3 He took his brother by the heel in the womb, and by his strength he had power with God:
4 Yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed: he wept, and made supplication unto him: he found him in Beth-el, and there he spake with us;
5 Even the LORD God of hosts; the LORD is his memorial.
6 Therefore turn thou to thy God: keep mercy and judgment, and wait on thy God continually.
7 He is a merchant, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to oppress.
8 And Ephraim said, Yet I am become rich, I have found me out substance: in all my labours they shall find none iniquity in me that were sin.
9 And I that am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt will yet make thee to dwell in tabernacles, as in the days of the solemn feast.
10 I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and used similitudes, by the ministry of the prophets.
11 Is there iniquity in Gilead? surely they are vanity: they sacrifice bullocks in Gilgal; yea, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields.
12 And Jacob fled into the country of Syria, and Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep.
13 And by a prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet was he preserved.
14 Ephraim provoked him to anger most bitterly: therefore shall he leave his blood upon him, and his reproach shall his Lord return unto him.

Israel's Sin of Idolatry

13 When Ephraim spake trembling, he exalted himself in Israel; but when he offended in Baal, he died.
2 And now they sin more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let the men that sacrifice kiss the calves.
3 Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the early dew that passeth away, as the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney.
4 Yet I am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt, and thou shalt know no god but me: for there is no saviour beside me.
5 I did know thee in the wilderness, in the land of great drought.
6 According to their pasture, so were they

12:8 Ephraim

(Heb. 'ephraim) (Gen. 41:52; Josh. 14:4; Zech. 10:7) H0669: The proper name of Joseph's youngest son, Ephraim means fruitful. Along with his older brother Manasseh, Ephraim was adopted and blessed by the great patriarch Jacob and thus became the father of one of the twelve tribes of Israel. Later the name Ephraim was used to refer to the entire northern kingdom of Israel (Jer. 31:18; Hos. 4:17).

13:6 pasture

(Heb. mir`ith) (Ps. 79:13; 100:3; Is. 49:9; Ezek. 34:31) H4830: This noun means pasture or grazing place and refers to any area where sheep, cattle, or goats forage for food. Figuratively, it can represent a place of tranquility where the Lord leads and feeds His people (Ps. 79:13; 100:3).

filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted; therefore have they forgotten me.
7 Therefore I will be unto them as a lion: as a leopard by the way will I observe them:
8 I will meet them as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the caul of their heart, and there will I devour them like a lion: the wild beast shall tear them.
9 O Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself; but in me is thine help.
10 I will be thy king: where is any other that may save thee in all thy cities? and thy judges of whom thou saidst, Give me a king and princes?
11 I gave thee a king in mine anger, and took him away in my wrath.
12 The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is hid.
13 The sorrows of a travailing woman shall come upon him: he is an unwise son; for he should not stay long in the place of the breaking forth of children.
14 I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death: O death, I will be thy plagues; O grave, I will be thy destruction: repentance shall be hid from mine eyes.
15 Though he be fruitful among his brethren, an east wind shall come, the wind of the LORD shall come up from the wilderness, and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up: he shall spoil the treasure of all pleasant vessels.
16 Samaria shall become desolate; for she hath rebelled against her God: they shall fall by the sword: their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ripped up.

A Return to the Lord

14 O Israel, return unto the LORD thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity.
2 Take with you words, and turn to the LORD: say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously: so will we render the calves of our lips.
3 Asshur shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses: neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods: for in thee the fatherless findeth mercy.
4 I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him.
5 I will be as the dew unto Israel: he shall grow as the lily, and cast forth his roots as Lebanon.
6 His branches shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the olive tree, and his smell as Lebanon.
7 They that dwell under his shadow shall return; they shall revive as the corn, and grow as the vine: the scent thereof shall be as the wine of Lebanon.
8 Ephraim shall say, What have I to do any more with idols? I have heard him, and observed him: I am like a green fir tree. From me is thy fruit found.
9 Who is wise, and he shall understand these things? prudent, and he shall know them? for the ways of the LORD are right, and the just shall walk in them: but the transgressors shall fall therein.

(Heb. berosh) (1 Kin. 5:8; Is. 14:8; Ezek. 31:8) H1265: This word, sometimes rendered juniper or cypress, describes an evergreen conifer tree. Cypress wood is native to the Middle East. Moreover, it was durable and desirable, and considered a sign of prosperity. It was used in shipbuilding and constructing coffins and furniture. When Solomon set out to build the temple, King Hiram of Tyre supplied him with large amounts of cedar and cypress timber (1 Kin. 9:11).

THE BOOK OF

JOEL

DISASTER STRIKES THE SOUTHERN KINGDOM of Judah without warning. An ominous black cloud descends upon the land—the dreaded locusts. In a matter of hours, every living green thing has been stripped bare. Joel, God's spokesman during the reign of Joash (835–796 B.C.), seizes this occasion to proclaim God's message. Although the locust plague has been a terrible judgment for sin, God's future judgments during the day of the Lord will make that plague pale by comparison. In that day, God will destroy His enemies, but bring unparalleled blessing to those who faithfully obey Him.

The Hebrew name Yo'el means "Yahweh Is God." This name is appropriate to the theme of the book, which emphasizes God's sovereign work in history. The courses of nature and nations are in His hand. The Greek equivalent is Ioel, and the Latin is Joel.

WATCH WORDS

- give ear (hear, pay attention to what follows)—1:2
- spirit (breath, wind, or breath of life)—2:28

The Word of the Lord

1 The word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of Pethuel.

2 Hear this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land. Hath this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers?

3 Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

The Locust Devastation

4 That which the palmerworm hath left hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath the cankerworm eaten; and that which the cankerworm hath left hath the caterpiller eaten.

5 Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth.

6 For a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek teeth of a great lion.

7 He hath laid my vine waste, and barked my fig tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white.

1:2 give ear

(Heb. 'azan) (Ex. 15:26; Deut. 1:45; Is. 64:4) H0238: This verb, often translated "give ear," derives from a noun meaning "ear." This term occurs primarily in poetry, in imperative form, and in parallel with verbs meaning "hear" and "pay attention." It typically functions as a summons to give heed to what follows. It introduces prayers (Ps. 5:1; 17:1; 84:8), songs (Gen. 4:23; Deut. 32:1; Judg. 5:3), wisdom sayings (Job 34:2; Ps. 49:1; 78:1; Is. 28:23), and prophetic words (Num. 23:18; Is. 51:4; Jer. 13:15; Hos. 5:1; Joel 1:2). The heavens and earth are each commanded to give ear to God's message (Deut. 32:1; Is. 1:2). All too frequently, the very people of God failed to give ear to Him (2 Chr. 24:19; Neh. 9:30).

1:4 locust

(Heb. 'arbeh) (2 Chr. 6:28; Ps. 105:34; Prov. 30:27; Joel 2:25) H0697: This voracious and destructive insect was well known in Old Testament times. According to Leviticus 11:22, locusts were clean, or edible, creatures. These are the same judgment instruments God used in the eighth plague against Egypt (Ex. 10:4, 12–14, 19). Nahum 3:15–17 uses locusts as a symbol of useless numbers. God promises (Joel 2:25) to restore, for the repentant, even what the locusts have destroyed.

1:7 waste ▸ see Ps. 46:8.

9 The meat offering and the drink offering is cut off from the house of the LORD; the priests, the LORD's ministers, mourn.
10 The field is wasted, the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted: the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth.
11 Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.
12 The vine is dried up, and the fig tree languisheth; the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because joy is withered away from the sons of men.

A Cry to the Lord

13 Gird yourselves, and lament, ye priests:
howl, ye ministers of the altar: come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God:
for the meat offering and the drink offering is withholden from the house of your God.
14 Sanctify ye a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the LORD your God, and cry unto the LORD,

Destruction from the Lord

15 Alas for the day! for the day of the LORD is at hand, and as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come.
16 Is not the meat cut off before our eyes, yea, joy and gladness from the house of our God?
17 The seed is rotten under their clods, the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the corn is withered.
18 How do the beasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.
19 O LORD, to thee will I cry: for the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burned all the trees of the field.
20 The beasts of the field cry also unto thee:
for the rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

The Dark Day of the Lord

2 Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand;
2 A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations.
3 A fire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them.
4 The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run.
5 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.
6 Before their face the people shall be much pained: all faces shall gather blackness.
7 They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks:
8 Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded.
9 They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall, they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief.
10 The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining:
11 And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and who can abide it?

ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning:
13 And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.
14 Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave a blessing behind him; even a meat offering and a drink offering unto the LORD your God?
15 Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly:
16 Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet.
17 Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

Great Things from the Lord

18 Then will the LORD be jealous for his land, and pity his people.
19 Yea, the LORD will answer and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen:
20 But I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face toward the east sea, and his hinder part toward the utmost sea, and his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because he hath done great things.
21 Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for the LORD will do great things.
22 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig tree and the vine do yield their strength.
23 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.
24 And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the vats shall overflow with wine and oil.
25 And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpiller, and the palmerworm, my great army which I sent among you.
26 And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed.
27 And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.

A Pouring Out of God's Spirit

28 And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:
29 And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.
30 And I will shew wonders in the heavens

2:28 spirit

(Heb. ruach) (Gen. 6:3; 1 Kin. 22:23; Ps. 32:2; 146:4) H7307: The noun spirit is related to a verb meaning "to breathe" or "to blow." It can signify breath (Job 9:18; 19:17), wind (Gen. 8:1; Ex. 10:13), air (Eccl. 1:14; Is. 26:18), the breath of life (whether animal or human, Gen. 6:17; 7:15), disposition or mood (Gen. 41:8; Ezek. 21:7), an evil or distressing spirit (1 Sam. 16:14–16), or the Spirit of God (Gen. 1:2; Ps. 51:11). The spirit of life is the gift of God to all creatures (Job 12:10; 33:4; Eccl. 12:7). The endowment of God's Holy Spirit is a special gift to believers, which brings spiritual life (Ps. 51:10, 11; 143:10), power (Judg. 6:34), wisdom and understanding (Is. 11:2), and divine revelation which leads to a better understanding of God's Word and His perfect ways (Joel 2:28; Is. 61:1, 2).

and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.
31 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come.
32 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.

Judgment on Israel's Enemies

3 For, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,
2 I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.
3 And they have cast lots for my people; and have given a boy for an harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink.
4 Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O Tyre, and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine? will ye render me a recompence? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I return your recompence upon your own head;
5 Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly pleasant things:
6 The children also of Judah and the children of Jerusalem have ye sold unto the Grecians, that ye might remove them far from their border.
7 Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own head:
8 And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the Sabeans, to a people far off: for the LORD hath spoken it.
9 Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up:
10 Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruninghooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong.
11 Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O LORD.
12 Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about.
13 Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the press is full, the fats overflow; for their wickedness is great.
14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.
15 The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining.
16 The LORD also shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel.
17 So shall ye know that I am the LORD your God dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall no strangers pass through her any more.

Judah to Dwell Forever

18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Judah shall flow with waters, and a fountain shall come forth of the house of the LORD, and shall water the valley of Shittim.
19 Egypt shall be a desolation, and Edom shall be a desolate wilderness, for the violence against the children of Judah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land.
20 But Judah shall dwell for ever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation.
21 For I will cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed: for the LORD dwelleth in Zion.

3:16 roar

(Heb. sha'ag) (Job 37:4; Jer. 25:30; Hos. 11:10) H7580: The term refers to the fearful sound made by a lion (Ps. 104:21; Jer. 2:15; Amos 3:4). Here Joel uses the word to describe the sound of sovereignty as God takes action on behalf of His people. This same usage is found in Amos 1:2 and 3:8. But the actions of false prophets (Ezek. 22:25) and evil princes (Zeph. 3:3) also make this sound before the Lord.

3:16 hope ▸ see Prov. 14:26.

THE BOOK OF

AMOS

AMOS PROPHESIES DURING A PERIOD of national optimism in Israel. Business is booming and boundaries are bulging. But below the surface, greed and injustice are festering. Hypocritical religious motions have replaced true worship, creating a false sense of security and a growing callousness to God's disciplining hand. Famine, drought, plagues, death, destruction—nothing can force the people to their knees.

Amos, the farmer-turned-prophet, lashes out at sin unflinchingly, trying to visualize the nearness of God's judgment and mobilize the nation to repentance. The nation, like a basket of rotting fruit, stands ripe for judgment because of its hypocrisy and spiritual indifference.

The name Amos is derived from the Hebrew root amas, "to lift a burden, to carry." Thus, his name means "Burden" or "Burden-Bearer." Amos lives up to the meaning of his name by bearing up under his divinely given burden of declaring judgment to rebellious Israel. The Greek and Latin titles are both transliterated in English as Amos.

Judgment on the Nations

1 The words of Amos, who was among the herdmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

2 And he said, The LORD will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Carmel shall wither.

3 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron:

4 But I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad.

5 I will break also the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the plain of Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from the house of Eden: and the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto Kir, saith the LORD.

6 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to Edom:

7 But I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, which shall devour the palaces thereof:

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from Ashkelon, and I will turn mine hand

1:2 habitation

(Heb. na'ah) (Ps. 65:12; Joel 1:19, 20; 2:22) H4999: Used most often to indicate the places where sheep and shepherds live, it can also be translated "pastures" (Ps. 65:12; Joel 1:19, 20; 2:22). The most recognizable use of this term is Psalm 23:2, "He maketh me to lie down in green pastures." A shepherd like Amos doesn't hesitate to mention the sorrow of parched pastures to picture the grief of the nation under God's judgment.

against Ekron: and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord GOD.

9 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Tyrus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom, and remembered not the brotherly covenant:

10 But I will send a fire on the wall of Tyrus, which shall devour the palaces thereof.

11 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he did pursue his brother with the sword, and did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever:

12 But I will send a fire upon Teman, which shall devour the palaces of Bozrah.

13 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have ripped up the women with child of Gilead, that they might enlarge their border:

14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, with shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind:

15 And their king shall go into captivity, he and his princes together, saith the LORD.

2 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Moab, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime:

2 But I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of Kirioth: and Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet:

3 And I will cut off the judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the LORD.

Judgment on Judah

4 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have despised the law of the LORD, and have not kept his commandments, and their lies caused them to err, after the which their fathers have walked:

5 But I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

Judgment on Israel

6 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes;

7 That pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and turn aside the way of the meek: and a man and his father will go in unto the same maid, to profane my holy name:

8 And they lay themselves down upon clothes laid to pledge by every altar, and they drink the wine of the condemned in the house of their god.

God's Continued Faithfulness

9 Yet destroyed I the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath.

10 Also I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and led you forty years through the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite.

11 And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for Nazarites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the LORD.

12 But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, saying, Prophesy not.

Judgment on Israel's Sins

13 Behold, I am pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves.

2:4 err

(Heb. ta`ah) (Ps. 95:10; Prov. 10:17; 14:22; Is. 35:8) H8582: Sometimes translated "wander" (Gen. 21:14; Job 38:41; Ps. 107:40) or "astray" (Ex. 23:4; Ps. 58:3; Prov. 7:125), the term can also imply "seduce" (2 Kin. 21:9), implying enticement to do evil. The people in Amos's day were simply believing the same lies that their parents had believed about the results of ignoring God's law. So they were wandering down the same dangerous path to judgment.

2:6 shoe ▸ see Amos 8:6.
2:10 wilderness ▸ see Jer. 22:6.

14 Therefore the flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliver himself:
15 Neither shall he stand that handleth the bow; and he that is swift of foot shall not deliver himself: neither shall he that rideth the horse deliver himself.
16 And he that is courageous among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, saith the LORD.

God Has Spoken

3 Hear this word that the LORD hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying,
2 You only have I known of all the families of the earth: therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities.
3 Can two walk together, except they be agreed?
4 Will a lion roar in the forest, when he hath no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den, if he have taken nothing?
5 Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth, where no gin is for him? shall one take up a snare from the earth, and have taken nothing at all?
6 Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, and the LORD hath not done it?
7 Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.
8 The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord GOD hath spoken, who can but prophesy?
9 Publish in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Samaria, and behold the great tumults in the midst thereof, and the oppressed in the midst thereof.
10 For they know not to do right, saith the LORD, who store up violence and robbery in their palaces.

Israel's Adversary

11 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; An adversary there shall be even round about the land; and he shall bring down thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shall be spoiled.
12 Thus saith the LORD; As the shepherd taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Israel be taken out that dwell in Samaria in the corner of a bed, and in Damascus in a couch.
13 Hear ye, and testify in the house of Jacob, saith the Lord GOD, the God of hosts, 14 That in the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Israel upon him I will also visit the altars of Beth-el: and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground.
15 And I will smite the winter house with the summer house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall have an end, saith the LORD.

Judgment on the Women of Samaria

4 Hear this word, ye kine of Bashan, that are in the mountain of Samaria, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.
2 The Lord GOD hath sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that he will take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fishhooks.
3 And ye shall go out at the breaches, every cow at that which is before her; and ye shall cast them into the palace, saith the LORD.
4 Come to Beth-el, and transgress; at Gilgal multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after three years:
5 And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with

3:7 reveal

(Heb. galah) (Job 20:27; Prov. 11:13; 20:19; Jer. 33:6) H1540: A verb which basically means uncover, but with wide usage having to do with discovery, disclosure, showing, etc. Often it's used to indicate God's bringing into the open what has been hidden or unknown. It takes on this theological tone in 1 Samuel 2:27 and 3:7, dealing with the nature of God's relationship with Eli and Samuel. But earlier, in Deuteronomy 29:29, Moses declares that God allows us certain knowledge for our benefit, yet keeps other things unrevealed for His purposes.

leaven, and proclaim and publish the free offerings: for this liketh you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

The Chastening of the Lord

6 And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.
7 And also I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.
8 So two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.
9 I have smitten you with blasting and mildew: when your gardens and your vineyards and your fig trees and your olive trees increased, the palmerworm devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.
10 I have sent among you the pestilence after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.
11 I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

Prepare to Meet Your God

12 Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.
13 For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The LORD, The God of hosts, is his name.

A Lamentation for Israel

5 Hear ye this word which I take up against you, even a lamentation, O house of Israel.
2 The virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up.
3 For thus saith the Lord GOD; The city that went out by a thousand shall leave an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Israel.

Seek the Lord and Live

4 For thus saith the LORD unto the house of Israel, Seek ye me, and ye shall live:
5 But seek not Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not to Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Beth-el shall come to nought.
6 Seek the LORD, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Beth-el.

4:8 satisfy

(Heb. sabea') (Ps. 63:5; 65:4; Prov. 20:13; Mic. 6:14) H7646: Used only here by Amos, this word for full, filled (Ex. 16:12; Neh. 9:25), and have plenty (Prov. 28:19; Jer. 44:17) points to that which satiates or satisfies, generally related to hunger rather than thirst. In places like Deuteronomy 31:20, the satisfaction comes from favor or God's blessing. Amos is pointing to the lack of satisfaction on the part of his people that should have caused their return to God but did not.

5:4 seek

(Heb. darash) (Ezra 6:21; 7:10; Ps. 119:10; Is. 34:16; 55:6) H1875: This Hebrew verb can be correctly translated "to inquire of," "to ask," and "to seek." The term conveys the idea of "going to see" in the sense of personally verifying something said, or "searching for," in the sense of pressing for an answer to a question. Amos encourages his audience to seek life in the living God, not in the dead idols of Bethel and Gilgal (Amos 5:4). The psalmist found help in times of trouble by seeking the Lord (Ps. 34:4; 77:2). On several occasions, the Israelites were encouraged to seek God by preparing their hearts for God through humble repentance (1 Chr. 16:11; 2 Chr. 30:19).

7 Ye who turn judgment to wormwood, and leave off righteousness in the earth,
8 Seek him that maketh the seven stars and Orion, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night: that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The LORD is his name:
9 That strengtheneth the spoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled shall come against the fortress.
10 They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they abhor him that speaketh uprightly.
11 Forasmuch therefore as your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat: ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.
12 For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.
13 Therefore the prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time.
14 Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have spoken.
15 Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: it may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph.

God Will Pass in Judgment

16 Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus; Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing.
17 And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for I will pass through thee, saith the LORD.
18 Woe unto you that desire the day of the LORD! to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is darkness, and not light.
19 As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.
20 Shall not the day of the LORD be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?
21 I hate, I despise your feast days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies.
22 Though ye offer me burnt offerings and your meat offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat beasts.
23 Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols.
24 But let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.
25 Have ye offered unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?
26 But ye have borne the tabernacle of your Moloch and Chiun your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves.
27 Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus, saith the LORD, whose name is The God of hosts.

At Ease in Zion

6 Woe to them that are at ease in Zion, and trust in the mountain of Samaria, which are named chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel came!
2 Pass ye unto Calneh, and see; and from thence go ye to Hamath the great: then go down to Gath of the Philistines: be they better than these kingdoms? or their border greater than your border?
3 Ye that put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near;
4 That lie upon beds of ivory, and stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall;
5 That chant to the sound of the viol, and invent to themselves instruments of musick, like David;
6 That drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments: but they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.

7 Therefore now shall they go captive with the first that go captive, and the banquet of them that stretched themselves shall be removed.
8 The Lord GOD hath sworn by himself, saith the LORD the God of hosts, I abhor the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city with all that is therein.
9 And it shall come to pass, if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.
10 And a man's uncle shall take him up, and he that burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is by the sides of the house, Is there yet any with thee? and he shall say, No. Then shall he say, Hold thy tongue: for we may not make mention of the name of the LORD.
11 For, behold, the LORD commandeth, and he will smite the great house with breaches, and the little house with clefts.
12 Shall horses run upon the rock? will one plow there with oxen? for ye have turned judgment into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into hemlock:
13 Ye which rejoice in a thing of nought, which say, Have we not taken to us horns by our own strength?
14 But, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith the LORD the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the entering in of Hemath unto the river of the wilderness.

A Plague of Grasshoppers

7 Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me; and, behold, he formed grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings.
2 And it came to pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord GOD, forgive, I beseech thee: by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.
3 The LORD repented for this: It shall not be, saith the LORD.

A Plague of Fire

4 Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me: and, behold, the Lord GOD called to contend by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and did eat up a part.
5 Then said I, O Lord GOD, cease, I beseech thee: by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.
6 The LORD repented for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord GOD.

A Plumbline

7 Thus he shewed me: and, behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by a plumbline, with a plumbline in his hand.
8 And the LORD said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumbline. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a plumbline in the midst of my people Israel: I will not again pass by them any more:
9 And the high places of Isaac shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.

Amaziah's Warning to Amos

10 Then Amaziah the priest of Beth-el sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words.

6:12 hemlock

(Heb. la`anah) (Prov. 5:4; Jer. 23:15; Lam. 3:15; Amos 5:7) H3939: A term having to do with a poisonous plant, elsewhere translated "wormwood." The word includes the idea of a bitter taste and deadly result. Something may appear to be good or acceptable, such as adultery, injustice, or other sins, but the experience and after-effects may turn sour and result in destruction. Amos twice uses the term to confront the people's persistence in perverting justice and righteousness into bitter experiences for others.

6:13 strength ▸ see Ex. 13:14.

7:2 Jacob

(Heb. ya`aqob) (Gen. 25:26; Deut. 1:8; Amos 3:13; 8:7) H3290: One of twin sons born to Isaac, the son of Abraham. Called a patriarch (father) of the Jewish people, for his 12 sons became the 12 tribes of the nation. During his birth, he grasped the heel of his older brother, so his name includes the root word heel (`qb). His birth name and later his given name Israel (Gen. 32:27, 28) became ways of identifying the nation, often house of Jacob (Amos 9:8). Here Amos, as he does five times in his book, expresses his deep concern for his people, using the patriarch's name.

11 For thus Amos saith, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of their own land.
12 Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, go, flee thee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there:
13 But prophesy not again any more at Beth-el: for it is the king's chapel, and it is the king's court.

Amos's Reply to Amaziah

14 Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was an herdman, and a gatherer of sycomore fruit:
15 And the LORD took me as I followed the flock, and the LORD said unto me, Go, prophesy unto my people Israel.
16 Now therefore hear thou the word of the LORD: Thou sayest, Prophesy not against Israel, and drop not thy word against the house of Isaac.
17 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou shalt die in a polluted land: and Israel shall surely go into captivity forth of his land.

A Basket of Summer Fruit

8 Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me: and behold a basket of summer fruit.
2 And he said, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the LORD unto me, The end is come upon my people of Israel; I will not again pass by them any more.
3 And the songs of the temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord GOD: there shall be many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth with silence.

Judgment on the Oppressors of the Poor

4 Hear this, O ye that swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail,
5 Saying, When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and falsifying the balances by deceit?
6 That we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat?
7 The LORD hath sworn by the excellency of Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their works.
8 Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.
9 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord GOD, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day:
10 And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.
11 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD:
12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it.
13 In that day shall the fair virgins and young men faint for thirst.
14 They that swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, Thy god, O Dan, liveth; and, The manner of Beer-sheba liveth; even they shall fall, and never rise up again.

8:6 shoe

(Heb. na'al) (Is. 20:2; Ezek. 24:23; Amos 2:6) H5275: This Hebrew word is the term used most often to refer to footwear. It is often translated "shoe," but the term is closest to the idea of shod, as in anything worn to protect foot or hoof from jagged surfaces. The removal of one's sandals often indicated humility, as in the case of Moses (Ex. 3:5) and Joshua (Josh. 5:15). A sandal was also a simple sign of agreement, as in Ruth 4:7, 8 when Boaz is securing the right to marry Ruth. For Amos, lack of sandals was a sign of poverty.

that the posts may shake: and cut them in the head, all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: he that fleeth of them shall not flee away, and he that escapeth of them shall not be delivered.
2 Though they dig into hell, thence shall mine hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down:
3 And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them:
4 And though they go into captivity before their enemies, thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and I will set mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good.
5 And the Lord GOD of hosts is he that toucheth the land, and it shall melt, and all that dwell therein shall mourn: and it shall rise up wholly like a flood; and shall be drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.
6 It is he that buildeth his stories in the heaven, and hath founded his troop in the earth; he that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The LORD is his name.
7 Are ye not as children of the Ethiopians unto me, O children of Israel? saith the LORD. Have not I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt? and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir?
8 Behold, the eyes of the Lord GOD are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the LORD.
9 For, lo, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth.
10 All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, which say, The evil shall not overtake nor prevent us.

The Tabernacle of David

11 In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old:
12 That they may possess the remnant of Edom, and of all the heathen, which are called by my name, saith the LORD that doeth this.

The Restoration of Israel

13 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt.
14 And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them.
15 And I will plant them upon their land, and they shall no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them, saith the LORD thy God.

9:6 story

(Heb. ma`alah) (Ex. 20:26; Neh. 3:15; Ezek. 40:6) H4609: This word refers to different elevations or layers in construction. It can identify steps (Ex. 20:26; 1 Kin. 10:19, 20; Ezek. 40:22, 26, 31, 49) or stairs (Neh. 3:15; Ezek. 40:6). Amos's use of the term here is unique, picturing God's sovereignty in what He constructs in the heavens just as surely as His authority over things on earth.

THE BOOK OF OBADIAH

A STRUGGLE THAT BEGAN IN the womb between twin brothers, Esau and Jacob, eventuates in a struggle between their respective descendants, the Edomites and the Israelites. For the Edomites' stubborn refusal to aid Israel, first during the time of wilderness wandering (Num. 20:14–21) and later during a time of invasion, they are roundly condemned by Obadiah. This little-known prophet describes their crimes, tries their case, and pronounces their judgment: total destruction.

The Hebrew name Obadyah means "Worshiper of Yahweh" or "Servant of Yahweh." The Greek title in the Septuagint is Obdiou, and the Latin title in the Vulgate is Abdias.

WATCH WORD

- pride (thinking highly of oneself)—3

A Judgment on Edom

1 The vision of Obadiah. Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning Edom; We have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen, Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle.

2 Behold, I have made thee small among the heathen: thou art greatly despised.

3 The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

4 Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the LORD.

5 If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not have stolen till they had enough? if the grapegatherers came to thee, would they not leave some grapes?

6 How are the things of Esau searched out! how are his hidden things sought up!

7 All the men of thy confederacy have brought thee even to the border: the men that were at peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; they that eat thy bread have laid a wound under thee: there is none understanding in him.

8 Shall I not in that day, saith the LORD, even destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau?

The Dismay of Edom's Mighty Men

9 And thy mighty men, O Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one of the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter.

10 For thy violence against thy brother Jacob shame shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off for ever.

11 In the day that thou stoodest on the other side, in the day that the strangers carried away captive his forces, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots upon Jerusalem, even thou wast as one of them.

3 pride

(Heb. zadon) (Prov. 11:2; 13:10; Jer. 49:16) H2087: The Hebrew noun is related to a verb that means "to boil up." In the Old Testament, the noun has the meaning of acting proudly or presumptuously (Deut. 18:22; 1 Sam. 17:28). The defining characteristic of the nation of Edom was pride (Obad. 3; Jer. 49:16). Interestingly, Jeremiah uses the word pride symbolically as a synonym for Babylon (Jer. 50:31, 32). Pride incites insolence and rebellion toward God, and it brings shame (Prov. 11:2) and destruction (Ezek. 7:10–12). The "pride of your heart" of which Jeremiah speaks is "presumptuous godlessness," the arrogance of those who think that they can thrive without their Creator (Prov. 11:2; 13:10; Jer. 49:16).

12 But thou shouldest not have looked on the day of thy brother in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldest thou have rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldest thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress.
13 Thou shouldest not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; yea, thou shouldest not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity;
14 Neither shouldest thou have stood in the crossway, to cut off those of his that did escape; neither shouldest thou have delivered up those of his that did remain in the day of distress.

Edom's Punishment

15 For the day of the LORD is near upon all the heathen: as thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee: thy reward shall return upon thine own head.
16 For as ye have drunk upon my holy mountain, so shall all the heathen drink continually, yea, they shall drink, and they shall swallow down, and they shall be as though they had not been.
17 But upon mount Zion shall be deliverance, and there shall be holiness; and the house of Jacob shall possess their possessions.
18 And the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they shall kindle in them, and devour them; and there shall not be any remaining of the house of Esau; for the LORD hath spoken it.

Edom's Land Is Inhabited by Others

19 And they of the south shall possess the mount of Esau; and they of the plain the Philistines: and they shall possess the fields of Ephraim, and the fields of Samaria: and Benjamin shall possess Gilead.
20 And the captivity of this host of the children of Israel shall possess that of the Canaanites, even unto Zarephath; and the captivity of Jerusalem, which is in Sepharad, shall possess the cities of the south.
21 And saviours shall come up on mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau; and the kingdom shall be the LORD's.

THE BOOK OF JONAH

NINEVEH IS NORTHEAST; TARSHISH IS west. When God calls Jonah to preach repentance to the wicked Ninevites, the prophet knows that God's mercy may follow. He turns down the assignment and heads for Tarshish instead. But once God has dampened his spirits (by tossing him out of the boat and into the water) and has demonstrated His protection (by moving him out of the water and into the fish), Jonah realizes God is serious about His command. Nineveh must hear the word of the Lord; therefore Jonah goes. Although the preaching is a success, the preacher comes away angry and discouraged and he must learn firsthand of God's compassion for sinful men.

Yonah is the Hebrew word for "dove." The Septuagint hellenized this word into Ionas, and the Latin Vulgate used the title Jonas.

God's Command to Jonah

1 Now the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the son of Amittai, saying,
2 Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before me.
3 But Jonah rose up to flee unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD, and went down to Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD.

A Mighty Tempest

4 But the LORD sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken.
5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, and cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep.
6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper?
arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.
7 And they said every one to his fellow,
Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.

The Cause of the Evil

8 Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?
9 And he said unto them, I am an Hebrew;
and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land.
10 Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this?
For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.
11 Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous.

Jonah Cast Into the Sea

12 And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you.

13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring it to the land; but they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.
14 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee.
15 So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea: and the sea ceased from her raging.
16 Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows.

A Great Fish

17 Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

Jonah's Prayer

2 Then Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's belly,
2 And said, I cried by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he heard me; out of the belly of hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice.
3 For thou hadst cast me into the deep, in the midst of the seas; and the floods compassed me about: all thy billows and thy waves passed over me.
4 Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will look again toward thy holy temple.
5 The waters compassed me about, even to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head.
6 I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life from corruption, O LORD my God.
7 When my soul fainted within me I remembered the LORD: and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple.
8 They that observe lying vanities forsake their own mercy.
9 But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD.
10 And the LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

Go Preach to Nineveh

3 And the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying,
2 Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.
3 So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceeding great city of three days' journey.
4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.
5 So the people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth,

1:17 prepare

(Heb. manah) (Ps. 147:4; Jon. 4:6) H4487: This Hebrew verb basically means "to count" or "to assign." The psalmist uses this verb to praise God for knowing the number of stars and naming each one (Ps. 147:4). In the Book of Jonah, it signifies "to appoint" or "to ordain," and describes God's intervention in natural events to bring about His will. By preparing the fish, the plant, and the worm, God made sure that Jonah's mission was not left to chance. God exercised sovereignty not only over the plant and animal world, but also over Jonah's life, using animals as small as a worm to teach Jonah about His great mercy (Jon. 4:6–8).

2:1 fish ▸ see Ps. 105:29.
2:2 hell ▸ see Job 26:6.

2:7 faint

(Heb. `ataph) (Ps. 142:3; Is. 57:16) H5848: This rarely used verb means "to swoon, be faint, feeble, weak, overwhelmed." It occurs almost exclusively in poetic material. It is used with reference to the feeble lambs of Jacob (Gen. 30:42) as well as to the very young children of Jerusalem who swooned from hunger following the Babylonian destruction of their city (Lam. 2:11, 12, 19). Hunger and thirst led to a faintness of soul that caused God's people to cry out to Him (Ps. 107:5), and Jonah's faintness of soul caused him to do the same (Jon. 2:7). Likewise, more than one psalmist cried out to God due to his faintness of heart or spirit over his troubles (Ps. 61:2; 77:3; 143:4).

3:5 fast

(Heb. tsom) (1 Kin. 21:9; Ps. 109:24; Joel 2:12) H6685: This term denotes a fast or the act of fasting. A fast covers a period of time in which one from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

6 For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.
7 And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water:
8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands.
9 Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?
10 And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

Jonah's Anger

4 But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry.
2 And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.
3 Therefore now, O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live.
4 Then said the LORD, Doest thou well to be angry?
5 So Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.
6 And the LORD God prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jonah was exceeding glad of the gourd.
7 But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered.
8 And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live.

God's Compassion

9 And God said to Jonah, Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, I do well to be angry, even unto death.
10 Then said the LORD, Thou hast had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night:
11 And should not I spare Nineveh, that great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle?

abstains from food to seek the Lord (Is. 58:3, 5, 6; Jer. 36:6). While fasting could be a private matter (2 Sam. 12:16), there were also regular fast times for the community (Esth. 9:31; Zech. 8:19), and authorities could proclaim a public fast whenever the situation warranted one (2 Chr. 20:3; Ezra 8:21; Jer. 36:9). Both public and private fasting could be accompanied by weeping, lamentations, sackcloth, and ashes (Neh. 9:1; Esth. 4:3; Ps. 69:10, 11; Dan. 9:3). Fasts were consecrated (Joel 1:14; 2:15) and, when properly performed, involved humbling one's soul (Ps. 35:13).

4:7 worm

(Heb. tola') (Ex. 16:20; Is. 1:18) H8438: While this term is often translated "worm," it is probably never used for an earthworm. It sometimes refers to larvae (grub worms, meal worms, maggots, or the like, Ex. 16:20; Deut. 28:39). Referring to a human as a larva was a designation of lowliness and insignificance (Job 25:6; Ps. 22:6; Is. 41:14). Larvae feast on the flesh of the dead in Sheol (Is. 14:11; 66:24). In the overwhelming majority of instances (especially in Exodus), this word was used for the luxurious scarlet color produced from crushing the insect Kermes ilicis (Ex. 25:4; Lev. 14:4; Num. 4:8). This color symbolized the opulence of some (Lam. 4:5) and the stain of sin upon all (Is. 1:18).

THE BOOK OF

MICAH

MICAH, CALLED FROM HIS RUSTIC home to be a prophet, leaves his familiar surroundings to deliver a stern message of judgment to the princes and people of Jerusalem. Burdened by the abusive treatment of the poor by the rich and influential, the prophet turns his verbal rebukes upon any who would use their social or political power for personal gain. One-third of Micah's book exposes the sins of his countrymen; another third pictures the punishment God is about to send; and the final third holds out the hope of restoration once that discipline has ended. Through it all, God's righteous demands upon His people are clear: "to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God" (6:8).

The name Michayahu ("Who Is Like Yahweh?") is shortened to Michaia. In 7:18, Micah hints at his own name with the phrase "Who is a God like unto thee?" The Greek and Latin titles of this book are Michaias and Micha.

Judgment on Samaria and Jerusalem

1 The word of the LORD that came to Micah the Morasthite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 Hear, all ye people; hearken, O earth, and all that therein is: and let the Lord GOD be witness against you, the Lord from his holy temple.

3 For, behold, the LORD cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth.

4 And the mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down a steep place.

5 For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not Samaria? and what are the high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem?

6 Therefore I will make Samaria as an heap of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will discover the foundations thereof.

7 And all the graven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the hires thereof shall be burned with the fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate: for she gathered it of the hire of an harlot, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot.

8 Therefore I will wail and howl, I will go stripped and naked: I will make a wailing like the dragons, and mourning as the owls.

9 For her wound is incurable; for it is come

1:2 witness

(Heb. `ed) (Gen. 31:44; Deut. 5:20; Ruth 4:9) H5707: This word refers to one who testifies or gives evidence or testimony, and yet it is derived from a verb that means to repeat or return. Likely, this is because a witness repeats his/her statement and is expected to keep returning to the truth of what has been seen or heard (Lev. 5:1). In legal proceedings, two witnesses were required to convict (Num. 35:30; Deut. 19:15). To bear witness falsely was forbidden by the ninth of the Ten Commandments (Ex. 20:16). God, who sees and hears all, is the ultimate witness (1 Sam. 12:5; Job 16:19).

unto Judah; he is come unto the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem.

No Place to Hide

10 Declare ye it not at Gath, weep ye not at all: in the house of Aphrah roll thyself in the dust.
11 Pass ye away, thou inhabitant of Saphir, having thy shame naked: the inhabitant of Zaanan came not forth in the mourning of Beth-ezel; he shall receive of you his standing.
12 For the inhabitant of Maroth waited carefully for good: but evil came down from the LORD unto the gate of Jerusalem.
13 O thou inhabitant of Lachish, bind the chariot to the swift beast: she is the beginning of the sin to the daughter of Zion: for the transgressions of Israel were found in thee.
14 Therefore shalt thou give presents to Moresheth-gath: the houses of Achzib shall be a lie to the kings of Israel.
15 Yet will I bring an heir unto thee, O inhabitant of Mareshah: he shall come unto Adullam the glory of Israel.
16 Make thee bald, and poll thee for thy delicate children; enlarge thy baldness as the eagle; for they are gone into captivity from thee.

Woe to Oppressive Leaders

2 Woe to them that devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light, they practise it, because it is in the power of their hand.
2 And they covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.
3 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, against this family do I devise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks; neither shall ye go haughtily: for this time is evil.
4 In that day shall one take up a parable against you, and lament with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled: he hath changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me! turning away he hath divided our fields.
5 Therefore thou shalt have none that shall cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD.

Israel's Sins and God's Judgment

6 Prophesy ye not, say they to them that prophesy: they shall not prophesy to them, that they shall not take shame.
7 O thou that art named the house of Jacob, is the spirit of the LORD straitened? are these his doings? do not my words do good to him that walketh uprightly?
8 Even of late my people is risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe with the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war.
9 The women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their children have ye taken away my glory for ever.
10 Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction.
11 If a man walking in the spirit and falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of wine and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people.
12 I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, as the flock in the midst of their fold: they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men.
13 The breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it: and their king shall pass before them, and the LORD on the head of them.

2:12 sheep

(Heb. tso'n) (Gen. 12:16; Deut. 14:26; Ps. 44:11; Jer. 23:1) H6629: The word is flock (Gen. 4:2), referring to ungulates (either sheep or goats), but typically sheep (Gen. 21:28; 1 Sam. 17:20). Many Old Testament references to sheep are literal, but some are figurative, as with this verse, where the people of God are likened to sheep with God as their shepherd (see also Ps. 100:3; Ezek. 34:31). Jesus would use this same imagery in the New Testament to call Himself the Good Shepherd (John 10:11).

2 Who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones;
3 Who also eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron.
4 Then shall they cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

God Rebukes False Prophets

5 Thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that make my people err, that bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace; and he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him.
6 Therefore night shall be unto you, that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them.
7 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded: yea, they shall all cover their lips; for there is no answer of God.

Zion Shall Be Plowed

8 But truly I am full of power by the spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.
9 Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that abhor judgment, and pervert all equity.
10 They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.
11 The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the LORD, and say, Is not the LORD among us? none evil can come upon us.
12 Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

The Mountain of the Lord

4 But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it.
2 And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
3 And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.
4 But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.
5 For all people will walk every one in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

A Strong Nation

7 And I will make her that halted a

3:6 dark

(Heb. chashak) (Ps. 105:28; Is. 13:10; Jer. 13:16) H2821: The verb form means to be dark or darkened; the noun form (H2822) refers to a state of darkness. This darkness can be physical (Gen. 1:4; Ex. 10:21) or a reference to night (Amos 5:8). It can also have more abstract and figurative meanings—to be in ignorance (Job 38:2), to be lost and confused (Is. 50:10), to be surrounded by evil. The good news is that God is impervious to darkness (Ps. 139:12), and sent Christ, the light of the world (John 8:12), that we might be children of light (Eph. 5:8).

4:5 ever

(Heb. `ad) (Ex. 15:18; Ps. 21:4; 145:21) H5703: The idea expressed by this word is eternal, continuing future, always, or for perpetuity. Some of the things that are unending are: the Lord's righteousness (Ps. 111:3); the Lord's reign (Ps. 10:16; 45:17); the worship of God (Ps. 61:8; 111:10); and judgment on the wicked (Ps. 9:5; 83:17; 92:7). In the last chapter of the Bible, the saints of God are seen to be reigning with Him "for ever and ever" (Rev. 22:5).

remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and the LORD shall reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth, even for ever.
8 And thou, O tower of the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.
9 Now why dost thou cry out aloud? is there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail.
10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon; there shalt thou be delivered; there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.
11 Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion.
12 But they know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor.
13 Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth.

The Ruler of Israel

5 Now gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us: they shall smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.
2 But thou, Beth-lehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting.
3 Therefore will he give them up, until the time that she which travaileth hath brought forth: then the remnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Israel.
4 And he shall stand and feed in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God; and they shall abide: for now shall he be great unto the ends of the earth.
5 And this man shall be the peace, when the Assyrian shall come into our land: and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight principal men.
6 And they shall waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod in the entrances thereof: thus shall he deliver us from the Assyrian, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our borders.
7 And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many people as a dew from the LORD, as the showers upon the grass, that tarrieth not for man, nor waiteth for the sons of men.
8 And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many people as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep: who, if he go through, both treadeth down, and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver.

4:13 lord

(Heb. 'adon) (Gen. 18:12; Num. 11:28; Deut. 10:17) H0113: This word means lord or master, and is used to refer to earthly authority figures—a husband (Amos 4:1), a father (Gen. 31:35), a slave owner (Ex. 21:5); a king (1 Chr. 21:3; Is. 36:8), an angel (Zech. 4:4), a prophet (2 Kin. 2:3), or a person to whom one must report and give account (1 Sam. 20:38). It is also used to speak of God (Ps. 114:7). Calling someone by this title is a sign of respect and should predispose one to obey his commands (Luke 6:46).

5:2 Judah ▸ see 1 Chr. 9:3.

5:8 lion

(Heb. 'ari) (Gen. 49:9; Judg. 14:8; Amos 3:8) H0738: The word refers to the large carnivorous mammal (Panthera leo persica) that was found in ancient times in Palestine and Persia. Bold (Prov. 28:15), destructive (Jer. 2:30), and given to roaring when attacking and consuming its prey (Ezek. 22:25), lions came to symbolize power and royalty (Prov. 30:29–31). Metaphorically, the Bible likens the devil to a roaring lion (1 Pet. 5:8). But more importantly, Messiah is referred to as "the Lion of the tribe of Juda" (Rev. 5:5).

Victory by God's Power

9 Thine hand shall be lifted up upon thine adversaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.
10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots:
11 And I will cut off the cities of thy land, and throw down all thy strong holds:
12 And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thine hand; and thou shalt have no more soothsayers:
13 Thy graven images also will I cut off, and thy standing images out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt no more worship the work of thine hands.
14 And I will pluck up thy groves out of the midst of thee: so will I destroy thy cities.
15 And I will execute vengeance in anger and fury upon the heathen, such as they have not heard.

A Controversy with Israel

6 Hear ye now what the LORD saith; Arise, contend thou before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.
2 Hear ye, O mountains, the LORD's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the LORD hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.
3 O my people, what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me.
4 For I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants; and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.
5 O my people, remember now what Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from Shittim unto Gilgal; that ye may know the righteousness of the LORD.
6 Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves of a year old?
7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?
8 He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?

Israel's Unjust Dealings

9 The LORD's voice crieth unto the city, and the man of wisdom shall see thy name: hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it.
10 Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is abominable?
11 Shall I count them pure with the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights?
12 For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

The Punishment for Unjust Dealings

13 Therefore also will I make thee sick in smiting thee, in making thee desolate because of thy sins.
14 Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied; and thy casting down shall be in the midst of thee; and thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliver; and that which thou deliverest will I give up to the sword.
15 Thou shalt sow, but thou shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil; and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine.

6:2 controversy

(Heb. rib) (Judg. 12:2; Prov. 17:14; 18:6; Jer. 11:20) H7379: This word can mean dispute or quarrel in the sense of a feud (Judg. 12:2), controversy, or strife (Prov. 17:14; 18:6) prompted by a rebellious spirit (Num. 20:13; Prov. 17:14; 18:6). It can also refer to a legal case or lawsuit (Job 31:13, 35; Jer. 11:20). The prophets frequently used this word as a technical legal term in contexts pertaining to the Lord's covenant relationship with Israel (Jer. 25:31; Hos. 4:1; 12:2). In this chapter, Micah was informing Judah that God had registered a formal legal complaint against His people. He was ordering them to stand trial for violating covenant stipulations forbidding idolatry and requiring social justice (Mic. 6:2–16).

No Goodness or Trust in the Land

7 Woe is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer fruits, as the grapegleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat: my soul desired the firstripe fruit.
2 The good man is perished out of the earth: and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net.
3 That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man, he uttereth his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.
4 The best of them is as a brier: the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watchmen and thy visitation cometh; now shall be their perplexity.
5 Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide: keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom.
6 For the son dishonoureth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter in law against her mother in law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

A Light in the Midst of Darkness

7 Therefore I will look unto the LORD; I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me.
8 Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD shall be a light unto me.
9 I will bear the indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness.
10 Then she that is mine enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her which said unto me, Where is the LORD thy God? mine eyes shall behold her: now shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets.
11 In the day that thy walls are to be built, in that day shall the decree be far removed.
12 In that day also he shall come even to thee from Assyria, and from the fortified cities, and from the fortress even to the river, and from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain.
13 Notwithstanding the land shall be desolate because of them that dwell therein, for the fruit of their doings.

A Plea for God's Care and Protection

14 Feed thy people with thy rod, the flock of thine heritage, which dwell solitarily in the wood, in the midst of Carmel: let them feed in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.
15 According to the days of thy coming out of the land of Egypt will I shew unto him marvellous things.
16 The nations shall see and be confounded at all their might: they shall lay their hand upon their mouth, their ears shall be deaf.
17 They shall lick the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes like worms of the earth: they shall be afraid of the LORD our God, and shall fear because of thee.

Micah Praises God's Mercy

18 Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.
19 He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities;

7:19 compassion

(Heb. racham) (Ex. 33:19; Prov. 28:13) H7355: The Hebrew word translated here as compassion means "to love from the womb" and is frequently translated "mercy" (Is. 14:1). The noun form of this verb means "womb," and consequently this verb depicts the tender love of a mother for her own helpless child (1 Kin. 3:26). "From the womb" speaks of the depth of emotion associated with this expression of love. God loves His people with a deep compassion and love that is almost beyond description. God used a form of this Hebrew word to reveal His character and name to Moses: "And the LORD passed by before him, and proclaimed, The LORD, The LORD God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth'" (Ex. 34:6).

THE BOOK OF

NAHUM

"FOR UNTO WHOMSOEVER MUCH IS given, of him shall be much required" (Luke 12:48). Nineveh had been given the privilege of knowing the one true God. Under Jonah's preaching this great Gentile city had repented, and God had graciously stayed His judgment. However, a hundred years later, Nahum proclaims the downfall of this same city. The Assyrians have forgotten their revival and have returned to their habits of violence, idolatry, and arrogance. As a result, Babylon will so destroy the city that no trace of it will remain—a prophecy fulfilled in painful detail.

The Hebrew word nahum ("comfort," "consolation") is a shortened form of Nehemiah ("Comfort of Yahweh"). The destruction of the capital city of Assyria is a message of comfort and consolation to Judah and all who live in fear of the cruelty of the Assyrians. The title of this book in the Greek and Latin Bibles is Naoum and Nahum.

WATCH WORD

- jealous (eager, zealous for)—1:2

A Jealous and Powerful God

1 The burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.
2 God is jealous, and the LORD revengeth; the LORD revengeth, and is furious; the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.
3 The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: the LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.
4 He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: Bashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languisheth.
5 The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein.
6 Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.
7 The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him.
8 But with an overrunning flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.
9 What do ye imagine against the LORD? he will make an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time.
10 For while they be folden together as thorns, and while they are drunken as

1:2 jealous

(Heb. qanno') (Josh. 24:19) H7072: This Hebrew term is related to a root word that can mean "to be eager, zealous for" (1 Kin. 19:10, 14), or even "to be furious" (Zech. 8:2). One of God's names is Jealous (Ex. 34:14). When the expression "the LORD your God is a jealous God" is used in the Old Testament, it is usually associated with an injunction against idol worship (Ex. 20:5; Deut. 4:24; 5:9; 6:15). God's jealousy for His people is a claim for exclusive allegiance rooted in His holiness (Josh. 24:19) and His role as their Creator and Redeemer (Ps. 95:6, 7; 96:2–5). We tend to associate jealousy with a self-serving emotion that usually results from feelings of inadequacy. God's jealousy, in contrast, proceeds from His holiness. Because He alone is the Holy One (Is. 6:3; 40:25), He will tolerate no rival (Ex. 20:5).

drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

A Wicked Counsellor

11 There is one come out of thee, that imagineth evil against the LORD, a wicked counsellor.
12 Thus saith the LORD; Though they be quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be cut down, when he shall pass through. Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more.
13 For now will I break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder.
14 And the LORD hath given a commandment concerning thee, that no more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image and the molten image: I will make thy grave; for thou art vile.
15 Behold upon the mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! O Judah, keep thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows: for the wicked shall no more pass through thee; he is utterly cut off.

The Invasion of Nineveh

2 He that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily.
2 For the LORD hath turned away the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and marred their vine branches.
3 The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are in scarlet: the chariots shall be with flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the fir trees shall be terribly shaken.
4 The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall justle one against another in the broad ways: they shall seem like torches, they shall run like the lightnings.
5 He shall recount his worthies: they shall stumble in their walk; they shall make haste to the wall thereof, and the defence shall be prepared.
6 The gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be dissolved.
7 And Huzzab shall be led away captive, she shall be brought up, and her maids shall lead her as with the voice of doves, tabering upon their breasts.
8 But Nineveh is of old like a pool of water: yet they shall flee away. Stand, stand, shall they cry; but none shall look back.
9 Take ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold: for there is none end of the store and glory out of all the pleasant furniture.
10 She is empty, and void, and waste: and the heart melteth, and the knees smite together, and much pain is in all loins, and the faces of them all gather blackness.

God's Wrath

11 Where is the dwelling of the lions, and the feedingplace of the young lions, where the lion, even the old lion, walked, and the lion's whelp, and none made them afraid?
12 The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey, and his dens with ravin.
13 Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions: and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

Nineveh Is Laid Waste

3 Woe to the bloody city! it is all full of lies and robbery; the prey departeth not;
2 The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the pransing horses, and of the jumping chariots.
3 The horseman lifteth up both the bright sword and the glittering spear: and there is a multitude of slain, and a great number of carcases; and there is none end of their corpses; they stumble upon their corpses:

2:4 run ▸ see Song 1:4.

2:5 make haste

(Heb. mahar) (Gen. 24:46; 43:30; Prov. 1:16; Is. 49:17) H4116: The emphasis in this term is speed or hurry (1 Sam. 23:27), doing what it takes to accomplish something sooner. The "make" is supplied to the archaic verb haste, or hasten. It is sometimes translated "quickly" (2 Chr. 18:8). Nahum uses the word to build a sense of anxiety and concern as people hurry to defend a city which God has condemned.

2:10 melt ▸ see Is. 34:3.
2:10 loins ▸ see Job 40:16.

4 Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the wellfavoured harlot, the mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts.
5 Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts; and I will discover thy skirts upon thy face, and I will shew the nations thy nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame.
6 And I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and make thee vile, and will set thee as a gazingstock.
7 And it shall come to pass, that all they that look upon thee shall flee from thee, and say, Nineveh is laid waste: who will bemoan her? whence shall I seek comforters for thee?

The Righteous Judgment

8 Art thou better than populous No, that was situate among the rivers, that had the waters round about it, whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was from the sea?
9 Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength, and it was infinite; Put and Lubim were thy helpers.
10 Yet was she carried away, she went into captivity: her young children also were dashed in pieces at the top of all the streets: and they cast lots for her honourable men, and all her great men were bound in chains.
11 Thou also shalt be drunken: thou shalt be hid, thou also shalt seek strength because of the enemy.
12 All thy strong holds shall be like fig trees with the firstripe figs: if they be shaken, they shall even fall into the mouth of the eater.
13 Behold, thy people in the midst of thee are women: the gates of thy land shall be set wide open unto thine enemies: the fire shall devour thy bars.
14 Draw thee waters for the siege, fortify thy strong holds: go into clay, and tread the morter, make strong the brickkiln.
15 There shall the fire devour thee; the sword shall cut thee off, it shall eat thee up like the cankerworm: make thyself many as the cankerworm, make thyself many as the locusts.

No Healing for Nineveh

16 Thou hast multiplied thy merchants above the stars of heaven: the cankerworm spoileth, and fleeth away.
17 Thy crowned are as the locusts, and thy captains as the great grasshoppers, which camp in the hedges in the cold day, but when the sun ariseth they flee away, and their place is not known where they are.
18 Thy shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria: thy nobles shall dwell in the dust: thy people is scattered upon the mountains, and no man gathereth them.
19 There is no healing of thy bruise; thy wound is grievous: all that hear the bruit of thee shall clap the hands over thee: for upon whom hath not thy wickedness passed continually?

3:10 captivity ▸ see Jer. 43:11.

3:14 tread

(Heb. ramas) (Is. 26:6; 41:25; Mic. 5:8) H7429: Also translated "trample" (Ps. 91:13; Is. 63:3), the context determines whether this is the kind of kneading done by feet in clay or mortar to give it the proper working consistency, or the kind of stomping done by feet crushing enemies or destroying crops underfoot. No matter how well the people prepared their fortifications for the siege of Nineveh, their efforts would be in vain.

THE BOOK OF

HABAKKUK

HABAKKUK MINISTERS DURING THE "DEATH throes" of the nation of Judah. Although repeatedly called to repentance, the nation stubbornly refuses to change her sinful ways. Habakkuk, knowing the hardheartedness of his countrymen, asks God how long this intolerable condition can continue. God replies that the Babylonians will be His chastening rod upon the nation—an announcement that sends the prophet to his knees. He acknowledges that the just in any generation shall live by faith (2:4), not by sight. Habakkuk concludes by praising God's wisdom even though he does not fully understand God's ways.

Habaqquq is an unusual Hebrew name derived from the verb habaq, "embrace." Thus his name probably means "One Who Embraces" or "Clings." At the end of his book, this name becomes appropriate because Habakkuk chooses to cling firmly to God regardless of what happens to his nation (3:16–19). The Greek title in the Septuagint is Ambakouk, and the Latin title in Jerome's Vulgate is Habacuc.

WATCH WORDS

- violence (intentional harm to others, cruelty)—1:9 (also 1:2, 3; 2:8, 17)
- joy (rejoicing, exultation)—3:18

Habakkuk's Cry to the Lord

1 The burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see.

2 O LORD, how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save!

3 Why dost thou shew me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me: and there are that raise up strife and contention.

4 Therefore the law is slacked, and judgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore wrong judgment proceedeth.

God's Reply: Captivity by the Chaldeans

5 Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously: for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, though it be told you.

6 For, lo, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land, to possess the dwellingplaces that are not theirs.

7 They are terrible and dreadful: their judgment and their dignity shall proceed of themselves.

8 Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly as the eagle that hasteth to eat.

9 They shall come all for violence: their

1:9 violence

(Heb. chamas) (Gen. 6:11; Ps. 11:5; Hab. 2:8) H2555: A word used to describe intentional harm done to others. It can be translated "cruel" (Ps. 25:19) or "cruelty" (Gen. 49:5; Ps. 74:20). Habakkuk's cry for God's intervention on behalf of His people is driven by the merciless cruelty that seems to have the upper hand. The picture of sustained violence highlights the importance of the prophet's message: "The just shall live by his faith" (Hab. 2:4).

faces shall sup up as the east wind, and they shall gather the captivity as the sand.
10 And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold; for they shall heap dust, and take it.
11 Then shall his mind change, and he shall pass over, and offend, imputing this his power unto his god.

God's Holiness and Purity

12 Art thou not from everlasting, O LORD my God, mine Holy One? we shall not die. O LORD, thou hast ordained them for judgment; and, O mighty God, thou hast established them for correction.
13 Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity: wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he?
14 And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that have no ruler over them?
15 They take up all of them with the angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their drag: therefore they rejoice and are glad.
16 Therefore they sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag; because by them their portion is fat, and their meat plenteous.
17 Shall they therefore empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations?

Write the Vision

2 I will stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see what he will say unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved.
2 And the LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.
3 For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

The Pride of the Chaldeans

4 Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith.
5 Yea also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people:
6 Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself with thick clay!
7 Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them?
8 Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.
9 Woe to him that coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil!
10 Thou hast consulted shame to thy house by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against thy soul.
11 For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.

Woe for Violence and Deceitfulness

12 Woe to him that buildeth a town with blood, and stablisheth a city by iniquity!

2:4 live

(Heb. chayah) (Gen. 47:19; Deut. 8:3; Josh. 6:17; Prov. 4:4) H2421: Along with several closely related words, this is the main Old Testament term for life as opposed to death. It is preserved by food, by wisdom, and by water. The physical reality is primarily in mind, but in passages like this one and Deuteronomy 8:3, which Jesus used to respond to Satan's temptation in the wilderness (Matt. 4:4), there is more to living than simply keeping the body alive.

13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity?
14 For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.
15 Woe unto him that giveth his neighbour drink, that puttest thy bottle to him, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness!
16 Thou art filled with shame for glory: drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered: the cup of the LORD's right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on thy glory.
17 For the violence of Lebanon shall cover thee, and the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid, because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.
18 What profiteth the graven image that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols?
19 Woe unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.
20 But the LORD is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep silence before him.

Habakkuk's Prayer for Mercy

3 A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet upon Shigionoth.
2 O LORD, I have heard thy speech, and was afraid: O LORD, revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy.
3 God came from Teman, and the Holy One from mount Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.
4 And his brightness was as the light; he had horns coming out of his hand: and there was the hiding of his power.
5 Before him went the pestilence, and burning coals went forth at his feet.
6 He stood, and measured the earth: he beheld, and drove asunder the nations; and the everlasting mountains were scattered, the perpetual hills did bow: his ways are everlasting.
7 I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction: and the curtains of the land of Midian did tremble.

Praise for God's Power

8 Was the LORD displeased against the rivers? was thine anger against the rivers? was thy wrath against the sea, that thou didst ride upon thine horses and thy chariots of salvation?
9 Thy bow was made quite naked, according to the oaths of the tribes, even thy word. Selah. Thou didst cleave the earth with rivers.
10 The mountains saw thee, and they trembled: the overflowing of the water passed by: the deep uttered his voice, and lifted up his hands on high.
11 The sun and moon stood still in their habitation: at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the shining of thy glittering spear.

Praise for God's Power

12 Thou didst march through the land in indignation, thou didst thresh the heathen in anger.
13 Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people, even for salvation with thine

2:18 image

(Heb. pesel) (Lev. 26:1; Deut. 5:8; 2 Kin. 21:7; Is. 42:17) H6459: This term is related to a verbal root meaning "to hew out stone" or "to cut or carve wood" (see Ex. 34:4). A pesel is an image or idol in the likeness of a human being or animal made from stone, wood, or metal. God prohibited the Hebrews from making such idols at Mount Sinai (Ex. 20:4). God intended the lack of images among the Hebrews to be one distinguishing feature of their true religion. Tragically, Israel followed the example of their pagan neighbors and worshiped carved images (Judg. 18:30; 2 Chr. 33:7). The psalmist describes such images as worthless and those who worship them as shameful (Ps. 97:7). Both Isaiah (Is. 40:19, 20; 44:9–20) and Habakkuk (Hab. 2:18) mock those who would put their trust in images made with mere human hands. They have no capacity to see, hear, speak, or do anything for their devotees.

anointed; thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, by discovering the foundation unto the neck. Selah.
14 Thou didst strike through with his staves the head of his villages: they came out as a whirlwind to scatter me: their rejoicing was as to devour the poor secretly.
15 Thou didst walk through the sea with thine horses, through the heap of great waters.
16 When I heard, my belly trembled; my lips quivered at the voice: rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up unto the people, he will invade them with his troops.
17 Although the fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls:
18 Yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will joy in the God of my salvation.
19 The LORD God is my strength, and he will make my feet like hinds' feet, and he will make me to walk upon mine high places. To the chief singer on my stringed instruments.

3:18 joy

(Heb. gil) (Is. 65:19) H1523: A somewhat rare verb form that is more familiar to us as rejoice (1 Chr. 16:31; Ps. 2:11; 21:1; 51:8; Prov. 23:24, 25). Here and in Isaiah, when the prophet has already declared he will rejoice, but wants to emphasize his response to God, this term offers that direct form of exultation.

THE BOOK OF

ZEPHANIAH

DURING JUDAH'S HECTIC POLITICAL AND religious history, reform comes from time to time. Zephaniah's forceful prophecy may be a factor in the reform that occurs during Josiah's reign—a "revival" that produces outward change but does not fully remove the inward heart of corruption which characterizes the nation. Zephaniah hammers home his message repeatedly that the day of the Lord, Judgment Day, is coming when the malignancy of sin will be dealt with. Israel and her gentile neighbors will soon experience the crushing hand of God's wrath. But after the chastening process is complete, blessing will come in the person of the Messiah, who will be the cause for praise and singing.

Tsephan-yah means "Yahweh Hides" or "Yahweh Has Hidden." Zephaniah was evidently born during the latter part of the reign of King Manasseh. His name may mean that he was "hidden" from Manasseh's atrocities. The Greek and Latin title is Sophonias.

WATCH WORD

- trust (confident dependence on God's faithfulness)—3:12

God's Message to Judah

1 The word of the LORD which came unto Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hizkiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

2 I will utterly consume all things from off the land, saith the LORD.

3 I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and the stumblingblocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the LORD.

4 I will also stretch out mine hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the Chemarims with the priests;

5 And them that worship the host of heaven upon the housetops; and them that worship and that swear by the LORD, and that swear by Malcham;

6 And them that are turned back from the LORD; and those that have not sought the LORD, nor enquired for him.

7 Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord GOD: for the day of the LORD is at hand: for the LORD hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath bid his guests.

8 And it shall come to pass in the day of the LORD's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, and the king's children, and all such as are clothed with strange apparel.

9 In the same day also will I punish all those that leap on the threshold, which fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that there shall be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, and an howling from the second, and a great crashing from the hills.

11 Howl, ye inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the merchant people are cut down; all they that bear silver are cut off.

12 And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men that are settled on their lees: that say in their heart, The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil.

13 Therefore their goods shall become a booty, and their houses a desolation: they shall also build houses, but not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but not drink the wine thereof.

1:7 sacrifice ▸ see Num. 7:17.
1:9 leap ▸ see Song 2:8.

14 The great day of the LORD is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.
15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness,
16 A day of the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.
17 And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung.
18 Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the LORD's wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

Seek the Lord

2 Gather yourselves together, yea, gather together, O nation not desired;
2 Before the decree bring forth, before the day pass as the chaff, before the fierce anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the LORD's anger come upon you.
3 Seek ye the LORD, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the LORD's anger.

Judgment on the Nations

4 For Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out Ashdod at the noon day, and Ekron shall be rooted up.
5 Woe unto the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! the word of the LORD is against you; O Canaan, the land of the Philistines, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.
6 And the sea coast shall be dwellings and cottages for shepherds, and folds for flocks.
7 And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Judah; they shall feed thereupon: in the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening: for the LORD their GOD shall visit them, and turn away their captivity.
8 I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revilings of the children of Ammon, whereby they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border.
9 Therefore as I live, saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even the breeding of nettles, and saltpits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.
10 This shall they have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the Lord of hosts.
11 The LORD will be terrible unto them: for he will famish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

1:15 distress

(Heb. metsuqah) (Ps. 25:17; 107:6) H4691: Most often translated this way, it can also mean anguish (Job 15:24), expressions of personal unsettledness, and vulnerability. Frequently the word is paired with "trouble" (ra—H7451), highlighting the reality that external difficulties and calamities are accompanied by internal responses and hardship.

1:15 wasteness ▸ see Ps. 35:8.
1:17 dust ▸ see Num. 23:10.

2:3 meek

(Heb. `anav) (Ps. 22:26; Is. 11:4) H6035: This Hebrew word may be translated "humble" (Ps. 34:2) or "meek" (Ps. 37:11; see also Matt. 5:5) and is derived from a verb meaning "to be afflicted" or "to be bowed down" (H6031—Ps. 116:10). Forms of this word occur twice in Zephaniah 2:3: first translated as "meek" and then as "meekness." The word frequently refers to the poor or oppressed (Prov. 14:21; Amos 2:7). It also signifies strength of character in enduring suffering without resentment. Such character is rooted in a strong faith in God and His goodness and a steadfast submission to His will.

12 Ye Ethiopians also, ye shall be slain by my sword.
13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy Assyria; and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.
14 And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of the nations: both the cormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the upper lintels of it; their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in the thresholds: for he shall uncover the cedar work.
15 This is the rejoicing city that dwelt carelessly, that said in her heart, I am, and there is none beside me: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! every one that passeth by her shall hiss, and wag his hand.

Judgment on Judah

3 Woe to her that is filthy and polluted, to the oppressing city!
2 She obeyed not the voice; she received not correction; she trusted not in the LORD; she drew not near to her God.
3 Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they gnaw not the bones till the morrow.
4 Her prophets are light and treacherous persons: her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law.
5 The just LORD is in the midst thereof; he will not do iniquity: every morning doth he bring his judgment to light, he faileth not; but the unjust knoweth no shame.
6 I have cut off the nations: their towers are desolate; I made their streets waste, that none passeth by: their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, that there is none inhabitant.
7 I said, Surely thou wilt fear me, thou wilt receive instruction; so their dwelling should not be cut off, howsoever I punished them: but they rose early, and corrupted all their doings.

To Serve God with One Consent

8 Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy.
9 For then will I turn to the people a pure language, that they may all call upon the name of the LORD, to serve him with one consent.
10 From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia my suppliants, even the daughter of my dispersed, shall bring mine offering.
11 In that day shalt thou not be ashamed for all thy doings, wherein thou hast transgressed against me: for then I will take away out of the midst of thee them that rejoice in thy pride, and thou shalt no more be haughty because of my holy mountain.
12 I will also leave in the midst of thee an afflicted and poor people, and they shall trust in the name of the LORD.
13 The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth: for they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

God's Judgments Are Taken Away

14 Sing, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel; be glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem.
15 The LORD hath taken away thy judgments, he hath cast out thine enemy: the king of Israel, even the LORD, is in the midst of thee: thou shalt not see evil any more.
16 In that day it shall be said to Jerusalem, Fear thou not: and to Zion, Let not thine hands be slack.

(Heb. chasah) (Ps. 25:20; 118:8; Prov. 30:5; Is. 14:32) H2620: Trust is confident dependence on God's faithfulness (the reputation attached to His name), the quality the prophet sees in those through whom God will fulfill His plans for Israel. This is not the most common term for trust in the Old Testament but describes an attitude of willingness to seek refuge (Ps. 57:1; Prov. 14:32) and find hope, particularly in God.

3:13 remnant ▸ see 2 Chr. 34:9.
3:14 rejoice ▸ see Ps. 108:7.

18 I will gather them that are sorrowful for the solemn assembly, who are of thee, to whom the reproach of it was a burden.
19 Behold, at that time I will undo all that afflict thee: and I will save her that halteth, and gather her that was driven out; and I will get them praise and fame in every land where they have been put to shame.
20 At that time will I bring you again, even in the time that I gather you: for I will make you a name and a praise among all people of the earth, when I turn back your captivity before your eyes, saith the LORD.

THE BOOK OF

HAGGAI

WITH THE BABYLONIAN EXILE IN the past, and a newly returned group of Jews back in the land, the work of rebuilding the temple can begin. However, sixteen years after the process is begun, the people have yet to finish the project, for their personal affairs have interfered with God's business. Haggai preaches a fiery series of sermonettes designed to stir up the nation to finish the temple. He calls the builders to renewed courage in the Lord, renewed holiness of life, and renewed faith in God who controls the future.

The etymology and meaning of Haggay is uncertain, but it is probably derived from the Hebrew word hag, "festival." It may also be an abbreviated form of haggiah, "festival of Yahweh." Thus, Haggai's name means "Festal" or "Festive," possibly because he was born on the day of a major feast, such as Tabernacles (Haggai's second message takes place during that feast, 2:1). The title in the Septuagint is Aggaios and in the Vulgate it is Aggaeus.

WATCH WORD

The Lord's House Is Neglected

1 In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet unto Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, saying,
2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORD's house should be built.
3 Then came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying,
4 Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your cieled houses, and this house lie waste?
5 Now therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; Consider your ways.
6 Ye have sown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes.

Build My House

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Consider your ways.
8 Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD.
9 Ye looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did blow upon it. Why? saith the LORD of hosts. Because of mine house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house.
10 Therefore the heaven over you is stayed from dew, and the earth is stayed from her fruit.
11 And I called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labour of the hands.

Work Is Started on the House of the Lord

12 Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him, and the people did fear before the LORD.
13 Then spake Haggai the LORD's messenger in the LORD's message unto the people, saying, I am with you, saith the LORD.

14 And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and did work in the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, 15 In the four and twentieth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

The Comparison of the Temple

2 In the seventh month, in the one and twentieth day of the month, came the word of the LORD by the prophet Haggai, saying,
2 Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and to the residue of the people, saying,
3 Who is left among you that saw this house in her first glory? and how do ye see it now? is it not in your eyes in comparison of it as nothing?
4 Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, saith the LORD; and be strong, O Joshua, son of Josedech, the high priest; and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the LORD, and work: for I am with you, saith the LORD of hosts:
5 According to the word that I covenanted with you when ye came out of Egypt, so my spirit remaineth among you: fear ye not.
6 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land;
7 And I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come: and I will fill this house with glory, saith the LORD of hosts.
8 The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD of hosts.
9 The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the LORD of hosts: and in this place will I give peace, saith the LORD of hosts.

Judah's Uncleanness

10 In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying,
11 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying,
12 If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, No.
13 Then said Haggai, If one that is unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean.

The Judgment for Uncleanness

14 Then answered Haggai, and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean.
15 And now, I pray you, consider from this day and upward, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD:
16 Since those days were, when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten: when one came to the pressfat for to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there were but twenty.
17 I smote you with blasting and with mildew and with hail in all the labours of

1:14 stir up

(Heb. `ur) (1 Chr. 5:26; Ezra 1:1; Is. 10:26; Dan. 11:2) H5782: Used in the sense of provoking, urging, and setting into motion. Stirring causes someone to wake up from sleep or lethargy (Judg. 5:12; Ps. 44:23; 57:8; Is. 51:9). As in this case, when God does the stirring, He is setting a person or people into motion to accomplish His will. The exact means He uses may not be apparent, but the results bring glory to God, even in cases like Ezra 1:1, where the person moved is Cyrus, a foreign king.

2:15 temple

(Heb. heychal) (Ezra 3:6; Ps. 5:7; 11:4) H1964: A term that can refer to a holy place or a palace (Ezra 4:1; Ps. 45:15). Though first used to refer to the permanently sited tabernacle in Bethel (1 Sam. 1:9; 3:3), it is most often used of the structure erected by Solomon in Jerusalem (2 Chr. 3:17; 4:7, 8; Ps. 65:4; 138:2), though there is also a pagan temple in Babylon (2 Chr. 36:7). Here the prophet is referring to the reconstructed temple under Zerubbabel after the exile.

your hands; yet ye turned not to me, saith the LORD.
18 Consider now from this day and upward, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, even from the day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid, consider it.
19 Is the seed yet in the barn? yea, as yet the vine, and the fig tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive tree, hath not brought forth: from this day will I bless you.

God's Chosen Signet

20 And again the word of the LORD came unto Haggai in the four and twentieth day of the month, saying,
21 Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, I will shake the heavens and the earth;
22 And I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen; and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses and their riders shall come down, every one by the sword of his brother.
23 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel, saith the LORD, and will make thee as a signet: for I have chosen thee, saith the LORD of hosts.

2:22 strength ▸ see Ex. 13:14.

2:23 signet

(Heb. chotam) (Gen. 38:18; 1 Kin. 21:8; Jer. 22:24) H2368: The Hebrew term for signet is derived from a verbal root meaning "to affix a seal," "to seal up," or "to fasten by sealing." The signet in Old Testament times was an engraved stone set in a gold or silver finger ring, bracelet, or armband (see Song 8:6). When pressed upon wax or soft clay, the ring left the impression of the personal insignia of the bearer (Ex. 28:11, 21, 36; 39:6, 14, 30). The signet ring was like an identification card or badge in the ancient world (Gen. 38:18). It symbolized status or position and the binding nature of the authority attached to items sealed by the ring (1 Kin. 21:8; Job 38:14). Haggai's comparison of Zerubbabel to a signet ring (Hag. 2:23) has messianic implications, since Zerubbabel would overturn the curse of Jeremiah on King Jehoiachin's dynasty and restore royal authority to the line of King David (Jer. 22:24–30).

2:23 choose ▸ see Deut. 14:2.

THE BOOK OF

ZECHARIAH

FOR A DOZEN YEARS OR more, the task of rebuilding the temple has been half completed. Zechariah is commissioned by God to encourage the people in their unfinished responsibility. Rather than exhorting them to action with strong words of rebuke, Zechariah seeks to encourage them to action by reminding them of the future importance of the temple. The temple must be built, for one day the Messiah's glory will inhabit it. But future blessing is contingent upon present obedience. The people are not merely building a building; they are building the future. With that as their motivation, they can enter into the building project with wholehearted zeal, for their Messiah is coming.

Zekar-yah means "Yahweh Remembers" or "Yahweh Has Remembered." This theme dominates the whole book: Israel will be blessed because Yahweh remembers the covenant He made with the fathers. The Greek and Latin version of his name is Zacharias.

God's Wrath and God's Plea

1 In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,
2 The LORD hath been sore displeased with your fathers.
3 Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Turn ye unto me, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.
4 Be ye not as your fathers, unto whom the former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD.
5 Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?
6 But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not take hold of your fathers? and they returned and said, Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

A Vision of Horses

7 Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sebat, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,
8 I saw by night, and behold a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in the bottom; and

1:8 red

(Heb. 'adom) (Gen. 25:30; Num. 19:2; Is. 63:2; Zech. 6:2) H0122: A general term for the color and, depending on the context, can vary from bright (2 Kin. 3:22) to dull red, as used here twice by Zechariah. In this case, attention is not drawn to the three colors of the horses as symbolic, but rather to the fact that as a group they represent those God has sent to "walk to and fro through the earth" (Zech. 1:10).

behind him were there red horses, speckled, and white.
9 Then said I, O my lord, what are these? And the angel that talked with me said unto me, I will shew thee what these be.
10 And the man that stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, These are they whom the LORD hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth.
11 And they answered the angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest.

God's Jealousy for Jerusalem

12 Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these threescore and ten years?
13 And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me with good words and comfortable words.
14 So the angel that communed with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy.
15 And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.
16 Therefore thus saith the LORD; I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies: my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem.
17 Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; My cities through prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; and the LORD shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet choose Jerusalem.

Four Horns and Four Carpenters

18 Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and behold four horns.
19 And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What be these? And he answered me, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.
20 And the LORD shewed me four carpenters.
21 Then said I, What come these to do? And he spake, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the Gentiles, which lifted up their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it.

A Man with a Measuring Line

2 I lifted up mine eyes again, and looked, and behold a man with a measuring line in his hand.
2 Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof.
3 And, behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him,
4 And said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein:
5 For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the midst of her.

Flee from Babylon

6 Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, saith the LORD: for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the LORD.
7 Deliver thyself, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon.
8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye.
9 For, behold, I will shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me.

God Will Dwell in the Midst of Zion

10 Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for, lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD.
11 And many nations shall be joined to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

12 And the LORD shall inherit Judah his portion in the holy land, and shall choose Jerusalem again.
13 Be silent, O all flesh, before the LORD: for he is raised up out of his holy habitation.

A Vision of the High Priest

3 And he shewed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him.
2 And the LORD said unto Satan, The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan; even the LORD that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire?
3 Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the angel.
4 And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment.
5 And I said, Let them set a fair mitre upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the LORD stood by.
6 And the angel of the LORD protested unto Joshua, saying,
7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my charge, then thou shalt also judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee places to walk among these that stand by.

God's Branch

8 Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou, and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are men wondered at: for, behold, I will bring forth my servant the BRANCH.
9 For behold the stone that I have laid before Joshua; upon one stone shall be seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.
10 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall ye call every man his neighbour under the vine and under the fig tree.

A Vision of a Golden Candlestick

4 And the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep,
2 And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and seven

2:12 portion

(Heb. cheleq) (Deut. 32:9; Ps. 16:5; Eccl. 5:18; Mic. 2:4) H2506: This term can mean allotment or portion, related to an inheritance or rightful possession. Because inheritance was a significant feature in family life and the culture in general, prophets employed the imagery in discussing God's claim on His people. Jesus' parable of the prodigal son begins with an inheritance matter. What was a formal bequeathing of property to a child also represented the way in which Israel received from God the Promised Land. Here, God declares His rightful claim on Judah, using the term "holy land" for the only time in the Old Testament.

3:8 men wondered at

(Heb. mophet) (1 Kin. 13:3; Ezek. 12:6; 24:24) H4159: Indicating something worth seeing and observing, this word serves as a visual highlighter to draw attention. This is not so much the idea of sign as miracle, but as symbolic action or special circumstances (Ezek. 12:11). Natural events can be wonders (Ex. 4:21; Jer. 32:20, 21). In cases like this one, the prophet is pointing to unusual qualities or capacities in others. Joshua is to recognize the value of those with him because they are living testimony or evidence of God at work.

4:1 angel

(Heb. mal'ak) (2 Sam. 2:5; 24:16; Ps. 34:7; Is. 37:9) H4397: This noun may refer to angelic beings (Gen. 19:1; Ps. 91:11; Zech. 4:1, 5), human messengers (Gen. 32:3; Deut. 2:26), or ambassadors (Is. 30:4; Ezek. 17:15). A special use is the manifestation of the Godhead known as the Angel of God in the Old Testament (Gen. 21:17; Ex. 14:19). In the Old Testament, prophets (Hag. 1:13) and priests (Mal. 2:7) function as messengers from God. In Zechariah, angels bring revelations from God about the future and interpret the meaning of dreams and visions (Zech. 1:14; 6:4, 5). Jesus identified the messenger who prepared the way for the day of the Lord, forecast in Malachi 3:1, as John the Baptist (Matt. 11:10, 11).

pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof:
3 And two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof.
4 So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord?
5 Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.
6 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.
7 Who art thou, O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth the headstone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it.
8 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
9 The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also finish it; and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you.
10 For who hath despised the day of small things? for they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven; they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth.

The Two Olive Trees and Branches

11 Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof?
12 And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves?
13 And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.
14 Then said he, These are the two anointed ones, that stand by the Lord of the whole earth.

A Vision of a Flying Roll

5 Then I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a flying roll.
2 And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits.
3 Then said he unto me, This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side according to it.
4 I will bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof.

An Ephah and a Talent of Lead

5 Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth.
6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth.
7 And, behold, there was lifted up a talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah.

4:6 might

(Heb. chayil) (1 Chr. 12:8; Ps. 76:5; Joel 2:22) H2428: In the KJV this term is used in the somewhat archaic phrase "men of might" (1 Chr. 12:8; Ps. 76:5). It is a word indicating the power of courage and renown. In passages like Joel 2:22 and Habakkuk 3:19, the sense is "strength." Sometimes it is translated "mighty" as an expansive adjective, enhancing men (2 Chr. 26:12) and their abilities (2 Chr. 26:13). It's here used in contrast to power (kowach, H3581) as God rules out the best of human efforts as incapable of doing what His Spirit can do.

4:7 grace ▸ see Zech. 12:10.

5:8 wickedness

(Heb. rish`ah) (Deut. 9:4; Prov. 13:6; Ezek. 33:12; Mal. 1:4; 3:15) H7564: The bent or intent to practice evil. In Proverbs 11:5 we find a clear picture cast it into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.

9 Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven.
10 Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah?
11 And he said unto me, To build it an house in the land of Shinar: and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base.

A Vision of Four Chariots

6 And I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass.
2 In the first chariot were red horses; and in the second chariot black horses;
3 And in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot grisled and bay horses.
4 Then I answered and said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord?
5 And the angel answered and said unto me, These are the four spirits of the heavens, which go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth.
6 The black horses which are therein go forth into the north country; and the white go forth after them; and the grisled go forth toward the south country.
7 And the bay went forth, and sought to go that they might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get you hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth.
8 Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these that go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country.

Crowns for the High Priest

9 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
10 Take of them of the captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah, which are come from Babylon, and come thou the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah;
11 Then take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them upon the head of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest;
12 And speak unto him, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Behold the man whose name is The BRANCH; and he shall grow up out of his place, and he shall build the temple of the LORD:
13 Even he shall build the temple of the LORD; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne; and he shall be a priest upon his throne: and the counsel of peace shall be between them both.
14 And the crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in the temple of the LORD.
15 And they that are far off shall come and build in the temple of the LORD, and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God.

of the self-destructive nature of wickedness. Here and in Malachi, willful rebellion against everything holy and righteous is personified in person (Zech. 5:8) and place (Mal. 1:4). While all of us are capable of sin, the more we give in to our inclinations, the more wickedness infects all that we do. As God repeatedly reminded the Israelites (Deut. 9:4, 5), He graciously chooses even wicked people as His own, but He also puts limits on wickedness.

6:12 branch

(Heb. tsemach) (Is. 4:2; Jer. 23:5; Zech. 3:8) H6780: The Hebrew term translated as branch here means shoot or twig. This is one title for the coming Messiah, the Branch who would shoot up from the royal stock of David, a dynasty that had been interrupted with the Babylonian exile (Is. 11:1). Many of the prophets promised that a King from David's line would reign in righteousness (Jer. 23:5, 6) and as a priest would reestablish true worship of the Lord (Zech. 6:12, 13). In His ministry, Jesus Christ fulfilled these predictions by taking on both a royal (see John 12:13–15; 1 Tim. 6:13–16) and a priestly role (see Heb. 4:14).

came unto Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, even in Chisleu;
2 When they had sent unto the house of God Sherezer and Regem-melech, and their men, to pray before the LORD,
3 And to speak unto the priests which were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?
4 Then came the word of the LORD of hosts unto me, saying,
5 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh month, even those seventy years, did ye at all fast unto me, even to me?
6 And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, did not ye eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves?
7 Should ye not hear the words which the LORD hath cried by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, when men inhabited the south and the plain?

God's Standard of Righteousness

8 And the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, saying,
9 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Execute true judgment, and shew mercy and compassions every man to his brother:
10 And oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.
11 But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.
12 Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent in his spirit by the former prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the LORD of hosts.
13 Therefore it is come to pass, that as he cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would not hear, saith the LORD of hosts:
14 But I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not. Thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned: for they laid the pleasant land desolate.

God's Great Jealousy

8 Again the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,
2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I was jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury.
3 Thus saith the LORD; I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called a city of truth; and the mountain of the LORD of hosts the holy mountain.
4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; There shall yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand for very age.
5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof.

God's People Shall Return

6 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If it be marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be marvellous in mine eyes? saith the LORD of hosts.
7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I

7:7 prosperity

(Heb. shalev) (Ps. 73:12) H7961: The word can also mean "prosperous," depending on context. In Job 20:20, we find the word "quietness." Here the sense is a life at ease or peaceful (1 Chr. 4:40), with favorable conditions (Ps. 73:12). The prophet is inviting people to think again of the past benefits God had provided His people. These blessings can come again as God's people seek to live for Him.

8:2 jealous

(Heb. qana') (Num. 25:11; 2 Sam. 21:2; 1 Kin. 19:10; Zech. 1:14) H7065: The term for intense commitment and single-minded intention. Modern translations prefer "zealous" to avoid negative connotations attaching to jealousy. In the older English of the KJV, Zechariah records that God is jealous over Jerusalem, desiring what is in fact His. God has His prophet declare His fervent commitment to His people. Interestingly, Elijah uses this term in 1 Kings 19:10, 14 to state his right to be disappointed with God's performance, given his own zeal.

will save my people from the east country, and from the west country;
8 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.
9 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of the prophets, which were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

A Prosperous Land

10 For before these days there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour.
11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts.
12 For the seed shall be prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.

A Blessing and Not a Curse

13 And it shall come to pass, that as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong.
14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, and I repented not:
15 So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: fear ye not.

A Truthful Nation

16 These are the things that ye shall do; Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates:
17 And let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, saith the LORD.

Cheerful Feasts

18 And the word of the LORD of hosts came unto me, saying,
19 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts; therefore love the truth and peace.
20 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come people, and the inhabitants of many cities:
21 And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily to pray before the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts: I will go also.
22 Yea, many people and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before the LORD.
23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you: for we have heard that God is with you.

The Destruction of Israel's Enemies

9 The burden of the word of the LORD in the land of Hadrach, and Damascus shall be the rest thereof: when the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Israel, shall be toward the LORD.
2 And Hamath also shall border thereby; Tyrus, and Zidon, though it be very wise.
3 And Tyrus did build herself a strong hold, and heaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets.
4 Behold, the Lord will cast her out, and he will smite her power in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire.
5 Ashkelon shall see it, and fear; Gaza also shall see it, and be very sorrowful, and Ekron; for her expectation shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.
6 And a bastard shall dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.
7 And I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth: but he that remaineth, even he, shall be for our God, and he shall be as a governor in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite.

8 And I will encamp about mine house because of the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth: and no oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now have I seen with mine eyes.

Israel's Just and Lowly King

9 Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee: he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.
10 And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak peace unto the heathen: and his dominion shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth.

Zion's Deliverance

11 As for thee also, by the blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.
12 Turn you to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope: even to day do I declare that I will render double unto thee;
13 When I have bent Judah for me, filled the bow with Ephraim, and raised up thy sons, O Zion, against thy sons, O Greece, and made thee as the sword of a mighty man.
14 And the LORD shall be seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the Lord GOD shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with whirlwinds of the south.
15 The LORD of hosts shall defend them; and they shall devour, and subdue with sling stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they shall be filled like bowls, and as the corners of the altar.
16 And the LORD their God shall save them in that day as the flock of his people: for they shall be as the stones of a crown, lifted up as an ensign upon his land.
17 For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty! corn shall make the young men cheerful, and new wine the maids.

A Flock with No Shepherd

10 Ask ye of the LORD rain in the time of the latter rain; so the LORD shall make bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field.
2 For the idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they were troubled, because there was no shepherd.
3 Mine anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I punished the goats: for the LORD of hosts hath visited his flock the house of Judah, and hath made them as his goodly horse in the battle.

Delivered by God's Strength

4 Out of him came forth the corner, out of him the nail, out of him the battle bow, out of him every oppressor together.
5 And they shall be as mighty men, which tread down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle: and they shall fight, because the LORD is with them, and the riders on horses shall be confounded.
6 And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will bring them again to place them; for I have mercy upon them: and they shall be as

9:10 dominion

(Heb. moshel) (Dan. 11:4) H4915: Used only twice, this is a term for the right and ability to rule, most accurately referring to God's sovereignty. It also refers to the extent of a kingdom or authority. Here, the prophecy offers the contrast between the severe limits of any earthly kingdom and the King who is coming to exercise dominion without any boundaries.

10:4 corner

(Heb. pinnah) (Job 38:6; Ps. 118:22; Is. 28:16) H6438: This is a term from masonry indicating the first, squared stone in a foundation which provides the angles for the walls in a structure. A true cornerstone leads to a building that will stand. This word is identified in the New Testament (1 Pet. 2:7) as referring to Jesus, quoting Psalm 118:22. Here, God lists the cornerstone as one of the foundational necessities that He supplies.

though I had not cast them off: for I am the LORD their God, and will hear them.
7 And they of Ephraim shall be like a mighty man, and their heart shall rejoice as through wine: yea, their children shall see it, and be glad; their heart shall rejoice in the LORD.

The Restoration of God's People

8 I will hiss for them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them: and they shall increase as they have increased.
9 And I will sow them among the people: and they shall remember me in far countries; and they shall live with their children, and turn again.
10 I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria; and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon; and place shall not be found for them.
11 And he shall pass through the sea with affliction, and shall smite the waves in the sea, and all the deeps of the river shall dry up: and the pride of Assyria shall be brought down, and the sceptre of Egypt shall depart away.
12 And I will strengthen them in the LORD; and they shall walk up and down in his name, saith the LORD.

A Spoil of the Pride of Jordan

11 Open thy doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour thy cedars.
2 Howl, fir tree; for the cedar is fallen; because the mighty are spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bashan; for the forest of the vintage is come down.
3 There is a voice of the howling of the shepherds; for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the pride of Jordan is spoiled.

The Flock of the Slaughter

4 Thus saith the LORD my God; Feed the flock of the slaughter;
5 Whose possessors slay them, and hold themselves not guilty: and they that sell them say, Blessed be the LORD; for I am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not.
6 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but, lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king: and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.
7 And I will feed the flock of slaughter, even you, O poor of the flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands; and I fed the flock.
8 Three shepherds also I cut off in one month; and my soul lothed them, and their soul also abhorred me.
9 Then said I, I will not feed you: that that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat every one the flesh of another.
10 And I took my staff, even Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people.
11 And it was broken in that day: and so the poor of the flock that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD.
12 And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver.
13 And the LORD said unto me, Cast it unto the potter: a goodly price that I was prised at of them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD.
14 Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

A Foolish Shepherd

15 And the LORD said unto me, Take unto thee yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd.
16 For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, which shall not visit those that be cut off, neither shall seek the young one, nor heal that that is broken, nor feed that that standeth still: but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and tear their claws in pieces.

11:7 slaughter

(Heb. haregah) (Jer. 7:32; 19:6) H2028: This term is used for killing or slaying, particularly animals, though in this case and elsewhere the flock refers to Israel. This is not a term for butchering livestock for meat, but wanton killing. Jeremiah elevates the word to identify the need to rename the Valley of Tophet into the Valley of Slaughter (Jer. 7:32; 19:6), because of the slaughter of people, a tragedy that Zechariah also foresees.

17 Woe to the idol shepherd that leaveth the flock! the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

Jerusalem Is a Cup of Trembling

12 The burden of the word of the LORD for Israel, saith the LORD, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him.
2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.
3 And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.
4 In that day, saith the LORD, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness: and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.
5 And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.

The Restoration of God's People

6 In that day will I make the governors of Judah like an hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall devour all the people round about, on the right hand and on the left: and Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jerusalem.
7 The LORD also shall save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem do not magnify themselves against Judah.
8 In that day shall the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, as the angel of the LORD before them.
9 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

Mourning in Jerusalem

10 And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn.
11 In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon.
12 And the land shall mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart;
13 The family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of Shimei apart, and their wives apart;
14 All the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

A Fountain for Cleansing Sin

13 In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for uncleanness.
2 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered: and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.

12:10 grace

(Heb. chen) (Gen. 6:8; 1 Sam. 1:18; Ps. 84:11; Zech. 4:7) H2580: This is a Hebrew word also translated "favor," often still employed in defining grace as God's unmerited favor. The term can refer to favor given from one person to another (Gen. 39:4; Ruth 2:10), but even then, God is the ultimate source of favor. Zechariah records the significance of completing the temple along with cries for God's ongoing grace (Zech. 4:7) and then offers the messianic promise of God's gracious favor from the One whom Jerusalem has pierced (Zech. 12:10).

13:1 sin ▸ see Lev. 9:2.

3 And it shall come to pass, that when any shall yet prophesy, then his father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth.
4 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied; neither shall they wear a rough garment to deceive:
5 But he shall say, I am no prophet, I am an husbandman; for man taught me to keep cattle from my youth.
6 And one shall say unto him, What are these wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.

The Refining of God's Remnant

7 Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the LORD of hosts: smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered: and I will turn mine hand upon the little ones.
8 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the LORD, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein.
9 And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them: I will say, It is my people: and they shall say, The LORD is my God.

The Day of the Lord

14 Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.
2 For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.
3 Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.
4 And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.
5 And ye shall flee to the valley of the mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah: and the LORD my God shall come, and all the saints with thee.

Living Waters

6 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the light shall not be clear, nor dark:
7 But it shall be one day which shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at evening time it shall be light.
8 And it shall be in that day, that living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.
9 And the LORD shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and his name one.
10 All the land shall be turned as a plain from 13:9 refine

(Heb. tsaraph) (Is. 48:10; Mal. 3:2, 3) H6884: The process of purifying metals like gold and silver is often called "trying," in which the molten form causes impurities to separate so they can be skimmed or filtered out. This word refers to that process, using it to describe how God tests people (Judg. 7:4; Ps. 26:2). Here Zechariah is told that even God's faithful ones will have to pass through the fires of adversity under God's watchful control.

14:3 battle

(Heb. qerab) (2 Sam. 17:11; Job 38:23; Ps. 55:18; 78:9) H7128: The term describes the moment when combatants face and approach each other. Hostilities are about to begin the war. Sometimes the word is used in the broader sense of war (Ps. 55:21; Eccl. 9:18) or conflict. In his sobering prophecy Zechariah pictures a time of desperate defeat after which God will show Himself powerful in battle, confronting the enemy and providing a way of escape for His people.

Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem: and it shall be lifted up, and inhabited in her place, from Benjamin's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananeel unto the king's winepresses.
11 And men shall dwell in it, and there shall be no more utter destruction; but Jerusalem shall be safely inhabited.
12 And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that have fought against Jerusalem; Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.
13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.
14 And Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance.
15 And so shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in these tents, as this plague.

All Believers Will Worship the Lord

16 And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.
17 And it shall be, that whoso will not come up of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, even upon them shall be no rain.
18 And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, that have no rain; there shall be the plague, wherewith the LORD will smite the heathen that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.
19 This shall be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all nations that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.
20 In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD; and the pots in the LORD's house shall be like the bowls before the altar.

Holiness to the Lord

21 Yea, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holiness unto the LORD of hosts: and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and seethe therein: and in that day there shall be no more the Canaanite in the house of the LORD of hosts.

THE BOOK OF

MALACHI

MALACHI, A PROPHET IN THE days of Nehemiah, directs his message of judgment to a people plagued with corrupt priests, wicked practices, and a false sense of security in their privileged relationship with God. Using the question-and-answer method, Malachi probes deeply into their problems of hypocrisy, infidelity, mixed marriages, divorce, false worship, and arrogance. So sinful has the nation become that God's words to the people no longer have any impact. For four hundred years after Malachi's ringing condemnations, God remains silent. Only with the coming of John the Baptist (prophesied in 3:1) does God again communicate to His people through a prophet's voice.

The meaning of the name Mal'aki ("My Messenger") is probably a shortened form of Mal'akya, "Messenger of Yahweh," and it is appropriate to the book which speaks of the coming of the "messenger of the covenant" ("messenger" is mentioned three times in 2:7; 3:1). The Septuagint used the title Malachias even though it also translated it "by the hand of his messenger." The Latin title is Maleachi.

God's Great Love for Israel

1 The burden of the word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi.

2 I have loved you, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? Was not Esau Jacob's brother? saith the LORD: yet I loved Jacob,

3 And I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness.

4 Whereas Edom saith, We are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places; thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever.

5 And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, The LORD will be magnified from the border of Israel.

The Priests Dishonour the Lord

6 A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my name. And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name?

7 Ye offer polluted bread upon mine altar; and ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee?

1:3 hate ▸ see Lev. 19:17.
1:3 wilderness ▸ see Jer. 22:6.
1:4 wickedness ▸ see Zech. 5:8.

1:7 pollute

(Heb. ga'al) (Is. 59:3; Dan. 1:8; Zeph. 3:1) H1351: As a verb this means to defile or desecrate. As an adjective it refers to something that is ritually unclean. The Mosaic Law set forth exacting requirements for approaching God or making sacrifices to Him. Not only were the offerings themselves to be choice (Mal. 1:12), but the one serving God or making an offering could not be morally unclean or have eaten forbidden foods (Lev. 11), or have come in contact with blood (Lam. 4:14) or with anything dead (Lev. 11:31). A holy God demanded purity in worship (Gen. 35:1–3).

In that ye say, The table of the LORD is contemptible.
8 And if ye offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governor; will he be pleased with thee, or accept thy person? saith the LORD of hosts.
9 And now, I pray you, beseech God that he will be gracious unto us: this hath been by your means: will he regard your persons? saith the LORD of hosts.
10 Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand.
11 For from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same my name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the LORD of hosts.
12 But ye have profaned it, in that ye say, The table of the LORD is polluted; and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible.
13 Ye said also, Behold, what a weariness is it! and ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts; and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: should I accept this of your hand? saith the LORD.
14 But cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen.

The Punishment of the Priests

2 And now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you.
2 If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.
3 Behold, I will corrupt your seed, and spread dung up on your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts; and one shall take you away with it.
4 And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.
5 My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my name.
6 The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did turn many away from iniquity.
7 For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

The Corruption of the Priests

8 But ye are departed out of the way; ye have caused many to stumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.
9 Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have been partial in the law.

Judah's Treacherous Dealings

10 Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?
11 Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he loved, and hath married the daughter of a strange god.
12 The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jacob, and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.
13 And this have ye done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weep-

2:7 knowledge

(Heb. da`at) (Gen. 2:9; Ex. 31:3; Prov. 1:7; Is. 11:2) H1847: From the verb yada, which means to know, discern, or recognize, this noun can be translated "knowledge" or "cunning." It refers to knowledge gained through personal experience or through the senses. God is said to possess all knowledge (Ps. 139:6; Prov. 3:20) as well as the desire to impart that knowledge to people (Prov. 2:6). Solomon warned of the danger of living without knowledge (Prov. 19:2). The knowledge to be sought above all else is the knowledge of God (Hos. 6:6).

ing, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand.
14 Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.
15 And did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.
16 For the LORD, the God of Israel, saith that he hateth putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.
17 Ye have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?

The Messenger of the Covenant

3 Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts.
2 But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap:
3 And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness.
4 Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in former years.
5 And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts.
6 For I am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.

Robbing God of His Offerings

7 Even from the days of your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. But ye said, Wherein shall we return?
8 Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings.
9 Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.
10 Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

3:10 prove

(Heb. bachan) (Gen. 42:15; Ps. 26:2; Jer. 9:7) H0974: This Hebrew verb means "to try" or "to put to the test" (Job 23:10; Ps. 139:23; Zech. 13:9). The word can mean "to test" in the sense of separating or discriminating one thing from another (Job 34:3). When this word is used to depict God's testing of people, it means the proving of individuals in such a way that their faith becomes more established (Ps. 66:10; Jer. 17:10; 20:12). Malachi's challenge to the Israelites to "prove" God is a rare instance in which people are encouraged to test the faithfulness of the Lord (Mal. 3:10). This word can be contrasted with another Hebrew verb for testing, nasah. That latter word is frequently used in a negative sense, to describe the way Israel was testing God with their unbelief (Ps. 95:9). The Law of Moses warned the Israelites not to tempt God (Deut. 6:16; Ps. 95:9); it was a mark of spiritual adultery (Matt. 12:38, 39). According to James, God tests people in order to grant them the crown of life—but He tempts no one (James 1:12–14).

3:10 enough

(Heb. day) (Ex. 36:5; Prov. 27:27; Is. 40:16) H1767: The idea expressed by this word is sufficiency or what is proper (2 Chr. 30:3), required, or in some cases deserved (Deut. 25:2). Literally, then, the idea here is that God promises to bless generous givers beyond what is enough; He will give 11 And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delightsome land, saith the LORD of hosts.
13 Your words have been stout against me, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, What have we spoken so much against thee?
14 Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept his ordinance, and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of hosts?
15 And now we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness are set up; yea, they that tempt God are even delivered.
16 Then they that feared the LORD spake often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name.
17 And they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.
18 Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not.

The Destruction of the Wicked

4 For, behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.
2 But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.
3 And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts.

Remember the Law of Moses

4 Remember ye the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel, with the statutes and judgments.
5 Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD:
6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

them an abundance far beyond what they need (Ex. 36:7). The Bible warns against excess (Prov. 25:16) and commands contentment (Heb. 13:5), but makes clear that our God doesn't stop with giving His children just enough; rather, in and through Christ, He gives abundantly (John 10:10; Eph. 3:20) and lavishly (Rom. 8:32).

4:2 healing

(Heb. marpe') (Prov. 6:15; Jer. 14:19) H4832: This noun refers to healing or health or applying a remedy. It can refer to physical restoration in those who are physically ill; but often it has a figurative meaning, signifying the act of, or need for, being made well spiritually, emotionally, relationally. The prophet Jeremiah lamented the morally sick state of his nation (Jer. 14:19). The Old Testament teaches there is a kind of healing that comes through encouragement, kindness, or exposure to truth (Prov. 12:18; 16:24). In His earthly ministry, Jesus performed healing miracles to announce the arrival of the kingdom of God (Matt. 4:23).

4:2 wing ▸ see Job 39:13.
4:3 ashes ▸ see Job 2:8.

4:5 day

(Heb. yom) (Gen. 7:11; Prov. 25:13; Amos 5:8) H3117: The Hebrew noun yom has a variety of uses in the Old Testament. It can refer to the daylight hours in contrast to the night (Amos 5:8), or to a 24-hour day, such as a certain day of the month (Gen. 7:11). It may also refer to a time period, such as the "time" of harvest (Prov. 25:13), or even to a year (2 Sam. 13:23). The word is used in the significant phrase "the day of the LORD" (see Is. 2:12; Ezek. 13:5; Joel 1:15; Zeph. 1:14). For the prophets, the day of the Lord was the future day when God would decisively triumph over all His foes. That day will be a day of great rejoicing and blessing for God's faithful servants (Is. 2:2), whereas for God's enemies it will be a day of darkness (Amos 5:18).

THE

NEW TESTAMENT

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

MATTHEW

MATTHEW IS THE GOSPEL WRITTEN by a Jew to Jews about a Jew. Matthew is the writer, his countrymen are the readers, and Jesus Christ is the subject. Matthew's design is to present Jesus as the King of the Jews, the long-awaited Messiah. Through a carefully selected series of Old Testament quotations, Matthew documents Jesus Christ's claim to be the Messiah. His genealogy, baptism, messages, and miracles all point to the same inescapable conclusion: Christ is King. Even in His death, seeming defeat is turned to victory by the Resurrection, and the message again echoes forth: the King of the Jews lives.

At an early date this gospel was given the title Kata Matthaion, "According to Matthew." As this title suggests, other gospel accounts were known at that time (the word "gospel" was added later). Matthew ("Gift of the Lord") was also surnamed Levi (Mark 2:14; Luke 5:27).

WATCH WORDS

- pure (without blemish, clean, and undefiled)—5:8 (also 23:26; 27:59)
- disciple (a learner and follower of both a teacher and his teachings)—10:1 (also 10:24)
- good (fit, useful, moral goodness, beautiful, free from defect)—19:17 (also 7:17)
- Christ (anointed one, Messiah)—22:42 (also 1:16)
- kingdom (the place where God the King rules)—25:1 (also 3:2; 4:17; 5:3, 10; 10:7)

The Genealogy of Christ

1 The book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.
2 Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren;
3 And Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar; and Phares begat Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram;
4 And Aram begat Aminadab; and Aminadab begat Naasson; and Naasson begat Salmon;
5 And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab; and Booz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse;
6 And Jesse begat David the king; and David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias;
7 And Solomon begat Roboam; and Roboam begat Abia; and Abia begat Asa;
8 And Asa begat Josaphat; and Josaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Ozias;
9 And Ozias begat Joatham; and Joatham begat Achaz; and Achaz begat Ezekias;
10 And Ezekias begat Manasses; and Manasses begat Amon; and Amon begat Josias;
11 And Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon:
12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat Zorobabel;

1:1 book

(Gr. biblos) (Luke 3:4; Acts 19:19; Rev. 3:5; 22:19) G0976: Technically speaking this word refers to the inner bark of the papyrus plant, but because that was the material on which things were written it came to mean "scroll" or "written book." In the New Testament it is used to refer to the Jewish Scriptures, or what we know as the Old Testament, and later was the word from which we get Bible. It is also used in the phrase "Book of Life," the scroll on which is written the names of the elect.

13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor;
14 And Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud;
15 And Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob;
16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.
17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

The Birth of Christ

18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.
19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily.
20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.
21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.
22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,
23 Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.
24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:
25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JESUS.

The Magi's Visit

2 Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem,
2 Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.
3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.
4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.
5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judaea: for thus it is written by the prophet,

1:19 just

(Gr. dikaios) (Matt. 13:49; 23:28; Rom. 5:19; 2 Thess. 1:5) G1342: Equitable, upright, and innocent—those who conform to God's laws. It is often translated as "righteous." The root word means "judgment" or "rule," signifying in particular a legal judgment and its accompanying punishment. In the New Testament it is clear that people can only be described this way as a result of the justification and sanctification that comes through the blood of Christ. As Peter wrote, "For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just [dikaios] for the unjust, that He might bring us to God" (1 Pet. 3:18).

1:23 virgin

(Gr. parthenos) (Luke 1:27; 1 Cor. 7:34; Rev. 14:4) G3933: Literally a chaste, pure woman, it referred to a young woman of marriageable age, which in Jewish culture was a woman who was a virgin. In addition to describing Mary the mother of Jesus, it was also used to describe the bridesmaids in Jesus' parable (Matt. 25:1–13) and chaste single women (1 Cor. 7:25). In 2 Corinthians 11:2 it is used as an image for the church: "For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ."

6 And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.
7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.
8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.
9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.
10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.
11 And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.
12 And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

The Flight to Egypt

13 And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.
14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt:
15 And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called my son.
16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men.
17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying,
18 In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

The Return to Nazareth

19 But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, 20 Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life.
21 And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.
22 But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judaea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee:
23 And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.

refers to one who interprets oracles or other hidden things, and it is used the same way in Scripture. The root words are "forth" and "to speak," so literally this is a forth-teller, or one who tells of future events. Prophets have special insight into the will of God and serve as His spokesmen. Paul tells us this is a gift given by the Holy Spirit (1 Cor. 12:10). This word is used to refer to Old Testament prophets, John the Baptist (Matt. 21:26), the Messiah (Acts 3:22), and people in the New Testament church (Acts 11:27; 13:1).

2:11 Mary

(Gr. maria) (Matt. 1:16; Mark 6:3; Luke 1:27; 2:16, 19) G3137: The name borne by six different females in the New Testament, here applied to Jesus' mother. The name is related to a Hebrew word that means "bitter." Miriam is also a form of the name, though only used in the Old Testament. Mary Magdalene (John 20:1, 11, 16) and Mary, the sister of Lazarus (John 11:1; 12:3), are two other notable bearers of the name.

John the Baptist's Ministry

3 In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judaea,
2 And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.
3 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.
4 And the same John had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey.
5 Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judaea, and all the region round about Jordan,
6 And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.
7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?
8 Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance:
9 And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.
10 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.
11 I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire:
12 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

The Baptism of the Beloved Son

13 Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him.
14 But John forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?
15 And Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him.
16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him:
17 And lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

The Three Temptations of Jesus

4 Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil.
2 And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred.
3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.
4 But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.
5 Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple,
6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up,

3:11 water

(Gr. hydōr) (Matt. 14:28, 29; John 2:7; 4:10) G5204: The most common Greek word for water, also used symbolically for birth (John 3:5). Here Matthew joins the other three Gospel writers in quoting John the Baptist's declaration of the different purposes between his water baptism and the baptism in the Spirit which will be performed by "he that cometh after me." Jesus describes the change He can bring to someone using the phrase "living water" (John 4:10), giving this term a spiritual application.

lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.
7 Jesus said unto him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.
8 Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them;
9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.
10 Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.
11 Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, angels came and ministered unto him.

The Preaching Ministry of Jesus

12 Now when Jesus had heard that John was cast into prison, he departed into Galilee;
13 And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthalim:
14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,
15 The land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephthalim, by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles;
16 The people which sat in darkness saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up.
17 From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

The Calling of the First Four Disciples

18 And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.
19 And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.
20 And they straightway left their nets, and followed him.
21 And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.
22 And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

The Healing Ministry of Jesus

23 And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.
24 And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.
25 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judaea, and from beyond Jordan.

The Beatitudes

5 And seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:
2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,
3 Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4:11 angel

(Gr. angelos) (Mark 13:27, 32; Luke 1:35; Rev. 16:5) G0032: From the word meaning "to deliver a message," this word refers to a messenger or envoy who is sent to pass on a message. In the New Testament this is a heavenly personage who is sent by God to make His will known to people on earth. Angels appear at key points in the narrative of the birth of Christ (Matt. 1:20; 2:13, 19; Luke 1:19; 2:9), after Jesus' temptation in the wilderness (Matt. 4:11), at the resurrection (Matt. 28:2), and also to minister to all believers (Heb. 1:13). They also figure prominently in end-times prophecies (Matt. 13:39; 16:27; 25:31).

4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.
5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.
6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.
7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.
8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.
9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.
10 Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
11 Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.
12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

The Salt of the Earth

13 Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.
14 Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.
15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.
16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.
17 Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.
18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

5:7 merciful

(Gr. eleēmōn) (Heb. 2:17) G1655: This particular form of the word only appears twice in Scripture, but its three related words that mean "to have mercy," "active compassion," and "compassion for the poor" appear many more times. This word is an active compassion—sympathy that leads a person to help in useful ways. More than just caring about a problem, it encompasses sensitive and kind action motivated by love. Christ is our supreme example of this quality, because He is our "merciful and faithful High Priest" (Heb. 2:17).

5:7 obtain mercy ▸ see Rom. 9:15.

5:8 pure

(Gr. katharos) (Matt. 23:26; 2 Tim. 2:22; Titus 1:15; Heb. 10:22) G2513: Used both literally and figuratively, this word means "without blemish, clean, and undefiled." It refers to physical cleanliness (Matt. 23:26; 27:59), ceremonial purity (Luke 11:41; Rom. 14:20), and moral uprightness (John 13:10; Acts 18:6). One of Jesus' memorable uses of this word was in relation to the hypocrisy of the Pharisees: "Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean [katharos] also" (Matt. 23:26). Throughout the New Testament it is clear that true purity only comes through the work of Christ, who imparts to us His perfection through His death on our behalf.

5:18 jot

(Gr. iōta) G2503: Used only here, this is the smallest letter of the Greek alphabet, corresponding to the English "i." We use this word in English, iota, to mean "jot." It refers to the most minute part, the smallest mark of the law.

5:18 tittle

(Gr. keraia) (Luke 16:17) G2762: In Hebrew, sometimes the smallest stroke or mark distinguished a letter from a similar one. Matthew uses the Greek word that literally means "horn," or one hook of a letter, to refer to this stroke. The rabbis had defended the importance of retaining even the slightest stroke and the smallest letter—yodh in Hebrew and iota in Greek—in the Law of Moses.

19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.
20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Teachings on Murder and Anger

21 Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment:
22 But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire.
23 Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee;
24 Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.
25 Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.
26 Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

Teachings on Temptation

27 Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery:
28 But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.
29 And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.
30 And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

Teachings on Divorce

31 It hath been said, Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement:
32 But I say unto you, That whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery.

Teachings on Oaths

33 Again, ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths:
34 But I say unto you, Swear not at all; neither by heaven; for it is God's throne:
35 Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by Jerusalem; for it is the city of the great King.
36 Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black.

Jesus made it clear that He heartily concurred with the rabbis' respect for the Law. Not even the smallest dot over an "i" would disappear until the Law was fulfilled.

5:22 raca

(Gr. rhaka) G4469: Within the New Testament, this term of abuse occurs only here. It does not appear in the Septuagint and is extremely rare in nonbiblical Greek. It is highly likely an Aramaic loanword based on a word meaning "empty." This Aramaic term was an insult hurled at people, reproaching them for a complete lack of intelligence. It was a thoroughly contemptuous, scornful expression. In this verse, the Aramaic word raca should be understood in relation to its Greek parallel "fool" in the next segment.

37 But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil.

Teachings on Forgiveness

38 Ye have heard that it hath been said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth:
39 But I say unto you, That ye resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.
40 And if any man will sue thee at the law, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloke also.
41 And whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain.
42 Give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.

Teachings on Loving One's Enemies

43 Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy.
44 But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;
45 That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.
46 For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?
47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so?
48 Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

Teachings on Giving

6 Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.
2 Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.
3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:
4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.

Teachings on Prayer

5 And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

5:40 coat

(Gr. chitōn) (Matt. 10:10; Luke 3:11; John 19:23) G5509: The coat or tunic was the undergarment, like a shirt, worn next to the skin. It is also translated "garment." It is a synonym for himation (G2440), used later in this verse. When someone takes one garment, Jesus urges us to give the other also, going the extra mile to love others.

5:40 cloke

(Gr. himation) (Matt. 9:20; 21:7, 8; Mark 2:21) G2440: This word for "garment, cloak, mantle" is used 62 times in the New Testament. The singular form, used here, usually refers to the outer cloak that was worn over the tunic and would have been taken off to perform some activities (John 13:4, 12; Acts 7:58). The plural form is more general, referring to any item of clothing. Rather than subscribing to the law of retaliation, Jesus encourages us to return good for evil.

5:41 compel

(Gr. angareuō) (Matt. 27:32; Mark 15:21) G0029: This word comes from a Persian word that describes a courier or royal messenger who was given the authority to force people into service on behalf of the king. It was used to refer to Roman officials and soldiers who could require someone to serve, or to offer his horses or property for service, often without advance notice. This was the case when Simon of Cyrene was forced to carry the cross of Christ (Matt. 27:32). In this verse Jesus is using the example of someone being forced to go on a journey to teach that revenge, even as payback forced labor, is not the way of Christ.

6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.
7 But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.
8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.
9 After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.
10 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.
11 Give us this day our daily bread.
12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
13 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.
14 For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:
15 But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

Teachings on Fasting

16 Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.
17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face;
18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

Teachings on Treasures in Heaven

19 Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:
20 But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:
21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.
22 The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.
23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

6:6 pray

(Gr. proseuchomai) (Matt. 5:44; 14:23; Rom. 8:26; Phil. 1:9) G4336: This word is a compound word: euchē meaning "prayer or vow to God," euchomai meaning "invocation or request," and pros meaning "in the direction of." So we have a prayer of invocation directed toward God. This is the most commonly used word for prayer in the New Testament, used 90 times. It describes Jesus' times alone in prayer (Mark 1:35), His prayer in Gethsemane (Matt. 26:42; Luke 22:44), and His template for prayer or what we call the Lord's Prayer (Matt. 6:9). Jesus urges us to pray often, to pray humbly, and to pray sincerely.

6:13 evil

(Gr. ponēros) (Matt. 6:23; Eph. 5:16; James 4:16) G4190: This word typically refers to a physical or moral condition of corruption. Used thus, it indicates wrongness and disorder. This can be in relation to one's spiritual condition (Matt. 9:4; 12:34), one's deeds (John 3:19; 2 John 11), or even one's ill-health. "The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil [ponēros], thy body also is full of darkness," Jesus said, comparing physical blindness to spiritual blindness (Luke 11:34). It is also applied to things other than humans, such as the present age (Matt. 12:45; Eph. 5:16) or evil spirits (Acts 19:15, 16). Finally, it may refer to the evil one, Satan himself (Matt. 6:13).

24 No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

Teachings on Worry

25 Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?
26 Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?
27 Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature?
28 And why take ye thought for raiment?
Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:
29 And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.
30 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?
31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or,
Wherewithal shall we be clothed?
32 (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.
33 But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.
34 Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

Judging and Being Judged

7 Judge not, that ye be not judged.
2 For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.
3 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?
4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye?
5 Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.
6 Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

Asking and Receiving

7 Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:

6:24 serve ▸ see Rom. 14:18.
6:24 mammon ▸ see Luke 16:9.

6:25 take thought

(Gr. merimnaō) (Luke 10:41; 1 Cor. 12:25; Phil. 4:6) G3309: The root word, which means "to divide into parts," describes the thought process of worry. When we worry or are anxious and troubled about something—literally "take careful thought about"—our mind feels pulled in different directions. We are distracted and preoccupied by whatever is causing us distress. Christians are not to allow their minds to get tangled up in this way because our loving heavenly Father will take care of all of our needs. Philippians 4:6 offers this helpful method for extinguishing worry: "Be careful [merimnaō] for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God."

6:30 little faith ▸ see Matt. 8:26.

7:1 judge

(Gr. krinō) (John 3:17; 1 Cor. 6:3; Heb. 13:4) G2919: Usually translated "judge," this word is also occasionally rendered "condemn" (Rom. 14:22) or "damn" (2 Thess. 2:12). God is the ultimate arbiter, who will through Jesus "judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom" (2 Tim. 4:1; cf. 1 Pet. 4:5). People are, however, warned not to pass judgment on one another that they "shall not be judged" (Luke 6:37), because to do so would be hypocritical (Matt. 7:5). However, Paul says that one day the saints will judge the world and even the angels (1 Cor. 6:2, 3).

7:7 ask

(Gr. aiteō) (Matt. 6:8; 21:22; Eph. 3:20; 1 John 5:15) G0154: This is a strong word for asking or

8 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.
9 Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?
10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?
11 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?
12 Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

The Strait and Wide Gates

13 Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:
14 Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

False Prophets

15 Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.
16 Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?
17 Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.
18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.
19 Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.
20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.
21 Not every one that saith unto me, Lord,
Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven;
but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.
22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord,
Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name?
and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?
23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

Rock or Sand Foundations

24 Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:
25 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.
26 And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand:
27 And the rain descended, and the floods
came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.
28 And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine:

requesting, meaning "petition, beg, crave." It is usually used in cases when the petitioner is making a request of someone in authority, such as God (Matt. 21:22), a king (Mark 6:25), a parent (Luke 11:11), or someone who has money (Acts 3:2). The connotation is of asking boldly, not in a commanding way but with the assumption that God longs to give what is asked. A good illustration of the intent is James 1:5, "If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him."

7:13 destruction

(Gr. apōleia) (Phil. 3:19; 1 Tim. 6:9; Rev. 17:8, 11) G0684: This relatively uncommon noun is translated "perdition," "destruction," and "waste." While sometimes used in a mild literal sense, as referring to the waste of fragrant oil (Mark 14:4), it is typically a strongly negative word. It is a state or place of damnation, torture, and despair. The rich and foolish pursue their desires and lusts toward their ultimate destruction (Phil. 3:19; 1 Tim. 6:9). In the end times, "the beast" will "go to perdition" (Rev. 17:8, 11). In an interesting usage, Judas Iscariot is referred to as "the son of perdition" (John 17:12).

Jesus Heals a Leper

8 When he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.
2 And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.
3 And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.
4 And Jesus saith unto him, See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

A Centurion's Faith

5 And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him,
6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.
7 And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.
8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.
9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.
10 When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.
11 And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven.
12 But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.
13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour.

Jesus Heals Peter's Mother-in-Law

14 And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever.
15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered unto them.
16 When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick:
17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

The Cost of Discipleship

8:2 will

(Gr. thelō) (Matt. 7:12; John 15:7; Rom. 7:15) G2309: Connoting active determination or choice, this word means "to wish, desire, take delight in, prefer." A literal definition is "to seize with the mind." It comes from a root meaning "to take for oneself." It is not as strong a word as boulomai, which denotes a deliberate act of the will, but it does carry the idea of choosing one thing over another. This word is used 213 times and is translated "want," "wish," or "desire," as well as "will."

8:3 immediately ▸ see John 6:21.
8:3 leprosy ▸ see Mark 1:42.

8:4 testimony

(Gr. martyrion) (Mark 1:44; 1 Cor. 2:1; James 5:3) G3142: This word derives from martys (G3144), meaning witness, from which we get the word "martyr," meaning one who through dying bears witness to his faith in God. Sometimes martyrion is used in a legal way, as testifying against someone ("And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them"—Luke 9:5). More notably, believers can testify about Jesus' saving work among unbelievers (1 Cor. 1:6), and if that testimony is believed by the hearers they will be saved (2 Thess. 1:10).

him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.
20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.
21 And another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.
22 But Jesus said unto him, Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead.

Jesus Calms the Winds and the Sea

23 And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.
24 And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.
25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.
26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.
27 But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!

Healing of Devil-Possessed Men

28 And when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.
29 And, behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time?
30 And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine feeding.
31 So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine.
32 And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters.
33 And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils.
34 And, behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.

Healing a Man with Palsy

9 And he entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into his own city.
2 And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy; Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee.
3 And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth.
4 And Jesus knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?
5 For whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and walk?
6 But that ye may know that the Son of man

8:26 little faith

(Gr. oligopistos) (Matt. 6:30; 14:31; 16:8; Luke 12:28) G3640: A combined form of the root words "little" and "faith," this word describes someone who does not have complete confidence in God or trust that He will help them. It is not unbelief, but rather undeveloped faith that needs to grow. Jesus uses this word in five places in Scripture, each time as a tender rebuke of those who should know better. He is like a father telling His children, "After all you've seen, don't you trust Me yet?"

9:3 blaspheme

(Gr. blasphēmeō) (Luke 23:39; Acts 13:45; 1 Pet. 4:4) G0987: To blaspheme is to speak against or speak evil of someone. Blaspheming against God is a serious sin: "All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme; but he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost . . . is in danger of eternal damnation" (Mark 3:28, 29). Blasphemy also brings corruption to the blasphemer (Jude 10). Men may blaspheme against men, as did the Jews who contradicted Paul's preaching (Acts 13:45). Revelation speaks of people blaspheming against God because of the calamities that befall them, rather than repenting as they ought (Rev. 16:9, 11, 21).

hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.
7 And he arose, and departed to his house.
8 But when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

Matthew Follows Jesus

9 And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.
10 And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples.
11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners?
12 But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.
13 But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

Questions About Fasting

14 Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?
15 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast.
16 No man putteth a piece of new cloth unto an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.
17 Neither do men put new wine into old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

The Healing of a Ruler's Daughter

18 While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live.
19 And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples.
20 And, behold, a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment:
21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.
22 But Jesus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.
23 And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the minstrels and the people making a noise,
24 He said unto them, Give place: for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn.
25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose.
26 And the fame hereof went abroad into all that land.

Sight and Speech Restored

27 And when Jesus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, Thou son of David, have mercy on us.

9:18 worship

(Gr. proskyneō) (Matt. 8:2; Mark 15:19; Rev. 13:4) G4352: Worship is the sort of esteem or homage owed to God because of His very nature. As Jesus said when rebuking Satan, "For it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve" (Luke 4:8). During Jesus' ministry, many who met Him felt compelled to worship Him (Matt. 8:2; 14:33; John 9:38). Worship can, however, be insincere or misdirected. Before Jesus' crucifixion, soldiers "smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees, worshipped him" (Mark 15:19). In Revelation, people worship the dragon and the beast (Rev. 13:4).

the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord.
29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you.
30 And their eyes were opened; and Jesus straitly charged them, saying, See that no man know it.
31 But they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country.
32 As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil.
33 And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel.
34 But the Pharisees said, He casteth out devils through the prince of the devils.

Labourers for the Harvest

35 And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.
36 But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd.
37 Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few;
38 Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

Instructions to the Disciples

10 And when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.
2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother;
3 Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the publican; James the son of Alphaeus, and Lebbaeus, whose surname was Thaddaeus;
4 Simon the Canaanite, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.
5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not:
6 But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.
7 And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand.
8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give.
9 Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses,
10 Nor scrip for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet staves: for the workman is worthy of his meat.
11 And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, enquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence.
12 And when ye come into an house, salute it.
13 And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you.

10:1 disciple

(Gr. mathētēs) (Matt. 10:24; John 20:19; Acts 6:2; 20:7) G3101: The disciples were literally "learners"—a designation used first for Jesus' twelve closest followers. After Jesus' ascension, the word was used more generally for all Christians. Disciples are learners and followers of both the Teacher and His teaching. The word is taken from the verb meaning "to learn, understand." The root word, math, denotes that effort and thought are put into learning. Disciples are those who seek out knowledge about God's will and then put it into practice. The relationship between disciple and teacher is described well by Jesus: "The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord" (Matt. 10:24).

14 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet.
15 Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city.

Sheep Among Wolves

16 Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves.
17 But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues;
18 And ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles.
19 But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.
20 For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.
21 And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.
22 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved.
23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.
24 The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord.
25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household?
26 Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.
27 What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops.
28 And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

(Gr. sōzō) (Mark 5:28; Eph. 2:8; 1 Tim. 1:15) G4982: Sōzō is used of rescuing people from peril, either of the spiritual or the earthly kind. It can refer to and be translated as healing, as from an illness: "If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole [sōzō]" (Mark 5:28; cf. 6:56). Christ came to earth as a Savior, intending to deliver people from the consequence of their sins (1 Tim. 1:15). Indeed, He did not come to judge the world but to save the world (John 12:47). People may get in "good conscience toward God" and be saved "by the resurrection of Jesus Christ" (1 Pet. 3:21). The most famous usage is in Ephesians 2:8, "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God."

10:23 persecute ▸ see Acts 8:1.

10:25 Beelzebub

(Gr. beelzeboul) (Matt. 12:24–27; Mark 3:22; Luke 11:15–19) G0954: Most of the Greek manuscripts read Beelzeboul, an alternate form of this word. The other reading probably came from the Old Testament word Baal-Zebub—an idol, the god of Ekron (see 2 Kin. 1:2). All idolatry was regarded as devil worship (Lev. 17:7; Deut. 32:17; Ps. 106:37; 1 Cor. 10:20), so there seems to have been something peculiarly satanic about the worship of this hateful god, which caused his name to be a synonym of Satan. Though we nowhere read that Jesus was actually called Beelzebub, He was charged with being in league with Satan under that hateful name (Matt. 12:24, 26), and more than once was charged with being possessed by "a devil" or demon (Mark 3:30; John 7:20; 8:48).

10:26 fear

(Gr. phobeō) (Luke 8:25; 12:5; 1 John 4:18; Rev. 15:4) G5399: The word from which we get the clinical designation "phobia," this word describes panic. It means "to terrify, frighten, cause to flee, be filled with dread." Jesus repeatedly told His disciples that there is no need to fear people, and in fact, such fear is destructive. Reverential awe of God, however, is healthy (Luke 12:4, 5). First John 4:18 describes the right way to approach a loving God: "There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth not is made perfect in love."

29 Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father.
30 But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.
31 Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows.
32 Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.
33 But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.
34 Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword.
35 For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.
36 And a man's foes shall be they of his own household.
37 He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.
38 And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me.
39 He that findeth his life shall lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it.
40 He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.
41 He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward.
42 And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

John's Questions for Jesus

11 And it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.
2 Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,
3 And said unto him, Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?
4 Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see:
5 The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them.
6 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.
7 And as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?
8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.
9 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, and more than a prophet.
10 For this is he, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.
11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.
12 And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.
13 For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.

10:41 reward

(Gr. misthos) (Luke 6:35; 1 Cor. 3:8; Rev. 11:18) G3408: A reward is a type of reimbursement earned by one's actions or labor. Sometimes it's a transaction: a worker completes a task and is paid for it (1 Tim. 5:18). Other times it's a natural consequence of one's behavior (1 Cor. 3:8; 2 Pet. 2:13). It can be either positive or negative. The self-inflating hypocrites praying loudly in the temple are said to "have their reward" (Matt. 6:2, 5). Believers can look forward to their reward in heaven (Rev. 11:18). However, good works are not a way to earn salvation (Rom. 4:4), and one's motivation for doing good should be a desire to help others and serve God rather than to earn a reward (Luke 6:35).

14 And if ye will receive it, this is Elias, which was for to come.
15 He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.
16 But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows,
17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.
18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil.
19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners. But wisdom is justified of her children.

Unrepentant Cities

20 Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not:
21 Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.
22 But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you.
23 And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.
24 But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee.

Rest for the Heavy Laden

25 At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.
26 Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight.
27 All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.
28 Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.
29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.
30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Son of Man Is Lord of the Sabbath

12 At that time Jesus went on the sabbath day through the corn; and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.
2 But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath day.
3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read what David did, when he was an hungred, and they that were with him;
4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat the shewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but only for the priests?
5 Or have ye not read in the law, how that on the sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless?
6 But I say unto you, That in this place is one greater than the temple.
7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.
8 For the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath day.

11:28 give rest

(Gr. anapauō) (Luke 12:19; 2 Cor. 7:13; Rev. 14:13) G0373: This word can refer to several types of rest. The first is somewhat negative, with connotations of slothfulness—a rest taken at the wrong time, when there is still work to be done. The disciples napped when they should have been staying up praying with Jesus (Mark 14:41). The rich man trusted only in his riches, unaware that death would soon come for him (Luke 12:19). More positive, however, is the soul-deep, much-needed refreshment granted by support from others (1 Cor. 16:18; 2 Cor. 7:13; Philem. 7). Finally, there is the final, eternal rest promised by God (Rev. 14:13).

11:29 lowly ▸ see 2 Cor. 7:6.
11:30 easy ▸ see Luke 6:35.

9 And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue:
10 And, behold, there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath days? that they might accuse him.
11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?
12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath days.
13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other.
14 Then the Pharisees went out, and held a council against him, how they might destroy him.

God's Beloved Servant

15 But when Jesus knew it, he withdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all;
16 And charged them that they should not make him known:
17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,
18 Behold my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my spirit upon him, and he shall shew judgment to the Gentiles.
19 He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.
20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory.
21 And in his name shall the Gentiles trust.

Of Beelzebub or God?

22 Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind, and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.
23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David?
24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils.
25 And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:
26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?
27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.
28 But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you.
29 Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.
30 He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad.
31 Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.
32 And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.

(Gr. therapeuō) (Matt. 9:35; Mark 3:10; Luke 9:1; Acts 17:25) G2323: This is the word from which we get "therapy" and "therapeutic." It originally meant to serve someone by performing menial household chores but came to mean offering medicinal care to the sick and eventually to heal and restore to health. The root word means "servant" and was used to refer to a servant of God as well as a household servant who performed menial tasks. Jesus healed people's physical infirmities, but His greater work was to heal their souls.

fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit.
34 O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.
35 A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things.
36 But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.
37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

The Sign of the Prophet

38 Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee.
39 But he answered and said unto them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas:
40 For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.
41 The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: because they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here.
42 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here.
43 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none.
44 Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished.
45 Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.

The Family of Jesus

46 While he yet talked to the people, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him.
47 Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee.
48 But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren?
49 And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!
50 For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

The Sower and the Seed

13 The same day went Jesus out of the house, and sat by the sea side.
2 And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that he went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

times in six verses in the New Testament. Nine of its appearances occur in parables and refer to the natural world. Trees, fruit, and sea creatures that are unfit for human use are considered sapros, meaning bad, corrupted, or rotten. Bad trees bring forth bad fruit, just as evil people do evil deeds (Matt. 7:17, 18; Luke 6:43). Just as fishermen toss out inedible fish, so the wicked will be cast out at the end of the age (Matt. 13:48). The word can also refer to corrupt, worthless speech that has no value for edifying others (Eph. 4:29).

13:3 parable

(Gr. parabolē) (Matt. 21:33; Heb. 9:9) G3850: This word is derived from two other Greek words: para meaning "beside," and bolē meaning "a placing." It refers to a comparison, and thus a parable or illustration. Other kinds of comparisons indicated by the word include a type or figure (Heb. 9:9; 11:19), or even a riddle or enigmatic saying (in some places in the Greek translation of the Old Testament). Jesus' parables were usually stories presenting teachings by comparison rather

6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.
7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them:
8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold.
9 Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.
10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?
11 He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.
12 For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath.
13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.
14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive:
15 For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.
16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear.
17 For verily I say unto you, That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.
18 Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.
19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side.
20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it;
21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended.
22 He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.
23 But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

The Wheat and the Tares

24 Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:
25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.
26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

13:17 desire

(Gr. epithymeō) (Matt. 5:28; Rom. 7:7; Gal. 5:17; 1 Pet. 1:12) G1937: This word describes strong desire, literally "to set or turn one's heart upon." It could be translated as "eagerly long for; lust after; covet." The root word is "passion, panting." Both good and evil things can be desired in this way, as the focus is on the intense, overpowering desire rather than the thing desired. In this case Jesus was showing how He fulfilled the longing of the Old Testament prophets—a spiritual depth of desire that we should emulate.

13:21 offend ▸ see Luke 17:2.
13:22 care ▸ see 1 Pet. 5:7.

27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?
28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?
29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.
30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

The Mustard Seed and the Leaven

31 Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:
32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.
33 Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.
34 All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them:
35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

The Tares Explained

36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.
37 He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man;
38 The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one;
39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.
40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.
41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity;
42 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.
43 Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

The Treasure and the Goodly Pearl

44 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.
45 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls:
46 Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

The Full Net

47 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind:
48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

13:47 net

(Gr. sagēnē) G4522: This particular word, which describes a dragnet or sein, is used only once in the New Testament. Such a net was used by lowering it down into the water, drawing it together in a narrowing circle, and then pulling it into the boat. Another fishing method was to use two boats to drag a semicircular net toward shore.

13:48 good

(Gr. kalos) (Matt. 5:16; 7:17; Luke 8:15; John 10:11) G2570: This word actually means "beautiful" but is used to describe something that is good, either in a literal or a moral sense. It can mean "valuable," "virtuous," "pleasing," or "acceptable." It refers to something that is of surpassing excellence. Jesus distinguishes between things that are good (kalos) and things that are bad, such as the fruit of the righteous versus the unrighteous

49 So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just,
50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.
51 Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.
52 Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

Without Honour in His Own Country

53 And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.
54 And when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works?
55 Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?
56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things?
57 And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.
58 And he did not many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

The Death of John the Baptist

14 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus,
2 And said unto his servants, This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.
3 For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife.
4 For John said unto him, It is not lawful for thee to have her.
5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.
6 But when Herod's birthday was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod.
7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask.
8 And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptist's head in a charger.
9 And the king was sorry: nevertheless for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her.
10 And he sent, and beheaded John in the prison.
11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.
12 And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus.

Five Thousand Fed

13 When Jesus heard of it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.
14 And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.

(Matt.7:17), or those who are destined for heaven versus those who are headed to hell (Matt. 13:38). Perhaps the most famous use of this word is to describe Jesus in John 10:11, "I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep."

14:14 move with compassion

(Gr. splanchnizomai) (Matt. 9:36; Mark 1:41; 9:22; Luke 10:33) G4697: This is a case of one word in Greek expressing a whole phrase in English. It literally means "to be moved as to one's bowels." In Greek thought the bowels were the seat of strong and powerful emotions, especially pity or love. This type of compassion motivated at least five of Jesus' miracles, including the feeding of the four thousand (Matt. 15:32), restoring sight to two blind men (Matt. 20:34), and healing a leper (Mark 1:41). Jesus' compassion for the crowds is expressed in Mark 6:34, "They were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things."

15 And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.
16 But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart; give ye them to eat.
17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.
18 He said, Bring them hither to me.
19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.
20 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full.
21 And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

Jesus Walks on the Sea

22 And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.
23 And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone.
24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.
25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea.
26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear.
27 But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid.
28 And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.
29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.
30 But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me.
31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?
32 And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased.
33 Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God.
34 And when they were gone over, they came into the land of Gennesaret.
35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased;
36 And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment: and as many as touched were made perfectly whole.

Defilement Comes from Within

15 Then came to Jesus scribes and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying,
2 Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.
3 But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?
4 For God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.
5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me;

14:21 man

(Gr. anēr) (John 1:30; 1 Cor. 7:2) G0435: The basic definition of this word is "man," or "husband." Whereas the Greek word anthrōpos (G0444) refers to man in the sense of a human being, this word means man as having masculine traits, in distinction from woman (and from a boy), as here. John the Baptist used anēr when he identified Jesus as the Christ (John 1:30). It is frequently used, specifically, referring to a husband (1 Cor. 7:2; several times in 1 Cor. 11).

6 And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.
7 Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying,
8 This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.
9 But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.
10 And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand:
11 Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.
12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying?
13 But he answered and said, Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.
14 Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.
15 Then answered Peter and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable.
16 And Jesus said, Are ye also yet without understanding?
17 Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?
18 But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man.
19 For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:
20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

A Canaanite Woman's Faith

21 Then Jesus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon.
22 And, behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.
23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us.
24 But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.
25 Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me.
26 But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs.
27 And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table.
28 Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

29 And Jesus departed from thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Galilee; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there.

15:19 thought ▸ see Luke 6:8.

15:19 fornication

(Gr. porneia) (Mark 7:21; 1 Cor. 6:18; Col. 3:5; 1 Thess. 4:3) G4202: Taken from the word for harlotry, this word refers to any type of illicit sexual intercourse, including prostitution, whoredom, incest, licentiousness, adultery, deviant sexual behaviors, and habitual immorality. It is the word from which we get "pornography." Jesus is pointing out that sexual sins are not merely external behaviors but arise from a sinful heart and do spiritual damage as well as physical. In addition to describing physical immorality, this word is also used of spiritual unfaithfulness—unfaithfulness to the covenant relationship between God and His people in the form of idolatry (Rev. 2:21).

15:22 vexed with a devil

(Gr. daimonizomai) (Matt. 8:28; 12:22) G1139: This verb is formed on the root daimonion, meaning "deity" (G1140—Acts. 17:18), or "demon," thus literally meaning to demonize. It is now generally translated "demon-possessed." The word describes the state of being under demonic influence or control, or being demonically tormented. It is synonymous with the expression "to have (or be with) an unclean spirit" (pneuma akatharto, G4151 and G0169—Mark 5:2, 15). Compare also with the adjective daimoniodes, demonic, used only in James 3:15 (G1141) and the noun daimon, demon, evil spirit (G1142—Matt. 8:31).

15:26 dog ▸ see Mark 7:27.

30 And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet; and he healed them:
31 Insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Israel.
32 Then Jesus called his disciples unto him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way.
33 And his disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude?
34 And Jesus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.
35 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.
36 And he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and gave thanks, and brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.
37 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets full.
38 And they that did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children.
39 And he sent away the multitude, and took ship, and came into the coasts of Magdala.

The Request for a Sign from Heaven

16 The Pharisees also with the Sadducees came, and tempting desired him that he would shew them a sign from heaven.
2 He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the sky is red.
3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to day: for the sky is red and lowring. O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times?
4 A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. And he left them, and departed.

The Pharisees' and Sadducees' Leaven

5 And when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.
6 Then Jesus said unto them, Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.
7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread.
8 Which when Jesus perceived, he said unto them, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread?
9 Do ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?
10 Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?
11 How is it that ye do not understand that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees?
12 Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

The Confession of Simon Peter

13 When Jesus came into the coasts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the Son of man am?
14 And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets.
15 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?

15:33 fill

(Gr. chortazō) (Matt. 5:6; 14:20; Mark 7:27; Phil. 4:12) G5526: The origin of this word is in farming, where it meant to feed or fatten animals with grass. It later came to be a derisive term for feeding common people, and thus became associated with being satisfied by an abundance of food. When Jesus said, "Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled" (Matt. 5:6), He was referring to being filled to overflowing, completely satisfied, and in want of nothing pertaining to godliness. By contrast, here the filling is physical: being filled with food until there is no trace of hunger.

16:6 leaven ▸ see Mark 8:15.
16:8 little faith ▸ see Matt. 8:26.

16 And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.
17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.
18 And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.
19 And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.
20 Then charged he his disciples that they should tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ.

Jesus Prepares His Disciples

21 From that time forth began Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.
22 Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee.
23 But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.
24 Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.
25 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.
26 For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?
27 For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works.
28 Verily I say unto you, There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

The Transfiguration of Jesus

17 And after six days Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart,

16:18 Peter

(Gr. petros) (Matt. 14:29; Mark 3:16; Luke 5:8) G4074: Originally named Simon, Peter was the leader of the disciples. His father's name was Jonah (Matt. 16:17), and his brother was Andrew (Mark 1:16). The family trade was fishing, and they all lived in Capernaum (Mark 1:29). Peter was married, and Jesus famously healed Simon's mother-in-law (Mark 1:30). Peter was present at the Transfiguration (Matt. 17:1), and briefly walked on water (Matt. 14:29). Later, Peter would be described as one of the "pillars" of the church in Jerusalem (Gal. 2:9).

16:18 rock

(Gr. petra) (Matt. 7:24; 27:60) G4073: Generally, but not always, this word indicates a rock mass or bedrock in distinction from petros, a specific rock or stone. Thus Jesus' tomb was hewn in a rock mass (Matt. 27:60), a house may be built on bedrock (Matt. 7:24), and plants from seed sown on "a rock" (Luke 8:6, probably thin soil on a rock base) did not survive. Here in Matthew 16:18 Jesus makes a wordplay on the name He had given Peter (G4074, Petros), but the "rock" (petra) that serves as foundation for the church may be the truth indicated in Peter's confession.

16:18 build ▸ see Acts 9:31.

16:23 offence

(Gr. skandalon) (Rom. 14:13; 1 Cor. 1:23; 1 Pet. 2:8) G4625: The image presented by this word is of a stick or sapling bent over with bait that would trap an animal. It means "snare, stumbling block, something that causes offense." In Scripture it is most often used metaphorically, as in Romans 9:33 and 1 Peter 2:8 where it describes Jesus as a stumbling block because He did not fit the mold of what people thought the Messiah should be. Paul urged believers not to put stumbling blocks in the path of other believers—things that might cause division or sin (Rom. 14:13; 16:17).

17:1 John

(Gr. iōannēs) (Matt. 4:21; Mark 10:35; Luke 9:28; Acts 3:1) G2491: One of two men named John who are prominent in the Gospels: John the Baptist and here, John, son of Zebedee, the disciple of Jesus. Ironically, in the Gospel named after him, John never refers to himself by his own name, preferring "the disciple whom Jesus loved" (John 13:23; 19:26; 20:2).

2 And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.
3 And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias talking with him.
4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.
5 While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.
6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.
7 And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.
8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only.
9 And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.
10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that Elias must first come?
11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elias truly shall first come, and restore all things.
12 But I say unto you, That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.
13 Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

The Healing of a Devil-Possessed Boy

14 And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying,
15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is lunatick, and sore vexed: for ofttimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.
16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.
17 Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.
18 And Jesus rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.
19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?
20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.
21 Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting.
22 And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men:
23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry.

The Question of Paying Tribute

24 And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received tribute money came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute?
25 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?
26 Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free.
27 Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

The Least Is the Greatest

18 At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

17:2 transfigure ▸ see Rom. 12:2.

17:15 lunatick

(Gr. selēniazomai) (Matt. 4:24) G4583: This verb is derived from sēlenē, meaning "moon." The word literally means moonstruck, and probably refers to a form of epilepsy which was thought to be influenced by the moon. It only appears twice in the New Testament, here and in Matthew 4:24. Epilepsy was a disease that was untreatable at the time, aside from the miraculous intervention of God. The English word "lunatic" comes from the Latin word luna, also meaning moon.

17:17 faithless ▸ see Mark 9:19.

2 And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,
3 And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.
4 Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.
5 And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.
6 But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.
7 Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh!
8 Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire.
9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.
10 Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.
11 For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.

A Lost Sheep

12 How think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?
13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.
14 Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

A Trespassing Brother

15 Moreover if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother.
16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.
17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man and a publican.
18 Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.
19 Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.
20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.
21 Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times?
22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven.

An Unforgiving Servant

23 Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants.
24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand talents.

18:4 humble ▸ see Luke 14:11.
18:12 astray ▸ see Rev. 12:9.
18:16 witness ▸ see Rev. 1:5.

18:19 agree

(Gr. symphōneō) (Matt. 20:13; Luke 5:36; Acts 5:9) G4856: The word from which we get "symphony," this is a compound word meaning "to sound together." It is used metaphorically to mean "be in accord, be in harmony, agree together." It is used of agreeing on a wage (Matt. 20:2, 13), agreeing in prayer, agreeing with a spouse (Acts 5:9), and the lack of agreement when the New Covenant is put into the old wineskin of the Old Covenant rather than being given its own new wineskin (Luke 5:36).

18:23 servant ▸ see Rev. 11:18.
18:24 talent ▸ see Matt. 25:15.

25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.
26 The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.
27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.
28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellowservants, which owed him an hundred pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.
29 And his fellowservant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.
30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.
31 So when his fellowservants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.
32 Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me:
33 Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellowservant, even as I had pity on thee?
34 And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.
35 So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

Teachings on Divorce

19 And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these sayings, he departed from Galilee, and came into the coasts of Judaea beyond Jordan;
2 And great multitudes followed him; and he healed them there.
3 The Pharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?
4 And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female,
5 And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh?
6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.
7 They say unto him, Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?
8 He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.
9 And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.
10 His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.
11 But he said unto them, All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given.
12 For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

Little Children Brought to Jesus

13 Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.
14 But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven.
15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

18:34 tormentor

(Gr. basanistēs) G0930: This word only appears once in the New Testament. Originally it referred to a person who derived information by torture, but it is possible that over time the word was softened in meaning to refer simply to a jailer. It is related to another Greek word, basanizō, which means "to torture" or "torment" (G0928—Matt. 8:6; Rev. 14:10); as well as basanos, which means "torment" (G0931—Matt. 4:24; Luke 16:23, 28); and also basanismos, which means "torture" (G0929—Rev. 9:5; 14:11).

19:5 cleave ▸ see Mark 10:7.

The Rich Young Man

16 And, behold, one came and said unto him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?
17 And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is,
God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.
18 He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said, Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, 19 Honour thy father and thy mother: and,
Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.
20 The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet?
21 Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me.
22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.
23 Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily
I say unto you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.
24 And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.
25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?
26 But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible.
27 Then answered Peter and said unto him,
Behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore?
28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.
29 And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.
30 But many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first.

The Parable of the Hired Labourers

20 For the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.
2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.
3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace,
4 And said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way.
5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.
6 And about the eleventh hour he went out,

19:17 good

(Gr. agathos) (Matt. 7:17) G0018: A frequent adjective for good used synonymously with kalos (G2570), also meaning good. Yet agathos is probably the more natural word when referring to something "fit" or "useful" or to inward moral "goodness." Kalos, on the other hand, is more natural when the goodness in question is external or has an external aspect, and thus kalos can mean "beautiful" or "free from defect." The distinction appears in Jesus' words of Matthew 7:17 about "the good tree" (agathos—inherently good) which brings forth "good fruit" (kalos—free of defects). Here, in Matthew 19:17, agathos describes the perfect moral goodness which God alone possesses in the ultimate sense.

19:17 keep ▸ see 1 John 5:3.

19:26 possible

(Gr. dynatos) (Matt. 26:39; Luke 1:49; Acts 2:24; Heb. 11:19) G1415: The root of this word gives us words like dynasty, dynamite, and dynamic. It means "strong, mighty, powerful, possible." It connotes having the power or ability to carry out an intended act. People of wealth or influence who can make things happen are described in this way (Acts 25:5), as are those who have the strength of character to withstand calamity (2 Cor. 12:10). In the final analysis, we are powerless, but God has the power to give life and transfer people from Satan's realm into the kingdom of God.

19:28 regeneration ▸ see Titus 3:5.
19:28 throne ▸ see Rev. 8:3.
20:1 vineyard ▸ see Luke 20:9.

and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?
7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.
8 So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.
9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.
10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny.
11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the goodman of the house,
12 Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day.
13 But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny?
14 Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last, even as unto thee.
15 Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Is thine eye evil, because I am good?
16 So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many be called, but few chosen.

Jesus Predicts His Death

17 And Jesus going up to Jerusalem took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them,
18 Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death,
19 And shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify him: and the third day he shall rise again.

The Request of James and John's Mother

20 Then came to him the mother of Zebedee's children with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him.
21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom.
22 But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able.
23 And he saith unto them, Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.
24 And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren.
25 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them.
26 But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister;
27 And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant:
28 Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

20:13 agree ▸ see Matt. 18:19.
20:16 chosen ▸ see 1 Pet. 2:9.

20:19 scourge

(Gr. mastigoō) (Matt. 10:17; Heb. 12:6) G3146: To scourge means to whip or flog. It is used both for the whipping then administered as part of synagogue discipline (Matt. 10:17; 2 Cor. 11:24) and for that given to those condemned to death (as here). In one place in the New Testament it means "punish" or "discipline," referring to the punishment administered by God (see Heb. 12:6, where it is parallel to "chasten"). The related word mastix, meaning a "whip" or "lash," is also used for a scourging (G3148—Acts 22:24) and figuratively for affliction, meaning sickness (Mark 3:10). The other related Greek word, mastizō (G3147), meaning to "strike with a whip," occurs only in Acts 22:25.

Jesus' Compassion for Two Blind Men

29 And as they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed him.
30 And, behold, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou son of David.
31 And the multitude rebuked them, because they should hold their peace: but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou son of David.
32 And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What will ye that I shall do unto you?
33 They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened.
34 So Jesus had compassion on them, and touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

Jesus' Triumphal Entry

21 And when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage, unto the mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples,
2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me.
3 And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them.
4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,
5 Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass.
6 And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,
7 And brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they set him thereon.
8 And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way; others cut down branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way.
9 And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest.
10 And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?
11 And the multitude said, This is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee.

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

12 And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves, 13 And said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves.
14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them.
15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the son of David; they were sore displeased, 16 And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea; have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

21:5 meek

(Gr. prayÿs) (Matt. 5:5; 1 Pet. 3:4) G4239: Humbly considerate, unassuming, gentle, and mild. Meekness toward God is accepting His dealings with us as good, and therefore not resisting His sovereign will. It is allowing God to fight our battles and trusting Him even when evil people do evil things to us or we are treated unjustly. This is the attitude Jesus had toward obeying the Father's will and going to the Cross to bear our sin. He held His power in perfect control. But the Jews of His day were looking for a Messiah who would be a conquering king and establish an earthly kingdom.

21:13 thief

(Gr. lēstēs) (Matt. 26:55; 27:38) G3027: This Greek word could also be translated "robber" or "bandit," suggesting more boldness and forcefulness than the near synonym kleptēs, meaning "thief." While the latter may be a "sneak thief" or "burglar" (cf. the "thief in the night," in 1 Thess. 5:2), the word lēstēs used here suggests one who may do his work in open daylight, possibly with violence–as of the "thieves" in Luke 10:30 (cf. John 18:40; 2 Cor. 11:26).

17 And he left them, and went out of the city into Bethany; and he lodged there.

The Withered Fig Tree

18 Now in the morning as he returned into the city, he hungered.
19 And when he saw a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig tree withered away.
20 And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away!
21 Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done.
22 And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.
23 And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority?
24 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things.
25 The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him?
26 But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people; for all hold John as a prophet.
27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

The Parable of Two Sons

28 But what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard.
29 He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went.
30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not.
31 Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.
32 For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

The Parable of the Vineyard

33 Hear another parable: There was a certain householder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country:
34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it.
35 And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.
36 Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they did unto them likewise.
37 But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son.
38 But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

21:21 doubt ▸ see Acts 11:12.

21:25 baptism

(Gr. baptisma) (Matt. 20:22; Mark 1:4; Acts 19:4; Rom. 6:4) G0908: Taken from the word for "to dip, immerse," this word nevertheless emphasizes the result of the act of baptism rather than the immersion event itself. John's baptism was a baptism of repentance whereby people confessed their sins and declared an intention toward spiritual reform. Jesus commanded baptism as a profession of faith incumbent on all believers. Baptism identifies a Christian with Christ in His death, burial, and resurrection and initiates them into the community of the church. Paul describes the purpose and nature of baptism in Romans 6:4: "Therefore we are buried with Him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life."

21:29 repent ▸ see 2 Cor. 7:8.
21:35 stone ▸ see Acts 7:58.

39 And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.
40 When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?
41 They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.
42 Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?
43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.
44 And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.
45 And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them.
46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet.

The Parable of the Wedding Banquet

22 And Jesus answered and spake unto them again by parables, and said,
2 The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son,
3 And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.
4 Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.
5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:
6 And the remnant took his servants, and intreated them spitefully, and slew them.
7 But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.
8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy.
9 Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.
10 So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.
11 And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment:
12 And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless.
13 Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.
14 For many are called, but few are chosen.

Render Tribute to Caesar and to God

15 Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk.
16 And they sent out unto him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest not the person of men.
17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Caesar, or not?
18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?

22:6 intreat spitefully

(Gr. hybrizō) (Luke 18:32; Acts 14:5) G5195: The Greek word hybrizō indicates arrogant, insulting mistreatment, involving personal animosity, as here. It implies abuse that acts wantonly and with affront. Both Jesus (Luke 18:32) and Paul (Acts 14:5; 1 Thess. 2:2) received such ignominious mistreatment. There is a related word in Greek, hybris, meaning "spiteful mistreatment" or "insult," which is adopted in English as "hubris" (G5196—2 Cor. 12:10). In a similar vein, Paul classifies himself before his conversion as someone who insolently mistreated God and others, using the related word hybristēs, which means a "spiteful, injurious person" (G5197—Rom. 1:30).

19 Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny.
20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription?
21 They say unto him, Caesar's. Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's.
22 When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

Teachings on the Resurrection

23 The same day came to him the Sadducees, which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him,
24 Saying, Master, Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.
25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother:
26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh.
27 And last of all the woman died also.
28 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.
29 Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.
30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.
31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying,
32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.
33 And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished at his doctrine.

The First and Great Commandment

34 But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together.
35 Then one of them, which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying, 36 Master, which is the great commandment in the law?
37 Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.
38 This is the first and great commandment.
39 And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.
40 On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

Pharisees Questioned

41 While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, 42 Saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of David.

22:21 render

(Gr. apodidōmi) (Matt. 5:26; 6:6; 2 Tim. 4:8; Heb. 12:11) G0591: Defined as "to give, to pay what is due, to fulfill a duty, to restore," this word has strong connotations of fairness. It is giving of one's own wealth what is due to someone or what has been promised to them. In Scripture we are told not to repay our enemies what their deeds deserve (Rom. 12:17; 1 Pet. 3:9) because God will take care of that (Matt. 16:27; 1 Pet. 4:5). At the same time, those who are saved will receive rich spiritual rewards that they do not deserve (2 Tim. 4:8).

22:37 mind

(Gr. dianoia) (Rom. 12:2; Eph. 4:18; 1 Pet. 1:13) G1271: Four separate Greek words account for nearly all instances of "mind" in the New Testament. They all mean much the same thing: understanding, thought, mind, reason. While today we think of a person's mind in a morally neutral way, in the New Testament the mind was clearly thought of as either good or evil. Negatively, the mind may be "blinded" (2 Cor. 3:14; 4:4), "corrupt" (2 Tim. 3:8), and "reprobate" (Rom. 1:28). On the positive side, humans may have minds that are renewed (Rom. 12:2) and pure (2 Pet. 3:1). They may love God with all their minds (Matt. 22:37; Mark 12:30; Luke 10:27) and have God's laws implanted in their minds (Heb. 8:10). Since Christians have "the mind of Christ" (1 Cor. 2:16), they are instructed to be united in mind (Rom. 12:16; 1 Pet. 3:8).

22:42 Christ

(Gr. christos) (Matt. 1:16; John 17:3) G5547: "Christ" is derived from the Greek word chriō (G5548), meaning "anoint"; hence, the Christ is 45 If David then call him Lord, how is he his son?

46 And no man was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

The Scribes and Pharisees

23 Then spake Jesus to the multitude, and to his disciples,
2 Saying, The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat:
3 All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not.
4 For they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

Hypocrisy Denounced

5 But all their works they do for to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments,
6 And love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues,
7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi.
8 But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren.
9 And call no man your father upon the earth: for one is your Father, which is in heaven.
10 Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, even Christ.
11 But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant.
12 And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.
13 But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.
14 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.
15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.

Woe on Scribes and Pharisees

16 Woe unto you, ye blind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor!
17 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold?
18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty.
19 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift?

the Anointed One, or Messiah. We begin to feel the impact of the title "Christ" on the original audiences if we sometimes substitute "Messiah" for "Christ" in passages with Jewish connotations. Saying "Jesus Christ" is the same as saying, "Yeshua of Nazareth is the Messiah," anointed by God to be the Savior of the world. Jesus refers to Himself as "Jesus Christ" in John 17:3.

23:17 fool

(Gr. mōros) (Matt. 23:19; 1 Cor. 1:27) G3474: We get the English word "moron" from this Greek word meaning stupid or foolish. Often used (as here and v. 19) to mean "foolish (one)," or sometimes "foolish (thing)," or even "foolishness" (1 Cor. 1:27). While the near synonym aphrōn, "foolish," tends to suggest being mindless or senseless, the word mōros suggests dullness or deficiency. Used only by Paul and Matthew, the implication is usually a spiritual deficiency resulting from not knowing God. Related Greek words are mōria, "foolishness," and the verb mōrainō, to "make foolish" or "become flavorless" (G3471—of salt in Matt. 5:13, parallel Luke 14:34).

20 Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.
23 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.
24 Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.
25 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.
26 Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.
27 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.
28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.
29 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous,
30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.
31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets.
32 Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers.
33 Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?
34 Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city:
35 That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.
36 Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.
37 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!

Signs of the End

24 And Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple.
2 And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

23:37 hen

(Gr. ornis) (Luke 13:34) G3733: The Greek term simply means "bird." The English word ornithology (the study of birds) is a derivative of it. Throughout the Old Testament there are references to God exercising His care for His people in the same way a mother bird cares for her young (see Deut. 32:10–12; Ruth 2:12; Ps. 17:8; 36:7; 61:4; 63:7; 91:4; Is. 31:5; Mal. 4:2). Many of these references speak of God's protective wings, under whose shelter the frightened could find refuge. The later rabbis had a beautiful expression for proselytes from the Gentiles—they had "come under the wings of the Shekinah" (see Ruth 2:12). Jesus came to His people wanting to give them the same kind of care, but they rejected that care and tender affection again and again.

shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?
4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.
5 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.
6 And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.
7 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.
8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.
9 Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.
10 And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.
11 And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.
12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.
13 But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.
14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

The Coming of the Son of Man

15 When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:)
16 Then let them which be in Judaea flee into the mountains:
17 Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take any thing out of his house:
18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.
19 And woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!
20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day:
21 For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.
22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.
23 Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not.
24 For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.
25 Behold, I have told you before.
26 Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not.
27 For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.
28 For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together.
29 Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:
30 And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the

24:13 endure

(Gr. hypomenō) (Matt. 10:22; Rom. 12:12; 1 Cor. 13:7; Heb. 12:2) G5278: This word means "to remain, stay under, stay behind, bear, hold one's ground." It is remaining steady in the face of adversity rather than fleeing it, persevering in faith despite trials. This is an energetic word, denoting active resistance to defeat—albeit with a calm and courageous demeanor—rather than passive resignation or mere patience. Jesus' resolute courage at the Cross is described this way (Heb. 12:2), as well as our bearing temptations (James 1:12), trials (2 Tim. 2:12), and persecution (1 Pet. 2:20).

24:24 false christ

(Gr. pseudochristos) (Mark 13:22) G5580: The Greek word pseudochristos is used only here and in the parallel in Mark 13:22. It is a compound word derived from pseudo (G5571), meaning false or lying (especially concerning spiritual truth), and christos (G5547), meaning Anointed One or Christ. Thus, a pseudochristos was a false claimant to be the Messiah.

Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.
31 And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.
32 Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:
33 So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors.
34 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.
35 Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

God Knows the Day and Hour

36 But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.
37 But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.
38 For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, 39 And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.
40 Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.
41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left.
42 Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.
43 But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up.
44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.
45 Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?
46 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.
47 Verily I say unto you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods.
48 But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming;
49 And shall begin to smite his fellowservants, and to eat and drink with the drunken;
50 The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of,
51 And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Readiness and Stewardship

25 Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.
2 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.
3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:
4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.
5 While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.
6 And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

24:42 watch

(Gr. grēgoreō) (Matt. 26:41; 1 Cor. 16:13) G1127: The Greek word grēgoreō means either literally to be or keep awake (as possibly in v. 43 and parallels) or figuratively to be watchful or be alert (as here in v. 42). No New Testament usage appears to be entirely without some sense of being watchful, on guard, or vigilant. The word came to be used more or less absolutely as a Christian virtue (1 Cor. 16:13) and to designate watchful preparedness for the Lord's return (Rev. 16:15; see also Col. 4:2). In 1 Thessalonians 5:10 it takes on the metaphorical meaning of being alive.

25:1 kingdom

(Gr. basileia) (Matt. 3:2; 4:17; 5:3, 10; 10:7) G0932: "Kingdom of heaven," used almost exclusively in Matthew's Gospel (33 times), is a Jewish way of saying "the kingdom of God." The Jews avoided saying the name of God out of respect for Him. Therefore they often used the word heaven as an alternative way to refer to God. The word heaven also points to the heavenly nature of Jesus' kingdom. His kingdom did not involve an immediate political restoration of the nation of Israel as many Jews had hoped. He brought a heavenly kingdom with a spiritual domain, the hearts of His people. Such a kingdom demanded internal repentance, not just external submission.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.
8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.
9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.
10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.
11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.
12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.
13 Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.
14 For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.
15 And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.
16 Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.
17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.
18 But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.
19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.
20 And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.
21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.
22 He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents beside them.
23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.
24 Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed:
25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.
26 His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed:
27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.
28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

25:7 trim

(Gr. kosmeō) (Matt. 12:44; 1 Tim. 2:9; Rev. 21:2, 19) G2885: This word means "to beautify, adorn, arrange, organize, prepare." In a metaphorical sense it can mean to embellish with honor, such as the way godly behavior adorns the gospel (2 Tim. 2:10). The virgins embellished or trimmed their lamps in the same way the church is to prepare itself for the coming of Christ. This idea is echoed in Revelation 21:2, "And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband."

25:15 talent

(Gr. talanton) (Matt. 18:24; 25:20) G5007: A talent is a unit of weight or coinage, occurring in the New Testament only in this parable and in Matthew 18:24. The weight of the talent varied from 58 to 80 pounds, and the monetary value depended on whether the corresponding weight was in gold or silver. Its value was great. One denarius was a typical day's wage for laborers, and some sources suggest that the Roman talent equaled six thousand denarii in New Testament times. See also the related word talantiaios (G5006), which means "weighing a talent," occurring only in Revelation 16:21.

25:20 talent ▸ see Matt. 25:15.

29 For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath.
30 And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

The Separation of Sheep and Goats

31 When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory:
32 And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats:
33 And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.
34 Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:
35 For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in:
36 Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.
37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?
38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?
39 Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?
40 And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.
41 Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:
42 For I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink:
43 I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.
44 Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?
45 Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.
46 And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.

The Religious Leaders' Plan to Kill Jesus

26 And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples,
2 Ye know that after two days is the feast of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.
3 Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,
4 And consulted that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him.
5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

Precious Ointment

6 Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper,

25:29 have abundance

(Gr. perisseuō) (Matt. 5:20; 13:12; Rom. 15:13; 1 Cor. 15:58) G4052: There is nothing restrained or limited about God's grace; this verse uses a word that means "superabound, have in excess, greatly surpass." God is generous to provide more resources than we need to fulfill His calling. This idea is fleshed out in 2 Corinthians 9:8, "And God is able to make all grace abound [perisseuō] toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound [perisseuō] to every good work."

25:46 eternal

(Gr. aiōnios) (John 3:16; Rom. 16:26) G0166: This common adjective means "eternal," or "everlasting," and occurs often in the New Testament. It may mean "without end" when applied to the redemptive life (or death) experienced by humans (as here, where the KJV "everlasting" and "eternal" both translate the word; cf. John 3:16). However, when applied to God it means without beginning or end (Rom. 16:26). In a few instances, modifying "times," it looks to the past "before time began," as 2 Timothy 1:9. See also the cognate noun aiōn (G0165) meaning "age" or "time," which may refer to the present age or the age to come.

7 There came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he sat at meat.
8 But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?
9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.
10 When Jesus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.
11 For ye have the poor always with you; but me ye have not always.
12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial.
13 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her.

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

14 Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests, 15 And said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.
16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

The Passover Meal

17 Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?
18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.
19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.
20 Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve.
21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.
22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?
23 And he answered and said, He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.
24 The Son of man goeth as it is written of him: but woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had been good for that man if he had not been born.
25 Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.
26 And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body.
27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;
28 For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.
29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.
30 And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

26:11 poor

(Gr. ptōchos) (Matt. 5:3; 11:5; 19:21; Luke 21:3; James 2:2) G4434: The primary New Testament word for those without means, in poverty. Here and in Matthew 26:9 Jesus is dealing with those who would use the poor as a cover for their own greed. He invites us to acknowledge there will always be someone near us with greater needs than our own. In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus speaks about spiritual poverty, using this term to point to the starting place of spiritual blessing—the realization that we are bankrupt, poor in spirit (Matt. 5:3).

26:16 betray ▸ see Luke 23:25.
26:26 body ▸ see Phil. 3:21.
26:27 give thanks ▸ see Luke 17:16.
26:28 blood ▸ see 1 John 1:7.

26:28 shed

(Gr. ekcheō) (Matt. 23:35; Mark 14:24; Rev. 16:6) G1632: Synonymous with spilling, gushing, and pouring. The prefix ek (G1537—from or out of) plus cheō (pour) create this term for liquid running freely. The phrase "shedding blood" represents killing (Rom. 3:15). Here Jesus is inaugurating the Lord's Supper contrasting the continual shedding of lambs' blood under the Old Covenant with the spilling of His own blood shed once for all (Heb. 9:16–22). According to Romans 5:5, God's love can also be poured out in this way.

26:29 vine ▸ see John 15:1.

Peter's Vow of Loyalty

31 Then saith Jesus unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.
32 But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee.
33 Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.
34 Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.
35 Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

Jesus' Prayer in Gethsemane

36 Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.
37 And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy.
38 Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.
39 And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt.
40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour?
41 Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.
42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.
43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.
44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.
45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.
46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

Jesus' Betrayal and Arrest

47 And while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.
48 Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: hold him fast.
49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, master; and kissed him.
50 And Jesus said unto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.
51 And, behold, one of them which were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and smote off his ear.
52 Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.
53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more than twelve legions of angels?
54 But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?
55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

26:47 lo

(Gr. idou) (Matt. 1:23; Mark 13:21) G2400: A very frequent word in the New Testament, usually translated "behold!" or "lo." Idou is used to direct attention to a specific person, object, or idea. Its force is normally emphatic, like the English exclamation "Look!" It can also at times approximate the more common expressions, "Check it out!" or "See for yourself!" Consequently, idou can be used not only in ordinary situations (Luke 14:2, "And, behold, there was a certain man"), but also for weighty declarations (1 Cor. 15:51, "Behold, I shew you a mystery"). The frequency of idou in the New Testament suggests that it was a feature of everyday speech among Greek-speaking people.

56 But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

Jesus Before Caiaphas

57 And they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.
58 But Peter followed him afar off unto the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end.
59 Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death;
60 But found none: yea, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came two false witnesses,
61 And said, This fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.
62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?
63 But Jesus held his peace, And the high priest answered and said unto him, I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God.
64 Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.
65 Then the high priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.
66 What think ye? They answered and said, He is guilty of death.
67 Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others smote him with the palms of their hands, 68 Saying, Prophesy unto us, thou Christ, Who is he that smote thee?

Peter's Denial of Jesus

69 Now Peter sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee.
70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.
71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth.
72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.
73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee.
74 Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.
75 And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, which said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

The Remorse and Death of Judas

27 When the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death:
2 And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor.
3 Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,
4 Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.
5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself.
6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.
7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.
8 Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day.
9 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value;
10 And gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.

Jesus Appears Before Pilate

11 And Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest.
12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing.
13 Then said Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?
14 And he answered him to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.
15 Now at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.
16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.
17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ?
18 For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.
19 When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.
20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.
21 The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas.
22 Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified.
23 And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.
24 When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.
25 Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children.
26 Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.
27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers.
28 And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe.
29 And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!
30 And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.
31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucify him.

The Crucifixion of Jesus

32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross.

27:17 Jesus

(Gr. iēsous) (Matt. 1:21; Acts 4:10) G2424: The proper noun Jesus is a Greek form of Hebrew Yeshua, that is, Joshua. Since Greek has no "sh" sound, as in Hebrew, the Greek letter "s" (sigma) had to suffice in transliteration. The name Jesus means "Jehovah is salvation" and was a popular name among Jews. In addition to Jesus of Nazareth, the name is used in the New Testament of Joshua, son of Nun (Acts 7:45; Heb. 4:8), of Paul's coworker "Jesus, which is called Justus" (Col. 4:11), in the compound name of a sorcerer, Bar-Jesus (Bar-iēsou, Son of Jesus, Acts 13:6), and in some manuscripts as the given name of Barabbas (Matt. 27:16, 17).

27:19 judgment seat

(Gr. bēma) (Acts 12:21; 25:10; Rom. 14:10; 2 Cor. 5:10) G0968: This word originally referred to a step or a stride but then came to be used for a raised platform such as the throne of a ruler where he presided over trials. In the New Testament it is used for both earthly magistrates (Acts 18:12, 16, 17) and the divine tribunal from which Jesus makes His judgments. Paul describes this heavenly tribunal in 2 Corinthians 5:10, "For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad."

33 And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull,
34 They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.
35 And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots.
36 And sitting down they watched him there;
37 And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.
38 Then were there two thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left.
39 And they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads,
40 And saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.
41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, 42 He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.
43 He trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God.
44 The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

Jesus' Death on the Cross

45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.
46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?
47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Elias.
48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a spunge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.
49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him.
50 Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.
51 And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;
52 And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose, 53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.
54 Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.
55 And many women were there beholding afar off, which followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him:
56 Among which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's children.

Jesus Buried in Joseph's Tomb

57 When the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathaea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple:
58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.
59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,

27:57 disciple

(Gr. mathēteuō) (Matt. 28:19; Acts 14:21) G3100: This is a verb meaning teach, disciple. The related noun mathētēs (G3101—disciple, learner) is derived from manthanō (G3129—learn). When mathēteuō is used as a verb, it means to be a learner, pupil, or disciple, as here in Matthew 27:57. With an object, the verb means to make disciples, as Jesus commanded in the Great Commission (Matt. 28:19; cf. Acts 14:21). In other places in the New Testament, the word used is a feminine noun, mathētria, which specifically designates a female disciple (G3102—Acts 9:36). Note also that the word mathētēs is used by Luke in Acts to describe all Christians generally (Acts 6:1, 2).

60 And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.
61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

Setting a Watch

62 Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, 63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again.
64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.
65 Pilate said unto them, Ye have a watch: go your way, make it as sure as ye can.
66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

The Risen Christ

28 In the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.
2 And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.
3 His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow:
4 And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.
5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.
6 He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.
7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.
8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy; and did run to bring his disciples word.
9 And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.
10 Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.
11 Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done.
12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers, 13 Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept.
14 And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you.
15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

Jesus' Commission

16 Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them.
17 And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.
18 And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.
19 Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost:

28:19 baptize

(Gr. baptizō) (Matt. 3:11; Acts 8:38) G0907: This verb is used often in the New Testament, usually translated by its English derivative, "baptize." It is used in reference to baptism by John (Mark 1:4), Jesus (John 4:1, 2), the apostles (here in Matt. 28:19), other Christians (Acts 8:38), and even the Corinthians in their controversial practice (1 Cor. 15:29). The Jews baptized persons or things (see, for example, Mark 7:4, where the related word G0909—baptismos, washing, is used). It may be used figuratively also (Mark 10:39; 1 Cor. 10:2). Baptizō is related to the word baptō (G0911), which means to dip, immerse, and the noun baptisma (G0908), which refers to the baptism itself.

20 Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

28:20 world

(Gr. aiōn) (Rom. 11:36; Gal. 1:4; Eph. 6:12; Heb. 7:24) G0165: Taken from the word for "always, perpetually," this word means "forever; an indefinitely long period." It does not refer to a specific condition but rather to a vast period of time or what we might think of as an age. Jesus used this word to refer to both the age of the world—the present age—and the age that will come after His Second Coming (Matt. 12:32; Mark 10:30). But this word is more often used as a synonym for eternity: "forever," "forever and ever," or "eternal."

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

MARK

THE MESSAGE OF MARK'S GOSPEL is captured in a single verse: "For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many" (10:45). Chapter by chapter, the book unfolds the dual focus of Christ's life: service and sacrifice.

Mark portrays Jesus as a Servant on the move, instantly responsive to the will of the Father. By preaching, teaching, and healing, He ministers to the needs of others even to the point of death. After the Resurrection, He commissions His followers to continue His work in His power—servants following in the steps of the perfect Servant.

The ancient title for this gospel was Kata Markon, "According to Mark." The author is best known by his Latin name Marcus, but in Jewish circles he was called by his Hebrew name John. Acts 12:12, 25 refer to him as "John, whose surname was Mark."

John's Message of Repentance

1 The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God;
2 As it is written in the prophets, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.
3 The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.
4 John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins.
5 And there went out unto him all the land of Judaea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins.
6 And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat locusts and wild honey;
7 And preached, saying, There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.
8 I indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost.

Jesus' Baptism and Temptations

9 And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan.

1:4 repentance

(Gr. metanoia) (Matt. 3:8; Acts 5:31; 11:18) G3341: This Greek word is a compound word derived from meta, meaning "after" and suggesting some type of change, and nous, meaning "mind." Thus the word strictly denotes "a change of mind." But it also connotes remorse for sin, accompanied by a desire to turn away from one's sin, to God, for salvation. Both John the Baptist and Jesus began their ministries with a call to repentance (Matt. 3:2; 4:17)—a call that many of the social outcasts and "sinners" of that day answered (Luke 19:1–10), but that many of the religious people rejected (Luke 11:39–44; 18:9–14).

1:6 honey ▸ see Rev. 10:10.

10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him:
11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.
12 And immediately the Spirit driveth him into the wilderness.
13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of Satan; and was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto him.

Peter, Andrew, James, and John Called

14 Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God,
15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.
16 Now as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.
17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.
18 And straightway they forsook their nets, and followed him.
19 And when he had gone a little farther thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.
20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

An Unclean Spirit Rebuked

21 And they went into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught.
22 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.
23 And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out,
24 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God.
25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.
26 And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.
27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.
28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

Many Diseased and Possessed Are Helped

29 And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.
30 But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever, and anon they tell him of her.
31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.
32 And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.
33 And all the city was gathered together at the door.
34 And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and suffered not the devils to speak, because they knew him.
35 And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.

1:20 leave

(Gr. aphiēmi) (Mark 12:12; Luke 18:29; Rev. 2:4) G0863: This is a compound word made of apo, "away from," and heimi, "to send." It is used in three primary ways: to let go or send away as in divorce (1 Cor. 7:11–13) or forgiving a debt (Matt. 18:27; 1 John 1:9); to permit or allow something (Matt. 3:15; 5:40; Mark 10:14); and to neglect or leave alone (Matt. 4:11; Luke 13:35). Answering the call of Christ entails leaving some behaviors, relationships, and affections behind to follow Him.

1:21 straightway ▸ see John 6:21.
1:27 obey ▸ see Rom. 6:17.

36 And Simon and they that were with him followed after him.
37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.
38 And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for therefore came I forth.
39 And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out devils.

A Leper Is Healed

40 And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.
41 And Jesus, moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou clean.
42 And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed.
43 And he straitly charged him, and forthwith sent him away;
44 And saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things which Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.
45 But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

Jesus Heals a Man with Palsy

2 And again he entered into Capernaum after some days; and it was noised that he was in the house.
2 And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door: and he preached the word unto them.
3 And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, which was borne of four.
4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for the press, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay.
5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee.
6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,
7 Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God only?
8 And immediately when Jesus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?
9 Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk?
10 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,)
11 I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house.
12 And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

1:41 move with compassion ▸ see Matt. 14:14.

1:42 leprosy

(Gr. lepra) (Matt. 8:3; Luke 5:12) G3014: Any eruptive skin disease was called by the name leprosy in the ancient world. Thus this could refer to what we know as leprosy—the degenerative illness Hansen's disease—or to other skin conditions such as psoriasis, lupus, or ringworm. In Mosaic law, such an affliction rendered a person ceremonially unclean and forced him or her to be separated from the community (Lev. 14). Touching such a person not only put one at risk for developing skin disease, but also rendered that person unclean. Yet Jesus reached out and touched the leper to heal him.

1:43 straitly charge ▸ see John 11:38.
1:44 testimony ▸ see Matt. 8:4.

2:5 son

(Gr. teknon) (Matt. 23:37; Luke 14:26; Rom. 8:16; Eph. 5:8) G5043: Literally "offspring," as a son or daughter, this word is also used to describe a loving relationship that resembles the parent-child bond, such as between God and believers or between a teacher and his students. Such relationships imply both affection and imitation, as the offspring learn from the parent figure. A good illustration of the way this word is used both literally and metaphorically is found in Matthew 7:11: "If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him!"

The Calling of Levi

13 And he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.
14 And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.
15 And it came to pass, that, as Jesus sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.
16 And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?
17 When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.
18 And the disciples of John and of the Pharisees used to fast: and they come and say unto him, Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not?
19 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.
20 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.
21 No man also seweth a piece of new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse.
22 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles: else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottles.

The Sabbath Made for Man

23 And it came to pass, that he went through the corn fields on the sabbath day; and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of corn.
24 And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful?
25 And he said unto them, Have ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was an hungered, he, and they that were with him?
26 How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and did eat the shewbread, which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him?
27 And he said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath:
28 Therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

Jesus Heals a Withered Hand

3 And he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there which had a withered hand.
2 And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; that they might accuse him.
3 And he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, Stand forth.
4 And he saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? But they held their peace.
5 And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.
6 And the Pharisees went forth, and straightway took counsel with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.

2:24 Pharisee

(Gr. pharisaios) (Mark 2:16; 10:2; 12:13) G5330: One of the two mainstream religious bodies in Israel at the time of Christ. Pharisees were generally conservative, holding to the Old Testament Scriptures as God's Word. Their exacting rules regarding the Sabbath meant almost continual clashes with Jesus. Their rivals were the Sadducees, who held to the Torah, the five books of Moses, as God's primary revelation and did not believe in the possibility of resurrection. Famous Pharisees who became followers of Jesus were Nicodemus (John 3:1) and Saul of Tarsus (Acts 23:6).

The Multitude Follow Jesus

7 But Jesus withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea: and a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Judaea,
8 And from Jerusalem, and from Idumaea, and from beyond Jordan; and they about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him.
9 And he spake to his disciples, that a small ship should wait on him because of the multitude, lest they should throng him.
10 For he had healed many; insomuch that they pressed upon him for to touch him, as many as had plagues.
11 And unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God.
12 And he straitly charged them that they should not make him known.

Jesus Ordains Twelve Disciples

13 And he goeth up into a mountain, and calleth unto him whom he would: and they came unto him.
14 And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach,
15 And to have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out devils:
16 And Simon he surnamed Peter;
17 And James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James; and he surnamed them Boanerges, which is, The sons of thunder:
18 And Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Canaanite, 19 And Judas Iscariot, which also betrayed him: and they went into an house.

A Divided Kingdom

20 And the multitude cometh together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread.
21 And when his friends heard of it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, He is beside himself.
22 And the scribes which came down from Jerusalem said, He hath Beelzebub, and by the prince of the devils casteth he out devils.
23 And he called them unto him, and said unto them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan?
24 And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.
25 And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand.
26 And if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end.
27 No man can enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he will first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house.
28 Verily I say unto you, All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme:
29 But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation:
30 Because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.

3:18 Canaanite

(Gr. kananitēs) (Matt. 10:4) G2581: Literally "zealous," this word was originally used for those who came from the Canaanite region. It may be a transliteration of an Aramaic word for zealot. In Jesus' day the zealots were a nationalist political faction from Galilee that opposed increased taxes and favored the use of force to do so. They were looking for a political Messiah to overturn Roman rule by force. Simon left this sect to follow Jesus, gradually learning that the Messiah had come to set up a spiritual kingdom rather than an earthly one.

3:22 Beelzebub ▸ see Matt. 10:25.

3:28 sin

(Gr. hamartēma) (Mark 4:12; Rom. 3:25; 1 Cor. 6:18) G0265: Taken from a root word meaning "to miss the mark, wander from the path of right," this word denotes an individual act of sin. It emphasizes that a particular act is a violation of God's will, whereas its more often used relative hamartia (G266) stresses the action of committing a sin. Blasphemy is one of many sinful acts that God forgives, but a settled pattern of regarding good as evil and evil as good renders a person unable to recognize truth and turn to God.

3:30 unclean ▸ see Acts 5:16.

Jesus' Family

31 There came then his brethren and his mother, and, standing without, sent unto him, calling him.
32 And the multitude sat about him, and they said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee.
33 And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother, or my brethren?
34 And he looked round about on them which sat about him, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!
35 For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

The Sower's Seed

4 And he began again to teach by the sea side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.
2 And he taught them many things by parables, and said unto them in his doctrine,
3 Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow:
4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.
5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:
6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.
7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.
8 And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.
9 And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.
10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parable.
11 And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables:
12 That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.
13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?
14 The sower soweth the word.
15 And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.
16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;
17 And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended.
18 And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word,
19 And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.
20 And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

Set Your Candle on a Candlestick

21 And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick?
22 For there is nothing hid, which shall not

4:16 gladness

(Gr. chara) (Acts 12:14; Phil. 2:29) G5479: This word is often translated joy (Matt. 2:10; Luke 2:10; John 15:11; 1 John 1:4). It is listed among the fruit of the Spirit (Gal. 5:22). Here Jesus speaks of a glad response on the part of someone who hears the gospel, but without further depth, the faith planted quickly withers under the hot sun of adversity. Gladness and joy describe a generally positive outlook, but the other fruit of the Spirit must be present to sustain it. When Jesus speaks of joy with His disciples (John 15:11), He wants them to experience His joy, sustained by "these things have I spoken unto you."

be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.
23 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.
24 And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you that hear shall more be given.
25 For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

The Growing Seed

26 And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground;
27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.
28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.
29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

The Grain of Mustard Seed

30 And he said, Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?
31 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth:
32 But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.
33 And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it.
34 But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

Jesus Rebukes the Wind

35 And the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side.
36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships.
37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.
38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?
39 And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.
40 And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith?
41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

A Man with an Unclean Spirit

5 And they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes.
2 And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,
3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:

4:22 manifest

(Gr. phaneroō) (Eph. 5:13; Col. 3:4; Heb. 9:26; 1 John 1:2) G5319: Used nearly 50 times in the New Testament, mostly by Paul and John, this word means "to reveal, make known, make manifest, show something that has been hidden." It has the connotation of supernatural revelation—something being divinely made known. God reveals Himself and His will (Rom. 3:21). Eventually each person will appear or be examined before God and his or her works will be revealed (2 Cor. 5:10). Thus Christ's revelation or appearing makes it possible for us to one day appear with Him in glory (Col. 3:4).

4:22 abroad ▸ see 1 Cor. 11:19.

5:1 country

(Gr. chōra) (Matt. 2:12; Mark 5:10; Luke 2:8; Acts 18:23) G5561: This word can refer to a region or territory, not necessarily another nation. The term is used twice in Mark 5 as Jesus deals with the demons terrorizing a man among the Gadarenes. Instead of being evicted from the region, they are sent into the herd of pigs and into oblivion. Jesus uses the term in His parable of the prodigal (Luke 15:13, 15), describing the far place of escape the younger brother sought only to discover that his discontent has traveled with him as he wastes his inheritance.

4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.
5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.
6 But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped him,
7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.
8 For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.
9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.
10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country.
11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountains a great herd of swine feeding.
12 And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.
13 And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand;) and were choked in the sea.
14 And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.
15 And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.
16 And they that saw it told them how it befell to him that was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine.
17 And they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts.
18 And when he was come into the ship, he that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him.
19 Howbeit Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.
20 And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men did marvel.

Jairus's Daughter Is Raised to Life

21 And when Jesus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him: and he was nigh unto the sea.
22 And, behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet,
23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live.
24 And Jesus went with him; and much people followed him, and thronged him.
25 And a certain woman, which had an issue of blood twelve years,
26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse,
27 When she had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, and touched his garment.
28 For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole.
29 And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague.
30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes?
31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?
32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing.
33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.
34 And he said unto her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.
35 While he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house certain which said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further?
36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe.

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James.
38 And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.
39 And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth.
40 And they laughed him to scorn. But when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.
41 And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise.
42 And straightway the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment.
43 And he charged them straitly that no man should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

Jesus Is Rejected in Nazareth

6 And he went out from thence, and came into his own country; and his disciples follow him.
2 And when the sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?
3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, and Joses, and of Juda, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended at him.
4 But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house.
5 And he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.
6 And he marvelled because of their unbelief. And he went round about the villages, teaching.

The Disciples Sent Forth

7 And he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits;
8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no scrip, no bread, no money in their purse:
9 But be shod with sandals; and not put on two coats.
10 And he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide till ye depart from that place.
11 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city.
12 And they went out, and preached that men should repent.
13 And they cast out many devils, and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

Herod's Fear of John the Baptist

14 And king Herod heard of him; (for his name was spread abroad:) and he said, That John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.
15 Others said, That it is Elias. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.
16 But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It

6:1 own country

(Gr. patris) (Matt. 13:57; John 4:44; Heb. 11:14) G3968: An uncommon noun, this word refers to one's fatherland or the place one considers home. All four Gospels recount Jesus' use of "own country" as one of the few places a prophet is disrespected, the others being by his own family and in his own home (Matt. 13:57; Mark 6:4; Luke 4:24; John 4:44). When Jesus came home to Nazareth, the people at the synagogue recognized Him as one of their own and would not listen to His teachings: "'Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?' . . . And they were offended in him" (Matt. 13:55, 57). Most importantly, the term is applied to the ultimate home of believers: heaven (Heb. 11:14).

is John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.
17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife: for he had married her.
18 For John had said unto Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife.
19 Therefore Herodias had a quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could not:
20 For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man and an holy, and observed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.
21 And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birthday made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief estates of Galilee;
22 And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, and pleased Herod and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.
23 And he sware unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.
24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist.
25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in a charger the head of John the Baptist.
26 And the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.
27 And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison,
28 And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother.
29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

Feeding the Five Thousand

30 And the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.
31 And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.
32 And they departed into a desert place by ship privately.
33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him.
34 And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things.
35 And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed:
36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.
37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat?
38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes.
39 And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass.
40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.
41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

6:35 desert

(Gr. erēmos) (Mark 1:3; Luke 4:42; 1 Cor. 10:5; Rev. 12:6) G2048: More typically translated "wilderness," this term is usually used of a deserted, desolate place far from other people. The wilderness was the prophesied dwelling place of John the Baptist (Matt. 3:1, 3; 11:7; Mark 1:3, 4; Luke 1:80; 7:24; John 1:23). The wilderness served as a place for Jesus and His disciples to retreat and pray in peace (Mark 1:35; 6:31; Luke 4:42; 5:16); it was also a place of refuge for a woman to escape a serpent in John's visions (Rev. 12:6, 14). Other times, the wilderness is a metaphorical or literal place of testing, suffering, and death (Matt. 4:1; Acts 13:18; 1 Cor. 10:5).

42 And they did all eat, and were filled.
43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.
44 And they that did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men.

Jesus Walks on the Sea

45 And straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before unto Bethsaida, while he sent away the people.
46 And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray.
47 And when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.
48 And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them.
49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out:
50 For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid.
51 And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered.
52 For they considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their heart was hardened.

Those Who Touch Jesus Are Made Well

53 And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore.
54 And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him, 55 And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was.
56 And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched him were made whole.

The Pharisees Rebuked

7 Then came together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, which came from Jerusalem.
2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled, that is to say, with unwashen, hands, they found fault.
3 For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.
4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, brasen vessels, and of tables.
5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?
6 He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.
7 Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.
8 For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.
9 And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.
10 For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death:
11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift,

7:6 hypocrite

(Gr. hupokritēs) G5273: A hypocrite is one whose actions stand opposed to the way he tries to present himself. Hupokritēs was also historically used of actors, who, like hypocrites, are masters of playing roles. Jesus often condemns hypocrites, especially ones among the religious leaders, for being overly concerned with appearing righteous ("Ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more a child of hell than yourselves"—Matt. 23:15) and following the minutiae of the law while neglecting "the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith" (Matt. 23:23). Also condemned are those who accuse others of sin while living in sin themselves (Luke 6:42).

by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free.
12 And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother;
13 Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.

Things from Within Defile

14 And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of you, and understand:
15 There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.
16 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.
17 And when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.
18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him;
19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats?
20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.
21 For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,
22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:
23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

A Girl Delivered and a Deaf Man Healed

24 And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be hid.
25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet:
26 The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.
27 But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.
28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.
29 And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter.
30 And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.
31 And again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis.

7:21 adultery

(Gr. moicheia) (Matt. 15:19; John 8:3) G3430: This particular word, used only three times in the New Testament, refers to infidelity which breaks the covenant of marriage. This is the noun form. The verb form, "committing adultery," is G3431 (occurring 15 times). Adultery is forbidden in the Ten Commandments and punishable by stoning (John 8:4, 5). Like all sins, it comes from within the heart of the sinner (Matt. 15:19; Mark 7:21).

7:21 fornication ▸ see Matt. 15:19.

7:22 pride

(Gr. hyperēphania) G5243: Used only here in Scripture, this word means "pride, haughtiness, arrogance, overestimating one's merits." The word comes from huper (G5228), meaning "over," and phainomai (G5316), meaning "to appear." This type of person thinks more highly of himself than he should and looks down on others, treating them with contempt or disdain. The Pharisees of Jesus' day exhibited this characteristic, and it stood out against the meek humility of Jesus, who though He was God emptied Himself for us and became our servant (Phil. 2:6–8).

7:27 fill ▸ see Matt. 15:33.

7:27 dog

(Gr. kynarion) (Matt. 15:26) G2952: Literally "little dog; puppy," this word is used both to refer to a small dog and metaphorically to refer to an unclean person. Jews called the ceremonially impure Gentiles "dogs" as an insult. At first glance it seems Jesus is joining the Jews of His day by insulting the Gentiles, but He does it gently (using the diminutive form of the word), and His intent is to draw from this Gentile woman an expression of faith. She responds to His gentle challenge with bold faith.

deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.
33 And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spit, and touched his tongue;
34 And looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.
35 And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.
36 And he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it;
37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

Feeding the Multitude

8 In those days the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,
2 I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:
3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far.
4 And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?
5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.
6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people.
7 And they had a few small fishes: and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.
8 So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets.
9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.
10 And straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.
11 And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.
12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.
13 And he left them, and entering into the ship again departed to the other side.

The Leaven of the Pharisees

14 Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.
15 And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.
16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.
17 And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened?

8:15 beware ▸ see 1 Cor. 13:12.

8:15 leaven

(Gr. zymē) (Matt. 13:33; 16:6; 1 Cor. 5:6; Gal. 5:9) G2219: Leaven was a common Jewish metaphor for an invisible, pervasive influence. Its use here as a corrupting influence was an appropriate image to use in describing the subtle but pervasive control the religious leaders had on society. Like leaven that works its way into fresh dough, spreading out through the bread until its effects are evident in the entire batch, so their ideas were gradually infiltrating men's minds until they had penetrated and permeated every part of their thinking. In this context, the leaven of the Pharisees must be linked with their desire to see a sign, because they did not believe in Jesus' identity. Herod also wanted a sign (Luke 23:8). This unbelieving attitude, like leaven, had started to permeate the general population.

8:17 harden

(Gr. pōroō) (Mark 6:52; John 12:40; Rom. 11:7; 2 Cor. 3:14) G4456: Taken from the word for a particular type of stone, this means "to petrify, form a callus, cover with thick skin." In Scripture it is only used metaphorically, to describe the hardening of a person's heart or the blinding of a person's mind to truth. This word explains why some people were unable to discern spiritual truth. Second

Jesus Heals a Blind Man at Bethsaida

22 And he cometh to Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him.
23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.
24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.
25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.
26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town.
27 And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Caesarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?
28 And they answered, John the Baptist: but some say, Elias; and others, One of the prophets.
29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ.
30 And he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

Jesus' Coming Death

31 And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.
32 And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.
33 But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

Follow Me

34 And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.
35 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.
36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?
37 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?
38 Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

8:34 cross

(Gr. stauros) (Matt. 10:38; Mark 10:21; Luke 14:27; Gal. 6:14) G4716: Originally used to refer to an upright stake or pole, this word came to mean the cross that was used for execution. The cross was not only the most brutal form of execution the Romans could invent, it was also the most shameful (Phil. 2:8). The phrase "carrying one's cross" was a reference to the way condemned men carried the crosspiece of the cross upon which they were to be hanged. Jesus used this term metaphorically to refer to enduring suffering even to the point of death. We are to follow the example of Christ even to the point of sacrificing our very lives—taking up the cross He calls us to bear, just as He bore the shame and agony of the Cross for us.

stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power.
2 And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.
3 And his raiment became shining, exceeding white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them.
4 And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.
5 And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.
6 For he wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid.
7 And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.
8 And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves.
9 And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.
10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean.
11 And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes that Elias must first come?
12 And he answered and told them, Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be set at nought.
13 But I say unto you, That Elias is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

A Dumb and Deaf Spirit Cast Out

14 And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.
15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him.
16 And he asked the scribes, What question ye with them?
17 And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit;
18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not.
19 He answereth him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.
20 And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming.
21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child.
22 And ofttimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.
23 Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.
24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief.
25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.
26 And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead.

9:19 faithless

(Gr. apistos) (Matt. 17:17; John 20:27; 1 Cor. 10:27; 2 Cor. 6:14) G0571: This word is formed from the combining of the negative a (G0001) with pistis (G4103), "faith." So it means "unbelieving, faithless." It can refer to either a specific action of disbelief or to unbelievers in general. In the active sense it means "disbelieving, heathen" and in the passive sense it means "untrustworthy." Those who choose unbelief over belief are choosing a life in rebellion against God, and so this word carries the connotation of being wicked and unrighteous. Yet God's compassionate grace extends to such people.

27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose.
28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?
29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.
30 And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it.
31 For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.
32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

The Disciples' Dispute

33 And he came to Capernaum: and being in the house he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way?
34 But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest.
35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.
36 And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them, 37 Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

Miracles in Jesus' Name

38 And John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us: and we forbad him, because he followeth not us.
39 But Jesus said, Forbid him not: for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me.
40 For he that is not against us is on our part.
41 For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.

Offend Not the Little Ones

42 And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.
43 And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:
44 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.
45 And if thy foot offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:
46 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.
47 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire:
48 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

Have Salt in Yourselves

49 For every one shall be salted with fire, and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.
50 Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his saltness, wherewith will ye season it? Have

9:35 servant

(Gr. diakonos) (Matt. 23:11; John 12:26; Phil. 1:1; 1 Tim. 3:8) G1249: This word was probably derived from an obsolete word that meant "to run errands." It literally means "one who executes the commands of another," and so was first used to describe a servant, attendant, or waiter. The term was later adopted by the church to mean a leader of the church who served in an official capacity, such as a deacon. Such people take orders from Jesus their King and Master, and carry out duties of service for members of the church.

9:43 hell ▸ see James 3:6.

9:44 worm

(Gr. skōlēx) (Mark 9:46) G4663: This word is only used in this quotation, taken from Isaiah 66:24. It means "grub, earthworm, or maggot." The Hebrews understood worms to be part of the process of decomposition in the grave as they feasted on dead bodies. Mark's quotation from Jesus suggests that a never-dying worm torments the damned in hell.

salt in yourselves, and have peace one with another.

Marriage and Divorce

10 And he arose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Judaea by the farther side of Jordan: and the people resort unto him again; and, as he was wont, he taught them again.
2 And the Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? tempting him.
3 And he answered and said unto them, What did Moses command you?
4 And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.
5 And Jesus answered and said unto them, For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept.
6 But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female.
7 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife;
8 And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.
9 What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.
10 And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter.
11 And he saith unto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.
12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

Jesus Blesses the Children

13 And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.
14 But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.
15 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.
16 And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

The Rich Young Man

17 And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?
18 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God.
19 Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother.
20 And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth.
21 Then Jesus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me.
22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions.

All Things Are Possible with God

23 And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!
24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!
25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

10:7 cleave

(Gr. proskollaō) (Matt. 19:5; Acts 5:36; Eph. 5:31) G4347: Literally "to glue to, stick to, adhere closely to, join, cleave to," the image is of gluing two things together, as opposed to nailing them together. The bond is so tight that the two surfaces become one entity. The prefix pros (G4314) means "to or against," so there is a sense of a person joining himself to something else; the bond is chosen, not forced. Three of the four times this word is used, it is in a quotation from Genesis 2:24. The use of this word in the context of marriage emphasizes the importance of faithfulness and permanence in the marriage relationship.

26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?
27 And Jesus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.
28 Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.
29 And Jesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's, 30 But he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life.
31 But many that are first shall be last; and the last first.

The Disciples Prepared for Jesus' Death

32 And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him,
33 Saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles:
34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again.

James and John's Request

35 And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, come unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall desire.
36 And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you?
37 They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.
38 But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?
39 And they said unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized:
40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.
41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John.
42 But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.
43 But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister:
44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.
45 For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

10:29 brother

(Gr. adelphos) (Matt. 5:24; 12:46; 1 Cor. 1:10; 2 Thess. 3:6) G0080: Literally a sibling who shares at least one parent, usually a male sibling but also sometimes brothers and sisters. The word comes from the word for "womb" and the prefix "of the same." Members of the Christian church were often referred to by the title "brethren" in the New Testament. Figuratively this term is applied to anyone sharing a close bond, such as a countryman (Acts 2:29) or a neighbor (Matt. 5:22). Jesus considered the bond between believers to be closer and more important than blood bonds.

10:29 sister

(Gr. adelphē) (Matt. 12:50; Mark 3:35; 1 Tim. 5:2; James 2:15) G0079: This word describes the genetic familial bond of a sister—a female who shares at least one parent. Metaphorically it also refers to spiritual siblings, and in that case it is usually written as "brothers and sisters." Jesus repeatedly affirmed that spiritual bonds are stronger than genetic ones. He said, "For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother" (Mark 3:35).

Jesus Heals Bartimaeus

46 And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, sat by the highway side begging.
47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me.
48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.
49 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee.
50 And he, casting away his garment, rose,
and came to Jesus.
51 And Jesus answered and said unto him,
What wilt thou that I should do unto thee?
The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.
52 And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

Jesus Enters Jerusalem

11 And when they came nigh to Jerusalem, unto Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,
2 And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring him.
3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him;
and straightway he will send him hither.
4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.
5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt?
6 And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded: and they let them go.
7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him; and he sat upon him.
8 And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way.
9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna; Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord:
10 Blessed be the kingdom of our father
David, that cometh in the name of the Lord:
Hosanna in the highest.

A Fig Tree Rebuked

11 And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.
12 And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry:
13 And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.
14 And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.

or ransom." In other writings it refers to the price paid for the freedom of a prisoner of war, a slave, or a debtor. In Scripture this word is used as an image showing what Christ did for us—He paid the ransom price or penalty for sin (death) on our behalf. This point is made explicit in 1 Timothy 2:6, where this word is combined with the prefix anti (G0473)—which means "in place of": "who gave himself a ransom [G0478—antilytron] for all, to be testified in due time."

11:9 hosanna

(Gr. hōsanna) (Matt. 21:9; John 12:13) G5614: This word is both an exclamation of joy and a prayer for help. It is featured in three of four Gospels in the story of Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem, riding on a donkey's colt. Perhaps recognizing this as the fulfillment of the messianic prophecy in Zechariah 9:9, those following Jesus and those who greeted Him at the city gates shouted, "Hosanna; Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord" (Mark 11:9; see also Matt. 21:9; John 12:13).

went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves;
16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple.
17 And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of thieves.
18 And the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the people was astonished at his doctrine.
19 And when even was come, he went out of the city.

The Lesson of the Fig Tree

20 And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.
21 And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away.
22 And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God.
23 For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.
24 Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.
25 And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.
26 But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

Jesus' Authority Questioned

27 And they come again to Jerusalem: and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders,
28 And say unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?
29 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I will also ask of you one question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.
30 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men? answer me.
31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him?
32 But if we shall say, Of men; they feared the people: for all men counted John, that he was a prophet indeed.
33 And they answered and said unto Jesus, We cannot tell. And Jesus answering saith unto them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

The Parable of the Vineyard

12 And he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the winefat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.
2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.
3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

11:21 master

(Gr. rabbi) (Mark 9:5; 10:51; 14:45) G4461: In New Testament times, rabbi was a respectful title for a teacher well versed in the Mosaic law. The title, which derives from a Hebrew word meaning "great," is often translated "master." Rabboni, an Aramaic form of this word, expresses affectionate respect for a teacher (John 20:16). Both the disciples and the teachers of the law honored Jesus with this title. But Jesus warned His disciples not to covet such a title for themselves, for there is only one true teacher, Christ Himself (Matt. 23:6–10).

12:1 vineyard ▸ see Luke 20:9.

12:1 go into a far country

(Gr. apodēmeō) (Matt. 25:14; Luke 15:13; 20:9) G0589: Apodēmeō, a rare word appearing only six times in the New Testament, is used exclusively in parables to describe people departing on journeys to unspecified far-off lands, often for a long time (Matt. 25:15, 19; Luke 20:9). Those making such journeys (such as businessmen or landowners) left their servants or stewards in charge in their absence (Matt. 25:14). The prodigal son, however, takes his inheritance and goes to a far country in hopes of becoming wealthy but instead wastes his money on high living (Luke 15:13).

4 And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.
5 And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some.
6 Having yet therefore one son, his wellbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.
7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.
8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.
9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.
10 And have ye not read this scripture; The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner:
11 This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?
12 And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people: for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

Paying Tribute

13 And they send unto him certain of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, to catch him in his words.
14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar, or not?
15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a penny, that I may see it.
16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Caesar's.
17 And Jesus answering said unto them, Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.

Resurrection Questions

18 Then come unto him the Sadducees, which say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying,
19 Master, Moses wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.
20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.
21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise.
22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.
23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.
24 And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?
25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels which are in heaven.
26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?
27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

The Scribes and the Commandments

28 And one of the scribes came, and having

12:10 corner

(Gr. gōnia) (Matt. 21:42; Acts 4:11; Eph. 2:20; 1 Pet. 2:6, 7) G1137: In biblical times, buildings were often made of cut, squared stone. By uniting two intersecting walls, a stone placed in the corner helped align the whole building and tie it together. In his address before the Jewish Sanhedrin, the apostle Peter quoted Psalm 118:22 and boldly proclaimed that "Jesus Christ of Nazareth," crucified and raised from the dead, was the stone rejected by the builders and "is become the head of the corner" (Acts 4:10, 11; Eph. 2:20). This chief cornerstone, Jesus Christ, is the foundation of the church, because "there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved" (Acts 4:12). In Him "all the building, fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord" (Eph. 2:21).

heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?
29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord:
30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.
31 And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.
32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; and there is none other but he:
33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.
34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ask him any question.
35 And Jesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the son of David?
36 For David himself said by the Holy Ghost, The Lord said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.
37 David therefore himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he then his son? And the common people heard him gladly.
38 And he said unto them in his doctrine, Beware of the scribes, which love to go in long clothing, and love salutations in the marketplaces,
39 And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts:
40 Which devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater damnation.

The Widow's Offering of Two Mites

41 And Jesus sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.
42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two mites, which make a farthing.
43 And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury:
44 For all they did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living.

Signs of the End Times

13 And as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!
2 And Jesus answering said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.
3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives

12:33 understanding

(Gr. synesis) (Luke 2:47; 1 Cor. 1:19; 2 Tim. 2:7) G4907: Unlike sophia (G4678), a broad term for wisdom, or phronēsis (G5428), which is specifically knowledge and love of the will of God, this term refers to a critical understanding with an awareness of implications. Synesis appears only seven times in the New Testament. In this verse it refers primarily to the mind, one's critical faculties (Mark 12:33). This word can refer to knowledge of spiritual matters, such as the scriptures or God's will: "[We] desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding" (Col. 1:9; cf. Luke 2:47; Col. 2:2). It can also be applied to wisdom as given by God (2 Tim. 2:7).

12:42 mite

(Gr. lepton) (Luke 12:59; 21:2) G3016: This very rare word refers to the smallest denomination of coin used in Jesus' time, equivalent to about one-fifth of a cent. Two mites were all the widow in this story had to her name—a truly paltry sum but a fortune to her—and so great was her love of God that she gave them to Him, proving herself more generous than the miserly Pharisees (Mark 12:43; Luke 21:3). The one other appearance of this word comes in an injunction to try to settle disputes with others before taking them to court because the losing party may be locked up until he or she is able to pay every last mite of the settlement (Luke 12:58, 59).

over against the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately, 4 Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?

Wars and Rumours of Wars

5 And Jesus answering them began to say, Take heed lest any man deceive you:
6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.
7 And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the end shall not be yet.
8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorrows.
9 But take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.
10 And the gospel must first be published among all nations.
11 But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Ghost.

Brother Shall Betray Brother

12 Now the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.
13 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

Days of Affliction

14 But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then let them that be in Judaea flee to the mountains:
15 And let him that is on the housetop not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house:
16 And let him that is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment.
17 But woe to them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!
18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.
19 For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created unto this time, neither shall be.
20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.
21 And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ; or, lo, he is there; believe him not:
22 For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect.
23 But take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things.
24 But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light,
25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.

The Son of Man's Coming

26 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.
27 And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

13:25 star

(Gr. astēr) (Matt. 2:2; 1 Cor. 15:41; Rev. 1:16; 2:1) G0792: The term from which we get our words astronomy and astrology. This word can refer to any bright heavenly body, such as a meteor. In Revelation 1:20, stars represent angels assigned to churches. Here Jesus mentions stars among the cosmic effects associated with the end times. The darkness that follows the great suffering will cause these sources of light to disappear (fall). The final use of this word (Rev. 22:16) honors Jesus by calling Him the "bright and morning star," the One at whose coming a new and endless day begins.

28 Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near:
29 So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors.
30 Verily I say unto you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done.
31 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

Watch and Pray

32 But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.
33 Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.
34 For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.
35 Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning:
36 Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping.
37 And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

A Woman Anoints Jesus

14 After two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.
2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.
3 And being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.
4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?
5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.
6 And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.
7 For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.
8 She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.
9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.
10 And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.
11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

The Passover Prepared

12 And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover?
13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.
14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?
15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.
16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

13:33 watch

(Gr. agrypneō) (Luke 21:36; Eph. 6:18; Heb. 13:17) G0069: This rare word, appearing only four times, means "to watch, be watchful, be alert." Believers are instructed to watch for signs of the end of days and the coming of the Son of Man (Mark 13:33; Luke 21:36), being wary not to get caught up in worldly things. Authority figures are watchful of those under them, "as they that must give account" (Heb. 13:17). Believers should also "[pray] always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching [agrypneō] thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints" (Eph. 6:18).

17 And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.
18 And as they sat and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me.
19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?
20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish.
21 The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

The Lord's Supper

22 And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.
23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.
24 And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.
25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.
26 And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

Peter Asserts His Loyalty

27 And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.
28 But after that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee.
29 But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.
30 And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.
31 But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

Prayer in the Garden

32 And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray.
33 And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy;
34 And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.
35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.
36 And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.
37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleep-

14:24 testament

(Gr. diathēkē) (Rom. 11:27; 2 Cor. 3:6; Heb. 8:8; 10:29) G1242: A testament or covenant is an agreement between people or groups, with promises made on both sides. The Bible is essentially the story of two covenants made between God and His created people. The first was given to Abraham (Acts 3:25) and expanded on to Israelites at Mount Sinai; it is characterized by strict laws and "gendereth to bondage" (Gal. 4:24). By breaking that covenant, Israel earned God's wrath (Heb. 8:9). However, Jesus was sent to be "the mediator of the new testament . . . by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament" (Heb. 9:15). Under the New Covenant, which is offered to all people (Rom. 9:6, 8), the focus is on our relationship with God; His Law is inscribed on our hearts and minds (Heb. 10:16). Wine taken during Communion stands for Christ's "blood of the new testament" (Matt. 26:28; cf. Luke 22:20).

14:33 be sore amazed

(Gr. ekthambeō) (Mark 9:15; 16:5) G1568: This rare word only occurs four times in the New Testament, all of them in the Gospel of Mark. It's a passive verb which is can mean "be troubled," "be alarmed," or "be amazed." It is more emphatic than simple thambeō, "astound," and may imply either positive ("amazed," Mark 9:15) or negative results ("be affrighted," Mark 16:5, 6). A slight variation of this verb, ekthambos (G1569), appears as an adjective in Acts 3:11, and is translated "greatly wondering."

ing, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour?
38 Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.
39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.
40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer him.
41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.
42 Rise up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

Jesus' Arrest

43 And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.
44 And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely.
45 And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, Master, master; and kissed him.
46 And they laid their hands on him, and took him.
47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.
48 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take me?
49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but the scriptures must be fulfilled.
50 And they all forsook him, and fled.
51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him:
52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

Condemnation by the High Priest

53 And they led Jesus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.
54 And Peter followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.
55 And the chief priests and all the council sought for witness against Jesus to put him to death; and found none.
56 For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.
57 And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying,
58 We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.
59 But neither so did their witness agree together.
60 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?
61 But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?
62 And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.
63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses?

14:53 elder

(Gr. presbyteros) (Luke 15:25; Acts 14:23) G4245: The Greek word presbyteros is an adjective meaning "older," or "elder," and may be used merely of age (as in Luke 15:25 for the "elder" brother) or substantially of the office of elder. In the New Testament, elders had leadership responsibility in local Jewish synagogues and in the Sanhedrin (as here), as well as in the early Christian congregations (Acts 14:23; 20:17)—perhaps modeled after the synagogues. How closely this presbyteros equated to the church's episkopos, "bishop" (G1985—Titus 1:5, 7), or poimen (G4166), "pastor," is debated, as is the precise import of the 24 "elders" in Revelation 4:4. The title obviously carries great dignity in 2 John 1 and 3 John 1.

ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.
65 And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophesy: and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands.

Peter's Denial of Jesus

66 And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest:
67 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth.
68 But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch; and the cock crew.
69 And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.
70 And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art a Galilaean, and thy speech agreeth thereto.
71 But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak.
72 And the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept.

Jesus' Trial Before Pilate

15 And straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.
2 And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering said unto him, Thou sayest it.
3 And the chief priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing.
4 And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.
5 But Jesus yet answered nothing; so that Pilate marvelled.
6 Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.
7 And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.
8 And the multitude crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.
9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?
10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy.
11 But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.
12 And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews?
13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.
14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.
15 And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.
16 And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Praetorium; and they call together the whole band.
17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head,
18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!
19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him.

15:17 crown

(Gr. stephanos) (John 19:5; James 1:12) G4735: This word is a noun meaning garland, crown, or wreath, generally distinguished from the diadēma, the diadem or royal crown (G1238—as Rev. 19:12). The stephanos is usually identified with the victor's festal crown, which might be worn by a triumphant athlete or general, by someone honored, or even by royalty at a celebration (Rev. 14:14). It was typically woven from any of various kinds of plants, which may explain its use here in Mark 15:17, even though the soldiers meant it as mockery of Jesus' kingship. The New Testament also uses the related verb stephanoo, "to crown" (G4737—Heb. 2:9).

took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

Jesus Is Crucified at Golgotha

21 And they compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross.
22 And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull.
23 And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not.
24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.
25 And it was the third hour, and they crucified him.
26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.
27 And with him they crucify two thieves; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.
28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressors.
29 And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days,
30 Save thyself, and come down from the cross.
31 Likewise also the chief priests mocking said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save.
32 Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him reviled him.

Jesus Dies on the Cross

33 And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.
34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?
35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elias.
36 And one ran and filled a spunge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let alone; let us see whether Elias will come to take him down.
37 And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.
38 And the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.
39 And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.
40 There were also women looking on afar off: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome;
41 (Who also, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered unto him;) and many other women which came up with him unto Jerusalem.
42 And now when the even was come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath,
43 Joseph of Arimathaea, an honourable counsellor, which also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus.
44 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.
45 And when he knew it of the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph.
46 And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.
47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where he was laid.

(Gr. sabachthani) (Matt. 27:46) G4518: This Aramaic verb occurs only twice in the New Testament—here and in the parallel at Matthew 27:46. Sabachthani transliterates into Greek letters the Aramaic equivalent of the Hebrew `azabtani (H5800), "thou hast forsaken me," which is a quote taken from Psalm 22:1.

The Resurrected Christ

16 And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.
2 And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.
3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?
4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.
5 And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted.
6 And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.
7 But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.
8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid.

Jesus' First Appearance

9 Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils.
10 And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.
11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not.
12 After that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.
13 And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them.

Jesus' Commission of the Eleven

14 Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.
15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.
16 He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.
17 And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues;
18 They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

Jesus Ascends to Heaven

19 So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God.
20 And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

16:15 gospel

(Gr. euangelion) (Matt. 4:23; Mark 1:1, 14; Rom. 1:1; 1 Pet. 4:17) G2098: This Greek word was originally used to describe the "good news" of military victory brought from a messenger to his commander. It then came to mean simply a "good message." In the New Testament it means the Good News of salvation: Jesus Christ came to earth to conquer the sin and evil which plague this world by living a sinless life and sacrificially offering Himself on the Cross. In obedience to Christ's command (Mark 16:15), the apostles continued to share this Good News with the rest of the world because it is Christ's life-giving message to a world that is dying in its sins.

16:20 work with ▸ see James 2:22.

16:20 confirm

(Gr. bebaioō) (Rom. 15:8; 2 Cor. 1:21) G0950: This Greek verb literally means "to make firm" or "to establish." In the New Testament, this word and its cognates are always used in relationship to the Christian message. The verb is used to speak about both verifying the gospel message (Rom. 15:8; 1 Cor. 1:6) and establishing or strengthening faith in that message (2 Cor. 1:21). Thus, here in Mark 16:20 the word may indicate that the "signs following" confirmed the validity of the word which the disciples preached, or that the signs caused people to believe or strengthened their faith.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

LUKE

LUKE, A PHYSICIAN, WRITES WITH the compassion and warmth of a family doctor as he carefully documents the perfect humanity of the Son of Man, Jesus Christ. Luke emphasizes Jesus' ancestry, birth, and early life before moving carefully and chronologically through His earthly ministry. Growing belief and growing opposition develop side by side. Those who believe are challenged to count the cost of discipleship. Those who oppose will not be satisfied until the Son of Man hangs lifeless on a cross. But the Resurrection insures that His purpose will be fulfilled: "to seek and to save that which was lost" (19:10).

Kata Loukan,* "According to Luke," is the ancient title that was added to this gospel at a very early date. The Greek name Luke appears only three times in the New Testament (Col. 4:14; 2 Tim. 4:11; Philem. 24).

Luke's Letter to Theophilus

1 Forasmuch as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us,
2 Even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were eyewitnesses, and ministers of the word;
3 It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent Theophilus,
4 That thou mightest know the certainty of those things, wherein thou hast been instructed.

An Angel Foretells John's Birth

5 There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judaea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth.
6 And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.
7 And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.
8 And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course,
9 According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.
10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense.
11 And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense.
12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.
13 But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth.
15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb.
16 And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God.
17 And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.
18 And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.
19 And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.
20 And, behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.
21 And the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.
22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.
23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.
24 And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying,
25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.

An Angel Foretells Jesus' Birth

26 And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, 27 To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.
28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.
29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.
30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God.
31 And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.
32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David:
33 And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.
34 Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?
35 And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.
36 And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and

1:15 strong drink

(Gr. sikera) G4608: This is actually an Aramaic word, transliterated into Greek, and is only used here in the New Testament. The word refers broadly to any alcoholic drink, including wine. However, it is distinguished here from the word for wine, so it is probably meant to refer to drinks that were more quickly intoxicating than wine—a sweet drink made from grain, vegetables, fruit, or honey.

1:28 favour

(Gr. charitoō) (Eph. 1:6) G5487: Here we have the passive form of the word that means "bestow favor or grace on." Thus the angel is calling Mary "graced" or "favored," meaning she has been the recipient (not the source) of grace. Elsewhere this word is defined as "to make graceful, charming, lovely" or "to pursue with grace, compass with favor." The other use of this word in Scripture is in Ephesians 1:6: "to the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted [charitoō] in the beloved."

this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.
37 For with God nothing shall be impossible.
38 And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

Elisabeth's Joy

39 And Mary arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Juda;
40 And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth.
41 And it came to pass, that, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost:
42 And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.
43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?
44 For, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.
45 And blessed is she that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.

Mary's Joyful Song

46 And Mary said, My soul doth magnify the Lord,
47 And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
48 For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
49 For he that is mighty hath done to me great things; and holy is his name.
50 And his mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation.
51 He hath shewed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
52 He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.
53 He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath sent empty away.
54 He hath holpen his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy;
55 As he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever.
56 And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

John the Baptist's Birth

57 Now Elisabeth's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.
58 And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her.
59 And it came to pass, that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.
60 And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called John.
61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.
62 And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called.
63 And he asked for a writing table, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they marvelled all.
64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, and praised God.
65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judaea.
66 And all they that heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child

1:51 proud

(Gr. hyperēphanos) (Rom. 1:30; 2 Tim. 3:2; James 4:6; 1 Pet. 5:5) G5244: A compound form of "above" and "appearing," this word literally means "showing oneself over others." We might translate it as "haughty, proud, arrogant." This characteristic shows up on lists of vices along with descriptions like "violent" and "boasters" (Rom. 1:30). James repeats this theme of God despising pride, telling us that "God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble" (James 4:6).

shall this be! And the hand of the Lord was with him.
67 And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying,
68 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people, 69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David;
70 As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began:
71 That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;
72 To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant;
73 The oath which he sware to our father Abraham,
74 That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear,
75 In holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life.
76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways;
77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the remission of their sins,
78 Through the tender mercy of our God; whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us,
79 To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.
80 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel.

Jesus' Birth in Bethlehem

2 And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.
2 (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)
3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.
4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:)
5 To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.
6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.
7 And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

Tidings of Great Joy

8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.
9 And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

1:69 salvation

(Gr. sōtēria) (Luke 1:71; Acts 4:12; Rom. 1:16; 1 Pet. 1:9) G4991: This word literally means "preservation, deliverance from enemies, rescue from danger, safety." In a spiritual sense, salvation is all of these things. We are preserved from death and rescued from the realm of Satan. This word encompasses both the initiation of salvation (Luke 19:9), all phases of redemption, and the final consummation of our salvation at the return of Christ (Rom. 13:11; Heb. 9:28). Indeed, this is one of the words uttered at the very throne of God: "After this I beheld, and lo, a great multitude, which no man could number . . . stood before the throne, and before the Lamb . . . and cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation [sōtēria] to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and to the Lamb" (Rev. 7:9, 10).

1:80 shewing

(Gr. anadeixis) G0323: This noun only occurs here in the New Testament. It conveys the idea of making an appearance or the act of being revealed publicly or becoming widely known. It was used by secular Greek writers to signify the choosing, installing, and introduction of public officials. In this case it refers to the obscure life of John the Baptist before the inauguration of his prophetic ministry by the Jordan as the forerunner of the Messiah. As such it probably carries the idea of being part of God's revelation to the world.

10 And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.
11 For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.
12 And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.
13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,
14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.
15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.
16 And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.
17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.
18 And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.
19 But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.
20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

Naming and Presentation

21 And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called JESUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.
22 And when the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord;
23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;)
24 And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons.

Simeon Beholds God's Salvation

25 And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Ghost was upon him.
26 And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ.
27 And he came by the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law,
28 Then took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said,
29 Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word:
30 For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,
31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;
32 A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

2:14 peace

(Gr. eirēnē) (Mark 5:34; John 14:27; Rom. 5:1; Eph. 6:15) G1515: The New Testament equivalent of the Old Testament greeting shalom, this word similarly means "a state of tranquility, harmony between individuals, well-being, wholeness." As believers, we know this state can only be achieved through the work of Christ. To be reconciled to God through Christ is to have peace with Him (Rom. 5:1; Eph. 2:14), and that peace gives a sense of calm that is not dependent on circumstances and even flourishes in times of difficulty (John 16:33). In addition, our peace with God overflows into relationships with other people, for peace is a fruit of the Spirit (Gal. 5:22) and is commanded as a way of life (Heb. 12:14; James 3:18).

2:32 Gentile

(Gr. ethnos) (Acts 26:4; Eph. 2:11; Col. 1:27) G1484: This Greek word is common in the New Testament and means "people" or "nation." In the singular it can refer to any nation or people, including the Jewish nation (as Acts 26:4). The plural can mean "nations" in general (Gal. 3:8), but often indicates peoples in particular distinction from Jews (as here in Luke 2:32; cf. 1 Thess. 4:5). The notion of the church as the "true Israel"

33 And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.
34 And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against;
35 (Yea, a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

Anna Gives Thanks

36 And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser: she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity;
37 And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day.
38 And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem.
39 And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth.
40 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

Jesus Converses with Teachers

41 Now his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the passover.
42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of the feast.
43 And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not of it.
44 But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance.
45 And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.
46 And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions.
47 And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.
48 And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing.
49 And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business?
50 And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.
51 And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.
52 And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man.

John Preaches Repentance

3 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judaea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Ituraea and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the tetrarch of Abilene,
2 Annas and Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.
3 And he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins; led to the extension of the meaning Gentiles to include reference to non-Christians (as 1 Pet. 2:12; 4:3). There is a similar Greek adjective ethnikos (G1482), which means "Gentile" or "pagan," and is used in the New Testament for Gentiles, heathens, and pagans (Matt. 6:7; 18:17).

3:3 preach

(Gr. kēryssō) (Matt. 3:1; Acts 10:42; Rom. 10:15) G2784: The Greek verb kēryssō means "to proclaim," often with the underlying idea of acting on behalf of an official (Rom. 10:15). It originally indicated the proclamation or announcement of a herald. The word was also used of prophets and preachers and may therefore mean, "to preach." Kēryssō usually takes an object indicating what is proclaimed/preached, such as: baptism (here in Luke 3:3), Moses (Acts 15:21), circumcision (Gal.

6 And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

John Addresses the Multitude

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?
8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.
9 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.
10 And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then?
11 He answereth and saith unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.
12 Then came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do?
13 And he said unto them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you.
14 And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages.
15 And as the people were in expectation, and all men mused in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ, or not;
16 John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire:
17 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable.
18 And many other things in his exhortation preached he unto the people.
19 But Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias his brother Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done, 20 Added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison.

John's Baptism of Jesus

21 Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened,
22 And the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.

3:14 accuse falsely

(Gr. sykophanteō) (Luke 19:8) G4811: This very rare verb is only used twice in the New Testament, and means, "to accuse falsely, slander" (as here) or, "to take by false accusation, extort" (Luke 19:8). Both instances may carry the idea of oppression, given that the word generally designated a malignant informer, one who accused others for the sake of personal gain. The English word sycophant comes from the same Greek root but has a derived meaning, referring to someone who is a self-seeking flatterer.

The Temptation of Jesus

4 And Jesus being full of the Holy Ghost returned from Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,
2 Being forty days tempted of the devil. And in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered.
3 And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.
4 And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.
5 And the devil, taking him up into an high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.
6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it.
7 If thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine.
8 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.
9 And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence:
10 For it is written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee:
11 And in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.
12 And Jesus answering said unto him, It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.
13 And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season.

Jesus Preaches in Nazareth

14 And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.

4:12 tempt

(Gr. ekpeirazō) (Matt. 4:7; Luke 10:25; 1 Cor. 10:9) G1598: This verb has the idea of putting a person or thing to the test. The positive goal is to establish or prove the true character of something; the negative goal is trying to trap or incriminate the one being tested. Such tests become temptations, as here, when they entice one to evil. However, the promise of God is that all such temptations are resistible and always come with a way of escape (1 Cor. 10:13).

15 And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.
16 And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read.
17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,
18 The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised,
19 To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.
20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.
21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.
22 And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this Joseph's son?
23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in Capernaum, do also here in thy country.
24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, No prophet is accepted in his own country.
25 But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;
26 But unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow.
27 And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian.
28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath,
29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong.
30 But he passing through the midst of them went his way,

A Spirit of an Unclean Devil

31 And came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath days.
32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with power.
33 And in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice,
34 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; the Holy One of God.
35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not.
36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.
37 And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

Jesus' Healing Ministry

38 And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her.
39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered unto them.
40 Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.
41 And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of

4:21 fulfil

(Gr. plēroō) (Matt. 2:17; 5:17; Phil. 4:18; Col. 4:17) G4137: This common verb has many nuances and shades of meaning. It can signify to come to an end (Acts 7:30), to be complete or filled to the fullest degree (Matt. 13:48; Acts 13:52), to be fully supplied (Phil. 4:18), to carry an activity through to the end (Acts 12:25), to summarize completely (Rom. 15:19; Gal. 5:14), to control (Acts 5:3), or as here, to bring to realization or consummation.

God. And he rebuking them suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.
42 And when it was day, he departed and went into a desert place: and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them.
43 And he said unto them, I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent.
44 And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

Fishermen Follow Jesus

5 And it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gennesaret,
2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.
3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.
4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.
5 And Simon answering said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.
6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.
7 And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.
8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.
9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:
10 And so was also James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men.
11 And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed him.

Jesus Heals a Leper

12 And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jesus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.
13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.
14 And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.
15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.
16 And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

Jesus Heals a Man Taken with Palsy

17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judaea, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.
18 And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they

5:10 partner

(Gr. koinōnos) (2 Cor. 8:23; Heb. 10:33; 1 Pet. 5:1; 2 Pet. 1:4) G2844: Derived from the adjective koinos, common, meaning "partaker" or "partner," this noun is used here in the sense of "business partners" in the fishing trade. The scribes and Pharisees denied that they would have been "partakers" with their ancestors in murdering the prophets (Matt. 23:30). Paul used koinōnos once in referring to Titus (2 Cor. 8:23) and once of himself as Philemon's partner (Philem. 17). The first recipients of the Book of Hebrews were companions of those who suffered for Christ (Heb. 10:33). Peter called himself "a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed" (1 Pet. 5:1) and prayed that his readers "might be partakers of the divine nature" (2 Pet. 1:4).

sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.
19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the housetop, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jesus.
20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.
21 And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?
22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?
23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?
24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.
25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God.
26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.

Levi Follows Jesus

27 And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.
28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.
29 And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.
30 But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?
31 And Jesus answering said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick.
32 I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

Fasting Customs Addressed

33 And they said unto him, Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink?
34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them?
35 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.
36 And he spake also a parable unto them; No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.
37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.
38 But new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved.
39 No man also having drunk old wine straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.

Behavior on the Sabbath

6 And it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.
2 And certain of the Pharisees said unto them, Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath days?
3 And Jesus answering them said, Have ye not read so much as this, what David did, when himself was an hungred, and they which were with him;
4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the shewbread, and gave also

5:26 strange

(Gr. paradoxos) G3861: The Greek adjective paradoxos occurs only here in the New Testament. It is a compound form from para (G3844), "contrary to," and doxa (G1391), "opinion," and thus refers to things that are strange, unexpected, remarkable, or wonderful in nature. The people were truly amazed at the incredible sight of the paralytic being completely healed, something that defied understanding. Paradoxos is the source of the English word paradox.

to them that were with him; which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone?
5 And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.
6 And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered.
7 And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him.
8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.
9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?
10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.
11 And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

Twelve Apostles Chosen

12 And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.
13 And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles;
14 Simon, (whom he also named Peter,) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew, 15 Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon called Zelotes, 16 And Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitor.

Words of Blessing and Woe

17 And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judaea and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;
18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.
19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue out of him, and healed them all.
20 And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God.
21 Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.
22 Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.
23 Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.
24 But woe unto you that are rich! for ye have received your consolation.

6:8 thought

(Gr. dialogismos) (Matt. 15:19; Luke 24:38; 1 Cor. 3:20; Phil. 2:14) G1261: This noun is used several times in the New Testament with a wide range of meanings. Here it refers to thought, opinion, design (cf. Luke 2:35), but elsewhere it means evil designs (Matt. 15:19), the decisions of judges (James 2:4), or even doubt (Luke 24:38), dispute, or argument (Luke 9:46; Phil. 2:14). The related verb dialogizomai (G1260) can mean consider, ponder, or reason (Matt. 16:7; Luke 1:29), as well as discuss or argue (Mark 8:16; Luke 20:14). The prefix dia in these compound words means "two," and so these words often suggest debate with others or within oneself.

6:24 receive

(Gr. apechō) (Luke 15:20; 24:13; Phil. 4:18; Philem. 15) G0568: The Greek word apechō has a wide range of meanings depending on its relationship with other words in the sentence. When it occurs in the active voice with a stated object, as here, it means to receive something, or even someone, as payment in full (Philem. 15). When it occurs without an object, it means "to be away from" and is usually accompanied by a prepositional phrase with apo, "from," giving the place from which one is separated (Luke 24:13). The verb form of this word can also mean "to keep away from," or "abstain from" (apechomai, G0567—Acts 15:29; 1 Thess. 5:22).

6:24 consolation ▸ see Acts 9:31.

25 Woe unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. Woe unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep.
26 Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

Teachings on Treatment of Others

27 But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you, 28 Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you.
29 And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloak forbid not to take thy coat also.
30 Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.
31 And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.
32 For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.
33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.
34 And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.
35 But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.
36 Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.

Teachings on Judging Others

37 Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven:
38 Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.
39 And he spake a parable unto them, Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch?
40 The disciple is not above his master: but every one that is perfect shall be as his master.
41 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye?
42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.

Good and Bad Fruit

43 For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

6:28 bless

(Gr. eulogeō) (Luke 1:28; 24:30; Eph. 1:3; James 3:9) G2127: A compound form of eu, "to be well off" (G2095) and logos, "word" (G3056), this word literally means "to speak well of, to bless, to speak a benediction over." This is the word from which we get our word eulogy. Eulogeō can be used in the context of people praising God (Matt. 21:9), speaking well of other people (Matt. 5:44), or God blessing people (Mark 10:16; Eph. 1:3). God is not stingy with His blessings: Paul told the Ephesians, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ" (Eph. 1:3).

6:34 receive ▸ see 3 John 8.
6:35 reward ▸ see Matt. 10:41.

6:35 kind

(Gr. chrēstos) (Matt. 11:30; Rom. 2:4; 1 Cor. 15:33; Eph. 4:32) G5543: This adjective means good, kind, easy. Its base meaning describes something as being appropriate or superior for a particular use: thus, it figuratively defines Jesus' yoke as "easy" (Matt. 11:30). The comparative form chrēstoteros defines old wine as "better" than new wine (Luke 5:39). Chrēstos may also describe the moral quality of things ("good manners," 1 Cor. 15:33), or define the actions of people (Eph. 4:32) or God (as here in Luke 6:35) as being kind.

his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

Building on a Firm Foundation

46 And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?
47 Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like:
48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock.
49 But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great.

A Centurion's Faith

7 Now when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Capernaum.
2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.
3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.
4 And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:
5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.
6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof:
7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.
8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.
9 When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.
10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

Jesus Raises a Dead Man

11 And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nain; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.
12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.
13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.
14 And he came and touched the bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise.
15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother.
16 And there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, That a great prophet is risen up among us; and, That God hath visited his people.
17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judaea, and throughout all the region round about.

John's Disciples

18 And the disciples of John shewed him of all these things.
19 And John calling unto him two of his disciples sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

7:2 servant ▸ see Rev. 11:18.

7:4 beseech

(Gr. parakaleō) (Mark 5:10; Luke 8:41; Eph. 4:1; 6:22) G3870: The literal meaning of parakaleō is to call (G2564—kaleō) alongside (G3844—para). This verb encompasses many shades of meaning: as in this verse—to intensely request, plead, or implore, or to ask earnestly (Acts 28:20; 2 Cor. 8:6). It can also mean to invite (Luke 8:41) or to comfort (Eph. 6:22). It is worth noting that Jesus used a form of this word to refer to the Holy Spirit who indwells believers.

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?
21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight.
22 Then Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached.
23 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.
24 And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?
25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.
26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.
27 This is he, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.
28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.
29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John.
30 But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized of him.
31 And the Lord said, Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?
32 They are like unto children sitting in the marketplace, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.
33 For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a devil.
34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners!
35 But wisdom is justified of all her children.

Jesus' Feet Washed with Tears

36 And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat.
37 And, behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment,
38 And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.
39 Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner.
40 And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.
41 There was a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty.
42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?
43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.
44 And he turned to the woman, and said

7:25 delicately

(Gr. tryphē) (2 Pet. 2:13) G5172: This Greek word only appears twice in the New Testament and means luxury and splendor (as here) or reveling and carousing (2 Pet 2:13). In both cases, the underlying idea is that of self-indulgence. Many scholars find here in Luke also the idea of softness or "delicate" living that comes as a result of affluence and prosperity. The related Greek verb trephō means "to live in luxury" or "self-indulgence, revel, carouse" (G5142—only in James 5:5).

unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.
45 Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet.
46 My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.
47 Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.
48 And he said unto her, Thy sins are forgiven.
49 And they that sat at meat with him began to say within themselves, Who is this that forgiveth sins also?
50 And he said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace.

Throughout Every City

8 And it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him,
2 And certain women, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven devils,
3 And Joanna the wife of Chuza Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance.
4 And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

The Parable of the Sower

5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.
6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.
7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.
8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold.
And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.
9 And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?
10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.
11 Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.
12 Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.
13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

8:5 devour

(Gr. katesthiō) (Matt. 13:4; Luke 15:30; 2 Cor. 11:20; Rev. 11:5) G2719: The meaning is to eat up or completely consume, as here in the description of birds devouring seed. It is used in Luke 15:30 of the son who wasted his inheritance. It also can convey the idea of taking advantage of or exploiting someone (2 Cor. 11:20), such as robbing a widow of all her means (Mark 12:40). It can also signify utter destruction (Rev. 11:5). Metaphorically, it is used to speak of unhealthy interpersonal relations (Gal. 5:15).

8:8 other ▸ see Acts 4:12.

8:10 mystery

(Gr. mystērion) (1 Cor. 14:2; Eph. 5:32; Col. 1:26; 2 Thess. 2:7) G3466: Unlike its English derivative, mystery, which refers to something people try to reason out, mystērion in the New Testament refers to God's secret plans and thoughts that are completely hidden from human understanding. As a result, the "mysteries of God" must be revealed to humanity. Here (and in the synoptic parallels), it refers to the coming of the kingdom of God into the world, recognized only by believers. The word is most often found in Paul's letters, where it refers to the whole saving activity of God revealed by the proclamation of Christ (Col. 1:26, 27). Its incomprehensibility to human understanding is seen in the ecstatic utterances of mysteries (1 Cor. 14:2). The word is also applied to the secret or unperceived evil activity of the Antichrist (the "mystery of iniquity," 2 Thess. 2:7).

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.
15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

The Candle's Light

16 No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.
17 For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad.
18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have.

The Family of Jesus

19 Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press.
20 And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.
21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.

Jesus Calms the Waters

22 Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.
23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.
24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.
25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they being afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

A Man Possessed with Devils

26 And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee.
27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.
28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment me not.
29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)
30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him.
31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep.
32 And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them.
33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.
34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.
35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.
36 They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed.
37 Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

38 Now the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying,
39 Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done unto him.

Jairus's Daughter

40 And it came to pass, that, when Jesus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.
41 And, behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:
42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the people thronged him.
43 And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,
44 Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanched.
45 And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?
46 And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me.
47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.
48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace.
49 While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master.
50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole.
51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.
52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth.
53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.
54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, arise.
55 And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat.
56 And her parents were astonished: but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

The Twelve Sent to Preach and Heal

9 Then he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.
2 And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.
3 And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.
4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.
5 And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.
6 And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.
7 Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that

8:44 border

(Gr. kraspedon) (Matt. 9:20; 14:36; 23:5) G2899: This Greek word meaning "hem" or "border" is used five times in the New Testament. Four times (here and the parallel Matt. 9:20, plus Matt. 14:36 and the parallel Mark 6:56) it refers to the hem/border of Jesus' garment touched by persons seeking healing. In Matthew 23:5 it is used of the tassels or fringe on the hems of the Pharisees' garments, worn as a sign of their religious zeal for the law.

was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead;
8 And of some, that Elias had appeared; and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.
9 And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him.

Feeding the Five Thousand

10 And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bethsaida.
11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.
12 And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.
13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.
14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.
15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.
16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.
17 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.
18 And it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?
19 They answering said, John the Baptist; but some say, Elias; and others say, that one of the old prophets is risen again.
20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answering said, The Christ of God.
21 And he straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that thing;
22 Saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

Follow Me

23 And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.
24 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.
25 For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?
26 For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.
27 But I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

Jesus' Transfiguration

28 And it came to pass about an eight days after these sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.
29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.
30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias:
31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.
32 But Peter and they that were with him were heavy with sleep: and when they were

9:31 decease

(Gr. exodos) (Heb. 11:22; 2 Pet. 1:15) G1841: The Greek word exodos means "going out." It is built on two underlying words—ek (out—G1841) and hodos (G3598—way, road). The word is most famously used to describe the Exodus from Egypt (Heb. 11:22). However, exodos also appears as a euphemism for death, since dying is a form of departure from this life (here in Luke 9:31 as well as in 2 Pet. 1:15).

awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.
33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said.
34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.
35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.
36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

Jesus Heals a Possessed Boy

37 And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.
38 And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son: for he is mine only child.
39 And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him hardly departeth from him.
40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not.
41 And Jesus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither.
42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

Jesus Again Predicts His Death

43 And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples, 44 Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.
45 But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

The Least to Be the Greatest

46 Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.
47 And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him,
48 And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.
49 And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbad him, because he followeth not with us.
50 And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against us is for us.

Samaritans' Rejection of Jesus

51 And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, 52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him.
53 And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.
54 And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did?
55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.
56 For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

9:43 mighty power

(Gr. megaleiotēs) (Acts 19:27; 2 Pet. 1:16) G3168: As here, the word megaleiotēs means "majesty, magnificence" and is used especially in connection with a deity. Here it refers specifically to the majesty of God; in Acts 19:27, it refers to that of the Ephesian goddess Artemis. In 2 Peter 1:16, megaleiotēs describes the majesty of the transfigured Christ and comes close to being a reverent way of referring to Him personally, as when someone refers to a judge as "your honor."

9:56 destroy

The High Cost of Discipleship

57 And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.
58 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.
59 And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.
60 Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.
61 And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house.
62 And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

Seventy Labourers Sent Forth

10 After these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.
2 Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.
3 Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.
4 Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes:
and salute no man by the way.
5 And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.
6 And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.
7 And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house.
8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you:
9 And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.
10 But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say, 11 Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you:
notwithstanding be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.
12 But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city.
13 Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.
14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment, than for you.
15 And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted to heaven, shalt be thrust down to hell.
16 He that heareth you heareth me; and he that despiseth you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me.

The Labourers' Joyful Return

17 And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name.
18 And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven.
19 Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.
20 Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

Jesus Rejoices in the Spirit

21 In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and describes the destruction of both objects (wineskins, Luke 5:37) and persons (here in Luke 9:56). In the latter case, it can mean either the destruction of one's physical life (thus death; Matt. 26:52) or of one's spiritual life (Matt. 10:28). The word also has the less severe meaning, "to lose," either in the sense of "to misplace" (Luke 15:4, 8) or the permanent loss of something one already owns (2 John 8) or hopes to gain (Mark 10:41). This meaning can have a spiritual nuance, as in "the lost" (Luke 19:10). The related verb sunapollymi (G4881—"to perish with") appears in Hebrews 11:31, and the name of the underworld angel is likewise very similar—Apollyon, the Destroyer (G0523—Rev. 9:11).

said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight.
22 All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.
23 And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see:
24 For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

25 And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?
26 He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou?
27 And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself.
28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live.
29 But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour?
30 And Jesus answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.
31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.
32 And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.
33 But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,
34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.
35 And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.
36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?
37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

Martha and Mary

38 Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house.
39 And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word.
40 But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.
41 And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things:
42 But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

The Model Prayer

11 And it came to pass, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.
2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say,

10:21 thank

(Gr. exomologeō) (Matt. 11:25; Rom. 14:11; Phil. 2:11; James 5:16) G1843: The Greek word exomologeō originally meant "to promise, consent" (as Luke 22:6). However, like the simple verb homologeō, it can also mean "to confess, admit, acknowledge" (as Matt. 3:6; Mark 1:5; James 5:16, Phil. 2:11), but with some added emphasis on public or open confession. Here in Luke 10:21, growing out of the idea of confession, it refers to praise, especially praise of God, as also in the rest of the New Testament (Matt. 11:25; Rom. 14:11; 15:9).

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.
3 Give us day by day our daily bread.
4 And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.
5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;
6 For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?
7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.
8 I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.
9 And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.
10 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.
11 If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?
12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion?
13 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

Jesus Accused of Evil

14 And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered.
15 But some of them said, He casteth out devils through Beelzebub the chief of the devils.
16 And others, tempting him, sought of him a sign from heaven.

A House Divided Cannot Stand

17 But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth.
18 If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub.
19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.
20 But if I with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.
21 When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace:
22 But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.
23 He that is not with me is against me: and he that gathereth not with me scattereth.
24 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.
25 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.
26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first.
27 And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.
28 But he said, Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

Jonas and the Son of Man

29 And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonas the prophet.
30 For as Jonas was a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation.
31 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation,

11:15 devil ▸ see 1 Cor. 10:20.
11:15 Beelzebub ▸ see Matt. 10:25.
11:26 dwell ▸ see James 4:5.
11:29 sign ▸ see John 6:26.

and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here.
32 The men of Nineve shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here.

The Light of the Body

33 No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.
34 The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.
35 Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness.
36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

Jesus Rebukes the Pharisees

37 And as he spake, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat.
38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner.
39 And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.
40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also?
41 But rather give alms of such things as ye have; and, behold, all things are clean unto you.
42 But woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.
43 Woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.
44 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

Jesus Rebukes Lawyers

45 Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also.
46 And he said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! for ye lade men with burdens griev-

11:34 single

(Gr. haplous) (Matt. 6:22) G0573: Used only here and in the parallel at Matthew 6:22, the Greek word haplous means "simple, single," also "pure" or "sincere." When modifying the word eye, as here, it apparently means clear, sound, healthy, resulting from the idea of openness implicit in the root meaning. Some think it indicates a singleness of purpose that keeps one from having double-mindedness and a divided heart. The related word haplotēs (G0572) can mean either simplicity or sincerity (as 2 Cor. 11:3; Eph. 6:5) or generosity and liberality (as 2 Cor. 8:2; 9:11—apparently from the idea of openhandedness.

11:35 darkness

(Gr. skotos) (Matt. 4:16; Luke 23:44; Acts 26:18; Eph. 5:8) G4655: This comes from the root word ska (G4639) meaning "to cover." Here, the word means "shadiness, obscurity." It can refer to physical darkness, like that which descended on the earth when Jesus died, or be used metaphorically as an image for spiritual darkness—an inability to understand truth or a refusal to live according to its light. Darkness is often used as a metaphor for evil and depravity, and so believers are urged not to live as children of darkness, but of the light (Eph. 5:8). This is only possible when the light of Christ shines in our hearts to illuminate the truth and dispel the darkness of Satan (Acts 26:18; 2 Cor. 4:6).

11:45 lawyer

(Gr. nomikos) (Matt. 22:35; Luke 14:3; Titus 3:13) G3544: Although this Greek adjective means "pertaining to the law," it is used this way only in Titus 3:9. Elsewhere it refers to a specific person who is learned in the law—in other words, a lawyer. In this sense it identifies Zenas (Titus 3:13) who might have been an expert in Jewish or Roman law, but mostly refers to the Jewish lawyers (Matt. 22:35) mentioned together with the Pharisees (Luke 7:30; 14:3). These were scholars devoted to the mastery of Mosaic and rabbinic law, especially its ethical application. The New Testament associates them with the scribes and Pharisees.

ous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.
47 Woe unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.
48 Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.
49 Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute:
50 That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation;
51 From the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zacharias, which perished between the altar and the temple: verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation.
52 Woe unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.
53 And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things:
54 Laying wait for him, and seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

Beware of Hypocrisy

12 In the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.
2 For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.
3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.

Fear the Power of God

4 And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.
5 But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him.
6 Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God?
7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows.
8 Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God:
9 But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God.
10 And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Ghost it shall not be forgiven.
11 And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:
12 For the Holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.

Beware of Covetousness

13 And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.
14 And he said unto him, Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you?
15 And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.
16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully:

12:1 beware ▸ see Luke 20:46.
12:1 hypocrisy ▸ see Gal. 2:13.

12:3 closet

(Gr. tameion) (Matt. 6:6; 24:26; Luke 12:24) G5009: The Greek word tameion originally meant a storeroom (as Luke 12:24) but could also refer to an inner or secret room (as here; cf. Matt. 24:26). As a room into which someone typically goes to pray in private (Matt. 6:6), it reflects the idea of an inside room (but not a modern "closet") that could be closed off. The tameion implies a contrast with the public, open place.

12:5 fear ▸ see Matt. 10:26.
12:5 hell ▸ see James 3:6.
12:10 blaspheme ▸ see Rev. 13:6.
12:11 bring ▸ see Heb. 9:28.
12:15 covetousness ▸ see Col. 3:5.

17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?
18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.
19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.
20 But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?
21 So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.

Do Not Worry or Be Fearful

22 And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.
23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.
24 Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and God feedeth them: how much more are ye better than the fowls?
25 And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit?
26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?
27 Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.
28 If then God so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?
29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind.
30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.
31 But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you.
32 Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.
33 Sell that ye have, and give alms; provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.
34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

Be Watchful

35 Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning;
36 And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.
37 Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.
38 And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.
39 And this know, that if the goodman of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through.
40 Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.
41 Then Peter said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all?
42 And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord

12:19 take ease ▸ see Matt. 11:28.
12:24 storehouse ▸ see Luke 12:3.
12:28 little faith ▸ see Matt. 8:26.

12:32 is good pleasure

(Gr. eudokeō) (Matt. 3:17; 1 Cor. 1:21; 2 Cor. 12:10; Gal 1:15) G2106: Verb derived from eu (G2095), meaning "good, well," and dokeō (G1380), meaning "to consider, think." Eudokeō means something like "to be well pleased." The basic meaning is used in two ways: (1) to think or consider it good to do something; or (2) to take pleasure or delight in something or someone. The first usage is common in the papyri in legal documents where it stresses the willingness of one's intentions concerning the good. Here in Luke 12:32 it shows the Father's willing resolve to grant the kingdom. The second usage is found in Matthew 3:17 to express the Father's delight and pleasure in His Son's perfect life of obedience at His baptism.

12:37 sit down ▸ see Luke 13:29.
12:42 steward ▸ see 1 Pet. 4:10.

shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season?
43 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.
44 Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath.
45 But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken;
46 The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.
47 And that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.
48 But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.
49 I am come to send fire on the earth; and what will I, if it be already kindled?
50 But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished!
51 Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division:
52 For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.
53 The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother in law against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

Discerning the Times

54 And he said also to the people, When ye see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shower; and so it is.
55 And when ye see the south wind blow, ye say, There will be heat; and it cometh to pass.
56 Ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky and of the earth; but how is it that ye do not discern this time?
57 Yea, and why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right?
58 When thou goest with thine adversary to the magistrate, as thou art in the way, give diligence that thou mayest be delivered from him; lest he hale thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into prison.
59 I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast paid the very last mite.

Repent or Perish

13 There were present at that season some that told him of the Galilaeans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.
2 And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galilaeans were sinners above all the Galilaeans, because they suffered such things?
3 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.
4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem?
5 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.
6 He spake also this parable; A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he

12:42 portion of meat

(Gr. sitometrion) G4620: This noun is compounded from sitos (G4621) meaning "wheat or grain," and metron (G3358) meaning "measure," thus, it literally means a measured allowance of grain or food. It appears only here in the New Testament referring to the steward's assigned responsibility of apportioning the appropriate food allotments to the rest of the servants during the master's absence.

12:59 mite ▸ see Mark 12:42.

13:4 sinner

(Gr. opheiletēs) (Matt. 18:24; Rom. 1:14; 15:27; Gal. 5:3) G3781: This Greek word originally meant a "debtor" (Matt. 18:24), one who was obligated in some way, even in a good sense (as Rom. 1:14; 15:27). Out of this meaning later developed the nuance of one liable (for wrongdoing), as in Matthew 6:12, and thus a sinner, as here in Luke 13:4. The related words, opheilēma (G3783) and opheilō (G3784), can also be used to describe ordinary debt, ethical obligations, or even sinful guilt and liability.

13:6 vineyard ▸ see Luke 20:9.

came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.
7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?
8 And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:
9 And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

A Woman with Infirmity Healed

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.
11 And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself.
12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.
13 And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.
14 And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath day.
15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?
16 And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?
17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

The Kingdom of God

18 Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it?
19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.
20 And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?
21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

The Strait Gate

22 And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem.
23 Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, 24 Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.
25 When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence ye are:
26 Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.
27 But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity.
28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out.
29 And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God.
30 And, behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.

Jerusalem's Desolate House

31 The same day there came certain of the 13:29 sit down

(Gr. anaklinō) (Matt. 14:19; Luke 2:7; 12:37) G0347: Since in first-century culture formal meals were eaten while reclining on couches, the word usually has that context in the New Testament. It came to mean, simply, "to recline" (for a meal), as in Luke 12:37. The word also describes the way the people sat down when Jesus fed the five thousand (Matt. 14:19). Here in Luke 13:29 (and in the parallel Matt. 8:11), the reference is to the messianic banquet. The similar compound verb kataklinō (G2625) has essentially the same range of meanings.

Pharisees, saying unto him, Get thee out, and depart hence: for Herod will kill thee.
32 And he said unto them, Go ye, and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to day and to morrow, and the third day I shall be perfected.
33 Nevertheless I must walk to day, and to morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Jerusalem.
34 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not!
35 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: and verily I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until the time come when ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

Teachings on Humility

14 And it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath day, that they watched him.
2 And, behold, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy.
3 And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day?
4 And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go;
5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath day?
6 And they could not answer him again to these things.
7 And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them,
8 When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him;
9 And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.
10 But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.
11 For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.
12 Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee.
13 But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:
14 And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just.

A Great Supper

15 And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.
16 Then said he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many:
17 And sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready.
18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.
19 And another said, I have bought five yoke

14:11 humble

(Gr. tapeinoō) (Matt. 18:4; 2 Cor. 12:21; Phil. 2:8; James 4:10; 1 Pet. 5:6) G5013: In Luke 3:5, tapeinoō refers to leveling a mountain. Sometimes it has the negative connotation: to humiliate or humble people by assigning them to a lower place or exposing them to shame (as 2 Cor. 12:21). But it often indicates the positive virtue of humbling oneself like a child in contrast to manifesting pride (Matt. 18:4; here in Luke 14:11; James 4:10; 1 Pet 5:6). Jesus sets the example for us all in this, since, "being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross" (Phil. 2:8).

of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.
20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.
21 So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.
22 And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.
23 And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.
24 For I say unto you, That none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

The Cost of Discipleship

25 And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said unto them,
26 If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.
27 And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.
28 For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it?
29 Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him,
30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish.
31 Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?
32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace.
33 So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.
34 Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned?
35 It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill; but men cast it out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

A Lost Sheep, a Lost Coin, and a Lost Son

15 Then drew near unto him all the publicans and sinners for to hear him.
2 And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.
3 And he spake this parable unto them, saying,
4 What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?
5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.
6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost.
7 I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.

14:34 salt

(Gr. halas) (Matt. 5:13; Mark 9:50; Col. 4:6) G0217: Here (and in the parallels Matt. 5:13; Mark 9:50) Jesus may have been thinking about one or more of the properties of salt. Interpreters debate whether it is the seasoning, preserving, or fertilizing of salt that is paralleled by the spiritual qualities of disciples. In Colossians 4:6, a similar quality is figuratively applied to a Christian's speech.

15:2 scribe

(Gr. grammateus) (Matt. 2:4; 23:13; Mark 12:38; Luke 20:1; John 8:3) G1122: In Acts 19:35, the word is used to refer to a secular official, such as the town clerk at Ephesus. Every other usage signifies a scholar or expert in religious matters (always male) with advanced training in both interpreting and teaching the Holy Scriptures. In Christ's famous denunciation in Matthew 23, it is the Jewish scribes and the Pharisees who are singled out for rebuke. Six times He says to them, "Woe unto you"—proving that mere knowledge of God's Word is not enough.

8 Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it?
9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost.
10 Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.
11 And he said, A certain man had two sons:
12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.
13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.
14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.
15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.
16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.
17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!
18 I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee,
19 And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.
20 And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.
21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.
22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:
23 And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry:
24 For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.
25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick and dancing.
26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.
27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.
28 And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and intreated him.
29 And he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:
30 But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.
31 And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine.
32 It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

An Unjust Steward

16 And he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.
2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.

15:9 rejoice

(Gr. synchairō) (Luke 1:58; 15:6; 1 Cor. 12:26; 13:6; Phil. 2:17) G4796: This compound verb is made up of the Greek words chairō (G5463—to rejoice) and syn (G4862—with), thus the idea is to celebrate with or to take part in the joy of another. In his letter to the Philippian church, which speaks so much about the meaning of koinōnia (i.e., the fellowship, the common life we share in Christ), the apostle Paul speaks of the rejoicing he shares with these beloved brothers and sisters in Christ (Phil. 2:17, 18).

3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.
4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.
5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?
6 And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.
7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.
8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.
9 And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.
10 He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.
11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?
12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?
13 No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

God Knows the Heart

14 And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.
15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.
16 The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.
17 And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail.
18 Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery.

The Rich Man and the Beggar

19 There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:
20 And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores,
21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.
22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;
23 And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in 16:4 put out

(Gr. methistēmi) (Acts 13:22; 19:26; 1 Cor. 13:2; Col. 1:13) G3179: This word's literal definition of "to set aside" comes from its root words—meta (G3326) meaning "after" and histēmi (G2476) meaning "to cause or make to stand." In usage it means "to transpose, transfer from one place to another, to change the situation of." Here the word implies a negative change, but in Colossians 1:13 this word is used to indicate a positive change: "Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated [methistēmi] us into the kingdom of his dear Son."

16:9 mammon

(Gr. mamōnas) (Matt. 6:24; Luke 16:11) G3126: This is the Greek translation of an Aramaic noun meaning riches, wealth, property. Here and in Luke 16:11 it is used somewhat disparagingly of material possessions in contrast to true spiritual riches. In Luke 16:13 and the parallel in Matthew 6:24 it is personified as a rival god of affluence.

torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.
24 And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.
25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.
26 And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.
27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house:
28 For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.
29 Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.
30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.
31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

Offences Will Come

17 Then said he unto the disciples, It is impossible but that offences will come: but woe unto him, through whom they come!
2 It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.
3 Take heed to yourselves: If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him.
4 And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.
5 And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith.
6 And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.
7 But which of you, having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?
8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink?
9 Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not.
10 So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do.

Jesus Heals Ten Lepers

11 And it came to pass, as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.
12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off:
13 And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.
14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go shew yourselves unto the priests.

(parallel Luke 10:15) and Acts 2:27–31, it translates the Hebrew she'ol (H7585) likewise a broad word for the place or state of the dead. It is used in loose association with death in Revelation 1:18; 6:8; 20:13, 14. Here in Luke 16:23, it is specifically the setting of the wicked dead in torment and thus essentially synonymous with Gehenna (G1067—James 3:6).

17:2 offend

(Gr. skandalizō) (Matt. 5:29; 13:21; John 6:61; 1 Cor. 8:13) G4624: The word is the verb form of a Greek noun that means "stumbling block" or "snare." The term refers to the trigger which springs a trap. In the New Testament it means anything that hinders someone from doing what is right or causes one to sin or fall away from the faith. Jesus emphatically warns that stumbling blocks are sure to come our way. Nonetheless, He condemned those who put stumbling blocks in the way of believers. He says that death by drowning would be preferable to offending "one of these little ones" in the faith.

And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed.
15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God,
16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan.
17 And Jesus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?
18 There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.
19 And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.

Teachings on God's Kingdom

20 And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation:
21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you.
22 And he said unto the disciples, The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it.
23 And they shall say to you, See here; or, see there: go not after them, nor follow them.
24 For as the lightning, that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall also the Son of man be in his day.
25 But first must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation.
26 And as it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.
27 They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.
28 Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded;
29 But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.
30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.
31 In that day, he which shall be upon the housetop, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.
32 Remember Lot's wife.
33 Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it.
34 I tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.
35 Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.
36 Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.
37 And they answered and said unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Wheresoever the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered together.

God Avenges His Own

18 And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint;
2 Saying, There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man:
3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary.
4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;
5 Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.
6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.
7 And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?
8 I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

17:16 give thanks

(Gr. eucharisteō) (Matt. 26:27; Mark 14:23; Rom. 1:8; 14:6; 16:4) G2168: The word may emphasize either the act of communicating thanks or the attitude of being thankful. Its use here illustrates the difficulty of determining which nuance is more central in a particular occurrence. In the New Testament it always describes the giving of thanks to God, except in Romans 16:4 where Paul expresses thanks to Priscilla and Aquila. Eucharisteō is also used for offering the benediction or "saying grace" before a meal (Mark 14:23; Rom. 14:6), a use it shares with eulogeō (G2127—Mark 8:6, 7 where both words appear).

18:6 unjust ▸ see John 7:12.

The Pharisee and the Publican

9 And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others:
10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.
11 The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.
12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.
13 And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.
14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

Let the Children Come

15 And they brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.
16 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.
17 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein.

A Ruler's Love of Money

18 And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?
19 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God.
20 Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother.
21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.
22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.
23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.
24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!
25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.
26 And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?
27 And he said, The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.
28 Then Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.
29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake,
30 Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.

Jesus' Coming Death

31 Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.
32 For he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on:
33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again.
34 And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

18:13 be merciful

(Gr. hilaskomai) (Heb. 2:17) G2433: Here in Luke the meaning of hilaskomai is more closely related to the root adjective hileos (G2436) meaning, "gracious, merciful." To "propitiate" means "to satisfy the demands of" or "appease" someone, in this case, an offended deity. Sacrifice is the method God chose to make satisfaction for sins. Hebrews 2:17 says that Jesus propitiated, or made satisfaction for, the sins of His people; His sacrificial death paid the penalty of sin, satisfying the righteous wrath of God.

Jesus Heals a Blind Man

35 And it came to pass, that as he was come nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way side begging:
36 And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.
37 And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by.
38 And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me.
39 And they which went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried so much the more, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.
40 And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him, 41 Saying, What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.
42 And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: thy faith hath saved thee.
43 And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God: and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

Jesus' Encounter with Zacchaeus

19 And Jesus entered and passed through Jericho.
2 And, behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.
3 And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.
4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycomore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.
5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zacchaeus, make haste, and come down; for to day I must abide at thy house.
6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.
7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.
8 And Zacchaeus stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold.
9 And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as he also is a son of Abraham.
10 For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

A Nobleman's Ten Pounds

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.
12 He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.
13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come.
14 But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.
15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.
16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.
17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.
18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.

19:3 stature

(Gr. hēlikia) (Luke 2:52; John 9:21; Eph. 4:13) G2244: This noun means either physical/bodily stature (as here, referring to Zacchaeus's height) or to life span, including the age of (legal) maturity (John 9:21, 23). Consequently there are different opinions among interpreters whether the word means age or physical stature in Luke 2:52 and Ephesians 4:13 (in both, stature seems more likely, but mature age is possible). The problem is more difficult in Matthew 6:27 (parallel Luke 12:25). The addition of one cubit (pechus) seems to favor the meaning "height," but a growth of 18 inches would hardly be trivial as implied by the saying. Most scholars now believe "cubit" is used metaphorically for a measure of time; thus, "add one hour to his life span."

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.
20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin:
21 For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.
22 And he saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow:
23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?
24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.
25 (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)
26 For I say unto you, That unto every one which hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.
27 But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

The Entry into Jerusalem

28 And when he had thus spoken, he went before, ascending up to Jerusalem.
29 And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, 30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither.
31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him.
32 And they that were sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.
33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt?
34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him.
35 And they brought him to Jesus: and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon.
36 And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.
37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen;
38 Saying, Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.
39 And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.
40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out.
41 And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and wept over it,
42 Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.
43 For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, 44 And shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall

19:23 bank

(Gr. trapeza) (John 2:15; Acts 16:34; 1 Cor. 10:21; Heb. 9:2) G5132: The Greek word trapeza normally refers to a table, especially for a meal (Luke 16:21). By extension it can also be used to speak of the meal itself (as Acts 16:34) or even a sacred meal (cf. 1 Cor. 10:21). In Hebrews 9:2 it is the tabernacle table for the showbread. Here in Luke 19:23 Jesus uses it in His parable and refers to a bank where money could be put to gain interest.

19:41 weep

(Gr. klaiō) (Matt. 2:18; Luke 6:21; John 11:33; Rom. 12:15) G2799: The Greek word klaiō is a common verb in the New Testament, meaning "to weep, cry, mourn." Both klaiō and the synonym alalazō (G0214—Mark 5:38) emphasize the noise which accompanies the weeping, whereas dakruō (G1145) stresses the shedding of tears, as when "Jesus wept" (John 11:35). When klaiō occurs with an object, that object gives the reason for the weeping: "Rachel weeping for her children" (Matt. 2:18).

not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.
45 And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought;
46 Saying unto them, It is written, My house is the house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of thieves.
47 And he taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him, 48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people were very attentive to hear him.

Jesus' Authority Questioned

20 And it came to pass, that on one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders,
2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?
3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer me:
4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men?
5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not?
6 But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: for they be persuaded that John was a prophet.
7 And they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.
8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

The Lord of the Vineyard

9 Then began he to speak to the people this parable; A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.
10 And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.
11 And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.
12 And again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.
13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.
14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.
15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?
16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.
17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?
18 Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.
19 And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

Paying Tribute to Caesar

20 And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.
21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly,

20:9 vineyard

(Gr. ampelōn) (Matt. 20:1; Mark 12:1; Luke 13:6; 1 Cor. 9:7) G0290: This is a cultivated area (often enclosed) for growing grapes (see Judg. 9:26, 27). In the Bible, the image of a vineyard is often figurative, and the wine that comes from a vineyard is symbolic of blessing and joy. Israel is likened to a vineyard planted by God (Ps. 80:8–13; Is. 5:5–7; 27:2, 3) from which God expected to reap a harvest. Jesus seized on this grapevine imagery to declare that apart from Him, we can never be fruitful (John 15:4).

20:9 into a far country ▸ see Mark 12:1.

neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God truly:
22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Caesar, or no?
23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me?
24 Shew me a penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Caesar's.
25 And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Caesar the things which be Caesar's, and unto God the things which be God's.
26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

Children of the Resurrection

27 Then came to him certain of the Sadducees, which deny that there is any resurrection; and they asked him,
28 Saying, Master, Moses wrote unto us, If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.
29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children.
30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.
31 And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died.
32 Last of all the woman died also.
33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.
34 And Jesus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:
35 But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:
36 Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection.
37 Now that the dead are raised, even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.
38 For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto him.
39 Then certain of the scribes answering said, Master, thou hast well said.
40 And after that they durst not ask him any question at all.

David's Son and Lord

41 And he said unto them, How say they that Christ is David's son?
42 And David himself saith in the book of Psalms, The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 43 Till I make thine enemies thy footstool.
44 David therefore calleth him Lord, how is he then his son?
45 Then in the audience of all the people he said unto his disciples,
46 Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts;
47 Which devour widows' houses, and for a shew make long prayers: the same shall receive greater damnation.

A Widow's Sacrificial Offering

21 And he looked up, and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury.

20:27 Sadducee

(Gr. saddoukaios) (Matt. 3:7; 22:23; Acts 4:1; 5:17; 23:6) G4523: A Sadducee was a member of the small Jewish religious/political party during the time of Christ that recognized only the Torah (i.e., the first five books of the Old Testament) and disavowed belief in the resurrection, the immortality of the soul, and angels. John the Baptist called them (along with the party of the Pharisees) a "generation of vipers" (Luke 3:7–9). During the earliest days of the church, the Jewish high priest was a member of this sect (Acts 5:17).

20:46 beware

(Gr. prosechō) (Matt. 7:15; Luke 12:1; Acts 8:10; 1 Tim. 4:13) G4337: This is a verb of warning that means to be on the alert (1 Tim. 4:13), on one's guard (Matt. 6:1), or to consider carefully (Acts 8:6). Inherent in this word are the ideas of vigilant focus (Acts 8:10), paying close attention (1 Tim. 1:4), and remaining devoted (Heb. 7:13). Believers are called to pay close attention to God's Word (2 Pet. 1:19), which they are not to do when it comes to human ideas (1 Tim. 1:14).

2 And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites.
3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all:
4 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.

Not One Stone Left on Another

5 And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said,
6 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.
7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?

Deceivers, Wars, and Disasters

8 And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them.
9 But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not by and by.
10 Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:
11 And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven.

Persecution Will Come

12 But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake.
13 And it shall turn to you for a testimony.
14 Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer:
15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist.
16 And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death.
17 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake.
18 But there shall not an hair of your head perish.
19 In your patience possess ye your souls.

Take Heed and Watch

20 And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.
21 Then let them which are in Judaea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.
22 For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.
23 But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

21:12 persecute

(Gr. diōkō) (Matt. 5:10; John 5:16; Acts 9:4; 1 Cor. 4:12; Rev. 12:13) G1377: The verb means to cause to flee, to drive away, to pursue in a hostile manner, to harass. Sometimes the word has the nuance of striving after a goal (Rom. 14:19; 1 Thess. 5:15; 1 Tim. 6:11), but often in the New Testament, this zealous pursuit of others is for the purposes of religious persecution (Matt. 23:34; Phil. 3:6; Rev. 12:13). The natural response to strangers is to avoid or drive them away; the supernatural (gospel) response is to pursue friendship with them (Rom. 12:13).

21:19 soul

(Gr. psychē) (Matt. 2:20; Luke 2:35; James 1:21) G5590: The most basic meaning of psychē relates to the idea of "life" (Matt. 2:20; cf. 1 Thess. 2:8). However, this general term can also mean the person or self that is physically alive (perhaps reflecting Septuagint usage, as Ezek. 18:4; cf. Acts 2:41). The word can also be used for the inner self (especially as a being with emotions and feelings, as Luke 2:35). The difficulty of isolating one of these various meanings for a particular occurrence is obvious here in Luke 21:19, since it can imply either the course of natural life or the continuing aspect of one's existence.

24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.
25 And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring;
26 Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.
27 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.
28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.
29 And he spake to them a parable; Behold the fig tree, and all the trees;
30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand.
31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.
32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled.
33 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.
34 And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.
35 For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.
36 Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.
37 And in the day time he was teaching in the temple; and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Olives.
38 And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, for to hear him.

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

22 Now the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.
2 And the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.
3 Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.
4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.
5 And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money.
6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude.

Passover Preparations

7 Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.
8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.
9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?
10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in.
11 And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?
12 And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.
13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

The Lord's Supper

14 And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.
15 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer:

21:36 escape

(Gr. ekpheugō) (Acts 16:27; Rom. 2:3; 2 Cor. 11:33; Heb. 2:3) G1628: The verb means to flee out or away, seeking safety by either hiding or running so as to avoid a negative outcome (Luke 8:47). The apostle Paul wrote of escaping from his pursuers while in Damascus (2 Cor. 11:33). In other places the New Testament speaks of the impossibility of people escaping God's judgment (Rom. 2:3).

16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.
17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves:
18 For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.
19 And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me.
20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.
21 But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.
22 And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed!
23 And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.
24 And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.
25 And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.
26 But ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.
27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth.
28 Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations.
29 And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me;
30 That ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Advice for the Disciples

31 And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat:
32 But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.
33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death.
34 And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.
35 And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.
36 Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.
37 For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end.
38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

Jesus' Agony in Prayer

39 And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives; and his disciples also followed him.
40 And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

22:32 convert

(Gr. epistrephō) (Acts 3:19; 16:18; 1 Pet. 2:25; 2 Pet. 2:22) G1994: The base meaning of the word epistrephō is "return, turn around" and can be seen in Matthew 12:44 and John 21:20. Often however the "turning" is a spiritual or moral action and may mean be converted, or perhaps even repent (Acts 3:19; 1 Thess. 1:9). Whether Jesus uses the word here in Luke 22:32 in the sense of repented or returned is debated among interpreters. In Galatians 4:9 it indicates the opposite of repentance, namely turning back to one's former way of life and away from God (cf. the powerful image in 2 Pet. 2:22).

22:35 lack

(Gr. hystereō) (Mark 10:21; Rom. 3:23; 2 Cor. 12:11; Heb. 4:1) G5302: Drawing on the image of a race, this word means "to be behind, fall short of the finish, to come late." It can also mean "to be inferior in influence or rank" or "to fail to become a partaker of." The most famous use of this word is in Romans 3:23, "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." On our own we fall short of the mark, but God fills in what is lacking (1 Cor. 1:7).

41 And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done.
43 And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.
44 And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.
45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow, 46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

Judas's Betrayal of Jesus

47 And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him.
48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?
49 When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?
50 And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.
51 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.
52 Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves?
53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

Peter's Denial of Jesus

54 Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed afar off.
55 And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them.
56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.
57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.
58 And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.
59 And about the space of one hour after another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him: for he is a Galilaean.
60 And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew.
61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.
62 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

Jesus Mocked and Smitten

63 And the men that held Jesus mocked him, and smote him.
64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophesy, who is it that smote thee?
65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

Jesus Before the Council

66 And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, saying,
67 Art thou the Christ? tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe:
68 And if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go.

22:53 hour

(Gr. hōra) (Matt. 8:13; Mark 11:11; John 5:35; 1 John 2:18; Rev. 9:15) G5610: The Greek word hōra can be used to designate various measures of time. It may refer to a specific hour or time of the day (Mark 11:11), a period of time measured as an hour (John 11:9; Rev. 9:15), or a less specific period of time, especially a short or defined period (John 5:35). It often carries the idea seen here in Luke 22:53 as an opportune time or a time when some specific event (or series of events) has taken place or is "appointed" to take place (Matt. 8:13; John 16:21). In 1 John 2:18 the phrase "the last time" apparently signifies the present age as building toward its climax.

69 Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.
70 Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am.
71 And they said, What need we any further witness? for we ourselves have heard of his own mouth.

Pilate Finds No Fault in Jesus

23 And the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.
2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar, saying that he himself is Christ a King.
3 And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it.
4 Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, I find no fault in this man.
5 And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place.
6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilaean.

Jesus Sent to Herod

7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time.
8 And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.
9 Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing.
10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.
11 And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate.
12 And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

Pilate Seeks to Release Jesus

13 And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,
14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people: and, behold, I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him:
15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him.
16 I will therefore chastise him, and release him.
17 (For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.)
18 And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas:
19 (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison.)
20 Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, spake again to them.
21 But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him.
22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.
23 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed.
24 And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required.
25 And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will.

23:25 deliver

(Gr. paradidōmi) (Matt. 26:16; Mark 13:11; Rom. 1:26; 8:32; 1 Cor. 11:23) G3860: Para (G3844) means "alongside" and didōmi (G1325) means "to give." This word is translated as "to yield, give into the hands of another, deliver, to give over." It is used for handing something over (Matt. 25:14), commending someone for a task or role (Acts 15:40), delivering someone up for judgment or punishment (Matt. 4:12; 2 Pet. 2:4), betraying (Mark 13:12; 14:10), or handing down customs (Acts 6:14; 16:4). This word is used to describe the sacrifice of Christ: "He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?" (Rom. 8:32).

Jesus Crucified at Calvary

26 And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus.
27 And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.
28 But Jesus turning unto them said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.
29 For, behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.
30 Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.
31 For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?
32 And there were also two other, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.
33 And when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.
34 Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.
35 And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of God.
36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar, 37 And saying, If thou be the king of the Jews, save thyself.
38 And a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.
39 And one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us.
40 But the other answering rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?
41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.
42 And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.
43 And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise.

Jesus Commends His Spirit to God

44 And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour.
45 And the sun was darkened, and the vail of the temple was rent in the midst.
46 And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he gave up the ghost.
47 Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.
48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned.
49 And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

23:32 malefactor ▸ see 2 Tim. 2:9.

23:35 deride

(Gr. ekmyktērizō) (Luke 16:14) G1592: This Greek verb means to turn up the nose at someone—to sneer, mock, or treat with contempt. Here it describes the rulers sneering at Christ on the cross, and in Luke 16:14 it is used of the Pharisees deriding Christ. The simpler form myktērizo (G3456) appears in Galatians 6:7 where the intended sense is probably that because God is God, people who try to mock Him will not get away with it.

23:39 malefactor ▸ see 2 Tim. 2:9.
23:39 rail ▸ see Matt. 9:3.

23:43 paradise

(Gr. paradeisos) (2 Cor. 12:4; Rev. 2:7) G3857: This word literally means "garden" or "park." It was used with such a meaning in the Greek Old Testament in Ecclesiastes 2:5 and Song 4:13. The Septuagint also used paradeisos for the Garden of Eden (see Gen. 2:8). In later Jewish thought, paradise is the place of the righteous dead in Sheol. Jesus perhaps alluded to this idea in His story of Lazarus going to Abraham in Luke 16:19–31. And when Jesus spoke to the thief on the Cross, He promised him that he would be with Him in paradise (Luke 23:43). The promise of paradise in Revelation 2:7 speaks of the restitution of an Edenic paradise, an everlasting home for believers (compare Gen. 2; Rev. 22).

Joseph Buries the Body of Jesus

50 And, behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counsellor; and he was a good man, and a just:
51 (The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them;) he was of Arimathaea, a city of the Jews: who also himself waited for the kingdom of God.
52 This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.
53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.
54 And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.
55 And the women also, which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.
56 And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath day according to the commandment.

The Resurrection of Jesus

24 Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.
2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.
3 And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.
4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments:
5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead?
6 He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,
7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.
8 And they remembered his words,
9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.
10 It was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles.
11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.
12 Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

The Emmaus Road

13 And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs.
14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened.
15 And it came to pass, that, while they communed together and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them.
16 But their eyes were holden that they should not know him.
17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?
18 And the one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answering said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?
19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people:
20 And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.
21 But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel: and beside all

24:4 be perplexed

(Gr. diaporeō) (Luke 9:7; Acts 2:12; 5:24; 10:17) G1280: Diaporeō is the intensive form of aporeō (G0639) and is here best translated as "greatly perplexed." It may involve being uncertain as to how to proceed (Acts 25:20) or uncertain as to the meaning of some statement (John 13:22) or event (as with diaporeō here in Luke 24:4). Clearly, the Resurrection was an event that stretched the ability of the human mind to comprehend, and to say that the disciples were surprised or confused would be an understatement.

this, to day is the third day since these things were done.
22 Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre;
23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.
24 And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not.
25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken:
26 Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?
27 And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.
28 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and he made as though he would have gone further.
29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.
30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.
31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.
32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?
33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon.
35 And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

Jesus' Appearance

36 And as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.
37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.
38 And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?
39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.
40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet.
41 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat?
42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb.
43 And he took it, and did eat before them.

The Scriptures Fulfilled

44 And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me.
45 Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures,
46 And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day:
47 And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.
48 And ye are witnesses of these things.
49 And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high.

24:38 trouble

(Gr. tarassō) (Matt. 14:26; John 5:4; Acts 15:24; 1 Pet. 3:14) G5015: In the New Testament this verb can be used literally of disturbing some object, as when the angel stirred the water in John 5:4. Otherwise, it usually indicates mental or emotional agitation or troubling, and the confusion that such disturbance may cause (as here in Luke 24:38; cf. John 11:33; Acts 15:24). Often this involves (in the passive voice) the meaning "to be frightened, terrified" (Matt. 14:26). The word itself is closely related to tarachē (G5016), meaning "disturbance, perplexity, tumult," and tarachos (G5017), referring to (mental) agitation, consternation, or commotion.

Jesus' Ascension

50 And he led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them.
51 And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.
52 And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy:
53 And were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

24:53 temple

(Gr. hieron) (Matt. 4:5; Luke 21:5; Acts 5:42; 24:6) G2411: The Greek word hieron is derived from the adjective hieros, "holy," thus literally meaning "a holy place." Whereas naos (G3485), "temple shrine," usually indicates the main temple building (1 Cor. 3:16) or inner sanctuary, hieron typically includes the entire temple complex (Luke 21:5). Here Jesus' followers were assembling not in the temple proper but in one of its courts (cf. Acts 24:6 and the reference to Solomon's portico in Acts 3:10). The word used to describe a priest is almost the same: hiereus (G2409).

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

JOHN

JUST AS A COIN HAS two sides, both valid, so Jesus Christ has two natures, both valid. Luke presents Christ in His humanity as the Son of Man; John portrays Him in His deity as the Son of God. John's purpose is crystal clear: to set forth Christ in His deity in order to spark believing faith in his readers. John's gospel is topical as well as chronological, and it revolves around seven miracles and seven "I am" statements of Christ.

Following an extended eyewitness description of the Upper Room meal and discourse, John records events leading up to the Resurrection, the final climactic proof that Jesus is who He claims to be—the Son of God.

The title of the Fourth Gospel follows the same format as the titles of the synoptic gospels: Kata Ioannen, "According to John." As with the others, the word "gospel" was added later. Ioannes is derived from the Hebrew name Johanan, "Yahweh Has Been Gracious."

The Word Was God

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
2 The same was in the beginning with God.
3 All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.
4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.
5 And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.
6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.
7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.
8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.
9 That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.
10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.
11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not.
12 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:
13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

1:1 word

(Gr. logos) (John 14:23; Rom. 9:6; 1 Cor. 4:20; Titus 1:9) G3056: Word can mean either words that are spoken (a statement or subject of discussion), an account or motive (Rom. 14:12), or Jesus Himself. When it refers to Jesus it means either Jesus as the content of God's revelation or Jesus as the reason behind the universe. In either case it conveys the idea that Jesus is the living voice of God who communicates the full wisdom of God. He is God speaking, the breathing out of all God is and thinks so that mankind can understand and be saved.

1:5 darkness ▸ see John 12:46.
1:7 witness ▸ see John 19:35.

14 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

John's Witness of Christ

15 John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me.
16 And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.
17 For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.
18 No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

John's Denial That He Was the Christ

19 And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou?
20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.
21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou that prophet? And he answered, No.
22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?
23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias.
24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.
25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?
26 John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;
27 He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.
28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

Behold the Lamb of God

29 The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.
30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.
31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.
32 And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.
33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.
34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

Two of John's Disciples Follow Jesus

35 Again the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples;
36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God!
37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.
38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They

1:14 dwell

(Gr. skēnoō) (Rev. 7:15; 21:3) G4637: Taken from the root that means "tent, dwelling," this word means "live" or "dwell." Because a tent was a temporary dwelling place, the intent here is probably that Jesus lived among men for a time. The image also hearkens back to the tent of the tabernacle, which was God's dwelling place among the Israelites as they traveled in the wilderness after the Exodus (Heb. 9:2). The same God who lived among His people in the Old Testament came to live among them in the person of Jesus in the New Testament. The difference, of course, is that Jesus provided a way for us to approach God directly, without the rituals and veiled Most Holy Place that were part of tabernacle and later the temple worship.

said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where dwellest thou?
39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour.
40 One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.
41 He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ.
42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, A stone.

The Calling of Philip and Nathanael

43 The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.
44 Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.
45 Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.
46 And Nathanael said unto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see.
47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!
48 Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee.
49 Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel.
50 Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.
51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

Jesus Turns Water Into Wine

2 And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there:
2 And both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.
3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.
4 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come.
5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.
6 And there were set there six waterpots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.
7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.
8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.
9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,
10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.
11 This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

often in public, as a show. A synonym is "admire." It can also mean "see" in the sense of visiting or greeting someone. John summed up his faith with this type of seeing: "That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon [theaomai], and our hands have handled, of the Word of life" (1 John 1:1).

2:11 glory

(Gr. doxa) (John 17:5; Acts 12:23; Rom. 3:23; 8:18) G1391: The word for glory encompasses many meanings: "estimation, honor, praise, magnificence, splendor, brightness, and radiance." It is used of royalty (Matt. 6:29), the magnificence of heaven (Matt. 16:27), and the honor or praise that

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

12 After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.
13 And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem,
14 And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting:
15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;
16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise.
17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.
18 Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?
19 Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.
20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?
21 But he spake of the temple of his body.
22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.
23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.
24 But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men,
25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man.

Nicodemus Questions Jesus

3 There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:
2 The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.
3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.
4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?
5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.
6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

is due to God (John 7:18). The brightness of the moon and stars is described in this way (1 Cor. 15:40), but their brightness is temporary and pales in comparison to that of God (2 Cor. 3:11). This word conveys the perfection of Jesus and the truth that He is the Creator God who deserves our worship.

2:12 continue

(Gr. menō) (Matt. 10:11; Luke 19:5; Acts 9:43) G3306: This verb has the basic meaning to remain, or—to use an older English rendering—to abide. It can convey the idea of staying in a certain place (John 4:40; Acts 27:31) or lingering (i.e., to continue in a state of waiting, see Acts 20:5; 1 Thess. 1:10). With the preposition hypo (G5278), it has the meaning of standing strong against opposition, holding out, or enduring (2 Tim. 2:12). Figuratively, it can mean to remain in a certain sphere or condition (John 12:46; 1 Cor. 7:8, 11; 1 John 2:19).

2:15 table ▸ see Luke 19:23.
2:17 zeal ▸ see Rom. 10:2.

3:5 spirit

(Gr. pneuma) (Luke 8:55; Rom. 8:5; 1 Cor. 2:10; 12:11) G4151: This word has two meanings: "wind" and "spirit." Jesus uses it to mean both—the wind blowing where it wills is as unexplainable as being born from above by the Spirit. The root word, breathe (pneō, G4154), is also related to the Spirit in that He is a life-giving force. In the same way God breathed into man and he lived (Gen. 2:7), so also the Spirit gives life to our souls (Acts 2:4; Rom. 8:2). This word can also refer to spirit as a life force, that which animates and makes up the true person (Luke 8:55).

3:6 flesh ▸ see Rom. 13:14.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.
8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.
9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be?
10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?
11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness.

God So Loved the World

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?
13 And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.
14 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:
15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.
16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.
17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.
18 He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.
19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

3:16 love

(Gr. agapaō) (Matt. 5:44; Luke 10:27; John 13:34; Eph. 2:4) G0025: God's love is described by agapaō, which means unconditional love, preferential love that is chosen and acted out by the will. It is not love based on the goodness of the beloved, or upon natural affinity or emotion. Rather this is benevolent love that always seeks the good of the beloved. This type of love is exclusive to the Christian community because it flows directly from God's love: "Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and everyone that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love" (1 John 4:7, 8).

3:16 world ▸ see 1 John 5:19.

3:16 only begotten

(Gr. monogenēs) (John 1:14; 3:18; Heb. 11:17; 1 John 4:9) G3439: The Greek word for only begotten suggests a one and only son or child. For example, Jesus healed or raised the only son of the widow of Nain (Luke 7:12), the only daughter of Jairus (Luke 8:42), and a man's only son, who had a demon (Luke 9:38). Yet the word does not necessarily have to convey the idea of a birth. For example, Isaac is called Abraham's "only begotten" in Hebrews 11:17 and in the Septuagint, the Greek Old Testament (see Gen. 22:2, 12, 16), when actually Abraham had two sons: Ishmael and Isaac. The Son of God is the Father's one and only, His unique Son. Although the Father has begotten many children through the new birth (John 1:12, 13), none of these are exactly like Jesus Christ, the unique Son of God. His Sonship is from eternity. As the unique Son of God, He has a special glory and an unrivaled place of honor.

3:16 everlasting ▸ see Matt. 25:46.

3:19 condemnation

(Gr. krisis) (John 12:31; 2 Thess. 1:5; 2 Pet. 2:9; Rev. 18:10) G2920: The Greek word krisis can mean court, judgment, or condemnation (Matt. 5:21, 22) and is used to name the decisions of courts both in terms of verdicts and punishments. It is extended to apply to judgments made by persons outside formal legal contexts (John 7:24). Often in the New Testament, however, it refers to activities by God or the Messiah, especially on the Day of Judgment (2 Pet. 2:9). It can name the result of the process of judging (2 Thess. 1:5), as well as the condemnation of guilt (John 12:31) and punishment imposed (Rev. 18:10). Here in John 3:19 it describes the basis or reasons for the condemnation issued. The word can also mean those things required by justice or righteousness (Luke 11:42).

20 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.
21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

John's Testimony About Jesus

22 After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judaea; and there he tarried with them, and baptized.
23 And John also was baptizing in Aenon near to Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.
24 For John was not yet cast into prison.
25 Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying.
26 And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.
27 John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.
28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.
29 He that hath the bride is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled.
30 He must increase, but I must decrease.
31 He that cometh from above is above all: he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: he that cometh from heaven is above all.
32 And what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth; and no man receiveth his testimony.
33 He that hath received his testimony hath set to his seal that God is true.
34 For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him.
35 The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand.
36 He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.

The Woman at Jacob's Well

4 When therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John,
2 (Though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,)
3 He left Judaea, and departed again into Galilee.
4 And he must needs go through Samaria.
5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.
6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.
7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.
8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)
9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.
10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.
11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?
12 Art thou greater than our father Jacob,

4:9 have dealings

(Gr. synchraomai) G4798: Appearing only here, this Greek verb is actually a combination of two other words. The Greek word syn (G4862) means "with" and chraomai (G5530) means "use." So, in a very literal sense, the word synchraomai means "to join in using." Here it may express the fact that the Jews and Samaritans did not share the same drinking vessels. Most interpreters believe, however, that it has the broader, metaphorical meaning of "to associate with" or "to have dealings with."

4:10 water ▸ see Matt. 3:11.

which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?
13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:
14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.
15 The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.
16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.
17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:
18 For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.
19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet.
20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.
21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.
22 Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews.
23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.
24 God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.
25 The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.
26 Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he.

Fields Are White to Harvest

27 And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?
28 The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men,
29 Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?
30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.
31 In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.
32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.
33 Therefore said the disciples one to 4:14 well

(Gr. pēgē) (James 3:11; 2 Pet. 2:17; Rev. 7:17; 21:6) G4077: The Greek word denotes a spring of running water. This is different from a well that requires much manual labor to dig and to draw out the water. The gift that Jesus gives—a fountain springing up into eternal life—suggests the availability and accessibility of the divine life for all believers. The expression "into everlasting life" probably means "resulting in eternal life." The result of drinking the water Jesus freely gives is that the drinker receives eternal life.

4:24 truth

(Gr. alētheia) (John 1:14; 14:6; Eph. 1:13; 2 John 1:4) G0225: Taken from the negative a being added to the word for "to be hidden" or "to escape notice," the truth is something that is not false, feigned, or fictitious. It is real, dependable, right, sincere, and full of integrity. This is what is true in any matter, whether a situation or someone's character or morality. Scripture teaches that truth is at the core of the character of God (John 1:14). He is the only way to truth (John 14:6), His Word is truth (Col. 1:5), we are to walk in truth (Eph. 5:9), and the truth dwells in us (John 14:17; 1 John 3:19). Christians are those who know the truth, worship sincerely ("in truth"), and live lives of integrity or truthfulness.

4:25 Messias

(Gr. messias) (John 1:41) G3323: The Greek word messias is a transliteration of the Hebrew and Aramaic words for "anointed one." In other words, unlike Luke, who uses the Greek word christos, John has simply taken the Hebrew word for Messiah and made it into a new word in Greek. In fact, messias appears only here and in John 1:41 in the New Testament. Although the Samaritans were looked down on by the Jews, they were ethnically half Jewish, so a Samaritan woman could have been familiar with this word. In both instances in the Gospel of John the word is parenthetically translated by the Greek form christos, Christ, Anointed One.

4:26 speak ▸ see 1 Cor. 14:2.

another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?
34 Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.
35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.
36 And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.
37 And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.
38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

The Belief of the Samaritans

39 And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.
40 So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.
41 And many more believed because of his own word;
42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.

Jesus Heals a Nobleman's Son

43 Now after two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee.
44 For Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country.
45 Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galilaeans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.
46 So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum.
47 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judaea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.
48 Then said Jesus unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.
49 The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die.
50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.
51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.
52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.
53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house.
54 This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judaea into Galilee.

A Healing at the Pool of Bethesda

5 After this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.
2 Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches.
3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.
4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.
5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.
6 When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

4:44 own country ▸ see Mark 6:1.

5:2 porch

(Gr. stoa) (John 10:23; Acts 3:11; 5:12) G4745: The Greek word stoa describes a covered walkway bounded on one side by an exterior wall of a building or structure and on the other by a row of columns. Often such structures extended around all sides of an open courtyard, like a cloister in a monastery. The word can be translated as either "porch" or "portico."

5:4 trouble ▸ see Luke 24:38.

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.
8 Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.
9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath.
10 The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day: it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.
11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.
12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?
13 And he that was healed wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place.
14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.
15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, which had made him whole.
16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.
17 But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.
18 Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God.

All Judgment Given to Jesus

19 Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.
20 For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.
21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.
22 For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son:
23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.
24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.
25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.
26 For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;
27 And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man.
28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,
29 And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.
30 I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

5:13 convey away

(Gr. ekneuō) G1593: This word is used only here in the New Testament. It comes from the words for "out from" (ek, G1537) and "to nod" (neuō, G3506), so the literal meaning is "to bend the head aside." In other Greek writings it is used, as here, to mean "to turn aside, to shun, to retire." An English idiom with similar meaning might be, "I'm going to duck out of the room."

5:24 life

(Gr. zōē) (John 14:6; James 4:14; Titus 1:2) G2222: The word zōē ranges in meaning from the ordinary human life (as Acts 17:25; James 4:14) to eternal, spiritual life (as here and frequently in John). In this latter sense it comes close to being a synonym for salvation itself (1 John 5:11, 12). It is in this sense that Jesus speaks of Himself as life (John 14:6). The related verb zaō (G2198), to live, is likewise used frequently in the New Testament, sometimes literally (Mark 5:23) and other times metaphorically (Luke 10:28).

Bearing Witness of Jesus

31 If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.
32 There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.
33 Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth.
34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.
35 He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.
36 But I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.
37 And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape.
38 And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.
39 Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.
40 And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.
41 I receive not honour from men.
42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.
43 I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.
44 How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only?
45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust.
46 For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me.
47 But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

Five Loaves and Two Fishes

6 After these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.
2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.
3 And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.
4 And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.
5 When Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?
6 And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.

5:31 bear witness

(Gr. martureō) (John 7:7; 8:13; 1 John 4:14; 5:9) G3140: This Greek word means "to testify." According to Jewish law, a testimony to oneself is no testimony at all. Truth or validity had to be established by two or three witnesses (Deut. 17:7; 19:15). Therefore, Jesus' witness to Himself would not validate His claims; He needed the witness of another. That other witness was not John the Baptist, but Jesus' Father. In the following verses, Jesus called upon several witnesses to affirm His claims, but actually He needs only one witness, His Father's.

5:39 scripture

(Gr. graphē) (Matt. 26:56; Luke 24:27; Acts 17:2; Rom. 15:4; 2 Tim. 3:16) G1124: This is the word from which we get words like "biography" and "autograph." It refers to written words or documents, and specifically in Scripture often refers to the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments. The word makes reference to God, the divine Author, and how His written words are His living voice. Probably the most famous definition of this word is found in 2 Timothy 3:16, 17: "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works."

6:6 prove

(Gr. peirazō) (Acts 24:6; 2 Cor. 13:5; Heb. 11:37) G3985: This Greek verb can mean "to try" or "to attempt" (as Acts 24:6) but is often translated as "to prove" (as here in John 6:6) or even "to examine" (2 Cor. 13:5). Such testing may involve painful trials (as Heb. 11:37), and may be imposed by God, who desires the person's successful completion, or by one, like Satan, who desires the 7 Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, 9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many?
10 And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.
11 And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.
12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.
13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.
14 Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world.
15 When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

Jesus Walks on the Sea

16 And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea,
17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.
18 And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew.
19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.
20 But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid.
21 Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.
22 The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone;
23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:)
24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.

Jesus Is the True Bread from Heaven

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?
26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

person's downfall. This negative sense leads to the alternative meaning, "to tempt," in the sense of enticing someone to sin (Gal. 6:1). Consequently, Satan can be called "the tempter" (Matt. 4:3; cf. James 1:13, 14), and God can be tested by men (Acts 15:10)—always a presumptuous sin.

6:21 immediately

(Gr. eutheōs) (Matt. 4:20; 8:3; 14:27; Mark 1:21; James 1:24) G2112: This word is derived from the adjective meaning "straight" and means "straightaway, directly, suddenly." It contrasts what is happening in the present moment to what has just happened. This word is used frequently in the Gospel of Mark, where the emphasis is on the quick pace of the events of Jesus' ministry. The efficacy of Jesus' miracles is often illustrated by this word, such as in John 5:9: "And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked." It is also used to describe sincere and decisive obedience, as when the disciples rose up to follow Jesus (Matt. 4:20).

6:26 miracle

(Gr. sēmeion) (Matt. 26:48; Acts 2:22; 2 Thess. 3:17; Luke 11:29) G4592: In its broadest sense, a sēmeion is any sign or indicator by which 27 Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?
29 Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.
30 They said therefore unto him, What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?
31 Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat.
32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.
33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.
34 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.
35 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.
36 But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.
37 All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.
38 For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.
39 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.
40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

The Murmuring of the Jews

41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.
42 And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?
43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.
44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.
45 It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.
46 Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father.
47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.
48 I am that bread of life.
49 Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.
50 This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.
51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.
52 The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat?
53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.
54 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.
55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

something is known. It can be a mark of genuineness (2 Thess. 3:17), a prearranged signal (Matt. 26:48), or even a warning (Luke 11:29, 30). Sēmeion often refers to an event with some special meaning, particularly miracles or portents in the skies that signify the approach of the last days. It often appears in such contexts with dynamis (G1411), meaning "work of power," and teras (G5059), meaning "omen" or "wonder" (as in Acts 2:22). Here in John 6:26 the emphasis is not on the miraculous act itself but on understanding the underlying reality that it signifies.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.
57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.
58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.
59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

Many Disciples Fall Away

60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it?
61 When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?
62 What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?
63 It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.
64 But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.
65 And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.
66 From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.
67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?
68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life.
69 And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.
70 Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?
71 He spake of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

The Disbelief of Jesus' Brothers

7 After these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him.
2 Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand.
3 His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judaea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.
4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world.
5 For neither did his brethren believe in him.
6 Then Jesus said unto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready.
7 The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.
8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; for my time is not yet full come.
9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee.
10 But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.
11 Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?
12 And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.
13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

The Jews Marvel at Jesus' Teaching

14 Now about the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.
15 And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?

7:12 murmuring

(Gr. gongysmos) (Acts 6:1; Phil. 2:14; 1 Pet. 4:9) G1112: The Greek word gongysmos is derived from the word gongyzō (G1111), which means "murmur." Thus, gongysmos means complaint or murmuring. Like the English words murmur and grumble, the Greek word is an example of onomatopoeia, a word that sounds like what it represents. As here, gongysmos suggests the grumbling undertones of complaint. Paul commands Christians to "do all things without murmurings and disputings" (Phil. 2:14), and Peter tells us to "use hospitality one to another without grumbling" (1 Pet. 4:9).

16 Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.
17 If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.
18 He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.
19 Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill me?
20 The people answered and said, Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?
21 Jesus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.
22 Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath day circumcise a man.
23 If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day?
24 Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

A Division Among the People

25 Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill?
26 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?
27 Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.
28 Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not.
29 But I know him: for I am from him, and he hath sent me.
30 Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.
31 And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?
32 The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.
33 Then said Jesus unto them, Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.
34 Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.
35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?
36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?
37 In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.
38 He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.
39 (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)

7:18 unrighteousness

(Gr. adikia) (Luke 18:6; Acts 1:18; Rom. 1:18; 6:13; 1 John 1:9) G0093: Combined from the negative a and the root dikē, which means "right," this word refers to legal injustice or moral wrong in heart or action. These are deeds that violate moral codes and induce guilt. Opposites include truthfulness, rightness, and faithfulness. This word illustrates the gulf between God—who is completely righteous in all ways—and man, who is utterly unrighteous. But Jesus bridges that gap: "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness" (1 John 1:9).

7:26 ruler ▸ see 1 Cor. 2:6.
7:33 while ▸ see Acts 1:7.

7:35 dispersed

(Gr. diaspora) (James 1:1; 1 Pet. 1:1) G1290: The Greek word diaspora is used literally here of the dispersion of the Jews among the Gentile nations but elsewhere metaphorically of Christians as pilgrims in the evil world (James 1:1; 1 Pet. 1:1). It is derived from the verb diaspeiro (G1289), "to scatter" or "to disperse," which is used in Acts to refer to the scattering of the Christians from Jerusalem as a result of persecution (Acts 8:1; 11:19).

7:39 glorify ▸ see John 17:5.

40 Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Prophet.
41 Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come out of Galilee?
42 Hath not the scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was?
43 So there was a division among the people because of him.
44 And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

The Pharisees' Unbelief

45 Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?
46 The officers answered, Never man spake like this man.
47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived?
48 Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him?
49 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.
50 Nicodemus saith unto them, (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them,)
51 Doth our law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what he doeth?
52 They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and look: for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.
53 And every man went unto his own house.

Jesus Forgives an Adulterous Woman

8 Jesus went unto the mount of Olives.
2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.
3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,
4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.
5 Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?
6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.
7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.
8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.
9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.
10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?
11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

The Light of the World

12 Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.
13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.
14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came,

8:12 light

(Gr. phōs) (Matt. 5:14; John 11:9; Acts 16:29; 1 John 1:5) G5457: The Greek word phōs is a common noun meaning "light," which may be used either literally (John 11:9) or metaphorically (as here in John 8:12). It may also be used of that which gives light, again literally (as Acts 16:29) or metaphorically (as Matt. 5:14). Ephesians 5:13 appears to use it in the sense of that which is illuminated by light. The New Testament uses it especially of spiritual light and enlightenment, in contrast to spiritual darkness, a point also involved here in John 8:12 (cf. 1 John 1:7). Indeed, God is light (1 John 1:5). The closely related word phōtismos means "illumination," "enlightenment," or "light" (G5462, only in 2 Cor. 4:4).

and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.
15 Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man.
16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.
17 It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.
18 I am one that bear witness of myself, and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.
19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.
20 These words spake Jesus in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man laid hands on him; for his hour was not yet come.
21 Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.
22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

Jesus Speaks for the Father

23 And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world.
24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.
25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.
26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.
27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.
28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.
29 And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him.
30 As he spake these words, many believed on him.

Abraham's Seed

31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed;
32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.
33 They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?
34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.
35 And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever.
36 If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.
37 I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.
38 I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.
39 They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham.
40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.
41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God.
42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me.

8:28 lift up

(Gr. hypsoō) (Matt. 23:12; John 3:14; Acts 2:33; James 4:10) G5312: While the word hypsoō is used once in John in its most literal sense ("Moses lifted up the serpent," John 3:14), elsewhere in John it refers to Jesus' being lifted up on the cross as the moment of His exaltation (John 3:14; here in 8:28; 12:32). The figurative meaning, "to exalt," is used both of Christ (Acts 2:33) and people (Luke 1:52). Although we often think of this term in a positive sense, this "exalting" may at times be misguided, as when one exalts himself (Matt. 23:12) as opposed to when God exalts someone (Matt. 23:12; James 4:10).

43 Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.

The Devil's Children

44 Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.
45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.
46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?
47 He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

Honoured by the Father

48 Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil?
49 Jesus answered, I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.
50 And I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.
51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.
52 Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.
53 Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself?
54 Jesus answered, If I honour myself, my honour is nothing: it is my Father that honoureth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God:
55 Yet ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you: but I know him, and keep his saying.
56 Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad.
57 Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham?
58 Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am.
59 Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

Jesus Heals a Man Blind from Birth

9 And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.
2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?
3 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.
4 I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.
5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.
6 When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay,
7 And said unto him, Go, wash in the pool

9:1 blind

(Gr. typhlos) (Matt. 9:27; Mark 8:22; Rom. 2:19; 2 Pet. 1:9; Rev. 3:17) G5185: The word means "sightless" and describes the inability to see. This can be literal and physical (Matt. 12:22; 15:31); however, often in Scripture it is used to refer to spiritual blindness (i.e., the inability and/or unwillingness to understand and embrace the truth of God—see Matt. 23:16–26; Rom. 2:19; Rev. 3:17). Old Testament prophecies of the Messiah foretold One who would give sight to the blind (Is. 42:7). Jesus fulfilled this in both ways (Matt. 11:5), restoring physical and spiritual sight.

9:4 work

(Gr. ergazomai) (Rom 2:10; 1 Cor. 4:12; Gal. 6:10; 2 Thess. 3:8) G2038: Compared to synonyms like poieō (G4160), "do"; or prassō (G4238), "act"; "accomplish," ergazomai is generally stronger, implying a considerable expenditure of effort to accomplish or produce something. Most often ergazomai and the cognate noun ergon (G2041), meaning "work" or "deed," are used in a positive sense, as here (cf. John 3:21; Rom. 2:10). However, both may also refer to working or works unsuccessfully offered to God for salvation (as Rom. 4:2–6). The words are also general occupational terms used to indicate "working" for one's livelihood (1 Cor. 4:12; 2 Thess. 3:8).

9:7 wash ▸ see John 13:5.

of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.
8 The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?
9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.
10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?
11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.
12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

The Pharisees Question the Healing

13 They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.
14 And it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.
15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.
16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them.
17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a prophet.
18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.
19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?
20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:
21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.
22 These words spake his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue.
23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.
24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.
25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.
26 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?
27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?
28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Moses' disciples.
29 We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is.
30 The man answered and said unto them, Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.
31 Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.
32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.
33 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.
34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.

The Healed Man's Belief

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God?
36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?
37 And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee.
38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.
39 And Jesus said, For judgment I am come into this world, that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind.
40 And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also?

41 Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

The Good Shepherd

10 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.
2 But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.
3 To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.
4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.
5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.
6 This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.
7 Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.
8 All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.
9 I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.
10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.
11 I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.
12 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.
13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.
14 I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine.
15 As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.
16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they

9:41 sin

(Gr. hamartia) (Rom. 7:20; Heb. 3:13; James 4:17; 1 Pet. 2:24; 1 John 1:9) G0266: The most common sense of hamartia in the New Testament is the act of violating the will or law of God (1 John 5:17). The less frequent hamartēma (G0265—Rom. 3:25) is synonymous. Hamartia can also designate a continuing state of sinfulness as an inherent aspect of one's character (John 9:34). Here in John 9:41 the emphasis is on the moral consequences and guilt that result from having sinned (cf. 1 John 1:7, 8). In Paul's letters and Hebrews, the concept of sin is that of a power that controls people (Rom. 7:20; Heb. 3:13).

10:2 shepherd

(Gr. poimēn) (Matt. 9:36; John 10:11; Heb. 13:20; 1 Pet. 2:25) G4166: One of the most precious images for Jesus is that of a loving Shepherd. Scripture tells us that we are like sheep, often foolish and prone to wander (Is. 53:6), but Jesus gently finds, protects, and cares for us (Ps. 23). The duties and responsibilities of a shepherd would have been very familiar to Jesus' hearers. Thus, this metaphor for salvation (entering through the door), healing care, and protection from enemies would have offered a tangible picture of His love. This word is also used of pastors who serve their flock of believers, following Christ's example (Eph. 4:11).

10:6 parable ▸ see John 16:25.

10:10 abundantly

(Gr. perissos) (Mark 6:51; 14:31; Eph. 3:20; 1 Thess. 3:10) G4053: Jesus offers "superabundant, excessive, overflowing, more than enough, extraordinary" life. The root word means "beyond" (peri—G4012). This is abundance in the sense of being beyond measure, exceeding the limits of what can be quantified. It helps us get a sense of the word when we look at one of the key times it is used in Scripture—to describe the disciples' reaction to Jesus calming the storm (Mark 6:51). The abundant life Jesus offers is made possible by His abundant power: "Now unto him who is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us" (Eph. 3:20).

shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.
17 Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.
18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father.
19 There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.
20 And many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?
21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. Can a devil open the eyes of the blind?

Jesus Charged with Blasphemy

22 And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.
23 And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's porch.
24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.
25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me.
26 But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.
27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:
28 And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.
29 My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.
30 I and my Father are one.
31 Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him.
32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?
33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God.
34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?
35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken;
36 Say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God?
37 If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not.
38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know, and believe, that the Father is in me, and I in him.
39 Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand, 40 And went away again beyond Jordan into the place where John at first baptized; and there he abode.
41 And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle: but all things that John spake of this man were true.
42 And many believed on him there.

10:27 know

(Gr. ginōskō) (Matt. 1:25; John 8:32; 17:3; Acts 19:15; 1 Cor. 8:3) G1097: The Greek word ginōskō is particularly common in John's writings. Ginōskō includes the idea of grasping and understanding the object perceived and thus often indicates the point when knowledge begins. It also often implies an experiential relationship between the knower and the object or person known, as in its euphemistic use for sexual intercourse (Matt. 1:25). Therefore it is especially appropriate to indicate knowledge of God (as John 17:3) or other personal relationships, as here in John 10:27. Its meaning ranges from "understand" or "perceive" to "acknowledge" or "recognize."

10:36 sanctify

(Gr. hagiazō) (Matt. 6:9; John 17:17; Acts 26:18; 1 Thess. 5:23) G0037: Literally "to make holy, consecrate, set apart." This state of being holy is in contrast to being common or unclean. In the Old Testament this practice of setting things apart was part of obedience to the law, but in the New Testament we find that all those sanctifying cleansings and rituals were designed to point to Christ. Christians are sanctified by faith in Christ (Acts 26:18; 1 Cor. 1:2) and by the work of the Holy Spirit (Rom. 15:16). We are also given the opportunity to play a role in the sanctification of others (1 Cor. 7:14). At the same time, we call God's name holy (Matt. 6:9) and sanctify Him in our hearts through worship (1 Pet. 3:15).

Jesus' Friend Lazarus Dies

11 Now a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha.
2 (It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)
3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.
4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.
5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.
6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was.
7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judaea again.
8 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?
9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.
10 But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.
11 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.
12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.
13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.
14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.
15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.
16 Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellowdisciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

Martha's Assurance of the Resurrection

17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already.
18 Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off:
19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.
20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house.
21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.
22 But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.
23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.
24 Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.
25 Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:
26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?
27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.
28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.
29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.
30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the 11:14 plainly

(Gr. parrēsia) (John 11:54; 16:29; Eph. 6:19; 1 John 2:28) G3954: In the Gospels (as John 10:24 and here), the expression "with plainness of speech" often carries the adverbial sense "plainly, openly" and stands in contrast to speaking in parables (John 16:29). From this meaning there developed other senses like public openness (John 11:54; Col. 2:15), boldness or confidence (Heb. 4:16; 10:19; 1 John 2:28), and fearlessness (Eph. 6:19). Parrēsia is closely related to the verb parrēsiazomai (G3955) which means "to speak freely, openly, or publicly" (Acts 18:26).

town, but was in that place where Martha met him.
31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

Jesus Weeps

32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.
33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled, 34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.
35 Jesus wept.
36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!
37 And some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

Jesus Raises Lazarus

38 Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.
39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.
40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?
41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.
42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.
43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.
44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

The Plan to Kill Jesus

45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.
46 But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.
47 Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, What do we? for this man doeth many miracles.
48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation.
49 And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,
50 Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.
51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation;
52 And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.
53 Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death.
54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.
55 And the Jews' passover was nigh at hand:

11:32 fall ▸ see Rev. 7:11.
11:33 weep ▸ see Luke 19:41.
11:33 groan ▸ see John 11:38.

11:38 groan

(Gr. embrimaomai) (Matt. 9:30; Mark 1:43; 14:5; John 11:33) G1690: This fairly uncommon word means "to express or feel deep emotion." Outside of these two instances in John, in the other three verses in the New Testament it apparently means "to express the opposite of tolerance or sympathy"; thus, "to reprimand" (Matt. 9:30). Here in John 11:38 (cf. v. 33), it carries the idea of being deeply moved, but commentators differ whether Jesus was deeply troubled over the loss of Lazarus (to Himself or Lazarus's friends) or moved with indignation either at the power of death or possibly at the unbelief of the mourners.

and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, to purify themselves.
56 Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?
57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

Mary Anoints the Feet of Jesus

12 Then Jesus six days before the passover came to Bethany, where Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.
2 There they made him a supper; and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.
3 Then took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.
4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him,
5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?
6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein.
7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.
8 For the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.
9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.
10 But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death;
11 Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

Jesus Enters Jerusalem

12 On the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord.
14 And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written, 15 Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.
16 These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.
17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.
18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.
19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

The Son of Man to Be Glorified

20 And there were certain Greeks among them that came up to worship at the feast:
21 The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.
22 Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.
23 And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.
24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.
25 He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

12:6 bag

(Gr. glōssokomon) (John 13:29) G1101: The Greek word glōssokomon is a general term for any case or container. Its two uses in the New Testament (both in John) refer to a money box or bag. In the Septuagint at 2 Chronicles 24:8, 10, the word glōssokomon is used to describe the chest that King Joash set up to collect money for temple repairs.

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.
27 Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour.
28 Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.
29 The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.
30 Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.
31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out.
32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.
33 This he said, signifying what death he should die.
34 The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?
35 Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.
36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them.

Refusal to Confess Jesus

37 But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:
38 That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?
39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again,
40 He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.
41 These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.
42 Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:
43 For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.
44 Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me.
45 And he that seeth me seeth him that sent me.
46 I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.
47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.
48 He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.
49 For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.
50 And I know that his commandment is 12:26 follow

(Gr. akoloutheō) (Matt. 21:9; 26:58; Mark 1:18; Luke 9:49; Rev. 14:4) G0190: This is a common verb meaning either "to follow after" or "to accompany" (as Matt. 21:9; Mark 14:13), or frequently in the New Testament figuratively "to follow as a disciple," suggesting the teacher-pupil relationship (as Luke 9:49). The figurative meaning often carries the implicit idea of emulating, even obeying (as probably here in John 12:26; cf. Matt. 19:27, 28).

12:46 darkness

(Gr. skotia) (Matt. 10:27; John 1:5; 8:12; 1 John 2:11) G4653: Literally this word refers to obscurity or gloom due to lack of light. In a metaphorical sense it is anything related to ignorance of moral truth or to moral depravity. Light is divine truth and happiness; darkness is spiritual evil, depravity, or anything that is at odds with God and thus causes unhappiness. This word appears 16 times in the New Testament, and all but two are in the writings of John. Most famous is John 8:12: "Then spake Jesus again unto them saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life."

life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

Jesus Washes the Feet of the Disciples

13 Now before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.
2 And supper being ended, the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him;
3 Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God;
4 He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself.
5 After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.
6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?
7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.
8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.
9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.
10 Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all.
11 For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.
12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?
13 Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.
14 If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet.
15 For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.
16 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.
17 If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

Preparing for His Betrayal

18 I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.
19 Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.
20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.
21 When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.
22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.
23 Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved.
24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him,

13:5 wash

(Gr. niptō) (Matt. 6:17; John 9:7; 1 Tim. 5:10) G3538: In speaking to Peter, Jesus used two different Greek words to indicate two different kinds of washing. The Greek word niptō (John 13:5–14) is used to indicate the washing of the extremities, the hands and the feet. The Greek word louō (G3068) specifically means "bathing." According to the social customs of those times, once a person had bathed his entire body, he needed only to wash his feet before partaking of a meal. In His response to Peter, Jesus used both words in order to advance a precious truth: just as those who have bathed need only to wash their feet, so believers who have been bathed by the Lord through His word and the Spirit (see John 15:3; Eph. 5:26; Titus 3:5) need only to wash themselves daily from the filth and defilement they accumulate by their contact with the world.

13:10 wash

(Gr. louō) (Acts 16:33; Heb. 10:22; 2 Pet. 2:22) G3068: This is a verb meaning wash or bathe, usually implying the whole body, as here (in contrast with a subsequent washing of the feet). It may be used of a person (Acts 16:33), animal (2 Pet. 2:22), or corpse (Acts 9:37). It may refer to washings with religious significance—as in the possible reference to baptism in Hebrews 10:22. The related verb apolouō (G0628) means "to wash away" and is used of baptism in Acts 22:16.

that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.
25 He then lying on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it?
26 Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.
27 And after the sop Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.
28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.
29 For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.
30 He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night.

Peter to Deny Jesus

31 Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.
32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.
33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you.
34 A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.
35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.
36 Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but thou shalt follow me afterwards.
37 Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake.
38 Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

A House of Many Mansions

14 Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.
2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.
3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.
4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

Jesus Is the Way, the Truth, and the Life

5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?
6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.
7 If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.
8 Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us.
9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?
10 Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

13:34 new

(Gr. kainos) (Mark 2:22; Eph. 4:24; Heb. 8:8; Rev. 21:1) G2537: The Greek adjective kainos means "new," either qualitatively (in contrast to "old") or temporally (not existing before), as with the synonym neos (G3501). While kainos and neos may be used interchangeably in the New Testament (cf. Mark 2:22), kainos is especially qualitative and often points to what is different and better. That nuance is present here in John 13:34 and in passages like Hebrews 8:8 (New Covenant), Revelation 21:1 (new heaven and earth), and Ephesians 4:24 (new man).

11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.
12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.
13 And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.
14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

A Comforter Will Come

15 If ye love me, keep my commandments.
16 And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;
17 Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.
18 I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you.
19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also.
20 At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.
21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.
22 Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?
23 Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.
24 He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.
25 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.
26 But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.
27 Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.
28 Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I.
29 And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe.
30 Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me.
31 But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

The True Vine

15 I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

14:21 manifest

(Gr. emphanizō) (Matt. 27:53; Acts 24:1; Heb. 11:14) G1718: This Greek verb carries a number of different but related meanings, depending on the context. Emphanizō can mean "to make visible," thus reveal, manifest (as here and v. 22; cf. Matt. 27:53); "show" (as Heb. 11:14); "make known, explain, inform" (as "suggest" in Acts 23:15); and even "present charges" (as Acts 24:1; 25:2, 15).

14:26 Comforter ▸ see 1 John 2:1.

15:1 vine

(Gr. ampelos) (Matt. 26:29; James 3:12; Rev. 14:18) G0288: This word can describe a single grapevine or an entire vineyard. Either way, the image evokes the picture of corporate dependence. Israel was the vine of God's planting, but it failed to bear the proper fruit (Is. 5:1–7; Jer. 2:19–21). Jesus, with His believers incorporated in Him, is the true vine—the true fulfillment and actualization of the vine. As the entire race of Israel sprang from the patriarch Israel, the new generation of God's people is here viewed as originating from Christ, organically united to Him, as branches emanating from the vine. This is a fulfillment of Psalm 80:17, in which "the son of man" is said to be the vine planted by God.

2 Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.
3 Now ye are clean through the word which
I have spoken unto you.
4 Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.
5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.
6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.
7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.
8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.
9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.
10 If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.
11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.
12 This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.
13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.
14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.
15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.
16 Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.
17 These things I command you, that ye love one another.

The World Will Hate Jesus' Followers

18 If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.
19 If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.
20 Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord.
If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.
21 But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.
22 If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloke for their sin.

15:2 take away

(Gr. airō) (Mark 8:34; John 8:59; 10:24; 11:41) G0142: The Greek verb airō most often refers to lifting some literal object. It may also refer to raising something figuratively (eyes in prayer, John 11:41). The meaning "take away" may be used euphemistically to indicate the destruction of things (the temple, John 11:48) or people (Jesus in Luke 23:18). Airō is used in two idioms: to lift up or take up the cross (Mark 8:34) means to endure suffering or death. To lift up or hold up someone's life (John 10:24) is to keep them in suspense. The verb airō is also a technical term for withdrawing money from a bank (Luke 19:21).

15:7 will ▸ see Matt. 8:2.
15:13 love ▸ see 1 John 2:15.

15:14 friend

(Gr. philos) (Luke 14:10; 15:6; John 3:29; 11:11; James 2:23) G5384: This common adjective is derived from the verb phileō (G5368) which means "love" or "have affection for." It can be used in either a passive sense (beloved, dear) or in an active sense (loving, devoted). However, with the possible exception of Acts 19:31, all of the New Testament occurrences are substantives, with the meaning "friend." The word was a common form of familiar address (Luke 14:10) and sometimes implied no more than close association ("friends and neighbours," Luke 15:6). In other cases, it denoted a special relationship between persons, as in John 15:14, 15 between Jesus and His disciples; as the "friend of the bridegroom" (akin to the modern "best man") in John 3:29; and as Abraham being called "a friend of God" in James 2:23. The feminine substantive philē is used to refer to woman friends (Luke 15:9).

15:16 choose ▸ see Eph. 1:4.

23 He that hateth me hateth my Father also.
24 If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.
25 But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause.
26 But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me:
27 And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

Words of Warning

16 These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.
2 They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.
3 And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.
4 But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.
5 But now I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?
6 But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.
7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you.
8 And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:
9 Of sin, because they believe not on me;
10 Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;
11 Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged.
12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.
13 Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.
14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.
15 All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.
16 A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father.

Your Sorrow Will Turn to Joy

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?
18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.
19 Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me?
20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.
21 A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.
22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.
23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.
24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.
25 These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

26 At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you:
27 For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God.
28 I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.
29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb.
30 Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God.
31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe?
32 Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.
33 These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

Jesus' Prayer for Himself

17 These words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee:
2 As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.
3 And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.
4 I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.
5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

Jesus' Prayer for His Disciples and in 2 Pet. 2:22), "enigmatic saying" (as in John 16:25, 29), or "similitude." John did not use the Greek word parabolē, meaning "parable," which is common in the synoptic Gospels; and the synoptic Gospels do not have the word paroimia. The two words are nearly synonymous. The only difference is that in John's Gospel the word paroimia may connote the idea of a similitude or analogy. Whatever the exact definition, Jesus' similitude was not understood by His listeners because their sin had hardened their hearts and had made them unable to comprehend the spiritual truths about which Jesus spoke (see Matt. 13:10–17).

16:33 tribulation

(Gr. thlipsis) (2 Cor. 2:4; 1 Thess. 3:7; 2 Thess. 1:6; Rev. 7:14) G2347: A noun literally meaning pressure, but in the New Testament this word is used only figuratively to identify oppression, affliction, tribulation, trouble. This figurative usage may focus either on outward circumstances, as might be caused by persecution (as here and in 2 Thess. 1:6), or on the inner distress of spirit that results from such oppression (as 2 Cor. 2:4). In Revelation 7:14 "the great tribulation" (understood by many to reflect Matt. 24:21, 29) will be a time of severe affliction and trouble.

17:5 glorify

(Gr. doxazō) (John 7:39; 12:23; 13:31; Rom. 1:21; 8:30; Gal. 1:24) G1392: This Greek term means "to give glory," or "to make glorious." It was one of John's favorite expressions concerning what would happen to Jesus as a result of His crucifixion and resurrection (see John 7:39; 12:23, 24). These events would show the world that Jesus was no ordinary man. The resurrection, especially, would show that He is the glorious Son of God worthy of all honor. In His final prayer, Jesus asked the Father to be glorified alongside Him (that is, in the Father's presence) by means of the glory He had with the Father before the world existed. In other words, Jesus was praying to enter into the pristine state of coequal glory with the Father, a position He possessed from eternity as God's only Son (see John 1:1, 18). He would enter into that glory in a new way—as the God-man, the crucified and risen Lord Jesus Christ.

which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.
7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.
8 For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.
9 I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.
10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.
11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are.
12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.
13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.
14 I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.
15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil.
16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.
17 Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.
18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.
19 And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.

Jesus' Prayer for Believers

20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;
21 That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.
22 And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one:
23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.
24 Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.
25 O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.
26 And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them.

Betrayal in the Garden

18 When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.
2 And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus ofttimes resorted thither with his disciples.
3 Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.
4 Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?
5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them.
6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.
7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.
8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:
9 That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none.
10 Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

Jesus Appears Before Annas

12 Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him,
13 And led him away to Annas first; for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year.
14 Now Caiaphas was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

Peter Denies Jesus

15 And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.
16 But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.
17 Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.
18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

Jesus Is Questioned About His Doctrine

19 The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.
20 Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.
21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.
22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?
23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?
24 Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.

Peter Twice Again Denies Jesus

25 And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.
26 One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?
27 Peter then denied again: and immediately the cock crew.

Jesus Is Brought Before Pilate

28 Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover.
29 Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?
30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.
31 Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:
32 That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.
33 Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews?
34 Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?
35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own

18:28 hall of judgment

(Gr. praitōrion) (Matt. 27:27; Acts 23:35; Phil. 1:13) G4232: Greek transliteration of the Latin Praetorium, this word is a noun properly referring in New Testament times to the official residence of a Roman governor. Whether the Praetorium mentioned in the Gospels was the former Palace of Herod in the western section of Jerusalem or the fortress Antonia adjacent to the temple is disputed. The one mentioned in Acts 23:35 was clearly Herod's palace in Caesarea. The only other New Testament occurrence of praitōrion (Phil. 1:13) might refer to such a residence or to the Praetorian—the imperial guard (the emperor's bodyguard)—depending on whether Philippians was written in Rome or in some other location.

nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?
36 Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.
37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.
38 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault at all.
39 But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews?
40 Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

Jesus Is Scourged and Mocked

19 Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him.
2 And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe,
3 And said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands.
4 Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him.
5 Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man!
6 When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.
7 The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.
8 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;
9 And went again into the judgment hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer.
10 Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?
11 Jesus answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.
12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Caesar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Caesar.
13 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.
14 And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King!
15 But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar.
16 Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away.

19:11 from above

(Gr. anōthen) (Luke 1:3; John 3:7; James 3:17) G0509: The Greek word is an adverb, formed from anō (G0507) and the suffix then, indicating origin. Its basic use is to describe an action as originating from above, either literally as "woven from the top" (John 19:23) or figuratively as "from heaven" (here in John 19:11; cf. John 3:31). It may have a temporal nuance in the sense of either "from the beginning" (Luke 1:3) or for a long time (Acts 26:5). Anōthen is also a common synonym for palin (G3825), "again." This overlap of the meanings "from above" and "again" plays an important role in Jesus' discussion with Nicodemus in John 3:3–8. Whereas Nicodemus emphasized the meaning again ("a second time," John 3:4), Jesus emphasized the origins of the new birth as being from above or "of the Spirit" (John 3:6, 7).

with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.
19 And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS.
20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin.
21 Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews.
22 Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.
23 Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.
24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.
25 Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene.
26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son!
27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home.

Jesus Dies on the Cross

28 After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.
29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a spunge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth.
30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.
31 The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.
32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.
33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs:
34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water.
35 And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.
36 For these things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken.
37 And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

Joseph and Nicodemus Bury Jesus

38 And after this Joseph of Arimathaea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus.
39 And there came also Nicodemus, which at the first came to Jesus by night, and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

19:35 record

(Gr. martyria) (Mark 14:55; John 1:7; 21:24; 1 John 5:9; Rev. 1:2) G3141: The word from which we get the word martyr, a person who dies for what he believes to be true, this word literally means "witness, historical verification, evidence, or judicial certitude." It is usually used in the context of judicial proceedings, where a person's testimony consists of what he has seen or heard firsthand. In the New Testament the use of this word centers around the people who testify to Jesus' identity as the Messiah. John concludes his Gospel with these words that signify his firsthand knowledge of what he wrote: "This is the disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his testimony is true" (John 21:24).

40 Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.
41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.
42 There laid they Jesus therefore because of the Jews' preparation day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

An Empty Tomb

20 The first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.
2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.
3 Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.
4 So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.
5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in.
6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie,
7 And the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.
8 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.
9 For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.
10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

Mary Magdalene Sees Jesus

11 But Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre,
12 And seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.
13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.
14 And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus.
15 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.
16 Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabboni; which is to say, Master.
17 Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God.
18 Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

20:5 linen clothes

(Gr. othonion) (Luke 24:12; John 19:40) G3608: In the New Testament the word othonion always refers to the cloths used as a burial wrapping for the body of Jesus. The custom of the time called for a corpse to be wound with long strips of linen cloth with spices interspersed between the layers to disguise the odor of decay. The related word othonē (G3607), meaning "linen cloth" or "sheet," is used in the New Testament only of the sheet Peter saw lowered from heaven (Acts 10:11; 11:5).

20:14 see

(Gr. theōreō) (Mark 12:41; John 6:19; 12:45; 14:17; Acts 17:22) G2334: The word means to view attentively, perceive, gaze at continuously for a prolonged time. This is looking with intent and interest, not passive seeing. The words "theater" and "theory" are derived from this word. This is the type of seeing wherein people recognize that Jesus is the Son of God: "He that seeth me seeth him that sent me" (John 12:45). When we gaze at Jesus with this intensity, we will truly know Him, as Mary did at the tomb.

shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.
20 And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord.
21 Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.
22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost:
23 Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

Thomas Sees Jesus

24 But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.
25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.
26 And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you.
27 Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing.
28 And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God.
29 Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.
30 And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book:
31 But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

Jesus' Appearance by the Sea

21 After these things Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and on this wise shewed he himself.
2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.
3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing.
4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.
5 Then Jesus saith unto them, Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.
6 And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.
7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.
8 And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.
9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

20:21 send

(Gr. apostellō) (Luke 9:52; Acts 9:17; 1 John 4:10) G0649: This is a common verb in the New Testament compounded from apo, "from," and stellō, "send"; thus, it means "to send," "to send out," or "to send away." It is sometimes used as an auxiliary verb to indicate that an action was performed by others at someone's direction (Matt. 2:16). Like the synonym pempō (G3992), "to send," apostellō often implies sending on a mission or to represent the sender (as here in John 20:21). Of course, it is closely related to the word apostolos, "apostle" (G0652). While it can be used of a mere messenger or representative (2 Cor. 8:23), apostolos typically means apostle in the official New Testament sense.

10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.
11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.
12 Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.
13 Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.
14 This is now the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

Jesus Challenges Peter

15 So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs.
16 He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep.
17 He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.
18 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.
19 This spake he, signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.
20 Then Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved following; which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?
21 Peter seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall this man do?
22 Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? follow thou me.
23 Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?
24 This is the disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his testimony is true.
25 And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

21:15 love

(Gr. phileō) (Matt. 10:37; John 5:20; 11:3; 12:25; Rev. 22:15) G5368: One of four Greek words for love, this one signifies friendship, fondness, affection, delight, and personal attachment. This word is one of feeling—a heart love—whereas agapē is a matter of benevolence, duty, and commitment. We are commanded to have agapē love (G0025—Matt. 5:44) but not phileō love because feelings cannot be commanded. Phileō is also the word for "kiss." Jesus asked Peter if he had unconditional, sacrificial agapē love, but Peter responded that he had phileō, or brotherly love. Peter's love deepened, and he wrote of agapē love in his later books.

21:15 lamb ▸ see Rev. 6:1.

21:16 feed

(Gr. poimanō) (Matt. 2:6; 1 Pet. 5:2; Rev. 7:17) G4165: The basic meaning of this verb is "to shepherd," to carry out the duties of a shepherd, which are to feed, herd, guide (Matt. 2:6; 1 Pet. 5:2), protect, and tend (Luke 17:7). The noun pastor comes from this verb, which the New Testament equates with a minister or elder (Acts 20:28). The model for every minister (in both character and conduct) should be Christ, the Good Shepherd (John 10:11) and the Chief Shepherd (1 Pet. 5:4).

21:17 feed

(Gr. boskō) (Matt. 8:30; Luke 8:32; 15:15) G1006: The primary meaning of this verb is "to feed animals" (Mark 5:11; Luke 8:32), but in this context Jesus uses it in a figurative way to command Peter (and by way of application all spiritual leaders) to care for the spiritual welfare of those he will be leading in the future. This will involve "teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you" (Matt. 28:20).

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

ACTS (ORIGINAL GREEK TITLE PRAXEIS, "Acts") is a unique book in the Scripture. It is really volume 2 of Luke's work and tells the story of the beginnings of the church. It begins with the ascension of Jesus, records the giving of the Spirit at Pentecost, and tells the life of the early church. It is not, however, the story of the whole church, or even of all the apostles. It focuses on the beginnings of the church, then on the work of Peter, and finally on the work of Paul. Luke wanted to show how the church spread from Jerusalem all over Palestine and then to the Gentiles.

Luke reports a series of episodes in the life and faith of the early church to show how Christianity rose out of Judaism and has deep roots in the Jewish faith. He shows something of the struggle the disciples felt in moving out in a mission to Gentiles. One of the major themes in the book is the role of the Holy Spirit in guiding and strengthening the church as it spread across the Mediterranean world. Another theme is the message that Christianity is not dangerous to the authority or power of the Roman Empire. (Luke—Acts may have been written as a legal document in Paul's defense.) More than one-half of Acts is devoted to the ministry of Paul and his travels to preach the good news.

Prologue

1 The former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,
2 Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen:
3 To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:

Wait for the Promise of the Father

4 And, being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me.
5 For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence.
6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?
7 And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

1:7 time

(Gr. chronos) (Matt. 2:7; John 7:33; Gal. 4:4; 1 Thess. 5:1) G5550: This word for time denotes a space of time—not a specific occasion or a particular length of time, but a span of unknown duration. This is the root from which we get words like "chronology" and "chronic." The time when Jesus came to earth (Gal. 4:4), the span of time He was here (Mark 2:19; John 7:33), and the time when

8 But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

Jesus' Ascension into Heaven

9 And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.
10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel;
11 Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

The Upper Room

12 Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day's journey.
13 And when they were come in, they went up into an upper room, where abode both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James.
14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.

Judas Is Replaced by Matthias

15 And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number of names together were about an hundred and twenty,) 16 Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, which was guide to them that took Jesus.
17 For he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry.
18 Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.
19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood.
20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and his bishoprick let another take.
21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,
22 Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection.
23 And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.
24 And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen,
25 That he may take part of this ministry

He will return (1 Thess. 5:1) are all referred to by this word. The time since creation is also called chronos: "who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world [chronos] began" (2 Tim. 1:9).

1:8 power

(Gr. dynamis) (Rom. 1:20; 1 Cor. 1:18; 2 Cor. 12:9; 2 Tim. 1:7) G1411: Formed from the root for "ability" or "strength" (dynamai, G1410) this word refers to the force or power behind supernatural events. Another translation is "work of power." It specifically refers to an ability that a person has inherently in his nature—i.e., the power of Jesus to work miracles because He is God. The cross is the ultimate example of this power: "For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness, but unto us which are saved it is the power [dynamis] of God" (1 Cor. 1:18).

1:20 bishoprick

(Gr. episkopē) (Luke 19:44; 1 Tim. 3:1; 1 Pet. 2:12) G1984: This word refers to an overseer. The more formal definition of the word is "inspection" or "visitation," the act of God to search the ways and deeds of men. This responsibility is given to men in the office of overseer or bishop. This word is used only four times in Scripture, twice to refer to a visitation of God to judge His people.

and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.
26 And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

The Day of Pentecost

2 And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.
2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.
3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.
4 And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.
5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.
6 Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.
7 And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galilaeans?
8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?
9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judaea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia,
10 Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes, 11 Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.
12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?
13 Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.

Peter Addresses the Crowd

14 But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judaea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:
15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.
16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel;
17 And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:
18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:
19 And I will shew wonders in heaven above,

1:25 transgression

(Gr. parabainō) (Matt. 15:2; 2 John 9) G3845: Formed from the words that mean "from" (para, G3844) and "foot" (basis, G0939), this word for sin offers a picture of someone stepping off the straight path or violating the boundaries of correct behavior. It describes someone who has rebelled or departed from correct morals. It can be overstepping doctrine or abandoning trust. Second John 9 contrasts those who abide in truth with those who transgress: "Whosoever transgresseth [parabainō], and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son."

2:11 wonderful works

(Gr. megaleios) (Luke 1:49) G3167: Used only here and in the Magnificat proclaimed by Mary in Luke 1:49 ("For he that is mighty hath done to me great things; and holy is his name"), this word means "magnificent, grand, mighty." These are conspicuously splendid and excellent works of God that evoke praise. The root word refers to greatness in size or in rank or the preeminent blessings of God. Other forms of this word are used in Luke 9:43 ("majesty," megaleiotēs, G3168) and Philippians 1:20 ("magnified," megalynō, G3170).

2:19 wonder

(Gr. teras) (Matt. 24:24; Acts 2:22; 14:3; Heb. 2:4) G5059: Often appearing in connection with "signs," this word means "wonder" or "omen."

and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:
20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:
21 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.
22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:
23 Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:
24 Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.
25 For David speaketh concerning him, I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:
26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope:
27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.
28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.
29 Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day.
30 Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne;
31 He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption.
32 This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses.
33 Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.
34 For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.
36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.

Whereas dynamis (G1411) emphasizes the manifestation of power and sēmeion (G4592) refers to the significance of an act and what it means, teras emphasizes the sense of wonder, portent, or even fear that a wonder evokes. These are the miracles or strange events that are watched or observed and produce either faith or doubt, depending on the receptivity of the observer. Both Satan and God produce works that are called by this name, and the ability to discern which is which differentiates those who follow God from those who follow Satan.

2:23 foreknowledge

(Gr. prognōsis) (Acts 26:5; Rom. 11:2; 1 Pet. 1:2; 2 Pet. 3:17) G4268: The Greek term indicates "knowledge beforehand," either of things that are seen or things that are intended or arranged. In the present context, the word denotes God's knowledge of His Son's death on the Cross long before the event occurred. This is clearly affirmed by Peter (see 1 Pet. 1:20) and is the implication of Revelation 13:8. Jesus' death for our redemption was not an afterthought; it was part of God's eternal plan.

2:31 resurrection

(Gr. anastasis) (John 11:24; Rom. 6:5; Phil. 3:10) G0386: The noun is derived from the combination of a preposition meaning "up" and a noun meaning "a standing." From this joining comes the literal meaning "a rise" or "a rising" (Luke 2:34), though by far the most prevalent rendering is "resurrection" (see, for example, Jesus' statement in John 11:25—"I am the resurrection and the life"). Most often in the New Testament the term refers to a resurrection from the dead, especially of Jesus (as here) and of Christians (as 1 Cor. 15:21; see also Matt. 22:23).

2:33 exalt ▸ see John 8:28.

The Crowd's Response

37 Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?
38 Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.
39 For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.
40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation.
41 Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.
42 And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.
43 And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.
44 And all that believed were together, and had all things common;
45 And sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need.
46 And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

A Lame Man Healed

3 Now Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour.
2 And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple;
3 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms.
4 And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us.
5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.
6 Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk.
7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength.

2:42 fellowship

(Gr. koinōnia) (1 Cor. 1:9; 2 Cor. 8:4; 1 John 1:6) G2842: The Greek word means "fellowship," "communion," or "sharing in common." Here it is one of the four staples of the New Testament church, along with the apostles' doctrine, prayer, and the breaking of bread. According to 1 John 1:3, believers can have communion or fellowship with God the Father, with His Son, Jesus Christ, and with the apostles. Additionally, believers enjoy fellowship with one another (1 John 1:7), with the Holy Spirit (Phil. 2:1), and with Christ's sufferings (Phil. 3:10). The same word is used (rendered "contribution") for the financial gift to the church in Jerusalem in Romans 15:26.

2:46 continue

(Gr. proskartereō) (Acts 6:4; Rom. 12:12; Col. 4:2) G4342: The New Testament makes it clear that faith alone can save. But it makes it equally clear that continuing in good works is the greatest indication that an individual's faith is genuine (James 2:14–26). Such perseverance springs from a faithful trust that God has been steadfast toward His people. Through continuing in God's work, Christians prove their deep appreciation for God's saving grace (1 Cor. 15:57, 58). As a result, the Christian can expect not only to enhance the strength of the church, but also to build up strength of character (Rom. 5:3, 4). In short, Christians can expect to become closer to God. They learn that they can persevere primarily because God is intimately related to them (Rom. 8:25–27) and especially because they have the assurance of a final reward in heaven (1 John 5:13).

3:7 receive strength

(Gr. stereoō) (Acts 3:16; 16:5) G4732: Used only five times in three verses, all in Acts, the Greek word literally means "to solidify" (and is derived from another word meaning "solid" or "stable"); thus, more figuratively, to establish, confirm, or

Peter Admonishes the Onlookers

11 And as the lame man which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.
12 And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk?
13 The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go.
14 But ye denied the Holy One and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you;
15 And killed the Prince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead; whereof we are witnesses.
16 And his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.
17 And now, brethren, I wot that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers.
18 But those things, which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.
19 Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord;
20 And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you:
21 Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.
22 For Moses truly said unto the fathers, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.
23 And it shall come to pass, that every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.
24 Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

3:15 prince

(Gr. archēgos) (Acts 5:31; Heb. 2:10; 12:2) G0747: The Greek noun means "one who leads or originates something." No single English word expresses its meaning in all of its contexts. In the Septuagint it is used for the chief of a family or tribe (Num. 13:2). In Hebrews the word is used to describe Jesus as the "captain" of a believer's salvation (Heb. 2:10) and the "author" of a believer's faith (Heb. 12:2). Jesus' title of "Prince of life" here is somewhat ambiguous. It may mean that He is the "Ruler of life" or the "Originator of life" (compare Acts 5:31).

Peter's Sermon to the Council

5 And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes,
6 And Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem.
7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name, have ye done this?
8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,
9 If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;
10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.
11 This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.
12 Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.
13 Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.
14 And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.
15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves,
16 Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it.
17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

Peter and John Must Speak

18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.
19 But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.
20 For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.

4:8 fill

(Gr. pimplēmi) (Luke 5:7; Acts 2:4; 4:31; 9:17; 13:9) G4130: The Greek word is used for describing the filling of anything from a sponge to a boat (Matt. 27:48; Luke 5:7) to people being filled with fear (Luke 5:26), wonder (Acts 3:10), or confusion (Acts 19:29). Luke uses this term to describe how the Holy Spirit influences a person. He uses the expression "filled with the Holy Spirit" eight times in his writings. In every case, the filling of the Holy Spirit enables the person so endowed to speak or preach for God. Thus, the filling of the Spirit is directly related to the prophetic ministry, the revelation or explanation of God's Word.

4:12 other

(Gr. heteros) (Luke 8:8; 16:13; Heb. 7:15; James 4:12) G2087: Here used to emphasize the exclusivity of Christ as the only way to heaven, this word means "other, different, of another kind and nature, having a different form or class." It often differentiates two groups—one taken and the other left (Luke 17:34, 35)—or two different types of people such as the Pharisee and the tax collector (Luke 18:10). The consistent teaching of Scripture is that there is one and only one way to be saved. Jesus is in a category by Himself, and His name alone can save us. There is no heteros.

4:13 ignorant

(Gr. agrammatos) G0062: The Greek word agrammatos occurs only here in the New Testament and is a compound of the Greek words a (G0001), "not," and gramma (G1121), "letter," meaning "illiterate." Here it probably has its more general meaning of "uneducated," possibly with specific reference to a lack of formal training in interpreting the Jewish law.

21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done.
22 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

A Prayer for Boldness

23 And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.
24 And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is:
25 Who by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?
26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ.
27 For of a truth against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were gathered together, 28 For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done.
29 And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word,
30 By stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jesus.
31 And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

Distribution of Possessions

32 And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.
33 And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all.
34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,
35 And laid them down at the apostles' feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.
36 And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus, 37 Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

Ananias and Sapphira

5 But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession,
2 And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.
3 But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land?
4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in

4:22 healing

(Gr. iasis) (Luke 13:32; Acts 4:30) G2392: This word is used only three times in the New Testament. Iasis is related to the verb iaomai (G2390), meaning "to heal," which can be used literally for healing a sickness (Luke 5:17) or figuratively for healing from demonic activity, deliverance, restoration, or healing of various ills, including sin or spiritual infirmity (as Matt. 13:15; James 5:16; Heb. 12:13).

4:32 common

(Gr. koinos) (Titus 1:4; Jude 3) G2839: The Greek word koinos can have a technical sense describing something as ritually defiled or unclean. For example, both "unwashed hands" (Mark 7:2) and non-kosher food (Acts 10:14) are described as koinos. However, a more positive meaning of koinos is the sense "widely shared" or "common." The very name of the language in which the New Testament was written is he koinē dialektos, "the common dialect." The earliest Christians shared "all things in common" (Acts 2:44; here in 4:32), a technical phrase referring to sharing for the community good and not to communally owned property. Paul called Titus "mine own son after the common faith" (Titus 1:4), and Jude wrote to the saints about "the common salvation" (Jude 3).

thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.
5 And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.
6 And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him.
7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.
8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.
9 Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.
10 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.
11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

Many Signs and Wonders

12 And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.
13 And of the rest durst no man join himself to them: but the people magnified them.
14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)
15 Insomuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.
16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

The Apostles Suffer Persecution

17 Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees,) and were filled with indignation, 18 And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.
19 But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, 20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.
21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.
22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,
23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

5:16 unclean

(Gr. akathartos) (Matt. 10:1; Mark 3:30; Rev. 16:13) G0169: The word literally means "not cleaned" and is used in a figurative sense to indicate ceremonial or ritual uncleanness as described in the Mosaic Law and still observed by Jews in the first century (and by devout Jews today). In the Old Testament, anything unclean would render a person who came in contact with it impure and would require cleansing according to Levitical law. The Greek word is used to describe unclean food (Acts 10:14), unclean people (1 Cor. 7:14; Eph. 5:5), unclean animals (specifically birds in Rev. 18:2), and unclean spirits or devils (as here; see also Mark 1:23; 6:7; Luke 4:33; 11:24).

5:21 council

(Gr. synedrion) (Matt. 5:22; Mark 14:55; Acts 5:27; 23:1) G4892: This noun is rendered "council" every time it appears in the New Testament. In Jewish community structure, each local synagogue provided for a council of elders to pass judgments and order discipline in religious matters. The great Sanhedrin at Jerusalem—including priests, elders, and scribal scholars and presided over by the high priest—served similar functions for Jews in general and especially for those in Palestine. Most of the New Testament references are to this latter body (but see Matt. 10:17 and Mark 13:9, which refer to the local councils).

of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.
25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.
26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.
27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them,
28 Saying, Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.
29 Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men.
30 The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree.
31 Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.
32 And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

Gamaliel's Counsel

33 When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.
34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;
35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.
36 For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.
37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.
38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought:
39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God.
40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.
41 And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.
42 And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ.

Seven Spirit-Filled Men

6 And in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration.
2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.
3 Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.
4 But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.
5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch:

7 And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

Stephen Charged with Blasphemy

8 And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.
9 Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and of Asia, disputing with Stephen.
10 And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.
11 Then they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.
12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,
13 And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law:
14 For we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered us.
15 And all that sat in the council, looking stedfastly on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

Stephen's Council Speech

7 Then said the high priest, Are these things so?
2 And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran,
3 And said unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.
4 Then came he out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.
5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.
6 And God spake on this wise, That his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil four hundred years.

words meaning "to" and "come"; thus, its meaning "convert" (one who converts). The word is used only four times in the New Testament, each time referring to Gentiles converted to Judaism, many of whom were especially open to the gospel of Christ. The word was apparently not applied to those non-Jews, called "devout" or "God-fearers," who did not submit to circumcision but participated in synagogue worship and observed basic Jewish laws. Thus, the expression "religious proselytes" in Acts 13:43 is curious and may emphasize fully worshiping proselytes.

6:11 blasphemous

(Gr. blasphēmos) (Acts 6:13; 1 Tim. 1:13; 2 Tim. 3:2; 2 Pet. 2:11) G0989: To blaspheme is to speak evil, slanderous, and abusive things against a person or against God. This word is formed from blapto (G0984), "to injure" and phēmē (G5345), "speech," so a literal definition would be "injurious speech." The implication is that the abusive words are untrue and damaging to a person's reputation. This word is used here to describe the false accusations that were spoken against Stephen, but it is also used by Paul to describe himself before his conversion (1 Tim. 1:13) and to describe godless men (2 Tim. 3:2).

6:13 blasphemous ▸ see Acts 6:11.

7:5 promise

(Gr. epangellō) (Rom. 4:21; Titus 1:2; Heb. 10:23; 1 John 2:25) G1861: Formed from epi (G1909), "upon," and angelos (G0032), "messenger," this word means "to profess, announce, or promise something concerning oneself." It is used to describe an intention or pledge to do something. God assured Abraham that He would give the Promised Land to him and his descendants, and in the same way He promises those who trust in Him eternal life (Titus 1:2; 1 John 2:25) and a crown of life (James 1:12). All of God's promises rest on His faithfulness, as Titus 1:2 professes: "In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised [epangellō] before the world began."

7:6 sojourn ▸ see Eph. 2:19.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place.
8 And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat the twelve patriarchs.

Joseph Sold by the Patriarchs

9 And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him,
10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house.
11 Now there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance.
12 But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first.
13 And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren; and Joseph's kindred was made known unto Pharaoh.
14 Then sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls.
15 So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers,
16 And were carried over into Sychem, and laid in the sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emmor the father of Sychem.
17 But when the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt,
18 Till another king arose, which knew not Joseph.
19 The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.

Through Moses God Delivered Israel

20 In which time Moses was born, and was exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months:
21 And when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son.
22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds.
23 And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.
24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian:
25 For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.
26 And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?
27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?
28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday?
29 Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons.
30 And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.
31 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him,

7:25 understand

(Gr. syniēmi) (Matt. 13:13; Mark 8:21; Rom. 15:21) G4920: The word comes from a Greek proposition meaning "with" (syn, G4862) and a verb meaning "to send" (hiēmi) and means literally "to bring together." Used in a figurative sense, as it is in every case in the New Testament, the word means "understanding." The word is used to indicate an understanding (or lack of understanding) of something that is heard (Matt. 13:14), of an exhortation (Matt. 16:12), of the Scriptures (Luke 24:45), or of the will of God (Eph. 5:17). In Romans 3:11 the sense is more general, as of an upright man ("There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God").

the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold.
33 Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.
34 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt.
35 This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush.
36 He brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness forty years.

Raising Up a Prophet

37 This is that Moses, which said unto the children of Israel, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear.
38 This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with the angel which spake to him in the mount Sina, and with our fathers: who received the lively oracles to give unto us:
39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt,
40 Saying unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.
41 And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.
42 Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness?
43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.
44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen.
45 Which also our fathers that came after brought in with Jesus into the possession of the Gentiles, whom God drave out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of David;
46 Who found favour before God, and desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob.
47 But Solomon built him an house.
48 Howbeit the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet,
49 Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest?
50 Hath not my hand made all these things?

Stephen Accuses His Accusers

51 Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye.
52 Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers:
53 Who have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it.

The Stoning of Stephen

54 When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth.
55 But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, 56 And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God.

59 And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.
60 And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

Persecution of the Church

8 And Saul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judaea and Samaria, except the apostles.
2 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him.
3 As for Saul, he made havock of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison.

Philip Preaches in Samaria

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word.
5 Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them.
6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.
7 For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.
8 And there was great joy in that city.

Simon's Attempted Purchase

9 But there was a certain man, called Simon, which beforetime in the same city used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one:
10 To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.
11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.
12 But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

its nine occurrences. Stoning was an acceptable method of execution for capital crimes in the Old Testament under Levitical law (see for example Lev. 24:16; Deut. 17:2–5), and Jews in the first century still stoned lawbreakers deemed worthy of death (see John 8:1–11), though such unilateral action was illegal under Roman law (John 18:30, 31). The term could be used to describe the killing of an animal (Heb. 12:20) or an attempted (but unsuccessful) stoning (Mark 12:4).

8:1 persecution

(Gr. diōgmos) (Matt. 10:23; 2 Thess. 1:4; 2 Cor. 12:10) G1375: Persecution is the hatred and affliction that follows the witness and holy life of God's people in a hostile world. Jesus taught that God's prophets always faced persecution (Matt. 5:12); so His disciples should expect the same (Matt. 10:23). The early Christians saw the persecution of Jesus' followers as a participation in His redemptive suffering: filling up "that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ" (Col. 1:24). The idea of the coming Messiah held that the suffering of God's people was part of the coming of the kingdom—evidence that a person is truly one of God's own. Therefore they are "blessed" (Matt. 5:10) and should rejoice and glorify God.

8:3 church

(Gr. ekklēsia) (Acts 19:32; 1 Cor. 16:19) G1577: The Greek word ekklēsia is derived from the verb ekkaleō, meaning "to call out." The normal Greek usage refers to a regular assembly (Acts 19:32, 39, 41). In the Septuagint it is used to translate the Hebrew word qahal, meaning congregation, and in this sense it is used of Israel (Acts 7:38). Jesus used the word to speak of building His church (Matt. 16:18), meaning the whole body of believers (cf. Eph. 1:22). The most common New Testament usage is of local Christian communities or congregations (Acts 8:3; 1 Cor. 16:19), including those that met in houses (Col. 4:15; Philem. 2).

the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John:
15 Who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost:
16 (For as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.)
17 Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost.
18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money,
19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost.
20 But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money.
21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.
22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.
23 For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.
24 Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.
25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

The Ethiopian Eunuch's Baptism

26 And the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert.
27 And he arose and went: and, behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem for to worship, 28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Esaias the prophet.
29 Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.
30 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?
31 And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him.
32 The place of the scripture which he read was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:
33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

8:23 bitterness ▸ see Eph. 4:31.

8:27 authority

(Gr. dynastēs) (Luke 1:52; 1 Tim. 6:15) G1413: This word, from which we get "dynasty," refers to a high official or potentate who has great power and authority. Synonyms include sovereign, ruler, prince, and royal minister. Luke 1:52 describes Christ's intentions regarding earthly authority using this word: "He hath put down the mighty [dynastēs] from their seats, and exalted them of low degree." Earthly rulers will be cast down because in the final analysis only God, the King of all, and His Son Jesus, the Prince of Peace, have the authority or dynastēs (1 Tim. 6:15).

8:28 read

(Gr. anaginōskō) (Matt. 21:42; Col. 4:16) G0314: Verb meaning to read aloud alone or publicly. Since the ancients generally read aloud even when alone, the eunuch was probably doing so here (see Acts 8:30). Often the precise meaning of the word relates to formal, public reading (as Col. 4:16). A related Greek word is anagnōsis (G0320), meaning "a reading," which is definitely a public reading in Acts 13:15.

8:32 lamb

(Gr. amnos) (John 1:29; 1 Pet. 1:19) G0286: The New Testament writers often identified Jesus as being "the lamb," or "the Lamb of God." They were drawing upon many images in the Old Testament concerning sacrificial lambs. No doubt, the title "Lamb of God" would be associated in the minds of the Jews with the Passover lamb (see Ex. 12), the lamb led to the slaughter in Isaiah's prophecies (Is. 53:7), and the lambs used in the daily sacrifices of sin offerings (Lev. 14:12, 21, 24; Num. 6:12). In depicting Jesus as a lamb, the Scriptures were declaring that Jesus was the substitutionary sacrifice provided by God for our sins. The announced Messiah came not to be a philosopher, nor to be a teacher of morality. He came to do what we could not do for ourselves—take away our sin.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?
35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus.
36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized?
37 And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.
38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.
39 And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.
40 But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Caesarea.

Saul's Conversion

9 And Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,
2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.
3 And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven:
4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?
5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.
6 And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.
7 And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.
8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.
9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

Ananias and Saul

10 And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.
11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, of Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth, 12 And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.
13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem:
14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name.
15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel:
16 For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.
17 And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Ghost.
18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

Saul in Damascus

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus.
20 And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said; Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?
22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ.

The Disciples Save Saul from Death

23 And after that many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him:
24 But their laying await was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.
25 Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down by the wall in a basket.

Saul in Jerusalem

26 And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.
27 But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.
28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem.
29 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him.
30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.
31 Then had the churches rest throughout all Judaea and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied.

Aeneas Healed by Peter

32 And it came to pass, as Peter passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda.
33 And there he found a certain man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy.
34 And Peter said unto him, Aeneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.
35 And all that dwelt at Lydda and Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord.

Dorcas Raised from Death

36 Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did.
37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in an upper chamber.
38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them.
39 Then Peter arose and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them.
40 But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed; and turning him to the body said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up.
41 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her

9:31 edify

(Gr. oikodomeō) (Matt. 16:18; 1 Thess. 5:11) G3618: Originally meaning "to construct" or "to build an edifice" (as in Luke 6:48 and elsewhere), the word can also mean "to build" in a figurative sense, as when Jesus said He would "build" His church (Matt. 16:18). The term has a secondary meaning of "to build up," "strengthen," or "establish," referring in the New Testament to the spiritual development and character growth of Christians or, more often, of the Christian community (as here in Acts 9:31 and 1 Thess. 5:11).

9:31 comfort

(Gr. paraklēsis) (Luke 6:24; 2 Cor. 1:6; Phil 2:1; Heb. 6:18) G3874: Literally "a calling near to help," this word denotes a strengthening presence that gives consolation or encouragement. The root word means "to summon." Asking for comfort is a summoning of help and sympathy. We receive paraklēsis from God (2 Cor. 1:3) and the Scriptures (Rom. 15:4) and are to pass it on to others: "Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort; who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God" (2 Cor. 1:3, 4).

up, and when he had called the saints and widows, presented her alive.
42 And it was known throughout all Joppa; and many believed in the Lord.
43 And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.

Cornelius's Vision

10 There was a certain man in Caesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band,
2 A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway.
3 He saw in a vision evidently about the ninth hour of the day an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.
4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.
5 And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter:
6 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.
7 And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually;
8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

Peter's Trance and Vision

9 On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the housetop to pray about the sixth hour:
10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance,
11 And saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth:
12 Wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.
13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat.
14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.
15 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.
16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.
17 Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius had made enquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate,
18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.
19 While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.
20 Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.
21 Then Peter went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cornelius; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?
22 And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

10:10 trance

(Gr. ekstasis) (Luke 5:26; Acts 3:10; 11:5; 22:17) G1611: The root words define this word: ek (G1537), "out of," and stasis (G4714), "a standing." The reference is to someone being "beside himself" in a state of astonishment, amazement, terror, or trance. The person is cast out of his normal state, bewildered and entranced. This was the reaction of the crowd when Jesus raised Jairus's daughter from the dead (Mark 5:42) and at the resurrection (Mark 16:8). Luke 5:26 gives us a good picture of this word: "And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day!"

with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.
24 And the morrow after they entered into Caesarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends.
25 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.
26 But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man.
27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.
28 And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.
29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me?
30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing,
31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.
32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner by the sea side: who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.
33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

Preaching to Cornelius

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:
35 But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.
36 The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all:)
37 That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judaea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached;
38 How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him.
39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree:
40 Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly;
41 Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.
42 And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead.
43 To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

10:34 respecter of persons

(Gr. prosōpolēptēs) G4381: Used only here, this word is a combination of prosōpon (G4383), "face, person," and lambanō (G2983), "to receive, take." It is the act of receiving someone because of wealth, position, or appearance. It is taking sides, showing favoritism or bias, or treating someone better than another—especially based on externals. This is something humans often do (cf. James 2:1–13), but God does not. All people are equally in need of God's grace, can receive it in the same way (by faith), and are equally accepted into His family as co-heirs with Christ. If God does not show partiality, neither should we.

10:43 believe

(Gr. pisteuō) (Mark 9:24; John 3:16; Rom. 4:3; Eph. 1:13) G4100: The basis of our relationship with God and eternal salvation is faith or belief in Him, so this word figures prominently in the New Testament. It means "believe, have faith, trust, put confidence in." Most of the 264 uses of this word in Scripture are references to faith in Christ or in the things He taught. Pisteuō is the basis of healing (Matt. 8:13; Luke 8:50), answered prayer (Matt. 21:22; Mark 11:23), and salvation (Mark 16:16; John 1:12). Hebrews 11:6 sums up the life of

Gentiles Receive the Holy Spirit

44 While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.
45 And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost.
46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we?
48 And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

Jewish Believers Challenge Peter

11 And the apostles and brethren that were in Judaea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.
2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended with him,
3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.
4 But Peter rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it by order unto them, saying,
5 I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me:
6 Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.
7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Peter; slay and eat.
8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.
9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.
10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.
11 And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Caesarea unto me.
12 And the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house:
13 And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter;
14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.
15 And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, as on us at the beginning.
16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.
17 Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ; what was I, that I could withstand God?
18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life.

11:12 doubt

(Gr. diakrinō) (Matt. 21:21; Rom 4:20; 1 Cor. 11:31; James 1:6) G1252: Formed from the roots dia (G1223), meaning "by, through," and krinō (G2919), meaning "separate, approve," this word means "to separate thoroughly, make a distinction, discriminate." It is used to denote either judging between two choices or having a conflict within oneself between two decisions. Here it is used in the second sense, describing the Spirit telling Peter not to have misgivings about what he had experienced and what it meant. This is also the way it is used in Romans 4:20 ("He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief") and James 1:6 ("Let him ask in faith, nothing wavering").

Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.
20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus.
21 And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord.
22 Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch.
23 Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.
24 For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord.
25 Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus, for to seek Saul:
26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

Relief for Judaea

27 And in these days came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch.
28 And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius Caesar.
29 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judaea:
30 Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

Persecution by Herod

12 Now about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church.
2 And he killed James the brother of John with the sword.
3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.)
4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.
5 Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.
6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

The Angel of the Lord Frees Peter

7 And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.
8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.
9 And he went out, and followed him; and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision.
10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.
11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.
12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of 11:26 Christian

(Gr. christianos) (Acts 26:28; 1 Pet. 4:16) G5546: Derived from Christos (G5547), "anointed," this word is only used three times in Scripture but is now the title by which believers in Jesus are usually called. It literally means "belonging to Christ" and denotes someone who is identified with or devoted to Jesus. These are ones of Christ or followers of Christ. This title was perhaps first intended as ridicule but now is a cherished word that recognizes our position in Christ—we belong to Him as His treasured and beloved children.

John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together praying.
13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda.
14 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.
15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is his angel.
16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.
17 But he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.
18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter.
19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judaea to Caesarea, and there abode.

God Smites Herod

20 And Herod was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because their country was nourished by the king's country.
21 And upon a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.
22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.
23 And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.
24 But the word of God grew and multiplied.
25 And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministry, and took with them John, whose surname was Mark.

Saul and Barnabas Sail to Cyprus

13 Now there were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.
2 As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them.
3 And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.
4 So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.
5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John to their minister.
6 And when they had gone through the isle

12:20 with one accord

(Gr. homothymadon) (Acts 1:14; 2:46; 19:29; Rom. 15:6) G3661: A combination of homou (G3674), "same," and thymos (G2372), "passion," this word connotes unity of mind and purpose. In Acts this word refers to a joint or unanimous agreement—either by the disciples in prayer (Acts 1:14) or by an angry mob (Acts 19:29). Paul uses this word in Romans 15:6 to urge unified worship in the church: "That ye may with one mind [homothymadon] and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ." Such worship leads naturally to harmony in relationships and unified, outward-focused ministry to the world.

13:2 minister

(Gr. leitourgeō) (Rom. 15:27; Heb. 10:11) G3008: This is the word from which we get "liturgy." It refers to the performing of religious or charitable acts in service to God, either by prayer and fasting or through meeting the needs of others. The root word means "public minister; servant of the state." In the New Testament this word is used to describe the Aaronic priesthood (Heb. 10:11) as well as Christians serving the Lord by meeting the financial needs of other believers (Rom. 15:27). The focus is on service to God through the fulfillment of an office or ritual at one's own expense. Such acts were usually repeated over and over.

unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Barjesus:
7 Which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.
8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.
9 Then Saul, (who also is called Paul,) filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,
10 And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?
11 And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.
12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

Paul and Barnabas in Antioch

13 Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departing from them returned to Jerusalem.
14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down.
15 And after the reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.
16 Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience.
17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it.
18 And about the time of forty years suffered he their manners in the wilderness.
19 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan, he divided their land to them by lot.
20 And after that he gave unto them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet.
21 And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years.

13:8 sorcerer

(Gr. magos) (Matt. 2:1, 16; Acts 13:6) G3097: Literally rendered "wise man," this word refers to Eastern (especially Persian or Babylonian) specialists in astrology, the interpretation of dreams, and occult arts—what we might call magicians. This was the office of the men who came to visit Jesus (Matt. 2:1). Here in Acts 13 is the only other use of the word in Scripture, referring to Elymas (or Bar-Jesus) who practiced some form of black magic. A cognate of this word is used in Acts 8:9, 11 to describe the work of Simon.

13:9 fill ▸ see Acts 4:8.

13:17 stranger

(Gr. paroikia) (1 Pet. 1:17) G3940: Derived from the words for "beside" (G3844—para) and "house" (G3624—oikos), this term is used for people who live in a place that is not their homeland and in which they do not have the rights of citizenship. Other renderings are "sojourner" and "foreigner." Just as the Israelites were sojourners in Egypt because their permanent homeland was Canaan, so Christians are only temporary residents on earth because our true home is in heaven. First Peter 1:17 points this out: "And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning [paroikia] here in fear."

13:18 suffer

(Gr. tropophoreō) G5159: This Greek word, which occurs only here in the New Testament, means "to bear with." But other manuscripts read "cared for" (literally "carried them as a nurse"). The two Greek words differ in only one letter: etrophophorēsen (meaning "nourished") and etropophorēsen (meaning "bore with"). Nourished is probably a quote from the Septuagint (Greek Old Testament) translation of Deuteronomy 1:31. With that as the reading, Paul in this sermon to Jews at Antioch was emphasizing God's great care for the Israelites in the wilderness. Otherwise, Paul was using the expression "He suffered" as a graphic portrayal of God's patience.

22 And when he had removed him, he raised up unto them David to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.
23 Of this man's seed hath God according to his promise raised unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus:
24 When John had first preached before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.
25 And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But, behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose.
26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent.
27 For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him.
28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain.
29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.
30 But God raised him from the dead:
31 And he was seen many days of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses unto the people.
32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers,
33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.
34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure mercies of David.
35 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.
36 For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:
37 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption.
38 Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins:
39 And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.
40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in the prophets;
41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.
42 And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath.
43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.
44 And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.
45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

13:39 justify

(Gr. dikaioō) (Matt. 11:19; Rom. 8:33) G1344: The basic idea is of vindicating a person, either in a positive (Matt 11:19) or a negative sense (Luke 10:29, "to justify" one's actions). In the New Testament the word is most often a technical term for God's activity (Rom. 8:33) whereby a person is pronounced to be, and be treated as, righteous (dikaios, G1342). In a similar sense God may be "justified" or declared righteous (Luke 7:29; 1 Tim. 3:16). The one who is justified by God receives forgiveness for sins (as here in Acts 13:38, 39). God's activity in justifying people may be associated with various intermediary means such as God's grace (Rom. 3:24) and a person's faith (Rom. 3:28) or works (James 2:24).

46 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles.
47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.
48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.
49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.
50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.
51 But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium.
52 And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the Holy Ghost.

Paul and Barnabas at Iconium

14 And it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed.
2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren.
3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.
4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.
5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them,
6 They were ware of it, and fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about:
7 And there they preached the gospel.

Ministry in Lystra

8 And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked:
9 The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed,
10 Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked.
11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.
12 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker.
13 Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people.
14 Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,
15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:
16 Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.
17 Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain

14:3 grace

(Gr. charis) (Acts 15:11; Rom. 12:3; Gal. 1:6; Col. 4:6) G5485: To a Greek person, anything of beauty, favor, or delight in which a person could rejoice is spoken of as charis (cf. Col 4:6). Most often in the New Testament it designates the general favor or grace that God and Christ show to humanity (as here in Acts 14:3; cf. 15:11). The word became a formulaic way to express God's goodness (cf. Rom 1:7). This divine grace was conceived both as a state of grace in which believers live (Rom. 5:2) and as specific acts of grace that they receive (Gal. 1:6). The word is also used of specific abilities given by God ("apostleship" in Rom. 1:5; cf. 12:3) and of gratitude to God for such gifts (1 Tim. 1:12). Between persons, the word is used of finding favor (cf. Luke 1:30), of asking for a favor (Acts 25:3), or performing a favor for someone else (1 Cor. 16:3).

from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.
18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

Paul Stoned and Left for Dead

19 And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.
20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

The Return to Antioch

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch,
22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.
23 And when they had ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.
24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.
25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia:
26 And thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.
27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles.
28 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

A Dispute Over Circumcision

15 And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.
2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question.
3 And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.
4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them.
5 But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.
6 And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.
7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.
8 And God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us;
9 And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.
10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?
11 But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they.
12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul,

15:2 disputation

(Gr. syzētēsis) (Acts 15:7; 28:29) G4803: The literal meaning of syzētēsis is "a seeking" or "an investigation." This leads to the idea of questioning, controversy, discussion, or dispute. The word is used here and in Acts 15:7 with the sense of intense debate. The related word zētēma (G2213) refers to the specific issue being debated; and the verb zēteō (G2212) means "to seek," and occurs frequently in the New Testament in a variety of senses.

declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them.
13 And after they had held their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me:
14 Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name.
15 And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written,
16 After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up:
17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things.
18 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world.
19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God:
20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood.
21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath day.

Letters to the Gentile Believers

22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren:
23 And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia:
24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment:
25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,
26 Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.
27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth.
28 For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;
29 That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.
30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle:
31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the consolation.
32 And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.
33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles.
34 Notwithstanding it pleased Silas to abide there still.

15:13 James

(Gr. iakōbos) (Matt. 4:21; Mark 15:40; Luke 6:16; Gal. 1:19) G2385: The name James means "supplanter" and is used in the New Testament to refer to four individuals: (1) James the son of Zebedee and brother of John (Mark 1:19), an apostle, killed by order of Herod Agrippa I (Acts 12:2); (2) James the son of Alphaeus (Matt. 10:3), also an apostle, called James the less (Mark 15:40); (3) James the brother of Jesus (Gal. 1:19), probable author of the epistle of James; and (4) James the father of the apostle Judas (Luke 6:16).

15:25 seem good

(Gr. dokeō) (Matt. 6:7; Luke 1:3; Acts 15:28; 1 Cor. 14:37) G1380: The Greek verb can be either active (as the meaning "to be of an opinion" or "to suppose") or intransitive (as the meaning "to seem"). The first construction is the most common, typically rendered "think" (Matt. 6:7; 1 Cor. 8:2); other renderings include "suppose" (Luke 12:51) and "pleased" (Acts 15:22). In 1 Corinthians 14:37 the sense is in terms of self-identity ("If any man think himself to be a prophet"). When used intransitively (as here; see also Acts 25:27), the word carries the sense of something being understood, as from context (e.g., 1 Cor. 3:18).

15:28 seem good ▸ see Acts 15:25.

35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

Paul and Barnabas Disagree

36 And some days after Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.
37 And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark.
38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.
39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus;
40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.
41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the churches.

Timothy Joins Paul and Silas

16 Then came he to Derbe and Lystra: and, behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timotheus, the son of a certain woman, which was a Jewess, and believed; but his father was a Greek:
2 Which was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium.
3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and took and circumcised him because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek.
4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem.
5 And so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

Paul's Macedonian Vision

6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia and the region of Galatia, and were forbidden of the Holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia,
7 After they were come to Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not.
8 And they passing by Mysia came down to Troas.
9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.
10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

Lydia Is Converted and Baptized

11 Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis;
12 And from thence to Philippi, which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.
13 And on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.
14 And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.
15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.
16 And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying:
17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.

16:12 colony

(Gr. kolōnia) G2862: This noun comes from a Latin word and is used only here, referring to Philippi, the city that was reorganized as a military colony by Augustus after the battle of Actium (31 B.C.). It was composed of veterans settled in various cities, usually along the coast. Citizens of such colonies had full Roman legal rights, were under the laws and jurisdiction of Rome, and were free from poll tax and tribute.

18 And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.
19 And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the marketplace unto the rulers,

Paul and Silas Are Beaten and Jailed

20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city,
21 And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans.
22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded to beat them.
23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely:
24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.
25 And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

Conversion of the Prison Keeper

26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.
27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.
28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.
29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?
31 And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.
32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.
33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.
34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.
35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the serjeants, saying, Let those men go.
36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.
37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily;

16:19 marketplace

(Gr. agora) (Matt. 23:7; Mark 12:38; Luke 7:32) G0058: The Greek noun comes from another word meaning "to gather" and refers to a public place where people often gathered for some public event (as here; see also Mark 6:56), to seek work opportunities (Matt. 20:3), or even for children to play (Matt. 11:16). Here the marketplace was used as the location for an impromptu trial. The marketplace of Athens mentioned in Acts 17:17 was the center of public life. In extrabiblical usage the word can refer to any collection or assembly of people.

16:24 charge

(Gr. parangelia) (Acts 5:28; 1 Thess. 4:2; 1 Tim. 1:18) G3852: Literally "of a messenger," this word denotes a command or announcement, a direct order from a person in authority. It is sometimes rendered "charge." The connotation is of a clear instruction given by someone in a position of authority, either an earthly government or God Himself. The apostles were commanded not to preach the gospel (Acts 5:28)—a charge which they disregarded because they chose to obey God's higher command (Acts 5:29). The whole of Paul's instruction to young Timothy is called parangelia (1 Tim. 1:5, 18).

but let them come themselves and fetch us out.
38 And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were Romans.
39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city.
40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

Preaching at Thessalonica

17 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews:
2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures,
3 Opening and alleging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is Christ.
4 And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

Jason's House Assaulted

5 But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.
6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also;
7 Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus.
8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.
9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

The Night Journey to Berea

10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.
11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.
12 Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.
13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.
14 And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.
15 And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

17:3 suffer

(Gr. paschō) (Mark 8:31; Heb. 13:12; 1 Pet. 2:21; 3:18) G3958: English derivatives of this word include "passion," "passive," and "pathos." It means "to be affected, to experience a sensation." In Scripture it is used negatively, describing the experience of pain or suffering. Christ suffered on the cross on our behalf (Mark 8:31; 1 Pet. 3:18), and we share in His suffering (Phil. 1:29). When we do suffer, it should not be the deserved result of sin (1 Pet. 2:19, 20) but should be used to bring comfort to others (2 Cor. 1:6; Heb. 2:18). Scripture puts earthly suffering in perspective, reminding us that it is only temporary: "But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered [paschō] a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you" (1 Pet. 5:10).

17:5 of the baser sort

(Gr. agoraios) (Acts 19:38) G0060: In the New Testament the word agoraios is used to designate persons or things associated with the agora, "market," which was the center of Greek urban life. Here it is used in a negative sense for the rabble that would crowd the agora with nothing to do. In Acts 19:38 the word has a technical legal sense: agoraioi agontai, meaning "the courts are in session."

17:11 noble ▸ see 1 Cor. 1:26.

Paul Waits in Athens

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.
17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.
18 Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said, What will this babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.
19 And they took him, and brought him unto Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?
20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.
21 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)

Paul Addresses the Men of Athens

22 Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious.
23 For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.
24 God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands;
25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;
26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation;
27 That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us:
28 For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.
29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.
30 And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent:
31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.
32 And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.
33 So Paul departed from among them.
34 Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Paul Completes His Journey

18 After these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth;
2 And found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla; (because that Claudius had

17:18 babbler

(Gr. spermologos) G4691: Literally the word spermologos refers to a bird that picks up seeds, such as a crow. It was applied figuratively to a person who "picks up" scraps of conversations or information, a babbler or gossip. Here it is probably used as an insult against Paul as one who seemed to his listeners to have no unified system of philosophy, but rather took bits and pieces from various systems.

17:27 feel after

(Gr. psēlaphaō) (Luke 24:39; 1 John 1:1; Heb. 12:18) G5584: The Greek word psēlaphaō can mean "to touch," "to handle," "to feel about for," or "to grope after," referring here to people's efforts to "feel about for" God in hopes of finding Him. In other instances (Luke 24:39; 1 John 1:1; Heb. 12:18) the touching indicates contact with physical substance.

commanded all Jews to depart from Rome:) and came unto them.
3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers.
4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.
5 And when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ.
6 And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles.
7 And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.
8 And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized.
9 Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:
10 For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city.
11 And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.
12 And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat, 13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.
14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you:
15 But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.
16 And he drave them from the judgment seat.
17 Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gallio cared for none of those things.
18 And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having shorn his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vow.
19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.
20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not;
21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem: but I will return again unto you, if God will. And he sailed from Ephesus.
22 And when he had landed at Caesarea, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch.
23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples.

Apollos Speaks in the Synagogue

24 And a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus.
25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John.

18:3 tentmaker

(Gr. skēnopoios) G4635: Occurring only here in the New Testament, the word skēnopoios means "tentmaker." It is actually a compound of skēnos (G4636), "tent," and poieō (G4160), "to make" or "do." Paul's trade as a tentmaker may have derived from his rearing in Tarsus of Cilicia where the cloth of goats' hair used in making tents was a major product.

18:25 be fervent

(Gr. zeō) (Rom. 12:11) G2204: The Greek word zeō literally means "to boil" but is used only twice in the New Testament, both with the figurative meaning of "be fervent." Both times it is linked with the phrase, "in spirit" or "in the Spirit," and so refers to spiritual fervor or warmth and thus to zeal (here and Rom. 12:11). A related Greek word, 26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, helped them much which had believed through grace:
28 For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publickly, shewing by the scriptures that Jesus was Christ.

The Baptism of John's Disciples

19 And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples,
2 He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost.
3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto John's baptism.
4 Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.
5 When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.
6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied.
7 And all the men were about twelve.
8 And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God.
9 But when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.
10 And this continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

God's Miracles Through Paul

11 And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul:
12 So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.
13 Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.

19:8 synagogue

(Gr. synagōgē) (Matt. 12:9; John 6:59; Acts 22:19; 26:11) G4864: The Greek word means "a bringing together" or "gathering," including an "assembly" as of people (so rendered in James 2:2) or a "congregation" (so rendered in Acts 13:43). In every other instance in the New Testament, the word is rendered "synagogue." The synagogue was the formal place for gathering in first-century Jewish society. Every Jewish town—and even many Gentile cities where a sufficient number of Jews lived—had at least one synagogue. Synagogues seem to have originated during the Babylonian exile and were used for prayer (Matt. 6:5), trials and punishments (Acts 22:19), preaching and teaching (Matt. 4:23), Sabbath and feast-day gatherings (Mark 1:21), and other assemblies.

19:13 name

(Gr. onoma) (Mark 6:14; Acts 9:15; James 5:14; Rev. 3:4) G3686: The common New Testament noun onoma means name and is used most often of one's personal name. While that is the meaning here, the exorcists used Jesus' name as representing the power associated with it (cf. Acts 4:7; 16:18). The ancients took seriously the idea that one's name represented his person and/or character. Indeed onoma can equal "person," as in Acts 1:15 and Revelation 3:4. Especially when used of God or Christ, it suggests His identity and all that He represents; thus, one may "bear His name" (as Acts 9:15) or "call on His name" (James 5:14). The phrase "in the name of" is an idiomatic expression meaning by the authority of; thus, onoma may also mean reputation (as Mark 6:14).

14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.
15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?
16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.
17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.
18 And many that believed came, and confessed, and shewed their deeds.
19 Many of them also which used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.
20 So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.
21 After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.
22 So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

Confusion in Ephesus

23 And the same time there arose no small stir about that way.
24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen;
25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.
26 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they be no gods, which are made with hands:
27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worshippeth.
28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.
29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.
30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.
31 And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.
32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.
33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.
34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.
35 And when the townclerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?
36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.
37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.
38 Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

Paul Visits Macedonia and Greece

20 And after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed for to go into Macedonia.
2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece,
3 And there abode three months. And when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.
4 And there accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus; and of Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus.
5 These going before tarried for us at Troas.
6 And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five days; where we abode seven days.

Eutychus Is Raised from the Dead

7 And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.
8 And there were many lights in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.
9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.
10 And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him said, Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.
11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.
12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

Paul Calls the Ephesian Elders

13 And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.
14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.
15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium; and the next day we came to Miletus.
16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.
17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church.
18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,
19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews:
20 And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publickly, and from house to house,
21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

20:19 humility

(Gr. tapeinophrosynē) (Eph. 4:2; Phil. 2:3; Col. 3:12; 1 Pet. 5:5) G5012: Derived from the words tapeinos (G5011), "low, humble," and phroneō (G5426), "think." Humility is thus regarding oneself as of less importance both in the sight of God and before others. Consequently, one who is humble is willing to serve. The word is often compared to the synonym praÿtēs (G4240), "meekness," which indicates relating submissively toward God or others as a result of a humble view of oneself. The ancient Greeks thought humility indicated a craven or servile spirit, a sense that may be seen in Colossians 2:18, 23. Elsewhere in the New Testament, however, it is a virtue that makes possible Christian unity.

unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:
23 Save that the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me.
24 But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.
25 And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.
26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.
27 For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.
28 Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.
29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.
30 Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.
31 Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.
32 And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.
33 I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.
34 Yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.
35 I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.
36 And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all.
37 And they all wept sore, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, 38 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

Danger in Jerusalem

21 And it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Coos, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara:
2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.
3 Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.
4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.
5 And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.
6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned home again.
7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.
8 And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Caesarea: and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, which was one of the seven; and abode with him.

20:35 give

(Gr. didōmi) (Matt. 5:42; 7:11; 1 Cor. 12:7; Titus 2:14; James 1:5) G1325: Appearing over 400 times in the New Testament, this word for "to give" is used in a wide variety of applications—for example, we are commanded to give a cloak to someone when he asks (Matt. 5:42), we give glory to God (Acts 12:23), Jesus gives grace (James 4:6) and the Holy Spirit (Acts 15:8; 2 Cor. 1:22) to believers, and the Holy Spirit gives gifts for the building up of the body (1 Cor. 12:7). The connotation of this word is that something of value is bestowed on another person freely, with a spirit of generosity. Christ's nature is to give, so such generosity should also characterize His followers. When we do follow His example in this area, we come away blessed.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesy.
10 And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judaea a certain prophet, named Agabus.
11 And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.
12 And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.
13 Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.
14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.
15 And after those days we took up our carriages, and went up to Jerusalem.
16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Caesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

Paul Is Arrested and Bound

17 And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.
18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto James; and all the elders were present.
19 And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry.
20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the law:
21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.
22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.
23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them;
24 Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law.
25 As touching the Gentiles which believe, we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.
26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.
27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him,
28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man, that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.
29 (For they had seen before with him in the city Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)
30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.
31 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.
32 Who immediately took soldiers and 21:26 offering

(Gr. prosphora) (Rom. 15:16; Eph. 5:2; Heb. 10:14) G4376: From the word meaning "to bring, present," this word means either the act of sacrificing or presenting something or the thing that is offered. Jesus perfectly fulfills this word since at the cross He both presented the ultimate sacrifice and was Himself the offering: "And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savour" (Eph. 5:2). That is the example Paul took to heart when he purified himself, not to earn salvation but as an act of devotion to God that would gain him an audience with the Jews.

centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul.
33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done.
34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.
35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people.
36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.
37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?
38 Art not thou that Egyptian, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?
39 But Paul said, I am a man which am a Jew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people.
40 And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

Paul's Testimony

22 Men, brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence which I make now unto you.
2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith,)
3 I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day.
4 And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.
5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.

Saul Meets the Lord

6 And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.
7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?
8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.
9 And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.
10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.
11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.
12 And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good report of all the Jews which dwelt there,
13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

22:3 zealous

(Gr. zēlōtēs) (Acts 21:20; 1 Cor. 14:12; Gal. 1:14; Titus 2:14) G2207: This word describes someone who is burning with zeal, who has a deep commitment to a cause. The picture is of someone so eagerly desiring something that he is almost burning inside. In Titus 2:14 it is combined with the phrase "for good works," referencing the way a believer should live eagerly seeking opportunities to do good. In Paul, such an attitude replaced his former Jewish zeal for the law that is described here and in Galatians 1:14.

15 For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard.
16 And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord.
17 And it came to pass, that, when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance;
18 And saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.
19 And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:
20 And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.
21 And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles.

Paul's Citizenship

22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live.
23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air,
24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.
25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?
26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman.
27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.
28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.
29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.
30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

Paul Addresses the Council

23 And Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.
2 And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him to smite him on the mouth.
3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?
4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?
5 Then said Paul, I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.
6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.
7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.
8 For the Sadducees say that there is no

23:1 live

(Gr. politeuomai) (Phil. 1:27) G4176: Originally meaning "to live as a citizen" or "to have one's citizenship in a city-state" (the polis, G4172). The word also had the broader meaning: "to conduct oneself" or "to live one's life," as here and in Philippians 1:27. In these New Testament occurrences, the idea of living in a manner appropriate for a citizen of the kingdom of heaven may be implicit. For further study, consider the related words politeuma, commonwealth, state, (G4175—Phil. 3:20); politeia, citizenship, commonwealth (G4174—Acts 22:28; Eph. 2:12); and politēs, fellow citizen (G4177—Acts 21:39; Luke 15:15).

resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both.
9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: but if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God.
10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.
11 And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

A Conspiracy to Kill Paul

12 And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.
13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.
14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.
15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.
16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.
17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.
18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.
19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?
20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.
21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.
22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

Paul Taken to Caesarea

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;
24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor.
25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:
26 Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting.
27 This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman.
28 And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council:
29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.
30 And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his

23:11 be of good cheer

(Gr. tharseō) (Matt. 9:22; Mark 10:49; John 16:33) G2293: Derived from a word meaning "courage," this Greek verb is used only eight times in the New Testament, and seven of the eight are spoken by Jesus. Twice He uses it to refute His disciples' fear (Matt. 14:27; Mark 6:50); on other occasions He uses it to comfort the sick prior to miraculous healing (Matt. 9:2) or just afterward (Luke 8:48). In John 16:33, the imperative is more general: "In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world."

accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.
31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.
32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle:
33 Who, when they came to Caesarea, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.
34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of Cilicia;
35 I will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's judgment hall.

Paul Speaks Before Felix

24 And after five days Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul.
2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,
3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.
4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.
5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes:
6 Who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law.
7 But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,
8 Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.
9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

Paul's Defense Before Felix

10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:
11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship.
12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:
13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.
14 But this I confess unto thee, that after the way which they call heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets:
15 And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.
16 And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.
17 Now after many years I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.
18 Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.
19 Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.

24:4 clemency

(Gr. epieikeia) (2 Cor. 10:1) G1932: Taken from the word for "suitable, fair," this word means "what is right and fair—mildness, graciousness, reasonableness, and forbearance." It is behaving in a proper and kind way toward others, respecting them as people made in the image of God. This word only appears here and in 2 Corinthians 10:1: "Now I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness [epieikeia] of Christ, who in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you." Jesus exemplified courtesy and grace, and we are called to display the same as we go about our lives.

have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council, 21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.
22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.
23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.
24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.
25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.
26 He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.
27 But after two years Porcius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

Paul Appeals to Caesar

25 Now when Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Caesarea to Jerusalem.
2 Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,
3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him.
4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.
5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him.
6 And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down unto Caesarea; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought.
7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove.
8 While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Caesar, have I offended any thing at all.
9 But Festus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?
10 Then said Paul, I stand at Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.
11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Caesar.
12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Caesar? unto Caesar shalt thou go.

King Agrippa Visits Festus

13 And after certain days king Agrippa and Bernice came unto Caesarea to salute Festus.
14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:
15 About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

25:10 do wrong

(Gr. adikeō) (Acts 7:26; Col. 3:25; Philem. 18; Rev. 22:11) G0091: Literally rendered "without right," this word means to do injustice or to be unjust. It can refer to violating a human or divine law or to mistreating someone. This person may be a criminal or just a sinner who has violated God's laws. This word often carries a connotation of legal wrongdoing or social injustice, usually with overtones of having hurt or damaged someone in the process. In the final analysis, God will deal with those who do wrong, sometimes using human justice systems to do so: "But he that doeth wrong shall receive for that which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons" (Col. 3:25).

16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.
17 Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.
18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:
19 But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.
20 And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.
21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Caesar.
22 Then Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man myself. To morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

Festus Orders a Hearing

23 And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Festus' commandment Paul was brought forth.
24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought not to live any longer.
25 But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him.
26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.
27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him.

Paul Appears Before Agrippa

26 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself:
2 I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:
3 Especially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.
4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews;
5 Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee.
6 And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers:
7 Unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.
8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?
9 I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.
10 Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.
11 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme;

26:5 religion

(Gr. thrēskeia) (Col. 2:18; James 1:26) G2356: This noun means religion in the sense of outward duties of one's belief. Here it is used for the sect of Judaism; elsewhere it is used for the cult of angel worship (Col. 2:18). It can also refer to the essentials of true religion—the charity that is motivated by the love of God (James 1:26, 27).

and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

Paul Describes His Conversion

12 Whereupon as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests,
13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.
14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.
15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.
16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;
17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee,
18 To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.
19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:
20 But shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judaea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.
21 For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.
22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come:
23 That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

Almost Persuaded

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad.
25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.
26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.
27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.
28 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.
29 And Paul said, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.
30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them:
31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds.
32 Then said Agrippa unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Caesar.

Paul Sent to Rome

27 And when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band.

26:20 repent

(Gr. metanoeō) (Matt. 3:2; Acts 2:38) G3340: Verb compounded from meta, "after," and noeō, "perceive, think," meaning "to change one's mind," "to feel regret," or "to repent." Although associated with the idea of "turning to God" (as here), the primary meaning of metanoeō relates to turning away from evil (Acts 8:22; cf. Rev. 9:20, 21). It may imply not only ceasing evil acts but also beginning good ones ("fruit meet for repentance," Matt. 3:8). John the Baptist preached to Israel, "Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand" (Matt. 3:2; cf. 4:17), and this call was continued in the preaching of the apostles (cf. Acts 2:38).

26:28 Christian ▸ see Acts 11:26.

2 And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia; one Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.
3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.
4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.
5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.
6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us therein.
7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under Crete, over against Salmone;
8 And, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The fair havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.
9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them,
10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.
11 Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.
12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the south west and north west.

A Storm Arises

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.
14 But not long after there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon.
15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.
16 And running under a certain island which is called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat:
17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.
18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;
19 And the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.
20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.
21 But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.
22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.
23 For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve,
24 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Caesar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.
25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.
26 Howbeit we must be cast upon a certain island.

The Shipwreck

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;
28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

27:10 hurt

(Gr. hybris) (Acts 27:21; 2 Cor. 12:10) G5196: This word has entered English usage in its original form—hubris, meaning "insolence, pride, or haughtiness." The original definition is "hurt resulting from insolence" or "damage caused by the elements, trouble." It is only used three times in Scripture, in this chapter translated "hurt" and "harm" and in 2 Corinthians 12:10 translated "reproaches." The connotation is that a hostile force is working against a person.

27:21 harm ▸ see Acts 27:10.

29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.
30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship,
31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.
32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.
33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.
34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat: for this is for your health: for there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.
35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.
36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.
37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen souls.
38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.
39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.
40 And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.
41 And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.
42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.
43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:
44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land.

Paul's Healing Ministry on Melita

28 And when they were escaped, then they knew that the island was called Melita.
2 And the barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.
3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.
4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.
5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm.
6 Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.
7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.
8 And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him.
9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:
10 Who also honoured us with many honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

27:42 counsel ▸ see Eph. 1:11.

28:2 kindness

(Gr. philanthrōpia) (Titus 3:4) G5363: The Greek word philanthrōpia means "kindness" or "love for humanity." It is a compound from the word philos (G5384), "loving, affectionate," and the noun anthrōpos (G0444) "man," and is the source of the English word, philanthropy. Here in Acts 28:2 it refers to the hospitality extended to the victims of a shipwreck. In Titus 3:4 the word appears with its earliest sense of "the love for, and kindness extended to, humanity by God." The related word philanthrōpōs (G5364), "kindly, benevolently," occurs in the New Testament only at Acts 27:3.

Paul Arrives at Rome

11 And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Castor and Pollux.
12 And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days.
13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli:
14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rome.
15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii forum, and The three taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.
16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him.

Paul Speaks to the Jews

17 And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.
18 Who, when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.
19 But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to appeal unto Caesar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.
20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain.
21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Judaea concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came shewed or spake any harm of thee.
22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken against.
23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.

Some Believe and Some Do Not

24 And some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.
25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Ghost by Esaias the prophet unto our fathers,
26 Saying, Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive:
27 For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.
28 Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it.
29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.
30 And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him, 31 Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

28:30 Paul

(Gr. paulos) (Acts 16:28; 18:9; 2 Thess. 1:1; Philem. 19) G3972: Two people in the New Testament are called by this name, which means "little": Sergius Paulus, a Roman proconsul (who is mentioned only once); and the apostle Paul. Paul's original name was Saul (Acts 7:58). He was a Pharisee (Acts 23:6), a Roman citizen by birth (Acts 22:28), and a violent opponent of the early Christians (Acts 8:3) until his miraculous conversion on the road to Damascus (Acts 9:1–6). After his conversion, he was known as Paul (Acts 13:9). Subsequently he became an indefatigable evangelist and preacher of Christ. In addition to his three missionary journeys, which were instrumental in the genesis of the early church, he is credited with having written 13 of the 21 New Testament epistles.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE ROMANS

ROMANS, PAUL'S GREATEST WORK, IS placed first among his 13 epistles in the New Testament. While the four Gospels present the words and works of Jesus Christ, Romans explores the significance of His sacrificial death. Using a question-and-answer format, Paul records the most systematic presentation of doctrine in the Bible. Romans is more than a book of theology; it is also a book of practical exhortation. The good news of Jesus Christ is more than facts to be believed; it is also a life to be lived—a life of righteousness befitting the person, "justified freely by [God's] grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus" (3:24).

Although some manuscripts omit "in Rome" in 1:7, 15, the title Pros Romaious, "To the Romans," has been associated with the epistle almost from the beginning.

- transform (change form)—12:2
- flesh (the lower nature of a person)—13:14 (also 7:25; 8:4–9)

Paul's Salutation

1 Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God,
2 (Which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,)
3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh;
4 And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead:
5 By whom we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name:
6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ:
7 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Paul Longs to Visit Rome

8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.
9 For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers;

1:3 seed

(Gr. sperma) (Matt. 13:37; Mark 12:19; John 7:42; Acts 3:25; Gal. 3:16) G4690: Referring to either the seed of plants or to a person's descendants, this word is extended in Scripture to refer metaphorically to spiritual offspring (Gal. 3:29). The root word means "to sow or scatter seed." John uses this word to refer to the descendants of Abraham (John 8:33, 37). The most important uses of this word are referring to Jesus as the seed of David (John 7:42), but it is made clear throughout Romans (Rom. 4:16; 9:8) that Jesus' work on the cross made it possible for anyone to become a seed of Abraham—saved by grace through faith.

10 Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God to come unto you.
11 For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;
12 That is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me.
13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles.
14 I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise.
15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

The Just Shall Live by Faith

16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.
17 For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith.

God's Wrath Against Ungodliness

18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness;
19 Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them.
20 For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:
21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.
22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,
23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.
24 Wherefore God also gave them up to 1:11 impart

(Gr. metadidōmi) (Luke 3:11; Rom. 12:8; Eph. 4:28; 1 Thess. 2:8) G3330: A compound word formed from meta (G3326), "with, after" and didōmi (G1325), "to give," this word means "to give over, share, impart, distribute." Generosity and liberality in giving are implied. This is the type of giving that compels someone to work hard so he can share with someone in need (Luke 3:11; Eph. 4:28) and to share both the gospel and his very life out of love (1 Thess. 2:8).

1:17 righteousness

(Gr. dikaiosynē) (Matt. 5:6; Rom. 3:22; Phil. 3:9) G1343: Derived from judicial contexts—referring to the judge or to the requirements of the law—this word means "righteousness, uprightness, justice." It refers to doing the right thing, observing divine laws, or holiness. In Scripture it denotes right standing with God—a status which can only be attained through faith in Christ. Paul writes to the Romans, "But now the righteousness [dikaiosynē] of God without the law is manifested . . . even the righteousness [dikaiosynē] of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe." (Rom. 3:21, 22). The phrase "the righteousness of God" refers either to being right before God (being found guiltless) or to right standing provided by God through faith in Christ. These two meanings are closely related.

1:21 vain

(Gr. metaioō) G3154: Used only here in Scripture, this word means "to make vain, empty, foolish." The root word means "useless, devoid of force, without purpose." Those who do not honor God become increasingly foolish in their thinking to the point where their thoughts lack logical coherence. In the end their thoughts, just like their lives, lack any sort of lasting purpose.

uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves:
25 Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.
26 For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:
27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.
28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient;
29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,
30 Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,
31 Without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful:
32 Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

God's Righteous Judgment

2 Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things.
2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things.
3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?
4 Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?
5 But after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;
6 Who will render to every man according to his deeds:
7 To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life:
8 But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath,
9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile;
10 But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile:
11 For there is no respect of persons with God.
12 For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law;
13 (For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

1:29 whisperer

(Gr. psithyristēs) G5588: This word appears only here in the New Testament. It is an example of onomatopoeia—a word sounding like what it represents. The "ps," "th," and "s" sounds all suggest whispering. The word has a negative connotation of whispering slander. However, it is differentiated from katalalos, "slanderer" (G2637—Romans 1:30), in that whispering is done behind someone's back.

the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves:

16 In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel.

Cautions Against Hypocrisy

17 Behold, thou art called a Jew, and restest in the law, and makest thy boast of God,
18 And knowest his will, and approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law;
19 And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness,
20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.
21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?
22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege?
23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?
24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written.
25 For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.
26 Therefore if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?
27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?
28 For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:
29 But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

God Is Faithful and Just

3 What advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?
2 Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of God.
3 For what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?
4 God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.
5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is

2:23 breaking

(Gr. parabasis) (Gal. 3:19; 1 Tim. 2:14; Heb. 9:15) G3847: The Greek word parabasis literally means "transgression." It is derived from the verb parabainō (G3845), which is translated "to go" or "to turn aside" (as Acts 1:25) but is used figuratively with terms such as "law" or "tradition" to mean "transgress" (Matt. 15:2). It is in this latter sense that the noun parabasis refers to a violation of an established, known law. As here in Romans 2:23, the "law" that is violated may be a general rather than a specific one. Those who customarily violate the law are described as "transgressors," using the related Greek word parabatēs (G3848—Rom. 2:25).

3:4 true

(Gr. alēthēs) (John 5:32; 19:35; Phil. 4:8; 1 John 2:8) G0227: Literally rendered "not hidden," this word implies transparency. It means "genuine, real, unconcealed, true." Opposites are "false, concealed, and inconsistent." In Scripture this word is often used in conjunction with legal testimony (John 8:17)—an image that was used to confirm the deity of Christ, for Jesus was proven true based on the testimony of God Himself (John 5:31, 32). In fact, all we know about God rests on the fact that He is alēthēs—He is true, consistent, and faithful all the time. Believers should seek that same kind of truth and transparency in their lives, freely displaying the glory of God by the way they live.

God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man)
6 God forbid: for then how shall God judge the world?
7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?
8 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.

No One Is Righteous

9 What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin;
10 As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one:
11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.
12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.
13 Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips:
14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:
15 Their feet are swift to shed blood:
16 Destruction and misery are in their ways:
17 And the way of peace have they not known:
18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.
19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.
20 Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

God's Righteousness by Faith

21 But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets;
22 Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:
23 For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;
24 Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:
25 Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;
26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

3:24 redemption

(Gr. apolytrōsis) (Luke 21:28; Rom. 8:23; Eph. 1:7; Col. 1:14) G0629: The Greek word apolytrōsis refers to the buying back or freeing (of a slave) by payment of the redemption price. Its New Testament occurrences emphasize both the price (Jesus' blood in Eph. 1:7; Col. 1:14) and the resulting freedom. The use of apolytrōsis and its cognates in salvation contexts implies the complete liberation of those redeemed by Christ from their former slavery. The related Greek word lytrōsis essentially means the same thing (G3085—Luke 1:68; 2:38); and elsewhere in the New Testament different authors use the verb lytroō, free by paying ransom, redeem (G3084—1 Pet. 1:18); and noun lytron, ransom price (G3083—only in Matt. 20:28; Mark 10:45).

3:25 propitiation

(Gr. hilastērion) (Heb. 9:5) G2435: Used twice in the New Testament, this term is derived from the Greek verb hilaskomai, a word that has three meanings: (1) "to placate" or "to appease"; (2) "to be propitious and merciful"; or (3) "to make propitiation for someone." The New Testament never describes people appeasing God. Instead, as Luke 18:13 and 1 John 2:2 make clear, the New Testament describes God as being merciful to, or making propitiation, for us. God provides a merciful expiation, or atonement, of the sins of believers through the death of Christ. But since Paul also speaks of God's wrath, it must also speak of the conciliation of God's anger by means of a sacrifice—namely, the sacrifice of His Son. John states that God demonstrated His love to us by sending His Son to become "the propitiation for our sins" (1 John 4:10). Just as in the Old Testament God met His people when the blood of the sin offering was sprinkled on the altar, so Christ's death brings us into fellowship with God.

3:25 sin ▸ see Mark 3:28.

27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.
28 Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.
29 Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:
30 Seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.
31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

Justification Through Faith

4 What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?
2 For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.
3 For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.
4 Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.
5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.
6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,
7 Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.
8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.
9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.
10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.
11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:
12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

A Father of Many Nations

13 For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.
14 For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:
15 Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.
16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all,
17 (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were.
18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations,

4:3 count

(Gr. logizomai) (Mark 15:28; Rom. 2:26; 2 Cor. 5:19; Gal. 3:6) G3049: Used 11 times in Romans 4, this word comes from the world of accounting. From it we get words like "logistic" and "logarithm." It means "to count, impute, calculate, consider, reckon, value." It is a judgment, a combining of evidence to determine a logical outcome wherein every action is either debited against or credited toward righteousness. The thrust of this chapter is that God imputes to our account the righteousness of Christ so that His holiness and guiltlessness becomes ours. This idea goes all the way back to Genesis 15:6, where Abraham's faith was imputed or accounted as righteousness.

4:4 debt

(Gr. opheilēma) (Matt. 6:12) G3783: Used only twice in the New Testament, the word opheilēma describes what is owed or one's due, thus "debt." Here the wages for which one works are considered owed because they have been earned; they are not an undeserved favor. In the Lord's Prayer the word is used figuratively of liability for wrongdoing (Matt. 6:12; the parallel Luke 11:4 reads "sins"). The verb form of this word is opheilō, "to owe," or "be obligated," "sin" (G3784— 1 Cor. 7:3).

according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be.
19 And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb:
20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God;
21 And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform.
22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.
23 Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;
24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead;
25 Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.

Justified by the Blood of Christ

5 Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:
2 By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.
3 And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience;
4 And patience, experience; and experience, hope:
5 And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.
6 For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.
7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.
8 But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.
9 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.
10 For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.
11 And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.

4:25 justification

(Gr. dikaiōsis) (Rom. 5:18) G1347: The Greek noun for justification is derived from the Greek verb dikaioō, meaning "to acquit" or "to declare righteous" (used by Paul in Rom. 4:2, 5; 5:1). It is a legal term used of a favorable verdict in a trial. The word, used only twice in the New Testament, depicts a courtroom setting, with God presiding as the Judge, determining the faithfulness of each person to the Law. In the first section of Romans, Paul makes it clear that no one can withstand God's judgment (Rom. 3:9–20). The Law was not given to justify sinners but to expose their sin. To remedy this deplorable situation, God sent His Son to die for our sins, in our place. When we believe in Jesus, God imputes His righteousness to us, and we are declared righteous before God. In this way, God demonstrates that He is both a righteous Judge and the One who declares us righteous, our Justifier (Rom. 3:26).

5:10 reconcile

(Gr. katallassō) (1 Cor. 7:11; 2 Cor. 5:18) G2644: A verb meaning "to reconcile," whether of husband and wife (1 Cor. 7:11) or of God and man (here and 2 Cor. 5:20). As applied to divine-human relations, the word indicates a change in relationship, the restoration of a broken relationship between God and persons at God's initiative. The related noun katallagē, "reconciliation," occurs only in the same contexts (G2643—Rom. 5:11; 11:15; 2 Cor. 5:18, 19). The English word "atonement" carries the same idea of "oneness."

5:11 atonement

(Gr. katallagē) (Rom. 11:15; 2 Cor. 5:18) G2643: The Greek word basically means "change" or "exchange." In the context of relationships between people, the term implies a change in attitude on the part of both individuals, a change from enmity to friendship. When used to describe the relationship existing between God and a person, the term implies the change of attitude on the part of both a person and God. The need to change the sinful ways of a human being is obvious; but

The Abundant Grace of Christ

12 Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:
13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.
14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come.
15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many.
16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.
17 For if by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.)
18 Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life.
19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.
20 Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:
21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

Walk in Newness of Life

6 What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?
2 God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?
3 Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death?
4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.
5 For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:
6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.
7 For he that is dead is freed from sin.
8 Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:
9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

some argue that no change is needed on the part of God. But inherent in the doctrine of justification is the changed attitude of God toward the sinner. God declares a person who was formerly His enemy to be righteous before Him.

5:19 disobedience

(Gr. parakoē) (2 Cor. 10:6; Heb. 2:2) G3876: The Greek word parakoē is derived from the verb parakouō (G3878), literally "overhear" or "ignore," but extended to include the sense "refuse to listen" or "disobey" (Matt. 18:17). In both the Old Testament and New Testament, disobedience is often portrayed as a refusal to listen (Jer. 35:17; Acts 7:57). Here in Romans 5:19, parakoē is the one man's disobedience through which sin entered the world. Paul uses the antonym hypakoē (G5218), "obedience," in this same verse.

5:19 righteous ▸ see Matt. 1:19.

6:5 planted together

(Gr. symphytos) G4854: The expression, which occurs only here in the New Testament, means "to grow in union" or "to plant in union." The word describes two plants that have been planted together and are growing together, closely entwined or even united. The context speaks of union, our union with Christ in His death (Rom. 6:4) and resurrection (Rom. 6:5). Our union with Christ in death is like being planted with Him. Like a seed, our sinful natures must die with Christ so that we might grow in Christ and bear spiritual fruit (John 12:24). Our union with Christ is now a loving union, in which we are growing with Him "in the likeness of his resurrection."

10 For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.
11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.
12 Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.
13 Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.
14 For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

Servants of Righteousness

15 What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.
16 Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?
17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you.
18 Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.
19 I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.
20 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness.
21 What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.
22 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.
23 For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Deliverance from the Law

7 Know ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?
2 For the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.
3 So then if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.
4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God.

6:14 law

(Gr. nomos) (Matt. 5:18; Rom. 7:21; 8:2; Gal. 2:16; 5:14; Heb. 8:4) G3551: The Greek term for law here means an inward principle of action—either good or evil—operating with the regularity of a law. The term also designates a standard for a person's life. The apostle Paul described three such laws. The first is called "the law of sin" which was operating through his flesh, causing him to sin. Paul, like all other believers, needed another law to overcome "the law of sin." This is "the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus," which makes us "free from the law of sin and death" (Rom. 8:2). By following this law, believers can actually fulfill the righteous requirements of God's law (Rom. 8:4)—which is the third law in this section; it is the standard for human action that corresponds to the righteous nature of God.

6:16 obedience ▸ see 2 Cor. 10:5.

6:17 obey

(Gr. hypakouō) (Matt. 8:27; Mark 1:27; Eph. 6:1; Heb. 5:9) G5219: Derived from a combination of a preposition meaning "under" and a verb meaning "to hear," this verb's literal meaning is "to be in subjection to" (i.e., to hear in submission; to obey). When Jesus spoke to the wind and waves, they obeyed Him (Matt. 8:27), as did the unclean spirits (Mark 1:27). It is used of obedience to one's parents (Eph. 6:1), a master (Eph. 6:5), a husband (1 Pet. 3:6), the Lord (Heb. 5:9), or the teaching and preaching of the gospel (as here; see also Rom. 10:16; 2 Thess. 3:14). When one obeys the truth, one submits to its authority.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death.
6 But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

The Struggle Against Sin

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet.
8 But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without the law sin was dead.
9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.
10 And the commandment, which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.
11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.
12 Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.
13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.
14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin.
15 For that which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.
16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.
17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.
18 For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.
19 For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.
20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.
21 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.
22 For I delight in the law of God after the inward man:
23 But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.
24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?
25 I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

7:13 exceeding

(Gr. hyperbolē) (1 Cor. 12:31; 2 Cor. 1:8; 12:7) G5236: The Greek noun means "throwing beyond" (coming from a combination of a preposition meaning "beyond" and a noun that means "throwing"); hence, the figurative sense is of excess, superiority, or excellence. The word is used just eight times in seven verses in the New Testament, and renderings range from "more excellent" (1 Cor. 12:31) to "beyond measure" (Gal. 1:13) to "abundance" (2 Cor. 12:7). As is evident from the transliteration, the Greek word is the same one from which the English word hyperbole (meaning "extravagant exaggeration") is derived.

7:25 mind

(Gr. nous) (1 Cor. 1:10; Eph. 4:23; 2 Thess. 2:2) G3563: The word refers both to the intellect (the faculties of perceiving and understanding) and the empirical mind (the faculties of feeling, judging, and determining) as well as to the more spiritual capacity for perceiving divine things and recognizing goodness and hating evil. For this reason, a possible rendering is "understanding" (Luke 24:45; Phil. 4:7). The word can refer to the mind (or understanding) of a single man (as Rom. 7:23—"my mind"), all men (Rom. 14:5), the Lord (Rom. 11:34), and Christ (1 Cor. 2:16).

8:2 law ▸ see Rom. 6:14.

Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.
3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:
4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.
5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.
6 For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.
7 Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.
8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.
9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.
10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.
11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

Led by the Spirit

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.
13 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.
14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.
15 For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.
16 The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:
17 And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

Anticipation of Glory

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.
19 For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.
20 For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope,
21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.
22 For we know that the whole creation

8:2 make free

(Gr. eleutheroō) (John 8:36; Rom. 6:18; Gal. 5:1) G1659: The verb means "to set at liberty" and is used in the New Testament only in a spiritual sense to refer to believers' being freed from sin and death (as here), corruption (Rom. 8:21), and the Mosaic law (Gal. 5:1). It can imply a freedom that is eschatological in its fullest experience (Rom. 8:21). John 8:36 speaks of being made free by Christ, suggesting that the Christian lives as a person free to perform God's will rather than as a slave either to a ritualistic law or to the flesh.

8:15 Father

(Gr. abba) (Mark 14:36; Gal. 4:6) G0005: The word is of Aramaic origin and means "father." Abba is one of a handful of Aramaic expressions adopted by the Greek-speaking church. Originally a childhood word similar to the English Papa or Daddy, by New Testament times it had become a term of respect and endearment both for one's own father and for elders. In His agony in Gethsemane, Jesus used the term as an address to God in prayer (Mark 14:36), apparently in keeping with Jewish practice. Here, Paul uses abba as the natural address by the children of God to the One who has adopted them into His family. Galatians 4:6 contrasts being a slave with the intimate relationship a son or daughter has with the beloved Father.

groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.
23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.
24 For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?
25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.
26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.
27 And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God.

More Than Conquerors

28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.
29 For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren.
30 Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.
31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?
32 He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?
33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth.
34 Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.
35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?
36 As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.
37 Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.
38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,
39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from

8:29 predestinate

(Gr. proorizō) (Acts 4:28; 1 Cor. 2:7; Eph. 1:5, 11) G4309: To predestinate means "to mark out beforehand," "to establish one's boundary, or one's limits, beforehand." Our English word horizon is a derivative of this Greek word. The Christian's ultimate destiny or horizon has been fixed by God from all eternity: to be made like His Son. Note how the words predestinated, called, justified, and especially glorified in Romans 8:29, 30 are in the past tense. That is because God, from His eternal perspective, sees this process as having been completed already. From God's perspective, we have been glorified already because He sees us righteous because of the work of Jesus on the Cross. But still, in the march of time, we must undergo the process of being conformed to the image of God's Son.

8:37 more than conqueror

(Gr. hypernikaō) G5245: This particular combination of hyper (G5228), "over, in behalf of" and nikaō (G3528), "to conquer, overcome," is used only here in Scripture. It denotes gaining a surpassing victory, conquering over and above an ordinary victory. This is overpowering, abundant victory; Christians are "super conquerors." The confidence of such victory comes from Christ's work on the cross that conquered sin and death on our behalf and enables us to conquer the difficulties in our lives.

Paul's Burden for Israel

9 I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost,
2 That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.
3 For I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:
4 Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises;
5 Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.
6 Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel:
7 Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called.
8 That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.
9 For this is the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son.
10 And not only this; but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac;
11 (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth;)
12 It was said unto her, The elder shall serve the younger.
13 As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

God Shows Mercy as He Wills

14 What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid.
15 For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.
16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.
17 For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.
18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.
19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For who hath resisted his will?
20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?
21 Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?
22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured

9:3 accursed

(Gr. anathema) (Acts 23:14; 1 Cor. 12:3; 16:22; Gal. 1:8) G0331: Originally the Greek noun meant "that which has been devoted to God." In the Septuagint, it carries a negative sense: "that which has been devoted to God for destruction" (Josh. 6:17, 18); that is, a thing accursed. In the New Testament, similarly, it is used with a negative meaning each of the six times it occurs—a thing (or person) to be cursed, destroyed. In the same vein, in Acts 23:14, the rendering is "great curse."

9:6 word ▸ see John 1:1.
9:9 promise ▸ see 2 Cor. 1:20.

9:15 have mercy

(Gr. eleeō) (Matt. 5:7; Rom. 11:31; 2 Cor. 4:1; 1 Pet. 2:10) G1653: This word means "to show mercy; have compassion on." It is showing kindness and offering help to someone in need, having pity on him. This is concern expressed in action, not mere emotional pity. Those who care for the sick perform this act, as well as God who cures our soul sickness. Jesus offered both physical and spiritual mercy to the blind men who begged for mercy in Matthew 9:27. God's mercy is evidence of His gracious and faithful benevolence toward us. Believers are called to imitate the mercy of God, for He promises, "Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy" (Matt. 5:7).

with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction:
23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory,
24 Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?
25 As he saith also in Osee, I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.
26 And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God.
27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:
28 For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.
29 And as Esaias said before, Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we had been as Sodoma, and been made like unto Gomorrha.

Israel Stumbles

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith.
31 But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness.
32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumblingstone;
33 As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

Israel's Rejection of Christ

10 Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.
2 For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.
3 For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.
4 For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.
5 For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth those things shall live by them.
6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart,

9:23 mercy

(Gr. eleos) (Matt. 9:13; Luke 1:78; Eph. 2:4; 2 John 3) G1656: The word means (and is always rendered) "mercy," a manifestation of compassion—not merely a feeling but an action—for one in distress. Mercy is different from grace, which emphasizes that favor is not deserved. Mercy, in contrast, emphasizes the misery that elicits response. The word may refer to mercy shown by people to one another (Luke 10:37), mercy shown by God to people in general (Luke 1:58), or the mercy that comes in Christ for redemption (Rom. 15:9).

9:29 Sabaoth ▸ see James 5:4.
9:32 stumblingstone ▸ see 1 Cor. 8:9.

10:2 zeal

(Gr. zēlos) (John 2:17; Acts 5:17; 2 Cor. 9:2; Phil. 3:6) G2205: This noun can be used either positively, meaning "ardor" or "earnestness" (thus, "zeal"), or negatively, meaning "jealousy" or "envy." Another similarly negative rendering is "indignation" (Acts 5:17; Heb. 10:27). Several of the positive uses in the New Testament have been influenced by the Jewish concept of "holy zeal" (see 2 Cor. 11:2—"godly jealousy"). When plural in the negative sense, as in 2 Corinthians 12:20, the word refers to the various manifestations of jealousy. In Galatians 5:20, the same rendering ("emulations") is used, and the word appears in a list of grievous sins including idolatry and sorcery.

10:3 ignorant

(Gr. agnoeō) (Rom. 11:25; 1 Cor. 12:1; 1 Thess. 4:13) G0050: The Greek verb is a joining of a negative participle with a word that means "to understand"—thus the literal meaning is "to not understand" or "to be ignorant" (to not know). In Hebrews 5:2, the word is rendered "those who are ignorant" and carries the sense of erring or sinning through mistake (ignorance of the proper behavior), as opposed to willful disobedience. In 2 Corinthians 6:9, the word refers to men who are unknown, not familiar. Similarly, in Galatians 1:22, the word describes a single man who is unknown (to the churches).

Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:)
7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.)
8 But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;
9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.
10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.
11 For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.
12 For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.
13 For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

Preaching to a Disobedient People

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?
15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!
16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report?
17 So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.
18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.
19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.
20 But Esaias is very bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.
21 But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

A Remnant Remains

11 I say then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.
2 God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,
3 Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.
4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.
5 Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.
6 And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.
7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded
8 (According as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day.
9 And David saith, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumblingblock, and a recompence unto them:

11:9 recompence

(Gr. antapodoma) (Luke 14:12) G0468: This word appears only twice in the New Testament and literally means "the thing paid back" or "repayment"; the nuance of the word may be either positive (reward) or negative (retribution). In this verse Paul is quoting Psalm 68:23 from the Septuagint (equivalent to Psalm 69:22 in English Bibles), where the word has its negative sense, indicating that unbelieving Israelites, in contrast to the godly remnant, will be punished for their unbelief. In Luke 14:12–14, Jesus warns against inviting only people who can return your invitation so that you will get a reward. He tells His people to show charity to the unfortunate; then they will "be recompensed at the resurrection of the just."

10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back alway.

New Branches Graffed In

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy.
12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness?
13 For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office:
14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and might save some of them.
15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?
16 For if the firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.
17 And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert graffed in among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree;
18 Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.
19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be graffed in.
20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but fear:
21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.
22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.
23 And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graff them in again.
24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert graffed contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be graffed into their own olive tree?

God's Covenant with Israel

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.
26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:
27 For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.
28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes.
29 For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance.

11:25 blindness

(Gr. pōrōsis) (Mark 3:5; Eph. 4:18) G4457: Used only three times in the New Testament, this word in its original sense is a medical term, meaning "covering with a callus." It describes the way bones calcify and harden when they are broken, or a hardening of the eyes that blinds a person. Metaphorically, which is how it is used in Scripture, it means "lack of perception." It denotes a mind that has been blunted through stubbornness and obstinacy. When we rebel against God and are proud in our hearts, our minds become hardened to truth and we become spiritually blinded, as happened to the Israelites.

11:26 ungodliness

(Gr. asebeia) (Rom. 1:18; 2 Tim. 2:16; Titus 2:12; Jude 15) G0763: Derived from the verb asebeō (G0764), itself the negative of the verb sebō (G4576—reverence, worship), asebeia means to act impiously (2 Pet. 2:6) or commit impious deeds (Jude 15). The noun asebeia is used to describe the irreligious attitudes and conduct of unbelievers (Rom. 1:18). It designates irreligion in general (as here in Rom. 11:26). The related adjective asebēs (G0765) means "impious" or "ungodly" (2 Pet. 3:7), whereas the antonym eusebeia (G2150) means "godliness" or "religion" (2 Pet. 1:3).

God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:
31 Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

Glory to God

33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!
34 For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?
35 Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?
36 For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen.

The Perfect Will of God

12 I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.
2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.
3 For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.
4 For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:
5 So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.
6 Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;
7 Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or he that teacheth, on teaching;
8 Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

12:2 conform

(Gr. syschēmatizō) (1 Pet. 1:14) G4964: Formed from the root syn (G4862), "with," and schēma (G4976), "the figure or external condition," this word refers to conforming oneself in outward appearance to a model or pattern. From this word we get "scheme" and "schematic." In both of the places it is used in Scripture, here and 1 Peter 1:14, it refers to being conformed to the ways of the world, especially its passions and lusts. We are to conform ourselves to the image of Christ, not to the pattern of the world.

12:2 transform

(Gr. metamorphoō) (Matt. 17:2; 2 Cor. 3:18) G3339: The Greek word means "to change form," as does the English derivative metamorphosis. In the New Testament, this word is used to describe an inward renewal of our mind through which our inner spirit is changed into the likeness of Christ. Paul told the Roman believers: "Be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind" (Rom. 12:2). As our Christian life progresses, we should gradually notice that our thought life is being changed from Christlessness to Christlikeness. Transformation does not happen overnight. Our regeneration is instantaneous, but our transformation is continuous. We are conformed to Christ's image gradually as we spend time in intimate fellowship with Him (2 Cor. 3:18).

12:2 renew ▸ see Titus 3:5.
12:2 mind ▸ see Matt. 22:37.
12:3 grace ▸ see Acts 14:3.

12:6 prophecy

(Gr. prophēteia) (1 Cor. 12:10; 1 Thess. 5:20; 1 Tim. 4:14; Rev. 11:6) G4394: The word prophēteia may imply prophetic activity (as Rev. 11:6), the prophetic utterance (as 2 Pet. 1:20), or the gift of prophesying (as here in Rom. 12:6; cf. 1 Cor. 12:10). The terms in this word group are derived from a compound of the proposition pro (G4253), "before," and the verb phēmi (G5346), "to speak." Thus the noun prophētēs (G4396), "prophet," is one who speaks before and for God, giving God's revealed word to others (whether for the future or for the present).

12:8 give ▸ see Rom. 1:11.

12:8 cheerfulness

(Gr. hilarotēs) G2432: As it sounds, this is the word from which we get "hilarity" and "hilarious." It is

Overcome Evil with Good

9 Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.
10 Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another;
11 Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit;
serving the Lord;
12 Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation;
continuing instant in prayer;
13 Distributing to the necessity of saints;
given to hospitality.
14 Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.
15 Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.
16 Be of the same mind one toward another.
Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.
17 Recompense to no man evil for evil.
Provide things honest in the sight of all men.
18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.
19 Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.
20 Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.
21 Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

Be Subject to Higher Powers

13 Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God.
2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.
3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:
4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain:
for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.
5 Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.
6 For for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.
7 Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

Love One Another

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.
9 For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.
10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour:
therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.
11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.
12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand:
let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light.
13 Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying.

only used here in Scripture. It means "graciousness, joyfulness, gladness, merriment, affability." Elsewhere this word is used to describe the demeanor of those who are visiting the sick to cheer them up. This is someone who enters the room and lights it up with his goodwill, laughter, and cheer—thereby spreading joy to others.

Christian Liberty

14 Him that is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubtful disputations.
2 For one believeth that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.
3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.
4 Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.
5 One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.
6 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.
7 For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.
8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.
9 For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.
10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.
11 For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

We Are All Accountable

12 So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.
13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.
14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.
15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.
16 Let not then your good be evil spoken of:
17 For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.
18 For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

13:14 provision

(Gr. pronoia) (Acts 24:2) G4307: Appearing only here and in Acts 24:2, this word means "provision, forethought, providence." This is a premeditated plan, something that has been carefully prepared in advance. The root words are pro (G4253), "before," and noeō (G3539) "to think, contemplate." In our fight against the sinful desires of the flesh we must not plan for or make preparations to satisfy them. Instead, our planning should be devoted to how we can avoid sinful acts and our preparations should be devoted to how we can do the right things.

13:14 flesh

(Gr. sarx) (John 1:14; 3:6; 1 Cor. 15:39; Gal. 5:17; 1 Pet. 1:24) G4561: In its most literal sense, the word refers to the substance of the body, whether of animals or persons (1 Cor. 15:39; 1 Pet. 4:1). However, in its idiomatic use, the word sarx indicates the human race or personhood (Matt. 24:22; 1 Pet. 1:24). In an ethical and spiritual sense, sarx is the lower nature of a person, the seat and vehicle of sinful desires (Rom. 7:25; 8:4–9; and here; Gal. 5:16, 17).

14:6 give thanks ▸ see Luke 17:16.

14:18 serve

(Gr. douleuō) (Matt. 6:24; Rom. 6:6; 1 Thess. 1:9; Titus 3:3) G1398: The Greek word douleuō literally means "to be a (bond) slave," "to perform the service of a slave," or "to serve." The related noun doulos, slave, bondservant, is often used in the New Testament to refer to the believer's relationship to God or Christ (Phil. 1:1; James 1:1). Christians belong to God. They happily give to Him, 19 Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another.

20 For meat destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.
21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.
22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.
23 And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

Be Likeminded

15 We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.
2 Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification.
3 For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.
4 For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.
5 Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another according to Christ Jesus:

Glorify God Together

6 That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.
7 Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God.
8 Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers:
9 And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.
10 And again he saith, Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.
11 And again, Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people.
12 And again, Esaias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust.
13 Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

Paul Ministers to the Gentiles their Master, unconditional obedience as His due and their obligation (cf. Luke 17:7–10). In Greco-Roman society, it was both a great honor and privileged opportunity to be slaves of an important master. Slaves gained benefits and status from the authority delegated to them. Christians are also admonished to offer such service to one another (Gal. 5:13).

15:13 hope

(Gr. elpis) (Acts 23:6; Rom. 5:5; 1 Cor. 13:13; Col. 1:5; Titus 1:2) G1680: The Greek term denotes "confident expectation" or "anticipation," not "wishful thinking" as in common parlance. The use of the word hope in this context is unusual and ironic, for it suggests that the Gentiles, who knew nothing or little about the Messiah, were anticipating His coming. However, we need only think of Cornelius (Acts 10) to realize that some Gentiles had anticipated the coming of the Jewish Messiah. For Jesus was sent, not only for the salvation of the Jews, but also for the Gentiles. Since God is the Author of our salvation, we can call Him the God of hope, for He has given us hope (Rom. 15:13).

15:14 goodness

(Gr. agathōsynē) (Gal. 5:22; Eph. 5:9; 2 Thess. 1:11) G0019: Occurring only four times in Scripture, this word encompasses both a character trait—being good—and the action of doing good to others. It is a demeanor of kind benevolence combined with the propensity to do what is kind and right. Goodness is a fruit of the spirit (Gal. 5:22; Eph. 5:9), a virtue that naturally flows from being united with the God who perfectly exemplifies this characteristic (2 Thess. 1:11).

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me of God,
16 That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost.
17 I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ in those things which pertain to God.
18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed,
19 Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.
20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation:
21 But as it is written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.
22 For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you.

Paul Desires to Visit Rome

23 But now having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come unto you;
24 Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company.
25 But now I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints.
26 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem.
27 It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.
28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.
29 And I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.
30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;
31 That I may be delivered from them that do not believe in Judaea; and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be accepted of the saints;
32 That I may come unto you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed.
33 Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Paul's Greetings

16 I commend unto you Phebe our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at Cenchrea:

15:20 strive

(Gr. philotimeomai) (2 Cor. 5:9; 1 Thess. 4:11) G5389: Compounded from phileo (G5384), "to love," and timē (G5092), "value or honor," this means to love honor or be ambitious. In the New Testament it is used in the positive sense of "to consider it an honor" or "to aspire." In 2 Corinthians 5:9 Paul speaks of what he strives to achieve, and in 1 Thessalonians 4:11, he urges his readers to aspire to a quiet life. Here in Romans 15:20 it may also refer to Paul's desire to preach the gospel, or it may express the idea that he considers it an honor to take the gospel to new regions.

16:2 as becometh

(Gr. axiōs) (Eph. 4:1; Phil. 1:27; Col. 1:10) G0516: The adverb is derived from another Greek word that means "weight," from which comes the sense of value and the rendering "as becometh" or "worthy." The word is used only seven times, and in every instance it refers not to material worth but to living or acting in a worthy manner. Since

3 Greet Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus:
4 Who have for my life laid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.
5 Likewise greet the church that is in their house. Salute my wellbeloved Epaenetus, who is the firstfruits of Achaia unto Christ.
6 Greet Mary, who bestowed much labour on us.
7 Salute Andronicus and Junia, my kinsmen, and my fellowprisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me.
8 Greet Amplias my beloved in the Lord.
9 Salute Urbane, our helper in Christ, and Stachys my beloved.
10 Salute Apelles approved in Christ. Salute them which are of Aristobulus' household.
11 Salute Herodion my kinsman. Greet them that be of the household of Narcissus, which are in the Lord.
12 Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved Persis, which laboured much in the Lord.
13 Salute Rufus chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.
14 Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brethren which are with them.
15 Salute Philologus, and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints which are with them.
16 Salute one another with an holy kiss. The churches of Christ salute you.

Avoid Them Who Cause Divisions

17 Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them.
18 For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.
19 For your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil.
20 And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

Final Salutations

21 Timotheus my workfellow, and Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater, my kinsmen, salute you.
22 I Tertius, who wrote this epistle, salute you in the Lord.
23 Gaius mine host, and of the whole church, saluteth you. Erastus the chamberlain of the city saluteth you, and Quartus a brother.
24 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Glory to God Only Wise

25 Now to him that is of power to stablish you according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began,
26 But now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith:
27 To God only wise, be glory through Jesus Christ for ever. Amen.

Christians have been rescued from their sin, it is incumbent upon them to live in a way that glorifies Christ, the divine Rescuer. This responsibility is reflected in Colossians 1:10, where Paul prays that believes "might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work."

16:20 bruise

(Gr. syntribō) (Matt. 12:20; Mark 14:3; John 19:36) G4937: The word's literal meaning is "to break in pieces" (see Mark 5:4; Rev. 2:27), but it can also be interpreted figuratively as suffering extreme sorrow (that is, to be emotionally crushed; thus the rendering "brokenhearted" in Luke 4:18). When rendered "bruise," as here, the sense is that of being trodden underfoot (see Matt. 12:20; Luke 9:39). The word shortly in Romans 16:20 means "with swiftness," not "soon." God's triumph over Satan will be fast and final.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE

CORINTHIANS

CORINTH, THE MOST IMPORTANT CITY in Greece during Paul's day, was a bustling hub of worldwide commerce, degraded culture, and idolatrous religion. There Paul founded a church (Acts 18:1–17), and two of his letters are addressed "unto the church of God which is at Corinth" (1:2; 2 Cor. 1:1).

First Corinthians reveals the problems, pressures, and struggles of a church called out of a pagan society. Paul addresses a variety of problems in the lifestyle of the Corinthian church: factions, lawsuits, immorality, questionable practices, abuse of the Lord's Supper, and spiritual gifts. In addition to words of discipline, Paul shares words of counsel in answer to questions raised by the Corinthian believers.

The oldest recorded title of this epistle is Pros Korinthious A, in effect, the "First to the Corinthians." The A was no doubt a later addition to distinguish this book from Second Corinthians.

Grace and Peace

1 Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother,
2 Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours:
3 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Paul's Thankfulness

4 I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ;
5 That in every thing ye are enriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge;
6 Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:
7 So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ:
8 Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.
9 God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

1:7 gift

(Gr. charisma) (Rom. 5:15; 6:23; 1 Cor. 12:31; 1 Pet. 4:10) G5486: This word means "unmerited favor, divine gratuity, gift of grace." In the New Testament it is only used to refer to gifts given by God, including deliverance from danger (2 Cor. 1:11), the gift of celibacy (1 Cor. 7:7), and eternal life (Rom. 6:23). Particularly in 1 Corinthians it is used in reference to spiritual gifts—the manifestations given by the Holy Spirit for the building up of the church. The root word is charizomai (G5483), meaning "to do a favor." English derivatives include charismatic.

Contentions in the Church

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.
11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.
12 Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ.
13 Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?
14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius;
15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.
16 And I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.
17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

The Foolishness of the World's Wisdom

18 For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God.
19 For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.
20 Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?
21 For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.
22 For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:
23 But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness;
24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God.
25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

Glory in the Lord

26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:
27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;
28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are:
29 That no flesh should glory in his presence.
30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

1:20 wise

(Gr. sophos) (Matt. 11:25; Rom. 1:14; Eph. 5:15) G4680: The word means "wise" and is so rendered each of the 22 times it appears in the New Testament. The Greek word is an adjective, but it can also be used as a noun (as it is here—"the wise"). When used as an adjective, the word can refer to people (as Matt. 23:34—"wise men") or God (1 Tim. 1:17; Jude 25). Another sense of the word is "skilled" or "expert," as in 1 Corinthians 3:10, where it is used to describe a "wise masterbuilder."

1:23 crucify ▸ see Gal. 6:14.
1:23 stumblingblock ▸ see Matt. 16:23.

1:26 noble

(Gr. eugenēs) (Luke 19:12; Acts 17:11) G2104: Used only three times in the New Testament, this word means "well-born, high in rank." It comes from the roots eu (G2095), "well" and genos (G1085), "family, race." Here and in Luke 19:12 it refers to a person from a noble family, and in Acts 17:11 it is more metaphorical, meaning "more noble (or open) minded."

31 That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

Faith in God's Power

2 And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God.
2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.
3 And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.
4 And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:
5 That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

The Wisdom of God

6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought:
7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory:
8 Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.
9 But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.
10 But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.
11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.
12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.
13 Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.
14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.
15 But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.
16 For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

Labourers with God

3 And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.
2 I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.
3 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?

2:1 testimony ▸ see Matt. 8:4.

2:6 prince

(Gr. archōn) (Luke 23:13; John 7:26; Acts 3:17) G0758: The literal sense of the word is a chief or commander—one who governs, as the ruler of a nation (see for example Matt. 20:25)—but it is often used in a more figurative sense to describe men of influence, whether of noble birth or not (as Acts 4:5). In Luke 23:13, the word appears to refer to the members of the Jewish Sanhedrin, and in Matthew 9:34, it refers to Satan (that is, the "ruler of the demons"). A similar usage is in John 12:31—"the prince of this world"—also referring to Satan as the ruler of the wicked.

2:7 ordain ▸ see Rom. 8:29.
2:9 prepare ▸ see Rev. 21:2.
2:10 spirit ▸ see John 3:5.
2:12 freely give ▸ see Col. 3:13.

2:13 spiritual

(Gr. pneumatikos) (Rom. 1:11; Eph. 5:19; 1 Pet. 2:5) G4152: The adjective is derived from the Greek word meaning "spirit" and means "pertaining to the spirit" (thus the rendering "spiritual"). It is often used in contrast to that which is fleshly or carnal (as in 1 Cor. 3:1) or that which is natural or unspiritual (as here). What is "spiritual" requires the enlightening or regenerating work (the endowment) of the Holy Spirit upon the human spirit for there to be meaning and life. In the neuter plural, the adjective may be used substantively with the special sense of spiritual gifts (as in 1 Cor. 12:1), that is, Spirit-given endowments for ministering.

2:14 natural ▸ see 1 Cor. 15:46.
2:14 spiritually ▸ see Rev. 11:8.

4 For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal?
5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?
6 I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase.
7 So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.
8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.
9 For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building.
10 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.
11 For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.
12 Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;
13 Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.
14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.
15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

The Temple of God

16 Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?
17 If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.
18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.
19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.
20 And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.
21 Therefore let no man glory in men. For all things are yours;
22 Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;
23 And ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

3:11 other ▸ see Gal. 1:7.

3:16 temple

(Gr. naos) (Matt. 23:16; Mark 14:58; 1 Cor. 6:19) G3485: Though it can refer to any temple or shrine (Acts 17:24), the word is used in the New Testament most often for the temple of God in Jerusalem. It specifically means the main building. In Revelation, the word is used of the heavenly temple (see, for example, Rev. 14:15). When used figuratively, the word refers to Christians either corporately (as here, most likely) or individually (as in 1 Cor. 6:19) as a "spiritual" temple, God's true dwelling place. In John 2:21, the writer specifies that Jesus was using the word (in John 2:19) to describe His own body.

3:19 craftiness

(Gr. panourgia) (Luke 20:23; 2 Cor. 4:2; 11:3; Eph. 4:14) G3834: Evoking images of Satan in the garden or a wolf in sheep's clothing, this word means "cunning, specious, or false wisdom, clever trickery." This word carries with it negative connotations of deceit and arrogance. In the New Testament this term is used five times, and it refers to Satan's deceit in the Garden of Eden (2 Cor. 11:3), the Pharisees trying to trap Jesus (Luke 20:23), the deception of false teachers (2 Cor. 4:2; Eph. 4:14), and the self-deceit of the worldly wise.

3:20 thought ▸ see Luke 6:8.

3:20 vain

(Gr. mataios) (1 Cor. 15:17; Titus 3:9; James 1:26) G3152: This word means "pointless" and "purposeless." The New Testament writers, especially Paul, used it to depict the meaninglessness that pervades the thought life of fallen human beings. Paul characterizes the "thoughts of the wise" as being vain or futile (1 Cor. 3:20), and he describes the Gentiles as living "in the vanity of their mind, having the understanding darkened" because they are "alienated from the life of God" (Eph. 4:17, 18). The ideas of the unregenerate are futile and aimless because they lack divine insight; they produce a life of purposelessness and ineffectiveness. Salvation from such futility comes from the indwelling Spirit of Christ in believers (see Rom. 8:10, 11, 26, 27).

Ministers and Stewards

4 Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God.
2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.
3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self.
4 For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.
5 Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God.
6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.
7 For who maketh thee to differ from another? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?
8 Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

Fools for Christ's Sake

9 For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.
10 We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised.
11 Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace;
12 And labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it:
13 Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day.

Paul's Fatherly Guidance

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you.
15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.
16 Wherefore I beseech you, be ye followers of me.
17 For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church.
18 Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.
19 But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.
20 For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

4:6 puff up ▸ see 1 Cor. 4:18.

4:9 spectacle

(Gr. theatron) (Acts 19:29, 31) G2302: The Greek word theatron can refer both to an open, public theater, such as at Ephesus (Acts 19:29, 31), and also to what was seen at such a theater—a play or other spectacle. It is in this sense that Paul uses it (ironically) here at 1 Corinthians 4:9, presenting himself as a public spectacle for people to gape at. The related verb theatrizō (G2301) means "to put to shame" or "to expose publicly" (Heb. 10:33), just as a drama in a theater is a public performance.

4:12 labour ▸ see John 9:4.
4:12 persecute ▸ see Luke 21:12.

4:18 puff up

(Gr. physioō) (1 Cor. 4:6; 13:4; Col. 2:18) G5448: The word literally means to blow or inflate but is used in the New Testament only in a figurative sense, indicating arrogance. Here the sense is of foolish arrogance, as some among the Corinthian church were evidently behaving as though they didn't believe Paul would ever come to rebuke them. In 1 Corinthians 8:1, this kind of arrogance is said to be a possible result of knowledge and is contrasted with the edification that comes from love. In 1 Corinthians 13:4, Paul says that love is not "puffed up"—true love is humble and kind and "does not parade itself."

4:20 word ▸ see John 1:1.

21 What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

Fornication in the Church

5 It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife.
2 And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.
3 For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed,
4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,
5 To deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.
6 Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?
7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us:
8 Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Put Away the Wicked

9 I wrote unto you in an epistle not to company with fornicators:
10 Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world.
11 But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat.
12 For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within?
13 But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

Judgment by the Saints

6 Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?
2 Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?
3 Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?
4 If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.
5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

4:21 rod ▸ see Heb. 9:4.
4:21 meekness ▸ see 2 Cor. 10:1.

5:2 mourn

(Gr. pentheō) (Matt. 5:4; Mark 16:10; Luke 6:25; James 4:9) G3996: Meaning "to grieve," the verb is often used in contrast with gladness or joy, implying both inward sorrow and outward expression. It may refer to grieving over one's own sins (James 4:9) or the sin of others (as here; see also 1 Cor. 12:21), as well as other matters (see Mark 16:10, where Jesus' loved ones mourn His death). In Matthew 5:4, some interpreters think the mourning is over personal sin, but others contend that it is over the wicked who oppress the righteous.

5:5 destruction ▸ see 2 Thess. 1:9.
5:6 leaven ▸ see Mark 8:15.

5:8 sincerity

(Gr. eilikrineia) (2 Cor. 1:12; 2:17) G1505: Used only three times in the New Testament—all of them in Paul's letters to the Corinthians—this word is slightly obscure. It literally means "judged by sunlight," a reference to the Oriental bazaars where pottery was displayed in dimly-lit rooms so that patched places or defects could not be seen. Wise customers would hold the pottery up to the sun, where such deceit would be made apparent and all imperfections would be seen. Paul's use of this word is metaphorical, referring to a person who exhibits transparent honesty, purity, and sincerity. This person does not fear the time when everything is brought to light, for his motives are pure and he has nothing to hide.

5:10 covetous ▸ see 1 Cor. 6:10.
6:3 judge ▸ see Matt. 7:1.

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.
7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?
8 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren.
9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,
10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.
11 And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

The Believer's Body a Temple

12 All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.
13 Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body.
14 And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power.
15 Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.
16 What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh.
17 But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.
18 Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body.
19 What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?
20 For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

Paul's Teachings on Marriage

7 Now concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.
2 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.
3 Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.
4 The wife hath not power of her own

6:9 effeminate

(Gr. malakos) (Matt. 11:8; Luke 7:25) G3120: The Greek word malakos is normally used to describe things, such as "soft garments" (Luke 7:25). Here, however, it is used to mean "effeminate ones," the passive partners in male homosexual intercourse.

6:9 abuser of oneself with mankind

(Gr. arsenokoitēs) (1 Tim. 1:10) G0733: Used only here and in 1 Timothy 1:10, the Greek word arsenokoitēs is derived from the adjective arren (G0730), "male," and the noun koitē (G2845), "bed" or "coitus" (intercourse), thus meaning a male homosexual. Specifically, it refers to the male homosexual partner who takes the active role in distinction from the malakos (G3120), the passive partner.

6:10 covetous

(Gr. pleonektēs) (1 Cor. 5:10; Eph. 5:5) G4123: From the root words pleiōn (G4119), "greater, more" and echō (G2192), "to have, to hold," this word literally means "to have more." The connotation is of a greedy, grasping person so anxious to have more and more that he cheats others. The desire for more takes over, and he will break laws and employ devious schemes at others' expense. It is arrogant self-love at its most extreme. Such an attitude not only violates the Ten Commandments, it is a form of idolatry: "For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God" (Eph. 5:5).

body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.
5 Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.
6 But I speak this by permission, and not of commandment.
7 For I would that all men were even as I myself. But every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.
8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I.
9 But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

Abide in the Same Calling

10 And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband:
11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.
12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.
13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.
14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy.
15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us to peace.
16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?
17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And so ordain I in all churches.
18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised.
19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.
20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.
21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.
22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is Christ's servant.
23 Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.
24 Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

Unmarried Men and Women

25 Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.
26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress, I say, that it is good for a man so to be.
27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.
28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.
29 But this I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;
30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;
31 And they that use this world, as not abus-

7:5 incontinency

(Gr. akrasia) (Matt. 23:25) G0192: Formed from a negative prefix and a root meaning "take hold" or "hold fast," this word gives the sense of a lack of holding in control. Here Paul apparently refers to a lack of self-restraint that might result from unnecessary and prolonged abstinence from marital relations. In Matthew 23:25, the rendering is "excess," similarly suggesting a lack of control over one's (in this case the Pharisees') impulses and desires.

ing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away.
32 But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:
33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.
34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.
35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.
36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.
37 Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.
38 So then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.
39 The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord.
40 But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

Food Sacrificed to Idols

8 Now as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.
2 And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.
3 But if any man love God, the same is known of him.
4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.
5 For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,)
6 But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.
7 Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.
8 But meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse.
9 But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to them that are weak.
10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;
11 And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?
12 But when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.
13 Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

8:9 stumblingblock

(Gr. proskomma) (Rom. 9:32; 14:13; 1 Pet. 2:8) G4348: The literal sense of the word is of an obstacle that if run into will cause a person to stumble or fall. In the New Testament, however, the usage is figurative in every instance: something one's soul might "stumble" over (that is, causing a person to sin). In Romans 9:32, 33, the word is used of Jesus Christ, whose unexpected behavior so frustrated and offended the Jews that they never overcame their incorrect preconceptions about the nature of the Messiah, thus rejecting Him and bringing judgment upon themselves.

Apostles' Freedom and Power

9 Am I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are not ye my work in the Lord?
2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.
3 Mine answer to them that do examine me is this,
4 Have we not power to eat and to drink?
5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?
6 Or I only and Barnabas, have not we power to forbear working?
7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?
8 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?
9 For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?
10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.
11 If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?
12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.
13 Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?
14 Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.
15 But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.
16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!
17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.
18 What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

9:10 be partaker

(Gr. metechō) (1 Cor. 10:17; Heb. 2:14; 5:13) G3348: To partake in something involves sharing closely. So a worker should share in the profit of that work (as here). Likewise, all Christians are considered as "partakers" of the same bread of communion together. Jesus Himself is even described as having "taken part" in the flesh and blood and death of our humanity, so that "through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil" (Heb. 2:14).

9:15 void

(Gr. kenoō) (Rom. 4:14; 2 Cor. 9:3; Phil. 2:7) G2758: The Greek word kenoō describes an emptiness of some sort. So Christ is described as emptying Himself in order to take on "the form of a bond-servant, and coming in the likeness of men" (Phil. 2:7). By extension, Paul uses the word to speak of a negation or nullification of something. So if the law could save, Paul argues, then "faith is made void" (Rom. 4:14). Likewise, Paul came to preach the gospel plainly and simply, "lest the cross of Christ should be made of no effect" (1 Cor. 1:17).

9:17 dispensation ▸ see Eph. 3:2.

9:18 power

(Gr. exousia) (Matt. 7:29; Rom. 9:21; 1 Cor. 7:37; 8:9) G1849: The Greek term usually denotes "right," "authority," or even "privilege." In certain contexts, as this one, it connotes the freedom to exercise one's right. Specifically, Paul was addressing the Corinthians' right to eat meat that may have come from pagan temples. To be clear, the eating of sacrificial food—the cultic meals in pagan temples—was censured by Paul because it was understood that the participants in those meals were uniting themselves to demons (1 Cor. 10:19–21). However Paul had no problem with those who purchased food that had been left over from these events and that was later sold in the

A Servant Unto All

19 For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more.
20 And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;
21 To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.
22 To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.
23 And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.
24 Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain.
25 And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible.
26 I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:
27 But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.

Israel's History as an Example

10 Moreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea;
2 And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea;
3 And did all eat the same spiritual meat;
4 And did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ.
5 But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness.
6 Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.
7 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.
8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand.
9 Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents.
10 Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.
11 Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.

marketplace. In his judgment if they ate it at home they were not participating in idolatry. They had the liberty—or right—to eat this food in good conscience. The exception was if they would be harming a weaker believer by doing so. For the sake of such believers, one should abstain.

9:27 castaway

(Gr. adokimos) (Rom. 1:28; 2 Cor. 13:5; 2 Tim. 3:8) G0096: The Greek word adokimos is derived from dokimos (G1384), "tried, proved, approved," negated by the a prefix (G0001), thus meaning "disapproved, rejected." The idea is that one has failed in some testing and is therefore disqualified. Here, Paul uses failure in the realm of an athletic contest as an analogy for failure in the realm of Christian life and ministry. Adokimos may refer to things (Heb. 6:8) or people, where its sense is often extended to mean worthless, debased (Rom. 1:28).

10:5 wilderness ▸ see Mark 6:35.

10:6 example

(Gr. typos) (John 20:25; Acts 7:43; 1 Thess. 1:7; 1 Pet. 5:3) G5179: The word's literal meaning is a figure or mark formed by a blow or impression (e.g., a brand or the imprint of a nail—see John 20:25), but the figurative sense—an image, pattern, or example—is generally used in the New Testament. Here the sense is dissuasive (an example not to be followed). Acts 7:43 uses the word to indicate "figures" (that is, idols); in Acts 23:25, the sense is of a template that can be followed. Similarly, in Romans 6:17, the word indicates a pattern of behavior ("that form of doctrine") that is to be emulated.

10:9 tempt ▸ see Luke 4:12.

12 Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.
13 There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.
14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.
15 I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say.
16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?
17 For we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.
18 Behold Israel after the flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?
19 What say I then? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?
20 But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.
21 Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.
22 Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he?

Do All to the Glory of God

23 All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.
24 Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth.
25 Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake:
26 For the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.
27 If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.
28 But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake: for the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof:
29 Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for why is my liberty judged of another man's conscience?
30 For if I by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks?
31 Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.
32 Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God:

10:20 devil

(Gr. daimonion) (Matt. 12:24; Luke 11:15; James 2:19) G1140: The origin of demons (KJV "devils") is not explicitly discussed in the Bible. But the New Testament speaks of the fall and later imprisonment of a group of angels led by Satan (1 Pet. 3:19, 20; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6). The fall left Satan and his angels free to contaminate the human race with wickedness (Gen. 3; Matt. 25:41; Rev. 12:9). A prime purpose of Jesus' earthly ministry was to overcome the power of Satan. This included His conquest of the demonic realm (Matt. 12:25–29; Luke 11:17–22; John 12:31; 1 John 3:8). Following the resurrection of Jesus and His return to heaven, these demonic principalities and powers have continued their warfare against those who are His followers (Rom. 8:38–39; Eph. 6:12). Yet after Christ returns, the devil and his angels will be defeated and thrown into the lake of fire and brimstone (Matt. 25:41; Rev. 20:10).

10:29 liberty

(Gr. eleutheria) (Rom. 8:21; 2 Cor. 3:17; Gal. 5:13; 1 Pet. 2:16) G1657: This word is most likely a form of the word for "come." In a civil sense it refers to a person freed from slavery, restraint, and obligation. This is someone who is not controlled by anyone or anything. Metaphorically, which is how Paul usually uses the word, it refers to the freedom believers have in Christ. We are no longer bound by legalistic rituals but rather are free to serve God in a variety of ways. But Paul was careful to point out that our liberty is not license to sin: "For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another" (Gal. 5:13).

seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

Proper Worship

11 Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.
2 Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and keep the ordinances, as I delivered them to you.
3 But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God.
4 Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.
5 But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were shaven.
6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.
7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.
8 For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.
9 Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man.
10 For this cause ought the woman to have power on her head because of the angels.
11 Nevertheless neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.
12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but all things of God.
13 Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?
14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?
15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering.
16 But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.

Unworthy Communion

17 Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.
18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that there be divisions among you; and I partly believe it.
19 For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.
20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lord's supper.
21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken.
22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

The Lord's Supper

23 For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread:
24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which

11:19 heresy

(Gr. hairesis) (Acts 5:17; 28:22; Gal. 5:20; 2 Pet. 2:1) G0139: Apparently the Greek word hairesis originally meant "a choice" or "an opinion." Over time it came to refer to a sect, faction, or party identified by distinctive views (as Acts 5:17; 15:5; 26:5) and ultimately became synonymous with a divisive (heretical) opinion or sect, heresy. Sometimes it is difficult to decide whether to translate the word as "heresy" or "sect." The Jews regarded Christians as both—a heretical sect (Acts 24:5, 14; 28:22).

11:19 manifest

(Gr. phaneros) (Mark 4:22; Acts 4:16; 1 Cor. 3:13; 1 John 3:10) G5318: This word means "manifest, evident, known, visible." The act or characteristic described by this word is out in the open, plain to see so that any observer can immediately recognize the truth. Jesus' words in Luke 8:17 help to define the word: "For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest, neither anything hid, that shall not be known and come abroad [phaneros]." God will one day bring all things out to the light and reward us for good deeds done in secret (Matt. 6:4).

is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.
25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.
26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come.
27 Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.
28 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.
29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.
30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.
31 For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.
32 But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.
33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.
34 And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

The Diversities of Gifts

12 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.
2 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.
3 Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.
4 Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.
5 And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord.
6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all.
7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.
8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;
9 To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;
10 To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues:
11 But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.

The Body of Christ

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ.
13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.
14 For the body is not one member, but many.
15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?
16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?
17 If the whole body were an eye, where were

12:8 wisdom

(Gr. sophia) (Luke 2:52; Rom. 11:33; 1 Cor. 1:17; Eph. 1:17; Col. 2:3) G4678: The Greek word sophia occurs often in the New Testament, and typically refers to the spiritual or intellectual capacity of human beings (Luke 2:52) or even of God (Rom. 11:33). More abstractly, it can mean something like a body of learning or instruction (Acts 7:22) and be very practical (James 1:5; cf. 3:17). It can also be personified, perhaps reflecting the Old Testament proverbs (as Matt. 11:19). Paul often used the word to represent unspiritual, worldly wisdom that believers must reject (as 1 Cor. 1:17, 19), but here in 1 Corinthians 12:8 it refers to the wisdom that God imparts as a spiritual gift.

the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?
18 But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.
19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?
20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.
21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.
22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:
23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.
24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:
25 That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.
26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.
27 Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.
28 And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues.
29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles?
30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?
31 But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

Charity Never Fails

13 Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.
2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.
3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.
4 Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,
5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;
6 Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;
7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.
8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

12:28 prophet ▸ see Matt. 2:5.

12:28 government

(Gr. kybernēsis) G2941: The Greek word kybernēsis only appears once in the New Testament, here in 1 Corinthians 12:28. The word originally referred to the steering or piloting performed by a ship's helmsman. Here it refers metaphorically to the guidance or governance exercised by a church leader. The precise function is uncertain. The related word kybernētēs (G2942), "helmsman," refers to the person steering the boat (Acts 27:11).

13:4 puff up ▸ see 1 Cor. 4:18.
13:6 rejoice ▸ see Luke 15:9.

13:7 bear

(Gr. stegō) (1 Cor. 9:12; 1 Thess. 3:1, 5) G4722: This relatively seldom-used word appears only four times in the New Testament. The literal meaning is "to cover," as with a roof for protection, from which comes the figurative sense of "covering" with silence—i.e., enduring or bearing. The word is also rendered "suffer" or "forbear." Here, love is said to bear (or endure) all things—love covers over the offenses and errors of others rather than bringing them forward for embarrassment or harboring grudges.

13:7 endure ▸ see Matt. 24:13.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.
10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

Put Away Childish Things

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.
12 For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.
13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

The Gift of Tongues

14 Follow after charity, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy.
2 For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.
3 But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.
4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.
5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.
6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, 13:10 perfect ▸ see 1 Cor. 14:20.

13:12 see

(Gr. blepō) (Matt. 11:4; Mark 8:15; John 20:1; Heb. 11:1; Rev. 1:12) G0991: The word can be used literally of physical vision—that is, seeing with the bodily eye—or figuratively, as "seeing" with the mind's eye (that is, to understand—see for example Luke 8:10). A related sense is of ensuring (seeing to), as Hebrews 12:25 ("see that ye refuse not him that speaketh"). In Mark 8:15, the rendering is "beware" (that is, look with caution). Second Corinthians 12:6 uses the term to indicate perception ("that which he seeth me to be"). In Matthew 6:4, the word is used of God's all-seeing omniscience.

13:13 faith ▸ see Col. 1:4.
13:13 hope ▸ see Rom. 15:13.

14:1 desire

(Gr. zēloō) (1 Cor. 13:4; 2 Cor. 11:2; Gal. 4:18; Rev. 3:19) G2206: The word from which we get zeal, this word means "warmth of feeling, to be heated with desire." It is desire that boils over and is impossible to stifle. Such strong feelings can be positive—zeal for good works (Gal. 4:18), a husband's desire for his wife (2 Cor. 11: 2), or the desire for spiritual gifts (1 Cor. 12:31). They can also be negative, as in the case of envy or jealousy (Acts 7:9; 1 Cor. 13:4; James 4:2). Believers should strive to be zealous for the right things so that envy and jealousy for the wrong things do not take over our lives.

14:2 speak

(Gr. laleō) (Matt. 9:33; John 4:26; Acts 2:4; Heb. 12:24; Rev. 10:4) G2980: The Greek verb laleō may stress the idea of speaking as the utterance of sound, especially by the speech organs, while a synonym like legō (G3004), meaning "say or speak" (with which it is often interchangeable) implies that what is spoken is rational communication. Thus laleō is perhaps more suitable than legō when the speech is not understandable, as here. The verb can also be used figuratively (Heb. 12:24) or even of inanimate things (Rev. 10:4).

14:2 mystery ▸ see Luke 8:10.

14:6 tongue

(Gr. glōssa) (Acts 2:4; 10:46; 19:6; 1 Cor. 12:10) G1100: The Greek term glōssa means "tongue" or "language." When the believers were empowered by the Holy Spirit on the Day of Pentecost, they were given the ability to speak in many different languages, so that those visiting from all around the Roman world could hear the glories of God being uttered in their native tongues (Acts 2:4–11). The household of Cornelius also spoke in different languages when they were baptized in the Holy Spirit (Acts 10:46). And the same happened with the new disciples from Ephesus (Acts 19:6). From then on, some believers regularly spoke in different languages as a way of praying to God, and others spoke in different languages in church meetings. When these languages were spoken in private, interpretation was not needed; when they were spoken in the meetings, Paul required interpretation so that the others could understand and be edified (1 Cor. 14:2–27).

except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?
7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?
8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?
9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.
10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.
11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.
12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.

The Gift of Interpretation

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret.
14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.
15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.
16 Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?
17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.
18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:
19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.
20 Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men.
21 In the law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.
22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.
23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?
24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:
25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.

The Author of Peace

26 How is it then, brethen? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying.
27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.
28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.
29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge.
30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.
31 For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

14:12 zealous ▸ see Acts 22:3.

14:20 men

(Gr. teleios) (Matt. 5:48; 1 Cor. 13:10; Col. 1:28; James 1:4) G5046: The Greek word teleios can also be translated "complete, perfect, mature, full-grown." It is derived from the noun telos (G5056), "end, goal," and so basically means reaching the intended ending. Thus, here the meaning is full-grown, adult, mature, as opposed to a child (cf. 1 Cor. 2:6). In James 1:4, the "perfect work" is the completed or finished work, and "perfect and complete" means fully developed and whole (G3648—oloklēros). In Matthew 5:48 teleios is used of both human beings and God.

32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.
33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.
34 Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law.
35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.
36 What? came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only?
37 If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.
38 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.
39 Wherefore, brethren, covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.
40 Let all things be done decently and in order.

Witnesses of Christ's Resurrection

15 Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;
2 By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.
3 For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;
4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:
5 And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve:
6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.
7 After that, he was seen of James; then of all the apostles.
8 And last of all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time.
9 For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.
10 But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.
11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

The Resurrection Defended

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?
13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen:
14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.
15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.
16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:
17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.
18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.
19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.
20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept.
21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.
22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.
23 But every man in his own order: Christ

14:32 subject

(Gr. hypotassō) (Luke 2:51; Rom. 8:20; Eph. 1:22; James 4:7) G5293: A compound form of hypo (G5259), "under," and tassō (G5021) "to put in order; to station," this word is literally rendered "to station under; place under." The implication is subjection, subordination, submission, and subservience. Jesus subjected Himself to His parents in this way (Luke 2:51). Yet all things are subject to Christ (1 Cor. 15:27; Eph. 1:22) and evil spirits are subject to believers in Jesus' name (Luke 10:17, 20). In addition, we are to be subject to earthly authorities (Rom. 13:1; 1 Pet. 2:13), and wives to husbands (Eph. 5:24; 1 Pet. 3:1).

the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.
24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.
25 For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.
26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.
27 For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.
28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.
29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?
30 And why stand we in jeopardy every hour?
31 I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.
32 If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die.
33 Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.
34 Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame.

The Resurrection Body Explained

35 But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?
36 Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die:
37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:
38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.
39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.
40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.
41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.
42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:
43 It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:
44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.
45 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.
46 Howbeit that was not first which is 15:23 firstfruits

(Gr. aparchē) (Rom. 8:23; 1 Cor. 16:15; Rev. 14:4) G0536: Compounded from the Greek words apo (G575), "from," and arche (G0746), "beginning, first cause." In the Septuagint and some other Greek writers, the word was a technical term for a sacrificial firstfruits that must be offered to a deity before the rest could be put to ordinary use. In the New Testament the word probably continues to bear this sense of being consecrated to God. Often, however, it also carries a sense of expectation—as here of Christ in the resurrection order, of early converts in an area (Rom. 16:5; 1 Cor. 16:15; cf. Rev. 14:4), and of the Holy Spirit regarded as the firstfruit that promises final redemption (Rom. 8:23).

15:33 good ▸ see Luke 6:35.
15:39 flesh ▸ see Rom. 13:14.
15:41 star ▸ see Mark 13:25.

15:45 quicken

(Gr. zōopoieō) (John 5:21; 6:63; Rom. 8:11; Gal. 3:21) G2227 Formed from zōon, "living being" and poieō, "to make," this word literally means "to make into a living being." It means "to bear young; cause to live; restore to life; give increase of life." Scripture draws a sharp distinction between the law, which cannot give life (Gal. 3:21) and God who gives life through His Son (John 5:21; 6:63). Romans 8:11 summarizes Scripture's teaching on the life-giving power of God: "But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you."

spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.
47 The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven.
48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.
49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.
50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

Victory Over Death

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.
53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.
54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.
55 O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?
56 The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.
57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.
58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

A Collection for the Saints

16 Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye.
2 Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.
3 And when I come, whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberality unto Jerusalem.
4 And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

Stand Fast in the Faith

5 Now I will come unto you, when I shall pass through Macedonia: for I do pass through Macedonia.
6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.
7 For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.
8 But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost.
9 For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.
10 Now if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.
11 Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.
12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

15:46 natural

(Gr. psychikos) (1 Cor. 2:14; James 3:15; Jude 19) G5591: Closely related to the Greek word psychē (G5590) "soul, self," psychikos literally means "of (or pertaining to) the soul, life." It may be translated natural or unspiritual, even sensual, in contrast with the supernatural or spiritual. It generally stands in contrast (whether stated or implied) with pneumatikos (G4152), "spiritual," and thus indicates one who is animated solely by the natural, human psyche and not by the spirit as regenerated by the Holy Spirit (1 Cor. 2:14; James 3:15; Jude 1:19).

15:52 moment

(Gr. atomos) G0823: This word literally means "uncut, infinitely small"—taken from the roots a (G0001), "un" and tomos (G5114) "to cut in two." Applied to time we might think of it as an "atom" of time, a flash, an instant that cannot be further divided because it is so small. Christ's coming and the events that accompany it will take place instantaneously. It is used only here in the New Testament.

15:58 abound ▸ see Matt. 25:29.
16:9 effectual ▸ see Heb. 4:12.

13 Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.
14 Let all your things be done with charity.
15 I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,)
16 That ye submit yourselves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboureth.
17 I am glad of the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part they have supplied.
18 For they have refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.

Paul Delivers Salutations

19 The churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.
20 All the brethren greet you. Greet ye one another with an holy kiss.
21 The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand.
22 If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema Maranatha.
23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

16:19 Asia

(Gr. asia) (Acts 2:9; 16:6; 1 Pet. 1:1) G0773: In the New Testament, Asia refers to the Roman province of Asia, not the continent as we know it today. It consisted of Mysia, Lydia, Phrygia, and Caria in modern-day Turkey. It shared borders with Bithynia to the north, Lycia to the south, and Galatia to the east. Asia was a senatorial province governed by a proconsul. The apostle Paul spent time in Asia and experienced tremendous difficulties there (2 Cor. 1:8). At another time, Paul was forbidden by the Holy Spirit from preaching the Word in Asia (Acts 16:6).

16:22 anathema ▸ see Rom. 9:3.

16:22 maranatha

(Gr. marana tha) G3134: Used only here, this is an Aramaic word that is an exclamation of the coming judgment. Marana means "the (or our) Lord" and tha means "come!" There is some disagreement among scholars about the timing implied in this phrase, whether it means "our Lord has come" or "our Lord is coming." The majority prefer the second rendering. In the second case, there is an element of a plea—"Come, Lord Jesus!" Believers await with great eagerness the second coming of Christ when all will be put right.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE

CORINTHIANS

SINCE PAUL'S FIRST LETTER, THE Corinthian church had been swayed by false teachers who stirred the people against Paul. They claimed he was fickle, proud, unimpressive in appearance and speech, dishonest, and unqualified as an apostle of Jesus Christ. Paul sent Titus to Corinth to deal with these difficulties, and upon his return, rejoiced to hear of the Corinthians' change of heart. Paul wrote this letter to express his thanksgiving for the repentant majority and to appeal to the rebellious minority to accept his authority. Throughout the book he defends his conduct, character, and calling as an apostle of Jesus Christ.

To distinguish this epistle from First Corinthians, it was given the title Pros Korinthious B, the "Second to the Corinthians." The A and B were probably later additions to Pros Korinthious.

Greeting

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints which are in all Achaia:
2 Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Comfort of God

3 Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;
4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.
5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.
6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.
7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

Deliverance from Suffering and Death

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life:
9 But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead:
10 Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us;
11 Ye also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

Simplicity and Godly Sincerity

12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

1:8 out of measure ▸ see Rom. 7:13.

13 For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end;
14 As also ye have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as ye also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus.
15 And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have a second benefit;
16 And to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judaea.
17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay?
18 But as God is true, our word toward you was not yea and nay.
19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea.
20 For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.
21 Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God;
22 Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.
23 Moreover I call God for a record upon my soul, that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.
24 Not for that we have domination over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand.

Paul's Love for the Corinthian Church

2 But I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.
2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?
3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.
4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

Forgiveness and Comfort

5 But if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.

1:12 sincerity ▸ see 1 Cor. 5:8.

1:20 promise

(Gr. epangelia) (Rom. 9:9; Eph. 3:6; Heb. 7:6; 1 John 2:25) G1860: The word literally means "announcement" or "message" but the predominant rendering is "promise." It can be used of a promise given by a person (Acts 23:21), a promise of God (Acts 26:6), or a promise of the Holy Spirit (Gal. 3:14). Several verses refer to God's guarantee to His people that He would send the Messiah (see for example Acts 13:23; Rom. 15:8), or to the promise of salvation in Christ (2 Tim. 1:1).

1:21 stablish ▸ see Mark 16:20.
1:22 seal ▸ see Rev. 7:3.

1:22 earnest

(Gr. arrabōn) (2 Cor. 5:5; Eph. 1:14) G0728: This word means "deposit, pledge." It was the down payment or earnest money that made a contract binding and guaranteed its fulfillment. In the New Testament it is used figuratively to refer to the Holy Spirit as God's guarantee or down payment that certifies His promises to us. These promises include a resurrected body (2 Cor. 5:5) and eternal reward or inheritance (Eph. 1:14).

2:4 affliction ▸ see John 16:33.

2:4 abundantly

(Gr. perissoterōs) (Mark 15:14; 2 Cor. 7:13; 11:23; Gal. 1:14) G4056: This word is almost a redundancy, for it means "more abundantly" or even "more superabundantly." It is a word of excess and superfluity. Some places it is translated "more exceedingly." This is an overwhelming adverb, denoting an amount of emotion or desire that cannot be contained. This is the word used to describe the eager cries of the crowd to crucify Jesus (Mark 15:14). Paul uses it to describe his love for Christians and his labors for the gospel (2 Cor. 11:23).

6 Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted of many.
7 So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.
8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him.
9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.
10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it in the person of Christ;
11 Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

The Savour of Life and Death

12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord,
13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.
14 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.
15 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish:
16 To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things?
17 For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

Ministers of the New Testament

3 Do we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?
2 Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:
3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.
4 And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:
5 Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God;
6 Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.

The Glory of the Lord

7 But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away:
8 How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?
9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

2:14 cause to triumph

(Gr. thriambeuō) (Col. 2:15) G2358: The Greek word thriambeuō describes an ancient custom for a victorious general returning home, leading his captives in a triumphal procession. In Colossians 2:15 (the only other New Testament occurrence) Jesus "triumphs over" the forces of evil and leads them, subjugated, in His victory march (cf. the ideas in Eph. 4:8). Here in 2 Corinthians 2:14 the same picture is apparently involved. Paul sees himself marching in Christ's triumphal procession (whether as a captive or as a participant in the victory is debated by interpreters), while the incense of the knowledge of Christ (preached by him) fills the air. Burning incense was a part of the custom of such victory parades.

2:17 sincerity ▸ see 1 Cor. 5:8.
3:1-3 epistle ▸ see 1 Thess. 5:27.

3:4 trust

(Gr. pepoithēsis) (2 Cor. 8:22; Eph. 3:12; Phil. 3:4) G4006: Appearing just six times in the New Testament, the word means "confidence" and is so rendered each of the other five times it occurs. Here, the rendering is trust, but the essential meaning is the same. Paul is writing about his trust or confidence in God's work in the lives of his readers. In Philippians 3:4, Paul writes of his "confidence in the flesh"—a different kind of trust than his confident faith in God (Eph. 3:12).

3:6 testament ▸ see Mark 14:24.

10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.
11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.
12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech:
13 And not as Moses, which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:
14 But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ.
15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.
16 Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.
17 Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.
18 But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

Preaching Christ Jesus the Lord

4 Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not;
2 But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.
3 But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost:
4 In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.
5 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.
6 For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.
7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

Cast Down but Not Destroyed

8 We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;
9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;
10 Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.
11 For we which live are alway delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

3:10 excel

(Gr. hyperballō) (2 Cor. 9:14; Eph. 1:19; 2:7; 3:19) G5235: The Greek verb comes from the combination of a preposition meaning "over" (hyper—G5228) and a verb meaning "throw" or "scatter" (ballō—G0906), thus the literal meaning is "to overthrow" or "to throw beyond." In the New Testament, the word is used only five times and always figuratively, in the sense of exceeding or surpassing. Here, the rendering "excels" indicates that the glory that comes from life in the Holy Spirit is overwhelmingly greater than the glory that made Moses' face impossible for the Israelites to look at. Similarly, in Ephesians 3:19, the rendering "passeth" gives a sense of surpassing or transcending.

4:7 earthen

(Gr. ostrakinos) (2 Tim. 2:20) G3749: This adjective is used twice in the New Testament. In both locations, the meaning is "made of earth," describing "earthen vessels." In ancient times it was a common practice to bury treasures inside clay jars. Two recent discoveries of biblical manuscripts—the Chester Beatty Papyrus and some of the Dead Sea Scrolls—reveal that these manuscripts were hidden away in jars for nearly two thousand years. As these treasures were enclosed in earthen vessels, so the indwelling Christ lives within our earthly bodies.

4:7 vessel ▸ see Heb. 9:21.

12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you.
13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;
14 Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.
15 For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.
16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.
17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;
18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

An Eternal Building in the Heavens

5 For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.
2 For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:
3 If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.
4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.
5 Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.
6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:
7 (For we walk by faith, not by sight:)
8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.
9 Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.
10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

The Constraining Love of Christ

11 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.
12 For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance, and not in heart.
13 For whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.
14 For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead:

4:12 work

(Gr. energeō) (Eph. 2:2; Phil. 2:13; Col. 1:29; 1 Thess. 2:13) G1754: Verb from the preposition en (G1722) "in," and the noun ergon (G2041), "work," meaning "to work in," "be at work," "effectively work," or "produce." The word is used often in the New Testament to describe God's working within (or among) believers to produce desired effects (as Phil. 2:13; cf. God's word in 1 Thess. 2:13), but can also be used of the working of evil spiritual beings (as Eph. 2:2) or of impersonal forces (as here in 2 Cor. 4:12). The related noun energeia (G1753) "working, operation, activity," is also used for the influence of God (Eph. 1:19) or Satan (2 Thess. 2:9).

5:14 constrain

(Gr. synechō) (Matt. 4:24; Luke 8:45; 22:63; Phil. 1:23) G4912: A combination of syn, "together" (G4862) and echō (G2192), "to hold," this word literally means "to hold together." We might define it as compressing or holding fast in a way that prevents escape. The implication is that the thing would fall apart without being grasped in this way. It is used of people with diseases (Matt. 4:24), being gripped by fear (Luke 8:37), the crowds crushing in on Jesus and the disciples (Luke 8:45), and being captured by enemies (Luke 19:43). When we truly understand God's great love for us, it constrains us until we have no choice but to follow Him.

15 And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.
16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more.

A New Creature in Christ

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.
18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;
19 To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.
20 Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.
21 For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

The Day of Salvation

6 We then, as workers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.
2 (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

Give No Offence in Any Thing

3 Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:
4 But in all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,
5 In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;
6 By pureness, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,
7 By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,
8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true;
9 As unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and, behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed;

5:20 be ambassador

(Gr. presbeuō) (Eph. 6:20) G4243: This verb means to serve or travel as an ambassador or emissary. This technical usage is derived from the precedence of and representative role of elders within Greek society and is used only twice in the New Testament. Paul uses the term figuratively here (cf. Eph. 6:20) to describe his missionary activity as serving as an ambassador on Christ's behalf. The cognate noun presbeia (G4242), "embassage," refers to the bearers of the message (Luke 14:32).

6:7 right hand

(Gr. dexios) (Matt. 6:3; Mark 10:37; Acts 2:25; Heb. 1:13) G1188: The Greek word indicates the hand with which one takes hold of something; thus, the meaning "right" or "right hand." The term can be used figuratively to indicate a place of honor (see for example Rom. 8:34—"the right hand of God"). The word can also mean the right-hand side more generically (as opposed to the right hand specifically), as in Matthew 5:29 ("right eye") or Matthew 5:39 ("right cheek"). In Galatians 2:9, the term is used to indicate a pledge of friendship or commitment by clasping right hands ("the right hand of fellowship").

6:9 well know

(Gr. epiginōskō) (Luke 24:16; 1 Cor. 13:12; Col. 1:6; 2 Pet. 2:21) G1921: The verb epiginōskō is common in the New Testament carrying with it a variety of meanings, especially "to know," "to understand," or, "to recognize." Here the form is intensive, suggesting "to know exactly, completely" (as also 1 Cor. 13:12). Sometimes the verb means recognize (as Luke 24:16) or acknowledge (as 1 Cor. 16:18), sometimes learn, find out (as Luke 7:37) or come to know (2 Pet. 2:21). Some interpreters have 11 O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own bowels.
13 Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged.

Be Not Unequally Yoked

14 Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?
15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?
16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.
17 Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,

Joyful in Tribulation

7 Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.
2 Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.
3 I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.
4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying of you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.
5 For, when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears.
6 Nevertheless God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus;
7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.
8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

Godly Sorrow

7:6 cast down

(Gr. tapeinos) (Matt. 11:29; Luke 1:52; Rom. 12:16; 1 Pet. 5:5) G5011: This word offers us a word picture of what it feels like to be depressed or downcast. It literally means "low to the ground." In addition to describing a low emotional state, it can mean being humble or low in position. Believers are to exhibit this type of humility before God and put others first: "Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all of you be subject to one another, and be clothed with humility, for 'God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble [tapeinos]'" (1 Pet. 5:5).

7:8 repent

(Gr. metamelomai) (Matt. 21:29; 27:3; Heb. 7:21) G3338: Verb meaning regret, have remorse. It may be compared to the near synonym metanoeō (G3340), "repent," which the New Testament always uses of repentance to salvation. Whereas metanoeō literally indicates a change (G3326—meta) in one's way of thinking (G3539—noeō), metamelomai views it more as a change in one's feelings, cares, or concerns (melō). The terms, however, are essentially synonymous and can just as surely indicate genuine change. Matthew uses this word to describe Judas (Matt. 21:29, 32; 27:3), and it is used once to speak of God (Heb. 7:21).

for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.
10 For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death.
11 For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.
12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.
13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.
14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.
15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.
16 I rejoice therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

Macedonians an Example of Giving

8 Moreover, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia;
2 How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality.
3 For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves;
4 Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.
5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.
6 Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.
7 Therefore, as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also.
8 I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.
9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.
10 And herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago.
11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

8:9 become poor

(Gr. ptōcheuō) G4433: This word refers to being destitute, so poor that one has to beg. It is a position of extreme poverty without any material goods. The root word means "to crouch," describing the position of a beggar. Christ's entrance into the world as a baby was an act of lowering Himself to the greatest possible degree. He completely impoverished Himself in that act, and it was done so that we who are poor beggars can receive the riches of salvation. The word is used only here in the New Testament.

8:9 poverty ▸ see Rev. 2:9.

8:10 advice

(Gr. gnōmē) (Acts 20:3; 1 Cor. 1:10; Philem. 14; Rev. 17:13) G1106: Here translated "advice," other renderings of this word include "purpose" (Acts 20:3), "judgment" (1 Cor. 1:10), and "mind" (Rev. 17:13). The Greek word indicates either that which is thought or known, or the capacity or faculty of knowing. Thus in Revelation 17:13 ("These have one mind") and Revelation 17:17 ("agree"), the sense is of a unity of thought. Here, the rendering "advice" indicates that Paul is laying out his argument based on what he knows (compare 1 Cor. 7:25).

12 For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.
13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened:
14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:
15 As it is written, He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

Titus's Love for the Corinthian Church

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.
17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.
18 And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;
19 And not that only, but who was also chosen of the churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:
20 Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:
21 Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.
22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which I have in you.
23 Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellowhelper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.
24 Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

Ministry to the Saints

9 For as touching the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you:
2 For I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many.
3 Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready:
4 Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

God Loves a Cheerful Giver

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your bounty, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.
6 But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.
7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver.
8 And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:
9 (As it is written, He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever.
10 Now he that ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;)

9:7 cheerful

(Gr. hilaros) G2431: The basis for our words "hilarious" and "hilarity," this word means "cheerful, merry, joyous." It implies eagerness and good-naturedness. Our giving should be joyful and without restraint. The word is used only here in the New Testament.

9:10 minister ▸ see 2 Pet. 1:5.

11 Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.
12 For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God;
13 Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men;
14 And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you.
15 Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift.

Mighty Weapons of Warfare

10 Now I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you:
2 But I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.
3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:
4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;)
5 Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;
6 And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.
7 Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's.
8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed:
9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.
10 For his letters, say they, are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.
11 Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

God's Rule of Measure

12 For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring

9:11 thanksgiving

(Gr. eucharistia) (Acts 24:3; 2 Cor. 4:15; Phil. 4:6; Col. 4:2) G2169: The word can mean either "thankfulness" or "the giving of thanks." In Acts 24:3, the word expresses thankfulness to the Roman procurator Felix for the peace and prosperity enjoyed under his rule, but in each of the other 14 instances, the word refers to thankfulness to God, either directly (as thanks given to God through prayer—see 1 Thess. 3:9) or indirectly (as a general state of gratitude—see Col. 2:7; 1 Tim. 4:3).

9:12 service ▸ see Phil. 2:30.
9:14 exceeding ▸ see 2 Cor. 3:10.

10:1 meekness

(Gr. praotēs) (1 Cor. 4:21; Gal. 5:23; Titus 3:2) G4236: This noun means gentleness, meekness, courtesy, perhaps even submissiveness. The basic sense is a submission to the treatment one receives, especially from God, but also from others because one is submitted to God. This virtue arises from one's "humility," a proper sense of oneself as of less importance before God. Here in 2 Corinthians 10:1 Christ is our example of "meekness and gentleness" (epieikeia). Indeed, we are to show meekness to all men (Titus 3:2).

10:1 gentleness ▸ see Acts 24:4.

10:5 obedience

(Gr. hypakoē) (Rom. 1:5; 6:16; Heb. 5:8; 1 Pet. 1:14) G5218: The root word means "to listen, to hearken"—as when someone knocks at the door. Literally it means "to hear under." In usage it means "attentive listening." It describes someone who earnestly listens to the Word of God with the intention and desire to do what it says. This is no mere mental agreement, for submission is implied. Jesus obeyed in this way (Rom. 5:19; Heb. 5:8). The word is usually used of believers' response in faith to God's Word—faith in Christ leads to submission to God's will.

10:6 disobedience ▸ see Rom. 5:19.

themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.
13 But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.
14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:
15 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly,
16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand.
17 But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.
18 For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

Guard Against False Preaching

11 Would to God ye could bear with me a little in my folly: and indeed bear with me.
2 For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.
3 But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.
4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.
5 For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.
6 But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things.
7 Have I committed an offence in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?
8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.
9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.
10 As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.
11 Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth.
12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.
13 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.
14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

11:7 freely

(Gr. dōrean) (Matt. 10:8; Rom. 3:24; Gal. 2:21; Rev. 21:6) G1432: This adverb usually means "freely" (as Matt. 10:8; Rom. 3:24; here at 2 Cor. 11:7). The word may also have a negative nuance as in the meaning "without cause," "undeservedly" (John 15:25), "for nothing," or "for no reason" (Gal. 2:21). The related verb dōreomai, "(freely) give" (G1433—Mark 15:45; 2 Pet. 1:3); and the nouns dōrea (G1431), dōrēma (G1434), and dōron (G1435) all mean "gift, present."

11:8 service

(Gr. diakonia) (2 Cor. 8:4; 9:1; Heb. 1:14) G1248: The primary sense of the Greek word is service, especially service performed at the command of another, including the promotion of religion at God's command. It is used once of the office of Moses (2 Cor. 3:7—"the ministration of death"), who at God's command brought the Law. The word is also used to describe the work of the apostles (1 Tim. 1:12) who served God and the church by preaching the gospel and causing believers to be governed by the Holy Spirit, as well as the work of all who serve the Lord in various ways (1 Cor. 12:5).

11:14 marvel ▸ see Rev. 17:6.

11:14 transform

(Gr. metaschēmatizō) (1 Cor. 4:6; Phil. 3:21) G3345: The literal meaning of the verb is "to 15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

Suffering for the Lord's Glory

16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little.
17 That which I speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.
18 Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.
19 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise.
20 For ye suffer, if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.
21 I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.
22 Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.
23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft.
24 Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one.
25 Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;
26 In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;
27 In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.
28 Beside those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches.
29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?
30 If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.
31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.
32 In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me:
33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

Paul's Vision of Paradise

12 It is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.
2 I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven.
3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)
4 How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.
5 Of such an one will I glory: yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.
6 For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

change the figure of"; that is, to transform oneself into someone else, as is described here of Satan who "is transformed into an angel of light." Three of the five uses of the word appear in three consecutive verses in 2 Corinthians 11:13, 14, and 15, describing the transformation of what is evil (false apostles, Satan, and Satan's ministers) into what appears to be good. The word is used more positively in Philippians 3:21, describing the transformation of our earthly bodies into ones that are "fashioned like unto his glorious body."

there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.
8 For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.
9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.
10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

The Signs of an Apostle

11 I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.
12 Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.
13 For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be that I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

Paul's Love for the Church

14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.
15 And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.
16 But be it so, I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.
17 Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?
18 I desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother. Did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?
19 Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.
20 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:
21 And lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.

12:7 thorn

(Gr. skolops) G4647: The Greek word skolops originally referred to anything pointed, such as a stake, but later came to mean "a thorn" (as in Num. 33:55). The word is used only here in the New Testament. Here Paul uses the word metaphorically to describe a sharp and painful condition, probably physical (cf. Gal. 4:13). The precise nature of this malady is unknown, although physical disfigurement (cf. Acts 14:19) and eye trouble (cf. Gal. 6:11) are among the more common guesses.

12:9 strength . . . power ▸ see Acts 1:8.
12:10 take pleasure ▸ see Luke 12:32.
12:10 reproach ▸ see Acts 27:10.
12:10 persecution ▸ see Acts 8:1.

12:12 apostle

(Gr. apostolos) (Matt. 10:2; Acts 2:37; Rom. 1:1; 2 Cor. 1:1; Heb. 3:1) G0652: The Greek word simply means "sent ones." Out of Jesus' many disciples, He selected twelve to be His apostles. These were the men who were sent by Jesus to take His message to the world and then raise up churches. Paul also became an apostle by the appointment of the risen Christ, who encountered Paul on the road to Damascus (see Acts 9). Paul's apostleship was accompanied by a great deal of suffering; and then to add to it, some false teachers in the Corinthian church doubted his authority. Thus in 2 Corinthians, Paul repeatedly defended the genuineness of his apostleship.

12:16 crafty

(Gr. panourgos) G3835: Compound adjective from pas (G3956), "all, any," and ergon (G2041), "work," thus suggesting one who is ready and able to do anything, therefore clever, crafty, sly. The word and the related noun panourgia (G3834), "craftiness, deceitful cunning" (Luke 20:23; 2 Cor. 11:3) always have a negative nuance in the New Testament. Here (as often in this section of 2 Corinthians) Paul is ironically accepting what his critics have said about him. The word is used only here in the New Testament.

12:21 humble ▸ see Luke 14:11.

Examine Yourselves

13 This is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.
2 I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare:
3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you.
4 For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.
5 Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?
6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.
7 Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates.
8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.
9 For we are glad, when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even your perfection.
10 Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.

Live in Peace

11 Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.
12 Greet one another with an holy kiss.
13 All the saints salute you.
14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

13:3 be mighty

(Gr. dynateō) G1414: Related to our word for dynamite, this word means "mighty, powerful, to show oneself powerful, to be able." This particular form of the word is used only here, though its relatives appear elsewhere. The power of God lives inside believers, so the same power that raised Jesus from the dead is alive and working in us.

13:5 prove ▸ see John 6:6.
13:5 reprobate ▸ see 1 Cor. 9:27.

13:9 perfection

(Gr. katartisis) G2676: This word means improving, training, strengthening. It is making adjustments and repairs as needed until perfection is attained. This form of the word is only used here, but its root word describes the disciples mending their nets in Matthew 4:21 (G2675 katartizō). Paul longs for the Corinthians' faith to be complete or perfected, and works toward that end, even if his labors tire him.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE

GALATIANS

THE GALATIANS, HAVING LAUNCHED THEIR Christian experience by faith, seem content to leave their voyage of faith and chart a new course based on works—a course Paul finds disturbing. His letter to the Galatians is a vigorous attack against the gospel of works and a defense of the gospel of faith.

Paul begins by setting forth his credentials as an apostle with a message from God: blessing comes from God on the basis of faith, not law. The law declares men guilty and imprisons them; faith sets men free to enjoy liberty in Christ. But liberty is not license. Freedom in Christ means freedom to produce the fruits of righteousness through a Spirit-led lifestyle.

The book is called Pros Galatas, "To the Galatians," and it is the only letter of Paul that is specifically addressed to a number of churches ("to the churches of Galatia," 1:2). The name Galatians was given to this Celtic people because they originally lived in Gaul before their migration to Asia Minor.

Salutation

1 Paul, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;)
2 And all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Galatia:
3 Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,
4 Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father:
5 To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Pervert Not the Gospel

(Gr. kaleō) (Matt. 1:21; Luke 5:32; Eph. 4:1; 1 Pet. 2:9) G2564: This word means "to call aloud; to call by a name." It is also used to denote an invitation, such as to a wedding feast (Matt. 22:9; Luke 14:7). Jesus uses it both in the sense of calling out or calling by name and in the sense of an invitation when He says, "I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance" (Mark 2:17). In a similar vein, the word is used to refer to the calling believers have to live in a way that honors God (Eph. 4:1).

preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.
9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.
10 For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ

11 But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.
12 For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.
13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it:
14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers.
15 But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,
16 To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood:
17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.
18 Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.
19 But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother.
20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.
21 Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia;
22 And was unknown by face unto the churches of Judaea which were in Christ:
23 But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.
24 And they glorified God in me.

The Gospel of the Uncircumcision

2 Then fourteen years after I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.
2 And I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain.
3 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:
4 And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage:
5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.
6 But of these who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat in conference added nothing to me:
7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter;
8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles:)
9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

heteros (G2087), which is another of a different kind. These are the other sheep that Jesus will gather in (John 10:16) and the other Helper—the Holy Spirit—whom He will send (John 14:16). The Gentile believers will be like the Jewish ones, and the Holy Spirit is another helper like Christ. By contrast, the works-based gospel that the Galatians were turning to was not another of the same kind, but rather a completely different thing from the true gospel of Jesus Christ.

Paul's Charge Against Peter

11 But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.
12 For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.
13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.
14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?
15 We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles,
16 Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.
17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.
18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.
19 For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God.
20 I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.
21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

The Just Shall Live by Faith

3 O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?
2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?
3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?
4 Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.
5 He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?
6 Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.
7 Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.
8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed.

2:10 be forward

(Gr. spoudazō) (Eph. 4:3; 2 Tim. 2:15; Heb. 4:11; 2 Pet. 1:10) G4704: With a root word meaning "haste" (spoudē—G4710) this word means "to use speed; to be earnest and prompt; to use diligent effort." It is related to zeal, wherein a person strains himself with eagerness. This word combines thinking with action, forming a plan with the quick carrying out of the plan. When a need is noticed, action is speedily taken. This should be our attitude toward obedience. As Paul tells Timothy, "Study [spoudazō] to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed" (2 Tim. 2:15).

2:13 dissimulation

(Gr. hypokrisis) (Matt. 23:28; Luke 12:1; 1 Tim. 4:2; 1 Pet. 2:1) G5272: Derived from the Greek word for "playacting, pretending," this word was usually associated with acting on the stage. It literally means "a reply." Eventually it was extended to mean acting insincerely, pretense, or as usually translated, hypocrisy. Jesus rebuked the Pharisees for their hypocrisy (Matt. 23:28; Luke 12:1). Paul thought it was hypocritical for Jewish believers to eat with Gentile believers sometimes, but then separate from them when disapproving Jews arrived from Jerusalem.

9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.
10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.
11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith.
12 And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them.
13 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:
14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

The Covenant Confirmed in Christ

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.
16 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.
17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.
18 For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.
19 Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator.
20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one.
21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.
22 But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.
23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.
24 Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.
25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

One in Christ Jesus

26 For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.
27 For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.
28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.
29 And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

3:13 redeem

(Gr. exagorazō) (Gal. 4:5) G1805: The primary meaning of the word, which appears only four times in the New Testament, is to pay a price in order to recover someone or something from the power of another—that is, to redeem or ransom. This is the sense here and in Galatians 4:5, though the usage is figurative, describing Christ's payment on the cross ransoming believers from the power of sin. The word can also mean "to buy up," which seems to be the sense in Ephesians 5:16 and Colossians 4:5 ("redeeming the time")—making a wise use of every opportunity for doing good as the purchase price for making the time our own.

3:23 keep

(Gr. phroureō) (2 Cor. 11:32; Phil. 4:7) G5432: The Greek word phroureō is a military term meaning "to keep under guard," or "to garrison." In 2 Corinthians 11:32 Paul uses the word literally to describe how the governor of Damascus guarded the city to prevent his escape. Elsewhere in the New Testament phroureō is used figuratively of God's guarding believers by His power for salvation (1 Pet. 1:5); of God's peace guarding believers' hearts and minds (Phil. 4:7); and here in Galatians 3:23 of believers being kept in protective custody by the law until the coming of faith.

The Heirs of God's Grace

4 Now I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;
2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.
3 Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world:
4 But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law,
5 To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons.
6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.
7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

Paul Urges Faithfulness

8 Howbeit then, when ye knew not God, ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.
9 But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?
10 Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years.
11 I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.
12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all.
13 Ye know how through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first.
14 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.
15 Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.
16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?
17 They zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them.
18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.
19 My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you,

4:3 element

(Gr. stoicheion) (Col. 2:8, 20; Heb. 5:12; 2 Pet. 3:10) G4747: This Greek word can mean (1) "elementary or rudimentary principles" or (2) "elemental spirits." The word itself means things placed in line or in a row, like an alphabet. It was used to speak of rudimentary principles (Heb. 5:12) or basic elements of the universe, whether physical (2 Pet. 3:10) or spiritual. If Paul was thinking of elementary principles, he meant that people are in bondage to the basic elements of religion (Col. 2:20); if he meant spirits, he was saying that people are in bondage to the "elemental spirits," meaning certain gods or demons. Principles suits the overall context of Galatians, whereas spirits accords with Galatians 4:8–10. In either case, Paul was saying that people were in bondage until Christ came.

4:4 time ▸ see Acts 1:7.
4:5 redeem ▸ see Gal. 3:13.

4:5 adoption of sons

(Gr. huiothesia) (Rom. 8:15; Eph. 1:5) G5206: A compound from huios (G5207), "son," and thesis (G5087), "a placing," thus meaning adoption. The word was a legal technical term for a father's declaration that his natural born child was officially a son or daughter, with all the rights and privileges that this included. In the New Testament it is used only in a religious sense. Huiothesia indicates that believers are accepted by God as His sons. The Holy Spirit gives the realization that one is a son (or daughter) of God (Rom. 8:15). Completed sonship includes the future redemption of the body (Rom. 8:23). Israel as a nation is called God's "son" in the Old Testament (Ex. 4:22), and thus collectively is said to possess the adoption (Rom. 9:4).

4:19 form

(Gr. morphoō) G3445: Taken from the word for "external appearance, the outward form of something," this word means "to fashion, to form." It denotes the internal reality of something, not merely its outer appearance. This word only appears here in Scripture, where it is used to 20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?

The Children of Promise

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman.
23 But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was by promise.
24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.
25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.
26 But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.
27 For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.
28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.
29 But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now.
30 Nevertheless what saith the scripture? Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman.
31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free.

The Hope of Righteousness

5 Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.
2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.
3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.
4 Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace.
5 For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.
6 For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love.
7 Ye did run well; who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?
8 This persuasion cometh not of him that calleth you.
9 A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.
10 I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be.
11 And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is the offence of the cross ceased.
12 I would they were even cut off which trouble you.
13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.
14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.
15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

The Works of the Flesh

16 This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

emphasize the conforming of our character to Christ internally, in our heart and soul—rather than insincerely through outward rituals.

4:24 be an allegory

(Gr. allēgoreō) G0238: The Greek verb allēgoreō is used only here in the New Testament and comes from allos (G0243), "other," and agoreuō, "speak" (in the agora, or marketplace), hence meaning to allegorize, speak in a symbolic manner. The biblical allegory here does not deny the literal meaning of the Old Testament events nor the priority of history. Rather it is a literary genre that looks for deeper spiritual truth illustrated in Old Testament events.

17 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.
18 But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.
19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,
20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,
21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

The Fruit of the Spirit

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, 23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.
24 And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.
25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.
26 Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

Bear One Another's Burdens

6 Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.
2 Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.
3 For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.
4 But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another.
5 For every man shall bear his own burden.
6 Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.
7 Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.
8 For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

5:20 idolatry

(Gr. eidōlolatreia) (1 Cor. 10:14; Col. 3:5) G1495: This word refers to the practice of worshiping idols. Related Greek words are translated "idolater" in 1 Corinthians 5:10, 11; 6:9; 10:7; "idol" in 1 Corinthians 8:4, 7; 10:19; 12:2; and "things offered unto idols" in 1 Corinthians 8:1, 4, 7; 10:19, 28. Paul had told the Corinthians not to associate with those who called themselves believers but were still idolaters (1 Cor. 5:9–11). The Corinthians must have asked Paul for clarification on this matter, for in 1 Corinthians Paul warns the believers to refrain from all forms of idol worship.

5:22 gentleness

(Gr. chrēstotēs) (Rom. 2:4; 11:22; 2 Cor. 6:6; Eph. 2:7) G5544: Equally translated "goodness," "gentleness," and "kindness," this word denotes the outward expression of goodness. The root word means "useful, pleasant" (chrēstos—G5543). It is a sweet gentleness toward others that leads a person to perform kind acts. It is acting for the welfare of others, even those who are difficult to get along with. This is the character trait God displays toward us that leads us to repentance (Rom. 2:4). Such sweetness of spirit is possible for us to show others only through the working of the Holy Spirit.

5:22 goodness ▸ see Rom. 15:14.
5:23 meekness ▸ see 2 Cor. 10:1.

5:23 temperance

(Gr. enkrateia) (Acts 24:25; 2 Pet. 1:6) G1466: This is a noun meaning self-control, self-discipline, self-denial. The word is derived from the preposition en (G1722), "in," and the verb krateō (G2902), "hold," hence suggesting a holding oneself in. Here self-control is made possible for the Christian through the fruit of the Spirit of God. It is one of the virtues necessary for spiritual progress in the Christian life (2 Pet. 1:6). Paul also uses the related verb enkrateuomai (G1467), "to exercise self-control" (1 Cor. 7:9; 9:25, where the example of the athlete is instructive) and the adjective enkratēs (G1468), "self-controlled" (only in Titus 1:8).

9 And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.
10 As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.

Crucified to the World

11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.
12 As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.
13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.
14 But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.
15 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.
16 And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.
17 From henceforth let no man trouble me: for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.
18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

6:10 do ▸ see John 9:4.

6:12 circumcise

(Gr. peritemnō) (Acts 7:8; Gal. 2:3) G4059: The word's literal meaning is "to cut around" but is used exclusively in the New Testament to refer to the rite of circumcision (the cutting off of the male foreskin as required by God under the Abrahamic Covenant, see Gen. 17:10). The word can refer to circumcising one's infant son according to Jewish custom (as Luke 1:59; 2:21), receiving circumcision oneself (Acts 15:24), or circumcising an adult (Acts 16:3). In Colossians 2:11, the word is used figuratively, indicating the separation of man from his sinful nature through Christ.

6:14 cross ▸ see Mark 8:34.

6:14 crucify

(Gr. stauroō) (Matt. 20:19; 1 Cor. 1:23) G4717: Originally this word meant to fence by driving stakes; then, as the stauros (G4716), "stake," became an instrument of execution, stauroō described the action of executing by affixing a person to a stake, or cross (see stauros at Mark 8:34). In the New Testament it is used literally of the crucifixion of Jesus (Matt. 20:19; 27:38) and of others (Matt. 23:34), and also figuratively (as here in Gal. 6:14) to consider as dead those features of life that are worldly, carnal, or Satan-inspired (cf. Gal. 5:24).

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE

EPHESIANS

EPHESIANS IS ADDRESSED TO A group of believers who are rich beyond measure in Jesus Christ, yet living as beggars, and only because they are ignorant of their wealth. Paul begins by describing in chapters 1—3 the contents of the Christian's heavenly "bank account": adoption, acceptance, redemption, forgiveness, wisdom, inheritance, the seal of the Holy Spirit, life, grace, citizenship—in short, every spiritual blessing. In chapters 4—6 the Christian learns a spiritual walk rooted in his spiritual wealth. "For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus [1—3] unto good works, . . . that we should walk in them [4—6]" (2:10).

The traditional title of this epistle is Pros Ephesious, "To the Ephesians." Many ancient manuscripts, however, omit en Epheso, "in Ephesus," in 1:1. This has led a number of scholars to challenge the traditional view that this message was directed specifically to the Ephesians. The encyclical theory proposes that it was a circular letter sent by Paul to the churches of Asia. It is argued that Ephesians is really a Christian treatise designed for general use: it involves no controversy and deals with no specific problems in any particular church. Some scholars accept an ancient tradition that Ephesians is Paul's letter to the Laodiceans (Col. 4:16), but there is no way to be sure. If Ephesians began as a circular letter, it eventually became associated with Ephesus, the foremost of the Asian churches. Another plausible option is that this epistle was directly addressed to the Ephesians, but written in such a way as to make it helpful for all the churches in Asia.

Salutation to the Saints

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus:

2 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Redemption by Christ

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ:

4 According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love:

1:1 will ▸ see Eph. 1:11.
1:3 bless ▸ see Luke 6:28.

1:4 choose

(Gr. eklegomai) (Luke 6:13; John 15:16; 1 Cor. 1:27, 28) G1586: A combined form of ek (G1537), "out" and legō (G3004), "say, call, name," this word means "to choose, select." The voice of this term implies choosing for oneself, and in usage it is usually choosing one thing among many. This word is used when Jesus chooses His disciples, calling them out to be in His inner circle of followers (Luke 6:13; Acts 1:24). But primary use in the New Testament is to refer to the election of believers by God, in Christ, to salvation

5 Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will,
6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved.
7 In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace;
8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence;
9 Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself:
10 That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him:
11 In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will:
12 That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.
13 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise,
14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

Prayerful Thanksgiving

1:6 praise

(Gr. epainos) (Rom. 2:29; Phil 4:8; 1 Pet. 1:7) G1868: With root words epi (G1909), "upon," and aineō, "to praise, honor," this word means "to extol, commend, praise." It is offering praise to God, honoring both what He does and who He is—His attributes. The phrase "to the praise of His glory" denotes this (Eph. 1:12, 14). It is also used to describe commendation from God: "Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: then shall every man have praise [epainos] of God" (1 Cor. 4:5).

1:11 purpose

(Gr. prothesis) (Acts 11:23; Rom. 8:28; Eph. 3:11) G4286: The word prothesis denotes an intention or a plan; it literally means "a laying out beforehand" like a blueprint. The noun is used to describe the showbread (Matt. 12:4), bread set aside for a specific purpose. As believers, we are "the called according to His purpose [prothesis]" (Rom. 8:28). Here, in Ephesians 1:11, Paul describes believers as "predestinated according to the purpose [prothesis]" of God. Clearly, our lives are not left to chance. God has a plan and is working out His purposes in His people.

1:11 counsel

(Gr. boulē) (Acts 27:42; 1 Cor. 4:5; Heb. 6:17) G1012: Ephesians 1:11 describes the "purpose" of God (see note at Ephesians 1:11, "purpose"). This purpose was created according to His "counsel," a translation of the Greek word boulē, which means the result of deliberate determination. Hebrews 6:17 puts it this way: "the immutability of His counsel." God's plan has been in place and will never change. In contrast, people make plans but often do not or cannot fulfill them (Acts 27:42; 1 Cor. 4:5).

1:11 will

(Gr. thelēma) (Rom. 1:10; 1 Cor. 1:1; Eph. 1:1, 9; 2:3; 5:17) G2307: This word has been used by Paul twice before in this chapter (Eph. 1:1, 9). The word conveys the idea of desire, even a heart's desire, for the word primarily expresses emotion instead of volition. Thus, while God has a plan in place that is immutable (see Eph. 1:11 notes on "purpose" and "counsel"), that plan is also His heart's desire. Behind the plan and the counsel is not just a mastermind but a heart of love.

16 Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;
17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him:
18 The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,
19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power,
20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,
21 Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come:
22 And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church,
23 Which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all.

Saved by Grace

2 And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins;
2 Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience:
3 Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.
4 But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,
5 Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;)
6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:
7 That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.
8 For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:
9 Not of works, lest any man should boast.
10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

2:5 sin

(Gr. paraptōma) (Matt. 6:14; Rom. 5:15; 2 Cor. 5:19; Eph. 1:7) G3900: Literally this word means "to fall beside, misstep." But in the New Testament it is used only in the figurative sense to refer to sin. In this sense it means "a lapse or deviation from truth; transgression; willful fault." Usually it refers specifically to sins against God, and it often appears in the plural. When compared to its synonym hamartia (G0266), it may imply unpremeditated violations of God's law. Scripture makes it clear that the heart of the gospel is God's grace to forgive our sins even though we have done nothing to deserve forgiveness and are, in fact, dead in our transgressions.

2:10 workmanship

(Gr. poiēma) (Rom. 1:20) G4161: Used twice in the New Testament the word literally means "a thing made"; it comes into English as poem. The word indicates a handiwork, a masterpiece. God's church is His "poem," His masterpiece, His workmanship, just as all creation is (Ps. 19:1; Rom. 1:20). As He is the Author of His handiwork, He should get all the credit (see Ps. 19:1–6).

being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world:
13 But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

Christ Our Peace

14 For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;
15 Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace;
16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby:
17 And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.
18 For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

Christ Our Cornerstone

19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God;
20 And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone;
21 In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord:
22 In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

The Mystery Made Known

3 For this cause I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles,
2 If ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me to you-ward:
3 How that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery; (as I wrote afore in few words,
4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ)
5 Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;
6 That the Gentiles should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel:
7 Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power.

The Unsearchable Riches of Christ

8 Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ;
9 And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ:
10 To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God,

2:19 foreigner

(Gr. paroikos) (Acts 7:6, 29; 1 Pet. 2:11) G3941: With root words para (G3844), "beside," and oikos (G3624), "a house," this word describes someone who sojourns in a land without the rights of citizenship. They do not quite belong where they live and are viewed as outsiders. Abraham and Moses wandered in a land not their own as they awaited the Promised Land (Acts 7:6, 29). At the moment of salvation, Christians who were once paroikos to God and His people change their citizenship to the kingdom of heaven. From that moment, they do not quite fit in on earth because their true home is in heaven (1 Pet. 2:11).

3:2 dispensation

(Gr. oikonomia) (Luke 16:2; 1 Cor. 9:17; Eph. 1:10) G3622: The word means "household management." In ancient times, the word was often used to describe the work of a person who took care of all the financial affairs of a large household or business (Luke 16:1, 2). Paul was entrusted with the stewardship of God's economy, to dispense the riches of Christ to God's household and to preach the Good News (Eph. 3:2–11). Paul uses this same word to describe God's own administration or government of time (Eph. 1:10).

11 According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord:
12 In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him.
13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

Praying for the Ephesians

14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
15 Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named,
16 That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man;
17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love,
18 May be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;
19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God.
20 Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us,
21 Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

Keep the Unity of the Spirit

4 I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,
2 With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love;
3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
4 There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;
5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism,
6 One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

The Gifts of Christ

7 But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.
8 Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.
9 (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?
10 He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.)

3:18 comprehend

(Gr. katalambanō) (John 8:3; 1 Cor. 9:24) G2638: This verb has a variety of meanings, all growing out of the basic idea "to take hold of" or "to grasp," from the preposition kata, down, and the verb lambanō, "to take" or "to receive." It may mean to make one's own or to attain (as 1 Cor. 9:24; Phil. 3:12), also to come upon, overtake, often with hostile intent (as Mark 9:18; 1 Thess. 5:4). Thus, it can also mean catch, seize, or take (as John 8:3). The word is also applied to mental activities in the sense of grasp, comprehend, understand (as here in Eph. 3:18). Commentators debate which of these meanings is predominant in John 1:5.

work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:
13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ:
14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;
15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:
16 From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

Put On the New Man

17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind,
18 Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart:
19 Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.
20 But ye have not so learned Christ;
21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:
22 That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;
23 And be renewed in the spirit of your mind;
24 And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.
25 Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another.
26 Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath:
27 Neither give place to the devil.
28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.
29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.
30 And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.
31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice:

in the New Testament. Other possible meanings include completion or training (and see also the related verb katartizō, G2675, at Heb. 11:3). The basic idea is "making fit" or "preparing fully," thus enabling someone (or something) to be what he (it) was designed to be. Consequently, the word generally carries a functional connotation, as does the related word, katartisis, completion (G2676—only at 2 Cor. 13:9).

4:12 edifying

(Gr. oikodomē) (Rom. 14:19; Eph. 4:16) G3619: The word can mean a physical building or buildings (Mark 13:1, 2) or the act of building (though this meaning does not appear in the New Testament); thus, figuratively, edifying (building up, enlightening, informing). Another figurative sense appears in 1 Corinthians 3:9, describing believers as "God's building," and in 2 Corinthians 5:1, the word describes the heavenly bodies God will give believers in heaven. When the meaning is "edify," the sense is of actively contributing to a person's spiritual betterment or enlightenment or increasing wisdom (see Rom. 15:2; 1 Cor. 14:5; 2 Cor. 12:19).

Walk in Love

5 Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children;
2 And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savour.
3 But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints;
4 Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.
5 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.
6 Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience.
7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them.

Walk as Children of Light

8 For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light:

10 Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.
11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.

13 But all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.
14 Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

Walk Not as Fools metaphorical usage referring to emotional bitterness. This is a universally negative state or emotion in Scripture. Acts 8:23 likens bitterness to poison; Romans 3:14 equates it with cursing. Here, bitterness is included in a list of sins to be "put away" from the believer, including wrath, anger, clamor, and evil speaking. In Hebrews 12:15, a "root of bitterness" is identified as a cause by which "many be defiled."

5:1 follower

(Gr. mimētēs) (1 Thess. 2:14; Heb. 6:12) G3402: The literal meaning of the word is "imitator" or "emulator," but this Greek word does not have the negative connotation or artificial sense conveyed by the English words imitate or mimic. It suggests, basically, the repetition of a pattern already established by another (as 1 Thess. 1:6). To be an imitator of a person who is setting a positive example, then, is a good thing. Paul invited his readers to be imitators both of himself (1 Cor. 4:16; 11:1) and of God (here in Eph. 5:1).

5:19 psalm

(Gr. psalmos) (Col. 3:16) G5568: The verb form of the Greek word means "sing praise" (or "sing a psalm"), originally implying the accompaniment of a harp. For Jews, this would mean singing an Old Testament psalm; the New Testament usage may include Christian songs of praise. The cognate noun (used here) means "song of praise" (that is, a psalm), either specifically from the Old Testament Book of Psalms (Luke 20:42; Acts 1:20; Acts 13:33) or perhaps a Christian song of praise (as here; see also 1 Cor. 14:26). It is not possible to make precise distinctions between the "psalms," "hymns," and "spiritual songs" mentioned here.

Instructions for Marriage

22 Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.
23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body.
24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.
25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;
26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word,
27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.
28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.
29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:
30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.
31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.
32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.
33 Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

Instructions to Children

6 Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.
2 Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise;
3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.
4 And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

Servants and Masters

5 Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ;
6 Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;
7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:
8 Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.
9 And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him.

The Whole Armour of God

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.
11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.
12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

6:12 ruler

(Gr. kosmokratōr) G2888: This word, which appears nowhere else in Scripture, is a compound word meaning "world-ruler." These cosmic rulers are evil forces with which believers have to contend. Here the word is associated with a variety of terms that commonly designated evil supernatural beings that influence human affairs: "powers," "principalities," and "spiritual hosts of wickedness." It is not possible to distinguish the specific nuances of these words. Although the terms have uses in the realm of human governance, such meanings are unlikely here since Paul explicitly states that the struggle is not against "flesh and blood" and locates at least some of these evil forces in heavenly places.

6:12 world ▸ see Matt. 28:20.

13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.
14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness;
15 And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;
16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.
17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:
18 Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints;
19 And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel,
20 For which I am an ambassador in bonds: that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

Final Greetings

21 But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things:
22 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts.
23 Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
24 Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

6:13 withstand

(Gr. anthistēmi) (Matt. 5:39; Acts 6:10; Rom. 13:2; 1 Pet. 5:9) G0436: "To set against; vigorously oppose; resist; stand your ground." The root words are anti, "against; for," and histēmi, "to cause to stand." The weapons God provides and the power He gives enable us to stand against the attacks of Satan. First Peter 5:9 echoes this idea: ". . . resist [anthistēmi] stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world."

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE

PHILIPPIANS

PAUL WRITES A THANK-YOU NOTE to the believers at Philippi for their help in his hour of need, and he uses the occasion to send along some instruction on Christian unity. His central thought is simple: Only in Christ are real unity and joy possible. With Christ as your model of humility and service, you can enjoy a oneness of purpose, attitude, goal, and labor—a truth which Paul illustrates from his own life, and one the Philippians desperately need to hear. Within their own ranks, fellow workers in the Philippian church are at odds, hindering the work in proclaiming new life in Christ. Because of this, Paul exhorts the church to "stand fast . . . be of the same mind . . . rejoice in the Lord alway . . . in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God . . . and the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus" (4:1, 2, 4, 6, 7).

This epistle is called Pros Philippesious, "To the Philippians." The church at Philippi was the first church Paul founded in Macedonia.

WATCH WORDS

- form (the way that a thing exists and appears)—2:6 (also 2:7)
- service (work on behalf of another)—2:30
- body (the physical aspect of a person)—3:21

Greetings

1 Paul and Timotheus, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons:
2 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,
4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,
5 For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;
6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:
7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace.
8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.
9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment;
10 That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ;
11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

Paul's Bonds in Christ

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;
13 So that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all other places;
14 And many of the brethren in the Lord,

1:1 bishop ▸ see Titus 1:7.
1:1 deacon ▸ see Mark 9:35.
1:6 be confident ▸ see 2 Thess. 3:4.

waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.
15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will:
16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:
17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.
18 What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.
19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

Christ Is Magnified Through Paul

20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.
21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.
22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not.
23 For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better:
24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.
25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith;
26 That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again.
27 Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel;
28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God.
29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;
30 Having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

1:16 contention

(Gr. eritheia) (Rom. 2:8; Phil. 2:3; James 3:14, 16) G2052: Originally this word was used to refer to someone who gained political office through dishonest or unfair means. In this sense the literal definition is "intrigue." The root word means "worker; hireling." In Scripture it is used to describe someone who is so concerned with his own welfare and position that he is willing to achieve his goals by any means possible. He is self-promoting, factious, and ambitious to a fault. Such an attitude has no place in the life of a believer, and particularly in a minister of the gospel.

1:17 defence ▸ see 1 Pet. 3:15.

1:19 supply

(Gr. epichorēgia) (Eph. 4:16) G2024: The Philippians' prayer would generate the Spirit's supply. The Greek word was used to describe what a choir manager would provide all the members of a Greek choir who performed in Greek drama. In short, he took care of all their living expenses. The word came to mean a full supply of any kind. Paul was looking forward to getting a full supply of Jesus Christ's Spirit as a result of the Philippians' prayers.

1:20 magnify

(Gr. megalynō) (Luke 1:46; Acts 10:46; 2 Cor. 10:15) G3170: Literally "to enlarge." Figuratively it means "to magnify, exalt, praise, celebrate, make conspicuous." The root word, megas, means "great," so this form means "to make great." This was what Mary did in her Magnificat (Luke 1:46). When used of people it means to highly esteem (Acts 5:13). When we magnify God we are making Him greater and bigger in the eyes of those around us and even in our own hearts.

1:23 in a strait ▸ see 2 Cor. 5:14.
1:27 conversation ▸ see Acts 23:1.
1:27 become ▸ see Rom. 16:2.

1:27 strive together

(Gr. sunathleō) (Phil. 4:3) G4866: The image in Greek is drawn from athletic contests. Usually, athletes competed one against another; in Philippians 1:27 Paul asks the church at Philippi to compete together as a team of athletes to help advance the faith that comes through the preaching of the gospel. In the same epistle, he also mentions Euodias and Syntyche as those who were contending for the gospel side by side with himself (Phil. 4:2, 3).

1:29 give ▸ see Col. 3:13.

Be of One Accord and One Mind

2 If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies,
2 Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.
3 Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.
4 Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.
5 Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:
6 Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:
7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men:
8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.
9 Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name:
10 That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;
11 And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Shine as Lights in the World

12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.
13 For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.
14 Do all things without murmurings and disputings:
15 That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world;
16 Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.
17 Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all.
18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.

2:1 consolation ▸ see Acts 9:31.
2:3 strife ▸ see Phil. 1:16.
2:3 lowliness of mind ▸ see Acts 20:19.

2:6 form

(Gr. morphē) (Mark 16:12; Phil. 2:7) G3444: The Greek word for form was generally used to express the way in which a thing exists and appears according to what it is in itself. Thus in the expression here in Philippians 2:6, 7, form of God may be correctly understood as the essential nature and character of God. To say, therefore, that Christ existed in the form of God is to say that apart from His human nature Christ possesses all the characteristics and qualities belonging to God because He is, in fact, God. The word is also used in Mark 16:12 where Jesus appears "in another form" to the two men on the road to Emmaus.

2:7 of no reputation ▸ see 1 Cor. 9:15.
2:7 form ▸ see Phil. 2:6.
2:8 humble ▸ see Luke 14:11.

2:9 highly exalt

(Gr. hyperupsoō) G5251: The combined form of hyper (G5228), "on behalf of, over" and upsoō (G5312), "to lift up, to exalt," this word literally means "to exalt to the highest rank; to raise to supreme majesty." It is only used here in Scripture. The word here emphasizes the contrast between Christ's obedience to death—the most humble position He could take—and the position He has in heaven where He is exalted forever.

2:11 confess ▸ see Luke 10:21.
2:13 work ▸ see 2 Cor. 4:12.
2:14 murmuring ▸ see John 7:12.
2:14 disputing ▸ see Luke 6:8.
2:15 light ▸ see Rev. 21:11.

2:17 offer

(Gr. spendō) (2 Tim. 4:6) G4689: Related to our word "spend," this word means "to offer a drink offering." In the Old Testament drink offerings were poured out on a sacrifice. In the New Testament this word is used in the passive voice and with a figurative meaning of "to be offered in sacrifice," implying a violent death for the sake of Christ. Paul viewed his upcoming death as a drink offering of dedication and gratitude to God. Compare the use here to 2 Timothy 4:6 (the only other use of this word in Scripture): "For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand."

2:17 rejoice ▸ see Luke 15:9.

Timothy's Faithful Service

19 But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.
20 For I have no man likeminded, who will naturally care for your state.
21 For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.
22 But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.
23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.
24 But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.

Epaphroditus's Service to Paul

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labour, and fellowsoldier, but your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants.
26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.
27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.
28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.
29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and hold such in reputation:
30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service toward me.

That I May Win Christ

3 Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.
2 Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision.
3 For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.
4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:
5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee;
6 Concerning zeal, persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.
7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.
8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,
9 And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:
10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;
11 If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.
12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

The High Calling of God

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and

2:25 minister ▸ see Heb. 1:7.
2:29 gladness ▸ see Mark 4:16.

2:30 service

(Gr. leitourgia) (Luke 1:23; 2 Cor. 9:12; Heb. 8:6; 9:21) G3009: This type of service is usually a public office that a person undertakes on behalf of the state. In the New Testament it has a religious nuance, a mission undertaken on behalf of the church. It can refer to the service of priests (Luke 1:23) or, as here and in 2 Corinthians 9:12, the more general service of providing for the physical needs of fellow believers. In Hebrews 8:6 it is used to refer to the ministry of mediation that Jesus provides for believers: "But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry [leitourgia], by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises."

3:4 confidence ▸ see 2 Cor. 3:4.
3:6 zeal ▸ see Rom. 10:2.
3:6 blameless ▸ see Heb. 8:7.
3:8 knowledge ▸ see 2 Pet. 3:18.
3:9 righteousness ▸ see Rom. 1:17.
3:10 resurrection ▸ see Acts 2:31.

reaching forth unto those things which are before, 14 I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.
15 Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.
16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.
17 Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample.
18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:
19 Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.)
20 For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ:
21 Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.

The God of Peace

4 Therefore, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.
2 I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.
3 And I intreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellowlabourers, whose names are in the book of life.
4 Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.
5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.
6 Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.
7 And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.
8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.
9 Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

An Acceptable Sacrifice

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.
11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.
12 I know both how to be abased, and I

3:21 body

(Gr. sōma) (Matt. 5:29; 26:26; Rom. 8:11; Col. 1:18) G4983: This can refer to either a person or an animal, denoting its physical aspect or body. This is contrasted with the spirit or soul essence of a person. In Romans 6–8, Paul makes a sharp distinction between living according to the flesh or body—to satisfy earthly passions—and living according to the spirit to please God. Our lowly physical body is destined for death, but the glorious resurrection body will live forever. Metaphorically this word is also used to refer to the community of believers, the body of Christ of which He is the head (Col. 1:18).

4:3 labour ▸ see Phil. 1:27.
4:5 moderation ▸ see James 3:17.
4:6 careful ▸ see Matt. 6:25.

4:8 true ▸ see Rom. 3:4.
4:8 honest ▸ see 1 Tim. 3:11.
4:8 pure ▸ see 1 John 3:3.

4:8 good report

(Gr. euphēmos) G2163: Appearing only here, this word is related to our word "euphemism." It means "sounding well; speaking graciously." The root words are eu (G2095), "well," and phēmē (G5345), "a saying." This is gracious, praiseworthy, reputable, and good speech. It implies words that have a good outcome.

4:8 virtue ▸ see 1 Pet. 2:9.
4:8 praise ▸ see Eph. 1:6.

know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.
13 I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.
14 Notwithstanding ye have well done, that ye did communicate with my affliction.
15 Now ye Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.
16 For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity.
17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.
18 But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, wellpleasing to God.
19 But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.
20 Now unto God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

A Salute to the Saints

21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren which are with me greet you.
22 All the saints salute you, chiefly they that are of Caesar's household.
23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

4:15 communicate

(Gr. koinōneō) (Rom. 12:13; 15:27; Heb. 2:14; 1 Pet. 4:13) G2841: This word means "to have a share in, enter into fellowship with." The root word means "partner." Negatively this word is used to refer to sharing in sins (1 Tim. 5:22) or evil deeds (2 John 11). In this sense it means participating in and sharing equal responsibility for those actions. It is also used of sharing the needs of others and participating in meeting those needs (Rom. 12:13). First Peter 4:13 tells us we share (koinōneō) in Christ's sufferings and in His glory.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS

IF EPHESIANS CAN BE LABELED the epistle portraying the "church of Christ," then Colossians must surely be the "Christ of the church." Ephesians focuses on the body; Colossians focuses on the Head. Like Ephesians, the little Book of Colossians divides neatly in half with the first portion doctrinal (1 and 2) and the second practical (3 and 4). Paul's purpose is to show that Christ is preeminent—first and foremost in everything—and the Christian's life should reflect that priority. Because believers are rooted in Him, alive in Him, hidden in Him, and complete in Him, it is utterly inconsistent for them to live life without Him. Clothed in His love, with His peace ruling in their hearts, they are equipped to make Christ first in every area of life.

This epistle became known as Pros Kolossaeis, "To the Colossians," because of 1:2. Paul also wanted it to be read in the neighboring church at Laodicea (4:16).

Walk Worthy of the Lord

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother,
2 To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,
4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints,
5 For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;
6 Which is come unto you, as it is in all the world; and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth:
7 As ye also learned of Epaphras our dear fellowservant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ;
8 Who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit.
9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;
10 That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;

1:4 faith

(Gr. pistis) (Acts 17:31; 1 Cor. 13:13; Gal. 5:6; 2 Tim. 4:7) G4102: In the New Testament, this term is always used with reference to religious matters. Basically, faith is trusting in the God whom one is convinced is trustworthy. The Bible declares, "Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen" (Heb. 11:1). True faith is the means of obtaining a right relationship with God (Rom. 1:17; Eph. 2:8; James 2:14). On several occasions, this term can mean "faithfulness, trustworthiness"—especially when used in connection with other virtues (Matt. 23:23; Rom. 3:3; Gal. 5:22). The expression "the faith" may be used to denote Christianity (Gal. 1:23; 1 Tim. 4:1; Jude 3).

11 Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness;
12 Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light:
13 Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son:
14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:

The Preeminence of Christ

15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature:
16 For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him:
17 And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.
18 And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence.
19 For it pleased the Father that in him should all fulness dwell;
20 And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

Christ the Hope of Glory

21 And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled
22 In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unreproveable in his sight:
23 If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am made a minister;
24 Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church:
25 Whereof I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, to fulfil the word of God;
26 Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints:
27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory:
28 Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus:

1:11 strengthen

(Gr. dynamoō) G1412: This verb is one of many terms in the New Testament that falls within the broad domain of power language. It can be translated "to strengthen, enable, endow." This word is in the passive voice with God as the agent strengthening His people. It is paired with other power words (might and power). In the Septuagint, the man who strengthens himself and does not make God his strength is the object of laughter (Ps. 52:6, 7). Two passages of the Septuagint employ this verb to denote the strengthening of things—one time by God (Ps. 68:28; Dan. 9:27).

1:15 creature

(Gr. ktisis) (Col. 1:23; Heb. 9:11; Rev. 3:14) G2937: In biblical Greek, this term primarily refers to the divine act of creation or to the thing(s) created (Rom. 1:20, 25; 8:19–22, 39; Heb. 4:13). Creation marks the beginning of this present age—a fact acknowledged even by the last-days scoffers of the Second Coming (Mark 10:6; 13:19; 2 Pet. 3:4). Twice, the Pauline epistles employ this term in the rabbinical sense of someone being designated a "new creature" upon coming to God (2 Cor. 5:17; Gal. 6:15). In an unusual biblical use of the term (but in keeping with secular usage), Peter refers to a humanly produced governing authority (1 Pet. 2:13).

29 Whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

Present in the Spirit

2 For I would that ye knew what great conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;
2 That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ;
3 In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.
4 And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.
5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ.

Rooted in Christ Jesus

6 As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him:
7 Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.
8 Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.
9 For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.
10 And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power:
11 In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ:
12 Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead.

Dead to the World Yet Alive

13 And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses;
14 Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary

1:29 working

(Gr. energeia) (Eph. 4:16; Phil. 3:21; 2 Thess. 2:9) G1753: This word, related to the English word "energy," can be translated "working, operation, action, activity." It occurs only in the Pauline epistles where it is used only of superhuman beings and is always accompanied by other "power terms." The working of God includes His empowering Paul for ministry and His raising Christ from the dead (Eph. 1:19; 3:7; Col. 1:29; 2:12). Moreover, by His own working, Christ is able to subdue all things to Himself (Phil. 3:21). This term can also be used for the working of Satan in his deluding those who perish by using power, signs, and lying wonders (2 Thess. 2:9, 11).

2:9 fulness

(Gr. plērōma) (Matt. 9:16; John 1:16; Gal. 4:4) G4138: The Greek word plērōma indicates "plenitude" and "totality." It can also refer to a "patch," as in Matthew 9:16 in Jesus' parable about the new patch that tears an old garment or the fullness of time (Gal. 4:4). John says of Jesus, "Of his fulness have all we received" (John 1:16). Both Paul and John used the word to describe Christ, who is the fullness, the plenitude of God, for all the fullness of the Godhead dwells in Him bodily (Col. 1:19; 2:9).

2:9 Godhead

(Gr. theotētos) G2320: In this letter to the Colossians, Paul was specifically battling the Gnostic heresy. The Gnostics spoke of the "fullness of the Godhead" to describe the totality of all deities. However, Paul used it to point to God alone as that fullness. The Greek word theotētos for Godhead is used only here in the New Testament and designates the totality of God's nature and person. Since all of God's fullness resides in Christ, every spiritual reality is found in Christ. In Him, we lack nothing. All the fullness of the Godhead "dwells" or "permanently resides" in the body of Jesus, the God-man.

to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;
15 And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.
16 Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days:
17 Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.
18 Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind,
19 And not holding the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.
20 Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances,
21 (Touch not; taste not; handle not;
22 Which all are to perish with the using;) after the commandments and doctrines of men?
23 Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

Seek the Things Which Are Above

3 If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.
2 Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.
3 For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.
4 When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.
5 Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry:
6 For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience:
7 In the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them.
8 But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.
9 Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds;

Put on the New Man

10 And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him:
11 Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all.

term. It usually designates a financial record of account that acknowledges an amount deposited or borrowed that must be repaid to the note's bearer. It refers to a certificate of indebtedness, a bond, a promissory note, a formal IOU, or an invoice. There is an implied emphasis on the debtor's authenticating signature. This term occurs only once in the New Testament.

3:5 covetousness

(Gr. pleonexia) (Luke 12:15; 2 Cor. 9:5; 1 Thess. 2:5) G4124: This term denotes "avarice, greed, cupidity" and, in plural forms, acts inspired by such. These attitudes and actions stem from an arrogant self-centeredness that is insatiable, excessive, aggressive, and all too willing to harm others to get what it craves. Within the New Testament, this term is always negative, showing up in vice lists (Mark 7:2; Col. 3:5). While usually referring to immoral desire for material possessions, it can also refer to immoral sexual desire (Eph. 4:19). Pleonexia is ascribed to the godless and should not be named as a characteristic of God's people (Rom. 1:29; Eph. 5:3; 2 Pet. 2:3, 14).

13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.
14 And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness.
15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful.
16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.
17 And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

Husbands and Wives

18 Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.
19 Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.
20 Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord.
21 Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.
22 Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God:
23 And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men;
24 Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ.
25 But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

Walk in Wisdom

4 Masters, give unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.
2 Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving;
3 Withal praying also for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds:
4 That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.
5 Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time.

3:13 forbear ▸ see 2 Thess. 1:4.

3:13 forgive

(Gr. charizomai) (Luke 7:21; Rom. 8:32; 1 Cor. 2:12; Phil. 1:29) G5483: Used only by Paul and Luke, this verb is related to the noun commonly translated "grace." It denotes acting graciously toward a person by performing an act of kindness. These acts include bestowing forgiveness (Luke 7:42, 43; 2 Cor. 12:13; Col. 2:13), favors (Luke 7:21; Acts 27:24; Philem. 22), and gifts (Gal. 3:18; Phil. 2:9). In the New Testament, God or Jesus is usually the agent performing this action. Exceptions include the judicial handing over of someone (Acts 3:14; 25:11, 16) and the semi-judicial forgiving of a repentant offender disciplined by the church (2 Cor. 2:7, 10). Twice, the divine and human act of forgiveness is linked together using this term (Eph. 4:32; Col. 3:13).

3:15 rule

(Gr. brabeuō) G1018: In the New Testament, this verb occurs only here. In secular Greek, it referred to rewarding a prize, and then generally to the arbitrating of an umpire, judge, or election official. This term, belonging to the legal and athletic arenas, means to judge, rule, determine, decide, control, direct. The Book of Colossians contains the lone biblical use of a derived compound verb meaning to disqualify, to judge unfavorably and/or unfairly thus depriving someone of victory, to hinder someone from victory (Col. 2:18— katabrabeuō, G2603). In the current passage, the peace of God is to arbitrate in the hearts of Christians, who together constitute one body.

4:5 time

(Gr. kairos) (Mark 1:15; 2 Cor. 6:2; 1 Pet. 1:11; Rev. 12:12) G2540: This is one of two major New Testament terms meaning "time." The other one is chronos (G5550, see Acts 1:7). These words sometimes occur together, and their usages overlap to some extent (Acts 1:7; 1 Thess. 5:1). This term is used for a measure of time—sometimes fixed, like a season (Matt. 21:34, 41; Mark 11:13; Gal. 4:10) or specifically a year (Rev. 12:14), and sometimes indefinite (Luke 21:36; Eph. 6:18). It can be used with reference to an opportune or

Greetings from Believers

7 All my state shall Tychicus declare unto you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellowservant in the Lord:
8 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts;
9 With Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known unto you all things which are done here.
10 Aristarchus my fellowprisoner saluteth you, and Marcus, sister's son to Barnabas, (touching whom ye received commandments: if he come unto you, receive him;)
11 And Jesus, which is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These only are my fellowworkers unto the kingdom of God, which have been a comfort unto me.
12 Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God.
13 For I bear him record, that he hath a great zeal for you, and them that are in Laodicea, and them in Hierapolis.
14 Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas, greet you.
15 Salute the brethren which are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the church which is in his house.

Grace Be with You

16 And when this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and that ye likewise read the epistle from Laodicea.
17 And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it.

4:14 physician

(Gr. iatros) (Matt. 9:12; Mark 2:17) G2395: Within the New Testament, this term is used only in the literal sense. Luke—and Luke alone—cites both of the New Testament's physician proverbs: "Physician, heal thyself" and "They that are whole need not a physician, but they that are sick" (Luke 4:23; 5:31). The Gospels record the story of a woman who spent all she had on physicians, enduring their "remedies" in vain (Mark 5:26; Luke 8:43). In the Greco-Roman world, the level of esteem doctors were held in varied widely: some doctors were highly regarded, some were unknown slaves, some were folk-healers, and some were simply quacks.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE

THESSALONIANS

PAUL HAS MANY PLEASANT MEMORIES of the days he spent with the infant Thessalonian church. Their faith, hope, love, and perseverance in the face of persecution are exemplary. Paul's labors as a spiritual parent to the fledgling church have been richly rewarded, and his affection is visible in every line of his letter.

Paul encourages them to excel in their newfound faith, to increase in their love for one another, and to rejoice, pray, and give thanks always. He closes his letter with instruction regarding the return of the Lord, whose advent signifies hope and comfort for believers both living and dead.

Because this is the first of Paul's two canonical letters to the church at Thessalonica, it received the title Pros Thessalonikeis A, the "First to the Thessalonians."

The Thessalonians' Work of Faith

1 Paul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

3 Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father;

4 Knowing, brethren beloved, your election of God.

5 For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost:

7 So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to God-ward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing.

9 For they themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God;

10 And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus,

1:3 work

(Gr. ergon) (Matt. 5:16; John 6:29; Rom. 3:28; Eph. 2:10) G2041: This word refers to business, employment, or anything with which one is occupied. Both the labor or toil of work and the product that results from the work are described by this term. It is often used to simply mean "deeds" or the actions that characterize a person's life. The works of a believer are to draw others to faith (Matt. 5:16), yet such works cannot save anyone—salvation is by faith alone through grace (Rom. 3:20, 28; Gal. 2:16). Works of the flesh are contrasted with works of the spirit (Gal. 5:19).

which delivered us from the wrath to come.

Paul Recalls His Conduct

2 For yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:
2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention.
3 For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:
4 But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts.
5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak of covetousness; God is witness:
6 Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.
7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:
8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.
9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.
10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:
11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children, 12 That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

Paul's Glory and Joy

13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.
14 For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God which in Judaea are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews:
15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men:
16 Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.
17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.
18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us.
19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming?
20 For ye are our glory and joy.

1:10 deliver

(Gr. rhyomai) (Matt. 6:13; 27:43; Rom. 7:24; 2 Pet. 2:9) G4506: This verb has a variety of meanings, including "to draw to oneself, rescue, deliver, preserve, and save." It is not the most common word for "save" in the New Testament, and it is used in only 16 verses. It often refers to deliverance from someone or something, and about half of the New Testament occurrences are quotations from the Old Testament. God is our rescuer, both from our sins at salvation (2 Cor. 1:10; Col. 1:13) and for a glorious future (Rom. 11:26). Second Corinthians 1:10 references deliverance for past, present, and future: "[God] delivered [rhyomai] us from so great a death, and doth deliver [rhyomai]: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver [rhyomai] us."

2:18 hinder

(Gr. enkoptō) (Acts 24:4; Rom. 15:22; Gal. 5:7) G1465: This verb means "hinder, restrain, impede, cut into, or cut off one's way"—particularly describing an obstacle that must be overcome. The root words mean literally "to cut in." Here and in Romans 15:22 it refers to Satan or other forces preventing Paul from traveling where he wished. In Galatians 5:7 it is used figuratively to refer to hindrances in one's spiritual growth. In Acts 24:4, it means either "weary" or "delay."

Timothy's Good Report

3 Wherefore when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone;
2 And sent Timotheus, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:
3 That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto.
4 For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.
5 For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and our labour be in vain.
6 But now when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you:

Stand Fast in the Lord

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith:
8 For now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord.
9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God;
10 Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?
11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way unto you.
12 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you:
13 To the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.

Called to Holiness

4 Furthermore then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more.
2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.
3 For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication:
4 That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour;

3:5 forbear ▸ see 1 Cor. 13:7.
3:7 affliction ▸ see John 16:33.
3:10 exceedingly ▸ see John 10:10.
3:13 unblameable ▸ see Heb. 8:7.

3:13 holiness

(Gr. hagiōsynē) (Rom. 1:4; 2 Cor. 7:1) G0042: This word, denoting majesty and moral perfection, is only used three times in the New Testament. In each case it describes a sacredness and set-apart quality to a person's life and conduct. Believers are consecrated to God and should live lives of moral purity and godly character that will cause them not to feel ashamed at the coming of Christ. God has declared us holy through the work of Christ on the Cross, and we are to live that out in our lives.

3:13 coming

(Gr. parousia) (1 Thess. 4:15; 5:23; 2 Thess. 2:1; 2 Pet. 1:16) G3952: The Greek word parousia literally means "presence." The word was commonly used in New Testament times to describe the visitation of royalty or of some other important person. Thus the word signals no ordinary "coming." The New Testament writers use the word to describe Christ's second coming, when He will return to earth in His ultimate, glorious visitation as the King over all.

4:2 commandment ▸ see Acts 16:24.

4:3 sanctification

(Gr. hagiasmos) (1 Cor. 1:30; 1 Pet. 1:2) G0038: The Greek noun may refer to sanctification as the active work that brings about holiness (2 Thess. 2:13) or to the result of that work, in which case it might be translated "holiness" (Heb. 12:14). Interpreters debate which of these senses is found in particular occurrences in the New Testament. At its root (as that of related words rendered "holy," "sanctify," "consecrate," etc.) is the idea of being set apart or consecrated to God and thus His. This implies separation from moral defilement.

4:3 fornication ▸ see Matt. 15:19.

5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God:
6 That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.
7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness.
8 He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.
9 But as touching brotherly love ye need not that I write unto you: for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another.
10 And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more;
11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;
12 That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.

The Dead in Christ Shall Rise

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.
14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.
15 For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.
16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:
17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.
18 Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

Concluding Exhortations

5 But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.
2 For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.
3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.
4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.
5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.
6 Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober.
7 For they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken are drunken in the night.
8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation.
9 For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ,
10 Who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

4:17 be caught up

(Gr. harpazō) (2 Cor. 12:2; Rev. 12:5) G0726: The verb's primary meaning is "to snatch" or "to seize" (compare Jude 23, where the rendering is "pulling," as rescuing); a secondary meaning is "to steal" or "to plunder." This secondary concept of taking something by force is reflected in Matthew 11:12. The word generally carries with it the idea of force (though not necessarily violence) and often implies suddenness so that there is no question of resistance (as here; see also Acts 8:39—"caught away"). The typical usage in the New Testament refers to a person being suddenly taken away, as to heaven (2 Cor. 12:4).

5:1 time ▸ see Acts 1:7.
5:3 destruction ▸ see 2 Thess. 1:9.

5:10 sleep

(Gr. katheudō) (Mark 4:27; Luke 22:46; Eph. 5:14) G2518: The word means "to sleep" and usually refers to natural sleep (as Matt. 13:25) but is used figuratively in 1 Thessalonians 5:6, 7 to indicate spiritual carelessness and indifference (similarly in Eph. 5:14). That translation can be problematic. Most interpreters favor the euphemistic meaning

11 Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do.
12 And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you;
13 And to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. And be at peace among yourselves.
14 Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are unruly, comfort the feebleminded, support the weak, be patient toward all men.
15 See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men.
16 Rejoice evermore.

5:27 epistle

(Gr. epistolē) (2 Cor. 3:1–3; 2 Thess. 2:2, 15; 2 Pet. 3:1, 16) G1992: This Greek word has come into English as epistle. It signifies a written letter, whether personal correspondence (such as 2 and 3 John; see 2 John 12; 3 John 13), or official correspondence (such as Acts 15:23–29; 23:26–30), or a formal treatise (such as Romans; see Rom. 16:22). Sometimes letters of recommendation were sent along with emissaries in order to establish their credentials among those they were visiting. In 2 Corinthians, Paul called the believers in Corinth his "epistles," or his living letters of recommendation from God (2 Cor. 3:1–3). Here Paul exhorts the Thessalonians to read his letter to the entire church so that everyone could profit from its teaching.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS

SINCE PAUL'S FIRST LETTER, THE seeds of false doctrine have been sown among the Thessalonians, causing them to waver in their faith. Paul removes these destructive seeds and again plants the seeds of truth. He begins by commending the believers on their faithfulness in the midst of persecution and encouraging them that present suffering will be repaid with future glory. Therefore, in the midst of persecution, expectation can be high.

Paul then deals with the central matter of his letter: a misunderstanding spawned by false teachers regarding the coming day of the Lord. Despite reports to the contrary, that Day has not yet come, and Paul recounts the events that must first take place. Laboring for the gospel, rather than lazy resignation, is the proper response.

As the second letter in Paul's Thessalonian correspondence, this was entitled Pros Thessalonikeis B, the "Second to the Thessalonians."

WATCH WORDS

- falling away (sliding back, away from the faith)—2:3
- faithful (believing in God or Christ; reliable; dependable)—3:3

Patience and Faith in Persecutions

1 Paul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:
2 Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth;
4 So that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure:
5 Which is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer:
6 Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;
7 And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels,
8 In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:

1:1 Paul ▸ see Acts 28:30.
1:4 persecution ▸ see Acts 8:1.

1:4 endure

(Gr. anechomai) (Mark 9:19; Eph. 4:2; Col. 3:13; 2 Tim. 4:3) G0430: This word is formed from the preposition ana (G0303), "up," and the verb echō (G2192), "to hold." Put together it means "to bear up" under the strain of suffering, to persevere. People who exhibit this characteristic maintain their courage even in the face of great tribulation. In Scripture this is often used to describe bearing with someone in love, putting up with another person's irritating or hurtful behaviors.

1:5 righteous ▸ see Matt. 1:19.
1:5 judgment ▸ see John 3:19.
1:6 tribulation ▸ see John 16:33.

9 Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;
10 When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

Counted Worthy of God's Calling

11 Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power:
12 That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Mystery of Iniquity

2 Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him,
2 That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.
3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;
4 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.
5 Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?
6 And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.
7 For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.
8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:
9 Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,
10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

1:9 destruction

(Gr. olethros) (1 Cor. 5:5; 1 Thess. 5:3; 1 Tim. 6:9) G3639: This word summarizes bad outcomes: destruction, ruin, and death. These are the external ills that subdue the lusts of the flesh. Typically in the New Testament this word carries eschatological and spiritual implications, such as here where eternal destruction is in view. Interpreters debate its usage in 1 Corinthians 5:5, whether it refers to physical death or some other bodily judgment.

1:11 goodness ▸ see Rom. 15:14.
2:1 coming ▸ see 1 Thess. 3:13.
2:2 mind ▸ see Rom. 7:25.
2:2 letter ▸ see 1 Thess. 5:27.

2:3 falling away

(Gr. apostasia) (Acts 21:21) G0646: The meaning here is a falling away from the faith; the word is used twice in the New Testament. The nation of Israel fell into repeated backslidings (Jer. 5:6). The prophet Jeremiah predicted the judgment of God upon such disloyalty: "Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee" (Jer. 2:19). In the New Testament, apostasy is generally defined as the determined, willful rejection of Christ and His teachings by a Christian believer (John 15:22; Heb. 10:26–29). This is different from false belief, or error, which is the result of ignorance. The Day of Christ will not come unless the "falling away" comes first, and the man of sin is revealed, "the son of perdition" (2 Thess. 2:3). Some teach that falling away is impossible for those persons who have truly accepted Jesus as Savior and Lord.

2:7 mystery ▸ see Luke 8:10.

2:8 wicked

(Gr. anomos) (Mark 15:28; 1 Tim. 1:9; 2 Pet. 2:8) G0459: The Greek word anomos literally means "without law." Thus the phrase here in this verse, "that Wicked," is depicting the "man of rebellion." Just as Christ embodies righteousness, so that "Wicked" will embody rebellion against God's righteous law. This figure is probably the same person described by John as "the Antichrist" (1 John 4:2, 3) and "the beast" (Rev. 13:1). With his open defiance of the sovereign Ruler of the universe, this man is the embodiment of evil and the great opponent of Christ and His kingdom.

2:8 brightness ▸ see 2 Tim. 4:8.
2:9 working ▸ see Col. 1:29.

11 And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:
12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

Called to the Obtaining of Christ's Glory

13 But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:
14 Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.
15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.
16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work.

The Lord Is Faithful

3 Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you:
2 And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith.
3 But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil.
4 And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.
5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

Be Not Weary in Well Doing

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us.
7 For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you;
8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:
9 Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us.
10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.
11 For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies.
12 Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.
13 But ye, brethren, be not weary in well doing.
14 And if any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.

2:11 delusion ▸ see Jude 11.
2:15 epistle ▸ see 1 Thess. 5:27.

3:3 faithful

(Gr. pistos) (1 Cor. 10:13; 1 Thess. 5:24; 1 Tim. 1:15; Heb. 11:11) G4103: This word originally comes from peithō (G3982), "to convince" (see 2 Thess. 3:4). It is used in an active sense to mean "one who believes in God or Christ" and in the passive sense to mean "one who is dependable." It is used to describe those who are reliable and honest in business dealings (Matt. 24:45; Luke 16:11) or in relationships (1 Cor. 4:17). When used in the phrase "a faithful saying," this word means reliable or trustworthy (2 Tim. 2:11; cf. Rev. 21:5). Because God is utterly faithful to us, we can have confidence in the complete trustworthiness of all His promises.

3:4 have confidence

(Gr. peithō) (Acts 18:4; 28:23; Rom. 8:38; Phil. 1:6) G3982: This word is used in two ways. As an intransitive verb it means "to be convinced, to be persuaded." In this sense it is used to describe being convinced of truth by an argument (Acts 28:23, 24). As a transitive verb it means "to convince, to pacify, to persuade." We read, for example, of Paul's confidence that God will keep His promises (Phil. 1:6; 2 Tim. 1:12). In both uses a change of mind is implied, resulting in an inward certainty and trust.

3:6 brethren ▸ see Mark 10:29.
3:8 wrought ▸ see John 9:4.

15 Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

Peace By All Means

16 Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all.
17 The salutation of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write.
18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

3:17 token ▸ see John 6:26.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO

TIMOTHY

PAUL, THE AGED AND EXPERIENCED apostle, writes to the young pastor Timothy who is facing a heavy burden of responsibility in the church at Ephesus. The task is challenging: false doctrine must be erased, public worship safeguarded, and mature leadership developed. In addition to the conduct of the church, Paul talks pointedly about the conduct of the minister. Timothy must be on his guard lest his youthfulness become a liability, rather than an asset, to the gospel. He must be careful to avoid false teachers and greedy motives, pursuing instead righteousness, godliness, faith, love, perseverance, and the gentleness that befits a man of God.

The Greek title for this letter is Pros Timotheon A, the "First to Timothy." Timothy means "honoring God" or "honored by God," and probably was given to him by his mother Eunice.

WATCH WORDS

- be sound (be healthy or correct in doctrine)—1:10
- intercession (the act of petitioning God or praying on behalf of another person or group)—2:1
- presbytery (the body of elders or the ruling council of a church)—4:14
- master (absolute ruler or lord)—6:1 (also 6:2)

Greeting

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope;
2 Unto Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

Teach No Other Doctrine

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine,
4 Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do.
5 Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned:
6 From which some having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling;
7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.
8 But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;
9 Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,
10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers,

1:1 Saviour ▸ see Titus 2:10.
1:5 unfeigned ▸ see 1 Pet. 1:22.

1:6 vain jangling

(Gr. mataiologia) G3150: From mataios (G3152), "devoid of force; useless" and logos (G3056), "word." This word means "an idle talker, one who utters empty, senseless things." It is only used here in Scripture. Senseless babble and empty prattle characterize false teachers. They talk more for the purpose of hearing themselves talk than to edify those who listen.

1:9 lawless ▸ see 2 Thess. 2:8.
1:10 them that defile themselves with mankind ▸ see 1 Cor. 6:9.

for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine;
11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

God's Mercy Toward Paul

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry;
13 Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief.
14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.
15 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.
16 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all longsuffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.
17 Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.
18 This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;
19 Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck:
20 Of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

Prayers for All Men

2 I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;
2 For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.
3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour;
4 Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.
5 For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;
6 Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time.

1:10 be sound

(Gr. hygiainō) (Luke 5:31; 2 Tim. 1:13; 4:3; Titus 2:1) G5198: This word refers to being healthy, of sound body, whole. The root of this word, hygiēs (G5199), which means "sound, whole," is used to translate the Hebrew shalom (H7965) in the Septuagint. This word appears mainly in the pastoral epistles, where it is used figuratively for being sound in faith, love, and endurance (Titus 1:13; 2:2) and for being correct or sound in doctrine, described as healthy teaching and words (1 Tim. 6:3; 2 Tim. 1:13).

2:1 intercession

(Gr. enteuxis) (1 Tim. 4:5) G1783: Intercession is the act of petitioning God or praying on behalf of another person or group. The sinful nature of this world separates human beings from God. It has always been necessary, therefore, for righteous individuals to go before God to seek reconciliation between Him and His fallen creation. The sacrifices and prayers of Old Testament priests (Ex. 29:42; 30:7) were acts of intercession that point forward to the work of Christ. Christ is, of course, the greatest intercessor. He prayed on behalf of Peter (Luke 22:32) and His disciples (John 17). Then in the most selfless intercession of all, He petitioned God on behalf of those who crucified Him (Luke 23:34). In heaven He intercedes for His church (Heb. 7:25). Finally, because of their unique relationship to God through Christ, Christians are urged to intercede for all people (1 Tim. 2:1).

2:3 Saviour ▸ see Titus 2:10.
2:5 mediator ▸ see Heb. 12:24.

2:6 ransom

(Gr. antilutron) G0487: Used only here, the word ransom in Greek is antilutron made up of anti (signifying substitution) and lutron (the word used for the ransom of a slave or prisoner). The antilutron is a payment given instead of a slave or prisoner—that is, in substitution for him. The person holding the slave accepts the payment as a substitute. According to Galatians 3:13, Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law. The law held us captive in its condemnation, and no one but Christ could pay the price to release us from this bondage.

7 Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not;) a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.
8 I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

Women's Adornment and Behaviour

9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;
10 But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.
11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.
12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.
13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve.
14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.
15 Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

Qualifications for Bishops

3 This is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work.
2 A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach;
3 Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous;
4 One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity;
5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)
6 Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.
7 Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

Qualifications for Deacons

8 Likewise must the deacons be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;
9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.
10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.
11 Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.
12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.
13 For they that have used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.
14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:
15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself

3:8 grave ▸ see 1 Tim. 3:11.

3:8 greedy of filthy lucre

(Gr. aischrokerdēs) (Titus 1:7) G0146: This word, which appears only twice in the New Testament, means "fond of," referring specifically to money or material gain—especially gain by dishonest means. It is a general synonym of pleonexia (G4124), rendered "covetous" (see Col. 3:5). The word is always negative; all instances in Scripture use it in a list of attributes that church leaders must not exemplify. A related word is used in 1 Peter 5:2 (G0147 aischrokerdōs, also rendered "filthy lucre").

3:11 grave

(Gr. semnos) (Phil. 4:8; 1 Tim. 3:8; Titus 2:2) G4586: From the root word meaning "to revere, to worship," this word means "dignified, honorable, decent, respectable." Such people exhibit behavior that befits every occasion and is respectful of others. This word appears four times in Scripture, three of them in a list of character traits that are expected in church leaders. In this verse and a few verses earlier (1 Tim. 3:8), we are told that both deacons and their wives must exhibit this characteristic. The other use is in Philippians 4:8, where it describes proper conversation.

in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.
16 And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

Paul's Warnings of False Teachers

4 Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;
2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;
3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.
4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:
5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.
6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.
7 But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness.
8 For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.
9 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation.
10 For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.
11 These things command and teach.

Be an Example

12 Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.
13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.
14 Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.
15 Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all.
16 Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.

Provisions for Widows

5 Rebuke not an elder, but intreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren;
2 The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.
3 Honour widows that are widows indeed.
4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.
5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

4:2 hypocrisy ▸ see Gal. 2:13.
4:4 creature ▸ see Rev. 5:13.
4:5 prayer ▸ see 1 Tim. 2:1.

4:7 exercise

(Gr. gymnazō) (Heb. 5:14; 12:11; 2 Pet. 2:14) G1128: The verb (the origin of the English word gymnasium) is derived from another word meaning "naked" or "bare" and literally means "to exercise naked," following the Greek practice of exercising in the nude. It then came to mean simply "to train," either physically, mentally, or spiritually. It appears only four times in the New Testament. Here it refers to training oneself in godliness. In Hebrews 5:14, the word is used to describe training one's senses to differentiate between good and evil. In contrast, the false teachers in 2 Peter 2:14 had trained their hearts in greed.

4:13 give attendance ▸ see Luke 20:46.
4:14 prophecy ▸ see Rom. 12:6.

4:14 presbytery

(Gr. prebyterion) (Luke 22:66; Acts 22:5) G4244: Derived from the word for "elder," this word refers to the body of elders or the ruling council, either of Jews or of Christians. The literal meaning is "aged men," those who exhibit wisdom and maturity. These leaders in the church blessed Timothy and prophesied over him.

5:2 sister ▸ see Mark 10:29.
5:3 widow ▸ see 1 Tim. 5:11.

6 But she that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth.
7 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.
8 But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.
9 Let not a widow be taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man,
10 Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

Counsel for Younger Widows

11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry;
12 Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.
13 And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.
14 I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.
15 For some are already turned aside after Satan.
16 If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

Honour the Elders

17 Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.
18 For the scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, The labourer is worthy of his reward.
19 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but before two or three witnesses.
20 Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear.
21 I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.
22 Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure.
23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities.
24 Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.
25 Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

Honour Your Masters

6 Let as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed.

5:10 wash ▸ see John 13:5.

5:11 widow

(Gr. chēra) (Matt. 23:14; Luke 4:25; 1 Tim. 5:3, 16; James 1:27) G5503: In a world with few social safety nets, the position of women whose husbands had died was precarious. Extreme poverty and desperation was often their fate. Jesus excoriated religious leaders who preyed on these vulnerable women instead of helping them (Mark 12:40), then exclaimed over the faith and generosity of the widow who gave out of her poverty (Mark 12:41–44). Here in an extended teaching on widows, Paul acknowledges not only special needs but also their particular responsibilities and ministry.

5:16 widow ▸ see 1 Tim. 5:11.

5:17 honour

(Gr. timē) (Rom. 2:10; 13:7; Heb. 2:7) G5092: This common noun can be rendered "price" (i.e., what something is worth monetarily, as Acts 19:19), the money, goods, or services paid for an item (as Acts 5:2; 1 Cor. 7:23), or, as here, "honour" (that is, respect—John 4:44; Rom. 2:7—or a position of honor, as Heb. 5:4). The word generally includes the recognition of the dignity or value of a given position or item. Here it may designate a monetary expression of honor or value—an honorarium.

6:1 master

(Gr. despotēs) (1 Tim. 6:2; Titus 2:9; 1 Pet. 2:18) G1203: The word is the basis for the English word despot and literally means "absolute ruler" or "lord." Originally it referred to the head of a household in his position as owner of its property (as 2 Tim. 2:21, metaphorically of God) and slaves (as here). The Greeks used the word to refer to

2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.
3 If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness;
4 He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings,
5 Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself.

The Root of All Evil

6 But godliness with contentment is great gain.
7 For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.
8 And having food and raiment let us be therewith content.
9 But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.
10 For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

Fight the Good Fight of Faith

11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.
12 Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.
13 I give thee charge in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession;
14 That thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukeable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ:
15 Which in his times he shall shew, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords;
16 Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen.

Be Trustworthy

17 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy;
18 That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate;
19 Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.
20 O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called:

6:16 power

(Gr. kratos) (Eph. 1:19; Col. 1:11; Jude 25; Rev. 1:6) G2904: This word means "force, strength" and particularly refers to proper and effectively executed authority. Sometimes it is translated "dominion." We find this word in our words "theocracy," "aristocracy," and "democracy." In Scripture kratos usually refers to God's kingdom authority, often in a doxology or utterance of worship: "And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power [kratos] be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever" (Rev. 5:13).

Paul's writings, the Greek word kenos expresses the ultimate emptiness of all that is not filled with spiritual meaning. In other words, human achievement amounts to nothing if it does not come from the will of God. Nothing comes from this nothingness; it is futility. Paul uses a derivative of this word to describe the hollow words (1 Tim. 6:20; 2 Tim. 2:16) spoken by Judaizers trying to entice the believers with their foolish philosophies (Eph. 5:6; Col. 2:8). But the teaching committed to Paul and the apostles was not futile; it would last throughout eternity because it originated in God's unchanging will (Matt. 5:18; 1 Cor. 15:12–15).

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO

TIMOTHY

PRISON IS THE LAST PLACE from which to expect a letter of encouragement, but that is where Paul's second letter to Timothy originates. He begins by assuring Timothy of his continuing love and prayers, and reminds him of his spiritual heritage and responsibilities. Only the one who perseveres, whether as a soldier, athlete, farmer, or minister of Jesus Christ, will reap the reward. Paul warns Timothy that his teaching will come under attack as men desert the truth for ear-scratching words (4:3). But Timothy has Paul's example to guide him and God's Word to fortify him as he faces growing opposition and glowing opportunities in the last days.

Paul's last epistle received the title Pros Timotheon B, the "Second to Timothy." When Paul's epistles were collected together the B was probably added to distinguish this letter from the first letter he wrote to Timothy.

Timothy's Unfeigned Faith

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,
2 To Timothy, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.
3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;
4 Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;
5 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also.
6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.
7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

The Lord's Testimony

8 Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God;
9 Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace,

1:7 power ▸ see Acts 1:8.

1:7 sound mind

(Gr. sōphronismos) G4995: Used only here in Scripture, this word means "soundness of mind," with self-discipline as the result. The word is one of a large group of cognates including the noun sōphrosynē (G4997), "moderation, self-control, reason" (Acts 26:25; 1 Tim. 2:9, 15). The root word is sōphronizō (G4994), "to restore to one's senses, to moderate, to discipline, to admonish." Moderation and self-discipline are here placed in contrast to fear.

1:9 calling

(Gr. klēsis) (Rom. 11:29; Eph. 1:18; 4:4; Heb. 3:1; 2 Pet. 1:10) G2821: Used in the sense of commission, role, privilege, or responsibility. The word emphasizes a place or position given by another; which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began,

10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel:
11 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.
12 For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.
13 Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.
14 That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us.
15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia be turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.
16 The Lord give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus; for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain:
17 But, when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.
18 The Lord grant unto him that he may find mercy of the Lord in that day: and in how many things he ministered unto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

Be Strong in the Grace of Christ

2 Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.
2 And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.
3 Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.
4 No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.
5 And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.
6 The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.
7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

The Word of God Is Not Bound

8 Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead according to my gospel:
9 Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.
10 Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.
11 It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:
12 If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us:
13 If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.

Work for God's Approval

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.
15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, throughout the New Testament the caller is God. Calling is synonymous with vocation (Eph. 4:1), a word related to the Latin word for calling (vocatio). Here Paul uses both the verb form (kaleomai) and this noun to emphasize God's sovereignty in determining the purpose (calling) of our lives and in positioning (calling) us for that role.

2:9 evil doer

(Gr. kakourgos) (Luke 23:32, 39) G2557: A compound word derived from kakos (G2556), "evil," and ergon (G2041), "deed," this word literally means "evildoer." The other use of this word in Scripture is to describe the men crucified with Jesus—there it is translated "criminal." Compared with its synonyms, this word implies criminal actions rather than simply immoral ones. It is implied that such actions are committed habitually. Paul was treated as a common criminal in return for his preaching of the gospel.

a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.
16 But shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.
17 And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus;
18 Who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.
19 Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.
20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.
21 If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work.

Flee Youthful Lusts

22 Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.
23 But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.
24 And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient,
25 In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;
26 And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

Perilous Times Shall Come

3 This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come.
2 For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,
3 Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,
4 Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;
5 Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.
6 For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts,
7 Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.
8 Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith.
9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as theirs also was.

All Scripture Is Inspired

10 But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience,
11 Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me.
12 Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.

2:15 rightly dividing

(Gr. orthotomeō) G3718: Paul uses this word to mean "teach correctly." The root words are orthos (G3717), "straight" and tomos (G5114), "sharp," so a literal rendering is "to cut straight." Tomos is used in Hebrews 4:12 to describe the sharp sword of God's Word. This word is used in the Septuagint in Proverbs 3:6 and 11:5 to mean "cut a line in a straight path," with the emphasis on "straight" rather than "cut." The way God's Word is handled and taught must be correct and right, resulting in conduct that is in line with God's Word so we can be unashamed before God.

3:1 perilous

(Gr. chalepos) (Matt. 8:28) G5467: This word means "hard to take, hard to bear, troublesome, dangerous, harsh, savage." In its other New Testament occurrence this word is translated "fierce" (Matt. 8:28). Here in 2 Timothy the word describes a society that is devoid of virtue and full of licentiousness and corruption.

13 But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.
14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them;
15 And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.
16 All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:
17 That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works.

Preach the Word

4 I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom;
2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.
3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;
4 And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.
5 But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry.
6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.
7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:
8 Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

Personal Requests

9 Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me:
10 For Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia.
11 Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry.

3:16 scripture ▸ see John 5:39.

3:16 inspiration of God

(Gr. theopneustos) G2315: The Greek word means "God-breathed," from theos (God) and pneō (to breathe). Although it is difficult to fully recreate the thought of this Greek expression in English, we are fairly sure that Paul meant to say that all Scripture was breathed out from God. This is the primary meaning. But the expression could also mean that the Word was "inbreathed," or inspired, by God. The first definition affirms the Bible's divine origin; the second speaks of God's spiritual presence in the Word. Thus God not only inspired the authors who wrote the words of the Bible, but He also inspires those who read it with a heart of faith.

4:3 endure ▸ see 2 Thess. 1:4.
4:3 sound ▸ see 1 Tim. 1:10.
4:6 offer ▸ see Phil. 2:17.

4:7 fight

(Gr. agōnizomai) (Luke 13:24; 1 Cor. 9:25) G0075: This uncommon word is variously translated "fight," "compete," "strive," and "labor." It typically carries the sense of working toward a goal, and is often used metaphorically ("strive to enter in at the strait gate"— Luke 13:24; "Epaphras [is] . . . always labouring fervently for you in prayers"—Col. 4:12). Following Jesus is compared to competing in sports or fighting a battle: "And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible" (1 Cor. 9:25; cf. 2 Tim. 4:7). It is used when Jesus says that if His kingdom were an earthly one, His followers would "fight, that [He] should not be delivered to the Jews" (John 18:36).

4:7 faith ▸ see Col. 1:4.
4:8 give ▸ see Matt. 22:21.

4:8 appearing

(Gr. epiphaneia) (2 Thess. 2:8; 1 Tim. 6:14; 2 Tim. 1:10; Titus 2:13) G2015: This word literally means "a shining forth" and was used in Greek literature to denote a divine appearance. The English word epiphany is a close equivalent. The New Testament writers use the word to refer to Jesus' first coming, the time when He entered this world as a man (see 2 Tim. 1:10). They also use the word to speak of Jesus' second coming, specifically to His appearance to all the world (see Matt. 24:27).

12 And Tychicus have I sent to Ephesus.
13 The cloke that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the books, but especially the parchments.
14 Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil: the Lord reward him according to his works:
15 Of whom be thou ware also; for he hath greatly withstood our words.

The Lord Shall Deliver

16 At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge.
17 Notwithstanding the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion.
18 And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.
19 Salute Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus.
20 Erastus abode at Corinth: but Trophimus have I left at Miletum sick.
21 Do thy diligence to come before winter. Eubulus greeteth thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren.
22 The Lord Jesus Christ be with thy spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS

TITUS, A YOUNG PASTOR, FACES the unenviable assignment of setting in order the church at Crete. Paul writes advising him to appoint elders, men of proven spiritual character in their homes and businesses, to oversee the work of the church. But elders are not the only individuals in the church who are required to excel spiritually. Men and women, young and old, each have their vital functions to fulfill in the church if they are to be living examples of the doctrine they profess. Throughout his letter to Titus, Paul stresses the necessary, practical working out of salvation in the daily lives of both the elders and the congregation. Good works are desirable and profitable for all believers.

This third Pastoral Epistle is simply titled Pros Titon, "To Titus." Ironically, this was also the name of the Roman general who destroyed Jerusalem in A.D. 70 and succeeded his father Vespasian as emperor.

Paul's Son in the Faith

1 Paul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth which is after godliness;
2 In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;
3 But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me according to the commandment of God our Saviour;
4 To Titus, mine own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Qualifications for Leaders

5 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee:
6 If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of riot or unruly.
7 For a bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God; not selfwilled, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;
8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;
9 Holding fast the faithful word as he hath

1:7 bishop

(Gr. episkopos) (Acts 20:28; Phil. 1:1; 1 Tim. 3:2; 1 Pet. 2:25) G1985: This word for "overseer" or "bishop" is a compound form of epi (G1909), "upon, over," and skopos (G4649), "one who watches or looks out." This person is a guardian who watches over and protects members of the church. In the New Testament it usually refers to someone who holds a particular office or position of leadership in the church, but in 1 Peter 2:25 it refers to Christ: "For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop [episkopos] of your souls."

been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

Rebuke the Vain Talkers

10 For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:
11 Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.
12 One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.
13 This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;
14 Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.
15 Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.
16 They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

Teach Sound Doctrine

2 But speak thou the things which become sound doctrine:
2 That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience.
3 The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;
4 That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,
5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.
6 Young men likewise exhort to be sober minded.
7 In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity,
8 Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.
9 Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not answering again;
10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

Teachings of the Grace of God

11 For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, 12 Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;

1:10 vain talker

(Gr. mataiologos) G3151: Used only here in Scripture, this compound word is formed from maitaios (G3152), "vain, idle," and legō (G3004), "to say, speak." It refers to someone who speaks empty, senseless words. Such useless talk results from an undisciplined lifestyle and is contrasted with those who exhort with sound doctrine (Titus 1:9).

2:10 Saviour

(Gr. sōtēr) (Luke 1:47; 2:11; 1 Tim. 1:1; 2:3; Titus 1:3; 3:4) G4990: The word is used by Mary and by the angel who proclaimed the good news to the shepherds that the Savior had come (Luke 1:47; 2:11). In the Pastoral Epistles, the expression "God our Saviour" and similar ones appear often. In these verses, the appellation seems to describe God the Father. The Old Testament writers speak of God as Savior (see Ps. 24:5; Is. 12:2; 45:15, 21) and so do a few other New Testament writers (Luke 1:47; Jude 25). The Son is also called Savior in the Pastoral Epistles (2 Tim. 1:10; Titus 1:4; 2:13; 3:6;), and in Titus 2:13 the Son is called "our God and Saviour," thus clearly identifying Jesus as God.

2:12 ungodliness ▸ see Rom. 11:26.

2:12 worldly

(Gr. kosmikos) (Heb. 9:1) G2886: The word, used only twice in the New Testament, means "worldly" in an ethical sense or "pertaining to the earth" (i.e., "earthly") in a morally neutral sense.

13 Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;
14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.
15 These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

Justified by God's Grace

3 Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work,
2 To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.
3 For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.
4 But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,
5 Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;
6 Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour;
7 That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

Maintain Good Works

8 This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.

Continued

Here it describes the "lusts" or strong desires we are taught to deny because they are opposed to God's desires. In Hebrews 9:1, it describes the earthly sanctuary as opposed to the perfect and true heavenly sanctuary. The English word cosmic is a derivative.

2:12 soberly

(Gr. sōphronōs) G4996: This word means "with sound mind, soberly, discreetly, temperately." It is used only here in Scripture. The root words are sōzō (G4982), "to save," and phrēn (G5424), "the mind," so the sense of the word is that this person acts in a sensible manner, thinking carefully before he takes action. Such a person is prudent and self-controlled, living for the future hope rather than immediate gratification. Sober living is contrasted here with living to satisfy worldly lusts.

3:5 washing

(Gr. loutron) (Eph. 5:26) G3067: The Greek word for washing can signify the receptacle of washing (the basin) or the act of washing itself. In Ephesians 5:26, the only other New Testament occurrence of this word, the natural meaning is washing. Here also the action of washing is presented. Quite simply, the text says that "regeneration" is characterized by or accompanied by the action of washing.

3:5 regeneration

(Gr. palingenesias) (Matt. 19:28) G3824: This word is used twice in the New Testament. The regenerative activity of the Holy Spirit is characterized elsewhere in Scripture as cleansing and purifying (see Ezek. 36:25–27; John 3:5). The Greek term for regeneration literally means "being born again"—indicating a new birth effected by the Holy Spirit (Matt. 19:28; cf. John 3:6; Rom. 8:16; Gal. 4:6). Thus God saved us through one process with two aspects: the washing of regeneration and the renewing of the Holy Spirit.

3:5 renewing

(Gr. anakainōsis) (Rom. 12:2) G0342: This word implies a transformed and restored heart that results in a renovated life. It is a change from the inside out. The root words are ana, "again," and kainos, "new." The Holy Spirit changes us and makes us "new again." The only other use of this word in Scripture is in Romans 12:2: "And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing [anakainōsis] of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God."

9 But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.
10 A man that is an heretick after the first and second admonition reject;
11 Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.

Closing Remarks

12 When I shall send Artemas unto thee, or Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me to Nicopolis: for I have determined there to winter.
13 Bring Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.
14 And let ours also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be not unfruitful.
15 All that are with me salute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

3:9 vain ▸ see 1 Cor. 3:20.

3:10 heretick

(Gr. hairetikos) G0141: This word appears nowhere else in the New Testament. The literal meaning is "fitted" or "able to choose" (it is derived from a verb meaning "to choose") but figuratively "factious" or "schismatic." It was used to describe persons who associated with groups that were considered divisive. These groups were usually identified by their distinctive teachings. The word is therefore translated here as "heretick."

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO

PHILEMON

DOES CHRISTIAN BROTHERLY LOVE REALLY work, even in situations of extraordinary tension and difficulty? Will it work, for example, between a prominent slave owner and one of his runaway slaves? Paul has no doubt! He writes a "postcard" to Philemon, his beloved brother and fellow worker, on behalf of Onesimus—a deserter, thief, and formerly worthless slave, but now Philemon's brother in Christ. With much tact and tenderness, Paul asks Philemon to receive Onesimus back with the same gentleness with which he would receive Paul himself. Any debt Onesimus owes, Paul promises to make good. Knowing Philemon, Paul is confident that brotherly love and forgiveness will carry the day.

Since this letter is addressed to Philemon in verse 1, it becomes known as Pros Philemona, "To Philemon." Like First and Second Timothy and Titus, it is addressed to an individual, but unlike the Pastoral Epistles, Philemon is also addressed to a family and a church (v. 2).

WATCH WORD

- prisoner (one who is bound as a captive)—1 (also 9)

Philemon's Faith

1 Paul, a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, unto Philemon our dearly beloved, and fellowlabourer,
2 And to our beloved Apphia, and Archippus our fellowsoldier, and to the church in thy house:
3 Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
4 I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,
5 Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints;
6 That the communication of thy faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus.
7 For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints are refreshed by thee, brother.

Paul's Intercession for Onesimus

8 Wherefore, though I might be much bold in Christ to enjoin thee that which is convenient,
9 Yet for love's sake I rather beseech thee, being such an one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.
10 I beseech thee for my son Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my bonds:
11 Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me:
12 Whom I have sent again: thou therefore receive him, that is, mine own bowels:
13 Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might have ministered unto me in the bonds of the gospel:
14 But without thy mind would I do noth-

1 prisoner

(Gr. desmios) (Matt. 27:15; Acts 28:16; Heb. 13:3) G1198: This term refers to one who is bound as a captive or prisoner. It is related to words meaning "to bind," "bonds, fetters, chains," and "imprisonment." Several times it is used of Paul, who describes himself as a prisoner of Christ Jesus and a prisoner in the Lord (Eph. 3:1; 4:1; 2 Tim. 1:8; Philem. 1, 9). During one of Paul's imprisonments, other prisoners heard him (and Silas) praying and singing hymns to God at midnight (Acts 16:25–27).

ing; that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly.
15 For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever;
16 Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?
17 If thou count me therefore a partner, receive him as myself.
18 If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that on mine account;
19 I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides.

Paul Encourages Philemon's Obedience

20 Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my bowels in the Lord.
21 Having confidence in thy obedience I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say.
22 But withal prepare me also a lodging: for I trust that through your prayers I shall be given unto you.
23 There salute thee Epaphras, my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus;

THE EPISTLE TO THE

HEBREWS

MANY JEWISH BELIEVERS, HAVING STEPPED out of Judaism into Christianity, want to reverse their course in order to escape persecution by their countrymen. The writer of Hebrews exhorts them to "go on unto perfection" (6:1). His appeal is based on the superiority of Christ over the Judaic system. Christ is better than the angels, for they worship Him. He is better than Moses, for He created him. He is better than the Aaronic priesthood, for His sacrifice was once for all time. He is better than the law, for He mediates a better covenant. In short, there is more to be gained in Christ than to be lost in Judaism. Pressing on in Christ produces tested faith, self-discipline, and a visible love seen in good works.

Although the King James Version uses the title "The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Hebrews," there is no early manuscript evidence to support it. The oldest and most reliable title is simply Pros Ebraious, "To Hebrews."

God's Son Better than Angels

1 God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,
2 Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;
3 Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;
4 Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.
5 For unto which of the angels said he at

1:3 brightness

(Gr. apaugasma) G0541: This word occurs only here in the New Testament. The Greek word for brightness expresses the brilliance emanating from a glorious source of light, such as the beams of the sun. Christ, as the effulgence of God's glory, is the radiance of God, revealing God's glory to humanity. This word can also signify reflected brightness. The idea would be similar to that expressed in John 12:45: "And he that seeth me seeth him that sent me."

1:3 express image

(Gr. charaktēr) G5481: Used only here in the New Testament, this word means "exact copy." The root word means "to sharpen." Literally, this word refers to a tool used for stamping or engraving, a mark imprinted or burned into something that would be the exact copy of the stamp's likeness. We might think of an impression made on a coin or seal. Paul uses this word metaphorically to express the complete similarity of the Son of God to the Father. In this context, the word means that Christ is the exact representation of God's nature. Since God's essence, nature, and being are invisible, the Son reveals God to us, for He is an exact visible likeness of God.

1:3 person ▸ see Heb. 3:14.
1:3 word ▸ see 1 Pet. 1:25.

any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?
6 And again, when he bringeth in the firstbegotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him.
7 And of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

A Sceptre of Righteousness

8 But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.
9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.
10 And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands:
11 They shall perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;
12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.
13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?
14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?

Give Earnest Heed to Salvation

2 Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.
2 For if the word spoken by angels was stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward;
3 How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him;
4 God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will?
5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak.
6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?
7 Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:
8 Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him.

1:6 firstbegotten

(Gr. prōtotokos) (Luke 2:7; Rom. 8:29; Col. 1:15; Rev. 1:5) G4416: The first part of this word (prōtos) can indicate "first in time" (temporal priority) or "first in place" (preeminence). In this context, preeminence is in the forefront. Thus the Son of Man is the "chiefborn" among all God's creatures. See Exodus 4:22; Deuteronomy 21:16, 17; Psalm 89:23, where in the Greek Old Testament prōtotokos is used to express the idea of preeminence. Understood as a second, separate description of Christ's human nature, this title indicates that the Son in His humanity is now the foremost creature of all creation. But the designation in no way indicates that Christ Himself was created by God, for the next verse asserts that all things were created in, through, and for Christ. As a participant in the creation of all things, Christ cannot be a created being. Instead He is the Son of God, the Second Person of the Godhead, who has existed from eternity.

1:7 minister

(Gr. leitourgos) (Rom. 13:6; 15:16; Phil 2:25; Heb. 8:2) G3011: Derived from laos (G2992), "people," and ergon (G2041), "work," this refers to workers for the people, such as public ministers or servants of the state. Originally it referred to someone who rendered service at his own expense. In Scripture it is used to refer to both government workers and public servants and to ministers of the gospel. Used metaphorically it refers to angels (here) and Christ Himself (Heb. 8:2). In these instances it emphasizes God's work for us, His care shown to us.

A Crown of Glory and Honour

9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.
10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.
11 For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren,
12 Saying, I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.
13 And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold I and the children which God hath given me.

A Merciful High Priest

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;
15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.
16 For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.
17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.
18 For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

The House of Christ

3 Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus;
2 Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house.
3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.

2:9 crown

(Gr. stephanoō) (2 Tim. 2:5; Heb. 2:7) G4737: This verb, used only three times in the New Testament, means "to encircle with a crown," as the victor in a contest. Here it is used figuratively to refer to the bestowing of some honor or reward. This word is similar but not identical to other words rendered "crown" in noun form—see for example the royal crowns of Revelation 19:12, the military crown of Revelation 6:2, the crown given to a victorious athlete in 1 Corinthians 9:25, and the metaphorical crowns of 2 Timothy 4:8 ("crown of righteousness"), 1 Peter 5:4 ("crown of glory"), and James 1:12 ("crown of life").

2:15 bondage

(Gr. douleia) (Rom. 8:15, 21; Gal. 5:1) G1397: This word is derived from the term doulos (G1401), which means slave or servant (Mark 10:44; Matt. 8:9; 10:24, 25). In the New Testament this word uses the helplessness and dehumanization of slavery as a metaphor for spiritual servitude. Jesus Himself makes this connection in John 8:34: "Whoever committeth sin is the servant [doulos] of sin" or in bondage to sin. Here the writer of Hebrews is pointing to the evidence of bondage to sin found in the fear of death from which Christ frees us by defeating both death and the devil (1 Cor. 15:20–28).

2:17 merciful ▸ see Matt. 5:7.
2:17 make reconciliation ▸ see Luke 18:13.

3:1 partaker

(Gr. metochos) (Heb. 1:9; 3:14; 6:4; 12:8) G3353: The Greek word is an adjective meaning "having a share in," "being a participant or partner with," or "being a companion of." Used substantively it means "fellow" or "companion" (see Heb. 1:9). The sense is on the fact of sharing (rather than having in common, a subtle but important distinction). The writer of Hebrews views his readers as sharing in the heavenly calling (as here), Christ (Heb. 3:14), the Holy Spirit (Heb. 6:4), and the discipline that identifies them as children of God (Heb. 12:8).

3:1 calling ▸ see 2 Tim. 1:9.
3:1 apostle ▸ see 2 Cor. 12:12.

4 For every house is builded by some man; but he that built all things is God.
5 And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;
6 But Christ as a son over his own house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.

The Evil Heart of Unbelief

7 Wherefore (as the Holy Ghost saith, To day if ye will hear his voice,
8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:
9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.
10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.
11 So I sware in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest.)
12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.
13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.
14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;
15 While it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

The Unheeding Israelites

16 For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.
17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcases fell in the wilderness?
18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?
19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

Labour to Enter God's Rest

4 Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.
2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.
3 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.
4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.
5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

Harden Not Your Hearts

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:
7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

3:14 confidence

(Gr. hypostasis) (2 Cor. 9:4; 11:17; Heb. 1:3; 11:1) G5287: Used just five times in the New Testament, the noun literally means "a setting or placing under"; that is, a support. The figurative meaning is "essence" or "reality" (as in Hebrews 1:3, where Jesus represents the essence of God) or "assurance" ("confidence," as here). In 2 Corinthians 9:4, it is used of Paul's "confident boasting" (see also 2 Cor. 11:17—"confidence of boasting"). In Hebrews 11:1 ("substance") either meaning might fit: Faith could be described as the assurance and confidence of things hoped for or as the substantial nature and reality of those things.

3:15 harden ▸ see Heb. 4:7.
4:1 come short ▸ see Luke 22:35.

4:7 harden

(Gr. sklērynō) (Acts 19:9; Rom. 9:18; Heb. 3:8, 13, 15) G4645: A word from which we derive our medical term sclerosis, referring to an unusual hardening of bodily tissue causing it to malfunction. The term, used interpersonally, conveys settled opposition or rejection. The writer of Hebrews

8 For if Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.
9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.
10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.
11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.
12 For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.
13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

A Great High Priest

14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.
15 For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.
16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

The Priesthood of Jesus Christ

5 For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:
2 Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity.
3 And by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.
4 And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.
5 So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee.
6 As he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.
7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared;
8 Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered;
9 And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;
10 Called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedec.

Milk and Strong Meat

11 Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.
12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.

4:12 powerful

(Gr. energēs) (1 Cor. 16:9; Philem. 6) G1756: Related to our word energetic, this word means "active and effectual." The root words are en (G1722), "in," and ergon (G2041), "work." The emphasis of this word is on the outcome—the work brings about the desired effect. Opposites include "idle," "inactive," and "ineffective." It is used only two other times in Scripture, once in reference to effective open doors to the gospel (1 Cor. 16:9) and once to personal gospel witness that results in conversion (Philem. 6).

both good and evil.

Striving for Perfection

6 Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,
2 Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.
3 And this will we do, if God permit.
4 For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,
5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,
6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

receiveth blessing from God:
8 But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.
9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.
10 For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.
11 And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end:
12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

The Promise of God

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater,
he sware by himself,
14 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.
15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.
16 For men verily swear by the greater: and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

God," but "words from God" or "divine communications." Peter uses this word for the teaching of Christian preachers (1 Pet. 4:11), while Paul employs it to refer to the writings of the Old Testament prophets (Rom. 3:2). Stephen uses this word to speak of God's utterances on Mount Sinai and His promises concerning the coming of the Messiah. The author of Hebrews uses it for the basics of Christian doctrine, perhaps consciously contrasting this word to the logos, "the word of righteousness," which is for the mature Christian (Heb. 5:13).

6:5 taste

(Gr. geuomai) (Matt. 27:34; John 2:9; 1 Pet. 2:3) G1089: The word can mean "taste" in a literal (Luke 14:24) or metaphorical sense (Luke 9:27). It can also mean "eat" (as Acts 20:11) or "partake of" (in the sense of experiencing something—see 1 Pet. 2:3). The word emphasizes the sensation of taste and thus the experience. It is this nuance of experience in the sense of coming to know fully and personally that determines its meaning in such figurative uses as "taste death" (Heb. 2:9) and "[having] tasted of the heavenly gift" (Heb. 6:4).

6:12 follower ▸ see Eph. 5:1.

6:12 patience

(Gr. makrothumia) (Gal. 5:22; Eph. 4:2; Col. 3:12; 2 Pet. 3:15) G3115: This word means "fortitude, forbearance, longsuffering, and patience." The root words are makros (G3117), "long," and thumos (G2372), "temper." This is offering lenience to someone who offends, willingly enduring persecution and ill-treatment. It is implied that the longsuffering person has the power to exercise revenge but instead exercises restraint out of love. God bears with us in this way (Rom. 2:4), and we are to show love by offering this same type of patience toward others (2 Cor. 6:6; Eph. 4:2). The Holy Spirit empowers us to have this virtue (Gal. 5:22).

to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath:
18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us:
19 Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the veil;
20 Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

The King of Righteousness

7 For this Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;
2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace;
3 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest continually.
4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.
5 And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:
6 But he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.
7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.
8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.
9 And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.
10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him.

A Surety of a Better Testament

11 If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?
12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.
13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.
14 For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.
15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest, 16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.
17 For he testifieth, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.
18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.
19 For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God.
20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest:
21 (For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec:)
22 By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament.

An Unchangeable Priesthood

23 And they truly were many priests,

7:3 make like

(Gr. aphomoioō) G0871: Used only here in the New Testament, this Greek word literally means "to make a facsimile," or "to produce a model or copy." Thus the author of Hebrews was highlighting the similarities between the Son of God and the way Scripture presents Melchizedek. In other words, the ancient priest-king of Salem was a copy of Jesus.

because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death:
24 But this man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood.
25 Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.
26 For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens;
27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself.
28 For the law maketh men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore.

A More Excellent Ministry

8 Now of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such an high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;
2 A minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.
3 For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.
4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:
5 Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.
6 But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises.

The Need for a New Covenant

7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.
8 For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:
9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

Laws Written in Their Hearts

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

7:25 make intercession

(Gr. entunchanō) (Acts 25:24; Rom. 8:27, 34; 11:2) G1793: Literally this word means to meet with someone in order to talk. By implication it means to entreat or plead with someone. The root words are en (G1722), "in," and tunchanō (G5177), "to obtain." It is used to describe the way the ruling Jews petitioned Festus to put Paul to death (Acts 25:24) and the description of the way Elijah pleaded with God in prayer (Rom. 11:2). More important to believers, we are told that the Holy Spirit and Christ intercede with God on our behalf, obtaining our salvation and sanctification in this way (Rom. 8:27, 34).

8:7 faultless

(Gr. amemptos) (Luke 1:6; Phil. 3:6; 1 Thess. 3:13) G0273: More often rendered "blameless" (Luke 1:6; Phil. 2:15), the word can be applied to a thing (as here—a faultless covenant) or to persons (as in 1 Thess. 3:13, albeit indirectly) to indicate a condition in which others cannot legitimately find reason to cast blame for moral failure. The word is used five times in five verses of the New Testament and is the result of the combination of a negative participle and a verb meaning "to find fault with."

8:8 new ▸ see John 13:34.
8:8 covenant ▸ see Mark 14:24.

11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.
12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.
13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

A Worldly Sanctuary

9 Then verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.
2 For there was a tabernacle made; the first, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread; which is called the sanctuary.
3 And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all;
4 Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant;
5 And over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercyseat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.
6 Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.
7 But into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people:
8 The Holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:
9 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience;
10 Which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

A More Perfect Tabernacle

11 But Christ being come an high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;
12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.
13 For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:
14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

The Mediator of the New Testament

15 And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that

8:11 know

(Gr. eidō) (John 21:15–17; 2 Cor. 5:16; Gal. 4:8, 9) G1492: In the statement "know the Lord, for all shall know me," there are two different Greek words for know. The first word (ginōskō, G1097) means "to come to know" or "to know personally." It can designate ongoing, personal knowledge, which implies a relationship between the knower and the person who is known. The second word (eidō) is derived from the Greek verb meaning "to see." Thus eidō means "to perceive" or "to know absolutely." It suggests complete knowledge, while ginōskō means a growing knowledge.

9:4 rod

(Gr. rhabdos) (Matt. 10:10; 1 Cor. 4:21; Rev. 2:27) G4464: The Greek word can refer to a staff or walking stick (Matt. 10:10), a twig or branch (as here, where Aaron's staff budded like a live tree), a rod with which a person is beaten (see 1 Cor. 4:21), or symbolically of any firm or severe governance (as Rev. 2:27—"rule them with a rod of iron"). In Roman times, officers similar in role to modern policemen were called "lictors" and carried bundles of sticks for meting out punishment to criminals or as a deterrent to would-be miscreants.

were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.
16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator.
17 For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.
18 Whereupon neither the first testament was dedicated without blood.

The Blood of the Testament

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people, 20 Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.
21 Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.
22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission.
23 It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.
24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us:
25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;
26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.
27 And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment:
28 So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

Christ the Perfect Sacrifice

10 For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.

9:21 vessel

(Gr. skeuos) (Luke 8:16; Rom. 9:21; 2 Cor. 4:7) G4632: This word can be used as a general term for any object, thing, household good, or equipment (see Matt. 12:29). More specifically, it can refer to any container, such as a jar or dish. It also has a broad range of figurative senses including that of an instrument (as Acts 9:15) and of the human body (2 Cor. 4:7). In 1 Thessalonians 4:4 ("every one of you should know how to possess his vessel"), the meaning could be "control his body" with particular reference to its sexual practices. However, in keeping with the rabbinic usage of referring to a wife as a "vessel," another possible meaning is "acquire a wife" (see 1 Pet. 3:7—"the weaker vessel").

9:21 ministry ▸ see Phil. 2:30.

9:22 remission

(Gr. aphesis) (Matt. 26:28; Luke 1:77; 4:18; Acts 2:38) G0859: This word carries the weight of important theological doctrine. The root word, aphiēmi (G0863), means "to leave, to forgive, to send away." This form of the word signifies releasing from bondage or imprisonment. It further implies sending a person away forgiven, with all punishment, obligation, or debt canceled by divine judgment. God pardons sins as if they had never been committed and releases the sinner from all obligation. Jesus' sacrifice accomplished this for us, thereby ushering in the New Covenant (Matt. 26:28). The famous gospel summary of Ephesians 1:7 uses this term: "In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness [aphesis] of sins, according to the riches of his grace."

9:26 appear ▸ see Mark 4:22.

9:28 offer

(Gr. prospherō) (Matt. 8:16; Mark 10:13; Luke 12:11; Heb. 10:12) G4374: This word means "to bring to, lead to, present to." The root words are pros (G4314), "unto; toward," and pherō (G5342), "to bring." It refers to presenting gifts (Matt. 2:11), money (Matt. 22:19), or offerings (Matt. 5:23). In the case of the latter, the offering might be a gift, a prayer, or a sacrifice. When people were brought to Jesus to be healed, this word is used (Matt. 8:16; 9:2). It is also used for people being arrested and brought before the authorities (Luke 12:11). In a sense, Jesus was offered up on our behalf in all of these ways—arrested and offered up as a gift or sacrifice in order that we might be healed.

2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.
3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.
4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.
5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me:
6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.
7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.
8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law;
9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.
10 By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.
11 And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:
12 But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God;
13 From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool.
14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.
15 Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,
16 This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;
17 And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.
18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

Hold Fast the Faith

19 Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus,
20 By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;
21 And having an high priest over the house of God;
22 Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.
23 Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;)
24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:
25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

Punishment for Wilful Sin

26 For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins,
27 But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

10:10 once for all

(Gr. ephapax) (Rom. 6:10; 1 Cor. 15:6; Heb. 7:27) G2178: The term can mean either "at once" (i.e., all at the same time—see 1 Cor. 15:6), "once" (that is, one time, as Rom. 6:10), or "once for all" in the sense of accomplishing something that completes an ongoing work (as here; an alternate translation could be "once for all time"). This last sense is used here to describe Jesus' death and self-sacrifice for our sins as final and ultimate, concluding the redemptive work of Christ.

10:12 offer ▸ see Heb. 9:28.

10:20 way

(Gr. hodos) (Matt. 3:3; John 14:6; Rom. 11:33; Rev. 15:3) G3598: This noun refers to a way, road, journey, or path. Thus the wise men left Jerusalem and returned to their own country "another way" (Matt. 2:12); John the Baptist prepared "the way of the LORD" (Matt. 3:3); Jesus explains that He is "the way, the truth, and the life" (John 14:6). This is the living way, for this way leads to our source of spiritual life, namely God Himself. Therefore, this way, prepared by Jesus' death, leads to eternal life.

10:22 pure ▸ see Matt. 5:8.

28 He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses:
29 Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?
30 For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people.
31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

A Call to Remember the Former Days

32 But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions;
33 Partly, whilst ye were made a gazingstock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, whilst ye became companions of them that were so used.
34 For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.
35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward.
36 For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise.
37 For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.
38 Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.
39 But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul.

Faith Before the Flood

11 Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.
2 For by it the elders obtained a good report.
3 Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.
4 By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh.
5 By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.
6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.
7 By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear,

10:36 patience

(Gr. hypomonē) (Luke 8:15; Rom. 5:3; Heb. 12:1; James 1:4) G5281: This word is formed from hypo, "under," (G5259) and menō, "to remain" (G3306). It means "endurance, perseverance, bearing up and standing firm in the face of difficulties." This is not passive complacency but an active hope that resists defeat and stands up courageously during times of trial. Believers are to "remain under" their trials, trusting that God loves them and is doing what is best. James puts it this way: "Count it all joy when ye fall into divers tempations, knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience [hypomonē]. But let patience [hypomonē] have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing" (James 1:2–4).

11:3 frame

(Gr. katartizō) (Luke 6:40; Rom. 9:22; 1 Pet. 5:10) G2675: This word has many possible translations, most of them having to do with restoring or attaining perfection or completeness. For example, it can refer to nets being mended (Matt. 4:21), the church becoming unified in thought (1 Cor. 1:10), students completing their training (Rom. 9:22), believers helping restore someone lost in sin (Gal. 6:1), and Jesus perfecting our faith (1 Thess. 3:10). First Peter 5:10 contains a prayer that God will, "after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you." It occasionally seems to refer to an act of creation, as here and in Hebrews 10:5.

prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

The Faith of the Patriarchs

8 By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.
9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:
10 For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.
11 Through faith also Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.
12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.
13 These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.
14 For they that say such things declare plainly that they seek a country.
15 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.
16 But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.
17 By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises offered up his only begotten son,
18 Of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall thy seed be called:
19 Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.
20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.
21 By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph; and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.
22 By faith Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

Moses and Other Faithful Servants

23 By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment.
24 By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;
25 Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;
26 Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward.

11:10 builder

(Gr. technitēs) (Acts 19:24; Rev. 18:22) G5079: This word, also translated "craftsman," refers to one who works with his hands, plying a certain trade. A group of craftsmen who specialized in making shrines or similar idol-worship paraphernalia honoring the goddess Diana once led an attack on Paul and his companions because they feared Paul's preaching was bad for their business (Acts 19:24, 27). In Hebrews 11:10, God is compared to an architect or city planner. Revelation 18:21, 22 says that when the "great city Babylon" is thrown down, "no craftsmen, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in [the city] anymore."

11:26 have respect

(Gr. apoblepō) G0578: From the root words apo (G0575), "from," and blepō (G0991), "to see," this word literally means "to look away from." Used only here in the New Testament, the word implies looking away from everything else in order to stare intently at or fix one's focus on one object. Moses had to turn his eyes away from the treasures of Egypt and gaze at the promises of God in order to fulfill God's command to lead the people to the Promised Land.

27 By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.
28 Through faith he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them.
29 By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were drowned.
30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.
31 By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace.
32 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of Gedeon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephthae; of David also, and Samuel, and of the prophets:
33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,
34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.
35 Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:
36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment:
37 They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;
38 (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.
39 And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:
40 God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

The Author and Finisher of Our Faith

12 Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,
2 Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.
3 For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.
4 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.
5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of

11:26 recompence of reward

(Gr. misthapodosia) (Heb. 2:2; 10:35) G3405: Much like its root word misthos (G3408), translated "reward," this refers to the wages or consequences earned by one's actions. Misthapodosia, however, appears only in Hebrews, and only three times at that. It has a more specific meaning: the payment of wages. As with misthos, these wages can be positive or negative, depending on the actions that earned them. The negative sense is exemplified in Hebrews 2:2, "Every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward." The positive is found in this passage and in Hebrews 10:35, in which confidence in God's faithfulness is spoken of as having "great recompence of reward."

12:2 look

(Gr. aphoraō) G0872: Used only here, this word is a compound form of apo (G0575), "from," and horaō (G3708), "to see." A literal rendering is "to look away from," but the implication is that one's undivided attention is fixed on something. The person has turned away from all other things in order to gaze intently at an object. A believer's whole vision should be filled with Jesus, fixed on Him rather than being filled with distractions.

the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:
6 For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

Endure Chastening

7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?
8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.
9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?
10 For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.
11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.
12 Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;
13 And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed.

Peace with All Men

14 Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:
15 Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;
16 Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.
17 For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

Not the Terrible Mountain

18 For ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,
19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:
20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:
21 And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)

The City of the Living God

22 But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,
23 To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect,

"instruction," paideia involves teaching or correction with the intent of improving the recipient. While chastening may be unpleasant, ultimately "it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness" (Heb. 12:11). It is used particularly of the way parents teach their children. "If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?" (Heb. 12:7). Parents are instructed to "but bring [their children] up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord" (Eph. 6:4).

12:23 make perfect

(Gr. teleioō) (John 19:28; Heb. 5:9; 1 John 2:5) G5048: This word means "to make perfect, complete, fulfill or achieve the end goal." Jesus spoke of finishing the work of salvation assigned Him by God (John 17:4) and acted to fulfill prophecies (John 19:28). He is Himself perfect (Luke 13:32; Heb. 7:28). While under the Law people can never achieve perfection (Heb. 7:19; 10:1), through Jesus' help they can (John 17:23; Hebrews 10:14). Other things are spoken of as being made perfect as well, including God's love in us (1 John 2:5; 4:12, 17, 18). One of the more well-known and encouraging usages is found in 2 Corinthians 12:9: "And he said to me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness."

24 And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.

The Unmoveable Kingdom

25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven:
26 Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.
27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.
28 Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear:
29 For our God is a consuming fire.

The Lord Is My Helper

13 Let brotherly love continue.
2 Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.
3 Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.
4 Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.
5 Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.
6 So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.
7 Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation.
8 Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

Beware of Strange Doctrines

9 Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.
10 We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle.

12:24 mediator

(Gr. mesitēs) (Gal. 3:19, 20; 1 Tim. 2:5; Heb. 8:6; 9:15) G3316: This Greek word means "a go-between," an intermediary between two parties. Paul describes Moses as a mediator of the first covenant: he acted as a liaison between God and the Israelites, communicating the obligations of the covenant to Israel and pleading the Israelites' case before God (see Gal. 3:19, 20). In a similar way, Jesus is the Mediator of the New Covenant. He established it through His own death, commissioning His disciples to preach the Good News. Now He sits at the right hand of God interceding for us (Heb. 7:25).

12:24 speak ▸ see 1 Cor. 14:2.

13:1 brotherly love

(Gr. philadelphia) (Rom. 12:10; 1 Thess. 4:9; 1 Pet. 1:22; 2 Pet. 1:7) G5360: With the root words phileō (G5368), "to love," and adelphos (G0080), "brother," this word signifies loving someone like a brother or sister. We might think of it as fraternal affection. This is not the love God has for us (agapē—G0026), but rather love between equals—love between brothers and sisters in Christ. It implies that a familial bond between people who would not otherwise share affection is possible through Christ.

13:3 in bonds ▸ see Philem. 1.
13:4 judge ▸ see Matt. 7:1.

13:6 helper

(Gr. boēthos) G0998: This word is used only here and means "a helper." The root words are boē, "to cry" (G0095) and theō, "to run." This is the person who comes running to help when he hears someone cry out in distress or grief. He rushes to a person's aid in a moment of crisis. God is eager to help us; He is poised to bring relief to His children the moment they cry out to Him for help.

13:10 altar

(Gr. thysiastērion) (Matt. 23:20; 1 Cor. 9:13; James 2:21) G2379: The altar is a place for making offerings to God. More than one altar is mentioned in the New Testament. One, located in the temple in Jerusalem, is the place for making whole burnt

11 For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp.
12 Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate.
13 Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach.
14 For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.
15 By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name.
16 But to do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

Obey Your Rulers

17 Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.
18 Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly.
19 But I beseech you the rather to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.
20 Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant,
21 Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Closing Words

22 And I beseech you, brethren, suffer the word of exhortation: for I have written a letter unto you in few words.
23 Know ye that our brother Timothy is set at liberty; with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you.
24 Salute all them that have the rule over you, and all the saints. They of Italy salute you.
25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

offerings such as doves or lambs. "They which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar" (1 Cor. 9:13). Another is specifically the altar for burning incense, located in the holy place (Luke 1:11; Rev. 8:3). Jesus instructed people to wait to offer gifts at the altar until they had made peace with anyone they had a dispute with (Matt. 5:23, 24). In this verse, the Cross is also considered an altar, because Jesus was sacrificed on it for the forgiveness of sins (Heb. 13:10).

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF

FAITH WITHOUT WORKS CANNOT BE called faith. "Faith without works is dead" (2:26), and a dead faith is worse than no faith at all. Faith must work; it must produce; it must be visible. Verbal faith is not enough; mental faith is insufficient. Faith must be there, but it must be more. It must inspire action. Throughout his epistle to Jewish believers, James integrates true faith and everyday practical experience by stressing that true faith must manifest itself in works of faith.

Faith endures trials. Trials come and go, but a strong faith will face them head-on and develop endurance. Faith understands temptations. It will not allow us to consent to our lust and slide into sin. Faith obeys the Word. It will not merely hear and not do. Faith produces doers. Faith harbors no prejudice. For James, faith and favoritism cannot coexist. Faith displays itself in works. Faith is more than mere words; it is more than knowledge; it is demonstrated by obedience; and it overtly responds to the promises of God. Faith controls the tongue. This small but immensely powerful part of the body must be held in check. Faith can do it. Faith acts wisely. It gives us the ability to choose wisdom that is heavenly and to shun wisdom that is earthly. Faith produces separation from the world and submission to God. It provides us with the ability to resist the Devil and humbly draw near to God. Finally, faith waits patiently for the coming of the Lord. Through trouble and trial it stifles complaining.

The name Iakobos (James) in 1:1 is the basis for the early title Iakobou Epistole, "Epistle of James." Iakobos is the Greek form of the Hebrew name Jacob, a Jewish name common in the first century.

Greetings to the Twelve Tribes

1 James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

Trials Make Patience

2 My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations;
3 Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.
4 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.
5 If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

1:5 upbraid

(Gr. oneidizō) (Matt. 5:11; Mark 16:14; Rom. 15:3; 1 Pet. 4:14) G3679: This word means "to defame, reproach, or revile." It can be used both for someone who is deserving of rebuke and for someone who is unjustly reviled. Originally the word denoted behaving in an immature way, such as young people who taunt and make fun of one another. Later it came to mean mocking in an angry or sarcastic tone. The Bible tells us that we

6 But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.
7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.
8 A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.
9 Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted:
10 But the rich, in that he is made low:
because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.
11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.
12 Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.
13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man:
14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.
15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.
16 Do not err, my beloved brethren.
17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.
18 Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.

Hearers and Doers of the Word

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath:
20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.
21 Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls.
22 But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.
23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:
24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.
25 But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.
26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.
27 Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

Favouritism Condemned

2 My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons.

(Gr. tropē) G5157: This word occurs only here in the New Testament. Here, God is described as the "Father of lights," as in the stars and planets set in the sky during the creation: "God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also" (Gen. 1:16). However, unlike the flickering stars and shadowed moon or the planets turning through space, God never changes.

(Gr. prosōpolēmpsia) (Rom. 2:11; Eph. 6:9; Col. 3:25) G4382: Prosōpolēmpsia refers to favoritism; that is, favoring one person over another and treating each accordingly. It is very rarely used in the New Testament. Three of its four occurrences are in reference to God, stating that He shows no

2 For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;
3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:
4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?
5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?
6 But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats?
7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?
8 If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:
9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.
10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.
11 For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.
12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.
13 For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

Faith Without Works

14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?
15 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,
16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?
17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.
18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.
19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.
20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?
21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?
22 Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

partiality toward anyone in meting out final judgments (Rom. 2:11), in whom He punishes (Col. 3:25), or in whom He rewards (Eph. 6:9). "Whatever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free" (Eph. 6:8). Here in James, the word urges believers not to show favoritism toward one potential brother in Christ over another based on status or wealth (James 2:1).

2:2 poor ▸ see Matt. 26:11.

2:9 have respect to persons

(Gr. prosōpolēpteō) G4380: To give preferential treatment, making distinctions based on rank, influence, or other worldly divisions. This word is used only here, and is a verbal form of nouns used in Acts 10:34 and James 2:1. The root words are prosōpon (G4383), "face," and lambanō (G2983), "to lay hold of." God does not show partiality, for He loves all people equally and each person equally carries His image.

2:19 devil ▸ see 1 Cor. 10:20.

2:22 work with

(Gr. synergeō) (Mark 16:20; Rom. 8:28; 1 Cor. 16:16; 2 Cor. 6:1) G4903: We recognize our word synergy in this word. It is formed from the words syn (G4862), "together," and ergō, "to work" and means "to cooperate, collaborate, help." It denotes a partnership in which parties work toward one goal. Here it emphasizes the harmony between faith in God and the practical outworking of our faith to help a world in need. The two complete one another. In Romans 8:28 this word demonstrates the synergistic cooperation between all of the events in the life of a believer to work out God's good plan.

imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God.
24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.
25 Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?
26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

The Unruly Tongue

3 My brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.
2 For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.
3 Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.
4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.
5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth!
6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.
7 For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind:
8 But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.
9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.
10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.
11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter?
12 Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

Earthly and Heavenly Wisdom

13 Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom.
14 But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.
15 This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish.
16 For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work.
17 But the wisdom that is from above is first

3:6 hell

(Gr. geenna) (Matt. 10:28; 23:15; Mark 9:43; Luke 12:5) G1067: While translated hell, geenna originally referred to a specific place outside Jerusalem, the Valley of Hinnom (H2011), where trash and animal carcasses were burned. This horrid, unclean place came to represent an equally horrifying place of future punishment. "Hell fire" threatens sinners, even those who so much as speak angrily to their siblings without cause (Matt. 5:22), and Jesus offers hyperbolically extreme suggestions for avoiding it. "If thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire" (Mark 9:47). We are told not to fear mere men, who can only harm the body, but to "fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell" (Luke 12:5).

3:9 bless ▸ see Luke 6:28.

3:9 similitude

(Gr. homoiōsis) G3669: The Greek word appears only here in the New Testament. The expression that people are "made in the similitude of God" means "in God's likeness." Although human beings have lost much of Godlikeness, there is still enough in our make-up to hint at what we once were like and what we can become again through the work of Christ. It is interesting how the ancient Alexandrian Christians understood Genesis 1:26, where man and woman are created in the "image" and "likeness" of God. The "image" was that Godlike part of us that we never lost in the Fall, while the "likeness" was that Godlike part of humanness that we have yet to acquire. By "image" they meant a person's physical and intellectual nature; by "likeness" they meant a person's moral being.

pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.
18 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

Draw Near to God

4 From whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts that war in your members?
2 Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.
3 Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.
4 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.
5 Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy?
6 But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.
7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.
8 Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded.
9 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.
10 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.
11 Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.
12 There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?

Rejoicing in Boastings Is Evil

13 Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:
14 Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

3:17 pure ▸ see 1 John 3:3.

3:17 gentle

(Gr. epieikēs) (Phil. 4:5; 1 Tim. 3:3; Titus 3:2; 1 Pet. 2:18) G1933: This word appears in only five verses in the New Testament. Believers are encouraged to be gentle (Phil. 4:5), and indeed it is listed as a required trait for bishops (1 Tim. 3:2, 3). Servants must submit to their masters, both the gentle and the harsh (1 Pet. 2:18). "Wisdom that is from above" is described as "peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy" (James 3:17).

3:17 without hypocrisy ▸ see 1 Pet. 1:22.

4:5 dwell

(Gr. katoikeō) (Matt. 4:13; Luke 11:26; Acts 17:24; Eph. 3:17) G2730: A word that reflects a settled-down lifestyle, making oneself at home. The phrase "dwell on the earth" is used repeatedly in Revelation (3:10; 6:10; 11:10; 13:8, 12, 14) to refer to those suffering the tribulation of the last times. A powerful prayer in Ephesians depicts Jesus dwelling in our hearts by faith (Eph. 3:17). Contrast this with the reality of God's fullness dwelling in Jesus (Col. 1:19; 2:9). Here, James raises concern over the indwelling Spirit's response when followers of Jesus persist in being friends with the world.

4:10 lift up ▸ see John 8:28.

4:11 speak evil

(Gr. katalaleō) (1 Pet. 2:12; 3:16) G2635: This word, appearing in only three verses in the New Testament, means to slander, defame, or speak against someone. Believers are encouraged to live godly lives, keeping good consciences and doing good works, so that when anyone ("Gentiles") tries to defame them, the slanderers will be brought to shame (1 Pet. 2:12; 3:16). Defamation is expected. Believers are also told not to speak evil of and pass judgment on each other.

4:12 another ▸ see Acts 4:12.
4:14 life ▸ see John 5:24.

15 For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.
16 But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil.
17 Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

Rich Oppressors Rebuked

5 Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.
2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are motheaten.
3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days.
4 Behold, the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth.
5 Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.
6 Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you.

The Value of Patience and Prayer

7 Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain.
8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.
9 Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge standeth before the door.
10 Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.
11 Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.
12 But above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.
13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms.
14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:
15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.
16 Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.
17 Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months.
18 And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

5:4 sabaoth

(Gr. sabaōth) (Rom. 9:29) G4519: Not to be confused with Sabbath, the day of rest, this word comes from the Hebrew tsaba' (H6635), meaning army or host. It forms part of a title of God: Lord of Sabaoth (Hosts). This name highlights God's role as the leader of the armies of Israel and protector of His people. It is only used twice in the New Testament. The first is in a quote from Isaiah: "Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we had been as Sodoma, and been made like unto Gomorrha" (Rom. 9:29; cf. Is. 1:9). The second, in this passage, refers to the cries of the oppressed peoples reaching God's ears; in His role of protector, He will come to save them from injustices done to them (James 5:4).

5:14 anoint

(Gr. aleiphō) (Matt. 6:17; Mark 6:13; Luke 7:38; John 11:2; 12:3) G0218: The Greek word aleiphō was commonly used in Greek literature to describe a medicinal anointing. Another Greek word, chriō, was used to describe a sacramental anointing. The distinction is still observed in modern Greek, with aleiphō meaning "to daub" or "to smear," and chriō meaning "to anoint." Furthermore, oil was one of the most common medicines of biblical times. Thus James was prescribing both prayer and medicine in this verse.

5:14 name ▸ see Acts 19:13.
5:16 confess ▸ see Luke 10:21.

19 Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him;
20 Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins.

5:20 sinner

(Gr. hamartōlos) (Matt. 9:11, 13; Rom. 5:8; James 4:8) G0268: This is a commonly used word for "sinner." It means "missing the mark" and was used in archery to denote missing the target. It also described losing one's way while traveling. When used of sin, this word describes someone who is devoted to sin, bent on living contrary to God's laws. The Pharisees used this word derisively to describe the tax collectors and other disreputable people with whom Jesus dined (Matt. 9:11), but Jesus responded by saying that the sinners are the people He came to save (Matt. 9:13).

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF

PETER

PERSECUTION CAN CAUSE EITHER GROWTH or bitterness in the Christian life. Response determines the result. In writing to Jewish believers struggling in the midst of persecution, Peter encourages them to conduct themselves courageously for the Person and program of Christ. Both their character and conduct must be above reproach. Having been born again to a living hope, they are to imitate the Holy One who has called them. The fruit of that character will be conduct rooted in submission: citizens to government, servants to masters, wives to husbands, husbands to wives, and Christians to one another. Only after submission is fully understood does Peter deal with the difficult area of suffering. The Christians are not to think it "strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you" (4:12), but are to rejoice as partakers of the suffering of Christ. That response to life is truly the climax of one's submission to the good hand of God.

This epistle begins with the phrase Petros apostolos Iesou Christou, "Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ." This is the basis of the early title Petrou A, the "First of Peter."

Salutation to Scattered Strangers

1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,
2 Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied.

An Incorruptible Inheritance

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,
4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you,
5 Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.
6 Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:
7 That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:
8 Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:
9 Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you:
11 Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.
12 Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into.

Without Spot or Blemish

13 Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ;
14 As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance:
15 But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation;
16 Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy.
17 And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear:
18 Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers;
19 But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:
20 Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you,
21 Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.

The Word of the Lord Endures Forever

22 Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently:
23 Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.
24 For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:
25 But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

1:14 lust

(Gr. epithymia) (John 8:44; 1 Tim. 6:9; James 1:14; 1 John 2:16) G1939: This noun denotes a "strong desire, longing, craving, lusting." In the New Testament (but not the Septuagint), it is almost always used in a bad sense—especially when it appears with words for passion (Gal. 5:24; 1 Thess. 4:5) and in vice lists (Col. 3:5; 1 Pet. 4:3). There are only three clearly nonnegative uses of this term (Luke 22:15; Phil. 1:23; 1 Thess. 2:17). The New Testament identifies various kinds of lusts: of the flesh (Eph. 2:3; 1 Pet. 2:11), of the body (Rom. 6:12), of the eyes (1 John 2:16), of the heart (Rom. 1:24), of the world (Titus 2:12; 1 John 2:17), and of deceit (Eph. 4:22).

1:22 unfeigned

(Gr. anypokritos) (Rom. 12:9; 2 Cor. 6:6; 1 Tim. 1:5; James 3:17) G0505: This Greek word has been translated "without hypocrisy, without dissimulation, unfeigned, sincere, genuine, authentic, upright." Originally, it was a theatrical term describing an inexperienced actor who was not competent in performing on stage. It came to describe things devoid of play acting, show, or pretense. In the New Testament, this term modifies love (Rom. 12:9; 2 Cor. 6:6), faith (1 Tim. 1:5; 2 Tim. 1:5), and godly wisdom (James 3:17).

1:25 word

(Gr. rhēma) (Luke 1:38; Rom. 10:17; Eph. 5:26; Heb. 1:3) G4487: In 1 Peter 1:23 the Greek expression for word is logos, referring primarily to the idea. Here in 1 Peter 1:25 the Greek term is rhēma, referring primarily to the spoken word.

Lay Aside All Evil

2 Wherefore laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings,
2 As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:
3 If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious.

An Holy Priesthood

4 To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,
5 Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.
6 Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.
7 Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,
8 And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed.
9 But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:
10 Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.
11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;
12 Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.

Submission to Rulers

13 Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme;
14 Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well.
15 For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:
16 As free, and not using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness, but as the servants of God.

The spoken word is the gospel preached and proclaimed (see the use of rhēma in Rom. 10:17, 18). "The word of the Lord" is the gospel message about the Lord Jesus Christ. This word can regenerate men and women. Peter adapted the Old Testament text (which says "the word of our God" in Is. 40:6–8) to its New Testament context.

2:9 chosen

(Gr. eklektos) (Matt. 20:16; Mark 13:20; 2 Tim. 2:10; 2 John 13) G1588: This adjective describes someone as chosen or selected—sometimes based upon one's intrinsic worth (Rom. 16:13; 1 Pet. 2:4, 6), but principally with no reason specified or even directly implied (Luke 18:7; Col. 3:12; Rev. 17:14). In the New Testament, all of its 23 occurrences are spiritual in nature and all describe personal beings: Jesus (Luke 23:35; 1 Pet. 2:4, 6), angels (1 Tim. 5:21), and especially Christians (Rom. 8:33; Titus 1:1; 1 Pet. 1:2).

2:9 praise

(Gr. aretē) (Phil. 4:8; 2 Pet. 1:3, 5) G0703: A very important term in classical Greek originally denoting excellence of almost any kind, this noun occurs only rarely in the New Testament and in the Septuagint (largely the Apocrypha). It is used of virtue and moral excellence—especially in virtue lists (Phil. 4:8; 2 Pet. 1:5). With reference to God, in the singular it denotes His power or perhaps His virtue (2 Pet. 1:3).

2:12 visitation ▸ see Acts 1:20.
2:16 liberty ▸ see 1 Cor. 10:29.

17 Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.
18 Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.
19 For this is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.
20 For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God.
21 For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:
22 Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth:
23 Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously:
24 Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.
25 For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

Subjection in Marriage

3 Likewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives;
2 While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.
3 Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;
4 But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.
5 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:
6 Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.
7 Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered.

Inheritance of a Blessing

8 Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous:
9 Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing.
10 For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile:

2:21 example

(Gr. hypogrammos) G5261: This term designates an example, model, pattern, paradigm, or outline. It occurs once in the New Testament. Rare in Classical Greek, it originally referred to the faint examples of letters that were given to beginning learners to trace or the fully written letters that they were to copy repeatedly (much in the way young children today trace letters in workbooks). Later, the term came to be used for patterns or models in general, but especially for examples of behavior to be copied. In early Christian literature, Christ (most often) and Paul were identified as such role models.

3:7 heirs together

(Gr. synklēronomos) (Rom. 8:17; Eph. 3:6; Heb. 11:9) G4789: The Greek word means "joint-heirs" or "coheirs." For Christian couples to be "joint-heirs" is for them to have an equal share and joint-participation in the Father's kingdom. The concept of inheritance is prominent both in the Old and New Testaments (see Num. 26:56; Ps. 25:13; Is. 60:21; Matt. 5:5; Gal. 3:29). For believers, Jesus promises an eternal inheritance in His kingdom. Paul uses the same Greek word to describe Christians' participation with Christ in glory (see Eph. 3:6).

11 Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it.
12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil.
13 And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?
14 But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled;
15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear:
16 Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.
17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing.
18 For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit:
19 By which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison;
20 Which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water.
21 The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ:
22 Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

Charity Among Yourselves

4 Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin;
2 That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God.
3 For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries:
4 Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you:
5 Who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead.
6 For for this cause was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.
7 But the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.
8 And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins.

3:14 trouble ▸ see Luke 24:38.

3:15 answer

(Gr. apologia) (Acts 22:1; 1 Cor. 9:3; 2 Cor. 7:11; Phil. 1:17) G0627: This is primarily a technical term referring to a legal defense against a specific charge or accusation. Plato's Apology gives an account of Socrates's legal defense of himself against charges that included corrupting the young people of Athens. Paul gave legal defenses of himself (Acts 25:16; 2 Tim. 4:16) and asserted that in his legal affairs he was defending the very gospel itself (Phil. 1:7, 16). While defenses were normally oral speeches, on at least one occasion Paul defended himself in writing against charges leveled by his critics within the church at Corinth (1 Cor. 9:3).

3:16 speak evil ▸ see James 4:11.
3:18 suffer ▸ see Acts 17:3.
4:4 speak evil ▸ see Matt. 9:3.

4:6 preach the gospel

(Gr. euaggelizō) (Luke 2:10; Acts 8:12; 1 Cor. 1:17; 15:1; Gal. 1:8) G2097: This verb means "to proclaim good news, to announce glad tidings." These proclamations were intended to produce joy (Luke 2:10). In the New Testament, this term is almost always used for preaching Jesus Christ with various aspects of the gospel sometimes highlighted, e.g., the kingdom of God (Luke 4:43; 16:16; Acts 8:12) and peace with God (Acts 10:36; Rom. 10:15; Eph. 2:17). Other good news includes the birth of John the Baptist, the forerunner of Jesus (Luke 1:19), and the Christian faith and love of the Thessalonians (1 Thess. 3:6). While humans are normally the agents of proclamation, on occasion, angels are the agents (Luke 1:19; 2:10; Rev. 14:6).

9 Use hospitality one to another without grudging.
10 As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.
11 If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

Partakers of Christ's Sufferings

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you:
13 But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.
14 If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.
15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men's matters.
16 Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf.
17 For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?
18 And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?
19 Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

Be Subject One to Another

5 The elders which are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed:
2 Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;
3 Neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock.
4 And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.
5 Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.
6 Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:
7 Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

4:9 grudging ▸ see John 7:12.
4:10 gift ▸ see 1 Cor. 1:7.

4:10 steward

(Gr. oikonomos) (Luke 12:42; Rom. 16:23; Gal. 4:2; Titus 1:7) G3623: This term is based (in part) upon a word usually translated "house." It denoted either a household steward, an administrator, or a government official who had oversight involving financial matters. A household steward managed financial affairs for a wealthy individual for whom he worked or, as was usually the case, to whom he was or had been enslaved (Luke 12:42; 16:1, 3, 8). The term came to be applied to Christian ministers and even Christians in general, who are all slaves of Christ (1 Cor. 4:1; Titus 1:7; 1 Pet. 4:10). Because the position entailed great trust, good stewards needed to be faithful, honest, and wise (Luke 12:42; 1 Cor. 4:2; Titus 1:7).

5:7 care

(Gr. merimna) (Matt. 13:22; Luke 8:14; 2 Cor. 11:28) G3308: This noun refers positively to cares and concerns and negatively to anxieties and worries—and, concretely, to things that cause these sentiments. Sometimes the sentiments are warranted and at other times they are not. According to Jesus, the cares of this worldly life help choke

5:14 kiss

(Gr. philēma) (Luke 7:45; 22:48; Rom. 16:16) G5370: This noun derives from a verb that means "to love or regard with affection." In the New Testament, it most usually refers to the customary greeting ritual within the Christian community—a holy kiss (Rom. 16:16; 1 Cor. 16:20; 2 Cor. 13:12; 1 Thess. 5:26). As such, it has been correlated to a handshake and a hug—two customary American greetings. The most famous kiss of all time gave rise to our expression "Judas kiss," which marks an act of betrayal disguised as a token of affection (Luke 22:48). In the New Testament, this word never refers to romantic kisses.

THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL OF

PETER

FIRST PETER DEALS WITH PROBLEMS from the outside; Second Peter deals with problems from the inside. Peter writes to warn the believers about the false teachers who are peddling damaging doctrine. He begins by urging them to keep close watch on their personal lives. The Christian life demands diligence in pursuing moral excellence, knowledge, self-control, perseverance, godliness, brotherly kindness, and selfless love. By contrast, the false teachers are sensual, arrogant, greedy, and covetous. They scoff at the thought of future judgment and live their lives as if the present would be the pattern for the future. Peter reminds them that although God may be longsuffering in sending judgment, ultimately it will come. In view of that fact, believers should live lives of godliness, blamelessness, and steadfastness.

The statement of authorship in 1:1 is very clear: "Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ." To distinguish this epistle from the first by Peter it was given the Greek title Petrou B, the "Second of Peter."

WATCH WORDS

- nature (one's inherent characteristics by origin or birth)—1:4
- add (provide, furnish, or support)—1:5
- interpretation (explanation; meaning)—1:20
- pure (unsullied by foreign substances; free from falsehood; sincere)—3:1

Grace and Peace

1 Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

Fruitful in the Knowledge of Christ

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue:

4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

5 And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge;

1:3 virtue ▸ see 1 Pet. 2:9.
1:4 promise ▸ see 2 Pet. 3:13.
1:4 partaker ▸ see Luke 5:10.

1:4 nature

(Gr. phusis) (Gal. 2:15; 4:8; Eph. 2:3) G5449: This word refers to one's inherent nature, origin, or birth. Before Christ made us alive, we once followed all manner of evil and "were by nature the children of wrath" (Eph. 2:3) and "did service unto them which by nature are no gods" (Gal. 4:8). The contrast is that through Christ, we have become "partakers of the divine nature," the nature that characterizes God, the nature that is expressed in holiness, virtue, righteousness, love, and grace (see 2 Pet. 1:5–7). By being regenerated with the divine nature, believers can exhibit the same characteristics.

1:5 add

(Gr. epichorēgeō) (2 Cor. 9:10; Gal. 3:5; Col. 2:19) G2023: Often translated "add" or "minister," this

6 And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness;
7 And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity.
8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.
9 But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.
10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall:
11 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Eyewitnesses of His Majesty

12 Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.
13 Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance;
14 Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.
15 Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.
16 For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty.
17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.
18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount.
19 We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts:
20 Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.
21 For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

Destruction for False Teachers

word denotes lavishly providing, furnishing, or supporting someone and sparing no expense in the endeavor. We are to generously add to our faith a complement of Christian graces. In so doing we assure that an entrance into Christ's kingdom will be furnished for or granted to us (2 Pet. 1:11). Paul uses the verb in its general sense of providing or giving what is needed—"seed" in 2 Corinthians 9:10 and "the Spirit" in Galatians 3:5. In Colossians 2:19 this word is used figuratively, either referring to the structural support of the body by ligaments or to what is provided to make growth possible.

1:19 day star

(Gr. phōsphoros) G5459: Used only here, this Greek term means "light-bearer" or "light-bringer." Christ is the morning star, as elsewhere He is called the bright and morning star (Rev. 22:16) and the dayspring, that is, the rising sun (Luke 1:78). Presently, Christ shines in our hearts; when He returns, He will arise in our hearts and bring us into a perfect day. His outward coming will be matched by an inward rising, "an illuminating transformation" of our spirits.

1:20 interpretation

(Gr. epilysis) G1955: Used only here, this word is translated "interpretation." It's used to make it clear that no prophecy in the Scriptures was made up by its author or comes from the prophet's own interpretation of the world. Rather, as the next verse explains, prophecy never came by the will of man, but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit (2 Pet. 1:21). In other words, Scripture, while assembled and written down by men, ultimately comes from God, and is therefore inerrant.

teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.
2 And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.
3 And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.
4 For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment;
5 And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly;
6 And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrha into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly;
7 And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked:
8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)
9 The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished:
10 But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous are they, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.
11 Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord.
12 But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;
13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they feast with you;
14 Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children:
15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;
16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet.
17 These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.
18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error.
19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.
20 For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

2:13 spot

(Gr. spilos) (Eph. 5:27) G4696: This word refers to a stain or flaw, as on a garment. It appears only here and in Ephesians 5:27. Ephesians talks of how Christ, out of His great love, sacrificed Himself to make the church holy and free from any blemish. This mirrors the Old Testament requirement that lambs offered in the temple be free from spots or blemishes (Ex. 12:5). In 2 Peter, the morally flawed lovers of pleasure who follow the desires of the flesh (2 Pet. 2:10) and "speak evil of the things that they understand not" (2 Pet. 2:12) are themselves compared to "spots and blemishes" (2 Pet. 2:13).

known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.
22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

Unwilling for Any to Perish

3 This second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:
2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:
3 Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts,
4 And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.
5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water:
6 Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:
7 But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.
8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.
9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.
10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.
11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness,
12 Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?
13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.
14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

3:1 pure

(Gr. eilikrinēs) (Phil. 1:10) G1506: Taken from heilē, "sun," and krinō (G2919), "to judge," this word describes the process of holding something up to the sunlight to expose any imperfections. It was used to describe metals or liquids that were unsullied by foreign substances. In the New Testament this word is used twice, both times to denote a person who is free from falsehood, pure, and sincere. In Philippians 1:10 Paul urges believers to be morally pure in this way: "That ye may approve the things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere [eilikrinēs] and without offence till the day of Christ."

3:10 heaven ▸ see Rev. 21:1.

3:10 with great noise

(Gr. rhoizēdon) G4500: Used only here in the New Testament, the Greek word rhoizēdon means "with (loud) hissing" or "with roaring speed," perhaps suddenly. The word may suggest the noise and speed with which a rapidly thrown object flies through the air, or the roaring and crackling of devouring flames. Some interpreters think Peter chose the word to emphasize power and speed.

3:10 element ▸ see Gal. 4:3.

3:13 promise

(Gr. epangelma) (2 Pet. 1:4) G1862: Like its relative, epangelia (G1860), this word describes both the thing promised and the promise itself. Synonyms include "announcement," "pledge," and "offer." Self-committal is implied. This form of the word is used in the New Testament only here and in 2 Peter 1:4, "Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises [epangelma]: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust."

Grow in Grace

15 And account that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother
Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you;
16 As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.
17 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness.
18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

3:16 epistle ▸ see 1 Thess. 5:27.
3:17 know before ▸ see Acts 2:23.

3:18 knowledge

(Gr. gnōsis) (Eph. 3:19; Phil. 3:8; Col. 2:3) G1108: This Greek word for knowledge usually connotes progressive, experiential, and personal knowledge; it is knowledge that can grow. We need to grow in our actual, personal knowledge of Jesus Christ; such knowledge is the greatest protection against false teachings. One of the prominent themes in this epistle is Peter's exhortation to the believers to attain a fuller, more thorough knowledge of Jesus Christ (2 Pet. 1:8; 2:20; 3:18).

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF

JOHN

GOD IS LIGHT, GOD IS love, and God is life. John is enjoying a delightful fellowship with the God of light, love, and life, and he desperately desires that his spiritual children enjoy the same fellowship.

God is light. Therefore, to engage in fellowship with Him we must walk in light and not in darkness. As we walk in the light, we will regularly confess our sins, allowing the blood of Christ to continually cleanse us. Two major roadblocks to hinder this walk will be falling in love with the world and falling for the alluring lies of false teachers.

God is love. Since we are His children we must walk in love. In fact, John says that if we do not love, we do not know God. Love is more than just words; it is actions. Love is giving, not getting. Biblical love is unconditional in its nature. Christ's love fulfilled those qualities, and when that brand of love characterizes us, we will be free of self-condemnation and experience confidence before God.

WATCH WORDS

- blood (substance signifying life)—1:7
- love (unselfish, self-giving purpose)—2:15
- propitiation (redeeming sacrifice; sacrificial atonement)—4:10 (also 2:2)
- world (all the aspects of the created order that are hostile to God and His purposes)—5:19

Be Full of Joy

1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life;

2 (For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;)

3 That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

4 And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.

Walk in the Light

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

1:7 blood

(Gr. haima) (Matt. 26:28; Eph. 1:7; Col 1:20; Heb. 2:14) G0129: This is a technical word for the blood of animals or of people, but in the New Testament it is used to refer to the atoning blood of Christ. Blood was known even in the ancient world to be the seat of life—similar to what is communicated by our word lifeblood. Scripture draws a distinction between "flesh and blood"—the physical being—and the spirit (Matt. 16:17; 1 Cor. 15:50).

8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.
9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.
10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

Our Advocate with the Father

2 My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:
2 And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.
3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.
4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.
5 But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.
6 He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.
7 Brethren, I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.
8 Again, a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth.
9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.
10 He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him.
11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.
12 I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.
13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.
14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

Love the Father, Not the World

15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

Continued

The most important use of this word is to describe the work of Christ on the Cross whereby we are saved. This is the "new testament in his blood" (Matt. 26:28; Heb. 12:24), for "by the law almost all things are purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission" (Heb. 9:22).

1:9 sin ▸ see John 9:41.

2:1 advocate

(Gr. paraklētos) (John 14:16, 26; 15:26; 16:7) G3875: The Greek word paraklētos is derived from the preposition para (G3844), "beside," and the verb kaleō (G2564), "call"; hence it originally meant in a passive sense one who is called beside (to offer support). This passive sense was gradually replaced by the more active meaning of mediator, intercessor. Here in 1 John 2:1 Christ takes the role of an intercessor for the sinner. In John 14:16, 17 the Holy Spirit is called the paraklētos, there meaning Helper.

2:2 propitiation ▸ see 1 John 4:10.
2:5 perfected ▸ see Heb. 12:23.
2:8 true ▸ see Rom. 3:4.
2:11 darkness ▸ see John 12:46.

2:15 love

(Gr. agapē) (John 13:35; 15:13; Rom. 5:8; 8:39; 1 Cor. 13:13) G0026: Although common in both the Septuagint and the New Testament, the word rarely occurs in existing secular Greek manuscripts of the period. Like its synonym philia (G5373) (see philos, G5384, at John 15:14), it designates love between persons (John 13:35), of people for God (as here in 1 John 2:15), of God for humanity (Rom. 5:8), and of God for Christ (John 17:26). Whereas philia emphasizes the idea of love arising from personal relationships, agapē is founded upon deep appreciation and high regard. It is perhaps for this reason that agapē is the love which God commands (cf. the use of the verb agapaō, G0025, in John 13:34, 35).

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.
17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

Beware of Antichrists

18 Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.
19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.
20 But ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things.
21 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.
22 Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.
23 Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

Abide in Christ

24 Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.
25 And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.
26 These things have I written unto you concerning them that seduce you.
27 But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him.
28 And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.
29 If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one that doeth righteousness is born of him.

Let No Man Deceive You

3 Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.
2 Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.
3 And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

2:16 lust ▸ see 1 Pet. 1:14.
2:18 time ▸ see Luke 22:53.
2:18 antichrist ▸ see 2 John 7.

2:20 unction

(Gr. chrisma) (1 John 2:27) G5545: The Greek term chrisma is related to the title Christ, which means "Anointed One," and is used in the Greek Old Testament (the Septuagint) for the anointing of a high priest (see Ex. 29:17). The unction (anointing) here depicts the impartation of the Holy Spirit to a person (see also Is. 61:1). As Christians, now indwelt by the Holy Spirit, we are joined to the Anointed One and share in His anointing (see 2 Cor. 1:21, 22). Therefore we can know all things with respect to truth and falsehood. Because the Spirit lives within us, we know all that we need to know in order to resist the temptations of false teachers and to live godly lives in this world.

3:3 pure

(Gr. hagnos) (2 Cor. 11:2; Phil. 4:8; James 3:17; 1 Pet. 3:2) G0053: From the root word hagios (G0040), "holy," this word denotes a person who is clean, modest, pure, and morally innocent. Synonyms include chaste and immaculate. This word is used to describe the chaste behavior of godly wives (Titus 2:5; 1 Pet. 3:2), God's wisdom (James 3:17), and the proper behavior of believers (1 Tim. 5:22). Because of Christ's sinless life and His sacrificial death on the Cross, we can be pure in the same way He is pure. His perfection is imputed to us, and we are presented as a pure bride (2 Cor. 11:2).

4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.
5 And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.
6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.
7 Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.
8 He that committeth sin is of the devil;
for the devil sinneth from the beginning.
For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.
9 Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him:
and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.
10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

Love in Deed and in Truth

11 For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.
12 Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.
13 Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.
14 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.
15 Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.
16 Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.
17 But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?
18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.
19 And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him.
20 For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.
21 Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God.
22 And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.
23 And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.
24 And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

Be Sure the Spirits Are of God

4 Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God:
because many false prophets are gone out into the world.
2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God:
3 And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God:
and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.
4 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world.
5 They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them.
6 We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

3:4 transgression of the law

(Gr. anomia) (Matt. 24:12; 2 Cor. 6:14; Titus 2:14) G0458: The Greek word anomia means lawlessness, and comes from the a- prefix (G0001, negative) and the noun nomos (G3551), "law." Thus here sin is seen essentially as transgression of law, especially of the law of God as His revealed will. The related adjective anomos (G0459) means lawless, unlawful (as Luke 22:37, lawless ones = transgressors); and the similar word anomōs means without the law (as twice in Rom. 2:12, its only New Testament usages).

3:10 manifest ▸ see 1 Cor. 11:19.
4:3 antichrist ▸ see 2 John 7.

Love One Another

7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.
8 He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love.
9 In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.
10 Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.
11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.
12 No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.
13 Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.
14 And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.
15 Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.
16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.
17 Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world.
18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.
19 We love him, because he first loved us.
20 If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?
21 And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

Love God and Keep His Commandments

5 Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him.
2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.
3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous.
4 For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

4:9 only begotten ▸ see John 3:16.
4:10 sent ▸ see John 20:21.

4:10 propitiation

(Gr. hilasmos) (1 John 2:2) G2434: Used only here and in 1 John 2:2 in the New Testament, the Greek word hilasmos means propitiation, expiation, and perhaps (indirectly) sin offering. The basic idea (though some interpreters disagree) is to appease wrath for an offense by means of sacrificial atonement. Thus Jesus satisfied the requirements of God's justice, His wrath, by giving Himself for our sins. The related word hilastērion (G2435) means "that which expiates or propitiates" (Rom. 3:25), as well as "the place of expiation or propitiation," in other words, the mercy seat (Heb. 9:5).

4:14 testify ▸ see John 5:31.

4:18 fear

(Gr. phobos) (Luke 2:9; Rom. 3:18; 8:15; 2 Cor. 7:1) G5401: Our word phobia is a transliteration of this word. In its original use this word meant "flight," but it later came to refer to something that causes flight—feelings of fear, terror, or dread. It describes extreme fear such as one feels in the presence of angels (Luke 2:9) or death (Heb. 2:15). It is also used to convey a sense of awe or reverence for God (Rom. 3:18; 2 Cor. 7:1). This verse uses both definitions of the word to denote God's love and care as an antidote for fear and the way our reverential fear of God is the basis for our salvation and sanctification.

4:18 fear ▸ see Matt. 10:26.

5:3 keep

(Gr. tēreō) (Matt. 19:17; John 8:51; 17:11; Rev. 3:10) G5083: The word tēreō appears frequently in the New Testament in a variety of closely related senses. It is used with respect to persons or things with the meanings to watch over and guard (Matt. 27:36, 54); protect, keep safe (John 17:11, 15; Rev. 3:10); and hold, reserve, preserve (John 2:10; 1 Pet. 1:4). It has the specialized meaning "observe" when its object is some aspect of law or teaching (John 9:16; here in 1 John 5:3).

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?
6 This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.
7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.
8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.
9 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son.
10 He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.
11 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.
12 He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

We Know God Hears Us

13 These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.
14 And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:
15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.
16 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.
17 All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death.
18 We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.
19 And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.
20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.
21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

5:19 world

(Gr. kosmos) (John 3:16; 16:28; Acts 17:24; 1 Tim. 6:7; 1 Pet. 3:3) G2889: The Greek word kosmos can mean "adornment" (1 Pet. 3:3) or "order," and by common extension "the ordered universe" or "world" (John 17:5; Acts 17:24). It is used in the New Testament almost exclusively in this latter sense but with a wide range of nuances. It may refer to the planet Earth generally (Matt. 26:13), specifically in contrast to heaven (John 16:28), or as the place where humans live (1 Tim. 6:7). It is used of humanity generally (John 4:42) or with specific reference to believers (John 3:16, 17). Here in 1 John 5:19 kosmos represents all the aspects of the created order that are hostile to God and His purposes, all organized evil that the devil controls and directs (cf. 1 John 2:15).

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF

JOHN

"LET HIM THAT THINKETH HE standeth take heed lest he fall" (1 Cor. 10:12). These words of the apostle Paul could well stand as a subtitle for John's little epistle. The recipients, a chosen lady and her children, were obviously standing. They were walking in truth, remaining faithful to the commandments they had received from the Father. John is deeply pleased to be able to commend them. But he takes nothing for granted. Realizing that standing is just one step removed from falling, he hesitates not at all to issue a reminder: "love one another" (v. 5). The apostle admits that this is not a new revelation, but he views it sufficiently important to repeat. Loving one another, he stresses, is equivalent to walking according to God's commandments.

John indicates, however, that this love must be discerning. It is not a naive, unthinking, open to anything and anyone kind of love. Biblical love is a matter of choice; it is dangerous and foolish to float through life with undiscerning love. False teachers abound who do not acknowledge Christ as having come in the flesh. It is false charity to open the door to false teaching. We must have fellowship with God. We must have fellowship with Christians. But we must not have fellowship with false teachers.

The "Elder" of verse 1 has been traditionally identified with the apostle John, resulting in the Greek title Ioannou B, the "Second of John."

The Elect Lady and Her Children

1 The elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known the truth;

2 For the truth's sake, which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever.

3 Grace be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another.

6 And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

7 For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist.

1 lady

(Gr. kyria) (2 John 5) G2959: Used only in 2 John, this is a formal and respectful title for "lady." The root word, kyrios, means "lord or master." Possibly this is the proper name Cyria ("Martha" is the Aramaic name with the same meaning). Another possibility is that it is a figure of speech personifying the church rather than an individual woman. This option is borne out by the New Testament metaphor of the church being presented as the bride of Christ.

3 mercy ▸ see Rom. 9:23.
4 commandment ▸ see John 4:24.
5 lady ▸ see 2 John 1.

7 antichrist

(Gr. antichristos) (1 John 2:18, 22; 4:3) G0500: Christ is the Greek word for Messiah, or anointed

Abide in the Doctrine of Christ

9 Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son.
10 If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed:
11 For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.
12 Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink: but I trust to come unto you, and speak face to face, that our joy may be full.
13 The children of thy elect sister greet thee. Amen.

one (Matt. 16:16; 27:22). The addition of the prefix anti conveys the idea of one opposed to or the opposite from Christ. Only John uses this term here and in his first letter. He makes it clear there is a specific Antichrist in mind (1 John 2:18) but also an attitude or mind-set capable of producing multiple antichrists (1 John 2:18), which he calls the spirit of antichrist. This mind-set is revealed by denial of the Father and the Son (1 John 2:22). Here antichrist refers to anyone who deceives in word and intent.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF

JOHN

IN THIRD JOHN THE APOSTLE encourages fellowship with Christian brothers. Following his expression of love for Gaius, John assures him of his prayers for his health and voices his joy over Gaius's persistent walk in truth and for the manner in which he shows hospitality and support for missionaries who have come to his church.

But not everyone in the church feels the same way. Diotrephes's heart is one hundred and eighty degrees removed from Gaius's heart. He is no longer living in love. Pride has taken precedence in his life. He has refused a letter John has written for the church, fearing that his authority might be superseded by that of the apostle. He also has accused John of evil words and refused to accept missionaries. He forbids others to do so and even expels them from the church if they disobey him. John uses this negative example as an opportunity to encourage Gaius to continue his hospitality. Demetrius has a good testimony and may even be one of those turned away by Diotrephes. He is widely known for his good character and his loyalty to the truth. Here he is well commended by John and stands as a positive example for Gaius.

The Greek titles of First, Second, and Third John are Ioannou A, B, and G. The G is gamma, the third letter of the Greek alphabet; Ioannou G means the "Third of John."

WATCH WORD

- receive (accept, welcome)—8

Greeting

1 The elder unto the wellbeloved Gaius, whom I love in the truth.
2 Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.
3 For I rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth.
4 I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.

Gaius's Generosity Commended

5 Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers;
6 Which have borne witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:
7 Because that for his name's sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles.
8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellowhelpers to the truth.
9 I wrote unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not.

8 receive

(Gr. apolambanō) (Luke 6:34; 15:27; 18:30; Rom. 1:27; Col. 3:24) G0618: One of numerous terms for acceptance, welcome, and receiving, this one carries the sense of hosting and supporting. In the Gospels, only Luke uses the term, including the confession of the thief on the cross, "for we receive the due reward of our deeds" (Luke 23:41). The other Gospels settle for lambanō (G2983), the simple form of "receive" (Matt. 7:8; Mark 4:16; John 1:12). Perhaps a modern use of this term would be "to own someone," to stand with them. Here John uses the term to convey support in contrast with "receive" in 3 John 9, 10 (G1926—epidechomai), which implies welcome.

10 Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church.
11 Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God.
12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, and we also bear record; and ye know that our record is true.
13 I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write unto thee:
14 But I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.

10 prate against

(Gr. phlyareō) G5396: This verb is used only here in the New Testament. It means "to talk nonsense or bring justified charges against." The root word is phlyaros (G5397) meaning "babble, tattle." The implication is that the accusations made are gossipy or foolish, and that those who make such accusations are idle or mischievous.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF

JUDE

FIGHT! CONTEND! DO BATTLE! WHEN apostasy arises, when false teachers emerge, when the truth of God is attacked, it is time to fight for the faith. Only believers who are spiritually "in shape" can answer the summons. At the beginning of his letter Jude focuses on the believers' common salvation, but then feels compelled to challenge them to contend for the faith. The danger is real. False teachers have crept into the church turning God's grace into unbounded license to do as they please. Jude reminds such men of God's past dealings with unbelieving Israel, disobedient angels, and wicked Sodom and Gomorrah. In the face of such danger Christians should not be caught off guard. The challenge is great, but so is the God who is able to keep them from stumbling.

The Greek title Iouda, "Of Jude," comes from the name Ioudas which appears in verse 1. This name, which can be translated Jude or Judas, was popular in the first century because of Judas Maccabaeus (died 160 B.C.), a leader of the Jewish resistance against Syria during the Maccabean revolt.

WATCH WORDS

- Lord (owner or master)—9
- able (having both the inherent strength or capacity to do something and the willingness or disposition to do it)—24

Loved by God the Father

1 Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called:

2 Mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied.

Earnest Contention for the Faith

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not.

6 And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.

7 Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.

1 servant ▸ see Rev. 11:18.
3 common ▸ see Acts 4:32.

4 lasciviousness

(Gr. aselgeia) (Rom. 13:13; Gal. 5:19; 2 Pet. 2:18) G0766: Along with other words for sexual immorality (adultery, orgies, and fornication), this word shows up frequently on lists of "works of the flesh" or vices. It means "debauchery, sensuality" and is a comprehensive term for evil and perversion. Specifically, sexual licentiousness is implied. As it is used here, its meaning may include a scoffer's insolence.

9 Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.
10 But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.
11 Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core.
12 These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;
13 Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.
14 And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints,
15 To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.
16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons in admiration because of advantage.

Keep Yourselves in God's Love

17 But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ;
18 How that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.
19 These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit.
20 But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost,
21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.
22 And of some have compassion, making a difference:
23 And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.
24 Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy,
25 To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

9 Lord

(Gr. kyrios) (Matt. 1:20; Luke 6:46; John 20:28; Acts 9:5) G2962: In secular usage kyrios meant owner or master and was particularly used of slaveholders (as Eph. 6:5; Col. 4:1). It was also a common term of respectful address ("sir," John 12:21; see kyria, "lady," at 2 John 1—G2959). In the Septuagint, kyrios translates the Hebrew 'Adonai, Lord, and also stands for the personal name of God, Yahweh. The word is used of both God and Christ within the New Testament as a designation of deity (sometimes the specific reference is unclear, as in Acts 9:31). It is not always possible in the Gospels to know how a speaker intends the word as an address for Jesus. It sometimes clearly means "Lord" (John 20:28), sometimes clearly means "sir" (John 4:11), and other times is ambiguous (Matt. 8:2; cf. Acts 9:5).

11 error

(Gr. planē) (Rom. 1:27; Eph. 4:14; 2 Thess. 2:11; 2 Pet. 2:18) G4106: Originally this word meant "a wandering," which is the origin of the English word planet. It denotes straying or being led astray from the right path. It implies being purposely led away from right morals or doctrine, by deception or intentional trickery. Indeed, in many cases this word is translated "deceit." The root word is planos (G4108), "deceiving."

15 ungodly ▸ see Rom. 11:26.
19 sensual ▸ see 1 Cor. 15:46.

24 able

(Gr. dynamai) (Matt. 3:9; 7:18; John 14:17; 2 Cor. 1:4) G1410: This word for "to be able" is full of power. It is the root of our word dynamite, and it implies having both the inherent strength or ability to do something and the willingness or disposition to do it. Uses in Scripture are varied, and include being able to do something by virtue of: one's own abilities or resources (Eph. 6:11), a state of mind (Heb. 4:15), favorable circumstances (2 Cor. 1:4), or permission of law or custom (1 Cor. 12:3).

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST

JUST AS GENESIS IS THE book of beginnings, Revelation is the book of consummation. In it, the divine program of redemption is brought to fruition, and the holy name of God is vindicated before all creation. Although there are numerous prophecies in the Gospels and Epistles, Revelation is the only New Testament book that focuses primarily on prophetic events. Its title means "unveiling" or "disclosure." Thus, the book is an unveiling of the character and program of God. Penned by John during his exile on the island of Patmos, Revelation centers around visions and symbols of the resurrected Christ, who alone has authority to judge the earth, to remake it, and to rule it in righteousness.

The title of this book in the Greek text is Apokalypsis Ioannou, "Revelation of John." It is also known as the Apocalypse, a transliteration of the word apokalypsis, meaning "unveiling," "disclosure," or "revelation." Thus, the book is an unveiling of that which otherwise could not be known. A better title comes from the first verse: Apokalypsis Iesou Christou, "Revelation of Jesus Christ." This could be taken as a revelation which came from Christ or as a revelation which is about Christ—both are appropriate. Because of the unified contents of this book, it should not be called Revelations.

WATCH WORDS

- revelation (a disclosure of what has been previously hidden)—1:1
- seven (a number representing completeness)—5:6 (also 1:20; 4:5; 5:5; 8:2; 10:3; 16:1)
- Lamb (Jesus Christ, the perfect sacrifice for sin)—6:1 (also 5:6, 12; 7:10)
- wrath (God's anger directed against sin)—14:10 (also 6:16)
- blessed (having received special favor from God)—22:7

Greeting to the Seven Churches

1 The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:

2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

3 Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

4 JOHN to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne;

5 And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful

1:1 revelation

(Gr. apokalypsis) (Luke 2:32; Rom. 8:19; 16:25; Gal. 1:12) G0602: Using the root words apo (G0575), "from, away," and kalypto (G2572), "covering, veil," this word means "an uncovering, revelation, disclosure, laying bare." It is implied that what is being disclosed was previously hidden. In the New Testament this word is typically used of spiritual things, such as visions (2 Cor. 12:1), spiritual truth (Luke 2:32), or eschatological events (Rom. 8:19; 2 Thess. 1:7; 1 Pet. 1:13). In these cases what is revealed could be known only through supernatural disclosure. The entire Bible is God's progressive revelation of who He is and how He is saving His people, and the Book of Revelation focuses on His final revelation when He returns to establish His eternal kingdom.

witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, 6 And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.
7 Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.
8 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

The Alpha and Omega

9 I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.
10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, 11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.

The First and the Last

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks;
13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.
14 His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire;
15 And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.
16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.
17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last:
18 I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death.

1:5 witness

(Gr. martys) (Matt. 18:16; Acts 1:8; 1 Tim. 6:12; Heb. 12:1) G3144: Transliterated almost directly into English as martyr, this word describes someone who testifies to the truth he has experienced. This type of witness has direct knowledge of something and can offer information about it. Legally this is someone who saw something firsthand and testifies about it in court. The word itself does not imply death, although because so many first-century witnesses of the gospel were killed, it became associated with the death penalty. Believers are called to witness to the truth about Jesus that they have known and experienced through the grace of God (Acts 1:8).

1:10 Lord's

(Gr. kyriakos) (1 Cor. 11:20) G2960: The Greek word kyriakos is derived from the word kyrios (G2962), meaning "belonging to the Lord." The word therefore designates something as particularly belonging to or pertaining to the Lord. Here it refers to Sunday as the Lord's Day. It is used in 1 Corinthians 11:20 to describe the Lord's Supper as the central act of Christian worship.

1:15 fine brass

(Gr. chalkolibanon) (Rev. 2:18) G5474: The Greek word chalkolibanon represents the name of a metal or an alloy. Since the word does not occur outside of the Book of Revelation (here and Rev. 2:18), it is impossible to know exactly what type of metal is being described, but the context suggests something like fine brass. Other suggested translations are gold ore or bronze.

19 Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter;
20 The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches.

The Church in Ephesus

2 Unto the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;
2 I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:
3 And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.
4 Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.
5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.
6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitanes, which I also hate.
7 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

The Church in Smyrna

8 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive;
9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.
10 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.
11 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death.

a threefold way: physical, spiritual, and eternal. The ancient Hebrews regarded physical death as entrance into Sheol, where they were cut off from everything dear in life, including God and loved ones. Because "all have sinned and come short of the glory of God" (Rom. 3:23), all people are spiritually dead—separated from God who is the Source of spiritual life (Luke 15:32; Eph. 2:1–3; Col. 2:13). The Bible also speaks of "the second death" (Rev. 2:11), which is eternal death, the everlasting separation of the lost from God in hell (Rev. 20:14; 21:8). In His resurrection, Jesus conquered death—physical, spiritual, and eternal. Through fear of death, people are subject to bondage (Heb. 2:15); but "our Saviour Jesus Christ . . . hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel" (2 Tim. 1:10).

2:7 overcome

(Gr. nikaō) (John 16:33; Rom. 12:21; Rev. 2:26; 3:5) G3528: A word meaning to gain victory or get beyond. It is used by Jesus to set the standard of life for believers in John 16:33: "These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." Here and six more times in Revelation, Jesus urges believers and churches to remain faithful to the end. Overcoming is the ultimate demonstration of the reality of one's faith in Christ and the way to His promised rewards.

2:7 paradise ▸ see Luke 23:43.

2:9 poverty

(Gr. ptōcheia) (2 Cor. 8:2, 9) G4432: This word for indigence or poverty is used three times in the New Testament. The root word means "to cower," describing the posture of a beggar. It refers to someone who is destitute and in affliction. Second Corinthians 8:9 tells us that Jesus willingly took on this plight—in every sense of the word, both literally and figuratively—to save us: "For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich."

The Church in Pergamos

12 And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith he which hath the sharp sword with two edges;
13 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.
14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.
15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate.
16 Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.
17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

The Church in Thyatira

18 And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;
19 I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first.
20 Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.
21 And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not.
22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.
23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.
24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; I will put upon you none other burden.
25 But that which ye have already hold fast till I come.
26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:
27 And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.
28 And I will give him the morning star.
29 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

The Church in Sardis

3 And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead.
2 Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.
3 Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

2:23 heart

(Gr. kardia) (Matt. 6:21; Luke 2:19; Rom. 2:15; 2 Cor. 4:6) G2588: The original form of this word means "to quiver" or "to palpitate," denoting the action of the heart muscle. Our word cardiac has its origins here. This word refers specifically to the heart organ but more generally to the center of life and the seat of thoughts, morality, and emotion. Kardia makes no separation between the physical body and the soul—both are encapsulated in one word. All the actions of one's inner life take place in the heart, including personality, mental activity, feelings, understanding, and will. The Lord sees the thoughts and intentions of the heart, and He dwells within our hearts through faith.

4 Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.
5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.
6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

The Church in Philadelphia

7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth;
8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.
9 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.
10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.
11 Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.
12 Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.
13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

The Church in Laodicea

14 And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God;
15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.
16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.
17 Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:
18 I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.
19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.
20 Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.
21 To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.
22 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

3:5 blot out

(Gr. exaleiphō) (Acts 3:19; Col. 2:14; Rev. 7:17; 21:4) G1813: The Greek verb exaleiphō means "to wipe away," "erase," "remove," or "obliterate." In Revelation 7:17 and 21:4, tears are wiped away as a metaphor for the end of human sorrow. Elsewhere in the New Testament, its usage reflects the practice of blotting out or erasing writing in legal documents to end their effects. Such "wiping out" is applied to our sins (as recorded against us; Acts 3:19), names in the Lamb's Book of Life (here in Rev. 3:5), and the signed bill of indebtedness to God for sin (Col. 2:14).

hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.
2 And immediately I was in the spirit: and, behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.
3 And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.
4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.
5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.
6 And before the throne there was a sea of glass like unto crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before and behind.
7 And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.
8 And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.
9 And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever,
10 The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,
11 Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

The Book Sealed with Seven Seals

5 And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals.
2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?
3 And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.
4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.
5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.
6 And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven

4:6 beast

(Gr. zōon) (Heb. 13:11; Rev. 5:6; 6:1; 14:3) G2226: The Greek noun zōon is derived from the verb zaō, "live," thus meaning living thing or creature. The normal use of the word in Hellenistic Greek was to refer to animals (Heb. 13:11; 2 Pet. 2:12). Here in Revelation 4:6 and throughout Revelation the "beasts" (from zōon) are neither genuinely animals nor human but special beings who stand before God's throne to glorify Him (reminiscent of the cherubim in Ezek. 1:5). See the near synonym thērion (G2342), "wild beast," at Revelation 6:8.

4:8 eye

(Gr. ophthalmos) (Matt. 5:29; 7:3; Rev. 1:7, 14; 2:18; 3:18) G3788: This term is the source for ophthalmology, treating matters concerning vision and the eyes. Usually referring to the physical organ of sight, the word can also represent outlook or attitude (Matt. 6:22, 23; Rom. 3:18). Paul uses the eye to represent one of the members of the body of Christ which must acknowledge both its role and dependence on others (1 Cor. 12:16, 17, 21). Here and in Revelation 4:6, the picture is of multiple eyes, but the implication is that nothing escapes their sight.

Revelation there are seven churches (Rev. 1:20), seven Spirits of God (Rev. 4:5), seven seals (Rev. 5:5), seven trumpets (Rev. 8:2), seven thunders (Rev. 10:3), and seven bowls (Rev. 16:1). The phrase "seven Spirits of God" depicts the sevenfold energy of the Holy Spirit, His perfect, complete, and universal energy. The Spirit of God is one in His essence but numerous in His gracious influences.

5:9 redeem

(Gr. agorazō) (Matt. 13:44; 1 Cor. 6:20; 2 Pet. 2:1; Rev. 13:17) G0059: Frequently used in the New Testament, this verb means "buy, purchase." It may be used literally for buying merchandise of any kind, as a field (Matt. 13:44) or food (Mark 6:37). More interesting is the figurative use represented here in Revelation 5:9, probably based on the analogy with the slave market. Jesus Christ has purchased or redeemed people from enslavement to sin by the blood of His Cross and made them to belong to God (1 Cor. 6:20; 2 Pet. 2:1). See the related noun agora (G0058) at Acts 16:19.

5:12 Lamb ▸ see Rev. 6:1.

5:13 creature

(Gr. ktisma) (1 Tim. 4:4; James 1:18; Rev. 8:9) G2938: This word refers to a created thing, an original formulation by the creator. The root word is ktizō (G2936), "to create, to build." Extrabiblical sources use this word to describe founding a town, building it, and colonizing it. God the Creator called each individual part of creation into existence, and each exists to glorify Him. Most of all, believers are to glorify Him, for "of his own will begat he us by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures" (James 1:18).

6:1 Lamb

(Gr. arnion) (John 21:15; Rev. 5:6, 12; 7:10) G0721: In literal use this word means "little lamb." In the New Testament it is used in two ways. Lambs are a metaphor for God's people—His little, defenseless lambs who are loved by the Great Shepherd and are tended to by shepherds of the church (John 21:15). The other 29 uses of this word occur in the Book of Revelation and refer to the Lamb of God—Jesus Christ the perfect sacrifice for sin. Arnion is contrasted with the Beast—a savage and cruel force of evil bent on destruction. Jesus the exalted Lamb is good, gentle, compassionate, and innocent.

that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

The Third Seal Opened

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.
6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

The Fourth Seal Opened

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.
8 And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

The Fifth Seal Opened

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held:
10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?
11 And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

The Sixth Seal Opened

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;
13 And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.
14 And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places.
15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;
16 And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:
17 For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?

Twelve Thousand Sealed from Each Tribe

6:8 beast

(Gr. thērion) (Mark 1:13; Titus 1:12; Heb. 12:20; Rev. 13:1) G2342: The Greek word thērion usually means wild animal or beast (as Heb. 12:20) or more specifically four-legged animals (as James 3:7), especially dangerous ones (as here in Rev. 6:8). The word is also applied to the visionary "beasts" John sees later in Revelation that represent the two anti-Christian, evil powers (Rev. 13:1, 11), especially "the beast" who is the personification of Satan (Rev. 14:9; 20:10). While the near synonym zōon (G2226) emphasizes the element of life, thērion emphasizes the bestial nature, making it a better word to represent evil. Mark 1:13 does not mean Jesus was living in direct contact with wild animals but emphasizes His separation from human society.

6:15 free

(Gr. eleutheros) (John 8:36; Rom. 6:20; Gal. 4:31; Col. 3:11) G1658: The opposite of someone who is a slave, eleutheros means "free born." This person is free from obligation and control. The root word is eleuthomai, "to come, go." Here the word refers to social designations of slaves and free men, denoting that every class of society is hiding from God's wrath. Elsewhere in Scripture this word is usually used to describe the freedom believers have in Christ, for we are no longer bound by the law because Jesus fulfilled the law on our behalf.

3 Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads.
4 And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.
5 Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.
6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nephthalim were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

A Multitude in White Robes

9 After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;
10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.
11 And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God,
12 Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.
13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?
14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.
15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them.
16 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.
17 For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them

7:3 seal

(Gr. sphragizō) (Matt. 27:66; John 3:33; 6:27; 2 Cor. 1:22; Eph. 1:13) G4972: As is clear in this context, a seal is more like that of a notary public than a sealing of an envelope, in that it signifies a mark of identification or authentication. The word sphragizō was commonly used of the "impression" of an official's signet ring made in wax. The legal custom led to a variety of specific nuances for the term: protection (as here), secrecy (Rev. 10:4), official security (Matt. 27:66), and attestation (John 3:33). The Holy Spirit's indwelling serves to officially identify and certify the believer as God's child (2 Cor. 1:22; Eph. 1:13; 4:30).

7:11 fall

(Gr. piptō) (Matt. 2:11; John 11:32; Acts 10:25; Rev. 4:10; 5:8) G4098: Though the word means to collapse or tip over, it is used almost exclusively in the New Testament to indicate falling prostrate or kneeling. It pictures quickly adopting a posture of humility and worship. Acts 15:16 and Hebrews 11:30 refer to structures falling down, and Acts 20:9 describes the fall of a sleeping young man out a third-story window. Here and throughout Revelation, the word pictures the wholehearted worship by those who are in God's presence, leading to the point all will fall in worship before God.

7:14 tribulation ▸ see John 16:33.

7:14 wash

(Gr. plynō) G4150: Found only here and a variant reading of Revelation 22:14, this term has the effect of plunging. A parallel for this idea is found in Isaiah 1:18: "Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool" (see also Zech. 3:3–5). In a stunning picture of cleansing and forgiveness, dirty robes are washed in the blood of the Lamb and come out white.

The Seventh Seal Opened

8 And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.
2 And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets.

An Angel Offers Incense

3 And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne.
4 And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.
5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake.
6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

The First Trumpet

7 The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

The Second Trumpet

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood;
9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

The Third Trumpet

10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters;
11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

The Fourth Trumpet

12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.
13 And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabiters of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!

The Fifth Trumpet

9 And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth:

8:3 throne

(Gr. thronos) (Matt. 5:34; 19:28; Acts 2:30; Col. 1:16; Rev. 1:4; 3:21) G2362: Our word is simply a transliteration of Greek, indicating the seating place of royalty or important people. From an Old Testament view, all thrones derive their power from God's ultimate sovereignty and permission (Ps. 47:7) as King over all. Thrones are mentioned more than 35 times in Revelation, all except 2:13 and 13:2 (Satan's limited and temporary throne) referring to God's rightful reign. Revelation 22:1–3 closes the book with a picture of the river of life flowing from God's seat of power shared with the Lamb.

8:5 earthquake

(Gr. seismos) (Matt. 24:7; 27:54; 28:2; Acts 16:26; Rev. 6:12; 11:13) G4578: All things seismic get their identity from this Greek word. The original means "shaking," an apt description of familiar events in the ancient world. There was an earthquake at Jesus' death and another that accompanied His resurrection. Paul's prison in Philippi was cracked open by a seismic event. The visions of end times shared by Jesus in the Gospels and John in Revelation have earthquakes as a prominent feature of this age and this earth coming to a conclusion.

and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.
2 And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.
3 And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.
4 And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads.
5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.
6 And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.
7 And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.
8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.
9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.
10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months.
11 And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.
12 One woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

The Sixth Trumpet

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,
14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates.
15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.
16 And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them.
17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone.
18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.
19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.
20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:
21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

9:1 bottomless pit

(Gr. abyssos) (Luke 8:31; Rom. 10:7; Rev. 11:7; 20:3) G0012: The noun means "depths, underworld." It is derived from the a- intensive prefix (G0001) and the Ionic form of bythos (G1037), "depth," thus meaning a bottomless pit. The word is used to designate the realm of the dead (Rom. 10:7, paraphrasing Deut. 30:12). Most often in the New Testament it designates the dwelling place of evil supernatural beings, such as demons (here in Rev. 9:1; cf. Luke 8:31), Satan (Rev. 20:3), the "beast" (Rev. 11:7), and Abaddon who rules over the underworld (Rev. 9:11).

An Angel and Seven Thunders

10 And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire:
2 And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,
3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices.
4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.
5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven,
6 And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer:
7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

The Sweet and Bitter Book

8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.
9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.
10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.
11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

The Prophecy of the Two Witnesses

11 And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.
2 But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months.

10:3 lion

(Gr. leōn) (2 Tim. 4:17; Heb. 11:33; Rev. 4:7) G3023: Lions were the most feared carnivores of ancient Palestine, but in the New Testament were more often a symbol of victory (Rev. 9:17), of destructive wickedness—as exemplified in the devil (1 Pet. 5:8), or of great power, as evidenced in Christ (Rev. 5:5). The Old Testament prophecies of lions acting peacefully (Is. 11:6, 7) are, curiously, not repeated in the New Testament.

10:4 utter ▸ see 1 Cor. 14:2.
10:9 honey ▸ see Rev. 10:10.

10:10 honey

(Gr. meli) (Matt. 3:4; Mark 1:6; Rev. 10:9) G3192: A Greek noun used only four times in the New Testament, this refers to the sweet sticky substance produced by bees from floral sources. Since honey was regarded as both a delicacy and a delight, wise King Solomon warned against overindulgence (Prov. 25:16, 27). Honey was a staple in the austere diet of John the Baptist (Mark 1:6). Here and elsewhere the word is used metaphorically to suggest something desirable (cf. Ps. 19:10).

11:2 holy

(Gr. hagios) (Matt. 1:18; John 17:11; Acts 4:27; 1 Pet. 1:16) G0040: The fundamental idea of the Greek word hagios is "separation," and thus, "to be consecrated and dedicated to God and to His service." It may describe both things (the "holy city" here; the temple as the "holy place," Matt. 24:15) or people. Christians are to be dedicated to God and thus holy (1 Pet. 1:16). Describing deity, it is used of the Holy Spirit (Matt 1:18), Holy Father (John 17:11), and of the holy Servant Jesus (Acts 4:27). The word also occurs as a noun. In the masculine singular it designates God (1 John 2:20) or Christ (Mark 1:24) as the Holy One. The plural hagioi is used for Christians as saints (Phil. 1:1). The neuter form to hagion is used of the sanctuary (Heb. 9:1) and of sacrificial meat (Matt. 7:6).

3 And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.
4 These are the two olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.
5 And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.
6 These have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

The Beast of the Bottomless Pit

7 And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.
8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.
9 And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.
10 And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.
11 And after three days and an half the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.
12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them.
13 And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.
14 The second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly.

The Seventh Trumpet

15 And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.
16 And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God,
17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned.
18 And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the

11:8 spiritually

(Gr. pneumatikōs) (1 Cor. 2:14) G4153: This form of the word is used only twice in Scripture, but its root word pneuma, "spirit," is much more common. This adverb refers to the symbolic or spiritual aspect of something. First Corinthians 2:14 uses this word to differentiate between natural reasoning and spiritual reasoning, asserting that spiritual truth can only be discerned through the help of the Holy Spirit. Here the word is used to denote the spiritual perversity and rebellion of Jerusalem. Symbolically, Jerusalem is a type of Sodom and Egypt.

(Gr. pantokratōr) (2 Cor. 6:18; Rev. 4:8; 15:3; 16:7; 19:6; 21:22) G3841: The Greek word means "one who has power over everything"—in other words, the One in total control. God commands all the hosts of powers in heaven and earth, and He is able to overcome all His foes. The title Almighty occurs often in Revelation as this book unveils God's awesome control over all the universe and throughout all history.

The Woman with Child

12 And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:
2 And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.
3 And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.
4 And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.
5 And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.
6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

War Against the Dragon

7 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,
8 And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.
9 And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.
10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.
11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.
12 Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

slave. It is derived from the verb deō (G1210), "bind," and is frequently used of literal servitude, especially in the Gospels. The word is commonly used to express metaphorically that one's will is determined by some other person or thing whom or which one serves, such as Christ (Jude 1), God (Titus 1:1), sin (Rom. 6:17), or corruption (2 Pet. 2:19).

12:9 deceive

(Gr. planaō) (Matt. 18:12; 24:24; Heb. 5:2; 2 Pet. 2:15) G4105: The Greek verb planaō means to lead astray, implying the misleading of another, causing someone to wander or err from the truth (cf. James 5:19). Here in Revelation 12:9 Satan is the one who has led the world astray. The passive means "go astray, wander, err, be misled" and can be literal (as Matt. 18:12, of straying sheep) or figurative (as 2 Pet. 2:15). The idea of an agent of deception may be present (as Matt. 24:24) or may not (as Heb. 5:2). The related noun planē (G4106) means "wandering, error, deception." The unbeliever lives in such error (Rom 1:27; Eph. 4:14).

up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.
17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

The Beast of the Sea

13 And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.
2 And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.
3 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast.
4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?
5 And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months.
6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.
7 And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.
8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.
9 If any man have an ear, let him hear.
10 He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

The Beast of the Earth

11 And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.
12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.
13 And he doeth great wonders, so that he

12:17 be wroth

(Gr. orgizō) (Matt. 5:22; Luke 14:21; Eph. 4:26; Rev. 11:18) G3710: This word describes fierce and overpowering rage, a furious passion that desires revenge. The logical end of these intense feelings is murder. In the New Testament this word is used passively, "to be provoked to anger." Jesus taught in the Sermon on the Mount that "whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment" (Matt. 5:22).

13:1 sea

(Gr. thalassa) (Matt. 4:18; Luke 17:2; John 6:18) G2281: The word is used in connection with specific bodies of water—the Sea of Galilee (Mark 1:16), the Red Sea (Heb. 11:29), and the Mediterranean Sea (Acts 27:30). Throughout the Bible, the word also has a symbolic connotation, referring to those restless, rebellious forces that are opposed to the plan and people of God and that God will subdue (Matt. 8:24). When John announces in Revelation 21:1 that "there was no more sea," it is a declaration of God's ultimate victory over all His unseen enemies.

13:6 blasphemy

(Gr. blasphēmia) (Matt. 12:31; Mark 3:28; Luke 12:10) G0988: Blasphemy is the act of cursing, slandering, reviling, or showing contempt or lack of reverence for God. In the Old Testament, blaspheming God was a serious crime punishable by death (Lev. 24:15, 16). It was a violation of the third Commandment, which required that the name and reputation of the Lord be upheld (Ex. 20:7). The unbelieving Jews of Jesus' day charged Him with blasphemy because they thought of Him only as a man while He claimed to be God's Son (Matt. 9:3). Actually, the lawlessness of the Jews themselves was causing God's name to be blasphemed among the Gentiles (Rom. 2:24). By their bitter opposition to Jesus and His gospel, they themselves were guilty of blasphemy (Acts 18:6). Jesus condemned as blasphemy their attributing the work of the Holy Spirit to Satan (Matt. 12:31, 32). Christians are commanded to avoid behavior that blasphemes the Lord's name and teaching (1 Tim. 6:1).

maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men, 14 And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.
15 And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.
16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:
17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.
18 Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.

The Redeemed with the Lamb

14 And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads.
2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps:
3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.
4 These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.
5 And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God.

The Angels' Messages

6 And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,
7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.
8 And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.
9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,
10 The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:
11 And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

14:10 wrath

(Gr. orgē) (John 3:36; Rom. 1:18; 5:9; Eph. 2:3; Rev. 6:16) G3709: God's wrath is His holy indignation—His anger directed against sin. The Bible declares that all people are "by nature the children of wrath" (Eph. 2:3) and that "the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness" (Rom. 1:18). Since Christians have been "justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him" (Rom. 5:9). The magnitude of God's love is manifested in the Cross, where God's only Son experienced wrath on our behalf. "The day of the LORD's wrath" (Zeph. 1:18) is identical with "the great day of the LORD" (Zeph. 1:14). These terms refer to "the wrath of the Lamb" (Rev. 6:16), Jesus Christ, that will fall on the ungodly at His Second Coming.

14:11 torment ▸ see Rev. 18:7.

12 Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.
13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

The Ripe Harvest

14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.
15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe.
16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.
17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.
18 And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.
19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great winepress of the wrath of God.
20 And the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

The Seven Last Plagues

15 And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels having the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath of God.
2 And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.
3 And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.
4 Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

The Tabernacle of the Testimony

5 And after that I looked, and, behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:
6 And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.
7 And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever.

14:20 furlong

(Gr. stadion) (Luke 24:13; John 11:18; 1 Cor. 9:24; Rev. 21:16) G4712: This noun means a stade, a measure of distance equal to about 200 yards or 185 meters (Luke 24:13). It was the length of the running course at Mount Olympia, and the word came to be used for the arena or stadium where footraces and other athletic events were held. The emphasis of the word, however, was always on the competition itself and not on the physical structure. Thus, Paul uses the metaphor in 1 Corinthians 9:24 of the Christian life as running in a race.

15:1 marvellous ▸ see Rev. 15:3.

15:3 marvellous

(Gr. thaumastos) (Matt. 21:42; John 9:30; 1 Pet. 2:9; Rev. 15:1) G2298: This adjective means wonderful, excellent, or worthy of reverent admiration. It is primarily attached to references to the miraculous power or nature of God. It stems from a verb that means to be amazed or awestruck (thaumazō, G2296, Matt. 9:8; Acts 7:31). Jesus did such astonishing works (Matt. 21:15) that even His enemies had to acknowledge their remarkable nature. Such wonder is negative when it is descriptive of Jesus marveling at human unbelief (Mark 6:6).

8 And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

The Seven Vials of God's Wrath

16 And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

The First Vial

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.

The Second Vial

3 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea.

The Third Vial

4 And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus.

6 For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgments.

The Fourth Vial

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory.

The Fifth Vial

10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

11 And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

The Sixth Vial

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.

15 Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

16 And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.

The Seventh Vial

17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done.

18 And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon

16:1 wrath

(Gr. thymos) (Gal. 5:20; Eph. 4:31; Heb. 11:27; Rev. 12:12; 14:8) G2372: Compared with the near synonym orgē (G3709), "anger," the Greek word thymos, "wrath," stresses more the various manifestations of anger. Thymos implies the underlying and abiding passion involved in wrath. Both words can be used of the holy and just wrath or anger of God against wickedness, which is the basis for judgment of sinners (as here and elsewhere in Revelation). The word is also used for the wrath of Satan (Rev. 12:12) and of men (Heb. 11:27). The plural in 2 Corinthians 12:20 and Galatians 5:20 probably refers to particular outbursts of wrath. The related verb thymoō (G2373) means "to make angry" or, in the passive voice, "to become angry" (only in Matt. 2:16).

the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.
19 And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.
20 And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.
21 And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

The Woman and the Scarlet Beast

17 And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters:
2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.
3 So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.
4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:
5 And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.
6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

The Mystery of the Woman and the Beast

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.
8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.
9 And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.
10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.
11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.
12 And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.
13 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.
14 These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.
15 And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

17:2 commit fornication

(Gr. porneuō) (1 Cor. 6:18; Rev. 2:14; 18:3) G4203: In general, this is the verb for engaging in sexual immorality (i.e., any sexual activity except that between a husband and wife). It is God's declared will for those who name the name of Christ to abstain from all such immoral behavior (1 Thess. 4:3). The Bible (especially the Old Testament prophets) compares idolatry (i.e., spiritual unfaithfulness to God by His covenant people) to marital unfaithfulness/fornication (Hos. 4:12).

17:6 admiration

(Gr. thauma) (2 Cor. 11:14) G2295: In 2 Corinthians 11:14 the word thaumastos (G2298) more generally refers to an object or idea that causes wonder; here in Revelation 17:6 it refers to the wonder or amazement itself. The related verb thaumazō (G2296), meaning "wonder, marvel, be amazed," occurs often.

17:11 perdition ▸ see Matt. 7:13.

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.
17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled.
18 And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kingdoms of the earth.

Babylon Is Fallen

18 And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.
2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.
3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

Babylon's Iniquities

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.
5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.
6 Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double.
7 How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.
8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

Babylon's Destruction

9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,
10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.
11 And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:
12 The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,
13 And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men.
14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.
15 The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,
16 And saying, Alas, alas that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!
17 For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, 18 And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city!

18:7 torment

(Gr. basanismos) (Rev. 9:5; 14:11; 18:10) G0929: This noun, found only in Revelation, means agony—the torment that comes from torture. The verb form, basanizō (G0928), is used in Matthew 14:24 to speak of a boat being battered by the waves, and in Mark 6:48 of the disciples straining to row in such conditions. In the Gospels, evil spirits beg Jesus not to torment them (Mark 5:7), presumably in a non-physical way.

18:10 torment ▸ see Rev. 18:7.
18:10 judgment ▸ see John 3:19.

19 And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.
20 Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her.

Babylon Will Be Thrown Down

21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.
22 And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee;
23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.
24 And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.

The Judgment of the Great Whore

19 And after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia; Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God:
2 For true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.
3 And again they said, Alleluia. And her smoke rose up for ever and ever.

The Elders and the Four Beasts

4 And the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen; Alleluia.
5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.
6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.
7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.
8 And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

The Marriage Supper of the Lamb

9 And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.
10 And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

18:19 dust

(Gr. chous) (Mark 6:11) G5522: This noun appears only here and in Mark 6:11. The derivative word, choïkos (G5517), which means "made of dust or soil," is used to refer to the creation of Adam—his physical make-up (1 Cor. 15:47). Because of Adam's imputed sin, all men are now destined to die and return to dust after this fleeting life (Gen. 3:19; Job 34:15; Eccl. 3:20). However, the promise of the gospel message is that just as God originally breathed life into Adam and he "became a living soul" (Gen. 2:7), so the Holy Spirit can breathe new life into sinners so that they are "quickened" (Eph. 2:1) or "born again" (John 3:3).

19:1 alleluia

(Gr. allēlouia) (Rev. 19:3, 6) G0239: This word is a transliteration of the Hebrew hallu yah, meaning "praise Yah" (Yah being the poetic form for Yahweh). Since Greek manuscripts added accents where the initial "h" sound occurs, it is likely that even in Greek allēlouia was originally pronounced "hallēlouia," at least by Hebrew Christians. The spelling alleluia found in many hymns is the Latin spelling.

The Righteous Judge

11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.
12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself.
13 And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God.
14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.
15 And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.
16 And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.
17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;
18 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

The Capture of the Beast

19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.
20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.
21 And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.

Satan Bound for a Thousand Years

20 And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.
2 And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years,
3 And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.
4 And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the

19:12 crown

(Gr. diadēma) (Rev. 12:3; 13:1) G1238: A compound of dia (G1223), "by, through," and deō (G1210), "bind," this word originally referred to the band that a king wore to bind his turban around his head. It was a sign and symbol of sovereign authority. In this case, Christ has many crowns because He is King over all things. This is contrasted with the seven crowns (one per head) of the dragon in Revelation 12:3.

19:15 sword

(Gr. rhomphaia) (Luke 2:35; Rev. 1:16; 2:12) G4501: The Greek word rhomphaia refers to a large, broad Thracian sword or spear. The rhomphaia is generally distinguished from the makaira, a short sword or dagger, used both literally and symbolically in the New Testament. However, rhomphaia is used only in figurative contexts within the New Testament. In most instances in Revelation (including here at 19:15), it refers to an act of divine judgment. In Revelation 6:8 it describes deaths resulting from military conflict. The idiom "a sword shall pierce through thy own soul" in Luke 2:35 signifies deep personal anguish and sorrow.

20:3 bottomless pit ▸ see Rev. 9:1.

20:4 judgment

(Gr. krima) (Matt. 7:2; John 9:39; Rom. 2:3; 11:33) G2917: This legal term describes the process by which the accused is determined to be guilty or innocent. It primarily refers to the verdict itself and is the word from which we get the English word "crime." Judgments made by God and man are both referred to by this term. Men should be careful in their judgments against one another (Matt. 7:2; 1 Cor. 6:7; James 3:1). By contrast, God's judgments are perfect (Rom. 11:33), and He has the authority to render a verdict for all men at the final judgment (Rom. 2:3).

word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.
5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.
6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

The Lake of Fire and Brimstone

7 And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison,
8 And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.
9 And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.
10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

The Book of Life

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.
12 And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.
13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.
14 And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.
15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

A New Heaven and New Earth

21 And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.
2 And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

20:10 devil

(Gr. diabolos) (Matt. 4:1; Eph. 6:11; 1 Pet. 5:8) G1228: The Greek word diabolos means "slanderous" and is derived from the verb diaballō (G1225), "to throw across" or "to defame, slander." This use of the term is applied to both men and women in certain vice lists within the Pastoral Epistles (cf. 1 Tim. 3:11; 2 Tim. 3:3). Most New Testament examples of diabolos refer to Satan as the devil. In the Greek translation of the Old Testament, diabolos is used to translate the Hebrew word satan, adversary. Satan is the adversary and accuser of the brothers (Rev. 12:10–12) who is opposed to God and His plans. The Christian's defense against the devil is "the whole armour of God" (Eph. 6:10–17). Jesus calls Judas a diabolos because his betrayal of Jesus was motivated by Satan (cf. John 6:70; cf. John 13:2).

21:1 new ▸ see John 13:34.

21:1 heaven

(Gr. ouranos) (Matt. 3:16; Luke 16:17; Acts 7:56; 2 Pet. 3:10) G3772: Possibly derived from the word oros (G3735), meaning "mountain," this word refers to the regions above the earth. It means both the sky and the celestial bodies we can see and the otherworldly place where God dwells. It carries majestic and happy connotations, especially when contrasted with the place of the dead or hell. In biblical thought, heaven is a real place where God lives in glory along with His angels and where those who trust in Him will go when they die.

21:2 prepare

(Gr. hetoimazō) (Matt. 3:3; 22:4; John 14:2; 1 Cor. 2:9) G2090: Drawn from the Eastern custom of preparing the way for a king by having people go before him and level the road to allow for easier passage, this word means "to make ready, prepare, make arrangements." The most important uses in Scripture are more figurative than literal: to describe preparations made by John the Baptist

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.
4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.
5 And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

The Fountain of Life

6 And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.
7 He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.
8 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.
9 And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.
10 And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,
11 Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;
12 And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:
13 On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.
14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

The Golden Reed

15 And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.
16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.
17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.
18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.
19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;
20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolyte; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.
21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls;

21:11 light

(Gr. phōstēr) (Phil. 2:15) G5458: Used only twice in the New Testament, this word is derived from phōs (G5457), "light," the Greek word phōstēr means "light-bearing body" or "luminary" (see phōs at John 8:12). In Philippians 2:15, it is used figuratively of Christians as yielding light in the spiritual darkness of the world. Here in Revelation 21:11 it apparently has the sense of radiance, shining, and brightness, referring to the New Jerusalem as reflecting the glory of God. It is related to the verb phōtizō (G5461), to shine, give light, or illuminate (as Rev. 21:23; 22:5), enlighten (John 1:9; Heb. 6:4), bring to light, or reveal (1 Cor. 4:5; Eph. 3:9).

every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

The City's Light and Glory

22 And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.
23 And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.
24 And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.
25 And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.
26 And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.
27 And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

The Pure River of Life

22 And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.
2 In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.
3 And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him:
4 And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads.
5 And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.
6 And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

Jesus Will Come Quickly

7 Behold, I come quickly: blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.
8 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things.
9 Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.
10 And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand.
11 He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

22:2 tree

(Gr. xulon) (Acts 5:30; 1 Cor. 3:12; 1 Pet. 2:24; Rev. 2:7; 22:14) G3586: The noun can refer to a staff, a cross, or anything made of wood. Here in Revelation 22:2, the phrase is referring to the "tree of life," a tree that gives life—that is, eternal life (see John 20:31). This tree symbolizes the eternal life God has made available to humankind. The tree of life was present in the Garden of Eden, but its fruit was not eaten because Adam and Eve had fallen into sin (Gen. 2:9; 3:24). Jesus came to earth to restore humankind and to again offer them the tree of life (Rev. 2:7). Those who are in the new paradise, the New Jerusalem, will partake of the tree of life forever (Rev. 22:2).

22:7 blessed

(Gr. makarios) (Matt. 5:3; Luke 10:23; Acts 26:2; 1 Tim. 1:11) G3107: This adjective is typically translated "blessed," as here and in the Beatitudes of Matthew 5, expressing the religious nuance of the word in most of its New Testament occurrences. In contexts where a religious setting is not emphasized, some translators prefer "happy," "fortunate," perhaps "favored" (cf. Paul's considering himself "happy, favored" to defend himself before Agrippa in Acts 26:2). The word can also be used of God (1 Tim. 1:11; 6:15) and of impersonal things, such as the "eyes" of those who receive special favor from God (Matt. 13:16; Luke 10:23).

22:11 he that is unjust ▸ see Acts 25:10.

reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be.
13 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.
14 Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.
15 For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.
16 I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star.
17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

Come, Lord Jesus

18 For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:
19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.
20 He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.
21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

22:13 Omega

(Gr. Ō) (Rev. 1:8; 21:6) G5598: Alpha and omega are the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet. In every context this phrase is used, it is difficult to tell whether the title applies to the Father or to Christ or to both. Most likely it can be attributed to both. God in Christ comprises everything, all that goes between the Alpha and the Omega, as well as being the First and the Last. This expresses God's fullness, comprehensiveness, and all-inclusiveness. He is the Source of all things and will bring all things to their appointed end.

22:20 quickly

(Gr. tachu) (Matt. 28:7; Mark 16:8; Rev. 3:11; 22:7) G5035: This word means "soon, without delay, suddenly, or readily." In Scripture it is used to describe the women's haste to leave the empty tomb and tell the disciples what they had seen (Matt. 28:7; Mark 16:8). The Book of Revelation contains more than half of the word's 13 appearances in Scripture, all of them referring to Christ's imminent return.

22:20 amen

(Gr. amēn) (Matt. 6:13; John 5:24; Jude 25; Rev. 3:14) G0281: The Greek word amēn is actually just a transliteration of the Hebrew adverb 'amen, which means "truly." Following Old Testament usage, the Greek amēn also serves as an exclamation of response: to the promise of the coming Christ (as here in Rev. 22:20); to a prayer (Matt. 6:13); to a doxology (Rev. 1:6); to a blessing at the closing of a letter (Gal. 6:18; Jude 25). The response of affirmation in these cases could be translated, "So be it!" Two uses of amēn are unique to the New Testament. It is a title of Christ in Revelation 3:14. The other New Testament use is found in the Gospels where Jesus introduces His own sayings with either amēn (Matt. 5:18) or the double amēn amēn (John 5:24). Both stress the importance of His words and can be translated by "assuredly" or (the double) by "most assuredly."
