded: [a]"And if so much as a beast touches the mountain, it shall be stoned [1]or shot with an arrow."
21 And so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, [a]"I am exceedingly afraid and trembling.")
22 But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, to an innumerable company of angels,
23 to the [1]general assembly and church of [a]the firstborn [b]who are registered in heaven, to God [c]the Judge of all, to the spirits of just men [d]made perfect,
24 to Jesus [a]the Mediator of the new covenant, and to [b]the blood of sprinkling that speaks better things [c]than that of Abel.

Hear the Heavenly Voice

25 See that you do not refuse Him who speaks. For [a]if they did not escape who refused Him who spoke on earth, much more shall we not escape if we turn away from Him who speaks from heaven,
26 whose voice then shook the earth; but now He has promised, saying, [a]"Yet once more I [1]shake not only the earth, but also heaven."

ENCOUNTER Note Heb. 12:25, 26

Don't Refuse

It is foolhardy to hear God speak and yet refuse to obey. God's Word created the universe. It shakes mountains. It brings life. One day God's Word will bring judgment.

27 Now this, "Yet once more," indicates the [a]removal of those things that are being shaken, as of things that are made, that the things which cannot be shaken may remain.
28 Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us have grace, by which we [1]may [a]serve

12:22 Mount Zion originally referred to the Jebusite fortress on a hill between the Kidron and Tyropoeon valleys. It was the southeastern hill of Jerusalem, where King David built a citadel and palace. It was surrounded on three sides by deep valleys and was known as the stronghold of the City of David (also called Jerusalem, and the City of God). Zion can also refer to the temple itself (Jer. 31:6) as well as the heavenly city (Rev. 14:1).

12:23 "Firstborn" were the children who received a double inheritance (Deut. 21:17). In this verse it may imply that these are Christians who will receive a full inheritance of all Christ has provided for them in heaven.

12:24 Abel's blood cried out for satisfaction and justice (Gen. 4:10). Christ's blood proclaims salvation.

God acceptably with reverence and godly fear.
29 For [a]our God is a consuming fire.

Concluding Moral Directions

13 Let [a]brotherly love continue.
2 [a]Do not forget to entertain strangers, for by so doing [b]some have unwittingly entertained angels.
3 [a]Remember the prisoners as if chained with them—those who are mistreated—since you yourselves are in the body also.
4 [a]Marriage is honorable among all, and the bed undefiled; [b]but fornicators and adulterers God will judge.
5 Let your conduct be without covetousness; be content with such things as you have. For He Himself has said, [a]"I will never leave you nor forsake you."
6 So we may boldly say:

[a]"The LORD is my helper;
I will not fear.
What can man do to me?"

Concluding Religious Directions

7 Remember those who [1]rule over you, who have spoken the word of God to you, whose faith follow, considering the outcome of their conduct.
8 Jesus Christ is [a]the same yesterday, today, and forever.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Heb. 13:8

The Same

The way Jesus led His twelve disciples is the same way He will lead you. The love He expressed on the cross is the same love He extends to you. The power that raised Jesus from the dead is the same power available to you today. Count on the certainty that Christ is perfect. He will not change.

9 Do not be carried [1]about with various and strange doctrines. For it is good that the heart be established by grace, not with foods which have not profited those who have been occupied with them.
10 We have an altar from which those who serve the tabernacle have no right to eat.
11 For the bodies of those animals, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned outside the camp.
12 Therefore Jesus also, that He might [1]sanctify the people with His own blood, suffered outside the gate.
13 Therefore let us go forth to Him, outside the camp, bearing [a]His reproach.
14 For here we have no continuing city, but we seek the one to come.
15 [a]Therefore by Him let us continually offer [b]the sacrifice of praise to God, that is, [c]the fruit of our lips, [1]giving thanks to His name.
16 [a]But do not forget to do good and to share, for [b]with such sacrifices God is well pleased.
17 [a]Obey those who [1]rule over you, and be submissive, for [b]they watch out for your souls, as those who must give account. Let them do so with joy and not with grief, for that would be unprofitable for you.

Prayer Requested

18 [a]Pray for us; for we are confident that we have [b]a good conscience, in all things desiring to live honorably.
19 But I especially urge you to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

Benediction, Final Exhortation, Farewell

20 Now may [a]the God of peace [b]who brought up our Lord Jesus from the dead, [c]that great Shepherd of the sheep, [d]through the blood of the everlasting covenant, 21 make you [1]complete in every good work to do His will, [a]working in [2]you what is well pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

WORD*Study* COMPLETE

Heb. 13:21 "Make you complete" comes from the Greek word, katartizō, meaning to equip, to thoroughly complete, and to strengthen. It also carries with it the meaning of repairing or mending that which was broken.

12:29 God's zeal for us is described as a consuming fire (Deut. 4:24). Fire was used to consume burnt offerings, to purify precious metals, to lead God's people (Ex. 13:21), and to be an instrument for God's judgment and wrath (Gen. 19:28).

13:2 To "entertain strangers" refers to hospitality, which comes from the Greek word, philoxenia, meaning "love of strangers." In Old Testament times there were many nomads and few inns in which to stay. Hospitality was considered a sacred duty and only an evil person would deny it to someone (Lev. 19:33, 34; Deut. 10:18, 19).

13:5 The phrase "never forsake you" contains a double negative in the Greek. It could be translated, "I will never, never leave you."

13:12 The phrase "outside the gate" symbolized great disgrace because it meant being cut off from the community.

22 And I appeal to you, brethren, bear with the word of exhortation, for I have written to you in few words.
23 Know that our brother Timothy has been set free, with whom I shall see you if he comes shortly.
24 Greet all those who [1]rule over you, and all the saints. Those from Italy greet you.
25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Heb. 13:22

Be Teachable

God provides opportunities for growth and maturity in our faith, but we must be willing to accept the exhortation of His servants. An unteachable spirit prevents us from receiving beneficial correction from others and thus enslaves us to spiritual immaturity.

13:24 "Those from Italy" may indicate the author was writing from Italy. Or, it may imply people from Italy were with the author when this letter was written.

THE EPISTLE OF JAMES

INTRODUCTION

James, the brother of Jesus, who became the pastor of the Jerusalem church, is generally recognized as the author of this book. It is numbered among the General Epistles of the New Testament and was written sometime between A.D. 48 and James' martyrdom in A.D. 66 (prior to the destruction of Jerusalem in A.D. 70). Many scholars think this was the first book written in the New Testament. The Book of James has endured much criticism over the years by theologians, most notably Martin Luther, for its apparent contradictions of Paul's writing. However, any discrepancy is only imagined, as a close study clearly demonstrates theological agreement between James and Paul. James' practical way of sharing truths has given lasting spiritual guidance to believers who have allowed this book to impact their lives.

SIGNIFICANCE

In many ways, James is like Proverbs in that it offers practical, moral, and ethical instruction with simple, vivid illustrations. The focus is a call to righteous living. James offers suggestions on dealing with temptation, curbing the tongue, accessing the power of prayer, and demonstrating one's faith by doing acts of kindness. All of these themes are common among leaders intent on discipling others.

STRUCTURE

James can be outlined as follows:

The Test of Faith (1:1–27)
Faith Expressed (2:1–26)
Taming the Tongue (3:1–18)
Warnings Against Pride (4:1—5:12)
Power of Righteous Prayer (5:13–20)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH JAMES

James speaks plainly, presenting God's expectations for His people in easily understood terms. In many ways James reflects the Old Testament prophets who exposed the religious practices as empty traditions, and exhorted people to demonstrate compassion, love, and kindness to widows, orphans, and strangers. James presents a God who is involved in our day-to-day interests and who is pleased with even the simplest act of faith, particularly when they express love toward others.

Greeting to the Twelve Tribes

JAMES, [a]a bondservant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ,

To the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad:

Greetings.

WORD*Study* BONDSERVANT

James 1:1 "Bondservant" comes from the Greek word doulos, meaning a slave or attendant, and denotes one who has given up personal rights to become subservient to another person. It can also imply one who comes in the authority of or on behalf of his master. James did not identify himself as Jesus' earthly brother but as His bondservant. This was a favorite description of early Christians (Rom. 1:1; Gal. 1:10; Phil. 1:1; Jude 1).

Profiting from Trials

2 My brethren, [a]count it all joy [b]when you fall into various trials,
3 [a]knowing that the testing of your faith produces [1]patience.
4 But let patience have its perfect work, that you may be [1]perfect and complete, lacking nothing.
5 [a]If any of you lacks wisdom, [b]let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach, and [c]it will be given to him.
6 [a]But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea driven and tossed by the wind.
7 For let not that man suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord;
8 he is [a]a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

The Perspective of Rich and Poor

9 Let the lowly brother glory in his exaltation,
10 but the rich in his humiliation, because [a]as a flower of the field he will pass away.
11 For no sooner has the sun risen with a burning heat than it withers the grass; its flower falls, and its beautiful appearance perishes. So the rich man also will fade away in his pursuits.

Loving God Under Trials

12 [a]Blessed is the man who endures temptation; for when he has been approved, he will receive [b]the crown of life [c]which the Lord has promised to those who love Him.
13 Let no one say when he is tempted, "I am tempted by God"; for God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does He Himself tempt anyone.

ENCOUNTER*Note* James 1:13

Withstanding Temptation

God knows what is within our heart; we do not. He will allow us to undergo trials and temptations as a way of bringing to the surface those things in our lives that are impure or ungodly. When we repent of our sin and learn from our failures, we grow into Christian maturity.

14 But each one is tempted when he is drawn away by his own desires and enticed.
15 Then, [a]when desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, [b]brings forth death.
16 Do not be deceived, my beloved brethren.
17 [a]Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, [b]with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning.
18 [a]Of His own will He brought us forth by the [b]word of truth, [c]that we might be a kind of firstfruits of His creatures.

Qualities Needed in Trials

19 [1]So then, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, [a]slow to speak, [b]slow to wrath;
20 for the wrath of man does not produce the righteousness of God.

Doers—Not Hearers Only

21 Therefore [a]lay aside all filthiness and [1]overflow of wickedness, and re-

1:1 "Scattered" is from the Greek word diaspora, which means sowing or dispersing like seed. Throughout centuries of persecution and oppression, the Jewish people had been dispersed throughout the world. Here James was addressing Christians living outside of Judea.

1:3 "Testing," used here and in 1 Peter 1:7, refers to the process of making sure that precious metals are genuine and free of foreign substances.

1:5 In Hebrew thought, wisdom was the ability to apply godliness to everyday living. It was not merely "head knowledge," but the practical ability to do the righteous thing in every situation. This was not an inherent human ability but God's gift.

1:6 "Doubting" refers to being divided in one's mind or debating internally. It describes a state of uncertainty.

1:8 "Double minded" literally means "two-souled."

ceive with meekness the implanted word, [b]which is able to save your souls.
22 But [a]be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves.

ENCOUNTER*Note* James 1:22

Doing the Word

Knowledge without action is useless. The person who truly believes God's Word is not necessarily the one who studies it or who argues on its behalf, but the one who obeys it.

23 For [a]if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man observing his natural face in a mirror;
24 for he observes himself, goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was.
25 But [a]he who looks into the perfect law of liberty and continues in it, and is not a forgetful hearer but a doer of the work, [b]this one will be blessed in what he does.
26 If anyone [1]among you thinks he is religious, and [a]does not bridle his tongue but deceives his own heart, this one's religion is useless.
27 [a]Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: [b]to visit orphans and widows in their trouble, [c]and to keep oneself unspotted from the world.

Beware of Personal Favoritism

2 My brethren, do not hold the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, [a]the Lord of glory, with [b]partiality.
2 For if there should come into your assembly a man with gold rings, in [1]fine apparel, and there should also come in a poor man in [2]filthy clothes,
3 and you [1]pay attention to the one wearing the fine clothes and say to him, "You sit here in a good place," and say to the poor man, "You stand there," or, "Sit here at my footstool,"
4 have you not [1]shown partiality among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts?
5 Listen, my beloved brethren: [a]Has God not chosen the poor of this world to be [b]rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom [c]which He promised to those who love Him?
6 But [a]you have dishonored the poor man. Do not the rich oppress you [b]and drag you into the courts?

Spiritual Poverty

No amount of money or power can satisfy a destitute soul. God provides abundant richness in spirit to eliminate spiritual poverty for all those who believe. His unlimited resources can quench the hungry soul.

7 Do they not blaspheme that noble name by which you are [a]called?
8 If you really fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, [a]"You shall love your neighbor as yourself," you do well;
9 but if you [1]show partiality, you commit sin, and are convicted by the law as [a]transgressors.
10 For whoever shall keep the whole law, and yet [a]stumble in one point, [b]he is guilty of all.
11 For He who said, [a]"Do not commit adultery," also said, [b]"Do not murder." Now if you do not commit adultery, but you do murder, you have become a transgressor of the law.
12 So speak and so do as those who will be judged by [a]the law of liberty.
13 For [a]judgment is without mercy to the one who has shown [b]no [c]mercy. [d]Mercy triumphs over judgment.

Faith Without Works Is Dead

14 [a]What does it profit, my brethren, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can faith save him?
15 [a]If a brother or sister is naked and destitute of daily food,
16 and [a]one of you says to them, "Depart in peace, be warmed and filled," but you do not give them the things which are needed for the body, what does it profit?
17 Thus also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.
18 But someone will say, "You have faith, and I have works." [a]Show me your faith without [1]your works, [b]and I will show you my faith by [2]my works.
19 You believe that there is one God. You do well. Even the demons believe—and tremble!
20 But do you want to know, O foolish man, that faith without works is [1]dead?
21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works [a]when he offered Isaac his son on the altar?

2:10 You do not have to break all of God's laws to be a lawbreaker, just one.

2:19 This verse implies that demons believe the truth found in the sacred scripture known as the shema (Deut. 6:4), the heart of Hebrew theology: "The LORD our God, the LORD is one." The demons could be viewed in this sense as orthodox in their theology yet rebellious in terms of obedience.

22 Do you see [a]that faith was working together with his works, and by [b]works faith was made [1]perfect?
23 And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, [a]"Abraham believed God, and it was [1]accounted to him for righteousness." And he was called [b]the friend of God.
24 You see then that a man is justified by works, and not by faith only.
25 Likewise, [a]was not Rahab the harlot also justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out another way?
26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

ENCOUNTER Note — James 2:26

Dead Works

Almighty God's presence in our lives ought to make a noticeable and dramatic difference. If we continue to live self-centered, fearful, and defeated lives, we give compelling evidence that we continue to be spiritually dead.

The Untamable Tongue

3 My brethren, [a]let not many of you become teachers, [b]knowing that we shall receive a stricter judgment.

ENCOUNTER Note — James 3:1

Spiritual Accounting

The more God gives to you, the greater your responsibility of stewardship. To whom much is given, much is expected. If God has entrusted His spiritual truths or a leadership position to you, handle these carefully and reverently for you will one day give an account for them.

2 For [a]we all stumble in many things. [b]If anyone does not stumble in word, [c]he is a [1]perfect man, able also to bridle the whole body.
3 [1]Indeed, [a]we put bits in horses' mouths that they may obey us, and we turn their whole body.
4 Look also at ships: although they are so large and are driven by fierce winds, they are turned by a very small rudder wherever the pilot desires.
5 Even so [a]the tongue is a little member and [b]boasts great things. See how great a forest a little fire kindles!
6 And [a]the tongue is a fire, a world of [1]iniquity. The tongue is so set among our members that it [b]defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of [2]nature; and it is set on fire by [3]hell.
7 For every kind of beast and bird, of reptile and creature of the sea, is tamed and has been tamed by mankind.
8 But no man can tame the tongue. It is an unruly evil, [a]full of deadly poison.
9 With it we bless our God and Father, and with it we curse men, who have been made [a]in the [1]similitude of God.
10 Out of the same mouth proceed blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not to be so.
11 Does a spring send forth fresh water and bitter from the same opening?
12 Can a [a]fig tree, my brethren, bear olives, or a grapevine bear figs? [1]Thus no spring yields both salt water and fresh.

Heavenly Versus Demonic Wisdom

13 [a]Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show by good conduct that his works are done in the meekness of wisdom.
14 But if you have [a]bitter envy and [1]self-seeking in your hearts, [b]do not boast and lie against the truth.
15 [a]This wisdom does not descend from above, but is earthly, sensual, demonic.
16 For [a]where envy and self-seeking exist, confusion and every evil thing are there.
17 But [a]the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, [b]without partiality [c]and without hypocrisy.
18 [a]Now the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

Pride Promotes Strife

4 Where do [1]wars and fights come from among you? Do they not come from your desires for pleasure [a]that war in your members?

CHAPTER 4

1 [a]Rom. 7:23 [1]battles

2:23 Abraham was the only person in the Old Testament described as God's friend (2 Chr. 20:7; Is. 41:8). Moses spoke with God as a friend speaks to a friend (Ex. 33:11). In the New Testament Jesus called His disciples His friends if they did what He commanded them (John 15:14, 15).

2:25 The fact that James cites a Gentile harlot as an example of faith and righteousness demonstrates the dramatic result of placing one's faith in God and acting in obedience.

3:2 "Perfect" means mature.

3:8 The fact that no person can tame the tongue indicates that only the Holy Spirit can free us from sinful talk.

3:14 Testifying to the truth while the heart remains sinful is hypocrisy.

3:16 The word translated "self-seeking" can also involve intrigue or electioneering in which the goal is self-promotion.

ENCOUNTER*Note* James 3:17

Righteous Peace

To the world, God's wisdom seems foolish. To God, the world's wisdom is folly. One way leads to life, the other proceeds to death. There is always a choice when we face a challenge as to whose wisdom we will use. The answer reveals who is Lord in our life. The results confirm the difference.

2 You lust and do not have. You murder and covet and cannot obtain. You fight and [1]war. [2]Yet you do not have because you do not ask.
3 [a]You ask and do not receive, [b]because you ask amiss, that you may spend it on your pleasures.
4 [1]Adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that [a]friendship with the world is enmity with God? [b]Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.

ENCOUNTER*Note* James 4:4

Adulterers

God makes it clear that He wants us to love Him with all of our being. It is spiritual adultery to pursue the pleasures and values of this world while pledging our love for God.

5 Or do you think that the Scripture says in vain, [a]"The Spirit who dwells in us yearns jealously"?
6 But He gives more grace. Therefore He says:

Humility Cures Worldliness

7 Therefore submit to God. [a]Resist the devil and he will flee from you.

WORD*Study* SUBMIT

James 4:7 "Submit" come from the Greek hupotassō, meaning to subordinate to, obey, or become subject to another person. When done voluntarily in love, submission to others is an act of humility and service and is recognized as an act of obedience to Christ.

ENCOUNTER*Note* James 4:8

Draw Near

How encouraging to know that when we draw near to God He immediately responds to us! How do we draw near to God? We repent of our sin and purge our lives of unrighteousness.

Do Not Judge a Brother

11 [a]Do not speak evil of one another, brethren. He who speaks evil of a brother [b]and judges his brother, speaks evil of the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge.
12 There is one [1]Lawgiver, [a]who is able to save and to destroy. [b]Who[2] are you to judge [3]another?

Do Not Boast About Tomorrow

13 Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow [1]we will go to such and such a city, spend a year there, buy and sell, and make a profit";
14 whereas you do not know what will happen tomorrow. For what is your life? [a]It is even a vapor that appears for a little time and then vanishes away.
15 Instead you ought to say, [a]"If the Lord wills, we shall live and do this or that."
16 But now you boast in your arrogance. [a]All such boasting is evil.
17 Therefore, [a]to him who knows to do good and does not do it, to him it is sin.

Rich Oppressors Will Be Judged

5 Come now, you [a]rich, weep and howl for your miseries that are coming upon you!
2 Your [a]riches [1]are corrupted, and [b]your garments are moth-eaten.
3 Your gold and silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be a witness against

4:3 Prayers can remain unanswered when they are spoken with impure motives.

4:7 Christians are not commanded to bind Satan but rather to resist him. Only God can conquer Satan, but every believer can resist him.

4:14 James is not condemning those who make plans, but rather those who plan without God.

4:17 This is a sin of omission.

5:3 In the last days, money accumulated through the exploitation of others will be used as evidence to condemn us.

you and will eat your flesh like fire. [a]You have heaped up treasure in the last days.
4 Indeed [a]the wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you kept back by fraud, cry out; and [b]the cries of the reapers have reached the ears of the Lord of [1]Sabaoth.
5 You have lived on the earth in pleasure and [1]luxury; you have [2]fattened your hearts [3]as in a day of slaughter.
6 You have condemned, you have murdered the just; he does not resist you.

Be Patient and Persevering

7 Therefore be patient, brethren, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, waiting patiently for it until it receives the early and latter rain.
8 You also be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord [1]is at hand.
9 Do not [1]grumble against one another, brethren, lest you be [2]condemned. Behold, the Judge is standing at the door!
10 [a]My brethren, take the prophets, who spoke in the name of the Lord, as an example of suffering and [b]patience.
11 Indeed [a]we count them blessed who [b]endure. You have heard of [c]the perseverance of Job and seen [d]the end intended by the Lord—that [e]the Lord is very compassionate and merciful.
12 But above all, my brethren, [a]do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or with any other oath. But let your "Yes" be "Yes," and your "No," "No," lest you fall into [1]judgment.

Meeting Specific Needs

13 Is anyone among you suffering? Let him [a]pray. Is anyone cheerful? [b]Let him sing psalms.
14 Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, [a]anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord.
15 And the prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise him up. [a]And if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven.
16 [1]Confess your trespasses to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. [a]The effective, [2]fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much.

17 Elijah was a man [a]with a nature like ours, and [b]he prayed earnestly that it would not rain; and it did not rain on the land for three years and six months.
18 And he prayed [a]again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth produced its fruit.

Bring Back the Erring One

19 Brethren, if anyone among you wanders from the truth, and someone [a]turns him back, 20 let him know that he who turns a sinner from the error of his way [a]will save [1]a soul from death and [b]cover a multitude of sins.

Reflecting God's Word

When God speaks, it is pure truth, and whatever He promises will transpire. His character is revealed in what He says, and there is perfect consistency between His spoken word and His actions. As God's people, our speech and behavior should reflect our God.

ENCOUNTER*Note* James 5:16

Fervent Prayer

You do not have to be a spiritual giant before God answers your prayer. Yet God expects you to enter His presence with a keen sense of need for His involvement in your life. The prayers of a desperate sinner gain God's immediate attention.

5:4 "Lord of Sabaoth" can be translated "Lord of the Armies" or "Lord of Hosts." This name for God is especially used to describe His role as a deliverer of the oppressed (Is. 6:3; Rom. 9:29).

5:16 "Confess" can also mean to profess and to promise. It included open acknowledgment, full agreement, and acceptance of what was done and what is to come. Confessing in a public fashion served to provide personal cleansing and corporate instruction.

5:20 The "covering of sins" is an Old Testament expression for forgiveness (Ps. 32:1).

5:20 "Death" translates the Greek word thanatos, which also includes the concept of eternal punishment.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PETER

INTRODUCTION

Peter's authorship of this epistle is generally accepted on both internal and external evidence. The early church affirmed its authenticity and most scholars agree. The two major challenges to Peter's authorship come from its sophisticated Greek style, since it was written by an "uneducated and untrained" fisherman (Acts 4:13), and the letter's many similarities to Paul's teaching. However, Peter, by vocation, was a successful businessman in the bilingual region of Galilee. It is reasonable to assume he was fluent in Greek and Aramaic. Moreover, he may have used Silvanus as a secretary to polish his letter (1 Pet. 5:12). His affinity to Paul's doctrines is perhaps due to their friendship and discussions on the true nature of the gospel. Church tradition said this letter was written from Rome (a city referred to in code as "Babylon" among Christians) (5:13), during a time of growing persecution under Nero's bloody reign. Peter likely wrote it after Paul was martyred in A.D. 62 and before Nero was removed in A.D. 67. Also, Peter's admonition to obey government leaders was probably given before fierce persecution broke out after the burning of Rome was blamed on Christians in A.D. 64. These factors point to a writing date of A.D. 62–64. Peter wrote to mainly Jewish Christians in Asia Minor (1:1), though Gentile Christians were also included (1:18; 4:3, 4).

SIGNIFICANCE

Christians were under severe persecution when this letter was written. Tacitus, a second century Roman historian who disliked Christians, recorded that Nero burned Christians alive to light his gardens and fed them to wild animals for entertainment. Deadly persecution was a horrible reality for the early church. Peter wrote to encourage believers with the hope of an eternal inheritance (1:4–6). He urged them to follow Christ's example in suffering (3:18). If they were called to suffer on Christ's behalf, they could consider it a great honor (4:14, 16). He further encouraged them to return good for evil, bringing honor to God in their life or in their death. Justice would come at God's hand (4:5), Peter assured them, and heavenly reward is certain for Christians who endure injustice on earth. This is a powerful promise to believers of any generation: Remain obedient despite persecution and God will reward you according to your faithfulness.

STRUCTURE

Peter packs a lot of information into a short letter. After a brief salutation, he immediately brings a word of encouragement to this tormented group of Christians. He assures them of their eternal inheritance and the source of their salvation, the precious blood of Christ. Next, he moves into an exhortation to live holy lives, both individually and corporately in the church as God's people. He gives practical instruction on how to respond to persecution with holy living in the community, in the workplace, and in marriage. Peter includes special instruction for integrity within the community of faith. The letter ends with customary final greetings. First Peter can be outlined as follows:

Introduction (1:1)
Encouragement to Believers (1:2–25)
Holy Living
- Called to Holiness (2:1–12)
- Practical Application of Holiness (2:13—3:22)
- Significance of Suffering (4:1–19)
- Love as a Guide (5:1–11)

Conclusion (5:12–14)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH 1 PETER

The transformation in Peter's life is remarkable, a magnificent example of God's grace.

The man who denied the Lord to a servant girl (Matt. 26:69–72; Mark 14:66–70; Luke 22:56, 57; John 18:17) later stood before the religious elite and in the power of the Holy Spirit proclaimed the gospel with tremendous courage (Acts 4:8–12). Just as Jesus transformed Peter so He might use him to evangelize the world, so He must change each of us. Peter's life was forever altered when he died to self, was made alive in Christ and was filled with the Spirit. This letter portrays a mature Christian shortly before his death. Recall how the gospels described Peter, and find encouragement in seeing the person he became. Let Peter's inspired words challenge you to live with confidence and boldness for the sake of Christ. There is no room for complaining about injustice in life; we live to honor God in all circumstances, certain of our eternal reward. Turn your focus from life's hardships and instead live with a view to eternity.

Greeting to the Elect Pilgrims

CHAPTER 1

PETER, an apostle of Jesus Christ,

To the [1]pilgrims [a]of the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,
2 [a]elect [b]according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, [c]in sanctification of the Spirit, for [d]obedience and [e]sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ:

[f]Grace to you and peace be multiplied.

A Heavenly Inheritance

3 [a]Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who [b]according to His abundant mercy [c]has begotten us again to a living hope [d]through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,
4 to an inheritance [1]incorruptible and undefiled and that does not fade away, [a]reserved in heaven for you,
5 [a]who are kept by the power of God through faith for salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.
6 [a]In this you greatly rejoice, though now [b]for a little while, if need be, [c]you have been [1]grieved by various trials,
7 that [a]the genuineness of your faith, being much more precious than gold that perishes, though [b]it is tested by fire,

CHARACTER*Study* — PETER — 1 Pet. 1:1

Peter is one of the most beloved characters in the Bible. He was born Simon Barjona (Barjona means "son of Jona") and followed his father's occupation as a fisherman. He and his brother Andrew (John 1:40) were partners with James and John, the sons of Zebedee (Luke 5:10). Apparently they ran a successful business with hired servants. Peter lived in Bethsaida and later in a large house in Capernaum with his mother-in-law. It was Jesus who called him Peter, or Cephas in Aramaic, meaning "rock" or "stone," the name by which he is best known (Matt. 16:18; John 1:42). Peter and his brother were disciples of John the Baptist when Jesus called them. Peter quickly became a leader among the band of twelve.

Peter was a devoted disciple of Christ, leaving everything to follow Him (Matt. 19:27). He had a heart of ready obedience (Luke 5:5), a remarkable faith (Matt. 14:28, 29), and a depth of spiritual insight beyond that of his contemporaries (Matt. 16:16). But even with all these qualities, he struggled with "self." With great confidence he proclaimed his ultimate allegiance to Christ unto death, but the Lord knew Peter would soon deny Him to a servant girl (Luke 22:33, 34). His cowardly denial of Christ was devastating and humiliating, but Christ shaped the newly humble Peter into a courageous and compassionate leader of the early church. He performed miracles, carried the gospel to the Gentiles through Cornelius, wrote two inspired letters which are included in the Bible, and eventually died as a martyr in Rome. Legend claims Peter felt unworthy to be crucified like His Lord and begged his executioner to crucify him upside down.

Like Peter, you may be an earnest, devoted believer in whom the power of the flesh is still strong. Peter's life demonstrates that anyone can find forgiveness, be filled with the Spirit, and make a contribution to God's kingdom.

1:1 "Pilgrims of the Dispersion" or the "Diaspora," was a term for Jewish people residing outside Palestine.

1:2 Election was a concept previously reserved for God's chosen people, the Jews. Peter used it here for all people who believe in Jesus.

1:3 "Begotten us" means God has given a new and spiritual life that enables believers to live in a different dimension of reality beyond natural capacity.

1:7 Precious metals were melted in a furnace to separate impurities and to leave the purer metal. Peter likens this purification process to the testing of faith by persecution. This analogy is also used in the Old Testament (Job 23:10; Ps. 12:6; Prov. 17:3).

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Pet. 1:3

A Sure Thing

Christian rewards are prepared but not yet fully received. Current blessings are but a foretaste of what is still to come. Those born into God's family have a hope that will not disappoint, for their inheritance is ensured by almighty God.

[c]may be found to praise, honor, and glory at the revelation of Jesus Christ,
8 [a]whom having not [1]seen you love. [b]Though now you do not see Him, yet believing, you rejoice with joy inexpressible and full of glory,
9 receiving the end of your faith—the salvation of your souls.
10 Of this salvation the prophets have inquired and searched carefully, who prophesied of the grace that would come to you,
11 searching what, or what manner of time, [a]the Spirit of Christ who was in them was indicating when He testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ and the glories that would follow.
12 To them it was revealed that, not to themselves, but to [1]us they were ministering the things which now have been reported to you through those who have preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven—things which [a]angels desire to look into.

Living Before God Our Father

13 Therefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and rest your hope fully upon the grace that is to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ;
14 as obedient children, not [a]conforming yourselves to the former lusts, as in your ignorance;
15 [a]but as He who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, 16 because it is written, [a]"Be holy, for I am holy."
17 And if you call on the Father, who [a]without partiality judges according to each one's work, conduct yourselves throughout the time of your [1]stay here in fear;
18 knowing that you were not redeemed with [1]corruptible things, like silver or gold, from your aimless conduct received by tradition from your fathers,

WORD*Study* HOLY

1 Pet. 1:15 The Greek word hagios, translated "holy," has a long history. Its meaning developed over time, especially as it came to be used for the one true God. The old Greek word from which it originated denoted a sense of awe. It came to be used of gods and religious practices, settling into its mature form in the Hellenistic period. Used for the God of the Hebrews in the New Testament, the word holy took on a deeper meaning that could only be used to describe God and that which belongs to Him. Holiness speaks to God's nature, His elemental characteristic from which all else emanates. It embraces eternity, glory, and power, and evokes awe, reverence, and fear. It speaks to the majesty and mystery of God that is totally above all creation. A secondary implication speaks of God's perfection; since He is absolutely pure, He must cleanse or consume that which enters His presence. Created things or beings can only be holy in a derivative sense as they relate to God. Believers are called to be holy; to belong wholly to God and to reflect His nature through the power of the Holy Spirit. The essence of holiness is the dynamic expression of the divine in our daily lives. We fulfill God's command to be holy when we obey His will and live consecrated lives that reveal His moral character.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Pet. 1:16

Holy unto Him

Never tolerate, justify, or excuse that which draws you away from God. God did not send His beloved Son to die for your happiness, prosperity, or health, but for your holiness. He paid an awful price that you might be one with Him.

19 but [a]with the precious blood of Christ, [b]as of a lamb without blemish and without spot.
20 [a]He indeed was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was [1]manifest [b]in these last times for you
21 who through Him believe in God, [a]who raised Him from the dead and

19 [a]Acts 20:28 [b]Ex. 12:5; Is. 53:7
20 [a]Rom. 3:25 [b]Gal. 4:4 [1]revealed
21 [a]Acts 2:24

1:13 Men often wore long robes and would tuck them into their belts so they could move freely and quickly. This is what it meant to "gird up the loins."

1:19 A "lamb without blemish" recalls the Israelites' redemption from slavery in Egypt and the blood of the Passover lamb (Ex. 12:3–6). Old Testament sacrifices were "types," symbols foreshadowing the coming of Christ, God's ultimate Passover Lamb (1 Cor. 5:7).

[b]gave Him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

The Enduring Word

22 Since you [a]have purified your souls in obeying the truth [1]through the Spirit in [2]sincere [b]love of the brethren, love one another fervently with a pure heart,
23 [a]having been born again, not of [1]corruptible seed but [2]incorruptible, [b]through the word of God which lives and abides [3]forever, 24 because

[a]"All flesh is as grass,
And all [1]the glory of man as the flower of the grass.
The grass withers,
And its flower falls away,
25 [a]But the [1]word of the LORD endures forever."

[a]Now this is the word which by the gospel was preached to you.
2 Therefore, [a]laying aside all malice, all deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and all evil speaking,
2 [a]as newborn babes, desire the pure [b]milk of the word, that you may grow [1]thereby,
3 if indeed you have [a]tasted that the Lord is gracious.

The Chosen Stone and His Chosen People

4 Coming to Him as to a living stone, [a]rejected indeed by men, but chosen by God and precious,
5 you also, as living stones, are being built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.
6 Therefore it is also contained in the Scripture,

[a]"Behold, I lay in Zion
A chief cornerstone, elect, precious,
And he who believes on Him will by no means be put to shame."

7 Therefore, to you who believe, He is precious; but to those who [1]are disobedient,

[a]"The stone which the builders rejected
Has become the chief cornerstone,"

8 and

[a]"A stone of stumbling
And a rock of offense."

[b]They stumble, being disobedient to the word, [c]to which they also were appointed.
9 But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, His own special people, that you may proclaim the praises of Him who called you out of [a]darkness into His marvelous light;

ENCOUNTER Note — 1 Pet. 2:9

Entering the Priesthood

Your calling supersedes your vocation. All Christians, regardless of chosen careers, have been called to serve as priests unto God with direct access to His presence. Wherever God places you, you represent God to people of the world and you intercede before God on their behalf. Be free from the self-centered preoccupations of life. Serve according to your calling and impact eternity.

10 [a]who once were not a people but are now the people of God, who had not obtained mercy but now have obtained mercy.

Living Before the World

11 Beloved, I beg you as sojourners and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts [a]which war against the soul,
12 [a]having your conduct honorable among the Gentiles, that when they speak against you as evildoers, [b]they may, by your good works which they observe, glorify God in the day of visitation.

Submission to Government

13 [a]Therefore submit yourselves to every [1]ordinance of man for the Lord's sake, whether to the king as supreme,
14 or to governors, as to those who are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers and for the praise of those who do good.

[1] institution

1:22 The Old Testament purity laws allowed people to purge themselves from defilement through ceremonial washing. Believers are cleansed through obedience to the truth.

2:2 "Desire" is not casual; it is a deep longing.

2:4, 5 Jesus is the "living stone," the "cornerstone" of the new temple. This spiritual residence is not made of cold hard stones, but of living beings; believers make up the church.

2:12 The exact phrase "in the day of visitation" is not used elsewhere in the Bible. Some have viewed it as an allusion to God's judgment (Is. 10:3), but it is more likely a reference to the offer of salvation (Luke 19:44) as people respond to the witness of good works among believers.

2:13 "The king" is probably a direct reference to the Roman emperor, who was the supreme earthly king in the Mediterranean.

2:14 "Governors" included legates who governed imperial provinces, and proconsuls who governed senatorial provinces. They were commissioned by the emperor and were expected to administer justice throughout the land.

15 For this is the will of God, that by doing good you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men—
16 [a]as free, yet not [b]using liberty as a cloak for [1]vice, but as bondservants of God.
17 Honor all people. Love the brotherhood. Fear [a]God. Honor the king.

Submission to Masters

18 [a]Servants, be submissive to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the harsh.
19 For this is [a]commendable, if because of conscience toward God one endures grief, suffering wrongfully.
20 For [a]what credit is it if, when you are beaten for your faults, you take it patiently? But when you do good and suffer, if you take it patiently, this is commendable before God.
21 For [a]to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for [1]us, [b]leaving [2]us an example, that you should follow His steps:

22 "Who[a] committed no sin,
Nor was deceit found in His mouth";

23 [a]who, when He was reviled, did not revile in return; when He suffered, He did not threaten, but [b]committed Himself to Him who judges righteously;
24 [a]who Himself bore our sins in His own body on the tree, [b]that we, having died to sins, might live for righteousness—[c]by whose [1]stripes you were healed.
25 For [a]you were like sheep going astray, but have now returned [b]to the Shepherd and [1]Overseer of your souls.

Submission to Husbands

3 Wives, likewise, be [a]submissive to your own husbands, that even if some do not obey the word, [b]they, without a word, may [c]be won by the conduct of their wives,
2 [a]when they observe your chaste conduct accompanied by fear.
3 [a]Do not let your adornment be merely outward—arranging the hair, wearing gold, or putting on fine apparel—
4 rather let it be [a]the hidden person of the heart, with the [1]incorruptible beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is very precious in the sight of God.
5 For in this manner, in former times, the holy women who trusted in God also adorned themselves, being submissive to their own husbands,
6 as Sarah obeyed Abraham, [a]calling him lord, whose daughters you are if you do good and are not afraid with any terror.

A Word to Husbands

7 [a]Husbands, likewise, dwell with them with understanding, giving honor to the wife, [b]as to the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life, [c]that your prayers may not be hindered.

Called to Blessing

8 Finally, all of you be of one mind, having compassion for one another; love as brothers, be tenderhearted, be [1]courteous;
9 [a]not returning evil for evil or reviling for reviling, but on the contrary [b]blessing, knowing that you were called to this, [c]that you may inherit a blessing.
10 For

[a]"He who would love life
And see good days,
[b]Let him [1]refrain his tongue from evil,
And his lips from speaking deceit.
11 Let him [a]turn away from evil and do good;
[b]Let him seek peace and pursue it.
12 For the eyes of the LORD are on the righteous,
[a]And His ears are open to their prayers;
But the face of the LORD is against those who do evil."

ENCOUNTER Note — 1 Pet. 2:25

Shepherd of Our Soul

The Good Shepherd feeds, protects, and watches over your soul. To walk away from Him is to leave your soul hungry, vulnerable to the evil one, and alone. Remain in Him that your soul may be refreshed.

2:18 Peter is not addressing the issue of slavery, but is encouraging those in that situation to live lives honoring to God (Eph. 6:5–8; Col. 3:22–25; 1 Tim. 6:1, 2; Titus 2:9, 10). No ancient slave war had been successful and abolition was not a practical reality at the time. Legally, slaves were viewed as property and were treated as such. Peter elevates the value of slaves by identifying them with Christ, quoting Isaiah 53:9 in reference to the suffering servant (1 Pet. 2:21, 22).

2:25 "Sheep going astray" was a common image of Israel wandering from God (Jer. 50:6; Ezek. 34:6).

3:3 Peter does not condemn women who care for their outward appearance, but he urges them to be more concerned with their inner beauty, which produces a character honoring to God.

3:7 Peter's statement that husbands and wives are "heirs together of the grace of life" was countercultural. In God's view, a man who dishonors his wife hinders his prayers.

3:8 Mutual consideration in all relationships is proper, for all are created in the image of God (Gen. 1:27).

Suffering for Right and Wrong

13 [a]And who is he who will harm you if you become followers of what is good?
14 [a]But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you are blessed. [b]"And do not be afraid of their threats, nor be troubled."
15 But [1]sanctify [2]the Lord God in your hearts, and always [a]be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the [b]hope that is in you, with meekness and fear;

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Pet. 3:15

Speak the Truth

Holy living must be accompanied by sanctified speech. The world may see God's salvation by your good works, but they will not understand the way of salvation until they hear the gospel.

16 [a]having a good conscience, that when they defame you as evildoers, those who revile your good conduct in Christ may be ashamed.
17 For it is better, if it is the will of God, to suffer for doing good than for doing evil.

Christ's Suffering and Ours

18 For Christ also suffered once for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring [1]us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive by the Spirit,
19 by whom also He went and preached to the spirits in prison,
20 who formerly were disobedient, [1]when once the Divine longsuffering waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water.
21 [a]There is also an antitype which now saves us—baptism [b](not the removal of the filth of the flesh, [c]but the answer of a good conscience toward God), through the resurrection of Jesus Christ,
22 who has gone into heaven and [a]is at the right hand of God, [b]angels and authorities and powers having been made subject to Him.

4 Therefore, since Christ suffered [1]for us in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same mind, for he who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin,
2 that he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh for the lusts of men, [a]but for the will of God.
3 For we have spent enough of our past [1]lifetime in doing the will of the Gentiles—when we walked in lewdness, lusts, drunkenness, revelries, drinking parties, and abominable idolatries.
4 In regard to these, they think it strange that you do not run with them in the same flood of dissipation, speaking evil of you.
5 They will give an account to Him who is ready [a]to judge the living and the dead.
6 For this reason [a]the gospel was preached also to those who are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but [b]live according to God in the spirit.

Serving for God's Glory

7 But [a]the end of all things is at hand; therefore be serious and watchful in your prayers.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 Pet. 4:7

Watch and Pray

Prayer is your life; take it seriously. The times are evil and temptation lies in wait. Diligently seek the Lord, and He will guide your life in paths of righteousness.

8 And above all things have fervent love for one another, for [a]"love will cover a multitude of sins."
9 [a]Be hospitable to one another [b]without grumbling.
10 [a]As each one has received a gift, minister it to one another, [b]as good stewards of [c]the manifold grace of God.

10 [a]Rom. 12: 6–8 [b]1 Cor. 4:1, 2 [c][1 Cor. 12:4]

3:19 Much discussion centers around the meaning of these verses, primarily because there is ambiguity in the phrase "spirits in prison." The main debate surrounds three issues: (1) Who were the spirits in prison? The Greek words could refer to unbelievers who have died, Old Testament believers who died, or even fallen angels (evil spirits). 2) What did Jesus preach? Did He preach a second chance of salvation, did He proclaim the completion of salvation to those who were waiting, or did He announce final condemnation to those who would be punished? (3) When did Jesus preach? Did He speak in the days of Noah through Noah himself, in the time between His crucifixion and resurrection, or after His resurrection? While many commentaries address these issues, suffice it to say that Jesus claimed victory over sin, death, and hell, and the impact of the resurrection is felt for all time, past and present. It is appointed for everyone once to die, and then to face judgment for the deeds done in the body (Heb. 9:27).

3:21 There is double symbolism in this passage. The flood symbolizes baptism; baptism symbolizes salvation through faith in Christ.

4:3 Nothing on Peter's list of ungodly behavior was considered immoral in the Greco-Roman world. When Christians chose not to participate in such activity, they were labeled antisocial. Their separation from worldly behavior caused the emperor Nero to put many Christians to death on charges of being "haters of humanity."

4:7 Jewish tradition taught that the end of the age would be preceded by great tribulation (Dan. 12:1, 2).

4:9 "Hospitality" often referred to taking in travelers for two or three days.

11 [a]If anyone speaks, let him speak as the [1]oracles of God. If anyone ministers, let him do it as with the ability which God supplies, that [b]in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belong the glory and the [2]dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Suffering for God's Glory

12 Beloved, do not think it strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened to you;
13 but rejoice [a]to the extent that you partake of Christ's sufferings, that [b]when His glory is revealed, you may also be glad with exceeding joy.
14 If you are [1]reproached for the name of Christ, [a]blessed are you, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you. [2]On their part He is blasphemed, [b]but on your part He is glorified.
15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, a thief, an evildoer, or as a [1]busybody in other people's matters.
16 Yet if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in this [1]matter.

Suffering for Righteousness

Suffering is common to all people. We have the choice of suffering as a result of our sin and rebellion, or suffering as a result of righteousness. The former is at the hand of God and the latter is in the hand of God.

17 For the time has come [a]for judgment to begin at the house of God; and if it begins with us first, [b]what will be the end of those who do not obey the gospel of God?
18 Now

> [a]"If the righteous one is scarcely saved,
> Where will the ungodly and the sinner appear?"

19 Therefore let those who suffer according to the will of God [a]commit their souls to Him in doing good, as to a faithful Creator.

WORD*Study* SUFFER

1 Pet. 4:15 The Greek word paschō, translated "to suffer" originally meant "to experience something from the outside," whether good or bad. But over time it lost the positive sense and came to be used solely for unpleasant experiences where a person endured unjust punishment, abuse, threats, insults, or discrimination at the hands of someone else. The word is used forty-two times in the New Testament, mostly to describe Jesus' suffering on the cross and the persecution of His followers. Interestingly, Paul only used it seven times, while Peter uses it eight times in First Peter alone. Peter suggests that to endure unjust suffering for the sake of Christ is to follow His perfect example. While unbelievers may seem to have good fortune on earth, they will suffer for eternity. Believers, however, may suffer on earth but their reward will be everlasting life.

Shepherd the Flock

CHAPTER 5

5 The elders who are among you I exhort, I who am a fellow elder and a [a]witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the [b]glory that will be revealed:
2 [a]Shepherd the flock of God which is among you, serving as overseers, [b]not by compulsion but [1]willingly, [c]not for dishonest gain but eagerly;
3 nor as [a]being [1]lords over [b]those entrusted to you, but [c]being examples to the flock;
4 and when [a]the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive [b]the crown of glory that does not fade away.

Submit to God, Resist the Devil

5 Likewise you younger people, submit yourselves to your elders. Yes, [a]all of you be submissive to one another, and be clothed with humility, for 4:15 A "busybody" is a person who pries into other people's affairs, giving unwanted and ill-timed advice. Surprisingly, Peter lists such a person with murderers, thieves, and evildoers. Causing strife and division kills the spirit of a church.

4:17 "Judgment" does not always imply final condemnation, but is in some cases evaluation of life which gives occasion for repentance and adjustment to God. "The house of God" is not a building, but the people of God.

5:1 Elders, or church leaders, were in constant danger of persecution, imprisonment, or even death during the time Peter wrote this letter.

5:2 Peter quotes Jesus when he instructs church leaders not to act as "lords" over the people (Matt. 20:25–28). Instead, Peter uses the image of the shepherd to lead God's people. Jesus' last instructions to Peter included "feed my sheep" . . . "tend my sheep" . . . "feed my sheep" . . . "follow me" (John 21:15–19).

Casting Our Cares

God wants all our cares, not just the ones that overwhelm us. Humility recognizes our absolute need for God and allows us to release everything into His hands.

7 casting all your care upon Him, for He cares for you.
8 Be [1]sober, be [2]vigilant; [3]because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour.

11 [a]To Him be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Farewell and Peace

12 By [a]Silvanus, our faithful brother as I consider him, I have written to you briefly, exhorting and testifying [b]that this is the true grace of God in which you stand.

ELISHA HOFFMAN

Elisha Hoffman served for thirty-three years as the pastor of Benton Harbor Presbyterian Church in Pennsylvania, about a century ago. He often ministered to people suffering heartache and loss. One of Hoffman's favorite verses was 1 Peter 5:7, which was based on Psalm 55:22. These verses offered divine comfort to those in distress. One day he was consoling an anguished woman, and when she cried out, "What shall I do?" his immediate response was, "You cannot do better than to take all your sorrows to Jesus. You must tell Jesus." The woman immediately realized her need and exclaimed, "That's it! I must tell Jesus!" As Hoffman returned to his home, he reflected on the woman's response. He later wrote the hymn that contains the following chorus: "I must tell Jesus! I must tell Jesus! I cannot bear my burdens alone; I must tell Jesus! I must tell Jesus! Jesus can help me, Jesus alone."

5:8 "Devil" literally means "slanderer."

5:9 We are instructed to flee temptation (1 Cor. 6:18; 2 Tim. 2:22), but we are to stand firm (Eph. 6:11–14) and resist the evil one (James 4:7).

5:12 Silvanus is the Roman form of the name Silas. He became Paul's traveling companion on the second missionary journey after Barnabas left (Acts 15:36–40). Peter used him as an amanuensis, or scribe, to write this letter.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PETER

INTRODUCTION

Peter identifies himself as the author (1:1) and states he was an eyewitness to Jesus' transfiguration (1:16, 17; see Matt. 17:1–13). While Peter's authorship is generally accepted by modern scholars, it has not always been so. Second Peter was one of the most controversial books to be included in the canon. Although its existence was confirmed early, some questioned its authenticity because its literary style differed from 1 Peter, as did the subject matter. Another factor was its similarity to the Book of Jude. Nevertheless, by the fourth century A.D., church councils had fully accepted it as an authentic letter by Peter. The differences in style are accounted for by the fact that Silvanus probably penned 1 Peter as the apostle's assistant (1 Pet. 5:12). Second Peter has no such reference, implying that Peter wrote it himself or he used the services of another scribe. Even with the differences, no other biblical book is as similar to 1 Peter. Any variances in vocabulary are likely due to different subject matter, which is not surprising. Regarding the similarity to Jude, the three prominent opinions are that Jude borrowed from Peter, Peter borrowed from Jude, or both borrowed from an early Christian tract to combat false teachers who were ravaging the churches of Asia Minor. None of these options preclude Peter's authorship of 2 Peter, as using other sources in such fashion was not uncommon.

Second Peter was probably written from Rome near the end of Peter's life (2 Pet. 1:12–15), and after he wrote 1 Peter. This puts the date sometime between A.D. 64 and 67 when he was martyred at the hand of Nero. He wrote to "those who have obtained like precious faith with us" (1:1) and appears to have known his audience personally. Peter's first letter was addressed to "the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia" (1 Pet. 1:1). This indicates a mixed group of Jewish and Gentile believers throughout Asia Minor. Besides being a general letter, this epistle bears signs of being a "testament" letter, giving final instructions from a dying father or leader.

SIGNIFICANCE

Second Peter provided pastoral encouragement to believers who were experiencing persecution from without and heretical teaching from within. It differs in style from 1 Peter, reading more like a short sermon than a letter. Its message is timeless and has greatly encouraged the church through the ages. Sanctification of believers is a prominent theme in the letter, finding its motivation in Christ's imminent return. Peter challenges believers to grow in their faith, he warns against false doctrines, and he encourages preparation for the day of the Lord. He also stresses patience; God is in control and will bring all things to completion in His own time.

STRUCTURE

Peter begins his address with a salutation identifying himself as the author and stating his credentials. The rest of the book falls into three distinct sections. The first is an exhortation to godly living. Peter identifies our resources to live such a life, describes specific characteristics of holy living, and emphasizes his authority to give such instruction. The second section warns against false teachers. After a stern warning, Peter pronounces doom against those who lead God's people astray, and he exposes their immorality and empty teaching. The third section expresses hope for Christ's return. Peter establishes the certainty of the day of the Lord and the ethical implications of His return. The book ends with a short concluding salutation. Second Peter can be outlined as follows:

Introduction (1:1, 2)
Godly Living (1:3–21)

Warning Against False Teachers (2:1–22)
Hope for Christ's Return (3:1–18a)
Conclusion (3:18b)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH 2 PETER

One factor the early church considered when including 2 Peter in the canon was the way it encouraged churches. Through this epistle, God will minister to your life as well. He will speak through a mature and experienced apostle, one of Jesus' closest earthly friends. Knowing Peter would fail Him during the crucifixion event, Jesus nevertheless gave him this charge: "When you have returned to Me, strengthen your brethren" (Luke 22:32). The impulsive, sometimes foolhardy fisherman was continually getting into trouble. Then he was transformed by the power of Christ's resurrection and was filled with the Holy Spirit. He saw clearly and spoke with wisdom from years of faithful service. You will encounter God through the voice of this wise saint. You will be challenged to walk faithfully in any circumstance, growing in the virtues of Christian character. You will receive a spiritual foundation, motivation for service, and warnings about sin's pitfalls. Allow the hope of eternity to impact your heart and keep you close to the One who will return for those who have been faithful.

CHAPTER 1

Greeting the Faithful

SIMON Peter, a bondservant and [a]apostle of Jesus Christ,

To those who have [1]obtained [b]like[2] precious faith with us by the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ:

2 [a]Grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord,
3 as His [a]divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him [b]who called us by glory and virtue,
4 [a]by which have been given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, that through these you may be [b]partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the [1]corruption that is in the world through lust.

Indwelling Influence

To justify ungodly behavior is to reject God's grace and to call Him a liar. He has given us everything we need for life and godliness. His promises are realized by faith, as we receive God's presence in our mortal flesh through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit.

Fruitful Growth in the Faith

5 But also for this very reason, [a]giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue, to virtue [b]knowledge, 6 to knowledge self-control, to self-control [1]perseverance, to perseverance godliness,

HISTORICAL Encounter — 2 Pet. 1:4

JOHN WESLEY

John Wesley was troubled and seeking peace for his soul. He was in London on May 24, 1738. At five o'clock in the morning, he opened his Bible to 2 Peter 1:4, and read of God's surpassing promises that a person could partake of God's divine nature. It stirred his heart that God had indeed provided a way for someone to enjoy fellowship with Him. As Wesley prepared to depart for the day, he opened his Bible again and read, "Thou art not far from the kingdom of God." By that evening Wesley had accepted Christ as his Savior. He would go on to found the Methodist movement and to be used mightily by God to bring revival to his land.

1:1 By claiming the title "apostle," Peter identified himself as one with spiritual authority to instruct the church. "God and Savior" is a clear statement of Christ's divinity. This would offend unbelieving Jews and challenge the false teaching of the Gnostics, who believed that spiritual things had to be separated from the flesh, which is inherently evil.

1:4 "Partakers of the divine nature" is a carefully worded phrase in the contexts of monotheistic Judaism and a polytheistic culture that taught the possibility of full divinization. Christians do not become gods, but receive the Spirit of God within (John 14:16–17; Rom. 8:11; 2 Tim. 1:14; 1 John 4:13).

1:5 Identifying this progression of virtues (vv. 5–7) was a standard literary form in Jewish, Greek, and Roman texts. Such lists were called "sorites."

ENCOUNTER Note 2 Pet. 1:7

A Loving Nature

God does not love us because we are lovable, but because it is His nature to do so. Allow His divine nature to work in your life so you love others the way God does and so the world can see Him through you.

7 to godliness brotherly kindness, and [a]to brotherly kindness love.
8 For if these things are yours and abound, you will be neither [1]barren [a]nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.
9 For he who lacks these things is [a]shortsighted, even to blindness, and has forgotten that he was cleansed from his old sins.
10 Therefore, brethren, be even more diligent [a]to make your call and election sure, for if you do these things you will never stumble;
11 for so an entrance will be supplied to you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Peter's Approaching Death

12 For this reason [a]I will not be negligent to remind you always of these things, [b]though you know and are established in the present truth.
13 Yes, I think it is right, [a]as long as I am in this [1]tent, [b]to stir you up by reminding you,
14 [a]knowing that shortly I must [1]put off my tent, just as [b]our Lord Jesus Christ showed me.
15 Moreover I will be careful to ensure that you always have a reminder of these things after my [1]decease.

The Trustworthy Prophetic Word

16 For we did not follow [a]cunningly devised fables when we made known to you the [b]power and [c]coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were [d]eyewitnesses of His majesty.
17 For He received from God the Father honor and glory when such a voice came to Him from the Excellent Glory: [a]"This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."
18 And we heard this voice which came from heaven when we were with Him on [a]the holy mountain.
19 [1]And so we have the prophetic word confirmed, which you do well to heed as a [a]light that shines in a dark place, [b]until [c]the day dawns and the morning star rises in your [d]hearts;
20 knowing this first, that [a]no prophecy of Scripture is of any private [1]interpretation,
21 for [a]prophecy never came by the will of man, [b]but [1]holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit.

Destructive Doctrines

2 But there were also false prophets among the people, even as there will be [a]false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Lord who bought them, and bring on themselves swift destruction.
2 And many will follow their destructive ways, because of whom the way of truth will be blasphemed.
3 By covetousness they will exploit you with deceptive words; for a long time their judgment has not been idle, and their destruction [1]does not slumber.

Doom of False Teachers

4 For if God did not spare the angels who sinned, but cast them down to [1]hell and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved for judgment;
5 and did not spare the ancient world, but saved Noah, one of eight people, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood on the world of the ungodly;
6 and turning the cities of [a]Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them to destruction, making them an example to those who afterward would live ungodly;

1:10 The terms "call" and "election" were used only for Israelites among Jewish writers. Peter used these terms to describe all those who are in Jesus Christ.

1:13 "Tent" or "tabernacle" is a common image to describe the temporary nature of the physical body in which a soul dwells (2 Cor. 5:1, 4).

1:14 Peter's suggestion that his death is near is reflective of "testaments" or "final instructions" given by fathers or leaders before they died. Peter urged his readers to pay close attention to his last words on earth.

1:16 Eyewitnesses were required in order to establish an account historically or legally.

1:18 "Holy mountain" is most likely a subtle allusion paralleling Peter's witness of God's glory on the Mount of Transfiguration (Matt. 17:1–13) with God's glory as seen by Moses on Mount Sinai.

2:3 False teachers undermined the work of philosophers and prophets alike, for they gave nothing of value and typically charged fees or begged money for their deceptive "services."

2:4 "Cast them down to hell" is from the Greek word tartaroō, describing a place not only holding the wicked fallen angels but characterized by the most severe tortures imaginable.

2:6 Prophets often used "Sodom and Gomorrah" to symbolize ultimate degeneration, warning succeeding generations of doom for any who imitated them (Deut 32:32; Is 1:9–10; Jer 23:14; Zeph 2:9).

was oppressed by the filthy conduct of the wicked

9 then [a]the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptations and to reserve the unjust under punishment for the day of judgment,
10 and especially [a]those who walk according to the flesh in the lust of uncleanness and despise authority. [b]They are presumptuous, self-willed. They are not afraid to speak evil of [1]dignitaries,
11 whereas [a]angels, who are greater in power and might, do not bring a reviling accusation against them before the Lord.

ENCOUNTER Note — 2 Pet. 2:9–11

Just Rewards

All-knowing God rules the world with absolute justice. When He sees the godly, clothed in Christ's righteousness, He will deliver them into eternal life. When He sees the ungodly, barren in their unrighteousness, He will deliver them to eternal punishment.

Depravity of False Teachers

12 But these, [a]like natural brute beasts made to be caught and destroyed, speak evil of the things they do not understand, and will utterly perish in their own corruption,
13 [a]and will receive the wages of unrighteousness, as those who count it pleasure [b]to [1]carouse in the daytime. [c]They are spots and blemishes, [2]carousing in their own deceptions while [d]they feast with you,
14 having eyes full of [1]adultery and that cannot cease from sin, enticing unstable souls. [a]They have a heart trained in covetous practices, and are accursed children.
15 They have forsaken the right way and gone astray, following the way of [a]Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;
16 but he was rebuked for his iniquity: a dumb donkey speaking with a man's voice restrained the madness of the prophet.
17 [a]These are wells without water, [1]clouds carried by a tempest, for whom is reserved the blackness of darkness [2]forever.

Deceptions of False Teachers

18 For when they speak great swelling words of emptiness, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through lewdness, the ones who [1]have actually escaped from those who live in error.
19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are slaves of [1]corruption; [a]for by whom a person is overcome, by him also he is brought into [2]bondage.
20 For if, after they [a]have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are [b]again entangled in them and overcome, the latter end is worse for them than the beginning.
21 For [a]it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than having known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered to them.

ENCOUNTER Note — 2 Pet. 2:21

Grace: A Blessing or a Curse

God's revelation of His will is nothing less than an act of divine grace. We either receive God's gift and enjoy His blessings, or we reject it and suffer the consequences of life apart from God.

22 But it has happened to them according to the true proverb: [a]"A dog returns to his own vomit," and, "a sow, having washed, to her wallowing in the mire."

God's Promise Is Not Slack

2:14 "Enticing" is an image of catching something with bait.

2:15 "Balaam" was a dishonorable character who led the Israelites into cultic prostitution with the Midianites, bringing God's judgment on the land (Num. 22:5, 6; 25:1–9; Jude 11; Rev. 2:14). Balaam's actions, which deluded God's people, were considered more damaging than any foreign military attack.

2:16 Balaam's actions were supernaturally rebuked through his donkey, who spoke to him audibly (Num. 22:22–33), proving that even a lowly beast was wiser than foolish Balaam.

2:17 "Wells without water" were worse than useless for they promised something they could not deliver, deceiving those who longed for refreshment. Equally ineffective were clouds that produced no rain.

3:3 "Last days" refers to this present age.

4 and saying, "Where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of [a]creation."
5 For this they willfully forget: that [a]by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth [b]standing out of water and in the water,
6 [a]by which the world that then existed perished, being flooded with water.
7 But [a]the heavens and the earth which are now preserved by the same word, are reserved for [b]fire until the day of judgment and [1]perdition of ungodly men.
8 But, beloved, do not forget this one thing, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and [a]a thousand years as one day.
9 [a]The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness, but [b]is longsuffering toward [1]us, [c]not willing that any should perish but [d]that all should come to repentance.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 Pet. 3:9

Divine Patience

Never bemoan God's longsuffering toward the ungodly. Believers also test His loving patience.

The Day of the Lord

10 But [a]the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which [b]the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat; both the earth and the works that are in it will be [1]burned up.
11 Therefore, since all these things will be dissolved, what manner of persons

Eternity at Hand

Knowing the certainty of God's approaching judgment, how ought we to live? Eternal life brings an eternal perspective, a readiness to be found holy and an urgency to bring the gospel to those without hope.

WORD*Study* DILIGENT

2 Pet. 3:14 The Greek word spoudazō, translated "be diligent," also means "make haste" or "be zealous" (2 Tim. 4:9; Gal. 2:10; Eph. 4:3). Believers must never treat their spiritual life casually. Christian conduct is to be pursued with great effort, for we know the day of the Lord is fast approaching. Believers must endeavor to keep unity (Eph. 4:3), persevere to present themselves approved unto God (2 Tim. 2:15), seek carefully to enter God's rest (Heb. 4:11), and work to be found blameless (2 Pet. 3:14). Likewise, the apostle Paul urged believers to "work out your own salvation with fear and trembling" (Phil. 2:12).

15 and consider that [a]the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation—as also our beloved brother Paul, according to the wisdom given to him, has written to you, in them of these things, in which are some things hard to understand, which untaught and unstable people twist to their own destruction, as they do also the [b]rest of the Scriptures.

17 You therefore, beloved, [a]since you know this beforehand, [b]beware lest you also fall from your own steadfastness, being led away with the error of the wicked;
18 [a]but grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. [b]To Him be the glory both now and forever. Amen.

3:4 Downplaying future judgment always leads to moral apathy, which in turn leads to an immoral lifestyle. Jewish literature warned that those who denied the coming age of the Lord had no basis for morality, an accusation the Pharisees leveled against the Sadducees.

3:7 God promised never to destroy the earth by flood again (Gen. 9:15), but the prophets spoke of destruction by fire and the renewal of the earth (Is. 65:17; 66:15).

3:8 A "thousand years" indicates that God acts from eternity, not time.

3:10 "The day of the Lord" is an Old Testament phrase for the day of judgment when God settles all injustice and rewards the faithful (Is. 2:12; Joel 1:15; Amos 5:18–20).

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF JOHN

INTRODUCTION

The unnamed author of this letter wrote to an unspecified group of believers. First John and Hebrews are the only two New Testament letters that do not begin with a greeting and introduction of the author and recipients. Although the author does not directly identify himself, he does include his place among the apostles as an eyewitness to the life of Jesus, actually touching the "Word of life" (1 John 1:1). The authoritative manner of the author suggests he was an apostle. Throughout church history, the apostle John, the son of Zebedee (Mark 1:19, 20) has been universally accepted as the author of this letter, which was included as scripture and attested by many of the early church fathers. The writing style and vocabulary of 1 John closely resemble John's Gospel. The strong statements against "antichrist" (1 John 2:18), "liars" (2:22), and "children of the devil" (3:10) seem to fit Jesus' description of John as one of the "Sons of Thunder" (Mark 3:17).

The author is clearly familiar with the epistle's intended recipients. They may have lived in Asia Minor where John spent a great amount of time. The date of writing is difficult to pinpoint, but several factors provide clues. First, the tone suggests an older apostle talking to a younger generation. Second, Irenaeus suggested John lived in Ephesus, but there is no indication he and Timothy were there together. John, therefore, may have arrived after Timothy's departure. Third, 1 John includes arguments that seem to address gnostic teaching, which did not develop until the end of the first century. Finally, this epistle builds on thoughts John developed in his gospel. These factors combine to suggest a date around A.D. 85–95.

SIGNIFICANCE

John wrote to help a church struggling under the influence of gnostic teaching. This was a blend of Eastern mysticism and Greek dualism, the basic tenet being that spirit is good and matter is evil. The human body, being material, is therefore evil. Gnosticism claimed salvation led people to rise above evil through "knowledge" of the good. The impact of gnostic teaching upon Christianity was multifaceted, but it primarily undermined the nature of Jesus as God in the flesh. Gnostics proposed that either Jesus only "appeared" to have a body (Docetism), or the Spirit descended on the man Jesus at his baptism and left before His suffering and death (Cerinthianism). John, therefore, had a twofold purpose in writing this letter. First, he exposed the error of the false teachers (2:26). Second, he clarified the true gospel and helped Christians find assurance of their salvation (5:13). This book is rich with contemporary application. In defining the true gospel, John affirms Christ's humanity and divinity as well as His salvation.

STRUCTURE

First John reads more like a sermon than a letter. It does not include an introduction or formal greeting, but begins by certifying the incarnation. Then John presents three tests of authentic faith. John's purpose is to help Christians know they are saved by challenging them in three areas: obedience to God's law, love for God and His people, and correct belief concerning the person of Jesus Christ. Concurrently, John exposes the falsehood that threatens the church. He provides a clear test for genuine believers and gives encouragement to those who are indeed followers of Christ. John ends with an affirmation of the reliability of God's Word and confidence in believers' prayers to God. First John can be outlined as follows:

Statement of the Incarnation (1:1–3)
Genuine Faith and Fellowship with God
  Moral Implication of Fellowship (1:5–7)
  Sin Nature in Man (1:8, 9)

Man's Advocate (1:10—2:2)
First Test of Genuine Faith
Right Obedience (2:3–6)
Right Love (2:7–11)
Side Comment on Church and World (2:12–17)
Right Belief (2:18–27)
Second Test of Genuine Faith
Right Obedience (2:28—3:10)
Right Love (3:11–24)
Right Belief (4:1–6)
Third Test of Genuine Faith
Right Love (4:7–11)
Right Love and Belief (4:12–21)
Right Love, Belief, and Obedience (5:1–5)
Conclusion (5:6–21)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH 1 JOHN

The early church experienced persecution, opposition, and the dangerous infiltration of false doctrine. No generation since has escaped all of these trials. Therefore, John's assurance and his tests of true salvation are as timely as ever. As you study this book, be careful to apply its teachings personally to test your own faith and to affirm your salvation. Note the theme of love that runs through the entire letter. Ask the Lord to reveal your heart and to teach you to love as He loves. Delve into the book of 1 John and let God's Word change your life.

As you walk with the Lord, learn from Him, and see His activity, be sure to share the blessing. Others need to hear and know the goodness of God as well.

CHARACTER Study — JOHN — 1 John 1:4

John was a simple man who enjoyed a special relationship with Jesus. He was from Bethsaida in Galilee, the son of Zebedee and the younger brother of James. He and his brother followed their father's occupation as fishermen, working as partners with another set of brothers, Peter and Andrew (Luke 5:10). When Jesus called them to follow Him, they apparently left a successful business with several hired servants (Mark 1:16–20). John is noted for his special relationship with Jesus, not only as one of the twelve disciples, but as part of an intimate circle of friends, along with Peter and James (Matt. 17:1, 2; 26:37; Mark 5:37). John referred to himself as the disciple "whom Jesus loved" (John 19:26; 20:2; 21:7, 20). John was so dear to the Lord, Jesus entrusted to him with the care of His mother Mary (John 19:26–27). John was also the only disciple who did not endure martyrdom, but rather he was exiled to the island of Patmos (John 21:23; Rev. 1:9).

John and his brother were evidently vigorous and energetic men, earning the nickname "Boanerges," which meant "Sons of Thunder" (Mark 3:17). Their zeal for the Lord was such that they were ready to call down fire upon those who rejected Him (Luke 9:54). But the Lord eventually channeled John's enthusiasm into the powerful influence of love, to which John gives the strongest appeal in the New Testament (1 John 4:7–21).

1:1 The opening words clearly allude to the beginning of John's gospel. Although other philosophers spoke of the divine word, none envisioned the word becoming flesh. John clearly established the veracity of his witness, alongside many others who "heard . . . looked upon . . . and handled" the Word. "We" probably refers to the twelve apostles.

1:5 Many Jewish texts, especially the Dead Sea Scrolls, use light-dark imagery to contrast righteousness with sin (John 3:19–21).

[b]God is light and in Him is no darkness at all.
6 [a]If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth.

WORD*Study* FELLOWSHIP

1 John 1:6 The Greek word koinōnia, translated "fellowship," needs many English words to present its full meaning. When used for a person's relationship with God, it means people can have fellowship with Him, an intimate relationship that impacts every area of life. It also implies partnership with Him in His work. It expresses sharing between two parties, each one giving freely to the other. Furthermore, it relates to the stewardship people have over that which God entrusts to them. Koinōnia is the outflow of God's love in practical expression (1 Cor. 1:9; Eph. 3:9). The same word is used to describe the relationship between God's people. The manner in which God has shared His life with us is the same measure we are to love other people in the kingdom of God (1:7).

7 But if we [a]walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and [b]the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin.
8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.
9 If we [a]confess our sins, He is [b]faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to [c]cleanse us from all unrighteousness.
10 If we say that we have not sinned, we [a]make Him a liar, and His word is not in us.

Spiritual Perception

To be born again is to receive the Holy Spirit, through whom we gain perception to see what God sees. The Spirit reveals sin and righteousness so we can respond appropriately.

2 My little children, these things I write to you, so that you may not sin. And if anyone sins, [a]we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous.

FRANCES RIDLEY HAVERGAL

1 John 1:7

Frances Havergal was born December 14, 1836 to godly parents, her father serving as a minister in the Church of England. Frances was unusually devout as a young girl. By age twenty-two, she had memorized all four gospels, the Epistles, Revelation, Psalms and Isaiah. At thirty-seven, she reached a spiritual milestone. Despite her piety, she longed for a deeper walk with God. One day she was seized by the message of 1 John 1:7, "He cleanseth us from all sin." She was gripped by the liberating implication of the word "all." It moved her to realize the verb "cleanse" indicated a continual work of God. She realized God had provided the means for her to enjoy unimpeded fellowship with Him. Havergal went on to write many cherished hymns expressing her delight in God. "Like a River Glorious," "I Gave My Life for Thee" and "Take My Life" are examples of her consecrated work.

1:7 Water cleanses us physically, but the Old Testament taught that blood cleansed people spiritually (Lev. 8:15; 16:16–20; Heb. 9:21, 22).

2:1 "Advocate" means an intercessor or defense attorney.

2:2 Jesus is our propitiation, the means by which sinful humanity appeases the righteous wrath of God. See Romans 3:25.

2:3 John used two different Greek words that are translated "know" forty two times in this short epistle. One of the false teachings in the backdrop of John's thought was based upon special "knowledge" understood only by the elite. This heresy developed into what became known as Gnosticism.

2:5 Throughout Judaism, obedience demonstrated love for God (Deut. 6:5, 6). "Perfected" is the idea of maturity or completeness.

The Influence of God's Presence

God's presence is awe-inspiring; He dominates and influences all He touches. Is there evidence that He is in you and you are in Him?

ning. The old commandment is the word which you heard [2]from the beginning.
8 Again, [a]a new commandment I write to you, which thing is true in Him and in you, [b]because the darkness is passing away, and [c]the true light is already shining.
9 [a]He who says he is in the light, and hates his brother, is in darkness until now.
10 [a]He who loves his brother abides in the light, and [b]there is no cause for stumbling in him.
11 But he who [a]hates his brother is in darkness and [b]walks in darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

Their Spiritual State

12 I write to you, little children,
Because [a]your sins are forgiven you for His name's sake.
13 I write to you, fathers,
Because you have known Him who is [a]from the beginning.
I write to you, young men,
Because you have overcome the wicked one.
I write to you, little children,
Because you have [b]known the Father.
14 I have written to you, fathers,
Because you have known Him who is from the beginning.
I have written to you, young men,
Because [a]you are strong, and the word of God abides in you,
And you have overcome the wicked one.

Do Not Love the World

15 [a]Do not love the world or the things in the world. [b]If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.
16 For all that is in the world—the lust of the flesh, [a]the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—is not of the Father but is of the world.
17 And [a]the world is passing away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides forever.

Deceptions of the Last Hour

18 [a]Little children, [b]it is the last hour; and as you have heard that [c]the[1] Antichrist is coming, [d]even now many antichrists have come, by which we know [e]that it is the last hour.
19 [a]They went out from us, but they were not of us; for [b]if they had been of us, they would have continued with us; but they went out [c]that they might be made manifest, that none of them were of us.
20 But [a]you have an anointing [b]from the Holy One, and [c]you[1] know all things.
21 I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and that no lie is of the truth.
22 [a]Who is a liar but he who denies that [b]Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist who denies the Father and the Son.
23 [a]Whoever denies the Son does not have the [b]Father either; [c]he who acknowledges the Son has the Father also.

Let Truth Abide in You

24 Therefore let that abide in you [a]which you heard from the beginning. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, [b]you also will abide in the Son and in the Father.
25 [a]And this is the promise that He has promised us—eternal life.
26 These things I have written to you concerning those who try to [1]deceive you.
27 But the [a]anointing which you have received from Him abides in you, and [b]you do not need that anyone teach you; but as the same anointing [c]teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, you [1]will abide in Him.

2:12 By addressing fathers, young men and little children, John is not excluding women. He is following the language categories of his day, which were masculine.

2:18 John is the only biblical writer to use the word "Antichrist" (1 John 2:18, 22; 4:3). Jewish people generally envisioned an intensification of evil just prior to the "day of the Lord." Some also imagined that a particularly evil person would inflict great oppression. John argued there were already "many antichrists" among them. By definition, those who are "anti-Christ" are those who are "against Christ" or in some way opposed to Him.

2:19 The separatists shared in the believer's communion and privileges, but they were not true believers. Time reveals whose hearts truly belong to Christ.

2:20 In Old Testament times, people such as prophets or kings were anointed with oil to set them apart for a great task. John suggested that God has anointed believers for His work.

2:28 Judaism taught that the day of the Lord was to be greatly feared by those who were evil (Amos 5:18–20).

When He Appears

The Lord will return to gather those who have been born into the family of God. Do you have a family resemblance? Will you be prepared to face Him with assurance on that day?

3 Behold [a]what manner of love the Father has bestowed on us, that [b]we should be called children of [1]God! Therefore the world does not know [2]us, [c]because it did not know Him.
2 Beloved, [a]now we are children of God; and [b]it has not yet been revealed what we shall be, but we know that when He is revealed, [c]we shall be like Him, for [d]we shall see Him as He is.
3 [a]And everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure.

Sin and the Child of God

4 Whoever commits sin also commits lawlessness, and [a]sin is lawlessness.

ENCOUNTER Note — 1 John 3:4

Laws of Life

God has established eternal spiritual laws; they are life and death. If you follow them, you will abide in His presence and experience abundant life. If you break God's laws, they will break you.

5 And you know [a]that He was manifested [b]to take away our sins, and [c]in Him there is no sin.
6 Whoever abides in Him does not sin. Whoever sins has neither seen Him nor known Him.
7 Little children, let no one deceive you. He who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous.
8 [a]He who sins is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, [b]that He might destroy the works of the devil.
9 Whoever has been [a]born of God does not sin, for [b]His seed remains in him; and he cannot sin, because he has been born of God.

ENCOUNTER Note — 1 John 3:9

Born of God

God does not ask us to form a deeper resolve to put away our sin; He wants us to seek Him with our whole heart so we will not sin. Our efforts are not primarily toward holiness, but toward Him; He will sanctify us. Do you continue to strive after holiness to no avail, or has your relationship with holy God transformed your sinful life?

The Imperative of Love

10 In this the children of God and the children of the devil are manifest: Whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is he who does not love his brother.
11 For this is the message that you heard from the beginning, [a]that we should love one another,
12 not as [a]Cain who was of the wicked one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his works were evil and his brother's righteous.
13 Do not marvel, my brethren, if [a]the world hates you.
14 We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love [1]his brother abides in death.
15 [a]Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that [b]no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.

The Outworking of Love

16 [a]By this we know love, [b]because He laid down His life for us. And we also ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.
17 But [a]whoever has this world's goods, and sees his brother in need, and shuts up his heart from him, how does the love of God abide in him?
18 My little children, [a]let us not love in word or in tongue, but in deed and in truth.

18 [a]Ezek. 33:31
19 [a]John 18:37 [1]NU shall know

3:4 Greeks viewed sin as imperfection. Jews considered sin a transgression of God's law.

3:9 Judaism taught that children inherited their father's nature through his seed. Christians are to reflect the character of their heavenly Father (1 Pet. 1:23).

3:12 Murder of a brother was considered one of the most heinous crimes possible. John uses the word "brother" for a member of the Christian community.

3:18 "Word" and "deed" were often coupled together in ancient thought. Those long on words but short on deeds were considered hypocrites (Jer. 42:20, 21; Matt. 23:28; Luke 6:46).

of the truth, and shall [2]assure our hearts before Him.
20 [a]For if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and knows all things.
21 Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, [a]we have confidence toward God.
22 And [a]whatever we ask we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments [b]and do those things that are pleasing in His sight.
23 And this is His commandment: that we should believe on the name of His Son Jesus Christ [a]and love one another, as He gave [1]us commandment.

The Spirit of Truth and the Spirit of Error

24 Now [a]he who keeps His commandments [b]abides in Him, and He in him. And [c]by this we know that He abides in us, by the Spirit whom He has given us.

WORD*Study* ABIDE

1 John 3:24 The Greek word menō, translated "abide," means to remain or stay in one place. John uses this word twenty-three times in 1 John. When applied to God it stresses permanence and faithfulness. God makes a believer's life a temple in which He dwells through His Spirit (John 15:4–7; 1 John 4:12). To abide literally means to take up residence and live somewhere. To abide in God is to live in His presence and to take on His characteristics. His life becomes our life, for our life is hidden in Him. "Abiding" is the evidence of salvation.

4 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but [a]test the spirits, whether they are of God; because [b]many false prophets have gone out into the world.
2 By this you know the Spirit of God: [a]Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God,
3 and every spirit that does not confess [1]that Jesus [2]Christ has come in the flesh is not of God. And this is the spirit of the Antichrist, which you have heard was coming, and is now already in the world.
4 You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than [a]he who is in the world.

Knowing God Through Love

7 [a]Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God; and everyone who [b]loves is born of God and knows God.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 1 John 4:7

A Love Relationship

Broken relationships with God's people are symptomatic of a damaged relationship with God. Our love relationship with Him determines every other relationship we have.

8 He who does not love does not know God, for God is love.
9 [a]In this the love of God was manifested toward us, that God has sent His only begotten [b]Son into the world, that we might live through Him.
10 In this is love, [a]not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son [b]to be the propitiation for our sins.
11 Beloved, [a]if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

Seeing God Through Love

12 [a]No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God abides in us, and His love has been perfected in us.
13 [a]By this we know that we abide in Him, and He in us, because He has given us of His Spirit.
14 And [a]we have seen and testify that [b]the Father has sent the Son as Savior of the world.
15 [a]Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God.
16 And we have known and believed the love that God has for us. God is love, and [a]he who abides in love abides in God, and God [b]in him.

The Consummation of Love

17 Love has been perfected among us in this: that [a]we may have boldness in the day of judgment; because as He is, so are we in this world.

4:3 John does not deny the reality of spiritual inspiration among the false prophets, but holds that the spirit within them is not from God.

4:7 John uses the word "love" forty-three times, twenty-seven times in chapter four alone. He emphasizes that a Christian will take on the nature of the heavenly Father; God is love.

4:9 "Only begotten Son" is a phrase only used by John (John 1:18; 3:16, 18). Its emphasis is not birth order, but the uniqueness of Jesus. Although all believers are called children of God, there is only one Christ.

ENCOUNTER Note 1 John 4:16

Real Love

God does not love you because you are of use to Him, but because you are of value to Him. What motivates your love for Him?

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves torment. But he who fears has not been made perfect in love.
19 [a]We love [1]Him because He first loved us.

Obedience by Faith

20 [a]If someone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, [1]how can he love God [b]whom he has not seen?

ENCOUNTER Note 1 John 4:20

Can't Hide Love

The clearest evidence you are a child of God is that you love God's people. If you pull away, refuse to enter meaningful relationships, or are easily offended and angry, you have exposed a problem in your relationship to God. He is love and He will express Himself through you.

21 And [a]this commandment we have from Him: that he who loves God must love his brother also.

5 Whoever believes that [a]Jesus is the Christ is [b]born of God, and everyone who loves Him who begot also loves him who is begotten of Him.
2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and [a]keep His commandments.
3 [a]For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments. And [b]His commandments are not burdensome.
4 For [a]whatever is born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that [b]has overcome the world—[1]our faith.

ENCOUNTER Note 1 John 5:4

The Measure of Faith

The victorious Christian life is the Spirit's response to our faith. God gave us the gift of His Holy Spirit, and when we obey God's will, the Spirit's power is released in us. The strength to overcome is in direct proportion to our faith. We have a great deal more power available to us than we know.

5 Who is he who overcomes the world, but [a]he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

The Certainty of God's Witness

6 This is He who came [a]by water and blood—Jesus Christ; not only by water, but by water and blood. [b]And it is the Spirit who bears witness, because the Spirit is truth.
7 For there are three that bear witness [1]in heaven: the Father, [a]the Word, and the Holy Spirit; [b]and these three are one.
8 And there are three that bear witness on earth: [a]the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three agree as one.
9 If we receive [a]the witness of men, the witness of God is greater; [b]for this is the witness of [1]God which He has testified of His Son.
10 He who believes in the Son of God [a]has the witness in himself; he who does

HISTORICAL Encounter

DAVID BRAINERD

1 John 4:10

David Brainerd was a missionary to the American Indians during the eighteenth century. His early efforts at preaching on God's righteous wrath brought disappointing results. However, he discovered when he spoke of God's love the people were overcome with emotion and conviction. In one village he spoke on 1 John 4:10. Suddenly the entire village was seized with sorrow. The people feared they would somehow miss out on the divine love God was offering them. Brainerd noted: "It was surprising to see how their hearts seemed to be pierced with the tender and melting invitations of the gospel, when there was not a word of terror spoken to them." Jonathan Edwards later published Brainerd's journal and millions of people have since been blessed by Brainerd's ministry and legacy.

5:6 "Water and the blood" has been interpreted in many ways. Most scholars believe this refers to Jesus' baptism and death, thus refuting the false teaching that the Spirit descended on Him at His baptism but departed before His suffering and death.

5:7 Ancient commercial documents were often signed by witnesses to validate the transaction. The Old Testament also called for witnesses to validate legal issues between people (Deut. 17:6; 19:15).

not believe God [b]has made Him a liar, because he has not believed the testimony that God has given of His Son.
11 And this is the testimony: that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son.
12 [a]He who has the Son has [1]life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life.
13 These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life, [1]and that you may continue to believe in the name of the Son of God.

Confidence and Compassion in Prayer

14 Now this is the confidence that we have in Him, that [a]if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us.
15 And if we know that He hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we have asked of Him.
16 If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin which does not lead to death, he will ask, and [a]He will give him life for those who commit sin not leading to death. [b]There is sin leading to death. [c]I do not say that he should pray about that.

Enlightened Prayers

The blessing of a close relationship with God is the knowledge of our need. God is light, and in His presence we see clearly what is in our life and on His heart. Prayer is a response to His abiding presence, and it aligns us with His purposes.

Knowing the True—Rejecting the False

18 We know that [a]whoever is born of God does not sin; but he who has been born of God [b]keeps[1] [2]himself, and the wicked one does not touch him.
19 We know that we are of God, and [a]the whole world lies under the sway of the wicked one.
20 And we know that the [a]Son of God has come and [b]has given us an understanding, [c]that we may know Him who is true; and we are in Him who is true, in His Son Jesus Christ. [d]This is the true God [e]and eternal life.
21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

5:18 Judaism understood that Satan did not have freedom to act against a child of God without His permission (Job 1:11, 12; 2:3–6).

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF JOHN

INTRODUCTION

This letter gives evidence of the many challenges facing the early church. It was written by the apostle John, as attested by the early church fathers. The style and content of 1 and 2 John are very similar, suggesting the same author. John probably used the title "elder" as a term of affection rather than "apostle," since his authority was not in question at this late date (1). He wrote from Ephesus shortly after his first letter, between A.D. 85 and 95. See the introduction to 1 John for more details.

John wrote to the "elect lady and her children." The identity of the recipient has been greatly debated, resulting in no firm conclusion and two plausible explanations. John could have written to a woman who is unnamed but given the title "elect lady." This legitimately addresses the details of her children walking in truth (4), the greeting from her sister's children (13), and the plural references in the book (6, 8, 10, 12). The other view is to identify the "elect lady" figuratively as a church. It is appropriate to refer to a church using a feminine word (Eph. 5:22–27, 31, 32; Rev. 21:2, 9; 22:17). This view would explain why John did not address anyone by name in this epistle, which he does in 3 John. In this case, the children would be the members of the congregation and the greeting from her sister's children would refer to another church. All other plural references would be members of the congregation as well. Proof either way is inconclusive, but the message is the same: Guard against inaccurate teaching and proclaim the truth.

SIGNIFICANCE

Fraudulent teachers continued to plague the early church. The most significant issue, which is addressed here, was a heresy that disputed the nature of Christ (see the introduction to 1 John for information in Gnosticism). Traveling evangelists and teachers were making inroads to spread their false doctrine through the hospitality granted them by church members. John wrote to encourage the church to use discernment and to shun those who promoted heresy. The nature of the letter demonstrates John's love for the churches and his concern for their well-being.

STRUCTURE

This letter is brief, probably limited to the size of one page of papyrus. This, however, was the normal length of ancient letters, unlike most of the New Testament epistles. John begins with a greeting followed by a brief commendation. He then gives an exhortation concerning heretical teachers, and ends with a promise to visit. Second John can be outlined as follows:

Introduction (1–3)
Encouragement (4)
Remain True to God's Word (5–11)
Conclusion (12, 13)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH 2 JOHN

This letter both cautions and comforts believers. The Holy Spirit will alert you to the dangers that surround the church and the unorthodox views that undermine the faith. You will be challenged to ground your faith in the revealed Word of God. Take courage; the struggle against heresy is universal. Just as God sustained the early church, He will uphold you.

Greeting the Elect Lady

THE Elder,

To the [1]elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth, and not only I, but also all those who have known [a]the truth,
2 because of the truth which abides in us and will be with us forever:

3 [a]Grace, mercy, and peace will be with [1]you from God the Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

Walk in Christ's Commandments

4 I [a]rejoiced greatly that I have found some of your children walking in truth, as we received commandment from the Father.
5 And now I plead with you, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment to you, but that which we have had from the beginning: [a]that we love one another.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 John 5

Love Is Always Right

God's commandments do not change; they are established eternally for every generation and culture on earth. True love obeys God's commandments; God's greatest commandment is to love.

6 [a]This is love, that we walk according to His commandments. This is the commandment, that [b]as you have heard from the beginning, you should walk in it.

Beware of Antichrist Deceivers

9 [a]Whoever [1]transgresses and does not abide in the doctrine of Christ does not have God. He who abides in the doctrine of Christ has both the Father and the Son.

ENCOUNTER*Note* 2 John 9

At Home with God

Eternal life involves the abiding relationship between the Father and the Son. If you abide in one, you dwell with both.

WORD*Study* DOCTRINE

2 John 9 The Greek word didachē, translated "doctrine," meant teaching or instruction as fact. The emphasis was not on a specific truth given by a teacher, but the teacher's entire line of thought. When applied to Jesus, doctrine referred to His whole teaching and not just parts of it (Matt. 7:28). John urged his readers to be faithful to all Christ taught, so they would prove to be His disciples and would abide in God.

10 If anyone comes to you and [a]does not bring this doctrine, do not receive him into your house nor greet him;
11 for he who greets him shares in his evil deeds.

John's Farewell Greeting

12 [a]Having many things to write to you, I did not wish to do so with paper and ink; but I hope to come to you and speak face to face, [b]that our joy may be full.
13 [a]The children of your elect sister greet you. Amen.

1 Elders were respected in Jewish communities because of their age and accompanying wisdom. John assumes this simple title rather than claiming authority through his apostleship. This may reflect John's advanced age at the time of writing. "Elect lady" could refer to a prominent woman in the church or to the church itself (see the introduction to this book).

5 God's commandment to love is age-old (Lev. 19:18), but filled with meaning by Christ (John 13:34, 35). John's exhortation to "love one another" is a reprimand to those who had separated themselves from the church.

7 John is the only biblical writer to use the word "antichrist." It means "against Christ" (1 John 2:18). Those who were against Christ had left the church and were spreading false doctrine.

10 Hospitality was customarily shown to travelers, a practice especially critical for early Christian missionaries.

12 Paper was made of papyrus and rolled up like a scroll. A pen was a reed with a pointed end. Ink was a compound made of charcoal, vegetable gum, and water. By this date, John would probably have been the only remaining apostle. He would have been sought after by many churches and would have had to rely upon correspondence to guide the numerous churches seeking his counsel.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN

INTRODUCTION

This letter gives evidence of the many challenges Christians, especially traveling missionaries, faced in the early church. It was written by the apostle John, as attested by the early church fathers. Its style and content are consistent with John's other works, suggesting his authorship. John probably used the title "elder" (1) as a term of affection rather than "apostle," since his authority was not in question at this late date. He wrote from Ephesus shortly after 1 John and about the same time as 2 John, between A.D. 85 and 95. See the introduction to 1 John for more details.

John wrote to Gaius, of whom we have no other record, but he was apparently a trusted and influential leader in a church in Asia Minor. John also dealt with the inhospitable actions of another leader named Diotrephes.

SIGNIFICANCE

John gives a glimpse of the issues faced in the early churches as the gospel was spreading. He exhibits great care for those touched by his ministry. The main issue at hand, however, was securing hospitality for traveling missionaries, Demetrius in particular. Fellowship was crucial among believers who were serving the Lord. This letter acted as a personal recommendation, as well as a word of instruction to Gaius.

STRUCTURE

John begins with a greeting followed by a commendation of Gaius. John then condemns the actions of Diotrephes and promises to deal with him upon his arrival. John offers a word of recommendation for Demetrius, and ends with good wishes and a promise to visit. Third John can be outlined as follows:

Introduction (1, 2)
Commendation of Gaius (3–8)
Condemnation of Diotrephes (9–11)
Recommendation for Demetrius (12)
Conclusion (13, 14)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH 3 JOHN

As you study this short letter, note how important hospitality is in the church. God wants believers to show kindness to everyone, and those in His family share a special kindred bond. As Christians, we are partners in serving the Lord. We rely on one another for encouragement and practical support.

Greeting to Gaius

THE Elder,

To the beloved Gaius, [a]whom I love in truth:

2 Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be in health, just as your soul prospers.
3 For I [a]rejoiced greatly when brethren came and testified of the truth that is in you, just as you walk in the truth.
4 I have no greater [a]joy than to hear that [b]my children walk in [1]truth.

Gaius Commended for Generosity

5 Beloved, you do faithfully whatever you do for the brethren [1]and for strangers,
6 who have borne witness of your love before the church. If you send them forward on their journey in a manner worthy of God, you will do well,
7 because they went forth for His name's sake, [a]taking nothing from the Gentiles.

ENCOUNTER*Note* — 3 John 7

Love Expressed

True love is not sentimental; it is practical—expressed in daily life. To encourage a fellow believer is to join God, partnering with Him in His work.

8 We therefore ought to [a]receive[1] such, that we may become fellow workers for the truth.

Diotrephes and Demetrius

9 I wrote to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves to have the preeminence among them, does not receive us.
10 Therefore, if I come, I will call to mind his deeds which he does, [a]prating[1] against us with malicious words. And not content with that, he himself does not receive the brethren, and forbids those who wish to, putting them out of the church.

WORD*Study* — FELLOW WORKER

3 John 8 The Greek word synergos, translated "fellow worker," means a helper or coworker. It occurs thirteen times in the New Testament and is always used in the plural (twelve times by Paul). John claims that to help a missionary is to help share the truth of the gospel. Not everyone can go, but all can participate in the missionary endeavor. This is a privilege and responsibility for all believers.

ENCOUNTER*Note* — 3 John 10

Holy to God

No matter how godly you are, you will face opposition. God is more interested in making you holy than happy.

11 Beloved, [a]do not imitate what is evil, but what is good. [b]He who does good is of God, [1]but he who does evil has not seen [c]God.
12 Demetrius [a]has a good testimony from all, and from the truth itself. And we also [1]bear witness, [b]and you know that our testimony is true.

Farewell Greeting

13 [a]I had many things to write, but I do not wish to write to you with pen and ink;
14 but I hope to see you shortly, and we shall speak face to face. Peace to you. Our friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

11 [a]Ps. 34:14; 37:27 [b][1 John 2:29; 3:10] [c][1 John 3:10] [1]NU, M omit but 12 [a]1 Tim. 3:7 [b]John 19:35; 21:24 [1]testify
13 [a]2 John 12

1 The term "elder" may reflect John's advanced age at the time of writing. "Gaius" was a common Roman name. He was probably one of the leaders of a church in Asia Minor.

5 Hospitality was a significant issue in the Greco-Roman world, especially for Jewish people who wanted to care for their own. Travelers usually carried letters of recommendation showing they could be trusted.

9 Diotrephes was apparently a leader of a church who refused to take in traveling missionaries sent by John. No cause for this inhospitable act is given, but to reject a traveler was to refuse the one who wrote the letter of recommendation.

12 This acted as a letter of recommendation for Demetrius.

THE EPISTLE OF JUDE

INTRODUCTION

The self-titled author is Jude, who identifies himself as a brother of James. This would have made him a half brother of Jesus (Matt. 13:55). The date of writing is generally understood to have been around A.D. 64–66. Its similarity in content to the second chapter of 2 Peter suggests it was probably written about the same time. Jude's intent was to warn the church against heretical teachers and divisive influences, and to encourage believers to stand firm in their faith.

SIGNIFICANCE

Jude exhorts Christians to "contend for the faith" as combatants in a spiritual battle. His warnings are as valid today as when they were written. Jude reminds believers that although Christ showed compassion towards the lost and hurting sheep, He also gave scathing rebuke to those who would harm the flock. Choosing to follow Christ is not enough; believers must remain true to Him. Christ's adversary will do whatever is in his power to destroy the body of Christ and to sabotage vulnerable believers. Jude concludes his epistle with praise "to Him who is able to keep you from stumbling and present you faultless," reminding us that while we strive for the faith, the battle belongs to the Lord.

STRUCTURE

Jude can be outlined as follows:

Introduction (1, 2)
Apostates Within the Church (3, 4)
Apostates Will Be Judged (5–16)
Perseverance of the Saints (17–23)
Praise to God our Protector (24, 25)

ENCOUNTERING GOD THROUGH JUDE

Jude's twenty-five verses contain both a warning and an encouragement to God's people. The forces of evil that sought to undermine and destroy Christ continue to assail His church. But the God and Father of Christ, who empowered Him to fight and win the victory over Satan, continues to sustain believers. God warns that the end times will see an increase in adversity against His people, but He also promises that through His strength victory is assured.

Greeting to the Called

JUDE, a bondservant of Jesus Christ, and [a]brother of James,

To those who are [b]called, [1]sanctified by God the Father, and [c]preserved in Jesus Christ:

2 Mercy, [a]peace, and love be multiplied to you.

Contend for the Faith

3 Beloved, while I was very diligent to write to you [a]concerning our common salvation, I found it necessary to write to you exhorting [b]you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints.

WORD*Study* CONTEND

Jude 3 "Contend" comes from the Greek epagōnizomai, which means to earnestly struggle for something. It is the meeting of effort by effort, striving against opposition as if in a battle, or as a contestant would strain for victory against a foe. It can also have a negative meaning, as seen in a conflict or dispute between two parties (Acts 15:39).

ENCOUNTER*Note* Jude 3

Contend Earnestly

Our Christian faith is not something we treat carelessly or casually. There are evil forces seeking to rob us of our faith and to disrupt our relationship to Christ. Such realities ought to always keep us diligent and alert.

4 For certain men have crept in unnoticed, who long ago were marked out for this condemnation, ungodly men, who turn the grace of our God into lewdness and deny the only Lord [1]God and our Lord Jesus Christ.

Old and New Apostates

5 But I want to remind you, though you once knew this, that [a]the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe.

8 [a]Likewise also these dreamers defile the flesh, reject authority, and [b]speak evil of [1]dignitaries.
9 Yet Michael the archangel, in [1]contending with the devil, when he disputed about the body of Moses, dared not bring against him a reviling accusation, but said, [a]"The Lord rebuke you!"
10 [a]But these speak evil of whatever they do not know; and whatever they know naturally, like brute beasts, in these things they corrupt themselves.
11 Woe to them! For they have gone in the way [a]of Cain, [b]have run greedily in the error of Balaam for profit, and perished [c]in the rebellion of Korah.

Apostates Depraved and Doomed

12 These are [1]spots in your love feasts, while they feast with you without fear, serving only themselves. They are clouds without water, carried [2]about by the winds; late autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, pulled up by the roots;

Wolves Among Sheep

God's Spirit enables those in a relationship with Him to detect imposters among them. They will not be fooled by corrupt people who seek to damage Christ's body and to devour the faith of believers.

14 Now Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied about these men also, saying, [a]"Behold, the Lord comes with ten thousands of His saints,

1 As the half brother of Jesus, Jude might have addressed his readers from a position of authority. Instead, he identified himself as a "bondservant of Jesus Christ."

7 "Strange flesh" refers to homosexuality.

9 This account is not found in the Hebrew Scriptures but is related in the noncanonical book The Assumption of Moses.

11 Cain was jealous of God's pleasure with his brother (Gen. 4:3–8; Heb. 11:4; 1 John 3:2). Balaam exemplified greed (Num. 31:16; 2 Pet. 2:15; Rev. 2:14). Korah resented the spiritual authority of Moses and Aaron (Num. 16:1–3, 31–35).

12 "Spots" may also be translated "hidden reefs."

14 This account is not in the Hebrew Scriptures but is recorded in the noncanonical Book of Enoch.

15 "to execute judgment on all, to convict all who are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have committed in an ungodly way, and of all the [a]harsh things which ungodly sinners have spoken against Him."

Apostates Predicted

16 These are grumblers, complainers, walking according to their own lusts; and they [a]mouth great swelling words, [b]flattering people to gain advantage.
17 [a]But you, beloved, remember the words which were spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ:
18 how they told you that [a]there would be mockers in the last time who would walk according to their own ungodly lusts.
19 These are [1]sensual persons, who cause divisions, not having the Spirit.

Maintain Your Life with God

20 But you, beloved, [a]building yourselves up on your most holy faith, [b]praying in the Holy Spirit,

Faultless

Don't let your circumstances or failures discourage you. Your spiritual victory is not based on your wisdom or strength or ingenuity. It depends entirely upon Christ and His ability to hold you in His hand. He can cleanse you from every impurity; His forgiveness will allow you to one day stand before Him faultless.

HISTORICAL*Encounter* — AMY CARMICHAEL — Jude 24

Amy Carmichael grew up in Belfast. Her father died when she was young, bringing great hardship on his family. At sixteen Amy found Christ as her Savior. However, she struggled with doubts: Could she live a holy life? Would she make any difference in her world for Christ? When she was nineteen she attended a Keswick convention in Glasgow. As the chairman closed the session in prayer, he cited Jude 24, "O Lord, we know Thou art able to keep us from falling." Instantly this truth resonated as God's word to her. Here was the assurance she was seeking. She went as a missionary to India, where she founded a home in Dohnavur to care for homeless and abused children. She would go on to write thirty-five books greatly encouraging Christians in their faith.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST

INTRODUCTION

The Book of Revelation is named for its first word, apokalupsis, meaning to unveil, disclose or reveal. The book identifies John as its author (1:1, 4, 9; 22:8). Most scholars believe this was John the Apostle, one of Jesus' disciples. He wrote in a time of severe persecution (1:9; 2:2, 10, 13; 3:9, 10; 6:10, 11; 7:14–17; 11:7; 12:13—13:17; 14:12–20; 19:2; 21:4). Some see this book describing the period under the cruel Roman emperor Nero. However, the majority of scholars believe John wrote this letter near the end of the emperor Domitian's rule, around A.D. 95. John was exiled on the small island of Patmos for preaching the gospel (1:9). This letter was written to the seven churches in Asia (1:4). These churches were founded during Paul's time in Ephesus during the A.D. 50s. Tradition suggests the apostle John lived in Ephesus and ministered to the churches of Asia during the latter part of the first century and would have been well known to them. John wrote to encourage Christians who were enduring persecution, giving them hope that Christ would ultimately vindicate them and reward them. Through John, Christ was exhorting them to endure in their faith until the end.

This highly symbolic book is full of imagery that would have been decipherable by John's contemporaries; thus he saw no need to provide explanation, nor the key to unlock its mysteries. There are four primary approaches to interpreting Revelation: the preterist view, in which the prophecies are seen as referring to events taking place in the Roman empire during the first century; the return of Christ was the only outstanding event yet to occur; the historical view in which John outlines the overall course of history looking toward Christ's return; the futurist view in which chapters four and following deal exclusively with events surrounding the last days prior to Christ's return; and the idealist view in which the book is a series of symbolic and imaginative descriptions of God's ultimate triumph over evil, with no direct parallel to historical events. The themes of an upsurge of evil, the triumphant Christ, and the rewarding of the faithful are common to all four views.

SIGNIFICANCE

Revelation provides a road map to future events preceding and including Christ's return. However, the specific events themselves remain largely a mystery. The purpose of the book is not so much to focus on future events as to exalt Christ. Here Christ is no longer portrayed as the humble servant, but the glorious King of Kings, the Alpha and Omega, and the Mighty Warrior who thoroughly defeats all His enemies. Those to whom John wrote felt the harsh hand of merciless persecution and needed a word of hope. John assured them God always rewards faithfulness (22:12), and God's justice triumphs over evil (20:12–15, 21:27).

STRUCTURE

Revelation can be seen as a series of visions leading to a final conclusion. It can be outlined as follows:

Messages to Seven Churches (1:1—3:22)
Heavenly Throne Room of the Lamb (4:1–11)
The Lamb and the Scroll (5:1–14)
Vision of the Seven Seals (6:1—8:1)
Vision of the Seven Trumpets (8:2—11:19)
The Woman, Child, and Dragon (12:1–17)
Two Beasts (13:1–18)
The Lamb and the 144,000 (14:1–5)
Proclamation and Judgment (14:6–20)
Seven Bowls of Plagues (15:1—16:21)
The Mother of Harlots and the Beast (17:1–18)
The Fall of Babylon (18:1–24)
Christ Victorious (19:1–21)
Satan's End (20:1–15)

New Heaven, Earth, Jerusalem (21:1—22:5)
Christ's Final Coming (22:6–21)

Encountering God Through Revelation

Although many people find Revelation difficult to understand, some of its verses are quite familiar and are often quoted from the pulpit (2:4, 5, 10; 3:20; 21:1; 22:13, 17–20). This book offers Christians great hope and inspiration to remain faithful to the end. We are reminded of God's incredible love for His people, and the extent to which He has planned and worked toward our salvation from the beginning of time until the end of history. Some may identify with the saints who suffered terrible persecution. Others will relate to the spiritual warfare John describes. We see a vivid picture of God's mighty power. We are urged to remain devoted to Christ and to stand firm in our convictions if we are to participate in His Kingdom. The reward for perseverance will be wonderful beyond description. We can look forward to sharing in God's presence, and worshipping Him face to face, together with all the faithful, experiencing God in new and magnificent ways.

Introduction and Benediction

1 THE Revelation of Jesus Christ, [a]which God gave Him to show His servants—things which must [1]shortly take place. And [b]He sent and signified it by His angel to His servant John,
2 [a]who bore witness to the word of God, and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, to all things [b]that he saw.

WORD Study — REVELATION

Rev. 1:1 Revelation comes from the Greek apokalupsis, meaning to uncover or to reveal. It can also mean coming, manifestation, or appearing, as in the coming of Christ. Here it refers to the unveiling of truth that has hitherto been hidden from understanding.

Giving Testimony

God reveals truth so it can change lives. He expects us to faithfully and accurately share His truth with others. The way others receive the truth is for God to judge; our role is to testify as a witness.

3 [a]Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written in it; for [b]the time is near.

Greeting the Seven Churches

4 John, to the seven churches which are in Asia:

WORD Study — CHURCHES

Rev. 1:4 "Church" comes from the Greek word ekklēsia, which means called-out ones gathered together for a common purpose. It can indicate a general assembly of citizens gathered to deliberate an issue. When applied to Christians, it refers to believers called together for worship, fellowship, and service.

Grace to you and peace from Him [a]who is and [b]who was and who is to come, [c]and from the seven Spirits who are before His throne,
5 and from Jesus Christ, [a]the faithful [b]witness, the [c]firstborn from the dead, and [d]the ruler over the kings of the earth. To Him [e]who [1]loved us [f]and washed us from our sins in His own blood,
6 and has [a]made us [1]kings and priests to His God and Father, [b]to Him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.
7 Behold, He is coming with [a]clouds, and every eye will see Him, even [b]they who pierced Him. And all the tribes of the earth will mourn because of Him. Even so, Amen.
8 [a]"I am the Alpha and the Omega, [1]the Beginning and the End," says the [2]Lord,

1:3 "Blessed," meaning happy, is the first of seven beatitudes in Revelation (Rev. 14:13; 16:15; 19:9; 20:6; 22:7, 14).

1:4 The seven churches John addressed were located in Asia (present-day western Turkey), within fifty miles of each other. John dealt with them in clockwise order, beginning with the church in the southwest.

1:5 The firstborn of the dead (1 Cor. 15:20, 23; Col. 1:18) refers to Christ being the first one to be resurrected from the dead. All others had been resuscitated and eventually died.

1:8 "Alpha and Omega," the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet, signified the eternality of Christ.

[b]"who is and who was and who is to come, the [c]Almighty."

Vision of the Son of Man

9 I, John, [1]both your brother and [a]companion in the tribulation and [b]kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was on the island that is called Patmos for the word of God and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.
10 [a]I was in the Spirit on [b]the Lord's Day, and I heard behind me [c]a loud voice, as of a trumpet,
11 saying, [1]"I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last," and, "What you see, write in a book and send it to the seven churches [2]which are in Asia: to Ephesus, to Smyrna, to Pergamos, to Thyatira, to Sardis, to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea."
12 Then I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. And having turned [a]I saw seven golden lampstands, 13 [a]and in the midst of the seven lampstands [b]One like the Son of Man, [c]clothed with a garment down to the feet and [d]girded about the chest with a golden band.

15 [a]His feet were like fine brass, as if refined in a furnace, and [b]His voice as the sound of many waters;
16 [a]He had in His right hand seven stars, [b]out of His mouth went a sharp two-edged sword, [c]and His countenance was like the sun shining in its strength.
17 And [a]when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as dead. But [b]He laid His right hand on me, saying [1]to me, "Do not be afraid; [c]I am the First and the Last.

1:9 Patmos was an island ten miles by six miles in the Aegean Sea. It was sixty miles southwest of Ephesus. Small islands such as this were used by the Romans to hold political prisoners. Eusebius, an early church historian, claimed John was exiled to Patmos under the Roman emperor Domitian in A.D. 95 and released one and a half years later.

1:12 The seven golden lampstands represented the seven churches being addressed.

1:13 Christ's presence in the midst of the churches would have been particularly comforting in light of the persecution they were facing. "One like the Son of Man" refers to the vision of Daniel (Dan. 7:13).

1:16 The seven stars are the seven angels of the churches (Rev. 1:20). These may have been literal angels assigned to watch over the endangered churches, or the angels may have been the pastors of the churches whom Christ held in His hand. The two-edged sword coming out of Christ's mouth symbolized His judgment (Is. 49:2; Heb. 4:12).

Overwhelmed by God

When we truly see Christ as He is, we will be overcome by God's holiness. The sheer magnificence of His glory can render us speechless in His presence. These times are precious, for our heart, soul, strength, and mind are all in accord with God.

The Loveless Church

2 "To the [1]angel of the church of Ephesus write,

'These things says [a]He who holds the seven stars in His right hand, [b]who walks in the midst of the seven golden lampstands:

2 [a]"I know your works, your labor, your [1]patience, and that you cannot [2]bear those who are evil. And [b]you have tested those [c]who say they are apostles and are not, and have found them liars;

3 "and you have persevered and have patience, and have labored for My name's sake and have [a]not become weary.

4 "Nevertheless I have this against you, that you have left your first love.

5 "Remember therefore from where you have fallen; repent and do the first works, [a]or else I will come to you quickly and remove your lampstand from its place—unless you repent.

6 "But this you have, that you hate the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

First Love

As we busily serve the Lord we can lose sight of the joy we knew when we first loved Him. What began as a response of deep affection can deteriorate into a sense of duty or routine. We must never allow religion to overcome our love relationship with God.

9 "I know your works, tribulation, and poverty (but you are [a]rich); and I know the blasphemy of [b]those who say they are Jews and are not, [c]but are a [1]synagogue of Satan.

10 [a]"Do not fear any of those things which you are about to suffer. Indeed, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and you will have tribulation ten days. [b]Be faithful until death, and I will give you [c]the crown of life.

11 [a]"He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. He who overcomes shall not be hurt by [b]the second death." '

HISTORICAL Encounter

POLYCARP

Rev. 2:10

Polycarp was trained for ministry under the apostle John. He served in Smyrna, only a short distance from Ephesus,where tradition says John served. In John's writing to the churches in Revelation, he has no condemnation for the church in Smyrna. His encouraging words for that church were fitting since, during the reign of the Roman emperor Antonius Pius, a great persecution against Christians would occur. When the aged Polycarp was arrested and ordered to renounce Christ, he proclaimed: "I have served Him for 86 years and He has done me no wrong. Can I revile my King who saved me?" Polycarp was burned alive at the stake.

2:1 Angel can be translated messenger, as in a messenger from God, perhaps referring to the pastor of the church at Ephesus. Ephesus was the most prominent city in Asia Minor at this time and Paul spent almost three years there establishing the church.

2:2 The prevailing truth in each of the risen Christ's letters to the churches was that He knew their works (Rev. 2:2, 9, 13, 19; 3:1, 8, 15).

2:6 The Nicolaitans plagued churches in Ephesus and in Pergamos. Their teaching may have been immoral and even heretical. Whatever the case, they incurred the wrath of Christ.

2:7 If your heart is not open to the Spirit, no letter, sermon, or exhortation will convince you of the truth. Eating from the tree of life indicated a special intimacy with Christ such as existed in the Garden of Eden before humanity's fall into sin (Gen. 2:9; 3:22, 24).

2:8 Smyrna was a seaport city 35 miles north of Ephesus. This church and the church in Philadelphia were the only two churches not chastised.

2:10 The crown of life may refer to the traditional garland given to winners in athletic events. This reference is to the reward for believers who would be martyred for Christ's sake or who would persevere through tribulation (James 1:12).

2:11 The second death refers to eternal death in the lake of fire (Rev. 20:14, 15).

The Compromising Church

12 "And to the [1]angel of the church in Pergamos write,

'These things says [a]He who has the sharp two-edged sword:

13 "I know your works, and where you dwell, where Satan's throne is. And you hold fast to My name, and did not deny My faith even in the days in which Antipas was My faithful martyr, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells.

14 "But I have a few things against you, because you have there those who hold the doctrine of [a]Balaam, who taught Balak to put a stumbling block before the children of Israel, [b]to eat things sacrificed to idols, [c]and to commit sexual immorality.

15 "Thus you also have those who hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, [1]which thing I hate.

16 "Repent, or else I will come to you quickly and [a]will fight against them with the sword of My mouth.

17 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes I will give some of the hidden [a]manna to eat. And I will give him a white stone, and on the stone [b]a new name written which no one knows except him who receives it." '

The Corrupt Church

18 "And to the [1]angel of the church in Thyatira write,

'These things says the Son of God, [a]who has eyes like a flame of fire, and His feet like fine brass:

19 [a]"I know your works, love, [1]service, faith, and your [2]patience; and as for your works, the last are more than the first.

I Know Your Works

We are under the watchful eye of Christ. He is not looking to be sure we are busy, but to see that we are obedient to His guiding Spirit. He refines and directs His people so we stay focused on His work until He comes again.

27 'He[a] shall rule them with a rod of iron;
They shall be dashed to pieces like the potter's vessels'—

as I also have received from My Father;

28 "and I will give him [a]the morning star.

29 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches." '

The Dead Church

3 "And to the [1]angel of the church in Sardis write,

'These things says He who [a]has the seven Spirits of God and the seven stars: "I know your works, that you have a name that you are alive, but you are dead.

2 "Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die, for I have not found your works perfect before [1]God.

3 [a]"Remember therefore how you have received and heard; hold fast and [b]repent. [c]Therefore if you will not watch, I will come upon you [d]as a thief, and you will not know what hour I will come upon you.

4 [1]"You have [a]a few names [2]even in Sardis who have not [b]defiled their garments; and they shall walk with Me [c]in white, for they are worthy.

2:12 Pergamos was the capital of the province of Asia. Its name means "citadel" in Greek. It was located fifty miles north of Smyrna.

2:13 "Satan's throne" may indicate that Satan had a stronghold of evil in the city, in violent opposition to the Lord's work and His church.

2:18 Thyatira had a large military detachment and was about 30 miles from Pergamos. It was known for its wool and dye industries.

2:28 The morning star is Christ (Rev. 22:16).

Walking Dead

Our religious activity can fool us into assuming we are spiritually vibrant and growing when in fact we have no vitality. An industrious church is not necessarily a spiritual church. Obedience and love for Christ indicate that we are fully alive to God.

5 "He who overcomes [a]shall be clothed in white garments, and I will not [b]blot

Opening Locked Doors

We may be locked out of positions, relationships, or opportunities, but no one can prevent us from coming to Christ. Our access to Him is secure. As long as we have Christ, it matters not what others withhold from us.

8 [a]"I know your works. See, I have set before you [b]an open door, [1]and no one can shut it; for you have a little strength, have kept My word, and have not denied
My name.
9 "Indeed I will make [a]those of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews and are not, but lie—indeed [b]I will make them come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you.
10 "Because you have kept [1]My command to persevere, [a]I also will keep you from the hour of trial which shall come upon [b]the whole world, to test those who dwell [c]on the earth.
11 [1]"Behold, [a]I am coming quickly!
[b]Hold fast what you have, that no one may take [c]your crown.
12 "He who overcomes, I will make him [a]a pillar in the temple of My God, and he shall [b]go out no more. [c]I will write on him the name of My God and the name of the city of My God, the [d]New Jerusalem, which [e]comes down out of heaven from My God. [f]And I will write on him My new name.

The Lukewarm Church

ning of the creation of God:

and neither [1]cold nor hot, I will vomit
you out of My mouth.

become wealthy, and have need of nothing'—and do not know that you are wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked—

ENCOUNTER Note Rev. 3:17

Self-Deception

We are easily fooled! We assess external things such as our moral lifestyle, our success, and our offerings to God, and we assume that our lives please Him. But it is entirely possible to misdiagnose our spiritual condition. God sees past our self-assurance to the poverty of our souls. He knows how desperately we need Him.

18 "I counsel you [a]to buy from Me gold

Perseverance

Christ's true followers are not the ones who profess allegiance to Him in the comfort of the church, but those who persevere despite the fiercest tribulations.

4 After these things I looked, and behold, a door standing [a]open in heaven. And the first voice which I heard was like a [b]trumpet speaking with me, saying, "Come up here, and I will show you things which must take place after this."

Holy God

Until we clearly recognize the reality of God's absolute holiness, we will tend to question His ways. Everything God does, whether punitive or redemptive, is a function of His holy character. Holiness is the identifying mark of His kingdom and is recognized by every one who stands in His presence.

9 Whenever the living creatures give glory and honor and thanks to Him who sits on the throne, [a]who lives forever and ever,
10 [a]the twenty-four elders fall down before Him who sits on the throne and worship Him who lives forever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying:

Worship

Even the mightiest earthly kings will be as nothing when they stand before the heavenly King. In the presence of the risen Christ, no other response will do but absolute surrender to His will and authority. No human words could describe for us the profound, unimaginable awe that awaits believers in heaven.

11 "You[a] are worthy, [1]O Lord,
To receive glory and honor and power;

And by [c]Your will they [2]exist and were created."

4:4 White robes and crowns indicate the 24 elders had already been confirmed in their righteousness and were established in some way as rulers or priests in the heavenly court.

4:5 The seven Spirits may be symbolic of the fullness of the Spirit's character and His ability to judge.

4:6 "Throne" comes from the Greek word thronos, meaning stately seat. It signifies power, might, rule, and authority.

4:7 The lion, calf, man, and eagle appear to be associated with the cherubim in Ezekiel 10:1–20. They represent creatures who adore the King of kings and serve Him unhesitatingly.

to open the scroll and to loose its seals?"
3 And no one in heaven or on the earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll, or to look at it.
4 So I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open [1]and read the scroll, or to look at it.
5 But one of the elders said to me, "Do not weep. Behold, [a]the Lion of the tribe of [b]Judah, [c]the Root of David, has [d]prevailed to open the scroll [e]and [1]to loose its seven seals."
6 And I looked, [1]and behold, in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, stood [a]a Lamb as though it had been slain, having seven horns and [b]seven eyes, which are [c]the seven Spirits of God sent out into all the earth.
7 Then He came and took the scroll out of the right hand [a]of Him who sat on the throne.

Worthy

The creatures of heaven understand the magnitude of Christ's sacrifice for humanity on the cross. They cannot cease from shouting praises. One day we will realize not only what Christ saved us from but also what He saved us for. Then we, too, will join our voices with the angelic hosts and praise almighty God for eternity.

14 Then the four living creatures said, "Amen!" And the [1]twenty-four elders fell down and worshiped [2]Him who lives forever and ever.

First Seal: The Conqueror

6 Now [a]I saw when the Lamb opened one of the [1]seals; and I heard [b]one of the four living creatures saying with a voice like thunder, "Come and see."
2 And I looked, and behold, [a]a white horse. [b]He who sat on it had a bow; [c]and a crown was given to him, and he went out [d]conquering and to conquer.

Second Seal: Conflict on Earth

3 When He opened the second seal, [a]I heard the second living creature saying, "Come [1]and see."
4 [a]Another horse, fiery red, went out. And it was granted to the one who sat on it to [b]take peace from the earth, and that people should kill one another; and there was given to him a great sword.

Third Seal: Scarcity on Earth

5 When He opened the third seal, [a]I heard the third living creature say, "Come and see." So I looked, and be-

5:5 The Lion of the tribe of Judah and the Root of David are Messianic titles for Christ (Gen. 49:8–10; Is. 11:1).

5:6 A lamb was the usual morning and evening sacrifice in the temple. Upon the inauguration of Christ's ministry, He was heralded by John the Baptist as the Lamb of God, the ultimate and final sacrifice for sins (Is. 53:7; John 1:29, 36; Acts 8:32; 1 Pet. 1:19).

5:7 Passing the scroll to the Son symbolized that final judgment of humanity had been given to Him.

5:8 The prayers of the saints are constantly before the risen Christ as incense, a fragrant aroma in His heavenly throne room. Golden bowls are also used to pour out God's wrath in judgment (Rev. 15:7; 16:1–21).

5:10 Identifying God's people as a kingdom of priests is a recurring biblical theme (Ex. 19:6, 1 Pet. 2:9; Rev. 1:6)

6:2 In biblical times, horses were used almost exclusively for warlike purposes. A white horse was commonly seen as a symbol of victory. The bow indicates the rider is a warrior. The crown identifies him as a ruler.

6:4 Red typically symbolizes bloodshed and killing by the sword.

hold, [b]a black horse, and he who sat on it had a pair of [c]scales[1] in his hand.
6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, "A [1]quart of wheat for a [2]denarius, and three quarts of barley for a denarius; and [a]do not harm the oil and the wine."

Fourth Seal: Widespread Death on Earth

7 When He opened the fourth seal, [a]I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, "Come and see."
8 [a]So I looked, and behold, a pale horse. And the name of him who sat on it was Death, and Hades followed with him. And [1]power was given to them over a fourth of the earth, [b]to kill with sword, with hunger, with death, [c]and by the beasts of the earth.

Fifth Seal: The Cry of the Martyrs

9 When He opened the fifth seal, I saw under [a]the altar [b]the souls of those who had been slain [c]for the word of God and for [d]the testimony which they held.
10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, [a]"How long, O Lord, [b]holy and true, [c]until You judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?"
11 Then a [a]white robe was given to each of them; and it was said to them [b]that they should rest a little while longer, until both the number of their fellow servants and their brethren, who would be killed as they were, was completed.

Sixth Seal: Cosmic Disturbances

12 I looked when He opened the sixth seal, [a]and [1]behold, there was a great earthquake; and [b]the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the [2]moon became like blood.
13 [a]And the stars of heaven fell to the earth, as a fig tree drops its late figs when it is shaken by a mighty wind.
14 [a]Then the sky [1]receded as a scroll when it is rolled up, and [b]every mountain and island was moved out of its place.
15 And the [a]kings of the earth, the great men, [1]the rich men, the commanders, the mighty men, every slave and every free man, [b]hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains,
16 [a]and said to the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him who [b]sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb!

God has foretold a Day of Judgment for all people, when He will call to account every soul. Those who exalted themselves will be brought low, and those who humbled themselves before Christ will be raised up. And on that day everyone will bow before the Lord.

CHAPTER 7

The Sealed of Israel

7 After these things I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, [a]holding the four winds of the earth, [b]that the wind should not blow on the earth, on the sea, or on any tree.
2 Then I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God. And he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea,
3 saying, [a]"Do not harm the earth, the sea, or the trees till we have sealed the servants of our God [b]on their foreheads."
4 [a]And I heard the number of those who were sealed. [b]One hundred and forty-four thousand [c]of all the tribes of the children of Israel were sealed:

5 of the tribe of Judah twelve thousand were sealed; of the tribe of Reuben

6:6 The black horse symbolized famine, for the price of barley and wheat was extremely high as if there were a famine.

6:8 A pale color is literally yellowish-green and may symbolize death. The first three horses, symbolizing war, bloodshed, and famine have culminated in death.

7:4 Seals represented ownership. The 144 thousand heavenly servants were to be specially identified as belonging to God. The number may symbolize completion, being 12 thousand times twelve. The number twelve represented Israel's twelve tribes.

7:5 Judah is mentioned first. That was the tribe from which Jesus came. The tribes of Dan and Ephraim are omitted without explanation.

of the tribe of Benjamin

A Multitude from the Great Tribulation

9 After these things I looked, and behold, [a]a great multitude which no one could number, [b]of all nations, tribes, peoples, and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, [c]clothed with white robes, with palm branches in their hands,
10 and crying out with a loud voice, saying, [a]"Salvation belongs to our God [b]who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!"

ENCOUNTER Note — Rev. 7:9, 10

Salvation for All

God's kingdom is universal, offered to all who will accept His gift of salvation. Repentance for sin, confession of Christ as Lord, and obedience to God's Word are the requisite actions.

11 [a]All the angels stood around the throne and the elders and the four living creatures, and fell on their faces before the throne and [b]worshiped God, 12 [a]saying:

"Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom,
Thanksgiving and honor and power and might,
Be to our God forever and ever.
Amen."

13 Then one of the elders answered, saying to me, "Who are these arrayed in [a]white robes, and where did they come from?"
14 And I said to him, [1]"Sir, you know." So he said to me, [a]"These are the ones who come out of the great tribulation, and [b]washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.
15 "Therefore they are before the throne of God, and serve Him day and night in His temple. And He who sits on the throne will [a]dwell among them.
16 [a]"They shall neither hunger anymore nor thirst anymore; [b]the sun shall not strike them, nor any heat;
17 "for the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne [a]will shepherd them and lead them to [1]living fountains of waters. [b]And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

God's Kindness

Almighty God, Creator, Redeemer, is kind, compassionate, gentle, and sympathetic to the hurts of His people. His eternal care and comfort await the saints; pain and suffering will be cast away forever.

Seventh Seal: Prelude to the Seven Trumpets

8 When [a]He opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.
2 [a]And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, [b]and to them were given seven trumpets.
3 Then another angel, having a golden censer, came and stood at the altar. He was given much incense, that he should offer it with [a]the prayers of all the saints upon [b]the golden altar which was before the throne.
4 And [a]the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, ascended before God from the angel's hand.

ENCOUNTER Note — Rev. 8:4

Righteous Prayers

Evil and injustice pervade the world, oppressing the righteous. It seems as if the wicked enjoy impunity as they harm the innocent. Yet God is offended at every act of injustice. God will answer every cry of distress. The prayers of His saints will remain before Him until He responds fully, in His time and in His way.

5 Then the angel took the censer, filled it with fire from the altar, and threw it to the earth. And [a]there were noises, thunderings, [b]lightnings, [c]and an earthquake.
6 So the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7:9 White robes and palm branches were both symbols of victory (John 12:13). White robes may indicate martyrs (Rev. 6:11) or believers who had overcome tribulation (3:5, 18).

7:15 The word used here for "temple" is the same word used to describe the Most Holy Place in Solomon's temple.

8:1 God is honored in both silence and jubilation. Silence before God can be praise, as in Psalm 65:1; 62:1, or waiting with anticipation of His impending instruction, as in Psalm 25:5; 27:14. Here there is an eerie silence as all heaven awaits God's judgment to be unleashed.

8:3 The prayers of the saints appear to be connected with God's ultimate judgment upon the earth.

First Trumpet: Vegetation Struck

7 The first angel sounded: [a]And hail and fire followed, mingled with blood, and they were thrown [b]to the [1]earth. And a third [c]of the trees were burned up, and all green grass was burned up.

Second Trumpet: The Seas Struck

8 Then the second angel sounded: [a]And something like a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea, [b]and a third of the sea [c]became blood.
9 [a]And a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

Third Trumpet: The Waters Struck

10 Then the third angel sounded: [a]And a great star fell from heaven, burning like a torch, [b]and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water.
11 [a]The name of the star is Wormwood. [b]A third of the waters became wormwood, and many men died from the water, because it was made bitter.

Fourth Trumpet: The Heavens Struck

12 [a]Then the fourth angel sounded: And a third of the sun was struck, a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third of them were darkened. A third of the day [1]did not shine, and likewise the night.
13 And I looked, [a]and I heard an [1]angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, [b]"Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the remaining blasts of the trumpet of the three angels who are about to sound!"

Fifth Trumpet: The Locusts from the Bottomless Pit

9 Then the fifth angel sounded: [a]And I saw a star fallen from heaven to the earth. To him was given the key to [b]the [1]bottomless pit.
2 And he opened the bottomless pit, and smoke arose out of the pit like the smoke of a great furnace. So the [a]sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke of the pit.
3 Then out of the smoke locusts came upon the earth. And to them was given power, [a]as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 They were commanded [a]not to harm [b]the grass of the earth, or any green thing, or any tree, but only those men who do not have [c]the seal of God on their foreheads.
5 And [1]they were not given authority to kill them, [a]but to torment them for five months. Their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when it strikes a man.
6 In those days [a]men will seek death and will not find it; they will desire to die, and death will flee from them.
7 [a]The shape of the locusts was like horses prepared for battle. [b]On their heads were crowns of something like gold, [c]and their faces were like the faces of men.
8 They had hair like women's hair, and [a]their teeth were like lions' teeth.
9 And they had breastplates like breastplates of iron, and the sound of their wings was [a]like the sound of chariots with many horses running into battle.
10 They had tails like scorpions, and there were stings in their tails. Their power was to hurt men five months.
11 And they had as king over them [a]the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in Hebrew is [1]Abaddon, but in Greek he has the name [2]Apollyon.
12 [a]One woe is past. Behold, still two more woes are coming after these things.

Sixth Trumpet: The Angels from the Euphrates

13 Then the sixth angel sounded: And I heard a voice from the four horns of the [a]golden altar which is before God,
14 saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound [a]at the great river Euphrates."
15 So the four angels, who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, were released to kill a [a]third of mankind.
16 Now [a]the number of the army [b]of the horsemen was two hundred million; [c]I heard the number of them.
17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision: those who sat on them had breastplates of fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow; [a]and the heads of the horses were like the heads of lions; and 8:8 A great mountain burning may be an immense volcano.

8:11 Biblically, wormwood typically represents bitterness and the opposite of righteousness and justice (Jer. 23:15; Amos 5:7).

9:1 The star may be an angel sent to open the bottomless pit (Rev. 20:1).

9:3 Locusts were dreaded in the ancient world for their destructive power (Joel 1:4). The power of scorpions was in their ability to sting with their tails.

9:5 Five months was the life span of a locust.

9:7 These were not ordinary locusts and may have been some form of demon.

9:11 The head of the demons of the pit is named Abaddon in Hebrew and Apollyon in Greek. Both terms meant destruction.

9:14 The Euphrates River was the eastern boundary of the Promised Land (Gen. 15:18).

out of their mouths came fire, smoke, and brimstone.
18 By these three plagues a third of mankind was killed—by the fire and the smoke and the brimstone which came out of their mouths.
19 For [1]their power is in their mouth and in their tails; [a]for their tails are like serpents, having heads; and with them they do harm.
20 But the rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, [a]did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship [b]demons, [c]and idols of gold, silver, brass, stone, and wood, which can neither see nor hear nor walk.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Rev. 9:20

Refusing to Repent

Even after judgment, some people refuse to repent or to acknowledge God's sovereignty over them, regardless of what God does or allows into their lives. Their end is self-determined separation from the One who deeply loves them and has provided the only way of escape from destruction.

21 And they did not repent of their murders [a]or their [1]sorceries or their sexual immorality or their thefts.

The Mighty Angel with the Little Book

10 I saw still another mighty angel coming down from heaven, clothed with a cloud. [a]And a rainbow was on [b]his head, his face was like the sun, and [c]his feet like pillars of fire.
2 He had a little book open in his hand. [a]And he set his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land,
3 and cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roars. When he cried out, [a]seven thunders uttered their voices.
4 Now when the seven thunders [1]uttered their voices, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from heaven saying [2]to me, [a]"Seal up the things which the seven thunders uttered, and do not write them."
5 The angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land [a]raised up his [1]hand to heaven
6 and swore by Him who lives forever and ever, [a]who created heaven and the things that are in it, the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, [b]that there should be delay no longer,
7 but [a]in the days of the sounding of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, the mystery of God would be finished, as He declared to His servants the prophets.

John Eats the Little Book

8 Then the voice which I heard from heaven spoke to me again and said, "Go, take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the earth."
9 So I went to the angel and said to him, "Give me the little book." And he said to me, [a]"Take and eat it; and it will make your stomach bitter, but it will be as sweet as honey in your mouth."
10 Then I took the little book out of the angel's hand and ate it, [a]and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth. But when I had eaten it, [b]my stomach became bitter.
11 And [1]he said to me, "You must prophesy again about many peoples, nations, tongues, and kings."

ENCOUNTER*Note* Rev. 10:11

God's Word

God's servants do not choose which message God will give them. They receive God's Word and they act upon it obediently. Words of encouragement and comfort are a delight to share. God's judgment and rebuke are unpleasant, but equally necessary to impart as God directs.

The Two Witnesses

11 Then I was given [a]a reed like a measuring rod. [1]And the angel stood, saying, [b]"Rise and measure the temple of God, the altar, and those who worship there.
2 "But leave out [a]the court which is outside the temple, and do not measure it, [b]for it has been given to the Gentiles. And they will [c]tread the holy city underfoot for [d]forty-two months.

10:9 Eating the book is similar to the figures of speech found in the Old Testament (Jer. 15:16; Ezek. 3:1) signifying "devouring" a book, or becoming completely familiar with and accepting its contents.

10:10 Words of judgment would make John's stomach bitter just as they would distress the prophet Ezekiel (Ezek. 3:14).

11:2 Luke's gospel had prophesied that the time of the Gentiles would be fulfilled (Luke 21:24). Forty-two months is equal to 1,260 days (Rev. 12:6).

11:3 "Witness" comes from the Greek word martus, from which we get the word martyr. Though many speculate who these two witnesses might be, they are not identified here.

thousand two hundred and sixty days, clothed in sackcloth."
4 These are the [a]two olive trees and the two lampstands standing before the [1]God of the earth.
5 And if anyone wants to harm them, [a]fire proceeds from their mouth and devours their enemies. [b]And if anyone wants to harm them, he must be killed in this manner.
6 These [a]have power to shut heaven, so that no rain falls in the days of their prophecy; and they have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to strike the earth with all plagues, as often as they desire.

The Witnesses Killed

7 When they [a]finish their testimony, [b]the beast that ascends [c]out of the bottomless pit [d]will make war against them, overcome them, and kill them.
8 And their dead bodies will lie in the street of [a]the great city which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, [b]where also [1]our Lord was crucified.
9 [a]Then those from the peoples, tribes, tongues, and nations [1]will see their dead bodies three-and-a-half days, [b]and not allow their dead bodies to be put into graves.
10 [a]And those who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them, make merry, [b]and send gifts to one another, [c]because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth.

The Witnesses Resurrected

11 [a]Now after the three-and-a-half days [b]the breath of life from God entered them, and they stood on their feet, and great fear fell on those who saw them.
12 And [1]they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here." [a]And they ascended to heaven [b]in a cloud, [c]and their enemies saw them.
13 In the same hour [a]there was a great earthquake, [b]and a tenth of the city fell. In the earthquake seven thousand people were killed, and the rest were afraid [c]and gave glory to the God of heaven.
14 [a]The second woe is past. Behold, the third woe is coming quickly.

Seventh Trumpet: The Kingdom Proclaimed

15 Then [a]the seventh angel sounded: [b]And there were loud voices in heaven, saying, [c]"The [1]kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ, [d]and He shall reign forever and ever!"
16 And [a]the twenty-four elders who sat before God on their thrones fell on their faces and [b]worshiped God,
17 saying:

"We give You thanks, O Lord God Almighty,
The One [a]who is and who was [1]and who is to come,
Because You have taken Your great power [b]and reigned.

ENCOUNTER Note — Rev. 11:17

Giving Thanks

Thankfulness springs from humility. When we acknowledge God's absolute sovereignty and our own frailty, our entire being is moved to express our gratitude.

18 The nations were [a]angry, and Your [1]wrath has come,
And the time of the [b]dead, that they should be judged,
And that You should reward Your servants the prophets and the saints,
And those who fear Your name, small and great,
And should destroy those who destroy the earth."

19 Then [a]the temple of God was opened in heaven, and the ark of [1]His covenant was seen in His temple. And [b]there were lightnings, noises, thunderings, an earthquake, [c]and great hail.

The Woman, the Child, and the Dragon

12 Now a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a garland of twelve stars.
2 Then being with child, she cried out [a]in labor and in pain to give birth.
3 And another sign appeared in heaven: behold, [a]a great, fiery red dragon having seven heads and ten horns, and seven diadems on his heads.

CHAPTER 12

2 [a]Is. 26:17; 66:6–9
3 [a]Rev. 13:1; 17:3, 7, 9

11:6 The power and authority of these two witnesses is much like that of Moses and Elijah (Ex. 7–11; James 5:17).

11:7 The word "finish" is the same word Jesus shouted from the cross when His work was complete (John 19:30).

11:10 Unbelievers will celebrate the death of the witnesses, for darkness hates light, and followers of falsehood despise the truth.

11:19 The ark of the covenant made by Moses was not in the second temple, likely having been destroyed by the Chaldeans upon their successful siege of Jerusalem (2 Chr. 36:18). Here John sees the everlasting ark of the covenant, perhaps symbolizing that in heaven, people will have intimate communion with God.

12:3 The fiery red dragon is Satan (Rev. 12:9). He first appears in scripture as a serpent (Gen. 3; Is. 27:1).

4 [a]His tail drew a third [b]of the stars of heaven [c]and threw them to the earth. And the dragon stood [d]before the woman who was ready to give birth, [e]to devour her Child as soon as it was born.
5 She bore a male Child [a]who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron. And her Child was [b]caught up to God and His throne.
6 Then [a]the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, that they should feed her there [b]one thousand two hundred and sixty days.

Satan Thrown Out of Heaven

7 And war broke out in heaven: [a]Michael and his angels fought [b]with the dragon; and the dragon and his angels fought,
8 but they [1]did not prevail, nor was a place found for [2]them in heaven any longer.
9 So [a]the great dragon was cast out, [b]that serpent of old, called the Devil and Satan, [c]who deceives the whole world; [d]he was cast to the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.
10 Then I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, [a]"Now salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren, [b]who accused them before our God day and night, has been cast down.
11 "And [a]they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, [b]and they did not love their lives to the death.
12 "Therefore [a]rejoice, O heavens, and you who dwell in them! [b]Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and the sea! For the devil has come down to you, having great wrath, [c]because he knows that he has a short time."

The Woman Persecuted

13 Now when the dragon saw that he had been cast to the earth, he persecuted [a]the woman who gave birth to the male Child.
14 [a]But the woman was given two wings of a great eagle, [b]that she might fly [c]into the wilderness to her place, where she is nourished [d]for a time and times and half a time, from the presence of the serpent.
15 So the serpent [a]spewed water out of his mouth like a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away by the flood.
16 But the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the flood which the dragon had spewed out of his mouth.
17 And the dragon was enraged with the woman, and he went to make war with the rest of her offspring, who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus [1]Christ.

Spiritual Battles

Satan hates God and all He represents. If He cannot defeat God in open battle, Satan will attack God's followers with a vengeance. Be on your guard. Your life as a believer is engaged in a cosmic conflict that will ultimately be won by your Lord.

The Beast from the Sea

13 Then [1]I stood on the sand of the sea. And I saw [a]a beast rising up out of the sea, [b]having [2]seven heads and ten horns, and on his horns ten crowns, and on his heads a [c]blasphemous name.
2 Now the beast which I saw was like a leopard, his feet were like the feet of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. The [a]dragon gave him his power, his throne, and great authority.
3 And I saw one of his heads [a]as if it had been mortally wounded, and his deadly wound was healed. And [b]all the world marveled and followed the beast.
4 So they worshiped the dragon who gave authority to the beast; and they worshiped the beast, saying, [a]"Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?"
5 And he was given [a]a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies, and he 12:4 This conflict between the woman and the dragon represents the ongoing conflict begun in the Garden of Eden (Gen. 3:15). The dragon's attempt to destroy the mother's child may parallel Herod the Great's attempt to kill Jesus (Matt. 2:3–16).

12:7 Michael is an archangel who leads God's angelic forces (Dan. 12:1; Jude 9).

12:9 Satan's eviction from heaven reflects that the earth will be the scene of his most bitter life and death struggles against God.

12:14 The woman's deliverance into the wilderness by an eagle is reminiscent of the Israelites' escape from Egypt (Ex. 19:4; Deut. 32:11).

13:1 Blasphemy comes from the Greek word, blasphēmia, meaning vilification, slander, reproach, or speaking evil against God.

13:2 The creature comprised of leopard-bear-lion with ten horns reflects the beasts described by Daniel in the Old Testament (Dan. 7:4–7). The beast received his power, position, and authority from the dragon, Satan.

13:4 By worshiping the beast, people worshipped its master, Satan.

13:5 The beast's worldwide influence will last 42 months, the period also prophesied in Daniel 7:25.

was given authority to [1]continue for [b]forty-two months.
6 Then he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme His name, [a]His tabernacle, and those who dwell in heaven.
7 It was granted to him [a]to make war with the saints and to overcome them. And [b]authority was given him over every [1]tribe, tongue, and nation.
8 All who dwell on the earth will worship him, [a]whose names have not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb slain [b]from the foundation of the world.
9 [a]If anyone has an ear, let him hear.
10 [a]He who leads into captivity shall go into captivity; [b]he who kills with the sword must be killed with the sword. [c]Here is the [1]patience and the faith of the saints.

The Beast from the Earth

11 Then I saw another beast [a]coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb and spoke like a dragon.
12 And he exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence, and causes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, [a]whose deadly wound was healed.
13 [a]He performs great signs, [b]so that he even makes fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Rev. 13:13

The Miracles of Evil

Apparent miracles do not necessarily come from God. Satan's forces will use any means to confuse and deceive people. Be on guard against deception. Learn to recognize the difference between an act of God and a work of Satan.

14 [a]And he deceives [1]those who dwell on the earth [b]by those signs which he was granted to do in the sight of the beast, telling those who dwell on the earth to make an image to the beast who was wounded by the sword [c]and lived.

17 and that no one may buy or sell except one who has [1]the mark or [a]the name of the beast, [b]or the number of his name.
18 [a]Here is wisdom. Let him who has [b]understanding calculate [c]the number of the beast, [d]for it is the number of a man: His number is 666.

The Lamb and the 144,000

14 Then I looked, and behold, [1]a [a]Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with Him [b]one hundred and forty-four thousand, [2]having His Father's name [c]written on their foreheads.
2 And I heard a voice from heaven, [a]like the voice of many waters, and like the voice of loud thunder. And I heard the sound of [b]harpists playing their harps.
3 They sang as it were a new song before the throne, before the four living creatures, and the elders; and no one could learn that song [a]except the hundred and forty-four thousand who were redeemed from the earth.
4 These are the ones who were not defiled with women, [a]for they are virgins. These are the ones [b]who follow the Lamb wherever He goes. These [c]were [1]redeemed from among men, [d]being firstfruits to God and to the Lamb.
5 And [a]in their mouth was found no [1]deceit, for [b]they are without fault [2]before the throne of God.

The Proclamations of Three Angels

6 Then I saw another angel [a]flying in the midst of heaven, [b]having the everlasting gospel to preach to those who dwell on the earth—[c]to every nation, tribe, tongue, and people—
7 saying with a loud voice, [a]"Fear God and give glory to Him, for the hour of His judgment has come; [b]and worship

13:8 The Book of Life of the Lamb is the record of believers in Christ who will ultimately spend eternity with Him.

13:11 "Another" indicates another of the same kind as the first beast (13:1). The description of this beast appears to coincide with that of the false prophet (16:13; 19:20; 20:10).

13:16 The mark of the beast is placed on people's foreheads or hands and apparently identifies them as his followers. The nature of this mark is not explained.

13:18 A variety of explanations have been proposed for 666. The number six came just short of the perfection represented by the number seven. The number 666 indicates the most powerful person short of being divine. Many have speculated about the name that might be derived from this number, but the answer remains a mystery.

14:1 Having the heavenly Father's name written on the foreheads of the 144, 000 stands in stark contrast to the mark of the beast on the foreheads and hands of those who worshipped the beast (13:16).

14:6 To the last possible moment, God will continue to have the gospel proclaimed to those who have not yet yielded to Him and accepted His salvation.

WORD Study — FIRSTFRUITS

Rev. 14:4 "Firstfruits" indicated the first of a harvest of grapes, barley, or oil. Mosaic law commanded God's people to present the best of their early harvest to God as an offering to Him (Ex. 23:19; 34:26; Lev. 23:9–14). Proverbs 3:9, 10 promised prosperity to whoever honored the Lord with the firstfruits of their harvest. The Scriptures designate many things besides agricultural harvest as firstfruits, including Israel (Jer. 2:3), Christ (1 Cor. 15:20, 23), believers (James 1:18), the remnant of Israel (Rom. 11:16), and the first converts in a region (Rom. 16:5; 1 Cor. 16:15).

Him who made heaven and earth, the sea and springs of water."
8 And another angel followed, saying, [a]"Babylon[1] is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because [b]she has made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication."
9 Then a third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, [a]"If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives his [b]mark on his forehead or on his hand,
10 "he himself [a]shall also drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is [b]poured out full strength into [c]the cup of His indignation. [d]He shall be tormented with [e]fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb.
11 "And [a]the smoke of their torment ascends forever and ever; and they have no rest day or night, who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name."
12 [a]Here is the [1]patience of the saints; [b]here[2] are those who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus.
13 Then I heard a voice from heaven saying [1]to me, "Write: [a]'Blessed are the dead [b]who die in the Lord from now on.'" "Yes," says the Spirit, [c]"that they may rest from their labors, and their works follow [d]them."

Reaping the Earth's Harvest

14 Then I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and on the cloud sat One like the Son of Man, having on His head a golden crown, and in His hand a sharp sickle.
15 And another angel [a]came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to Him who sat on the cloud, [b]"Thrust in Your sickle and reap, for the time has come [1]for You to reap, for the harvest [c]of the earth is ripe."
16 So He who sat on the cloud thrust in His sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

Reaping the Grapes of Wrath

17 Then another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.
18 And another angel came out from the altar, [a]who had power over fire, and he cried with a loud cry to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, [b]"Thrust in your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for her grapes are fully ripe."
19 So the angel thrust his sickle into the earth and gathered the vine of the earth, and threw it into [a]the great winepress of the wrath of God.
20 And [a]the winepress was trampled [b]outside the city, and blood came out of the winepress, [c]up to the horses' bridles, for one thousand six hundred [1]furlongs.

Prelude to the Bowl Judgments

15 Then [a]I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvelous: [b]seven angels having the seven last plagues, [c]for in them the wrath of God is complete.
2 And I saw something like [a]a sea of glass [b]mingled with fire, and those who have the victory over the beast, [c]over his image and [1]over his mark and over the [d]number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, [e]having harps of God.

Works

While we will never see all the fruit of our labors for Christ in this life, our works follow us to heaven. We will have an eternity to celebrate what Christ did through our lives.

14:10 Brimstone was a highly combustible form of sulfur. It was found on the shore of the Dead Sea and is often cited as a means of God's judgment (Gen. 19:24; Deut. 29:23; Job 18:15; Ps. 11:6; Is. 30:33; 34:9; Ezek. 38:22; Luke 17:29; Rev. 19:20; 20:10; 21:8).

14:14 "One like the Son of Man" refers to the risen Christ (Dan. 7; Rev. 1:13). God the Father entrusted judgment to the Son (John 5:22).

14:20 One thousand six hundred furlongs is almost two hundred miles. A winepress is also a symbol of God's judgment (Is. 63:3). A flow of blood of this magnitude indicates a cosmic judgment of unimaginable proportions.

15:1 The seven last plagues bring God's wrath upon His enemies to completion.

ENCOUNTER Note Rev. 15:1

God's Wrath

God has given only a taste of His wrath up to this point (Sodom, the Great Flood, Egyptian plagues). But in the end times the floodgates of His indignation will pour down terror and destruction on all who have rejected Him and His Son.

3 They sing [a]the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the [b]Lamb, saying:

[c]"Great and marvelous are Your works,
Lord God Almighty!
[d]Just and true are Your ways,
O King of the [1]saints!

ENCOUNTER Note Rev. 15:3

The Song of the Lamb

God's works are great and marvelous, just and true. Whether God acts in deliverance or in judgment, His ways are perfectly consistent with His holy character. A time will come when, to be true to His righteousness, God will act against the wicked with indescribable wrath.

4 [a]Who shall not fear You, O Lord, and glorify Your name?
For You alone are [b]holy.
For [c]all nations shall come and worship before You,
For Your judgments have been manifested."

5 After these things I looked, and [1]behold, [a]the [2]temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened.
6 And out of the [1]temple came the seven angels having the seven plagues, [a]clothed in pure bright linen, and having their chests girded with golden bands.
7 [a]Then one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God [b]who lives forever and ever.
8 [a]The temple was filled with smoke [b]from the glory of God and from His power, and no one was able to enter the temple till the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.

16 Then I heard a loud voice from the temple saying [a]to the seven angels, "Go and pour out the [1]bowls [b]of the wrath of God on the earth."

First Bowl: Loathsome Sores

2 So the first went and poured out his bowl [a]upon the earth, and a [1]foul and [b]loathsome sore came upon the men [c]who had the mark of the beast and those [d]who worshiped his image.

Second Bowl: The Sea Turns to Blood

3 Then the second angel poured out his bowl [a]on the sea, and [b]it became blood as of a dead man; [c]and every living creature in the sea died.

Third Bowl: The Waters Turn to Blood

4 Then the third angel poured out his bowl [a]on the rivers and springs of water, [b]and they became blood.
5 And I heard the angel of the waters saying:

[a]"You are righteous, [1]O Lord,
The One [b]who is and who [2]was and who is to be,
Because You have judged these things.
6 For [a]they have shed the blood [b]of saints and prophets,
[c]And You have given them blood to drink.
[1]For it is their just due."

7 And I heard [1]another from the altar saying, "Even so, [a]Lord God Almighty, [b]true and righteous are Your judgments."

Fourth Bowl: Men Are Scorched

8 Then the fourth angel poured out his bowl [a]on the sun, [b]and power was given to him to scorch men with fire.

15:3 The Song of Moses was sung by the Israelites after God miraculously and decisively delivered them from the Egyptian army (Ex. 14). The song would be sung by Jews on the Sabbath and by Christians at Easter. The Song of the Lamb indicates God's final and complete deliverance of His people from all their enemies, including death and Satan.

15:7 The bowls of God's wrath (15:1—19:5) parallel in some ways the trumpet judgments (8:2—11:19) but they are much more severe.

15:8 The smoke filling the temple signifies God's determination to judge the wicked and to vindicate His righteousness. At this time there will be no turning back from imminent judgment.

16:2 The first bowl produced sores upon those in rebellion to God, like the sixth plague against the Egyptians (Ex. 9:9–11).

16:3 The second bowl turns the sea into blood as did the second trumpet (Rev. 8:8). However, whereas the second trumpet affected a third of the sea creatures, the second bowl will cause the deaths of every creature. This parallels the plague against the Nile River under Moses (Ex. 7:17–21).

16:4 The third bowl is like the third trumpet (Rev. 8:10), only rather than making the earth's waters bitter, it will turn them to blood.

16:8 The fourth bowl is similar to the fourth trumpet (Rev. 8:12) as it affects the sun. But now the sun's heat increases rather than diminishes.

9 And men were scorched with great heat, and they [a]blasphemed the name of God who has power over these plagues; [b]and they did not repent [c]and give Him glory.

ENCOUNTER Note — Rev. 16:9

Rejecting God

Even in the midst of suffering and calamity, some people refuse to turn to God. A hardened heart would rather suffer torment than yield to Christ's lordship. Such a person chooses wrath over salvation.

Fifth Bowl: Darkness and Pain

10 Then the fifth angel poured out his bowl [a]on the throne of the beast, [b]and his kingdom became full of darkness; [c]and they gnawed their tongues because of the pain.
11 They blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and did not repent of their deeds.

Sixth Bowl: Euphrates Dried Up

12 Then the sixth angel poured out his bowl [a]on the great river Euphrates, [b]and its water was dried up, [c]so that the way of the kings from the east might be prepared.
13 And I saw three unclean [a]spirits like frogs coming out of the mouth of [b]the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of [c]the false prophet.
14 For they are spirits of demons, [a]performing signs, which go out to the kings [1]of the earth and of [b]the whole world, to gather them to [c]the battle of that great day of God Almighty.
15 [a]"Behold, I am coming as a thief. Blessed is he who watches, and keeps his garments, [b]lest he walk naked and they see his shame."
16 [a]And they gathered them together to the place called in Hebrew, [1]Armageddon.

Seventh Bowl: The Earth Utterly Shaken

17 Then the seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air, and a loud voice came out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, [a]"It is done!"
18 And [a]there were noises and thunderings and lightnings; [b]and there was a great earthquake, such a mighty and great earthquake [c]as had not occurred since men were on the earth.
19 Now [a]the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. And [b]great Babylon [c]was remembered before God, [d]to give her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of His wrath.
20 Then [a]every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.
21 And great hail from heaven fell upon men, each hailstone about the weight of a talent. Men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, since that plague was exceedingly great.

The Scarlet Woman and the Scarlet Beast

17 Then [a]one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and talked with me, saying [1]to me, "Come, [b]I will show you the judgment of [c]the great harlot [d]who sits on many waters,
2 [a]"with whom the kings of the earth committed fornication, and [b]the inhabitants of the earth were made drunk with the wine of her fornication."
3 So he carried me away in the Spirit [a]into the wilderness. And I saw a woman sitting [b]on a scarlet beast which was full of [c]names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.
4 The woman [a]was arrayed in purple and scarlet, [b]and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, [c]having in her hand a golden cup [d]full of abomina-

WORD Study — ARMAGEDDON

Rev. 16:16 Armageddon literally means the "hill or mountain of Megiddo." The city of Megiddo guarded the pass between the coastal plain and the valley of Esdraelon. This city is occasionally mentioned in scripture, connected with battles (Judg. 5:19; 2 Kin. 23:29; 2 Chr. 35:22). Barak and Deborah defeated Sisera by the waters of Megiddo (Judg. 4–5). King Ahaziah died in Megiddo after Jehu mortally wounded him with an arrow (2 Kin. 9:27). However, the city of Megiddo is not located on a mountain. In John's day it was situated on a mound roughly seventy feet high. Armageddon may be symbolic of the decisive and final defeat of God's enemies.

16:10 The fifth bowl strikes the throne of the beast with darkness. The ninth plague against Egypt also produced darkness (Ex. 10:21–23).

16:21 Hail heavy as a talent would weigh 75 pounds and would be enormously destructive.

5 And on her forehead a name was written:

[a]MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF

ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 I saw [a]the woman, drunk [b]with the blood of the saints and with the blood of [c]the martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I marveled with great amazement.

The Meaning of the Woman and the Beast

7 But the angel said to me, "Why did you marvel? I will tell you the [1]mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns.
8 "The beast that you saw was, and is not, and [a]will ascend out of the bottomless pit and [b]go to [1]perdition. And those who [c]dwell on the earth [d]will marvel, [e]whose names are not written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world, when they see the beast that was, and is not, and [2]yet is.
9 [a]"Here is the mind which has wisdom: [b]The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits.
10 "There are also seven kings. Five have fallen, one is, and the other has not yet come. And when he comes, he must [a]continue a short time.
11 "The [a]beast that was, and is not, is himself also the eighth, and is of the seven, and is going to [1]perdition.
12 [a]"The ten horns which you saw are ten kings who have received no kingdom as yet, but they receive authority for one hour as kings with the beast.
13 "These are of one mind, and they will give their power and authority to the beast.
14 [a]"These will make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb will [b]overcome them, [c]for He is Lord of lords and King of kings; [d]and those who are with Him are called, chosen, and faithful."
15 Then he said to me, [a]"The waters which you saw, where the harlot sits, [b]are peoples, multitudes, nations, and tongues.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Rev. 17:14

Called, Chosen, Faithful

Even in history's darkest moments, God's purposes prevail and God's people remain faithful. Though Satan's forces rage fiercely, God's elect stand firm. A day is coming when the loyalty of those God has called will be revealed and their suffering will be rewarded.

16 "And the ten horns which you [1]saw on the beast, [a]these will hate the harlot, make her [b]desolate [c]and naked, eat her flesh and [d]burn her with fire.
17 [a]"For God has put it into their hearts to fulfill His purpose, to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, [b]until the words of God are fulfilled.
18 "And the woman whom you saw [a]is that great city [b]which reigns over the kings of the earth."

The Fall of Babylon the Great

18 After[a] these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, [b]and the earth was illuminated with his glory.
2 And he cried [1]mightily with a loud voice, saying, [a]"Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and [b]has become a dwelling place of demons, a prison for every foul spirit, and [c]a cage for every unclean and hated bird!
3 "For all the nations [a]have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, [b]and the merchants of the earth have become rich through the [1]abundance of her luxury."
4 And I heard another voice from heaven saying, [a]"Come out of her, my people, lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues.
5 [a]"For her sins [1]have reached to heaven, and [b]God has remembered her iniquities.
6 [a]"Render to her just as she rendered [1]to you, and repay her double according to her works; [b]in the cup which she has mixed, [c]mix double for her.
7 [a]"In the measure that she glorified herself and lived [1]luxuriously, in the same measure give her torment and sorrow; for she says in her heart, 'I sit as

17:5 "Babylon" symbolized human arrogance and defiance against God (Gen. 11; Dan. 4:30). This reference may be to the rebuilt city of Babylon. Most scholars feel the apocalyptic references refer to Rome since it was located on seven hills and was the center of commerce. The Romans ruled over the kings of many nations, and Rome was a primary source of persecution directed at Christians (17:6, 9, 18; 18:3, 11–18). Babylon may also symbolize any human pride and rebellion against God.

17:9 The seven mountains may refer to the seven hills along the Tiber River where Rome was located. The seven mountains may also refer to seven successive kingdoms or empires (Ps. 30:7; Jer. 51:25; Dan. 2:44, 45).

18:6 Rendering to Babylon double for her sins reveals God's justice. World powers may flaunt their strength and arrogantly reject God's ways, but they will not escape God's judgment.

ENCOUNTER Note Rev. 18:4

Come Out!

This world is hostile toward God and dangerously deceptive to His people. Those believers who are fooled into embracing the world's values will likewise suffer under God's judgment of sin. God's people are to be separate from the world.

[b]queen, and am no widow, and will not see sorrow.'
8 "Therefore her plagues will come [a]in one day—death and mourning and famine. And [b]she will be utterly burned with fire, [c]for strong is the Lord God who [1]judges her.

The World Mourns Babylon's Fall

9 [a]"The kings of the earth who committed fornication and lived luxuriously with her [b]will weep and lament for her, [c]when they see the smoke of her burning,
10 "standing at a distance for fear of her torment, saying, [a]'Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! [b]For in one hour your judgment has come.'
11 "And [a]the merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her, for no one buys their merchandise anymore:
12 [a]"merchandise of gold and silver, precious stones and pearls, fine linen and purple, silk and scarlet, every kind of citron wood, every kind of object of ivory, every kind of object of most precious wood, bronze, iron, and marble;
13 "and cinnamon and incense, fragrant oil and frankincense, wine and oil, fine flour and wheat, cattle and sheep, horses and chariots, and bodies and [a]souls of men.
14 "The fruit that your soul longed for has gone from you, and all the things which are rich and splendid have [1]gone from you, and you shall find them no more at all.
15 "The merchants of these things, who became rich by her, will stand at a distance for fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,
16 "and saying, 'Alas, alas, [a]that great city [b]that was clothed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls!
17 [a]'For in one hour such great riches [1]came to nothing.' [b]Every shipmaster, all who travel by ship, sailors, and as many as trade on the sea, stood at a distance
18 [a]"and cried out when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, [b]'What is like this great city?'
19 [a]"They threw dust on their heads and cried out, weeping and wailing, and saying, 'Alas, alas, that great city, in which all who had ships on the sea became rich by her wealth! [b]For in one hour she [1]is made desolate.'
20 [a]"Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you [1]holy apostles and prophets, for [b]God has avenged you on her!"

Finality of Babylon's Fall

21 Then a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying, [a]"Thus with violence the great city Babylon shall be thrown down, and [b]shall not be found anymore.
22 [a]"The sound of harpists, musicians, flutists, and trumpeters shall not be heard in you anymore. No craftsman of any craft shall be found in you anymore, and the sound of a millstone shall not be heard in you anymore.
23 [a]"The light of a lamp shall not shine in you anymore, [b]and the voice of bridegroom and bride shall not be heard in you anymore. For [c]your merchants were the great men of the earth, [d]for by your sorcery all the nations were deceived.
24 "And [a]in her was found the blood of prophets and saints, and of all who [b]were slain on the earth."

Heaven Exults over Babylon

19 After these things [a]I [1]heard a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, "Alleluia! [b]Salvation and glory and honor and power belong to [2]the Lord our God!
2 "For [a]true and righteous are His judgments, because He has judged the great harlot who corrupted the earth with her fornication; and He [b]has avenged on her the blood of His servants shed by her."
3 Again they said, "Alleluia! [a]Her smoke rises up forever and ever!"
4 And [a]the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who sat on the throne, saying, [b]"Amen! Alleluia!"
5 Then a voice came from the throne, saying, [a]"Praise our God, all you His servants and those who fear Him, [b]both[1] small and great!"

18:8 "One day" is reminiscent of the sudden and violent overthrow of Belshazzar and the city of Babylon under Cyrus king of Persia (Dan. 5:30, 31).

18:13 "Bodies and souls" may refer to the slave trade.

18:17 The reaction of the merchants to Babylon's overthrow is similar to those who mourned the downfall of Tyre (Ezek. 27:30).

19:1 "Alleluia" comes from the Hebrew word meaning "praise the Lord."

6 [a]And I heard, as it were, the voice of a great multitude, as the sound of many waters and as the sound of mighty thunderings, saying, "Alleluia! For [b]the[1] Lord God Omnipotent reigns!
7 "Let us be glad and rejoice and give Him glory, for [a]the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready."
8 And [a]to her it was granted to be arrayed in fine linen, clean and bright, [b]for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints.
9 Then he said to me, "Write: [a]'Blessed are those who are called to the marriage supper of the Lamb!' " And he said to me, [b]"These are the true sayings of God."
10 And [a]I fell at his feet to worship him. But he said to me, [b]"See that you do not do that! I am your [c]fellow servant, and of your brethren [d]who have the testimony of Jesus. Worship God! For the [e]testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."

Christ on a White Horse

11 [a]Now I saw heaven opened, and behold, [b]a white horse. And He who sat on him was called [c]Faithful and True, and [d]in righteousness He judges and makes war.
12 [a]His eyes were like a flame of fire, and on His head were many crowns. [b]He [1]had a name written that no one knew except Himself.
13 [a]He was clothed with a robe dipped in blood, and His name is called [b]The Word of God.
14 [a]And the armies in heaven, [b]clothed in [1]fine linen, white and clean, followed Him on white horses.
15 Now [a]out of His mouth goes a [1]sharp sword, that with it He should strike the nations. And [b]He Himself will rule them with a rod of iron. [c]He Himself treads the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.
16 And [a]He has on His robe and on His thigh a name written:

The Beast and His Armies Defeated

17 Then I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the midst of heaven, [a]"Come and gather together for the [1]supper of the great God,
18 [a]"that you may eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty men, the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all people, [1]free and slave, both small and great."
19 [a]And I saw the beast, the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against Him who sat on the horse and against His army.
20 [a]Then the beast was captured, and with him the false prophet who worked signs in his presence, by which he deceived those who received the mark of the beast and [b]those who worshiped his image. [c]These two were cast alive into the lake of fire [d]burning with brimstone.

ENCOUNTER*Note* Rev. 19:20

Defeated

God's enemies are fierce and relentless. Yet even the most satanic, ruthless, powerful, and determined foes cannot withstand God's awesome might. No enemy is so powerful that God cannot and will not utterly destroy it if necessary.

21 And the rest [a]were killed with the sword which proceeded from the mouth of Him who sat on the horse. [b]And all the birds [c]were filled with their flesh.

Satan Bound 1000 Years

20 Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven, [a]having the key to the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.
2 He laid hold of [a]the dragon, that serpent of old, who is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years;
3 and he cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and [a]set a seal on him, [b]so that he should deceive the na-

19:7 Scripture portrays God's people as His bride (Hos. 2:19; Eph. 5:23, 32).

19:8 The fine, clean linen of the bride symbolized her purity and her readiness for the bridegroom.

19:9 The marriage supper would begin on the evening of the wedding but could last several days. It was a time of great joy and celebration among family and friends.

19:10 John, overcome by the vision, begins to worship the angel who is showing it to him. John is rebuked, for only God is to be worshipped (Rev. 22:8, 9).

19:11 A white horse symbolizes victory.

19:13 Only John refers to Christ as the Word of God, both in his Gospel (John 1:1, 14) and here in Revelation. Jesus is the final and perfect revelation of God to humanity.

19:16 Christ's title King of kings and Lord of lords occurs three times in the Bible (1 Tim. 6:15, Rev. 17:14).

20:2 Referring to the Evil One as the dragon, serpent, Devil, and Satan is a way to indict him using the names by which he has been known.

20:3 The fact that Satan must be released indicates he will not escape the pit on his own power. His every move will be within God's sovereign control.

tions no more till the thousand years were finished. But after these things he must be released for a little while.

The Saints Reign with Christ 1000 Years

4 And I saw [a]thrones, and they sat on them, and [b]judgment was committed to them. Then I saw [c]the souls of those who had been beheaded for their witness to Jesus and for the word of God, [d]who had not worshiped the beast [e]or his image, and had not received his mark on their foreheads or on their hands. And they [f]lived and [g]reigned with Christ for [1]a thousand years.
5 But the rest of the dead did not live again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.
6 Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over such [a]the second death has no power, but they shall be [b]priests of God and of Christ, [c]and shall reign with Him a thousand years.

Satanic Rebellion Crushed

7 Now when the thousand years have expired, Satan will be released from his prison
8 and will go out [a]to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, [b]Gog and Magog, [c]to gather them together to battle, whose number is as the sand of the sea.
9 [a]They went up on the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city. And fire came down from God out of heaven and devoured them.

ENCOUNTER Note Rev. 20:9

Surrounded

God's people may find themselves surrounded by forces hostile to God, yet numbers and worldly power do not determine the victory. God does.

10 The devil, who deceived them, was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone [a]where[1] the beast and the false prophet are. And they [b]will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

The Great White Throne Judgment

11 Then I saw a great white throne and Him who sat on it, from whose face [a]the earth and the heaven fled away. [b]And there was found no place for them.
12 And I saw the dead, [a]small and great, standing before [1]God, [b]and books were opened. And another [c]book was opened, which is the Book of Life. And the dead were judged [d]according to their works, by the things which were written in the books.
13 The sea gave up the dead who were in it, [a]and Death and Hades delivered up the dead who were in them. [b]And they were judged, each one according to his works.
14 Then [a]Death and Hades were cast into the lake of fire. [b]This is the second [1]death.
15 And anyone not found written in the Book of Life [a]was cast into the lake of fire.

All Things Made New

21 Now [a]I saw a new heaven and a new earth, [b]for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away. Also there was no more sea.
2 Then I, [1]John, saw [a]the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared [b]as a bride adorned for her husband.
3 And I heard a loud voice from heaven saying, "Behold, [a]the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people. God Himself will be with them and be their God.
4 [a]"And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; [b]there shall be no more death, [c]nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away."
5 Then [a]He who sat on the throne said, [b]"Behold, I make all things new." And He said [1]to me, "Write, for [c]these words are true and faithful."
6 And He said to me, [a]"It[1] is done! [b]I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. [c]I will give of the fountain

CHAPTER 21

3 [a]Lev. 26:11
4 [a]Is. 25:8 [b]1 Cor. 15:26 [c]Is. 35:10; 51:11; 65:19

6 [a]Rev. 10:6; 16:17 [b]Rev. 1:8; 22:13 [c]John 4:10 [1]M omits It is done

20:6 The second death refers to the eternal torment of those who reject Christ.

20:8 In Ezekiel 38 and 39, Gog of the land of Magog is the leader of the apocalyptic forces arrayed against God. Rabbinic literature viewed Gog and Magog as nations in rebellion against God.

20:12 The Book of Life contains the names of all those who belong to Christ and who will be invited to celebrate His marriage feast throughout eternity.

20:15 The lake of fire was first the dwelling place of the beast and the false prophet (Rev. 19:20), then the devil (20:10), then Death and Hades (20:14), and finally those whose names are not recorded in the Book of Life.

21:1 "New" indicates more than merely a second beginning. It describes a qualitatively different form of heaven and earth. Ultimately, God will not merely reform our present situation, He will transform it.

21:6 Water of life, a symbol of salvation and the sanctifying work of God's Spirit, was similarly promised to the Samaritan woman at the well (John 4:10).

ENCOUNTER Note Rev. 21:4

No More Tears

This life is filled with sorrow and pain. But we look toward the day when all things will be made new. A day is coming when suffering shall be forgotten and unimaginable joy will be our constant experience.

of the water of life freely to him who thirsts.
7 "He who overcomes [1]shall inherit all things, and [a]I will be his God and he shall be My son.
8 [a]"But the cowardly, [1]unbelieving, abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars shall have their part in [b]the lake which burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death."

The New Jerusalem

9 Then one of [a]the seven angels who had the seven bowls filled with the seven last plagues came [1]to me and talked with me, saying, "Come, I will show you [b]the [2]bride, the Lamb's wife."
10 And he carried me away [a]in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me [b]the [1]great city, the [2]holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,
11 [a]having the glory of God. Her light was like a most precious stone, like a jasper stone, clear as crystal.
12 Also she had a great and high wall with [a]twelve gates, and twelve angels at the gates, and names written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:
13 [a]three gates on the east, three gates on the north, three gates on the south, and three gates on the west.
14 Now the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and [a]on them were the [1]names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.
15 And he who talked with me [a]had a gold reed to measure the city, its gates, and its wall.
16 The city is laid out as a square; its length is as great as its breadth. And he measured the city with the reed: twelve thousand [1]furlongs. Its length, breadth, and height are equal.
17 Then he measured its wall: one hundred and forty-four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of an angel.
18 The construction of its wall was of jasper; and the city was pure gold, like clear glass.
19 [a]The foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with all kinds of precious stones: the first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald,
20 the fifth sardonyx, the sixth sardius, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, and the twelfth amethyst.
21 The twelve gates were twelve [a]pearls: each individual gate was of one pearl. [b]And the street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass.

The Glory of the New Jerusalem

22 [a]But I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple.
23 [a]The city had no need of the sun or of the moon to shine [1]in it, for the [2]glory of God illuminated it. The Lamb is its light.
24 [a]And the nations [1]of those who are saved shall walk in its light, and the kings of the earth bring their glory and honor [2]into it.
25 [a]Its gates shall not be shut at all by day [b](there shall be no night there).
26 [a]And they shall bring the glory and the honor of the nations into [1]it.
27 But [a]there shall by no means enter it anything [1]that defiles, or causes an abomination or a lie, but only those who are written in the Lamb's [b]Book of Life.

The River of Life

22 And he showed me [a]a [1]pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding from the throne of God and of the Lamb.

CHAPTER 22

1 [a]Ezek. 47:1 [1]NU, M omit pure
2 [a]Ezek. 47:12

21:14 The apostles would be a part of the foundation of the heavenly Jerusalem (Matt. 19:28; Luke 6:13–16; Eph. 2:20).

21:16 The new Jerusalem would be a cube, which was a symbol of perfection. The holy of holies was shaped as a cube. Twelve thousand furlongs would be 1,400 miles.

21:17 The wall would be over two hundred feet thick, yet it would be crystal clear, indicating purity.

21:19 Jasper would be colorless; sapphire, blue; chalcedony, green or greenish blue; emerald, bright green; sardonyx, red and white; sardius, blood-red; chrysolite, yellow; beryl, blue or blue-green; topaz, golden; chrysoprase, apple-green; jacinth, blue or blue-purple; amethyst, purple or violet.

21:21 Only one street is mentioned, but it consists of pure gold.

21:23 Just as Christ came as the light of the world (John 1:4, 9), so in the new Jerusalem the glory of God and of the Lamb provide the illumination.

21:25 The gates to the city are not closed, because there are no longer any enemies.

22:2 The original tree of life was in the Garden of Eden, although Adam and Eve never ate from it (Gen. 2:9; 3:22). The prophet Ezekiel foresaw a day when God's people would enjoy access to heavenly trees (Ezek. 47:12). The tree of life in the New Jerusalem symbolizes a restored, heavenly garden in which humanity will enjoy God forever.

ENCOUNTER Note Rev. 21:27

The Book of Life

Only those whose names are in the Book of Life will be allowed into heaven. These are the ones to whom Jesus referred as entering by the narrow gate. For centuries people have speculated and argued about heaven's admission requirements. However, God alone has determined who shall enter. His word makes it clear who that will be.

ther side of the river, was [b]the tree of life, which bore twelve fruits, each tree yielding its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree were [c]for the healing of the nations.
3 And [a]there shall be no more curse, [b]but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it, and His [c]servants shall serve Him.
4 [a]They shall see His face, and [b]His name shall be on their foreheads.
5 [a]There shall be no night there: They need no lamp nor [b]light of the sun, for [c]the Lord God gives them light. [d]And they shall reign forever and ever.

The Time Is Near

6 Then he said to me, [a]"These words are faithful and true." And the Lord God of the [1]holy prophets [b]sent His angel to show His servants the things which must [c]shortly take place.
7 [a]"Behold, I am coming quickly! [b]Blessed is he who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."

ENCOUNTER Note Rev. 22:7

Coming Soon

The hope of every Christian rests on Christ's second coming. His triumphant return will be the culmination of all of God's work from the beginning of time. It will mark the onset of eternity with those who love Him. Believers should live in constant anticipation of His return.

8 Now I, John, [1]saw and heard these things. And when I heard and saw, [a]I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who showed me these things.
9 Then he said to me, [a]"See that you do not do that. [1]For I am your fellow servant, and of your brethren the prophets, and of those who keep the words of this book. Worship God."
10 [a]And he said to me, "Do not seal the words of the prophecy of this book, [b]for the time is at hand.
11 "He who is unjust, let him be unjust still; he who is filthy, let him be filthy still; he who is righteous, let him [1]be righteous still; he who is holy, let him be holy still."

Jesus Testifies to the Churches

12 "And behold, I am coming quickly, and [a]My reward is with Me, [b]to give to every one according to his work.
13 [a]"I am the Alpha and the Omega, the [1]Beginning and the End, the First and the Last."
14 [a]Blessed are those who [1]do His commandments, that they may have the right [b]to the tree of life, [c]and may enter through the gates into the city.
15 [1]But [a]outside are [b]dogs and sorcerers and sexually immoral and murderers and idolaters, and whoever loves and practices a lie.
16 [a]"I, Jesus, have sent My angel to testify to you these things in the churches. [b]I am the Root and the Offspring of David, [c]the Bright and Morning Star."
17 And the Spirit and [a]the bride say, "Come!" And let him who hears say, "Come!" [b]And let him who thirsts come. Whoever desires, let him take the water of life freely.

ENCOUNTER Note Rev. 22:17

Come!

God's constant invitation to us is "come!" He invites us to return to Him and to enjoy fellowship with Him. Abiding with Him is a choice we make. The invitation remains. How will we respond?

22:3 "No more curse" may refer to the absence of the curse of sin (Gen. 3:14–19). Even in the perfect city, God's chosen ones will serve Him.

22:15 "Dogs" typically referred to Gentiles (Matt. 15:26). However, here it may refer to false teachers (Phil. 3:2).

22:18 God's Word is sufficient for every person to understand and to receive God's salvation. Any person or religion that adds supplemental teachings to God's revealed Word is under His strictest curse (Deut. 4:2; Prov. 30:6).

PROPHECIES AND FULFILLMENTS

Prophecies Concerning the Messiah
Presented Here in Their Order of Fulfillment

PROPHETIC SCRIPTURE	SUBJECT	FULFILLED
Gen. 3:15 "And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her Seed; He shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel."	seed of a woman	Gal. 4:4 "But when the fullness of the time had come, God sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under the law."
Gen. 12:3 "I will bless those who bless you, and I will curse him who curses you; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed."	descendant of Abraham	Matt. 1:1 "The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the Son of David, the Son of Abraham."
Gen. 17:19 "Then God said, 'No, Sarah your wife shall bear you a son, and you shall call his name Isaac; I will establish My covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his descendants after him.' "	descendant of Isaac	Luke 3:34 "the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, the son of Terah, the son of Nahor."
Num. 24:17 "I see Him, but not now; I behold Him, but not near; a Star shall come out of Jacob; a Scepter shall rise out of Israel, and batter the brow of Moab, and destroy all the sons of tumult."	descendant of Jacob	Matt. 1:2 "Abraham begot Isaac, Isaac begot Jacob, and Jacob begot Judah and his brothers."
Gen. 49:10 "The scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh comes; and to Him shall be the obedience of the people."	from the tribe of Judah	Luke 3:33 "the son of Amminadab, the son of Ram, the son of Hezron, the son of Perez, the son of Judah."
Is. 9:7 "Of the increase of His government and peace there will be no end, upon the throne of David and over His kingdom, to order it and establish it with judgment and justice from that time forward, even forever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this."	heir to the throne of David	Luke 1:32, 33 "He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Highest; and the Lord God will give Him the throne of His father David. And He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of His kingdom there will be no end."
Ps. 45:6, 7; 102:25–27 "Your throne, O God, is forever and ever; a scepter of righteousness is the scepter of Your kingdom. You love righteousness, and hate wickedness; therefore God, Your God, has anointed You with the oil of gladness more than Your companions." "Of old You laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the work of Your hands. They will perish, but You will endure; yes, all of them will grow old like a garment; like a cloak You will change them, and they will be changed. But You are the same, and Your years will have no end."	anointed and eternal	Heb. 1:8–12 "But to the Son He says: 'Your throne, O God, is forever and ever; a scepter of righteousness is the scepter of Your kingdom. You have loved righteousness and hated lawlessness; therefore God, Your God, has anointed You with the oil of gladness more than Your companions.' And: 'You, LORD, in the beginning laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the work of Your hands. They will perish, but You remain; and they will all grow old like a garment; like a cloak You will fold them up, and they will be changed. But You are the same, and Your years will not fail.' "

PROPHETIC SCRIPTURE	SUBJECT	FULFILLED
Mic. 5:2 "But you, Bethlehem, Ephrathah, though you are little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of you shall come forth to Me the One to be Ruler in Israel, whose goings forth are from of old, from everlasting."	born in Jerusalem	Luke 2:4, 5, 7 "And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David, to be registered with Mary, his betrothed wife, who was with child. . . . And she brought forth her firstborn Son, and wrapped Him in swaddling cloths, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn."
Dan. 9:25 "Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the command to restore and build Jerusalem until Messiah the Prince, there shall be seven weeks, and sixty-two weeks; the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublesome times."	time for His birth	Luke 2:1, 2 "And it came to pass in those days that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be registered. This census first took place when Quirinius was governor of Syria."
Is. 7:14 "Therefore the Lord Himself will give you a sign: behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a Son, and shall call His name Immanuel."	to be born of a virgin	Luke 1:26, 27, 30, 31 "Now in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a city of Galilee named Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary. . . . Then the angel said to her, 'Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. And behold, you will conceive in your womb, and bring forth a Son, and shall call His name JESUS. ' "
Jer. 31:15 "Thus says the LORD: 'A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping, Rachel weeping for her children, refusing to be comforted for her children, because they are no more.' "	slaughter of children	Matt. 2:16–18 "Then Herod, when he saw that he was deceived by the wise men, was exceedingly angry; and he sent forth and put to death all the male children who were in Bethlehem and in all its districts, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had determined from the wise men. Then was fulfilled what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying: 'A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, refusing to be comforted, because they are no more.' "
Hos. 11:1 "When Israel was a child, I loved him, and out of Egypt I called My son."	flight to Egypt	Matt. 2:14, 15 "When he arose, he took the young Child and His mother by night and departed for Egypt, and was there until the death of Herod, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, 'Out of Egypt I called My Son.' "
Is. 40:3–5 "The voice of one crying in the wilderness: 'Prepare the way of the LORD; make straight in the desert a highway for our God. Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill brought low; the crooked places shall be made straight, and the rough places smooth; the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.' "	the way prepared	Luke 3:3–6 "And he went into all the region around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for the remission of sins, as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, saying: 'The voice of one crying in the wilderness: "Prepare the way of the LORD; make His paths straight. Every valley shall be filled and every mountain and hill brought low; the crooked places shall be made straight and the rough ways smooth; and all flesh shall see the salvation of God." ' "

PROPHETIC SCRIPTURE	SUBJECT	FULFILLED
Mal. 3:1 " 'Behold, I send My messenger, and he will prepare the way before Me. And the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to His temple, even the Messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight. Behold, He is coming,' says the LORD of hosts."	preceded by a forerunner	Luke 7:24, 27 "When the messengers of John had departed, He began to speak to the multitudes concerning John: 'What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? . . . This is he, of whom it is written: "Behold, I send My messenger before Your face, who will prepare Your way before You." ' "
Mal. 4:5, 6 "Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD. And he will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the earth with a curse."	preceded by Elijah	Matt. 11:13, 14 "For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John. And if you are willing to receive it, he is Elijah who is to come."
Ps. 2:7 "I will declare the decree: the LORD has said to Me, 'You are My Son, today I have begotten You.' "	declared the Son of God	Matt. 3:17 "And suddenly a voice came from heaven, saying, 'This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.' "
Is. 9:1, 2 "Nevertheless the gloom will not be upon her who is distressed, as when at first He lightly esteemed the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, and afterward more heavily oppressed her, by the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, in Galilee of the Gentiles. The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who dwelt in the land of the shadow of death, upon them a light has shined."	Galilean ministry	Matt. 4:13–16 "And leaving Nazareth, He came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the regions of Zebulun and Naphtali, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying: 'The land of Zebulun, and the land of Naphtali, by the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles: The people who sat in darkness have seen a great light, and upon those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned.' "
Ps. 78:2–4 "I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings of old, which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us. We will not hide them from their children, telling to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, and His strength and His wonderful works that He has done."	speaks in parables	Matt. 13:34, 35 "All these things Jesus spoke to the multitude in parables; and without a parable He did not speak to them, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying: 'I will open My mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.' "
Deut. 18:15 "The LORD your God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from your midst, from your brethren. Him you shall hear."	a prophet	Acts 3:20, 22 "And that He may send Jesus Christ, who was preached to you before, . . . For Moses truly said to the fathers, 'The LORD your God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from your brethren. Him you shall hear in all things, whatever He says to you.' "
Is. 61:1, 2 "The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon Me, because the LORD has anointed Me to preach good tidings to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound; to proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn."	to bind up the brokenhearted	Luke 4:18, 19 "The Spirit of the LORD is upon Me, because He has anointed Me to preach the gospel to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and recovery of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed; to proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD."
Is. 53:3 "He is despised and rejected by men; a Man of sorrows and acquainted with grief. And we hid, as it were our faces from Him; He was despised, and we did not esteem Him."	rejected by His own people, the Jews	John 1:11 "He came to His own, and His own did not receive Him." Luke 23:18 "And they all cried out at once, saying, 'Away with this Man, and release to us Barabbas.' "

Ps. 110:4 "The LORD has sworn and will not relent, 'You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.' "	priest after order of Melchizedek	Heb. 5:5, 6 "So also Christ did not glorify Himself to become High Priest, but it was He who said to Him: 'You are My Son, today I have begotten You.' As He also says in another place: 'You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.' "
Zech. 9:9 "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusalem! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey."	triumphal entry	Mark 11:7, 9, 11 "Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their clothes on it, and He sat on it. . . . Then those who went before and those who followed cried out, saying: 'Hosanna! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!' . . . And Jesus went into Jerusalem, and into the temple. So when He had looked around at all things, as the hour was already late, He went out to Bethany with the twelve."
Ps. 8:2 "Out of the mouth of babes and nursing infants You have ordained strength, because of Your enemies, that You may silence the enemy and the avenger."	adored by infants	Matt. 21:15, 16 "But when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that He did, and the children crying out in the temple and saying, 'Hosanna to the Son of David!' they were indignant and said to Him, 'Do you hear what these are saying?' And Jesus said to them, 'Yes. Have you never read, "Out of the mouth of babes and nursing infants You have perfected praise"?' "
Is. 53:1 "Who has believed our report? And to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?"	not believed	John 12:37, 38 "But although He had done so many signs before them, they did not believe in Him, that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke: 'Lord, who has believed our report? And to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?' "
Ps. 41:9 "Even my own familiar friend in whom I trusted, who ate my bread, has lifted up his heel against me."	betrayed by a close friend	Luke 22:47, 48 "And while He was still speaking, behold, a multitude; and he who was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them and drew near to Jesus to kiss Him. But Jesus said to him, 'Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?' "
Zech. 11:12 "Then I said to them, 'If it is agreeable to you, give me my wages; and if not, refrain.' So they weighed out for my wages thirty pieces of silver."	betrayed for thirty pieces of silver	Matt. 26:14, 15 "Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests and said, 'What are you willing to give me if I deliver Him to you?' And they counted out to him thirty pieces of silver."
Ps. 35:11 "Fierce witnesses rise up; they ask me things that I do not know."	accused by false witnesses	Mark 14:57, 58 "Then some rose up and bore false witness against Him, saying, 'We heard Him say, "I will destroy this temple made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands." ' "
Is. 53:7 "He was oppressed, and He was afflicted, yet He opened not His mouth; He was led as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before its shearers is silent, so He opened not His mouth."	silent to accusations	Mark 15:4, 5 "Then Pilate asked Him again, saying, 'Do You answer nothing? See how many things they testify against You!' But Jesus still answered nothing, so that Pilate marveled."

Is. 50:6 "I gave My back to those who struck Me, and My cheeks to those who plucked out the beard; I did not hide My face from shame and spitting."	spat on and struck	Matt. 26:67 "Then they spat in His face and beat Him; and others struck Him with the palms of their hands."
Ps. 35:19 "Let them not rejoice over me who are wrongfully my enemies; nor let them wink with the eye who hate me without a cause."	hated without reason	John 15:24, 25 "If I had not done among them the works which no one else did, they would have no sin; but now they have seen and also hated both Me and My Father. But this happened that the word might be fulfilled which is written in their law, 'They hated Me without a cause.' "
Is. 53:5 "But He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement for our peace was upon Him, and by His stripes we are healed."	vicarious sacrifice	Rom. 5:6, 8 "For when we were still without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. . . . But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us."
Is. 53:12 "Therefore I will divide Him a portion with the great, and He shall divide the spoil with the strong. Because He poured out His soul unto death, and He was numbered with the transgressors, and He bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors."	crucified with malefactors	Mark 15:27, 28 "With Him they also crucified two robbers, one on His right and the other on His left. So the Scripture was fulfilled which says, 'And He was numbered with the transgressors.' "
Zech. 12:10 "And I will pour on the house of David and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem the Spirit of grace and supplication; then they will look on Me whom they pierced. Yes, they will mourn for Him as one mourns for his only son, and grieve for Him as one grieves for a firstborn."	pierced through hands and feet	John 20:27 "Then He said to Thomas, 'Reach your finger here, and look at My hands; and reach your hand here, and put it into My side. Do not be unbelieving, but believing.' "
Ps. 22:7, 8 "All those who see Me ridicule Me; they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying, 'He trusted in the LORD, let Him rescue Him; let Him deliver Him, since He delights in Him!' "	sneered and mocked	Luke 23:35 "And the people stood looking on. But even the rulers with them sneered, saying, 'He saved others; let Him save Himself if He is the Christ, the chosen of God.' "
Ps. 69:9 "Because zeal for Your house has eaten me up, and the reproaches of those who reproach You have fallen on me."	was reproached	Rom. 15:3 "For even Christ did not please Himself; but as it is written, 'The reproaches of those who reproached You fell on Me.' "
Ps. 109:4 "In return for my love they are my accusers, but I give myself to prayer."	prayer for His enemies	Luke 23:34 "Then Jesus said, 'Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they do.' And they divided His garments and cast lots."
Ps. 22:17, 18 "I can count all My bones. They look and stare at Me. They divide My garments among them, and for My clothing they cast lots."	soldiers gambled for His clothing	Matt. 27:35, 36 "Then they crucified Him, and divided His garments, casting lots, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet: 'They divided My garments among them, and for My clothing they cast lots.' Sitting down, they kept watch over Him there."
Ps. 22:1 "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me? Why are You so far from helping Me, and from the words of My groaning?"	forsaken by God	Matt. 27:46 "And about the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, 'Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?' that is, 'My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?' "

PROPHETIC SCRIPTURE	SUBJECT	FULFILLED
Ps. 34:20 "He guards all his bones, not one of them is broken."	no bones broken	John 19:32, 33, 36 "Then the soliders came and broke the legs of the first and of the other who was crucified with Him. But when they came to Jesus and saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs. . . . For these things were done that the Scripture should be fulfilled, 'Not one of His bones shall be broken.' "
Zech. 12:10 "And I will pour on the house of David and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem the Spirit of grace and supplication; then they will look on Me whom they have pierced. Yes, they will mourn for Him as one mourns for his only son, and grieve for Him as one grieves for a firstborn."	His side pierced	John 19:34 "But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out."
Is. 53:9 "And they made His grave with the wicked—but with the rich at His death, because He had done no violence, nor was any deceit in His mouth."	buried with the rich	Matt. 27:57–60 "Now when evening had come, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who himself had also become a disciple of Jesus. This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be given to him. When Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and laid it in his new tomb which he had hewn out of the rock; and he rolled a large stone against the door of the tomb, and departed."
Ps. 16:10 "For You will not leave my soul in Sheol, nor will You allow Your Holy One to see corruption." Ps. 49:15 "But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave, for He shall receive me. Selah"	to be resurrected	Mark 16:6, 7 "But he said to them, 'Do not be alarmed. You seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He is risen! He is not here. See the place where they laid Him. But go, tell His disciples—and Peter—that He is going before you into Galilee; there you will see Him, as He said to you.' "
Ps. 68:18 "You have ascended on high. You have led captivity captive; You have received gifts among men; even from the rebellious, that the LORD God might dwell there."	His ascension to God's right hand	Mark 16:19 "So then, after the Lord had spoken to them, He was received up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God." 1 Cor. 15:4 "And that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day according to the Scriptures." Eph. 4:8 "Therefore He says: 'When He ascended on high, He led captivity captive, and gave gifts to men.' "
